1. He represents the principle of good training in the home and an honorable heritage. Heritage is not always meaningful. There comes a time when it does. Every tub must stand on its own bottom and blood will tell.
2. He is said to be the son of Ish Chayil, the son of a man of power. A man of spiritual greatness. Jehoiada was a man of great spiritual power and heritage. Environment as a factor is a type of evil. What is key is Bible doctrine and discipline.
3. According to this context, he was appointed to the military peerage of David and appointed to the knights of the 2nd class. He could have been a chief priest, but he chose the military.
4. He was appointed to the honorable position of the commander of David's bodyguards. 1Chron. 18:17 and 3 other passages associate him with these two special groups. The Cherethites. These are Philistines, a whole battalion of Philistines, and not a Jew among them. Only their commander is Jewish. They almost conquered Egypt? They settled in Palestine. The Philistines admired a great soldier and many Philistines asked to join his army. After David became very wealthy, he then enlisted a battalion of Philistines. He enlisted a whole battalion of them. They were excellent soldiers. These are the sea-going Philistines. So they knew the seas, and they were David's cloaking army.
5. The Pelethites are the 2nd battalion; the land-type Philistines. They believed in Jesus Christ and they admired David. A good military man will utilize the best talents and will not constrain himself to one race. The Philistines did nothing but fight. They did not farming of their own, so they did raids at harvest time.

6. These 2 battalions formed a great brigade and there was no deserting no rebelling and they were one of the greatest brigades of guards of history. Napoleon's old guard, or the guard that Frederick placed around himself, the Welsh guards, the Scots guards, but David's is one of the most famous in history. Benaiah had to be tops in every way.
7. Benaiah was in command of the 3rd division.
8. When Adonijah revolted against Solomon, Benaiah became chief of staff in Joab's place. 1Kings 4:4 he was loyal to David in all of David's lifetime, even while David was dying. He is more responsible than any other man to get David's son Solomon to the throne.

There is something which ought to be added to this verse. He was a man who performed great deeds. It is doctrine in the soul that counts; not genes.

He is from Kabzeel. This is a city in the southern part of Judah in the negeb. Abishai would be called impetuous; and Benaiah would be titled as the greatest hand-to-hand expert of his day. He could kill the enemy in hand-to-hand combat with anything he could grab in order to kill with. He had tremendous nerve and courage. He had wonderful nerve and great courage. He could bring it into hand-to-hand combat. Doctrine in the soul made him a great man. 3 examples will be given.

2Sam. 23:20 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was a valiant man of Kabzeel, a doer of great deeds. He struck down two ariels of Moab. He also went down and struck down a lion in a pit on a day when snow had fallen.

He keeps saying 2Sam. 5. Recognition of the laws of divine establishment. 2 medal of honor recipients.

Reading the passage that has been covered.

2Sam. 23:8–19 These are the names of the mighty men whom David had: Josheb Basshebeth a Tahchemonite, chief of the captains; the same was Adino the Eznite, against eight hundred slain at one time. After him was Eleazar the son of Dodai the son of an Ahohite, one of the three mighty men with David, when they defied the Philistines who were there gathered together to battle, and the men of Israel were gone away. He arose, and struck the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand froze to the sword; and Yahweh worked a great victory that day; and the people returned after him only to take spoil. After him was Shammah the son of Agee a Hararite. The Philistines were gathered together into a troop, where was a plot of ground full of lentils; and the people fled from the Philistines. But he stood in the midst of the plot, and defended it, and killed the Philistines; and Yahweh worked a great victory. Three of the thirty chief men went down, and came to David in the harvest time to the cave of Adullam; and the troop of the Philistines was encamped in the valley of Rephaim. David was then in the stronghold; and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem. David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me water to drink of the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate! The three mighty men broke through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: but he would not drink of it, but poured it out [as a libation offering] to Yahweh. He said, Be it far from me, Yahweh, that I should do this: shall I drink the blood of the men who went in jeopardy of their lives? therefore he would not drink it. These things did the three mighty men. Now Abishai, the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief of the thirty. And [because] he wielded his spear against three hundred men and killed them and won a name beside the three. He was the most renowned of the thirty and became their commander [to them for a prince], but he did not attain to the three. He was the most renowned of the thirty and became their commander [to them for a prince], but he did not attain to the three.

2Sam. 23:20 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was a valiant man [a man of spiritual deeds] of Kabzeel, a doer of great deeds. He struck down two ariels of Moab. He also went down and struck down a lion in a pit on a day when snow had fallen.

Jehoiada was a chief priest.

Benaiah

1. The secret to the rearing of a child is discipline and training. His father did a fantastic job in training him. One of the few from the tribe of Levi to distinguish himself in military service. Jehoiada is one of the great parents. He came from a family where Bible doctrine was taught in the home and discipline was strict and fair.
2. Appointed to the military peerage of David.
3. David did something for him that he did for no one else. His great spiritual life added up to the honorable position to overseeing the personal guards of David. The Pelethites are Achaeans. The Spartans probably had the toughest training of anyone.
4. He commands the brigade of guards and one of David's divisions, the 3rd division.
5. During the Adonijah revolt Benaiah remained faithful to David and they put down the Adonijah. He was responsible for Solomon making it to the throne. Each man is characterized by something. The spear, the loner, etc. They all had distinctive personalities. The personality is meaningless; it is not as important as their proficiency.

Joab was a lot like MacArthur and the swordsman, Eleazar was a lot like Patton.

Benaiah

1. Each type of combat involved great proficiency.
2. There was great sacrificial training.
3. Benaiah kept working at this.
4. He illustrates greatness through stability.

5. He also illustrates of doctrine.
6. Great training and great self-discipline. Animals much more difficult to kill but he killed a lion in the cistern.
7. He fought against an unarmed assassin.
8. He waited; he did not panic.

2Sam. 23:21 And he struck down an Egyptian, a handsome man. The Egyptian had a spear in his hand, but Benaiah went down to him with a staff and snatched the spear out of the Egyptian's hand and killed him with his own spear.

2Sam. 23:22 These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and won a name beside the three mighty men.

All of these hand-to-hand combat situations required nerve and timing.

Leon Gray played guard on Arizona; he was a light heavyweight and he fought both heavyweight and light heavyweight.

His character was such that he did not have to act tough. He was a perfect gentleman. The man who runs the royal guard is a gentleman. Good manners makes a man much more a man; a loud-mouthed bullying jackass is never tough; Bob has never seen one who couldn't be wrecked. The proper treatment of ladies goes with being tough. He was a supergrace believer. He starts out great and ends up great. When Solomon is on the throne, Benaiah is still there and still great.

The great thing here is being honorable. That is being stable, a gentleman. He was more honorable than the 30.

2Sam. 23:23 He was renowned [kabab, honorable] among the thirty, but he did not attain to the three. And David set him over his bodyguard [brigade of guards].

Asahel received this honor posthumously. This was David's courtesy and thoughtfulness of others. Asahel died being a jackass. He was a fool.

Elhanan means God is gracious. All of these men received their promotions based upon grace. It is their attitude toward Bible doctrine.

2Sam. 23:24 Asahel the brother of Joab was one of the thirty; Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem,

These are the names of the knights that belong to David. And whatever was written in olden times, was written for our edification.

Two knights from the same hometown, Harod. They come from one of the sorriest, laziest tribes, all show and no go, Issachar. Issachar is an ass crouching between two burdens. He has the strength the lift them up but he does not.

2Sam. 23:26 Helez the Paltite, Ira the son of Ikkesh of Tekoa,

2Sam. 23:27 Abiezer of Anathoth, Mebunnai the Hushathite,

2Sam. 23:28 Zalmon the Ahohite, Maharai of Netophah,

There are Benjamites who supported David.

2Sam. 23:29 Heleb the son of Baanah of Netophah, Ittai the son of Ribai of Gibeah of the people of Benjamin,

2Sam. 23:30 Benaiah of Pirathon, Hiddai of the brooks of Gaash,

2Sam. 23:31 Abi-albon the Arbathite, Azmaveth of Bahurim,

2Sam. 23:32 Eliahba the Shaalbonite, the sons of Jashen, Jonathan,

2Sam. 23:33 Shammah the Hararite, Ahiam the son of Sharar the Hararite,

2Sam. 23:34 Eliphelet the son of Ahasbai of Maacah, Eliam the son of Ahithophel of Gilo,

2Sam. 23:35 Hezro of Carmel, Paarai the Arbite,

2Sam. 23:36 Igal the son of Nathan of Zobah, Bani the Gadite,

2Sam. 23:37 Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai of Beeroth, the armor-bearer of Joab the son of Zeruiah,

There are two Ithrites, and David made their parents millionaires.

2Sam. 23:38 Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,

Uriah was another gentile in David's army.

2Sam. 23:39 Uriah the Hittite: thirty-seven in all.

We Have a List like this Because....

1. This is how God reminds the human race and believers that He promotes the supergrace believer.
2. Therefore, David's supergrace promotion was their promotion.

3. The emergence of these heroes glorifies God.
4. They represent the concept of military victory provides freedom for a nation.
5. In presenting this list of heroes, the Bible honors the military as a great profession.
6. God honors faithfulness.
7. God's grace to one man means prosperity and blessing to many. The principle of the salt preservation.
8. The rise of great men stimulates the rise of other great men. The entire history of Alexander before his death is the history of the monarchies. Ptolemy. Cleopatra was a Greek; not an Egyptian; a descendant of Ptolemy.

We are not yet done with this chapter. There was a total of 37 in his peerage.

Joab the chief knight; 3 knights of the 1st class; knights of the 2nd class; and then 30 knights of the 3rd class.

01/03/1975 Qualifications for the knights

Sun Tsu wrote on this, as have many others. Leadership has been the a subject written about by many people in the past.

Psalm 15 lists 7 qualifications for davidic knighthood.

Planning or policy, it is God the Father; if it is energy or power, it is God the Holy Spirit; if it is the revealed member of the Trinity, it is God the Son.

There were 37 knights and what are the qualifications for these men? David seeks the advice of God the Father.

Psalm 15:1 A Psalm of David. O LORD, who shall sojourn [abide, dwell temporarily, as a stranger or as a guest] in your tent? Who shall dwell [permanently] on your holy hill?

The tent here is the military peerage. This is not the tent in the sense of the Tabernacle. This is just a large tent. We know that only the sons of Aaron dwell in the Tabernacle. These things are known.

Who is qualified to command? The holy mountain is the permanent station. We have recently used the horse guards, which is the headquarters for the British War Center, equivalent to the Pentagon. For David, this is the holy mountain or Zion. David is considering the problem of a military peerage here. Who is qualified to be a general officer in the field or someone being on general staff.

There will be 7 qualifications given. We do a lousy job with this. We have no idea how to figure out who ought to be promoted. David required that his knights be believers and that they be spiritually mature.

Tamiym means mature, complete. Doctrine and evil were here before we came and they will be here after we are gone. If you are changed by doctrine, but you cannot change doctrine. Doctrine is God's plan. You can be changed by evil, but you cannot change evil. Evil is Satan's plan.

Politicians are always trying to work on changing evil or they are functioning in evil.

None of the knights are politicians. We would expect the spiritual life to be the first consideration. We live in a very unstable time of life. Loyalty is the 2nd characteristic. It is a manifestation of capacity for life, Loyalty is one thing that David had.

Psalm 15:2 He who walks blamelessly and does [practices] what is right and speaking truth [doctrine] in his heart [right lobe];

3 phrases, all related to loyalty. A gossiping person is generally arrogant and has no stability. He tries, at the expense of others, promote himself. He is trying to ingratiate himself. Around a church, such types push a pseudo spirituality.

We will studying the doctrine of evil at some time in the future. He does not manufacture evil toward his friend.

Charpa means slander. He is loyal to his friends. He does not slander or put down a lover or a friend.

Psalm 15:3 who does not slander [gossip] with his tongue and does no [does not manufacture] evil to his neighbor [a lover, a category #3 friend], nor takes up [does he lift up] a reproach [slander] against his friend [someone with whom you are intimate];

Then we have divine viewpoint about social life. Evil is only part sin. It is also human good and religion and whatever is anti-doctrine.

Bob bumps into people all the time who miss Bible class for social life. They have a bad viewpoint. Bob does not believe that we ought to be out running around. Bible class must come first.

He honors those who have respect and fear for the Lord; this is occupation with Christ.

The knight must be spiritually mature. The knight must be loyal avoiding gossip and slander of friends. The knight must put Bible doctrine first, and social life second.

He had integrity of word. He is a man of his word. A man of integrity. He makes a solemn promise to a despicable person and does not go back on his word. Or perhaps he makes a promise that ends up working against him. He stays with his word.

Psalm 15:4 in whose eyes a vile person is despised [in his sight, a reprobate is rejected], but who honors those who fear the LORD; who swears [to take an oath 7 times; to make a solemn promise] to his own hurt and does not change;

3 characteristics in this verse. Freedom from cupidity and greed. Greed is an attitude and cupidity is the action. Is it legitimate to be in the loan business? Yes. So, what does this mean? Beshek means an exorbitant rate of interest; it is taking advantage of the person who needs the money and charges high interest. Money cannot be a source of dishonesty. You cannot do your job in the military if you have money problems hanging over your head.

Bob lost respect for a great general who simply left for more money.

Psalm 15:5 who does not put out [give] his money at interest and does not take a bribe against the innocent. He who does these things shall never be moved [shaken].

Bob has never known a medical doctor who is greedy for money. It takes them years to learn the things which they have learned. They went through very difficult years to learn these things. So, if you don't like what a surgeon charges you, find someone who is good with a knife and have them carve on you. People do not understand the sacrifice; the academic discipline. The only tragedy is, we are moving into an era of socialized medicine and it is an evil. It is just as evil as communism killing 20 million people in a year.

Taking a bribe is the sixth thing. He is incorruptible in the field of justice. Anyone who holds authority in the military must never be influenced by anything other than the facts of the case. Administration must be fair.

#7 is somewhat of a summary of these. He is not avaricious; he does not take a bribe; he remains stable.

O Jehovah, who will be a guest in your tent? Who is qualified on your holy mountain? The one waling in maturity and practicing integrity and pseaking doctrine with the right lobe. He does not gossip with his tongue, he does not...and will never go back on his word. He does not loan money at an exorbitant interest. He is a stable person.

The Characteristics of Knighthood

1. The knight must have spiritual maturity. He must maintain this status.
2. The knight must be loyal, avoiding gossip and slander.
3. The knight must possess divine viewpoint in social life, rejecting those influenced by evil and honoring those influenced by doctrine.
4. His word must be his bond.
5. The knight must be free from cupidity and greed.
6. He must be just and fair. His administration of justice must be free from corruption and bribery.
7. He must be stable, consistent, steadfast and incorruptible.

These things must be true of the knights of the 3rd class. This are a must for anyone that you marry. If your rm does not have these, then forget it. A woman can be a slob, but a man has to have this. Ladies can whine, bitch, lack character and a total idiot but have a great marriage because the man has these characteristics. If you are still single, put this on your list. If you hire people, these are characteristics that are a must.

These apply to hiring and firing. Most of your would like to have a friend. Maybe you are tired of reading. And Bob knows you are tired of television. These are necessary in a friend.

01/05/1975 Challenge to promotion; Philistine history

Bob has decided that only a man can choose his own tie, although that is not the illustration that he expected to make.

Too often you move ahead and suddenly, it is challenged. This event occurs between 1000 and 995 B.C.

Who are the Greek sea peoples? Who are the Greeks and who are the Philistines?

Most of us think about 5th century B.C. Greeks, which is really the Ionian Greeks? Attica was a very small portion of history.

There are 4 types of Greeks.

The Greeks were all barbaric peples at one time. The Achaians, the Ionians (with a branch of Attic Greeks); Aolian Greeks came from and are the least known, the most numerous and most warlike were the Dorians; they influence history in many directions. Spartans comes from them and others.

Achaian Greeks dominated. We get from them the Greek mythology, all of which may have some basis of truth. The old and young heroes is accepted as having a true foundation.

The half angel/half people in Genesis; and Zeus was always having affairs with women on the earth. Greeks wandered all over the earth and became the most famous of the Gentiles people.

The most famous is the affair between Zeus and.

Hyksos dynasty was a rule of Greeks over Eypgt. They went back to Greece and Persias is from this group who returned to Greece.

1200 B.C. something devastating turned the world upside down. The Hittite empire defeated, the Micenean civilization was completely destroyed. The Dorian Greeks were the most barbaric and the greatest warriors. They were living in Macedonia for a time, and came from the north and began to conquer Crete then Rhodes. They forced the Achaean Greeks as the Dorians came in. The Dorians were divided into many groups.

The Thracians came down into Asia minor. The Trojan war is a key event in history which is the end of the Achaean civilization.

The Dorian Thrust

1. The Dorians who stayed behind became the Greeks who were left behind. Macedonians and Thracians.
2. Phrygians, Lydians, Carrians, Trojans, all of these groups advanced into Asia minor and they destroyed the Hittites. Behind the Hittites came Assyrian and then the Chaldeans and then the Persians; and all of these stopped them and the Persians took them over. This is the Dorian thrust. It was postponed for 600 years. It moved in and took over all of Asia. Alexander went in and conquered Asia, he was a Dorian.
3. The dorian advance into Crete and Rhodes succeeded. Many took to the seas, and they became the great sea peoples.
4. The Dorian advance conquered much of Greece, with the exception of some areas. They did not conquer Boetia, Accadia?, and ?

The Achaean retreat. Ionians retreated and from Attica? Another group joined the Dorians and sacked . About the same time, the Greek sea peoples come from the Dorians or Achaeans? Ramses III found himself confronted by the Sea peoples. They almost conquered Egypt. They were driven back into the Maritime plain, which became the formation of Philistia. They are a Greek people; not Canaanites not Semitic. Greek migrations which affected human history for hundreds of years.

Settlements all over the world. Greek cities in Turkey and Smyrna (founded by Greeks). Ephesus founded by the Ionian Greeks, Miletus. They went to Sicily. Corinth originally an Ionian city but the Dorians took over. The Dorians followed the Ionians all over the world. There is no empire of the ancient world that was not affected by the Greeks or the Jews. They were the most vigorous races in the ancient world. The whole history of the ancient world revolves around these people.

If the Greeks had united, they would have formed the greatest empire in history. But they were very independent. 200 years before David, some Greeks united into Philistia, which is after Greeks. Palestine recognizes the importance of the Greeks.

They became 5 colonies. On their 200th anniversary they heard that the one man that they feared over all others became king over all Israel. It shocked them into action and caused them to go to war.

1195 B.C. was their greatest attack. They attacked Troy and Egypt. Agamemnon attacked Troy and we do not know the one who attacked Egypt. 1720 to 1550 B.C. but they did not succeed this time. Ramses III drove them off. They had ruled Egypt before. Alexander had a general who ruled over Egypt. Cleopatra was the last of the Greeks to rule over Egypt. When the Hyksos were driven off, then backed off and founded Micenai. The great castle of Agamemnon. The next time they were driven off, they moved into the maritime plain and they founded Philistia. The Romans were still dumb shepherds when the Greeks and Jews had great civilizations.

The king of Gerar was a Greek and they were very moral. The dominating tribe was called the Polosed. This is the name the Jews picked up. Philistines are Greeks; similar to the Greeks of Attica. They are the same general classification as the Spartans.

David's rule would be challenged by Satan himself. It was God's will that all Jews be ruled by one man. Satan understood who God's choice was, so he had to pull together a people to attack; the idolators, the Greek idolators. He stirred up the Philistines.

David has applied the laws of divine establishment to his new kingdom. He understood maintaining a military peerage. Benaiah the most loyal man to David ever.

The qualifications of David's knights in Psalm 15.

Now we begin Satan's challenge to God's plan. There are great victories which will be followed by 2 psalms. There is a huge amount of ancient history covered in a very short amount of time. Greeks settled in North Africa, South Agian, Lesbos, Macedonia, etc. Phrygians, Carrians, and quite a number of others.

The Greeks, now called Philistines, had been a nation for 200 years. There were primarily Achaians but there were some Dorians mixed in with them. P<sup>e</sup>lishtim but Paleshed is the basic tribe. They are called by this wherever they went. Even the Etruscan code is still being broken. They intermarried with the Sycles.

Tarshish is a number of settlements made by the Greeks. It was famous in the time of Jonah, a very famous area. Phœnicians went there to get iron. People in Tarshish knew how to smelt iron. They learned this from the Hittites whom they conquered. They had an iron monopoly. The Jews could only get such weapons by killing Philistines. The Philistines had an iron monopoly.

The Philistines are Micenean Greeks who first reached Gerar in the time of Abraham. The Dorian invasion They were forced to move out of Crete, Cyprus and Greece and they became the wandering sea peoples. They became the Caphtoreem. 5 passages give us the background for these people. Gen 10:14 and 4 other passages Deut. Amos

The Atogmemnon aroused the ire of the Dorians. The invasion of the Greek sea peoples . Tarshish was their nation eventually and they were called the Tartisians.

Driven off by Ramses III and 200 years later they go to war to fight the Jews, the other most vigorous race in the world.

The ruler of Gath is the leader of the Philistine armies at this time. They were an advanced Greek race; a brilliant Greek peoples. Sense of humor when David was caught in Gath; their honor when Abraham was in Gerar.

The Philistines had a great intelligence system. They heard that David became anointed king and they moved out immediately. They recognized David is one of the greatest men of that day. All over the world, David was recognized as the greatest man of his day.

As Greeks, these people are smart and they have a tremendous IQ. They have a total mobilization; they have a complete understanding of what David was able to do.

They were a tall people; the Greeks were very tall. 5'10" and up. The average Roman was 5'4" to 5'6". They represent the good side of evil; the pleasant side of evil. David fought evil; he did not try to change evil. Part of David's army are Philistines. Doctrine has changed David; it made him one of the greatest men of his day.

The Philistines were motivated to invade. They were motivated to go up to seek. Baqash in the Piel means to search and destroy; the verb is intensive.

The Matsuda is David's headquarters. This is his military HQ. Fort Milo in the north, Fort Zion in the south, and Matsudo is somewhere in between? All of these policy principles are to be tested by Philistia. They were not interested in the land; they liked to fight. They had slaved to work the land or they attacked those around them and took what they had.

Every harvest period, the Philistines would come down and raid certain farms and grain storage cities. They knew that these good old days of raiding Israel for food would fade away unless they could take out David.

2Sam. 5:17 [And the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel. And all the Philistines \[were motivated to\] come up to seek David. And David heard, and went down to the stronghold \[his personal headquarters\].](#)

Jesus Christ controls history and any advance that we make as a church or a nation will involve testing. As the salt of the land, David and the people were there to preserve. This was not the Jewish nation that came out of slavery from Egypt. There was this great vigor with truth in their souls and obedience to God. It is not genes but doctrine in the soul and training. God taught the Jews that you cannot neglect doctrine. We think that we can live on the strength of the WWII generation. They came out of terrible economic disaster. They were a very self-disciplined generation. They danced to beautiful music. They worked hard. They had trouble putting up enough money for a date. Many great men taught the Word of God verse-by-verse. It was expository teaching of the Word of God. Men loved the military. They spent summers at their own expense to become future soldiers and officers. A time of competitiveness. Football players played 60 min. of football and went both ways. Everyone said yes, sir and no, sir. An entire civilian population became a great military population, despite the terrible leadership. We carved out for ourselves a name that we immediately lost.

But the generation today are soft, revolutionary and liberal and mixed up. They do not know what the score is. David had policies that had to be tested. When any nation makes any kind of advance spiritually, then they will be tested. A decadent nation will also be tested. Psychology says first of all it's environment and then it is genes; but it is doctrine and free will.

This people will be tested and blessed by this testing.

2Sam. 5:17 [And the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel. And all the Philistines \[were motivated to\] come up to seek David. And David heard, and went down to the stronghold \[his personal headquarters\].](#)

The Philistines were a very vigorous race, but they lacked something in their souls, so that Satan could influence them. All kinds of testing was taking place during the time of David. There are more supergrace believers and more salt in the land now.

All kinds of believers are being tested now, the many teachers, the knights, the women of the land, the priests. They are great people and they have taken up the rigors and disasters and have faced Bible doctrine.

The Honeycomb by Adelle Rodgers. She talks about what California was like before WWII. To cheat on a man was low, shabby and unsportsmanlike. This did not happen until WWII and the wives became problems to the generals. They spoke of infidelity lightly like a "roll in the hay." "Crawling bitches in heat" said George Patton. He said the writers of the dear John letters ought to be shot as traitors. It takes more to be great and honorable as a woman.

The true women are the Zeruah, those who follow their husbands in the military.

We are now in the aggressive action of the Philistines. There is more here than meets the eye. The Philistine invasion creates the crisis and testing.

This is the valley of the Rephaim, the valley of the giants; it connects Jerusalem with Bethlehem. The Zuzim, the Zanzumim, the Rephaim all lived here. This valley for time immemorial, there is another valley that runs into this valley. It is an easy way to move, for the Philistines to travel through this valley of theirs into the Valley of Rephaim.

We will soon see the purpose of these doctrines that we have studied and the concept of promotion. We will look at the entire concept of evil.

David is in his headquarters at this time. He will offer up a battle prayer prior to going on up. His prayer is broken down into God's will and the battle.

2Sam. 5:18 And the Philistines came [invaded] and spread [concentrated] themselves in the Valley of the Giants.

David pulls out a map and tries to figure out where his enemies are, what their intentions are, what his own resources are; and what the logistical and support situation is.

G3 who is available, G4 what can he put together? G1 and G2....

We have already seen how David has become a millionaire.

This prayer is broken down into various categories, and we see the inquiry portion of it. He asks if he should attack and if the enemies will be delivered into his hand.

2Sam. 5:19 David inquired of Yahweh, saying, "Shall I go up against [attack] the Philistines? will you deliver them into my hand?" Yahweh said to David, "Go up; for I will certainly deliver the Philistines into your hand."

So many of the war passages in the history of David are quite obscure. Most of the commentaries are terrible. So many jackasses braying about something that they do not understand.

The Principle of Objective.

1. The purpose is to attain an assigned objective with a designated force. This has been violated in the past 2 wars. We did not lack courage, character or leadership; but we lacked good policy.
2. This objective constitutes the guide for the formulation of decisions and the correct deployment. Without this clearly laid out, you just sacrifice men until we have clear objectives. The generation of young people today are afraid of war; they are yellow; they are cowards.
3. The nation, its military powers have specific objectives. Every branch of service has an objective. The Cherethites and the Pelethites have objectives; each tribe had an objective. The same things have been used for thousands of years. Only weapons have changed. The souls of the men and the women stay the same. We do not have an objective because we have no foreign policy. We have troops all over, but without an objective. They are all over the world without objectives. We are totally without policy. The War of 1812, at least the nation had objectives even with a decimated military.
4. The selection of a national objective and strategy depend on the nation variables.
5. The first objective is the neutralization and power of the opposing forces. If you are invaded or attacked, you neutralize them first.
6. Decisive defeat of the enemy armies.

7. The second objective is to possess localities that contribute to the national objectives. This must be compatible with the national objectives.

2Sam. 5:19 David inquired of Yahweh, saying, "Shall I go up against [attack] the Philistines? will you deliver them into my hand?" Yahweh said to David, "Go up; for I will certainly deliver the Philistines into your hand."

David's first question is "Shall I attack the Philistines?" He goes to God first. Then, "Will You give them into my hand?" God tells David, "Attack."

The Principle of Offensive

1. Offensive is the only action by which a decision is gained.
2. Offensive brings victory and defensive can only avoid defeat.
3. The only effective way to wage war is to act on the offensive to destroy the enemy's armies.
4. The offensive increases the effectiveness of the army using it. It increases morale,
5. The defensive should only be used to assist offensive action elsewhere. To gain time or to utilize good terrain, to compensate for weakness, or when the military is weak.
6. The offensive should be used when there is any chance for success.

The Philistines fortified themselves on a ridge that juts out and they are waiting for David to come to attack.

The principle of Mass: Mass is combat power and the concentration of combat power, numbers weapons, morale, leadership. This is concentrating one's forces where they believe the most good will be achieved. Mass or combat power means numbers. There is some tactical skill. The discipline is excellent in the Jewish army. They have great fighting ability. There is resolution, morale and leadership. David's whole system of knighthood.

When is the proper time and where is the proper place? That is what David wants to know. Baal Perazim is the place where they are to attack. The employment of the mass in a main effort. The principle of movement and the principle of surprise.

The next is economy of force. We utilize these same concepts.

The principle of movement; the maneuver of combat elements. It is to bring the mass to the enemy in order to bring about the objective with the least number of casualties; and movement is best when hidden.

Surprise for tactics weapons, movement, concentration.

The principle of security. The Philistines are in the heart of the southern part of Israel. David must have troops in order to secure and protect Bethlehem, the Negev, the southern and northern parts of the kingdom. Universal military training is key here. Once you turn the Philistines loose on the civilians, it is a disaster.

Simplicity; orders and planning should be as simple as possible. Unity of command is key and alternate approaches and contingencies are to be avoided or reduced.

Attack

1. David, in his battle prayer, asks for permission to attack. This is the way to test and exploit the great training.
2. Therefore, David in his HQ checks with higher HQ's before attacking.
3. The national army which remains on the defensive jeopardizes the objective. One of the great problems in Vietnam was being on the defensive all of the time. We did not take the offensive. The defensive army. Artillery is needed to go on offensive and you need brigade and regiment artillery.
4. The French remained on the defensive in 1940 behind the maginal line and they were beat down in 40 days 90?
5. The French stayed on the defensive until 1954 and they lost Indochina. Those that the Chinese kept alive are now rabid communist DI's. The Chinese army became great when the French foreign army members were kept alive to work for China.
6. The failure of the United States to take the initiative and destroy North Vietnam.
7. David knew that he had to attack. David must get his orders from higher headquarters. God gave him the green light.

2Sam. 5:19 David inquired of Yahweh, saying, "Shall I go up against [attack] the Philistines? will you deliver them into my hand?" Yahweh said to David, "Go up; [attack] for I will certainly [emphatically] deliver the Philistines into your hand."

The principle of attack and divine protection. It takes more to attack than it ever will to be on the defensive.

David and his men were prepared spiritually. They were supergrace believers. The supergrace life of the knights. They were men who were professionally trained. They all saw combat as junior officers or an enlisted men.

This battle prayer emphasizes the importance of the spiritual life and aggressiveness in battle. When a person begins to advance spiritually, then they become more aggressive in their spiritual life. The system of Berachah Church is aggression. Bob studies harder over the holidays with a bug, with sickness, and even after a football game with the Marines; and people have continued to come. The whole thing is aggressiveness of grace.

And you have to tell your nice friends to go to hell and you have to get with it. This is why spiritual life and athletic life is so good in Berachah. And the loners are growing as well. This is an aggressive church and we will fulfill the principle of salt.

The Doctrine of Salt

1. Definition: NaCl combining NaOH with HCl. It was used to express faithfulness, a system of integrity; and to preserve foods. It was used to sow the ruins of captured cities.
2. Salt seasons food. Job 6:6–7 is there any taste in the white of an egg? We have a white of the egg generation. They have no capacity for life. They have lost out altogether with capacity for life. It comes with lack of doctrine. David does not want to hang around someone with no flavor. Who wants to hang with a party pooper; if they have nothing in their souls.
3. Salt is used in the Levitical offerings to portray eternal security. God's faithfulness and the principle of eternal security.
4. To portray judgment; Lot's wife turned into a pillar of salt. Deut. 29:23 temporal judgment. Carthage sowed with salt by the Romans. The Salt Sea even today to show the destruction of these horrible nations. Used for eternal judgment. Everyone will be salted with fire.
5. Salt is analogous to the supergrace believer as the preserver or the nation. Matt. 5:13. The noble woman in Zeruah. Spiritual men like Nathan, Gad and Jehoiada. Mark 9:50 salt preserves a nation. All problems in life dealt with by Bible doctrine.
6. Unsaltiness is analogous to reversionism and portrays discipline of reversionist. Salt that is no good; no seasoning ability, then it is not good for the soil or for a manure pile. When a nation becomes saltiness, it is not good for the soil, for the manure pile and Jesus Christ throws it out.
7. Salt is analogous to the supergrace believer having been seasoned with salt.
8. In birth procedures, salt used for babies. Babies were rubbed with salt.
9. The salt of the covenant. The eternal relationship between God and the Lord Jesus Christ. Num. 18:19. The Davidic covenant. A covenant of salt.

We have come right up to v. 20, the battle of Baal Perazim.

The Philistine army is at the top of the hill, and David is at the bottom of the hill. This gives the Philistines the advantage of the high ground. The Philistine army was entrenched there. There was a frontal assault. David uses tactical penetration.

David does a full-frontal assault. He names that battlefield, the Lord breaks through. God is given credit for the victory.

2Sam. 5:20 David came to [advanced] Baal Perazim, and David struck them there; and he said, Yahweh has broken [through the line of] my enemies before me, like the breach of waters [like waters through a dam]. Therefore he called the name of that place Baal Perazim.

These Philistines abandon something of value, their idols. They had little battle gods that they take with them and their battle idols. The attack was vigorous.

David and his army picked up these images and carried them away. They were eventually burned, according to Chronicles. 1Chron. 14:12 they were collected and then burned.

This ended the first invasion of the Philistines. They were not tempted to pick up these idols to keep them. These are men who knew better. This indicates their spiritual maturity.

2Sam. 5:21 They left their images there; and David and his men took them away.

The rest of these verses not covered here.

2Sam. 5:22 The Philistines came up yet again, and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.

2Sam. 5:23 When David inquired of Yahweh, he said, You shall not go up: make a circuit behind them, and come on them over against the mulberry trees.

2Sam. 5:24 It shall be, when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then you shall bestir yourself; for then is Yahweh gone out before you to strike the host of the Philistines.

2Sam. 5:25 David did so, as Yahweh commanded him, and struck the Philistines from Geba until you come to Gezer.

2Samuel 5 Psalm 21:1-6a 72David 631_0160

01/06/1975 Psalm of promotion; doctrine of surpassing grace (point 5)

Bob said we may be getting nearer to a war. The time for a world war is near.

Barry Goldwater saying that we have the lowest amount being spent on national defense as a percentage of our production. There is a Soviet presence with ours as well.

We don't have a foreign policy or a domestic policy, except one that could be described as insnatiy.

David has just become the king of a united people and they are united once again. But David is not thinking in terms of human greatness. He is thinking about how great God is. He is not arrogance; his thoughts are all related to God.

David's policies are full military conscription and free enterprise. His new policies are functioning very well.

David suggests that he will always dance in celebration.

Psalm 21:1 To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David. O LORD, in your strength the king rejoices, and in your salvation [victory or deliverance] how greatly he exults [dances in a circle]!

David has received his paragraph SGII. David tapped the entire wealth of the Amalekites and they had no idea that they were saving this wealth up for David. Doctrine means that they will pass the prosperity test.

Philistia attacked Israel on many occasions in order to continue to steal from their agricultural wealth. The impact of any generation does not come from its genes but from Bible doctrine in the soul.

Selah, the singer stops and the orchestra allows them to stop; and the band played. The orchestra never ceases.

Psalm 21:2 You have given him his heart's desire and have not withheld the request of his lips. Selah we all have an SGII. It is our very own. There are spiritual blessings. A command post in the soul. Spiritual self sustaining. David had a great number of blessings; many categories, as a part of his supergrace paragraph 2.

The crown of gold here is David's crown as king. Once God does something, it is permanent. He will remain king for another 33 years.

David refers to himself in the 3rd person because this can be applied to all believers throughout history in supergrace.

Psalm 21:3 For You meet [go before him] him with rich blessings [blessings of divine good]; You set a crown of fine gold upon his head.

This next verse is welfare, prosperity, happiness, recreation. He asked for these things when he was in the cave of Addullem. Extension of days is a long life.

Concluding Points on V. 4

1. David wanted the prosperity of grace.
2. God gave it to him. What made David great? Doctrine in his soul.
3. Prosperity in time became his portion.
4. Prosperity forever and ever, which is paragraph SGIII.

Psalm 21:4 He asked life [lives; and Bob teaches this as prosperity] of You; You gave it to him, length [extension] of days forever and ever.

Great is God's glory. While we study this psalm, the Philistines are getting ready for another invasion. If God does not promote you, you are not promoted. God took David from the sheepfolds and placed him in the palace. God is glorified and the believer is blessed.

David passed the prosperity test with flying colors. We will all have a prosperity test. More people flunk prosperity tests than the adversity test. If prosperity comes before supergrace, then you have already flunked. If you pass your first prosperity test, then you will probably flunk your super prosperity test.

Doctrine and Evil

1. God promotes the supergrace believer and demotes the reversionist.
2. He will determine whether this is a promotion or a demotion.
3. Doctrine will be here after we leave this world; the same is true of evil. There are all sorts of social gospel to get involved. You never change doctrine or evil. They are unchangeable absolutes.
4. Evil includes sin, human good, altruism, self-righteousness, panaceas, religionism, international brotherhood.
5. You cannot change evil but evil can change you. To be changed by evil is demotion because of reversionism.
6. To be changed by doctrine is the promotion of supergrace. You cannot change doctrine but doctrine can change you.
7. However, only the doctrine in your soul can change you. Doctrine in the Bible is no good to you.
8. The attainment of supergrace through the daily function of gap means promotion. We receive the blessing and God is victorious in the Angelic Conflict. We get promoted and God is glorified.
9. In this way, God demonstrates that the presence of evil in the world can change you. The presence of evil in the world cannot change the believer with doctrine.
10. The presence of evil is not as strong as the presence of Bible doctrine in the soul.
11. The supergrace believer demonstrates that doctrine is greater than evil.
12. By so doing, there is tactical victory in the Angelic Conflict.

Psalm 21:5 His glory is great through your salvation [deliverance, victory]; splendor and majesty [majesty and honor] You bestow on him.

This is a reference to the blessings of paragraph SGIII.

Psalm 21:6 For You make him most blessed forever; You make him glad with the joy of Your Presence.

The Doctrine of Surpassing Grace

1. The basis for blessing by God. 2 blessing paragraphs for believers in time and believers in eternity. Both are the result of believer's growth in time. Dying is the high golden bridge taking us from this life to the next. Blessings above being saved and being in heaven. These are above and beyond all the normal blessings.

Surpassing Grace

1. Definition:
2. Heb. 11:9-10 1:23
3. Crowns designate various rewards. These represented high decorations and/or lifetime stipends. The stephanos. Rev. 2:10 the wreath or the crown of life. The pastor-teacher is given a special crown. Anyone who studies long enough, hard enough, consistently enough, will be given such a crown. Bob gets calls from other pastors, and if they are not screened, then they might get through. They usually never call again. About a million booklets are sent out in a year. Bob is only surprised that the tapes never reach that level. It takes a consistent ministry for a person to grow up. The Antisemitism has a wide distribution. Ditto for the tongues book. People often get the booklet in order to win a debate with someone. However, getting tapes consistently is the key to growth. The stephanos crown, which we do not know a lot about it. It is a crown for making it to supergrace and staying there. It is for continued positive volition toward doctrine. 2Tim. 4:7-8
  - a. Life, glory and righteousness.
  - b. There will be variations in heaven, although there will be no unhappiness.

4. Pleasing God in time is key. Before being transferred to SG3. When one is occupied with God, he must be convinced that God is a rewarder to those who diligently seek Him. Some people say, "I don't want a reward; I just want to be with Jesus."
5. There is a time when ER's will be completed. The efficiency rating. That each one may be rewarded for that which is done in the body, whether divine or worthless. The Judgment Seat of Christ eliminates us from trying to rate another believer. God says that peer ratings are out. We are not qualified to and we are not commanded to evaluate other believers. Gossips and maligners must go. Bob can recommend 3 churches where they will be welcome. James 1:25 2:5, 13 1Cor. 3 Heb. 6:7-12 producing a harvest of crops and rain comes down on every believer. We are to become imitators of them in supergrace status from Heb. 11.
6. The reversionistic believer can lose his rewards but not his salvation. Denial is of surpassing grace blessings. Everyone who competes in the games do it for a perishable reward; but we do it for an imperishable reward. Paul keeps punching as one not beating the air.

The Doctrine of Surpassing Grace (Sg3)

Taken from: http://gracebiblechurchwichita.org/?page\_id=599

- I. Definition and Preliminary Considerations
  - A. Surpassing Grace (SG3) refers to the special blessings and rewards for the believer in eternity (Phase 3), which are above and beyond the universal blessings for believers.
    1. universal blessings include:
      - a. a resurrection body - 1Jn 3:2B ". We know that, when He appears, we shall be like Him, because we shall see Him just as He is."
      - b. the total absence of pain, crying, sorrow, tears, or death - Rev 21:4 "and He shall wipe away every tear from their eyes; and there shall no longer be any death; there shall no longer be any mourning, or crying, or pain; the first things have passed away."
      - c. experiencing the presence of the Lord, face to face - Phi 1:23 "But I am hard-pressed from both directions, having the desire to depart and be with Christ, for that is very much better"
  - B. The nomenclature is taken from Eph 2:7: "so that in the ages to come He might show the surpassing riches of His grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus"
    1. other vocabulary used to describe SG3 includes:
      - a. do,xa - doxa = glory, majesty, excellence, splendor; emphasizes the source of SG3, the Essence or glory of God, which He desires to share with us - Rom 8:17-18

- b. evlpij - elpis = hope, expectation, or confidence; it views SG3 as a future reality, which provides motivation to apply in time - Col 1:5; Eph 1:18
- c. evpaggeli,a - epangelia = a promise, that which is promised; points out that the veracity of God is at stake in the matter of SG3 - Heb 6:11, 17-18
- d. qhsauro,j - thesaurus = treasure or valuables; emphasizes the true value of SG3 - Mt 6:19-21; Lk 12:33
- e. klhronomi,a - kleronomia = inheritance, property received upon the bequest of another; deals with the fact that God the Father has personally determined we should have SG3, and has made us co-inheritors with Jesus Christ, the Heir of all things - Col 3:24A; Heb 1:2
- f. misqo,j - misthos = what one is paid for work, wages that one earns; points out that Ph2 works are required to obtain SG3 - Mk 9:40; 1Cor 3:8
- g. misqapodosi,a - misthapodosia = payment of wages; we receive a just recompense for our loyalty to God under testing - Heb 10:35, 11:26
- h. plou/toj - ploutos = riches, wealth; stresses that SG3 is the true treasure, without compare in this present life - Eph 2:7
- i. the phrase "eternal life" is sometimes used as an expression for SG3, focusing on the fact that as life is made more enjoyable by possession of certain accoutrements, so those who possess SG3 will enjoy heaven to a greater degree - 1Tim 6:12 cp 17-19
- j. "a better resurrection"; demonstrates that the believer with SG3 will have more than just the normal/universal blessings of heaven - Heb 11:35
- k. "the kingdom of God", in certain contexts, refers to full realization of its benefits - 2Th 1:5 Doctrine of Surpassing Grace 2

- C. Every aspect of God's Plan is based on grace, as opposed to works.
  - 1. Ph1 - Rom 3:24 "being justified as a gift by His grace through the redemption which is in Christ Jesus"
  - 2. Ph2 - Rom 5:1-2 "Therefore having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom also we have obtained our introduction by faith into this grace in which we stand; and we exult in hope of the glory of God."
  - 3. Ph3 - Eph 2:7
- D. Once one believes and accesses the grace of God, they should attempt to order their lifestyle according to the dictates of Scripture, embarking on a course of works with the aim of pleasing God. Col 1:10; 1Th 4:1

1. it must be observed that these Ph2 works are produced from the source of faith, which is in accordance with the principle of grace - 1Th 1:2-3
2. although our works are based on faith and proceed from the principle of grace, God has clearly revealed that He will reward appropriate activity, just as He will judge unrighteous activity - Mt 16:27; Jn 5:28-29
3. since we walk according to the standards of grace and faith, God's works produced reward system is still a system compatible with, and dependent upon, grace. 2Cor 5:7 "for we walk by faith, not by sight"; Heb 10:38

II. The Judgment Seat of Christ (bh/ma - bema) is the place of administration of SG3 to the Royal Family. 2Cor 5:10

A. The basis for SG3 is our accumulated Divine Good Production (DGP) in time.

1. DGP is defined as the activities performed by the believer based on an understanding of and faith in the Word of God; these works must be done under the Filling of the Holy Spirit - cp Rom 8:3-4
2. works of any kind are not admitted in Ph1 salvation - Rom 3:28 "For we maintain that a man is justified by faith apart from works of the Law."
3. works are an issue in Ph2 salvation (sanctification), and the lack of acceptable works demonstrates a lack of orientation to BD - Js 2:14-20
4. each increment of BD that we correctly apply accrues an increment of reward (no matter how insignificant it may seem) - Mt 10:40-42
5. human good, which proceeds from fleshly activity and power, is not recognized, and will not be rewarded, by God - Jn 15:5 ".he who abides in Me, and I in him, he bears much fruit; for apart from Me you can do nothing."
6. failure to apply BD is tantamount to a denial of the Truth, and Christ denies us reward - 2Tim 2:12-13
7. if a believer accumulates some SG3, but then enters reversionism, God will still bestow any reward achieved prior to their defection - Heb 6:10

B. Considerations of the Bema

1. in the Greco-Roman world, the Bema consisted of a raised platform at which an official sat to pass judgment on applicants - Jn 19:13; Ac 18:12f
2. at the Rapture, the Church Universal will be assembled at a meeting of the Lord - 1Th 4:13-17
3. at this time each believer will have their Ph2 evaluated: all human good will be destroyed, all DGP will be rewarded - 1Cor 3:10-15; 2Cor 5:10

Doctrine of Surpassing Grace 3

4. Christ states explicitly that He is bringing His reward with Him when He returns - Rev 22:12 cp Isa 40:10
5. some believers will not have any rewards, and will be ashamed at this ceremony - 1Cor 3:15 "If any man's work will be burned up (1ST CL), he shall suffer loss; but he himself shall be saved, yet so as through fire."; 1Jn 2:28
6. due to differences in volitional response to the Word of God and differences in applications, there will be differences in rewards, resulting in class distinctions in heaven - Mk 9:35; Lk 19:12-17
7. there are two distinct reactions among believers when the Lord returns:
  - a. shame, humiliation, and disgrace awaits the negative believer, who did not prepare for this event - 1Jn 2:28
  - b. ecstatic happiness will be the response of those that saw and embraced the importance of DGP and SG3 in time - 1Pet 4:13

III. DGP must have the necessary components to qualify for reward:

- A. The believer must be in fellowship, with the STA isolated - Jn 15:4, 6
- B. They must assemble regularly, with the day of reward in view - Heb 10:25
- C. They must be receiving the correct teaching - 1Cor 3:10-15
  1. technically, this passage is to be interpreted as relating to communicators and their building/teaching of individual churches
  2. by application, it is applied to all believers and their approach to the CHRISTIAN WAY OF LIFE
  3. Paul, as the founder of the church in Corinth, laid a foundation that is analogous to the gospel - vs 10 cp Lk 6:48 & Mt 16:18
  4. he instructs all future communicators to respect his work and be very careful as to how they build upon it
  5. the two distinct categories of building materials refer to doctrinal teachings
    - a. gold, silver, and precious stones are categories of sound doctrine, taught by adjusted communicators, that enable believers to adjust to God and His Plan, understand the issues involved, and produce Divine Good
    - b. wood, hay, and straw refers to unsound doctrines (traditions of men, human viewpoint, or doctrines of demons), that do not advance believers, but keep them disoriented to the true issues of the CWL - Eph 4:14
  6. those that build with the correct materials are assured of eternal rewards, those that build with incorrect materials will suffer loss of reward
  7. this passage also reinforces the supreme importance of the communicator in the lives of believers - 1Th 5:12-13

8. again, while this verse is, strictly speaking, interpreted as regarding pastor teachers, each believer is responsible before the Lord for their own priesthood and the type of doctrine to which they expose themselves

- D. They must personally believe the BD - Js 1:21 "Therefore putting aside all filthiness and all that remains of wickedness, in humility receive the word implanted, which is able to save your souls."
- E. They must have the correct motivation/mental attitude orientation - Mt 6:1
- F. Receipt of SG3 is based only on one's own applications - 1Cor 3:8 "Now he who plants and he who waters are one; but each will receive his own reward according to his own labor." Doctrine of Surpassing Grace 4

IV. SG3 totally surpasses anything this world has to offer. 1Cor 2:9 "but just as it is written, "things which eye has not seen and ear has not heard, and which have not entered the heart of man, all that god has prepared for those who love him."

- A. Though SG3 is described in humanly understandable terms (the prize; gold, silver, precious stones; riches), we must understand it is of such a nature that it cannot be truly appreciated in our frame of thinking, and that the language used is only to provide insight into its impact for eternal posterity.
- B. Peter offers a four-fold description in 1Pet 1:4 - "an inheritance which is imperishable and undefiled and will not fade away, reserved in heaven for you"
  - 1. imperishable - not capable or liable to be reduced to a worse or lessened state, not subject to the law of entropy, not subject to the aging process
  - 2. undefiled - not able to be stained, polluted, or contaminated, not able to be deformed, broken, or reduced to any less-than-perfect condition
  - 3. will not fade away - will never lose its newness, glamour, or luster, will always provide stimulation and enjoyment
  - 4. reserved in heaven - attended carefully, guarded by God Himself, guaranteeing SG3 is not subject to being misplaced, lost, or overlooked

V. SG3 and the Millennium

- A. Saints from the OT and Daniel's Seventieth Week (DSW) are rewarded at the 2nd Advent. Dan 12:13 cp Isa 40:10
- B. The twelve Apostles will rule over the twelve tribes of restored Israel. Mt 19:28
- C. Faithful members of the Royal Family will rule over the nations. Rev 2:26-27

VI. The wreath (commonly known as the crown) represents the supreme category of SG3 the Lord bestows upon believers.

- A. Paul relates it to finishing one's course. 2Tim 4:7-8 "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith; in the future there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day; and not only to me, but also to all who have loved His appearing."

B. Not everyone will receive a crown; in fact, the prize can be forfeited via negative volition. 1Cor 9:24-27; Rev 3:11

C. This "crown" (Greek stephanos - stephanos, not diadema - diadema) is called by four names:

1. the "crown of life"; full enjoyment of heaven is available to those who desire it - Jam 1:12; Rev 2:10
2. the "crown of righteousness"; emphasizes that righteous activity is necessary to receive it, and verification of that activity - 2Tim 4:8
3. the "crown of glory"; this reward, like all others, comes from the Essence of God - 1Pet 5:4
4. the "crown of boasting/exultation"; sanctified proof of the believer's accomplishments - 1Th 2:19

D. It is also seen under the figure of "the prize" in 1Cor 9:24-27.

1. the background for this athletic analogy is the Isthmus games that were held in Corinth Doctrine of Surpassing Grace 5
2. the "race" refers to the CWL, and all believers are runners - cp Heb 12:1
3. the fact that many run in the race and only one wins teaches the reality that the vast majority of believers will not complete their course; only a small minority will make it successfully to the end
4. the race is run on a specific course, with specific rules to which the believer must adhere, if they are to win
5. the goal of any contest is to win, and the human viewpoint that just competing is sufficient makes a mockery of the event
6. this race demands a consistent exercise/training regimen that involves "self-control in all things", and "buffeting the body", teaching the necessity of isolating the STA and consistent application of resident BIBLE DOCTRINE
7. the believer must recognize and have legitimate fear that they can be disqualified at any time during their Ph2 marathon, by:
  - a. failing to deal with the STA - Gal 6:8
  - b. not maintaining the priority of MPR - Heb 10:25
  - c. allowing non-sinful things to interfere with training - 1Cor 8:12-13
  - d. ceasing to run - Heb 10:36 "For you have need of endurance, so that when you have done the will of God, you may receive what was promised."

VII. The incredible nature of SG3 is such that it will more than surpass the nature of any suffering we may face in Ph2. 2Cor 4:17 "For momentary, light affliction is producing for us an eternal weight of glory far beyond all comparison"

A. This is designed to motivate us in the face of testing. Js 1:2-3

B. Suffering, when kept in perspective, has little influence in the believer's overall continuation with God's Will. Rom 8:18 "For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory that is to be revealed to us."

- VIII. SG3 is one of the primary motivators in the CWL, since it glorifies God for all eternity, as well as the obvious personal benefit it brings. 1Tim 4:10 "For it is for this we labor and strive, because we have fixed our hope on the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of believers." cp vs 7
- IX. Areas in which the believer can maximize their SG3 include:
  - A. Enduring persecution - Mt 5:11-12
  - B. Prayer - Mt 6:6
  - C. Giving - Phi 4:17
  - D. Hospitality - Mt 10:41
  - E. Suffering for the sake of Christ - Mt 19:29; 1Pet 4:13
  - F. Evangelization - 1Cor 9:16-17 cp vs 23
  - G. Passing the tests associated with the physical body and its inevitable deterioration - 2Cor 4:16-17
  - H. Proper function under employment - Col 3:22-24
  - I. Applying BD under testing - 1Pet 1:6-7
  - J. Diligence/perseverance - Heb 6:11 Doctrine of Surpassing Grace 6
- X. Things that negate SG3 include:
  - A. Wrong motives
    - 1. seeking to please men - Gal 1:10
    - 2. approbation lust - Mt 6:1-2, 5, 16
  - B. Not being in fellowship - Jn 15:4
  - C. Unrepentant STA activity - 1Cor 6:9-10; Gal 5:21
  - D. Lack of diligence regarding BD - 2Jn 8
  - E. Not completing one's course - Rev 2:10
  - F. Altering the Word of God - Rev 22:19
- XI. Concluding observations:
  - A. The heroes of the faith were motivated to apply BD in their niche based on their understanding of this doctrine.
    - 1. Noah - Heb 11:7
    - 2. Abraham - Heb 11:8
    - 3. Moses - Heb 11:24-26
    - 4. anonymous, though known to God, believers - Heb 11:35
    - 5. Jesus Christ - Heb 12:2
  - B. Our knowledge of the reality of SG3 should motivate us to follow their example. Heb 12:1-2
    - 1. the believer should have accumulation of SG3 as their priority, not focusing on the temporal blessings of life, but the eternal - Col 3:1-2; 1Pet 1:13

2. recognize our time on earth is insignificant compared to the eons of eternity - 2Cor 4:16-17

C. The indwelling of the Holy Spirit is the earnest, or down-payment, of our inheritance. Eph 1:14

D. The adjusted PT desires those under his charge to fully appreciate, understand, and achieve this doctrine. Eph 1:18; 2Jn 8 "Watch yourselves, that you might not lose what we have accomplished, but that you may receive a full reward."

XII. Shame awaits those who fail to attain to full SG3. 1Jn 2:28 "And now, little children, abide in Him, so that when He appears, we may have confidence and not shrink away from Him in shame at His coming." "Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, this he will also reap. For the one who sows to his own flesh shall from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit shall from the Spirit reap eternal life;" Gal 6:7-8

Now we go back to v. 6

Psalm 21:6 For You make him most blessed [You will appoint Him blessings] forever; You make him glad with the joy [happy with happiness] of Your Presence.

Here, we apply any doctrine from our soul. Because David trusts in God, he is stable.

David's trust in the Word of God have given him stability in his life. Perpetuation of the supergrace life produces stability. Many people are nice, but they are unstable. They never seem to level off. There is nothing more beautiful than a stabilized person. David did not waiver in his dedication to doctrine. Doctrine was here before we came and doctrine can change us; doctrine changed David.

Bob repeats the translation for the first strophe, which is the first 6 verse. It is all about great happiness; David has capacity for life. He is truly a happy person.

Bob wants to go back and look at the Davidic covenant and the Davidic dynasty.

Psalm 21:7 For the king trusts in the LORD, and through the steadfast love [grace] of the Most High he shall not be moved.

God's grace is the basis for our stability in time. Doctrine protects us from being changed by evil. Supergrace in the soul produces stability. Believer with stability has capacity for life.

2Samuel 5 Psalm 21:8-11a

01/08/1975 Doctrine of evil (points 1-8)

"This is no place for you to talk; this is where I talk." Bob notices some strangers. Bob reviews the verses that we will study.

The famous battle of the valley of salt. David is already a famous person; everyone has already heard about him. He has already made a name for himself. The UN created for the communist world the greatest system of spying for the world. The UN is a spy corp. the idea of putting together a UN today.

Army intelligence today is a laugh, even though we have great people in it.

Psalm 21:8 Your hand will find out all your enemies; your right hand will find out those who hate you.

The hand of David is some form of intelligence corp. David's system for getting information about his enemies. These are enemies on the outside; the hostile nations with which David must deal. He needs to know what the Ammonites are doing and the Syrians, and the Philistines. Everyone has malintention. They are talking about David all over the world. All of these people must be watched. The UN created for the communist world the greatest system of intelligence that it ever had. The representatives and their staff are simply spies in the United States. Our intelligence today is in very bad shape. Army intelligence today is a laugh. An interrogator is brilliant who can speak Asian languages. So the army sent him to intelligence school. Women passed the class with flying colors and he flunked it; and they could not interrogate a flea.

The application of Bible doctrine to experience demands good intelligence for the enemies within and without. So you can clobber them before they get cranked up.

David has almost a perfect government. There will be perfect government under Jesus Christ, and there will be a revolution at the end against it. This is why Satan must be put under lock and key in torments.

There are two boys in the palace right now who will revolt against David: Absalom and Adonijah. Adonijah will revolt when David is dying.

Revolutions at this Time

1. Furnace of fire is an analogy. The furnace destroys that which is thrown into it.
2. Solomon's son will lose most of his kingdom.
3. Rehoboam was a weak sister and he had his coronation in Shechem, which is catering to them, which caused them to revolt.
4. The principle of revolution from Ephraim.
5. Jeroboam leads a revolt against Rehoboam.
6. Conspirators against Solomon were suppressed until he died.
7. These revolts were kept down during David and Solomon.

Psalm 21:9 You will make them [David's enemies] as a blazing oven when you appear. The LORD will swallow them up in his wrath, and fire will consume them [interior and exterior enemies].

Absalom, Shimmea, and several others are internal enemies.

Pruning Humanity

1. Evil is Satan's policy; and God has to constantly prune the human race.
2. Revolutionaries and their descendants must be destroyed.
3. The fiery furnace of history must destroy certain families, certain lines, and certain races.
4. God has many systems of human pruning so that the human race will continue to live.
5. God prunes the human race by warfare, famine and pestilence. Depression takes the scum of a nation and destroys it. Warfare and disease takes the evil and the noble. If you eliminate capital punishment from the justice system, then you lose this needed pruning effect.

vigorous exercise of capital punishment. Our justice system is a joke; we should go and execute about 5 out of 7 of our prisoners. Once Adam sinned and the garden was a thing of the past, then the laws of divine establishment needed to control the sin nature of man and the evil policies of Satan.

We cannot change evil; but evil can change us; we cannot change doctrine, but doctrine can change us.

Whenever there is a saturation in history of evil, certain races, nations and families are destroyed.

Psalm 21:10 You will destroy their descendants from the earth, and their offspring from among the children of man.

The Doctrine of Evil

God will deliver from evil in various ways in the laws of divine establishment.

1. Definition:
  - a. Evil is the modus operandi of Satan as the ruler of this world. His policy as the ruler of this world is evil.
  - b. Evil includes sin and a great deal more than sin.
  - c. Evil includes sins and human good and any attempt to solve problems apart from doctrine and God.
  - d. Evil includes altruism, philanthropy, humanitarianism, socialism, sociology. Any sort of bleeding heart-ism. Evil in college is sociology.

- e. Evil includes social action, social gospel, the restriction of human freedom for the so-called greater good, the distortion of law. Liberalism. Liberalism is a political term and social gospel is a theological one.
  - f. Evil is religionism, reversionism, apostasy, every deviation from Bible doctrine and the law of establishment. Evil is hippies; evil is black power. The various types of unions.
  - g. Bob left sin out of this; although evil certainly includes sin.
2. Evil has a Bible vocabulary. 5 Hebrew words and 7 Greek ones.
- a. Awen in the sense of nothingness or vanity.
  - b. Adjective ra means evil, bad, worthless.
  - c. Feminine adjective. The strongest word for evil in Hebrew is in the feminine.
  - d. Roa means evil in the sense of bad quality; Satan's bad policy.
  - e. Ra'a to be evil.
  - f. Adjective kakos evil, bad, worthless. Kakôs is the adverb.
  - g. Ponyros means evil, worthless, degenerate. Also used as a noun, meaning, the evil one; Satan.
  - h. Poneria means sinfulness.
  - i. Phallos
3. A relatively extensive vocabulary. The supergrace believer is protected from evil, the Satanic policy. They tried to smother David with evil. Prov. 12:12 the evil desire; the plunder of evil men. Prov. 12:21 no evil happens to the supergrace believer. The righteous. Gen. 50:20 Joseph was a victim of evil. "And as for you, you intended evil against me, but God meant it for good, for this present result." Even Jacob recognized that he had been preserved from evil. Psalm 37:16 better than the little of the righteous than the abundance of the wicked. The arms of the evil will be broken. The Lord knows the days of the mature believer. They will not be ashamed in a time of evil. The time of evil is when Satanic policies are dominant. Socialism; the intrusion upon the privacy of the individual. In the days of famine, they will have abundance. Evil often is a part of socialism. Taxpayer money is used to advance the power of evil men. They could care less about who starves. Give these people money and they have votes. Psalm 91:10 no evil will befall you. I have restrained my feet from every evil way that I may guard Your doctrine. The Lord will protect you from all evil; He will guard your soul from evil. He that listens to doctrine will be at ease in security and at ease from evil. Wisdom or doctrine will enter your right lobe and knowledge of doctrine will be pleasant in your soul. From those who lead the paths of righteousness, who delight in doing evil and find happiness in the distortion of evil. Do not be wise in your own eyes; be occupied with the Lord and turn away from evil. In all of these passages, evil is the Satanic policy; and this is more than sinfulness. All forms of human good; it means socialism. Protection from evil; our best protection is maximum doctrine in the soul. Psalm 91:10 119:101 121:7 Prov. 1:33 2:10–13 Gen. 50:20 are some of the passages quoted. They all say that the supergrace believer is protected from evil.

4. Negative volition toward doctrine causes the believer to be changed by evil. No matter what a goody-two-shoes you are, you can be affected by evil. Some of the greatest adherents to evil are believers. Some of our Christian presidents have been great supporters of evil. "I have not listened to the voices of my teachers or to the words of their instruction." Are you influenced by doctrine or by sin. Prov. 5:13–14
5. The issue of the royal family. Are you influenced by evil or by doctrine? The reversionist earns deceptive wages. He who is persistent in supergrace to life but he who pursues evil, his own death is his portion. There is a bona fide good in this world; divine good. Grace and doctrine to those who devise good. They eyes of the Lord are in every place watching the evil and the good. By grace and doctrine, one recovers from reversionism. By occupation with Christ one keeps away from evil. The wise sees the evil and hides himself; but the stupid goes on and is punished for it. Prov. 24:1–4 redeeming the time because the days are evil. Time is only purchased via a command post in the soul. That we may be delivered from perverse and evil men. Doctrine neutralizes evil. The evil will return and lie in wait for me. Do not be overcome with evil but overcome the evil with good. Prov. 11:18–19 15:3 16: Eph. 5:16
6. Doctrine neutralizes evil.
7. Evil distorts grace. My enemies are vigorous and numerous. Those who repay evil with good. Why do you boast in evil, O mighty man. Psalm 52;1 1Cor. 15:22
8. Evil distorts establishment. What right do you have to distort My laws? You hate authority and you cast My words behind you. You see a thief and you are pleased with him. You send you mouth loose on evil. Your tongue claims deceit. You slander your own mother's son.

Plate tectonics; continents move. Congress, perhaps the greatest collection of dimwits at any time. Brilliant ideas like plastic bumpers on cars to save gasoline; massive trucks to blow us off the road, destruction of our national security intelligence operations.

Balderdash had an eye operation today and Bob forgot to put him on the prayer list. When he came in, he was drunk. Congress is a great thing, but it has had too much anesthetic called liberalism.

Psalm 21:10 You will destroy their descendants from the earth, and their offspring from among the children of man.

God removes certain segments of the population. God thins out the human population. God, in His grace, must constantly prune the human race. God must keep the human race alive by removing life. The fiery furnace of history must devour and destroy large segments of the human population. You often wonder why God has not done some pruning as of late.

The Cocky Cactus where Bob used to have a wonderful meal in San Bernardino, which will drop 1000 ft. into the ground when the San Andreas Fault goes. There are 3 supergrace believers that Bob knows there, which is what is probably preserving them.

Liberals always want to send food and supplies to various places, but wherever God is pruning, we need to respect God's decisions.

To have a correct opinion of life, you must understand the cross and God's system of judgments. There is a place for life and there is a place for death. Famine, warfare and depression is used by God to prune out human life.

Here is where Christian missions are important. People who will turn to a Christian mission have some sort of positive volition toward God.

Bob likes wolves; right male and female wolves that mate for life. Male wolf is very gentle with the female; same with the children. Herds of caribou, and wolves go with them; and the wolves take out the weak caribou, which strengthens the caribou herd. An hour documentary on wolves that Bob watched and he apparently really liked it. Narrated by Robert Redford. Only the strong survive. What the wolf does to the caribou is what God does to the human race.

God removes the souls of liberals, weak, communists, etc. Racial Islamists. Great earthquake in Africa or whatever, this is God pruning out the human race. Jesus Christ controls history. Such people have every chance to be saved and to be delivered. Your whole capacity for life. The starving people of India have cattle all over the place. There is no excuse for anyone in India for starving. Bob does not feel sorry for these starving Indians. They are suckers for the evil. Buddha always got plenty to eat. Your perspective is all wrong.

Since the fall of man and the sovereignty of evil, doctrine and evil have remained in the world as absolutes. Evil portrays the genius of Satan trying to rule the world. Evil and doctrine were both here before we came and they will be here after we are gone. If evil influences you, then it is reversionism and the sin unto death.

Bob doesn't think that people should go to school unless they are motivated. Public education is the greatest spreader of evil. They learn all kinds of goofy things and all discipline is removed. There is all this brotherhood and bleeding hearts; which will give us a whole generation of people who cannot think straight.

Let's not talk about the military; let's just have everyone have a guaranteed income of $10,000/year. Everywhere you turn, laws are helping evil and criminals advance. We are in the throes of evil. If everyone in America stopped sinning tonight, and no one sinned until next New Year's Eve, we would have the most concentrated evil you have ever seen. You think of evil in terms of 3 or 4 sins; maybe half of the Ten Commandments. Evil is the policy of Satan. If everyone stopped sinning, evil would continue. Sin just complicates a thing. Sin has a quick solution in rebound; but evil does not have a quick solution.

We are not as smart as Satan and we never will be in this life.

The individuals that God destroys includes believers who are immersed in evil. He takes them out by the sin unto death. This is not a loss of salvation. Were it not for God's grace and God's grace pruning, none of us would be here. No Angelic Conflict means there is no solution to the problem at all.

Psalm 21:8–11 Your hand will find out all your enemies; your right hand will find out those who hate you. You will make them [David's enemies] as a blazing oven when you appear. The LORD will swallow them up in his wrath, and fire will consume them [interior and exterior enemies]. You will destroy their descendants from the earth, and their offspring from among the children of man. Though they plan [stretched out] evil against you, though they devise mischief, they will not succeed.

Bob reviews the doctrine of evil from before; so I have gone back and appended those notes. Also, I have added two doctrines of evil from other doctrinal sources.

9. Reversionists are influenced by evil. There is no respect of God before his eyes. He flatters himself from his own eyes. The words of his mouth are evil and deceit. This is describing little Lord Fauntleroy. He plans evil on his bed. He does not despise evil. He talks against sin, but not evil. John 3:19 their deeds are evil. When a government of a nation is captured by evil, then government policy is evil. Less response to the gospel as well. This is why there is not much of a response to the gospel in China. This is the problem; men love darkness rather than light.
10. Evil also rationalizes. Isa. 5:20 woe to them who call evil good. This is anyone who is a socialist or is soft on communism. Building a trucking plant for the Russians is calling evil good. These same people call good evil. Freedom, privacy and RM/RW you do not get into subjectivity. But most teachers are subjective and psychological problems themselves. They substitute darkness for light. The language that ought to be taught is English. Bob is not against Spanish; that is what got him turned on to the whole language thing. No one should go to school to learn classes in something other than English. Bob then wants equal time; let's teach half of every class in Greek .
11. Conspiracy and revolution is a manifestation of evil. Bob a pastor for 25 years and there were about 9 definite conspiracies. Bob is the duly constituted authority at Berachah. He is the final authority. He is the policy maker. Sometimes people that you cannot stand are the best administrators that you have ever seen. Psalm 64:3–5 to shoot from concealment at the blameless. They might be reticent to use violence at first; but they will suddenly. They do not fear; they hold fast to themselves an evil purpose and conspiracy to law a snare and say,"..." Karl Marx is evil. Das Kapital is evil. The French revolution was evil as well. The Bourbons were dimwits after Louis XIV. Evil to overthrow that authority. There is nothing good about revolution. You can be under generals who are numbskulls, does not mean that authority is problematic. This one got to the top by guarding his back.

Nice politician it is not the person; it is the authority that counts. In basic training, and your D.I. may be difficult to you. "I'm in authority." Revolution always wants to overthrow establishment. They conspire to lay snares secretly. Prov. 17:11

12. Evil is self-destructive. Psalm 34:21 evil will slay the wicket and those who hate the righteous will be condemned. The moderates who begun the french Revolution. Do not fret yourself because of evil-doers.
13. They try to build happiness upon someone else's unhappiness. You haven't lived until you have been good to someone, kind to them, and they repay you with bereavement to your soul.
14. Rom. 13:3-4 rulers are not a cause of fear; for good behavior but for evil behavior. Stay within the framework of establishment. It does not bear to sword for nothing. Satan knows that evil is self-destructive; he pursues a course to destroy the human race.
15. There is not evil in God. Psalm 5:4 you are not a God Who takes pleasure in wickedness; no evil is found in You. There is evil in self-righteousness. Only God is free from evil. Man can stand about as much power as he can be free from evil. This is why some of us will have no authority in our lives. David exercised power without evil. He is everywhere without evil. He knows what we are thinking without evil on His part. Nothing that God has ever communicated is evil. God is free from evil. Let no one says, when tempted, that I am being tempted by God. God is not the source of sin or evil. Satan is the source of all evil. There is no evil in God.
16. To the contrary God judges evil. Psalm 34:16 the face of the Lord is against evil-doers, to cut off the memory of them from the earth. The key to evil is arrogance. Arrogance is pride and pride is arrogance. People are proud of the human good. Panaceas are arrogant. "I will advocate laws to solve our problems." There is no pollution problem in the universe; God has already solved that. Arrogance and human panaceas. Bob never saw a bleeding heart that wasn't sweet. Politicians are arrogant. Their arrogance is colossal. Health welfare mess; arrogance in Congress; arrogance in the judicial branch. Liberals are the most arrogant people in the world. When they disagree with someone, they use name-calling devices against them. Religion is arrogant; the Roman Catholic church is arrogant. The pope is arrogant. He walks down the street and blesses you with his hands; that's arrogance. You don't see Bob walking about holding his hands out. Religion, Legalist is a wonderful thing.
17. So in spite of evil, Jesus Christ controls history. Prov. 16:3-4 commit your plans to the Lord.

Two other doctrines of evil follow.

Doctrine of Evil

Tod Kennedy, April 2, 2001

From: <http://www.spokanebiblechurch.com/study/Bible%20Doctrines/evil.htm>

1. Evil has resulted from the fall of Satan and the fall mankind. Evil sums up the worldview which Satan, the evil one (John 17:15; Ephesians 6:16; 1 John 3:12), has sponsored.
2. Evil refers to the ungodly presuppositions, mind-set, attitudes, plans, sayings, actions, and goals of life that stand apart from God's will, direction, and influence because of a rejection of and a lack of God's Word. Evil includes liberal theology, the social gospel, salvation by works, preoccupation with self, one-world government apart from the physical rule of Christ, ecumenism and one-world religion, moral relativity, rejection of absolute truth and the ability to know absolute truth, emotional control of the soul, rejection of authority, self-esteem based upon human good, the redistribution of wealth, the theory of evolution, post-modernism, naturalism-materialism, do-it-yourself spirituality, and many others ideas, projects, programs, and activities that Satan and fallen man believe and promote. Rebellion against proper authority is evil; laziness is evil; self-centeredness is evil; religion, defined as human works to gain something from God, is evil; emotionalism is evil; crime is evil; some wars are evil; and human good activity that ignores or seeks to replace God's will is evil.
3. Evil includes human viewpoint, human good, and sin. Evil is sometimes a synonym for sin, but evil is more comprehensive than sin (Genesis 2:17; Genesis 3:5; Proverbs 6:14; Proverbs 8:13 Ecclesiastics 5:13-14; Matthew 15:19; Romans 7:21; 12:9, 21; 2 Corinthians 6:8; Galatians 1:4; Hebrews 5:14).
4. The love of money is, in the human realm, a root or beginning of all kinds of evil (1 Timothy 6:8-10).
5. What do we do about evil? Proverbs 3:7 advises us to fear the Lord and turn away from evil; Hebrews 5:14 teaches that by learning and practicing the Word of God we are able to discern good from evil; Paul, in 1 Thessalonians 5:22, tells us to stay away from every kind of evil; Peter, in 1 Peter 3:11, tells us to shun evil and, in its place, do divine good; we learn in Romans 12:21, that divine love, which is a fruit of the Holy Spirit, overcomes evil, and in 1 Corinthians 13:5, divine love does not think evil. Therefore in answer to the question of what to do about evil, we need to grow up in the Word of God so that we take possession of Bible doctrine and the biblical worldview. As we do this we will recognize evil as that which contradicts Bible doctrine and the biblical worldview and be able replace it with God's word, God's thinking, and God's way of life. In short, we make biblical choices-choices for God and his Word and against evil.
6. There are a number of biblical words that are translated "evil": the Old Testament often uses the adjective [r' (bad, evil, unpleasant, harmful, wicked; Genesis 6:5; Deuteronomy 9:18), the noun [r' (evil, distress, injury, misery, calamity; Job 28:28; Proverbs 12:20; Strong 7451b), the noun h[r; (evil misery, distress, injury; Psalm 35:12; Strong 7463a), and the verb [[r; (be evil, bad, be displeasing, do wickedly; Isaiah 1:16; Strong 7489a).
7. Evil in the New Testament is a translation of the Greek adjective, kakov" (unserviceable, incapable, morally evil, bad, weak, ruinous; Matthew 24:48; 1 Peter 3:9; Strong 2556) and the noun, kakia; (depravity, wickedness, vice, malice, ill-will, malignity, trouble, misfortune; Romans 1:29; 1 Peter 2:16; Strong 2549). Another Greek word for evil is ponhrov" (in the physical sense poor, sick, painful and in the ethical sense wicked, bad, evil, base, worthless, degenerate, viscious; Acts 17:5; Hebrews 10:22; Strong 4190).

The Bible Doctrine of Evil

Acknowledgement:

The principal ideas for this study were derived from notes taken from taped messages by Pastor R. B. Thieme, Berachah Church, Houston, Texas.

From: <http://www.realttime.net/~wdoud/topics/evil.html>

God's plan is that the Lord Jesus Christ be glorified during the Church Age. One important reason for this is that every human being will have an opportunity to make a decision to accept Christ as Savior. Therefore, when we say that Christ is glorified during the Church Age, we are saying that Christ is the celebrated Person of the Church Age, the focus of attention.

For this reason, one of the Holy Spirit's main functions during the Church Age is to glorify Christ and to make Him known to all people.

John 16:13,14, "But when He, the Spirit of truth, comes, He will guide you into all the truth; for He will not speak on His own initiative, but whatever He hears, He will speak; and He will disclose to you what is to come. He shall glorify Me; for He shall take of Mine, and shall disclose it to you.

It is also the responsibility of Christians to glorify Christ by their own lives; and the Holy Spirit provides the power for us to be able to do that. The believer's body is the temple of the Holy Spirit, and this glorification occurs on the inside of the believer.

1 Cor. 6:19,20 Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from God, and that you are not your own? For you have been bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body.

And the Church (the Body of Christ) participates in bringing glory to God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Eph. 3:20,21 Now to Him who is able to do exceeding abundantly beyond all that we ask or think, according to the power that works within us, to Him be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations forever and ever. Amen.

But, Satan is Christ's enemy and is completely opposed to any activity that glorifies Christ. Satan's strategy has always been to oppose Christ at every turn and to turn human beings away from Christ whenever possible. Satan has specific strategies in his campaign against both unbelievers and Christians.

The unbeliever is made blind to gospel information by being distracted by Satan and by exercising negative volition toward the Word of God. While Satan does not force anyone to be lost, he uses every means to steer the unbeliever away from the truth. His ultimate weapons in this are religion and humanism. He tries to promote the glorification and deification of mankind while downgrading the Lord Jesus Christ.

Satan doesn't give up when a person accepts Christ as Savior. He has a strategy regarding believers which is very subtle and far-reaching. Satan accuses believers before God. The sins of the Christian are observed by the fallen angels and reported. Satan tries to keep the believer from the Word of God. He encourages Christians to ignore the Word and accept false teaching so that they will revert to their former manner of life.

In short, Satan does everything possible to keep people from being saved; or, if a person does get saved, Satan tries to keep that person from being effective in the Christian life.

Satan's total plan, or strategy, is known as Evil. In the Bible, "Evil" is the technical term used for Satan's world strategy. As such, "Evil" is an objective term and has specific meaning and implication. The word "Evil" is capitalized in this paper to show that it is the title of Satan's plan.

Definition of Evil

1 Thess. 5:22, "Abstain from every form of Evil."

To obey this command it is necessary to learn what Evil is and what forms it takes...

The word "Evil" has a distinct technical and categorical meaning in the Word of God. It is not simply a generic word referring to anything that is bad or sinful.

The word "Evil" refers specifically to the policy of Satan as the ruler of this world. Evil is the modus operandi of Satan from the time of his fall throughout the angelic revolution and down to the point when he became the ruler of the world.

Satan is directly opposed to anything involving the Lord Jesus Christ. Satan is devoted to distorting or obscuring any truth related to Christ.

2 Cor. 4:3,4 And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing, in whose case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelieving, that they might not see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God.

Evil is Satan's system by which he administers the rulership of this world. He uses his world rulership to try to bring about the downfall of Jesus Christ. Failing that, Satan tries to turn as many people away from Christ as possible.

Through Evil, Satan brings about two major consequences on earth: sin and human good (the motivation of Evil), both of which are based on errors in thinking. The sin of self-righteousness combined with human good or sincerity produces a saturation of Evil in a nation.

One of the main reasons for learning about Evil from the Bible is to learn that man cannot solve his problems by human solutions. Any effective solution to a human problem is a divine solution. And there is an answer in the Bible for every human need or problem.

Anything that is outside of the plan of God is part of Satan's strategy of Evil. Therefore, any person who is consistently involved in the cosmic (Satanic) system is directly involved with Evil.

Evil results in the destruction of society, the malfunction of society. Evil causes the removal of legitimate authority and its function under the laws of divine establishment. Just as grace and doctrine represent the genius of God in relationship to the human race, so Evil represents the genius of Satan in relationship to the human race.

Therefore, what you and how you think is very important.

There are two ways of thinking:

*Divine viewpoint is thinking doctrine, which glorifies Christ.

*Human viewpoint is thinking Evil, which dishonors Christ.

Therefore, the issue is thought vs thought.

Evil attempts to produce a human good panacea which is expected to solve the problems of life apart from doctrine and divine establishment. So, Evil is often a distortion of doctrine or a distortion of the laws of divine establishment. Satan's original sin was a distortion of doctrine.

Evil comes in many forms:

*Altruistic humanitarianism

*Philanthropy

*Religion

*Legalism

*Reversionism

- *Socialism
- *Political internationalism
- *Government interference
- *Distortion of the law
- *Bribery in government
- *Reducing the military
- *Sociology
- *Public welfare

Evil produces the erroneous concept of "brotherly love." The whole idea of government trying to abolish sickness, mental illness, economic problems, frustrations, and human problems by legislation and human solutions is Evil.

The world's problems can never be solved apart from Bible doctrine and the laws of divine establishment.

Evil also includes:

- *Social action
- *Restriction of human freedom for the greater good
- *Distortion of law to solve social and economic problems
- *Interference of government in business and free enterprise
- *Government quotas

Satan: The Originator of Evil

Evil originated and existed before human history. The means by which it was transmitted from previous creature existence to human history is Satan himself.

The origin of Evil is Satan's genius to devise a system to oppose God.

Evil originated in angelic creation in the greatest creature to ever come from the hand of God.

TOPIC: SATAN; DEMONS; ARMOR OF GOD

Satan controls most of Christianity through his cosmic system. The thing that makes people function in the cosmic system is arrogance.

TOPIC: ARROGANCE

Satan's plan is related to beating Christ to the Millennium with his own attempt to produce a perfect world. The more the world follows his plan, the greater the degeneracy which occurs.

Satan's plans always look good to the stupid, but it always results in degeneracy.

Refer to L. S. Chafer, Systematic Theology, Vol. 2, pp. 100-101, 108-111.

1 John 3:8, "When anyone commits a sin, he has become the agent of the devil."

*The sin nature is usually the source of temptation; volition is the source of sin.

*Your decision to sin puts you immediately into the cosmic system, making you the agent of Satan.

*The works of the devil can only be destroyed by functioning inside the plan of God. We are the products of our own decisions; therefore, we bring disaster on ourselves.

Biblical Conclusions About Evil

*The mature believer should be able to distinguish between sin and Evil.

Heb 5:13-14 For everyone who partakes only of milk is not accustomed to the word of righteousness, for he is a babe.

But solid food is for the mature, who because of practice have their senses trained to discern good and Evil.

Matt. 6:23, "But if your eye is Evil, the entire body is full of darkness [cosmic involvement]."

Matt. 15:19, "For out of the mind come Evil thoughts."

*"Love" refers to the spiritual love which is the fruit of the Holy Spirit. Personal love can think Evil, but impersonal love, a function of the royal family, cannot think Evil.

1 Cor. 13:5 Love does not behave dishonorably, is not preoccupied with self, is not hypersensitive, does not think Evil."

*God protects the believer who is occupied with Christ and who has positive volition to doctrine.

Prov 12:21, "No Evil happens to the righteous."

Ps 37:17 "But the Lord sustains the righteous."

Ps 91:10, "No Evil will befall you; you who love the Lord hate Evil. The Lord preserves the souls of His mature ones; He delivers them from the hands of the Evil one."

Ps 121:7, "The Lord will protect you from all Evil; He will guard your soul."

Prov 2:11-13, "The wise sees the Evil and hides himself, but the stupid goes on and is punished for it."

*A believer who walks in the cosmic system can expect to be frustrated by Evil.

Rom 7:19, "For what I desire I do not do, but what I do not desire [Evil], this I keep practicing."

*The believer is warned to beware of those who practice Evil, Phil 3:2. Not tavern owners and drug dealers, but the respectable ...

Even legitimate things are mutilated or distorted. To beware does not necessarily mean to avoid but to understand.

*Sincere do-gooders are the major practitioners of Evil. The more involved you are in sincere human good crusades, the more you intensify your Evil.

3 Jn 11. "Beloved, do not be imitators of the Evil but of the good."

*Those who are under the influence of Evil always have a price.

It is a dangerous temptation to any poor believer to chase after money so as to neglect Bible doctrine. Actually, this verse applies to the love of any detail of life.

1 Tim 6:10, "The love of money is the root of all Evils."

*Influence by Evil explains why prayers are not answered.

Job 35:12, "There they cry out, but He does not answer because of the pride of Evil men."

This explains the pattern of saying "no" to truth, building callous on the soul, intensifying arrogance into self-pity, self-righteousness, and guilt, and therefore coming to believe the lie.

1 Cor. 15:33, "Evil companions corrupt good morals."

2 Thess. 3:2-3, "That we may be delivered from perverse and Evil men, for all believers do not have doctrine; but the Lord is faithful and He will strengthen you and protect you from Evil."

*The attitude of the mature believer toward Evil is stated in:

Ps 84:10. "For a day in Your courts is better than a thousand days in the cosmic system. I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of My Lord than to dwell in the tents of Evil."

*Submission to the authority of establishment prevents Evil and the influence of Evil, Eccl 8:2-5.

*The laws of divine establishment are designed to protect the citizens of the nation from Evil.

Rom 13:3-4 implies that the unbeliever can function successfully within divine establishment when he follows establishment truth. "Do you desire not to fear the authority? Therefore, keep on doing the good and you will have recognition from it. For it [government] is a minister of God to you for the purpose of good. But if you do Evil, be afraid. For he does not wear the sword for nothing."

*By protecting against Evil, the laws of divine establishment give freedom and protection for evangelization and for the teaching of Bible doctrine. The only limitation on crime is humility and respect for authority. Micah 1:12 teaches that our failure to cope with Evil leads to destruction of the nation.

Amos 5:14-15, "Hate Evil, love good, and establish justice in the court; consequently, the Lord God of the armies will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph."

*Evil is distinguished from war and disease, Jer 28:8. Sin and Evil occur in war, but war as a category is not Evil. War brings national freedom. War is not sin; it is inevitable and a necessity. Disease in itself is not sinful, though sin and Evil are associated with disease. Not all people who are sick are being disciplined by God.

The Relationship of Evil to Arrogance

*Mental attitude arrogance is anything related to preoccupation with self to the point of sin, human good, or Evil. It is satisfaction with self and dissatisfaction with others and with God.

*Negative volition arrogance is related to preoccupation with self and causes apathy toward doctrine. The authority of the pastor or the message of the Bible is rejected.

*Impulsive arrogance is any abuse of authority.

*Blind arrogance is the arrogance of legalism. In this a person is partially divorced from reality (sociopathic rather than psychotic). This includes self-righteous arrogance, in which a person fails to see in himself what he criticizes in others.

*Arrogance toward institutions is rejection of the authority, policy, and purpose of a bona fide organization.

*Conspiracy arrogance follows institutional arrogance and results in a conspiracy to overthrow the purpose, policy, or authority of an organization.

*Criminal arrogance seeks to solve problems through violence. It is totally divorced from reality. It includes terrorist and revolutionary activities.

*Crusader arrogance is the self-righteous arrogance of trying to straighten out the world. A person places his personal standards above the law or any form of establishment or authority. When criminal arrogance interlocks with crusader arrogance, there is terrorism or revolution.

*Psychotic arrogance is total divorcement from all reality. It is a result of bad decisions, not genetics. It is intense concentration on self. It is the emotional control of reason.

*Sexual arrogance is preoccupation with sex and self-gratification. It is preoccupation with the body to the exclusion of the soul.

*Genetic arrogance is assuming that greatness in life is inherited. Parents who seek recognition through the achievement of their children have this type of arrogance.

*Political arrogance is a result or companion or crusader arrogance. It tries to offer human solutions to life's problems. Liberals and conservatives both suffer from political arrogance.

*Client nation arrogance emphasizes the laws of divine establishment and the function of government leadership in terms of arrogance versus humility.

Client nation arrogance is the failure of our elected representatives and arrogant bureaucracy to control the government.

Client nation arrogance is the collective arrogance of a people living in Satan's world.

Monarchy is the rule of one man in the interest of the common good. Under arrogance this becomes tyranny, i.e., the rule of one man for his own advantage.

Aristocracy is the rule of a group in the interest of the common good. This degenerates to an oligarchy, which is the rule of a group for their own benefit, as the cosmic system influences the nation.

A republic is the rule of the better part of the people in the interest of common good. But when arrogance comes, it degenerates into a democracy, which is the rule of the worst part of the people for their own benefit.

*In authority arrogance, the individual fails to make the most difficult transition of temporal life, which is going from the authority in the home to freedom in life. The home is organized humility. The parents' authority is enforced humility, and child's response to enforced humility produces genuine humility. Rejection of overt authority in life results in rejection of inward authority of the soul, and that destroys a person's self-discipline.

*Arrogance of Ignorance. Genuine humility is necessary for the transition from authority in the home to freedom in life and from ignorance at salvation to wisdom at spiritual maturity. Genuine humility is teachability to make that transition. The arrogance of ignorance is the failure to make that transition from ignorance to cognizance in the Christian way of life.

*In the arrogance of unhappiness, self-centeredness eliminates any capacity or possibility for happiness. Involvement in the world guarantees unhappiness and leads to erroneous ideas about what constitutes happiness. This means you expect others to make you happy. Entertainment and marriage is for people who are already happy. But with the arrogance of unhappiness, you have a martyr complex which results in trying to control people by giving them a guilt complex. This is how the weak control the strong.

*The arrogance of morality is the self-righteous arrogance of superimposing false standards of morality on others. People major in one moral thing so they can rationalize and say they are better than everyone else in that area. This is superimposing a false standard of morality on others or taking a true standard out of its context, e.g., salvation. Morality is designed to protect human freedom.

*The arrogance of emotion is irrationality. Arrogant people stop thinking and so their emotion becomes their substitute for thought. This is total preoccupation with self related to emotion. Knowledge is the environment for thinking. Bible doctrine is the environment for decisions. Emotional arrogance fantasizes and therefore collapses under pressure.

*In the arrogance of pseudo-generosity, a person gives because of a desire for attention, approbation, or to buy friendship or happiness. 2 Cor. 9:7-11 teaches that the function of genuine generosity is found in the mind.

*Arrogance of Christian service. Loss of momentum comes from rejection of doctrine and substituting Christian service for spirituality. Christian service becomes a distraction to momentum. Production is a result of growth, never the means. Perpetuation of Christian service while in the cosmic system is the arrogance of Christian service. Arrogance mistakes Christian service for growth and momentum.

*The arrogance of discouragement is preoccupation with self under pressure and testing. Unexplained disaster tempts the believer to feel sorry for himself. Being maligned, treated unfairly, or facing the death of loved ones are the kinds of disaster or pressure that bring this on.

1 Kings 19:10.

*Arrogance of Lust. When legitimate desire is linked with arrogance, it becomes lust. Inordinate desire is lust. Desire is not wrong, but lust is. Lust is arrogant preoccupation with one's desires.

*Pseudo-intellectual arrogance is the superimposition of human I. Q. over spiritual IQ. Arrogance rejects divine viewpoint. It glorifies human speculation to the exclusion of Bible doctrine, or seeks to reconcile Bible doctrine with false philosophical, psychological, and scientific speculation; e.g., gnosticism.

The Results of Negative Volition to the Word of God

Negative volition to doctrine. A person resists doctrine because he is antagonistic to truth, to God, and to the things of God. He is the enemy of God's plan. Evil, before it ever becomes a function or action, is a thought or motive. People are degenerate because of the way they think, not because of what they do. You have to be preoccupied with yourself before you can be negative to doctrine. This is characterized by antagonism toward everyone associated with the Christian life. There are three categories of negative volition:

*Negative volition at God-consciousness. This is the point of accountability which occurs at different ages depending on the culture. God-consciousness can occur in a number of ways.

-Teleological thinking says a structure demands a designer.

-Cosmological thinking says the intuitive law of cause and effect demands the existence of God.

-Ontological thinking says that since the human mind possesses the idea of a perfect Being, such a Being must exist. There must be an absolute which gives character to the relative.

-Anthropological thinking says that man's soul possesses both volition and conscience with an urge to choose right rather than wrong, and that the structure of society is based on the recognition of virtue and truth.

-Theological thinking says that God must exist because men universally believe in His existence. Heathen are heathen because of negative volition at God-consciousness or Gospel hearing, Rom 1:18-25.

*Negative volition at Gospel hearing. Rejection of Jesus Christ leaves a person outside of God's plan: 1 Cor 1:18; 2 Cor 4:3-4; 2 Pet 2:20-22.

*Negative volition to doctrine. The believer immediately enters this area when he rejects the communicator or the message. Emotional arrogance is a big reason for this.

2 Cor 6:11, "You are hindered by your own emotions."

The negative Christian becomes selective in what he thinks, thus rejecting anything resembling truth. Then he leans on his emotions for pleasure, thereby misusing emotion, Rom 16:17-18.

Worldly (cosmic) degeneration occurs when a Christian becomes antagonistic to truth and enters into a state of degeneracy. Degeneracy is in the mind long before it is in actions. Rom 1:24-27 illustrates, "they who exchange the doctrine of God for a lie."

Anti-establishment activity occurs when the soul is antagonistic to the laws of divine establishment and authority. 2Tim3:2-3 teaches that this begins in the home with "disobedience to parents." This is ingrained antagonism toward authority.

Rom 1:28-32 is the best illustration of anti-establishment thinking and activity.

Panaceas are Man's attempts to improve the world and are always sponsored by Satan. Any solution sought apart from divine truth is a cosmic panacea. A cosmic panacea is an Evil (Satanic) solution which tries to keep the Lord Jesus Christ out of the picture.

The world's panaceas reject any salvation by grace or spirituality by grace.

Instead of freedom, there is the demand for equality.

"The end always justifies the means," is the motto of the believer participating in this. He believes in redistribution of wealth, over-taxation, legislation to solve all problems, sameness in life, big government and little people where citizens are slaves of the state, regulation of private enterprise, confiscation of private property, and utopianism.

Cosmic panaceas lead to violence, terrorism, and revolution under the principle of social engineering.

The state trains the children to be obedient to the dictates of the state rather than to parents. There is a total rejection of freedom and authority.

Religion is Satan's counterfeit of the plan of God. Christianity is not a religion, but is a relationship with God through the person of Jesus Christ. Religion is man by man's efforts seeking to gain the approbation of God. 2 Cor 11 describes religious leaders. 2 Tim 3:7-8, "these religious types oppose doctrine, are men of depraved mind [degenerate], disqualified from blessing with regard to doctrine" See also 2 Pet 2:1-3.

Demonism. See Topic: DEMONISM

Anthropocentric (man-centered) academic speculation is motivated by pseudo-intellectual arrogance. This is the attempt to reconcile philosophical and scientific speculation with doctrine. When this can't be done, the person rejects doctrine and seeks a substitute. The more arrogant you are, the more you are attracted to academic speculation.

Grace Versus Evil.

Every generation has to choose between the grace policy of God, represented by the cross, and the Evil policy of Satan. This issue has never left the human race. The genius of God has perpetuated the issue of volition throughout human history and throughout the human race.

Therefore, the issue before the royal family is: are you influenced by doctrine or by Evil? Our parents in the Garden faced this same issue.

Grace is the means by which doctrinal principles are elucidated; Evil as Satan's policy is the means by which false doctrine is inculcated, Prov 11:18-19, 14:22, 15:3, 16:6, 22:3, 24:1-4; Eph. 5:16; 2 Thess. 3:2-3.

These passages present some of the following principles.

*Divine omniscience provides discipline for Evil and blessing for doctrine.

*Thinking you are an island unto yourself is in itself Evil.

*The ultimate result of the pursuit of Evil for the believer is the sin unto death. This is the most suffering any believer can ever endure, but he deserves every bit of it.

*Now, just as in the beginning, when you partake of the "forbidden fruit" of Evil, you receive tremendous divine discipline. Just as what you eat from a tree becomes a part of you, so when you partake of Evil it becomes a part of you. And simply by being filled with human good and Evil, you bring on yourself a whole system of self-induced misery and divine discipline.

*Eph 5:16 summarizes all these principles of Evil found in Proverbs. You redeem time by the filling of the Spirit and maximum doctrine in your soul, which at the same time kills off Evil.

Knowledge of the Word of God neutralizes Evil in the soul, Ps 54:5; Rom 12:21.

Once under the influence of Evil, the only possible recovery comes from learning doctrine.

Grace does not come through when you are under the influence of Evil.

It is impossible for any of God's attributes to be Evil. He is minus all the Evil things Satan does all the time. That there is no Evil in God indicates the great dividing line in the angelic conflict

Protection from Evil.

The believer in fellowship is protected from Evil.

Satan wants you to drop your guard and go negative toward doctrine, Ps. 21:11, 23:4; Prov 12:12,20,21; Gen 48:16; Gen 50:20, "They meant it for Evil, but God meant it for good."

There is no coexistence with both Evil and inner happiness. However, sin and happiness can coexist. Do you know anyone happier than David, or anyone who lived better than David? You can be happy living in your sins.

There is divine protection from Evil for the positive believer:

Ps.37:16-19, "They [positive believers] will not be ashamed in the time of Evil; in the day of depression they will still have abundance."

Ps. 91:10, 97:10, 119:101, 121:7; Prov. 2:10-14.

Prov 1:33, "He who listens to Me shall live in security, and shall be at ease without fear of Evil."

Prov 16:6, "By occupation with the Lord, one avoids Evil."

Prov 19:23 teaches that there is divine protection from Evil all around.

The more doctrine you have in your soul, the more you will love the Lord and the more you will hate Evil. All thoughts in life are actually fighting over your soul, Prov 3:7.

The negative believer immediately finds a great deal against which he can react, and he moves into the stages of reversion. Remember that Satan offers him a pseudo-maturity status and pseudo prosperity. Satan is capable of rewarding as the ruler of the world.

So the constant intake of doctrine is the only insulation from Evil, because doctrine goes where Evil would reside; i.e., in the mind, and there doctrine combats Evil.

Psalm 21:11 Though they plan evil against you, though they devise mischief, they will not succeed.

2Samuel 5

01/10/1975 Ps. 21:11b-13 Doctrine of evil (review); doctrine of revolution (revised)

Evil is the modus operandi of Satan. It includes much more than just sin. It is an attempt to solve the problems of life apart from Bible doctrine. Doctrine neutralizes evil. Evil distorts grace. Evil distorts establishment. Reversionists are influenced by evil evil rationalizes. Conspiracy and revolution is evil. Evil is self destructive. Evil seeks to build happiness on someone else's unhappiness. There is no evil in God. God judges evil. In spite of evil, Jesus Christ controls history.

Those who have planned evil against the believer, cannot carry out these plans. David was attacked by every facet of evil. There is human and angelic evil.

Doctrine of Revolution

1. New notes. This is a change wrought by violence; the violent overthrow of duly constituted authority.
  - a. To overthrow any government by violence is revolution.
  - b. Revolution is removing the authority of establishment by means of violence.
  - c. Revolution is a form of conspiracy. Their objectives are associated with evil.
  - d. The carefully planned plan of conspirators is called a plot.
  - e. The means of carrying it out is called intrigue or machination.
  - f. The laws of divine establishment are designed to perpetuate the human race during the entire Angelic Conflict.
  - g. Revolution seeks to overthrow by violence by establishment authority and replace it with evil authority. This all depends upon what influences us. We cannot influence doctrine, it can influence us. Same with evil. Evil is demotion, the sin unto death, illustrated by Saul. Most people associated evil with sin, but sin is only a small part of it. All kinds of concepts from reversionism to any type of system where man by man's efforts solves man's problems.
2. The principles of revolution.
  - a. The antagonism of evil toward establishment is the divine policy; evil seeks to overthrow establishment against the laws of establishment and against the authority to protect the human race.
  - b. Conspiracy and revolution are two sides of the one coin called revolution. Shooting arrows in the context from a place of concealment at the blameless. They suddenly shoot at him and they do not fear.
  - c. They hold fast to an evil purpose in themselves. They conspire to
  - d. Evil is the concept behind all revolution. A revolutionary seeks only evil.
  - e. Since evil is the plan and policy of Satan, evil is a reaction to doctrine and the laws of divine establishment.
  - f. This can be motivated by arrogance, implacability or some mental attitude sins or some form of lust like power lust or approbation lust or even some sincere human good.
  - g. Since evil includes sin, religion, apostasy, altruism, socialism, public welfare, it produces many antithetical types of revolutionaries. They can be sweet and loving or cruel and vicious.
  - h. The revolutionist can be a power-mad dictator or a sincere clergyman. The old sin nature belongs in all kinds of people; evil resides in the right lobe just as sin is found in the soul.
  - i. This includes a sincere visionary just as much as a hardcore Bolshevik.
  - j. He can be a downtrodden member of the masses or rich.
  - k. He can be an opportunist or a reversionistic Christian.
3. The Word of God does not justify revolution.
  - a. Most of you think in terms of people. The Bourbons killed Marie Antoinette and that did not solve anything. They thought this would eliminate the authority and they yelled that they were free, but they were in greater enslavement. So, nothing was ever solved. Labor unions created greater problems than what they solved. Num. 16 the revolution against Moses included all kinds of people. It included Korah in the tribe of Levi. He wanted the power to stay at the tribe. The tribe of Reuben was the oldest tribe. There were several people at the tribe of Reuben. These leaders conspired against Moses. There were 14,000 people in the revolution. They have perished in the revolution of Korah. The Word of God is against all revolution. The problem of the revolutionary war.

- b. Bob assumes that you do not know anything about the Bible or about American history or about the Anglo-Saxon background. There is not great contribution from Africa, Asia or Europe. When you become an American citizen, your culture is Anglo-Saxon. Your freedoms were developed in the Shire Moot. They were developed from Bible doctrine and from that segment of the reformation and Scotland even, but not from the continent. England is an island but the cultural spiritual source of everything that is American. This was not a revolutionary war in the colonies. This was the first American War for independence. We won the first one and lost the second. This was not the overthrow of a government by violence, but a fight for establishment. Establishment was not vested in King George anymore. The authority was vested in the parliament, the House of Lords and the House of Commons; and the House of Commons was a bonafide authority. It had representation from all over England, Scotland and none from the United States. Yet we were taxed; excessively taxed and without our consent. There were no elections in the House of Commons. This was tyranny and there was a war to clarify this. It was a war to give us seats in the House of commons or not to tax us whatsoever.
  - c. Revolution is always anti-God. Return to Him from Whom you have revolted. This verse recognizes that they were in revolt against God.
  - d. Revolution is a manifestation of reversionism and apostasy. Isa. 1:2-5 59:13 revolution is always composed of lying words. The promise solutions that they cannot fulfil.
  - e. The source comes fro the right lobe. Jer. 5:23 this people has a calloused and revolutionary heart. They have turned aside from doctrine
  - f. The teaching of Bible doctrine is the solution for revolution. Ezek. 2
4. The historical trend of revolution.
- a. It begins in the soul with some form of reversionism. Blackout of the soul or hardness of heart. In the final stage, reverse process reversionism, when you should be under the laws of divine establishment, you are in a state of revolution.
  - b. Regardless of whether it is believer or unbeliever type, the result is seeking a human solution to the problems of life. Only divine answers exist. Satan has eluded
  - c. The solutions may or may not be related to the sins of the sin nature, but they always advocate the overflow of the sin nature it may be arrogance or implacability. Sometimes people try to solve these problems without any bitterness or ax to grind or without any sin at all; just filled with altruism.

- d. The revolutionist can never understand principles of authority. Then any person who is abusing authority, he wants to get rid of that person as well as that authority.
  - e. The revolutionist cannot separate the principle of authority from the person who has the authority. This is why we have Young Life and Campus Crusade.
  - f. He reacts against the person who abused the authority but the authority itself; the system of authority. This is our Anglo-Saxon background. In the Shire Moot, they talked it out. Violence does not solve anything. In the house of commons, we have the magna carta applied.
  - g. We think of revolution in terms of government; but it can be applied to business, marriage, the church, and many other systems of authority.
  - h. The French revolution and the Russian revolution were evil. The Bolsheviks were much worse than who they replaced. The Jacobins much worse than Louise Bourbon. In each case, the person and the authority were destroyed. This is what happens when violence are used the solve man's problems.
  - i. Revolution involves lawless mobs which cannot reason or solve problems.
  - j. Mob action is emotional and destructive the enemy of establishment.
  - k. Mob action seems to intimidate and destroy proper authority.
  - l. Therefore, mobs are self-destructive. They have no establishment, no authority to perpetuate themselves. Mobs must die.
5. Examples:
- a. Russian and French are obvious.
  - b. The reformation was freedom from the revolutionists. The Roman Catholic church did not believe in establishment; they mad themselves the establishment. There was political and establishment freedom.
  - c. The rise of Christian organizations outside of the church are forms of revolution. All of the Young Life campaign is a revolutionary organization. Because of personalities, they have sought to destroy the authority of the church. They say the church is not doing the job, then they say, "Pay us to do the job." They do not even know about the royal family of God or the universal priesthood of the believer. They claim to be doing good; but they have overthrown the authority of the pastor-teacher. The Victorians feared sex, but not death; opposite today.

Psalm 21:11 Though they plan evil against you, though they devise mischief, they will not succeed.

You make them turn their back. Hebrew commentaries have them running away, and then turning around so that they can get shot in the face.

You, David, will appoint them, the shoulder. Today, this means to load and lock. They have a bow and they fit an arrow in the bow. You hold up the bow, load and lock. The men are trained and ready.

What this Verse Means

1. Military preparedness frustrates hostile nations.
2. Appointing the shoulder is the archer infantryman at the ready to meet the enemy.
3. The archer is prepared, turned toward the enemy.
4. The bow is held ready to shoot.
5. The picture of archer infantry ready for battle.
6. They were poised and ready to see the faces of their enemies.
7. National peace always comes through the military establishment.

Psalm 21:12 For you will put them to flight; you will aim at their faces with your bows.

Qal imperative of rum (kum?).

We have already studied the first victory. We will sing and celebrate Your powerful victory. Jesus Christ controls history. Believers are often on the side of evil. The supergrace believer knows better and David is speaking as a supergrace believer.

Psalm 21:13 Be exalted, O LORD, in your strength! We will sing and praise your power.

We have cleared the decks for the second Philistine invasion.

2Sam. 5:20 And David came to Baal-perazim, and David defeated them there. And he said, "The LORD has burst through my enemies before me like a bursting flood." Therefore the name of that place is called Baal-perazim. This is where he accomplished his tactical penetration.

2Sam. 5:21 And the Philistines left their idols there, and David and his men carried them away.

David is the greatest ruler who has ever lived until our Lord returns. He was a great civil and military leader. He was a great military man of history.

The Philistines are mostly Micenian with some Dorian Greek thrown in. We have not understood until modern times that the Greek people were the most vigorous and powerful of all the ancient world.

The 5th century Greeks, that we know, the Classical Greeks, made up a very small part of the Greeks. Many other Greeks almost conquered the world before Alexander came on the scene.

This time they show up as infantry. We often think of Jews as peaceniks, but throughout the world, Jews have always been great fighters.

All freedom in any national entity is gotten by means of the military.

We ought to have a giant infantry soldier on the shore instead of Lady Liberty.

The Philistines are the bold type of Greek warrior; they are the type who went into the Sea of Troy. They later fought at...

To come up means that the Philistines came from their flat, maritime plain and came up the hills of Judæa. Even though they were defeated, they were not decisively defeated.

Once again, the freedom of Israel has been challenged. There is a good tactical position for the Philistines. They liked the Valley of Rephaim. It is an easy march from Bethshan and you go through one valley into another, and you are not climbing mountains but it is an easy march. The Bethshan valley going into the Valley of Rephaim.

There was a terrain consideration; they wanted to recover their war gods; and they expected David to come and attack in the same way, and they would be ready for that approach this time. The Philistine army is now fortifying this ridge. David found a gully where the Philistines did not have a strong concentration there. They Philistines planned to leave that gully open so that David could see it; then they would have troops on both sides of the valley. They let David's army charge in, and then they would surround them.

David used the terrain; they thought that David would use the same approach as he did before. God is going to prohibit a repetition of this attack. The Philistines were coming back. They had found a way to trap David, so they thought.

2Sam. 5:22 And the Philistines came up yet again [now, once again, the Philistines invaded] and spread out in the Valley of Rephaim.

David is to surround or to turn around. In the Hiphil stem, it means to envelop. David is supposed to move against the Philistines by means of a single envelopment attack. They are waiting for David this time. There is a grove of trees which is on the flank and to the rear of the Philistine army. It is in this area that the single envelopment will be executed.

There will be a hinge, and the bulk of the army is going to come around the hinge and attack from that direction.

2Sam. 5:23 And when David inquired of the LORD [a battle prayer], he said, "You shall not go up [you will not make a front assault]; go around to their rear [execute a single envelopment behind them], and come against them opposite the balsam trees [and attack them from the mulberry grove].

The Philistines had come into this valley as before.

A single envelopment can be the greatest thing in the world, but it can also fail drastically.

The ridge is called Baal Parazim. The holding force is out in front, and that is the hinge; but the bulk of the army is in the mulberry grove. There has to be good timing here. There is a time to launch the attack.

The Philistines have shifted their troops along the ridge in order to set up the ambush. The Lord blesses aggressive action. God is approving the killing of the enemy.

They were attacked from the north the first time, so they retreated south, and then west. They retreated down the valley. David did a front assault before. But he will come in behind them.

2Sam. 5:24 And when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, then rouse yourself [attack immediately], for then the LORD has gone out before you to strike down the army of the Philistines."

David did what the Lord commanded him. He executed according to the Lord's instructions. David annihilates the enemy. He strikes down their troops.

They expected an attack from one direction, but they got it from the other.

2Sam. 5:25 And David did as the LORD commanded him, and struck down the Philistines from Geba to Gezer.

This battle broke the back of the Philistines and there will be another skirmish, but this pretty much did them in.

The Philistines had a brilliant plan, and God's plan overruled their approach. You need to be flexible, and this is what saved David.

This is an 18 mile pursuit. Military training is the very keystone to freedom.

Psalm 21 was the commentary on the first battle; Psalm 20 is the commentary on the second battle.

Some of you probably wonder what the Bible is doing with all of these battles? What is the significance? It is battles that give you freedom; it is battles that give you life.

Don't every try to keep your kids out of the military. This is where the Word of God says we get our freedom.

God commands the taking of life. Capital punishment is ordained by God. This is a divine commandment; and it is just as much a commandment as the Ten Commandments. God demands killing.

Missionaries ought to realize that you evangelize from a position of freedom. The evaluation of human life in the Bible is much different than that of the Bible.

There is not holy ghost language.

Psalm 20:1 [To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David. May the LORD \[the Lord will\] answer you in the day of trouble \[pressure\]! May the name of the God of Jacob protect \[to protect, to defend\] you!](#)

God answers David in his day of troubles; God answers David's battle prayer. All freedom is purchased by the military.

Jacob means to defraud, to cheat. He is changed to prince of God. God orders the extermination of all revolutionists. Revolution is anti-God and anti-Christian.

Two wars for independence in United States history.

Some Principles to Come out of this

1. God answers battle prayers.
2. The day of pressure is the attack of the Philistines.
3. The defense or protection of David is Jesus Christ, Who controls history.
4. The basis of protection is David's supergrace status or maximum doctrine in his own soul.
5. The fulfillment is the two victories over the Philistines.
6. God cannot use someone who is influenced by evil to deliver Israel.

Many of our Christian organizations are nothing more than believers gathering together to change evil. But you cannot change evil. Evil can change you, but not vice versa. David carried the nation because of his spiritual life and so did the knights under him. This is why in 33 years, David accomplished the impossible, carving out an empire in the middle of a half-dozen predatory nations and Solomon will have a nation of peace.

Psalm 20:2 [May he send \[He will send help\] you help from the sanctuary and give you support from Zion!](#)

This verse is not a prayer; this is a promise. David learned doctrine from the tabernacle and this was how he learned the various things they caused him to move on to supergrace. He became a supergrace believer. David advanced to supergrace when he was very young. He understood the need for battle prayer.

David has pitched the tabernacle right next to his castle on the high hill called Zion where David's castle is, and the tabernacle is pitched next to it. It has been at Shiloh, Mizpeh, Nob. But I don't think this is right. David moved the Ark of God; but He did not move the tabernacle.

God promotes prepared believers and prepared believers have doctrine in their souls.

The Synonyms for Maturity

1. The language synonym; chakmah.
2. Greater grace is another phrase.
3. The priestly synonym; the altar in the soul. Bible doctrine in the soul is the altar in the soul. We have the sacrifices of life based upon the altar in the soul. Do not try to roast the lamb on the open fire by the boy scouts.
4. A building synonym. Eph. 4:12–16 a complete complex.
5. Redeeming the time; Eph. 5:16, 18
6. A central control synonym; Bible doctrine must be our dictator. You will always have the answers and the capacity. You cannot grow up in a one-shot deal; you must grow up in the local church. Outside of that, there is not growth. This is the only system which God has ordained. People do not absorb the Word of God for themselves.
7. Military synonyms: putting on the full armor of God; following the colors to the high ground; the establishment of a command post.
8. Discipleship and take up your cross; these are mistaken for something else, but these are maturity synonyms.
9. The salt of the earth in Matt, Mark, Luke and Col. 4:6 salt is a preservative. There are at least 37 men who are the salt of the earth.

Psalm 20:2 [May he send \[He will send help\] you help from the sanctuary and give you support from Zion!](#)

Zion is David's headquarters; it was his Pentagon; it was his headquarters. He had doctrine in his soul when he walked into his headquarters. This was his literal command post where he is sustained by his spiritual command post in his soul.

1. As David goes to his hq, he was well-prepared; he was stabilized in his command post.
2. He was a prepared man spiritually and professionally.
3. God uses prepared men.
4. The invasion crisis was great but doctrine resident in the soul was greater. David's help came from doctrine in his soul.
5. He was sustained with his staff in castle Zion.

01/12/1975 Chariots in the Bible; doctrine of propitiation; profile of Jesus Christ

David's battle prayers were answered.

Mincah is the special food offerings which emphasize propitiation. Jesus Christ is the God-man, Who had to become man to fulfill God's plan for Him. We use the bread in communion as Israel used the mincah. We remember the Person of Jesus Christ and His work. David became a great man, military and on the battlefield; but also a great king; one of the greatest people who has ever lived. He avoided every form of evil. Evil is the policy of Satan; operation bleeding heart, socialism, communism. David had great power and the ability to handle this power and authority. Evil and sin are two different principles. We all sin; sin comes from the sin nature and evil comes from the right lobe. All great rulers in history were sinners; all of them. God still ordained that they would be rulers. There are sinners who are great and sinners who are not.

Frederick the Great was a homosexual, but he was the greatest of all German rulers ever. Peter the Great of Russia did more for Russian than anyone else; and a great hell raiser; Catherine the Great is the best known nymphomaniac of all time and also a great ruler. For some of you, this is a brand new thought, that a person can be a great ruler and sin as well. Evil is FDR, evil is compulsory education rather than universal military training; evil is the rise of liberalism. Evil is a guy with long hair; an effeminate fag, a sissy. It is an altruistic socialist. It is a psychologist who is a humanitarian.

King Saul was influenced by evil and he was taken out by the sin unto death. The most mixed up person today is the born-again believer; he can be very sweet and nice and he may be involved in some wonderful cause. Evil always abuses power. David is free from evil.

Propitiation

1. The God-ward side of salvation is propitiation, whereby the essence of God is made compatible to man's salvation through Jesus Christ. There is no compromise. God's character is not compromised. God is sovereignty, righteous, love, eternal life. The real key to God's character is His holiness. This must remain intact or God is not God. At the cross, we have redemption; the sins of mankind were paid for on the cross. Man is reconciled to God through Jesus Christ's work on the cross. The character of God is not compromised in salvation.

2. This is communicated in the Ark and the Mercy seat.
3. Propitiation was appropriated by faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. Rom. 3:25–26
4. Propitiation is related to the work of Christ on the cross. Lev.
5. The Mercy Seat represents the Person of Jesus Christ.
6. The New Testament confirms the importance of the Mercy Seat. Heb. 9:5
7. Propitiation is related to unlimited atonement. 1John 2:2
8. Propitiation demonstrates the perfect love of God.
9. Propitiation represents the Rom. 3:25 Jesus Christ is the reason that God restrained judgement of sin in the Old Testament; He waited until Christ on the cross.
10. The importance of propitiation can be observed by the Law in the Ark of God. The Law cannot justify. "O God, be propitious to me a sinner."
11. Men are not saved by begging God for mercy; we are saved by putting our faith in Jesus Christ.

David not only had his battle prayer, but he had his own communion service. Food offerings and He will accept your burnt offerings.

David and Propitiation

1. Bible doctrine in the soul becomes the basis for confidence in a crisis.
2. David's confidence is based upon propitiation.
3. David learned propitiation by seeing the burnt offering and the minchah over and over again.
4. These offering emphasize Who and What Christ is.
5. Jesus Christ controls history. Because Jesus controls history; he recognizes the importance of the commands which he received. Two antithetical attacks on the same terrain, which confused and beat the Philistines.
6. The relationship of the individual to Christ. This explains Stonewall Jackson.
7. Under propitiation, Christ has found a way to save the undeserving believer. Based on this pattern, God can give us everything.

Psalm 20:3 May he remember all your offerings and regard with favor your burnt sacrifices! Selah

Without divine backing, there is no victory in battle. An army must be thoroughly trained. It must have men with the motivation to fight, to subordinate themselves to authorities to a greater purpose; but the primary factor is the grace of God. Jesus Christ controls history. An army may be well-trained, but Jesus Christ must control the outcome.

Psalm 20:4 May he grant you your heart's desire [give you according to your right lobe] and fulfill all your plans [David's battle plan]!

The response of the Jewish army to David. There is a capacity to appreciate the Lord Jesus Christ in victory. David made an entirely different attack, which is the element of surprise, and this is why he was able to defeat the Philistines in both battles. David was flexible.

Psalm 20:5 May we shout for joy over your salvation [battle deliverance, victory], and in the name of our God set up our banners [in the Name of Elohim, we will plant our colors]! May the LORD fulfill all your [battle] petitions!

David is a man of battle and a spiritual man and a man of prayer. The Lord will fulfill all of your battle petitions. Jesus Christ controls history and He went to God in prayer.

When David heard the sound of the Philistines marchers, he attacked and drove them north, separating them from their supplies, and chasing them down for 18 miles.

Psalm 20:6 Now I know that the LORD saves his anointed; He will answer him from His holy heaven with the saving might of his right hand.

The army has confidence in God and knows that God would answer their prayers from heaven.

The Profile of Jesus Christ

1. Jesus is God, co-equal and co-eternal with God the Father.
2. Jesus Christ is different from the other members of the godhead; He is the only Savior; He became a man to be our Savior. He was able to go to the cross and He provide His mighty deeds. Believing in God does not save you; recognizing the existence of God does not save your.
3. Jesus is the prince ruler of the church and the High Priest of the church.
4. He is the Mediator between God and man.
5. Jesus Christ is the victor of the Angelic Conflict through death, burial and resurrection. This was done coterminous with accomplishing our salvation.
6. He is the sovereign executive of history. He is seated at the right hand of the Father.
7. Jesus Christ is the God of battle.
8. He is the future and eternal ruler of the world.

The military profile of Jesus Christ. This prepares us for v. 7. Only the Philistines used chariots and horses. Their chariots were of no help. The Egyptians, the Assyrians, the Mitanni, and a few others used chariots. The chariots became obsolete in warfare with the Greeks and the Romans.

Chariots in the Bible

1. A two wheeled vehicle led by horses. One to three men in a chariot and some wagons held more.
2. Joseph rode in one as the premier of Egypt. Gen. 50:9 the Egyptians did not have chariots until the Hyksos dynasty.
3. The Hyksos dynasty in Egypt ruled Egypt at this time.
4. Pharaoh Aminhotep pursued Moses with chartiots.
5. Canaanites used chariots in the book of Judges.
6. The Philistines picked up their chariots from the Hittites. Many of the tablets in Hittite tell how to buy and keep horses. The Hittites are the source of the Canaanites and the Philistines? Or how these groups came to use the chariot.
7. The Ethiopian treasurer going across the desert and a disciple hitched a ride with him.
8. Hezekiah was shot down for depending upon chariots; and he cut back on his military in order to use chariots instead. He was condemned for depending upon foreign powers.
9. The Jews came to depend upon Egyptian chariots and on their own chariot force. They never prospered with chariots or with horses. They did best with their infantry. Isa. 2:6–8. You are filled with influences from the east. It was traditional that God prospered Israel's infantry. Isa. 22:17–18 God warned that they would be cast into a far country, which is Chaldea. Woe to those who trust in chariots. I will overthrow their chariots and their riders. The chariot was the super-weapon of the ancient world.

The quality of our pilots is far superior to the soviets. But the Russians are passing us by in every other way.

What will preserve the United States today, with the rifting of our military forces. "We will remember" is a small group of supergrace believers who function to save the nation.

The great courage of Zeruah who raised 3 great military men. Our preservation of a nation depends upon the very background of our nation being formed. Our heritage is Anglo-Saxon. If you are a citizen of the United States, then your background heritage is the Magna Carta. It is not European heritage. Spiritual heritage as well, which made our country great. Afro-culture is nothing; it is meaningless. It is not African, not Indian and not even European; but it goes back to the Shire Moot.

Psalm 20:7 Some trust in chariots and some in horses, but we trust in the name of the LORD our God.

01/17/1975 Doctrine of covenants to Israel (review of verses 1-7)

Bob was encouraged to take a trip to Dallas this week. It is very prosperous and filled with religion. It is loaded with apostate Christian schools. The only person doing the job and doing it right is Herman Mattox. Very few people seemed to understand what it is all about. The board of deacons and the men in that church are particularly outstanding.

Dan Stolgey gave Bob a fine sign in Latin, "Don't let the bastards wear you down." So many have responded to Herman and Glenn Carnage (?). Many want to start a tape ministry right out the gate. Arrogance appears to be the order of the day. The lack of arrogance; the true humility of the congregation; the relaxed mental attitude is nice.

We will conclude this psalm and go on to the next increment.

This psalm has 9 verses and it is all about the military campaign against the Philistines.

Psalm 20:1–7 To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David. May the LORD [the Lord will] answer you in the day of trouble [pressure]! May the name of the God of Jacob protect [to protect, to defend] you! May he send [He will send help] you help from the sanctuary and give you support from Zion! May he remember all your offerings and regard with favor your burnt sacrifices! Selah May he grant you your heart's desire [give you according to your right lobe] and fulfill all your plans [David's battle plan]! May we shout for joy over your salvation [battle deliverance, victory], and in the name of our God set up our banners [in the Name of Elohim, we will plant our colors]! May the LORD fulfill all your [battle] petitions! Now I know that the LORD saves his anointed; He will answer him from His holy heaven with the saving might of his right hand. Some trust in chariots and some in horses, but we trust in the name of the LORD our God.

Some notes put back a few sessions with the synonyms for Christian growth. Taking up the cross means that you must be consistent.

When it says that God so loves the world, the key to love is righteousness. We will never have in this life sinless perfection. How can God bless those who are sinners. God can bless the sinner and God blessed him greatly. You might get upset over that. He had a lot of capacity for life; he was just a high liver. There are believers with more refined sins, but they are nothing. God can bless the sinning Christian but not those engaged in evil.

Saul was influenced by evil; David was influenced by doctrine. Saul was a highly moral guy. He was not an imbiber. He did not do any chasing. And he is as lily white clean as anyone who has just come out of Sunday school. There have been some great believers in all of the history. But there is a lot to do with the Biblical concept of evil. David never got involved with socialism, international brotherhood, he would not have liked Campus Crusade, Young Life Campaign, etc. he was involved in the Tabernacle; the Levitical priesthood. God has two absolutes; +R and +H.

Nice people are evil; sweet people are evil. Very wonderful, scintillating people are evil. Bible doctrine becomes the basis of confidence in the crisis. Evil does not influence David. Asahel and Beniah were not influenced by evil.

David will fail in some ways after 17 years of reigning; but not due to evil. So the pattern of propitiation.

Bob gave us a lot of information about chariots.

Psalm 20:8 They collapse [have been defeated] and fall [have fallen], but we rise [have been established or stabilized on the battlefield] and stand upright.

Freedom, Security, Prosperity

1. All the ingredients of national blessing are found in this verse. Jesus Christ answered David's battle prayers. Tactical penetration first time and single envelopment for the second.
2. Supergrace believers are the salt of the land. There is a great spiritual awakening in the land of Israel. Many men growing.
3. Put together the supergrace believer with the Jesus Christ controls history.
4. The discipline of reversionism has caused the Philistines to dominate Israel; but there was a change with David, which is a spiritual and establishment factor.

Psalm 20:9 O LORD, save the king [Jehovah has delivered the king]! May he answer us when we call.

This brings us to the Davidic covenant. Everything related to castle Zion all fits together in 2Sam. 7. That is where we are going. We have to stop off first in chapter 6.

The Covenants to Israel

1. Definition: berith are the two words translated testament and covenant. Covenant is very correct but testament is not. They both mean a disposition made by one party in favor of another party, which is regenerate mankind. Someone must die in order for a testament to be valid; the covenant does not depend upon such a death. This is not a last will and testament because Christ died. The ascension of Christ provides the new covenant; not the death. Party of the first part makes a favorable disposition toward the party of the second part; both parties are alive. God lives and cannot die. It includes the death of Christ and it also depends on the ascension and session of Christ. Each dispensation has its own covenant. The Noahic covenant has to do with weather and disaster on the earth. The world would not be destroyed by a flood. The New Covenant to Israel is for the millennial reign of Christ.
2. A general classification unconditional covenants to Israel. The Abrahamic, Palestinian and New Covenant to Israel. There are man passages on the Abrahamic. The Palestinian covenant is a real estate covenant. It will include all of Saudi Arabia, all Syria and Libya, and portions of Egypt. Can an arab be saved? It is like getting a camel through an eye of the needle. The New Covenant to Israel given when Israel was about to go out in the fifth cycle of discipline. Quoted twice in Hebrews. Those are the unconditional covenants.

3. The covenants of the Messianic Line. The Adamic Covenant. Gen. 2:15 3;15 Noahic Covenant the seed of the woman will come through Seth. Abrahamic covenant that the seed of the woman would come through the line of Abraham. The Davidic covenant has him coming through David.
4. The covenant of Abraham.
  - a. This is an unconditional grace covenant. God makes a gracious disposition to Abraham.
  - b. Part of the disposition promises a new race and a new nation, Israel.
  - c. The original 3 paragraph covenant is in Gen. 12, but that is a small part.
  - d. There is real estate involved as well.
  - e. The Abrahamic covenant includes an eternal city that Abraham has never seen and he did not know the name of it.
  - f. The covenant pertains to the seed of Abraham through the line of Isaac; and reconfirmed to both Isaac and Jacob. This covenant is the basis of the deliverance of the Jews in Ex. 6:2–8. God had to release them because He so promised them.
5. Moses is the father of the Jewish nation.
  - a. This covenant includes believers and unbelievers. Very important to understand that all of the covenants have been made with believers. This is an exception. It is called a conditional covenant.
  - b. Unlike other covenants, there is a spiritual and an establishment paragraph. A nation has believers and unbelievers both in it. This was a covenant to a nation. The laws of divine establishment when followed provide blessing. When they are not followed, then there is cursing. Jumping out a window, you fall to the ground. Follow the law of gravity and you are alive; and disobeying it and you are dead. This is the law of gravity, but it is not a conditional law. Neither is the Mosaic Law conditional; same principle. It simply includes the laws of divine establishment.
  - c. Therefore, it may be classified as a conditional covenant, but this is erroneous. Ex. 19:3 Rom. 3:4
  - d. It was not given to the gentiles. Deut. 4:8 Acts 15:5 Gal. 2:19 there are a lot of sloppy gentiles who did not know sanitation from fleas. Take a gentile and get saved, and he also became sanitary.
  - e. Commandments, the moral code, the decalogue, which define human freedom in terms of establishment; the ordinances, which are the spiritual code; doctrine for the spiritual heritage of Israel. The judgments, evidence, trial, penalties.
  - f. Keeping the law was never a way of salvation. Under principles of doctrine, it was a way of national strength.
  - g. Provided for a national government.
6. The real estate covenant to Israel. Not really the Palestinian covenant; it is really a real estate covenant.
  - a. God made a gracious covenant of land to Israel.

- b. Gen. 15:18 Num. 34:1–12 includes the Euphrates River and Saudi Arabia and the Nile as well.
  - c. The western border is the Mediterranean. This goes all the way up into Turkey and this includes the land of the Hittites. Bob sends out a police officer. Bob is intolerant of people who stagger out. Land of the Hittites includes Turkey. The Nile river and the Red Sea are in the south. It includes Iraq. Iraqis are arabs. The desert will bloom like a crocus. All of this area belongs to Israel. God is punishing Israel right now. Once the 2nd advent happens, Arabs will go in all directions. Mecca will be a part of their empire.
7. The covenant of David, which is our main subject. God makes a gracious disposition to party of the 2nd part, David. David ruled the northern kingdom as well. There was a period of time for the fifth cycle of discipline when Israel was out of the land.
  8. The New Covenant to Israel. The Mosaic Covenant was abrogated when Jesus Christ died, was buried and rose from the dead. The session of Jesus Christ calls for the formation the royal family of God. The disposition of the church was known to the prophet Jeremiah. Jer. 31:31–34. Ezek. 40–48 amplifies this covenant.
  9. The New covenant to the church; Israel is dispersed, under the fifth cycle of discipline; and God makes a grace disposition to the royal family of God. This is the spiritual legacy of the royal family or the church. It authorizes a new priesthood. It ratified by God the Father. This provides the basis for the foundation of the church. God's character is never compromised.

The Philistines captured the ark of the Covenant. They took it out of the Holy of Holies. To them, this was just a valuable golden box. This group has always been interested in gold. It had poles to go through the rings. This box was made of gold overlaying acacia wood. They did not understand what all of this stuff represented. There are two gold cherubs standing on each side of the throne. Righteousness and justice. Righteousness is the key to God's character. The Word of God protects from evil and it provides freedom and the answer to the problem of sin. The blood sprinkled on the altar represents the work of Christ on the cross bearing our sins. The article of furniture portrays the whole thing. The Jews suffered from the lack of this piece of furniture. What they had left was pitched at Gibeon. After David won Jebus and build Jerusalem on that site, then he pitched beside the castle the Tabernacle (I think that Bob is wrong on this one). But David certainly did pitch a tent for the Ark of God there.

The Ark had been recovered from the Philistines, but it had not been taken back to the proper place. The first time that David tried to move the Ark, he did it incorrectly. He did not follow the Word of God. He lost some soldiers because David was stupid about this. Then he went back and studied the Word, discovered that only Levitical priests could carry it. David ignored a portion of the Word of God. Later, they were able to carry the Ark because Levitical priests were now doing it.

No matter how many people admire you and no matter how you look or who you associate with, if you lack capacity for love, then you are an empty person. Women's lib is designed for women who lack capacity for love. This is the end of the line for Michal. She has no capacity for happiness. She has no capacity for love.

Evil was here before David came and it was here after he went. Sin originates from the soul. Evil also from the soul; socialism is a part of evil. It includes religion, with everything that lines up with improving this world. Evil always accomplishes good and seeks to justify its own self by the good that is accomplished.

We will have to spend an entire class on the subject of women. David did have 19 mistresses that he didn't marry. He finally turned his back on all of them and became loyal to one woman, Bathsheba. But, David could have just stayed faithful to Michal.

Castle Zion was often a place of great parties and social life.

Royalty, romance, reversionism. Her romance was with David and this was a great opportunity for Michal.

The son who succeeded David was the wealthiest man in the world. No one could come close to the fortune accumulated by David. David had the great ability not to be influenced by evil. Both sin and evil come from Satan. It is not sin that keeps us from divine blessing; it is evil.

God's promotions and God gave more authority to David than anyone else in history. David was influenced by doctrine in his soul and not by evil. David would eventually find his rw, who would turn out to be Bathsheba.

Michal was born into royalty. Michal means a brook. This is one of the great names given to a daughter. She was designed as all women are for refreshment, for pleasure, to enjoyment for the man. She was a contradiction in terms; all women are contradiction in terms and only the rm can bring all of these contradictions together as a wonderful response to his aggression. She was associated with Jehoiada, Nathan, Gad and David; and she could have been refreshment; she could have been that magnificent woman. She could have been one of the greatest, most magnificent women in all history. She missed greatness in history by the fact that she rejected Bible doctrine.

We all have two sides in us. If we are influenced by doctrine, the great potentiality will come out and we will fulfill the very role that God has designed for us. Dogs are limited with regards to evil; they can be mischievous. Dogs cannot think. They are limited. The master does the thinking for the dog. Dogs have emotion and can respond. Dogs do not work out any difficult math problems, write a poem or do anything that involves thinking.

The whole system of education in our country today is evil. When you send your children off to public schools, they will be learning evil.

Bureaucrats telling you who you can hire and fire and what you must do with your money and this is evil. Compensation to people who are fired. Those people are leeches. The federal government taking control of these businesses is evil. Everywhere you turn, there is evil in the land. David lived in the day when evil was the order of the day under Saul. When God first promoted David, God promoted him in the midst of an evil society.

Michal could have been refreshment, but she rejected doctrine. It is very difficult for a princess to focus her attention on someone that she considers to be not good enough for her.

1Sa 14:49 Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan, and Ishvi, and Malchishua; and the names of his two daughters were these: the name of the firstborn Merab, and the name of the younger Michal:

Along came a man who caught her eye. David looked great and he was dynamic and a celebrity. He was the one person who was not a phoney. Those around her were fawning sycophants and phoney. She knew that David was a real man, someone who was not filled with flattery. He wasn't arrogant; he wasn't proud.

You have assumed that anyone who rubs you the wrong way is no good. Michal respected David, although she did not always know why. She kept on loving. Princesses rarely run around saying that they have fallen in life.

The fact that she expresses this indicates that Michal told many about her love for David and Saul heard from his men, his G2 force. Saul is influence by evil and he would even use his own family to promote evil.

He is arrogant and proud and he is jealous of David. He wants to destroy David. He will use his own daughter, so he has no normal natural love.

1Sam. 18:20 Now Saul's daughter Michal loved David. And they told Saul, and the thing pleased him.

Saul develops a conspiracy. Saul will use his daughter as a trap.

1Sam. 18:21 Saul thought, "Let me give her to him, that she may be a snare for him and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him." Therefore Saul said to David a second time, "You shall now be my son-in-law."

Saul's soldiers are to tell David some lies.

1Sam. 18:22 And Saul commanded his servants, "Speak to David in private and say, 'Behold, the king has delight in you, and all his servants love you. Now then become the king's son-in-law.'"

David does not take credit to himself. He doesn't think that every woman in the world loves him.

1Sam. 18:23 And Saul's servants spoke those words in the ears of David. And David said, "Does it seem to you a little thing to become the king's son-in-law, since I am a poor man and have no reputation?"

1Sam. 18:24 And the servants of Saul told him, "Thus and so did David speak."

Saul has the dowry figured out. Saul figured that David will not kill 100 Philistines. Somewhere, the law of averages will work against David. Saul figured that David would eventually be killed. This is human viewpoint guided by evil. David is not influenced by people but influenced by doctrine.

1Sam. 18:25 Then Saul said, "Thus shall you say to David, 'The king desires no bride-price except a hundred foreskins of the Philistines, that he may be avenged of the king's enemies.'" Now Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.

David was interested. Saul put a time limit on this as well. Saul is jealous and wants to kill him; Michal wants him as a husband and a hero. Saul is developing an obsession about David.

1Sam. 18:26 And when his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to be the king's son-in-law. Before the time had expired,

Now we move to romance. It was easy to find Philistines there; they were garrisoned all over Israel. They would wait for crops to be harvested and then move in on them.

200 foreskins were brought to Saul and Saul gave him Michal to wife. These are obviously Philistines because they are not circumcised.

1Sam. 18:27 David arose and went, along with his men, and killed two hundred of the Philistines. And David brought their foreskins, which were given in full number to the king, that he might become the king's son-in-law. And Saul gave him his daughter Michal for a wife.

This takes us to torrid romance. Those influenced by evil are never happy about the successes of others. These are the happiest moments of Michal's life, the first year that she spent with David. She responded to David physically but she had no capacity for love. Nothing in her soul. She is typical of all women who are influenced by evil.

Such a woman must go from man to man or go to lesbianism. Michal had a chance to be influenced by doctrine, but she had no interest in it. There was no discussion in that direction. What he said that was divine viewpoint never made any impression on her, and she lost a lifetime of happiness with David.

David passed this prosperity test but Michal did not. She was happy as long as she was stimulated. Imperfect tense for love before marriage; perfect tense after marriage.

There is a bitterness which will now accompany this relationship. Michal was always looking for someone to compare to David. She did not keep him in her soul. Hundreds of people found David out in the desert. Michal did not. She was smart and resourceful; so she could have found David.

1Sam. 18:28 But when Saul saw and knew that the LORD was with David, and that Michal, Saul's daughter, loved him,

Summary

1. To love in the imperfect followed by the perfect indicates that Michal was a sexpot.
2. There was no permanence in their intimacy. They were ships that passed in the night. David had all of the capacity and Michal had none. David was influenced by doctrine and Michael was influenced by evil. She was not necessarily sinful.
3. At this moment, Michal is influenced by self-righteousness, emotional altruism, some of the most promiscuous women in history are filled with self-righteousness. This is one of the few times in her life that she was giving. She was stimulated by David's beauty. David was sort of a mirror. Some women like a man who will show them off and be a credit to them. This is as close as she would ever come to falling in love. Michal had a narcissist complex; David was a celebrity; so she liked him as a celebrity boyfriend-lover.
4. The Michal's of this world are legion and they lack the capacity for love. At best, she could enjoy the arousal of libido. They do not go beyond this.
5. Michal was sincere in all of this. She certainly had passion. Sincerity just covers her ignorance.
6. We can only sigh and feel compassion for women who have been promiscuous in sex, unstable in love and incapable of sustaining any relationship in life.
7. For those women like Michal, they can be satisfied sexually and yet unfulfilled as a woman. Some women were only satisfied through lesbian activity. Satisfied sexually, but unfulfilled as a woman. Lack of capacity and lack of doctrine results in this. Such people will never have capacity for life.
8. Michal, in all of her life, never had the capacity for a true soul response to one man. She was incapable of true love.
9. She had the potential as a woman, but never had the doctrine to fulfill it.
10. The frustrations of the 20th century females; their lack of capacity for life and love; the drying up of her soul; abnormal sex, her political aspirations, women's lib movements they seek to fulfill their role as a man. They abuse their bodies with drugs, abnormal sex, drinking,
11. A woman was designed to be a woman, to respond to one woman in her soul and her body. No matter how hard she tries, she cannot get away from doctrine.

Hmm, none of 2Sam. 6 was covered here.

2Sam. 6:1 David again gathered all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand.

2Sam. 6:2 And David arose and went with all the people who were with him from Baale-judah to bring up from there the ark of God, which is called by the name of the LORD of hosts who sits enthroned on the cherubim.

2Sam. 6:3 And they carried the ark of God on a new cart and brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill. And Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, were driving the new cart, 2Sam. 6:4 with the ark of God, and Ahio went before the ark.

2Sam. 6:5 And David and all the house of Israel were making merry before the LORD, with songs and lyres and harps and tambourines and castanets and cymbals.

2Sam. 6:6 And when they came to the threshing floor of Nacon, Uzzah put out his hand to the ark of God and took hold of it, for the oxen stumbled.

2Sam. 6:7 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah, and God struck him down there because of his error, and he died there beside the ark of God.

2Sam. 6:8 And David was angry because the LORD had burst forth against Uzzah. And that place is called Perez-uzzah, to this day.

2Sam. 6:9 And David was afraid of the LORD that day, and he said, "How can the ark of the LORD come to me?"

2Sam. 6:10 So David was not willing to take the ark of the LORD into the city of David. But David took it aside to the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

2Sam. 6:11 And the ark of the LORD remained in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite three months, and the LORD blessed Obed-edom and all his household.

2Sam. 6:12 And it was told King David, "The LORD has blessed the household of Obed-edom and all that belongs to him, because of the ark of God." So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom to the city of David with rejoicing.

2Sam. 6:13 And when those who bore the ark of the LORD had gone six steps, he sacrificed an ox and a fattened animal.

2Sam. 6:14 And David danced before the LORD with all his might. And David was wearing a linen ephod.

2Sam. 6:15 So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting and with the sound of the horn.

2Sam. 6:16 As the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, Michal the daughter of Saul looked out of the window and saw King David leaping and dancing before the LORD, and she despised him in her heart.

01/19/1975; Michal and pitiful Palti

We the unwilling are leading...we are now qualified to do everything with nothing.

Michal had every possibility for happiness and she blew it.

1Sam. 18:28 But when Saul saw and knew that the LORD was with David, and that Michal, Saul's daughter, loved him,

When Saul wanted to get rid of someone, he would commission a particular group; and Michal understood that David's life was in danger. Many women who are Christians are so unstable as to never make up their minds. They hop from one solution to another; they have to plod and they do not want to plod; they want to hop around from one flower to another. Anyone related to them, they have a few good moments; but often life is hell on earth.

I had the wrong verses entirely here.

1Sam. 19:11 Saul also sent messengers to David's house to watch him and to kill him in the morning. And David's wife Michal told him saying, If you do not save your life tonight, tomorrow you shall be killed.

1Sam. 19:12 And Michal let David down through a window. And he left and hurried away, and escaped.

Michal was emotionally involved with David and she was trying to do the right thing. People influenced by evil will, from time to time, do the right thing. Men are inclined to be easily deceived by the ladies. A man is often deceived when they see their woman do one right thing. She did a wonderful thing, but she is still a woman deceived by evil.

1Sam. 19:13 And Michal took an image and laid it in the bed, and put a pillow of goats' hair at its head, and covered it with a cloth.

1Sam. 19:14 And when Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, He is sick.

1Sam. 19:15 And Saul sent the messengers to see David, saying, Bring him up to me in the bed so that I may kill him.

1Sam. 19:16 And the messengers came in, and behold, the image was in the bed with a pillow of goats' hair at its head.

Michal lies to Saul; and reversionistic women get used to living by the lie. This is a sign of a lack of capacity for life.

1Sam. 19:17 And Saul said to Michal, Why have you deceived me so, and sent away my enemy so that he has escaped? And Michal answered Saul, He said to me, Let me go; why should I kill you?

David fled and escaped

1Sam. 19:18 And David fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel, to Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and lived in Naioth.

1Sam. 25: is the next place to go to. Saul's jealousy toward David causes him to use his daughter in order to get at David.

1Sam. 25:44 And Saul gave his daughter Michal, David's wife, to Phalti the son of Laish, who was of Gallim.

Palti is truly a nice guy and a sweet person; and he took this capacity. Human sweetness can come from evil; but it cannot come from doctrine. "Watch out; evil is abroad....well, you should have been listening." Sweetness is a part of evil and often becomes a weapon. Palti was truly sweet, but no indication that he is grace oriented.

Michal could not run David, because David was a man. Palti adored Michal and he would do anything for her; but there is no hard-nosed toughness here. It is just simply not here.

When a woman is without her mirror, then she will often go for a sweet man. He can be easily handled, he can be coerced; Palti was Fido to her. Michal likes being worshiped without strings. She had no capacity for love; but Saul took away her mirror; so having a sweet man appealed to her; having a mirror on its knees.

Once David found his way, he was faithful to her. Bob likes to rub David's 19 mistresses into the nose of the Baptist. They did not, in any way, keep David from being one of the greatest believers who ever lived. David, with these mistresses, was blessed of God as few people have been blessed. He was not influenced by evil. It takes very little to sin because we have an old sin nature. Sin and evil are not the same. When you are influenced by evil, you cannot recover.

Bob would rather have an unbelieving president than a reversionistic Christian; such are a pain in the neck. Every time you turn around, Christians are charging windmills. There is only one place where the believer is to go for growth; and that is the local church. Anything outside of this is evil. YMCA, Campus Crusade, Young Life are not ordained by God. Camp Penial is a Christian organization; but you cannot grow by means of this. You cannot read a book and grow spiritually; you cannot go to Camp Penile and grow. You can only grow up by submitting to the teaching of a pastor. No one grows up in a camping program.

Bob put out a number of pamphlets last year; but these pamphlets will not get anyone to supergrace. The purpose of the written ministry is to get people into the tape ministry. Fewer booklets out this year and a lot more tapes out. Evil is a much greater danger than sin; and that which destroys the soul is evil; that which destroys the body is sin and it is not as bad. Our whole scale of values is based upon what is wrong; and most of us do not know what sin is and what evil is. David sinned in a very egregious way. Having 19 mistresses is bound to insert a number of people.

When Michal was given away, she was given away to a sweet man. This was a different kind of mirror. She could order this man around like a dog.

Even if you try to change your sex, you cannot change anything else because you still have the same soul. Palti mumbles and grumbles his way through life. If our attitude toward the Lord is the same, then we have very little hope of spiritual growth.

Now we go to the wages of vindictiveness. This is something which was a part of the civil war, which we skipped over.

2Sam. 3:12 And Abner sent messengers to David on his behalf, saying, Whose is the land? He said, Cut your covenant with me, and, behold, my hand shall be with you, to bring about all Israel to you.

There is an overture to end the civil war. But David demanded to have Michal back. This treaty required Michal present. David had a very romantic vision of Michal and he had some beautiful memories for him that had to be destroyed.

Abigail did not destroy the memory of Michal. None of these women erased the memory of Michal.

2Sam. 3:13 And he said, Good! I will cut a covenant with you, but one thing I ask of you, saying, You shall not see my face unless you first bring Michal, Saul's daughter, when you come to see my face.

David required that Ishbosheth send him his wife; and David specified which daughter because Ishbosheth was not born yet when this occurred.

2Sam. 3:14 And David sent messengers to Ishbosheth, Saul's son, saying, Deliver my wife Michal, whom I betrothed to me for a hundred foreskins of the Philistines.

Her husband went with her. He intended to continue going with her.

2Sam. 3:15 And Ishbosheth sent and took her from her husband, from Phaltiel the son of Laish.

Abner sent this guy back. Now, isn't that sad? Palti never got over this woman than he did not know. He'll carry the torch for her until he dies; and David's torch for her will go out.

2Sam. 3:16 And her husband went along with her, weeping behind her, to Bahurim. And Abner said to him, Go, return! And he returned.

Michal, Palti and David

1. To an unstable woman like Michal, it does not matter which man she is with.
2. To her, it made no difference; but, to her 2nd husband, this made a lot of difference. He had no capacity for life and none for love. He is just a sweet person. He will simply go home broken-hearted. He is hurt, miserable and broken.
3. Michal is apparently bored with him and all of his Sweetness.

Michal is not peeking out of the window to see what is going on; she keeps staring out of the window. She was once admiring David and passionate toward him; and now she despises him. You men may wonder about women who love you one day and hate you the next. David is expressing +H and his celebration is too much for Michal. She did not like David having a good time without her. A woman with no capacity for love always despises the man who can have a good time without her. Michal is arrogant and proud; and because David is having a good time without her, she despises him. She begins to think of her old dog Palti.

Bob spoke of Bobby and Patsi ballroom dancing and how beautiful they looked together on the dance floor. They were playing music like the Tommy Dorsey type.

Leaping is pazaz. Kur means to dance on the ground and the other means to dance in the air. So Michal despised him in her heart and this would never change. She is a woman influenced by evil. She was never able to cope with his life and doctrine.

2Sam. 6:16 And it happened as the ark of Jehovah came to the city of David, Michal, Saul's daughter, looked through a window and saw King David leaping and dancing before Jehovah. And she despised him in her heart.

As soon as she has a chance to speak to David, she does. She is going to unload on him. She is going to let him know how she feels.

2Sam. 6:17 And they brought in the ark of Jehovah and set it in its place in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it. And David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before Jehovah.

2Sam. 6:18 And as soon as David had made an end of offering burnt offerings and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of Jehovah of Hosts.

David gave everyone there a bottle of wine, some bread and some meat. This was a great celebration. They were celebrating a great doctrinal victory.

You can dance and drink and dine with doctrine in your soul and you can do this without being sinful and without being some kind of a horrible monster.

2Sam. 6:19 And he gave out among all the people, among all the multitude of Israel, to the women as well as men, to each one a cake of bread and one raisin-cake. And all the people departed, each one to his house.

Michal is sarcastic. There is nothing more charming than a sarcastic woman. "How honorable was the king today!" She is used to Saul and David is not acting like him. She is concerned with David disrobing. She refers to him as one of the lewd types. Bob misspells lewd.

Do you know many people who dance naked to celebrate the Ark? David raising hell at a party did not set a precedent for legalistic weak sisters. However, Bob does not expect anyone at Berachah barracks to disrobe and dance naked; this is not a precedent. We can relax around them. Somewhere in this life, we will find people who have the same doctrine in our souls and have the same capacity for life in Jesus Christ. And together, you can enjoy life. It is the fellowship of supergrace believers.

Michele is critical of David. Self righteous people are vulnerable for evil. Evil always comes in the form of human good. A new system to get your prayers through, like pleading the blood; something that any jackass can do. It always avoids the self-discipline of study and such looks down its nose at doctrine.

Michal and Self-righteousness

1. Michal's little world has just been broken into pieces, so she reaches for her self-righteousness in order to clobber David with it.
2. Grace righteousness belongs to doctrine; self-righteousness belongs to evil.
3. Michal has no frame of reference in her soul for David's capacity for life. David was a very happy person. His happiness comes from doctrine. This is a time of great celebration. Now, the tabernacle is complete. David wanted to build a Temple.
4. Note that Michal is also sarcastic in her criticism of David. Sarcasm + self-righteousness + the shattered narcissist syndrom is just about the most for anyone.
5. David is wearing a linen ephod, which is wrapped about her chest; and this exposed portions of his body to the people around, but only Michal notices it.
6. This exposure to self righteous and legalistic Michal was too much. David was filled with the Spirit here. This was a one-shot expression of mature believers over a great victory in Israel. Fundamentalism is supposed to be adherence to doctrine.

2Sam. 6:20 And David returned to bless his household. And Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David and said, How glorious was the king of Israel today, who uncovered himself today in the eyes of the handmaids of his servants, as one of the vain fellows shamelessly uncovers himself!

David sorts Michal out. Jehovah never did choose Saul. David points out that God chose him and not Saul. David is fed up with Michal's criticism, judging and bitching. God chose David long before the people chose Saul.

2Sam. 6:21 And David said to Michal, It was before Jehovah, who chose me before your father, and before all his house, to appoint me ruler over the people of Jehovah, over Israel. And I danced before Jehovah.

David was humbling himself before the Lord. He is dancing and leaping as if he was an ordinary person. He stripped himself of all rank. His authority is based upon the Word of God. He has not lost doctrine; and he intends to keep being influenced by doctrine. His wife does not agree with him yet he is willing to not bend to her will or criticism when doctrine was an issue.

David said that it was a pleasure to dance with the women servants; they all had doctrine in common. The understood the importance of the Ark of the Covenant. Only Michal minus doctrine; self righteous Michal despises David.

She criticizes David for indecent exposure; David was the only one there without clothes and he was having a ball. They were influenced by doctrine like David.

Bob knows a lot of pastors would never attempt to teach this; or they would distort it.

Bob gives an example of how this would be covered. That is the kind of miaino that some preachers would teach.

2Sam. 6:22 And I will be still lower than this, and will be base [insignificant] in my own sight. And of the handmaids [women servants] of whom you have spoken, with them I shall be had in honor.

David no longer had any sex with Michal. She was shut up with her self-righteousness for the rest of her life. David would not divorce her. She was fed, clothed, sheltered and protected. David would not turn her loose. David essentially ostracized her. None of her generals could talk to her; she did not go to any of his parties. She dies the sin unto death like her father Saul.

Perhaps David saw bits and pieces of Saul in her.

2Sam. 6:23 And Michal the daughter of Saul had no child by David to the day of her death.

In 2Sam. 7, we will cover the Davidic Covenant; and Michal must be excluded from the covenant to David.

Some of you will stay in your rut of self-righteousness. You may gossip and malign. You will judge and malign and run off to some Baptist church.

Bob has pulled no punches; he teaches exactly what is in the Word of God. Michal was very moral and very indignant with what David was doing. Michal is a self righteous evil woman and therefore, she has no part in the Davidic covenant.

Matt. 1:3 Tamar seduced Judah. She is also in the line of Christ. There is Rahab the harlot, a famous prostitute, in the line of David and in the line of Christ. There is a difference. Rahab was influenced by doctrine.

Bathsheba has an adulterous relationship with David; yet her son Solomon will succeed David to the throne.

1Sam. 19:19 And it was told to Saul, saying, Behold, David is at Naioth in Ramah.

1Sam. 19:20 And Saul sent messengers to take David. And when they saw the company of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as appointed over them, the Spirit of God came on the messengers of Saul, and they also prophesied.

1Sam. 19:21 And they told Saul, and he sent other messengers, and they also prophesied. And Saul sent messengers the third time, and they prophesied also.

1Sam. 19:22 And he also went to Ramah, and came to a great well in Sechu. And he asked and said, Where are Samuel and David? And one said, Behold, at Naioth in Ramah.

1Sam. 19:23 And he went there to Naioth in Ramah. And the Spirit of God was on him also, and going on he went and prophesied, until he came to Naioth in Ramah.

1Sam. 19:24 And he stripped off his clothes also, and prophesied before Samuel, even he. And he lay down disrobed all that day and all that night. Because of this they say, Is Saul also among the prophets?

01/20/1975 Doctrine of covenants to Israel (amplified)

Bob threatens someone behind the glass. We are going to review the covenants to Israel.

Covenants

1. Definition and description
  - a. Testament is a mistranslation. It should always be covenant. There is no Old Testament and no New Testament; it ought to be the Old and New Covenants. A testament goes into operation when someone dies. Testament is a misnomer, is misapplication and a misfire all the way around. This always confuses the issue. A covenant is a favorable disposition made by party of the first part, God, in favor of, party of the second part, which can be made with regenerate or unregenerate people. All of our covenants are made with people who are alive. Testament gives rise to the idea that someone must die.
  - b. Since neither of the words indicate this, all covenants are made on the basis of grace.
  - c. God is party of the first part and, inasmuch as God cannot die and God has eternal life, none of the covenants as a testament. These covenants become effective on the basis of the Word of God. Not based upon the death of God.
  - d.
  - e. While the new covenant depends upon the spiritual death of Christ on the cross, it is not activated because of His physical death.
  - f. It is guaranteed by His resurrection, session and ascension.
  - g. Between two parties.
  - h. All Biblical covenants made between God and man.
  - i. Each dispensation contains one or more covenants. The adamic noahic; Israel contains the Abrahamic, the Mosaic, the Palestinian.

- j. Some covenants have been classified as conditional and unconditional, this is a misnomer.
  - k. All covenants to Israel are gracious covenants of God toward Israel; the undeserving party of the second part.
2. General classification: Davidic, Mosaic, etc.
  3. The Messianic line related to 5 general covenants
    - a. Gen. 2:15 and 3:15 Adamic covenant.
    - b. Gen. 6:18 8:21–9:17 seed of the woman coming through the line of Noah and coming through Seth.
    - c. The Abrahamic covenant depicts the seed of the woman coming from the line of Abrahamic descent.
    - d. The Davidic covenant, the seed of the woman, the humanity of Christ, will come through Bathsheba's children, Solomon and Nathan.
    - e. The seed of the woman, the Lord Jesus, will return to the earth to reign 1000 years. 1st and 2nd advent of Christ abrogates the Mosaic covenant in different spheres.
  4. The Abrahamic Covenant is a grace covenant, like all of them.
    - a. As an unconditional covenant depicts God as party of the first part making a favorable disposition to Abraham and his line.
    - b. Part of this disposition of this covenant promises a new race and from that new race a new nation, Israel.
    - c. The original 3 paragraph covenant found in Gen. 12:1–3
    - d. It includes the promise of real estate, which is expanded into a separate covenant.
    - e. It includes an eternal city, the heavenly Jerusalem, Rev. 2 10
    - f. It pertains to the seed of Abraham through the line of Isaac.
    - g. Reconfirmed to Isaac and to Jacob. The covenant was the basis for forming the new nation after their deliverance from slavery. You cannot understand the Jew until you understand the covenants or contracts that God made with him. No one earned this from God. The covenant is never earned, deserved or worked for in any sense of the word. No one understands the Jew until he understands these covenants. The Jew and the Arab were originally the same race; they are both Semitic peoples. Their languages are very close, although they use a different type of alphabet. There was a time when from the loins of Abraham came 6 Arabic groups. Some came from some of Isaac's children. They are as closely related as two races could be. These are twins. Yet you have two different races. One of the amazing things, when Jews wanted to fornicate, they chose Canaanitish women, who were less attractive. What man in his right mind would want to fornicate with a Black woman? The Jews were the most beautiful race to come into human history. Bathsheba and David and Michal are described as beautiful; and so many thousands of years elapsed. You rarely see a Greek who is 6'4" or 6'6" and blond? Yet, all of the Greeks were over 6' and blond. The Turks and many other peoples all invaded at one time or another. There was even a great Celtic invasion of that land. Some of the best examples of what the Turks were like 2000 or 3000 years ago can be found on the Hellenistic area today. Romans were a short group of people; a typical Mediterranean group; very stock. A tall Roman was 5'8". You really can't tell by observation today. It is really too difficult. There is no racial purity except in some place in Africa; there is no culture. Wherever you find culture, you find intermarriage. This guaranteed a phenomenal heritage.

5. The Covenant of Moses.

- a. Unlike all the other covenants, this one has as party of the 2nd part, believers and unbelievers mixed together.
- b. Unlike all previous covenants, it has a spiritual and establishment paragraph.
- c. Therefore, this covenant is classified as the national heritage covenant. The national heritage is spiritual and traditional from the laws of divine establishment. The Jews have the greatest heritage of any other nation. Even the Greeks had 400 years of dark ages. The Romans were born out of dark ages. They were still rude and crude and destroyed all of the art treasures of the ancient world when they savaged Corinth in A.D. 168. There is no relationship between the people in Italy today and the Romans. The modern Italian cannot trace himself to Roman blood; he could be Vandal, English, Portugese, Spaniard, etc. There is hardly any nation on this earth that has not lived in Italy at one time; and living there means breeding there. Think of the Spanish invasion followed by the Spanish invasion followed by one invasion after another. It was only in the last century that we even have a modern Italy. Bob was talking with someone about the great voices which could be found in Italy. But what is an Italian? We just don't really know. Only the Aborigines have held their own and kept in the stone age. This is a national heritage covenant.
- d. The recipients of the Mosaic covenant is the nation Israel. Lev 26:46 Rom. 3:9,4 .
- e. This was not given to the Gentiles and it was not given to the church. The church is not a nation.
- f. The Mosaic covenant is classified under 3 paragraphs. The moral code, human freedom in terms of the nation Israel. If you are not up on the decalogue of the Ten Commandments in their true role, then get the Jeremiah introduction tape. These commandments do not define sin; they mention a few sins that curtail freedom.
- g. Ordinances describes a spiritual code. Believers are designed to function under establishment and doctrine resident in the soul. David has just brought back the ark and it is in a tent pitched right by his castle. David is thinking about building a Temple.
- h. The judgments or the establishment code. The basis for freedom, privacy. Tithing is taxation; military training; health and sanitation laws; diet and quarantine laws, laws of evidence.

- i. Keeping the law was never a means of salvation. It was a way of living in Israel. It was the basis of national freedom and national prosperity.
  - j. This covenant was the authorizing agent for the priesthood and the judicial functions.
6. The real estate covenant. This is the shocker for Bob. God has promised a chunk of real estate; and there is the most phenomenal territory belonging to the Jews. There will be a lot of people who will be dispossessed; arabs, Turks, Syrians, Lebanese, Egyptians. There will be a lot of room; and the deserts will be turned into great gardens and the unbelieving arabs will be left out.
- a. God made a favorable grant of land to the nation Israel in the Millennium. This grant does not kick in until the Millennium.
  - b. The geographical boundaries are described in 4 passages. Gen. 15:18 Num. 34:1–12 Deut. 30 Joshua 1:3–4 to the Nile, Syria, all of the Euphrates valley, so that you have a gigantic nation; so the entire middle east belongs to Israel in the future. When Christ returns to reign, this is what Israel will have as boundaries. The entire western part of Turkey is included. The Nile river and the Red Sea are the southern boundary. Eastern boundary on the other side of Iraq and Saudi Arabia. This covenant will not be valid until that time. David conquered the largest chunk of land that Israel ever owned. As large as the nation was at that time, it is nothing compared to Israel in the Millennium.
7. The Davidic Covenant.
- a. Rulership of Israel.
  - b. This is a part of David's promotion. This dynasty will last forever.
  - c. This will continue under 2 separate increments. He will rule ___ years of the northern section.
  - d. Jesus Christ will rule over this land forever under the boundaries of the real estate covenant.
  - e. This covenant links the first and last Adam.
  - f. Sin came into the world under the first Adam. Through the first advent, the last Adam solved the problem of sin.
8. The covenant of Jeremiah
- a. also called the new Covenant to Israel
  - b. Death, burial, ascension, resurrection of Jesus Christ.
  - c. The session of Christ calls for the formation of the royal family of God.
  - d. The baptism of the Holy Spirit is the mechanical means of forming the royal family of God.
  - e. The new covenant to the church authorizes the royal family priesthood.
  - f. The dispensation of the church and the were anticipated by this new covenant. There must be a link since Israel goes on in the Millennium and forever.
  - g. In Jer. 31:31–34 this is set up.
  - h. A legacy is provided for restored Israel in the Millennium.

- i. The new covenant to Israel replaces the Mosaic covenant. This is authorized by the new covenant to Israel.
  - j. The blood of Christ.
  - k. Activated when Jesus Christ establishes His millennial reign.
9. The covenant of Israel's dispersion. God makes a grace disposition. The New Covenant to the church authorizes. Basis for this royal family.

The outline of the passage; vv. 1–7 David's desire to build a Temple. Vv. 8–17 the Davidic Covenant. Vv. 18–29 is David's response to the covenant.

Explanation, before this covenant can be revealed to David, the Ark must be returned to the Tabernacle. This is accomplished in 2Sam. 6. With the tabernacle completed, David must desire to build a permanent residence. David must be refused permission and given a greater and more enduring contract. Just one woman, Michal, must be eliminated from the Davidic family. She is the bad apple.

The chaplain came to this party; Nathan, the royal chaplain. David and he had a conversation; David had something on his mind. Vv. 1–3 a party and a dialogue.

2Sam. 7:1 And it happened when the king dwelt in his house, and when Jehovah had given him rest round about from all his enemies, 2Sam. 7:2 the king said to Nathan the prophet, See now, I live in a house of cedar, but the ark of God dwells within curtains.

2Sam. 7:3 And Nathan said to the king, Go, do all that is in your heart, for Jehovah is with you.

The first 3 verses read. Every commentator has David in this chapter going into the tabernacle, which he could never do, and they all have David in the tabernacles sitting. But he is at his desk in his military headquarters to pray. He is sitting down and praying. But he is not of the tribe of Levi, so he could not go into the tabernacle.

David is enjoying a peaceful interlude after 2 wars. He will have many more wars and some revolutions when he is ruling over Israel. He defeated the Jebusites and the Philistines.

There were foreign and domestic enemies, but David is enjoying a totally peaceful interlude at this time.

Summary

1. This is a period of prosperity which comes in the life of every supergrace believer.
2. This was a time of refreshment, great happiness, great social life, and sexual life. At least 6 wives and 19 mistresses. Don't wince, ladies.

3. David passed the prosperity test through occupation with Christ. He did not neglect Bible doctrine. All this fun and doctrine too.
4. It was David's occupation with Christ in times of great prosperity that inspired him to build the Temple to replace the tabernacle.
5. In the previous chapter, the ark of the covenant had been returned to Jerusalem. David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the Lord. He did not go beyond the brazen altar.
6. So now the Tabernacle was located in Jerusalem. It was incomplete. There were several things missing related to the Ark.
7. So when David relocated the tabernacle next to castle Zion, the Holy of Holies was empty. All of this has been changed by the Ark of the Covenant.
8. David learned his doctrine from the Tabernacle and he could not stand an incomplete Tabernacle. In times of prosperity, David thought about this. He could see it from the battlements of his castle. David is passing the prosperity test.

Tomorrow, David will be at a party with Nathan, his chaplain.

Summary of 2Sam. 7:1

1. All of his life, David would be at war, to maintain national sovereignty. Once you reach supergrace, there will always be testing; adversity never leaves. There will always be interludes of prosperity and tranquility as well. It is the calm before the storm. Even in the midst of very difficult periods of history, there are times of ease.
2. This was a time of spiritual prosperity, and David does not forget Jesus Christ; he is able to pass the prosperity test. One must use occupation with Christ; there must be great capacity for life, capacity for love, capacity for happiness. These things have been noticeably missing from fundies as of late.
3. David passed the prosperity test. This is the principle of occupation with Christ.
4. It was David's occupation with Christ in times of prosperity that caused him to have plans to replace the tabernacle.
5. The Ark of the Covenant had been returned to Jerusalem and they set it in its place, inside the Tabernacle that David had pitched for it. David did not ever enter the tabernacle himself, as he is from the tribe of Judah and not from Leiv. He brought animal sacrifices, but a priest would offer them up.
6. At this time the Tabernacle was located in Jerusalem. By returning the Ark of God, the Tabernacle was now complete. There was a question about the Philistines getting the Ark. They invaded the land during a time of reversionism. Why didn't they drop dead? They were not Jews and they were not under the Mosaic Covenant. Therefore, the principles of handling the Ark did not apply. This indicated the spiritual declension of believers in Israel.

8. Since boyhood with the sheep, David learned his doctrine from the Tabernacle. He had maximum doctrine in his soul when meeting up with Goliath, for a young man. At no time did a day pass without David thinking about Bible doctrine. David would often walk on the battlements of Castle Zion and he would look upon this relatively small tent filled with the articles of furniture. He would think many times as he wandered back and forth. He would think it a tragedy that he lives in this marvelous home and the materials of the Tabernacle were so temporary. This is a thought without precedent. This was an original thought. This was original thinking. This has been lost to theologians throughout the years. The Word of God itself makes it very clear that David is quite an original thinker. Not one person had thought of a permanent Temple; a Temple of brick and stone to house the articles of furniture which portrayed the Lord Jesus Christ and the spiritual heritage of Israel. This is a new and a great thought that entered his soul.

2Sam. 7:1 And it happened when the king dwelt in his house, and when Jehovah had given him rest [provided a peaceful interlude for him] round about from all his enemies,

Around the palace and headquarters, there are a lot of general officers; and when that occurs, they think about partying. The soldier's life is one of extremes. Out in the field and of being housed. He can take his moments of fun when he can. A soldier learns to take R&R when he can, which can be 5 minutes or a few days.

We have lost the knack of understanding of what a party is. This is a time of spending time with people with whom you can relax. Social life has been lost in the shuffle today. We occasionally have a mass social life, includes Saturday Night at the Movies or a Fourth of July studying. Sooner or later, anyone is Berachah is able to enjoy great partying.

There were men of great spiritual stature, which means capacity for life, capacity for love and capacity for happiness. Most people think party, booze, girls and isolation. Capacity is based upon Bible doctrine in the soul. It takes life, love and happiness. A good party does not have someone making snide remarks, trying to put down someone.

Bob wants us to see this long dining hall and there is a great party going on, and David and Nathan are standing together.

The King Said to Nathan

1. Nathan is a prophet; the royal chaplain to Israel and Gad is the chief of prophets to Israel. In the early days of David, Samuel is the great prophet. The prophet came into his own at the failure of the judges.
2. Nathan was present at the big party at the castle.

3. Nathan did not always have pleasant responsibilities. He often had to brace David for some failure. We know that they drank; we saw the flagon of wine over the weekend. Nathan was a totally relaxed person. He attended the party and he was not a deterrent to the party. Some people cannot relax around some religious types. Bob has had few contacts with chaplains. There are some retired chaplains in our midst, including Colonel McConnell. Nathan was not called upon to brace or to chew out the king.
4. Nathan would be the godfather of Solomon. Nathan will brace David about Bathsheba. As the godfather, he will give 2Sam. 12:25 Solomon a name.
5. Nathan and 1Kings 1:8–30 Bathsheba secured the throne for Solomon.
6. Nathan was often David's chief advisor. 2Chron. 21:25. David had all the authority in the land, but David always subordinated himself to the teaching of the royal chaplain, which is Nathan. It was Nathan 2Chron. 29:25 who revised the system of worship.
7. Nathan was a spiritual giant and an outstanding teacher of his day. He is a famous man; he is a great man. Bob's father could not be convinced of the greatness of a minister. The appreciation of the spiritual heritage; David's occupation with the Lord Jesus Christ.
8. David named one of his 4 sons by Bathsheba after Nathan. Solomon became David's successor. Nathan, the son, the youngest apparently, was the actual bloodline of the Lord Jesus Christ. The Virgin Mary was directly descended from Nathan.
9. Nathan the prophet was a great theologian, preacher and statesman.
10. It was Nathan, the son of David and Bathsheba, who reminds us by this of Nathan the prophet's greatness.
- 11.
12. It is therefore fitting that David's spiritual advisor, his chief statesman, should be 1Chron. 29:29 David's biographer. So, in every way, these two men are tied together in a great friendship.
13. Along with Nathan is the prophet Gad. He was a member of the Addullem alumni.
14. Gad is not mentioned again until the administration of David's sin of numbering the people. The infrequent mention of these men does not detract from their importance.
15. 1Chron. 29:29 Gad was also a biographer of David; and he and David were both excellent musicians. Together, they reformed the music in worship. They eliminated the jumpy stuff and the non-doctrinal music. They turned around the whole system of music. In the time that they changed the music around, music-wise. Musicians have a tendency to be touchy in their own field of talent. Everyone has an opinion about music and worship. Mournful type stuff is what many people have gotten into. The Swedes are great for this. There is the light, superficial stuff, the campaign music of Christianity; the Pentecostal stuff. The Levites were the musicians of the land. Bob does the scales. David and Gad reorganized the whole music system there. Tommy Dorsey was the toughest disciplinarian in his day. There was a very strong system of discipline for Dorsey or Sinatra. There is a discipline in music which is as important as any other kind of discipline in life. Bob is there by discipline because he has no desire to teach tonite. Gad was a reformer of music

16. Apparently, Gad became the chief of chaplains of the army; and Nathan for the castle.

2Sam. 7:2 Consequently, the king said to Nathan the prophet, See now, I live [prosperously] in a house of cedar, but the Ark of God dwells within curtains.

Usually, we have behold here; but there is see now, which is more normal for a social conversation.

Hiram went out and built a great city on an island, Tyre and he was one of the greatest builders of all time. As a gift to David, he gathered a tremendous amount of cedar. In the mention of cedar, there is this great castle made for David. Hiram was a great decorator and a great builder. He was not effeminate; he was not a homosexual; he was a man all the way. 2Sam. 5:10–11 and David became greater and greater, because Jehovah God of the armies was with him; and David sent messengers with cedar wood and stone.

Tyre was the most prosperous and beautiful city in the ancient world; and the Phoenicians were trading all over the world, and they had acquired a great deal of stuff. This is 2 miles off shore to keep the Assyrians out of their way. No one captured Tyre for hundreds of years. Tyre was always a very prosperous and wealthy city. Hiram provided the materials and workers for the castle; and he would also provide the materials, contractors and the crews for the building of Solomon's Temple. This is a degenerate people who offer up human sacrifices; and they built two of the most revered buildings in history.

The Ark of God keeps dwelling within curtains. David is now expressing to Nathan an original thought, a new idea, something that never had occurred to anyone before.

Castle Zion and the Tabernacle

1. These are simple obvious things. The castle of David was built from cedar and stone and it lasted for hundreds of years. Mark Anthony barracks, 1000 years later, was build on the foundation of David's castle. Some of the building material was used from Castle Zion to build the Mark Anthony Barracks.
2. The Ark is within a curtained tent.
3. David had seen the Tabernacle move from place to place without a stabilized location; even in his lifetime. It never had a permanent or stablized location.
4. The Tabernacle was first located at Shiloh. Ark taken in 1Sam. 4.
5. It was at Mizpah, Nob, where Saul executed all of the priests and Saul brought it back to Gibeah.
6. Then after David conquered the Jebusites, he moved the Tabernacle next door to his castle. It is next to where David is holding the big party. Parties were held during the day, rather than during the evening. David decides that he wants to build a more stable home for the Lord, more permanent than what he has. The Lord is better than I so His house should be greater. David is very prosperous at this time.

7. As David would often stand on the battlements of his castle, his eyes would come to rest on the tabernacle and he would review some point of doctrine. He would think about the Tabernacle, its coloration, the materials, and he would examine the articles of furniture; and this was just like us coming into Berachah and having a notebook.
8. Therefore, in David's mind, it was not right for him to live in a castle; and the articles of furniture should live in a tent. The Shekinah Glory was in the Tent, and David believed that to be wrong.
9. Doctrine and the communication of doctrine was more important to David than his own castle Zion. He had this marvelous view looking at the mountains; just a beautiful setting; and it lacked something with a tent pitched where the Lord dwelt.
10. Doctrine in his soul was the means of supergrace.
11. To David, the results must never become more important than the source. This is the key to passing the prosperity test. God is the source; it is always the source which counts. We would have nothing were it not for the source of our blessings. In San Antonio, they must be wondering who that 90 year old in the pulpit is. No matter what we have in life, the Lord is the source. There is no such thing as something of value that is inferior to the source. We pass the prosperity test when we keep track of what the source provided. Bob learned this point from a very nice young lady that he was dating. It was her birthday and Bob made an effort to provide a wonderful present for her; and she opened it up and she made all of the right noises. Then she said, tenderly, "I appreciate the source much more than I appreciate the gift." This stuck in Bob's mind. It was the first time Bob had heard this. David is saying, "I have never forgotten the source." That is why we have communion; it is the source; that is the true issue. We only remember the source when we are in trouble. "Don't fold that up yet, Mae, we're not through yet."
12. The result is not more important than the source.
13. David never lost track of the source of his blessing.
14. David wanted to preserve the source of national blessing; and a permanent place which taught doctrine to all growing believers. He wanted a permanent way to teach doctrine to all of the people.

2Samuel 7:3–5

01/22/1975 Nathan's revelation

Bob's voice is strengthening.

Nathan is a prophet with doctrine; and he agrees with a thought that is original and without precedent. A lesser man would be afraid of a new thought. Nathan agreed with what he heard and this agreed with the entire realm of Bible doctrine. He did not say, "Where did you get that idea? Or, do you have any documentation?" Documentation is a coward's way of hiding. You went out and you found yourself in a wrestling match. You had to fight off this wolf that you have decided to date. We learned how to deal with such people; you take out a ball point pen and shove it into his eye.

Too many new thoughts are difficult for some; there is nothing to compare them to. A new thought is a thought that comes into the soul totally apart from anything comparable to it. When Nathan replied to the king, here is the meeting of two great minds. It makes sense for David to try out this totally new thought with Nathan. This is a new idea and is not in any way related to evil.

2Sam. 7:3 And Nathan said to the king, Go, do all that is in your heart, for Jehovah is with you.

Summary on V. 3

1. Nathan agrees with David. Both men are supergrace believers. Both agree that this is in the Lord's will.
2. There is no standard in the Scripture to say already that this is wrong or right. Two supergrace believers both agree.
3. Supergrace believers always agree on major points of doctrine.
4. Nathan was not counseling David and David was not seeking advice. This was a conversation at a party and this is a private conversation.
- 5.
6. They were talking at a party at the castle; no one is advising anyone else. It is obvious from this that they enjoy each other's company. They are at a party, but not in the middle of the party. They enjoy each other because they both have capacity for life. Some people need a party to blow off steam; an escape hatch.
7. It is easy for them to fall into a conversation. David expresses a great application of Bible doctrine. He has been thinking about the ark; and he has just restored the Ark to its place in Zion.

David understands that it is incongruous for him to live in a wonderful Castle and yet, the Ark of God is in a tent. When you realize that something is right, then you do something about it. Nathan points out that, "You have the ability to do this; so go ahead and do it."

V. 4 is after the party. Nathan feels alright after the party. In the early part of the evening, the party broke up; they made use of the daytime. God's will will be revealed to David. David is the king with the highest temporal

David is higher than the king, but he is separate from the king.

Preliminary Considerations

1. Divine revelation was necessary, since both David and Nathan followed the logical conclusions of doctrine in their souls. It was necessary because this is a new thought. Already, Nathan and David, the two greatest believers in the land, agree on this new thought. Nathan has even encouraged David to put his ideas into motion. Jesus Christ will at the right time dwell in a permanent house. Jesus will veto the construction of this temple.
2. Both of these are mature believers, and they both believe that David's idea is related to doctrine.
3. Both men are correct in their assumption that a Temple is absolutely necessary.
4. This temporary interlude of peace; David will be in the field half of his life. In between, David will spend his life in the field. Therefore, David will not do any more building.
5. Other wars are on the horizon. The total subjugation of the Philistines will come later, along with wars against the Assyrians, the Ammonites, and others. David was either in the field, constantly organizing, planning, and moving troops. Solomon did not have the challenge of battle. His father did such a great job that no one would fight Israel for 40 years. People came from as far as Ethiopia or Sheba to meet Solomon; but none would attack Israel. Solomon never knew what it was like to be in the field with all kinds of pressures. He collected women and religions and money and all of the art treasures of the ancient world at that time. Could I live as Solomon lived and still be occupation with Christ? Solomon began his reign as a spiritual giant. Supergrace greatness belonged to him. But he could not take the constant pressure of nothing but prosperity. David had the contrast and the prosperity. No one faced a test like Solomon's. The worst thing is when he met his wife and she turned him down flat. She was the greatest woman for him and he was the greatest wolf.
6. God's time for building the Temple will come in the golden age of Solomon's reign.
7. This will be constructed in a time of great peace. Jesus Christ controls history and the time is not right. You cannot operate on your own timetable.
8. So the Lord must intercede here. Project temple is postponed for one generation.
9. God uses the proper channels.

2Sam. 7:4 And that night the Word of Jehovah came to Nathan saying, the countermanding of David's plans. Vv. 5–7 the Qal imperative "Go" is what we have used by Nathan in the castle. This interrupts the building of the Temple for one generation.

The question from God is rhetorical. It is a rhetorical, negative question. The idea is, the time is not right. God expects a negative answer, but there is no rebuke and no reprimand. Instead of an imperative or an imperfect, it is a negative interrogative statement.

2Sam. 7:5 [Go and tell My servant David, So says Jehovah, "Shall you build Me a house for My dwelling \[to sit in\]?"](#) a review of the previous verses.

01/23/1975 Original thinking

2Sam. 7:1–5 And it happened when the king dwelt in his house, and when Jehovah had given him rest [provided a peaceful interlude for him] round about from all his enemies, Consequently, the king said to Nathan the prophet, See now, I live [prosperously] in a house of cedar, but the Ark of God dwells within curtains. And Nathan said to the king, Go, do all that is in your heart, for Jehovah is with you. And that night the Word of Jehovah came to Nathan saying, Go and tell My servant David, So says Jehovah, “Shall you build Me a house for My dwelling [to sit in]?”

God says “No” with a soft, rhetorical question. David has not forgotten about the source of his prosperity. David comes up with a great original thought that has come from nowhere else.

Moses could not have come up with such an original thought because he was implementing exactly what God required. Joshua was in the midst of conquering the land. In those 400 years of Jewish history, only Samuel might have come up with such an original thought.

Influenced by evil means that it is western European civilization; influenced by doctrine is based upon the Word of God. \

Explanatory wâw, which should be translated for. For 486 years, no one has been motivated to set up a permanent structure for the Lord. The Scripture tells us that it was justified. It was not until David was in his own castle that it occurred to him that this ought to be the same for the House of God. Moved from Nob to Gibeon and David found that the Ark was gone. He brings back the Tabernacle and David does not like the temporary structure of the Tabernacle.

There was great spiritual declension in the time of the Judges; which is why no one came up with that idea during that time. From this time on will be one location for the Temple; Mount Zion will be the place for Castle Zion and for the Temple.

2Sam. 7:6 For I have not dwelt [sat] in a house [Temple] since the day that I brought up the sons of Israel out of Egypt until this day, but have walked in a tent, even in a tabernacle.

David is thinking about a permanent for the Lord and God is thinking of a permanent house for the dynasty of David. This will become the oldest and longest dynasty in human history.

God has never suggested or intimated that a Temple ought to be built. The tribe refers that most of the tribes have had a chance to rule over Israel. Levi had as its rulers Moses, Eli and Samuel. At no time were any of those men told to build a temple. Ephraim has the man Joshua, and God did not tell him to do anything. Othniel and David are from the tribe of Judah. The tribe of Benjamin has had 2 rulers. Naphtali had Shamgar or Balak. Issachar had the ruler of Tola. The tribe of Dan had Samson. Manasseh had 3 rulers: Jair, Jephthah, and Gideon. I am missing someone in this group. The command here is without precedent. David thought of it before David said it.

This is an original thought; this is spiritual genius.

David's Original Thought

1. There is no precedent or standing order or plan reveal by God to construct a Temple.
2. Good original thinking comes from doctrine. This leads to the first principle: original thinking and independent thinking comes from maximum doctrine in the soul. Independent thinking influenced by evil is western civilization. The thought matches a meter. Just like the 5th century B.C. came out with some great drama, original thinking. Western civ goes back to 5th century Athens. The stupid idiotic shepherds who lives on 7 hills figured that discipline is their...
3. Anglo Saxon culture and the reformation resulted in a great culture. Otherwise, we worship at the shrine of western European civilization.
4. He can interpret contemporary history. The supergrace believer is capable of thinking divine viewpoint which is honoring to God. The KJ language hides more doctrine than it reveals. Some pastors are squared away in many things and yet must pray with thee's and thou's. God is not upset if we do not use the language of Shakespear. Nothing hacks off Bob more than the fundies clinging to Shakespearean language.
5. David is an illustration of an original thinker; one of 4. Only one original thinker in the New Testament: Paul.
6. The supergrace believer can evaluate history from the absolute criterion from the Word of God. You do not have to wait 50 or 100 years to evaluate history; you can evaluate history while it is occurring.
7. David did not need precedent to conclude that it was time for a temple to be constructed. The fundies might have thrown a fit over it. "Show me a Scripture." David had courage, which is necessary for original thinking. It is too far ahead of them; it makes them nervous.
8. David had been thinking about this since the restoration of the Ark.
9. The leadership of Israel had been invested in many tribes: Manasseh, Ephraim, Naphtali, Issachar, Dan, Judah, Benjamin, Levi, etc. No such order was every issued.
10. David never forgot the source of prosperity. David is aggressive in his application of doctrine.
11. Because of David and his aggressive divine viewpoint; the leadership would from then on reside in the tribe of Judah. This should have been point 8.
12. The dynasty would be established forever in the line of David through Bathsheba, his rw. Solomon is the legal heir of David and the legal line that goes to Joseph.

13. This verse suggests that, whatever broke the ice, the thought of a permanent temple would have a permanent dynasty. Fulfillment of Gen. 49:10, made 400 years before Israel was a nation. The scepter will not depart nor the ruler staff from between his feet until Shiloh came and to Him will be the obedience of the people.

We have seen Michal and spent all Sunday on her and this will probably weed out the Sunday only crowd. Michal had to be eliminated from the promise.

2Sam. 7:7 In all places in which I have walked with all the sons of Israel, did I speak a word with any of the tribes of Israel, those I commanded to feed [shepherd] My people Israel, saying, Why do you not build Me a house of cedars?

Some people in a marriage are just looking for a way to get out of it. Bob always runs into the problem with 1% flakey types. David would find his rw eventually. The principle of David's grace promotion.

Michal had no capacity for happiness and she never had any children. There was an all-star game and those who caught that missed the content of the covenants. Football is not as important as doctrine ever. The greatest football game every is not as important as Bible doctrine.

Bob hopes that those who skipped Monday night for football, that you have the gift of pastor-teacher and that football is played every day that you teach Bible class. You missed one night of face to face teaching for a mess of pottage. Bible doctrine must be more important or you ought to go to one of these little fringe churches that meets twice a week.

Bob does not care if you come or not; he is interested in positive volition. David had a grace promotion.

David is the ruler; he is the top general; he is the royal knight. He is also still a servant of God. No matter how far we are promoted, we are still servants of God. We never get away from that and the source of all such blessing is from the Lord.

"David, I took you from the wrong side of the tracks." There was Micenian Greek royalty; there was a royal family in the Minoan Greek strain; in the Macedonian strain; in the Phrygians. There was a royal family in Babylon; a royal family beginning to emerge in Iran.

David came from the wrong side of the tracks; he was born with grass in his mouth. He was from a family without royalty; he was in a family that was large and he was the least in his family.

If you want to describe something that is lowdown, then talk about sheep. A sheep has no sense of direction; no way of protecting themselves; and they tend not to like discipline, even though they need it more than anything else. A sheep can't even shear himself. A sheep is a great description of that which is low on the totem pole.

A shepherd was about as low as you could get in this land. Bob does not like the word reverend. Bob has had enough dipwad calls. "I know you're busy, but..." Bob shouldn't have a telephone anyway. Repair man comes and Bob is in a pair of pajama bottoms and nothing else and he must wonder, "I wonder what he does for a living." As far as society is concerned, a pastor is low on the totem pole.

Bob rode drag when he was a rancher for a summer. He comes in behind and keeps all of the strays with the rest of them. He is running in the dust.

David's Promotion

1. David's promotion from God was from the bottom to the top. From zero to 100. He had great potential; none of his personal attributes were factors. God can take zero and make it into 100.
2. The lowest and most humble profession of shepherd became the training ground for the highest job, rank in the land, the king. Pastor is low on the totem pole and high when Bible class assembles.
3. He was an obscure shepherd of Bethlehem, forgotten in part even by his own family. God brought him to public attention against Goliath.
4. No matter how courageous, no matter how handsome, no matter how great a leader, David would be buried in obscurity apart from and except for the grace of God.
5. While David had great human ability and talent, he did not become great by human energy, flattery or machination.
6. David is a total gross product of grace. In spite of his abilities, talents, etc., none of these things were useable to God. He did not earn or deserve God's grace promotion. David is a gross product of grace.

2Sam. 7:8 And now so shall you say to My servant David, So says Jehovah of Hosts: "I [Myself] took you from the sheepcote, from following the sheep, to be ruler over My people, over Israel.

We have heard someone speak of our assets in the past. We may cling to that; that may be our favorite area for remembering. The sooner that you get to where David started, the sooner you will get to where David came. He started as nothing and he became the greatest ruler that the world has ever known. God took a man who was nothing and made him everything. David never forgot it. There lies the secret to passing the prosperity test.

2Sa 7:1-2 When the king had settled into his palace and the LORD had given him rest [a peaceful interlude] on every side from all his enemies, Consequently, the king said to Nathan the prophet, "Look, I am living in a cedar house while the ark of God sits inside tent curtains."

Some people are confused about a passage in Chronicles about the Temple being in Gibeon.

2Sa 7:3–7 So Nathan told the king, "Go and do all that is on your heart, for the LORD is with you." But that night the word of the LORD came to Nathan: "Go to My servant David and say [communicate], 'This is what the LORD says: Are you to build a house for Me to live in? From the time I brought the Israelites out of Egypt until today I have not lived in a house; instead, I have been moving around with the tabernacle tent. In all My journeys with all the Israelites, have I ever asked [spoken a word to] anyone among the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people Israel: Why haven't you built Me a house of cedar?'

Some people accidentally came in from the Catholic church and they crossed themselves; and everyone around them pretended that that was routine 6. We never know what is happening. More interesting those who come to Berachah, and accidentally go down the street.

2Sam. 7:8 And now so shall you say to My servant David, So says Jehovah of Hosts: I took you from the sheepcote, from following the sheep, to be ruler over My people, over Israel.

When a person uses authority properly, that means he understands authority. No one every passed the authority test as much as David did. David was not even in front of his sheep; he was behind them.

Two doctrines reviewed.

David went from behind the sheep to being ruler over all Israel.

The Doctrine of Grace

1. Grace is all that God is free to do for man on the basis of what Jesus Christ did on the cross. It does not compromise or jeopardize his essence. God gives out of total freedom because of the cross. Grace is God's plan and His policy with regards to mankind. Plan, mechanics, policy; God does all the work and the giving and man does all the receiving. Grace depends entirely upon the character of God; it depends nothing upon us. Legalism self-righteousness and reversionism are all enemies of grace; and evil is also the great enemy of grace. It includes Satanic policy, sweetness and light, where man by man's effort tries to solve man's problems, real and imagined. A person can do good; if influenced by doctrine, it is divine good; and influenced by evil, it is human good. Evil comes from the right lobe; sin comes from the sin nature. What man adds to the plan of God would destroy grace. God's plan depends entirely upon grace. It would be evil for a pastor to go and visit the sick in the hospital if they are to be studying and teaching. Or they fight sin. Such pastors are total idiots. The royal family of God was formed by the baptism of the Spirit which is a matter of grace.

3. The principle of saving grace. Every believer has tasted the grace of God at least once. The moment that we believe in Jesus Christ, we are said to have tasted the grace of God. Along comes the narcissist, self righteous believer. He is influenced by sin and evil. He thinks that there is a group of sins to cancel out the work of God. People come along in their arrogance; the holy rollers, they are evil, they are jackasses, they are the scum of the earth. But you, in their arrogance, hook up with them. Obviously, that kind of a member of the royal family gives testimony. We are a child of God, an ambassador for Christ, but experientially, we are liars. The tongues or the one-shot experience, or something suddenly changed your Christian life. You understand that God did it all. Believing has no merit; it is the object of faith that has all of the merit. If you think you have invited Christ into your heart, then that is the beginning of Christian narcissism. Opening the door to let Christ in is reversionism recovery. Many of you were conned. A guy who used to come through Houston in the 50's and he would get everyone to raise their hands.
4. In phase II, we are in living grace. We receive logistical grace; so that all that we need are provided for. God provides Scripture; He provides spiritual growth. God provides the means of assimilation, the academic discipline, all that come from the filling of the Holy Spirit. Divine discipline to remind us that we are on the wrong track and need to be on the right track. We follow the colors to the supergrace area and our paragraph SG2. We have the inner dictator. And David comes up with a completely original thought. No one had ever thought of this before. We therefore have a picture of his supergrace maturity.
5. Dying grace is the 3rd part of SG2. David enjoyed para SG2 and will enjoy 3 forever. Outside of the Apostle Paul, David did not operate by evil; he was not influenced by evil. The Methodists have been teaching evil from the turn of the century. They are involved in altruism. Satan attempts to improve the world and bring in the Millennium, and that is evil. The Baptist church is decadent because they talk about fighting sin, but they are caught up in evil. There are too many forms of evil; and none of us are smart enough to avoid every type of evil. It is doctrine which keeps us out of evil. People have so much trouble with David and Bathsheba; Cæsar and Cleopatra. Michal and Palty is like Mark Anthony and Cleopatra. Octavius was a pimply-faced jackass. David committed sins like anyone else. Bathsheba was a sin. We will all sin all of our lives. We must not be influenced with evil. Even if we got everyone to stop sinning, we would be worse off. Sin is just a manifestation of evil. It is not as bad as the evil. David was one of the few to understand this. The sooner to get the perspective, the better. David was never influenced by evil.

Doctrine of Grace

- I. Introduction.
  - A. Grace is all that God has done to bring fallen and sinful man into a just, perfect, and eternal relationship with Himself, without compromising His divine attributes and totally apart from human merit and works.

- B. Grace is the policy of God and the title of God's plan, (2Tim.1:9).
- C. Grace completely excludes human merit and works as the basis of access to divine blessing, Rom.11:6 "But if it is by grace, it is no longer on the basis of works, otherwise grace is no longer grace"; Rom.4:4 "Now to the one who works, his wage is not credited according to grace but as what is due."
- D. Grace benefits are bestowed on the basis of faith, Rom.5:1,2 "Therefore having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom also we have obtained our introduction by faith into this grace in which we stand; and we exult in hope of the glory of God."
- E. Faith must always be directed toward the teachings of Scripture to secure the grace benefit, Rom.10:17 "So faith comes from hearing, and hearing from the word of Christ."
- F. All three adjustments to God are according to grace by faith apart from works.
1. SAJG (salvation adjustment to the justice of God; Gal.2:16; Eph.2:8,9).
  2. RBJG (rebound adjustment to the justice of God; 1Jn.1:9).
  3. MAJG (maturity adjustment to the justice of God; Jam.1:21,22; 2Pet.3:18; see Doctrine of GAP).
- G. Bible Doctrine is called "the word of His grace" (Act.20:32).
- H. Grace can be rejected, which brings divine judgment, Heb.10:29 "has insulted the Spirit of grace".
- I. However, grace always precedes divine judgment.
- J. Certain phrases show the primacy of grace.
1. "the grace of God" (Act.11:23; 13:43; 2Cor.1:12).
  2. "the word of His grace" (Act.20:32).
  3. "the true grace of God" (1Pet.4:12).
  4. "riches of His grace" (Eph.1:7; 2:7).
  5. "grace to you and peace" (2Cor.1:3).
- K. Mercy is a synonym for grace (2Cor.1:3, grace in action).
- L. Greek vocabulary.
1. Verb, carizo,mai, charizomai, used 23X: grant, give, bestow on, deal generously or graciously with, forgive.
  2. Noun, ca,rij, charis, used 155X: grace, favor, gift, blessing.
  3. Verb, carito,w, charitoo, used 2X: to bestow on freely (Eph.1:6; Lk.1:28).
  4. Noun, ca,risma, charisma, used 17X: gift; used of salvation and spiritual gifts.
- M. The Hebrew equivalent is !xe , chen, a noun: grace, favor, charm, etc. (Gen.6:8; Ex.33:12 in an expression "found grace").
- N. Grace exists in five general categories: saving, living, maturity, dying, and surpassing grace.

- II. Saving grace is all the Godhead has done to provide eternal salvation (Eph.2:5,8,9).
  - A. We were called by grace (Gal.1:15).
  - B. We were justified by grace (Ti.3:7).
  - C. All mankind are candidates for this grace (Ti.2:11; Heb.2:9).
  - D. This grace is realized only by faith (Rom.4:16).
  - E. This grace is not received by works (Rom.3:20,24; 5:15,16; 2Tim.1:9; Ti.3:7; cf. vs.5).
  - F. The SAJG is our access into all other spheres of grace (Rom.5:2).
  - G. This grace is called positional grace to the Royal Family (Eph.1:6).
- III. Living grace includes the believers physical and spiritual provision to make the MAJG.
  - A. The physical provision includes food, shelter, clothing, etc. (Mt.6:25-33; cf. 6:11; Phil.4:19).
  - B. Living grace includes deliverance and protection so that we can finish our course (2Tim.3:11; 4:7,8,17,18). We will be persecuted, but our enemies cannot keep us from the adjustments.
  - C. Living grace will be tested as with the Exodus generation. They flunked the test (Ex.17:2,7; Num.14:22; Ps.78:18,41,56; 95:9; Heb.3:9; Abraham in Canaan, Gen.12:10).
  - D. Living grace is provided for all men (sometimes called common grace; Mt.5:45; Act.14:17).
  - E. Living grace also covers all of the special spiritual assets associated with the indwelling of the Holy Spirit to the Church (Act.2:38; 10:45; Eph.4:7).
  - F. The completed canon, the local assembly, and the pastor-teacher are the grace heritage of the royal priesthood (1Cor.2:6-16; Eph.4:11).
  - G. We are to be content with our allotment (1Tim.6:8).
- IV. Surpassing grace blessings in Phase 2 (SG2) are the blessings, privileges, tests, and Phase 3 blessings associated with seizing and holding maturity.
  - A. SG2 results from maximum application of Bible Doctrine (BD) over the years (Lk.8:15; cf. vs.14).
  - B. Temporal (overt) prosperity will vary greatly from believer to believer (as illustrated from the extremes in Heb.11).
  - C. SG2 has been distorted into a "riches equals godliness" formula (1Tim.6:5; cf. 9,10). All mature believers will not have great wealth, perfect health, sexual prosperity, etc.
  - D. Passages like Mk.10:28-30 and 1Tim.4:8 clearly indicate the promise of temporal blessing for faithfulness.
  - E. The temporal blessings (beyond the living grace needs) will be tested. Example: Abraham in Gen.22.
- V. Dying grace is the blessings associated with the believer's promotion into heaven (Phase 3). (Means of death is not an issue.)
  - A. It includes the spiritual stimulation associated with having a clear conscience regarding Most Pressing Responsibility (MPR; 2Tim.1:3).

- B. It includes the fragrance of memories on the glory road (2Tim.1:3-5).
  - C. It includes the proper doctrinal perspective concerning Phase 3 (Ph3; 2Tim.4:7,8).
  - D. It includes the grace apparatus for perception (GAP) and divine good to the end (Paul executing his apostolic duties).
  - E. The alternative is the sin unto death (Prov.8:36; cf. 1Jn.5:16), which can be cancelled with reversion recovery (incestuous Corinthian).
- VI. Surpassing grace blessings in Phase 3 (SG3) refers to the special blessings and rewards reserved for us in Ph3 (1Pet.1:4).
- A. The terminology is taken from Eph.1:19.
  - B. It is available to all believers, but not all believers will receive it (1Cor.3:14,15; 9:24-27; Lk.8:14; Jn.15:5,6; 2Tim.2:5; Heb.6:7,8; Rev.3:11).
  - C. That which is done apart from the filling of the Holy Spirit (1Cor.13 "love") is rejected as human good (1Cor.3:12-15).
  - D. Bible Doctrine prepares us for every good work (2Tim.2:21).
  - E. There is a special category of SG3 for those who stick with MPR to the end (Heb.10:32-39; cf. 3:6,14; 6:11; Rev.2:26).
  - F. As the conflict intensifies, follow 1Pet.1:13.
- VII. The Church Age is called the dispensation of the grace of God because of our positional truth (grace; Eph.3:1-9).
- A. Union with Christ guarantees every grace blessing for Phases 1, 2, and 3 under the three adjustments (SAJG, RAJG, MAJG; 1Cor.1:4).
  - B. Each Church Age saint has access to this grace (Eph.4:7).
  - C. Paul (the worst sinner, and the twelfth apostle) received this grace in abundance (1Tim.1:12-16; 1Cor.3:10; Gal.2:9).
- VIII. Old Testament saints were under Phase 1, 2, and 3 grace as illustrated by Abraham in Rom.4 (cf. Heb.11).
- IX. Right woman is a grace provision (Prov.18:22). The Hebrew word  $\text{ןַח}$ , chen, is translated "favor" in the New American Standard, but should be translated grace (cf. 31:30, where  $\text{ןַח}$  is correctly translated "charm").
- X. Grace orientation:
- A. Is commanded (2Pet.3:18).
  - B. Is associated with correct prayer (Heb.4:16, "the throne of grace").
  - C. Should characterize the sacrifice of praise (Col.3:16).
  - D. Should characterize the sacrifice of giving (1Cor.16:3; 2Cor.8:1-9,19; 9:8).
  - E. Should characterize the sacrifice of thanksgiving (Heb.12:28; 13:15).
  - F. Should characterize all our speech (Col.4:6).
  - G. Paul demonstrates his grace orientation as the super apostle (1Cor.15:10).
- XI. "Greater grace" is provided for the believer who puts the application of Bible Doctrine over personal interests, Jam.4:6 "But He gives a greater grace (mei,zona ca,rin, meizona charin.)"

- A. The believer who refuses to compromise his norms and standards with the cosmos comes under severe attack and pressure to conform (Jam.4:4).
  - B. As he/she sticks with the divine viewpoint, refusing to quench and grieve God the Holy Spirit, relying on God for vindication, he/she is up for "greater grace" (the only time the word grace occurs in Jam.).
  - C. Such a believer, who refuses to conform to societies' STA (sinful trend of Adam) standards and who bears up under testing, is called "humble".
  - D. To that believer, God gives grace (Prov.3:34).
  - E. The arrogant man rejects and rationalizes divine viewpoint, hoping to get along, but misses "greater grace".
  - F. When you opt for the indwelling STA (flesh) over the indwelling Holy Spirit, you are arrogant and miss "greater grace".
  - G. If you have been playing the arrogant world-ling by refusing to apply, implement Jam.4:7-9.
  - H. And the promise of "greater grace" will be yours (vs.10; 1Pet.5:6).
- XII. Misapplications of grace.
- A. Sin so grace may abound. This is a distortion (Rom.6:1,2).
  - B. Legalism distorts salvation and spirituality (Gal.1:6-9; 2:21; 3:1-3).
  - C. The substitution of ritual for reality (Heb.10:29).
  - D. Liberals who label homosexual perversion along with right man/right woman as grace (Jd.4).
- XIII. A description of believers who reject true grace (1Pet.5:12).
- A. Receive the grace of God in vain (2Cor.6:1; cf. Gal.2:2; 3:4; 4:11).
  - B. Fallen from grace (Gal.5:4, legalism).
  - C. Come short of the grace of God (Heb.12:15, mental attitude sin reversionism).
  - D. Insult the Spirit of grace (Heb.10:29).
- XIV. The Lord is the supreme example of grace because He was totally aware of, and committed to, all truth (Jn.1:14,17); the First Advent epitomizes grace orientation under the hypostasis and is the example for grace giving (2Cor.8:9).
- XV. Israel's election is based on grace (Rom.11; cf. vs.5, "election of grace").
- XVI. New Testament exhortations related to grace.
- A. We are to grow in grace and knowledge (2Pet.3:18). This is the highest Biblical imperative, (MPR).
  - B. We are to be strong in the grace of God that is in Christ Jesus (2Tim.2:1).
  - C. We are to continue in the grace of God (Act.13:13, of the Galatian churches before reversionism).
  - D. Stand firm in it (1Pet.5:12). Believers are under persecution from the cosmos.
- XVII. The salutations and benedictions in the epistles emphasize both the external provisions as well as the mental attitude.

- A. Salutations include: Rom.1:7; 1Cor.1:3; 2Cor.1:2; Gal.1:13; Eph.1:2; Phil.1:2; Col.1:2; 1Thess.1:1; 2Thess.1:2; 1Tim.1:2; 2Tim.1:2; Ti.1:1; Philm.3; 1Pet.1:2; 3Jn.3; Rev.1:4.
- B. Benedictions include: Rom.16:20,24; 1Cor.16:23; 2Cor.13:14; Gal.6:18; Eph.6:24; Phil.4:23; Col.4:18; 1Thess.5:28; 2Thess.3:18; 1Tim.6:21; 2Tim.4:22; Ti.3:15; Philm.25; Heb.13:25.
- C. The last verse in the Bible deals with grace, Rev.22:21 "The grace of the Lord Jesus be with you all. Amen."

2Sam. 7:8 And now so shall you say to My servant David, "So says Jehovah of the Armies: I Myself took you from the sheepcote, from following the sheep, to be ruler over My people, over Israel."

David was a prince by practice. He was never influenced by evil. He was the world's greatest ruler until the Lord Jesus Christ. David is qualified and he was always influenced by doctrine. He always had the right doctrine. He was never influenced by evil.

Summary Points

1. If God does not promote you, you are not promoted.
2. God's plan policy and character must line up with grace. Divorced persons cannot do this or that in the Christian life. David had at least 6 wives and at least 10 mistresses and all of them went with him to the coronation. Some might think that David would not be qualified. Does this mean you can have a multiplicity of wives? "Try it." More than one woman intensifies your problems. No Baptist or Methodist would have voted for David as king; and the Presbyterians wouldn't give a damn. God made David king at a spiritual peak. He was mature spiritually. All of the great rulers in history commit all of the sins the Baptists preach again. Booze, the adultery and some other. Bob can only think of one great ruler and 3 great generals. This is not a license to sin. David was promoted and he was never demoted. He committed some rather shocking sins. God can only promote on the basis of grace.
3. Grace is compatible with God's basic character. And avoid compromise with His essence.
4. God only promotes prepared believers.
5. Believer's preparation is maximum doctrine resident in the soul. He is insulated against evil.
6. Maximum doctrine in the soul results in spiritual maturity. Relates to paragraph SG2. We all have a para SG2.
7. Therefore, in David's promotion, God is glorified and David is blessed to the maximum. Whenever God is glorified, there is maximum blessing for us. God does the pouring.

1Kings 8:16–17 Solomon's testimony about his father: "Since the day I brought My people Israel out of Egypt, I have not chosen a city to build a temple in among any of the tribes of Israel, so that My name would be there. But I have chosen David to rule My people Israel." It was in the desire of my father David to build a temple for the name of the LORD God of Israel. David is going to carve out a kingdom. He must stabilize the kingdom in order for the Temple to be built. David would spend his time in warfare.

It was Bible doctrine in David's soul that gave him the idea to build the Temple. There was no precedent for a Temple. God made David the ruler of Israel. It was the contrast between castle Zion and the Tabernacle pitched next door that caused all of this. It was also a demonstration of David passing the prosperity test that he did not forget the source of his prosperity. To pass this test, a person must continue to be influence of Jesus Christ and occupied with Him.

Psalm 78:67–72 He rejected the tent of Joseph and did not choose the tribe of Ephraim. He chose instead the tribe of Judah, Mount Zion, which He loved. He built His sanctuary like the heights, like the earth that He established forever. He chose David His servant and took him from the sheepfolds; He brought him from tending ewes to be shepherd over His people Jacob--over Israel, His inheritance. He shepherded them with a pure heart [according to the integrity of his right lobe] and guided them with his skillful hands.

Solomon went to Gibeah to offer up sacrifices, but that was the illegitimate place for the Tabernacle. This must be the 1Chronicles passage.

We will fail and sin, but rebound puts us right back into the Angelic Conflict. Evil is much more dangerous than sin. Evil is many types of thinking and many types of plans, religion, and many categories.

But that night the word of the LORD came to Nathan: "Go to My servant David and say [communicate], 'This is what the LORD says: Are you to build a house for Me to live in? From the time I brought the Israelites out of Egypt until today I have not lived in a house; instead, I have been moving around with the tabernacle tent. In all My journeys with all the Israelites, have I ever asked [spoken a word to] anyone among the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people Israel: Why haven't you built Me a house of cedar?'

maximum doctrine in the soul results in spiritual maturity.

2Sam. 7:8 And now so shall you say to My servant David, "So says Jehovah of the Armies: I Myself took you from the shepcote, from following the sheep, to be ruler over My people, over Israel."

It was the contrast between the Tabernacle and his own castle that gave David this original thought.

1Kings 8:16–17 Solomon's testimony about his father: "Since the day I brought My people Israel out of Egypt, I have not chosen a city to build a temple in among any of the tribes of Israel, so that My name would be there. But I have chosen David to rule My people Israel." It was in the desire of my father David to build a temple for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

And reviewing Psalm 78:67ff God did not choose the tribe of Ephraim, but He chose the tribe of Judah. The real Tabernacle was right now sitting next to castle Zion. Still, I don't buy this. David did make a tent for the Ark; but nothing is said of him moving the Tabernacle.

All rank is temporary. Only the army has regular rank? Not sure that I follow this.

I have been with you wherever you marched. He was promoted to King of Judah and then King of all Israel. David has marched all over. David now has a capitol city; God annihilated his enemies. There was a weak place, and David exploited this weakness and went right through it. In the second battle, God had David take up some new approach.

Michel was another kind of enemy for David. I have been with you wherever you marched; I have destroyed all the enemies before you. There was political greatness as well. His greatness will compare favorably with all of the leaders throughout history. In all of human history, David will stand out as one of the greatest rulers.

2Sam. 7:9 And I was with you wherever you went, and have cut off all your enemies out of your sight, and have made you a great name like the name of the great ones in the earth.

God will appoint a geographical location. This will be fulfilled at the 2nd advent of Jesus Christ. One of the most important is the real estate covenant. There will be a planting at the beginning of the Millennium with a great harvest after that.

There are 7 different words for living, dwelling or sitting. The grace establishment of Israel. No matter how much land is taken, in the future there will be a radical readjustment. It belongs to them and God will fulfill His promises to Israel.

Iraq is awful desert land, but it will blossom like a rose; it will be beautiful and blossom like a rose. In the future, all of this will belong to Israel. Israel has a future. God keeps His Word and there will be a specific piece of property associated with the fulfillment of this promise. David will be a father to Jesus; Jesus will be David's greater son. This is a sign of David's permanent promotion. David was a supergrace believer such as the world had never seen; never influenced by evil.

There will be a people for the king; there will be Jews in the land so that He has subjects. David himself has made a lot of moves as well. Never again will the Jews be disturbed or invaded. When the Angelic Conflict is concluded, the pressures of anti-Semitism will be ended.

Never again will the Jews be disturbed once the land has been restored to them. At one time, there was the one child that God has to protect. There was also the Coniah curse. Satan knows this and how he sought to destroy it.

The various concepts of antisemitism, liberalism and every type of evil. These are the forces which are hostile to God. Evil is made up of reversionism. God makes thousands of promises; and if He reneges on even one of them, then God is no longer God.

God could not love the world, if it weren't for the fact that His righteousness and justice have been satisfied. The Jews under the Davidic Covenant have eternal life; this is the only way that God can fulfill His covenant to the Jews. Every time that God makes a promise, He keeps that promise, because He cannot waltz on an obligation.

The sons of perversion are those who would afflict David and the Davidic line.

2Sam. 7:10 And I will appoint a place for My people Israel, and will plant them so that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more. Neither shall the sons of wickedness [perversion, distortion] afflict [oppress, humble] them any more, as before.

The heart of the covenant. The first sentence deals with David's dynasty. During the theocracy, God had judges over the people. There was constant pressure and oppression from all of the people within and without Israel.

2Sam. 7:11 And even from the time that I commanded judges to be over My people of Israel, so will I cause you to rest from all your enemies. Also Jehovah tells you that He will make [manufactures] you a house [dynasty].

David's Dynasty and the Temple of God.

1. 998–586 B.C., there will always be a dynasty, a member of the Davidic family on the throne.
2. Jesus will reign for 1000 years.
3. David's plan to build a Temple will be set aside and God will build a dynasty for David instead.
4. When David establishes his dynasty through 33 years of military victory, then his son and successor will construct the Temple.
5. David's reign will lay the foundation for the perpetuation. David's 33 years of fighting made it possible for such a dynasty to exist and endure.
6. There will be a dynasty and a Temple established. David is the foundation man; and Solomon is a superstructure man.

2Sam. 7:11 And even from the time that I commanded judges to be over My people of Israel, so will I cause you to rest from all your enemies. Also Jehovah tells you that He will make [manufactures] you a house [dynasty].

More Principles

1. To perpetuate one family in power, there must be a strong foundation. No foundation in the United States; like this. No family has been in power for more than a generation. We have never had anyone who has carried us anywhere. The person who carried us the most is Alexander Hamilton. John C. Calhoun was also a great contributor to American history. It is impossible for us to realize the magnitude of David's life. The liberals cannot stand any man who influences history for any amount of time. Like Julius Cæsar. We have not had a president who could compare to David. And some of those you think are the greatest are really the worst. God kept the nation intact despite Manasseh. Hezekiah was a good king; but terrible things occurred in Hezekiah's day. Throughout history, people of great incompetence became rulers. Neither birth nor election guarantee leadership.
2. The foundation demands military victory. The military victory it is our politicians who get us into war through their pusillanimous errors.
3. All freedom and good government is purchased by victory on the battlefield.
4. David will purchase that freedom through his own military. The Temple must be built in a time of peace. David will provide 1Kings 5:1–5 Tyre sends builders to Solomon. He was one of the great builders of that age. God promises that it will be David's son who will build the Temple.
5. Freedom for worship in the Temple must be purchased on the battlefield along with sovereignty and integrity.

2Samuel 7:12 5:12–13

72David

01/26/1975 Doctrines of David's family; polygamy; concept of David's greatness

2Sa 7:1–11 When the king had settled into his palace and the LORD had given him rest [a peaceful interlude] on every side from all his enemies, Consequently, the king said to Nathan the prophet, "Look, I am living in a cedar house while the ark of God sits inside tent curtains." So Nathan told the king, "Go and do all that is on your heart, for the LORD is with you." But that night the word of the LORD came to Nathan: "Go to My servant David and say [communicate], 'This is what the LORD says: Are you to build a house for Me to live in? From the time I brought the Israelites out of Egypt until today I have not lived in a house; instead, I have been moving around with the tabernacle tent. In all My journeys with all the Israelites, have I ever asked [spoken a word to] anyone among the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people Israel: Why haven't you built Me a house of cedar?' And now so shall you say to My servant David, "So says Jehovah of the Armies: I Myself took you from the shepcote, from following the sheep, to be ruler over My people, over Israel." And I was with you wherever you went, and have cut off all your enemies out of your sight, and have made you a great name like the name of the great ones in the earth. And I will appoint a place for My people Israel, and will plant them so that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more. Neither shall the sons of wickedness [perversion, distortion] afflict [oppress, humble] them any more, as before.

David is going to have a posterity in correct succession and in this posterity, one will build a Temple. David has a certain amount of time to live in this life. David lived 70 years.

It was customary for the eldest son to succeed his father; but David, at this time, has not yet fathered the son yet who will follow him.

From Maacah was a son who looked the most like David: Absalom. Amnon at a future time will rape Tamar and Abraham will kill Amnon. 2Sam. 5 tells us that he had 10 mistresses, which gives us 17 women altogether. Bob counts them down. David receives his permanent promotion at a time when he has a multiplicity of wives and he has sex with a minimum of 17 women. David doesn't stop there. Once he gets into Castle Zion and takes on a few more parties, he also has sex with several more women. He has the following children: Ibhar, Elishua, Eliphelet, Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, Elishama, Eliota, Jerimoth. 7 more sons. This tells us that David had a lot of wives and a lot of children. This is an actual harem. We do not condone it. Not sure where these all come from.

He had 4 sons by Bathsheba: Solomon, Shomua, Shobab, Nathan and 2 others + 1 who dies. God put David in a place of great promotion, in supergrace, and he had tons of women. He was in the multi-sex bracket. This will help to explain the difference between sin and evil.

It is not David's oldest son or his favorite son that succeeded him on the throne. Amnon was a real jerk all the way. The son most like David is Absalom. He was a chip off the old block, but he went in for revolution against his father and lost his life as a result.

Adonijah was one of the toughest sons and he revolted against David. David should have had him executed. David never settled down nor was faithful to any woman until he met his rw, who is Bathsheba. That is when he settled down to become faithful.

This is God's Word, and we have already studied Prov. 6:32. This is not a breakthrough but a continuation of the same doctrine.

2Sam. 5:12 Then David knew that the LORD had established him as king over Israel and had exalted his kingdom for the sake of His people Israel.

2Sam. 5:13 After he arrived from Hebron, David took more concubines and wives in Jerusalem, and more sons and daughters were born to him.

The Doctrine of Polygamy

1. Definition; the state of having a plurality of wives and a plurality of sexual relationships; it is the antithesis of monogamy. Juvenil said, There are few disputes in life that, when traced, could not be traced back to the woman. He was explaining why Rome was a great nation. Rome was a monogamous nation. It is the fallacy of the man who selects all of these women. Women were not designed to get together and have rapport without their men being there. That indicates that they might be on the lesbian side. Polygamy was never acceptable as part of the Word of God. Instinctively, the Romans followed this.

2. The Word of God prohibits polygamy. It is a sin in Deut. 17:14–17 Lev. 18:18 Can you grow spiritually if in polygamy? Or to grow spiritually and still sin? Of course. Women can be very arrogant in Berachah. This is why so many are subjective and have to scream double standard. If you have murdered someone, confess it, and after you are apprehended, we will send you tapes in jail. The person who claims to have stopped sinning is a liar; so he has sinned when it comes to lying. It is possible for any of us to grow up when sinning (after rebounding them, of course). This does not condone our sins. We all grow up, in spite of sinning. Spiritual growth depends upon the consistent intake of Bible doctrine; it does not depend upon sin or the lack of sin. Some of you have no common sense to begin with. David was involved in polygamy and polygamy is a sin. God still promoted him. He was promoted on the basis of doctrine, not on the basis of sinning. We all sin. Sin comes from the old sin nature. God does not condone sin. David compounds the trouble in his life. He was disciplined at the time. There comes a time when David had to learn his lesson, and it had to be done. The Davidic line was filled with sex athletes. They were all oversexed. David will get rid of one of the knights of the 3rd class who was Bathsheba's husband. He did not just suffer from the multiplicity of women, but from the discipline and from the sexual addiction. David reached maturity with this sin.
3. Polygamy violates rm/rw. To be polygamous, you must be oversexed or stupid. The Chinese symbol for trouble is two women under the same roof.
4. Polygamy is related to reversionism. Jacob had 2 wives; he was pushed into it. Jacob was chiseled and he chiseled others. Some of the 12 tribes of Israel are from bastards. Polygamy brought trouble to Gideon. Solomon's reversionism had 1000 wives. Elkanah's polygamy with Hannah and someone else. You cannot get away from trouble and problems in polygamy. Arabs set up a law to limit Arab males to only 4 wives since it was so problematic. Greece and Rome were the monogamous societies in the ancient world and this helps to explain why they were great.
5. Therefore, polygamy and the will of God.
  - a. Not only is polygamy sin, but it is not the will of God.
  - b. God does not condone polygamy. All bigamists and polygamous men have trouble.
  - c. Self-induced misery is a part of it.
  - d. Furthermore, no man was designed soulishly or physically for polygamy. Man cannot have successful sex. A man did a PhD on this.
  - e. Monogamy is God's order under the laws of divine establishment.
  - f. No one should have understood the problems of polygamy more than David or Solomon; and yet they both practiced it.
  - g. Not justified in an Asian harem or in a Mormon polygamy marriage.

- h. The United States government was correct to crack down on the Mormons and Congress passed a law to prohibit polygamy. This was questioned; and the Supreme Court confirmed its constitutionality.

6. Conclusions

- a. Sin, related to discipline, and never condoned.
- b. In fact, polygamy is expressly forbidden.
- c. Therefore, those who practice polygamy suffer from misery.
- d. Problems with subsequent generations. Such children never got along.
- e.
- f. Polygamy causes incest, murder, rape and violence.
- g. Greece and Rome were the two most vigorous peoples and they were monogamous. This will always be the divine order. David was promoted because his polygamy was going on during his supergrace promotion by God.

Doctrine was here before we came and it will be here after we are gone; same for evil; you cannot change doctrine and you cannot change evil, but they can both change us.

Michel was eliminated as a person influenced by evil.

David was a supergrace believer at the time of being promoted.

2Sam. 7:12 And when your days are fulfilled, and you shall sleep with your fathers, I will set up [perpetuate] your seed after you, who shall come out of your bowels. And I will make his kingdom sure.

Closing Points on David and Polygamy

1. David had many wives and mistresses until he reached a saturation point.
2. David could not be kept from Bathsheba. When he saw Bathsheba, he still wanted her sexually. He was not a satisfied man. Soulful and psychological satisfaction from the rw.
3. Neither their sexual or social capabilities turned David's eyes from Bathsheba. They had social and sexual capabilities. David was still looking.
4. With all the sex and social life, David was a restless person, until he saw Bathsheba. After Bathsheba, he settled down. Because he did not wait for his rw, his life was complicated by many problems
- 5.
6. At the time that David received the promise of the Davidic covenant, his rw and his successor had not even come on the scene.
7. Because evil is the greater menace to spiritual life, and because God promoted David as a polygamist, it does not imply a double-standard. David's polygamy did not hinder his spiritual growth. It caused him great trouble, suffering, and discipline, which he could have well done without.

8. No one could have had the rank and authority that David had and been influenced by evil. This was the great secret to his rulership ability.
9. Therefore, David was promoted despite of his polygamy and because of the doctrine in his soul. We will grow up and be promoted spiritually because of the doctrine in our souls.

2Sam. 7:12 And when your days are fulfilled, and you shall sleep with your fathers, I will set up [perpetuate] your seed after you, who shall come out of your bowels. And I will make his kingdom sure [establish his kingdom].

God would establish David's kingdom.

2Sam. 7:13 He shall build a house for My name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever.

The Concept of David's Greatness

1. David had to establish a command post in his soul. As with all of us, we think we are great because we do not commit a certain kind of a sin. We lead a very sterile type of life. Doctrine in the soul makes us great. This command post is Bible doctrine in the soul insulating David from evil. Doctrine in the soul is the positive side and insulated from evil is the negative side.
2. The davidic dynasty began with a supergrace believer who was not influenced by evil. Evil is the modus operandi of Satan in this world. You can be very very moral but very evil.
3. Sin originates from the old sin nature. Evil originates from the heart or the right lobe.
4. Evil is the Satanic policy for ruling the world and sin is his inability to make it all work and to control his subjects.
5. Satan is the father of evil and the originator of sin.
6. Arrogance and pride are the roots of evil.
7. However, David was the greatest king of history until Christ returns as the son of David.

Many scriptures about David. 1Sam. 15:35 he walked in all of the sins of his father that he had committed before him; his heart was not complete like his father David. But God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem because of his father David. David did what was right in the sight of Jehovah, and did not turn aside in anything.

1Kings 15:11 Asa did what was right in the sight of Jehovah like David his father.

2Kings 22:2 Psalm 132:11 the Lord has sworn a doctrine to David...

Called a man after God's Own heart in the New Testament. He was the greatest king who ever lived; and he was never influenced by evil.

2Samuel 7:13

72David

631_0177

01/27/1975 the Coniah Curse Doctrine of evil

I may have slept through some of these points. I may have to listen to this lesson again.

2Sa 7:1–13 When the king had settled into his palace and the LORD had given him rest [a peaceful interlude] on every side from all his enemies, Consequently, the king said to Nathan the prophet, "Look, I am living in a cedar house while the ark of God sits inside tent curtains." So Nathan told the king, "Go and do all that is on your heart, for the LORD is with you." But that night the word of the LORD came to Nathan: "Go to My servant David and say [communicate], 'This is what the LORD says: Are you to build a house for Me to live in? From the time I brought the Israelites out of Egypt until today I have not lived in a house; instead, I have been moving around with the tabernacle tent. In all My journeys with all the Israelites, have I ever asked [spoken a word to] anyone among the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people Israel: Why haven't you built Me a house of cedar?' And now so shall you say to My servant David, "So says Jehovah of the Armies: I Myself took you from the shepcote, from following the sheep, to be ruler over My people, over Israel." And I was with you wherever you went, and have cut off all your enemies out of your sight, and have made you a great name like the name of the great ones in the earth. And I will appoint a place for My people Israel, and will plant them so that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more. Neither shall the sons of wickedness [perversion, distortion] afflict [oppress, humble] them any more, as before. And when your days are fulfilled, and you shall sleep with your fathers, I will set up [perpetuate] your seed after you, who shall come out of your bowels. And I will make his kingdom sure. He shall build a house for My name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever.

David's Greatness

1. David's greatness is dependent upon a command post set up in the post.
2. David was sinful and carnal from time to time, but he was not influenced by evil.
3. Sin comes from the sin nature; evil from the right lobe.
4. Satan unable to control his own subjects.
5. Satan is the father of evil and the father of sin.
6. When he said "I'll be like the most high" that began them both.
7. David's greatness was not based upon his sinfulness; all believers are sinful.
8. David is the norms and standards for all rulers in Israel.
9. God was not willing to destroy Judah because of His promise to David.

The doctrine of evil is reviewed. Evil contains sin and human good. It includes altruism, social action, the social gospel, the distortion of law to solve social and economic problems. Evil is also religion, apostasy, reversionism. Both sin and evil irrigate from evi lis h least understood and the greatest problem. The supergrace believer is protected from evil. If you have evil on the inside, you are a walking trouble-maker machine.

People can have all the things in the world, and yet, it does not make them happy.

The artiles of furniture will rain and be used to teach Bible doctrine for the Levis and the priests. It was a permanent warehouse. The function of the priesthood in the Temle will be ceremonial. David will rule over the north and te south for 3 generations. During the 40 years of Solomon and the beginning of Rehoboam's reign. As long as Israel is not under discipline, the rulership will be at Zion. Zion is just a steep hill, the souther part of a ridge; the Kidron and... some of David's progeny will be in supergrace. Most will be reversionistic.

David got the promise from God in 99 B.C. during this period from Rehoboam to Zedekiah, about 340 years, there will be 19 kings and one queen. Our of thes 19, only 4 could be classified as super grace believers for even part of their lives. Going back to the southern kingdom, even after 40 years, the returning kingdom were led by zerubbabel. He was in the line of David. The line of descent down toward the fifth cycle of discipline takes up one more great man, Josiah.

Jehoiakim, also called Eliakim; and his son was Jehoiachin. Also call Coniah. It means "jerk." God told through Jeremiah that Jehoiakim and Jehoiachin would be cut off. That line was perpetuated in captivity, but that line would never go back on the throne. That is called the Coniah curse. Zerubbabel is really descended through Nathan, Solon's younger brother. He is interested himself. He was adopted by the Solomon line. Julius Cæsar had man children so this is not unusual. He ran out of kids to choose as a successor. He had adopted his pimply face nephew, Octavius. The natural kids either assassinated or no good. Nero was not in the Claudio-Julian line. Nero's mom then poisoned the king who adopted Nero, so he became the king. This is how Zerubbabel ends up in both lines. This stems from the Coniah curse. Establishment of the Davidic dynasty.

Christ would perpetuate the dynasty. Bob can go back to Scotland and claim to the be the king of Scotland by being descended from MacBeth. The dynasty goes right on.

David's dynasty had to be carved out by the laws of divine establishment, by the military. That always comes on the battlefield. The battlefield must come before the Temple. Jesus is the seed of David according to the flesh.

2Sa 7:1–13 When the king had settled into his palace and the LORD had given him rest [a peaceful interlude] on every side from all his enemies, Consequently, the king said to Nathan the prophet, "Look, I am living in a cedar house while the ark of God sits inside tent curtains." So Nathan told the king, "Go and do all that is on your heart, for the LORD is with you." But that night the word of the LORD came to Nathan: "Go to My servant David and say [communicate], 'This is what the LORD says: Are you to build a house for Me to live in? From the time I brought the Israelites out of Egypt until today I have not lived in a house; instead, I have been moving around with the tabernacle tent. In all My journeys with all the Israelites, have I ever asked [spoken a word to] anyone among the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people Israel: Why haven't you built Me a house of cedar?' And now so shall you say to My servant David, "So says Jehovah of the Armies: I Myself took you from the shepcote, from following the sheep, to be ruler over My people, over Israel." He shall build a house for My name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever.

There will be a policy set up: as a father trains, teaches, provides, prepares a child, so God will do for Solomon. David built with troops and with infantry. He built a lasting peace, which lasted for 1 generation, which is pretty much as long as we can expect. Antoinine Caesar's beat this record with 200 years of peace. Solomon would have a very peaceful reign. He would have a military, but it would not be used as David used his military. Solomon will be free to build a Temple. David's building was of a different nature. He must show them that it is a bad idea to attack Israel. The Philistines were very stubborn and they loved to fight and it took 3 wars to shut them down. They would come back after the time of Solomon.

Solomon was probably one of the wisest kings who ever lived. Hamarabi was an ass and what he knew about law, you could put into a thimble. But Solomon knew a lot more. He had his reversionism, but that's another story.

God knew Solomon would become reversionistic.

2Sam. 7:14 I will be his Father, and he shall be My son. If [asher, when] he commits iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of the sons of men.

Spiritual Heritage Taught in V. 14

1. God would provide blessing for two Davidic kings through spiritual heritage.
2. The spiritual heritage of Israel is based upon the daily function of gap and through the information of the Temple and what scripture existed at that time. There would be additional doctrines given at the time by the prophets, Nathan and Gad in the time of David.

3. Under these principles, Jehovah is the Father and Solomon is the son.
4. So there is a reference to the 5 cycles of discipline.
5. Solomon's punishment; personal and national. He received his own personal discipline. Hezekiah was put under the sin unto death under this same phrase. He began to spend money in the wrong way; he cut the military budget and hired Egypt, which is the wrong way to go. The rod of men used for the 4th cycle of discipline.

The cycles of discipline is as pertinent today as then. This is 1000 years before Jesus Christ. We could very quickly and very easily be wiped out.

Cycles of Discipline

1. Discipline for Israel when they reject their heritage. These cycles of discipline apply to all national entities. They are listed in Lev. 26.
2. Discipline to northern and southern kingdom. Rehoboam was a jackass and there was a split between the northern and southern portions of Israel.
3. The northern kingdom is often called Ephraim, the dominant tribe of that time. 926 B.C. when Jeroboam separated and the first capitol was in Shechem and then in a couple of other places after that. Eventually, Samaria was built, and that became the capitol. They were very jealous of Judah. Jealousy is covered briefly. It takes real or apparent wrongs and seeks to intrude upon the divine prerogative of divine discipline. It destroys all categories of love.
4. The reason for their discipline: Hosea 4:1–6 Hear the word of the LORD, people of Israel, for the LORD has a case against the inhabitants of the land: There is no truth, no faithful love, and no knowledge of God in the land! Cursing, lying, murder, stealing, and adultery are rampant; one act of bloodshed follows another. For this reason the land mourns, and everyone who lives in it languishes, along with the wild animals and the birds of the sky; even the fish of the sea disappear. But let no one dispute; let no one argue, for My case is against you priests. You will stumble by day; the prophet will also stumble with you by night. And I will destroy your mother. My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge. Because you have rejected knowledge, I will reject you from serving as My priest. Since you have forgotten the law of your God, I will also forget your sons.
5. Judah stayed with doctrine more faithfully; they were not taken out until 586 B.C. when Nebuchadnezzar got them. Sargon was the first who took out the northern kingdom, and Nebuchadnezzar for the southern.
  - a. The reason for it was reversionism. Jer. 7:25–29 God sent His prophets and they were rejected. They did not listen to him or incline their ear. You will say to them, "This is the nation that would not obey the Word of God or accept His correction. God has rejected and forsaken this generation of His wrath.

- b. The message of the linen girdle and Jeremiah had to hike to the sea, bury it, leave it, go back and get it, and try to wear it and throw it away after giving a speech. The people are called evil.
- c. Idolatry was the manifestation of this reversionism.
- d. It was a 70 year discipline; they did not observe their sabbatical years so God gave them all these years all at once. It was a faith rest ex. –23:1011 Lev. 25:3–4 26 2Chron. Jer. 25:11–12 25:100 Dan. 9:
- e. There was also a second administration after the 70 years. There was a long history and a second administration of the fifth cycle of discipline in A.D. 70 and it is still going on. ### The Doctrine of the 5 Cycles of Discipline:

From: <http://www.freerepublic.com/focus/f-religion/1568429/posts>

1. Background and Introduction.
  - a. The dispensation of Israel began with the Exodus in B.C. 1441 and concluded with the birth of our Lord in 4 B.C.
  - b. Therefore, most of the Old Testament Canon is devoted to the study of Jewish client nations. There were five Jewish client nations in the dispensation of Israel.
    - i. The Theocratic Kingdom from the Exodus to the time of Samuel, B.C. 1441 - 1020.
    - ii. The United Kingdom from Saul to Rehoboam.,B.C.1020-926.
    - iii. The Northern Kingdom from Jeroboam to Hoshea, B.C.926-721. The fifth cycle of discipline was administered to the Northern Kingdom by Assyria, commanded by Sargon II.
    - iv. The Southern Kingdom from Rehoboam to Zedekiah, B.C. 926 - 586. The fifth cycle of discipline was administered to the Southern Kingdom in 586 by the Chaldeans, commanded by Nebuchadnezzar. Seventy years of captivity or slavery extended from B.C. 586 - 516.
    - v. The restored nation of Judea from Zerubbabel in B.C. 536 - A.D. 70. The fifth cycle of discipline was administered to Judea by the Romans, first under the command of Vespasian and then by his son, Titus.
  - c. With the fall of Jerusalem in August of 70 A.D., there are no more Jewish client nations until the Second Advent.
  - d. In the meantime, we live in the times of the Gentiles. That means only a Gentile client nation can so function before God today. At the present time, we the people of the United States are a Gentile client nation to God.
2. Definition of the Five Cycles of Discipline.

- a. There are five cycles of discipline administered to a client nation, Jewish or Gentile.
    - i. To the Jewish client nations during the dispensation of Israel, the dispensation of the Hypostatic Union, and the first forty years of the Church Age, the five cycles did function.
    - ii. To the Gentile client nations beginning with S.P.Q.R. in 70 A.D. and continuing to the present with the U.S.A., these five cycles are still operational.
  - b. Outline of the Five Cycles of Discipline.
    - i. The first cycle of discipline, Lev 26:14-17.
    - ii. The second cycle of discipline, Lev 26:18-20.
    - iii. The third cycle of discipline, Lev 26:21-22.
    - iv. The fourth cycle of discipline, Lev 26:23-26.
    - v. The fifth cycle of discipline, Lev 26:27-38, amplified in Deut 28:49-67.
  - c. The cycles of discipline are based on the principle that Jesus Christ controls history directly, indirectly, and permissively.
    - i. He controls history directly through the function of His own divine essence.
    - ii. He controls history indirectly through the function of the laws of divine establishment.
    - iii. He controls history permissively through permitting nations to use their own volition to destroy themselves. For no nation is ever destroyed by an outside power before it is first destroyed from within by its own individual and collective bad decisions. Therefore, no nation is ever destroyed by another nation until it first destroys itself through negative volition.
    - iv. Jesus Christ permits the policy of the angelic conflict (the function of free will) to continue and conclude in human history. Therefore, Satan's policy of good and evil must exist in every generation; there must be a challenge to your attitude toward doctrine.
  - d. Because Jesus Christ is righteous and holy, He must judge the nations with cycles of discipline.
  - e. These cycles of discipline are punitive measures against apostasy, reversionism and evil.
3. The First Cycle of Discipline, Lev 26:14-17.
    - a. Lev 26:14, "But if you do not obey Me and do not carry out all of these mandates,"
      - i. Obedience in Israel meant the execution of God's plan for their dispensation. It meant the execution of the three categories of the Mosaic Law. It meant perception of doctrine as it was revealed at that time, first through the Torah and then through the prophets.
      - ii. The mandates refer to the three parts of the Mosaic Law. They are explained further in verse 15.

- b. Lev 26:15, "If instead you reject My statutes and your soul despises My ordinances, and you fail to carry out all my commands so breaking My covenant," The Mosaic Law is divided into three parts.
- i. The first part of the Mosaic Law is the decalogue, the freedom code made up of ten commandments. These commandments define freedom in terms of morality, privacy, property, and authority. Freedom without authority is anarchy; authority without freedom is tyranny. The ten commandments also define freedom in terms of relationship with God.
  - ii. The second part is called the ordinances, the spiritual code. It graphically presents soteriology and Christology through the various articles of furniture in the Tabernacle and temples, through the modus operandi of the levitical priesthood, through the function of the holy days, and through the levitical sacrifices. This spiritual code presents the Gospel and Jesus Christ as the God of Israel.
  - iii. The third part is the judgments, an establishment code. It includes explanations related to freedom, privacy, marriage, criminal law, taxation (tithing), military policy and freedom through military victory, diet, health, sanitation, quarantine, free enterprise, and profit motivation. It outlaws violence, terrorism, civil disobedience, and revolution.
- c. Lev 26:16, "Then I will do this to you: I will bring upon you sudden terror [terrorism], epidemic diseases, and fever will destroy your sight and drain your life; also, you will plant your seed in vain because your enemies will devour it."
- i. "Sudden terror" is the function of terrorism as it existed in the ancient world. It is also a reference to violence, unrestrained criminality, and hostility from other nations.
  - ii. Many epidemics have been the beginning of the end of great nations or empires.
  - iii. The last phrase refers to economic disaster and depression. The illustration used refers to an agricultural economy. In our industrial economy, this refers to inability to compete with foreign markets.
- d. Lev 26:17, "I will set My face against you so that you will be defeated by your enemies; consequently, those who hate you will rule over you, and you will flee when no one is pursuing you."
- i. In the first cycle, such defeat by enemies refers to only preliminary wars. But before the other cycles of discipline are administered, there is already loss in warfare. (Our loss in warfare began with Korea and Vietnam.)
  - ii. The Hebrew word for hate here means hate based on envy. The Jews were the recipients of such fantastic blessings from God that they were envied and then hated.

- iii. "You will flee when no one is pursuing you" is an idiom saying that the general population becomes cowardly, afraid of war. They have no motivation from patriotism or the spiritual life. Therefore, the population will do anything to avoid a war, even surrendering whatever advantage it has in national and international activity.

4. The Second Cycle of Discipline, Lev 26:18-20.

- a. Lev 26:18, "If after all these things you will not listen to Me, then I will punish you on an intensified basis seven more times for your sins."
  - i. The first phrase implies that some wake up as a result of the first cycle of discipline.
  - ii. Everything in the first cycle is intensified in the second cycle by seven.
- b. Lev 26:19, "Then I will also break down [destroy] the arrogance of your power; I will make your sky like iron and your earth like bronze."
  - i. Notice that once the first cycle of discipline is administered and it does not turn around the nation, arrogance sets in. Arrogance is a whole complex of sins and evil.
  - ii. Today we have the greatest arrogance in places of power. God actually punishes such arrogance among those in power without the humility to use their power properly.
  - iii. The sky like iron and the earth like bronze refers to a drought. Drought means economic disaster, resulting in economic depression.
- c. Lev 26:20, "Then your strength will be spent uselessly, for your land will not yield its produce, nor will the trees of the land bear their fruit."
  - i. No matter how hard you work, you cannot produce food.
  - ii. The Bible should be interpreted in the time in which it was written. This was written in during an agricultural economy before the industrial revolution.
- d. So the second cycle of discipline is a depression, bad social life, no national pride, and people work hard for nothing (inflation).

5. Third Cycle of Discipline, Lev 26:21-22.

- a. Lev 26:21, "If therefore you remain hostile to Me [negative volition toward Bible doctrine], and you are not willing to hear Me, I will multiply your epidemics seven times more as your sins deserve."
  - i. God did not speak directly to them but indirectly through His communicators, which at that time were the prophets.
  - ii. In the third cycle, there is the intensification of epidemics and illnesses in the land. In our day, AIDs will break this country if the trend continues, for it is a very serious problem, and may rival the bubonic plague of the Middle Ages.
- b. Lev 26:22, "I will send wild animals [criminals] against you and they will rob you of your children; they will destroy your cattle and so reduce your population that your roads will be deserted." With the end of civilization, violence overflows from both animals and people.

- c. In the third cycle, the population is thinned out by violence. Crime gets out of control; commerce is stopped; there are natural disasters.

6. The Fourth Cycle of Discipline, Lev 26:23-26.

- a. So far nothing but grace warnings have been given. Now God will really judge the nation. There will be great uncontrollable crime, military invasion and partial defeat, disease from overcrowding, a shortage of food causing starvation, and even greater natural disasters. Examples can be found by studying Israel in 68 A.D., 586 B.C., and 721 B.C.
- b. Lev 26:23, "And if by these things you will not be corrected by Me, but will continue to be hostile toward Me [negative volition from cosmic involvement in the stages of reversionism],"
- c. Lev 26:24, "Then I will go into opposition toward you [literally: act with hostility toward you], and I will strike you seven times more for your sins." Again, there is the intensification of the characteristics of all the cycles, with something more added, as stated in verse 25.
- d. Lev 26:25, "I will bring the sword upon you to avenge the breaking of the covenant, and when you retreat into your cities I will send a plague [epidemic] among you, so that you will be delivered into the hands of your enemies."
  - i. One of the great signs of loss of freedom, and replacing it with both moral and immoral degeneracy, is when you see the breakdown of the military establishment. The entire book of Numbers is devoted to setting up a mobilization plan for the military.
  - ii. The part of the covenant that was broken was the military part. There was military disaster as a result. Why did the Jews have to retreat into their cities? Because their cities were fortified, and their armies could not win in the field. Once there are overcrowded cities, disease becomes rampant (as illustrated by the Romans when fleeing from Hannibal).
- e. Lev 26:26, "When I cut off your food supply, ten women will bake your bread in one oven, and they will dole out your bread by weight, so that you will eat and never be satisfied."
  - i. When an army begins to lose a war on its own soil, the first thing to go is food supply. People start to starve, as the south did in the last year of the War between the States. So one of the inevitable results of the fourth cycle of discipline is the beginning of starvation.
  - ii. Ten women baking bread in one oven means there is food rationing. Therefore, after eating a small piece of bread, you are just as hungry as you were before, and even more so.

7. The Fifth Cycle of Discipline, Lev 26:27-38.

- a. Now there is nothing to eat. Enemies have taken over the country. People are put into slavery. People are afraid of everything. Everyone has become a coward.

- b. Lev 26:27, "If, in spite of this, you do not listen to Me but continue to be hostile toward Me [toward the message of Bible doctrine]," The only hope is Bible doctrine; there is no hope beyond Bible doctrine. The only hope for the nation is found in believers.
- c. Lev 26:28, "Then in My anger I will be hostile toward you [no more grace], and I will punish you seven times more for your sins."
- d. Lev 26:29, "Then you will eat the flesh of your sons, and you will eat the flesh of your daughters."
  - i. No longer do you eat bread and rationed food, as in the fourth cycle; now you eat people! Cannibalism is the total malfunction of all establishment principles. One of the strongest of all establishment principles is the family and the love of parents for children. But in those days, parents will eat their children.
  - ii. This type of cannibalism actually occurred between 66 and 70 A.D. among Jews under the seige of Jerusalem by the Roman army. Josephus documented such things. Civilization suddenly departs in the fifth cycle of discipline.
- e. Lev 26:30, "Then I will destroy your high places and cut down your incense altars, and stack your corpses on the dumb corpses of your idols, for My soul will despise you." The high places are the meeting places of false doctrine and cults, especially the phallic cult.
- f. Lev 26:31, "I will turn your cities into ruins, and lay waste to your sanctuaries; I will take no delight in the fact that you suddenly start offering sacrifices."
- g. Lev 26:32-33, "I will make the land desolate so that your enemies will settle in it, and will be appalled by its condition. You, however, I will scatter among the nations, and I will draw out My sword and pursue you, and your cities will lie in ruins."
  - i. The territory is occupied.
  - ii. Being scattered among nations means you go into slavery. This happened three times to the Jewish people.
- h. Lev 26:34, "Then the land will satisfy its Sabbaths . . . , while you are in the land of your enemies; consequently, the land will rest and be paid its Sabbaths." The Jews had ignored seventy Sabbatical years, and therefore the Southern Kingdom had seventy years under slavery.
- i. Lev 26:35, "All the days of its desolation [fifth cycle] it will observe the rest which it did not observe in your sabbatical years while you were living in the land."
- j. Lev 26:36, "As for those of you who survive [the fifth cycle], I will make their right lobes so afraid in the lands of their enemies that the sound of a wind-blown leaf will put them into flight. In fact, when no one is pursuing, they will run as though fleeing from an army, and they will fall even when no one is pursuing." People do die of fright.
- k. Lev 26:37, "Furthermore, they will fall over each other as if fleeing from the sword, although no one is pursuing them; consequently, you will have no destroy itself. Being built up by emotional revolt, the actual incident that kicked off the revolution was human good when the people complained to Rehoboam with their grievance.

- c. The Northern Kingdom began with Jeroboam in 926 B.C. He was in emotional revolt of the soul.
  - d. Even though the Northern Kingdom had such a bad start, God in His grace tried to stabilize the Northern Kingdom. God provided for the Northern Kingdom special prophets who warned the Northern Kingdom against apostasy and tried to communicate to them the principles of freedom. Four outstanding prophets were involved in this grace push by our Lord.
    - i. Elijah, c.871-851 B.C.
    - ii. Elisha, c.845 B.C..
    - iii. Amos, 787 B.C.
    - iv. Hosea, c. 746 B.C.
  - e. Amos warned the Northern Kingdom in 787 B.C. during the reign of Jeroboam II. Hosea warned the Northern Kingdom, c.746 B.C., during the fourth cycle of discipline when Tiglath-Pileser III was the Assyrian king. In addition, Isaiah provided some warning, as in the first part of Isa 28.
  - f. The fifth cycle of discipline is described in two passages of the Old Testament, so that both the Northern Kingdom and Southern Kingdom had adequate warning about it; Lev 26:27-46; Deut 28:49-67.
  - g. The historical account of the fifth cycle of discipline to the Northern Kingdom is found in 2 Kg 17:1-12.
  - h. The prophetic account of the fifth cycle of discipline to the Northern Kingdom is found in Isa 28:1-13 and mentioned in Jer 3:8.
  - i. Before judgment came to the Northern Kingdom, and during the two years in which the Assyrians were in the Northern Kingdom and even afterward, Jews of the Northern Kingdom fled to the Southern Kingdom and became citizens there, 1 Chr 9:3.
  - j. Therefore, there is no such thing as the "ten lost tribes." The ten tribes of the Northern Kingdom, from the time of Elijah down to the time when Shalmanezar invaded, constantly fled south. So all the tribes were represented in the Southern Kingdom after the Northern Kingdom fell.
  - k. The fifth cycle of discipline began in 721 B.C. with the fall of Samaria. The Assyrians' siege began under Shalmanezar V (who died), and ended when Sargon II defeated the Northern Kingdom in battle, Jer 50:17a.
10. The Fifth Cycle of Discipline to the Southern Kingdom.
- a. Deut 28:49-67 was fulfilled.
  - b. The first administration to the Southern Kingdom of the fifth cycle of discipline is called the Babylonian captivity, Jer 50:17b. The time was 586 B.C. The administrator was the Chaldean Empire under Nebuchadnezzar.

- c. The second administration to the Southern Kingdom is the present dispersion, Lk 21:40-25. Its time period is August 70 A.D. to the Second Advent. Its administrator was Rome under Vespasian and Titus.
  - d. The reason for the fifth cycle of discipline was the rejection of Bible doctrine, Jer 7:24-29, 13:10,11,17, 15:5-6, 17:27, 35:13.
  - e. The overt cause of the fifth cycle of discipline was apostasy and idolatry (which resulted in rejection of Bible doctrine), Jer 2:27-30, 3:9, 7:17-20, 13:10, 17:1-4.
  - f. The length of the first administration of the fifth cycle of discipline was seventy years. This was determined on the basis of the Jews having rejected seven Sabbatical years over a period of 490 years, Jer 25:11-12, 29:10; Dan 9:2,24-27.
  - g. During the present dispersion, there are two substitutes for the nation Israel.
    - i. The Church Age, where every believer is a priest.
    - ii. The Tribulation, when 144,000 Jews represent the Lord, Rev 7 and 14.
11. Why the cycles of discipline to client nations? Hosea 4:1-6.
- a. This passage is addressed to believers. For in the final analysis, it is the believers who are responsible for the rise or fall of a client nation.
  - b. Hos 4:1, "Hear the word of the Lord, you citizens of Israel [Northern Kingdom] because the Lord has a case [indictment] against the inhabitants of the client nation, because nothing of doctrine is taught, nothing about grace is being applied; there is no knowledge of God in the land."
    - i. Just as God had an indictment against the Jewish client nations, so today He has an indictment against a Gentile client nation, the United States of America.
    - ii. "Because nothing of doctrine is taught." There is no demand for Bible teaching in time of apostasy.
    - iii. As a result, "nothing of grace is being applied." Grace and doctrine go together. When they are both gone, that is one of the reasons for the five cycles of discipline.
  - c. Hos 4:2, "Instead, there is lying [dishonesty], deception, homicide, stealing, rape, therefore blood touches blood [idiom for perpetual violence]."
  - d. Hos 4:3, "Therefore, the land mourns, and all who live in it languish along with the beasts of the field and the birds of the air."
    - i. "The land mourns" means the people are miserable under the cycles of discipline. No one is enjoying anything or having any fun. Social life, business life, and spiritual life are gone; there is nothing but abject misery.
    - ii. "All who live in it languish" means loss of national courage, patriotism, vitality, and strength.
    - iii. Animals suffer when people suffer. People are viciously cruel under the cycles of discipline.

- e. Hos 4:4, "Yet let no one find fault [as in evil activism]; let no one offer criticism, for your citizens are like those who contend with the priests [communicators of doctrine]."
- i. Activism is the last thing you need to get into when under the cycles of discipline.
  - ii. Criticism is blaming other groups. It is the believer who must take the responsibility for these things himself. It is negative volition and a shrinking pivot that brings these things.
- f. Hos 4:5, "Therefore, you have stumbled in the daylight, and even the prophet will stumble with you in the night darkness; and I will destroy your native country [motherland]."
- i. Stumbling in the daylight means cosmic involvement, including crusader arrogance. Daylight means becoming a loser by rejecting Bible doctrine after hearing it, or failing to metabolize gnosis doctrine into epignosis doctrine.
  - ii. "And even the prophet will stumble with you" means prophets become false prophets and they teach false doctrine.
  - iii. Today, hundreds of thousands of pulpits speak of "'peace, peace,' when there is no peace," just as they said in Jeremiah's day, Jer 6:14, 8:11; Ezek 13:10, 16. Today, pastors peddle false doctrine while the United States is declining for lack of pivot.
  - iv. There can be no pivot without the pastor-teacher communicating the mystery doctrine for the Church Age. There can be no pivot without the manufacture of invisible heroes.
- g. Hos 4:6, "My people are destroyed by lack of knowledge of doctrine. Because you have rejected the knowledge of doctrine, I will reject you from being My priest nation."
- i. A client nation to God is a priest nation in that it represents God under three factors. The freedom developed in the client nation means:
    - (1) Freedom for evangelism in the nation.
    - (2) Freedom to teach doctrine in the nation.
    - (3) Freedom to send missionaries to other countries to communicate the Gospel, and form the converts into indigenous local churches.
  - ii. Today, the United States is a priest nation. It may not be tomorrow. The only hope for this country resides in your soul. If there is negative volition, we will go down. If there is a surge in positive volition, it could form a large enough pivot to deliver this country.
  - iii. A nation without Bible doctrine is a nation without solutions.
  - iv. As goes the believer, so goes the client nation to God.

2Sam. 7:14 I will be his Father, and he shall be My son. If [asher, when] he commits iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of the sons of men.

There would be no great cycle of discipline during the reign of David. David is a king who will be influenced by doctrine and not by evil.

2Sam. 7:15 But My mercy shall not leave him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away before you.

A Few Points

1. The removal of Saul is an act of graciousness.
2. Saul's dynasty removed and replaced.
3. Dynasty of David will not be removed. This is because this is a person singular blessing.
4. Grace amplification in v. 16.

The first 15 verses read.

2Sa 7:1–15 When the king had settled into his palace and the LORD had given him rest [a peaceful interlude] on every side from all his enemies, Consequently, the king said to Nathan the prophet, "Look, I am living in a cedar house while the ark of God sits inside tent curtains." So Nathan told the king, "Go and do all that is on your heart, for the LORD is with you." But that night the word of the LORD came to Nathan: "Go to My servant David and say [communicate], 'This is what the LORD says: Are you to build a house for Me to live in? From the time I brought the Israelites out of Egypt until today I have not lived in a house; instead, I have been moving around with the tabernacle tent. In all My journeys with all the Israelites, have I ever asked [spoken a word to] anyone among the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people Israel: Why haven't you built Me a house of cedar?' And now so shall you say to My servant David, "So says Jehovah of the Armies: I Myself took you from the shepcote, from following the sheep, to be ruler over My people, over Israel." And I was with you wherever you went, and have cut off all your enemies out of your sight, and have made you a great name like the name of the great ones in the earth. And I will appoint a place for My people Israel, and will plant them so that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more. Neither shall the sons of wickedness [perversion, distortion] afflict [oppress, humble] them any more, as before. And when your days are fulfilled, and you shall sleep with your fathers, I will set up [perpetuate] your seed after you, who shall come out of your bowels. And I will make his kingdom sure. He shall build a house for My name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever. I will be his Father, and he shall be My son. If [asher, when] he commits iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of the sons of men. But My mercy shall not leave him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away before you.

The Davidic Covenant puts it all together for us and explains the way history is set up.

There were only 4 or so people in David's line who were worth anything. About 17 kings.

God's plan does not depend upon us for even one moment. All of David's bad characteristics came out in his children. Over a period of quite a number of years, just nothing but failures. They all ailed because they never bothered to learn the Word of God. However, even with all of the failures, the plan of God is still moving ahead.

George I did not even speak English.

No excuse for being anything but clean-shaven these days. The house of David will always exist because Jesus Christ is resurrection; that guarantees it. You cannot have a dynasty unless you rule something. The house of David will always rule over Israel.

David's greater Son, Jesus Christ will be there; and Israel; these are guaranteed for the future. Abraham will be the first citizen; Isaac, Jacob and Moses will all be there.

David will see his own seed for all eternity the perpetuation of his dynasty. David was the only man for centuries who had an original thought that was consistent with Bible doctrine. He was the only man to come up with an original thought. "Where did you come up with that idea? Who ever said that before?"

The humanity of Christ will be descended from the bloodline of David through Nathan; and through the Solomon for the legal line.

2Sam. 7:16 And your house and your kingdom shall be made sure forever before you. Your throne shall be established forever.

Matt. 1:1 The historical record [genealogy] of Jesus Christ, the Son of David, the Son of Abraham:

Jesus Son of David

1. Jesus is in the line of David.
2. Even two men who were blind recognized Jesus Christ, and called him Lord, son of David. Matt. 20:30
3. Christ—whose Son is He? Every theologian knew He is the Son of David. "Then how does David, in the Holy Spirit, call Him Lord?" How can He be David's son and David's Lord? If you cannot answer that, put a big F next to your name; you've flunked.
4. Acts 2:34–36 it was not David who ascended into heaven.
- 5.
6. Book of Revelation 5:5 Jesus Christ is called the Lion from the Tribe of Judah, the root of David. He is the source of David as well as the Son of David.

David said all of this stuff to David. The vision was of words; there was not a lot of ecstasies.

2Sam. 7:17 According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

Authorities in Life

1. While David was the highest power in the land as the king, and he had the gift of prophecy, he was still under the authority of the prophets. Nathan as a prophet has priority in the spiritual realm. God did not bypass Nathan, but he spoke to Nathan. Nathan was David's Bible teacher. You read a book and you become an expert. You can't learn from a book. Bob has read 500 to 700 books by experts and not 1 out of 100 is worth a damn. There are Hebrew scholars that Bob reads for Psalm 89 and they do not have a thing to add. We don't need any books unless they are written by Bob. Bob doesn't think that he has arrived, but he knows that he is far ahead of anyone else out there. Bob thinks that Herman and Taylor Williams are going to make it.
2. God sent Nathan to David with a message.
3. God does not answer David directly, but He goes through the proper channels.
4. The authority of the prophet is confirmed through the communication media of Nathan.
5. This emphasizes all kinds of authority. We are all under a variety of authorities. If you come across something without authority, avoid it.
6. This distinguishes between spiritual and temporal authorities in life.
7. God does not mix spiritual and temporal authorities. England used the taxpayers money to finance the church of England.

This is actually my final lesson in David, as I started with #181 what we covered last night was as important as anything else in theology.

One more medal of honor recipient; Harry (Henry?) S. Michael.

Bob upbraids someone for trying to record on a cassette. "I have just destroyed my pastoral image, thanks to some cluck."

The plan of God is going to advance, whether it is with us or without us. We cannot stop the plan of God and we cannot hurt the plan of God. Limeys often impress women; the one who said, "It all depends on me." He said, "if you step out of line, you hurt the plan of God." But the plan of God does not depend upon us; the plan of God depends upon God.

David went to his most comfortable chair in army hq and sat down and prayed. The correct attitude for prayer is whatever physical posture that you use for your best thinking.

Bob cannot pray on his knees; he used to go to prayer meetings, but never kneeled. One guy used to fall asleep while praying on his knees before bed and would wake up and be in great pain. Bob told him to pray laying down.

David, during the Philistine invasions, went to his war room and sat down to pray. He has gone to a place where he can talk to the Lord. As a result, he came and sat down before the LORD. No one ever sat down in the Tabernacle. You could sit only on the mercy seat, and that would end your life. David was not allowed to go into the Tabernacle. He went to his war office and sat down in his chair to talk before the Lord.

Bob knew a commentator known for being a holy roller. He said the word means to tarry; but it doesn't and there are no holy rollers at that time; so there is no tarrying.

Voluminous commentators, are good for pressing pants and to hold things together that you have glued together. David goes to a place where he is comfortable; so this would be a war room. This is a comfortable place; a place where he is relaxed.

As a result of the Davidic Covenant, David goes before God in prayer. He prays sitting down the physical posture is not the key; it is the mental attitude. There are many things that the Bible teaches about prayer. God is able to give David all of this covenant to David and without compromising His righteousness. God is able to promise these things to David, knowing that he will sin and that he will fail. David will even commit murder and God is still able to bless him. Under grace, God has found a way to bless us without compromising his righteousness.

God does not work in such a way where, David must be perfect. God knows what David will do in the future. But his sins would not hinder God's plan. Most people do their best sinning after they are saved. God found a way to do this and it does not depend upon David but upon his Greater Son, Jesus Christ. Without the propitiation of God because of the cross, God could not love the world. His righteousness must remain intact. His love cannot go where His righteousness cannot go. God is omniscient; He knew all about the failures which would occur in David's life and in his line; and yet, He still promises to perpetuate the Davidic dynasty. When David says, "Who am I, My Lord? And what is my house?" This is grace orientation.

France went 100 years without a middle class. Eventually Germany became a nation in 1817 (1870?). This is a family that earned and deserved what they had. They began with a small family of brilliant people that kept expanding their holdings.

A great leader must have poise, but he must have great humility as well. A good sense of humor helps. David was very handsome, and yet, he was not arrogant about it. David never thought he would lose his salvation; he didn't think or say that he would lose his salvation. Doubting your salvation is arrogant. David had more power than anyone who lived; in his very loins is the seed from which Jesus Christ will come into the world. God has the power to take any person and make them great; a totally undeserving person like David, and He could make David into a great man.

A lot of us are arrogant and we think that we have a system of morality that is great. Nothing depends upon us; it all depends on God. We can ignore it and be smashed. If we don't go along with the plan of God, we are steamrolled by it. The plan of God will smash you and make your life miserable; or you will get with it.

Some system of legalism; some system whatever; and then the plan of God smashes you or grinds you into a powder. The Hiphil stem here is the stem of grace; there is no place for David to be a good little boy, for him to change his ways, or to earn and deserve what God has given him. He has everything that we could ever think of in para SG2. He has in addition to this, promotion, wealth, success. God brings David this far and then gives him the Davidic Covenant. But David had complete original thinking on the Temple; absolutely a new thought.

David, Grace and the Davidic Covenant

1. The nature of these questions means that David understands grace. His academic understanding relates to the experience of his life. Who do you think you are to go and rebuke someone for their failures? You have no right to run around and look down your nose at others. This is how we have failed the test. We are still a legalist.
2. David had no illusions about himself. He understood his personal unworthiness. He understood the unworthiness of his ancestors all the way back to Judah. He had no racial superiority concepts.
3. No one from the tribe of Judah has done anything to earn or deserve this honor that David is going to receive. No one can deserve anything like this.
4. This is true grace orientation. David has no illusions about himself or earning or deserving anything.
5. This honor does not depend upon his past, present or future behavior. All of God's promises depend upon God's character, and God's character is perfect.

2Sam. 7:18 Then King David went in and sat before Jehovah. And he said, "Who am I, My Lord Jehovah? And what is my house, that You have brought me here?"

This was insignificant in Your eyes. Davar means that God has communicated this. God has a long-range plan for the promotion of David's family in the future. His family will continue to be kings for nearly 400 years; and Jesus will be the final ruler in David's line. Jesus Christ will enter the world as the Son of David. He will go to the cross and be resurrected and return in the 2nd advent and reign forever. This is supergrace blessing that David has been greatly blessed and that this blessing overflows to his family and his line. That his Son will rule forever is the greatest honor that could be given to any man. The Messiah would come from his loins and rule forever and ever and ever.

What Does this Mean?

Therefore, this law of the Adam is my Lord Jehovah. This is the correct translation of the final sentence.

1. The first question that must be answered is, what is torah, that is translated law here. It has numerous meanings.
2. The law or the torah of Adam; to what does that refer? This is the Davidic covenant being fulfilled as the last Adam.
3. David has summarized two things: grace brought David to the throne of Israel. David does not deserve to be king or perpetuated.
4. To fulfill this, another Adam must come into the world. Adam disobeyed the direction of God.
5. Man and woman had sex in the garden but without children. The woman fell first and was deceived and was a sinner. Adam could choose the woman in the garden, or Jesus Christ outside of the garden. In perpetuating the human race, the sin nature is always passed down through the man. Copulation is not involved bringing such a person into the world. The last Adam always refers being born of a virgin without a sin nature. God does keep His Word to David.
6. David with maximum doctrine in his soul has applied certain principles from his soul. He is an original thinker and he catches on immediately. He understands what God has said to him.
7. He sees this covenant as a link between the first and last Adam. David is related to both.
8. The Davidic covenant guarantees that the last Adam is in the family of David forever.

2Sam. 7:19 And this was yet a small thing [insignificant] in Your sight, O Lord God. But You have spoken also of Your servant's house for a great while to come [with reference to the distant future]. And is this the manner of men, O Lord God?

---

2Sam. 7:20 And what can David say more to You? For You, O Lord Jehovah, know Your servant.

2Sam. 7:21 For Your Word's sake, and according to Your own heart, You have done all these great things to make Your servant know.

2Sam. 7:22 Therefore You are great, O Jehovah God. For there is none like You, neither is there any God besides You, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

2Sam. 7:23 And what one nation in the earth is like Your people, like Israel, whom God went to redeem for a people to Himself, and to make Him a name, and to do for You great things and terrible, for Your land, before Your people, whom You redeemed to You from Egypt, from the nations and their gods?

2Sam. 7:24 For You have confirmed to Yourself Your people Israel to be a people to You forever. And You, Jehovah, have become their God.

2Sam. 7:25 And now, O Jehovah God, the word that You have spoken concerning Your servant, and concerning his house: establish it forever, and do as You have said.

2Sam. 7:26 And let Your name be magnified forever, saying, The Jehovah of Hosts is the God over Israel. And let the house of Your servant David be established before You.

2Sam. 7:27 For You, O Jehovah of Hosts, God of Israel, have revealed to Your servant, saying, I will build you a house. Therefore Your servant has found in his heart to pray this prayer to You.

2Sam. 7:28 And now, O Lord Jehovah, You are that God, and Your Words are true, and You have promised this goodness to Your servant.

2Sam. 7:29 Therefore, now, let it please You to bless the house of Your servant, to be forever before You. For You, O Lord Jehovah, have spoken. And with Your blessing let the house of Your servant be blessed forever.

2Samuel 7:19

72David

Bob warns his congregation not to talk while he is talking. If you have so little self-control, you do not belong here. So get out during silent prayer. If you are a one-nighter who just strayed in here, then stray the hell out while we pray.

Medal of honor recipient; and several times where he kills this and that guy with one shot; and his first time in battle. Pretty impressive.

David had a good response to what God had promised him. If you were here Wednesday night, you know why David received the Davidic Covenant.

Summary Points

9. The Law here is the torah. This refers to Bible doctrine and specifically to Bible doctrine related to the Davidic Covenant.
10. The law of Adam is the Davidic Covenant fulfilled in the last Adam.
11. Grace brought David to the throne and perpetuates his dynasty.
12. Another Adam must come into the world to fulfill this covenant. No sin nature.
13. David with maximum doctrine in his soul had applied doctrine. Original thinking applied to the doctrine given to him.
14. David sees the covenant as the link between the first and last Adam.
15. The last Adam would be in his family.
16. This person is the God-man, the Lord Jesus Christ. David recognized the hypostatic union in all of its principles.

This Law of the Adam is my Lord Jehovah. David recognizes the Jehovah God is the fulfillment of this covenant made to him.

This law refers to the fulfillment in One Person. The last Adam resolves the consequences of the fall of the first Adam. More than Adam is involved. The fall of Adam is part of the hypostatic union. David is the key and the crossroads to history. When God told David that he would have a Son Who would reign forever,... The last Adam solves the problem of sin and then to fulfill the Davidic Covenant. First Christ will rule in the Millennium and then He will rule for all eternity.

What we do either by way of success or failure will not stop the plan of God. It will move forward with or without us. It will either crush us or it will bless us. We have one of two extreme alternatives. We will be blessed by the plan of God or we will be smashed by the plan of God. The plan of God will roll on and roll right over you. Positive toward Bible doctrine means we will be swept up with the plan of God and blessed by it. There is no place for legalism or any anti-grace thinking.

If you do not join up with the plan of God, you will be influenced by the plan of God will smash you, and you will arrive in eternity a very smashed up person. Do not every get the idea that the plan of God depends upon you. The plan of God is never dead in the water ever. The plan of God moves and it is moving right now. Grace gives us the option of moving with it.

Bill Bright and Bob used to talk, and Bob said, "God has a plan for you life" and Bill used that; but he's misused it. You cannot get doctrine every day in this way. God does not have a plan for everyone of us in time; salvation puts everyone into the plan of God, and God will smash some of you into little pieces. Remember me and remember what I said when I told you this. You are too arrogant and too much of an ass to get with the plan.

A good illustration of this is The Longest Day, which is about D-Day. Bob enjoys this, and he was getting ready to jump into Greece, he had to learn every single German uniform. All of the uniforms are different, and Bob can tell a general by a thing on his collar. Bob gets a lot out of this. He knows every friendly uniform as well. He had to learn even the uniforms of the Russians. When Bob sees a war movie, he spends half of the time taking an exam. All the ribbons for the Germans may look the same, but they are not.

Bob loves war movies anyway, and when they are accurate, it makes it fascinating for Bob. Even if the sound goes, Bob knows what is going on. You can look at that and say, "Oh, there's Gary Cooper..."

This is how it is in the plan of God. You are missing all of the fun for not knowing all of the doctrines which are pertinent to the plan. You are on top of the steam roller or underneath it being crushed a little at a time. Everything is black or white, no shades of gray. Just your blood scattered all over the ground.

The nice ones and the sweet ones and the ones who shout praise the Lord the most are the ones who are smashed. That is malarkey. He is under the steam roller being smashed. Discipline for failure, not just carnality.

If you are in the plane and you are doing Mach 1.5, but if you are outside, it is all over. You are either inside the plane or outside. You are with it or without it.

It gets complicated from time to time. You either ride the waves or you get drowned. There are all these motorcycle drivers here today jumping over all of these same things. God does the same thing, except He jumps over everyone in a steam roller. "I'll tell you where you are; you are under the rollers being crushed because you are too dumb to get Bible doctrine.” The plan of God will bless you or smash you. There is no in between.

2Sam. 7:19 And yet this was a small thing in Your eyes, O Lord GOD. You have spoken also of your servant's house for a great while to come, and [therefore] this law of the Adam is my Lord, Jehovah!

The plan of God will destroy you or bless you. David kept it simple, even though he was quite complex. Even when he committed sins which seemed to shock so many. He still stayed with the plan of God. He kept going and he never lost his palace. He never lost his millions of dollars. There was never a time when he lost. He never lost. He was disciplined; but nothing was ever taken from him. He was still the king and he was victorious in battle many times after that after Bathsheba.

You have a lot to learn about grace. It always amazes people that David got away with all that. It was not that he got away with anything; he had a great capacity for life, and having such a great capacity for life, he just hooks this capacity up with his sin nature, that makes a big splash.

Legalism by now should have gathered so much moss, that it has disappeared in the tundra of false concepts in your life.

David was truly a humble man. He did not run around and give his testimony, saying, this is what I have done for the Lord. If you have these things, you are always speechless. What can he say? He has not earned or deserved anything and God has blessed him greatly.

This jackass actors with Oscars and emmys and in perfect acting and using their histrionics to thank all of these people. And everyone says, “Isn’t that sweet.” Then they would pause and say, “Mother would love to have seen this.” He is a fat-headed horse’s ass who is subjective.

Clark Gable would have had the nerve to say, “You all voted the right way.”

At the end of the superbowl they do the same job and thank all these people. It is their job. They’d be fired if they didn’t do it.

We discuss the deeper things of life in the executive meetings at T&P. “What do you think would happen if every paid worker at Berachah Church received $1 million?” If Bob got that, he would still study and he would still teach. He likes what he is doing, and he wouldn’t even have time to spend it. For some, it would make no difference. The point is, if you have the right kind of life, receiving a million dollars would not make a difference. “I’d tell my boss off and then go take a trip.” That means that there is something wrong with you. If everyone got a million in church, some of you would disappear. Some think that is happiness.

Bob likes what he is doing; and he liked what he did in the military. So, to him, money doesn't mean anything. If you like what you are doing, all the money in the world does not mean a thing.

Are you enjoying life or not. Some people would go right on and you'd never know the difference. There was a millionaire that Bob knew from the depression, a millionaire 5 or 6 times over; and yet he hung out with the bums.

When money changes your lifestyle, you have a problem. With doctrine in your soul, it changes you. Without Bible doctrine, the plan of God crushes you because you are trash.

David does the only thing which is wise. He said nothing.

What more can David say to You?

Summary Points

1. David is so overwhelmed that the Davidic Covenant links the first and last Adam, that he is speechless.
2. It dawns on David how the Savior of the world will enter the world. He knows how He will enter the world.
3. He knows the humanity will come from David himself.
4. David had an original thought about building a Temple, but it is overwhelming that God has built him a permanent dynasty. God did more for David than anyone else other than perhaps Paul. David broke through barriers of grace that most have never touched.
5. David wanted to provide a permanent house for God, and God does that for David instead.
6. This desire was reversed. Jesus Christ turned around David's original thought.
7. David's desire to provide a permanent house for Christ is reversed and God provides a permanent house for David.
8. David was the first to think this.
9. Now God uses David's thought to reveal a permanent house for David.

You cannot imagine the incredible honor here. There are decorations put around the head and the necks of various soldiers. So this concept of putting something around the neck is pretty much what we have here expanded almost beyond our thinking. David will have a permanent decoration around his neck in the person of Jesus Christ. When it came to authority and blessing, it is almost beyond our imagination. David is the link between the first and the last Adam. Adam to David and David to Christ.

David had brothers with talent and ability and good looks. It came down to one person, and that was David and in all of history, there was never such an honor. He is holding in one hand the first Adam and in the other, the Last Adam. And David is the only link. There never was an honor like that.

David caught on and he was absolutely speechless. David puts this in the perfect tense. God knew David before he was born. God knew him from beginning to end. You have known David. David did not try to play games with the Lord. Some of us are so full of fun and games, we cannot even think straight. We are so full of playing games with God, that we cannot think straight. Sooner or later, it has to be knocked out of you. There are no phony acceptance speeches.

Bob never thought much of David's mother. He never got anywhere because of his mother or father. His father was an ambitious lying jerk. His mother considered David a workhorse or a dog and she sent him out to be with the sheep. David is a total product of grace. David rebounded the sins. No matter what the failure was, he kept on going. He never stopped. If you have some of David's failures, you would slink out of here. You have no poise. Billions of years ago, God knew David and Adam both. Jesus Christ knew all about David and all about David from eternity past. God knew that David would be speechless here.

David is an eloquent man, and it is quite unusual for such an eloquent man to be speechless.

There are numerous psalms which mention this situation.

2 generations after David, they will still be deeply affected by this.

2Sam. 7:20 And what more can David say to You? For You know Your servant, O Lord GOD!

The source of grace has to be doctrine. The perfect grace of God. Bible doctrine is the source of grace. Always remember, God manufactures all this greatness. If God does not make it, it is not great. True greatness is because God has manufactured it.

David understood it all; God made it perspicuous to him. David understood God through Bible doctrine.

No one receives supergrace blessing apart knowing God's greatness. God is the Host and he pours His blessing and He pours His blessing, until we have to say with David, My cup runs over.

2Sam. 7:21 [Because of Your promise \[Word\], and according to Your own heart \[essence\], You have brought about \[manufactured\] all this greatness, to make Your servant know it.](#)

Some of you ladies have never learned how to use perfume; no two people have the same chemistry. No excuse to come without bathing. If you walk in like that, it becomes Bob's business. You have to learn to freeze; not to carry on a conversation. There are a few new faces. Bob threw people out in California for conversing. Bob ran into a long-haired with a beard and said, we don't need that here; found out that he was looking for a wedding. You might come in once or twice with long hair, but all you have to do is look around and you can tell you are out of line.

Doctrine was here before you came and it will be here after you are gone. You cannot change doctrine, but you can be changed by it. Ditto for evil. You cannot change evil, and if you try, you are charging at windmills. The difference between blessing and cursing is whether you are influenced by doctrine or by evil.

Satan is the author of evil. That is his policy for this world. Evil is any form of man solving man's problems by man's efforts.

The great enemy is not sin. Jesus said, "Beware of what destroys the soul." Thoughts destroy the soul. The accumulation of these thoughts are evil. All of these things are evil; socialism, do-goodism, etc. David sinned; and we will all fail and all sin. Sin is a problem which can be quickly resolved. Evil takes longer. The believer involved in evil will always be in trouble.

All of this holy roller stuff is arrogance; I have had an experience which makes me a spiritual giant.

David had 7 wives and 16 mistresses (children?) when God gave him these promises. People get all confused about this and think that this is a double-standard. All of this time, David was blessed in a wonderful way.

In the field of medicine, we are tops; in every field of science, we are tops. We have had great people in this realm. Douglas MacArthur was a genius in the military; same with Robert E. Lee. Moving troops by train was a breakthrough, which involved original thinking.

However, there are no great men in our history of politics. Maybe John C. Calhoun or Alexander Hamilton and today, Goldwater.

Bob was in the president's club. Normally he doesn't watch tv during the day, and there was this guy telling about the terrible immorality of Kennedy when in the Navy. And this was how J. Edgar Hoover kept his job. True or not true is not the issue. He was not a good ruler. Some of the greatest rulers in history were immoral. Frederick the Great, Cæsar and Napoleon. This does not mean you will be a great leader if you are immoral. It is hard to find a pure good leader. Gustavos Adolphus came to mind, but he had an affair. You girls might become nervous about this and you look over to see if your husband is enjoying this or not. The key is not fighting good; it is fighting evil.

When is the last time you gossiped about someone or maligned someone? These are all the heavy sins.

At least 80% of you would be shocked by David and he was a man after God's own heart. Evil can be a simple thought.

Some woman came up to share some things with Bob. Bob said, "Woman, are you married?" "Yes." "Then your job is to please your husband; get to it." This woman was about as flaky as they come. She did share that she was in supergrace. Evil can be as simple as this woman here. Cool down the guilt complex by doing something great for God; help others by leading the way.

So where did David sit down? He sits down in his castle headquarters. Too much has been made of kneeling and genuflecting with prayer.

"Who am I and what is my house, that You have brought me this far?" Psychotics never have a sense of humor. The very nature of this question indicates David's grace orientation.

This does not depend upon David's past or future behavior; it depends upon the character of God, the Giver. God has a long-range plan of blessing for David. It is surpassing grace blessing that David's Son would rule forever. David would be honored as king and honored that his dynasty would be continued.

David had the phenomenal ability to think all of the way back to Adam and to see himself as the link between the first and the second Adam.

The Law of Adam is the Davidic Covenant. Grace perpetuates the Davidic dynasty. David understood that Jesus Christ is the fulfillment of this covenant. David identified the Lord Jehovah with his son. If the pharisees only listened to David and what David said, then there would have never been a problem.

David is left absolutely speechless. He knows the doctrine in his soul. He has a tremendous inner occupation with Christ. He is overwhelmed that the Davidic Covenant is the connection between himself and the Last Adam. He is speechless.

David has a new thought, and there are no limitations for a believer with doctrine.

Bob likes to spend some time with Dr. Nakamura, who is a genius in many fields. For a long time, everyone has said that the universe is gigantic. Everyone has said that the universe is anchored. Now we are moving as a galaxy through space and there is no end to space, and the universe is billions of light years. Scientists are boggled by this and they think that this wipes out Einstein's theory of relativity. He'll take one thought and run with it.

Scientists are completely shaken and astounded and upset and disturbed. A lot of brilliant men are not brilliant enough. It stands right now that space is infinite and we are on a ride through space. When the earth completes its rotation; we are moving right on with the whole thing. And we never run out of space, because space is infinite, just as God is infinite.

David wanted to provide a permanent house for God, and God will provide a permanent house for David. No one had thought about that before. God was going to give David the greatest honor in human history.

David, for a moment, could not verbalize what was in his soul. "You knew billions of years ago just exactly what I would think." David has just discovered God's grace provision.

In v. 21, we have the source of grace. No one ever received supergrace blessings under SG2 without understand that it is constructed from Bible doctrine in the soul.

2Sam. 7:18–21: Then King David went in and sat before the LORD and said, "Who am I, O Lord GOD, and what is my house [i.e., my family tree], that You have brought me thus far? And yet this was a small thing in your eyes, O Lord GOD. You have spoken also of Your servant's house for a great while to come, and this is instruction for mankind, O Lord GOD! And what more can David say to you? For you know your servant, O Lord GOD! Because of your promise, and according to your own heart, you have brought about all this greatness, to make your servant know it.

The source of all blessing. Al ken means because. When David can finally speak on the matter, he says gadal. God's greatness is complete. God's greatness is His character. God never had to do anything in history to be great. God has never had to do anything to be great. God does not have to lift a finger to prove it.

We glorify wimps. Why would anyone want an autograph from some ass? Frank Sinatra, who was a coward, who did not go to war. He stood up and made some noise and women went crazy. When his superiors went to war, he hung out with Eleanor Roosevelt. He hooked up with one of the most evil women there was. He didn't fight. Every man who fought was infinitely superior to Frank Sinatra and anyone else who stayed home to make B movies. What is the idea of making celebrities out of these people? The men who went to war are much greater than any of our celebrities. Sergeant Howard was loaded on a plane after the hippies. It is okay to be entertained by a celebrity, but not to idolize them. You women who dream about Banacek, you are idiots. You are mixed up in your soul and only Bible doctrine will straighten you out. David was a man to be admired. He was an entertainer too. Not every king dances naked in front of the Ark. We do not admire him because he was an entertainer. We admire him because the Bible doctrine in his soul freed him from evil.

Have you ever been on a date and here a woman tell you that she is some sort of free spirit? No one is a free spirit; no woman and no man. You never, never will be free until you are free from evil. That means maximum doctrine in the soul. You are just kidding yourself about you and your freedom.

God has always existed; He has always been great. He knows everything about this world. He is perfect; He is great. He is totally above all of this.

There is no Elohim besides You. Each one has identical essence.

You learn by listening with your ears. Bob does not allow the cassettes in because they are noisy. Any noise distracts and breaks off the circuit to the ear. The ear is the basic system of learning.

Principles

1. No way can a man learn anything about God apart from Bible doctrine.
2. Only the believer can understand doctrine and only the believer is qualified to understand about God. We understand God to the extent that He wants us to understand Him.
3. The unbeliever is involved in empiricism and rationalism, which yields nothing about God.
4. Therefore, we must have a relationship with God on God's terms, which requires salvation. Once you believe in Jesus Christ, you have a relationship on His terms. On His terms, you are royalty.
5. To have a relationship with God, one must believe in Jesus Christ, the only Savior.
6. For any believers to know and appreciate God, He must have doctrine in the soul.
7. To have maximum doctrine in the soul requires the daily discipline and the daily recognition of authority involved with gap. There is no one-shot decision type panacea decisions.
8. Since God has ordained only the local church as the classroom, there is no way to understand God apart from the classroom of the church. No one in navigators will grow up spiritually. You must be under academic discipline.
- 9.
10. Only by attending a local church and putting yourself under the authority of the pastor can you grow up.
11. So it all belongs together. Promotion and prosperity; knowing God; being influenced by Bible doctrine.

2Sam. 7:22 Therefore [Because] you are great, O LORD God. For [because there is no one like You] there is none like you, and there is no God besides you, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

Isa. 45:7 2Samuel 7:23

from the time of our salvation to the time of our departure in phase II depends upon what you think. What you think is the real you. As a man thinks in his soul, so he is. A thought can make or break you. What you think is much worse than any sin than you could ever commit. David gapped it until he became a mature believer and when he reached the high ground, God opened up paragraph SG2 for him. A command post in the soul. No one in history was as wealthy as Solomon, and before him, David. We have seen David's promotion, a promotion which will last 40 years. All believers commit their worst sins after salvation. Mental attitude sins, sins of the tongue, the sins which are usually ignored or condoned in most congregations. David ruled as king for 40 years. He never had accumulated 7 wives and so many mistresses. King David retained his kingship. He learned to rebound quickly.

Too long, people have listened to preachers urging us to stop sinning, but it is evil which is the great enemy. It is time that fundamentalism understood evil. David's rewards and decorations will exceed those of anyone else in heaven. He will have the most fantastic types of rewards.

Saul and David were both filled with the Spirit; they were both believers in Jesus Christ. They both had the same potential. They were professional soldiers. They both rose to the rank of general early on in life. Both of them became kings. One man was a total failure and the other was a total success. You cannot change doctrine, but doctrine can change you.

David was the great believer who ever lived; both he and Saul were carnal; but Saul moved to the sin unto death. Saul was influenced by evil and he was a total flop. Fundies today are so totally influenced by evil that they do not know straight up from straight down. In their running around and praising the Lord; and they are the most stupid, asinine

You may be shocked to know that Bob likes some long-haired music. Dr. Davidjohn and Bob were sitting and a rock band started up. So Bob warned that this was the jungle and when the music stopped, they would attack. Opus 91 is one of Bob's favorites, Ludwig Von Beethoven and he was truly an original thinker in music. Churchill almost ruined the 5th symphony for Bob. He was a musical genius. He wrote 3 sonatas by age 13 better than anything written in the past 25 years. He was influenced by Mozart as was everyone else. And Hyden's grading of him when he studied under Hyden also influenced him.

After Beethoven became deaf, he wrote phenomenal stuff. He had music in his soul.

If you took anyone writing today, you puncture their eardrums (which should have been done), and they can't write anything.

Opus 91 is also called Wellington's victory. Some orchestras like to get a canon or two thrown in. If you were to meet Ludwig, you would see this frail figure, you'd say, "Now there goes a 4F." Opus 91 was written when he was totally deaf. No one expressed a soldier's soul in music better than he. Some of the best music ever written was written by a deaf man. Lee's greatest genius was expressed in innovation and original thinking. Lee thought to move his army by train. Stonewall Jackson campaign studied in all military schools. But Lee was an original thinker. All modern warfare could be attributed to Lee.

You can say Bathsheba and everyone knows what you are talking about. David holds all records for the dynamics of the soul. He had maximum dynamics because of what went on in his soul.

We have to understand this concept of evil, because the pastor-teachers will not understand it at all. Some of these pastors are legalistic and some are not; some even go back home after the first night. No one had ever spoken to them that way before.

Bob wants to get all of this covered in one session. Yatsar means to sculpt. Barah means to create something from nothing. You bring something into existence out of nothing. Our self-consciousness is created out of nothing. God created our emotion; but He did not create our sin nature; we acquired that from Adam. The second word from creation is asah, which means to create out of existing materials. This is to take a piece of clay or some wood or some chisel out of something. Someone should have told Mike that David was circumcised (Michelangelo). The 3rd is jatsar, which means to form something, to sculpt something. Our souls are barah'ed and asah'ed. Banah means to build.

Light

Light is more primitive than any of the things used to explain it.

1. Light is composed of photons.
2. The different colors in light represent different energies of the photons. A blue light has twice the energy of a red light.
3. In quantum mechanics, the energy of the photons is directly proportional to the frequency of the light waves.
4. Quantum mechanics reconciles the two forms of light, wave and..
5. The wave range of colors varies between red and violet.
6. The radiation of light produces all color. The artist see primary colors and the secondary colors. Light is very transparent. In darkness, what we are wearing would be black. Color requires the existence of light.
7. Some radiations of color are invisible, like ultraviolet.
8. Actinic (not seen or felt), luminiferous (seen and felt), calorific (felt but not seen). An illustration of the Trinity.
9. Light is the basis of color as well as the function of the human eyesight.
10. Man cannot live on a planet without light and heat.

God forms light (out of something) but He creates [out of nothing] darkness. Darkness did not exist until the fall of Satan. When Satan fell, the earth was surrounded by darkness as well as a great ice pack. The creation of light for the restoration.

Darkness and Light during Restoration

1. Darkness was caused by the angelic revolution and the fall of Satan.
2. God provided light for man before man was here.
3. Light would provide heat energy which would melt the ice pack and keep it from reforming.
4. In this verse, it declares that God created darkness.

5. Bara refers to the fact that God created Satan, who is the prince of darkness. Satan is the whole package; great wit, beauty and intelligence. God created Satan with His Own free will. Evil is Satan's thinking and sin is Satan's function. Satan had a system; he was going to displace God as the ruler of the universe. There is a reason why this is mentioned.
6. Satan is a creature and God is the Creator, being infinitely more powerful. Man was created to resolve this revolution.
7. God, even though He has the opposition of Satan, God will inevitably be successful.

The genius weapon of Satan is evil, and he overcomes mankind with evil more than with anything else. Demon possession is a terrible thing and an awesome thing, and with simple solutions; but evil is extremely destructive with very complex solutions. Today, the whole system of fundamentalism is shot down by evil. A person can be very kind, very moral, and at the same time, very evil. That will help us to understand our federal government. They might not be so altruistic if they had to use their own funds.

Asah applied to peace. I manufacture out of something shalom. Shalom is a greeting with the Jews. However, in the Hebrew, it means much more. "I make out of something prosperity." God manufactures all true prosperity. If we are influenced by doctrine, it is inevitable that we will enter into supergrace. Spiritual blessing and temporal blessing and dying blessing. Asah means to manufacture this blessing in time. You will be influenced by doctrine or by evil. Most of us will die. If we are under dying grace, our blessings will be better there than in time.

Bara is used with ra', this is the masculine adjective for evil. The One creating evil. We do not have the feminine form here, which is more often found. Here, this is found associated with a person. We have the exact same situation here. Satan is the father of evil. Satan was the author of the original revolution in heaven. Jesus Christ controls history, and that is why we have a phrase like this. Jesus Christ created darkness and Satan. God can control what He has created. All of these things which we have learned are focused on this phrase. Satan is the author of evil and he is the evil one. He does not have the ability to control history. He can step in where the free will of man succumbs to his evil thinking and philosophy. No creature can revolt against the Creator and succeed.

All of these things, whether light or darkness, good or evil, is all controllable by God. Man was created to resolve the Angelic Conflict. Satan is far more powerful than man, and yet God has chosen the human race for the incarnation and to resolve the Angelic Conflict.

Evil is the modus operandi of Satan in this world. Evil is the system of thought used by Satan. Evil deals with much more than sin. Evil attempts to solve the problems of life apart from God. Evil includes every system of social action. Evil is the greater good; the distortion of law to solve social problems. Evil is every deviation from divine establishment. Gun legislation is evil. Abolishment of capital punishment is evil. Every law that Congress has passed to only allow certain people to be hired or fired is evil. Bribing states for a 55 mph speed limit. It is evil to infringe upon industry and to tell them what they ought to manufacture. If they want to manufacture you press a button and a sword stabs you, that is their business. And since when is saving life that important? There is a lot of evil because we have not gone through the normal cycle of a depression. We'd be a lot better off with people dead. Bob's car is filled with evil. He'd slash his seat belt with a large hunting knife. But he needs the seat belt when he corners at 50 mph. So what does it prove? We are operating under a series of principles which are evil. If the United States survives this Congress; this is why we have so many laws about sell to anyone or rent to anyone. If an apartment owner wants to keep out old people, young people, or whatever, that is up to them. The worst thing in the world for apartments are kids. An owner of an apartment can do anything he wants. He can exclude children or dogs or fleas, and the government ought to be able to tell you how to invest your money. A third of the people of the world are in slavery because of FDR and Truman. We neglected Douglas MacArthur when the Germans were beating down the Russians. They let the Russians come into Germany and into western Europe and Rumania and Czekoslovakia, we enslaved millions of people because of our policy.

Today our country operates like the Communists. We operate like Communists. Evil is the leaven which leavens the whole lump. God ordained the church; Bill Bright ordained campus crusade; Bob knew all 3 of these men, and they have these different organizations, and churches are doing all of these activities to compete with the sock hop, etc. They were going to turn the world upside down. They aren't going to turn the world upside down. The sheep are growing in the local church. It is time that you understand the true nature of evil. The local church has failed many times, but God uses only the local church with a pastor communicating the Word of God to the sheep.

Isa.. 45:6b–7 I am the LORD, and there is no other. I form [lit., the One forming] light and create darkness, I make well-being and create calamity [the One creating evil], the One creating the evil one, I am the LORD, who does [manufacturing] all these things.

There is a lot more to say about evil which will be covered tonite.

Isa.. 45:8 "Shower, O heavens, from above, and let the clouds rain down righteousness; let the earth open, that salvation and righteousness may bear fruit; let the earth cause them both to sprout; I the LORD have created it.

Isa.. 45:9 "Woe to him who strives with him who formed him, a pot among earthen pots! Does the clay say to him who forms it, 'What are you making?' or 'Your work has no handles'?

Isa. 47:10–11

The Doctrine of Evil

1. Evil is many things; and some sins do overflow into evil. Sin will get a believer out of fellowship; rebound will get the believer back into fellowship. Evil controls the thinking of the believer. Evil is the policy and modus operandi of Satan.

- a. Evil is more than sin.
  - b. Evil includes human good and every attempt to solve the problems of life apart from Bible doctrine and apart from the grace of God.
  - c. It can include philanthropy, socialism, public welfare; Satan is seeking to establish the Millennium before the 2nd advent.
  - d. Evil is social gospel; social action; the distortion of law to solve social problems.
  - e. Evil is every deviation from doctrine, like legalism.
  - f. Sin and evil both come from Satan. Evil comes from the heart.
2. The supergrace believer is protected from evil. Psalm 21:11 deceit is in the right lobe of those who devise evil.
  3. No evil happens to the righteous; the evil are filled with all kinds of trouble. Gen. 48:16 50:20 Psalm 23: 37:16–19 Psalm 91:10 119:101 121:7 all of these refer to supergrace believers. He who listens to doctrine will be in security and will be at ease from evil. Prov. 2: 3:7
  4. Negative volition toward Bible doctrine causes the believer to be influenced by evil; even changed by evil. Solomon was still taking in doctrine; he as still influenced
  5. The issue in the royal family, are you influenced by doctrine or by evil the pursuing of evil is the sin unto death. Prov. 15:3 the divine omnipresence. Blessing for the supergrace believer. Prov. 16:6 22:3 24:1–4
  6. Doctrine neutralizes evil. Psalm 54;12
  7. Evil distorts grace Psalm 52:1
  8. Evil also distorts establishment.
  9. Reversionists are influenced always by evil. Reversionists may sin; but so do believers. David goes on for 40 years John 3:19
  10. Evil rationalizes calls evil good
  11. Conspiracy and revolution are evil. Prov. 17:11
  12. Evil is self-destructive Psalm Prov.
  13. Evil seeks to build happiness upon someone else's unhappiness.
  14. Laws of divine establishment are designed to protect the human race from evil.
  15. There is no evil in God. Psalm 5;4
  16. God judges evil.
  17. Jesus Christ controls history, despite evil. Isa. 45:7 I am the LORD, and there is no other. I form [lit., the One forming] light and create darkness, I make well-being and create calamity [the One creating evil], the One creating the evil one, I am the LORD, who does [manufacturing] all these things.
  18. The saturation of evil means the fifth cycle of discipline. When there is a saturation of evil, that national entity is destroyed in battle. Isa. 47:10

There are people who depend upon legislation or on some property out in the hills. People are always impressed when they are killed for their trouble. There are sincere people raising money; and all of the networks are anti-gun. They do everything they can to pass gun legislation; this is evil. A new one is to get rid of hunting. People who love animals go out and shoot the loners and the weak ones. People are depending upon the environmentalists. We are driving industry out of the country. Many states have lost revenue because they have run corporations and companies out of town.

A Few Points on Evil

1. Nations not influenced by Bible doctrine have a tendency to be influenced by some form of evil.
2. Evil is the policy of Satan, who is the ruler of this world.
3. Evil and sin are both from Satan. Sin from the old sin nature and evil from the heart.
4. Evil includes human good, social and economic panaceas, social gospel, social action, humanitarianism, victorious life panaceas. There is no one shot decision after salvation which solves anything. It takes many decisions.
5. Sin was solved at salvation; but evil is overcome by spiritual growth.
6. The sins of humanity were judged at the cross; Christ did not die for evil nor did He solve evil at the cross.
7. Evil will not be solved till the end of the Millennium.
8. Repentance solves the believer's sins.
9. Evil can only be avoided by establishing a command post in the soul.
10. Anytime a believer is legalistic or reversionistic or apostate, some form of social gospel. Only the daily function of grace can protect against evil.

Nebuchadnezzar's grandson's country was then filled with evil.

They have been influenced by evil, but they say, "No one sees me." Wisdom and knowledge here are used of those influenced by evil. Evil is a thought; evil is humanitarianism thinking. So they are seduced by evil.

We can lead a life separate from evil. 30:07 - 27:12

There are people who have a confused concept of life; they are filled with human viewpoint thinking. Their wisdom and knowledge have seduced them. We will always sin, but we can live a life totally free from evil.

Bob talks about the waw conversive here. An imperfect tense changes to a perfect tense? That means you have said in your heart; however, it ought to be you keep saying in your heart. Believers involved in humanitarianism; they are arrogant; they are proud; they are vain. Ephes arrogance is a sin which is related to evil. Pride is always related to evil. Pride is always one which immediately is evil. Arrogance thinks outside of grace; there is no grace orientation to arrogance. Satan started out saying the same thing, "I will be like the Most High." Satan was arrogant; he was pride. That is a mental attitude sin; but "I will be like the Most High" sets up his entire policy. This is Satan wanting to run the entire universe.

Isa. 47:10 You felt secure [have trusted; often used for the faith rest technique] in your wickedness [in your evil], you said, "No one sees me"; your wisdom and your knowledge led you astray [seduced you], and you said in your heart, "I am, and there is no one besides me."

Evil has no ability when God judges is. Kopharr means to cover up; in this stem, to stop, to avert. Jesus Christ controls history and Jesus Christ protects the human race from saturation of evil. To perpetuate the human race, God must remove certain peoples, like the 3rd Reich in the 20th century, like the evil peoples in the land.

When one is under the influence of evil, they try to solve things that they do not understand. Today, everyone thinks that the UN is great. The UN sticks its nose into business. The UN has destroyed Africa and many nations all over the world. The US gave the UN power, and now, it is a system of spying on our country.

Evil cannot interpret history. It cannot understand what is going on. It is not sin which destroys a nation; it is evil. Some sins are related to evil; and some are merely sinful.

Isa 47:11 Therefore, evil shall come upon you, which you will not know how to charm away [understand its origins]; consequently, disaster shall fall upon you, for which you will not be able to atone; and ruin [or, destruction, which here refers to the fifth cycle of discipline] shall come upon you suddenly, of which you know nothing [you do not understand life].

19. Evil does not understand grace function. Matt. 20:15 Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or do you begrudge my generosity? A capitalist is speaking in this context. This is a man who owned a huge vineyard. He went out at 6am and those who showed up, got a day's wages. But, when he went out later, he hired more workers at 9am, and he paid them the same wages. He even went out and hired those at 6pm, and they worked for just an hour. When they went by to be paid, he gave them all a full day's wage. Then the labor unions screamed, unfair. The capitalist has the right to give any wage that he wants to any group that he wants. The owner of the vineyard was a grace man; the owners of the vineyard did not understand grace. Two blind men call out to Jesus, "Have mercy on us, Lord, Son of David." They were free from evil. They recognized His authority and they recognized His humanity and his royalty. Labor has no right to complain or to tell capital what they ought to do. In this parable, the man did not pay an unfair wage; he paid a fair wage. However, he just paid a higher per hour wage to those he hired late.

20. Evil is distinguished from other categories like war and disease. Evil is distinguished from warfare and disease. The prophets in the past said that Jeremiah warned about these things. If war is not evil. War is the means of gaining freedom. It is the means for putting down tyranny. Today, we have idiots running around trying to abolish war. Disease is not evil either, which knocks down Christian science. There may some evil related to disease, but disease in itself is not evil.

Still covering the doctrine of Evil.

Bob is not going to accommodate people saving places when they don't come to class. "We are going to knock off that stuff. Most of those who are guilty, they live across the street in the barracks. They come in and lay down 15 bibles in 15 places, but not everyone shows up. You don't get to wander off and come in before the opening curtain. It is damn poor manners. So, count on it; if it keeps up, we'll throw your books in the parking lot. Do I make myself clear? I'll throw them out there." One of the biggest complaints are those who get put back against the wall or the overflow room; and there are seats with books in them an empty. "You don't save seats, except for wives and girlfriends, and no more than one or two. And you had better be in that seat."

we have been studying 2 men, David and Saul. Saul failed; he died the sin unto death. They started out the same; they were both regenerated.

You cannot change doctrine; but it can change you. Evil will be here after we are dead. We cannot change evil, but it can change us. David allowed doctrine to change him, and Saul allowed evil to change him. David had promotion for 40 years. He committed his most heinous sins as a believer, as king of Israel. The real issue is evil and not sin. Evil comes from the old sin nature. Evil goes on as the Angelic Conflict continues. Most pastors are fighting sin.

When you sin, you rebound; you are back in fellowship immediately. If there is discipline still attached, then you can deal with it. David was a man after God's own heart. David was the criterion for what a ruler ought to be. He was not influenced by evil.

Review of the doctrine of Evil

1. Definition: evil is the modus operandi of Satan in this world. It includes human good; it is an attempt to solve life's problems apart from doctrine and God. Pride is Satan's original sin. There was arrogance and he said, "I will be like the Most High." That is a mental attitude sins + evil. Evil is altruism, philanthropy, public welfare, socialism; Satan seeks to establish the Millennium before the Millennium. Fundies are sincere, moral, self righteous and that is evil. Some fundies function outside of the local church. There are often very nice and sincere people who are evil. Holy rollers are all evil. A one-shot system of spiritual growth is evil. Every deviation from Bible doctrine is evil. Sin and evil originate from Satan. Evil often includes sin, but they are not synonymous terms. Pride is always involved with evil. Evil is socialism. We have an evil government today. The greatest issue is not morality, it is evil. Government trying to regulate the economy, is evil. Labor unions are evil. Cutting back on the military is evil. Sweetness and light and brotherhood is all evil; any organization outside of the local church is evil. Navigators is evil. Campus Crusade, etc. No believer can grow up in them. They do not have a pastor-teacher or a church. The local church is the place where God has ordained for us to grow up. Whatever good they do is the accurate presentation of the Word of God.

2. Vocabulary and there are several words for evil in both languages.
3. Supergrace believer is protected from evil. Psalm 23;4 Gen. 50:20 Psalm 91:10 Prov. 2:10–14
4. Negative volition toward Bible doctrine causes believer to be influence by evil, which leads to the sin unto death. Prov. 5:13–14
5. Are you influenced by doctrine or evil? Prov. 14:22 22:8
6. Doctrine neutralizes evil. Our insulation against evil is doctrine in the soul. No matter how sweet or mature or whatever your personality is, it does not overcome evil. The only insulation is not working, praying or a system of self righteousness; it is just Bible doctrine resident in your soul.
7. Doctrine neutralizes evil.
8. Evil distorts grace.
9. Evil distorts establishment.
10. Evil rationalizes.
11. Conspiracy and revolution are evil.
12. Evil is self-destructive.
13. Evil seeks to build happiness upon someone else's unhappiness.
14. There is no evil in God.
15. God judges evil.
16. In spite of evil, Jesus Christ controls history. Isa. 45:7 I am Jehovah and there is no other, forming light and creating dankness, the one creating ...the evil one. Satan is a super genius and he cannot contend with God.
17. The saturation of evil means the fifth cycle of discipline. Isa. 47:10–11 because you trusted in your evil, you have said that no one sees me. You have said, I am and there is no one besides me. Arrogance and evil have been together since Satan's fall. Suddenly the fifth cycle will come upon you and you will not understand it.
18. Laborers criticizing capital. Any man who is a capitalist has the right to determine what he does with his own money. We did not become a great nation because of labor unions; it is the capitalists who make our nation great. Labor unions are as evil as the UN.
19. Evil is distinguished from other categories:
  - a. Warfare and pestilence are mentioned with evil and therefore are distinguished from evil. Jer. 28:8 prophesied against many great kingdoms of war, evil and disease. These things are distinct from evil. There is often evil in war and in disease, but they are not the same. There might be evil connected with warfare like germ warfare. Bob was under pestilence a few weeks ago. And he was never more of a Simon Pure than the week before that. The prophets before us prophesied of war, disease and evil. 20. Evil is distinguished from sin in David's sin of numbering the people. I am the one who sinned. David distinguishes here between his sin and his evil. The sooner we learn to distinguish, the sooner we will advance in the spiritual life. God made David the wealthiest man in the world, and he had 7 wives and 19 mistresses. You have to distinguish between sin and evil. Don't be concerned by those who destroy the body, but those who can destroy the soul. This is the influence of evil. The born-again believer cannot be demon possessed, but demon influenced. Evil lodging in the soul can sometimes be there for a lifetime. Bob lost a lot of people when he taught spirituality by grace. People with a religious background have trouble with that. "I have sinned and I have caused evil" from a Chronicles passage. 1Chron. 21:1

21. Jonah 3:10 God uses what people have to destroy them. He can use their evil to destroy them. A nation might cut down on its military, and then another military comes along to destroy them. Jonah, when he arrived in Nineveh, liked the idea of damning the Assyrians to hell. They repented of their evil so God repented of his.
22. Evil is sometimes mistaken for good. Micah 4:12 the citizens became weak waiting for good. Can you imagine keeping groups of people alive by simply giving them money. When we let things just go on, socialism destroys those who have no vigor. But socialism does not do that, and all kinds of people are destroyed. They were waiting for good, and evil came down. This time, the evil was good. That made them weak and destroyed them as a people.
23. Chalal means to become weaker and weaker. People destroy themselves.
24. Evil provides false security for reversionism. Micah 3:11 her priests instruct for a price (in other words, they charge for tapes) and they say, "Isn't the Lord in our midst? No evil will come upon us." Evil uses God as a front.
25. Evil national leadership is opposed to God. Nahum 1:11 a policy maker of Belial. Belial means super wickedness.
26. Evil will be eliminated in the Millennium reign of Christ. Zeph. 3:14–15 the Lord has removed his judgment. You will not see evil anymore.
27. People think of evil in terms of doing some sinful act, which is erroneous. Evil is a thought. If your eye is evil, your whole body is full of darkness. Light become darkness means there are plans to solve peoples problems. Idea to give the stupid and the dumb the same salary as those who work hard. Matt. 15:19
28. Evil is altruistic. Luke 11:15 someone gives you something, but there is a string attached. Evil people can be generous sometimes. But there is often a trade out. Until that time, the Lord makes that promise. Evil can come in sweet forms. That surprises many, because they think evil is next to godliness.
29. Evil belongs to the most scintillating personality
  - a. Satan's angels are called evil spirits Luke 7:21 they function under Satan's policy.
  - b. Satan's domain is called the evil world.
  - c. Satan's policy is called evil. 1Thess. 5:22
  - d. Those under Satanic policy are called evil men. This might be called evil possession when Satanic policy is in your soul. That is the whole principle of theology right there. Evil is Satan's policy possessing your soul. Demon-possession is a demon possessing the body. Job 35;12 or evil workers.

e. Satan's administrators are called inventors of evil things. Rom. 1:30 we have a lot of work to do on evil. It is imperative that we see these kinds of distinctions.

2Samuel 7:23

631_0186

We are in the Davidic Covenant. The ear has always been the basis for the assimilation of the Word of God. Only the believer can understand doctrine. Only the believer is qualified to understand God. The unbeliever is involved in rationalism and empiricism, which yields nothing.

There is a post chaplain who lives nearby. Sends out a religious tolerance memo. He said it is improper to pray in the name of Jesus Christ. He adds, this is no request to compromise your convictions. This is how our chaplains will henceforth respect those of other religions. Strictly Christian prayers are not just inappropriate but may be considered offensive. Another illustration of evil. A great illustration of what evil is. It is all sweetness and light; do not offend anyone.

We live in a day when the illustrations of evil outnumber the points in the doctrine of evil.

David is a patriot. Anyone with maximum doctrine in his soul, who is saved by believing in Jesus Christ, will have good thoughts about the country in which he lives. David is a patriot and he loves Israel. David understands and appreciates everything which is involved in patriotism. He is delighted that Israel will be perpetuated for all eternity. Those who sing, "There will always be an England" are now on shaky ground.

Berachah will host a pastor's conference, and there will be some weirdos who will show up. There are those pastors who get a free ride from a taper who pays to get a nice pastor to come to Berachah.

No pastor is worth his salt who does not think about his congregation. A jerk who shows up, a pastor, with long hair and a drooping handlebar mustache. Bob took one look at him and said, "You've got to go." If Bob finds a gossip, out they go. Bob gets a bad reputation all over the country for this, but this is to protect his congregation.

People can come to Berachah and be anonymous; they can come and be without their privacy being invaded.

Sometimes you have to stomp someone into the ground until they are just a puddle. When you have a command, you have to learn to think in terms of the command. One of Bob's first jobs as a commander was to protect his people from their chaplain. He was a Methodist minister and it was about 8 or 9 months before WW2. He said it was terrible to kill people, etc. 7 day a week training; Bob went in and complained to Colonel Whitehead.

Bob suggested an alternative, that they be marched into a classroom, and Bob to teach. Whitehead said, "How the hell are you qualified?" That battalion of cadets set all kinds of records for killing and medals. This was Bob protecting his organization.

This is David protecting his country. He had a total dedication to this organization. If every businessman had this attitude,... A company commander in the same battalion where Bobby is located, and there was an ftx, and that was work, and they wanted to get out of it.

No one has a heritage like Israel. We have an honorable start. Our nation was born by fighting against tyranny. Israel was born under even a higher principle. Until they could form an army, they would be totally protect by the God of Israel.

Much of our humor is derisive and Bob saw a show where Barry Goldwater was being made fun of.

George C. Scott is one of the greatest phonies of the day, although he played Patton.

People go ape over nothing.

Woodrow Wilson started expediency. FDR used expediency at the end of dividing up portions of the world. Nixon going to China destroyed freedom for many African nations. Persecution of Christians began in Africa because Nixon began to kowtow to China.

The Hungarians asked us to come to their aid and we refused. The Jews asked us to help them in Cairo and we backed down. We are a dishonorable nation.

Everywhere you turn, our potential for being honorable and right has always been there and we have backed off. We need to get back to doctrine so that we can manufacture honor.

2Sam. 7:23 And who is like your people Israel, the one nation [a nation unique] on earth whom God went to redeem [to set free] to be his people, making himself a name [to establish a name or reputation] and doing for them great [God manufactured the greatness of Israel] and awesome [honorable things] things by driving out before your people, whom you redeemed [set free] for yourself from Egypt, a nation and its gods?

Summary Principles

1. Jesus Christ controls history
2. Israel is unique and they will only be discipline by God. Anyone else who tries to discipline them will be destroyed for it. Anti-Semitism is the closest thing to insanity. Anti-Semitism has destroyed conservatism, apart from occasional great people like Barry Goldwater. The uniqueness of Israel reminds us that many of the troubles we face come from anti-Semitism.

3. By using the title Elohim, we understand that all members of the Trinity were involved in freeing the Jews from Egyptian slavery.
4. The Jewish nation is a monument to the grace of God.
5. The manufacturing of greatness refers to the people of a nation.
6. Honorable things refer to the deeds of the Jewish people.
7. Note the sequence of the birth of the Jewish nation. Delivered from slavery. Delivered from Gentiles nations. Delivered from evil and the false gods of other nations.

David understood the whole point of the Davidic Covenant. There may not be a United States, but there will always be an Israel.

Concluding Points

1. It was inevitable that an eternal Israel needs an eternal dynasty. What dynasty will rule the nation forever?
2. The eternal establishment of the nation is a grace project of God; they did not deserve this.
3. Eternal rulership and the government of Israel will be in conjunction with grace.

It is possible that some would not recognize David's humility. He was totally free from arrogance and pride. The greater you are in God's sight, the greater you are nothing. When you are nothing with God, you are something. Sometimes people wander in here who think he is God's gift to women, and to that extent, he will never have a great love life. This jackass who thinks he is great with women is just great in the realm of pride. You may never have anything really great in category #2 love.

The establishment of the house of David is a grace project compatible with the founding of the nation Israel. David will look upon his own Son, Jesus Christ.

2Sam. 7:24 And you established for yourself your people Israel to be your people forever. And you, O LORD, became their God [Elohim].

David is completely overwhelmed, so he is now ready to offer a prayer.

Now, therefore, the word which you have spoken, concerning your servant and concerning his dynasty, forever, it has been confirmed.

A waw copulative so that this is not really an imperative but a jussive. David recognizes that God keeps His Word. David is absolutely confident in what God has promised.

David acknowledges what God has given in grace. Here is the function of David's faith rest technique upon the receipt of the covenant. David's confidence is in God and not in himself.

2Sam. 7:25 And now, O LORD God, confirm forever the word that you have spoken concerning your servant and concerning his house, and do [Qal imperative] as you have spoken.

David recognizes that God will be glorified or magnified forever. Jehovah of the Armies is God over Israel. Jehovah of the Armies is the military profile of Jesus Christ.

David wants that which glorifies God and not himself. God is glorified; the beneficiary is blessed. Anything which is worthwhile in life, God must be glorified. It is not by David building the house for God; it is God building David a house (a dynasty) forever. That is exactly what David is saying.

People are always a little bleary about how they want this or that to glorify God. You do not have to talk this way when you grow up. You do not have to talk about it. If you have good sense and you are a mature believer, you will glorify God. Fundies have a weird way of glorifying God (or, thinking they are). When God is glorified, there is not all of this hullabaloo. While David is king over Israel, he recognizes that Jesus Christ, the God of the armies, is ruler over Israel right now. David is merely serving in that capacity until the invisible ruler becomes the visible ruler.

Joshua learned this the hard way. He met Jesus Christ and he told Joshua, "You are either chief-of-staff or you are dead." There are tape churches all over the world, and their pastor is invisible. They all bring their children to conferences to show them that Bob is real. They are very quiet for 5 minutes in order to confirm that Bob is real and not a box.

There are churches with the wrong pastor. Fred Moore used to run around and hook people on the idea that he knew what he was talking about, but he didn't. It is more difficult to deal with having invisible authority over them. All over, there are all kinds of churches who can handle having an invisible pastor. Herman Maddox is now over the Dallas church and Bob thinks that he will be the greatest in the country; and that church was willing to hang on. There is always some jerk who thinks there must be visible authority.

David could handle having an invisible God. David was not eternal; he was going to die lying between 2 teenage virgins. That is dying grace all the way. David was one of the better looking visible people of all time.

2Sam. 7:26 And your name will be magnified forever, saying, 'The LORD of hosts is God over Israel,' and the house [dynasty] of your servant David will be established before you.

A guy Bob used to know got in touch. He saw a booklet and the back and said, "I know this guy." The rumor Bob had heard was that this guy had died in action. He promised to come to the church; Bob has not seen them since 1942.

Barbara Law accompanied by James Law. Some singing, a Scottish tune.

A reading of 2Sam. 7. Apparently there are those who are looking up David's 2 hot babes who keep him warm at death.

Bob learned very early that he needed to have some acknowledgment from Bobby in order to do what ordered to do.

Galah is the verb, but there is the word ears which is found here. It refers to a private revelation, like whispering in the ear.

Effective prayer is based upon doctrine. Doctrine must be the background. Doctrine must be the means. Everything must be motivated by doctrine. Doctrine is the key to everything.

All effective production is based upon doctrine in the soul. This is why the holy rollers are so mixed up; they are all trying to get people to do something weird, like tilt your head back and as, gaga. But none of that is doctrine. It is just some arbitrary idea that they came up with.

2Sam. 7:27 For You, O LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, have made this revelation [lit., uncovered the ear] to your servant, saying, 'I will build you a house [i.e., a dynasty].' Therefore your servant has found [discovered] courage to pray this prayer to you.

Getting down to the end of the prayer.

Some principles on v. 28

1. David recognizes Jehovah Elohim and that He is the fulfiller of this covenant. The connection between the 1st Adam and the Last Adam is the Davidic Covenant. God is the source of his blessing and his personal reward.
2. Since David is a supergrace believer, he addresses God as my Jehovah. No one had a life like David. Even the end of his life, it was spectacular. Two women acted as his hot water bottles. Only David and Paul seemed to have gone for so long without being influenced by evil. For many of us, we think evil. Solving sin is rebound; but solving evil is more complex. Self-discipline and recognition of someone else's authority is quite difficult.
3. David recognizes that the Davidic Covenant will be in the Word of God. This is a permanent contract which cannot be destroyed.
4. David further understands that the grace covenant is based upon the integrity of divine essence.

2Sam. 7:28 And now [therefore], O Lord GOD, you are God, and your words are true [have become doctrine], and you have promised [or, spoken] this good thing to your servant.

V. 29 is the final verse and the end of David's prayer. David will respond by singing a prayer. Even bless the dynasty of your servant, that it may be continued forever. For You have spoken, my Lord Jehovah.

2Sam. 7:29 Now therefore may it please you to bless the house of your servant, so that it may continue forever before you. For you, O Lord GOD, have spoken, and with your blessing shall the house of your servant be blessed forever."

The Fulfillment of the Davidic Covenant

David prays, "Fulfill this covenant as You have promised." For all history, people needed to know how David felt. God's will was the same as reality. There will be 400 years of David's sons sitting on the throne, but he will actually rule forever. Doctrine is everything.

1. The first problem in the fulfillment is the divine curse on Coniah. He is also called Jehoiachin (his real name) and Jeconiah. The curse of Coniah is found in Jer. 22:28, 30 and then again in Jer. 36. Jer 22:28: Is this man Coniah a despised, broken pot, a vessel no one cares for? Why are he and his children hurled and cast into a land that they do not know? Why has he and his children been hurled out and cast into a land which they did not know. Jer 22:30 Thus says the LORD: "Write this man down as childless, a man who shall not succeed in his days, for none of his offspring shall succeed in sitting on the throne of David and ruling again in Judah." Childless means that none of his sons will sit on the Davidic throne. None of his descendants will prosper again and Coniah will be the end of the line. He will have at least 3 sons and a daughter or to; and his line goes all the way to Joseph. Eliakim is the second son and he is made a vassal of Nebuchadnezzar. Jer. 36:29: And concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah you shall say, 'Thus says the LORD, You have burned this scroll, saying, "Why have you written in it that the king of Babylon will certainly come and destroy this land, and will cut off from it man and beast?" Therefore thus says the LORD concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah: He shall have none to sit on the throne of David, and his dead body shall be cast out to the heat by day and the frost by night. There was a curse on the father and a curse on the son; although the grandfather, Josiah, was a great king. This is a curse on father and son. For 36 years, one of these guys was a prisoner. The virgin birth is the fulfillment of the Coniah curse.
2. The second problem is one of genealogy. Luke traces the genealogy through Mary from Nathan, Solomon's younger brother. Mary is the mother of the humanity of Jesus Christ; she is not the mother of God. The Roman Catholic church tries to keep her a virgin forever. That is a dirty trick. It is unnecessary to keep her a virgin after that.
3. Then there is the problem: Jesus Christ is the fulfillment of the Davidic Covenant. He dies spiritually for our sins. Once He is finished, he is not going to stay around to become king over Israel. Once Jesus Christ is in the grave. The problem is, if He stays in the grave, there can be no fulfillment of the Davidic Covenant. Jesus Christ must be resurrected in order to fulfill the Davidic Covenant. Saul, by the resurrection of Christ; Acts 26:6-8
4. The problem of the inserted dispensation. One reason Jesus did not stay is this inserted dispensation. Abram left Chaldea beginning the Age of Israel. However, the Age of Israel was not concluded; Jesus Christ was seated at the right hand of the Father. So there must be the calling out of a royal family. The Church Age is an inserted dispensation. When the royal family is completed, then time is continued for Israel. This appears to hinder the fulfillment of the Davidic Covenant, but the problem is resolved by the rapture of the church. There will be one generation which will be removed en masse. Someone must accept Christ. Once the royal family has been completed, pcs to heaven. Once the church is cleared out, Israel is in view once again. There is a 7 year period of time to complete the Age of Israel.

5. The problem of the destruction of the universe, Isa. 34:4 Rev. 20–21 1Tim.? However, there will be a new heavens, a new earth. Isa. 66:22.

Every problem is offset by God's plan. The plan of God always agrees with the integrity of God.

Psalm 89

72David

631_0188

Bob describes Four Feathers. When officers think you are a coward, they send you a white feather.

Rehoboam, David's grandson, faced a crisis, which was an invasion by the Egyptians, and Psalm 89 was the result of this.

Interesting newspaper article which came out of an Orange County newspaper, which is a conservative area. Quote, "No doubt that the Communists are going to be stopped." A series of quotes very positive about Vietnam. All of these quotes could be summarized with balderdash.

Psalm 89 describes the last victory, which is the Davidic Covenant. Egyptians, Ethiopians and Libyans were allied; about half-Black, a conglomerate army, about to obliterate the Jews.

Hiphil participle of sakal, which means to prosper in the Qal stem; here, it means to cause one to prosper. The idea here is, this is a psalm designed to teach us how to prosper through Bible doctrine.

The authority is Ethan the Ezrahite, who lived during the time of Solomon and beyond. 1Kings 4:30–31 Solomon's wisdom surpassed the sons of the east and all over the place. He was wiser than all men. He was named as wiser even than Ethan. Solomon had great wisdom. His fame was known in all of the surrounding nations. Solomon was the richest man in the world, the most successful man in the world, the most powerful.

Ethan is the author of Psalm 89 and Heman for Psalm 88. Solomon died at age 60, after a 40 year rule.

1Kings 14:25–28 this is 921 B.C. Shishak called in another language Sheshonk (in the Egyptian). He founded the 21st dynasty of Egypt, a Libyan dynasty. They are the vermin of that part of the world. In the fifth year of King Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem. He took away the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house. He took away everything. He also took away all the shields of gold that Solomon had made, and King Rehoboam made in their place shields of bronze, and committed them to the hands of the officers of the guard, who kept the door of the king's house. And as often as the king went into the house of the LORD, the guard carried them and brought them back to the guardroom. Rehoboam was very rich, inheriting great treasure from Solomon; he takes everything to Egypt. Solomon had a famous guard, a famous regimen. When they had their gold shields, that was the great occasion. They were either going to the Temple or returning from it. In the sun, these gold shields looked quite impressive. Rehoboam made shields of bronze instead. The kingdom of Rehoboam was a brass kingdom by comparison to David and Solomon. Both David and Solomon were supergrace believers. They were mature believer. David avoided evil and not Solomon as much. By the 3rd generation, you often get a jackass. Rehoboam lost control over the northern kingdom and he was punished by the loss of all of his wealth. This was the first time that wealth was taken from Israel. However, with all of Solomon's weaknesses, he did not lose a cent. Solomon was not influenced by evil, but he did sin. This was a punishment for the influence of evil. Sin is carnality, which can be corrected quickly; and discipline, if continued, can be ridden out after rebound. Evil is not completely solved until after the 2nd advent. Evil is in the UN, in religion, in gun legislation, in socialism.

When David was promoted to king of all Israel, so David has all of this great wealth and this wonderful promotion, and all of the things which go with it. He never lost any of these, although he continued to sin from time to time. His sins continue to confuse ignoramus believers and religious types. Because of evil, David wrote 3 psalms. Solomon comes along, beginning as a supergrace believer. He was the wisest man who ever lived. He did not wait for his RW. He lost her completely and totally. God saw fit to discipline him for it. There are those who see a little daylight in sin and run for daylight. If you take in doctrine, you will be free of evil. Solomon and David never lacked for greatness and social life and blessing. God is fair and just and He still disciplines. But these 2 men never went hungry, never got demoted, never lost a dime; and they still sinned. If you are great, you will still sin. You occasionally run into those who think that they cease to sin after being saved. They know nothing about hamartiology. Evil makes sin worse, and vice versa. To sin without evil is to survive, but to sin with evil often is your downfall.

Bob apparently recently taught the doctrine of Evil, which would match the 1974 Evil special. You cannot collect women without sinning. Why collect women in the first place unless you are going to sin. It is like these people who are confused in Tennessee who flip out over the last half of the last chapter of Mark. Eventually, they all die of snake bites. What is more dangerous than the striking of a rattlesnake. If you collect women long enough, you are going to get bit. Neither David nor Solomon with all their obvious sins never lost anything of sg2. Rehoboam is influenced by evil. He loses the northern tribes, his royal guard is now carrying bronze shields. Shishak took all of Israel's wealth and left them broke. However, doctrine is the true heritage of Israel and not money. All they lost is wealth. If you lose nothing in life but money, you are well off. Money is a nice convenience, but loss of money can be one of the easiest losses to sustain. It is not as meaningful as friends and loved ones and doctrine. When you lose doctrine, that is when you are in trouble. Doctrine is something that you do not have to lose. It will stay with you as long as your soul is positive. It is imperative to understand, Rehoboam lost that great fortune, the heritage of Israel is doctrine. It is obvious that such an appeal.

Out of the dust rises up Ezra. Therefore, this was written right after that invasion. An army of Arabs, Ethiopians and the Egyptians, 3 of the worst people in the world. This was a very successful invasion.

Psalm 89 inscription A Maskil of Ethan the Ezrahite.

Out of the dust and out of the rubble comes this voice. He is still alive, he will sing, and he is the first man on his feet after this invasion of Shishak. When he stands up, the first thing which comes to his mind is grace.

At this point, Ethan is the wisest man in the world. From generation to generation, I will cause to make known Your faithfulness. Many suffered some sort of a loss. The Temple was robbed of its wealth. Women had been raped. Men had been killed. There was a great invasion and there are 1000's left who are still alive, but without wealth. They are weeping and moaning and they are filled with self pity. This is a man who has doctrine in his soul. He is not shocked. He is a man of doctrine, a supergrace believer. He is the man of the hour. Of these many gracious acts of Jehovah, he would sing. He would make this known with his mouth. There is no complain here; no mealy mouth self pity; nothing of what did I do? To generation after generation, I will make known the great acts of graciousness. The southern king of lost a great deal.

The invasion of Shishak takes Ethan right back to the Davidic Covenant, which could be depended upon. He is speaking to Rehoboam and to the people. The spiritual heritage of Israel is great. Just as David was speechless that he would see his own Son ruling forever over Israel, Ethan teaches that this covenant is still in effect.

Wealth can depart, no matter what measures are taken to keep it. The wealth of the soul are not lost. He is a spiritual millionaire. He is saturated with doctrine. He brings the nation back to sanity, back to its spiritual heritage.

Psalm 89:1 [I will sing of the \[many acts of\] grace of the LORD, forever; with my mouth I will make known your faithfulness to all generations.](#)

Ethan was a Bible teaching Levite and he has taught the Davidic Covenant many times in the past. Ethan emphasizes grace and doctrine. This is a source of blessing to David and a source of blessing of Israel's wealth forever. Israel has a wealth which can never be removed. Nothing can cancel the Davidic Covenant. Israel is permanently wealthy.

We have permanent wealth, doctrine in the soul. God has provided a spiritual wealth, almost unbelievable in its content. We are just like Israel in that sense. If you have poverty of soul, then you will be influenced by evil. Are you influenced by evil or are you influenced by doctrine. This tells us what Ethan has been teaching over the past few months or years. Forever, grace will be built up. A building will eventually go; the Temple will eventually be destroyed (although it was not), but it was in danger of being destroyed. However, what is important is the building up of grace in the soul. One's life needs to be constructed of grace rather than evil. The great issue is evil versus grace; doctrine versus evil. It is imperative not to be influenced by evil.

David had an original thought; so God gave to David a great unprecedented promise. It was all constructed upon grace. Even the Temple was no substitute for Bible doctrine in the soul.

The real Holy of Holies, the heavens, will establish, prepare your faithfulness in them. God's faithfulness is His looking out for His people, looking over them.

Psalm 89:2 For I said [I have taught], "Grace will be built up forever; in the heavens You will establish [prepare] Your faithfulness."

David is the chosen one here, and God made a covenant in favor of him. There is a solemn promise which God makes for David.

Principles

1. The covenant which Ethan is using is the Davidic Covenant. This became a central portion of Jewish theology. His centralization in Jewish history.
2. The subject of these verbs is not Ethan, but God the Father. Previously, the subject was Ethan, but by v. 3, it is God. In v. 4, God is the subject.

Psalm 89:3 You have said, "I have made a covenant with [in favor of] my chosen one; I have sworn to David my servant:

The Hiphil stem of kun. It means to authorize, to cause to establish. Despite the failure of Rehoboam, God keeps His Word. Rehoboam will continue to rule, as well as his son after him and his grandson after him. When the nation is under the fifth cycle of discipline, the people have to be taken out. However, no matter how bad the king is, the king will be taken out. Rehoboam is a total jackass. Only about 3 kings are any good in Judah. The promise goes right on and the Davidic dynasty continues to rule. However, when the southern kingdom goes out, that will end the Davidic dynasty. There will be a continuation of the Davidic line; and as long as there is a Judah, there will be the Davidic dynasty. God's plan does not depend upon us. God's plan does not fail because we fail. It depends upon God and not upon us. It is nice to know that if we fall off somewhere, the plan goes right on. If you are sucked out of jet airplane, the airplane goes right on.

Selah means singers rest, while the orchestra continues to play. The idea is, God's plan goes on, even though individual would fail.

Points on Selah

1. Selah, singers rest while the orchestra continues playing. You rest while God works.
2. The implication is that God's plan goes on whether we fail or succeed. God's plan depends upon God.
3. Most of the men in the dynasty of David would fail, but the plan of God is not hindered by human failure.
4. The blessings of the Davidic Covenant belong to those in the line of David, who, as supergrace believers are influenced by doctrine instead of evil. Asa, Jehoshaphat, Hezekiah and Josiah were the only great believers.
5. However, the establishment of the davidic dynasty meant that David's line would continue. Asa was greatest in David's line after Solomon.

Psalm 89:4 "I will establish your offspring forever, and build your throne for all generations."
Selah

Psalm 89:5–

David and Solomon are the greatest father and son team in human history. Philip of Macedon was as much of a genius as his father, Alexander the Great. There was also Alexander the Great's father.

It is rare to have a father and son to both be geniuses and correctly apply their rule. You cannot change doctrine, but doctrine can change you; we cannot change evil, but evil will change us. All believers had sin natures. Bob is going to tell the pastors next week that they are fighting windmills. They need to be attacking evil, not doctrine.

David and Solomon committed some outstanding sins. Evil is the issue; not sin. David was only influenced by evil once.

For a long time, there was a lot of money in Israel. Shishonk began broke and he had a large army to pay, so he went to Israel to take all of their money, which was a judgment against Israel, because Rehoboam was influenced by evil.

The first 5 verses reviewed. Losing money and losing wealth is of no consequence; losing Bible doctrine is the only real concern. The heavens praise here refers to angelic creatures, who occupy heaven.

Israel is broke; the Temple is broke; the land is in a dismal condition; the angels in the heavens are praising God; believers need to recover from reversionism. The basis of recovery is still available and God is still rich.

If God is going to love the world, He must still adhere to His righteousness. God's love is on a completely different plane. A smart man can always be outsmarted by a stupid women in love. Only a change here if the man is conniving. Only a man without honor can outsmart a woman.

As long as we are still alive, we can recover from anything. It is only when we are dead that we cease to cover from the problems of life.

Psalm 89:5 Let the heavens praise Your wonders [Your extraordinary essence], O LORD, furthermore, Your faithfulness in the assembly of the holy ones!

God found a way for us to recover without compromising His essence. He cannot ever compromise any part of His essence. Who in the skies can compare to Jehovah? This is a reference to all angelic creation. This is a challenge to the fallen angels; evil is the policy of Satan and the execution of evil is up to demons.

Evil is religion, evil is socialism; evil is any economic or social panacea. Evil is any organization functioning outside of the local church. Evil is the distortion of any establishment principle. There was recently a move in Congress to outlaw ammunition. Evil is not as good as God's grace. So the evil plans of Satan cannot be compared to the plan of God. Satan is the prince of the power of the air. Satan is in the skies. No one resembles God from the heavens; not even the super creatures called the angels.

Psalm 89:6 For who in the skies can be compared to the LORD? Who among the heavenly beings [the sons of Elohim] is like the LORD, Niphal of arats. This is God with reference upon His great power.

Psalm 89:7 a God greatly to be feared [respected to the maximum] in the council of the holy ones [angels], and awesome [receiving worship] above all who are around him?

An army has just come in and decimated the land. Rehoboam was a jackass and he cut back on the military. As a result, when this great army of Egypt came up, there was nothing to stop them. The only place where we will get a fair shake is under God and under grace.

Psalm 89:8 O LORD God of hosts, who is mighty as you are, O LORD, with your faithfulness all around you?

When you want to think of something unruly, Bob thinks of Balderdash. He is sort of a rebel. This is understandable since he has a map of Texas on his chest. Bob had to beat him once and it took about 15 minutes to get him in line, and he rolled his eyes at Bob. But, what we cannot tame is the sea. If you have ever been in a sea storm. He was 4 miles off the coast of Catalina Island, and there were 8 of them in a war canoe. He had no control over the sea. The sea is like a woman, and it is calmest before the storm, and about the time you figure out why it has become a storm, it is calm again. The angels cannot control the sea. Satan cannot control the sea. God can control it.

A friend of Thieme's describing the waves on a shallow sea, rising up 80 to 100 feet; and Bob was not foolish enough to get hooked up with the Navy. All over the world, we have these seas. Satan is the ruler of the world, over the Mediterranean Sea and over the Pacific, but he has no control at all over any of these seas. God can suddenly calm the seas.

This would be a good time to mention Jesus calming the seas.

God and His Control of History

1. The Lord's control of nature is compared to his control of history.
2. God permits man's free will to solve the Angelic Conflict.
3. Under the laws of divine establishment and evangelism is possible.
4. When Satan gets so far out of hand where these things cannot be done, then God, Who controls the seas, God will control Satan. Example, Hitler.
5. In this way, Jesus Christ controls history. When God removes a segment of mankind, it is often to preserve freedom.

This brings us to revolution, an interesting subject.

Revolution

the sea here is like history and control of the sea is God's control of history.

1. Revolution is a fundamental change in political organization, constitution or government by an overthrow with violence the established authority.
  - a. Doing this is revolution.
  - b. Using violence to do this is revolution.
  - c. Revolution is a form of conspiracy.
  - d. A carefully devised plan of conspirators is called plot.
  - e. Carrying this out is intrigue.
  - f. The laws of divine establishment are designed to protect the freedom and privacy of the human race.
  - g. Replace establishment with evil authority.
2. Revolution against the laws of divine establishment and the system of authority put in place by God.
3. Revolution is said to be evil in Psalm \Prov. 17:11 evil and it is a reaction against doctrine and against the laws of divine establishment.
4. Revolutionists may be a power-mad dictator. They are visionaries and hard core Bolsheviks. They might be privileged or poor; and they oppose human freedom.
5. The revolution against Moses. 14,000 died in a plague. Jude refers to this as the revolution of Korah.
6. We did not have a revolutionary war, but a fight to first gain representation in Parliament. Then to gain independence. As long as the House of Commons was going to tax the colonies, they believed they should be

7. Revolution is always anti-God. Since revolution is evil, it is totally opposed to God and all other forms of evil.
8. Opposed to all forms of apostasy.
9. Illustrations, even the dumb ox knows his owner, but Israel does not know Me. Isa. 59:13 too
10. Jer. 5;23 the source of revolution is the soul.
11. The teaching of Bible doctrine is the solution to revolution.
12. This historical trend of revolution. It is that trend in the soul which leans toward revolution. It always advocates the overthrow of establishment principles. He cannot separate the principle of authority from the person exercising it.
13. Therefore he reacts against the person who has the authority and the authority itself.
14. This also applies not just to governments, but to marriage, church, and any sort of organization. In each case of the French Revolution, the authority was replaced by a far worse authority. Mob action always reflects stupidity. There might be 50 morons in a mob, 50 geniuses, and the rest in the middle; and mob always goes to the lowest common denominator.
15. Examples of revolution.
  - a. French, Russian,
  - b. Theological like those religious organizations not headed by pastor are evil. Even if that organization saves people. You do not owe loyalty to any person; only to Jesus Christ. It began with the YMCA.
  - c. Legalistic revolution.
  - d. Economic revolution, which will be one of the most vicious in history. Bob hopes that this airline situation for Texas International to smash them into the ground. It started with women behind a counter who worked one another up. Unions ought to be smashed. He would destroy all of the unions. When you lose track that brains as the key to business, you lose. That is what saves us. Once you lose brains in business. We haven't had brains in the military for a long time. None in government. When the government gets through regulating, it destroys what it regulates. Anti-God to the core. If you are hooked up to a union and I will show you where they are evil. And we will have the damndest depression that you will ever see. Socialism and labor unions are two peas in the same pod. Labor unions guarantee that the scum will work and they will try to tell the owner how to run their business. "I know damn well how to run my business." Labor unions are evil to the corp. Strikes against airlines are evil to the corps. These jackasses who struck against Texas International have no investment. That is going on in this country right now.

Psalm 89:9 You rule the raging of the sea [You keep on ruling the waves of the sea]; when its waves rise, you still them.

I think that this is July 3rd 1976.

Psalms 89 is the psalm of the Davidic Covenant. David will be the greatest man, insofar as reward goes, as his Greater Son will rule in eternity forever. Never in all of David's life, was he ever influenced by evil, with two exceptions. Doctrine was here before we came and it will be here after we are gone.

David was a millionaire many times over. Both he and Solomon had the ability to enjoy their supergrace blessings.

Rehoboam lost the northern kingdom and then all of the wealth accumulated by his father and grandfather. New dynasty in Egypt, which often means a need for money.

2Chron. 12:1 When the rule of Rehoboam was established and he was strong, he abandoned the law of the LORD, and all Israel with him.

2Chron. 12:2 In the fifth year of King Rehoboam, because they had been unfaithful to the LORD, Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem 2Chron. 12:3 with 1,200 chariots and 60,000 horsemen. And the people were without number who came with him from Egypt--Libyans, Sukkiim, and Ethiopians.

2Chron. 12:4 And he took the fortified cities of Judah and came as far as Jerusalem.

2Chron. 12:5 Then Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam and to the princes of Judah, who had gathered at Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said to them, "Thus says the LORD, 'You abandoned me, so I have abandoned you to the hand of Shishak.'"

Arrogance is one of the few sins which is a natural ally of evil. They had completely and totally failed. This was their reversion recovery by means of doctrine.

2Chron. 12:6 Then the princes of Israel and the king humbled themselves and said, "The LORD is righteous."

God promises that the fifth cycle of discipline will not be put upon Jerusalem by Shishak.

2Chron. 12:7 When the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah: "They have humbled themselves. I will not destroy them, but I will grant them some deliverance, and my wrath shall not be poured out on Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.

However, God will put them into the 4th cycle of discipline.

2Chron. 12:8 Nevertheless, they shall be servants to him, that they may know my service and the service of the kingdoms of the countries."

Discipline continued.

2Chron. 12:9 So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem. He took away the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house. He took away everything. He also took away the shields of gold that Solomon had made, 2Chron. 12:10 and King Rehoboam made in their place shields of bronze and committed them to the hands of the officers of the guard, who kept the door of the king's house.

2Chron. 12:11 And as often as the king went into the house of the LORD, the guard came and carried them and brought them back to the guardroom.

2Chron. 12:12 And when he humbled himself the wrath of the LORD turned from him, so as not to make a complete destruction. Moreover, conditions were good in Judah.

The background of the psalm is extremely important and sometimes, as important as the psalm itself.

We have been under the menace of Communism since WWII and we failed to recognize that they mean to destroy us. On the eve of our 200th anniversary, we stand ready to be destroyed. We find ourselves today menaced as no other time in history.

Once doctrine is removed from the land and the spiritual heritage is neglected, a nation goes down.

The Addullem battalion was parlayed into the royal army of Judah. They were the best paid soldiers in all of history. When David appointed many of these men into the knighthood, none of them lacked for money; they were millionaires many times over.

Shortly thereafter, David was appointed as ruler of Judah by God. These blessings were given in grace. In spite of great and shocking sins, David never lost a dime during his discipline. In his greatest period of sinning, he did not lose one thing. David in the time of his greatest sinning was still the wealthiest man in the world, and he was never demoted like King Saul.

David was minus evil and he lacked arrogance. Evil destroys the soul. He was free of evil except once when he murdered one of his knights and another time when he numbered the people.

In the time of his pcs, David went out under dying grace. The most beautiful woman that they could find was given to David as a hot water bottle. At the same time, Bathsheba crawled on his hands and knees to beg for Solomon to follow him.

David will have a Son Who would reign forever.

Solomon made great trips into carnality. Carnality is easy to recover from; rebound and then ride out the discipline. Rehoboam was + evil. That was his difference from David and Solomon.

90 years during which the wealth of blessing and supergrace remained in the family of David. Only after this 90 years was this wealth removed from David's family.

It had been about 50 years since the Jews had had to fight. They were completely defeated by the enemy.

Psalm 89:1–9: A Maskil of Ethan the Ezrahite. I will sing of the steadfast love of the LORD, forever; with my mouth I will make known your faithfulness to all generations. For I said, "Steadfast love will be built up forever; in the heavens You will establish Your faithfulness." You have said [the psalmist begins to speak for God in the 1st person], "I have made a covenant with my chosen one; I have sworn to David my servant: 'I will establish your offspring forever, and build your throne for all generations.'" Selah [God's sense of humor is the reason that many of us are here] Let the heavens praise your wonders, O LORD, your faithfulness in the assembly of the holy ones [= the angels]! For who in the skies can be compared to the LORD? Who among the heavenly beings is like the LORD, a God greatly to be feared in the council of the holy ones, and awesome above all who are around him? O LORD God of hosts, who is mighty as you are, O LORD, with your faithfulness all around you? You rule the raging of the sea; when its waves rise, you still them.

Anyone who thinks that they can have a one-time experience, like speaking in tongues, they are a total jackass.

There is a great invading hoard of Blacks, Arabs and Libyans.

God has the authority to still the waves.

There are not more than 5 great statesmen in our history. We are like a silly puppy wagging our tail at anyone. Yet, the communists have not changed in their goals. All that has protected us is the military establishment. Our politicians entangle us in wars, and make certain that we enter into a war with one hand tied behind our backs.

Our great generals have been screwed over. The only reason we have any freedom is the military. We have not won a war since War 2. This is due to the politicians and they seek to put us in impossible situations.

There are constantly bills before Congress to get rid of ammunition and all of it is done in the name of crime.

The Jewish army was destroyed, and yet God allowed Rehoboam to continue his reign and his son after him and his grandson as well.

Were it not of the grace of God, we would not be here. Were it not for the salt principle, we would not be here today.

There are no prostitutes in this passage. So much for the fact that sharing is ludicrous; and this verse is erroneously translated and therefore obscure. The idea that you can grow by reading the Bible for yourself is not the way that God ordained it.

Baka in the intensive Piel stem. Bob does not announce that you lights are on; he does not make any announcements on this as he does not want to interfere with our volition.

You might say your car is broken. It is not much of a break; that is a Qal stem break. However, if someone runs into your car with a bulldozer, then that is the Piel stem.

Rahab is the crocodile symbol for Egypt. There is a preposition to explain this further. His army was not annihilated, but it did limp back to Egypt, and yet carrying all of the treasure of the Davidic kingdom back the Egypt.

Strong Arm is a name for God destroying an enemy force. The Egyptian invasion of Judah. The 4th cycle of discipline still allows for the preservation of the nation.

Psalm 89:10 You crushed [have completely smashed] Rahab like a one who is wounded; you scattered your enemies with your mighty arm.

Jesus Christ controls history, and therefore, He has all of this under control.

Despite all of our gravitational laws, our who solar system is moving through space. It appeared at one time that the universe was anchored in space; that is no longer the case.

Psalm 89:11 The heavens are yours; the earth also is yours; the world and all that is in it, you have founded [established, began] them.

The north and the south are the boundaries. Bob might call on a few people to share what they feel about this passage. What do you do with Tabor and Hermon? Tabor is on the western side of the Jordan and Hemon is on the eastern side of the Jordan. Both of these are in the Davidic Covenant. A lot of Iraq, Saudi Arabia, and portions of Iran and Turkey and Egypt, are all given to the Jews. Israel is concerned about the Shishak invasion, and God is reminding them that all of this land will belong to them; and that the land will blossom like a crocus. "Get your eyes on the future" is what God is saying. If you have a future, then God still has a plan for your life.

Psalm 89:12 The north and the south, you have created them; Tabor and Hermon joyously praise your name.

You have an arm with valor; your hand is powerful; high is your right hand. There are 3 phrases here. These Egyptians are now at the gate of Jerusalem. What does all of this mean? You have an arm with valor; a strong hand; all of these are Messianic references. Anthropomorphism.

Arm and hand can be used of God the Father as well as of Jesus Christ. This is the Messianic anthropomorphism. In Psalm 19:1 Jesus Christ created the entire galaxy. The hands of the Creator. They all have their paths and orbits and they are all represented as being from the hand of Jesus Christ. The next time we see the hands of the Lord, they are nailed to the cross. His hands were nailed to the cross, which meant He had to become true humanity. Psalm 22:16 He was God Who created the universe; and as man, He took our place and became our substitute. Psalm 37:24, His hands are described in terms of security for the believer, and He never lets go of us. Also John 10:28. We have an arm here with valor and integrity, and this is the Lord Jesus Christ. He is the God-man. The work in salvation is called arm, and it was more difficult for Him to go to the cross than it was for Him to create the universe. Who has believed our report and to whom is the arm of the Lord revealed? This is a prophecy which anticipates the cross. It shows Jesus Christ going to the cross and bearing our sins and satisfying the righteousness of the Father. The key to any love is righteousness. He reminds them of their so great salvation. This is also addressed to the king.

The hand of Jesus Christ is powerful; it can deliver us in time. This also indicates the resurrection. Jesus Christ rose again from the dead. He will return as David's Son. David's RW was Bathsheba, and they had 2 sons who were pertinent; Solomon and Nathan. Once Jesus Christ is physically dead; He was raised from the dead and now He sits at the right hand of the Father. The same One Who was resurrected is powerful enough to deliver us.

At the right hand of the Father, He is waiting for His enemies to be made into His footstool.

Many of the Jews could look out from the tops of their roofs to see these places, which are given by God to the Jew. Bob makes an illustration of paying a hundred grand for a bracelet to get it wrapped up; do we have the right to expect deliverance? Our daily intake of doctrine. We as believers have the right to expect to expect a little sack to go with the bracelet. That is deliverance in time.

Psalm 89:13 You have a mighty arm; strong is your hand, high your right hand.

No matter what idiotic thing that we ask for or what wise thing we ask for, God has a sense of humor and he often gives us things which shock and surprise us. It is impossible for us to compromise the character of God. Our lives cannot hurt the plan of God.

God has designed a plan based upon doctrine in the soul. His character cannot be compromised.

Tsedeq waw mishpat. The throne here is the throne of Israel. This is the throne which will have a son of David only on this throne. The 22nd Shishak dynasty; 22 families ruled up to this time, including Shishak; and from David on, it will only be the Davidic line.

Rehoboam and all those who followed, with the exception of 3, were total idiots; they were evil people; and God kept them on the throne because of His promise to David. How can righteousness and justice be the foundation of the throne, given all of these cretins.

The blarney stone is just some typical Irish fable. The stone of scone is something else. It was always under the throne of Scotland. This was a big thing. Under this throne is God's righteousness and justice. How is this throne not damaged with the cretins on the throne? God's grace and doctrine will precede you.

God is free to bless David. Cheseth and emeth. Propitiation explains everything. The blessing of David and the blessing of Rehoboam is based upon the same thing.

God had maximum love for Rehoboam because he was a believer. As long as he was alive, he could recover and Rehoboam did recover. Grace found a way to take any believer, as long as he is alive. God does this without a compromise of His character. Grace is the genius of God. Doctrine is the explanation of the genius of God.

The Throne of David and God's Righteousness

1. The throne of David is a messianic prophecy. Jesus Christ is absolute righteousness and justice.
2. This is made without compromise to God's righteousness. Because of the cross.
3. Hence the eternal rule is based upon the propitiatory work of Christ on the cross.
4. The cross is the basis for the crown.
5. The cross must precede the crown. Righteousness and justice must be satisfied in the 1st advent. David's Greater Son had to come first time for the cross and the 2nd time for the throne. There had to be the satisfaction of the cross first. God the Son will rule forever and without compromise to God the Father's character or His Own.
6. Between the 1st and 2nd advents, the reality of God's plan is found in two words: grace and doctrine. Even though we are in the dispensation of the church, grace and doctrine are the basis for understanding everything.
7. The next verse is...

A pastor's conference in the interim.

Psalm 89:14 [Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne; grace and doctrine \[or, faithfulness\] go before you.](#)

Psalm 89:15–

631_0191

Be on your good behavior this coming week; and don't get snotty over seats. "Let me do the shocking." We will wind up the week with a double feature; this is strictly adult entertainment. Four Feathers; a great movie from the past from the silent screen era.

This morning, we studied the Lord Jesus Christ as being the Arm of Valor.

The stone of Scone was a square stone and every king of Scotland sat on this stone to be crowned. Some English guy took it back to England. Also called the stone of destiny. The Rock Christ Jesus is the better foundation. Christ died physically after accomplishing salvation; but it would be impossible to fulfill the Davidic Covenant if He was not raised again.

Does v 15 mean that holy rollers are blessed? What is a joyful sound? Could you make that sound? Bob is going to fix the translation. The first word is Asheray and it means happinesses; there is no verb to be, but it is reasonably inserted. Happinesses to the people who know [Qal active participle of yadav] the sound of the trumpet. This is a reference to the military.

What Does v. 15 mean?

1. There are two ways to preserve a nation: a victorious military or a large number of believers in supergrace.
2. When the military fails, because of a lousy foreign policy of national rulers, the only hope for the nation lies in the supergrace believers; those who have been faithful in taking in the Word.
3. The Shishak invasion is the background for this psalm. In this invasion, it was the supergrace believer in the minority who became the means of a grace deliverance, as the military establishment was gone.
4. All of the wealth that David and Solomon had accumulated was taken by Shishak, but the nation had survived.
5. While the money was gone, Israel was still wealthy. Shishak did not remove the spiritual heritage of the people. He took wealth and materialistic things; but the people still had doctrine. Money can come and go, but it is doctrine which counts.
6. Only evil can remove doctrine. Evil cannot succeed apart from reversionism.
7. This passage reminds us that the military is a divinely ordained part of security, but universal military training provides great blessing to a nation.

Universal military training raises the quality of young men in any generation. A young man needs discipline, respect for authority, an understanding of a team effort. This often gives a military man some guidance. There is this quality principle; if the quality of the man goes up, then the woman is also blessed.

A male population of people who understand authority and discipline make great lovers and they make citizens as well. They are great in working in their jobs.

The West Point class and only a third of them actually went into the service. Or a half. The rest, and an executive from Montgomery Wards would raid the rest. Their whole training gives them polish, poise, etc. They never had a failure from a West Point graduate.

When men become feminine in their souls, then women become unhappy, dykes, resistant to authority. If a woman became equal to a man, there would be no reason to have a man. It would be the United States of Amazonia. What a man values the most is not a woman's libber. Their flat shoes and their manly ways. A nation is never happy when the men are wimps and the women are libbers. The way to fix that is military training.

The Spartans were much happier than the Athenians. We like the Athenians with their history and philosophers, but the Spartans were the happiest and women of the Spartans were the most attractive.

There are people who are religious in our country today who call themselves conscientious objectors. People are happy when they know the sound of the trumpet.

8. In the Rehoboam generation, they did not know the sound of the trumpet. Then there needed to be a minority of supergrace believers. The sound of the trumpet is also grace and doctrine. The entire hope of the land was now reduced to a few people.

There is also the principle of national security. In marching, you are required to think. Many people walk with a vacuous expression on their face. A person marching needs to pay attention to the commands being given. There is always discipline in marching; there is always teamwork in marching.

There is a relationship between military establishment and you are in full-time Christian service as a believer no matter what your job is. You have to submit to the authority of the teacher. There is self-discipline in spiritual advance.

Points on v. 15b

1. Each generation must learn discipline and authority to be a great generation and to perpetuation greatness.
2. There is a relationship between military service and Christian service. Once you enlist, you are in full-time military service; same for Christian. Both involve authority-orientation. There is self-discipline in both military and Christianity.
3. All spiritual advance occurs under the academic discipline of Bible teaching.
4. The authority is in the believer with the gift of teaching. Priest or prophet in the Old Testament.

They will advance in the light of Your face. It is impossible to know God and to love God apart from Bible doctrine in the soul.

Psalm 89:15 Blessed are the people who know the sound of the [military] trumpet, who march [and advance], O LORD, in the light of Your face, we go back to happiness. Here, happiness is expressed by dancing in a circle. Occupation with Christ. There have been several kinds of happinesses discussed.

The Doctrine of Happiness

1. Definition
  - a. A state of well-being; synonymous with welfare
  - b. Status of life, relationships of life
  - c. Felicity, intense happiness; beatitude is supreme happiness
  - d. Blessedness refers to happiness as related to God and His grace plan.
  - e. State of quality of being happy
  - f. Utmost pleasure we are capable of enjoy
  - g. Comfort, enjoyment, welfare, security
  - h. One's status is highly satisfactory
  - i. These are human concepts of happiness
2. The relationships of happiness
  - a. Prosperity Psalm 128 Happiness related to prosperity is described in Psalm 128: 1-4, "Blessed are all who fear the Lord, who walk in his ways. You will eat the fruit of your labor; blessings and prosperity will be yours. Your wife will be like a fruitful vine within your house; your sons will be like olive shoots around your table. Thus is the man blessed who fears the Lord."
  - b. Happiness is related to adversity. 1Peter 3:14 declares that believers may be happy even in suffering, "But even if you should suffer for what is right, you are blessed. 'Do not fear what they fear; do not be frightened.'" 1Peter 4:14
  - c. Proverbs 3:13 says that true happiness is found through knowing God's Word, "Blessed is the man who finds wisdom, the man who gains understanding."
  - d. Related to grace function. Proverbs 14:21 states that happiness may be gained from treating others with kindness and grace, "He who despises his neighbor sins, but blessed is he who is kind to the needy."
  - e. To supergrace status. Prov5. Romans 14:22 says that a clear conscience produces a type of happiness 16:20 s, "So whatever you believe about these things keep between yourself and God. Blessed is the man who does not condemn himself by what he approves."
  - f. Related to a clear conscience
  - g. Establishment Proverbs 29:18 states that happiness comes from obeying the laws of the land and that lawlessness and spiritual apostasy accompany each other, "Where there is no revelation, the people cast off restraint; but blessed is he who keeps the law."
  - h. Tot military victory Psalm 137:8-9
  - i. National prosperity Psalm 144:13-15 states that happiness comes from living in a free and prosperous nation. To fully understand the concept of happiness, we must understand the happiness of God. For God's happiness is unique in the sense that God's happiness is absolute, perfect and unlimited. In other words, because God is perfect He has perfect happiness. And as God is eternal, so is His happiness; God's happiness never ends and has never been diminished in the least and cannot be changed. And since God is perfect this means that He is perfect Righteousness; thus God's perfect happiness is directly connected to one simple fact: God is never wrong, has never been wrong, and never will be wrong. This makes God happy. Additionally, since God is perfect He is also perfect Justice; this means God is never inequitable, unfair or unjust. This makes God happy.

3. Happiness is related to God's perfection. Blessed God should be happy God. No one can make God unhappy. God is immutable. There is no way for Him to be unhappy. He is eternal and His happiness is eternal. His happiness is related to His essence. His genius makes Him very happy. Knowing what we think of God does not make Him unhappy. Psalm 43:3 one of the finer things which God can do for us is share His happiness with us.
4. Happiness is related to the plan of God. In eternity past, grace found a way to share His happiness with us. As we remember His holiness, we remember the basis for His love for us. His righteousness and justice. God cannot compromise His character when He gives us anything. Righteousness of God must precede Him giving us anything. Habak. 3:18 If you are not happy right now and you have not been happy lately, it is God's plan for you to be happy. God does not give His happiness to babies; to immature believers. Babies don't know what to do with it. God avoids this nonsense. Psalm 9;14 once we enter into God's plan, Neh. 12:43 great sacrifices and great happiness.
5. Happiness is accomplished through grace. Psalm 31:7 God keeps His plan together and intact with respect to His essence. Psalm 32;10-11 32:4-5 the first taste of +H comes from the filling of the Spirit. Rom. 14:17
6. Happiness and gap. Doctrine is designed to maintain God's happiness in the soul. John 17;17 1John 1:4
7. Happiness is the status quo of the supergrace believer. Neh. Psalm 30:11 Philip. 4;4 1Peter 1:8
8. Happiness is related to the concept of blessing. Usually in the plural. Two aspects of the believer's paragraph SG2. Once you reach the high ground; once you establish the command post; both spiritual and temporal blessings. Then at death, you add in dying blessing.
9. +H protects believer from disillusion. Philip 4:11-12 people become very disillusioned about circumstances. Loss of wealth. Someone demonstrates some instability. Paul has contentment type happiness. There is no circumstance of life which should make you miserable. There are circumstances in life which are not commensurate with your concept of happiness. There are also the details of life. Heb. 13:5-6. It is amazing how +H helps you particularly when dealing with people who disappoint you.
10. +H stimulates and enhances capacity for love. Brigadoon was on tv with a great illustration of capacity for love. He comes back to the woman he is to marry and she is empty-headed and superficial, so he goes searching for Brigadoon.

Luke 22:19 SoS 3:1 4;6 category #3 love 2Tim. 1:10

11. Greater happiness in eternity in Jude 1;24
12. The negative principles of happiness
  - a. You cannot build your h on someone else's unhappiness
  - b. Not on the details of life.
  - c. On pleasant environment.
  - d. On people you love.
  - e. On sex.
  - f. On fame or celebrityship
  - g. On the overthrow of establishment
  - h. On the lust pattern of the old sin nature or the function of evil
13. Positive principles
  - a. On balance of residency in the soul.
  - b. On the daily function of gap, on erecting an altar in the soul
  - c. Reaching supergrace
  - d. By glorifying God
  - e. By holding the high ground and staying there until you die
  - f. On the laws of divine establishment.
14. The happy person provides blessing and happiness for others. Therefore such happiness becomes the ministry for refreshment. Rom. 16:32 1Cor. 16
15. The happy nation has both a spiritual and a military heritage. Psalm 89:15-17

From the Internet:

HAPPINESS

1. Happiness must be viewed from two aspects:

A. There is a temporary, relative happiness that depends on outside stimulations in life. Happiness in prosperity and unhappiness in adversity.

B. There is a "settled" stable happiness in the soul which is not influenced by either prosperity or adversity. This quality of happiness is a contented, tranquil condition in the soul that is based on confidence in God's character and plan.

2. This quality of happiness is available only to the one who has trusted in Christ as savior. But the Bible indicates that there is a degree of "human" happiness possible to the unbeliever.

A. Happiness through adherence to the moral institutions of society.

1. Marriage: Prov. 5:18; Edification complex. 9:9; Isaiah 62:5

2. Family: Prov. 23:24-25; Psalm 127:5

3. National entity: Proverbs 21:15

B. A temporary, relative happiness based on overt circumstances and a minimum amount of adversity. Edification complex. 1:16-18; 2:1-11; 3:12, 22; 5:10, 18-20; 11:8-9

3. The first step to a stable happiness in life is through salvation. There is an initial joy for the one who trusts in Christ as savior. Lk. 8:13; 1Thess. 1:6; Acts 8:8, 39; 13:48; 16:34

4. But this initial experience of joy must be cultivated through spiritual growth and obedience to the spiritual truths of God or it can be lost. Psalm 51:12

5. God's plan is to have His perfect happiness (the happiness of Christ) produced consistently in the life of the believer. Rom. 14:17; John 15:11

But it depends on more than a salvation relationship with God.

6. Happiness in the Christian life depends on knowing and using the word of God through the filling/control of the Holy Spirit.

A. Gal. 5:22-23; Rom. 14:17

B. John 13:17, "If you know these things, HAPPY are you IF you do them."

C. John 15:11; 17:13; Rom. 15:13; Prov. 8:32-34; Jer. 15:16; James 1:25

7. The following list of passages need to be consulted in order to get a full picture of what is involved with true Christian happiness.

John 16:24; Acts 2:46; 5:41; 11:23

Romans 15:31-32; 16:19

1 Cor. 16:17; 2 Cor. 7:4-16; 8:2

Philippians 2:2, 17, 28-29; 4:1

Colossians 2:5; 1Thess. 2:19-20; 3:9; 2 Tim. 1:4

2 John 4, 12; 3 John v. 3-4.

8. God's happiness in the soul comes from expressing confidence in Him.

Psalm 2:11-12; 16:7-11; 28:7; Prov. 16:20

9. Such confidence in the character and plan of God will produce true happiness even in the midst of national disaster. Habak. 3:18

10. Accordingly, such confidence and joy perpetuates optimism (soul strength) in the face of any and any situation in life. Nehemiah 8:10, "the Joy of Yahweh is your strength."

11. True inner happiness and optimism go hand in hand. At nighttime, the pressures of the day often times are more impacting on the believer's soul than at other times. But for the one who knows and uses God's word, the pressures can be faced with confidence and in the morning, the trusting believer can greet the day with happiness and optimism. Psalm 30:5,

"weeping may last for the night, but joyful optimism comes in the morning."

12. Also under the pressure of persecution. James 1:2; Rom. 5:2-5 (Rom. 8:28)

13. The proclamation of truth by the teacher of God's word is designed to produce happiness in the life of the hearers. 2 Cor. 1:24; James 1:21-25; (Jer. 15:16)

14. Notice the chain and progress of spiritual growth as outlined at Col. 1:9-11

15. There will be maximum happiness for all believers when we are present with the Lord.

Jude 24; Rev. 21:4

Summary

1. The righteousness of God is the basis of all grace blessing God could not love the world if His righteousness is compromised.

Psalm 89:15–

There is a great collection of armies from the south. Jerusalem is taken and all of the wealth of David, Solomon and Rehoboam is taken. They have lost their wealth, but they are still alive, so God still has a purpose for their lives. The basis for all blessing is Bible doctrine. It was still in the land, although not resident in many soul.

A nation, during a time of invasion, defends itself with a strong army; and/or with believers who have doctrine in their souls. Rehoboam was anti-establishment; so he was a fool. He did not follow the national policy of universal military training. Only Levi was exempt from war. The military was at an all-time low. The king Rehoboam was neglecting the military just as we are doing today. Salt was used in the ancient world as a preservative. It was the Assyrian invasion which so dramatized the failure of Israel. National happiness and national blessing depend upon knowing the sound of the trumpet. The military provides the freedom, security and free enterprise of a nation. The only way to avoid war is to be so strong, that no one would attack.

When a nation becomes anti-doctrine and anti-military, that nation is on its way out.

They will advance militarily in the light of God's face. However, God does not have a face, per se; but we come to know Him and depend upon Him; and the army moving forward depends upon God. The United States, a world leader over the past 50 or 60 years, is giving up its leadership and we have given a third of the earth over to slavery; to the Communists at Yalta. That is why they have been anti-Biblical as anyone could be. That has led to the spiritual declension of today. What saves us is the Word of God is still taught and there are a minimum number of believers in supergrace status.

Psalm 89:15 Blessed are [or, happiness to] the people who know the sound of the [military] trumpet, who march [and advance], O LORD, in the light of Your face,

The ultimate blessing is in the righteousness of God. It is possible for God to love the believer and not to compromise His righteousness and justice.

Psalm 89:16 who rejoice in your name [person] all the day and in Your righteousness they will be exalted.

2Chron. 12:1–7: And it happened when Rehoboam had established the kingdom, and had made himself strong, he departed from the Law of Jehovah, and all Israel with him. And it happened in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had sinned against Jehovah with twelve hundred chariots and sixty thousand horsemen. And the people who came with him out of Egypt were without number: Lubim, the Sukkiim, and the Ethiopians. And he took the fortified cities in Judah, and came to Jerusalem. And Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam, and to the rulers of Judah who were gathered to Jerusalem because of Shishak. And he said to them, So says Jehovah, You have forsaken Me, and therefore I also have left you in the hand of Shishak. And the rulers of Israel and the king humbled themselves. And they said, Jehovah is righteous. Shemaiah the prophet comes and speaks to Rehoboam.

2Chron. 12:7–11: And when Jehovah saw that they humbled themselves, the Word of Jehovah came to Shemaiah, saying, They have humbled themselves. I will not destroy them, but I will give them some deliverance. And My wrath shall not be poured out on Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak. But they shall be his servants, so that they may know My service, and the service of the kings of the countries. And Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem and took away the treasures of the house of Jehovah, and the treasures of the king's house. He took all. And he carried away the shields of gold which Solomon had made. In place of these King Rehoboam made shields of bronze, and gave them into the hands of the chief of the guard who kept the entrance of the king's house. And when the king entered into the house of Jehovah, the guard came and carried them and brought them again into the guardroom. This is all of the background for this psalm. Solomon made a big deal out of marching to the Temple, letting the people know that the source of his power was God. He issued brilliant scarlet uniforms with golden shields, which was a symbol of the wealth and blessing of Israel.

After this great invasion, there was no more gold left in the land, so these shields must be made of bronze. If you polish brass enough, it looks good out in the sun; but everyone knew the gold shields had been taken. It was putting on a phoney show. It is like taking a rabbit and trying to dye it so it looks like mink. The source of that gold and the source of the promotion was still in the land. The spiritual heritage was the real issue of the land. This is exactly what the psalmist is saying at this point. Brass is no substitute for gold and Bible doctrine is the heritage of Israel.

Psalm 89:17 For You [Jesus Christ] are the glory of their strength [power - doctrine in the soul]; [because] by Your grace our horn is exalted [You will cause us to be promoted].

Ezra was a great communicator of doctrine. He was a Levitical teacher. The shield is what protects them. Whether we are promoted or not; it all comes from the Lord. We have not lost our source of blessing, even if we face some great tragedy. The tragedy is that Solomon was trying to fake out the people.

There are many times when we are blessed by God, but we will also face great blessing and heartache. Shishak was God's hammer. No nation survives its reversionism. This is the manifestation of God's great wisdom and blessing. Our security as a believer is

Jesus Christ. There is no sin we can commit by which we can lose our salvation. The plan of God never depends upon anything which we do. There is no way for us to lose our salvation. That is impossible. The plan of God is infinitely greater than we are.

We have been manufacturing brass shields since the time of FDR. Brass can look attractive, but it is not as nice as gold, nor does it have the same intrinsic value.

Bob became how aware how bad things were when he began to lecture on college campuses. Everything they were learning was brass. We are going to celebrate next year 200 years. Great nations generally last for 1000 years. We are a young nation as nations go. .

Thinking in Colleges Today—the Brass Shields

In the past 50 years, there are a variety of thoughts which demonstrate the brass in this country

1. There is no absolute truth. People demand that every side be taught and no side be taken; and there is no right or wrong, good or bad; and that socialism is the answer to everything. This in itself represents the brass shield.
2. Material change is progress. We have been blessed because of our spiritual heritage. They assume that new technology indicates real progress, but it is superficial.
3. Physical survival is the highest goal. This is the concept which makes us weak. We no longer hear, is life so dear or peace so sweet as to be purchased with the chains of slavery...give me liberty or give me death. We have gotten to the point of compromising with any evil.
4. Friendship can be purchased with money. George Marshall came up with this, closely associated with FDR and someone else. Marshall never liked Patton or MacArthur. He promoted inferiors over Patton. He developed the Marshall plan, which has always been a total disaster.

Pimps and madams interviewed. She was asked if she like older men or younger men; and she liked older. So, Thieme liked that answer. She said, "He might become your sugar daddy." It amazes Bob how money never purchases anything. It cannot purchase friendship or love. This is the attitude and George Marshall exemplifies this. The great nations are Israel, South Africa and Rhodesia. Chaicom money has purchased African shooting power. And we are letting them go down. Our policy makers are about 3 years old. People cannot understand us, whether we are really stupid or we are just acting that way.

5. They believe that people are born equal. Even a person with an IQ of 75 understands this. No two people are born with the same talent, intelligence, etc. We are born free. We are free to express our opinion without jeopardizing our lives. The federal government is making more and more of our decisions for us. Only regeneration accomplishes any sort of equality.

6. The majority determines what is right. This is only one method of making a decision; it is not a determinant of right and wrong. This church used to be the most awful color because committees decide everything. Now, Bob decides everything. He loves it. There is no committee beige. We all have to vote on something so that we do not hurt anyone's feelings. Someone began to raise hell over orange sherbert and lime sherbert, and if you don't like it, you don't have to bring your children here. Bob selects the movies because it impressed him at age 10, but he had forgotten about the hippopotamuses. A lot of people had never seen a silent movie before. Bob drops of few names of the people he knew who were in the silent movie the night before. The majority is rarely right. There are other issues other than the facts. No good decisions often made. A lucky decision 25 years ago when Bob was hired. Bob was told that Berachah was a graveyard for pastors. It is amazing when we vote for something and it turns out to be God's will. A person has good judgment or bad judgment.
7. Crime can be removed by gun legislation. Guns are dangerous; you might shoot yourself with one. That is why they are guns. Members of Bob's family had muskets 8 or 9 generations ago before this was a country. An unloaded gun is like a car without gas. Being loaded is the whole purpose of a gun. A gun has a purpose. Of course they are dangerous. That is why Bob likes them. Gun invites the feeble minded to use them in a fit of temper. However, they ought to be eliminated anyway. The prevalence of guns constitute a hazard to police work. Texas police officers are more sensible. Guns are used by criminals and therefore ought to be prohibited to law-abiding citizens. You should not resist a criminal because someone might get hurt. Guns are dangerous; they were intended to be. So are blondes, cars, gas stoves and surgery. Bob likes acceleration more than deceleration. There are a lot of things in life that are dangerous and that makes life fascinating. Anti-gun people like statistics; and once guns are gone, next would be ice picks. Guns are used by criminals because they break the law. The law-abiding citizen is affected. Gun legislation makes life easier for the criminal and for a Communist takeover.
8. Warfare can be outlawed by disarmament. Warfare is a part of establishment. Evil occurs in warfare and sin occurs in warfare, but warfare as a principle is good. Therefore, disarmament means slavery. It means to lose freedoms.
9. Internationalism can solve man's problems.
10. Environment is the solution to man's problems. Environment can be a test or a blessing but it is not a solution to anything.

We have our brass shields today, and the only answer to it is Bible doctrine. Bible doctrine must be passed on from generation to generation. We will not even survive to the Tribulation the way things are going.

Now we are prepared for the content of the Davidic Covenant. God intended to perpetuate Israel and the line of David through Bible doctrine, promised in the Davidic Covenant.

Psalm 89:18 For our shield [the protection] belongs to the LORD, our king [Rehoboam] to the Holy One of Israel.

Psalm 89:19

72David

Bob reads off these verses.

chasidh is an adjective here, which we have not seen before. This adjective means that these are both supergrace believers. It is wonderful to be blessed with material things, but we need to realize that we have the source of all blessing.

God's choice is the believer. Saul was almost a choice of all the people; the exception was Samuel. Saul appealed to everyone. He was taller than anyone, and made a good appearance; this impressed the men; and he seemed strong and humble, so women liked him.

He did fulfill the principle of a prophet, but he had no doctrine in the soul. He was monogamous. He lived a very moral life. 4 great sons and 3 fabulous daughters. He had great success in combat; he had a good public image.

David wrote a psalm with Goliath's head in his tent. Saul had a great arrogance and a great pride. All the evil came out in Saul's jealousy of David. He was bitter and implacable.

David refused to attack the authority of Saul. It all came down to the sin unto death applied to Saul. However, by that time, he had completely given himself over to evil.

Morality is taught in the Word of God; and there are no laws of establishment without morality. However, morality is not the spiritual life. When morality is distorted into the spiritual life that is the problem.

Jesus called the very moral pharisees graves, filled with dead men's bones. David was saturated with doctrine. He had erected the ecs; he had set up a command post of the soul. It was rare for David to ever abuse his authority. He was influenced by evil on two occasions. This man could stand authority. He is and always will be the greatest of the Old Testament saints. There is a clear delineation of David's great blessings in time. It is always David's sins and immorality which confuse fundies. Even to this day, David's immorality is an enigma to Baptist ministers. The great issue in the life of David was doctrine in his soul and his disassociation with evil.

Those who are confused by David are those who have the worst sins. They don't know why God does not strike David dead. If you do not understand that you are still a sinner, then you do not belong at Berachah. Don't hang around here. The key in Berachah is the rebound technique.

The only overt sin which is on the 7th worst if murder. Mental murder is another thing, and Bob has been mentally murdered by many members of Berachah. We all know that we will fail until the end of our lives because we have an old sin nature.

David never lost his crown, his wives, his wealth, even though he committed several spectacular sins. David was a man after God's Own heart. In heaven, you will recognize David, as he has been given the greatest blessing and decoration. This is the fulfillment of the Davidic Covenant.

The deity of Jesus Christ cannot sit down; God does not sit. Furthermore, He is immutable and cannot change. However, it is the humanity of Christ which sits. It is the Son of David Who sits at the right hand of God. It is his humanity which rules the world forever.

There was a beauty queen called Abishag. She is the most beautiful woman in the land. Not any old hot water bottle will do. Did David go out, in fellowship or out of fellowship? This will be the last lesson of the David series.

God chose David. God cannot make a mistake. God in His perfect judgment knew everything that David would do. Nothing caught God off-guard. He was not confused by what David did. Billions of years ago, God knew that David would sin by murdering someone.

"I don't understand why this is happening to me." Don't be a Christian wimp. Our blessings came before anything else. That is the grace of God.

Psalm 89:19 Of old you spoke in a vision to Your godly one [supergrace ones], and said: "I have granted help to one who is mighty [or, I have bestowed help upon a hero]; I have exalted [this ought to be promoted in the Hiphil stem] one chosen from the people.

God chooses to explain this in an historical context. David somehow was able to learn doctrine when a shepherd boy. God is looking for people with doctrine in their souls for the crisis. As a believer with doctrine in your soul, God will use you. Berachah men will stack the enemy dead higher than anyone else in history. Bob sends someone out to tell a gal not to ever come back. We will face something in the future where euphemisms and our phoney morality is worthless. What will count is doctrine in the soul. God keeps tabs on faithful people, God takes David out from the sheep. God uses prepared people; God does not use reversionistic believers or believers who are constantly out of fellowship; God uses prepared men and women. On the outside, there are some of the worst creatures with the name female. Those who consistently take in doctrine are the greatest women in the world.

Bob has a bunch of degrees, but they are all tossed in a drawer somewhere. However, Bob has other things on the wall, however. He has a written commission for 1918 for his father and for his own, and Bobby's. This way, it can be proved that all of the Thieme's were commissioned Lieutenants.

God had David appointed and anointed as king over Israel. He was a teenaged boy and maybe 18 or 19, and God chose him that far back. "This is My man for the future." There is nothing more real than Samuel anointing David's head with oil.

Psalm 89:20 I have found [discovered] David, My servant; with My holy oil I have anointed him, kun in the Niphal means to be firm. It means that grace promotion does not exclude discipline for carnality. The fact that he is the next king does not exclude him from discipline. David was disciplined for his state of reversionism.

Just because you have the gift of pastor-teacher, that does not mean that you are excluded from discipline for carnality.

To be strong, you need to exercise and expose your muscles to stress. Grace won't make you strong unless you have doctrine in the soul. You must be +doctrine in the soul in order for grace to make you strong.

Psalm 89:21 so that My hand shall be firm with him [this is discipline]; My arm also shall strengthen him.

Nasha to lead astray, to ensnare. The isolated occasions will have no effect on the reign of David. The sons of wickedness will not control him. The prepared believers is the one prepared with doctrine.

Psalm 89:22 The enemy shall not outwit him; the wicked shall not humble him.

Katha means to route, to crush.

Psalm 89:23 I will crush his foes before him and strike down those who hate him.

The conclusion to this strophe.

Psalm 89:24 My faithfulness and my steadfast love shall be with him, and in my name shall his horn [David's power or authority] be exalted.

Closed with the Star Spangled Banner. This was around the time of a pastor's conference.

Saturday Night at the Movies had the Audie Murphy story. His citation for the medal of honor is actually in greater detail than was found in the movie.

Next time is the Alamo, and Bob lacks citations for that.

Bob reads this psalm.

We are going as far as v. 37, which is going to cover all of the stuff pertinent David. The great a rising sea power, Phœnicia, was coming into its own, and Hiram was a friend of David's. David defeated those on the other side of the Jordan (Moab, Ammon) and south where Egypt was neutralized.

Psalm 89:25 I will set his hand on the sea and his right hand on the rivers.

David was blessed in such a fantastic way by God, He always made it a point every day to recognize the source of all of these blessings. The Son is the Rock of his salvation. David was one of the few people who was not spoiled by his success. This never spoiled him. He never lost track of the source.

David had tremendous capacity for life and for love. With this fantastic capacity, he could always enjoy what God provided for him. People are blessed with a great many things, like a social life, a family, etc.; but if they lose track of the source, they lose their capacity to enjoy these things. You can get bored with things if you do not have capacity for life.

Psalm 89:26 He shall cry to Me, 'You are my Father, my God, and the Rock of my salvation.'

God will give to David some even greater than his friends, like Hiram. The reason for it, he was influenced by doctrine; he was not influenced by evil. God was free to trust David with great wealth and categories of blessing. The great reward which David would receive in heaven. Most of those in Berachah are believers. Bob cannot imagine any unbeliever coming to Berachah on a Monday night unless someone really hooked them.

Bob wants to square things away right now, so that no one asks God stupid questions. God gives rewards for David having the capacity for life. Fundies teach it is for witnessing and doing stuff you don't like. But God blesses David based upon his ability to have and enjoy his wealth.

David did not nationalize any of the industries; there was no anti-trust movement. God could give David more things and He could give David more authority; and David was able to have these things and glorify God. For some of us, there will not be enough rewards to fill up a crackerjack cup.

I realize that this does not apply to most of you, but these tapes go out, and this is going to hit someone right between the eyes. Someone will be walking to the fridge for a beer, in the middle of Bob talking, and when he comes back, he'll hear this.

There was never a person like David. That is why David is unexplainable to the legalist. They are too fouled up. Baptist ministers are tied up in knots about this, because David does not fit into their mold of suffering for Jesus. Being a freak is evil; Jesus freaks are reversionistic hippies. There is nothing good about the way they smell or think. They are not glorifying God. They are suffering from legalistic asceticism. No one has ever been blessed by God like David in time. Leadership prosperity, technical prosperity, authority prosperity. David is the only one who will wear the order of the firstborn, a medal proclaiming the Lord Jesus Christ. It is called higher than the kings of the earth. As the firstborn, this is the highest decoration anyone can have.

Rulership, priesthood and the double-portion are all a part of that which goes to the firstborn.

The wreath of glory of 1Peter 5:4. This is a distinguished cross. There has to be something greater. Paul did not have the human blessings which David had. Paul will have the crown of glory. Paul did not have anything except fantastic category #3 friends and a great capacity for life. David was broke most of the time while David was the wealthiest man of his time. If you get to supergrace, and God does not give you all the things which He gave David in supergrace, there is a reason. Just avoid this suffering for Jesus.

Psalm 89:27 And I will give him the firstborn, the highest of the kings of the earth [Thieme's reading: (a decoration called) higher than the kinds of the earth].

David was a colossal success and God will guard this for him forever. What God has given to David is permanent. The things which David had in time would be guarded forever in God's grace. God's covenant would be permanent to David; not to all of those who followed him. This is David's special reward. The Davidic Covenant rewards the greatest man who ever lived spiritually. While Moses was alive, he was despised. Even the sculpting fag, Michelangelo; he screwed up Moses and David. That beard was wrong for Moses. For David, he gives him great symmetry but forgets to circumcise him. Bob likes Leonardo better himself and he wasn't a fag.

You cannot beat that.

Psalm 89:28 Forever, I will guard for him My grace, and my covenant will stand firm for him.

At the 2nd advent of Christ, Jesus Christ will begin to rule forever. There never will be a time when David's greater Son does not rule over Israel.

Mary, the virgin, was directly descended from David through his son Nathan. The Davidic Covenant is a reminder to believer in the Lord Jesus Christ. It is the strongest gospel that the Jews received.

Psalm 89:29 I will establish [have appointed] his offspring forever and his throne as the days of the heavens.

Codex 3 of the Mosaic Law is the judgments spoken of here. This is a detailed account of the laws of divine establishment. Moses wrote all about the Gentiles in Gen. 1–11; not much to talk about. Then he starts talking about the Jews.

All nations are made up of believers and unbelievers. It is the laws of divine establishment which count at this point. Universal military training is for believers and unbelievers. Marriage and the 1 year honeymoon is for both believers and unbelievers.

Psalm 89:30 If his sons forsake My law [= Torah] and do not walk according to my judgments, 20/20 isn't good enough for Hebrew; needs to be 20/15. The ordinances are the Christology for codex #2, which are His ordinances or statutes.

Commandments refers to the decalogue. Idolatry destroys freedom. Demonism destroys freedom. Freedom, privacy property. Codex #1.

Mosaic Law comes from Bob's teaching and supplemented with notes from Maranatha Church. Website: <http://www.versebyverse.org/doctrine/mosaiclaw.html> accessed October 20, 2009.

Doctrine of the Mosaic Law

1. The Mosaic Law is the Protasis of vv. 30–31. The Mosaic Law comprises all the legislation mediated through Moses to Israel from the giving of the Law at Sinai, including the post-Sinaitic legislation, as well as the reiteration of the Law (Deuteronomy) on the plains of Moab, as recorded in the books of Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers and Deuteronomy. It was at Sinai (1446BC) that the Jews officially became a nation with a Law code. Forty years later Israel began to take possession of the land first promised to Abraham, the father of the Jewish race, cf. Gen.13:14-17; 15:12-16. Moses was the father and lawgiver of the nation, leading them to independence and autonomy from Egyptian servitude. The original form of government was a theocracy. From the days of Saul until the Babylonian exile, the form of government was a monarchy. From the time of restoration of the Jewish state (after 70 years of captivity 516BC) until the fall of the second commonwealth in 70AD, the Jewish state was under the 4th cycle to a series of major world powers (Persia, Greece, and Rome). It was during the inter-testament period that the Jews distorted the Law into an instrument of salvation by works. Since the re-establishment of the Jewish State in 1948AD, the Jews have been an independent nation functioning under a socialistic democracy. With the return of Christ the believing, restored remnant will be completely secure under a theocratic monarchy with the Law of Moses directing their national and spiritual life, cf. Mal
2. The Mosaic Law is divided into 3 sections:
  - 1) Codex I - the moral code: the decalogue or ten commandments. The freedom code, the commandments, the concept of human freedom. Morality is contained in the commandments.
  - 2) Codex II - the ceremonial code: A complete and elaborate system of Christology and soteriology as portrayed via the tabernacle, Levitical priesthood, Sabbaths, offerings, sacrifices, and feasts. Codex#2 is the spiritual or theological code. This is soteriology or Christology. Establishment as well as doctrine in the soul. Tabernacle, holy days, etc.

- 3) Codex III - the social code: diet, hygiene, quarantine, taxation, laws of evidence, crime, land conservation, slavery, the poor, the military, and the economy. Establishment code, codex #3 sanitation, deity, laws of trial and evidence, etc.
3. The Mosaic Covenant was ratified with Israel at Sinai, Ex.19:18.
  - 1) The rest of the book of Exodus, plus Leviticus and the first ten chapters of Numbers, contain the block of teaching known as the Mosaic Law.
  - 2) God, party of the first part, agrees to make Israel His special possession (literally, a special treasure), a kingdom of priests, a holy nation, separate from all the other nations (Gentiles).
  - 3) Israel, party of the second part, agreed to enter into the Covenant.
4. Blessings would pursue and overtake Israel for keeping the covenant, Deut.28:2 "And all these blessings shall come upon you and overtake you, if you will obey the LORD your God."
  - 1) Blessed above all the nations, Deut.7:14; 15:6; 26:19; 28:1,13.
  - 2) Personal economic prosperity, Deut.8:7-10; 28:8.
  - 3) Military victory, Ex.23:22-33; Lev.26:7,8; Deut.28:7.
  - 4) Sexual prosperity, Deut.7:13,14; 28:11.
  - 5) Low crime, Deut.28:3.
  - 6) Good health, Deut.7:15.
  - 7) Right kind of weather, Deut.11:13-17; 28:12.
5. The recipients
  - 1) Israel. Lev. 26:46 Rom. 9:4
  - 2) Not to the Gentiles Deut.4:8; Eph.2:12
  - 3) Not to the church. Rom. 6:14 Gal. 2:19
6. Jesus Christ and the Mosaic Law Rom.10:4.
  - 1) He kept the Law perfectly in His incarnation. He kept it without legalism.
  - 2) He spoke against the distortions of the Law.
  - 3) Jesus Christ fulfilled the Law, Mt.5:17 "Do not think that I came to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I did not come to abolish but to fulfill."
  - 4) Christ is the end of the Law for those who believe. We are royal family, as are Jews who believe.
  - 5) He was born and lived apart from sin under the Law (Gal.4:4), thus qualifying Him to redeem man from its curse (Gal.3:13).
  - 6) He fulfilled the ceremonial and ritual code by His work on the Cross, cf. Jn.1:29.
7. Keeping the law is not the way of salvation. Gal. 2:16 it reveals the way of salvation in codex 2. Other parts are for nation law of divine establishment.
8. Keeping the Law is not spirituality. We are under a higher law. Rom. 8:2-4 Gal. 5:18, 22-23 1Cor. 13
9. There are limitations to the Mosaic Law:
  - 1) It cannot justify. Gal. 2:16 Philip 3:9

- 2) cannot give life. Gal. 3:21
  - 3) Cannot give God the Holy Spirit. Gal. 3:2
  - 4) cannot solve the problem of the old sin nature. Rom. 8:3
10. Other nomenclature for the Mosaic Law.
- 1) "Book of the Covenant. Ex. 24:7–8 Deut. 4:23 9:9, 11
  - 2) "Law of Moses", Josh.23:6; Heb.10:28.
  - 3) "Law of God", Josh.24:26.
  - 4) "Law of the LORD", 2Kgs.10:31. 4.
  - 5) "book of the Law", Deut.28:61.
  - 6) Or simply "Law", Deut. 1:5
11. Deut. 29–31 is an addendum to the Mosaic Law, and ought to be interpreted in that way. Jer. 11 22:9 the prophecies about breaking the covenant is found It is not to be confused with the New Covenant.
12. The past purpose of the Mosaic Law in the Age of Israel
- 1) the authorizing agent of the Levitical priesthood. Heb. 7:11–12
  - 2) Tabernacle and furniture,. Heb. 9:1–6
  - 3) sacrifices Heb. 9:12–13 these were a means of evangelism
  - 4) Authorized the blood of animals or the deviation of shadows Heb. 9;18–22 10:1
  - 5) Established blessing for a national entity.
13. The present purpose of the Mosaic Law in the Church Age:
- 1) Retained for our instruction. We learn salvation. Rom. 15:4 Why are we confident about universal military training? It is taught in 3 chapters of the Mosaic Law. It tells us about free enterprise, which also eliminates the scum of a nation. When we screw up, the scum die off in a depression; the believer keeps on going. Scum act like barnacles on a boat. You can live with cancer, just not too much cancer. We learn these things from the Mosaic Law. Someone called Bob for Saturday Night at the Movies and asked when does the service start.
  - 2) 1Cor. 10:11–12 written for our example and instruction. We don't tithe, we do not have a specialized priesthood.
  - 3) The Mosaic Law convinces that the unbeliever is a sinner. Rom. 3:20 Gal. 2:16 Rom. 3:28
  - 4) Pattern and policy for good government. We can look at the Mosaic Law and tell that our system of taxation is wrong; and worse in England. Everyone in the Old Testament tithed the same amount. The only way to stimulate the economy is to all pay the same thing. It is immoral and criminal to charge someone 90%. The Word of God says that is immoral, criminal and wrong. This does not mean that we get to dodge these taxes.
  - 5) Universal military training is another thing we ought to have. The time will come when we will not squeak through, as we did in WWII. Many idiots became generals then.

- 6) The IRS makes you guilty first, and you can prove you are innocent. And if you are guilty to begin with, then you will have to pay first, and prove your innocence at a later time.

14. The abrogation of the Law does not mean that it is bad.

Remainder of notes on the Mosaic Law from the internet:

2. Vocabulary used to describe the contents of the Law.

1. tyrlB.-ta,, berith: covenant (contract), Ex.19:5; 24:18.

2. tr;AT, torah: law:

3. hw"c.Mi, mitswah: commandment (authority).

4. qxo, choq: statute (boundaries).

5. td'[e, edah: testimony (witness), Deut.6:17 "You should diligently keep the commandments of the LORD your God, and His testimonies and His statutes which He has commanded you."

6. jP'v.Mi, mishpat: judgment/ordinance (ruling), Deut.6:1 "Now this is the commandment, the statutes and the judgments which the LORD your God has commanded me to teach you, that you might do them in the land where you are going over to possess it."

7. Cursing would pursue and overtake Israel for disobedience, Deut.28:15 "But it shall come about, if you will not obey the LORD your God, to observe to do all His commandments and His statutes with which I charge you today, that all these curses shall come upon you and overtake you."

1. Cursing upon the people in the land is seen in Lev.26:14-32; Deut.28:16-62.

2. Continued failure to repent resulted in Israel being removed from the land of promise and dispersed among the peoples, Lev.26:33; Deut.28:63,64.

3. Israel would find no permanent rest among the nations, Lev.26:38,39; Deut.28:65,68.

4. Restoration to the land was promised to dispersed Israel if there was reversion recovery, Lev.26:40-45; Deut.30:1-10.

8. The Law is summarized by two great commandments, Mt.22:34-40.

1. The first is to love God, Deut.6:16.

2. The second is to love your neighbor, Lev.19:18b.

9. The Law was never intended as an instrument of salvation, Gal.2:16.

1. For God to give man E.L. via Law, man would have to be perfect (cf. Rom.10:5), but the ISTA precludes this (Rom.8:3).

2. If there were a system of works that could confer E.L., then salvation would have been by Law, Gal.3:21.

3. But remember that, in order to gain the highest reward of all, immortality, man must have +R (God, who is +R, can only impart His life to that which is +R).

4. And since all men are sinners by birth and practice (Rom.3:23), all are born under the curse of the Law, which is our hopelessness in producing +R for E.L. (cf. Gal.3:10-12).

5. And until saving faith came, we were all in the spiritual prison of sin and death, Gal.3:23.

6. For positive volition, the Law acts as a tutor to bring us to Christ, Gal.3:24,25; 4:13.

7. The words "under Law" are used in the following ways in the N.T.:

1. Of all mankind in the presalvation state, Rom.3:19; Gal.3:23; 4:5.

2. Of Jews related to the age of Israel, Gal.4:4; 1Cor.9:20,21.

3. Of legalistic believers who put themselves "under Law" for salvation and spirituality, Gal.4:21.

4. Of the fact Church Age (CA) believers are not "under Law" for salvation or spirituality, Rom.6:14,15; Gal.5:18.

8. Abraham was declared justified/saved under the Abrahamic Covenant before he was circumcised (Rom.4:9,12), and 430 years before the giving of the Mosaic Covenant (Gal.3:17).

9. And David, who lived under the Law, was likewise justified by faith and not by Law, Rom 4:6.

10. Jews who try to establish righteousness by Law before God fail to do so, Rom.9:31; 10:3.

11. Paul, a strict Jew, ceased to look to the Law for +R, Phil.3:5-9.

12. Christ is the grace source of +R to all who believe,

11. The present purpose of the Law for the CA believer.

1. Is dead to the Law as requiring +R, Gal.2:19; cp. Rom.7:16; 10:4.

2. Stirs up the believer's STA, Rom.7:7ff.

3. A distinction must be maintained between the "lawful" and unlawful use of the Law in the CA, cf. 1Cor.9:8; 1Tim.1:6-10.

4. Declares the person and work of Jesus Christ by typology, Heb. 10:1ff.

5. It teaches divine establishment principles, 1Tim.1:8-10.

6. By walking by the Spirit, we keep the +R of the Law, Rom.8:4; Gal.5:18.

7. We are not lawless; we are under "the law of Christ" (1Cor.9:21; Gal.6:2), which demands application towards others (Rom.13:8,10; Gal.5:14,23).

12. The proper teaching of the Mosaic Law in the Church Age must:

1. Differentiate between the Law's temporary aspect (like circumcision, Sabbath keeping, tithing, dietary laws, animal sacrifices, etc.) and its permanent aspect (definition of sin, etc.).

2. Demonstrate its limitations and abuses (legalism: Gal.5:12; and antinomianism: Gal.5:13).

3. Illustrate the relationship between shadow and reality, cf. Heb.9:22.

4. Demonstrate divine establishment principles.

5. Point out the unfavorable reaction it arouses in many, cf. Rom.5:20.

6. Emphasize that we are "under grace", not Law, Rom.6:15.

Doctrine of the Covenants to Israel

1. The Hebrew word bereth and the Greek diathêkê is one party rendering an agreement with another party. Neither of the Biblical words refer to a will or a testament, although it is translated by these words. In modern language, it ought to be the New Contract and the Old Contract. The will or testament comes from a person dying or anticipating their dying; however, God does not die. So it is blasphemy to assert that God can die. Our Lord's physical death is not the basis of the Old or New Covenants. It is blasphemy to suggest that God needed to leave behind a will or a testament because God cannot die. And we cannot get rid of one another; we will spend eternity forever in a resurrection body. Bob thinks that we will enjoy 68 degrees in heaven. God has a contract and party of the first part must be alive in order for this contract or covenant to remain valid. The party of the 2nd part are believers in Jesus Christ. Party of the 2nd part is the beneficiary of the contract without earning it. Adamic and Noahic Covenants. In the Millennium, the new covenant to Israel. There is no such thing as a conditional and unconditional covenant. Bob use to teach it that way because he was taught that way. Walvoord said that the Mosaic Law was conditional covenant. Someone else did as well. But the laws of divine establishment are always conditional. If you obey them, you automatically get blessed. Divine establishment has conditions; but the Protasis of the Davidic Covenant has conditions. There is no real difference between conditions. Eternal things have no conditions; temporal things have conditions. Orthodox theology always uses this old outmoded classification. All covenants to Israel are gracious promises. Party of the 2nd part is undeserving. Conditions are connected to temporal blessings. Nations which despise the military will always go down. A nation with fair taxation and free enterprise will be blessed; a highly regulated economy with unfair taxation will take a dive. Once you take guns away from law-abiding citizens, crime increases; so this is a condition. The laws of divine establishment always have temporal blessing written on them. Adhering to establishment as a national policy or as a personal policy.
2. The general classification of the covenants to Israel:
  - a. Abrahamic

- b. Palestinian
  - c. Mosaic
  - d. Davidic
  - e. New Covenant
  - f. All fulfilled in the Millennium except the Mosaic Law. The Age of Israel was interrupted, so these others could not be fulfilled.
  - g. Scofield has summarized covenants very well, but the classification obscures them.
3. 5 Messianic Covenants: guarantee, coming,
- a. Adamic covenant of Gen. 2;15 3:15 the Seed of the Woman will not be an angel. He will not be half angel.
  - b. The Noachic covenant: the Seed of the Woman will come through the line of Noah, and through the line of Seth. There are Arabs, Syrians and Assyrians, and Chaldeans and Jews as well who are descended from Seth.
  - c. The Abrahamic Covenant. The Messiah will come from the line of Abrahamic descent. He is the father of at least 6 Arabic groups, 5 sons through Ketera, little Egypt.
  - d. Davidic Covenant the Messiah will come from David.
  - e. The New Covenant is, Jesus will return to the earth and reign forever. The New Covenant handles the 2nd advent whereas the Davidic Covenant covered the 1st advent. The crown is found in the Davidic Covenant. The crown is postponed. All of this is the real covenant theology.
4. Abrahamic Covenant: God makes a favorable disposition to party of the 2nd part, who is Abraham. Only one nation through which Messiah will come. There is the promise of a Jewish race and a Jewish nation. God as party of the 1st part guarantees that Abram will be the line of blessing. God promised Abraham some real estate. God told Abraham once Lot took off for the Dead Sea area (which was a really nice place then). As long as Satan is the ruler of this world, Israel will never occupy that particular place; but as soon as he is removed, they will take over this huge portion of land. "Is there a Jew in Texas? That means that Satan is not doing too well. Anti-Semitism is one of the great evils in the world today. God has warned us against it. Julius Cæsar was very pro-Semitic. Assyrians and Chaldeans became anti-Semitic and they were destroyed.
5. The Covenant of Moses, which is the protasis for this portion of the Davidic Covenant. The Mosaic Law is the constitution of Israel and the nation of Israel is the recipient of this covenant.
- a. Codex I the commandments, the freedom heritage and the greatest definition of freedom.
  - b. Codex 2 is the Christology.
  - c. Codex 3 are the judgments, which is the great political code.
6. The Palestinian Covenant is not the best nomenclature; this should have been called the real estate covenant. This is a huge piece of real estate more than what David ruled over. Israel's seize reached a peak under David's time. Iraq, Saudi Arabia, Syria, all the way down to the Nile River. The peak of Israel's expansion is insignificant to what Israel will have in the future.

The only way you take land now is on the battlefield. Bob thinks we should hold onto any land that we take in war; and we should have taken and kept Okinawa. There was land that we occupy now that we cheated the Indians out of; and we took it by force. The Indians cannot claim it because we fought for it and took it. Their minds were too simple to understand city politics. The worst cheats. We still don't know what to do with the Indians who are left. We have enough guilt complex left to shuffle the Indians from post to post. Most conquering nations absorb the conquered people into their population. The only Indians who only benefitted were those who lived in Oklahoma. It was considered a nothing land. There were all of these salt domes. Sometimes, they were on mines. We got soft and don't know how to handle it. This land used to belong to the Indians, then to the Mexicans, then to us. Now half of our schools teach in Mexican; who won the state of Texas. If there is any doubt about some section, then we go take it. We don't have clean hands. The worst form of legalism is political legalism. We pamper the Indians, and they get Chaicom guns and go to Wounded Knee. France, England, Austria and all the islands in the Pacific belong to us. We bailed them all out. MacArthur bailed out Australia. We stopped being Americans, when we wanted something, we should just take it. The real estate system today is, you take the land and kill those who oppose you. This is why Communists rule over more land than anywhere else. No matter how sweet and strong a nation is, they got that way by taking it away from someone else. California was taken by the Mexicans.

There are still Gallic tribes, when the Saxons came over the walls, they pushed them back. Title companies can issue title insurance because we killed Indians, Mexicans, French and all kinds of people.

6. The real estate covenant. Bob would like to see Israel conquer all of those countries. He'd like to see them move into Egypt. When God gives them the land, He will hand it to them. Until then, like all nations, what you can conquer, you can have. Bob cannot wait for 1976 for our 200th birthday. The Pilgrims were friends with the Indians? Where are the Indians in Massachusetts? Pilgrims are still there.
7. The covenant of David, Psalm 89, God makes a gracious disposition to David. A personal covenant to a supergrace believer. His dynasty will rule over Israel; and then the same dynasty will rule over the world. Our country; we just whipped everything that was here. The only thing which whipped us in Texas was the prairie dog, and Bob thinks they are okay. You will hear more guff to assuage a national guilt complex by libs next years and history will be distorted. We were tough and hard-nosed and we fought and killed and took their land and said, "This is our land now." In Arizona, in the old days, they used dead Indians to mark their property lines. There will probably be some Indian up in the White House. They might even give them back a piece of land, if they can find a rotten enough piece of land to give them. This is a grace covenant. No one will ever rule on the throne of Israel except a man from David. The crown will belong to one family. When there is discipline, there might not be someone on the throne. The Davidic monarchy was perpetuated for 400 years. The first Adam and the last Adam; and the Davidic Covenant is fulfilled by the Last Adam.

8. The covenant to Jeremiah which is called the New Covenant to Israel.
9. The New Covenant to the church, which is about Israel's dispersion. 2 covenants are involved here: the Mosaic Law and the Davidic Covenant:

Psalm 89:30 If his sons forsake My law [= Torah] and do not walk according to my judgments,

Psalm 89:31 if they violate my statutes and do not keep my commandments,

Psalm 89:32 then I will punish their transgression with the rod and their iniquity with stripes,

Psalm 89:32 then I will punish their transgression with the rod and their iniquity with stripes [disasters],

5th Cycle of Discipline

1. The cycles of discipline are principles of divine discipline. Evil is a part of the reason for this as well. Divine punitive action against Israel is divided into 5 cycles. Lev. 26 describes these cycles Lev. 26:1–17, 18-20, 21-22, 23-26, 27-46 Deut. 28;49-67
2. 5th cycle of discipline applied to the northern kingdom. This psalm was written during the 5th year of Rehoboam. Jeroboam, the leader of the revolution became the first king, moved the capital around Shechem and 2 other places; Omri made a final establishment of capital. There was great jealousy in the north as well as incompetence on the part of Rehoboam. Rehoboam was young and stupid and under the influence of evil. Tremendous jealousy in Ephraim. A future prophecy but it states the jealousy factor.
3. Saul was a very moral man; monogamous; great pr image with the people. He was influenced by evil. Sin can be handled by rebound but evil requires more. David is the believer with the greatest SG3 paragraph. He is blessed all the days of his life. He was the richest man in the world and next to him was Hiram King of Tyre.

Queen of Sheba in the next generation was #3. Doctrine was David's life. He had dying grace. For all eternity, his Son, Jesus Christ, will reign. When evil begins to influence a nation, that nation faces the fifth cycle of discipline.

4. These are not 10 lost tribes. Those in the north interested in doctrine moved south to get it. Only apostasy this was left behind and this occurred for 17 generations. When the remaining ones were deported, they went to Assyria, not to Britain. British-Israelism is ludicrous. The 10 tribes were in revolution and their jealousy had them away from recovery. They were under the evil of revolution. Jealousy is the source of psychotic illnesses. Prov. 14:30 motivates revenge, it is blasphemous and it takes real or apparent wrongs out of God's hands; jealousy destroys capacity for life (SOS 8:6); cause Joseph to be sold into slavery. 1Tim. 6:4 jealousy infusing the soul. This sin so closely linked to evil and Num. 5 deals with this particular sin.
5. God raised up 4 great men to warn the northern kingdom (although there were never any good kings on the throne there). God raised up Elijah, Elisha, Amos and Hosea. They were all unusual men. Hosea is a very neglected book with a phenomenal message. There was a spiritual revival under these men and many people grew spiritually under their ministries. 2Kings 17 Isa. 28:1–13 is the prophetic part of it. 1Chron. 9:3 part of the lost tribes went into the southern kingdom. There are no 10 lost tribes. Samaria became a beautiful city begun under Shalmanezar V and finished by Sennacherib. It was on a hill and well-fortified. Hosea describes what is going on in Hosea 4:1–6. Evil is Satan's policy on this earth. Various things like socialism and religion and unions and government interference with economy. Evil is the great enemy of the believer. Do not be afraid of the one who destroys the soul; and the soul is destroyed by evil. The results of evil are degeneracy. This is a great passage on degeneracy. Hosea 4:1–6 Sons of Israel, hear the Word of Jehovah, for Jehovah has a quarrel with those living in the land; for there is no truth, and no mercy, and no knowledge of God in the land. Swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and the committing of adultery increase. And blood touches against blood. On account of this the land shall mourn, and every one living in it shall droop, with the beasts of the field and the birds of the heaven; yes, also the fish of the sea shall be removed. Yet let not a man strive with nor reprove a man [don't be critical and judge another]. For your people are as a priest striven with. And you shall stumble [you will be unstable] in the day, and the prophet also shall stumble [will be unstable] with you at night, and I will cut off your mother. My people are cut off for lack of knowledge [of doctrine]. Because you rejected the knowledge, I also rejected you from being priest to Me. Since you have forgotten the Law of your God, I will forget your sons, even I. Bob is a slave and "You cannot beat slavery" and he considers it the best of all situations. There are many times Bob would like to fly the hell out of here, but he doesn't. People always want their freedom and they get all these ideas about what freedom is and how great it will be. The true concept of freedom is found in the Ten Commandments. There are good animals like Balderdash and bad animals, like that little yippy thing the Catholic down the street owns." Sex is one of many manifestations of what is in the soul. Today, there is sex without the soul and that is evil. Bob's idea of fishing is shooting a shark with a .38, which he has done; or blowing up a stream. The fish analogy here is the fantastic varieties of evil which exist in a nation. The birds represent a desire to be free.

6. First administration of the fifth cycle of discipline in 586 B.C. to the southern kingdom. Sargon II took the northern kingdom and then Nebuchadnezzar took the southern kingdom. Jer. 7:24–29 gives the reason for the destruction of the southern kingdom: But they did not listen nor bow their ear. But they walked in their own plans, in the stubbornness of their evil heart, and went backward and not forward. Since the day that your fathers came out of the land of Egypt until this day, I have even sent to you all My servants, the prophets, daily rising up early and sending. Yet they did not listen to Me nor bow their ear, but they stiffened their neck. They did more evil than their fathers. And you shall speak all these Words to them, but they will not listen to you. And you will call to them, but they will not answer you. In the message of the linen girdle, Jeremiah buried a girdle, and then had to get it and put it on after it was messed up. The girdle is Israel. Jer. 2:27 3:9 17:1–4 70 years out for the southern kingdom and this was because they missed their Sabbatical year 70 times, so they spent 70 years out of the land; that was the administration of the fifth cycle of discipline. Babylon was the capitol of Chaldea, but it was a Chaldean-administered fifth cycle. They went out again 70 A.D. When the royal family is called out, they go up. Because of that, the Jews are out. The nation Israel is a nation like any nation. They grab a piece of ground and they hold it, and that makes it theirs. Almost everything we have belonged to the Indians, made treaties with them and broke them, shoved them into barren territories, and then pushed them off when oil was discovered. We made friends with him, teaching him the white man's way, and then putting him in the hands of the government the worst thing to do to anyone. Bob is all in favor of Israel and driving the Arabs into the seas; but this is not Biblical. He is also in favor of the Rhodesians conquering southern Africa. Those around them are generally not establishment types. Jews in the land is not some great fulfillment.

Chesed in the Hebrew means grace. Parar + lo = to make void, to abrogate in the Hiphil. Since grace is not doing, there is no way of not doing. You have to do the sin and be shocked by the sin, and then you call it the unpardonable sin. All you have done is demonstrate how fatheaded you are. Salvation is by grace; if you get something by not doing, then you cannot lose it by doing. David cannot void grace because he did nothing to get grace. Grace is always non-meritorious. Grace is you doing nothing. You cannot void doing nothing. We are the recipients of grace. All the grace contracts read, we do nothing. We can only confuse the contract by doing nothing. There are many beautiful ways of doing nothing. This way, we stay within the framework of grace. In a contract where you do nothing cannot be voided by you doing something.

Shaqar means to violate. God is immutable. God is not self-destructing; He is not unstable. Jesus Christ is the same forever. He is always the same. As God, he cannot cancel anything; He cannot change His mind about us.

Conclusions of Psalm 89:33

1. This verse applies to any of David's progeny. Divine discipline of David's progeny does not void the Davidic Covenant.
2. Sin unto death does not cancel a believer's salvation. The application is, we cannot lose our salvation.
3. No matter how severe the discipline, this does not remove salvation nor does it void the Davidic Covenant. God never loses His honor or His integrity.
4. The failure of man does not cancel the grace of God. V. 34 This reinforces v. 33.

Psalm 89:33 but I will not remove from him [but, with regard to him, I will not void My grace] My steadfast love [= grace] or be false to My faithfulness.

Conclusions of Psalm 89:33

1. Grace promises depend upon God's character, not upon the character of God.
2. Arrogant to think our character can change God's character or contract.
3. God's character is immutable and does not change.
4. He cannot lie or welsch on an obligation.
5. Grace has found a way to deal with sinful man and to bless sinful man, without depending upon anything man can do.
6. Legalism is flattery; spiritual obsequiousness. Sycophantic adulation. Man tries to impress God by tithing. That is blasphemy.
7. Human works are used as a tool of flattery. He is interested in what His grace produces in us.
8. Grace depends upon God and glorifies God. God's plan goes on with or without us. Through doctrine in the soul, we can go along with the ride.

Psalm 89:34 I will not violate my covenant or alter the word that went forth from my lips.

Failure on the part of man cannot change the integrity of God.

Psalm 89:35 Once for all I have sworn by my holiness; I will not lie to David.

Every time you see the sun coming over the horizon, you can equally depend upon the Davidic Covenant.

Psalm 89:36 His offspring shall endure forever, his throne as long as the sun before me.

Psalm 89:37 Like the moon it [he (reference to Jesus Christ)] shall be established forever, a faithful witness in the skies." Selah

The rest of this deals with David's grandson Rehoboam. The failure of Rehoboam does not invalidate the Davidic Covenant.

3 personal and 4 national postulates:

1. There are no advantages to the advantages without the advantage. Justice can only provide blessing for that which is perfect. The capacity comes from spiritual growth. When you get direct blessing from God, you get the capacity first then the blessing.
2. If you have the advantage (the integrity of God) then you have the advantages.
3. Without the advantage, there are no advantages.
4. No nation can have the advantages without the advantage. The only way a national entity can have a relationship with the integrity of God is having a large pivot. There is no such thing as a Christian nation. A large pivot of those believers who have cracked the maturity barrier and have made maturity adjustment to the justice of God.
5. A nation without the advantage loses the advantages.
6. No nation can recover its advantages without the advantage. Only one way for a nation to come back from.
7. Loss of both advantage and advantages removes that nation from history.

A young man in Oklahoma studied the U.S. in prophecy, I think from Berachah. He says the United States will be nuked and burned out in the United States. However, who could identify it, if the rapture occurs 1000 years from now. We are in grave danger as a nation. Right now, nations all over the world are pouring their money into the United States. All over the world, people are putting their money into the US, as it is the last stand for free enterprise. Our free enterprise keeps the communists going. Herbert Hoover fed the starving communists. The communists will destroy free enterprise when they have the ability to. It is inevitable that they will destroy anything which is greater than they are.

The dumbest people in the US are bureaucrats in some government office. One of the recent insanities is there is some endangered species law and it is shutting down building in Sharpstown.

We now have a hierarchy of ignorance which is almost beyond conception. Eisenhower Marshall clique was filled with incompetents. They only used Patton and MacArthur when they were in a jam. Montgomery was a Christian Scientist and he will be in hell soon. No limey should command an American unit. Bob goes on about the military for awhile. Brought under the power of petty individuals of evil.

Abraham Lincoln violated the constitution and FDR violated the constitution. Calvin Coolidge didn't do anything, which makes him one of the better president. Better to do nothing.

The art of doing nothing is the art of leadership. If you think you could live the life that you now lead without the military, you are hopelessly naive or incredibly stupid. Put that in your peace pipe and smoke it; or shove it up your dove. People cannot figure out the difference between politicians who start wars and the military which actually fights them.

We will study the prosperity of David, but we have to introduce the subject, which is going to take a few nights.

We are hopeless and helpless and useless and never have we needed more the relationship that we have with God. We need it clearly in mind as we face the disasters coming.

We have no contact with the sovereignty of God, as Calvinists thing. God always had the attribute of God's love. It only has 2 places to go—to the other members of the Trinity or Himself.

There is the anthropathism of love, as is found in John 3:16; He does not love the world; He cannot love the world. Since we are imperfect, God does not love our personalities, any part of us which is attractive, etc. God loves His integrity, righteousness and justice. Our point of contact with God is always His justice; His love has nothing to do with it.

God the Father loves God the Son with an infinite amount of love. When dealing with His creatures, God's love is not His point of contact. Only His justice is the issue. Righteousness demands righteousness. What the righteousness of God demands, the justice of God executes. The righteousness of God judged our sins on the cross. We make instant adjustment to the justice of God when we believe in Jesus Christ.

Logically, the justice of God, once we believe in Christ, is not free to give us the righteousness of God. We first need the righteousness of God and then God pours the other 35 blessings at salvation. Logically it follows in that order. When God gives us +R, we are called justified. We have something by which God can bless us. The righteousness of God is the foundation for all blessing now and in eternity.

Justification is the best name for salvation. God can only bless those who have perfection. David had this cup. That is the potential.

The other problem is, we still sin, and these are sins paid for on the cross. These sins keep us from being filled by the Spirit. But we can name that sin, and God forgives us temporarily. God is only impressed by God; He is not impressed with us. If you had your choice of everything in the Bible, then you need to choose righteousness.

Potential + capacity = blessing.

Third adjustment to the justice of God is spiritual maturity. Production is the result of thought. And it is thought which is the basis of our growth.

Most fundies lose out when it comes to rebound; they want to help God when they name their sins.

Isa. 30:18 Therefore the Lord waits to be gracious to you. God pours out blessing from His justice, so He waits for us to gain the capacity.

All blessing and all discipline comes from the justice of God. Justice is ½ of God's integrity. Prov. 1:3 To receive doctrinal instruction of prosperity justice or judgment; blessing or cursing, but always from God's righteousness.

Eccles. 9:13 This wisdom I saw also under the sun, and it is great to me:

This is an illustration of a historical disaster. Everyone went out and died. They would fall back and regroup, and they are about to be taken out with a siege. Sloppy military training in peace means large casualties in war.

Eccles. 9:14 There was a little city, and few men in it. And a great king came against it, and besieged it, and built huge siege works against it.

What was found in this city was a poor wise man. Sakan means to prosper and it also means poor. He is an unknown person, but he is prosperous insofar as God is concerned. He is called a poor man of wisdom. He had maximum adjustment to the justice of God. He delivered the city by his wisdom. He was God's man of the hour and he delivered the city in an historical crisis. No one remembers him; no one honors him.

Honorable people remember, but here, no one does.

Eccles. 9:15 And there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom saved the city. Yet no man remembered that poor man!

Doctrine is better than power! For a moment, this man had power; he commanded the army and delivered the people. He fought for the people and the people forget him. He pulled together a scratch army and delivered the people, and they never appreciated it. Solomon got it. When you take in doctrine, you do not do it to get your RM/RW or to be a millionaire or to be successful or great. Doctrine is taken in for one reason; you take it in for the God.

People are generally not appreciative; but smart people are. Good people don't care whether you appreciate it or not. You do what is right.

Without doctrine, power is tyranny. Once the historical crisis is over, people no longer appreciate the doctrine or the military.

Eccles. 9:16 And I said, Wisdom is better than strength [power]; but the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.

The words of the wise is better than the shoutings of a ruler among fools.

Eccles. 9:17 The words [doctrines] of wise men are heard in quiet, more than the cry [shouting] of one who rules among fools.

Eccles. 9:18 Wisdom is better than weapons of conflict; but one sinner destroys much good.

Evil foolishness is found in many places. Rich men are those who have used great courage, honor, integrity, and have taken responsibility for payrolls.

Eccles. 10:1 As dead flies cause the perfumer's ointment to stink and ferment; so a little foolishness is heavier than wisdom and than honor.

Eccles. 10:2 The heart of the wise is toward his right, but the fool's heart toward his left.

Eccles. 10:3 And also, in the way in which a stupid one walks, his heart fails, and he says to all that he is a fool.

Eccles. 10:4 If the spirit of the ruler rises up against you, do not leave your place; for composure quiets great offenses.

Eccles. 10:5 There is an evil I have seen under the sun, sins which come from the face of the ruler:

Eccles. 10:6 folly is set in many high positions, and many rich men sit in low situations.

This final verse describes our country today.

Eccles. 10:7 I have seen slaves on horses, and rulers walking as slaves on the earth.

Eccles. 10

631_0198

The uncertainties of life are not always apparent to people. People often wait until they are in a jam before they are concerned about what God plans for their life.

The president, who has no integrity himself, and we are headed for a national disaster. Malandurn organizations trying to cancel out organizations that do not please them. Even with half a brain, you can recognize a threatening disaster. Only those who understand the integrity of God will be able to deal with this coming disaster. We have no relationship with the love of God. Mostly it is love<sup>2</sup> that we read about in the Bible; ascribing to God human love which He does not possess. Nearly everyone thinks they understand human love, but few do.

Many a smiling pastor will make something out of God loves a cheerful giver. Everyone in the cosmic system understands a cheerful giver. This is a human love which God does not necessarily possess.

God loving Jacob is love<sup>2</sup>; but he hated Esau. This is hate as an anthropathism. Hatred is a sin and if hatred is ascribed to God, it is obvious that he does not sin. His integrity prohibits Him from having anything to do with sin. God does not hate, but He is said to hate on numerous occasions.

We can understand hatred. We also understand jealousy, and the Bible says, God is a jealous God.

God knows everything, so He cannot change His mind, even though the Bible says that God repents. You can be very smart about a number of things, and still be confused about God.

God's love is only directed toward the other members of the Trinity and toward His Own holiness. Holiness has a bad connotation to normal people and a good one to abnormal people.

Love<sup>1</sup> goes in two directions: toward the righteousness of God and the justice of God. Righteousness of God is the principle of His integrity and the justice of God is His function. Even though the Lord Jesus Christ was loved by God with an infinite love, God the Father still judged Him for our sins. We should be thankful every day of our lives that our relationship with God is based upon His righteousness and justice and not upon love.

All Members of the Trinity love One Another and it is a total and complete love. Believing in Jesus Christ is an instant adjustment to the justice of God. Justice of God must condemn anything which is not perfect. It judges sin, evil and good. A person thinks he is a conservative and goes to the Methodist church, which is a liberal church. He is really not a conservative because he needs to relate to the justice of God. He thinks doing kindness to the downtrodden and getting the downtrodden into girl scout camps and boy scout camps; but the justice of God rejects evil and sin and everything which emanates from man. If the justice of God accepts anything which is not perfect, how do we get anything from the justice of God? The first thing that the justice of God gives us is His righteousness, which is our cup; the holy grail if you will. God has the right to bless us because He has given us something of Himself as He is perfect. The concept is simple; we are blessed by God because we have His righteousness.

We began in the 9th chapter and moved into the 10th. Dead flies are reversionist politicians. Dead flies cause a stench. This goes back to the postulates of integrity, which are repeated.

Dead flies are politicians under the influence of evil. No nation can recover its advantages without the advantage.

Eccles. 10:1 As dead flies cause the perfumer's ointment to stink and ferment; so a little foolishness is heavier than wisdom and than honor.

The first half is adjustment to the justice of God and the second is maladjusted to the justice of God.

Eccles. 10:2 The heart of the wise is toward his right, but the fool's heart toward his left.

Eccles. 10:3 And also, in the way in which a stupid one walks, his heart fails, and he says to all that he is a fool.

Do not be forced into reversionism by tyranny.

Eccles. 10:4 If the spirit of the ruler rises up against you, do not leave your place; for composure quiets great offenses.

Eccles. 10:5 There is an evil I have seen under the sun, sins which come from the face of the ruler:

Eccles. 10:6 folly is set in many high positions, and many rich men sit in low situations.

This is the welfare state.

Eccles. 10:7 I have seen slaves on horses, and rulers walking as slaves on the earth.

The wall represents the privacy of an individual. A home will have walls made of mud, and sometimes when one dug through a wall, there would be a cobra living in the wall, keeping down the rat population.

People who are maladjusted have a tendency to set up their own self righteousness.

Eccles. 10:8 He who digs a pit may fall into it; and one breaking a wall, a snake may bite him.

The stone here might crush you. This is being involved in a conspiracy against authority. When you are splitting a love of God, you may get a splinter. Same idea.

Eccles. 10:9 Whoever pulls out stones may be hurt with them; he who splits trees may be endangered by them.

The dull ax is one who lacks doctrine for the historical crisis. Sharpening the edge is the intake of doctrine and spiritual growth.

Eccles. 10:10 If the iron is blunt, and he does not whet the mouths, then he must put more strength to it. But wisdom [doctrine] is an advantage giving success.

This is a conspiracy backfiring on the conspirator. A rattlesnake goes for the heat, but a cobra just strikes in one way. The vibrations on the ground seem to charm the snake.

Eccles. 10:11 If the snake will bite without charming, then there is no advantage to a master of tongue.

This emphasizes the principle of gossip. The lips of a fool swallows him up; not the wise man but the fool.

Eccles. 10:12 The words of a wise mouth are grace, but the lips of a stupid one swallow him; another point of introduction is the concept of the priest nation.

Priest Nation

1. A priest nation is a national entity under divine institution #4. It is responsible for the custodianship of Bible doctrine. There had to be written doctrine in order for there to be a priest nation. So the first priest nation is Israel. From that come other responsibilities; they are responsible to evangelize at home and abroad. They are responsible to teach Bible doctrine through pastors and other nations through evangelists. A priest nation is also a haven for the Jews whenever they are out under the fifth cycle of discipline. Before Israel, there was no such thing as a priest nation.
2. The most important priest nation is Israel. Ex. 19:6 you will be to Me a kingdom of priests, a nation of mature believers. This is the entire Jewish nation. They had a specialized priesthood, but this was more.
3. Negative volition toward doctrine destroys a priest nation. Hosea 4:6 I will reject you from being a priest to Me. From the time of Moses to the time of Solomon, there was the UN of Israel. That was one priest nation. After Solomon, the nation was split. When Israel was destroyed, the time of the Gentiles began. This ended the priest nation status of Israel. In the time of the Gentiles, only gentile nations can be priest nations. The Tribulation, since the rapture takes all believers off the earth, there can be no priest nation for the last 7 years because there is no pivot. The responsibility goes to the Jews scattered throughout the earth. This is the 144,000 Jews. The United States is a priest nation, but we are about to lose that. Isa. 49:5 the restoration of the priest nation (to bring Jacob back to Me...my God will be my strength). Kings will see and come to attention. Who has chosen you? At the right time, I have answered you. God will cause them to inherit the desolate places.
4. The pivot is the mature believer. Maturity is what gains rewards in eternity. The size of the pivot during an historical disaster determine whether the nation survives.

Large pivot, small spinoff, the nation survives. A small pivot, and we go down. We have the option of becoming a part of the pivot or not. It is the pivot that determines the relationship or not. Right now, we appear to have no relationship with the justice of God because we have all these politicians attempting to solve problems apart from the integrity of God. You cannot solve social problems apart from the integrity of God. You cannot pass laws to make Bob nice to someone or to sell his house to someone. Our government is passing laws which destroy our privacy. A census intrudes upon the privacy of an individual. Criminals have no right to privacy, as they are criminals and they have rejected their rights. Law-abiding citizens have a right to own anything which is dangerous; electric fans, blondes and guns. You cannot tolerate tyranny at all. And why do we have this tyranny and people shutting down million dollar businesses? When you try to solve social and political problems with legislation, it cannot be done. You need to conform to the integrity of God. Life is filled with evil and evils are racing to see which will destroy us first. They have done the one unpardonable sin...they have ignored the integrity of God. A nation without the advantage loses its advantages. A loss of the advantage destroys a nation. Historical disaster always separates the adjusted from the maladjusted.

5. Israel was the first priest nation. However, during the times of the Gentiles, the Jews cannot be a priest nation. Foreigners will come into Israel to do work. You will be called the priests of Jehovah. Therefore, the Jews will possess a double portion in the land and everlasting happiness will be theirs, for I Jehovah love justice. The justice of God is much better than love. You can take all of the love you want; Bob will take the justice of God. When you make contact with the justice of God, you come under the love of God. A lot of you women are dumb about men; 1 woman out of a 1000 is smart about men, and I don't think she is here. When a woman gets smart about a man, when he says, "I love you" does he have integrity? True love starts in the soul with integrity. Anyone can say I love you. It rolls off the lips easily. People with integrity are not running loose. We do not have to live in a period of prosperity in order to be blessed by God. Shamgar was in Israel during the time of the sea peoples, and a great period of disaster for much of that part of the world. And when they moved across the water to Egypt, and these people and the Mycenaean groups. All of this movement and war. The Philistines are Mycenaean Greeks. Shamgar had maturity adjustment to the justice of God.
6. The United States is a priest nation also known as a client nation. We are a haven for Israel and we have sent out missionaries.

We will complete the introduction tomorrow night.

Romans 5:1

631_0199

1977 4th of July Conference The Interlude of Blessing

We are studying the prosperity of David. 4th of July Conference.

A few announcement. Only allow authorized personal to deal with problems. Apparently there was a problem in the reversionism recovery room. Tapers out of tape room before class starts. "We will try to cater to everything except country western." On Sunday morning Paul Stark will play the organ and he does a fantastic thing with Bach; sermon won't be much, but the music will be good. A lot of different hours to keep everyone on their toes.

A client nation has a large pivot and can survive any disaster; a large pivot has a small spinoff. However, a small pivot and a large spinoff often means that nation will go down. We have had evangelism here and abroad; teaching Bible doctrine. We have understood freedom until relatively recent times. Many of our presidents have violated our constitution. You do not solve the problems of a nation by printing money. You do not solve the problems of a nation by going soft on communism or crime. You cannot solve social problems or political problems apart from the integrity of God. This has been distorted today.

Our point of contact is the justice of God. When the justice of God provided us righteousness at salvation, that was the beginning of our qualification for blessings. God's grace must be directed toward that which is perfect; so He can bless us because of the justice of God. It would be impossible for the justice of God to bless us without the righteousness of God.

Appropriate to examine a few verses in Romans. We are commanded to be prosperous. Potential + capacity = reality. Reality is maturity adjustment to the justice of God.

Begins with ouv. Inferential particle. What is now introduced is a conclusion from the previous 2 chapters. Aorist passive participle of δικαιωω. This means we are qualified for blessing. We are made righteous or justified. We receive 36 things at salvation, but the first thing which we get is God's righteousness.

Integrity of God = His justice and righteousness. Righteousness of God and justice of God are the issues. The true love of God only goes toward His righteousness and His justice. The judging of our sins on the cross by the justice of God. Our possession of our righteousness is the only basis for any blessing at any time. With faith in Christ, we are justified. He then calls us vindicated or justified. Bob assumes that this has happened with everyone there tonite.

The main verb is the subject for this 4th of July weekend. Εκ + πιστις. Faith is the source of salvation. There is no other way to have eternal salvation.

The word peace is the accusative singular direct object of ειρηνη and this means prosperity, harmony. This is not an attitude or a relationship between people. In the Greek, this is an interlude of blessing in life. We will render this an interlude of blessing. We are facing historical disaster, which makes this all the more interesting. This interlude of blessing, phase II, is the basis for reward and blessings in phase III. Some of us will have the alpha cross, the bravo cross or the ultra cross. There will be fantastic blessings in eternity. The worst saved person who fouls up the Christian life the most still gets the resurrection body minus the old sin nature minus human good. All of us will have that, no matter how you fail in this life. If Bob could tell that you would be embarrassed, he would use it as a club. There will be no embarrassment in heaven and there will be no equality either. The decorated person in heaven will have medals in heaven. The persons are those who agonized and pleaded the blood and were workers and hustlers. Prosperity is always a result of what you think. What you think is much more important than what you do. God blesses us and the basis of His justice. If you are blessed in time, then you will be rewarded in time. If God gives you prosperity, RM/RW, promotion, etc. these blessings only start in time, but they continue into eternity.

God is not a liberal; God is not a bleeding heart. The whole purpose of keeping us in this life is to keep us from reaching the interlude of blessing. We are getting ready for a great disaster in this country. It could come in historical prosperity or in historical disaster; but in either case, you can find an interlude of blessing.

You have seen the word holy over and over again, but it has little meaning today. The holiness of God is His integrity. We glorify God by adjusting to the justice of God. Pax Romana was not just a time of peace, but a time of great prosperity. The Jews would say, shalom, which refers to blessing. This greeting became so common, it has lost its connotation.

Present active subjunctive of εχωμεν the subjunctive mood recognizes volition. The British and "Won't you join me?" But it does not sound like a command, but it is a direct command. It is a hortatory subjunctive. If you don't join them, you will be shot. The rear sergeant did not shoot the enemy; he shot those who did not join the officer.

Jesus Christ is the basis for our having prosperity. God the Father loves God the Son with an eternal love. God's love can only go toward that which is perfect. It must be eternal and perfect. The integrity of God takes precedence over the love of God when creatures are involved. Righteousness rejects sins. When these sins were poured out upon Jesus Christ on the cross, the love of God had nothing to do with it. The justice of God judged our sins. Even though God the Father loved God the Son, He still poured out our sins upon Him. All blessing and cursing comes from one source, the justice of God. God is only free to bless that which is perfect. We receive 36 things simultaneously, but logically, we receive His righteousness first.

Principles Related to the Integrity of God

1. The integrity of God composed of His righteousness and justice is the guardian of all his divine attributes and is, at the same time, the point of contact for the human race. The integrity of God is the most undeveloped, ignored principle in the Word of God. The whole concept of the Holy of Holies, of the ark of God, of propitiation is all related to God's integrity. All of these various characteristics are a part of His righteousness and justice. Justice guards the attributes of God. Justice is our point of contact. Let us have prosperity.

2. There must be no compromise of God's attributes in the function of the essence of God. Righteousness demands righteousness and justice demands justice. You can see how dumb fundies are. It is imperative that we understand that this works 2 ways. The integrity of God, His righteousness and His justice. It works toward His attributes and toward man.
3. To avoid compromise and inconsistency, a principle of doctrine becomes an axiom. Divine justice can only bless divine righteousness. At faith in Christ, you were given God's righteousness. You have it now and you will have it forever. You cannot lose it; no sinfulness can destroy it. You have a piece of God's integrity. You have a piece of the Rock. So what did you do with God's righteousness today? Did you wail, moan, bitch, complain about the humidity in Houston? All blessing comes to us because we have +R. God does not pour expensive wine into paper cups. Bob names off a bunch of wines that he knows. The average Christian runs around saying, "Bless me because I am good and I am nice to other people. That is self righteousness and God's integrity rejects self righteousness as much as He rejects sin.
4. Righteousness is the principle of divine integrity and justice is the function of divine integrity.
5. Here is one to meditate on: God cannot accept anything less than perfect righteousness. You are kidding yourself if you think that God is going to bless you because you are doing something which impresses fundies. God cannot bless anything but perfect righteousness.
6. The justice of God, the source of all blessing from God, is free to bless where perfect righteousness resides.
7. The imputation of divine righteousness is necessary for any blessing. God is fair. He cannot give us wealth without capacity. He will not give us RM/RW without capacity. All of these things mean misery without capacity. There was never a time when all of the services had less to do. A smart officer can get everything done in a week in 3.5 days; but if there is a colonel who is miserable, he will want everyone to work at the office all day long. He would be a great sergeant, but a lousy colonel. There will be a time when they will be busy. Our presidents have cut our military to the bone. Our presidents have been tampering with the armed forces. They have used them for experimentation. The army is not place to run social or political experiments. God is fair and He will never give us promotion, success, prosperity until our capacity is developed. Capacity is Bible doctrine in your soul. It is not giving up things for God; not throwing faggots on the fire, even though there are a lot of faggots in Houston to thrown on the fire.
8. God loves His own integrity, composed of His Own justice and righteousness. His integrity and His love have always existed.
9. Therefore, what righteousness rejects, justice condemns. What righteousness accepts or approves, justice blesses.
10. This fulfills the principle that the justice of God administers what the righteousness of God demands. Latin for justice is steady to its purpose.

11. In salvation, mankind receives the imputation of divine righteousness and stand justified.
12. God recognizes His righteousness wherever it is found. God's righteousness is found in everyone here tonight. We have no more righteousness than anyone else. Some hippy who walks in here who has believed has the same righteousness that we have. Think of the believer you dislike the most in this world, and that person has the same righteousness that we have. The same potentiality for the interlude of blessing.
13. Justification is simply God recognizing the imputation of divine righteousness. It is the judicial act of the justice of God in recognizing divine righteousness imputed.
14. Justification precedes all other blessings.
15. Therefore, righteousness imputed and resulted justification is the potential for all blessings from the justice of God.
16. While righteousness imputed is the potential, doctrine in the soul is the capacity for that blessing. Doctrine comprehended is the basis for reality. Potential + capacity = reality.

The integrity of God is the only source of blessing that we will ever have. When we receive the righteousness of God, this is where the love of God comes into the picture. We have it now, so it is a safe assumption that God loves us now. It is not because we are kindly and filled with bleeding heart ideas.

Rom. 5:1 Then being justified by faith, let us have peace [= prosperity, an interlude of blessing] face to face with God through our Lord Jesus Christ,

Romans 5:1

631_0200

This would be 1977.

Rom. 5:1 Then being justified by faith, let us have peace [= prosperity, an interlude of blessing] face to face with God through our Lord Jesus Christ,

Maturity blessing results from adjustment to the justice of God.

Potential + capacity = reality.

Interlude prosperity is mandated for us. Spiritual blessing. God is fair and He does not give us blessings from this life without the capacity to enjoy these blessings. Sharing the happiness of God under all circumstances. The ability to face to sufferings and pressures of life and still be under the interlude of the prosperity of God. Freedom from slavery to circumstances and ability to adapt to the changes of life. Wealth for some believers. No two of us have the same blessings. Prosperity can include sexual prosperity, technological prosperity, professional prosperity, safety prosperity, wealth.

Category #3 blessing by association. This explains why so many stinkers are prosperous. It is not direct blessing from the justice of God but indirect blessing from the justice of God. Phenomenal historical impact of those who have maturity adjustment to the justice of God.

Divine justice can only bless perfect justice

1. Integrity of God is the guardian of God's attributes as well as our point of contact with God.
2. There can be no compromise of God's character.
3. To avoid compromise and inconsistency, a principle of doctrine becomes axiomatic: divine justice can only bless divine righteousness.
4. Justice is the function and righteousness is the principle.
5. God cannot accept anything less than perfect righteousness.
6. Therefore the justice of God, the source of all direct blessings from God, is only free to bless righteousness.
7. Imputation of divine righteousness is necessary for any blessing.
8. God loves His Own integrity.
9. What righteousness rejects, justice condemns.
10. Justice blesses what righteousness demands.
11. At the moment of faith in Christ, man receives the imputation of divine righteousness.
12. God recognizes His righteousness wherever it is found.
13. Justification is the principle which is important to understand David.
14. Justification precedes all blessings from the justice of God.
15. Therefore righteousness imputed is the potential for all blessing from the justice of God.
16. Doctrine in the soul is the capacity.

Ζατew until you believe in Jesus Christ, you will not get any blessing from God. The justice of God will not bless that which is not perfect righteousness. Imputation of justice is an instantaneous act where justice is imputed to us.

Justice of God is our point of reference with God.

this is the imperative mood of entreaty, which has the force of an urgent demand. Πρωτον is the first in a sequence of events. Seeking the kingdom means you have a relationship with the King of Kings. Seeking the kingdom is salvation adjustment to the justice of God. God's righteousness is perfect and stable; and we cannot change the righteousness which is credited to our accounts. Connective use of the conjunction kai and all blessings from the justice of God must go to that righteousness. This is a post office mail box, set up by God on our behalf. Mail is delivered to us, regardless of what kind of a person we are. Every blessing we get in this life. God does not bless us for a good personality or we have done something nice. Do not think that you can tithe and be blessed by God.

Stop worrying about your life. That is a command. Did you ever realize that the person sitting next to you has troubles too? In some cases, that is the source of your trouble. Our job is to be blessed by the justice of God.

We all have problems. The principle of resolving is the integrity of God. There is nothing in life for which to justice of God has not made perfect logistical provision. God will provide for us logistically while we are moving toward the interlude of blessing.

And when your soul is buried, or blown up or burned in a Viking funeral, then your soul is in heaven; but right now, you are here.

Matt. 6:33 But seek first the kingdom and His righteousness and all things will be added to you.

Bob explains this passage.

Matt. 6:25 Because of this, I say to you, Do not be anxious for your soul, what you eat and what you drink, nor for your body, what you put on. Is not the soul more than the food and the body than the clothing?

Bob likes to shoot birds with his shotguns.

Matt. 6:26 Observe the birds of the heaven, that they do not sow, nor do they reap, nor do they gather into barns, yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Do you not rather excel them?

A cubit is 18 inches.

Matt. 6:27 But who of you by being anxious is able to add one cubit onto his stature?

Solomon is the best dresser of all time, and he does not look as good as the lilies God provides some flowers the most beautiful clothing in the world.

Matt. 6:28 And why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow. They do not labor nor do they spin,

Matt. 6:29 but I say to you that not even Solomon in all his glory was clothed as one of these.

This grass is going to just disappear; so if that happens, and God clothes them with flowers, then how much more will God take care of us?

Matt. 6:30 If God so enrobes the grass of the field (which is today, and is thrown into a furnace tomorrow) will He not much rather you, little-faiths?

Don't worry. All these things the gentiles eagerly seek.

Matt. 6:31 Then do not be anxious, saying, What may we eat? Or, what may we drink? Or, what may clothe us?

Matt. 6:32 For after all these things the nations seek. For your heavenly Father knows that you have need of all these things.

Prostithimi. You have something which belongs to God Himself. If God can do something for birds and flowers, which do not possess God's righteousness, then how much more He will bless us with His righteousness.

Of God is not found in this verse. While righteousness imputed is the potential and doctrine in the soul is the capacity. These two together equal reality.

Matt. 6:33 But seek first the kingdom and His righteousness, and all these things will be added to you.

Matt. 6:34 Then do not be anxious for tomorrow. For the morrow will be anxious of itself. Sufficient to each day is its own trouble.

Postulates of integrity:

1. There are no advantages to the advantages without the advantage. God is not going to give us wealth, prosperity, without the capacity. Why do something great for you if you have no appreciation for it? There are people who are totally undeserving who have these things, but it is blessing by association.
2. If you have the advantage + the capacity, then you have the advantages, blessings from the justice of God.
3. Without the advantage, there are no advantages. Having the accouterments of blessing is not happiness.
4. A nation without the advantage is removed from history.

Through Who also we have which refers to salvation adjustment to the justice of God. [or, we have attained] access by means of faith into this grace the avenue is never closed as long as you live for interlude blessing and interlude prayer while you are alive. This is the context of an avenue or a blessing. En + hos = in which we stand once you are given the integrity of God, it cannot be canceled; you have it for as long as you live. The line of blessing goes from the justice of God to the righteousness of God. Even when we sin and are evil, that line is open. However, blessing is imputed when we believe in Christ. The word here means to stand fast, and this refers to eternal security. The blessing has reward in eternity and greater blessing. You interlude blessings. God blesses on the basis of, He loves His perfect righteousness.

Eternal Security

1. Definition: eternal security is salvation adjustment to the justice of God. 36 things are provided at that moment, most of which are related to eternal security. Our security still is based upon, we have the righteousness of God. Interlude blessing and interlude prosperity are based upon God. If you adjust to the justice of God, that is salvation; and beyond that, is spiritual growth. Rom.. 5:1–2

2. We have a non-cancellable relationship. Will their lack of faith negate the faithfulness of God? Of course not! Let God be proved reliable and every man a liar.
  - a. Man's weakness does not cancel God's strength
  - b.
  - c. Every rejection of Christ as Savior is maladjustment to the justice of God.
  - d. Rejection of Christ at salvation. It implies that God is a liar and has no integrity.
  - e. In reality, it is man who is the liar and has no integrity.
  - f. Salvation adjustment to the justice of God
  - g. Possession of divine righteousness forever eliminates the idea of losing salvation.
  - h. The integrity of God cannot be cancelled by man's failure. The evangelist should have warned you, "You believe in Christ, you cannot get out of it." God is not God if anything happens to that line. If we endure suffering, we will also rule with Him; we achieve or attain the interlude blessing; if we repudiate the Lord Jesus, He will refuse us rewards in eternity; if we are unfaithful, He remains faithful, for you see, He cannot deny Himself. Now we have the righteousness of God; and God's righteousness and justice are eternal.
  - i. Gal. 3:26 John 1:12 we are born into the family of God.
3. Anthropomorphic approach. Various portions of man's anatomy is applied to God because we understand the function of these parts of our body. Though he fall, he will not be completely cast down, because the Lord continues to hold him. Neither will they take them out of My hand.
4. All of these various things will not separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus. Legalism tries to compete with the justice of God. You cannot play the percentages. Weirdos are going to distort whatever is taught anyway. As long as these are harmless weirdos, we let them run around loose, sometimes for illustrative material.
5. Eternal security is necessary for divine blessing. Rom. 8:32 He Who did not spare His Own Son. Where creatures are concerned, justice takes precedence over love. Justice is here and righteousness is here; but having this line between justice and righteousness; that line is always there and a part of eternal security. Whether anything comes down through the pipe or not all depends upon capacity. Rom. 8:31
  - a. The world cannot hinder blessing from the justice of God. If you have the capacity through the intake of doctrine, then you do not need to worry; God is still able to bless you. You might have people who are antagonistic toward you, and they cannot do anything about it. No one can hinder you from receiving blessing from the justice of God.

- b. Capacity for blessing includes total security from the justice of God. The potential is always there.
- c. No believer who rejects the doctrine of eternal security ever attains maturity adjustment to the justice of God. The pipe with the justice of God on one end and the righteousness of God on the other, is clear for all blessing. Justice of God will clobber you all the way to eternal life if you are out of line.
- 6. The royal family metaphor 1Cor. 1:21 the head cannot say to another part of the body, I don't need you. Even the head, Christ, cannot say that. The justice of God gave you at the point of salvation, righteousness.
- 7. Tense; perfect tense of σοζω
- 8. The nature of divine attributes, which preclude any loss of salvation. 2Peter 3:9 with understanding the potential and understanding the security related to that potential.

then we have that nebulous: boast, glory or have esprit divine establishment corps in the hope of the glory of God.

There is more communism on college campuses today than any of this campus crusade stuff. Production comes when you have doctrine. It is confusion. They have pseudo esprit too. I would tell you what I think, but I don't think your pretty little ears could deal with it. Once you have doctrine, you will have the esprit.

Ελπις can refer to confidence but it can also be a synonym for the integrity of God.

Δοξα is sometimes used for all the attributes of God and sometimes for particular attributes of God.

We are placing our hope in that blessing pipe between the justice of God and the righteousness of God in us.

Rom. 5:2 through whom also we have had access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we glory [boast in or have esprit decorps] on the confidence of the glory of God.

This ends the introduction.

This is a military communion? When it comes to growth, no two of us are in the same place. We operate under the privacy of our priesthood, for the communion table is an examination. A baby cannot remember the way a spiritual adult remembers.

Professional prosperity, blessing by association, David's historical impact.

2 categories of professional prosperity. He was great in his day; one of the greatest soldiers and warriors. In v. 1, the conquest of the Philistines.

200 years prior to this, the famous siege of Troy took place. The Mycenaean Greeks had crossed the Aegean Sea and Troy was a part of the Hittite empire. Both armies were great warriors. They weakened themselves by attacking Troy, and the Dorian Greeks came from up in the mountains or up north and took over the Mycenaean settlements. This was one of the most disastrous times in history. In 1200 Troy fell, an island off of Crete fell into the ocean and title waves pummeled the land and killed many; Bugoz Cuy fell. During this period of time, Shamgar, a man with doctrine, arose. 3 great tribes of Mycenaean Greeks, who disrupted the world for 100 years. Throughout all of the Islands in the Mediterranean and the Aegean Seas, there were a number of Greek groups spread out. Troy was gone. Pirates ruled in the Mediterranean. 2 places survived: Egypt under Rameses III and the Jews under Shamgar.

We have a lot of information about them. They are men of great strength and abilities and one of the toughest groups. They learned the secret of iron and they brought iron weapons into the Middle east, whereas others had Bronze weapons. They controlled the trade routes from the Euphrates to Egypt. They fought against the Jews and whipped them most of the time. King Saul, Philistines had pushed the Jews back; and what they did not garrison, Egypt did. The northern section of Israel was in slavery. Only Judah and Benjamin were independent and strong. Saul was eventually destroyed at the battle of Mount Gilboa.

Those of Brandenburg Prussia was a marvelous military fighting machine. So great was their doctrine and dedication that nothing could shake them. A great officer corps. The Spartans were such a nation and before them, the Philistines. It looked as if no one would defeat the Philistines. Sometimes the Jews would push them back, but they were unbeatable, for the most part. David, promoted by God, has a great army. He starts out as king of Judah. He forms his officer corps. We are not like the Spartans or Philistines in their greatness.

The Greek women were magnificently beautiful. They had wonder symmetry. Spartan women are said to be beautiful. They raised sons to be military men. Oldest son began military training around age 7. The only thing that can beat such an army are believers with doctrine in their soul.

We have never entered into a military prepared. The military is in the worst shape it has ever been. In freedom, people forget that freedom is purchased on the battlefield. If we are to maintain this freedom, others must sacrifice their freedom and even their lives.

For 400 years the Philistines ruled the roost in the middle east. Rameses pulled together an army of 1,000,000. However, the small army of the Philistines, still frightened the Egyptians, and they left them alone for 400 years. They were not a large nation and they did not want to be a large nation. When nations around them planted and harvested food, the Philistines would go and take their food; but they left enough behind so their enemies could still produce more the next year.

You would not invest in Jewish businesses, because the Philistines would come in and steal their profits.

Spiritual prosperity is followed by professional prosperity. David was a professional soldier and a king.

This is one chapter that you will not get anything out of it.

Potential + capacity = blessing. Without capacity, God rarely blesses.

You obviously enjoy things more when you feel well. There is a principle there. A military commander cannot succeed without good health. Napoleon's concepts were great; but his health was not.

Hiphil stem of nakah. It means to strike, to punch in the Qal; in the Hiphil to be caused to strike someone, to defeat them. Then we seem to have some redundancy. In the military, you not only defeat them, but you grind them into the dust. David defeated the Philistines and he conquered them. We first have the tactical defeat in battle. The objective is always to wipe out the enemy. First is correct tactical movements and the timing must be perfect. In the 2nd one, David also won the war. The first is winning the battles and second is winning the war.

The guards which David allowed to survive because they were great as light infantry. He admired the enemy and he gave them a choice between being executed or being a part of his personal guard. He had the most efficient brigade of guard and they were made up of Philistines. They are the Cherethites and the Pelethites. The Philistines had no army. You never defeat a nation until you destroy its military. You must destroy its military. We should have destroyed the Russian army in 1945. 11 million men under arms and we should have clobbered the Russians and we continue to pay for that.

The Philistines ceased to exist as a military power. David liked and admired the Philistines and he went to them when escaping from Saul. Military control comes out by wiping out the enemy's military. Sherman went from Atlanta to Savannah and wiped out the people, but Hood was still there. They starved Lee's army, and that was the only way to defeat them.

Grant fought for amnesty for Confederate soldiers. 85–90% of the good officers in the US military come from the south.

What did David take here? Metheg ammah. He seized violently. Metheg ammah is the bridal of the mother from the hand of the Philistines. Would that we had a nation of mothers like the Philistines mothers. They were the greatest military wives in the world. They never complained or gave their husbands flack. They were noble like Penelope. She had suitors and she held out for Ulysses. She made sure that her son had strength to draw the bow and to handle the sword. She raised him to be a soldier like her husband. Women were honored in Philistia because they were great military wives. The capitol city of Philistia is called mother. This is there central government of the government. They did not call their central government Uncle Sugar but the Bridle of the Mother. Women were honored because women took their proper place. The finest potential in the world is no good without authority. In a fight with an elkhound, all you see is teeth. But a horse, with all of his great power and strength, he still needs authority, and guiding his head is the way to do it. Bridle was universal military training. "Their mothers sent their boys away saying, coming back a man or don't come back at all." They are not like American mothers who write to their Congressmen about basic training sergeants saying their boy is used to milk and crackers before they go to bed.

When you are under authority, and they tell you to do something and it is a lousy way of doing it, you do it their way because they are in authority. That is authority, which is what we all need.

Philistia's history was twice as long as ours. A soldier-nation always honors its women. Liberals destroy their women. A liberal nation destroys their women. We are in a process of destroying out women. Famous for their warrior nation, but defeated under the leadership of a well-trained leader. David operated on a military policy.

2Sam. 8:1 [After this David defeated the Philistines and conquered them, and David took Methegammah \[the bridle of the mother\] out of the hand of the Philistines.](#)

The servicemen all stand.

June 1974 is when Bob first met Captain Robert Howard, ranger United States army. He's been in jail for being in fights in Houston.

We have no relationship with the sovereignty of God, which is the fallacy of hyper-Calvinism. We do not have a direct relationship with the love of God either. Our love his based upon His justice. His integrity is His righteousness, the principle of God's integrity and justice, the function of God's integrity.

God the Father judged the sins of the world as they were poured out on the Son. As Christ bore our sins, God the Father judged our sins in His body on the cross. God's justice is now able to give us Christ's imputed righteousness, and His justice is able to bless us because of His imputed righteousness.

Rebound is based upon the justice of God having judged our sins on the cross.

The final adjustment is maturity adjustment to the justice of God. Capacity comes from Bible doctrine. Maximum doctrine in the soul gives us the capacity; and God then can pour blessings upon us.

We are now going into David's professional prosperity.

2Sam. 8:1 Now it came to pass, after this David defeated the Philistines and conquered them, and David took Metheg-ammah [the bridle of the mother] out of the hand of the Philistines.

David was a student of the Word of God. When you include the spiritual factor and the military policy, found in Neh. 4:8–9. He faced a hopeless situation in a future day, and he verbalized the situation here.

There were many groups of vicious people who wanted to hurt Israel.

The principle calls for rigorous training. It has been softened. The spiritual factor is important. We have always depended upon civilians entering into the military, and there is a tremendous loss of life at the beginning of any war for us.

If you think there are uncertainties in civilian life, there is no comparison to military life. Multiply by 1000.

Napoleon and a battle which he fought, and how they destroyed a Russian and a Prussian army. The Battle of Austerlitz. He faked them out. He had his army retreat. This led the Russian army where he wanted them, and he wiped them out.

Neh. 4:8 And they all plotted together to come and fight against Jerusalem and to cause confusion in it.

Neh. 4:9 And we prayed to our God and set a guard as a protection against them day and night.

Neh 4:14–18 And I looked and arose and said to the nobles and to the officials and to the rest of the people, "Do not be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, who is great and awesome, and fight for your brothers, your sons, your daughters, your wives, and your homes." When our enemies heard that it was known to us and that God had frustrated their plan, we all returned to the wall, each to his work. From that day on, half of my servants worked on construction, and half held the spears, shields, bows, and coats of mail. And the leaders stood behind the whole house of Judah, who were building on the wall. Those who carried burdens were loaded in such a way that each labored on the work with one hand and held his weapon with the other. And each of the builders had his sword strapped at his side while he built. The man who sounded the trumpet was beside me.

Moab had been very friendly with David in the past. When he was maneuvering around Saul, David sent his parents to Moab. However, there had been a change of government and their attitude had changed. A friendly nation today will be an enemy tomorrow. No nation for its security can depend upon other nations. NATO is a farce; they are a paper tiger. All human resources are not the answer. To survive as a nation, we cannot depend upon other nations or upon our own resources.

Many of you will never be in a uniform; many of you will never see military service or combat. However, we are just as essential to the military. As goes your spiritual life, so goes the military in the days to come. It is our maturity adjustment to the justice of God which will save our country. Our military has been used for sociological experimentation. This destroys esprit decorps. The queen of the services has been neglected.

The most important national factor is the spiritual factor.

Moab had been a friendly nation and it became an unfriendly nation. France often had to fight an alliance of England and Germany. And this changed.

No man can survive the system honorably without a relationship with the integrity of God. You can survive the system being a politician playing CYA; but you cannot survive honorably. You need that personal relationship with the integrity of God.

Beniah was one of David's greatest generals. He was the son of a man of spiritual power. His father was a priest; and he went to war, even though he did not have to.

The Cherethites were Achaean or Mycenaean Greeks who lived near David when he was in Philistine area. The Pelethites were a land warrior who cam overland from the fall of Troy.

No man can be a successful military leader unless those under him become great.

The Moabites could be killed or enlisted. He has them lie down in 3 lines, and then he walks down each one of these lines and he inspects these men. He goes to one line only, puts his sword on that line, and everyone in that line are executed. Never again, after this, does David have trouble with Moab. The Moabites understood force and violence. You do not go to them with a SALT agreement.

You impress tough people with toughness. Criminals are not impressed with soft treatment; they are impressed with toughness. Some nations understand violence only; reason does not work with them. Russians understand dead Russians; they do not understand Carter talking about civil rights; Chicoms understand dead chicoms.

Summary points from 2Sam. 8:2

1. Tyrannical nations only understand violence and are only suppressed by violence.
2. You cannot reason with tyranny.
3. Therefore, it is important to have a strong military establishment.
4. The Philistines either were killed or they had to enlist. He did not do that with the Moabites. If the Philistines took an oath of honor, they kept it.
5. Military victory was blessing from the justice of God.

David does not handle every group the same. One line is spared and 2 lines are executed and they will talk about this for the rest of their lives. Those who survive will never turn on Israel again.

2Sam. 8:2 And he defeated Moab and he measured them with a line, making them lie down on the ground. Two lines he measured to be put to death, and one full line to be spared. And the Moabites became servants to David and brought tribute.

We need to understand the principle for the first few verses from Psalm 84; if God does not promote you, you are not promoted.

Psalm 84:1 To the choirmaster: according to The Gittith. A Psalm of the Sons of Korah. How lovely is your dwelling place, O LORD of hosts!

In order to have blessing in military service, you need to be able to express what David says in vv. 1–2. You need a relationship with the integrity of God.

Psalm 84:2 My soul longs, yes, faints for the courts of the LORD; my heart and flesh sing for joy to the living God.

The sparrow is a helpless bird. Every believer needs a house; a local church or a tape recorder. Apart from doctrine, all believers are vulnerable. There is emphasis upon Jesus' battlefield royalty; and upon His deity.

Psalm 84:3 Even the sparrow finds a home, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, at your altars, O LORD of hosts, my King and my God.

Dwelling in God's house is the daily and consistent function of gap.

Psalm 84:4 Happinesses to those who dwell in your house, ever singing your praise! Selah the highway is from the justice of God to the righteousness of God.

Psalm 84:5 Happinesses to the man whose strength is in You, in whose heart are the highways to Zion.

Baca means tears; this is no-man's land. This is the place of testing. This is where we find that the service will give us many excuses not to listen to doctrine. We are tired and exhausted and have gone days without sleep. Many appear to be legitimate. If you are a spiritual casualty, you will be a physical casualty. You may wind up in a Chaicom prison camp.

No one makes it to the well from the Valley of Tears without doctrine in your soul. If you neglect Bible doctrine, you will die painfully and without respect. There is no excuse for not making it to the well. The Russians have their buildup and they were ready to launch an attack on May 1 and they were going to overrun Europe in 11 days. The integrity of God stopped this. We were not ready for it and the integrity of God slowed it down. The Ford Motor company has provided them with supply trucks.

The well has water in it and the rain has water in it. You are being saturated with blessings. Direct blessings from the justice of God.

Psalm 84:6 As they go through the Valley of Baca they make it a place of springs; the early rain also covers it with pools.

They advance from supergrace A to supergrace B and then to ultra supergrace.

Psalm 84:7 They go from strength to strength; each one appears before God in Zion.

Psalm 84:8 O LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer; give ear, O God of Jacob! Selah the appointed ones are those in the pivot.

Psalm 84:9 Behold our shield, O God; look on the face of your anointed!

The courts are where the priests taught doctrine.

Psalm 84:10 For a day in your courts is better than a thousand elsewhere. I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than dwell in the tents of wickedness [in the command post of evil].

This explains perfectly and beautifully how two great military systems went down in one generation. What makes it happen? Jesus Christ controls history.

Psalm 84:11 For the LORD God is a sun and shield; the LORD bestows favor and honor. No good thing does he withhold from those who walk uprightly.

Psalm 84:12 O LORD of hosts, blessed is the one who trusts in you!

2Samuel 8:9–12 Psalm 21

We are still dealing with David's northern campaigns. Aram-zobah was the greatest Aramaic kingdom, and he was moving toward the Euphrates and David is going to be fighting a preventative war. There are 4 Aramaic kingdoms.

A few years from now, Hamath will be one of the great Syrian (Assyrian?) kingdoms.

2Sam. 8:9 When Toi king of Hamath heard that David had defeated the whole army of Hadadezer,

David had engaged in a preventative war with Hadadezer.

Gaining National Respect

1. No nation has the respect of another nation without proving it on the battlefield. Diplomacy never gains respect. This is why the communists have no respect for us.
2. No ruler has the respect of other nations unless he is willing to defend his country with warfare. This is why our missionaries are maltreated. British diplomacy in the last century meant that, if you gave a Brit missionary trouble, the Brits came and kicked your ass. Solomon only had one campaign.
3. It is a part of the sinful nature of man to be impressed by violence. Liberals run around and act as if you kill someone brutally, there is something wrong with that.
4. This is why warfare is the only way to maintain national freedom and integrity in the devil's world.
5. It is the battlefield, not the peace table, where respect is gotten.
6. Smart soldiers are impressed with the military and military generals; not with politicians. Everyone on the other side knew Patton and MacArthur. Our enemies respected them more than our nitwits in Washington.
7. The military provides freedom, not politicians.
8. David was a ruler and a great soldier. There was a half-century of peace because of David's warfare.
9. Friendship is made on the basis of victory, not on diplomacy. Diplomacy without military strength is like flattery without love. Impotent hypocrisy.

2Sam. 8:10 Toi sent his son Joram to King David, to congratulate him and to bless him because he had fought against Hadadezer and defeated him, for Hadadezer had often been at war with Toi. And Joram brought with him articles of silver, of gold, and of bronze.

Principles from v. 10

1. The great prosperity coming to David ultimately come from the justice of God. Military success and peace for a half century. However, we must go beyond that. This is the prosperity era in his profession.
2. You do not seek fame and respect for others when you have a total relationship with the justice of God. Never seek fame or respect from others; maturity adjustment to the justice of God means you have it without seeking it.
3. With maturity adjustment to the justice of God, others come to you without your solicitation and they come without admiration and respect. You get out of trying to prove something.
4. For the mature believer, human admiration is never sought nor is it an issue.
5. For the mature believer, human admiration and respect are preceded by capacity for these things. Success did not destroy David. As long as you keep up your doctrine, you cannot be spoiled.
6. Human admiration and respect do not stimulate pride.
7. Successful people become preoccupied with the praise of men rather than preoccupied with the praise of Jesus Christ.
8. He does not seek fame or renown if a mature believer.

9. Success does not destroy the mature believer. He can handle promotion like he handles adversity. That is why a mature believer like Moses or Paul. Virtue survives the grave. Their fame is enduring because their source is enduring.

Now we go into a different subject. He was not corrupted by praise or the admiration of nations around him.

2Sam. 8:11 These also King David dedicated to the LORD, together with the silver and gold that he dedicated from all the nations he subdued,

In v. 12 we have a list. We have here the principle for capacity for prosperity. David was a wealthy man; prosperity does not turn his head or cause him to be arrogant. He recognizes the source of his wealth. All of these psalms have different words and different principles. Since his blessings came from the justice of God, they were sure and permanent. Believers who achieve fame and success apart from capacity. Some get it by blessing by association, often those who are not qualified in any way. There is always blessing by association. Without capacity, the very thing which would bless causes misery. Promotion without capacity is misery.

2Sam. 8:12 from Edom, Moab, the Ammonites, the Philistines, Amalek, and from the spoil of Hadadezer the son of Rehob, king of Zobah.

Psalm 21 gives David's attitude:

Psalm 21:1 To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David. The king shall rejoice in Your strength, O Jehovah; and in Your salvation how greatly shall he dance in a circle in happiness!

As a military man, David's desire was for victory; and therefore continued national integrity. David recognized that there were always numerous problems and the best-laid plans can go astray. Bad tactics could end in tragedy.

Psalm 21:2 You have given him his heart's desire, and have not withheld the prayer of his lips. Selah.

Psalm 21:3 For You go before him with the blessings of goodness [= integrity of God]; You set a crown of pure gold on his head.

David has been under pressure; and he asked for life and he was given an extension of days. The interlude of blessing of time. God has parlayed that into eternal blessing. The blessing we get from the justice of God glorifies the integrity of God, which results in rewards in the eternal future.

Psalm 21:4 He asked life from You; You give to him length of days forever and ever.

All of this came from the integrity of God, so it was permanent.

Psalm 21:5 His glory is great in Your salvation; honor and majesty You have bestowed on him.

SG2 into SG3.

Psalm 21:6 For You have made him most blessed forever; You have rejoiced him in the gladness in Your holy face [from God's presence].

Qal active participle of batach, which is the function of the faith rest technique.

Psalm 21:7 For the king trusts in Jehovah, and in the mercy of the Most High; he shall not be moved.

David, in blessing, is able to know who his enemies are ahead of time. Second phrase is domestic enemies.

Psalm 21:8 Your hand shall find out all Your enemies; Your right hand shall find out those who hate You.

Confrontation on the battlefield.

Psalm 21:9 You shall make them as a fiery oven in the time of Your presence; Jehovah will swallow them up in His wrath, and the fire shall devour them.

Not only were the traitors destroyed, but so were their families. Many families are blessed because traitors and their families are destroyed.

Psalm 21:10 Their fruit shall You destroy from the earth, and their seed from among the sons of men.

Psalm 21:11 For they intended evil against You; they imagined a wicked thing; they are not able to prevail.

The appointing of a shoulder is a firing squad.

Psalm 21:12 For You shall make them turn the back; You shall make ready Your arrows on Your strings against their faces.

Psalm 21:13 Be exalted, O Jehovah, in Your strength; we will sing, and praise Your power.

The Ammonites will be covered in chapter 10.

2Sam. 8:12 from Edom, Moab, the Ammonites, the Philistines, Amalek, and from the spoil of Hadadezer the son of Rehob, king of Zobah.

David manufactures something out of something. He manufactures himself a reputation. The reputation manufactured here was not from the victories which he personally led, but this is a case of delegated authority. When we sort it out, David did not personally handle any of the logistical problems nor did he handle any of the tactics while at war.

Good subordinates are always a part of every military team.

He personally oversaw the battles, and got everything begun; but he leaves his staff out on their own, and he will return. He allows those he trains the freedom to function on their own to win victories.

There was Joab and Abishai, and they have been on David's staff. David was knocked out when he detached a corp under Abishai to go south to Edom. He is at war against Syria with Abishai. Apparently, David arrived the night before the battle, and he stepped aside and did not do a thing. He trained his nephews.

Principles from v. 13

1. David won a great series of battles in the north. While he was fighting the Syrians, the Edomites attacked from the south. So he detached Abishai and sent him south. 1Chron. 18:12 The father died young and the mother, David's sister, raised wonderful young men. This is like Lee and Jackson and Jackson went around to hit the flank. Came in on Oats Howard, a famous union born-again believer. This is Chancellorsville. Lee held off on the front, and Jackson went around to the side, where they were vulnerable. They did not have enough guarding them on their flank. Lee was the one on the spot. He had 10,000 with him? Only darkness saved the Yankee army. This enhanced Lee's reputation. The tactical commander is the one who is emphasized. Abishai son of Zeruiah, a petty person, an arrogant person would have taken over here; but David let Abishai do it and take credit. Many potentially great people have been destroyed by personal pettiness. When David saw how the troops were set up and knew Abishai's plan; he let Abishai go ahead and take all of the credit. He recognized subordinates in a proper way and David enhances his own reputation in this and other things. There are 18,000 casualties; they probably had 100,000 soldiers altogether. David lost nothing by giving credit where credit is due. This is what makes him a great leader. There was no pettiness in David.
2. David had strategic and tactical greatness, but he had the greatness of being totally free of pettiness. This is one of the great weaknesses of many almost-great men. If you have a business or a military organization, never permit cliques. Destroy them. Pick the right person; never pick or support a clique. That is where all of the pettiness comes in. Pettiness is wherever you find people; in families, businesses, the mission field.
3. David did not seek to take credit for Abishai's victory.
4. David was personally a man of great integrity; and he allowed he underlings the chance to be great.

Joab defeated the Syrians, and then he came down afterwards.

2Sam. 8:13 And David made a name for himself [i.e., a reputation] when he returned from striking down 18,000 Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

You exploit the victory. Pursue, mop up and finish the job. That makes it a team success. One brother has the privilege of winning the battle and the other to exploit the victory.

The manual of arms by battalion means that you must have a rhythm so that it can be done in unison. They did present arms, etc. and this is for the manual of arms; they all sing the psalm, and they go to port arms, or to inspection arms, or whatever.

In 2Sam. 1:18 the soldiers were told to learn the song of. Abishai killed 18,000 and then Joab pursues the Edomite army and kills an additional 12,000. David gives credit where it belongs; to Abishai for the battle and Joab for his exploitation of the victory. Being too late for the battle he was able to form the mobile reserve which is necessary for exploiting the victory. Abishai arrived and made a tactical disposition.

Joab and Abishai were aggressive men, and they were allowed to use their aggressiveness. David was willing to step back and allow them to use their aggressiveness.

Psalm 60 inscription To the Chief Musician. On the Lily of Testimony. A secret treasure of David, to teach; when he struggled with Aram-naharaim and with Aram of Zobah, when Joab returned and struck twelve thousand of Edom in [after?] the Valley of Salt.

2Sam. 8:13 Consequently David made a name for himself [i.e., a reputation] when he returned from annihilated 18,000 Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

Military occupation was necessary for the nation. It is necessary to have garrisons. Up north are the Syrians. Down south are the Edomites. Military occupation and military control. This is in Syria and Edom. The military guarantees that there will be peace on the borders and no more treachery on the borders. This military occupation is also necessary for our freedom.

2Sam. 8:14 Then he put garrisons in Edom; throughout all Edom he put garrisons, and all the Edomites became David's servants. And the LORD gave victory to David wherever he went.

there were 3 great Syrian kingdoms, Hamath, Zobah and Damascus; and there was also Aram-tov.

This sounds very much like #204:

2Sam. 8:9 When Toi king of Hamath heard that David had defeated the whole army of Hadadezer,

6:04

2Sam. 8:10 Toi sent his son Joram to King David, to congratulate him and to bless him because he had fought against Hadadezer and defeated him, for Hadadezer had often been at war with Toi. And Joram brought with him articles of silver, of gold, and of bronze.

2Sam. 8:14 Then he put garrisons in Edom; throughout all Edom he put garrisons, and all the Edomites became David's servants. And the LORD gave victory to David wherever he went.

From the verses covered, this appears to come before 205?

David will be rewarded in eternity. The Mycenaean Greeks came to an end and another group of Greeks were on the move. Bogazcooy Hittites also on the move. The great eruption was the great sea peoples. The Phrygians, the Mycenaeans, and many others began to move about the earth. After 200 years, the dust cleared, and the Philistines ruled the Palestine area.

David had to face all of these peoples and he conquered many of them.

Collapse of the Hittites and a Semitic group began to become prominent. Aram are the Syrians and Assur are the Assyrians.

Infantry was the queen of the services, but the Hittites had something that revolutionized warfare. They discovered the battle horse and horse training. This whole series will be available on tape. If T&P ever fails to fill that order, let me know and we will fight these wars again.

Hadadezer was the most famous.

Aram-zobah and Aram-Damascus were two great kingdoms. As Aram-zobah moves toward the Euphrates, there will be battles and it will all be over. 1Sam. 14:7 \in otfrt got the idea to use the concept of a preventative war.

When you open the vote to teenagers or to women, you never get a man of courage.

Only one person the Assyrians admired, and it was Hadadezer. Oukkino has only come to light in the past 20 years or so. These Aramæans will remain in check based upon David choosing to fight a preventative war. They had universal military training.

Syrians or Aramæans had great camel caravans and they began to grab all the trails. David prevented a similar attack against Israel.

2Sam. 8:3 David also defeated Hadadezer the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, as he went to restore his power at the river Euphrates.

Bob goes over the 1Chron. 18:4. One Hebrew word was left out, which gives us a problem. Rekeb is left out, and we end up with an erroneous number.

By cutting the legs of these horses, it would take years to train horses like this. Bleeding heart libs might not go for this. However, David was fighting to maintain the freedom of Israel.

The rise of the Mitani and the Hyksos of Egypt. When the Hyksos went into the Delta. When Moses came to the Red Sea, Pharaoh's armored division was in pursuit of him.

David had to make this attack because he had the ability to make such a decision. When that armor began to move toward Israel, David had to deal with it.

Now, they were going the other way here; but David was in charge here, and he knew that, even though they were going in the opposite direction from Israel, they were attacking Israel. David interpreted history correctly and he did what he had to do. He did something that was necessary and a well-trained infantry can take on anything. In the last analysis, every bit of sophistication, the infantry has to move in.

David knew the fall of the Hittite era. He knew the history of that time. He knew that the chariot was there to stay. If he waited for the chariots to come to him, Israel would be destroyed. As Egypt had fallen to the Hyksos during the time of Joseph, he knew that Israel could go the same way.

Kikookli author of a Hittite book a field manual and this is how horses could be trained to be used in warfare associated with chariots.

The horse and chariot lived on into history to be destroyed by David, which would provide 50 years of peace of these people who had learned to handle chariots. The rise of the Syrians was postponed for 100 years by the action of David.

1Chron. 18:4 And David took from him 1,000 chariots, 7,000 horsemen, and 20,000 foot soldiers. And David hamstringed all the chariot horses, but left enough for 100 chariots.

David realized that you can use chariots as G2 forces; this would extend the eyes of his armed forces. This force would tell him in advance about Aram-Damascus. When these troops were 150 miles away, these men came down, and David set up a system of interior lines, the same principle that Napoleon did at Waterloo. Keep the majority troops on exterior lines. 100 chariots improved his G2 100%

2Sam. 8:4 And David took from him 1,700 horsemen, and 20,000 foot soldiers. And David hamstringed all the chariot horses but left enough for 100 chariots.

Going to Psalm 20:

Lee was a brilliant man, but lacked good reconnaissance for Gettysburg. Lee needed his reconnaissance as never before.

Psalm 20 is one of David's great battle psalms. He was first and foremost a professional soldier.

Psalm 20:1 To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David. May the LORD answer you in the day of trouble! May the name of the God of Jacob protect you!

Unless you have maximum doctrine in the soul, you do not have the battle courage. Zion is the great fortification. Zion is the castle turned into David's personal home.

Psalm 20:2 May He send you help from the sanctuary and give you support from Zion!

Food offering emphasizes the integrity of God and the burnt offering represents the work of Christ on the cross.

Psalm 20:3 May He remember all your offerings and regard with favor your burnt sacrifices! Selah this is military desire for victory.

Psalm 20:4 May he grant you your heart's desire and fulfill all your plans!

A victory celebration.

Psalm 20:5 May we shout for joy over your salvation, and in the name of our God set up our banners [regimental colors]! May the LORD fulfill all your petitions!

Psalm 20:6 Now I know that the LORD saves his anointed; he will answer him from his holy heaven [from His integrity in heaven] with the saving might of his right hand.

Then David's battlefield testimony.

Psalm 20:7 Some trust in chariots and some in horses, but we trust in the name of the LORD our God.

Psalm 20:8 They collapse and fall, but we rise and stand upright.

Jehovah has delivered the king

Psalm 20:9 O LORD, save the king! May he answer us when we call.

2Sam. 8:5 And when the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David struck down 22,000 men of the Syrians.

Interlude Blessing

1. David's professional blessing.
2. The interim of blessing occurs in prosperity or in disaster
3. The interlude of blessing is always related to eternal reward and blessings in heaven from the future. When the justice of God begins to provide us with our interim of blessings, those blessings are a down payment on a reward in eternity.
4. All believers in heaven possess ultimate sanctification.
5. Only believers in eternity with interlude blessing in time attain rewards and blessings. We will know in this life our rewards and blessings. We will have fantastic things in heaven.
6. The great objective in the Christian life is the attainment of interlude blessing.
7. Interlude blessing is no respecter of persons or historical status. Historical disaster or historical prosperity; it makes no difference.
8. God has provided from His justice interlude justice for those attaining maturity adjustment to the justice of God.

Mark Anthony and Julius Cæsar thought that the Jews were great as infantrymen. Mark Anthony told Herod that the Jews were great infantry but not good cavalry.

Military Intelligence

1. No nation can function without proper intelligence. Bleeding heart liberals and politicians have wiped out our intelligence gathering system. It is a bunch of people sitting around reading foreign newspapers.
2. In our own history intelligence was the secret of success for Lee and Jackson. Lee was the first great strategist and he included the railroads for troop movement. Everyone studied Lee after that.
3. Lee suffered his first defeat when Jeb Stuart was not there.
4. Good military decisions are based upon good military intelligence.
5. David received the blessing of military victory from the justice of God. He took 100 chariots and used them for G2. When the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadadezer, David inflicted casualties; 22,000 soldiers. They intended a surprise attack. They could get quick information. He applied doctrine to his profession. He needed to know where his enemies were at all times. Whatever your maturity adjustment might be, it may manifest itself in common sense or some great business coup.

Philistines killed or enlisted; Moabites killed and some allowed to return; military government in the North, and this was a buffer state for Israel. God never frowns on efficiency. He never frowns on good administration. That is the normal result of maturity adjustment to the justice of God.

The issue is, wherever you go with the maturity adjustment to God, God is with you. Prosperity goes with you.

2Sam. 8:6 Then David put garrisons in Aram of Damascus, and the Syrians became servants to David and brought tribute. And the LORD gave victory to David wherever he went [marched].

David took the shields of gold and brought them to Jerusalem. Qal stem means David brings the shields himself. Hiphil means that he delegated this.

Delegating Authority

1. David did not do the work himself.
2. David was the executive.
3. This is one of the most important principles in leadership; find the person who can do it and delegate the authority to them. If there are 25 people scrubbing floors, you don't get down there with them and scrub floors with them. The captain of the ship does not scrub the deck. He needs to know about navigation and gunnery control and to let someone else swab the decks. He needs brains.

2Sam. 8:7 And David took the shields of gold that were carried by the servants of Hadadezer and brought [he caused them to be taken] them to Jerusalem.

David took large amounts of bronze. Solomon used this. Solomon would follow his father David. David liberated this stockpile and Solomon used it. A generation providing blessing which carries over to the next generation. This becomes a part of historical impact.

2Sam. 8:8 And from Betah and from Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, King David took very much bronze.

We are going to pull a lot more together.

Psalm 60:1–12

72David

631_0207

The genius of the military and the ever-changing situations. Bob is glad to see all of the services represented during the conference.

World War III is just around the corner, and a lot of these people will have their own military prosperity. It is stimulating and wonderful. These are some of the most wonderful people in the United States.

It is time to take a trip through the news media. You avoid war by being prepared for war. The hopeless, helpless and useless policies to come out are almost beyond description. Bob was glad to see the servicemen relax and have a good time; but outside of Fort Berachah, things are pretty grim.

Soviets funnel arms through Libya. Whenever the Soviets can get rid of a billion dollars of armaments, that means they have a lot of weaponry. They are moving toward the middle east to take over the oil industry. 1000 tanks sent to Libya. We could not put together 1000 tanks in a year. MIG fighter bombers. The trend is that Russia is flexing its military muscles. They are encouraging us to go in for sweetness and light.

Chicago Tribune published an article on the same subject without it seeming to be on the same subject. Our president cancelled the B1, which means the air force is through. That was the greatest deterrent to the Soviets. We do not have anything left. We cannot even keep up the maintenance. You cannot put the cruise missile on the 747 or anything else. We have no way of launching this missiles.

Panama canal sovereignty. We are going to let the Soviet Union into the Indian Ocean. High illiteracy rate cuts Navy's ability to function. One illiterate sailor did 250,000 worth of damage to an engine because he could not read and understand the manual. 33% could not read above a 10th grade level. One depended upon pictures since he could not read the directions. The Navy is teaching reading and writing.

The Soviet Union just moved 22 divisions to meet a threat there.

3 senior Carter aides opposed the B1 bomber.

These are trends; vacillation everywhere that you turn. We have no honor and no integrity. These articles all ignore the spiritual factor; the function of the pivot.

David wrote Psalm 60 recognizing that there are many variables in life.

Psalm 60:1–5 covers several military disasters. The battle of Mount Gilboa where Saul and Jonathan died.

Psalm 60 inscription To the choirmaster: according to Shushan Eduth. A Miktam of David; for instruction; when he strove with Aram-naharaim and with Aram-zobah, and when Joab on his return struck down twelve thousand of Edom in the Valley of Salt.

The grace of God scattered the Jews in defeat.

The integrity of God overcomes the variables.

Piel imperfect of shuv, and this is a prayer which David made when he heard of the disaster of Mt. Gilboa. This is a prayer that we could all pray right now.

The Communists had no respect for us in Asia because of the policy and the way it was set up. Those who set up this policy were men of evil. LBJ said, "You will not even bomb an outhouse without direct permission from me." He said this to an air force general; that is a rotten, evil. He spent a lot of time drunk and not on the scene.

Psalm 60:1 O God, you have rejected us, broken our defenses; you have been angry; oh, restore us.

Rapha this is where we are, tottering on the brink of ruin. In 2 academies, the speeches were almost imbecilic. The only one close to sanity was the grad speech at the air force academy.

Psalm 60:2 You have made the land to quake; You have torn it open [You have broken it]; repair its breaches [solve its disasters], for it totters.

This information is to stimulate us to doctrine and a large pivot will change the whole thing. There is a change because of a relationship with the integrity of God.

This is the wine of staggering. It is to stagger; to lose control; to be unable to fight. Bob gets a guilt complex when dealing with a drunk trying to fight. It is too easy.

The analogy is between wine and the justice of God. The same wine which can be a blessing can also be a cursing. This is understood in the ancient world.

Psalm 60:3 You have made your people see hard things [disastrous circumstances]; You have given us wine to drink that made us stagger [the wine of uncoordination or of vacillation or of staggering].

Then we have a regimental banner, the banner for a unit. This is for rallying troops. To resuscitate a nation, there must be a rallying point, which is Bible doctrine; represented by this standard which is raised up. Somehow doctrine or the truth is in this verse?

Psalm 60:4 You have set up a banner for those who fear you [i.e., those who are occupied with Christ], that they may flee to it from the bow. Selah

Deliverance chalatz, which means to answer, to deliver, to save; but in the Niphal, it means to be prepared for war. Learn doctrine and your loved ones will be prepared for war.

Psalm 60:5 That your beloved ones may be delivered, give salvation by your right hand and answer us!

The integrity of the Lord Jesus Christ. This was a pretty grim picture. This fits perfectly with our historical situation at this time. The cancelling of the B1 bomber is disastrous. We are destroying ourselves. We are not using weapons which we have. Rickover had a fantastic idea, to send out on sweeps 20 vessels at a time with nuclear missiles attached. This was ignored.

In order to keep scum alive, in order to keep welfare going, we cancel military programs. Bob is getting tired of reading about soviet weapons. Their hand weapons are designed to shoot 1000 yards. We can't hit anything with our basic infantry equipment. They do not have anything like our .45 automatics. The basic things we give our soldiers do not have the firepower. Even in the most simple things, we are way behind.

The one weapon the White House cannot cancel is the relationship which we have with the integrity of God. Did God answer David's prayer? V. 6 is the answer.

To have esprit de corps. The Edomites, Moabites, and Syrians had all kinds of great military pluses; and David had esprit de corps.

The first thing which David did was to draft soldiers from Shechem. That is the idea of this word.

Psalm 60:6 God has spoken in (by means of) His holiness [integrity]: "With exultation I will divide up Shechem and portion out the Vale of Succoth.

He has a relationship with the integrity of God. Then he drafts an army. Then he defeats all of the nations around him.

Psalm 60:7 Gilead is mine; Manasseh is mine; Ephraim is my helmet; Judah is my scepter [policy maker].

Psalm 60:8 Moab is my washbasin [My field latrine]; upon Edom I cast my shoe; over Philistia I shout in triumph."

Between the disaster and the victory. David presents 2 rhetorical questions. Even after victory, there are variables.

Abishai took a corp and clobbered Edom. 18,000 casualties. Then Joab came in and exploited the victory with 12,000 casualties.

There is a group who held out in Petra, the fortified city. When David did all of these things, even his genius could not deal with all of the variables. Military genius cannot overcome; but what can overcome is the integrity of God. These are rhetorical questions. There is always a variable which jumps up. This reminds all of us that the difference is always the integrity of God.

A song the British used to sing, lest we forget. Never forget the source of our blessing. No matter how great a man is, there are variables greater than we are. Without the integrity of God, these variables are never overcome. Only the integrity of God makes the difference. It is our point of reference. Maximum intake of doctrine is the only way to deal with all of the variables. This is a reminder as to our shortfalls. We are all human. No matter how successful or wonderful we are, we cannot get away from our complete dependence upon the integrity of God. It is always the integrity of God and everyone should know it.

Psalm 60:9 Who will bring me to the fortified city? Who will lead me to Edom?

God, did you not invade with our armies? Because of his adjustment, it was blessing in this case.

Psalm 60:10 Have you not rejected us, O God? You do not go forth [invade], O God, with our armies.

Some wimp translated this passage.

Not Nathan but Jahav, and David is looking at the variables. Nathan is used for no variables. The integrity of God, which is the function of the justice of God, is so fantastic; and he is dealing with the intangibles of life.

Tsar means enemies. The more successful you become, the more enemies you will have. It is spiritual to have enemies. You will have enemies if your success is from the integrity of God. You cannot be successful without arousing the jealousy and the insane hostility of others. All successful people have enemies. They smile to your face and make all of the appropriate noises. David does not know where his enemies are.

A lot of people went home and hated David. They were jealous.

These are not the enemies in front of David; you can see them; they are the tangibles. You can see the chariots as the Syrians come in to attack, or the light infantry of the Philistines. However, these are the evil men who are arrogant and implacable toward you.

As a military man, David has had tremendous help. Tangible help against a visible enemy. He is the greatest general of his age. Now as he goes back, he faces the greatest enemy of all. The enemies that he does not know are his enemies. The treachery of arrogance and implacability. The wars are over for awhile. The people who act as if they are your friend, but are in truth your enemies. We have all been surrounded by people who claim to be our friends, but are, in truth, our enemies. David knew that the integrity of God which could overcome the enemy on the battlefield could also overcome the enemy in his palace and hidden in the land. These are part of the great variables of this life.

This brings us right back to our wall of fire.

Worthless is the deliverance of man.

Psalm 60:11 Oh, grant us help against the foe, for vain is the salvation of man [worthless is the deliverance of man]!

It is the smiling, sweet person who seeks to destroy you. God is a fortification and a wall of fire.

Psalm 62:9 Men of low degree are always worthless. Bob dedicates this to all those who hate his guts tonight. Men of rank are a lie; in the balances of the scale, they go up. When you are put on the balance with the men of integrity, you have no weight. They are lighter than breath.

Through the integrity of God or by means of the Godhead. Through doctrine, we will manufacture battle courage.

The same doctrine in our souls deals with the visible and invisible enemies in our lives. This doctrine gives us courage against the visible enemy and it provides protection against the invisible enemy.

This is the same doctrine which God tramples our enemies.

Bob expressed some sadness for someone who had died, and someone else said, "He ran you down every day."

Psalms 60:12 With God we shall do valiantly [we will manufacture battle courage]; it is he who will tread down [trample into the dust] our foes [enemies].

Next we will study the political prosperity of David. He will be shown as a great administrator. There is the paperwork and the battle. David is great in both.

2Samuel 8:15

We are in the right place here.

4th of July conference is over. The mad scramble for seats always awes Bob somewhat. The ushers stand back and watch people dive over seats and claim them in unusual ways. There is an apparent indifference between parents and children in church. Some of you are very lax. Apparently, there was a kid who fell out of a tree or something and is dying. Bob treats this kind of lightly, so it is hard to tell if this is actually going on.

Someone was led to return to Rhodesia, but was killed there in the military.

We are going to see David's governmental prosperity. The variables increase immediately.

Malice in Blunderland by Thomas Martin. Recently I bought a new car for my wife. She picked one which appeared to be well-manufactured. Shortly, when she needed to make a left turn, every light went on, flashing. Took it to the dealer, expecting it to be solved, and they were assured the problem was trivial. They were told to wait and it would only be about 20 minutes. Because of the excellent engineering, but a ball bearing in the steering column was lost, and there was not one in stock. It had to be ordered from Germany, and it took 2 weeks to find it. It was delivered to Texas, but to El Paso instead of Dallas. Just as before, the flashers came on, and none of the signal lights worked, and the steering wheel was twisted 90 degrees to the right when the wheels were straight.

General definition of a glitch: an inherent built-in fallibility in any human contrivance. From this is Murphy's Laws. If something can go wrong, it will. If left to go, it will go to crap. Nature always sides with the hidden flaw. Revisions of Murphy's Law. It will go wrong at the most difficult time. Nothing is foolproof because fools are ingenious. Interchangeable parts won't. Reassembly will end up with additional components left on the bench. All constants are variables. The most obviously correct figure, will be the source of the error. After the last 16 mounting screws have been removed from an access plate, it will be discovered that the access plate is the wrong one.

The Finagle Factor. This corrects numerical errors, while the kluge does something else, and Granhome describes the kluge. Poorly matching parts which form a distressing whole.

Dobbins Law, when in doubt, use a bigger hammer. Severide's Law: the chief cause of problems are solutions.

Apparently this all came out of Malice in Blunderland?

We are ready for David's prosperity as a ruler. 998–965 B.C. is the time David will rule over all of Israel. He ruled over the largest piece of land that anyone would rule over in Israel until the Millennium. God has promoted David and has expanded Israel. This expanded kingdom is blessing from the justice of God.

Qal active participle of asah, which is making something out of existing materials. He manufactured out of the doctrine in his soul, a government of integrity.

Mishpat is the first word. This is judgment or the punishment of crime. There must be the suppression of crime. Crime destroys freedom. A ruler must have integrity and guilt must be established before any form of punishment was forthcoming. During all the time of Jewish history, there was always an emphasis upon evidence. The great breakdown of Jewish Law occurred when Jesus was tried. The Mosaic Law is the source of military policy and law. The lack of crime made Israel a good place to live. Public executions, and they were attended by potential criminals who decided to turn to another source of livelihood.

Tsedeka. David had more power and more authority than any other ruler in all of Israel's history. Integrity is the reward and recognition for those who are honorable in the kingdom. Honored professions like the military and police and governmental services.

Principles from v. 15

1. The ruler of a nation must have virtue in the form of integrity.
2. So much power invested in one person must be accompanied with personal integrity. Labor unions have become destructive and their whole reason for existence has been destroyed.
3. David had that virtue or integrity from maximum doctrine in the soul.

4. Therefore, David was fair and just in dealing with all people in his kingdom. He did not abuse his great power nor did he become arrogant because of this power. He was not susceptible to flattery.
5. His kingdom had a number of different nationalities and ethnic groups.
6. The administration of such an amalgamation called for great wisdom and integrity above and beyond the ability of any human being. He needed a system greater than he was. He had true humility. True humility is to have great power and not to abuse that power. Most people judge humility and arrogance in a very superficial manner. The greatest arrogance Bob has seen comes in phoney humble packages.
7. The key to David's success was in relationship to the integrity of God.
8. National postulates fulfilled in David's reign.
9. One man with spiritual integrity cannot do the job by himself. He must have good subordinates.
10. Administration demands the delegation of authority. There is a difference between administration and policy-making. Administration is constant. Administration is static. Good administration is a routine. Whatever it is. All policy comes out of Bob's office. However, authority must be delegated there. Policy belongs to management; always. Labor unions come in and demand to make policy. If anyone is not qualified to make policy, it is labor. There is no suggestion box at the church. Delegation of authority requires the proper assignment of responsibilities to subordinates.

We are going to meet the policy-makers. David avoided bureaucracy, which attempts to make policy-makers out of administrators. Once the bureau gets started, there is this power-mad jackass who goes crazy with his power.

These are the policy-makers, and below them will be the administrators.

David was a fantastic policy-maker in Israel. Efficient government means freedom and inefficient government means tyranny.

2Sam. 8:15 So David reigned over all Israel. And David administered justice and equity to all his people.

We begin with the military. The fact that Joab was his nephew did not keep him out of this position. David was not concerned; he picked the best man for the job. A truly great man ignores criticism. He rejects it. He knows he is doing the correct thing and he does it.

Zeruiah was David's sister. Bob envisions her as red-headed, and her children as well. She had 3 sons who became great generals.

Josephus tells us that their father is Surrree of Bethlehem and he died when his sons were small children. We do not know what her husband did. However, this mother grieved his death and still raised up 3 great warriors. If kids turn out well, the fathers get the credit and if they don't, the mothers are blamed.

Zeruiah

1. Zeruiah was the sister of David whose husband died early.
2. Zeruiah raised 3 warriors who are classified as being borderline geniuses. They are men of fantastic intellect and courageous men in war. Everyone has a different capacity in the armed forces. It is extremely important and our military has never understood the principle. WWII was a great exception with regards to the Navy. The most brilliant men, with a few exceptions, were officers in the Navy. The army promotes people who have no capacity except for politics during peace time.
3. Joab served David faithfully. He did not waver in his loyalty to David. He probably admired Absalom probably more than anyone else, but he still remained loyal to David. He never allowed friendship or a woman to interfere with his job.

In the final battle of Ephraim, he killed Absalom. He knew if he obeyed the command of the king, there would never be an end to trouble.

He had the knack even more than David did in order to pick the right man for the job.

Once David died, he considered himself to be free to move in any direction. He made the wrong choice. He would have been a lousy king and a lousy army commander. He needed the supervision of a greater genius. He made it work because he was always loyal to a greater man. He was not a great independent commander.

Never mix your loyalty with arrogance. It is a rare person who can handle an independent command.

Somewhere in life, find out what your capacity is, and never push past it. Whatever it is, find it and stay with it. Do not be tempted to go above what your capacity dictates. That is how lives are destroyed. You will be a lot happier in life as well.

We noted the difference between administration and policy making.

Bob reads Malice in Blunderland. This is all about bureaucracy, but just so-so. 20 minutes

There are always variables beyond any man, no matter how much of a genius he is. The verb means to remember, but Bob says he is a prime minister (Jehoshaphat)

the one causing to remember refers to a policy maker. He was the middle man between David and the administration.

The political and the military must be kept separate. The secretaries of this or that service really have no idea what to do with the military. Carter illustrates this. We fight every war with total inefficiency at the top. If it were not for those at the bottom, we would lose every war.

The excuse given is that we do not want a military coup. David separated the military from the civilian functions. These must not be allowed to overlap; that destroys the professionalism of the military.

The mayor is an amateur in the field of crime. When the mayor appoints the chief of police, he may not have the ability to actually figure out who is needed.

When it comes to a doctor, you find a professional. The infiltration of politics destroys other fields. Incompetence in the legal field or in the medical field, then people in that field ought to police that.

2Sam. 8:16 Joab the son of Zeruah was over the army, and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder, now we move to the spiritual side. There is the great principle of national relationship to the integrity of God.

Zadok and Abiathar are both related to Aaron. Zadok is from Eleazar; Abiathar is from the house of Ithamar, Aaron's youngest son. Zadok was in the military?

The national postulates and the personal postulates. There is no advantage to the advantages without the advantage. If you have the advantage, then you have the advantages from the justice of God. Without the advantage, imputed righteousness + capacity.

The rest are national postulates. No nation can have the advantages without the advantage, which is what has carried our nation.

David also had an executive secretary, who helped David to keep up with all of the administration.

2Sam. 8:17 and Zadok the son of Ahitub and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar were priests, and Seraiah was secretary,

It just takes one cluck to take out a ruler, and this does not solve anything. It leads to a takeover of power which is even worse. It intensifies the problem. Assassination is never the answer. This does not solve the problem at all.

Beniah succeeded Joab as the military chief-of-staff. Beniah is the great military hero. He personally killed Adonijah and then Joab. He was loyal to David even after his death.

The Cherethites were Greek sea people. They were pirates and traders. Pelethites were those Achaean Greeks. They could be killed in the Philistine war or being recruited. Some were recruited and they were loyal to David all of his life.

2Sam. 8:18 and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and David's sons were priests.

Joab was truly a great man, but it was a capacity matter. His ability and capacity required that he be under the command of a greater man. He was loyal as long as David was alive. However, he had to prove something.

David's sons here became chief ministers. The whole family had great abilities.

Psalm 68:1–6

Psalm 68:1 To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David. A Song. God shall arise, his enemies shall be scattered; and those who hate him shall flee before him!

Above David is the justice of God. Even with all of his ability and all of his power, he cannot handle all of the variables. God must remove the variables in order for David to deal. He always stayed within his boundaries.

Psalm 68:2 As smoke is driven away, so you shall drive them away; as wax melts before fire, so the wicked [so let the evil reversionist] shall perish before God!

David thinks about the pivot in v. 3.

Psalm 68:3 But the righteous shall be glad; they shall exult before God [let them demonstrate esprit decorps before God]; they shall be jubilant with joy!

God is the deliverer.

Psalm 68:4 Sing to God, sing praises to his name; lift up a song to him who rides through the deserts; his name is the LORD; exult before Him!

Orphans and widows are helpless.

Psalm 68:5 Father of the fatherless and protector of widows is God in His holy habitation.

Sarar; only the reversionist lies down in a parched land.

Adjustment to the justice of God overcomes the variables.

Psalm 68:6 God settles the solitary in a home; he leads out the prisoners to prosperity, but the rebellious dwell in a parched land.

Spiritual blessing, , blessing by association (ch. 9) and they match up with paragraph 1-3 for SG2.

David becomes a blessing to those in his periphery. He is a source of blessing. There are those who have total relationship to the integrity of God.

Points

1. There is direct blessing from God and indirect blessing.
2. A mature believer can be a blessing to all of his loved ones.
3. Those in the same business can be blessed.
4. Professional blessing by association. Maybe it is a school, a symphony orchestra
5. Social periphery.
6. Church periphery.
7. A geographical periphery. City, county, nation.
8. Blessings may come directly from God or from the person who is mature.
9. Even after death, blessing by association with a mature believer is perpetuated in the intimate relationships of life.
10. A pastoral periphery. No congregation can exceed the maturity of its pastor.

Jonathan should have gone with David instead of staying with his father.

There was a nurse who tried to save Mephibosheth and both of his feet were injured when she fell down. 2Sam. 4:4 Have a little compassion for handicapped people; their variables are a little intensified. However, you do not give them too much sympathy if it leads to self-pity on their part. Let them do all they can; do not help them unnecessarily. Fundies are the worst that Bob has seen.

This will be a study of the handicapped.

This is after all of this great prosperity and the winning of all those wars.

This is what David does. Potential + capacity = reality. We have seen this in the military and in government; and soon with a handicapped person.

Doctrine is greater than any of us. Doctrine inside of us is greater than we are. These were given to us by God. David's treatment of the handicapped will be challenged. He almost become abusive at one point; and David is a greater man at the end of the chapter than at the beginning.

2Sam. 9:1 And David said, "Is there still anyone left of the house of Saul, that I may show [manufacture] him grace for Jonathan's sake?"

Ziba is the villain of the chapter. He is one of those scheming, crafty people. He is one of those kinds who lands on his feet. He was the master of CYA. This was a remarkable person in the field of brown-nosing. He is one of the greatest in all of history. He is called the surviving type who ingratiates himself to everyone. He is always sweetness and light. He was a master of the art of flattery. No unkind words in your presence; always in your absence.

Ziba was well-known in the kingdom. He had been in charge of Saul's castle. Even with the loss of Saul, he ended up with a larger castle than even Saul; he had all Saul's money and there was no one to challenge him except the crypt. Too much sensitivity leads to self-pity. Ziba had all of Saul's estates and he was a wealthy man. 15 sons and his 20? He kept track of useful people and knew where Mephibosheth could be found.

2Sam. 9:2 Now there was a servant of the house of Saul whose name was Ziba, and they called him to David. And the king said to him, "Are you Ziba?" And he said, "I am your servant."

Mephibosheth had been broken in spirit because of his handicap, and that is where we will leave Mephibosheth.

2Samuel 9:3–13

72David

631_0210

Ziba and Mephibosheth are the two people introduced in this chapter. Ziba is a scheming one who always lands on his feet. The Ziba's of this life are with us always; they are conniving; they always cheat. Ziba figured out a way to abscond with all of Saul's estate. He kept track of people who might be useful to him; so he knew where Mephibosheth was.

There is respect for authority and there is obsequiousness.

2Sam. 9:2 Now there was a servant of the house of Saul whose name was Ziba, and they called him to David. And the king said to him, "Are you Ziba?" And he said, "I am your servant."

Mephibosheth was a hopeless cripple. This is a physical handicap which overflows into the soul.

2Sam. 9:3 And the king said, "Is there not still someone of the house of Saul, that I may show the kindness of God to him?" Ziba said to the king, "There is still a son of Jonathan; he is crippled in his feet."

So David asks him where Mephibosheth is. We will meet an interesting group of people whom we will never see again. Mephibosheth has a great background, but has crawled into a hole of self-pity. Then there is one of the noble people of life; he takes care of the details of life.

Never use anything as an excuse for your failures. There is no excuse. Don't use the Angelic Conflict; don't use this or that. So who hasn't failed? None of us are perfect. Mephibosheth used his handicap as an excuse. There is only one excuse to fail in life and to become a wimpy crybaby and that is death. Legitimate excuses are just as bad as rationalized excuses. Handicaps are variables on the other end of life. Beyond David's genius are variables. There are greater variables beyond handicaps. When the smoke clears, we will discover that Mephibosheth goes from 0 to 100 based upon grace. If you blame everything upon your handicap, you will always be a loser. Psychology and psychiatry are making millions of dollars on this. They find some legitimate excuse for you being a monster, and then Bob would charge a large price to do this.

If you recognize a failure and it involves sin, you confess it and move on.

Mephibosheth is, in many ways, worse than Ziba. Ziba knows what he wants and he is out to get it and he uses his evil ways to get what he wants. Mephibosheth has given up and suffers from give-up=itis. He has allowed a handicap to ruin him. One of the things we need to observe is, how do you treat the handicap. The fact that they have a handicap is none of our business. Never allow your children to ridicule anyone else. Children are cruel, but one reason they are cruel is because their parents are stupid. You do not ridicule a handicap and you watch your children to make sure that they do not ridicule others. The schools system used to be good about this. It is never too early to begin training children properly.

Machir has no handicap. He is an objective person. He is a man of great integrity and great honor. To the extent that you use people, you are just as weak as those who abuse the handicapped. The integrity of God is your relationship. Machir appears to be a believer, but nothing is said directly. He did the right thing in offering a home; a place of safety for Mephibosheth; and he did not use Mephibosheth to advance himself.

The justice of God gives us the righteousness of God. When we receive that, we are justified. That provides us with the a fortiori that, if God does the greater for us, then God will do the less. We will build up a tremendous a fortiori paragraph. Middle of Rom. 5 uses salvation as a springboard to teach a whole host of principles. We'll be off of David by Sunday night; and apparently Romans is next? The Romans study is 1977.

2Sam. 17 tells us that Machir was a wealthy man, and it manifested itself in his graciousness, moral courage, etc. Some would have thought twice about providing a haven for Mephibosheth, who might be on the outs with the Davidic administration. Mephibosheth was living a normal life and had even acquired a wife. And he had his own son as well.

2Sam. 9:4 The king said to him, "Where is he?" And Ziba said to the king, "He is in the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, at Lo-debar."

2Sam. 9:5 Then King David sent and brought him from the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, at Lo-debar.

He followed the trend of his handicap, indicating that he was in bad shape spiritually. When he was summoned to the palace of the king, he thought he had been discovered and thought that this would be an execution. He knows nothing of the friendship between David and Jonathan.

What Mephibosheth is protocol before the king.

2Sam. 9:6 And Mephibosheth the son of Jonathan, son of Saul, came to David and fell on his face and paid homage [and prostrated himself]. And David said, "Mephibosheth!" And he answered, "Behold, I am your servant."

David told him not to be afraid. This is an order. And David explains. For someone expecting the firing squad, this is a nice switch. The justice of God uses maturity to care for the helpless. This is not a welfare state, but this is genuine charity. God expects the mature to take care of the helpless.

2Sam. 9:7 And David said to him, "Do not fear, for I will show you kindness [manufacture grace for you] for the sake of your father Jonathan, and I will restore to you all the land of Saul your father, and you shall eat at my table always."

He falls down again. People in the habit of doing something, under pressure, do that thing. He was in the habit of falling apart. There is no sign that this is a young man from a royal house. We would expect to find courage, etc., but not with Mephibosheth. Never get your laughs from the handicapped. Get your kicks in another way.

He describes himself as a dead dog. This reveals the condition of Mephibosheth's soul.

Profile of a Dead Dog

1. Loss of his parents before he knew his parents; the handicap of being lame, the helplessness of personal poverty and being the ward of a private person took its toll on the soul of Mephibosheth. They collapsed his soul. No one can take the variables of life without doctrine. These variables hurt Mephibosheth. Variables can be created by your circumstances. None of us have any control over the variables of childhood; or of our early environment. We all have the ability to overcome any adverse variables. We have no excuse, as we have doctrine every day. Doctrine is the only answer to the variables of life. Clinical psychology would drool over your life. You came in here as cripples. Legalism despised you and threw you out. Many came in Berachah with a list of failures that would fill a textbook, with a list of explanations which is even larger. Berachah was a haven to you. No matter how the fundies have failed. Many of you came in here with combined variables that would crush geniuses today. It is doctrine which makes the difference. What is true of Berachah should be true of every local church. The very authority that you reject protects all of your problems. If you get too high and mighty, you are going to get hit with variables, and it reminds us that we are helpless, hopeless and useless.
2. Dispirited and broken of soul, Mephibosheth had given up living. How could he give up living with a wife and a son and living with an honorable man.

3. He was living in the shadow of a deformed soul.
4. Physical deformity had turned to frustration, to disappointment; the variables of light had all but destroyed Mephibosheth. No believer can survive the variables of life without doctrine.
5. Without doctrine and adjustment to the justice of God, a crippled body becomes a crippled soul. The first is okay the second is not. He had given up.
6. Mephibosheth could not help his physical handicap, but he still had a soul and God still had a plan for his life.
7. By association, the dead dog will become a living prince. Doctrine is our stability in life.
8. Mephibosheth had been broken so many times, that he had wrecked his soul. He kept bending. A variable hits you and you bend. Self-pity hits him and he bends; but he never breaks.

2Sam. 9:8 And he paid homage and said, "What is your servant, that you should show regard for a dead dog such as I?"

The king then calls back Ziba, and he tells him, "All that belonged to Saul, I have given to your master's grandson." This is a decree. Ziba had taken over everything; he had stolen everything. He took control of Saul's estates and profited by them. Ziba managed to scrounge up all that belonged so Saul.

2Sam. 9:9 Then the king called Ziba, Saul's servant, and said to him, "All that belonged to Saul and to all his house I have given to your master's grandson.

David makes decisions on facts. Saul had great authority and David never rejected that authority.

David had 15 sons and 20 managers, which indicated that there might be 20 castles they are in charge of. It takes organization to connive and cheat.

2Sam. 9:10 And you and your sons and your servants shall till the land for him and shall bring in the produce, that your master's grandson may have bread to eat. But Mephibosheth your master's grandson shall always eat at my table." Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.

Ziba is using double-talk. He is trying to finagle here. It sounds good. Ziba never recognized anyone else's authority but his own. They only knuckle under in order to get their way.

2Sam. 9:11 Then Ziba said to the king, "According to all that my lord the king commands his servant, so will your servant do." So Mephibosheth ate at David's table, like one of the king's sons.

Mephibosheth eats at the king's table. He had a young son, Mica. All of those in Ziba's house became Mephibosheth's servants.

2Sam. 9:12 And Mephibosheth had a young son, whose name was Mica. And all who lived in Ziba's house became Mephibosheth's servants.

Mephibosheth moved to Jerusalem and he lived in the king's palace and he ate at the king's table. He is still lame; his handicap remains, but he is blessed by God. The point is, we all have handicaps, but we can do well in life and be blessed despite the handicaps. With doctrine, you can live with any handicap in life. Something is being done with his handicap of soul. He was lame in both feet.

2Sam. 9:13 So Mephibosheth lived in Jerusalem, for he ate always at the king's table. Now he was lame in both his feet.

We will study the sequel in Sunday morning. He recovered from being crippled of soul.

2Samuel 9 16:1–4 19:24–30 21:7 72David

Sunday AM 631_0211

We are still dealing with blessing by association. We have met Ziba and Mephibosheth. Ziba was without a handicap and he is one of the most evil types, as he appears to be nice, but in reality, he is the quintessence of evil.

We have no ability to cope with the variables of life. Our second word is called trends. Mephibosheth calls himself a dead dog in David's presence; and he had a defeated dispirited outlook on life. Ziba was, on the other hand, greatly arrogant. The trends match their sin natures.

For the unbeliever, first what is needed as salvation adjustment to the justice of God. It takes time to catch up with deceitful and evil people. He should have caught up with himself and change his trend. What is required is the spiritual solution.

Ziba schemed to get all of his stuff back along with all of Saul's stuff. It was apparently divided up to 20 properties, overseen by 20 different managers. However, he is now going to work for Mephibosheth, and the profits will no longer go into his pocket. So, he is going to look for an opportunity to take this back. They just need the chance to get what they want. They come in speaking your language, but that is a facade behind which is extreme ambition. The opportunity for the expression of trends will come in the Absalom revolution, and David made the decision to leave Jerusalem. This allows Ziba to utilize his trends. 2Sam. 16: he meets David with provisions, and he said that he wanted to help him in his time of need. At the same time, he lied about Mephibosheth.

Mephibosheth was not the victim and 2Sam. 16:1 When David had passed a little beyond the summit, Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth met him, with a couple of donkeys saddled, bearing two hundred loaves of bread, a hundred bunches of raisins, a hundred of summer fruits, and a skin of wine.

2Sam. 16:2 And the king said to Ziba, "Why have you brought these?" Ziba answered, "The donkeys are for the king's household to ride on, the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat, and the wine for those who faint in the wilderness to drink."

2Sam. 16:3 And the king said, "And where is your master's son?" Ziba said to the king, "Behold, he remains in Jerusalem, for he said, 'Today the house of Israel will give me back the kingdom of my father.'"

Ziba spent most of his life trying to undercut Mephibosheth. Had David recognized that Ziba was a lying SOB, he would have seen through this lie immediately. Absalom was seeking the kingdom for himself and not for the house of Saul. The dynasty of Saul was all over and it was not coming back.

David is under pressure here and does not think this through and he is inclined to believe someone who is as thoughtful as Ziba.

David makes a hasty decision, and he gives all of Mephibosheth's wealth to Ziba. David gave the property of Saul to lying Ziba. David has personal integrity and he superimposed his own integrity onto Ziba. This happens all the time today. There are a certain number of Ziba's in our midst. They all have a facade and they say they are loyal to those they serve, and then they throw in the conjunction but. Then they follow their trends, like building their happiness upon someone else's unhappiness. After you are burned by a few Ziba's, you catch on. But David fell for this hook, line and sinker. Mephibosheth was just biding his time, according to Ziba; but it was really Ziba who was biding his time to take back his stuff. Ziba disguised his motivation and objectives. To acquire these, they must have a facade. He made Mephibosheth seem like an opportunist biding his time.

2Sam. 16:4 Then the king said to Ziba, "Behold, all that belonged to Mephibosheth is now yours." And Ziba said, "I pay homage; let me ever find favor in your sight, my lord the king."

David has an antagonistic attitude here, and he is called the grandson of Saul. Mephibosheth was still loyal to David.

Mephibosheth protested against David's situation by doing these things; not trimming his beard or washing his clothes.

2Sam. 19:24 And Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down to meet the king. He had neither taken care of his feet nor trimmed his beard nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he came back in safety.

2Sam. 19:25 And when he came to Jerusalem to meet the king, the king said to him, "Why did you not go with me, Mephibosheth?"

He was in the stables trying to saddle his own royal ass to go with David. But Ziba talked him out of it.

2Sam. 19:26 He answered, "My lord, O king, my servant deceived me, for your servant said to him, 'I will saddle a donkey for myself, that I may ride on it and go with the king.' For your servant is lame.

It is possible that these provisions were all from Mephibosheth. He was talked out of going by Ziba. He stated his case briefly, and then asked David to decide, based upon what they both said. He is a man of honor and integrity. He does not beg. People of integrity do not beg. They never play on sympathy. They do not appeal to the emotion.

Mephibosheth does not pull that dead dog routine.

2Sam. 19:27 He has slandered your servant to my lord the king. But my lord the king is like the angel of God; do therefore what seems good to you.

17 years later, he recalls the gracious act of David, and recalls it, and this made a new man out of Mephibosheth. With integrity comes gratitude; this is a true appreciation for others. Mephibosheth had been receiving spiritual as well as physical food.

Therefore, "What right do I have to cry out to the king?" He presents the facts; that is all he intends to do. This man is crippled and he will not allow the king to feel sorry for him. He does not appeal to David's compassion, but to his justice.

2Sam. 19:28 For all my father's house were but men doomed to death before my lord the king, but you set your servant among those who eat at your table. What further right have I, then, to cry to the king?"

While he heard Mephibosheth talk, David made a decision. David decides to once and for all settle this matter. Saul's great estates to be divided.

Justice of the King

1. It was obvious from the appearance of Mephibosheth and his resume of the facts that he had been loyal to David.
2. The deception of Ziba cause Mephibosheth to be left behind. It was God's will for Mephibosheth to be left behind.
3. Mephibosheth went into mourning for David and demonstrated this by neglecting his personal appearance.
4. Such action was his protest to Absalom, who for awhile occupied the palace and there was Mephibosheth stinking up the place, an eyesore in the palace. When there was a challenge, Mephibosheth would say, "I am loyal to David and I will not do anything until David returns.” That is a great man of courage, much different from the Mephibosheth which we met before. Absalom was David’s favorite son; they looked alike and thought alike; and they seemed to have the same abilities. They all thought that this was another David. But he was not like David in his soul. Mephibosheth with maximum doctrine in his soul demonstrated integrity. He knew that he would never be the king. Joab disobeyed the king and killed Absalom, even though they were 1st cousins who grew up together. However, he knew that Absalom would be trouble, no matter what. Mephibosheth faced his variable, that he could not go into the field. He could mount an ass and ride, but after that, he was helpless. In staying in the palace, he was David’s greatest weapon. He did more to stop the revolution than anyone else. Mephibosheth had what Absalom lacked; doctrine in the soul. Absalom was once a great believer, but reversionism had destroyed him.

5. It took great courage to stand up to Absalom in this way. Moral courage is the greatest type of courage. Moral courage is what is important and this is true courage. Physical courage can come from a variety of things, like emotion; extreme anger. It can be a temporary insanity from extreme anger.
6. Maximum intake of doctrine, maturity adjustment to the justice of God.
7. The brave man may fall. Where it counted, spiritually and morally, he had true courage, despite his physical handicap. Many a coward passes as a courageous person because of the jacking up of his emotions and a temporary inspirational act.
8. Why did David give half of the property of Saul to Ziba? David was a great man and he understood justice as most people do not. Some people don’t even give their friends the benefit of the doubt when they hear gossip. They totally lack a sense of justice. Here is the greatness of David; he had a perfect sense of justice. He recognized what Ziba did in providing for him, and because of that, he gave him half the kingdom. By giving him half of Saul’s property, he protects Mephibosheth for life. He allows Ziba to be destroyed by his own trend, even with great wealth. They are both wealthy. Ziba will destroy himself with his own trends. David does not hang Ziba or put him in jail. He recognizes trends and he recognizes the overt act of helping him in a time of disaster. But he condemns Ziba to make it on his own. What Ziba tried to do, he failed; and he will wallow miserably in his trends until death, and he will not be able to take Mephibosheth down. The king would have been wrong to execute Ziba who helped him. People would have seen David as ungrateful. People who are smarter than everyone else will do things that the average people do not understand. He lied about Mephibosheth, and now he has half of his estate. This was brilliant. This is perfect justice. Ziba had the wrong motivation, and justice take cognizance of friends. He pulled Ziba’s teeth by giving him half of Saul’s kingdom, to let him wallow in his own problems. The king’s integrity was involved as well as the correct administration of justice.
9. Justice of a king required payment of an obligation.
10. Justice of a king understood that Mephibosheth was telling the truth and that Ziba was lying to him. Ziba has a trend; Mephibosheth has a trend. Ziba’s trend is self-destructive. He cannot follow this trend in jail; and freedom allows him to follow his evil trend out. David will allow him to play his trend out. Out of the 15 sons of Ziba, there may be some who will grow and make salvation adjustment to the justice of God. If none of the estate was given to Ziba, his sons would be in trouble. Why should this corporation suffer because of this one man. Giving all of this wealth to Ziba is not going to take from Mephibosheth, because he has the capacity. He does not need all of it in order to be happy. He has a wife and child. You can give the same thing to 2 people, and doctrine will determine who is happy and who is miserable. Mephibosheth will be happy the rest of his life and Ziba will be miserable. This is a genius administering justice. He recognized that everything that Mephibosheth said was true. Mephibosheth finally comes into his own. Above all, he has the capacity. You can have that wealth and be happy and not have the capacity and be miserable.

11. Ziba has to live with himself, and he has a fortune, but no capacity.
12. In effect, the justice of the king leaves Ziba to the higher court.

Also, Ziba is going to be always concerned about the other half of Saul's property, which he will never get, and that will bother him all of his life.

2Sam. 19:29 And the king said to him, "Why speak any more of your affairs? I have decided: you and Ziba shall divide the land."

Here, we find the real person is the soul. Now, could this be him saying, "As far as I am concerned, he can have it all."

No handicap in that attitude. This demonstrates what Saul should have been and could have been, but was not. Mephibosheth was greater than Saul and even than Jonathan. Doctrine in his soul made him great. Saul had the potential, and Jonathan had the potential, but neither of them reached their potential. Mephibosheth, unattractive, crippled, and he greater than all of them. Mephibosheth is one of the great men of his day. The real David jr. Is Mephibosheth, and not Absalom.

For the rest of his life, there will sit a man, hopelessly handicapped, and not his son, but his great soul makes him David Jr. None of David's other sons, apart from Solomon and Nathan, seemed to develop any spiritual integrity. However, we know nothing about Nathan.

2Sam. 19:30 And Mephibosheth said to the king, "Oh, let him take it all, since my lord the king has come safely home."

The Gibeonites came to David for some justice. Saul tried to destroy them. Joshua made a deal with them that always stood. But Saul ignored this and massacred many of them. David will allow one to be spared.

2Sam. 21:7 But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Saul's son Jonathan, because of the oath of the LORD that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul.

The principle of historical impact related to David. This is apparently the 2nd session on Sunday?

We are going to study a subject which is generally misunderstood.

blessing by association. 2Sam. 9

Historical impact

Sooner or later, we all come to the variables of life. Then we have the problem of the trends. Prosperity and maturity adjustment to the justice of God.

Feminine plural of maalah, which means ascent, going up; advancement. This is a song of advancements with reference to David.

Psalm 131 inscriptions A Song of Advancement with reference to David.

Negative lo and gabah, with a paradoxical hê. O, Lord, my right lobe is not arrogant. Variables are outside of the individual. Rum to raise oneself up; the idiom is, I am not promoting myself.

The Piel perfect of halak, which means to go, to march, to proceed; to involve oneself (in the Piel). David recognizes that the variables of life are totally beyond human ability. Be + the participle of pala, which means to be extraordinary, too hard, too difficult.

When you have maturity adjustment to the Justice of God, you have no hangups, nothing to prove, no arrogance to weaken him, no cause to panic. He is free from the things which could destroy him. In one brief verse, David understood the variables of life, and he never lost his perspective.

Psalm 131:1 O LORD, my heart is not lifted up [my right lobe is not arrogant]; my eyes are not raised too high [i.e., I am not promoting myself]; I do not occupy [involve] myself with things [matters] too great [too difficult] and too marvelous for me.

Victory over the trends of his soul. Hyperactivity is not the issue here. We begin with a real problem, with a rare idiom which is hard to understand. Im lo. Usually behold, but there is a negative, which gives us an affirmative demonstrative. This is a formula for positive results, and we can say emphatically. Shawah in the Piel it means to smooth down, to sooth, to equalize. Emphatically, I have equalized... Dammam closes the mouth and it means to shut up. However, in the Poel, it intensified silence. It means to have composure.

David is speaking of trends. A child before weaning does not have trends. He has not had a chance to develop any trends. Whatever trends he developed of the old sin nature, which have dominated; and there are trends and the variables; and they are both eliminated. A weaned child is the analogy. The child is helpless and without sin nature trends. He is helpless to handle the trends and the variables, but God has provided with logistical grace, both of these.

Psalm 131:2 But I have calmed and quieted [Emphatically, I have equalized and composed] my soul, like a weaned child with its mother; like a weaned child is my soul within me.

The historical impact of David. Imperative mood, not the imperfect. Jachal means to run away and to be in such terrible pain, and to find the spiritual strength to bear the pain. Here, to wait, to expect, to hope. From the time of David, time and time again, this phrase would be used in times of disaster. The command is to have a relationship with the integrity of God. This is hope in the technical sense.

Hope in or toward the Lord.

From this moment and forever. They are to achieve the 3 adjustments to the justice of God. As goes the pivot, so goes the nation. Salvation adjustment to the justice of God.

The postulates dealing with the integrity of God and the nation. No nation can have the advantages without the advantage. David's command establishes that principle. A nation without the advantage loses the advantages. No nation can recover its advantages without the advantage. Loss of advantages and the advantage could remove that nation from history.

Psalm 131:3 O Israel, hope in the LORD from this time forth and forevermore.

This introduces the historical impact of David. A variable combined with a trend means you are ruined; if a variable is combined with doctrine of the soul, you are a winner. At this point in Solomon's life, he was a loser. He was in reversionism.

Having a complete right lobe means maturity adjustment to the Justice of God. David is blessed of God because he has maturity adjustment to the justice of God.

1Kings 11:4 For when Solomon was old his wives turned away his heart after other gods, and his heart was not wholly true [complete] to the LORD his God, as was the heart of David his father.

1Kings 11:5 For Solomon went after Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, and after Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites.

Solomon manufactures evil out of his reversionism.

Mala means to complete, to fill up. He was not filled up with doctrine like David. He did not attain maturity adjustment to the Justice of God. Who is the norms and standards? Who is the criterion? David.

1Kings 11:6 So Solomon did what was evil [manufactured the evil] in the sight of the LORD and did not wholly follow the LORD, as David his father had done.

Lets go to 1Kings 11, a few hundred years later.

1Kings 15:11 And Asa did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, as David his father had done.

A few hundred years later with Amaziah. He manufactured integrity but did not go far enough.

2Kings 14:3 And he did what was right [manufactured integrity] in the eyes of the LORD, yet not like David his father. He did in all things as Joash his father had done.

Ahab followed his trends and did not do well with variables.

2Kings 16:2 Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And he did not do what was right in the eyes of the LORD his God, as his father David had done,

Now, 300 years after David.

2Kings 18:3 And he did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done.

He was caused to stand according to the justice of David his father.

2Chron. 8:14 According to the ruling of David his father, he appointed the divisions of the priests for their service, and the Levites for their offices of praise and ministry before the priests as the duty of each day required, and the gatekeepers in their divisions at each gate, for so David the man of God had commanded.

2Chronicles 17:3 The LORD was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the earlier ways of his father David. He did not seek the Baals, 2Chronicles 28:1 Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And he did not do what was right in the eyes of the LORD, as his father David had done, 2Chronicles 29:2 And he did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done.

This takes is to 500 years later. There were 2 kings of kings who sat on the throne and those with maturity adjustment to the justice of God, or there was maladjustment to the justice of God. Those who succeeded, succeeded like David did. The same principles for those who succeeded.

He manufactures out of doctrine integrity in the eyes of the Lord.

2Chronicles 34:2 And he did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father; and he did not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.

Here is a tremendous principle of historical impact, which is the difference between blessing and lack of blessing to a nation.

2Chronicles 34:3 For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet a boy, he began to seek the God of David his father, and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem of the high places, the Asherim, and the carved and the metal images.

Psalm 132:8–11

A command is made here to the Lord, and this refers to Israel as the priest nation. The justice of God must be propitiated in order to bless nations. It is to bless nations and individuals.

Psalm 132:8 Arise, O LORD, and go to Your resting place [the place of Your inhabitation, which is the priest nation Israel], you and the ark of your might.

The priests here are not Levitical priests, but the people in a nation. These are the mature believers in a priest nation.

Jesus Christ overcomes the variables in historical disaster, which is in response to a large enough pivot to do so. The response is to God and His deliverance. Deliverance in historical disaster. Maturity adjustment to the Justice of God is the reality of blessing in this life.

Psalm 132:9 Let your priests be clothed with righteousness, and let your saints [godly ones or grace orientated believers in the pivot] shout for joy [celebrate with shouting and singing].

This was a prayer prayed during historical disaster. There is a parallel passage in Psalm 89, which is David's historical impact. All of this is David's historical impact. It is not who and what we are, in the approach of the fifth cycle of discipline, but based upon who and what David was.

Psalm 132:10 For the sake of your servant David, do not turn away the face of your anointed one [the Messiah, Who controls history].

This prayer would be prayed, but the pivot was too small. Israel will again be a nation. The priest nation will be formed again, and with the formation of the priest nation, we have the fulfillment of the Davidic Covenant.

Reflexive Niphal perfect of shava, which is a solemn promise. We can depend upon God's integrity and we can depend upon doctrine. Both the promise and the doctrine are from the integrity of God. They relate to David under the principle of historical impact.

From the body of David will come Joseph and Mary and from that, the 1st advent. It is very rare for any great person to go beyond his own history. Abraham had an impact on history right now to the present time; the same for Moses. The impact of David will be perpetuated forever. Wherever you see David's name, it is like David.

Jesus Christ is continually tied to the seed of David. David took to himself Bible doctrine into his soul until he had that total relationship with the integrity of God. Because of this, eternal God would become God. No one had greater historical impact than David.

Psalm 132:11 [The LORD swore to David a sure oath \[solemn promise\] from which he will not turn back: "One of the sons of your body I will set on your throne.](#)

Back to Romans tomorrow night and eventually, Bob will go back to David.

This is 1.5 years later from the last lesson.

Re-listened to the first 23 minutes to improve the notes and then I went back to re-write some of the notes as well.

From http://iris.haverford.edu/athens/wp-content/uploads/2009/08/Aegean\_Map.png

There will be a service tonite, even though it is not on the bulletin Bum Philips said that if you leave church early, it will be bad luck for the Oilers.

998–960 B.C. is when this portion of 2Samuel is occurring. It is a very strange period of time in human history. About 200 years before David had come to the throne (circa 1004 B.C.), the great Hittite empire was suddenly destroyed because of an eruption of the Great Sea Peoples who came out of Europe.

From Wikipedia: The Sea Peoples is the term used for a confederacy of seafaring raiders of the second millennium B.C. who sailed into the eastern Mediterranean, caused political unrest, and attempted to enter or control Egyptian territory during the late 19th dynasty and especially during Year 8 of Rameses III of the 20th Dynasty. The Egyptian Pharaoh Merneptah explicitly refers to them by the term "the foreign-countries (or 'peoples') of the sea"<sup>1</sup>

These Sea Peoples had crossed over the Hellespont (a peninsula which allowed the Greeks to cross over from Thrace into Asia Minor—see the map above). They took Troy and Bogaz-Keui. The latter city was the capital of the Hittite empire; and later known as Hattusas. It is also spelled Boğazköy or Boghazkeui<sup>2</sup>

These people were apparently a part of the great Dorian thrust which caused the dark ages in Greece. They later became known as Phrygians, Lykians, Mycenaeans; these people who were some sort of a strange barbaric people. They moved all through Anatolia [ancient Turkey] but did not cross over the Taurus mountains into the plains of Syria [not on the map below, but obviously between Anatolia and Syria]—this helped in the time of David.

They moved about and made one excursion through Palestine heading for Egypt. Rameses III stopped them in Egypt. The remnants of this attacking force moved into the Gaza strip and became the Philistines; the Philistines are Greeks; an amalgamation of some Greek groups—the Mycenaeans (or Achaeans), the various Dorian groups who had been taking places like Cypress and Crete and would eventually become the Etruscans in Italy.

It was a very strange period of history in which David finds himself. To David's north is Tiglath Pileser's Assyrian empire went into a sudden decline. The Egyptians of the 20th dynasty also went into a mysterious decline. The Hittite empire was broken down into a series of states, including the neo-Syrian states.

According to Wikipedia: The ends of several civilizations around 1175 B.C. have instigated a theory that the Sea Peoples may have caused the collapse of the Hittite, Mycenaean and Mitanni kingdoms.<sup>3</sup>

However, at this time in history, one group of people became very famous. Some Semitic nomads wandered about and they called themselves Aramæans (the Greeks called the Syrians). Abraham's brother Nahor had a son, Aram, who is the source of the Aramæans [others trace the Aramæans back to Aram, the son of Shem—Gen. 10:22] . They began to conquer the area later called Aram. Next door to them was a Neo-Hittite empire which was quiet at that time. Next to that was a strange people called the Phœnicians, part Greek, part Canaanite and part Semitic (historians recently discovered this). The Phœnicians were made up from the Canaanites and the sea peoples (and from Semites?). They became a great maritime empire. The Phœnicians apparently learned how to be a great sea-faring people from the Great Sea peoples, and from the Achaeans the Palisgaeans those who had conquered Troy and had destroyed the Hittite empire and were now spreading out and exploring all over the world.

There is this sudden strange interlude and all of the big empires became quiet. The Philistines tried to conquer everything but David stopped them. The Edomites and the Ammonites are causing some trouble and David stopped them. It is the peoples to the north, the Aramæans, who are beginning to cause some real problems. During the 80 years of Israel's golden era, there is this strange unusual interlude; everything became suddenly quiet in the Middle East. This is because Jesus Christ controls history. He stopped the growth of the dominant empires of that millennium. Assyria would be quiet for about 100 years not kick into gear until a bit after Solomon. Then it would become the great neo-Assyrian empire, under Tiglath Pileser III, Sargon II, Sennacherib, Esarhaddon and Ashurbanipal. The decline of the Hittites and the Egyptian 20th dynasty all declined mysteriously, but it is easy to explain: Jesus Christ controls history.

David's great success is by God making all of this possible, by what is called a strange interlude in history. The Phrygian empire which conquered the Anatolian high plateaus. But did not move down into Palestine to conquer there. The Phrygians would settle in around Turkey, with several great kings, including Midas; and their great day would come after David.

The Assyrians, who would eventually conquer the northern kingdom and place them under discipline, are quiet at this time and pushed back by the Aramæans.

Also quiet are the Hurrians, who developed the horse training systems of the ancient world and had developed a cumbersome chariot later to be replaced by a sleeker war model.

The kingdom of Natani pushed and shrunk by the Aramæan invasion. The Hittites are a vassal state to the Aramæans.

The Jews are friendly with the Phœnicians. They made it possible for us to speak phonetically and for us to have writing.

The Canaanite branch of the Phœnicians who took from the hieroglyphics the oxhead, and changed it into a word which stands for a letter, eventually changed into an aleph. The Phœnicians took their language about, and other people made a few changes to it. Every letter from our alphabet can be traced back to the Phœnicians. When the Greeks came in contact with the Phœnicians, and they showed the Barbaric Greeks came into contact with the Phœnicians, the barbaric Greeks learned how to use it, virtually overnight, and they developed a language and the 5th Century Greek was simply based upon taking this alphabet all over the world. There arose the 5th century golden age, all coming from this and the blessing by association with David and Solomon. They traveled all over the world, taking their alphabet with them.

We are about to see a great crisis. The Aramæans had conquered all of the lands above Israel.

1.5 years ago when David was studied. David was now king over all Israel. He is in a period of great professional prosperity as well. Mephibosheth he is a blessing by association.

Hiram, king of the Phœnicians, who had already conquered Cypress, will make a treaty first with David and then with Solomon. This will be a great thing and allowed for missionary activity from client nation Israel.

We continue our subject of crisis; disaster dynamics.

War and a client nation.

Vv. 1–7 the nation in time of peace

vv. 8– the nation in time of peace.

David had many friends round about. In v. 1, we see the death of a friend. The Ammonites were a degenerate people, but a very tough people.

The language of the Phœnicians and the language of the Bible are very similar.

We will go from great peace and prosperity to a crisis situation. David has been blessed like few people in life. He had every sort of material prosperity. He had wealth, fame, authority, promotion, sexual prosperity. He had many friends and friends in the nations round about.

In v. 1 we have a friend of David's. The Ammonites were a very tough people although often degenerate. It came to pass after this....

A tremendous thinking was buried in Barbarian brains unleashed by their contact with the Phœnicians. Language of the Phœnicians and the language of David are quite similar.

We are about to go from a peaceful situation to a crisis situation.

It came to pass after this

1. Even in times of prosperity, things never remain the same in this life. Things are always changing; we are always changing. Even in prosperity, things never remain the same in this life. Prosperity can only be perpetuated under the principle that Jesus Christ controls history. You are either worse today or better. The day you miss doctrine is the day you take a nosedive. Even in prosperity, things never remain the same. Calvin Coolidge in his state of the union address said, "Things have never been better" in 1929, and the market fell at that point. Things never stand still. They become better and they become worse. It is important to know in every facet of your life. By standing still, you might become worse. The only solution to crisis or disaster is the ability to think. The Greeks were some of the most barbarous people who have lived. The Dorians, Likians, Thracians, Ionians, etc. all were barbaric. Once they were given words and an alphabet which was phonetic, and then they became the brilliant people that they were. They were able to think, which requires words and new words and concepts. People in our culture have stopped thinking and our system is used to peddle drugs to young people; the whole system of drug addiction destroys the mechanical ability to think. We lose our greatness when we destroy our brain cells, and there are 100's of thousands of kids hooked on drugs. Many of you have stopped thinking years ago; but doctrine will give you capacity for life. It will open you up to thoughts and subjects and books.
2. Life is a set of changing circumstances, but the mature believer has capacity for thinking and for change; and he has enthusiasm for many subjects. Great decline in science, because everything is related to peace. Project Manhattan was an incredible thing and they were fascinated by the subject. We ought to use gas as rapidly as possible and encourages the use of gas as quickly as possible so that we use new energy forms. We will be surpassed by the Russians, who never could think, but they have captured Germans. The day they began shipping coal from Wyoming to San Antonio, we are going backwards. Our indoor plumbing is the greatest in the world. We are going back to the evil philosopher Rousseau. We will instead mess up the outside. We are trying to preserve everything for the noble savage concept.
3. Part of the prosperity from the justice of God is being able to orient to change. We must be able to know change when it is coming, analyze that change and learn to deal with it. Prosperity imputed from the justice of God allows us to orient from the soul to the change.
4. What is true of the believer is also true of the client nation. A client nation is called of God to have laws of divine establishment operate so well that freedom reigns. We are a client nation with maximum freedom. We are free to accept or to reject Jesus Christ. Our government does not yet persecute believers for gathering or evangelists for spreading the gospel. The client nation is also the haven for the Jews. This was not true, of course, during the Age of Israel. At that time, they were the client nation. It is the Jew Barry Goldwater who opposes the president who wants to make a treaty with the Communists. The Shah of Iran is a great man and he has set up great principles of education, and liberals have come in there and have destroyed this.

Waw ya he. This was a time of prosperity, but things never stand still. Large pivot of mature believers, like David and Joab, and they were great believers. Man cannot perpetuate anything good or anything bad. Jesus Christ controls history. Part of the prosperity is being able to adjust to changing circumstances. The good old days of the past become pleasant memories to be replaced by the new challenges of the present. We become so preoccupied with the good old days, that we become disoriented to life and are divorced from reality. No matter what good times you have had in the past, all of the good times and all of the fun will not carry us in any catastrophe. Even Napoleon did not realize how much his world was changing. He made many changes, and he did not realize that the changes which he made would continue.

You read the papers and have a nervous breakdown; Bob reads the papers in order to be informed. For the mature believer, happiness in life does not depend upon circumstances or perpetuating the good old days. It is based upon maximum doctrine in the soul. Doctrine in the soul and the ability to think divine viewpoint in your soul. Doctrine which is learned through concentration on Bible teaching; we are here to think.

Bob has attempted to remove anything which distract from Bible teaching. The stained glass windows have been removed so that we can concentrate. There is no such thing as a perpetually courageous person. You have to keep on growing to continue with bravery.

A dear friend of David has died, a king of Ammon, and he is The Ammonites are just across the Jordan, in a place we call today Transjordan. There is that 14 foot bed and a 10 foot giant.

Jews took the direct route to Rabbah, and they should have gone through the valley? This is important to the interpretation of this passage. Even some of the Ammonites had been converted from across the Jordan.

In Deut. 23:3–4, the Jews were not allowed to attack the Ammonites, as they were their cousins. They continually hooked up with other nations to destroy the Jews. The exception is this time when there is a friendship between David and Nahash. The Ammonites were always jealous of the Jews. The Amorites were to the south of them and to the east of them. Joshua defeated the Amorites and the Ammonites were able to conquer the Hittites at a time when the Hittites were the greatest nation in the world. You can do everything in the world for some people and you never get any appreciation. They are arrogant and jealous. More poor people are arrogant. You do something for them and they are jealous. You do something for them and they are jealous of you. We have aroused the arrogance of our poor through socialism. The more you do through socialism and the welfare state, the more they want to take from you. Calvin said it, People are no damn good. David had a great period of peace and prosperity. Nahash was a believer and David apparently led him to the Lord. As soon as he dies, it will change.

The Tel AMARNA tablets tell us some things. The Moabites were big hairy people and they looked like apes.

Being kind to other nations and helping them does not prevent these jealous nations from turning on you. You will see the Chinese turn on us.

You can help a nation, and they will turn on you and destroy you if they can. 1946–1977 list of money we have given to other nations. $1.098 billion to Bangladesh. India $6 billion. Israel $8 billion. We have given Cuba $20 million. $339 million to Panama. $22 billion to Vietnam. $7 trillion to France? And yet, we don't have a friend in the world. You cannot buy friends. Being kind to nations and helping them does not keep them from turning on you.

The US is one of the most hated and despised nation in the world today. Outside of a few countries, we are despised completely and totally.

2Sam. 10:1 And it happened afterward, the king of the Ammonites died. And his son Hanun reigned in his place.

2Samuel 10:1

631_0214

No matter how much power a man has, nor how great he is, or how successful he is in any realm of life, he still has to do his own dying. There are those who have power and authority; power and no authority, authority and no power; neither; and these combinations with wealth or lack of. The greatest and worst people in life all must face the issue of dying, just as everyone has to face their own living. Being respected by others is no advantage. The only thing that we take with us is the doctrine in our souls.

The king of Ammon died, and many were sympathetic; but he had to die on his own. There was the crown prince, who was evil and weak. He was treated well because his father was great. He was respected and loved because of the greatness of his father. At this time, Ammon had never been better off. But they were only interested in themselves and in their own personal image. They had no interest in being beneficial to others. They began to flatter the high prince and they had his ear through flattery.

To the extent that a believer is open to flattery, he has a blind side with regards to people in that area. Business, athletics and the spiritual life all involve flattery; and because flattery has become so great and has become so accepted and some have become so accepted, we can no longer think in terms of being an American; nor to we orient to the reality of the time in which we live.

The welfare state is the order of the day everywhere. We have evil and sloppy thinking. It will take the nation 100 years to recover from his rule. There are those who are weak and vain and susceptible to flattery, unable to handle authority. Authority destroys them. They are prone to arrogance and self righteousness.

A friendly nation today can become an enemy tomorrow. A nation must not depend upon other nations for its freedom or survival. Every nation must depend upon 2 factors for its indecense and freedom: functioning apart from equality propaganda. Freedom and equality cannot coexist. The pivot of mature believers can offset shortcomings. The greatest of people die. Greatness is no substitute for happiness; greatness is no guarantee against death. Courtesy must never be construed as weakness or cowardice. Courtesy is neither weakness or cowardice.

2Sam. 10:1 And it happened afterward, the king of the Ammonites died. And his son Hanun reigned in his place.

This will be David's thinking and his policy. The death of one king means a change of policy. A different phase of history. Kindness and courtesy is always the way to start. Qal imperfect of asah, which is to manufacture something out of something.

the manufacturing of grace. Chanun the son of Nahash. Nahash respected David's graciousness; but the bully and the coward do not understand graciousness and kindness; they view it as weakness. There is a history of 500 years as surviving as a nation. However, their dependence is upon physical strength. However, they do not understand David and his graciousness. The weak nation cannot understand the honorable motivation of the strong nation. Israel is at its peak and it is still going up. The Dorians in Greece and Europe; in the mountains of Macedonia is another; the Aramæans are strengthening. So many great nations will be great again, although many are in the decline. 2 cousin nations are rising up; the Aramæans and the Jews.

Nahash showed grace to David when Saul was after him; and he even took care of his parents for awhile. During David's years as a soldier of fortune, Nahash was gracious to him. He was a humble man and recognized what others had done for him. David's head had not been turned by his success. He maintained an equilibrium of humility. He never ceased to forget any kindness done to him. Nahash abandoned the traditional animosity against the Jews, and this advanced his cause and his country's welfare.

The son, Hanun, was an arrogant fool. He ignored David's graciousness. He assumed that David sending an embassy was a sign of weakness. This will be Hanun's greatest blunder, to reject David's friendship. Arrogant people have no right to rule. He will discover that David is 1 or the 2 more powerful men in that region. David will go to war with the man until Hanun is destroyed. Arrogance destroys talent and ability. Arrogance makes a smart person dumb and a stupid person petty.

Piel of Nacham, means to comfort. This was to be handled by the hand of his ambassadors. These are noblemen of the land. These are ambassadors and not slaves. They had a message of consolation and comfort, and David is bereaved and assumes that the son has the same attitude. Tragically, it was David who seemed to miss Nahash, and not Hanun.

The men sent by David were also mature believers, and they would convey David's sincerity.

Hanun's Arrogance

1. Only arrogance can make this mistake
2. His arrogance will destroy the relationship he and David could have had.
- 3.
4. As a result of this king's arrogance, the entire nation will suffer.
5. The new king is evil.
6. Only Nahash was great; his son was not.

There are parents and children who are both great (Philip of Macedon and Alexander the Great) and in this situation, it is the exact opposite.

The new king is evil and evil cannot understand pure motivation or gracious function. One of the great tragedies in relationships among Christians is the good motivation of others.

6. The arrogant misunderstand the motives of good people. He thinks ambassadors are there to spirituality out the fortification, because he would do that.
7. When grace and evil come into contact, there is always conflict; conflict of thought and conflict of action. For the side that is evil, there is always disaster.

2Sam. 10:2 And David said, I will show kindness [manufacture grace] to Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father showed kindness to me. And David sent to comfort him concerning his father by the hand of his servants. And David's servants [ambassadors] came into the land of the sons of Ammon.

Bob still does that waw conversative stuff here.

Hanun and Ammon

1. The new king is not impressed with courtesy and thoughtfulness in others. This will cost him dearly.
2. The alternative will be war against a client nation of God reaching its peak.
3. Strong military establishment plus a pivot of believers means Israel will overcome Ammon.
4. Some people can only be impressed with force and violence.
5. Such people are criminals in their thinking, if not in their action. Criminals in principle if not in action.
6. Some people can only be deterred by force; like criminals.
7. Only warfare will restrain such a nation from conspiring against other nations. Victory in war acts as a restrainer.

Integrity of David

1. David's integrity is revealed and his aggressiveness in the function of grace. David did the honorable thing. How many times has a believer done the honorable thing.
2. The military type is always a lover of peace.
3. Warfare is violence, and the innocent suffer with the guilty.
4. The smart professional soldier is prepared for war, but he avoids it as long as he can.
5. Arrogance causes implacability and implacability always rejects offers of friendship and peace. Russians are implacable and jealous. We will be destroyed by the SALT treaties.
6. These ambassadors should have been treated with dignity.
7. They will be maltreated by impulsive arrogance.
8. The national worship of Ammon is Molech, which is the phallic cult and child sacrifice. The principle; the greatest and most honorable motivation and the most gracious acts will be misunderstood.

They use violence and it would have been a mistake to join the Germans against the Russians. You cannot compromise with demon possession. It would have been a great disaster to join in on the German side, and they were under the influence of Demonism. We fought with the British and what was left of the French, and on the side of the Australians and the New Zealanders and the Rhodesians.

The Nazis and the Soviets were both evil, but the Nazis even more so, as they tried to destroy the Jews. We were stupid in the way we handled the Russians. Sloppy stupid thinking (to put us as allies of Nazis. "Don't ever get mixed up by things like that.")

Hitler was demon-possessed and no nation could reason with him. The war with the Japs was not necessarily inevitable, but was with the Nazis was.

The perverted arrogance of the people of Ammon. Hanun's counselors suggest that these men are spies. Hanun is arrogant and does not know what to do. Chief ministers.

Hanun's Arrogant Advisors

1. The new king has no poise. He calls in his ministers to determine what to do about David's graciousness. The unbeliever does not understand grace. Grace can only be understood by someone with the framework for grace.
2. Petty people do not understand the greatness of grace people or their honorable motivation because they are blinded by their own arrogance.
3. Jealousy and pettiness are always mated. Ministers of Ammon are petty.
4. Therefore, the ministers of Ammon impugn David's motivation and begin maligning him. They assume that the way they think is the way that David thinks. You cannot evaluate others based on how you think.

5. The jealous princes guilty of inordinate ambition and competition; they want to see David in the dust and the Jews conquered.
6. These ministers would like to send their own ambassadors on recon.
7. By judging others, we reveal our own thinking.
8. Arrogance and jealousy initiates a conspiracy against David and the Jews he rules.
9. The arrogant princes show David their arrogance and desire to rule Israel.
10. Therefore, the ministers acting as help to Hanun fill his mind with doubt.

There are two questions and they will be covered next time.

2Sam. 10:3 And the leaders of the sons of Ammon said to their lord Hanun. Is David honoring your father in your eyes, because he has sent comforters to you? Has not David sent his servants to you to search the city, and to spirituality it out, and to overthrow it?

2Samuel 10:1–3

72David

631_0215

Bob has no voice after Dallas.

2Sam. 10:1 And it happened afterward, the king of the Ammonites died. And his son Hanun reigned in his place.

2Sam. 10:2 And David said, I will show kindness [manufacture grace] to Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father showed kindness to me. And David sent to comfort him concerning his father by the hand of his servants. And David's servants [ambassadors] came into the land of the sons of Ammon.

A weak person cannot understand a strong person. The reason is generally related to arrogance. In their arrogance, they cannot appreciate strength in any form. The weak nation, Ammon, cannot understand the strong nation, Israel. The superficial remain superficial.

David and Nahash were friends, and when David was a soldier of fortune, he often left his parents in Ammon. He did not like Saul, but he got along well with David. He recognized David's military genius and his administrative genius. Nahash had that fantastic ability to recognize that David was a far greater person than he would ever be. He was not arrogant or jealous; he did not try to compete or to put David down. It is difficult for those in the genius class to have true friends. Non-genius friends are constantly looking for ways to put down the others, to compete with them.

It is possible to go from babyhood almost to maturity, and not make it because you have not yet shed your arrogance, then you will not crack the maturity barrier. No one can become mature if you are arrogant. This is what happened to the 3rd dropout with the love priority problem. He overestimated his own importance and eliminated himself. He loses out with occupation with Christ and he cannot make it with people either.

This son, Hanun, is arrogant. His father was gracious. No one can be a true lover and have arrogance. No one can have capacity for blessing and maintain arrogance. There is no way that any human talent or human ability can handle disaster. It takes the grace of God and the provision of God, the doctrine resident in the soul, and ability to think; the ability to concentrate. It is that reverse concentration which is extremely important. The father had it, and the son did not. Nahash was + doctrine minus arrogance; and his son was just the opposite. Hanun will not just lose out himself, but the entire kingdom will lose out because of Hanun. Either a genius or a truly successful person is a test for those around him. Douglas MacArthur was a test for everyone around them. When you hear someone rant about MacArthur, that is an expression of stupidity or arrogance. You ought to be about to enjoy such people. Robt. E. Lee, on the other hand, had a wonderful personality, so people liked him. MacArthur had difficulty with small talk; he could not laugh and joke around; he rarely drank and did not loosen up in that way. In the Korean war, there was a marine officer, and he chewed out MacArthur and was ashamed of that. He carried a grudge against MacArthur since then (maybe MacArthur chewed him out?). He was competing with MacArthur. And MacArthur never took steps to take him down. This man is a good illustration of Hanun.

Arrogant people become jealous, and with other opportunities, they become insufferable. This man had a great personality, but his arrogance destroyed him. He was an arrogant fool who understood or thought he understood that courteousness was weakness and he took advantage of that sort of situation. Instead of finding David weak and cowardly, he is going to discover that David is a fierce enemy. One more factor about arrogance. This man was naturally smart, possibly brilliant; but arrogance made him dumb; he overestimated himself and underestimated others. Arrogance provides for acquired weaknesses.

Men of high rank and aristocracy; good dress, good deportment, and able to give the message of sympathy. They operated under principles of honor. This gracious act will be construed as weakness. It will show itself as impulsiveness. The nation of Ammon will be cursed by association.

Evil cannot understand gracious function. This was Hanun's last hope for perpetuating grace to his kingdom through association with David. He might even believe in Jehovah Elohim and be blessed even more.

V. 2b And David's servants [ambassadors] came into the land of the sons of Ammon. He really does not understand gracious motivation and a gracious act. David has a strong military establishment at this time. Some people can only be impressed by force. Hanun, because of his arrogance, can only be impressed by force. If you can only be impressed by force, then it is too late to be impressed by wisdom. When you are impressed by the obvious, then it is too late. You might be dead, destroyed in some way, in jail, etc., but you have lost all the lessons in life. Some people only learn in that way. They only know when they have been whipped and beaten by a greater force.

The accumulated problems of life are too great for human ability. When they end up in a major historical crisis, then human resources turn out to be of no help. The only hope will be doctrine in your soul.

2Sam. 10:2 And David said, I will show kindness [manufacture grace] to Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father showed kindness to me. And David sent to comfort him concerning his father by the hand of his servants. And David's servants [ambassadors] came into the land of the sons of Ammon.

Points on v. 2

1. The integrity of David is manifested by his aggressiveness when it comes to grace. Grace can be passive or active. Sometimes grace is passive and lets an insult go by. Many believers fail in the Christian life because they do not know when grace should be active or passive.
2. Therefore, David did the honorable thing. He was a military type and preferred peace over war, understanding the horrors of war more than anyone ever in war.
3. The smart professional soldier is always prepared for war. You avoid war if you can have peace with honor.
4. Arrogance causes implacability and friendship seeking is seen as weakness.
5. Jewish ambassadors should be treated with courtesy and dignity.
6. But arrogance, being unstable, is impetuous and rash. Maltreatment follows the courtesy of grace.
7. The nation of Ammon worships Molech and this includes the phallic cult and child sacrifice and demon possession.

You cannot reason with demons and you are not smarter than they are. This is why we had to fight the Nazis. It was inevitable. The Germans were under the control of a demon-possessed Hitler. The Nazis were the most evil people ever. We should have not helped the Communists, but we needed to destroy the Nazis. They are equally as evil. We should have continued it and wiped out the Communists next.

Everyone knows a nice German family; I do too.

V. 3 is the perverted thinking of the princes of Ammon; what is wrong with the state department. Bob's grandmother was saved by reading the authorized version.

Princes, chief ministers, state department.

Petty People

1. The gracious act cause Hanun to lose his poise. They did not understand what David was up to.
2. Petty people never understand honorable motivation. They do not understand great people.

3. Jealousy and pettiness always live together. They are mated. A jealous person is a petty person. Petty people are jealous. The ministers of Ammon were jealous of David, and the people of Ammon hate Israel. The treaty between David and
4. The ministers of Ammon begin by maligning David. They judge and malign him. They impugn his motivation. They reveal their own thinking.
5. The jealous princes are arrogant and guilty of inordinate competition. They put down David in order to make it seem as though David is a lousy guy. They did not see the consequences of their bad advice. They did not know David would step across the border some day and wipe them out. They have already seen what David did to the Philistines and to the Edomites. They have seen David as an army commander. David conquered the moabites, the jebusites, the Edomites, and he could conquer these as well. An arrogant person always wants to gain power by being the advisor. We have a group of arrogant people who will give bad advice to a president. This is only to gain power for themselves, and still offering a suicidal direction for their country.
6. These princes or ministers of state were most anxious to send their ministers or ambassadors to defeat the Jewish army. My judging others you reveal your own thinking or your own motivation. Judging impugns the motives of others and reveals your own inner thinking.
7. Arrogance and jealousy initiates a conspiracy against David.
8. The arrogant princes ascribe their own thinking to David.

They introduce suspicion and doubt into the mind of the new king. Counseling itself can be a vicious thing.

A pastor has the responsibility of teaching his congregation as separated from the rest of their lives. They are there where they can learn objectively without interference. Counseling destroys your privacy. When you go bob has fired assistant pastors for running around and talking about things which people told them in private. Bob's fault in having assistant pastors counsel, since he would not do it. So there is a tremendous loss which can never be regained. Once you go to someone for counseling, you also use objectivity. That is why the ministry of the Holy Spirit is important. If you had the courage and the strength and the information to make a decision and to stick with it. You must remember that we as believers live our lives in privacy as unto God. Going to a counselor destroys our freedom and is a crutch. You are either weak or incompetent or both, if you have to go to a counselor. If you are weak, it is your arrogance which keeps you from recognizing that God. Seeking counseling is arrogance. The pastor-teacher might present the proper doctrines on many occasions, but that person must personally go to the pastor and demand that pastor teach it again to him personally. That is arrogance. They always make an issue of themselves. Counseling is demanding that you want an instant solution. It may even be an academic question. You are not willing to take the bone out of the fish and eat another bite until the bone is explained.

Arrogant people do not have a sense of humor. They cannot take a little razzing. They overestimate their worth and self importance. Our whole educational system is based upon socialism and it teaches that man is the greatest thing in life. You are a person and therefore you are important. Socialism picks up where the liberal leaves off. Communism will turn you back into an animal. Communism can exploit American arrogance, every since FDR told Churchill, I know how to handle Joe Stalin. American weakness is exploited by Communists.

This is a man who went to counseling from his state department. When he does, there is a question. |Do you think that David is really honoring your father?" This impugns the motivation of David and it impugns the wisdom of the king. This is always what the state department does. They first malign David and then are maligning Hanun, their own king. By so doing, they will get David and Hanun into a war.

One of the most dangerous things to be is an amateur counseling. Bob has been there 28 years. So this would be 1978.

Some of you have probably been counseling Bob's sheep. "I have insulted your dear friend; how dare I?" And then |Bob throws them out. You have accepted the arrogance and the weakness of someone else, guaranteeing a lifetime of arrogance.

We are not here to emulate any personality; we are to have our own personality. We depend upon doctrine.

2Sam. 10:3 [And the leaders \[the chief ministers\] of the sons of Ammon said to their lord Hanun. Is David honoring your father in your eyes, because he has sent comforters to you? Has not David sent his servants to you to search the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it?](#)

2Samuel 10:3

72David

631_0216

Re-listened to 5 minutes 19 seconds.

3 great empires: Assyria, Egypt and the Hittites had dominated the world for about 3 centuries. Then there were the sea peoples, a composite of Mycenaeans, Lydians, Lykians, Dorians, Mycians, Phrygians, Thracians. All of these nations were fighting for the middle east. Suddenly, just as David came to the throne, the Assyrians had a set of weak kings and were driven out of the Mesopotamian area by the Syrians (the Aramæans). The 20th dynasty in Egypt was made up of incompetent kings and they were unable to challenge the Phœnician Navy. However, during all of this, David's Israel was fine.

From <http://sitemaker.umich.edu/mladjov/files/seapeoples.jpg>

The great sea peoples came in many waves; one swept through Palestine and were stopped by Rameses. One group settled in the Gaza strip and became the Philistines. The Phœnicians are the same people who went north and settled, and David was friendly with them. The Philistines were a very tough group, and David stopped them. Then there were the Phrygians who were in Turkey (then called Anatolia). They did not cross the Taurus mountains. David had a very unusual period of history. Outside of the Aramæans in the north, there were no empires to contend with. Philistines had reached their peaks and David could defeat them.

All of this shows that Jesus Christ controls history. Edom, Moab and Ammon were all strong, but David conquered them. David defeated the Philistines, even though they were at their peak. This illustrates that Jesus Christ controls history.

Today, we face a very gloomy outlook. When the police officer goes, we will have lost all sanity. The military is not prepared to replace anything. Without these, we will have anarchy as we have never had before. Also, God has a use for believers with doctrine in their souls, so mature believers continue to live.

They appeal to the new king's arrogance. in your thinking appeals to Hanun's arrogance. These ambassadors are sent in assure the new king that they want to maintain peaceful relationship, and they are there to express common concern and empathy.

What the chief ministers say here appeal to the arrogance of the new king. They see a chance that they did not have with the father, Nahash. He knew not to believe his state department. This is their chance to get back in power.

Arrogant men who have lost power and are trying to regain it are not interested in the people or the nation; they only want to gain power. That is their only reason. They will gain control of the people and the nation, but they will have control of nothing; they will assuage their own arrogance. They come up with policies which destroy the nation.

We have people ruling our country, in authority, and are there only because of their arrogance, not because they have the interest of this nation at heart. If they were serious, they would have no treaties with Communist nations. Our foreign policy is related to expediency; cowardice on the one hand and expediency on the other.

Interrogative + a negative; it is a subtle approach, which is used against an arrogant young ruler. "Is it not for the purpose of...?" Chaqar which means to make a reconnaissance. This city was thought to be impregnable. The giants who once lived there put up high walls. It was one of the best fortified cities in the ancient world.

General Kegan has told Bob that the president is surrounded by Marxist Socialists and that they are making all of his decisions for him.

Authority and Arrogance

1. The most obvious thing in this verse is, there are two questions. The original attitude of the king; and the attitudes of the king's ministers who want to overthrow him by counseling and by advising. Right now, there is a coup d'etat by counseling and flattery right now. Sodom and Gomorrah were like Houston and Dallas. You wipe out the police officer and that destroys the town. Lot offers to send out his daughters, but the homosexuals want to rape the males in Lot's home. This is total degeneracy. There is not authority respected here. One of these two daughters is the mother of the Moabites and the other of the Ammonites. Right now, we are ruled by arrogance. Just to tolerate homosexuals; homosexuality is not just a crime, it is a degenerate sin. The acts of Sodomy; God had to destroy Sodom and Gomorrah. This degeneracy is a terrible cancer and so it must be destroyed. It is not a social problem; it is the ultimate in degeneracy. Homosexuals were ruling. To become homosexuals, they must become degenerate in their thinking. You begin with arrogance like San Francisco and Seattle. They want to how homosexual sex training in schools. This is a trend which must be destroyed. These nations are going through the same cycle of degeneration. There is the attitude of the young king who is arrogant and his ministers who are degenerate. They are not necessarily fags. The Ammonites were founded when Lot got drunk the 2nd night and their son was named Ammon. Their nation was founded upon sexual degeneracy (incest). The arrogant stage of a nation produces weak rulers. When Bob was young, homosexuals were shamed; however, this has all been reversed.

2. The counselors of the king are going to take control. The king is a mere figurehead. He is pampered and allowed to have his way.
3. The king therefore is a weak king and he is susceptible to bad advice since he is susceptible to flattery. The two go together.
4. The first question indicates objectivity. "Is David honoring your father or not?" But the second is completely subjective. Once a clerk takes over any organization, any form of government, it is all over. We see the degeneracy of a nation; the great ruler is dead. Nahash was relaxed and he had a great sense of humor; but the little runt on the throne now is a little, arrogant playboy run by his state department.
5. Every person who has authority must learn to rely upon his own judgment or be able to recognize good advice and take it without an arrogance problem. There are always situations where you need to know the facts. Therefore, you must get the facts and even listen to advice. Advice from a woman does not mean it is bad advice or that you cannot take it. If you are humble, you can take good advice, no matter who gives it. A woman who rejects the advice of a male chauvinist because he is a male chauvinist is a sad mistake.

The Big Principle

1. Treaties between nations is not better than the integrity of leadership between these nations. Treaties are just about as unstable as nymphomaniacs.
2. A peace treaty minus integrity is no better than the paper upon which it is written.
3. By giving credence to the suspicions voiced by his chief ministers, Hanun has prepared the way for the downfall of his own kingdom.
4. Add to this jealousy and implacability of the king's ministers and it overflows to Hanun. A nice guy can change overnight. He can change in a minute. A couple cc's of suspicion and they can become monsters. Once he become suspicious, he can also become implacable. This means hostility. This is obvious or subtle; hidden or revealed.
5. Kind Hanun was trapped by his own arrogance. The state department reproached the king for being deceive by David's embassy. He should have taken the embassy at face value unless having evidence to the contrary. He decided that he must prove himself to be a great king. So he listened and arrogance accepted their suspicion and accepted their attitude. He became subjective and lost control.
6. The young king did not desire the disapprobation of his chief advisors, so he did not approach this situation objectively. So drove him by his arrogance.

7. So arrogance produces the hangup of having to prove oneself. Most feel that they have to prove themselves. When you come into an organization, then all you have to do is learn. You puppies who go out from Berachah and they try to ape Berachah Church. Such people try to set up all the administration and they ought to keep their mouths shut about those things and just teach. The king went to extremes measures to insult David and to impress his ambassadors.
8. The jealous princes used Ramman's fortification as a reason to cast suspicions upon David's ambassadors. It is a possibility of truth, but that does not make it true. If it may be true, sit back and observe. All Hanun had to do is to keep an eye on these men.
9. This was a terrible injustice and it will begin a chain of cause and effect which will lead to war and violence. One injustice produces another injustice. It eventuates in the destruction of freedom. One person with authority has too much arrogance. The percentage of arrogance in your soul destroys your authority. A good leader must learn to look away now and again. In the chain of kindness responding to kindness, reaction...

Mental attitude sins break the chains of gracious response to gracious actions. Jealousy + arrogance provided the potential for war and destruction. Evil men measure someone else's foot by their own last. Small and petty men can never understand great men. Hanun became inflexible in the nonessentials.

2Sam. 10:3 And the leaders [the chief ministers] of the sons of Ammon said to their lord Hanun. Is David honoring your father in your eyes [in your opinion], because he has sent comforters to you? Has not David sent his servants [comforters] to you to search the city, and to spirituality it out [to scout it], and to overthrow it?

2Samuel 10:4

72David

631_0217

We are studying the dynamics for disaster.

The arrogance of the new king. He was blinded through arrogance; he was stupid through arrogance; he felt that it was necessary to prove something to his counselors. They had no say during the father's reign.

Laqaq is violent action

Violence

1. Unwarranted violence does not solve a problem.
2. In fact, resorting to violence against a helpless embassy, but it would eventually destroy their insolent presumptuousness.
3. Many proud nations have been destroyed by such attacks against the helpless. We see the same principle today. The Chicoms have gained their things through violence. Television needs the moral courage to ignore that which is not news, but merely evil. The police officer is the last stand in our nation. Houston would be one massive riot apart from the police. You need mass violence to deal with some criminal types. They need to be armed and properly supported. Law has become subjective instead of objective.

4. Arrogance misjudges the intentions of others, assuming that which is not there. It is possible to become so suspicious that you lose all discernment. In this case, arrogance misjudges others altogether. They never seem to understand the dire consequences of their actions.

The U.S. for a long time was the only place where students had some sense. However, since WWII, they have begun to strike and get involved in mob action.

Police today have to carry a .38 special, which is a little better than a rock. The holster cover is something he was to carry and the flap was not designed to hide the fact he has a gun. Until people die in mobs, mob violence goes unrestrained. But his violence against David's men would be turned against him. He who lives by the sword will perish by the sword. Violence begets violence. The atom bomb was perfect retribution on the Japs. It was the same principle. Whenever you use violence, there is the possibility a greater violence can be used against you. The capabilities of responding in violence is always there. Bob has seen this happen in bars in the past. Someone gets mad and slugs someone and has taken the bar from a peaceful place into a place of violence. Many who start a fight in a bar end up in the hospital. Gangs live by violence. There is always somewhere a greater violence. This is why the laws of divine establishment are so essential. They solve problems without violence. You cannot have violence as the order of the day and continue to have freedom. Violence attacks authority, property and privacy and destroys freedom. Whenever you feel like resorting to violence, one act of violence creates another act and that goes to 3 or 4. Without the police officer, that would end up being in anarchy. There are lemons in every organization; there are lemons in Berachah Church; that does not mean that you destroy Berachah Church. When it comes to law enforcement, that is the responsibility of the police officer.

Our police force should have small tanks to deal with mobs. The criminal uses violence to pursue crime, that it will end up with a greater violence which will destroy the criminal.

This young king used violence against this ambassadors simply based upon an accusation. Therefore, Hanun seized David's embassy.

Violence

1. Establishment violence will eventually win over criminal and evil violence. That is what makes our nation free. In other words, eventually, the violence which is started will be the means of those who started it. The Nazis used violence to further themselves and they were destroyed by violence. The Japanese used violence to gain their control over the Pacific ocean. Crusaders use violence too. Their right crusade and their desire to rectify a wrong using violence is ruined by the violence. All violence used to gain such an end is arrogance.

2. Arrogance uses violence as a tool and establishment uses reason as a tool. The husband who is cuckolded and uses violence. He does not realize that he has a lot of jackass traits. Using violence just puts him in jail. He should have just walked away. No lover solves his problem through violence. We have never been a nation which used aggressive violence; we have used it only in response. A chance in Asia, but there is a reason for that. The person who starts with violence, never finishes it.
3. In the history of Anglo Saxon history, the rule is established by reason.
4. Old sin nature function in 3 areas causes violence. The result of the sin nature function in sinfulness, human good is also a source of violence; evil is the 3rd area. They steal, rape, torture, etc. for evil. Anti-police attitude is one of the problems today. The 4th estate should have ignored Moody Park or commented on its evil connotation.
5. The end of violent aggression is stated by Jesus Christ: all of those who lift up the sword will perish by the sword. This is criminal activity; not military.
6. Violence destroys human freedom.
7. Violence is beat down with greater violence.
8. Consequently, the impulsive act of violence here will result in a great war between Israel and Ammon.

Bob wonders what legalist believers do when they come across words like buttocks as in this verse. All they have left is a tee shirt above the naval and then they are walked through the city all the way to Jericho. This destroys the dignity of a nation. Their genitals and buttocks are exposed; a great indignity. It is a chain of violence. These chief ministers inflame the arrogance of the young king. He was not thinking about his subject when he insults the ambassadors of a powerful nation. Self-centered people make poor rulers. They cannot handle authority.

Christianity is filled with arrogance and self-centeredness. They feel like they need the direct teaching.

Principles

1. Such insults cannot be comprehended in the 20th century. 1764 was the last time Bob is aware of this happening. Karem Kam of Persia sent ambassadors to collect tribute. They killed half the people, raped the women, and left them impoverished. So, this has occurred before in history. There is certainly history and violence. Football is a good place for violence; it is organized violence.
2. Such an irresponsible action will result in difficult circumstances. Bob's dad said, never start a fight in a strange place. You'll end up in the hospital.
3. Impugning David's motives let to a greater violence.

4. Hanun was a weak man. He succumbed to approbation lust. He abused the ambassadors of a very powerful country.
5. Irresponsibility of leadership leads to the destruction of a nation.

Some coach story. No passes, just grind it calls for a team to be in top shape. Ohio state coach. In the end, the plodder will win. For us, that is a point of doctrine. A coach cannot resort to violence to gain his way. What will happen if coaches begin slugging players who come out of bounds and irritate him? That would be a whole new system. Even a game which requires violence needs boundaries.

Arrogance and Leadership

1. Weak leaders in the hands of unscrupulous men go toward destruction.
2. Arrogant people underestimate others. Especially arrogant people with power and authority.
3. Arrogance is a vicious sin and divorces men from the reality of life. He is a jackass. You take the arrogant ruler who thinks his power is unlimited. Arrogance is divorced from the reality of life.
4. David would defeat Ammon and destroy the most powerful nation in the middle east at the same time.
5. David's military prosperity
6. Such ignorance of doctrine was replaced in their souls with arrogance that has no contact with reality.
7. Although allied with the Aramæans, this powerful combination of Syrians and ammonites was not enough for the destruction of Israel.
8. Jesus Christ controls history. The combined military power of Ammon and Syria was no match for the power of God.
9. Aram or the Aramæans were called Syrians by the Greeks. All of these great empires have been neutralized, except Aram and Ammon. The combined military of Ammon and Syria is no match for God.
10. God permitted David to be caught in a strategic trap between Ammon and Syria. There is no freedom outside of establishment. We have the right to believe in Christ and the right to reject Christ. You must have freedom in this regard. As a believer, you must be free to take in doctrine. Or to refuse to or to take it in occasionally. You must be free to live your life to advance as far as you can. That freedom does not exist outside of establishment. Freedom makes inequalities possible. Equality destroys freedom. The ideal circumstances in life always have variations. When you see someone else succeed, you are motivated to succeed. It is equality which destroys freedom.
11. Arrogance destroys capacity for life to the same extent that doctrine in the soul produces capacity for life. Both Syrian and Ammon will be destroyed because of this rash act.
12. Evil men do not destroy the plan of God any more than David's reversionism in the middle of a war.

13. Man's failure or success cannot hinder the plan of God.

Believers with any doctrine recognize that making an association with China. Some want to have strikes or meetings or protest. Even the people who voted for this man want to do something. There is certainly talk among some of conspiratorial violence. Just because the president did an evil thing, we should not go for more evil. If we want to protest, that is your business; but it is better to learn doctrine. God uses prepared people. Crusaders who will not sit down and listen to doctrine, and they quit doctrine and they are on the panic button. God's plan marches on.

When God disciplines a nation, he withdraws from that nation good leadership and sensible leaders.

Closing Principles

1. When God disciplines a nation, good leadership is withdrawn along with sensible leaders.
2. Common sense disappears.
3. Arrogance and irresponsible leaders take over. National leadership is a mirror of a nation's spiritual status quo.

to bring to light, to show, to declare.

David does not go off half cocked.

David Gets Accurate Information

1. His people report to him the bad news as well as the good. You cannot formulate good policy without good and bad news. They are happy to report the information.
2. They tell David the accurate truth rather than what he wanted to hear. Many times a leader builds up a dream castle and often his subordinates confused him without giving him any ad news.
3. A leader in every group, must have facts with which to make decisions. This is where so many leaders go astray. A spirituality is always a subordinate; a leader is never a spirituality. A leader must have reliable subordinates.
4. Correct action is based upon good leadership; correct information is important to good leadership.
5. A good leader is not deceived by his subordinates; David will make good decisions because he has accurate information.

Wâw + shalack. David goes to meet with these men. This requires the personal touch. Qal infinitive of raah.

David regards everyone under him as an individual, and he makes a point of knowing them all. This is a courtesy which goes with authority. It is a characteristic of leadership which is ignored by arrogant people. Arrogant types do not make good leaders.

MacArthur was one of our great leaders. He had great thoughtfulness for his subordinates. Subordinates must never be degraded or embarrassed by leadership. Some subordinates, however, only understand being braced and stomped into the ground. When necessary, chew them out. Leadership has an option. If you can them, you don't need to chew them out; if you chew them out, then that means you want to keep them. Bob has been very rough on some people. You would think with all the sweetness and light of Berachah Church, that no one would be canned, but Bob has fired a lot of people. They were unteachable and they took advantage of courtesy and thoughtfulness. Bob never canned someone who wasn't arrogant.

Bob broke more non-com's and more jackass officers than anyone else. Arrogance never learns. It is unteachable. It is self-centered. When you find you cannot teach them, the reason is, they are arrogant. MacArthur was so courteous, that his subordinates misunderstood it. The men under David are mature believers.

These men were doing their job well and they were abused by this other arrogant leader. Arrogance destroys sensitivity of subordinates. Subordinates might need to be reprimanded; but not degraded. Liberals are trying to make it impossible to get rid of subordinates.

Causal conjunction kiy and hayah, and a Niphal participle plural. David has sensitivity toward these men. He was a man who fantastic capacity for love. The psalms reveal this. His record with the ladies indicates his capacity there. He could understand and love men and he was aware of what hurts and what doesn't.

They were extremely humiliated. They had been abused with maximum humiliation. They were marched to the city of Rabbah with half a beard and no clothing below the waist, and they were exposed to jeers of the cities, until they were marched out of Ammon and across the Jordan River. David met personally with these men to comfort them.

Tarry at Jericho until your beards are regrown; you could almost make a cult out of that. Once the beards grow, then they can return.

This is also enough time to heal the wounds of their souls. A leader needs to be sensitive to those under them and very important for teachers to know. Sometimes, the little boy squirming might have a plethora of problems. Teachers at the prep school rant and rave while these little souls are squirming. Some of these little children will never sit still, but they will learn, far more than we think. In the teaching profession, perhaps more than any other, the teacher with an arrogance problem or does not love children are not going to make it.

Bob had a marvelous education and he still remembers 3 of his teachers; 1 because she disciplined him to well; another because she gave Bob a love of history; and one because she was beautiful. Bob can see the first 2 in his mind's eye today. They were fantastic ladies. Beverly Vista Elementary. Beverly High had PhD's on the faculty. Bob recalls a woman geometry teacher; a music teacher (a capella choir); and some others. These people are with Bob forever and inevitably, a person's fondest memories are those who were teachers. If no teacher made an impression on you, then you have had no education. Some of the greatest aspects is our education and teaching is one of the most honorable professions. There is nothing more important in life than teaching doctrine to children. Just don't expect what we have in this auditorium. Don't scare them. Don't shout at them. There are a lot of children you have to win with your thoughtfulness and love. Bob would probably play more instruments, but his teachers could not deal with his squirming.

Bob saw some abusiveness at Lee High School when he ran track.

Bob shuts it down early tonite.

2Sam. 10:5 [And they told David, and he sent to see them; for the men were greatly ashamed \[humiliated\]. And the king said, Remain in Jericho until your beard grows; then you shall return.](#)

Bob is not going to review all this, because there is too much there. Get the tapes if you do not know the content of those verses.

It suddenly dawned upon the state department that they had really fouled things up. Even the most arrogant of people. Even in their stupidity, they realize that they have fouled up the situation. SNAFU or TARFU situations.

More believers are disciplined for arrogance than anything else. Here they are being disciplined and they do not know what a pain in the neck they are to God. There has to be some unusually tragic events. They realize that they should not have been laughing or leering or throwing rocks or dust at them. But they would not have done this, had not the state department sent them this way.

Arrogance and the Ammonite King

1. Arrogance has better hindsight than foresight.
2. The impulsive act of maltreating these ambassadors is not related to reality however, the time to relate to reality is before the act, not after. The sooner we face reality about the criminal the better. We ought to hang them from trees in their own front yard. Draw and quarter them where there are no trees.

3. During the incident, these Ammonites were stimulated by their arrogance.
4. David was the number 1 soldier of their age and that suddenly occurred to them. The king of Ammon must face the cold hard facts in the light of day and this precipitated a war that they could not win. They were quite prosperous at this time and one would think they would want to be at peace. If you plan to commit violence, then you need to consider what you are doing first. You must be motivated by thought and not by emotion. It is inevitable that if you learn some doctrine you will do thinking from divine viewpoint. The unbeliever can have some sense. Bob's dad was a great father and a great tactical officer. He had no peer. He always pounded these things into Bobby's head. Particularly after being beaten. "Think before you act" or "Don't go off half-cocked." That is what someone should have said to this king. Doctrine can stimulate humility. In traffic, you may want to impulsively smash someone. Think before you act. It is inevitable in a declining society. It always starts by arrogance and it is always impulsive.
5. It is impossible to withdraw the impulsive act. You can apologize to doomsday, but that won't cut it. More people have been led bad to church because of one impulsive act.

So you just don't go around and insult the ambassadors of the most powerful country around. They will call upon the Syrian army, which they think is the best in the world. The Jewish army is one of the greatest of that time. There is only one other army which is doing anything at that time, the Dorians. The tall blonde blue-eyed ox-eating Greeks. They will eventually be led by Alexander the Great, and that is where they will peak. The Philistines are the Mycenaeans or the Achaeans. They will eventually overrun the entire world.

After the Dark Ages are over for that part of the world, the Dorians will be called Spartans and Macedonians and Thracians. Even though they were great and the Dorians remain great, they will be great for a 1000 years.

There is a reason this is in the Bible and this is a very important passage. Some of you are becoming aware that you have an arrogance problem.

The citizens of Ammon are panicked. They are prosperous and they have a weak military. Money speaks and cash is power and they have it. They will put their cash on the line in order to stop the Jews.

Sakar means to hire. The Greeks did not call them Aram, they called them Syrians, and the trouble with this word is, it is very close to the Assyrians; a completely different people. Ammon hired the army of Syria.

Beth-Rahab means house of streets. This was the home; it was an armed camp. The Syrian nations were several. Nations. They are powerful when they get together. This is a home of a mercenary army. They will furnish 20,000 warriors. When David was extending his boundary to the Euphrates. Zobah had a city on both sides of the Euphrates. He hired out those on the south as mercs; he kept an army on the north for protection.

Aram Maacah is the smallest of the Syrian kingdoms and they only provide 1000 men.

Tob means good, prosperous. This is a border state between... Judges 11:3

Aram was related to the Jews. Isaac married an Aramæan? Rebecca was Aramæan.

Bob puts a map on the board. Tob is a Syrian city. Rabbah is a fortified city. Zobah is on the other side of the River. 33,000 troops will concentrate there. David had trouble with people in Trans-Jordanian before. There is a ford that leads into the Valley of Succoth. This is David's 2nd base. Since 33,000 of the touches troops are up there, he goes up there to Jericho, and he will hit Rabbah in a different way. There will be a single envelopment.

Joab and part of his army will be in Rabbah and he will be in a jam. The Syrian nations are north of Rabbah. David will make a blitzkrieg attack, and walk right into a strategical trap. The army of Ammon is the bait and the closing of the trap is the Syrian army.

2Sam. 10:6 And the sons of Ammon saw that they were odious [malodorous] to David. And the sons of Ammon sent and hired Syrians from Beth-rehob, and Syrians from Zobah, twenty thousand footmen; and the king of Maacah with a thousand men; and the men of Tob with twelve thousand men.

More information is found in 1Chron. 18. Tob was not included by the writer of Chronicles because they only offered up 1000 people. Zion is where David did his planning. He sees Tob and Rabbah, and it never occurs to David that they will do a strategic single envelopment. He takes the short route and the Syrians are down in Medeba.

Zion is the Pentagon to us.

They hire 30,000 troops and they are in Medeba, which is south of Rabbah. David takes the bait and goes after them.

1Ch 19:6 And the Ammonites saw that they had made themselves odious to David; and Hanun and the Ammonites sent a thousand talents of silver in order to hire to themselves chariots and horsemen from Syria of Naharaim and Syria of Maachah and from Zobah.

Medeba is 50 clicks south of Sabbath

1Ch 19:7 And they hired thirty two thousand chariots to themselves, and the king of Maachah and his people. And they came in and pitched before Medeba; and the Ammonites had gathered out of their cities and had come to the battle.

He sends the recruits of that year and his elite force. This forms a flying column. David hears of what is going on, and he goes on the offensive. 005–990 B.C. is the approximate time.

Universal military training. They advance into a trap, but use that to their advantage.

1Ch 19:8 And David heard, and sent Joab and all the army of the mighty men.

There is a ford at Jericho and you are climbing up about 2000 feet on a fairly narrow trail and then you go down into this wide valley. The trip up is too narrow to put our flankers. There are no enemies on the trail up.

1Ch 19:9 And the Ammonites came out and set the battle in order at the entrance to the city; and the kings who had come were by themselves in the field.

The trouble with the Jewish army, there are few mounted men. Joab will be at his command post and he will find out that the Syrians are closing in on him. He is greatly outnumbered and with troops who have not seen action before, he still has the Ranger battalion.

David and Joab are mature believers. The imputation of blessing of the justice of God to the righteousness of God in David. All prosperity universal military training, which is a part of David's plan for Israel. This is a Biblical principle. All national freedom comes through national victory. Neh. 4:8–9 Num. 1:2–3 there was a census to be taken of all the men 20 years and older and these were drafted. The exceptions are the man taking a new wife. After 1 year with that little woman, there is not enough time for antagonisms and he is motivated to train and to protect hearth and home. Things were more stable then. Now, 1 year can take you through a couple of different relationships.

“Mobilize for war among you and send in 1000 from each tribe to war against Midian.” Judges 3:1–2 There were nations left, and God did not allow the Jews to conquer all those in the land at the beginning. They were left in the land to test Israel so that the Jews would be taught war.

Universal military training.

Levi was exempt from war.

All freedom and all national integrity is maintained through military victory. The military as a profession is absolutely necessary for any client nation of God.

This is about the beginning of the Ammonite-Syrian war.

1Ch 19:10 And Joab saw that the face of the battle was against him before and behind; and he chose out all the choice ones in Israel, and set in order to meet Syria;

1Ch 19:11 and the rest of the people he gave into the hand of his brother Abishai; and they set in order to meet the sons of Ammon.

2Samuel 10:7

72David

631_0220

David's ambassadors came to the land of Ammon. Consequently, when David heard the G2 report, he dispatched Joab his chief of staff...and his elite.

David followed universal military training. There are two categories of trainees. Those who remain on permanent duty and those who return to their lives. David had an elite force, but they are not like elite forces as known today.

Brandenberger's in the Wehrmacht, and several other small armies within armies. We have several categories of Rangers. First special forces group. Merrill's Marauders. Bob thinks that elite forces as used today; it siphons off the best of the best. They are often destroyed in missions above and beyond their abilities. Instead of using an infantry division or 2, they bring in a few hundred who are highly trained. However, they can be taken out by various misuses and by armillary. Darby's Rangers were put in instead of a corp, and they were caught by several German armor divisions. A lot of great men were wiped out. The worst waste of good leadership and personnel in our history. Same as Marine raiders in the Guadalcanal. We get down to where we lack men, and send in these men instead of a corp.

No elite outfit has ever won a war and they never will. It is the corp army which goes in there and does the job. Elite outfits are good in peace time; but never in a full scale war. In a full-scale war, they ought to be broken up.

Wars are won by armies; not by companies or by platoons. Even with all of their magnificent leadership.

It is fine for training and for your own esprit decorps. They would provide a leadership backbone, instead of them being killed in a bumbling mess up.

Purpose of an elite force is to motivate others to do as well. They are looking to develop some esprit decorps.

We know the whole structure of David's upper echelon. Bob names off the 3 commanding the mighty men. Dino the Spear, Shamrar the Loner, and someone else.

Principles of Warfare

Weapons change, uniforms change but these principles of war never change.

1. The principle of the objective. The purpose of a military operation is the attainment of the objective assigned to a designated force. The objective constitutes the guide for the interpretation of orders, for the formulation of decisions, for the employment of the means available. The nation, the military forces and each element of the military forces all have objectives. Here, it is the neutralization of 2 armies, the of Syrian and that of Ammon. David, in sending out his flying column, thought that he sent enough out there to win the war. That is an objective at the highest echelon. David's army had 2 basic objectives: the capture of Ramah and the destruction of the Syrian mercs. There are generally 2 sub-principles of the objective:
  - a. The neutralization or destruction of the power of the enemy's military forces. This has to be done in battle and this is always the first consideration. This means the defeat of the enemy's main forces as decisively as possible. This is more important than grabbing cities or chunks of land. There is the ford across Jericho, and going up high cliffs, where flankers are not needed. However, when he comes out to the valley, he is set up on both sides by the Ammonites and the Syrians. They all knew the Ammonites were the easy ones. They already had a plan, you beat them down, and we will help whoever needs help. He is going to take his elite forces against the Syrians, and put a holding force on the others. Joab does not have to run to David to figure out what to do; he knows what to do.
  - b. The possession of localities that will attain the national objective, which is the defeating of the enemy..

The Valley of Succoth

About 27 minutes in. Psalm 60:6 I will draft troops from Shechem, which is getting the draft dodgers into it. Also Succoth. This is David's plan for any Transjordanian war. 2 systems of concentric interior lines. If he is going south, then Jerusalem is his base. This is such an important valley that God has David write this out in the Word of God. Also in Psalm 108. All Jewish attacks across the border were launched from the Valley of Succoth

1. There are 4 reasons why the Valley of Succoth is important. Any enemy in this area must travel through the Valley of Succoth. It is easy to defend with a military force. It controls all the lines of communication. It was as important to David's army as Bastogne was to the U.S. army.
2. The Valley of succoth was a natural source for food and water.
3. It was politically stable. You can only have political success in a nation where it is politically stable. Political stability from spiritual perception is the support line for any army or military. In the War Between the States, the Yankees had the advantage of not having to fight on their soil. In the Mexican War, we had a stabilized base. The people were unusually stable. It was a spiritual base. We had no foreign soldiers on our land. The Spanish navy came without 100 miles of Florida, but they never hit it.
4. The south did not have a stabilized base except for Georgia which was destroyed by a Yankee Bob refuses to mention. Stability, support, appreciation, patriotism, love and concern on the homefront are extremely important to an army. David was successful because he had a very supportive base at home.

The Principles of Warfare Continued

2. The principle of offensive. The offensive permits concentration of effort and allows freedom of action and raised morale. Offensive is the only way by which an objective is gained. The offensive increases the effectiveness of a force that adopts it; it raises morale, it allows freedom of action, it brings victory while defensive can only fain off defeat. This delivers a main blow in a decisive direction. Defensive is sometimes used in order to assist the offensive. Defensive is only to assist offensive; it is a temporary measure.
3. Principle of mass; which is the principle of combat power: numbers, weapons, combat skill, resolution, leadership, morale are all contributing factors to mass. Mass is where you place troops and equipment. Success in war is applying mass at a proper time in a proper place to gain the objective or for the accomplishment of a definite purpose.
4. The principle of economy of force; the means by which the mass is employed in a main effort. The time and place of the main effort must be determined by the men and the means and their employment at the proper place and time with concern for not losing these forces...
5. The principle of maneuver or movement. To maneuver combat elements. It is the offensive to bring the mass close to the enemy to attain a victory. The Syrians had the advantage here; Ammonites are by Rabbah as bait. Movement is more effective when concealed. A wide open plain here, good for cavalry and chariots. This allows for mobility surprise. In this case, under the principle of movement, the Syrians had the entire advantage.
6. The principle of surprise. Surprise in some form allows maximum effect with minimum loss. It can be a surprise with respect to time, force, place, tactics, direction, size of force, type of weaponry. Tactics, place, direction. It can be secrecy, rapidity; there is more than one kind of surprise. Stonewall Jackson hid his army in a train tunnel or something, and then he moved up to a ridge and devastated the rest of the army. The Battle of 2nd Manasseh was a terrain surprise. Watched the Yankees go by for awhile, then they got up and shot them. His march around the entire Yankee army in Chancellorsville was also a great surprise. You men may want to consider how many times a woman has used surprise on you.
7. The principle of security. To guard against someone's military plans and to guard against being taken by surprise. Lack of security is one of Joab's problems. Joab was perhaps a little cocky on this occasion. He had no idea that the whole army was ready to jump on him. Reconnaissance teams should have gone in several different directions. Apart from the grace of God, David would have had the hell knocked out of him.
8. The principle of simplicity; plans should be as simple as possible. There aren't too many bright people in military life and the intelligent ones sometimes cannot think under pressure. This is why the Jap navy failed at Lady Galt? Gulf? This was related to the Philippines. Halsey and Jap line of battleships; some were dummy ships? It was a little too complicated; and it almost worked.

9. Principle of cooperation. Working together for the accomplishment of a common mission; it means teamwork. The Army and marines have to work together. The Air Force has to work with the army without killing them. In the Battle of the Bulge, there was a lot bombing of friendly troops. If there is anything that is devastating, it is antagonism between different branches of the service. Naval Officer and Marine officer got into it and that almost cost a large number of marines. Russian Revolution; Russian army annihilated; 3/4 millions died because 2 generals would not cooperate. This was from the Battle of Tannenberg. Samsonov and Rennenkov would not cooperate. It began in the Russian Japanese War. Bob gives the background, which culminated in a fist fight at a train station.

Bob applies this to believers; and some mature believers are critical of new and growing believers.

Bob will allude to these principles from time to time. David was courteous and thoughtful. 7–15 southern campaign; vv. 16– northern campaign, where the war will be won.

2Sam. 10:7 And David heard, and he sent Joab and all the army, the mighty men.

Aggressiveness on the part of Ammon. The Ammonites are advancing. But they did not advance very far. They went about 1 click outside the gate of Rabbah and dug in. They are not heroes; they are bait. They sent out patrols to make it look like they were ready.

They advanced and then dug in. They deployed their troops beyond the entrance of the gate. They came out far enough away from the walls. To get the attention of one person, a lady flirts with another. He begins to concentrate on you instead of someone else.

Joab was not using a good security system. He could not wait to get at the Ammonites. They advanced and deployed in a defensive position. 40 clicks to the south, there are the 30,000+ Syrian troops. They could hit the Jewish army in the rear this way. Joab kept on thinking under pressure. He did not throw himself on the Ammonites, which would have destroyed his army. He assumed that the Syrian army was in the north, and they are quite close in the south. He saw them a couple clicks away. He will take his elite forces; he will surprise the Syrians. He is fighting on interior tactical lines? Joab's reserve is his holding force. That is absolute fantastic military courage. He does not really have a reserve. He has a great sense of humor. He will give his brother the reigns of the reserve and holding force. He was been outsmarted, but he has conservation of mass. He is fighting under interior lines and this was Joab's greatest battle. He never stopped thinking. A coward cannot think under pressure. Cowardice and courage differ by thinking or not under pressure. We will see his thinking tomorrow night. Out maneuvered, trapped, in a jam, and either army outnumbers him. He is completely outmaneuvered. When in doubt, attack the strongest force. Napoleon could determine the weakest force and attack that. Joab is going after the strongest.

At Waterloo Napoleon faced 2 stronger forces. He won hands down for the first half.

2Sam. 10:8 And the sons of Ammon came out and set the battle in order [deployed] at the opening of the gate. And the Syrians of Zobah, and Rehob, and the men of Tob, and Maacah were by themselves in the field.

2Samuel 10:8–9

631_0221

Feb, 1978 issue of Psychology Today, an article on habitual criminals; they are not victims of childhood problems nor are they mentally ill. There is little difference, to Bob, between the fundamentalist Christian legalist and the criminal mind. Bob is not implying that the criminals running loose in Christianity today are criminals. A thought pattern which can cause legalism can also thrust someone else into a life of crime.

Apparently Bob got a telegram today from a woman that was weird and doesn't make sense. One incorrect old psychologist thought it was inherited. Social scientists have spend millions of hours and millions of dollars to show that criminals are victims of poverty, poor schooling, the pressure of their peers, a bad home life, etc. However, some of these can be very arrogant. Many have found out that drug addiction, and other sorts of addictions. Also a permanent rage of the poor against the social situations.

The doctor who writes this article disagrees with that. Those who adopt criminal careers are not merely responding to their environment. Reference to Samsonov and Yokelson else's 2 volume set; and criminal thinking has little to do with environment, social status, and anything else.

They put their information together by talking with thousands of criminals. The habitual criminal is a liar and a deceiver and he has little capacity for love, and can cold-heartedly commit vicious acts without a twinge of guilt, and yet still think that he himself is a good person. He finds the restraints of conventional living restrictive. He disregards the rights of others, but demands the utmost consideration and thoughtfulness. This is pure arrogance.

This arrogance of a woman sending Bob a telegram. Bob has discovered that arrogant people are unteachable. They give lip service to authority but they reject authority, and accept only their own authority.

It does not bother the criminal mind to hurt others; he expects to be trusted; and when he is, he always exploits it. He rarely trusts others.

The authors identify 52 errors in thinking. They found that these errors are present at a very early age. One thing which destroys some is arrogance. They do not consider that this is innate, they do believe it to be developed.

Some of the more prominent patterns: This criminal mind thinking includes extreme fearfulness, consummated by real and imagined fears, including heights, water, spaces, etc. Terrified of physical injury and death and any event they interpret as a rejection of themselves or a putdown. Their fearfulness is so pervasive from an early age, it almost seems independent of experience (and therefore, of environment); extreme and persistent anger (chronologically anger). They more often boil within. It is more dangerous when it is not on the surface. Anger is as basic to the personality as the iris is to the eye. 3rd category he calls zero state, related to the guilt complex. They are convinced that they are worthless and that their lives are hopeless, even though an objective observer would not agree. They appear flat, inert and despairing, but not the same as depression. Differs from classical depression because the criminal can wrench himself out of this by sheer force of will, and he has an inflexible high evaluation of self; a criminal pride. He is better than others when this is clearly not the case. Described in terms of manhood, and independent of all other people, and can conquer all obstacles and challenges. Super-optimism. Disoriented to reality. He will commit a crime and do it successfully.

Crimes committed without a single thought to their victims. Their crimes were done with full understanding of what they did. Only 3% were so disturbed that they did not realize that they were truly guilty. They could use psychology and sociological understanding to feign mental illness for those in this hospital.

When in personal jeopardy, he calls upon whatever he can to show himself ill. New objective is to show a rapid recovery from an illness which he had never had. Always seeks to justify himself, but he is

So arrogant to reject authority although he makes noises as if he is accepting authority. They rejected their schools and their parents and the authorities around them long before these authorities rejected them. They rejected the authority of the school long before the school threw them out. They first decide to reject authority and they do it from arrogance.

One person becomes a criminal, another lives a lifetime of unteachable arrogance. He will be just as evil, just as vicious, and just as vile.

Many of the things which we are studying are related to this; in arrogance, they do not see themselves... God uses historical disasters to remove such people.

Aram-Tsoba these are the Syrians (the Greek name for them); and called this by the Greeks because, in their heyday, they always defeated the Assyrians and kept them away from the Greek colonies.

The ambush was well planned and the bait in the trap. We are now dealing with the tarp itself. Infantry is the queen of battle; in this way, war has not changed for 4000 years, no matter where you go and what you do, the infantry wins the battle.

One of the greatest military correspondents who hated war; and he began to embed with the military and appreciated it. Who is this? In the order of battle, the infantry comes first. The cavalry could be used as the screen, but once deployed, the...

The flying column of Joab coming up from the...33,000 Syrians. They were alone in the field. They moved into position to annihilate the Jewish army. They operated independently for an attack on the rear of the Jewish army.

Points of the Tactics Here

1. The Jew selected their battlefield.
2. The Ammonites were to come out and dig in at their gates and suck the Jews in.
3. The Jews advanced toward the palace.
4. This was an ideal spot for a battle with excellent visibility. In this stage of the campaign, the Jews have been completely outmaneuvered. Reminds you of the Battle of Sharpsburg. Jackson had taken Harper's Ferry.
5. The trap had closed and the greatest threat to the Jewish army had begun. The Jewish army under Joab is completely outmaneuvered. This passage is indicating that there is great pressure on Joab. Joab under pressure thinks like Joab in a tactics class. He is spiritually mature and he is free from arrogance and pettiness; or fear; things which would cause him to freeze up.
6. David is back on the northern campaign. Joab must fight the battle of Rabbah.

2Sam. 10:8 And the sons of Ammon came out and set the battle in order [deployed] at the opening of the gate. And the Syrians of Zobah, and Rehob, and the men of Tob, and Maacah were by themselves in the field [maneuvered independently on the battlefield].

The Jewish deployment and the order of battle. V. 9a gives us Joab thinking. You must not rationalize away from the reality. He has the army of Aram on his rear and his flank and he is trapped with a small army. He must face reality. The first part of the solution is to always face reality. People become neurotic for the same reason.

He saw the situation. Hiphil imperfect of raah. He is forced to face reality a believer in a jam needs to face the facts. The Qal stem means to see, to make a reconnaissance; and the Hiphil means, make a reconnaissance or die.

Napoleon could have been captured at this bridge by himself, but he managed to get out of it. We, as believers, will all have problems from time to time. To solve the problems, you must begin with reality. Bob starts his reality check by recognizing that he is a horse's ass. You tell the Father what He already knows. Once you have spelled it out to God, you are still lower than a chigger. Started to say something else and thought better of it. You cannot lose the perspective of reality. As long as you think you are just a good guy who made a mistake, you will not cut it. Under the old sin nature, there is not one among us who is not a horse's ass. Problems are solved in a state of humility; never in a state of arrogance. Joab was kicking himself; he was too cocky; too arrogant. He was over confident. Only David, back in hq, was as smart as Joab. He is the smartest man on the battlefield, but he was still outmaneuvered. Some of you have an unbelievable IQ, but that with arrogance will mean you are whipped all of your life. You may be smart and able to talk your way out of a lot of trouble, but you are not that smart. There comes a time when you do not depend upon morality, your brilliant mind, your super intelligence, and God must bring the smart person to the place where his super intelligence is not helpful. It does not matter if you are a genius or close to a genius. When you depend upon how smart you are, you have lost out. You need to depend upon the stability of the Lord. God uses brains. God used Paul. He also used people without brains, like Peter and John.

You didn't know we were going to get right down where you live. That's what we call, surprise. It applies to all of us. We are always kidding ourselves when we think we will get through life without discipline.

God can get along without any of us, but none of us can get along without God. In effect, Joab has lost. He is caught between 2 larger armies. Jesus Christ controls history and a few moments of arrogance have now been set aside. You must start solving the problem with yourself. Once you come to the conclusion, "What a dumb ass I am, you will be able to solve the problem."

Joab is now objectively looking at the problem. He has troops in his front and in his rear. Hayah means he is viewing a true situation. He will solve the problem by attacking. Generally speaking, when you attack, look for the Achilles heel. However, it confuses your enemy when you strike at his strongest point. He will handle the panty-waist last. He will attack the toughest army at its weakest point. This is the unexpected.

Joab's principles

1. This was a correct estimation of the situation. You must have the facts first. He has already recognized that he has made a mistake.
2. He is outnumbered by the enemy and placed in a precarious tactical situation.
3. He will use the principle called surprise. He will attack the Syrians to his rear.
4. Joab must attack the strongest army with his elite troops; and he uses his new troops as his screening force, to keep the weak army at bay.
5. He has the advantage of great discipline in his army and interior lines.
6. He will formulate a battle plan by which he can concentrate quickly and use force, mass and surprise. A mature believer utilizes and correctly applies the correct principles of warfare.

2Sam. 10:9 [And Joab saw that the front of the battle was against him before and behind \[the face of the battle was toward him from the front and toward him from the rear\]. And he chose from all the chosen in Israel, and set them in order to meet the Syrians.](#)

Pertinent to our study is an article from the Houston Post from last year, and Somoza is fed up with Carter. He is the ruler of Nicaragua. He is fed up with Carter's human rights campaign. Somoza's political opponents are sometimes jailed and tortured. He comments that they are a non-Marxist society and believe that they are the good guys. The national guard Somoza cannot understand how we can be an anti-Communist nation yet spend all of our time trying to support communist movements. He said that Carter has no foreign policy.

You must build a policy on truth, on Biblical principles and upon divine establishment principles; but such policies require thought. We have been living under a policy of expediency since FDR. Carter has no clue as to what nations are all about. The Carter administration has helped the Communists gain control of Rhodesia and all over Africa and is helping them in Iran, or, even worst, the religionists. The Shah of Iran has provided establishment principles for his people. This foreign policy is really a system of expediency in vacillation with tragedies multiplying daily.

A policy must be based upon principles which are either establishment or Biblical. The principles were given to us on military concepts. There were 9 concepts of military principles which have not changed for 4000 years.

You have no spiritual life because you have no principle. Arrogance and self righteousness are illustrative of the Carter administration. His talk of torture is self righteousness. The principle must be inculcated long before the policy is instituted.

Our military policy is related to political expediency.

There is policy in business; most of the policy in big business is based upon excellent principle. "There is no policy in bureaucracy; just confusion and pettiness. Government bureaucracy is the antithesis of efficiency." good leadership concepts. They represent common sense.

Every believer in a congregation must have his privacy. No one has the right in a congregation to interfere with another person's freedom. When one intrudes on another's freedom, then the first must be cast out. You might be a whore, a bum, a hippy, drive a beer truck, whatever; but your privacy needs to be protected.

You are a megalomaniac if you think I have time to talk about you. A beautiful woman might walk in here to listen to doctrine, and if she does not want the attention of some wolf, then she deserves protection. Same goes for the ugly ones.

There is the closing of the trap in v. 9a.

Joab knows his profession and he is constantly thinking.

Qal imperfect of bachar which means to choose, to select. This is a G1 function. The best principles in the world cannot be put into action without matching personnel. Great principles and policy require an excellent personnel. That is why some people need to be removed from a congregation.

Why Have Elite Troops

Elite troops are always wasted by the US and by Britain.

1. The presence of elite troops raises everyone else's standards. It is a motivator. When they are mixed in with other troops, it always motivates to raise the other standards.
2. It is the best place to train leadership in all categories. The discipline is greater and the training is above and beyond. In a time of peace, it is the best place in the world to train leaders.
3. When the balloon goes up, you need to guard the elite force and split them up. They need to be separated and used throughout the armed forces. They are to be used as a pool of leaders. They can be moved up in the ranks immediately. They have the capabilities.
4. Elite troops always have esprit de corps. This is one of the most important things to have for a military unit. This gives a better response to discipline and better orientation to discipline. They have a good mental attitude. To learn doctrine, you must have a good mental attitude; you must be objective and not subjective.
5. David's elite troops were just regular army. They were not separated out. From the elite force, he took his knights and other high ranking officers. Most of his officers came from Judah and Benjamin and foreigners. When David became king of Israel, his officer corps came from the cave of Adullam battalion.

Joab deploys his elite against the Syrians. The Syrians were great fighters; they were great soldiers. They had illustrated this against many armies in the ancient world (the Egyptians, Assyrians, etc.)

Joab chooses an elite force. Why did David have elite troops? Many of David's elite came from the cave of Adullam. Every year, David drafted a new set of 20 year olds. There is his AIT troops and his elite forces. Their tact officers. They will act as a reserve force. David will take his elite and attack the Syrians.

David expanded his army from Judah, and most came from Judah and Benjamin and from foreigners. When he became king of Israel, his officer corps was his old Addullem battalion. Every year he drafted a class.

The Syrians like to attack; and attacking them confuses them.

Joab peels off an elite force and deploys them against the Syrians. He chose to attack those most able to carry out their objective. The Syrians were great soldiers; great fighters.

1. Know your enemy. Joab had studied all the people around Israel during peacetime. The Ammonites did not like to attack; they liked to fight a defensive role. They were great counter-punchers.
2. The Syrians like offense. It is very difficult to attack a bee with a needle or with a sword. They were attacking and attacking and Joab sat back, saw a hole and hit it.
3. Every attacking force has a weak point.

Joab called for an attack plan which took cognizance of all the factors.

Force A is Joab with the elite and Abishai with the AIT army? This will require good discipline, nerve, moral courage, staff work, everything that is important in military function. Above all, it will call for great leadership.

Proverbs 24 for a leadership passage. Prov. 24:1–6: Do not be jealous evil men, and do not desire to be with them. For their right lobe studies violence, and their lips talk trouble [good leaders do not gossip and malign]. Through wisdom [maximum doctrine in the soul] a house is built [edification complex of the soul], and it is established by understanding, and by knowledge the inner parts [= by means of understanding doctrine] shall be filled with all wealth [various forms of blessing]. A wise warrior is in strength [a wise warrior lives in the power of doctrine]: yes, a man of knowledge firms up power [a man of knowledge strengthens his professional ability]. For you shall make war for yourself by wise advice, and safety is in the abundance of counselors [greatness resides in the leadership of the one who commands].

Montgomery was a jealous, petty person. Leadership must be able to think independently of the group.

The only good leaders were first peons. They were willing to take it, fair or unfair. You must be inculcated with discipline. All good leaders start at the bottom; not at the top. Only arrogance starts at the top. That is what is wrong with these young pastors today.

The military is related to freedom today and, indirectly to evangelism and the teaching of Bible doctrine.

Leadership

1. A person needs to be under authority in order to exercise authority correctly. Good leadership must have been under authority at one time. He must learn authority from the bottom. And Bob means by a bucket on the head being beaten by an officer. No one can exercise authority until he can think in terms of authority-orientation. This is why some husbands are lousy and why some people are bad teachers, coaches and bosses. They have no concept of authority.
2. A good leader must be organized. He needs an organized life. Some people cannot be leaders because they are unable to organize their own lives. You have to be able to organize yourself in order to organize people. Some of you are hit or miss. If you want to build up your life physically, you must organize it. Some Christians are the least organized people Bob has ever seen. That is a part of leadership.
3. The spiritual life is important for military life. In both spiritual and military life, self-discipline is needed. Do not discount the spiritual in your own life. All great leaders have great self discipline. Ike was one of the most self-disciplined men of the war. Admiral Yamamoto was one of the greatest leaders and he was assassinated, and that changed the war. He was one of the most self-disciplined men; he was one of the greatest poker and bridge players. He always had time for these things. Patton occasionally let himself get out of control.

4. A relaxed mental attitude. It is developed from self-discipline. A sense of humor comes out of this. A sense of humor and a relaxed mental attitude comes out of all this. A sense of human is humility; it reveals a lack of arrogance. True inner humility. It is not the attractive people who are arrogance; it is the ugly people. Some of the greatest arrogance comes from the lower classes. People with poise and who are successful are often seen as arrogant, but their detractors are the arrogant ones. There is obviously less self-discipline among the lower classes; this is why they are lower class. They are complainers. They refuse to work hard. There is more arrogance among the lower class than the rulers. Cæsar was an aristocrat. People would rather take money from Uncle Sugar than to work for it. The idea that the world owes them a living; that is arrogance. Making a race an issue is arrogance. There is a false issue when you predetermine how many of this or that race ought to be in management. If you want to see arrogance, look at the scum; look at the mob, go to the poor frustrated people walking around Moody Park, the victims of their Communist organizers. They walk around shouting Communist slogans out of arrogance. Arrogance destroys potential.
5. The principle of strong character. Arrogance is not strong character. Being stubborn is not being strong. Stubborn people are inflexible about everything. Arrogance + stupidity + inflexibility is not strong character, it is what Bob just described.
6. Professional diligence. A lifetime of study. Whatever your profession, whatever your area, you can never get away from study. Joab needs to know his army, his army's ability, his enemy.
7. Fairness is important in dealing with personnel. Understanding all kinds of people, their weaknesses and capabilities.
8. Categorize, systematize, and be able to delegate responsibility. Leadership never does everything. The leader never tries to do it all. Or they select a subordinate and they pick, pick, pick away at the job that they do. Leadership also pays attention to the chain of command. The leader does not go all the way down to the person who screws up; he speaks to the person under him, and this goes down. There is no substitute for the chain of command. The chain of command is as old as man. People always want to destroy the chain of command principle. They want to bypass this because they are arrogant and they demand attention. If you bypass one authority and go up the ladder, they want attention and they want to bypass authority. Many leaders destroy their own authority by allowing the chain of command to be violated. Leaders need time to think. They need some isolation and some times to think. Bear Bryant did very little coaching once when he talked to Bob. Said he developed great coaches under him, and he just walked up and down and looked authoritative. Fundies want to erase all of this. "It is spiritual to go to the leaders." No it isn't; it is arrogance. "Sound cold? Then I'll say hello to you in the hall." Joab will get a lot done. He has great courage and poise.

Stubborn is being inflexible about everything. This is not strong character; just inflexibility.

One of the signs of arrogance and conspiracy is bypassing the chain of command. Fundies want to ignore this. "I have a problem." It is all about them. They are all that is important.

2Sam. 10:9 And Joab saw that the front of the battle was against him before and behind [the face of the battle was toward him from the front and toward him from the rear]. And he chose from all the chosen in Israel, and set them in order [he deployed them] to meet the Syrians.

Jan. 18 WSJ and an article by Irving Krystal (from yesterday) "Foreign Policy, the End of an Era." This is about the changes in Iran. Not to back the Shah of Iran is ridiculous, as he is the last sane ruler from that region. We do not have the means or the will to be involved militarily since our military is almost defunct. Shah is a great ruler, but unpopular. This leaves us with a bankrupt foreign policy. We'd like to see a democratic regime emerge in Iran, but that is not going to happen. You can describe most foreign policies in 2 words, national interest. Ours can be described in one word, imbecilic. That is Bob's comment.

Woodrow Wilson gave the American foreign policy its own distinctive character and he saw it as our responsibility to convert everyone to democracy. Wilsonianism and this is still found in our affairs. Utopianism is becoming discounted. This made us overly arrogant and self righteous. Expecting an evolution to a democracy in various nations, but that evolution does not seem to be written into our genetic code.

A Baptist minister who was the new governor of Arkansas and a pastor on tapes talked to him and explained that leaving these people alive was immoral.

Arrogance blinds you to reality; self righteousness makes it worse; and there is a psychological principle, that those who are divorced from reality are destructive.

David did not have a state department. His foreign policy was to have the best army in the world. A magnificent army. We have no army and no foreign policy (Bob knows the number of divisions that we have better than we do). To be effective we need 5-10 million soldiers. We need universal military training. We need to turn hippies into soldiers.

There are still people who come in and want to put out their literature. Anyone putting literature anywhere will be thrown out. They will lose all their privileges. Berachah does not advocate candidates. We cannot push for one party or the other. Cannot allow for political material, good or bad. Berachah is not involved in politics or supporting candidates. We do not ask anyone to write their Congressman or anything else.

Bob reads the first few verses.

2Sam. 10:9 And Joab saw that the front of the battle was against him before and behind [the face of the battle was toward him from the front and toward him from the rear]. And he chose from all the chosen in Israel, and set them in order [he deployed them] to meet the Syrians.

Final Principles of v. 9

1. While this is dealing with the military, there is an important spiritual factor of blessing by association. All of those young recruits having their first taste of action, in the process of being deployed against the Ammonites and about to face the Syrian army. They have a commander, Joab, who is a mature believer, and they are associated with him. Sometimes God supplies the mature believer and that comes out to you; and sometime the decisions of that person will affect those around them. There will be direct and indirect blessing to this army.
2. The Ammonite army has the best strategy and tactics at this time. The Jewish army, smaller than either army, and it this flying column of Israel is trapped in between. The Yankees had a good plan, to envelop the confederate force. Flank them and roll them up. This was the battle of Manasses or Bull Run. Completely out strategized.

Now we will go to the holding force. Abishai is one of the greatest soldiers as well. His nephews are of the best of his soldiers. No one can exercise leadership without delegation of authority. This is someone with a lot of power trusting someone else. The local church the pastor must delegate authority.

If the congregation elects deacons, then the pastor has no authority at all. He needs to select men in whom he can place his trust. If the congregation delegates authority, the church is in trouble. That is the problem with Berachah Church until they changed the congregation. The congregation can veto deacons now. He needs people he can trust. Bob trusts Ken Wise. Bob does not go down there and hire and fire teachers. All that is his baby. He delegates his authority to others.

There is a nursery man; he does not have to clear anything with Bob. Only T&P is something Bob needs to deal with, but Roy and Katie have delegated authority there. When problems come up or there is a deacons meeting, there is a policy which is dealt with. A deacons meeting to decide to choose what color to paint the walls; that is a waste of time. Whenever you see an organization where the people on the bottom are dictating. You are looking at great inefficiency when those at the bottom dictate the policy.

Some of you do not understand this system because you think that everyone in your organization all have the same rights. A person who does not delegate authority, when something goes wrong, then we have to go back and see who is responsible. A good executive can dig his spurs into his desk, sit back, and let it all be taken care of. A lousy person in arrogance tries to do it all and tries to run every single aspect of a person's function.

People used to hand Bob money and say get this to the offering; and Bob never touches the money. You cannot have any kind of an organization where all authority rests with one person and he does everything. Or just as bad to have a democracy, where the people have all the authority.

It is imperative that a person with authority does not cling to his authority but he delegates it. It is the same thing with love. You do not keep all of your love for yourself.

Joab delegates authority to Abishai. He is trustworthy. The shock troops have lived through history and we have studied elitism, where it is good or not.

He separates the AIT from the elite. There must be fine lines of distinction. Any person with authority needs to be able to think categorically with regards to personnel. You must be able to think categorically.

You can trust people that you do not like and you can give a job to someone that you do not like. Liking someone has nothing to do with it. Women have to have people in positions under them that they like. The beauties are designed to be responsive, not objective. You must be able to sit down and think categorically.

Paratroop organizations may be elite, but they need food and bullets. They must be supplied. No man is an island. There are the elites in the body of Christ and the rest, and they are interrelated and inter-dependent. It is alright to have esprit de corps, but not to be arrogant. There is no gift without the people. Bob has the gift of pastor-teacher, but he could be standing up talking to himself, and it would not be too interesting. You can be elite by function, but they are no good without support. There can be arrogance on either side. But this arrogance destroys teamwork. It takes everyone to make up a team.

Terry Bradshaw had a great testimony in a sports magazine; and the other person is a born-again believer as well. Blocking is the toughest job in football and football is won on the line, not in the backfield. Sometimes people get credit for doing a great job, but the credit can belong to a whole other group. Ken Wise might get much of the credit, but the training aides are made by one group, and another does the teaching.

There is no such thing as a great pastor or a great congregation; it is a great church. It is not a commanding officer or an elite corps; it is a great army. It is the full-team effort. The stupid and arrogant view is that the leaders do it alone. No one does it alone. It takes a team effort.

Each person has a right to his own military preference, but no military organization should be rejected as unnecessary. Abishai's force is as important as Joab's elite force.

2Sam. 10:10 And the rest of the people he gave into the hand of his brother Abishai, and he set in order to meet the sons of Ammon.

This is Sunday AM, and last night was “A Wing and a Prayer.” Conflicting with this was John Wayne’s worst movie ever, “In Harm’s Way.” It was a conglomeration of a lot of things which entertained some people. A pitiful conglomeration of nothing. Bob’s movie was interesting and accurate.

The history of the Roman world history shifts from the middle east to the western world because the Greeks went out into the world and began to colonize the western world. Attica resisted every attempt of the Barbarian hordes to conquer them. Many had come to Athens, and they were overcrowded, like Attica, so they began to spread out. The refugee Mycenaean were dispossessed and they began to cross the Aegean Sea, and these were called the Ionic settlements and these great intellects would influence Attica. This is how we have Ephesus and other great centers of learning.

These Ionic settlements were being established during the time of David. 2 most dramatic events of history. The Assyrians conquered and pushed back; the Hittites had been destroyed. Turkey is a bridge between Asia and Europe. All of these people came in and settled in Greece. They did not bother Ionia. These were Barbaric peoples conquering the Hittite empire. They moved through Turkey and into Palestine, but they were driven out by the Aramæans. They were cousins to the Chaldeans. The Chaldeans stayed down in the Akkadian area. The Aramæans became the great people during the time of David. They stopped the Assyrians. Outside of the Philistines and a couple of others, they were the dominating power at the time. All of these things are related, the migration of the sea peoples, the movement into the west, the Trojan War.

Joab sets up a holding force with Abishai to hold the Ammonites. They have to be the mobile reserve to support his brother. Joab is going to attack the Syrian army. They will leave an opening and Joab will break through and destroy their army. Under a disastrous situation, Joab is able to think. This is the difference between good leadership and bad.

The way to solve these problems is universal military training. What is done with the military in peacetime will determine what will happen during war. David had the best staff in ancient history.

2Sam. 10:10 And the rest of the people he gave into the hand of his brother Abishai, and he set in order to meet the sons of Ammon.

V. 11 is mobile reserve in the 1st case. Interior lines and concentration of force in the 2nd case. It is important for there to be great staff work. The best troops in the world can be squandered and destroyed without good staff work. They make it possible for troops to be successful in battle. Inferior troops with better staff work can beat a better army.

This is around 964 B.C. They will turn around the Aramæans, who made up the greatest army in the world. As great as any empire of that ancient world, including that of Alexander the Great. Their first cousins would come in and conquer after them.

Apart from this, this people would have conquered the entire world. This chapter actually describes what turned the tide of world history. This would have been a game changer in world history. 55 minutes. There would have been no client nation to God to evangelize the world for the next 5 generations. No western civilization.

It is amazing to Bob that hope springs eternal in the breast of the stupid; they think that Carter is going to do something good. All of the important things are missing. Insanity is the only word which covers our so-called foreign policy. Woodrow Wilson's stupid evangelistic policy. Even described by the WSJ as a legalistic fundamentalist concept. All self righteous arrogant policies become inconsistent. The Shah of Iran is one of the best rulers in the world. He has done more for his country except for the Rhodesians, South Africans and the Jews. The stuff we hear from the 4th estate is a lot of crap.

Joab was a mature believer like his uncle David. Staff work has eluded Americans. There is the staff work of Cannibal and Gustalvos Adolphus. The difference between Chancellorsville and Gettysburg is staff work.

Never sell brains short. Stonewall Jackson spent hours before battle in prayer and Napoleon with prostitutes. So it is not morality.

Bob likes the police chief and the press does not. He is starting at the top with policies.

The press represents the ultimate in propaganda.

If you are a fundamentalist Christian, you cannot be an environmentalist. The Indians never picked up their trash; we deserve this country because we pick up our trash. Environmentalism is a way to put relatively smart people to sleep for the Communist takeover. It is a way to get people's minds off the real issues.

Big business is the best friend of little business and big business provides stability for a nation. The worst waste and inefficiency is located in our bureaucracies. If we were to wipe them out tomorrow, we would immediately balance the budget.

We are left in this world to think under disaster; we are left here to think doctrine. We are left here in order to have an impact on life. Our capacity for everything is being able to think doctrine.

We get a summary of the overall plan. All of the great conquerors of that part of the world were Semitic: the Chaldeans, the Assyrians; and it was not until the Persians conquered that area that the Indo-Europeans began to take over.

If the Syrian army is able to defeat Joab's elite force, then the AIT must come to their rescue, which means, they are a mobile force. Abishai has a tough job. He has to demonstrate against Ammon, but not to become too involved. He must look as though he will attack, but not attack. Without this, he cannot be a mobile reserve unit if he gets too involved with the Ammonites. He has to look like he wants to engage with them, and he wants to engage with them, but he cannot. Berachah boys will be gung ho, but do not undersell a smart officer and respect his function. It is the same teamwork from Friday night. It takes brains at the top. A gung ho person can get things all fouled up. When you start an argument, find a place where your back is to 2 walls, and to the exits and for your friends.

Bob tells us more about bars, but then adds, "Sure, you ought to stay out of bars." Never stop thinking. God gave us brains with which to think. The difference is thinking; never stop thinking.

Ammon on the north and Aram to the south. When you are outnumbered by each army, then you cannot fall in love with a piece of ground and dig in. The secret of a small force facing a large force is to be mobile enough so that you are never there.

You do not allow your troops to so love a piece of ground that they stay there and make it their grave. The secret to fighting a much larger army is mobility. A small force can always defeat a larger force. The secret to college football is a fast line.

UT and Maryland game. Maryland had large linemen. So UT was to move quickly.

Guerrilla warfare; how to you deal with the enemy when your nation falls. We would set up a place to dig in, in Vietnam, so we stayed there and dug in. At most he has 3 battalions and he will attack an entire army with that. The idea is to keep them mobile. Nathan Bedford Forrest was never defeated because he was always noble. It takes more courage to fight that kind of a war than any other.

Listen, ladies, we are still in the Bible.

The holding force of Abishai is to back up Joab. If he gets behind, the game plan is the same; if he is winning, the game plan is the same. That is what happens when you learn to think under pressure.

The name of the game in military terms is interior lines.

These people not only had their military training, but they had spiritual principles.

Everything is considered. In all cases, the armies are mobile forces. This plan is so good that God the Holy Spirit decided to record this plan in the Word of God. When you establish standards in your soul based upon doctrine, then you can function in life without having to change the game plan. Some out there change the game plan every single hour on the hour.

Once this battle starts, there will be no change in the plan. Today, economic blessing; tomorrow is economic disaster. Bible doctrine in the soul means a stability of game plan. The variations and potentialities in this battle.

This arrangement from interior lines gives a consistent plan with flexibility. All great thinking in life is flexible about everything except doctrine. The plan is the same, but with flexibility. Many of us will not survive coming disaster because we are not flexible enough. Arrogant and self righteous people are inflexible. Sometimes we call the stubborn. Inflexible and arrogant.

Syrians will come up from Medeba to attack him. If anything goes wrong, Joab can support Abishai. Flexibility of interior lines. A simultaneous attack and holding force.

The Yankees at Gettysburg; they were first defeated and another Confederate corps came in. Hancock held the hill. Long street comes in. The Confederates have 3 forces, but the Yankees were smaller. It was Winfield Scott Hancock. The great charge on the 3rd day became the disaster of the clump of trees.

A spiritual giant is capable of meeting an historical crisis. He can have flexibility of everything in life except doctrine. This will be the largest empire in the world and they will panic.

2Sam. 10:11 And he said, If the Syrians are stronger than I, then you shall be for me; and if the sons of Ammon are stronger than you, then I will come [advance, march] to help you.

Consequently, David said, "I will manufacture grace to Hanun." Therefore, Hanun seized David's embassy...and his ambassadors were extremely humiliated. When David heard the g1 report, he dispatched the rangers. Deployed in front of the gate, while Aram maneuvered independently...he selected from all the elite and deployed them against the Syrians. Consequently, he gave orders,...

The great leader has the game plan. Whether you are winning or losing, your plan takes care of all exigencies. When there are more than 5 people involved in a plan, there is the possibility things can go wrong. However, add in more, to the chances the plan goes wrong becomes much stronger. Jehovah can neutralize strategy and tactics or support them.

Joab's great plan, the concept of attacking a larger force, the concept of fighting on interior lines, and the excellent staff work. Also, application was made to business as well.

The subject changes, and there is a general order to the army of Israel, while it is trapped. We might called this general order #1. Joab's great military leadership already studied.

3 basic concepts

1. The combat personality, the importance of courage in battle.
2. The motivation in battle.
3. The ultimate victory in battle. Jesus Christ controls history.

Stupidity concept in military life. Fine line between idiocy and esprit de corps. There needs to be good staff work. There must be good staff work behind every battle.

This would be out of the hands of the staff.

Qal imperative of chazaq and it means be firm, be stabilized in your mind; be strong; it is not battle courage here but moral courage. Courage in battle is the application of doctrine to the abnormal conditions of combat. The unbeliever has some concept of freedom or someone he loves, and there is something important to him and this gives him firmness and resolve. This is not an emotional courage. Battle courage is thinking under pressure and doing your job under battle pressure, just as you are on the battle range. Bravery must be mental and rational and not emotional and impulsive. We give decorations here for being emotional and impulsive. If a man has to use unusual impulse in battle, then command has failed. If a soldier does his job well in a company or a battalion and does it in many situations, he is then recognized. Different approaches to battle courage and recognition of it. There must be the ability to keep on doing your job under combat conditions. What people fail to realize, combat is like pressures in life for anyone. When things go against you in life, the ability to think is exactly the same concept as in a military situation. This is what is necessary in combat. In combat, a man has to be trained for a job. He has to first learn how to do his job under normal conditions. The movies mislead. A poor recruit goes into battle and becomes great. However, poor recruits become poor soldiers. That is a myth. A true hero needs to know how to perform the tactics well, under all circumstances.

We are at a time when everyone wants to start at the top. People going into business all want to start at the top. It never occurs to them that they might want to go in and learn the business from the bottom up. We have the thrust from the press that we owe certain races a break. It never occurred to anyone that some groups of people were under discipline for lack of establishment. Today, nearly everyone in America is overpaid. We have people being paid not for doing a good job, but for being on the job. The degenerate nations were easily enslaved by the Arabs and they were given to Americans. Those who came over from Africa are far better off in the United States. Some of the wealthiest people in this country today are Blacks. They have something with which they can trade, like athletic ability.

Remove all Black people and you are left with a bunch of white people with old sin natures. What is going on is just Blacks with sin natures same as white. Roots was a bunch of propaganda. There are people in Berachah who look around and frankly, Bob has no idea what they are doing there. Some of them would fall apart and they would never make it. You are section 8 material all the way. The women in this congregation are worse than the men. Bob saw 4 women yawning today; some one got the wrong idea about deep throat; it's ugly. You first have to learn your job.

There is the motivation for battle for the 2nd concept. If you are not a man, at least act like one. As a civilian, you cannot even act like it.

Hithpael stem to establish, to guarantee. The military is the only source of freedom for a nation apart from Bible doctrine. The military gives you your freedom and the politician fakes those from you. HEW is an erosion of freedom; OSHA is an erosion of freedom. Big government says you must drive a small car when we have 200 years of gas in our own country. You are told you are not a good American unless you drive a mousetrap.

Joab is a mature believer with a true concept of freedom. Victory depends upon Jesus Christ. To manufacture something out of something; here, it is to manufacture victory out of battle. The Lord is going to manufacture the good; tob is like agathos in the Greek.

It is necessary for Israel to have a standing army, as a client nation to God. Just as the country is important for life and food; the city is important for the life of a nation. If cities are taken and destroyed, there will be no life in the city. We are a client nation and the United States of America is God's property. The government has done a very bad job with administering its own property. The military is necessary to maintain client nation status.

The government has no right to restrict people's freedom unless they are criminal. We have a client nation operating under an immoral or evil government.

Bob noticed the half-time entertainment and how bad it was. You don't have all the hippie stuff with football; it's evil or nothing. Better nothing than that.

The problem with this country is the spiritual factor. Theodor Roosevelt wrote volumes on the spiritual factor in the United States. Today, at best, they make political statements about the Bible. The political factor has left.

Joab recognizes that having performed at a perfect manner. You still do not win without the Lord Jesus Christ. This is why the south lost the war; manifest destiny, and there would be no United States today. The greatest evangelism and Bible teaching has occurred in the south and by a few Yankees after that war. Great doctrinal messages lasting for several hours. It changed at the turn of the century. The spiritual factor is gone. Joab is not ashamed to mention God; neither was Patton or MacArthur. It is the factor which makes the victory.

The best of preparation can be overruled by the will of God. The worst of situations can be converted into victories by God's grace. Even our own country is filled with communists. Bob learned that Russia from 1917 was in the midst of a spiritual revival, but it went sour, because the Romanov's were born-again Christians, but they were arrogant and divorced from reality. We do the same thing that Nicolas Romanov did. Everything that he did wrong and destroyed Russia, the last chance for believers to get off their high horse and to get squared away, and they never did. We are moral and self righteous and gave away the Panama Canal. We are guaranteeing that some African nations remain 3rd world nation. Uncle Sugar comes along and turns them into monsters.

If we survive the communist attempt to destroy us, it will not be because of preparation but it will be because of intervention. How much arrogance can you get out of intervention? It is because Jesus Christ has seen fit to intervene. If we survive, it is because of the Lord Jesus Christ. If we win a battle, thank you Lord Jesus. Get down on your face and spend 24 hours saying thank you, Jesus Christ. Where is your concentration of Jesus Christ in Bible doctrine? We are getting ready to can a bunch of people who stick their noses into other people's business. Bob does everything he can to protect our privacy. With all of doing things right, more than any church they know of, even though we are doing 100% right, we would not survive without the Lord Jesus Christ.

The fact that God blesses Berachah Church with prep school, it would not last a minute without Jesus Christ. We are a great church because God has seen fit to allow us. Short business meetings mean good administration. If Jesus Christ cuts us off tomorrow, it is all over. We are not going anywhere without the Lord. This church is going nowhere without the Lord. The Lord could shut us down and we are through. We are dependent upon the Lord Jesus Christ, even though the Word of God is taught well and accurately; but God wills it.

The communists are preparing to destroy us or to enslave us. They have taken every reasonable step to move against us. They have had the exact same policy. They know when to smile. The Chi-Coms are now our friends. You do not have to like the US to take their money; use their money and then use it against them.

We are the dumbest people in the world. We were brighter when FDR was here and we are only getting dumber.

Do not every forget the source of our blessing. Whether we survive or not is dependent upon Jesus Christ. what can we do to placate Him? Offer our children? Give money? Join the army? Nope. We are to remain faithful in Bible doctrine.

This is not an invitation to a sloppy military organization or to stupid tactics but simply a recognition that Jesus Christ controls history. Jesus Christ will use victory in battle to preserve freedom and Bible teaching and missionary effort will continue. When God disciplines a client nation, the rulers are reversionistic. 4.

2Sam. 10:12 Be strong, and let us be strong [guarantee freedom] for our people, and for the cities of our God. And may Jehovah do [manufacture] that which seems good [the good, which is victory in battle] in His eyes.

2Samuel 10:12–13

72David

2Sam. 10:12 Be stabilized in your mind and let us guarantee integrity and freedom for our people and the cities of our God; and let the God do the good in His eyes.

Joab is now at the point where everything must be committed to the Lord. Once you do as much as you can, then you put the matter in the Lord's hands. Some generals have nervous breakdowns waiting for the results of a battle. The limitation is God's will. Jesus Christ controls history. Military service and training are important, and the means of preserving the freedom of a nation, but it is Bible doctrine in the soul which preserves the nation's freedom. If there isn't doctrine in the souls of the believer, then there is no way for the nation to survive.

All of the preparation is meaningless without doctrine. The person with the best mental attitude will do the best job. Subordination to authority is found in the mental attitude.

2 people doing the same job; one has 100% proficiency and the other has the mental attitude; the one with the best mental attitude will do the best in the long run. The difference between loyalty and a simple recognition of authority is in the mental attitude.

How well you do a job does not indicate what your mental attitude is. A good mental attitude can function better under pressure and it is one of the greatest issues relative to authority. A person with a good mental attitude may not even be small.

Bob presents 2 men with IQ's with 110 and 70; if the latter has a good mental attitude, that is the key. There have been a lot of people who have gone through Berachah, high IQ means you can learn faster, but nothing else. It is the plucker who makes it. This is true in sexual life, social life; it is always the plucker who makes it. Never accepts any authority except his own.

Joab is a brilliant man, but he is always a plucker. Mental attitude and motivation as to why they were fighting. The soldier with the right mental attitude will succeed; the one without it, will not. Motivation is either doctrine in the right lobe or establishment thinking. Freedom and establishment for the unbeliever; the spiritual factor for the believer.

The military profession and law enforcement must directly link their profession to divine attributes.

A Few Points

1. History, no matter how great the preparation and military proficiency, Jesus Christ can destroy military proficiency under the sovereignty of Jesus Christ. Hannibal and his forces slaughtered 80,000 well-trained Roman.
2. The principle of doctrine that God's plan and God's purchase will be manufactured from the outcome of the battle.
3. This anticipates that the mercenary army will be retreated and Ammon will retreat behind the laws of Ramman.
4. David will personally lead another campaign after this one, taking an army into Syria and break the back of the greatest power of that time,.
5. Syria will form an alliance later with the northern kingdom, during the time of Isaiah.

Jesus Christ is God. In the general order, God's will is called tob, which is good.

The people in the Jewish army has sin natures and God cannot bless them directly; but Joab and David have doctrine in the soul and they are believers; and there is a pivot in this army. And there is a client nation. This client nation will be perpetuated and there will be 80 magnificent years until degeneracy sets in.

Grace is the policy of the justice of God in administering blessing. Grace is the basis for the victory which we will study and note in great detail.

The battle of Medeba-Rabbah. Germans invaded Russia with a 1000 mile front. Bob describes the war fought in two places primarily, 400 miles from Moscow (MOSS-coh). 1 million killed.

Abishai is overseeing a holding force; and Joab has an elite force going against the Syrian mercenaries. The Russians attacked a week left wing, and Napoleon attacked the attacking force at Austerlitz, and defeated them.

An advancing force always has some openings. Napoleon at Austerlitz. He attacked the attacking force. This was one of the most decisive battles of history. A smaller force attacking a larger force, then and with Joab.

Joab is mentioned as the agrees or. His army must be distinguished from the army of Israel, which is being used as a holding force. As a holding force, Abishai is holding back the Ammonites and acting as a mobile reserve.

The Principle of Offensive Action

1. Offensive is the only action by which a decision is gained.
2. Offensive brings victory; defensive, as an action, at best, avoids defeat.
3. The only effective way to conduct a campaign is to act on the offensive. The first is to destroy the opposing army. You do not capture his cities but destroy his army. That is the first objective.
4. Offensive increases the effectiveness of the force adopting it, raises morale, permits concentration of effort, allows freedom of action.
5. Defensive is used to assist the offensive elsewhere, to gain time, to utilize good terrain, to compensate for weakness, to maneuver for advantage.
6. The offensive should be used when there is any reasonable chance for success and sometimes when there isn't.

The Principle of Mass

1. Mass is a military term meaning combat power
2. In fact, it means concentration of combat power at the point of maximum effectiveness. It is like hitting someone in the solar plexis instead of on the top of the head.

3. Today mass includes, numbers, weapons, tactical skill, morale, fighting ability, motivation and leadership, discipline all included in mass.
4. Success in warfare is attained by the proper employment of mass in a main effort attack. An attack at the proper time at the proper place to accomplish a specific purpose. This is what Bob likes about the military: you have to think logically, sequentially and know what you are doing. There is always room for a military genius; and you start at the bottom; everyone starts at the bottom.
5. Joab employs the principle of mass perfectly..
6. The also involves economy of force, which is the means by which mass is employed in the main effort. Joab attacked the Assyrian army at their weakest point.
7. After the time and place determined; men and means are conserved. By concentrating a few men at a point of weakness of the enemy, you save casualties as well as attain victory.
8. Joab utilized the principle of movement, which is the maneuvering of combat elements. He moved his forces where there were no Syrians—where there were holes in the Syrian line—thus causing confusion in the Syrian ranks.
9. In Joab's offensive, he brings mass into contact with the Syrians to assure victory, even though his is outnumbered. Movement is determine the best place to attack Medina. Joab deployed so to get his elite force—his shock troops—at the weakest point in the Assyrian line. All of this involved excellent training, excellent discipline, respect for authority, everything that put it all together.

Only under a few circumstances are people moved up in the ranks for no reason. Bob had Hollywood types that he was punished and given this group to get into line; but Bob felt like he was on a vacation with this group. Only rarely does someone start in the middle. Many were given the rank of major immediately. Bob likes the idea that most people under most situations start at the bottom.

A general punished Thieme by giving these people from Hollywood who were advanced as officers without starting at the bottom. Bob had them for 2 weeks; well-known actors and Hollywood types. Only rarely does someone start in the middle. They did not even know where to put their rank.

Bob likes the military where everyone starts at the bottom and goes through the same system, except where socialism makes inroads. The main effort of attack

David's obedience to the Word of God paid great dividends. Obedience to the Word always pays off. Joab also demonstrates his own leadership ability. David promoted him over a lot of older men. Outside of David himself, Joab was the greatest soldier of his age. People crying out nepotism. They think they got a raw deal, but Joab was the real deal.

22:49 remaining

The prepositional phrase le milchamah. Then against the Syrians. This is a small force attacking a large attacking force. This requires great nerve and courage in making a decision, but nerve and courage in execution.

The more training and discipline and obedience, the more lives which are saved. Execution of command right down to the chain of command. It is inevitable that we have a victory.

The Syrians panicked and ran. This large Syrian army, the greatest of that day, ran from this elite force. Israel has doctrine and Aram is without doctrine. Israel has the best leadership. The soldiers are tough on both sides. The difference between victory and defeat is doctrine. The difference between two forces of similar ability is doctrine and leadership. A spiritual and professional factor.

Perpetuating Human Freedom

1. It is possible that Joab understood even before he committed his troops to action that the final factor was going to be a spiritual one. Jehovah the Lord do the good. Joab was a mature believer who understood that these armies were equal in ability, but Syria was the larger force. Specifically blessing by association and there was a pivot.
2. Joab has cracked the maturity barrier, but he is associated with David. This was a decisive victory.
3. There is no question about Joab's professional prosperity in the plan of God. A believer who is not arrogant. He is a genius and lacking in arrogance. Genius can be a trap for arrogance. Most people in the genius class are arrogant and divorced from reality. The reason for this is arrogance or pride.
4. They have just insured the freedom of privacy and property. Reuben and Gad are ranching people. This provide protection for them.
5. This frees them from enemy invasion and destruction of freedom.
6. The Syrian army was the toughest army the Jews would face. About the same might be the Philistines.

Treaties are no substitute for victory. There is no substitute for military victory. Treaties without victory guarantees the perpetuation of warfare. This is what we have with SALT1 and SALT2. Every treaty we make with the Russians and the Chi-Coms guarantees warfare and our own destruction. We have betrayed the sacred trust of God. Those who sign these treaties are traitors (and often Christians). When you make a treaty without winning, you are defeated somewhere down the line.

Napoleon brought Prussia to its knees. Frederick brought his wife to the peace table and Napoleon told him that his wife was a greater man than he was. This was Frederick the Great's army, but his son was in charge at this point.

The German staff system is the only major military breakthrough in the past 200 years. Only one thing comparable; the staff work done by big business before WWI. These were men of absolute genius and we are still operating on the backs of their genius. Little business is the myth of socialism. Millions of people working for Washington could be fired and we would never miss them.

Treaty without victory means an inevitable war. You have to beat them and then you can sign a treaty. We will have to go to war and kill communists and outmaneuver them. That is how we will have peace. There is no basis in comparing strength and equipment if we went to war with the Russians or China. We could not even beat Cuba right now. We have sold out to Satanic principles called socialism. We are going down. Jesus Christ controls history. That is our own salvation.

2Sam. 10:13 And Joab and the people with him drew near to battle [advanced to the battle] against the Syrians. And they fled before him. and Joab and the army which was with him advanced against the Syrians

There is no substitute for military victory. A treaty without military victory is a waste. The SALT treaty is based upon defeat. Any treaty with any Communist nation is a disastrous thing. We lost to the Chi-Coms in the Korean war and we have lost to jungle people in the Vietnam War.

Without victory, there would be no advancement. Bene Amown refers to the army of Ammon.

The Syrian army began to flee in panic, then the Ammonites retreat back into the city Rabbah. The conspiracy to assassinate Gedeliah was formed here in this city. 285 B.C. this city name was changed to Philadelphia. It also became something else, and it is now called Amman and located 22 miles from the Jordan. Joab will return in triumph to Jerusalem.

It may be necessary to fight on the defense for a variety of reasons; compensation for weakness is one reason; but defensive action never wins wars. Nations with small armies must always go to guerilla warfare, and it is an ignored factor in military history. The British and Americans seems to be in desperate ignorance here.

Ammon could be contained by a small force, while the Syrian army was routed. It is only the United States of America which apologizes for its victories and does not venerate victory on the battlefield.

So Joab returns from the sons of Ammon and comes to Jerusalem. There is also a maintaining contact with the enemy. There had to be reconnaissance teams and patrols. They went to Jerusalem where happiness, blessing and spiritual life are all related.

The troops need to be refitted and reorganized and there is a serious war for survival; but there is a victory war celebration. They would recognize the great source of victory, the honors to be given, decorations, so on. The victorious army will spur on the enthusiasm of the rest. A recognition of the Lord of battle.

This is a great victory under adverse circumstances and Joab and Abishai won great victories apart from David. There would follow nearly 100 years of peace and prosperity.

2Sam. 10:14 And the sons of Ammon saw that the Syrians fled, and they fled before Abishai, and went into the city. And Joab returned from the sons of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem.

This campaign furthered Israel's borders further than at any time before.

The Syrians retreated and followed the old caravan trail. They were east of Rabbah and north of Media. The Jewish army working on interior lines got out of the trap and were victorious. One a new Syrian army is formed, it will invade to the south. The battle of Helam with some of most of the decisive results in the world.

If you are anti-military, you are a moron and you need to live in a country of peaceniks who live under tyranny. The authority taught in the Word of God is far better than any of authority taught in the United States. Inevitably, our attitude toward Bible doctrine is our bowing to the authority under Jesus Christ. Freedom is irresponsible without authority. Communists today have a fanatical system of authority. We glorify socialism today, and the end result is a much more authoritarian government than the one these same people reject. Authority is a spiritual principle as well as an establishment principle.

When the Syrians saw they were smitten before Israel.

There must be facts. You cannot operate in the military without facts. You cannot live and function apart from facts. Raah indicates reconnaissance. A small Jewish army defeated a much larger Syrian army. They had conquered a great chunk of the world at that time. They covered Iraq and Mesopotamia. The land of Israel now goes all the way to the Gaza strip. The Chaldeans will eventually take the land from the Aramæans.

The Aramæans were divided into groups. All of these different people are Aramæans, but they were under one ruler. They had better military training under a system of competition. This is exactly the same system that the Mycenaean Greeks used on their attack on Troy.

Hadadezer or Hadarezer and he is called by both names and the difference is actually the language, the difference of the Amorite language and the Hebrew language. He had a great confederation of soldiers just like the Greeks who attacked the Trojans 200 years before.

They were not so disturbed by the defeat but by the nature of the defeat. A Israel soldier was as good as 5 Aramæan soldiers. This is the mobilization of the entire Syrian force.

The Kingdom of Zobah took the great casualties at the Battle of Medina.

Their gross national product was 95% military at this time.

When God the Holy Spirit puts these passages in the world, there must be some spiritual import insofar as we are concerned.

Two great military nations like Aram and Israel. The spiritual factor will be the deciding factor when there are two great military powers facing one another. The believer is potentially qualified to handle pressure more than anyone else. There is a mad scramble to pull together the entire Assyrian army.

Hadadezer means Hadad is help, and this was the god of warfare. He is the king of Zobah and he understands a crisis when he sees it. It has been ignored and buried today in the US, that we were defeated by a 5th class nation in a war. No one has even caught on to that yet. That is the most important issue in our country next to what think ye of Christ?. The young people between 18 and 32 have never faced the fact that they accepted defeat and even contrived to the defeat with the strikes on student campuses. The Communists caught all of this. We could be conquered at any time by anyone who wants to expend a few troops. It was the mental attitude of the young people in the United States who lost this war. And we have done nothing to correct this problem. There needed to be universal military service. We do not have a chance today with the sort of slopping thinking of today. The military is not run by the military today; it is not even allowed to be professional. It is hamstrung by having to kowtow to evil men. The state department is a cancer. The only countries with coup d'etat is where Romanism has had a stranglehold. The French Revolution was a reaction to Romanism in France and they go to the exact antithesis. However, they have one thing in common; they are both strong systems of authority. The only way to restore order is a military coup d'etat when a nation reacts too strongly to Romanism and begins to move toward Communism. This is true of all South American countries. No such thing in England or the United States where there is a good functioning republic. Cromwell would have been a revolution. The military must be kept down in other countries to avoid a coup. However, you cannot have a good response to communism without an excellent military. This readies a person for business to do the same thing. We will not survive except for Jesus Christ overruling and controlling history.

The great arrogance today is in the lower classes; they have all kinds of problem with authority. Arrogance is the greatest threat to authority and freedom. Freedom and authority are mated; you cannot have without the other. Authority without freedom is tyranny and freedom without authority is anarchy.

These principles are in the Word of God and they are related to our life as a client nation. It is God's intention that a client nation follow these principles.

The reversionist uses his freedom to say no to the authority of doctrine. He is an anarchist. On the other hand, there are churches which take away your freedom. They emphasize authority and the result is self righteousness. Both are systems of arrogance. Self righteousness is a system of arrogance as is reversionism. Arrogance always accepts one or the other. They accept freedom or authority; one or the other. Your privacy in church must be maintained. No talking, no unnecessary movement, which gives the person next to you privacy.

The woman must be free to respond. The man must recognize the woman's freedom to respond. The man has nothing if the woman does not respond from her freedom. A man who knows he is the authority runs his house like a drill sergeant; but the man does not allow for the woman's freedom by giving the woman the freedom to respond. He is supposed to show thoughtfulness and gallantry and this engenders a good response. A man and a woman is the perfect balance between authority and freedom. If the woman reject his authority, the marriage is ruined; if he takes away her freedom, the marriage is destroyed.

The coach might walk past a player and bang on his helmet. Bob had a bad year once when Charlie Brown was a guard, because he was never motivated to function correctly. He was a stubborn jackass and refused to be motivated by the coach. His replacement the next year was teachable.

There is a policeman now on Richmond because someone is driving down Richmond too fast; "I wonder who that is?"

something must be done to avenge the defeat of Medeba. That has to be done, or no one would want the mercs from Syria because they were defeated by the Jews. Their gross national product is not looking too good.

Worship, military training, good social life, putting it together in the individual soul. Authority and freedom.

Israel as a client nation has a mature believer as their ruler. This is an unbeatable combination and they will defeat the great Syrian empire.

2Sam. 10:15 And Syria saw that it was stricken before Israel. And they assembled.

Hadadezer mobilized his army. The word for the Syrian god; Hadar and sometimes called Hadad. Ezer means help; Hadar is going to help us. The greatest empire at that time required motivation from something greater than themselves. A motivator above and beyond military training. A lot of people understand this. Since the god of war is a system of demonism, it is not going to work out.

An army without motivation, no matter how good, can be defeated. The Syrians were great soldiers. They did not exist as a political unit until Syria was under the Selucid's. Syria extended from north of Palestine all the way to India under the Selucid's right before the Roman empire came into power.

The Seluci's called by Daniel the king of the north. From Damascus to India belonged to Syria. That is in the future. At this time their empire goes almost to the Persian Gulf and into eastern Anatolia.

All Jews have some Aramæan blood. Rebecca is Aramæan. Aram is related to Abram, so this is a war between cousins. When Assyria became a great power Aram was Abram's brother? A prep school taught to say "An Assyrian ready to perish my father." The Syrians are first cousins to the Jews.

There were some great Syrian kingdoms. 882 B.C. Benhadad I conquered Omri. They united all the kingdoms of Palestine. Aramæans put down for a few hundred years? I did not follow this.

David's army has at least 2 battalions of Greeks. There are Greeks on both side.

Throughout all the ancient world, the Greeks were the most famous mercs. They fought in every army in the ancient world. Not an army in the ancient world without a few Greek generals. The Greeks got around. They fought in David's army with Hittites and Aramæans in David's army.

Syria was destroyed before they could conquer the northern kingdom? Trajen the only one to conquer the Nabatians, who were mostly Syrian.

A lot of Syrian blood in Syria and Iraq today.

In Air defense, an article by Tomas E. Beardo: Communists see warfare as total, so all aspects are given attention, more than just the military aspect. They are after Christians; so they take "Thou shalt not kill" and pounded the theme that the United States was bombing innocents. The said that the real reason was so that the military industrial complex could make money and that the soldiers there are murderous war criminals.

Big machine warfare is extremely expensive. Guerilla warfare is the use large groups of men to slash and run. Cheap in terms of dollars but expensive in terms of lives lost. Much of the world is suitable for type 2 warfare, which is guerilla warfare. The only way for the U.S. to win in Vietnam was to completely destroy the people of North Vietnam. The border was over 1000 miles. The ants cannot be destroys by destroying their many trails. You have to go all the way back to the ant nest.

The propaganda themes working well in the United States; large numbers of young people avoided the draft; radical movements sprung up among the youth. Daily pictures presented of war. The innocent appearing North Vietnamese peasants released by the Communists. This became the most burring issue for young and the Vietcong became idealized as freedom fighters, valiant underdogs in war. The opposition was so great that President Johnson chose not to run again.

The Soviets supplied the North Vietnamese with tanks and a lot of other equipment. Home controls the battlefield and the Vietnamese War will go down in history as one of the worst things to occur in American history. Politicians are gutless; the press is ultra-liberal, the American student is about as dumb as any scum who has lived, various groups want to siphon off funds for their own pet projects, nice people bought into the anti-war movement, including clergy, etc. When all is said and done, we have stranded thousands of young men in Asia. The small nation of Vietnam defeated the United States.

We have now cut back our military; we have destroyed it with social action. The average person on the street will buy any propaganda. The 4th estate is totally evil. There is no hope except evangelism and Bible doctrine.

Our thinking was completely controlled by the Soviet Union during the Vietnam War. They discovered that they can set up a brush war anywhere in the world and control the thinking of the United States. The man on the street today thinks that Rhodesia is an evil nation. The entertainment industry is under the control of Marxist thinking. Average American is conditioned to think in terms of surrender, which is why there was so much applause when the U.S. did one of the most evil things in history, recognizing Red China.

We did not understand that women and children are a part of the war in Vietnam.

Apparently, most of that was from this article.

There is a book now, but I did not catch the title. "War is too serious a matter to be left to generals." but this book demonstrates that in Vietnam, the civilians who controlled the armed forces caused our downfall; and it is too serious to leave war to politicians, their whiz kids and their assistants. Sharp points out why the U.S. lost the war. "Strategy for Retreat."

what targets were allowed, and what tactics were decided at a Tuesday luncheon in the White House and there were sometimes no military men there? Admiral Sharp's book will not be a best seller.

2Sam. 10:15 And Syria saw that it was stricken before Israel. And they assembled.

1115 B.C. called themselves Aramaic Bedouin. Aramaic and Hebrew sound very much alike. They are so much alike that once you learn one language, you can easily learn the others. All of these languages are so close, it is amazing.

Assyria-Babylonian which is Akkadian, and this supplied many of the words. Nahor's 2nd wife was the mother of the Aramæans. They took advantage of the collapse of the Hittite empire and they took over most of Mesopotamia; except for a small strip inhabited by the Chaldeans.

Some historians claim that David received some help from the Assyrians against the Syrians. "It seems only natural to suppose..." from Cambridge ancient history. This statement contradicts the Scripture.

Permanent army of Aramæans in one part of where? They were a very warlike people and a great business complex, taking over many of the famous trade routes of that era. Anatolia, now called Turkey, the bridge to Europe. They were able to cut into business.

The Syrians beyond the river refers to the Euphrates. Aram of the Rivers in Psalm 60 is related here.

North of the river and south of the river are 2 armies divided about 10 years. The southern army hires itself out as mercs. The Northern had defeated some enemies. They will combine, which will be the greatest threat that David would face. They took advantage of the breakup of the Hittite empire, they had the greatest empire at that time.

Aram Zobah is the southern army, already defeated; and the other army will be the northern army.

This same God can give David this victory then and us today.

Archeological controversy of identification with Eliam and some other city.

This was a closed chapter for many years. They did not believe that the Syrians conquered Assyrian and that they profited by the Trojan War and the migration of the sea peoples. More archeology ought to reveal a lot of fascinating things about this chapter.

2Sam. 10:16 And Hadarezer sent and brought out the Syrians which were beyond the River. And they came to Helam, and Shobach was the commander of the army of Hadarezer before them.

Shobach was the commanding general. It ought to be Shobak. He was not a German composer but an Aramæan general. He has defeated the Hurrians, he has stopped cold the great sea peoples, he has stopped every army called the army of Hadarezer because the northern and southern armies have been combined. Shobak assumes command of them for the first time of both armies, making this the greatest threat to David in all of his military history.

Shobak was a genius. From the human standpoint, the situation should have seemed bleak and hopeless. It is like us today with the growing success of Communist states in South and Central America. Most Americans think the way that Communists want them to think. They are trapped to think in the way that Communists want us to think. The only antidote is Bible doctrine.

The laws of divine establishment are functioning in Israel and the civilian population and the people are united in their motivation to defend their nation and to retain their sovereignty. The soldiers are appreciated. The people are supporting the army. WWII is the last time we supported our men and the last time the United States won a war. The Korean War was disastrous without allowing MacArthur to cross over the border. Bob wants to get "Retreat Hell" because it has some marvelous principles. The Marines cut off and isolated and could defeat any number of chinks in any ground warfare. Defeating the chinks even while retreating. Anti-chaicom and anti-civilian control.

We will continue to lose wars because of the mental attitude of the civilians. Only the infantry has the true courage. This is not the way to win wars, without civilian support.

Our military forces have been neutralized as has been our police force.

Battle of Canai, Luthen, Carnexburg, Waterloo and Austerlitz the Missourian Lakes, all decisive battles of history.

The battle in v. 17 is one of the most decisive battles in history and we are in Bible class tonite because of this battle. This is where we pick up things tomorrow night. The results make it possible for us to survive as a nation. If Aram had won, it is possible that we would not be a nation today.

A letter from generals to President Carter and some of the things going on in the Mideast.

State of the Union address given by the governor of somewhere tomorrow.

Israel is not simply a spiritual principle; but they are also a military factor in this world as well. Israel stops the Aramæan empire from conquering the world.

The battle of Canai and its relationship to Rome; and several other battles are mentioned. Had it not been for Charles Martel, it would have been the end of western European civilization after 1732.

Islam is the most rapidly advancing religion and it is taking over the world like communism. The factors are involved in this. If Islam and the Soviet Union get together on anything, this could almost stagger the imagination. Islam is more than a religion; it is an anti-American movement.

Battles change history more than any other factor.

The Battle of Helam is as significant as any other battle in history. The Hophal stem is to be advised. This translation, now when G2 briefed David. Here, l<sup>e</sup> is the sign of the indirect object rather than a part of the prepositional phrase. The briefing that David receives indicates to David that this is the most important set of events of his life and of the kingdom. They establish their own national integrity as a client nation to God.

All of the reserves are brought out. This is a full mobilization. They use the valley of succoth to move against the Syrians here?

Cæsar crossing the Rubicon was a great decision; David crossing over the Jordan is also a great game changer.

David's line of march follows the centric system. The valley is rich in natural springs. Succoth is also a great metallurgical center. Repairs shops for weapons, armor and chariots; and this city is loyal to David.

David needed to pursue and defeat the combined armies and it is all over. Aramæans, Chaldeans and Jews are all 1st cousins. The Middle East will be ruled for hundreds of years by one or another Semitic peoples. Aramæans then Assyrians then the Chaldeans; they are all tough, Semitic stock.

Everything will be overrun except for Judah.

After the fall of the Chaldeans and someone else, the Indo-Europeans will take over.

Rom. 9 is where we studied the Jews as a new race. Arak here means to deploy. The Syrians chose their own terrain, so they knew the battleground. Everything had been straightened out to meet the Jews.

To civilians, your idea of the military may be derived entirely from the movies. But there are 1000's of men who are broken down and given many orders. Hannibal did a Roman column with his weakest troops in the middle. David is strategically on the offensive. He did not wait for the Syrians to come into the land; he wants to meet these out on the battlefield elsewhere.

FDR let the japs take the offensive so that he could move the people into war; he did not believe that the American people could go into war without a dramatic event to get them going. Many civilians do not have the spiritual ability to stand behind a war fought elsewhere. The only way some can do this is to see their own cities bombed, and they will arouse themselves. When you have to arouse a population emotionally, then you are a weak nation. The average American looks down on the military. This is the most destructible thinking and a part of the communist conspiracy. They continually had them run down the military.

Truman was stupid. He wasn't even good in his own field. He always wore the wrong tie with a pinstriped suit. You always wear a plain tie. So he wasn't good even in his own area of expertise (haberdashery). You don't wear stripes with tweeds; so what do you expect with him as a president?

If you get enough people at home to complain about policy, that defeats our war policy. Not allowing the crossing of the Yalu River and firing MacArthur were the two places where Truman failed.

Strategy: David fights outside of Israel and still has the strong support of his own people. That is a spiritual matter. It is good strategy to keep the enemy out of your territory. None of us have lived where there is an enemy on your soil. Bob as a little boy heard what it was like to live in Kentucky or Virginia as a confederate. Because of what the Yankees did in Georgia, that one thing alone has still caused thousands to vote Democratic no matter what? We do not understand the foreign policy of the Poles or the Czechs, etc. We do not know what it is like to have enemy troops on our own soil and we will never understand that until it is too late. The memory will always influence your thinking.

David is doing exactly the right thing. Doing this is a calculated risk and the enemy can choose terrain helpful to them. David as the invader. Aram facing south and Israel facing north. When tactical and strategic offensive meet, they have short lines of communication. The tactical advantage becomes the considerations and that lies with the Arameans.

This one verse involved a tremendous amount of staff work. It takes 38-60,000 rounds to kill one enemy. All this has to be provided. In David's day, it was not necessarily simpler. There were still thousands of men to be fed. You cannot live off the land; every army which tries this has disastrous results. They break up into groups of foragers. They lose their continuity as an army.

Wars cannot be won by amateurs; it takes professionals. It is a science which requires mastery as much as any other subject. It is to be mastered by those who are qualified. It is rare for a commander to know if he can do it or not. A peace time command is almost detrimental. The antithesis is almost always problems. Some people sue the army.

No one has maneuvered a corps since Douglas MacArthur. Vietnam was a battalion war. You cannot build your doctrine on a battalion war. We must survive based on movements of a division. We are trying to keep a military organization going which could protect more than Rhode Island.

This is our future history just around the corner. We cannot stop major riots occurring. The last stand of professionalism in our army was the strategic air command. We are in trouble like you cannot believe. We could not take David's men and more than them.

Once the battle of Helam is joined, it becomes the responsibility of the line. We have a tendency to sell short staff and to glorify line. You cannot have one without the other. They are mutually dependent. "I will tell you to your face that you are a horse's ass. You are worse than that. You are stupid."

Sending out men to get dead bodies is at great expense.

Fantastic function in the Jewish army. This is one of the most decisive battles in Jewish history and extended the Jewish country all the way to the Euphrates and it will stop one of the greatest nations of that day.

2Sam. 10:17 And it was told to David [now when G2 briefed David]. And he gathered all Israel, and passed over the Jordan, and came to Helam [they concentrated at Helam]. And the Syrians set themselves in order to meet David. And they fought with him [engaged him in battle].

Most of this next verse is messtup. When the Syrians panicked and fled from the face of Israel. Here is where the line comes in. The line did a tremendous job. Each individual soldier did his job perfectly, whatever his weapon, whatever his job; he did it well. So this smaller army defeats the larger army. The Syrians fled.

In doing their job, there is the Qal imperfect of harag, which means they slaughtered. It was a slaughter.

A slightly different story in Chronicles. There is a slight difference between 100 and 1000 in the Hebrew. Both agree 40,000 were killed. In Samuel here, the one writing the account did not get one thing straight. There was no 40,000 cavalry in the world at that time. Some scribe added to the Word of God and could not believe that many chariots existed. No one could believe that there were 7000 chariots in the battle. Someone just changed it into 700. He tampered with the text. Now the Syrians...and David slaughter 7000 charioteers and cavalry and 40,000...

There are more things here. We have only established the beginning. We will do more tomorrow night.

2Sam. 10:18 And the Syrians fled before Israel [in panic]. And David killed from Syria seven hundred in chariots, and forty thousand horsemen. And he struck Shobach the commander of the army, and he died there.

The problem that we are dealing with has been summarized well by a Senator in Yankee country. This message was given to the VFW convention. This is a New Hampshire Senator. He treated the amnesty of deserters as a dark day. He called for the restoration of certain patriotic holidays to their proper dates.

The Athenians of the 5th century was a Democracy and they discovered that they could vote for themselves the wealth from the silver mines. Democracy always appeals to the selfishness of the individual citizen to gain something for himself at the expense of the nation and establishment principles.

We emerged from WWII as the most powerful nation in the world, with atomic weapons unparalleled. Free enterprise is what carries us today. Should the Soviets let lose of their intercontinental missiles, that would give us 30 minutes to prepare. America is not ready for the worst. We had qualitative and quantitative superiority over the Soviets in the 1950's. Politicians have allowed Soviets to increase their weaponry to equal our own.

What Soviets are developing compared to what we are developing, which sounds pretty pathetic. Had environmentalists been in existence in WWII, we would have never built the pipelines necessary for our defense.

Apparently, we owned the Suez Canal? We gave away the Panama Canal to a 2-bit puppet; a dope dealing organization at best.

We have done everything possible to put Rhodesian and South Africa into the hands of the Soviets, and this is where we get our most important strategic minerals from. “The people perish who have no vision.”

he suggests a return to compulsory universal military training. Make whatever sacrifices are necessary to improve our Navy and Air Force. Bob says, we simply wipe out every bureau for the money. Tell environmentalists to go to hell and to get out of the way. Realize that we are at war with the Communists and we need to stop helping the communists with food and technology. Nixon gave our inertia guidance system to the Russians. There will never be compatibility between the US and the hammer and sickle. He also says, we need to put our trust in Jesus Christ.

Pretty impressive remarks.

The battle of Helam is one of the most decisive battles in history.

Shobach was mortally wounded, who was the great military leader of the Syrians. He actually died before being removed from the battlefield. The loss of Shobach was equivalent to all of the other losses, according to the way this is worded in the Hebrew.

Jesus Christ often removes key people from nations in order to control history.

There was quite a question about horses and chariots. The Aramæans were the first to exploit the camel, and the camel is a mean animal. Once the camel bites you, you almost have to cut off his head to get him loose from you. They had great trading groups with camels.

Conquered the Hittite empire, who learned about horses and chariots from the Hurrians? Horses first used to pull chariots and then for cavalry. The Hurrians of Nitanii, the Hyksos and someone else brought these horses into the middle east.

Archeology has discovered in Bogaz Cuey, a book written in Hittite. Bob always enjoyed equitation of one form or another, like fox hunting. Before they invented the saddle, they rode bareback. If you have seen cowboys ride, that is the incorrect way to ride. The cowboy boot is hard on the horse. Get the heels down, your feet out, and keep your reigns low, etc, you have it made. There are a 1000 lines on this. Hurion horse trainer. Other nations learned how to have horses. Metani people were famous all over the world for teaching others how to use the horse. 25 years ago, they said 2Samuel was false because it talks about the Syrians and horses.

I know the Lord delivers His anointed. This is all from Psalm 20. This was the cavalry and the armor of that day. This is particularly the northern Syrian army. This caused the Jews to be outnumbered. The principle behind this is, the Jews were not up-to-date with regards to the latest equipment; however, they still won the battle.

Even though the United States has inferior weapons and inferior ground forces; and we have nothing like the Russian sniper rifles. We are so far behind, it is pitiful. Jesus Christ can overrule even weaponry advances.

Psalm 20:6 Now I know that the LORD saves his anointed; he will answer him from his holy heaven with the saving might of his right hand.

The trust is not in the newest military equipment, but in Jehovah Elohim.

Psalm 20:7 Some trust in chariots and some in horses, but we trust in the name of the LORD our God.

The Syrians have fallen down in battle. But the Jews are still standing. This is perpetuation of freedom. Freedom has its source from the battlefield.

Psalm 20:8 They collapse and fall, but we rise and stand upright.

God answered us.

Psalm 20:9 O LORD, save the king! May he answer us when we call.

Principles of Freedom

1. The result of winning the battle of Helam is God preserving a client nation of Israel.
2. The laws of divine establishment center on freedom and they are herein perpetuated.
3. Freedom is necessary for the function of evangelism as well as the spiritual growth of the believer.
4. Freedom is the status of the principle live and let live.
5. Therefore, freedom becomes legitimate self determination and self-fulfillment through the use of one's own volition, which is the privilege and the franchise of the human race. The soul has volition and that is the great concept of human freedom and live and let live.

6. Freedom is exemption from arbitrary control. Freedom cannot exist without privacy and property and the umbrella of authority.
7. The first of these is privacy, the environment for freedom. The government is supposed to protect our property and our privacy. The Ten Commandments define freedom, not sin. Property which you possess becomes a motivation for others. Bob loves to see beautifully property and cars and horses and yachts. Socialism is antagonistic to privacy.
8. Property is the motivation and the responsibility of freedom. Property and privacy are legitimate; they are goals of freedom.
9. Freedom and authority are mated. You cannot have freedom without having authority. You cannot drive around Houston without the police officer. Without officials, there is no football game. In a divorce, freedom without authority is anarchy and revolution; authority without freedom is tyranny and dictatorship.
10. In the spiritual realm, freedom without authority is antinomianism and authority without freedom is legalism.
11. No client nation can function without freedom, privacy, property, etc. Any category of socialism is the enemy of freedom, destroys freedom.
12. Freedom and equality cannot coexist.

From point 5:

$X+Y+Z$  = human life imputed at birth + imputation of Adam's original sin. Salvation adjustment to the justice of God. The laws of divine establishment protect the individual. Then the y radical. Judicial imputation 1 sins imputed to Jesus Christ and judicial imputation 2, the righteousness of God imputed to the believer in Jesus Christ. Then the maturity adjustment to the Justice of God. This is through maximum doctrine in the soul. Decisions. Z radical, with 2 imputations. Eternal life imputed at salvation; and something imputed at spiritual maturity? When we reach heaven, there will be great blessing and reward.

Decisions of law enforcement; the decisions of freedom and privacy. Every believer is a priest without anyone intruding on his privacy or dunning him for money. Standing up and telling the person behind you that you love them is insanity.

Freedom and equality cannot coexist. You can have one, but not both. You run the gamut in Christianity between mature and immature believers. There will be inequality in heaven, which indicates that inequality is a healthy state, not an unhealthy state.

Authority becomes distorted with car buzzers.

We are destroyed by a guilt complex. Africans had no freedom concept; and they were brought to the south, and that was the best thing that could happen to them; and they were evangelized. Outside of the British empire, there was no evangelizing in Africa.

Roots propaganda; and we are told that so many African-Americans must be made vice presidents, or whatever, in every company.

We are not born with equality, we do not live with equality and we do not die with it. Freedom is the issue.

Freedom and Equality

1. Freedom cannot guarantee or manufacture equality in the human race. The greater the freedom, the greater the inequalities.
2. Some use freedom to advance to success and others use it to become scum, failures and bums.
3. Freedom is a double-edged sword. It takes the people of a nation and creates success or failure.
4. From the standpoint of Bible doctrine, freedom is real and equality is a myth. Equality is not only a myth, but an undesirable myth.
5. Equality is the device of the arrogant, the disoriented, the sociopath, the demagogue seeking power.
6. Freedom is the heritage of the human race given by God to resolve the Angelic Conflict. Salvation is a part of freedom.
7. Forced equality is the policy of tyranny, dictatorship, despotism, bureaucracy, but it is also the basis of Satan's cosmic system. It is the pseudo millennium, the welfare state, which is the greatest evil in a free nation.
8. Freedom is the policy of God imputed to man at birth to resolve the Angelic Conflict. Freedom requires content of thought, which is as simple as live and let live, and as complex as the heritage of a client nation. Freedom must have exception, such as loss of freedom to the criminal; loss of freedom to the reversionist. Fifth cycle of discipline is designed to remove those who spread cancer.
9. Freedom is common sense, orientation to reality and respect for privacy, property, authority and other's freedom. Big government created little people and little government creates big people.

The wishes of the commander are carried out by staff, which affects the success of the line. Lee's army of northern Virginia followed out some of these principles. Japanese staff was very good. Very good almost into WarII and it went bad.

We take bad staff officers and make worse politicians out of them in the U.S.

David wrote several psalms about this battle. David has cracked the maturity barrier. Righteousness demands righteousness; what righteousness demands, justice executes. There is a grace pipeline and a grace policy. This is the means by which blessing is imputed by the Lord Jesus Christ. He can only impute blessing from one half of his integrity to the other half. The grace pipeline, which is encapsulated. No system of self righteousness can provide blessing.

David's cup ran over from blessing. It is from the imputation of divine blessing to God's righteousness. This has never changed throughout human history. The importance of military establishment.

2Sam. 10:18 And the Syrians fled before Israel [in panic]. And David killed from Syria seven hundred [7000] in chariots, and forty thousand horsemen. And he struck Shobach the commander of the army, and he died there.

The results of the battle of Helam. All the kings refers to the Syrian confederation, which was the greatest empire of that time.

Niphal perfect of nagaph. This refers to a decisive defeat. Decisive victory saves great casualties. It kept lke from having to go to Berlin. Indecisive action produces casualties. David took decisive action here and this provided great security for the Jews.

This is a great turning point in history. There is a saving of casualties and saving money as well. Being well-prepared militarily saves lives and money both.

they made peace with Israel. These Aramæans were subservient to Israel.

At this time, the Hittite empire had declined and would be no threat for another 100 years.

The Syrians of the modern world have nothing to do with the Syrians of that time. There is no relationship between them. They are an entirely different people.

We learn that we ought never to be contrary to Israel.

Jesus Christ controls history.

1. It has been established that the Hittites, Assyrians and Greek Sea peoples did not dominate at that time; but the Syrians did.
- 2.
3. The key to securing David's northern frontier was the defeat of this great Aramæan army. The kingdom of Irartu. The Phrygians had gone into Anatolia and they would dominate that area for awhile. Western European civilization began actually in western Turkey; not in Greece. Rather than Athens itself. For the protection of western Civilization, the Lydians, the Phrygians permitted the Ionic Greek to stay on their shores, because they were constantly concerned that Israel might cross over the seas to take their land. Instead of looking east, all of these famous Greek peoples began to look west. This was a dramatic moment in history like the Fall of Troy, the fall of Bogazcoey or the fall of the Hittites. All western civ comes from Judeo-Christianity and cities states and colonies on the western Turkey shores. They receive a vocabulary and an alphabet and they were able to develop a great vocabulary based upon this. It is very rare for people to think of David as the sponsored of western civ; but it is the colonies on western Turkey; and the other is the Word of God. The 2 combined to form our civilization. We have since declined dramatically. These Europeans did not penetrate or settle in Palestine due to some of the judges. David had to contend with the Philistine sea peoples. All these things led to the glory of Solomon's reign, which was a great period of prosperity.

4. 1004–955 B.C. and Solomon reigned
5. These great empires were all at a low ebb. The conquest of the Syrians protected David's eastern border. There is only one way to stop tyranny is through warfare. You kill them; you defeat them on the battlefield.

At the end of WWII, we had weapons and troops and the greatest military in the world, and in a few decades, we have lost out.

Syria, a nation of that day, lies at the crossroads then Anatolia at the north, Mesopotamia on the east and Egypt in the south. For the first time, this area is stabilized. Turkey is a bridge between Europe and Asia. Some of these people have been fighting for 200 years. It will give rise to a maritime power. Spain will develop a great empire?

The Punic peoples will be called the Carthaginians instead of the...? But they are the same people.

After this, the Athenian Navy will arise. The word pictures made into 32 letter and they were taken all around the world. Jews on the land to the Phœnicians on the seas.

1 century of great prosperity in the land of Palestine. The Maritime power will not trouble them. The very secret to world peace.

The Syrians feared to help the citizens of Ammon. Military victory insured peace. The only way to handle nations which get out of line is to defeat them decisively. Syrians would never give aide to Ammon anymore.

The only thing evil nations respect is force greater than their own. Treaties and bribes will not protect a client nation. No nation is secure without a strong military establishment; this is a Christian doctrine. The more peace treaties you make without victory first is the more likely that you will pay the piper later.

It is a battle which causes the victory. The Roman empire would defeat everyone, and there would be absolute peace for 100 years during the Antonine Caesars. The weakness of the Pharaohs, the Assyrians driven back, the neo-Hittites driven back. The Phrygians are active, but only in Anatolia. There would be famous soldiers from various groups, but these won't trouble Israel.

2Sam. 10:19 And all the kings, the servants of Hadarezer, saw that they had been stricken before Israel. And they made peace with Israel, and served them. And Syria feared to help the sons of Ammon any more.

The secret to world peace here is fear. The Syrians were inspired to be fearful of the Jews. They were defeated decisively on the battlefield. There is no substitute for military victory. You cannot through treaty or bribe protect a client nation from the aggression of communism. Our military is at an all-time low. This great battle would secure great peace for the Jews.

The next period of time of great peace would be during the Roman empire. David, by conquering the Aramæans, guaranteed the new maritime power of the Phœnicians.

Cambridge Ancient History Volume II part 2 of the 3rd edition, summarizes the whole thing: on p. 536: "The climax of Aramæan political domination in Mesopotamia may be dated between 950–900 B.C. Its climax in Syria did not come until the 9th century owing partly to the lag caused by the triumph of David over Hadarezer." "the triumph of David over Hadarezer." good quote. P. 534: "The outcome was decisive. Israelite garrisons were placed in Hadarezer's territory, especially Damascus. Great booty was seized, gold, silver and especially copper. Thenceforth, until the death of Solomon, the further rise of the Aramæans in Syria was effectively checked but their growth in Mesopotamia became correspondingly accelerated." So Hadarezer became famous for his conquering of Assyria, but never again could he do anything with the Jews.

Israelite garrisons established and the further rise of the Aramæans was effectively checked.

For 100 years, there was this prayer by the Israelites when going into battle. The Jewish chaplains mention David's defeat of Goliath and his defeat of Aramæan. Shobach was the great Syrian genius general.

Phœnicians are an amalgam of...

we have studied this chapter for about 3 weeks.

David covered this in 2 psalms:

Psalm 108: Psalm 57 is the first half and Psalm 60 is the 2nd half. These quotations are not exact.

Psalm 108:1 A Song. A Psalm of David the dynamics of life are being able to think under pressure. The concentration by which he learned doctrine is the same concentration which he uses on the battlefield. Doctrine in the soul is the key to life. David wants to be able to think divine viewpoint. This makes him able to be one of the great kings of all time. This will continue for 100 years of prosperity. It is brilliant work all the way around.

Psalm 108:1 O God! I will sing and make melody with all my being!

David will keep on singing. Song and music has often been a part of esprit divine establishment corps of the military. The Aggie war hymn. David is able to think. That was during the battle. Before the crisis and during it, thought carries him. However, song expresses praise. Song will not carry you in the battle; but it is used to celebrate after the battle.

12 string guitar? You have to think music and express it by using the hand on a 12-stringed instrument. It requires a lot more brains than playing the guitar.

Somewhere is kabowd, but I don't see it. When you try to philosophize Christianity, you rob doctrine of its power. The only excuse for scholarship is not just to gain knowledge, but to gain knowledge which is pertinent. David did not just gain knowledge to show how brilliant he was.

David gained knowledge of how to be a soldier and then how to rule; but the entire time, he learned Bible doctrine. He took doctrine into the leb or the right lobe. David stands in a spot where he made all of these decisions which were history changing. Any decisive battle of history was no greater than this battle of Helam, which changed the course of history and it began the stability for western civilization. The spread of an alphabetical system to the wild Greeks and the Celtic peoples. They would be civilized. God gives people a certain amount of time in which to become civilized. All the barbaric peoples of the past who did not respond were eventually destroyed. It was as important for the next 500 years for the fall of Troy and Bogazcooey.

The mature believer never forgets the source. He won one of the greatest battles of history and he takes no credit. Jesus Christ Who won that battle.

The way God has blessed Berachah has been phenomenal. When being blessed, it is a temptation to ignore the source of your blessing. Forget Jesus Christ as the source of blessing and freedom and prosperity; Who can change history in a moment.

The United States could disappear into the midst of history and never be heard of again. We have forgotten the source of our blessing and privilege. Some people have partied themselves right out of the picture. They have lost track of why they are promoted. If Jesus Christ is not the source of your blessing and promotion, then you have nothing.

We think there is some panacea in the welfare state and in socialism and that if we are nice to the communists, they will lead us to great peace throughout the world.

David will occasionally forget too.

Berachah Church will last as long as God permits. If Jesus Christ decides the church is through, then we are out of it. If God takes us out, then we will disappear into the mist from which we came.

Psalm 108:2–6

72David

631_0232

I am not sure if I am in the right psalm.

David has cracked the maturity barrier and is taking this talent which he had prior to salvation, and he is combining his spiritual growth with this previous talent. Any ability that you have which is meaningful can only have maximum use with doctrine.

Music is used to glorify God. Musical geniuses can think music. No matter what handicaps you have in life, they are not handicaps if you can think doctrine.

The same verb is used twice. He had been playing and singing all night, as only a musical genius could so. He was still working on music when the dawn came.

The entire course of history is going to change because of this battle of Helam.

David sang all night praises to the Lord as a part of his worship. He awakened the dawn. It is not the tune which counts; it is the lyrics. Music appeals to the emotion; the lyrics appeal to our thinking.

Psalm 108:2 Awake, O harp and lyre! I will awake the dawn!

He will praise and celebrate. Judah came from this verb.

The age of Pericles based upon the alphabet of the Phœnicians?

Psalm 108:3 I will give thanks to you, O LORD, among the peoples; I will sing praises to you among the nations.

Great people are not arrogant. There are those who are bitter or better or vindictive. Most of the arrogance comes from the scum, although some successful people can be arrogant. However, some success comes as spiritual blessing, which is not arrogance.

David was on the battlefield after the dawn and he looks out and he can see mountains and he can see the drop off to where the ocean would be. There is the impact of Bible doctrine. There is an invisible factor, which won the battle of Helam. He can look behind this horizon and he knows over the horizon is the implication that doctrine has impact.

At times, doctrine should not just be the main thing in your life but the only thing in your life. To have even the right person and to be without doctrine is to have a mess of your marriage. There is no such thing as life having happiness without doctrine. You can see in a moment of success what is there. You are stimulated into what you called happiness, but in reality, there is no happiness. David is at the peak of his spiritual life.

Greek peoples would move out everywhere and have the greatest influence on life as much as the Phœnicians and the Jews. David will lead Hiram (Phœnician?) to the Lord.

David is just a drop in the ocean of humanity, doctrine is the key. It is doctrine which is in our Lord's mind. Doctrine gives him capacity for success and it gives him the ability to give a real, meaningful thank you to God.

When someone has been gracious to you, you drop a line to note this. You leave a tip in the hotel rooms for the maids. The poorest manners in the world: communism.

David recognizes that he is nothing, and that he could not be on the battlefield of Helam all night playing musical instruments. The far implication is that Bible doctrine is the impact of life. It is the indirect cause of winning this great battle and the appreciation of Jesus Christ as the One giving victory in battle. He knew that the sky went all the way around the earth, and wherever there was a call or a desire for doctrine, it would come and have an impact. Doctrine always has an impact farther than what we see. Doctrine is the means of administering God's policy of grace. David looks up and see grace and sees along the horizon, beyond what he can see, doctrine.

Victory has many fathers but defeat in battle is an orphan.

Psalm 108:4 For your steadfast love [grace] is great above the heavens; your faithfulness [doctrine] reaches to the clouds.

He is saying both that the earth is round here, and much more than that. Rum is the verb here.

The victory of the battle of Helam belongs to the Trinity. Jesus Christ, as the Revealed Member of the Trinity, receives the glory. The second line goes toward earth, but recognizing that the earth was round. First, a word to heaven and then to earth.

Principle

1. The mature believer never loses sight of all blessing. When the dawn came, he composed these words. He was playing all night and some of his men were probably with him. After the battle and the bodies were being collected, David began to sing, and they praised the Lord. And when dawn came, he wrote these words.
2. If God does not provide the victory, there is not victory. If God does not promote you, you are not promoted.

3. All human security must be related to the grace and power of God. If you are depending upon human things, there is no security in human things. David recognizes that security in life is in God. The principle of the wall of fire.
4. No matter how talented or wise or brilliant or gifted, there is no prosperity, etc. apart from the grace of God. Orientation to grace comes from perception of doctrine.
5. No blessing apart from the integrity of God.
6. God has split His holiness or integrity at salvation, imputing to us half of His righteousness, and using His justice as the initiator.

Psalm 108:5 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens! Let your glory be over all the earth!

Now we quote from Psalm 50:5–12

we move to a completely different subject and we get into something which is very personal. Chalats means to be set free, to be prepared for war.

Now we are in retrospective exposition, looking back. The citizens of a client nation.

Prepare means military training and function prior to warfare. A client nation must always be prepared for war because this is the devil's world. Wherever there is freedom, it is inevitable that nation will be subject to attack by Satanic influence. All communist nations are Satanic and under Satanic influence.

Deliverance in wartime comes from preparation for war. Victory in battle comes from preparation in peacetime. You are sitting on your gluteus maximus staring out into space.

Preparation for War

1. Deliverance in war comes from preparation.
2. Preparation in normal times of peace brings preparation for war.
3. Victory in battle comes from preparation in time of peace.
4. David is recognizing that from the human standpoint, he was prepared for the Syrian-Ammonite war. He was prepared; he was not caught out in Carter country.

David looked out there and saw the Aramæan army outnumbered him and they chose their own ground. He realizes that he has done everything that he could do to prepare, and he knows that it is not enough. He can now put it all together.

The next line says, cause us to be delivered. Qal imperative of anah. The right hand is the Lord Jesus Christ, Who controls history.

He prays according to accurate Bible doctrine; according to the laws of divine establishment.

5. There is an inferential law; answered prayer and freedom through military victory.
6. God supplies the military victory so that the battlefield will help to deliver Israel and give them 100 years of prosperity.

Long prayers are not necessarily good prayers. Pray enough to cover what you are praying about. You do not have to thank God for the birds and the bees and the divine decrees. In public, prayers should be short and to the point.

There is a pivot of believers called the loved ones. That is an ingredient for victory. They are the basis for the deliverance and many of them are military types who will do the actual fighting. Excellent logistics; great moral courage, all of the ingredients for military success. There is the ultimate principle; Jesus Christ controls history. Without this fact, there could be no client nation in the devil's world.

Psalm 108:6 That your beloved ones may be delivered [be prepared for war], give salvation by your right hand and answer me!

Some show on channel 2, a news thing apparently, that Bob refers to. Houston has a wonderful newspaper, the Houston Tribune. Phillis Shafely liberals see all kinds of conspiracies when related to conservatives, but cannot recognize any sort of a conspiracy if related to Communism. With respect to JFK, there was this great conspiracy thing until it became clear that Oswald was a communist, there was no longer a consideration. If you are a believer and a liberal, you may want to reexamine yourself to understand what that happened.

Mao represents a horrid system; but Bob hopes that no violence against him, despite the fact that he is a lousy person.

David did not have a Navy, so he did not attack the great sea peoples on the sea.

The greatest war that David fought was against the Syrians. No relationship between modern Syrians and those of the ancient world. They would stand neutralized for the next 80 years.

Europa was the daughter of Pygmalion who was the king of the Phœnicians. She was kidnaped and taken to the European world. Her brother who went to find her did not but founded Thebes. She is a Phœnician goddess. Everywhere you turn, there is the influence of the Phœnicians.

The Canaanitish language has various types of word pictures. The Canaanites reduced this to symbols. The Phœnicians took the letter over to the Greeks; and there was changes in the direction of the aleph's. Our alphabet comes from the Phœnicians.

Renaissance finds its origins from the 5th century Greek. The Phœnicians took various words, which were pictographs, and made them into letters. H came from a fence.

Bob follows out a few letters and how the similarities and differences are carried through.

The Hebrews did not put the vowels in because they just already knew what they were. People thought in terms of symbols, so thought does not advance; but then thinking became in words, which advanced human thinking dramatically. This change was all based upon this battle that we are studying?

Psalms 108 is in 2 parts. Psalm 57:7–11 is first quoted by David, what he thought of and sang after the battle. Before the battle, he did some thinking and did some praying; and his prayers and thoughts are recorded from Psalm 60:8–12.

The battle of Helam is one of the most decisive and important battles of history.

There are laws that you cannot publically denounce a president and you might be able to go to jail for it? Indicates that someone may feel a bit shaky about his position. It is always easy to blame someone who is prominent. However, they may not be at fault.

The aftermath of the Battle of Helam:

My heart is stabilized, O Elohim. The ability to think and the ability to concentrate. David handles everything well, even though he had disadvantages. The Syrians chose their own battlefield in Helam. They could move out from their camps into position quickly, and be in battle formation. They knew the terrain and David did not. The tactical advantage belonged to the Aramæans. The wonderful training of David's troops in peace time. The excellent cooperation of staff and line. The staff did a beautiful job. I will sing praises and play the psaltery. Using his voice was easy for David; but the playing a 10 stringed instrument required more word, so the Piel is used.

The believer expresses his own honor through worship, but that means you must have doctrine that you can think. You can still think under prosperity, but when the pressure is on, it is harder to think; and vice versa. David can think in prosperity.

When thought ceases in prosperity, that person is on his way down in reversionism. Jesus Christ controls history and is the source of all blessing.

One of the best illustrations of thinking under pressure and prosperity, Robert E. Lee and Stonewall Jackson. Honor is thinking under prosperity.

Wake up, O harp and lyre. We will awaken the dawn. I will give thanks to you, O God, in the army. I will sing praises unto you among the nations. David has those who accompany him.

Bob spends hours speaking to Dr. David John. He gets a lot of people writing about science and the Bible. Science is boring and doctrine is fascinating. Don't try to fit science into every doctrinal thing.

Dawn has come and David looks up into the sky. Palm Springs had snow and hail and on Huntington Beach. For David, it was a beautiful day. He saw the magnificent clouds, and heaven is billions of light years on the other side. He thinks about God's grace. Great above the heavens is Your grace. As far as the sky is Your doctrine. Doctrine goes all around the earth. David can look to this or that side with a limited horizon; but long after he is gone, doctrine will continue to do great things. Doctrine is the greatest factor in the world.

Be exalted above the heavens, O Elohim. And Your glory above all the earth. All human security must be related to God and not to man.

Psalms 60:5–12 small pivot means the nation goes down. Large pivot and small spinoff means victory and perpetuation of the sin nature.

Pivot of mature believers and Jesus Christ controls history.

Psalms 108:6 That your beloved ones may be delivered [be prepared for war], give salvation [to be delivered] by your right hand and answer me!

A Piel perfect of dabar and this means to promise; a verbal promise. When God makes a promise to a believer, the source of the promise is God, and it is backed up with God's integrity.

Integrity is made up of the attributes of justice and righteousness. The only hope for the United States is the justice of God. We are very much where David was before all of this began.

We do not have the holy roller jump here, but understand and responding to the integrity of God. God has promised. David has the integrity in himself. Freedom of a nation depends upon military victory. A man who is a believer like David has the ability to assume authority and to be fair with all kinds of people.

Then there is a military policy stated. Châlaq. Mount Gerizim and Mount Ebal. Shechem was a Hivite city and Jacob purchased land here was given to Joseph. Joseph received the double-portion. Both became tribes. This land Shechem has always been associated with the north. These are Yankees, but David treated them fairly and the same way as he treated those in the south. No application of authority properly if you are prejudice. Doctrine did this for him.

David's grandson, Rehoboam, went to Shechem to be crowned. He was a politician. When he went up there to be crowned, he was seen as weak, and they rebelled against him.

What is being done here, is David is going to draft people for the army from all 12 tribes (of the fighting tribes). It was a victory this is fairness and lack of prejudice. These always pay off when there is good authority. This is the military policy which led to success.

We will cover the final portion of this verse next time.

Psalm 108:7 God has promised in his holiness [integrity]: "With exultation I will divide up Shechem and portion out the Valley of Succoth.

with Bible doctrine, the believer is able to think under all sorts of circumstances and not to be confused by all that is going on. The leader of Communist China is in Houston. Millions of innocent people have been killed by the ChaiComs. Many are aware of all the evils connected with them.

The average fundamentalist thinks like a peasant. This Chinaman is here as a guest to our country; therefore, as a guest, he should be treated with courtesy. If you have personal contact with him, I would not you expect to clink glasses to him and drink to his good health. However, if you go out and protest about him, you are just another peasant; only peasants demonstrate. Bob has just recently given the doctrine of a mob; mobs are the lowest form of humanity.

Some of you will wake up and realize that violence is not the answer to anything. Except there is violence in the military. Only scum demonstrate and lynch. Many of you used to be hippies; doctrine has changed that.

There is no reason to try to make this person's visit uncomfortable. Very few Americans are qualified to even debate with this man. He did not get where he is by being stupid. There are at least 25 people in this congregation that Bob would suggest "Don't ever tell anyone you are from Berachah Church." In some cases, do not even say that you are a Christian. We may not like him, but we don't have to treat him with contempt. Life is too short for that. If you had 5 minutes with him, what would you do, tell him all the evils of Communism? He knows them better than we do.

We will not stop communism by being rude to this visitor or by demonstrating or by shooting him or any other communist.

A movie called The Ice Palace; and there was a club about 7 miles from town. All the fishermen did their raising hell there. Richard Burton and Jim Backus were there. Burton pulled out the plug of the jukebox because it was so noisy and these big fishermen looked at him like they were ready to kill him. Then Burton broke into "To be or not to be." Here is a case where thought saved his life. When he was done, they clapped. A lit bit of thinking goes a long way. And we have something greater than this; we have doctrine.

Stupidity is never courage. It may pass for courage.

Phœnicians took the alphabet all over the world because of this battle.

V. 6 before the battle, David does some praying. In order that your loved ones might be delivered.

Piel imperfect means to survey large bodies of land. This was his policy, and his logistics. Zion was the Pentagon. They needed a base in the north and across the Jordan. This allows him to operate on concentric interior lines, the greatest system of logistics that the world has known. All of the rations, reinforcements, reserves, all is best with concentric interior lines. You can move to the point of your enemy's weakness. David sets up this base, recognizing that he has enemies in the north, south and east. This allows for mutual support back and forth. About 150 clicks between these? David presided over the greatest expansion of Israel.

The northern base is called the valley of succoth. It lies astride all the communication routes between Jerusalem and Damascus. They go through the valley or along the valley. The Valley of Succoth is a place where there is great weapons manufacturing.

The topography is quite important. There is the River Jabbok acting as a very natural boundary. High mountains and easy to defend by even a few men. Jerusalem and the Valley of Succoth were the best spots of the Middle east to defend.

Deep ravines on the Jordan side. All of the ways to enter are easily defended.

This was the beginning of the iron age. From the standpoint of rations, it was important. Many springs and a good agricultural area. Also the capacity to maintain all technical services. The people were a very important factor. You cannot successfully fight a war without the support of the civilians. No army can be successful in a field unless the civilians are for them 100%. The communists knew the importance of undermining our civilians. The constant demonstrations, the constant disruption, the movie industry with such idiotic libs. The news industry was bad as well. They photographed those who appeared to be nice and innocent, and then show atrocities and blame them on the air force. We had to make treaties without victories, and without a victory, that is a defeat. This only guarantees that you will fight again and again until there is a complete victory.

SALT1 is a defeat just like those treaties at the end of the Korean War or the Vietnam War.

David had popular civilian support. Even during the Absalom revolution. Where does a military man go when he is kicked out of his base? He went to the other base, the Valley of Succoth. The manufactured spears and swords and all kinds of weapons. We are talking about strategy. David, under pressure, could still think. He knew exactly where to go. He goes into the wilderness to lose those pursuing him; then he goes into the Valley of Succoth. He developed the concept of concentric interior lines and mutually supporting troops.

David conquered Jerusalem and made it into a base. He conquered Jerusalem by war and he conquered the Valley of Succoth by doctrine. When you take something by violence, you can lose it through violence. It is a bad habit to win by violence. Invincibility gets wiped out sooner or later. What you take by violence, you can lose by violence; what you secure with doctrine, you can hold with doctrine. Whatever you gain by any system of arrogance can be lost by a better system of arrogance. What you gain with doctrine cannot be lost. In fact, if you gain it with doctrine, you can take it with you, so to speak. The believer with Bible doctrine in the soul takes it with him.

Why does God allow extraction and extrapolation in order to form a new psalm? Why does He do this? Of all the decisive battles of history, the greatest of all is the battle of Helam. These other psalms were about other things, but their extrapolation is all about the battle of Helam.

Psalm 108:7 God has promised in his holiness [integrity]: "With exultation I will divide up Shechem [I will draft soldiers from Shechem] and portion out the Valley of Succoth.

Gilead is a big range of mountains coming out of the Sea of Galilee. Joab marched the flying column to Rabbah, but he made the mistake of not having flankers out in the south to see what is going on.

On the northern portion of this half moon is Bashan. When Moses finished off and Joshua took over, Reuben and Gad and half of Manasseh saw this land, and they decided that is what they wanted.

This belongs to Reuben and Gad and half of Manasseh. They are east of the Jordan and, under Moses, they were not exempt from military training and involvement. Everyone in the nation was responsible for military stuff and there was universal military training. Those east of the Jordan were not exempted. There was total mobilization against Aram. Manasseh on the east side is the one which is included here.

the head is north and the feet are south. The tribe of Ephraim and the logistical base of the north.

People without policy are a mob; a business needs policy. Without policy, a business will go bankrupt. Even the ladies petunia club need policies. Churches must have a policy. This represents the principle of authority. All groups require freedom and authority.

Responsibility always means sacrifice on the part of leadership. Leadership must set up a system of policy. Policy is made for 98%; and you do not make policy for the 2% weirdos. The US used to have policy and law which dealt with 90%; and now we are developing policies based upon a tiny percentage. There are the goofiest things in the world which happen in Berachah; but they do not make rules for the small percentage of coo-coo clocks. David had policy, but he did not overload it with policy for a few clucks.

Going to cover Judah as a lawgiver Sunday morning.

Psalm 108:8 Gilead is mine; Manasseh is mine; Ephraim is my helmet [the fortification of my head], Judah my scepter.

The first 5 verses are praise for the aftermath of the Battle of Helam. Then we have thoughts expressed before the Battle of Helam. Freedom is what we have in common with angels. You cannot have freedom without property.

There is no such thing as equality among believers. It goes from the mature believer who dies under dying grace and the immature believer who dies the sin unto death.

A third of the earth was turned over to Communism by FDR and his policies.

God has a plan for all of us,  $X+Y=Z$ . Salvation adjustment to the justice of God. Divine righteousness imputed at salvation, which sets up the 2nd potential, which is blessing in time. That is Y radical.

Z radical, which is great blessing and reward at the Great Throne judgment.

My heart is stabilized, O God; I will sing praises and play the psaltery, also expressing my honor. David will spend all night on the battlefield singing praises to God. I will give thanks to you from the middle of the army and I will sing praises to You from the nations. Rise of the great maritime power of the Phœnicians, who would take their alphabet all over the world. The earth is round, in v. 4, he can look in different directions and he looks above and sees the

v. 6 is what David thought before the battle? In order that your loved ones might be delivered, cause us to be delivered by Your Right Hand.

The divine righteousness imputed to us is the target for all blessing from God. If God gave us blessing on the basis of our works and our righteousness and our talent and the use of it and the spiritual functions that we engage in, that would compromise His attributes. The justice of God cannot bless the old sin nature. This pipeline from God's justice to His imputed righteousness excludes all human good and all functions of the sin nature. God has spoken in His integrity and we deal with the integrity of God.

I will draft soldiers from Shechem and I will survey the Valley of Succoth.

We stopped with Judah is My law-giver. Poel stem used here; to determine, to appoint, to decree; to make a policy. You cannot have success in any endeavor without policy. Certain items are settled by policy. There must be good policy in business, in the military, in a football team, in a church. This allows them to run properly.

The leadership of David's army come out of Judah. A ruler must have strategy and a policy which matches the policy.

The great person is the one who can think under pressure. But you must have something with which to think.

Psalm 108:8 Gilead is Mine; Manasseh is Mine; Ephraim is My helmet [the fortification of my head], Judah My scepter [My leadership].

The result of strategy are 3 nations which challenged the freedom of Israel. Jesus Christ said that there would be wars and rumors of wars until His return.

The oldest daughter got Lot drunk and they had sex; and the younger did the same thing the next night; and from these nations came Moab and Ammon; and these nations were very antagonistic to Israel.

The Moabites were famous for their conspiracies, but not for their military ability. They would prefer to defeat the enemy directly. They used their beautiful women to entice the Jews into the phallic cult.

Sier Rachatz, which sounds like a wash pot, but it is a field latrine. Moab is constantly filled with conspiracies which stink; and the army fills up the latrine and moves on to other things. David defeated the other conspirators and moves on. They have been defeated in battle; they respect him because of his military ability, and they will move on.

David did not want to go to war with Edom, but he was forced to. This is not a sandal, but a GI shoe. He defeated them with the movement of his army. They were defeated by marching.

Movement of the Greek peoples. The ones which gave the Jews the trouble were the Philistines. Those who settled on the Gaza strip were the ones who caused all the trouble for the Jews. The Lydians were half-Greek and half-Hittite.

A Phrygian prince married someone else and that took the alphabet in one area.

We know enough about all of these to get an idea of all that is going on here. The Aramæans, at this time, have the greatest empire in the world.

The Phrygians are probably the most famous of the sea peoples and probably responsible for taking the alphabet to the Greeks themselves.

Phœnicians and the Carthaginians have left evidence of their arrival on the Maryland coast. The Philistines sea and land power. Cambridge ancient history recognizes this important victory, that David beat these people down.

Psalm 108:9 Moab is my washbasin [field latrine]; upon Edom I cast my shoe [GI boot]; over Philistia I shout in triumph [the battle cry of victory]."

David asks who would carry him to Rabbah, a fortified city. Strategy, logistics and tactics in this war. No matter how well his troops fight, those who succeed as believers must never forget the source. If God does not promote us, we are not promoted. Our capacity for life and blessing comes from the source, which is God. All of the blessings, our source comes from Jesus Christ.

The Edomites made a sneak attack from the south and there was the battle of the Salt Sea, which put the Edomites out of action for a long time.

The US is a client nation today. It is our responsibility to send our missionaries and to teach the Word of God. God cannot give victory to a client nation in reversionism. It is often that the fifth cycle of discipline is administered through warfare. Are we to be destroyed as a nation? Or will we survive?

Psalm 108:10 Who will bring me to the fortified city? Who will lead me to Edom?

Victory is always won by an attack; never by a defense.

Psalm 108:11 Have you not rejected us, O God? You do not go out, O God, with our armies.

There are modern repercussions in this next verse.

Shaw means evil. If man delivers us, it is evil. If God delivers, it is grace. Our welfare statism is an example of deliverance by man. If man takes the credit for deliverance, then there is no delivery by God. Cursed is the man who places his trust in man and makes flesh his arm.

So many believers are without doctrine and they die the sin unto death before going to be with God. The pain, the disaster, there horrible things that they encounter; and during their lives, they reject God's Word. They live in the stony places. The land of salt without inhabitant.

The believer minus doctrine has a sick mind.

Jer 17:4–9 And thou, even thyself, shalt discontinue from thine heritage that I gave thee; and I will cause thee to serve thine enemies in the land which thou knowest not: for ye have kindled a fire in mine anger, which shall burn for ever. Thus saith the LORD; Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD. For he shall be like the heath in the desert, and shall not see when good cometh; but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, in a salt land and not inhabited. Blessed is the man that trusteth in the LORD, and whose hope the LORD is. For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, and that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat cometh, but her leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit. The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?

There is no success no balance, if there is air on one side and substance on the other. You may be very phoney. If your honor code is not the Royal Family Honor Code, then all it is, is air.

Psalm 62:8–9: Trust in him at all times, O people; pour out your heart before him; God is a refuge for us. Selah Those of low estate are but a breath; those of high estate are a delusion; in the balances they go up; they are together lighter than a breath.

Psalm 108:12 Oh give us help against the enemy, for vain [evil] is the salvation [deliverance] of man!

By means of God, is how this begins. What is to be manufactured here is battle courage. The hero is the one who thinks under pressure.

Bous means to trample down and destroy. David recognizes that the Lord was the source of victory, before and after the battle. No matter how you slice it, Jesus Christ makes the difference.

Psalm 108:13 With God we shall do valiantly; it is he who will tread down our foes.

Psalm 85:8–10

72David

631_0236

This is the last pertinent psalm for David and then back to Romans. Bob has spent several days on half of a verse and one of the most difficult that he has ever worked on. Most people just write this verse off. One German linguistic scholars says, “No one knows what this means.” Why Paul to a Mosaic passage and changed 2 words in it, Bob cracked the code late last night.

We thought that if you educate everyone at public expense that everything is going to be good.

The ability to concentrate in the field of music is much greater than in most areas because you select the music and then listen to it.

No one ever wins in game playing. That is divorcing yourself from reality. Some of you picked up this at the very beginning of last night's. Thieme begins to review this movie and the recuperative powers of revenge. Some people are childish all of their lives and they like to play games.

There is a great deal of difference between looking like an adult and being one. Maturity eludes those who are divorced from reality. Some spend more time dreaming than concentrating. You never hear the command, dream while you are in Bible class. Music without lyrics does not require thought. Some of the greatest people in life hated music. Napoleon Bonaparte hated music, although he went to the opera for the girls. Alex the Great and Gius Julius Cæsar did not like music either. The compromise between compromise and dreaming; you cannot dream and have capacity for life.

We are going into our monsoon season. In the last few years, our weather at this time of the year is like Seattle but all winter. Seattle is the suicide capital of the US. Those who are motivated to hear doctrine are not discouraged by a few drops of rain.

Dabar is the communication verb. This must be consistent positive volition. The importance of Bible doctrine and gap are important doctrines here. Prosperity comes when a believer has capacity for blessing.

The larger the chashev, the greater the shalom.

Negative adverb and waw used as an adversative for the final clause. But let them not return to weakness of mind; one generation of weak-minded people and it is all over.

Psalm 85:8 Let me hear [I will concentrate on] what God the LORD will speak [communicates], for He will speak peace [communicate prosperity] to His people [Israel], to His saints [gracious ones = mature believers = the pivot in Israel]; but let them not turn back to folly [the status quo of a weak mind = reversionism].

Emphatic particle ak<sup>e</sup> and called an adverb of limitation as well. Affirmative particles are very important. There is an adverb of limitation and here it means nothing but.

Summary Points

1. These 2 verses are pertinent in time that we live. This is the only hope for a nation facing national disaster. We as a nation are in that status quo.
2. The solution to the problem is spiritual. Prosperity imputed from the justice of God to His righteousness.
3. The result is His gracious ones.
4. The weakness of mind in v. 8 expresses the danger of a shrinking pivot; those believers who are turning away from Jesus Christ.
5. Therefore, deliverance of a nation is related to occupation with Christ.
6. Glory dwells in a nation only when there is a large pivot of mature believers.
7. The plan of God for the client nation revolves around the pivot of mature believers.
8. The most patriotic thing a believer can do for his country is to move toward maturity. As goes the believer, so goes the nation.
9. A large pivot of believers is the basis for Jesus Christ delivering a nation.
10. A small pivot with a large spinoff means great discipline. Weakness of mind is lack of doctrine.

Psalm 85:9 Surely His salvation [nothing but His deliverance] is near to those who fear Him [to those who are occupied with Jesus Christ], that glory may dwell in our land.

David can look up in heaven and to the horizon and he knows that it is all about grace and he knows that doctrine will be the policy wherever the sky is. The implication is, grace is not limited to this or that place, but to wherever there is sky.

Grace and doctrine meet together. Qal stem is to meet with anyone; but in the Niphal, it is reciprocal, which means to meet with one another. Grace and doctrine meet in the advance to maturity. We have studied supergrace, ultra supergrace, surpassing grace. Grace is the cocoon and doctrine is the butterfly.

We get so occupied with all of our things, and we lose track of what is important; grace and doctrine. Doctrine is the thinking and grace is the means of concentration, so that the thought can pass into the right lobe of the soul.

Tsedek applies to God's righteousness. This is imputed to us at the moment of salvation. Again, we have prosperity, which is shalom.

Self righteousness, the source is arrogance; God's righteousness is based upon grace. Some of you young people are straining by trying to be saved based upon the law, salvation by works. "You have taken this provision of freedom for believers and unbelievers and have changed it into a means of self righteous."

Salvation is as near to you as your mouth and your mind. It is not something you have to go into heaven to get or across the seas to get. In Paul's day, the 1st advent was history; but it was the failure of the Jews because that is what they did not accept. Paul adds something which Moses did not have to use. Moses said, Deut. 30, and Paul said. "Don't think you have to go to heaven for salvation, to bring Christ back to the earth." He goes from sea to Sheol, which retains the principle that salvation is not unattainable nor is it unavailable.. The Baptists foul this up and divorce it from all Old Testament background.

Bob challenges us to look into any commentary to find this explained correctly. The Jews blotted out the 1st advent and have gone back to the Law. But salvation is as close as their mind. It is great genius what Paul did here. Moses began the message and Paul finished it 1500 years later. The individual Jew who is still with the Torah; as far as the 1st advent, the Jew has blotted this out of their minds completely. That leaves you to your own devices which has to be some system of self righteousness. Yet, all the way through the Word of God, God's righteousness is the only righteousness that He will accept. That is the basic run through. If you ignore the 1st advent, then there is no hope for you. If you reject God's righteousness, then there is no hope for you.

The fundies had God's righteousness, but then they also take in self righteousness, and they see that as the Christian way of life. The average ignorant fundamentalist is a schizophrenic. He still thinks the works righteousness is spirituality, and does not realize that it is a result of the spiritual growth.

Nashaq means to join mouth to mouth. Kissing was made for man and women. What man wants to kiss another man? That's idiotic. It is the mouth of a man and the mouth of a woman joined which is generally a kiss which is an expression of love. Their mouths belong together like the righteousness of God and prosperity of God. Righteousness without prosperity is one mouth without the other mouth. This is the perfect description of the believer's advance to maturity and the imputation of divine blessing.

God does not impute blessing to someone for self righteousness or for their works. Blessing from the justice of God to the imputed righteousness of God.

Psalm 85:10 [Grace and faithfulness \[doctrine\] meet together; righteousness and peace kiss each other.](#)

The one night without prep school. Something about the hiding room.

Things are getting so bad that Time is getting conservative. They have always had some of the best writers. Shah has no interest in taking refuge in the US because Carter was directly involved in getting him removed from office and causing the instability in Iran. Continued sniping from Washington. He refused to step down and the CIA was told to undermine him.

The Shah of Iran took Iran out of the dark ages. When there is a decent country somewhere, then it becomes an enemy of our state department.

Our passage is where there was a wonderful foreign policy.

Doctrine is truth, but doctrine is something special. The other word which is usually mistranslated, chesed, which means grace, grace in action.

Doctrine will spring up from the land. Doctrinal teaching forms the pivot of the land.

Righteousness will look down from heaven.

Righteousness Looking Down on Doctrine Below

1. When a nation is saturated with Bible doctrine, then a pivot is formed. Large pivot and small spinoff means the preservation of that nation. With doctrine in their souls, they are the preservation of the land.
2. The imputation of divine righteousness is the basis for maturity growth. That is a potential for blessing.
3. Just as righteousness imputed at salvation is potential and the same is for blessing to the nation. There is an analogy between the believer and the client nation.
4. In other words, the pivot of mature believers acts as blessing from God.
5. The greater the pivot, the great the potentiality for blessing to that nation.
6. There can be no pivot apart from doctrinal teaching in the land.

As goes the believer, so goes the nation. The greatest patriots of believers with doctrine. No pivot apart from doctrinal teaching. This results in divine blessing to the national entity.

Psalm 85:11 Faithfulness [Truth, doctrine] springs up from the ground, and righteousness looks down from the sky.

Gam here, meaning also. Definite article + a noun. Also the Lord will give the good; which describes the plan of God and blessing to a nation.

Kabul means wealth, increase; wealth in terms of an agricultural economy.

Economic prosperity related the pivot and the size of the pivot. Just as God imputes personal blessing, so He imputes blessing to the nation overall. +R is the home, reception or the target for God's blessing.

You are sitting around looking kind of stupid. This is not all that deep. The imputation of divine blessing to a nation is national blessing. When a nation has a pivot, blessing goes to the entire nation because of the pivot.

Bob has punched a couple of guys who were self-made men. The arrogance of people, the self-made man type. My kids will start out at 18 as office boys.

Psalm 85:12 Yes, the LORD will give what is good, and our land will yield its increase.

Personal blessing. National blessing goes to the pivot. God's righteousness is the subject of v. 13. This is the way in which God blesses us. It is not because we pray or because we are pure and moral; He blesses us for having His righteousness. This time it is going somewhere. It means to go.

Imputation of Righteousness

1. Imputed righteousness is the potential and the motivation for spiritual growth. This is for advancing to maturity.
2. Before God can bless an individual he must have the righteousness of God.
3. He can only have the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ.
4. At salvation adjustment to the justice of God, half of holiness is imputed to man.
5. The imputation sets up the potential for blessing and to keep plugging and to learn doctrine so as to reach the goal.
6. The potential is realized through the attainment of spiritual maturity which is only obtained through doctrine in the soul.
7. Therefore the believer is motivated to keep on learning doctrine in spite of all distractions. Subjective (your own hangups and subjective thinking about others; or beautiful women) and objective distractions (those around you yawning, making noise, etc.).
8. Should keep on despite distractions. Spiritual maturity alone glorifies God. Righteousness will go before His face.

More Points

1. The imputation of divine blessing glorifies God in time. What you do is a result of what you think.
2. This tactical victory demands capacity, which the mature believer possesses.
3. The target for this blessing is righteousness.
4. This target is also the motivation for persistence in doctrine.
5. Personal blessing from the justice of God is imputed to the mature believer's resident divine righteousness. God would compromise His attributes because you hustle for Him.
6. National blessing is imputed to the pivot of believers in that national entity.
7. The pivot is a collect of believers who have righteousness imputed to them.
8. Before God can bless, there must be divine righteousness imputed to the believers.
9. In this line, we see imputed righteousness in the role of motivation.
10. There can be no more greater motivation than the doctrine of justification. It is a big part of every chapter of Romans. It is the key. Justification is the imputation of divine righteousness. This is a reality for everyone who believes in Jesus Christ. This sees the imputed righteousness of God as fulfilling the blessing. Pivot of mature believers.

There is a purpose waw and the word to place, to set. This resident righteousness which belongs to God. It demands the imputation of blessing. Therefore, there must be something else in residence, which is resident doctrine in the soul. The imputation + the acquisition. And notice, this is all inside; it is not what is on the outside. These things must come in the right sequence. For instance, no one gets blessed by tithing. God does not bless anyone on the basis of doing anything. This is the old Baptism razzmatazz. You will never be blessed for giving 10% of your income. We are blessed only because of what is inside of us. Grace imputed righteousness to us; "Are you chewing gum; swallow it."

the home or target for blessing is divine righteousness. In steps, you move forward. Every step is perception of Bible doctrine. Every step is Bible class. It demands concentration. Le + derek [= toward the way]

Psalm 85:13 [Righteousness will go before Him and make his footsteps \[or progress\] a way.](#)

Closing Points

1. Doctrine is the principle and the motivation and the means of attaining maturity.
2. Doctrine of imputation is the potential but also the motivation and the momentum.
3. Only maximum doctrine in the soul or the maturity status for the believer has the capacity for imputation of blessing.
4. This blessing glorifies Jesus Christ.
5. Self righteous is excluded; arrogance is excluded
6. This is why some believers fulfil the maximum doctrine principle but arrogance keeps them from getting there.

7. The arrogant believer is unteachable. Bob will teach something that he does not like and at some point in advancement, arrogance will resent a subject, the presentation of a subject, or some other factor unrelated to doctrine. Arrogance is unteachable, unless they are in trouble or miserable or their lives are crap or they lost a friend, loved one, whatever. They are teachable until they recover. Some never learn doctrine unless they are in trouble. This means he is an eclectic.
8. Being arrogant means disoriented to authority and unteachable in the realm of doctrine.
9. Recognizing authority and submission to it preserves the humility which is necessary with which to grow. The authority of parents, of the teacher, of the coach, of the drill instructor, of the vice president. Some athletes become intrigued with their own ability, and then they become arrogant.
10. Self righteous and arrogance are signs of lack of maturity.
11. But God's righteousness imputed is the motivation and the fulfillment of the objective in time. Maturity adjustment to the Justice of God. Glorification of Jesus Christ through the imputation of divine blessing at maturity and thereafter.
12. God's plan and God's purpose after salvation.

1. Events leading up to the Absalom revolution. 2Sam. 11–14
2. 2Sam. 15–19 one of the greatest revolutions in history where the son revolts against his father. He took over his father's palace and over his father's harem and then he raped every wife and mistress in full view of the city.
3. 2Sam. 20 the Sheba conspiracy this is the sneaky type who tries to put the knife in the back and twist it as much as possible.
4. David's great prosperity.
5. 2Sam. 24 old age carnality when older people have their own brand of sin dedicated to Mae and Bob.
6. 1Kings 1 the succession intrigue of Adonijah.
7. 1Kings 2:1–10 the beauty contest of who is beautiful enough to sleep with David.

Revived doctrine of the Interlocking Systems of Arrogance

David was a mature believer and was in supergrace. However, then he gets into this thing with Bathsheba. You do not have to neglect Bible doctrine to fail. Degeneracy can set in rapidly, and it set in way back in 2Sam. 5. It starts in the soul; it starts with the arrogance complex. It is the area of the greatest vulnerability of life. It is the one system which attacks to soul completely. There are 11 entrances into the complex. Once you enter by any system, you become vulnerable to all systems. It is easier for a mature believer to fall into degeneracy than it is for an unbeliever on marijuana. Even when a believer reaches a spiritual peak, he is just as vulnerable to the grossest failures. The idea that a believer does not sin is idiocy. The idea that mature believer only get into nice sins is idiocy.

The worst that a believer can get involved in is evil. It is as easy for a believer to murder someone as it is for him to say, "God bless you." Moses was a mature believer when he killed the Egyptian strongman. You can even teach doctrine and want to kill a few people. David did not rebound for 18 months.

Bob held off teaching this for a long time waiting for the congregation to be ready for it. This is one of the most important areas of Scripture and "never let is be said again that I don't preach sin." You never isolate sin in a situation like this.

"Boy, isn't this great for Christmas?" David had been fornicating every since he was made king of Israel. David had seen dozens of naked women bathe in the past; he had many concubines and wives. When you get into interlocking systems of arrogance, you are not the same person.

Some believers can end up being worse than they ever were as unbelievers. When David got into interlocking systems of arrogance, he will be no different than Gaius Julius Ceasar.

Bob's sister is his full sister and he did not care for her much when they were young and now he doesn't care much about caring about her at all. David's interlocking systems of arrogance will parlay his 18 months into 18 years of misery. When in interlocking systems of arrogance, you are vulnerable the things that were not a problem in the past.

Interlocking Systems of Arrogance

1. Arrogance as a mental attitude sins of pride. It motivated Satan's fall. It is such an occupation with self that it divorces the believer from reality. The reason for pride can be real or imagined. An overbearing manner can be obvious or hidden. People study homosexuality and bestiality in psychology and said these are the results of childhood; but they are related to interlocking systems of arrogance. Some people can hide this presumptive self righteousness and some cannot. Some who are stupid just go around and advertise their arrogance. They are always self righteous and they are always ready to criticize someone else. Vanity overestimates one's person based upon his possession or power or misunderstanding of himself and a desire for praise and recognition of others. The mental attitude sins of pride and arrogance is also a trigger mechanism which triggers other mental attitude sins. The word ego is not properly used to refer to someone's arrogance. Every person has an ego. There is nothing wrong with ego; that is normal self-consciousness. Ego-centric is an adjective which relates everything to self. For some of us, this will be a devastating introduction. Many listen to Bob with subjectivity in their souls and their ability is limited. The noun is egoism, excessive love or thought about self. Egotism is the conceit and practice of overemphasizing self. Psalm 10:2-4 gives us some of this: the reversionist pursues the afflicted...criminal arrogance has...the Lord. In all of his thoughts, there is no God. This is not an unbeliever, but an arrogant believer. You think about those you love and you think about those that you hate. If you cannot think about anything but yourself, then you are a lousy lover. Sex without love is meaningless. Marriage is a state of authority; not a state of happiness. Prov. 16:18 before a fall, there is the arrogance complex. You may appear to be the same on the outside, but you are dramatically different. You are going from outside the interlocking systems of arrogance to the inside. Arrogance is the corrupter of the soul; the basic sin which motivates the rejection of truth or doctrine and is the first sin of Satan. He has made too much of himself and cannot enjoy anything else. Many go on drugs because that gives them chemical stimulation. The human mind is helpless and useless without the truth. Establishment truth or Bible doctrine. The problem in the state department and the White House today. They are foolish to think that doing nothing is doing something. "You do not hear the phrase, 'Nuke them until they glow in the dark.'" The president will probably get a Noble peace prize. When there is a whole nation of people preoccupied with themselves, the only person making an impression are those who do not rock the boat. Arrogance results in irrationality. He ran because he did not want to die, and after running for awhile, he wanted to die. Irrationality. Arrogance resents the ability of others. When you suddenly discover that you resent these people, you find yourself to be in the interlocking systems of arrogance. Some find themselves jealous or petty; and it is a matter of interlocking systems of arrogance. It distorts the truth and ridicules the truth or approaches the truth with objective evidence. Arrogance always believes the lie. The arrogant believer can distort grace but he cannot orient to grace.

- a. The believer who arrogantly assumes that his sins are greater than the plan of God and he thinks he can commit sins which are greater than God's plan. All of your Pentecostals and book burners are preoccupied with selves.
  - b. Believer assumes his sufferings are greater than the plan of God. In pressure when you reach the point of pressure, you are inside the interlocking systems of arrogance. You think such a nice person like you is being treated so unfairly by life.
  - c. The believer is arrogant who assumes his modus operandi is spirituality. You think you do something to be spiritual. Your works, your practice of ascetisim, your morality, etc. You are not spiritual at all without the filling of the Spirit.
  - d. The believer who depends upon emotion and is sucked into the tongues movement assumes that his emotions and feelings are greater than the plan of God. Pride refuses to attend because. It results in the malfunction of gap. There is the legalistic syndrome, the guilt syndrome, the socialistic syndrome, the anti-establishment syndrome. Prov. 11:2 when pride comes, then comes dishonor. The humble person has enough to be objective. A man's pride will bring him lov.
2. The 2nd entrance is the negative volition toward doctrine. When pressure is there, they feel sorry for themselves; when it is not, the magnify themselves.
  3. Impulsive arrogance. This is the abuse of power and the abuse of authority.

4. Institutional arrogance. Life is filled with organization. Most of us are involved with several. There is the erroneous conclusion that we carry the institution. There are those who succeed in the organization and they distort their success into arrogance; and those who do not succeed, see their talents or ability unrecognized. When you see someone crying discrimination, you are looking at arrogance. Purpose, authority, and policy in any organization.
  - a. Marriage: love expressed in all kinds of intimacy, and the perpetuation of the human race and the orientation and the training of the human race. Adam's original sin was disobedience or anti-authority. Therefore, there must be authority in marriage. We are born Irish; we are anti-authority. That is the principle. There are many institutions in life.
  - b. The local church is an organization. The pastor-teacher is the system of authority along with delegated authority.
  - c. Businesses and corporations and they all have a purpose, an authority and a policy.
5. God's standards are the same for every believer. Legalism is the principle of blind arrogance. Once you are in interlocking systems of arrogance, then you develop false standards and then you attempt to apply these false systems to others. You set up a false standard, then you keep this standard, and then you proclaim yourself as succeeding. Blind arrogance is superimposing your standards upon others and then judging them because they do not comply. Such people gather around themselves a bunch of supporters. When Bob was a member of the 1st Presbyterian Church of Hollywood, there were a lot of cells. There were cells in Berachah. Bob let it go for a year in Berachah Church in order to clear it all up. Personality arrogance is setting yourself up against a organization of some sort; against its policy or authority or function.
6. Conspiracy arrogance. There is a lot of conspiracy arrogance; revolution, conspiracy, close friends who will assure David that they are 100% behind him, and they are there to mess him up. The arrogant and the inadequate through different forms of arrogance enter into a mutual admiration society and this can occur in any sort of organization.

3 Christmas songs sung and the congregation did not hit the high notes to Bob's satisfaction. "We might have a service with 5 carols and you might be able to bring your fiends without being embarrassed."

we might get to the first verse.

Interlocking systems of arrogance

1. Arrogance as a mental attitude sins of pride.
2. Scar tissue of the soul.

3. Impulsive arrogance.
4. Institutional arrogance.
5. Blind arrogance.
6. Conspiracy arrogance.
7. Criminal arrogance. We are all born anti-authority and anti-establishment because of our sin nature. We have to orient to authority and arrogance is often in the way. In a business, in a profession, in marriage, military, social life. Expressing gratitude to the host and hostess is related to authority. In your own home, you might go crazy and get drunk and walk on the ceiling and tear things up. Criminal arrogance is an extension of institutional arrogance. The whole hippie movement was a rejection of authority. We can do what our parents disapprove of. The way out abnormal sexual behavior; the taking of drugs, etc. It leads to criminality. All criminals were once nice people. Those people who are the most repulsive to you were once nice sweet children. The criminal is both a sociopath and a pathological liar. He takes great pride in fooling and conning people and getting people to see it his way, often by lying to them. Bob has never seen a criminal who was not a pathological liar. There are pathological liars. It is easier to be a criminal now than it was 50 years ago. Crime is not longer just a male thing. Men and women are criminals. Smart criminals all have a hypocritical facade; the dumb ones do not are. They are willing to get their way through violence. In arrogance, the criminal gives lip service to certain authorities, but he despises all authority. Both male and female in the Claudian line were involved in great criminal activity. Someone ought to do a study someday of the criminal tendencies of the Julio-Claudia line. Some criminals find out that it is a good idea to hide out in churches and develop a facade for that. Regeneration does not change the criminal. Some do have a real conversion. But being born-again does not change a criminal. They will continue as criminals. If the criminal is saved, he faces a real crisis in his life. Daily and consistent perception of doctrine. Spiritual growth is the only thing which can change criminal patterns. This is true of other things as well. Some are very smart and they know how to fake a psychosis and being cured. Fear permeates the criminal mind. His only hope is to get with doctrine and to grow spiritually. Recovering from criminality is an every day difficultly, as difficult as recovering from drug usage. Shock therapy and some of the other approaches do not work. David is one of the few to recover. He became a murderer and he recovered. From the standpoint of sociology, they believe crime to be a result of environment. Yokelson and Samsanov volumes have disproved this concept. Criminal arrogance is a total rejection of authority. For a client nation to sponsor crime means an inevitable destruction.
  - a. An aside: Once you are inside of the system, you are vulnerable to the other types of arrogance. A person in there becomes weak and can face a complete personality shift. People change daily, but not their bad habits. People wake up every day better or worse. David went all the way to the top and one of the 5 greatest believers of all time, and he entered in the interlocking systems of arrogance and went all the way to criminal arrogance. Most people go toward psychotic or criminal arrogance, and sometimes both.

8. Crusader arrogance. Interlocking systems of arrogance produce self righteousness. Even a criminal can be self righteous. Honor among thieves is often arrogant self righteousness. British used to wear tuxes in the jungle after 5:00; they dressed for dinner even in the jungle. Those who are going to solve all the problems in the world about fixing the nation. The Carrie Nations went into various bars and tore up a bunch of bars with their hatchets. They are gone and the bars are still here. They solved nothing. Cheating on one's taxes and justifies it or gets with an outfit and refuses to pay. The government's immorality does not allow us to rationalize dishonesty on our part. When John Calvin took over Geneva, he ruled over believers and unbelievers both and he even executed some. He took over the civil authority of Geneva and superimposed his own standards over them.
9. Psychopathic arrogance. The normal person has their emotion under the control of the intellect. When your norms and standards are reached, you respond with your emotion. Many will see Zulu, which will be entertaining and emotionally stimulating.
  - a. Imbalance; the absence of biological equilibrium. It is a medical type of problem; a problem of medical origin.
  - b. Instability, and this is pertinent. The oscillation from self righteous to Self-pity.
  - c. Egocentricity. The psychopath cannot rec. pursuing an object with fanaticism and they lose all relation to reality. No capacity for love. They are preoccupied with self-gratification. True love and friendship are unknown to the psychopath. They can be exceedingly pious and some even claim to reach a level of spirituality above everyone. The immoral psychopath and several others. Those who do not reach criminal arrogance after long periods of time in the interlocking systems of arrogance fall into psychotic arrogance.
10. Sexual arrogance.
  - a. Sex without love is ritual without reality.
  - b. Sex without love is a form of interlocking systems of arrogance. Preoccupation with self and self-centeredness. They are complete and total failures. Polygamy is male arrogance. Promiscuity is female sexual arrogance. The woman is simply a matter of sexual relaxation but no love. Women can be proud of the men they have brought to their knees through their sexuality. Some women become a femme fatale.
  - c. Emphasis upon sex is emphasis with self.
  - d. To concentrate on self and indulge in self-gratification is arrogance.
  - e. To concentrate on someone else is to focus attention on a true-love object.
  - f. Polygamy in the man and promiscuity in the woman is detrimental to every facet of life including the spiritual life. This is why the Word of God forbids adultery and fornication and incest, bestiality, etc. God is not trying to deprive us of fun, but He is attempting to give us happiness. We will have no happiness under a system of fornication.

- g. Therefore, sex can be a blessing or a distraction. Sex is a blessing as an expression of love in monogamy. Sex is an expression of arrogance in polygamy. David was sexually arrogant.
- h. Polygamy was David's trap. We have studied Michal and Ahinoam and Abigail of Carmel. Maacah of Assur. Haggith, the mother of Adonijah. Abital and Eglah. David figured that he could copulate with these women because it was legal. The courtship and the marriage became too expensive. So when he moved into the castle at Zion, he began to take on mistresses. Concubine seems like a nice word and innocuous. 2Sam. 5:13 and he had a whole string of mistresses. David is not a believer in fellowship. He is a mature believer already in interlocking systems of arrogance. Bathsheba did not lead him astray; he led Bathsheba astray. One thing that did come out of it, she was the love of David's life. She bore him 5 children; one died after 3 months. 2 are the line of the Lord Jesus Christ.
- i. This multiplicity of wives may have legalized copulation with numerous women, but it put David into interlocking systems of arrogance. This is how he got in. She should have been a woman to admire from a distance; ships that pass in the night.

The doctrine of Polygamy or the doctrine of sexual arrogance

1. Sexual arrogance leads to distortions of sexuality. A distortion like homosexuals wanting rights. It is like the party of chaser's rights. Homosexuality begins in interlocking systems of arrogance. It is degeneration.
2. Preoccupation with sex excludes capacity for love. Therefore masturbation, polygamy, etc. become sexual arrogance. They result in becoming enmeshed in interlocking systems of arrogance.
3. Preoccupation with sex or sexual arrogance results in David becoming a poor father. He was one of the worst fathers in history. He was a rotten father. He was a rotten husband. He neglected his duties as king and military commander. He is still in Jerusalem when the army is out at war. He has become a coward. He used to be a great man. Bob knew a marine sergeant who was a great hero in WWII, but a jerk as garrison soldier; arrogance made him a coward. You can be a hero on one day and a coward the next. David could not make a decision in battle any more than Carter could.
4. While the army was besieging David stayed under the spell of sexual arrogance.
5. David was preoccupied with sex but because of sexual arrogance. Arrogance is abnormal; a physiological drive is normal.
6. Polygamy is a distraction to true love in the soul, David did not love any of his wives. At the time, Bob was ready to say Abigail was his rw. He did not have the capacity to love Michal, who saved his life.
7. Instead, David used these women for personal self gratification. It is no problem at all to him because of arrogance. Therefore, sexual arrogance produces an increased lust which becomes an abnormal lust.

8. Lust made David alert and vulnerable to any form of feminine pulchertude. She was the granddaughter of David's greatest counselor, Ahithophel. His advice was highly esteemed.
9. The emergence of some principles. Orgastic sexual experience in David would satisfy the body but not the soul; and there is no capacity for love.
10. David's harem was filled with frustrated wives who shared David's body but not his soul.
11. Consequently, sex is a ritual which relates to the body; love is the reality which relates to the soul.
12. Sex, as a ritual, must reflect the true love in the soul. This was not the case.

More Principles

1. Sexual arrogance exists in the man and the woman.
2. This is the preoccupation of one's body to the exclusion of one's soul.
3. Sexual arrogance in the woman can manifest itself in the seduction of important persons; like Cleopatra's seduction of Gius Julius Cæsar.
4. Sexual arrogance in the woman relates to the number and importance of her conquest. A form of flattery received, stimulating her arrogance, is the flirtations attitude that she has. She flirst to receive attention.
5. Male sexual arrogance includes the harem and the multiplicity of seductions. As the degeneracy increases, it may go to other things. Rape is the criminal extension. AC/DC function.
6. Sexual arrogance precludes love as a motive for sex.
7. Therefore, sexual arrogance is preoccupation with the source of gratification rather than the true function of category #2 love. Abnormalities can and will develop when this form of arrogance interacts with another. Incest is impulsive arrogance+_ sexual arrogance. Rape is sexual arrogance + criminal arrogance.

interlocking systems of arrogance

11. Genetic arrogance. They have a wonderful background or great wealth. When a person assumes that he achieves on the basis of his ancestral line or is successful because of his inherited wealth, he has entered into ancestral arrogance. You are not successful because your parents or grandparents were successful. Many people who lived in Beverly Hills thought they were great because their parents were great in the movie industry. The other half of the story is posterity arrogance; frustrated parents trying to attain recognition through the achievement of their children. The chip-off-the-old-block syndrome. Arrogance of ambitious parents who push too hard. Inordinate parental pride. Trying to meet the achievements of parents and children have a nervous breakdown trying to live up to the achievements of their parents. General Patton's son was a good person and perhaps a great person; but he was not a chip off the old block; and trying to do that would have been disastrous to his career. He has different genes so that he is a different person. He does not have the flair of his father. Occasionally a genius will sire a genius; like Philip of Macedonia and Alexander the Great. Most children of famous person are almost destroyed by the fame of their parents. You can be a great athlete and your son might be born with 2 left hands. Some want to talk about your children and push them off on everyone. Send out a Christmas card with all the children on it. Beware that you do not get into interlocking systems of arrogance. All children are not like their father or mother. They might be like Uncle Charley who was hung as a horse thief. Napoleon had 2 sons who were very different in every way and one put himself under so much pressure to be like his father, he died at age 21 because of the pressure. The other one was no Napoleon, but he had a great life as a diplomat and a great citizen of France in his own right.

These are the 11 ways that you can enter into interlocking systems of arrogance. Once a person becomes arrogant, the other systems control his thinking. He may enter by institutional arrogance and become later involved in conspiracy arrogance.

How do the interlocking systems of arrogance work?

1. A person enters into a system with authority.
2. He develops institutional arrogance.
3. He overestimates his value with impulsive arrogance.
4. Pride or mental attitude arrogance as a trigger.
5. Arrogance under pressure triggers jealousy. David was one of the great leaders ever, and yet, by tomorrow, he will lose all his potential. There is a tendency to slack off with some success.
6. Prov. 11:2 16;18 Pride precedes destruction. Elihu stuff.
7. National arrogance explains the Iranian crisis. The rod of your discipline has blossomed. Isa. 13:11 I will put an end to the arrogance of the proud. Psalm 73:6 pride is their necklace. A man's arrogance will bring him low. This is why we are launching into the study of David. A man's arrogance will bring him low. If this country is to survive, we will n there is no honor for that client nation until the spirit of humility is restored.

Vv. 1–5 sexual arrogance

vv. 6–16 conspiracy arrogance

vv. 17– criminal arrogance

The Mongolians loved to fight in the winter. But most people fought in the Spring. David was a king-soldier. He was one of the greatest professional soldiers of all time. He sends out Joab, his talented nephew.

The participle was used with David and remaining; he has gone from being a great hero to someone who was not going out every again. He has no courage in his son.

Points on David

1. Cowardice and David had no intention of getting into a military situation. He is in interlocking systems of arrogance. Once he is in, he is vulnerable to all. He is abusing the authority God gave him.
2. Joab leads a successful campaign, and the remnants of Rabb
3. David staying in Jerusalem is interlocking systems of arrogance.
- 4.
5. Pride and impulsive arrogance mean that David is trapped in the interlocking systems of arrogance. He is in a state of degeneracy.
6. This make sthe believers vulnerable to every system of arrogance and ever system of sin. Total abuse of his own authority.
7. This is why he is vulnerable seeing the beautiful woman washing herself.
8. Once in the interlocking systems of arrogance, the believer is vulnerable to weaknesses which would ordinarily not be a problem at all.
9. He entered the system through the practice of polygamy. David was married to a number of different people.

There are many unnamed wives in Jerusalem along with 20 known wives. David and Bathsheba will bury 4 sons together? David has something of a sex problem, which was sex without love.

Polygamy

1. Evils of polygamy are many and the details
2. Many of David's problems came from his children by different wives. There were no problems until sexual arrogance took over; and the children of all these many wives became David's curse. There are always a bunch running around thinking that not having children means there is something wrong with you. One of the problems that we have is too many children; just think if those Iranians didn't have so many children. Any time a person is involved in sexual arrogance, he will be a poor parent. David was one of the worst fathers that had ever been. He wrote Proverbs, after having about 30 kids, and finally reared one properly. There is ancestral pride and genetic pride. Children try to live up to some. Faithfulness to one woman is required for category #2 love. Based on capacity for love in the soul, sex becomes a legitimate and even a wonderful function. Sex is the ritual and the love in the soul is the reality. Most people have no clue what love means. The real problem is one of semantics. In the first place, love is not the best way to describe love. Respect and awe might be the best words for it. As a result of this, there is usually some easy way to get into interlocking systems of arrogance and David went through the sex gate. This usually results in faithlessness in one area, resulting in faithlessness in other areas. Integrity no longer exists and a person's word is no longer his bond and everyone has to sue everyone. "There's a person in the back row who looks like he wants to talk, and if you want to talk, get up and walk out and talk all you want. You're maybe new here; I've never seen you here before." Sexual arrogance leads to licentiousness. When the emotion controls the soul, the person becomes psychopathic. When sex exists without love, it destroys the ability to be a good parent. David, who was famous for his integrity, has absolutely no integrity here. Polygamy destroys the restraint on the old sin nature. It destroys the ability and integrity to avoid the many sins.

3. Sexual arrogance produces hidden lust, which only needs an object to employ it. With 30 children, David was the world's worst father. There are lousy fathers in this country because they do not have integrity related to one woman. So they indulged their children or try to be buddies with their children, but they do not train their children from the start. It is easy to copulate. It does not require brains of any kind. To copulate and to have children takes no intelligence whatsoever. These kids turned out badly and the fault of David. He was lousy as a father; he was stinko as a father. He was not a good father until Solomon and he rectified his mess by writing the first half of Proverbs. David, when he finally married Bathsheba, he remained faithful to her. David was a very poor father to Absalom, who was a chip off the old block. Adonijah was the living image of David, but David did not train him.
- 4.

Authority must become an overriding issue in the life of anyone who possesses it. This is one of the things which this first verse teaches. Never accept authority unless it becomes one of the most important things in your life. Our officer corps is in the worst shape ever with no sense of responsibility. They have simply quit. Help from nagging wives. Pressure from all kinds of things. Some quit because they are plain old yellow. This means that they have lost a sense of responsibility which goes with authority. Business has the same problems today. Young executives do not have the integrity today of the past. No sense of responsibility and no respect for authority. You need responsibility in the little things so that God gives you responsibility in the big. David's presence with the army was worth 10 divisions.

2Sam. 1:1 It happened, at the return of the year [in the spring], at the time when kings go out to battle, that David sent Joab, and his servants [his general staff] with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed [annihilated] the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah. But David stayed at Jerusalem.

Now the temptation. David got up off his bed. He was sleeping all day. Maybe he had been raising hell all night? From the battlements he saw a woman bathing.

Qal active participle and she is described by tobah beautiful of appearance and form (face and body). An adverb to increase this. And the woman was extremely beautiful in appearance. Beauty is in the eye of the beholder. Bob might have his own idea of beauty and we have our own; whatever it was, it inspired David. There is nothing more inspiring than a beautiful woman. Bob used to go to Venice in order to get into a fight. He also used to attend ballet, which the women are at their physical best. It is easy to imagine exactly what David saw. However, David had a harem of beautiful women.

Being polygamous and in sexual arrogance, David was moved by this woman however, when a man is in love, he can see a beautiful woman and just think, that is a beautiful woman. No interest to get sexually involved.

The castle and under his nose is officer's row and a patio type thing; the quarters all around, bedrooms, etc., and in the middle is a fountain and an outdoor bath; and it was apparently a lovely evening. David could look down on the homes and courts of the rest of the city. This woman is bathing in the court of her own home and this woman has a right to her own privacy, and by watching her, David had a right to her own privacy. As far as she knew, she had perfect privacy and she was not trying to provoke the king's lust. She probably thought that David was at war as well.

Privacy is a part of freedom. There is something wrong with the system when a woman cannot enjoy a bath on her own property. Freedom is the principle of self-determination. Freedom means privacy; the right to own property; the right to own, dispose of, invest in, etc. David would have screamed bloody murder had someone break into his castle and steal some of his money or weapons and he would look for the person to butcher. He is watching her and he is out of line. You see a nice car drive by, you say, 'That's nice' but you don't go out and try to buy one. The umbrella of authority is an essential part of freedom. All of this is a part of the principle of authority. David is the king and this is the wife of one of his best battalion commanders. David knows that this is a great man.

When kings use freedom to retrogress, revolution is inevitable. We could use some hereditary kings today more than some of the leadership which we have seen. God promoted David and he moved to irresponsibility. Now David has lost that sense of responsibility. Once you get into the interlocking systems of arrogance, once you are in the complex, you can lose it overnight.

People who stop going to Bible class can lose their responsibility overnight. Freedom does not guarantee equality; it guarantees inequality. God has given great authority to David and way, way down there is Uriah the Hittite, a battalion commander, in the field at this time. David will get his court pimp to go down and get Bathsheba. When rulers began to get equal with beggars, beggars rule nations.

No principle has been applied yet to the Iranian situation. Bob anticipates that the 50 Iranian taken hostages will all be executed. We are not ruled by men with a sense of authority and responsibility. We are ruled by beggars. We expect our rulers to ride the great white horse, not to walk in the street with the hoi polloi. When every jackass in the street thinks he is as good as the king, then there is anarchy.

no skirt is worth the loss of integrity in the use of authority. David sold his authority as ruler for what he thought was a good lay. He destroyed his authority. David will pay the piper. Equality is the device of the arrogance. Only arrogance people demand rights. Every country in history has minorities. Equality is the device of the disoriented and the sociopath. Forced equality is the policy of tyrants and the basis for Satan's pseudo-Millennium. David reduced himself to Bathsheba's status. She was keeping herself neat and clean for his return. She was not doing anything that was wrong. She was right in what she was doing. However, this was not going to change the course of history.

Certainly it was moral and thoughtful, but when David called the woman to his palace, he reduced himself to the mentality of a woman taking a bath. David needed to be out there planning the strategy and tactics for the Ammonite war.

Freedom is dogmatic when it comes to the essentials of life and flexible with regards to the nonessentials. This woman was probably bating out in the open because all the troops were gone off to war and the battlements were not manned. What does a woman do when she is down? She takes a bath.

Freedom and authority are mated under the laws of divine establishment. Freedom without authority is anarchy; authority without freedom is tyranny. Bathsheba lost her freedom when David's pimp knocked on her door. There are good and bad dictators and now David is a lousy dictator.

The people of a nation must be mature in order to enjoy freedom. There must be the balance of freedom and authority.

The Doctrine of the Ibex won't be covered, I guess.

Jael = ibex. Jael denotes the ibex, which is a wild mountain goat. It is found in Arabia with horns up to 60" long. They are up around the Caspian Sea near Iran. It is a beautiful tophy. Psalm 104:18 the high mountains are for the ibex. David encountered them in 1Sam. 24:2 David used the home of the ibex as a refuge from king Saul. Only the ibex could get into these caves. Any troops climbing up to these caves could be easily killed one at a time. David knows about the ibex. He probably had time to meditate Job 39:1-2 do you know when the ibex give birth? Can you count the months until the ibex gives birth? They are very private animal. Animals copulate indiscriminately in front of people.

The ibex is an animal of freedom; and it is also an animal of privacy. He teaches the relationship between freedom and privacy. David was promoted from shepherd to king. God had promoted David in time. David soul have protected the privacy of all of his subjects except for criminals. Once a ruler enters into interlocking systems of arrogance, the people forfeit their privacy. We are ruled by arrogant people in all branches of government. Cancelling the B1 bomber was arrogance; it was irresponsible to permit an air force major general to be sent to iran to get rid of the Shah. David should have respected the privacy of his subjects.

You do not see the ibex copulate or give birth. They are private about these things. David should have learned this lesson from the ibex. However, he is in the labyrinth of the interlocking systems of arrogance.

2Sam. 11:2 It happened at evening, that David arose from off his bed, and walked on the roof of the king's house: and from the roof he saw a woman bathing; and the woman was very beautiful to look on.

This is late 1979

some people live their sick children in the car during Bible class; that is idiocy; that is stoopid.

David remained in Jerusalem when his army took to the field. This is a lack of responsibility and it indicates that David is in the interlocking systems of arrogance. Degeneration is not immorality; it is interlocking systems of arrogance. The impulsive arrogance of David. He enters into the interlocking systems of arrogance through sexual arrogance.

David left the army in the capable hands of Joab, but he lacks the military genius of David. Being involved with the interlocking systems of arrogance makes the believer vulnerable. David had 7 wives and 10 mistresses.

Polygamy was not permitted; all who participated in polygamy paid for it in divine discipline all of their lives. David was not a good father until he was past 50, Polygamy destroys the restraint and the ability to marry one woman. David was a sex athlete and performed very well in bed, but no love capacity in his soul.

The United States suffers from its #1 disease, interlocking systems of arrogance. Sexual arrogance makes it impossible for a man to be a good father to his son. David had to be free of sexual arrogance in order to be a good father and a good husband.

David is now 50, and he is very vigorous. There is no real decline of vigor until 70 and 85. He was strong and healthy and vigorous, but trapped inside interlocking systems of arrogance. He places his sexual lust above his responsibilities to the nation. Anytime a person has maximum responsibility, if he does not live a life of some sacrifice, then he is a failure. As a king, he had all of that authority. He could not spend as much time doing his job right and being the sex athlete that he was. The greater the authority and the greater the precedence over the responsibilities of life. Having great authority means less time for the normal social life and normal activities of life.

When evening came, David rolled out of bed and walked along the battlements of the castle. David was astonished by the beauty of the woman and he desired her. A man in love may see a beautiful woman and he will think, "Hmm, a beautiful woman." and he can leave it at that.

David destroyed his own authority because he destroyed his own integrity. The fact that David seduced Bathsheba was indicative of the fact that he was not in love with any of his 10 stated wives or of any of his ministries.

David and Beautiful Women

1. David was married to numerous beautiful women. When under the influence of interlocking systems of arrogance, lust is aroused by every beautiful woman, regardless of who she is.
2. A man who is in love can see a beautiful woman without desiring her. Since the majority of the people in this country are enmeshed in interlocking systems of arrogance, there are very few men who can look at a beautiful woman without desiring her. Those who do not desire her are either not in interlocking systems of arrogance or they are in love with their RW. Bob watches the persherons pulling the Budweiser truck; it's beautiful, but that doesn't mean Bob wants to go out and copulate with a horse.
3. The worst of all is a woman who thinks every man lusts after her. You ladies might as well learn that there are very few men that you could trust in a compromising situation. Marriage is a status of authority; it is like joining the army; it places you under authority. There are a lot of people who can fake you right out of your tennis shoes.
4. To the arrogant, nothing is sacred. Property is not sacred; a woman is not sacred. A woman should be able to say no, or get lost, and that is all the man needs to hear, and he ought to leave her alone.
5. David desired this woman and he used his absolute power to take her, which was abuse of authority and impulsive arrogance. No man has the right to use their authority to seduce some woman. This is what David did.
6. David's sexual arrogance came from polygamy and entered into it as early as 2Sam. 5:13. David is a double idiot. David figured he could marry a bunch of woman and then not have to confess fornicating with them all without needing to confess.
7. Promiscuity destroy capacity for love and friendship as well. Some people change friends as often as they change their clothes. This can pull people together in a time of crisis. It is not a race problem or a minority problem, but people do not have capacity for love or the capacity for category #3 love. If lust controls the soul, then lust controls the soul. Lust is the arrogance of saying, what I want is more important than my honor and integrity and God's plan for my life. The lust can be for anything.
8. The face that beautiful women belong to someone else meant nothing to David. This is the granddaughter of David's greatest advisor, and he will organize a revolution against David. The Inadequate to the Arrogant soon to come out.

9. David needs to respect the privacy and possessions of his subjects. The higher you go in authority, the more you need to allow others to have privacy.
10. Too many people in authority want those under them to love them. The man who wants his men to love him is a jackass, and his men get killed and he gets killed. The greatness of leadership is not in being loved. It is in being honorable. You cannot be loved unless you are respected. If you have to choose between a woman's love or respect, choose her respect. Holding onto her love is like squeezing mercury. Bob built his command on being tough, but he corrected that mistake. If you have to gain someone's respect by whipping them, that's wrong; that is not the way to do it. It takes time to develop respect.
11. Because David had more authority than anyone else, his honor should require him to more carefully respect the rights of others.
12. Even though David is an ultra supergrace believer, David has logistical grace and 5 out of the 6 categories of supergrace support. You can have a dozen dolls in your harem and be miserable. The secret to love is in the soul. If you lead with your body and forget about the soul, you are going to get burned.

2Sam. 11:2 It happened at evening, that David arose from off his bed, and walked on the roof of the king's house: and from the roof he saw a woman bathing; and the woman was very beautiful to look on.

Overpowering lust. David uses his military intelligence for procurement. We first need to note that interlocking systems of arrogance quench the Holy Spirit. If you are in supergrace or ultra supergrace, your spiritual growth does not protect you when you are in the interlocking systems of arrogance.

You might enter through negative volition or criminal arrogance; regardless of how you enter, once you are in, whether mature like David or Moses or Elijah or Paul, you are vulnerable to everything. When interlocking systems of arrogance control the soul, various lusts become overpowering. Sexual lust, money lust, approbation lust, etc. David has all of these wives and mistresses, and he still suffers from sexual lust, which he gives in to.

These various forms of arrogance intermesh; if you stay in the interlocking systems of arrogance long enough, you will become a psycho or a criminal.

Elaim was the son of Ahithophel. Ahithophel will commit suicide.

Uriah the Hittite: the Hittites had come into Palestine and settled around Jerusalem. It was good terrain for fortification. Then the men came in there and decided to make a fort there. Then they decided to perpetuate themselves and to marry the Canaanitish women; so they called themselves Jebusites and they stayed on that hill unconquered and free for about 500 years. David finally conquered them. Many of them were still called Hittites. Uriah was a man who was taken prisoner and he was given a battlefield commission in his own army. Many of these men became greater warriors in Israel's army. He is on the decoration list for knight of the 3rd class. He is a very successful battalion commander.

That Bathsheba belonged to another man did not affect David and his interlocking systems of arrogance. Bathsheba did not have the power to refuse the king. He used his authority to seduce a beautiful woman.

Adultery is outside of the laws of divine establishment. The woman gives us her freedom when she says I do. People have no idea what love is. Sex is a ritual without reality if there is no love. Sex expresses category #2 love. Legitimacy is not the only issue; it is a beautiful thing. Think of the women who cannot think. If she cannot think, she cannot love. One guy told Bob, "I can handle a dumb woman." If the woman cannot think, then she cannot love and respect you. Bob names off a bunch of sexual sins.

This woman belongs to Uriah the Hittite. You do not want to belong to anyone that you do not respect and who does not respect you.

Adultery is when a married woman is seduced. That is stealing someone else's property. Fornication means the chase involves a single woman. Ex. 20:14 is an emphasis on freedom. Marrying a woman means the man owns that woman and hands off to everyone else.

Why does a man sin against his own body? If you cater to the body where the soul is not involved, then you have destroyed the body. This is why you don't take drugs and marijuana is the worst of all. The body does not throw it off. You destroy the soul chemically and you become a walking bot. Col. 2:5 unnatural sexual vices, degenerate passions, evil lusts, which category of things is idolatry. In the case of unbelievers, fornication and the like is idolatry, which means the unbeliever can be demon-possessed through such acts.

You abstain from fornication; the mind cannot take in doctrine when the body is controlling the mind by its lusts. For those of you who like to look and don't touch, Matt. 5:27–28.

Homosexuality is forbidden; it is degeneracy. Bob resents the homo's taking gay to themselves. Those who have sex with animals will be put to death.

Degeneracy becoming darkened in their thinking. The manifestation of degeneracy. Eph. 5:3 fornication is a part of the frantic search for happiness.

1Cor. 6 the body is not for fornication but for the Lord. The perception of doctrine means that you are in the plan of God. The point is, when you unite your body where there is no love, you introduce a strange substance. The analogy is to cancer. Once you condition your body to many sexual partners, you ruin sex in RM/RW.

2Sam. 11:3 David send and inquired after the woman. One said, Is not this Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite?

2Sam. 11:4 Prov. 5:1–23 6:20–35 72David

“I wish you wouldn’t clap for the band, because, sometime in the future, someone will walk in here and think that pitiful applause is for me.” Bob tells Bobby to call him (he’s at some Texas Fx).

Geo Magazine and is an excellent magazine. The Hamong People in Cambodia (I think) are now being savagely persecuted by the Communists for their pro-American stance and they are being ignored by the United States. Crossing over the Mekong Delta, one child 3 years old was shot in the spine by a Laotian Communist as he tried to escape into Thailand with his family. The people he visited were those who fought valiantly with the Americans and were willing to live under Communist rule, but they are being wiped out. For some reason, the US is helping some of those with no pro-American history; but these are left to languish and die in refugee camps. The Chinese called them Barbarians, and they escaped China. They were secretly armed by the United States. Now that the war is over, the United States takes care of its friends about the same way that they take care of their own people. Once again, client nation America demonstrates its lack of integrity. Bob says there is no doubt in his mind that we will be beat down with a national crisis. The Shah of Iran proves that it is not a good idea to be a friend of the United States.

If missionaries survive there, they will be asked, “Why did your country desert us when we were faithful in our friendship.” The loss of the integrity in the United States is one of the most evil things which Bob has ever seen.

Less than 1% of people in the United States still have integrity.

David entered the interlocking systems of arrogance and lost his personal integrity. For 50 years, he had a great deal of faithfulness; he was a fantastic person. But, at age 50, he entered into interlocking systems of arrogance.

Moses, at 188–119 and moved into interlocking systems of arrogance, that God never permitted him to set foot into the land. This magnificent integrity can be destroyed in us overnight.

Our church is not above being disciplined for interlocking systems of arrogance. Nothing worse could happen to any one of us than to be involved in interlocking systems of arrogance. Whatever good qualities and character and honor that we possess, it is instantly neutralized by getting into the interlocking systems of arrogance. In this critical hour of our country’s need, we cannot afford being in interlocking systems of arrogance.

Years after David recovered, he realized that he had been a lousy father, a failure as a ruler, and a failure as a husband. Therefore, he wrote a warning to his son Solomon not to become involved in interlocking systems of arrogance (Proverbs).

David was a failure as a father. Sex without love is ritual without reality.

Prov. 5:1 My son, be attentive to my wisdom [concentrate on my doctrine]; incline your ear to my understanding,

Prov. 5:2 that you may keep discretion, and your lips may guard knowledge.

Men are easily flattered by women, probably because they simply believe what they say. The most brilliant men in history have been turned to putty by a smart flattering woman.

Prov. 5:3 For the lips of a forbidden woman [the woman who is apostate] drip [distilled] honey, and her speech is smoother than oil [is the inside of her mouth],

Drinking of the woman was like wormwood; it may have seemed good at first, but it had a bad lasting effect.

Prov. 5:4 but in the end she is bitter [entanglement with her] as wormwood [a drink], sharp as a two-edged sword.

Bob's father taught him to look at the feet of a woman, and he could judge a woman's beauty by her feet.

Prov. 5:5 Her [seductive] feet go down to death; her steps [sexy, mincing feet] follow the path to Sheol [the grave];

She appears to be all things to all men.

Prov. 5:6 she does not ponder the path of life [consider her manner of lives]; her ways wander, and she does not know it.

David wrote this to all of his sons.

Bob mixes up bedpan and warming pan.

Prov. 5:7 And now, O sons, listen to me, and do not depart from the words of my mouth.

Prov. 5:8 Keep your way far from her [remove your sex life from her], and do not go near the door of her house,

Prov. 5:9 lest you give your honor to others [the pseudos] and your years to the merciless [and your years of sexual vigor to the vindictive],

Prov. 5:10 lest strangers [promiscuous women] take their fill of your strength [become satiated with your sexual vigor and sexual performance], and your labors go to the house of a foreigner [leaving your human male body shattered in a whorehouse],

If the Baptists will now recover...

Prov. 5:11 and at the end of your life you groan [and in distress, you groan at your end], when your flesh and body are consumed [your body and phallus are ruined] [i.e., with sexual disease and impotence],

Now an onomatopoetic word for pain in more than one place.

People involved in interlocking systems of arrogance hate to be corrected.

Prov. 5:12 and you say, "How I hated discipline [disciplinary warning—he has V.D. or he is impotent], and my heart despised reproof [and my right lobe despised corrective discipline]!

Prov. 5:13 I did not listen [or obeyed] to the voice of my teachers or incline my ear [concentrated with interest] to my instructors.

He was not listening in Bible class and the nation suffered because of it. When a king does not listen to doctrine, he abuses his power.

Prov. 5:14 I am at the brink of utter ruin [shortly, I was in every kind of evil] in the assembled congregation [both in the worship assembly and in the function of the nation]."

Prov. 5:15 Drink water [waters of pleasure] from your own cistern, flowing water [pleasant sexual enjoyment, good sexual pleasure] from your own well [from your own RW].

Prov. 5:16 Should your springs be scattered abroad [fountains—sexual acts—overflow to other women], streams of water in the streets [in the streets dividing the waters]?

Prov. 5:17 Let them be for yourself alone [your one and only ], and not for strangers [reversionistic promiscuous women] with you.

Prov. 5:18 Let your fountain [sex life] be [permanently] blessed, and rejoice in the wife of your youth [your RW, the woman you committed to from youth],

We now have the 6 year olds in here; you will have to explain it to them at home. Good luck.

Prov. 5:19 a lovely deer, a graceful doe [she is an amorous sexy doe, a wild she-goat]. Let her breasts fill you at all times with delight; be intoxicated always in her love [you will always wander in the area of her love “I won’t give you the better translation”]. This is a response of soul and body

Prov. 5:20 Why should you be intoxicated, my son, with a forbidden woman and embrace the bosom of an adulteress [should you embrace the body of a promiscuous woman]?

Notice that man makes tracks when he embraces a promiscuous woman. He doesn’t walk anymore. You figure that one out later.

Prov. 5:21 For a man's ways are before the eyes of the LORD, and he ponders all his paths [he weighs all man’s tracks].

Prov. 5:22 The iniquities of the wicked ensnare him [his own reversionism will entrap him], and he is held fast in the cords of his sin [he will be seized and bound by the chains of his own promiscuous idol].

Prov. 5:23 He dies for lack of discipline [he will die without doctrine], and because of his great folly he is led astray.

David lived in interlocking systems of arrogance for a full year; he did not rebound; there are 3 psalms which deal with this.

God meted out David's discipline in 4 installments. However, now that he had rebounded, he could bear the suffering; and the suffering was for blessing.

Prov. 6:20 My son, keep your father's commandment [guard and preserve the commands of your father], and forsake not your mother's teaching.

They would have the scripture written down and it was in some sort of a container that they carried with them.

Prov. 6:21 Bind them on your heart always [store these in your right lobe]; tie them around your neck.

The doctrine as a female is in opposition to the woman who leads him astray.

Prov. 6:22 When you walk, they will lead you; when you lie down [to sleep], they will watch over you; and when you awake, they will talk with you [doctrine].

Prov. 6:23 For the commandment is a lamp and the teaching a light, and the reproofs of discipline are the way of life,

Prov. 6:27 Can a man carry fire [hot coals] next to his chest and his clothes not be burned? The answer to these questions is no.

Prov. 6:28 Or can one walk on hot coals and his feet not be scorched?

This is David, and he was the one who wrote this.

David sends the court pimps. The word to seize, to seize violently is found here. Some empty-headed women might be thrilled to have some celebrity or some playboy show you some attention. This passage is designed for you. Sometimes, beautiful women are silly. They are featherbrained. There are women who think that men are madly in love with them because they smile at her. Or guys who say, "I just reached supergrace Thursday; let's go out and celebrate." Women get feather-brained when they go boy crazy for the first time. Right now, with television, this appears to be about age 9. When Bob was around, it was age 12–14. Those were the days that a chaperone went along.

She was an honorable woman and loved her husband as a woman ought to; with great respect. David is extremely handsome, even at age 50. David was an extremely handsome redheaded man. She may have been a little flattered and David was in his prime.

In Prov. 31, Solomon describes his mother, and she was a woman of great spiritual attainment. Never did a son have a better description of his mother. Any mother who can get this description has to have done a great job.

David had appointed superintendents of agricultural; he controlled crime. The country enjoyed prosperity and freedom because of military victory. He developed a system of military knighthood; rewards for good combat records and good leadership. Not everyone with an unusual combat record... The Germans developed the best set of decorations and they are very meaningful to the Germans; the British next to them. David has developed not only all of the systems of the military, but he had a brigade of guards made up of the Pelethites, the Cherethites and the Hittites. Akians, the Trojans and the Spartans. He managed to take these mercenaries and integrate them into a fantastic army.

We have already noted how David entered into interlocking systems of arrogance.

She was brought in, imperfect tense, indicating more than once.

There is an implication of rape here. He seduced her; because of his skill in these matters. There were numerous acts of copulation before he released her. "There are 10 or 15 synonyms for copulation; maybe I ought to use some of them to wake some of you up."

She herself cleaning herself from her uncleanness indicates that she was forced. She followed the statute from Lev. 15:18 ...they will both be unclean until evening. She did not fornicate from her free will, so she cleanses herself according to the Law. This also shows that she knows the Law.

Qal imperfect of the verb shub, which meant that she returned to her house. She would not go home to the officer's quarters until she had cleansed herself. She could not do this in a state of impurity because she loved her husband.

The husband's response when his RW is raped is important; and she needs strength from this. You destroy the woman when you turn against her. The jackass never forgives her for being raped.

The attitude of this woman's soul has not changed. In rape, the soul is untouched if the man is loving. While a criminal can rape the body of a woman, he cannot rape the soul.

2Sam. 11:4 David sent messengers [the court pimps], and took [seized] her; and she came in to him [and when she was brought to him], and he lay [copulated (continuously)] with her (for she was purified from her uncleanness); and she returned to her house.

David has been in interlocking systems of arrogance for perhaps a year or so; and he got into this with several wives and mistresses when he first came to Jerusalem.

Getting Bathsheba pregnant will reveal his reversionism. Much trouble will come from this sexual arrogance. He will lose some of the greatest friends that he has had.

11 ways to enter the interlocking systems of arrogance: arrogance as a mental attitude sins; negative volition arrogance resulting is scar tissue of the soul; impulsive arrogance; institutional arrogance; blind arrogance personality arrogance, conspiracy, criminal, crusader, psychopathic, sexual, genetic. All have been described in enough detail.

Once inside, the believer is vulnerable to any of the others.

Time Magazine 24 December (1979?). Constant din about getting to fat, driving too fast, etc. Hasn't the very climate of warnings become a hazard to the health as well? Many of these warnings. Jogging? Take heed that many middle-aged joggers are falling dead along the roadside.

Health is obviously an important issue; but there is the intrusion on the privacy of the individual. Interlocking systems of arrogance have caused people to enter into this system via crusader arrogance. People are trying to get everyone to think like them and to be like them. Interlocking systems of arrogance is destroying our country. In the midst of all of these cautions, the only thing that can put fun back into your life is doctrine.

2Sam. 5:1–4 And it came to pass in the spring at the time when kings go out to battle, that David sent Joab and his general staff and the entire army of Israel. Now they annihilated Ammon and besieged [the city of] Rabbah. However, David remained in Jerusalem. So when evening came, David got up from his bed walked around the roof of the king's castle and from the battlements, he saw a woman taking a bath. Now the woman was extremely beautiful in appearance. And David sent and inquired about the woman. And one said, "Is not this Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite?" So David sent official procurers [government pimps] and seized her, and she came to him, and he fornicated with her. (Now she had been purifying herself from her uncleanness.) When she purified herself from her uncleanness, then she returned to her home.

2Sam. 11:5 Consequently, the woman became pregnant, and she sent {a messenger} and advised David, and said, "I have become pregnant." {idiom: literally "I am with child."}

She becomes pregnant. With this, we have the Qal imperfect of Halak, which means to send a message. She sends a message and advises David. Her husband is a knight of the 3rd class.

Lev. 20:10 is what she has violated, and both of them ought to be put to death, according to the law. David has entered into interlocking systems of arrogance through polygamy and probably several affairs as well. David took more mistresses and wives from Jerusalem. Operation Bathsheba was not the beginning of his sin or failure. We are now to the point where the discipline will become obvious.

First, David will go through a period of unbearable suffering. Under this, this suffering will intensify for a year. He will also fall into a number of other forms of arrogance. He gets right up to the line of psychotic arrogance. He will eventually rebound under the 3 stages of the faith rest drill. He will rebound, then go in for reverse concentration, and then apply the doctrine of the something.

David will then have 4 installments of divine discipline after his recovery; and he will be able to bear up under these sufferings and he will not die the sin unto death. He will have to pay the piper and pay in full.

David had 3 or 4 hours of sexual activity and for that, his whole kingdom will be turned upside down. Arrogance compared to sexual sin; arrogance is so evil and horrible and vicious and so moment-by-moment degeneracy; sexual sin at best will last a few hours and at worst, a few minutes. Baptists do not understand that their arrogance is so vile that there is no comparison. This is not intended to justify sexual sins. The things which they do under arrogance are evil and vile and vicious and destroy the entire nation.

David got into the system through sexual arrogance; but we can get in by the mental attitude sins of pride. We can get into it by self righteous arrogance. Do not bother to look down your nose at David because he paid for this sin in full.

What is wrong with the USA is much more than electing the wrong people and appointing the wrong people to the bench. Those are symptoms of the problem. For some years, David has been moving in and has now been locked in.

David and the Interlocking Systems of Arrogance

1. Interlocking systems of arrogance always takes its toll when the believer does not keep close accounts in rebound and fails to be current in doctrinal study. Not only does the study of Bible doctrine result in spiritual growth, and the daily study of doctrine acts as a catharsus to avoid the arrogance complex.
2. David started out with sexual arrogance. Where formerly, he had been vigorous, being a king, and working hard at it and he enjoyed his social life and everything; and now he no longer enjoys it. He has become indolent. David had become a totally self-centered man and self-indulgent; sensuous, lecherous, a devotee to epicurion hedonism debauched by concubescense. No matter which way you enter into the interlocking systems of arrogance door, you are in there. Once you are in there, you are locked in there through self-centeredness. No one who is self-centered is going to be happy. All that you think about is yourself. You cannot be happy with a soul that is completely occupied with yourself. You do not need to have a lot of this world's goods in order to be happy. It is lack of capacity which destroys everything. When you have too many possessions, you are no longer a free spirit. You are always thinking about those possessions; one thing you need for economic disaster is flexibility. A group of men came here all the way from Australia, and they are thinking, did I lock the door? Midas was the most miserable man in the world because he was sitting on all of that gold. "Let's go to a party" "Can't do it; got to keep sitting on this gold." With capacity in the soul, you can really enjoy what you have. David always wanted to be king of all Israel; and once he was, he walked into interlocking systems of arrogance.
3. David entered the interlocking systems of arrogance through the sexual gate and now the system has taken its toll. Once you have entered into these gates, you are now arrogance. And you are on a lifetime hunt for happiness.
4. Not only has David lost capacity for life, but he has lost his moral courage. He has also lost his physical courage. The higher you go, the more difficult the decisions that you have to make. The more occupied with self, the more frantic your search for happiness becomes. David is one of the greatest heroes to live. He has an officer code and he finds an officer with courage and integrity.
5. David has avoided the Ammonite campaign. He is preoccupied with himself. He has lost his sense of responsibility and his sense of duty.
6. David had become a coward, a reprobate, a philanderer as a result of being in the interlocking systems of arrogance.
7. After being in the system for a long period of time, degeneracy set in. Degeneracy is not immorality. Degeneracy is the result of immorality?

8. The only organization in which David was interested in at the moment was the court pimps. They were there for the expressed purpose of providing beautiful women to David and his sexual arrogance. We could balance the budget if every pimp in Washington gave his pay back.
9. Sexual arrogance and conspiratorial arrogance resulting in criminal arrogance.

2Sam. 11:5 The woman conceived; and she sent and told David, and said, I am with child.

David's conspiracy arrogance and David calls for Joab to send Uriah the Hittite to him. David, as a leader, must have great moral courage and great character; and if he is all wrapped up in himself, that authority is abused.

He brings a commander away from a war front when he was needed there. 1Chron. 11:31 Uriah was a professional soldier from his earliest youth. He had tremendous ability and he had a battlefiled commission. He was one of the first men to be commissioned in the expanded Jewish army. This was the beginning of his greatest failure. What he did sexually was sinful, but what he does now is evil.

Too many focus in on Bathsheba. Evil can be a series of sins or even a series of acts of human good. Matt. 1:6 mentions Uriah the Hittite in the genealogy of Jesus Christ.

We need a profile on Uriah the Hittite.

Uriah the Hittite Profile

1. He was a top battalion commander and taken out of action during a critical part of the campaign. This was an abuse of David's command authority. This is detrimental to the army and to the country as a whole. If there was an assault battalion, this would be Uriah's battalion. This will be a costly mistake. David is not thinking about the army or his country; he is thinking only about himself. The world is filled with arrogance women; "I never see my husband." The more authority your husband has, the less you will see him. Never complain and never gripe and never be resentful of his profession. Such a woman is occupied with self. There is just one word in the English language and write it across your paper: bitch.
2. Remember that David is not in reversionism. He is interlocking systems of arrogance. They are not the same. You cannot be in reversionism and be positive toward doctrine; but you can be positive toward doctrine while in the interlocking systems of arrogance. Their paths will cross under negative volition arrogance. David was not in reversionism but in degeneracy. One is as bad as the other. There are 8 stages of reversionism. You can be carnal or spiritual in reversionism. In interlocking systems of arrogance, as long as you are in, you are carnal. Positive volition failure and negative volition failure. The danger is having positive volition toward doctrine and being arrogance. One is as devastating as the other. Any one of us can get into interlocking systems of arrogance in a NY minute. Unless we are alerted and begin to categorize and begin to think about these things, we can be in something as bad as reversionism and even end up in the sin unto death without all of the warnings. In interlocking systems of arrogance, you think about yourself and you think about yourself and you die. We are to avoid both.

3. Rather than reversionistic, David as a mature believer must be classified as degenerate.
4. It is possible to enter into interlocking systems of arrogance totally apart from reversionism. Most reversionistic believers are intermeshed in interlocking systems of arrogance. Most reversionists are in the arrogance complex; most in the arrogance complex are not in reversionism. Especially for Moses, Elijah or David.
5. David's problem is not negative volition toward doctrine; it is entering in by sexual arrogance. He is free from negative volition arrogance.
6. A believer cannot be mature and reversionism at the same time. A believer can be mature and degenerate at the same time.
7. A believer, in fact many mature believers, become involved in interlocking systems of arrogance so that interlocking systems of arrogance must be classified as the mature believer's occupational hazard.
8. This is why there must be a distinction between these two.
9. The divine discipline may not differ except the reversionist dies the sin unto death; but in interlocking systems of arrogance, the mature believer dies in interlocking systems of arrogance. Moses, David and Elijah all became involved in interlocking systems of arrogance in which they received great discipline. They went out under dying grace. For the reversionistic believer, he goes out under the sin unto death.

David is now vulnerable to all the categories except negative volition toward doctrine arrogance. He has been turned into a battlefield coward and a moral coward. The person may appear to be the same and look the same; but there is a definite personality change. Outside that nice Dr. Jeckel; inside, that evil Mr. Hyde.

Next is conspiracy arrogance.

2Sam. 11:6 David sent to Joab, saying, Send me Uriah the Hittite. Joab sent Uriah to David.

2Samuel 11:6-7

Since nothing is taking place in the White House, some take that as a good thing, but it simply reflects no moral courage. Perigreen Washburn is Bob's favorite British writer. This is about the Iranian crisis. Popularity seems to be on not being as bad as Ted Kennedy.

David was so impressed with the military ability of the Hittites so that he gave an enemy officer a battlefield commission in the Jewish army.

We had a phenomenal past through WWII; but there has been a breakdown in the officers corps. In all of our officer corps today, we have some magnificent men, but they are in the minority. There is no unification among civilians in this country. Jane Fonda's actions today is accepted. We are divided in the American people today. We are divided on racial issues because there is no national integrity.

A good combat record does not guarantee personal integrity.

Loyalty to doctrine and respect for the authority of this church. Bob has rooted out these conspiracies over time. Loyalty to a person is not as important as personal integrity.

David became an evil louse. David outside had great integrity. David is a gutless heel. There is a kind of arrogance where some lord it over David; or some will say, "If David goes out and fornicates, what is wrong with my live-in?" This passage is not given to allow us to commit sins similar to David's. Some try to rationalize this as the greatness of grace.

Bearable suffering is that which we get after we rebound. It is bearable and it comes in sets.

You try to excuse everything you do based upon what David or someone else does. You lead your own life as unto God and you do it with integrity, or you will get blasted.

David is greater than any of us will ever be; and if we want to emulate, we need to emulate doctrine of the soul; we do not emulate their failings.

1Kings 15:5 because David did what was right in the eyes of the Lord and he had not turned aside from anything which God had commanded him with the exception of Uriah the Hittite. We are going to spend a lot of time pulling this all together.

What we are studying is pertinent to the time in which we live.

2Sam. 11:6 David sent to Joab, saying, Send me Uriah the Hittite. Joab sent Uriah to David.

David begins his hypocrisy

David's Hypocritical Actions

1. No one enters interlocking systems of arrogance without becoming a hypocrite. You have to disguise the fact that you are Mr. Hyde; therefore, hypocrisy is a cover for personality change. David asks how Uriah is doing.
2. David has no interest in the campaign. He is in a jam and he wants to get out of the jam.
3. David's interest is in covering his sin with Bathsheba.
4. Therefore the interrogation with Uriah the Hittite is sheer hypocrisy.
5. Interlocking systems of arrogance have changed David from a leader of great courage to a cowardly debauchery. He is an irresponsible troop commander.
6. Change has been wrought with interlocking systems of arrogance. Degeneration is not immorality. Immorality on one of its many manifestations. When you realize that all criminals are criminals because they are in interlocking systems of arrogance and that they are hypocritical and nice and sweet and kind and can fake out just about anyone in society, you can understand how the criminal is able to get away with so much. The average kid today admires the criminal and despises the cops.

David asks Uriah as to his peace and prosperity welfare, tranquility.

The status quo of the campaign is what the tactical situation is. He doesn't really care about that. He is more interested in solving his problem with Uriah's wife.

David Briefing Uriah

1. David is hypocritical. He does not really care about tactical situation.
2. His excuse was to get a situation report and he is still covering up.
3. This debriefing ploy was a part of David's involvement in conspiratorial arrogance.
4. Uriah's intel report was the last thing which David had on his mind.
5. The stage was set for conspiracy arrogance. The first step was accomplished. Uriah made his report and he was enthusiastic about it and David could care less. Ordinarily, David would have been stimulated by this, but he lacks capacity for life. Military was his life.

Uriah has capacity for life. David lacks happiness, even though he has all the sex that he wants. Happiness resides in the soul. Uriah has had no sex for several months and is a happy man.

David also lacks capacity for love. Uriah has great leadership ability and he cares about his men. Uriah went out under dying grace. David will face 10 years of great discipline; he had everything going for him, and he will be miserable for 10 years. David is a sexual athlete, and in the past, he was a very happy man. He was promoted and when God promotes you, you stay promoted. However, any man in interlocking systems of arrogance because of sexual arrogance will be a lousy father.

David went through the entire debriefing, even though he was not interested at all in it. This man developed good staff procedures. We have the worst staff procedures; the Germans have had the best staff procedures for the past 150 years. The Prussian army or staff is made up of about 80%

2Sam. 11:7 [When Uriah was come to him, David asked of him how Joab did, and how the people fared \[the morale of his troops\], and how the war prospered.](#)

The first conspiracy is vv. 8–9: David tries to get Uriah to go and visit his home. “You are a great battalion commander; take the night off and go back home.”

“Everyone who smiles at you is not your friend and everyone who frowns is not your enemy.”

David orders Uriah. David says Go down because he knows exactly where Uriah lives.

Uriah is told to wash the feet, which is the way to enter one's own home. He was not to stay at VOQ (visiting officers quarters).

Officer's code is, he is not to go near his family even when back in home. This is a matter of honor not to go home and copulate with his wife. Loyalty versus integrity. The man who says loyalty comes first. SOP: no man is to copulate with his wife or with other women when at war. You do not mix business and pleasure. They must be kept separate. Pleasure when business is taken care of.

The honor Code Points

1. He honor code means commissioned officers not go back home for sex. So David orders this man.
2. Women and wives were forbidden to accompany their husbands in the field. The greatest weakness of the US army in Germany is there children and wives are there. They are a target right there. Every dependent in Europe is a hostage to the United States army. We are compromised right from the start. Can you imagine our attitude toward 300,000 hostages? Some might even surrender. This is why David has this principle in his honor code. Our job in the field is to get the enemy and the wives have to be far off. A woman hanging around whining and mewing is a distraction they do not need. David knows enough about women to know that there needs to be the separation. You cannot take the women to war.
3. The troops were commanded to deal with the enemy first. Business first and then pleasure.
4. Uriah would violate the officer's code if he went to his quarters and saw his wife; a double violation to copulate with her.
5. No sex until there is freedom. Sex without freedom becomes meaningless.
6. As long as the army remained undefeated, national freedom was in jeopardy. You cannot enjoy the blessings of freedom when freedom is in jeopardy.
- 7.
8. As an honorable soldier, Uriah would not sleep with his wife.
9. As a dedicated officer, he would resist the temptation to cross over the threshold of his quarters and even to say hello to his wife. This is even though his commander in chief has ordered him to be an exception.

David originated this officers code of conduct, and now he is ordering Uriah to disobey it.

2Sam. 11:8 David said to Uriah, Go down to your house, and wash your feet. Uriah departed out of the king's house, and there followed him a mess of food from the king.

Let's assume that you are loyal to a very close friend and your friend enters into interlocking systems of arrogance through the criminal gate. He wants you to join him based upon loyalty and friendship.

David inquires as to the morale of the staff and how things were working out.

Then David puts Uriah to choose between integrity or loyalty. Military code of ethics, and he uses and actual occurrence. A list of those things which military types ought to have.

Beau Guest. Loyalty toward one's friends is a great asset, but when it involves a lack of integrity, that is problematic. It is often more complicated in the military because of the chain of command.

Bob will never again have an assistant pastor because of this problem. There were Sunday School people who had higher loyalty to the assistant pastor.

For believers, there is loyalty to a friend and positive volition toward doctrine.

Personal integrity demands, and the Royal Family Honor Code demands, a recognition of functioning with personal integrity. Your personal integrity must supercede personal loyalty.

There are several violations of the officers' honor code which David himself instituted. The problem is quick sticky for Uriah, because David has commanded one thing but the honor code says something else.

David did not make war against civilian populations and rape and pillage was punishable by death. The officer corp set the example. The officers could not bring their wives to work and they could not rape any of the locals. When David commanded him to wash his feet, that was a command to go into his house and to copulate with his wife.

At some point, you will face misplaced loyalty. You can still love a person but being loyal to a person cannot be in violation of your integrity.

Uriah the Hittite was a courageous man in battle and he has moral courage; and to disobey a direct order written by David himself demands tremendous integrity. When you choose for integrity, this is the highest form of moral courage; but choosing loyalty over integrity is the coward's way out.

Dwight David Eisenhower displayed great moral history, and Romel as well. Both men showed incredible courage. Rommel disobeyed an order and saved his African corps. He died with his integrity intact.

Eisenhower did not go to Berlin, and this was a courageous and honorable decision, one of the greatest ever made. Bradley did not even come close to moral courage.

Eisenhower is his superior as a man and as a soldier. Sooner or later, every great man must make a decision.

Jackson quit the old army under pressure and could not take the guff that junior officers put up with today. Robert E. Lee took the same guff and he did not quit.

Tomorrow night is Christmas Eve. 1979?

One of Ike's greatest decisions was the Patton slapping incident; Patton should have not lost his temper as a general officer and he was wrong. Ike had to face loyalty to Patton versus integrity to the officer's code (not written at the time). Ike publically disciplined Patton, yet saved his career. Ike was right. Washington wanted Patton's hide. Patton placed Ike in this embarrassing situation.

Some women will face the issue of doctrine versus loyalty to some jackass. Just because you love him does not make him more important than doctrine.

Some of you will fall in love with someone negative toward doctrine. When you get involved with those kind of people, you have to make the decision that Uriah did. Loyalty versus integrity. If you are married to this jackass, then he is your authority. The only time a woman can tell her husband to shove it is when it comes to Bible doctrine.

Anytime a person in authority over you is in interlocking systems of arrogance, sooner or later that person will bring you to loyalty to that person as oppose to integrity (which is loyalty to the Lord Jesus Christ).

David is the commander-in-chief, but he is in interlocking systems of arrogance. Uriah lives his life as unto the Lord and he will make the correct choice and he will disobey David's command.

Bob rues the day he used the term RM/RW.

There will be a challenge tomorrow and some of you don't have enough doctrine to come in out of the rain. Some of you have never managed to establish integrity.

Bob gives some football examples of coaches.

If you are a junior executive or a top executive; or you are a wife with an arrogant husband or a husband with a nagging, bitching wife. This violates a man's integrity.

Uriah's Dilemma

1. This command places Uriah in a dilemma. Integrity demands that you serve a mean boss or a tyrant husband. It demands loyalty under normal circumstances.
2. Should Uriah follow the officer code or disobey the code to see his own family? We are in trouble in Europe with over 300,000 wives and children, and the Russians know every evacuation point and drop pamphlets, saying, surrender, or you will see your loved ones hit with nerve gas. Now we have wives and children in Korea and German and in all of our embassies. Had Bob been in command, he would have gotten the hostages out and then he would have nuked Iran. We will send you missionaries; but you don't every lay a hand on one. You kidnap or hurt one of our people or destroy our property, this is what we will do. Then we will do that is the streets of our large cities. You should be able to walk around safely on any street in Houston. A large federal government makes us into little people. Wipe out every bureaucracy, including the Burea of Indian Affairs.

3. No sex and no contact with loved ones until the army was victorious. Integrity is placed first.
4. As long as the enemy remains undefeated, national freedom was in jeopardy.
5. Therefore, no officer was to enjoy the blessings of freedom while freedom was in jeopardy.
6. As a dedicated the competent officer, Uriah would not take advantage of his wife being so near. His wife is no more than a half mile away.
7. Legitimate sex is the privilege of free men and you are not free until the enemy has been defeated in battle and the campaign secured.
8. The ethics of the battle code are related to freedom through military victory.
9. Loyalty to David at the moment placed David in violation of the honor code.
10. The code was the principle. The principle must be chosen over the person when they are in conflict. It is only when they are in conflict.
11. Integrity demands loyalty to the principle. When some pleasing or dominant personality begins a conspiracy, then you choose the principle.

David was inside the interlocking systems of arrogance. Loyalty to a believer inside the complex is a violation of your integrity. When that believers starts a revolt against authority, that believer is a violation of integrity and he is a threat to your nation. Loyalty is a virtue and loyalty to those whom you love.

One assistant pastor was loyal only to himself. He gathered people around him and took his people with him. Uriah faces a dilemma and integrity won. David chose for the honor code when he wrote it and now his choice now is to have Uriah violate the honor code. Integrity obeys the code; loyalty obeys the man. Uriah obeyed the code and disobeyed the man. Usually, these are not in conflict.

The arrogant revolts when they find some point that they disagree with from the pulpit. This could ruin a person's entire life.

Uriah leaves the castle and walks across the quadrangle and over to VOQ and he stays there (visitors' officers quarters). A bunch of food was sent to Bathsheba and she probably wondered about that. The king's best food was sent to Uriah's home; and Uriah stayed at the VOQ and just ate whatever hash was around.

The royal dinner was designed to get these two together; and Uriah spends his night in the guard's side of the palace.

2Sam. 11:8 David said to Uriah, Go down to your house, and wash your feet. Uriah departed out of the king's house, and there followed him a mess of food from the king.

The king's brigade of guards are who Uriah stayed with.

2Samuel 11

72David

631_0246

This command places Uriah in a dilemma. Loyalty and honor are sometimes in conflict, which is rare, but it does happen. National freedom was in jeopardy. Loyalty to David put Uriah into conflict here.

Integrity demands that you go with doctrine rather than with loyalty when they are in conflict. Uriah now faces this dilemma.

2Sam. 11:8 David said to Uriah, Go down to your house, and wash your feet. Uriah departed out of the king's house, and there followed him a mess of food from the king.

We need to define what integrity is.

Integrity, David and Uriah

1. Integrity is a state or quality of being undivided; a state of honesty and purity.
2. Integrity is loyalty among other things. But always, integrity is always loyalty to the truth or to the right principle.
3. To be loyal to the right principle demands that one have a knowledge of God and a knowledge of truth in 3 categories:
4. Integrity is loyalty to the truth in establishment truth, the gospel and Bible doctrine.
5. No one can have integrity and be ignorant. Stupid people have no integrity. Ignorant people easily become involved in interlocking systems of arrogance. When a believer or an unbeliever reject the truth, he then believes the lie, which is strong delusion. When you believe the lie, then you are stupid about the truth. Ignorant people are arrogant people. When you are arrogance, it is impossible to have integrity; you cannot adhere to principle. You always think in terms of outsmarting someone, faking someone out, emulation, equaling or bettering the record of someone else.
6. Knowledge of a subject results in establishing norms, standards and values, which are all related back to the subject.
7. No matter how great the integrity outside of the arrogance complex, inside of the arrogance complex, there is no integrity. For you who are visiting, we spent all last week developing the interlocking systems of arrogance and we do not talk during the teaching of the Word of God.
8. When one is loyal to a false principle or to strong delusion are these in conflict.

9. Since loyalty is part of integrity, the loyalty in conflict is toward a person or toward something which is false. What is wrong with America is a good introduction.
10. Uriah and David both had good integrity because they were both mature believers.
11. David has moved into the interlocking systems of arrogance.
12. David's command to Uriah violated the officer code of ethics.
13. Therefore, Uriah remained with his integrity and lived his life as unto the Lord.

We have no principles in the United States. We should have moved copters into place, rescued these hostages, and nuked the rest.

Additional Principles

1. No conflict until the believer gets into the interlocking systems of arrogance. Here, sometimes there is the conflict between loyalty and integrity. We had Adam's original sin imputed to us, which is disobedience. We must go to capacity for life, which is orientation to authority.
2. Generally speaking, the conflict involves a person, the object of your love often.
3. The husband who orders the wife to stay home and stay out of Bible class. This is an arrogance problem. It is also the other way around where wives nag husbands until they quit Bible class. Consistency is required in the realm of Bible doctrine. Sooner or later, such a person takes a stand against integrity.
4. Often the loved one or friend enters into the interlocking systems of arrogance. Now you have loyalty to your friend or loved one. Or you have a friend who enters into interlocking systems of arrogance through criminal arrogance or in the interlocking systems of arrogance becomes a criminal; and then ask you to become involved in criminal activity. Integrity says no. will I be loyal to my friend or to Bible doctrine? Usually, there is not a conflict between integrity and loyalty. Those who do not understand doctrine or the laws of divine establishment have a problem. They do not understand enough at this point. Arrogant people are self-centered. Abraham Lincoln gave freedom to a lot of people with no personal integrity at all, which a few exceptions, like Booker T. Washington and Washington Carver. Today, minorities are demanding freedom without integrity. This is an arrogant attempt to seize power. Congress is an irresponsible power trying to give power to another irresponsible group.
5. Integrity is freedom from corruption or impurity (of thought). Integrity always deals with thought.
6. When loyalty leads to corruption or impurity of thought (like Communism or welfare state or big government or an attack upon the free enterprise system or a windfall profits tax against the oil companies).
7. Integrity is unimpaired purity of thought. This purity of thought comes from Bible doctrine or from establishment training. Do not say in your prayers to God that you are 100% Him; you need some thought first.
8. When a believer has maximum doctrine, he can only become corrupted through arrogance, rather than through thought. What happened to David and his adherence to doctrine? Hard to find a woman who is not beautiful. Do you try to seduce every woman that you see? David had principles. Arrogance destroys integrity. David could not be corrupted by ignorance of doctrine.

9. In any inquiry, all known facts should be taken into account.
10. Integrity is uncompromising adherence to integrity in 3 categories: laws of divine establishment, gospel and Bible doctrine. Example of coming to Houston for doctrine and becoming a police officer. It is an honorable profession. This requires the highest form of integrity. You must continue to adhere to the principles of establishment, no matter how much cooperation that you get from anyone. Those of you who are led into the mission field, you have an honorable function in life. Do not expect much help from those around you. Your testing demands integrity.
11. The honor code principle is related to establishment truth or freedom.
12. As a dedicated professional soldier with honor and integrity, Uriah chooses for the Jewish army code of ethics, even though the commander-in-chief made an exception for him.

The Integrity of David

Don't look at your friends. Then fix your eyes on a point; stare into space. See how long you can hold your breath.

1. Here is a warning—as Bob is going to really chew out David—this is a warning against being carried away by your own subjectivity or your own academic arrogance. Beware of rationalization; do not use David to get off-base. Do not use David to justify your own sins and evil. Beware of arrogant emulation; copying David's sins and without being related to his greatness.
2. People rationalize by thinking, if a mature believer can do these things, then so can I. Some of you learn the language here so that you can seduce the girls here. "I just reached supergrace" and because you are away from home and a little stupid and a little boy crazy, "If David did it, then I can do it once or twice; let's go..."
- 3.
4. This passage is not written by means of the Holy Spirit to give anyone license to commit David's sins. It is a warning to believers, mature and immature.
5. David is a greater believer than any of us will ever be.
6. If you must emulate David, the emulate him by following his advance to maturity.
7. Do not copy the lifestyle of any believer. Particularly any believer enmeshed in the interlocking systems of arrogance. Better to die with your integrity than without it. It is easier to lose your integrity than a $50 bill that you drop in the Galleria at Xmas time.
8. Reverse concentration.
9. When David's evaluation. Is completed, his adultery with Bathsheba is not mentioned; nor that with at least 30 other are not mentioned. Only David's criminal arrogance is covered; the Bible was not written by a Baptist. This adultery will never be mentioned again. We will study a lot of terrible things about David. He will recover from all of this. Only Uriah will be mentioned against him; but not Bathsheba, who is in the line of Christ. Tomorrow is Xmas Eve. 1Kings 15:5 because David did what was right in the sight of the Lord and he had not turned aside from anything that God had commanded him all the days of his life, except in the case of Uriah the Hittite.

10. After Davd was dead, we look back. 1Kings 15:3 he walked in all the sins of his father and his right lobe was not complete with the Lord, not like the right lobe of his father David. KER - King's Evaluation Report
11. Speaking of Asa, a great grandson of David, his KER;: He did what was right in the sight of the Lord like David, his father.
12. Amaziah 2Kings 14:3 and he Amaziah did right in the sight of the Lord, yet not as good as David.
13. Ahaz was 20 when he became king, but he did not do what was right in the sight of the Lord like his ancestor David. All of the KER's have the same principle.
14. 2Kings 18:3 Hezekiah's KER
15. 2Kings 22:2-3 Josiah.
16. Jehoshaphat. 2Chron. 17:3.
17. The integrity of David was the standard for all of the king's who followed. Except for Uriah the Hittite, David was a man of great integrity. He was not apostate; he was a mature believer in ultra super grace.

Only enough time for the corrected translation. He disobeys a direct order from his commander-in-chief.

The gate house includes the barracks of the royal guard. The Cherethites and the Pelethites. Uriah chose to sleep in these barracks. He would not go to his own quarters. He would be at home there because all of these men were minorities.

The Hittites were thoroughly a hybrid in their composition. The Cherethites and the Pelethites are made up of several minorities. The Akkian Greeks, which was one that Homer was a part of. The Asua are Trojans; there are the Lykians. If you have studied ancient history, then you are familiar with these people. The Carions are a famous merk people. The Phrygians and the famous Greek called the Philistines. Palestine is a Gentile name and the Philistines are Greeks. These are all different groups of Greeks. They are all over the Middle East because they are mercenaries. They travel all over. In history, they are often called the sea people. Some came by ox carts. They are closely associated with the Hittites. Most of these people came out of the fall of Troy. Now they are a part of David's brigade of guards. They could have told you some wild tales or their wars.

The officer corps, the elite, were made up of gentiles and not Jews. The United States army is the only organization in the United States which gives minorities an absolutely fair shake and they lean over backwards to do it. If they cannot succeed there, they have no merit. You can be complimented to death elsewhere and in most churches that you walk in. You get a fair shake here as well.

The Phrygians and the Jebusites seems to come from the Hittite empire. All of these Gentiles, who are a minority, could succeed in the Israeli army. It does not make any difference what your color is; they learned Bible doctrine.

Their treatment that they get is superior. Some do not succeed because of interlocking systems of arrogance. You take minority people and add a little arrogance and they are no good, whether in the army or in jail or being forced by the government to be hired by you. Laws will not give a minority a sense of responsibility. It does not change anything until you get thought and doctrine and truth. We will have racial problems. All kinds of people are arrogant and the arrogant clash and compete and they emulate and try to equal or outdo others. The US army gives everyone a fair shake. More than a fair shake. "I'm not through yet; who clicked that notebook?"

Uriah the Hittite was a minority all the way. Hittites lived in the north. They are not Chaldean or Assyrian or Syrian; they are indo-Europeans. Hittite, Luion and Palion formed the kingdom called the Hittite empire. One of the most famous battles from 1285 B.C.

They arrived in Canaan as the result of Ezek. 3;45? Hittites + Amorties = Jebusites.

There is a demonstration of the fact that David was always minority conscious and there was no racial issue in the Jewish army. He wrote the honor code of the Jewish army. Citizenship could be gotten by serving in the United States army.

2Sam. 11:9 But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house [at the gatehouse of the castle] with all the servants of his lord [David's brigade guard], and didn't go down to his house.

Christmas Eve Message (72David)

631_0247

Last Christmas of the decade. So this must be Christmas Eve 1979? This is obviously in the order of the David series, but this is not a David message.

This was the Christmas that good King Wennislaus almost most.

The year was 1241. The Christmas of 1240 is almost like the Christmas that we are celebrating. It was almost the last Christmas to be enjoyed in Europe.

When Jesus was born.

Daniel was once the president of the Maggie, and became a ruler of this group, giving them a doctrinal connotation. These Maggie came to worship Jesus.

There are 3 things to keep us from celebrating Christmas. We may die before the turn of the century. It is possible that none of us will be alive in 1999. The rapture may occur first. There may be no United states of America. Whether a tree falls to the south or to the north, in the place that it falls, there it will lie.

There is a true Christmas tree, as in Isa. 65:22 My elected ones will not toil in vain. Jer. 10:3 meaningless Christmas tree.

Since this may be our last Christmas in a peaceful environment, it might be a good time to stop and look at a true Christmas tree or 3.

1Peter 2:24 the Christmas tree of the cross; the true Christmas tree. Eventually we will all end up in heaven in a resurrection body.

Jer. 17:7–8 Blessed is man who puts his trusts in the Lord, whose confidence is in Him. He will be like a tree planted by the water.

We have a greater prosperity in the United States than kings have enjoyed in the past.

Prov. 11:30 the production of the righteous is the tree of life and he that wins souls is wise.

Job's message in v. 7: at least there is hope for a tree; if it is cut down, it will send out shoots. At the scent of water, it will put forth its shoots like a plant. A tree can be cut down, but if water comes its way, it will come up.

God has left us here with a purpose; with a plan. We are here to recognize the purpose for this plan. The womb forgets them; the worm feasts on them. Evil men are no longer remembered but are broken like a tree. Psal 1:2–3 he will be like a tree watered a generation celebrated a Christmas one year and almost lost it the next.

Few people realize that the baby in the manger is the God-man. The shadow of the cross was there at the cradle.

Most of you are believers in Jesus Christ. There was born a man who is no longer remembered some 12 centuries later in the rugged country south of... Eusuki was the father's name, the chief of the Mongol tribe of that area. Closed hand and opened it, and there was a clot of blood, and he would turn the world into a bloodbath, and with that clenched fist, he would destroy much of the world. Tebucham was the son's name, carrying the banner with the ox tails, the standard of the Mongols. He met two men and they caused him to take the name Ghengis Kahn. The great genius was not a Mongolian but from the reindeer people and his name was Subvitai batlehard he would destroy much of that area.

He moved into a land where they have been provoked where their merchants had been attacked. Subitai organized a plan. No one had ever cross that desert. The conquest was finished. Subitai went out in charge 1221–1224 they were gone. They went into eastern Armenia. They captured all kinds of people and sent spies all over western Europe.

He got a course in European history and paid them a fortune which he had accumulated in his travels. He set up one of the greatest spy systems to war II. He knew more about western Europe than most of those in Western Europe did. The Battle of Calca he defeated the western Kipchoqs. Shortly thereafter, his master Genghis Kahn died.

He talked the new Kahn into carving out a territory. D-day was to be 1227. He was to command 12 princes. The army to go forth in 1227 was the greatest army known in that century. All infantry. Ancient equivalent to modern staff. They had intelligence in information before decisions were made. Most of the officers could not read or write. Smoke bombs to cover their movements. They cut off dead enemy's ears to count the dead. Excellent administration. Great engineers. Subitai was a genius. Army divided into groups of 10. A description of what the soldier carried and his bow. They only fired from a horse and they were accurate to 350 yards. Horse care in the Mongolian world was the best in the world.

A great hunt and they learned signals and it developed unity. Finest artillery in the world. They used gun powder, but from slings and grenades. A rolling barrage. Rockets with a 1000 yard range. They were called the people from hell.

Dec. 1237 Mongols destroyed all of northern Russia. Prince Yuri and his family were slaughtered on Christmas Eve. Everything in Northern Russia was taken, with one exception. They liked to have the rivers frozen, and they attacked only in the winter.

The great church of Saint Mary's.

Then the invasion of Europe. The Carpathian mountains on in a horseshoe shape. The brilliant plan of Subati. It was an extremely cold winter and even the Danube froze in Hungary.

Great fear of the Mongols and all the crusades were cancelled and Moslems were afraid as well. Frederick II was having a fight with the Pope at this time. Innocent III was at war with Frederick? They were destroying each other, which would make it easy for the Mongolians to come in and take Europe.

An army of 50,000 Mongols and 100,000 of Hungarians and others. The Mongols advanced and there was nothing more to resist them. No one to stop them. The entire western Europe was now open and it took awhile for people to realize that they were there. People were so frightened that they were running around with all kinds of weird sayings, like the Mongolians ate the bodies after killing them, etc.

The wife of the successor to Kahn poisoned him, and the news took about 2 weeks to get there. Xmas eve of 1241 and it was called panic Christmas. They were frightened and they thought this would be the final Christmas.

This is the King Wennislaus. He was a coward. He was a believer in Jesus Christ and a yellow coward. You can understand people being frightened by rumors.

There was only one reason that Europe was still intact, and that is Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ controls history. It was a desperate and hopeless situation. If ever there was a time that we faced desperate things, it is on this Christmas eve.

We may not be a country in 1999. God used the genius of Subitai to punish eastern Europe. If we lose the meaning of Christmas, it is all over for us.

Bob proposes a toast to focus the concentration of our souls on the meaning of Christmas this year. To the Lord Jesus Christ, the source of supergrace blessing, Who delivers the client nation with a large enough pivot.

2Samuel 11:10–

72David

631_0248

“Next up will be a soft shoe buck and wing with Bobby and myself. Even getting here is difficult on occasions like this.” This might be Christmas day, 1979. New Year’s Special coming up.

David asked as to the prosperity of Joab and the morale of the troops. Uriah slept with David’s brigade of guards.

Integrity versus Loyalty

1. Integrity is loyalty to the truth in 3 categories: doctrine, laws of divine establishment,
2. Integrity is loyalty, but loyalty to the right principle.
3. To be loyal to the right principle and consistent requires Bible doctrine for the believer.
4. A believer cannot have integrity and be ignorant of doctrine.
5. No one can have integrity and enmeshed in the interlocking systems of arrogance.
6. Ignorance of doctrine or involvement with interlocking systems of arrogance results in a conflict between loyalty and integrity. This is what Uriah faces.
7. Integrity for the believer is loyalty to God. The people who have the conflict are in strong delusion.
8. Self-discipline and academic discipline removes all conflict between integrity and loyalty.
9. There is no conflict between loyalty and integrity until arrogance or lack of doctrine becomes a factor. Corruption, rejection of authority, or murder or assassination, etc. that loyalty is in conflict with integrity. When loyalty leads through arrogance, corruption, rejection of authority, conspiracy, revolution, that loyalty is in conflict with integrity.
10. National integrity resides in the pivot of believers and that must be in play. Uriah is a part of that wonderful pivot.

David had intruded on the privacy of his battalion commander and he had others shadowing Uriah. They saw that Uriah did not go to his officer’s quarters. He did not go near his quarters or his wife, who was probably a half mile away.

This is a tremendously complex subject which must be clear in our minds.

To wash one's feet indicated that he would enter his house and relax. Ordinarily, integrity and loyalty are not in conflict; should Uriah obey his commander-in-chief or should he obey the officer's honor code. The officer's honor code means no copulation with one's wife until the war or battle had been won. The issue is not sex anymore, because David has gone much farther into the interlocking systems of arrogance than just sex. There will be a new subject brought into focus in the winter months; installment discipline.

The person giving Uriah the order is in interlocking systems of arrogance. This is a problem. David inside interlocking systems of arrogance is degenerate. He has not lost his maturity. He is not in reversionism. Interlocking systems of arrogance is not the same as reversionism. Reversionism is negative volition toward doctrine and you wind up as an apostate believer or as a reversionist. But interlocking systems of arrogance is degeneracy. He did have some unbearable discipline for awhile.

Some are counting on doctrine everyday in order to keep out of trouble. Your integrity is your defense against interlocking systems of arrogance. You cannot have integrity and be in interlocking systems of arrogance at the same time. When a believer is caught in the labyrinth of interlocking systems of arrogance, he may give an order which is contrary to the honor code.

When there is a conflict, then you go with the code. When you are given an order outside of military ethics, you choose to follow the code and not your commander. Uriah obeyed the code and not the man. A disciplined person; if you can concentrate consistently and even when you are stuffed with Christmas dinner, you still concentrate. Only when in interlocking systems of arrogance does this still occur. Many people in Berachah have established a cell of loyal friends.

Integrity is a state or quality of unimpaired and pure. To be loyal to a principle, one must have knowledge of God. Must be loyal to the truth in all 3 categories. Once you get inside the interlocking systems of arrogance, the integrity goes. Psalm 33:4 All His provision is in His faithfulness. Arrogance or ignorance of doctrine becomes an issue, and this indicates a loss of integrity. When the husband orders the wife to stay home from Bible class, and here the woman must decide between personal integrity and loyalty to her arrogant husband.

Joab will choose loyalty to David rather than loyalty to his own man, Uriah; and loyalty to the officer honor code.

The advancing believer is positive toward doctrine. The great enemy of this believer is interlocking systems of arrogance. Bob is getting blank stares and he cannot believe it. Integrity is uncompromising adherence and loyalty to the truth.

You cannot teach a passage like this without being quite tough on David. There are dangers of being... We need to be beware of arrogant emulation or rationalization. If you must emulate David, then emulate him in his pursuit of Bible doctrine. Your integrity demands that you live your life as unto the Lord.

David's KER, that he followed the Lord in all things except with respect to Uriah the Hittite. Bob goes through all the KER's.

An officer, as long as it does not affect his function as a soldier, there is no reason to have David under surveillance. Uriah would not violate the officer's code.

Even though commanded by the king, Uriah makes the correct decision and does not go down to his own house.

David essentially reprimands Uriah for not obeying him. David will not court marshal Uriah because this would involve putting himself in opposition to his own honor code, and violating his own orders.

When you return from a march, it is customary to go back to one's house. David treats this as if Uriah was just out marching and not at war, so he has no honor code to adhere to. This would let him out of the honor code. This is a rationalization and David is totally preoccupied with himself.

Maddua is reprimand type of language. "Why have you not gone down to your quarters?" This is an interrogative reprimand. David is almost winking at him. If someone is smirking and winking, you know they are messed up. David expects Uriah to follow David's institutional arrogance.

Some Principals

1. Uriah was on the carpet. For not obeying a direct order, even though it conflicts with the honor code written by David.
2. David is using his authority to violate his own honor code. This is David's arrogance. The troops in the field were forbidden to socialize with the local talent. They were not to rape or pillage as this caused further wars.
3. Impulsive and institutional arrogance. Brought on by how own sexual arrogance.
4. The interlocking systems of arrogance has already functioned to make life miserable for David. He is now totally miserable. Sexual arrogance followed by conspiracy and institutional arrogance.
5. David has entered the system now and has become vulnerable to all of its parts. He is vulnerable to every aspect of the system. He was never a murderer; he spared the life of Saul in many instances; killing only on the battlefield. He was a pro and professional. Interlocking systems of arrogance has changed David from a man of great integrity and law-abiding concepts to becoming a murderer. He could enter through any door and been vulnerable to any of the others. David is against all of these various activities, but he is now vulnerable to them. This explains why criminals are not victims of their environment. Some criminals comes out of great homes. Yokelson and Samsonov the Criminal Personality

6. Domestic pleasure forbidden to the officer corp when they were on campaign. Uriah's integrity demanded that he stand by this principle. He has maintained his integrity.
7. He was a professional soldier in every sense of the word. His personal feelings and suspicions, if any, were set aside, in order to focus on his duties. He is concentrating on leadership. An unbeliever can have great personal integrity and be able to focus and to half self-discipline. You need the ability to concentrate and to keep learning. Energy like Cæsar had the most phenomenal nervous energy. As a believer, he needs great self-discipline to hold onto his integrity. The concept of military leadership was defined as the soldier whose rank. The military is an honorable profession. Psalm 27:3 though wars rise against me, I keep on having confidence.

Leadership Principles

1. Respect for authority is necessary for leadership. You cannot fit into any sort of an executive position without the proper concept of authority. Abuse of authority is the first sign of someone not qualified for leadership.
2. There must be self-discipline by which we exploit leadership characteristic, integrity and loyalty. Robt. E. Lee faced a similar problem when offered the command of the entire Yankee army by Lincoln. Personal integrity won out.
3. Spiritual life and military life coalesce in your advance. The concentration; the putting doctrine first; the ministry of rebound and the resultant filling of the Spirit.
4. You learn when to be inflexible and flexible. Some can be inflexible so that you cannot lead anything. There is a time to take an inflexible stand and times to be flexible. Some men fall apart some of our young men have pushed too hard and have no concept of authority-orientation. You learn authority-orientation and you have a jerk under your command and you want to punch him, and you give him a fair shake.
5. This is what is wrong with David in interlocking systems of arrogance.
6. Strong character of soul and a strong sense of responsibility. Your concern to carry out your command. Professional diligence to learn doctrine and then to learn everything about your profession. There is no place where leadership does not involve learning. You need to be open to new ideas, concepts, etc. Never be lazy-minded.
7. There must be a loyalty to the authority above and to those under you. A dual loyalty in leadership; those under you to take care of; feed and provide for. You also carry out the policies from above. The way in which this is carried out is to be in a constant state of objectivity. Objectivity is the key. An honorable profession is the police; the chief has goofy ideas, as he is a political appointee; but the policeman's job is to keep a stupid civilian population safe. If ever there were people who have to practice every principle we are studying, it is the police officer. The fact that there is occasionally some corruption, so what. There is not anywhere near the corruption found anywhere else. Police brutality is malarkey.
8. In leadership, flexibility is required along with good judgment and common sense.

9. When you have authority, you need to be fair to those under you. The Pelethites and the Cherethites. Uriah was a minority and he was a great battalion commander. The issue should be ability unless someone over you makes the policy of non-ability, and then you do the best that you can. Understanding all kinds of people, the ability to organize, categorize, to analyze; the program calls for you to give some kind of lectures, use some imagination and make it interesting. Someone in authority is constantly teaching. The sergeant in Zulu was constantly teaching. That is why he carried a swagger stick. He even tried to teach that idiotic missionary. Poise, goof physical conditional, presence, dress, courtesy and flair are all part of the leadership concept.

2Sam. 11:10 When they [David's intelligence service] had told David, saying, Uriah didn't go down to his house, David said to Uriah, Haven't you come from a journey [a march]? why did you not go down to your house?

Uriah the Hittite gives a reply and he will use Jewish theology.

we seem to have locked in on arrogance in almost every possible way. We are very hard on Rhodesia and South Africa and our papers are filled with how badly we treat the Black man. But he has a better deal in those 2 nations than anywhere else in the world besides the US.

Cuba, the last time they did a sugar harvest, they used a bunch of slaves from Africa just this year. And yet we allow the Cuban dictator to make speeches on our shores. A taper for many years has been Bob's favorite psychiatrist. He gets papers from Mexico as well as from the US and this was published in the Mexican papers.

Afghanistan was attacked by the Russians in the past few days. The concentration of Russian troops is so large that it has now become noticeable. Strategically, the Russians can no longer allow Afghanistan autonomy. The Russians are about the lower the bomb on Islam within their borders. They are about ready to destroy the Moslems in several provinces.

Our greatest concern is for our country to come back to truth; establishment truth for the nation, the gospel for the unbeliever and doctrine for the believer.

A special next weekend on our own spiritual problems of national security. 2 sessions on Sunday and 2 sessions on Monday.

David has violated his own code and David has brought Uriah back from the battlefield to get him to have sex with his wife and cover up David's impregnating Uriah's wife. Will Uriah be loyal to David or will he adhere to the honor code.

David had staff procedures. He was the first person to have a general staff built on the Klausen concept. Integrity versus loyalty. We have spent enough time with the principles of loyalty.

Bob cannot stop every night and teach interlocking systems of arrogance. David was in interlocking systems of arrogance long before Bathsheba. He is moving in the direction of criminal arrogance.

David sent Bathsheba a huge meal, expecting this would be for her and Uriah. With all the servants of David, Uriah stayed. It was normal for a special guard of foreigners to guard a king. Probably one of the most famous guard brigades is the British brigade of guards composed of 7 regiments. Charles I used the brigade of guards who were Scots. Bob goes over what these various guards wear.

David's men were foreigners. Philistines and the Cherethites. Hurians, Medes, Hittites, and other assorted soldiers.

David gave Uriah the chance to get out of the honor code. Integrity is one thing that no one can take from you. It can stand up under the greatest pressures that this nation has known.

You cannot have integrity without the spiritual life. Integrity is loyalty to the truth. An unbeliever can have integrity.

David gives Uriah an excuse.

2Sam. 11:10 [When they \[David's intelligence service\] had told David, saying, Uriah didn't go down to his house, David said to Uriah, Haven't you come from a journey \[a march\]? why did you not go down to your house?](#)

Essentially, Uriah has been called on the carpet for following the officer corps honor code.

The Ark is usually in the Holy of Holies of the Tabernacles; but David brought it into Jerusalem. A chest constructed of acacia wood overlain with gold. Deity of Christ and the humanity of Christ. It also represented the principle the Jesus Christ controls history.

The army did not march without the Ark. No matter how great their discipline; no matter how smart their personnel, they knew that there could be a human factor breakdown. The chest spoke of the Hypostatic union. Inside of the box were 3 things.

No military operation succeeds without authority and recognition of authority. The establishment law was a part of the writing of the Mosaic Law. There was manna in the ark, which was the provision of God's logistical grace. Without the logistical support of Jesus Christ, there was no hope for the army in combat. Also, when the Ark was in the Holy of Holies. There was also Aaron's rod which budded, the spiritual authority. Doctrine and a pivot of believers and the integrity of those in the army, their performance in times of stress would be failure. The existence of the law. It also reminded rejecting the authority of God. The Ark was a picture or propitiation Rom and Heb. Ex. 25 described. When Israel was on the march, the Ark was carried at the head of the column. It was first used with the army at Jericho. It represented the doctrine of the freedom through military victory. The defeat of the Jewish army by the Philistines indicated the loss of freedom and they captured the Ark. David restored the Ark. It became the custom to take the ark from the Tabernacle. They always had the Ark on the march and always took it with them? Jesus Christ controls history. Going to war guarantees freedom. Consequently, uriah replied to David, the Ark and Israel and Judah are in tents.

Joab is David's chief of staff. He even advised David on military and spiritual matters. He told David not to number the people, which was some of David's best advice. David and Joab are both mature believers. David will fail over interlocking systems of arrogance. Joab will fail by putting loyalty over integrity. Joab sill get an order to murder Uriah. He faces the same problem that Uriah faces—loyalty or the honor code. Uriah died as peacefully as anyone tonight. He went out under dying grace. Joab, because he failed, did not go out under dying grace, although his death was quick.

God did not shut down the 5 categories of blessing that Joab received. Uriah was able to make the right choice between the honor code and loyalty. Integrity is loyalty to truth. Uriah died with his integrity intact. If a believer dies with his integrity intact, then he can enjoy it. He was married to the beauty queen of Israel. David was in interlocking systems of arrogance. He was a sex athlete. He finally ended up with psychopathic arrogance.

Unbearable suffering and bearable suffering. When you are minus rebound, you have unbearable suffering. David has a higher Christian efficiency report than any of us will have. It is possible for any believer to enter into interlocking systems of arrogance while he is a positive believer and after. This is where you can get more discipline than reversionism.

Don't emulate David's failures. We need to be so briefed on this so that it will never slip by us. Having a talk with Karah in the field of psychiatry. Bob found some additional things. Extra adrenalin could even be arrogance.

All of these entities are in the field fighting. So, it is wrong for line or staff to be found in their quarters having sex with their wives. This would be a court marshal for dereliction of duty. All infantrymen wash their feet before entering into their quarters; that is a very important thing to them their feet. The honor code forbids Uriah from even seeing his wife; he cannot see his wife or family until military victory has been insured. The Ark and Israel and Judah are living in tents.

Uriah understood; should I go home and eat, and drink and lie down with my wife? This means to copulate; to have sex with the opposite sex. These are pleasures to be anticipated after victory has been won. None of the officer corps were to enjoy the pleasures of freedom until freedom is secured on the battlefield.

David is still king; he is still commander-in-chief. He still have a harem of 10 wives and 10 mistresses. He still has ranches and homes of all kinds. He has been guilty of impulsive arrogance. There is criminal arrogance and psychopathic arrogance.

The faithfulness of God does not fail David even though David has failed God. That is grace. That David is still alive and breathing and he is still king; and he will remain so. However, he will have installment discipline. Grace doesn't mean that you can go out and do any damn thing that you want and get away with it. Even if you seem to be getting away with it, it just means that you are stupid. God is giving you some time to reconsider and He will turn it to discipline that you are able to deal with.

Your happiness does not depend upon sex. At best, sex is a couple of hours of fun, unless you are a sex athlete like David, and it might be a couple of days of fun.

Some in interlocking systems of arrogance got involved with group sex, bestiality, homosexuality and other perversions. Then, with this jaded attitude, then they go to drugs. We have kids not even 18 yet and they are destroying their souls with drugs. We are an arrogant nation.

There are people in professional football, well-known people, and they are on drugs. Why are they on these drugs? They have had all they wanted of the featherbrained but symmetrical women in town; that did not prove to be happiness, so they try the hard stuff. We have overpaid our professional athletes. We have underpaid integrity. That is arrogance.

This is why so many of our states voted for women's rights, even though women were previously on pedestals. We are in trouble today. If we are alive, God wants us to recover. God has kept us alive in order for us to make decisions.

As your soul lives, I will not do this thing; and we will analyze this passage tomorrow.

2Sam. 11:11 [Uriah said to David, The ark, and Israel, and Judah, abide in booths \[tents\]; and my lord Joab, and the servants \[staff\] of my lord, are encamped in the open field; shall I then go into my house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? as you live, and as your soul lives, I will not do this thing.](#)

2Samuel 11:11

631_0250

We have been studying the officer corp military ethics. David entered into interlocking systems of arrogance through sexual arrogance as far back as 2Chron. 5. He went from there into impulsive arrogance and then into mental attitude sin arrogance. He is getting ready from conspiracy arrogance and then criminal arrogance. He is about to become psychotic, which means that any of us could fall this far.

We have spent about 2.5 hours on integrity. About 20 hours on divine integrity. Usually, integrity and loyalty go together. Integrity is loyalty to the truth. What holds integrity and loyalty together is self-discipline.

Here we have a problem; under the honor code for the military, there is the relationship of a man to his wife during war. The woman must take second place, and if a woman is unable to do this, an arrogant, self-centered, whining bitch can be problematic.

Uriah the Hittite was a minority officer. He had advanced to becoming one of the best commanding officers in the Jewish army. Rape was punished; instant execution for those, when rape was determined. David would not allow warfare against the civilians; only against their military.

Freedom through military victory; achieved on the battlefield and there was no social life until the battle was won. The wink and smirk command of David to allow Uriah to have sex with his wife. Uriah was a very honorable man. The only place where minorities get a fair shake today is in the armed forces. If you cannot cut it in the military, then you cannot cut it in life.

Angolians were brought into slavery in Cuba to harvest. We allow that jackass Castro to set a foot in this country. He has been practicing slavery for years now. We are run by liberals who are completely unrelated to reality.

2Sam. 11:7–9 When Uriah reported to him, David inquired of him of the prosperity of Joab, the morale of the troops and the status quo of the campaign. Then David commanded Uriah, “Go down to your quarters and wash your feet.” Uriah left the castle and a royal dinner for 2 followed him. Now Uriah slept at the gatehouse barracks of the castles (with the King’s brigade of guards). Therefore, he did not go down to his quarters. Then they reported that Uriah had not gone down to his quarters.

Uriah fully understood what David wanted him to do. You want me to go down to my quarters and copulate with my wife? The pleasures here are to be anticipated after the campaign is over after some victory has been won. No woman is worthy to be married to an officer unless she is an extremely well-balanced woman with great integrity and understands that the profession must come before her. If you take an arrogant whining bitch who wants all of the attention, you have someone...

We have an idiom which is not correctly translated here. “As you live and as your soul lives, I will not do this thing.” This is a very strong rejection of David’s order. It is possible for a born again believer to be placed under great discipline.

When you are under divine discipline unbearable, the idea is to get you to rebound. Faith reaches out and claims a promise (1John 1:9). David is under unbearable suffering. When he is forgiven and cleansed, he will be placed under installment discipline. The idea of installment discipline is to take great discipline and make it bearable and make it possible for blessing. Absalom will take all of David's wives out to a place where it could be seen, and he will rape them in front of all Israel. All except his mother.

If anyone was miserable, it was David. He entered into interlocking systems of arrogance as a sex athlete. David never fell in love until he was after 50; to him, sex was love. Sex without love was meaningless. The Bible describes David as extremely handsome. He had no concept of love and you cannot go in for a multiplicity of sexual partners and have any happiness at all. It is possible to be a mature believer and have no capacity for love because you have fouled it up by sex with a number of people. Sex can be a beautiful thing or very ugly. You can run into your RW and you will be like ships passing in the night. Sex will make you miserable. Promotion can make you miserable; you need capacity for these things. Sex is good if you have capacity for love and you have found your right number.

People always want to scrape the icing off the cake; they want the things before the capacity. It is better to be poor with the capacity than to be rich without the capacity.

Uriah has great capacity for life and great capacity for his profession. He was given a battlefield commission as an enemy of Israel's army. He has been quite successful in combat and he has great moral courage. He now stands before his commanding officer. However, David is suffering from cowardice. David is still in Jerusalem chasing.

No matter who you are, once you get into interlocking systems of arrogance, you are all through. Arrogance will destroy anyone. They make their followers twice as arrogant as they are. The blind leading the blind and they fall into the ditch. Humility is the basis for all capacities for life.

You are not involved in emulation or trying to outdo your contemporaries. You are not trying to show everyone that you are better than them. Capacity for love, prosperity, etc. Without humility, you cannot enjoy any of these things. \

Some people think that poise or being straightened out means that the other person is arrogant. Interlocking systems of arrogance does not involve negative volition toward doctrine. As an ultra super grace believer, he began as a king and a multi-millionaire; and he was all of this before and after operation Bathsheba. David did not lose anything. These were imputations of supergrace blessing in 5 categories. This is the disease of believers with positive volition toward doctrine. There is a definite change in personality.

This is why some people can handle pain; while others recover. Story about a guy who cut off 3 fingers. However, what destroys some of the neurons is arrogance. Self-confidence is not arrogance; but self-obsession is arrogance. Satan's original sin was arrogance; man's original sin was disobedience to God, which was arrogance.

By your life or as you live; and it is similar to our just as sure as I am standing here. The idea is, if I did this thing, I would be manufacturing this out of a personal loss of integrity.

If he did this while his men were out in the field, he would have lost his integrity. He would be saying, I am more important than this war; I am more important than the honor code.

Uriah was a great soldier and he maintained his status as a professional. Wearing a uniform does not make you professional. It is your attitude of soul.

Rape around here is up 109%; shoot a few of these bastards and see what the story is. A police officer with integrity cannot be bribed. This means the freedom of society. In effect, Uriah's strict adherence to the honor code is a rebuke to David. Interlocking systems of arrogance produces degeneracy of the soul. David is indifferent. There is a relationship between your lifestyle and how you think. Cowardice kept David in Jerusalem. He violated the honor code by the rape of Bathsheba. Her volition was not involved.

2Sam. 11:11 Uriah said to David [Consequently, Uriah replied to David], The ark, and Israel, and Judah, abide in booths [tents]; and my lord Joab, and the servants [staff] of my lord, are encamped in the open field; shall I then go into my house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? As you live, and as your soul lives [surely as you are standing there], I will not do this thing.

Now we begin a conspiracy. David will have to work these things out another way. David has not yet played his trump card; he needs 24 more hours to get Uriah to have sex with his wife. His 2nd conspiracy calls for a 2nd 24 hours, and it is clear Uriah is incorruptible while sober. So David gets Uriah drunk. He figures Uriah will go into the arms of Bathsheba. It is true that some will undergo a personality change when drunk. Drinking is not a sin, but drunkenness is. #12 would be habitual drunkenness to get you into interlocking systems of arrogance. They drink more than they should from their own free will.

Mental attitude degeneracy will break you down. Those in criminal or psychopathic arrogance. The big things won't bother them. If you are moral, unrighteousness, establishment oriented, they will be offended by that or by any little thing. Mental attitude degeneracy seeks to destroy every good thing in their immediate periphery.

Once you are in interlocking systems of arrogance, you will be inconsistent. You cannot be consistent in the interlocking systems of arrogance.

David had the power to retain David for as long as he wanted; but he knew, Uriah would become suspicious and want to get back to the battle.

2Sam. 11:12 David said to Uriah, Stay here today also, and tomorrow I will let you depart. So Uriah abode in Jerusalem that day, and the next day.

David summons this guy into his presence. It is his own private mess. David keeps saying, "You must try this; you must try that." Then toasts would be offered. "I propose a toast to Uriah the Hittite." and all would stand and toast, including Uriah. David figured once this man was drunk, he would leave and go to his own home.

However, Uriah only goes to the brigade of guards.

David's 2nd conspiracy was frustrated for the same reason his first conspiracy was frustrated. There was the honor of Uriah the Hittite. Bob has seen ladies who are inebriated and they are still ladies; and gentlemen who are drunk and remain gentlemen. Even when inebriated, Uriah refused to violate his honor code. Alcohol does not affect integrity where there is humility and grace orientation. Drunkenness is often used as an excuse for evil. There is no excuse for arrogance in minority. When you make an issue out of race, you are in already. This man had great integrity and honor. He was a recent enemy. His mother was an Amorite and his father was a Hittite, and he is therefore called Jebusite. A lot of people think they have the right or excuse for lack of integrity because they are a minority. Uriah never once uses the excuse that he is a gentile in a Jewish army. Bob knew one guy at Berachah identified himself as a Spanish-American. He thought there was something wrong with it because he was arrogant.

Principle

1. Uriah was within a mile of his own quarters.
2. Even though he was very near to his home and he loved Bathsheba very much, his duty as an officer restrained him from seeing her. David's army always won because of their integrity. A woman is a wonderful and inspiring thing, but she comes 2nd to duty. A woman who is honorable understands this principle.
3. Because Uriah is honorable, he does not violate the military honor code.
4. Drunkenness is no excuse for criminal or sinful behavior. A man may make an attempt to move on a woman when he is drunk, but the alcohol is just an excuse.
5. Alcohol is a depressant and it is volition which is to blame; not alcohol. Wrong behavior is related to volition and the old sin nature.
6. Uriah's state of inebriation did not affect his moral standards. He was free of interlocking systems of arrogance.
7. David's second idea of getting Uriah drunk failed because he was dealing with an honorable soldier.
8. Interlocking systems of arrogance is that type of degeneration which causes the leader to try to corrupt the follower.
9. Sexual arrogance, impulsive arrogance, conspiratorial arrogance have combined in the interlocking systems of arrogance to turn mature believer David into a degenerate king.

2Sam. 11:13 When David had called him, he ate and drink before him; and he made him drunk: and at even he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his lord, but didn't go down to his house.

2Samuel 11:14

We are now moving into conspiracy #3. The prep school will not resume until 10 January 1980. That is the first day he will be back from Dallas. This must be early January 1980.

Don't ever walk out of the auditorium thinking, "That is just exactly what Charley Brown needed." You have lost your objectivity if you think that.

2Sam. 11:7–13 When Uriah reported to him, David inquired of him of the prosperity of Joab, the morale of the troops and the status quo of the campaign. Then David commanded Uriah, "Go down to your quarters and wash your feet." Uriah left the castle and a royal dinner for 2 followed him. Now Uriah slept at the gatehouse barracks of the castle (with the King's brigade of guards). Therefore, he did not go down to his quarters. When the CIA reported that Uriah had not gone down to his quarters, David said, "Why did you not go down to your quarters?" "Should I go to my quarters and eat and drink and sleep with my wife? I cannot do such a thing." "Remain here this day also." When David summoned him, he made him drunk. He went and slept at the officer's brigade of guards.

It was clear that Uriah was not going to be coaxed to his own home. A woman who is married to a man whose profession requires great personal integrity, such as a firefighter, a policeman, a military type; a woman needs to allow him to put the interests of the job first, as his integrity dictates.

David started with sexual arrogance and he moved over to blind arrogance. He will move from conspiracy arrogance to criminal arrogance and eventually move to psychopathic arrogance.

David had everything which we normally associate with happiness, but he was in great misery. He is an ultra super grace believer, he is sucked into interlocking systems of arrogance. He is not negative at all. He will be degenerate, and there is a great deal of difference between degeneracy and reversionism.

In the 3rd conspiracy, David will move into criminal arrogance. David used his authority to order the murder of Uriah in battle.

2Sam. 11:14 It happened in the morning, that David wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah.

Now we get the content of the letter.

This is a conspiracy which makes use of David's great authority as king. He is to put Uriah out in front in the next assault, and then his battalion will be pulled back. Uriah will be left there alone.

Uriah + the assault platoon. 3 company commanders and a chief of staff. Uriah is a battalion commander. Each one of the commanders is responsible. He will give the order of who moves forward, and who is held into reserve and there will be the equivalent of our 5 paragraph field order given. Their integrity demands that they obey. There is integrity and loyalty and this is cemented by self-discipline. Integrity and loyalty are not in conflict. Joab will make this conspiracy work because all of the other commanders are in interlocking systems of arrogance. They might want to even replace Uriah or they may fault him as being a foreigner. Without a code of ethics, many men die.

Casualties in our armed forces is minimal when the code of ethics is in force and men have personal integrity.

We have an arrogant people in our nation today. Liberals are anthropocentric, and that makes them arrogant.

Joab, the nephew, a mature believer, obeys David; this act will wipe out the finest troops in a battalion. Joab will die as a mature believer the sin unto death. In 5 categories, he will not lose, but his punishment will include the sin unto death.

Don't ever feel sorry for Uriah the Hittite. He is the only person named in the line of Jesus Christ. Bathsheba is not named specifically; Uriah is named in His line. It is better to be dead with honor than alive and without integrity.

David lacks integrity; Joab lacks integrity; the company grade officers in Uriah's battalion are without integrity. Only Uriah has integrity. Of all the people who have received the medal of honor, Stockdale received the medal of honor for great moral courage. It is almost unbelievable. He honorably wears the medal of honor ribbon. He lost everything in life but his honor; including his testes.

Uriah loses everything in life but his honor.

These are formerly great men who have fallen into conspiracy arrogance and are now in the interlocking systems of arrogance. All of these men are in a state of degeneration. At least 2 of them are degenerates as mature believers. While David is positive toward doctrine, he began with sexual arrogance and kept on going. The result is, David, for 1 year, a psychopath. It is time for the Lord for Uriah to take the Lord home to Himself.

Uriah married one of the most beautiful women in the land; and Ahithophel, Bathsheba's grandfather, was one of David's greatest advisors. Uriah died in battle and this will be a triumph.

When you lose your integrity, you lose your happiness. You can never again have happiness or capacity for life. You lose all potentiality for happiness or blessing. No matter what you achieve, you know personally how miserable it is to be without integrity.

This conspiracy will succeed and it will involve officers who understand in detail the military honor code, and they will violate it.

2Sam. 11:15 He wrote in the letter, saying [a summary of what is in the letter], Set Uriah in the forefront of the hottest battle, and then retreat from him, that he may be struck down, and die.

Vv. 16–27 is David's conspiracy arrogance and its success. The first 2 conspiracies failed because Uriah has personal integrity and he could not be corrupted. The 3rd will succeed because it involve the volition of David, Joab and 3 company commanders under Uriah.

Joab's job was to be constantly in touch with the military situation; the actual tactical situation. He needed to know exactly what was going on, on the battlefield.

More Frenchmen were killed in the Spanish campaign than in the Russian campaign; and Napoleon did not make a reconnaissance at Waterloo. Lee did not do this at Gettysburg because he was ill. Ignorance of the tactical situation and the terrain can keep a commander from being able to properly guide his troops.

There will be an assault platoon pinned down from frontal fire, and then be hit on the flank.

Principle

1. Assignment to a hot spot was necessary to fulfill David's conspiracy.
2. Joab made a reconnaissance for the hottest part of the warfare.
3. He assigned Uriah to that part of the line to set up an assault plan.
4. Sooner or later, this elite Ammonite force would counter-attack.
5. When the counter-attack came, Joab could respond.

David is a man who loved his troops, all the way back to his first battalion at the cave of Adullam and now he has turned. There are those who are in interlocking systems of arrogance who lose their capacity for love, and those in interlocking systems of arrogance can lose their focus.

We saw this first in the Vietnam war and Martin Luther King stood up and turned people against the war and against our military and they are trying to make a national holiday for that jerk. He was the male Jane Fonda. They represent a great segment of our population. Our military suffered from a lack of support at home. There was indifference toward our troops at home; people could care less. People have become cold toward our troops. People are indifferent to what is happening to Americans.

If we go to war today based upon emotion, it is a waste. People who went to war after pearl Harbor had personal integrity. A depression had formed an enforced humility. Our soldiers became citizen soldiers. Today, you draft people in their arrogance and they would resist because of their degeneracy. In the volunteer army there are those who make an issue out of their race. It has nothing to do with the color of your skin. The arrogant ones always start out with that. When you make an issue of the color of your skin, that is arrogance. We cannot fight a war with arrogance. We are not ready to fight a war from the standpoint of personnel.

3 robbers caught by a guy, and he caught up with them where he is in a tactical disadvantage. He used his gun. You can take out your gun in this town and be suspended for 3 days. Apathy toward law enforcement is dangerous.

David would have executed anyone who did what he ordered to be done to Uriah. If you lose your enthusiasm for doctrine, watch out what happens to you. It is hard to teach David with people jumping in and out. When your scale of values goes sour; when you lose your enthusiasm for things you used to enjoy, look out. However, when you have a personality change you are the last person to know. There is a difference you are inside interlocking systems of arrogance.

2Sam. 11:16 It happened, when Joab kept watch on the city, that he assigned Uriah to the place where he knew that valiant men were.

Then we have the counter attack. Here is the wall and the gate. The Jews were told to attack this part of the wall. An assault platoon goes in. Delta force is kept in reserve. Alpha, Bravo and Charlie withdraw just as the Ammonites come out of the city.

Uriah was left isolated on the battlefield and he fought valiantly with that platoon, and they stayed and fought, but they were overrun. There were casualties. The people who fell were those who were with Uriah; probably the men in his battalion?

David's orders were obeyed implicitly.

David is in interlocking systems of arrogance and Joab will join him; and he will pay and he will die a horrible, disgraceful death. At least 3 company commanders have lost their integrity as well. Uriah and the assault platoon will die with integrity.

Uriah's Great Legacy

1. Uriah will die, and yet, he is the winner here, a hero whose legacy will stand forever. The Ammonites think they have won this little skirmish and David will think that he has dodged a bullet by engineering this conspiracy; but Uriah, the dead man, is the winner.
2. Uriah had been a great soldier. In the Jebusite army, he was [probably] a general officer and he was given a battlefield commission in the Jewish army.
3. As a Jebusite, a Hittite and a Gentile, he became a believer in Jesus Christ and advanced to maturity. He could not have had a better profession. He could not have had a better deal. He had such a fair shake, that he was promoted ahead of his peers.
4. The conclusion is based upon his magnificent adherence to the Jewish honor code. He is mentioned in the line of our Lord's line.
5. Furthermore, as a Jewish officer, he has been decorated; knight of the 3rd class. He has received battlefield honors as a part of his honors.
6. Uriah was married to one of the most beautiful women in all of history and her grief indicates that she was in love with him. She was not volitionally involved in David's conspiracy. It is possible that she never knew what David did.
7. Uriah had capacity for life, capacity for love and capacity for happiness; he had been quite successful in the campaign up to this point.

8. He died at the perfect time; he died honorably. He was an older man. He was overrun by the most valiant troops of the Ammonite army. There was no woman throwing a stone down on Uriah. David here was referring to a field manual of tactics. Uriah was killed by the best soldiers of the army of Rabbah.
9. Surrounded by the Ammonite army, Uriah refused to surrender. He faced life with courage and capacity for life. Because he was a mature believer, he died under dying grace. He was not one of those who died jumping out of a window disrobed. He had an honorable and noble death.
10. While it was David's evil, degenerate conspiracy which caused Uriah's death, he would not have died on the battlefield unless Jesus Christ permitted it. Jesus Christ controls history and the time and manner of our death. People speak of the tragedy of death, but no one dies apart from Jesus Christ permitting it. His time was the right time. It was time for Uriah to come home.
11. The fact remains that the Lord permitted the 3rd conspiracy to succeed. Uriah did not lose his honor in this; nor did this involve Uriah's volition. Uriah had great happiness in his death as he did in life. What better way for a soldier to go than the way that he went.
12. In life, and in death, Uriah was a gloriously happy man living a life of great danger and blessing. He had a great love life, a great social life, a great profession. He got through life without always being clobbered by the Lord.
13. Uriah, though the victim of a plot, died at the peak of his career, and he died with maximum blessing.

2Sam. 11:17 Consequently, the men of the city went out [counter attacked], and fought with Joab: and there fell some of the people, even of the servants of David; and Uriah the Hittite died also [was caused to die].

Final Points on Uriah

1. He lived and died honorably.
2. All of those in the conspiracy lost their integrity; Uriah retained his. Joab entered interlocking systems of arrogance through the impulsive gate.
3. Live is a blessing to Uriah and dying is a greater blessing and there will be great rewards for such a believer in Jesus Christ.
4. Rom. 8:28–32 is applicable. His decorations in heaven will far exceed those on earth.
5. The victim must always be remembered.
6. Life had no more to offer Uriah. He had in his lifetime more than most would enjoy. There was an honorable and painless death on the battlefield.
7. We therefore pause to mourn and honor him; and those with the right perspective will enjoy him. "The brave man can fall; but he cannot yield." Also described by another Roman phrase, "Having put off this mortal frame, he is now uniformed in immortality." "An honorable death is preferable to a degenerate life." Uriah was the winner by death and David was a loser by being alive. Paul's description in Philip. 1:20–21 In nothing will I be disgraced, but with integrity of maturity, even now as always, Christ will be exalted in my person; living is Christ and dying is profit.

The Lord gives and the Lord takes away; blessed be the name of the Lord.

“Some of you think you can talk during the teaching of the Word of God, and you will be thrown out, which will be an embarrassment to you and everyone else.”

Our constitution has been violated in every possible way. It has been set aside so that the fundamental laws of divine establishment have been set aside. Personal property is no longer inviolate and privacy has been ruined; and the call is for the greater good for the greater number.

The low prices on gas is a result of the integrity of the gas companies. If it went up with inflation, we'd be paying $4 or $5 a gallon. South Africa and Rhodesia have demonstrated great integrity, and we have attacked them; and National Council of Churches has been sending money to their revolutionaries. The Shah of Iran was a great friend in that area.

The United States foreign policy has turned a third of the people of this earth over to communism. Simosa was the only one doing a great job in Latin America and we overthrew him. During the next 2 decades when the population explosion takes over Latin and Southern America, communism will be all over in the south.

The Communists are watching our reaction to the hostage taking in Iran. We could have established an air head and taken care of this in 30 minutes.

We have studied interlocking systems of arrogance and the 11 entrances into interlocking systems of arrogance; and there is 12, which is political arrogance. We have a tendency to blame the president and many of our elected representatives are irresponsible; but none of these are the original source. The arrogance of the American people is the fundamental problem. 4 sessions over the new year to deal with the problem and the solution.

Historical significance of the pivot: Bob was enthusiastically watching the last few minutes of the Oilers and the Broncos; and that is what we have here, the Piel imperative of ranan. This is having something about which to be excited about and to shout for joy or happiness.

The justice of God imputes all this blessing down this tube to the righteousness of God, which is imputed to us. The response to this is a shout; it is not singing, but it is a shout of happiness and such. This refers to all believers who have the indwelling of the righteousness of God. While all believers possess the imputed righteousness of God, only those who exploit this make up the pivot. No president or leader has the moral courage to continue to support our military. Arrogance produces cowardice. For this reason, there are those who will not support any military action. Martin Luther King and Jane Fonda undercut the war in Vietnam. A police officer cannot do his job without some public criticism. We have now come to the spiritual solution, which is our constant attitude toward Bible doctrine. Only the pivot delivers the client nation in times of national disaster.

The integrity of the believer is always related to doctrine resident in the soul. Integrity requires adherence to principle. Integrity and loyalty only come into conflict when the believer rejects truth and accepts the lie. There is no conflict unless ignorance or arrogance become the believer's modus vivendi.

Fundies today have become just as arrogant as everyone else. Integrity and loyalty are never in conflict when academic discipline focuses on Bible doctrine. Integrity does more than that in a national crisis. We will be conned by various people in one or another system of arrogance. When we are conned, we end up being more miserable than they. Integrity protects the believer and the nation. It is the guardian of the nation's last frontiers.

Lamed preposition + Jashar. The pivot of mature believers are not a part of the arrogance of the day. What keeps a person out of interlocking systems of arrogance is the integrity which comes from the 2nd stage of the faith rest drill.

Moses entered. The people were being tested. The issues in divine discipline are handled simply. Faith reaches out and claims a promise like rebound. We have studied the essence of God rationale, the logistical grace rationale, and the plan of God rationale which is supercharged by fortiori reasoning.

Fear is inability to think under pressure. Faith rest is to seize a doctrine when under pressure. Moses was given a direct order from God. He was to line up the people in lines of tribes, in the 13 tribes, and he was to carry Aaron's rod that budded; and he was to speak to the rock; and these were simple directions. As Moses looked into the eyes of these whining ninnyes, he beat the rock twice, and he lectured them. He could not resist chewing them out. This was to be a faith rest test. When he started his speech, he entered into interlocking systems of arrogance. Now he is in interlocking systems of arrogance, and he is a different person. He is a self righteous crusader. You can be all kinds of different when in the interlocking systems of arrogance. David was polygamous and he walked in through sexual arrogance. This goes back to 2Sam. 5. David had intense misery for a year.

The principle of Elijah. The people asked Elijah, what should be do with the 450 prophets of Baal? Elijah should have left this up to the civil authorities. This is not his job. He said, "Kill them," which put him into interlocking systems of arrogance. The farther you are from reaching maturity, the more prone you are to interlocking systems of arrogance.

They are singing here about the deliverance of a nation. God slaps down nations and he slaps down teams and anyone else involved in interlocking systems of arrogance.

This is actually a superscription, which is the first verse of any verse which has them. Jesus Christ delivers a client nation to God even if they have failed completely. Reversionism is apostasy and interlocking systems of arrogance is different and more subtle.

I don't think that this is an inscription.

Bob thinks this psalm was written in the time of David, although he cannot prove that. Just as you can be enthusiastic about the oilers, you can also be enthusiastic about the deliverance of our nation.

We have already surrendered militarily to the Communists and we have backed off on several occasions in conflicts which we have not heard of. There were conflicts about Iran in which we have backed off every time. The Russians are constantly flexing their muscles. We are an immoral government. We have backed off and have allowed people to go into slavery. There are more than 25,000 Black slaves in Cuba.

Many times people have done good works in Berachah simply to impress a member of the opposite sex. In the process, people do very inconsistent things. Jealousy is merely arrogance in its inconsistency. The inconsistent side of arrogance has a different title.

If you are a mature believer, then you can recover more quickly.

Principles

1. Integrity is loyalty to the truth in 3 categories. It is loyalty to a principle. Most people think that integrity is loyalty to a person. As long as integrity is moving toward a principle. People in Berachah have become loyal to some person in Berachah and that is their problem; they have a conflict between loyalty and integrity. Integrity allows you to be loyal to the right people. Establishment for believer and unbeliever. Laws of divine establishment. The gospel is truth for the unbeliever only. Then doctrine for the believer. The lie can be almost anything, depending upon the category of truth you have rejected.
2. Integrity is loyalty but it is always loyalty to truth. You will know the truth and the truth will make you free. When there is a conflict between people and doctrine, you choose doctrine.
3. To be loyal to the right principle and to be consistent therein, it requires knowledge of Bible doctrine.
4. No one can have integrity without loyalty to doctrine.
5. No one can have integrity as a believer and be enmeshed in the interlocking systems of arrogance.
6. Ignorance of doctrine or involvement in interlocking systems of arrogance always puts one in a conflict between integrity and loyalty. They are held together by self-discipline and academic discipline. This self-discipline requires concentration on doctrine. It can be applied to business and professions.

7. One other thing establishes a relationship between our integrity and loyalty. Honor is the coalescence between integrity and loyalty.
8. As you learn doctrine, you develop new standards. As they exist, your loyalty which comes from doctrine will have an impact on your relationship with people. Ike's great decision not to go to Berlin. Napoleon would have stayed out of Spain and out of Russia, and he would not have gone out at Waterloo and the campaigns which followed. The ignorance of doctrine and the involvement of interlocking systems of arrogance. As a believer ignorant of doctrine or an unbeliever with no concept of divine establishment, cannot develop honor because you don't have any truth to be loyal to. Many of you have lost your honor because your attendance in Bible class has caused a conflict.
9. Integrity for the believer is loyalty to God. But loyalty conflicts with integrity when strong delusion causes a believer to misdirect their loyalty to people without any integrity.
10. Integrity plus loyalty equal honor. Self-discipline and academic discipline on doctrine removed all conflict between integrity and loyalty.
11. No conflict between the two until arrogance becomes the believer's modus vivendi. Illustration: when loyalty leads to arrogance, corruption, hypocrisy, murder, assassination, then loyalty is in conflict with integrity. God's mind is doctrine and that is what our loyalty should be directed toward. Everyone has his own sin nature and his own problems.
12. There must be national integrity for national entities to continue as client nations. Today, the people of the United States are involve in corruption, arrogance, hypocrisy, rejection of authority, labor rejects the authority of business; women have gone crazy rejecting the authority of their husbands. This is all because of interlocking systems of arrogance. National integrity lives in the pivot of mature believers.

Psalms 33:1 Rejoice in Jehovah, O righteous ones [mature believers who have exploited the righteousness of God]; praise is becoming to the upright.

Bob wouldn't even try to mess with a harp; not even with a harpist. Yadah in the Hiphil stem. Here, it means to be caused to be motivated. The music appeals to the emotion and to the mentality. If music lines up with motivations of mentality, then the emotion will follow and be stimulated. But if the emotion is all that is appealed to, you are back in the jungle. This does not mean that you have to be an intellectual snob.

The more doctrine you learn, the more you will like music.

We are describing an honorable person who is motivated to praise the Lord. Someone came up and slapped Bob on the back and said praise the Lord. He is stupid. That does not mean a thing.

Now, motivation for praising the Lord comes from doctrine in the soul and the filling of the Holy Spirit. It means to be so preoccupied with Christ with the doctrine you have learned so as to have integrity.

Kinor is a lyre. It is an instrument which consists of strings made of the intestines of a sheep and stretched over a sounding board. Someone in praising the Lord must be skilled in playing the harp. People who learn doctrine are motivated to achieve in the area of their talent. This does not mean that you will all play the harp. We all have some sort of a talent and with doctrine, we are motivated in certain fields. He did not play this with his fingers but with some kind of a pick; and this was one of the instruments which David played.

They are playing music here with a musical instrument, which knocks the Church of Christ right out of the box. This 2nd verse emphasizes several things. If you have doctrinal motivation and you will take your profession or interest and; attainment brings no happiness to life without motivation. In order to play, someone had to really study and learn this instrument.

Most facets of worship are a team effort. Bob vocalizes. Whoever plays an instrument must study and keep up. The use of musical ability is definitely a part of worship. David began by learning an instrument, and this required concentration.

The various KER's are repeated.

Psalms 33:2 Give thanks to Jehovah with the lyre; sing to Him with a harp of ten strings.

2Samuel 11

Psalms 33:3– 72David

631_0253

Psalms 33:1-2 Shout with happiness to the Lord, you Righteous ones; a psalm fitting for those having integrity. Be motivated to praise the Lord with a harp or lyre, 10 strings.

Part of the taxation went to the tribe of Levi so that they could spend time on skills like singing.

Sing to Him a new song refers to a triumph of delivery. To us as individuals, this means the maintenance of one's integrity after being tempted to enter into the interlocking systems of arrogance. Each one of these gates are detrimental to mature and immature believers.

All mental attitude sins have their root in arrogance. When you have a mental attitude sin like hatred, you are so wrapped in yourself that this is arrogance intensified. The human mind, no matter how brilliant, is always susceptible to the interlocking systems of arrogance.

Interlocking Systems of Arrogance

1. Arrogance divorces the believer from reality. Arrogance reject authority. It results in irrationality. Arrogance distorts truth and ridicules truth and it demands flattery and attention. That is only the first gate.
2. Negative volition arrogance or scar tissue of the soul arrogance. When doctrine is presented and you say no to it, you get a layer of scar tissue. Every time you say no to it, another layer of scar tissue builds on your soul. Generally, interlocking systems of arrogance is not negative volition toward doctrine.
3. Impulsive arrogance.
4. Institutional arrogance. One does not succeed under a system and he blames the system for that.
5. Blind arrogance is to opposite; the antithesis of honor. Blind arrogance include sincere holy rollers and those who believe in salvation by works. It always establishes false standards. It is always associated with personality arrogance. An offshoot of blind arrogance is personality arrogance.
  - a. Personality arrogance finds the acceptable or dominating personality; and they announce to the cell in their periphery whoever opposes them is wrong. This can occur in local churches or any sort of organization. This is a form of blind arrogance and it combines with institutional arrogance. When there is no self-discipline, you are loyal to persons who are antagonistic toward truth. Some wake up and realize that they do things which shock themselves.
6. Conspiracy arrogance. The function of the mutual admiration society.
7. Criminal arrogance and some believers turn out to be criminals and this shocks everyone. It finds its roots in institutional arrogance. A criminal is a sociopath and a pathological liar. He has no problem with... He despised authority and competes with it.
8. Crusader arrogance. Self righteous arrogance is classified as righteous indignation. The superimposition of one's standards upon others. A man had certain standards, he expected everyone else to do the same thing. The arrogance of taking the law into one's own hands is a part of this particular picture. This is what Elijah did with the execution of the 450 prophets of Baal. Similar to those who are dishonest on their taxes.
9. Psychopathic arrogance. In the normal person, the emotion is under the control of the intellect. We will see David as an actual psychopath.
10. He entered through sexual arrogance and then arrogance as a mental attitude sin. Then conspiratorial arrogance and criminal arrogance to psychopathic arrogance; and he does all of this as an ultra super grace believer. He was a king a commander in chief with 10 wives and when it was over, he had all of these as well. Discipline, which he coul not handle. The adultery was just a small part of the system. Sexual arrogance put him in there. He didn't even love Bathsheba at first. When he met Bathsheba, he was in interlocking systems of arrogance already. Because he was inside already, he entered into the others. God held the murder of Uriah the Hittite against him. Uriah is the only person not in David's line who is mentioned in the line of Christ. David is not the first mature believer to get in there.

There are times when 40–50% of believers are in this arrogance. This relate everything to themselves. They relate everything to themselves. We will even see how David got out, and it will be installment discipline. We are a long way from that. Once a nation is delivered. David’s multiplicity of wives and mistresses means that David had no capacity for love. This also means no integrity. Polygamy was his arrogance gate and this goes back to 2Sam. 5.

11. Posterity arrogance where a lot of people push their children. Frustrated parents push their children to excel to make up for their own lack of success. The arrogance of ambitious parents; inordinate parental pride. There are far too many people who should never have children. We have a revolution of rug rats. When there is social life for adults
12. Political arrogance. Man by man’s efforts solving man’s problems. We will see more political arrogance this year. Human panaceas of all sorts. Socialism, the welfare state, communism; substitute human function and human talent to solve man’s problems. Political arrogance destroys human freedom. That Arab Nader is the perfect illustration of political arrogance. State’s rights represents the divine view.

The Hiphil imperative of jatab means to be caused to be good through self-discipline. Integrity and loyalty are glued together by self-discipline and the norms and standards of truth in the conscience. This equals honor. Self-discipline exploits talent and relates it to honor and integrity. Self-discipline is the way in which your talents, abilities, etc. are related to honor rather than to arrogance.

None of us can afford to have our attainments, our successes and our skills related to arrogance. You have a skill, and in this passage, it is a musical skill. You are at a party where people want to socialize, but you keep playing music, which keeps them from socializing. Music in the background can be very nice, as long as it does not interfere with socializing or violates the volition of others.

Psalm 33:3 Sing to Him a new song; play skillfully [with loud strumming], with shouts of joy.

Doctrine is the provision for logistical grace. Your celebration; your escape from interlocking systems of arrogance.

Yasar and you may recall the mention of the Book of Jashar. That book of Jasher is really the book of Yashar, which is the book of Integrity.

Logistical Grace Principles

1. Logistical grace is the basis for doctrinal support.
2. Logistical grace must be supported; if you are positive, God will provide the doctrine.
3. From the logistical support of doctrine comes the provision of doctrine. You need freedom to pursue doctrine.
4. From doctrine comes the integrity of the believer.

5. Integrity of the soul;
6. You can only be loyal to doctrine that you know. You cannot be loyal to the doctrine in general. You cannot be loyal to doctrine in the Bible.
7. You cannot be loyal to doctrine which you do not comprehend. Ignorance of doctrine creates a problem between integrity and loyalty. It is perception of doctrine which alerts you to the reality of your situation.

You cannot have integrity apart from the truth.

Psalm 33:4 For the Word of Jehovah is right [yâshâr = integrity], and all His works [provision] are in truth.

Ahab present; God loves righteousness and justice. He love integrity. Righteousness and justice are the divine attributes which form the integrity of God. There is a relationship between the integrity of God and the integrity of God. No blessing can be imputed to us without first having the righteousness of God. Once we have half of His integrity, then we can fill in with His thinking. We possess +R but we do not possess His justice.

When we took up love and the integrity of God; it must have direction; God does not love the human race. God does love His own righteousness. God loves us. We still do not have the love of God as a point of reference. Since we still possess an old sin nature, the justice of God becomes a reference point. God loves righteousness; His righteousness. When you begin to print doctrine on your brain, the more your thinking conforms to God's thinking. You have His justice as a part of your thinking. What counts in life is what you think. As a man thinks in his right lobe, so he is. Prosperity kept David from keeping up with doctrine. We will get that in 2Sam. 12. Many of us are occupied with a person or with our social life; and every time that we put something over doctrine, it is problematic.

Even the good deeds of a person who is preoccupied with himself is a part of the arrogance function. Some Christian organizations try to get everyone doing works. They do this and that; and they do these things out of arrogance. When they do this our of arrogance, they are disciplined and the ones who got them to do it are disciplined as well. God resists the proud and gives grace to the humble. The humble is not some phoney Bible type who walks around with his head down. People think that Christians are not normal. They are weirdos.

This is the divine attribute of love; it does not require a divine attribute for change. God loves righteousness and justice. We have had righteousness and justice and we have had it since we believed in Jesus Christ. God loves the believer because he possesses the righteousness of God since salvation.

This is why people don't know if they are in love; they are simply attracted and have no concept. Human integrity does not come from the righteousness of God. Human integrity comes from Bible doctrine, just as we find in their passage.

God loves His Own righteousness and justice.

Malee means for the earth to be filled with something. It is grace. We have studied logistical grace and supergrace as well.

Integrity and the Client Nation

1. We have studied the integrity of mankind. This suggests something else. It suggests that there is a 3rd category of integrity. We have studied the integrity of man. There is also the integrity of the client nation. There is almost no integrity in the client nation to God. We are an arrogance nation. We have not given much study to national integrity.
2. The integrity of the client nation is the pivot of mature believers. That pivot, which is made up of mature believers, has blessing by association and historical impact; that is the pivot of a nation.
3. When a client nation to God loses its integrity, it is subject to historical crisis and historical disaster. All this takes is to get mature believers into interlocking systems of arrogance. They lose blessing by association and their national impact.
4. God has provided through logistical grace the logistical support for the maintenance of a client nation. The earth is filled with the grace of the Lord.
5. 3 categories of truth provide the basis for the integrity of a client nation: laws of divine establishment, gospel for the unbeliever; Bible doctrine for the believer.
6. National integrity must line up with the integrity of God. This is only possible through the formation of a pivot. You can have believers and unbelievers rejecting truth, and that ends up being a difficult situation for a nation.
7. The only way to save a nation in historical disaster, etc., is for the pivot to ramp up doctrinal intake.
8. The hope of a nation resides in Bible doctrine and the avoidance of interlocking systems of arrogance.

Psalm 33:5 He loves righteousness and justice; the grace of Jehovah fills the earth.

To be continued in the New Year's Eve service.

2Samuel 11

Psalm 33:6 72David

631_0254

This is the last night of the decade (so this would be Dec. 31, 1979). The cycles of discipline are necessary to bring this country to the place of discipline, recovery and for the nation to go under. When the nation goes into interlocking systems of arrogance, discipline is inevitable. This may be our last year of peace. I think that we are still in the Communion service.

Bob wants all the uniformed guys stand. "You are looking at the basis of our freedom." Very shortly, we will have to fight a war.

Man was created to resolve the Angelic Conflict. We have free will in common with the angels. Free will was given the proper environment; and the only environment for the use of freedom is authority and order. This protects freedom from its distortion.

We are born rejecting authority. God resists the arrogant but gives grace to the humble. We enter into one of the gates and into the complex; and this is because we go back to Adam's original sin. All personal sins in the human race are not the basis of our condemnation. Adam's original sin is the basis for our condemnation. Our personal sins are collected by the justice of God and judged.

The next decade may be filled with crises and we might all be removed by the fifth cycle of discipline. We have come to that point in our national history. There was an attack planned by Russia against western Europe.

By the Word of Jehovah, the heavens were made, and all of their host were made by the breath of His mouth. Bible doctrine is called the Word of God here. Speaking merely represents what is thought. Bible doctrine is the thinking of Jesus Christ. The universe all around us is the word of the Lord Jesus Christ. Bible doctrine is even closer to Jesus Christ than the word that brought everything into being. "There are people here who are smirking...they are held in their seats by the laws of gravity."

The scientific laws are based on the statistical likelihood that the observed laws will continue. Science cannot initiate or enforce scientific laws. They are God's laws.

With the greatest of effort, man travels to the dead moon; but God set into motions all of the universe and huge bodies moving at incredible rates of speed. Man was placed into an environment of order and sets of authorities.

Psalm 33:6 Through the Word of Jehovah the heavens were made; and all their host were made by the breath of His mouth.

He accumulates in a mass, the celestial seas. The Lord has the power to keep His Word. The Communist conquests over the past few decades have been phenomenal, but God has kept them in check. The scientific hallucinations of a few buttons being pressed and the world is destroyed are just nonsense. Our history will continue as long as the Lord wills it. Human arrogance and the plan of God. Communism is arrogance with violence; socialism, the welfare state are all approaches of human arrogance.

We would not be here tonite if man had his way. He stores in warehouses the roaring deep.

Psalm 33:7 The waters of the sea were gathered like a heap, setting the depths in storehouses.

Respect and reverence in yare. Most people think that marriage is the ultimate happiness, but marriage is a state of authority. It is not a state of happiness or unhappiness. Sex is a ritual, and sex without love is meaningless. Most people—featherbrained females—think that they will be wildly happy with marriage and it surprises them that they are not.

Jussive in the Hebrew, which expresses the desire of the writer.

Some of you have no respect for the Lord at all, and that is why we have half-time, so that those of you who have no interest in God, you can get out of here. Some are so impressed with nature, but not impressed with Jesus Christ.

We should have hundreds of nuclear power plants because it is the safest form of energy there is. But, we are dragging our feet. We are trying to admire nature rather than the source of nature. We ought to be up to our ears in nuclear plants.

The source of WWII is going to be oil and things like that.

Russians want to guarantee Iranian oil for themselves and that is why they have invaded Afghanistan. This is not a minor invasion. Carter, in his typical jackass manner, says, "We will back Pakistan." If we cannot go in and grab a few hostages in Iran with an air strike, then we cannot back Pakistan.

The human race should avoid Rousseau. The human race is more impressed with the creation than with the Creator. The more mankind understands spiritual principles, the greater is his respect and fear for Almighty God. Fear and respect of God that leads to grace orientation. This avoids the pitfalls of interlocking systems of arrogance. Those without respect for God cannot avoid the interlocking systems of arrogance. If you have a lack of respect for God and the very function of the universe, the laws of God, the rotation of the earth and the sun, and how these continue. Appreciation for simply things like time and space are beyond some people because they are disoriented to authority. They lack capacity for love and happiness.

This verb is a recognition of what God is. The believer who advances to maturity means occupation with the Person of Christ. Truth is the objective factor which avoids the arrogance complex. Laws of divine establishment for unbeliever and believer.

Qal imperfect of be a guest???? Inhabitants of the world.

The way to be happiest at a party is to be a guest. The host and hostess have all of the responsibilities. The Lord is our Host; He will provide everything that we need. Friends, loved ones, everything in life that is worthwhile and meaningful. The Lord Jesus Christ is our Host and we are guests in His kingdom; and we have great privileges. We do not have to worry about tomorrow's food.

Party which lasted a week and Bob rode along with his father to get more champagne, going from Chicago to New York. As a host, Bob's father had to get things going and to take care of these things.

The ruler of this world tries to destroy all of those things which are wonderful to us.

Being a guest is being able to enjoy logistical grace at the hand of Jesus Christ. All that we have is permitted and given to us by Jesus Christ. If we place these things over Bible doctrine, then God will either remove it from us or allow it to make us miserable.

To be a guest means the Lord provides everything. Grace is the integrity of God including His righteousness and justice. All of this grace comes from half of His integrity. They flow down through the righteousness pipe. With maturity, we can be a recipient of supergrace blessing. For us to survive as a nation is for us to be turned toward Jesus Christ in His Word. We can only become a guest by being born-again. Grace is a policy when God is a Host and not a judge (in relationship to us). Grace is the hospitality of God toward us.

Psalm 33:8 Let all the earth fear Jehovah; let all those living in the world stand in awe of Him [to be His guests].

The Lord spoke and everything came into being. The voice which brought the universe into existence is the same voice which sustains the believer in the devil's world. Admiral Stockdale 7 years a prisoner in Vietnam, and in one year, he was beat fiercely daily. He was tortured in every way and would not cooperate. We will face grace difficulties and those of us who become psychotic will fall prey to psychotic arrogance. We had the opportunity for doctrine and we failed. He commanded and the earth stood fast. Because the law of gravity stands fast, we do not fly out of our seats. Col. 1:17 He is before all things and by means of Him, all things are held together. The invisible Word of God is the basis for our entire function.

Psalm 33:9 For He spoke, and it came into being; He commanded, and it stood fast.

We can choose God's plan or our own plan. Some of us are planning a lifetime of happiness and we are relating it to a person. Whatever is first in our scale of values...

The first verb is the Hiphil perfect of pur. The Hiphil means to be frustrated [because something is broken].

The worst thing which happened to India is when the British left. The Russians have been concerned that someone will study history and figure out that, although Russia cannot be conquered from the west, they can be conquered from the east (on many occasions). They will make sure that this never happens again. They must neutralize the Chiacoms. We have plans which are arrogance.

Everywhere we turn, we have plans. If your plans coincide with God's then you are on doctrine; if they do not, then you will be frustrated. God frustrates the plans of nations. Jesus Christ controls history and he frustrates the plans.

Those who have conspiracies are preoccupied with themselves. There are those which involve violence and some are just done with gossip and maligning.

Concluding Principles on Arrogance and Plans

1. The plans of nations, if carried out, would destroy the freedom of the human race and destroy all categories of truth.
2. The plans of the Chinese or Russian block would result in worldwide slavery.
3. Most of such plans are simply arrogance.
4. Such plans like socialism and communism and welfare-state-ism and the redistribution of wealth and the equality of man are arrogance. They believe that man by man's efforts can solve man's problems.
5. This is why all liberals are arrogant. They believe their ideas to be the panacea.
6. You cannot divorce and arrogant principle from an arrogant function. This is why marriages fail; love fails, etc.
7. This explains why the fags are recognized as human beings. This is why people are more concerned for the criminal than the function of justice. Canada is repopulated with the hippies of this country.
8. Degeernatio is living in the interlocking systems of arrogance.
9. All conspiracies reject authority and are therefore arrogant. Whether national, personal, collective.
10. All rejection of authority is arrogance.
11. Authority is a legitimate doctrine and a part of freedom.
12. Freedom cannot exist without authority.
13. Freedom is not an isolated thing. There are 4 concepts related to freedom: authority, freedom as a principle, privacy and property. The human race was created with freedom in order to resolve the Angelic Conflict. The right of the individual to possess property and to enjoy privacy. Authority is God's order and God's power. Freedom and equality cannot co-exist. The conspiracies of people is always directed against freedom. Man uses his own freedom to advance or to fail. Freedom is the reality; equality is a myth. Equality is the device the conspiracy of the arrogance complex and the battle cry of the degenerate. The conspiracy of the arrogant is the evil of national policy. Freedom and authority are two sides of the same coin. For those positive toward doctrine and reach the pivot, there are great rewards in the resurrection bodies. Those negative toward doctrine will have warning and then intensified discipline. They will wind up in heaven with a resurrection body only. Freedom in life determines the great inequalities in heaven. Everyone will have a resurrection body and that is the end of equality right there. Without freedom, we have zombies. Everyone is a moron. Freedom and equality cannot coexist.

Degeneration destroys freedom. Arrogance is childishness and immaturity. The greater the arrogance the greater the lack of freedom. Anarchy, power struggle, etc. are the result of no freedom.

Psalm 33:10 Jehovah voids the counsel [frustrates the plans] of the nations, He frustrates the thoughts of the peoples [brings to nothing the conspiracies of people].

2nd half of New Year's service 1979:

"We were going to have the orchestra for an hour after the service, but we have lost the bubble machine."

An article how we could rescue our hostages and our abilities to pull this off. We lack one key element, the will to carry it out. He gives exactly how this could be done. He is a military type from Fort Hood.

We have a do-nothing president with the inability to make a decision. This is an act of great cowardice to let anyone from the United States languish overseas.

Psalm 33:10 Jehovah voids the counsel [frustrates the plans] of the nations, He frustrates the thoughts of the peoples [brings to nothing the conspiracies of people].

The conspiracies include arrogance and loss of freedom. He becomes degenerate, vulnerable to the other gates in the interlocking systems of arrogance. Negative volition toward doctrine can result in reversionism.

The ascendancy of God's plan. This is the only thing of significance. Feminine singular noun from etsah does not mean counsel but plan.

It is all about doctrine; whether you survive or not, it is all about doctrine. We are so filled with arrogance, that it is almost beyond stating it. We have the gay party and women's lib and all over it is arrogance.

Why deliver a client nation unless there are mature believers in that client nation? When you crack the maturity barrier, those related to you are blessed by association. You also have historical impact, particularly when combined with other mature believers in the client nation. Survival depends upon believers dedicated to the perception of Bible doctrine on a daily basis. A perfect plan can only originate from a perfect God. There are no weak links in God's plan. This is because man can do nothing for blessing in God's plan. The plan of God is as perfect as God is and it is as permanent as God is.

Prov. 8:1–11 [Does not doctrine cry out? Does not understanding raise her voice? On the heights beside the way, at the crossroads she takes her stand; beside the gates in front of the town, at the entrance of the portals she cries aloud: "To you, O men, I call, and my cry is to the children of man. O simple ones, learn prudence; O fools, learn sense. Hear, for I will speak noble things, and from my lips will come what is right, for my mouth will utter truth; evil is an abomination to my lips \[doctrine does not teach that which is false\]. All the words of my mouth are righteous; there is nothing twisted or crooked in them. They are all integrity to him who understands, and right to those who find knowledge. Take my instruction instead of silver, and knowledge rather than the finest gold, for doctrine is more valuable than jewels, and all that you may desire cannot compare with her.](#)

“Doctrine is more attractive than the average whore. I see some of you are listening.”

This is doctrine soliciting. A high place in the road is where audience could be gathered.

Prov. 8:12–21 "I, wisdom, dwell with prudence, and I find knowledge and discretion. The fear of the LORD is hatred of evil. Pride and arrogance and the way of evil and perverted speech I hate. I have counsel and sound wisdom; I have insight; I have strength [honor is mine]. By me kings reign, and rulers decree what is just; by me princes govern, and nobles, all who govern justly [including all righteous judges]. I love those who love me, and those who seek me diligently find me. Riches and honor are with me, enduring wealth and righteousness. My fruit is better than gold, even fine gold, and my yield than choice silver. I walk in the way of righteousness, in the paths of justice, granting an inheritance to those who love me, and filling their treasuries.

With authority and doctrine, you march.

Pro 8:22–31 "The LORD possessed me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of old. Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth. When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water. Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth, before He had made the earth with its fields, or the first of the dust [atoms?] of the world. When He established the heavens, I was there; when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, when He made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep, when He assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when He marked out the foundations of the earth, then I was beside him, like a master workman, and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the children of man.

Bible doctrine must be the life of the believer.

David was one of the world's worst fathers. He became a great father to Bathsheba's sons, which is after he was age 50 or so. If a father can give a son one piece of advice, it is concentrate of Bible doctrine.

Pro 8:32–36 "And now, O sons, listen to me [this was David speaking to his sons]: blessed are those who keep my ways. Hear instruction and be wise, and do not neglect it. Blessed is the one [Happinesses to those] who listens to me, watching daily at my gates, waiting beside my doors. For whoever finds me finds life and obtains favor from the LORD, but he who fails to find me injures his own soul; all who hate me love [the sin unto death] death."

Mental attitude of positive volition.

Back to Psalm 33

Psalm 33:11 [Jehovah's counsel \[plan\] stands forever, the thoughts of His heart to all generations.](#)

The divine plan. There are happinesses which God to the nation who trust in Jehovah Elohim. This is not just any miscellaneous god; this is Jehovah. These are happinesses to gentile nations; the word is goy. The laws of divine establishment provide internal and external security. The government and its power are used to stabilize the nation via doctrine. and wisdom.

God knows every thought and every action of every person throughout history; and He knows all alternatives and their subsequent results. Foreknowledge, predestination and the rest. Foreknowledge only deals with what historically occurs in thought and action; predestination is the plan of God brought out in every way. Election is the issue here; election to privilege is the better way of putting it. Half of divine integrity. All of the logistical support we will need and we have been elected. And the people He has elected.

Psalm 33:12 [Blessed is the nation \[Happinesses to the nation\] whose God is Jehovah, the people He has elected \[to privilege\] for His inheritance.](#)

The final paragraph covers the concept that Jesus Christ controls history, which we will study tomorrow night. Bob gives the corrected translation. From the heavens, Jehovah has looked down and He has seen all mankind. He Who forms the right lobes of all the human race sees all of their works. No king is delivered by a great army...the warhorse is strong delusion for victory; by His strength, He cannot deliver...rescue their souls from death and keep them alive in economic depression. Our souls wait in confidence for the Lord; He is our aide and our defense. Our right lobes will rejoice in Him...

This is what we will study tomorrow night and conclude the challenge for 1980 at that time.

2Samuel 11

Psalm 33:13-17 72David

631_0256

January 1st, 1980

Bob is looking at the first page of the Houston Post. There is a deadline given to Iran to release the hostages or to face the cutoff of international trade. So what. Pitiful. The United Nations is a pitiful arrogant group.

Russia could take 100,000 casualties and not blink an eye. Another headline, Carter finds out the Brezhnev lied about Afghanistan; Carter needs to get his head out of his hymnal. If Carter would take a look, he has no military to back up what he says.

Then you go lower. A cab driver locked in a trunk of a car for 2 days.

Then, on the right hand corner and shrunk into a little space, economic indicators drop. The outlook for the U.S. economy dims. Most people who have their finger on the pulse of business say there will be two good quarters and then all hell will break loose. Worst

2 monthly drop since the 74-75 recession. Our inflation spiral and big government functions have just about destroyed the economy.

Coming up in our passage, in v. 19, ...to rescue their souls in death and to deliver them from famine... Famine is economic depression.

The arrogance of this country has gone beyond all boundaries. The arrogance of the gay movement, of the criminal, of women's lib, or racism; everywhere you turn, we are locked in to arrogance. This is the first sign of divine discipline as Bob has noticed.

Wherever you find the word famine, it is actually a reference to a recession or depression in an agricultural economy. Jesus Christ promised many wars and many depressions. Depression manifests man's total function of the old sin nature. Since the Bible advocates free enterprise, any violation of this law through sin or human good. Human good starts a depression by trying to solve the problems of scum. Violate the laws of divine establishment, there will be a depression or a recession.

Attack of government on the automotive industry and on the oil and gas industry. 15% of the people in this country are paying the bills for government immorality. The mature believer will be delivered from economic depression or famine. Job 5:20. Psalm 33:19 37;18–19 in days of economic depression, they will have abundance. The freedom from the arrogance complex is an extremely important principle.

The Soviet's army's latest build up. An article from Major Howard. Short haircuts and no beards. This aspect is amazing. People with mustaches and beards are like women with hairdos. The troops in Afghanistan, it is the same thing.

When they lose their officers, they are unable to function, unlike Americans. Then Bob started thinking about football players. There is an arrogance in our land unlike any other. The manifestations are so widespread that it is phenomenal. It is very striking and very professional when there is no facial hair. There is no way that you can be as dedicated as they are and as individualized as all having various types of facial hair.

God Uses Economic Depression

1. Politicians and religious leaders all promise no depression; they tell you not to worry. "Misfortune will never come our way," they say. We will not see the sword or famine. There will be a lot of this particularly in an election year.
2. Just before Judah went down under the fifth cycle of discipline, for 10 years, the leaders were all promising world peace forever and no depression and no military attack. Then they were destroyed by depression followed by a military attack.
3. Economic depression is used to test believers for the place of doctrine in their lives and for the logistical grace rationale.
4. Economic depression is used as a divine punishment for degeneration and for reversionism. Isa. Jer. 14:15–16 15:1–2 "Even if Moses and Samuel stood before Me and pleaded, I would destroy this people." Moses and Samuel did the same thing. Those destined for economic depression, will suffer it. Those destined for slavery will live out their lives in slavery. 17:17–19 there is no man on the political scene who can deliver this country. Jer. 29:17–19 God is sending military and economic disaster and disease. Rotten figs, when they hit the ground go plop and they split open and are not edible. “There are people who came here tonight that I don’t know where you came from. You, sonny boy, stop looking around; if you aren’t interested, look straight ahead.” I will intensify economic discipline on you; I will break your staff of bread. “Without Bible doctrine, you are the worst drag in the world. Unless you develop a little self-discipline, you are going out in the next cycle of discipline. You have to think about more than your own pitiful self.”

The omniscience of the Lord Jesus Christ is described below. This means to see and to know exactly what is going on in your minds. Jehovah looked down billions of years ago and knew every thought and every decision and every action of every person who will live throughout history. From the heavens, Jehovah looks down and He sees all of mankind. Time has nothing to do with God’s knowledge. He possesses self-consciousness and self-determination.

God existed eternally, unsustained by any other source, including Himself. He precedes time and space, which He invested. His thinking is not subject to time and space.

The self-knowledge of God is not difficult. The 2nd category is omniscience and the 3rd is?

God has perfect knowledge of the other members of the Trinity. God’s objective knowledge of the universe. Inside the computer is the knowledge of His decrees. His omniscience also knows all of the alternatives. His foreknowledge simply acknowledges that which will occur. The omniscience of God feeds the facts into the computer.

All things are subordinated to the plan of God. With Him, nothing can occur; even the destruction of the United States.

Psalm 33:13 Jehovah looks down from Heaven; He sees all the sons of mankind.

Psalm 33:14 From His dwelling place He looks on all the ones living in the earth.

Psalm 33:15 He forms the heart; He understands all their works.

Human viewpoint is not the solution. The prominence of liberal concepts from interlocking systems of arrogance results in degeneracy. Millions of people in southeast Asia have died horrible deaths because we were not united on this war. This destroys the ability of a people to... They are arrogant and degenerate. Degeneracy from interlocking systems of arrogance result from liberalism. That is degeneracy. Liberalism is degeneracy.

Our president is so arrogant as to send someone into Iran to depose the Shah, one of the greatest men of Iran. He tried to tell Rhodesia how to run their country and they are more honorable than we are. South Africa has handled their problems with much more thoughtfulness about the men in the bush than we do; we are arrogant from top to bottom.

Bitterness is arrogance. We can no longer be delivered by our military establishment. You need to have every 18 year old man in the armed forces. We do not even have a mobilization plan. You cannot have an M plan without universal military training. No king can be delivered by a great army. Arrogance sets aside the laws of divine establishment and God resists the proud and He gives grace to the humble.

Gabor refers to a hero and a muscle man; a man of strength. He can be a soldier or a muscle man. A strong man is arrogance when he depends upon his physical strength. Bob's dad gave him a silver dollar for every guy he whipped. He was put in touch with Kid McCoy. Getting together in gangs give someone double-arrogance. He depends upon his own ability; his arrogance is in his strength. The weak mind is not someone who is stupid, but someone who depends upon his own strength.

The arrogance of soul neutralizes muscles and even neutralizes beauty. An arrogant soul neutralizes talent. No king is delivered by a great army.

The vermach of WWII was one of the best staffed and best organized armies in history. But it was defeated in WWII. Napoleon at Waterloo.

Psalm 33:16 The king is not saved by great force; a mighty man is not saved by great strength.

Today we have an automobile, but then, they had the horse. Victory rests with the Lord.

Robert E. Lee and Jackson had a better understanding of this principle than anyone else. The horse represented the greatest military equipment. The horse represents fleeing to safety, so the horse is security in times of crisis. The horse is a deception in victory.

Strong delusion is rejection of truth in 3 categories. The warhorse is a delusion with regards to victory. You cannot be delivered by the greatness of a nation. Our solution in a national crisis is a spiritual one. Without Bible doctrine there can be no pivot and without the pivot, there can be no deliverance.

The election of 1980 is going to distract you. You think that you will need to go to a nice sweet brotherly love church. We are past the place of being delivered by some human viewpoint thing.

Psalm 33:17 A horse is a vain thing for safety; nor does he save by his great strength.

2Samuel 11

Psalm 33:18-22 72David

631_0257

All this is because David is in interlocking systems of arrogance. Self righteous arrogant person is just as bad as a lewd adulterous person. They are both in the same interlocking systems of arrogance.

GAP in the Old Testament did not include the filling of the Holy Spirit. Only in the Millennium and the Church Age is every believer filled with the Holy Spirit.

Moses, Elijah and David were all in interlocking systems of arrogance. They were ultra super grace believers before they went in and when they came out. What ruins the ultra super grace is the interlocking systems of arrogance.

Shout with happiness to the Lord; a psalm fitting for those who have integrity. For the Word of the Lord is integrity; the Word of the Lord is truth. Therefore, the earth is filled with the grace of the Lord. By the Word of the Lord, the heavens were made. Let all of the earth respect the Lord; let all the people of the world be His guests. He spoke and it came to be; He commanded...He neutralizes the conspiracies of people. The plan of God stands forever. Happinesses to the nation...from the heavens, the Lord has looked; He has seen all mankind. No king is delivered by a great army; a strong man is not delivered by great strength. The war horse is a strong delusion for victory.

The national deliverance of the pivot. The plan of God rationale; and the logistical grace rationale. Rebound uses the imputation of sin rationale. Faith uses a doctrinal conclusion. This is critical for any believer who is going to do well in a crisis.

We have spent some time on what is love; which is a capacity, which is resident in the soul. Respect is the fundamental aspect of love. Adam's original sin is imputed to us; which was a rejection of authority. People run about saying, "I love Jesus" tittering. A feather-brained female that Bob knew that would say "I love Jesus" 3 times a day. It never occurs to them that love is thought and not emotion.

Doctrinal thinking is the thinking of Jesus Christ. The eyes of the Lord refer to the 3 categories of God's thinking: omniscience and foreknowledge. The Qal stem means to be in pain; but the Piel is to trust in pain. When you are under pressure and you trust His grace, that is quite different than during times of prosperity.

Psalm 33:18 Behold the eye of Jehovah is to those who fear-respect Him, on those who trust and hope in His grace;

Famine is economic depression. The rescue is that God must bring about certain events to pull you out of disaster. This is different from the wall of fire concept, where we are protect.

The mature believer who stays too long in interlocking systems of arrogance and if he is hooked up for too long with the 3rd gate, he is in trouble. Joab had the same conflict that we saw last week; the difference between loyalty versus integrity. Joab missed the boat because of interlocking systems of arrogance.

It is the body which dies in physical death. The soul is the residence of human life and the spirit is the residence of eternal life. The reason the soul is mentioned is, we die when the soul leaves the body. Our heart may not be pumping, but death is a zero EEG rather than a zero EKG. Nothing will take our soul as long as God has a purpose for us. This includes nuclear warfare and all of the dangers of Communism + the dangers of driving in Houston + the air we breathe. It is only when God decides that it is time for us to come home. We may see a lot of death; but we will not experience it until God calls us home. Bitterness is arrogance. The Lord gives and the Lord takes away; blessed be the name of the Lord. Someone might have maltreated us, lied about us, etc.; if we are bitter, then we are in the interlocking systems of arrogance. Bitterness is arrogance under pressure. Jealousy is arrogance under pressure.

The Piel here acts as the causative. God will keep the believer alive in economic disaster. This is personal deliverance. Kings cannot be delivered by great armies; the strength of a man cannot save him; the greatest army cannot save a nation. Psalm 20:7–8

Psalm 33:19 to rescue their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine.

V. 20–22: faith claims a promise; faith in reverse concentration applying doctrine, and doctrinal conclusion which places the believer in charge of the situation.

The Lord sees fit to keep mature believers alive during a catastrophe. Situations appear to be hopeless. The soul needs to think under pressure. The thoughts are formed, rationale form, logical form; the greater our ability to think under pressure, the greater our ability to apply and to clear the decks for action.

Bob talks about a boring game. When you claim a promise, you are going back to the most basic thing. Bob illustrates this with a coach telling a football player to throw away the ball rather than to be tackled. This was something his junior high school coach told him. You go back to the most basic promise that you can remember. Just as Coach Bill gave this football player the simplest instruction, the fundamentals, it got through to the quarterback. You have to be able to think in terms of something that you know.

I raise my ebezer = I raise my rock of help.

Mogan David wine label; a mispronunciation of the Hebrew word for shield. Being able to think is the key. He is my help and He is my shield. This is how people recover from fear.

Ike refused to go to Berlin, and he had great moral courage not to. He had the courage in the White House to do nothing, which is what a president ought to do. He had the courage to fight inflation in a way that made him unpopular.

Deut. 33:29: blessed are you, O Israel; who is like you? Delivered by the Lord, the shield of your help. The major disaster is being unable to think when under pressure. You must start with your own soul. We may have disease, we may have war, we may have economic disaster. We need to be able to think under pressure. Impulse courage. Emotions do not carry us very far.

More football illustrations. Bob admires the back who hands the ball to the referee. But the person who does his little dance, watch him the next time he gets hit.

Psalm 33:20 Our soul waits for Jehovah; He is our help and shield.

2nd stage; faith applies doctrine. Integrity + loyalty to these principles = honor. The expression of happiness uses the rationales for reverse concentration. Imputation rationale. All of these things make for greatness. Our talents are inconsequential.

The right lobe rejoicing is being able to put together a rationale. Trust is slamming your problems on the Lord.

People want to bring the love of God into all of their problems. God's love is objectively applied to the other members of the Trinity; and subjectively to His Own righteousness.

Human love is different; it must be sustained by emotion, physical attraction and we demand an object. God's love does not require an object. Mankind misapplies his own love concepts to God. God does not love the human race. There is the anthropathism of love, as in, God loves a cheerful giver.

We will later examine bearable and unbearable discipline. In each installment is testing designed for blessing. No matter how normal a person was before, this can turn Christians psycho, by entering into the interlocking systems of arrogance. There are even the 2% squirrels in Berachah. Greatness and integrity can only be recovered going through installment discipline. The end result is a greater integrity than before.

Righteousness is the principle of integrity and justice is the function of God's integrity. God's attributes stand without any help from man or angel.

One of the most unusual rationale is the essence of God rationale. This frees us from the interlocking systems of arrogance. God cannot tempt; He cannot sin; He cannot have absurdities in His character; He can be self-limiting, as in the incarnation. Infinity is show in all that He does. Divine motive is for self-motive is divine glory, which is claimed in the name of absolute truth. God does not hold the truth as being acquired, but He is the truth from eternity past.

God protects us from distractions, but we are still free to be distracted.

Psalm 33:21 For our heart rejoices in Him because we trust in His holy name [honorable essence].

Doctrinal conclusion. This is a petition or a prayer. "O Lord, let Your grace be upon us." Any of these rationales brings us to the petition. Jesus Christ controls history. It is the supergrace believer in the pivot by which a nation is delivered.

Category #3 is blessing by association and category #4 is national deliverance? God is going to deliver a nation in all of its arrogance because God owes the mature believer deliverance. God loves His righteousness. God will deliver our nation because we have category #3 and category #4 blessing.

Mechanics of deliverance are related to blessing by association on one hand and national deliverance on the other. Grace deliverance for the client nation is only possible if there is a pivot of grace believers. We are in interlocking systems of arrogance; we are apostate; we are arrogant.

The national deliverance does not mean that all of the proud and arrogant will still be alive. But we will never run out of creeps. There is always blessing by association. We'll always have creeps and squirrels.

Children, parents, grandparents; it is amazing what one mature believer does to carry and army of creeps. The 7000 who did not bow the knee to Baal had a whole lot of friends and relatives who were delivered. Historical impact just reaches out and takes them all in. It is airtight. Now who will be in the pivot tomorrow and the next day.

This is honor category #3. I have relatives and business partners and friends; and honor category #3 and category #4 so that I can continue to live my life and have more parties and Christmases with these jackasses. That is what the psalmist is saying. The person who lives in the ivory tower thinks of grace as something which just drops down and makes everything nice.

When you are a mature believer, your prayers become more meaningful and powerful. You come into contact with reality; the horrors of human good and the sin nature. The biggest problems for us are our solutions.

Where is the grace? Those people who are your friends and relatives and they criticize you for going to church all of the time; and they are the ones who are problematic.

One of the greatest pressures in the world is for a minister to run over in a service; and we are only 15 min. over time.

Psalm 33:22 Let Your grace be upon us, O Jehovah, even as we trust in You.

2Samuel 11:18

631_0258

David sent Joab and his entire staff and they annihilated the entire army of Ammon...from the battlements, David saw a woman taking a bath, so he sent and inquired about the woman. David sent the official government pimps and took her. Then she purified herself and returned to her home. She consequently became pregnant, so she sent a message to David. Uriah slept in the gatehouse barracks of the castle; therefore, he did not go down to his quarters.

Integrity is loyalty to principle in 3 categories of truth. Integrity is loyalty to the right principle.

Every function of every organization demands honor. Personality is a problem with any organization larger than 3; and sometimes even with 2.

Every person has a right to their own privacy. The Baptist dilemma. They define 3 things as sin, but they have no concept of their own lives. They typify someone who is nosy. They are gossips and maligners and judges of others. Some have left Berachah and they stick their nose into other people's business. Loyalty to David versus integrity to the officer's honor code.

We have a lack of national integrity today. We have foreign policy by which we destroy our friends and help our enemies. Integrity is loyalty to the right principle. No one can have integrity and be ignorant. The same principle applies to a nation in principle. A business requires more lawyers than anything else.

The world was filled with mercenaries of those who wanted to go all over the world. In a good system, race is never an issue. Minorities have a very serious problem today. So many of them make an issue of the color of their skin.

David did a smile and smirk; "Did you not come in from a march?" Uriah is not impressed even by his commanding officer.

You women need to recognize that you are second to your man's business or job. It does not matter if this job is humble or great.

Down from the battalions is a gate. Joab had to choose between loyalty to David and loyalty to good tactics.

Qal imperfect of shallach indicates that this is a regular report which comes in on a weekly basis. It comes in to David's headquarters.

Naga means that there was a written report. A tactical summary, report on the strategical situation; it is a complete and thorough report. There is only one person with a rank over Joab and that is David. David is very particular about reports. For a defeat, a disaster or unnecessary casualties, David turned into a tiger and heads rolled and David chewed them out. He was careful in all areas of military life. He was one of the most carefully men about logistics of all time. He was a good commander. People knew that they could trust David with their lives. There were no complaints to David about casualties. For 40 years, David had one of the greatest armies in the world.

By way of application, fundamental Christians have a tendency to be sloppy and inefficient. There is no excuse for a believer who takes in Bible doctrine to be inefficient in a simple job or in a complex job. Find out what the standards are and exceed them. If there is anything which disturbs Bob, it is inefficiency. Bob has walked into many churches and has seen so many inefficiencies. He was appalled at the inefficiencies of T&P and the excuses for it. If it is a tough job, then you do it right. Bill Yeoman tells his men, "Pressure is a gift from God."

2Sam. 11:18 Then Joab sent and told David all the things concerning the war;

One of the worst things is for an army to be enfiladed from a good position. Joab is not the military genius that David is. Briefing instructions to the staff officer.

Often the briefest information was written and the staff officer would deliver much of it verbally. This way, if he is caught, he will die and not give up any info.

Joab is a great tactician. He is the most capable officer in the Jewish army. He followed a precedent of bad tactics. The Jewish army had a tactics manual.

2Sam. 11:19 and he charged the messenger, saying, "When you have made an end of telling all the things concerning the war to the king,

Joab knew that David would pound the table and chew out the staff officer because this is really bad tactics.

The finest assault troops of the Ammonite army. The people on the wall were able to throw all kinds of things; an empalad. There is a hanging flank. Uriah is commanding the organization and you never have a hanging flank under a wall. You always have flank security, one of the most important things in battle. All of these things are understood by the officers in David's army. So Joab knows David will be angry. No commander wants any sort of loss of life.

Nagash indicates that an assault was the plan. In obedience to David's orders, Joab looked for the best troops of the Ammonites. 2 flanks were exposed. When the platoon advanced, they were softening things up for the following companies. There was no order to take Delta and secure this gate. No flank security. A wall on one side and no reason for security there. They advance with a flank open; a dangling flank. There is an assault platoon. There is a reaction of a counterattack. But the other advancing...and Bob draws a bunch of stuff to explain what is going on.

The Qal perfect here means that this is actually written in the manual on tactics. Joab and that stupid battalion commander ought to know better to make a move like that without securing the flanks. Didn't you know they would shoot you from the wall?

Judges 9:50–59 we are going to look at a manual. Abimelech is the bastard son of Gibeon. Being involved in interlocking systems of arrogance is the problem; being a bastard is not the bastard's fault. Sometimes bastards are very touchy or hypersensitive about being bastards. When you are sensitive about it, you are in interlocking systems of arrogance. Abimelech was sensitive about being a bastard.

He felt like he would show everyone that he was worthy of being king and he killed off his 70 brothers. He not only succeeded in assassinating all but one. Jotham was delivered for being... This passage occurred 1000 years before. It is not how Uriah died and it is written up in the tactics manual as the way not to do things.

There was a parable; and 69 legitimate sons were killed, and one escaped. A dramatic siege and a classical illustration of how not to do it.

Judges 9:50: Then Abimelech went to Thebez and encamped against Thebez and captured it.

Judges 9:51 But there was a strong tower within the city, and all the men and women and all the leaders of the city fled to it and shut themselves in, and they went up to the roof of the tower.

Judges 9:52 And Abimelech came to the tower and fought against it and drew near to the door of the tower to burn it with fire.

It is the bastard who died 1000 years earlier. Well, a few hundred years earlier.

Judges 9:53 And a certain woman threw an upper millstone on Abimelech's head and crushed his skull.

He called for his aide to kill him so that he is not seen as killed by a woman.

Judges 9:54 Then he called quickly to the young man his armor-bearer and said to him, "Draw your sword and kill me, lest they say of me, 'A woman killed him.'" And his young man thrust him through, and he died.

These tactics were in the Word of God and also in David's field manual.

Judges 9:55 And when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, everyone departed to his home.

Uriah was killed in this same manner, but it was intentional.

David will have unbearable discipline for murder. In David's KER, Bathsheba is not even mentioned. The only thing mentioned is Uriah the Hittite.

He was called the bramble king because the women waved the brambles and someday, they would wave rocks at him; he would die at the hand of a woman. David determined this would be an excellent place where he could have Uriah killed. He reacted quickly.

2Sam. 11:20 it shall be that, if the king's wrath arise, and he tells you, 'Why did you go so near to the city to fight? Didn't you know that they would shoot from the wall?

The deliberate tactical blunder. "You are to say this and no more." It was anticipated how David would react. Joab knew David well. He knew what David would react. They are in the same profession and they know each other well. What Joab did was reprehensible, and David blows his cork over it; and Joab's man was to wait until David blows his cork, and then tell him, Uriah is dead.

Arrogance always quotes from the book. Have you ever been caught with your hand in the cookie jar and some self righteous person points out how you are wrong. Does this endear you to them?

Don't you recall what happened to Abimelech? Do not do something that stupid? Joab learned tactics from David. The poor staff officer is trying to figure all of this out. Joab knew what David was going to say; he'd quote from his own field manual.

Once you tell David Uriah is dead, he will shut up and let it go.

People are impressed by pious talk and people are impressed by it. Dummies are. Pious cant. There are a lot of frauds who use it every day.

This officer does not know what is going on. He is delivering a message, and Joab knows what David will say, and then tell him that Uriah died to, and then stand there and fix your eyes on a point.

As a staff officer, you cannot lose your poise. Staff officers who agree with people and disagree with people, but not for any of the right reasons.

We have a woman here all zipped up in her red parka and apparently she is freezing to death.

David could really care less about the casualties. You have a complete personality change. It may not be apparent on the outside. There is no remorse, no sense of integrity no sense of honor.

Military Ethics

1. David's callousness and disregard for his men is obvious. He has put his wives and mistresses in front of his profession. This destroys the man professionally. He has no integrity, no sense of honor.
2. This brings up the age-old problem of integrity versus loyalty. David is in interlocking systems of arrogance. Joab abuses his own authority by being loyal to David.
3. David is now in criminal arrogance. He is going to go into psychopathic arrogance. As an ultra super grace believer, if David can be psychotic, what keeps you from going that way? You cannot get into psychopathic arrogance and maintain a friendship. Getting into psychopathic arrogance comes from being so preoccupied with yourself and catering to yourself so that there is a loss of discipline; a loss of manners and of faithfulness. You want someone to admire you. Most people who are psychotic got that way through interlocking systems of arrogance. It is a spiritual problem.

4. There is no military ethic in the United States army today. Today, it is zero defects. It is arrogance to the core. It is maintaining one's position; career survival by good statistics. Any organization which does this is messtup. Lack of tolerance for mistakes, lying about body counts; lack of professionalism in Vietnam and they got ahead by dishonor. It is ticket punching and cya. Moral decency has gone into military arrogance.
5. You need trust, honor, commitment to the mission; ethical absolutism.

What is found here is the equivalent of situational ethics. Joab chose the latter and he became guilty by complicity. Joab will die with his powerful hands are holding onto the altar and his bowels and intestines will be cut out of his body.

Joab must share David's guilt. His personal standards and military ethics should have caused him to disobey this order. This failure of Joab has been repeated many times in many situations. Ethics have been completely and totally set aside.

2Sam. 11:21 who struck Abimelech the son of Jerubbesheth [Gideon's surname was Jerubbaal]? Didn't a woman cast an upper millstone on him from the wall, so that he died at Thebez? Why did you go so near the wall?' then shall you say, 'Your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.'"

2Samuel 11

72David

Book on North Africa and the relationship between Rommel and Hitler. Only a third of the Germans had good weapons. A third had no weapons; and a third were ill-equipped. The British outnumbered them. Montgomery still had trouble with them until he sent in the Aussies.

2Sam. 11:18–21 [Then Joab sent and told David all the news about the fighting. And he instructed the messenger, "When you have finished telling all the news about the fighting to the king, then, if the king's anger rises, and if he says to you, 'Why did you go so near the city \[wall\] to fight? Did you not know that they would shoot from the wall? Who killed Abimelech the son of Jerubbesheth? Did not a woman cast an upper millstone on him from the wall, so that he died at Thebez? Why did you go so near the wall?' then you shall say, 'Your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.'"](#)

Joab also faced loyalty versus integrity, same as what Uriah faced. Uriah passed and Joab failed this test.

Military Ethics

1. There is no code of ethics in any of the services? There are individual men with high standards. Not for the officer corps. We are suffering from MacNamara's stupidity or conspiracy. It amounts to undermining all the service corps. It is a principle of zero defects. The only way that we can be promoted with our peers is a perfect record; if you lose a point, you are immediately behind your peers. MacNamara invented this. It is called zero defects; a lack of tolerance for mistakes. You cannot make a mistake and survive as a career officer. This is the regular army and Navy. You cannot even follow the normal honor code system, e.g. unwilling to pass along bad news.

2. In Vietnam, there was a tremendous lack of professionalism and some were getting ahead with a faulty body count and success was in terms of the number killed. If it was better than the others, you were decorated and considered for promotion and you maxed out your OER.
3. This is called ticket punching today or cya.
4. The question arises, which is the highest military virtue. Officers do not sit around the officer's club and talk about military ethics.
5. List: Trust, honor, impartiality, humility, commitment to the mission, freedom from pride and arrogance. Being humiliated is not humility. Humility is freedom from pride and arrogance.
6. This list is military ethics and must be distinguished from leadership qualities.
7. In the context that we studied, what is found might be classified as situation ethics. David tried to get Uriah to disobey the honor code for situation ethics. That Joab complied brings up additional ethics. Should he have obeyed David or disobeyed him in this place? There is something to be said for both sides until you get down to battlefield facts.

Rommel was the only field officer to go up apart from staff. Von Paulus is some other one who planned Operation Barbarossa. Colonel General. Brilliant planner. This was the attack on Russia. He was given the 6th German army.

Hitler gave him the same command as he gave to Rommel. Told to stand fast and die. He decided that loyalty to the Fuhrer was more important than personal honor. 400,000 men. Hitler said, you stay there, and I will have Georing supply. They were starving and dying and eating their horses and eating each other.

We saved Communists. We supported Ho Chi Minh in going back into Vietnam.

8. Joab made the wrong decision and the court of heaven judged him for it. He became accessory to the fact.
9. Many casualties in this.
10. He violated personal integrity
11. Joab's loyalty to David was no excuse under military ethics. When there is a difference between your honor and an order, you follow your honor. This was a big issue in the war crimes trials. Apparently, only generals whose armies who warred against the civilians intentionally were prosecuted for war crimes.

12. In the higher echelons of command, there must be some flexibility to disobey a command. MacArthur faced the problem at the Yalu river. They had trucks and tanks; they could be hit from the air and MacArthur could cross. He could have disobeyed Truman and solved a lot of problems, and a lot of good Marines and Army died because he obeyed Truman instead of following his honor. People like Hitler and Carter are not trained in tactics and strategy. 4 star generals are not yes-men to civilians; particularly to stupid civilians.

Politicians will stand up with solemn expressions and blame it on the military when the fault is theirs. Eisenhower was one of the few men with great moral courage. He made the decision not to go to Berlin and Berlin belonged to the Russians. Churchill put pressure on everyone; why sacrifice 200,000 more troops if it was going to Russia anyway.

Only one nation has used nuclear weapons; Germans would have used them; they had just about finished them except they had heavy water problems. We had the moral courage to do it. It was the greatest thing in the world; a decision based upon honor and integrity. Joab's personal standards as a believer in Christ should have caused him to refuse an order which was conspiratorial. All great systems of military ethics have a flexibility system with regards to orders from above. All except for ours.

There was an outline of the tactical disaster where the Jewish army lost a battalion officer. There was a private briefing to David. There were details excluded which would have incriminating David, Joab and 3 other field officers. The staff officer was to brief David on certain details.

2Sam. 11:22 [Consequently, the staff officer departed and he came and reported to David all the Joab had sent him \[to report\].](#)

Only that which is pertinent to David's arrogance is covered here. There was a sortie made from the gate.

2Sam. 11:23 The messenger said to David, The men prevailed against us, and came out to us into the field, and we were on them even to the entrance of the gate.

A sequential set of verbs. When the platoon flank was made, they changed it to face it; they had archers on the wall. They shot down the few men left there.

Arrogance and the Mature Believer

1. The casualty report included Uriah the Hittite. He is the reason for the tragedy. The commander in chief is the reason for this tragedy. When you have a government which is in interlocking systems of arrogance, disaster is inevitable. This decade will go down as a great disaster period in American history. Total irresponsibility in the congress, white house and supreme court, all due to interlocking systems of arrogance. All of this will come to the point of chickens coming home to roost.

2. Interlocking systems of arrogance began conspiracy arrogance to mental arrogance then impulsive arrogance and finally criminal arrogance. David will get into psychopathic arrogance.
- 3.
4. Only the alert believer who is cognizant of the pertinent doctrine and constantly on guard against the subtleties of arrogance can survive. David did not survive this. As a mature believer, he decided that he did not need doctrine every day. He lost out on the principle of maintenance doctrine. This involves perpetuation of perception of doctrine. There must be the constant feeding of doctrine. It takes the doctrine you are using as maintenance and it is converted to rationales. The higher you go and there is promotion, success and prosperity. You need capacity for life. Some pastors figure, I have a barrel of a 1000 sermons, so they just go with these and stop studying. A lot of sins end up being a whole complex of sins. Narcotics and dope.
5. Some of the greatest believers in history have become enmeshed in interlocking systems of arrogance. Moses, David, Elijah and Paul
6. The ultra super grace believer can become involved in interlocking systems of arrogance. Totally apart from reversionism.
7. Most reversionists are also involved in interlocking systems of arrogance. The believer can become compromised by the interlocking systems of arrogance. Moses, Elijah and David were not negative.

Uriah the Hittite

1. The conspiracy could not have worked unless the Lord permitted it. Uriah was a wonderful and honorable believer. It was his time to go and he went out a very happy man out in dying grace. He did not hang around to see his wife fall in love with another man or to die of cancer. He went out magnificently and beautifully. He stood fast and died gloriously.
2. As a result of David's conquest of Jerusalem, Uriah, who had been the enemy, was given a battlefield commission, advanced to spiritual maturity.
3. Uriah enjoyed spiritual advance because he was positive toward doctrine. He had military recognition and decorations.
4. Uriah was married to one of the most famous and beautiful women in Israel and the granddaughter of Ahithophel.
  - a. She was the daughter of Eliam, a great officer. Eliam probably introduced Uriah to her. He will later coordinate the Absalom revolution. They both held the same decoration as the knight of the 3rd class.
5. Ahithophel was thought to be the smartest government administrator in Israel and he will be the real leader in the Absalom revolution.
6. Uriah's supergrace status will continue in death and he will be involved in dying grace.

2Sam. 11:24 The shooters shot at your servants from off the wall; and some of the king's servants are dead, and your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.

Bob was going to say a few words and then shut it down, because of the superbowl. Most of you need doctrine more than you need to see the game. For what will happen in that game, you need all the doctrine that you can get.

Uriah the Hittite's Death

1. As a mature believer, Uriah the Hittite was under dying grace.
2. Uriah's death was a matter of the sovereignty of God based upon His omniscience of all the facts. As long as God wanted to keep Uriah alive, God would have kept him alive. Psalm 68:19–20
3. Around Uriah the Hittite was a wall of fire from the provision of grace.
4. Uriah could have been delivered from his death, but God chose to bring him home. When we die as a mature believer, it is not be a tragedy. Psalm 116:8
5. Uriah would we delivered in death as he was in life. Psalm 102:19–20
6. Otherwise Psalm 116:8 would have applied. We are rescued from interlocking systems of arrogance during times of pressure.
7. However, none of these verses apply to Uriah the Hittite; it was time for him to go; the counterattack of the Ammonites was his time.
8. What did apply was Psalm 116:15: Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His Godly ones.
9. Philip. 1:20—21 applies: living is Christ and dying is profit.
10. While David had 2Sam. 23:49 awarded Uriah with the knight of the 3rd class, God gave him even a higher award.
11. Uriah is the only gentile male mentioned in the line of David to Christ. Matt. 1:6 Jesus Christ mentioned the one person who is not involved but is involved.
12. In this genealogy where Bathsheba should have been mentioned, she is not.
13. Instead, Uriah the Hittite is given the honor of being named in the line of Christ. He was given the highest place of honor.

How Do We Evaluate a Tragedy?

1. In the light of the teaching of doctrine, the death of other soldiers and Uriah must be viewed in 2 ways.
2. From the standpoint of God, Uriah's death must be regarded as a triumph.
3. From the standpoint of David, who is responsible for all of these deaths, it is a sin.
4. As accessories to the fact, David and Joab must be judged by what they did.
5. From the standpoint of the victims, this must be determined by divine viewpoint; it was the right time for them to die. Every person in the attack who died, it was the right time for them to die. Instead of killing them in separate tragedies, they all go down at one time.
6. With regard to every man in that battalion, they died honorably in battle. Job 1:21

7. Those who died with Uriah were blessed in death by leaving the world at exactly the right time.
8. Those responsible for their deaths will live a longer time and suffer great discipline because of it. God sometimes keeps people alive in order to complete their discipline on this earth. Furthermore, they have also deprived the sovereignty of God. Neither David nor Joab were assassinated. There will be installment discipline. There will be unbearable suffering as well as bearable installment discipline.
9. There is never a loss of blessing from the justice of God because of an early death.
10. David and Joab are believers and they can only be punished in time.
11. These co-conspirators would live a long time and be punished for a long time for their evil. Conspirators, tactical manipulation for the purpose of murder. This is not the first or the last time.
12. This tragedy must be evaluated from the divine viewpoint. There is a wall of fire about Uriah, and he will go out in a very glorious way. He will leave this life while killing a bunch of Ammonites, who should have deserted their degenerate king.

Those responsible for their deaths will live a much longer time and suffer over this time via installment discipline. However, if they had died, there would have been no discipline whatever. David will not die the sin unto death, but he will pay a very heavy price for interlocking systems of arrogance. He will pay through the nose in a very unusual way. Unbearable suffering; one year of psychotic arrogance. It is one of the most painful concepts of divine discipline.

It appears as if he has a premature death and a tragic death. Bob is happy to know Stalin and Hitler are both in hell and suffering now and will continue to do so.

Alpha, bravo and delta company withdrew while Uriah was engaged. There were those in Uriah's company, and they were all killed.

Joab knows what David would say and how upset he was.

2Sam. 11:19–24 [And he instructed the messenger, "When you have finished telling all the news about the fighting to the king, then, if the king's anger rises, and if he says to you, 'Why did you go so near the city to fight? Did you not know that they would shoot from the wall? Who killed Abimelech the son of Jerubbesheth? Did not a woman cast an upper millstone on him from the wall, so that he died at Thebes \[he was also caught in a dangling flank\]? Why did you go so near the wall?' then you shall say, 'Your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.'" So the staff officer went and came and told David all that Joab had sent him to tell. The messenger said to David, "The men gained an advantage over us and came out against us in the field, but we drove them back to the entrance of the gate. Then the archers shot at your servants from the wall. Some of the king's servants are dead, and your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also."](#)

2Sam. 11:24 The enemy archers shot at your servants from off the wall; and some of the king's servants are dead, and your servant [the battalion commander] Uriah the Hittite is dead also.

David is one of the greatest men who has ever lived. He entered into interlocking systems of arrogance by sexual arrogance and then got entangled in others gates that would not have confused him before. We will now see David's hypocrisy and arrogance. The decadence and incompetence and hypocrisy of Mr. Hyde.

David has a sudden change of heart. Suddenly, he is saying, tell Joab, don't worry about this. Things are okay.

The battle is indiscriminate; the good and the bad die together. This just happens. Don't worry about it. This is a bunch of stuff. This platoon was wiped out because of conspiracy. When they become involved in conspiracy, they immediately become involved in human viewpoint. This is not true. No one dies in battle unless the Lord permits. It is not true that the good, the bad and the ugly all die.

When people die, others say, "What a tragedy" but there are no tragedies. Bob used to regard Jackson's death by his own troops a tragedy; but manifest destiny kept this from happening. At Gettysburg, Jackson would have one. There had to be the unity of the entire country.

Major Whittle was a great evangelist, who evangelized after the war, and much occurred 1865–1885. This was God's time; and it was God's time to take Stonewall Jackson.

There is no such thing as a tragic death. To be overrun by the enemy is an honorable death. Uriah the Hittite received the highest decoration that God can give a believer in this life. He was placed in Matt. 1:6 forever.

Uriah wasn't killed by an upper millstone.

David was inside interlocking systems of arrogance and this is the first sign that he is in psychopathic arrogance. He became as squirrley as anyone you would ever know.

Let's take an unbeliever, like Hitler. Every time there was this great tactical envelopment; and they moved right in toward Moscow. They were moving in toward Kiev. They turned it all around and moved around behind Kiev. During that particular period, everyone in Biolistock and Mins loved the Germans; then they began to shoot civilians and the took the younger women and put them in the doll houses; and this whole area burned into one mass of guerilla warfare type. Every person who could walk talk or breathe turned on the Germans. They at first saw the Germans as their deliverers from communism; and then Hitler, psychotic as he was, ordered annihilation.

Normally, heads would roll when something like this happens, but not this time. David excuses it because of the conspiracy.

David should have removed Joab from his command for incompetence, but his incompetence was because of David.

Honor demands that these other battalions not withdraw with their people at the wall.

Hypocrisy is a cover for incompetence in business, in any profession, including the ministry; and this is why incompetent people rise to the top. They are incompetent, but they know how to flatter and how to play the fool and go to the top.

Also important to notice the self righteous arrogance.

David's Hypocrisy

1. David's self righteous arrogance + his blind arrogance cast him in the roll as the noble commander-in-chief. It was like Carter wringing his little hands when the hostages were taken in Iran. Carter gave no orders to protect any of our people and equipment. The right equipment should be ready to deal with a crowd. The popularity of this president has gone up because of his self righteous arrogance. The national council of churches think he is doing good.
2. David covers up his plan by acting pious and magnanimous and suggesting that he forget it and move on to victory. This does not make for efficiency in the military.
3. In reality, we are looking at the decadence and self-centeredness of being trapped in the interlocking systems of arrogance. There is total failure here of David as a military leader.
4. David, the man after God's own heart, has become a monster of arrogance, hypocrisy and evil. This applies to every part of life.
5. One theologian called this passage the inscrutable development of many individual sins from one hidden root, which is not bad. Interlocking systems of arrogance explains this and is the secret to the whole problem. This is the basic reason for personality change for members of the human race. His volition combines with interlocking systems of arrogance to be a degenerate believer; and they can be positive or negative, young or old, and degeneracy is not the same is reversionism. The first can be done with those positive toward Bible doctrine.
6. The malfunction of the 3 stages of the faith rest drill is the degenerate.
- 7.
8. The principle: the hypocrisy of self righteousness is a cover for the degeneracy of arrogance. This is what happens in Bible schools and where Christians cluster.

2Sam. 11:25 Then David said to the messenger, "Thus shall you tell Joab, Don't let this thing [this tactical defeat] displease you [lit., be evil in your eyes; do not let this upset you], for the sword devours one as well as another [que sera sera]; make your battle more strong against the city, and overthrow it: and encourage you him."

In v. 26 we will find a woman extremely in love with her husband, who is in confusion; the dying grace rationale; and when to cry and when not to.

Some poor call at a football game. The unfairness was not why Houston lost the game. What is not seen is more important than what is seen. You cannot win a football game without a good offense, and the key is a good offensive line, and they make all of the difference. The Pittsburgh defensive line played in the backfield of Houston because their offensive line was so weak.

A politician gives a good speech and Thieme is amazed. It is the line that always makes the difference. It is not what we appear to be on the outside; it is not the clever remarks, the scintillating personality; it is the doctrine that counts.

The Communists can lose 10,000 in Afghanistan and it means very little. They can afford that. If we lost that many men, we'd be ruined. All of these yellow bellies and cowards need to be collected off the streets and drafted. Bob considers himself an average backfield player and he understood it was the front line that makes the difference.

You can pick out various parts of a woman that you like, like the windshield or the hubcaps, etc. All women come equipped with a body; most men know that by age 7. A woman is what you do not see; a woman is what she thinks in her soul. By studying doctrine, you can learn much about people. When you boil it all down, men and women are not different in the soul.

Bob has to first explain v. 26. Shama means to hear. Qal perfect of muth means to die. Qal imperfect of shaphad means to beat the breasts, to lament, to wail, to mourn, to scream because of tragedy. This is a female function due to lamentation. There are words here which fascinate Bob; there is lord, which indicates admiration and respect. She had a very strong love for Uriah the Hittite. There is also a regret. She loves her husband and she mourns his departure. She is also guilt-stricken. There is a matter on her conscience. Even though her volition was not involved when she was ravished (which is different from rape, inasmuch as you take the woman elsewhere). At some point, her attraction to David became very strong. She had a great respect for her husband and she was falling in love with David. So she had a problem. She expected that her feelings might be resolved when her husband returns.

Bob mentions a terrible movie.

At first, Bathsheba's volition is not involved; and then it becomes involved. David is now 50 and very attractive to the women; and now he is turned because of it. In his soul, even though he is a mature believer, he has become a very shallow person because of the ladies.

Bathsheba was not aware of the conspiracy to murder her husband. Her lamentation here is genuine. There is nothing to indicate that she did not love her husband. She was attracted to David and seduced by him; but she compartmentalized the whole situation. A little spot for David and a little spot for her husband. This is one thing a lady can do well; they can have a series of compartments in their mind. A woman, in her own thinking, can have a series of men with whom she is in love. David also was able to do this.

It is normal to have category #3 love with several. Those who can only have one friend are in trouble. Bathsheba had a simple life as a magnificent woman. Most women concentrate only on one man; and such a woman has an occupational hazard. In concentrating on one man, a woman becomes naive about other men. The palace pimps may have called Bathsheba to the palace under false pretenses; to talk to David about her husband and how things were going for him. She may not have realized even that this would be a 1 on 1 dinner. She is so naive that she just goes along. She was not involved volitionally.

A lot of women would not care what David looked like. As long as he is the king, they flip-flop all over themselves. These women should be avoided at all costs. The nature of her grief and the 2nd stage of the faith rest technique. She applied the dying grace rationale to him.

Job 5:19–27:

Job 5:19 He will deliver you from six disasters; in seven no evil shall touch you.

Job 5:20 In economic depression he will redeem you from death, and in war from the power [slice] of the sword.

Next 2 disasters. Social disaster. You are maligned; people talk you down by gossip and maligning.

This is often a reference to unjust death.

Job 5:21 You shall be hidden from the lash of the tongue [social destruction], and shall not fear destruction [and violent death] when it comes.

Laughing here means having a sense of humor; being able to have a relaxed mental attitude about the problems you face.

Wild animals represent violent death. Today, automobiles, conventional weapons, nuclear weapons. This is where the believer is able to face death until God takes him home. There is no danger in life that will destroy you.

Job 5:22 At destruction and famine you shall laugh, and shall not fear the wild animals of the earth.

Here, they have a contract with the stones of the battlefield.

Dying for the Believer

1. No instrument of death can remove the mature believer or the immature believer until it is God's time.

2. Only the integrity of God can keep the believer alive. Holy roller says love is the point of reference and the Calvinist thinks God's sovereignty is the point of reference.
3. Therefore, no believer can be removed until the Lord is ready to take him home.
4. Once the Lord calls the believer home, nothing can retain him on earth.
5. The believer cannot die until the Lord decides.
6. The Lord does not decide until all of the facts are put together and justice makes the decision.

Certain things were important to Bathsheba at this time. Her husband was a mature believer and that he died under the best possible circumstances and he is going to a place of great reward. Matt. 1;6.

Bob does not like to us RM/RW anymore; people use it as an excuse the next time they feel a little attraction for someone else.

Job 5:23 For you shall be in league with the stones of the field, and the beasts of the field shall be at peace [a state of prosperity] with you.

Uriah died knowing that his pivot would not shrink and fall apart.

Job 5:24 You shall know that your tent is at peace, and you shall inspect your fold and miss nothing.

Uriah died knowing that his wife would be taken care of, although he did not realize to what extent. Blessing by association for loved ones and where the client nation is concerned.

Job 5:25 You shall know also that your offspring shall be many, and your descendants as the grass of the earth.

You will come to your grave at the peak of your life; for the mature believer only. The analogy says that God is the expert. He must decide when it is time for each one of us to depart from this life. Integrity is the issue. We do not have the right to question the integrity of God. Some corn is riper sooner than the rest. He is the expert; His timing is best.

Job 5:26 You shall come to your grave in ripe old age [in full vigor], like a sheaf gathered up in its season.

Behold this doctrine. Hear it and apply it to yourself. Bathsheba must use this rationale in the tragic death of her husband.

Job 5:27 Behold, this we have searched out; it is true. Hear, and know it for your good."

Let's Notice Her Lamentation

1. This lamentation means that she did love her husband. She struck herself, moaned and groaned and shrieked.
2. This introduces the question of Bathsheba's complicity in the adultery with David.
3. She possessed her own free will. Was she in a position to refuse David's advances, Bob has concluded no; therefore, David raped her. David's seduction of her is ravishment.
4. According to v. 4, she did have to rebound. The copulation was not a sin, as she entered into it unwillingly. During the process, she fell in love with David, because she had to use rebound in her cleansing. She had to rebound her own attitude toward David, and therefore, we have rebound ack in v. 3 She was not faithful to him in her soul. 2Sam. 11:4

David will wait an entire year before rebounding.

David had unbearable discipline; and Bathsheba became his wife and did not share this discipline with him. For 1 year, David had unbearable suffering and went psycho. She did not crack up. Everything was fine with her, but not with David. David suffered and she did not suffer at all; or very little.

"Don't look at your watch; forget it. I am going to make this point if it takes me all night."

this is how 2 can be in a marriage and one can be happy and the other can be miserable and it is not because one is bugging the other. It has to do with the supreme court of heaven.

Bathsheba rebounded during the death of her husband; she used the dying grace rationale and this was tempered by the comfort of Bible doctrine which she had in her soul. If you do not have the doctrine already in your soul, you cannot be comforted in a time of bereavement.

It was probably many years before Bathsheba knew what was going on with her husband. So she did not grieve as those who have no hope. The degeneracy of interlocking systems of arrogance.

2Sam. 11:26 When the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she made lamentation for her husband.

7 days for the mourning period? David is still in interlocking systems of arrogance. He entered the system through sexual arrogance and is guilty of pride, impulsive arrogance, criminal arrogance, and is about to slip into psychopathic arrogance. Bathsheba is now his wife, and he has her, and he is miserable. No male can be happy with any woman if he is arrogant. Arrogance is guarantee of no happiness. The arrogance of the woman might be much more subtle. Marriage is not a state of happiness. The first state of marriage is a state of authority. This is the best woman that David has ever copulated with and he enjoyed it and he is totally preoccupied with Bathsheba and he guarantees that he will have this good bit of copulation around. It is amazing how pregnant women get a bit squirrely. She becomes a wife to him. She becomes his wife and bears his son. In the degeneracy of interlocking systems of arrogance, David has no respect for freedom and property. David seduced Bathsheba and destroyed the authority of Uriah. He violated the freedom of Uriah by murdering him. Conspiracy, murder, degeneracy are all involved.

Bathsheba did not solicit, she did not flirt, but she did change her allegiance and she did fall for David. What David did do was evil.

2Sam. 11:27 When the mourning was past, David sent and took her home to his house, and she became his wife, and bore him a son. But the thing that David had done displeased Yahweh.

There are more chapters devoted to this case than any other case in the Bible. We will see how the court of heaven operates.

2 new policies in the prep school. Don't bring sick kids to the nursery or prep school. Not to bring a child where an adult had a contagious diseases, but should be better defined.

This is the first time we will have 2Sam. 12:1

Bob was in Dallas with Herman. A book about Tom Landry and how he believed in Christ. His faith was a factor and it helped him to deal with many of his people. The Cowboys have team prayer sessions before a game and a non-denominational teaching by Howard Hendricks. Character became more important than the other common things. When you reach a championship level, what separates you is character.

Tapes on Heb. 10 probably the best summary lesson on discipline. There are times when you are under pressure and grace will bail you out; there are the functions of grace from the justice of God and functions of discipline from the justice of God.

3. Cursing of divine discipline from the justice of God 15-23
4. Cursing turned to blessing from the justice of God. 24-31

Some of you must realize that when Bob teaches a passage, he has to teach the subject of that passage. You get so oriented to grace that you think that God will not spank you. You get sloppy in your life and there is no way you will get to maturity.

Psychosis comes from interlocking systems of arrogance.

People, in their arrogance, begin to look at a person rather than to the message. They might go and find another pastor if the failures of their pastor insults their own feelings. The evil person demands perfection. So many pastors are self righteous, arrogant and prissy; and these are the sorts of people who will gather around you. Both ministers and congregation can be positive toward doctrine and still be in an arrogance trap. If your eyes are on people, then you cannot grow.

This will not be the favorite subject matter of some of you. It just isn't that kind of a passage. Some of you are so arrogant that there will be nights that you think I am talking down to you.

Bob often wondered about the delay to get to here. Copulate is a euphemism almost. People have almost been insulted by this word, so that now makes this word Bob's favorite. "To think of these Baptists traveling so many miles and hear an awful word like copulate."

We're going to cover the first 12 verses in 2 or 3 lessons. A prophet was much different from a Levitical priest. Big difference between the priest and the prophet. Moses was the super-communicator. He was from the tribe of Levi. Aaron and Moses both from this tribe. They were communicators by physical birth. They functioned in the shadow teaching of the Old Testament.

Israel was a client nation and only a client nation has prophets. Gentile nations did not have prophets except during the 70 years of the Babylonia captivity. Daniel was a Jewish prophet without a country, presenting pertinent doctrine for salvation.

Isaiah warned of cycles of discipline on the one hand and reversionism on the other. God called out special people as a warning of things to come and as a means of perpetuating the prosperity of a client nation. Isaiah is a case where it succeeded and Jeremiah is a case where the people did not listen.

Many people thing that David was a preacher, but he was a king; one of the greatest of history. He had a sin nature like all of us. He sin nature has offended a lot of people.

We are past the fornication chapter, and that isn't the major issue here. People never seem to be shocked by arrogance but they are with fornication. If you think that David's rape was the biggest deal,... Ravishment is kidnaping someone and taking them elsewhere to rape them.

Katie is to put out the word, don't send your featherbrained daughters down here. This is not a marriage market. Some have found their wives and husbands here, much to their happiness and for some, much to their regret. We can only do so much.

There are things which go on out there; and if you are shocked by what Bob says, you are not prepared for the decade coming up.

Interlocking systems of arrogance kept David from rebounding. As far as we know, he was moving throughout the year without rebound.

Covering fecal matter with iodine? You don't solve anything by some system of breast beating. You do not under any circumstance have to go through some system by which you make it up to God. Your feeling sorry for a sin makes you weaker than you were before. We are all sorry. Feeling sorry is not an issue in anything. People like to get in the act because they have not had a chance to feel superior. They like to get together with other people who are self righteous. God does not care how you feel about the sin. You would never have anytime to grow in grace or anything else if you had to feel sorry about the sins you commit. You are naming sins which have already been forgiven based upon the cross. You don't ask God to forgive you; you name the sin. Because it has been judged in court, the basis of the forgiveness has already been handled. Homologeo is a courtroom phrase. It means to cite a courtroom case. If you cannot understand the most basic principle of grace, you don't belong in Berachah Church. As long as the Lord gives Bob grace to breathe, he'll teach it.

Faith reaches doctrinal conclusions.

Nathan was a prophet, and because he was such a great prophet, his name became a common name in the Davidic line. Nathan has had some tough assignments before. It was around 984 B.C. when Nathan told David that he could not build a Temple. He also helped Solomon become king as well. He was germane in making the line of David go through . He wrote a book called the life of David and the other is a biography about Solomon. 1Chron. 29:29 2Chron. 9:29 1004–926 B.C. faithfulness of Nathan in teaching Bible doctrine. Nathan's ministry of Bible doctrine stabilized the situation.

Notice that God sent Nathan; Nathan did not decide that it was time to talk to David. Some people feel called upon to stick their nose into other people's business. Nathan was commanded by the Lord to do this; he did not do this on his own.

A Few Closing Points

1. God requires faithfulness of His workers.
2. The power is located in the Word of God, not in the personality of the communicator. Some have a mouse personality. It is grey and they go through life in a quiet, mousy way. That is the antithesis of the rat personality.
3. Nathan was sent on a dangerous and difficult mission. He has the necessary wisdom and strength to accomplish his mission. Suppose that he took a self righteous approach. "You lousy so and so." David represents the highest authority in the government. That approach attacks the authority of David and not his sinfulness. When a person is in authority and 100% wrong, you still do not approach that person and destroy or attempt to destroy or to attack that authority. This is the grace principle in authority orientation. David was a jerk. However, Nathan's job was not to call David a jerk. Unless you are parents, you do not confront people about their carnality. That is not your job in life. You do not confront others with respect to their failures. Now, you can if you are in charge of someone; then you can deal with them. A sergeant over a recalcitrant private. The application of the grace rationales.

- 4.
5. If you have a gift of communication from God, that does not mean that God can use you. No matter how great your gift is, if you are arrogant, then God cannot use you. If you have no authority-orientation, then God cannot use you; or no grace orientation. Nathan was not arrogant. Nathan was authority oriented. Nathan was as great man. Just as David recognized Nathan's authority in the spiritual realm; Nathan recognized Nathan's authority in the temporal realm. We must distinguish between temporal and spiritual authorities.
6. God uses prepared people. Reverse concentration. God cannot use arrogant people; He cannot use those involved in the interlocking systems of arrogance.
7. Never try to slide by on your personality. Those with good personalities have a problem. This is what Bob likes about Landry, who does not depend upon his personality. They are both so brilliant in the game, that they do not depend upon their personalities to work their players up. Personality minus doctrine is weakness; + doctrine is strength.
8. The facade which carries the soul is body and personality.
9. Out of all the prophets in the land of Israel, only one of them was prepared for a confrontation with the king. Such a confrontation requires finesse, and not bombast from personality. This permits David to pronounce judgment upon himself. This is brilliant; to finesse David so that he will just himself. The purpose of doctrine is to finesse us to face ourselves in doctrine. Nathan could tell a magnificent story, and at the end of the story, David judges himself. Objectivity and lack of self righteousness establishes a precedent of wisdom and objectivity of reprimand. A lot of evangelists can scream sin, but very few can do it objectively. Allow arrogance to define sin, then sin is limited to the things which you do not like.

Bob stopped counseling because he was so good at it and it made him fatheaded. For what I know, you'd be charged $100 per minute.

2 factors of a good communicator, found in v. 1. Obedience. God sent Nathan to David and there was immediate obedience to God. Every good communicator must be in fellowship and obedience.

You cannot function unless you are organized. Disorganized people; always late, always flustered, always running around with their head...somewhere. He cannot administer his own life. Those who are disorganized haven't got a point yet. They'll tune in about 15 minutes from now and begin to hear what is being said.

Today, we have a concrete jungle and then there was palm trees and sand; has nothing to do with being organized. The obedience and self-discipline is the first thing; secondly, it is the gift of communication. No communicator will ever properly teach or communicate the Word of God unless he can eliminate the non-essentials. One of those is counseling people. It becomes a matter of arrogance and failure. If the Word of God is properly communicated, then you will not need counseling. It is a nonessential. Many ministers are asked to run around and pray or visiting the sick. If a person has doctrine, if someone visits them or not is not an issue. A believer's comfort must come from the dying grace rationale.

When someone dies, they are in a better place than you are; and there is no need to sorrow as one who has no hope.

The Communicator and the Teaching of Doctrine

1. The communicator of doctrine must have authority-orientation. That is, he must first be self-disciplined so that his own life is organized; and he must be constantly oriented to the authority of God. He must be oriented to the plan of God. No person who is in charge of a large complex can succeed if he tries to do it all himself. You must be able to delegate authority.
2. There must be good discipline. A good pastor will maintain academic discipline in the church. The minister is not your servant. Bob talks about a gal who walked out of church on a previous Sunday. The old sin nature rejects all authority. One of the problems of being in the pastorate. Inevitably, there are certain subjects in which you are not interested. Bob will never forget the time that he was studying at his desk and came across flowers, and he had to study it, even though he had no interest. Bob was brought up in at an early age with 1000's of flowers in his yard. He learned to bring flowers to women. Bob likes plants because they throw off oxygen and takes in the  $CO_2$  and  $CO_1$ , which Bob sees as a good thing.
3. The communicator of doctrine, which today is the pastor, must study the Word daily.
4. Communication of doctrine is the inevitable result of diligent study.
5. The primary function of the Old Testament prophet like Nathan is no different from the New Testament communicator of doctrine. There is not substitute for the teaching of Bible doctrine. This teaching is a finesse policy of God. Nathan will finesse David into condemning himself. No client nation can exist without doctrine. The pivot is formed by God the Holy Spirit.

There are the rich and the poor. Life could not be perpetuated without rich and poor. A sign that the laws of divine establishment are working is the fact that we have the rich and poor with us. Even when there are not rich, there will always be poor people. You cannot have freedom in a nation without free enterprise; and with free enterprise, some will succeed and some will fail. If the government slips in, then they might decree that no one can fail. A government which wipes out the poor is evil. Some poverty is self-induced because of lack of humility, not being willing to work at a humbling place; people want to begin at the top; no one wants to learn the system. If the government does not interfere, then we do start at the bottom.

It is healthy to have such a differentiation. This mand oes not say, Down with the rich. The rich man is the villian, but he is not a villian because he is rich. Scrooge was a good man and Bob Crotchet was a whiner and a complainer, and irresponsible, who went out and had a bunch of kids that he could not afford. The poor man had nothing. He did have food, shelter, clothing, a wife.

2Sam. 12:1 And the LORD sent Nathan to David. He came to him and said to him, "There were two men in a certain city, the one rich and the other poor.

The poor man's wife love that ewe, and he did and his children did; and they all loved that ewe. David does not catch on to this at all yet. The rich man has flocks and herds and wives and mistresses.

2Sam. 12:2 The rich man had very many flocks and herds,

Bob is surprised that everyone is shocked about sex. It should be common knowledge. The poor man's wife can't stand him, so their attention on the ewe; and the kids are poorly managed, so they all love the ewe. This is one little ewe lamb, which they had purchased.

There are two schools of thought, those who have been wanting children all of their lives. These people are not poverty stricken; the ewe lamb shares food with them.

No idea how they got this ewe away from the family; they must have had very poor ewe security. Bob understands this with Balderdash and Malarkey. They think that they are human and would be insulted if they were told they are dogs. They have tried to draw some lines, with some difficulty at times.

2Sam. 12:3 but the poor man had nothing but one little ewe lamb, which he had bought. And he brought it up, and it grew up with him and with his children. It used to eat of his morsel and drink from his cup and lie in his arms, and it was like a daughter to him.

All rich people have guests. If you are going to be a guest of someone; be a guest of someone who can have you. The rich man thought it was a pity. There was no cattle that he wanted to kill. He probably had a million acres and all of these animals are magnificent specimens, and his sheep are the best and his cattle are the greatest. "I can't kill any of these; they are too good." He just does not want to share from his possessions.

Instead, he goes to the poor man and takes his ewe lamb and prepares it for his guest. He obviously got it during the daytime. Bob can see how that man would feel. He loved that ewe lamb. The kids were not paying attention to security. We might call this sermon the Last Bleet.

2Sam. 12:4 Now there came a traveler to the rich man, and he was unwilling to take one of his own flock or herd to prepare for the guest who had come to him, but he took the poor man's lamb and prepared it for the man who had come to him."

David is on a crusade already; he cannot wait for the invitation. He will be the first one forward. This is a simple parable to reach David.

Nathan's Parable Approach

1. This is teaching by finesse; a simple story to cause David to judge himself. It is a parable. That is a simple story so that no matter how way out you are, you can understand what the story is. A parable parallels reality in life. If David is in interlocking systems of arrogance and Nathan goes in there and teaches interlocking systems of arrogance, it won't do any good. If he tells a simple story which covers David's entrance into the interlocking systems of arrogance, then David might get it. Therefore, David will react. When David reacts to the story, he is judging himself. If David judges himself, then he is going out of breakout.
2. By using a parable, objectivity is maintained and the message is communicated so that David condemns himself from his own integrity.
3. It is noted from the psalms that David has already experienced warning suffering and discipline. However, this has not motivated David to rebound or to recover.
4. There is no rebound until the message of Nathan's parable. David is totally subjective in interlocking systems of arrogance.
- 5.
6. The rich man is ultra super grace believer David. A spiritual mature believer is blessed with wealth and power and other things. The imputation of divine blessing to His own righteousness.
7. The poor man is Uriah and the ewe lamb is Bathsheba. David's status quo is interlocking systems of arrogance.

The reaction of the king, which includes harah. This is a word of intense and explosive anger. He assumed this was real and did not associate this with himself. David has the power to judge here and he is extremely self righteous. If you rape someone and murder someone, but not in interlocking systems of arrogance, then you will not be self righteous.

Interlocking systems of arrogance disassociates your sins from similar sins and allows you to be very self righteous. David is preoccupied with himself. It does not register with David that this is him. Interlocking systems of arrogance produces subjectivity which isolates the person involved from his own sins and failures and gives him a self righteous to condemn others for exactly the same thing. Most subjectivity in life is arrogance. They relate everything to themselves and they become hypersensitive. They cannot listen to sermons if they think the pastor is talking about them.

David is still positive toward doctrine and he is still a believer; and he calls this guy a son of death. This is an idiom for someone who is doomed to die. David says, "I will see to it that this man is executed. Give me his name. He is doomed. He will be dead tomorrow." He called him ben maweh, a son of death, meaning doomed to die. The king was the supreme court judge and this matter had reached the supreme court judge.

David is speaking as a judge and he is speaking objectively as a judge. He recognizes that this is more than a sin; this is a crime. What David did was not just a sin, but it was a crime. David raped Bathsheba, which is a crime and a sin. The conspiracy was murder and David murdered Uriah the Hittite. The sin of murder became the crime of murder.

We will see some great injustices in our law system coming in the next decade; we are interpreting law in terms of socialism today. Innocent people are being railroaded into jail. Jesus Christ controls history and there is a supreme court in heaven in which the Lord presides.

Herman and his deacons told Bob about what happened to a believer who was wrongly convicted by a court. The Lord Jesus Christ must personally judge this case. Whenever you receive injustice in life, you will be helpless to correct the situation. Avoid bitterness. Just allow God to deal with it. The supreme court of heaven handles the whole thing. No one gets away with anything. The elapse of time is not an issue. Those of you who live in the next decade will enjoy this principle and find comfort in it.

The immoral and unjust government of the United States is having so much trouble right now. We ought to be following the constitution, but we are trying to play God.

2Sam. 12:5 [Then David's anger was greatly kindled \[burned intensely\] against the man, and he said to Nathan, "As the LORD lives, the man who has done this deserves to die,](#)

2Samuel 12:6-8

72David

631_0264

Therefore, the Lord sent Nathan to David, who said, "The rich man had a great many flocks and herds and the poor man had nothing, except on little ewe lamb.

Kibsah refers to the ewe lamb. This is Bathsheba. Shalam in the Piel means to restore. Now you cannot restore what is dead. David, in this way, gives a point of law. Today, we would say, "He must make restitution for that ewe lamb." The rich man is to make restitution 4 to 1, which was the law, which is what David is quoting here. He is setting himself up for discipline for the next 10 years of his life; and he must restore 4 to 1. He is judging himself. There is a certain sequence. If there is any property involved, before the death penalty is used, there must be restitution of 4 to 1. This is what David will pay. Each one of these 4 areas of discipline will be what we call installment discipline. These 4 installments are what David can bear.

It is easier to think when you are hungry as opposed to thinking when you are full.

We will learn about why some people cannot be consistent; and how some people are undependable; and about how children turn out; about 50 points that will come out of the next 6 chapters.

Bob outlines what this 4 to 1 would be. There would be a death (Absalom), there would be a rape (Tamar). David has decided that the person involved is guilty.

Compassion is not emotion; this means a person is aware of other people and you think of the needs and sensitivities of others. This is in contrast to self-centered and arrogant activity. It is objectivity. It is thoughtfulness and sympathy. Arrogance excludes compassion. David's degenerate activity has been the antithesis of compassion.

Ex. 22:1 if a man steals an ox or a sheep, he will pay 4 or 5 fold. This is for oxen or for sheep. David examines the crime and the motivation. The reason for this is because he is in the presence of many people, and David wants to make this clear that crime begins in the soul and not with an overt crime. This is a Biblical description of the criminal mind. He has no pity and no thoughtfulness.

There is no such thing as a criminal who is a good lover. If you are a woman who wants to run off with a guy who is a criminal, he will leave you stranded. The criminal has no thought except for himself. He is only concerned about gratifying his own lusts. He is warning his own people. David is protecting the charming ladies of the land. Criminals have no capability for love. There is no love involved. Sometimes the criminal may make love to you and it is for self-gratification or it is to make you a part of his women.

2Sam. 12:6 and he shall restore the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing [to manufacture out of something else], and because [and furthermore] he had no pity [compassion]."

What is left is for the culprit to be identified. A person needs to be objective about himself. You cannot move ahead in the plan of God unless you are objective about yourself. This is the finesse of Nathan's great message. You can be subjective about others, but not about yourself.

David was paranoid about how people thought about him. If David is going to recover; if he is going to get outside of the interlocking systems of arrogance, then he must become objective about himself.

Most people have had the experience when Bob says something and you begin to vibrate. You must remain objective in order to benefit from the Word. When you look at Saul's KER, the Lord dropped him about 200 points. Saul wound up with 0 points for his KER; and David had the highest KER score. He was a man after the Lord's own heart.

Saul had one wife and David had a harem of 30–35 women; and Saul did have one mistress. We can immediately conclude that women got David into a lot of trouble with the Lord and almost ruined his life; Saul's mistress became a famous heroin in Israel. Here is a situation where these women, in the final analysis, made no difference in David and Saul's KER. Saul was monogamous and faithful and a sweet, loving husband, was also a complete loving flop. Does this mean that we need to go out and chase down every piece of fluff that comes along? That is certainly not the answer. The difference is always doctrine. If you do not take 2nd place to doctrine, you can be with a bore like Saul or a chaser like David, and be unhappy either way. The man may or may not stray, but doctrine is the issue. No one has the capabilities without doctrine.

Nathan's message is brief and clear, and he will save David's line. Were it not for Nathan, Solomon would never be on the throne. It is very difficult for one man who has a great friendship with another man to say these things.

David goes beyond the pronouncement of judgment in exodus, and requires death of this man as well. Nathan said to David, "Attah" which means you. Then the predicate nominative ish. "Attah ha ish," which words would ring in the ears of David for a long time. Nathan speaks on behalf of the court of heaven. This is great courage for Nathan to speak to David. The message will be the 4 to 1 payment, which will be bearable discipline. The justice of God replies, which emphasizes logistical grace support. This includes another personal pronoun, anokiy, and it emphasizes logistical grace and supergrace blessing. There is no problem when God speaks from His own grace. "I have appointed or anointed you king over Israel." God promoted David.

Principle

1. God appointed David as king over Israel as a part of his blessings from God, from the justice of God to His Own righteousness, which David did not earn or deserve. Since the righteousness of God is inside of us, we get this blessing, not because we earn or deserve it, but through divine fiat.
2. David grew through doctrine in the soul.
3. This is a part of his fortiori blessing
4. David advanced via doctrine. Without doctrine, David was nothing.
5. David's capacity for leadership was hurt by entering into interlocking systems of arrogance. Arrogance destroys capacity for leadership. And all other capacities.
6. David is helpless to rule or to lead Israel.
7. Hence David began as a coward, remaining in Jerusalem, instead of going to Rabbah. He is a coward because doctrine was neutralized by interlocking systems of arrogance.
8. The series of sins and irresponsible actions were the result of being trapped in interlocking systems of arrogance. This is through his own volition.
9. The doctrine was still there, but the doctrine was neglected. No doctrine was applied, so the doctrine was useless.
10. Diminished capacity for prosperity, blessing in life and happiness resulted. David was frustrated. There was no restraint via occupation with Christ.

God points out that He has delivered David from the hand of Saul. The Qal stem means to grab someone by the hand, but the Hiphil means to rescue, to deliver. This is David's logistical grace blessing. Both logistical and supergrace blessings have been imputed over these years. Once David enters into interlocking systems of arrogance, he is a different person. Fear of reprisal is one of the greatest restrainers in life. In the name of equality, liberals try to remove the concept of fear and respect of authority. Liberty, equality and fraternity. There is a rise in crime, lots of violence, and there is destruction in a nation.

Interlocking Systems of Arrogance and David's Abuse of Grace

1. Interlocking systems of arrogance, which is degeneration, attack the believer and unbeliever, the rich and the poor, the famous and the infamous.
2. Interlocking systems of arrogance removed doctrinal restraint or Establishment restraint from the souls of mankind.
3. David has been delivered from the evil tyranny of King Saul, which was his wall of fire. However, this same grace did not keep David from hurting Uriah.
4. God promoted David and David demoted Uriah. Supergrace privilege does not mean that one treats others in grace.
5. We are to treat others in grace, but interlocking systems of arrogance keeps us from doing so.
6. Interlocking systems of arrogance neutralizes the ministry of the Holy Spirit in the life and the application of doctrine, and causes a malfunction in GAP and in the faith rest drill.

When the mature believer neglects doctrine, he becomes vulnerable to the 12 or 13 entrances. Persistence. Neglect of doctrine is our destruction.

2Sam. 12:7 Nathan said to David, "You are the man! Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'I anointed you king over Israel, and I delivered you out of the hand of Saul.

I gave you your master's house and your master's wives and the house of Israel and Judah. God gave and gave these things from His justice to the righteousness of God. This is what David has forgotten and this is what arrogance always forgets. The justice of God is the point of reference for all believers. The false views always lead to distortion. Some take the sovereignty of God as the point of reference, which are the hyper-Calvinists; and others take the love of God as being their point of reference, which types are holy rollers.

The Hebrew here is adown, which is your Lord. David has all of the material things which belonged to Saul. His castle, his cattle, all of the things which Saul once possessed. His arrogance resulted in a lack of enjoyment of his material possessions. He was jealous, petty, vindictive, and implacable. The royal treasures all belonged to David. Saul did not succeed; he wanted to kill David and this did not succeed; but David did succeed in killing Uriah, which meant it was time for Uriah to die.

Pettiness or jealousy destroys the greatest successes in life. No one can enjoy any of their possessions without the capacity.

Your master's wives into your bosom. There is a feminine noun in an irregular form, called nashiyim, which is an irregular form of ishshah. This is a feminine noun which has an ending which is masculine. When someone was deposed, the new king had the wives and the servants of the previous king. 1Sam. 14:15 there was only 1 wife and only 1 mistress. There will be some explanation for this. Saul had a great general who eventually raped her. She did have some sons, and then she had an experience with David in which her sons would be killed; and she survived all of this with honor. There is no horrible thing in this life which you cannot survive.

She is Arizpa, and this is considered to be a beautiful name in the Jewish language which has never come into the English language. Saul had one mistress seduced by Abner; we have to start in 2Sam. 3:6–8, which we have never studied before.

Abner was making himself strong and he was the strong man in the civil war. David and Judah fought against Saul and the 10 tribes. He was the chief of staff of Saul's army.

Abner was a heel of the worst kind. He would not kill Ishbosheth. Joab later follows him and kills him. When David took over, he brings Rizpah into his harem, and he would take care of her, but not touch her.

2Sam. 3:6 While there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, Abner was making himself strong in the house of Saul.

Ishbosheth questions Abner.

2Sam. 3:7 Now Saul had a concubine whose name was Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah. And Ishbosheth said to Abner, "Why have you gone in to [raped] my father's concubine?"

A dog's head is someone who seems to like you and flatters you, but he bites you as soon as you have a chance. It is a proverb referring to a lack of honor. The dog biting the hand that feeds him. I did not give you over to David, and yet you reprimand me for this?

Rizpah means hot coal and we might call her today hot number. 27 years later, 970 B.C. and David too Bathsheba. God told David that there was a famine in the land because of Saul's treatment of Saul's sons, which was compatible with Num. 27:33 so there were 7 so-called sons of Saul and they were crucified and they were to remain on the crosses all summer until October. Rizpah stood there and watched over these sons, and she allowed no animal to come near them. She only had the sackcloth which covered her body and she was now a woman of great honor and integrity. There were 5 sons of Michelle there and

3 Phases of Rizpah's Life

1. The point at which she had sons by Saul.
2. Her humiliation when she was raped by Abner.
3. The degradation stage when these sons were hanging on the cross and the animals of the field she kept from feeding on the corpses. David gave an honorable burial to all of Saul's sons.

2Sam. 3:8 Then Abner was very angry over the words of Ishbosheth and said, "Am I a dog's head of Judah? To this day I keep showing steadfast love to the house of Saul your father, to his brothers, and to his friends, and have not given you into the hand of David. And yet you charge me today with a fault concerning a woman.

She kept the wild animals away from the ones she loved.

Bastards are immediately behind the 8 ball because they are born to fathers who have absolutely no responsibility.

Humility is the most fantastic base for loving; and you think of others than about yourself. You are not prepared for the disasters to come if you lack humility. You live in a marvelous time, but we live in the time of complainers. There is no disaster of life which can destroy a soul of doctrine.

This is what it means for this passage to say, "I gave you the wives of Saul." She maintained her honor and integrity. She became an example of great honor and integrity.

2Sam. 21:9–13 ... and he gave them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them on the mountain before the LORD, and the seven of them perished together. They were put to death in the first days of harvest, at the beginning of barley harvest. Then Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth and spread it for herself on the rock, from the beginning of harvest until rain fell upon them from the heavens. And she did not allow the birds of the air to come upon them by day, or the beasts of the field by night. When David was told what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done, David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of his son Jonathan from the men of Jabesh-gilead, who had stolen them from the public square of Beth-shan, where the Philistines had hanged them, on the day the Philistines killed Saul on Gilboa. And he brought up from there the bones of Saul and the bones of his son Jonathan; and they gathered the bones of those who were hanged.

There are many functions of memory and separation from loved ones, love is perpetuated from memory. Memory becomes an important part of capacity for love. Physical attraction is incidental to the mental and the spiritual. Capacity for love and capacity for life are related to one's memory. This is a communion service.

Return from the River Kwi is a book Bob is reading; there was another called The Bridge over the River Kwi, and a movie was made from that. One actor got a piece of the action from that movie and it made him a multi-millionaire. The successfulness of blowing up the bridge was imaginary; and those who built the bridge in reality were done so under horrible conditions where there were many who died. A popular tourist attraction in Thailand and nearby is a cemetery with about 2000 graves of those who died.

The railway of death, one of the least known situations in the war. The Japanese had 61,000 POW's and they built a railway through Thailand and Burma and the guards were sadistic in the way that they treated them. Over 1/5th of the white men were destroyed.

There was a Brigadier of Australia and he commanded 10,000 POW's. He fearlessly stood up to Japanese commanders at every turn and got breaks and decent treatment for his men. When the railway was finished, he was separated from his son, and sent to Japan to command the entire thing there. He lived completely in terms of principle and would not back down. He had the essence of leadership in his soul. He could get Korean and Japanese officers to back down.

We have been studying Rizpah, and we studied her this morning. She had 2 sons by King Saul and 5 grandsons; and all were crucified at the request of the Gibeonites. These 7 were tied to crosses and they were in the wilderness for 5 months and she chased off the buzzards and the jackals.

They had many talents, but they lacked integrity. If the Sauline line continued, there would have been revolution from now and again. There are always malcontents. The family of Saul would have been the standard around which malcontents would have gathered. It was God's purpose to maintain the Davidic line.

Then the trouble is on when there is arrogance and revolution and malcontents. A flashy personality comes through and makes friends and takes away key players. This is a big problem in life. This is what would have happened had David let these men live. Furthermore, there must be restitution for the ewe land of 4 fold. And Nathan said, "You are the man."

Rizpah was one of those under David's responsibility; he was to take care of those who were under the employee of King Saul. David showed some irresponsibility with fulfilling this custom, just as he did with Bathsheba and Uriah.

The concept of Rizpah and true beauty. This is how she survived rape and violence. She would not allow the buzzards or jackals

Rizpah

1. In youth, Rizpah was a raving beauty.
2. Like most young women of great young beauty, she succumbed to the glamour of the palace. It was truly a beautiful place. Bob has seen pics of the archeological digs. Good times, parties and great social life. Men of great agaiment and genius and administrative success. She was so great and successful in beauty and character and femininity that she became the mistress of the king.
3. Others had achieved fame through beauty, but she did believe in the Lord and learned some doctrine.
4. The emphasis in life eventually changed. First the social sexual life ; the harem of Saul was quite unusual; one woman.
5. As she began to learn doctrine, her life began to change; her inner beauty began to surpass her external beauty. Question was asked, how did she live for 5 months while she kept the animals away? Where would you go to spend a few days if you knew a raving beauty was saving these bodies. Apparently she never lacked for food and apparently there were people who took her food and presents.
6. She made some strides in her spiritual life. Abner may or may not have noticed her beauty when he raped her.

7. Rizpah was faithful to King Saul. She was a victim of Abner's rape. She had small sons whom she reared; sons whom she saw die in the crucifixion.
8. Her character is beginning to show.
9. She guarded the bodies of her 2 sons; the bodies were rotting and only the bones remained on the wood there. She continued to guard even the bones. She did this not out of morbidity or out of arrogance, but out of the true beauty which was in her soul. She demonstrated that, as long as Saul lived, she was faithful to King Saul. She continued this after his death. There was no man alive who was as real to her as Saul, who was now in heaven.
10. She did this totally apart from bitterness and complaining. She was not an arrogance whining bitch. A woman who will not take 2nd place to her husband's business is a whining, mewling bitch. She did this without any complaining. A lot of women have complained about a lot less. She was beautiful and she did this without self pity. She reminds Bob of the Duchess of Marlboro. During the days of Queen Anne, the Duchess of Marlboro ran things. She had many who pursued her for marriage and many tried to seduce her. But she had the duke in her soul. Rizpah never married. After that, she was always faithful to Saul and outlived him by many years. This did not bother her at all. Some women have tremendous capacity for love; and this does not change their faithfulness to that man. The memory of that man keeps her faithful for many decades. This is the kind of women that Rizpah was in her true beauty.
11. Rizpah is an illustration of all women who discover that their souls are more important than their bodies. If gung ho makes you uneasy, you need to be in a large outfit. She is a woman of true beauty. The line of Saul had to depart from history. If its men had been perpetuated, the nation would not have survived. Of all of the people in the castle of Saul, the wife, 2 daughters, none of them came close to the greatness of Rizpah. It was the mistress of the king who brought honor to her house. She was not only beautiful of body, attractive of faith, but she had a magnificent face as well. Her soul was filled with doctrine.

When the civil war was over, David had control over both halves of the kingdom. God promoted him in a position which could not be stabilized apart from the grace of God. If God does not promote you, you are not promoted. God promoted David and David had the doctrine of soul and the flexibility of life to function as the king. David sought revenge on those who opposed him in the civil war. Those 7 men who were crucified would have caused great trouble in Israel. There would have been coteries of trouble. The authority and the power of David and the imputation of the justice of God to the righteousness of God. As David went from supergrace A to supergrace B, his capacity for power and leadership increased and there was a constant flow of tremendous supergrace blessings. When people become successful, they often become distracted by their success. God may permit them to keep these parts of success, despite their spiritual status.

Yasaph, and it means to be caused, to be motivated to do more. In all of the personnel functions, only Rizpah brought honor. God had to eliminate the male line of Saul. This line would have established the permanent coterie of revolution. God did not want any rallying of malcontents; this would have been a permanent civil war.

God adds supergrace blessings on the basis of the increase of capacity. Perception of doctrine must be part of the believer's every day life. This is why people have possessions and are miserable or are neglected and miserable. It is the capacity of your soul which makes the difference. You can perpetuated self-pity into arrogance.

What causes you to grow spiritually causes you to gain capacity. If you assume that you have arrived, then you become vulnerable. Neglect of doctrine is the most destructive thing which can happen to a believer.

Landry bemoans the direction of our country. There is the atmosphere of getting something for nothing. When anything is free, someone pays for it. There is a price must be paid for it; including free love. Then he pointed out that Christ paid for our sins on the cross. Our rights are given by God and yet, an atheist gets prayer removed from the schools. Only Jesus Christ can change the hearts of men.

Of Saul's entire palace, only Rizpah seems to have gone all the way to the end.

Bob had dinner at Harold Hayes, who was a Cowboy.

Landry: It has become fashionable for the government to guarantee us everything. Young people are not just interested in, what are our benefits? We must reestablish that competitive spirit. A successful lawyer goes out and wins law cases; a successful executive makes money; a successful doctor cures and saves lives. A competitive spirit builds character and only Christ can build character more quickly than the sports arena. The only character that counts is the person of the Lord Jesus Christ. If the rules are broken in football, you are taken out of the game or penalized. In life, too often if you don't like the laws, you just break them. Before you can understand freedom, you must learn duty and respect.

Rizpah had doctrine and the flexibility and everything that it took to survive every kind of disaster. She was raped by Abner; and for 5 months she stayed outside and kept the wild animals from the bodies of her sons. Truly magnificent woman. Her inner beauty.

The indictment of the supreme court of heaven next time.

2Sam. 12:8 And I gave you your lord's house and your master's wives into your arms and gave you the house of Israel and of Judah. And if this were too little, I would add to you as much more.

2Samuel 12:9

72David

631_0266

An indictment from the supreme court of heaven; and we will digress into one of the principles of application.

Madua means for what reason. Qal perfect of bazah, which means To despise, to regard with contempt. This is not negative volition toward doctrine, this is simply a person so preoccupied with self that they neglect doctrine. He cannot apply doctrine; he cannot use doctrine. He is locked in with self-pity. He just can't take it in, even though he might go to Bible class. You can be sitting there thinking about how horrible your life is. David was a mature believer; he was in ultra super grace. Maximum achievement in supergrace does not shield a person from interlocking systems of arrogance.

One of these days, we'll review this doctrine.

Preoccupation with self or self-centeredness regards as worthless everything except your problem. This also causes malfunction in the 3 stages of the faith rest drill. This is why some fail in the rebound technique. This is an extension of faith rest.

It never occurs to most people that God could care less about what you think and how you feel or what you promise Him. You sometimes feel better if you tell God some nice thing; or strap it on God. Some people are really impressed by the promises which they make to God.

If there is anything a smart congregation does not want to hear, it is the sins of other people. This is just a system of false humiliation and effacement. The Oxford movement, Buckmanism, is wrong. God does not forgive on the basis of human promises. The only thing which Bob got from counseling is 5 good illustrations and 10 bad ones.

If you just have to promise God that you will do better, there are other churches to go to. Once you have discovered that you merely cite the sin to God, as our sins have already been judged. Faith reaches out to seize this truth. In sitting around Berachah and be confused about the most basic aspect of the Christian life.

This doesn't encourage people to sin. Young people don't normally require encouragement to sin. Bob didn't. However, youthful sins are not as bad as adult sins; and adults add a lot of evil to their sins.

Self-centeredness is the arrogance complex and its function. You may promise God that you will not do that sin again. You might stay from it with the power of arrogance, and you fall into some form of evil instead.

Anytime you add anything to rebound, you are helping God. We are forgiven because these sins were imputed to Jesus Christ on the cross, and not because we make great promises about what we aren't going to do.

Evil and the Interlocking Systems of Arrogance

1. The combination of sins which result in being compromise by interlocking systems of arrogance becomes evil. Any time you perform human good as a liberal, and add this to interlocking systems of arrogance, and this equals evil. Evil always adds arrogance to sin or to human good. 3 things comes form the old sin nature, sin or human good.

2. Evil now has a new dimension and that dimension is arrogance. Add arrogance, stir thoroughly and you have evil. Evil is any combination of sins and human good which are entangled with the interlocking systems of arrogance. Adultery and murder are sins; and murder is also a crime. The combo is nothing until it is added to arrogance and then it becomes evil. The standards of the arrogance complex no longer give place to doctrine and its perception.

We need to love at evil and some of the concepts of evil. Evil was not judged at the cross; only sin was. Doctrine related to imputed righteousness. Love does not think evil. That always bothered Bob; what does that mean? The man says to the woman, "I love you" and if he means, "You can do a lot of things for me" is evil. This means the man is thinking about himself. It is all about what she can do for him. The person is preoccupied with himself. He is incapable of love. A lot of young people are totally preoccupied with themselves; narcissist complex. This preoccupation is the principle of thinking evil. They are thinking, what can this doll do for me. Evil must be regarded, whether sin or hug, as arrogance. Any time that you add anything to sin or human good by way of arrogance, it is evil. The old sin nature produces sin and human good. Area of weakness produces sin and the area of strength produces human good.

1Tim. 6:10: the love of money is the root of all evils. 3John 11 do no be imitators of the evil but be imitators of the good. Because of the arrogance of evil men. Eccles. 8:2-5 do not join in that evil manner, which is a reference to revolution. "I have a solution; give me the power." Rousseau was a totally arrogant person. Revolution is arrogance. Why do people despise the shah? They were arrogant and jealous. Since the word of the king is authoritative, who will say to him, where are you going. His private life is his own business. Humble people take pride in their work. Anti-establishment is one arrogant person bringin other arrogant people into interlocking systems of arrogance. A wise right lobe knows the proper time and the procedure. Those who have true humility always stand by... The whole principle of kismet is arrogance. The human race is arrogant and they tend toward psychosis. The more you are divorced from reality, the father you are from truth. Evil represents the genius of Satan.

We have been the leaders of the world in atomic energy, and yet we are kept from it from arrogant people. "I have to protect you from yourself." Satan said, "I will be God." Every liberal is arrogant and he says, "I am God and here is what is best for you."

Evil includes all the Christian functions outside the local church. Human good is considered to be divine good. If a person in arrogance says this is it and what it should be.

Psalm 21:11 they stretched out evil against you and carried out a conspiracy against you, which they are not able to carry out. In any social organization; in any business or proessional organization, there is always someone who wants more power and from the coterie comes the conspiracy. The evil desire; the plunder of evil men. Counselors or prosperty and establishment have happiness in the right lobes. No evil happens to the mature, but the evil are filled with trouble. "You intended evil against me, but God meant it for good in order to bring about this present result to preserve many people alive." Psalm 67 better a little of the righteous than much of the evil. The Lord knows the days of the mature believer. They will not be ashamed in the time of evil. The believer who is free from arrogance is flexible. The person who is arrogance is inflexible and will be destroyed. Psalm 121:7 the Lord will protect you from evil; He will guard your soul. Arrogant people find happiness in distortion. Prov. 5:13–14 I did not pay attention to the teaching of my instructors because I was in all kinds of evil. Arrogance always rejects doctrine. The wicked earns deceptive wages. Grace and doctrine goes; in terms of those who think good. Interlocking systems of arrogance is the key to David's aberrations.

What God held against David is the murder of Uriah the Hittite. Uriah the Hittite was important to God because he was a mature believer. This is why David had 10 years of installment discipline in order to get all of the arrogance out of David. He had 1 year of unbearable suffering. He will have 10 years of 4 to 1 discipline. He will have an arrogance hangover. When he gets out of interlocking systems of arrogance, he moves into the humility column. He will have an isolated sin of arrogance from time to time from David.

"You back there; are you having trouble? You with the glasses. Is there something wrong with your neck?" Sooner or later you will have to recognize if you are in or out. Once you get out, you are not necessarily back in. You also face the problem of isolated areas of pride in your life.

If you commit murder inside the interlocking systems of arrogance, you have a problem. If there is a crime of passion, this is one thing. But with interlocking systems of arrogance, there is more going on. There might be premeditation. David has destroyed one of his best soldiers, all because he was preoccupied with himself. This gets to be a crime spree.

Nathan says that David took Uriah's wife as his wife. Loss of integrity removes all restraint and out comes a spiritual Dr. Jekyll who becomes an unrestrained Mr. Hyde. It is possible to commit an isolated sin of arrogance and have honor and integrity. But, it is not possible to get into interlocking systems of arrogance and be honorable and have integrity. There is some guy who was a great honorable employee and he could be trusted. However, all of sudden he gets way out of line. Interlocking systems of arrogance. Or your wife. Or a woman who is suddenly hit by her husband. He changed. People change. They don't have to, but they do. They may not appear on the surface to have changed. However, once you hook up with interlocking systems of arrogance, you might be Dr. Jekyll in business houses, but you become the wolf man stalking from bar to bar. Horror-fiction has an element of truth; and it is never as bad as the person who gets involved in interlocking systems of arrogance. So you say, "Who can you trust?" That's simple; get out the hymnals and sing, "What a friend we have in Jesus."

The 2nd son by Bathsheba will be named Nathan after this great prophet. Then Adonijah got Joab and a couple of others and they started a revolution. Then Bathsheba came in, and said, "You promised me that Solomon would be the next king" and David agreed and said, call in Nathan and Nathan swore in Solomon. Nathan is one of the greatest heroes.

Uriah was killed and Bathsheba was stolen. Criminals do not necessarily stick to one crime. They only specialize when they are ignorant.

Haag means to kill an animal sacrifice. Uriah was a strong man, but there was no way he could have withstood what he faced in battle. David can't say, "I didn't kill him; the Ammonites did;" but Nathan is way ahead of him.

David betrayed his own honor code, and he used the enemies of Israel as his own personal assassins.

2Sam. 12:9 Why have you despised the word of the LORD, to do what is evil in his sight? You have struck down Uriah the Hittite with the sword and have taken his wife to be your wife and have killed him with the sword of the Ammonites.

2Samuel 12:10

72David

631_0267

The UN voted to censure Russia on their invasion of Afghanistan, with all but 4 points, which goes to show that what the UN thinks is absolutely meaningless. There was a time when we did what we believed to be right, and it did not matter to us what other nations thought. For this reason, we will suffer a great deal in the next decade.

Believers are disciplined for arrogance.

"I have given to you the house of Israel and the House of Judah, and had this been too little, I would have given even more to you...you have murder Uriah the Hittite by means of the sword...of the sons of Ammon."

there is no way to have capacity for life without true humility. Soon to be a study of love.

The hippy is anti-authority and he lets his hair grow down to his shoulder which is his glutius maximum. Better to lock the doors and starve a few of them.

David has a track record as a failure; then he has news that there is a son who will be great. He straightened out his love life and then he straightened out his parenthood. Today, he would be paying to get his kids out of jail and lots of money in order to keep things quiet. We will have such a large crowd for this stuff, that Bob may have to have a matinee Bible class.

The sword refers to any form of violence and any sort of unwarranted killing. With this, we have the phrase until forever. Once a person abuses his power and his authority, including criminal conspiracy and violence, and becomes guilty of criminal arrogance, then you are punished by violence. Conspiracy violence means you are haunted by conspiracy violence.

Conspiracy, murder and revolution would seep into David's family. When you link arrogance with violence, you will pay the piper. Preview of coming attractions and Bob warns us not to try to figure this out for ourselves.

David will have a great, great grandson and he would kill Isaiah. In the genes, the weakness is there. Once established as a trend by David, criminal arrogance with occur again and again in David's line. There were 3 men in David's line who avoided this thing with their own volition. Jehoshaphat, Josiah and Hezekiah.

Unless you know your family tree, you may not realize that there are things in your family tree which could come out. However, the key is Bible doctrine.

2 ways to avoid criminal violence. Psychology class where ancestral tendencies were studied and 2 families were traced. They found right down to Bob's generation, they were still producing a major proportion of the country's criminals. The tendency is there and it must be offset by volition.

Divine establishment rationale, which is the principle of recognizing legitimate establishment authority and being oriented to it. The believer should adhere to the Royal Family Honor Code.

Damocles lived in Syracuse in 400 B.C. He wanted to sit in the seat of honor for his arrogant plans. Above him, suspended by a hair, was a sword. The sword of Damocles is for those who want to be successful, that with that, comes greater pressures and greater responsibility. The sword of David is suspended over the house of David. Joseph himself through doctrine is a very honorable man. He would not put Mary away because he was a very honorable man.

Power demands honor, integrity and a sense of responsibility to use it right. The greater the power, the greater the humility you must possess. No matter what leadership you possess, to have power and authority without humility is a disaster. Arrogance destroys leadership function.

This sword was suspended over the head of every son of David on the throne.

Suppose that there was a sword over your head representing the trends of our forebearers and how the genes have combined to develop weaknesses.

The Bible itself has pronounced curses upon races and families and groups and individuals, and this has disappears from our thinking today. But there are those in our family tree with this or that weakness, and that these weaknesses can come out at any time. We can offset our genetical structure of weakness by which a curse hangs over all of us. The curse of the sin nature hangs over us and the old sin nature has trends. We do not have the same weaknesses or the same genetical predispositions. We may or may not discover it and we may not be aware of it. However, we need the solution to it, and the solution is the Royal Family Honor Code.

There are some in David's line who are the worst SOB's in history because they had the very most negative predilections of David, unrestrained by doctrine.

You cannot regard someone with contempt and love them. Love is defined in terms of antithesis. To regard them with contempt is to hate them and to despise them.

To despise means to think of someone as worthless. Love is thinking. You cannot begin to love unless you can think. Love requires thought, and in that sense,...

Love is not the physical attraction between 2 people. Love is thought; love is respect; love is occupation with someone else. God is saying, "David, you do not love Me." And at this point in David's life, he does not love the Lord. The key is the mentality of the soul.

Anytime that you start getting involved in drugs, you are destroying your capacity to love. Marijuana, cocaine, speed, acid or any of these things destroy the circuits in your mind; and you are left with no capacity to love.

Bob suggests that we execute a few pushers in high school, and that would make an impression. There was a kid who grew up with Bobby, and he took drugs and the parents brought him to church, but his circuits had been wiped out by drugs. There must be some kids in Berachah who are too stupid to know and get involved in drugs. Kids in elementary school and junior high have no chance at all. This is another good reason to have missionaries to high school kids. Some need to be awakened to the dangers of drugs.

This is one of the reasons for the new math because some kids could not add and subtract and multiply. Their brains could not handle it. Kids have had a nervous breakdown trying to memorize their basic tables. Even the jocks liked to subtract fractions in Bob's days. However, there are too many kids whose brains won't print information. Their circuits and neurons will not print. Then they turn around and want a miracle. "Give me back my neurons." The most precious thing that you have in human life is the neurons of your soul. Without capacity, life is gone.

David is a mature believer and he is being told that "you despise the Lord." And the simple answer, "He is in reversionism" is wrong. He is in degeneracy. It is as an important distinction as between the church and Israel. Without this distinction, there is no way that you can understand yourself. How can a mature believer with maximum doctrine resident in the soul come to despise the Lord? Or how can a woman madly in love with a man, suddenly come to despise him? Or the man the woman? How can people genuinely in love come to despise one another. It is interlocking systems of arrogance. Walk into the complex and you lose your capacity for love. Develop arrogance and you have no capacity for love. Arrogance can develop in a rather short time what reversionism takes a year or more to do. Arrogance is the greatest enemy of the human race. You can be a Doeg the Edomite or you can be a David. Both are believers; one is negative toward doctrine and one is positive. One is in the 8th and final stage of reversionism and the other can be in interlocking systems of arrogance. Either one can be wiped out with arrogance. God resists the arrogant and gives grace to the humble.

Satan is the greatest looking creature to come from the hand of God and he has a phenomenal personality and was wiped out by a thought.

"I will be God" said, FDR and give everyone food, etc. the crusader plays God. Everyone plays god. There is a tendency in all of us. Bob had a better advantage here because he had a sister who was god, and he had to be the peasant. His sister was always straightening everything out. Bob was told he could not hit her; and she was a genius and knew how to play the game. He hated her arrogance. We can all learn wonderful things from awful arrogant people. We all must learn to avoid the game of playing God. We are creatures and therefore, we are dependent upon God. We do not take His place. Once you have authority in a business or a company or an organization. A football coach has a right to demand good standards.

A paratrooper could wear a beret instead of all the other stuff the army designs. A infantryman uses his helmet liner for everything. The Cowboys may not like it, and they still look good and respectable.

We may have all studied drama. Study Ibsen and you learn trends in women.

Dais ex machina; when a writer is confused, he just kills off a character. Don't know how to make everything come out right, so they are killed off in order to work out his plot. This is a great concept of drama and one of arrogance of well. To play God and tell others how they should live their lives. Pouting of a wife. Silence is not golden; it is more like an artillery barrage. "What's wrong, dear? Have I offended you?" She is just playing god and you are not doing what you are supposed to. Playing god is one thing creatures were not designed to do. This is the arrogance problem. He had all of this power and all of this authority; and he reduced everything to an administrative routine. Then he got into his favorite pastime, watching the girls.

You have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife. Adultery is emphasized by most, but the key here is, arrogance. Arrogance + any sin is evil. Any sin + arrogance = evil. Evil is the complexity. This is why arrogance is degeneracy. There can be positive volition toward truth. Interlocking systems of arrogance in David's case which have manufactured the evil. The sword will never depart from your house because you have despised me.

Arrogance turn love into being despised. The execution of Adonijah and his nephew Joab are contemporary illustrations to him of the sword of Damocles dangling over them. Many times, the sword would drop. Now and again, this sword would drop and kill someone in the line of David. This sword hangs by a very small thread.

David became a criminal. While he recovered from his criminal arrogance, the genes were set and many in his family would follow this trend. 2Chron. 22:9 Jehoshaphat sought the Lord with all his heart. 29:2 Hezekiah was free of David's character flaw. Josiah as well. So there are those who avoided it, which makes it very simple for us.

Ignorance is bliss. The sword of David reached out to Bathsheba's grandfather, and he led the revolution against David. This man was a genius in diplomacy, but it did not prevent him from taking his own life.

2Sam. 12:10 Now therefore the sword shall never depart from your house, because you have despised me and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife.'

Revolution and rape prophesied in the next verse. There will be weakness. It is not everyday that someone puts up a harem tent on top of the castle and then takes in the entire harem of the king and rapes every single one of them. God the Holy Spirit was the writer of Scripture and the human writer.

2Samuel 12:11

72David

631_0268

And Nathan said to David, "You are the man. 'I gave to you're the material possessions of King Saul and the wives of King Saul into your responsibility. Therefore, the sword will never depart from your house because you have despised me.'"

Some of you probably recognize that Bathsheba is David's RW. Bob enjoys prayer meeting because someone often asks Bob a meaningful question. The question he thought was excellent was...personality change is a part of arrogance and interlocking systems of arrogance, once you are inside, and is immediate, although those you know casually may not recognize it. When you leave interlocking systems of arrogance, you also have another personality change, back to normal. You go back to being Dr. Jekyll. Rapid personality changes definitely has an effect.

This is an obscure passage and it is filled with euphemisms and it does not offend anyone; however, this is a verse of extreme violence and weird and wild things. However, it loses its zing in the thee's and the thou's. For some of you who are hypersensitive and think the pulpit is reserved for holy languages, this night may not be your best night.

Koh amar adonai "Thus says the Lord,..." When Nathan speaks these words, David now gets a glimpse of the next 10 years of his life. Before we are through, we will have a great deal to think about with regards to discipline on the installment plan.

The interjection with a 1st person singular suffix. With this interjection of violence is the Hiphil participle of qum. Each sem has a different meaning. The verb is qum, and the Hiphil stem means to cause to exist, to cause to rise up. God will permit a great revolution in David's reign. The sins + arrogance = evil. God will raise up a revolution as one of the installments of divine discipline for David's disobedient. This rising up of evil will be revolution; this will include the murder of Amnon, the murder of Adonijah and Joab; once the sin is confessed or rebound has occurred, the discipline is diminished or removed entirely. Rebound is one of the 3 stages of the faith rest drill. Faith reaches out and claimed the promise of 1John 1:9. This applies to a believer only. Once you claim the promise, you clear the decks for action. Faith takes the doctrine and applies it to the situation. The rationale says that sin was imputed to Christ on the cross. Faith reaches out and comes to a doctrinal conclusion. On the cross, that sin or sins is judged.

Once rebound has occurred under the faith rest drill, whatever cursing is left is turned into suffering for blessing or for growth. It will be diminished or wiped out. Once you rebound and are back in fellowship, your suffering has to be in line with your spiritual growth. God makes your suffering commensurate with your spiritual growth. You can rebound a sin in interlocking systems of arrogance and still be in the interlocking system. Rebound merely puts you at your gate so you can go out. You might have enough sense to rebound, and then you are freaked out by some sort of psychosis; and you have to get outside the interlocking systems of arrogance. Rebound puts you at the exit gate, but you can turn around and go right back in. Once the sin is confessed, under the 3 stages of the faith rest drill, the discipline is diminished or removed entirely. There is one exception; a combination of sins resulting in interlocking systems of arrogance called evil. Such evil from the arrogance complex. Once the believer has rebounded and delivered from the sin unto death, the divine discipline is then delivered in installments. David stayed in one year and suppose you spend an entire year in interlocking systems of arrogance, you could spend the next decade in installments of discipline. We are just getting the first notice of the principle; not any of the details. Each time an installment comes, spaced out, and each installment is testing with cursing turned to blessing. The simplicity of it is found in 2Sam. 13:13–19.

There is no man in the world who can run a sizable harem like this, unless he is cruel. And that ought not to be a part of a harem.

Here, the wives of David will be taken publically, even though he took Bathsheba privately. In the Absalom revolution, Absalom will ravish all of David's wives in public.

Once Absalom rapes David's harem, this indicates that he is now in authority. Also, this is to make certain that Absalom does not back down. Once he rapes any person in David's harem, then he is in control over David's kingdom.

2Sam. 16:20–23: Then Absalom said to Ahithophel, "Give your counsel. What shall we do?" Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Go in to your father's concubines [have sex with your father's mistresses], whom he has left to keep the house, and all Israel will hear that you have made yourself a stench to your father, and the hands of all who are with you will be strengthened." So they pitched a tent for Absalom on the roof. And Absalom went in to his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel. Now in those days the counsel that Ahithophel gave was as if one consulted the word of God; so was all the counsel of Ahithophel esteemed, both by David and by Absalom.

The Absalom Revolt and Ahithophel

1. Copulation with David's harem is an indication Absalom wears the crown. However, here, Ahithophel is giving this advice to get back for his daughter Bathsheba. He has an ax to grind. He is mad at David. Ahithophel knew a lot and gave good advice, but not this. He is not objective. In the past, Ahithophel was objective and a person is objective because they have humility. The government requires that you hire a stupid imbecile. It was not Bob's job to judge this guy, who was the illustration for being stupid. Psychiatrists are pitiful because they counsel. Most of them are subjective, which is why they became psychiatrists. They have added subjectivity to subjectivity. Absalom is the titular head of the revolution but Ahithophel is the revolution.

2. Such action like this was a manifestation of a coup d'état.
3. The sincerity of the Absalom revolution was confirmed by Absalom copulating with David's harem.
4. Ahithophel gave Jacobin advice. This meant there would be no quarter, which is why Absalom had to die.
5. Assumption of royal authority by revolution to the dethronement of his father are portrayed by the raping of innocent victims. There were no gallant people stepping forward to save these women. Revolutionists are all arrogant. There is no gallantry at all.
6. His advice was evil. It involved arrogance and sin. The revolutionary advice of power politics. Prior to interlocking systems of arrogance, Ahithophel's advice was golden.
7. Revolution is the total evil of power politics. It destroys private property. All of these revolutionists were evil.

The roof where this begins is the roof where it all ends. David stood on a roof and he observed Bathsheba; and later, a tent was put up and Absalom fornicated with David's wives. Now Absalom had power over these women as the new king. He asserted his authority immediately over the harem and is now recognized as the king. David exercised authority by their own consent. Absalom has power and authority over them without consent. Without consent is a good description of revolution.

In sight of this sun simply refers to broad daylight. Since David had fled, the humiliation of his harem by Absalom indicates the dethronement of David. There was not always a crown in those days. It was easier to rape the members of the harem.

2Sam. 12:11 Thus says the LORD, 'Behold, I will raise up evil against you out of your own house. And I will take your wives before your eyes and give them to your neighbor [loved one], and he shall lie with your wives in the sight of this sun [broad daylight].

Revolution is the use of force and violence to overthrow establishment by means of violence. It is a form of conspiracy. It is a group of persons who are arrogant in their nature. The carefully devised and secret plan is called a plot. The means of carrying out the plot is called intrigue. The laws of divine establishment are designed to protect each one of us, our freedom, privacy and property. Revolution seeks to overthrow by violence this protection. Conspiracy always involves arrogance. This is political arrogance. Psalm 64 or 65; they shoot at him without fear of reprisal of the law. They conspire to lay snares secretly. They rationalize; who can see them. A rebellious man seeks only evil .

Evil is the plan and policy of Satan in this world. Vindictiveness is arrogance; implacability is arrogance. They are total subjectivity.

Welfare can be a part of revolution. It can mean visionaries or hard core revolutionists. The revolutionary is always an opportunist, whether a clergyman or a materialist. One of the first revolutions against Moses, in Num. 16, had a few men in interlocking systems of arrogance opposing Moses. These leaders were destroyed by God. God killed 14,000 of them. Jude also comments on them.

1775–1883 was a war for independence and for freedom; Britain was handing the baton to the United States as a client nation. This was not an attempt to overthrow, nullify or destroy another government. Other portions of the British kingdom were taxed and they were represented as well. The United States also demanded representation and they were refused. They continued to be taxed heavily, so they went to war, and they became a free client nation. The 13 colonies were being taxed but not represented.

The Magna Carta should be applied to those in the United States just as it was in Europe.

Isaiah speaks about revolution himself. The ox knows his owner; he is not in a state of revolution. A jackass may be stupid, but after working, he knows where to get his food. “But Israel does not know Me because My people lack doctrine.”

People assume that they are better than they really are.

People have a right to a living wage. Our forebearers have a problem with strong unions and they established the principles of open shop. Labor unions are revolutionary organizations. It is arrogance for them to think that it is up to them to determine their own wages. A sea (seed?) of evil workers. Citizens who act corruptly. They have abandoned the Lord; they have despised the Holy One of Israel.

Isa. 59:18 speaking oppression and talking about revolution. Jer. 5:23 they have turned away from doctrine and departed from establishment. The historical trend of revolution can be described. There are two ways to become a revolutionaries. The first way is degeneracy (interlocking systems of arrogance) and the second way is reversionism, where you reject truth in 3 forms. Rejecting the laws of divine establishment, rejecting the gospel and rejecting Bible doctrine. Arrogance + strong delusion = revolution.

Revolutionists cannot separate authority from the person who has that authority. The French Revolution and the Russian Revolution were both evil to the core. The Bourbons and old King Louis were not adept at handling government. If you put a brain in Nicky, he would have run sideways like an ant. They got rid of the person, executing him in a brutal way and destroyed all authority in Russia. They have tyranny now worse than ever.

These people only understand violence and nothing but violence.

Bob and an incident on the street; it was past the “copulate you” stage.

The basic heritage of this country is not western European or anything else; it is Anglo-saxon heritage; it demand no force or violence to solve problems. The first violation of this was the war between the states. Lincoln violated this principle. He used violence to try to gain a point for so-called welfare state.

God has not changed the authority and establishment principles of the local church. In the field of legalism, the pharisees in the time of Christ. The Judaizers were revolutionists. Government interference. Social revolution is a change in style from establishment. The 20th century does not fear sex, but they fear death; the Victorian age was just the opposite.

David rebelled against God as the darling of Jehovah. Someone he loves very dearly will do this to him.

Absalom's public rape of David's wives and mistresses; he takes what does not belong to him. This rape results in an irreparable breach between father and son. This was a demonstration of Absalom's arrogance. He was bitter and arrogant about his father's half-forgiveness. This destroyed any possibility of any true leadership from this household.

Still some principles to be gleaned from this.

Article from the WSJ about Russia and Afghanistan. We have no military and we have no mobilization plan. If we pull everyone together, we have a large number of untrained personnel. What about the regular services? No training except in socio-political thought. We could start to have one and take every soldier out of every country, including the countries Bob is not supposed to mention. We have no political courage in the White House.

The NY Times actually talks about a military reprisal if the hostages are killed. We are in an election year. The president needs to know that he made a mistake by cancelling the B1 bomber. A dove can't win during an election.

We have some divisions we can send in, but we have no way of supplying an army in Iran. Our armies have not survived when they are not supplied. We have never had any ability to support troops like that. We would have to have a large enough military machine and control the air (which Russia controls). The President, by dilly dallying in the UN, he allowed the Soviets to position themselves in Afghanistan. The Iranians and the United States could have stopped Russia, but this looks impossible now.

We have one airborne division. The stupidity which comes out of Washington is like the stench of an open sewer.

A mature believer who committed suicide; and a mature believer who has become involved in interlocking systems of arrogance can end in suicide. Ahithophel. His advice was like the oracles of God. He went from implacability, bitterness and hatred toward David as a mature believer, and he died by his own hand as a mature believer. 2Sam. 16:23

No one can rule honorably by abandoning the laws of divine establishment. This describes our president. His cancelling of the B1 bomber is an example of this.

You would not want Cæsar in your home if you had any wife or daughters; but he is the man you wanted in the Senate or ruling.

Weak people take bad advice and strong people take good advice. Strong people are objective and humble. Only the humble can recognize and take good advice. Weak people are always involved with taking advice from weaker people.

There is an illustration that Thieme is covering here and how this changes the whole course of history.

Interlocking systems of arrogance means installment discipline. We will eventually study the arrogance hangover. After you break out of the interlocking systems of arrogance, and there are 13 gates which you are susceptible to. The hangover of arrogance. How to recover from that.

Under the sun means in broad daylight. Because you have done this in secret, I will do this before all Israel and in broad daylight.

Legitimate and Illegitimate Authority

1. David was promoted as a mature believer and he had maximum authority in the country. This is still a part of the laws of divine establishment. Only through establishment does someone have legitimate authority. A thug organization or criminal organization is not legitimate authority. Any authority must be a part of divine establishment. Authority without establishment is tyranny. Illustration in an ad, in the middle of Sports Illustrated, showing lemon drops and squeezing them. The government taking away your freedoms today in the name of common good is the tyrant tomorrow.
2. The whole operation in interlocking systems of arrogance. The seduction of Bathsheba was the beginning of his discipline but not the beginning of the interlocking systems of arrogance.
3. Stealing Bathsheba will be duplicated in his own discipline where Absalom will ravish his wives.
4. David committed adultery privately, and Absalom will do it publically.
5. It should be noted that both father and son were both motivated by the same degeneracy.
6. Both David and Absalom entered into the arrogance complex through the function of their own volition. He went from bitterness to conspiracy arrogance and from there to insanity. Most people who are psychotic are there by their own free will. I think this is about Ahithophel.

7. The sins of the father can only be repeated by the son where volition is involved. The genetics may produce a weakness but they are meaningless if the volition is strong. Volition must be involved to repeat the sins of the father. Volition, not genes, is the issue.

The key to David's discipline is found in the word house.

Genes can produce a weakness, but only the volition determines whether one falls into it. Failure is a result of volition, not the weaknesses. A weakness does not demand that you do this or that thing. Amnon from his own volition seduced and raped his own sister. David should have punished Amnon for rape; so Absalom punished him. Was David restrained from punishing his own family? Did this hold him up? It is possible that every president that we have had has been told, "Don't do that, because it might start a world war." You cannot set aside establishment principles under threat of a world war.

David had the authority to punish Absalom and Amnon; he chose not to. Only MacArthur could have stopped the Russians in the Korean War. They were not ready to attack us;

The president represents all of us; someone voted for him; and a majority of the people in the US voted for him. Volition is the issue for the Angelic Conflict. The president could have done something immediately to rescue the hostages for several reasons; the Russians, the UN, etc. Instead of going by principle, some think, "I don't want to go down in history as the cause of the deaths of millions." Absalom took the law into his own hands and murdered Amnon; David did nothing and Absalom escaped, which was equivalent to being banished. David refused to see Absalom. Joab will be David's sanity.

Absalom did not have to ravish David's harem; this was taking bad advice. He was caught up in the interlocking systems of arrogance. Throughout the history of the Davidic line, these weaknesses existed; but that does not mean that these weaknesses needed to be followed.

Interlocking Systems of Arrogance and David's Family

1. It was not the genes, but the interlocking systems of arrogance.
2. David abused power and authority because he was inside the interlocking systems of arrogance. There is no way to stop it. Because of interlocking systems of arrogance, Amnon raped Tamar; and because of interlocking systems of arrogance, Absalom murdered Amnon.
3. Being inside interlocking systems of arrogance, volition is neutralized for making decisions.
4. David's own family became the basis for his judgment from the justice of God. Some of you, before you have children, you had better think again. Your children might be your source of discipline. People who do not have children are not bad; sometimes they are the smartest people around. Having children is not your duty. Ask David about birth control when you get to heaven, if you have any doubts.

5. Other members of the family were not involved. They were positive toward doctrine and because of their own free will, they avoid interlocking systems of arrogance.

2Sam. 12:12 For you did it secretly, but I will do this thing before all Israel and before the sun."

Now and old things about rebound will be what we see next time around. If you don't rebound properly, you will end up in interlocking systems of arrogance.

Wm E. Simon, former Secretary of the Treasury, writes an article for the WSJ. Windfall profits tax and the emergency bailout package for Chrysler may have given us Christmas presents that may keep on giving. The windfall profit tax is not a tax on profits; there is not calculation of profits; it is not based upon a windfall. Oil profits lie somewhere in the middle of businesses. Gold is $830/oz. Today. It's a cornucopia of regulations. It is a penalty assessment on future profits of a industry which has already had its hands tied. It is not the oil companies which are being punished but the American people. Our brilliant leaders have taken the one industry which is critically tied to our economic strength and to our political security.

For about 10 years, Chrysler has been failed with terrible management. Who should pay for a corporate management failure? Its suppliers and its bankers know their potential and have cast their vote no. Over and over again, we pay the bills for inefficient business. Monetizing the debts. How much sense does it make to put the bills of a failing institution onto the backs of the taxpayer? The members of my own party have been the worst offenders. We are vilifying an industry which is necessary for our deliverance. Men and women ignore what is in our best long-term interest. This was written by one of the truly great men in government.

John Tower made an excellent speech on television until he came to the word weak, and he said, we have a weak foreign policy when he should have said, a weak military. You need to be tough enough. Bob and his problem with the neighborhood bully.

All of this business that our president engages in, in relationship to Afghanistan. But there cannot be political arrogance without national arrogance. There are very few people really holding the line.

Bob tries to make it clear about rebound by grace, just to hack people off and get them to leave.

David is going to have a sensational rebound. He won't feel sorry for what he has done. He is not going to make it up to anyone, but he is going to be forgiven, instantly. He ought to be executed for it, but he won't even die.

David died with a beauty queen in bed, so that is how we know that he went out in dying grace.

The Doctrine of Rebound

1. Rebound is a technical term for restoration to fellowship by naming one's sins to God. The old sin nature produces human good, sin and evil. We never confess human good or evil. At the cross, all of our sins were imputed to Christ and judged. Our problems today stem from evil. All you have to do is be in interlocking systems of arrogance. People in the church are busy producing human good and they have no time for Bible doctrine. A bunch of gals who called themselves grace gals, making Bob billious. These are gung ho arrogant types. Gung ho describes those who died for Chinese communism; they were stupid and inflexible. Rebound never involves confessing human good or evil. Rebound is a private matter; you name your sin silently to God. There is no penance involved. Without the filling of the Spirit, there is nothing about the spiritual life that you can understand. You can grieve the quench the Holy Spirit; grieving is any sort of sin, mental verbal or overt. Quenching of the Spirit is reversionism and negative volition to doctrine and the function of evil. Both of these things put you in a status of non-control.
2. Rebound is related to the imputations at birth and to the judicial imputations. When human life is imputed to the soul, where it resides in time and in eternity, we are condemned. We are spiritually dead and physically alive, as we are in birth. We are born condemned on the basis of Adam's original sin. Our personal sins are not the basis for our condemnation. The first time that we sin after salvation, we are out of fellowship. Buchmanism moral rearmament have incorrect exploited confession of sin. Some religions use the power of forgiveness as control. The hyper-Calvinists are just as mixed up as the holy rollers. Both are wrong. God does love the believer, but that is because the believer possesses +R. All blessing goes from the justice of God to the righteousness of God. Man's point of reference became the justice of God. The justice of God punished our first parents and providing the coats of skin. When you are bitter, you are saying that the justice of God can't handle it. You leave everything in His hands. You do not have time to be bitter about some jerk. A weak person can only take bad advice. Weak people never take good advice. They are arrogant. This is why arrogant people resist some doctrine that they do not like. They are eclectics. They pick and choose that which they like. Anything that applies to a man, applies doubly to a woman; it shows up immediately in their face. On a man, we call that character. God never forgives us because He loves us; He forgives us on the basis of His justice.
3. Suffering stops, it diminishes or it continues at the same intensity after you rebound. The basic determining factor can be related to evil. You may get outside of interlocking systems of arrogance, and then get sucked back in. You might not be able to endure the punishment for a sin, so it is given in installments. The purpose is to discipline David for his evil; evil and human good were not judged on the cross, so these things sometimes require serious discipline, which would, in the case of David, for instance, kill him; so it is spread out over a period of time. All of us, when we get into sin, find out that it is not as simple as it is made out to be. Anyone who is involved in sin which is judged; can also be involved in sin which has not been judged. You can be involved in arrogance (and therefore, degeneracy) or apostasy. Why does the discipline continue at the same intensity for awhile, and why does it suddenly cease as a storm. You can rebound on some days and the sun comes out. Who is rebounding? That is always the issue. Let's say it is a baby believer; and they may not have enough to handle the discipline. Let's say it is the adolescent, and they can handle a little, and God diminishes their discipline. Chapters 12–13 should be called cursing turned to blessing.

David's rebound takes away the sin unto death. We are just given a summary; we do not have the whole story. All sin is against the Lord. "I have sinned against the Lord." After 1 year, David finally rebounds. If you are in interlocking systems of arrogance, that explains what is going on. He was in interlocking systems of arrogance for a year. Long before he saw Bathsheba, as early as 2Sam. 5, he entered into sexual arrogance.

Faith applies the rebound promise. Faith reaches a doctrinal conclusion: I am forgiven and restored. David had the ministry of the Spirit in his lifetime. Every believer is indwelt today and filled. All suffering is for blessing, except suffering when we are under discipline.

That accumulation of many sins means that David is forgiven his sins. He will have some arrogance hangovers. We will occasionally spot an arrogance hangover.

David's many sins are lumped into one sin. "You will not die" refers to the sin unto death, which David will not suffer.

2Sam. 12:13 David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the LORD." And Nathan said to David, "The LORD also has put away [to cause to pass by, to cause to pass over?] your sin; you shall not die.

Psalms 118:18 The Lord has not given me over to death.

Since these sins were judged on the cross, he is forgiven. Amnon repeats the adultery by raping his sister. In the 3rd installment, Absalom will murder his brother. 4th installment, Absalom will rebel against God's authority. Absalom's name is given to the revolution; but much of the credit for that depends upon Ahithophel.

Before we can do v. 14, we need to study more about rebound.

Seminal Star story by Charlie Reese. One of Carter's defects is his abuse of rhetoric, which bears no relation to reality. He says the soviet invasion of Afghanistan is the greatest threat to world peace since WWII. The use of course of force and expansionism of the Soviets is common. Soviet troops have been used in both Africa and Cuba. There is no substantive difference. It is simply a matter of convenience. The only significance is, this shatters the self-delusion of politicians who have lived in a fantasy world for the past 20 years. They can no longer maintain their fantasies. I hope that Carter is simply running off at the mouth. Even if the Soviet's move into Iran, it would be foolish for us to go to war. His rhetoric is merely reflex. He inhabits his own world, bounded on the east and west by his ears, and north and south by his hair and chin. We cannot face the Soviets on a conventional or a nuclear war field. It is more important that we whip our troops into shape rather than to think the tooth fairy staged a coup in the Kremlin. Until then, we will have to stall and eat crow. The most dangerous period of time will be the next 11 months of Carter's term. If he is seriously considering war with the Soviets, then someone needs to throw a net over him.

Therefore, the Lord sent Nathan to David and said, "There are two men in one city, one rich and one poor. The rich man had a great many flocks and herds and the poor man had one little ewe lamb. A traveler came to him...David's anger burned against the man. As king, David was the presiding judge of the Supreme Court. "The man who has done this is definitely doomed to die." Nathan said to David, "You are that man." Therefore, the sword will never depart from your house. From David down to Zedekiah, the sword never departed from his house. From your own family, I will cause them to rise up against you. Because you have done this in secret, I will do this thing before all Israel in broad daylight. Then David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." "You will not die."

David will not die the sin unto death. David entered into this system through sexual arrogance. Mental attitude sin of arrogance. David went on from sexual arrogance to conspiratorial arrogance to criminal arrogance. This anticipates the rest of the chapter.

There are a tremendous number of principles associated with this chapter.

Installment Discipline

There are two categories of discipline: there is unbearable discipline when you stay outside of fellowship. Bearable discipline means that you have rebounded, and the bearable discipline which remains will come in installments, as there is too much to bear.

1. Installment discipline is the alternative to administering the sin unto death. This is where you die horribly, miserably. A lot of pain and horror. This is designed for any believer who is negative toward Bible doctrine. The sin unto death is the last shot that God takes at the cuckoo clock. There are those who appear for their once a week blessing. If you come 20 Sundays a year, you might get the same benefit of 1 Bible class. A believer can die gloriously under dying grace or he can die miserably under the sin unto death. With lots of doctrine and positive volition toward doctrine, he crosses over that high golden bridge from life to eternity. The sin unto death is the last discipline from the Lord.
2. Therefore, installment discipline is bearable discipline as per the rebound technique and escape from the sin unto death through positive volition.
3. Unbearable suffering comes from a prolonged stay inside interlocking systems of arrogance. He was a mature believer and not negative toward doctrine; his problem was interlocking systems of arrogance. He faced the eventual administration of the sin unto death.
4. Installment discipline results from the spiritual failures on the part of the believer in two categories: degeneration (involvement in interlocking systems of arrogance) and reversionism (negative volition toward doctrine). They combine at the 3rd entrance to the interlocking systems of arrogance, where negative volition is the gate by which you enter. In times of prosperity, you will be extremely self righteous; and in times of difficulties, you will be filled with self-pity.

5. Installment discipline is the basis for the justice of God giving you discipline in increments, which is cursing turned to blessing.
6. This gives the believer able to be disciplined without them falling back into the interlocking systems of arrogance. They avoid this from which rebound freed them.
7. It is better to have an occasional arrogant hangover than to be permanently enmeshed in the interlocking systems of arrogance.
8. What do we mean by bearable and unbearable suffering? You have to draw a line through the middle of the page.
  - a. Bearable: justice of God imputes discipline to the believer involved in interlocking systems of arrogance. This increases as the believer avoids the use of rebound. The sin + arrogance is evil; or human good + evil. Many believers, once involved in interlocking systems of arrogance, are flattered by someone, and they find themselves in interlocking systems of arrogance. They are working, suffering, sacrificing, being inconvenienced, simply because someone has told them that is great and honorable. Person singular or human good or evil. Evil simply adds arrogance to personal sin. Sin + interlocking systems of arrogance = evil. human good + interlocking systems of arrogance = evil.

To solve the problem of unbearable suffering, you use faith rest applied to 1John 1:9; you clear the mind for the rebound rationale. “If we name our sins...” This depends upon our volition as to whether we do this or not. This is strictly a matter of our free will. Ομολογῶ is a legal term to cite a legal case in order to prove your legal point; this is being presented to the court as part of your case. Like faith in salvation, there is no merit associated with this word. Punctiliar action in present time. This is done once with regards to a specific sin. Obviously, you must know that this is a sin. All of these various sins become known to the individual. You cite the sins which you have committed. At the same time, you committed sins from your volition, and those sins are forgiven as well. This is done privately; you do not bear your soul before other believers.

If we acknowledge our sins, our emotion is unimpressive to God. You may have friends who think that great emotion is important; but that is just your ignorance and their ignorance combined. Now we move on to see what God will do about this. Only our sins were judged on the cross. Human good and evil were not.

We are as high as political arrogance. When people vote in arrogance, they elect arrogant people. Arrogant people are not fit to serve.

He is faithful and just; God can be depended upon. His essence produces the action of the verb. There is a double predicator nominative. Πιστός which means dependable, faithful. δίκαιος refers to His justice. There is a grace pipeline between God's righteousness and His justice.

Then we have for the purpose of cleansing us from all unrighteousness. All of this depends upon whether you specified your sins or not. It has nothing to do with promising to do better or feeling badly about what you have done. What is required is naming your sins to God. The greatest enemy of the believer is the interlocking systems of arrogance. There is bearable and unbearable suffering. When under unbearable suffering, we reach out and grab a promise. The decks are now cleared for reverse concentration. It takes a doctrine resident in the soul and applies is in reverse concentration.

Our personal sins are not an issue in salvation. They were borne by Jesus Christ on the cross. Our point of reference is the justice of God, and His righteousness is imputed to us. Eternal life is imputed to our spirit, which is the indication that we are born-again. All of this builds up into a rationale. Faith reaches out and claims a promise.

We are moved over to bearable suffering. The issue is grace; cursing is discipline is turned into blessing. If the discipline is greater than we can bear, then God breaks the remaining blessing down into portions, which are administered separately. Moses was in interlocking systems of arrogance for just a day or two. Isaiah was in for several months? Maybe he said Elijah?

David had 4 installments of discipline, each of which occurred over a period of time. How is cursing turned to blessing?

Discipline after rebound is for growth. God will turn cursing into blessing.

This will turn the subjective ones into objective types. We are describing in the Corinthians passage, and after they have rebounded, God promises that they will not be tested beyond their ability with endure these tests or increments of discipline. God allows us to relate doctrine to reality. Arrogance relates doctrine to unreality. Every chance to apply doctrine is an ftx to apply doctrine in a crisis in the future.

Ποιῶ moves us directly to the logistical grace rationale. We are tested and facing reality in that testing. Εκβοσσοῦς is a way out, a way of escape. This way of escape is cursing turned to blessing. The last years of David's life are going to be fantastic.

1Cor. 10:13 Testing has not caught up with you, except the human category. God is faithful, and He will not let you be tested beyond your ability [= your capability to endure], but with the testing He will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it.

In v. 13, David confesses that he has sinned and Nathan tells him that he would not die.

One of the verbs has a different meaning in every stem. Piel means to cause to speak evil, to speak with utter contempt; to give occasion to speak evil. A finite verb followed by an infinitive is a very strong expression. Emphasis is given to the expression of the action.

The son could live or David could live. The son of adultery is judged in the place of David. David should have died. He pronounced this judgement, which was really against himself.

He condemned himself to death. The baby will live long enough for David to become attached to him, and then the baby will die.

The enemies of the Lord must be defined. Those around the client nation Israel. Those who reject truth in 3 categories: divine establishment, the gospel and Bible doctrine. Both believer and unbeliever can say no to any of these categories of truth. They enter into interlocking systems of arrogance because the arrogant are always weak. The weak always take bad advice because they are weak; because they are arrogant. They do this simply because of strong delusion.

Right in the center of Sports Illustrated with a lemonade stand and right behind him are piles of books of government regulations. Bob has found truth even in Time Magazine. Bill Crane gave truth about the laws of divine establishment but people don't believe it.

Today, we do not have a foreign policy because we do not have an army. You cannot have a foreign policy without having an army. Russia is not impressed by world opinion; only arrogant nations are impressed by world opinion. Arrogant nations are always trying to run everyone else's business. We are trying to tell Rhodesia and South Africa how to run their business and these are much better nations than we are. Once you reject the truth, you believe the lie. God sends them the modus operandi of strong delusion, that they might believe the lie. They have taken pleasure in unrighteousness. This does not mean that people are out raising hell, but they are involved in interlocking systems of arrogance.

We will begin this evening with the arrogant psychosis of David. The psychotic cannot control life or cope with life in any way. All kinds of believers by their own free will can become just as squirrely as anyone in a psycho ward.

2Sam. 12:14 Nevertheless, because by this deed you have utterly scorned the LORD [you have given occasion to the enemies of the Lord to express utter contempt], the child who is born to you shall die [will definitely die]."

Preliminary Considerations

1. The first consideration is the omniscience of God. David is in the computer of divine decrees. The omniscience of God fed only facts into the computer of divine decrees.
2. Foreknowledge, justification, and glorification, among other things, fed into the computer.
3. David chose from his own free will to enter into the interlocking systems of arrogance.
4. The divine decrees did not coerce David, but merely recorded what happened to David before it happened. It is normal for David to become psychotic in these circumstances.

5. God's decrees originate from His omniscience and not from His foreknowledge? Billions of years ago, God knew that David, from his own free will, would enter into interlocking systems of arrogance and would eventually come to criminal and psychotic arrogance. The facts of history are fed into the computer.
6. The foreknowledge of God makes nothing certain but simply understands what is certain.
7. The decrees recognize what is certain but they do not directly affect or cause any of these events. Being in the decrees does not mean that God caused these things to occur. The doctrine of Decrees is the function of God in eternity past. David put himself into the interlocking systems of arrogance. The free will of David got him to criminal arrogance. The decrees do not directly cause any event.
8. The decree itself provides in every case that the causes acting in such a way as to be consistent with the nature of the act in question. When David entered into the interlocking systems of arrogance, he was then vulnerable to the other gates. He was not negative toward doctrine. Sometimes, interlocking systems of arrogance are too subtle for many believers.
9. David, as a mature believer had received logistical grace blessing from the justice of God to the righteousness of God and special blessing or supergrace blessing.
10. Coming down that same pipeline was discipline because David was 1 year inside interlocking systems of arrogance.
11. In the case of every free will act of a moral or a responsible agent, the decree itself provides that at the same time, the agent shall be a free agent. His antecedents and all the antecedents of the action shall be what they are. David did not arrive at criminal arrogance by accident. All the present conditions of the act shall be what they are, including all the categories of discipline. Installment blessing is designed to turn cursing into blessing. The action of suffering from discipline will be perfectly spontaneous as the result of the volition of the agent David. Most psychosis is volitional; the child who throws tantrums and gets away with it.
12. God foreknows all events, including discipline, as certainly future because He has decreed them and has made them certainly future.
13. His decrees relate to all future events; the free actions of all necessary and unnecessary agents.
14. This means to the sinful as well as to the honorable motives, thoughts and actions. Volition is the issue in the Angelic Conflict.
15. Therefore, God has decreed ends as well as means, causes as well as effects, conditions and instrumentalities as well as the events which depend upon them. In other words, Jesus Christ controls history and even though our volition may be complete out of sorts with His plan, our freedom still operates as freedom and God's control of history continues to function as control of history.
16. Therefore, God's purpose relating to all events of every kind constitutes one single comprehending all events, the free as free, the necessary as necessary, together with their causes, conditions, the relations, as one indivisible system of things, every link of which is necessary to the whole. David was involved in every step of his set of decisions.

17. The decrees do not oppose human freedom or the human freedom of David; they guarantee the certainty of our free will.
18. The foreknowledge of God does not coerce anyone's volition. You cannot blame any individual or God's sovereignty for your own actions.
19. These only have to do with the certainty of the actions.
20. Human freedom exists in the sphere and on the plane of human experience.
21. No human being ever acted outside of the divine decrees.
22. Therefore, it is important to distinguish between what God causes and what God permits. God did not cause David's sin. God did not cause David's sin. God caused his discipline. That is the justice of God entering into the picture. God does not sponsor sin nor does He encourage sin. He does not sponsor any policies which encourage sin. You and you alone are responsible for your own volition. To be whining all over the place to say it was someone else's fault is no excuse.
23. God did not decree David to sin, but He did decree that David had the free will to sin, to enter into interlocking systems of arrogance or not to. Many fundies are sociopaths because they have stayed too long in interlocking systems of arrogance.
24. While God permits David's sin, He does not sponsor David's sin.
25. The omniscience of God fed the sin of David into the computer of divine decrees. David entered into the interlocking systems of arrogance of his own volition.
26. David's action apart from coercion or coaction of God.
27. Sin plus arrogance equals evil. Human good + arrogance = evil. The interlocking systems of arrogance converts sin into evil. Once it becomes evil, others are involved. A lot of people died with Uriah; a tactical defeat for a fantastic battalion. God knows all of the other people who is involved. No one is involved innocently. Uriah died because it was his time to go. Otherwise they would not be involved. This "I'm innocent" is the whining and mewing of a self-involved person divorced from reality.

The divine decrees did not remove David from what would be in his own experience the outworking of his own volition. David's rebond because of unbearable suffering was the free will choice of David. The pressure becomes so great that the person cracks. It took David a long time to crack, but he finally cracked up. It is inevitable that this will occur. When in the unbearable suffering of evil, inside the interlocking systems of arrogance, you always blame someone else. It is the only way that a person can take the heat off of himself. He uses his volition to get in and his volition to get out.

David finally wakes up. Before you can start in recovery, you must become objective. You must take the responsibility for your own decisions. Quit passing the buck to someone else. This is why Ike was one of the greatest military men. He was never once in arrogance and he took the responsibility, even when it was not his fault.

As believers, we have the daily mirror of the Word of God. If you are arrogant, you look at the mirror of the Word and you become very subjective.

Psalm 38 tells us about David being in interlocking systems of arrogance for a year or more.

The Hiphil of zakar, which means to cause to remember. Once you have the experience, you do not want to ever forget it.

Psalm 38 inscription A Psalm of David, for the memorial offering [or, to cause him to remember].

Jakach means to not cause me to be disciplined in your anger. The discipline is so awful, you imagine that God is angry at you. Some people are angry and they let you know and others never let you know.

2 Hiphil stems. David does not want to forget what happened here. If you are hypersensitive then everything hurts. Every moment you are in the arrogance complex, you punish yourself. Every thought is like a piece of cactus sticking him.

Piel perfect of Jashar, which means to discipline. Obviously, you cannot get out of the top circle; but you can get out of the bottom circle and your life, when in interlocking systems of arrogance, discipline is intensified. If you have a choice, choose for your discipline to be outside of interlocking systems of arrogance. Make sure that it is in unbearable suffering. When God looked over and saw what David had.

Psalm 38:1 O LORD, do not punish me in Your anger, nor discipline me in Your wrath!

Inner pain and surface pain are found in v. 2. The slap is David's own hypersensitivity. Bob talks about a secretary which he had in the army who just was arrogant and just fell apart when Bob came into the office in a bad mood. She was sensitive.

Hypersensitivity is arrogance. Over estimating yourself is arrogance. People become arrogant over grief, but they turn that into self-pity. All arrogant people are preoccupied with themselves. David is expressing the hypersensitivity that he had inside interlocking systems of arrogance. He caused a lot of his own pain. Arrogant people always punish themselves. People who live in interlocking systems of arrogance are miserable.

Psalm 38:2 For your arrows have sunk into me, and your hand has come down on me.

If you are arrogant, you cannot even sleep at night. If all you can do is think about yourself, then it is obvious that you will have poor health. If you are filled with self-pity, your appetite is off. Obviously, you will be in terrible health if you become involved in interlocking systems of arrogance. David was honorable and strong and he has become sickly because of his sin.

For those who are hypersensitive, "I feel it in my bones." There are some people who feel it in the weather. Tom Sparks has Jap shrapnel near the bones and he can tell the weather and sometimes he is right and Doug is wrong.

Psalm 38:3 There is no soundness in my flesh because of your indignation; there is no health in my bones because of my sin.

Sin is not the same as iniquity. Sin without arrogance = sin; sin with arrogance = iniquity.

David has self righteousness so he jumps over to self-pity. David is now moving into psychotic arrogance.

Psalm 38:4 For my iniquities have gone over my [passed through my] head; like a heavy burden, they are too heavy for me.

David answers in v. 5. He is obnoxious to himself and to others. Hypersensitive people are obnoxious to themselves. You can never please a hypersensitive person. You cannot make them happy and they decide on something else about which to be displeased. Nothing please them. They are locked in. An arrogant hypersensitive person is on the verge of psychosis. Nothing you can ever do can please them.

Some may not say nothing for days. Their silence is killing. It is deafening. Or the opposite of silence; nothing but complaining. And there is a lot of laughing? People complain because they are completely and totally occupied with themselves.

V. 5 indicates that there is a psychological stench. David used to be the life of the party. Now he is a dud. Constantly complaining. He is a miserable person to be around.

A state of being smart and stupid at the same time; you can be a genius and stupid; you can be smart and absolutely stupid. The key is arrogance. Anyone can be people smart. The state of being foolish can be true, no matter how smart you are.

Foolishness is weakness of mind. This is anyone in interlocking systems of arrogance. Weak people always take bad advice. Weak people are not worth the time of day.

Psalm 38:5 My wounds stink and fester because of my foolishness,

David says he is bowed down; he is humbled by discipline. All the day, my manner of life is meaningless. How can his manner of life be meaningless if he lives in the palace and he has great power and wealth. Arrogance neutralized IQ and destroys capacity for life.

Psalm 38:6 I am utterly bowed down and prostrate; all the day I go about mourning.

Some thought that David has a social disease. His nerves have been on the jagged end for so long that David was gone. There is no health in his body; his nervous system was gone. It is excruciating pain.

Psalm 38:7 For my sides are filled with burning, and there is no soundness in my flesh.

Niphal perfect of pug, which means I am debilitated. He lost his nervous energy. It was his nervous energy with which he thinks. He lost the ability to think; he can only feel sorry for himself.

Psalm 38:8 I am feeble and crushed; I groan [scream] because of the tumult of my heart.

David thinks about someone other than himself.

Psalm 38:9 O Lord, all my longing [desire] is before You; my sighing [expression of grief] is not hidden from You.

Loss of capacity.

Psalm 38:10 My heart throbs; my strength fails me, and the light of my eyes--it also has gone from me.

David, you are a hypersensitive jackass, so your friends and lovers avoid you.

Psalm 38:11 My friends and companions stand aloof from my plague, and my nearest kin stand far off.

There is so little attention from others that you have paranoia. There may be some truth in it, but it is amplified because David is receiving no attention.

Psalm 38:12 Those who seek my life lay their snares; those who seek my hurt speak of ruin and meditate treachery all day long.

various rights from a book: the right to complain about substandard shoddy merchandise, the right to expect a store to stand behind its merchandise; the right to accurate billing despite the computer; the right not to be harassed by sales people. “Luck—that’s one lady I ain’t never courted.” Taste and quality can be taught. Some people are teachable and some are not. The competitive system is where the only one where one can achieve attainment of the best. #### Review Points

1. Being aware of sins parlayed into evil David has to take it. Sin + arrogance = evil. Sin + human good = evil. The worst part of our government is trying to play God. No one understands the constitution, because no one has read it. David is obliged to keep quiet and take it.
2. David is not obliged to defend himself to his enemies. Because he is in this horrible situation, he cannot defend himself or refute any charges.
3. He is guilty of compounding interlocking systems of arrogance. This is the helplessness of someone who does not use rebound.
4. No self-defense; his punishment is more than he can bear.

5. Without rebound, David is helpless in facing his enemies. Until he rebounds, his cause is his own cause and not the Lord's.
6. Only the Lord can vindicate the believer or David. David must take up his own cause; Jesus Christ will not. Therefore, casting all your cares on Him for He cares for you, does not apply to the believer in interlocking systems of arrogance. None of the promises of the 1st stage of the drill apply; only rebound applies.
7. Punishment is not converted into testing for blessing until rebound has occurred. "I'll be damned if I am going to repeat what I gave yesterday." Bob can't stand people who are so arrogant that they think that they can miss doctrine. Some of you will be so stupid to come screaming to Bob; and believe me, I'll help.

Deaf people had a lot more difficulty back then. A person who was deaf could be brilliant and understand nothing. Think of all that high IQ and being unable to understand anything. Perspicacity in the ancient world was through the ear gate. There were no books like today. Once you get into unbearable suffering, you cannot learn anything.

Psalm 38:13 But I am like a deaf man; I do not hear, like a mute man who does not open his mouth.

Being unable to hear is someone who could not learn.

Psalm 38:14 I have become like a man who does not hear, and in whose mouth are no rebukes.

Jachal means to wait while in horrible pain.

Psalm 38:15 [But for you, O LORD, do I wait \[in unbearable pain\]; it is you, O Lord my God, who will answer.](#)

David is in interlocking systems of arrogance. Once you are in, you are hypersensitive in all directions. It bothers David that his enemies are gloating. He is now hypersensitive. The principle is, you cannot do anything or get any relief or any help until you break out. The alternative is, you crack up. Psychotic arrogance.

Psalm 38:16 For I said, "Only let them not rejoice over me, who boast against me when my foot slips!"

David is adjusting for a halt. His suffering went on and on; he got no answer. His pain was intense and unbearable. It brought him to rebound. This means that God's plan for David can continue.

David cannot take it all at once, so it is paid off in installments. It is totally and completely unbearable. The intensity of his suffering inside interlocking systems of arrogance is beyond human endurance. He rebounds and now will go into installment discipline. It will be suffering that he can bear. It will convert cursing into blessing.

Psalm 38:17 For I am ready to fall, and my pain is ever before me.

David rebounds. David has committed sins in the past; and he has been involved in evil. He will gather up into one entirety the sins which are forgiven. The Hiphil imperfect of nagad.

Feeling sorry for your sins does not impress God. Name it because it is already judged. Our apologies to human beings has nothing to do with God and His forgiveness. Apologizing to God is blasphemous.

Psalm 38:18 I confess [admit, cite, acknowledge, name] my iniquity; I am sorry [troubled, concerned, uneasy] for my sin.

This is one of 3 psalms which occurs with this sin.

Psalm 38:19–22 But my foes are vigorous, they are mighty, and many are those who hate me wrongfully. Those who render me evil for good accuse me because I follow after good. Do not forsake me, O LORD! O my God, be not far from me! Make haste to help me, O Lord, my salvation!

Psalm 32 tells us what happens after David rebounds.

Psalm 32:1 A Maskil of David. Blessed is the one whose transgression is [sins are] forgiven, whose sin is covered. The sin is covered by the cross. The sins that we commit were covered by the cross. There can never be blessing or happiness for any believer out of fellowship. Rebound gets you out of interlocking systems of arrogance.

Human good + arrogance = evil (that takes care of the liberal). When you rebound, you do not know all of the doctrine that you did before. David has stagnated and he will have to relearn lots of things.

Condemned people cannot learn. Disaster, misery, punishment for sin.

The second phrase indicates that David stays out of interlocking systems of arrogance.

Why the spirit? Why not the soul? The soul contains human life imputed at birth. The human spirit contains eternal life. Whenever there is an issue which involves volition... We still have free will; we must decide. Therefore, the spirit. The soul faints. The emphasis is on it.

Psalm 32:2 Blessed is the man against whom the LORD counts no iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no deceit [negligence for rebound?].

David's pre-rebound suffering.

Often you can have some illness and lay down and the body will take care of it. However, here, we are talking about mental health.

David would sit in the palace and scream. There was physical and mental health problems.

Psalm 32:3 For when I kept silent, my bones wasted away [the function of David's body] through my groaning [screaming] all day long.

The last line is a loss of nervous energy. This is not being very thirsty.

Psalm 32:4 For day and night your hand was heavy upon me; my strength was dried up as by the heat of summer. Selah modus operandi of rebound and it is all jumbled up.

Tiffany's ad about what is the problem with our economy. An ad in the Houston Chronicle.

Is Inflation the Real Problem? What Are the Causes...

1. Spending exorbitant sums of the taxpayers' money unwisely.
2. Inhibiting the initiative of the people with regulation.
3. Taxing savings and capital formation to death
4. Tinkering with the economy using unsound panaceas; unproven ideas and panacea approaches.
5. Government programs have created critical shortages
6. Giving billions to foreign governments
7. Forsaking our religious heritage, accentuating greed, crime, etc.

In our passage, Bob reads the verses.

v. 5 is a conglomeration of confusion. Acknowledging one's sin is done to God, not to people. Rebound is judging yourself; not others. Volition is a part of the function of the old sin nature. You choose to do whatever the sin nature specifies. You cannot blame anyone else before God. You cannot bring anyone else into the picture.

God is impressed with truth; He is not impressed with auto-flagellation (like going to prayer meeting for a year). What you think about your own sin is inconsequential. You cannot depend upon a fundy for anything. Bob would not go to Byola; he walked through there and some gal popped out and said, "I saw you and the Lord told me that we will get married." That was enough, apparently, for Bob.

It is arrogant and fat-headed to think that you are able to add something to the imputation of our sins to Jesus Christ on the cross. How the believers feels about the sin is not the issue. Penance does not impress God.

Piel perfect of kasah. It means to cover, to conceal, to hide. Amar here means to decided; I have said to myself. People, even in a psychotic condition, can still use their free will. People who claim insanity ought to be taken as an admission of guilt. People can even take the responsibility for their own actions, even in a psychotic condition. Often tantrums in psychosis. But often, it is interlocking systems of arrogance; psychopathic arrogance being the factor.

Awon means guilt, and it refers to interlocking systems of arrogance. When you rebound, whatever sin put you into the interlocking systems of arrogance; so the question is, do you get out of interlocking systems of arrogance after naming your sins, and this verse tells us that we do. If you get into any sin, keep it down to a hangover.

This will be David's last tour into interlocking systems of arrogance.

Selah means the singers rest their voices and the music plays; meaning David can relax while logistical support continues.

Psalm 32:5 I acknowledged [to make known] my sin to You, and I did not cover my iniquity; I said [I have decided], "I will confess [name, caused to name] my transgressions to the LORD," and you forgave the iniquity [guilt] of my sin. Selah al zoth = because of this, therefore. Hithpael imperfect of kalal. It means to intercede, to pray. A jussive here rather than a true imperfect; this is the wish of David to pause enough. Chasid means pious, grace oriented.

This is a time of attainment, which is having all 5 of the 6 blessings; and now he will have the ability to appreciate it. Historical crisis demands that the believer be free from reversionism and degeneracy. The historical crisis means the believer must... Prayer means capacity for life. Attainment spiritual privileges of maturity, and one of those is prayer.

No one reaches maturity without that experience.

Psalm 32:6 Therefore let everyone who is grace oriented offer prayer to you at a time when you may be found; surely in the rush [flood] of great waters [= historical disaster], they shall not reach him.

Points on V. 6

1. No believer can advance without rebound.
2. Rebound gives you restoration of fellowship; and here and now, it means the filling of the Holy Spirit.
- 3.
4. If you were involved in interlocking systems of arrogance, you now have breathing space. The opportunity of getting on to objectivity. For many believers, that is temporary sanity.

5. The punishment is dispersed; God handles our problem in a different way. He will disperse our punishment so that we can handle it. Each installment is designed to convert cursing into blessing. You not only strengthen application of doctrine, but it can make you a better person than you were when you were when you started. Rebound by grace is very important. When you get out and try to push the jet, you are in trouble.
6. Apart from the function of rebound, the believer cannot fulfill reverse concentration. You must be in fellowship to use reverse concentration. When Bob first taught the faith rest life, it was only claiming promises. The purpose of claiming a promise is to removed the fear panic ploy and to use the rationales in interlocking systems of arrogance, you cannot use the rationales.
7. Apart from rebound, the believer cannot be filled with the Spirit.
8. Apart from rebound, David would not have continued as king of Israel for the rest of his life. This is point 5?? You cannot recover your spiritual life without objectivity. People can be objective about other people's sins, but not about their own.
9. To face an historical crisis, the believer must rebound so that cursing can be turned into blessing. If you are caught in interlocking systems of arrogance,...
10. Blessing in time of historical catastrophe must be taken into consideration in this verse.

The hiding place is a veil. The veil makes an attractive woman mysterious. She can choose the time to remove the veil. Most would not consider this much of a hiding place. God's protection is on what is behind the veil. Here, it is do.

The spider web in front of the cave where someone hid. It is not necessarily a great fortification; it is who protects you which counts. The only security system you need is the wall of fire. We are perfectly protected; we have a wall of fire no matter where we are. We are perfectly safe. Not because we have some system. The things which are truly secure for us are related to God; not to human viewpoint security. Our security and punishment all comes from the same source. Sometimes God protects us and keeps us alive while punishing us. The veil is not considered much protection, but the grace veil is the wall of fire. Security is logistical grace.

Min+tsar which = from pressures of disaster. You can miss a lot of your life by digging this moat, being overly concertained with your security.

1. This passage is for those who are outside interlocking systems of arrogance.
2. Inside interlocking systems of arrogance, that is the environment for punishing you. Believer involved in reversionism and degeneracy (interlocking systems of arrogance).

We all like to sing; even Bob. He used to endure a 35 min. song service when he was a Baptist. If you break into song with other people around, you are not inhibited. There are occasions for singing too.

Here, there is no singing. This is winning a battle and shouting about it. Bob shouting? It is shouting with sheer happiness.

Psalm 32:7 You are a hiding place [veil] for me; You preserve me from trouble [pressures of disaster]; You surround me with shouts of deliverance [shouts of great enthusiasm]. Selah

Closing Points

1. Logistical grace
2. This applies to believers even during a time of discipline.
3. God is the believer's deliverance. David will have a full-blown revolution that will drive him out of the country. Some will come out and boo and razz him. David's magnificent brigade of guards, not one of them will go over to the other side. David will be magnificent. He will handle every kind of a situation. David rebounds and stays out of interlocking systems of arrogance; and he has the objectivity to utilize the doctrine in his soul. Some he sent back, some he took with him. He gave the right commands and handles the situation perfectly. In each installment of discipline, they were turned to blessing. David will exploit to the maximum grace. He will set up the nation for grace and a great kingdom. He takes the doctrine which he has learned and he applies it. Bob recalls guys who looked great in practice, but they choked up under pressure. There will be one arrogant hangover, but David will handle that.
4. No matter what precautions you take or what plans you can devise, only the Lord can deliver. If you get to your place and your food is gone or your ammunition is stolen. Any system of preparation for disaster which calls for neglect of doctrine is no damn good. So becoming a part of some paramilitary group is problematic if you miss out on doctrine. Everyone has an idea. You might have your extra food, your ax, your fishing line; but you forgot to bring the doctrine in your soul. If you neglect doctrine in prosperity, what are you going to do under pressure? No matter what precautions you take, there will be dead rabbits all over the place.
5. The best laid plans of man for disaster have often been the basis for his destruction. You are often digging your own grave; making your own destruction; blown up by your own preparations.
6. Only the Lord can deliver as a part of logistical grace blessings.
7. Obviously, from this contact, the Lord does not deliver the believer from interlocking systems of arrogance. He leaves us there to strangle.
8. There is no deliverance in times of historical disaster for the believer who enters into one of the gates. Bob runs through the gates.

There is a sound system designed just for taping; so there is a new system, which allows Bob the full use of his voice. Dale always puts these things in and then goes out of town. Bob likes the new sound system.

Bob used Von Polis and Von someone else to illustrate something. He refers to Time Life volumes on WWII. Chapter is about Stalingrad. Bob reads a bit from this.

Rebound also takes you out of interlocking systems of arrogance. A few previous verses are read.

Bob encourages us to come to prayer meeting. The flood of great crisis.

The cursing being turned to blessing depends upon the doctrine taken in during the breathing space time.

When David was a battalion commander, he married a commoner. As the case of many other commoners, she was arrogant. David had a child by her whose name was Amnon. He is the crown prince. Because David was such a lousy father, Amnon grew up with no restraint, except the guidance of his arrogant wife. He has a son and daughter by Maacah, who was a great aristocrat. They are very different people. All of David's wives were very different in many ways. Absalom and Tamar.

Adonijah is a 3rd son, whose mom told him to play his cards right to be a king.

Amnon was in interlocking systems of arrogance; and he was like Caligula and Nero. All David's harem had 17 women, all with children, and all of them wanted their sons to be the crown prince, which means problems. Absalom is the aristocrat and Amnon is the ghetto jerk. Adonijah is a hood. His mother reared him to be a hood.

Polygamy breeds arrogance. Polygamy breeds weak fathers and strong mothers. Strong mothers produce arrogant sons. Arrogant sons under the same castle harem produce enough problems to punish David for 100 years.

God said to David, the best thing I can do for you is give you lots of doctrine. Justice of God will give David 4 installments of discipline. Good keeps people alive in order to give them the installment discipline.

Sakal means to look at something, to concentrate on something.

All of the maskil psalms are done to motivate one to doctrine. Prov. 21:11 if you are smart, you are motivated to learn doctrine.

Marching is progress from point A to point B. Since we cannot keep track of things like David did, we have to learn things in which we are not interested.

Bob did not like math, then his dad called him in and told him, "If you don't like it, then you accept it as a challenge and you keep on it until you learn it."

God takes a good crisis and uses it for a time of installment discipline.

3 principles: I will teach you, I will instruct you, and I will guide you. Teaching repetition of doctrine, and guidance is the application of doctrine.

When you are going to make a decision, that means you are talking about will or volition. Satan, we have discovered in redistribution of wealth; socialism. Bob has 3 choices, getting married, joining the mob or joining the army. Not sure what the point is here. If your volition is involved, then you wonder, what if I make a mistake?

Operational will of God; what does God want me to do? Geographical will of God; where does God want me to be? Maybe you married the wrong gal, or the right gal and the wrong time.

The more doctrine that you have, the better decisions that you will make. To make a decision, you must have facts. You must be able to analyze and synthesize the facts. You must have doctrine to apply to the facts.

Eyes simply means that God provides doctrine so that we can analyze, synthesize, and conclude. "Therefore the Lord will continually guide you and take you to a scorched place."

Prov. 3:6

Psalm 32:8 I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go [march, move forward]; I will counsel [guide] you with My eye upon you.

Prov. 3:1 My son, do not forget my teaching, but let your heart keep my commandments,

Prov. 3:2 for length of days and years of life and peace they will add to you.

Prov. 3:3 Let not steadfast love and faithfulness forsake you; bind them around your neck; write them on the tablet of your heart.

Prov. 3:4 So you will find favor and good success in the sight of God and man.

Prov. 3:5 Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding.

Prov. 3:6 In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths.

Eph. 5:14, 18 stop being ignorant, but understand what the will of God is.

2Samuel 12

Psalm 32:9–10a 72David

631_0276

4 installments, and each represents an installment of discipline. "Cursing is turned into blessing; there is the first cursing, the damn thing doesn't write..."

God does not care about IQ tests. It means very little to Him. How smart or how dumb you are might come through academic discipline or through hard knocks. There are some people in life who are so smart that they go through life learning what hot is from academics. They don't have to touch it.

David's rebound will turn unbearable suffering into bearable suffering. David could not take all of his discipline; he had to take it in installments. "I will teach you [teaching through instruction; learning Bible doctrine and going with it] and I will instruct [learning by suffering; learning by discipline] you in the way you will march; I will guide with My eyes on you." (Psalm 32:8).

David learned through the teaching of Bible doctrine and he learned the hard way, through discipline. The second verb used to be learning through repetition, and not it refers to learning the hard way. Adversity directly related to blessing. Some believers can only learn through punishment and discipline from the justice of God. Some of this can be unbearable suffering. Others learn doctrine the easy way, outside the interlocking systems of arrogance. Inside interlocking systems of arrogance, the believer learns doctrine the hard way. When the believer will not avoid interlocking systems of arrogance, the easy way is set aside. Perception of doctrine must be set aside. Without consistent and persistent rebound, the believer, no matter how mature, cannot avoid interlocking systems of arrogance.

Bob is watching a young lady in back who is absolutely bored. Bob predicts for her tremendous suffering in the future. She does not have a Bible and is bored stiff and propping herself up with her hand it is looking around.

Hayah + the negative. The combination of the two is to keep these separate. Bob likes horses and he used to enjoy jumping horses until he broke his back. But horses are stupid and they learn through pain. The place is in the mouth; they have a very tender mouth. If you ride like the cowboys; the horse is getting undeserved suffering.

They are characterized as being without understanding. If you cannot learn the easy way, then you must be taught the hard way.

The imbecility of Congress; the windfall profit tax is dumber than the guaranteed $10,000/year income for scum. We are a nation of horses and mules; a people without understanding.

There are 3 categories of believers; those who are academic and can learn by listening; others can learn by bearable suffering; and then there are those who need unbearable suffering in order to understand God's direction.

You get subjective and get caught up in a passage and think Bob is personally attacking you; you cannot learn. If you take it as the ministry of God the Holy Spirit to you, you might learn something. Bob's 2 dogs being trained. One learns and the other does not. Some of Bob's best runs are chasing Dash a couple of miles away. Believers in times of adversity have no understanding. No matter what kind of pain; no matter how much they hurt, you can be hurt more by having no understanding.

The Bridle Analogy

1. Without understanding doctrine, the believer will be trapped inside the interlocking systems of arrogance and will have to learn everything the hard way.
2. In the analogy of this passage, you must bridle a horse in order to guide him. And it depends upon how they feel that morning. Bob has to change his vocabulary when the horse was a problem, and he would have to explain that not only is the horse stupid, but all of his antecedents were stupid as well. You learn to apply to the unusual with what you have learned all along. David had installments of discipline with respite in between where he could learn.
3. The bit is the bearable suffering and the bridle is the unbearable suffering.

Sin + arrogance = evil.

Psalm 32:9 Be not like a horse or a mule, without understanding, which must be curbed with bit and bridle, or it will not stay near you [otherwise, they will not come to you].

Guilty is punishment from the justice of God. The sufferings of the guilty are the hard way. David wrote Proverbs for his sons, when he began to be a good father. Solomon wrote Ecclesiastes, which are about him learning things the hard way.

Suffering is one way of teaching.

Psalm 32:10 Many are the sorrows [sufferings] of the wicked [guilty], but steadfast love surrounds the one who trusts in the LORD.

There is an academic system being taught in v. 10b, which will be covered next time.

2Samuel 12

Psalm 32:10b 72David

631_0277

David's discipline was so great that there was no way for him to handle it, so God gave it to him in installments.

Disaster is a word that we need to get used to. National arrogance leads to national disaster and national arrogance is the way things are going today.

We are flying over the Indian Ocean in B-52's, which are mostly older than the pilots. We are getting ready to send weapons to Pakistan which are better than we have. We know from Vietnam that if we do not have the support of the people, the servicemen are treated poorly.

China has become evil and vicious China, and we are going to support them by giving them some of our sophisticated weapons. Politicians get into the picture here. We have rejected our military establishment. You can almost say that our military is as amateur as our amateurs. We are so unrealistic.

At the same time, you can face disaster when you are with someone with a good mental attitude. We do not need rude and stupid people or snarly people. There is no good mental attitude in this country. Anyone who is doing a good job in the military today, needs to work 6 day weeks and 14 hours a day, and they hand in with great dedication. This is why what we are studying is so extremely important.

You might be in Bible class every night, but you have shown up with the fattest head in class. Others have a problem with resisting doctrine or being eclectic and just choosing whatever doctrine they want. Bob was appalled when he gave some information on divine guidance and people seemed to think this was brand new.

The guilty believer has many sufferings; if you get into interlocking systems of arrogance, there is no hope for you and your sorrows. Once David got outside of interlocking systems of arrogance, he needed his discipline to be administered in installments.

David was a weak father because he was involved in polygamy. Some of the mothers because very pushy in order to put their children up front. Some become very arrogant.

3 men had great potentialities, but each one would be involved in interlocking systems of arrogance, and each would destroy his potentiality and his own life. They are all weak because of arrogance. Particularly Absalom, who had great potential. Absalom, Adonijah and Amnon all wanted to take David's place. All were crown prince at one time or another. They had involved others with them in interlocking systems of arrogance.

Jonadab, a son of one of David's brothers? He was arrogant and a trouble-maker. He was strong and he gave advice to Amnon the weak. David got out and he survived; we wiped out a whole system of primogeniture. He has 7 original wives + some wives in Jerusalem. He has picked up a variety of wives and 10 mistresses before Jerusalem.

David's problem was sin, but interlocking systems of arrogance can also involve human good and crusader arrogance. People begin to accumulate human good in order to impress someone. Some join campus crusade in order to find a gf.

Some of the finest systems of aristocracy were found in Germany, even though they were just barely out of worshiping the trees they crawled out of.

Lord Montbatten had nothing to prove; but he worked hard and was filled with self discipline.

Arrogance makes an issue out of environment. It is always the snootiest people who came from the wrong side of the tracks. Do not let any handicaps hold you back. When you all arrogance to become an issue, then you get involved in inordinate ambition, and those people always fail, no matter how talented. Amnon's mother trained him. She was a commoner and she was constantly upset when David would bring in these aristocratic wives, which would upset her.

People who make an issue out of race or out of being in a minority. Only officer to make field marshal was Rommel. As soon as you make an issue out of race or minority, that is exactly what happens. David was a strong man but he was a weak father. All of these different mothers and all these kids. One kid never gave David any trouble; Killiab also called Daniel. He was never mentioned as being involved in any of these problems; his mother was Abigail of Carmel, and she was such an unusual woman, she never bothered with interlocking systems of arrogance. She did not compete. She trained her son to stay loose and relax. He was not involved in interlocking systems of arrogance. It does not make any difference on which side of the tracks you are born, you are in interlocking systems of arrogance or you are not. The standards of success are measured in various ways, by genetics, by races, but not here. As a believer in the United States, we have every opportunity to glorify the Lord.

Qal active participle participle of batak, which refers to faith. Faith reaches out and claims a promise, which clears the deck for action. This just makes it possible to prepare you for action; to remove any fear and anxiety or human viewpoint. It is the second stage where batak comes into its own, applying the rationales.

The trusting in this verse is trusting in the Lord in the 3 stages. Faith reaches out and grabs a promise or a rationale. As rule, entertainers ought to be locked out and only let out to perform. Most of them are the worst people in the world to get information on anything. It never occurs to you that entertainers must concentrate on their talent in order to be entertainers.

You're not in control of the situation. Put us in interlocking systems of arrogance, we are dependent upon our own strength.

Psalms 32:10 Many are the sorrows [sufferings] of the wicked [guilty], but grace surrounds the one who trusts in the LORD.

Samach means you can be with people and enjoy it. Obeying this command, the believer needs maximum doctrine in the soul. Some of you are so messed up from the start, that you won't even date unless you think you are dating your RM or your RW. What happened to going out with a real life woman, and not thinking about what kind of furniture that you like. The doctrine doesn't make people arrogant; it is their subjectivity with which they approach the doctrine.

If you are arrogant, you cannot look at anything objectively. You are a grenade and the pin is out. People are always on the defense. Samak means to think; and gil means to dance around in a circle in happiness. This is capacity for life. Some people become holy rollers because those around them are being holy rollers.

Bob and a job that they worked together for long hours 7 days a week, and they were motivated because they were exhausted and they did a great job.

After this time period, David never again got involved in interlocking systems of arrogance.

A review of the translation. To him only, they will not approach. Dry ground? You are my hiding place from disaster; you will surround me with shouts of deliverance; I will teach you and instruct you. David had 22 years of marching when he went into interlocking systems of arrogance. He had to learn the hard way. I will guide you with My eyes on you.

Psalms 32:11 Be glad [Possess inner happiness] in the LORD, and rejoice, O righteous, and shout for joy, all you upright in heart!

Psalms 32 is going from unbearable suffering to bearable. Psalms 32 is reread.

This does not match up with Bob's translation given here.

Psalm 32 from Syndein

~'Happineses . . . {to} those/' How happy is he' . . . whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered {short accounts - consequences terminate with rebound see also Lamentations 3:42 - this does not happen with prolonged carnality}

{Note: Forgiveness of sin is 'subtraction' - it is NOT salvation. 'Imputation of the righteousness of God (Genesis 15:6) is an 'addition'. You must have the imputed righteousness of God for salvation and to permit the justice of God to bless you.}

2~'Happineses . . . {to} those/'How happy is he' . . . the man to whom Jehovah/God does not impute sin/iniquity {reference to pardon after rebound - release from liability of the sin}, and in whose spirit {ruwach} there is no guile.

{Note: All sins of all mankind were imputed to Christ on the cross. Adam's original sin was imputed to every human at the point of birth. After salvation, believers are imputed with the righteousness of God. With the righteousness of God, God will no longer impute sin to believers.}

3~When I was caused to keep silent {about my sins} {failure to rebound}, my body/bones 'wasted away'/'was worn out by use'/'waxed old' through my groaning all the day long. {sh@agah - literally the 'roaring' like of a lion' - internal distress}

4~For day and night Your hand kept on being heavy upon me {idiom for divine discipline for sin}. My vitality {literally 'bodily fluids'/moisture (l@shad)} was drained away {literally 'became like the drought of summer'}. Selah {Selah means singers rest and instruments play on - it is a picture of you resting while the Grace of God continues on}.

{Rebound of Sins (See I John 1:9) After David's Prolonged Carnality}

5~I keep on being caused to acknowledge {'yada} my sin {chatta'ah} unto You, and my iniquity I did not hid. I said, " I will confess my transgressions to Jehovah/God." Therefore, You forgave the guilt/'consequence of iniquity' of my sin. Selah {Selah means singers rest and instruments play on - it is a picture of you resting while the Grace of God continues on}.

Psalm 32 from Syndein

{Note: The 'wages of sin is death' - spiritual death. When we sin, we leave fellowship with God. When we confess our sin TO HIM, He forgives the sin and you are restored to fellowship. Any discipline for punishment is removed or converted to testing for benefit.}

6`` For this shall every one who 'are faithful ones'/godly pray unto You {all believers MUST use the Rebound technique to keep short accounts with God - long periods of carnality (and lack of rebound of same) results in 'hardness of heart' and eventually personal rebound will not even be effective.} in a time when You may be found. Surely in the floods of great waters {used as an analogy for stressful and trying times} they shall not keep on being caused to come to Him {faithful believers rest in Him in times of trouble and do not only come running to Him in times of trouble - they are occupied with Him daily}.

7`` You are my 'secure place' {cether - was the word for a rabbit hiding in a hole to get away from the fox}. You shall keep on 'watching over me'/'preserving me' from trouble/'distressful times'. You shall intensively surround me with songs of deliverance. Selah {Selah means singers rest and instruments play on - it is a picture of you resting while the Grace of God continues on}.

8`` I will be caused to continually instruct {sakal} you and teach {yarah} you in the Way which you shall keep on walking. I will keep on counseling/guiding {ya`ats} you with my eye.

9`` Be not as the horse, or as the mule, which {dumb animals} are caused to have no discerning/understanding {biyn}. Whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near unto you.

10`` Many sorrows/pains {mak'ob} . . . {shall be} to the wicked. But he who trusts in Jehovah/God, grace {cheched} shall surround him intensively!

11`` Be glad {samach} in Jehovah/God! {an order} And rejoice {giyl}, you righteous {tsaddiyq}. And be caused to sing/shout for joy {ranan}, all you that are upright in the 'right lobe'/heart.

There is one other psalm, and we find this in Psalm 51:1–13, which we will cover just the translation of. :

Grace here is a request for installment discipline.

His post-rebound situation.

Psalm 51 inscription To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David, when Nathan the prophet went to him, after he had committed adultery with in to Bathsheba. Have mercy on me, O God, according to your grace policy, according to your abundant mercy blot out my transgressions.

Psalm 51:1 Have mercy on me, O God, according to your grace policy, according to your abundant mercy [greatness of Your compassion] blot out my transgressions.

David was asking that his discipline be given to him in installments; so that he did not receive it all at once.

There was much more than just confession of his sins.

Psalm 51:2 Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin!

When an installment of discipline occurs, David will understand the sin that he committed. In each on of these, there will be an increment concept.

The naming of his sins. His sin is forgiven; but he is reminded of his sins.

Psalm 51:3 For I acknowledge my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me [David's discipline is right there in front of him; he sees this with each installment of discipline].

David manufactured this sin from interlocking systems of arrogance.

David has objectivity in rebound.

Psalm 51:4 Against you, you only, have I sinned and done what is evil [manufactured this evil] in your sight, so that you may be justified in your words and blameless in your judgment.

Imputation of Adam's original sin.

Psalm 51:5 Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity, and in sin [sinful from the time my mother conceived me] did my mother conceive me.

Reverse concentration.

Psalm 51:6 Behold, you desire doctrine in my inward being, and you teach me wisdom in the secret heart.

Hyssop is used for cleansing from leprosy. Hyssop would be used, and David sees himself as being in a situation like leprosy. Analogous to being a leper. Lepers were only healed by a miracle. He will see how beautifully the Lord.

David knew from his installment discipline, he would see cursing turned to blessing and how God has pulled him away from the 13 gates of interlocking systems of arrogance.

Psalm 51:7 Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

Psalm 51:8 Let me hear joy and gladness; let the bones that you have broken rejoice.

Psalm 51:9 Hide your face from my sins, and blot out all my iniquities.

Create in me a new right lobe.

Psalm 51:10 Create in me a clean heart [pure right lobe], O God, and renew a right spirit within me [renew within me integrity of life].

David had the Holy Spirit and he lost it for a period of time.

Psalm 51:11 Cast me not away from your presence, and take not your Holy Spirit from me.

A night could be spent on the next verse.

Psalm 51:12 Restore to me the joy of Your salvation, and uphold me with a willing spirit [going from subjectivity to objectivity].

Psalm 51:13 Then I will teach transgressors Your ways, and sinners will return to You.

This prepares us for installment discipline to begin Sunday morning.

Syndein has the following:

Psalm 51 from Syndein

Chapter 51

1a~~ {Title} To the chief musician {natsach} of the Psalm {mizmowr} of David on the occasion when Nathan the prophet had gone to him when he had gone to Bathsheba.

Have mercy upon me, O Elohim/Godhead, according to Your lovingkindness according unto the multitude of Your tender mercies blot out my transgressions.

2 Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

3-4~~ For I acknowledge {confess - David is rebounding} my transgressions and my sin is ever before me {Rebound}. 4~~ Against You, and against You only, I have sinned and done evil in Your sight.

5~~ Behold, I was shaped in iniquity, and in sin did my mother conceive me {old sin nature is passed down from Father at birth - so he was 'born already in sin'}.

Psalm 51 from Syndein

6 Behold, You desire Truth/Doctrine in the inward parts. {metabolized into the norms and standards of the conscience of your soul - 'Your Thinking the Viewpoint of God'}

And in the hidden part You cause me to know wisdom.

7 Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean. Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

8 Make me to hear joy and gladness; that the bones which you have broken may rejoice.

9 Hide your face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities.

10 Create in me a clean heart, O 'Elohim/Godhead; and renew a right spirit within me.

11 Cast me not away from Your presence; and take not Your Holy Spirit from me.

12 Restore unto me the joy of Your salvation; and uphold me with your free spirit.

13 Then will I teach transgressors Your Ways; and sinners shall be converted unto you.

51:14` Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O 'Elohim/Godhead, you 'Elohiym/Godhead of my salvation. And my tongue shall sing aloud of Your righteousness.

15` O Lord/'Adonay, open you my lips; and my mouth shall show forth Your praise.

16 For You desire not sacrifice; else would I give it. You delight not in burnt offering.

17 The sacrifices of 'Elohiym/Godhead are a broken spirit. A broken and a contrite heart, O 'Elohim/Godhead, You will not despise.

18 Do good in Your good pleasure unto Zion. Build You the walls of Jerusalem.

19 Then shall You be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness, with burnt offering and whole burnt offering then shall they offer bullocks upon your altar.

Apparently, Bob never covered Psalm 51 completely in his ministry. Syndein does not match what I have in my notes (which are not perfect).

From: http://syndein.com/Psalms\_51.html

2Samuel 12:15

72David

631_0278

Last night was Saturday Night at the Movies. A peasant and an aristocrat; both involved in interlocking systems of arrogance, which destroyed both of them. Integrity, honor code is what won out.

To prepare ourselves for the 4 installments of discipline. He married Ahinoam of Jezreel, who was a commoner or a peasant; and her son was Amnon. Maacah was the princess of somewhere and an aristocratic woman. Absalom and Tamar are her 2 children. He also married Abigail of Carmel and she and her child caused David no trouble. Then there is Haggath, who was a guttersnipe. From her came Adonijah. Amnon, Adonijah and Absalom will all be men who desire to be the crown prince. Solomon will be, who is the 2nd son of Bathsheba.

Principles

1. Because of polygamy, David was a strong man but a weak father. Men who are polygamous are weak. No matter what their strengths are, they are weak fathers. No one practices polygamy without being a weak father.
2. David's wives, for the most part, were strong mothers who raised arrogant children.
3. Most of the wives in the harem were arrogant. This caused them great trouble. Arrogance makes an issue of environment and makes an issue of race.
4. Upper class arrogance produces tyranny; and lower class arrogance foments revolution. The racial issues we face today are arrogance and nothing else; minority issues are based upon arrogance and nothing else. Arrogance makes an issue of environment.
5. The only son who did not give David any trouble was Killiab the son of Abigail. David married Abigail and her son grew up entirely separate from interlocking systems of arrogance. She was free from arrogance and vindictiveness and she avoided most of the harem conspiracies.
6. This is because Abigail was a wonderful mother.
7. Abigail had class, like Bathsheba. She had overt beauty and poise and wisdom and her beauty was free from arrogance. Most women ruin their beauty with arrogance.
8. Humility added to the surface beauty provided the perfect environment for the spiritual growth of her son.
9. Arrogance makes an issue out of environment; all racial issues involve interlocking systems of arrogance. The Jackoben mentality was one of the most evil in history. Overthrowing the government is what the Jackobens wanted. All racial issues are a matter of interlocking systems of arrogance.
10. All racial issues should eliminate genetic arrogance.
11. Being born-again should eliminate the problem of genetic arrogance; but rebound and doctrine can deliver from the trap of interlocking systems of arrogance.
12. Arrogance produces weak fathers and strong dominating mothers.
13. This is why the child of David and Bathsheba must die. Their first son would have been a monster. David had just come out of interlocking systems of arrogance. And Bathsheba just entered. David will become a great father next 4 children of Bathsheba, who will become one of the great mothers of all times.

Prov. 31 means of the king, to the king, belonging to the king. This is what Solomon wrote about his mother. The key is inner beauty and not exterior beauty.

Pro 31:1–3 The words of King Lemuel. An oracle that his mother taught him: What are you doing, my son? What are you doing, son of my womb? What are you doing, son of my vows? Do not give your strength to women, your ways to those who destroy kings.

What Bathsheba taught Solomon about drinking.

Prov. 31:4–8 It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine, or for rulers to take strong drink, lest they drink and forget what has been decreed and pervert the rights of all the afflicted. Give strong drink to the one who is perishing, and wine to those in bitter distress; let them drink and forget their poverty and remember their misery no more. Open your mouth for the mute, for the rights of all who are destitute.

A woman to choose type of jewelry, she ought to choose pearls; they show class. Diamonds are too harsh.

Prov. 31:10–12 An excellent wife who can find? She is far more precious than jewels. The heart of her husband trusts in her, and he will have no lack of gain. She does him good, and not harm, all the days of her life.

She has well-organized clothing. The woman must recognize that her man cannot spend all of her time with her. She must find things to do; she must find things to occupy her time, so that she does not spend her time whining and mewing about the lack of attention.

She is well-organized. She is beautiful and she is good with investments.

Prov. 31:13–16 She seeks wool and flax, and works with willing hands. She is like the ships of the merchant; she brings her food from afar. She rises while it is yet night and provides food for her household and portions for her maidens. She considers a field and buys it; with the fruit of her hands she plants a vineyard.

Women need to be compassionate. There is no class in a woman who goes into fits of screaming or periods of silence.

Pro 31:17–22 She dresses herself with strength and makes her arms strong. She perceives that her merchandise is profitable. Her lamp does not go out at night. She puts her hands to the distaff, and her hands hold the spindle. She opens her hand to the poor and reaches out her hands to the needy. She is not afraid of snow for her household, for all her household are clothed in scarlet. She makes bed coverings for herself; her clothing is fine linen and purple.

His prominence is her desire and she does not attempt to compete with him.

Pro 31:23–25 Her husband is known in the gates when he sits among the elders of the land. She makes linen garments and sells them; she delivers sashes to the merchant. Strength and dignity are her clothing, and she laughs at the time to come.

This woman can think. Bob tells some gal, a blonde and someone with glasses. "You either listen or leave right now. You do not get away with rudeness where the Word of God is being taught."

A woman is not beautiful unless she can think. Any woman with doctrine can think .

Solomon wrote this about his mother. He was eternally grateful for his mother.

Pro 31:26–29 She opens her mouth with wisdom, and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue. She looks well to the ways of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness. Her children rise up and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her: "Many women have done excellently, but you surpass them all."

doctrine resident in the soul.

Pro 31:30–31 Charm is deceitful, and beauty is vain, but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised. Give her of the fruit of her hands, and let her works praise her in the gates.

Prov. 12:3–4 No one is established by wickedness, but the root of the righteous will never be moved. An excellent wife is the crown of her husband, but she who brings shame is like rotteness in his bones.

Better to be alone than with a contentious woman.

There are many doctrinal lessons in these passages. Environment is not an issue. There must be more to a woman than her physical appearance; one depends upon her inner life.

There is a critical illness which strikes the child which is David and Bathsheba's. The ministry of Nathan was completed, so he went on home.

The child is struck by God with a critical illness. He was dying and dying slowly. The child will have eternal life because he was not old enough to have made a decision. Taking the child home before he reaches accountability, he is saved forever.

Both parents love their son dearly, and this strikes them in their souls.

It is not Nathan's job to punish David or to censor him or to bring him to court. No gimmicks; he asks for no money. Too many ministers regard themselves as God's whips. There is constant begging for money and they make false issues out of finances. The pastor is not God and not the source of punishment. The only exception is when members of the congregation bully or are nosey, and the pastor needs to evict these. The justice of God does not need out help in judging the sins and failures of others.

Principles

1. The justice of God did not administer the first installment of the justice of God. "Well, why does 't God just strike people dead in the congregation?" They must be able to hear the truth.
2. Only after Nathan went home did the installment discipline begin.
3. Objectivity versus subjectivity. The recipient of installment discipline needs to be objective about it.
4. Blessing and spiritual growth from installment discipline is impossible apart from..
5. The believer must be focused on the fact that God is the one punishing them; this is one of the reasons that Nathan is out of the picture. You must avoid blaming anyone else.
6. The person must be aware that his punishment is being imputed from the justice of God and God is fair.
7. Punishment meted out in a sin must come from God and not from you. Arrogance makes people think they ought to punish.
8. Bitterness of others toward you only complicate your life. You seek revenge on them.
9. David had no right to blame Bathsheba, Uriah or Joab. When David was approaching a woman, he always had to say, "My wives do not understand me." (Joke) he cannot blame the push pull of his mistresses.
10. In this, David was objective. He will have many prosperous years after this.
11. He will regain his humility and integrity.
12. Installment discipline is designed for spiritual growth. Doctrine must accompany it. We grow by learning and by applying doctrine. David uses reverse concentration and will learn by installment discipline.

Systems of Advance

1. Daily function of gap so that doctrine resides in the soul. Good taste comes from knowledge. It is knowledge which brings about good taste. Apart from learning doctrine, there is no way of spiritual growth. Our happiness in time, our glorification of God in time, logistical grace are all learned through Bible doctrine.
2. This ἐπίγνωσις doctrine advances the pivot and it provides thought structure of doctrine in the soul as a rationale. Thought-material for application of doctrine in the 2nd stage. We grow academically and then experientially. Learning and applying doctrine. At various stages, we are tested; personnel tests, economic tests, career tests. Sometimes these are testing; and sometimes it is discipline. An adolescent might have his suffering diminished after rebound; and a mature believer might have his broken down into installments.
3. Suffering as testing as suffering for blessing;
4. Regardless of the category of blessing and spiritual advance, it must come from using great objectivity in 3 phrases of the faith rest drill. We have control of the system through doctrine.
5. While David will fail, he was totally objective and totally grace oriented. David will have an arrogance hangover.

6. David became a greater man due to all of this than ever before in his life. He was totally free of interlocking systems of arrogance. David was in interlocking systems of arrogance in some of his previous life.
7. The real greatness of a person is determined by their orientation to authority and self-discipline.
8. If you want to see the real person, observe how they take their punishment. Objectively or subjectively.
9. As a result of punishment, some go backward and they are bitter toward everyone else. When God gives discipline, some people get worse, if they respond with subjectivity. However, if they respond objectively, they gain from it.
10. Believers cannot put up with arrogance and other mental attitude sins when being punished by the job. Objectivity means humility. He has true objectivity. Without this objectivity, he will never have this great relationship with Bathsheba. The dying of this son could destroy the relationship of David and Bathsheba. They will emerge as the love of the century. Why is David able to find happiness here after 25 or more women?

2Sam. 12:15 Then Nathan went to his house. And the LORD afflicted the child that Uriah's wife bore to David, and he became sick.

2Samuel 12:16

David had objectivity under discipline.

Consequently, David pleaded with God on behalf of the boy. There is no bitterness and no blaming of anyone or excuse or any form of rationalizing.

Many prayers are not answered and will not be answered; they have some form of arrogance or some form of subjectivity. David understands in a very limited way the attitude of God the Father in judicial decision which He makes.

It is a great temptation to use gimmicks for getting money. Everything must be based upon your own volition and your own motivation. Some people will not give unless they like someone or are inspired by someone. 35–50 men in prayer meeting. The motivation for time and all eternity.

The First Concept

1. Installment discipline was possible because David had rebounded and outside of interlocking systems of arrogance.
2. Note the contrast between David suffering unbearable suffering for a year, including psychopathic arrogance; and now making intercession for his young son (of 3 to 6 months).

3. Installment discipline is for that positive believer toward doctrine. He recovers fellowship through rebound; but his failures outside would be unbearable. Broken into installments so that David can bear it.
4. Installment discipline is not for the reversionist. He gets warning, intensive discipline and then the sin unto death. Arrogance is that preoccupation with self and subjectivity which exists in the interlocking systems of arrogance.
5. The fact that the reversionistic believer is negative toward doctrine
6. David is magnificent in this first installment of divine discipline. He is not thinking of himself, but of the integrity of God and the son he loves.
7. It is because David is thinking of others, that he handles himself so well. He is not subjective; he is not self-centered. He is objective.
8. No believer can handle suffering while being occupied with himself. This is why all discipline inside interlocking systems of arrogance is unbearable and why all of the counseling in the world cannot make up for it.
9. Once the recovery occurs, the believer reverts to objectivity and he becomes preoccupied with the person of Christ rather than with himself.
10. Installment discipline allows him to recover and turn cursing into blessing.
11. In the 4th stage of installment discipline, we can see David in a greatness that no one else possesses.
12. Installment discipline is designed to strengthen moral courage; you cannot face life without moral courage. That is the courage of thought. It is necessary for happiness and capacity for life.

Tsum the noun and verb; then David fasted a fast. This is the intensity of David's concentration on the Lord. You may have concentrated on the Lord so intensely, that you have forgotten to eat or sleep. This is not dieting. There is a different motivation for it now. So fasting has one purpose in mind; to diet. Bible fasting is not abstaining from food, but it is preoccupation with something so that food loses its importance. There is no merit in dieting where the Word is involved. The concentration demands that no distraction exist. David absolutely refuses any food. He is preoccupied with the Lord. Deliverance from death is what he wants. Other functions of life are set aside in fasting. You only fast when you go without all the normal functions of life. This might include no sex among married people. Fasting demands occupation with the person of Christ. No matter how you fast, no one can fast as much as Gandhi did. There is often arrogance involved in this; it is a matter of impressing someone.

Many of those in Berachah miss dinner for Bible class, and that is fasting. Fasting is setting aside the routine in life so as to sharpen the human faculties for concentration and objectivity.

David went without food, beverage, sex, and he did not go to the office to be a king. Bob counsels a woman about her yawning. Bob is amazed that people can become adults without learning some common courtesy.

Why does God the Holy Spirit tell us about this? What is the significance? Lying on the floor and pleading for the life of one's son is agony. Never was David more helpless to cope with a situation than this. This is total humility. Until you get to the place where you are totally helpless, you have not really lived. Here is a king with the finest medicine at his disposal, and yet he is totally helpless. The son is going to die under the principle that the justice of God knows best. To love someone so much and to be so helpless with regards to helping them.

Both the living David and his dying son were both in the hands of God. Here is the king with all of his prosperity, with all of his children, and with all of his success and power, and he can do nothing. This child he loves the most. The son will die that David might live. It started with sexual arrogance and went to conspiratorial arrogance and criminal arrogance and eventually psychopathic arrogance. This little lad would die that David might live, just as Jesus died so that we might live.

The suffering that David went through paralleled the suffering of God the Father when God the Son was on the cross and being judged for our sins.

2Sam. 12:16 [David therefore sought \[pleaded with\] God on behalf of the child. And David fasted a fast and went in and lay all night on the ground.](#)

This was all very distressing to David's staff. They arose and went to him to raise him up.

The older people on David's staff; this was his own private castle-staff. These people are loyal and they stay with him. These are the older ones on David's staff; they are great people who serve in a humble capacity; and they are motivated by more than success. No one wants to be a maid or a servant any more.. We often think of greatness in terms of success and money, but these elders are greatly honorable.

The person who is content to remain in a humble place in life. That is great honor. There is the arrogant view of life that you can do anything; you can be anything. These people live very contented lives. Liberalism, redistribution of wealth, etc. detracts from this kind of thinking. Because of their grace orientation, and their humble attitude, they were not in competition with David nor did they try to use their relationship with the king to advance themselves. They would not allow themselves to be interviewed today nor would they write tell-all books.

David has been trapped in interlocking systems of arrogance, and these elders have avoided this trap. They are not inordinately ambitious. This staff is almost incorruptible. David had great wealth in the realm of service. Those who gathered around him to serve him were motivated by great personal integrity. They illustrate, sic transit gloria mundi. "So the glory of the world has passed away." It means, "So what if you were a great actor, or a great soldier or a great business success; and what does it all mean? Are there those who truly love you and are willing to serve you or are they just there to gain your money?"

There are those who are sycophants and they use another's power, money or fame; and they are used to gain their ends. People do not take your authority and your power and use it for their gain. This happened to David and it happens to all great men.

No one on this staff said or thought, "I am better than David; I am more righteous than he is." Napoleon went into Spain out of arrogance; and tried to invade Russia from the west.

Genius has a limitation; talent has a limitation. Bob knew a guy with great comic talent, but he never knew when to stop. He is probably the loneliest person in the world and he cannot entertain himself.

There is the lack of service. A good bottle of wine and good service and you can put up with almost anything. If you want to get up and punch the waiter, you certainly cannot enjoy your meal.

This is marvelous to be served by loyal staff, who have great integrity, faithfulness and loyalty. They remained with David despite his being in interlocking systems of arrogance. These people saw all of the ambitious mothers, David chasing women; and these servants went through their lives with constant pandemonium, and they maintained their own personal integrity. These people are weak and arrogant and crybabies. The staff of David was made up of incorruptible men. When you have integrity, you are not corrupted by those over you or around you. You can have a corrupt person over you as your superior; that does not mean that you have to be corrupt. In many areas of life, you will find those all around you who are corrupt and arrogant. Never blame other people for your own evil. There is no reason to be corrupted even if those around you are corrupt.

The day of the pimp is over. They provided David with women and took power and whatever in exchange. There would remain corruption in David's government until the end of the Absalom revolution.

They will stand by David during the time of his grief and agony and prayer. While David is prosperous, these elders are there; and when he has failed, they are there. They are a magnificent group of people from whom we can learn many things.

These elders tried to get David to return to normal life; but David will spend these 7 days on the floor praying, fasting, grieving and thinking. The staff was right to try to get David back into life. David was a fastidious dresser; but he did not bathe. The nature of this first installment made it difficult for David to lead a normal life.

Routine is a blessing and the castle staff wants to bring David back to the routines of life. You may be under the routine of business and work when under discipline, but because of the intensity of David's failure. Routine has the right amount of eating, sleeping exercise, work, etc. This sort of routine is important. Routine is most important in the spiritual life. Falling in love can distract you from Bible class; performing good deeds which interrupt the routine of your life. Routine demands discipline. No one can constantly learn Bible doctrine without being organized. Routine requires organization. Some cannot make it to maturity because they are too distracted to make it to Bible class every night. You build everything around Bible class. This requires organization and routine.

Some of you get so involved with pseudo activities.

In time of historical crisis or in time of great prosperity can break routine. Depression; you suddenly have no work. Let events break routine. But do not break routine for illegitimate distractions.

Here's the bottom line, which expression Thieme does not like. Arrogant people are always disorganized. Arrogant people are distracted and distractible. They are too taken with themselves to be organized. As long as David's dying son is alive, David will not get off the floor in the room where he is. Bob understands this experience. It is obvious that David loves this young son. He has some capacity for love for his son?

When there is a choice between the mother and a dying fetus, save the mother. The justice of God is fair and when there are things placed in front of doctrine, God removes that from our lives.

What we need is professionalism in what we do. Routine makes it possible for us to be organized in our lives. If you are not organized in your thinking, sooner or later, the whole package will catch up with you.

2Sam. 12:17 And the elders of his house [David's castle staff] stood beside him [remained with him ], to raise him from the ground, but he would not [he was not willing], nor did he eat food with them.

Bob's conference in LA; Dr. Davidjohn is one of Bob's favorite chauffeur because he always misses at least one exit. Davidjohn is animated and shaking his hands expressively, so Bob has to grab the wheel. 4 inches of rain during the 2.5 hours on the freeway, so Bob and everyone there was soaked. Very hardcore tapers.

Bob has noticed a great deal of restlessness in the country; people with great wealth and possessions, and they are unhappy and restless. There is so much entertainment, social life, and high standards of living; and these things do not make a person happy. We are ripe to be destroyed as client nation USA. After studying arrogance, Bob could pretty much put his point on the problem. This is a timely opportunity to present #13 of interlocking systems of arrogance. It didn't occur to Bob until recently that he should have held a raffle on gate #13.

In evangelism, or the local church or a missionary function, being reduced to a gimmick to raise money, the cause is lost.

Interlocking Systems of Arrogance

13.

Client nation arrogance

- 1) The constitution of the United States is the most perfectly designed instrument of government in modern history. It is a document of such magnificence, that there are probably only 3 comparable documents in history.
- 2) The constitution must be supported by the people. The constitution demands more integrity from average citizens than any other historical document, and that is what makes it great. Bob could have gone to any college in the United States or overseas. However, he could not go to Stanford or to Yale. Harvard and Stanford groups on tv organizing conscientious objector clubs. They wanted freedom without responsibility. Freedom without responsibility is arrogance. "We don't want the draft; the draft is slavery; we don't want the war." Every one of those students was inside of interlocking systems of arrogance and these people had greater privileges and freedoms than anyone in history. The constitution does not work without integrity. If any generation lacks integrity, then the nation will be destroyed. The first stage of destruction, is democracy. The Magna Carter, signed by one of Thieme's ancestors, King John, demanded integrity on the part of the barons of England, but not on the people.
- 3) Next to the Word of God itself, there is no statement of freedom and its responsibility and integrity which can compare to the US constitution.
- 4) When the people of this nation have lost their integrity, they have lost their loyalty to the United States and above all, their honor.
- 5) Loss of public integrity is the direct result of entrance into interlocking systems of arrogance.
- 6) Interlocking systems of arrogance is degeneration and degeneration distorts this republic into arrogant democracy. We have never been a democracy, but we are becoming a democracy through interlocking systems of arrogance. These people shouting at the colleges are just like the Iranians; the same shouting the same arrogance. Bob thinks about the dress and poise of some of the military types and compares them to the arrogant long-haired hippy types, makes him realize how close we are to a disaster.
- 7) The Republican demands honor of its citizens.
- 8) We have become an arrogant nation and therefore, an evil nation.
- 9) Sin + arrogance = evil. Human good + arrogance = evil. Arrogance is the ingredient which converts sin and human good into evil.
- 10) The constitution of the US will only work when the citizens of this client nation have integrity and possess honor.
- 11) Since the citizens, generally, no longer possess honor and integrity. An arrogant public destroys the constitution of the United States.
- 12) Client nation arrogance must be distinguished from political arrogance. Political arrogance applies to individuals who want power and do so from interlocking systems of arrogance. Client nation arrogance is the collective grass roots arrogance of the citizens of a client nation. The difference is a specialized individual entry and here a group entry.

14. Let's look at this as an individual situation. "I could not love you, dear, so much, loved I not honor more." This poet somehow figured out the laws of divine establishment. He understand the true meaning of love. Integrity and honor are the keys to love. When a woman breaks up with a man with whom she has been in love, and she runs him down to her new lover or friend, she lacks integrity and she does not even have loyalty to a principle. In her own arrogance, she erases her honor and integrity.
- 1) Client nation arrogance manifests itself in the national distortion of love; it is done nationally; love is distorted in every way.
  - 2) Client nation arrogance divorces love from honor and integrity. If you truly love someone, then you would not run them down. You would not think to malign or blaspheme the Lord Jesus Christ. Doctrine gives us integrity which results in loyalty to the Lord. You join that restless mob of people shuffling up and down the streets of Houston, having everything and appreciating nothing.
  - 3) Pseudo love emphasizes sex and therefore self. Sex + subjectivity = self-centeredness. Sex becomes the ritual that goes with the reality. The reality is found in honor. Integrity + loyalty = honor. That is objectivity.
  - 4) True love emphasizes honor and integrity. Therefore, the object of love receives both loyalty and respect.
  - 5) Integrity + loyalty = honor. Integrity to become honor must be loyal to principle of doctrine. This means a total understanding from the honor code. The best summary and teaching is in Rom. 12–16 and its application under reverse concentration. Bob did not see any signs of objectivity among the students who were photographed in the antiwar demonstrations.
  - 6) For the unbeliever, this means perception and application of the laws of divine establishment.
  - 7) Those men in the marches lacked... We fight for the ladies when we go to war; we do not expect them to fight for us. But the hippies would go for that.
  - 8) Integrity + loyalty = honor.
  - 9) True love resides in integrity attraction, rather than physical attraction. There is nothing wrong with physical attraction, but that can never be on the same level with integrity attraction. Physical beauty is common; personal integrity is rare. True love is based upon integrity attraction. We really went through a phase of women discussing the kind of furniture and number of children on a first date. If you have honor first, then you will have true love. This is how a woman is able to give first place to a man's career. And the woman will not sit around and mew, and complain and bitch. There is noting worse than a whining mewling woman. There is no integrity there at all. When a woman is in love, she wants to spend 25 hours/day with the one she loves. However, she needs to find something to do when he is away, so that when he is there, she is at her absolute best. Bob wouldn't give two hoops and a hollar for a whining woman. Women, for centuries, figured they can get their way by nagging. A man with integrity will never succumb to nagging, no matter how long it lasts. If there is anything which defeminizes the woman, it is nagging, mewing and complaining. Don't know physical attraction (I know you won't so I won't worry about it).

- 10) Integrity attraction is the reality while physical attraction is the ritual.
- 11) Ritual without reality is meaningless. Arrogant people in your vicinity will make an issue of themselves and use those they allege to love. Amnon had great lust for his half sister, but he will despise her after raping her. Arrogant people who use you will live to despise you. Integrity versus loyalty always means that you are influenced by an arrogant person.
- 12) So the poet Lovelace presents the case, unless you possess honor, you have no capacity for love.
- 13) Without capacity for love, you have neither honor nor integrity, which are necessary for happiness in life.
- 14) National arrogance has produced a nation of restless people who cannot appreciate the blessings our nation has enjoyed. We are approach a crisis because we are faced with a disaster right this minute; public arrogance.

Today, the missing link is between integrity and honor.

We have a few minutes to get back to our subject.

Consequently, David made intercession for the dying boy. Now David fasted a fast and he went to his dying son and laid down on the floor and spent the night. Then his castle-staff stood by to lift him from the ground; but he refused; neither would he eat food with them.

As servants, David's staff had great integrity. You can always bribe the loyalty of a person if they do not have integrity and honor. These were great people; their loyalty was based on their integrity.

David's staff was not competing with him. They did not become influence peddlers. While David had been trapped inside interlocking systems of arrogance, they had avoided this trap, even when he was in psychopathic arrogance and complete subjectivity. When someone enters into interlocking systems of arrogance, you can rest assured that they will abuse their staff. They avoided hatred of David and they did not compete with David. There is nothing better than to be served by a staff with great integrity, honor and loyalty. They do their service faithfully, even though there might be some great repetition. They did their service to him without arrogance.

This staff did not include the court pimps, who were despicable people; and they did not hinder David from getting good service from his elder staff.

They tried to bring David back to reality by normal routine; but David refuses to enter into the routine of his daily life. He is praying, grieving, thinking, and asking God to revive his son.

People without capacity for life often get bored with routine, but routine can be a great blessing in one's life. This includes taking in doctrine every night. Your routine is your first line of defense that everything should revolve around doctrine. After that is your job, your responsibility in life, the way you make your living.

There might be some pleasures you put in there, once a week or once a month. But, if you violate your routine, that is where you lose your objectivity.

It is impossible to keep a routine or to enjoy its blessings, when a believer is under discipline.

Bob, when he called on a woman, expected them to be waiting and with enthusiasm, 30 minutes early if need be. This woman was unorganized. Bob knows women who can work a full day, keep their house up, because they are organized.

"When you're depressed, honey, take a bath." The staff was right; get back into a routine. David needed to get back into a regimen. This is total objectivity. You are concentrating; you are approaching the throne of grace. Speaking of prayer meeting.

David is in a serious situation. This is perhaps the first time David has felt great love for an infant son.

2Sam. 12:18 On the seventh day the child died. And the servants of David were afraid to tell him that the child was dead, for they said, "Behold, while the child was yet alive, we spoke to him, and he did not listen to us. How then can we say to him the child is dead? He may do himself some harm."

Apparently, there are Fx systems just beginning. One group is starting out in Klein at Warren Hale's?

Military Review, article called, what became of the 7 dwarfs?

The public complaints about the draft, hell no, we won't go. We may not be able to defeat anyone. We do not have the mental attitude to survive. We have left the sphere of establishment to solve our problems.

Charlie Reese "Overhaul Strategy." Carter has not enunciated a clear policy about the Soviet Union. This is dangerous. The only reliable ally we have anywhere near Afghanistan is Israel, so we cannot talk about stopping Russia's invasion of Afghanistan. We will need a much better and larger standing army. We need to control the sea at certain points, and we are outnumbered 2 to 1 by the Russians. Will we fight them with propaganda and alliances etc.?

We have had universal compulsory education, and this has prepared us to be destroyed by the Soviets. Many systems have been very clear in countering the present education system, but Communism and socialism tenets are taught every day.

The truth is being presented. People like Charlie Reese are widely read; excellent articles in the WSJ; great articles in the Houston Tribute. The problem is not getting truth; the problem is, we are rejecting the truth.

David is being warned by Nathan of the installment discipline to come. Evil will be caused to rise up against him. The ultimate is revolution. Publically I will take your wives and give them to a loved one, and he will ravish your wives in broad daylight. Because you have done it in secret, I will do this thing before all Israel and in broad daylight...after Nathan returned to his home, the Lord struck the child...then his castle staff stood by...

The 1st installment of discipline has come to pass with v. 18 (and some of the following verses close it up).

For 7 days, David is on the floor, praying, fasting, concentrating and thinking. He is using a spiritual weapon, prayer. He had rebounded and was outside of interlocking systems of arrogance. His prayer would be highly effective, except that part of his divine discipline was being presented to him.

The son must die. A liberal society and an arrogant society regards every death as an horrendous thing. The result has been aspirin bottles that cannot be open. The 11 children who died, died because their parents were careless. Liberalism then tries to protect everyone by changing the caps on pill bottles. Sometimes, God chooses to take people home. God chooses that it is time for a person to die.

There has been a great deal of activity with regards to preservatives in food. Other countries face all kinds of diseases because they do not have preservatives in food.

There never was a gasoline shortage in this country. It was created by the department of energy; and there is one now. The Carter administration, to make sure they were not blamed for it, they have persuaded people in this country that it is the fault of the rich or the oil companies.

If there is some accident, then laws are passed to prevent this from ever happening again. Bob likes seat belts so he can drive at 100 mph and remain stable. Bob was hit broadside by a car going 90 mph and he survived without a seat belt. Legislation is not God and has no right to intrude on our freedom.

Bob invites 2 guys to see him after class. He is thinking about getting a cordless mic so that he can just go down there. The arrogance when liberals try to play God.

The child went automatically to heaven when he died. His son may have rejected Jesus Christ at the age of accountability. That could be as early as age 5 or 6 and as late as 20 or 21.

Those of you who have children as believers, and if these children die before accountability, God sometimes allows them to die in order to keep the family intact. The justice of God and the wisdom of God takes the child home. It is a hidden blessing. This is always a possibility which must be considered. Secondly, whenever anyone dies, the justice of God knows best. The justice of God + the omniscience of God, God has all of the facts; so it is the right time. Sometimes parents have a child who will never reach accountability, and this is also a blessing. In a resurrection body, this child will be as normal as anyone else in the family. Often the reason for this is, there might be testing or discipline involved; but the justice of God is right there. All grief must avoid the hysteria of the unbeliever. “We sorrow not as others who have no hope.” The staff of David will not understand David. Because David is a mature believer, during those 7 days, he used prayer. Right down to the last breath of that child, David continued in prayer. His persistence and perseverance in prayer. Since prayer was answered in negative, negative, David will enjoy this son in heaven. God overruled his prayer. Letting the son live would ended up being a cursing.

All resurrection bodies are the bodies of adults. God turned cursing into blessing by overruling David's very effective prayer. God never overrules a prayer like this unless there is greater blessing beyond what we can see. David's attitude after the death of his son will be very much like Job's response. Job 1:21 “The Lord gives and the Lord takes away...” and in all of this, Job did not sin nor did he blame God. He was not bitter; he was humble. Job did not react to the death of his children; he reacted, however, to the nagging of his wife. This is why Job's 3 friends could not help him; they did not understand interlocking systems of arrogance. He finally broke out of interlocking systems of arrogance near the end of the book. He is fine at the end of the first chapter.

The castle staff was not aware of David's ability to cope. David's son is dead and David is still on the floor in prayer. They are afraid to tell him. They are afraid that he might do something desperate and kill himself. His staff knows David pretty well and they observed him that year in interlocking systems of arrogance (he must have tried their patience). And they are still evaluating him on the basis of interlocking systems of arrogance. They are also evaluating him based upon the 7 days of agonizing over his son. The staff needs to be inflexible. It does not occur to them that David will be able to deal with this. This is a great staff, but they do not have David's spiritual maturity. David can handle reality; he has trouble with uncertainty. He met uncertainty with prayer. David's volition was for his son to live. Divine volition (sovereignty) had all of the facts.

His staff were concerned about David. They are great people and thoughtful and humble people. They are concerned for David. They did not want to add to what was already a bad situation. This is the staff's only failure at this point. They should have told David that the child is dead. Once the issue is settled, then it is time to move on. It is time for David to move back into routine. The person who dies wants you to get back into routine and into the normal functions of life. It is abnormal and arrogant to enter into abnormal grief.

David's Staff

1. Because of David's terrible behavior because he was inside of interlocking systems of arrogance and because of his extreme grief at the bedside of his child, the staff has become apprehensive about telling David his child has died. Apparently, he bullied his staff when they gave him facts.
2. Now his staff is so concerned, that they won't give him the facts. There needs to be one person on the staff that can do that.
3. No leader, no boss, no person in authority can function without facts and without the truth. If something is going on and he is unaware of it, or someone is goofing off, he has to have information. There are a lot of things. The best management is not better than the intelligence which they have of their business. Bob about T&P employees that he has fired.
4. To discourage presenting the facts or telling the truth could be ruinous to a government, a business, a church or any organization.
5. Correct decisions cannot be made on false information.
6. To conceal bad news and to hide accurate information is to guarantee erroneous decisions. Coaches with erroneous information fail. The facts of reality are necessary in order to solve problems. If those under you are afraid to give you facts, then you have failed.
7. Making decisions without facts or with false information can abuse their authority. No one can exercise authority without justice and fairness.
8. Policy in any organization to be effective and fair must be based upon truth. In this case, truth is accurate information. David's son had died and he did not know it. David will figure this out for himself.

To say below is basically why they chose to do what they did. This is not a situation where they are withholding information in order to gain something for themselves. This is a matter of having concern for David. So their motivation is reasonable. These have no wish to add to his hurt.

The implication is that David might kill himself if he hears that his child is dead.

2Sam. 12:18 On the seventh day the child died. And the servants of David were afraid to tell him that the child was dead, for they said [reasoned], "Behold, while the child was yet alive, we spoke to him, and he did not listen to us [i.e., listen to our advice]. How then can we say to him the child is dead? He may do himself some harm [manufacture evil; do something desperate]."

Some Closing Principles

When God the Holy Spirit puts simple narrative into the Word of God for a reason. There are principles here, and this is where many commentaries miss the mark, by not giving some of these principles. Sometimes there is a summary, but there is no analysis of this part of David's life. It is as if God the Holy Spirit put narrative in there for no reason.

1. The servants have seen David during his psychopathic arrogance and know that such people may even commit suicide. You can get into interlocking systems of arrogance tomorrow and become psychopathic and commit suicide. But you do not lose your salvation. The suicides in heaven have the plain resurrection bodies with no decorations.
2. They came to this point by their own volition. They keep making bad decisions in interlocking systems of arrogance and they eventually remove themselves from this life.
3. David might become preoccupied with himself and his grief, in their thinking.
4. They forgot that David is a doctrinal genius. There are those who are geniuses who do not have a lick of sense. We are loaded in this country with people with no sense.
5. David's mentality in interlocking systems of arrogance are neutralized.
6. Mental attitude sins which distracts the believer from doctrinal viewpoint; a person with an edification complex and he is a genius, but he can be neutralized inside interlocking systems of arrogance.
7. David's refusal to enter into the routine of daily life caused the staff to assume that David would do something irrational and desperate.

Impulsive arrogance, blind arrogance, conspiracy arrogance, criminal arrogance, crusader arrogance, psychopathic arrogance, sexual arrogance, genetic arrogance, political arrogance, client nation arrogance. Client nation arrogance + political arrogance is what is causing us so much difficulty at this time.

Sunday Telegraph 1980. (Date given, but I missed it), Peregreen: When Carter plays the role of hawk. Converts to their new faith often embrace this position with more enthusiasm than subtlety. His heart is in the right place, it is his head that is in the wrong place. Removing the Shah allowed the USSR to respond with expected vigor. Carter's policies are undercutting any seriousness in America's place in world affairs. We are responsible for destroying many pro-American stable governments. We have emphasized in our arrogance that all of these countries should become democracies. We get rid of various leaders who are dictators but pro-American and end up with people who align themselves with the Soviets.

Carter is actually responsible for what is going on in Iran. He made it possible for Khomeini to come in. Progress appears, nowadays, to be replacing right wing pro-American dynasties with left-wing governments. He has been born-again, but that is not the same as growing up.

Then his castle staff stood by to lift him up from the ground, but he refused; neither would he eat food with them. The servants were afraid to tell him that the child had died. How can we tell him the child is dead? He may do something desperate. Anything in life which includes fear, jealousy, vindictiveness and distracts the believer from doctrine, neutralizes the ability to think. The alertness of natural intelligence. David's refusal to get off the ground while his child was dying, causes the staff to think David might do something desperate and irrational.

Generally, those who understand you best are those who are associated with you in business and under pressure, and they learn your traits after long observation under a number of different circumstances. Now, they have observed how fragile and vulnerable David had become as of late in interlocking systems of arrogance. They are concerned for him. They note that David is subject to fits of depression. They have concluded that this will be the straw to break the camel's back.

2Sam. 12:18 On the seventh day the child died. And the servants of David were afraid to tell him that the child was dead, for they said [reasoned], "Behold, while the child was yet alive, we spoke to him, and he did not listen to us [i.e., listen to our advice]. How then can we say to him the child is dead? He may do himself some harm [manufacture evil; do something desperate]."

We have already found out how important it is for a person to have all of the facts. This is the first installment of David's discipline, and this is designed to change cursing into blessing.

David observes that his child may be dead, and he asks his servants. He is objective again and he notices what is going on, despite his grief. Perception and discernment are destroyed by interlocking systems of arrogance. The interlocking systems of arrogance destroys all perception.

Why is there simple conversation here? What does God the Holy Spirit want for us to get from this?

Concluding Points on this Conversation

1. David asks a direct question; people use direct questions when they are seeking information. No one on his staff would lie to him when asked a direct question. Integrity + loyalty = honor. Once you make this integrity versus loyalty, then you have destroyed honor. This is why we are suffering from client nation arrogance today.
2. As a result of his interrogation, they confirmed what David had concluded from his observation. He is objective and discerning. You cannot run a business or have any kind of authority in social life or in any profession if you are involved in interlocking systems of arrogance. David understand that they are debaig because they are afraid to tell him that his son is dead.
- 3.
- 4.

5. Arrogant people are not observant; they are too preoccupied with themselves. Now that David is free from arrogance, he will now take charge of the situation and return to routine.
6. Release from interlocking systems of arrogance resulted in David's recovery of his objectivity.
7. Now that he is free from arrogance, he inquires about reality. When you are free from arrogance, you begin to associate with reality. David inquires about reality without flinching.

A Second Principle

1. Only those free from arrogance can face the difficulties of life.
2. You will note the tremendous poise of David in facing this great tragedy. The equilibrium of his soul is balanced with the integrity and balance of soul. Balance of soul means that you are like Tom Landry at a football game. As a believer in Jesus Christ, Tom Landry has what it take.
3. In the first installment of discipline, it is turned into blessing.
4. David will return to normal routine. He will dress normally and clean himself up and he will shock his staff. This gives us some index as to the greatness of David.
5. Humility orients to pride or reality.
6. No circumstance of life, no matter how tragic, is greater than doctrine in the soul.

When the problem is undeserved suffering, the issue is grace; when it is deserved suffering, then the issue is rebound and faith rest. The imputation rationale. Our sins were imputed to him and judged.

If you cannot bear the suffering, then it is a matter of being out of fellowship.

2Sam. 12:19 But when David saw that his servants were whispering together, David understood [perceive, discerned] that the child was dead. And David said to his servants, "Is the child dead?" They said, "He is dead."

Now David returns to a normal life. The House of the Lord is interesting. Was that in Jerusalem at this time?

The first thing that David does is, he cleans up. Cleaning is a part of his routing. Objective people think of others. He was not a hippy. He used whatever kind of soap and whatever else was available. David was probably bruised and his muscles were tight and he soaked himself in the tub.

David probably had a considerable wardrobe.

Cleanliness is objective.

David and Routine

1. David has become normal again. He has just paid the first installment of divine discipline. The son whom he loves is dead. So he moves right back into routine. Those who do not get back into the routine of life after a tragedy are involved in self-pity. They will move over to self righteousness when they are enjoying prosperity. Normal people are organized. Normal people get the most out of life and the most out of time. All normal people with a routine have decided what is most important. Some people build their routine around pleasure. With some, it is ambition. Some are workaholic. Some people are well-motivated. These are the people that work 12 or 15 hours a day. Their subordinates might think a great deal about it, but they do this as naturally as breathing. If you have problems organizing yourself, then join the army, and they will organize you.
2. David's grief had been a distraction to the routine functions of his life. Bob recounts this with his grandmother. He and his uncle stayed there with her until she died. This was a distraction from routine. Bob is in traffic and he is amazed what he sees, women drinking coffee, combing their hair, putting on lipstick and putting on clothes. Their routine needs a slight overhaul. If you are in too much of a hurry, you lose your alertness. Everything in life must be reduced to a routine. Vacation is simply routine built around pleasure. Bob, if on a cruise ship, would like to shoot skeet for 5 hours a day. In any case, if you are in a routine, you like to have a change, and you enjoy it more. If you spent your entire life doing what you would do on a short leave, you would be miserable.
3. No one can accomplish much in life apart from routine which minimizes distractions. Minimizing distractions in traffic, in business and in social life. The people Bob knew in college could not enjoy social life because they always were behind in their studies, so fun was not fun.
4. David does not worship in sloppy dirty clothes or attend services that way.
5. Those hygienic and ablutionary routines show humility and thoughtfulness for others.
6. Entering a worship service in a slopping, maleorderous state can mean blind arrogance.
7. Concentrating on the teaching of Bible doctrine. Narrative does not bring out the great rationales of the plan of God or the divine decrees or divine essence. If God does not promote you, you are not promoted.

David's worship was related to humility. He prostrates himself in the house of the Lord. The basic function of worship is thought, not posture or emotion. The content of thought is doctrine. The motivation is the filling of the Holy Spirit. The basic concept is prayer, song or music, giving, eucharist, and the extensive teaching. The lyrics ought to be Biblically correct. The giving requires the correct mental attitude. You can give without giving anything.

There may have been the dying grace rationale and there may have been the attribute of God rationale; and thinking about the plan of God for his life, which involved another 20 years in his life (he was 50 and he would die at age 70). Worship include the filling of the Spirit. David worshiped before he partook of food and before he enjoyed fellowship. He did this before reestablishing his routine. Spiritual food before physical food; doctrine before entertainment. David returns to the normal world of spiritual activity and normal activity.

Then David goes to his own house, and food is set before him and he eats. Afterward, he goes to his castle. Shael means to demand. This surprised his servants who were surprised that he was now ready for food and to be served. This is his first food in 7 days. Much to the surprise of his staff, he required service and food.

2Sam. 12:20 Then David arose from the earth and washed and anointed himself [this means to put on lotions, which is the equivalent of deodorant] and changed his clothes. And he went into the house of the LORD and worshiped. He then went to his own house. And when he asked, they set food before him, and he ate.

Those who enter into acting often come from a variety of backgrounds. George Sanders came from a very sophisticated home. He wrote a book which was quite entertaining. The Memoirs of a Professional Cad. He is not a misogynist but an ishshah-phile. What do you think of intellectual women? Are there any? Should a woman be beautiful before breakfast? It would never occur to me to look at a woman before breakfast. I have discovered, as Jack Lemon said, a whole new sex. Beauty is only skin deep. That is a proper depth; who needs a beautiful gall bladder? A beautiful woman gets old; a plain woman gets plainer and older both.

Doctrine is your life, and these various things which occur are simply tests.

George Sands had a house of sand; he had no doctrine, so he committed suicide when his wife died.

Some of these people, you take away their toys and they are nothing; people who are arrogant can never enjoy life. Arrogance people are capable of nothing apart from talking about themselves.

The arrogance of Satan neutralized all the doctrine that he knew; he knows more doctrine than anyone else.

Arrogant types are always looking for a new set of ears to listen to them.

You ladies can figure it this way; if no one has dated you up to age 30, you haven't missed a thing. After that, you can be very selective and discerning.

Some of you are desirous of the leeks and garlics of Egypt. And you might get very self righteous at the same time.

Despite many failures, David always came back to doctrine.

2Sam. 12:20 Then David arose from the earth and washed and anointed himself [this means to put on lotions, which is the equivalent of deodorant] and changed his clothes. And he went into the house of the LORD and worshiped. He then went to his own house [palace]. And when he asked, they set food before him, and he ate.

David's Change to Normalcy

1. Much to the surprise of his staff, David returned to normal. There was nothing else that he could do for the life of his son.
2. The rapidity of the change was too much for David's staff.
3. Their brains could not cope with the rapid transition to normalcy.
4. Furthermore, the first installment of discipline is now completed.
5. The purpose of installment discipline has been accomplished in turning cursing into blessing through the 2nd stage of the faith rest drill (reverse concentration).
6. David has used various rationales and applied them to the situation. Pertinent rationales.
7. David has made the correct doctrinal conclusions from these rationales. 3rd stage of the faith rest drill.
8. Importance of the justice of God and adds to this the blessings of divine viewpoint, which are simply the ability to think doctrine in tragedy.
9. Once in control of the situation through the proper application of doctrine in the soul, David now snaps back to normal living, in leadership and in his life.

David and His Leadership Function

1. David had to demand service before anyone would serve him a normal meal. The staff is still back in v. 17.
2. The palace staff assumed that David's fasting and prayer would intensify after his son died.
3. David is a mature believer with doctrine in his soul. He mental attitude sins the rationales of a mature believer. He immediately snaps back to normal.
4. So he must go on living the normal life of a king.
5. All great leadership in life must be organized and self-disciplined to get anything accomplished. This is true for anyone in a position of leadership. You must be organized to get your prep school lessons ready.
6. If David is going to continue as a king, he needs food, exercise, and social life and spiritual function.
7. Disorganized people cannot function in leadership capacity or fulfill great administrative functions. Being a mother requires great concentration.
8. A person who is disorganized in function is disorganized in thought. The organized thinking of analysis and synthesis demands an organized life.
9. Distracted people are disorganized people. Disorganized people are not qualified to handle the subject at hand.
10. David had recovered his spiritual equilibrium and his personal life had cursing turned to blessing.

David's Return to Normal Thinking

1. While David was still on the floor, he applied pertinent doctrine to his adversity. He was thinking in terms of doctrine; he was thinking divine viewpoint.
2. When he got up, he was thinking and concentrating.
3. He took a long bath, and he organized his mind then. An organized mind demands a clean body.
4. He used oils and lotions, and this would be shaving oils and deodorant.
5. Having organized his own appearance, he then went to the Tabernacle on Mount Zion. Spiritual food must come before physical food.
6. Not only was he thinking straight, but his priorities were straight. He had recovered from interlocking systems of arrogance.
7. On his return from the castle, his staff assumed that David would have no appetite. If your thinking is right, your appetite will be right. David is starved.
8. Their assumption is incorrect. The living must go on living normal lives.
9. Normal thinking produces a normal appetite. When Bob is done studying, he is starved; not necessarily the same for pumping iron or running.
10. While David was dining, his servants were pondering. They could not understand this radical change in behavior. Those who work for him should understand him to some degree. David's staff is composed of honorable people.
11. Loyalty is often disturbed by what loyalty cannot understand. Even if you do not understand your boss, that is not important; you just do your job. David's sudden change has completely confused his people.

When you do not understand someone to whom you are loyal, you must return to your own integrity in order to continue functioning with honor and correctly. Integrity + Loyalty = Honor. We all develop loyalties. A lot of men in Anzio were lost and many wondered how 5 battalions were lost. Always then, you have to use integrity. Bob does not understand hippies; he has no frame of reference for them, but they get the same message that everyone else does. Sometimes when you make an issue of loyalty, you get arrogance as well. You must always go to integrity.

George Sanders loved Benita Hume. He could not understand why she died before he did, and in this way, he lost his honor and integrity. Bob speculates that he was in interlocking systems of arrogance. Doctrine could have kept him alive. You must go to the principles of loyalty and to your integrity. The staff was confused, but they simply needed to do what David required of them. Integrity maintains honor while loyalty is having problems.

Therefore, the staff, in v. 21, is inquisitive. This will lead us to another series of questions. This palace staff has been very thoughtful of David.

2Sam. 12:21 Then his servants said to him, "What is this thing that you have done? You fasted and wept for the child while he was alive; but when the child died, you arose and ate food."

David gets up off the floor after the death of his son. They had no idea that David would clean up, go to the Tabernacle and worship, and then return to the dining room, famished.

A person who is disorganized in function is disorganized in thought. David has recovered his spiritual equilibrium and has recovered from the first installment of discipline.

Honor maintains loyalty; nor vice versa. No problem with honor and loyalty until confusion or arrogance seeps in.

When David gets up off the floor, he goes through a set of organized steps. Cleans up, goes to church, and then eats. People who are well-dressed are never overdressed. Assuming that someone who dresses up is gay or something makes Bob's fists itch.

David's staff assumed that David's return to the palace would have been different; that he would not be hungry. His staff serves him well, but they have disturbed minds. Loyalty is often disturbed by what loyalty does not understand.

David Eating His First Meal; David's Servants

1. During the course of the meal, the staff was confused. Some people are quiet because they have a lot on their mind.
2. David's staff does not interrupt him because of protocol.
3. David is starved. And he is eating a lot. David's servants are free from interlocking systems of arrogance. They are excellent in their work because they are well-motivated by their integrity.
4. The criminal mind has only misplaced loyalty; they have no true honor.
5. The palace staff did not feel that their questions were more important than their care for David. They put first things first.
6. Loyalty does not maintain integrity; but integrity maintains loyalty. At some conferences, there are those who monopolize Bob's time, and they want answers to every question. It never occurred to this evangelist that Bob may need to rest his voice. The palace staff was not like this. They showed a great deal of integrity. They considered David's health and desire and questions much more important.

"What is this thing that you have done?" is the literal rendering, and it means, "Why are you behaving this way?" The palace staff did not know enough doctrine to understand. They did not know enough doctrine, but they did not demand answers immediately. Arrogance is preoccupation with self. Arrogance is usually all about an individual's scale of values. People have a very strange scale of values. They often get their whole lifestyle out of sorts. A person who makes an issue out of personality rather than productivity; that is arrogance. The person who despises others because he does not get enough attention.

Integrity + loyalty = honor. David had a great palace staff

David's Palace Staff

1. The palace staff did not consider menial service too good for them. They never considered these services to be beneath their dignity.
2. They did not lose momentum or motivation for menial service because someone persuaded them that they were too good for menial labor. They took great pride in doing a job well. The household functions were not beneath them.
3. One of their responsibilities was to do their job as unto the Lord, but their responsibilities would not say, "You must understand David. You cannot scrub floors and clean sheets unless you understand your boss." That is not included and it is not necessary. To give him better service, they need to be honorable. There is nothing in our job profile which says we need to understand the behavior pattern of our boss. It does depend upon our motivation and our honor. A guy that Bob knew was an office boy, and the president caught his eye and promoted him. There was nothing too degrading for him to do. He did not question the behavior of those superiors. However, at Bob's jock reunion, he was chairman of the board. He was not too proud to block, which added to Bob's yardage. Principles for the laws of divine establishment or from Bible doctrine. The unbeliever can come to these conclusions through divine establishment and the believer through Bible doctrine or through divine establishment.
4. Good service depends upon the integrity of the worker, not on the boss. If the boss's behavior seems strange to you, it does not hinder your behavior at all. The real issue is always integrity; not the boss's behavior. Good service depends upon your personal integrity. If you are loyal to a principle, you can remain loyal to your boss. Loyalty depends upon integrity.
5. The matter of timing was very important.
6. They had to understand David's personal likes and dislikes to serve him; they did not need to understand his moods; that had nothing to do with their ability to render good service. It is hard today to find good help in any sphere. This is because people have integrity. It is not that they lack the ability to do a good job. Bob loves Ophelia. This is true of anyone who has integrity like her.
7. The palace staff, through the years, had come to learn the many intimate details about David. David had never been under installment discipline before.
8. Therefore, their questions were not out of line, because they somehow felt like they had failed David.
9. The servants would have prepared a meal for David, but they were still back in v. 17.
10. Now that David's son was dead, they expected that David's grief would become more intensive. But he demanded food and beverage. All believers are domestic servants, for we must all understand Jesus Christ. We can only understand Him through Bible doctrine, or, through the hard way, divine discipline. The more doctrine we know, the better we understand Jesus Christ.

Principle

1. It requires great integrity to be a good servant. It demands great integrity to be a good employee. The government in its misplaced bureaucracy is trying to keep employers from giving a bad report. There will never be a job for you because you are a bum.
2. Since integrity is so important in the smallest job as well as in the greatest, the servant must regard his master's life as confidential. David's life is confidential. The Lord can handle all discipline. So the employee or gossips about the owner or the one in charge, is dishonorable. When you work for someone else, your job is to work on principle, which means no gossiping or maligning. Integrity + loyalty = honor. If you think you need to report your boss to the IRS or to OSHA, you are out of line; that is not your job. Bob will never forget a waiter named Canon, with excellent integrity. He treated people he liked and did not like with honor. "You know how the public is; the bastards insult; they raise Cain about nothing." He never felt that it was degrading. Bob can recall those who worked for him in the past and they were scum; they are dishonorable. They had misplaced loyalty. They represented evil. There is more to life than making or stealing a buck or lying about the hours that you work.
3. The master must be thoughtful in his service and to avoid discouragement by keeping a good rapport. David was ready for a question and he would not ignore they are confused. He will explain to them what is going on.
4. Remember these servants have been with David for a long time.
5. It was not often that they were confused, but they are now. When David was raising hell, that did not confuse them. They were not confused by his grief. But they were confused about after his son dying. All of us are the Lord's servants. Bob would rather be the Lord's slave than anyone else's freedman. Slavery means that Bob does not have to worry about taking care of himself. God will deal with that. Bob is delighted to be God's slave. 30:34

Under integrity, we can add any of the rationales, like logistical grace or the a fortiori rationale. Loyalty is occupation with Christ. It is who controls history. Honor is good motivation. When things are bad, it is easy to become bitter. Honor demands good motivation, no matter what the circumstances. Our motivation ought to be based upon integrity.

When you work for any organization, then you ought to be loyal. If you cannot find a job anywhere where you can be loyal, then you need to take a look at yourself; the world is not good enough for you.

David fasted and wept for the child while he was alive; but now he is not; and David no longer is fasting and praying.

The servants figured David would be more upset; but they have forgotten that David will not follow the normal approach to life. There is a complete metamorphosis of personality. He was weeping and fasting and begging God to deliver his child; and now David has returned to routine. They understand that David is under some kind of discipline because they know David and they have been around. This has not changed their loyalty to David. Service has one of the great demands upon integrity. Business has a great demand on integrity. If you work for anyone under any circumstance, then you learn loyalty, even when they fail. This is palace service and it makes great demands on integrity. This was a challenge to their integrity. The servants of David remain loyal to David under interlocking systems of arrogance. When he hard to live with, and he was probably abusive and short with his servants. This did not affect their loyalty. They would have to allow God to deal with David. Arrogant people think that it is their place to judge those who are over them. Whatever abuse that David gave them when under interlocking systems of arrogance, this did not change their loyalty to David. They demonstrated their integrity on the job. Integrity + loyalty = honor. They did not face the problems of Uriah or Joab. They did not have to make a choice between integrity and loyalty. They just needed the integrity to continue service. It is not how well you are treated, but how well you serve the master. No matter what kind of a person your c.o. is, you show integrity. Since all believers in Christ are servants to the Lord, the same service applies to all of us. No matter how much discipline we receive, this does not affect our loyalty. We do not lose our honor when we are disciplined by God. Our point of reference is the sovereignty of God; not the love of God. It is the justice of God. God is always fair to us. We are never bitter towards God, if we get discipline rather than blessing. Our loyalty to the Lord is not maintained because we appreciate His blessing. We are loyal to God because we have integrity. We learn the principles of blessing.

There is a post-death observation. They note that after the child dies, then David gets up and he eats. To the servant, this behavior was inconsistent. He should have been intensifying his grief. Once his child died, David returned to a routine and he was reasonably happy. The issue in divine discipline is sin. In the issue of divine discipline, David finally rebounded. David has a year or more in interlocking systems of arrogance and he had done a lot of evil things. However, he was still a mature believer when in interlocking systems of arrogance. Since he is going to live, he has to take his discipline in increments.

There is nothing more that David can do. He cannot pray or fast or anything else. He is now happy and hungry. Cursing has been turned to blessing. It is grace. When the child died, David got up and ate food; and they could not understand this. Now he has snapped back into the routine of life. You cannot ever recover from the death of a loved one unless you do get back into a routine.

The servants leave something out. When the child had died, you got up and ate food. They left stuff out. He bathed, dressed and went to the tabernacle. They left this out. In a bath, he was thinking. David is thinking; he is using the rationales. When he gets out of the bath, he is thoughtful of others. The cheapest thing to get is soap.

David pulls out something good from his closet to wear. He doesn't pick out some rags. This is a sign of the way that he thinks. People wear these little things around their necks; males, little chains and signs of the Zodiac. Bob is suspicious of people who wear that kind of junk. It doesn't matter what it is. Imagine men wearing anything around their necks except dog tags. Then, when he was organized to go outside, then he went to worship. That was the first thing that David did. He is starved, but he doesn't go to the kitchen and start eating. David does not get out of his routine. He goes to church hungry. You are alert when you are hungry. After he left the church service, then he was thinking about the wonderful meal that would be awaiting him. But there was no dinner waiting for him. They did not fail from lack of integrity or lack of loyalty. They just did not put it all together. David was a mature believer just out of installment discipline #1. Doctrine changed David's behavior pattern after the death of his son.

It takes concentration to learn doctrine. In living, we apply doctrine.

Criminals often have loyalty without integrity.

Meeting to approve Gary Horton as a missionary.

The entire poem read for, "I could not love thee, dear, loved I not honor more."

Wall Street Journal 4February 1980 "Yellow Rain." Soviet forces used nerve gas against Afghans and against Yemen and against someone else. They did this as an opening shot, not as a last ditch effort. American observers there, and there was observed nerve gas and 1000's of Kurds died. They have been using this very effectively and very extensively. We are so stupid about these things and our liberals have given us a false scale of values. The United States has renounced the first use of chemical weapons, which is typical of us; kill off our best men first, and then start using the good stuff. What we have the WWII leftovers which was insurance against first use by the Japanese and Germans. We have scant capabilities against chemical weapons. We have never filed against the Soviets, even though we have records of every single use by the Soviets of nerve gas. We instead spend all of our time yapping about Rhodesia and South Africa.

The Soviet Union has 100 of its best spies working at the U.N. We support this with our taxes (we pay 75% of the UN budget). Typical of the stupidity of the policy of the United States. The Department of Energy literally caused the gas shortage.

Whether we survive or not depends upon our attitude toward Bible doctrine and Jesus Christ, Who controls history.

We will study later on, misplaced loyalty and criminal arrogance.

Review of vv. 17–21:

"While the child was alive, you fasted and wept."

v. 22 is the pre-death rationale followed by the post-death rationale in v. 23. We will see a little of David's arrogance hangover.

Chaja, which means to live. What David did was, he fasted and wept. David has to first get on common ground with these people, and say that they are correct in what they observed. Part of his problem was that he suffered from an arrogance hangover. He was not involved in interlocking systems of arrogance, but he still had a hangover from those days.

Then we get into how David was thinking and how he reasoned. Who knows is an idiom for perhaps, maybe, possibly. "I thought to myself, maybe the Lord will be gracious to me."

David While the Child Is Alive

1. David is under discipline from the justice of God while this is going on. The source of all divine discipline is the justice of God.
2. David was in a state of wishful thinking, of euphoria? God's grace to David was, he had never lost anything as a supergrace believer. However, this is produced when inside of interlocking systems of arrogance. David was king long before he entered into interlocking systems of arrogance. Everything that God gave to David in grace was given before he entered into interlocking systems of arrogance. However, when he was in interlocking systems of arrogance, we have the son who is the product of this affair. He is not a part of grace blessing. He is a result of David's arrogance. We make a mess of things ourselves, and then ask God to clean up after us and give us whatever we are able to grab along the way.
3. Like so many believers, David was in a state of euphoria and wishful thinking.
4. David was thankful to God for simply being alive. This son was conceived in rape. God cannot spare His Son of the cross, and, at the same time, save us. This is analogous.
5. Grace is not having your cake and eating it too. Otherwise, God the Father would not have judged Jesus Christ on the cross.
6. Under installment discipline, cursing is turned to blessing at the end of the installment and He punishes at the beginning of the installment. Installment discipline is designed by God for our blessing. The servants could not understand how David could return from church and demand food.
7. But the moment the issue is the failure of the arrogant hangover. David demanded from God in those prayers for God to keep him alive. He was demanding grace where grace had no application. In the agenda, the suffering comes first. Before the installment is completed, cursing is turned to blessing. Justice is the source of divine discipline and divine grace.

David and Interlocking Systems of Arrogance

1. The justice of God in punishment cannot deliver both David and the son of rape. The justice of God will take one. One of them has to go and Nathan has already given the agenda for that. The justice of God is very gracious in taking this son. He would have been what Amnon is in the next chapter. The crown prince is a criminal. This Amnon and this son of rape are very much alive. You cannot have your cake and eat it too.

2. Grace is defined as the policy of the justice of God in imputing blessing to the indwelling righteousness of the believer. Obviously discipline is also the policy of the justice of God for imputing suffering.
3. Discipline or punishment is the function of the justice of God in imputing suffering for sin, human good and evil.
4. David is being punished for his sin and evil. Sin and evil produce while traipped. The old sin nature functions of free will.
5. Because David has finally rebounded, his unbearable suffering and punishment are finally removed. God not only removed the unbearable suffering and punishment, and this would also be a removal of guilt.
6. Because of Davids procrastination in rebound, David would get installment discipline. He reached out with faith and claimed a promise in Psalm 32 and 38. The discipline was too great for even a mature believer to handle. David will distort the grace now and again with an arrogance hangover. At the end of the 4th installment, David will be a far greater man than he ever was.
7. This punishment would leave David a better man. 10 years of discipline and he will live for 10 more years.
8. Each time, punishment, which is turned into blessing.
9. The cursing here is the death of his son; and the blessing was to come from the use of doctrine in reverse concentration. He left weeping and wailing and he returns a new man.
10. David had distorted grace into a false concept of having your cake and eating it.
11. Therefore, David's pre-death rationale was erroneous in part. He was thinking erroneously. A distortion of grace, a misapplication of grace; a superimposition of personal desires over the judgment of God. David was saying, "Give me my personal desire, and not Your best judgment." When you have a hangover, the drinking is over; but its effects remain. David isn't arrogant; he has been arrogant. All of a sudden it comes. So, he wants this son, and he says, "I am in the process of becoming a good father; let me have him. I've turned over a new leaf."
12. This is what we call a hangover from interlocking systems of arrogance. David trying to superimpose his own personal desires over the plan of God.
13. This distortion of grace is the predeath rationale. This sets aside the whole concept of grace orientation. The moment that David heard that his son was dead, then he began to use grace properly. There was disorientation before the son's death and afterwards, total orientation.
14. Human viewpoint + his personal desire.

The Arrogant Hangover

1. In effect, David defines grace as God letting David have his own way after rebounding. That is the arrogance hangover. The echo is, God allowed David to sin without punishment. Cancel the discipline is what David is saying. How can God do that and retain His Own integrity. If God cancels this for even one person, then God is not God.

2. David fasted and wept because in the hangover of arrogance, David was thinking about David and about what he wanted; and he was wishing for what he wanted.
3. Therefore, the predeath rationale must be classified as an arrogance hangover. He is not inside interlocking systems of arrogance. You do not have a hangover if you use the hair of the dog the next morning. If you keep drinking, then you have a worse problem, but not one with a hangover. David has stopped. He is not inside interlocking systems of arrogance; he is outside. At the moment, he is preoccupied with himself, and that is inside. This is a perfect illustration. You never see a person using the hair of the dog, except he hasn't quit. We do not get back into interlocking systems of arrogance every time we express a little arrogance.
4. By arrogance hangover, David was outside the complex, outside interlocking systems of arrogance, but he had an attack with preoccupation with himself. It lasted about 7 days.
5. The arrogance hangover is an actual sin. It is a failure of arrogance without entering into the interlocking systems of arrogance.
6. Therefore, as a result of living in the arrogance complex for over a year, David will occasionally have an isolated sin of arrogance.
7. Because David wanted so intensively for his son to live, he wanted God to be gracious about this. Grace suddenly becomes sponsorship of sin. It is impossible for God to sponsor sin. None of us will ever be an exception to this. The justice of God is half of God's integrity. David was occupied with David and dictating to God what He ought to do. God knows what He is doing. God knows completely what He is doing. David does not realize that what he is doing is contrary to God.
8. For David to try to superimpose his will over God's is arrogance, but it is a simple sin and not reentry into the interlocking systems of arrogance. The arrogance hangover always distorts the grace of God. The grace of God and justice of God are subordinated to the arrogance hangover.
9. The arrogance hangover always distorts the grace of God and subordinates the grace of God and the justice of God to human pride.
10. Grace is not subordinated to the whims or the desires of the believer; grace is subordinated to the justice of God.
11. Grace is not the policy of man; grace is the policy of God. Grace is not to be abused by man. We do not tell God what grace is; He reveals to us what grace is. David loves his son dearly and he is begging God to spare his son.
12. The arrogance hangover always distorts and abuses grace. It tries to dictate to God when grace and judgment ought to be used.
13. The arrogance hangover is an isolated sin of arrogance whereby the believer dictates to the integrity of God his own personal desires rather than waiting on the will of God to express the integrity of God.

What was David's desire, which distorted the grace of God, very simply, David wanted God to spare the life of his child.

Bob throws in some waw conversative stuff here. David is now 51 years old and he is trying to dictate to God grace. Every distortion of God's grace for personal advantage is blasphemy.

God invented grace, not David. The source of grace is the justice of God; not the whims or desires of David (or any one of us). Superimposition of our whims or desires is an instant arrogant desire.

Fasting and prayer here are related to an arrogance hangover.

2Sam. 12:22 He said, "Consequently, while the child was still alive, I fasted and wept, for I said [thought to myself], 'Who knows whether [Perhaps, or maybe] the LORD will be gracious to me, that the child may live?'

Coming up: the post death rationale.

2Samuel 12:23

72David

631_0286

"We have forsaken Malta" an article Bob is reading. Strategically important going back to the 16th century. A check of Ottoman empire power in 1566. WWIII is now on, and this fact is yet to be recognized. Russia is still our WWII ally, but they seek domination. Detente is a strategic move, not an objective. Franco was similarly attacked for prevailing over Communism. We don't care much about human rights in Communist nations, but we worry about the human rights of those who are our allies. We have lost some of these countries through our sanctimonious actions. When we left Malta, it slipped under the Red curtain by Libya. Now Malta will be an airbase for the Communist nations.

In our country today, we are so divorced from reality. We are going to study fragmentation and how it relates to psychosis and those in between reality and unreality. Fragmentation is both the thinking of criminals and we are closing down foundries which would be needed to produce military equipment; our foundries are in Germany.

Various studies are quoted. Like why hermit crabs pick one shell over another. What is coming up in the next chapter will be an outstanding example of fragmentation.

The pre-death rationale in v. 22 and moving to the post-death rationale. David did not know where to put his son; under grace or under divine discipline.

David now has a complete change of mind. He is recovering from the arrogant hangover.

Adverb attah, which means and now. Then we have muth, which means to die. David then asks, why should I fast? Fasting is intense concentration on prayer and on doctrine, and it is only incidentally related to dieting.

Let's take the criminal who commits rape. Many of the men in the New Mexico prison were raped. Those people should have been executed. They bring on their own psychotic condition by their own volition. A woman at Berachah a few years ago was an exhibitionist, along with other things. She confused her bf's by saying, "I love you" and then she would turn against them. She would retreat into a cave of unreality. A very evil, self righteous woman.

Liberals have brought out the kind of war we are about to enter in on. The same people who caused it all will enter into their cave of psychosis.

Our president has fed the scum of the earth. The police are underpaid and we will be in trouble when we call for them and they are not there. Those who created OSHA and destroyed free enterprise will go right into their cave of unreality when things fall apart.

We will find in the next 8 chapters everything we need to face the next disaster. David asks, "Can I bring him back again?" Death terminates many things in life. There is nothing more that David can do. His prayer and fasting failed and there is no retreating to the cave of unreality.

There are some psychotics in Berachah. Doctrine seems to soothe them. Bob knows some of them very well. They might be staring at you. Most of them are harmless, or they would not be there. They have left reality and now they are back in the cave.

Shûby, which means to return, to turn oneself; to convert. Here, to cause to return, to necessitate. Obviously, David cannot bring his child back from the dead.

Installment discipline starts out with something which hurts; but the cursing is turned into blessing. Now that the child has died, there is nothing to do.

The Death of David's Son and David's Rationale

1. God in His justice decided to take David's son home; that is what David understood.
2. David cannot overrule the wisdom and justice of God.
3. David, knowing what God knows, would not want his son to live; his son will die before reaching accountability. That is blessing by association. When David was in interlocking systems of arrogance, it was cursing by association. David gave Bathsheba a very hard time for that first year? If you men think you are big, strong and tough, you are not able to take what a woman can take. God's timing is perfect.
4. The young son who captured the intense love of David is now in heaven.
5. If the son had lived, he might have rejected Christ as Savior, he may have spent eternity in the Lake of Fire. And he would have functioned under fragmentation during his lifetime.
6. In this way, by God's gracious function of taking the son home, all 5 of David's son will be united in heaven with David. This son is unnamed.
7. David nucleates this doctrine. People lose children before they reach the age of accountability.

David will die 20 years in the future (19 years, actually), we will go to heaven where his on David does not mourn like those who have no hope. It will be 19 years before David sees his son again.

The young man will not be necessitated; David will miss his young son; but he will always The mourning for Absalom will be quite different. There will be many regrets. Absalom will take some of David's greatest severatns. David's sorrow here will be an academic matter; it will be much different with Absalom.

Cursing is now turned to blessing, and David will require food and blessing.

More Principles

1. The life of Bible doctrine is found in both growth and application. Every day or every month so sometimes, we will ask ourselves. We will discover a series of things making. There are pleasures in life that you put aside for doctrine. But if you say, "I'll just make it up on tape." "So, did you make it up on tape?" God takes cognizance of legitimate activity, e.g., basic training. People take vacations and often do not take doctrine with them. There are subtle things in life; the way you are treated or people turn against you. The temptations which become yours as you start to get into inordinate competition with others. They are simply designed to get you away from thinking doctrine. We all have to face fragmentation temptations. If we succumb to fragmentation temptation, then we will be punished for it. The justice of God would not be fair unless we are punished for it. Like David, we get it on installments. David returns to his routine, and this shocks his staff. And David moved by doctrine. You also miss out on doctrine by distraction, and you do not learn things the easy way, but you lean by the horse and the mule. There is no greater way that to move from cursing to blessing. It is easy for Bob to take role with a crowd this small. Bob knows us by face, and he knows where we are. Bob sees this all the time.
2. The second stage is the real faith rest. Claiming a promise is only a fly by night, temporary expediency. The real faith rest technique is in the 2nd stage; the application of doctrine.
3. Abnormal sorrow for the dead is unprofitable means failure to get back into the routine of life. It eventuates in fragmentation to psychosis. It is retreating into the cave. It leads to the first gate of the interlocking systems of arrogance.
4. The mental attitude sins of arrogance includes jealousy, bitterness, self righteousness, guilt complex, and a retreat into the cave. When a person reacts incorrectly, there is vengeance, etc.
- 5.
6. David's final statement on the subject is free from bitterness and self pity and free of blaming someone else.
7. Freedom from arrogance is applying doctrine to the situation; here, to the loss of a loved one in the faith rest drill. The faith rest drill never functions inside of interlocking systems of arrogance.

2Sam. 12:23 But now he is dead. Why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he will not return to me." there are 2 ways a nation can recover. When it starts at grass roots, it begins with revival. It is a spiritual factor. When it recovers topside, it is personal. It is one man's spiritual life having an effect. David's blessing by association reaches every walk of national life.

The birth of a future king in the next 2 verses. This is the replacement of grace. If you have chosen doctrine over a person or over a promotion. There is a replacement of grace, which is far greater than anything which you have given up. The birth of this future king brings into focus the replacement of grace. First son not given a name; the 2nd is given 2 names.

The name of the son, and his name is Solomon which means prosperity, and the Lord loves him. When cursing is turned to blessing, the prosperity is given, which is Solomon. Jedidiah means loved by the Lord, and it never occurs to other commentators that this refers to God loving David, not Solomon. Both names have significance.

The first name of the replacement son. We begin with David comforting Bathsheba, and she is the love of his life. This is his RW. David has brought into his marriage a tremendous sexual experience, and it will not be helpful. You do not have to have experience to be good. All experience does is confirm bad people in the bad ways. Experience does not mean a thing. David brings lots of experience and trouble. David comes into this marriage with experience and so did Bathsheba.

Bathsheba truly loved her first husband. She was extremely beautiful and extremely talented in responding to her RM. When experience meets virtue, there can never be total happiness. It was great and fantastic, but it was not maximum.

David has to comfort her because he was the world's worst husband. He was a total bastard. Bob says David comforted her over this rather than the loss of the son. The Piel stem means to comfort. In the Niphal stem, he is grieved. He changed his mind about the value of doctrine. He is now qualified to be a human being; he has rejoined the human race. He is qualified to love a woman and to make love to a woman. Now that David is squared away, he will be greater than he ever was before. For David, life begins at 51. 51–70 is the best of David's life. Those familiar with sex books have probably read that a male reaches his sexual peak around 19–21; and that is ridiculous. David is just beginning at age 51. All of this suffering has cleansed David. His neuro transmitters have been reinvigorated. Once you are squared away spiritually, the neurotransmitters move full speed ahead.

The new man emerges, and there is David with that expression on his face; no, he became a very ardent lover. Considerate and thoughtful.

You cannot comfort someone who hates you. Your comfort is no comfort. Bathsheba is even greater than we thought she was. Sometimes, there is a case of RM/RW relationship, but it never works out. If one or both are inside interlocking systems of arrogance, then it will not work. David is no good as a lover, husband or friend at the beginning. There is no way that a man and a woman, both in interlocking systems of arrogance, can live together; even RM/RW. What makes a man a man and a good lover; is humility. It clears out those invisible areas of the mind to make it easy to make love. Are your neurotransmitters clean or not? That is the issue.

Bathsheba had fallen in love with David and she will be comfortless until David comes out of interlocking systems of arrogance, which he has. David is the only one who has the power to do this. David's power of comfort came from the use of reverse concentration. Until the soul is comforted, there can be no physical love. The soul must be right. Otherwise, the woman is faking.

David goes to her soul first; then he goes to her. He approaches her and copulates with her.

2Sam. 12:24 Then David comforted his wife, Bathsheba, and went in to her and lay with her, and she bore a son, and he called his name Solomon. And the LORD loved him

2Samuel 12:24–25

Neurotransmitter concept in "Marijuana Alert" from a Reader's Digest article. Damaging their brains and making it more difficult to conceive completely healthy offspring. Pot has an attraction to the brain and the sexual organs. It take 5-8 days for the THC to half leave the human body. Testes and ovaries have high fat content, so that is where the THC goes. Apparently, same for the brain? Research with monkeys, that their brain cells showed some remarkable changes. There could be a slowing down of brain messages. One said the alcohol affect was nothing compared to the effect of marijuana. Another doctor calls this the enemy of youth. If we are to go to war anytime in the next 25 years because their brains are too effected. We will eventually have a nation filled with morons, robots and idiots. High school explanation, to take the pressure off high school. Comparisons between those who smoked marijuana and punch drunk boxers. If you are a user, you hae problems with your neurotransmitters.

There is an elapse of another year and David is back to normal. Between the installments of discipline, there is a principle. The cursing is now turned to blessing. There is an interim now, and this will be what David can learn or reject. When you are under installment discipline, you are given the opportunity to prepare for each installment before it occurs. First, perception and then application of these doctrines. This is a grace opportunity, which is a little different than the grace interim.

Part of the application is the name that David gives this son; Sh<sup>e</sup>limoh and how they got Solomon out of that, Bob does not know. The word is taken from shalom. Bob can't believe some dumb bunny did not know enough Hebrew to transliterate this.

Solomon's and Removal of Troublemakers

1. The name is derived from the fact that David apparently promised Bathsheba at the birth of this son, or at the death of Absalom, that this boy would be his successor. 1Kings 1:17 during the Adonijah revolution, and Bathsheba calls David on this promise from the past. At some time, this promise was made.
2. This promise is not mentioned in the Bible until Adonijah attempts to seize the throne.
3. On the side of Adonijah was Joab and Abiathar the priest.
4. On the side of Solomon was Nathan the prophet and Beniah the great soldier. Also Shimeah. Interesting lineup.
5. It is interesting to know that David advised Solomon to execute all of those who might cause him trouble, which is everyone who opposed him.
6. Solomon took this great advice. Some are never dealt with properly unless killed. Shimea was told, "Don't leave Jerusalem, or I will kill you." He left after 3 years.
7. The true function of authority demands elimination of troublemakers. This does not mean just churches; apparently, Bob is one of the few who does this in a church. If there is a strong coterie, Bob will boot them out; he has practiced this vigorously. A 4 star general was quite upset with Bob for doing this. A football player gave Bob some trouble, and Bob banged his head against a locker and he did not pay for the rest of the year due to a concussion. If you are a born troublemaker, someone will have to run over you. If you are born to command, there will be troublemakers in your business, organization, bowling team, or whatever. Bob has started many churches based on these troublemakers, which gives them peace until the next troublemakers. As long as Bob is the pastor, he will allow the troublemaker enough rope to hang himself, and then Bob will spring the trap. This is one church you can go to without a lot of bullying and legalism. If you are in a business and you tolerate troublemakers, you are making a grave error. Only the federal government demands that you like these.
8. The malcontents will organize around a pleasing personality or around a con artist. Troublemakers come in all sizes, shapes and descriptions. You might feel sorry for a troublemaker.
9. Each potential conspiracy was eliminated from the beginning so that Adonijah or Abiathar could organize against Solomon. The troublemakers died the sin unto death.
10. Shimea, who had been a malcontent for years, died in Solomon's reign. He is the kind of a troublemaker who destroys himself. The troublemaker is always involved in interlocking systems of arrogance. Sometimes God will give him an extra nudge in his own self-destructive tendencies.
11. Shimea destroyed himself.

David named him Sh<sup>o</sup>lomoh. Then it reads, and Jehovah loved him. This is a perfect tense, and this anticipates.

1. We have a waw conversive. The verbs which follow that waw, if they are perfect tenses, they become imperfect and vice versa. It converts the verb. This is different from a wâw consecutive.
2. The imperfect tense becomes a subjunctive imperfect. So this becomes an imperfect subjunctive, which expresses desirability.
3. Therefore, this expresses a future time. God did not love him when he was born.
4. Solomon would not only become a believer, but that he would become a mature believer.
5. David anticipates by faith that Solomon would succeed him and be a recipient of a great deal of blessing.

2Sam. 12:24 Then David comforted his wife, Bathsheba, and went in to her and lay with her, and she bore a son, and he called his name Solomon. And the LORD loved him

The last line involves an important piece of Hebrew grammar. The imperfect becomes a subjunctive. The anticipation of Solomon's faith. This anticipates that Solomon would advance to maturity. Nathan would anticipate this with Jedidiah.

Bathsheba will have 4 more sons, 5 in total by David. Forget all of the other wives and mistresses. We have the son of rape, Solomon, and then Nathan; then there are 2 more. Finally, there is Shama. Slightly different in Chronicles.

The second name of this replacement son. The Qal imperfect of shalach indicates that God sent Nathan to communicate. David is the ruler of the kingdom, and he would write a part of the Bible, having the gift but not office of prophet. David does not go to his own spiritual gift, but he goes to Nathan, who is the last word in spiritual things. David has the gift, but not the office.

We have a prospective missionary in the White House now? There must be a separation of the spiritual and of the civil. These must be kept separate; otherwise, freedom cannot exist. Nathan was sent to David to declare his sin and his interlocking systems of arrogance. This time, it is to communicate blessing to David and to his progeny. However, more important is the separation of civil and spiritual. The function of our constitution demands integrity. We have one of the greatest documents in world history, but this document requires integrity. However, we fall into degeneracy and that destroys the power and meaning of the constitution.

Once you have national arrogance, then you have democracy. That is the last step on the way to anarchy. Democracy is evil. All people having a say in government is like saying an amalgamation of the sin natures of the entire nation can come up with good government. Democracy is evil; it is not even freedom; it is not even responsibility. Democracy is a symbol of arrogance and... Democracy is a fine veneer that can be turned into anarchy and tyranny.

The constitution of the United States is a great challenge to the authority of the population. When there are federal judges who ought to be impeached; and evil liberal people sitting on so many benches, you cannot possibly have integrity. We have not been a republic since the loss of the Korean War. This is why it is difficult for this country to have friends. Our policy changes every hour on the hour. That means no integrity and no policy of honor. There must be a separation between the spiritual and the civil. There is very little integrity in the clergy. The clergy is generally very liberal; and if they are fundamentalist, that is becoming synonymous with stupidity. There is even less integrity in civil government. There are only 2 ways in which this can be corrected. Revival, many coming to Christ; and also many maturing. The nation is put under the various cycles of discipline. Catharsis....young lady. "You may be bored by the subject, but I am bored by you."

The Qal imperfect indicates there must be this separation between the spiritual and the temporal. So there is a message sent by Nathan the prophet. Jedidiah means love by the Lord and this is known as a cognomen. A cognomen is a nickname, and it means loved (friend, darling) of the Lord. This is used in one other place. Psalm 127:2

2Sam. 12:25 and sent a message by Nathan the prophet. So he called his name Jedidiah, because of the LORD.

A song of degrees; it is medication for walking into church. A degree is simply going up one step at a time. Solomon walks up the steps to the Temple one at a time. He still says, "If the Lord doesn't build it, it's builders labor in vain." Unless the Lord guards Houston, the police functions in vain. All of this is only good if the Lord builds it, it is in vain.

A tremendous principle, and just in the first step.

Psalm 127:1 A Song of Ascents. Of Solomon. Unless the LORD builds the house, those who build it labor in vain. Unless the LORD watches over the city, the watchman stays awake in vain.

This is working hard where the Lord is not in it.

Then Solomon goes into his name. Giving to his beloved in sleep is Solomon's nickname. The mature believer is only blessed by God by means of God. While you are doing nothing, which is sleeping, God takes care of everything for you.

Never stop working hard. But your life does not depend upon that. Bob works hard; very hard to put messages together. After all of the hard work and the breakthroughs, it all depends upon God. Whether God prospers it or not often depends upon our own volition toward Bible doctrine. Mrs. Baird's bread; they bake it while you sleep.

Points on Psalm 127:1-2

1. This passage Psalm 127:2 is saying, no matter how hard you strive for things and work to improve your environment, it will be vain an empty unless the Lord is in it.

The Lord does not hook up with lazy people. But you can be hard working and not aligned with the lord because there is no doctrine in your soul.

2. If God does not promote you, you are not promoted. Nothing destroys a frustrates a person more rapidly than being in a position for which you are not qualified.
3. The Lord does not bless you, you are not blessed.
4. The Lord in grace gives us the best things in life totally apart from merit and ability. He only can give blessing to His beloved in sleep.
5. When Solomon walked up the steps, he figured out why this name was given him. Solomon means prosperous; and Jedediah means blessed of the Lord. Solomon understands this when walking up the steps.
6. Because the only beloved ones are mature believers, and they are the only prosperous ones. They are provided blessing while they are asleep. You sleep after working hard. God does not bless lazy people. This also explains the final phrase in 2Sam. 12:25 because of the Lord.

Psalm 127:2 It is in vain that you rise up early and go late to rest, eating the bread of anxious toil; for he gives to his beloved sleep.

Psalm 127:3 Behold, children are a heritage from the LORD, the fruit of the womb a reward.

Psalm 127:4 Like arrows in the hand of a warrior are the children of one's youth.

Psalm 127:5 Blessed is the man who fills his quiver with them! He shall not be put to shame when he speaks with his enemies in the gate.

Final Points

1. Another name had to be added to explain Solomon's prosperity. Solomon reached a peak of spiritual maturity and thereafter, he would enter into interlocking systems of arrogance. He would eventually recover at the end of his life. Solomon wrote how you can be miserable and have it all.
2. This name was added for our understanding. Prosperity must include loved by the Lord. The two need to be together. The prosperity is no good without the Jedediah faction.
3. No one can be blessed on the basis of works.
4. Sleeping is the mature believer.

The name is taken from the decrees of God. Justification and glorification. Solomon as a mature believer was supported by logistical grace. He was supported by supergrace blessing as a mature believer.

George Sanders Memoirs of a Professional Cad many of the aristocrats and white Russians did not realize the danger that had overtaken them. The odd feeling of leaving

The United States actually kept the revolution going and this purchased a long-term enemy. The czar had the means to deal with the revolutionaries, but he did not have the heart.

There is even a white Russian age 90 still in negotiations to get his house back, thinking that Russia would return to the past. Totally inflexible and incapable of facing reality. Sanders said that acting allowed him to spend his life loafing. Those who could have stopped Communism in Russia did not; they were divorced from reality.

The previous few verses read.

We first need to understand what kind of a city is Rabbah. Rabbah has a great river running to it called the Jabbok River. On the north bank and on the south bank there is a valley. This valley is called the water city. Rabbah is actually 3 cities.

South of the water city is the royal city. North of the river and north of the water city is a high, steep mountain, and it is called the acropolis, which is a citadel on a hill. There are 3 sets of fortifications. There is a wall around the water city with fortified bridges. Each area was well-fortified, and there was a linking fortified system, which are the bridges. When one part of the city fell, the other two could be self-sustaining.

Some Description of this City

1. Water city north and the water city south.
2. The lower section is called the water city.
3. North is the royal city, where is the royal castle and the citadel which was built upon a cliff.
4. The best fortified of all 3 areas was the acropolis; it will be the last to fall.

Rabbah belonging to the citizens of Rabbah is the southern city. Joab besieges it, and this city has been under attack for several years. David is in interlocking systems of arrogance and then Solomon is born; and that accounts for 2 years at least while Rabbah is being attacked. Joab captured the royal city which is in the south, in the southern hills is the royal city. In between is the water city and above is the citadel. In 2 years times. Part of the regular army was kept in Jerusalem and in Israel. Part of them were garrisoned throughout Israel as a police force. Another part of their army was in Ammon, which is a much smaller force than the Ammonite army inside of the fortified cities.

Joab is fighting on interior lines. He has his supply center and his line is open. He has got a reserve force ready to move either to the left or right flank. He is the aggressor with a smaller force. Attacking with a smaller force takes great nerve and courage. He has phenomenal moral courage.

2Sam. 12:26 Now Joab fought against Rabbah of the Ammonites and took the royal city.

Now he takes the center section; this city was easier. Joab sends a staff officer to David, who reported. Only the acropolis remains. The last and best part of the Ammonite army is in this very well-fortified city in the steep hills to the north.

Joab was never involved in interlocking systems of arrogance. When David was inside, Joab was outside. Being a genius is no good if you are involved in interlocking systems of arrogance, so that was the best way for Joab to go.

Joab decides that it is time for David to enter the fray, so that the credit for taking the city would be David's.

2Sam. 12:27 And Joab sent messengers [staff officers] to David and said [reported], "I have fought against Rabbah; moreover, I have taken the city of waters.

Once the water city was captured, the water supply would be cut off to the main city. Without water, and that they would have to fight to get any water, Israel would eventually be victorious. Archeology has located the water supply in the acropolis. The weakest part of Rabbah was the southern city. Joab is a man of humility and wisdom.

Evil leaders and degenerate government can be bailed out by good military operations. This would be a smart thing for evil leaders to do; spend a lot of money on the military. Military operations and establishment, not civil leadership, guarantees the freedom of a nation.

Now therefore, gather the rest of the people [assemble the reserve troops] together and Joab has figured that the entire army was needed; and that David needed to be there, so that he was not given undo credit. Joab had not political aspirations. There are great military leaders who are tempted to enter into politics. Often, they make poor statesmen, because they are not good enough liars.

If you have some great success, beware that others do not use that. If you have a great personality, beware that you are not used by others to do something; to be set up. Be careful that your talent is not used by others in some conspiracy. The only hope was to avoid setting himself up as a hero; this would keep Joab from being used by malcontents.

There are 2 kinds of malcontents. Those involved in the arrogance complex and those who are unsuccessful and they blame their lack of success on those in power. Joab is a secure and humble person; he knows his capabilities. He is a better commander than anyone else in the world; and possibly better than David.

People who succeed will never succeed if they are in interlocking systems of arrogance. Their arrogance takes them beyond their capabilities. This is a man who is truly great. He is not looking for greater hills to conquer. He is totally satisfied with a well done. He does not need to be wined and dined and praised; he knows that he has done a great job. He made it look so easy that many do not realize how great he is. Joab is a true professional.

A true professional in music does not have to be told he is good; same in acting or in any of the arts. But someone takes one of these people and tells them, "You ought to be in the Senate or you ought to run for Congress." If you succeed in anything, someone will try to exploit you. If you are even a partial success, there is always a con man out there hoping to use you. To avoid a future conspiracy and to quell the malcontents, Joab calls David to come in. Joab was incorruptible. Some people are not corruptible because no one is interested in corrupting them.

Bob was never concerned about Clark Gable, since he dumped his wife, who was 10 years older than he. Bob knew Carol Lombard. She spoke like a man from the lips of a beautiful woman. She probably had a better profanity vocabulary than anyone who lived.

Gable was always pleasant to boys like Bob, but he always needed a woman on his arm. Hollywood types often dump those who get them to Hollywood, who support them while they try to get work. None of us are consistently anything. But, doctrine is consistently everything. Doctrine is how to be the same old Joab. Do you think this narrative was put here for no reason? What gives people consistency and stability? Doctrine. Prize fighters is a good example of how to exploit people. Prize fighters are exploited by many people. Heavyweight champions often end up broke. They are people with great capabilities in one field only. Bob knew several world champions. People who are successful athletes have had this problem. Greatness without the stability of doctrine and the wisdom of doctrine and the application of doctrine, you will be an easy mark for con men.

Joab is noble. The city here is the acropolis. These are imperatives of strong assurance. Joab is certain that this northern acropolis will be captured. The imperative is used for assurance.

The city called after Joab does not mean it will be renamed, but that he will get the credit for taking it. This is idiomatic.

2Sam. 12:28 [Now then gather the rest of the people together and encamp against the city and take it, lest I take \[capture\] the city and it be called by my name \[and I will get the credit\]."](#)

Joab is in a state of humility, and he is outside of interlocking systems of arrogance. Integrity versus loyalty. Joab's honor is maintained. As chief of staff and as the field commander, it is Joab's opinion that the King should get the credit, so he is willing to step aside. It would appear that Joab has rebounded from his part of the murder of the Hittite. Joab passes the integrity + honor test. There is great application of doctrine. Authority-orientation became the rationale where Joab transfers the credit to David, who did nothing. There have been rumbles of discontent in Israel. When the leadership is involved in interlocking systems of arrogance, there will always be discontent. Therefore, David must get the credit for the fall of Rabbah. There is not room for 2 heroes in Israel. Joab is the true hero. Joab is making an honorable decision. All of the credit is given to King David.

If the Lord does not promote you, you are not promoted. No man loses by such a gracious gesture of transferring the credit to the top man. You never lose by this. The person who works hard and solves the problem, but a higher up gets the credit, and that is fine. Bob provided the work that got 2 stars because Bob did the job. They called him in because they could not do the job. You lose if you become bitter. Bitterness is one of the quickest ways to get into interlocking systems of arrogance. Joab almost lost his honor in the murder of Uriah.

2Samuel 12:28–

God's love has two directions; objectively to other members of the Trinity. Human love originates and is perpetuated by 4 interrelated concepts. The spiritual, fulfillment of one's norms and standards.

The idea of drafting women, as our president wants to do, is ridiculous; or the secretary of the army. Women are who we fight for. Drafting them is no solution and women's lib does not excuse this. Women in the service needs to be only on a voluntary basis.

Many anthropathisms of love in Scripture. God's justice is the source of many of our blessings, which are imputed to His righteousness which is in us. For those who say the love of God is the point of reference are the holy rollers; and the sovereignty of God being our point of reference is the belief of the hyper-Calvinists. Divine righteousness is the principle of divine integrity. Neither man's sinfulness in general... Integrity of God is not impressed with good deeds or legalistic human good. Creatures gain from their proper relationship to the justice of God. His integrity is not subject to sin, evil or human good. It is the possession of divine righteousness which is the source of our blessings.

Beloved of God, at the cradle, it was anticipated that Solomon would believe in Jesus Christ and they would be certain that he would have all the doctrine he desired. What the righteousness of God approves, the justice of God blessings. The love of God is related to our advance to maturity. God loves us because His righteousness is in us. Indwelling of righteousness of God in us is the key to our blessing. Solomon's name looked forward to his blessing.

God loves His Own righteousness. When our sins were imputed to Christ and judged, the integrity of God always take precedence over the love of God? Divine love for holiness is revealed along with divine hatred for sin. Love of God and integrity of God stand together; and these were going through David's mind when he named Solomon.

2Sam. 12:25 and sent a message by Nathan the prophet. So he called his name Jedidiah, because of the LORD.

There are 3 cities. The royal city in the south; the water city in the middle; and the Citadel city in the north. There is personal blessing to come out of this. Installment blessing will bring blessing out of cursing. Solomon will replace the son which died. Israel is facing an Ammonite war.

Meanwhile, Joab besieged Rabbah. Then he sent staff officers to David. "I have captured the water city."

Concluding Points

1. Joab continues with integrity; he has integrity and loyalty to David. It is no longer integrity versus loyalty, but integrity + loyalty.
2. Joab believes that the commander in chief ought to get the credit. Otherwise, the malcontents would have started conspiracies against David and joined themselves to Joab.
3. Therefore, Joab is willing to step aside and let the honor of the winning the battle to David.
- 4.
5. Joab passes this test with flying honors.
6. Authority-orientation becomes the rationale by which Joab does this.
7. Rumbles of discontent in Israel.
8. David must get the credit.
9. Joab's wisdom and integrity plan to give all the credit to David.
10. No man every loses by giving the top credit to the top man in the organization.

Next Set of Principles

1. No one loses credit by letting someone above you take the credit.
2. This is of course the for the believer too. No one loses credit by giving the credit to another. We work as unto God. Usually, it itakes a mature believer to take the credit.
3. The believer gains credit in the eyes of the Lord.
4. Therefore, Joab's suggestion is a great spiritual choice and it establishes his integrity.
5. No one can possess honor and integrity apart from humility.
6. Joab, the brilliant general, the nephew to David, is free from interlocking systems of arrogance. To maintain David's authority and his command authority with the army, the siege is to be completed by David.
7. Joab realizes that David's authority had to be reestablished with the army. Command authority is much more important than personal credit. No one loses by letting someone else take the credit. This is freedom from institutional arrogance. He does not think of his own advance. He is more concerned about the army of Israel. Joab emerges as a fantastically great man. Discipline and authority take priority over personal advance.

Another principle emerges: a staff is to make its commander look good. This is true in a business as well. This is a part of institutional function. Joab was a man of integrity and honor. He was loyal to David as the ruler of client nation Israel. This required loyalty and an understanding of divine establishment. David was in a very shaky situation because of his interlocking systems of arrogance and there was turbulence and unrest in the nation, and Joab perceived this. Joab comes into the picture as the man of honor. The Joab advice will be the means of reestablishing David as ruler over Israel.

Max Hoffman went up through the German staff. He went up in the ranks, and he tried to make the staff officers look good. The Prussian army code extended to the entire German army. Hessians, like Max Hoffman, was assigned to go as an observer to the Japanese side? He was assigned to follow the japs around, and he had great insight and he was impishly brilliant.

Battle of Leong Yang. Samsonov and another general. He was not properly supported by Rennekoff. They met at a railway station, and Samsonov knocked him down and stepped on him and started to break a few ribs. Rennekoff challenged Samsonov to a duel but they were stopped.

Huffman became an historian. He was the greatest expert of the personnel of the Russian officers. The Van Schiefen plan. A Russian army located at Warsaw. They were going to come in and cut off the small German 8th army. About 2 months before the war broke out, Hoffman was relieved of his command and sent as a staff officer somewhere. He was about 45 years old, and he had a great sense of honor and a great sense of humor. He would have more influence on 20th century warfare than any other man. He was smarter than any general in the German army. Many of his Prussian contemporaries were already generals. He was interested in what the Russians would do. His old friend Rennekoff had one Russian army and Samsonov had another.

Every bit of equipment that we had in Europe was shipped in Russian ships and we have no logistical system by which to ship our equipment. Our logistics stink. We have no logistics.

Von Pritvitz, called the fat soldier, and he loved good food and French Bordos. His chief of staff relieve him.

Robert E. Lee was the first to use the railroad in strategy and logistics.

Max Hoffman planned the whole battle. 2 great Russian armies wiped out and a half million men killed. Hoffman died in 1927 and interviewed right before that. He was the hero of Tannenberg and Missourian Lakes.

Max Hoffman always tried to make his higher ups look good. Samsonov committed suicide at Tannenberg. Rennekoff was shot by the Bolsheviks. There was no regular Russian army because of Hoffman, which is why the Bolsheviks were able to rise up successfully.

There would have been no Hitler without Max Hoffman. He died a very honorable general and Joab reminds Bob of Max Hoffman. He is an unknown in history, and he dramatically affected all of 20th century history.

This noble and honorable gesture on the part of Joab allowed for David's authority to be consolidated. Right now, it was as shaky as it had ever been.

2Sam. 12:28 [Now then gather the rest of the people together and encamp against the city and take it, lest I take \[capture\] the city and it be called by my name \[and I will get the credit\]."](#)

The fall of the Acropolis. Client nation Israel had an M-plan. No nation can survive without an M-plan. Bob does not see how the US could survive in any kind of a war. We have a very small, regular army and it is completely inadequate. We are debating a draft. Without a draft, you need to have an M-plan. Bob was a part of an M-plan a year before WWII. We have never had an M-plan since then. Many nations have been destroyed without an M-plan. We do not have one right now. We are at the mercy of Jesus Christ in this regard.

No nation can survive apart from universal military training.

They began the siege of the citadel. They captured it. The laws of divine establishment specified.

The standing orders for the M-plan of Israel is recorded in the Bible. There are 2 records of this: Num. 1:2-3. A lot of you sit back there with sort of a stupid look on your face. You think this part of the Word of God is inconsequential. This president refuses to be advised by the chiefs of staff. When the Bible teaches a principle. This president has caused the entire Iran crisis. Carter even used an Air Force general to depose the Shah. This was Carter's idea; he is responsible for this. Then he turns around and looks for someone to blame this on. There was no energy crisis; it was the department of energy and Carter wanted his energy program to go through Congress.

We have no foreign policy because we have no military. Carter takes those obsolete planes and keep them in the air. The Russians know we have no strategic command. Cancelling out the B1 bombers was the greatest mistake. As for ground forces, you cannot believe how terrible our situation is. We have not even organized the industrial complex. Bob is a gradual of the industrial complex something? We have no foundries today to make ships or tanks, and those foundries are in Germany and Japan. We have no machinists today. One person with a contract to build planes needs 500 machinists and he can't find 50. With how many we produce, we might be ready for a battle in about 25 years. This is why passages like this are important. We are in trouble; we just don't know it yet.

Deut. 20:1-4 "When you go out to war against your enemies, and see horses and chariots and an army larger than your own, you shall not be afraid of them, for the LORD your God is with you, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt. And when you draw near to the battle, the priest shall come forward and speak to the people and shall say to them, 'Hear, O Israel, today you are drawing near for battle against your enemies: let not your heart faint. Do not fear or panic or be in dread of them, for the LORD your God is he who goes with you to fight for you against your enemies, to give you the victory.'

Courage is being able to think under pressure; panic is an inability to think under pressure.

The exceptions to go to war are given. Someone who has not lived in a new home; a newly married, and someone with a new business. Deut. 20:5–9; cowards are also supposed to be left out. You don't want a draft dodger marrying your wife. Draft dodgers produce cowards.

OSHA ought to be removed now because it attacks free enterprise. We would balance the budget and give new motivation for men to fight.

Vv. 10 and following is siege procedure. "You have been saved by the bell."

Communion service (not listened to)

vv. 10–15 are pertinent to our passage

It is tragic to Bob when a system of government as delineated by the constitution has failed. When there is national arrogance, people become divorce from reality, until the horse is out of the barn. In our passage, Deut. 20:10, we are examining the M-plan of Israel. David has now taken the entire army of Israel

Deut. 20:10–12 "When you draw near to a city to fight against it, offer terms of peace to it. And if it responds to you peaceably and it opens to you, then all the people who are found in it shall do forced labor for you and shall serve you. But if it makes no peace with you, but makes war against you, then you shall besiege it.

Deu 20:13–15 And when the LORD your God gives it into your hand, you shall put all its males to the sword, but the women and the little ones, the livestock, and everything else in the city, all its spoil, you shall take as plunder for yourselves. And you shall enjoy the spoil of your enemies, which the LORD your God has given you. Thus you shall do to all the cities that are very far from you, which are not cities of the nations here.

The last set of cities are those outside of the immediate area which will be conquered by Joshua.

2Sam. 12:29 So David gathered all the people together [Consequently David mobilized the entire army] and went to Rabbah and fought against it and took it.

You cannot take 93 lbs and 12 oz. from one person's head and put it on another.

The crown was probably suspended over his head; possibly held by slaves. As he sits, the crown is suspended over his head. A talent of gold is not something you can wear. It is possible that the king was seated at his throne for preferential treatment; and whether or not they spoke the same language, it would be clear who he is. This was the one who degraded the ambassadors of Israel in the first place and later hired the Aramæan army to fight against Israel.

Taking away the crown suggests that the king is lying in a pool of his own blood. The slaves are moved to hold the crown over David.

The crown, the gold and precious stones, were a talent. 1500 ounces of gold. This crown is worth at least a quarter of a million dollars if not a million. There are diamonds, rubies and emeralds.

The Zamzumim probably originally wore this crown; they were giants; and they probably occupied this land. However, the Ammonites probably defeated them. It was around 1400 that Israel defeated Og, and he escaped across the Jordan, to be later conquered by the Ammonites (Deut. 2:19–21).

David will kill all the males, but some escaped; and there will be some resistance much later on. There was a beautiful Ammonite woman that married Solomon and her son would become an heir to the throne?

Taking the crown from the king was simply killing the king on the throne. They will take all of the wealth that the giants accumulated, and then all of the wealth which the Ammonites had accumulated afterward.

The plunder would be given to the soldiers, to some degree. Some would receive extra shares of plunder, depending upon their function when at war.

Women were also given as beautiful gifts. There were no male prisoners taken. There was a policy to kill all of the males, and this is based upon the city's refusal to make peace. Everything else was taken out of the city.

There are 3 forts taken here, with all of the wealth.

No matter how great the military, the final and inevitable victory is the Lord Jesus Christ. This is specified in Deuteronomy. Military training is important to the effectiveness of the conquering. We are a client nation. Freedom cannot exist without authority. These can only coexist in order for freedom to exist.

2Sam. 12:30 [And he seized the crown of their king above his head. The weight of it was a talent of gold, and in it was a precious stone, and it was placed on \[suspended above\] David's head. And he brought out the spoil of the city, a very great amount.](#)

It sounds like some kind of a halloween thing and it is as if they are going through some sort of a funhouse here.

The corrected translation: this means that David is killing these male prisoners of war were being killed with saws, iron cutting tools and iron axes. They were not just executed; they were destroyed with farm equipment. If the survivors came back and discovered them this way, they would realize that it was not a good idea to mess with Israel.

One dove said that these were all put to work to repair their own economy. Passing through the brick kiln was fired up, and this is where they worshiped Molech, and there was a great oven there. They fired up Molech and the brick kilns and they threw the people in there; mostly the priests.

When a nation reaches a saturation of arrogance, it can only be stamped out with the most gruesome of killing. We are too civilized. We have lost track of everything. When we should have been slaughtering Communists in the past, we just turned more countries over to them. We are going to pay; people cannot face reality. This is the devil's world. We have crime which is unchecked in this country; judges who do not understand crime and punishment. We need some plows to plow over these criminals. We stupidly think criminals and Communists ought to be able to live.

David destroyed the male population and destroyed them categorically. Some were killed at the kilns where Molech was. He caused to march out the males and he sawed them in two and with iron cutting tools.

In 11:2, the Ammonites would make a treaty by gouging out an eye of their defeated.

Amos 1:13, 15 Thus says the LORD: "For three transgressions of the Ammonites, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment, because they have ripped open pregnant women in Gilead, that they might enlarge their border. So I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah, and it shall devour her strongholds, with shouting on the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind; and their king shall go into exile, he and his princes together," says the LORD.

Jesus Christ controls history, and the human race has to go under a catharsis from time to time. There are those who would destroy the world. Hitler exterminated for expansion. 4th is interlocking systems of arrogance which destroy a nation. Just as Hitler was punished for the arrogance of his lebensraum,

Jer. 49:1–5 Concerning the Ammonites. Thus says the LORD: "Has Israel no sons? Has he no heir? Why then has Milcom dispossessed Gad, and his people settled in its cities? Therefore, behold, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when I will cause the battle cry to be heard against Rabbah of the Ammonites; it shall become a desolate mound, and its villages shall be burned with fire; then Israel shall dispossess those who dispossessed him, says the LORD. "Wail, O Heshbon, for Ai is laid waste! Cry out, O daughters of Rabbah! Put on sackcloth, lament, and run to and fro among the hedges! For Milcom shall go into exile, with his priests and his officials. Why do you boast of your valleys, O faithless daughter, who trusted in her treasures, saying, 'Who will come against me?' Behold, I will bring terror upon you, declares the Lord GOD of hosts, from all who are around you, and you shall be driven out, every man straight before him, with none to gather the fugitives. "But afterward I will restore the fortunes of the Ammonites, declares the LORD."

This same policy was followed throughout Ammon. Interlocking systems of arrogance was a disease which accompanied strong delusion. David and his entire army returned to Israel after this had been done. The Ammonites would not be a problem for David or for Solomon after this.

Rehoboam was King of Judah and his mother was an Ammonite.

2Sam. 12:31 And he [caused them to be] brought out the people who were in it and set them to labor with saws [and he forced them against the saws] and iron picks and iron axes and made them toil at the brick kilns. And thus he did to all the cities of the Ammonites. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

1Kings 11:1 Solomon had affairs and wives from many nations. Solomon maintained intimacy with them. He has 700 wives of royal birth + 300 mistresses. It is his wives which lead him astray.

1Kings 11:1–9 Now King Solomon loved many foreign women, along with the daughter of Pharaoh: Moabite, Ammonite, Edomite, Sidonian, and Hittite women, from the nations concerning which the LORD had said to the people of Israel, "You shall not enter into marriage with them, neither shall they with you, for surely they will turn away your heart after their gods." Solomon clung to these in love. He had 700 wives, princesses, and 300 concubines. And his wives turned away his heart. For when Solomon was old his wives turned away his heart after other gods, and his heart was not wholly true to the LORD his God, as was the heart of David his father. For Solomon went after Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, and after Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites. So Solomon did what was evil in the sight of the LORD and did not wholly follow the LORD, as David his father had done. Then Solomon built a high place for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, and for Molech the abomination of the Ammonites, on the mountain east of Jerusalem. And so he did for all his foreign wives, who made offerings and sacrificed to their gods. And the LORD was angry with Solomon, because his heart had turned away from the LORD, the God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice

1Kings 11:10–13 and had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods. But he did not keep what the LORD commanded. Therefore the LORD said to Solomon, "Since this has been your practice and you have not kept my covenant and my statutes that I have commanded you, I will surely tear the kingdom from you and will give it to your servant. Yet for the sake of David your father I will not do it in your days, but I will tear it out of the hand of your son. However, I will not tear away all the kingdom, but I will give one tribe to your son, for the sake of David my servant and for the sake of Jerusalem that I have chosen."

A decisive military victory will last for one or two generations at best. The Ammonites would attack with beautiful women and through religion. We have been hurt with the false doctrine of our enemies. Military establishment and doctrine must be a part of every generation.

Houston police chief, "We use .44 magnums, because they are the biggest guns we can find; and if they let me, I'd use napalm." There were some arrest reversals. "I am getting a little sick and tired of this...who is writing their ticket? It is time we begin looking under those black robes and see where their hands are." Caldwell is the police chief's name. Caldwell called one defendant a sorry, no-good animal. His comments were often broken up with applause and he got a standing ovation at the end.

Bob says, you get a lot of truth in time.

We could have more easily defeated Hitler at the beginning, but we did not have the heart to do so; and waiting to do so, cost us 20 million lives. "The west has too long neglected its military," said Henry Kissinger. Bob asks, where was he when he was secretary of state? "I haven't seen Heinz for sometime, but he must have his head in some strange place." From Time Magazine, "History suggests that the best chance for peace is military preparedness."

No nation or man has entered into a large war without the horror associated with it. People suddenly realize that we are coming up to a world war, and they are trying to sound smart. The thought of nuclear war is so ghastly...change could come without battle."

Bob visited a friend at Byola and they were completely divorced from reality. Arrogance removes you from reality. This was right before World War II.

Sexual arrogance means weak father and weak parents. The worst animal alive during David's reign was Amnon. He is a fascinating study in arrogance. People, many times, reflect the kind of mother they have; and a failure in integrity often reflects upon the parents that one has had. Because of polygamy, David was a sex athlete, but a weak father. Sexual arrogance always produces a poor parent. David's first marriage was to Ahinoam, a commoner. She grew up on the wrong side of the tracks and she feels like she has to prove something. Some achieve greatness and some do not. That is the study of kings; David grew up in the sheepfold. Aristocracy means achievement. Those who achieve aristocracy do it through ability, self-discipline, genius, honor, integrity; it is when their children come along, that things fall apart.

A lot of people can have style, because you can learn style; but you are born with class. David had class.

David married a woman who is arrogant; and she had to prove something. When she had a son by David, this son became the crown prince. Amnon is the crown prince and he is an animal. The first part of this chapter deals with the way that he thinks and acts. A lot of people think a good father slaps his kid around and scares him; a good father takes time to explain life and teaches and develops a rapport with the child. If someone is chasing another skirt, he cannot be a good father. That will make the mother bitter; so this mother communicated arrogance to her son. Certainly, a lot of women would be better off if the father never came home. Some people have no business being married and having children. No question about it. When a man has a harem, it is inevitable that any woman who feels insecure is going to push so that she becomes a pushy broad. She communicates this to her son, and he became a psycho animal. He was a psycho by choice. He is a transient psychotic. Transient psychosis means you only use it when it is convenient. You use your illness to get you out of what you are responsible for.

The 2nd son is Absalom. His mother was an aristocrat. Her name was Maacah, the daughter of the King of Geshur. She had a son and a daughter; Absalom and Tamar. Absalom was quite close to being like David. They probably both had red hair. He thought and acted like his father and he had potential. However, he had a flaw. He had a temper that he could not control. He had a mistaken sense of honor. He had loyalty to his sister and a temper. He was fantastic. He was like Alexander the Great to his father Philip of Macedon. Alexander the Great conquered the world in 12 years, breaking Cyrus's record of 25 years. No matter how strong you are, and Absalom was strong, there is one thing that will flaw the greatest of persons, and that is interlocking systems of arrogance. This did not ruin David, but it did ruin his son Absalom. Arrogance makes a strong man weak. This is exactly what happened insofar as Absalom was concerned. He opened himself up for a problem.

It is not the strength of the muscle or muscle size; but it is the strength of the joint; they need the strong joints in order to have true strength. Arrogance flawed him.

The 3rd son in the picture is Adonijah, and he will not be in the picture for awhile, until the Absalom revolution. His mother was a guttersnipe. Adonijah is the 2nd animal in this act, and he will show his characteristics at the end of Samuel.

The 4th son is Solomon. There will be a power struggle; first to Amnon then to Absalom and then to Adonijah, all of whom will be wiped out.

With Bathsheba, David became a good husband and father, something he had not been before. He taught his children well and they were magnificent.

Abigail of Carmel was a great person, and her son gave David no trouble. She communicated to her children, and she did a good job. Kiliab is the son who did not.

David and His Wives

1. Because of polygamy, David was a strong man but a weak father.
2. Because of arrogance, David's wives were strong mothers who dominated their sons for evil. They were all strong women and they all needed a man to dominate and control them.

3. Most of the wives in the harem were competitive and arrogant (Abigail was the exception).
4. Arrogance makes an issue out of environment; humility never makes an issue of environment. Great people come out of a lousy environment and lousy people come out of a good environment. Upper class arrogance produces tyranny; lower class arrogance produces revolution.
5. Chilibab was never a problem.
6. Abigail was a wonderful mother who stayed free of interlocking systems of arrogance.
7. Abigail, like Bathsheba, had class.
8. Humility + the surface beauty was the perfect environment for spiritual growth.
9. All racial issues are the product of interlocking systems of arrogance. No one should make an issue out of race in the United States. This creates problems that are insurmountable.
10. Being born-again should eliminate any problem with genetic arrogance. Rebound can deliver the believer from the trap of interlocking systems of arrogance.
11. Arrogance produces weak fathers and dominate mothers. Antithetical results.
12. Arrogance is a bad environment for children, for they inevitably catch this disease from their parents.

Points of Introduction

1. The major issue in David's family was primogeniture. Absalom versus Amnon; and then Solomon versus Adonijah. These were the 4 major contenders for the throne. Arrogance makes an issue out of environment. Lower class arrogance produces revolution. Polygamy produces weak fathers and strong mothers. Ambitious strong mothers inculcate inordinate arrogance and unrestrained arrogance and ambition in their sons. This is what happened with Amnon.
2. This can be called harem conspiracy. This is the spawning ground for revolution, violence, crime,
3. The 4 contenders for the throne are involved in the rest of this book, only one of them will survive. He had good parents rather than the domination of a strong mother. A weak father may be great with his sons, but he does not train them. David did have a lot of bastards who are not named in Samuel. The bastards are not in contention at all. Bob could say, "Born out of wedlock" but bastard is faster and communicates.
4. It is impossible for a polygamous father to be a good father.
5. Because of polygamy, David was a weak father. Only with Solomon and his brothers was David a good father. The mother of Amnon made an issue out of being a commoner. Absalom's mom was an aristocrat. The mother of Solomon produced a man qualified to be a king.

Background

1. When our chapter begins, Amnon is the crown prince.

2. At the end, Amnon is dead and Absalom is the crown prince.
3. At the end of the Ahithophel revolution, Absalom is dead, and Adonijah regards himself as the crown prince.
4. David promises this to Solomon.
5. Adonijah's claim to the throne was backed by Joab, of all people. He reverses what he did in the last chapter. Joab and Abiathar will support Adonijah; but Nathan and Zadok will support Solomon. This will end one of the two priestly lines. There are a lot of mercs who will support David as well.

David, while a battalion commander, had two wives, Abigail and . Then he had 6 wives in Jerusalem. He even restores Michel. He has many mistresses, some of whom are mentioned (10, I believe). This was a complicated deal.

Second Point of Introduction

1. This is the concept of installment discipline. When the believer rebounds, he is forgiven the sins he mentions and the unknown sins committed during the interim of being out of fellowship. Restoration of the filling of the Holy Spirit with rebound.
2. Another result, not previously developed, is the release from interlocking systems of arrogance. Psalm 32 and 38.
3. Guilt was released from rebound interlocking systems of arrogance. This can be temporary or permanent.
4. Another result of rebound is related to divine discipline or administration of punishment from the justice of God.
5. Once the believer is restored to fellowship through rebound, the punishment or discipline is never more than he can endure. If you are a baby, you cannot endure much punishment. God can cut the punishment down to fit your punishment, or he can give it to you in increments. If the punishment is not too great, it can be continued at that rate or diminished. Or, there must be installments. If you are a mature believer, then you will possibly get installments. To whom much is given, much is expected.
6. Once the believer is restored to fellowship through rebound, the punishment is never more than he can endure.
7. Suffering can be discontinued, or the suffering is diminished, compatible with what believer can endure; or it is continued at the same intensity. More than you can endure means you get it in installments.
8. If the believer becomes involved in interlocking systems of arrogance, he changes sin into evil. Sin + human good = evil. If you are involved in arrogance, you may have rebounded, but because you turned sin into evil, you get installment discipline, because the normal amount of discipline would be too much. The revolution, the final discipline installment, will turn into great blessing. An arrogance hangover; he temporarily went back into arrogance, but not for an extended period of time. By the time David is in the 4th discipline, which takes place over a period of 10 years, he enjoys great blessing, in between and after.

9. The persistence of this status results in the sin unto death. If you get inside interlocking systems of arrogance, and stay there, no rebound; you eventually go out the sin unto death. Instead of the sin unto death, you do not die; but you do get discipline.
10. When the believer is in interlocking systems of arrogance for a long time, rebound gets him away from the sin unto death, he was facing more discipline than he can bear, so it is sliced up. When, after rebound, you are going to keep living, and the punishment is greater than you can bear, it is divided into installments. Installments which hurt.

Installment Discipline

1. Installment discipline can be defined as the alternative to the sin unto death.
2. Because of involvement with interlocking systems of arrogance during carnality, the believer have accumulated unbearable suffering from the justice of God.
3. Once the believer has rebounded, unbearable suffering must be converted into bearable suffering.
4. Therefore, installment discipline converts unbearable suffering into bearable suffering.
5. Consequently, installment discipline. Degeneration is involvement in interlocking systems of arrogance; and reversionism. Any believer in any state can be degenerate. Your status, when you rebound, will be the same. The 2nd is reversionism, which is negative volition to doctrine. You can go down the scale here. You can even fall into apostasy. You can get into interlocking systems of arrogance without being negative toward doctrine. There are 2 spiritual problems.
6. Installment discipline is the basis for the justice of God turning cursing into blessing. It provides breathing space and to avoid reentrance into interlocking systems of arrogance.
- 7.
8. Installment discipline establishes the conclusion that an occasional arrogance hangover is better than being permanently involved in interlocking systems of arrogance.

There are 2 installments of discipline in this chapter.

Not enough time to do the first verse, and it must be done all at once.

2Samuel 13:1

72David

631_0292

The pot is boiling and something is about to break loose. We are removing tanks from Fort Hood and from Germany for the Pakistanis, who do not know how to use them. Look for Khomeini to die shortly; a boiling revolution is Saudi Arabia; do not be surprised if 100,000 reservists are called up.

The things breaking worldwide are not found on the front page, but in the back page. Our WWII gas masks are being sent to Pakistan.

There are things going on, and Bob can't tell us any more.

It is important for us to know the background for passages like this. We cannot properly interpret this chapter without knowing about 500 years of ancient history. This is why we spent so much time with polygamy.

Sexual arrogance of the crown prince of Israel who is Amnon. The word here means beautiful. Tamar means palm tree; and she and Absalom are children of Maacah. Maacah has a great deal to do with this passage, even though she is not mentioned here. She is the daughter of the king of Geshur. His country is located in the area of Syria and mostly on the east side of Jordan. The ruler of Geshur is neither Syrian or Aramæan.

The Hurrians are a warrior race who live around Kurdistan, around western Iran, eastern Turkey and southern USSR. The Hurrians were one of the most famous people in all of history and they had this system of knighthood.

There was a warrior class which ruled India for many years. The Hurrians led the Hyksos; they are called the Mitannis because they ruled the Mitannis. They would walk into a country and take it over and they would administer it well. They lived by a code of chivalry.

History of Ancient Peoples

1. In 1925 in Yorgon Toffee? Kirkuk is one of the most famous oil centers in the world. Kirkuk is to Iraq what Ploesti is to Romania.
2. In the Akkadian period, the city was known as Gassur. Very similar to Geshur. King of Geshur is the grandfather of Tamar and Absalom.
3. Nuzu was the renaming of one of these cities.
4. A famous discovery of the Nuzu tablets. The Horites were supposed to be cave men.
5. The Hurrians were an Indo-European people who migrated from...and came into the valley of the Tigris and the Euphrates.
6. Mitanni. 1470–1350 B.C. about 500 years before our passage occurs.
7. The Hurrians have two great enemies which they ought to contend with. Hittites in the north in what is now Turkey and in the South is Egypt, the 2 great empires. They ruled the people of Mitanni. In the struggle between the Egyptians and the Hittites and suddenly notices the Assyrians were getting strong. They held their own for. They were the original horse trainers of the world. They were chariot riders and may have invented the world. They were fabulous leaders. They conquered India, Persia, Mesopotamia. The conquered nearly everything in the middle East. The Hyksos was a large band of mercs. Greeks, Trojans, Cassites, etc. were mercs. A group of Hurrians, the ancestors of Absalom and Tamar. They got some chariots and took. The Egyptians which Joseph deal with were actually Hurrians. They controlled Egypt under the name of Hyksos.

8. Greek pharaoh in the Hyksos group.
9. Occupants of Edom before it was Edom. Esau's descendants pushed them out. We must understand the Hurrians to understand Deut. 2:12
10. Job's name is a Hurrians name.
11. Sampson is a Hurrians name. Not a Jewish name.
12. The Hurrians were the aristocrats, the great rulers of many peoples of the ancient world. They are most famous for their rulership over the kingdom of Mitanni, various states in Palestine, and other places.
13. They were a chariot riding dynasty. They swept in on their chariots and took care of a country, and swept out.
14. Certain people do certain things because of genes and the old sin nature. Their code of chivalry was called Mariyana. Those who ruled India had the same code and they called it Marja, which is the same code. They are the same people. The Indo-Europeans who conquered India had the same code. That is the basis of the caste system. This was an innovation that the Hurrians used when conquering India.
15. Decline of the Hittites and they conquered Syria. The code of chivalry was a great code until something was added to it. There was flexibility in their treatment. They were wise and just in their treatment. The secret to this code was its flexibility. Because justice, honor and flexibility produces great leadership and good administration; the weakness of the code is when those who gain power become arrogant in the power that they have. Arrogance + inflexibility = weakness. The destructive factor is the fact of its flexibility. Flexibility and integrity = adaptability and adaptability to those whom you rule, results in great leadership. Some cannot rule because they are inflexible. A great sign of arrogance when someone has power but is inflexible.
16. When the Egyptians marched north during the 16th dynasty, they encountered the Hurrians in Syria. The Egyptians prized them because they had great honor and they appreciated their horsemanship. The Hurrian knights who ruled always sent their children to Egypt to be educated. In turn, the Egyptians gave them a civilization, to which they adapted to, and eventually took it over. When their kids came back with a good education, they decided, that is a country worth ruling.
17. All the aristocratic knights sent their kids to Egypt to be educated, and then they decided to go down there and take it over.
18. They had to pick up an army, so they got some Greeks and some Amorites. They were called heqa khasewet (Bob spells it correctly), and this became Hyksos. It means the prince of the desert. That shepherd king was Razzmatazz.

So, why all of this? Why the history lesson. Does Bob have a mean streak? Obviously some of you are hopeless. Some of you women just tune out and they wonder, what does this or that mean; or, "Where do you get these things from?"

ISBE only has about 3 lines on the Hurrians.

2Sam. 3:2–3 And sons were born to David at Hebron: his firstborn was Amnon, of Ahinoam of Jezreel; and his second, Chileab, of Abigail the widow of Nabal of Carmel; and the third, Absalom the son of Maacah the daughter of Talmi king of Geshur;...

Absalom and Tamar are half Hurrian. David was a poor father. Under interlocking systems of arrogance, David became a weak father. Maacah is a Hurrian name. She was brought up on the Samari code of the Hurrians and she passed this code on to her children, who were Jewish born-again believers.

Geshur was a magnificent small nation, one the last stands of the Hurrian knights. Geshur was to the Hurrians knights as Wales was to the holy knights?

Millions of people were affected magnificently by the code of chivalry. This explains why Absalom and Tamar each had a certain attitude after the rape of Tamar. This info will be given to you so you won't be like a cow at a new gate. You won't be the person where you stick your brain in an ant and it would walk sideways.

Stilted and inflexible because of genetic arrogance. When passed down generation to generation, any code of chivalry or aristocracy becomes stilted and inflexible because of genetic arrogance. Arrogance destroys the best of codes. It destroys the best of mores. Arrogance destroys any system of morality. When the code of Mariani was taken to India, they distorted it through arrogance. There were so many people in India and the brown were multiplying faster than their white conquerors, so they invested caste in order to preserve their control.

Absalom told his sister not to say anything about being raped. That is the code of the Mariana. They never said anything, because aristocrats stop talking at that point. Aristocrats don't use street violence. They come up with something neat. The chivalry code of the Maryanyans will come out with the brooding and depression of Tamar. She went to live in Absalom's castle. She remained in the castle and she brooded; she was depressed.

A perfect explanation as to what has happened to the various aristocratic groups; the Stuarts, and Bob names off about 13 of them. You become aristocracy by hard work and success. It is developed through talent and taking responsibility for your actions. Pepin the Short of the Marivinchians. They all go down for the same reason. Most came up on a code of honor and integrity; a code of chivalry. But add to this arrogance, then you destroy the flexibility and adaptability of the leadership. You adapt to a different language, depending upon whom you are leading. A good leader is flexible. Integrity + loyalty = honor. The weakness is always arrogance. Arrogance destroys any aristocracy. The French Revolution because of the arrogance of the aristocracy. Same for the Russian revolution. Inflexible; they lost out. The Romanov's were inflexible and they lost out. You cannot rule over millions of people or a few people and remain inflexible.

Absalom could have been one of the great leaders of history. Here is a man with great potential. He had 2 systems of honors; Bible doctrine and the from his mother, Mariyana. Both of these broke down because of arrogance.

There may be some truth to the Knights of the round table. This was preserved in France. King Arthur would have been the last Roman ruler in England.

The Saxons, the Anglos and the Jutes, and it was all over. This took Britain under paganism and put it under Christianity. Rome provide law and order, then came missionaries, then came the code. All the Arthurian legend does is explain what happens when you have an honorable system of leadership and you have doctrine and it all goes down the tubes.

Absalom and Tamar were brilliant and attractive and they were both destroyed by arrogance. The became inflexible and preoccupied with self.

Absalom will go to his grandfather's palace, which is Geshur. He goes back to the source of the code of chivalry, but he goes back as a failure. The king of Geshur was never conquered by anyone. The half tribe of Manasseh were hippies and they never conquered the kingdom of Geshur. Each installment of discipline is followed by a period of prosperity, during which doctrine can be learned. This prepares us for cursing be turned to blessing. If David had gone into reversionism or had he neglected doctrine. These intervals are very important.

The subject of the verb to love is Amnon. The Amalekites hit Ziklag and got Maacah and Abigail back (it was Ahinoam and Abigail?). He had 2 wives at this time. David had more than one wife, and that a problem. He married some women and he made others mistresses. David was a terrible father. Some of you are crazy about women. If you become preoccupied with a large number of women and cannot make up your mind, then don't have kids because you will be the world's worst father. This will lead to a domineering mother and she will lose her flexibility. In marriage, sex gives the woman flexibility. With flexibility and a man around teaching the children and taking on his responsibility, the woman can teach. But without him, she can teach prejudice. It is principle of prejudice.

Only Abigail was any good with this. They went from doctrine and Mariyana, to inflexibility. Samuri was a great type of code, but it had degenerated. The Geisha walked far behind the man because of his sword. Also, when they took the sword out, the woman needed to be out of range. The Samurai code when from flexible, integrity to a system of arrogance, which included Banzai in War II. If we would have understood Samurai's degeneracy, we would have understood that they may attack us. Kamikaze. Hundreds of yeas before, Samurai was an honorable system. Arrogance makes a good system into inflexibility. How do mothers get power in the harem? Through their male children. The middle east has always been chaotic because of polygamy. Women become ugly after a period of time. Bob is all for it. He doesn't mind being fooled; he is just an observer. Always a struggle among the male children. It would make sense that Amnon, son of a commoner, would be jealous of Tamar. Ahinoam wanted her son to be the crown prince. He was not even reared in the Mosaic Law. His attitude toward Nathan was not very positive. Amnon grew up to be a spoiled brat. Arrogance makes an issue out of environment. Some of the worst snobs are commoners.

The subject is Amnon, and apparently this is Valentine's day? Amnon is the subject. Tamar will need an enemy with Amnon loving her. He is an evil SOB, a bastard animal. Amnon hates Tamar but lusts for her body and wants to possess her and humiliate her. Amnon wants to get his kicks out of Tamar. This has all kinds of repercussions. There are only a few suitors that Tamar can marry, and being deflowered by rape ruins her life.

Amnon was in interlocking systems of arrogance and he was incapable of love. Any person preoccupied with himself, has no capacity for love. A woman needs to evaluate things when a man says, "I love you." The word to love is no better than the person who utters this word. It is Tamar's beauty he wants to possess and to humble. It is possible that his mother told him to take Tamar down a notch. Amnon was interested in satisfying himself. She may have snubbed him for all of his life.

Amnon is power mad, anti-establishment, and saturated with his own importance. And he has rejected all authority, including his father's. He has no capacity for love. He has one friend, someone who is evil.

A 3rd son is Jonadab who knows how to flatter without making it seem like patronage.

Joab is from David's sister. Jonadab is from David's 3rd brother.

2Sam. 13:1 Now Absalom, David's son, had a beautiful sister, whose name was Tamar. And after a time Amnon, David's son, loved her.

2Samuel 13:2-3

72David

631_0293

Amnon, David's son, fell in love with her.

Bob likes the KJV here: And Amnon was so vexed he fell sick... She was a virgin, but that was not why he was attracted to her.

Jatsar means to become narrow, to become anxious; and Amnon became so frustrated that. One of the most underlying areas of pain and discomfort, that a person gets stuck in this track will millions of miles of hurdles; no matter what, he gets over one, and there is one more. This frustrates the arrogant person. Being the crown prince, most of the ladies in the realm were pushovers; but Tamar was not. Those in arrogance spend much of their time in frustration. It is terrible to spend any of your social life with frustrated people. Amnon is totally miserable. There is no capacity for happiness inside interlocking systems of arrogance. He is accustomed to having his way about everything. He has a lust which cannot be instantly fulfilled.

Chalah Hithpael infinitive construct which means to become sick with grief or with frustration; to fake an illness; to make yourself ill. You do something to make yourself appear to be ill. Amnon becomes so frustrated that he makes himself to be ill. Frustration is one way to make oneself ill.

Bethulah is the word here for virgin. This refers a literal virgin and in the sense of integrity. This was no struggle for her. She was a virgin and not looking for trouble. She was a virgin and planned to stay that way until her RM came along. She is a virgin and is glad that she is.

The Lust and Illness of Amnon

1. A royal princess is more difficult to seduce than most people in the kingdom. This royal princess has an aristocratic mother and has trained her in poise, which is a state of mind. Because this woman also has integrity, she obviously is not disturbed that she is unmarried. One problem for a woman is when she begins to panic; all of the friends are married.
2. This means that she would not give Amnon the time of day. If he was no her half brother, she would have avoided him. This is a man who would make a pass at any woman around. This man is an animal. He is a person who needs to be killed. His sexual arrogance was frustrated by his desire to get Tamar into bed. He desired to copulate with her. Someone the other day thought that copulation was a dirty word. That is what we are talking about. This is lust.
3. Amnon is accustomed to having his own way. He is accustomed to seeing a gal and getting her into bed; so this is frustrating him and making him ill. The mind has a great deal to do with the state of the body.
4. This is psychosomatic frustration where the human body is affected by what one thinks. Thinking has a tremendous affect upon the body.
5. Fear is failure to think or lack of thinking under pressure. Courage is the ability to think under pressure. Courage is thought; cowardice is failure to think.
6. The thinking of the right lobe is affecting the body, for better or for worst. Amnon's hormones are functioning.
7. Arrogance + frustration causes temporary illness.

Amnon's Arrogance

1. The fact that Tamar is a virgin made her more attractive to Amnon. To a man who is not lecherous, this is not an issue; but to him, this is a sexual desire of his. Lecherous has all kinds of quirks. A story from the history books, where 5 or 6 women from a village would throw flowers in the path of Washington and in some, they could not find any.
- 2.
3. It is the woman's soul which appeals to the man in love; not her virginity. Deflowering a woman is a point of arrogance in lechery and has nothing to do with love.

4. In love, the man is occupied with the person, and not with aspects of her. Only his integrity comes into the picture. He is preoccupied with the woman. He does not see her as a status symbol. He does not see her as successful or as a failure.
5. The virginity of beautiful Tamar was a challenge to Amnon.
6. This means Amnon is dealing with sexual arrogance. He has rape in mind.
7. Sexual arrogance means mental arrogance. When the woman makes it clear that she is not interested, that adds to the criminal arrogance + psychopathic arrogance. Amnon's transient psychosis.
8. Arrogance is incapable of love. Arrogant people are not lovers at all; they have no capacity for love. The man who is arrogant is not worth marrying. Most fluffy headed things cannot understand the difference between poise and arrogance; between confidence and arrogance. Discernment is a very important principle. I don't know what some of you women will do when it comes to getting the RM except to pray. Keep praying and learning doctrine and maybe God will drop Prince Charming into your lap.
9. Arrogance competes in love. Love is not competition and love is not a game. The man who is always putting down his date, that is the kind of man to avoid. Better no date than to be put down in a date.
10. Arrogance receives gratification from and stimulation from sexual abuse of the woman. This includes rape or any other form of humiliation. Criminal arrogance as a potential can be spotted in a social situation where the man puts down the woman. He enjoys putting down the woman. To this kind of arrogance, there is nothing more fun in life than the humiliation of a beautiful woman. When arrogant people use you, they despise you.
11. Tamar is good only for one rape, to Amnon. The arrogant psychopath will despise her after receiving his kicks from humiliating her. It is not her beauty, but it is the challenge of humbling this woman who is far superior to him, even though he is the crown prince. All of his life, Amnon has heard prejudice from his mother. His mother is snobbish as only the commoner can be snobbish. In her snobbery, she despises the Hurrian aristocracy of Absalom and Tamar. Arrogance always despised what arrogance can conquer. Whether in sex or in business or in athletics or in any field of competition in life, arrogance despises what it conquers. You cannot have any kind of a relationship with an arrogant person. Not in business, friendship, love, athletics. The arrogant person has to put everyone down. The arrogant woman who has to put everyone down at the party. The famous drama The Doll House is all about this.

Tamar is Amnon's half-sister. To the arrogant, the unattainable is always a challenge. It is important for parents to teach their children manners in life. It keeps young people from developing bad habits with regards to the unattainable. One thing which enhances a woman's beauty is her poise. What makes a man manly is not his muscles or his sexual conquests, but his thoughtfulness of others, which we used to call Chivalry and gentlemanliness.

The Arrogant Woman

1. Some women will do the same thing; she will vamp a male in order to get his attention or to go out with her.
2. Arrogant women view some men as a challenge.
3. Some women vamp men just to put them down or to trap them. Carmen is a story of such a woman.

Tamar was unobtainable to the prince. Even if they were not related, Tamar would not have had anything to do with this man. Discernment made this man a total no. he was an obnoxious, lustful animal.

Niphal imperfect of palah, which means to be difficult. It was difficult in the eyes of Amnon to do anything with her. This seemed impossible for him to do anything to her. He wanted to possess, rape and humble Tamar, but he could not. Furthermore, her volition stood in the way, besides her aristocracy. She regarded Amnon as an animal. Like their father, they were probably redheads. Bob pictures Amnon as being dark and sinister looking. This came from his thoughts, not from his features. He was totally unattractive to the brother and the sister. There was likely a mutual antagonism between them. The full brother and sister did not like their half brother. They all came to Jerusalem together and had grown up together. Amnon had sacrificed everyone in their periphery. Tamar did not like Amnon and she avoided him whenever possible.

Amnon and Tamar

1. Her volition totally reject Amnon as a brother; and completely as a lover.
2. The laws of incest + palace security added to Amnon's lust. Rape then, as now, was a violation of the law. Rape was punishable by death. Rape and incest could result in being killed twice; beheaded at both ends.
3. Amnon considered the rape and humiliation of Tamar to be impossible. This is why he was frustration.
4. The more unobtainable Tamar became, the more inflamed became the arrogance and desire to rape and inordinate desire to destroy her virginity.
5. Loss of virginity in rape would ruin Tamar in marriage. She was limited to only a few suitors; local or foreign princes. Losing her virginity removed her from a royal marriage. A royal marriage was a sticky thing.
6. Once raped, Tamar could not be married. No dowry could compensate for her lack of virginity. In those days, no man would marry a non-virgin.

Asah means to do. This is going to put Tamar into perpetual old maid. She would end up as a spinster. The male thought it his privilege to deflower his bride. Two categories of dowry; the virginity and the dowry of the father. Times have changed; today, a man genuinely in love could care less. The body is second to the soul; this does not mean a woman ought to neglect her appearance nor should she take her virginity without seriousness.

The sins of the father are only visited on the children when the arrogance of the children permits. Amnon will participate in the discipline of his father. Amnon was involved in all forms of arrogance.

2Sam. 13:2 And Amnon was so frustrated that he made himself ill because of his sister Tamar, for she was a virgin, and it seemed impossible to Amnon to do anything to her [at all].

Weak people always take bad advice. You give that person 3 categories of advice, bad, bad and good; the arrogant person automatically ignores the good advice. Bob has given out all kinds of great advice and people ignored it. They were arrogant. Weak people gravitate toward bad advice.

Amnon will take bad advice. Likes attract, and arrogant people attract arrogant people. Successful or prominent arrogant people are weak, and they recognize the mutual weakness of someone else. Jonadab is a failure. Jonadab can use his prominence and climb the ladder of life.

Shimeah was David's brother. If there is anything which is effeminate in a man, is subtlety. Subtlety is effeminate.

The word friend refers to lover if the other person is a woman. Erroneous conclusion that effeminate men are gay. This one guy used to do this to start fights in Venice. He would put on an effeminate act. Bob would go along to watch him do it. His timing was perfect. The chumps who came at him thought they had mincemeat.

The intimate friendship does not mean that these two men are gay.

Shimeah is the 3rd brother. He was rejected by Samuel as being king. He was a failure in childhood. He was rejected for the same reason that God often rejected them; man looks on the outward appearance; the Lord looks on the inner man.

The sins of the father are never passed down to the son unless the son's volition is involved. If Shimeah had 1 honorable son, then he could have had 2 honorable sons.

2Sam. 20:20–21 and there is a giant here; one of the Rephaim. Jonathan kills him. One son, the honorable one, joined the army; the dishonorable one was a draft dodger. Jonadab joined the court. He was a very ambitious evil person.

Jonadab was as evil as Jonathan was gracious. In arrogance, opposites attract or likes attract. However, most of the time when two arrogant people are attracted to one another, it is because one is using the other.

Jonadab was a genius of duplicity. He was very shrewd. He had great skill he was a troublemaker; he had a skill for evil.

Amnon and Jonadab; 2 Arrogant Men

1. This verse presents 2 men inside of interlocking systems of arrogance. They will look to used tach other. Jonadab wants power and Amnon is the crown prince. Amnon want Tamar, so he will have Jonadab figure out a plot to get her.
2. Arrogance attracts arrogance, when they can use them.
3. Jonadab wants to latch onto Amnon's power and Amnon wants to pick Jonadab's brain.
4. Jonadab hopes to be prime minister when Amnon becomes king, because he can manipulate Amnon.
5. Amnon finds the evil for his schemes in Jonadab.
6. The arrogant Jonadab is ambitious; the arrogant Amnon is vulnerable. Arrogant people are weak people. Amnon is weak and he will take bad advice; and Jonadab gives bad advice and he has a great lust for power.

Jonadab knows how to manipulate Amnon. People who lust for money often go down; and people who lust after power often survive. Jonadab will survive and Amnon will die.

French revolution example. Bouchet wanted power and he survived; those who want other things, always go down.

2Sam. 13:3 But Amnon had an intimate friend, whose name was Jonadab, the son of Shimeah, David's brother. And Jonadab was a very crafty man [= a genius of duplicity].

2Samuel 13:4–5

72David

631_0294

Letter of resignation from Lawrence Brady from the office of export administration, Jan 20, 1980. He is a whistle blower of military technology is being sent over to Russia, and he is getting all kinds of hassle for it. Our technology is helping the soviet military machine.

This indicates that we, the people of the United States, are being duped by these bureaucracies and that they are being used to update our enemies, and these technologies will be used against us in war. These people ought to be ferreted out and executed as traitors.

You cannot understand the Bible apart from the time it was written. We need to understand the culture, the chivalry thought process.

And Amnon became so frustrated because of Tamar, and that she was a virgin.

Now we have the weak prince. Interrogative adverb madduah, which means to be inquisitive in order to gain some advantage. This is a person spending his time exploiting his cousin's power. Jonadab has no power, but he covets Amnon's power. Amnon covets Jonadab's strategy to get the ladies.

When the arrogant are frustrated, the arrogant are depressed; this comes from living inside interlocking systems of arrogance. Nagad when an arrogant person tells another arrogant person his business, they will be trouble. It is a person looking for trouble and a trouble maker.

Amnon will not survive; he is inflexible; inflexible arrogant people always die.

Arrogant Frustration and Bad Advice

1. When an arrogant person says he is in love, that means he has found a challenge or someone to gratify him.
2. It can mean that Tamar's beauty was a challenge to possess and to degrade. They possess and ruin.
3. Frustrated arrogance is a potential evil.
4. All Amnon needs is some bad advice, which he will get from his evil cousin, Jonadab.
5. Arrogant people are weak people and weak people always take bad advice; they never take good advice.
6. Jonadab will provide the bad advice; he has an instinct and enjoyment of intrigue.

This particular title means the crown prince (O son of the king).

2Sam. 13:4 [And he said to him, "O son of the king, why are you so haggard \[depressed\] morning after morning? Will you not tell me?" Amnon said to him, "I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister."](#)

Now we get the bad advice. He is make himself ill, which is funny, because he was sick from frustration. People are stupid because of the thee's and thou's and you think this is formal, but it is a bawdy language.

The qal imperative begins the bad advice. Arrogance enjoys subterfuge; arrogant people would rather spend time figuring out a dishonest way to cheat in school or in business; but this same time would have produced honest results which are just as good.

The idea is to get King David to come to the palace where Amnon is, and for him to indulge him. It is Jonadab's intention to be the prime minister when David dies, and this is his way to take it. Such people can be very patronizing. They all have a system; and they all have the language. Bob has trusted people who are the lowest scum he has ever seen. So he is not surprised that the world is filled with Jonadab's and they are always using you to gain control, power, approbation; etc. This woman from some place who schemed all of her life to get to the right parties and hang with the right people, Walli Simpson. Then she hooked up with the dumbest of all the Hannibarians. George II or Edward IV were vying for stupidest award. George III was a very smart man. This woman backed the wrong man, hoping to be the queen.

The are people who are not the smartest people, but they are able to outsmart more intelligent people. They are liars and phoneyes. Bob has categorized his list into 4 categories, 2 for the women and 2 for the men. He is 62 at this time; if he messes up again, he wants to be led out to pasture with a grenade dropped next to him. He will never again have an assistant pastor.

If you are a business type, Jonadab will take away your business and your wife.

Jonadab has it all figured out.

Jonadab's Modus Operandi

1. Jonadab is both smart and evil; clever and evil. Therefore, cunning and conspiratorial. You can never have a Jonadab for a real friend, real husband or a real wife. You cannot have any sort of a real relationship with a person like Jonadab.
2. Jonadab had the smarts to be all kinds of things; a great statesman and great business man, etc. They will go to your friends and compliment you, and this gets back to you. They approach you directly with flattery but indirectly through this method.
3. They are liars. They will start with a kernel of truth, but they will distort it. If this does not work, they will play their last card, which will not work. They like to distort something in order to take others in.
4. Machination or step 1 is the gain the trust of an evil prince. This is a system of intrigue.
5. The principle: flattery works with arrogant people. They live on it.
6. Machination: step 2: Involve the principal in intrigue, so that they are indebted to you. Now Amnon will owe a debt to Jonadab.
7. Amnon and Jonadab are enmeshed in interlocking systems of arrogance, so deceit appeals to both of them.
8. Arrogant people pretend to be sick to get their own way. Mothers sometimes do this to control their children or husband. Both men and women use this. Bob knows one guy who showed up in a cast, and they threw him in the pool. You should have seen him, beautiful. I don't suggest doing this.
9. Arrogant people prey on nice people; and nice people often stop being nice.
10. Machination step 3 prediction based upon observation. He knows that David loves his children; particularly his firstborn. Jonadab will make sure that he hears.
11. David was a weak father until the time of Bathsheba. This does not mean that he despised his sons. If anything, he overindulged his sons.
12. By predicting his visits to the palace of Amnon, Jonadab will involve David in this plot.
13. David is a genius, but he is an honorable genius, and we have seen his only deviation from integrity.
14. Against the evil of Jonadab, David will play the part of the dupe, the fool; a tool in the hand of Jonadab.
15. His innocent complicity in the plot will neutralize the function of the king's justice. Honorable people are generally not people smart, no matter how brilliant they are.

They assume that they share their standards of integrity. Honorable people can be used and they take everyone at face value.

Step 4 involves David in the duplicity. David, in his great compassion, will order Tamar to feed him. Great people are putty in the hands of dishonorable people.

Some people can be very polite; nice manners. Unctuous. This is feeding a cobra.

Jonadab's Plan

1. Sick people are often suspicious people, particularly in a palace with a sizable harem.
2. This would be compatible with Amnon's character.
3. Therefore, the clever man able to match the words with the character of Amnon. He is learning his lines, not realizing that this scenario insults him. This insults David and Amnon. Jonadab is behind the scenes, pulling the strings.
4. An indulgent father, no matter how smart, would not be suspicious, and they would understand Amnon's supposed suspicions.
5. He would assume that Amnon trusts his sister Tamar. He is going to indicate that he thinks he is being poisoned slowly.
6. This is also the best ruse for getting Tamar within reach. David will command Tamar to go to him.
7. David is being used by sly and arrogant people. David was thinking the same way that Jonadab thought. There is the sneaky side and the honorable side in David's family; the difference is Bible doctrine. This is exactly what David did. He wrote a scenario for Uriah the Hittite. David did the same thing, and made Joab the hero.
8. David was involved in interlocking systems of arrogance, like Amnon and Jonadab, when plotting the death of Uriah.
9. This time, David is the Judas goat.
10. An innocent David will be taken in, conned, deceived, by Amnon and Jonadab. Tamar would be transferred from a place of security to Amnon's palace, a place she has been avoiding.

Amnon will ask Tamar whom he trusts.

Duplicity and Conspiracy

1. When you superimpose your own high standards on other people, you can be deceived by them.
2. Being smart will not help you or even being people-smart. This will not insulate you from duplicity. 2nd stage of the faith rest drill; reverse concentration.
3. Only Bible doctrine and the ability to recognize the symptoms of interlocking systems of arrogance. How many times have we been totally innocent and everyone tells us that we are totally guilty.

4. Many times, the exercise of authority will protect others from being conned by believers with pleasing personalities and evil intentions.
5. The local church is a breeding ground for conspiracy. Any team of any kind; any social organization of any kind. Every local church has a certain number of suspicious people.
6. Members of a congregation must be warned about being duped by con artists. Sometimes, it is a business deal, and they say you will make a fortune. Or it will be putting down some authority in order to bring themselves up.
7. The facade of a personality involves you in get rich quick schemes and glorification of the Lord.
8. Many broken lives when people get involved with them. Their arrogance has a voracious appetite for power.
9. This plot transfers Tamar from the security of castle |ion to the castle of the crown prince. David is duped into acting as a pimp for rape. He puts Tamar at risk. He orders her into the nest of cobras.

David Is Deceived

1. Tamar is normally protected by the palace guard. Amnon's palace is nowhere near the brigade of guards.
2. Tamar is removed from palace protocol by being ordered to the palace of the crown prince by none other than David.
3. It did not occur to David that he was setting up Tamar. He was too preoccupied with Amnon and he lost his alertness. When you are preoccupied with a con artist, you lose alertness to your loved ones.
4. Furthermore, David could not ascribe to his son lust motivation or incestial rape.
5. David is in a good place; in an honorable stage. He has forgotten his own evil motivation in the past. It never occurs to him that Amnon is a chip off the old block in terms of evil motivation and sneakiness.
6. David is not alert to total depravity. We should be suspicious than sorry. We can be suspicious and wrong, and then be sorry; but that is better than exposing loved ones to scum bags.
7. This is evil advice; this is conspiracy; degenerate advice; arrogant people are weak people and weak people always take bad advice. Furthermore, arrogance builds its happiness on someone else's unhappiness. Arrogance likes to get its kicks from destroying others and deceiving others and they consider duplicity makes them superior. Like the Apache who saw a man fighting bravely; they would kill him and eat their heart. That is the thinking of the scum. This feeds the flame of his arrogance. This is why Tamar will be raped; she is a better woman than Amnon is a man.

2Sam. 13:5 Jonadab said to him, "Lie down on your bed and pretend to be ill. And when your father comes to see you, say to him, 'Let my sister Tamar come and give me bread to eat, and prepare the food in my sight, that I may see it [watch her] and eat it from her hand.'"

Flim flam is a legitimate English word and it is a swindler's word.

Middle east and near east essentially run by 3 peoples. There were knights with the code maryana, and they were Hurrians. One of the dynasties of the Hittites were Hurrians. At this time, they only control Geshur and the king has a daughter Maacah, who marries David. David's son, Absalom, is having a sheep shearing party at his northern ranch. Razor was a great city at that time, along the trade route. This ranch was called Baal-razor. The ranch was a large sheep ranch, and across the river is the kingdom of Geshur. Amnon waited for 2 years to have a special party there, and Absalom comes, and he kills him, and now he just has to go across the river and he is safe. He will do this things under the Hurrian code of maryana. Hurrian order of knights who had controlled the near east or the middle east.

Jonadab was a man of great cunning, and he finds out what Absalom is concerned about.

Amnon does what Jonadab suggests.

Arrogance and Amnon

1. Amnon is arrogant and therefore weak.
2. Arrogant people take bad advice.
3. Such people can never be happy or successful and their lives end in tragedy. No capacity for life or capacity for love.
4. Being involved in interlocking systems of arrogance is a dead end for happiness or attainment in life. There is no possibility of glorifying the Lord as a believer.
5. Arrogance is the greatest weakness of life and it neutralizes every talent and ability of any person in history.
6. As we have previously studied, Amnon's mother was a commoner. David was a weak father, and this means a strong mother. This common mother was always in competition with Maacah.
7. Arrogant people always make an issue out of their environment. She jealousy guarded the power and position of her son.
8. Her lower class arrogance fomented revolution.
9. Her son's arrogance will exercise pain, and tyranny over his half-sister. She was a lower class snob, and her son was an upperclass snob.
10. Amnon's mother was a snob; that is making an issue out of environment.
11. Amnon's arrogance was the arrogance of a tyrant. Tyranny is the arrogance of making an issue out of environment. He had great opportunity.

He was the Jewish prince of Wales. The mother failed for being a lower class snob. She made an issue out of her environment, which made her a snob. By making an issue out of his environment, you have tyranny. This is the story of history in some part of the world; tyranny against snobbery; snobbery does not comes from being aristocratic; it comes from being poor, often. If you blame your environment, good or bad. People think being upper class makes a person a snob, but the upper class person might be tyrannical, but not necessarily snobbish. They both make an issue of out the same thing, but they have a different starting point; one is a tyrant, and the other is a snob.

David is very honorable. But he is also naive. He will use his power to get Tamar to go to the palace for Absalom. Part of David's discipline will be in being duped.

2 things must accompany power: honor and a sense of responsibility. Anyone with power will be there recipient of some form of intrigue where some people use that power. Some with power need to be careful what they endorse or where they use their power. David will abuse his own power and turn his lovely daughter over to an animal to be destroyed and he will do this unwittingly.

Honorable people are predictable. However, this predictability can be used in a conspiracy. This means the honorable king will be the innocent dupe in a plot to humble and destroy Tamar. Honorable people must be alert to the misuse of their power. The more power and authority you possess, the more people will seek to use your power. A smart, evil, and unprincipled person can use this.

Amnon follows this plot to the letter. He asks to have Tamar come and prepare crepes Tamar in his presence.

David's Honor Is Confused by Naivety

1. It is obvious that David has come to visit the crown prince, and in his own palace where he is allegedly ill. David is vulnerable to him.
2. David is vulnerable and he has compassion. He probably said, "Is there anything that I can do for you, son?" Amnon knows he will say this and knows David will fulfill his request. Jonadab knows that he can reach David through his natural compassion.
3. Amnon gives him the scenario just as Jonadab wrote it.
4. Because David has now become honorable, he does not realize how ridiculous this request is. Honorable people have a tendency to be naive.
5. If Amnon asked to see the court physician, this would make more sense, but he does not. Honor + naivety is not honor at all. No need to have honor is you are going to be stupid. This will remind David that he had a court of pimps to gather up women for him. So David is going to do this for his own son.
6. Sending Tamar to the palace without any protection was stupid. If you are honorable, you must also be wise.
7. David assumes that Tamar is as safe with Amnon in his palace as she is in castle Zion. David is in between installments. Extremely happy people lose their alertness. They lose that suspiciousness; and alertness.

It takes an extremely alert person to be happy and thoughtful of other people, and to be alert so that you are not taken in. David has lost his association with reality. This is not unusual in people who become successful. They lose touch with reality. Earl Campbell could lose touch with reality, because he has enjoyed great success.

8. Now you can see what David is a poor father.
9. In protection of his daughter, David should have refused the request of Amnon; of he should have taken precautions on her behalf. David should have pulled out his sword and castrated him.

2Sam. 13:6 So Amnon lay down [went to bed] and pretended to be ill. And when the king came to see him, Amnon said to the king, "Please let my sister Tamar come and make a couple of cakes [crepes] in my sight, that I may eat from her hand."

Now we have the naive use of authority. David tells Tamar to go to Amnon and prepare meet for him.

Jonadab was the plotter, Amnon carried out the plot, and David was unwittingly employed. David is the innocent one here; he is the fool here. People will use your innocence to destroy others. How can you be innocent and stupid? Sometimes, you hear things about an employee, and people tell you things. David will become an accessory to the fact.

David's authority will be complicity in this scheme. She was protected until David sent her over to Amnon's palace. Arrogant type despise those whom they use. Amnon undoubtedly despises David and would come to despise Tamar. Once they use you, they always despise you. Once they have used you, they will despise you.

David orders Tamar to go to Amnon's house. With this is the polite particle of entreaty. He is dealing with his daughter her, so he adds this particle.

2nd imperative here of asah, which means make, prepare, cook. Tamar has avoided the crown prince up until this time, and she has only communicated with him when palace protocol requires it.

David's order will destroy Tamar's entire life.

2Sam. 13:7 Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, "Go to your brother Amnon's house and prepare food for him."

Bob says the KJV is inadequate at this point. And pitiful. David has been made an accessory to this crime. Amnon is making a strange request, and it should have been questioned by David. He should have sent his doctor and his own chef.

If you command a lot of people, do not give someone a job incompatible with their profile.

A woman has all day; men do not do domestic work; unless they choose to. There are too many people being deprived of their rightful opportunities of life. Unethical exploitation is the evil function of those who are trapped in the interlocking systems of arrogance.

To be an actor, there needs to be some degeneracy in you. This hypocrisy came very easily to a degenerate person. Amnon could have gotten the Oscar for any of these scenes.

Some Concluding Points

1. It was an evilly contrived pose for a person to appear sick and therefore seems harmless. Amnon is evil to pretend to be sick. Most hypochondriacs are self-centered and self-involved. There are people who pretend to get ill in order to get the attention and sympathy of others.
2. David's naive command to Tamar has made her vulnerable to Amnon.
3. David's complicity, while innocent, is inexcusable. Happiness should not cause you to lose your natural alertness. Happiness must be guarded.
4. Remember that David has been a weak father.
5. Polygamy results in weak fathers and strong mothers.
6. The mother shaped the attitude and the ambitions of their sons in the harem environment. A strong mother produces a weak son.
7. Amnon was a weak crown prince.
8. Amnon lacked honor. If you are only loyal to yourself, you lack honor.
9. Loyalty is defined as loyalty to truth and loyalty to principle.
10. When loyalty to self and others supercedes loyalty to truth or to divine establishment authority, then....
11. For those involved in interlocking systems of arrogance, integrity and honor are both cancelled. The rape which follows is not surprising.

Tamar probably prepared crepes Tamar, something which she had learned to prepare. She does not seem to have any suspicions at this point; but the princess of royal blood simply does not cook for the crown prince.

2Sam. 13:8 So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house, where he was lying down. And she took dough and kneaded it and made cakes in his sight and baked the cakes.

Tamar will be raped on Sunday.

2Samuel 13:9–12

72David

631_0296

Bob used to be friends with the #3 man in the FBI, Bill Sullivan, and he would send him stats; Bob still gets stats, and rape in the Houston area is up 300%. All children had a mother who loved them, but somehow, they turn into a rapist, like being a transient psychosis. This is designed to fail to rationalize with regards to life. These people have no guilt feelings about rape, or stealing, or whatever. Transient psychosis is a little cave into which one retreats, and such a person never takes the responsibility for their own actions and never feel responsible for what they have done.

A great variation between the mothers of Amnon and Tamar. For 1000 years, 2000–1000 B.C., the Hurrians were the more vigorous of the ancient peoples; this is an incorrect designation. These were Indo-Aryan people. They may have just controlled the Hurrians but they may have been Hurrians. The Hyksos were ruled by the Hurrians. They conquered India as the horse training, chariot riding system. The Hurrian knights began to conquer all of the Syrian area. They expanded throughout the world. Talmi was the King of Geshur and just across the river from Zobah.

These knights were held together by a code called Maryana.

Absalom's grandfather is Hurrian, and Absalom and Tamar are half Hurrian and half Jewish. They were striking figures. Tamar is exceptionally beautiful.

Amnon became so frustrated that he contacted his cousin Jonadab.

Piel imperfect of maen which means to refuse. Then there is the Qal infinitive indicates that he had little interest in eating in the first place.

This is the weak spot in the conspiracy to ravish Tamar. Tamar is now in a very precarious situation. Neither the nation or the individual is based upon sincerity or altruism. Without David's command, Tamar would not be in this place. The Shah of Iran brought his country out of the dark ages, and it was his money that took many young Iranians out of the country to be educated here. This makes a person vulnerable. Communism and socialism do not use the greater good as a real policy; it is just a means of grabbing power.

We actually fed and maintained the Russian army for 2 years. Stalin manipulated FDR with ease. This was based on sincerity and altruism. We have no understanding of the true evil of Communism.

Our attitude of sincerity and altruism toward Communism is a mistake. We are suffering today from national arrogance.

Amnon sent out all of the servants. Jonadab was the evil plotter and Amnon was the clever actor. Almost to be a good actor, you need to be involved in interlocking systems of arrogance.

Jonadab wants power, and he will manipulate Amnon in order to gain power. Amnon has isolated his victim.

2Sam. 13:9 And she took the pan and emptied it out before him, but he refused to eat. And Amnon said, "Send out everyone from me." So everyone went out from him.

A woman should never put herself in a place where she is isolated and cannot exercise her volition. Many wonderful women with great morals are stupid about such a thing.

Tamar's Specific Moment

1. If Amnon was so sick that he needed to be fed by hand, how can he get up from the couch and meander to his own bedroom.
2. When Amnon dismissed the servants, he obviously acted the part very well and he looked quite sick. This should have alerted Tamar when all this went down. Women may not be used to these kind of men. Women ought to be extremely suspicious with men. Women must be especially wise and as harmful as a rattlesnake.
3. Amnon got up and walked to his bedroom and asked Tamar to follow him.
4. Why didn't he take the food from his hand is what she should have asked.
5. Since she should have thought of this, she did not start thinking soon enough. Suddenly the scene has changed and there are no servants there to protect her. She ought to be on code orange.
6. If Amnon is so ill that he cannot feed himself and he dismissed her servants, why get up and go to the bedroom to be fed. This was her one change to escape rape.
7. The chance of escaping rape at this point depended upon her alert thinking.
8. Tamar should have taken notice of the flaw in the plan. Perhaps the departure from Jonadab's scenario.
9. The servants had been dismissed where Amnon was laying in a chaise lounge.
10. The move to the bedroom had nothing to do with food. Tamar was too sheltered and too naive to recognize what was happening. When in doubt, a woman needs to be suspicious and she needs to be able to think under pressure.

2Sam. 13:10 Then Amnon said to Tamar, "Bring the food into the chamber, that I may eat from your hand." And Tamar took the cakes she had made and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother.

Amnon went ahead of her and got into bed. When she brought the crepes to him, chazaq hiphil stem, and it means to seize with violence.

Imperative mood next, which indicates what he is going to do; this is not a request. Copulate with me, is more or less what he said.

Amnon has no integrity. He is loyal only to himself. Integrity maintains loyalty. There is a time when loyalty is misplaced; loyalty to criminals or to Communists.

Amnon lacks honor and integrity. He is loyal to himself only in interlocking systems of arrogance. Amnon, since he has no integrity, is reversionism. Amnon had no doctrine in his soul. He was guilty of degeneracy. He can only be loyal to himself. Narcissism.

What will happen will duplicate David's rape of Bathsheba. Amnon has no loyalty to principle; he is only loyal to himself. He has no integrity or honor.

Rape is not only a sin, but a crime as well. Psychopathic arrogance of Amnon and there are people about who have psychopathic arrogance. However, they do not hallucinate, so there is no way to recognize it apart from Bible doctrine.

Arrogant People and Bad Advice

1. Arrogant people are always weak people.
2. Weak people always take bad advice.
3. Evil Jonadab has given bad advice to the crown prince.
4. The evil advice was more than the crime of rape but the evil of incest as well.

2Sam. 13:11 But when she brought them near him to eat, he took hold of her [seized her and overpowered her] and said to her, "Come, lie with me, my sister."

Now Tamar begins to verbalize her thoughts and becomes concerned about what is going on. She is under tremendous pressure.

Arrogance never take cognizance of the wishes and thoughts of others. They never take cognizance of the wishes or desires of others. Arrogance has no respect for volition.

The New Mexico prison break. The raping and abuse was animalistic all the way. This is interlocking systems of arrogance. We live in a time of great national arrogance.

Sex is not always for gratification, but control and bullying. The criminal mentality wants to control everything in his vicinity. His approach to all women is someone who seems himself as being admired. Psychotic; he thinks this woman wants him. When the woman resists, the man sometimes kills, after abusing and torturing, because he has no care for her, but wants to dominate. Freedom of others is meaningless to him.

Our immoral foreign policy and we have turned over great nations to communists. There was freedom in Nicaragua. We are responsible for people losing their freedom. We are an arrogant nation. Being an arrogant nation, we want to superimpose our will. Democracy is an evil form of government. Many of these people had fabulous freedoms and we came along and put them under communism. We overthrew the Shah of Iran. Air Force 2 star general went to Iran at the orders of Carter to get rid of the Shah.

The rapist has no thought to the feelings of the victim. This is a part of the psychosis of rape. Amnon was only interested in his own volition. He considers it a favor to rape this woman; she should be honored to be raped by him.

Criminal and Sexual Arrogance

1. The combination of criminal and sexual arrogance produces psychopathic arrogance.
2. The gratification in sex is related to the thrill of conquest, therefore being recognized as superior. Tamar has been ignoring the crown prince for years. The gratification in conquest is related to the thrill of conquest.
3. Rape combines criminal and sexual arrogance because the victim has no rights. Sex is a control operation with Amnon.

4. Sexual + criminal arrogance means that Amnon had sex on his mind most of the time. Look out for those who have sex on their minds most of the time.
5. The mere sight of Tamar excited him.
6. He was put down by her, since he could not enjoy sexual conquest of her.
7. Being rejected in the past just made him angry and vindictive. "Why doesn't she share my opinion of myself?"
- 8.
9. Therefore the woman's soul and her volition is not a consideration to Amnon. He is simply an arrogant sexual animal. He uses sex to conquer and humiliate this woman. He has been jealous of his family.
10. In some cases of sexual arrogance, the choice of some victims is indiscriminate. However, the rapist is always thinking about himself. Instead of falling into his arms, she starts to scream, which inflames him. In most cases of criminal arrogance, desire of a high class woman stimulates the arrogance.
11. When criminal arrogance rapes a virgin, he has conquered a pure person; and he has achieved something that no one else has ever accomplished before and will never accomplish again. Her rejection just heightens his excitement and increases his desire to dominate her.

Incest was forbidden in the Law. Marring one's sister is a disgrace. Several times.

Tamar appeals to the laws of divine establishment. This indicates that she believes that he is an unbeliever or a believer with very little doctrine. She appeals to him on the basis of establishment truth. Since he was negative toward doctrine, he was also negative toward the laws of divine establishment. This is not taking place in the ghetto, but in the palace. Environment has nothing to do with criminality; it has to do with the condition of the soul.

Polygamy produces weak fathers and strong mothers. Amnon does not give any sign of being a believer in Jesus Christ. David apparently made no effort to evangelize the crown prince.

No restraint on Amnon's lust. He has the characteristics of his mother and not his father.

2Sam. 13:12 [She answered him, "No, my brother, do not violate \[rape\] me, for such a thing is not done in Israel; do not do this outrageous thing \[do not commit this criminal act\]."](#)

631_0297

We are dealing with the psychopathic personality, and this is one of the first things which we must consider. Amnon is a psychopathic personality. Gray and Hutchinson, a couple of Canadian psychiatrists put together a good study.

Psychopaths

1. Psychopaths are also liars who fail to tell the truth.

2. Since he does not learn from his experience, he is considered an unteachable.
3. He lacks a sense of responsibility.
4. He cannot form meaningful relationships.
5. He lacks control over his own impulses. No sense of control.
6. Chronically or recurrently anti-social.
7. Punishment does not alter his behavior.
8. He is emotionally immature.
9. He is unable to experience guilt.
10. He is self-centered. Interlocking systems of arrogance for Amnon.

4. Principles

1. Psychopathic and sociopathic personalities lack sensitivity to others.
2. They have neither capacity for love nor does sex have any real meaning to them. No interest or care for their sex partners.
3. The woman is degraded to a physiological tool. This will explain Tamar.
4. The individuality of the woman is ignored. She becomes a tool to gratify arrogance.
5. Psychopaths want power.
6. Psychopaths blame others for their mistakes, etc.
7. They are masters in rationalization; and they can give a plausible excuse for everything that has occurred, without blaming themselves.
8. They are emotionally unstable.
9. The psychopath has superior intelligence and great talent.
10. They are restless, easily bored and lack a sense of reality and perspective.
11. In their lack of time perspective, they are trapped in the cult of the present. This will explain in part why Amnon rejected the excellent reasoning of Tamar.

Second Principle

1. Psychopaths have various sexual problems. Promiscuity minus gratification.
2. Modern psychological terminology. Instance; immediately gratification and blocking out future consequences.
3. A refusal to put off gratification. What arrogance wants, arrogance gets.
4. Criminal arrogance demands instant triumph. Amnon had to be the best now
5. Criminal arrogance was achievement without work.
6. Criminal arrogance expects to be on a par or superior to people who worked all their lives for what they have.

Amnon Could Not Put Himself in Tamar's Position

1. Normal children are taught to place themselves in the shoes of others.
2. Arrogant people don't really have this empathy.
3. There is no thoughtfulness of others, consideration of others.

4. The arrogant wants to prevail and he simply imposes his view, and imposing his view today will rape tomorrow.
5. Many issues remain outside the realm of comprehension. This is not because they are stupid, but they have total ignorance of responsible type thinking.
6. Tamar will appeal to Amnon's understanding of others.
7. Tamar gives a brilliant explanation of the future results, but Amnon lives only for the moment and he only functions there.

Tamar and Amnon

1. Criminal arrogance has no sense of obligation.
2. Obligation to one with criminal arrogance strikes him as being weak. He regards obligation to a woman means that the woman dominates him.
3. Obligation interferes with what the arrogant wants to do.
4. Tamar has to come up with something, and this is what she comes up with instantly. The fact that it did not work does not detract from her courage.
5. Tamar does not become demoralized at this time. Ability to think under pressure.
6. 2 things demoralize a woman about to be raped; the vulgar language used by the rapist. . What Amnon used was demoralizing language.
7. The rapist also uses violence.
8. Tamar had poise. She was apparently a mature believer. She has great poise.
9. Tamar was magnificent. She never lost her poise until Amnon did something worse than rape. This anticipates beyond the immediately context.

Tamar tries to reason with him. A working translation. "What about me? Where could I get rid of my disgrace? What about you? You will be like one of the criminals in Israel. Please speak to the king, he will not hinder you from marrying me." She is as great in her soul as her physical beauty enhances it.

She has 3 points to reason from, and she is under great pressure. She is being raped by a vulgar animal. The repercussions to Tamar, how rape will disgrace her. She talks about the results for herself, for Amnon, and then she presents a solution. 3 lines of thought given rapidly. She was a magnificent woman, although she will fall apart a little later.

Women, you may face this problem, and you need to plan for it. Vulgar language and violence and the moment you stop thinking and get hysterical and shriek, you are losing. Shrieking is good to catch attention. Rapists are abnormal people. Shrieking is somewhat helpful, but not to the rapist. Normal people hate it, but the rapist is not normal.

The final thing is, "Ask for my hand in marriage." Tamar does not love Amnon. So, she is not hoping for him to ask her to marry her. Amnon's frustration has been intensified by Tamar rejecting her totally. She hopes to persuade him to ask for her hand in marriage. David would never agree to such a thing, as incest is criminal and evil.

Everything that we examine was done under great pressure. The ability of a woman to think under all kinds of pressure is a great asset.

Tamar is a virgin, and she first discusses what this will mean to her. Virginity can mean different things at different times in various societies. We have to look at this in the time of David.

Tamar continues her conversation during the struggle.

From Tamar's Point of View

1. Once Amnon rapes her, Tamar could never get married.
2. Few people are qualified to marry a princess in the first place. It is inconceivable that a royal princess could be raped. Not being a virgin would make her rejected. This is not an issue today, but it was then. The body is incidental to a soul relationship, and what happened to the body before the relationship should not be an issue. But then, rape would destroy any chance of her getting married. This would be a great blow to a young woman like Tamar.
3. Once the virgin is raped, she is no longer eligible as a princess, so she would be a permanent spinster. Only the man who raped her could marry her.
4. So the vilification and vituperation would be endless and she would be a victim of scurrility for life. This is the most awful thing to happen to anyone.

Next Principle

1. Many men even today would reject a woman who is not a virgin. Some would avoid a woman who was sexually abused or raped.
2. Many husbands today even will reject their wives as raped.
3. Therefore, it is not surprising that a raped woman in the time of David to be taken off the marriage market. Tamar would not even be allowed out in public.
4. This woman would be in permanent disgrace, rejected by society.
5. This is not right or fair, and that was life in Tamar's time and people have not changed too much.

Next, she will appeal to Amnon and his own honor and integrity, which he has none.

Amnon's Arrogance

1. Amnon is enmeshed in interlocking systems of arrogance, and he is preoccupied with his own lusts. Psychological instability is what he suffers from.
2. 3 categories of truth.
3. Amnon had rejected all 3 categories of truth.
4. Instead of honor and integrity, Amnon has criminal arrogance, psychopathic arrogance, etc.
5. Such arrogance rejects any appeal to honor and integrity.

6. Criminal arrogance possesses total inflexibility and there is a high evaluation of self and a low evaluation of others.

The Criminal Arrogance Profile

1. Criminal arrogance is dedicated to the idea that he is better than others. It can start at any time.
2. Amnon sees himself as being better than everyone else, and rejects accountability for his own actions.
3. Criminal and sexual arrogance are both related to false ideas about manhood and manliness.
4. Criminal arrogance thinks that if there is a beautiful woman around, he is not a man unless he conquers her. A woman vulnerable to flattery is in trouble around such a man. His manhood is related to any attractive woman or a woman with class.
5. Therefore, masculinity is related to sexuality and criminality in the thinking of the arrogant. Criminal arrogance includes taking what he wants. Outwitting or overpowering others. He cannot tolerate anyone else in his periphery who is considered by others to be better than he is.
6. The criminal regards his masculinity to being at stake if he submits to someone else. Criminality, therefore, rejects authority. He determines that he must be on top.
7. Criminal arrogance attempts to control at the expense of others.
8. Inflexible and unyielding pride is a part of criminality.
9. Yokelson, "criminal pride is often not visible; in fact, the criminal might seem to be markedly modest. However, inside, he is quite different. He is ostensibly humble, he is enjoying the con of being humble." p. 275
10. It is important to remember that arrogance brings inflexibility into the life. "Criminal pride is it has the image of a powerful, unyielding person. Despite the unfavorable or punitive attitude of others. It is not modified by argument or persuasion. This is based upon the fear and despair of the zero state. Pride is a perch that must be maintained, lest the criminal fall into the abyss of being nothing." "It is an unbending posture."
11. Amnon fits the 3 descriptions just presented. You would think that they had observed Amnon instead of 1000's of criminals. P. 266 "The attitude behind the intense pride of the criminal was clearly presented by the man who said, 'If I bend, then I break.'" he must emerge on top of any contest and if it is not a contest, then he must make it all. The criminal must insist that he knows it all. He closes his ears to the contrary view. He will not climb down from the castle in which he dwells. It must be Amnon 100 and Tamar 0. So he will rape her and then despise her.

Where Could I Take My Disgrace?

1. The fact that this would ruin Tamar's life is not important to Amnon; he could care less.
2. People are indifferent to the suffering of others and to the inconveniences that they cause others. There is a combination of sexual, criminal and sexual arrogance.

3. Arrogant people do not take responsibility for their own decisions they have no honor or integrity.
4. They possess pride and an arrogance and they are always in a contest in which they are the winners.
5. Sin + is evil.

This is an excellent plea but his arrogance overrules her.

Now she goes into her 2nd point. So then she looks at him. The Qal imperfect of the verb hayah. It means to become something; and tis would disqualify him for the throne. "You will become like one of the criminals in Israel." This is a future.

What Is She Doing

1. Tamar is very discerning and she recognizes the characteristics of the criminal personality. The guy with the mouth full of teeth and a big smile could be another Amnon.
2. Tamar not only understands but she understands that some sins are crimes, and rape is both.
3. She discerns the arrogance of Amnon. She appeals to his reputation.
4. She implies that being the crown prince not be compatible with being a criminal.
5. The principle is obvious. No can be a successful leader. God does not promote criminals.

When a nation compromises with crime, the nation goes down. Judges let criminals off with all of these bogus psychological terms. Arrogance destroys a nation; judges on the benches of this country today are a disgrace to our country. The higher courts constantly put criminals on the street.

US is soft on criminals and soft on communism as well. We are in league with the Chicoms. It is national arrogance. He are involved in such great national arrogance, that all the wake up

The proposed alternative is Tamar's solution. She uses the Piel imperative. It was not an order because of the particle of polite address. She still has good manners in her address. "Now, therefore, please speak to the king." She reminds Amnon of their common father. It is a subtle suggestion that David's power could also end up executing Amnon.

"For, he will not hinder you from marrying me." She dangles marriage out as a solution.

Analysis

1. She is stalling him. No way would David allow incest. He has done some dumb things, but he will not sponsor incest.
2. Tamar knows this and Amnon does as well. He is not interested in marriage.

3. The alternative of her solution will be rejected.
4. Not only does Amnon have mental and sexual arrogance, but he has psychopathic arrogance. She can talk from now until doomsday and it will not hinder her. David is a poor father and as a weak father, it means strong mother. Part of it is David's fault for sending her to the palace and the years of his sexual arrogance. When arrogance practices polygamy, weak father, strong mother.
5. David's crimes of the past year are coming back as crime in the family; incest and fratricide.
6. God uses David's poor fatherhood to punish David. Thus his own free will and his interlocking systems of arrogance, David has been a weak father. The kids project their best or worst characteristics of their mothers. Jealous lower class woman influences Amnon. Worst snobs in the world come from the gutter.

Tamar reveals the great aristocracy of her mother, and her ability to think under pressure. The two great powers of the day both have a dynasty of Hurrian kings.

More principles tomorrow night.

2Sam. 13:13 As for me [what about me?], where could I carry [take] my shame [disgrace]? And as for you, you would be as one of the outrageous fools in Israel. Now therefore, please speak to the king, for he will not withhold me from you."

We learn from history that we learn nothing from history. We seem to be completely without knowledge of the Balkan world. Bob does a map of these areas, including Serbia, Croatia, Macedonia, etc. Kingdom of the Croats, Slavs, and Slovans, created by the League of Nations. That made no sense. These are separate peoples and related to completely different national entities.

Islamic Serbs selling those from the Greek Orthodox church into slavery. Bosnia is a melting plot as well. For 500 years, the Croats were some of the toughest mercenaries in the world. We wear ties today because Croatians were bodyguards of the French guard (they wore cravats).

Violence in Yugoslavia is like baseball in the United States. They have always had a lot of intrigue. Bob mentions some of these. Apparently these feud is still going on, but in a reduced state, as they cannot reproduce enough people to carry it on. Yugoslavia is a beautiful mountainous area. Loyalist party and the communist party. Nation of Croats, which meant a lot of Serbs would be killed. Bob explains who killed who.

Look for things to break out in the Balkans. This will occupy the Russians for awhile and this might give a smart President to start building up our military.

Tamar's Defenses

1. Tamar knows her father well enough to know that David would never okay and incestuous marriage.
2. Tamar is a noble aristocratic woman with great beauty and courage.
3. Her refusal to fornicate with her brother has merely inflamed him.
4. Tamar is using all of her wits to escape Amnon.
5. In his bedroom, Tamar is completely in his power and arrogance has made him merciless. He desires to humble this magnificent woman. To destroy her. She is the object of his arrogant envy. She has great integrity and he has none.
6. Every appeal to reason, to integrity to honor, to morality, including the concept of freedom, has been rejected by the arrogant Amnon.
7. Arrogance is divorced from reality. There are 13 categories of arrogance. Jealousy is divorced from reality just as psychopathic arrogance is divorced from reality.
8. Tamar still has one defense; the wall of fire from logistical grace.
9. The question arises, why didn't God deliver Tamar? Why remove the wall of fire at this point?

Why Did God Remove the Wall of Fire?

1. From what the Lord does not deliver us, He intends for us to endure.
2. Since the Lord did not deliver, the question arises, what was the reason for not delivering Tamar?
3. The Word of God does not answer this question. There is silence with this particular question.
4. If this is for blessing, then this is for her benefit. This suggests that she is mature.
5. Both alternatives suggest that she is at the end of the line.
6. This brings us face to face with all things working together for good.
7. Tamar is a believer and in the plan of God. 3 rationales are pertinent under the faith rest drill. No idea whether she said, why is this happening to me? The essence of God rationale explains it. Even in a horrible personal disaster, the purpose is to turn cursing into blessing. This might teach alertness as well. It takes longer to get to the final objective under discipline. Rebound must occur in order for cursing to be turned to blessing.
8. She was not delivered from the rape, she was delivered through the rape. Whatever God does not deliver us from, she intended for us to endure.
9. What God does not deliver us from, He intends for us to endure. We look at this academically, but she endured great brutality.
10. If Tamar was being disciplined, then such an experience would bring her to rebound. The Word does not answer, so that we can explore the possibilities.

2Sam. 13:13 [As for me \[what about me?\], where could I carry \[take\] my shame \[disgrace\]? And as for you, you would be as one of the outrageous fools in Israel. Now therefore, please speak to the king, for he will not withhold me from you."](#)

There is the reasonableness and thinking of Tamar to parallel with Amnon's lack of thinking. Someone already used the information here to keep from being raped and/or kidnaped. Bob took roll as usual. He knows where everyone is.

He refused to listen to her. He was totally emotional and totally unreasonable. No reason mixed with emotion means you have animals. Recent New Mexico prison break and guards were without guns. Raping and killing some of the worst acts in US history. Only emotion means animalism. Holy rollers are not much different from the prisoners in New Mexico.

Amon's Thinking

1. When Tamar said the previous verse, which was reasonable, and it appealed to common sense and morality; but it required objectivity to respond to it. He responds instead of reacts. No reason; just emotion. He was totally subjective. No objectivity since childhood. People without objectivity have poor judgment about people, situations and about anything. They cannot make good decisions.
- 2.
3. Arrogant people reject good advice. Good advice is objective and they are subjective.
4. Arrogant people are weak people; they reject good advice and always accept bad advice.
5. Arrogance is exclusively self-centered and concerned only with self-gratification and triumph over another.
6. Amnon has rejected all spiritual doctrine and establishment and socializing influences. He is doing the forbidden as a way of life.

Concept of Arrogance Power

1. There are 3 categories of power utilized in interlocking systems of arrogance.
  - a. Exploitative power, which is power that uses violence or the threat of violence.
  - b. Manipulative power, which is a power over a person, controlling people.
  - c. Competitive power. In his own mind, he goes up as Tamar is dragged down. She has great poise and beauty.
2. Amnon first used manipulative power, working David. He pretended to be sick and requested that Tamar might bring him some crepes. David was naive and stupid, and he trusted his son, Amnon. The mother taught prejudice rather than principle. David was manipulated. David as an accessory to the fact. When manipulated, people are despised. If you possess authority and power, be careful that people do not manipulate you.
3. Amnon used exploitative power in his superior strength to rape Tamar. He used violence to get his way with her.

4. Finally, Amnon, in raping Tamar was using competitive power. In his arrogance, he has humbled her, and she is no good to him any more. There is no guilt complex here.
5. Criminal arrogance uses all 3 of these powers in its modus operandi.
6. The normal person, the humble person, spends his entire life learning the limits to the use of power, by recognizing his own limitations by dealing with those objectively and constructively. None of us have absolute power; we are subject to law and to the authority of the land. Many of us have different grades of power and authority. When we get into an automobile, we learn our limitations. We have all recognized certain limitations in our power and authority. Some here are business executives with great power and authority. When you step into Berachah Church, you check your power at the door. Whatever your authority is, is not an issue; you submit your authority and power to the pastor-teacher and sit down and learn doctrine. For those who are not like that, but here under a trade-out, learn never to come to Berachah every again. A humble person knows his limitations set by outside authorities. We turn around and with our abilities, we go as far as we can in whatever business or arena we are in. The athlete learns to be under the authority of the coach or the assistant coaches, even though he could probably pound them. We should not force kids to be educated. We should go back to sweat shops. Some of the kids even in Junior High School, can intimidate their teachers. No one should go to school apart from his volition. They should be send to machine shops to be good machinists. Academic education is wasted on 75% of the kids in school today. Compulsory education is a great evil. We need to go back to private schools and to make it a matter of volition. You can take about 80% of the kids out of Houston schools and put them into shops or some kind of a place where they can learn a skill. There are limitations to power; limitations to ability. You have to be free of arrogance. Arrogance produces criminality; not environment. One of the great principles of life is to be able to recognize your limitations. A lot of ministers should stay clear of politics, and never run for office. A person who ran for office who should have remained a minister. Women, to be feminine, must recognize their limitations. People who are arrogant do not mind being promoted, even when they do not deserve it. We have very little capability, even in the case of management. We have arrogance in management. That is worse than booze in management. Much more dangerous than that is arrogance.
7. The power of the tongue is limited by prohibitions regarding gossip, maligning, etc. the tongue has great power. A little flame can burn down a whole forest. So all forms of doctrine are truth.
8. Legitimate power and control are generally earned by hard work, responsible thinking and honorable action.
9. Amnon had the pathological power drive. Arrogance complex through violence seeks to secure a position in life related to degeneracy. Alfred Adler term.
10. Criminal arrogance recognizes no limit to personal power and control. The world is their personal plaything. Their lust is without restraint and they live without any regards to mores and Bible doctrine.

11. To avoid being a zero, Amnon must be powerful. He must prove his power. He must dominate Tamar. She is the oldest female child of David. So he rejects Tamar's reasoning.

2Sam. 13:14 But he would not listen to her, and being stronger than she, he violated her and lay with her.

2Samuel 13:13–15

72David

631_0299

Bob is going to recommend a book "How to Say No to a Rapist and Survive." Author actually interviewed a number of rapists. Example of one, who dates a normal amount, but, when he feels as if a gal has put him down, he gets furious and then it happens. 35% of rapes occur with those you know. Most of what is taught is incorrect. First, for real, do not antagonize. Do not commit your behavior; do not do anything that is not reversible. He does not advocate that a woman scream when assaulted. Sometimes, a intimate talk is enough to avoid rape.

Why Didn't God Deliver Tamar?

1. What the Lord does not deliver us from, He expects for us to endure. Sometimes we are delivered from and sometimes through.
2. Since the Lord did not deliver Tamar, was this discipline or testing?
3. The Word of God does not answer this question. Therefore, we have to
4. First, if Tamar is being disciplined, then she is to rebound.
5. If this is testing, then such an experience would turn cursing into blessing.
6. Blessing at the end of the line.
7. Since Tamar was not delivered, we know that all things work together for God.
8. Tamar is a believer in the plan of God and this gives us 3 rationales:
  - a. Essence of God
  - b. Plan of God rationale
  - c. Logistical grace rationale
9. What God does not deliver us from, He intends for us to endure. Tamar was not delivered from rape but through rape.

Amnon is too arrogant to accept the good advice of Tamar. Arrogance is exclusively self-centered. They are interested in gratification of self. Sin + arrogance = evil and hug + arrogance = evil.

Types of Power

1. When in interlocking systems of arrogance, once you are inside, there are 3 types of power that the person involved in arrogance uses. Exploitive power, which presupposes the threat or the use of violence.
2. Manipulative power, which is power over a person.

3. Competitive power; Amnon goes up as Tamar goes down.

2Sam. 13:13 As for me [what about me?], where could I carry [take] my shame [disgrace]? And as for you, you would be as one of the outrageous fools in Israel. Now therefore, please speak to the king, for he will not withhold me from you."

Amnon manipulated David to get him to bring Tamar to the crown prince's palace. Amnon is raping Tamar uses competitive force, and he humiliates her to feel better than her. He will not deal with his own limitations. In your automobile, you submit to higher authorities. This is for everyone. Without this, no one would get anywhere in Houston.

People are restless and unhappy because they have no idea about the limitations of power. You can be happy with little or no power at all. Most people with power are unhappy. Amnon had a pathological power drive. He had criminal arrogance, and he recognized no limit to his personal power and control. His lust was without restraint. To avoid being a zero, Amnon must be powerful and dominate Tamar.

Amnon and Fragmentation

1. Reason has failed; arrogant people will accept bad advice, but not take good advice.
2. Neither reason nor physical resistance availed. The power of violence.
3. We note Amnon's criminal arrogance. He uses exploitative power to gratify his lusts.
4. This is fragmentation and we will explain that. This is a fluctuation in a mental state. This occurs in a relatively short period of time. These result in inconsistencies of attitude and behavior. Amnon loves Tamar and he destroys her life by raping her, and then he will hate her. That is fragmentation.

The parent who loves his children, but steals their money to get drugs; the child who loves his parent and causes the parent no end grief. This occurred in the New Mexico riot. This is the perfect illustration of fragmentation. The whole thing started—no guards have guns—some of the worst of the prisoners managed to scrounge some home brew and were a disturbance, then the guards went into the cell block, leaving the gates open. The prisoners charged out and opened up many of the other gates. Two mafia groups there. So they began to fight. All of the records were able to be gotten to and they looked up the snitches, and they looked up all of the rapists. Then they looked up all of the child molesters. They got all of the info on them and caught them all. They raped all the child molesters and then they took blow torches and emasculated them. This is fragmentation. They raped them, but, because they were children molesters and rapists, they tortured them to death in horrible ways. The people who did these things are very self righteous. They despise child molesters and rapists, and yet they raped these people. Might be 20 or 25 who would rape 1 person. This is psychological fragmentation.

Fragmentation is fluctuating thinking which results in contradictory actions. The inconsistency characterizes Amnon's fragmentation. Simultaneous opposing attitudes toward the same person. They are not confused about what they are doing. One guy, they played a tug of war with his arms and pulled them out of it socket. They cut off fingers and digits of the molesters. They are involved in criminality and arrogance; and have dipped into fragmentation. To be a criminal, you just need volition + arrogance. The same thing is true of psychosis. Bob is sick of psychiatrists talking about environment. Volition + arrogance under psychosomatic, ends in fragmentation? The idea that they have inherited this psychosis or that it developed because of their environment, is wrong. In psychosis, the arrogant person lives in 2 worlds, reality or unreality. Amnon had some degree of control from his own volition. Once the rapist performs, he withdraws into his psychotic world, and he takes no responsibility for what he has done. He withdraws into a transient state. He refuses to take responsibility for his own acts. He keeps right on living his routine life; he has not normal feelings at all. All he feels is hatred and revulsion for Tamar. At this point, he uses violence to overpower Tamar.

2Sam. 13:14 But he would not listen to her, and being stronger than she, he violated her and lay with her.

When David gets the details of Tamar, he will be looking into a reflection of his own sin. Installment discipline provides us with a mirror, so that we can see the sins we are committing. When arrogant people use you, they will despise you. Amnon has used Tamar, and now he despises her. The arrogant male does not realize that possessing the woman's body is nothing; it is nothing like possessing her soul. Many men would be important for husbands to understand this.

Amnon said, "Get the hell out of here."

We Need a Preliminary Consideration

1. Rape can reach only the body, but not the soul. Tamar will allow this to get to her soul. Because Amnon hated her, he got to her soul. In love, where a man is a man, a woman's previous experience or having been raped, ought not to be an issue.
2. Rape can only reach the soul when the volition of the victim gives way to a form of arrogance called self pity, or some form of mental flagellation.
3. After the rape of Tamar, the crown prince provides us with a classical look at fragmentation. Love, rape and hate all in less than an hour.
4. Fragmentation is disorganization of the mind. There are no stabilizers. The whole thinking related to mores, morals and doctrine.
5. Fragmentation is fluctuation in thinking which occurs in a relatively short period of time. People who hated rapists at that prison. Blow torch to the genitals was the final touch.
6. Fragmentation can also be described as irresponsibility. They have a tendency toward irresponsibility.
7. Fragmentation here is the love oscillating with the hatred. It is a matter of arrogance, so going from love to hate is an easy thing. The prisoners who did the most damage are the most self righteous. They feel very good about getting those rapists and child molesters. They raped them first, which is fragmentation.

8. Fragmentation is an inconsistency of the arrogant. It is the failure of sincere intentions. Amnon was sincerely in love with Tamar as he understood love; but once he had humiliated her, then he despised her. Arrogant people have no capacity for love.
9. Arrogant people cannot sustain honorable motives; they get bored, restless, and they revert.

So Amnon hated her. He hated her with an intense hatred. It was a doubling of the verb in the Hebrew.

2Sam. 13:15 Then Amnon hated her with very great hatred, so that the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her. And Amnon said to her, "Get up! Go!"

People have learned a lot of morality through fairy tales, and this is one of the best way to do it. Apparently, these fairy tales are over the heads of some of our generations.

A guy who moves in as a border and gets to know all the members of the family. He was the richest man in the world traveling under the name of Smith. He argued over the price of aspirin, he worked behind the soda fountain. The soda fountain was taken over by a despicable person, he still said yes sir, no sir.

Wealth, success and great power did not change this man, but a little wealth changed each member of the family. People with honor and integrity are not changed by success, love, or anything else.

One of the reasons to teach us doctrine is so that we do not change, if we go from rags to riches, or the other way. There is great sanity in this fairy tale of Cinderella.

We are not surprised that, after the rape, Amnon hates Tamar.

First Principle

1. The person thinks like this: what I can take from you makes me better than you are; any way that I can bring you down makes me better than you.
2. Produces instability, vacillation, weakness and instance
3. Arrogant people are weak people and therefore, must attack the strong.
4. Arrogant people have no respect for those whom they can outwit or outperform.
5. Anything you possess, which an arrogant person desires or admires, he seeks to take it from you. Your success, wife, good name.
6. With Tamar, it was beauty or virtue.

7. Once Amnon conquered her beauty, possessed her body, and taken her virtue, he despised Tamar and found easy to use. He used her and then despised her.
8. It may be power, popularity, money, success, virtue, but when the arrogant type is impressed, he is stimulated to compete.
9. By compete, the arrogant person must prove himself to be greater than the strong.
10. Again, those involved in interlocking systems of arrogance think in terms of competition. Anything I take from you makes me better than you. If a woman loves you, this is a challenge to interlocking systems of arrogance. He seeks to take that woman from you. If you have power and authority, the arrogance seeks to destroy that or take it from you. If you have money, that arrogance seeks to take that money from you. If you are popular with friends, the arrogant wants to steal your friends by gossip and lying.

Amnon hated her; a moment ago, he loved her. That is fragmentation. If you have virtue, honor, a good reputation, the arrogant will seek to take this from you. Amnon was in he is the villain of the piece. Once Amnon had possessed Tamar, he despised her. Arrogant people are unstable through the psychological state of fragmentation. A fluctuation or oscillation of thinking.. Oscillate between self-pity and self righteousness. Amnon has no capacity for love, so he cannot sustain love.

We will see what others thought when we go to Absalom's bbq. What arrogance can use and humiliate, arrogance despises. Some discover that they are used as an object of revenge.

Lust and Love

1. Fragmentation is a demonstration that lust is not love.
2. Lust is physical; love is mental. The mental attitude of love produces normal desires for love, in contrast to lust.
3. Gratification of lust does not increase love, but produces hatred.
4. Gratification of normal desires, e.g., sex in marriage, increases love.
5. Sex is a ritual; love is the reality. Ritual without reality is meaningless.
6. Sex depends upon love; love does not depend upon sex.
7. Love can exist with or without sex; lust can exist without love. What really counts is love. The physical is relatively meaningless. Where there is love, this is increased in the sex. Not true of lust.
8. Lust forced sex on Tamar. Proves that Amnon hates her.
9. Once lust is gratified, there only exists hatred, when there is no love involved. Once the desire of love is satisfied, love is increased and sustained.
10. Inordinate lust is the dead end for love. This explains the hatred for Tamar. After gratification, only hatred is left.
11. The arrogant person never hates himself. He only hates the one whom he has used. Amnon has used Tamar to gratify his lusts. Tamar has rejected this idiot for years; but now that he has had her, he despises her.

Hatred is the abnormal retreat into the cave of psychosis. Jealousy and hatred and there is a fine line between normalcy and psychosis. Amnon will retreat into this cave of psychosis and it will erase his guilt feelings; he has only hatred for her. He has gone to a transient state.

Amnon has a narcissus syndrome. Love goes to hatred. Lust and gratification. First you have the lust under the category of love. After gratification is hatred. That is transient psychosis. Amnon will have no regrets or feel any guilt. He will sustain his criminal arrogance in this way. He could rape a hundred more times and have no qualms of conscience. After being gratified, going from love to hatred is total arrogance. It is a transient psychosis. After spending a little time in the cave of transient psychosis, he will emerge without a qualm of conscience. No reference to mores, morality, etc. with regards to Amnon.

After gratification, Amnon casts off Tamar.

There is another way to figure this out. There is passion under the lust column; once gratification removed the passion, you have irresponsibility. Passion to extreme desire, to total irresponsibility. If a woman gets hooked up with a male like that, heaven help you.

Lust to revulsion. A normal man even in fornication does not despise the woman in fornication. This hatred is abnormal. Bob has spent 10 days describing what is wrong with him. It is after gratification, you discover how mentally ill that Amnon is. This is a part of his defense mechanism to maintain his narcissus syndrom. Hatred is the cave where he hangs out with his transient psychosis. This is what a rapist is like. He is not disturbed; he does not turn himself in.

This is a non-hallucinating psychosis. Bob has read many accounts of rapists, and they all say, "The bitch deserved it." That is transient psychosis. This person ought to be executed. He should be held responsible for his volition. There is no difference whether a person is half-witted or not. The judge today would let Amnon out on the street in a New York minute. There are so many today who have gone to some sort of therapy, and they are let out. The psychological out; this man is not a criminal, he is psychologically disturbed, and we need to treat him. That is wrong. Such types need to be executed. Dope pushers ought to be executed. It is chemical murder. This is why crime is rampant. There would be rioting and revolution. There is a reason why this would happen. Crime is out of control today; there is no justice. Police officers are doing a fantastic job; police officers who shoot a criminal is then treated as a criminal and must hire his own lawyer.

We need good judges who can properly interpret law. Our constitution was written for people who have honor and integrity. Psychosis is not excuse before the law, no matter what a person has. They may be a lot of things, but of their own free will, they kill someone; they rape; and they ought to be held accountable. We are held accountable for the unknown sins in our lives. God held Eve responsible. Sins are things which we are responsible for. We have self-determination, volition, free will.

Tamar is seduced, raped, dishonored and she will be cast off. Being cast off, Amnon, who planned this whole thing and carried it out and raped her, will immediately reject her. Jonadab actually planned it, and Amnon just went with it. If the rapist has no fragmentation and no transient psychosis, he must rid the world of the source of his guilt feelings. Therefore, some will kill his victim. Fragmentation and transient psychosis on the one hand versus guilt complex on the other; and the latter kills his victim?

A reaction of fragmentation. The KJV should have been bawdy in the final phrase. 2 Qal imperatives of kum and yalak; so they are both orders. Get up; go out. In modern English, this would be translated "Get the hell out." Not even a wâw conjunction in between to soften it. 2 very clear imperatives.

Amnon's Fragmentation

1. Once the beautiful Tamar has been conquered through rape, hatred rejects her and hatred demands her removal. So strong is hatred, he despised her, and he wants her to live under the worst possible conditions. He is satisfied in a sexual relationship and he seems like a lover; half-daffy; he loves everyone. But when a person is filled with interlocking systems of arrogance has been gratified, he despised what he has used. Weak people despise who they use. Now he has a new lust; a lust to hurt her and to keep her alive and hurt her further.
2. The fragmented mind of Amnon changes rapidly. He has control of his thinking and his actions. He has great self-determination.
3. He befriended her and betrayed her.
4. He has loved her and then used her.
5. He despised what remains; a humble, broken rape victim. Arrogant people are never satisfied with what they have done. Their protection in fragmentation is hatred. There is a brand new lust in life; a lust to destroy.
6. Fragmentation coexists with ambivalence. The love and hatred for Tamara was sequential rather than simultaneous. Most people can only concentrate on one thing at a time. It is always sequential. Love and hatred is sequential. In the criminal, arrogance coexists with ambivalence.
7. Since Amnon only has pseudo love, ambivalence is a partial explanation only of what follows.

Tamar was not even allowed to dress. She went out in a state in almost nakedness.

Amnon and Transient Psychosis

1. Having committed a criminal act against his own sister, he now retreats to the transient state. His cave of transient psychosis and there he avoids taking responsibility for his evil actions. Irresponsibility without guilt.
2. With his sister still in bed, he cannot retreat to this cave of transient psychosis. The victim is still in bed, so he throws her out.
3. He must get rid of her. He cannot kill her, so he throws her out. He is very lucid.

4. Here then is Amnon's psychotic arrogance; his thinking, his disorganized fragmented thinking, but not disoriented.
5. Amnon determines what he wants at any given moment. Once the hatred is there, he is no longer responsible. Fragmentation is based upon what he wants at any given moment.
6. He first wants her and then he does not. A non-hallucinatory psychotic.
7. Tamar was utilized for Amnon's desires.
8. For Amnon in transient psychosis, he has retreated to his cave of irresponsibility. He has no qualms for what he has done. He is completely and totally calloused as he looks at his rape victim in bed.
9. His own uniqueness with his rape victim present.
10. If she remains, Amnon could end up going to zero state.
11. Sin and arrogance make evil.
12. Through transient psychosis, Amnon must recover his arrogance self righteousness.

Sin + arrogance evil. Volition + arrogance = psychosis. Medical imbalance is the result of thinking; the mind controls the body. The arrogance in the soul produces the medical imbalance which produces psychosis. This arrogance causes the medical imbalance. In the treatment of neurotic and psychotic conditions, they do not do anything other than increase the arrogance and give the psychotic a reason for their psychosis in order to excuse themselves. Most is human viewpoint and not the solution. The solution is in the spiritual realm. Why she went screaming away from him, and why her life was ruined.

2Sam. 13:15 Then Amnon hated her with very great hatred, so that the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her. Then Amnon said to her, "Get up! Go!"

Orphan brigade was made up of men from Kentucky. People from Kentucky served on both sides of the War between the states. Brackston Bragg was probably a plant from the north, but he got some credit for one battle; someone else said, "no thanks to Brackston."

Bob spent about 10 minutes on him, and said that Brackston reminds him of Amnon.

Previous few verses are read. "Throwing me out is a greater evil than what you have already done to me."

An Explanation of What Tamar Was Saying

1. By casting Tamar out, it would imply that Tamar was responsible for this encounter. Amnon is going to put the entire blame on Tamar.
2. The implication of Amnon's rejection of Tamar is, he is shifting the blame to her and the responsibility to her for the rape.

3. This is what Amnon is implying; that Tamar is a flirt; a phallus teaser, in euphemistic language. This will explain the aftermath. He is saying it is all her fault.
4. We know that it is not Tamar's fault. It is all Amnon's fault here.
5. Amnon's action in having the servants throwing her out indicates that she enticed him; that she wanted to be alone with him. She seduced him; she tantalized him.
6. It is Amnon's word against Tamar's word; and no one will believe her, with him throwing her out. David will have another arrogance hangover. He does not want to believe that his eldest son is responsible for this disaster.
7. The greater evil, this rape case, is who takes the blame. Our system of justice today often favors the criminal. Only criminals have rights. Law abiding citizens have no rights in today's courts. Amnon will brand Tamar for life, who is the innocent one.

Tamar is brilliant; she understands what Amnon is doing here, and what will happen here. There are no witnesses here. There was a withdrawal room?

Additional Principles

1. Bob is trying to make this as easy as possible. You can study these points at your leisure. The ones who have the best motivation often take the longest time to understand. They can be much more honorable than those who instantly understand and forget it. 2 wrongs never make a right. Amnon rapes her, which is a sin; then he throws her out of the palace in her chemise.
2. In this way, Amnon tells the world that Tamar seduced him, in order to become the future queen of Israel. "I am a gallant man; I have thrown her out into the street." Arrogant people are self righteous. He is a criminal; he is totally evil; the greater the evil, the greater the self righteousness. "She's my sister."
3. The arrogant always superimpose their own motivation on the innocent. Always avoid arrogant people when you can. Amnon is clever enough to play the part of the innocent prince seduced by a power mad princess.
4. By throwing her out, Amnon avoids that point of civil law in Deut. 22:23–27 "If there is a betrothed virgin, and a man meets her in the city and lies with her, then you shall bring them both out to the gate of that city, and you shall stone them to death with stones, the young woman because she did not cry for help though she was in the city, and the man because he violated his neighbor's wife. So you shall purge the evil from your midst. "But if in the open country a man meets a young woman who is betrothed, and the man seizes her and lies with her, then only the man who lay with her shall die. But you shall do nothing to the young woman; she has committed no offense punishable by death. For this case is like that of a man attacking and murdering his neighbor, because he met her in the open country, and though the betrothed young woman cried for help there was no one to rescue her. "If a man meets a virgin who is not betrothed, and seizes her and lies with her, and they are found, then the man who lay with her shall give to the father of the young woman fifty shekels of silver, and she shall be his wife, because he has violated her. He may not divorce her all his days. The man is executed for sleeping with another man's wife; and the woman for not screaming and fighting him off. Differentiation between doing this in the city and in the country. If the woman's volition is not involved, then she has committed no sin. This point of law had been tested for 400 years. Amnon could be hauled into court before his father and executed and Tamar would go free. Amnon does this to shift the blame to his innocent sister.

5. This explains why Amnon dismissed all the palace servants; no witnesses. No one to hear a scream; no one to the rescue.

Another Principle

1. Sin + arrogance = evil.
2. Evil people have no conscience and do not mind accumulating wrongs as they go along. Having moved to the proper motivation of fragmentation, now, Amnon is ready to shift the blame to his sister, in hopes that the law will destroy her and rid him of the problem.
3. When someone does something wrong and tries to transfer the blame to someone else, this always intensifies the evil and manifests the arrogance.
4. The act of having his servants throw Tamar out of his palace establishes Tamar as guilty in this interaction.
5. Arrogant people are so preoccupied with themselves, that they are completely indifferent to the feelings or the problems of others.

In the middle of the verse, arrogance rejects reason. He was unwilling \(or, he refused\) to listen to her. He is in his cave of transient psychosis and fragmentation. Fragmentation is motivation and transient psychosis is modus operandi.

More Principles

1. Arrogance rejects the appeals to reason or to mercy.
2. Since the arrogance complex has ninth capacity for love or live, it is impossible to be involved in the interlocking systems of arrogance and thoughtful of others at the same time.
3. Ammon's refusal to listen to reason ruins Tamar.
4. Tamar's reputation will be ruined by this callous act.

Next Principle

1. The crown prince has shifted the blame to the princess Tamar. This man is obviously insane, destroying a member of his own family.
2. It must be remembered that the subject of this passage is David's 2nd installment of discipline.
3. Consequently, Tamar's rape is discussed in terms of David's discipline. So it is not focused so much on Amnon or Tamar.
4. This does not explain why God allowed Tamar to undergo terrible suffering.

5. Before Tamar would become the innocent victim of rape and be blamed for it, God would have to remove the wall of fire around her. Obviously, God did exactly that.
6. When we get too deep into speculation, we are trying to 2nd guess God, which is impossible unless the Word of God gives us some clue, either in the rest of Tamar's life, but we do not have that sort of thing. Obviously not a fairy tale.
7. It is obvious that we do not have all of the facts here. Various doctrines will help us here to help explain why God let this happen to Tamar. We do not have enough facts to figure out if Tamar was being punished by God, or whether this is deserved or undeserved suffering. We have examined these various options, and Tamar is not dropped into the middle of something that she was not ready for. "All the blanks stares like, 'what is he talking about?'" Bob's mother, when she got like this, would go down to the music room and play piano for 2 or so hours.
8. We can always fall back on doctrine when we lack information. At the moment, we lack information here. The justice of God is fair; we know this for certain. It is impossible for the justice of God to be unfair. There is a reason here for what is going on. We try to superimpose our self righteousness on God, and that is ludicrous.
9. The justice of God which permitted the rape of Tamar had all of the facts; omniscience of God + the justice of God. We are looking at this from the point of view of David's discipline. However, Bob may have to go back and rework this and make it simpler. We have almost nothing from Tamar's side.
10. God did remove the wall of fire from around Tamar for the rape and humiliation which followed.
11. For those who have followed Bob's ministry, this ought to be understandable by working out some of the rationales. Tamar did not die; she lived a long time. She survived all of the adult royal princes. Therefore, logistical grace was only partially removed, the part which deals with the wall of fire.

Bob was about to go into another principle.

2Sam. 13:16 But she said to him, "No, my brother, for this wrong [do not become the cause of this greater evil] in sending me away is greater than the other that you did [after what you have done] to me." But he would not listen to her.

2Samuel 13

Some book that I did not get the name of. General Walt? Our government has increased our money dramatically more than our goods and services; and this is the cause of inflation, which is the proper place for blame. This method of levying taxes squeezes every American, young and old.

There are those who are hostile toward those in the mining industry, in the oil industry, etc. We could not produce tanks and planes like we did in WWII. The government must be brought under the control of federal spending, and bring them under the control of the people once again.

Tons of narcotics flow into our country every year from our enemies, like China (Bob likes that he calls China our enemy).

We try to even devalue acts of heroism by calling it some form of insanity.

Too many of our citizens no longer value freedom and independence; and too many people in power reflect this priority. Even those in the lowest wrung of society have cars, shelter and televisions.

No great nation outlasts the superiority of its military. We need to build a strong system of offensive and defensive weaponry. We need to be able to survive a nuclear exchange with an enemy nation.

The separation of government and business is just as important as the separation of church and state. The UN actively works against our interests and this is essentially a huge spy organization. Prevent Congress from deficit spending. Strengthen local governments. We need to seek a true decentralization. We must seek to repeal some legislation like revenue sharing; and limit the power of federal courts. We must reestablish our own spiritual function; since Communism is a religion without God.

We cannot escape what a man and a woman should be. We do not need God to remind us when we fail, because our conscience will do that. There is no spiritual rebirth of a marriage; there is a spiritual rebirth among individuals.

By casting Tamar out implies that Tamar is responsible for the entire incident. He implies that she is a flirt and responsible for what happened. It is impossible to be involved in interlocking systems of arrogance, and yet be thoughtful of others at the same time. So Amnon refuses to listen to her.

One More Principle

1. God never puts more on us than we can bear. This, of course, is being in fellowship
2. The rape of Tamar was the beginning of her many sufferings.
3. It is possible the Tamar was being disciplined for something; we have no idea. We are not told.
4. Whatever the reason for her rape and suffering, we look for cursing to be turned into blessing. When we wonder, why did God permit it, we look at doctrinal principles.
5. There is only one reference to Tamar which may give us a clue. 1Chron. 3:9 All these were David's sons, besides the sons of the concubines, and Tamar was their sister. Reading the Bible through is about as helpful as drying yourself with a wet towel. There is a long list of names of David's sons, and then it says, And Tamar was their sister. Outside of this passage, this is the only time we find Tamar named.
  - a. Tamar was a mature believer in the Lord.
  - b. As such, she was a stabilizer in her family and everyone's favorite aunt. It is Bob's opinion that this is found here and she is never married. She recovers from this situation.

- c. Absalom names his daughter Tamar.
- d. Good news, she was a stabilizer in the next generation. In this position you cannot be married; it requires time. Bob's favorite Uncle, Uncle Fritz, has never married. Bob even gets a nod from a family member who is there. He was in the French army; he went into a university at age 16. He had very difficult and tragic things in his young life, which worked out to the benefit of Thieme's family. Tamar was the greatest spiritually of all the children.
- e. After the death of Absalom, Tamar became the only parent his children had.
- f. It appears to Bob that what follows is evil being turned to good. Amnon throws her out for evil and God works it for good. In this way, she will have a greater ministry than anyone else for the next 2 generations.
- g. Ultimately, since she is a strong, mature believer, it become obvious what happened as a result of this.
- h. So we see from this passage that only the grace of God can do it and only the grace of God does it. Her rape was no accident; her recovery was magnificent; her greatness is documented.

Principle: never judge a person by their mistakes. Their rebound; their ability to move on despite of their mistakes. A minister who had great potential and he made a mistake and resigned. His parishioners who wanted him to resign are worse than stupid; he was their right pastor and doing a good job, and he upped and resigned. Tamar will not be that kind of person. If a person rebounds and keeps going, you do not judge them by their mistakes.

There were many sisters for David's sons, but only Tamar is mentioned, and she is here at the end. It isn't always the men who are great; sometimes the ladies are great and wonderful.

2Sam. 13:16 But she said to him, "No, my brother, for this wrong [do not become the cause of this greater evil] in sending me away is greater than the other that you did [after what you have done] to me." But he would not listen to her.

The indifference or callousness of arrogance. Some of you have not heard the interlocking systems of arrogance. The KJV always loses something. Here, it is wordy rather than bawdy. Too many words.

Amnon was possibly screaming here, which indicates a lack of personal control; and making him a poor bet as a leader. He treated his servants very poorly.

The servant waiting on him would be his valet. He summoned and commanded. Often there would be an interjection of entreaty, and here it means now. He allows her one item of clothing. A veil, a hat, an outer garment, but he only allows her to put on the royal chemise. "Get this whore away from me, outside!" gives us an idea of what he said.

Principle

She was not a whore, by the way. She was an innocent and pure woman.

1. Arrogant people are weak people and they always blame others for their failures.
2. Amnon shifts the blame to Tamar, who is not guilty. Since she is innocent, Amnon therefore must malign her.
3. When arrogant people hate, they seek to destroy the object of their hatred. He is trying to destroy Tamar.
4. Those involved in the interlocking systems of arrogance hate. If they hate a person who is down, then they might come up and kick them. Active and passive hatred.
5. Anything an arrogant person conquers or uses, he despises.
6. This does not stop with antagonism hatred; he seeks to ruin the person he has used. He is in his cave of transient psychosis.
7. This is transient psychosis, which is a state of Psychosis and he develops a tremendous arrogance.
8. You will notice that once Amnon has raped Tamar, there is no rebound or remorse. Instead, there is a compensation by sifting the blame. Already, he is calling this woman a whore.
9. Those who are evil cover their evil over with self righteousness.
- 10.
11. Self righteousness is the tool for establishing pseudo superiority, but a cover and a hypocritical cover for evil and crime.
12. Self righteous people generally have something to hide. They hear the rattles of the skeletons in the closet and they drown them out
13. They are phoney and hypocritical. They shift the blame for their own sins to others.

Amnon's loyalty to self destroys morality. This is the narcissist syndrome. He cancels out his own integrity and honor and accentuates his sin and arrogance.

2Sam. 13:17 He called [summoned with a loud voice] the young man who served him [waiting on him] and said, "Put this woman out of my presence and bolt the door after her."

There was bolting done then in an unusual sense. Amnon probably had the best security and it was possible that there were more besides Tamar who received this kind of treatment. This all implies that Tamar has done something very sinful and evil. It indicates that Tamar is some kind of a tart-whore. His actions brand her as a fallen woman, a woman who would stoop to incest in order to become queen. A lot of people will believe this about Tamar; they want to believe it, and so they don't. Tamar's responsibility is to keep her eyes on God and to keep silent.

Part of integrity is the refusal to believe gossip about others; that is a part of integrity. We have a fairly coarse society today in the United States. Anyone can say anything about anyone. The people involved in interlocking systems of arrogance will believe it. It has nothing to do with the truth. It has to do with their volition. Arrogant people believe what they want to believe. They have used their volition to reject truth. This same volition which rejects doctrine will gravitate toward the false. People will hear gossip and enjoy it and take pleasure in passing it along, is evil. Tamar will face a society where, for a long time, she will be condemned as an evil person. Arrogant people are degenerate. They will believe gossip, lies and maligning because they want to believe this stuff because it makes them feel superior. They feel superior by believing gossip. Anyone in the United States today can say anything they want about you and someone will believe it.

All psychosis is a matter of volition. In an arrogant society, gossip is taken as truth and character assassination is the order of the day.

2Sam. 13:18 Now she was wearing a long robe with sleeves, for thus were the virgin daughters of the king dressed. So his servant put her out and bolted the door after her.

Arrogant people are insensitive people; they are brutal people.

Questionnaire about the psychopathic personality sent out to many psychiatrists. Some of these conclusions describe the crown prince of Israel.

Psychopathic Characteristics

1. He does not profit from his experiences. Unreliable and irresponsible; sensation seekers who do not respect laws, mores of society; compulsive liars.
2. Lacks a sense of responsibility.
3. He is unable to form any meaningful relationships.
4. He lacks control over his own impulses.
5. He has no sense of morality.
6. He is chronically and habitually anti-social. He interrupts or destroys social intercourse; he is hostile to others or to groups; and he enters into society on his terms. Never on terms of laws of divine establishment.
7. Punishment does not alter his behavior.
8. He is emotionally immature.
9. He is unable to experience guilt. Transient psychosis.
10. He is self-centered; which we describe as being in interlocking systems of arrogance.

They are always ego-centric; they have no empathy or sympathy. They have no real feelings for their sex partners. Individuality of the woman is ignored. She is a tool to gratify his lust or arrogance. They are little men in search of lust and power. They are masters of rationalization. They blame others. Amnon shifts the blame from himself to Tamar. They can often have superior intelligence, talent; they are easily bored. Involved in the cult of the present which we will call instancy. Cannot defer gratification. What arrogance wants, it wants it right now. They must come out the best.

Criminal arrogance wants achievement without work. They want to be on a par or above those who have worked all of their lives for where they are. Amnon's mother was a commoner in contrast to Tamar's mother.

From childhood, normal children are taught to put themselves in the shoes of others and to have a sensitive toward others. Often does not discuss a matter; just imposes his own views. Tamar appealed to his reason, but without avail.

"And what about me," said Tamar, "Where can I take my disgrace and my shame? Therefore, please speak to the king, and he will not keep me from you." Amnon overpowered her. The hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he loved her.

Then he threw her out and she said this would be worse than what you have already done.

Closing Principles

1. Arrogant people are always insensitive people. Insensitive people eventually become brutal.
2. Amnon is arrogant, insensitive, degenerate, involved in interlocking systems of arrogance, and he is totally calloused about Tamar.
3. Amnon is clearly not capable of ruling over Israel.
4. Jesus Christ controls history and the Lord Jesus Christ would never permit at this stage such a monster like Amnon to rule on David's throne.
5. Jesus Christ will deliver Israel at this point.
6. It is clear that Amnon will never rule Israel. His capabilities are destroyed by interlocking systems of arrogance. The greatest leadership ability and talent and intelligence are compromised by interlocking systems of arrogance.
7. This introduces the concept of the national wall of fire just as a believer in Jesus Christ has a personal wall of fire. There is the national wall of fire for the client nation only.
8. Not only therefore does logistical grace provide a wall of fire for the believer in the client nation, at the same time, God provides even a greater wall of fire for the client nation. Today, we are suffering from the worst attack of national arrogance in our history. If we are not careful, we could be removed from our client nation status. God either removes this wall of fire or He disciplines her; and what happens after that determines the future of that client nation.

Punishment can involve the first 4 cycles of discipline.

Narrative can be more difficult to interpret than doctrinal passages.

We need to figure out what Tamar is wearing. It sounds like she is thrown out wearing the robes of the princes of her class. It is a strange time to insert a verse on style. We need to know what Tamar is wearing here and style is suddenly important to note. We can often determine things from styles; a man who has 6 gold medals and hair like a girl.

We can tell that jeans are in style right around the corner, and this is a sign of degeneracy.

The preposition + the 3rd feminine singular suffix. This should be rendered, now all she was wearing... She is wearing a chemise, and that is all she is wearing. Sort of a petticoat and this is worn by virgin princesses; and it was a petticoat with long sleeves. Once married, she could wear a similar petticoat but without long sleeves. A virgin princess was not to show her arms, and this was designed as a badge of honor for a royal princess who was a virgin. It had a great significance. The first thing to notice is if the woman is wearing a chemise with sleeves; and if she is not a virgin, she must wear the chemise with short sleeves.

Now all she was wearing was a chemise with long sleeves. You can put in petticoat, if you like that more.

Amnon threw her out wearing nothing but her badge of virginity, and only a virgin princess could wear this. To be thrown out in the street with nothing but this, is permanent disgrace. This is Amnon saying, "She seduced me."

Arms were not supposed to be shown until one was a matron. She entered the palace with class and style; she left with class but with no style. There is no veil; nothing covering her head. Everyone knows the protocol of the palace. For all practical purposes, she was thrown out naked. She is ejected and the blame is placed upon her.

The royal virgins were the only ones allowed to wear this.

Tamar and Amnon

1. Amnon threw Tamar out of his palace wearing only her clothing of virginity. It was the only apparel sign of virginity.
2. This was calculated brutality. The cruelty of criminal and psychopathic arrogance. He was well into transient psychosis. No hallucination; no guilt or remorse in his soul; he is brutally callous. He had no regrets; he delighted in this. This also explains why some rapists murder their victims. They divorce themselves from their actions and what they have done. They even can shift the blame to the victim.
3. Virgin robe.
4. It was the undergarment that distinguished between a virgin and a matron.
5. Tamar was cast out of the palace wearing only one garment, the sign of her virginity, which gives us the idea of Amnon's callousness. Once he raped her, in his criminal arrogance, he used her; and now he had to beat her down. Weak people despise those whom they use.

Then his servant seized her and threw her outside and bolted the door. She is there wearing only an undergarment. Servants often reflect the mental attitude of their masters. He obeyed his master without any qualms. The arrogance of the master is reflected in the arrogance of the servant.

2Sam. 13:18 Now she was wearing a long robe [chemise = petticoat] with sleeves, for thus were the virgin daughters of the king dressed. So his servant put her out and bolted the door after her.

She ripped her garment, and she is not longer a virgin; and she no longer as a right to wear this. She is now naked. She puts ashes on her head. Where did she get ashes from? It can mean this. What is available to her is dust, not ashes.

She is completely demoralized here and she has ripped her only clothing and has thrown dust on herself. She is demoralized, but not by the violence of the rape or the overpowering by Amnon.

What she is doing, she covers her face with her hands. A psych class which Bob took involved what would a woman do if she found herself naked in public; some would cover their breasts; some would cover their face.

She is returning to her palace naked, covering her face with her hands. She apparently could not see where she was going, hiding her face, and the doubling of the verb means she just kept going and going, and she is crying aloud. Tamar will carry this stigma through her life; but she will become a great person. There is no thought of suicide and not much loss of poise. Here, crying is justified. There is no faltering. Even in the greatest adversity, she may sob and cry, and she is naked, and it may take some time before she reaches Absalom.

2Sam. 13:19 And Tamar put ashes [dust] on her head and tore the long robe that she wore. And she laid her hand on her head and went away, crying aloud as she went.

She goes to her brother's palace. She finally encounters him, and maybe this was at castle Zion or maybe it was at his castle. The first thing that he says involves tenderness, love and thoughtfulness. Absalom does not use any rough language. "Has Amnon been with you?" is all that he asks. Absalom is a very smart person; he does not fall apart. Euphemism is the order of the day here. He does not use any language which implies rape or sex. There is a place for euphemism. There is magnificent thoughtfulness love and tenderness in Absalom's demeanor here. He has apparently had suspicions and who knows what he heard already?

A man's alertness is a woman's protection. Ladies in the south are notorious for their good manners, but they sometimes give the wrong impression. If a guy says, "This man has other things on his mind," then pay attention to him.

Older women can be very stupid about younger men. Younger men can have a lot of bad intentions, and another man needs to clue the woman in and protect her.

Bob knows one rape in college and 2 other guys put plaster of paris on their fists and worked the rapist over. It sounds great, but you do not take vengeance into your own hands. No one gets away with anything. "Vengeance is Mine, I will repay," says the Lord.

Amnon was David's favorite, and David will not punish him. "Do not plot revenge; do not plot evil against him, for he is your brother."

Absalom's Good Advice

1. Absalom is giving excellent advice here. There is the court of heaven. The justice of God has all of the facts and the justice of God is fair. Leave it to the law and to heaven.
2. Such advice puts the justice in the hands of the king; and then, in the hands of God. God's justice never malfunctions.
3. We will be wronged many times in life. Leave it to God. 2 wrongs never make a right.
4. The tragedy is, Absalom will not take his own advice. He will react against the king's justice. Once he is in interlocking systems of arrogance, he will fall into conspiracy arrogance followed by criminal arrogance.
5. It appears that he is going to follow his own advice.
6. Only after David does nothing about it, he will take matters into his own hand. His counsel was excellent.

Then he adds something else. "Do not worry; do not brood about this matter." Tamar will have to be very strong to obey her brother's advice. To avoid brooding and bitterness, she will need to use the 3 stages of the faith rest technique. She must also use the plan of God rationale; and the essence of God rationale. So faith can come to doctrinal conclusions, where she will be in control of the situation. She will become the greatest person in these 2 generations, outside of David himself. Outside of David, she is the greatest person of the age.

Today, there are lots of men who would marry a magnificent woman like this, but that was not the case back then. The cursing of the rape

Consequently, Tamar remains desolate in Absalom's house. In regards to public disgrace, Tamar was a ruined woman, in spite of Absalom's advice. She applies doctrine, she remains in her brother's house.

Absalom and Tamar

1. Notice Absalom's approach to this disaster. He does not go into, "I will nail the sonuvabitch to the wall." He shows himself to be a mature believer with some sense. He is showing that he has some sense and he is revealing his Hurrian aristocracy. So he is very calm, and he is wise in his choice of language. He never uses the word rape nor does he deal with the details of the rape. Police must do that, but not friends. He distracts her with something important.
2. The advice is good; it is leaving the matter in the Lord's hands. Stay out of the way of the Lord's justice. Both she and her brother could have reacted and both been in interlocking systems of arrogance.

3. Tamar did not ignore what Absalom said to her; she took his advice and used the faith rest drill.

The Hurrians

1. Interlocking systems of arrogance produce weak fathers and strong mothers.
2. David was so involved with interlocking systems of arrogance and sexual arrogance that he was a poor father. He was too busy chasing.
3. This meant that Maacah, the mother of Absalom and Tamar, reared her children in doctrine and in the code of Maryana.
4. She was a Hurrian princess. One of the oldest Indo-European aristocracies. The once conquered the Hittites and Syria and even Egypt, under the title Hyksos. They formed the empire called Huriland, around Armenia? Set up the caste system in India.
5. The kingdom of Geshur was one of the last strongholds of them.
6. They conquered Egypt and they led the groups who conquered Egypt; and they were called the Hyksos.

Some of you get very noisy when you think that you have been wronged.

Tamar's day in court was her running through the streets with the dust on her face and in her torn chemise. Or in her nakedness.

Before you pick a fight with someone who has good manners, this fight could go on for years. Might be 2 or 3 years, but the matter will be settled. This will be a code of chivalry coming into conflict with the Word of God.

We are going to note what brought all of this about. Those who live by bad advice can never be happy. Arrogance complex neutralizes capacity for love and capacity for happiness. We will notice how one of the most honorable persons of that time, David, was used as a dupe.

2Sam. 13:20 And her brother Absalom said to her, "Has Amnon your brother been with you? Now hold your peace, my sister. He is your brother; do not take this to heart." Consequently, Tamar lived, a desolate woman, in her brother Absalom's house.

2Samuel 13:20

Tamar and Absalom's Response

1. If Tamar reacts to the terrible experience of rape, then she too will enter into the interlocking systems of arrogance and she will become no better than her evil brother Amnon.
2. If she falls to bitterness, she will enter into the arrogance complex through gate one.
3. Absalom speaks in euphemisms, in a tender way.
4. Absalom made no useless demonstration of profanity or threats.
5. Tamar will take good advice because she is totally free from interlocking systems of arrogance.
6. Humble people take good advice because of their flexibility and humility.
7. Tamar demonstrates great flexibility in running through the streets naked and sobbing.
8. To put this matter out of her mind, Tamar will have to use the 3 stages of the faith rest drill.
9. Tamar will become one of the most magnificent women of her generation and the next.

Yashab means to remain as a permanent resident. The love and tenderness of her brother also provides her with love and understanding in times of refuge and understanding. Disappointment is an easy way to get trapped in the interlocking systems of arrogance.

Shamem means to be solitary, to be deserted by others, to be a recluse. She is now sequestered from public eye. She will prepare for a couple of years for a lifetime of service and God has a wonderful plan for her life. Marriage is not in this plan.

Tamar and the Aftermath

1. Amnon throwing her out of his palace was cruel and brutal.
2. Becoming a recluse, Tamar will answer with poise, dignity and silence. Silence is the best answer. It is the people who are wrong who are always trying to explain. People will believe whatever they want to believe. People like to believe the worse about those who are superior to them. Tamar is answering to all the evil that has been done to her. Israel is on the verge of its greatest prosperity of all time.
3. Tamar made no attempt to defend herself or to explain her side of the story.
4. Tamar's friends need no explanation and those who envy her, or who are her enemies,
5. Just as Tamar was not traumatized by Amnon's vulgar language nor will she be affected by public opinion.
6. God never puts more upon us than we can bear. More than 2 years of isolation and she will become a great believer. This will be preparation for a lifetime of service.
7. Arrogant people are degenerate people; they will believe any lie because they want to believe it. It makes a person feel important and superior to believe gossip.
8. In a society where integrity and honor exist, gossip and lies are never condoned. In an arrogant society, character assassination is the order of the day; inferior people trying to make themselves feel superior by taking someone else down.

Somewhere along the way of running through the streets, Tamar ran into Absalom. This was a great encounter. Absalom was poised and relaxed and he was thinking under pressure. He is a remarkable young prince, and he is free from interlocking systems of arrogance. He is very sensitive as to his sister's condition. He gives Tamar good advice and counsel. Strong people can take good advice, no matter where the source.

The first stop was the king's court. If there is a malfunction here, then there is a higher court that Amnon would have been subject to.

Absalom avoided any reaction which would have put him into the interlocking systems of arrogance. If there was pity, bitterness, hatred, etc., either person could have fallen into interlocking systems of arrogance. If you react to those who injure you, it reduces you to their level. For several years, Tamar will live in seclusion; she will retire from society. Meanwhile, Amnon will continue out in public as David's favorite. Absalom will continue in court acting as if he had never heard that any of this occurred.

Tamar's mother was royal princess, which means she had excellent genes and training. She was born with class; and she merely had to learn style.

It is no accident that we have a rather detailed account of the rape of Tamar.

We have 12 summary principles to pull it all together.

1st Summary Principle

1. Amnon was arrogant. Arrogant people are weak and weak people take bad advice.
2. In contrast, Tamar was humble and humble people take good advice. Amnon took bad advice and Tamar took good advice. Tamar will become the greatest of David's children; Amnon will die a horrible death.
3. Amnon will have self righteous inflexibility. Tamar possesses grace flexibility.
4. Interlocking systems of arrogance neutralize capacity for love, capacity for life, and for happiness; Amnon was a loser and Tamar was a winner.
5. Since this is the 2nd installment of discipline, he is also a loser, as he was manipulated by Amnon.
6. Without David's power to get Tamar to the palace, the humiliation of Tamar could not have occurred. When dupes get together, it is not a royal court.
7. David inadvertently used his royal court to degrade his daughter.
8. David placed Tamar in a position where her self-determination was not a defense. They were useless against rape.
9. Those with power and authority must be alert to being manipulated by the unscrupulous and immoral people.
10. David's dupe was inexcusable. David's capacity for love has not straightened out yet.

11. The application is, those who possess power and authority must be constantly alert so that they are not manipulated.
12. Sin + arrogance = evil. Human good + arrogance = evil. Both evil persons and evil governments originate from one or both of these occasions. Both evil persons and evil governments originate from these equations.
13. Tamar's freedom was her protection from Amnon. David's command robbed her from the free will choices she would make. Similar concepts exist all over the world today.

Violence is the enemy of freedom

2nd Summary

1. No matter how strong a woman's volition and how good her morals and integrity, she can be hurt by Amnon. A woman can say no under any circumstances, and, with an honorable man, she is safe. However, her free will is of no help if she is trapped.
2. Jonadab was an evil conspirator and Amnon was a clever actor and both were involved in interlocking systems of arrogance. Tamar was victim of interlocking systems of arrogance.'
3. When arrogance wants something, evil results. Jonadab wanted power; Amnon wanted power, so they joined forces to destroy Tamar.
4. Tamar should have been suspicious.
5. Amnon, the heir apparent and future king, had no integrity or honor. He was loyal to himself. The narcissist complex.
6. Influenced by the arrogance complex, Amnon was only loyal to himself.
7. Arrogance turns loyalty into self-centeredness. Integrity maintains loyalty, not the other way around. It is principle and doctrine which helps you determine your loyalty. Various people had to face the issue of loyalty versus honor.
8. Amnon had no integrity because of interlocking systems of arrogance and rejection of doctrine.
9. When truth is rejected and one enters the interlocking systems of arrogance, there is no integrity to support loyalty to a principle. There is therefore no way to sort out your loyalties to people. Only doctrine and divine establishment will straighten these things out.
10. Loss of honor and integrity means personal and loss of integrity.

3rd Summary

1. When sexual arrogance combines with criminal arrogance, it produces psychopathic arrogance. Once you get in, it does not matter how you get in. You are vulnerable to all of the gates.
2. In other words, the habitual rapist, or homosexual, or incestuous person, they are not only sinful but criminal but sociopathic and psychopathic.

3. These lack empathy and possess callous indifference to others. Some of the most brutal fights Bob saw in the service were between homosexuals.
4. There is no capacity for love or capacity for life so sex is a tool for domination and not an expression of love.
5. To Amnon the woman was never his true love. psychopaths are easily bored and they lack a sense of reality. Close relationship between the 3 types of arrogance.
6. Being emotionally unstable, psychopathic arrogance is always looking for someone to dominate or to exploit. Arrogance likes to think that every woman one sees is madly in love with him.
7. Instancy will not defer gratification.
8. Amnon wanted Tamar then.
9. Arrogance is insensitive to others, so he brutally raped her and was totally callous toward her afterward. The frustration of arrogance merely intensifies the action of arrogance and motivates greater evil.

4th summary: Tamar was a courageous woman who was able to think under pressure. She handled this magnificently. His violence and strong language did not victimize her. She was not intimidated. When Tamar appealed to Amnon's integrity and honor, he ignored her. He was totally inflexible; rigid in arrogance. He had a very high evaluation of himself. Combined with instancy and psychosis, that is what makes a rapist. He thought he was better than anyone else in the world. Criminal arrogance is unyielding; it takes what it wants by scheming, or violence or whatever, otherwise the criminal goes to the zero state. Amnon will not be modified by any argument or persuasion. Achieving victory over Tamar was more important than any other issue.

You can have great leadership potential; in business or some profession, but interlocking systems of arrogance destroys the greatest leadership potential. Amnon is a future king, but no criminal can assume authority or responsibility like this. If God does not promote you, then you are not promoted. God does not promote criminals.

5th summary: glorification of criminals is loyal to crime. You cannot be loyal to crime and have honor. Therefore, you cannot advance to maturity if you glorify criminals. Bob likes Kojac because he never glorifies the criminal. The criminal is always a jerk. You cannot grow as long as you lack the honor and integrity to put it together. Criminals destroy their own integrity. When a nation compromises with crime, it enters into national arrogance. All nations fall apart internally first. Russians cannot touch us if we have integrity internally. Fifth cycle of discipline occurs when national arrogance is incurable. It could go either way now. You see arrogance among born-again believers, among the fundies, among the politicians, you see it everywhere you turn. The fifth cycle of discipline is never administered until national arrogance is incurable. Relate this to the pivot and you have the whole story with regards to the United States.

National arrogance results in the United states being soft on crime and being soft on communism. If the first 4 cycles of discipline do not get us on the right track, then the fifth cycle of discipline will. National arrogance means inevitable disaster.

Logistical grace category known as the wall of fire. Why did God permit the rape of Tamar. Some keep having problems with this. Why didn't God deliver Tamar from this horrible rape. We do not have a direct answer and is silent here, we have to go to the principles of doctrine for an answer.

6th Principle

1. What the Lord does not deliver us from, He intends for us to endure.
2. He intended for her to endure it, but this led her to the plan of God for her life.
3. When Amnon threw Tamar out of the palace, he shifted the blame to her.
4. This plus the rape destroyed the possibility of Tamar being married.
5. God turned cursing into blessing; she was the greatest of David's children, and the sister and aunt who stabilized the family. And Tamar was their sister. She reared the family of Absalom after his death. Maybe she was being disciplined, but that is just a logical alternative, not necessarily the truth. Faith reaches out and claims a promise. Reverse concentration and faith reaches a doctrinal conclusion (like the sins are forgiven) and that moves to the 3rd stage. Installment discipline or it may be diminished. After rebound, the purpose of suffering is blessing. God worked it out for good. Amnon meant it for evil, but God worked it out for good. God delivers from and God delivers through. The justice of God is fair and Tamar lost nothing at all.

in the 7th principle, we have the 3 systems of power; manipulative power; the management of others; exploitative power by the threat of violence or the use of violence; and the 3rd is competitive power. You go up as your victim goes down. All of these have been used by others. If you are here for the first time tonight, God help you. This will give you something upon which to meditate, while Bob is out of town for 3 days.

Amnon in raping Tamar tossed her out, using competitive power. Interlocking systems of arrogance uses all 3 of these competitively. The humble person learns the limits of his own use of power. God resists the arrogant and gives grace to the humble. Establishment or Christianity teach you your limits. Criminal arrogance recognizes no limit to its own power.

8th summary; Amnon's power is fragmentation. The person who pledges undying love and turns around and burns you. The new Mexico riot is an example of fragmentation. What Amnon did defines fragmentation.

9th principle: rape cannot reach the soul unless one's volition allows for it. The victim of rape must be the opposite of fragmentation. The victim is under great stress to reject any system that would cause her to enter into interlocking systems of arrogance. Tamar passed this test; no bitterness, self pity, implacability, nothing.

Criminal arrogance despises those he has used. Rape can only reach the body; never the soul of the victim. The victim must allow this to reach their soul or it will not affect them. Arrogant people cannot sustain relationships. The victim needs to be careful to never enter the interlocking systems of arrogance because of being victimized. Criminal arrogance also thinks that anything they can take from you makes them better than you. Arrogant are weak people and weak people attack the strong.

10th summary: Lust is not love; lust is physical. Love will produce a desire for physical love. Amnon went from love to hatred in a very short amount of time. Lust cannot exist without sex. Once lust was gratified, Amnon hated Tamar. Arrogant people despise those they use. Arrogant people do not hate themselves, but they hate those whom they use.

There is transient psychosis, which is involved here as well. They transfer their guilt to their victims and some rapists then execute their victims. Amnon retreats to his cave which resulted in throwing her out. He shifted the blame to her and threw her out. In self righteousness now must execute her. He does this by casting her out in this chemise of virginity. Transient psychosis does not hallucinate; but they cannot accept responsibility for their own acts. There has been transient psychosis right in Berachah Church. They always shift the blame to the victim and must punish the victim. This is vicious self righteousness. This is just as self righteous as the legalistic fundamentalist believer. The New Mexico riot and they found the records of the child molesters and then raped them and emasculated them with blow torches. This is self righteousness. Self righteousness is never a virtue. Self righteous people are blind. This is not the same as morality. It is one thing to be moral, which is legitimate.

The application of arrogance to anything. Self righteous person can move into transient psychosis and punish their victim for what they have done. They have no guilt or remorse for what they have done. Once the conquest has been done, the hatred of transient psychosis, they impute their guilt to their victim.

11th summary principle: arrogance + volition = evil. Once involved with the arrogance complex, the human mind influences the human body to a medical imbalance and often attributes it as the source of the imbalance. The arrogance in the soul affects the body. Neuro transmitters is a recent study in medicine. Arrogance, self-centeredness affects the physical balance. Transient psychosis which follows sexual and criminal arrogance is reacting to wrong with more wrong.

12th summary: Absalom put the matter in the Lord's hands. Heb. 10:30 he intended to keep this advice himself. However, he reacted to the king's injustice. Tamar avoided reaction. She is strong. Strong people take good advice.

God teaches doctrine in narrative and we may or may not be interested, and the sooner we learn to use it, the better off we will be.

2Sam. 13:20 [And her brother Absalom said to her, "Has Amnon your brother been with you? Now hold your peace \[i.e., do not plan revenge\], my sister. He is your brother; do not take this to heart \[put this matter out of your mind\]."](#) [Consequently, Tamar lived, a desolate woman \[a woman in recluse\], in her brother Absalom's house \[palace\].](#)

The night Bob comes back, there are 500 phone calls asking, when do we start? No movement, etc., unless you are having an epileptic fit. This is a good place to come if you want to die quietly. If you are falling, remember to stick your pen out so that you do not roll down the aisle.

Time Life puts out a lot of interesting books with a lot of pictures. The Great Ages of Man is about 60% worthless, but the other 40% is worth it. Bob always liked the Japanese people, except for 5 years. He knew many when he was young, and they were maltreated during WWII. Some of his best friends were former Japanese. Time Life did a good job with some of the information.

Bob is going to bring us up to date with the Samurai codes. They were all bound by a code. Wealthier samurai rode on horses. Chivalry is a glorification of womanhood, and there is no parallel structure with the samurai. There is this whole concept of the sword; you are not to be caught without it.

Some missionaries talking about the Japanese. The whole system of bowing was a matter of them all killing one another. This was a code developed to keep them all alive. They stopped conducting face to face business, because someone would die in the negotiations. All done by 3rd party negotiations. The great courteousness covered up great deceit and often great hatred. This is the Bushinto code, which is built upon, "I am a better man than you; I hate your guts; how are you?"

Absalom will hate Amnon. He will smile, he will bow; he will pay the proper respect. He will use the royal family protocol for 2 years. He will be as much as possible be around Amnon and he will never act as if he knows what Amnon has done. Then he will strike; he will hold a bbq on his ranch, Amnon will be drinking with all of them. He will raise his glass to make a toast, and the men around him will kill him. These are the bodyguards for Absalom who always carry their swords. Amnon will be getting a little high and obnoxious, and they realize that they are there to see this pig on a sword die. This is the sauce ordered by Absalom.

The dukes are the bastards and the princes are the legal sons.

Absalom is a great man and he potentially could have been on a par with David; he had all the leadership, the doctrine, the characteristics which could have allowed him to reign after David. The next 15 verses are critical. We have a revolution here, and in our own country; so we need to study it.

San Antonio was a fantastic city; double sessions. Great manners. No one came close to committing even a slight offense.

What we find in the Masoretic text, and the LXX has a bit more. This is also found in the Antiquities of Josephus as well.

2Sam. 13:21 When King David heard of all these things, he was very angry.

2Sam. 13:21 (LXX) And King David heard of all these things, and was very angry; but he did not grieve the spirit of his son Amnon, because he loved him, for he was his firstborn.

David did nothing about the rape. Alfred Edersheim made some comments about this, who is an historian. It is difficult to wield a sword with a maimed arm; this matches his rape of Bathsheba.

He probably called in Amnon and confronted him with this. We have already seen Amnon and his transient psychosis, he hated her, and he blamed her for the rape and punished her, with the sign of her virginity on her (which she tore off). The whole bit adds up. Sexual arrogance, criminal arrogance, psychopathic arrogance; and this kind of a person never tells the truth. Psychopathic liars never tell the truth; they go out of their way to lie. Amnon lied; he denied the whole thing. Tamar would not go into the presence of David when she was summoned. Absalom represented Tamar and told her story.

David was a weak father, which results in a strong mother. A weak father means that David was a poor father. So he refuses to believe anything against Amnon. This is loyalty as an evil. There are 2 kinds of loyalty; loyalty which is a virtue and loyalty which is dishonorable. Integrity must develop and feed loyalty. If loyalty depends upon integrity, the loyalty will be virtuous. When loyalty must depend upon loyalty, then loyalty is evil.

If you take pay from your boss, you owe him loyalty; that is personal integrity. You owe him loyalty on the job. That does not mean that you girls surrender your virtue on the desk. Every organization has a purpose, a policy and a system of authority. The same thing is true of any athletic organization. Therefore, we owe loyalty to the coach, the manager, or whomever it happens to be. Loyalty becomes an evil when people get inside interlocking systems of arrogance. Loyalty to criminals or to the Russians or to the ChiComs.

Crime is out of hand because people are sympathetic to the criminal and not to the victim. We have to make the decisions in our own lives. Bob still likes to make it clear. David was loyal to a rat, to Amnon his son, the crown prince, the heir apparent.

David sees Amnon as being great, but he is a thorough-going bastard.

Some women when disappointed go to a nunnery; or become dykes.

Sometimes people even in Berachah have known someone else in 3 weeks and want to marry them. They have this hazy view of this virtuous person standing in a dim view and smiling.

Since this was a family matter, David would not take this to court. He suspected the Amnon might have been guilty and he did not want to order his execution.

David is behaving now; he is monogamous. When you have authority, you must use it responsibly, even if it involves your own family. David becomes extremely angry and this anger is complete frustration.

David loved Amnon and he would not sentence his eldest son to death. His love for Amnon was greater than his love for justice. You cannot have leadership and authority and love your troops more than justice. You cannot love your employees or your troops more than justice. Your personal likes and dislikes are of no consequence. Bob liked to go down to Venice Beach to get into fights; he's wear his letterman sweater. However, he is going to defend himself. Arrogance makes a strong man weak.

2Samuel 13:21–22

72David

631_0306

Integrity + loyalty = honor. Loyalty never supports integrity; it is only the other way around. There are times when loyalty is not a virtue. The cancellation of loyalty as a principle of evil.

Laws of divine establishment, the gospel, and doctrine for the believer all feed integrity; so that integrity is the basis for establishing loyalty. Whenever you get loyalty versus integrity, then you destroy honor. We have already noted that what happens to loyalty. When there is loyalty to criminals or loyalty to arrogance, then there is no integrity. However, if you have a boss who is a thoroughgoing jerk, you owe him your loyalty. However, you may know a very sweet person who is a con, and that person deserves no loyalty, even if they are related to you.

The king's anger did not concern Amnon. Absalom will abandon integrity because of his loyalty to his sister. He should put this case into the hands of the Supreme Court of Heaven. David fails in his responsibility here. No matter how talented you are, or how much ability you have, this is all compromised by interlocking systems of arrogance.

David's arrogance hangover resulted in a reaction by Absalom.

2Sam. 13:21 (LXX) And King David heard of all these things, and was very angry; but he did not grieve the spirit of his son Amnon, because he loved him, for he was his firstborn.

The Samurai illustration; the more they hated you, the better were their manners toward you. A quote about the Japanese and how you must speak cordially to them, or they will get pissed off. The dealt with interlocking systems of arrogance through a fantastic system of manners and business transactions through 3rd parties. When they most want to kill someone, they appear the most familial with the other person.

Identified with the Hurrians, although they may not be directly related. They were chariot drivers. They started the caste system in India. They went to many places; rulers of the Hyksos, who conquered Egypt. They founded new kingdoms, Hurrian, Mitanni.

Bushito of the Japanese and the Maryana of the Hurrians are related. All of this explains how Absalom and Tamar are able to deal with this as they do. David is a strong man, but he does not execute Amnon. There is a reaction on the part of Absalom.

All it takes it hatred, bitterness, arrogance, and this opens you up to all of the other gates. Law authority and discipline. When the British Raj came in, he brought law and order. Crime is arrogance, always; the criminal personality is an arrogant personality. The Word of God did something that Hammurabi never did. His laws will make you bend over and die of laughter. Libs worship at the shrine of Hammurabi. They are ludicrous. Freedom was founded through the Ten Commandments. Absalom will eventually become sociopathic but not psychopathic? Or he never will get into transient psychosis.

Absalom pulled off Maryana magnificently. Poise is a virtue; a fabulous virtue. Absalom's magnificent poise covers up his hatred of Amnon. Behind this facade of sweetness and light, there was a man who was going to get Amnon. Up until now, Absalom has been an honorable prince. David's malfunction. Criminals cannot run anything.

However, the entire nation of Israel is not in interlocking systems of arrogance, so this nation will be fine. Jesus Christ will not give a nation a criminal ruler unless the nation suffers from arrogance. Absalom's loyalty to his sister rather than loyalty to integrity is the problem. Loyalty is in trouble when it rejects the principles of integrity. "Vengeance is Mine, I will repay," says the Lord.

Rom. 12:19 beloved, stop seeking vengeance yourselves... Essence of God rationale; since justice and integrity are a part of this. Since the Bible forbids Absalom to take revenge, Absalom is arrogant to do this. When the justice of God handles the revenge, that means God knows what He needs to do, and when we interfere, we cancel out God's justice. Often, the punishment which comes from the justice of God, we cannot bear.

David's discipline was going to be quite dramatic, so God broke his discipline up into installments.

Absalom and Arrogant Revenge

1. Arrogance adds inflexibility to systems of honor, chivalry or integrity. Arrogance is a system of evil. The United States foreign policy is human good + arrogance.
2. All good systems have flexibility clauses.
3. Arrogance brings inflexibility to a code of chivalry. It will turn the Hurrian code of honor into an instrument of revenge.
4. The inflexibility of arrogant Absalom will justify the murder and revenge on the basis of the rape of Tamar. This system of auto justification is totally inflexible.
5. Punishment belongs to the Lord, not to Absalom. Absalom is superceding the Lord in this.
6. By taking the law into his own hands, Absalom demonstrates the inflexibility of arrogance and the blasphemy of revenge. No one has the right to play God.

7. David as the king of Israel had the legal right to execute Amnon, but no one has the right to play God. Absalom reverts to code Maryana. The Egyptians of the 16th and 17th dynasties, and several others had this code. Code Maryana is distorted into an instrument of revenge.
8. What Absalom hates, Absalom will destroy.
9. This explains a great many of the sociopathic functions of life. Their preoccupation is inflexibility.
10. Hatred is not only a mental arrogance but it is a total preoccupation with self. Hatred is preoccupation with self. It is total subjectivity. In this state of arrogant subjectivity, he is motivation by revenge.
11. Arrogance destroys every system or morality, every code of chivalry. Example: King Arthur and the Knights of the Round Table. King Arthur is now considered to be a true set of rulers in Britain. The Celts in Britain. The Romans were gone, but those who remained were more Roman than the Romans. King Arthur represents all of the concepts of nobility from the Roman empire. The last stand of establishment was King Arthur and the knights and their honor. The mythical dragons were not mythical, but they were Germanic peoples. Sir Lancelot, a noble French knight who came to the court. He thinks of a woman only in terms of a beautiful statue on a hill, only to be worshiped. He is so proud of his purity and nobility that he enters into interlocking systems of arrogance as an ascetic. His asceticism does not hold up in interlocking systems of arrogance. He seduces Guinevere, the wife of King Arthur. In the code of chivalry, there is self righteousness, and the quest of the holy grail, which is the cup that our Lord drank from at the Last Supper. The search of the holy grail is the rejection of Bible doctrine and the emphasis upon that which is superficial. There was a breakdown of discipline. They were go off into the blue and search for the holly grail. A total neglect of the police force and the military, etc. the result is, they were destroyed by the Saxons. Merlin, who represents the charismatic movement, wisdom apart from Bible doctrine is not wisdom, but holy roller stuff. Jesus Christ controls history.

Absalom believes that rape is justification for his plot to kill Amnon.

There was a time in Bob's ministry when he would have covered a half dozen verses and then wave it all away with a couple of comments and move along. Narrative is just as important as doctrinal dissertations.

Absalom and the Maryana Code

1. When arrogant people hate, even mature believers, they seek to destroy the object of their hatred. He loses his capacities. The mature believer minus the capacity for love and the capacity for life. Total subjectivity. Hatred never functions without its inflexible subjectivity. Desire to destroy the object of one's hatred. Absalom is a mature believer. Had he stayed outside of interlocking systems of arrogance, he would have become someone we could empathize with.
2. Hatred is a sin. Sin + arrogance = evil.

3. Now that Absalom has entered into interlocking systems of arrogance through hatred, he will seek to destroy the crown prince. He will disarm him with his great exterior; smiling, etc.
4. Amnon in arrogance hated Tamar in raping her. Fragmentation. He loved her, he raped her and then he hated her. He demonstrated this hatred through throwing her out in her chemise. This all happened within an hour or so, which is fragmentation. This is when he began transient psychosis where he goes into the cave where he avoids responsibility. He goes into the cave where he has no feeling of guilt whatsoever. Transient psychosis means no hallucination. In those days, Tamar would not be able to get married, as she had only a few suitors to begin with. This was the thinking of that day.
5. Absalom will hide his hatred behind some Maryana code. This demands that you absolutely show no emotion and keep complete poise under pressure. Absalom never challenged Amnon to a duel, never cussed him out. Some may have thought that Absalom was weak or afraid of Amnon; or stupid. But he will kill Amnon at the bbq that he has.
6. Being an aristocrat on both sides, from his mother and father, Absalom will show neither hostility nor friendliness. He will show perfect impeccable manners.
7. Each prince is influenced by his mother. A weak father and strong mothers under polygamy. The mother of Absalom and Tamar taught the code of Maryana. The mother of Amnon taught prejudice. Therefore, Amnon had nigher manners nor poise. He may have said some mean things about Absalom or about Tamar, but Absalom never reacts to this.

There was a time when everyone came from the bad side of town. This man has complete control of his emotions and his feelings. Marie Antoinette did not really say, "Let them eat cake." She had aristocratic training; all of her jailers raped her. They caused her son to get drunk every day and got him testify incorrectly in court. She died with great aristocracy. This is the most painless death in the world. You do not have to be scum because you think that way. Scum always die hard and painfully. We are royal family. We are to avoid the inflexibility which destroy our poise. By our new birth, we are aristocrats. When we walk into interlocking systems of arrogance, we are scum; we are a cesspool of evil. One of the objectives of the human race is to resolve the plan of arrogance of Satan. Therefore, all of us will be tested by arrogance.

Absalom suffers from loyalty versus integrity. Together, they = honor. Absalom is loyal to Tamar. Absalom, when he met Tamar, put her into his palace, where she lived in seclusion for many days. She was the greatest person of 2 generations, apart from David, Nathan, Solomon.

Absalom taught Tamar how to use the faith rest drill; and she took his advice and did well. Absalom gave good advice and gave her shelter. But his loyalty went a step too far. He became inflexible. His integrity, which forbids revenge, was ignored. Integrity forbids murder. When loyalty comes into conflict with integrity and wins, then honor is wiped out. Absalom's honor was destroyed, because his loyalty superceded his integrity.

2Sam. 13:22 But Absalom spoke to Amnon neither good nor bad, for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had violated [raped] his sister Tamar.

Integrity + loyalty = honor

Loyalty in itself is not virtuous.

First area of truth are laws of divine establishment; second is the gospel; and third is Bible doctrine. You owe your boss loyalty, but not a friend or family member who are involved in criminal behavior. Your giving should not hurt your family. We will have scintillating personalities who travel through Berachah from time to time, and loyalty to such ones who cause you to peel off away from doctrine is not virtuous.

People have left Berachah over loyalty as a virtue versus loyalty as an evil. One group formed a church, but they dissolved their church because their whole concept of loyalty was not based upon virtue. They had a plurality of elders.

Bob hears little bits over conversation, like, he hasn't got it all together any more.

Bob does not intend to allow anyone to come in and undermine his authority.

The strongest of the malcontents Ahithophel.

All of any kind of organization has its Absalom's. They are talented people, but they enter into interlocking systems of arrogance.

There may be a time when you gather around some other person that you see as a leader, but sooner or later, something gives. When Bob has authority, he considers it his responsibility to fulfill this authority as unto the Lord. He checked out Berachah Church for 6 weeks to learn who the troublemakers were.

There was a lieutenant that Bob started with, and they had platoons next to each other, and he tried to woo his men. He could not advance because of this.

A previous pastor at Berachah wanted everyone to love him, and this made his leadership worthless.

There are all kinds of leaders, and it is not the personality; it is the moral courage to function under integrity which results in honor.

People are very naive about this sort of thing, when it comes to leadership and personalities. Bob always felt if this congregation wants him to be gone, then he will be gone. However, apart from that, he will be ruthless when it comes to dealing with conspiracies and problematic groups.

What other congregation can you have divorced people sitting in the same church, some of them with new partners?

There is no issue at the moment, so this is a perfect time to discuss this.

Bob correctly pronounces chemise several times.

The corrected translation going back to v. 18: Bob does that so that we recognize that we are dealing with a rape and a rape victim.

Absalom is using poise as a facade for hatred, and there is a fine line between poise and hypocrisy.

There would have been no Patton without the velvet glove of Eisenhower over him. It is always a mistake to underestimate a person who has poise and dignity. Amnon will underestimate Absalom's poise and facade. Fools always underestimate poise. Amnon is a fool.

Absalom's hatred is not justification for his actions. This rejects the integrity of God to take vengeance into one's own hands.

2Sam. 13:22 [But Absalom spoke to Amnon neither good nor bad, for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had violated \[raped\] his sister Tamar.](#)

Absalom, David and the Justice of God

1. As far as the world is concerned, rape justifies hatred.
2. But the Word of God says, rape does not justify murder, hatred or conspiracy.
3. Loving the brothers means to be free of mental attitude sins, e.g., hatred. Love means a relaxed mental attitude based upon the fact that man's point of reference is the plan of God.
4. A monopoly of the justice of God is retaliation where human justice malfunctions.
5. While Amnon's crime goes unpunished based on human justice, there is the higher justice of God.
6. It is difficult for the believer to leave matters of justice to the court of heaven.
7. We have studied how Moses failed at the second Meribah. He will use his personal authority to punish the people. The issue was not the sins of the people, but a test of grace to prepare them to enter into the land. He made an issue out of sin rather than out of grace.
8. It should be noted that David's arrogance hangover provided the basis for his discipline.
9. While parents love their children, they should not spare them when they are guilty of crime or evil. The great Roman father who executed his own son for dissection after the court found him guilty.

10. David looked into the mirror when this rape case came to light. David had the authority to have a trial, but he did not come close to doing so, and his son Absalom, an evil man and a criminal, was still walking into the palace and into the courts, smirking and laughing. Maybe this is Amnon? Absalom was angry and did something; David was angry and did nothing; it should have been the other way around. Anger is a sinful emotion which sets aside the emotion of justice. Absalom killed Amnon, but two wrongs never make a right.

The scene and the subject now change. The proper translation is, 2 years later.

There is a breathing space. David can use this time to turn cursing into blessing. Doctrinal conclusions will put David in control of the situation. In the 4th installment, David will never be greater. But in the 3rd installment, the situation will get out of control. David did not learn the critical doctrine necessary. The national crisis has been postponed several times in the past few years. Bob knows the Russians were going to attack in 1976 and he knows why they didn't attack. We need a pivot of believers to preserve this client nation. There will be time for us to learn how to stand in the gap when the crisis hits.

We had spring, and then we had winter, where it went down to 20 degrees.

When the real crisis comes, there are people who have been gone for a long time, but they will come back. Once the adversity hits, it will be too late.

Bob suspects that we can get through the revolution doctrine and then, we may even have one in the United States.

There was a great war occurring in Africa where George Mueller was. His first tendency was to join them on the run. He decided to go in the opposite direction, and this saved him and his family. When the situation breaks, you must be able to roll with the situation. You must be flexible. If you have a set plan, you might try to keep with this plan, even when it becomes an untenable approach.

David finally became monogamous, and this changed him. This changes most men. This can bring on certain inflexibilities. Bob notices those who get married and come to class the next day; or those who take a tape recorder on their honeymoon. You can get so carried away with those things, that you forget that God is the source. Never get carried away with happiness or prosperity because it will not always be there. Once you are distracted from doctrine because of prosperity and happiness, then you might completely fail in a period of disaster or testing.

Some of you are in a happiness era. Some of you are enjoying perhaps the greatest prosperity of your life; but when it becomes a distraction, then the fun is over. When you lose track of the source, it is all over.

In between installments 2 and 3, David did not get himself prepared; he was unable to apply the doctrine that he needed. He could have almost headed off the murder. Human good finally came into the picture.

Had David executed Amnon, this would have saved Absalom's life and possibly cut off the revolution.

David gives permission for Amnon to go to the ranch and enjoy the bbq with Absalom. He is thinking in terms of harmony; harmony is not the issue. He wants his whole family to love Bathsheba. Now, you can have harmony among students and they all cheat together. Occasionally, there is harmony among thieves. You often find harmony among organizations.

+H in prosperity is never designed to distract you from doctrine. You should be able to maintain +H in adversity as well. God uses prepared people, and God uses us in adversity. Those who have some farm and bury things, and the balloon goes up, and they will never be able to get to this farm and to their supplies that is inflexibility. God will preserve us; not our wits and ingenuity. God uses prepared people. David enjoyed his great relationship with Bathsheba, but his administration would reach an all time high, so in peace time, he can devote his genius to the function of his government. He will make one mistake and there will be a bunch of unhappy malcontents.

This is what the Romans did to Julius Cæsar or the Carthaginians to Hannibal.

A malfunction of the king's justice in the 2nd installment of discipline will cause a failure in the 3rd.

This is a question: how are David's failures related to these installments?

The city of Hazor dominates the Hulah valley, an important caravan route. Hazor was key to many military movements and to trade.

Hazor has been found it there have been two incremental studies of this. It has taken millions of dollars to study. This is near the border of Ephraim. The Rothschild expedition. David married the daughter of the king of Geshur. The Baal temple located to the west of Hazor. The land is hilly and rolling. This is over to the west, and it slopes down to the Jordan River. There are the ruins of the Baal temple and they are on about 100,000 acres of a sheep ranch. Apparently, this acreage was given to Absalom from his grandfather on his mother's side, 100 miles north of Jerusalem and slightly to the west. Absalom had a number of sheep ranches, and sheep shearing time was also a time for great parties and bbq's. After he executes Amnon, all he has to do is cross over the river, and he is safe in the territory of his grandfather. Amnon, all of this time, assumes that Absalom was too afraid to do anything, or did not know what was going on. He was unable to read Absalom, because Absalom was a good actor.

This gives Absalom a time to have a great party, and he is over 100 miles away from Jerusalem (commentators too often try to place this ranch right outside of Jerusalem).

It is important to note that Absalom had called all of the king's sons to have this bbq. He wanted them all to see how it would be worked out. The sons of Bathsheba would not be included because Solomon is 3 and Nathan is 1. They are all named in Chronicles. The bastards are included in this as well.

Security will be relaxed at this party. Amnon is a famous drunk now, and he will get noisy and obnoxious. If you are such a drunk, you might learn something about this narrative.

The murder was well-planned like David's murder of Uriah.

2Sam. 13:23 After two full years [Now, two years later] [\[when\] Absalom had sheepshearers at Baal-hazor, which is near Ephraim, and Absalom invited all the king's sons.](#)

2Samuel 13:24–27

72David

631_0308

The Ephraim we look for is not the border we are talking about; here, this is Ephraim as the entire northern kingdom. Therefore, the bbq is being held about 100 miles north of the Jerusalem palace. They can raise a little hell and enjoy themselves on this ranch. Always in a conspiracy, there must be some enthusiasm. Sometimes this is simply emotions

Absalom worked out his own scenario whereas, Amnon depended upon Jonadab for his conspiracy. He was not smart enough to devise a conspiracy on his own.

During installment discipline, David has been generally blinded to those whom he loves and those who are close to him. His tremendous power and authority is actually transferred to others, when David does not even realize it is happening.

David should have denied the permission for this bbq, as it is too far from castle Zion.

They conquered the Hittites, Iran, India, Egypt; and they established the code of Maryana, one of the most famous codes of the ancient world.

This conspiracy begins with polite protocol; and sheep shearing was always party time for the ranchers of Israel.

Particle of politeness used with the jussive. There is an invitation. The better the intrigue, the better the manners required. People used good manners in order to cover their conspiracies. Good manners were used to flatter rather than to express thoughtfulness. He is flattering his father.

David will not be able to come for somewhere, so Absalom will ask that David send his crown prince. Absalom wisely notes that David is the king and he knows that he must use the correct vocatives and the proper protocol.

This would be the height of the social season. The ranching crowd built up their parties around the sheepshearing. Absalom knew that David would refuse out of thoughtfulness.

The bbq sauce would be the blood of Amnon. Amnon is a guttersnipe; he is a pig; he is a jackass. He has no class. Absalom will demonstrate something to all Israel, but he will kill him with class.

Many a woman has been confused or duped by good manners and protocol; not everyone who is polite to you is your friend. This often destroys your alertness. 35% of all rapes occur based upon dates. So the guy had to impress the woman enough to take her out on a date. Beware of Greeks bearing gifts, which is the prophecy of the Greeks being the Trojans a gift, a huge horse. The horses got from the Hurrians.

2 years, Absalom took all kinds of guff. He might have gotten a bit of harassment, and he goes around with great poise and no one bothered him. Only one person picked up on this, and that was Jonadab. Jonadab figured there was a plot afoot. He decided to use this plot to feather his own nest.

Absalom had great potential for leadership. Neither Amnon nor Absalom had what it takes to rule a great nation. Amnon was a criminal and should never run a nation. Absalom had the greatest potential, but this potential was destroyed by arrogance.

2Sam. 13:24 And Absalom came to the king and said, "Behold, your servant has sheepshearers. Please let the king and his servants go with your servant."

The polite particle is used here, but with the type of sentence, it is translated as a negative instead. Subjunctive imperfect of responsibility? David had his own responsibilities where he was.

Negative adverb lo this time, and David does not want to be burdensome to him. Perhaps the idea is, there would be far too many people who would end up traveling up there.

Absalom wants to murder Amnon in public. That is part of the deal.

2Sam. 13:25 [But the king said to Absalom, "No, my son, let us not all go, lest we be burdensome to you \[so that we are not too great of an expense for you\]." He pressed him, but he would not go but gave him his blessing.](#)

The king has allowed for this party, but Absalom then makes certain that the crown prince will come. The idea is to get the crown prince to go in his place. Wâw lo means if not, and this is the alternative to David attending this party. A representative of the king needs to be there, since David cannot.

Absalom is now involved in interlocking systems of arrogance. Vengeance is Mine, I will repay, says the Lord; Absalom reject this principle. If David followed through on his suspicions, then he would have had to have been flexible. He would have to set aside the protocol of court. He is inflexible here. He will set aside any suspicion and permit Amnon to go.

2Sam. 13:26 Then Absalom said, "If not, please let my brother Amnon go with us." And the king said to him, "Why should he go with you?"

Absalom keeps urging him. He doesn't get excited; he does not make himself seem wrong. He knew exactly how to handle this. He is a master at this.

Amnon manipulated David to get Tamar into his palace and Absalom is manipulating David to get Amnon to his ranch. Now, if this is the first time that Absalom has made such a request, then it is a cause for suspicion. However, David sees this as hopeful instead.

This is like Carter. He wants things to be easy. He wants to bring about world peace. He wants to bring the world into world peace.

Woodrow Wilson thought he was bringing us into a period of great harmony, but he took us into a world war. Arrogance is always the source of conflict. Interlocking systems of arrogance always leads to conflict. Where arrogance exists, this will start up conflict.

Sooner or later, there will be conflict in Berachah Church. There is harmony in Berachah Church not because everyone says nice things about one another, but because Bob is ruthless about maintaining his authority.

There are times when an organization has harmony and times when there is a conspiracy. Harmony is a nice thing, but we do not have it all of the time. Harmony is useless as an instrument of any organization. It is not necessary for efficiency.

If you are a minority and you cannot make it in the army, then you cannot make it in life.

When you have friends, your loyalty should still be to doctrine. Your own personal integrity must be related to doctrine.

2Sam. 13:27 But Absalom pressed him until he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him.

Harmony and Interlocking Systems of Arrogance

1. When one or more parties in a controversy are involved in interlocking systems of arrogance, peace and harmony can never be restored. In life we have discipline. When you drive down the street and people do crazy things, there is no harmony; there is discipline on the Houston streets. People still manage to get around and it is on the basis of authority and discipline.
2. Absalom and Amnon have entered into the interlocking systems of arrogance. Authority can keep them in line, but counsel cannot make it work. Shake hands and be friends is not going to work.

3. The party at the ranch is a front for conspiracy, not the means for establishing harmony and peace.
4. The United states should recall this when dealing with any communist country. An agreement where Poland was split up between Russia and Germany. The Russians went into Poland, and they met and partitioned Poland. Germany did not want peace. They needed some time before they launched their plan. There was no peace and harmony; this was merely part of a plan. They agreed to peace and harmony until it was time to move forward. Our SALT I has given Russia time to prepare, and that is exactly what they have been doing. David permitted all of his sons to go to this party, an unprecedented act on the part of David, who has been duped and manipulated by the idea of peace and harmony in our time.

Editorial by C. W. Borkman, "If you aren't scared or frightened, just wait a few months..." Killing the B1 bomber and other things, but there are more. Our military is losing skilled personnel. Restoring the draft is not the answer; the chief architect of this wasteland is Congress. We seem to only launch crusades against our allies.

28Feb WSJ article by Irving Kristol. "Restatement of the obvious is the first duty of the intelligent man." The wicked nesses of the Shah represent the government of every previous ruler in Iran. He used Iran's wealth to modernize Iran's economy and he increased freedom for women in Iran. Foreign journalists could move about freely in Iran then. We have to realize that there are degrees of problems in other governments. We have selected in great hypocrisy the wrong people to back.

Bob looks into negative volition eyes every night when he takes a sweep. God is holding off national disaster until we are totally prepared for what is coming.

We will now see the murder of Amnon.

Inevitably, modern translations must take over. Bob reads the KJ so that those who are tenacious in following a failed translation will know where we are.

Piel perfect of tsawah; the conspiracy was worked out before the guests arrived. The imperfect. Observe. Bob talks about this piece of junk gun, so inaccurate, Bob would just as soon have a slingshot. Model 94.

So they all come to the bbq to drink and socialize, and obviously, they did not come armed. The servants will be armed. That is customary. Observe when Amnon gets high on wine. Wine is to be drunk over conversation. It is best to let is sit for awhile and open up, unless it is Mogan David, and it will never open up. Amnon was a fast and heavy drinker; and he was an obnoxious drunk.

All of the king's sons will see Amnon cut down before them. Old obnoxious will be right on time, and the command to kill will be given. We will note the most famous 100 mile mule race in history.

Being an arrogant ass, he is the first one drunk at any party. Amnon was usually alert to antagonism. Amnon was an obnoxious loud drunk. Bob has dusted his knuckles on a few of them, he is sorry to say. It is not even good practice. If you are a loud, obnoxious drunk, then you ought to get on the wagon and stay there.

Absalom has his servants wait until Amnon is noisy and obnoxious. Everyone will be watching Amnon, as he is the crown prince. So the servants needs to watch and listen to him.

The signal would be verbal.

Never bbq pig at a Jewish party; except here, for Absalom. This is murder with some of the drama which will be discussed later in awe. A strong stupid bodyguard is like walking around with the enemy.

This is the Bible and this is narrative. Commentaries often summarize this chapter with a sentence.

Absalom's Potential

1. Absalom had a good sense of drama. He is a mature believer at this time, and in interlocking systems of arrogance.
2. Absalom had the most fantastic potential to be the king. Being in interlocking systems of arrogance neutralized this potential. The staging here and the manner in which he accomplished all of this indicates tremendous ability, albeit misguided. Someone will tell you, you have a beautiful face; or that you are talented or smart. Bob can even see the phenomenal talent that some of us have. However, all of this talent and potential greatness is neutralized the day you enter into interlocking systems of arrogance.
3. Everyone will be outside standing around and drinking, and when Amnon has thoroughly disgusted the guests, that is when Absalom will have his servants strike. Absalom wants everyone to see what a disgusting louse Amnon is.

Jackson had a great plan, but the execution was not good, as he was dealing with green troops. It was a single envelopment concept, they were on the attack, etc. Great ideas. The Japanese attack on lady Gault was brilliant, but it would not work.

This is a party that no one would forget. How old fathead got drunk and about his obscene remarks, and Absalom with his flashing red hair and flashing eyes yell, "Kill him!" and blood flew everywhere. This story would be told for years. What he is doing is unjustified and evil, but memorable.

Being dramatic is no good if you are stupid. But Absalom had a flair for doing things in a memorable way. He does the wrong thing here in the wrong way but it is well remembered. The guests will all remember this. Some of the bastard sons may have been pretty gutsy, but the princes were a pack of yellow dogs. In time to come, they would embellish this. At the moment, however, they are going to be horrified guests.

Why didn't Absalom kill Amnon himself? He is duplicating David's murder of Uriah. As far as Absalom is concerned, he would not dirty his hands with the lily livered son-of-a-bitch. It is the job of the servants to carve him up. Absalom did not want to dirty his hands with this pig. This would be a duplication of Uriah the Hittite.

The problem is, maybe the ranch hands would get chicken-hearted. So, Absalom needs to get them ready with a little courage.

Absalom can tell that his servants are uptight. We get a brief summary, but he no doubt had to talk about courage and explain courage. We know it is the ability to think under pressure. Moral courage is the greatest. He is commanding them to have courage; they are concerned about the repercussions. Their courage will be based upon someone else taking responsibility for their actions.

An old friend of Bob's who did not like hurting or killing people; but he was fine with it, as long as someone else gave the orders. So he kept himself as a low rank. He could only do that as a private. There is a courage which is taken when someone else takes the responsibility for the action. It is easy for some people to exhibit courage because they will do whatever they have to do without thinking. People can be courageous and carry on, provided that they do not have to think.

Do not ever accept authority if you are afraid of consequences. Some people cannot handle authority. They have nervous breakdowns with authority.

2Sam. 13:28 Then Absalom [previously] commanded his servants, "Mark [Observe] when Amnon's heart is merry with wine, and when I say to you, 'Strike Amnon,' then kill him. Do not fear; have I not commanded you? Be courageous and be valiant [become sons of valor]."

Absalom would have been a great king; a chip of the old block, but he was arrogant; Satan started in arrogance and the Angelic Conflict was on. The arrogance complex in all of its seed form was in Satan when he said, "I will be like the Most High God." Arrogance spoils everything that it touches.

When hiring, if you could distinguish between those inside and outside of the arrogance complex, you know those outside are teachable. The others are dishonorable and will make more trouble than we can imagine.

Absalom will serve up Amnon as pig on a spit. It is still unjustifiable. Bob is not condoning violence or revenge as a solution to anything. All of that ability all of that genius; the whole thing goes down the drain. We are all human. It was not Absalom's intention to hide the fact that he was responsible for Amnon's death. He will shout the command, and then his servants will act. By taking the law into his own hands, Absalom was revealing his arrogance. Now, defending oneself against criminals, killing is the order of the day. Absalom is playing god by executing Amnon. God has the right to deal with Amnon. Absalom is human and will deal with human revenge. Human revenge is no substitute for God's justice. All forms of lawlessness are arrogant and all attempts to punish these apart from the law are arrogance. The mob which lynches a horse thief are as evil as the criminal. Justice is distorted when arrogance is dishing out that justice. Our courts keep pushing criminals back out onto the streets. Arrogance cannot properly deal with arrogance. Absalom will take the full responsibility for the killing of Amnon, but he is being arrogant.

This is David's 3rd installment of discipline. David did not murder Uriah directly, but had others do his dirty work for him. The prophecy of Nathan is fulfilled and the 3rd installment of discipline is fulfilled.

We are about to launch into our study of murder. We will see murder on an international scale. Terrorism is the order of the day; we have an ambassador being held by a terrorist right now.

For a hundred years, a wonderful nation was built up, Rhodesia, and then the Blacks came along and, aided by the US, are taking it over. Look for lying and stealing by this Marxists. Businesses will be destroyed and people will be murdered. Terrorists will be brought in from other countries. Black people are completely incapable of rule. In the past 4000 years, 2 men in the US have succeeded, Booker T. Washington and George Carver. They were free of arrogance and they had a sense of responsibility. Bob predicts great destruction for Zimbabwe. Bob mentions the total inability of Black mayors and representatives, and no Black mayor has done a good job.

Martin Luther King was an opportunist and up to his ears in interlocking systems of arrogance. The US continues its stupidity. We are about to send billions of dollars to Nicaragua, which is a communist country.

You do not get things by violence. The Black people have threatened violence and the coward in the White House backs off and shakes in his boots. The Ku Klux Klan was started by two Christian men to protect white women after the civil war (that is not its function today).

Our new police chief is being objected to, and he is a good man and he will be a great chief of police.

The tragedy is, there is no racial issue in this country. We have white trash all over this country; and black, brown and red trash as well. We have all of these because we no longer have establishment authority. In other countries, we have illegitimate people taking over with the help of the United States. National arrogance is the order of the day. We cannot recognize divine establishment.

There is more homosexual violence today than ever before. Crime is rampant and that indicates that there is no authority left today.

Then we have the arrogance of the unions. Bob is not pro or con for any of these things; he just mentions this because we are in trouble.

He has never seen so many idiotic ideas. Everyone has seem to forgotten that the whole basis for the laws of divine establishment is authority and discipline; and therefore, there is less freedom in the United States today than when King George was passing the Stamp Act. Even good things turn sour.

Our hockey team beating the Russian pros, and then throwing their hocky sticks around. No poise. The scumbum who makes a touchdown and then does a dance in the end zone. Talented athletes who are arrogant evil scum. It knows no racial bounds, no social levels.

The interest rate climbed up to 17¼% today. No matter what your race, if you have believed in Jesus Christ, then God has a plan for you. If you are here tonight and Black, your own people will persecute you unmercifully; same for whites. You have become a spiritual minority. Your only defense and protection is the wall of fire. It is logistical grace. It is our protection.

The Valdencians and the Hugonots were killed by the government and . Or other countries where the Muslims came in on one side and the Roman Catholics on the others. You may have to memorize a couple of hymns so that you can sing them on the way to your execution.

Some of you will renounce your faith in Jesus Christ; and when asked about attending Berachah, you will say you attended as a spy. Bob is trying to condition us in our thinking and what is coming is violence. As in our passage, revolution is on its way; violence is on its way. Criminals are on the streets; it will come sooner or later.

There is a regime up in Washington. Carter is called the bionic woman. We have an Alice in Wonderland administration. We have supported communist regimes with taxpayer's money. It is being used for evil.

No liberal jackass has ever given you any freedom; they have taken it from you.

There is no place ot run. There is simply the doctrine you have and what the Lord wants to do with you.

2Sam. 13:28 Then Absalom [previously] commanded his servants, "Mark [Observe] when Amnon's heart is merry with wine, and when I say to you, 'Strike Amnon,' then kill him. Do not fear; have I not commanded you? Be courageous and be valiant [become sons of valor]."

to manufacture something out of something else. Absalom gave the command, and they took that and hacked Amnon to death.

David has demonstrated great courage in every combat situation and in every other part of life. How can such a courageous man have 50 cowardly sons? They panicked and ran. Where did the genes go wrong? The sons of David are cowards. They are cowards because of interlocking systems of arrogance. Not one of them lifted a finger. Amnon had no friends. He is going to die and he has not one friend to lift a finger to help him. He had more power and authority than anyone else in Israel, apart from David. He had no honor, no integrity, no sympathy, nothing to recommend him as a friend. Interlocking systems of arrogance destroyed everything which would cause people to love you or admire you.

Nearly everyone here has a friend. Through doctrine you have the capacity for friendship, for empathy for sensitivity for thoughtfulness. One of the worst things is for someone to die without a friend. It is possible the David was Amnon's friend. But David loved an empty shell of a man. He was a coward. He was cruel, shallow, he raped women.

Absalom will be said to be the handsomest man of his day. He did not have a feature that was wrong.

God even has a plan for ugly macho. God tolerates much more than Bob would He is so gracious to all of us.

Rank, greatness, success and Amnon, in interlocking systems of arrogance, had a way of rubbing his greatness and power into others the wrong way.

All of this adds up to, everyone but David agrees that Amnon needs killing that that it is long overdue. This does not justify this act of violence. Assassination does not solve problems. Most of the royal family were upset that Amnon had not been arrested and tried. They did not care that Amnon, a known-rapist, walked the streets without problem. They blamed David for this. The seeds of revolution were planted across the land because of this.

Manipulative power is the con man; exploitative power is the gun man. Jonadab has used manipulative power; Amnon used exploitative.

Jonadab will go through the market place and spread the rumor that all of the king's sons have been killed. When this gets to castle Jion, he tears off his clothes. Then he rolls around. Everyone else tears their clothes too. Then Jonadab walks in, without torn clothes. This is not in the English. He'll say, "Only Amnon is killed; Absalom did it." This time, David will not be a dupe.

In the meantime, in come the mule racers, and they will weep and cry and tear up their own clothes. David will roll and cry; it will be a big crybaby scene over a jerk; over a nothing.

Amnon is a believer. How different is he from believers around Berachah?

Loss of control over his family will result in a loss of control over the nation. When a person makes mistakes with his family, he will make the same mistakes in his business, his battalion, etc.

People in a mob often take on the characteristics of the mob. That means rejecting doctrine and establishment. It is a rejection of everything worthwhile.

The panic is manifest in qum. Hophal. It is to be motivated to run; caused to get up and move out. Not one of them stops to think. 50 sons among them and they cannot think. If you cannot think under pressure, you are a coward.

Rebound is thinking. You use your various rationales under the stages of the faith rest drill. Cowardice is the inability to think under pressure.

It was about 100 miles to get to Jerusalem. Absalom's bodyguards did to Amnon what he told them to do. They were under his authority without fear. Each one was filled with panic, so each one hopped on his mule and fled.

It is forbidden in the law to have cross-bred animals. These mules were sterile. Horses and mules brought into Israel from the Hurrians (from Turkey).

2Sam. 18:9 and some other passages indicate that mules were used for royalty. Today used as pack animals, but not as often then.

Mules are strange animals. They are not subject to authority without a great deal of violence being applied. For this reason, they were forbidden by the Law. The mule does not respond to authority.

When Bob was an officer in the cavalry. You never know when a mule will get an attack of anti-authority. "Reminds me of some women I have met." someone said.

The combination of the horse and the ass irons away any hope of authority. All the king's sons panicked. They heard the word kill, but thought that it might have included them, not hearing the word Absalom.

Vigilante justice is no justice at all.

2Sam. 13:29 [So the servants of Absalom did to Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons arose \[were moved with panic\], and each mounted his mule and fled.](#)

WSJ Irving Kristol article. Some authoritarian governments govern with some respect for the law; others are petty, narrow and indifferent to their nation's future. Simosa is one of the better ones. It is a mistake to think that all peoples everywhere are entitled to a constitutional government. We constant find ourselves in moral dilemmas and they are guilt-inducing policies. We have used our power to destroy freedom throughout the world and to hand over so many people to slavery under communism.

Woodrow Wilson had his head in the clouds or somewhere else.

100 mile race out of there, away from Absalom's ranch.

Principles of Absalom's Killing of Amnon

1. 2 wrongs do not make a right. Rom. 12:19
2. Only the arrogant try to solve a wrong with another wrong. It is one of the signs of interlocking systems of arrogance or an arrogance hangover.
3. Add wrong to wrong and you intensify the problems. When you are taking revenge, you are never in the plan of God.
4. Revolution was coming to Israel. Absalom becomes the front for the coming revolution. There are malcontents who are in the process of being pulled together by Ahithophel. Absalom will be the rallying point.
5. The conspirators were looking for someone to be their point man. Absalom's murder of Amnon will unite these groups and he will become an instant hero to many of the malcontents.
6. Absalom is a strong man with great leadership ability and potential. But his potential was destroyed and leadership neutralized in interlocking systems of arrogance. He will remain there for the rest of his life. He has the greatest leadership ability in his generation and he will be duped and used by arrogant conspirators. Manipulation is the con man. He will react to his father's half-forgiveness at another time. David failed to prosecute Amnon for the rape of Tamar, which

There is a false rumor. "Absalom has killed all of the king's sons." We would say, "Meanwhile, back at the castle." The rumor precedes the arrival of the sons.

Why is the rumor in the Word of God?

Somehow, when they were on the road, there was a rumor that came to David. Now, they are driving fast and how did this rumor come to David even before they leave? Jonadab had spies at the bbq, and he starts the rumor when they return that all of the king's sons have been murdered. Jonadab knows the truth.

A rumor is a story not yet authenticated. It is easy to tell a lie. People believe many things because they want to believe it. Once they have rejected the truth, they are not even remotely interested in the truth.

Jonadab wrote the scenarios of evil for the crown prince while he still lived. He used this assassination for his own advancement.

Some people tried to do this after the assassination of President Kennedy and they would go through a certain amount of breast beating. Jonadab is that type of person. He has planted a spy at the ranch and has used a faster system of communication.

Jonadab was smart enough not to attend this party. If you die without one friend, you have either lived the most wonderful separated life or you have died a horse's ass going to heaven.

We will find out that Amnon is a believer.

Jonadab is the rat who deserted the sinking ship. When someone no longer has any use for you, they will turn against you.

Don't ask a guy, "Are you in interlocking systems of arrogance?" "No I'm not."

Let's see if we can reconstruct this. Jonadab has someone at the ranch and he had to have a relay system, and he needed to be the first person to get this news.

News reporters today use the news to feather their own nest. They do not tell you that Carter was responsible for getting the Shah out of Iran, but they did not tell you this.

Carter was frustrated over his energy program is being laughed at in Congress, so that he is causing a gas crisis. The news is not telling about the poison gas being used on the Kurds (Bob says it is the Russians). They don't tell you that Rhodesian set up a great government and Blacks are treated better there than here. There will eventually be a steel curtain between north and South America. The news knows all of these things, but they do not tell us.

Having started the rumor, Abinadab had to get back to tell David before the king's sons returned.

Jonadab and Building Happiness on Someone Else's Unhappiness

1. Arrogance is totally indifferent about the feelings of others. Arrogant people wear their feelings on their sleeves.
2. A rumor that Absalom killed all the king's sons would tear David apart emotionally. This rumor would hurt David. Jonadab is thinking all about his own promotion. He does not care how much the king is hurt. Arrogant people, in their egocentricity, are irresponsible when it comes to the thoughts and emotions of others.
3. Jonadab is totally indifferent to the misery that he causes others as long as it means gain to him. Communism is a totally arrogant system, but all forms of liberalism are arrogance.

4. Jonadab gained from planning the rape of Tamar. Now he seeks to gain from the murder of Amnon. Arrogant people are always concerned about their own success and promotion. No matter who is hurt in their advance, they never lose track of themselves.
5. Therefore, those involved in interlocking systems of arrogance seek to build their power and happiness upon the unhappiness of others. Some people are promoted in the military in this way. In all the services, this is happening. Divorces because people are made to work too many hours. A system has been devised that make officers look good on paper even though they have screwed over everyone below them. It is true as much socially as it is in business or any other situation in life. You cannot build your happiness on someone else's unhappiness.

The arrogant SOB who lets a woman fall in love with him, and throws her out when he comes across someone better. Or throwing out an old wife for someone who is younger and newer, like Clark Gable. It caught up to him. Arrogant people say, "I want it when I want it, and I want it now." Arrogance always despises those who are used. Once they have used you and no longer need you, then they will despise you.

2Sam. 13:30 While they were on the way [in transit], news [a rumor] came to David, "Absalom has struck down all the king's sons, and not one of them is left."

Now we have the royal reaction. The king gets up in shock. He falls on the floor and moans and groans. The rest of the court also began to tear their clothes. This is a big court, an opulent court, and the king only is allowed to get on the floor. Court protocol requires that the others tear their clothes. Soon the court is in shreds.

David then stands, and he looks up, and he sees Jonadab, and his clothes are not torn up. He not only heard the news, but he made the news up. He won't take credit for that. He will take credit for bringing in the true report. He is trying to gain the patronage of David. If David makes him any sort of promotion, then David should not be king.

The king obviously believes this rumor. What the king should have is facts, and he has no facts. He has not made any inquiries. He's not thinking. He has an instant reaction force, and they need to be sent up there to see what is going on.

David is beat down due to failure, and you are inclined to believe the worst things. So his action is that he believes a false rumor without checking it out. For those of you who will be in charge of any organization, or have any responsibility or authority in life. The worst thing to do is to assume any rumor or bad news is true. Check it out. Hear the facts. If you have to believe something, believe some verses; use some doctrinal rationales.

David's royal staff tore up their clothes too, but they are not allowed to get on the floor with the king.

David, in this area of discipline, is naive and stupid. He should have questioned Amnon's request, and brought him to the King's palace and taken care of him there. David probably knows that there are a 1000 people who can cook better than Tamar. There is a time to be suspicious and a time not, but better to be suspicious than sorry. Criminals can walk into any congregation in the world and say they have turned over a new leaf. When a criminal needs a good reference, they'll go to a church to get a good reference.

David is manipulated for the ranch party list. His batting average is incest and fratricide. The 2nd and 3rd installments of discipline. There are many types of suffering. Of his own free will, David is the instrument by which his daughter Tamar was raped and Amnon was murdered. Being gracious and being a sucker are 2 different things. Being a sucker is being duped by an arrogant evil criminal. We have all been taken it at one time or another. But, after this, no more (it says here in fine print). It is easy to con grace oriented people. Grace function always walk the extra mile. You need to rightly divide the Word of Truth so you know who to hang with and not. Don't be taken in by these people. They will hit you in the name of grace. "You are not very gracious." Every woman who has said, "I'm a grace gal" is evil and most are gone. Better I hear, "Hey man."

2Sam. 13:31 Then the king arose and tore his garments and lay on the earth. And all his servants who were standing by tore their garments.

Jonadab seeks to exploit this. The royal reaction is instant grief without the facts. Is David's problem that he realizes what a lousy father he has been? As soon as he finds out it is just one, then he goes into a tizzy. Bob suspects and arrogance hangover. It all hit the fan. He decided he might as well do it up right, now that he got started.

Maybe you got caught in a mistake, and maybe you pretend like it never happened or you look wistfully heavenward.

Bob will make some mistake and call himself every thing in the world, and they look up, and then return to their dog dreams. But when you are surrounded by a magnificent audience. David is in court and he has made a fool of himself. David could have written, "Total fool." Whatever you are doing, you keep doing it. If you are staring at the ceiling, you keep doing that. David is really in it. He is caught with egg on his face. He got where he is by never having egg on his face. Now he has done a very stupid thing. Bob wonders if presidents ever react that way. They do something wrong, so they just keep on doing that. That is why we keep getting into such terrible jams.

Once you make a mistake, or sin, or fail; just rebound, get up, wipe your eyes, and move on. Walk out.

When you fail and everyone knows you have failed and you go off half cocked, then get up and rebound and go on. Arrogance just says, cover it up; make it up. Bob was delighted in WWII that they had WACS. He had a Wac chauffeur. But a woman in combat is a disgrace to a nation. Bob can understand women fighting if a nation is overrun, but a woman in combat is mixed up. They do not belong in combat. Even when a woman trains in combat, it is ludicrous. It is horrible beyond description. We recognize homosexuals, and listen to evil suggestions and follow them in politics. It is horrible.

Women can do all kinds of support positions, which gets more men into combat 2Sam. 13:32 But Jonadab the son of Shimeah, David's brother, said, "Let not my lord suppose that they have killed all the young men, the king's sons, for Amnon alone is dead. For by the command of Absalom this has been determined from the day he violated his sister Tamar.

2Samuel 13:32

72David

631_0312

Bob started on time, which made everyone late. Thursday nights, the ladies are restless. So, Bob takes the time to announce about keeping quiet.

Some time or another, you are going to bump into a Jonadab in this life. This life is filled with Jonadab's and they have great personalities and they are successful in this or that area, but they are personality peddlers or con-artists.

One of the greatest believers of all time, while in spiritual maturity, is taken in (David). If the mature believer can be taken in by Jonadab, then those who are immature, much more so.

There is only one true shepherd, the Lord Jesus Christ. There are so many things to learn. Sometimes greatness in business or in a profession or even in social life, are measured in terms of Jonadab testing.

The very thing which makes us strong, honor and integrity, also makes us weak. We assume that everyone who is nice and well-mannered and uses a holy vocabulary, we assume that they are also honest and have integrity too, and that is not true.

God gives us probably 3 chances with the Jonadab personality, and after 3, He penalizes us. This is where David learns and he will not be taken in by this master con-artist. Being a believer in Jesus Christ, means you will get some tests in this area. If Bob knew then what he does now, Bob would have figured this out. Some used a holy vocabulary in order to put one over on him.

If you feel you are going to be sick, sit by an exit.

The con artist makes certain allegations and we accept it as true. Jonadab is an actress. Sarah Bernhart is one of the greatest actresses of all time?

vv. 32–33 are Jonadab's contrivances. The doubling of this word indicates a function of deceit or evil. This is preparing us for how a con-artist works. Shimeah is the older brother of David. When Samuel came to Shimeah and wanted to anoint him king, God said no. He was #3 in line. Samuel wanted to anoint all 6 of Jesse's sons.

David did have a sister, and her name was Zeruah. She is the mother of 3 great soldiers. Asahel, Abishai and Joel. Out of the children, and Jesse had 10 children that we know of.

7 sons and 2 daughters, and Zeruah was one of the great women of her generation. All of the greatness does not belong to the male. Zeruah and Tamar are 2 of the greats. Zeruah raised 3 sons and raised them wonderfully. Rare that this can be done and for these sons to grow up as men and not feminized. She was a widow early in life. It is very rare for a woman to train sons in the field of authority and discipline, so that honor becomes the result, but that is exactly what Zeruah. These men were spiritually great and wonderful military men.

There is a place under the sun for the ladies, and in every generation, there are always a few totally magnificent women.

There are implications of Zeruah and Tamar, and often, such women are great without a husband, a love life, or a love affair. They are totally divorced from what most women see as important. Women would rather be married than single, even if she is married to the biggest horse's ass in the world. This amazes Bob. Otherwise, society throws them out.

2 things are boring to others: our pictures of Jerusalem and your pictures of your grandchildren. When a widow raises 3 great sons, it is time for a mother's day message.

Tamar never had a real sexual experience in her life, apart from rape, and she was great in her generation.

If the wrong man is around, a woman is destroyed. Bitterness is a feminine weakness as well as a male one. A woman being bitter toward a man means implacability. Greatness, success, the Lord's best for your life, always eludes you.

Because of integrity, because of honor, a woman has the ability to live under conditions which are not always the best, but can handle the greatest disillusion in life, which is living unmarried for life. Women are brought up to think that marriage is the summum bonum of life, and that she will meet Prince Charming and live happily ever after. It is tragic that so many doctrines which are important elude young ladies when they still have a chance. They get married for the first time and everything hits the fan. The spiritual factor is at risk. Women slide into interlocking systems of arrogance. In that state, one avoids reality.

Tamar and Zeruah are regarded by society as cripples, as those who do not count, and these are the 2 great women for 3 generations. In many ways, David's sister was greater than David. Tamar greater than David as well.

In Berachah, spinsters are not regarded as failures and divorced people are not regarded as failures. Sex, instead of being wonderful, is a distraction to the wonderful things of life. Not that there is anything wrong with sex, think of all the terrible things that can happen to you because you are blind to it.

Bob saw a marvelous German Shepherd, and he called to him, and it turns out the owner is blind. He possibly found out that his constant companion was a beautiful dog.

There are some magnificent women in Berachah's congregation. The brother of Jonadab became somewhat of a hero.

David, after 3 shots at it, will finally resist. Bob was really delighted; he would have toasted him, if he could have.

Shimeah had been rejected to rule over Israel. He had a good son and an evil son? Jonadab wrote the script for the rape of Tamar. There are families where it is one for all and all for one. That is adolescent malarkey. If you know someone who distracts you from doctrine, forget it. Often, loyalty to a member of your family who is antagonistic to the Word, will destroy your integrity. Jesus said He came to separate a mother from a son, a father from a daughter. If someone in your family makes you negative toward doctrine, then you are involved in interlocking systems of arrogance. Whatever talent or ability that you have, it will be destroyed. Family loyalty here could have destroyed David.

Both of these sons have the same genes, so it is not a matter of genes. Jonathan grew step by step, living honorably by joining the army. Jonadab became a con artist. Volition is the first issue.

Bob's loyalty to his sister set him back in his spiritual life for one year, which was an important year. It is easy to be distracted by those whom you love. This can set you back in the plan of God for your life.

For whatever weaknesses and flaws in the character of Shimeah, his sons did not have to follow in his footsteps. Shimeah was rejected. For a moment, the crown of Israel hovered over his head, and God rejected him. Then, his sons: one a military type and the other, a con artist.

It is volition, not genes, which relates failure to volition. The jussive is used here for correct court procedure. He knows what David has assumed, and he can tell with David and everyone tearing their clothes and robes.

First, there is the false rumor. Then Jonadab comes along and says this is a false rumor and Jonadab walks in. How does he know about the rumor and how does he know that this rumor is false? He has to have information about this, and what led up to it, etc. Apparently, David is figuring that out. He needed to already know about the assassination attempt. He is going to use this assassination attempt to ingratiate himself to David. Apparently, Amnon is too psychotic to control. Jonadab will try to manipulate David rather than Amnon, who is unstable. He expects to be honored by David.

Con Men like Dealing with Stable, Normal People

1. The contrivance of Jonadab because he speaks to David in un-torn robes.
2. He watched people, looking at them to figure out who he can work. He was constantly watching people and gathering intelligence about their private lives in order to manipulate or use them or to advance themselves. Such a one is a totally evil person. Some Congressmen are blackmailed in order to get them to vote in such and such a way.

3. The people who blackmailed are always dishonorable, untrustworthy and involved in criminal arrogance. He is as involved in interlocking systems of arrogance as Amnon or David and his brand is criminal arrogance.
4. While David did not smell a rat, Jonadab recognize the conspiracy. It takes one to know one. Bob can always smell a dead rat in his periphery. He can smell it any time. But Jonadab could smell a dead rat before the dead rat dies. The rat is dead, long live the rat.
5. The question arises, why didn't Jonadab warn his friend the crown prince. Those in interlocking systems of arrogance are unstable and operate under fragmentation.
6. Jonadab had given up on gaining power through manipulation of Amnon. He is now locked in, in psychotic arrogance.
7. Whereas David has recovered from interlocking systems of arrogance and is much more stable, Amnon is totally unstable. The con artist knows that his best chance of gain is working on someone who is unstable.
8. Stabilized people are always the targets for the con artists. They want someone with a stabilized situation, stabilized, wealth, power and authority. That is the only way they can steal part of that. The con artist, who is really a pro, never tries to con an unstable person.
9. Arrogant people like to con those who are stable, predictable and reliable.
10. David is easier to manipulate than Amnon. Honorable people are more subject to being conned because they have honor.
11. Honorable people assume that others have as much integrity as they do. Such people are easily deceived, victims of manipulation and duplicity.

Jonadab had probably a series of riders who got to him quickly with the truth. He began a rumor and then corrected that rumor, in order to impress David with his knowledge and insight. The good con artist uses truth to gain his evil ends. Such people will use Berachah vocabulary in order to deceive. The con artist chooses to use the truth as much as possible. All con artists are liars and they only tell the truth is for better deception. A little truth can deceive people.

Every con artist can slip up. Here, Jonadab messed up. This guy has known for 2 years what Absalom was up to, and now he is telling me about it. A person in interlocking systems of arrogance is too focused on himself to understand what the con artist is saying. We all have limitations. Some have limitations which are higher than others. Sooner or later, a con artist will expose himself. Arrogant people are always followers of a con artist. Only the truth can save them. David was duped by Amnon. He was then duped by Absalom. However, now Jonadab is trying to dupe him, but it is not going to work. David realizes that Jonadab is holding this information back for 2 years in order to exploit it at an opportune time. Clever people are often arrogant people. Sooner or later, they will say something which exposes them. Arrogant people are terrible listeners. David picks up on this, and we never hear from him again. Jonadab does not recognize his limitation here. Every con artist has his own limitation. That requires humility. If you realize that you will only advance so far, then that is sometimes a good system. A caste system or class system. Most do not recognize their limitations, and they spend their whole lives trying to break through a barrier which is beyond their abilities. Staying within your limitation is the best way to be happy. This is what made Victorian England so stable. People did not allow their arrogance to dictate to their ambition. They stayed within the framework of their class. Everyone is not exceptional. We all have limitations, and only arrogance convinces us to go beyond where we ought to go. Liberalism tells us, we are all equal and there is no limitation on our ability. The happiest people in Victorian England were good servants. A good butler, a good valet and a good cook were considered to be extremely valuable. These people were absolutely content. They recognized their own limitations. They did not push their children beyond the capabilities. From their children, they excel. We are suffering from national arrogance. Stability was not trying to be something beyond what you ought to be. It is okay to advance based upon intelligence and hard work. Young people do not work hard any more. Greatest thing for young people is for them to work hard. We need to return to the sweat shop where people learn to work hard. Only liberals say the a sweat shop is abuses. They learn the value of hard work and handling money. You achieve through hard work, not getting onto a minority gravy train.

An officer in the army makes a small salary, a bureaucrat on a federal gravy train will be a millionaire. Bob can name junior highs where the principals are intimidated and they are animal farmers. Some would be much better off learning a trade and to develop his happiness within the framework of his abilities. Shortcuts are the long way around. There is no substitute for working within the framework of hard work. In a time when the country is very successful and there is a lot of prosperity, Bob would start a business to perfect the serving class. There is nothing disgraceful about being a servant. The best waiter to a red cap. It isn't the money, it is the professionalism. He is making more money and ruining himself.

We have about 5 major concepts to develop here, so that will be tomorrow night.

2Sam. 13:32 [But Jonadab the son of Shimeah, David's brother, said, "Let not my lord suppose that they have killed all the young men, the king's sons, for Amnon alone is dead. For by the command \[mouth\] of Absalom this has been determined from the day he violated his sister Tamar.](#)

Bob tells them to settle down (politely). Some guy gets hauled in on a trade-out and he glares at Bob. So Bob wants to go down and punch him in the mouth. "I had nothing to do with it."

Badge and Gun is apparently a magazine put out by the Houston police department. A list of problems which are a result of arrogance. Let us call this an interlocking systems of arrogance. So this was apparently written by a Berachah type. March issue 1980, I think.

Texas Tribune has mostly articles which are related to divine viewpoint.

Jonadab and His Half-truths

1. We have criminal arrogance here of Jonadab combined with conspiracy arrogance. Only 2 things are true in the report. Amnon is dead and Absalom has fled. Truth is here, but it is distorted. Much of it is a lie. Particularly the attack upon Absalom.
2. Amnon was killed by the servants of Absalom. Jonadab uses the 3rd person plural of muth. They have killed Amnon. He knows exactly what is going on. He has his own intelligence at the party.
3. The rest of what Jonadab says is a lie.
4. It was only after David failed to punish David, that Absalom plotted Amnon's death.
5. It was the failure of the king which motivated Absalom to take the law into his own hands. It was the malfunction of royal justice.
6. Because of polygamy and resultant sexual arrogance, David was a weak father.
7. The crown prince Amnon was his favorite, and he allowed his personal feelings to trump the law of the land. You cannot allow your personal feelings to overshadow your responsibilities of dispensing justice.
8. Personally plotting the murder of Amnon.
9. Malfunction of the king's justice does not justify what Absalom did. When Absalom entered into interlocking systems of arrogance and disobeyed the concept of justice and divine vengeance.. When you take vengeance into your own hands, heaven is not a reality to you; and you are choosing to take the law into your own hands.

Second Principle

1. He is not going to mention that Absalom maintained his honor and integrity until the king's justice failed. Jonadab is only feeding whatever information he believes will make him look good. You avoid people like this like the plague. Bob feels like he is talking to himself from time to time. Someone here went into another person's business and began to use his tools to repair his own car. "Do you know what that dumb bastard did?" "No, I don't, but I can guess." Jonadab spends his life building his happiness on other's unhappiness. Now he is building his happiness and promotion and success on the unhappiness of Absalom. So many people did not even learn basic manners at home. Manners ought to be taught at home for a reason. Those whole purpose of manners is to think of a woman as something wonderful, someone to live for and to die for. All basic manners teach the concept of the place of the ladies. In our society, the woman is on a pedestal.
- 2.
3. Absalom was an honorable man until he entered into interlocking systems of arrogance. He reacted to malfunction of the king's failure to administer justice. Absalom was an honorable man until he became bitter.
4. Absalom had no right to be bitter, since the Lord is the supreme court judge. God would have judged Amnon Himself. God would have stretched out punishment against Amnon for a longer period of time.
5. If Berachah Church has a few idiots, then it should not be surprising that heaven is filled with them. Amnon would have suffered a lot more. Absalom reject logistical grace rationale and failed with regards to Amnon. God kept him alive to punish him. You must faith rest when people wrong you. You must faith rest as a part of the logistical grace rationale. Do not interfere with divine justice. Never take revenge. Absalom fails under the 3 parts of the faith rest drill.

6. He failed to claim the promise of God.
7. He failed to apply the essence of God rationale and the justice of God is pertinent. He failed to recognize the justice of God rationale and its pertinency.
8. Instead of being in control of the situation, Absalom, in bitterness, entered into interlocking systems of arrogance. At this time, he was no better than Amnon his victim. The classical illustration is the horse thief being hung. He is a criminal and so are the vigilantes. People become criminals overnight by entering into interlocking systems of arrogance.
9. It is obvious that Jonadab is trying to make Jonadab look bad in the eyes of the king. Abigail is a magnificent woman. So was her son. They are never even considered. Kiliab is ignored. Absalom is the next one considered. Therefore, Jonadab must do everything he can to gain the attention of the king and then to find a weak sister in the family to manipulate and to appoint him crown prince.

Jonadab wants to be a king maker, and there are people like that. King makers, the power behind the throne, never have to take responsibility for anything which goes wrong, like the king or the president. They have no sense of responsibility. If they make a mistake, whoever is the ruler takes the blame. There are people like this in every large corporation. They make the policy for the business, and if it goes bad, the chairman of the board or the CEO takes the blame. It is a part of the old sin nature to make decisions for an organization and not having to take responsibility for them. Jonadab therefore hopes to gain favor by destroying the reputation of someone else.

Recognize if this is your weakness, recognize when you fall into this, and rebound it immediately. Bob admires the husband who allows his wife to go to church, and he may not even be a believer. He understands establishment and from it, he has capacity for love. That is thoughtfulness of someone besides yourself.

If Bob does not make you feel uncomfortable, then he is not doing his job. He is impervious to threatening looks; he enjoys them sometime and hopes something will come of it. There are a lot of Jonadab's in this life.

You are never successful if you build your success on the unhappiness of others. If you are unkind to those who work for you, God will probably see that you get a mean labor union in your periphery. You got just exactly what you deserve. You see it everywhere you turn. People who are unfair to employees. People who use others to get somewhere. Clark Gable married a Houston woman about 20 years older than him, and she started him in acting, paid for his acting lessons. Once he made it, he dumped her.

Jonadab, the son of Shimeah, tells David not to presume that all of his sons are dead.

2Sam. 13:32 But Jonadab the son of Shimeah, David's brother, said, "Let not my lord suppose that they have killed all the young men, the king's sons, for Amnon alone is dead. For by the command [mouth] of Absalom this has been determined from the day he violated his sister Tamar.

There is a jussive here. Do not let the king take it to heart this report that all of his sons are dead. This is an idiom for worry. Qal infinitive construct of amar, which can be used for thinking and assuming, rather than just to say.

Jonadab is not there in court by accident. This is consistent with his conspiratorial arrogance. Amnon should have been warned. It was Jonadab who started the false rumor in order to ingratiate himself.

Anything that does not come to you by hard work is not success. God intends for the human race to succeed through hard work, dedication and honor. Everyone wants it on a silver platter. Liberals want it handed to them on a platter.

2Sam. 13:33 Now therefore let not my lord the king so take it to heart as to suppose [lit., to say] that all the king's sons are dead, for Amnon alone is dead."

then there is a phrase in v. 34 which belongs here. "And Absalom fled." That is a part of what Jonadab is saying.

Jonadab Overdoes it

1. Like so many arrogant people, Jonadab has overdone it. He is overly confident here.
2. Jonadab has talked too much and has now betrayed himself. This final detail could only be known by someone who gathered the intelligence from on the scene. He obviously knew that this conspiracy to murder was going on, but he told no one. How does he know anything about this? He had a spy at the bbq.
3. Jonadab was dishonorable and disloyal. As the subject of a client nation, and as a subject to King David, he is dishonorable and disloyal. Integrity + loyalty = honor. There is loyalty which is fed by integrity. That loyalty is a virtue. If loyalty is in interlocking systems of arrogance or is in conflict with integrity, then that loyalty is evil. Evil loyalty destroys integrity and honor. Loyalty can be a virtue or an evil.
4. He failed to warn David about the plot and sought to use this conspiracy to advance himself. He was delighted that his friend, the crown prince, was dead. He could not even be counted on for a good conspiracy.
5. Inordinate arrogance + inordinate ambition = dishonor. In contrast, we see his brother as an honorable and alert guard doing his duty despite disaster.

Bob thinks that this officer on duty is Jonathan, Jonadab's brother.

No matter how great the disaster, there are always those who carry on. Sooner or later, faithful men with good value will be advanced. God always promotes those who are honorable. Faithful in the little things leads to success in the big things.

There is more to this verse which is not found in the KJV. This man is searching with his eyes, alert to what is going on. He is standing on a parapet facing a road going west. It is his job to watch that mountain. This officer is on duty and looking out, and it is his job to be faithful and keep his eye on what is going on. This man continues to do his job, no matter what the distractions are. We must be alert and we must carry on. No matter what bad news each day brings, we must carry on. There are people who should know better who no longer come to class. They are affected by disaster. Or they have fallen in love with someone on the outside. And then they peel off or they are inconsistent in their intake of Bible doctrine. This man is on the job and he remains alert, despite what is going on.

Discipline and duty orientation of the military makes it possible for these men to do their duty no matter what the political climate. Their job is the function in certain areas. It is always disastrous when the military of any client nation is involved with politics. All of our services must be divorced from politics. Politicians have used the military for social experiments. It is possible to give any minority a fair shake in the service. That minorities arrogant outside of the army are arrogant in the army as well. There are officers who have bent over backwards to make things work for these people. If you cannot make it in the army, you cannot make it in life. It is tragic that the experiment in sociology is taking place. Liberal, evil, dishonorable and without integrity. So while the army is not in politics, politics has attacked the military. The military man is to make do with whatever he has. Their job is to carry on, no matter who is the president or the vice president. It is still the duty of the police officer, firemen and the soldier to carry on and do their duty. They are not to be distracted by what goes on in the outside. Politics is to be the least important; these things demand personal integrity. This kind of a person can be hired by any company and he will do a great job. He has integrity. This is why the former president of Sears Roebuck hired every graduate from West Point (?). Churches can also not get into politics. The national council of churches gets involved in politics big time and many of our lousy policies are from them. It is very difficult to be in a service organization. They are underpaid, overworked and always unappreciated until this country becomes conservative in its thinking. The soldier will not be appreciated by the general public. It is imperative that we understand and appreciate the concept of service.

So this man is honorable and faithful in the little things. He is probably Jonadab's brother. He is doing his job as unto the Lord, and therefore has capacity for success.

2Sam. 13:34 But Absalom fled.” And the young man who kept the watch lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, many people were coming from the road behind him by the side of the mountain.

From the LXX:

2Sam. 13:34 *And Absalom escaped. And the watchman lifted up his eyes and looked; and behold, many people went in the way behind him from the side of the mountain in the descent. 631_0314

This is a Sunday morning.

Unknown hero in the RAF. He came up with the concept of convoying ships with bombers and made it possible for these ships to get through without casualties. Before WWII, democratic governments tend to spend too little on weapons, and they want to spend a lot of money on social welfare projects. They forget that the most important function of government is to keep its people free. We have no military with which to support the ludicrous foreign policy of Carter. We do not have personnel to man a warship taken out of mothballs. It requires 1500 trained technicians on a battleship, not to be found anywhere in the United States. Because of the antagonism toward the military establishment, the vanity and pride of the people of this country is degeneracy.

The arrogance complex corrupts man more than anything else. Our forefathers founded a nation where the government was not to have any power over free enterprise or over the states, which allowed our country to become great. We have lost all of this through arrogance; federal control and bureaucracy.

Crime out of control is a great contributor to revolution.

David's failure in jurisprudence was a major part in causing the revolution.

Bob chews out the ladies.

Back to v. 28: mules were used them for transport of royalty because of their stability and ability to deal with mountains and rough terrain.

And Absalom has fled belongs with the report of Jonadab to David.

There was a young guard on duty, and he is observant and on the job. Men are not mature until they are 40 and women when they are 30. Part of this is because we do not have universal military training. Happiness orientation and orientation to life. This guard is the brother of Jonadab, which is something Bob has determined. Jonadab started the rumor and then corrected the rumor. Jonadab had a spy at the ranch, and he went into operation, setting up a relay of horse riders, which brought him the information. He knew something was going to happen there. He knew Absalom anger; he recognized that.

2Sam. 13:34 But Absalom fled.” And the young man who kept the watch lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, many people were coming from the road behind him by the side of the mountain.

From the LXX:

Jonadab apparently timed this just so that he would be in the palace with David when the sons of David show up riding their mules.

Most military men are working 12–14 hours a day, 6 and 7 days a week, so this requires great dedication.

There is loyalty as an evil and loyalty as a virtue, and it all depends upon integrity. If integrity feeds loyalty, the loyalty is virtuous; if there is a conflict between loyalty and virtue, the loyalty becomes evil.

There is not honor or integrity to fulfill the constitution today. Our constitution requires honor and integrity on the part of every person.

The watchman is doing his work the hard way, honorably doing his duty. He is poised and alert. Jonadab is evil and conniving. Jonadab seeks promotion and reward while the young soldier is simply doing his duty without expectation of reward.

The guard officer comes in and tells David that there are a bunch of people coming down the mountainside. They are riding their mules at a breakneck speed down the mountain side and everyone of these princes wanted to be the first with the news to David. Perhaps they were thinking like Jonadab. They would gain the patronage of David, they think, if they tell him about Absalom and Amnon. Amnon is dead, so he is no longer first in line; and Absalom is out of the running because of his killing of Amnon.

2Sam. 13:34 And Absalom escaped. And the watchman lifted up his eyes and looked; and behold, many people went in the way behind him from the side of the mountain in the descent. And the watchman came and told the king, and said, I have seen men by the way of Horonaim, by the side of the mountain.

Jonathan was a great counselor, a scribe. If Jesus Christ does not promote you, you are not promoted. Faithfulness in the little things means being promoted to greater authority. You need that sense of integrity and sense of working hard and faithfulness.

Jonadab attempts one more time to con the king. “Check it out, just like I told you, so it happened.”

1. Interlocking systems of arrogance is characterized by inordinate ambition. Amnon, once he was in, was guilty of mental arrogance, with negative volition arrogance, with conspiracy arrogance, etc. God would have destroyed him, except for Absalom. Everyone wants to be appointed to a position of success without working up to it. People want rights today without earning them. The right of franchise, for instance. The franchise is limited to responsible people. Our forefathers limited voting to property owners and military men. Today, we have teens, college students, minorities who understand nothing of our country's history, etc. If Jimmy decided to declare war, Voters today are irresponsible. They vote emotionally or they vote for their own pocketbook. The 2 ladies who were not interested, the problem today is irresponsible men.

We are a nation of arrogant people. Our foreign policy is total arrogance and irresponsibility. Ambition versus inordinate ambition is the different between arrogance and humility. Eisenhower is a man of great humility and he came up through hard work. He had great personal moral courage. If Ike was in the last 2 terms of the WH, we would be 1000% better off. The job of the president is not where everything ought to be done. Executive decisions is not where everything is done. Ike had the courage to do nothing. By playing golf, he was one of the greatest presidents. Cal Coolidge was also a great president. His hobby was traveling.

Jonadab was seeking patronage of the king.

Most ministers try to be successful through conniving and trickery. Jonadab is a schemer and an intriguer. Those who take short cuts never find the right road. The wrong way to anything is to take a short cut. Jonadab does have great talent and ability, but it will never be used.

David's nephews were interesting, like Zeruah's nephews. But there is Jonadab. Jonathan and Joab are greater than any of David's sons. He found greater talent and ability in his 3 nephews. They followed the laws of establishment. They took in doctrine. They had the function of the honor code which is unbeatable in life. Those who take shortcuts never find the right road. Or if they get on the right road, they find themselves too far behind.

Jonadab is pointing out that he was right, and no one else was. Notice, I was right and everyone else was wrong.

Jonadab overplayed his hand. David recognizes that he is the schemer, that he could have stopped this murder, but he did not. Investigation as to the source of the rumor. Immediately, Jonadab mentioned to the king, just as I said, it has come to pass.

2Sam. 13:35 And Jonadab said to the king, "Behold, the king's sons have come; as your servant said, so it has come about."

The KJ is never accurate. This will be the last time Jonadab is mentioned. That means, he had no meaningful part in the history and government of Israel. David struck twice, but then hit. Amnon getting David to cause Tamar to feed him was the 1st strike; then the 2nd strike was Absalom asking for David to send all the bros up for a bbq.

A courtroom case when David forgot about the victim and decided to be nice to the criminal. This is why there are criminals on the street. When crime is encouraged, the next step is revolution. There was no revolutionary war in 1775; you cannot put that kind of spin on it. That was the first American war for independence. Second one was in 1860. Arrogant always accept more responsibility than they can handle. They do not know their own limitations. There is the legitimate power of free enterprise. We have all kinds of legitimate power, and this power is destroyed by arrogance.

Arrogance always fades under the concept, sic transit gloria munde; the Roman emperor in a great parade and prisoners captured would be in this procession, and he would go through the streets of Rome. However, there would be a man whispering this into his ear. "So the glory of the world passes away." This is one of Rome's greatest services. Someone should have stood next to Jonadab and whispered this into his ear as well.

Let's assume all the brothers have about the same talent and ability; one worked hard and he succeeded because of motivation and integrity. If you are able to con someone then you lose respect for that person.

The king's sons have lost their poise and they are hypocritical. Amnon is quite despised by his brothers. Interlocking systems of arrogance have destroyed his capacity for love and life. Many people destroy their own capacity for what they want in life. All of these things are denied if you lack the capacity.

These boys do not even take care of the mules. They have been on a 100 mile race, and not one of them sees to his own animal.

All of these young men are concerned about their place and who would be next in line. This was a power struggle. They each were trying to impress David, the only one with any power. Everyone is trying to impress David. He truly loved his son Amnon, and he may be the only one who did.

Crown prince is the heir apparent, the next in line. Amnon was the only pig bbq'ed on a Jewish ranch. David in arrogance is vulnerable to manipulation to delegating power to incompetent people. Then there are those who want to manipulate others; to be king-makers.

Many presidents have made bad decisions based upon bad advice. However, we only see the president; we have no idea who their advisor is.

The palace of David is in an uproar, only partially because of the death of Amnon; but mostly because his other sons are now jockeying to be next in line. Jonadab uses the rational approach and his other sons use the emotional approach.

Absalom leaves his ranch and crosses over the border into the Hurrian empire. Absalom has the greatest potential, but Solomon succeeded. He would succeed, fail and then succeed. The great people are some of his nephews, and Tamar; but not David's sons. They almost all suffer the tragic flaw, which could be David's inattention. He is a weak father, due to sexual arrogance. As a weak father, he failed to rule his family. As a weak father, David successfully ruled Israel. However, he was unable to control his family. Some men use brutal force to control their women, but that is evil. The secret to controlling a woman is having her love you. She must admire and respect you.

If all the conquests in the locker room are true...

David ruled the nation but he did not rule his family. If you allow your family to grow up without controlling them, then you must try to execute them. David did not control his wives or his mistresses or his children. For instance, you never allow a child to maltreat dogs or horses. "I don't think I'd get upset if someone maltreated a cat."

The maudlin scene of hypocritical lamentation is actually David reaping what David sowed. This is a result of David's own failure. Seeing all those grown men crying must have been disgusting. This is all put on; it is hypocrisy. David's grief is genuine. Every court, every bureaucracy, whose quest for power is divorced from hard work and honor. They substitute conspiracy, hypocrisy; just as the samurai bows and smiles and hates you; they are just as hypocritical.

David will transfer his affections to Absalom. Everyone hated Amnon, but only Absalom was willing to admit to his true feelings. David looks at these sons and realizes that he had raised a bunch of vain imbeciles. "There is only one honest son in the whole pack, Absalom." He will vacillate here. He will hate him on one day and make him his favorite the next. Before an arrogance hangover, David will fail dramatically. Only Absalom had the courage to do anything about it.

2Sam. 13:36 [And as soon as he had finished speaking, behold, the king's sons came \[arrived\] and lifted up their voice and wept. And the king also and all his servants wept very bitterly.](#)

2Samuel 13:36–37

When Berachah was built, there was nothing there. There was a drive in theater over Bob's shoulder. They built a sewer from Berachah to Richmond. Then the barracks and they put them into the sewer. So someone dug a big hole right there and poured thousands of pounds of cement for a foundation; and, for that reason, there is no sewage system at Berachah. Nursery and prep school will be temporarily closed, and we will give others the opportunity to stir the pot and see if we can get some action. 56:42 left.

We're not interested in selling Berachah Church. Bob has gone through one move with the church, and it was problematic, and doctrine was not nearly as important as geography (for son).

Back to v. 34. The sons of the king came in and wept with a great weeping.

The maudlin scene of hypocritical lamentation falls on David for his weakness as a father. David's grief is genuine, but the grief of his other sons is, at best, sympathetic; and, at worst, an attempt to gain David's favor. There are always a certain number of arrogant and ambitious people. These ingrates substitute conspiracy, hypocrisy, manipulation and deception for honesty. David will come to realize that all of his sons hated Amnon, but Absalom was the only person to express how he really felt. So David will rite off the others as failures. Only Absalom had the guts to do anything, and David loved Absalom for that. This is why David will come around to Absalom as his favorite.

The purpose of the Law is to provide freedom for everyone in the nation, and, at the same time, to protect from anarchy and vigilantism.

Bob is impressed with those who are able to cry at will or express great happiness, apropos to the situation, and to do this for some nefarious reason.

To know Amnon was to hate him, and these people weeping in the palace knew Amnon very well. It is not the tears which count, but the motivation behind the tears.

2Sam. 13:36 [And as soon as he had finished speaking, behold, the king's sons came \[arrived\] and lifted up their voice and wept. And the king also and all his servants wept very bitterly.](#)

4 Categories of Weeping in the Palace

People cry for a lot of reasons. Women cry to get their way. Some to get sympathy.

1. Those who mourn the death of Amnon, King David and his mother. This woman would be sad that she would lose her power and influence in the palace. She wept partially because he was such a fool and he is deserting her in this way.
2. Those who grieve for David and were mourning out of compassion and respect for David. This is a legitimate reason for grief. Rejoice with those who rejoice and weep with those who weep.
3. Those who are involved in interlocking systems of arrogance and were putting on a show to gain the favor of the king. That is illegitimate.
4. Those who were frustrated by the death of Amnon, which includes Jonadab.

Obviously, not all of this weeping is legitimate. In the 1st cycle of discipline, a lot of people will cry because they lose things. Others will cry because they are patriotic and they see their country as going under. Others will cry because their loved ones will be lost. We could be in the war by the end of this year and we will see our armed forces take great losses. Some wept when they saw the American flag being used for garbage. Some weep for selfish reasons and others for bonafide reasons.

Jonadab is in interlocking systems of arrogance. He weeps because there is no one to manipulate; no one to con; no victims who have power who will fall for his cons.

If you were to die tonite, would anyone truly weep for you? Would anyone miss you? Would anyone care? It is an awesome thought to think that you have lived in interlocking systems of arrogance and at your death, no one would care. There is no true friendship here. Imagine going through your entire life and never having a real friend.

Arrogance is not only weakness, but it is a place of being deceived. David has great power in the land, but his power has been used by others for evil schemes. Jonadab is trying to use David's power as the man behind the scenes, the advisor to the king.

Ritual without reality can be evil. Jonadab is crying, and it is due to frustration. His plan has not worked out the way he expected it to.

The scene of the weeping now changes to the flight of Absalom. Absalom flees and goes to his grandfather's kingdom.

Talmai means big in the Hurrian language. The Hurrians conquered India and gave it their caste system. They led a mercenary force which conquered Egypt, and for several dynasties, they were Hurrians and they ruled the Hyksos. They conquered Mesopotamia and had 2 dynasties there. 2 dynasties of the Hittites were actually the Hurrians. They are also called the Horites. They also conquered the Cassites, and ruled around the time of Hammurabi? They were one of the most famous groups of history.

Joseph dealt with the Hurrian ruler of Egypt, who ruled over the Hyksos. They were expelled by Amoses, and they moved to Edom? The horse and the chariot were brought to the Hittite and the Egyptians and anyone else who used it to their advantage. They are responsible in part for Akkadian culture. Partially responsible for the Babylonian language?

Nunzi tablets and the Mari tablets and those at Bogazcoey (Bogazköy (Hattusa)?) and other tablets. The Hurrians were not Armenians.

The invaded Persia and the Persians and the Medes may have originated from the Hurrians. It could be that even Cyrus the Great had Hurrian genes.

Absalom and Tamar are both half-Jewish and half-Hurrian. Absalom failed due to interlocking systems of arrogance. Even David did not have Absalom's potential (from human viewpoint). He was probably one of the most handsome men who ever lived. His ability and talent were destroyed by interlocking systems of arrogance.

Tamar stands head and shoulders over everyone else, but Nathan stood out as well and Beniah as well.

Arrogance is one of the most destructive forces in all history; more destructive than nuclear weapons or nerve gases. It is the greatest devastating power in angelic and human histories.

The Massoretic text seems to cover up the Hurrian origins. Ammihud is not correct. The King James has a d but it ought to be an r. The d would be Jewish and the r would be Hurrian. Ammichur is the correct rendering of this name.

They ruled over so many groups of people; a phenomenal ability to rule. Arrogance destroys the beauty of a person. Some of us may have great leadership characteristics, but arrogance destroys that ability and potential.

Maacah is descended from a great Hurrian royal family.

Absalom is completely safe. No Hurrian king ever ruled without a great military establishment. This did not have to be large; it was effective. David never even contemplated invasion. When Absalom crosses the Jordan River, he crosses over in interlocking systems of arrogance. He is secure and safe, but he has lost his potential for greatness. The murder of Amnon was not the function of law and justice, but the revenge of arrogance and vigilantism.

Absalom was a mature believer when he entered into interlocking systems of arrogance. David was about to reenter into interlocking systems of arrogance. Interlocking systems of arrogance destroys the greatest genius and talent. It destroyed Lucifer. He is the present ruler of the world. There are differences among angels; all angels are not equal. This same arrogance complex which destroyed Satan will destroy the great talent of Absalom. He is a great believer and he is still alive. He will have 3 years in his grandfather's kingdom and he could have used this time to recover, but he did not. He lost ground spiritually. He was isolated from doctrine. He was negative toward doctrine. He has become a bitter person. If you discover bitterness in any form in your thinking, you are in interlocking systems of arrogance.

Absalom is a believer and alive. He is alive, and inside interlocking systems of arrogance. His only hope resides in rebound, but there is no rebound, just like his father. Psalm 38 and 51 and another is all related to David being disciplined. Psalm 32 and 38 for David's rebound. He reached out and claimed promises. 2nd stage where he took a rationale from an imputation for all of his sins of Christ on the cross. He knew under the 3rd stage of the drill that his sins were forgiven and that he had the filling of the Holy Spirit. He made the correct doctrinal conclusion. He switches over. Once he is outside of interlocking systems of arrogance, where discipline becomes testing, and the issue is grace.

God divided it into 4 increments.

There are several years where cursing is turned to blessing. His greatest failure is in installment 3. In installment 4, David will raise up to greater heights than ever before. He will return to interlocking systems of arrogance and he can no longer function under cursing turned to blessing.

At this chapter, David will long for Absalom; and then later, in the next chapter, David will hate Absalom. Both father and son have great potentiality. David will recover; Absalom will never recover. David's greatest test is overcome; he will have no bitterness in his soul. His final 10 years of rule will be his greatest years. Bitterness is one of the easiest ways to enter into interlocking systems of arrogance.

When Bob would do marriage counseling, both couples were filled with bitterness, and it was just bitterness back and forth.

Through his own volition, no one ever gets into interlocking systems of arrogance by anyone else. You cannot blame anyone else. You can never blame anyone else for the greatest tragedy of entering into interlocking systems of arrogance.

Satan said, "I will be like the Most High God."

we know that Amnon is his favorite because there is not parallel to the death of Uriah the Hittite and Amnon, unless David truly loves his son. The culmination of David's discipline will be the loss of Absalom.

David and His Sons and His Blindness

1. You have to ask a question; how could David mourn for Amnon if he is a vile person? Interlocking systems of arrogance destroy capacity for love and they blind one to certain categories of truth. Amnon was not an evil person to David. David was blind to Amnon's failures.
2. Amnon was the firstborn and David's favorite. David never knew what any of his sons were really like until Solomon;
3. Sexual arrogance results in being a poor father, and part of David's failure was the weakness of his inability to see his sons for what they are. "Can't these parents see how terrible their children are?" Of course they are blind because they are in interlocking systems of arrogance.
- 4.
5. Actually, David had a truly wonderful son named Chileab or Daniel, but he was blind to Chileab's greatness and virtues just as he was blind to Amnon's evil. He was great due to his mother Abigail.
6. David was a genius, but weak in areas of blindness. In subjectivity, you will be filled with blind spots for people.
7. It is interesting to note, that out of all of David's children, Tamar turned out to be the best. He had 2 generations of children. The second generation had Nathan.
8. Absalom and Solomon had great potential; and they both entered into interlocking systems of arrogance. Absalom lost the throne and Solomon almost destroyed Israel. He became a king as a mature believer, but he then almost destroyed Israel in arrogance.

Bob thinks we will need to review the interlocking systems of arrogance soon.

2Sam. 13:37 [But Absalom fled and went to Talmi the son of Ammihud \[actually, Ammichur\], king of Geshur. And David mourned for his son day after day.](#)

We will solve the mystery of the sewer in about 24 hours. Thanks to some good contacts, the entire problem was solved within 12 hours.

Bob goes back to v. 34–36: And Absalom escaped. And the watchman lifted up his eyes and looked; and behold, many people went in the way behind him from the side of the mountain in the descent. And the watchman came and told the king, and said, I have seen men by the way of Horonaim, by the side of the mountain. And Jonadab said to the king, Behold, the king' sons are present: according to the word of your servant, so has it happened. And it came to pass when he had finished speaking, that behold, the king's sons came, and lifted up their voices and wept; and the king also and all his servants wept with a very great weeping.

There is another separation as important of that between church and state; and there is another separation which is just as important, which is the separation of business and state. The recognized that the prosperity of a nation depended upon the function of free enterprise. The state must not interfere with legitimate business. As long as they were not committing crimes, they had a right to function. This was made a part of the Bill of Rights. Free enterprise means that the federal government has no right to interfere with the function of business, which includes taxing and regulating business and destroying business. Some of our boards and departments have no interest apart from destroying business.

The government tries to control prices and inflation by the printing press. They print money. They have declared themselves as the only legitimate source of printing money. Its value is based upon the paper it is printed and the artwork on it. The government is responsible for all inflation. They say, we must solve the inflation problem, and so they print more money. As there is more money in circulation, prices and interest rates are increased. The only law which really works is the law of supply and demand. Goods and services do not go up; prices might. Today the iron curtain is truly an iron curtain. It is the actual difference between two systems. Behind the iron curtain, there is no free enterprise. Only the function of free enterprise countries keep communism alive. Hoover extended the life of the communists.

East and west German. East German is a collapsing economy and West Germany functions under free enterprise. There is no taxation there are no windfall profits.

The Dark Ages is when the Roman Catholic Church was the state. However, we are going to enter into another Dark Ages if the government steps in to destroy free enterprise. The union of government and business. This is the basis of all communist countries. A state run business is the worst-run and sloppiest run business. We ought to have a 3 cent stamp again. The government ought to operate in the black constantly with that. But our government cannot run in the black with a 15 cent stamp. We face today, a new Dark Ages. It is not the Roman Catholic Church playing God, but the government playing God.

The federal reserve is often blamed for economic problems, but the fault is with Congress. The federal government performs the function of destroying our freedoms. Big business is not responsible for inflation or the energy crisis. This is Congress. We elect people to these various governmental branches. They create their own bureaus and some or all of them are vampires. They must live on money and they must suck it from the people. We have cancelled out our republic by adding too many people to the franchise to vote, like lowering the voting age to 18. No college student ought to vote. College is an age of insanity. Because of interlocking systems of arrogance, because of national arrogance, maturity begins for the woman around 30 and for the man about 40.

Government is our tyranny. We have a vampire. It is not their fault that they are there; it is our fault. The government has created a huge number of vampires. Thousands of dollars are used to discover the mating habits of ants, etc. These vampires suck our money and they create money, which is playing God.

Sir Thomas Lipston is an example of rising to the top. There is nothing which sets up a limit on us. Our system is Anglo-Saxon in culture, no matter what color anyone is. We have 2 sources of our culture, the Word of God and the Shire Moot. As long as believers stay out of the interlocking systems of arrogance, the client nation, whether a republic or a monarchy, what destroys England and the US is exactly the same; it is the arrogance of the people and, therefore, the arrogance of the government.

Political arrogance is destroying our government. Now, we have the problem of the union of government and business, which is every bit as tyrannical as the union of church and state. Our founders limited the federal government and the state legislature. The state has the right to overrule the federal government; but that has been turned around. Today, if there is not a concerted effort to write more tickets for over 55 mph, then the federal government will withhold funds from us.

All of this adds up to our subject, which is national arrogance, which comes from personal arrogance. That comes from erroneous, inaccurate thinking. Arrogance is thinking what is false is true and vice versa. You are not arrogant because of what you do, but because of what you think. We are not arrogant because we walk with our heads high, but we are arrogant because we think with false doctrine. Liberalism is the rejection of Bible doctrine. Arrogance comes from thought and not posture. Command poise is not arrogance. MacArthur was called arrogant, but he just stood tall, had a good vocabulary and spoke with authority; that is not arrogance. Arrogance is a mental attitude. It is demonstrated by the 2 people who just walked out. Arrogance is talking in class; arrogance is standing up and walking out because they do not like what is being taught. When you run a red light and argue with the police officer, that is arrogance. There was a time when no one would do this. Even people in Berea Church will do this when listening to a liberal. It may be a church or a classroom, but we do not have the right to disrupt. The arrogance of the University of Texas disrupting the talk of an Iranian official. They think they have the right to disrupt any speaker that they disagree with.

When you walk into a business, you do not walk into a business and start fooling with someone else's tools to fix your car. That is arrogance.

We will end with political arrogance. Because of that, we will suffer as never before; good people will die. You will say many times, "Is this the United states of America? Is this the home of the free?"

Principle of interlocking systems of arrogance

Mental arrogance. Arrogance is a thought; we call that thought pride, and it is the basic mental attitude sins. It is the first anti-God thought in all of history, when Satan said, "I will be like the Most High." From this thought came a decision. God created Lucifer the son of the morning, along with all angelic creatures, but he had a thought of arrogance. Arrogance rejects all forms of authority. I will is a decision; it is a thought. Thought and decision then leads to action. Arrogance is primarily thought and it is always through by way decisions are made. Like the 2 people who got up and moved out. That is an arrogant attitude. Everywhere we turn, the justice of God holds us responsible for our decisions. The action of arrogance, like being rude, disrupting a business, putting someone else down. The action comes with a thought. All arrogance is a thought. Everything else is a result. God has set up a system of authority for all people. It is called the laws of divine establishment. From God comes a system of authority spiritual. Arrogance always accepts your own freedom but rejects the freedom of others. Arrogance reject the authority of the pastor and undermines it; same with the law. There is a social authority. Husband over the wife and parents over the children. In effect, arrogance says I am more important than God; for I am God. Since arrogance begins as a thought, the thoughts related to arrogance are mental attitude sins. A person can wrong you or allegedly wrong you, but you are the loser for being inside of interlocking systems of arrogance. This makes you a loser in the capacities for life.

Bob thinks that maybe he made a mistake with RM/RW, but there are those who just use this doctrine to rationalize their lust and desires or whatever. You can have discovered your RM or RW, but arrogance eliminates your capacity to appreciate them. If you have no capacity for love, then what good is it to find your RW? She becomes just another punching bag. If your RW or RM is there, without capacity, then RW becomes WW. Arrogance converts a RW into a WW. It took Bob all of this time to figure out where he went to distort. But David kept thinking, the next mistress or the next wife will be the right one. In sexual arrogance, he did not have the capacity for love. Abigail and Maacah were wonderful women, but David was unable to appreciate them. How could any of his many wives or many more be his RW if David was inside interlocking systems of arrogance.

Getting out of interlocking systems of arrogance is much more important than who your RM or RW are. No such thing as a RM or a RW when one lacks capacity. This is why it appears that Bathsheba was David's RW. She is the mother of both lines of Jesus Christ, the one coming down through Joseph and the one coming down through Mary. David, after Bathsheba became pregnant, there was a time that David just ignored her. David was moving from criminal arrogance to psychopathic arrogance. If you have more than 1 woman, then you do not have your RW. What makes a person polygamous? Of what makes a man chase women? Lack of capacity. As long as a man is arrogant, there is no RW for him; and the woman cannot find her RM if he is lost in a mass of arrogance.

We are in a time of national arrogance; it is no longer just a few. The glorious days of they got married and lived happily ever after have almost disappeared.

Why do most marriages turn into a debators society? RM + arrogance + RW + arrogance = a bad marriage. Bring in the arrogance factor and you have ruined your marriage. This is why homosexuality is arrogance; why incest is arrogance; homicide is arrogance; etc. The major cause of crime is arrogance. Bob can almost see in his recent studies that arrogance is almost a synonym for the sin nature. Once you start rejecting authority, you do so because you react to those who are in authority. You must regard authority as a system. You will always have conflict in life.

Bob has a test, and they are all dressed alike, and you interview them, and you pick out those with authority. Those with authority are those you should respect. You can still run an organization with arrogant people, but you need a good system, which imposes a system of authority on everyone.

The company commander who tries to buddy up with everyone; he's had it. This person will never make it as a leader. He is using his authority to be popular. Example of a person who was a pastor who wanted everyone to like him. He had great ability to communicate with a great personality, but arrogance destroyed his ability to communicate.

Psalm 10:2–4 all conspiracy is arrogance; it seeks to set aside authority and set up a false system of power. Criminal arrogance has maligned the Lord. Prov. 16:18. Before a fall, there is arrogance of life. Arrogance is the basic sin; it rejects authority and doctrine (which is authority). Be informed by the truth, but do not be distracted.

Thought depends upon self-determination. There is no lack of fuel by which the mind functions. Once you reject any form of truth, establishment, the gospel or Bible doctrine, it is like pouring sugar into your gas tank. Sugar is false doctrine. Sugar is liberalism; sugar is socialism; sugar is man by man's efforts attempting to solve man's problems. False thinking is very bad for the soul and inevitably produces false thinking. The human mind cannot think in life apart from truth. Arrogance results in irrationality. Arrogance results in resenting the ability of others. Arrogance distorts truth and distorts it; but never approaches it with objective reverence. Arrogance resents all that arrogance destroys.

The arrogant assumes that his sufferings are greater than the plan of God. He assumes that his taboos are greater than the filling of the Holy Spirit. He depends upon emotion. Thought is the energy of objective thinking. Emotion moves in and takes over. God gave us emotion for happiness. The arrogant person thinks that his feelings and emotions are greater than any system or authority.

2Samuel 13

interlocking systems of arrogance 72David

631_0317

Bob does not care whether we disagree or not. However, we need to disagree with poise and in silence. If you don't like what is being taught, then don't come. Bob gives the rules.

A fluctuation of standards is a part of growing up. Most people get married between ages 20 and 30. Whomever you marry, if it is a success, then it is luck. Or grace. Some people stay in a state of flux all of their lives. Women mature more quickly than men; and they have a larger vocabulary than men because they have a less bawdy language than men. They use more euphemisms. And they grow up more quickly physically and mentally. Who she likes at 20 will think he is ridiculous age 30...unless she married him.

A person who does not take responsibility for their own decisions is arrogant and irresponsible. The principle of RM/RW depends upon a lot of factors. If they are minus maturity, that means their standards are still in flux. If they are both immature, the marriage is a bust. RM + arrogance and RW + arrogance, the marriage is a failure. You need humility for a successful life.

Bob was thinking about Bobby and military service, and how they do their job with dedication to a principle. Some of you young people jump from job to job for more pay. Often you lose out because the best jobs and best industries pay less. Because you have your eye on the dollar rather than the organization, you make a terrible mistake.

You may have the wrong standard applied. The law will be distorted in Israel in the next chapter. The law of heritage will supercede the divine establishment laws. When people become arrogant, they fall into emotional revolt. They live by their emotions. If you overestimate your value by arrogance, and you spend your youth jumping from job to job; you are failing to look at things from the standpoint of integrity.

The army trains men; and it takes nearly a million at this time to train a pilot. Some just move on after they have been trained.

Roger Stalbach has marvelous motivation. He came out of the Naval Academy out of shape and was back into shape in 1 year. Arrogance is the overestimation of what you think you are worth.

Bob mentions that tool thing again. Whenever inflation becomes a reality, young people are offered jobs in terms of pay, and they forget that they have responsibility to the company which trained them. Doing that often begins a lot of instability. They are often leaving behind their integrity and their scale of values. The company does not say that you must stay; it is your integrity which would dictate that. Whatever the pay difference is, it is not worth it.

We may have neglected right employee, right company; right friends and wrong friends. Friendships ought to be based upon integrity and not on emotion. Some of your best friends may not be very attractive.

Arrogance is the greatest enemy of mankind; the system by which we have undercut our talents and abilities. Arrogance is the enemy of spiritual growth. Pride rejects spiritual growth.

If the person who teaches doctrine does not cover your favorite taboos, you don't think he is doing his job. The guilt syndrom; the ability to produce guilt in someone. The classical illustration of the woman who feigns illness when she is crossed by her family. This is how they she keeps everyone in line. Or the baby male who tries to make his gf feel guilty or feel sorry for him. People are manipulating people by producing a guilt complex in them. They harp on a subject until you develop a guilt complex. The power of arrogance to manipulate is almost beyond description. The preacher who is dissatisfied with his crowd (not enough there). Then he tries to make everyone feel guilty. So everywhere you turn is manipulative power that one person uses against others. This is the power of the weak over the strong. A weak boy (age 20 or 30 or 40) pushes guilt onto others.

Balderdash and Malarkey manipulate Bob. They guilt him for having to go teach.

The anti-establishment syndrom. Frustrated pride unleashes all of the arrogance. When pride comes, then comes dishonor, but with the humble comes wisdom. A man's pride will bring him low. There are a lot of husbands whose wives to to Berachah but they do not. Humility is necessary for honor and integrity.

Gate 2 negative volition arrogance; scar tissue of the soul arrogance. The mental attitude sin of pride rejects doctrine in 2 forms: person and content. There is the person who communicates Bible doctrine and the message. Some are arrogant and they do not like the way the material is presented.

People resent rabble rousing; but some prefer the low key approach. However, no matter what method is used, there is always someone who rejects the pastor's personality. When people are not objective, you cannot properly evaluate the content.

All Bible teaching must be accomplished in the power of the Spirit. Negative volition arrogance. This is the only gate which coincides with reversionism. Absalom is a mature believer when he entered into interlocking systems of arrogance through gate 1. Once you are in the system, you are vulnerable to the other gates.

David never suffered from negative volition arrogance. He was never negative toward Nathan coming to him. Even in interlocking systems of arrogance, he listened to Nathan. There are many believers who enter as mature believers, and many who enter in as babies; but David retains an interest in Bible doctrine.

Absalom goes into interlocking systems of arrogance, and his problem is negative volition arrogance. He is in the last few stages of reversionism. However, he turns against doctrine. He has beautiful thick hair. However, he has become very vain about this marvelous hair. He would let it grow for a year in between cuts. Absalom had become a hippy.

There is a tree and his mule goes under the branches, and the tree grabs him. He dies because his hair is too long. They don't have afros in Africa. They have fabulous haircuts there. Long hair is a rejection of authority; such a person is a submissive person. He is arrogant and weak.

There are barbers in the congregation, so Bob suggests that they set up in the foyer and to have people come forward. This gate crosses reversionism. This is where they intersect. Reversionism is degeneration?

Gate 3 is impulsive arrogance. The abuse of authority which you possess legitimately. Like a husband abusing his authority over his wife. Or you have no authority, but you develop power through the guilt system, and therefore, you manipulate. Some people are great until they get a little authority, and then they abuse this authority tremendously. Impulsive arrogance occurs when the believer uses his authority just to advance himself.

You may not agree with the volunteer army, but no one is asking you. If the policy is the volunteer policy, then you make it work from your level of command. You are to be professional.

If you work for a company, and they have a purpose and a policy, then that is what you follow, whether you agree with it or not. You are not free to undermine.

As a husband, you have authority over one woman, which means you have responsibility, and the purpose and policy is stated in the Word of God. You cannot abuse the woman or use her as a punching bag. In marriage, you get your way by your wife's respect and/or love for you. It comes from being fair and just.

When you have authority, you ask yourself, what is the source of your authority. It has a purpose and a policy. If you disagree, and they will listen, then state it. If they reject it, it should not change your motivation and function. You work for a car company or a dealership, you may not agree with some of the policies. Your job is to sell cars, and not to agree or disagree. If they are dishonest, then get out, but it is not your job to undercut them. You don't get to stay in the organization and run them down. You have a right to leave Berachah; but you do not have the right to undercut it while you are here. You do not have the right to be conspiratorial and run down the church or pastor. I never invited any of you here. If you are prepared, the Lord will provide the hearers. You came of your own free will; Bob did not drag you in here. You are not free to undermine his authority.

Gate 4 is institutional arrogance; this is disorientation to life; a church, a club, a business. There are all kinds of clubs at Berachah. We don't sponsor any of them. There are all kinds of legitimate organizations; clubs, businesses, institutions; but you have to watch for 2 things: institutional arrogance, that the organization cannot get along without you; and you have to avoid the conclusion that you are carrying the organization. In addition to that, there are 2 categories of institutional arrogance. There are those who succeed and those who do not. Each can be arrogant. One thinks he is just great and the other thinks the organization is holding him back. But your responsibility is to fulfill the purpose and policy of that organization. Arrogance can reject the authority of the boss or the policy. The purpose is to be followed. Institutional arrogance rejects one or more of the systems.

The greatest problem in coaching is to control arrogance. The greatest problem with an athlete is arrogance. Some who succeed become very arrogant about it. Very similar to a believer who achieves spiritual maturity.

Professional organizations; school systems; police force. There is a young man writing articles about arrogance in a police magazine. A good police officer has good manners and he has poise. However, with street people, he has to change his attitude and get tough, because they only understand toughness. Start out and get the facts; and then, if you have to, get tough.

Engineers are generally humble about 2 things: English and spelling. However, being great in other fields is a temptation to be arrogant about that. There seems to be a considerable amount of arrogance in the entertainment industry. Many talented people appear to be arrogant.

You don't have to be talented to be arrogant; you only have to be arrogant to be arrogant. That's my knuckleball.

Rejects authority, policy and purpose of the organization and attaching more importance to self than to the organization; that is institutional arrogance.

2Samuel 13

72David

631_0318

If you are ill, then get up and move with alacrity. There are a number of people who have the vampire tradition. The Transylvanians, the Slavs, Croatians. The vampire illustrates for us arrogance. Such people are unstable and inside interlocking systems of arrogance. The vampire comes from the grave, in the second place. There is no capacity for life or for love or for happiness. The vampire only functions at night, and the arrogant live in a state of unreality. When the light of doctrine comes their way, they disappear or disintegrate. Many of the concepts of the vampire are erroneous and untrue. The vampire appearing to be attractive is similar to the politician in political arrogance. The fifth concept is the sucking of blood, which illustrates many types of arrogance, like living off of others. The blood can be analogous to a bunch of things. The government taking our tax money and then using it against us. The vampire looks in the mirror, but does not see himself. The arrogant person does not see himself as he really is. The vampire is defeated by the use of the cross, which symbolizes Christianity. The vampire must return to his grave at daylight. They cannot stand truth or doctrine.

We will see a lot of vampirism in this coming election. Arrogance complex is unstable and undependable.

None of us will be totally free from pressure to enter into the arrogance complex.

In the next chapter, the woman from Tekoa will act out a scenario written by Joab? It is one thing to learn doctrine; it is another thing to apply it. We have a certain amount of suffering in order to apply doctrine. We will get a certain number of tests by which application is possible.

When people leave Berachah, as far as Bob is concerned, are dead. There are people who cannot apply what they learn in Berachah, although they can recite a few things accurately.

Absalom never recovered and he could never apply doctrine. When you enter into degeneracy by one of the 13 gates, the source of all arrogance is your thinking.

Creates false standards, which act like barnacles on a ship. The problem of blind arrogance. All arrogant people are hypocrites. The person who says, I am not a hypocrite. I get drunk and I sleep around. I don't pretend to do anything different. If you say something, they say, "And you are a bad person because you are judging me."

What arrogance cannot stand is to be proven wrong in his own backyard. Salvation by works and spirituality by works are examples of blind arrogance. There are standards to indicate what sin is, what arrogance it, and what virtue and honor are. Each person must live his life as unto the Lord and allow others the privacy of doing the same.

There is marriage, where the husband owns 100% of the stock. Bob will not do a wedding where the father of the bride stands up and says, "Her mother and I do" [give her away].

Bob lists poor reasons to get married. Such a woman will never truly submit to the authority of her husband. Bob never saw a woman who, when she wanted something badly enough, turn into the greatest actress in the world.

Blind arrogance often includes sincerity as a front. It is sincerity that many see as a virtue, but it is a facade for hypocrisy. Included in this group are the holy roller Pentecostal types. Intense people tend to be very arrogant and have no idea that they are. If you told them that, they would be crushed.

The gift of tongues has not been operational until A.D. 70. Since the Jews were to be the evangelists and the missionaries, the principle and purpose of tongues has disappeared. It has been brought up again as an erroneous gift. The plan of God depends upon God; He uses us when we are useable. When we are not usable, then we are usually under some system of discipline. The person who speaks in tongues thinks his experiences are more important than anyone else.

A woman went home and had a grievance with her husband and she told him if he did not stop doing things, he would go to hell. Bob told him, "Tell her she is going to hell if she doesn't stop nagging and burning the toast." She was suffering from blind arrogance. She was using doctrine. You do not manipulate people by throwing doctrine at them. That is the ministry of God the Holy Spirit. That is an invasion of privacy. However, if someone is in authority, they have the right to tell you what to do. If the husband sets down the policy, then that is how it goes. There are certain authorities in life. The police officer says you were speeding, don't argue with him; take it. There are many ways of being arrogant without thinking about it. Blind arrogance is always a form of self-centeredness. It always relates to what you do. It becomes the irrational conclusion that the plan of God has failed because you fail. Most of us have been exposed to false teaching; it all depends upon me.

Bob tells about the Britisher with the broad accent who said, "It all depends upon me." Then he looked heavenward, maybe for his next line; it didn't come, so he said, "It all depends on me." God does not need our help. The book of Galatians is an excoriation of false standards. Just because people are friendly, that does not mean that a person is in love with you. That is arrogance. Blind arrogance is a few dates is a declaration of love.

It is amazing how your standards change. When you bully others to accept your standards, that is arrogance.

Personality Arrogance

1. In blind arrogance, a self righteous person dominates a group of believers with his own brand of legalism.
2. An offshoot of this is personality arrogance; the dominant personality. This does not mean that the dominant personality is arrogance. He uses his personality to dominate a group; that he can be a dominator or a manipulator. The arrogant type takes charge through a dominant personality. However, there are those who use manipulation.
3. False standards are set for the group rather than Bible doctrine. In Berachah, you will meet people, and some may be your life long friends. Some assume that everyone inside these doors are close to God. No thoughtful person would ridicule you because you rejected doctrine, made a mistake, and then came back. The dominant personality may decide the pastor is not putting it together, or is not good on this or that; or you are bored with this or that. It is easy to decide the pastor has no longer put it together or he is coasting or whatever. You are distracted from doctrine because someone has made you the object of their personality arrogance. Personality is not the issue. You can have any sort of personality. The key is when you use your personality to dominate or manipulate. He must avoid allowing personal opinion to take precedence over doctrine.

Whenever you find yourself in disagreement with the pulpit or what you read in the Bible; just set that bone aside. Don't call up the pastor every time you come across something you don't understand or don't agree with. Eventually, all of these questions will be answered and you will have new questions. There are always new questions and problems; you never get away from the bones. No such thing as a pastor who fillets all of his fish.

Matt. there were labor unions in the ancient world. They were often called something else. They had bargained with management for 12 hours of work. Jesus Christ is teaching grace. He uses the labor unions as an illustration of blind arrogance. There was a shortage of labor for the harvest and management already hired the union. There was open shop so you could hire scab labor. One denarius was a very good wage; probably $500/day for today's economy. Other estimate much lower to 20 cents. The owners would go into the market place and hire nonunion. At each break, he would go out and hire some people. The non-union crowd accepted whatever management set up. You start at whatever time and get paid whoever management determines. Some are hired to work 9 hours, another at 6 hours and another at 3 hours. Only the union crowd made a deal; the nonunion did not make a deal. They went out and helped in the harvest. They all go by and get paid, and each man gets paid a denarius. Even those who started at 5 and got off at 6. Management can set up whatever policy that they want, because it is their money. Management provides the capital. The union did not like this. They began to complain; as if management does not have the right to do this. Jesus Christ follows the laws of divine establishment. The union was on a contract and management honored this contract. Regardless of why, they have a right to do it. Equal wages does not make people equal. Are you jealous because I am generous? Matt. 20:16 Therefore, the last will be first. And the first will be last. In addition to salvation, those without growth get resurrection bodies. Nothing else. It never occurred to the labor union that nonunion could get paid more.

People in blind arrogance often tell others how to run their business. Blind arrogance can be devastating. You can go a year out of fellowship in blind arrogance without knowing that you are.

2Samuel 13      interlocking systems of arrogance      72David      631_0319

Many people in life feel inadequate about something or another. This way, they avoid interlocking systems of arrogance. It is the jealousy factor which indicates immediately that the arrogance complex is involved. Instead of trying to improve himself in that field, he just tries to destroy the one who has achieved. The attempt of the inadequate to destroy the achievers. There is a certain feeling of inadequacy, so he will try to put the other person on a lower scale than himself. A sense of inadequacy in a person who is jealous or vindictive or implacable or filled with hatred, this leads to an arrogance reaction?

Weep with those who weep and rejoice with those who rejoice; the point is, you are delighted when others succeed.

The more decorations the other officers received, the greater their motivation. People, when someone else is given a compliment or things are good, they will go out of their way to destroy them.

#6 is conspiracy arrogance. There will be those who you shoot with who will be delighted that you do well; and those who hate you for it. Conspiracy arrogance comes about because you are arrogant, you are implacable, you are jealous. You cannot have conspiracy arrogance and, at the same time, capacity for happiness or life or love. If you have capacity for love, you are delighted for other people who are your friends. Conspiracy arrogance becomes eventually the function of a group called the mutual admiration society. It is composed of 2 categories: the arrogant and the inadequate. In this conspiracy, there will be an attitude toward authority. Arrogant and inadequate have 2 different attitudes toward authority. The arrogant resents authority because he thinks he is better. The inadequate thinks the authority is they have an illegitimate grievance or gripe against authority. When they have a common enemy, they combine into a conspiracy. . the conspiracy is formed through a mutual antagonism toward authority or towards someone who has achieved. Informing the mutual admiration society, the arrogance is the strong personality; one rejects authority and the other despises authority. Inadequate overestimates his value to the organization. The combine forces to fulfill principle of the weak attacking the strong. It is not true that opposites attract. They only attract under abnormal circumstances. Opposites distract; those who marry who are opposite, often what happens is, one person was trying to marry the other out of spite for someone else. At some point, the attraction Psalm 12:2–4 states the principle. They speak with a lip of flattery, with a double standard. Conspiracies always use some sort of verbal sin to move along their little conspiracy. “Who is the authority over us.” A mutual attitude of dislike and antagonism.

Criminal arrogance, which finds its root in arrogance. It is the total acceptance of one’s self-centeredness and one’s own authority over all else. They are playing the greater gain. The criminal is categorized as a sociopath as well as pathological liar. He will use violence to attain his objectives and he thinks he is more clever than anyone else. He gives lip service to the authorities that he encounters, but he hates them in his soul. Since the criminal mind disrespects all authority, he is an enemy of the state. Some criminals accept Christ, but they hide their presence, some of them do, by merging in with a group like this.

Conversion does not change the criminal, even if he believes in Jesus Christ. This means no change unless the criminal accepts the authority of the Word of God and the person who teaches it. The criminal has the Lord to contend with and society in general. The only escape from criminality is the doctrinal one. All that the criminal can do is respect spiritual authority, and this is rare. The criminal faces the greatest issue of his life.

The criminal may go along with some teaching he hears, but if a doctrinal principle cuts the rug from under him, then he might turn against the person teaching. At some point, he will come across doctrine that he disagrees with and he will then rebel against the authority teaching it.

There is no such thing as psychological recovery from criminality. Psychology can do nothing for the criminal. The criminal uses the psychologist; the psychologist does not cure the criminal. The foolish psychologist is impressed by his curing or a criminal, and the criminal is sent back into society to continue his life of crime. The only hope is conversion and doctrine. Criminality is rejection of authority. Any recovery and any normal living depends upon acceptance of authority. Criminal arrogance means that the criminal only accepts his own authority. The criminal learns to disguise his true feelings.

If there was a group with some criminals, you might not be able to pick them out. They can put on a facade of sweetness and light and good manners. He will not change apart from doctrine. If he appears to be positive toward doctrine, he can use the church as a hideout.

He uses authority and what is acceptable to society. The great criminals have the best facade and know how to hide their true feelings.

The criminality is an environmental matter has been disproved by Samsonov and Yokelson. They are not unpleasing personalities, not until you cross them. The criminal accepts no authority and you do, so he will figure out how to manipulate you. He will not hang out if he cannot use you. Once you allow a criminal to take on your interests, you may stand up for him and the criminal has conned you. You will get this even in a movie and you can be conned by the movie into rejecting the law, judges or police. Take away the police officer and the next thing you know, we have anarchy.

The criminal accepts no authority but his own. He can make the authority you accept look bad and make himself look good. He always made everyone think the sergeant was bad when he did something to you. If you have a platoon or a battalion, you have to deal with this sort of thing. Criminals do more than rob and steal and rape and kill. Their biggest function is to make friends with you, so that, when they are prosecuted by the law, you are their friend. You may look back and recognize how you have been conned, and you say, "What an ass I was." That is some objectivity. There has always been some gangsters who were friends with the movie crowd. They were the best dressed and smoothest manners; slick. They always had an influence. Some went to jail and some were shot, and they would make movies glorifying the gangsters, making the local police officer to be a jackass.

Bob and his being picked up by the police for messing things up on Halloween. Bob's dad made it clear that these police were doing their job. He explained how these men represent the law, which protects your privacy and property.

Just because there are a few bad apples, this does not mean that we do away with the law. The best criminals are smart and are good con artists and are slick.

Not everyone who builds you up is your friend; not everyone who says nice things to you is your friend.

#8 is crusader arrogance, and inside they are as different as 2 people can be. The crusader is running around trying to do a lot of good. The criminal is trying to enrich himself at the expense of humanity. However, they are very much the same underneath. The person who guarantees a chicken in every pot. The criminal is anti-authority, and so is the crusader. In crusader arrogance, the motivation is self righteousness. The criminal goes in for self-enrichment, the crusader goes in for self righteousness. The criminal is bitter toward society and so is the crusader, but for different reasons. The criminal is bitter because society wants to put him away. The crusader is bitter because the society is not doing what it is supposed to do.

A conservative might react against a liberal government for not doing what it is supposed to do. That leads to revolution. When crusades get out of control, that also leads to revolution.

In the French Revolution, one guy was a nice guy, Lafayette, but he hooked up with Marat, who was evil, which led to a revolution. Revolution can come from a nice place as well. By taking the law into one's own hands, violence breaks out.

The crusader + the criminal = terrorism. A lot of PLO types are both crusaders and criminals. They both have a common enemy. The crusader is arrogant and the criminal is arrogant. They combine and form a conspiracy on society. There are many interpretations of the Communist revolution. Trotsky was a crusader and Lenin was a criminal. After the revolution was on its way, the criminal bumps off the crusader. He no longer needs him; Lenin killed Trotsky.

When Lafayette realized he would be killed, he got away.

The USA has a government made up of some crusaders and some criminals. The Bible has its own terms. We have destroyed many nations and we are paying Marxist governments millions of dollars. He is so pleased with the Nicaraguan revolution and the Rhodesian takeover, that he is sending them millions. Carter is in over his head.

The liberals in this country are often crusaders. Woodrow Wilson was a crusader. He made it possible for the Communists to keep going. All you need is crusaders + criminals and you have a revolution; it takes both.

Trevor Howard played in a movie that Bob cannot get; he was a crusader trying to save the elephants. Many criminals saw him and manipulated him. A bunch of communists hooked up with him, and pretty soon the French and there is a revolution and terrorism.

This prostitute in Africa never met a man who was incorruptible and then she met this crusader who wanted to save the elephants. He did not want to use her. That impresses her and she falls in love with him. As a crusader, he is head and shoulders above everyone else. One great scene in the movie, and this gal is telling how she killed all these elephants. Then the crusaders take over the party and they decide that she will get 10 swats.

The communist went along to assassinate him, but he is so impressed that he does not. Once and awhile, the crusaders get out alive. But, if you ever get a crusade going, then keep your eye out; criminals and communists will hook up with you.

The Bilderberger myth. The Rockefeller conspiracy. The communists hooked up with this and used it for anti-Semitism purposes. The communists paid for stuff that is pure and simple lies. This is why conservatives don't do anything politically, because they are so arrogant and they are easily manipulated. Not only is this a part of anti-Semitism, but they are being used by communists.

God did not put us on earth to be a crusader. There is not place for crusaders except as the puppets of criminals.

A criminal can use a crusade because it gives him respectability. Crusaders just set themselves up.

Crusade + criminal in one person. Elijah combined the two and was going to kill the opposition. These people saw a manifestation of God's power. They did not need to be restrained by criminal methods. Elijah became a criminal. There was no courtroom procedure; he had no jurisprudence responsibility. This was no courtroom action; it was violence.

Self righteous indignation is easily converted into terrorism. Taxes are unfair so he cheats on his tax return, justifying this to himself. He cheats on his tax return. You become a criminal when you react in arrogance against an unfair system of taxation.

A citizen is law-abiding and is a victim of a criminal act against himself or his family. Then he becomes a crusader against crime. Courts and law enforcement have not done anything, so now he decides to take matters into his own hands. When law abiding citizens become criminals, you have no restraint. And if you cannot distinguish between criminals and law-abiding citizens, you have anarchy. Freedom is dependent upon authority and order. No one thinks about evangelism or Bible teaching. If all law-abiding citizens have been conditioned to be criminals, it messes up the society.

The believer's responsibility to the Lord does not mean irresponsibility to authority. However, you do have the right to protect your own life. There is a great deal of difference between defending your home from a criminal and taking the law into your own hands.

Arrogance + any false rationale, until there is no such thing as a law abiding citizenry.

In England, there was a lot of smuggling going on because of the duty placed on goods coming from France, etc. That led to great lawlessness. That is what happens when law-abiding citizens become criminals, and it just about wiped out those towns.

Once you become a criminal, you may start out by merely avoiding taxation from your life, but you have removed from your soul restraint. The 18th amendment created a bunch of criminals. Those with a still up in the hills were heroes. This was a disastrous situation which contributed to the discipline that we received in the Depression. That made the feds evil and the criminal was glorified.

Rom. 13:1–2 deals with respect for authority.

2Samuel 13      Interlocking Systems of Arrogance      72David      631_0320

Psychopathic arrogance. Volition has a great deal to do with psychopathic behavior. People through their own volition can become sociopathic, psychopathic or even psychotic.

Thought in itself is the key to life. When there is no thought, then emotion must take over. In the psychopathic person, there is not the normal subordination of emotion to thought.

They develop a preoccupation with self. The arrogant psychopath loses all of his reasoning ability. He pursues his false object even though he has no capacity for love. He is preoccupied with self-gratification. That is a substitute for honor.

Sit down and read 2Sam. 14 in the King James and then write a dissertation on it.

Bob goes on and on about say on.

It might take Bob 12 or 14 hours to do one verse. We are about to leave the subject of sex, but we are about to see what causes anarchy and revolution. In 2Sam. 14 David, Absalom, Joab and the woman from Tekoa are all wrong. Psychopathic arrogance is a distortion of the Word. The distortions are based upon knowing doctrine accurately.

Joab is the writer of the play in that chapter. He is a fabulous director. It is very simple to approach certain passages.

The psychopath lacks the ability to evaluate anything in terms of spiritual or historical reality. He retreats into his emotional pattern. He denies or rejects that which is real or he distorts it into a system which is unreal. There are so many functions of the mind and the brain. He is losing some of the value of psychosomatic. There is a lack of thought or thought is distorted into subjectivity or into unreality. So he substitutes.

Psychiatry is changing its vocabulary at this point. They are trying to redesign their vocabulary in this particular field. But they do not recognize that all self-centered people destroy their own minds and bodies; the loss of mental health causes a loss of physical health. Only we can do something about the mental. The person involved in interlocking systems of arrogance produces a preoccupation or drive.

Irrational, unstable, unpredictable and often goes around in a dream world until some great catastrophe destroys him or brings him back into reality. That is a psychopath in interlocking systems of arrogance. Having no capacity for love or for friendship or for loyalty and they do not understand or appreciate authority. There is no possibility that a psychopath can have integrity or honor, no matter what his past performance has been. They can be very pious and very religious and very close to God. Psychopathic arrogance follows many different trends. There is the psychopathic liar.

Gate #10 is sexual arrogance. The principle for it, most people relate love to sex. Sex without love is ritual without reality. The person who is preoccupied with themselves will be preoccupied with sex. The person not preoccupied with himself will be preoccupied with a true object. Sex without love is a form of arrogance. Polygamy is male arrogance but the woman is sometimes different. Promiscuity is sometimes female arrogance. Emphasis upon sex is preoccupation with self, as is drug addiction, as is the compulsive eater. This is to concentrate on self. To concentrate on someone else is to have a true love object. Sex, therefore, can be a blessing or it can be a distraction. Polygamy was David's great trap. His wives included Michelle, Abinoam, Abigail of Carmel, Maacah of Geshur, the Hurrian princess, Abital, Eglah, and there were also mistresses. There were those he gathered in Hebron and those he got in Jerusalem. However, with Bathsheba, he became a great father. Prior to this, he was a very weak father.

Each woman in his harem he had sex with them. Sex with many women intensifies his arrogance. There is no gratification. The more women a man has sex with, the more his arrogance intensifies. David came to a place where he was minus thought. This is why David did not go to war against the Ammonites. He went from great courage to great cowardice. Sex was the problem. Marijuana is one of the most horrible things in the world, and yet people are trying to legalize it. We reach out for something that we think is fun, and when we reach out for gratification, we destroy ourselves. We destroy thought.

Emotion demands more sex than the body can handle. The result is, the complete destruction of the person involved. This is all done through arrogance. Arrogance has no self-discipline and no self-control. It only has self-centeredness. The beauty of what sex is, is destroyed.

Take a woman who is promiscuous. In most groups, there is the woman who does this. It wipes out her standards. She has sex and is temporarily satisfied. This woman is never fit for marriage. She can never settle down with one man, but it will not last. She becomes strictly an emotional person. By the time she is 30, she is destroyed for life. She can never be happy, except doing one thing, which gives her temporary satisfaction; to tell others about her sexual experiences to leave others astray.

Girls will come down to Berachah, and along comes a Judas goat, and she leads her astray, destroying any possibility for happiness. The only hope is doctrine and the road back is too hard. Their volition has gone to partying. Therefore, they are through. They do not have what it takes to come back.

The person who gets around sexually too much can never enjoy love. He can relate sex to self-gratification but not to love. We now have a whole generation of kids (from 12 to 30) who are ruined for life. The cycles of discipline will have to remove these kids. We have an arrogant society now and part of the problem is sexual promiscuity. We have the live-ins and the courts determining what are the rules and the laws, and the courts are accepting promiscuity. When the law accepts promiscuity, the law becomes arrogant. They fail to realize that they are using freedom to destroy freedom.

Freedom without standards. We could be in a war by the end of this year. For a society to survive, it must be built upon honor and romance. Bob use to read one or 2 books each week that he would check out from the library. It was fabulous. Society was generally honorable and noble. The social life was very stimulating as well. Now it is wife swapping and group sex. Emotion without thought is animalism. That is the history of Black Africa. This is why they have been manipulated and used for hundreds of years. If you are going to survive, you must have thought. Where thought is destroyed, society I will not survive.

Union people are miserable people. If you ever buy an auto built on Monday or Friday, it will fall apart. There is no integrity in auto workers; their unions protect them so that they do not have to have integrity. Their weekend begins on Friday. It is a miracle if a Friday car makes it off the line that is in good condition. When labor has no integrity and only arrogance, we are in trouble. The same for management and the same for government. Since we are in trouble from all of these sources, each one in his own bailiwick is miserable; they are frustrated. They do not find their happiness on the job. So they all try to find happiness in social life, and it begins on Thursday night and continues until Tuesday.

A lot of people who were once normal then get their kicks by violence. These are Americans. It is an old sin nature issue. It goes on every week. What is fun for a lot of people today is hurting other people. When the apaches had a party, they had to catch someone. They did not bother children, but they figured out so many ways to torture. The big objective of a party would be to sit around and drink and figure out ways to make their captives scream.

Running away from people will not do you any good because God has us on earth for a purpose. We are exactly what an animalistic society needs. God has a purpose for keeping us here in Houston.

Sexual arrogance leads to sexual distortions and all of the distortions of society and all of the abnormalities of society, including bestiality, homosexuality, polygamy. Today, it is preoccupation with sex; but tomorrow, it will be preoccupation with something else.

Those 4 jackasses from England, they are hippies with long hair. David is a different person, as we have seen in the past few chapters. Sexual arrogance exists in the man and the woman. In the woman, this can be seduction of important persons. Bernice seduced 2 of the Roman emperors. Vespasian and then Titus. Cleopatra seduced Gaius Julius Cæsar. Sexual arrogance in the woman includes the number and importance of their conquests.

Sexual arrogance is preoccupation with self. Once he is preoccupied with himself, he is inside the interlocking systems of arrogance. This is why he gets into other arrogance gates.

A few other things should be noted.

Genetic arrogance; pride of ancestry or of one's progeny. When one seeks to establish their superiority based upon his ancestors, that is genetic arrogance. We are not successful because our father or mother is successful. It is arrogance to assume greatness. There is also posterity arrogance which we see around churches.

Frustrated parents try to achieve greatness through their children; competition; ambitious parents. This is the disease of parental pride. Many a potential great person is destroyed by trying to follow in the footsteps of their parents. Personality imitation can put abnormal pressure on children. Patton is a good example and his son is an entirely different person. He has tried to imitate his father on occasion, but with very little success.

Bob only knows one historical case where the son is as great as the father. Philip of Macedon was a man who was a phenomenal genius, which we are finding out. His son was Alexander the Great.

Napoleon had 2 sons who could have avoided arrogance, and one did and the other did not.

#12 is political arrogance. Man by man's efforts trying to solve man's problems. Liberalism is the quintessence of arrogance. Liberalism used to just be tolerant of other views, but now it is a system of playing God. This is forcing one's solutions on others. Redistribution of wealth. This rejects establishment and freedom. Political arrogance destroys human freedom. It attack freedom and personal property. Our automobile has been destroyed by that Arab Nader.

State's rights represents divine viewpoint; federal authority represents tyranny. The state cannot control free enterprise.

Client nation arrogance. The constitution of the United States demand integrity from its citizens (from all of them). It particularly requires integrity on the part of those who vote. Client nation arrogance sets aside the constitution and does whatever. Loss of integrity is the result of entry into interlocking systems of arrogance. This distorts a republic into a democracy. Democracy is only a veneer of anarchy.

We are as responsible as England for those who set up a wonderful nation in Rhodesia, and we are responsible for their massacre, rape, terrorism and destruction. We elected representatives who stupidly turned their government over to a stupid system of terrorism. Marxism is the type of government in Rhodesia now.

Our constitution is the greatest constitutional document in history, but it requires this integrity. For many generations, the best system for perpetuating honor is aristocracy. Therefore, they perpetuate that from father to son, from mother to daughter.

Even though England is considered to be worse off than us, there has still been a perpetuation of honor and integrity. We can only do this through doctrine. We are supposed to do this through education, but our educational system teaches socialism and communism and to accept the tyranny of the federal government.

The federal government was supposed to be the servant of the people. The war between the states destroyed state's rights. Now there is concentrated in Washington rather than decentralized power in the states.

Client nation arrogance involves a nation; political arrogance involves individuals who are trying to fix everything in our lives.

true love is integrity attraction; arrogant people take the plus out of integrity + loyalty and instead, you have them in opposition to each other.

The quality of missionaries has gone way down; the quality of evangelists, the quality of Bible teaching. We have restless people who cannot appreciate the accoutrements of prosperity. And people think the federal government owes them a living. No one owes you anything. Government is to provide you the freedom and opportunity to advance.

The gates are reviewed.

2Samuel 13:38–39

72David

631_0321

The final 2 verses are dedicated to Absalom, who was born with great potential, but potential is not the answer. Everyone has some talent and ability, but most people with great potential lose it along the way.

There is loyalty which is a virtue and loyalty which is an evil. In integrity, loyalty depends upon integrity as a virtue. Absalom combined the rare genes of the Hurrian dynasty and of the Davidic dynasty. They were the rulers of the Hyksos, who conquered Egypt. We encounter their language all over. Their grandfather was a Hurrian king. He was a chip off the old block. He was probably the handsomest man in all of Israel. He had personality, leadership ability, genius; but all of this was neutralized and destroyed by interlocking systems of arrogance.

The criminal element always destroys those who are crusaders. There is this goofy trilateral conspiracy going around. He assumes that everything is about this Rockefeller organization and that no one can be president unless they are a part of it. If you believe this, you are absolutely stupid. This is devised by criminals (communists) and it is all about disruption and antisemitism.

The French revolution used the crusader as a front. They establish the momentum and the motivation for the revolution.

Absalom, in his day, was the perfect man for the revolution. His crusader and criminal arrogance destroyed him. Freedom is always the watchword and the front for such revolution.

It takes 9 years to undermine this established nation.

Nothing is accidental in the Word of God. Absalom is fleeing as a result of interlocking systems of arrogance. He had a definite plan which began by selecting this ranch as the place for the bbq. It is right across the river from the kingdom of Geshur.

People generally skim over verses like this. Reading the Bible through often has no spiritual meaning.

The timing gives us some time frame for David's installments of discipline between installment 3 and 4. All that he will need for the 4th installment will be available to David during that time.

There is a good possibility that we will face a revolution this year. Particularly if we go to war this year. Never before have we had to face the possibility of a war and a significant population will drag their feet. In either case, logistically, we are not able to go to war. There needs to be a separation between free enterprise and state. Big government's attempt to destroy big business. Windfall profits tax is the quintessence of stupidity. The government is trying to punish the oil companies for their failures.

The Russian Navy is in complete control of every sea today. Pakistanis are receiving equipment that they do not understand. We no longer have a strategic air command. We have to cannibalize ships constantly. We are flying model T's compared to the Russian air force.

There were crusaders and now there are criminals.

The Russians are extremely well-organized. Strategically, they are fighting on interior lines. We are only saved by the fact that Jesus Christ controls history.

We have irresponsible people as a part of the voting franchise. Our constitution demands honor and integrity of our people.

Some of us have only a minimal interest in doctrine. The time will come when all that we have studied is important for application. And you missed because of some party or some form of entertainment.

This verse tells us about an interval. David needs this interval.

Whenever loyalty is in conflict with honor, then honor should win out. Interlocking systems of arrogance makes us weak. The laws of divine establishment, the gospel, and the Royal Family Honor Code for the believer. There is a conflict between loyalty and integrity for David.

Bob wants the revolution to start about May 1st, if possible; although it looks more like the middle of May.

During the interim, Absalom will stay in interlocking systems of arrogance. 3 years gave Absalom enough time to recover from interlocking systems of arrogance, but he did not. David has recovered by the end of those 3 years, but Absalom will stay. Once you are inside the system, you become vulnerable to all 13 of the categories. You may have the strength to resist certain categories of arrogance, once you are inside, you lose that strength.

Various groups of malcontents are ready to revolt. There will be the crusaders to kick the revolution into gear; and criminals are waiting to seize power. They need a front man who is acceptable. They need public opinion in their favor.

David was never responsible for the death of Saul. David will pass certain tests with flying colors.

There are 2 factors in our favor: time and freedom. We prepare for difficulties and for blessing. We have the time and the freedom now to enjoy these. When they are neglected, we fail under both situations.

Absalom will add the stages of reversionism to his time in interlocking systems of arrogance. He goes in as a mature believer, but he will come out as a degenerate and apostate, the latter from negative volition toward doctrine.

David went into interlocking systems of arrogance as a mature believer and he came out the same way. Absalom goes into interlocking systems of arrogance and never comes out. David was degenerate but never reversionistic. The last years of his reign will be the greatest years of his life.

Time and Doctrine

1. Under reverse process reversionism, Absalom will reject David as his father and as his king.
2. Absalom therefore will reject authority. No matter how great your potential for leadership, you cannot fulfill this potential as long as you have rejected legitimate authority.
3. 3 years of time will be profitable to David and disastrous for Absalom. So, have you used the past 5 or 9 years to take in doctrine? Is doctrine #1 in your scale of values. Historical disaster is used to remove people from this earth.
4. Person's attitude toward Bible doctrine; they shape your norms and standards. The difference between profit and loss is based upon a believer's attitude toward doctrine.
5. Positive volition toward doctrine is a profit of time. Potential in time of prosperity
6. Now, Jesus Christ, Who controls history, has given to each one of us, the time to learn doctrine.
7. Some of us profit by the time God has given us under logistical grace. Some of us have profited by this time. God is holding back the communist threat on our behalf. Bob hopes that God will punish those who yawn during class and do not cover your mouth and that He will make lockjaw would be a part of your punishment.

One More Principle

1. Absalom had the freedom for a complete spiritual recovery. Absalom is about to be pardoned. He should not be pardoned. David destroyed his own kingdom by failing to know when to grace Absalom out and where he ought to apply the law. The woman of Tekoa play. David will place the entire nation in jeopardy. This is his failure as supreme court judge of Israel. He was wrong to bring Absalom back under a pardon. Bob gives the illustration of a nice Christian guy running away from battle and influencing the others, then you grace him out as his commanding officer; you pull out your .45 and shoot him. When you have responsibility for people, you must protect them with the laws of divine establishment. This is true in law enforcement and from the judge's bench. People are dying because criminals are being "graced out" because they are seen as victims of their environment. Judicial decisions in federal courts are creating streets filled with criminals. David will put crime out of control. Great criminals are always pleasant and attractive people. There is nothing so imbecilic as public opinion. Public opinion is emotion without thought. David had an older set of children and a younger set of children. Like Bing Crosby.

2. S
- 3.
4. There is a contrast between brother and sister; between Absalom and Tamar. Tamar was secluded for 2 years in the palace of Absalom. She cared for Absalom's family.
5. Absalom was secluded for 3 years, but he did not prepare for growth.
6. He did not use the 3 years which God gave him. We prepare for prosperity through the perception of doctrine, which prepares us for blessing or for doctrine.

2Sam. 13:38 So Absalom fled and went to Geshur, and was there three years.

Now we are in the final verse of this chapter. There is a feminine singular here; so David must not be the subject; therefore, it is nephesh which is the subject.

David desires to recall Absalom at this time. He is about to reenter interlocking systems of arrogance through his own bitterness. He wants Absalom restored as the prince. He loved Absalom and is unable to deal with this situation.

David loves Absalom and this will distort law and justice. He is leaning toward gracing out a criminal. Joab will take the responsibility for Absalom. He is the one man who can get away with killing Absalom.

Absalom will be killed because of his long hair.

David's love for Absalom is about to distort grace. Grace is distorted when love is the basis for the function of grace. The basis for the function of grace is justice, integrity and honor. The source of all grace is justice. The justice of God imputed our sins to Christ on the cross and judged them. Grace always originate from justice. If grace is not based upon justice, it is true grace. If it is based upon love, it is maudlin sentimentality.

It is the justice of God which is the source of grace.

God does not love or hate; these are anthropopathisms to help us understand.

David will derive no comfort from the death of Amnon except that he is in heaven. But there is still a living son involved. David's thoughts go from his dead son to his living son. This was a dilemma for David. Joab began to listen to public opinion.

David wants Absalom back but he cannot get him back. He is failing to enforce the law. David will reenter the interlocking systems of arrogance in the next chapter and the first verse. David will go back for a short tour of interlocking systems of arrogance.

Warning 4th 5th cycles/Lord's name in vain; murder. 03/16/1980

Article in Time about Carter. He invited a bunch of businessmen to come to the White House, and he spent time building a snowman instead. He seemed out of touch with the nation and perhaps the world. "I don't know where Time gets the idea that we have any international prestige."

Carter seems still uncomfortable with the job, and he does not appear to like power or how to use it. He believes a proper moral stance is all that is needed. He tends to react rather than to anticipate, failing to see how one event is related to another, racing from catastrophe to catastrophe. Our lack of consistency is the problem that most of our allies have with us. His is a policy of flip-flops and zig-zags. A list of those are given, like campaigning for human rights, and then making exceptions, and then abandoning it. He spends Christmas with the Shah, and then, a year later, helps to nudge him out of office.

This president is so irresponsible that he doesn't even get the facts. Still perplexed about the Iran hostages. His vaccination looks more damaging as each week continues.

It is significant that this is found in Time magazine. It is as if they discovered that liberalism doesn't work and never will work.

Economy: Scary is the next story. The responsibility for inflation is the federal government. The federal government is operating in a non-constitutional way. The suppression of states' right beginning with Lincoln and proceeding to FDR, is not fixed by extending the franchise. Idiotic teenagers who do not know straight up from straight down. Imbecility and arrogance.

Under Jesus Christ controls history, a whole generation of young people will be wiped out. There must be free enterprise. The minimum wage law must be wiped out completely. You cannot fill jobs with the minimum wage. As a result, we are now on the verge of a total collapse. If the government steps in to try to stop it, its intensity will be increased. It is inevitable that we will see the greatest disaster in all of US history. Many countries in the past have been destroyed.

David looked even a little bit like Carter. The government was responsible for their problems, as ours is.

Israel has split in half into the northern and southern kingdoms. Hosea was a mature believer a great prophet who warned the northern kingdom of the coming of the cycles of discipline. The fifth cycle of discipline was administered in his time.

The northern kingdom would have continued, had they listened to this passage. However, they rejected Bible doctrine. They failed to establish a pivot. They did not avoid interlocking systems of arrogance.

Hosea was teaching and God picked out his wife for him, and that was for teaching. God did not pick out the missionary type, no makeup with her hair pulled severely back.

The woman's name was Gomer. This was a boy's name today; but a woman's name that day. However, those who have seen Gomer Pyle might think that it could go either way.

She had some previous infidelities, and that did not bother Hosea, who was an honorable man. They had a marvelous 1st and 2nd year. First son is called Jezreal, which means the Lord sows, and this was related to murder in order to take a plot of land. Jehu's dynasty around the time of Ahab? Jezreal was a warning. Persist in national arrogance, persist in reversionism, and you will be destroyed. The second child was a daughter, and her name was Loruima, which means not shown mercy. She had no capacity for love. She was tired of playing house. Like so many women who want to get married, but after playing house for awhile, they get bored. The third child was a son, and his name was Loami, which means not my people, which indicates that he was not Hosea's child. Hosea told her to straighten out, so she left Hosea, and ran off with a prince of Israel and was discontented. When you become sexually promiscuous, the problem is intensification and frustration and discontent.

She first gets rid of the boring husband, and then she really goes out and tears it up; but then she gets older and is not very attractive; but Gomer is smarter and she knows how to flatter young men; but she is older and getting older all the time. She is so dissipated from raising hell, so that she is what the boys call a pig. So then she is sold on the slave market and she was probably 43 but looked 100.

This is for you virgins, all 3 or 4 of you. When you are taking on young lovers, that is the last warning for you. She had been an extremely beautiful woman, whose beauty was magnificent, but it faded.

She was listed as a slave and priced as a slave gored by a bull. Hosea went to the slave market and purchased her freedom. She has been graced out. Hosea loved her and he had a tremendous sense of justice. Hosea was still faithful and still loyal to Gomer. After bringing her home, he set her free. Hosea 3.

Hosea has the remnants of a woman here.

Hosea 3:1–5 And the LORD said to me, "Go again, love a woman who is loved by another man and is an adulteress, even as the LORD loves the children of Israel, though they turn to other gods and love cakes of raisins." So I bought her for fifteen shekels of silver and a homer and a lethech of barley. And I said to her, "You must dwell as mine for many days. You shall not play the whore, or belong to another man; so will I also be to you." For the children of Israel shall dwell many days without king or prince, without sacrifice or pillar, without ephod or household gods. Afterward the children of Israel shall return and seek the LORD their God, and David their king, and they shall come in fear to the LORD and to his goodness in the latter days.

God has a controversy with the United States just as He did with Israel at this time. God has a case against Israel and its citizens.

Isaiah had a message as well, although he was in the southern kingdom. Truth comes in 3 categories; divine establishment, gospel, and Bible doctrine.

This is a combination of interlocking systems of arrogance and reversionism. Assyria is ready to move far and wide and ready to conquer the world. This opened the way for the rise of the Assyrians. The Russian Communists may play the same role at a future time. Assyria was used by Jesus Christ as a whip to punish client nations. God may use the Russians in the same way.

We have every Biblical guarantee that we will not continue as a nation. Only doctrine in the souls and God's grace will deliver us. There are too many in this congregation who are very slipshod about their intake of doctrine.

Hosea 4:1 Hear the word of the LORD, O children of Israel, for the LORD has a controversy [a case or a lawsuit] with the inhabitants of the land. There is no faithfulness [truth or doctrine] or steadfast love, and no knowledge of God [nothing knowing of God] in the land [this can refer to the nation Israel as well];

We have a contrast next. There is crusader arrogance and then there is criminal arrogance. Perhaps this is the useful idiots. Criminals who were revolutionaries use these crusaders.

If we go to war, we will simultaneously have the breaking out of a revolution.

The conspiracy theory of the Trilateral commission is so idiotic and this makes the conservative stupid and anti-Semitic, and this turns the conservative into a crusader. It is arrogance that gets them into it. The conspiracy is in the Word of God. The only thing controlling the criminal is the police officer. The judge today is a sociologist rather than a jurist. When you combine crusader arrogance with criminal,...

The 3rd commandment prohibits the use of God's name for a vain purpose. Some claim this or that cause is God's will. That is breaking the 3rd commandment. The criminal comes along and he and the crusader use God as a front (liberation theology today is an example of this).

Down at the old church, and very pious people would tell us that “God brought us to this corner and He intends for us to stay here.” So, according to them, we should be still at that corner. It was Bob’s idea to come out to that area because some one who was smart said this would be the center of town. The whole point of the debate was to determine God’s will and vote our convictions. Dear old so and so, when he said that, that immediately meant 20 votes. Some pious fraud standing up and saying something like that is using the Lord’s name in vain. This man never said damn or hell or a bunch of other words; he was a sweet man; he never said, damn, or hell or bastard; but when he said it is God’s will, that was taking God’s name in vain.

There are even presidents who use God’s name in vain. He does not condone perjury. In order to have true justice, the judge needs to have the facts.

One of the stages is the pathological liar. No one can survive as a client nation without integrity and honor. A nation must have an honor code. Then we have homicide or murder, the very thing we have been studying. This violates the 6th commandment. That is obviously the greatest restraint of another’s freedom. Murder is a part of the criminal index, which deprives him of his freedom. Satan was a murderer from the beginning. Those around Jesus could hear the words that he said, but were unable to put it together. Satan is also the father of lies. Once in interlocking systems of arrogance, murder becomes easy.

There are two verbs that are put together; they break in to rape. The result is violence. This is unrestrained violence of homicide and rape.

Hosea 4:2 there is swearing, lying, murder, stealing, and committing adultery; they break all bounds, and bloodshed follows bloodshed.

The land mourns if they are under interlocking systems of arrogance. They lose freedom and all of the functions of the client nation.

Hosea 4:3 Therefore the land mourns, and all who dwell in it languish, and also the beasts of the field and the birds of the heavens, and even the fish of the sea are taken away.

Hosea has warmed up to his subject. Here, you would think you were reading the morning newspaper.

72David

631_0323

Patriot Joab; David's interlocking systems of arrogance and Absalom; the avenger of blood; Toland: leaders minus reality 03/20/1980

Dr. Davidjohn is on the podium with Bob. One of the foremost gynecologists in the United States.

Bob like historian John Tolin. One of Bob's favorite books is The last 100 Days, which describes the final 100 days of WWII, the European theater. Vicious behavior of the Russians, who, in their tanks, took out wagons and the like. They grabbed women and raped them, and 4 were nailed naked to a wagon after being raped many times. Rings were taken away by slicing off their fingers; then the raping occurred. They looted, raped and killed. The reason was vengeance for Nazi brutality. Russians came across one of the concentration camps, but Bob would not say what they did. It does not sound like liberation.

Goering and Hitler are having an argument about retiring officers. All of this discussion is going on while 200,000 women are being raped. Totally divorced from reality. Another group of Russians were drunk and began to kill and rape. More of this degeneracy of these communists.

The arrogance of the people of this country is almost beyond description. People are arrogant; they are self-centered. It happens in every facet of life. We are enjoying an interlude. We will see the crusaders; we will see the criminals use the crusaders. It is time for the justice of God to do what has to be done to perpetuate the Angelic Conflict, which may even include the destruction of the United States.

Our passage describes this as discipline for national arrogance.

Hosea 3:1-3 And the LORD said to me, "Go again, love a woman who is loved by another man and is an adulteress, even as the LORD loves the children of Israel, though they turn to other gods and love cakes of raisins." So I bought her for fifteen shekels of silver and a homer and a lethech of barley. And I said to her, "You must dwell as mine for many days. You shall not play the whore, or belong to another man; so will I also be to you."

There is the crusader + the criminal; the criminal uses the crusader. The Mencheviques were the crusaders. The criminals allows the crusaders to arouse the public. Then the criminals come in and take over.

Same thing was true in the French Revolution. Once they had aroused public opinion, it was the criminals who stepped in. We will see the greatest judge at that time, David, fail.

Integrity + loyalty = honor. However, loyalty can be a virtue or an evil. Truth or doctrine fed into loyalty means loyalty is to principle and to truth. Where crime becomes an issue, you cannot have loyalty toward criminals.

Ordinarily, we think of crime being unrestrained because of the police officer, but it is always the judge on the bench who fails to restrain crime. They are sociologists; they are psychologists. They have all of these environmental, sociological explanations; and so criminals are put out on the streets.

When crime is unrestrained, the believer immediately says, "Why does this happen to me?" That is arrogance. Arrogance is degeneracy. It is degeneracy for a believer to say, "Why does God let this happen to me? Why God allow this to happen to our country?" That is arrogance. It is like saying, you know better than God, and you think you ought to call the shots instead of God.

In v. 2, we see unrestrained crime. When crusaders try to rehabilitate criminals instead of restraining them. Hiram Walker Distillery in Peoria was a great run business; but they are moving it to Arkansas because of labor unions. It is destroyed by the crusaders in labor and by the criminals in labor. If the unbeliever or the believer accepts the lie of the crusader, they lose their freedom to the crusader and to the criminal.

Hosea 4:4 Yet let no one contend, and let none accuse, for with you is my contention, O priest.

The USA has been stumbling in the daylight. Our policy in Korea can be described as stumbling in the daylight. The mother is the reference to the national entity. This is as prophetic for us as it is for the northern kingdom. This can only be staved off by our attitude toward doctrine, and for some of us, your attitude stinks. Some of you have no idea what I am teaching. If you think there is something more important than doctrine, then you need to go somewhere else. Some of you will die or be raped or you will wish you would die.

There are those in Berachah who are positive toward doctrine and they could save this nation; and there are those who are doctrine hardened. Doctrine needs to be #1 in your life. Jesus Christ ought to be #1 in your life, and that can only be true if doctrine is #1. It is time that some of you face the fact that you are going to die the sin unto death because doctrine is not important to you. you have no idea how little respect Bob has for people who have this solution in their grasp, and you don't. Anytime there is a conflict between what is important and what you want to do, you just go with the other thing.

Hosea 4:5 You shall stumble by day; the prophet also shall stumble with you by night; and I will destroy your mother.

Hosea 4:6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge; because you have rejected knowledge, I reject you from being a priest to me. And since you have forgotten the law of your God, I also will forget your children.

Bob is spending 14 hours and a verse, and he is not going to do any review. You don't come, and he is just not going to cater to you. When Bob travels around to places like Peoria and he knows how positive they are toward doctrine. "What I would say to you in private, you couldn't stand. Maybe you would want to do something about it, and that's okay too."

God will turn all of your efforts into fecal matter and you walk in here with it all over you.

God honors faithfulness and it must be based upon your scale of values.

3 Parts

1. 3 act drama called the woman from Tekoa. Vv. 1–20
2. Return of Absalom vv. 21-29 David's greatest mistake was not to execute his son (Amnon, I assume, although Bob may be referring to Absalom). There is someone called the avenger of blood. There were not public executioners. The state did not pay those executed. When someone committed homicide, the person was brought to trial, with clear laws of evidence. His closest male kin take stones and stone him to death. This is not vigilantism, but done at the direction of the court. All of David's sons were ready to stone Absalom. Absalom scared them. The purpose of the BBQ was to lure Amnon to the ranch so they could have pig on a spit; the pig's name was Amnon. The 50 (50?) brothers who were there and when they heard kill, they were splattered with Amnon's blood and they thought that they were next. There is no real leadership to arouse public opinion. However, people began to regard Absalom as a folk hero. Robin Hood was a punk and a criminal and he was glorified. Ditto Bonnie and Clyde. The animal who destroys your freedom and you glorify them. So the people glorified Absalom, a criminal. No one liked Amnon, so they were not disconcerted of Absalom killing him. The revolutionists realize that if they get Absalom back, all systems are go. All of these other sons are running about trying to impress David while Absalom was gone. Joab decided only Absalom was a real man, so he tries to get Absalom back into the country. Joab is a military genius; but we will now see Cecile B Demille Joab. He is a marvelous producer. There is this whole plot and scenario. It is phenomenal. He is a genius, but a frustrated one. The woman from Tekoa will put on a tremendous show. He will bravo himself into the biggest jam in American history. Afterwards, he will realize that he is the biggest fool in history. Bob is sure that we read this and we understood all of this already.
3. Vv.28–33 David's arrogance hangover.

The first verse begins the Woman of Tekoa drama. David reenters interlocking systems of arrogance. The king's heart is toward Absalom. Here, it means to be people smart. Joab is a phenomenal person.

There are 4 categories of 'al; it is used for resting on something and means on or upon; impending or suspending and rendered over; then there is nearness and rendered at; and the 4th category, it is a preposition of motion, but the motion can be good or bad; good connotation is toward but bad is against; and that is the use in this passage. This is the opposite the previous chapter. Why the change? Why did he long for Absalom and now he is against him? What makes people unstable?

You can be very different, inside and outside of interlocking systems of arrogance. When it says that David's right lobe is against Absalom, it means that Absalom is the key. He has everything in the world going for him. Joab is thinking there would be a revolution without Absalom. Joab is an honorable person most of the time. He thinks that getting Absalom back and pardoned is key to quelling the revolution in the air.

David's favorites include Amnon, the bastard who died, Absalom, and Solomon. Tamar and Nathan are the great children. The quickest way to get inside interlocking systems of arrogance is bitterness, vindictiveness, revenge motivation, jealousy. Pride is not really a sin. It is a description of sins of arrogance.

David will make the greatest mistake of his entire career. This was a horrible mistake. People with great authority make mistakes in judgment and in policy and in the execution of justice.

These decisions will guarantee that his harem will be raped and that there will be revolution in the streets.

Bob wants to look at Zeruah; women make life truly wonderful; someone you will fight for and die for. The sister of David was magnificent. David's sister was one of the greatest women of her generation and Tamar was great in the next generation. No man can equal a woman who is saturated with doctrine. She was the mother of 3 of Israel's greatest soldiers. Bob marvels how this woman reared 3 sons to be the greatest 3 soldiers of that day. David did not raise any boys to be great military men. We need military men and we will need them so badly, I can't tell you how much. Zeruah had a husband and Josephus speaks of him and he has a grave in Jerusalem. But Zeruah raised these kids herself. Bob hears all of these whining and mewling about their kids and being unable to control them; Zeruah had 3 boys and she raised them. The home is the stability of the next generation. It is not education; it is authority and discipline. The father's death was apparently premature. Asahel was killed in combat as a division commander. Abishai was 2nd only to Joab. He commanded one of the 3 divisions in David's army during the Absalom revolution. David's chief of staff; David's 5 star general. Magnificent for a mother to see these 3 great sons. Joab's loyalty to David is both virtuous and evil. Virtue loyalty depends upon integrity. Joab, carrying out David's orders to kill Uriah was loyalty to evil. But mostly, Joab was loyal to doctrine. The greater the integrity, the greater the service.

We have lost integrity and we have lost honor. Joab recovered integrity and honor and went on to serve David in a marvelous way.

Joab made some mistakes, like killing Abner in revenge. He disobeyed David's orders and killed Absalom. Once Joab has responsibility for Abner, remanded into his custody, he then killed Absalom.

I am going to produce a drama to bring the judge to a place where the judge will do everything to bring this guy back, and the judge will be trapped into bringing him back..

2Sam. 14:1 [Now Joab the son of Zeruah knew that the king's heart went out to \[against\] Absalom.](#)

The Genius of Joab's drama; cities of refuge; David's inconsistency re Absalom 03/21/1980

Officer Review March 1980. Pornography destroys the concepts of honor and integrity.

Boy crazy is an immature arrogant reaction to life. Women have gone right off their rocker in boy-craziness. They are vulnerable to any boy who comes along. And when they get married, they discover that their boy is a boy. The boy who tells you he no longer loves you and then puts you out of the house, is a horse's ass.

Zeruiah showed that you can have a great life without a man. Same thing with Tamar.

If all the jocks did 10% of what they said they do, they wouldn't be able to play football.

Manliness is a thought. But you girls are going to go right on being stupid. A woman can live her whole life and have a great life and depend upon a man for nothing.

One of the great dramas in history; the woman from Tekoa.

Joab understood his boss very well. He knew when he was happy and when he was miserable.

David and Joab are both very patriotic. And with this, they were wise. David has wisdom and Joab is without wisdom. Joab will write a drama in order to restore Absalom to the kingdom.

This woman has to act the part of a groveling female; and she has to impress the judge. She dresses in white to impress the judge.

A horsey woman is right when you are in a state of arrogance and you are not.

The Russians had raped over 1.5 million women and killed over 2 million civilians.

The ground we are covering has not been covered in 2000 years. No other congregation has had the opportunity of hearing this before; director producer Joab.

The key is leb, here; the thinking part of the mind. Integrity is a system of thinking related to a scale of values. Honor is applying those values to your life. The storage and utilization of doctrine in the soul.

Arrogance is a complex of sins; it is not a single sin. Arrogance is a thought. It may manifest itself in many ways. Arrogance is not a posture, or a system of posture. It is a system of thinking.

1st degree murder was always punished by death. There were no public executioners in Israel as there was in Rome. There was a system of hiring to be a public executioner. He had an ax and a bundle of rods hung around the ax. In Israel, there was no public executioner like the lykter; but he was the avenger of blood. This is the nearest male relative to the victim or relatives. Absalom was the brother of Tamar and they were the nearest relatives to Tamar, so David and Absalom should have been the avengers of blood to kill Amnon. This would have been inside the law for Amnon. Therefore, there was no official pronouncement of guilt or non-guilt. Absalom is a criminal now, and not a public executioner.

Absalom is now the murderer. He is the next of kin to Amnon. The king's sons were scared to death at the bbq; and they want him to return so that they can execute him.

If it was an unintentional killing, then you had to remain in a city of refuge. This was their system of jailing. No reason to put walls around the city to keep them in because there would be a blood avenger waiting for them.

It was a great system. Capital punishment to control crime. The problem is, Absalom is a public hero. He will be executed as a criminal and those jealous of him will kill him.

Joab looks around and notes that none of the king's sons have the ability to be a king after David except for Absalom.

Once a criminal, always a criminal. Criminals can be changed by one thing; being born-again and then getting on doctrine. Any change you see in a criminal is usually to con you into doing something. They are great actors.

Absalom was wrong. There was no trial. This was a case of fratricide.

Most people who are bitter are so arrogant that they refuse to blame themselves. No one is bitter without being in interlocking systems of arrogance. They have to blame someone else and they refuse to take responsibility for their own decisions. Bitterness is one of the worst things to happen to us.

Absalom is wrong in what he does and David is also wrong, because he reacts to the situation.. Wrong + wrong = wrong. Absalom tried to correct a wrong with a wrong. People are always trying to justify what they do because of some kind of a problem.

If you correct a wrong with a wrong, you have lost your integrity. After that, your life is meaningless.

Absalom was very personable and extremely handsome. He had a lot of talent and he could have been a great king in Jewish history, but his arrogance cancelled out everything that he is.

Most of you are so stupid that you always take the job which pays the most.

If Bob lacked the job of pastor-teacher, he would examine the company and its goals and what it will do about training; and the company which has something which matches up with integrity as opposed to making twice the salary in a fly by night organization.

Bob's original salary at Berachah was almost nothing. There were only 35 people so that was the best they could do. Bob did not live on that money, of course. Bob was later offered a job at Moody's church. Bob said no. It would be a great jump in salary and more of a prestigious position. Bob told him, he had a better deal. They figured that they had a lot to offer a young man like Bob. But he was not looking for the prestige or the salary.

Some of you will always go for the money, and that is a big mistake. Bob likes to see people at T&P and they stay there, even after being offered a better job elsewhere. People at T&P have honor, loyalty and integrity. If God wants to starve Thieme or punish him, that is fine. Bob will go either way. Bob started out so rich, you could not believe it; and he became so poor you can't believe it. He is happy either way.

Instability is mated to inconsistency. They are inseparable Siamese twins. The function of the law was the key; not personal forgiveness. David forgave Amnon, and this was wrong; and he refused to forgive Absalom.

You cannot be consistent with arrogance.

Joab wants to alert David to his arrogance. He also wants to restore Absalom. It is Joab to the rescue. He has a patriotic motivation.

Daily contact does not mean that you necessarily know a person. David's inability to make policy decisions. Ability and competency are changed into inability and incompetency by interlocking systems of arrogance.

David longed for Absalom, as we have read earlier, but now it is interlocking systems of arrogance, and David is against Absalom.

David will act as the supreme court judge, but he will make a ruling based upon impertinent law and set aside the pertinent law. This will hinder his function as supreme court judge. Joab sees in Absalom the future hope for his country.

Could this be because Joab and David have both killed Uirah the Hittite so that they will both excuse Absalom, who kills for a better reason.

Actress of Tekoa; drama to teach arrogance the genius of Joab teaches arrogance and subjectivity 03/23/1980

Bob knows our general moods when we wander in. When a person is pressing iron which is more than his own weight, you can see quite a grimace on the person's face. Whatever your problems are, at times they may become a bit too heavy.

Worry is also a form of arrogance. Worry, anxiety, fear, preoccupation with himself, was the reentering of interlocking systems of arrogance. Any problem or difficulty or trial in life which is too great for us; so this allows God to take care of these things for us.

Bob is a people watcher and he can tell when someone is miserable and preoccupied with himself. He can detach himself from our problems and from our sad faces. However, there are those in your periphery who do not feel that way.

David, as a mature believer, allowed his problems to overtake him.

With a weak father, children often take on the characteristics of their mother. The greatest people in David's family were the women. Being inside interlocking systems of arrogance, you become vulnerable to the other gates.

Some ladies enter into interlocking systems of arrogance and enter by worry. Or, you may fornicate with some guy to get even with your bf.

Blind arrogance is always involved when people enter in through worry or fear.

If you hold some executive position, there are many who share your problems but have no desire to do so.

Bob gives an example of a judge who upholds the law; but he suddenly has all of these problems and he feels sorry for himself, and he enters into interlocking systems of arrogance. This will affect his job on the bench. The judge becomes emotional rather than rational.

Jewish law always remembers the victim. However, in the U.S., the judge tends to get involved with the criminal, and he may try to help him.

This will help us on the woman from Tekoa. This is how we know that David has entered into interlocking systems of arrogance. We are one person outside of interlocking systems of arrogance; and we are a different person inside interlocking systems of arrogance. Once we enter into interlocking systems of arrogance, we lose that capacity, and we change completely. You can be outside of interlocking systems of arrogance and be very noble and honest and having integrity.

The KJ is often misleading. Shalach meant to fetch a few hundred years ago. It means to send, which indicates that he did not go himself, but he brought this actress back to himself. It is likely that this woman owes Joab a favor. He did something for her that was fantastic, and now she is returning the favor.

Chacma means skilled in whatever one does; in this situation, she is a great actress. This is for a technical skill.

Joab is a very handsome, attractive soldier, and he had some sort of a relationship with this woman. When a soldier and an actress get together, and I leave the rest to your imagination. It would not be out of the question for Joab to bail her out.

Many of us have been affected by some actor or actress on the stage. There were 2 entirely different movies last night. George Sanders was much better on the stage than off, and he liked to loaf when he was off the stage. He despised acting, and he would take any part, and he said, it doesn't matter. The whole thing is a farce anyway. He was only interested in a check.

Most, you would be bored with if you knew them in real life. This is a famous woman who will demonstrate great courage and great histrionic ability; and this is off stage. Bob recalls in high school that everyone tried to comb their hair like Gary Cooper or they wanted to know the lipstick that Katherine Hepburn wore.

Dash was always teased by some villains next door, so he taught Larkey how to snarl and bark. Teaching Dash takes a hundred years of patience; but Larkey learned quickly. Larkey is a high tenor. Dash is a bass. Later they had a fight, and Larkey beat him down, and he was then in charge. Now, Larkey does not allow Dash to bark.

Applaud good actors when they have finished a play; but offstage, ignore them. Most of them are so arrogant, you can't believe it. Off stage, many of them are nothing but scum. They are not patriotic but they are scum. Why should their opinions be listened to? Why should anyone care what is on their minds. Most of them are idiots and most of them are liberal idiots.

We do not know this woman's name. Anyone who is an entertainer is a dishwasher. People who do that are usually on their way up.

The Beatles ruined a generation; they are evil, they are cowardly and they are scum; because the hoi polloi went ape over them, one of them was knighted by the king. No reason to knight anyone like that. They are scum. They are self-centered scum.

God the Holy Spirit would not bother to even give us the name of this woman. She is a great actress. We have no idea what she is like as a person.

Jewish people have always been talented in the entertainment field. Some of the greatest people in the film industry are fantastic.

Eccles. 12:5 Amos 5:16 and there are several other passages dealing with these professional mourners. There will be wailing in all the streets and cries of anguish.

Joab has great respect for this woman and she has never allowed her professional success to keep her from being spoiled.

A professional mourner does not know the person who has died, but is hired to act as if in mourning. There is costuming here; in this case, mourning clothes.

Anointing here actually refers to putting on cosmetics. It is not the normal word for anoint. The subjunctive mood and the idea is, she is to avoid using any cosmetics. This would be what a woman in mourning would do.

When a man wakes up in the morning, he might still shout and cry out and jump out of bed. "I'm sorry, honey, I did not know it was you."

2Sam. 14:2 And Joab sent to Tekoa and brought from there a wise [skilled (as an actress)] woman and said to her, "Pretend to be a [professional] mourner and put on mourning garments. Do not anoint yourself with oil, but behave like a woman who has been mourning many days for the dead.

Joab wrote the script for this.

All of this narrative is important. Narrative must be analyzed. This is the genius of Joab in another area. This will change everything in Israel. When the supreme court or the legislature passes a lot of laws,... There are so many things you cannot fix with the law. Particularly, law which does not deal with criminals, but deals with social action.

Joab is writing a drama which will change law and help the revolution.

Joab's Approach

1. If the deception is going to succeed, the mood must be correct. This must be done to gain the attention of the king. A judge in interlocking systems of arrogance needs something to grab his attention. The staging and the mood for the drama must be right.
2. David has become subjective about Absalom. Previously, he longed for Absalom; now his heart is set against Absalom. That is objectivity followed by subjectivity. If Joab went to him directly, David wouldn't hear him.
3. This will require objective consideration.
4. Joab has noted before how to reach the king when he is subjective. You need to use analogy or parable to reach him. A parable must be used.
5. Arrogant believers, no matter what their spiritual status, do not learn doctrine, unless they are approached from the standpoint of analogy.
6. This is what the prophet Nathan accomplished.
7. David was confronted with his evil function by the parable of the ewe lamb.
8. So David objectively condemned himself. He said, "The man who did this will die." Being confronted with a parable, David was able to think about it objectively, even though he was in subjectivity. A person has to be drawn completely out of himself and away from his own circumstances. They can learn through heartache and difficult circumstances as well. Through punishment, the justice of God relates subjectivity to reality. Those who are negative toward doctrine, are very subjective, they will not listen to the truth.

Joab is not a prophet; he has no authority over David. He cannot plead on behalf of Absalom. Joab must use the drama media to communicate this to David. Cast, costume, makeup, the scenario, the use of the voice and the proper inflection, and rhythm of speaking. Since Joab knows his uncle David very well, there will be a prologue.

David is in a stage of arrogance. An arrogant man will give attention to a helpless woman. Joab is a brilliant director and he makes this woman so totally helpless, so that she will not even lift up her face and say, "Help me, O king." He mutters this into the floor.

Some of you women may wonder why a guy says, "I will love you forever" and then, a day later, he doesn't. The man who throws out his wife because he know longer loves her. That man is an arrogant ass. He is only impressed with a woman who is totally humiliated and humbled. He only wants something which feeds his arrogance and ego. Joab is so people smart, he knows that this woman has to do more than look up and bat her eyes and say, "Help."

Joab does not want David to take advantage of this woman.

Criminals by virtue of being criminals have no rights. Our system of jurist prudence is being destroyed in this land.

Absalom should be tried and executed. That he murdered his brother is unquestionable. There is also civil law, which is a bonafide system of law. This is a criminal case. But the woman in this script will bring in criminal law and distract David will civil law. That will be a disaster. That means revolution.

There is a great issue in life. What is pertinent to the situation. Criminal law in Num. 35 is pertinent; but civil law is quite another thing. When you apply doctrine in your life, all you have is, you must bring into the situation, what is pertinent.

The king will wise up, but it will be too late.

The name of the drama, The Woman from Tekoa, produced by Joab. David will be cast as supreme court judge. Out of this drama will come revolution.

2Sam. 14:3 Go to the king and speak thus to him." So Joab put the words in her mouth.

03/23/1980 Arrogance re the origin and purpose of the drama and culture; motivation of Joab; Jewish law: avenger of blood, jails and distraction from criminal to civil law

The co-existent function of culture in a client nation. From the time of Alexander the Great, there were the Hellenistic Jews, who were cultural Jews and they talked about the plays of Sophocles, Euripides, and someone else. Anytime a group of people live together, it is inevitable that there will be an exchange of ideas. There will be truth and falsity. A nation which succeeds in any way will develop a culture. They already have what it takes to develop a culture, which is interlocking systems of arrogance. This is when these people become an arrogant people. In any nation which rises to the peak, there is a system of culture.

Drama will develop. Drama has its origins in the 5th century B.C. The Greek comedy and tragedy came from the fraternity of Dionysos or Bacchus and they would go on a drunk, and then they would parade the streets singing, with a particular meter and poetry. This was then expanded to singing and dancing. They were entertained while listening. Subjective arrogant people will listen and understand, provide that they are entertained at the same time. Arrogant and subjective people would normally not receive such information. If you want to communicate to subjective people, you have to entertain them.

The dithyramb was expanded further. When 2 Greek words are put together, you get tragedy. This communicated the culture of the Greeks who would not otherwise listen. Subjective people love subjective music.

We can understand this in the United States today; those who are entertained are also taught things as well. Bob, as a child, would watch a gangster movie and he would be guided in his thinking, even though he did not realize that.

Entertainment reaches all people; the arrogant and the humble. Subjective people can become objective temporarily if they are entertained. Entertainment is the primary system for training the mind.

Dramas of the ancient Greeks were held in the spring. They were, for those who listened, a religious ceremony called catharsis. The festival of Dionysos lasted for a week. There might be as many as 3 dramas presented each day. These dramas were developed to win a prize. The highest honor was to win the tragedy contest or the comedy contest.

The original stage was called the orchestra, which later became more like the stage which we are used to. Thespis was the one who started drama. He also developed makeup.

Catharsis is to take a person with worries and fears and arrogant, and this lifts him out of his fears and concerns through the drama. He is taken away from himself for awhile. He would forget his own troubles and worries. In being lifted out of this, he had a temporary phase where he could be separated from his own problems and then he could be taught things. You no longer were preoccupied with yourself or your own problems, but you could be exposed to Greek culture.

The problem with the Beatles was this destroyed people through drug addiction; this is chemical murder. This was communicated through the music. Therefore, there is no patriotism, no orientation to responsible citizenship; and this indicates that entertainment can be extremely effective as a socialist tool. Arrogant subjective people find it almost impossible to be patriotic. Patriotism disappears when entertainment gives standards which are different. We now march to a new drum. Socialism now comes into the thinking of our culture.

When people take prat falls and things like this, people laugh at their discomfort and difficulties.

In Germany, we hear a completely different music, which is pro-military and pro-German. It is love of the fatherland. Men here want to put the women out in front to fight because they are yellow dog cowards. Nobility and galantry was the subject matter of the novels from Bob's day.

Teaching arrogant people demands entertainment. That is one side of the coin. Flip the coin over and drama and entertainment are also designed to teach doctrine. Lamb pets back then, like we have dogs today. They would see the lamb which had never done anything wrong, and the priest would put his hand on the sinner and on the lamb, and the lamb would be killed.

Arrogant people are subjective.

Ecclesiastes and Song of Solomon are both dramas, so some degree. Ritual is drama in which we participate. Our ritual of the bread and the cup; and we identify this with His body and with His paying for our sins.

Many churches have developed rituals in order to teach their congregation stuff. When the objective of entertainment is to communicate truth, that is good; and when it communicates a lie, that is horrible. The whole system of teaching in Israel was related to drama.

Sophocles emphasized spoken drama; this is when tragedy takes on new meaning. Satan has his system as well. All of the great religions of the world, being false, have a lot of ritual. Whatever it is, there is always the extensive system of ritual so that you can learn their false doctrines. Since Bible doctrine is too complicated, at times, it is not taught by parables.

The most popular teachers, evangelists or pastors are able to entertain as they teach, which takes you to a place of objectivity.

Producer-director is in v. 1. Joab is for Absalom and he knows the other sons of David are not capable of inheriting anything. Then he brings in the cast and makeup.

Joab gains an audience with the king with this woman. David functioned as supreme court judge. The woman has been trained what to say and when, and how to get this intertwined with what David says.

Her appearance must give the impression of complete mourning and she must appear in complete humiliation, so that David will pay attention to all that she says. Joab is under the conviction that only Absalom is able to succeed his father.

2Sam. 14:3 Go to the king and speak thus to him." So Joab put the words in her mouth.

Script is what is to be said and the scenario involves inflection and mood. This was a fully rehearsed drama. He probably explained the drama, what she needed to do, how David would respond, and how she should respond to him.

There are a whole set of cues and principles. No ordinary actress could have handled these lines. She is a totally superb actress at the top of his field.

There had to be a set of alternate lines as well. We do not know exactly what David will say each time.

Joab cannot prompt from the wings. Everything had to be perfect. She had to know the lines and the alternates perfectly.

Joab's Deception.

1. Joab has carefully observed the king's sons and has found them wanting as future potential rulers. His sons are a pack of pitiful people. They stand in stark contrast to Absalom. The only thing that made sense to Absalom is to get Absalom back as the crown prince.
2. Joab was concerned with client nation Israel. He might change his mind later about Adonijah.
3. The actual successor is still in the cradle. He is not considered by Joab. David is in interlocking systems of arrogance and he could die at any time. Joab can only judge by this.
4. To Joab, there is only one person qualified to follow his father.
5. Absalom has become something of a hero to the people; they admire him for what he did.
6. Therefore, Joab has nothing but the purest of motivation, which is patriotism. There is loyalty to David and a desire to return Absalom to the land. 2 problems have developed: David has now reentered into interlocking systems of arrogance. Bitterness has led him back into interlocking systems of arrogance. This has changed his attitude. So David is totally opposed to the return of Absalom. Secondly, under Jewish law, there are no public executions; only the avengers of blood, who are related to the victim. The king's sons would love to stone Absalom to death. He is their primary competition. David is opposed to Absalom coming back, and a dead body under a pile of stones cannot rule Israel.

7. Therefore, Joab wrote a drama in order to deal with these 2 problems. He needed to have Absalom put into Joab's custody so that he would not be killed.

Well, you were supposed to read and study this. How does this line up with your personal notes. All of the sons were witnesses to the murder. There are as many as 50 people who observed the murder of Amnon.

Joab has 2 problems: get Absalom back and to get a stay of execution on Absalom. This drama will do all of these things. Joab was a genius. However, much of Hollywood is Jewish, which makes sense.

This is one of the top box office dramas of all time, but it is also in the Word of God. Joab now designs a 3 act drama. This will bring Absalom back, even though David does not want him back. Eventually, you will see Joab executing Absalom. In his custody, Joab has that right.

Title: the Woman from Tekoa

Producer, director and writer: field marshal Joab

Cast: the woman from Tekoa and David (this is a reality show) the entrance into the supreme court. Act I is vv. 5–10. Act II motional view of the law vv. 12–14 Act III application of non-pertinent laws. Vv 18–20 is the epilogue.

The avenger of blood, and that is the correct law of divine establishment. Jewish law as found in codex #3 remembers and emphasizes the victim. Subjective law emphasizes the criminal. Honoring the victim with the correct type of punishment is objective law.

The avengers of blood were the nearest male kin to the victim. Females ought to be exempted from executing someone or being in the military in a combat function.

The good is the avenger of blood; evil is vengeance is punishing someone apart from their conviction in a law court. There is a supreme court in heaven which will handle all wrongs. We are never to take personal revenge.

Secondly, what did the Jewish law use for jails? They had a system of incarceration which was much better than ours. There was the city of refuge, which was designed for crimes other than rape and murder. When there was 2nd or 3rd degree murder, the criminal had to go to one of these cities and remain there. 3 on each side of the Jordan. The criminal had to get to this city before the blood avenger. As long as the current High Priest was alive, this man had to remain in that city. He could not leave the city limits. Private detectives in those days kept track of this. Once the High Priest dies, he can leave the city, if he so chooses. Num. 35:9–15

The pertinence of law. David will fail here as judge. The failure of the judge on the bench comes about by the principle of distraction. We have discussed distraction in terms of rudeness and lack of thoughtfulness to others. There are criminal laws and civil laws. These are separate categories of laws, and should be kept separate. The woman will enter a civil law into a criminal case. However, the judge will be attracted to this law as the solution of the problem. This will open the door to revolution. This civil law will be used to set aside the criminal law. This will set things up for revolution. This occurs in our country; non-pertinent laws have been applied by various judges in order to get social justice or whatever.

What is the pertinent law? It is the law of 1st degree murder.

Num. 35:16–19 "But if he struck him down with an iron object, so that he died, he is a murderer. The murderer shall be put to death. And if he struck him down with a stone tool that could cause death, and he died, he is a murderer. The murderer shall be put to death. Or if he struck him down with a wooden tool that could cause death, and he died, he is a murderer. The murderer shall be put to death. The avenger of blood shall himself put the murderer to death; when he meets him, he shall put him to death."

This is the proper application. This is 1st degree murder, which is the only pertinent Scripture to the Absalom case.

The nearest male relatives are David and his sons. Joab knows all of this stuff, and he will write a script in order to set this aside.

2Sam. 14:3 Go to the king and speak thus to him. So Joab put the words in her mouth.

2Samuel 14:4

72David

631_0327

03/24/1980 Teen Bible class and parental authority; drama of the helpless widow; results of the malfunction of justice.

First a call from Captain Thieme and then Colonel Howard for Colonel Baker in Germany.

Parents told a kid no more listening to tapes. And they cut him off. When that occurs, Bob will cut them off. No one is encouraged to disobey their parents. Bob is opposed to teenage classes. Berachah drafted a policy not to have any teen classes. Exception is a basics class. However, the age cut off is 10?

To counsel teenagers to rebel against their parents is a problem. Teachers often evolve into the role of counselor. There are those who go this way and they give nothing but bad advice. Any suggestion to reject the parental authority is out of line. Bob taught teen classes in order to set up some teen tapes.

Often when you counsel a teen, you are building up a weak sister. Teenagers should be pushed to depend upon their own mental processes rather than to lean upon someone else. The issue is not, are the parents right or wrong; the issue is, they are parents.

Bob will not tolerate any teen class in any Fx or tape group.

Eventually, it conflicts with the teaching ministry or it turns into a counseling session. Finally, it causes teens to disobey their parents. Bob cannot believe that kids can grow up and disobey their parents in the name of the Lord. If you start disobeying parents, there will never be an end to it. Girls are the worst about this, strangely enough.

Some cannot hold down a job for more than 2 or 3 years because they rejected parental authority. You knock yourself out of the box when you reject parental authority.

After the prologue, there will be 3 acts and an epilogue.

The first word in the MT bo, which means to come. The more ancient manuscripts have the Qal imperfect of amer, which means to speak.

David was in mourning for his sons, so he has this in common with the woman. That is what she was designed to do. Beware of the totally helpless woman. David will be trapped into emotional thinking on that basis. Beware of the woman who is in distress, but not really in distress.

Then she had to fall, without injury, without being bruised, but so that you appear completely hopeless, helpless and devastated. If you are really in that condition, Joab is around, but he cannot prompt her for lines or anything like that. The costuming and the act of obeisance appeals to David. David is most anxious to help her.

To have your face on the ground, therefore, your body has to be on the ground as well.

This woman is wealthy successful and if she is anything, it is not helpless. It is the impulse of most of us to help a lady in distress.

In David's desire to help this woman, he will make a dramatic policy change; a change in the law. David could have looked her in the face and recognized her beauty; so the woman is careful to have her face on the ground, so that David does not look into her eyes.

When you enunciate your lines into the ground, there is only one thing she can say: help. Joab knows David and he knows that he cannot resist a woman in distress.

When Bob was helping a woman in distress, his thought process was at a minimum. His thinking had been dulled.

2Sam. 14:4 [When the woman of Tekoa came \[possibly, spoke\] to the king, she fell on her face to the ground and paid homage \[she prostrated herself\] and said, "Save me \[Help\], O king."](#)

Joab has overlooked nothing; costuming, action, dialogue; this demonstrates the kind of genius that gets right to the point. Joab has a real genius for drama. Certain eras of history demand certain abilities that other eras do not. In ancient world, there was not much call for scientific talent, but there was for others. Drama was a catharsis; Bible doctrine was a catharsis for the Age of Israel. The drama produced by Joab was unique in the annals of drama and the annals of law.

Some people are very good at this; to get your attention and to disarm your alertness. Bob has lost his alertness on several occasions, and it has confused those at Berachah as well.

Popular sympathy is generally on the side of Absalom. There was less so for Amnon. The avenger of Tamar was seen as a hero and not as a villain. The drama produced by Joab will be to illustrate the plight of Absalom.

All of the other king's sons are a pack of idiots, Joab has observed. They are everything that is evil and none of them are qualified to rule. Knowing that David's line will be perpetuated in Israel, Joab cannot see anyone who is capable of succeeding David. Absalom has the genius and the greatness and the leadership ability. He will fail because arrogance neutralizes potential greatness.

When justice fails to function, then some criminals are regarded as folk heroes. Gangster shows are so popular, because the gangster is seen as a hero and the police officer is seen as the villain. If the first 4 cycles of discipline do not bring the people back to normalcy, then God brings in the fifth cycle of discipline.

Bob thinks that war and revolution are very close. Many children have grown up rejecting all forms of authority.

There is the great arrogance of majorities and minorities. Everyone wants to take short cuts; everyone wants to prove something.

The principles we will study will relate to law and the function of the client nation.

Principles

1. Having obtained an audience with the king and having gained his attention through her plight, the woman from Tekoa will allege domestic grievances. She will express her plea in terms of her two sons. In both of her sons, there is failure.
2. Amnon is dead and Absalom is alive; ditto for her sons. David is fighting on the plans of WWI during WWII. David should have executed Amnon. So he decides to execute Absalom. He is leaning in the wrong direction, according to Joab, so he wants to get Absalom back without executing him.
3. David creates a new criminal; Absalom.
4. David should have executed Absalom, but he does not, and that will lead to a revolution.

More Principles

1. This is all according to Joab's plan, for make up and to speak her lines into the ground.

2. Her opening lines were spoken into the ground. This woman is a great actress. David will understand what she says, even tho she speaks into the ground.\
3. The woman does not look up even when speaking her opening lines.
4. The reason for this approach is obvious. David is enmeshed in interlocking systems of arrogance. To gain his attention, the woman must portray her helplessness and humility.
5. The more arrogant the male, the more he desires humility in the female.
6. Arrogant men are not only incapable of loving the woman, but are filled with the desire to humiliate the woman. He wants to make love to her and to humiliate her.
7. Arrogant people cannot stand arrogance in others. This is where opposites attract. Arrogant people cannot stand arrogance in others.
8. Only the man who is humble will be attentive to the counsel of a wise woman without feeling a loss of manhood. Some of the greatest things Bob has heard is from a woman. He does not feel even a little insecure. There are a lot of arrogant males running around lose. The arrogant woman is worse than the arrogant man.
9. So if the woman is to gain a hearing before David, she must appear before the arrogant judge in a state of total humility and helplessness. This does not imply that all women are wise; far from it. Wisdom from the woman is more valuable than gold.

One More Principle

1. An appeal to emotion, to a popular cause, to arrogance, can result in the malfunction of justice.
2. When criminals are heroes and victims are forgotten, that is a malfunction of justice.
3. When the law is used as a crusade rather than to punish crime, there is malfunction of justice.
4. Malfunction of justice in the courts creates criminals in the nation.
5. This distorts public opinion into making heroes of criminals.
6. Transfer of authority from establishment to crime.
7. Then crime is unrestrained and out of control and the criminal dominates society.
8. When the criminal dominates society, there is violence and revolution in the land, which is the loss of freedom and the gain of tyranny.
9. This will pave the way for 2Sam. 15–19
10. Malfunction of justice today results in revolution and chaos.
11. No civil war, no rape of his harem.
12. David's responsibility as court judge is arrogance, political and crusader arrogance.
13. It is safe to conclude that cursing was not turned to blessing because he had reentered interlocking systems of arrogance.
14. Arrogance hinders blessing and capacity for blessing.

03/25/1980 Teens; Joab's genius of law; drama vs. law; referee with teenagers; authority; distraction of the judge

Bob was going to talk to the teens in the tv room and he was ready to brace them, but someone warned them. So, from now on, Bob wants to see every single teen. If he has to take off his harness and go off and get himself a teen, that will be the last time you see that teen in Berachah.

Bob warns that they are going to sit in the auditorium and if they do anything, Bob is going to pounce. The days of horsing around are over.

2Sam. 14:1-3 Now Joab the son of Zeruah knew that the king's heart went out to Absalom. And Joab sent to Tekoa and brought from there a wise woman and said to her, "Pretend to be a mourner and put on mourning garments. Do not anoint yourself with oil, but behave like a woman who has been mourning many days for the dead. Go to the king and speak thus to him." So Joab put the words in her mouth.

When criminals are heroes and victims are forgotten, we have a malfunction of justice. David's irresponsibility as supreme court judge and his crusader arrogance; cursing was not turned into blessing.

Arrogant men only like women who are totally humiliated and that is all they want.

There are 2 actors in this drama: the helpless woman and the judge, the king of Israel, David.

2Sam. 14:4 When the woman of Tekoa came [possibly, spoke] to the king, she fell on her face to the ground and paid homage [she prostrated herself] and said, "Save me [Help], O king."

The law of posterity only applies to the widow who is a true widow. Civil law will be brought into a criminal case, and this will bring on revolution. She is a true widow, in the sense that her husband has died. So, she is establishing which kind of a woman she is.

There are no wasted words on the part of the woman. She says exactly what needs to be said; no more and no less. Joab was the Clarence Darrow of his day; he was a brilliant man and he could have been a great lawyer as well. Next to David himself, his nephew Joab is a genius as well. Gaius Julius Cæsar was a genius in many fields. Napoleon was also a military genius and a governmental genius as well. His law is the law of France even today.

Joab surpassed his peers in the military field. Beyond that, he had no peer. This script took point by point to lead David into false decisions which will lead the country into revolution.

There is costuming and great humility revealed in this woman, which bypasses a lot of David's genius and arrogance. He has great sympathy here, and a judge must avoid sympathy in the courtroom. No judge soul try a case with a lot of sympathy; he will make an emotional decision. A man in the same condition will arouse suspicion. So Joab, the attorney representing Absalom, will get Absalom off, completely and totally. His genius is so designed as to neutralize the genius of David. He will get David to rule from emotion.

Judges today are educated as liberals and they lose sight of the victim and look only at the criminal before them. The law of posterity applies only to widows, but not to those who are divorced. She is revealing herself as a true widow. This will open the door to introduce the law of posterity. Behind the woman from Tekoa is that brilliant legal mind, Joab, who will set up this whole scenario, and he will get Absalom remanded into his custody, completely pardoned.

2Sam. 14:5 And the king said to her, "What is your trouble [grievance]?" She answered, "Alas [truly], I am a [true widow; my husband is dead].

Now she outlines her basis for the grievance. The noun means a female subject. It must be stated that the plaintiff is a citizen of Israel, which comes out with this noun. She is a citizen and she is a Jew. It is okay for a Gentile to come into Jewish court, but there are restrictions.

Because of what Absalom did, he ought to be pardoned and rewarded; but Joab will try to get this via the woman from Tekoa. If criminals are going to be free, then criminals ought to run everything. This trial is 3000 years old and it affects us today and it explains why we will be at war today and why that will be related to revolution.

Niphal stem is passive, and the fight is over, and they were fighting, but no longer. There was no one to stop the fight, and therefore, someone died. There is the development of the concept of the fighting in the field. The son who survived had a right to survive. If Absalom sneaks back into the land, there are at least 50 bastards who can legitimately kill him. Jewish law always emphasizes the victim. The closest male relative to the victim generally performed the execution. There has to be a stay of execution. This will hinder the avengers of blood. A supreme court decision has to be made.

The defense attorney is the script writer; he does not appear on the scene. If there is a football game without a referee, then people will die on the field. There has to be someone to enforce the rules of the game. Otherwise, football is not football and baseball is not baseball. The game is not a game; the rest is mayhem without a ref.

Wherever there are people doing anything in life, there has to be someone doing the refereeing. In business, it is the CEO; in a church, it is the pastor. There needs to be some kind of a referee or some kind of an authority.

The first tragedy is, there was no arbiter there to separate them.

Separating the Sons

1. Freedom cannot exist without authority. Establishment authority is the basis for resolving problems, grievance and avoiding violence. Once the problem becomes violence, then it intensifies into a greater problem. Once they pass the violence barrier, one of them is going to be killed. Outside of the armed forces, the police officer represents the principle of freedom. Once a problem becomes a felony, it is very complex. The police officer and the judge on the bench are the authorities.
2. Once violence occurs, freedom is lost. Therefore, violence unchecked destroys freedom and demands deliverance and arbitration.
3. Once you are in revolution, there is no freedom. The same principle applies to athletic games. It becomes mayhem, murder and violence. Murder is complete loss of freedom.
4. Conflict must be resolved by authority.
5. Since there was no one to arbitrate, one of the sons died. The problem was David. He was the one who did not separate the two boys. David should have dealt with this problem. The result is fratricide. One brother murders the other brother. The husband is dead and there are 2 sons, and one kills another. Son #2 remains. So the relatives step in to kill him, and her husbands name will no longer be carried on in Israel. So this mixes criminal law with civil law.
6. This is a duplication of Absalom's killing of Amnon.
7. Notice that the criminal has the upper hand; there is a failure to use capital punishment against the criminal. His life is never at stake if he commits a crime. He knows that he is not going to be killed. He knows that there is no restraint.
8. The avenger of blood would be Absalom as the nearest relative of Tamar. If David had tried Amnon, and the penalty is death; now Absalom would have been the one to execute Amnon. So the problem is, David had not stepped in to do his job. There was no trial; there was no finding of guilt. The end result is no justice. Amnon was outside of the law rather than inside the law. When the general public ignores the law, you have revolution.

Another Principle

1. That Absalom took vengeance was criminal.
2. Had there been a trial and a legal conviction, Absalom would have been the court-appointed executioner.
3. However, there was no trial and therefore, there was no conviction.
4. Both David and Absalom ignored the law. David because no trial was conducted before the king; and Absalom because he ignored and rejected the law. He even rejected the function of the supreme court of heaven.
5. Absalom made no faith rest appeal to the Supreme Court of Heaven . This was blasphemous because he did not allow God to deal with Amnon. Absalom would have to faith rest it. He would have to have confidence in the justice of God. He would have to watch all of this and restrain himself.
6. Therefore, this is a reference to David's failure as supreme court judge.

7. Amnon was the king's favorite and justice malfunctioned because love took precedence over law and justice.
8. No judge can function on the bench when personal considerations take precedence over the law they have sworn to uphold.

2Sam. 14:6 And your servant [actually, your female subject] had two sons, and they quarreled with one another in the field. There was no one to separate [and deliver] them, and one struck the other and killed him.

Gen. Grigorenko: Soviet attack; the allegation and dilemma of the widow

Bob is expecting a war this year. He was thinking at the end of 1980; but now he is thinking perhaps before the July 4th conference. Zaire, Rhodesia and South Africa are the only countries in Africa remaining for the Soviets to control, in order for them to take over. Gregorinko suggests before the end of 1980. They expect to take Germany in 3 hours. Stunned by lack of knowledge and interest in the west. The Soviets would be victorious if a nuclear war was the result of all this. 25 bombers or missiles to distribute sareem, which could take out an entire city like Paris. Their assumptions are based upon the NATO forces as being powerless. 350,000 tons of diverse chemical weapons in Soviet Russia, as versus 40,000 tons, mostly old, kept in the U.S. The Soviet Union has to go to war in order to hide the failure of Communism.

From human viewpoint, Bob thinks that we are going this year. He has sources of information that we do not, not all from this country. T&P is now a worldwide organization, and Bob keeps in touch with people outside the U.S. through T&P.

The stats are not important unless God makes them important. Bob knows exactly what we are like and he knows how lame some of us are with respect to doctrine. We are facing war and revolution this year. There are people sitting here who are going to be great. This is how it stands 26 March in the year of our Lord 1980. Bob wonders how many days until the balloon goes up.

Narrative includes doctrine just as doctrinal passages. Bob could not have picked a greater contrast than with Romans, another study which is going on.

Qum in the Qal perfect carries the action of much of the first part of this verse.

Repetition of *Female Servant

1. The woman keeps identifying herself as a female subject, so she has a right to appear before David and state her case. She is an Israelite. There is no equality in the human race. However, there is equality before the law.

2. The fratricide stated in the previous verse has aroused the family of this woman. They want custody of her son in order to punish him under the law, which would be execution.

Gen. 9:5–6 Only your blood will I demand justice. From the hand of every man his brother, I will demand the life. Whoever sheds man’s blood, by man his blood will be shed, for in the image of God, He made man.

- 3 Factors of God’s Image
1. Self-consciousness; I am We have a right to freedom.
  2. Moral reasoning power, I ought The use of freedom in relationship to our values.
  3. Self-determination, I will The function of human freedom in its entirety.

This is freedom; this is man in the image of God. Man must accept the consequences of his actions. Murder removes this from another man, and therefore, this is the worst of all overt sins. It destroys the freedom of the individual. Man has a right to slaughter animals for food; but he does not have the right to slaughter people. Whenever man slaughters man, there is punishment.

Capital punishment is the exercise of legal justice.

Killing Which Destroys Freedom	Killing Which Protects Freedom
murder (this is killing which destroys freedom)	capital punishment killing in battle (this is killing which protects freedom)

This is how someone can return from killing thousands of people and he lives a good, honorable, law-abiding life. He can separate in his mind killing in battle as opposed to killing for personal reasons.

God has placed the sword of Rom. 13:4–11 in the hands of government. Ex. 21:12 capital punishment of animals Ex. 21:28. A bull who kills a man will be stoned to death and its flesh would not be eaten. Capital punishment must be a part of a legal trial. No person will be put to death on the evidence of one witness. In Jewish law, the evidence of one witness was not enough.

Lev. 24:17 murderers will be put to death. The death of the criminal protects the freedom of the law-abiding citizen. Jewish law always emphasizes the victim. When the person is proven guilty, so the closest relatives to the victim are called avengers of blood. The family of the immediate relatives were to kill a murderer of their own.

The rest of the family come to this woman, and they are demanding that she turn over her son. She is refusing to do so and she is appealing this case to David. The law is simple; it is the duty of the nearest of kin to execute anyone who has murdered a near relative.

The Qal imperative of Nathan. They are requiring that she hand over or give over for execution the one who strikes down her brother. The felony demands them take this son into custody to execute.

They do not name the son; they simply ask for him to be handed over. Anyone who destroys the freedom of another by murdering him has forfeited his own freedom. He who attacks the freedom of another, forfeits his own freedom. If you attack the privacy of another, forfeits the right to retain his own privacy.

The relatives are within their legal rights (bear in mind this has not really occurred).

Divine establishment and divine viewpoint of life is found in the Law. The Mosaic Law is a brief for freedom. The Ten Commandments describe what freedom is, from a negative standpoint. Any system of law in any nation which forgets the victim is incompatible with the laws of divine establishment. That nation will be punished severely. To forget the victim is malfunction of the law and destruction of human freedom. This is why the nearest of kin carry out the execution. In order to maintain freedom in a client nation, the court must always remember the victim.

2Sam. 14:7 [And now the whole clan has risen against your servant \[female subject\], and they say, 'Give up the man who struck his brother, that we may put him to death for the life of his brother whom he killed \[murdered\].'](#) And so they would destroy the heir also. Thus they would quench my coal that is left and leave to my husband neither name nor remnant on the face of the earth."

Motivation of David's sons; law of posterity Soviet plan: South Africa

Once they take South Africa and the mineral wealth to themselves,... John Trane on worse than OPEC. Soviet's campaign in South Africa. Rhodesia has fallen to the Communists. Guerillas are being armed by the National Council of Churches. Steps are described. Russia and South Africa will control certain minerals not found elsewhere. If South Africa falls, the west will have to accede to Soviet demands. Platinum, Magnesium, Manganese. The opportunities for blackmail are amazing. South Africa and Rhodesia are way ahead of us in solving their racial problems.

Russian objective want to control the Atlantic from the coast of Africa straight across to the Caribbean Sea.

It may be impossible for a democracy to have a coherent foreign policy, which is a committee action, which is no foreign policy at all.

Never in the history of this country have there been so many rotten missionaries. Most of them are liberals or holy rollers. Our mission fields are in an all-time state of confusion and disaster. To raise up a pivot is much more difficult. When the Huguenots were forced out of France, then went to Prussia, which set up a great nation.

Point of Law

1. In the Old Testament, avengers of blood is a technical term for the public executioners, which does not violate God's vengeance. Jewish law was perfect because it emphasized the victim. Gen. 9:6 where blood demands blood.
2. The execution of criminals was legal, but taking the law into one's own hands was illegal.
3. If David had tried Amnon for rape, Absalom would have executed Amnon. That would have been his responsibility. Absalom's assassination of Amnon was a crime.
4. Then Absalom would have been the avenger of blood under the law as opposed to the murderer that he became.
5. Personal vengeance is always forbidden. Absalom exercised revenge rather than law.
6. The nearest of kin was the court appointed executioner, which would have been Absalom.
7. In this way, the victim of the crime was remembered when crime was punished.
8. Under the present circumstances, Absalom is a criminal. The purpose of this woman from Tekoa is to get Absalom pardoned.
9. David held a trial, even though the defendant was not present. He was tried in absentia, and he was condemned to death. The evidence was overwhelming. 50 witnesses.

The woman gives a situation, where she is a widow, her husband is dead, and if her surviving son is executed, there will be a cutting off of this line.

This part of the script portrays the fact that the king's sons want to publically execute Absalom because he stands between them and the crown.

Absalom is in Geshur under the protection of his grandfather, a Hurrian king.

Joab has written a script in order to get Absalom off the hook.

Arrogance always resents greatness or potential greatness in others. Absalom is the only one with any sign of his father's greatness.

These 50 delighted in the idea of eliminating Absalom, their rival.

Arrogance leaders are incapable of thinking what is best for the nation; they can only think about what is best for themselves. They can only think about what is best for themselves. They only want to retain that power.

The king's sons have the legal right to execute Absalom. Under the law, they are official public executioners. They may all be under the habit of carrying stones wherever they go. They have no objection to executing him wherever they find him.

Their motivation is evil. It is human good + arrogance. The sentence was pronounced under the principle that sin + arrogance = evil. Only the execution of Absalom will prevent...

In the prologue to the drama, what she says indicates the motivation of the sons.

Furthermore, We Will Destroy the Heir

1. Under primogeniture, Absalom is the heir. Joab is not writing directly about the heir.
2. The rest of the king's sons were aware that, as long as Absalom is alive, legally, he is the heir. Therefore, they believe that he needs to be executed. Conspirators all think that they will come out on top.
3. This execution would eliminate the crown prince.
4. This would but the crown prince title up for grabs. Each crown prince is so arrogant, they think they will get it.
5. Each prince will think himself the most worthy.
6. The motivation. Arrogance produces evil motivations; evil motivation results in building one's happiness on top of someone else's unhappiness.
7. You can therefore understand the disgust of Joab. He is disgusted with the sons of the king. He sees their arrogance and their incapacities. They are a bunch of snotty, arrogant young men.
8. Joab is therefore motivated to write this great drama, the woman from Tekoa.

So far, we have covered a half of a verse.

An inferential waw translated therefore. This calls for the woman from Tekoa to reach a conclusion, which will be a point of civil law. This will be pertinency. Reverse concentration; doctrine will be applied to our situation. She will conclude citing a problem with posterity, which is civil law. However, Absalom was condemned under criminal law.

This is a burning coal and we might better understand it as a spark. This would be a blotting out of a name in Israel, was seen, at that time, as a great evil. The surviving son is seen as a murderer. Other male relatives are calling for the delivery of this son to be executed. So the woman wants her son pardoned because of the law of posterity.

Relative pronoun refers to son #2. He is surviving and they are trying to execute him the Niphal perfect of shaar. She introduces the law of posterity, which is not pertinent; but she appeals to the emotion of the judge.

So the first half of this verse refers to the trying of Absalom, who would be killed by his brothers.

We Will Look at the Law of Posterity

1. The law of posterity is the perpetuation of every original family who came into the land at the exodus. This is perpetuated by the male line. In England, if a man only had a daughter, when she married, they would combine their names and the husband would be called Lord ____-____. All hyphenated names in England are based upon this.
2. It was the responsibility of the brother to have sex with the widow in order to perpetuate his brother's line, if the brother died.
3. The law of posterity used by the pharisees to attempt to trap the Lord Jesus Christ.
4. The giving of the land. The people were sent in to possess the land. Also given to their posterity. The law of posterity only allowed the land to be inherited through the male line. In the Millennium, they would inherit the land finally. Deut. 11:9. So many things in the Bible are related to the law of posterity, and this is not interpreted by any commentator. This was so important that the land was ultimately returned to a family, no matter what the situation. Many do not get Ruth straight because they did not understand the laws of posterity which precede her.
5. The law of posterity was very important civil law. In our situation, this will set aside criminal law. David will swear by the name of the Lord to stay with his decision.
6. the 'law of posterity' (from: <http://www.oocities.org/gracechurchofcalf/ruth.html>) - a civil law to ensure that a man's name would pass from generation to generation. It only applies to 'true widows' where the husband has died. It does not apply to 'grass widows' - those who are divorced from their husbands (making their husband's 'dead' to them under the law). Boaz will marry Ruth in Chapter 4 so that Mahlon's name would be perpetuated and Ruth and their heirs would continue with their share of the promised land that God gave to them.
7. From: http://www.oocities.org/gracechurchofcalf/ruth\_04.html {under the law of posterity, the name of Mahlon and all its rights would be perpetuated by Boaz fathering children given Marlon's name} with his property/inheritance . . . so that 'his name'/'the name of the dead' will not disappear from 'the family records'/'among his brethren', and from the 'town records'/'gate of his place'. You all are witnesses this day {clarifying that this is a courtroom setting}."
8. From: http://www.oocities.org/gcoc2/numbers\_26.html {Note: The following is VERY IMPORTANT for the Jews and for us to understand books like Ruth. This was the land promised to the children of Israel by Families. If a family did not have a male child, they would lose their inheritance. They could sell their land, but every 50 years, the land reverted back to the original family (as long as there was a male child. To keep the 'law of posterity' active, a relative could take the widowed wife, impregnate her, and she could raise that child with her dead husband's name - and family right of inheritance.)}
9. From: http://syndein.com/mark\_12.html {this pertains to the law of posterity. Every 50 years the land reverts back to the family of the Exodus that God gave it to. But if the man dies without male heirs, then that branch of the family dies out - as does the land grant - this was a very serious matter to the Jews of this day}
10. See also <http://www.amginternational.org/www/word/79>

Bob has spent 14 hours on one verse alone. He has spent no less than 4 or 5 hours on each verse. Commentators who are supposed to be brilliant, wipe this out with a few words. For hundreds of years, this passage lies fallow. As a result, many of you will miss this point and marry the wrong man. Every man to whom you are attracted is not your RM. The first man who smiles at you if you are 30 and unmarried, you marry. Some of you girls are so fluffy headed, if you leaned over, sawdust would come out of your ears.

Ruth 4:9–10 then Boaz announced to the court, “I have bought all of this property and I have acquired Ruth so that his name would not disappear from the town records. So, today, you are witnesses.” This brings out the law of posterity. This was a pertinent, civil function, as illustrated in the book of Ruth.

The widow of Tekoa introduces one of the most popular laws in all of Jewish history. She is appealing a criminal case by inserting civil law.

2 laws can come into conflict, and we have to determine which is the pertinent law, and which is not. Psalm 37:28 The Lord loves imputed righteousness, but the posterity of the evil will be cut off. If there is crime, then the posterity is cut off. If there is a conflict, then you execute the criminal. Do not perpetuate criminality.

Perhaps this is unforgiven evil and inheriting the kingdom of God? Here, only criminal law is pertinent. The unforgiven sin is the overriding principle.

2Sam. 14:7 [And now the whole clan has risen against your servant \[female subject\], and they say \[have demanded\], 'Give up \[hand over\] the man who struck his brother, that we may put him to death for the life of his brother whom he killed \[murdered\].' And so they would destroy the heir also. Thus they would quench \[extinguish\] my coal that is left and leave to my husband neither name nor remnant on the face of the earth.](#)"

03/28/1980 Pertinency: criminal vs. civil law and justice vs. grace; doctrine of insidiousness of arrogance; sincerity; Soviet chemical war

Paul Stark, a taper, in the 82nd airbourne. Same class with Herman in Dallas Theological Seminary. He has a very small congregation in Longview and discovered with bone cancer and given 4 months to 4 years to live. Bob had high hopes for this guy. He has a great background in history. Wonderful redheaded wife and daughter.

Everywhere you turn, the truth is being told. Bob used to always enjoy the Houston Tribune, which is now the Texas Tribune. A photo of a beautiful road which is used for Russia invading Afghanistan. Ron Paul is a sharp congressman, and he says that we paid for this road with our taxpayer money. We made this invasion possible. 1961–1965 we worked building double-laned highway in some of the most inaccessible areas of the world, with 50 bridges was an engineering triumph and a financial disaster. $100 million in 1980 terms. We connected our road to the one the Soviets were building; could anything be more emblematic of our foreign policy. Foreign aid which props up our enemies in foolish.

Even a NY Times article about the Soviets waging chemical warfare. This is the decontaminating plane, to de-contaminate after chemical warfare. Poison gas is a counterinsurgency weapon the Soviets can and will use. They will use this to destroy guerrillas.

If you don't get the feeling of war, you will.

The first 7 verses are read.

2Sam. 14:7 [And now the whole clan has risen against your servant \[female subject\], and they say \[have demanded\], 'Give up \[hand over\] the man who struck his brother, that we may put him to death for the life of his brother whom he killed \[murdered\].' And so they would destroy the heir also. Thus they would quench \[extinguish\] my coal that is left and leave to my \[dead\] husband without a name or remnant on the face of the earth."](#)

God will not forsake His faithful ones. The posterity of the evil will be cut off.

Pertinent Law

1. A true and pertinent law can be distracted by a non-pertinent law, which probably occurs all of the time. There are a lot of legitimate laws on the books for civil and criminal laws.
2. Justice can distract from justice from the introduction of non-pertinent law. But non-pertinency happens to be the thinking of the day. So many clucks in the congregation who are unable to figure out what is pertinent. Such people make a series of mistakes and then ask why God let this happen to them.
3. The law of posterity is not pertinent to a criminal case, as Psalm 37:38
4. It is true that if the surviving son is executed, the posterity is destroyed; but the issue is criminality, not the extension of posterity. In the psychology textbooks; the study of the Jukes, and they had become criminals all over the country and had cost taxpayers millions of dollars in prosecution. They should have been wiped out back when they were in Indiana and Ohio when those were still territories. Capital punishment is to eliminate criminality for future generations and during that generation.
5. Joab wrote a script to get this across. Joab had probably gone to David on many occasions says, "Can Absalom return" and David would say, "No, he will be executed." Joab thinks that this is essential to stave off a revolution and to prepare Absalom to succeed his father. Joab is sincere. Sincerity is not a virtue. It is not a Christian virtue. The person who introduced sincerity as a virtue was foolish. It is a disguise; a facade for self-righteous hypocrisy and self-righteous arrogance. Sin + arrogance = evil. Human good + arrogance = evil. If you are here for the first time or here spying, you will not understand what is being said.

6. If Joab's script succeeds, then David will be distracted from criminal law, and he will incorporate posterity law, which is not pertinent.
7. Joab foresees great disaster for Israel if the present princes follow David on the throne. Absalom cannot come back because he has been tried in absentia. There are at least 50 princes who want to become king. David will reset a precedent for a neutral case. This will affect all future fulfillings.
8. Joab introduces a point of law not pertinent to the case to distract from a law which is pertinent.
9. A full pardon must be issued, or Absalom will be executed.
10. David will rule for a stay of execution. Absalom will be remanded into the custody of Joab.

2Sam. 14:7 And now the whole clan has risen against your servant [female subject], and they say [have demanded], 'Give up [hand over] the man who struck his brother, that we may put him to death for the life of his brother whom he killed [murdered].' And so they would destroy the heir also. Thus they would quench [extinguish] my coal that is left and leave to my [dead] husband without a name or remnant on the face of the earth."

By distracting David from the criminal law and inserting a non-pertinent civil law, Joab will bring Absalom back to Israel. The principle is simple: sincerity + deceit results in Joab's loss of integrity.

In the 2nd stage of the faith rest drill, you live the Christian life. The 1st stage is just the routine for the 2nd stage. Stage 1, your faith reaches out and claims promises, to remove the fear-panic ploy; the difference between courage and cowardice is the ability to think under pressure. In this thought, we have not yet developed the king of thought which is necessary. We will now add pertinent thought. Faith reaches out in reverse concentration and applies doctrine to experience; it must be pertinent doctrine applied. We have learned 3 basic rationales. Faith reaches out and uses the essence of God rationale; the plan of God rationale with the supercharger afortiori; and then the love of God rationale. We come to doctrinal conclusions. This is the true faith rest. We can claim promises all day long, but that is but the 1st stage. Claiming promises is no good unless you have a backup.

We, as believers, are no better than the doctrine resident in our souls. Some will never have to worry about pertinency because we won't have to learn anything about pertinency. Some day you will be caught because they are not pertinent to the situation.

Every time you girls, the fluffy headed ones, in the history of Berachah Church there have been very attractive men there, and there have been girls and ladies who come from far and near to hear doctrine, allegedly, but they are really shopping for a meal ticket, for security; and the best boys were picked off already at home, so the first guy who smiles and shows a mouthful of teeth, so this flibbity gibbet runs off with him, and says, this is from the Lord. This is non-pertinent information. She only learned RM/RW. The abuse is unbelievable; and if the effect is as good as the abuse, then it will be a great set of results. Just because a predatory type gives you two nice dates, does not mean you ought to marry anyone very soon.

Most people get married for all of the wrong reasons; meal ticket, all the gf's are married, no one invites them out anymore. I'll be an old maid, a 22 year old girl said to Bob 10 years ago; and now she wishes that she was. RM/RW is a good doctrine, but do not abuse it by applying it to every guy who says boo to you. There are many wonderful doctrines, but they do not come into focus every time. Bob has made his share of mistakes; it was with assistant pastors for the most part. People he trusted.

Take in the brethren; help the downtrodden. Help all of these poor people. There is another doctrine which says, check on them; and call down there and find out what their track record was where they came from. We all have our failings and Bob is still okay with taking in stray dogs. He might even hold the record. If he knew more about pertinency, maybe he would not make those mistakes. However, it has provided him with a lot of illustrations.

Doctrine of the insidiousness of arrogance. We were talking about Joab's arrogance; crusader arrogance; mental arrogance; self righteous arrogance. God deliver us from crusaders. We've tried to set up a church without any crusaders. Crusader arrogance always causes problems. There is a person who can crank up more trouble than even your criminal. You look at the 20 page thing you get from the census, and it is an intrusion of your privacy and the result of crusaders.

Insidiousness and Arrogance

1. Absalom, Joab and David are all mature believers. If mature believers can get into jams like this, then one needs to take this to heart. It is never God's will for a mature believer to be inside of interlocking systems of arrogance. Interlocking systems of arrogance destroys our potentiality. We may have great talent and great abilities in many fields, but arrogance destroys them all. The believer inside interlocking systems of arrogance is incapable of applying the right doctrine to the right circumstance. Usually, they go to counselors and get more bad doctrinal suggestions. We will make more wrong decisions because some sincere believer counsels us. E.g., a counselor telling a teen to disobey one's parents. Even if they are negative toward doctrine. When children violate the authority of their parents, it takes years to straighten them out. Only doctrine can rescue a teen from rejecting the authority of their parents. The most basic disorientation to life is the rejection of parental authority. Most teens never get over violating their parents authority. It does not matter how unreasonable, how unfair, how legalistic. It takes a lot of doctrine and a lot of hard knocks. To get authority-orientation when training some of these young people, you have to kill about 10% of them while training. Absalom had an arrogance problem.
2. Joab by writing the script and David teamed up in blind arrogance made a decision which would bring about revolution.
3. The basis of grace is the punishment of Jesus Christ on the cross.

4. To forgive without punishment is a miscarriage of justice. It confuses salvation and rebound. Naming your sins for forgiveness is grace. The justice of God is half of His integrity. The justice of God was judged for our sins. So we say it is by grace, and it is absolutely correct. Bob goes over rebound and suggests we go to Spring Branch if we want to feel sorry for our sins. In 1951, when Bob began to teach rebound, the deacons called him in and said that he was corrupting the youth. No one likes to be punished. Bob's father was so good at it, it still makes Bob shudder. The issue in a situation like that is authority. No politicking in church, and Bob will throw you right out. Bible doctrine does not tell you have to vote. You take Bible doctrine and apply it yourself.
5. Jesus Christ received the punishment for our sins.
6. Divine forgiveness and pardon are a fact of grace.
7. Salvation by faith in Christ and rebound are made possible by the judgement of our sins on the cross.
8. To deny divine discipline is to reject the justice of God. Therefore, this maligns His integrity. You may think for awhile that you can get away with it, but no one gets away with it. Sinning, without punishment, does not mean that God graced you out. However, someone may have gossiped or rmaligned about you, and they took on your punishment.
9. But David will not punish Absalom nor will he forgive Absalom. David rejects the laws of divine establishment and the modus operandi of grace from the justice of God.
10. Establishment law would punish Absalom and grace law would forgive Absalom. Neither was used. Bob invites anyone to stand and give his testimony if they have not been duped by the woman from Tekoa.

Joab enters into interlocking systems of arrogance through the crusader gate to fix the country. Absalom entered into interlocking systems of arrogance through the criminal gate and mental attitude sins.

2Samuel 14:8a      72David 03/30/1980 Obedience to parents

631_0332

Cancer analogy to interlocking systems of arrogance; principles of pertinency; expediency; basis of grace = punishment; legal pardon vs. emotion.

2 factors lead to revolution: interlocking systems of arrogance and reversionism. People hear the truth and they reject it. The laws of divine establishment for both believer and the unbeliever in the Lord Jesus Christ. When the unbeliever rejects the laws of divine establishment, the scar tissue of the soul results in strong delusion, and they are quick to believe a law. Ditto when he rejects the gospel. Strong delusion becomes the order of the day.

Arrogance is one of the most destructive factors. A perfect illustration is found in Time magazine from 31March 1980, and the drug interferon is being discussed. There is a parallel between cancer and interlocking systems of arrogance. It can start with a cell and a random transcription, it can lie dormant for decades, or it can suddenly attack. Outlaws which reject normal restraints. It can be a cell affected by radiation or several things. The body's immune system normally finds these aberrant cells and removes them. However, these cells continue to multiply. They continue to proliferate wildly, and they continue to grow and compete with real cells for nourishment. Then cells are sent out and they establish beach heads, they infiltrate, starve and destroy the organs which they get to. That year, 405,000 will die from cancer and a million will be diagnosed with it. The best that many cancer victims can expect is to have their lives extended a few years. 2/3 eventually die of this disease.

Israel has the greatest system of divine establishment. We are on the verge of a world war and conflict with Russia. We are totally unprepared. We are not equipped to fight any kind of a war. The person in the White House is so confused and so unable to make decisions which make any sense. He is a wildly idiotic person. In Europe they regard him as one of the most idiotic people to come along. Sending Cassius Clay as an ambassador, this has sent Europe into hysterics. Those in Europe think that we have gone completely crazy.

Review of the widow of Tekoa coming in to the king, and she has 2 sons who have quarreled and one son killed another because there was no one to stop them. Jewish law emphasized the victim. There were no public executioners. Male relatives were called avengers of blood and they killed the criminal, if he was declared guilty.

2Sam. 14:7 [And now the whole clan has risen against your servant \[female subject\], and they say \[have demanded\], 'Give up \[hand over\] the man who struck his brother, that we may put him to death for the life of his brother whom he killed \[murdered\].'](#) [And so they would destroy the heir also. Thus they would quench \[extinguish\] my coal that is left and leave to my \[dead\] husband without a name or remnant on the face of the earth."](#)

The law of posterity. Deut. 1:8 related to giving of the land. Deut. 11:9 this law was tested throughout Jewish history. The one with the greatest amount of interest is found in Ruth 4:9–10 Ruth was marrying Boaz and Boaz would continue the line of Malon. This way, there was not a loss of this family.

The year of Jubilee, property would be sold and end up in various names, but every 49th year the property reverted back to the original family. The illustration of Smith-Dorian.

There are 2 laws at work here: criminal law and civil and both laws come into conflict here. The question is, which law is pertinent to the case. Whenever there is a conflict, criminal law triumphs. No criminal has a right to perpetuate the family name. The posterity of the evil will be cut off. From psalm 37. So only criminal law here is pertinent. David failed for several reasons, which included emotion. A true and pertinent point of law can be distracted by a true and non-pertinent law. Non-pertinent law has destroyed our thinking with regards to minorities.

The studies of the Jukes (Jutes Joots?) Who were criminals for many generations. Human good + arrogance = evil. Joab thinks that Absalom must be pardoned and he thinks that no one in David's line can take over. He sees only Absalom as the one who could take over. Absalom has great potential. He is a genius with a great personality; he has everything in the world going for him; and he is convinced that Absalom needs to succeed David.

Robin Hood should have been executed. He was a low-down scum criminal who should have been executed.

There are criminals in our history who have been glorified.

David will grant clemency based upon civil law.

Once you establish the scar tissue of the soul through rejecting the authority of parents, there is almost no recovery from life. We have an entire generation which has rejected their parents' authority, and they may go on to destroy themselves and possibly this country. Once they have established that precedent in their souls, the cancer from it destroys them. The woman then rejects the authority of her husband.

In Israel, a man who rejected authority could be drafted and this might reinstall authority in his soul.

The Beatles marked a great period of rejecting authority.

There are no afros in Africa. Bob is sent photos of people there from missionaries and they look like men with crewcut.

Joab regards Absalom as the only hope for Israel. Joab figures that if Absalom does not take over, Israel will fall into revolution. So every time he brings this up to David, David says, "I failed with Amnon, so Absalom will be executed if he returns."

So Joab wrote a script to introduce a nonpertinent law.

Sincerity is a facade for evil and hypocrisy. We faced these issues in 1946 when we faced honor versus expediency. So, we acceded to those who allowed Stalin to take over huge numbers of people. We should not have allowed him into Hungary, or into Berlin. We should have said no and we should have stopped them. We have 11,000,000 under arms and nuclear weapons, and we should have stopped them. We ignored the pertinent and went to the non-pertinent.

The ChiComs are as evil as the RuskieComs. We should be protecting Rhodesia and we should guarantee the safety of South Africa. The UN is as evil as the tower of Babel. We think in terms of cowardice. We should have executed Jane Fonda as a traitor; same for Mohammed Ali; we should have shot the rioters in the streets when they demonstrated against the war.

Democracy does not work for any country. We got rid of a good dictator in Vietnam and tried to set up a democracy. Democracy is a veneer of hypocrisy. We built roads in Afghanistan which were used by the Russians to invade by tanks. We are insane. We have supported communism and kept them alive. The Russians could not have fought the war without us. We fed them the final 3 years of the war. We used the roads of Iran, called the Persian corridor. Once you are involved in interlocking systems of arrogance, you become involved in psychopathic arrogance.

FDR provoked a war with Japan in order to save his New Deal. He was a Russia-phile. He had no honor. From that moment to this, that order has been the way we roll. We have done this to ourselves through interlocking systems of arrogance. Expediency almost destroyed Israel in David's day.

This ruse was sincere on Joab's part. Arrogance neutralizes the greatest of abilities. David had a loss of honor and integrity which has not been fully recovered. Absalom and David and Joab are all mature believers.

The basis of grace is always punishment. Someone else pays. To forgive without punishment is a miscarriage of grace. God imputes to us after birth human life so that we become members of the human race. All of us are condemned before God's justice on the basis of Adam's original sin. This recognizes our personal sins. Our personal sins are not the basis of our condemnation. There must be punishment before there can be grace. Anyone who dies before reaching responsibility goes to heaven. Grace means punishment first. Grace means that someone did something for us first. Because Christ was judged for our sins, someone else was punished. After we believe, we commit a sin. We do not feel sorry for these sins; we just name them. We are forgiven and cleansed from all unrighteousness. There is no penance; there is no system that someone makes up which gains forgiveness for us. We have to confess, name or cite.

Justice blesses each believer because he possesses the righteousness of God. The justice of God blesses the indwelling righteousness of God. Justice of God to the righteousness of God. In this way, the essence of God is never compromised. The minister who runs around with his hand out, saying, God will bless you if you give; that is a lie. It is easy to distort grace into a system of legalism and non-pertinency.

Once you say your pardon someone, then you have to forgive them and forget it. Legally, David pardons Absalom, but then he never forgives him. David has to be able to put this behind them. David, a mature believer, got tangled up in a doctrine called pertinency.

David refusing to see Absalom upon his return is not punishment and it is not grace. This will be a catalytic agent in the start of the revolution.

2Sam. 14:7 [And now the whole clan has risen against your servant \[female subject\], and they say \[have demanded\], 'Give up \[hand over\] the man who struck his brother, that we may put him to death for the life of his brother whom he killed \[murdered\].'](#) [And so they would destroy the heir also. Thus they would quench \[extinguish\] my coal \burning coal of my posterity] that is left and leave to my [dead] husband without a name or remnant on the face of the earth."

Some Final Principles

1. The woman is trying to move David from the pertinent to the non-pertinent.
2. Distracting points of law deal with real issues, so the real law is lost.
3. This is duplicated in the 20th century function of jurisprudence in the U.S. Sentiment is aroused for the criminal. However, once you pardon a criminal, you must forgive and forget.
4. The liberal judge is arrogant and emotional about the criminal rather than rational about the law.
5. Distracting points of law provide rights for the criminal. Outside of legal rights, the criminal has no rights. Bringing in non-pertinent law gives rights to the criminal, which leads to anarchy and revolution.
6. When the law is used to distract from the law, there is a miscarriage of justice. The nation manufactures crime instead of restraining it.
7. David will be distracted from the pertinent law. However, once David makes an emotional decision to pardon Absalom, he must forgive him. He needs to forgive Absalom for the crime and forget it. David's emotion will not sustain him. Honor and integrity will forgive and forget.

Emotion is not love and it cannot sustain love. Love is a thought which sustains emotion. Love is a fantastic thing and love is thought. From that thought comes emotion, wonderful romanticism. Every teen who has rejected the authority of their parent is running around on emotion.

Now we are ready for David's decision. This decision will set off anarchy. Crusaders are always the front, but behind them pulling the strings are the criminals.

Karensky and Trotsky were the criminals and Stalin and Lenksi were the criminals. The criminals use the crusaders and take over. David became more concerned with the woman's posterity than with the crime.

The death of the criminal will not bring back the life of the victim, which is true; but not a basis for pardoning the criminal. So many judges have made their decisions based upon this idea.

2Sam. 14:8 Then the king said to the woman, "Go to your house, and I will give orders concerning you."

2Samuel 14:8b–9a

72David

631_0333

03/30/1980 Non-pertinent law distracts from justice, freedom, and authority; accountability for use of volition

Review of the translation of v. 7. David accepts social action in law, which buries the function of criminal law. The judges of our land are unable to describe criminality in relationship to the law. They recuse and pardon more criminals than are being punished. Crusaders + criminals = revolution. The sincere do-goobers provide the basis for the coup de tat of revolution.

It became more important to David to preserve the posterity of the woman than to punish her son for the murder. David will be trapped by his decision. The false principle is, the death of the criminal will not bring back the life of the victim; therefore, why kill the criminal? That is an approach made by many.

David orders her to go home, and then says he will give orders concerning her.

Closing Points on V. 8

1. This is David agreeing to her.
2. Civil law given place over criminal law.
3. Her son is deserving of death, but David has permitted the law of posterity to apply.
4. Under the laws of posterity, which is civil and social law, the perpetuation of her husband's name is more important than punishment for crime.
5. David rendered an emotional decision. This meant, if a criminal is
6. The punishment of her son by death, implies David, will not bring back the life of the victim, the older brother. So David makes a decision where he detecides to forget the victim. The Word of God teaches that the victim must be remembered. So all public executions were accomplished by the nearest male relative to the victim. They were called avengers of blood. There were no paid executioners in Jewish law.
7. Loyalty to sociology takes precedence over punishment to a criminal and it results in evil. Human good + arrogance = evil.
8. Justice distracts from justice when non-pertinent laws are applied. By applying human good in the state of arrogance, David has distorted the law, resulting not only in unrestrained crime, but it energizes revolution.
9. Unless a judge is wise and discerning, he becomes a dupe. When a judge uses non-pertienecy, it become impertinency.
10. David's decision is wrong; the posterity of a murderer ought not to be perpetuated. This was a chapter from the basic psychology textbooks used in college before WarII.

“Go home and I will issue a restraining order on your behalf.”

1. When a nation functions on interlocking systems of arrogance, it favors sociological principles over the function of justice and psychiatry over justice.
2. When an insane person commits a crime, it comes from their own volition and they must be punished.

3. Both were guilty because of extenuating circumstances, the woman bore children and the man had his own punishment. We are held responsible for sins of ignorance. This puts us out of fellowship, and that means we will commit a known sin, and we will be restored to fellowship.

Next Set of Points

1. We are responsible for all of the decisions which we make. Most people like to use ignorance as an excuse. However, ignorance is never an excuse.
2. In a degenerate nation, a criminal is excused for some kinds of decisions.
3. So the criminal is not distorted.
4. The victim and the loved ones of the victim are forgotten.
5. In this distortion, the criminals are regarded by society as unfortunates or as heroes; victims of their environment. So people make heroes out of various criminals. We almost had revolution when Richard the Lionhearted was king of England. He did not speak English but French and Latin. Robin Hood is considered a hero, but the unrestrained crime at that time almost destroyed England. So, when criminals are made heroes, then law enforcement is made into the villain. The criminals are considered unfortunates or heroes.
6. True order is exchanged for revolution, tyranny and revolution.
7. Constitutional law is set aside by the liberal preoccupied by extending life for all creatures. He has an erroneous scale of values. He has no sense of integrity. He always has the panacea, the thing which will solve everything.
8. We call this playing god. They rationalize that the death of a criminal will not restore the life of the victim.
9. It is true that the death of the criminal restrains others. From the Ten Commandments, we learn how to define freedom. Many of them do not define sin but they are all related to freedom. Today, the US is on the verge of anarchy and revolution. One reason for this serious situation is because judges are distracted from the true principles of law. They are too hipped on converting a criminal into a non-criminal. They pardon them or parole them.

David's decision is emotional arrogance. Psalm 37:28.

The Law Failing to Punish the Criminal

1. When the law fails to punish the criminal, then it punishes society, freedom is destroyed.
2. Life, privacy and property are the essential ingredients of freedom. These are much better affected under a good, enlightened monarchy. They can, for a few hundred years, be protected by a republic.
3. Therefore, crime becomes the enemy of freedom. Murder, invasion of privacy and destruction of property. Rape, murder, stealing.
4. Freedom is the poicy of the justice of God in the creation of the human race to resolve the Angelic Conflict.

the justice of God wants people to be able to exercise their freedom to choose Jesus Christ. What about Africans and Indians, etc. All pristine societies reach God-consciousness at some point.

It was the British empire which went into Africa and provided them freedom and stopped the slave trade. The Belgian went into the Congo and provided them with freedom. There is no such thing as African history apart from the British Empire, the German Empire and the Belgians. The issue in life is freedom.

There is no need for a census; it is an intrusion of our privacy rights. The only census taking should be the drafting of young men for the army.

Authority and Freedom

1. Failure on the judge's bench destroys our freedom. It is unlawful to put peoples names into computers unless they are freed. This is a violation of human freedom. It is lawful to take unregistered aliens and to get rid of them. It is lawful to prosecute criminals. It is not the government's business how many are in your home and how many bathrooms you have. The concept of the constitution is little government and big people.
2. Life privacy and property are the essential elements of freedom.
3. Crime destroys freedom
4. Freedom is the policy of the justice of God in the creation of the human race to resolve the Angelic Conflict.
5. Freedom and authority are mated under the laws of divine establishment. You cannot have freedom without authority; you cannot have. God gave to every person a mother and a father so that you can be basically oriented to life. Your first authority in life is your most important. The authority of your parents, which will determine your capacity for happiness or for unhappiness. If you reject authority from an early age, this could be the basis for all of your problems. You cannot reject the authority of your parents. What is left to you is doctrine, or your life is crap. Some parents cannot control their kids, but no snottosed kid is going to run roughshod over Berachah Church. When you reject authority as a teenager, you gravitate toward democracy, liberalism and the welfare state. You wind up saying, the world owes you a living. You think you are as good as this or that person, and you are not. You haven't done anything in life.
6. Freedom without authority is anarchy and authority without freedom is tyranny.
7. You cannot see yourself as equal. Wait until the airlines start hiring someone who thinks he is as good as any pilot. There is no happiness in such delusions. You do not need equality in life in order to have happiness. You need freedom. Freedom cannot guarantee nor manufacture equality in the human race. The more you use your freedom, the more inequality there is. Your attitude toward doctrine is key. Your volition and your freedom will demonstrate something which is important. There is no equality in heaven. Everyone will have a resurrection body, and that is all the equality there is. Freedom guarantees inequality. Political arrogance seeks to reverse this principle.

8. Freedom must have common law. Common law cannot produce equality. There is equality before the law, but no equality of outcomes.
9. Freedom is the reality of the law, but equality is the myth of the law. Victor Hugo said equality is just envy or jealousy.
10. The law cannot make people equal; it can only separate the criminal from the law-abiding. All criminals are inferior by their own decision to enter crime. Therefore, their inferiority becomes a cancer that can only be restrained by punishment.
11. Freedom does not guarantee equality; only inequality.
12. The judge on the bench must recognize his responsibility to the law and to society. After the evidence is in and guilt has been determined, then punishment must be given.

2Sam. 14:8 Then the king said to the woman, "Go to your house, and I will give orders concerning you."

Act I:

beware of the person who compliments the judge on his decision. This should tell the judge that something is wrong. It is no longer a system of law; it is no longer arbitration.

Beware of the flattery of the woman. However, this looks like a well-worked over congregation. However, some of the greatest traps in history have been sprung this way. Not every flattering woman is not out to get you; but they may be out to go-get you. Most people learn this lesson the hard way. Do not ever be bitter because you are hooked by the flattering words of a woman. Look on the bright side; at least she was beautiful and she talked to you.

Final Points

1. For the king hearing the case, the decision is simple. Once he makes a decision, it is all over. However, for the woman, she is just about to begin the fight. We discover it is the first inning and not the ninth after we make a decision.
2. For the woman of Tekoa, the case is not closed.
3. The king's decision was too obscure to accomplish the purpose of Joab.
4. You do not go home after the end of the prologue of a drama. The prologue only begins the drama; it is not the end. There are many things to be settled in favor of the woman, who is acting for Joab.

The brothers of Absalom are all waiting around for Absalom to set foot in Israel. Joab would have made a fantastic lawyer. There is no basis yet for understanding David's attitude toward Absalom. The king's decision here is too obscure. There is no clear decision which has been made, so the woman cannot claim a clearly determine the fate of her son.

When the woman is saying something which makes little sense, that is when the plan is advancing rapidly.

2Sam. 14:9 And the woman of Tekoa said to the king, "On me be the guilt, my lord the king, and on my father's house; let the king and his throne be guiltless."

2Sam. 14:9b 72David 03/31/80 teens and 4th cycle of discipline 631_0334

Woman of Tekoa confuses David; change of custodian of criminal requested

Rev. Stark is now in Houston for treatment.

Repercussions of revolution and unrest in the national entity. Review from verse 1. Zeruiah was the sister of David and she raised 3 sons who became general officers in Israel's military.

Genius is not confined to one area; he is also a genius in the field of drama production. This is a reality show. Joab put the scenario in the woman's mouth. Joab has followed David's family life for many years. As a battalion commander, David married a little snit who became the mother of Amnon. Then he married the aristocrat Maacah, daughter of Talmai, King of Geshur. Indo-aryan aristocrats and they took over the Cassites, who conquered Babylon. Leader of the Hyksos and ruled 2 dynasties. They were the most magnificent aristocrats of the ancient world. The kingdom of Geshur is right across the river from Israel. David had an older family and a young family like Bing Crosby. The most basic orientation to life is recognition of parental authority. Teens who reject parental authority. Miserable all of their lives; off balance for the rest of their lives. Teens who reject authority. One reason we will enter into the 4th cycle of discipline is a heavy rejection of authority. In order for a client nation to survive, these types must be destroyed; otherwise, the nation will be destroyed. Parents always seem unreasonable to children. This is the basic authority in life, and when this authority is rejected, then freedom is jeopardized. Freedom and authority must be mated. Destroy freedom, then you disrupt it all.

Equality is one of the great evils. Wherever you have equality, you have no freedom. Equality is imposed and it is tyrannical. No distinction between the person who works hard and succeeds and those who do not. What sticks in Bob's mind, equality is the political translation of envy (Victor Hugo).

No hired executioners; the nearest relatives to the victim would act as executioner. One son kills the other, and the living son is the end of the line. If he is executed, then the family name will be wiped out. Avengers of blood call for him to be handed over to be executed.

Joab has noticed the 50 or so sons of David as worthless, although they want to execute Absalom. Absalom, in his opinion, is the only one of the original sons who has the genius, talent, and leadership to to rule in David's stead. The brothers want to kill him, because he is the only person standing in their way.

They are ready to kill Absalom. Joab cannot get Absalom back to Israel without him being executed. Their motivation is expressed in, "We will kill the heir." The script asks for a non-pertinent law to be applied where only civil law ought to be introduced.

Non pertinent application. Pertinent doctrine must be applied to the situation. So, every time a young doll comes down to Houston and some hulking guy comes to her and says, "I just reached supergrace, let's have dinner" and 3 months later, she is pregnant. So there has been a misapplication of some sort.

2Sam. 14:7–8 And now the whole clan has risen against your servant [female subject], and they say [have demanded], 'Give up [hand over] the man who struck his brother, that we may put him to death for the life of his brother whom he killed [murdered].' And so they would destroy the heir also. Thus they would quench [extinguish] my coal [burning coal of my posterity] that is left and leave to my [dead] husband without a name or remnant on the face of the earth." Then the king said to the woman, "Go to your house, and I will give orders concerning you."

The woman from Tekoa said, "Let the iniquity be upon me." The woman has received a favorable decision from the Supreme Court but she continues to talk. The issue is simple and the matter seemed to be settled. The man who thinks an issue is completed when dealing with a woman means that you do not know anything about life. The case is just beginning. This is merely the prologue to the script. So far, this woman has gotten none of which Joab wants. There are not enough principles in this decision to apply this to Absalom. The woman must get David to apply the decision in this fictitious case to Absalom and Amnon. There is nothing gained by getting a restraining order against a family which does not exist.

Why would she suddenly say, transfer this whole blame to me? David is so impressed by this woman in distress. She talked to the ground, with her hair covering her face; and David is impressed by all of this. Bob has many times jumped to help a woman in distress to find out that he was the one in distress and who needed help.

This woman has just uttered a lie which has no bearing on the prologue at all. All of a sudden, out of nowhere, she begins to talk about guilt. When a woman stops making sense, then the plot is thickening. She now has your full attention. David is playing Sir Galahad, also known as the chump.

When she talks about iniquity, David is all ears and wondering what is going on. Awon is a noun translated iniquity, perversity; depravity, guilt. How do you put this in modern English? Where did this genius Joab learn so much about women? But he was a soldier and soldiers do get around. When not defending our country, they must defend womanhood.

“Oh my lord, the king, the guilt is upon me and upon my father’s family.” So there is something which David has missed. There will be a restraining order against the avengers of blood, and then the woman says, “It’s all my fault.” Now David wonders, what is she talking about? So he will make a polite inquiry. He did not know he was on trial. It is very simple. Beware of the woman who thinks logically, because she will get you every time. With the male mind, you will have difficulty. You can see why some governments have decided to put women in combat. So she now tells the king, “It is not your fault” and David has never thought it is not my fault; how is it my fault? Joab wrote this script and he is a genius. He is a military and a dramatic genius. He is probably a genius in the relationship between men and women.

The throne here refers to the government of David. Innocent and free from blame. Both the king and his government are free from guilt. But, what has never come up is, the idea that there is any guilt which belongs to David. Furthermore, there is no pair of sons and no murder and no name to preserve. However, what she says causes David to think. She says, “I will take the responsibility.” She will take the responsibility for pardoning a murderer. David has just decided to pardon this murderer (who does not exist). The woman will take the responsibility. Joab wants custody of Absalom. If he has custody of Absalom, then Absalom will be safe, no one will bother with him. He will end up providing security for a revolutionary leader.

We are using the jussive here; she is petitioning the king. David is making one of the most horrible mistakes that a king can make.

Analysis of this Verse

1. The court takes the responsibility for its decisions. However, the woman is willing to take the responsibility away from the court. This sounds nice, but she cannot do it. She is really unable to do this, but it makes sense to her. When a woman does it, it sounds noble. When a man does it, it sounds horrible.
2. In other words, the woman is asking the court to release to her custody the murderer and she and her family will take responsibility for it. The public executioner does not provide any security for the criminal. The public executions see the whole principle of Jewish law. Jewish law never forgets the victim. Absalom assassinated Amnon. The woman is saying that she, the mother, and the rest of the family, now will take the criminal in, and they will provide for her security. They will provide the money, the food, they will take care of her for life. The true principle of pardon. Absalom never committed a crime. Forget the crime and forget the criminal. Do not treat him as a criminal, but treat him as if he is no longer guilty of anything. The spirit of the law says, forget the victim, forget the crime and forgive the criminal. A pardon is worthless without all of that.
3. The woman asks the court to release the criminal to her. This indicates that she will support him. The victims of the crime will support him.
4. This would imply that Joab is asking for Absalom be remanded to his custody. Joab is willing to take the responsibility of Absalom. This is how sincere and patriotic that Joab is, but he is sincerely wrong. This explains 2Sam. 18:14 Joab said, "I will not waste time like this with you." And he took three javelins in his hand and thrust them into the heart of Absalom while he was still alive in the oak. Absalom had very long and thick hair. He returns as a hippie. He illustrates being a teen who has rejected authority. Bob could never trade a mule to jump. They have minds all of their own. Bob got injured. He liked to go fast on a jumping horses. Ended his career as a horse trainer there. Bob draw a picture of Absalom and the horse and the tree.

5. Since Absalom was in Joab's custody, he was the only one who could disobey the order of the king to kill him. He thrusts 3 javelins into Absalom's heart. David asked for Absalom to be spared in 2Sam. 18:5, but Joab, when Absalom was in his custody, became his nearest of kin. David will release Absalom into the custody of his son without even seeing his son. It was a forgiveness that was not a forgiveness. The woman has requested to take custody of the child. It is the matter of a pardoned criminal and who is responsible for that. David could not stop the revolution and Joab could not either, but he was able to kill the leader of the revolution.

Neither the king or the government were responsible for government. He will be under the responsibility of Joab, so Joab has the ability and responsibility to kill Absalom. And the king ordered Joab and Abishai and Ittai, "Deal gently for my sake with the young man Absalom." And all the people heard when the king gave orders to all the commanders about Absalom (2Sam. 18:5). David no longer has custody of Absalom. So he is under Joab's custody, and Joab makes certain that there will never again be a Absalom line.

2Sam. 14:9 And the woman of Tekoa said to the king, "On me be the guilt, my lord the king, and on my father's house; let the king and his throne be guiltless [free from guilt]."

The supreme court judge has become the obedient servant of this woman from Tekoa. David's next decision of how to get out on a limb with a rusty saw.

First Analysis of 2Sam. 14:10

1. The king's second decision indicates that no one can require her to hand over her son for execution. This is regarded by the woman as harassment.

2. Family or relatives are demanding that the law of punishment be fulfilled, which is the attitude of Absalom's brothers. These 42 bastards all want to kill Absalom, but none should follow after David.
3. David, as supreme court judge, issues a restraining order to keep anyone from trying to execute this woman's son.
4. The supreme court decision is equivalent to granting immunity to Absalom for his murder of Amnon. David is going to be tricked into pardoning Absalom. When the law says a man is not a criminal, he is to be treated like any other citizen. Even though David pardons Absalom, he is unable to forgive Absalom himself, and this will lead to revolution.
5. Each decision made by David is final, especially if the judge repeats the decision.
6. David has now rendered 2 decisions as supreme court judge. He has agreed to pardon the criminal and he will not allow anyone to take revenge on Absalom. Once there is a stay of execution, there may be someone left who wants to take vengeance against Absalom. A stay of execution and a bulletin, saying, if anyone seeks to take revenge, that person will be tried and executed.
7. This means, in this case, the victim of the crime has been forgotten. One of the great malfunctions of jurisprudence is to be emotional about the criminal and to forget about the victim.
8. The basis for human government is being ignored. The idea is not to save life but to destroy lives of criminals who remove human freedom.

Crusaders + criminals = revolution. Human good + evil = revolution. Or human good + arrogance = evil The false rationale is based upon emotional revolt of the soul.

What causes a man to try to play God? Usually a beautiful woman. When a man looks at a helpless woman, he wants to save her. An arrogant man won't put up with a spirited woman. An arrogant man is an animal. A spirited woman is a wonderful person; but an arrogant man cannot stand a spirited woman.

You may look pretty like Absalom, with muscles and with good looks, but if this is all that you have to offer, then you do not have much to offer. If there is nothing more than a set of muscles and a pretty face, then you must be as dumb as the person messing around with these things. There is much more to a man than these things. Absalom had 5 lbs. of hair and he went to the barber shop once a year; and girls were mad for him, because they are stupid. He was handsome and muscular. Muscles + arrogance = a fool. A pretty face + arrogance = a fool. The liberal interpretation of criminal law is, a man is not responsible for his own decisions. He is not responsible for what he does in crimes of passion. The Angelic Conflict whether temporarily or permanently insane, means you are responsible for what you do. The result of such a decision to pardon the criminal is that, crime is not restrained in the nation. A criminal is not someone who simply uses violence; a criminal is a manipulator. If he cannot manipulate you by conning you, then he uses violence. Lenin and Stalin were the criminals; and Trotsky was the crusader. It takes many hours and many seminars to explain this, and it is simple.

Marxism and socialism do not work, but they stimulate arrogance. Some of the greatest criminal organizations are in Russia. Arrogance + boredom = crime. Once the criminal control society, revolution, violence etc result.

David takes the side of the criminal here against the law. Society is brought into slavery. Society is brought into slavery to crime.

A representative of the police department has warned not to go out and walk around on the streets anymore. The reason is, they can no longer protect us. How do you get this way in a society? Bob looks pretty innocent, but he can get a .45 out in a second and reload so fast, your head would spin. Why would he, a man of the cloth, do such a thing. The police are unable to protect the citizenry. Num. 35:16–19 Evangelism is allowing for a no as well as a yes. It is God the Holy Spirit's job to deal with it after giving the gospel. And if he strikes him with an instrument of iron, so that he dies, he is a murderer. The murderer shall surely be put to death. And if he strikes him by throwing a stone, with which he may die, and if he dies, he is a murderer. The murderer shall surely be put to death. Or if he strikes him with a hand weapon of wood, with which he may die, and if he dies, he is a murderer. The murderer shall surely be put to death. The revenger of blood himself shall kill the murderer. When he meets him, he shall kill him. Absalom killing Amnon was 1st degree murder. It was not the kind of murder which calls for a lesser charge. Pardoning for murder was almost unheard of until this time. Absalom was the only son of the first batch of David's sons who were capable of doing anything. The woman has caused him to even put a restraining order on vengeance. Absalom can no longer be regarded as a criminal or treated as a criminal.

2Sam. 14:10 The king said [Then the king replied], "If anyone says anything to you [speaks to you, intimidates you, threatens you], bring him to me [then cause him to be brought to me], and he shall never touch [annoy, bother] you again."

A confirmation of David's decision, and the final verse of Act I. The hippie Absalom was caught in the tree with his long hair. When Absalom's hair was caught in the tree, Joab hit him with 3 javelins and not one hair fell upon the ground.

Gentlemen, when a woman asks you to remember something, pay close attention, because it may be of great significance. The woman is being very polite. "Please let the king remember this decision before God." So, how do you get away with this? How do you get the judge to make such a decision. Bob is not trying to give a course on how to manipulate a male without really trying. Some of the most romantic moments are helping ladies in distress. Beverly Hills almost always had a lady in distress almost at every cab stand. So this woman is not letting David off the hook. He needs to make an oath in court before God. So, he ought to be careful. So the woman from Tekoa is going to get this decision reconfirmed.

She asks for him to restate his decision as an oath before God, and she even repeats it, so that he gets it right.

In this script, the woman's remaining son will be analogous to Absalom.

2Sam. 14:11 Then she said, "Please let the king invoke the LORD your God, that the avenger of blood kill no more [to restrain the public executioner], and my son be not destroyed." He said [consequently, he replied], "As the LORD lives [this is a solemn promise], not one hair of your son shall fall to the ground."

We have a whole lot of dirtbags in various schools, and they need to be dumped into a dirt pile and left there.

All people get testing particularly with their parents, and at some point, you are going to think your parents are unfair. Some had parents like noodles and you could walk all over them. And they are resented. You can't use freedom correctly unless you have authority-orientation. You cannot have freedom without authority.

Democracy is anarchy with a little veneer. Republics are safe, and there are very few of them. The Roman Republic lasted almost 1000 years. Rome, Venice and the USA are the 3 primary republics. However, one generation of jackass teenagers who reject the authority of their parents, and it is all over; a republic turns into a democracy.

Do not get married or take on a position with authority, unless you are authority oriented. Authority-orientation must come first. The most disastrous thing, when the young kid rejects the authority of his parents (and they can be unfair and unreasonable), and they get involved in crime or some other form of arrogance. They become liberals or crusaders.

Absalom is going to die without one hair falling to the ground. We will spend maybe 30 minutes discussing Absalom's long hair. This long hair is a rejection of authority. He is the handsomest man of all history and he is going to turn into a hip;y. It is always the ahir, the long hair. The branches of the tree grabbed up Absalom by his long hair; and his mule kept on going. Absalom was caught by the tree.

Joab disobeyed David here, but Absalom was in the custody of Joab; so he had the right to kill Absalom.

2Sam. 14:12 Then the woman said, "Please let your servant speak a word to my lord the king." He said, "Speak."

Law vs. emotional appeal and public opinion re. Absalom; World War III cause

We are about to enter into Act II, and there is the crusader and the criminal. David knows that he has made in not executing Amnon. All of David's sons are losers, but Absalom. He is the only one to show any sort of potential.

Samsonov and Yokelson, and the false ideas and the few true ideas about criminality and rehabilitation. This is also related to criminal arrogance. The key is volition. As a youngster, the criminal finds the restraints of living unacceptable and even contemptible. They reject the authority of parents, teachers, etc. They reject legitimate authority.

Patterns of deception are established early. Lying becomes a way of life. Lies of omission are more common than those of commission. He expects those to respect him while he has no respect for others. Society views him as harmful; but he believes that he is just asserting his rights. He inflicts a toll on society which is incalculable. He is rarely apprehended and he often escapes conviction; and he is often given light sentences. Held accountable for a violation makes him think that he has been violated. People are sucked in to give a character reference for a criminal because the criminal believes that he is getting a bad deal. The criminal lives in a world where there is no loyalty or trust. He is untrustworthy, but he demands that others trust him. When others trust him, he exploits this trust. He claims he can live without interdependence. He cannot get along with responsible people from day to day. Intolerant of others shortcomings and is angry when others find fault with him. People are to be used, conquered, controlled like pawns, and then discarded when they are no longer helpful to him.

Yokelson died in 1978 and is probably one of the greatest geniuses in criminal studies.

Only rarely does the criminal like another person, and it is often based upon someone else agreeing with him and building him up. He likes those he can exploit. His own personal characteristics preclude him from loving anyone. They will throw any woman aside when it suits them. He regards kindness as a weakness. He expresses fragments of kindness, but he is coldhearted toward those he claims to love. He is sensitive to being put down by others. Any inconvenience is seen as a personal affront.

The zero state. He is either a colossus or a zero. This state is intolerable with him, and he often responds with a criminal act. His life is a series of anger reactions against his fear of being a nothing. Anger is a basic component of the criminal's basic personality. Pursuit of power and control pervades the criminal's thinking and action. Personal conquests and build ups. He sees no limits to his personal power and control. He expects the world to adapt to his wants, even when apprehended and put in jail. Success is something which occurs overnight; he ignores the past. A concrete thinker who lacks time perspective. A state of super-optimism. Thinking something makes it so. He will endure some hardship in the pursuit of crime, but will not endure the slightest problem in legitimate living. Others beg him to change, but he puts the burden on them. Unrealistic expectations. He reads others according to their own premises and places motives and qualities upon them that they do not have. An admission of ignorance runs counter to his own self-image. He looks like a mass of contradictions. He seems to be fearless and cowardly. No consistent and cohesive set of attitudes.

He views himself as a good person. All criminals have self righteous arrogance. He does not consider himself a criminal. Whatever he wants to do at any moment is right, in his own thinking. What society calls crime, he sees as work. The criminal is not rehabilitated, because he thinks that he is better than the one who is looking to rehabilitate him. Simple words like friend, love and trust have meanings which are very different from we are used to. He has trouble with points of view different from his own. He often acts as if he is paying attention to your viewpoint or opinion, but just does that so you think he agrees with you.

All of these have failed in our society; the rehabilitation and other similar approaches. Confinement is seen as destructive and called warehousing; the liberal viewpoint. They are completely wrong about this, and they simply encourage and enlarge the criminal society. Liberals ignore that criminals become criminals through their own volition.

Crime rate goes up in every community where they are cycled back into that same area.

“Read your boyfriend’s letter later. You need to be listening to this!” Criminals stop being criminals by their own volition. The agent who is rehabilitated is called the agent of change and this person must deal with the inner man and not with the criminal’s environment. Putting on new clothes over old and stained clothes is not enough. The old clothes must be regarded as contaminated and diseased and destroyed. The criminal is faced then with decisions which he must make.

A criminal can choose to commit more crimes, suicide or to cease being a criminal. Change requires effort and restraining himself from what he wants to do and doing that which he does not want to do. He must replace his thinking with responsible thinking. He must be able to think critically. He needs to develop compassion for others and a gut to deal with hardship, which he has avoided until now.

The criminal has posed a challenge to all society. We do not view change solely in terms of release from confinement, money in the bank and a job. It must be a total alteration of thinking. New thinking patterns must happen.

Houston is putting more people out into the community than most; and these are people who continue to think and act like criminals.

A union has come in with only 5 or 6 and now there are several hundred who are union members.

Even responsible people like David, his whole system of the 2nd stage of the faith rest drill has malfunctions. Faith rest drill is not just claiming promises. The real guts of the faith rest technique is taking doctrines which someone has learned and thinking doctrine in reverse process.

Essence of God rationale; plan of God rationale; or logistical grace rationale. Claiming promises is just how you start. Even the rebound technique must follow this procedure.

Now we are going to go to act II; an emotional view of the law or a plea for criminal rights.

When a woman says, "I just have one more thing to say," you know that she is going to enter into a long monologue. She already has David in act I promising that there will be no execution of her son and he would be protected from anyone seeking vengeance.

She must now get one more concession making a plea for the restoration of Absalom.

David has daily contact with the ladies, and he seems to be clueless at this point. Having sex with a woman does not reveal who or what the woman is. Sex will never help you understand a woman. Conversation and being around her is what tells you what the woman is all about. You do not understand women by having sex with them. The true student is always humble. Arrogance is what keeps you from understanding women.

"You do not learn anything about women through sex, which we have demonstrated...academically, that is."

David makes the mistake of saying, "Okay, what do you want to say?" David made an erroneous decision in Act I. He went to civil law instead of criminal law; the former of which is not pertinent. In Act II, this woman must speak a number of words in order to get a pardon for Absalom. If the judge becomes emotional, he distorts judgment and favors the criminal. The judge needs to focus on society, not upon the criminal.

Principles of V. 12

1. If you will recall from Act I, David took a solemn oath in the name of Jehovah that no public executioner would destroy or execute the woman's son, who is a proven criminal guilty of fanticide.
2. David has stayed an execution and set a precedent before the law.
3. The stay of execution is tantamount to pardoning the criminal.
4. Since David has granted a stay of execution and a pardon to the woman's son, the woman from Tekoa is about to enter a plea on behalf of Absalom, which is a parallel case.
5. She will take the implication further; that the death of her son was a private loss to her. She will then make a strange statement. The woman will turn the courtroom into a political harangue for the restoration of Absalom. You cannot allow politics to enter into anything other than politics. Public interest and public benefit is all that there is.
6. The woman's appeal to public benefit becomes the basis for distorting the law through politics.
7. The woman will appeal to David's emotion. The pardon of her son is a private benefit, but the pardon of Absalom will be a public benefit to the entire nation.
8. Since David has made a decision on her behalf, David can now make a decision on part of the entire nation; to pardon Absalom.
9. After all, she reasons, Absalom is next in line to succeed his father and the entire nation would be blessed for Absalom to be restored. The dynasty and all the people will be blessed.

10. A murderer ought to be executed and not pardoned simply because of who he is. The client nation ought not to depend upon criminals. No client nation can afford to become dependent upon criminals.

The king has now opened Pandora's box, and he will become aware of the decision which he made in Act I.

2Sam. 14:12 Then the woman said, "Please let your servant speak a word to my lord the king." He said, "Speak."

What the people want is wrong. All of our leaders are completely irresponsible. It will be a race between the depression and WWII.

Generally what the people want is wrong. Jesus Christ controls history; and if there is a large enough pivot, Jesus Christ delivers the nation.

The law will be distorted in v. 13.

2Sam. 14:13 And the woman said, "Why then have you planned such a thing against the people of God? For in giving this decision the king convicts himself, inasmuch as the king does not bring his banished one home again.

Bob likes that this will come on Easter, with bunnies and easter clothes and all kinds of things like that. Bob thinks that a sunrise service is the laugh of the century. Jesus Christ arose at midnight; one minute after midnight.

72David Easter Sunday 1980

631_0337

04/06/1980 Historical drama: tragedy, comedy and renaissance. Failure of socialism toward war; review verses 10-12

Catharsis, to watch about 4 or 5 dramas, where someone who is great and seen as great; and his greatness is demonstrated in the first act, his tragic flaw in the 2nd, and the tragedy of his tragic flaw in the third act.

There were plumbers who assumed they were as great as statesmen; so once a year, it was determined that everyone needed to return to humility. The birth of drama was an attempt to deal with arrogance. Many people did not like the idea of being put down by tragedy. Aristophanes tried comedy and it would take a truly great man and make him appear ridiculous. This purpose was to build up vanity. "I am better than that person." This comedy did not have a sense of humor. This was considered the highest form of culture. Renaissance was a revival of Greek culture and arrogance in culture. We follow in not very bright art forms the very concepts. The catharsis of drama has been reduced to the lowest form of idiocy. All art forms have completely failed.

Bible doctrine rejects drama because man has an old sin nature. The solution to the problem is not found in the catharsis of tragedy or the arrogance of comedy, but in the reality of Who and What Christ is.

Where there is arrogance, there is no sense of humor.

There is a lot of arrogance today. People are proud of their individual sins. Personal sins have not been imputed to us for punishment. We are not sinners because of our personal sins; we are sinners because of our old sin nature.

We died spiritually when Adam sinned; but our personal sins were accumulated and imputed to Jesus Christ on the cross.

A strong military is the only way to stop wars. There will be wars until Jesus returns. There will always been the use of various exotic weapons, but what will be the key is conventional warfare.

Easter Sunday 1980

We are going to have a resurrection body, but there will be no equality in heaven. Volition + arrogance = psychosis. On this day when our thoughts are turned to the resurrection, some of us will have very simple and plain resurrection bodies and others will have a great harvest.

When the believer in Jesus Christ rejects doctrine, that is the problem. We have been propagandized to think the key is what we do and our personality; but it is what we think that counts.

Comedy promotes arrogance; a sense of humor promotes humility. There is no possible way to actually orient to life apart from Bible doctrine.

Bob like Moire and someone else.

We have a drama during the time of David. There was nothing wrong with the law. Arrogance destroyed the function of the law. David was taken in by the drama of the woman from Tekoa. The widow had 2 sons and they were in the field, and there was no referee, no arbitrator, so one son killed the other. She states the problem; the cousins and uncles want her to turn over the last son, and she wants the civil laws of posterity to supercede the legal laws. The criminal laws.

Churchill would spend many hours to try to talk Ike out of something, but he admitted that Ike had great humility David had great battle courage and great moral courage. But all of it fell apart under one principle. It fell apart because of arrogance. He was standing on the battlements and not at war because he was a coward. His previous greatness was lost.

Joab wrote the script and directed this drama. David orders for son #2 to go free. However, the woman needs to get David to swear before God that this will stand in all cases.

When the woman says, "Just one more thing" this should have gotten David's attention. However, it did not. He was confused.

Crusader arrogance + criminal arrogance = revolution.

For Russians, there is nothing to buy. They are bored. The 4 largest crime syndicates are in Russia right now. It used to be that 17% supported most of the nation and now it is down to 7%. National arrogance causes wars; national degeneracy.

In Act II, we will have an emotional view of the law.

Even though it appears to be all over; but it is not. The woman says she wants to say one more thing.

2Sam. 14:12 Then the woman said, "Please let your servant speak a word to my lord the king." He said, "Speak."

When the plaintiff asks the judge to take an oath in the name of the Lord, the judge needs to think about just exactly what is happening; but David is in interlocking systems of arrogance. The woman has been personally blessed by the pardon of her son; now she wants the nation to be blessed because of Absalom being pardoned.

When crime is unrestrained, then crime is glorified. The average teenager glorifies the drug dealer today. This is a part of the whole picture of national arrogance. There is psychedelic music. The woman's son has been pardoned, and it is based upon an oath, which means, it is therefore applied to anyone else under the same circumstances.

In his decision, David fails to recognize that a criminal ought to be put to death and not pardoned.

How many of you men have heard, "I just have one more thing to say." A wise man would say, "I have heard enough already." Let her get her foot in the door, she will get her way.

David is made to feel wrong about what he has done, although he does not quite get what it is yet. David incriminated himself, unless he restored the fugitive. David opens up Pandora's box here. He suddenly discovers that he is on trial now. Too often when the man is gallant, he finds that his noble deed was a trap. David took the bait to help a woman in distress and now this woman will spring the trap. A woman in distress is not always a woman in distress, but a carefully baited trap. "Now, I think that this beats an Easter egg hunt."

Absalom as a mature believer, but he is suffering from interlocking systems of arrogance and he will become the leader of a civil war against David.

The woman saying, "Why then have you planned such a thing against the people of God" is a very dramatic statement. This attack upon law will be the basis for revolution. If you think that there is someone out there who can save this nation, you are wrong. Only a pivot of believers can save this nation. We will be kept from the fifth cycle of discipline if there are those in this nation who pursue Bible doctrine.

All revolution leadership eventually enters into criminal arrogance. Stalin and Lenin are examples of criminal and crusader.

Now, this woman has David's complete attention. David's decision incriminates David. Since the king has rendered this judicial decision, you now must restore the fugitive. David has trapped himself with emotion rather than with a legal decision. Those who play god with the law destroy themselves and the law. Supreme court decisions and federal decisions have destroyed our law. David has forgotten the victim.

Because of the malfunction of the king's justice, Absalom will become a fugitive and David will take a stand against the law. When a ruler just makes decisions which are popular with the people, then he is destroying his own rule. The woman from Tekoa in this 3 act drama will lead to revolution.

2Sam. 14:13 [And the woman said, "Why then have you planned such a \[terrible\] thing against the people of God? For in giving this decision the king convicts himself, inasmuch as the king does not bring his banished one home again.](#)

2Samuel 14                      72David 04/06/1980   Eisenhower's humility                      631_0338

Moliere; the GI dead and victims of crime forgotten by a degenerate nation

Communion Sunday.

Eisenhower Declassified is about all of the great decisions which Ike made. A story how Dwight's mother spoke to him about obedience and explained it. His mom reasons and explains about being angry and losing his temper. He learned not to react to people and their behavior. He was one of the greatest presidents that we ever had. Many times, he was tested.

MacArthur called him one of the most brilliant man that he knew. He was believe of the river brethren of Pennsylvania.

National arrogance is the order of the day. Bob like Tartuffe. Thinks it to be one of the most humorous of the comedies.

You cannot expect to always be entertained when it comes to learning and sometimes you learn a great deal when you are not entertained.

The woman first makes mention of the inevitability of death, and the idea is to get David away from the truth. We are all going to die.

Death is not the issue here; the true function of justice is the issue. The woman ignores the death of the victim, her fictitious living son. She is clever in her approach; her histrionics are perfect.

The First Principle

1. The woman implies that life is short and if David dies without restoring Absalom, he will have great regrets for this. She is hoping to stir up his emotion.
2. She is appealing to David with regards to dying without regrets. It is distorted by emotion approach, rather than on the basis of thinking.
3. She appeals to David's emotion. What if he dies before pardoning Absalom? This arouses his emotions and shuts down his thinking. This is not much different than our federal courts today.
4. At best, life is fleeting, and death is inevitable. So pardon must come before it is too late and David dies.
5. Emotion, like arrogance, ignores the law and forgets the victim.
6. The distortion is an attack on the laws of divine establishment. Let's forget the victim and do something for this nice criminal. There is a lot of liberalism running around lose this day. You can't bring back the victim. If you don't kill the criminal; if you don't kill all of the criminals, you will be the victim tomorrow.
7. When a client nation to God falls into national arrogance and degeneration, the dead are all forgotten. How many times have you honored those who have died to make you free.
8. All freedom comes through military victory. A lot of people die fighting for their country in military service.
9. Once the victory is won and the freedom is secured, then grateful nation forgets; they forget those who have died. Bob's favorite photo is of Bobby standing by Patton's grave, with the fog hovering around all of the crosses there. All of these men who died on foreign shores so that all kinds of scum can live. If you do not honor those dead, you have no concept of freedom. The military establishment has provided our freedom for us.
10. The living must remember the living, but never at the expense of the honored dead.
11. We ought not to forget the victims of the crime, those who have died.
12. Justice in the courtroom demands that the judge remember the dead, the victims of the criminal. David accepts this distortion.
13. The living are protected by remembering the honored dead; and when the judge remembers the victims of crime.

Now we come to our analogy of water being poured on the ground.

2Sam. 14:14 We must all die [for dying, we will die; we will definitely die]; we are like water spilled on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again. But God will not take away life, and he devises means so that the banished one will not remain an outcast.

2Samuel 14:12–13

72David 04/07/1980 Ike: Patton

631_0339

Doctrine of interlocking systems of arrogance gate #14 authority arrogance; rejection of temporal and spiritual authority; David incriminates himself

Back to the book on Ike, one of the greatest people of our time. There was the Patton slapping, which occurred twice. Ike was shocked by these incidents. Patton was required to apologize to the soldiers, doctors and nurses. Ike let 60 correspondents decide what they would do about this story, and none of them published it. Radio commentator Drew Pearson revealed this, and it was leaked possibly through Congress. Blistering wires for not filing the reports. Congressmen screamed to bring Patton back for a full investigation. Congress would reduce his rank and put him in a lousy place.

General Ike sent a signal to Roosevelt, and said, if Patton was brought back for a Congressional review, Ike would tender his resignation as well. Patton went to glory with his 3rd army after the furor died down.

An ounce of arrogance in that situation would have caused Ike to send Patton to be eaten by Congress.

Some of you did not understand when Bob taught v. 13.

Bob is going to go back to interlocking systems of arrogance and he is going to cover gate 14. It has been developing, but it really gelled for Bob.

Who has resisted his will or purpose. People are always saying, why does God let this happen to me? Shall what is formed say to Him who formed it, "Why have you made me like this?" Does not the potter possess the authority over the clay, to make, on the one hand, a vessel of honor; and on the other hand, a vessel of dishonor.

Potter, Lump, Authority.

1. The potter is God, the potter's will is divine authority; and we are the lump.
2. Divine authority is delegated by God to various categories of the human race. The issue is authority. It is delegated under the laws of divine establishment. When the lump is born, human life is imputed to the body. The lump has positive and negative volition. However, at first, the lump cannot think at first. The lump must be trained.
3. Training is in the hands of authority. Drill sergeant. The most basic authority delegated by God to the human race are parents. Children, obey your parents in everything, for this pleases the Lord.
4. The first authority in life for every lump is parents.

5. Humility and orientation to life are related to the child's attitude toward parents; or, the volition of the individual in relationship to the potter's wheel. This is the authority of parents.
6. The child's volition comes into function at the point of the potter's wheel.
7. Then mankind functions under self-determination. The decisions that we make determine what our life will be.
8. Volition in the lump is the most basic part in the Angelic Conflict.
9. We use our free will in order to be molded by the potter's wheel to be molded into a vessel of honor or dishonor. We use this free will to resist authority or to accept authority. Our volition indicates if we will be vessels of honor or dishonor; whether we will be happy or miserable in life. The potter must do this in relationship to the individual. It is how we respond to the potter's wheel. We are from our own free will a vessel of dishonor. Enough vessels of dishonor and God kicks a big boot through all of these vessels and smashes them all under the concept of the fifth cycle of discipline. Think back on how you became a sneak; you rejected their authority; so in your teen years, you would have been stoned to death in Israel. ]stuff below]
10. The teen who rejects the authority of his parents is self-centered, arrogant and subjective.

We have the worst collection of idiots in this generation. Bob was ready to go back there and raise hell with the teens in the back, but someone warned them. Little squirmers, little asses; wanted the parents to see this, and if Bob every finds the person who let this be known, he'll have 2 ears on his wall, and a tongue with a nail through it?

When the potter's wheel of discipline hits them, it is that they have rejected authority.

God graced out Eisenhower, the only president in recent memory who balanced the budget and had a surplus in the budget and stopped Communism without a single loss of life.

Rejecting Authority

1. Rejection of parental authority enters you into interlocking systems of arrogance. Apart from rebound as a believer and apart of positive volition, you never get out. You develop the cult of arrogance.
2. Arrogance + rejection of authority guarantees disorientation to life. No capacity for blessing or happiness. You resist unless allow yourself to be molded.
3. Like the garden of Eden, authority and the laws of divine establishment become the test for human volition.
4. To pass the test is humility; to flunk the test is arrogance.
5. Personal volition directed toward established authority determines what kind of a life you will have. The Lord spins the wheel called authority. That wheel molds or, if you reject the authority, it will break you in life.
6. Rejection of establishment authority means rejection of establishment truth.
7. Rejection of establishment truth means a vessel of dishonor + strong delusion. As a young person under parental authority, this is devastating.

8. This is why so many people accept socialism and communism and equality propaganda.
9. Unders strong delusion, believer and unbeliever accept the Satanic lie and they accept that lie under arrogant delusion. That is the Satanic syndrom.
10. Entrance 14 into interlocking systems of arrogance.

Gate 14 Is the Satanic Syndrom or Authority Arrogance.

1. Authority arrogance is that arrogance by which legitimate authority from God is resisted, resulting in disorientation to life.
2. This is that malady which results in national degeneration and punishment. The pot has to be broken and remolded.
3. Basic manifestations of this: children disobeying parents and wives rejecting authority of husbands.
4. If authority arrogance or the satanic syndrom is an issue for the wife and children and becomes critical with regards to orientation to life, being come born-again introduces another aspect of the same problem.

New Authority in the Spiritual Life

1. Being born-again introduces a new authority in life. We become new recruits; we become a new lump. The new authority is not parents, but Bible doctrine and the pastor-teacher who communicates it.
2. An analogy results. Just as patently authority results in parent authority in life, so pastoral authority provides orientation to spiritual life. Heb. 13:17 arrogance makes you reject authority. This means no happiness and no orientation to life. All blessing will come through the action of your own volition related to chemistry; dope. Once you are an adult, you can always move to a sweetness and light church and they talk about love and people pay attention to you even though you are obnoxious. They ought to put a noodle on the steeple. That is alright, if that is what you want.
3. Doctrine is the mind of Christ and the authority for all born-again believers.
4. The authority of the pastor is related to the communication of accurate doctrine.
5. The local church becomes analogous to the home in which you were born.
6. Just as there is an authority in the home, so there is authority in the local church, or should be.
7. Local church authority allows to exercise volition in the Christian life. Establishment authority is necessary to exercise one's freedom in temporal life.
8. Authority arrogance or the satanic syndrom, rejecting authority in the home.
9. This does not limit one's freedom to find a right pastor or to find a good church. Or to leave a pastor because one is torments or offended by the pastor.
10. No believers ought to be critical of the pastor and whose church he is leaving.
11. Do not criticize the pastor no matter how wrong you think him to be.

12. If you persist in being critical, you will be disciplined for authority arrogance. The last part of the Easter service was devoted to v. 14. It goes back to v. 12 where the woman said, "Let me say one more thing." When you give a woman permission to say one word, then you have lost whatever the dispute was.
13. Many hotels have no 13th floor. Bob likes that number.

The woman accuses David of conspiracy against the people of God. This is Joab, not realizing that he is skating on thin ice. The people of God are those insubordinate, arrogant idiots who are about to start a revolution. Before revolution breaks out, the people may seem to be normal.

David Is on Trial

1. From functioning as the supreme court judge, David discovers that he is now on trial. Things have taken a turn.
2. The woman of Tekoa is going to turn this case into a political football.
