The Lord honors His Word and He honors the nation. The Lord can deliver believers through anything and church history tells us that He has done so already. Client nations survive all kinds of disasters. Bobby wants to go through the book of Numbers to show just how bad it got in Israel. Yet, after 40 years, those people marched into the land just as God has promised. The Exodus generation. They died in the desert and their sons and daughters went into the land and took it.

However, so many believers have rejected the doctrine. Jesus controls history for His purposes. Politics and activism will never overcome the sin nature of man. The real problem is the sin nature of man; not the government and the politicians. We the citizens elect these politicians. A few believers marching off the spiritual maturity will deliver this nation.

There is a third reason this crowd stopped following Jesus. He refused to give them more signs and miracles. Jesus was not primarily concerned with their physical welfare. That was not His reason for being there. Jesus was concerned with their spiritual welfare.

Our Lord demonstrated true compassion in His concern for the eternal future of mankind. He did not demonstrate the pseudo compassion of politicians today. Humanism always brings with it unintended consequences which make things worse.

Back in the 1960's we started a war on poverty; the great society. This had all the best intentions. It was going to lift people out of their misery and poverty. However, millions have been enslaved to the welfare state. Humanism has not other solution; none.

Jesus Christ said, 'The poor you will have with you always.' But the government has made it all worse. They have added poverty to poverty, and increased slavery.

So many in that synagogue wanted the material benefits of the miraculous acts of Jesus without the provision of eternal life. They were as much at a loss as humanists today. The reaction of people when they hear that Jesus is the Bread of Life, and they must eat of Him, it was just too much.

Believing in Christ is a non-meritorious action. The doctrine of grace is always the divider of the truth from what is false. These people did not accept God's grace, they walked away from their only hope. They turned on Him. They got mad and hated Him all the more. His discourse on the bread of life was unacceptable to the legalists.

Certainly some unbelievers and political zealots had followed him and walked away from Him.

Where Bobby went, they were surprised that Bob could be so harsh and dogmatic. They rejected the message of grace and focused in on the man. People like this left because in droves. Some left Berachah in protest.

There are those out there who cannot leave Berachah quietly; and they work up an emotional state; and they attempt to influence others to their way of thinking. They incite others to leave the church. And, in some cases, they attempted to replace the pastor. There have been a number of conspiracies to get rid of Bob.

Whether a pastor is right or wrong; Bobby saw many people in his lifetime attack Bob; and the outcome was not good for them. Some died; and others became very miserable. And many of them never settled down in a church and they want to run every church that they go to. This has occurred in Berachah Church many times.

Bobby spoke to a man recently who has experienced the same thing in his church. A woman became angry and vengeful and her husband did not have the wherewithal to shut her up. He let her run amuck. She was a back-stabber. She tried to ruin this pastor's reputation, calling him lascivious. That is the kind of thing that happens. She was so full of verbal sins and accused him of antinomianism. Legalism must destroy him they oppose. Where grace is taught and believers are grace oriented, it always aggravates the legalist. They will initiate the conflict; and that is where the pastor must step in and stop.

Points on this Kind of Legalism

The legalist in Capernaum and today as well

1. Legalists are manipulative. They sought control. They wanted to dictate standards and to impose standards on others.
2. The legalist always knows that he or she is right. That is a trait of self righteous arrogance. You are beneath the legalist if you are grace oriented.
3. These sorts of people pose as very spiritual. The pillars of the church.
4. They become in their legalism the self-proclaimed arbiters of the standards of other believers. No one can meet the standards of the pharisees; they cannot meet their own standards.
5. They often appear to be in total support of the pastor who teach doctrine and grace orientation. However, they have their own agenda, every time.
6. Sometimes, they will try to buy influence through giving money. That is not the right motivation for giving. They resent it when their giving does not pay off. They become church bullies. They have infiltrated boards of deacons and they object to too much doctrinal teaching. They want more programs for the kids. No creeping legalism in the board at Berachah. Bob had to fight that all the time; but Bobby has never had to fight that battle. Some of the big problems are with assistant pastors. Bob gave him one piece of advice; no assistant pastors. They become jealous or offended by grace. They develop cliques to oppose or depose the pastor. If we have that problem, then they need to stay focused on the Word of God.

Bobby is going to teach grace orientation whether we like it or not. But we will have the greatest life; the most relaxed life; even in the midst of the worst political or national disasters that we could imagine. It is all about Bible doctrine.

John 6:66 After this many of his disciples turned back and no longer walked with him.

Lesson #0510

John 6: Life of Christ

10/3/2013 Thurs

John 6:66 After this many of his disciples turned back and no longer walked with him.

The result of the bread of life sermon, many of the disciples stopped going with Jesus. Bobby warned us not to over think the number of this verse.

It has been a long time since Revelation was taught. He thinks it was last taught in the 60's. It is called the number of the Beast and on the followers. He is also called the antichrist of the Tribulation. It is evil only when referring to that person in that dispensation.

These disciples deserted Him when He made the claim that He is God; and they also rejected Him when He spoke of eating His flesh and drinking His blood.

They were disappointed that Jesus was not going to feed them from thereon in. The miracles were designed to help people with miracles; then we are supposed to help people in our own way...that is the sort of reasoning which occurs.

They turned their backs on the Lord Jesus Christ because they were steeped in legalism. The grace of God in Christ was threatening to them. Grace was a threat to them. These people, as the pharisees had taught them, were very proud of the equity that they had built up in their works-righteousness. They refused to abandon the traditions of the rabbis, which allowed them to work there way into the kingdom. They choked on the idea that this is all free. They had strove to keep all of these rituals and obedience to all of these regulations, and they were not about to abandon all of that. Legalism is one of the greatest road blocks to accepting the grace of God.

They were unable to re-gear from the cosmic system to grace thinking.

The worst quality of a legalist is placing an agenda on others; there ideas were imposed on others; and they became the arbiters of all righteousness. They do not like to evaluate themselves; they like to focus on others. They love to focus on the sins of others.

They manipulate and they discourage; and they will malign others. They bring guilt into the souls of those whom they are oppressing. They want to enact immediate change in the lives of those around them. They do not want to wait for Bible doctrine to do this.

What Would Legalism Try to Do to Us?

1. The legalist cannot allow for a believer to outgrow the trends of the sin nature. We grow out of many of these through spiritual growth.
2. They impose legalist standards and they oppose the spiritual growth that alleviates many of the problems of the sin nature.
3. Spiritual advance increasingly denies the sin nature's control over the believer. The legalist does not want to wait for this.
4. Renovated thinking solves the sin problem; not enforced legalism. Legalism is the ultimate of hypocrisy. They are shocked and angered at the sins of others. They look down their noses at a variety of taboos. They look for some of these things.

They look at a person who is grace oriented and brand them as antinomian. They do not need to mind other people's sins; they need to think about their own lives. Legalists love to throw stones. They intimidate and they mind everyone else's business. Only spiritual growth truly brings the sin nature under control; and believers spend less and less time out of fellowship and their spiritual life blossoms. We do not need a legalist looking over our shoulder telling us what we ought to be doing. Let Bible doctrine tell us and show us how to live the spiritual life.

Summary

1. Every believer must tend to his own spiritual life and not attempt to manipulate others into a legalistic mold. We do not mold other Christians; Bible doctrine does that.

2. The modus operandi of the legalist distorts grace in order to control the lives of other believers. When you force change, no real change has taken place. When that takes place, all you have is hypocrisy.
3. The mind of Christ gained from doctrine in the soul does its own convicting of sin and a change of attitude toward that sin.
4. The sin nature trends fade as the spiritual life advances.
5. But legalistic thinking and activity is a road block to that process. They are stumbling blocks to advance. They do not help.
6. Legalism causes reaction or more legalism in those that it targets. It makes a bad situation worse. The legalist becomes a critic of everyone else. They become judges of others and they inflate themselves and they cannot wait to refute the pastor and his teachings. They are legalists and they oppose those leading the grace life.

The distortion of rebound has raised its ugly head as of late. If you cannot see God's grace in rebound, then you cannot see God's grace. Rebound is a purely grace oriented procedure. We confess; we name our sins and He is just and gracious to forgive us our sins.

Rebound Revisited and the Distortions of Rebound

1. There are those who put a prerequisite condition. on the simple technique of rebound.
2. They call rebound ineffective for forgiveness unless a change of mind takes place before acknowledging the sin or sins.
3. If a believer has no desire to change his sinning ways, then he remains in carnality. This means that you must have a desire to change when in a carnal state.
4. It is a continuum of carnality. It is a situation which God does not forgive. That is what is being taught in other churches.
5. When a believer does not change his mind or attitude about the sin, then he simply continues in sin, according to these types.
6. This means there is a precondition for rebound to work.
7. This is a distortion of grace in the simplest of grace procedures. This muddies the simplest grace procedure that there is. It is manipulation. This person wrote a book recently and takes this exact position and many of us know this person.
8. He uses subtle semantics which is a perversion of the doctrine.
9. What this means is, spiritual advance occurs while in carnality.

This was clearly stated in a newsletter from awhile ago.

Rebound Incorrectly Presented

1. One cannot truly acknowledge his sin without repentance. You cannot acknowledge your sins unless you repent.
2. It is defined correctly as a change of mind; there is no emotion involved.

3. This change becomes a prerequisite which sets up a change that must occur outside of rebound.
4. In that statement about acknowledging sins without repentance, a change of mind becomes a necessity to make the rebound procedure effective for forgiveness.
5. Bobby corrects this: what you are thinking in your mind when you rebound has no bearing on God's promise to forgive. You name the sin. What you think about it or whatever you think has no bearing on the grace procedure.
6. This is a subtle, almost imperceptible change. This person requires a change of attitude toward that sin. An identification is not a change of mind.
7. This author says, a change of mind must take place prior to acknowledgment of sins. The subtle difference is recognizing a sin versus a desire to change that sin.
8. He goes on to say that God will reject this confession. You would be shocked if you knew who wrote this.

This is a subtle way of manipulating people to stop sinning. They cite bitterness as an example. In this book's viewpoint, if there is no desire to change the attitude, then nothing changes. This man makes a wrong assumption that leads him to a wrong conclusion. He believes that bitterness never abates until the person changes his mind about that sin.

The bitter reversionist can never enjoy fellowship at any time until he changes his mind about that sin. He has to want to change that sin. Spiritual advance therefore has to take place when in carnality. How does his attitude ever change without the filling of the Holy Spirit.

The Truth Is This:

1. Any change of mind before rebound is simply recalling the technique of rebound when you are bogged down in sin. There is a procedure for this and you choose to use this procedure.
2. That is not a desire or resolution to change. It is simply recalling what you should do. You may have a desire to change and to stop sinning; but that does not affect rebound.
3. Rebound always works, regardless of whether a mental attitude sin persists or not. His position is backwards.
 - a. A change of thinking always follows rebound; it does not precede it. It can't. Nothing changes until you advance spiritually.
 - b. Only metabolized doctrine derived from the filling of the Holy Spirit can change entrenched mental attitude sins.

When you were a young believer, you found yourself rebounding all the time. That is why this book was written.

Bobby gives us the opportunity to rebound so that we will be filled with the Holy Spirit which allows for us to spiritual grow. We put other things in our lives aside. You do that every time you are in Bible class.

The repetition of rebound and sin slows down as you grow spiritually. Why is that over thinking necessary? Legalism. Viewing the sins of others and thinking legalistically about rebound and then trying to fix it by altering the procedure. Subtle. For the most part, this book is accurate about forgiveness. This book is in print.

John 6:66 After this many of his disciples turned back and no longer walked with him.

Lesson #0511 Rebound Revisited Life of Christ 10/6/2013 1Sunday

16th and 17th are conference days.

John 6:66 After this many of his disciples turned back and no longer walked with him.

This is a verse about people who have doctrine right in front of them, but they cannot accept it; they cannot believe it. Some of Jesus' disciples will desert Him because of the bread of life discourse. They will desert Him due to their ingrained legalism.

The Jews were approaching God based upon their own works. Grace is one of the most difficult concept for people to grasp. We are a merit-oriented people. When grace is distorted, and it easily is, the Christian life becomes a system of righteousness by works and deeds. Grace comes to us without a bit of human merit. It does not matter what our frame of mind is when we confess a sin. We make the decision to name our sin; and God is always faithful and just to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. Rebound is simple; it is such a grace procedure.

From time to time, Bobby needs to remind us of the simplicity of grace and rebound. If you distort rebound, then you are distorting grace. It is particularly important to do this, when this problem occurs amongst those we are close. When it comes to confusion in this congregation, there must be clear delineation of the truth. A book recently published by a person that many of us know. This book puts a legalistic twist on the grace provision of rebound. The author strongly speaks of grace in rebound; but while espousing grace, he teaches a form of legalism in God's forgiveness. Therefore, the book is a contradiction. It sounds good in many places.

Bobby found several quotes and gulped a few times. Quote from a newsletter. One cannot truly acknowledge his sin without repentance. Repentance is simply a change of mind. This means, in so many cases, just a change of mind. He means a change of mind about a desire to sin. That is fine, as it is not pleasing to God. The problem is when that change of mind occurs. That change of mind must take place prior to the confession of sins...God rejects his confession whenever he confesses his sin (when the sins are not repented of first). He adds repentance to 1John 1:9. He says that rebound is ineffective unless a change of mind takes place before a confession of sin. If the believer has no desire to change his sin, then he simply remains in carnality. That is a distortion of grace. Thank God that He forgives even when this grace procedure is rejected.

In his scheme, there is a human element in forgiveness of sin. There is something about what we do in carnality to be forgiven. The precondition of forgiveness is added in order to make forgiveness effective. God does not forgive you unless you have changed your mind about a thing.

Real advance comes by the filling of the Spirit and the inculcation of Bible doctrine. What we do in the power of the flesh has nothing to do with spiritual advance. Rebound must take place first and then a change of attitude. This author suggests a change of attitude first and then rebound. This is a subtle way to manipulate other believers. You had better change your attitude, or God will not forgive you. Logically, this means that, if someone is in reversionism, they cannot be forgiven of that sin unless they decide in carnality to change their minds about their status. They must no longer change their minds about sin. Under this system, you must change your thinking in order to get into fellowship. But how do you get out of reversionism? Bobby does not think that he even recognizes the contradiction.

Rebound Revisited

1. God's forgiveness after rebound is not about our attitude before forgiveness.
2. It is all about pursuing the grace procedure which God has designed. That is what effects a future change of thinking. This author wants you to change your attitude in carnality and not when in fellowship.
3. God's grace is paramount; not our attitude toward any sin. Rebound is the basis for our grace thinking. Have you never confessed a sin that you really enjoyed? You were flat unrepentant about it. "I am not guaranteeing God that I am not going to do it again." Do you continue to have thoughts of anger after confessing it? People struggle with this, particularly when they are new believers. It is a constant cycle. It gets old to them. A person's attitude is not the issue in God's forgiveness. Just naming sins is the procedure for forgiveness.
4. Rebound is simply recognizing a sin and naming it.

Let's go back to that sin of anger. The highway is a perfect example. You should be able to get angry on the roads of Houston; and the anger is not subsiding when you rebound. You still get angry when you think about the circumstances.

Rebound Revisited Again

1. Clearly when the attitude of anger is rekindled after rebound, the filling of the Spirit is lost and carnality is resumed. You are out of the bottom circle.
2. The only way to remove the anger in your soul, or any other mental attitude sin, is to advance spiritually. It is not removed by a person simply deciding to remove it and then rebounding. That is impossible. You are angry and you decide not to be angry any more in order for God to accept your confession.
3. Consistent rebound and the filling of the Holy Spirit must happen before any change of mind can possibly occur.

4. That change is progressive. It is not an immediate change. It does not happen immediately. The spiritual life is progressive change. As a new believer, you will still be angry and bitter.
5. Rebound must occur first before any change of mind about sin. Otherwise, there will never be a pervasive change of mind about sin.

It takes time to overcome sinning. Rebound is the only way to get into that progression. You know what a relaxed mental attitude is when you do not go off like a Roman candle. Your mind has been renovated; your thinking has been renovated.

If what Bobby said is true, how do you stay in fellowship long enough to grow spiritually when a sin frequently or immediately occurs. That would be a mental attitude. If the filling of the Holy Spirit is rarely if ever available, how do you affect change in your thinking? If you are always in sin, you have not been forgiven. But how do you do that? That is a great question. This is the question that many believers struggle with; the question the new believer struggles with and it causes doubt in the rebound doctrine. Or a manipulation of the doctrine as this author did; or an abandoning of the doctrine. Rebound does not change you. Rebound only opens the door to the possibility of change.

You must stay in fellowship long enough to grow. That is what Bible class is all about. "I confess my sins and immediately get out of fellowship." is the complaint.

The answer is putting everything else out of your mind in order to metabolize Bible doctrine. When we come into the auditorium, that is the time to grow spiritually. When we name our sins, then we concentrate on Bible doctrine and we put everything else out of our minds. Bobby can see that. He can see when he has our attention. He can see the wheels turning in our brains.

People complain that they cannot concentrate in school or on the job; but when you learn the filling of the Spirit and spiritual growth, then you learn how to concentrate. You grow and advance spiritually; but many times, this spills over into other parts of your life.

Lesson #0512

John 6:66 Life of Christ

10/6/2013 2Sunday

John 6:66 After this many of his disciples turned back and no longer walked with him.

Many of Jesus's disciples rejected Him in hearing this one doctrine. This work's righteousness. This can carry over into a doctrine so simple and so grace oriented as rebound. This doctrine has been taught in Berachah Church for 63 years now.

People have heard it over and over again, and it can still be distorted. Many people love to hear other pastors and what other people say about doctrine. They just want to see what other people are doing. It is called itching ears. You hear something and it is subtle. Subtle and anti-grace.

At some point, some little doctrine tweaks that legalism and there they go. Bobby is not saying that he is everyone's right pastor. Everyone needs to be under one pastor and hear correct doctrine and not be confused. When you find it; you need to stick with it. But be careful out there.

Rebound is nothing but a grace procedure; nothing else. You name your sins to God the Father and He is faithful and He is just to forgive us our sins. Putting other conditions with that, like changing your mind or changing your desire to sin; God still hears your confession and forgives you.

It is easy to confess and sin and then to get right back into it; like bitterness or some other mental attitude sin. Before studying Bible doctrine, you always rebound. Without the enforced authority, it is easy to get distracted during a message. But the key is concentration on Bible doctrine.

We don't necessarily defeat the sins that we have in our lives. Mental attitude sins are right there with us; we cannot get rid of them quite as easily; so we can fall right back into that sin or sins again. Getting a better handle on these sins does not happen overnight. It is doctrine which deals with this. The more that you grow, the more time you are able to log in the Spirit.

Rebound is a license to grow. Legalists say, "It is a license to sin." So people think, "I can sin all I want and just rebound after." As doctrine permeates your soul, so does the correct thinking on all of these sorts of things.

Rebound and spiritual growth go hand in hand. We maintain that status of the filling of the Spirit for as long as possible during Bible class. When Rick Hughes evangelizes, after holding another class, he teaches very basic doctrine. You cannot learn apart from being filled with the Spirit. That has to be fundamental to their learning.

You cannot approach rebound by already changing your mind about the sin you committed. The other is a manipulative system. If you do not have a desire to change your attitude toward that sin, you will remain carnal. God will reject your acknowledgment of sin. It is very similar to faith alone in Christ alone. There is the group who add something to faith. Show some good works; otherwise, maybe it did not take.

Rebound is simply recognizing your sin.

Maybe, as a new believer, you use rebound as a license for sin. You rebound and go back right into the same old attitudes.

More Points on Rebound

1. Rebound does not change your desire to sin.
2. Nor does rebound give you a license to sin.

3. What is rebound? It is a gateway to spiritual advance. It is a free pass to grow spiritually. When it is perverted, it is called a free pass to sin; but it is really a free pass to grow spiritually.
4. The change of thinking only happens through the spiritual advance; rebound is the gateway to that.
5. Rebound is the means to stay in fellowship long enough for some growth. Sooner or later, the doctrine kicks in, and you are able to concentrate for a longer period of time. Your attitude is changing. You are not consumed by anger.
6. Spiritual advance ever increases by using rebound.
7. The change of mind which this author talks about does not come before rebound; it comes over a period of time during the progression of spiritual advance.
8. That progression brings a greater control over the sin nature. That is what spiritual advance does.
9. People expect others to change simply because they tell them to change. At best, they might become hypocrites and hide what it is they are doing. You learn to think closer and closer to God's way of thinking; and you can recognize that over a period of a few years. You do not spend your life trying to change others. Legalists try to change others. But every believer has the privacy of the priesthood.
10. That change of mind at that given point of time is not required for rebound.

It is easy to read a book like this and miss the problem with it.

A simple formula; you are advancing in a straight line and there is this one little degree of deviation; and as you get further and further out, you lose your spiritual advance. And sometimes, if false doctrine take hold, then you get to a point where this doctrine is not even recognizable.

Unchecked, legalism filters its way into other areas of your life. A little bit of legalism can change everything. How many times have believers deserted the teaching of God's Word because it was not what they wanted to hear? They put their own priorities above that of Bible doctrine. Pretty soon, they are looking for the explanation that they want.

Self righteous arrogance; they put their own thinking above doctrine. Or "I have learned all the doctrine that I need to know. Now I need to serve the Lord." As if you can't do both. When you leave doctrine, pretty soon you have this big pile of human good that you are sitting on, and in eternity, that will all be burned up.

People leave Berachah and they even go in for the gift of tongues. They want to feel their spiritual life. They want to inject their own standards of legalism. A god that is not compatible with Scripture is not God.

The only criteria for understanding God is His Word.

Your spiritual knowledge also infiltrates your soul, as well as your spirit, so that you are able to understand certain spiritual concepts, even when you are out of fellowship. You can recognize sins because you have norms and standards, and those norms and standards are in the soul; and your inculcation of Bible doctrine also impacts your norms and standards.

John 6:66 After this many of his disciples turned back and no longer walked with him.

Authority, grace, standards, structure, judgment, consequences God's righteousness are fundamental to the Christian faith.

Jesus now confirms that His primary disciples will stick with Him.

John 6:67 So Jesus said to the Twelve, "Do you want to go away as well?"

Jesus asks them straight out. Jesus formulates the Greek, desiring a negative answer from the disciples. He wants them to stick it out with Him. Some of them were obviously being affected by the other opinions. This was not a statement of fact; Jesus was allowing them to make their own decision. He allowed for their positive or negative volition.

Peter is a natural leader and he always has something to say. He answers the question for everyone.

Lesson #0513

John 6: Life of Christ

10//2013 Wed

A lady's letter from a church in Ukraine. Could not find a new church; and she eventually found Bobby's teaching. She could see how people keep God in a box; reaching for Him when they need Him. God has helped her raise her son. All she has is by His grace only. Listening to the life of Christ, He has become even more real. Lesson by lesson, she is overcome by emotions. She understands exactly Jesus went through as true humanity and Deity. She is emotional about doctrine. She was amazed as to how Bob could teach for so many years and still find things to teach. There are precepts built upon precepts. We advance if we stick with it. She studied on his 2005 studies of the edification complex. She is happy to see that building growing.

John 6:66 After this many of his disciples turned back and no longer walked with him.

There was an exodus of Jews who were following Jesus, but then they stopped. These people were legalists. They were the worst kind of legalists who could not accept the grace message of the bread of life discourse.

What about the twelve? They were right there when all of this. What did they think when they saw all of these desertions. They observed disciples rejecting further teaching by Jesus. The way that Jesus formed this question means that He expected and wanted a negative answer. This question was an appeal to their volition. They have a choice to make. He is allowing them their own decision. Jesus provides the doctrine and we make the decision whether to stick with it or not.

John 6:67 So Jesus said to the Twelve, "Do you want to go away as well?"

Simon Peter answers this question.

John 6:68 Simon Peter answered him, "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life, Jesus is then called by a new name. The Holy One of God.

John 6:69 and we have believed, and have come to know, that you are the Holy One of God."

The Lord Jesus Christ was none other than God with us; Immanuel. What an affect He has upon human history. He is also transcendent; God taking on the form of a man and involving Himself directly in the affairs of man.

The followers had rejected the Holy One of God. But Peter testifies to Who Jesus is. This is after a long weekend of miracles and discourses; this has been a weekend of epiphany. Peter in this says that He is staying on with Jesus. This indicates positive volition. The more we learn about Him, that spark of positive volition turns into a fire.

When Peter speaks, he is representing the others. He uses the 1st person plural. He was an obvious leader, given his personality. This indicates that every one of them have accepted Jesus as the Holy One of God Who brings eternal life. "You are God, You are man, You are our Savior." Bobby says that Peter was speaking as well for Judas.

We don't know about the life of Judas or what his life was like. He probably stole money and he perpetrated one of the greatest crimes in history; but that does not disqualify him for salvation.

John 6:70 Jesus answered them, "Did I not choose you, the Twelve? And yet one of you is a devil."

We see the sovereignty of God interacting with the free will of man. Jesus chose these disciples; He knew them from eternity past. His omniscience knew them. It says that God had given them to Him. That seems pretty determinative. Why would He ask the question if He chose them? They come to Him without negating their free will.

John 6:71 He spoke of Judas the son of Simon Iscariot, for he, one of the Twelve, was going to betray him.

Just because Jesus chose them, they all had free will to follow Jesus or not for the rest of their lives. 11 chose to continue following Him; and 1 later on chose not to. We have choices throughout our lives. We have choices to be positive or negative at any given time. Volition is involved to the time that a person dies.

Philip. 3:18–19 is a passage about reversionism. Is it worth it to miss out on the greatest life that you can possibly have in order to spend a few months or years in reversionism? Only God is guaranteed to keep His commitment to us forever.

Δισβολος is what Jesus called Judas. Jesus is not calling Judas Satan.

Judas the Devil

1. Judas is a devil; a person who does evil.
2. Judas will follow the cosmic system of Satan. The cosmic system is the mind of man. It is anything which is not divine viewpoint. Satan will do this by betraying Christ. He will show it by betraying Jesus Christ.
3. Does this prove that he was an unbeliever? Peter answered positively on his behalf. Bobby answers with a tentative “no.” he won’t throw himself on his theological sword over this.
4. Believers and unbelievers can do evil things under the influence of the cosmic system and with negative volition.
5. Devil describes Judas’ method of work. It is devil-like activity.
6. Judas will perpetrate one of the greatest betrayals in the history of mankind. This character in Russia has nothing on Judas. He brought Jesus down, which is what Satan has attempted to do since his own fall.
7. Judas in facilitating that event was a devil.
8. Judas in his betrayal facilitated the salvation event; the cross. Judas betrayed himself and the Lord and facilitated the greatest event in all human history.
9. Undoubtedly Judas was a tool of the devil. He was totally influenced by the cosmic system, which he chose to follow, rather than what he knew and believed about Christ. He is the picture of an evil reversionist.

John 6:71 He spoke of Judas the son of Simon Iscariot, for he, one of the Twelve, was going to betray him.

How could Jesus betray Jesus, the One Whom is the Holy One of God. This shows the depth to which a reversionist can sink. Do not be surprised as to the depths which a believer might sink to.

Impersonal Love and Judas

1. V. 71 is a prophecy of the betrayal. This is the first they have heard of it.
2. This makes the impersonal love of God as expressed in John 3:16 all the more poignant and powerful. This is the epitome of loving one’s enemies.
3. Impersonal love is extended to one as heinous as Judas Iscariot. This gives us the idea of the power of impersonal love.

Matt. 15:1–23 Mark 7:1–23 John 7:1 is the next big event. The subject is eating with unwashed hands. This does not seem to be much of a thing, compared to the other 3 great events.

Introduction to Eating with Unwashed Hands

1. The pharisees imposing binding traditions on the Jews. This is another look at legalism.
2. This is a prime example of religious legalism. We have religious legalism all over in this country.
3. These next verses will legalistic defilement versus the true mandates of God. The greatest enemy that we face, the precepts of legalism.

John 7:1 And after these things Jesus was walking in Galilee; for He did not desire to walk in Judea, because the Jews were lusting to kill Him.

It has been a year since He had been in Judah. Jesus had been run out of town and there was Herod Antipas there causing a great many problems. The Jews wanted to kill Him. This opposition has been gaining momentum for months. This reached a crescendo with the bread of life sermon.

In this incident of hand washing, which was ceremonial cleanliness. This is a challenge from the high authorities there who arrived in Capernaum from Jerusalem. These are religious bigwigs from Jerusalem. They had come to wipe Him out; to cleanse Him from their land.

Killing Him was only a matter of when and where. They had already conspired to kill Jesus. They were going to get Him. The cross was not just some emotional moment. It was premeditated and took a year or more for them to plot it out. The Holy One of God, "Let's kill Him."

Matt. 15:1 Then the scribes and Pharisees came to Jesus from Jerusalem, saying,

Matt. 15:2 Why do Your disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat bread.

This was an offense punishable by death. This is one of the most interesting battles of legalism versus grace.

Matt. 15:3 But answering He said to them, Why do you also transgress the command of God on account of your tradition?

Lesson #0514

John 6: Life of Christ

10//2013 Thurs

Matt. 15:1–23 Mark 7:1–23 John 7:1 is the 4th big event. The subject is ritual cleansing and its violation; eating with unwashed hands.

The Mosaic Law is designed to teach doctrine. Some about rebound, some about Jesus Christ; and hand washing has an illustrious doctrine behind it. However, it is turned into works righteousness. Salvation by works. These regs have been passed down from generation to generation.

These traditions were written down and codified and became a source of their legalism.

John 7:1 And after these things Jesus was walking in Galilee; for He did not desire to walk in Judea, because the Jews were lusting to kill Him.

They sought Jesus in Galilee in order to kill Him. They did not seek Him as a political leader or as Messiah, but they hated and feared Him. They feared His power and His many disciples. This fear and hatred had progressed to be desirous of murder. All they needed was a reason. Any reason. They were looking for a reason. Killing Him was only a matter of when and where.

A delegation of scribes and pharisees came up from Jerusalem. They were going to put the pressure on Him. They were going to investigate what is going on, and confirm it. They were looking for something which would allow them to condemn Him and His disciples.

Matt. 15:1–2 Then the scribes and Pharisees came to Jesus from Jerusalem, saying, “Why do Your disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat bread.

Mark 7:2 And seeing some of His disciples eating bread with unclean, that is unwashed hands, they found fault.

Mark 7:3 For the Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they wash the hands with the fist, holding the tradition of the elders.

They complain that the disciples are not washing their hands.

Their Bible was this compilation of traditions. They engaged in some serious ritual here.

Mark 7:4 And coming from the market, if they do not immerse themselves, they do not eat. And there are many other things which they received to hold: dippings of cups, and of utensils, and of copper vessels, and couches.

Everything had to be cleansed. They followed an unbelievable number of regulations, following either the Hillel school or the Shemei school of elders. They followed these laws to the letter. There was no wiggle-room in their laws. They scrupulously enforced these laws. They decreed themselves to be righteous for keeping the law and watching everyone else to make certain that they fulfill the Law.

These ritual washings had originated from the Mosaic Law. The washing of hands had arisen as an illustration that the Jews needed to maintain separation from the unclean peoples, which were the gentiles. The Law saw the gentiles as unclean heathen, in the eyes of the pharisees. So this separated them from the unclean.

They did not understand the meaning of uncleanness. That is the picture of sanctification. This reminded them that they were a people set apart to represent Y^ehowah God to all other people. They were a special people set apart to this by God. They were the people with whom God made the Abrahamic covenant. The Mosaic Law was also part of what God gave His special chosen people. Only God gave Israel this law.

The elders took all of the laws from the Mosaic Law, and they kept adding more and more regulations to them. It sounds just like our government. The latest healthcare legislation is all about regulation and the greatest tax increase in the history of our country.

All of these regulations were manmade and they took something out of the Mosaic Law and made it into a form of legalism.

It was all about the outside. It has nothing to do with the inside.

Whenever a Jew came from the marketplace to their home, there were things that they could touch or simply pass by, that they had to come back and wash. They were tainted by whatever they touched or passed. This had become an external ritual about touching something that is unclean. This was done according to elaborate regulations. After meals, all of their plates, etc. had to be thoroughly cleaned. They cleaned everything all of the time. These had become rituals without any sort of reality.

Any deviation from these rituals was intolerable. A statement of a rabbi, "Better to go 4 miles to water than to incur guilt by hand washing." Oppressive and legalistic. Walking an extra 4 miles was not to be a part of the Mosaic Law.

Exterior washing did not mean anything. Sanitary and ritual practices had become a sign of righteousness before God; an external righteousness based upon a ritual.

Hand Washing the Traditions

1. The pharisees said the ordinance of hand washing had come down all the way from Solomon. This meant that this was a very important and well-documented tradition. The older the tradition, the more important it was.
2. If the Jew kept this hand washing ritual, he would be rewarded with the highest reward.
3. Eating food daily that was purified with washed hand would mean they were eat bread in the kingdom of God. If you wash your hands, this ritual will get you to the Kingdom of Heaven. This is pure-dee legalism.
4. This is how important these regulations had become. They had become a spiritual criteria for the Jews.
5. The pharisees carried ritual washing to such an extent that it overshadowed the doctrinal and grace principles of the Mosaic Law. The Mosaic Law became less important than their traditions about it. They continued to accumulate these traditions. They did not repeal any of them.
6. Legalism and meaningless ritual removes the participants from the message of God's Words. Some churches turn into ritualistic works-based churches.

They broke down each category and passed down their regulations by means of oral tradition.

Legalism tends to get very vicious. There is one long history of viciousness in the church when it becomes legalistic. When you depart from Biblical Christianity and grace, you get a vicious bunch of killers.

This is a good sanitary practice. Nothing wrong with it. It probably saved a lot of laws. We have regulations about food servers touching food and washing their hands first. So this was one practical dietary reason for hand washing; it was all about being sanitary; but it was also representative. It was a teaching aide. It reminds the Jews of their requirement to be set apart. Internal sanctification represented by an internal washing. This is not much different than baptism. An external manifestation of an internal cleansing. It is a washing of regeneration (Titus 3:5).

This ritual is the reality. In Jewish tradition, this external washing had taken over internal changes. The custom of this ritual washing had become an issue of works righteousness before God. This is a case of religion taking something good and making it into legalism righteousness.

All of these laws given by God; and the rabbis and priests began to add to these laws; they began to develop regulations which were to be applied. They would apply a multitude of regulations in order to interpret the Mosaic Law. They were impossible to keep. This had become so serious that one could be executed for failing to observe this regulation.

Mark 7:5 Then the Pharisees and scribes questioned Him, Why do your disciples not walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashed hands?

They ask Jesus about the tradition of the elders. They knew that they had Jesus here. They caught the disciples red-handed. They had them here. They could put them in handcuffs and lead them away.

Essentially, the blame fell upon Jesus, their leader, their rabbi, who permitted His disciples to disregard this ritual. Another rabbi would have respected the traditions of the elders.

These legalistic Jews preferred their traditions over their Messiah. These traditions pointed to the very One Who is found in all of these traditions.

Grace versus Legalism
Scripture	Legalism
Salvation is faith alone in Christ alone.	Works are required for salvation.

Grace versus Legalism

Scripture	Legalism
Confession requires one to just name their sins.	Confession requires repentance.
Spirituality is the status of being filled with the Holy Spirit which is lost by sinning.	Spirituality comes from what you do.
Living the Christian life. This is lived by a total grace operation. What we do is all a matter of divine good based upon that criteria.	Legalism says the Christian life is being a good person; it is being a good person; it is working in a soup kitchen; it is voting for Democrats.
Communion is a memorial to the Person and work of the Lord Jesus Christ. We memorialize God's grace.	Transubstantiation is one form of communion which is legalism. Another view is, we do a ritual and suffer through it and God likes that.
Witnessing is presenting grace; faith alone in Christ alone.	Legalism wants to know how many people you witnessed to today.
The priesthood—every believer is a priest and every believer is a saint.	The Old Testament had a specialized priesthood of special people; and this occurs in some denominations. Some very special people are designated saints.
Unbelievers can be good people too.

Jesus takes the Mosaic Law and shoves this legalism right down their throats. He shows their hypocrisy and He in turn indicts them.

Matt. 15:3 But answering He said to them, Why do you also transgress the command of God on account of your tradition?

Lesson #0515

Life of Christ

10/13/2013 1Sunday

Communion Sunday:

We are following the confirmed instructions of Jesus, “Do this in remembrance of Me.”

Jesus is the only celebrity of the history of man. He is the unique man of all human history. He is God and He is man, all in one Person. He is the only means by which we can approach God.

His very name belies His celebrityship status. He has inherited a much more excellent status than the angels.

His excellent name denotes the character and importance of the Divine Owner.

Each of the 4 seas are given a color. The White Sea, the Red Sea (given that name due to a color by an organism growing near the water's surface). The Yellow Sea. The Black Sea which divides southern Europe from Turkey. A number of theories here. Sailors of long ago caught in a storm and lost due to the absence of islands and the ferocity of storms, causing death, black being the color of death.

Speaking of Mary, the angel of God said, "She will bear a Son, and you will call His name Jesus." Isa. 7:14 A virgin will bear a child and she will call His name, Immanuel.

Jesus has a much more exalted name than any angel. The Savior of mankind Who will save His people from their sins. The testimony of Scripture as to His name and character.

God has bestowed upon Him a name upon every name and every tongue will confess...

The psalmist understood the value of His name, when he wrote in Psalm 8:1 How majestic is Your name, displayed above all the heavens. His name bears testimony to his exalted position. In spite of the fact that this Man became obedient unto death. He humbled Himself by becoming obedient to the point of death.

Jesus did not reject the Father's plan for our salvation. Eternal life cannot die, even on the cross. The only way for Him to die was for Him to refrain from using His deity.

He accepted the punishment for our sins on the cross from His Own free will. When He bore our sins in His Own body on the cross, he refused to invoke His Own righteousness to bypass this punishment; this would have been rejecting the judgment for our sins, and we would perish. We would have no way out.

He was subject to pain, to weakness, to sorrow, to human limitations. Jesus experienced physical and mental growth. He never used His deity to improve His physical existence. He took long trips spreading the message of His salvation. His omniscience was revealed by many situations; but He was silent about future events unrelated to His place in God's plan.

He never used His deity to gain any advantages for Himself. He suffered as we suffer; but he never gave up His deity or his ability to function as God. He was constantly undiminished Deity when in the form of true and unblemished humanity. He never functioned in contradiction to the plan of God the Father.

No one will surpass Him. No person has never been born without a sin nature; He never sinned. No man can lay claim to this.

Many people in our culture can be called celebrities; but they are all noted for some activity that they have accomplished; they hold or break a record. The permanent record of sinlessness is an accomplishment which stands forever. Had He sinned even once, He would have been unacceptable to God. Even one little sin would put Him in the same predicament as all mankind. He needs perfect righteousness in order to satisfy the requirements of God the Father.

Were He not the record-holder for sinlessness, God the Father could not have imputed to Him the sins of the world. A spiritually dead person cannot make atonement for another spiritually dead person. The dead cannot save the dead. Had He not have been sinless, we would be without hope and at a loss

With the wall of sin intact, we can possess at best a relative righteousness. We need to be justified by Jesus. Without His perfection, we could never meet the standard of God's perfect character. Jesus Christ was perfection. No one else could ever be so.

So He was qualified to be our substitute. The greatest act of justice, righteousness, love and grace in human history. As our celebrity, He is the Lord of Lords, King of Kings, the Great High Priest. The Mercy Seat was the Old Testament representation of the doctrine of propitiation in Israel. His atoning work was sufficient.

The localized dwelling place of God in the tabernacle or the Temple; where blood sacrifices were offered. The mercy seat covered in blood was the propitiation for our sins. Consequently blood sprinkled on the mercy seat stands for His sacrifice for us. All a picture of a future substitutionary death.

The Jews saw everything that Jesus was and all that He would provide in their rituals. A death has taken place for the redemption. Heb. 9:15 And because of this He is Mediator of a new covenant, so that, death having occurred for redemption of transgressions under the first covenant, those being called might receive the promise of the everlasting inheritance.

It is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sin. In Israel, they looked forward to the work, as we look backward to the work.

The seating or session of Jesus Christ declared Him to be superior to all angels, a name above every other name. Because we are in Him, we are positionally higher than angels. In the resurrection to come, we will be experientially superior to angels.

The preeminence that surpasses all understanding. He is full of love and grace and truth; and that is who we worship. We remember Who our Lord is.

Bobby will be at the San Antonio Bible conference this next week.

Jesus represents grace as nothing else can represent it. In the 2nd service grace will face the epitome of legalism. We will see the picture of God's grace; but we will also be able to recognize one of the scourges of Christianity, which is legalism.

Lesson #0516

John 6: Life of Christ

10/13/2013 2Sunday

Matt. 15:1–23 Mark 7:1–23 John 7:1 is the 4th big event. The subject is ritual cleansing and its violation; eating with unwashed hands.

John 7:1 And after these things Jesus was walking in Galilee; for He did not desire to walk in Judea, because the Jews were lusting to kill Him.

Keeping all of these legalistic traditions were entry into the Kingdom of God in the minds of these pharisees. The traditions were the epitome of works-righteousness. There had to be rituals and all sorts of works righteousness. Their traditions superceded the grace of God. God gave laws to govern Israel as a spiritual entity and as a national entity.

Each law was given more regulations for each line in the Mosaic Law. There were so many regulations in the time of Jesus, that they could not be kept track of. The traditions had not all been written down yet, but they would be collected into the Talmud.

The rituals and the sacrifices pointed toward the Savior. No one could keep all of the Law. The true purpose of the Law would show the Jews just how far short they fell of the righteousness of God. No one could keep the Law perfectly; and the lesson was, you cannot, by your own righteousness, ever approach God.

Traditions had replaced the grace of God. Here is the problem. Jesus took all of these traditions and rituals and He pushed them aside, and He presented Himself as the only entrance to the Kingdom of God. Therefore, the pharisees despised Him. They came to Galilee to catch Jesus violating their traditions, so they could kill Him.

One of the rituals of tradition was hand washing. It is amazing that someone could take legalism out of hand washing.

Here is what they observed:

Mark 7:2 And seeing some of His disciples eating bread with unclean, that is unwashed hands, they found fault.

The pharisees would not eat without washed hands, which was a part of the tradition of the elders. This was not a sanitary measure, but an important religious recognition. It is not just a religious ritual that we get through. These guys wash their hands as a religious ritual. And not observing this is punishable by death.

Pharisees took the sanitary and ritual expression in the Mosaic Law; and they expanded on it and made it a sign of morality and righteousness before God.

Mark 7:3 For the Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they wash the hands with the fist, holding the tradition of the elders.

Not washing your hands before a meal identified you with the sinners. Their traditions took the place of the requirements of the Law. The Jews were a separate chosen people different from the rest of the world. This was to represent an internal sanctification, which an external hand washing represented.

The pharisees looked for and found the violation they were after.

Mark 7:5 Then the Pharisees and scribes questioned Him, Why do your disciples not walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashed hands?

The pharisees preferred the traditions of man over the doctrine of Scripture. They teach good deeds today and the social gospel today rather than the redemption in the Bible. Religion is always about works; it is always about what you can do for God.

Jesus Christ is the epitome of grace.

Our Lord looked at the pharisees, and He would not allow them to distort God's Word in this way. Jesus would deal with them in two ways.

So Jesus gives a prophecy of Isaiah which is all about their thinking and their actions.

Mark 7:6–7 And answering, He said to them, Well did Isaiah prophesy concerning you, hypocrites; as it has been written: "This people honors Me with the lips, but their heart is far away from Me; and in vain they worship Me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men." Isa. 29:13

It is a great fallacy to put your own thinking above the commandments of God.

The Legalism of These Pharisees Versus Grace

1. Our Lord is citing the difference between religion and Bible doctrine from God. There is a great gulf between these two ways of thinking. As soon as you lose the perspective of Bible doctrine, you are on the wrong road.
2. He cites the difference between the mind of man and the mind of Christ. The mind of Christ is absolute truth.
3. This is absolute legalism versus grace. That is the age old conflict. This is the epitome of the Angelic Conflict.
4. Anyone who touts legalism is in the same camp.
5. The legalist professes to be righteous through tradition and ritual and by what they do for God. Jesus says, "This is far away from God."

6. They are hypocrites, teaching man's tradition over God's Word. They make tradition and ritual above the pathway to God.
7. Jesus speaks of the difference between religion and Bible doctrine.

The pharisees are thoughtless and filled with legalism.

Therefore, Jesus cites Isaiah to show who these people are. They put regulations on people that they themselves cannot keep.

Isa 29:13 And the Lord says, Because this people draws near with its mouth, and they honor Me with its lip; but its heart is far from Me, and their fear of Me is taught by the commandments of men;...

They have nothing in their souls. They learn a tradition by rote; that is what they offer God. Isaiah faces this problem in his day, as Jesus faced, as we face today. They mouth empty, repetitive phrases. It is all about worshiping God and gaining God's favor.

In the time of Isaiah, the Jews were very apostate, and headed for the fifth cycle of discipline. The same thing was true in the day of Jesus. And even today, the Jews are scattered all over the earth.

The Jews tried to give outward honor to God without any inward truth. There was no truth in the inner man. Your heart is far from Me.

What Is Jesus Saying Again?

1. Their hearts and thinking were so far from Jesus, that there is no way that they could worship and honor and please God.
2. Jesus is denigrating the legalism and hatred in the souls of these men. Empty hearts reveal empty souls.
3. Their so-called reverence for God was based upon outward actions. These are self-satisfying rituals. They needed to only give lip service.
4. They worship the laws and regulations of their own making. Elders; human beings. A canon of legalism.
5. The Jews went well beyond and well apart from God's Word. They went well beyond or departed from it. They went far from the precepts of God.
6. They had entirely perverted the doctrinal meaning found in the Word of God. They perverted it to their own use. That is how religion operates. When there is no regeneration and no grace, only religion is left (if they think about God at all).
7. These religious men have elevated their own human precepts and their own personal experiences over the doctrines taught by Christ. They call these human pronouncements doctrines and worship of God. This was stuff that they just made up.

Mark 7:5 Then the Pharisees and scribes asked Him, Why do your disciples not walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat loaves with unwashed hands?

The pharisees noted that the disciples of Jesus did not follow the hand washing of the traditions. Hand washing was used for teaching doctrine and for simple cleanliness. This represented an internal sanctification. A renovation of thinking represented with this ritual of hand washing. This was very much like the baptism. It was an external representation of an internal change. This was not and never will be a means of salvation. Many people in the United States believe in baptismal regeneration. This is similar to the thinking of the pharisees and scribes. The external washing demanded by the pharisees had taken the place of internal sanctification. Hand washing had become a sign of spiritual purity. This indicated righteousness. But not washing hands would be unclean; a lack of righteousness before God. The custom of ritual washing of hands had become an issue of works righteousness. This was a case of religion taking true doctrine and making it a ritual without reality. They removed the doctrinal reality. These rituals had become binding and the means of salvation. It was the washing that made the person righteous; it did not represent righteousness to the pharisees.

Justification is God bestowing His righteousness upon us. The Jewish rabbis and scribes have embellished the Mosaic Law. Not washing one's hands could be punished with death. This is the same legalism found in Islamic republics, where death is prescribed for very minor infractions. When there is no regeneration or grace, this is how legalism operates. This simply represents legalism; the pharisees represent what legalists do and how they think.

Internal is what the Bible is concerned with; external is what legalists are concerned with. This is even true of high churches as well. The pharisees had superceded the Word of God and the design of God. This describes any cult or any other religion in this world. It is evil.

Today, when Scripture is superceded by experience; where experience supercedes the strong Word of God. Their feelings and subsequently redefine Christianity based upon their own experience. There is no criteria for their spiritual life. That is form over function; the externals over the internals. The subjective experience. The fallacy of religious legalism.

Jesus understood exactly what the scribes and pharisees were doing here.

They wanted to indict Jesus and His disciples; but Jesus will indict the legalists. Jesus took the Old Testament and applied it correctly.

Mark 7:6 But He answered and said to them, Well has Isaiah prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, "This people honors Me with their lips, but their heart is far from Me.

Everything is external. There is nothing internally going on.

Mark 7:7 However, they worship Me in vain, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men."
Isa. 29:13

Man is making up his own God. He is making God in his own image.

The context of Isa. 29:13 is Any so-called reverence for God was based upon outward actions which they performed. This was no basis in the actions of God. This is self-satisfying ritual. The Jewish elders had developed a code, and this was a perversion of Bible doctrine. This is what some people do with the doctrine of rebound. They want to tweak it a little bit. But they end up adding something which is not a part of the rebound technique. They want to add something which they do in order to gain God's approval. Rebound in their minds is just too easy. So the pharisees are doing the same sort of thing.

The Thinking of the Pharisees

1. The pharisees were the ones who transgressed the Law; and the doctrines given by God in the Old Testament. What had they done? They indicted Jesus and His disciples based upon their not following legalistic doctrines.
2. They pronounced themselves of innocent of all transgressions.
3. They base this upon all their righteous deeds and their observance of their own traditions.
4. In their traditions, they have taken them and superimposed them over the Word of God.

They now have to face their man-made legalism. When the words of man and man-made traditions, and superimpose themselves on Scripture, legalism and heresy are always present.

Jesus had indicted them one time, so He will make a second point, going to a principle that we all understand. Jesus then goes to the Ten Commandments.

So Jesus puts it right back on them.

Matt. 15:3 But answering He said to them, Why do you also transgress the command of God on account of your tradition?

These men want to kill Jesus for not washing His hands; and yet, they are violating

Matt. 15:4 For God commanded, saying, "Honor your father and mother," Ex. 20:12; Deut. 5:16 and, "The one speaking evil of father or mother, by death let him die." Ex. 21:17

But these people used the Corban gimmick; they do the exact opposite of honoring father and mother. This screws over the father and mother financially, when they are at their lowest ebbs; when they need help.

They will violate the simplest of God's laws. Today, kids do not honor their parents. They have their own ideas of what to do, and this is contrary to the teaching of their parents. There is a terrible price to pay for this kind of action.

This is something that everyone in Israel knows. But the developed a loophole for the 5th commandment.

Matt. 15:5 But you say, Whoever says to the father or the mother, A gift, whatever you would gain from me;

Lesson #0518

John 6: Life of Christ

10/20/2013 2Sunday

Mark 7:11 But you say, If a man says to his father or mother, Corban, (which is, A gift!) whatever you may profit by me.

Mark 7:12 And you no longer allow him to do anything for his father or mother,

The Scripture is clear that children are to obey their parents; and one of the great punishments is that which they bring on to themselves. Their rebellious souls translates to the inability to get along with people. If you cannot get along with people, you cannot get along in this life.

So what about this 5th commandment? For children, this is authority-orientation. If you do not learn this the easy way, then you will learn it the hard way.

So, what if my parents are drunkards? What if they are losers and bad examples? You may begin with a bad advantage here, but you learn authority-orientation from doctrine and grace orientation. It is too bad you don't get a good start as a child, but you can make up for it. You can learn how to treat the worst people with graciousness.

We also learn impersonal love. Leaning authority-orientation and impersonal love does not mean that we need to hang out with our parents all the time. In adulthood, we are given freedom.

The pharisees developed the corban gimmick. Corban is a Greek transliteration of karban, which comes from the noun karba? This is where Mark got the word corban; he got it from the Hebrew Bible. It means to draw near.

Corban and the Levitical Offerings

1. Lev. 1:2–3 is a part of the Mosaic Law. It is translated offering.
2. In the Old Testament, it refers to any sacrifice or gift brought to the altar and dedicated to God. This was an Old Testament tradition; a ritual for reality. You could bring a lamb, or a turtle dove, or whatever, to sacrifice to God. You could bring other things to God.
3. Corban is an inherent concept; it is inseparable from the Mosaic Law.

4. Corban is a picture of the greatest of all sacrifices. The Levitical offerings anticipate the sacrifice of Jesus on the cross. They did not know the name of Jesus Christ, but they knew the blood sacrifice.
5. Corban foreshadowed the substitutionary spiritual death accomplished for us.
6. The meaning of corban is exactly why Jesus picked this piece of legalistic tradition. They took this doctrine from the Old Testament and perverted it. They rejected Jesus as the true corban sacrifice. Jesus fulfills the corban sacrifice.

The Corban Gimmick

1. The pharisees used the corban gimmick; they took a legitimate teaching doctrine, and they used it to escape the responsibility of a child to help them to escape it.
2. It was a trick of pronouncing corban upon their personal wealth. All of their assets became "corban" when their parents were in need.
3. All of their personal goods were pronounced as "given to God" i.e., corban.
4. Therefore, they did not have to give anything to their parents. God never demands all of our assets. This made their assets untouchable. No one could get them except for themselves.
5. Corban was an excuse to ignore parents who needed the help of their children.

They had studied the Law and figured out a way to get around it.

Our constitution is under the same attack. There was a certain ideology, and the constitution is made to fit that ideology.

The Use of Corban in the Time of Jesus

1. Corban could be used to preserve anything of value.
2. It did not matter whether the things declared were brought to the synagogue or not. It just made these things off-limits.
3. Once corban was declared, no further action was necessary by the children, in terms of helping their parents.
4. This made them exempt from the 5th commandment.
5. With this gimmick, kids no longer have to give up anything to their parents.
6. The fifth commandment is to demonstrate the importance of the divine institution of family; and to teach authority-orientation. If the family disintegrates, the nation disintegrates.
7. If a parent or parents were in need, the fifth commandment requires them to help their parents financially and in other ways. Family and the importance of family.

The corban gimmick kept their assets free. To declare corban, the priest gave whatever his authorization was required in order to keep all of the assets and yet have them under corban. There would be a fee paid for this. So, instead of the 5th commandment being unequivocal, corban became unequivocal.

By this gimmick, children could be kept from obeying the 5th commandment. This practice brought in additional income to the rabbis and priests. This caused untold suffering to many parents in their old age. Legalism for some, all of it is about power and money. Why do you think taxes are going up? Money is power. Money buys power. Religious leaders looked to gain more and more of each. The pharisees were religious tyrants, which is the worst kind. So Jesus Christ tells them that they have perverted the Law.

Mark 7:11 But you say, If a man says to his father or mother, Corban, (which is, A gift!) whatever you may profit by me.

Mark 7:12 And you no longer allow him to do anything for his father or mother,

Regulation takes the place of law. Nobody gets to vote on it. There is always a regulation that someone is in violation of. The pharisees wrote enough regulations to take care of anyone who got in their way. That is the tyranny of politics and power.

And Jesus tells them that they do many things like this. It was just a legal trick up the sleeves of the pharisees. You could, with enough money, get whatever you needed from the pharisees.

Mark 7:13 making the Word of God of no effect by your tradition which you delivered. And many such like things you do.

All of those ancient pharisaical traditions and regulations overruled the Mosaic Law.

Religion is always a front for evil. It has nothing to do with the God of heaven. Today, the traditions of the elders, the very traditions that they developed, are now compiled in a book called the Talmud.

Mark 7:13 making the Word of God of no effect by your tradition which you delivered. And many such like things you do.

These gimmicks never give us a reason to persecute Jews. We always need to focus on grace. We have responsibilities for our aged parents as well. Jesus takes them down with their own Scripture.

We can never get a better explanation of legalism than in the past couple of hours. We have seen their legalism and the grace of God. We live under the grace of God; not under legalism.

Now Jesus will teach those around Him. He will now go into a positive mode. He will give this lesson in a way that we will never forget.

Jesus was never without opposition; even though He spoke the truth. His ministry and hypostatic union were rejected so often by those who saw Him face to face.

The pharisees came looking to go after Jesus and find a reason to execute Him.

John 7:1 And after these things Jesus was walking in Galilee; for He did not desire to walk in Judea, because the Jews were lusting to kill Him.

They could actually put someone to death for a person not washing their hands. Stoning a person to death was a Jewish form of capital punishment. But Jesus could not let them stone the disciples; or get away with such legalism.

Both of Jesus' answers to these pharisees dealt with their legalism and the concept of grace.

Mark 7:6 But He answered and said to them, Well has Isaiah prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, "This people honors Me with their lips, but their heart is far from Me.

Mark 7:7 However, they worship Me in vain, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men."
Isa. 29:13

They were no better than the people of Isaiah's day, and they would go out under the fifth cycle of discipline. These people would they themselves go out under the fifth cycle of discipline as well.

What these pharisees had done was superceded the laws of God. They took what God supplied and superimposed their traditions. They upheld hand washing, a work that makes them righteous in their own eyes.

Jesus makes certain that they see their wrongness.

Matt. 15:3 But answering He said to them, Why do you also transgress the command of God on account of your tradition?

Jesus exposes their attack against the divine institution of family. When family breaks up, then the nation disintegrates. We see that today.

Matt. 15:4 For God commanded, saying, "Honor your father and mother," Ex. 20:12; Deut. 5:16 and, "The one speaking evil of father or mother, by death let him die." Ex. 21:17

Matt. 15:5 But you say, Whoever says to the father or the mother, A gift [coban, which is given to God], whatever you would gain from me;

They used this gimmick against their own parents when their parents needed help. When their parents were old; their personal goods were pronounced given to God. Mostly they did not give their parents anything; they promised it all to God. In most cases, it was never actually given to God. They exempted themselves from the 5th commandment in order to retain use of all of their money.

Matt. 15:6 and in no way he honors his father or his mother. And you annulled the command of God on account of your tradition.

The pharisees knew right then and there what Jesus was accusing them of. They could not refute this. Jesus had them dead to rights. They were exposed. They were mad over this. This upset them greatly. Nobody called them criminal; they called everyone else criminals.

Jesus has exposed these men. He turns His back on these pharisees and He began to address the crowd which was there. Cleanness before God is on the inside.

Mark 7:14 And calling all the crowd near, He said to them, All hear Me and understand.

Jesus continues telling them that the externals are not what defiles a man. What is inside defiles the man.

Mark 7:15 There is nothing from outside the man, having entered into him, which is able to defile him. But the things going out from him, those are the things defiling the man.

Then Jesus delivers a stock phrase to people who could hear. "If you have got an ear, listen to this."

Religious types would avoid sick people. Leprosy and they would throw rocks at them; get rid of them. They are unclean. They were not nice people.

The external cleaning was symbolic. The washing was representative. They used their rituals to define their righteousness. But washing did not make them clean; it represented cleanliness on the inside. The crowds had not heard this before.

The Pharisees and Uncleanness

1. Uncleanness did not come from external sources.
2. Uncleanness represented sin. For the pharisees it represented violated of the traditions of the elders.
3. What was dirty could not be cleaned with soap and water.
4. Jesus said that real uncleanness is on the inside. No ritual can change that. The washing ritual simply represented what happened on the inside.
5. The legalist had not received the washing of regeneration.
6. It did not matter how often the pharisees washed their hands or went through all sorts of rituals; they were unclean on the inside. That is true of any church that depends upon ritual for salvation.

Mark 7:16 If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear.

The disciples were worried perhaps that Jesus went a little too far with the pharisees. The disciples were not hearing what the Lord was saying. The disciples do not get it. They watched the contorted faces of the pharisees.

Jesus wanted everyone to see grace and the futility and nastiness of legalism.

Matt. 15:12 Then coming, the disciples said to Him, You know that hearing the Word, the Pharisees were offended?

Now Jesus gives a short little parable. Whatever plant my heavenly

The Plant Analogy

1. The plants are the pharisees; the religious legalistic types. Not just the pharisees.
2. In this context, it is what the pharisees have done.
3. They have perverted the Word of God with self-developed doctrines. They made them up as they went along. They took the Word of God and perverted it and added to it. They are the plants.

Then Jesus gives them an ominous warning. This is a horrifying warning. The perversion of doctrine will be uprooted by God.

Matt. 15:13 But answering, He said, Every plant which My heavenly Father has not planted shall be rooted up.

It is easy to become discouraged when we see so much error in thinking today; and how much of a mess Christianity is today. It is becoming emotional; entertaining.

God Ripping out the Plants

1. When we say it is time to uproot all of this stuff, it does not make any difference. This is our timetable; not His. In His own timing, God will rip out every plant. We do not want to be ripped out by God.
2. Judgment will come to those who reject the truth of judgment. Not our justice; not national justice; but God's justice.
3. Jesus will remove those who perpetrate or perpetuate evil in this world. Legalism and humanism are the evils in our world.
4. They will be exposed; evil plants for destruction.

Jesus says, "Let them alone. They are blind leading the blind." There is negative volition in the pharisees and negative volition in their followers. The leader and follower all fall into a pit. Blind leaders and blind followers all end up in the pit. These pharisees want to see Jesus dead. This is why they beat Him to a pulp when they brought Him. Then Pilate washes his hands to represent cleanness.

The pharisees hated Him. Jesus exposed them for blind religious kooks. These here are blind to the truth and blind regarding anything to do with the truth of God.

Matt. 15:14 Leave them alone. They are blind leaders of the blind; and if the blind lead the blind, both will fall into a pit.

Blind leaders lead blind followers. Like our political leaders who lead people to government dependence. We could get divine discipline on the people, the nation or on the earth itself. Or it could be eternally much worse.

Jesus has exposed them as blind, religious fanatics; but the people do not have to follow them into the pit.

Lesson #0518

John 6: Life of Christ

10/24/2013 Thurs

It is God's grace versus legalism. Worshiping God in your own way just means that you make it up as you go along. You make up your own moral standards. There is no relationship with God without the concept of grace.

The pharisees and scribes have surrounded Jesus and they are questioning Him and they are the epitome of legalism. They are entrenched in their traditions. Because Jesus has violated their traditions, and opposes them, then He must die. He would be stepping on their toes as well. They are a power-mad bunch, as is often true of legalistic types.

They rejected the Lord and they rejected His Word. That is always the modus operandi of religion. Jesus takes this phoney indictment and turns it against them. He takes their legal indictment and turns it against them.

He refers to Isaiah who calls the people hypocrites who prefer the commandments of man over the commandments of God. He now turns to the surrounding crowd. They have been listening and watching carefully.

The disciples were stunned at the boldness of Jesus Christ in front of the pharisees. Did He not worry about being stoned to death by these legalists? Jesus speaks to them in Mark 7:, posing the question, what is real righteousness? It is not what you do externally.

The disciples are there; and they are listening to all of this. They note Jesus fearlessness, but they are afraid.

Matt. 15:12 Then coming, the disciples said to Him, You know that hearing the Word, the Pharisees were offended?

Matt. 15:13 But answering, He said, Every plant which My heavenly Father has not planted shall be rooted up.

The pharisees are the plants which will be uprooted; they have perverted the Word of God with their self-conceived traditions. These legalists will be exposed for what they are; they will be ripped out; uprooted. God will handle this.

His conclusion; let these men alone. They will lead the blind and they will all fall into the ditch.

Matt. 15:14 Leave them alone. They are blind leaders of the blind; and if the blind lead the blind, both will fall into a pit.

It is hard to imagine that when an unbeliever breathes his last, he enters into an eternity of separation from God. This is the end of those who believe that they can come to God apart from Jesus Christ.

The disciples hear all of this and they still don't get it.

Mark 7:17 And when He entered into a house from the crowd, His disciples questioned Him about the parable.

The disciples want further instruction. They do not understand fully what the Lord was saying. So Jesus tells them; then he will tell them what He just told them; and then He will tell them again what he told them previously. Somewhere along the line, they will get it.

It was difficult for the disciples to catch on to grace; and this is true of anyone; particularly religious types.

Mark 7:18 And He said to them, Are you also so undiscerning? Do you not perceive that all that enters from the outside into the man is not able to defile him?

"Do you not understand what I am saying?" It takes a lot of doctrine to work through religious backgrounds. You must get rid of your legalism. Once you catch on to grace, you are on the way to spiritual maturity.

What enters man from the outside does not defile him. As you continue to grow, you begin to see things in doctrines that you never saw before. You are building doctrine upon doctrine.

The disciples are persevering through the fog.

"Don't you see that whatever enters the mouth from the outside [referring back to the pharisees worried about no hand washing] cannot possibly defile him. It does not go into his heart, but it goes into his stomach and it is eliminated." By this, Jesus made all foods ceremonially clear.

Mark 7:19 This is because it does not enter into his heart, but into the belly, and goes out into the waste-bowl, purging all the foods.

The Point That Jesus Is Making

1. Whatever food is eaten after being touched by unwashed hands, the food is ceremonially defiled, because it was eaten with unclean hands, according to the pharisees.
2. This ceremonial defilement has no meaning to God. Righteousness is not based upon ritual.
3. Further, all the food that had been declared unclean by the pharisees was no longer ritually unclean. Jesus just eliminated the rituals. Since Jesus is here, the rituals are no longer important. Now we can eat anything.
4. Ceremonially, unclean food, which is an external uncleanness, cannot defile the inner man, because it is ritually unclean.
5. All that is, is ritual without reality; meaningless externals. Righteousness is about what goes on internally.
6. The fact is, the ceremonially unclean food gets digested and eliminated from the body, just like ceremonially clean food. This is what the body does with food.
7. Neither unclean nor clean food has any ill effects on the body or soul. This is not dealing with ceremonial uncleanness. It has nothing to do with salmonella.
8. Clean and unclean foods are fine for body nourishment; but they do not defile the unclean man.
9. The physical function of eating any food has nothing to do with the spiritual life or with experiential righteousness.
10. Ceremonially unclean food does not affect the body in any different way than ceremonially clean food.

To the legalists, righteousness before God depended upon these rituals. That is legalism. Ritual versus reality. What the pharisees teach is ritual uncleanness. They miss the real reason for defilement; the sin nature and the volition of man.

Now Jesus goes to the immaterial part of man. Defilement comes from that sin nature. It is sin which comes from the inside that defiles a man. You chose to sin; the sin nature is there; and by this, you are defiled.

Mark 7:20 And He said, That passing out of the man, it is the thing that defiles the man.

The pharisees say that it is all about this food that you are eating with dirty hands. Jesus says defilement comes from the inside. Then He adds some of the sins He has in mind.

Mark 7:21–22 For from within, out of the heart of men, pass out the evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, thefts, greedy desires, iniquities, deceit, lustful desires, a wicked eye, blasphemy, pride, recklessness.

The person who has these sins is not considered clean by God. All of these listed sins indicate the unrighteousness of man. The pharisees are guilty of these sins. They have demonstrated these sins since Jesus began to talk to them. But the pharisees call themselves clean because of their ritual righteousness. They are washing away their sins through their rituals.

Many who reject Jesus Christ believe that they are good enough; I am a good person; how can God reject me? How good do you have to be? Where's the line?

Mark 7:23 All these evil things pass out from within and defile the man.

Matt. 15:20 These things are the things defiling the man. But eating with unwashed hands does not defile the man.

Summary Points

1. Jesus is the only man who has lived without sin.
2. Jesus offers them that righteousness; all they have to do is eat the bread of life.
3. Had they accepted Jesus by faith, they would be justified before God.
4. They would have an imputed righteousness, even though they have a sin nature. That is the only way to be righteous before God.
5. The imputation of divine righteousness is what makes a person clean before God. It is not what they eat or how they eat it or how many times they wash their hands.
6. The pharisees believed themselves to be righteous without Christ. Today, it might be baptism. That is external; nothing to do with the washing of regeneration. Baptism is a testimony to the world; it is an illustration that you are now clean. You are now justified is what you are saying.
7. This ritual righteousness is the epitome of legalism through religion. It is false and it is deadly.

Lesson #0519

Matt. 15: Life of Christ

10/27/2013 1Sunday

We are in Matt. 15; and Jesus has just instructed the disciples and the pharisees about hand washing.

Jesus has decided that He needs to spend a great deal of time preparing His disciples; and He will reduce His public ministry. They will learn more from this than from watching Him do miracles and the like. They will have to represent Him as Apostles in the future.

There was also a problem of geography. The hostility of the religious leaders and had so grown, that He had to withdraw from the region of Capernaum and Galilee in general. The pharisees wanted to be rid of Him, and they will find a willing ally in Herod Antipas. He lived for power and influence like the other Herod's; and they would take out anyone who might threaten their power. But it was not yet time for Jesus to die. He understood that it was time for Him to move on; and He would wait for things to calm down. Jesus still had His eyes directed toward Judæa and Jerusalem.

So He needed to go somewhere where the religious leaders could not follow Him. They had closed the doors to the synagogue and in Judæa. There was His great grace message of the Bread of Life, and many of His followers began to desert Jesus.

So Jesus seeks a place of privacy, but not too far away. So He goes to the border region of Phœnicia. Jesus is in Capernaum; and this place was too hot for Him; so He needed to go elsewhere, to Tyre and Sidon.

Matt. 15:21 And going out from there, Jesus withdrew to the parts of Tyre and Sidon.

These are Phœnicians who are Greek sea peoples; 35 miles west of Capernaum. An easy walk for those used to walking. No place offered a safer haven from the Jews who were seeking to kill Him.

This begins a new section.

Matt. 15:21 And going out from there, Jesus withdrew to the parts of Tyre and Sidon.

Mark 7:24 And rising up from there, he went away into the borders of Tyre and Sidon. And entering into the house, He desired no one to know, but He could not be hidden.

This is a gentile woman; not a Jew. She falls at His feet and begins to plead.

Mark 7:25 For hearing about Him, a woman came up, one whose daughter had an unclean spirit. And she fell down at His feet.

She calls for Jesus to help her daughter.

Mark 7:26 And the woman was a Greek, a Syro-phoenician by race. And she asked Him, that He would cast out the demon from her daughter.

This woman was, without a doubt, a seeking of truth. She had confidence in the Lord Jesus Christ. She came to Him over this great crisis and she knew that no one else could do anything for her and her daughter. She knew that Jesus is the only One Who could break the power of this demon. So she clearly is a woman of faith; she clearly understands Who Jesus is.

She uses two Messianic names for Jesus. She calls Him Lord and Son of David. She recognizes that He is the Messiah; and she knows it. She knows that He is God and He is the Messiah.

Matt. 15:22 And, behold, a woman of Canaan coming forth from those borders cried out to Him, saying, Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is badly demon-possessed.

The Jews had rejected Jesus; and this gentile woman knew Who Jesus was. She had a depth of faith. She knew that He is God and He is Messiah. He is her Savior. She is persistent; she would not be denied a hearing. She knew that God would hear her. This is what she expected; it is what she believed.

Like any mother, she is very concerned about her daughter. Her confidence in our Lord's compassion and grace combined with her faith in Him. She comes and demonstrates faith in Him; and the disciples are a little fuzzy about this faith. Jesus has so many times said to the disciples, "Oh, you of little faith." There is a genuine powerful faith. She knew what He was capable of doing.

Normally, Jesus would have healed her daughter on the spot. He had done this many times before. This was the key; they believed, they trust in Him, and they were immediately healed. An illustration of salvation.

The compassionate Jesus turned away from her. The relief from suffering is not always immediate. We pray for relief; we pray for something that we want to have removed from us; and it does not happen. He has a higher purpose. Healing the daughter right now was not as important as what He needed to teach.

Matt. 15:23 But He did not answer her a word. And coming near, His disciples asked Him, saying, Send her away, for she cries out after us.

Then His disciples came and said, "Send this shouting woman away from us." Her voice was irritating and she was a gentile. As Jews, they had a built-in prejudice to gentiles. They were snobs and racists. They wanted nothing to do with gentiles.

Jesus has a higher purpose in His silence with her. God's plan is best; and His plan may not involve an immediate relief from whatever problem we have. Why is He not the loving God that we think He should be? His plan comes first. Whatever this plan is, it may come for suffering on our part. This is called suffering for blessing. The book Christian Suffering covers this topic. This allows us to come through the suffering and understand it. It is beneficial, even if we do not recognize it as such.

The disciples have reacted to this woman; possibly even taking their lead from the Lord, who ignored her. This was supposed to be their time with the Lord, and they were unhappy to have their time taken from them.

They needed to learn this doctrine; and this would begin the lesson of the status of gentiles as related to the Lord Jesus Christ. This has direct application to us. No matter our race or background; every person is a soul for whom Jesus died. The crucifixion and Bible doctrine are open to people even that we do not like.

Almost everyone is Berachah Church is a gentile. It is important to us because this defines our relationship with Jesus Christ. The Jewish Messiah has something to do with us gentiles.

Racism will never be completely stamped out. Jesus speaks directly to the problem of racism here; but Jesus is using this as a vehicle. The disciples are racists regarding gentiles; but that is simply a Jewish mindset. Jesus will teach them a valuable lesson here. It is not the main issue.

Matt. 15:22 And, behold, a woman of Canaan coming forth from those borders cried out to Him, saying, Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is badly demon-possessed.

Matt. 15:23 But He did not answer her a word. And coming near, His disciples asked Him, saying, Send her away, for she cries out after us.

This is a great problem. She watches her child in this terrible condition. She is, in part, pleading with the Lord; and she knows that Jesus has the ability to heal. Jesus is the master teacher. He does not just teach a subject as we do; but Jesus uses every possible means to teach. He uses every circumstance that He finds Himself in to teach a doctrinal lesson. They got practical application everywhere that they went. If anyone was to learn anything, it was the disciples. These are reasonably intelligent men. But a relatively high human IQ is not enough. What matters is, is a strong faith in learning the doctrines and knowing the plan of God for you life. She represents an outcast to these Jews. However, she is a person for whom God has a plan. The disciples will drop their collective jaws when they get this lesson. Jesus is the Savior of the world. They will have to recognize this; and they will need their doctrine here.

They have religious and racial prejudice. Gentiles are unclean; they are untouchable. The doctrine being illustrated is God's people versus those who are not God's people. The gentiles are unclean; but that is when they are without Jesus Christ.

However, gentiles are not inherently unclean; nor were they to be shunned simply because of their racial makeup. Jesus will use the uncleanness of the hand washing; and they move to a different location, and Jesus teaches essentially the same lesson, but using the gentiles as a teaching prop. Sooner or later, this will come through to these guys.

Racism has been reduced, but it will always be a part of our culture to some extent. However, for the believer, there should be no racial differences. Our Lord now turns to the gentiles to offer His salvation. The religious, legalistic Jews who rejected Him, this is a manifestation of the Lord going to the gentiles.

This is a repeat of the Samaritan woman at the well. The disciples wanted her gone as well. Now, Samaritans are half Jewish; so the disciples may have allowed for that, once they got the lesson. But this woman is 100% gentile.

The Jews are the chosen people; they are set apart from all the rest. Jesus is the Jewish Messiah; and He should have nothing to do with the gentiles. The Jews were a clean people and the gentiles are unclean.

The disciples figured that Jesus should have nothing to do with this woman. And Jesus therefore needs to break down their attitude of exclusion. That needs to be fixed. These men had their eyes only upon themselves. This is their Messiah. They are saved and regenerate. But so is this woman, and they cannot quite accept that.

They lacked compassion for those who needed help; and they had no desire to offer salvation to gentiles. That did not yet compute to their brains. How can a gentile be a part of the Kingdom of God? They are unclean.

The disciples are thinking right here, just like the pharisees. This is a moment of legalism; their Jewishness is bubbling to the surface. This legalism can pop out at any time.

In the meantime, this woman has not stopped being persistent. She has an unrelenting belief in the Messiah. She knows that Jesus is able to save her daughter.

Now Jesus is teaching His disciples; that is what He is doing first and foremost. He ignores her. He does not say, "Wait a second, hon, and I will get to you."

God will fulfill all of His promises to Israel. The nation Israel in the Millennium is the fulfillment of God's promises to Israel.

Matt. 15:23 But He did not answer her a word. And coming near, His disciples asked Him, saying, Send her away, for she cries out after us.

Jesus, the Jews and the Gentiles

1. Turning to the gentiles in Tyre and Sidon did not disqualify the Jews for the Kingdom of God. It could be taken that way when Jesus left Galilee. He makes it clear that he was sent to the lost house of Israel.
2. Therefore, He did not throw over the Jews to go to the gentiles. This is the teaching of some churches; covenant theology.
3. This is a statement of God's continued concern for the Jewish people as well as His concern for gentiles, as we will see.
4. The church does not replace Israel; the church has not become spiritual Israel. Replacement theology is false.
5. It was never Jesus' purpose to drop racial Israel from His plan. We can take that from v. 24.

Jesus has left Galilee and He is speaking directly to gentiles, starting with this woman. He is in the land of the gentiles now. Why is He there, and yet He ignores this woman?

Matt. 15:24 But answering, He said, I was not sent except to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

Jesus says, "I was sent to the lost sheep of Israel." Jesus is making it clear that He is not rejecting the Jews. He will deal with this woman, but He makes certain that these disciples understand that there is no full-on rejection of the Jews.

This woman does not qualify racially to be in the house of Israel.

Christ came first to the children of Israel. "Don't worry; I came to the Jews first." But He will have to deal with the status of this gentile woman.

Jews, Gentiles and the Kingdom of God

1. The disciples are about to find out about the inclusion of all believers in the Kingdom of God. Jew and gentiles in the Kingdom of God.
2. They will also find out about the doctrine of unlimited atonement.
3. But they also are going to realize that Jesus came to the Jews first; and then to the gentiles. Paul reflects these very words, "To the Jews first and then to the gentiles."
4. Therefore, the gentiles are included. This is the first time this has been brought to the attention of the Jews.

Matt. 15:25 But coming, she worshiped Him, saying, "Lord, help me!"

Jesus has ignored her; the disciples have said, "Get rid of her" and she throws herself before Him and calls for His help. It ought to seem as if He is not going to do anything for this woman. Jesus appears to be rejecting her; and this should crush her hope; but she will not depart from them. She will not become angry or bitter; she is rejected; but she stays with Him. She believed in Christ, but she was not getting any satisfaction from Him. She should have left in anger; and it was killing her to watch her daughter. She is dealing with rejection, which is one of the hardest things for a person to take. She ignored what she has seen and heard, and she expresses great faith in Jesus. She is one admirable, strong woman. She is strong not using her own toughness and arrogance; she did not screech some feminist claptrap; she illustrates her true strength by having faith in Jesus. Jesus is her Savior and He is her problem-solver; and she is not dissuaded. When I am weak, then I am strong. In our weakest moments, we need to depend upon Jesus Christ. Can you do this in adversity? She has her eyes on Jesus; so she is able to apply her great faith.

Matt. 15: Life of Christ

10/30/2013 Wed

Jesus has no access to the synagogue any more in Capernaum. The pharisees were bent on finding a reason to kill Him. He goes to Tyre and Sidon; these are cities and districts as well. He is wandering somewhere between Tyre and Sidon and during this time, He is approached by a Greek woman.

He is going this direction to get some privacy to spend time alone with His disciples; as He would be outside of the realm of the pharisees.

Matt. 15:22 And, behold, a woman of Canaan coming forth from those borders cried out to Him, saying, Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is badly demon-possessed.

Syro-Phoenician woman means that this woman was a Greek, from a polytheistic background. Yet she was different, knowing exactly Who Jesus Christ was.

She pleads with Jesus because her daughter is possessed by a demon. She calls Jesus Lord and Son of David; which means she recognizes His divine authority and she recognizes that He is the Messiah.

The disciples had not seen this before. They saw a Samaritan woman before, but she was half-Jewish.

Jesus appears to treat her callously.

Matt. 15:23 But He did not answer her a word. And coming near, His disciples asked Him, saying, Send her away, for she cries out after us.

The disciples did not want to hear this woman calling after her. He refuses to acknowledge her presence; and the disciples are incensed at her tenacity and lung power. These Jews had a built-in prejudice against gentiles. Jesus had no prejudice against anyone. He certainly heard this woman, yet He remained silent. He was silent because He had a purpose; and this was going to be a teaching moment.

They have to understand that no one, even gentiles, are excluded from the grace of God. The kingdom of God brought by the Messiah was open to all. It does not matter what your race is; all believers are brothers in Christ. But the Jews at the time of Christ did not see it this way. This gentile women is intruding upon their consciousness. Jesus will speak to this woman; but He speaks to the disciples first.

Matt. 15:24 But answering, He said, I was not sent except to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

Now that His disciples are listening, and the woman is listening, Jesus says, "I was only sent to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." This statement, which is obvious to them, and they have no problem with it. This confirms that it is okay to ignore this woman.

This woman is not from the house of Israel.

What Is He Doing Here?

1. Jesus is setting up the disciples to learn a valuable lesson about their spiritual advance and their future ministry.
2. At this point, Jesus is speaking to the disciples; not to the woman. He was speaking to the misguided disciples.
3. He is saying that He has not and never would turn away from the house of Israel, despite their rejection of Him. They are fleeing the Galilee area, because many had turned away from Him and some were essentially running Him out of town.
4. V. 24 is designed to reassure the disciples of national Israel's continued place in the plan of God, despite their wide rejection of Him. Israel, as a nation, still has a future. God's promises are never abrogated. This foreshadows what is to come; and these disciples will be Apostles in a few short years. These men will write the NT and establish the church. They must understand the plan of God and the gentiles. They cannot have this negative mindset toward the gentiles.

This woman does not let up. She calls for Jesus to help her and she bows down before Him; and she says this in a loud voice.

Notice that she knows Who He is; but the pharisees going into the garden could not figure out Who Jesus is, without being identified by Judas.

Matt. 15:25 But coming, she worshiped Him, saying, Lord, help me!

No matter what Jesus is saying, this does not stop her. She does not shut up. Her pleading is accompanied with complete humility. She bows down before Him. She is not some pathetic groveling woman. She assumes an attitude of worship. Even though she is ignored, she worships Him. She is one of the great women of the Bible. Her great faith will teach a lesson to the disciples, whose faith is far less than hers.

She could have gone to pieces here, from this seeming rejection. She could have said some very nasty things at this point. She could have gotten arrogant and combative. Remember that woman who cried out, "Blessed are the breasts that gave you suck"? She is just the opposite, even though they both call out. She reacted to Jesus whereas, this woman is responding to Him.

She was strong in her faith in the Lord. She did not accuse Him of abandoning her here. She believes in Jesus; she believes that He is the Messiah. She knows this.

Despite the way that she is being treated, this woman expresses greater and greater faith in Jesus Christ. Jesus has not forsaken this woman; and He has not forsaken us.

When God Allows Suffering

1. We cannot see the future; we are incapable of that. We cannot see the big picture of God's plan for any of us. We can see little increments of God's plan; but we cannot figure out where we are going in God's plan. We know that God has a plan and that we need to stay in it.
2. We also do not know what God is doing elsewhere in the lives of others; and how He might be using us in our suffering or difficulties. We think only about ourselves. Bob went through Alzheimer's for the past few years of his life; and this had an impact on a number of people. No one knew that; but God used that for our benefit. These disciples need to get over their prejudice. \
3. We must always be confident that, whatever the Lord's purpose is in suffering, it is for everyone's benefit. There is a long book on suffering for blessing.

Jesus has a purpose here; and He is teaching the disciples something that they need to know; and is using this woman in teaching them. He will not forget this woman.

This woman may have felt a little discouragement at this time. However, she kept on pleading to Him. She had unyielding faith.

Jesus knows what is in her soul; He knows that He can interact with her and teach His disciples. This woman is in the midst of severe adversity; and it is so difficult for this woman to see her daughter in such agony. There were great and painful circumstances for this daughter. She wants desperately to have her daughter relieved of her torment.

It is God's timing that matters. It is always to our benefit to wait on the Lord's timing. This woman was in a weak position, but she is demonstrating tremendous strength to the disciples; and this strength is being demonstrated to the disciples.

Mark 7:27 And Jesus said to her, "First, allow the children to be satisfied, for it is not good to take the children's bread and to throw it to the dogs."

Let the children be satisfied first; it is not good to take their food and throw it to the dogs; the Jews are the children and the gentiles are the dogs. So, it is dinner; and your children are at the table. They are fed first; you do not take their food and throw it out to the howling dogs outside.

What's Going on Here?

1. As children, the chosen people, the Jews, have received bread, manna from God.
2. Just a few days before Jesus Christ had offered Himself to the House of Israel as the Bread of Life.
3. In doing so, Jesus wants Israel to be filled with the bread. This is the reception of eternal life.
4. The Jews rejected Him as the Bread of Life, and they threw Him out of the synagogue.
5. After this rejection; should Jesus take the bread for the children and give it to the dogs? Should he take the bread for the Jews and throw it out to the dogs?

Israel is first; Israel is to get the bread before all else.

Matt. 15:26 But answering, He said, "It is not good to take the bread of the children to throw it to the little dogs."

This woman has begged and pleaded; and Jesus is calling her a dog; or comparing her to a dog. She is one of those dogs. This was a standard slur concerning her race. This was quite a test for this woman. She is getting standard Jewish prejudice from the Jesus that she has placed her faith in.

How Should We Understand This?

1. By this statement, Jesus appears to be confirming that this woman is a gentile dog.

2. He asks, should He stop giving bread to the house of Israel and give it to the gentile dogs? Should we be offended? Today, everyone appears to be getting offended by everyone. Millions of lawsuits or riots in the street because people who believe themselves to be offended. Newspapers would have attacked Jesus for these words. Religious leaders would be called upon to condemn this statement; other religions might put a price on His head.
3. We spend a great deal of time being offended. If we were in the position of this woman, we would be reacting right here. Today, if we are accused of racism, it is the worst thing ever to be accused of.

She has a marvelous answer to Jesus. She still shows Him respect. She acknowledges the Jewish viewpoint. She is not offended. She has a reply that is the epitome of grace orientation. This is almost like banter between them. The woman knows that Jesus is the Christ and that He had come to Israel first. He understood what He said and she did not resent His words. She knew that she is nothing before Him. She understands His perspective of Israel. She did come to Israel first.

Mark 7:28 But she answered and said to Him, “Yes, Lord; for even the dogs under the table eat from the crumbs of the children.”

Lesson #0522

Matt. 15: Life of Christ

10/31/2013 Thurs

Bobby was thinking today, while studying another miracle. It is quite clear that Jesus performed many hundreds of miracles during His 1st advent. The recording of the miracles in the 4 gospels is only a the tip of the iceberg. The ones which we have studied have reasons why they are found in the Bible. Although some seem to be repetitive; they each have a particular meaning that we need to know. We are studying a miracle that we have never known before.

It should be clear that the Jews had a very low opinion of gentiles. Gentiles were the last thing on their minds. They were unclean; they were not interested in spiritual things, they were warlike.

Jesus went northwest from where He was; and He went to Tyre and Sidon, which were cities of Greeks; originally Greek Sea peoples. Jesus was avoiding the hostile pharisees who wanted to kill Him; and He needs to prepare His disciples. It is possible that His short ministry was designed to be long enough to prepare His disciples.

Matt. 15:21 And going out from there, Jesus withdrew to the parts of Tyre and Sidon.

They come into contact with a particular gentile woman; and she is the last thing that the disciples wanted to see or deal with. This woman would change the outlook of the disciples concerning gentiles; and this would change their outlook toward gentiles forever. She is a critical piece in their training. She is a critical object lesson.

This woman has a daughter who is possessed; and this torments both of them. She finds Jesus and begins to plead with Him to cure her daughter. She knows that Jesus and Jesus alone has the power to cure her daughter.

Matt. 15:22 And, behold, a woman of Canaan coming forth from those borders cried out to Him, saying, Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is badly demon-possessed.

The disciples did not care for this. They did not want this woman cutting into their time with the Lord. Jesus knows what is in the soul of this woman and what is in the souls of His disciples.

Jesus was a master teacher; and He used every possible instance to teach the disciples. He would teach the disciples in a way that was unforgettable.

Jesus is the fulfillment of the covenants made with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Also these covenants were made with Israel and with David.

It would have seemed reasonable that those who were religious would be the most likely ones to listen to Jesus; but they wanted to kill Him.

Replacement theology; the church replaces Israel because Israel rejected the promises made to her by Jesus. Even though Israel rejected Jesus in the 1st advent; Jesus would not reject them. He would not remove His promise of the kingdom to the nation. It was God's promise. God does not shift those to whom He made the promise.

The Bible is filled with promises and we reject them regularly. That does not mean that there is anything wrong with the promises or that the promises would be withdrawn. Jewish believers will be regathered in the Land of Promise and the Tribulation occurs and Jesus rescues them from complete annihilation.

Jesus would not reveal that the gentiles would be included in the kingdom promised to the Jews. He is King to the gentiles as well. The disciples needed to learn this themselves. When you teach, you make statements and you illustrate them as well. The disciples would learn by observing this woman and her faith. Her great faith would put the faith of the disciples to shame.

While Jesus is walking with His disciples; this woman keeps yelling to them and she bows down before them all. She does not want help for herself but for her daughter. This is a request from her for someone else.

Matt. 15:23 But He did not answer her a word. And coming near, His disciples asked Him, saying, Send her away, for she cries out after us.

Matt. 15:24 But answering, He said, I was not sent except to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

Matt. 15:25 But coming, she worshiped Him, saying, Lord, help me!

This woman is entreating Him and He keeps ignoring her. But finally He speaks and says, "Let the children be fed first." But she understands what He is saying.

Matt. 15:26 But answering, He said, "It is not good to take the bread of the children to throw it to the little dogs."

He has given her the status of Israel and is now giving her a status as a gentile. Israel is represented by the children. They would be fed bread first. Jesus has to offer the bread of life, which is Himself. They were to believe in Him for eternal life.

The dogs are gentiles; and they are represented by this gentile woman. Jesus seems to be quite cruel. The woman is begging and pleading and Jesus is calling her a dog. But she understands what He is saying. All of this need to be put in context. Should He now turn away from the Jews and give the bread to the dogs. The children are not eating this bread, so does He throw it out for the dogs?

Matt. 15:27 But she said, "Yes, Lord; for even the little dogs eat of the crumbs falling from the table of their lords."

She agrees that Israel is first. They get the offer of the bread first. God gives them the content of His promise to them—the kingdom has arrived with the King.

Jesus appears to be speaking to her as any religious Jews would have spoken to her. But He is using her to make this point. And she says, "If there are crumbs left over, they can be thrown to the dogs."

The disciples will see this.

These circumstances and this woman etc. is not accidental. It is all a part of God's plan. The strong faith of the gentile woman, who is the dog, puts Israel to shame for their lack of faith. She recognizes who she is and she knows Who Jesus is. She is the sole of humility before Him. She will allow Him to call her anything; she is nothing before God and she understands this. She in fact bantered with the Lord to some degree.

Matt. 15:28 Then answering, Jesus said to her, O woman, great is your faith; let it be to you as you desire. And her daughter was healed from that hour.

She agrees with Jesus. Israel is first. Jesus came to Israel first and she understands that. But even the dogs under the table feed off the children's crumbs. This is brilliant in front of these disciples.

Mark 7:28 But she answered and said to Him, "Yes, Lord; for even the dogs under the table eat from the crumbs of the children."

Dogs were the garbage cans of the dining room. The dogs would come in and get under the table. They give us this baneful woeful stare. They would get fed with whatever was not eaten. They would be under the dining room table and a scrap or two might be thrown to them.

How Is this Woman Relating Herself to the Garbage Cans?

1. This woman is not trying to take anything from Israel. She just wants a crumb.
2. She accepts unequivocally that she is a gentile dog under the table of Israel.
3. She now asks in humility that the Messiah of Israel that He might bring a little of that bread to her. Great humility. She is not like everyone in the United States with their hand out, wanting their share. She will take any crumb from the Bread of Life. She knows Who Jesus is; Israel does not.
4. She also makes it clear that in no way would she reject Him as Israel had. She wants just a few crumbs from the table. What a contrast to the pharisees.
5. She would gladly accept anything extra that Jesus has to give her. She also recognizes that the Messiah of Israel owes her nothing. But she would take what He gives; even a crumb. This was a demonstration of grace orientation in her soul. Her faith is completely evident to the disciples. It was laid out to her humble response.

The pharisees had utterly rejected Jesus as their Messiah.

How Was this Woman Able to Do This?

1. She was intent on Christ and His Person. She was not focused on herself; even though He appeared to put her down. Jesus on other occasions was complimentary to some others with faith; but he does not give these accolades to her. The pharisees were intimidated and jealous of Jesus.
2. She was selflessly begging for help on behalf of her daughter. Jesus is the only one Who could help her; she knew this. Her falling down and pleading and worshiping; all of this was find for her. She did not feel degraded. She knew Who Jesus was.
3. She had faith that Jesus could deliver her daughter from the demon. All the adversity; all the suffering; all of this is in the Lord's hand.
4. She knew He could deliver her from the curse of a lost gentile people. She believed in Him; she knew He is God. She was also uncertain. How would Jesus treat her? Would she be given even a crumb?

Because of this great faith, her request was granted. She did not earn or deserve it; it was because of her demonstrated faith. Jesus now compliments her on this faith.

Matt. 15:28 Then answering, Jesus said to her, O woman, great is your faith; let it be to you as you desire. And her daughter was healed from that hour.

Faith is the entrance; not lineage.

Mark 7:29 And He said to her, "Because of this word, go. The demon has gone out from your daughter.

Because of her faith, her daughter was healed.

Mark 7:30 And going away to her house, she found the demon had gone out, and her daughter was laid on the couch.

Bobby thinks that this woman is one of the greatest heroines of faith in the Bible. She is the opposite of a strident feminist today.

The disciples realize that Jesus could read the human soul like no other man. He knew their thinking. They did not understand all of the aspects of the spiritual life. Jesus revealed that He fully understood. And the disciples did not try to exclude anyone from the kingdom again.

The disciples knew that Jesus was the fulfillment of the covenant of Gen. 12. But they were to learn that not all of this promise would come to pass. The gentiles would first come into view. Our Lord is now going to the gentiles. They are included in His future kingdom. The church is made up of all genders and all races.

So ends another lesson by a miracle.

We do not know how long Jesus remained in Tyre and Sidon after this; a day or two; or a month or two.

Lesson #0523

Matt. 15: Life of Christ

11/3/2013 1Sunday

All of the writers of the New Testament were Jewish, except for Luke. Jesus has left the city of Capernaum where He has ministered for over a year. The pharisees essentially run Him out of town. The pharisees and Sadducees and looking for some way to legally execute Jesus.

So Jesus travels to Tyre, a gentile city. He arrived in Tyre and He met a Greek woman there, and there is an interesting conversation which Jesus has with her. The disciples thought of the gentiles as dogs; and they never considered their part in the salvation message of Jesus.

Mark 7:31 And again going out from the borders of Tyre and Sidon, He came to the Sea of Galilee, in the midst of the borders of Decapolis.

Jesus comes to a mountain range, Mount Herman; and He comes south to Decapolis. This is not just a city; there are 10 cities. It was a region of cities. 10 allied, free Greek cities. Almost all of these cities are east of the River Jordan. Herod Phillip ruled here. Bethsaida is not included here. Hippos, Gedara, Damascus are 3 of these cities. These cities have one thing in common. These are all heathen gentile cities and they are very similar to Tyre and Sidon at this time. These cities were predominantly Greek and had been for centuries; the Jews never recovered these cities.

Why did Jesus take a circuitous route here? He left Capernaum because the pharisees were out to kill Him; and Herod Antipas, who had just killed John the Baptizer, wanted to have a conversation with Jesus. This was a 40 or 50 mile trip. There may have been time spent in the Lebanon area. Beautiful area; cool climate and beautiful scenery. It would have been ideal for further instruction.

Mark 7:31 And again going out from the borders of Tyre and Sidon, He came to the Sea of Galilee, in the midst of the borders of Decapolis.

As soon as Jesus arrived in the Decapolis, people began coming to Him to be healed.

Mark 7:32 And they brought a deaf one to Him, hardly speaking. And they begged Him, that He put His hand on him.

The people of this region knew that Jesus could heal their physical problems and that Jesus had special powers. They knew it and believed it. Some may have even witnessed His work in Gedara or in Galilee. They knew it was their advantage to come to Him.

A hophoxlegomena is found here in v. 32. This word is used in the LXX. Finished around 300 B.C. (Did he say AD?). Used Isa. 35:6 Then the lame shall leap like a deer, and the tongue of the dumb shall sing; for in the wilderness waters shall break out, and streams in the desert. When Messiah comes, the dumb will have their mouths opened in order to praise God. So we have a partial fulfillment of Isaiah's prophecy in Mark 7:32-34. This is to fulfill Isaiah's prophecy. That word is Adjective: mogilalos (μογιλάλος) [pronounced moh-il-AL-oss], which means, 1) speaking with difficulty. Thayer Definition only. Strong's #3424.

This guy is already deaf and Jesus puts His fingers into the guy's ears. That is the problem area; that is where the problem is.

Mark 7:33 And taking him away from the crowd privately, He put His fingers into his ears; and spitting, He touched his tongue;

Jesus says to this man, "Be opened" and he could hear and he could speak normally. This was a technique never used before. The people just wanted Jesus to lay His hand on him to cure this guy. Jesus takes this man aside privately in order to communicate with the deaf mute. This would be known by others.

Mark 7:34 and looking up into Heaven, He groaned and said to him, Ephphatha! (which is, Be opened!)

All this was done for a reason. Jesus put a little spit on this man's tongue. He spits on the places to be healed. Jesus was making His intent known. He was making obvious the source of this cure. This was a demonstration that the healing power without question proceeded from His Own person.

The Sistine chapel painting of God about to touch Adam; and the idea is, God touches Adam to bring him to life. This is similar.

Then Jesus does something completely out of the ordinary.

Mark 7:35 And instantly his ears were opened, and the bond of his tongue was loosened, and he spoke correctly.

Lesson #0524

Matt. 15: Life of Christ

11/3/2013 2Sunday

This Jew, Who claimed to be the Messiah, was none other than God Himself. Jesus was pointing to the source of power which would heal this man. This is only a part of the progression.

Mark 7:33–35 And taking him away from the crowd privately, He put His fingers into his ears; and spitting, He touched his tongue; and looking up into Heaven, He groaned and said to him, Ephphatha! (which is, Be opened!) And instantly his ears were opened, and the bond of his tongue was loosened, and he spoke correctly.

This is an Aramaic word that Jesus uses here. His hearing is unbarred. This man could probably, to some limited extent, read lips. This may have been why Jesus spoke in Aramaic. Jesus may have known that this man could lip-read Aramaic. He speaks a word to this deaf mute; and the mute must have understood, to some degree, what was going on.

Jesus made clear that this miracle had a purpose and that this man was to understand it. Jesus was completely obedient to God the Father. When He looks to heaven, there is another indicator. This is looking to God the Father.

The big sigh. The fact that Jesus takes this man aside indicates that Jesus had empathy for him. This was a sigh of sadness of the state of mankind in sin. This was a man who could not speak or hear.

Perhaps, this is representative of the gentiles. They could not hear the gospel? The Jews were not bringing the gospel to them?

We are born in sin; we are born spiritually dead. Man was created perfect and without flaw, but the nature of this earth has changed. We all age and we all have infirmities. That is the ravage of sin. This was never God's intention for Adam. This man demonstrates visibly the problem with man; our marred nature. It was on the outside. The flaw in his body represented the flaw in every man's soul and body. Jesus came to this earth to liberate us from our sin. Jesus would bring salvation to depraved mankind.

There may have been a little sadness as Jesus was thinking of the cost of man's liberation from sin. It cost Jesus everything; and it cost us nothing. Jesus may have been thinking about his death for all mankind. This is the scope of man's fall.

The gentiles had little knowledge of Messiah; so Jesus is communicating to this man what is being done. This mute now had perfect speech and hearing.

This Miracle

1. All of the miracles of Jesus had purpose.
2. This foreshadowed what would happen on the cross.
3. Man would open his ears and hear the Word of God and believe the Word of Christ. Maybe that is the sigh; or maybe a sign of relief.

Was this Just Another Miracle Here, Just like Those Elsewhere?

1. Jesus is no longer demonstrating His Messiahship. They knew nothing about the Messiah or the Jewish Scriptures. They understood gods and God.
2. Jesus was not just going to gentiles as a race or as a group. He nullified race as having anything to do with eternal life. If we are all one in Christ, there is no room for race or racism in our own souls.
3. This is a series of miracles. It shows that Jesus is not just going to gentiles as a group but to individual people. This was not a public demonstration; Jesus took this man aside and dealt with him privately. Jesus gave the disciples a lot of personal attention; but here Jesus gives this attention to an individual gentile.
4. Gentiles are included in this individual contact. He is their king too.

Isa. 35:6 Then the lame shall leap like a deer, and the tongue of the dumb shall sing; for in the wilderness waters shall break out, and streams in the desert.

Never before has the church appeared in Scripture. The church had nothing to do with the Old Testament. But Jesus went to the Jew first and then to the gentiles. This is a dispensational progression.

Tyre and Sidon and Decapolis. This is a whole new era. This foreshadows the new dispensation of the time that the church will be God's vehicle.

We are not equal in the way that we think; between men and women. We are different. When we try to be the same or to reverse roles, that is degeneracy.

We now have an individual relationship to God through Christ.

Then Jesus tells this man not to tell anyone else. The first voice that this man hears is that of Jesus.

Jesus Did Not Want Them to Speak of this Miracle

1. The people talk about the miracle; not about Him. Jesus did not want to be considered a medical guy.
2. The affect on the Jews. This publicity would be a bad thing for the Jews to hear.

3. Gentiles proclaimed faith in Christ would provide yet another reason for Jewish rejection of Jesus; but Jesus is not yet finished with Israel.
4. Jesus does not want these people to announce Him. This would give the Jews just one more reason to reject Him as the gentile Messiah. The Jews still have a future with their Messiah.

Mark 7:36 And He ordered them that they should tell no one. But as much as He ordered them, much more abundantly they proclaimed.

The gentiles could not help themselves; they broadcast this far and wide. The crowds began to gather around Jesus in the gentile districts now. Once this happens, Jesus is on the move again.

So now Jesus moves away from the crowds.

Matt. 15:29 And moving from there, Jesus came beside the Sea of Galilee. And going up into the mountain, He sat there.

But these large crowds come to Jesus; and all of their sick are brought to Jesus.

Matt. 15:30 And great crowds came to Him, having with them lame ones, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others. And they flung them down at the feet of Jesus. And He healed them;

The crowds are amazed to see all of this stuff. They glorified the God of Israel. They are beginning to understand Who Jesus is. The crowds following Jesus are gentiles. There are no sadducees or pharisees in this crowd, as he was in gentile-land.

Jesus shows the same compassion to the gentiles as to the Jews. This is another indicator as to the gentile conclusion into the kingdom. As many Jews had not. They glorified the God of Israel now. They left their gods behind. There is no more Greek gods to these people. They are glorifying the One God of Israel.

Matt. 15:31 so that the crowds marveled, seeing dumb ones speaking, maimed ones sound, lame ones walking, and blind ones seeing. And they glorified the God of Israel.

The crowds are amazed; and the disciples are amazed as well. Jesus needs for the disciples to see that His salvation is for all. His salvation can go to all.

Jesus and the Gentiles

1. Glorious future for the gentiles.
2. The gentiles would be brought into the kingdom as they accepted Him as Savior. He is the God of Israel and they glorify Him. We are included and elevated.
3. Just being Jewish was not enough to guarantee the kingdom. Many Jews already believed themselves to be in the kingdom.

4. Now we understand that believing gentiles would be a part of the millennial rule that will be established on earth. There is more to the millennial kingdom than simply Jews.

There are 4000 people with Jesus and they have run out of food; there is no HEB no Kroger no Rice Epicurean.

Matt. 15:32 But having called His disciples near, Jesus said, I am filled with pity on the crowd, because they already have remained with Me three days and have nothing they may eat. And I do not desire to send them away fasting, that they may not faint in the way.

Matt. 15: Life of Christ

11/6/2013 Wed

We will shift back and forth between Matt. 15 and Mark 7 (or so)

Mark 7:33–35 And taking him away from the crowd privately, He put His fingers into his ears; and spitting, He touched his tongue; and looking up into Heaven, He groaned and said to him, Ephphatha! (which is, Be opened!) And instantly his ears were opened, and the bond of his tongue was loosened, and he spoke correctly.

This was prophesied in Isaiah. The near fulfillment was in the time of Jesus; and the far fulfillment will be future from now.

Isa. 35:6 Then the lame shall leap like a deer, and the tongue of the dumb shall sing; for in the wilderness waters shall break out, and streams in the desert.

The healing of the mute indicates that the kingdom has come in the Person of the King, Jesus Christ.

Once again, as in Tyre, this was done for a gentile; and Jesus was going not just to gentiles as a group, as He did for the woman and her daughter; but here there is only one person involved. This indicates that He is coming to individual gentiles. Gentiles are included in this individual contact. He is their king as well.

Matt. 15:29 And moving from there, Jesus came beside the Sea of Galilee. And going up into the mountain, He sat there.

Matt. 15:30 And great crowds came to Him, having with them lame ones, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others. And they flung them down at the feet of Jesus. And He healed them;

Matt. 15:31 so that the crowds marveled, seeing dumb ones speaking, maimed ones sound, lame ones walking, and blind ones seeing. And they glorified the God of Israel.

This man is God, and these gentiles glorify Him as God. Jesus is trying to go to the gentile areas, and His life is being threatened; so this gives Him some respite and time to teach His disciples. But the persistent crowds find Him. When Jesus heals these people, They, the gentiles, glorify the God of Israel. The disciples had decided to follow the Lord completely and totally. They believed in Him wholeheartedly.

Jesus is the Savior of the world; He is not God to the Jews only. This should be known from the Old Testament. God did choose Abraham; but He was the God-Creator of all. The gentiles are included in the Kingdom of God; as they are believers in Jesus.

At the return of our Lord, the mute will shout for joy. This is the sign that the Messiah has come. Gentiles will also be a part of this.

This teaching and healing crusade continued for 3 days and the crowds grew to be 4000. So, Jesus calls His disciples to Him. They are in a remote area. If they brought anything to eat originally, they have eaten since then.

Jesus warns that they might walk home and die on the way home. This huge crowd remained there for 3 days and nights; they hung in there all of this time. This is positive volition. This is gentiles showing positive volition.

Matt. 15:32 But having called His disciples near, Jesus said, I am filled with pity on the crowd, because they already have remained with Me three days and have nothing they may eat. And I do not desire to send them away fasting, that they may not faint in the way.

They were a long way from home. This is an area where there is nothing for them to eat. They have not eaten for the better part of 3 days; and everyone had run out of food.

Jesus feeding the gentiles is parallel to Him feeding the Jews earlier. This indicates that His provision is for all mankind.

Mark 8:1–2 In those days, the crowd being very great and having nothing to eat, Jesus called His disciples and said to them, I have compassion on the crowd because they have now been with Me three days and have nothing to eat.

This is very significant. This is the feeding of the 5000 except for gentiles. In doing this, He taught the disciples so much for their ministry.

Mark 8:3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint in the way. For many of them come from afar.

Bobby can't believe how stupid the disciples are.

Mark 8:4 And His disciples answered Him, From where can a man satisfy these with loaves here in the wilderness?

The disciples ask, "Where are we going to get bread from? We are in the midst of the desert-wilderness." They don't say, "Why don't You make a great meal out of the little food that we have?" This is another teaching moment; this is a test. Maybe the hunger had gotten to them. The disciples remembered the feeding of the 5000? Jesus used this as an illustration which had a very specific meaning to the Jews. He fed them bread and spoke of the Bread of Life. This was a parallel to manna from heaven. So this miracle was only for Jews. The disciples connected this logistical miracle to the feeding of the 5000 Jews only. But, these are not Jews to be fed.

The disciples are half-understanding. They cannot think in a global perspective. They see the Bread of Life as being connected to Israel. So Jesus has to teach them something. Who are these guys? These are the men who wrote the New Testament and they needed to understand the Church Age. They needed to know that this was about Jews and gentiles. A miracle is forthcoming.

Matt. 15:33 And His disciples said to Him, From where in a deserted place will come to us so many loaves as to satisfy so great a crowd?

Each gospel writer has his own perspective. Bobby combines them to give the entire narrative, covering all perspectives.

Mark 8:5 And He asked them, How many loaves do you have? And they said, Seven.

This is almost the exact same verbiage as is found in the feeding of the 5000.

Matt. 15:34 And Jesus said to them, How many loaves do you have? And they said, Seven, and a few small fish.

Salvation and logistical grace is the same for gentiles as for Jews.

What Meaneth This?

1. God provides bread for the gentiles just as he provided manna in the wilderness of the Jews.
2. This is a foretelling of the inclusion of gentiles in the plan of God .
3. From hereon in, Jesus would bring the Bread of Life to the gentiles. The disciples had never heard this before. They knew of the coming Messiah. After a few days, it is clear that Jesus is not coming only to the Jews.

Mark 8:6 And He commanded the people to recline on the ground. And He took the seven loaves and gave thanks, and He broke and gave to His disciples to set before them. And they set them before the people.

Mark 8:7 And they had a few fish. And He blessed and commanded them to also serve these.

Mark 8:8 So they ate and were filled. And they took up over and above seven lunch baskets of fragments.

Mark 8:9 And they who had eaten were about four thousand. And He sent them away.

Matt. 15:35 And He ordered the crowds to recline on the ground.

Matt. 15:36 And taking the seven loaves and the fish, giving thanks, He broke and gave to His disciples, and the disciples to the crowd.

Matt. 15:37 And all ate and were satisfied. And they took up the left over pieces, seven lunch baskets full.

Matt. 15:38 And the ones eating were four thousand men, apart from women and children.

Jesus and the disciples leave; and they all go back to Galilee.

Dalmanutha is a port and Magdala is the name of the town. It is a few miles north of Tiberius and south of Capernaum. Port city in the heart of hostile enemy territory.

Matt. 15:39 And sending away the crowds He went into the boat and came to the borders of Magdala.

Mark 8:10 And immediately He entered into a boat with His disciples and came into the region of Dalmanutha.

Treasury of Scriptural Knowledge: Dalmanutha: Dalmanutha is supposed to have been a town east of the sea of Gennesaret, in the district of Magdala, and not far from the city of that name.

The pharisees demand a miracle, hoping to catch Jesus violating the Law or a tradition. Jesus has violated their traditions on many occasions. And these men are stymied every time.

Mark 8:11 And the Pharisees came out and began to dispute with Him, seeking a sign from Heaven from Him, tempting Him.

Jesus knows that these men are phonies. He knows that they are not looking to learn. These men had tremendous arrogance. Jesus had done many things in their presence. There is a little difference here. There is a difference in the makeup of those assailing Him here.

Now the sadducees had shown up. These were rival groups; and they combined to discredit Jesus, their own party. Normally, these would not even associate with one another. They are quite different.

The pharisees are formidable religious leaders with huge religious influence over the general populace. They followed the tradition of the elders concerning the Mosaic Law. They took the Mosaic Law and expanded it and interpreted it and added to it. Their additions made it into even a better piece of legislation.

Thousands and hundreds of new laws that no one could keep track of.

The sadducees were aristocrats and they were very powerful. Not as many of them. They were boorish, rude and nasty to their peers and subordinates alike. They all tried to outdo the other aristocrats. They were very argumentative. They loved to argue. They exuded extreme arrogance. There were fewer in number, and were even unpopular; and did not have much of a following. These were leaders in Israel. They looked down on each other. The sadducees dealt with the upper echelon of society. The pharisees with the people.

These groups hated each other bonded in order to get rid of Jesus. They wanted to deal with Jesus on a clear, rational argument.

Mark 8:12 And He sighed deeply in His spirit and said, Why does this generation seek a sign? Truly I say to you, There shall no sign be given to this generation.

Lesson #0526

Matt. 15: Life of Christ

11/7/2013 Thurs

Jesus has completed His tour of Tyre, Sidon and the Decapolis area. He will leave the large gentile crowds here and He returns to the Jews who are bent on doing Him harm.

Matt. 15:39 And sending away the crowds He went into the boat and came to the borders of Magdala.

Mark 8:10 And immediately He entered into a boat with His disciples and came into the region of Dalmanutha.

Magdala is a city near the port or Dalmanutha (or something like that).

Jesus spent a lot of time in a boat.

Mark 8:11 And the Pharisees came out and began to dispute with Him, seeking a sign from Heaven from Him, tempting Him.

The pharisees found where Jesus was. They had seen innumerable signs and wonders at His hand. They would continually test him, trying to find an area where they could catch Him doing or saying something wrong.

The pharisees have been after Jesus for a very long time now. He was being kept out of the synagogues now.

The pharisees were generally at odds with the sadducees; both were after power and control. Sadducees were excellent at debate.

The pharisees and the sadducees form this uneasy alliance because they are against Jesus. The sadducees considered themselves to be so smart and such rationalists, so that no one could stand against them.

They Will Indict Themselves

1. They already rejected the miracles Jesus. He will turn their own words against them and slaughter them with it.
2. God's Word has more sustained power than all the miracles that Jesus could perform. A miracle was not about sustained power; it was His credential as Messiah. Today, the Word of God is the most powerful thing on this earth. Nothing in this world can take you out if the power of God sustains you.
3. The wall of doctrine will shut these religious leaders down. He uses the Word of God on them.

Matt. 16:1 The Pharisees and the Sadducees came to Him, tempting Him. And they asked Him that He would show them a sign from Heaven.

Jesus does not give them a sign; but He gives them something.

Matt. 16:2 He answered and said to them, When it is evening, you say, Fair weather; for the sky is red.

You observe the signs of the days; but you do not recognize

What Do These Verses Mean?

1. These men knew how to interpret weather signs; and they interpreted the weath.
2. The could read signs.
3. These signs in the sky were the authority on the weather. Based on these skies
- 4.
5. They could not observe the hundreds of signs done by Jesus and interpret their meaning.
6. Jesus takes them apart bre means The kingdom had come; because the signs were here.
7. These signs are found in the Bible. K These signs go back to Gen. 3:15
8. If these men could discern the signs from the Old Testament prophecies, then they would have known Who Jesus is. This would have recognized Jesus. To neglect or reject is to open the way to bad judgment.

They have no idea as to their relationship with God. Without this knowledge, you have nothing.

Weather and the Signs of Jesus

1. If the sky signs legitimately forecast the weather (and they do), then...
2. Jesus' many previous an obvious sigh. Predicting weather is, at best, a shaky science. There are many more signs for Jesus.
3. Jesus' signs were infinitely more accurate than any weather forecasts. His forecasts were always true. Jesus has always given them signs that are always accurate.

4. Jesus indicts these men on their inability Jesus fulfilled dozens of signs in the Bible from beginning to end. But they would look into the sky and give a weather they should have recognized the signs of Jesus. They managed to rationalize all of this and they explained it all away. To them, Jesus was not the Messiah. He was a threat to their entire world view. People reject truth all of the time because it conflicts

This is seen in politics. Socialism and Marxism are tried over and over again; and they always fail. The religious leaders wea...

They had many idea which conflicted with Scripture. People reject all kinds of truth when it contradicts their world view.

Each incident was a part of God's plan for that era. That entire plan and the whol epicture was prophesied. They were unable to read thes signs

All the OT witness was there. When religion and Christianity departs from Scripture; then it is guaranteed that it will be apostate. Every cult that has every sprung from Christianity comes from this. When anyone departs from the Scripture; that is what happens.

If you are wondering if someone is in a cult; then ask them a few pointed questios agi

Jesus knows that the Sadducees are rationalists/empiracists; so this is a good example for them.

More Signs

1. The red sky predictions were analogous to Old Testament prophecies. That is why Jesus used these signs.
2. They were parallel because both were use to make predictions of the future.
3. The color signs in the sky predicted future weather. Old Testament prophecies predicted the future Messiah.
4. The difference is OT prophecies were the Word of God and always correct in their forecast.
5. The miracles of Jesus perfectly match the predictions of Old Testament prophecies.
6. The myriad of miracles by Jesus predicted by the Old Testament confirmed without doubt His Messiahship. That was the whole point of them. These were the sign posts of Jesus; and absolutely accurate.

Jesus the Messiah

1. The pharisees and sadducees should have studied Old Testament Scripture and lined it up against Jesus the Messiah.
2. Then they would have recognized Him as their Messiah.

3. Jesus had been forecasted innumerable times. Jesus is found in essentially every single book. How did people in the Old Testament get saved? They were saved by the prophecies and predictions of the Messiah. The crucifixion is found perfectly in Isa. 53.
4. These scholars of the Scripture should have made an easy interpretation and investigation.
5. These hypocrites, the unholy alliance, who could predict weather, could not see their own Messiah.

This is very similar to some scientists today. They are unable to see God in the world; they only see nature as glorious.

Evolutionary science present a reason to exclude God from nature.

Lesson #0527

Matt. 15: Life of Christ

11/10/2013 1Sunday

Communion Sunday:

Jesus was a perfect sinless man without spot or blemish on His character. We are told this over and over again. His life was under a microscope and no blame could be found.

How much more would the blood of Christ who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without blemish to God? It is almost too fantastic to imagine someone living all of their life without sin; without stepping out of line; without making a mistake. Such a High Priest, holy...who does not need daily to offer up sacrifices first for his own sins. Jesus Christ offered Himself just once, a perfect sinless sacrifice for all mankind. He did not need to offer up a sacrifice for His Own sins. This was necessary for Him to be the Savior for all mankind. Only His perfect righteousness was acceptable to God to take away the sin of the world. 1Peter1:18–19 knowing that you were not redeemed with corruptible things, silver or gold, from your vain manner of life handed down from your fathers, but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot;

Deut. 17:1 “You will not sacrifice to the Lord your God an ox or a sheep with a blemish or a defect.” The sacrificial lamb for the Levitical offerings could not be offered up if blemished or with defect. But it must die as a symbol of atonement for the sins offered for it.

He shall lay his hand and slay it on the front of the tent of meeting. What an horrific scene of the blood of atonement. By placing his hand on the head of the animal, he transferred the sins to the lamb. The lamb had to die as the purchase price for the atonement for the offerer’s sin.

Israel should have been under no illusion as to what the Lamb of God should do.

We are trapped in a slave market of sin; and God cannot have fellowship with anyone who possesses anything less than perfect righteousness.

The good person cannot meet God's requirements; man can never measure up to the character of God. No one is as good as God. There is none who is good; no, not even one.

Only a man free of sin can purchase the freedom of someone in the slave market of sin. This requires a spotless free man to purchase the unrighteous man. The only Man outside of the slave market of sin is Jesus Christ. Therefore, only He can redeem man. The price of redemption. Man is purchased from the slavery of sin. This way only can man meet man's perfect standard. What happened to make this substitutionary death open for man to take.

Jesus bore our sins in His body on the cross. God's righteousness is offended by our sins; and His justice demands that our sins be punished. So punishment of God's wrath is required. Only when God's wrath is propitiated that man can escape the wrath of God.

God was satisfied with Jesus' perfect sacrifice. He Who knew no sin was made sin for us. He stood between God and us, a mediator to negotiate the disagreement between two parties which are hostile toward one another.

There is one God and one Mediator between God and man. In order to mediate salvation between the two parties, Jesus must be equal to both parties in the mediation.

If born into sin, Jesus would have been the same as all other mankind and He could not satisfy the justice and righteousness of God the Father. Also, He had to demonstrate, even though He was born without sin, that He could maintain that perfection. He could not fall as Adam did. He remained qualified to die for our sins up to the cross. He even faced Satan's temptation. He was impeccable and He was accepted by God as our mediator; and He is our reconciler. This is what mediators do. Jesus creates through His sacrifice, a peaceful environment. All man must do to accept reconciliation is to simply agree to it; which is how all reconciliations end. How can we be reconciled if we continue to possess a sin nature.

Rom. 4:3 Abraham believed and it was credited to him as righteousness.

On some future day, Jesus would revealed His church and present her as spotless.

Jude 24 Now to Him being able to keep you without stumbling, and to set you before His glory without blemish, with unspeakable joy;

Birthday today to the Marine Corps. And tomorrow is Veterans Day. A memorial for the next service to such men.

There are those we think of who have been in WWII; and Bobby remembers his father and grandfather. Bobby will read a citation, which represents everyone who serves in uniform. Medal of Honor recipient who has stood in the pulpit of Berachah. Bobby has never heard of any other feat of arms like this. Roy P. Benavides. 2May 1968 in Vietnam. A 12 man team inserted in a heavy jungle area to learn about large units that might be there and what they might be doing. The team met heavy resistance and requested extraction. 3 helicopters were unable to get them. Benavides came back in a helicopter to assist in the extraction; he directed the aircraft to a clearing and he ran to the crippled team; and this fire never let up. He was wounded in the right leg, face and head. He was there to facilitate the extraction. He carried and dragged half of the team members to be picked up and gave protection fire. He was severely wounded again in the abdomen and back. Although in extremely critical condition, he went back to the crashed helicopter. He got men there; gave them water and ammunition, building up a will to fight in these men. He began calling in tactical air strikes to suppress the enemy fire. He was wounded again while giving first aid to a team member. He was even involved in some hand to hand in the second extraction. He made one last trip to the perimeter to collect or destroy all classified material and to bring in the wounded. Then he allowed himself to be pulled into the aircraft. He saved the lives of at least 8 men.

When he spoke of these things, he added a postscript when he talked about this action. He was placed in a body bag and they began to zip it up and he was unconscious. He could see the medic zipping up the bag and he spit on the medic; that was all the strength he had. He passed away a few years ago.

This is a man willing to sacrifice everything for his team members. This parallels what Jesus did for us. He was willing to give his life for his friends. Wrote a biography. He dedicated it to many people with whom he served and dedicated it to R. B. Thieme, Jr. as well for his teaching.

Jesus sighs deeply in His Spirit.

Mark 8:12 And He sighed deeply in His spirit and said, Why does this generation seek a sign? Truly I say to you, There shall no sign be given to this generation.

This sighing is a gesture of great impatience. The pharisees and sadducees want to destroy Him and they seek another miracle to use to test Him. They had already rejected many signs and miracles.

Jesus went back to the Old Testament and taught doctrine. This is some theology from the Scripture. This is the second time Jonah is offered to religious leaders who have rejected Him.

Mat 12:38–40 Then some of the scribes and Pharisees answered, saying, Teacher, we desire to see a sign from You. But answering, He said to them, An evil and adulterous generation seeks a sign, and a sign shall not be given to it, except the sign of Jonah the prophet. And even as "Jonah was in the belly of the huge fish three days and three nights," so shall the Son of Man be in the heart of the earth three days and three nights. Jonah 1:17

Jonah in complete rebellion against God and he went the exact opposite direction. He resided in a fish for 3 days; not a whale. He spend 3 days and 3 nights in the belly of this sea monster; and he was regurgitated right where God wanted him to be; in Nineveh. The people believed in the Revealed God; much to his chagrin.

Bobby was thrown up on the shore there and that is where he will stay.

Jesus says that this is a future sign and they would all know when it occurred; the resurrection. This one sign reveals the importance that Jesus places on the resurrection. Jesus is risen. We also have eternal life. As a sign, this will be the final proof of His Messiahship. These signs would be conclusive if they cared to look.

Mat 12:41 Men, Ninevites, will stand up in the Judgment with this generation and will condemn it. For they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and, behold, a Greater-than-Jonah is here.

Mat 12:42 The queen of the south will be raised in the Judgment with this generation and will condemn it. For she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and, behold, a Greater-than-Solomon is here.

Matt. 16:4 A wicked and adulterous generation seeks after a sign. And there shall no sign be given to it, except the sign of the prophet Jonah. And He left them and went away.

All of this is taking place in Magadhan; and now he hops in a boat and goes back to the other side. These events took place on the western shore of Galilee. He has been well-received and sought after by thousands of gentiles during the past few weeks.

He goes back to the eastern shore.

Mark 8:13 And He left them. And entering into the boat again, He departed to the other side.

Matt. 16:5 And when His disciples had come to the other side, they forgot to take loaves.

These men did not prepare and supply what was necessary to survive.

Mark 8:14 And the disciples had forgotten to take loaves, and they did not have more than one loaf in the boat with them.

The pharisees were probably so mad with the sadducees too; and they may have been forming a lynch mob. So the disciples look to get out of there suddenly; and the neglected everything. They had just witnessed another dangerous confrontation; and these confrontations are getting much worse. No doubt the disciples were all shaken up. They were rattled and unthinking. They just wanted to get in the boat and get out of there. They paid no attention to detail. They just wanted to escape. They are entirely self-absorbed. They do not even realized what it is that they have just witnessed.

They are completely self-absorbed. Some have children like that, lost in another world. Self-absorption means that arrogance is active in your soul. When Bobby thinks of Benavides. It would be easy for him to feel sorry for himself, living in pain from that day forward. But he was not.

The disciples were immature and they happened to be self-absorbed. Teens are the worst of all in the realm.

To break this attitude, there must be something inserted here instead of their self-absorption. You do not want to be around such people; they are miserable. They must have something introduced from an outside source.

The disciples got in the boat because they were concerned about their own safety. They did not think about what they would eat on the other side. They were the logistical support for Jesus. "You have forgotten this; what else did your forget?" So Jesus teaches them more doctrine; doctrine they should know but probably don't.

This is all about the dull-minded immature disciples.

Mark 8:15 And He charged them, saying, Take heed! Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the leaven of Herod.

Matt. 16:6 And Jesus said to them, Take heed, and beware the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

Jesus says this, and the disciples are so self-absorbed that they do not understand what Jesus is saying to them. They think that it is because they forgot to bring bread.

This is like a mother with children; kids are clueless when it comes to their own safety. They think they are bulletproof and so all kinds of things without considering the consequences. A parent must continue to hammer home such dangers to their children.

Bobby has seen it on many occasions; and the parents are tired of training them. You must continue, even if the children are not listening or responding. Most of the time, they are aware that their parents care and love them. They may not get the message.

Jesus continues to teach them doctrine, despite their obliviousness. This warning includes the greatest influence of evil which is near to them.

What Is Jesus Teaching the Disciples?

1. Leaven connotes evil doctrine; human viewpoint; not bread.

2. The leaven of the pharisees represents legalism and religious traditionalism. They should not fear it; but they should be aware of it. They will have to counter it all their lives.
3. The leaven of the sadducees is religious rationalism.
4. There is the leaven of Herod; and that is humanism. Herod lives for power; that is what they live for. Herod the Great killed innumerable people to keep his power. His children learned from him. Pure humanism; they cared only about power and pleasure. We face these things too.
5. These are all the enemies of Jesus Christ and of divine viewpoint. We will face these same things; the certain influences of the cosmic system in our lives.

Matt. 16:7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no loaves.

Christianity is beginning to steadily move away from its roots into human viewpoint. To humanistic philosophies that our schools are filled with; that our children are brainwashed with. Whatever can be substituted for Biblical doctrine; these are evil influences. Anything. Without the mind of Christ in our soul; it is so easy to fall into these traps. We need doctrine to counter human viewpoint in our lives. Human viewpoint is deadly to our lives. Satan wants to lead believers away from Bible doctrine and into human viewpoint thinking; that is his purpose. Doctrine in our soul is the counter.

Jesus is teaching divine viewpoint to these guys who have forgotten bread; and that is all that they are able to focus upon. They do not get His warming here.

Mark 8:16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no loaves.

Lesson #0529

Matt. 15: Life of Christ

11/13/2013 Wed

Matt. 16 Mark 8

Signs were asked for by the religious types in order to trip Jesus up; but Jonah is given to them as a sign. The religious types rejected all of it, so their only sign is from Jonah.

Jesus and the disciples got out of there.

Matt. 16:5 And when His disciples had come to the other side, they forgot to take loaves.

Mark 8:14 And the disciples had forgotten to take loaves, and they did not have more than one loaf in the boat with them.

There is no prior planning on the part of the disciples. They did not provide food. Don't jump into things without considering conditions and all other things. Whether or not to marry, it is a great axiom; or the healthcare roll out.

Jesus gives the disciples a warning. Jesus warns them of the leaven of the Pharisees and Herod.

Mark 8:15 And He charged them, saying, Take heed! Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the leaven of Herod.

Matt. 16:6 And Jesus said to them, Take heed, and beware the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

The disciples missed the point that Jesus was making. They thought they were being chewed out for forgetting food. They got upset and offended. We spend a lot of time in our lives because we are offended. We have more lawsuits over being offended than for anything else.

Matt. 16:7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no loaves.

Mark 8:16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no loaves.

They think that they are being accused of just some lack of oversight. At times, these guys were so thickheaded. When it comes to what the Lord says, we should not get offended; we need to pay attention to what is being said. Instead of being offended, we should consider what is being said. Jesus was not scolding the disciples here. Physical bread was not a part of the Bread of Life sermon; and that is the case here.

Twice the disciples had witnessed Jesus feeding 5000 and 4000 people. But they are not getting the point. They should have been tuned in to one doctrine that they should have never forgotten. Logistical grace. This is all about logistics.

False doctrine is a much greater danger than forgetting physical food. That is the warning. Beware of the leaven of the pharisees; that has nothing to do with not bringing bread. Herod is the leaven of power grabbing. The real danger is in the souls of the disciples. The outside influences can cause confusion and distraction, meaning those three leavens that Jesus spoke of. Their confusing thinking.

Mark 8:17 And knowing it, Jesus said to them, Why do you reason that it is because you have no loaves? Do you not yet perceive nor understand? Have you still hardened your heart?

Matt. 16:11 How is it that you do not understand that I did not speak to you about loaves, but to beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees?

Matt. 16:12 Then they understood that He did not say to beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

These disciples needed this explained to them. It is easy to be dumb; it is much harder to be smart. The pharisees and the sadducees were purveyors of false doctrine; and the disciples needed to have a pure doctrinal viewpoint in order to function.

This warning is for us as well; God speaks to us from 2000 years ago. There are a bunch of Bible teachers out there and they are at the touch of your fingers. But many of them cannot differentiate the true from the false.

“I heard a guy on tv who sounded just like your father.” Some of you cannot tell the difference between covenant and dispensational theology. A pastor from Berachah Church went to covenant theology. That is confusion. That places people in confusion. Why do you want to take a chance for confusion.

Listening to other pastors is a test of authority-orientation. The more you listen to many different teachers, the more likely it is that you will be exposed to falsehood. Especially the subtle differences. Some of you miss the subtle differences. Believers who attend Bible studies outside the church and devour emotional books and studied and devour commentaries.

Bobby knew a guy at Trinity from Berachah, and he understood dispensational theology until going to Trinity; and covenant theology confused him. These things retard spiritual growth.

Those who listen to a pastor and question him; and if you cannot be under his authority, then go elsewhere. Who needs a pastor; I've got me. That is arrogance. This departs from the system God devised. This is especially true when women attend women's Bible classes. There is an emotional element that women gravitate to. Women expositors become replacement teachers for doctrinal pastors. They assume authority that is not theirs to exercise. Many of them rebel against male leadership. Bobby recommends for lady groups, gather and listen to media from an accurate pastor. Or the other argument, “Who is better to know women's issues besides another woman?” Only males have the gift of pastor teacher. Women can be teachers of children; and they are great teachers of children. Paul, “I do not allow women to teach or to exercise authority over a man.” All believers must be taught by a man with the gift of pastor-teacher. You do not grow spiritually by mixing theologies or listening to falsehood to figure out what is correct and what is not. That is not growth. That is arrogance. You are simply being a critic and that is not what you are called to do.

So often, sheep don't know that they are mixing theologies. That can only result in confusion. Bobby's job is to teach; and if it is not him, then we are to grow in grace under someone else. Bob loved this congregation. Bobby by giving truth and protecting them is showing us love. You teach your children to stay away from certain things and certain people.

Mark 8:18 Do you have eyes and do not see? Do you have ears and do not hear? And do you not remember?

The doctrine being taught has come from God the Father. He is the Originator of the teaching. It was always God's plan for Jesus to come into this world to provide salvation; but also to teach God's Word and the Living Word.

Jesus' education was directly from God. Jesus had to reveal what God's plan was. That is the only way that man can know God or His plan. If God does not reveal Himself, what can we know about Him? How would man know without such revelation.

Heb. 1:1–2a God, who at many times and in many ways spoke in time past to the fathers by the prophets, has in these last days spoken to us by His Son

John 7:17 If anyone desires to do His will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it is of God, or I speak from Myself.

This is a practical example. If a person is willing to do God's will, then this person will know of the teaching, whether it is really true. If Jesus was speaking from Himself alone, then there would be nothing...

"You will know that this teaching is from God the Father if you actually desire to do God's will." If you do God's will, it will become clear. This is more than lip service to the truth found in the Bible.

Some fall back on their own human resources. They just do their own plan. That is not God's will. If they understood the power of doctrine, they would not reject it.

Christ is convinced that His teaching is from God the Father. This is the only criterion for faith and the practice of the spiritual life. It is the application of that knowledge which reveals the validity of the source of God. It is the experience of living the spiritual life which reassures us of doctrine's divine source. We know that this is true through our own experiences in life. We know what Bible doctrine has done for us in our lives. We have deviated from time to time. But we know that His Word is true and sent by God the Father. You can look back on your own life and you can recognize where metabolized doctrine has taken you. Spiritual growth gives us confidence in His Word and in Bible doctrine. This is also confidence for our eternal future.

John 7:18 He who speaks of himself seeks his own glory, but he who seeks the glory of Him who sent Him is true, and no unrighteousness is in Him.

Seeking your own glory is arrogance and this describes the teaching of the pharisees.

There is no arrogance or unrighteousness in the teaching of Jesus; not like that taught by the pharisees.

Jesus asks them to consider whether or not He has done the will of God in His life. Has He sinned? Has He departed from truth? He has never sinned; and there is no wrongdoing.

Jesus took no glory in Himself.

Jesus prayed for the cup of the crucifixion to be taken from Him. He did not want to do it. Not as I will but as You will. Jesus never stepped outside of the plan of God. He is not less of a person for following the plan of God. He is in the plan of God and He teaches what the Father gives Him to teach. This is the test of His contention.

The Jews can only speak of themselves; this is why they call Jesus uneducated. They were the scholars of Jerusalem; how dare this man speak. The teaching of the pharisees was full of error.

The pharisees spent their time teaching traditions.

John 7:19 Did not Moses give you the Law? And yet not one of you keeps the Law! Why do you seek to kill Me?

Lesson #0536

Matt. 15: Life of Christ

11/24/2013 2Sunday

Bobby's has had hot tea. No additives.

Bobby is struck by the various scenes that Jesus is described in. Jesus has come to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles, a feast that celebrates Himself. He shows up in the Temple and He begins to teach; and He presents the meaning of the Feast of Tabernacles. He teaches the grace of God and the provision of God in the desert. And religious types and saying, "Don't listen to Him, He is an uneducated boob." So Jesus stops and says that His teaching comes directly from God.

John 7:19 "Did not Moses give you the Law? And yet not one of you keeps the Law! Why do you seek to kill Me?"

Now Jesus addresses all of this. "Didn't Moses give you the Law? But you don't keep the Law? Why do you seek to kill Me?" The Jews revered the Law of Moses as from God. The Mosaic Law was their guide and legal system, and the religious types claimed to follow the Law; but, at the same time, they were seeking to kill Him. That goes against the Law.

Jesus goes straight to the heart of the matter and He goes right to "You will not murder."

They were breaking the very law which they claimed to obey. Many of them were anti-Rome; they were looking for a conquering Messiah. He was not bringing them independence from Rome. These men were political animals. These men were more interested in all the political activity rather than the Law. This is a simple and a devastating principle, and anyone who knew anything knew that this was the truth.

John 7:20 The crowd answered and said, "You have a demon! Who seeks to kill you?"

The religious leaders were driving the crowd. Here is their hypocrisy. They ask a question that they know the answer to. “Who seeks to kill You?” They did. In this, they were violating the Mosaic Law that they claimed to revere.

They are caught in the glare of factual evidence. They blatantly lie; this is another violation. They claimed to seek God the Father, but they served Satan. That is what the religious types were warning. We see this constantly, of people blaming their opponents of what they do.

Some people do not always recognize the lies, even though these are flagrant lies. Such lies can be recognized only if you know the true. You need truth in your soul not to be fooled by lies. It is what occurs in our country right now.

This was a red herring. They were attempting to hide their lives and guilt by drawing attention away from this to another lesser issue or to a false issue. Just like politics today. Political lies and criminality today are exactly like this. When a politician gets caught in illegality or in a flat out lie, he then blames his opponent for exactly what he has done. He tells the big public lie to cover his own activity and to make himself look good.

The religious leaders are embarrassed. “Who wants to kill you?” But they do want to kill Him. Today, let’s not talk about this recent scandal; let’s talk about something else.

The red herring is, these religious leaders charge Jesus with insanity. He has presented the truth; so they accuse Him of lying for the devil. “It’s You who is wrong; you are demon-possessed; you are of the devil.” They turn it all around. “You are crazed; You do not know what You are saying.” All they need is enough people to listen to them, and that turns the indictment of Jesus around. This is a brilliant use of perjury. We hear this done all the time. If accepted, the heat is taken off the speaker. Their lie serves two important purposes here.

This explains to the crowd why Jesus would indict these great men of God. Their political party is making everything bad; that lousy politician is making everything wrong. They can attribute all to Satan, and this undoes what Jesus is saying and puts Him into question.

Exactly the opposite is true. Jesus is speaking the truth. It is the pharisees who are speaking lies and inspired by Satan. Then they add, “Who seeks to kill You?” They imply that Jesus is delusional; as if this is His imagination. They content that Jesus is psychotic; paranoid; probably a result of the demon controlling Him.

They need credible deniability. They have been interested in killing Jesus for a long time. Jesus had cast out thousands of demons from people. Demons were afraid of Him. They begged to be left alone. People fall for brazen lies all the time. Listen to a press conference from our government or to a congressional hearing. Listen to these and you will here simple questions followed by answers which are lengthy and have nothing to do with the original question.

man speak with such dogmatism and knowledge?” He spoke in a way that they could not. He showed them up in their own domain. So they must show Him up; and they complain about His lack of education.

Jesus teaches that He is not uneducated.

John 7:15 And the Jews marveled, saying, How does this man know letters, not being taught?

John 7:16 Jesus answered them and said, My doctrine is not Mine, but His who sent Me.

Jesus says, “This is not My teaching; it has come from God.” Jesus makes this argument; but it does require some proof. “I came from the Lord; My message is from the Lord;” and the people say, “Prove it.”

Heb. 1:1–2a God, who at many times and in many ways spoke in time past to the fathers by the prophets, has in these last days spoken to us by His Son

John 7:17 If anyone desires to do His will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it is of God, or I speak from Myself.

John 7:18 He who speaks of himself seeks his own glory, but he who seeks the glory of Him who sent Him is true, and no unrighteousness is in Him.

Jesus glorifies God with His message; He does not glorify Himself. “Do I glorify God, or am I a pompous windbag like these pharisees?”

There has never been any falsehood found in Him or in His teaching. He has made that claim, “I am the Living Word of God.” It is perfect logic, if we accept the premise that Jesus is God and man in One Person. This is always the beginning question. This is the basis for everything related to our relationship to God.

These pharisees were very puffed up about their own righteousness. Their teaching was also full of error. Jesus always has a way of popping the bubble of these religious leaders. He taught true grace next to their great legalism. The greatest legalism comes out from His Own chosen people. This was the time that God decided to send His Son for just this reason.

The Jews had a clear choice between the religion that they heard all of their lives; or the grace of God as taught by Jesus.

Jesus is teaching from His house.

John 7:19 “Did not Moses give you the Law? And yet not one of you keeps the Law! Why do you seek to kill Me?”

Then Jesus asks them a simple question. Moses received the Law from the dwelling Presence of the Lord. That came from Jesus Himself. "You know the Law and yet you seek to kill Me?" This was not some petty crime or some little violation; this is homicide which they intend to commit. This is probably the most quoted statute of the Mosaic Law. "You will not kill." Yet they are determined to kill Him, even though Jesus has committed no crime; He has not even sinned. Clearly, these men are not faithful to the Law they claim to uphold.

They are trying to draw attention away from their own sin, and they want to focus in something else. This is what the politician does; pivot to some other topic.

"How can Jesus dare indict these great religious leaders? Demons must be causing Jesus to make such absurd claims."

If Jesus was possessed by a demon, then He must be guided by demons.

John 7:20 The crowd answered and said, "You have a demon! Who seeks to kill you?"

John 7:21 Jesus answered and said to them, I have done one work, and you all marvel.

How does Jesus counter such blatant lies? Jesus brings another crushing indictment that must be agreed to by those listening. This will be something which is irrefutable.

John 7:22 Because of this Moses gave you circumcision (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers,) and you circumcise a man on the sabbath day.

There was a previous dispute, where Jesus healed someone, and they claimed that this miracle was done on the Sabbath, which is not a good time to do it. Jesus refers to Abraham and points out that they circumcise children on the Sabbath. This comes from Abraham; and this precedes Moses.

John 7:23 If a man receives circumcision on the sabbath day so that the Law of Moses should not be broken, are you angry at Me because I have made a man entirely sound on the sabbath day?

Jesus compares what He does and what they do.

John 7:24 Do not judge according to sight, but judge righteous judgment.

"Think this over and accurately evaluate what I have just taught."

There were myriads of regulations concerning the Sabbath. There were the most minor infractions which could get you stoned. The Jews were unable to understand why Jesus healed on the Sabbath. Jesus did a work that was prohibited. But these Sabbath regulations put them in a difficult place. They could not deny the miracle that Jesus developed. Jesus is going to trap the Jews with some logic.

They had concluded that keeping the Sabbath overruled Jesus' healing. Jesus did this miracle on purpose, to teach a lesson. Jesus is Lord of the Sabbath; this is His day. Had they accepted His Lordship, they would have accepted these miracles as righteous.

This was the God Who created the Universe. Heb. 7:2 tells us that Jesus is the Creator. The first 6 days, God provided perfect environment for man. Nothing else could be done.

Healing the paralytic is a picture of God's grace. The miracle should have been perfectly acceptable. It was extending grace. Jesus was there to extend grace to mankind. What Jesus did violated their traditions and regulations. But how could they have written a regulation saying, "No miracles to be performed on the Sabbath." How can that make any sense.

We should evaluate ourselves. Do you evaluate from arrogance or from truth? Can you see yourself as others see you? If you cannot consider someone else's opinion above your own, then there is no one above you; and you are arrogant.

Jesus is right before them, and He is the Lord of the Sabbath. They are too taken with themselves to recognize Jesus. They are doomed and they condemn themselves by their own thinking and rejection. They are in hell today. Arrogance is one of the most insidious aspects of the human condition. We all have arrogance in us. The only control here to stifle arrogance is the humility brought on by an advance in the spiritual life.

Many listen to Bible doctrine and then they identify someone else and think, "That is exactly what that person is like." But that is not the purpose of doctrine. If we have not put ourselves in the place here; then we are not getting the point. We do not examine the life of someone else but our own life.

Lesson #0538

John 7:21 Life of Christ

12/1/2013 2Sunday

Jesus turns the tables on these men.

John 7:21 Jesus answered and said to them, I have done one work, and you all marvel.

He traps them with their own acts; they circumcised on the Sabbath as far back as Abraham.

John 7:22 Because of this Moses gave you circumcision (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers,) and you circumcise a man on the sabbath day.

So, religious leaders had been circumcising on the Sabbath. Circumcision predated for the nation Israel. It did not come from the Law of Moses. It did come from God's mandate to Abraham.

As a sign of Abraham's belief and that he would begin a new nation, the sign was circumcision. Abraham is the father of the Jewish nation; and there was no nation at this time. There was only Abraham, Sarah and Isaac.

Circumcision and the Sabbath

1. Moses merely established circumcision as part of the Law.
2. Circumcision
3. There was no Sabbath keeping before the Law; but there was circumcision.
4. This was the sign of the covenant between God and man. All you had to do was look down and you recognize the covenant.
5. Circumcision was a sign and God's grace towards Abraham as a believer.
6. When a child was circumcized on the 8th day, this was critical. This meant that he was a part of the covenant. There is no such mandate for gentiles.
7. The ritual of circumcision took precedence over the Sabbath as the symbol of God's chosen people. It was critical.
8. It was a symbol of the covenant that was solely the grace of God toward Abraham. This was a picture of grace like no other.
9. This important symbol of grace which God mandated that Moses put into the Law was legitimately permitted on the Sabbath. That is the way that the religious leaders took it so far.
10. From the beginning of the day of God's rest, after creating, the 7th day was designed as a memorial to God's grace. There was a grace aspect in the day of rest.
11. Circumcision and Sabbath-keeping both reflected God's grace. This was a time to contemplate God's grace. This was not a time to be under a multitude of regulations.

Jesus uses these true facts to trap the arrogance of the religious crowd. So how could the Jews object if Jesus heals a man on the Sabbath? If Jesus heals on the Sabbath, that is God's grace, based upon God's plan. So if that is grace; how can it be disallowed?

They had a ritual without reality. He was the reality.

If care for one part of the body is permitted on the Sabbath and did not violate the Law; then a healing, also a physical act, how could this be outlawed? It should also be allowed on the Sabbath. There is a parallel there. Which is greater? The ritual or the reality? So why should these religious leaders be angry with the Lord Jesus Christ? This is a perfect example of ritual without reality versus the reality of the Lord Jesus Christ. This same occurs all over the world; rituals which have no meaning. They just do it. It makes them feel good or holy. It is done as rote. This makes them think that they are in favor with God.

The reality of Jesus Christ is the only thing which actually matters. This is an air-tight rebuttal that it is legitimate to heal a man on the Sabbath. This is an appropriate symbol of grace and salvation. This is a real grace action; and that makes it legitimate. They Jews condemned this; they condemned the reality. Just as religious today promotes the ritual but condemns the reality.

It is all about grace. Did the paralytic deserve this gracious act? He did not. This is an extension of God's grace to mankind. So, there is nothing wrong with doing this on the Sabbath.

Proof-texting; people lift some passage out of context and offer it as proof for some idea that they have. That is exactly what is going on here. There is inconsistency of legalism and of their teaching. The pharisees were just being superficial.

John 7:23 If a man receives circumcision on the sabbath day so that the Law of Moses should not be broken, are you angry at Me because I have made a man entirely sound on the sabbath day?

Therefore, Jesus tells them, "You are judging only by appearances. You need to judge with righteousness." They have to get beyond their superficial traditions and regulations. Religion versus the Scripture; that is the battle. There is grace on every page of the Bible. Religion is all about legalism. That is the problem between the church and the church for centuries. This is the perfect example of it.

John 7:24 Do not judge according to sight, but judge righteous judgment.

These men need to change their minds about Jesus. They need to reevaluated what they think about Jesus. This is not some work; it means faith alone in Christ alone.

Grace always trumps legalism. This teaching about grace and Christ's claims causes an immediate dispute.

John 7:25 Then some of those from Jerusalem said, Is this not the one they seek to kill?

The people are questioning this.

John 7:26 But lo, he speaks publicly, and they say nothing to him. Perhaps the rulers truly know that this is the Christ indeed?

If the rulers oppose Him and they are intent on killing Him, what don't they attack Him right here and haul Him away. How is it He is allowed to speak? Why don't they stone Him right here on the spot.

What Jesus taught was in open conflict with the religious leaders. What are they waiting for?

Did these religious leaders conclude that this man is the Messiah? This is a crowd who has rejected Jesus; so they are goading the religious leaders. There are many in the crowd ready for a good stoning. Let's execute this guy; this is what they are calling for. This is a blood-thirsty crowd.

It is like the old west; they came out for hangings. The coliseum in Rome; they came to see blood.

John 7:27 However, we know this one, from where he is; but when Christ comes, no one knows from where He is.

The crowd does not accept Jesus as Messiah. They believe that no one can tell where the Messiah comes from. No prophet could come out of Nazareth. That is their arrogance. The Jews of Judah and Jerusalem cannot accept this background.

They refused to believe that Jesus was born of a virgin or that He was born in Bethlehem. So they will cite the teaching of the Jews. "No one knows where the Messiah comes from." Many Jews did not believe in the Messiah. Many believe that it is a metaphor. Others think that the Bible is just interesting but not God's Word. Some orthodox Jews believe that the Messiah will come out of heaven. They did not think about Isa. 7:14. They rejected all of that.

They thought that He might emerge from concealment or that He would drop from the sky with a triumphal shout. They wanted a Messiah obvious and straight out of heaven. That is exactly what they had. These people willfully would not believe. Their minds were close to the truth. So Jesus gives them another chance to believe.

John 7:28 Then Jesus cried in the temple as He taught, saying, You both know Me, and you know from where I come. And I have not come of Myself, but He who sent Me is true, whom you do not know.

Lesson #0539

John 7:27–37 Life of Christ

12/4/2013 Wed

People debate Jesus today by changing the meaning of the Scripture or saying that there is no divine inspiration.

There has been a sermon that Jesus has been teaching in the temple. His critics charged Him as being uneducated and unsuited to teach in the temple. He argued that His teaching was not from Him but from God. He was the most qualified Person to teach in the temple.

Then Jesus charges these legalists with breaking the Law of Moses. They sought to kill Him, and He was an innocent, sinless man. They were the ultimate in legalistic fervor. The most basic of persecutions, which is an overwhelming study of church history. Religion always attacks Biblical Christianity.

They claim that Jesus must be crazy or demon-possessed. That would explain all of the supernatural activities. Being demon-possessed would justify their desire to kill Him. This was a calculated part of their debate. When people cannot win a debate on substance, they do a personal attack.

Jesus counters with the argument, “You circumcise on the Sabbath” and that was legitimate. Circumcision did not contradict the Sabbath-day rest. Even though the pharisees circumcised on the Sabbath, they condemned Jesus for healing on the Sabbath. They preferred rituals over the reality. They were more concerned with the regulations of the Sabbath. Jesus compared the ritual of circumcision on the Sabbath and the reality of healing.

Jesus and Healing on the Sabbath

1. Since circumcision on the Sabbath was confirmed as being legitimate—it was appropriate to Israel.
2. Therefore, so should Jesus’ healing miracle be considered legitimate.
3. By this comparison, the Lord showed the inconsistency of their religion. He showed the validity of His teaching as being from the source of God Himself.

There is impatience with the lack of action against the Lord.

John 7:27 However, we know this one, from where he is; but when Christ comes, no one knows from where He is.

How can Jesus be the Messiah? We know where Jesus comes from. No prophet comes out of Nazareth. Their minds were absolutely closed to the truth being presented by Jesus Christ. That is having a hardened heart.

Jesus gives them one more chance.

John 7:28 Then Jesus cried in the temple as He taught, saying, You both know Me, and you know from where I come. And I have not come of Myself, but He who sent Me is true, whom you do not know.

Then Jesus makes the claim that He is direction from God the Father. This is a clear statement forcefully made. Jesus was God in the flesh; and He makes the point here, that He is from heaven. Micah 5:2 is what he fulfilled by being born in Bethlehem.

Jesus and His Origins

1. His ultimate origin was from heaven.
2. Jesus makes an assertion from His deity; that He is God from heaven.
3. Jesus was not from Joseph, but from Mary and her miraculous pregnancy.
4. In contrast to their ignorance, He declares complete knowledge of God.

There were those who believed in Him.

Those Who Believed in Him

1. Some recognized Jesus as the Messiah.
2. They abandoned the tyranny of pharisaical doctrine.
3. They broke through religiosity. This is what happens when those steeped in religion see grace for the first time.

Christianity is not a religion but a relationship with God through Christ; this is the only religion based upon grace.

They sent a temple guard to pick up Jesus for claiming to be God.

John 7:29 But I know Him, for I am from Him, and He has sent Me.

John 7:30 Then they sought to seize Him, but no one laid a hand on Him, because His hour had not yet come.

John 7:31 And many of the crowd believed on Him, and said, When the Christ comes, will He do more miracles than these which this One has done?

John 7:32 The Pharisees heard that the crowd murmured such things concerning Him. And the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to seize Him.

John 7:33 Then Jesus said to them, Yet a little while I am with you, and then I go to Him who sent Me.

John 7:34 You shall seek Me and shall not find Me. And where I am, you cannot come.

Jesus has just condemned them. He will be in heaven and they will not be. Where could Jesus go that they could not find Him?

1. This is the first statement of the ascension.
2. He would go up to heaven. They heard Him saying that He could not found.
3. They did not understand what He was saing.

John 7:35 Then the Jews said among themselves, Where is he about to go that we shall not find him? Is he about to go to the Dispersion of the Greeks, and to teach the Greeks?

Historical Points

1. The Jews entered into the babylonian captivity in 586 B.C. All of Palestine had been wiped out.
- 2.
3. Cyrus of Persia, the Persians had defeated the Babylonian empire. They decreed that Zerubbabel could return to rebuild the temple. This was quite a decree. This is the story of the book of Ezra.

4. 50,000 Jews would return with Zerubbabel. The 70 years prophesied.
5. Then Ezra was allowed to return with more people; he was allowed to return to instill some accurate traditions.
6. Nehemiah in 445 B.C. returned to rebuild the walls of Jerusalem. 3 men who returned to Jerusalem.
7. Many Jews did not return to Israel with any of those 3.
8. Many remained in those distant lands.
9. For the most part, they clung to their religion, but they took on the customs and languages of that land where they found themselves.
- 10.
11. Hellenists were the Jews who chose to live among the gentiles.
12. The people that are referred to are the people of the Jews.

They used truculent sarcasm.

John 7:36 What saying is this that He said, You shall seek Me and shall not find Me, and where I am, you cannot come?

They cannot kill Jesus because He still has a message to give. There are many things that would follow this revelation.

Then Jesus offered them to quench their thirst.

John 7:37 And in the last day of the great feast, Jesus stood and cried out, saying, If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink.

Lesson #0540

John 7:37–39 Life of Christ

12/5/2013 Thurs

The last day of the feast is the final day of the Feast of Tabernacles; and there were a number of rituals which occur on this day. Jesus makes a rather curious statement:

John 7:37 And in the last day of the great feast, Jesus stood and cried out, saying, "If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink.

Then there is another curious statement.

John 7:38 He who believes on Me, as the Scripture has said, "Out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water."

Jesus was speaking of the Holy Spirit.

John 7:39 (But He spoke this about the Spirit, which they who believed on Him should receive; for the Holy Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.)

these final words were an invitation and an amazing revelation of the future.

Points

1. This second revelation was about the glorification of Jesus Christ and the future coming of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit had descended upon Jesus as a dove.
- 2.
3. Taken together, these two revelations; the ascended and seated Christ would be glorified; and after that would come the Holy Spirit. This was a prophecy of the Church Age. This was quite a great revelation.

Before this event could happen, Jesus had to ascend and He had to be seated on the right hand of God the Father. This dispensation was previously unknown.

Jesus, His Ascension and Glorification

1. These two revelations, the ascension and glorification and the coming of God the Holy Spirit would be the direct result of Christ's rejection by the Jews and His subsequent crucifixion.
2. Then 3 days later, as we know, Jesus would be resurrected. Then 40 days later He would ascend into heaven and be seated at the right hand of the Father. He is speaking of this for the first time. The Apostles would elaborate on this in the future.
3. This is the sequence of events which would fulfill John 7:33; as of yet, no one knows what this means.
4. Then and only then would the Holy Spirit come upon believers.
5. If Christ remained on earth, He would have had limited glorification; just like any earthly king.
6. When He went to the 3rd heaven, He became greatly superior to all creation in His humanity. He had unlimited glory.
7. This glory that He will have at His return will be far beyond what it would have been during the 1st advent.
8. This is the doctrine of the ascension and session of Christ. Jesus reveals for the first time what would happen after His crucifixion.
9. The result was characterized and consummated by God the Holy Spirit.
10. This advent of the Holy Spirit on the day of Pentecost would begin that phase or dispensation in God's plan, which we now call the Church Age.

Let's get the setting. When our Lord spoke these words, these words of new revelation, on Hosanna something. Jesus is speaking in the Temple about water to drink. But this is not so curious if you understand the background of what was going on.

There was carrying water from the Pool of Salom using a golden pitcher of water. When the preached reached the Temple, he took that water from the pool and he poured it into the silver basin; and as it was being poured, all the worshipers began to sing. They began to sing the psalm, Psalm 63 and 68. They sang and shook palm branches as the water is being poured.

This was a memorial entrance of the Jews into the land of Canaan. This ritual was a memorial to that entrance. Many pilgrims who came marched around Jerusalem. As they passed this pool, they all stopped to drink. That commemorated the Jews after they entered the Land of Promise. They marched around Jericho 6 times and shouted and the walls fell down. This march commemorated the taking of Jericho as they entered into the land. They chanted certain words. They sang the halal and they chanted Isa. 12:3 therefore, you will joyously drink water from the springs of salvation. This is how our Lord's statements coincided with the ritual.

What Is Going on

1. The feast of tabernacles reminded Israel of their experiences of wandering in the desert; the lack of water.
2. They were strangers and pilgrims having left Egypt and coming to the Land of Promise.
3. In that arid desert, the Israelites were often quite thirsty; little natural water to be found.
4. During this sojourn in the desert, God continuously and miraculously provided water for these Jews and there were 2 million Israelites in the desert. This could not occur without God's supply of food and water. The water was life giving.
5. God gave them physical salvation from thirst. Who was supplying this water in the desert?
6. But that water in the desert also provided a picture of another salvation. That is the point of what our Lord's sermon is all about.
7. What God had done for Israel in the desert, physically; Jesus Christ came to do for us spiritually.
8. Here, during this ritual on the last day of the feast of tabernacle, Jesus was explaining to them the water of salvation. Jesus is the reality; what they did was a ritual.
9. He had previously promised in Matt. 5:6 blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied. Jesus is their satisfaction.
10. He had offered to satisfy the physical thirst of the Samaritan woman. Jesus offered her Living Water, which is Him.

This ritual occurring demonstrated what Jesus was offering all of them. Jesus was giving a reality to this ritual. He gave this message in no uncertain terms.

If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink. He who believes on Me, as the Scripture has said, "Out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water."

This was a type; and Jesus fulfilled the type. Physical satisfaction was to be found by drinking the waters of Saloon. Spiritual satisfaction is found by drinking of Christ. This is a metaphor for believing in Him. Jesus was the true water of salvation. He fulfilled the ritual of the drinking of the water of Slalom. This is what believing in Christ is. This fulfills a ritual; and it is faith alone in Christ alone.

Jesus used a 3rd class condition; “If anyone is thirsty;” and the apodosis is, “Let him come to Me and drink.”

Jesus and the Picture He Is Painting

1. Thirst is a picture of desiring to have a relationship with Jesus Christ.
2. Salvation is predicated on a choice as to whether or not a person drinks.
3. To drink is a picture of completing that desire through faith in Christ.

The reality of salvation was standing right before them in the Temple. Jesus is the reality; He is the Living Water of salvation. All that these people did was pointless. They were not getting the reality of what they were singing and chanting. That is always the true purpose of ritual. Ritual is used so often today because it is ritual. If the pastor or whoever does a ritual, it is pointless. The Jews could choose the ritual without reality; or they could choose the reality. Jesus offered them the Living Water, which is Him.

Jesus spoke of the ritual and He offered the reality.

He offers a further water analogy.

John 7:38 He who believes on Me, as the Scripture has said, "Out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water."

This outflowing of Living Water is now explained.

The Second Analogy

1. Water now becomes a picture of the Holy Spirit. First it was a dove; and now it is water. What happens when water flows? It gets into everything; water on the move does not stop for anything.
2. The Holy Spirit would later be received by those who have drunk of the Living Water.
3. The Living Water would flow out of their souls. How is the Holy Spirit connected to this?

The Holy Spirit and the Water

1. When the Holy Spirit arrives, He will do some work.
2. The Holy Spirit will be given to believers on the day of Pentecost. Subsequently, He will be given to all believers in the Church Age.
3. He will indwell and fill all believers who drink of the Living Water.
4. From the filling of the Holy Spirit, the Living Water flows out.
5. The outflow of Living Water is the Christian way of life. This comes after drinking the Living Water of Christ. The power for the Christian life is the Holy Spirit.
6. Doctrine is part of that flow.
7. Doctrine metabolized by means of the operation of the Holy Spirit and divine viewpoint and application are the outflowing of the Living Water.

Jesus also confirms that this is a future prophecy. Λαμβανω first the present active infinitive and also μελλω the imperfect active indicative is a classical Greek construction. This indicates that an event will occur in the future. This was a guarantee at a future time; it will happen. This is a guaranteed future event. Jesus does not put a timeline on this event. V. 39b sets a temporal condition on the receipt of the Holy Spirit. The giving of the Holy Spirit can only occur after Jesus is glorified.

John 7:39 (But He spoke this about the Spirit, which they who believed on Him should receive; for the Holy Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.)

The Holy Spirit cannot come until all these other things occur.

Lesson #0541

John 7:37–42 Life of Christ

12/8/2013 1Sunday

There will be a special Christmas message in a few weeks.

The subject is one of the great metaphors in the Bible. The metaphor is of water; people who are thirsty may drink; the great day of the feast. All of the feast is a picture supplied by the Lord Jesus Christ. It is illustrated even more in the temple.

John 7:37 And in the last day of the great feast, Jesus stood and cried out, saying, "If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink.

So, how do they drink of the water of salvation? Then Jesus answers this in v. 38a. Πιστευω is the word found here; with the preposition εις. This construction is very important and this is the same construction as found in John 3:16. Whoever believes in Him, shall not perish, but has eternal life... Both verses have the same invitation to believe in Him.

There is also another result for drinking and salvation. Salvation is drinking.

John 7:38 He who believes on Me, as the Scripture has said, "Out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water."

In the second half, we have a different metaphor. Rivers of living water then flow out from the soul. There is a flow in and a flow out. The soul receives the flow of water and then that water flows out. The water does not just stay in the soul; it does not just stagnate in the soul. A river does not stop; rivers must flow, or they are not rivers. A river flowing out from the soul of the believer.

What are rivers of living water flowing out from the soul of believers? So v. 39a answers this. Jesus is speaking of the Spirit. Those who believe in Him would receive the Holy Spirit. There would be a tangible result. This was appropriated by a person of faith. The Holy Spirit would be received by anyone who drinks of the Living Water. It is not just an inflow but there is an outflow.

Πιστευω is involved in the flowing in; but flowing out is the Holy Spirit flowing out. This river is defined by Jesus as the Holy Spirit.

Present active infinitive of λαμβανω and an imperfect active indicative of μελλω; and these two verbs together and this is a classical Greek construction, coming from the 5th century B.C. They were to receive; at a future time, the Holy Spirit would be receive by believers. This is a brand new prophecy. It was never before heard.

Jesus says something which is so far-fetched for people, that it is hard for them to imagine. You will all receive the Holy Spirit. The disciples either saw or knew that the Holy Spirit descended upon Jesus at the baptism by John; but He is saying that the Holy Spirit will come to all of them. This is a future date with the Holy Spirit. This is without question, a guaranteed future event. His Word always comes to fruition.

John 7:39 (But He spoke this about the Spirit, which they who believed on Him should receive; for the Holy Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.)

Some were amazed by what Jesus said and others saw Him as an heretic.

There is a time frame placed on this future event. This can only occur after Jesus is glorified. We know when the Holy Spirit came upon these men; the Day of Pentecost. The Holy Spirit was given to the Apostles 40 days after the resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ. Then the Holy Spirit would come upon them.

The Holy Spirit will then indwell and fill all believers who drink of the living water and who receive the salvation promised by the Lord Jesus Christ. From the filling of the Holy Spirit, the rivers of living water proceed to flow out.

The Flowing of Living Water and Operation z

1. This flowing of Living Water is an analogy to the Holy Spirit's work on the believer. When He comes upon those who express faith alone in Christ alone.
2. The outflow is the Christian life that comes after drinking the Living Water of Christ. What flows in also flows out.
3. Bible doctrine is always a part of this flow. What we are doing right now, by hearing and metabolizing Bible doctrine, is an integral part of rivers flowing out from the soul.
4. The rivers of living water flow from what is in the soul. If there is nothing in the soul; if everything is stagnant, then nothing is flowing out.
5. Bible doctrine metabolized by means of the filling of the Holy Spirit is how we get the hydraulics moving. Operation Z. The Holy Spirit teaches the human spirit. This is simply an illustration. The Holy Spirit sends this to the left lobe as academic knowledge. When we believe what we have assimilated, the Holy Spirit takes that information, that doctrine, with our positive volition, and it goes to the right lobe. That is where the rivers begin to flow.
6. Divine viewpoint and application of doctrine flow out from the soul that contains all of that resident, metabolized resident doctrine.

This is the whole picture of the spiritual life. Out from our soul flows living water. The doctrine critical for the Christian life. But Jesus becomes a little more specific at the end of v. 39:

John 7:39 (But He spoke this about the Spirit, which they who believed on Him should receive; for the Holy Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.)

The future condition for receive the Holy Spirit is the glorification of Jesus Christ. Jesus must be crucified, resurrected, ascended and received at the right hand of God the Father (which is the session). Being seated is His glorification. The Holy Spirit would come after Christ was glorified. His glorification would not occur until Jesus was not in their presence. This must have confused the disciples. They want the Holy Spirit right now; so Jesus gives them general facts.

Jesus had been roundly rejected at His ministry and this would continue during His ministry. The nation as a whole rejected Him. He was not placed on the throne of David because the people rejected Him. After His resurrection, ascension and session, then Jesus would be glorified. For the disciples, that would be their future asset.

When the disciples realized that the Holy Spirit would be their future asset, this was quite exciting to them. We have it just as much as Jesus had it and just as much as the Apostles had it. Jesus is beginning to form a picture of His remainder of His time on earth. So He begins to brief the disciples on what is to happen next.

There are a number of responses and reactions to Jesus' invitation to drink this Living Water.

So there were several statements made; 3 in all. 2 were rejections? He is the prophet, He is the Christ, He did not come from the right place.

John 7:40 Then when they heard the Word, many of the people said, "Truly this is the Prophet."

John 7:41 Others said, "This is the Christ." But others said, "Does the Christ come out of Galilee?"

John 7:42 "Has the Scripture not said that Christ comes from the seed of David and out of the town of Bethlehem, where David was?"

We will discuss these responses in the next session.

Lesson #0542

John 7: Life of Christ

11/8/2013 2Sunday

Bobby's sign would read, "The Metaphor of Salvation" or "The Metaphor of Christmas." This is a similar thing. Rivers flowing out from the soul. The waters flowing out from the river of the soul. Water represents two very different concepts.

The first response is, “This is the Prophet.” The second response is, “This is the Christ (Messiah).” But the 3rd response was, “He is not going to come out of Galilee.” People come up with all kinds of excuses for not believing. They will object to the Bible or to evolution or whatever. None of these things have anything to do with the gospel.

John 7:40 Then when they heard the Word, many of the people said, “Truly this is the Prophet.”

Calling Jesus the Prophet or the Christ means that they accept that He comes from the Father. Those who called Him the Prophet do not go far enough. He comes from God but it does not go far enough. Accepting Christ as the prophet, as true as that is, that He speaks of future events, His glorification and the sending of the Holy Spirit. These are all prophecies. He made many other prophecies as well. People did not accept the most important part of His Person—the salvation issue; His Person and His work. Those who went the prophet route did not quite get it.

Those who call Jesus the Christ, they are believers. They understood the Living Waters. They understood Who He is. Only the God-man can make such promises; like “Believe on Me and I will give you eternal life.”

John 7:41 Others said, “This is the Christ.” But others said, “Does the Christ come out of Galilee?”

But those who are very negative say, “Surely the Messiah cannot come out of Galilee.” They cite a prophecy from Micah 5:2

Micah 5:2 And you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, you being least among the thousands of Judah, out of you He shall come forth to Me, to become Ruler in Israel, He whose goings forth have been from of old, from the days of eternity.

Ephrathah is a general region that Messiah would come from. His birth would be unlike any other birth; as the Messiah is preexistent. He goes back to the days of eternity. They should understand that this has to be God. Messiah cannot come from Galilee.

These rejecters cannot quite get it. They were considering only where He grew up. Nazareth in Galilee is where He was raised up; but His birth place was Bethlehem.

This brings us to the Christmas story; and everyone is supposed to go back to their home city for a census. For this reason, they had to travel back to Bethlehem; and she delivered Jesus when in Bethlehem. These people did not research our Lord’s birth. They refuse to see it. They have distorted the facts, which is common.

This is just one more proof of His Person; and yet they all missed it.

John 7:42 “Has the Scripture not said that Christ comes from the seed of David and out of the town of Bethlehem, where David was?”

There was a divide of the people. Jesus was the Messiah, or He was just a prophet; or He was not born in the right place.

So we have described the reasons why there was a division between those in the crowd.

John 7:43 So a division occurred in the crowd because of Him.

The religious leaders wanted to seize Him and put Him into confinement. But they were worried that there would be a riot; a bad response from the crowd.

John 7:44 And some of them desired to seize Him, but no one laid hands on Him.

The officers of the Temple came to the chief priests and the pharisees, but they did not bring Jesus with them.

They sent Temple guards to do a snatch and grab.

John 7:45 Then the officers came to the chief priests and Pharisees. And they said to them, "Why have you not brought Him?"

They did not just not carry out their mission. They refused to carry out their orders. They returned to the chief priests and pharisees, "No one has ever spoken like this Man."

Jesus always gave a message that was wonderful and spell-binding. He was always magnetic in the way that he spoke. These were men under authority.

The officers were overwhelmed. They were quite impressed with His knowledge and authority. They had minds of their own. These were not robots. They did not just carry out orders in a mindless way. They were swayed by what Jesus said. Some of them or even all of them believed in Jesus Christ. Why arrest the man who speaks with such knowledge and speaks with such sense?

God used these men as protection for the Lord Jesus Christ.

John 7:46 The officers answered, "Never did any man speak as does this Man."

The pharisees answer with sarcasm.

John 7:47 Then the Pharisees answered them, "Also, have you not been deceived?"

What good is your opinion? We do not believe in Him and we are the experts. We are the ones who set the tone of religion here in Palestine. Always beware of experts who say, "Everyone must agree with me."

Experts in one thing are not experts in everything. That is arrogance. And, just who is everyone?

John 7:48 Is it not true that not any of the rulers or of the Pharisees have believed into him?

They love their power and they use the law to try to keep their power. They blast everyone else as fools who do not agree with them. But this is all these religious leaders could come up with in terms of refutation. They were flabbergasted. They could not believe that the arm of their authority refused their authority.

“How could this deception happen?” They explain that the people have the wrong perspective of the Law. They are legalists; and they interpret the Law with a legalistic bent; and they often depart from the Law.

The religious leaders offer themselves as proof that others do not have enough smarts to understand the issues. “Trust us; we are the experts in the Law.”

John 7:48 Is it not true that not any of the rulers or of the Pharisees have believed into him?

“We are the experts; you are not. Shut up and fall in line. Do not pretend that you know the Law.” They were the religious and political elite; they knew the Law and they knew what was best for the people. They contended that Jesus was not good for the people. He was a liar and He usurped their authority.

They did not like people thinking that He was a Prophet or the Messiah. “How can you unlearned people defy us?” The scribes and pharisees spent their lives in the Law just for this reason. They were the ones best able to teach truth. “Blindly follow us and we will take care of you. Believe us, and all will be well.” This is their counter to drinking the water of salvation.

This was all about political and religious power and holding onto it. They had only their own interests in mind. That was their biggest problem. “We are so compassionate; and we know what is best for all the people.” This is like our government today. “Let us run your life and we will make all of your decisions from the cradle to the grave.” We know what is good for the economy and the planet as well.

John 7:49 But this crowd, not knowing the Law, is cursed.”

This is the blind leading the blind; this is the road to slavery. This is big government and a bunch of bureaucrats. Arrogant people who just want power. They are the greatest abusers of their power. Have you been in a government office and these people have you over a barrel. They are endowed with great authority and can do whatever they want.

Regulation, deception, lies and finally tyranny is how the government takes control. This is analogous to today. There is not a lot of different between the people in power today and these religious powers then.

Today, arrogance of the utopian thinkers. They want to bring salvation for the masses. “Do what we say and do not make waves.” They have evil policies; then and now. They are profoundly anti-freedom, narcissistic and complete unprincipled. They want to kill the most innocent Man Who has ever lived. They cannot make a good decision for themselves; and yet they want to make all of our decisions for us.

John 7:49 But this crowd, not knowing the Law, is cursed."

If people in charge today knew what was right, they would function in such a way to recognize that they cannot change human nature. Legislation cannot change fundamental human nature. Utopia cannot come until Christ comes.

There are all kinds of unintended consequences; there are progressives and theoreticians. They base much of what they believe on evolutionary ideals. They think that they can direct human nature. That is a basic fact of divine truth; we have sin natures and we live with sin natures and we will die with a sin nature. Our sin nature does not change. Those who reject Jesus cannot accept this. They have nothing else.

Jesus died for all mankind including sinners who will be born in the future. Jesus' work is efficacious for all in the past and in the future and those who have not even been born yet. If Jesus had to die for those in the past and the present, does that sound like we will somehow evolve out of our sin nature?

The pharisees think they have the best plan. They will take care of everyone.

Lesson #0543

John 7: Life of Christ

12/11/2013 Wed

Some men can do a great deal with a speech. Lincoln's speech was underappreciated. FDR's speech after Pearl Harbor; "Day of Infamy." Reagan gave a tremendous speech in Berlin. Great men and great rhetoric. Brought great changes with a few words. They succeeded, in many cases, in uniting a nation to great accomplishments.

Rhetoric can elicit reaction and can divide a nation. The divisions between the supporters and those who don't can become very fracturous. Some are clueless and they do not stand for anything; as long as they are left alone. Others do care and they hold core beliefs strongly. When the thinking of two groups is diametrically opposed, then someone is wrong. It is not relative.

Conservative/liberal-socialism divide. Above politics and above ideology, there is the absolute truth of divine truth and divine establishment from the Bible. All human ideology is to be compared to divine truth in the soul of the believer with Bible doctrine. Only believers can metabolize Bible doctrine and have divine viewpoint in their souls. That is our criteria for all ideology and plans.

The great divide is really divine viewpoint versus human viewpoint. The truth in the Word of God and the Satanic plans and policies of humanism and religion; these two sides can never be reconciled any more than God and Satan be reconciled.

There is a divide in the time of Jesus; the rules and regulations of the religious leaders and the truth of Jesus Christ. Jesus has just completed presenting divine truth and Bible doctrine in a magnificent sermon. But the divide was so great, that emotions were running very high.

The truth of there Word of God is a divider; it divides nations and it divides families.

The Temple guards were kept there to stop the Jews from rioting. Now they are called upon to go and arrest Jesus, to shut Him up. They would like to kill Him. The guards came back and the truth of His message was too powerful for him.

John 7:44 And some of them desired to seize Him, but no one laid hands on Him.

The guards were questioned; "Why did you not arrest Him?"

John 7:45 Then the officers came to the chief priests and Pharisees. And they said to them, "Why have you not brought Him?"

The officers say that no one speaks like this Man.

John 7:46 The officers answered, "Never did any man speak as does this Man."

Winston Churchill was a great man of words; but probably could not hold a candle to Jesus. The guards would not arrest this man for what He said. The content of his speech was divine truth, the very Word of God. There is nothing more powerful on this earth.

The hate of the pharisees boiled over; and they developed a wicked sarcasm.

John 7:47 Then the Pharisees answered them, "Also, have you not been deceived?"

A lot of people have been led astray.

John 7:48 Is it not true that not any of the rulers or of the Pharisees have believed into Him?

You do know that none of the pharisees have believed in Him. Aren't we the religious experts? We know best for you.

John 7:49 But this crowd, not knowing the Law, is cursed."

These scribes and pharisees believe that they know what is best for everyone. How can you defy us? It is tyranny if you go along with them. That tyranny will attempt to crush all that clings to divine truth. That is how they thin.

The tyranny of religion. Through much of church history, just possessing a Bible was a crime. For centuries, the Roman church withheld Bibles from the common people. It remained in Latin and Greek and was not messed with for awhile.

John Whitcliff. He took it upon himself to translate the Bible into English and he was pronounced a heretic for doing this. Tyrannical societies always oppress. Christianity was not well received in Nazi Germany. Hitler took certain parts of Nordic mythology and some semi-Christian thinking, and put it together.

In North Korea a number of people were executed because they had a Bible. Islam prohibits the Bible wherever they hold sway.

These are unprincipled tyrants and they will kill to stamp out the message of Jesus. The Word of God is the greatest divider.

Then we have a pharisee come on the scene who comes to our Lord's defense. He went to Jesus back in John 3. He was a seeker of truth.

John 7:50 Nicodemus said to them, (he who came to Jesus by night, being one of them),

Nicodemus presents a simple defense for Jesus. He was a timid man; timid in his approach. He is cautious in his defense of Jesus.

John 7:51 "Does our law judge the Man before it hears Him and knows what He does?"

He finds the courage to speak. He was one of them. He did not fall right in line with what the pharisees expected. He provides his opinion, put forth in the form of a question.

Using a question to present your opinion might suggest.

"Should we not hear Jesus first before condemning Him? Isn't that the Law."

Nicodemus scores a point. The pharisees were supposed to be fair judges of the Law; but they are violating Him.

John 7:52 They answered and said to him, Are you also from Galilee? Search the scriptures and see that a prophet has not been raised out of Galilee.

There is no prophet to come out of Galilee. They have accused Him and all that Calling him a Galilean is a personal attack on Nicodemus.

They sarcastically attack Nicodemus; but they are saying that he is just like the fools that they attack.

Our religious freedom is being strangled in this country; and even more so for evangelical Christians. No different from 2000 years ago.

Nicodemus just pointed out that they are legally required to do so. The people there knew that they have been beatned down by those

John 7:53 And they each went to his own house.

Jesus is going to drive them crazy. They will not be able to deal with Him.

Great irony here. God uses the evil in this world for good. The greatest good was opposed by evil. The salvation of mankind was the result from the greatest hill.

The plan of God always overcomes the evil of the world. We may be worried about our nation. The winds of change are blowing in the United States and they are blowing hard. God uses evil for His Own good; and He can do it

A difficult passage coming up; it doesn't exist. These 11 verses do not appear in the earliest manuscripts of the Greek NT; but it does appear in the later manuscripts.

Bobby will cover how we got our Bible and why it is accurate. The autograph; the original writing. The problem is, Paul's letter arrives and it is read and reread.

What happens when you try to copy something perfectly. It is easy to make a mistake. Your eyes may skip a line. Over 1000 years and 100's of thousands of copies of the original and thousands of mistakes.

Lesson #0544

John 8: Life of Christ

12/12/2013 Thurs

What we are about to study is not found in the earliest full manuscript. The autograph is the only fully inspired Word of God. The KJV is not the divinely inspired Word of God. However, the Greek New Testament is the closest replication which we could possibly have. Hence the importance of someone who can study the Bible in the original languages.

When John wrote this gospel, vv. 1–11 probably were not included.

We have hand-written copies which we call manuscripts. The autograph is the original; and the copies made of the original.

Why these verses are not in the original autograph. More than a point of interest. When Bobby finishes, we should have great confidence in the text which we have now.

The New Testament was written by human authors who were divinely inspired by God the Holy Spirit. All of the words that they wrote were exactly what God wanted us to know. That is what divine inspiration is. All that they wrote was from God; and that is a separate subject. Divine inspiration only extends to the original autograph, which came from the hand of the writer.

We do not have one original manuscript written by any of the Apostles. We would not even know if it was an autograph. So many copies were made. We do not have a handwriting sample from Paul, Peter, etc.

It is inevitable that there will be some differences in these copies.

An Apostle would take a papyrus and a pen designed to write on papyrus. Then if it was an epistle, it would be mailed to a particular church or person. From the original text, many copies were made, in order to distribute the letter. Other churches and other pastors wanted to study these letters. Thousands of copies were made over the intervening centuries. Thousands of these copies have been discovered. All of these manuscripts are critical. Because of the number of manuscripts, we can be certain of what the original said.

The problem is, mistakes would be made in these copies. Sometimes a scribe would mistake one letter for another; it was easy for the eye of the copyist to skip a letter or a word or a line. There were a number of inadvertent mistakes made.

There were attempts to smooth out the text as well. However, over the centuries, they did a remarkable job.

The great number of manuscripts can be compared, and we can come extremely close to the original manuscript. Some copies are more accurate than others. But, which ones? How can we know? The earlier copies should have fewer errors. The copiest was closer to the original. The further from the original, the more errors might exist. They provide us with the baseline.

The earliest manuscript is logically the one with the least number of errors.

Comparing Copies

1. The authenticity of any letter, word, verse or passage in the Greek New Testament is best confirmed as part of the original text by the age of the manuscripts. Earliest is the best.
2. That does not discount the importance of later manuscripts; 100–500 years later. They provide comparisons and confirmations. So, we compare all of these.
3. 30 have the same reading and 5 which are different; which is the correct reading? These errors are called variants. The mistakes are readily identifiable. You can see where the readings depart. You can understand where the copyist made a mistake.
4. Therefore, the truest readings can be compiled as authentic parts of the original autograph. John 8:1–11 appears in later texts.
5. Finding a near-perfect reading is possible. We can have great confidence in the text which currently exists. The NKJV was done by several of the men at the school that Bobby went to. Bobby is convinced that the Greek text which he uses is accurate.

The text which we use for the Bible is more reliable than any other ancient book. Professors were convinced that all of the ancient Greek writings were reasonably accurate; and this would be based upon 2 or 3 manuscripts. There are thousands of manuscripts for the Bible. When a possible error occurs, the original text can generally be confirmed. This has become an exact science.

Closing Points

1. The conclusions about various words or letters which differ; variants; have been made with a degree of accuracy such that the original text and doctrines have been confirmed. The original text has been preserved, even now 2000 years later.
2. The Bible which we use is entirely trustworthy as the true representations.
3. There are approximately 5000 variants which have been identified. But not one of those variants changes the meaning or theology of any part of the New Testament; that is the power of God the Holy Spirit in preserving the Word of God for us.

Bobby took an exegesis class of the Greek and this is a fascinating study. Introduction to Textual Commentary of the New Testament by Bruce Metzger, and he will give a full look at this information.

In John 8:1–11, scholars have called this an accurate fragment. However, this is in double brackets. It is annotated. It was probably not in the original gospel text. This text appears to be a true incident in the life of Christ. Even if this was added later; it was, scholars have determined,

John 8:1–11 and Does it Belong in the Bible.

1. this was passed down verbally and it was added to the manuscript of John. It bears evidence of a true incident in the life of Christ.
2. Even if this passage was not present in the original text, it does not depart from the doctrinal context. There is no adverse theology in this passage.
3. It is also clear that these verses are wholly in keeping with
4. This would fit with teachings in the Bible.

This is the story of the adulterous woman. One of the church teachers said that Augustine in A.D. 430 considered this passage to be original. He was only 300 years away from the autograph. He omitted them from the Bible. He thought that it might be perverted and thought as an excuse for sin. Christ forgave a woman of adultery. However, Augustine was possibly quite an adulterer. It is said that he castrated himself to deal with this area of weakness. He thought that because Jesus forgave the sin so easily, that people might not recognize how heinous the sin is.

Augustine was a brilliant man and used by the Lord; but he was legalistic. This sounds like the arguments that we hear today about rebound.

Bobby likes what this passage covers, so he will teach it.

Jesus was at the festival of the Tabernacles. He probably slept in one of those Tabernacles. Most had departed and were heading back to their homes.

John 8:1 But Jesus went to the Mount of Olives.

Some assembled to hear Jesus. He sat down and began to teach. That was the custom of the day; sitting to teach. It reminds Bobby of the final few years of his ministry; and he would sit on a bar stool and teach.

But the scholars and rabbis were unhappy with His reappearance. They did not want Him there.

John 8:2 And early in the morning He came again into the temple, and all the people came to Him. And He sat down and taught them.

They would use the Law to condemn Jesus. They would retaliate for their embarrassment in the Temple. They used that night to do some snooping.

Now they haul a woman out in front of Jesus. And this is the setting.

John 8:3 And the scribes and Pharisees brought to Him a woman taken in adultery. And standing her in the midst,

Jesus is asked to deal with a woman caught in adultery.

Lesson #0545 John 7:31 8:1–5 Life of Christ 12/15/2013 1Sunday

No Bible class 25th but there will be class on the 26th; 8 pm on the 31st which is a Tuesday night; no class on Wednesday following; and class Thursday on the 2nd.

Sit behind the glass with a cough.

There are many days when Jesus could have said, "What a day." He had been teaching in the Temple for several days since the middle of the feast; and on the last day was the culmination of some fantastic teaching. Some of the greatest applications of doctrine that this world has ever heard.

John 7:31 And many of the crowd believed on Him, and said, When the Christ comes, will He do more miracles than these which this One has done?

But there was opposition to Jesus; and even those in the crowd; some called Him a faker from Galilee and that no one would come out of Galilee. Jews looked down their nose at the Galileans.

Religious leaders must have smiled to hear these things come out of the crowd. The pharisees had to stop His kind of heresy. He needed to be removed from their Temple and their lives; and to remove Him from Judæa; and out of this life, if this was possible. They wanted to haul Him outdoors and stone Him.

The Temple guards were sent to grab Jesus and pull Him out of there; but they came back without Jesus, saying, "Never has anyone spoken like this man before." These Temple guards had heard hundreds of sermons by the religious types.

Then Nicodemus came and spoke. After he spoke, everyone went home.

Now we return to Jesus. Jesus left the Temple and He went up the Mount of Olives, which overlooks Jerusalem and the Temple. This is where He spent a few days was in the Temple. The Mount of Olives was a stone's throw. Bobby shows a picture of the slope of the Mount of Olives which is modern.

Jesus may have gone up there for a rest.

John 8:1 But Jesus went to the Mount of Olives.

Then He returns to the Temple; and people come back to hear Him.

John 8:2 And early in the morning He came again into the temple, and all the people came to Him. And He sat down and taught them.

The pharisees were irate that Jesus returned to teach. So now they had a new plot; a sure-fire way to remove Jesus from the Temple.

Bear in mind, all these pharisees have to do is to find one place where Jesus is teaching false doctrine, and they can expel Him. But they cannot find a single place to call Him on what He has said.

John 8:3 And the scribes and Pharisees brought to Him a woman taken in adultery. And standing her in the midst, Adultery occurs then and now; and this is devastating in all relationships. The person in the middle of this is the ultimate of self-centered. The short moments of pleasure are never worth the pain that they will bring. For this woman will be a very short-lived pleasure.

She is being hauled into the court of women, where there may have been several hundred people. Adultery never stays hidden from a spouse. Ultimately, it will be revealed. That is a given. The injured party may be the last to know; but they will eventually find out; and that is where the fun stops and the agony begins.

Sin does not happen without the temptation to be there. The temptation is not sin; it is acting upon it. The husband of this woman gets to find out in a way that no one would want to live through. His wife's unfaithfulness is exposed in public in the Temple. She is used as a bait to hook the Lord into a trap.

The Feast of Tabernacles. This was to be a time of great celebration of God's great provision. Jesus uses water as an illustration, hearkening back to the water in the desert provided for Israel by God.

The people there were conducting ritual without reality; and they were involved in ritual; but they did not recognize the Person to Whom the ritual pointed. There were lots of people living outside in palm branch booths. There were many places where adultery could occur, with all of these temporary booths.

John 8:4 ...they said to Him, Teacher, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

The pharisees nab this woman in the very acts and they drag her out and take her to the Temple. There were ways to handle this situation; but the pharisees were willing to publically humiliate this woman in order to get to the Lord Jesus Christ. Hatred blinds people to get to their own sinful aims.

They hate and resent someone, and that is their cup of poison. They are the ones destroyed by that.

They ask for an opinion of Jesus Christ outside of legal procedure. They could care less about that legal procedure. They were looking to trip Jesus up.

John 8:4 ...they said to Him, Teacher, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

So now they use the Law to determine what ought to be done. There is the death penalty for adultery. The method of stoning is not mentioned in the original passage. So the death penalty is legitimate.

John 8:5 Now Moses in the Law commanded us that such should be stoned. You, then, what do You say?

"Now, what is Your opinion?" Adultery includes one man and one woman; and both are guilty and both must be indicted for this sin. The religious leaders only included the woman. They knew who the man was, because they caught the woman in the act. These men got away with a lot that women did not. So they let the man go. They had essentially pardoned the man.

Therefore, they are not following the Law; they are using the Law for their own purposes. If they were following the Law, they would bring the man and the woman before Jesus. But the Law is used selectively here.

Our constitution is a great document of freedom and it is being distorted today. The pharisees likewise distorted the Law for their own purposes.

The death penalty for adultery seems unduly harsh and it is not a part for our legal code.

Why Is the Death Penalty Applied Here?

This is between two people, a husband and a wife. Why should this be before a court?

1. This severe punishment accentuated the importance of the divine institution of marriage and family. This is why it is included in the Law.
2. Without the divine institutions, the client nation Israel would be destroyed. God understands this. The Mosaic Law is not for the Church Age. The destruction of marriage and family is as destructive today as it was then.
3. Israel was in constant danger of falling into the trap of ignoring the divine institutions; Because of neighboring heathen peoples.
4. Many of the surrounding neighbors were involved in the phallic cult, which included Temple prostitution as a part of their worship. Those who worshiped Baal would even offer up their own children to Baal.
5. Adultery on such a scale would destroy the divine institutions of marriage and family in Israel. Marriage and family are sacrosanct.

Lesson #0546

John 8: Life of Christ

11/15/2013 2Sunday

John did not pen these verses. Scholars have concluded that these verses represent a true incident in the life of Christ. It did happen. Added by a scribe who understood it belonged to this time. This is a wonderful look at the grace of God.

Many see adultery as the worst of sins. Obvious overt sin.

This is now considered a controversial passage. An interesting sideline is many did not include this passage for many reasons. St. Augustine would not include it because of the phrase "Go and sin no more." He thought that this would be a license to sin and that sin would be taken too lightly.

Many opinions as to where they found this woman. Maybe one of the pharisees knew her pretty well too. These pharisees were the ultimate in hypocrisy.

V. 5 springs the trap. Moses reflected and wrote what God told him to write.

John 8:5 Now Moses in the Law commanded us that such should be stoned. You, then, what do You say?"

The whole purpose was to give them grounds to attack Jesus.

Marriage and family are critical for the survival of the client nation. It is vital for any people or nation to safeguard marriage and family. We have this problem in our own country today; and the effects of not cherishing those institutions.

This really went into high gear in the decade of free love. Don't worry about love and marriage and family; just have a good time. As a result, we have an increased divorce rate. The big one today is the rise of homosexuality as the family alternative; and the concept that it takes a village to raise a child. That is the truth if you do not instill any truth into your own children. That is your responsibility as a parent. These are the underlying institutions for society. Thus, the Mosaic Law called for the execution of those caught in adultery.

The pharisees only brought this woman forth. The Mosaic Law requires the man and the woman be executed. It all destroys traditional family values; one father and one mother and children under their authority. This is why Satan promotes this activity in a client nation; to nullify and to destroy that client nation. Divine institutions are neglected, mocked, replaced, and destroyed.

The principles of the Mosaic Law still hold true today. Society cannot survive the destruction of marriage and family. God is omniscient. He knows all. He knows the problem of Israel.

As believers, we question the mandates of God's Word. We think, "That's nice, but I don't want to be too concerned about it." It does not matter if you like a mandate or not. It is in His Word because of infinite wisdom and foresight. Nothing in God's Word is casual. If it is from God, it is worth following and adhering to.

God's Word, even the mandates that you do not like, they are for your benefit and for the benefit of the nation you live in. If you do not adhere to these laws, you will have more pain in your life.

Remember God's grace is always sufficient, no matter where you find yourself. Rebound and keep moving. Get back into God's Word; and you are on the right path. Bad decisions seem to follow us. The grace of God seem to take up the slack for our own bad decisions.

This woman was nabbed in adultery and the entire city knew about it. Capital punishment was mandated in the time of the Mosaic Law and in the time that this was written. Divine institutions are for our benefit and for the society in which we live.

It is unknown how often the Israelites used this law. Israel was always in some form of adulterous behavior. They were constantly whoring after other gods.

God is not mocked and He used this punishment en masse; and God killed many people of Israel for departing from the Lord. The northern kingdom was destroyed and it never recovered. The southern kingdom was then destroyed; and the Jews did return to the land after that, after 70 years. Whether you pay individually or as a nation, God is not mocked. The more you know about God's Word, the more responsibility that you have.

There are several blatant cases of adultery in the Old Testament. King David is one of the worst. In 2Sam. 13 or so with Bathsheba. David should have been at war, but he was not. He saw Bathsheba and then later murdered her husband. But David went through a lot of pain because of it. Yet, David was a man after God's Own heart. Sin cannot hold a candle to the grace of God. David confessed his sins to the Lord and he was forgiven and not stoned. That is the grace of God.

John 8:5 reveals the trap that these pharisees had for Jesus.

John 8:5 Now Moses in the Law commanded us that such should be stoned. You, then, what do You say?"

Nothing worse than religious lawyers. A legalistic religious lawyer is the worst. They were waiting for a legal answer from Jesus. They were just waiting to jump all over our Lord. They figured that they had Him one way or the other. This shows us that the self righteous pharisees had no interest in justice or the Law. They used the Law to gain personal power.

The pharisees ask Jesus His opinion, to test Him. They wanted to reveal evil in Him; they wanted to bring fault in Him. People use law all the time; the end justifies the means; and that will always be destructive.

What Was Our Lord Looking at Here?

1. If Jesus refused to condemn the woman, then they will say that He is opposed to the Mosaic Law. What the Mosaic Law is clear. If He says let her go, this violates the Mosaic Law. He would be annulling or revoking the Law of God. Jesus said, "I did not come to abolish the prophets or the Law; I did not come to abolish, but to fulfill." These men manipulated the Law to suit their own purposes. If it didn't work for them, they just added a new regulation. They knew that they did this. This was all a setup. Jesus had always gone strictly by the Law with them. He continually straightened them out for the many times they disobeyed the Mosaic Law.
2. If Jesus says, "She should be stoned;" then they could claim that He was not really being compassionate.

Jesus ignored them. He was disrespecting them.

John 8:6 They said this, tempting Him so that they might have reason to accuse Him. But bending down, Jesus wrote on the ground with His finger, not appearing to hear.

They kept after Him until He finally said something. Then Jesus tells them, and this is one of the most well-known things that Jesus said.

John 8:7 But as they continued to ask Him, He lifted Himself up and said to them, "He who is without sin among you, let him cast the first stone at her."

"Whoever here is without a sin; let him be the first one to cast a stone at her." This is devastating in its simplicity and a trap for the trappers.

John 8:8 And again bending down, He wrote on the ground.

Whatever Jesus wrote, He convicted them of their own sins and hypocrisy. These men looked at this writing and they realized that they had committed these same sins. They want to murder Him; and they are convicted of this. Some were guilty of adultery; and Jesus knew about that.

Jesus knew their sins and He used their hypocrisy to defeat them. No one among them was without sin or fault. That one without sin could step forward to stone her. None of them could claim this righteousness.

Now, were they able to execute this woman? Perhaps they brought the woman forward with this in mind. Jesus would agree with the Law, and they would then hand Him a stone to cast the first stone.

Cults, and there are a bunch of them in this world; Christian, religious, eastern. Cultic religious figures know exactly what they are doing. They are purposely duping people. The pharisees are poster children for the misuse of God's Word, and they know it. They fear that their own sins might be made public before that crowd.

Perhaps Jesus wrote down a sin, and called over the eldest man there.

John 8:9 And hearing, and being convicted by conscience, they went out one by one, beginning at the oldest, until the last. And Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

Lesson #0547

John 8: Life of Christ

12/18/2013 Wed

What should be done with this woman who has been caught red-handed?

John 8:6 They said this, tempting Him so that they might have reason to accuse Him. But bending down, Jesus wrote on the ground with His finger, not appearing to hear.

This particular example, where there is an attempt to trip Jesus up, they have a subject that gets everyone's attention. This is entering into the private tent of another person. We have the same thing which occurs here. Sex sells a lot of magazines; and this was the same thing then. Bobby is pretty certain that this is why this woman was chosen.

This was an interruption which distracted everyone in the Temple. Everyone wanted to hear all of the dirt that they could hear. Sex has a specific design in the plan of God; and it is not designed for just being indiscriminate and it is not just for the propagation of the human race.

The Doctrine of Sex

1. Sex was designed by God to be an expression of personal love inside a marriage between a husband and a wife (a man and a woman).
2. Adultery is exactly the opposite of the divine design.
3. The divine institution of marriage therefore defines the boundaries of sex.
4. Within these boundaries, sex is also recreation and a cocoon of intimacy which adultery shatters. Marriage is all about two people who are so closely associated, which leaves out everyone else.
5. The intimacy of sex strengthens the marriage bond. Sex is not just for the honeymoon.

6. To neglect sex in marital attitude is to lessen and weaken the whole union and the divine institution generally.

Adultery exacerbates that problem. God's purpose is less than effective when the marriage is a mistake from the beginning. The mistake is often made because of sex (which would be premarital sex). The preferred method of many young people today is to live together. The conventional wisdom is, you get to play house.

The Problem with Sex Today

1. Sex is mistaken for love when there are two young people involved.
2. Love despite Hollywood's viewpoint is not developed through sex. Sex is not the way to love.
3. In that premarital state, sex is the result of physical attraction. That will last only as long as expectations are met. When the expectations run out, so does the relationship. If that is the foundation for marriage, the marriage will run out of steam as well.
4. Premarital sex manufactures problems in a relationship and in marriage. Sometimes, people do not even know what the problems are.
5. The secret to intimacy and sex is personal love developed through time spent together, developed through compatibility, mental and spiritual; and the physical will fall into place at the right time under the right circumstances. Love will not develop through physical activities.
6. Based on personal love in marriage, sex is an expression of the coalescence of soul and body, emphasizing the soul, and that is when it becomes good. People think a number of partners makes sex better; but exactly the opposite is true.
7. When sex is the center of the relationship rather than love, it is just a physical ritual without reality. It is just a physical ritual without reality; a meaningless encounter with only fleeting moments of physical intimacy.
8. Sex is not a source of happiness; another great fallacy in our thinking these days; especially in fornication and adultery.

Some More Points

1. Sex is way overrated with regards to happiness. It is a very temporary pleasure.
2. It cannot sustain happiness in relationship to a spouse or a lover (in premarital or post-marital).
3. Adultery is an attempt to find happiness outside of marriage. Bobby is identifying the parameters of life, based upon what is done. Often adultery is just a fixation; it is not love. "Now I have found the real deal." That statement itself and thinking is a problem. Bobby cannot think of one case that he knows where adultery has ended well. If you are involved in that, think on this; if your adulterous partner does it to their spouse; don't think that they won't do it to you.
- 4.

5. The human race has normal desire for sex. Bobby is not downgrading sex; the human race has a desire for sex just like eating food; and there is nothing wrong with that desire. It is very normal.
6. Eating food does not bring a mental attitude of happiness. It fulfills a physical need and that is all.
7. It is the same with sex or with adultery. It does not make you happy when it is just a physical need.
8. Sex expresses happiness under the right conditions; sex is not happiness. Sex does not sustain happiness. If you are not happy in your soul, then sex will not make you happy. We tend to put sex or pleasure ahead of that which sustains our lives. Pleasure does not sustain our lives; it is fleeting. Adultery is the wrong condition.
9. Adultery means maladjustment to God, to marriage, to family, and to obligations and responsibilities; and it is a maladjustment to the human race. There is no respect for anyone except yourself in adultery. What about the person on the other end of the adultery? The person you are cuckolding?

The divine institution of marriage is attacked and devastated by adultery; and we see that everywhere. This causes children who are insecure; children who are confused and disoriented. It begins with the parents and the family and the strength of the marriage.

The pharisees are not fools; they are very smart people. They know all of this about adultery and sex.

Jesus gave no legal opinion about punishment for adultery. What did He do instead?

John 8:7 But as they continued to ask Him, He lifted Himself up and said to them, "He who is without sin among you, let him cast the first stone at her."

Jesus ignored them.

John 8:8 And again bending down, He wrote on the ground.

They persisted in asking Him. The underlying point is, judgment belongs to God. Only God has perfect justice and righteousness. The pharisees were taking the place of God. Plenty of churches today; there are many people playing God. People make their own misery. When we judge others, we make ourselves miserable. Leave them alone. If we don't get legalistic, and they get enough pain in their life, they will get back to it themselves.

We have such tendencies to castigate those who do the things which shock us. Many people get shocked by adultery. The pharisees are not really shocked by this; they act as if they are.

God tells them, "If you are perfect, pick up a stone and throw it at her." Someone else's sin is not your issue. Jesus does this to make a doctrinal point. Jesus sidesteps their trap and snares them in His Own trap. They demand judgment as a test, but they were being judged of their own sins. They failed their own test miserably.

Judgment by God Alone

1. Only God, Who is sinless, can judge this woman. This is for any sin that might shock us. With parents, it is a little different; we have every right to judge our own children. We are training them. The pharisees had no right to do this.
2. Bobby is not negating the importance of a court of law to curb the sinful nature of man. God has provided ways of punishing men for criminal activity.
3. These men, these hypocrites, as judges, were outside the law on several counts here.
4. They were criminals, judging a criminal act and hence, they were not impartial; they had their own agenda, as all legalists do. The men there may have even indulged in this act with the very same woman.
5. Judgment by distorting the law of God was their imperfection and their downfall. When confronted with their legalism and hypocrisy, they knew they had another agenda.

This happens in our justice system all the time. Bobby noticed in the paper that the district attorney in Travis county which contains Austin and he was arrested and convicted for drunk driving and she refused to resign. She is going to continue to prosecute that bad guys, which would include arresting other drunk drivers.

More Points

1. One statement takes our these pharisees.
2. The pharisees did not care about justice at all in this case. It was about judgment; but not about justice.
3. They condemned this woman and they also condemned themselves by doing it. You get out of fellowship, out of line, and you have sidetracked yourself. It is never worthwhile to go down this road.
4. The pharisees had consistently condemned and judged Jesus in His lifetime. This was all about judging Jesus. The woman was just a prop. They judged themselves by their actions.
5. These men were no better than the woman that they caught in adultery; in fact, they are worse. They refuse to resign their powerful posts. It is about power and holding onto it. They like the taste of authority.

A Few More Points

1. Jesus will judge these men for eternity.
2. They were being judged in the same way that they judge. If you want to judge, you will be judged in the same way.

3. Judging does not bring the return that the judgmental person hopes for. It is just the opposite. The unintended consequences of judging is far-reaching and consequential. Mind your own business.
4. If you judge another's sins, when you also sin, it indicates something—your legalism and your mental attitude. It is ultimately a judgment of yourself. Gossip, judging and backbiting is often the mode of judging.

The religious leaders were publically humiliated.

When they heard what Jesus said, they began to walk out one by one.

John 8:9 And hearing, and being convicted by conscience, they went out one by one, beginning at the oldest, until the last. And Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

Jesus was left with the woman standing with Him. The pharisees who brought her in had all walked out. Jesus just had to write down various Old Testament passages? Each one came up and saw what Jesus wrote and they stepped back after reading it.

Ultimately judging does not bring the return that the judging person wants. Once the pharisees saw what was being written, they saw their own culpability. If they demanded her execution, could not the crowd call for theirs.

They were like cockroaches who ran from the light of day.

The oldest went first. He had the most hypocrisy to answer for, particularly after years of such an evil pattern.

Why didn't Jesus condemn her? He did not out of grace.

John 8:10 And bending back up, and seeing no one but the woman, Jesus said to her, Woman, where are the ones who accused you? Did not one give judgment against you?

Lesson #0548

John 8: Life of Christ

12/19/2013 Thurs

We are in a fallen world; the human race is degenerate. We all have sin natures and we all sin. A viewpoint in this world that there is no such thing as sin. This sort of people can basically justify anything that they want to do.

Duck Dynasty guy was asked, what is sin to you? And he quotes Rom. 1:28; and this includes the sin of homosexuality. He was right, up to a point; but he missed a chance here, and it is the same chance missed here in this story of Jesus and the adulteress. "Sin is sin, but Jesus came to take care of that problem." That would have been the proper thing to add. This woman was being taken apart because of her sin.

Jesus was never defeated by the schemes of the pharisees. They could never defeat Him with regards to truth and theology. This adulteress woman scheme was just another failed scheme on the part of the pharisees. They slinked off into the night. The oldest left first because they had the most to lose.

We are all sinners; whatever the sin is, we are all sinners in one way or another. We do not judge people for sin; that is what Jesus did on our behalf; God the Father judged Him and dealt with the sins Jesus took on.

The woman was guilty; she knew that. She did not throw herself at His feet and apologize profusely. She did not promise to never to do it again. The Mosaic Law called for death.

What if Jesus called this a sin worthy of death? Then He would have been asked to cast the first stone.

The woman recognized her predicament. She was trapped in the sins that she had committed. Who among us will cast the first stone? This woman having seen herself in the light of truth. She recognized the solution, and it was not in a disingenuous apology or any kind of self-justification for her sin. The solution to her sin was standing right in front of her. She calls Jesus Lord, which means that she accepts the only solution, Jesus Christ. Jesus is always the issue with regard to any issue.

She had the forgiveness that she needed. Jesus could forgive her. Jesus declares her slate clean. She believed in Jesus and now she had imputed righteousness, even though she had sinned.

“Here is what sin is; but here is the solution to sin.” But this was a loaded question; they were trying to trap him just as the pharisees were trying to trap Jesus.

David committed adultery, but he had been forgiven. Jesus demonstrated the grace and mercy of God in the face of... Jesus could forgive as no other man could forgive.

David’s confession of sin, “Against You and You only have I sinned.”

John 8:10 And bending back up, and seeing no one but the woman, Jesus said to her, Woman, where are the ones who accused you? Did not one give judgment against you?

Jesus adds a postscript; “Go and sin no more.” The fact that Jesus forgave her sins does not mean that He condoned this sin. He was not giving a license to sin. The meaning is the grace of God; not legalism.

John 8:11 And she said, No one, Lord. And Jesus said to her, Neither do I give judgment. Go, and sin no more.

What Did He Mean?

1. This phrase charged her with extracting herself from her sinful situation.

2. In saying that, Jesus did not mean go and never sin again. That is impossible. She still has a sin nature. So we cannot expect that she became sinless.
3. If Jesus meant "Go and never sin again" that would be futile and impossible. This woman would sin again. Jesus was saying, "Don't do the adultery again; see the trouble you go in for it?"
4. This adultery was probably not a one-time thing; they found her and brought her to Jesus. Jesus knew this woman was still savable. She still had the option of living the spiritual life.
5. No sin is too great to be forgiven my God. If you have never done anything wrong, then you do not need Christ at all. Sin does not block a relationship with Christ. Jesus came to forgive sins. He shed His blood for the remission of sins.
- 6.
7. Even though she was still a sinner, she was justified by faith and she possessed God's righteousness. She was saved; she had received eternal life.
8. She also had the foolproof means to combat the sin nature, just as David did. She had the means to go and sin no more. David, in spite of all that he did, we was still a man after God's Own heart.
9. David rebounded and moved on in his walk in the Lord. So could she.
10. Christ charged her with a change of attitude toward her sin; but not that she would never sin again. That began with her change in status from lost to regenerate.
11. 1Cor. 6:18 flee fornication; remove yourself from it; resist it.

When we have no sin nature, our life is free of problems. The falling to the sin nature introduces problems into our life.

Jesus has deftly sidestepped another trap set for Him by the pharisees.

Summary of the Trap

1. They failed in their attempt to show that the Mosaic Law is too harsh.
2. In their attempt to use the Law as a trap, they showed their true attitude toward God's Law and His Word. This is so prevalent. People use God's Word by lifting things out of it and ignoring everything else.
3. They had no problem reinterpreting the Law for their own purposes.
4. They took God's Word and they altered it just to prove a point; to maintain their power hold over the people; and to defame the Lord Jesus Christ.
5. This attitude and altercation is the epitome of tyranny.
6. In their religious tyranny, the pharisees must impose their will over all opposition. The pharisees would distort Scripture or do whatever it took to maintain their power.
7. Proseletytes by tyranny and it blocks dissent to its doctrines by fear. This is in the political realm as well, when leaders takes laws and interpret them to fit to their own notions. There must be tyranny; there is no room for dissent.

The pharisees were hypocritical; and unlike her, they would not accept Jesus as their Savior. They refused the solution to their sin. They maintained their self-righteousness. That is blindness; that is negative volition. That is the stupidity of the world which rejects Jesus Christ. Their own righteousness is never enough. When Jesus said, "I do not condemn you;" He was by implication condemning the pharisees.

The people in the Temple got a firsthand view of grace versus legalism. Then they saw the solution, Jesus. The one who accepted it; she had forgiveness of it.

This passage brings up a question, which is a hot-button issue today, capital punishment, which was a legitimate punishment.

What did Jesus say or did not say about this subject?

When Jesus did not punish this woman, did He invalidate capital punishment as a part of the Law? Many Christians say that it is invalid for the reason of what Jesus said and did here. And if that is true, that capital punishment was no longer valid. He could rewrite the Mosaic Law because it is His Law.

The Mosaic Law spelled it out and now Paul will.

For it is a minister of God to you for good. The government is instituted for our benefit.

Rom 13:4–5 For it is a servant of God to you for good. For if you practice evil, be afraid, for it does not bear the sword in vain; for it is a servant of God, a revenger for wrath on him who does evil. Therefore you must be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience' sake.

Government is designed to protect us from crime. How do argue this and, at the same time, say that Jesus did away with capital punishment?

Capital Punishment and Rom. 13

1. Rom. 13:4 is for us, divinely inspired by God the Holy Spirit.
2. Capital punishment is ordained by God in our age; just as it was under the Mosaic Law of Israel.
3. Rom. 13:4 was intended by God for the protection of human society against those who would unjustly deprive others of their lives. This is a deterrent to those actions.

We will need to analyze some things about this passage. This is going to require Bobby to go through a number of logical steps. This was an illegal kangaroo court in the Temple. Jesus did not take the law into His Own hands; nor could He change the Law as a man even though He wrote the Law as God.

A Christmas. Most people here, “It’s a boy” or “It’s a girl” although some learn that in advance. This announcement heralded the arrival of a new human life. Often it takes place in a hospital; sometimes it takes place at home. The first thing you hear is the gender of the child; and then maybe, when putting the child into the arms of the mother, with his or her name given.

Bob did have some emotional moments. Then the announcement is made for all the family and friends to hear. Uncle showed up with bats and baseballs. A big nurse came in and said quiet down or get out.

Kate Middletown, the duchess of Cambridge, delivered a child; and that child was a boy; and he is a new heir to the throne. He might be, one day, their king.

Exactly the same story 2000 years ago in the town of Bethlehem, the royal city of David.
Luke 2:7

Luke 2:7 And she brought forth her son, the First-born, and wrapped Him, and laid Him in a manger-- because there was no room for them in the inn.

The baby was laid in a trough, where animals drink. There should have been a gathering of Israelites celebrating this. There was no national celebration.

Luke 2:8 And in the same country there were shepherds living in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

Luke 2:9 And lo, the angel of the Lord came on them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them. And they were grievously afraid.

Luke 2:12 And this is a sign to you. You will find the babe wrapped, lying in a manger.

But there was a celebration of angels. This birth had an impact in heaven, which is the Angelic Conflict; and this is a central event in the Angelic Conflict.

Luke 2:13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying,

It was, in fact, an angel, who made the announcement of the unique child. Essentially that angel said, this is a boy.

Luke 2:10 And the angel said to them, Do not fear. For behold, I give to you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

In this manger lay the promise of God to His less-than-deserving creatures. This boy came to offer Himself for the salvation of mankind. This unique birth should not have come as a surprise to a nation. This birth was prophesied in the Old Testament; Isa. 9:6 53 7:14

Isa. 7:14 So, the Lord Himself shall give you a sign. Behold, the virgin will conceive and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call His name Immanuel.

This boy enters the world, but He is unlike any other child ever born. He had no human father; this is the sign of Isa. 7:14; this Child is the Promised One. This is a miracle from God.

We who celebrate this event as Christmas day, we must always remember, this is the one miracle of the Christian faith comprehending and understanding all others. The Boy is the miracle of all miracles.

The heretical gnostics and Ebionites (?) Challenged this birth. These are some of the first heretics, synthesizing Christianity with humanist ideas. Synthesis denied directly the virgin birth, denying the divinity of the Babe in the manger. This would be repeated time after time. For at least another 1500 years, His supernatural birth was held by most in the church.

Then the more modern objections like Rousseau and John Locke and Voltaire. This was called the Age of Reason, which excluded the miraculous. Today, these same doubts are profuse, from both inside and outside the church. These humanist skeptics bled into the various Christian cults as well. Scientifically impossible; it is not provable; rationally or empirically.

The virgin birth could not have happened, say some of them. But there is not Christianity apart from Christmas. We are told that we must be tolerant; whereas, they are intolerant. Believers there is a combination of reasonableness and tolerance. There is dogmatism and intolerance in the home. A familial authority which must be accepted. Reasonableness in its objective. Without firm guidelines, there is nothing but confusion and arrogance in children. There is also necessary dogmatism and intolerance in the classroom; otherwise, there would be no order and the building upon of facts. These are necessary in these areas. This is also found in the army. Intolerance with the reasonable objective of keeping soldiers alive. Intolerant of deviations within the training. This is also true in the business world. The honest businessman must require honesty in his business in his books; this is reasonable; it keeps him out of jail.

One can be even more dogmatic and intolerant about the virgin birth; and it is essential to the Christian faith. Can we be dogmatic about this doctrine? This intolerance is never of the ignorant or narrow-minded type. This is where dogmatism and intolerance comes in. Yet God is reasonable in the pages of Scripture. In Scripture it is never a question on how it is interpreted; but an unequivocal acceptance of its clear statements. There is no confusion that the Bible teaches the virgin birth. Doubts here open the door to a variety of -isms. Compromising the virgin birth is striking at the heart of Christianity.

Bobby is speaking of what happened on that momentous evening in that stable for that birth. This is recorded in both the Old and New Testaments. The very first time the Unique Savior is named is right at the beginning, in Gen. 3:15:

Gen 3:15 And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her Seed; He will bruise your head, and you shall bruise His heel.

The is enmity between two, between the seed of the woman and the seed of Satan. Satan will bruise the heel of our Lord; but He will bruise the head of Satan. This promise was absolutely necessary because of their sin. Adam's sin had dire consequences for all of us.

Rom. 5:12 Therefore, even as through one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin, and so death passed on all men inasmuch as all sinned.

Adam's original sin brings the human race to our hopelessness and need of salvation. The only hope for man is for another man to be born but without a sin nature. To avoid the universal sin nature, Christ must bypass natural generation and be born of a virgin woman. Any other birth makes a child infected with the sin nature and the imputation of Adam's original sin. "I will put enmity between you and the woman." The Seed of the Woman is the salvation; this seed is the origin of salvation; the first pronouncement of Christmas.

There is Satan, mankind, and there is the Seed of the Woman; and these 3 are in play throughout history.

Luke 2:11 For to you is born today, in the city of David, a Savior, who is Christ the Lord.

Lesson #2

John 8: Life of Christ

11/22/2013 2Sunday

The fall of man and the judgment upon Satan. The animosity between Satan's seed and the Seed of the Woman.

Gen 3:15 And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her Seed; He will bruise your head, and you shall bruise His heel.

The Woman's Seed can be translated Descendant.

Satan Opposes the Seed of the Woman with Every Ounce of His Deceit and Brilliance.

1. The Seed of the Woman is the hope of mankind
2. The seed of the Woman is our deliverance
3. The Seed of the Woman is Satan's doom. His fiery doom flashes right before his eyes as he thinks of this passage.

The Seed of the Woman is that boy; born to Mary, a virgin. The Baby in the manger is the Seed of the Woman; He is not the seed of the man. Adam could not be involved with the birth of Jesus.

1Cor. 15:52 for as in Adam, all die.

We are all the offspring of Adam; the exception is Jesus. We learn this right from the beginning. No normal human male-female pregnancy was involved. That is the miracle behind the virgin birth. This is the specific reference as to how Messiah would come into this world without a human father. The only way a child could come into the world without a sin nature is without a human father. So there is no spiritual dead. This requires a virgin conception.

Jesus was born into this world apart from human creation.

Luke 1:34–37 Then Mary said to the angel, How shall this be, since I do not know a man? And the angel answered and said to her, The Holy Spirit shall come on you, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow you. Therefore also that Holy One which will be born of you shall be called Son of God. And behold, your cousin Elizabeth also conceived a son in her old age. And this is the sixth month with her who was called barren. For with God nothing shall be impossible.

The same verbiage as is found here as in Genesis. This is a miraculous birth; not a sexual union.

Holy is ἅγιος Jesus was a dedicated child by means of the Holy Spirit. He was born with a unique birth; a unique purpose. The doctrine of Christmas; and the virgin birth; they are synonymous.

There are man false doctrines concerning Mary. Mary should never overshadow her Son, ever. It is a myth that Mary remained a virgin; they had other children who were Jesus' half-brothers. There was no immaculate conception where Mary lacked a sin nature. This elevates her to a place where she cannot be. She is elevated to a place where she ought not to be.

It is the Seed of the Woman that is the promise. At the completion of Mary's life, it is false that she was taken into heaven, body and soul. She was the one through whom God brought the Savior. The emphasis should always be upon her Son. He is the Son of God.

Jesus was born qualified to be our Savior; He had to be born without a sin nature. There was a special cloth which He was wrapped in, swaddling clothes, which are the pieces of cloth used to wrap dead people in.

Some Biblical writers do not mention the virgin birth; that is no indication that they did not believe it. All doctrines related to salvation is predicated upon His miraculous birth. Every believer knows this truth; and this is a vital part of Christianity. There is no event and no person which can parallel this event. Satan will always attack the supernatural doctrine of the virgin birth. In that flesh, we beheld the glory of God.

As part of Satan's deceptions, he must obscure the virgin birth. Many claim that the virgin birth is based upon pagan stories of a supernatural births. And that this was not the first time; and that the Biblical account is based upon previous myths. This is patently untrue; there is no clear parallel to a virgin birth in an early pagan literature or to any polytheistic religions. The births in those religions are a result of gods and women having intercourse. These are demigods, like Hercules and Achilles; and in mythology, these heroes are much less than perfect.

There were great claims for these Greek heroes. They were utterly fallible; and very unprincipled with no integrity. There is the true Biblical account in Gen. 6 where a super race of men were begun. These were entirely anti-God. Jesus is God. He was in the beginning with God.

Ancient emperors tried to convince that their fathers and they were gods. They saw nothing in their lives which mirrored the concept of God. They were often murderous despots; very unlike the God of the Bible. Nothing like Jesus Christ. How can such men be mentioned in the same breath as the King of Kings?

There are no real parallels to the virgin birth found in Matthew and Luke. None of these pagan birth stories are found in any history; but the birth of Jesus can be placed into history at 4 or 5 B.C.

Satan has many deceptions. His adherents claim that Old Testament heroes had supernatural births. For instance, there is Isaac. Sarah was unable to give birth. But Isaac came from the seed of the man and the woman. Yet people camp on that as a parallel to the virgin birth. All obscure that one birth in history.

They claim it is not unique or noteworthy only exposes their ignorance and unbelief. Jesus is the only One born of a virgin.

Whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have everlasting life.

Even some Christians do not understand this. Or they are embarrassed by such a story. Or they seek to water it down. But all Christology stands or falls based upon the virgin birth. The Bible records thousands of miracles and things which are outside the realm of science. Even worse, if Jesus is not born as the Scriptures say, then the world is without a Savior. It would be futile to celebrate the Christmas birth. If the unique birth is not true, then we should be satisfied to say, "Happy holidays" and leave Jesus out of this.

If Jesus is not born of a virgin, then Jesus is born as an illegitimate bastard. How all of this goes awry when you try to skirt the virgin birth? Jesus cannot be a Member of the Godhead or Perfect Humanity unless He is born of a virgin.

People pick and choose what they want to believe and what they do not want to believe. If Jesus is not virgin born, then what would He be? He would be a sinful man like all others; and in no way could He be our Redeemer. He could not be exempt from the sin and guilt of Adam.

Jesus is the 2nd Adam Who replaces the 1st Adam. His legacy is eternal life; and Adam's legacy is death. A sinful man cannot atone for the sins of others. No propitiation without the virgin birth. Those who deny the virgin birth do so at the expense of Christianity. Then salvation is based upon lies and myths. Only religious pageantry and materialism, which is how most people see Christmas elsewhere in this world.

To the unbeliever, the idea that the Creator of the Universe is born of a virgin is silly; and it is popular to say that this was invented in the Middle Ages or the Dark Ages. This is distasteful to the modern humanist. They are upset seeing a manger scene in front of a building. A miracle life demands a miracle origin. If the effect is supernatural, then the cause must be supernatural as well. A supernatural origin is not difficult to fathom, if His life is as it is described.

The virgin birth is also an uplifting truth; this revelation of the first Christmas puts Jesus where He belongs; and He is the Unique Person of the Universe. God Himself lived and moved among us. There is someone among us.

We know how lost we are; and how lost the human race is.

As such, we concede that He is our Redeemer and that He is our substitute. That is the supreme result of His virgin birth. His sinless body must be the sole offering to God.

If He is not born of a virgin, everything else about Him must be a myth as well. The reason for Bethlehem is the cross. Those sins were not really atoned for, unless Jesus is our savior. The blood of bulls cannot take away our sins. Not through the blood of goats and calves but through His Own blood. He entered the Holy Place once for all. When He was born, He was born as the True Sacrifice; the true burnt offering. Jesus entered once for all; He entered this world once for all; He paid the penalty for sin once for all.

Undiminished Deity and true humanity could accomplish such a sacrifice. Born God and man, Immanuel, God with us. All worship is to be directed toward Him. This season calls for humility, reverence and worship. We take our place with the shepherds and the wise men, and we kneel before the God of the Universe, the Boy Who became the Man of God.

He brought the grace of God into our miserable lives.

Luke 2:14 Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

Lesson #0549	John 8: Life of Christ	12/26/2013 Thurs
---------------------	-------------------------------	-------------------------

New Year's eve for Bible class and Thursday evening as well.

Bobby is going to make a short series for New Year's. Completing the study of the woman caught in adultery this evening.

Jesus was stopped and there was a question, "We have a judicial question for you." Lots of unnecessary movement and activity in that area then.

Adultery by the Mosaic Law was that the people caught in adultery were to be executed. This was a plot to catch Jesus cold. They expected that He would show no compassion to the woman or He would violate the Mosaic Law. But Jesus bent down and wrote on the ground with His finger. The pharisees were enraged, and they posed the question again.

Jesus stands up, answering them, "He who is without sin, let him be the first to throw a stone at her." Bobby assumes that Jesus is listing the sins of these men, and this causes them to leave the scene. John 8:10–11

John 8:10 And bending back up, and seeing no one but the woman, Jesus said to her, Woman, where are the ones who accused you? Did not one give judgment against you?

The woman calls Jesus Lord, which indicates that she has believed in Him and accepts His authority. Her faith in Him wipes her slate clean. She was completely forgiven of her sins, including adultery. She now had imputed +R.

The grace of God was extended to this woman, and all the people here recognized this. They all knew that they were culpable.

John 8:11 And she said, No one, Lord. And Jesus said to her, Neither do I give judgment. Go, and sin no more.

The woman still has an operative sin nature. So she will sin again. This admonition of Jesus does not mean that she will never sin again. We all sin and we are all believers. Therefore, Jesus could not have meant, "You will never sin again." Jesus here is telling her to extract herself from this adulterous entanglement. As we grow, we can control more and more. "Grow up now; now you are a believer."

Before we leave this story, Bobby wants to deal with a legal question. He will get technical here. What Bobby is going to do is reveal how Jesus thinks and operates. Jesus pioneered it, we have the operational spiritual life.

We will look at a legal question. Did Jesus nullify capital punishment here. Since He pronounced no sentence here, this means that Jesus would not approve of capital punishment. This is a hot button issue today. He failed to sentence the adulterous woman, did He invalidate capital punishment as inhumane?

We need to come to a legal meaning of this story. The power of the sword; punishment. Is our Lord contradicting Paul?

The whole process of the pharisee accusation was filled with illegality. There was no attorney; it was out of the jurisdiction of the pharisees, and they were in the wrong place. All of what was going on was illegal. The Law of Moses in this case of adultery required both offenders to be dealt with on an equal basis. This is unique. In that era, people were dealt with unequally; women got the shaft. But God deals with them equally. The pharisees failed to do this. Lev. 20:10 both man and woman were to be indicted and, if convicted, they were to be executed. So this process was legally defective without the partner here. The pharisees were altering part of the law for their own advantage.

The legal procedure violated the Mosaic Law. The second problem. A capital case had to be taken before a duly constituted court of law. There was a panel of elders in Jerusalem near the gate of the city; and this is where cases like this were taken. The pharisees bypassed that proper procedure. This is a lynch mob. She was convicted without due process. In this case, our Lord had no legal standing. He had no legal standing in the criminal court of the Jews or the Romans. He is being asked to make a ruling; but He could not be called upon to make a determination; He was not a judge.

The pharisees were not after justice. It is never about that. When it comes down to it; the pharisees nullified the rule of law to gain an advantage over our Lord.

The sanhedrin, the sadducees and pharisees, did not have the right to inflict the death penalty on anyone. They could pronounce the death sentence, but they could not carry out the execution apart from the approval of the Roman governor. The prime example which we have is, our Lord; Who was condemned by the Sanhedrin, and then hauled in front of Pontius Pilate, who gave his okay for the execution. Pilate washed his hands because he knew he was allowing an innocent man to be executed.

The pharisees were using this death penalty situation as a maneuver; not to gain a legal decision. The pharisees had another reason for doing this. The pharisees were asserting their ultimate authority in legal matters.

Legally, any death sentence opinion could not be binding under the current Roman law. It would be illegal for Jesus to make some sort of official ruling. The pharisees removed themselves because they knew that this was a mockery of law. They realized that they were on the wrong side of the law here.

This is why Jesus refused to give a legal opinion. This would violate all legal procedure. It is clear from the legal standpoint.

Summation

1. The pharisees had no authority or standing in this case to pronounce guilt or to nullify the capital punishment.
2. Jesus did not have the legal authority under the legal procedure in that land to give a ruling. He was not a valid judge in this. This was a legal question under Jewish and Roman law. This is not His jurisdiction.

3. God gave law to oversee the laws of men and to curb criminality. Rom. 13:4 capital punishment is a part of this law.
4. Jesus Christ would not violate the laws of divine establishment here, which included capital punishment. Nor would He change the law to refute the pharisees.
5. Jesus Christ threw out His ministry and His life and He never took the law into His Own hands, even though the Mosaic Law is His law. He could change any law. However, God does not change; God is immutable. Our Lord did not need to change one bit of it.
6. Christ always maintained divine establishment deference. He always adhered to the rule of law. People are beginning to rule here by fiat. People are writing regulations to circumvent law. Bureaucrats have become our legal system.
7. Jesus lived by the code of ethics prescribed by our law. The Mosaic Law was designed by God, not to be kept complete; but it condemned all mankind. This showed man just how short he fell of obeying the standards. But Jesus fulfilled the Mosaic Law.
8. Jesus violating His Own Law would be sin. This Jesus could not do, and maintain His perfection and go to the cross as our substitute. Just one sin by Jesus Christ before the cross would have disqualified Him as our Savior. He had to be the perfect Lamb of God to bear our sins. This is the only way He could propitiate the wrath of the Father. This little legal matter is right to the heart of Jesus' relationship to the Law.
9. Jesus never took the tenants of the Law lightly or frivolously.

There was a lot on the line here, when it comes to Jesus and the Law. If He acquitted the woman, then He put Himself above the Law; if He condemned her to death, he violated His compassion.

Jesus was not a revolutionary. He kept the law perfectly. A revolutionary is a law unto himself.

Another question is raised, does this woman deserve to die for her transgression? Was this punishment prescribed by the Mosaic Law too harsh for a more enlightened society? Wasn't the Mosaic Law designed for a more primitive time?

To our thinking, this seems quite harsh to put a woman or a man for adultery; there would be a lot of dead people.

Is this God setting a precedent for capital punishment? Is He reducing the eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth concept of the Law? Is Jesus repealing capital punishment.

This was not Jesus' option to change these laws. What does it mean when Jesus did not pronounce a sentence of death on this woman? That would have violated the Law for Him to do this.

Jesus never dismisses the guilt of this woman. It is not as if He is too enlightened to call for a death sentence. Jesus did nothing like this.

Jesus and the Woman's Sin

1. When Jesus said, "Go and sin no more;" He was indicating that she was guilty of this specific sin and crime. He did not dismiss the sin or the punishment.
2. He plainly implied that the woman was guilty under the Law.
3. He never removed the mode of punishment, which was stoning to death, for that offense. He never said, "I am relieving you of the death sentence."
4. Jesus had no standing in their legal standing to make this decision. "Did no one katakrinô you?" Both parties knew that the death penalty was a valid punishment; otherwise, they would have never dragged her before Jesus.

Κατακρίνω means to condemn to death; and since no one condemned her to death, she was free to go. She was never convicted legitimately in court. She may have been guilty but she was not taken through the legal process. Our Lord dealt with this woman as an individual case to make a doctrinal point (not to make a legal point). "Therefore, I do not condemn you to death either;" and Jesus here is speaking in the spiritual realm. He is not making a legal ruling.

Jesus and the Law

1. This was not a change of law by fiat.
2. Jesus was not changing the Mosaic Law or the rule of law.
3. He was not authorized to pass any sentence like this under the law.
4. Jesus did not violate the Mosaic Law or the Roman law. Yet He was condemned by both laws.
5. Jesus would take not part to condemn the woman legally; that was not His place.

This was all about her salvation. She could have been legally taken before the Roman court and convicted of adultery. They pharisees did not do that. Jesus is not violating any portion of Scripture. Capital punishment is still a valid punishment for a specified crime. It is still a part of divine establishment for those crimes still specified as capital crimes.

Our legal code does not specify a death penalty for adultery. But we do have the death penalty for other crimes. The death penalty itself is not a cruel or unusual punishment; it is a valid punishment. How it is administered is another thing.

The principle of capital punishment is to honor the victim and punish the guilty.

What Is the Critical Doctrine Being Taught by Jesus?

1. Jesus brought forward the truth that every man is condemned before the Lord and guilty. Jesus intimated that she was guilty.
2. The penalty is eternal death; the worst punishment.

3. Capital punishment is prescribed by God for rejecting Jesus Christ. That is the spiritual principle.
4. Jesus Christ came to earth for the expressed purpose of paying the penalty for sins for all mankind; He came to pardon man for his sins from the wrath of God.
5. Every individual who believes in Jesus, the eternal death penalty is lifted. That Jesus can do. "Neither do I condemn you."
6. What Jesus did for this woman was release her from the power of sin and death. That is the whole point. It was not about capital punishment. It is about her released from capital punishment.

This ends our study of this adulterous woman.

Lesson #0001

John 8: Life of Christ

12/29/2013 1Sunday

Throughout the year 2013, people have been asking a particularly grim question: what is happening to the United States of America? There is a creeping loss of freedom; an overreach of government; a loss of privacy; there is a lack of integrity; and sin is an anachronism in the thinking of many people; and there appears to be a war against Christianity. The divine establishment laws designed by God have been rejected, mocked and/or disregarded by many people in our country. Our nation is ignoring these fundamentals of society. We have leaders who mislead and lie as policy. We see a bankrupt nation of almost insurmountable debt. We promote as a nation gay marriage; we observe escalating violence; churches are failing miserably to teach the Word of God. Under a veneer of prosperity, there is a huge decay in our lives. Environmentalism is a new God; humanism is the new religion; the Bible is rejected because it opposes the direction that we are going in. The American dream has become receiving free stuff. They do not care that others pay for their lives of lethargy; and they call for the government to pay for more and more benefits. The rich are vilified, so that their wealth is redistributed, which is governmental theft. Poverty with a system like this increases. In the end it will cause economic collapse and the rise of a tyrannical government. We are showing great weakness in the face of our enemies. We are unable to stop Iran from getting a bomb. Russia and China now have more influence in the world than the United States. And we are wavering in our support for Israel, which is one cornerstone in a client nation.

Escape to pleasure is the only response. They indulge in promiscuity, in drugs, in alcohol, and it all fails to provide satisfaction and happiness. Churches are failing. Bible doctrine in many churches is denigrated as ineffective; so that there is no advancing spiritual life among believers. A paucity of divine viewpoint is not found; political activism is the substitute; or emotional activity. Praise and worship services, but with plenty of hand waving and shouting.

You should recognize some of these things from your own experience. We as a nation are headed straight for a train wreck. Are you ready for any disaster which may lie in your future or in the nation's future? Can you face the disintegration of everything you have known in life? Are you ready for freedom to be limited or even to disappear? Are you ready for the military and terrorism in your own city. Are you ready to be ridiculed as a Bible-believing Christian. The only real and lasting solution is spiritual. It is not political and not activist.

100 years ago this year in August of 1914, one of the greatest disasters occurred, WWI, which was a disaster. We must be prepared; trained in Bible doctrine, so that under pressure, we can apply the principles of Bible doctrine, come what may in life.

Let's explore a believer who faced perhaps the greatest disaster in adversity that anyone in history has ever faced; we will see how he handled horrendous situations with divine viewpoint. One of the greatest believers of all time in facing disasters is Job. There will certainly be parallels to our own life.

Job 1:1 There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job. And that man was perfect and upright, and one who feared God and turned aside from evil.

Uz is in modern-day Syria or in Edom.

Job had a wonderful relationship with God because he feared the Lord; he had Bible doctrine in his soul. He was a mature believer with divine viewpoint in his soul. He applied this divine viewpoint to his circumstances.

He is quite the opposite of human viewpoint thinkers. He lived a spiritual life which was a part of that dispensation, which was the Age of the Gentiles. He followed the rituals prescribed by God in Job 1:5. He used all of the assets which God provided him for spiritual growth. In the future, he would need every ounce of that doctrine.

Job 1:2 And there were born to him seven sons and three daughters.

Job 1:3 And his possessions were seven thousand sheep and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she asses, and a very great household, so that this man was the greatest of all the men of the east.

We will see that he was a very successful businessman. He had a number of children and a gang of servants. God had prospered him like no one else. Easy to serve the Lord when in prosperity. That caught the attention of Satan.

Job 1:4 And his sons went and feasted in the house of each one on his day. And they sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them.

Job 1:5 And when they had gone around the day of feasting, Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all. For Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned and cursed God in their hearts. So Job did always.

Job 1:6 And a day came when the sons of God came to present themselves before Jehovah. And Satan also came among them.

Satan implored God to bring disaster upon Job, to see how he would react. God permitted the adversity so that He might be vindicated.

Job 1:7 And Jehovah said to Satan, From where do you come? Then Satan answered Jehovah and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

Job 1:8 And Jehovah said to Satan, Have you set your heart against My servant Job, because there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and upright man, one who fears God and turns away from evil?

Job 1:9 And Satan answered Jehovah and said, Does Job fear God for nothing?

If Job lost it all, he would no longer be a model believer.

Job 1:10 Have You not made a hedge around him, and around his house, and around all that he has on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his livestock have increased in the land.

Job 1:11 But put forth Your hand now, and touch all that he has, and he will curse You to Your face.

Job 1:12 And Jehovah said to Satan, Behold, all that he has is in your power. Only do not lay your hand upon him. And Satan went forth from the presence of Jehovah.

Job 1:13 And a day came when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house.

All of these disasters all occurred within a 24 hour period of time.

Job 1:14 And there came a messenger to Job and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them.

Job 1:15 And the Sabeans fell on and took them away. Yea, they have killed the servants with the edge of the sword. And I only have escaped alone to tell you.

Job 1:16 While he was still speaking, there also came another and said, The fire of God has fallen from the heavens and has burned up the sheep and the servants, and destroyed them. And I only have escaped alone to tell you.

The Chaldeans stole his camels.

Job 1:17 While he was still speaking, there also came another and said, The Chaldeans made out three bands and swooped down upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and have killed the servants with the edge of the sword. And I only have escaped alone to tell you.

Then a storm hit and knocked down the house of his children. In one day, family and business was completely destroyed; and only the wife remained; and she turned out to be a complete liability.

Job 1:18 While he was still speaking, there also came another and said, Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house.

Job 1:19 And, behold, a great wind came from the wilderness and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead. And I only have escaped alone to tell you.

Job fell into great sadness; but his spiritual life carried him through the tears. He never wavered in his trust of God.

Job 1:20 And Job arose, and tore his robe, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground and worshiped.

Job in all of this made one of the most fantastic statements of grace orientation. Sometimes these words are read at funerals. "I came with nothing and I will leave this world with nothing."

Job 1:21 And he said, "I came naked out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return there. Jehovah gave, and Jehovah has taken away. Blessed be the name of Jehovah."

His focus is upon God. He had everything and he lost everything. His focus was on God. Job looked to glorify God in all of his ways. That is divine viewpoint expressed in overwhelming disaster. This is a man with problem solving devices in his soul. He articulated the ultimate in Bible doctrine. This carried him through each day, despite the disaster all around him.

Job 1:22 In all this Job did not sin, nor charge God foolishly.

In all that occurred, Job did not sin and he did not blame God. "Could I do that?"

But then arrives a new set of problems; 3 of his friends. They came to commiserate with him, but they put doubts in his mind about these disasters. They urge him to become reflective and focus inside as to why these problems are occurring. They all decided what Job's problem was. They knew that Job's sins were the problems. They are the legalists.

Job was baffled. He had no idea what sin he had committed which made him as he is.

True friends remind you of doctrine; false friends remind you of your sins and failures.

Job 2:1 And it happened that a day came when the sons of God came to present themselves before Jehovah. And Satan also came among them to present himself before Jehovah.

Job 2:2 And Jehovah said to Satan, From where do you come? And Satan answered Jehovah and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

Job 2:3 And Jehovah said unto Satan, Have you set your heart on My servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one who fears God and turns away from evil? And still he is keeping hold of his integrity, although you moved Me against him to destroy him without cause.

Job 2:4 And Satan answered Jehovah and said, Skin for skin, yea, all that a man has he will give for his life.

Job 2:5 But indeed put forth Your hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse You to Your face.

Job 2:6 And Jehovah said to Satan, Behold, he is in your hand, but save his life.

Job 2:7 And Satan went forth from the presence of Jehovah and struck Job with sore boils from the sole of his foot to the top of his head.

Job 2:8 And he took a broken piece of pottery to scrape himself with. And he sat down among the ashes.

Job 2:9 And his wife said to him, Do you still hold to your integrity? Curse God and die!

Job 2:10 But he said to her, You speak as one of the foolish ones speak. What? Shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? In all this Job did not sin with his lips.

Job 2:11 And Job's three friends heard of all this evil that had come upon him, and they each one came from his own place: Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite. For they had met together to come to mourn with him and to comfort him.

Job 2:12 And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, and did not know him, they lifted up their voice and wept. And each one tore his robe, and they sprinkled dust upon their heads toward Heaven.

Job 2:13 And they sat down with him upon the ground seven days and seven nights. And no one spoke a word to him, for they saw that his grief was very great.

Now Job focuses too much on himself. Job is confused. He looks to God as the source of his problems; but God is the solution to our problems.

Job 3:1 After this Job opened his mouth and cursed his day.

Job 3:2 And Job spoke and said,

He asks, essentially, "What did I do wrong?"

Job 3:3 Let the day perish in which I was born, and the night which said, A man-child is conceived.

Job 3:4 Let that day be darkness. Let not God look upon it from above, neither let the light shine upon it.

God is letting evil happen to Job; and Job is implying that God is therefore evil. There is no evil in God. In God's plan, even evil in the world can work to our advantage. Job loved God; he revered God.

He did not blame God; nor did he sin, as his friends told him he had.

Job 3:5 Let darkness and the shadow of death claim it. Let a cloud dwell upon it; Let the blackness of the day terrify it.

Job 3:6 As for that night, let darkness seize upon it. Let it not rejoice among the days of the year, Let it not come into the number of the months.

Job 3:7 Lo, let that night be barren; let no joyful voice come in it.

Job 3:8 Let those curse it who curse the day, who are ready to stir up Leviathan.

Job 3:9 Let the stars of its twilight be dark; let it look for light, but have none. Let it not see the eyelids of the dawn.

Job 3:10 For it did not shut up the doors of my mother's womb, nor hide sorrow from my eyes.

Job 3:11 Why did I not die from the womb, come from the womb and expire?

Job 3:12 Why did the knees go before me; or why the breasts, that I should suck?

Job 3:13 For now I should have lain still and been quiet; I should have slept. Then I would have been at rest

Job 3:14 with kings and wise men of the earth, who built ruins for themselves,

Job 3:15 or with princes who had gold, who filled their houses with silver;

Job 3:16 or as a hidden untimely birth I would not have been, like infants who did not see light.

Job 3:17 There the wicked cease from troubling, and there the weary are at rest;

Job 3:18 the prisoners are at rest together; they hear not the voice of the slave driver.

Job 3:19 The small and the great are there, and the slave is free from his master.

Job 3:20 Why is light given to one who is in misery, and life to the bitter in soul,

Job 3:21 who is waiting for death, but it comes not; and dig for it more than for treasures?

Job 3:22 They are rejoicing to exultation. They are glad when they can find the grave.

Job 3:23 To a man whose way is hidden, God has made a hedge about him.

Job 3:24 For my sighing comes before I eat, and my groanings are poured out like the waters.

Job 3:25 For the thing which I greatly feared has come upon me, and that which I was afraid of has come to me.

Job 3:26 I was not in safety, nor did I have rest, nor was I quiet; yet trouble comes.

Job and His Problems

1. Job did not blame God.
2. He thought he had sinned.
3. If he was not insynch with God's plan, then it would be good to not have been born.
4. Certainly Job was on target regarding the importance of God's plan. God's plan included some disaster. God's plan can include some adversity. These are things we would rather did not happen; but it is for our benefit.
5. Job did not need to lament or to place blame. He needed to wait on God; he needed to be patient and watch the plan of God unfold before his very eyes. "Blessed be the name of the Lord, no matter what.

Eliphaz was a self righteous believer, and he assumed that he had sinned and that was the reason for his sin. But he actually tells Job a few things that are worthwhile.

Job 5:8 will be the central passage of our study. The best things we can do is have a relaxed mental attitude in the midst of a great personal disaster. Job couldn't be rude to his friends. He looked and thought and trusted in God. Job could say, "Why should I worry? It does not help."

Job 5:8 Truly, I would seek to God, and to God I would put my plea,

Lesson #0002

John 8: Life of Christ

11/29/2013 2Sunday

If you missed the first session, you missed a real barn-burner. Job's barn burned to the ground. Job is the model; but he did fail from time to time. Overall, he is one of the greatest believers in history. Job is one of the books which defines and describes the Angelic Conflict quite well. The book is in the library.

Job would become one of the greatest witnesses for God in the Angelic Conflict. If you can apply doctrine like Job, you might be too.

Job understood that God's grace was entirely sufficient. God's plan, even though it is not fully understood at the time, is in his best interest. Job would end up depending solely upon the plan of God rationale. That is what is beneficial. That is what makes Job's condition so instructive to us.

We are also in the midst of the Angelic Conflict. Today it is even more intensive than in the time of Job. Job did have some things to learn, but he does show us how to handle things. He does not know all the reasons for the suffering that he is going through. Even though Job had no idea why such disaster came into his life, he stood up under pressure. He was oriented to grace and fulfilling God's plan. Job's attitude was glorifying to God, which is what counts.

Even the greatest disasters which life puts to us, is often an opportunity. The darkest adversity often allows us to shine through with an attitude of grace orientation. Job was not, at this time, aware of God's purpose, any more than some of us today.

What the specifics are, are specific to us, but we learn to depend upon Him.

Eliphaz is Job's self righteous friend; and that is what is being said here.

Job 5:1 Call now, is there anyone who will answer you? And to which of the saints will you turn?

Job 5:2 For vexation kills the fool, and envy slays the simple one.

Job 5:3 I have seen the fool taking root, but suddenly I cursed his dwelling place.

Job 5:4 His children are far from safety, and they are crushed in the gate, nor is there any to deliver them.

Job 5:5 Their harvest the hungry eats, and takes it even out of the thorns; and the snare swallows up their wealth.

Job 5:6 For affliction does not come forth from the dust, nor does trouble spring up out of the ground;

Job 5:7 but man is born to trouble, as the sparks fly upward.

Is this just a morality play? Did this really happen to one person? It is not always easy to understand this, as circumstances like Job's can elicit reactive emotionalism. Even if our adversity is very small, somewhere we reside. Maybe somewhere, we have had it. If you react in emotionalism, you have failed.

Job and Emotionalism

Emotionalism is the opposite of what Job is doing here. .

1. Seek the Lord; put your case before Him. Do not seek a human answer. Put your trust in the Lord
2. Emotionalism scrambles your mind.
3. Emotionalism = irrationality.
4. Emotionalism is the enemy of utilizing the spiritual life to overcome disaster.

Job kept looking up; he kept thinking about God. He sought God and he places himself in God's hands, and Eliphaz says.

Job 5:8 Truly, I would seek to God, and to God I would put my plea,

Job is to continuously consult the Lord. This is the opposite of emotionalism. This is thinking; this is not emotionalism. This is looking to stability in the middle of adversity. "I would be positive toward God through His Word."

The circumstances do not matter. We all think about our condition of life; who we are and what we are going through. But the key is, where is your focus? This must be doctrine; whatever is resident in your soul.

Job expresses real positive volition.

Inadquate Positive Volition

Amongst believers, there are certain forms of positive volition which are inadequate for a crisis. There are semblances of positive volition which are failures.

1. Positive volition based upon a little emotion; a flash of emotion, and temporarily, you are inspired to inquire of the Lord. "I'm on fire for the Lord!" This cannot be sustained. These people are easily distracted by circumstances and are thrown off course.
2. When disaster occurs, inadequate positive volition manifests itself by seeking a quick solution from God. Find the easy way out. I am positive, but I want a quickie. Quickly make it stop hurting. "I am turned to You, Lord;" but they are not continually positive. They implore God to wave His magic wand to solve their dilemma. They apply little doctrine to the crisis and they do not continue in doctrine after the crisis is over. Job asks for teaching and correction in Job 6:24 Teach me and I will be silent. Show me how I have erred. Job did not want to fail God. Job had his bad moments, brought on by his difficulty understanding the cause of his disaster. Therefore, I will speak in the anguish of my spirit;... Bitterness is often just self-pity; and this is a pitfall that we need to be aware of. There are pivotal moments that we must recover from these doubts. We need to keep moving no matter what. We disappear, but God does not.
3. The nod-to-God crowd. They are intermittent in metabolizing God's Word. They show up for Easter and Christmas. They see Bible doctrine as a means to get what they want. They absorb the bare minimum of Bible doctrine to be sure that God is on their side. "I am here; bless me." These people are often on the verge of some big deal; some prosperity. "Bring on the blessing."

4. A traumatic experience; they are involved in some debilitating sin, like promiscuity, drug addiction, alcoholism, criminal acts; and they have tried some human viewpoint approaches, but nothing sticks because there is no doctrinal approach. They have been traumatized into positive volition. They do get on the right track and they have come to the right place. But some will have this as fleeting. Job had consistent positive volition. These people seek the plan of God for their lives, in good times and in bad times.

"I would inquire of God is a good attitude. You can pray for God to make it stop hurting; but better to ask for guidance.

Job 5:8 Truly, I would seek to God, and to God I would put my plea,

How blessed is the man who seeks the Lord, and does not revert to human viewpoint. He throws his cause upon God.

Job 5:9 Who is doing great things, even beyond searching; marvelous things without number,

Then Job speaks of what God does, great things, unsearchable. This is the faith rest rationale, helpful in any disaster.

The verb to do is the Qal active participle of asah. God provides from His omnipotence that no one else can provide. Therefore, we would say by application, God bestows in the lives of believers, great and amazing things.

Job 5:9 Who is doing great things, even beyond searching; marvelous things without number,

What things will God do for us? That is covered in the next few verses.

Job 5:10–12 who gives rain on the earth and sends waters on the field, to set on high those who are low, so that those who mourn may be lifted up to safety; frustrating the plans of the crafty, nor did their hands do wisely.

Some of the greatest disasters in life are things which the government does to us.

Job 5:13 He takes the wise in their own craftiness; and the counsel of the wily is carried headlong.

Nothing is impossible with God. You think your situation is impossible? Job's situation is impossible.

Job 5:14–16 They meet with darkness in the day time, and grope in the noonday as in the night. But He saves the poor from the sword, from their mouth, and from the hand of the mighty. And there is hope for the weak, and injustice shuts her mouth.

Job 5:17 Behold, blessed is the man whom God corrects. Therefore do not despise the chastening of the Almighty.

Job 5:18 For He makes sore, and binds up; He wounds, and His hands make whole.

Then Eliphaz hits upon some accurate doctrine. Natsal means to grab away, to snatch away; and this is in the causal stem (Hiphil). God can snatch away from imminent trouble or disaster. This ought to be a confidence builder. This is a promise which is so easily forgotten. When you are in adversity, without doctrine in your soul; and panic overtakes you. Impatience for God to work out your problems. If you are without that confidence, you will be in a dither. You will be completely disturbed. Otherwise, in disaster, the believer will become afraid; resentful, and some even blame God.

This is why Eliphaz's advice here is good. He presents the real solution to Job's problems, even though he thinks the problem of Job's troubles is sin.

Job 5:19 He will deliver you in six troubles; yea, in seven no evil shall touch you.

Job 5:20 In famine He shall redeem you from death; and in war from the power of the sword.

Only 4 disasters will be covered in our study. We ought to have all of these disasters in our lives at one time or another. All believers face these disasters.

There is famine, warfare, the scourge of the tongue; and finally, facing death. These disasters can be personal, national or both.

You may not have money problems now, but your nation does. We face an implacable foe in the Muslim religion. We will face death and we will face the scourge of the tongue. Adversity and disaster are inevitable.

But, in the midst of this, evil will not touch you. Touch is naga + the negative adverb lo; so to not produce a desired effect. This is Job's testimony.

The Believer Affected by Evil in Disaster

1. Bible doctrine protects the mentality of your soul from the effects of disaster. You will not go off in emotionalism like a Roman candle. People go to pieces, yell, scream, and even jump out of windows.
2. The disaster will not have an evil affect ton your attitude or upon your spiritual life. If it affects your spiritual life, then you cannot overcome it.
3. Without doctrine, you will become fearful, uncertain, reactive, miserable and angry at God.
4. Anger toward God leads to bitterness in your soul; and bitterness is an evil effect that leads to disaster in your life. Total disaster.

It is easy to say, but to practice it? When will this happen?

The 4 general disasters which you cannot allow into your thinking. Let's give them a face. Job 5:20a in famine, He will redeem you from death. This is a failure of crops. This is hunger.

Millions have stopped looking for jobs; and this is a downward spiral. Mounting debt; money taken out of the economy. Eventually, the whole economic system will just break down. The debt can overwhelm us. Politicians assure us that they have it all under control. They hope that the House of Cards does not tumble while they are in office.

Bureaucratic tentacles with a nightmare of regulations. People listen to their deceptions and their lies, and they live on other people's money. Entitlement mentality is a national disaster. This has already happened in Europe. There will be blood in the streets; rioting, looting, destruction in the streets.

But God will redeem us from death. Padah means to deliver; the believer will be physically delivered out from the disaster. Out of harm's way. Does this mean that we are guaranteed to have money when everyone else is flat broke? Not necessarily. This is not a promise of no discomfort or hardship. This is a promise of deliverance from death.

Deliverance from Death in Famine

1. God in His grace has a purpose for us, even in this life of disaster.
2. God will protect and deliver us through anything, that we might fulfill His purpose for our lives. He will provide the means necessary to do so.
3. You can be caught in the meat grinder. God's plan is always functioning, whether ours falls apart or not.
4. God will provide the means of living in order to fulfill His plan.
5. If you are fulfilling Job 5:8, seeking God, He will take us where you need to go. Relaxing and facing the circumstances; delivered through the disaster. When you place your cause before God, adversity will be the most exciting time of your life, if you are prepared. This can only be true of a believer with doctrine in his soul. Then you can claim 1Peter 5:7 casting your cares upon Him because He cares for you.

One More Principle You Will Be Delivered from Death.

1. No believer can be removed from life by economic disaster unless God permits it.
2. As long as you are alive, God will deliver us from demise. in the midst of depression.
3. God in His matchless grace will physically provide at least enough to carry out His plan.

Esther, "If I die, I die." That is the deliverance of God's grace logistics for everyone of us. Great to have this perspective regardless of conditions. 3 more disasters to study next time around.

Job 5:20 In famine He shall redeem you from death; and in war from the power of the sword.

New Year's Eve Communion service: The ceremony must be accompanied by thinking. This memorial to Jesus Christ must come from the doctrine resident in our soul.

We understand Him in part by understanding the Hypostatic Union. No loss of attributes. No transfer of attributes. The two natures are and always will be separate. He was born without a sin nature; He lived a sinless life on earth, which qualified Him to be judged in our place before God. We understand this by the impeccability on earth. Non posi pocari; and Posi non pecari (able not to sin); For God cannot be tempted by evil; and Him Himself does not tempt anyone. The humanity of Jesus had volition. He was tempted many times and in many ways. He made decisions not to sin; He was able not to.

This is the prototype spiritual life in His humanity. Experience did not come with an internal conflict; all temptation came from outside of His soul.

Jesus was the perfect sinless person in order to be our substitutionary sacrifice. He resisted all temptation and He was acceptable to God. He is the only one qualified to receive the penalty for sin that we deserve. Christ mediated between us and God. He accomplished mediation because He is unique, God and man; and able to represent both interests in this dispute. Because of Jesus' person and His unique role as Mediator. On the cross, Christ was able to remove the enmity between God and man and establish peace between God and man. That is the result of the mediator. He mediated our so-great salvation. He accomplished what no other man could accomplish. That is appropriated by every man who expresses faith alone in Christ alone.

What did Jesus do for us? Everything. He was born into this world to die, to bear our sins in His Own body on the cross. God the Father forsook God the Son, as He imputed all of our sins to Jesus. He took our place. He had to desert His Son, as God cannot have any contact with sin. Jesus endured in His humanity those 3 hours in association with sin.

Now, sin is no longer a barrier between us and God; our salvation is found in John 3:16. One simple act of nonmeritorious act of faith in Jesus.

We have the indwelling and the filling of the Holy Spirit. We have access to the unique spiritual life. We have the operational spiritual life. We have a reservation in heaven for eternity. As we grow spiritually, we become occupation with the Person of Christ. This is the purpose of our communion service.

Think about someone you love. What do you recall of them. Their features; how they conduct themselves under certain circumstances; the way they walk and talk. Occupation with the Person of Jesus is no different, except we have never seen Him. His unfailing love; His magnificent love. There are so many doctrines to choose from; all of these doctrines in our souls is the means to be occupied by Him. Doctrine in our own soul that makes this ritual meaningful. The best thing, to be occupied with the Person of the Lord Jesus Christ.

There is one requirement; that we be a believer in Jesus.

Job has experienced as much trouble and disaster as any man who has ever lived. This is so critical to us. This is preparation for disaster. Job is a model of how to handle disaster.

He was blameless, he was upright; he revered God and was very successful. Job was a billionaire; he had a lot of money and a large happy family. For this reason, Satan took notice of Job and joined God in heaven for a convocation; and he asked for permission to bring total disaster upon Job. "If You allow this, Job will curse you." Job will be vindicated. In one day, Satan wiped out Job's family, his employees and his wealth. No one has lost that much in a 24 hour period. Job was one of the few who had such a thing happen to him; but all for a reason. Through all this, Job did not sin nor did he blame God.

Christians blame God, thinking that it is God's job to do nothing but bless them. "Naked I came into this world and naked will I leave; blessed by the Name of the Lord." Job was occupied with Jesus Christ.

Job placed himself in God's hands. He maintained positive volition toward God's Word and God's promises. The result was a relaxed mental attitude under disaster. That is the best that you can do. We are to utilize faith rest and recognize that God does great and unsearchable things.

One of Job's friends understood some things.

Job 5:19 He will deliver you in six troubles; yea, in seven no evil shall touch you.

Job 5:20 In famine He shall redeem you from death; and in war from the power of the sword.

Job 5:21 You shall be hidden from the whip of the tongue; neither shall you be afraid of robbery when it comes.

These 4 are common to all people. They can and will happen to most of us. We may be facing one or more of these disasters right now.

The first trouble is famine, and in famine, God will deliver us from death. Today, famine is personal or national disaster or depression. We are promised to be delivered from death. God in His grace has a purpose for us in this life, even in disaster. He will protect and deliver us through anything. He will always provide the means of living in order to deliver us; but when it is our time, nothing can keep us from going home.

Without question, God is with the Christian soldier. This is a promise that the Christian soldier needs to know and to remember. This is a promise to soldiers and to civilians. Who knows what a war on terror might bring to us. However, now we have a war on our very doorstep. All of those security measures now in place do not guarantee that we will be delivered from war. But God will deliver us from the power of the sword. The sword represents weaponry. Weapons of destruction and none will harm us.

For the Lord your God is the One Who goes with you, to fight for you, to deliver you. This is appropriate for soldiers and for us as well. If you face danger, then you depend upon this verse.

Training for war makes for great warriors. Training for doctrine produces great prepared believers for everything.

Job 5:20 In famine He shall redeem you from death; and in war from the power of the sword.

You will laugh at violence and you will laugh at economic disaster.

What Does it Mean to Laugh at Violence and Economic Disaster

1. Laughter means that you have a sense of humor or a relaxed mental attitude under horrendous pressure. This is what the Christian life does for you.
2. Laughing indicates an inner tranquility. Tranquil is the believer who uses faith rest who has the attitude of grace orientation. He has spiritual self esteem; he is occupation with Christ
3. Such a believer can smile when facing disasters and trouble. Calm in the midst of all hell breaking loose.
4. The believer responds to danger with joy. He shares the happiness of God with divine viewpoint. Neh. 8:10 the joy of the Lord is your strength. This is in war and facing criminal aggression.
5. Smiling under the pressure of violence. Isa. 54:17 no weapon that is formed against you will prosper. No one touches you apart from God's plan.

Job 5:22 At destruction and famine you shall laugh; neither shall you be afraid of the beasts of the earth.

You will not be afraid of wild beasts. This is metaphorical. Fear of wild beasts is fear of a physical attack. This illustrates any violent confrontation like criminal assault. Do not be paranoid in a violent society or with an increased terrorist threat. You will see man with the eyes of reality. You will not be fooled by utopian schemes. Fear will not inhibit or stymie your life. Terrorists want you to opt for security over freedom. But you will claim a promise instead.

Then we have social disaster; verbal sins designed to destroy our target. We will be hidden from the scourge of the tongue. Chabab which means to withdraw, to hide oneself. You must hide yourself from the scourge of the tongue.

Job 5:21 You shall be hidden from the whip of the tongue; neither shall you be afraid of robbery when it comes.

If someone is jealous or angry, they will use the scourge of the tongue against you. If you are alive and in the plan of God, you will face tongue scourging.

A Few Points

1. You hide yourself by exercising positive volition toward Bible doctrine. That is the key to what Job does.
2. If you have Bible doctrine, you will have secured your own hiding place. It is a fortress in your soul.
3. When you fulfill Job 5:8 and you pursue doctrine, you have hidden yourself from any verbal cruelty. That does not mean there will be no attacks.
4. When you are hidden, verbal attacks will not intrude on your self-esteem. You have spiritual self esteem.
5. Instead of wearing your feelings on your sleeve, instead of reacting with emotionalism and then demanding retribution against the scourger, you will rise above revenge and anger.
6. You will realize the more that you are slandered, the more blessing you will receive from the Lord.
7. If you do not have Bible doctrine, you will not be able to hide yourself.
8. If you do not hide yourself, you will react with mental attitude sin from self-pity to bitterness, to hatred and vindictiveness. It is not a great way to live. You are angry all the time. You hate the world. Everyone is against you.
9. If that is the case, your spiritual life can only go down in flames, when you seek to vindicate yourself when slandered. God vindicates. That is the heritage of believers that God vindicates us. "You will laugh at slander and at misfortune."

Then there is death; and no government will eliminate violence entirely. Yet people still believe in utopias. How hard is it to look at what is right in front of us: we are no damn good. This world is not becoming a less violent place.

Jesus said, "When you hear of wars and rumors of wars; those things must take place." This is about the Tribulation and the 2nd advent; but this continues from then until now. We will always be in the midst of wars and rumors of wars. There will be no peace in our time.

Everyone wants to die in their sleep or not at all. That is fear. You cannot be afraid and be content. These are mutually exclusive. You have one or the other. The believer has no reason to fear if he is prepared for everything. With maximum content and joy in our soul, we can equate adversity with prosperity and living with dying. Heb. 12:2. This comes from spiritual advance and the development of problem solving devices in your soul, culminating in sharing the happiness of God. We can live this life in contentment.

Some Points

1. Even a violent death.
2. Such happiness never depends on people or on circumstances in life; flush or broke. That is not the reason for happiness or lack thereof.
3. God's happiness is an enduring and self-sustaining attitude.
4. A share of His confidence maintains us during violence and death.
5. You will laugh at death.

No matter what you are going through, in eternity, you will have everything.

Having a covenant with the stones and beasts of the field means that you will be in agreement with the weapons and ammunition. You do not have to fear bullets or nukes. You do not have to fear even the worst things. The weapons out there cannot kill the believer until it is his time. You are safe from these things. No violence that can reach us unless it is God's plan.

Job 5:23 For you shall be in covenant with the stones of the field; and the beasts of the field shall be at peace with you.

Personal security will not be a problem in violent times. You will know that your tent is secure. You will know is the certainty that comes from peace of mind. During this time, people lived in tents. God's hedge of protection surrounds your property and assurance. You carry divine property as well as life insurance.

You will visit your home and you will observe nothing lost. In a society where theft is so commonplace, how can you be so sure?

You can be assured that God protects. People worry constantly about their property. Put your trust in the Lord; put your cause before the Lord. Do not fear loss. Nobody lost more than Job did. There is nothing to fear when you depend upon the Lord.

What happened to Job after losing all of this? He got is back in spades. Your objective is straight-line in all of this.

There is the disaster which wipes out the human race. You will know also that your descendants will be many. This refers to the human race in general. There will never be an overall disaster which ends the human race. Propagation of humanity will continue. No great international violence, asteroids, or climate change will affect us.

Job 5:24 And you shall know that your tent is in peace; and you shall visit your fold, and shall miss nothing.

There is also family preservation. You will know that your offspring will be many. The future generation; your believing progeny; your sons and daughters will be under God's special care. Regardless of national circumstances.

Job 5:25 And you shall know that your seed will be numerous, and your offspring as the grass of the earth.

A farmer knows that there is a right time to harvest a crop. He is the expert in this decision. He knows. God is the expert when it comes to our lives. As long as God wants us on this earth, no disaster can remove us. This gives us protection from violence that most of the world does not have.

You will not necessarily die at the peak of your physical capabilities. Full vigor is the believer who remains positive all of his life. When God brings the believer, he is at the top of his game, in full spiritual vigor; full confidence in doctrine.

Job 5:26 You shall come to your grave in a full age, like a shock of grain comes in its season.

Bob could not speak; but he was in possession of a great spiritual life; at a peak. At whatever age the Lord takes you home, you have had a full and wonderful life.

Then this sums it all up.

Job 5:27 Behold this: we have searched it; it is so. Hear it and know for yourself.

Before you begin to die, before you go broke, before the roof falls in, go for spiritual maturity. When you face one of these disasters, you must use the doctrine in your own soul.

This is a great motto: Hear doctrine and know it for yourself. There is no better preparation.

The prediction for 2014 point to some disaster. Military or economic. We are on that road in this present course. Disaster will happen sooner or later. We have an input to this decline; and it is a positive input. God honors those who honor His Word. He preserves those personally and nationally those who are witnesses for the prosecution in the Angelic Conflict.

The New Year is a time for intense preparation and a time to relax as everything falls apart around us.

100 year anniversary of WWI changed the world as we know it; things are still affected by that war, 100 years later. History repeats itself. We have the preparation for disaster. Our New Year's battle cry is to remember Job.

liberation discourse 33–50

Delivery from death discourse vv. 50–59

Figurative language does not mean a figurative interpretation. This drinking from the pool of Salome was a picture of the liberation of these people from bondage to Egypt. They became God's client nation.

There was also a more important spiritual meaning in the water. The water to drink was Himself. Drinking was believing in Him. He was the Savior they were to drink. Instead of a physical deliverance, it is a spiritual deliverance. They were to drink of the spiritual water of Jesus Christ. Jesus offers Himself as the Living Water.

Jesus is pounding away at their heads until they can get it. We understand water and light and they are used as metaphors. He uses this ritual of the Temple; and this ritual has to do with light.

Jesus says that He is the light of the world. He brings an illumination of the world that they have never had before. He is salvation. He is spiritual life. He provides the freedom to move from condemnation to blessing.

The ritual is necessary to understand the metaphor.

The Temple where Jesus was teaching was called the 2nd Temple. The first was built by Solomon. Solomon's Temple was destroyed in 586 B.C. by Nebuchadnezzar.

The book of Daniel deals with this. 70 years later, Cyrus, the King of Persia (Persia defeated the Chaldean empire), allowed Zerubbabel to return to the land. He arrived in 516 B.C. and it remained in operation until the 1st century B.C. Then it was greatly expanded as a building project of Herod the Great. This was the one who attempted to threaten Jesus as an infant.

Herod was a genius. He had many skills; and one of his talents was as a master builder. His greatest legacies were the things which he built. He expanded the second Temple in order to gain some favor with the Jews. A massive reconstruction of the Temple Mount.

They were not going to build anywhere else except where God designated it to be built. Herod began some reconstructive work.

Today, there is no Temple in Jerusalem. Herod's Temple was destroyed in A.D. 70. Only the Wailing Wall and the foundation remains. But the Dome of the Rock sits on the foundation of the 2nd Temple. This is a holy shrine of Islam. It is a beautiful piece of Byzantine architecture, patterned after some of the churches in that area. Completed in A.D. 691. Since that time, Jews, Muslims and Christians have claimed this site. Today every Jew looks at that Dome and grinds their teeth. They would love to rebuild their Temple at this site.

If the Jews tore down the Dome, it would unite Islam against Israel; so there sits the Dome of the Rock. One day, there will be a restoration of the Temple in the Millennium. It will sit on that very site. God has laid all the plans. He gave all the dimensions and plans to Solomon. This is in Ezekiel about this new Temple.

In the time of our Lord, the Temple and the Temple mount still belongs to the Jews. Herod had decided to improve the Temple; and he did it solely to gain the favor of the Jews; and he liked building projects.

He needed a permit in order to build on the Temple mount. Herod needed a permit from the Jews themselves. He began construction, making an agreement with the Jewish religious leaders at the time. This was simple: during the time that Herod constructed this, all of the sacrificial feasts and offerings had to be continued. This is why all of these feasts were going on. We do not know exactly when this Temple was completed. It may have been going on during the time of Christ. Only the priests could work on this Temple; this was like a union agreement. This kept out all of the intruders.

This was renovated into a magnificent edifice. Herod's reconstruction was on the Temple mount, surrounded by walls, with 2 courts on the outside; inner courts and the very inner court, where the Holy of Holies was and the rites and rituals took place.

Jesus was teaching in the Temple proper, in the court of the women, in the inner part of the main Temple. Bobby is showing a floor plan to this temple. Outer court is called the court of the gentiles.

What It Was Like for Women in That Culture

1. The statutes of the Mosaic Law were quite different from the teachings of the pharisees and scribes.
2. In the Mosaic Law, women received equal treatment. Other codes of the ancient world were not so equal.
3. Of course, Jesus followed the tenets of the Mosaic Law.
4. Women were an integral part of the ministry of the Lord Jesus Christ. Many women followed Jesus; and many were very close to Him, including former prostitutes. He never rejected any of them or put any of them off.

It was never our Lord's purpose on earth to marry or to have children. He came to die and not to propagate.

Jesus and Women Jesus was very concerned about women

1. One of the first people healed was Peter's mother.
2. He healed the woman with the hemorrhage.
3. He raised the widow of Nain.
4. He healed the Syro-Phoenician's daughter.
5. When Mary and Martha pleaded with Him, He raised Lazarus from the dead.
6. Jesus was not of the same mind as the misogynist culture of the time.
7. He always protected the equality of women to believe and to participate in His ministry.
8. He did this without violating the roles of men and women, which were set by Him at creation. Adam had the leadership role and the woman was the responder; and this is why the apostles were men. They had positions of authority and leadership. Same for pastor-teachers today. But Jesus was not a feminist supporter.
9. The women has specific and significant roles in His ministry and in His life. We now understand why it was appropriate for Jesus to teach in the court of the women. He spoke where both men and women could hear His message. A day or two before, He had just shown mercy and grace to the adulteress woman. There was no due process for the man involved in this adultery. No war on women. How much irony is it that the Dome of the Rock sits over the Temple where Jesus allowed for equal treatment of men and women.

Then there was the court of Israel. Stairs leading up to the gate; and this was the innermost court; and this was only for the priests in one area; once a year the common man could go in? They would come in and they would walk around the altar. Why do this ritual?

On one side of the court was where there were boxes for money to be placed. This is the court of the women, where most gathered; and this is also called the treasury.

We are leading up to that ritual.

In the court of the women, there are these stairs. And they lead into the court of Israel. During the Feast of Tabernacles, every day a priest would come out and stand before the men and the women; he would be elevated over the stairs and he would speak. 4 lampstands and they stood 75 feet high. These were monstrous. They gave a little soft light over the city. This was an important part of the ritual. This represented the Lord taking care of His people in the desert. The pillar of fire led His people by night. This is how the Shekinah glory made Himself known; the 2nd Person of the Trinity.

John 8:12 Then Jesus spoke again to them, saying, I am the Light of the world. He who follows Me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

At every turn, our Lord had defeated the Pharisees in these various discussions, questions and debates. Jesus often used a metaphor, where one word stands for another word or for another concept.

The ritual was the drinking of water from the pool of Salome, which was a memorial to God delivering Israel from thirst in the desert. So Jesus uses this metaphor to represent never thirsting again. This refers to eternal deliverance from death and judgment. This metaphor was extremely effective in presenting the gospel.

Jesus leaves the Temple and goes up the Mount of Olives, which is above Jerusalem, and he stays there the evening and until the morning. Bobby shows a photograph from recently, looking down to the Dome of the Rock from the Mount of Olives.

He looked down and saw the Temple, and Bobby shows a picture of that. This is the Temple which Herod refurbished.

Jesus returned and that is where the plot of the pharisees with the woman caught in adultery was presented to Him. The pharisees slunk away.

John 8:12 is the light of the world discourse, the first of 5 discourses.

John 8:12 Then Jesus spoke again to them, saying, I am the Light of the world. He who follows Me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

After the woman, Jesus says, "I am the Light of the world." He is the Light of the World and the Light of Life. This would be a dead world without the sun. This is an obvious metaphor. But this has a great deal more depth to it than we get from a surface reading.

How does this metaphor connect to a ritual which occurred right before this. This makes His discourse extremely effective. Jesus' metaphor parallels another ritual. It took place every night during the nights of Tabernacles. Pilgrim assemble in the Temple for the ritual of the lighting of the candelabra.

Bobby shows a floor plan; and there is an inner portion and an outer court. Court of the Israelites as the inner court; and the court of the women was on the outside.

The 4 lampstands figured into this ritual. All of this takes place in the Court of the women. The larger crowd is assembled and our Lord's message is addressed to both genders. The ceremony began in the court of the gentiles; the priest came out and stood on the stairs over the people; and at this point, the golden candelabras were lit. they are 75 feet high.

This could be seen by everyone there. It represented everything in Israel's past history; the pillar of fire by which God led the Israelites. This flame represented God residing with Israel. God used this flame to lead Israel. Ex. 13:21–22. The Divine Presence in the Pillar of Fire was the Shekinah Glory. This is the Manifested Person of the Trinity. The Shekinah was the 2nd Person of the Trinity, the Son of God. So the flame represented Jesus Christ.

This ritual represented Jesus Christ as the Shekinah Glory, but right now He is present amongst them; He is in the flesh. What they were celebrating in the ritual is standing right there with them.

During the ceremony, the Levites would chant Psalm 120–134.

John 8:12 Then Jesus spoke again to them, saying, I am the Light of the world. He who follows Me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

Psalm 134:1 A Song of degrees.

Psalm 134:1 Behold, bless Jehovah, all servants of Jehovah, who stand by night in the house of Jehovah.

Psalm 134:2 Lift up your hands in the sanctuary, and bless Jehovah.

Psalm 134:3 May Jehovah, who made the heavens and earth, bless you out of Zion.

Isa. 42:6 I Jehovah have called You in righteousness, and will hold Your hand, and will keep You, and give You for a covenant of the people, for a Light of the nations;

The Old Testament is filled with references to the light; to God being the light.

Isa. 42:7 to open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the prison, those who sit in darkness out of the prison house.

Isa. 42:8 I am Jehovah; that is My name; and My glory I will not give to another, nor My praise to graven images.

Isa. 42:9 Behold, the former things have come to pass, and new things I declare; before they happen, I cause you to hear.

The pharisees and some of the people walk in darkness and they will see a great light. They should have seen the Light of the World.

John in the desert said, “This is the True Light” referring to Jesus Christ.

The ritual was reenacted many times; and it had just occurred for 7 straight nights before Jesus

His meaning was not lost on these people. They understood that His claim was Light was Messianic. “I am your Messiah.”

Jesus' Meaning

1. No one, Jew or Gentile, had to walk in the darkness of ignorance, sin or death.
2. All can have eternal life by the One standing before them
3. He and He alone illuminates the darkness of unbelief in their souls.

4. He brings to them the light of salvation.

Later in the New Testament, Jesus identify and His claim to be the Light is confirmed later.

1John 1:5 And this is the message which we have heard from Him and declare to you, that God is light, and in Him is no darkness at all.

1John 1:6 If we say that we have fellowship with Him and walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth.

1John 1:7 But if we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin.

Lesson #0552

John 8: Life of Christ

1/5/2014 2Sunday

John 8:12 Then Jesus spoke again to them, saying, I am the Light of the world. He who follows Me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

Jesus refers to Himself as the Light; in His humanity, he is unadulterated and without sin; and in Him is the Light of Life.

What Bobby is going to do this morning is make the application of this statement.

Eph. 5:8 For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord; walk as children of light

We are commanded to walk as children of light. We have this illumination and we are no longer in the dark.

Eph. 5:9 (for the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth),

3 things are the result of fruit of walking in light. καρπος is fruit. This is the result or outcome or product. It is the result of the believer walking in the light. 3 production results come from walking in the light.

Walking in the Light

1. Walking as children of light is the production of light in our life.
2. What is that production? This is a reflection of light in the Lord. We are not light, but we can reflect light. When you walk, there is a reflection. The Shekinah Glory was manifested in the burning bush; and when He was on Mount Sinai, Moses returned with a glowing face.
3. Bobby wrote his master thesis on the Shekinah Glory. 3 phase of the Shekinah Glory:
 - a. With Israel, in the Tabernacle, over the Israelites in the desert-wilderness.
 - b. The incarnation; the 1st advent of Jesus Christ. We will see this glory at the transfiguration of Christ.
 - c. And we have another manifestation of this, and that is now.

4. The production is first the production of intrinsic goodness in the believer.
5. That means the production of divine good by means of the Holy Spirit.
6. Through the spiritual life, the believer produces divine good that reflects the light of Jesus Christ.
7. That intrinsic goodness is reflected light, but toward others.

Divine Good and the Royal Family Honor Code

1. Goodness, or divine good, is the sum total of the growing believer; the maturing believers character in relation to others. He develops integrity, character and it is reflected to others.
2. This goodness is the function of the Royal Family Honor Code of the believer who reflects or who walks in the light. Eph. 5:8 the Royal Family Honor Code is not flexible; the spiritual life defines that code.
3. The Royal Family Honor Code is a system of spiritual integrity, which is mandated by God. That code is revealed in the mystery doctrine of the Church Age.
4. Integrity is adherence to spiritual, moral and ethical principles related to the plan of God.
5. The goodness of the honor code in this case specifically relates to integrity in relationships with other people. We can now put a specific label on this relationship.
6. This function as walking in the light is none other than impersonal love toward all mankind. If you can live with the honor code of impersonal love, if you can live that way, you will not be bothered by people with all of their vagaries and problems of their life. People are the biggest pains in the rear that you can find. Usually all of the bad circumstances are related to other people. People problems and people testing; and impersonal love is the solution. It is walking in the Light. How do you think that Jesus handled all of these people? He is light with perfect impersonal love. He demonstrated the Royal Family Honor Code. The Bible is the Light; it represents the mind of Christ. It represents the way that He thinks, His mandates and the principles of Bible doctrine.

This honor code is our walk as children of light. This is, in part, impersonal love demonstrated toward others. Learn how to apply this to all of those other people. Those who keep you up at night.

There is also righteousness. This is the function of Christian virtue as governed by the Royal Family Honor Code. This is based upon 5 factors in the Christian life.

Here Is How Righteousness Is Produced

This is not imputed righteousness. This is not the righteousness we get at salvation. We have a spiritual life, so there is a spiritual life related to it.

1. The filling of the Holy Spirit and remaining in fellowship as long as possible. That is the fundamental basis for us living the honor code. Reflecting light; the light of life.

2. With the Holy Spirit, with the filling of the Holy Spirit, we have perception and metabolizing of Bible doctrine. Absolute truth; that is what we metabolize through God the Holy Spirit.
3. Grace orientation in contrast to legalistic righteousness. They live by their own righteousness; they define their own righteousness. That is not what we do. We define our righteousness with grace orientation. Grace is the most foreign concept to unbelievers. For them, everything is merit; you earn everything. Grace is the reflection of God's grace.
4. Application of Bible doctrine to life. This is the fundamental aspect of the Royal Family Honor Code. When you reflect the light, you apply Bible doctrine. That application is your righteousness. With that truth, you can apply Bible doctrine to all circumstances.
5. Understanding and using all the problem solving devices reflect the light, especially impersonal love.

Grace orientation, doctrinal orientation. This is living the spiritual life and applying the Bible doctrine from our souls to life. It all fits together, coming from this one metaphor of light.

Walking as children of light. We come to know how to develop a relationship with the light of light.

How We Reflect the Light of Jesus Christ

1. Truth is the absolute truth of doctrine by which we develop a relationship with the light of doctrine. What about living as a believer in Jesus Christ. You cannot live the spiritual life apart from truth. Truth is the light; and this light must be in your soul.
2. The light of truth is reflected in us as righteousness and goodness.
3. This is the overall function of metabolizing doctrine to renovate our thinking.

This is totally connected to the life of the Christian. The light of the Shekinah Glory is Jesus in us. Christ formed in you, the confidence of glory. The Shekinah indwells us. He reflects in and from believers who walk in the light. This is our purpose in this life. Growing in the Christian life and reflecting Him. What a concept. Wrapped up in this concept of life is the entire spiritual life.

Eph. 5:10–14 proving what is acceptable to the Lord. And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done by them in secret. But all things that are reprovved are made manifest by the light, for whatever makes manifest is light. Therefore he says, "Awake, sleeping ones! And arise from the dead, and Christ shall give you light."

The pharisees complain. You cannot testify for yourself. They are calling Jesus a liar. There is a legal basis for what they say. It is unlawful for a person to give witness to Himself. If you are in a court of law and testifying, there needs to be some corroboration.

One witness is not enough. It needs to be corroborated. Legally, Jesus' testimony is not enough and it was unacceptable. They are rejected His testimony based on legal grounds.

John 8:13 Therefore the Pharisees said to Him, You bear record concerning yourself; your witness is not true.

The trouble is with their rules; not with His testimony. It is good courtroom procedure. You cannot believe just one person's testimony alone. But not in the case of the Lord Jesus Christ. Our Lord will point out with impeccable divine understanding all about Himself.

Bobby reads the next few verses.

John 8:14 Jesus answered and said to them, Though I bear record concerning Myself, My witness is true. For I know from where I came, and where I go. But you do not know from where I came, and where I go.

Jesus knows everything. He is cited his omniscience. You people do not know what I come from.

John 8:15 You judge after the flesh, I judge no one.

They pharisees only judge based upon human viewpoint.

John 8:16 And yet if I do judge, My judgment is true; for I am not alone, but I and the Father who sent Me.

Jesus then gives the 3rd class condition. If He did judge someone, that testimony is true.

John 8:17 It is also written in your Law that the testimony of two men is true.

Even in your Law, the testimony of two men is true. He has the testimony of Himself and God the Father.

John 8:18 I am one who bears witness of Myself, and the Father who sent Me bears witness concerning Me.

His Word is truth, even though they would not accept it.

association with nature. John 1:3 All things came into reference through Him. Apart from Him, nothing came into being. John 1:10 He was in the world and the world was made through Him. Yet the world did not know Him.

2. Col. 1:15–17 He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For by him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities--all things were created through him and for him. And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together.
3. Heb. 1:1–3 Long ago, at many times and in many ways, God spoke to our fathers by the prophets, but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world. He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of his nature, and he upholds the universe by the word of his power. After making purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high. It is said that everything in the solar system is behaving exactly in the way that it ought to behave. The universe works in perfect harmony with itself. Nature reflects its creator. The who universe is alive and its life is that of its creator.
4. Acts 10:36 Christ is Lord of all. His living will is the glue which keeps the universe and all that it contains from disintegration and inhalation. This is a quote from someone.
5. Jesus got up from sleeping in the boat and calmed the waves. "Who then is this Who commands the winds and the water and they obey Him?" Nature can be very hostile toward man, but controlling these things is a mere word for Jesus.
6. Jesus revealed to Moses the Law and taught how it governed the Sabbath. Jesus is known as the Lord of the Sabbath (Luke). Jesus had the claim of the Sabbath. This is the same strength as the authority to forgive sins. Only the Lord of all could claim these things. The Lord of the Sabbath did things on the Sabbath that the religious types thought were out of line. Whatever He did on His Own day, would be in perfect accord with God the Father. The Sabbath day was a day of rest and to contemplate that God provided all that was necessary for salvation.
7. Understanding this Lordship doctrine; we should be very careful to utilize our time here on earth. Eph. 5:16 make the most of your time because the days are evil. Some people try to corner to market on some commodity. That is what every believer should do in relationship to this thing called time. Wasted time is a wasted life. No believer can afford that.

There is no reason for apprehension on our part. Jesus has a plan for every person's life and for the times in which we live. We need fear nothing that the future will bring. You might think that His authority might cease at this point. The Scripture says otherwise. David writes in Psalm 139:7–8 Where shall I go from your Spirit? Or where shall I flee from your presence? If I ascend to heaven, you are there! If I make my bed in Sheol, you are there!

Luke 8:26–38 the demon-possessed man who was possessed by many demons. Everyone feared him because of his great ferocity. Jesus told the demons to leave this body, and they could not resist Him. It is His power that delivers us from the power of Satan and sin. The Scripture clearly teaches that God is master over the grave and death. O grave where is your victory; O death where is your sting?

They went on stoning Stephen and he bore testimony to Jesus over the realm of death. He did not expect to take some leap into the dark or a step into some vast unknown region. Jesus is the Lord of the resurrection and He is spiritual life. That is Lordship.

In the famous foot washing incident, Jesus said, “You call Me teacher and Lord, and you are right, for so I am.” It is He Who would pay the price for our salvation. We pay homage to Him of what He is all about.

Lesson #0554

John 8: Life of Christ

1/19/2014 2Sunday

5 discourses in the Temple following the 7 day Feast of Tabernacles. Jesus spoke this discourse at a very opportune moment. For 7 days, the pilgrims, those who traveled from all over Palestine, and they saw the lighting of the candelabra in the Court of the Women. They would light these 75 ft. candelabras, and it gave off an incredibly bright illumination and it could be seen throughout the city. The glory of God guided Israel at night in the desert during the exodus generation. This Shekinah was the glorious presence of what the Jews called Y^ehowah. This presence of God with Israel was none other than the Lord Jesus Christ. He is always the Manifested Presence of God. It is very apropos for Jesus to speak at this time, the Candelabra, which represented Jesus leading the Exodus generation with His light in the desert.

On this final day, He spoke this incredible discourse, and he used the ritual to identify Himself in no uncertain terms.

John 8:12 Then Jesus spoke again to them, saying, I am the Light of the world. He who follows Me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

Nothing and no one can exist without light. Jesus provides the light in this world. He provides life as light; He brings light into the world. No one has to walk in the ignorance of sin and death. He illuminates the darkness of salvation in their souls. Such a far-reaching claim had to be challenged by the pharisees. They could not let such statements stand.

The pharisees are acting as if this is a court of law. “You cannot claim these things, as you are only one man. You are testifying without other witnesses. You are an outright liar and an habitual perjure.”

They ruled against His testimony based upon their legal traditions and rules. No one can give an independent witness; it must be corroborated. It was not admissible, they claimed. His testimony was fine; the problem was their rules. Jesus will point this out.

John 8:13 Therefore the Pharisees said to Him, You bear record concerning yourself; your witness is not true.

Jesus will make a legal argument, in the face of their legal objections. “This is true, because I know everything.” He knows where He is going and where He came from. “You don’t know any of this, so what worth is your testimony?”

John 8:14 Jesus answered and said to them, “Though I bear record concerning Myself, My witness is true. For I know from where I came, and where I go. But you do not know from where I came, and where I go.

Could this refer to just this teaching?

John 8:15 You judge after the flesh, I judge no one.

Jesus now explains Who else witnesses to His accurate testimony.

John 8:16 And yet if I do judge, My judgment is true; for I am not alone, but I and the Father who sent Me.

There are two who give this testimony.

John 8:17 It is also written in your Law that the testimony of two men is true.

He presents two witnesses, both of Whom meet the requirement of the Mosaic Law.

John 8:18 I am one who bears witness of Myself, and the Father who sent Me bears witness concerning Me.”

The Two Witnesses

1. The first witness is Himself, and this is valid, based upon the extent of His knowledge. He is the expert witness on all matters. What He says is true. Who better to testify than the God-man Himself? His testimony is true, because He knows where He came from and where He is going. Jesus Christ came from God.
2. He was God united with true humanity from the womb, and that had been proven many times in His ministry, in what people have seen and heard.
3. As God, he was always present in eternity past. That is where Jesus came from. John 1:1–3 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. The Word was face to face with God. This fits perfectly with Him being sent by the Father. Many a Christian cult call Jesus a god. Theos here has no article. Greek grammar does not mean that this must be understood to be a god. This beginning goes back to the beginning of creation, and God is eternal. So we are going back to creation and not to the beginning of God. The context is of creation. God the Father planned creation and our salvation; Jesus execute creation and he executed salvation. John 1:4 In him was life, and the life was the light of men. He is the light; He is God; and he was sent by God. If He knows that He is with God in eternity, then who else could have a more accurate testimony? He knows where He is from and He knows where He is going. As He was in eternity past, so shall he always be. He is the Shekinah of Israel and the Creator of all things. This makes His testimony okay.

John 8:14 Jesus answered and said to them, "Though I bear record concerning Myself, My witness is true. For I know from where I came, and where I go. But you do not know from where I came, and where I go.

Jesus knows of his past and He knew His destiny. He knows eternity past and eternity future.

Jesus and His Eternal Nature

1. His knowledge extended to eternity past and into eternity future.
2. His knowledge was not limited to knowledge
3. His knowledge belongs to eternal life. He knows everything which happened in time.
4. Jesus alone has complete knowledge of light because His very character is light. What a basic aspect of nature that light is.
5. He knew light and He could testify to Himself as light.
6. He provided visible evidence of His light and His origin and His mission.

In nature, light testifies to light. No one disputes that there sun is light. No one disputes the accuracy. We can understand the physical properties of light; and its heat. In the very near future, Jesus would be seen as pure light. He became absolute pure light at the transformation. His character and deeds are the manifestation of light. His witness it true because He is true. His witness is enlightened for He is enlightened.

The pharisees as unbelievers do not know the light. How can they even remotely understand Him? They were judging Him with their inadequate rules and standards.

John 8:15 You judge after the flesh, I judge no one.

Jesus did not come to judge these men based upon fallible human standards. He truly testified to that light. "I am the light of the world." Jesus is eternal God; and He provides his life to all men. "You want to put some silly human viewpoint rules on My testimony?"

His light reveals the darkness of their thinking. At the last judgment, we will see the clear difference between light and darkness.

The second Witness is God the Father. Two omniscient witnesses.

John 8:16 And yet if I do judge, My judgment is true; for I am not alone, but I and the Father who sent Me.

This is the double-whammy.

John 8:17 It is also written in your Law that the testimony of two men is true.

There Are Two Witnesses.

1. Two Divine Witnesses testify that Jesus is the light of the World.
2. Two witnesses are enough, as testified to by the Mosaic Law and their standards.
3. Who else could testify to these witnesses.

John 8:18 I am one who bears witness of Myself, and the Father who sent Me bears witness concerning Me.”

So now they ask Jesus, “Tell us about Your Father...how can he take the witness stand?”
How can He appear before us to witness You?

John 8:19 Then they said to Him, “Where is your father?” Jesus said to them, “You neither know Me nor My Father. If you had known Me, you would have known My Father also.”

Jesus tells them, that if they know Him, then they know His father. Jesus is the exact representation of God the Father. “We are the same.” His character and essence is visible in all that He did. “Even if God appeared before you, you would not know it, you morons.”

The very nature of the pharisees was corruption and sin.

See what it means to reject the Light of Life; and you will stand before Him, and spend eternity by the greatest darkness.

John 8: Life of Christ

The Light of the World discourse. This began in v. 12.

Jesus spoke powerfully on the turf of His enemies. This was His house, but it was filled with enemies.

Jesus says, “I can testify as to Myself; I know where I have been and I know where I am going.”

And the pharisees said, “Who is this Father? Tell us about the Father.”

They continually tried to bait our Lord. It was not time for Jesus’ death. His death had to be on the cross; that is how He would die, Isa. 53–54. The Jews and gentiles would be involved in the crucifixion.

After all of this give and take, Jesus did not let up or back down. He could see tremendous anger in their eyes.

John 8:20 Jesus spoke these words in the treasury, as He taught in the temple. And no man laid hands upon Him, for His hour had not yet come.

He will begin His second discourse; the “Die in your sins” discourse.

Here, the Lord will draw a line in the sand. Their defeat will be final and horrific.

John 8:21 Then Jesus said again to them, “I go away, and you shall seek Me and shall die in your sins. Where I go, you cannot come.”

What Does this Mean?

1. This is the culmination of the very first prophecy
2. Just as it says that Satan will bruise Him on the heel; even so, Jesus will crush Satan’s head.
3. Since Satan will be crushed, these unbelievers will be crushed along with him. This is an ominous statement. That is their future. No wonder they cannot go where He is going.
4. Hell is prepared for the devil and his angels. Matt. 25:41 and this includes the human minions of Satan. This is tremendously ominous.

There are people who do not believe in a literal hell. Katy Perry has decided that there is no hell. What is this based on? She simply does not like the idea of hell. It is not pleasant. It does not fit in with the humanistic ideas which she has. She, like so many others, think that God could not do anything like this. How can God do this to anyone. They think in humanistic terms. She puts her trust in her own opinion. They do not believe the testimony of Jesus Christ. What they believe takes more faith than what Jesus proclaimed. Some people will find this out the hard way, that there is a hell.

People will beg Jesus on the final day; and they will talk about all of their good works or they will say, “It is not my fault; it is circumstances.” They will realize too late that these words are all true.

People simply believe what they want to believe. But the issue is always, what do you think of Christ?

The sadducees do not believe in hell.

Now the pharisees use some sarcasm.

John 8:22 Then the Jews said, “Will he kill himself? Because he says, ‘Where I go you cannot come.’ ”

This apparently is something which they do not believe that Jesus is saying, but they just throw that out there. Suicide is the ultimate escape. The psychology of suicide. This is them laughing at Jesus. Jesus came to face them; He did not come to leave this world.

Jesus would never run from them. Death by suicide is the only place that they could think of where Jesus could escape them. They do not believe that Jesus could escape them other than that.

This other world is Gehenna, which is the Hebrew word for hell. The Jewish theological position on suicide is, anyone who commits suicide goes to hell. This was a double insult, which resulted in Jesus going to hell. "We can't follow you there; none of us are going to hell."

John 8:23 And He said to them, "You are from beneath; I am from above. You are of this world; I am not of this world.

"You think I am going to hell? You are from this world and I am not of this world."

John 8:24 Therefore I said to you that you shall die in your sins, for if you do not believe that I AM, you shall die in your sins."

Therefore, I correctly told you that you will die in your sins.

Jesus uses I am here. This is a statement of Deity. This was first said in the burning Bush. "I am." This is a term for Deity. It is emphatic.

Are there other pathways to God? Is Islam, Buddhism, are these other pathways to God? If there are, then what Jesus says would be a lie. Christianity is not just one of many pathways. "You will die in your sins if you do not believe in the Great I Am."

Their origin is from below; their origin is from hell. Jesus is saying that they are from Satan. If you live in opposition to Jesus Christ, then you are in league with Satan.

Jesus and the Jews of the Temple

1. These Jews in the Temple are strict form the cosmic system; they are from below and they will remain there.
2. Why will they remain there? Because the Lord pronounces this sentence? Their negative volition is locked in. Their souls are blacked out. They are deluded by religion. They cannot see the truth.
3. Jesus Christ on the other hand is from above, from the heavenly realm. He surrendered His independent use of His Deity.
4. Entrance into His realm, for anyone, is as Jesus says, "Believing that I Am." Yet standing in front of them is also a man.
5. He is referring back to His claim to be the Light of the World and the light of eternal life.
6. They must believe in Him in order to avoid corruption.
7. These people, all unbelievers, must have a spiritual birth, to enter into the Kingdom of God. We have believed that Jesus is the great I Am. We will be with Him. We are from above.

Jesus is speaking in the Temple; in the Court of the Woman. No one has addressed these religious types in this way before. After Jesus looked at them and said, "You are Satan's men." And they are stunned.

After all of this time, the question is "Who are You?" We have all uttered these words. Who are you? Countless bad decisions are made when the real person is not known.

Words and deeds reflect how people think. And thinking is the real person. As you think, so you are. We are what we think. If you are in subjectivity, you will not see the real person. If you are looking for something and only see that, then you will not realize how that person really thinks.

John 8:25 Then they said to Him, "Who are You?" And Jesus said to them, "Even the same which I also say to you.

They pharisees and sadducees can only evaluate based upon their predisposed negative opinions. They have heard and seen the most incredible display of power; but they operate only from their negative volition.

In these religious leaders is virulent negative volition. They said no to Jesus; but this was not just saying "no" to their claims. Their attitude was something more. It was incredulity and active resistance that He could make such claims. There is a passive and an active negative volition. They will look to actually harm Jesus. That is the face of locked-in negative volition. Nothing can put scar tissue on you like religion. The is the worst producer of scar tissue. The hell-raiser knows that he is not worthy of anything; the religious types do not get this.

Bobby is going to look at scar tissue again. This is something which we face as well.

Lesson #none

John 8: Life of Christ

1/23/2014 Thurs

no class; too much ice on the roads.

Lesson #0556

John 8: Life of Christ

1/26/2014 1Sunday

Bobby is always struck by the Lord's personality in many ways. We have never seen Him or heard Him speak, but His personality comes through loud and clear; particularly when He had confrontations with the religious leaders.

People try to teach that Jesus is meek and mild and would let anyone walk all over Him, but that is not the Jesus of the Scriptures. There were many confrontations with the religious types and He never backed down to these people.

The religious types always had the same arguments and they always approached things the same way, but Jesus presented a new doctrine each time He spoke to them. Jesus gave His enemies every possible way to hear His words and to respond to Him with positive volition.

“I am the light of the world; I am the life.” were His claims.

He was accused of being a liar and presenting false testimony. He counters with a devastating critique.

John 8:18 I am one who bears witness of Myself, and the Father who sent Me bears witness concerning Me.”

But religious legalism hides man from God. Jesus has no choice but to tell them of their negative volition. Unbelievers should give this some consideration. So many unbelievers say that “This is just a myth; it is a nice story; and even if Jesus walked this earth, He could not be the Person we think He was.”

John 8:19 Then they said to Him, “Where is your father? Jesus said to them, You neither know Me nor My Father. If you had known Me, you would have known My Father also.

John 8:20 Jesus spoke these words in the treasury, as He taught in the temple. And no man laid hands upon Him, for His hour had not yet come.

Jesus lays it on the line. “You will die in your sins.” then He adds, “Where I go, you cannot come.” Dying in one’s sins means that you will reside in the Lake of Fire forever. These people are sons of Abraham, and they should not reject their Messiah, Who speaks to them.

John 8:21 Then Jesus said again to them, “I go away, and you shall seek Me and shall die in your sins. Where I go, you cannot come.”

Jesus will see them one more time, and the Great White Throne judgment.

This is very strong; that they do not know God and will not go to heaven. Since they cannot argue against them, then you use sarcasm or character assassination. So they respond with sarcasm. They use the method of suicide as their sarcastic subject. Anyone who commits suicide, in their theology, condemns a person forever. But nothing can separate you from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus forever.

Scripture never makes suicide an unforgivable sin.

John 8:22 Then the Jews said, “Will he kill himself? Because he says, ‘Where I go you cannot come.’ ”

The only place they believed that He could go and could not follow is to hell.

Since they brought up the topic of hell, Jesus throws it right back on them.

John 8:23 And He said to them, "You are from beneath; I am from above. You are of this world; I am not of this world.

You are from below, so you will die in your sins.

John 8:24 Therefore I said to you that you shall die in your sins, for if you do not believe that I AM, you shall die in your sins."

"Unless you believe / AM, you will die in your sins." This is a strong statement of Deity. Some claim that Jesus never claimed to be God; but they are wrong. When He said, "I am;" this means He is saying, "I am God."

This flusters them. "Then, Who are You?" They know that He claims to be God, the Messiah, the Sinless Man. They have refused to believe this.

John 8:25 Then they said to Him, "Who are You?" And Jesus said to them, "Even the same which I also say to you.

Nothing can come into their souls because their souls are blacked out. They have a hardness of heart. They have a lot of scar tissue on their souls. Millions of people have scar tissue on their souls.

Scar Tissue

1. Scar tissue is the result of prolonged residence and function inside the cosmic system. This is that which man embraces as truth. This approach comes directly from the Great Deceiver.
2. Scar tissue of the soul has a detrimental effect on every part of the soul.
3. Scar tissue blocks objectivity in decision making. It substitutes in emotion.
4. Scar tissue caused jealousy, vindictiveness.
5. The pharisees are scarred by Satan's ace trump, religion.
6. The religious types had negated their own volition by their legalistic thinking and practices. They cannot make that decision because of scar tissue.
7. Therefore, they are bent on disposing of Jesus Christ, so that His message cannot be perpetuated.

Even though we are opposed as believers from all quarters, we cannot be defeated any more than God's Word can be defeated. God's Word is forever; and His Word cannot be crushed. They can kill you, but they cannot stop the gospel or Bible doctrine from marching forward.

Their scar tissue comes directly from Satan, who is called the father of lies.

There is the doctrine here of negative volition. Jesus is describing just how vicious negative volition can be. People can hate you simply for professing the name of Jesus Christ.

2Thess. 2:10 is a tribulational passage, the man of sin has blinded those around him.

2Thess. 2:10 and with all wicked deception for those who are perishing, because they refused to love the truth and so be saved.

2Thess. 2:11 Therefore God sends them a strong delusion [= strong deluding influences], so that they may believe what is false,

God allows them to pursue the consequence of their negative volition in this life. They go from rejection of Jesus Christ to active resistance to Jesus Christ. This is an attachment to what is false. This is human viewpoint. There are 3 categories of truth which can be rejected as strong delusion. These categories include the gospel for the unbeliever. This can include the laws of divine establishment, for believers and unbelievers. Anyone who rejects the truth will be enslaved by cosmic propaganda. They become vulnerable to all types of Satanic influence in their soul.

The soul is a vacuum, and it is real; and the soul sucks in information to fill it. It fills this vacuum of this soul. All that is left in the soul is human viewpoint and falsehoods. You either think with divine viewpoint or you think with human viewpoint. There is only one way to have divine viewpoint, which means you need positive volition toward the gospel and then to Bible doctrine.

Do you wonder why people hate you? Why Christianity is reviled? It is negative volition. Strong deluding influences.

2Thess. 2:11 Therefore God sends them a strong delusion [= strong deluding influences], so that they may believe what is false,

Lesson #0557 John 8:24 2Thess. 2:11 Life of Christ 1/26/2014 2Sunday

Bobby is sitting in a chair. He is more conversational.

John 8:24 Therefore I said to you that you shall die in your sins, for if you do not believe that I AM, you shall die in your sins.”

We get the results in 2Thess. 2:11 This is how the Apostle Paul describe the pharisees. Paul was one of the most legalistic and virulent of the pharisees.

There is a blindness from scar tissue and emotional revolt of the soul. Scar tissue of the soul is the description of the soul which cannot take in Bible doctrine. Blackout of the soul is the inability for any truth to exist in that soul. They have no ability to take in the truth.

2Thess. 2:11 Therefore God sends them a strong delusion [= strong deluding influences], so that they may believe what is false,

God sends them a deluding influence. Believers can decide if they want to be scarred and blacked out. But here, God sends them a deluding influence, and the result is, they will believe what is false.

What Does 2Thess. 2:11 Mean?

1. God allows us free will, and we reject the gospel of Jesus Christ based upon that free will. So it is God, who, afterward, sends the deluding influence.
2. This deluding influence is God's justice at work.
3. God allows the natural result of accepting the lies of the cosmic system of Satan. Confusion, misery, hopelessness; the things which happen to people who have no truth in their soul. This describes them. They can only think in this way. Bobby was discussing a friend of his two Satanists in a Bible ministry. They are blinded by the cosmic system. Most people do not claim to be Satanists, but that is what they are in strong delusion.
4. God gives them over to the delusions inherent in their rejection. They have nowhere else to go. Where to you go when you have no truth. You can only believe falsehood. When you mix falsehood in with truth, the result is falsehood.
5. God allows the course of their rejection to run out. He allows it to continue with the natural results to take place.
6. They only have the option of Satan's delusions. The old lie. Satan's major delusion is that he offers up a better program that God does; and that his program is more intellectual and more logical. People laugh at the gospel. They laugh at it. They are sarcastic. I don't need that hokey crutch of Christianity. They will have confusion and difficulties they cannot deal with.
7. The whole delusion is because of the locked in negative volition and scar tissue, which invades unbelievers like the pharisees.

The result of this kind of delusion.

2Thess. 2:12 in order that all may be condemned [or judged] who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

They are not trying to avoid anything; they take pleasure in wickedness. Rom. 1:26 or so is similar. They do not even try to cover what they are. They unbeliever with scar tissue and under strong delusion, he rejects the gospel with the certainty of a dog returning to his vomit. They chew something up, vomit it up, and then go back to see if they missed something the first time around.

The unbeliever takes pleasure in wickedness. He takes pleasure in Satan's propaganda.

The Delusions of Negative Volition

1. Pleasure in wickedness; this pleasure is all a delusion. Some people believe a lie, they believe it with all their heart, and operate on the basis of that lie.

2. The content of their belief is entirely untrue, and yet they operate entirely on the basis of that falsehood. They are removed from the reality of divine viewpoint.
3. The delusions include the whole realm of Satanic doctrines, which replace truth. Satan does not just have people reject the truth; these delusions actively replace the truth.
4. Examples of these delusions include: Socialism, the welfare state, redistribution of wealth, social justice, cultic activity, pacifism, unilateral disarmament, radical environmentalism.
5. The cosmic system promotes these causes as the real solutions for life. If humanity can just do these things, they will reach their full potential.
6. That is the lie. This is the Satanic propaganda that so many people embrace. If you have no doctrine in your soul, you have no way to combat human viewpoint. You have no way to understand just how you are being deluded. Satan is able to bring all kinds of things into this world which sound good.
7. Only the truth of God's Word can combat the cosmic thinking of Satan. The difference is of a magnitude almost beyond reality.
8. What these delusions boil down to, salvation by humanistic ideas or crusades or anything else except faith in Christ. The result of all of it is condemnation. Believe or die; John 8:25a "Believe that I Am, or you die in your sins." There is no excuse for the unbeliever. None of these excuses will be accepted. What Jesus did on the cross cost Him everything. All it takes for us to apprehend that is a small amount of positive volition toward Him. Yet, it is rejected.
9. The only thing acceptable to religious sensibilities is the vomit of works righteousness.

They continue with their negative volition; they continue with the negative volition toward Jesus Christ.

John 8:24 Therefore I said to you that you shall die in your sins, for if you do not believe that I AM, you shall die in your sins."

John 8:25 Then they said to Him, "Who are You?" And Jesus said to them, "Even the same which I also say to you.

Jesus speaks these things to the world.

John 8:26 I have many things to say and to judge of you, but He who sent Me is true, and I speak to the world those things what I heard of Him."

The pharisees did not even understand that Jesus was teaching them about God the Father. They were too covered with scar tissue to understand that.

They watched Him; they heard Him; they know the messages; they know His credentials; and their answer to Him is no.

John 8:27 They did not understand that He spoke to them of the Father.

V. 24 is straightforward. Jesus spoke the very words that God the Father put in His mouth. They were clueless that Jesus spoke of the Father and His plan.

Then Jesus explains that He will die. He explains that He will die for their sins.

John 8:28 Then Jesus said to them, "When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you shall know that I AM, and that I do nothing of Myself [of My Own initiative], but as My Father has taught Me, I speak these things."

The pharisees understood what He was saying. He tells them He does nothing on His Own initiative. That refers to the doctrine of the Hypostatic Union. When Jesus became man, when He took on the form of man, He voluntarily gave up the independent use of His Deity.

The Father Who sent Jesus is with Jesus. He speaks the truth which is from God the Father. God the Holy Spirit empowered the Lord Jesus Christ.

John 8:29 And He who sent Me is with Me. The Father has not left Me alone, for I always do those things which please Him."

Jesus always functions within God's will. He never went off and did His Own thing. He never did anything outside of the plan of God in the 1st advent.

Jesus can shut these pharisees down in a heartbeat. His most difficult moments are those 6 hours on the cross. He never departed from God's plan during those most difficult moments on the cross.

There would come a time when all of what Jesus taught would become clear and all would understand Him. When Jesus goes to the cross, there would be evidence of the truth of all of His thoughts and all of His messages. Afterwards, some would believe and some would not.

"Truly this is the Son of God" the centurion said when He was on the cross. His half-brothers believed. Many came to believe on Him at this very spot while He is teaching everyone.

John 8:30 As He spoke these words, many believed upon Him.

This may have even included some of the pharisees.

John 8:31 Then Jesus said to the Jews who believed on Him, "If you continue in My Word, you are My disciples indeed."

Jesus looks to those who have expressed faith in Him.

John 8:32 And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.”

These words are on the tower of UT. “You will know the truth and the truth will make you free.” Being a true disciple of Jesus means that you continue in His Word. This word is applied to everyone who continues in His Word. A disciple is a student; a learner. What you are learning is the truth of God’s Word.

Bobby is going to hammer this verse into us, apparently. This is being a disciple. Grow in grace and knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. The Apostle Peter heard this.

Lesson #0558

John 8: Life of Christ

1/29/2014 Wed

Jesus has said He is the Light of the world and the Light of Life. Then He gave the die in your sins discourse. This was completed in v. 30.

John 8:30 As He spoke these words, many believed upon Him.

This is the 3rd discourse.

John 8:31 Then Jesus said to the Jews who believed on Him, “f you continue in My Word, you are My disciples indeed.

They key to being a disciple of Jesus is to continue in His Word.

Those who have studied the laws of divine establishment, there is usually freedom. But that is not the point of what Jesus is saying in this context.

Those there had witnesses His grace and mercy and the woman caught in adultery. No one forgave those who committed adultery; the pharisees wanted her to be stoned. And they realized that He could forgive them of their sins. And they understood the inadequacy of legalism.

These were believers who knew practically nothing about Jesus or what he expected of them. This is a classic moment of, after salvation, what? What is the Christian life. What is this life we are supposed to live? What does it consist of. All believers need to do is to take what the next life is. The next step.

John 8:31 Then Jesus said to the Jews who believed on Him, “f you continue in My Word, you are My disciples indeed.

Jesus Christ begins with a 3rd class condition; if you continue in My word. A conditional particle with a verb in the subjunctive mood. The 3rd class condition always deals with volition and the future. What should they do and where should they go from here?

Christ states what that future course should be. Their spiritual life depends upon their positive volition. They must continue learning. They must remain in the Word; remain in the doctrine, which Jesus Christ is teaching them. They must stay in His Word. There is a compatibility in this exhortation by Christ.

All the 12 disciples are there. And Peter writes in 1Peter 3:18 Grow in grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. This must be the continuous future of believers in Jesus Christ. To remain means to be consistent. Bobby sees the same faces time after time. He sees a lot of consistency. Do not ever let up in the pursuit of Bible doctrine. We must continue to take in and remain in His Word. This is our life. This is to the time when the Lord takes us home.

Some say, "Enough is enough. I am just going to use what I've got." For such people, it does not stick and they veer off in the wrong direction. When you take your foot off the gas, you are headed for a stall. All else is a distant 2nd to that in your spiritual life. Remaining in His Word is the result of the spiritual advance of any believer. This is what God requires of every believer. This is what the believer ought to be doing. If they continue to advance, then you are truly disciples of Mine. Disciples are always thought of those 12 guys; but everyone at Berachah Church is a disciple. That is a learner; a student. We are just as much as disciples as any of them. We are those who become indoctrinated. Bible doctrine has been taught in Berachah Church for 63 years. That is the reason for Berachah to be in existence.

Once a person stops advancing, then they cease to be disciples. They have not lost their salvation. They lose momentum. They are not fulfilling this mandate of our Lord. In the light of what passes for Christianity today. How could any believer remain with such a superficial knowledge of Jesus? How could they stop knowing and growing? How can they get lazy. "I have enough doctrine."

They sometimes deviate into emotional Christianity. There are praise and worship churches all over which have little or no doctrine. How can people participate in ritual without reality. Without understanding what is behind the ritual? How can people remain in churches where doctrine is mocked? "You don't need doctrine. Those people who listen to doctrine don't do anything. They are not emotional."

We are advancing together as believers. We are all following the exhortation to remain in God's Word. Do you want to know what Jesus wants you to do?

This is not all we do. We do apply this doctrine to our lives. We are mandated to be witnesses for Jesus Christ. We serve the Lord as believers and we glorify Him by doing these things. None of that happens without continuing in doctrine.

Fundamental to the Christian Life Is Bible Doctrine

1. The fundamental truth of living the Christian life, the basic truth, is continuing in His Word. It does not get any more basic than that.
2. To remove oneself from learning and growing causes a breakdown. It is a breakdown of the whole system of being a disciple.

3. All this breaks down our entire Christian life.
4. The alternative to abiding in His Word is at best immaturity. That is the best that you can do.
5. At worst, there is reversionism. That, without doctrine, is where the believer thinks and operates no differently than an unbeliever. But you will have no legacy in heaven. That is what God is looking for.
6. The whole mechanism of after salvation what, cannot happen without implanting doctrine in your soul. Never take your foot off the accelerator. That is the choice that we have; to continue or not. There is no termination point until we are terminated (going home to be with God).

There is no qualification here. We continue in His Word until a certain point in time.

Now we move to the result:

John 8:32 And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

Truth does not refer to academic truth or to salvation; as those hearing Him are believers. There are 3 operative words of major words of importance.

Ginôskô

1. The verb γινώσκω, which means to know; to know by experience
2. This is to build and apply.
3. It indicates that you come to know; there is a progression of growth.
4. The disciple is a learner who comes to know something.
5. So a disciple of Christ is a learner who comes to know Him and His thinking. People get all wrapped about the term Bible doctrine. People don't like mandates at all.
6. And so, in doing this, you renovate your thinking from human to divine viewpoint. Then you apply it.

The next operative word is ἀλθεια, which is truth.

Truth

1. Truth is formulated doctrine. It is not hidden. It is revealed to believers. You must have it revealed to you to stay and listen.
2. All truth is centered in the Person of Jesus Christ. You cannot escape that. The truth is centered in Jesus Christ because He is absolute truth. There is no falsehood in Him or in His Word.
3. What does He say about Himself in John 14:6 I am the way, the truth and the life. He says this of Himself. What He says and does is true.
4. And that is what we must study and implant in our souls. We come to know the truth of doctrine.

The final operative word, which is the result of coming to know the truth: εληλυθερω which is to be made free.

Elêlutheroô

1. Freedom is an absence of restrain or constriction.
2. To makes free is the opportunity. To operate indecently of external influence. That is why government can retard freedom as an overwhelming influence of our lives.
3. In the spiritual realm, that restriction and constriction is the cosmic system. That retards spiritual freedom. We can understand our freedom being constricted by government. But there is also the cosmic system.
4. What spiritual growth does is to free a believer from the cosmic system. We come to know the truth, and the truth of Bible doctrine makes us free.
5. We are free to break the bonds of the sin nature which so easily besets us. We do not escape the sin nature entirely. Whenever the sin nature is in control, the outcome will not be good.
6. The freedom provide to the believer through knowing the truth is an opportunity. Of course this is based upon our volition. The opportunity is to remain in fellowship for longer periods of time. That is what remaining in the truth can do. Truth is freedom from human viewpoint; Satan's viewpoint. You become free to serve and honor and glorify Jesus Christ.
7. Jesus was speaking of spiritual freedom. Emancipation from ignorance from false doctrines, from slavery to the sin nature, from cosmic thinking.
8. Jesus commends patient endurance in the study of doctrine.
9. Consistent study causes a progression of divine viewpoint in the thinking and action of believers. It is a forward movement in divine viewpoint. We think more and more as God wants us to think.
10. Consistent study and growth is the means to increase freedom to live the Christian life. The Christian life is encapsulated in this 2 verses.

Doctrine frees the believer from antinomianism and from legalism. This is how to be free of your legalism. We look to live for and to serve God. Without doctrine and without spiritual growth, we are open to every wind of doctrine that blows our way. We are vulnerable to every human viewpoint thought.

John 8:32 And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

The people there responded with confusion. They mixed up the spiritual with the physical.

Lesson #0559

John 8: Life of Christ

1/30/2014 Thurs

Bobby considered covering just the gospel of John, but decided to cover all of the gospels. We will stay here until we complete John 10.

We are looking at the obligation of Christians after salvation. Not only is salvation difficult for some, but understanding the Christian life is even more difficult to understand.

The context for these verses.

John 8:30 As He spoke these words, many believed upon Him.

A logical question: we have believed in Jesus; what do we do next?

John 8:31 Then Jesus said to the Jews who believed on Him, "f you continue in My Word, you are My disciples indeed.

The true disciple learns about Christ and then lives in the Word. To remove oneself from learning and growing, causes a breakdown in all aspect of the Christian life. The whole Christian life is dependent upon learning the Word of God. The spiritual life we live is never static; we are advancing or we are retreating; and the direction we go depends upon implanting the Word of God in our souls. Everything else is a result. The believer cannot every give up on this pursuit. There is a start point where you continue in His Word. The process remains open-ended. There is not endpoint except for being called home.

V. 32 gives the result.

John 8:32 And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

Know, truth, free are the important words in this verse. Coming to know requires patient endurance. It is not always easy to maintain that desire for Bible doctrine. When we are at our weakest point, that is where we need the doctrine the most.

What you come to know is truth. Truth here is divine viewpoint truth.

Our thinking is renovated by divine viewpoint. Renovation is always a process. When you renovate a house, this is a process which never stops. When it comes to your mind and thinking divine viewpoint. Then you begin to apply this to the circumstances of your life.

The sin nature is slavery. Remaining in His Word is the only way to bring the sin nature under control. The believer is freed from religion and he begins to think with grace orientation. This is a renovation of thinking; that is the difference between our thinking and the thinking of the unbelieving world.

If you direct your mental attitude sins toward others, then they control your life. We should have freedom from that. Grace orientation allows us to separate from that.

Doctrine is the basis for our life. How did the listeners respond? What did they think? They misunderstood what Jesus was saying. Their thinking was in the wrong direction. It was in the wrong realm.

John 8:33 They answered Him, "We are Abraham's seed and were never in bondage to anyone. How do you say, You will be made free?"

They claim that they have always been free as they are descendants of Abraham. This is nothing more than ego. This is pride of racial heritage. This is the fundamental pride in the religious leaders. But there is no freedom and no spiritual growth. "We are free because of our genetics." What strikes Bobby is, their protest is quite odd, to say the least, in the light of their history and their current status. This is how irrational they have become because of their hatred of Jesus and their negative volition. They began in bondage to Egypt. They have been in bondage to Egypt, to Assyria, to Chaldea, to Greece and now to Rome. They have been a subservient people because of their negative volition. Further, they are enslaved to the religious legalism of the pharisees. They are slaves to their own sin nature. This is stupid; but this is what they said.

This suggests a removal from reality. They did not view themselves as slaves; and their conclusion was, "What do we see a need to be free?" In their view, He had nothing to offer them by way of freedom. The irony here. They are blind to the light of the world.

Now we go to the 4th discourse, the Liberation Discourse, vv. 34–50. This is a long discourse.

Truly, truly indicates that a doctrine is coming; a statement of truth.

John 8:34 Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, Whoever practices sin is the slave of sin.

Jesus immediately focuses on the spiritual realm; they were focused on the physical realm.

John 8:35 And the slave does not abide in the house forever, but the Son abides forever.

The slave does not remain in the house forever; but the Son does. So how do you go from slavery to sin to abiding in the house.

John 8:36 Therefore if the Son shall make you free, you shall be free indeed.

V. 34 puts these Jews on notice that they are slaves. Anyone who commits sin is a slave.

The unbeliever is entirely enslaved to sin and will remain so. Slavery is a good illustration of what sin does to man. Who should be more attuned to slavery. They believed that the Messiah would be a political deliverer. These people only need to look as far as the palace of Herod. He was their master. Similarly, sin is their slave master. In the tyranny of Herod Antipas, he demonstrates the tyranny of sin. The illustration is effective. Both of them enslave the Jews. Believers can live under slavery. We might live under slavery some day. Our freedoms are being limited today. But we can live under slavery and still be free.

They were sinners; they were spiritually dead; and they should have understood that they were slaves by their attempts to keep the Mosaic Law. The Mosaic Law was God's perfect law; but no one had ever kept the Mosaic Law perfectly except the Lord Jesus Christ. Breaking the Mosaic Law was sin. Whatever violates the standards of God is sin.

John 8:34 Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, Whoever practices sin is the slave of sin.

The legalistic pharisees broken the Law constantly. Everything there was a fight, Jesus revealed them for who they are. He who is without sin, cast the first stone, was the last confrontation. They were imperfect before the Law. Locked-in legalism would not allow the religious types to admit that Jesus is the key to their slavery.

Enslavement

1. The Jews present a picture of removal or the lack of reality which is inherent to negative volition.
2. That is the denial of the obvious in the person who rejects Christ; they deny the obvious; that is the modus operandi of the human race. Everyone wants to deny responsibility for those things which are wrong.
3. They practice self-deception in refusing to acknowledge sin. The great enemy; negative volition.
4. They lack the acumen, the wisdom to realize the need of a Savior from sin. They do not understand how. Jesus is telling them how to do it.
5. This is the pattern of enslaved people. Spiritually enslaved people.

Our Universal Slavery

1. This is a universal statement; all mankind is in slavery to sin. This is slavery.
2. We are all born with sin natures passed down from Adam. We are born into this world inherently slaves.
3. God imputes Adam's original sin to our sin nature; to each one of us by birth. A sin nature dormant until birth.
4. We are all born from the minute of our first breath into the slave market of sin. We are born spiritually dead.
5. We cannot stop ourselves from sinning or from being in spiritual death.
6. We have no purchase power to get out of our slavery to sin. In the ancient world, someone outside of the slave market could purchase your freedom.
7. We are not possi non pacarre. We are not able not to sin. Jesus was the only man born truly free.
8. We cannot facilitate our own redemption. We cannot free ourselves from our slavery. Slaves cannot be sons on our own. We are separated from the household.\
9. We can never neet the righteous standards necessary to meet the standards of the Father.
10. We are doomed to spiritual slavery.

11. We can still be redeemed from slavery if someone else pays our price. In front of them is the one who can deliver them from slavery. People do not want freedom in our society; they want security; they do not want freedom. These pharisees do not want to sacrifice anything.

The Doctrine of Redemption

1. Christ came to deliver us from the bondage of sin; and from the bondage of death.
2. He came to provide salvation and spiritual freedom, which we cannot do for ourselves. 1Peter 1:18–19 knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. We are redeemed by the blood of Jesus Christ.
3. We cannot buy freedom from sin. You will know the truth and the truth will make you free.

Results of His Redemptive Work

1. Deliverance from the curse of the Law. No one can keep the law for salvation; but we do not have to. Jesus was the perfect keeper of the Law. We still sin; we still cannot keep the Law. Our righteousnesses are as filthy rags, but we have the righteousness of God.
2. He also provided for us forgiveness of sin. Col. 1:14 sin is no longer a barrier between us and God. Think of a slave behind barbed wire. Jews were behind barbed wire from 1933 to 1945; they could not escape without someone outside the wire.
3. Christ's work of redemption also provides the basis of sanctification. Titus 2:14 a maturing spiritual life is experiential sanctification. We are free. We will know the truth and the truth will make us free.
4. This work provides the basis for our glorification. When you depart this life, you will dwell in heaven for all eternity. The glory that Jesus received at His ascension is our glory. We share in this glory. Rom. 8:23

You were slaves and now you are free. The pharisees must come back and refute it. So good that they are such idiots.

John 8:35 And the slave does not abide in the house forever, but the Son abides forever.

Lesson #0560

John 8: Life of Christ

2/2/2014 1Sunday

The Jews are a people of God's Own choosing. God made a covenant with Abraham in Gen. 12:1–3, and no other people in the history of mankind can make that claim. Both northern and southern kingdoms of Israel have been subject to the 4th and 5th cycles of discipline. They have been subjugated by the Greeks and many other peoples.

The Jews have been under the diaspora. Anti-Semitism gives a complete look at the history of the Jews. The Jews there have heard the die in your sins discourse; and the light of the world discourse.

John 8:30 As He spoke these words, many believed upon Him.

They have a curious reaction. You wonder how these brilliant academics how they could say these things. Many people heard what Jesus said and believed in Him. However, there were others who did not.

John 8:31 Then Jesus said to the Jews who believed on Him, “f you continue in My Word, you are My disciples indeed.

This is what is involved in growing in grace and knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ.

John 8:32 And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.”

There is a variety of freedoms offered; freedom from the legalism of the pharisees; and freedom from the sin nature on the occasions when you are filled with the Spirit.

So, there is a response to what Jesus has said. This is the response of unbelievers certainly; and possibly of believers as well.

John 8:33 They answered Him, “We are Abraham's seed [descendants] and were never in bondage to anyone. How do you say, You will be made free?”

This is a removed-from-reality response. These are the religious leaders, and they are negative toward the message of Jesus, and this comes out of the rejection of Jesus Christ.

Their line of descent guarantees freedom. Abraham was promised a land and he was promised to be the father of a great people; and that people would have a great land and great blessings at that time.

The Jews listening have misunderstood the concept of freedom. They want national and political freedom from Rome. Who doesn't want freedom? That is not the freedom that Jesus is speaking of.

Vv. 34–50, is the next discourse, which is the longest.

John 8:34 Jesus answered them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, Whoever practices sin is the slave of sin.

Jesus here gives the basic starting point for sin. This is the slavery that Jesus is talking about. He is speaking of the slave market of sin, that we are born into. There is no way that we can escape from it. Only Jesus, the one standing before them, can provide redemption from the slave market of sin. But they have rejected him. This is spiritual slavery. So Jesus explains further what He means.

Slavery to sin is the status of the unbelieving Jews. This is why the illustration works. A slave is an outsider to the household. He is simply not family. The Jews are descendants of Abraham. They are still slaves to sin. They claim not to be enslaved, but they are.

Those who have believed in Jesus are no longer slaves. Those who did not are still in slavery.

The Jews revered Moses, as he led Israel out of Egypt. Spiritual liberation is something that Moses or Aaron or the Mosaic Law could ever do. The One Who could liberate them was standing right there in front of them. Jesus did not come to liberate anyone from political tyranny on this earth. Jesus came to liberate those who were slaves to sin.

There are those today who are exactly the same way. There are those who tout a political salvation; liberation theology. Che Guevara is said to be doing God's work of liberation. This stresses the struggle of Jesus for the poor and the outcasts; but they deny the deity of Jesus.

The orthodox doctrines actually move people toward freedom and capitalism. Jeremiah Wright is one of these kind of teachers. This is just another form of spiritual slavery.

There will never be a utopian governmental structure on this earth

John 8:34 Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, Whoever practices sin is the slave of sin.

And Jesus tells them that, the Son remains in the household forever. This is a passage of eternal security. A son remains a family member with family privileges as long as they live. Sons are part of a family; and if they try to leave the family, God puts them back in. You can change your name, and you remain in that family. You cannot escape it.

In another passage, John deals with the spiritual aspect, and how the son has these privileges in the spiritual sense.

John 8:35 And the slave does not abide in the house forever, but the Son abides forever.

Here is what it takes to become a part of the household of God:

John 1:12–13 But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God.

You cannot earn salvation from all of the good things that you do in this life. You are born into a particular family and you cannot get out of it. Someone gets you into the family. No one can get you to do that, but the Son of Man, Who is Jesus Christ.

We are born of God, through the work of Jesus Christ. This tells us exactly how we are saved. This is how we remain in the household of God forever.

The Jews to whom Jesus was speaking did not believe that salvation was a gift. They saw their genetic advantage as being the basis for their salvation.

Romans 9:6b Not all Israel is Israel.

True Israel

1. True Israel is regenerate Israel; born again Israel. Salvation has nothing to do with the physical birth.
2. The Jews race was founded by a believer, and that is Abraham.
3. That was the basis for Abraham becoming the first Jew, and then he was circumcised as a sign of his faith in Christ.
4. Abraham is the physical and the spiritual father of the Jews. The latter is the most critical aspect.
5. Jews may carry the genes of Abraham, but their real descent from Abraham is through regeneration.
- 6.
7. As a believer, God gave Abraham and his progeny and everlasting treaty; the Abraham covenant is in effect even right now. Since God is immutable, His covenant never ceases. Physical descent from Abraham does not make a Jew a recipient of this covenant.
 - a. Ishmael and Isaac have different mothers; but the same father.
 - b. Jacob represents true Israel and Esau represents false Israel. Jacob I have loved and Esau I have hated. This is not a mental attitude sin in God. This is an anthropathism. God's thinking and policy. Jacob is regenerate; Esau is not. Esau was a slave; he was an outcast before God.
 - c. Therefore, you needed to have more than Abraham's genes to be his descendant.

Abraham was born again, Rom. 10:1–5; he exhibited faith in the promise of God, and God gave him what he could never deserve.

Isaac and Jacob believed, and they were in the line of true Israel. However, the racial Jew needed to become the racial Jew.

They could not be free unless the Son made them free. This is following the lead of Abraham. That is freedom indeed. If we believe in Jesus, then we have this same freedom that God had given Abraham.

There are challenges put to Jesus from the Temple. The pharisees are not true Jews because they have not believed in Jesus; so they are not sons of God.

Caveat between regenerate and unregenerate Jews. There are many who are antisemitic who believe that the Jews should be rounded up and wiped out. Some people are persuaded to harm the Jews as they have rejected the Lord.

Jews have been called Christ-killers, although the Romans were just as involved. Blessing comes to Jews regardless. God has promised to bless the Jews and those who bless the Jews. There are about 20 million Jews today. They survived the Egyptian empire, the Syrian empire, the Persian empire, the Chaldean empire; they survived the Greeks, which is one of the worst socialistic nations today. They survived the Romans, they survived the middle ages, they survived the holocaust. But those who persecute the Jews will be cursed by God, and many of them are harmed.

John 8:37 I know that you are Abraham's seed, but you seek to kill Me because My Word has no place in you.

One of the mainstays of a client nation is to support the Jews. This is why we have been so blessed as a nation. But those who inherit the Kingdom of God must be regenerate.

John 8:38 I speak what I have seen with My Father, and you, then, do what you have seen with your father.

"I know that you are Abraham's physical descendants, yet you seek to kill Me because My Word has no place in you." The very words of Jesus were rejected out of hand by the Jews. Many of them hate Him with every fibre of their being.

Bobby has wondered, how do people survive without Christ? The other question is, you must wonder why tolerance is extended to certain religions and cultural degeneracies, but that Christianity is attacked. Attitudes of atheists and the ACLU and evolutionists is no different from the pharisees who confronted Jesus with hatred and negative volition.

These religious Jews were not Jews in the Biblical sense. They were not spiritual descendants of Abraham; they were outsiders. They could not do anything but persecute and oppose Jesus and His followers. That is Satan's opposition.

Jesus always knew the plan of God. He never scratched His head and wondered, I wonder what the plan of God is today? Jesus Christ came to die, even for these men and women who rejected Him.

God turns cursing to blessing. This is the fundamental principle. Jesus is put on the cross for our benefit. They meant it for evil; God meant it for good. The very worst things in the world are turned into our benefit.

Nothing that God does in His plan is not to our benefit. The death of His Son is our gain and our blessing. This is the great comfort for all of us. Hatred by the world is always foiled by the plan of God.

Remember in persecution comes blessing. Always.

These Jews were seeking to persecute Jesus. They hated Him. This is what they learned from their father. Their father is Satan. He hates the truth; he hates what Jesus came to do. It spells out his doom. Jesus' message is from God the Father; their motivations are from their father, Satan. They are the fools of Satan.

John 8:38 I speak what I have seen with My Father, and you, then, do what you have seen with your father.

There is no in-between. If you are opposed to Jesus, you are in the ranks of Satan. This is believers who reject Bible doctrine. This even includes believers who are sidetracked or are in reversionism or in the interlocking systems of arrogance. They become part of the cosmic system. Anytime Bible doctrine is opposed, the plan of Satan is advanced.

Who's your daddy? They answer loud and clear, Abraham. They did not accept what Jesus was telling them, that they are not true Jews. They have locked-in arrogance and negative volition.

John 8:39 They answered and said to Him, Abraham is our father. Jesus answered them, If you were Abraham's children, you would do the works of Abraham.

What is this locked-in arrogance? What is this locked-in negative volition. People who reject, no matter what. What is it?

Jesus' communication was always clear and concise. What He said was absolute truth. There were no lies; no obfuscation. Hearing this over and over, the Jews rejected Him because they were arrogant and self-centered. Arrogance is the motivational evil of Satan's cosmic system. Arrogance is how Satan operates in this world. He is the greatest of negative volition in this world.

There are many people on this earth who claim there is no God or they themselves are God or they falsely define God. These religious people that Jesus faced unwittingly desired to do the deeds of Satan.

"We don't need this freedom from You; we are free." They believed their good works commended them to God.

Arrogant Satan opposes the plan of God with every fibre of his being. And those who emulate him have locked in negative volition. They cannot believe the truth. They have hardened hearts. They live inside the cosmic system. They have only human viewpoint thoughts. They live by the doctrines of demons. Any human viewpoint is opposed to divine viewpoint.

“You are My disciples if you continue in My Word.” That is the only escape from the thinking of the cosmic system.

Locked-in Negative Volition and the Cosmic System

1. The cosmic system is all that the world brings to us apart from Bible doctrine, and this is a Satanic trap for the enslavement of the human race. This is to enslave us to our own sin nature. We are a slave to everything that is opposed to God and Christ.
2. Cosmic system involvement is the principle of negative volition and the bastion of human viewpoint. That is what characterizes the cosmic system. Negative volition to doctrine and human viewpoint.
3. When it is locked it, it causes scar tissue of the soul and blackout of the soul. Negative volition leads to negative volition leads to locked-in arrogance, and the soul is scarred over. It is blacked out.
4. Blackout is the state in which the mentality of the soul is attacked directly by evil concepts and ideas. It is the vacuum of the soul. Our soul is immaterial. In the soul, if there is no truth, then it becomes a vacuum, and it sucks in that which is not the truth. We all have information in our souls. Negative volition means that falsehood is sucked into the soul. Matiaotês. That is emptiness which requires to be filled. If you do not fill it with doctrine, then something else will be sucked in. Human viewpoint. You get out of fellowship, and some human viewpoint is pulled in. You get back into fellowship and learn some doctrine, and this allows some divine viewpoint to become resident in your soul.
5. The cosmic system, the doctrines of demons, force out any response to Christ or the spiritual life. That is the blackout of the soul. When your soul is blacked out, then it cannot pull in divine viewpoint. The less doctrine, the more scarred the soul it. It forces out any response to Jesus or to the Christian life. It is burned to a crisp by human viewpoint and evil. That is what the souls of the pharisees look like. Blackout is so demonstrated by these Jews who cling to their racial identify as the key to their relationship to God. Rom 11:7–8 What then? Israel failed to obtain what it was seeking. The elect obtained it, but the rest were hardened, as it is written, "God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that would not see and ears that would not hear, down to this very day." When on positive volition, responding to Jesus Christ or responding to Bible doctrine if you are already saved. The rest were hardened. A hardened soul is a blacked-out soul that steadfastly refuses to believe in Christ, no matter what. God gives them a spirit of stupor. God allows their negative volition. They have eyes, but they do not see; ears, but they cannot hear the truth. This is true down to this very day. Rejecting Jesus was a continuous pattern for these Jews, and this would bring terrible misery to them in these coming years.

On the other hand, the believer has ears to hear and eyes to see. We are capable of learning Bible doctrine. We are capable of being able to discern truth.

John 8:39 They answered and said to Him, Abraham is our father. Jesus answered them, If you were Abraham's children, you would do the works of Abraham.

Bobby does plan to go through Rom. 4.

John 8:40 But now you seek to kill Me, a man who has told you the truth which I have heard beside God; this Abraham did not do.

Lesson #0562

John 8:34–44 Life of Christ

2/5/2014 Wed

Bobby tells about a woman who was riddled with cancer; and now she isn't. Went to M.D. Anderson and she is okay now. When God wants us to remain in this world, then He keeps us here.

The debate and discussion at this point is, what is a Jew; what does it mean to be Jewish. The pharisees say that they are because they are the physical seed of Abraham. Jesus refutes this. Abraham, received the covenant with God because he believed God; he was regenerate; he was born again. Of whom was Abraham born.

It is all about genetics. Abraham had a spiritual birth, and this made him a son; this is how he became the 1st Jew. This is his legacy. True Israel is regenerate Israel.

John 8:34 Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, Whoever practices sin is the slave of sin.

Jesus calls the pharisees born in sin. Descent from Abraham cannot change this status. Being born again changes this status. They have a genetic relationship with Abraham; but they are not Jewish as he was. He was a spiritual forefather; he was regenerate.

Rom. 4:1 What then shall we say was gained by Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh?

Being justified by works or by deeds is self-righteousness. You develop a lifestyle or a set of things which you do that you see as being good. They can boast about these works, but not before God. God is entirely unimpressed by man's works of righteousness. God is not impressed even slightly by what we do. He is impressed by His righteousness. Abraham believed God and it was credited to him as righteousness.

Just being related to Abraham is not enough.

Rom. 4:2 For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not before God.

Regeneration and justification is what is important. That is what a Jew needs to be a true Jew. Justification by faith; and righteousness is credited to you. You can do 900,000 good deeds in your lifetime, but you are born in sin, and you cannot meet the righteous standards of God with one sin.

Rom. 4:3 For what does the Scripture say? "Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness."

This key is not genetics; but the pharisees were seeking to kill Jesus for telling the truth. Millions have been killed for telling the truth that comes from God.

John 8:39 They answered and said to Him, Abraham is our father. Jesus answered them, If you were Abraham's children, you would do the works of Abraham.

Abraham did not reject the truth that he heard from God.

John 8:40 But now you seek to kill Me, a man who has told you the truth which I have heard beside God; this Abraham did not do.

They are seeking to kill Jesus; and those of the deeds of your father.

John 8:41 You do the deeds of your father. Then they said to Him, We are not born of fornication; we have one father, even God.

Summary

1. Doing the deeds of Abraham begins with believing in Christ and then receiving God's perfect righteousness.
2. How could these men follow in Abraham's footsteps without regeneration and justification? Why would God pay any attention to their deeds? Their deeds are pointless. Their deeds are nothing to boast about. They have to possess the righteousness which Abraham received.
3. As unbelievers, they were not equipped to do the works of a regenerate person. These men knew of the deeds of Abraham.
4. They could only produce legalism and human good. They could not produce the deeds of a regenerate Abraham. They lack God's righteousness.
5. Abraham accepted the truth from God; the difference was; he believed, unlike the Jews who rejected Jesus to His face.
6. After believing and being justified by faith, Abraham was circumcised as the first Jew. Circumcision did not make him a true Jew. He was circumcised as a sign.
7. The pharisees were all physically circumcised. They were Jews. That was a sign of being a Jew; but they were not true Jews.
8. They could not be the spiritual seed of Abraham. They had not believed in Christ; nor could they have done the deeds of Abraham.

Jesus is telling these people that they are not doing the works of their father, Abraham. This is clear, because they wanted to kill Jesus. Their murderous hatred revealed their souls for what was in them. They had no standing before God as Abraham's progeny. Their only connection to him is a bloodline.

1. The people of God are regenerate, not

2. Regeneration and justification are the legacy of Abraham to his true descendants. That is his true legacy.

These men are so mad, they are apoplectic.

John 8:41 You do the deeds of your father. Then they said to Him, We are not born of fornication; we have one father, even God.

They have locked-in negative volition, they cannot see the truth spoken by Jesus. So many people in this world think exactly the same way. Every religion on earth except Biblical Christianity depends upon their own deeds for salvation.

They might be in the genetic line of Abraham, they do not know the God of Abraham.

If God were your father, then you would love Me.

John 8:42 Jesus said to them, "If God were your father, you would love Me, for I went forth and came from God; for I did not come of Myself, but He sent Me."

Jesus had a divine descent; a spiritual descent. "This was not even My choice; God chose Me." God the Father is the One Who sent Him. He was a Son of God the Father. It was God Who sent His Son to fulfill this mission. Jesus was entirely dependent upon the Father.

They would have to love Him and accept Him as the Messiah. They reject Jesus, Whom God sent.

John 8:42 Jesus said to them, If God were your father, you would love Me, for I went forth and came from God; for I did not come of Myself, but He sent Me.

The bottom line is v. 43. There is a blackout in their souls. They fail to understand Jesus Christ and His doctrine. They fail to understand. They can have no truth in them. You either hear the gospel or you don't; you either hear Bible doctrine, or you do not hear truth. There is no truth in the pharisees.

This is divine viewpoint truth. This is absolute truth.

John 8:43 Why do you not know My speech? Because you cannot hear My Word.

These men seeking to kill Jesus are following in the exact mode of their father. Jesus tells them what their father is like, and what they are therefore like. They claim to be sons of Abraham; but Jesus calls them sons of the devil. There is no truth in the devil. Whenever Satan speaks a lie, he speaks from his own nature.

Lies are often couched in flattery. Lies are seductive. Listen to politicians. People believe all of that stuff.

Gen. 3:1 The serpent was more crafty than all of the animals which God had made. “Did God say, ‘You will not eat from every tree of the garden?’ ” Satan made it seem if God was holding out on them; that He was not giving them all that He could give them.

John 8:44 You are of the Devil as father, and the lusts of your father you will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and did not abide in the truth because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks of his own, for he is a liar and the father of it.

The book The Angelic Conflict covers this in great detail.

Adam and the woman ate, and they experienced spiritual death first; and physical death eventually.

These people have bought the lie. The form of Satan’s lie is human viewpoint. That is the lie of Satan. Anything that is not divine viewpoint is part of the distortions and lies of Satan. Whenever there is human viewpoint, it is always mixed with falsehoods; and therefore, it is a lie.

The pharisees have the Old Testament text and they know this truth. But they mix it with human viewpoint; they mix it with the traditions of their fathers.

Lesson #0563

John 8:44–49 Life of Christ

2/6/2014 Thurs

In reviewing this question, Bobby was thinking about it and he was a classical major. The golden age of Athens, and there was a question they debated, what is truth. This question has been considered and debated as long as mankind has thought about it. Bobby is going to deal with this to some degree. Jesus is dealing with men who were negative toward the gospel; but they were brilliant men.

Jesus deals with this question in a negative way. He deals with this from the standpoint of the rejection of truth. Rejecting Jesus and His message; their nature is falsehood and lies. Their very nature and existential being is a lie. In essence the rejecter of divine truth can only accept untruth. That is a harsh and absolute statement. You have truth or you don’t; you believe the lie or you don’t.

Absolute truth cannot mix with falsehood and come out as truth. It will be diluted and polluted.

Absolute truth can be diagrammed. There is truth on the one hand; and on the other hand, there are lies. They lie. In absolute truth, there is no cross over. It is either truth or it is a lie. There is also relative truth. There is no line which can be drawn here. The relative truth can bleed into the truth; and so can the falsehood. There can be bleed-through for relative truth.

We all know nice people who are unbelievers, who are not liars. But that is not what Bobby means here. Many people speak truth, in the sense that truth is a reflection of true situations. He is speaking in terms of absolutes, which is how Jesus thinks and speaks. Jesus speaks in absolutes and no other way. There is no relativism with Christ at all. There are no lies in Him. He is veracity. That is a part of His essence. Our Lord speaks of truth which is outside a person's own thoughts. That can only come from one place; from God.

In this way, Bobby has answered the age-old question, what is truth? If someone rejects fully or in part divine truth, there is nowhere else to go. Such a person can only ultimately know that which is untrue.

The person who has relative truth does not have truth. There is the bleed-over of human viewpoint into truth; and it is no longer truth. The pharisees oppose Jesus Christ and they oppose His message; so they can only speak the believe in Satan's thinking, which is the lie. That is his operational methods in this world.

In John 8:44, Jesus is saying this to the pharisees. They have rejected Him and they have rejected the truth. They want to follow in the footsteps of the great liar.

Being a murderer goes back to the garden of Eden. He murdered the first two people. They became spiritually dead. He used a lie to lead them into spiritual death.

John 8:44 You are of the Devil as father, and the lusts of your father you will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and did not abide in the truth because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks of his own, for he is a liar and the father of it.

Satan is a liar; he is the father of lies. Absolute truth lies in Jesus. Human viewpoint is a system of lying. Jesus speaks of the pharisees as the devil's children, and they think that they are related to God because they are Abraham's children.

Who are the pharisees? Who are these sons of the devil? They are the religious leaders; they are steeped in religion. Religion is the realm of the pharisees; it is the realm of untruth. Religion is a subtle way to replace divine viewpoint in the guise of God's truth.

Religion is one of the greatest blinders to the truth. They have believed the lie; and they are only able to perpetrate lies.

They have accepted the lies of religion; so it is impossible for them to believe in Jesus. Lies to them are truth. There is no other truth in them.

Jesus exposes the truth lineage of these pharisees, and it is the devil. Then Jesus publically challenges them.

Jesus puts them on the spot, as He has done many times in the past.

John 8:45 And because I tell you the truth, you do not believe Me.

Jesus says, "Find one sin." If He sinned, he would be a liar. So he asks the pharisees to prove that he is not the Son of God. "What is truth?" "I am truth."

When they lie, it convicts them.

Jesus Christ knew that He lived a perfect life. He knew that they could not convict Him of any sin. And He knew that He would be convicted and put on the cross. In front of Jesus were His enemies whom He would die for.

The pharisees cannot indict Jesus for any sin.

John 8:46 Which of you convicts Me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do you not believe Me?

Because you are not of God, you cannot hear God's words. The person who belongs to God can hear God's words and understands that they are God's words.

John 8:47 He who is of God hears God's Words. Therefore you do not hear them because you are not of God."

These vipers are backed into a corner. They are vipers, responding with hissing. They cannot accept the truth of the Lord. In a blast of hatred and anger, these guys blurt out the first rebuttal that comes to mind.

They say something really stupid. They have been exposed for exactly what they are. This is their limp attempt to indict Him. These are two insulting lies. He questions their origins, so they question His origins. "You are a Samaritan."

many a politician has used this same approach to their advantage. They are charged with something, so they respond with a false charge. If you tell a lie long enough and loud enough, people might believe it.

John 8:48 Then the Jews answered and said to Him, "Do we not say well that you are a Samaritan and have a demon?"

there was a substantial difference between the Jews and the Samaritans.

John 8:49 Jesus answered, "I do not have a demon, but I honor My Father, and you dishonor Me.

"I don't have a demon; and I honor My Father. You dishonor Me."

Jesus is not seeking His glory in anything that He does. Anything that He does is honoring to God the Father in many ways.

They are trapping themselves in their own logic. They are of their father the devil and they reject divine truth, standing right in front of them.

Communion Sunday 2/9/14

Early in Bobby's life, he was required to memorize some Scripture. This preserved the Word in his soul. One cannot begin the memorization of Scripture too early in life. These early impressions often last the longest. If you have the memory of Scripture in your soul, you can use it at any time; particularly in a communion service.

Memory of Christ shows appreciation for His work. All that we love is bound up in our memories. Memory can be lost. The great calamity is not the loss of memory in this life, but the retention of memory of the person who dies without Christ. This is the case of the rich man in Luke 16, who lifts up his eyes and sees Abraham and Lazarus. He cried out and said, "Father Abraham, have mercy on me that he might cool my tongue with a little water. Child, remember, you had all these good things when on earth. But now Lazarus is being comforted here and you are in agony.

There will be memory for believers and knowledge that they will have rejected Jesus Christ. They will know this. If there is any doubt in your mind of a literal Lake of Fire, think of this man in eternal agony in the flame.

We will worship Jesus for what He did for us on the cross, even in eternity.

"Without memory, the soul of man would be a poor, destitute being with a blank spread over him," Isaac Watts.

Our memory is the sweet savor of Jesus Christ; all that is perfect about Him. No other person is worthy of our complete focus and reverence. We are not called to remember Abraham, even though he is the father of Israel. We are not called to remember John the Baptizer. 2Tim. 2:8 Remember the Lord Jesus Christ. Focus on Him and His doctrines. That is the hope of all in all circumstances of life. It is not difficult to find reasons why we should think and mediate on the Lord Jesus Christ.

We are not to think of Him as we see in the artwork in the world; or as a good man in the world. The Word of God lifts out thoughts beyond. We are to remember Him as He lived among men.

Paul commends two things to our memory: the resurrection and Christ as the Seed of David. 1Cor. 15:17 And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile and you are still in your sins.

Jesus came to us in humility; not in imperial glory. He was the personal demonstration of God's interest in sinful and lost humanity. When we recall of Jesus being born in a manger; a helpless infant on the breast of His mother; we understand how God has served us. The Infinite Creator serving His depraved creatures. The life our Lord lived is the measure of all true living. He did not find His pleasure in self pleasure and mindless play.

Heb. 12:2 ...looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. This is the humble and joyful attitude of the irreplaceable Servant of mankind.

He made claims to Deity. Every word that He spoke relating to His Person, indicates that He understood that He was God manifest in the flesh. "I and the Father are One." Was he a liar when He stated that? "While I am in the world, I am the light of the world." No one can make a claim like this and be a humble servant at the same time.

The religious Jews were enraged by the claims which He made and they desired to kill Him. For this cause, the Jews were seeking all the more to kill Him. Not only was He breaking the Sabbath, but He was calling God His father, making Himself equal to God. "For a good work, we do not stone You...but for making Yourself out to be God."

Any minimizing the Deity of Jesus Christ is to take Him down to the level of mere man. If He is not Who He claims Himself to be, then we have no hope. From the very beginning of the New Testament, it is revealed how the Lord was related to sin and sinners. At the time of His birth, an angel appeared and said, "And she will bear a Son, and it is He Who would save His people from their sins." For we do not have a High Priest who does not sympathize with our weaknesses; and yet, without sin. When Jesus screamed on the cross, and He proclaimed His substitutionary death on the cross, bearing our sins in His Own body on the cross. The Father had to turn His back on the Son, even though the Son was spotless in His life. Jesus took upon Himself our sins and he suffered the penalty which our sins incurred. The Lord caused the iniquity of us all to fall on Him. But now once, at the consummation of the ages, He has been manifested to put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself. Christ also, having been offered once, to bear the sins of many. So how can we say that Jesus did not die spiritually by coming in contact with the very thing which repulsed Him the most? He did not die like some martyr and stand as a mere example of courage. He died for us, to reconcile the enmity between us and God.

He should have another title besides Savior; the Destroyer. The Son of God appeared for this purpose, that He might destroy the works of the devil. He sealed Satan's doom while He hung on the cross. Satan will be bound and cast into the bottom of the pit. And He laid hold of the dragon, the serpent of old, who is the devil and Satan, and shut it and sealed it over Him, so that he should not deceive the nations any more.

The cosmos is due for a complete redo. Beyond is the light and the glory of our resurrection. "After a little while, the world will behold Me no more. But you will behold Me because I live, you will live also."

2Tim. 1:10 ...and which now has been manifested through the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel...

Isa 53:5 But He was wounded for our transgressions; He was crushed for our iniquities; upon Him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with His stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned--every one--to his own way; and the LORD has laid on Him the iniquity of us all.

Lesson #0565

John 8:44–58 Life of Christ

2/9/2014 2Sunday

This verse is quite revealing of the nature of the evil of the pharisees. This thinking is still alive and well today. As Jesus speaks to them, the pharisees get madder and madder and they look for stones to throw at Him.

Jesus is speaking to the religious leaders of Israel. They are the most pious. They cannot see themselves as being in the realm of the devil. Jesus continues, providing a description for them of their father, in association with their father.

“Satan was a murderer from the beginning and he takes not stand in the truth because there is no truth in him.” He speaks from his own being, from his own nature; he is a liar and the father of lies.

John 8:44 You are of the Devil as father, and the lusts of your father you will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and did not abide in the truth because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks of his own, for he is a liar and the father of it.

This is the divine definition of truth. Truth is absolute. It is defined and it is God's absolute truth. Divine viewpoint is what comes from the Bible and it is truth. Nowhere else in the world can truth be found. People have truth in part. But divine viewpoint is truth. Outside of a person's own thoughts; there is not even a little bit of falsehood. Scientific facts; you know there is falsehood there. Anything in this world has a mixture of falsehood with it, except for the Word of God. Absolute veracity. Satan's essence is lies. There is only one source of truth; God's Word, Bible doctrine.

Everything else is relative truth; truth mixed with lies. This mix is Satan's cosmic system of lies. It includes the relative truth. Human viewpoint has truth in it. People find truth. In human viewpoint is also falsehood, wherever it departs from God's Word.

Absolute evil and absolute truth. Satan's deceptions and the way that he operates in this world always contains relative truth. That is what makes them such good deceptions. Many examples of this, beginning as far back as the Garden of Eden. All die in Adam because we sinned when Adam sinned.

Relative truth mixed with lies cannot lead one to divine viewpoint. The world at large can only be confused by divine truth; or who have mixed relative truth. You either have divine truth or you don't. Without it, you must accept the alternative. You can only think and speak untruth, because this is the cosmic system.

So Jesus calls them the devil's children. As his children, they can only know untruth as their world view.

The pharisees represent religion; they are the most religious of religious people. If they are the devil's children; and religion is the devil's ace trump. Religion is a subtle way to replace divine viewpoint. Sometimes, it walks in the guise of Christianity. If it is not Biblical, it is not Christianity. Churches today are rampant with that.

John 8:44 You are of the Devil as father, and the lusts of your father you will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and did not abide in the truth because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks of his own, for he is a liar and the father of it.

John 8:45 And because I tell you the truth, you do not believe Me.

John 8:46 Which of you convicts Me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do you not believe Me?

John 8:47 He who is of God hears God's Words. Therefore you do not hear them because you are not of God."

Unbelievers always refuse the truth. How can people hear the truth and reject it? The pharisees call Jesus a nasty name. If all you have left in your vocabulary, then you have lost. There is no thinking in that. That is simply emotion; reaction. They charge Him with the very thing that they are guilty of.

The Samaritans are the worst people they could think of. They also accuse Jesus of having a demon.

John 8:48 Then the Jews answered and said to Him, "Do we not say well that you are a Samaritan and have a demon?"

Jesus ignores the Samaritan accusation, and deals with the demon part.

John 8:49 Jesus answered, "I do not have a demon, but I honor My Father, and you dishonor Me.

Jesus is humble; He seeks the glory of God. He never sought His Own glory. He honors the Father in everything that He does. Nothing is for His Own glory.

Jesus cannot be demon-possessed; demons do not honor God. The attempt to dishonor the Lord Jesus Christ is a direct attack upon God the Father.

God the Father will seek everyone out and judge everyone. The pharisees are ready to kill.

John 8:50 And I do not seek My own glory, but there is One who seeks and judges.

Then Jesus launches into His 5th discourse. He offers Himself to deliver them from death. Jesus desires all men to be saved. Think of the person you hate the most; or the person you cannot stand; do not like very well. To not give them the gospel; to want them to spend eternity in hell, is probably the most heinous crime that you can commit. We owe the gospel to every person in the human race.

Even if you do not like them, give them the gospel anyway.

Jesus tells them, "Point of doctrine." He gives them the simple plan of salvation.

John 8:51 Truly, truly, I say to you, If a man keeps My Word, he shall never see death."

Keeping My Word is another way of saying, respond positively to My message. The result is, "He will never see death."

"What do you think of Christ?" that is the message Jesus is giving. If you have positive volition, then God will speak to them. The key to eternal life. The booklet on Witnessing.

But they think that Jesus is speaking of physical death. "You have just proven to us that you have a demon." They point out that Abraham and the prophets have died.

John 8:52 Then the Jews said to Him, "Now we know that you have a demon. Abraham and the prophets are dead, and you say, If a man keeps my Word, he shall never taste of death.

The prophets died too. Who do You think You are?" They pose a rhetorical question; they think that everyone can draw a conclusion. The conversation continues.

John 8:53 Are you greater than our father Abraham, who died? And the prophets are dead; whom do you make yourself?

Then Jesus tells them, "Get mad if you want; but I can only speak the truth."

John 8:54 Jesus answered, If I glorify Myself, My glory is nothing; it is My Father who glorifies Me, of whom you say that He is your God.

Jesus perfectly keeps the plan of God for Himself.

John 8:55 Yet you have not known Him, but I know Him. And if I should say I do not know Him, I would be a liar like you. But I know Him and I keep His Word.

They think that Abraham is physically dead and Jesus is alive, so he could not have known Abraham. Jesus does not make this claim to glorify Himself. He also claims to deliver from sin and eternal death. He makes the statement because it is the religious leaders who seek to glorify themselves.

God conferred upon Him this glorious mission and power. These Jews have claimed that they belong to God and that He is their father. But Jesus says, "I know the Father intimately and you do not." Hundreds of people are listening here.

Jesus had to say this, otherwise, He would be a liar as they are.

"You mean that Abraham will lay his eyes on You, and yet he died 2000 years ago? That proves that you are a liar." But Abraham did believe in the coming Messiah, looking forward to the cross, as we look backward to the cross. Abraham believed and it was credited to him as righteousness. Further, Jesus says, "He saw it and was glad." What Abraham did not see with his physical eye, he saw with his faith. We do the same that Abraham does. We see Him with our spiritual eyes. We do not see Him in person. We believe in Him, sight unseen.

John 8:56 Your father Abraham rejoiced to see My day, and He saw and was glad.

They continue with their misunderstanding of what Jesus was saying. How could Jesus see Abraham in the flesh? That is sarcasm. They open the door to one of the greatest doctrines of Christology, because Jesus had seen Abraham in the flesh.

John 8:57 Then the Jews said to Him, You are not yet fifty years old, and have you seen Abraham?

John 8:58 Jesus said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, Before Abraham came into being, I AM!

The doctrine of "I am" this Wednesday.

Lesson #0566

John 8:51–9:3 Life of Christ

2/12/2014 Wed

No class this coming week.

Going to complete John 8 tonite. This last discourse is the delivery from death discourse. Jesus has called the pharisees sons of the devil, which means they are deceivers, liars, devoid of any divine truth. They are His opposition just as much as Satan is His opposition. There were probably no more negative people in human history than these religious pharisees. Jesus never failed to present the gospel to them, to give them another opportunity to believe in Him. Always the same message, so that He might be known to them as their Savior. No one is lost until they die. There are deathbed conversions. Bobby's grandfather was supposedly a deathbed conversion.

John 8:58 Jesus said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, Before Abraham came into being, I AM!

What Jesus says here is to unbelievers. Keeping His Word would be to believe in Him. Those who say no will live in condemnation forever; the same end as their master Satan. Hell is created for the devil and his angels.

He has said the same things in many passages previously in John. So many passages present the gospel in just this way. Salvation by faith alone in Christ alone.

John 8:51 Truly, truly, I say to you, If a man keeps My Word, he shall never see death.”

They interpret this to understand that believing in Him would preclude physical death. That is not true; so they suggest that He is nutty to make such a statement.

John 8:52 Then the Jews said to Him, “Now we know that you have a demon. Abraham and the prophets are dead, and you say, If a man keeps my Word, he shall never taste of death.

Are you crazy?

John 8:53 Are you greater than our father Abraham, who died? And the prophets are dead; whom do you make yourself?

John 8:54 Jesus answered, If I glorify Myself, My glory is nothing; it is My Father who glorifies Me, of whom you say that He is your God.

John 8:55 Yet you have not known Him, but I know Him. And if I should say I do not know Him, I would be a liar like you. But I know Him and I keep His Word.

Abraham, according to Bobby, understood the Messiah.

John 8:56 Your father Abraham rejoiced to see My day, and He saw and was glad.

So they use some sarcasm. You cannot have seen Abraham. He lived 2000 years ago.

John 8:57 Then the Jews said to Him, You are not yet fifty years old, and have you seen Abraham?

But the fact is, Jesus saw Abraham in the flesh; and Abraham spoke to Jesus as well. This sarcasm led Jesus to give them the basis of a great doctrine. Before Abraham was, I am.

John 8:58 Jesus said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, Before Abraham came into being, I AM!

The Pre-existence of Jesus Christ

1. It did not matter how old Jesus was in His humanity.
2. Christ means that He actually did see Abraham in the flesh. There are many times when Abraham spoke directly with God. Some quotations out of Gen. 17. Abraham did have contact; God promised him a son. He spoke to Abraham on many occasions.
3. In actuality, Jesus existed before Abraham existed.
4. Even before Jesus Himself was born into the world as true humanity, He existed. If He was before Abraham, He certainly existed before His birth. This becomes a conundrum for these sarcastic unbelievers. I AM is the claim to be God. This is the 3rd time that Jesus has used the term I AM. Εγώ ειμι, which means I AM. Vv. 28, 58. We are to look at these. Wherever it reads I am [He], it obscures the meaning. Jesus is not making some personal identification. He is identifying Himself as God from eternity past. This is an existential meaning.

The Real Pre-existence Doctrine

1. In the Greek, I AM means He always was.
2. Before anyone was born, I AM; Jesus existed.
3. This is a timeless being.
4. There was never a time when the Son was not.
5. I AM is an assertion of absolute assertion of absolute eternal existence.
6. He is essentially unnameable and inexplicable.
7. Jesus Christ is eternal life in His very being. That is one of His characteristics. This verb has a prominent place in the Old Testament.

Exodus 3:13 Then Moses said to God, "If I come to the people of Israel and say to them, 'The God of your fathers has sent me to you,' and they ask me, 'What is his name?' what shall I say to them?" Moses is asking God, what shall I call You?

Exodus 3:14 God said to Moses, "I AM WHO I AM." And he said, "Say this to the people of Israel, 'I AM has sent me to you.'"

I Am Back in the Old Testament

1. The Hebrew verb is יהִי; this is the proper name that God applies to Himself. He says, I AM.
2. This is seen in many other passages.
3. Most scholars take this to be the Qal stem of hayah as YHWH. That is the sacred tetragrammaton, which is never spoken.
4. This means the One Who is; the One Who exists.
5. The One ever coming into manifestation as the God of redemption.
- 6.
7. He was the One Who called Abraham out of Ur of the Chaldees. He made the everlasting covenant with Abraham and his progeny. He was intimately involved with all of Abraham's life. This is the Great I AM.

John 8:58 Jesus said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, Before Abraham came into being, I AM!

Now, they hear this for the 3rd time and they cannot believe it. They pick up stones to kill Him. "You are calling Yourself the Great I AM? Let's see how long you last if we stone You to death."

When it was His time to die, then Jesus would face that with His absolute courage.

John 8:59 Then they took up stones to throw at Him. But Jesus hid Himself and went forth out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and passed on by.

So ends these great set of discourses.

Summarizing John 8

1. Jesus undercut their claim to being related to God. They were physical sons of Abraham; but that was not the covenant promise.
2. Jesus identified them in their true identity. They were not sons of Abraham; they were children of the devil. This was greatly insulting.
3. Jesus Christ in this chapter put His finger on the reason for rejecting Him. It is a universal reason.
4. During this entire chapter, the Jews built a progressive attitude of hostility toward Jesus.
5. They took this hostility all the way to violence. Stoning him was their response.
6. This was vicious unbelief. This is the cornerstone and the motivation for all persecution for all Christians at one time. This would culminate with Jesus going to the cross. This was the point of no return. The die was cast.

Now we move to John 9.

The Basic Subject Matter

1. The conflict between the pharisees and Jesus continues. It is about Jesus healing a blind beggar on the Sabbath.
2. This is a continuation of the conflict over the I am the light of the world discourse.
3. So Jesus uses a man who has never seen light before, to demonstrate that He is the light.
4. This man will see the light by means of the Light of the World. Very illustrative.

We are still dealing with the same sort of subject matter. He leaves the Temple so He is not stoned; but He returns later.

There were homeless people all over and this man might have been one man of many beggars

John 9:1 As he passed by, he saw a man blind from birth.

Then Jesus disciples ask Him a question. "Is this man blind because of his parents?"

John 9:2 And his disciples asked him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?"

Now, this man can hear them. This might be a little impolite. They think that his malady is related to sin. Either his personal sin or the sin of his parents. Physical disability was a divine judgment, according to Jewish thought. They believed that such a person was being judged by God, so they avoided such people.

John 9:3 Jesus answered, "It was not that this man sinned, or his parents, but that the works of God might be displayed in him."

How could this man sin before he was born? One theory is, the disciples were reflecting the viewpoint of a Jewish sect called the Essenes. These were a very pious and way out group. They held a lot of strange doctrines. They believed in the preexistence and reincarnation of the soul. This soul had sinned in a previous life. Transmigration of the soul is found in many other religions.

If not reincarnation, then he committed some sin in the womb; and that is quite hard to fathom. How could he have caused his blindness before birth. These are not theological doctrine

If you can blame your parents, then would we not all be born blind? This is how legalistic Jews thought.

So Jesus explains this; so we will pick this up Thursday night.

John 9:3 Jesus answered, "It was not that this man sinned, or his parents, but that the works of God might be displayed in him."

Lesson #0567

John 9:1–5 Life of Christ

2/13/2014 Thurs

The disciples were known for their bonehead questions. Bobby is amazed at the sort of things which they ask. This will not be one of their great theological moments.

John 7–9 are in chronological order.

Jesus comes back to the Temple, which is a pretty bold move.

The purpose of going back was centered in one man. There was a very pathetic man; he had been blind from birth. Light had never penetrated his eye. He had never seen anything at all. He had never seen a mountain, a tree; the dust he was sitting in. He could hear and smell and touch.

John 9:1 As he passed by, he saw a man blind from birth.

John 9:2 And his disciples asked him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?"

Jesus walks by and takes pity on this man; and the disciples ask, "Did he sin or did his parents sin?"

How did he sin himself? Only if he had a previous life, which the essenes believed. The more logical approach is, maybe it is the sins of the parents? But if that were true, we would all be born blind.

John 9:3 Jesus answered, "It was not that this man sinned, or his parents, but that the works of God might be displayed in him."

Jesus said, neither of these things. But God's power is going to be displayed in him. God would use this blindness for His Own purposes.

Bobby thought about this for awhile; at times, this is the way that the plan of God works in the life of believers and unbelievers both. God works these circumstances. He uses difficult circumstances to further His will. It is always to the benefit of the person.

We do not always know how God is using us; particularly under adverse situations. The fact that He does is irrefutable. This is certainly a rationale of faith rest. God's plan is perfect; He has a plan for us. Relax; that is a simple faith rest drill. God uses us for His glory; and we are the beneficiaries, even if we do not understand. This man's condition was to show God's work among mankind. He was going to be used in a very strategic way.

How Jesus Is Using this Man

1. This man would be a vehicle through which the Lord Jesus Christ would demonstrate that He is the light of the world. He is going back to that theme. He will confirm that doctrine through this man.
2. Jesus would bring light to this man; He would open his eyes to light; a man in darkness since birth. His eyes will physically see. Jesus is the light of the world to illuminate mankind. We endure and we relax knowing that God's purpose is being achieved in us. The use of this man's blindness by Christ raises a question; a question about how God uses man. How does God use man based upon what we see in this situation.

We have to wonder sometimes just how far the sovereignty of God goes. Does God use us for just one or two things and the rest is whatever.

There Is the Conjunction $\iota\alpha$.

1. This introduces a purpose clause or a result clause.
2. Which type of clause it is reveals Jesus' meaning in v. 3b.
3. Hina is coupled with the aorist passive subjunctive mood of phaneroô.
4. From this grammatical construction, hina and the subjunctive, this represents a result clause.
5. The result clause is translated, with the result that the works of God might be revealed in him.
6. The works of God are displayed as a result of the fact of his blindness. But not as the expressed purpose of his blindness.

7. God did not purpose in eternity past to make him blind for this healing moment in the life of Christ. God knew that he would be blind.
8. What happened? This man was born blind through natural causes; a birth defect or whatever. This was through the natural course of things.
9. The result clause expresses the opportunity for Jesus to display God's work. It is not a purpose clause. He was blind and, as a result, God's works would be demonstrated through him.
10. His blindness just represents the circumstances which Jesus will use. But this does not confirm a divinely appointed illness in order to have this miracle. God did not prepare this man only for the demonstration of the works of God.
11. His blindness came from some cause; over which he had no control.
12. However, the malady in his conception would be used to teach.

We face bad decisions which just happened; or we do something to put us in whatever situation; and God often uses these situations to His glory. He often uses the suffering of others to reveal God.

Paul and the thorn in the flesh. He wanted to be relieved of it; but God said "No, deal with it." So we ask, "I must go through adversity in order to reveal God's work?" Not always, but it sometimes works that way.

The only pain which God inflicts upon us, it is for discipline and it is done out of love. If we are out of line, God is going to correct it; and sometimes it is painful.

This is the only time recorded that Jesus healed a man blind from birth. This was a permanent, irreversible condition; and everyone knew this. This meant that this man had never seen light. This is how the souls of all men are born; without light. We have no light. Jesus is the light of the world; He illuminates the darkness. Nothing and no one could cure him.

There is another aspect to this miracle in its application to us. Is fate the master of man? Is life just what it is? Is there no rational accounting for our circumstances? Are we simply the victims of chance? People have said, there is nothing I can do to fix my life; it is out of control. Everyone is against me..

Our Lives and God's Will

1. This miracle shows that Jesus Christ is the master of human fate.
2. Irrespective of its cause, He is able to overcome any misfortune or any bad decisions.
3. This miracle will show that fatalism or a fatalistic attitude. You do not need to worry about control, you control freaks. When you have no control, His plan is still in operation. What a contrast that this is to the way of life in the Muslim world. Fate in that world is everything. It is all God's will. Man can make decisions, but it is all directed by God.

Jesus connects the miracle which is about to happen with the purpose of His life. His works are a provision of God the Father for Jesus Christ. The line of sight goes to this man and he will become a believer. He also refers to the work of the disciples' lives in spreading the light of the world.

So for Christ, His days as the present light are limited. His crucifixion, resurrection, and ascension are a very short time away. He must get on with His life.

This is an urgent call for the disciples to take up the work of illuminating darkened souls; and they will continue this even when He is not present. Their time is also limited, just as His is. Redeem the time; make the best use of time.

Is Bobby saying that we should never go out and have a good time and have a vacation? No; but we are to continue to spread the light. The life that we live is the light in this world. We reflect the light in this world.

John 9:4 We must work the works of him who sent me while it is day; night is coming, when no one can work.

This man has never had any light; and he is about to get light full in the face.

Jesus is saying here that there is a time limit.

John 9:5 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world."

Jesus made some clay out of spit and mud; and then he is told to wash in the Pool of Salome. Jesus has a format to this miracle. He does not say, "Okey

Jesus spit on the Sabbath and this was not a good thing to do; and making clay was not to be done; and nothing was to be done on Sunday.

Jesus is the light of the world; He is the Lord of the Sabbath.

Why did Jesus have to spit make clay, and on this guy's eyes.

With the clay and all of that, it is clear that Jesus did something with this man; and this resulted in clay on his face. After the sight is restored, then the sermon begins. Jesus sent this man to the pool and he went.

The pharisees would go wild about this. They had to reconcile a great deal about the Sabbath. We will get there.

When someone wants to insult another person, they say, "I'll spit in your eye." Jesus did that, to some degree, regarding the pharisees and the blind man. Jesus will spit into the eye of a beggar blind since birth.

John 9:6 Having said these things, he spat on the ground and made mud with the saliva. Then he anointed the man's eyes with the mud

John 9:7 and said to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam" (which means Sent). So he went and washed and came back seeing.

The blind man could have chosen to be insulted by this. He could have interpreted this as a cruel joke and refuse to believe that Jesus could heal him. This would have been a bit of a hike, especially for a blind man. He could have just cleaned the clay out of his eyes and said foey.

Saliva was a standard remedy for eye problems in that time period. In a weird way, the spit and the clay was an act of kindness which this man had not experienced before.

Jesus defended him back in v. 3, saying that his blindness was not a result of his sins or the sins of his parents. Many had simply assumed this to be the case. No one had defended this man before. This was not just an act of compassion. Jesus had an ulterior motive, in this case with the spit and the clay.

Jesus specifically committed this act of charity on a Sabbath, which was enforced by the legalistic pharisees. This was an impetus for a coming confrontation.

Jesus was using this to enforce the metaphor, "I am the light of the world" which was His sermon recently. Jesus illuminates the darkness in men's souls. For the first time, this beggar would see the light of day and for the first time, he would see the Light of the World.

This man getting up and going to the pool of Siloam, that was an indication of positive volition. He saw his own reflection; he saw buildings, terrain, sky, things he had never seen before. He could only speculate what all of these things look like.

You think about kids today engrossed in one form of media or another; and this guy is taking massive amounts of information all at once. However, at this point, he had not actually seen Jesus nor had he heard the gospel of salvation. But something happened to him that he never thought could.

There are people who knew this man and had seen him many times; and they recognized this man. They could not believe their own eyes. They had never seen anything like this before.

Normally, the eyes of a blind person are pointed in a different way but now, he is looking at people, and his neighbors know who he is and that he could see.

John 9:8 The neighbors and those who had seen him before as a beggar were saying, "Is this not the man who used to sit and beg?"

Some were quite skeptical. Miracles defy logic and rationalism and empiricism. This is why miracles are not believed today. God performs miracles today; but men do not.

This skeptical reaction is normal. Some said, "Well, he just looks a lot like that guy."

John 9:9 Some said, "It is he." Others said, "No, but he is like him." He kept saying, "I am the man."

The natural question is, "How the heck did this happen?" They are admitting that there was a miracle. Some of the skeptics may have said this as well.

Those who are wrong and cannot refute what is right, often resort to character assassination or to sarcasm.

John 9:10 So they said to him, "Then how were your eyes opened?"

The blind beggar tells what happened; and he doesn't care what they think .

John 9:11 He answered, "The man called Jesus made mud and anointed my eyes and said to me, 'Go to Siloam and wash.' So I went and washed and received my sight."

These facts cannot be denied. He was a walking, seeing, happy, testimony that Jesus Christ is the light of the world.

The beggar had no idea where Jesus went. But he did not know what Jesus looked like.

John 9:12 They said to him, "Where is He?" He said, "I do not know."

So, some decide to bring the pharisees in on this. Do not vote for people who are threatened by the truth.

The pharisees were threatened by this and they sought to discredit his story and his background. This is normal opposition to Jesus Christ then and now.

John 9:13 They brought to the Pharisees the man who had formerly been blind.

They figured out that all of this occurred on the Sabbath.

John 9:14 Now it was a Sabbath day when Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes.

Because of the Sabbath; the pharisees wanted to investigate such a thing being done on the Sabbath. Good deal, a miracle; but too bad it was done on the Sabbath. They had to

The context is important when dealing with the life of our Lord. The rebound technique.

Jesus Christ made the controversial statement, "I am the light of the world;" and He included the statement, "I am the light of life." Jesus has all the attributes of deity and of humanity as well. He did not appear just as a good man performing miracles; nor was He a man of simply strong convictions with ideas that would lead to His death. Nor was He some political liberator of people. These are humanistic views of Jesus, which emphasize His humanity and de-emphasize His Deity. If Jesus were just a good man, then He cannot be the Savior. If Jesus who claimed to be the Savior was not, then He was not really a good man. Millions have died in His name in vain.

The humanistic view is, there are many pathways to God. He and only He can provide eternal life for man. He is the great I am. That is Who that baby in the manger was. The term the light of the world, is the full scope of Who Jesus is.

In the process, all would see Who Jesus is, through the eyes of the blind man. Jesus spat on the ground and made a clay, and put that into the guy's eyes. "Here's mud in your eye" is actually a blessing conveyed to those you are drinking with.

John 9:6 Having said these things, he spat on the ground and made mud with the saliva. Then he anointed the man's eyes with the mud...

John 9:7 ...and said to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam" (which means Sent). So he went and washed and came back seeing.

John 9:8 The neighbors and those who had seen him before as a beggar were saying, "Is this not the man who used to sit and beg?"

People were skeptical, as they well should have been.

John 9:9 Some said, "It is he." Others said, "No, but he is like him." He kept saying, "I am the man."

so they asked about it.

John 9:10 So they said to him, "Then how were your eyes opened?"

Then he told them how it all happened.

John 9:11 He answered, "The man called Jesus made mud and anointed my eyes and said to me, 'Go to Siloam and wash.' So I went and washed and received my sight."

Essentially, they put this guy on trial. As soon as they heard the name of Jesus Christ. They asked if it was a real miracle or not; and then they became concerned the miracle took place on the Sabbath.

John 9:12 They said to him, "Where is he?" He said, "I do not know."

Simply because this man had been cured, the pharisees were implying that he is complicit in this miracle. The pharisees could not break him down.

John 9:13 They brought to the Pharisees the man who had formerly been blind.

John 9:14 Now it was a Sabbath day when Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes.

They continue the questioning.

John 9:15 So the Pharisees again asked him how he had received his sight. And he said to them, "He put mud on my eyes, and I washed, and I see."

The pharisees try to refute this act as being of God. Jesus did it on the Sabbath. Their logic is, if Jesus did not keep the Sabbath, then He could not have been from God. But Jesus had violated their Sabbath regulations, not God's.

John 9:16 Some of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, for he does not keep the Sabbath." But others said, "How can a man who is a sinner do such signs?" And there was a division among them.

Then the simple question, how can someone not from God do such a thing? They could not discredit the miracle. Legalism knows no bounds, even in the face of truth. They could not refute the miracle.

Others said, "How can a sinner perform such a sign?" A faction was not sure that this miracle was phoney. They were curious. There are divisions.

John 9:17 So they said again to the blind man, "What do you say about him, since he has opened your eyes?" He said, "He is a prophet."

So they ask the man his opinion. He is being made into a pawn for their power struggle. This man had not yet seen Jesus; he had not yet heard the gospel. He is not sure exactly Who Jesus is. This man is proclaiming Jesus, even though he does not realize that is what he is doing.

How you live is also a witness. This man proclaimed the truth, even though this man did not fully realize this himself. But he had gratitude for the gracious gift of Jesus. He had no illusions about himself or about his worthiness. He was an outcast; he was an unacceptable person before the Jews. He was humble and grateful. Gratitude is the most basic way to honor the grace of God. Believers should always have gratitude in the souls for God's grace. This man had a dose of grace and he understood where it came from. This grace orientation is far from human viewpoint thinking; it is the opposite of humanism. Humanism is a self-centered attitude of what you can accomplish. Believers should always have this gratitude. Because of God's grace, we will spend eternity in heaven.

We should also have gratitude for the spiritual life which God has given us. There is a great big hole in many souls because they are self-absorbed and lack gratitude entirely. What should you have gratitude for if you are the only one who matters?

Grace is our life; we have logistical grace, living grace and dying grace. If we have no gratitude for that, we have no orientation to grace. These pharisees should be glad for this man, and for God's grace.

Furthermore, the Messiah is among them. They could only think of their religion, power and prestige among the people. They cannot recognize someone who is greater than they are. They have legalism, ingratitude and rejection.

Here is an example of the ingratitude of the Jews:

Num. 21:5 And the people spoke against God and against Moses, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no food and no water, and we loathe this worthless food."

Therefore, they complain about God and about the leadership.

So, what does God do? God disciplines them.

Num. 21:6 Then the LORD sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people, so that many people of Israel died.

Wherever they are bitten, the bite felt fiery. It burned. These people have watched the grace of God from Egypt to this point, and they had their chance. They had more opportunities to see it than in any other age.

Many of them died a miserable death after many years of negative volition.

Attitude and Gratitude

1. No one can be happy when their gratitude/attitude is zero. No gratitude; no happiness. You should examine yourself whether you have gratitude about anything. At best, you have can moments of happiness or stimulation; but you do not have a straight-line consistent level of happiness.
2. People without gratitude can only see the negative side of life. Nothing is ever sufficient. Nothing is ever enough. You have to have more. These are the pessimists who always see something wrong. Nothing is every sufficient.

3. There is never a contentment with a lack of gratitude. No good fortune can entirely fulfill those who lack gratitude.
4. No lasting contentment without gratitude.
5. The abundant side of life cannot be appreciated. It is invisible to them even when it is there. The American dream is to have stuff; and for some, it is to be given stuff by means of the work of others.
6. In the soul of ingratitude, there is always one more thing to worry about. Stressing out about everything. The opposite of contentment is worry. Constantly waiting for problems to cease; worried about new problems which can occur. When you are grateful for what God has given you; when you are able to utilize God's problem solving devices. People think that circumstances are the key to happiness; and the believer in Jesus Christ has an entirely different perspective. Content under all circumstances.
7. That is the attitude of even the most blessed person with no gratitude or appreciation in the soul. That person cannot comprehend the plan of God or His grace. For the believer in Jesus Christ, that is deadly. Legalists have no true gratitude of soul. There are people in churches today who cannot wait to get out of church. That is just rote; they show up, everyone is there; and now they are respectable, but they cannot wait to get out. Their smiles will last as long as they are having a good meal. Or as long as stimulation is around; but alone, they do not have true gratitude. .

This formerly-blind beggar will not back down. We will continue to see what happens with this beggar.

Lesson #0570

John 9: Life of Christ

2/23/2014 2Sunday

Complaints that Bobby is going too fast. He is repeating the points from above. Those points are filled in and left above.

Ματαιότης speaks of the believer who is empty of soul. The soul is a vacuum. There is nothing. What is scooped up into the soul of the believer is nothing. When doctrine is not being pulled in. If there is no doctrine, only human viewpoint is pulled into the soul. There is false doctrine and human viewpoint sucked into the soul, and that is what comes out from such a soul. The sin nature takes control so that the believer with an empty soul filled with garbage accelerates the rush toward a syncretistic Christianity. Mixing all of your human viewpoint with the sin nature; and the result for the believer is syncretism. Looking for happiness in all the wrong places; a restless soul which cannot take in Bible doctrine. There is no desire to find truth. There is some doctrine; but there are so many other things there as well. Beware of what you take into your soul. It pollutes.

Results

1. The pathetic blind believer with mataiotês loses the battle in the soul. They lose stress, sin, problem-solving incompetence. Some sit in class and wonder why it is not doing any good. It isn't working. Thousands of people have come into Berachah and they have said, doctrine doesn't work. But if you fill your soul with garbage, then garbage in, garbage out.

2. The 4 horsemen of apostasy take over your soul. Emotional revolt, locked-in negative volition, blackout of the soul and scar tissue of the soul. The book on Reversionism examines these 4 horsemen.
3. No gratitude results with the 3 arrogance traps:
 - a. self-justification (a believer takes responsibility for what he does wrong; and he can deal with what is right without being puffed up).
 - b. Self-deception. The sin nature likes to hear certain things. We offset this with doctrine in the soul,
 - c. Self-absorption. You can only think about yourself and your own troubles. The Exodus generation just filled their souls with venom. They struck out against Aaron, Moses and God. What a pathetic group of believers; they do not understand grace or doctrine. Ironically, the more grace they received, the less they valued it.

Application: if you are constantly stressed-out about problems in life, then you are not recognizing the grace of God. You are not utilizing His gracious resources in the form of problem solving devices. You have removed yourself because of a lack of knowledge. If you don't understand grace, you have no gratitude. You have removed yourself from happiness or contentment. What a great gauge of your spiritual life. You have it or you don't.

The pharisees are the epitome of ingratitude. They strike against Christ.

John 9:17 So they said again to the blind man, "What do you say about him, since he has opened your eyes?" He said, "He is a prophet."

The pharisees respond to this. Manipulators can manipulate from time to time, but many times their manipulation backfires.

They cannot shake the beggar's story, so they bring in the parents to interrogate them. These Jews could not believe that this man was blind and received sight.

John 9:18 The Jews did not believe that he had been blind and had received his sight, until they called the parents of the man who had received his sight

Here are some of the questions which they asked. They put the parents on the spot; this is intimidating.

John 9:19 and asked them, "Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?"

Is this really your son? Was he really born blind? Can this really be true? They are demanding that the parents perjure themselves. This is in the Temple in the middle of a big crowd. The pharisees reveal themselves as corrupt and evil. You cannot corrupt the Word of God and have anything other than evil and corruption. If you listen to someone who touts that he is speaking truth, then you must be able to match it up with Bible doctrine.

People locked into their own agenda in life, lying, cheating and even killing are allowed in order to get you from point A to point B. They can justify anything for what they see as a great cause. The ends justify the means to them.

The great cause of the pharisees is their religion; religion had a stranglehold over the people in Judæa.

John 9:20 His parents answered, "We know that this is our son and that he was born blind.

The parents do answer the questions honestly. "What you say is true; but I don't know anything" is what they said. They were very fearful of the consequences of their testimony. They did not want to anger the pharisees. They turned the questioning back on their son.

They are worried for themselves, and they plead ignorance.

John 9:21 But how he now sees we do not know, nor do we know who opened his eyes. Ask him; he is of age. He will speak for himself."

The parents were corroborating that the son had been blind; and that he now had sight. The parents had become unwilling witnesses to Jesus Christ as the light of the world. Even when people want to lie, the truth is too strong. The parents only want to extract themselves.

We get authority tests all of the time. People over us test us; those who know us or don't know us, test us. People who have authority are tests for this man's parents. They are trying to wring a confession out of this man by threat and intimidation. How do you stand when you are intimidated? Does the Lord have your life in His hands? Or do you have to lie in order to get around and survive? This was like an inquisition; recant and believe in pharisee doctrine. These parents are being tortured.

John 9:22 (His parents said these things because they feared the Jews, for the Jews had already agreed that if anyone should confess Jesus to be Christ, he was to be put out of the synagogue.)

The pharisees passed the buck, because they were afraid of the Jews. They knew that anyone who confessed Jesus would be put out of the synagogue. These parents threw their son to the wolves. Today, some Jews who confess Jesus are considered dead by their family members.

In this era, they would be excommunicated; and no one could come within 4 cubits of the person excommunicated. You can see the reasoning going on in the minds of his parents. Our son is an outcast right now; why should we risk this for ourselves?

The parents knew that this was a miracle, but their fear would not allow them to give completely honest answers.

The pharisees had only the option of bringing back the beggar, the former blind man. They will try to break him down again.

John 9:23 Therefore his parents said, "He is of age; ask him."

We will go with the 2nd interrogation of the beggar.

Lesson #0571

John 9: Life of Christ

2/26/2014 Wed

Everything for this man was wonderful and sunny; and then the roof caved in on him. There were no parties, no rejoicing when this man received sight from Jesus Christ. As soon as this happened, his neighbors were incredulous and suspicious and then they hauled him to the pharisees, and they put him under a microscope where they tried to intimidate him and his parents.

"You were healed on the Sabbath, and that is wrong; so unless you recant your testimony of being healed on the Sabbath, we will charge you with breaking the Sabbath." But this beggar did not back away from the pharisees and he had true gratitude toward his Benefactor. The pharisees could not break him down. They could not make him recant.

They called in the parents and intimidated them, hoping to get them to testify against the son.

John 9:18 The Jews did not believe that he had been blind and had received his sight, until they called the parents of the man who had received his sight

Is this really your son? And if he is, was he really born blind? And if that, then how is it that he now sees?

John 9:19 and asked them, "Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?"

They had hoped to discredit the whole thing. The parents were intimidated; they knew that the pharisees threatened anyone who supported Jesus excommunication from the Temple.

John 9:20 His parents answered, "We know that this is our son and that he was born blind.

They pass the buck back to their son, but they do confirm that he was blind but they do not know how he came to see.

John 9:21 But how he now sees we do not know, nor do we know who opened his eyes. Ask him; he is of age. He will speak for himself."

“Look, he is old enough; ask him.” So far, no cause has been given for the cure. This trial is being held publically; and the crowd is hearing all of this—and many of them knew about this beggar.

John 9:22 (His parents said these things because they feared the Jews, for the Jews had already agreed that if anyone should confess Jesus to be Christ, he was to be put out of the synagogue.)

His parents did not want to be put out of the synagogue, so they referred the pharisees back to their son.

John 9:23 Therefore his parents said, "He is of age; ask him."

This young man is not a believer at this point. But he would not back down from his testimony.

We may be faced with intimidation; we may be facing prosecution. If you adhere to Rom. 1, you can be considered discriminatory; and you might even be accused of a hate crime. Biblically, marriage is between a man and a woman. Our nation is headed downhill when marriage is being redefined.

What happens when the law of the land is in opposition to the Bible?

This man was catching hell from these religious leaders.

John 9:24 So for the second time they called the man who had been blind and said to him, "Give glory to God. We know that this Man is a sinner."

They say that Jesus is a sinner, so glory ought to be given to God. “Okay, we will accept that you were blind and now can see; but give the glory for that to God.”

This is a man who was previously ignored, often by these very pharisees; and now he is the center of their attention. Giving glory to God could move him from being persecuted to being accepted and celebrated. They cared nothing for this guy; they simply wanted to make certain that Jesus is not given credit for this.

John 9:25 He answered, "Whether He is a sinner I do not know. One thing I do know, that though I was blind, now I see."

The formerly blind man said, “I have no idea about this man and His character; but I do know that I was blind before and now I can see.”

The pharisees were offering this man a plea bargain, as it were. If they were pleased, that would bring glory to God, to their way of thinking.

They were offering this man a sweet deal in that day and time. Tell a few lies and take what we will give you. Morality and integrity are often on a sliding scale, regarding society. Marriage traditionally has always been between a man and a woman.

The secular humanist agenda is diametrically opposed to the Word of God.

There is no gratitude like a believer who recognizes what Jesus has done for him. This man was as positive to Jesus as the pharisees were negative.

This man had the distinct privilege of witnessing to Jesus before this crowd and before angelic creation, which was no doubt there.

“Though I was blind; but now I see.” He had no illusions about what happened.

John 9:26 They said to him, "What did He do to you? How did He open your eyes?"

They are trying to break this man own; to go after his story.

John 9:27 He answered them, "I have told you already, and you would not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you also want to become His disciples?"

“Why do you want to hear this again? Do you want to become His disciples?” This guy is smart and sarcastic. Humor can really take the edge off of a tense situation and it can often get your point across.

These religious types had wasted a great deal of this man’s time; and he is on trial, and all he wants to do is walk around and look at things.

This man was looking for someone; he knew exactly where it was. A lot of people told Bobby, “When I heard your dad speak, I knew, that’s what I wanted; that is what I was looking for.”

John 9:28 And they reviled him, saying, "You are His disciple, but we are disciples of Moses.

The pharisees are upset here. Listen, you smart-ass; you are disciples of that Jesus; but we are disciples of Moses.

John 9:29 We know that God has spoken to Moses, but as for this Man, we do not know where He comes from."

We all know that God spoke to Moses; but we do not know about this Man.

This man has not yet heard the gospel and he would not recognize Jesus if he saw Him.

To those who are opposed to Jesus, even a kind word about Him will set them off. They cannot stand a person to be a Christian or a follower of Jesus.

Why do people want to eradicate Christianity and all images of it? They see Christianity as a medieval religion.

The Pharisees and Their View of Moses

1. The pharisees cite their authority as Moses, to whom God gave the Law.
2. They had long since superseded the Mosaic Law with their traditions. The Mosaic Law was in their rear-view mirror, just as the constitution is in the rear view mirror of many politicians today. They pharisees changed the Law of Moses to fit their own agenda.
3. Jesus was not in the pharisaical tradition.
4. They claimed to be followers of Moses.
5. The pharisees claimed to have more authority than Jesus and any of His disciples. This man was living proof of the power of Jesus.
6. They claim to be disciples of the Law sent by God through Moses; but the opposite was true. Those who oppose Christianity always oppose the truth. They only want to push their agenda. Does not matter what is true. They simply want to push against the truth.
7. The pharisees did not believe in the real Law-giver, the Lord Jesus Christ.
8. This is a perfect example of the arrogance and the hypocrisy of the unbelief in Jesus Christ. They saw God Incarnate and saw themselves as greater than Him. They elevated themselves over God.

Tyrants; that is what we have in Washington; they do not want anyone to think as they think. The pharisees refused to recognize Jesus as being from heaven; as being from God. He stated Who He was clearly; and proves it here through this beggar.

John 9:30 The man answered, "Why, this is an amazing thing! You do not know where He comes from, and yet He opened my eyes.

The man continues with his sarcasm. "You don't know what He is from, yet He opened my eyes." I can see; how come you can't see?

Insults did not bother this man. He has been insulted many times. He continues with his sarcastic attitude.

But this man will not reason his way through all of this. And this man throws caution to the wind. He does not care what these pharisees think. When you have truth in your soul, you can easily recognize that which is false.

Lesson #0572

John 9: Life of Christ

2/27/2014 Thurs

Our cast of characters includes Jesus and the blind beggar; and there are the non-supportive parents; and there are the usual pack of pompous, legalistic pharisees. It is all a volatile mix.

Jesus claimed to be the great I am; and the light of life. He claimed to be undiminished Deity. He proves His claim to be the light of the world. He brings the light of day to the eyes of a beggar blind from birth. There is physical light brought to a blind man and spiritual light brought to the souls of mankind.

The pharisees could lose their power if they allow any of this. The Lord is in the Temple; and there is always this large crowd in the Temple.

Interrogation of the blind man; he is on trial. There is no congratulations; only intimidation. This man refused to recant his testimony. When they asked him to tell them what happened, he told them; he would not change what he said.

This man lived in the dirt. He could see nothing. He was the lowest of the low. The grace of God is always extended to us. If you are in the midst of adversity, God is blessing you all the time; and if you are in the midst of blessing, bear in mind that God will change that as well.

This man was only willing to tell the truth; and he denied the pharisees a chance to discredit the truth and to discredit Jesus. The pharisees refused to give up. Their next move was to call this boy's parents to the witness stand.

The parents were reluctant to testify; but they had been subpoenaed. The pharisees could not break down the blind beggar, so they worked on the parents. They did confirm the reality of the miracle. They confirmed that the blind beggar is their son.

They do not give the pharisees the ammunition to discredit Jesus or their son. But they are afraid, and they pass it over to their son. "Look, our son is all grown up; ask him." The pharisees have struck out twice. So they recall the beggar to the witness stand.

The formerly blind man is probably tired of this questioning and he has a lot of time to make up for. He gets very impatient with these procedures. He becomes humorous and sarcastic. He plays it quite well. He had nothing to lose.

John 9:25 He answered, "Whether he is a sinner I do not know. One thing I do know, that though I was blind, now I see."

He makes it clear.

John 9:26 They said to him, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?"

So they ask him the same thing again.

John 9:27 He answered them, "I have told you already, and you would not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you also want to become his disciples?"

You are not listening to my answers. So why do you want to hear these answers again? Then he becomes sarcastic. "You don't want to become His disciples as well, do you?" Obviously, they don't. The crowd has a good laugh at this.

So the pharisees revile him; they curse him.

John 9:28 And they reviled him, saying, "You are His disciple, but we are disciples of Moses.

They are embarrassed in front of the crowd. In v. 29, they play to the crowd. They know that they have been insulted and harmed in the eyes of the crowd.

John 9:29 We know that God has spoken to Moses, but as for this man, we do not know where he comes from."

The beggar replies with more sarcasm.

John 9:30 The man answered, "Why, this is an amazing thing! You do not know where He comes from, and yet He opened my eyes.

"You don't even know where He is from, and yet He opened my eyes." Shouldn't this open your eyes? Shouldn't this cause you to consider Who He is?

This man is expressing his own positive volition to the Light of the World. He knows that his Benefactor is someone quite special. He would like to know more about this man. He is much more interested in the Lord than in the pharisees.

Light is the key to sight; and the Light of the World is the key to spiritual enlightenment.

We know that the spiritual life is real because we live it. It may not be a tangible thing. We may not be able to isolate it; but we can see our lives in the course of things. The plan of God is so clear, if you are attuned to it. The plan of God is discernable. This man knows there is something going on here. He is the dregs of society, totally unworthy, and yet he has received something that is amazing.

The grace of God means that we do not have to work out our spiritual lives; God brings it all to us.

Then this man makes a logical argument. "God does not hear sinners."

John 9:31 We know that God does not listen to sinners, but if anyone is a worshiper of God and does his will, God listens to him.

This man had a lot of time to think, as a beggar. This beggar uses some logical theology and he turns theology against them.

John 9:32 Never since the world began has it been heard that anyone opened the eyes of a man born blind.

Turning the Theological Tables

1. The pharisees say that Jesus must be a sinner.
2. God does not give power to a man who is a sinner.
3. If any man respects God and does His will,
4. The man here refers to Jesus as coming from God, because God heard Jesus and did what asked. Therefore, He cannot be a sinner.
5. Only God or someone designated by God can open the eyes of a man blind from birth.
6. Jesus opened his eyes; therefore, Jesus must be from God. How could He be a sinner.
7. Jesus could do nothing unless He is from God.

John 9:32 Never since the world began has it been heard that anyone opened the eyes of a man born blind.

The beggar comes to a conclusion based upon

Arrogant people always think they know best; and they have no idea that they can be flattened with some simple logic.

John 9:33 If this man were not from God, He could do nothing."

They have been made to appear foolish, so they make this man out to be irrelevant.

John 9:34 They answered him, "You were born in utter sin, and would you teach us?" And they cast him out.

"You are a sinner; do you think you can teach us?" They put him out of the Temple. He made them look foolish. They assassinate his character. The halls of our government is filled with this kind of activity. "You caught me red-handed in this scandal? You're the criminal; you're the liar."

The beggar is now an outcast once again. God never leaves positive volition alone. God will give us a place to put our positive volition.

This man was looking for someone that he did not know; he had never seen Jesus before.

John 9:35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out, and having found him he said, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?"

Jesus looks for this man. He knew he was cast out of the Temple. If you are sending out positive signals, God will find us.

John 9:36 He answered, "And who is He, sir, that I may believe in Him?"

John 9:37 Jesus said to him, "You have seen Him, and it is He who is speaking to you."

The Man and the Son of Man

1. The Son of Man is used as a title for the Messiah. "Do you believe the Messiah will come?" This question is still asked in Jewish circles today.
2. Jesus is asking the man if he believes in the Messiah.
3. The man believes in the concept of the Messiah. If not, he would not have asked the question in v. 36.
4. The man does not call Jesus Lord; he calls Jesus Lord out of respect for what he had done.
5. This man had named the One Who healed him a prophet. He is aware that Jesus is unique because he can now see.
6. He thinks, and rightly so, if this man can do what he did, then there is something more to understand

It must be humbling that the Messiah came to him; He cured him. He is as unworthy and lowly as anyone in Palestine.

John 9:38 He said, "Lord, I believe," and he worshiped Him.

What Jesus Has Said

1. Identifying Himself as the Son of Man, Jesus is totally aware of His Messianic purpose. He is clear; He understands everything.
2. He therefore is aware of His atoning mission for mankind as true humanity. He understood what He would do. He has prophesied this already. Jesus knew exactly the mission.
3. To this beggar, Jesus offers the results of this mission: salvation. This is the perfect example of what happens in the Old Testament to believe.
4. The Light of the World, Christ can supply the light of eternal life to us. That is the great proof of His Person. He just proved Who He was to this man.

He first is healed physically; but then this is turned into his eternal salvation, in how Jesus truly heals.

John 9:39 Jesus said, "For judgment I came into this world, that those who do not see may see, and those who see may become blind."

John 9:40 Some of the Pharisees near him heard these things, and said to Him, "Are we also blind?"

John 9:41 Jesus said to them, "If you were blind, you would have no guilt; but now that you say, 'We see,' your guilt remains.

John 9:14 Now it was a Sabbath day when Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes.

John 9:15 So the Pharisees again asked him how he had received his sight. And he said to them, "He put mud on my eyes, and I washed, and I see."

John 9:16 Some of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, for he does not keep the Sabbath." But others said, "How can a man who is a sinner do such signs?" And there was a division among them.

John 9:17 So they said again to the blind man, "What do you say about him, since he has opened your eyes?" He said, "He is a prophet."

John 9:18 The Jews did not believe that he had been blind and had received his sight, until they called the parents of the man who had received his sight

John 9:19 and asked them, "Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?"

John 9:20 His parents answered, "We know that this is our son and that he was born blind.

John 9:21 But how he now sees we do not know, nor do we know who opened his eyes. Ask him; he is of age. He will speak for himself."

John 9:22 (His parents said these things because they feared the Jews, for the Jews had already agreed that if anyone should confess Jesus to be Christ, he was to be put out of the synagogue.)

John 9:23 Therefore his parents said, "He is of age; ask him."

John 9:24 So for the second time they called the man who had been blind and said to him, "Give glory to God. We know that this man is a sinner."

John 9:25 He answered, "Whether he is a sinner I do not know. One thing I do know, that though I was blind, now I see."

John 9:26 They said to him, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?"

Lesson #0575

John 10: Life of Christ

3/5/2014 Wed

John 10 follows logically and chronologically from the previous chapter.

Jesus wanted Israel to know that He was the shepherd. Those in that agrarian economy understood the concept of being a shepherd. In the Old Testament, there were many references to sheep and shepherds. Many of these are metaphorical

Anyone who does not go through the gate is a thief and a robber. The only ones who should enter through the door is the shepherd. The sheep hear his voice and he calls his own sheep and they know who he is, and they follow him out. Sheep hear the voice of their shepherd. They won't follow the voice of strangers.

Bobby reads the first 5 verses.

Introductory Points

1. This is the perfection interaction between Christ and Israel.
2. The sheep are true Israel, those who have believed in Jesus Christ.
3. Those listening did not get the metaphorical sense of this. In v. 6, Jesus says that this is a figure of speech and they don't get it.
4. Jesus is the True Shepherd of Israel; and those who have believed in Him are His true sheep. These are those who know their Shepherd.

They hear His voice, then His words and His doctrine; and thereby, they know their shepherd. Old Testament references and background. In Jeremiah, the prophet spoke to Israel shortly before the Babylonian captivity of 586 B.C.

Nebuchadnezzar came in 605 and the Jews were as recalcitrant as ever; and Jeremiah speaks of their coming discipline. He speaks of them as a nation of false shepherds. They reject their true shepherd.

Jer 50:6–7 "My people have been lost sheep. Their shepherds have led them astray, turning them away on the mountains. From mountain to hill they have gone. They have forgotten their fold. All who found them have devoured them, and their enemies have said, 'We are not guilty, for they have sinned against the LORD, their habitation of righteousness, the LORD, the hope of their fathers.'

The idolatry and the high places represent the desertion by the people of Israel of their shepherd.

John 10:1 "Truly, truly, I say to you, he who does not enter the sheepfold by the door but climbs in by another way, that man is a thief and a robber.

John 10:2 But he who enters by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.

John 10:3 To him the gatekeeper opens. The sheep hear his voice, and he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out.

John 10:4 When he has brought out all his own, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice.

Explaining the Original Passage

1. In the time of Jeremiah, shepherds refer to the leaders of Israel; and they led the nation to sin against God. They got them involved in idolatry; in Baal worship. These false shepherds brought on the discipline to Israel.
2. Israel has turned to false gods and they have become lost sheep.
3. In essence, they no longer listen to the voice of their true shepherd. How would they listen? They should be listening to Jeremiah and to other faithful prophets. They continually presented God's Word to the sheep.
4. Jeremiah pronounced judgment upon these false shepherds; he wasn't the only one; so did the prophet Ezekiel. Also Isaiah.

Jer 23:1–2 "Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture!" declares the LORD. Therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the shepherds who care for my people: "You have scattered my flock and have driven them away, and you have not attended to them. Behold, I will attend to you for your evil deeds, declares the LORD.

Attend is paqar, (paqad?) which means to visit, to pay attention to. These false shepherds got God's attention; so He will pay close attention to them. This is quite ominous for these shepherds. No one really wants God's attention in this way. This gets Bobby's attention. Pastors who lead their flocks away from green pastures will be attended to. Pastors who fail to properly lead their sheep will be visited by God.

They lead astray, like emotions or more fellowship; or a lot of singing. Many a pastor has given up on Bible doctrine because it does not bring in the big crowds or the big money.

Jer. 23:3–4 Then I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the countries where I have driven them, and I will bring them back to their fold, and they shall be fruitful and multiply. I will set shepherds over them who will care for them, and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall any be missing, declares the LORD.

Discipline is designed to bring them back to the fold; but they must have shepherds to lead them. God would raise up a new generation of kings and priests. In the Old Testament, the idea of kingship is presented in terms of a shepherd.

John 10:5 A stranger they will not follow, but they will flee from him, for they do not know the voice of strangers."

Jeremiah Prophecies about the Righteous King

1. David was the shepherd king. He started out with the sheep, and he was to tend that flock. As king, he was the shepherd of the flock of Israel.
2. V. 5 talks about the good shepherd. Jer 23:5 "Behold, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. This is the prediction of the Greater Son.
 - a. The Branch is a term used for the promised Messiah. This is a prophecy of the Messiah.
 - b. This shepherd was God's promise to David. So the Messiah is also king; the King of Kings.
 - c. People who follow the True Shepherd will be restored as true Israel.
 - d. Jesus as the Messiah is presented as the Shepherd, Who would rule over Israel as the King of Kings. In John 10, those listening should have connected the Shepherd of Jeremiah to Jesus.

Jeremiah promised that the Messiah would come and He would be the true king. This indicates that the religious leaders were false leaders.

John 10:6 This figure of speech Jesus used with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

John 10:7 So Jesus again said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep.

Jesus identifies the true sheep who did not respond to the thieves. These are the sheep who heard His voice and responded.

Thieves refers to the current crop of pharisees. They oppose the true shepherd. They were false shepherds who ruled with false religion and legalism over the sheep at the time of the first advent. Pastors today rule their sheep with the iron hand of legalism.

Faith in Christ + bearing fruit is the false doctrine being taught today. They lead the sheep astray today. Plenty of false shepherds on the religious channels. The pharisees and the religious leaders usurped the authority of the true shepherd over the nation. They demanded that the sheep of Israel follow them. All of their religious regulations and all of their legalism, where they accused Jesus of violating the Sabbath, that was a crime, and leading the sheep astray. They came to destroy the sheep just as they did in the days of Jeremiah. Now the pharisees, the religious leaders had stolen the sheep of Israel. In A.D. 70, there would be a reckoning as never before. There will be a time at the 2nd advent when the true sheep will be gathered again.

John 10:8 All who came before Me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them.

The pharisees convinced themselves and others that Jesus was a false shepherd. They constantly tried to get the people to reject Him. False shepherds always make an issue of themselves. False shepherds always make false issues.

There have been many sheep who were stolen out of Berachah. The sheep choose whether to hear Bible doctrine or not.

Realize how easy it is to depart from doctrine. No one complained that Bob had a pleasing personality.

Lesson #0576

John 10: Life of Christ

3/6/2014 Thurs

This is the day the Alamo fell in 1836 (?). The Alamo bought Texas a month and a half time and allow Sam Houston to gather enough men to fight the Battle of San Jacinto and win it. In the Battalion they would have a celebration for Texans and some Tennesseans as well.

Daylight Savings Time this coming Sunday/Saturday Night.

Anytime there is a parable in the gospels, we are dealing with one in vv. 1–5, there is figurative language involved. Metaphors, illustrations, often a word or a phrase which represents something else. The parable of the Good Shepherd is no different. That is exactly what John 10 has. Figures of speech, parables, need to be interpreted, as Jesus had to do, for all of those who heard the parable.

When figurative language is interpreted, it must be interpreted literally. Figurative language does not mean a figurative interpretation; that is, you say, "This is what I think it means." Anytime you have figurative language, there is always a literal meaning to go with it. That is why Jesus stops and interprets this language for us.

There are a number of figures of speech that must be interpreted. There is shepherd and there is sheep; and these words represent people. The shepherd is the Lord Jesus Christ; and the sheep are the people of Israel who believe in Jesus; true Israel. They are the ones who hear His voice and follow Him.

He presents the gospel and doctrine; which believers metabolize and grow thereby.

A third metaphor; the metaphor of the thief and the robber; and these are the religious leaders; the enemies. They have rejected Christ and they have stolen Israel, so to speak.

There is another metaphor which is not present, but which we have seen is a metaphor. We saw it in Jeremiah last night; the metaphor of the lost sheep. Those who reject Jesus Christ become the lost sheep. The lost sheep do not respond to the voice of the shepherd.

Now we know the players in the parable of the good shepherd.

John 10:9 I am the door. If anyone enters by me, he will be saved and will go in and out and find pasture.

Jesus calls Himself the door; He is the guardian of the sheep. The agrarian background; the door is really not difficult to grasp. A door in the sheepfold, was not the kind of door that we think of, not like those leading to the outside and swings open and shut. This was not a traditional door or a gate. It was just an opening. An opening in a high-walled perimeter.

There is a sheepfold, a high walled perimeter; and the door is simply an opening. The sheep would be herded into the fold through this door at night. The shepherds would lay down at the entrance. They were themselves human gates keeping guard at that opening. So, no one could come or go without going through the shepherd. They could not be hurt or stolen.

The pharisees had already come over the wall and they were in the pen and some of the sheep had already been stolen. The shepherd is Jesus Christ.

Jesus as the Shepherd

1. Christ uses the shepherd imagery for a door; He is the Shepherd at the door; the sheep are believers.
2. As the door of the sheep, it was Christ who guarded access to the sheep; He did not allow the thieves and the robbers to enter.
3. Jesus at the gate kept the true sheep from straying.
4. These sheep knew His voice. In other words, they heard the gospel and they heard doctrine from Him; and they were thereby protected; they were protected from the legalism of the pharisees. Protected from the false doctrine which would drive them to the pastors of apostasy. His voice kept them from following the wrong person.
5. The emphasis is on His voice. It is His voice that the sheep follow. This is why Jesus uses this imagery. Just as real shepherds herded their sheep with their voice. The sheep respond to the gospel with positive volition. They followed Him wherever He went.
6. He separated out those who did not follow Him. Those who did not hear His voice were not His sheep. They were the ones who had been stolen. He is also speaking to you and me. This analogy holds true for us. This is as pertinent to us as it was to the Jews who heard Him then.

John 10:9 I am the door. If anyone enters by Me, he will be saved and will go in and out and find pasture.

Jesus defines that He is the door to the sheepfold. "If anyone goes through Me, he will be saved."

The Metaphor

1. The only means for entry into the metaphorical fold is through the Lord Jesus Christ. He stands at the entry. Stand at the door and knock and then you enter.
2. Jesus is the one who discriminates between true and false sheep. All discrimination is not bad. You need to discriminate. It should be based on the doctrine in your soul. Discrimination is not a bad thing.
3. To enter the gate, the sheep must believe in Jesus Christ. That is what it means to enter through Him. The sheep enters the gate by expressing faith alone in Christ alone.
4. The believer has entered into the fold; for the Jews, this is the eternal kingdom of true Israel. For us, it is the promise of eternal life. We will be raptured and go to heaven; and they will go into the kingdom. Believing Jews in the Old Testament wait this out in paradise; and they will be resurrected into the Millennium.
5. However, during the sheep's lifetime, his temporal lifetime, he can go in and out to find pasture. Psalm 23:2 He makes me lie down in green pastures. He leads me beside still waters. This is about believers, just as John 10 is about believers. Sheep in pastures go out and graze; they spend all of their time grazing. This is us growing in grace and knowledge. We go in and out in our temporal life to find green pastures. Rabah means to lie in a stretched out position; to recline; to be in a relaxed position.

Going out to Pasture

1. The pasture is the place where all sheep must seek by following the voice of the shepherd. Green pastures are found as directed by the voice of the shepherd. All day, they eat grass; and at night, the shepherd brings them back.
2. By His voice, He leads His sheep to pasture.
3. Hearing His voice and responding to His voice is tantamount to the faith perception of metabolizing God's Word.
4. God's Word are the means to the green pastures of spiritual maturity. Faith rest; grace and doctrinal orientation;
5. This is a pastoral scene. This describes the relaxed mental attitude of the sheep of us, gained from growing in the Christian life. We are laying about with a relaxed mental attitude after feeding.
6. The shepherd through God's Word leads his sheep to the fantastic blessings of salvation and then the spiritual life of happiness, contentment and stability.

There are people teaching today which teach everything except for the green pastures.

John 10:10 The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly.

But there is the false shepherd, who comes to steal and kill and destroy.

The Parallels of V. 10

1. To steal is to bombard the sheep of Israel with false doctrine; stealing from them their birthright. Abraham was a believer; true Israel believe in Abraham's God. The pharisees stole away the birthright from the Jews.
2. Killing is the enforcement of their false teaching. They use pressure and oppression and violence. They would not let anyone depart from the religious activity.
3. To destroy is eternal separation from the sheepfold of Jesus Christ. These sheep will never see the Kingdom of God because they are not the true sheep. This is the lost legacy of humanism; of the rejection of the gospel and of Bible doctrine.
4. The abundant life is the alternative to the 3 things above. This is the abundant life of the believer. This is also our life.

The Abundant Life

1. The abundant life is the time between entering the gate of the fold through Christ, which is salvation; and entering the eternal gate of heaven. In between is living life.
2. The abundant life is the provision of the spiritual life for the believer in time, from the moment of salvation to the moment that we depart this life.
3. Abundant means it continues to increase and to multiply. Abundance can multiply; it can increase; it is not stagnant. This is how we describe God's grace toward us.
4. The more we grow in grace, the more we become grace oriented; the more abundant is our life in this world.
5. The ever increasing abundance means, the abundant life increases.
6. Only with the final absolute abundance, which is received in heaven, will our growth cease to be an issue. At that point, the abundant life will be complete, and it will be beyond anything that we could think or imagine.

Jesus also came to allow the sheep to go in and out and to be able to seek green pastures. At the end of it all, when we go through the gates of heaven. There is great abundance awaiting us in eternity. No one in this world can have more abundance than what we have in this life and what we will enjoy in eternity.

Eph. 3:20–21 Now to him who is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, according to the power at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

The abundant life is not all blessing and sweetness and life; and it includes adversity. God the Father can bless abundantly in adversity as well as in prosperity. If you are rolling in the good times, it is not always as obvious. God knew in eternity past every adversity and every bit of suffering and every heartache and every bit of disaster that would come to us in the human race. He knew everything that could be classified as tragic that would ever happen to us in the Christian life. We are allowed to flourish under this. This is why He gave us problem solving devices. He provided for us in so many wonderful way. Therefore, our suffering can accelerate our growth. No other system of living can deal with life in such an all-encompassing way. Adversity is turned to triumph in our lives. This is the uniqueness of the life offered to us through our Lord Jesus Christ. It is all a part of the abundant life through His grace. This life that He lived on this earth. His life was no bed of roses. That life is now His legacy to us as a believer; who continues to grow spiritually. That is how we have the abundant life.

But there is more.

Lesson #0577

John 10: Life of Christ

3/9/2014 1Sunday

Communion Sunday:

This is the only ritual that we are commanded to participate in.

Those who violate the law end up in court; and most people are afraid of the outcome of the criminal court system especially when a serious crime has been committed. The court is a place of reckoning. A person can only be guilty or not guilty. Punishment for the guilty; freedom for the innocent.

There are no mistakes or miscarriages of justice in the court of heaven. We are born guilty. Through one man, sin entered into the world; all sinned when Adam sinned. We cannot appeal to God on the basis of some rehabilitation. There is no early release from the prison of perdition. We are sinners and there is no way to soften the punishment. We are doomed; the death sentence hangs over all of us. Our situation cannot be mitigated. God's righteousness is His standard; and our righteousness cannot stand before God. All of us have become like one who is unclean; all of our righteousnesses are as filthy rags in His sight.

Human righteousness is relative; man with his relative righteousness can never compare with the absolute righteousness of God. Man has sought through his own good works to satisfy God's righteousness and justice. Every man is born with a sin nature and every man sins. Jesus was born without a sin nature. He maintained perfect righteousness throughout His entire life. We cannot propitiate the just sentence of God through deeds which we do. God must reject us; He cannot reduce the standards of His Own righteousness. They are inviolable. We are also under the shadow of the cross. His perfect standards can be met and can be removed. God provided none other than the 2nd Person of the Trinity. He would substitute Himself, and be sentenced to death in our place. He would die spiritually on the cross on our behalf. We are not worthy of any such gift from God. Why did the Son of God bear the sentence that is rightfully ours. This sacrifice of His Son; the Father's offended righteousness demanded that our sins be punished.

On the cross, Christ paid our penalty. The death of one for the life of the many. How could the justice of God condemn a perfect man? How could He impute the sins to an innocent man. It seems unfair and unjust. Sins had to be judged. They could not be ignored by God. God could not overlook sins in favor of getting us off the hook. God had to condemn. Even the sins imputed to an innocent Christ. This is where the love of God stepped in. This saves us from the condemnation that we deserve; God's love motivated the paying for our sins by His Son. God demonstrates His Own love for us, that while we were yet sinners, Christ died as a substitute for us. God desired a relationship with man; with His creation. But God justice and righteousness stood in the way of that relationship. So when God places the sins of the world upon Jesus Christ, He had to judge them. This was the only way God could save us. This is the only way his love, justice and righteousness could combine to save us. God did not send His Son into the world to judge the world, but that the world through Him should be saved. A judicial imputation. There is no connection between the sins of man and the target, Jesus Christ. Once imputed, the justice of God had to take actions against sins, no matter where it was. Even when it is placed upon His sinless Son. Every sin beginning with Adam's original sin to today. Sin is no longer an issue between man and God; it is not longer the barrier between man and God. While being reviled, He did not revile in return; He kept entrusting Himself to Him, and He bore our sins in His body on the tree, for by His stripes are we healed.

We are justified when we believe in Him; we receive His righteousness. There is no condemnation for those who are in union with Christ. Our sins were atoned with the Son of the Judge. The Son was sentenced to death and the Father executed the Son, pouring out our sins upon Him. By His righteousness, we are counted as acquitted. We are made righteous, even though we are not righteous. God takes us out of the jail where we belong and we are moved from rags to riches. We share His Sonship simply by grace. As many who have received Him, to them He gave the right to become His sons.

Bobby knows who sits where and he knows who is missing.

The Parable of the Good Shepherd is what we are studying; and this is a metaphor. Jesus was speaking in metaphorical language. The Good Shepherd represents Jesus Christ. The entire parable is an illustration which illustrates the relationship between the Good Shepherd, His sheep and those sheep who follow His voice.

True Israel are those who hear His voice; and respond to it. His voice is the gospel. When His sheep hear and metabolize the doctrine, they are following the voice of their shepherd, to the tranquil green pastures.

The false shepherds are called thieves and robbers. These are the religious leaders of Israel; they rejected Jesus Christ; they do not hear His voice. They have blinded the minds of so many Jews. They lead the lost sheep of the house of Israel. Those who refuse to believe in Jesus Christ.

Jesus Christ provides a marked contrast between Himself and the hired hands. He interprets the metaphor for us. The Good Shepherd lays down His life for His sheep. He is the true and the only shepherd. He is so devoted to His sheep that He would lay down His life for them. This is his physical life in his mission to protect them. David as the shepherd boy went after a lion and a bear. David was willing to lay down his life to recover just that one sheep to protect the herd.

Jesus voluntarily presented Himself.

John 10:11 I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.

This is one of the first prophecies of the cross. The false shepherds would not die for any of their sheep. They abandon their sheep to whatever ills might befall them.

Lesson #0578

John 10: Life of Christ

3/9/2014 2Sunday

Jesus speaks of the false shepherds as the hired hands. They see the wolf coming and they flee. He flees because he is a hired hand and he is unconcerned with the sheep. These are the pharisees, who have no vested interest in the sheep other than for their own power.

They enjoy their own power leading the sheep; they were in charge. They like that. But the sheep did not belong to them. They had assumed a dominion over the flock. They were the leaders of true Israel, but they did not speak as the voice of God's Word. They made up regulations for the people to follow and they enforced these regulations. This was for their own interests. They had no interest in the spiritual life of their flock.

The Hired Hands

1. They were concerned only with their own self-interest.
2. The flock was only a means of personal gain and power.
3. When there was danger to the flock, like wolves, the hired hands showed their true colors; they put themselves first. They never looked out for the sheep. They would certainly never die for a sheep.

Any pastor living during the Church Age; and Jesus then was speaking about the pharisees, the religious leaders. There is a perfect application to many church leaders today. Throughout church history in a very apostate church, there have been so many false shepherds; so many hired hands. There is no voice of the shepherd. That is the Word of God. The teachers distort doctrine to their own advantage; for their own self-aggrandizement. A great many pastors out there who do exactly that. These pastors who do this are more concerned with self-promotion. They are more concerned with raising large amounts of money. They are more concerned with their social lives. Big fish in little ponds. They are more important than any lowly sheep and they look at their congregation in this way. One extreme historical example in the late medieval church, and the apostasy of that time was tremendous.

Indulgences were pieces of paper to gain remission before God of temporal punishment for the right amount of money. The clergy sold these indulgences because greed overtook them. The people purchased these indulgences; and the church financed several crusades and rebuilt St. Peter's Basilica in Rome, which is magnificent, but it is built upon the backs of the poor. They are the robbers of the sheep. What happens to the flock when they have such self-absorbed leaders.

When the hired hand sees the wolf coming, he runs for his own life.

John 10:12 He who is a hired hand and not a shepherd, who does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and flees, and the wolf snatches them and scatters them.

He are the sheep. The false shepherd has no real interest in their sheep. They are only concerned with themselves. The sheep get devoured. They fall into superficial Christianity; they fall into emotional praise and worship services. They fall into frantic searches for happiness. They are overrun and scattered by the wolves. The pharisees are prime examples of desertion in the face of wolves.

A few years after our Lord was crucified; 40 years later, Rome is outside saying that they are about to come in and take over, the pharisees are outside making deals with the Roman soldiers for themselves. But they were the ones who were first to die.

Leading the Sheep Astray

1. Just as Israel in the time of Christ was led astray and was deserted; and they could speak nothing to the people; they had nothing to offer the people.
2. In the same way, Christians have not been prepared with doctrine by their shepherds.
3. We are left vulnerable to every wind of false philosophy; to secular humanism. There is nothing to restrain it. Distorting rebound; distortion of salvation. You must feel sorry for your sins before you are forgiven.
4. Other believers become activists who accept human viewpoint solutions based upon cultural norms and trends and politics.
5. In this, the sheep are scattered by the wolves.

Churches all over the United States are ordaining women, lesbians, homosexuals, etc. These pastors are concerned for furthering their own agenda like gay marriage; or they have all of these humanist solutions for the church. When they don't get what they want; they charge discrimination. We need to discriminate between good and evil. We do not hate homosexuals or even women in the pulpit, as they are souls for whom Christ died. The mission is salvation. What we see today is entirely unbiblical. It is a matter of degeneracy. Rom. 1 tells us what degeneracy is. You want that to lead the flock? That is not church leadership. They are false shepherds who want to change the church to fit their non-Biblical goals.

Syncretism. The false shepherds have imposed a false system of doctrine upon the church. Mixing the doctrines of the Bible with the cultural norms and philosophy. The Jews mixed Baal worship with the worship of Y^ehowah. It has been found in South America who took the doctrines of the Catholic church and mixed them with their heathenistic cultures and history. The animism in Africa is mixed in with Christian doctrine. In Central America all kinds of aberrations, mixing voodoo with Christianity. Islam accepts the Old Testament and makes Jesus a prophet and Mohammed a greater prophet.

Religious people in this country. Most people between 18 and 36 are irreligious. Religious people have become dissatisfied with the Biblical doctrines of God and Christ. God is way to distant for them. Biblical theology takes way too much time to inculcate. Too intellectual and too demanding. They want something quick and yet tangible. They want something easy which stimulates them. So they embrace all sorts of individualistic perceptions of God and they make it up as they go along. There are no objective Biblical grounds.

Many people talk about the word spiritual, but they do not have any idea what it really means. They do not know what it means to live the Christian life. Their spirituality is merely turning inward to their own thoughts, feelings and emotions; that is how they think they get close to God. They start with themselves and look even deeper into themselves. You do not elevate yourself to the plane of God and find Him in that way.

They superimpose upon God what they want Him to be and they call it spirituality. They are working their way into the good graces of God. These are confused sheep. They are destroyed by their own anti-authority thinking. Their anti-authority. They rejected their own Messiah. They became syncretistic. They cobbled together some spiritual life from a variety of religious influences. A little yoga, psycho-therapy and some eastern mysticism; or even worship environmentalism or political activism. They are reversionists. These sheep have become vulnerable to whims and they know very little about the wonders of God's grace. They have no idea about Christianity. They do not know anything about the Christian life. That confusion must be laid directly at the feet of their shepherds, who do not teach and do not protect them.

Not much extra-curricular activity takes place in Berachah. It is not about the garbage that is out there.

Jesus will never run from the wolves. He will die for His sheep for their salvation and their protection.

John 10:13 He flees because he is a hired hand and cares nothing for the sheep.

Jesus then identifies Himself as the Good Shepherd.

Lesson #0579

John 10: Life of Christ

3/12/2014 Wed

v. 14 is the keynote verse and identifies Himself as the Good Shepherd. The reciprocal aspect; He knows His Own and they know Him.

John 10:14 I am the Good Shepherd. I know My Own and My Own know Me,

John 10:15 just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep.

The shepherd parable refers to Jesus and to the believers. But there is a new and powerful link in the relationship.

The New Relationship Described Herein

1. There is a bond between Jesus Christ and the sheep; and the bond is that we know each other intimately. It is understandable that Jesus knows us; but also important that we know Him.
2. There is a bond between us and Christ just as there is a bond between God the Father and God the Son.
3. The sheep are partaking of a relationship with Christ that can be found in no other way than in accepting His work for us and growing in grace and knowledge of Him.
4. The sheep are becoming of one mind with Christ by hearing the voice of our shepherd. As we become more and more involved with them; as we spend time together, we become one mind with that person. You think in the same way; you have a foundation for thinking. Intimate knowledge of that person; the more you come to know and to admire their qualities.
5. So, we come to know Him intimately, just as He knows us intimately. This is the kicker; just as Jesus knows the Father intimately and the Father knows Christ intimately. That is an intimate relationship.
6. As Christ has pointed out, Jesus reveals God the Father to us; we cannot see God the Father, as He is invisible; but we can see Jesus.
7. By knowing Jesus Christ, we have an intimate relationship both with Christ and with God the Father. If we know how the Son thinks, we know how the Father thinks. We therefore, have a relationship with God; and both indwell us.

John 10:15 just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep.

Jesus lays down His life for the sheep. This is the second time He says this; it is a prediction of His death. He says He will voluntarily lay down his life. His disciples cannot imagine that He will lay down His life. It is His substitutionary sacrifice that makes Him our intimate.

Then Jesus continues.

John 10:16 And I have other sheep that are not of this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd.

V. 16 has to do with us. "I have other sheep." This would be surprising to the disciples. We are the other sheep. "They are not of this fold." Believers in the Church Age are those from the other fold. This is a parenthetical verse. It is an interruption. In the main parable, Jesus has been addressing the nation; He has been addressing Israel. Anyone who is not true Israel, but believe in Jesus—these are the other sheep. But these are not Jews. The only other possibility is, they are gentiles. The gentiles were not originally included in the fold of Israel.

When gentiles believed in the God of Israel, they were saved and incorporated into nation Israel. The gentiles will respond to the gospel; they will hear where He speaks.

Next, Jesus will go to a gentile area. There will be one sheep pen holding Jews and gentiles. They will become one flock. This was very unexpected; and for many Jews, this was unacceptable. The Jews hated the gentiles. Many of them cannot imagine gentiles as part of the flock.

What Jesus Is Teaching

1. Jesus is forecasting a dispensation.
2. There is a change coming to Israel; a new dispensation in history is on the way.
3. In this dispensation, the Jews are not exclusively the people through whom God worked.
4. A dispensation is an era or a period in human history.
5. The Bible reveals consecutive eras called dispensations in the history of mankind.
6. These several dispensations are revealed in various portions of the Bible. The teaching of dispensations is found throughout the Bible.
7. List of the dispensations:
 - a. The Age of the Gentiles, from the creation of Adam to Moses and the Exodus generation. There were no Jews yet. The race of Jews began with Abraham; but there was no nation yet until Joshua took the land. God worked through individual believers.
 - b. The Age of National Israel to the birth of Christ.
 - c. The Hypostatic Union Age; this is a transitional age. Christ's birth to His ascension. That will be our final study in the life of Christ.
 - d. The Church Age from the Day of Pentecost to the Exit Resurrection. Time period here is unknown. People don't want to die; and they don't like the time in which they live, so they want to get raptured.
 - e. The Tribulation, which is 7 years from the rapture to the promised 2nd advent. This is the final 7 years of the Age of Israel.
 - f. The last dispensation is the Millennium; from the 2nd advent until the final judgment; the Great White Throne judgment.
8. These dispensations reflect the progression of God's plan in man's history. There are various dispensational breakdowns.
9. Dispensations are not the divisions of history from human historians. These are not humanly defined epochs.
10. Each era reflects the divine viewpoint and the theological interpretation of history.

11. This doctrine of dispensations is the vehicle, the way the believers living at a specific time can orient to God's will, plan and purpose for their lives.
12. This gives us an historical context for the times in which we live, so that we can understand the progression of the plan of God and the destiny of man throughout history.
13. This is how we fit into God's plan.
14. This is how we learn to understand the resources available to us in each dispensation. Each progression in His plan provides more resources for the believers; and we have the maximum resources to accomplish God's plan.
15. The current dispensation is the Church Age; and it is defined and delineated by the mystery doctrine of the New Testament. This doctrine has never been revealed in any previous dispensation. There are things in the New Testament that those in the past could only hope to enjoy.

If you do not understand dispensations; you do not understand the Word of God. Dispensational hermeneutics are the only way of understanding the Word of God and the history of man. Each dispensation is a step-up in the Angelic Conflict. There is eschatology, and we do not understand that if we do not understand dispensations. The division between Israel and the church, which defines the difference between covenant theology and dispensational theology.

All of this falls under the heading; "And I have other sheep."

The religious leaders thought that Jesus was speaking heresy. The Apostles were confused by this other flock.

John the Baptizer said, "The kingdom has come; the kingdom is here." But it was rejected; so we are the new program.

God has not forever rejected the nation Israel or His people the Jews. This is a big point of contention between covenant theology and dispensational theology.

Correct Interpretation of Dispensations

1. This new dispensation provides for the formation of the church. A sheepfold filled with everyone, from all nations and races.
2. In this parenthetical v. 16, Jesus adds saved gentiles of the Church Age to the folds of His sheep.
3. This is the parable of the Good Shepherd. He is therefore the Shepherd of the church as well as of Israel.
4. One shepherd; one people on earth during this dispensation; all who believe in Jesus Christ.
5. These are believing Jews and gentiles in one sheep pen, forming spiritual organism. The sheepfold is now the body of Christ. This does not negate a future kingdom for Israel; and it will be instituted after the 7 year Tribulation.

Jesus is the Greater Son of David. They believe that the church replaces Israel in God's plan. Nation Israel no longer has a future. Thi imputes the immutability of God. Once God gives His Word, His Word stands.

Figurative Language and the Bible

1. Figurative language in the parable of the Shepherd does not give license for a figurative interpretation.
2. Figurative language in the Bible always has a literal meaning.
3. We cannot read things into the Bible that are not present in the context that go beyond the literal meaning.
4. Reading out national Israel from this or any other verse is overstepping and muddling the meaning of the Church Age.
5. One cornerstone of dispensational theology is the future of Israel as a nation. All you have to ask in order to find out, "What is the relationship between Israel and the church, now and later?"
6. Christ's purpose in John 10:16 was simply to introduce in a very cursory way a new temporary period of history. Just one more era in the plan of God for man.
7. The reason for this temporary period is because Israel rejected the kingdom offered in the 1st advent.
8. So Christ intimates a further progression of His plan in a new dispensation which incorporates Jews and gentiles (but not forever).

Early in the Church Age, Paul is entering Corinth.

Acts 18:9–10 And the Lord said to Paul one night in a vision, "Do not be afraid, but go on speaking and do not be silent, for I am with you, and no one will attack you to harm you, for I have many in this city who are my people."

Jesus tells Paul that He is with him. "I have many people in Corinth." The message is, there will be many gentiles in Corinth who will hear Paul's teaching and they will respond to him.

Eph 3:6 This mystery is that the Gentiles are fellow heirs, members of the same body, and partakers of the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

The mystery doctrine was given to Paul; unknown in the Age of Israel.

Eph 3:7 Of this gospel I was made a minister according to the gift of God's grace, which was given me by the working of his power. To me, though I am the very least of all the saints, this grace was given, to preach to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ, and to bring to light for everyone what is the plan of the mystery hidden for ages in God who created all things, so that through the church the manifold wisdom of God might now be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly places. This was according to the eternal purpose that he has realized in Christ Jesus our Lord, in whom we have boldness and access with confidence through our faith in him. So I ask you not to lose heart over what I am suffering for you, which is your glory.

Lesson #0580

John 10:16– Life of Christ

3/13/2014 Thurs

Rick Hughes will be here for the next 4 sessions.

John 10:16 And I have other sheep that are not of this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd.

The sheep are true Israel; and the lost sheep are those who have rejected Jesus. Then Jesus says that there are also some lost sheep. This is the Church Age; and this aroused the Jews. They saw this as nothing but a terrible heresy.

John 10:17 For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life that I may take it up again.

John 10:18 No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it up again. This charge I have received from My Father."

The authority here is key to understanding what Jesus is teaching about here. Εξουσια which means a freedom of choice. This tells us how Jesus is thinking. This is His mind at work.

Points from Vv. 17–18

1. Jesus said He would lay down His Own life at His Own initiative. No one else makes this decision. His volition is primary.
2. Jesus was not a helpless pawn; He will control what happens to Him. He will go from rejection in Jerusalem to Perea and then back to Jerusalem.
3. Jesus was voluntarily obedience to God's plan. There had to be His acquiescence to God's plan. This was a free choice that He makes.
4. The pharisees could not kill him. So many times they pharisees picked up stones to kill Jesus or throw Him over the cliff; but the pharisees could not kill Him. He first had to complete His earthly ministry. This is His call; not theirs.
5. Only in His Own good time would Jesus willingly go to the cross. Not one day before or after. He had to completely accomplish God's plan first.
6. He could have terminated the proceedings at any time, but He freely chose to give up His life for the sheep. Then He concludes and I have authority to take it up again. Jesus always had the legitimate choice. We have a free choice. He concludes with, "And this commandment I received from My father."

Two More Points?

1. Jesus became the sacrificial lamb on the basis of His Own free will.

2. The Father did not coerce His volition. God gave the order that the cross was His will; to which Jesus was obedient.

Jesus again speaks of His death. First His death and then His resurrection. The grave could not hold Jesus Christ; nor will God's will be trumped. This is exactly what happened.

Now we go to a transitional paragraph which is closely related to the blind man in the previous chapter.

John 10:19 There was again a division among the Jews because of these words.

Jesus was a true enigma; people disagreed as to what He was saying and Who He was.

John 10:20 Many of them said, "He has a demon, and is insane; why listen to Him?"

This man has a demon; He's insane. After hearing and seeing Him, they came to that conclusion.

John 10:21 Others said, "These are not the words of one who is oppressed by a demon. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?"

There are those who rose to the defense that demon-possessed people did not speak like this or do things like. This.

How do you claim that someone can be demon-possessed and be like this. Some people refuse the truth, no matter how many times they see it. The truth is right in front of them, staring them in the face, and they are saying, "This cannot be."

Doctrine of demons here. Bobby wants to speak about similar negative volition in that time that we live; similar to the pharisees of then. There are still pharisees today; and they offer alternatives, which are doctrines. Secular humanism is one of the greatest opponents of Christianity, and it is built upon negative volition.

A philosopher of the 20th century. There are no accidents when Bobby studies. He came across something that seemed to click. A major international voice for secular humanism. He expressed very well the negative volition of that ideology. Bertram Russell. He was a brilliant man. At 18 years of age, he came to the conclusion to abandon the notion of God altogether. He was a brilliant logical man and became an atheist at this point. The concept of God to him was completely mythological. He decided that ancient oriental despots claimed to be gods; and this then became a universal idea of a God. "I am not a Christian because I don't believe in God...and I don't believe in immorality." There is no such thing as sin. This fits perfectly with secular humanism. He cannot admit to sin. "I don't think that Jesus is the best or the wisest of men;" confirming that Jesus is an historical figure. He thereby rejected the deity of Christ. He could only place his faith in the alternative to God, would would be humanity. So all truth and logic must rest in science and mankind.

Jesus is historical, but not the Person He claimed to be.

Secular Humanism Is Our Greatest Opponent.

1. The human race is the most important thing to Bertram Russell.
2. The humanist proclaims that man is essentially good. Therefore, he must reject the innate sin nature of man. No such thing in secular humanism.
3. What do they do with evil? They cannot deny the existence of evil; but they attribute that evil to man's traditional, social institutions, but not to man's inherent nature. National governments. The church. Our capitalistic society. All of these are seen as counter-productive to mankind.
4. Goodness can be achieved by altering these institutions of man. If they can tinker with and change all of these institutions, man's inherent evil can be changed.
5. The humanist focuses on activism, in order to reconstruct society; in order to change the fundamental institutions of society. This is what is happening in our country today.
6. Why would they do this? Why reconstruct society? They look to create a new social order; to create the human race without the encumbrance of the divine or without Bible doctrine or without divine institutions.
7. What the humanist wants is man without truly free volition; especially including religious freedom. That cannot continue in the thinking of the secular humanism.
8. What is being attacked are seen as antiquated evils. So the family and children are being attacked. See how the wind is blowing; our country cannot move without other countries thinking it is okay.
9. The humanist creed is internationalism. This helps to explain internationalism. In order to build the world they want, there must be a world government. The national government must be removed. Only then can we get to their utopia.
10. This type of world government is the only way to overcome the social institutions which they believe corrupt mankind. They see a national government as a corruption. These concepts have been around for a long time.
11. Human beings are just higher animals; and we are evolving like all other animals. We are continually progressing to some form of biological and social perfection. Since we do not have a sin nature, we must be advancing to this perfection.
12. Thus in their world view, man can evolve naturally into goodness. This utopian society can be affected by man without God.
13. It is the humanist who can alter and facilitate that evolution of man. They do not want to let it happen over a long period of time. It takes great faith to believe this kind of philosophy. The overwhelming evidence of the evil of man is everywhere. There is no other option when they reject Jesus as Savior. They have rejected God's salvation in Christ.

Sir Thomas Moore had ideas like this 5 centuries ago.

The humanist believes that he can create the new society without the economic inequalities. But Jesus said, "The poor, you will have with you always." The secular humanist thinks we can fix that.

We see this happening in so many areas. To them, morality is whatever people agree upon. We can take anything that has been assumed to be evil for thousands of years and change. Like gay marriage.

Today, attacks on faith and marriage. Feminism to make men and women equal. Radical environmentalism, but make the earth perfect. Peace on earth. A whole host of activist goals in the United States. All are designed to alter currently discredited concepts in their minds.

They think that we are now living in a post-Christian world. To achieve these goals requires control by some outside human force; or a huge government. This will only result in tyranny. It is a utopian pipe dream.

Excellent book on this subject from the Christian perspective. Secular humanism is compared to the doctrines of Christianity. David Noel "Understanding the Times." Excellent prose on how secular humanism works. Bobby recognized everything going on in our country today and how antithetical it is to Jesus Christ.

This is the modern result of negative volition to Christ as the God-man Savior. This is of the devil. Humanists believe in their cosmic system just as strongly as we believe in Jesus Christ. It is their religion. They are purveyors of the cosmic system. They must eradicate all symbols of Christianity and ultimately the Christian. No progress can be made as long as this fallacy of God and Christianity exist. This is how the non-religious person thinks and persecutes. First they go after Christian symbols. Eventually by burning heretics at the stake. Don't think the secular humanism is any more tolerant than the persecutors of the past. They are just as capable of what Adolf Hitler did; just as much as the protestant/Catholic wars. They are willing to kill for this system, but they will not call it sin. Those they murder violate their ideology. This is their world; their religion.

This is our world opposition. These things cannot co-exist. They will always be at war. There can be no peace in the physical world. Constant war in the unseen world; it never ceases; so there will never be a cessation of war on earth. A utopia is impossible on earth.

We need reconciliation with Christ; and then spiritual growth. This is the mind of the humanist. They are the pharisees of our advent. Where are the pharisees now? They are in hell; they are gone. The humanist cannot win against Jesus Christ. Their ideology is doomed to fail in this world. They will cause a lot of trouble but they will go the way of the pharisees.

Jesus laid down His life for us; and for the pharisees and for the secular humanist who rejects Him.

Some police woman had blocked off the parking lot to Berachah Church this am. Traffic always gets Bobby out of fellowship.

We have completed the parable of the Good Shepherd, where Jesus presented Himself as the True Shepherd, Good and Only Shepherd of Israel. He is also the Obedient Shepherd. In fact, He would lay down His life for the sheep.

Many came to believe in Him, because he claimed to be the Light of Life. The pharisees understood that Jesus spoke against them. They were infuriated at Him. The opposition of Jesus was greatly upset with Him. Many of those who have opposed Jesus in the past 2000 years, and we studied secular humanism and how it parallels the opposition of the pharisees.

Vv. 22–39 Jesus will reassert His Deity. The opposition of the pharisees got so bad that He had to retreat from Jerusalem.

Jesus, several months, returns to Jerusalem, to the Temple, and He picks up where He left off, as they had picked up stones to kill Him.

Jesus had gone to the gentiles after this confrontation in vv. 40–42.

Bobby enjoyed this section because he greatly enjoys history. This was the perfect time for Jesus to appear to accomplish His task as the Savior.

John 10:22–23 At that time the Feast of Dedication took place at Jerusalem. It was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple, in the colonnade of Solomon.

The Feast of Dedication still occurs today, and it is called Hanukkah. It is also called the festival of lights. It is the celebration of the restoration of the Temple and the consecration of the new altar.

This took place 25December when this occurred. Judas Maccabees after his revolt in 165 or 164 B.C. The desecration was carried out by Antiochus IV or called Antiochus Epiphanies (the Magnificent).

Antiochus Epiphanies was a Selucid ruler, and they had been ruling in Syria since Alexander the Great had invaded that part of the world in 323 B.C. The Selucid's took over Syria after Alexander died. Antiochus was a descendent from a general in the Greek army of Alexander. Took over about 175 B.C. He was one of the greatest persecutors of the Jews down to Adolf Hitler. He was called Epimonia, which means the madman. He turned into a real monster toward the Jews. About 170 B.C. he marched south to invade Egypt and he wanted to extend his empire. Trouble in Palestine seems to occur when some king decides to march south to attack Egypt. Like Nebuchadnezzar who went to Egypt and then stopped by Palestine on the way back.

He marches back and Jerusalem is in his way. He could not take Egypt, so he went into the Temple in Jerusalem and took all of the money, raiding their treasury. Jerusalem became a part of his sphere of influence. He decided that he needed to Hellenize Palestine, and he promoted a program of Hellenization. This was occurring all over the Roman world at that time. He established Greek institutions in Jerusalem. He forced new laws on the Jews instead of the Torah. That was God's Law, and Antiochus outlawed the Mosaic Law. Some accepted this; and there were those who opposed and resisted this Hellenization. They mostly were upset that their religion had been corrupted. Antiochus brought a new order of worship to this land. He ridded the area of Y^ehowah worship; and Zeus was to be worshipped in the Temple. This was known as the desolation sacrilege; also known as the abomination of desolation.

This term is known to eschatology a future event for Israel, future from our time. It happens in the dispensation that follows the church. In the middle of the Tribulation, a certain dictator; the dictator of the Revived Roman Empire. This is prophesied in the book of Daniel. We get the entire perspective of Nebuchadnezzar and what is coming. This would eliminate Jewish sacrifices in the Temple and there would be worship to him in the Temple. He will erect a statue of himself in the Temple, in the Holy of Holies in the rebuilt Temple, and it will be called the abomination of desolation.

In this future time, a remnant of believing Jews. Many would be martyred. In the time of Antiochus, there were many Jews who did not believe in their Messiah; but there will be many believers in the Tribulation who will oppose this new dictator.

There were some courageous priests during this time. They fought with arms; they armed themselves. In these battles, a semblance of Jewish independence was achieved.

The resistance centered around the Maccabeans, and this family was later called the Hasmonians. Herod the Great came from this line. Not from the Selucid and qualified as a Hasmonian ruler. After a huge struggle, several battles, Judas Maccabeas made a cleansing of the Temple about the time that Antiochus dies.

There was the institution of several religious parties at this time. These were the pharisees and the sadducees and these groups represented two different religious groups who would combat the Antiochus evil.

Sadducees were a priestly class; an upper class. They developed a different attitude from the pharisees. They took a this world attitude, becoming a political party; they were political activists. They were few in number, but they dominated the Sanhedrin and the priesthood. The high priesthood was in their hands. They controlled the purse strings in Palestine. They controlled the lucrative affairs in the Temple. They were very good businessmen, beginning to refill the treasury of the Temple.

The pharisees were a reaction to the liberal approach of the sadducees. The pharisees were conservative in their doctrine; separatists, non-compromising with the Romans. Many more pharisees, as they often came from the common people.

The pharisee activity was centered in the synagogues; and the sadducees handled what went on in the Temple. The pharisees collected the writings of the rabbis and they embellished them with more rules and regulations. They condemned Jesus Christ because He violated their traditions. Their intricate laws on the Sabbath. These groups hated each other.

The Feast of Dedication. At the time of Jesus, this commemorated the Temple rededication of the Temple by Judas Maccabees. The Dome of the Rock is the Muslim building where the Temple used to be.

Jesus is present at this winter feast. In this Temple was the great Deliverer of the Jews. Jesus presented Himself as "The Light of the World" and here He presents Himself at the Festival of Lights.

This looks forward to the cleansing of the Temple in the 2nd advent; removing the abomination of desolation.

John 10:22–23 At that time the Feast of Dedication took place at Jerusalem. It was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple, in the colonnade of Solomon.

So Jesus comes back 2 months later. He had been in Perea, which is recorded in other gospels. We will study that after a bit. Jesus still had more to say from the October parable because of the animosity of the pharisees who had heard Him. This animosity was still in place.

The Jews were angry; there Jesus was in their Temple again. This is their last confrontation with Him until the final confrontation.

Lesson #0582

John 10:24– Life of Christ

3/16/2014 2Sunday

Wherever Jesus went, there would be a crowd about Him. A crowd of opposition.

John 10:24 So the Jews gathered around him and said to him, "How long will you keep us in suspense [lit., hold up our souls]? If you are the Christ, tell us plainly."

You would think with a question like this, there was some cynicism. He was walking in the Temple being approach by Jews who saw Him there. They commanded Him to tell them in plain language, that he was the Messiah. They demanded that He say this loudly and clearly and unequivocally.

They claimed that it was not clear or bold enough. There was great cynicism; and there were large groups who simply rejected His claims. They were implying that Jesus as the roadblock to their belief in Him. He was not forthcoming enough. If only they would tell them in plain clear language. They acted as if He was at fault; He just did not say it clearly enough. They knew Who He claimed to be and most of them had long ago rejected Him.

This was another ploy in order for them to discredit Him. They wanted a public announcement in front of all these witnesses statements which they could condemn as blasphemous.

Jesus responds to their negative volition. They have one type of an expression of negative volition. These were people who had already rejected Christ. This type of rejection is rampant today. People act interested in a clear declaration of the gospel and maybe some Bible doctrine if they are religious. They cannot wait to refute the fundamentalist. They really are looking for a place to trap you with your own words, and thereby discredit you and the truth you might speak. This is their approach.

A statement of true doctrine is ridiculous to their ears. They call for it so that they may refute it. They believe that these things are ridiculous. They want to make some kind of mocking denunciation of Christianity. They want to make a show of rejection whereas they have already rejected the gospel of the truth.

They want to discredit it in their own minds.

Some examples we may have come across in our own lives. Religion is private; let's not talk about it. But we need to talk about it; that is our mandate from Scripture. A skeptic might pose a series of questions; what they might believe would expose by refutation or by mockery. Some people simply use mockery; "There is no God; your beliefs are ridiculous."

We live in the post-Christian era (to some).

Some of These Questions

1. Is the Bible really the infallible Word of God? In their minds, nothing is infallible, other than their own views. Do you have an answer to this? 40 books all written by 40 authors. Can you find 40 books that agree over a period of 80 centuries? It is not really about the infallibility of the Bible; but yours.
2. Do you believe in evolution? Or do you believe that God created the world? This is an on-going fight in science and education today. The evolutionist mocks the creationist. Simple answers. Go back to the beginning. Over billions of years, the pulpit will become Bobby. They believe it; they have strong faith.
3. What about errors in the Bible? Does God really communicate with people? That is preposterous; God never speaks to me! God speaks to us today, through His Word. If there is a God, is He just up there; does He really concern Himself with man and what we do. Individually? Are you kidding me?
4. Are miracles real? If so, why haven't I experienced one? I have arthritis and I need to take pills for it. They deny that God may have a continued purpose for an individual. We may not know that the miraculous is happening. God can progress His plan using the miraculous.
5. Is merely believing in Christ too simple? Are you ignoring all of my human works? Isn't God pleased with my works and my morality?

6. Is Jesus the only Pathway to God? Bobby has heard that on television, possibly from Oprah. The underlying premise is, Christianity is intolerant of others. That makes the religion exclusive and therefore intolerant and wrong. Yes, by His statement. Jesus is exclusive, by His Own testimony.
7. Why do the innocent suffer? Why do people suffer in great groups? How can you follow a God Who is so mean and heartless? He lets me suffer. There is the sin nature and the laws of culpability.
8. How do we know that God exists? The philosophical approach; a favorite atheist position. They deny the God of the Bible, based upon their logic and human reasonable. You can't prove this, because no one has seen God before. If you can't see Him, therefore, He cannot exist. At the same time, they cannot prove that God does not exist. If God does exist, then you are in trouble, my friend. They assume the unseen spiritual world does not exist. Yet they accept philosophical systems and theories which never work. Marxism, humanism.

Atheism

1. Atheism is never satisfying to the person who is an atheist. He has no answers to the big questions. Why are we here? What is the purpose to all this? I have no purpose; it is demoralizing. So they will even go to court to get rid of crosses and nativity scenes. It is contrary to the normal witness of man's nature and history.
2. The atheist is filled with fear that he is on the wrong side of history and logic.
3. What do you do with an atheist. They are normally the most vicious opposition.
4. There are proofs of the existence of God. The historical life of Christ is a major one. He therefore did something. "He was a good man." He could not be a good man. Then He hoodwinked all of us.

Proofs of God

1. God exists as the first cause. Everything which we see had a cause. Nothing is uncaused. Nothing exists independently.
2. There is purpose and design in our world. Everything is designed and everything has purpose. There must be a designer behind anything designed. Can a house go up on its own? God is the builder and designer of the Universe; all science is very complex, but scientists just say that it happened randomly and without a designer. This is the opposite of all that we know.
3. We have an innate moral consciousness which comes from a Higher Being Who set certain standards. Where does this come from? Why does man simply act kill or be killed? People have qualities which may be in the image of God.
4. Mankind has a universal religious desire from the very beginning. All civilizations have a religious desire. There is this desire to worship something great than themselves. They believe in a higher being or higher power. Where does that come from? Animals don't have that.
5. Mankind also has an innate idea of a Perfect Being which cannot come from the finite. Man has the idea of a perfect environment; and the secular humanist believes that man can be perfected. Therefore, it is logical that a perfect being must somehow exist. An essential existential result of God. The atheist will discount all of this.

6. There is another question by the skeptic; what about those who have never heard? Christianity is limited to certain areas. What about the others? Is that fair? The answer is simple. God provides information to those who are positive toward the Word of God; no matter where they are. This is why missionaries end up in the darkest and most forboding places. Adiniamum Judson, and he wanted to go to China. He sailed to China, and ended up in India, and the ship broke down; and he stayed in India for the rest of his life. There is no proving the existence of God in the Bible. Mary Slessor; wandering all over Africa, alone. The book Heathenism.
7. Why can't good deeds get us to heaven? This begs the question. What is grace? It is compatible with human works.
8. What about all of those hypocritical believers? They are not better than me. It is the sin nature; and we all have one. The believer who progresses, the sin nature gets more and more under control.
9. Is Jesus really the Messiah? That is the testimony of the Old and New Testaments.

Such people oppose the gospel in any way that they can. Religious liberalism; they do not see the Bible as God's Word. They ridicule the believer and God's Word. These are our opponents. We should speak to them about Christianity. They will find out that they are on the wrong side of history and the wrong side of God. They will spend eternity in hell; where is their mocking then?

Don't be afraid of their questions; bring them to question their own suppositions. They may ridicule and they may argue; you have answers that no one else has. Be patient and do not take offense. Stick to the truth. Do not be intimidated. Let the Holy Spirit work in their lives.

In John 10:24, even Jesus and His miracles could not convince them. They are not interested in the truth; they want to use His statements against Him. They did not even read Him His rights.

Knowing all of this, Jesus replies to them....

John 10:25 Jesus answered them, "I told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father's name bear witness about me,

Jesus tells them, "I already told you; but you did not believe." Jesus has gone through all of the doctrine that He does the works of God the Father; and how the works provide testimony as to Who Jesus is.

John 10:25 Jesus answered them, "I told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father's name bear witness about me,..."

We have seen many of these miracles. Jesus has proven over and over again Who He is. It is not His lack of clarity.

John 10:26 ...but you do not believe because you are not part of My flock.

The problem is, because you don't believe in Me, you are not a part of My flock. They rejected His voice because they were not of His fold. They try to put off the blame on Jesus for not speaking clearly; but the fault is their negative volition.

Jesus' sheep are those who hear Jesus voice and they follow Him.

John 10:27 My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me.

Those who believe in Him, He gives to them eternal life.

John 10:28 I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of My hand.

We throw the words eternal life around a lot. Jesus gives eternal life to us, which is the same life which God possesses. God imparts His life to those who believe in His Son.

Those who possess that life can no more perish than God can perish. We will all face physical death, but who cares. What comes after is what matters. What is a little pain, even? Jesus would endure the greatest physical pain that anyone would ever suffer.

Eternal death; oblivion, cannot hold any believer any more than it could hold Jesus Christ.

We know our future. No one else besides believers in Jesus Christ have that. There is one real security in this life and beyond. It is eternal security. It is promised by the Lord Jesus Christ. Immutable God cannot cancel eternal life.

Salvation does not guarantee that the believer will live the Christian life.

John 10:28 I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of My hand.

When we believe, we go from dichotomy to trichotomy. And God gives us eternal life. Even if you are a pitiful failure in this life, you still have eternal life.

Rom. 5:1 Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.

We have His righteousness; and we have peace, meaning that we have been reconciled to God. We are reconciled by His perfect righteousness.

Rom. 5:2 Through him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

By means of faith, we stand in His grace; not in our own works. This is critical to understanding eternal security.

With all of this understanding, we come to have a most certain expectation of being glorified by God.

Eternal Security

1. Our lasting relationship with God never depends on our own integrity or upon our morality or upon our success or failure in the Christian life. Eternal life is a state of being. We have become eternal. All souls are eternal; but we are eternal insofar as having an eternal relationship with God.
2. That permanent relationship is the work of God. It cannot be lost. If it depended upon us or our works, it could be lost.
3. You did nothing to gain your eternal life; nor can you maintain it. It is strictly the work of Jesus Christ on the cross for us.
4. This reconciliation and justification has a never-ending result for those who accept His grace by faith. They will stand permanently. How can His work be negated by our works or lack thereof? How can we do that? How can we overcome the grace of God?

How Can We Overcome the Grace of God?

1. How can anything that God does be negated? We can accept or reject what God has done. We can accept or reject.
2. Our lack of perfect righteousness repels God? Perfect righteousness cannot have fellowship with our imperfection. But we are justified at the moment of salvation.
3. God can make us righteous without compromising His integrity; because of what Jesus did for us on the cross.
4. When we express faith in Christ, He justifies us and imputes His righteousness to us. Then we realize peace and reconciliation with God. Jesus has provided us with a peace treaty which cannot be broken.
5. Because of justification and reconciliation, we have a permanent relationship with God.
6. No change can ever be wrought in our status in our relationship with God.

7. Once justified, always justified. Once reconciled, always reconciled. We will always be perfect righteousness in God's sight. After believing, we will always be at peace with God.
8. God just not do this without placing all of this in a permanent container, eternal security.
9. We can never lose the perfect righteousness which God imputes, or the peace which God established between us.
10. Even a reversionist who remains that way until he dies, retains justification and reconciliation and eternal life. Whether you go the religious route or go the hell-raiser route, it does not change your status.
11. That is the security of being held in God's hand. He grabs you and never lets go.

Reversionism is never without cost to the believer. The result is a life of instability and misery and severe discipline in this life. If that is your priority, how long will it last? There is nothing wrong with having things or being a success in life; but it is a matter of priorities.

Eternal rewards—what do you have? Next time.

John 10:29 My Father, who has given them to Me, is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand.

Lesson #0584

John 10: Life of Christ

3/27/2014 Thurs

Deacon or head of the board of Deacons stands up (Mark). Berachah Church was founded 80 years ago. Tapers would bring their tape recorders and set them in front of the pulpit at the 325 seat Quansit Hut. In 1959 Berachah Church actually began, on a two-lane Westheimer with gravel road Sage. Bob would quiz the teens. Basketball team then.

1967 T&P started. Changed to a separate entity (1980?). Bobby grew up and he was a surfer with a Volkswagon van to put his surfboard in.

Bob began to decline in health and mental capacity. The Lord has plans; God knows what He is doing. Pulpit committee then formed. 10 years ago tomorrow, Bobby was made pastor.

Bobby's grandfather was the pastor at the first Baptist church in Tucson for 50 years. Bobby never intended for teaching at Berachah to be his job.

There is no guarantee of anything in this life, including longevity as pastor at Berachah Church. God has clearly prospered Berachah Church. The Lord honors His Word no matter where it is taught.

There are no guarantees of anything. No matter how wealthy you are, it does not buy eternal life. It is all temporal. It can all disappear in just a moment. Lately our government has been telling us that it can provide us a lasting security. Healthcare to keep us all well and robust. The magnificent medical science almost guaranteeing us that it will find a cure for all diseases. They think maybe they can have a great extended life.

Income equality. That is a reward of monetary gain simply because you exist. You are owed. It has nothing to do with your good or bad choices in life. That is a perverted form of grace called socialism.

Government promises to create an environment based on perfection. Wiping out this global warming and fix this green energy; just turn your life over to the government.

Man, on his own, cannot provide iron-clad security or even a semblance of eternal life. As believers in Jesus Christ, we do not turn to government for security. Our security rests in the Lord's hands. Here today and gone tomorrow.

Bobby's security is in teaching His truth. Teaching the Word of God can be very insecure, in human terms, that is, in the face of all the obstacles. We are studying John 10:28, which is the only security that we have.

They were perishing without hope, without life, without Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ gives eternal life. There is no other name under heaven give among men by which we must be saved.

John 10:28 I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of My hand.

No matter what you have done, there is no guarantee of anything in the future. Where is the security for the future? Where is the security for your future? It is in Jesus Christ. When we depart this life, we are bound for heaven. We share the perfect righteousness of God imputed to us because of the work of Christ. Nothing and no one can intervene to remove His work. What He gives, He can never withdraw. Our permanent relationship with Him is based upon the cross. Because He lives, we live. Nothing and no one can wrench us out of His hand.

Rom. 8:32 He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things?

Rom. 8:33 Who shall bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies.

Rom. 8:34 Who is to condemn? Christ Jesus is the one who died--more than that, who was raised--who is at the right hand of God, who indeed is interceding for us.

Rom. 8:35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword?

The all things of eternal security. Nothing can separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus. The inheritance in Christ is incorruptible and it will not fade away. Along with this secure eternal life in heaven comes a promise; a promise of eternal rewards.

What comes in eternity is beyond our ability to ask or think. The real security is in heaven. This doctrine of eternal security makes up for a great deal of what we lack in this life. This is the eternal security that we have. A lot of those old painful things in this life are going to fade away.

Security in this life can easily fade away. The inheritance is ours, when someone has a will; that is our iron-clad guarantee that comes to us. Unlike that eternal security, eternal rewards are not guaranteed. That is where our spiritual life kicks in. We have eternal security; we have eternal rewards at our fingertips.

We will examine eternal rewards and how they are acquired. The thought of missing rewards can be problematic on this earth. I know I'll be in heaven; what will I get when I am there? What about all of those other perks that we call rewards?

Rewards in Heaven

Bobby has notebooks filled from the Book of Romans. Wayne Hill would write notes like crazy and then type them up later for the integrity of God book.

1. All believers will be judged by Jesus Christ after the rapture of the church. We will be evaluated in the future. We will have to give an account of ourselves. Bobby had a quota of people to get into the army every month. The commanding general went to Fort Sill, and had every recruit commander there, and one by one, we were to give an account of what we were doing. Sometimes we did not do too well.
2. That judgment and subsequent rewards are based on the production of good works. They do matter.
3. That is what will be judged. The works of the believer during his lifetime. Our rewards are based upon what happens during our lives.
4. Lack of good works means a lack of reward. 2Cor. 5:10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive what is due for what he has done in the body, whether good or evil. This will be true for all of us. Our rewards will be assigned based upon what we have done.
5. Good works in the Christian life means the production of divine good.
6. Definition of divine good: those deeds produced while filled by God the Holy Spirit. Hence the importance of rebound to maintain the filling of the Holy Spirit and the advance toward spiritual maturity. Unbelievers to good works; but they won't even be there. So our good works do not count; only those done when filled with the Holy Spirit.
7. There is no effective function of good in our Christian lives or effective Christian service apart from rebound, the filling of the Holy Spirit and spiritual growth. That is why the ministry of Berachah Church is important. It is the Word of God that matters.
8. The more mature in the Christian life, the more one can produce divine good. We stay in fellowship longer as mature believers. We are more focused on Bible doctrine, on the Lord and on accomplishing His will.

9. We received rewards at the Judgment Seat of Christ based upon our divine good production.
10. Bad deeds means human good produced without the filling of the Holy Spirit. Good deeds do not count if they are human good. No reward for human good.

A nice 10th anniversary to have this doctrine. There is reward on earth as well. Bobby being able to teach; that is a reward for him. A professor in seminary asked the class, will there be a difference in rewards in heaven? People squirmed. Many did not know the answer to that. Being judged causes stress in people because of the outcome.

Why does someone deserve greater rewards than me? That is a Christian socialist.

Bobby is not telling us to do good stuff to be rewarded. It begins with growing up. It is still a rationale. We live in this life thinking about reward. It is a rationale of security for us. Feeling guilty or worried gets us out of fellowship. No reward to be worried about your reward.

1John 2:28 And now, little children, abide in him, so that when he appears we may have confidence and not shrink from him in shame at his coming.

1John 2:29 If you know that he is righteous, you may be sure that everyone who practices righteousness has been born of him.

Preparation is key. There is an exhortation connected to the doctrine of eternal security.

A misapplication of eternal security; an eternal reward killer? All believers are mandated to live; and with that thinking comes the high price of...

Eternal security is one of the greatest doctrines we can know. Misusing this, diminishes our rewards.

Lesson #0585

John 10: Life of Christ

3/30/2014 1Sunday

Bobby has been pastor at Berachah Church for 10 years.

“One Moment in Time” is a perfect lead-in for today.

Security in life is fleeting; security in life is hard to come by; and it is on the minds of many people. People want to be free of fear and anxiety. They want to be certain that they will be fed, sheltered and clothed. They want to know that they can make ends meet from month to month.

The most important things in life are not things at all. Bobby appreciates the unconditional love of his parents. When you lack this, this can hinder your growth. Some adults who have been adults for decades still are insecure because of the lack of love as a child.

The only true security in life is knowing that we are irrevocably part of the plan of God. We are unconditionally accepted and loved by God. Do we know this with certainty? Are we certain that we will spend eternity with God? Do we have fear of hell? We can either deny that hell exists or we can fear our being placed there.

Christian pastors who connect temporal life and our works with heaven or hell; and this leaves believers off balance. There are those who wonder if they really believed in Jesus, or was there something lacking? Or did that moment not count? How could that one moment of faith have such far-reaching results?

Such a person is not doubting himself; he is doubting the clear statements of the Bible. He is doubting the words of Jesus Christ. Only God's Word is worthy of our trust.

The doubt that we have is based upon legalism. If you do not live a certain way, then you were not saved initially or you have lost your salvation. You make all doctrinal studies based upon the study of the Scriptures. After that comes living the Christian life; and that is a separate issue from eternal life and eternal security. Whether we live the Christian life or not, we are heaven-bound based upon a moment of faith.

Rewards is separate from eternal security. What the implications and applications of metabolizing the doctrine of our secure, unbreakable eternal life? We need to make this doctrine ἐπίγνωσις in our souls. Gratitude in life is a wonderful thing. As you learn Bible doctrine, you become grace oriented. No finer example of the grace of God than eternal security. In spite of our many flaws, God is faithful to His Word and His promise of eternal life. Eternal security is a strong motivator for the believer to live the Christian life. When you are secure, life is much easier to live. When you feel secure, your life is better. We never lose the security of eternal life as Christians. There is no reason not to always know that we are secure.

If you have believed in Jesus Christ and stand upon His work. It takes about 15 seconds to explain it and a lot less time to believe it. Those few seconds secure eternity. People have a hard time understanding such an eternal result with no effort on their part. It is true because God promises eternal life and security in heaven. Nothing that we do of our own strength is eternal. We cannot remove ourselves from the plan of God by renouncing our faith, renouncing Jesus Christ, or by committed a bunch of sins. It takes great arrogance to think that you can undo the work of Jesus Christ. Once God fulfills the promise of salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, it is irrevocable, regardless of your attitudes or the deeds which follow.

The doctrine of eternal security provides and overwhelming illustration of God's character and power and security. We cannot fully understand apart from that. Among the gods, there is none like You, O Lord. None of these gods that man has come up with can even approach you; nor are there any works like Your works.

A third application from this doctrine. When we come to understand His amazing personal love for us, based on eternal security, this helps us with reciprocal love for Him. That love is the foundation for living the Christian life. It is the basis for our development of impersonal love for all mankind, which is a problem solving device. If you have an ounce of capacity, then you will be able to have reciprocal love.

Fourth application: eternal security is freedom and it is a primary motivator for the Christian life. How can you not live a great life when you know that you are totally secure? You will now the truth of eternal security and that truth will set you free.

We have been studying John 10:28 which is a beautiful Biblical illustration of the concept of eternal security. It is quite clear. Death holds no fear if we understand that we will not perish. One moment of time; and one moment in time to realize that we will not perish.

John 10:28 I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of My hand.

This is the hand of God. Once we have eternal life, then we cannot lose it. No one can removed us from God's all-powerful grip.

There are these smart people who want to come up with something that God could do to destroy Himself, like make a rock large enough to crush Him. God cannot behave foolishly. He is immutable; He does not release us once we are His.

God's hand is an anthropomorphism of eternal security. Anthropos + morphos = man + form; and this explains God in terms of human anatomy or human behavior. God does not have hands. His hand is a way for us to understand His iron grip upon us. He holds us firmly in an eternal relationship. Understanding all of this opens up a whole new world to the believer.

There is another aspect of eternal security to cover. The Biblical rationale behind eternal security.

Lesson #0586

John 10: Life of Christ

3/30/2014 2Sunday

Anthropomorphic illustration of eternal security. Why be so emphatic about this? There are literally thousands of churches who do not agree with eternal security. They would even denounce Bobby for teaching heresy.

Grace Evangelical Society and they do nothing but refute those who are anti-eternal security. There is a war out there based upon this simple doctrine of eternal security. There is no true understanding of the Christian life unless you understand the doctrine of eternal security. Bobby will wrap this doctrine up with Biblical rationales.

Eternal Security Rationales

1. The rationale of positional sanctification. The baptism of genuine humility rationale. 1John 5:11–12 And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. At salvation we are baptized into Christ; we are put into Christ; we share everything that Christ is and we share everything that He has. We are acceptable to God only because we have been placed in Him. We are perfected forever. Obviously, not one of us is perfect; but this is our position; not our experience. Our eternal inheritance is what we have in heaven. The believer is set apart forever as a member of the royal family of God.

2. The family of God rationale. Gal. 3:26 You are all sons of God through faith in Jesus Christ. From elsewhere: He gave them the right to become sons of God, even those who have faith in Jesus Christ. We are not born into the family of God because of bloodlines nor by the power of the flesh; nor by the will of man. No man can make us a part of the family of God. We were born of God. We are not sons of God because of physical birth or by means of human deeds, but by the work of God alone. Who can break this?
 - 1) We cannot reverse our own family affiliation. You might want to renounce your family and they might want to renounce you, and some even go so far as to hold funeral services before a person dies; but we are always in this family. We always have this genetic connection which cannot be changed. You cannot change who your parents are.
 - 2) Likewise, once born again, no one can change the fact of your regeneration; no one can change the family that you belong to. We are eternally stuck as members of the family of God. We are there by the Word and power of God.
3. The eternal life rationale. Jesus Christ is eternal; He is eternal life. He is God, and eternal life is a part of His essence. As man, Jesus is eternal as well. He has an eternal resurrection body. Being in Christ; being in union with Him, means that we share His life; we share this eternal life. John 3:15 We have it; that is a statement of fact. It cannot be extinguished any more than Jesus could die again.
4. The love of God rationale. I am convinced that neither death nor life nor angels nor principalities,...nor any other creature shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus. God loves all mankind, but this is impersonal love. Rom. 8:38–39 is personal love. God's personal love holds us. God's love cannot be tarnished or withdrawn, as with human love. Never think that the love of God changes or is withdrawn or is temperamental or that it disappears. That is security. There is a security in love; and full and complete security with God's love. God does not require us to love Him back in the way that He loves us. It is just as motivating as someone we know when someone loves us unequivocally and unconditionally. We are motivated to love as we are not for others in life. We are secure in God's love and we move on with reciprocal love. This love from God is the believer's guarantee of an eternal relationship. God cannot overlook His justice and righteousness. Otherwise, these attributes would be denigrated. God's love cannot compromise His justice and righteousness. People today can't wait to talk about a loving God Who would never condemn His creatures; but He can and He must.
 - 1) For the believer, he who God loves will be scourged, which is in our best interest. That is the loving hand of God which provides our security.

5. The logical approach in Rom. 8:32–33 He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things? Who shall bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. This passage uses a system of logic called a fortiori, which is a Latin word, which refers to with greater force, with stronger reason. If God did the greatest and most difficult work at salvation by not sparing His Own Son and delivering Him up to death on the cross, imputing our sins to Him and judging Him; then it follows logically that God can and will do the lesser for us (provide eternal life and eternal security for us).
6. The body metaphor. We are in the body of Christ. Jesus Christ is the head; and the foot cannot say to the hand, “We don’t need you.” Col. 1:8 God never says that He has no need of a part of His body. 1Cor. 1:21. We might be dysfunctional body parts, but Jesus does not amputate. We are permanently a part of the body of Jesus Christ. When our hands move, our head told us to do that.
7. Eph. 1:13–14 In him you also, when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, who is the guarantee of our inheritance until we acquire possession of it, to the praise of his glory. We are sealed until the day of redemption. That is the sealing ministry of God the Holy Spirit.

Eternal security is an unbreakable relationship with God, because it depends upon Who and What God is; not on what we are. Eternal security must engender confidence in us. That eternal security as a status. Then we must live the Christian life. That is our responsibility. What happens after salvation? That is the Christian life. We mostly study how to live the Christian life. We have it and we must gain confidence in it.

Bobby wants us to have confidence in what we already have.

John 10:29 My Father, who has given them to Me, is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand.

Lesson #0587

John 10: Life of Christ

4/2/2014 Wed

Another Fort Hood shooting.

With the doctrine of eternal security, there are all of these wonderful side issues involved. We are going to get very practical with this doctrine. We have rationales for the doctrine; we have had the doctrine; and we should recognize that we do have eternal security.

Much of Christianity today requires people to prove that they are really, really saved. Bobby was encouraged by several people who told him how much the doctrine of eternal security means to them. It was as if a weight had been lifted off of their shoulders. We are not to live the spiritual life with fear and trepidation. However, without eternal security, that is the natural way to live.

Knowing that eternal security is true, this is not enough to engender confidence. We get eternal life the moment that we believe in Jesus Christ. This is a status; it is the state of eternal life. Eternal life and eternal security go together. The fact that God gives us eternal life is eternal security. When you begin to realize that you have that, eternal security becomes a weapon in your arsenal. Developing confidence in that security happens in the believer who fulfills the principle of epistemological rehabilitation. That is moving from human viewpoint thinking to divine viewpoint thinking.

It is all about who God is; not about who we are. Jesus Christ has given us eternal life. How can we question the security of being in Christ and having eternal life? The status of eternal security is not what brings us confidence; confidence is acquired thinking it is the thinking of a renovated mind. The believer acquires confidence through perception of Bible doctrine. Understanding eternal security and relying upon that eternal security is what gives you confidence. You lean upon the fact of that status. Confidence is an experience of security.

We build one doctrine upon another; so we build upon eternal security. How can you continue to press on in the Christian life when you know that you are secure. You have a green light to go on and grow up.

The state of eternal security and developing confidence toward God. Eternal security is a part of God's grace; it occurs in a moment in time. Eternal life is eternal security. It happens in a moment of time. Confidence in the fact of eternal security is a progression. You build confidence step by step.

There is a great confidence for a soldier; he knows that at any time, he could take a bullet; and that is the beginning of the best part of his life.

Results in spiritual self esteem which translated in spiritual confidence. This confidence in God is a temporary experience which can be nullified by neglect or rejection of Bible doctrine

The Application of Eternal Security to the Christian Life

1. Eternal security is a permanent state, from the moment that you are saved to the moment you die and beyond. It is a permanent state and it cannot be destroyed by a believer's failures, reversionism or anything.
2. Confidence is virtue which can be destroyed. That is a perishable skill. When you get your eyes on God...
3. Eternal security depends entirely and only on the faithfulness of immutability of God. Where is there more security? This is iron-clad because God is faithful to His Word.
4. Confidence depends upon the application of the doctrine of eternal security to our circumstances. This is where it all meets. Circumstances is what drives insecurity in our lives.
5. Eternal security is a guarantee never to be lost.

6. Confidence toward God is a virtue manufactured by growing and living the Christian life.
7. All believers possess eternal security but not all possess confidence in that security. This helps us get over our multitude of insecurities. 1John 2:28 And now dear children, keep residing in it, so that when He appears we might have confidence and not shrink away from Him in His coming. 1John 4:16–17

There is a further reason for security, because God the Father keeps on holding onto our hand.

Before, Jesus said no one could snatch them out of His hand; now they cannot snatch them out of His Father's hand.

John 10:29 My Father, who has given them to Me, is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand.

Then Jesus says...

John 10:30 I and the Father are One."

We Are Held by Both Jesus and the Father

1. We are permanently in Christ's. Nothing can take us out of His hand.
2. Jesus is in the Father's hand with no chance of being snatched away.
3. Therefore, we are in Christ's hands; He is in the Father's hands, which means that we are in both of their hands.
4. We can never be snatched out of God the Father's hands by anyone including ourselves.
5. There is a unity in the hands of the Father and Son in which we are held.
6. The Father holds Christ, Christ holds us, the Father holds us.

This next statement is not a statement that Jesus is exactly the same Person as God.

John 10:30 I and the Father are One."

hen = one. Neuter does not refer to a person; it refers to a concept, a principle, a doctrine.

God the Father and Jesus are confirmed as two persons in the Trinity; because one does not refer to their personhood.

"I and the Father Are One."

1. They are two separate persons but one in the sense of Deity and essence. They have exactly the same attributes. Took a long time to figure this out.

2. The Father and Son also have a common bond of unity. They function with the closest of fellowships. They are of one mind. They do not deviate from the mission.
3. They have the same exact purpose.

Indicates Several Things

1. When we are united with Christ (sharing everything that Christ is and all that He has); we are united with the One united with the Father. And we have the Holy Spirit indwelling us.
2. We become united with the Eternal Son and the Eternal Father.
3. Therefore, our life is as eternal as theirs. Eternal life of both the Father and the Son. God the Son died a physical and spiritual death; but He was also resurrected.
4. We have an eternal and intimate fellowship with all members of the Trinity. We will study the transfiguration of Jesus Christ in the near future. This is the manifestation of His Deity. It is an amazing illustration of what we share.
5. We are just one incredible, eternal family with a unity of purpose. We have the same purpose that He did. He also had a mission which He gave to the disciples which covers us as well.
6. Our purpose is to continue; to follow Christ; which means to learn His Word; to fulfill the mandates to live the Christian life; the life pioneered by Jesus Christ.
7. Our mission is to serve the Father and to glorify Him just as Jesus did.

Jesus and the Father are One in purpose and in essence; and we are united with them both.

Our Relationship with God the Father and God the Son

1. We have an eternal relationship with Jesus that is secure. We are married; the bride of Christ. That is an absolute relationship with Jesus.
2. We also have an eternal unity and fellowship with the Father and the Son.
3. We know God intimately, because we know Christ Who revealed the Father to us.

In eastern religions, they think that they are becoming gods in their spiritual growth. We are never equal with God the Father and God the Son.

This is also an outright claim of Deity by Jesus Christ. This is another instance of Jesus saying, "I am God."

People who are really ignorant sometimes claim that Jesus never said He is God. Jesus said He was the Messiah in Nazareth, so his homies took up rocks to stone Him.

However, here He is in the Temple, so they had to go out and get some stones and they brought them back into the Temple.

John 10:31 The Jews picked up stones again to stone Him.

Now Jesus explains; and asks which works will they stone Him for.

John 10:32 Jesus answered them, "I have shown you many good works from the Father; for which of them are you going to stone Me?"

They will stone Him because He makes Himself out to be God. His enemies understand what He is saying.

John 10:33 The Jews answered him, "It is not for a good work that we are going to stone you but for blasphemy, because You, being a man, make yourself God."

Why were they condemning Him for performing the works of God? They claim they are condemning Him for claiming to be God. They could not condemn Him for His works; they were obvious. They could not deny all of the eyewitness testimonies.

These guys were great politicians. They do not address the irrefutable facts before them; they just call Him a liar. Like politicians today.

Jesus had proven Himself to have the power of God by His miracles. They were absolutely negative and blind.

It is beautiful how Jesus uses the Law against them. "You are gods." This is a quote from Psalm 82:6.

Lesson #0588

John 10: Life of Christ

4/3/2014 Thurs

They might be razing Macy's. Sage Road might be shut down?

We are not religious people. We have a relationship with God the Father through Jesus Christ. Religious people have ways that they will gain the approbation of God through one kind of works or the other. For them, legalism is their way of life. They are people without grace orientation. Grace is a foreign concept to them because they do not have renovated thinking. They have not begun to think divine viewpoint; they are thinking human viewpoint. They despise anyone who steps outside of the box which they define as their religious norms and standards. This challenges their excessive moral code; that is a threat to them. When such people have power in the church or in any other area, they become religious tyrants. History is loaded with these kinds of people. Some will kill to preserve their religious ideas; and most will use intimidation in order to affect the actions of others.

Many died in the Middle Ages for stepping outside of the tenets of their religion. The same is true for Muslims.

In the time of Christ, the pharisees were the extreme adherents to religious legalism. Christ was the enemy of the pharisees because he was way outside of the lines they set up.

Jesus Christ often used the law so that they might see themselves in the light of divine viewpoint. He would bring them back to the correct Biblical interpretation of the Law. But they rarely looked at themselves when it came to violating the Law. This is the blindness of religion; they do not recognize just how far they have strayed from the truth.

When Jesus claimed to be Deity, this confused them greatly.

There are those who claim that Jesus never claimed to be God; this is patently false. When Jesus said, "I and the Father are One;" there is a unity of essence and a unity of purpose and mission. He has the closest of relationship. They are of one mind. The mind of Christ of the mind of God. This is what Jesus means. He is not saying that He and God are one and the same Person.

John 10:30 I and the Father are One."

The pharisees responded with their normal viciousness. They loaded their pockets with stones to stone Him. They had done this on more than one occasion. This is the modus operandi of extreme legalism.

John 10:31 The Jews picked up stones again to stone Him.

Jesus will make another statement which will preclude them from stoning Him.

John 10:32 Jesus answered them, "I have shown you many good works from the Father; for which of them are you going to stone Me?"

Jesus has done a great many deeds; so He asks them, for which work would He be stoned. How can they stone Him for performing miracles that only God could perform. They could not justify stoning Jesus for works, even though this took place on the Sabbath.

There is the problem of the quality of the work. It could only be considered a work of some sort if it were actually a true miracle. But if it was a true miracle, then how can it be wrong?

This set the pharisees back; but it was a minor setback.

John 10:33 The Jews answered him, "It is not for a good work that we are going to stone you but for blasphemy, because You, being a man, make yourself God."

Ironically, the pharisees admit to the good works, and put them quickly aside, and refer to what Jesus said.

Religious types are fanatics. They utterly believe in their false causes. Just as humanists do; just as progressive secularists do; just as atheists do.

What Jesus does threatens their religion; and therefore, He must be crushed. This is despite what Jesus has done and they cannot deny those works.

“You are a man, and you make Yourself out to be God.” which is a clear rejection of Jesus as Deity. They completely disregarded the evidence. The pharisees were entirely correct to recognize that Jesus said He was God.

Jesus then appeals to the Law.

John 10:34 Jesus answered them, "Is it not written in your Law, 'I said, you are gods'?"

The pharisees cannot deny this. Normally, Jesus would quote the Law as coming from the Pentateuch. In this case, He refers to the Old Testament as a whole, calling all of it the Law.

Psalm 82:6 I said, "You are gods, sons of the Most High, all of you;..

Jesus, when He replied to the legalists, He nails them.

Interpreting Psalm 82:6

1. This psalm indicates that certain men under certain circumstances were called gods.
2. This does not confirm a divine nature within mankind.
3. The context here refers to the judges of Israel; the arbiters of the Law; those who were appointed over the people to make judgments concerning the Law.
4. These judges were men appointed to provide true judgment for the people of Israel.
5. Therefore, they are called gods because they are God's representatives; they represent God to the people. Those who are called to administer the Law and interpret that Law.
6. These gods, these judges, stood for God among the people. They administered the justice of God based upon the Mosaic Law. That was their vocation.
7. These men were stand-in's for God in the eyes of the people. They were the connection between the people and God. They carried the authority to interpret and administer the Law. They represented the Law before the people. \
8. Ironically, the psalmist was indicting the judges for being wicked and ungodly.
9. Incidentally, so are the pharisees.
10. It made sense that the arbiters of the Law would be proud of their position before the people. Therefore, they would submit to the divine authority of the Law.

The pharisees often misinterpreted the Law; they presented it incorrectly. However, it was still to be their inviolable standard in all things. It was their duty to accurately and properly dispense the Law. This is why Jesus used this quotation to rebut them. They accepted the very thing that they charged Jesus with. They liked being called a god; that was their hypocrisy. If they don't mind being called gods, then it is not blasphemy for Jesus to call Himself God. Jesus ties them up in knots here.

John 10:35 If he called them gods to whom the word of God came--and Scripture cannot be broken--

Jesus just quoted a Scripture that called the pharisees gods, as they handled and applied the Law of Moses.

“This is the Word of God; it cannot be broken. You handle the Word of God; you are called by the Bible gods; so why are you having a problem with this?”

They have totally forgotten about the rocks that they picked up; they are trying to figure out what Jesus was saying.

He qualified under the Word of God to handle the Word of God. Even the pharisees called Him rabbi, in fact.

John 10:36 do you say of Him Whom the Father consecrated and sent into the world, 'You are blaspheming,' because I said, 'I am the Son of God'?

Jesus has just sprung the trap. How could there be a better reason to be called the Son of God. It is the Father Who sanctified and set Him up for this mission. The Father gave Him tremendous powers.

To seal this argument and to entirely refute their charges—and there were crowds of people around nearly all of the time—people would see the oppressive nature of the pharisees and understand, to a limited degree, the grace of God. Many Jews were a part of the plan of God insofar as they were His ambassadors.

Jesus then returns to His works, which they ignored.

This is a bit complex.

So, Jesus takes a position, and asks them to see things from that position.

John 10:37 If I am not doing the works of my Father, then do not believe Me;

Then He takes the other position. You don't believe Me; then believe the works.

John 10:38 but if I do them, even though you do not believe Me, believe the works, that you may know and understand that the Father is in me and I am in the Father."

This was another way of saying, “I and the Father are One.”

They could not deny that Jesus' works were God's works. Hence, He had the right to call Himself the Son of God. If they believe the works, then they must believe on Him.

Jesus has once again refuted them publically. All those watching had a good idea of how this logic worked. The pharisees were outwitted and over-awed. They were beaten. They let their stones fall to the ground for the moment.

John 10:39 Again they sought to arrest him, but he escaped from their hands.

This did not keep them from being incensed and enraged.

Jesus then escaped them.

This period in our Lord's ministry comes to an end; and there is great hostility from the religious Jews. He would arrive at the cross; but He had things left to do before He got there.

Lesson #0589

John 10:39–40 Life of Christ

4/6/2014 1Sunday

We begin a new phase in the Life of Christ.

The scourge of Houston is the cedar pollen, the dust, and the pine pollen. The allergy capitol of the world.

Bobby has been struck in the past few weeks that during this study, about a 2 month period in the life of Christ, Jesus escaped the murderous attempts of the religious leaders in the Temple. Both of these times because Jesus claimed to be none other than God Himself. This claim got Him into very deep trouble.

There are those who say, "He never claimed directly to be God;" but we have studied twice recently where Jesus claimed to be God. "Before Abraham was, I Am."

In v. 59, the pharisees reacted to what Jesus said, and sought to stone Him to death. But Jesus escaped.

He then traveled to Perea, one of the districts of Palestine (like Galilee and Judæa; there are 3 districts). After a few months, he returned and came into the Temple and faced off the religious leaders. As soon as they saw Him, they went after Him.

Then He said, "I am My Father are One." This means that there is a unity of divine essence. They also had a unity of purpose; the same mission as the Father. A unity of mind. They were two persons but One God.

The religious leaders reacted immediately, taking up stones again to stone Him. They had no doubt that Jesus was claiming to be deity. The religious types said that they would stone Jesus for blasphemy, "Because You, being a man, make Yourself out to be God."

Jesus logically proved using Psalm 82:6 that He was not blaspheming calling Himself the Son of God, because the Bible calls them gods. This is a reference to priests who had received the Word of God to disseminate to the Jews. So, if the pharisees could call themselves gods, then He could as well.

This did not sway or dissuade the religious leaders. How did these learned men of the Bible hear all Jesus' words and saw the miracles which He did; and yet they rejected Him as their Messiah. They looked at Him, day after day, and said, "We will not believe."

They could not carry out their plans for killing Him; it was not His time yet. We are not given the specifics of how He escaped. When He left Jerusalem, this period of His ministry comes to an end and there is the beginning of the new final segment of His life. He leaves in His wake a lot of angry religious types who desire His death.

Before He returns to Jerusalem, Jesus had other things to do. Where did He go after escaping the Temple? Where did He go after escaping Jerusalem?

He went back to trans-Jordan Perea.

Jesus has gone to Perea and many people there believed on Him.

It should have been no surprise to His disciples that Jesus was rejected, even though He made a legitimate offer to the people of Judæa. God does not compel anyone to believe in Him. Volition is always the key, and there was negative volition among the religious leaders.

Whenever there was a great deal of negative volition, Jesus would leave. Jesus went to where there was positive volition and offered Himself.

The same thing occurs today. Missionaries go all over; and where there is positive volition, they are well received.

John 10:39 Again they sought to arrest him, but he escaped from their hands.

John 10:40 He went away again across the Jordan to the place where John had been baptizing at first, and there he remained.

This is Perea.

John 10:41 And many came to him. And they said, "John did no sign, but everything that John said about this man was true."

The people in this area had positive volition.

John 10:42 And many believed in him there.

The common drama of His crucifixion, this was not accident and no tragedy in the plan of God. It was always the intend of God to send His Son to die for our sins. For this reason, we have salvation. Human volition is a part of the unfolding of the plan of God. The sovereignty of God in sending His Son and human volition are key to the plan of God.

What does Jesus do during this final period of His life? Two things: He speaks very clearly to His disciples about His coming death. They will know clearly that is what Jesus faced, as if He committed a crime against God Himself. He also reveals His plan for the disciples in the coming Age of the Church. These men will take the believing Jews during His ministry and they will begin the church itself.

Jesus would die, but He would be resurrected and He would ascend to God. So, He has to tell the disciples what happens next and what they need to do.

Jesus could not begin His kingly reign over Israel because He was rejected. Jesus evangelized in Perea, not hoping to reverse the trends of negative volition, but to teach His disciples about their future ministry. The disciples would have to learn a lot of doctrine in a very short time.

Jesus would leave them with salvation, with information about the new dispensation, and with the keys of the kingdom, a very important doctrine. These incidents illustrate truth about the disciples and about the future dispensation.

Bobby is going to backtrack a little bit. He is doing this for dispensational reasons. We are adherents for dispensational theology, because it is the correct theology. Jesus ends the Age of Israel and opens the door to the age in which we now live. We are going to cover all that Jesus explained to His disciples about the age that they would begin to live in.

Jesus was a dispensationalist; and He understood the plan of God and He taught this to His disciples.

Lesson #0590

John 10:39–40 Life of Christ

4/6/2014 2Sunday

Jesus evangelized of Perea, and He taught about His coming crucifixion, and He taught about the coming age.

Jesus had much to teach about the dispensation of the church. The disciples got all of this information from the Lord Jesus Christ.

Dispensations is a theology; a system of theology. Bobby went to two different seminaries. Western Theological Seminary was a dispensational seminary. Trinity in Chicago was a hybrid, and there are all kinds of different views there. Bobby was very fortunate to spend so much time in a dispensational church. When he heard other theologies, he understood the difference and could make the call himself.

Dispensations Is Distinctive for 3 Reasons

1. Dispensationalism is a method of hermeneutics. It means, it helps us to interpret the Scripture. If you do not understand the progression of the ages, the progression of the age of the gentiles to the age of Israel to the age of the Church. We need to understand what is valid in our age and what has been left behind.
2. Eschatology, which is the study of future things. What is ahead of us. Dispensationalism tells us what happens after the Church Age; then what happens with the Tribulation; and how does all of this relate to the Age of Israel? To properly understand eschatology, then we must have a dispensational framework.
3. Israel and the church; what is the relationship between the two? Are they separate, are they the same? Does one follow the other? Dispensational theology defines this relationship. We understand the progression of God's plan.

Jesus will approach the progression from Israel to the Church Age and explain this. In this retracing of Jesus' previous steps and teaching.

Bobby is going to depart from the chronology of the life of Christ. We will go back one step. There have been 3 years in the life of Christ and we are in the 4th year. This is when our Lord is on the march a few short months before the cross.

Jesus begins to teach about the church when He is rejected totally. He will no longer concern Himself with setting up the Kingdom of God for Israel. He must explain to His disciples what comes next.

All of the following events and teaching takes place in the final year of our Lord's ministry. Jesus does not address the church before this time.

The 2nd northern journey during the final year of His ministry. We are going back a little before John 8 and 10.

The disciples are run out of and now they go up to Caesarea Philippi. This is more of a gentile city where there was a lot of gentile pagan worship. We will examine first the confession of Peter.

Matt. 16:13 Mark 8 Luke

Matt. 16:13 Now when Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, He asked His disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?"

Jesus asks what other people are saying.

Matt. 16:14 And they said, "Some say John the Baptist, others say Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets."

Matt. 16:15 He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?"

Jesus knows that Peter would quickly reply.

Matt. 16:16 Simon Peter replied, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."

Jesus understood this.

Matt. 16:17 And Jesus answered him, "Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father who is in heaven.

Peter understood this because it was revealed to him by God the Father.

This time, we are coming at this quotation from another direction.

Who is Peter and what is the rock upon which Jesus said He would build His church.

Matt. 16:18 And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

The name of Peter in the Greek is (Πέτρος) [pronounced PEHT-ross], which means, Peter = "a rock or a stone"; one of the twelve disciples of Jesus. Thayer Definition only. Strong's #4074.

The other word is petra (πέτρα) [pronounced], which means, 1) a rock, cliff or ledge; 1a) a projecting rock, crag, rocky ground; 1b) a rock, a large stone; 1c) metaphorically a man like a rock, by reason of his firmness and strength of soul. Thayer Definition only. Strong's #4073.

Eph. 2:20, and Paul is writing about the church.

Eph. 2:19 So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God,

Eph 2:20 built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the cornerstone,

This is a great stone which lies in the very corner of the house; all of the other stones are aligned with this cornerstone. Jesus is the indispensable corner of the whole building.

Eph 2:21 in whom the whole structure, being joined together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord.

1Peter 2:6 For it stands in Scripture: "Behold, I am laying in Zion a stone, a cornerstone chosen and precious, and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame." Isa. 28:16

1Peter 2:7 So the honor is for you who believe, but for those who do not believe, "The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone,"

This is how the building of the church is erected. Whether Jew or gentile, we are connected to the cornerstone.

The Chief Cornerstone

1. The apostles and prophets are New Testament era prophets; not Old Testament ones. This is Phe
2. Even though they lineter and t
3. They will also form the original nucleus of the coming Church Age. They begin the body of Christ.
4. The rest of the church lines up with the original apostles and prophets who are aligned with the chief cornerstone, Who is Jesus Christ. This building is still being built. The cornerstone has already been laid; and this church is still being built, by us and everyone who comes after. They will continue to be built until Jesus comes for us at the end time. Jesus is on the ground flood and the disciples are with Him, being taught that they are a part of the foundation. Peter's name is used as a play-on-words.
5. Peter is a critical stone in the building of the church, as are the other future apostles. Do not forget that Jesus is the One upon Whom the whole church is built. The foundation does not continue to be laid. Popes are not a part of the foundation. The foundation is already laid. We are just as much a stone in the foundation of the church as any pope.
6. All the gates of hell cannot stand up against it. The church will be victorious. That is what this is all about.

We are a dispensational church. This is important for interpreting the Word of God. We want to be as close to being perfectly accurate as possible. The original languages are important; the context; and the theological framework with which we approach the Word of God. Bobby has heard some of the best covenant theologians; and he remains convinced of dispensational theology.

We are about to study an area in the life of Christ which is dependent upon dispensations. A dispensation is simply an era. The Lord uses a dispensation for each era; and these dispensations progress.

The Age of Israel goes on until the time of Jesus. That is the age of the hypostatic union; a short dispensation. Jesus departed this earth: death, resurrection, ascension and session. The disciples remain behind.

Jesus is giving these disciples guidance and teaching. We find ourselves in the Church Age; and we remain in the Church Age until we are raptured.

The Church Age is sandwiched between two portions of the Age of Israel.

There are all kinds of problems with the Tribulation. Pre-tribs; mid-tribs; post-tribs. The pre-tribulational viewpoint is what we are. We will not remain behind for the tribulation. The post-Tribulation people say that Jesus comes for us after the Tribulation.

After the 7 years of Tribulation; we have the Millennium.

Jesus goes to rescue the Jews in the Tribulation, who are about to be wiped out.

The pre-millennial view is the Lord comes at the end of the Tribulation and institutes the Millennium. Amillennialist do not believe in a Millennium. They believe it to be figurative; but not an actual nation of Israel from which Jesus rules.

Post millennial believe that Christ will come after the Millennium is established. Everything is rosy; and the Lord returns after that.

We are at the point of the Hypostatic Union and the church. Jesus is informing His disciples of this transition. There is a transition from one age to the next age. These disciples were chosen to bring in the Church Age. Whose plan was it? Who was the Rock upon which the church would be built? It was not the Apostles. It was the Lord Jesus Christ; it is His Word and His mind and His work.

The rock is not Peter; which is the way the many people interpret this. Peter is a stone but he is not the Rock. It is Jesus Christ Who will build the church.

The Apostles presented a lot of mystery doctrine; but where did it come from? It came from the teaching of Jesus Christ. There were many aspects of it that they needed to know. That is how critical this period in the life of Christ is.

Jesus and the disciples had been run out of Bethsaida. So they went where there was positive volition.

Caesarea-Philippi is an area with gentiles; many who were positive toward the Lord Jesus Christ. Jesus also gave private instructions as well on what is to come. He talked about His death, His resurrection, and the new dispensation which would follow.

He first said that He would be the Rock upon which the church would be build; and that He would be the chief cornerstone of the church. Peter calls Jesus that as well. Peter is a chip off the old block; a stone, but not the complete rock.

The disciples will be a critical part of the founding of the church. They will receive, transmit the divinely inspired Word of God. They will form the original nucleus of the body of Christ on earth as well. The disciples were on the ground floor of all of this.

It is Christ alone Who is the head, the leader and the foundation; no one else. Peter is a critical stone in the building of the church; but he is not the foundation. All the gates of hell will not overcome the church.

Matt. 16:18 And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

Gates in the time that this was written, and all understood what a gate was. We think of it as a gate or a door. Jesus is referring to the entrance to a city; that entrance signified a place of authority. This is where all legal, business transactions took place.

The Gates of Hell

1. As a metaphor, the gates of hell signify Satan and the powers of darkness. They will never overcome the church.
2. Satan will not transact the destruction of church at the gates of hell.
3. The powers of hell will not overcome or prevail against Jesus or the body of Christ.
4. The church will triumph over all of the machinations of the cosmic system. The schemes of Satan; the way that he operates in this world.
5. Churches all over America have no real purpose. None of their people are growing in grace and knowledge of their Lord and Savior. Is this not a defeat?

If there is no doctrine being taught, how can Jesus be our guide and defender? His Word in the souls of some believers will not disappear; ever. There will always be those who will hold the line for Bible doctrine.

The Lord will return for all of us at the end of the Church Age; no matter what. Good, bad or indifferent believers will be raised up.

As we get closer to the time of the rapture, things will get worse. The Tribulation is the worst period of human history. We have no fear of what is coming. We will not go through the Tribulation. That is part of the understanding of dispensations and the Tribulation. None of us will go through the Tribulation. We might be able to see it from heaven; and we will return with Jesus for the Millennium; and we will rule with Him. But the gates of hell will not defeat us.

We may think that we are in difficult times, and that there is little hope; but that does not mean that the Tribulation is coming soon.

Plenty of believers fall prey to the cosmic system. Satan nearly destroyed Israel; and that is why the Church Age was conceived. This is why the progression of God's plan moved into a new era. No matter how dark it is and the persecution of the church; it will get worse.

The church is now the plan of God for history; and the church will not be defeated.

Matt. 16:18 And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

Then Jesus tells them what their part will be.

Let's start with the key. Having a key was the sign of authority in the ancient world. A trusted servant in a wealthy household would hold the key. He would hold his masters' possessions.

Keys to the Kingdom

1. Having a key to the kingdom was important at that time.
2. Peter and the disciples.
3. They would hold great responsibility in the coming age. The whole idea of Peter unlocking the pearly gates comes from this passage
4. The key is metaphorical.
5. Peter and the other disciples of the Church Age would minister to the rest of the world in the name of Christ. They would do it concerning the kingdom
6. They would doctrinally define the realm of Christ and God.
7. They would proclaim the truth; the doctrines about Christ and His Work.
8. They would speak the gospel as the entrance to the kingdom.
9. They would assure believers of the security of eternal life in the Kingdom of Heaven. Eternal security is a part of this.
10. They would continue to serve up the mind of Christ; the word of the Lord. They needed to know what was going to happen in the very near future.
11. They would provide the doctrine for the new dispensation for the

Matt. 16:19 I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven."

this is all about the roles that these men would play in the coming Church Age. All of this comes straight from the boss in heaven. They were not there to follow their own thought patterns. They stayed within the parameters of our Lord's instruction. Binding and releasing.

Thoughts on Binding and Releasing

1. What does it mean? The Apostles could clearly delineate what was normative in the Church Age.
2. They were to communicate the new doctrines governing the church. They were binding.
3. They were to communicate that which bound the church to Christ.
4. They were to communicate that which the church was released from
5. The church was released from the Law of Moses; but they were bound by the mystery doctrine of the Church Age. These were doctrines never before revealed in the history of man. That is the progression from one age to the next.
6. New mandates and a new way of life. We are released from the old and bound by the new Church Age doctrines.

What Jesus communicates to them is what they would be bound to in the Church Age. This is a dispensational statement. From Israel to the church.

Peter, John and James; and later Paul. Paul would release us from many of the things that came before.

Lesson #0592

Matt. 16: Life of Christ

4/10/2014 Thurs

Jesus is in Cesarea-Philippi; and he has been rejected by the nation Israel, beginning with the religious leaders; and many other Jews also. He was rejected in His kingdom. A new dispensation will be begun.

The age prior to Jesus is the Age of Israel. Bobby calls this beginning when Moses led the children of Israel out of Egypt. They would be missionaries to other people. They were the most recalcitrant bunch; and God disciplined them many times. That age continued to the moment that Jesus came to the earth is His 1st advent.

Some believe this 1st advent to be a continuation of the Age of Israel. But it is a transitional age from the Age of Israel to the Church Age. Because they failed, Jesus would institute the plan of God called the Church Age.

The Tribulation is the final 7 years of the Age of Israel. Then the promised Millennium will come.

The Apostles will be in an upper room and that is when the Church Age will begin.

Jesus has told Peter that He, Jesus, would be the Rock upon which the church would be founded. His rejection does not stop the march toward the fulfillment of God's plan. The disciples will have a big part in the building of the church. As Apostles they are to receive and then teach the divinely inspired Word of God. They will do so with power and authority. They will form the original nucleus of the body of Christ. The rest of the church will line up with these Apostles.

The disciples will become Apostles and they will line up with the Cornerstone, which is Christ. Every generation must learn their instructions.

Israel has failed to accept her Messiah.

Matt. 16:18 And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

Then Jesus tells them something that will interest them. He will give them keys to the Kingdom of God. This is the new kingdom of the Church Age. These disciples are now informed that they will have tremendous responsibility in the coming age. They would represent Jesus on earth. They would proclaim the truth about Christ and His work.

How would we know about Jesus if not for them? They would tell us that Jesus is the only entrance into the Kingdom of God. They would provide the doctrines of the church. Armed with all this authority and this mission, Jesus tells them, "Whatever you bind on earth, will be bound in heaven; and what you release on earth will be released in heaven."

This authority to bind and release has been quite distorted. The authority of this verse has been distorted to be a disciplinary authority to be used to excommunicate and to bring back into the fold.

Matt. 16:19 I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven."

There is apostolic authority here; but not the type that it has been distorted to mean.

The Apostles would have the authority to declare the norms and standards of the church. That is what they would have the authority to set up. They were to communicate the new doctrines governing the church. That which ties the church to Christ.

The Disciples Binding and Releasing.

1. The disciples were to communicate the new doctrines governing the church; the church would be bound to these doctrines.
2. The new doctrines would bind the church to Christ. They would teach doctrines that were never before revealed in the history of man.

3. The new dispensation has some new mandates; and a new way of life. They were binding for all believers. They presented the mystery doctrines. The doctrines which would govern the church.
4. The church was released from other mandates; and the Apostles would do this. They would release the church from the Mosaic Law as a standard for their spiritual life and practice. It was no longer binding; they were released from it.
5. The church was released from the sacrifices that had anticipated Christ. They were released from things like dietary laws; the church is no longer governed by much of the Mosaic Law. There are new things in the church. Israel was no longer a client nation to God.
6. Because we are bound by that doctrine, we gain a life that far exceeds any life that went before; but the disciples had the ability to bind and release.

The disciples would make authoritative designations; they would be the initial ambassadors for Christ and they would take their directions from the home country.

Peter's first sermon after the filling of the Holy Spirit. He began to speak these doctrines of the New Testament. Peter, James, John and Paul are spoken of in the Book of Acts and in the epistles.

There is Israel, the Hypostatic Union, and then the church. Jesus set Israel aside; canceled them, so to speak; and the church is instituted. There are many who say, mistakenly, that Israel is gone forever and that the church is spiritual Israel.

That largely accepted view that the church is spiritual Israel. There are even some closely connected with the church who have bought into this.

The Church and Israel

1. The Apostles were not harbingers of a new program for nation Israel, which would be called the church.
2. The church does not take the permanent place of nation Israel in the plan of God.
- 3.
- 4.
5. That kingdom is yet future; national Israel will be reinstated in the Tribulation. It will be a terrible time for Israel. Death and destruction will be at their door until the return of Jesus Christ. You cannot fully understand this unless you can put the dispensations together.

Bobby goes back to some parables that we have studied.

Matt. 13

1. Because of the rejection of Christ by nation Israel, the millennial form of the kingdom is postponed, but not abrogated. Jesus legitimately offered the kingdom.

2. God will now rule His people, Jew and Gentile in a new form, the church. Jesus will be the chief cornerstone. The church is His instrument in the new age. He governs and works in this world through His church.
3. The Apostles would be the administrators, teachers, writers of the kingdom of heaven in the Church Age. They held the key of authority to do these things; to bind and release. Matt. 13:13ff define this.
4. The Church Age would stretch from Pentecost to nation Israel in the Tribulation. Then into the millennial kingdom.

The term kingdom. This is a bit confusing to us. There is always this connotation of the Jewish kingdom. We must make a distinction here. The term kingdom was used as a transitional phrase. These Jews, these disciples who were looking for the kingdom; they had to understand that this was a continuation of the plan of God without nation Israel. This new entity; this new age would be established made up of those like Peter, and those who put their faith in Messiah.

See, all of this started with Peter's confession. And so Jesus began to teach them about the Church Age.

Matt. 16:19 I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven."

Then Jesus makes this curious statement, not to tell anyone that Jesus is the Messiah.

Matt. 16:20 Then he strictly charged the disciples to tell no one that he was the Christ.

What? Jesus would make His Messiahship public. "Don't you talk about it; let me handle that. I will explain all of this to everyone." The disciples did not fully understand what was going on. He did not need His disciples to muddy up the water. He would use signs and wonders and His Word to teach that He was Messiah.

How Is it Coming Through

1. Jesus will speak for Himself and not through His disciples. This is the age of the Hypostatic Union; they would have their turn in the new dispensation.
2. They would not speak until the keys are given to them at Pentecost. They do not know enough yet. It is not time for them to speak.
3. Peter will be the first to use the key and they will all bind and release. But not yet.
4. Then in the new Church Age, the Apostles will begin to speak and teach and reveal the Messiah at that time. They would reveal Him to the world at large. There is that mandate at the end of Matthew. Jesus told them to do this just before He ascends into heaven.

We are no different. We must listen and we must execute the plan of God as we go forward. We are a part of the Church Age. We are being built upon the foundation laid by Jesus and the Apostles. Each believer is a stone in this building. When this happens, the rapture occurs. "You do not need to talk right now; just listen and learn."

The kingdom has not come yet; and Jesus said the kingdom would come to them.

Now Jesus will tell them some things which they will find very disturbing. Luke 9:22 and Mark 8:31

Luke 9:22 ...saying, The Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised the third day.

Jesus is giving them a lot to swallow all at once. The keys, the binding and releasing, not to tell anyone Who He is; and now, Jesus tells them that He will be killed and be raised up on the 3rd day.

Matt. 16:21 From that time Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised.

So Peter gets emotional over this.

Mark 8:32 And He spoke the Word openly. And taking Him aside, Peter began to rebuke Him.

Peter was really shaken up by all this. This is why Peter needs to listen and learn before being given the keys to the kingdom.

Man cannot be saved unless Jesus is crucified and resurrected.

Jesus lays into Peter. Peter is going to have to teach this to all the world.

Mark 8:33 But turning around and seeing His disciples, He rebuked Peter, saying, Go behind Me, Satan, because you do not mind the things of God, but the things of men.

Matt. 16:23 But he turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a hindrance to me. For you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but on the things of man."

Lesson #0593

Matt. 16: Life of Christ

4/13/2014 1Sunday

Communion Sunday:

Jesus was welcomed into Jerusalem with palm branches being placed before Him, recognizing His deity. But this began His final week.

Gethsemene means oil press, where olive oil is extracted from the fruit. The pressure on Jesus was enormous. Jesus experienced great sorrow and was praying concerning His upcoming separation from God.

His sweat became like drops of blood, falling down on the ground. This foreshadows His crucifixion.

When Pilate heard the words of condemnation by the Jews, he sat at the judgment, which was a large central square in the middle of Jerusalem, called Gilbatha. This is where Pilate gave the Jews permission to execute the only innocent men of history.

Mark 15:22 And they brought Him to the place Golgotha, which means “The place of the skull.” This is where executions took place.

Golgotha was a place of judgement. Everything that occurred prior to that was unjust; but this satisfied the justice of God. Much of the world today views Jesus merely as a hero, an example of human self-sacrifice; a person of great courage who died for His convictions. This is human viewpoint. His death was so much greater than what the human mind could grasp.

Jesus was reckoned guilty at Golgotha so that we might be made free.

This is the picture made by Barabbas, the gangster, who was set free. This was a man who deserved judgment, but because of Jesus, he was set free. Either he would die or Jesus would die; and Jesus died, setting this man free.

We are saved from eternal judgment to eternal life. Everything in God's plan is centered in the cross. This is the one thing toward which Jesus moved daily; He knew it and He moved toward the cross every day of His life. He understood this. He understood Isa. 53. At Gilbatha, there were those who mocked Him. On Golgotha, people mocked him as well. Jesus could have destroyed His enemies at any time.

Jesus drank the full cup of judgment, the very cup that He wished would pass from Him. Those moments of agony seem like a battlefield of defeat for Jesus and His followers, as if all hope had died with Him.

Without the resurrection, we have no confirmation of the object of our faith.

We move from death to eternal life through one act of faith.

Palm branches are appropriate; they mean victory. This is what is correct for the victory of the cross.

It is clear from Jesus prayer that He understood what was happening. But he spoke of this before on several occasions. Our study is Jesus looking into the near future and into the far future.

The thinking of the disciples before that time needed to be clarified so that they could comply with the plan of God. Jesus began to prepare the disciples for that week, that final week. It is clear that Jesus would not be able to initiate the earthly kingdom of Israel.

There would be the interruption of the Church Age. The disciples must begin to understand that there will be this change in the dispensation and that they would play a large part of this change.

However, here we come with our Lord announcing something which He knew. There were still events that must happen before the Church Age could begin. The greatest event of the 1st advent. He discusses the event that will initiate the change to the Church Age.

Jesus knows what is coming.

Luke 9:22 saying, "The Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised."

This is a lot for the disciples to swallow at one time, who did not think that such a thing was happening. Jesus clearly said this for the first time right here. This is the first time Jesus began to indicate that all is not rosy; that there would be a period of crisis.

Lesson #0594

Matt. 16: Life of Christ

4/13/2014 2Sunday

Mark 8:28 and Matt. and Luke

Mark 8:31 And he began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders and the chief priests and the scribes and be killed, and after three days rise again.

These disciples were His followers and they thought that they would be at the top of the food chain when Jesus came into His kingdom. Now He tells them that He is going to die. Jesus had implied this before; and they had seen how the religious types were against Him, and there was other opposition.

Peter responds emotionally

Mark 8:32 And he said this plainly. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him.

Matt. 16:22 And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, "Far be it from You, Lord! This shall never happen to You."

Peter was stunned; this was the worst possible news. The end of their dreams. It was the end of all of their aspirations and the end of their confidence.

Peter only heard, "I am about to die" and that is all that he heard. Peter was being very self-centered at this time. He was not thinking about Jesus and what would happen. Peter was showing some loyalty and some concern for Him. So he wanted to talk Jesus out of this. This was misguided, because Peter did not understand what was going on. There was a bigger question than just Peter's concern.

Peter did not realize that no one could be saved without the death of Jesus. But Peter chews Jesus out for saying this. Peter does not fully grasp the impact of what Jesus is about to do; he can only see how this affects him. He is reacting emotionally and he does not get the whole picture. We do not think about the plan of God when we are in the midst of adversity. We can only see our own little problems at one time. This is the difference between human viewpoint thinking and divine viewpoint thinking. Our destiny in Christ is not going to be turned aside with major or minor adversity. Peter missed the point. God was going to give him everything. Peter did not recognize what the Lord is doing.

Jesus has to grab Peter by the lapels and slap him around.

Matt. 16:23 But he turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a hindrance to me. For you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but on the things of man."

Mark 8:33 But turning and seeing his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said, "Get behind me, Satan! For you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but on the things of man."

Jesus, in a loud voice, so all of the other disciples could hear, He calls Peter Satan and tells him that his mind is on human viewpoint rather than divine viewpoint. This does not mean that Peter is the very presence of Satan; nor does this mean that Peter is unsaved. However, he was sucked into the cosmic vortex. Peter was being emotional with human viewpoint.

Peter put himself into opposition with the salvation of man. Satan and his cosmic system was the avowed enemy of Jesus Christ. Satan would do anything to stop the cross. The tactical victory of the Angelic Conflict that Jesus would win on the cross. Peter took the side of Satan. He was thinking the thoughts of Satan. Satan is the ruler of this world and he seeks control of this world. It is his policy which is the cosmic system. Peter fell into this trap like many believers without doctrine. He was not even thinking in the simple terms of the gospel. Peter could only think about what he was losing.

This is what happens when we do not orient to doctrine. Peter should have had this doctrine resident in his soul. Peter needed this doctrine repeated. Sometimes he needed to be kicked in the teeth until it came through.

"Peter, you have become a stumbling block to My mission; you are standing in front of the mission I have come to complete." This could not be a greater mistake on Peter's part.

Peter was just falling into the trap. This needed to be corrected immediately. The world would have to understand what Christ did on the cross. "Peter, get behind Me." Do not impede My purpose for coming to this earth.

Peter was swept away by his emotions.

Problems are inevitable. You must live with them. But they do not have to control your life. The stress of problems is not inevitable. You might say, "I can't help being upset" but you are wrong. Bible doctrine is the means of overcoming all adversity. When it is in your soul, when it is deposited in your soul, that makes all the difference.

The crown cannot be achieved without the cross. Jesus wanted the kingdom without the cross. A little logic would have told Peter, how could Jesus head the kingdom when He is rejected.

Doctrine helps us to survey the situation. We can think about the stupid mistakes that we make. God makes the truth available when we need it and some for the future as well. With these soul resources, adversity will not destroy you.

We can only straighten ourselves out with doctrine. This is not someone else's job.

Peter failed to believe in the Old Testament testimony of the suffering Servant. This is what Isa. 53 is all about.

I think that Jesus is the only One who understood this passage.

Without the right doctrine, we are vulnerable. We can all forget or put it out of our minds. A little doctrine is a perishable skill sometimes. We need to be consistent. When we are not, it shows that we are vulnerable. Inadvertently, we oppose Christ in our thinking.

Self-induced misery when we cannot overcome adversity; and we will probably face so divine discipline to straighten us out, to where we cannot differentiate between adversity and divine discipline. We have the resources; so we should utilize them.

Back in Matt. 4:8–9, Satan tempted Jesus to fall down and worship him, and he would give Jesus all the kingdoms. That is the same thinking which is in Peter's brain here.

What a favor the Lord does for us when we get discipline. Adversity will rule our lives unless we have doctrine. We cannot become bitter or angry.

Peter gets back in line. He recognized that he was getting his butt kicked, so he got back in line.

Jesus has been speaking of a new dispensation and about the new authority that the disciples would have in this new kingdom. After all of this, Jesus offers a different perspective of this coming time. He cleans up Peter's confusion; and then tries to teach all of the disciples. There will be a cost to following Jesus. You see, before, they followed Him and they figured, we will rule with Jesus. There is a cost to living the spiritual life. It is the cost. Jesus does not want them to have any misconceptions. What will their mission be and how will they do it? What will be the day to day experience in this new dispensation. This is a cost that ultimately all Church Age believers will experience. This experience that all believers will have to some extent.

There is a life of tremendous blessing for believers. No matter how much materials others have, and if you are broke, you have the greater life if you have doctrine in your soul. We have unique resources, including the filling of the Holy Spirit. Including the mystery doctrine of the Church Age.

The 10 Problem solving devices are in Freedom through military victory. Everyone has problems. No one is without problems. From the outside, we have all kinds of opinions; but when you have a problem, that is the greatest problem to you. But we solve these problems from our own soul. Others can put a band-aid on your problem; but only you can solve them. We will never be without problems.

The Pursuit of Happiness is a booklet coming out. Happiness is not freedom from adversity. There are always problems in life. Bobby's editors are there (2 or 3). Happiness is the pursuit of doctrine. A preview of coming events.

So what does Jesus have to say about the cost of following Him? It is sobering in His words but encouraging in its results.

Lesson #0595

Matt. 16: Life of Christ

4/16/2014 Wed

This is Passion Week.

Bobby is amazed about the things done in the name of Christianity. One reason to teach the Life of Christ is so that we know Jesus as we have never known Him before. The things on television convince him that he took the right path.

Our Lord is teaching about a new era.

Mark 8:31 And he began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders and the chief priests and the scribes and be killed, and after three days rise again.

This is not what the disciples had in mind. They expected something rosier.

Matt. 16:22 And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, "Far be it from You, Lord! This shall never happen to You."

Jesus rips into Peter in order to make a point.

Matt. 16:23 But he turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a hindrance to me. For you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but on the things of man."

Now Jesus begins to teach the demands of the Church Age which is coming.
Matt. 16:24–28 Mark 8:34–9:1 Luke

What Jesus says is difficult for them.

Then Jesus said to His disciples and to others, "If anyone wishes to come after Me, he must deny himself and then he must take up his cross daily and follow Me. For whoever desires to save his life will lose it; and whoever loses his life for My sake will save it. For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul. What can a man give for his own soul? For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words in this adulterous generation, the Son of Man will be ashamed of him when He comes with His holy angels. I tell you the truth: some of you standing here will not die before seeing the Son of Man coming in His power."

There is a lot to understand here. The context is key. This is addressed to believers; to mostly the disciples; and it must be understood in that way. This passage is not about salvation from hell. Jesus is not speaking to unbelievers. This is about speaking to believers; it is not about faith alone in Christ alone.

The disciples focus on the death part, and they don't quite catch up to the resurrection. Jesus must bear the cross before the crown. If the cross comes first, there will be suffering before the coming of the glory of the kingdom. The Lord Jesus Christ is the King; and they are expecting the kingdom. Jesus will not bring in the kingdom, because the kingdom is for believers. The disciples are not getting this yet. They do not realize that this death will take place. All of this time, they have seen what Christ has been going through. The powers that be wanted Jesus dead. So Jesus will teach a principle. He will teach the cross must come before the crown.

Peter has suggested that Jesus ignore the Father's plan to go to the cross. Peter knew that Jesus was following the will of the Father. But he does not put that together with what Jesus tells him.

Peter inadvertently agrees with Satan, that Jesus should go for the crown first without the cross. This cannot be the case. Jesus must go to the cross for our salvation. The principle applies here, to the disciples and to all believers.

What Is this Principle?

1. We must take up our cross daily. That's what it says. And follow Him. This is not a literal cross. There is that guy who walks across the United States carrying a cross. This is not what it means! Jesus is encouraging the disciples with this.
2. Christ says that there is difficulty in following Him. There will be problems in following Jesus. There is the problem with the opposition. These same people are going to oppose the disciples. Whatever they see the Lord going through, they will face the same thing.

3. For all believers, the cross must come before the crown.
4. Just as Jesus served mankind on the cross; he served believers; in the same way, the disciples will serve Him by taking up that figurative cross. What He is taking, they are going to take.
5. Jesus Christ uses the cross metaphorically, not referring to the salvation cross event. This defines the life of the believer who serves Him. Take up the cross daily.
6. Our life is a life that will include suffering. Jesus is not being discouraging; but He had to tell the disciples what they are in for.
7. Ultimately, just like Jesus Christ, the believer will triumph.
8. His life will have meaning and purpose. He will glorify God. What an illustration this one metaphor is for our future!

There will be difficulty, just the kind of difficulty our Lord has. This is why we have studied all of these confrontations, even from the disciples. There is an irony here. All the trouble the disciples gave Him, they will receive. All but one of them will be martyred. "You take up your cross daily." This is pursuing His will for their lives.

Then Jesus will give 3 mandates with a memorable alliteration. Each word begins with an alpha.

Aparneomai = deny himself; to refuse, to renounce, to reject. This is a command; it is not an option. The believer must reject; he must renounce himself.

Mark 8:34 And calling the crowd to him with his disciples, he said to them, "If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me.

God has a plan for every believer. This does not mean that the believer cannot make any plans for his life. The believer must put God's plan first; not his own. It is a matter of priorities. God's plan always takes priority in the believer's life. It is always to the believer's advantage. If we fight it, He redirects us. The mandate is to deny ourselves. If we do not do that, then Jesus redirects us. Our spiritual life comes first; not our natural desires.

"All of these plans that you have about what you will be in the kingdom? Forget it. Let Me tell you how it is going to be."

It does not matter how successful you are in your human life. God has a plan for us and it is the wealthiest thing we could know. In living the spiritual life, we have everything. We miss nothing. Jesus looks these men in the eyes and He says, "This is your life; hear it and know it. Take notes. Reject any other approach." There may be some suffering involved.

The believer must reject religious legalism and false doctrine. The traditions of men; the legalistic doctrines must go. But there will be persecution involved. Everything that they are being told to do goes against what this world thinks and how the cosmic system is. The opposition of the world will be strong and effective in many ways. Yet nothing can stand against the Lord Jesus Christ and His Word.

We must reject the old patterns of our life.

It is these disciples who will become Apostles and they will reveal the spiritual life in the new age to all the believers they speak to. We must bring our sin natures under increasing control through spiritual advance. All those things we like doing outside of the plan of God; as we mature as a believer, your life gets better. All those things from the past that you thought were so important, you see the difference in your life.

Bobby doesn't have to tell us to change our evil ways. The point is, what we have in spiritual maturity as opposed to what we think we want. The believer must refuse to live without a change of thinking.

The second mandate. The believer must take up his own cross. He does that daily. Aorist active imperative of airô. It means lift up, pick up. The people in a unit who are told to pick up their arms do this in unison, as a standard procedure. All of these commands are all a part of the manual of arms. These precise procedures are just like the Christian life. We need a manual of principles to follow. There is nothing haphazard about the Christian life. There are a set of commands to be executed in a precise manner.

Today, you order "right face" and they walk into each other. That is the Christian world today. They lack a manual of arms; and it needs to be drilled into your head.

A convicted criminal when sentenced to capital punishment, he was forced after the sentence was pronounced, he had to lift up his cross and drag it over to the place of crucifixion. It is bearing the means of your execution. He was to carry the cross through the streets; and it shamed the person. People laughed, yelled, threw rocks.

The Romans demanded that a criminal take up his cross. It showed that the convicted criminal was finally accepting submission to the state. Criminality does not just happen; one little crime. Most of those who face capital punishment are career criminals. This is a viewing of what would happen when you violate the law.

Seeing someone carrying a cross like that; it was a great deterrent. At one time, there were public hangings; people packed a picnic and watched. It deterred other.

Two Fold Meaning

1. The disciples by daily carrying their figurative cross demonstrated their submission to the plan of God.
2. Picking up and carrying illustrated the suffering and hardship of following the plan of God, as demonstrated by Jesus Himself.

The final command: "Follow Me." Present active imperative of akulutheô, which means This brings a military image to Bobby's mind. An image that some of us have seen, of those planting the flag in Iwo Jima? A huge statue which sits in front of building 4, and it represents a combat leader. A 2nd lieutenant with a rifle in hand, and it is titled, follow me. Bobby saw this statue every day for the time that he worked at the building. We following this leader into battle. That is what He is commanding. He is in the lead, and we follow Him into the combat.

Combat is brutal; it is the way of the soldier. This is what we learn at Fort Benning. Leadership is all about how do you get men to follow you into combat.

For the infantry soldier, there is the question. "Why should anyone want to follow anyone else into bullets, rockets, mortars?" Even more difficult, "How do you stand in front of the troops and lead them in that direction." The answer is, this must be done to accomplish the mission and to win the battle. It is an unnatural act.

So, why should the believer follow the Lord Jesus Christ, when you know what is coming. Why can't I be a goldbrick and just coast through life? Millions have followed leaders into battle throughout history.

In the spiritual life, no quarter will be given. Satan will do whatever he can to harm us. But we can even enjoy life in the foxhole.

Matt. 16:24 Then Jesus told His disciples, "If anyone would come after Me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow Me.

Lesson #0596

Matt. 16: Life of Christ

4/17/2014 Thurs

Suffering special at T&P.

Bobby gets a lot of letters thankful for the teaching of the Word of God. Bible doctrine works and it is your life. Reading one of those letters from a young lady. The Christian way of life is difficult, but a life without trust in the Lord is much more difficult.

These passages cover the same incident, but with a different perspective. Jesus gave an alliterative message, each command beginning with an alpha. These 3 words tell His disciples what is necessary to live the Christian life. Not everyone sees these alpha's as attractions. The believer with knowledge of doctrine understands and accepts the demands of these 3 verses and these 3 verbs. The Christian life is not just a life to be endured because the purpose of the Christian life for which it is lived and the resources available...

A life of absolute security, where the rest of the world is entirely insecure. A relaxed mental attitude under all circumstances. How many people can say that they are relaxed and happy under circumstances of adversity. A life without doctrine is the most difficult life of all.

There are always problems in life, but God has given us problem solving devices. The 3 verbs are found in all 3 verses.

Matt. 16:24 Then Jesus told His disciples, "If anyone would come after Me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow Me.

This is the Christian way of life. Aparneomai means to deny, to reject, to renounce. This simple command has been misunderstood by legalists and ascetics. To the ascetics, they make this out to be a denial of things; they suffer for God and call it spirituality. They know that God is pleased with them because they are suffering so much. Monks used to take whips and beat themselves on the back until they were bloody. They renounced themselves by beating themselves.

Today, people do many ridiculous things to please God in a similar way. They maintain an excessive seriousness and this harsh demeanor. Bobby ran into a lot of these types in seminary.

Denying Oneself

1. The believer must reject his own plan and his own will apart from God's plan.
2. Essentially, the believer gives up his right to his own way.
3. Why? Because he know has a different objective in life. He is no longer looking to glorify himself but to glorify God.
4. The believer can only do this by knowing what God's plan is; by knowing Bible doctrine.

Denying oneself does not mean that you cease making plans in your life for your life. It does not mean that you cease all material goods. If you deny the plan of God, then you stick to your own plan and you are outside the will of God. God always redirects those who are outside of His will. God never demands that we cannot relax or that we must not enjoy life or material things. We must gain capacity for all of that, so that it is not the central aspect of your life. You have capacity for the good things and the problem solving devices for everything else. Material things are fine if they do not conflict with the plan of God, and are not evil or sinful.

Airô is the second alpha, and it means to lift up, to pick up; and it refers to the believer picking up his spiritual cross. This means that we are in the plan of God. This is submission to the state, because this is what criminals did prior to being executed. It means that you are willing to shoulder any hardship in your life because you are in the plan of God. It is worthless going through hardship unless it glorifies God. This is submitting to the plan of God, all the way to death. This is not denying all material things in life.

Suffering that we will never understand; brutality beyond our comprehension. That is the model. We use the same spiritual life and the same spiritual resources that Jesus Christ pioneered in the Christian life.

The 3rd alpha is akoloutheô which means follow; we are to do what Jesus did. He is our model. This is to accurately conform to the Christian life which God has provided for us.

It is precisely defined by the doctrines found in the Word of God. When you think the Christian life is difficult, try reversionism and see where that leads you.

Don't be phony and say, "What would Jesus do?" We have to know the Word of God in order to have any idea what Jesus would have us do. What would Jesus do? Often means, I will do what I want to do, and say this is what Jesus would do.

There are very good reasons why we should follow these 3 alphas.

Matt. 16:24 Then Jesus told His disciples, "If anyone would come after Me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow Me.

This explains why we do what Jesus said.

For whoever desires to save his life, will lose it; but whoever loses his life for My sake and the gospels, he will find it.

Life is the Greek noun ψυχή which refers to physical or earthly life. It is the kind of life that we have right now. In this context, there is no reason to assign to this word that it means salvation from hell. We are not talking about the moment of salvation. In context, that would require works for salvation, given the preceding verse of taking up one's cross.

The desire to save your life is works, but it is not. This passage is addressed to the disciples, and they are all believers. They have already believed and they have eternal security. Saving one's physical life is not salvation from eternal condemnation. What does this word mean?

The hardship and the suffering is about the Christian life. It is not about attaining salvation. These believers needs to reject the pharisees and their mandates of legalism and works. They must pick up their cross daily and follow Him. This is their day by day, moment by moment advance in the spiritual life.

Whoever Desires to Save His Life Will Lose it

1. Those who enter the Christian life through faith alone in Christ alone, according to this phrase, must now give up the old way of life. The Christian life versus the old way of life. If you don't, you are a loser in the Christian life.
2. A life saved is the Christian way of life; a life lost is life in the cosmic system; live in reversionism; life with human viewpoint.
3. So the believer must reject the old ways of the cosmic system. He must reject the world and its viewpoint. They will lose it. They must lose the old way of life.
4. They reject the old way for the life of following Christ. That is the life of divine viewpoint. That is saving one's life; that is saving his Christian life. This is not about saving one's life from hell; they are already saved.
5. The desire to save one's life means the believer is pursuing experiential sanctification. There is positional sanctification. We are set aside. We are made righteous. We are sanctified positionally; we must also be experientially sanctified. We experience maturity.

6. If that is the desire of the believer, to save his life, then he will lose the old way of life. for the new spiritual life in Christ. These lives are mutually exclusive.
7. If the person grows in his spiritual life, he is saved in the sense of experiencing the mature spiritual life. Out with the old, in with the new. The old life is then automatically excluded; it will be lost. Experiencing the mature spiritual life, that automatically excludes the old way of life.
8. The first reason to execute the 3 alpha's is to gain the spiritual life; the life that Jesus demands of all of us after salvation.

Mar 8:35 For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and the gospel's will save it.

Jesus reverses a line. Desire to live your life; desire to lose your natural life.

Philip. 2:12 Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling,

Paul does not have to check up on the believers; he does not have to look over their shoulders here. How much more in my absence. Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. This is with respect to the plan of God. Do not take this exhortation lightly.

There are no works for salvation. This is spiritual advance.

Working out Your Own Salvation with Fear and Trembling

1. Working out your own salvation is spiritual advance.
2. That leads to a progressive experiential sanctification.
3. This is the same principle as saving the life that we just studied.
4. Both verses refer to the advance to maturity in the spiritual life, and the advance in the spiritual life in the new life. This is the new life.

If you do not move ahead spiritually, then you lose that spiritual life.

Php 2:13 for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure.

Lesson #0597 John 2:18– Easter Sunday Life of Christ 4/20/2014 1Sun

Berachah Church is somewhat of an anomaly of the churches that you might visit. Little ritual; the Bible is our guide for faith and practice. There is nothing apart from the death and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ; this is the greatest event of human history.

Jesus arrived at the house of the Lord at Passover, and what he found was appalling. There were those selling sacrificial animals and money changers.

John 2:12–14 After this He went down to Capernaum, with His mother and his brothers and His disciples, and they stayed there for a few days. The Passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. In the temple He found those who were selling oxen and sheep and pigeons, and the money-changers sitting there. (ESV)

Immorality crept into the Temple (Tabernacle?) at Shiloh. In the time of Jesus, commercial activities were unrestrained. The religious types argued that this supported the Temple.

The worshipers there were being extorted. The sacrifices and the worship in that place were bankrupt. This is what our Lord observed; and He was not passive about it.

John 2:15–16 And making a whip of cords, he drove them all out of the temple, with the sheep and oxen. And He poured out the coins of the money-changers and overturned their tables. And He told those who sold the pigeons, "Take these things away; do not make My Father's house a house of trade."

“Get out and stay out.” Those worshipers who were being fleeced celebrated what Jesus did. They were afraid to resist this religious rip-off. Jesus was reclaiming the Temple for the worship of Y^ehowah.

The religious types were quite angry about this. This put a stop to their profits. However, they could not attack Jesus outright.

They had to come at Jesus in a different way. They tried asking Him a question.

John 2:18 So the Jews said to Him, "What sign do you show us for doing these things?"

“Who do you think You are? Give us some sign of Your authenticity.” How could Jesus act with this kind of authority? He was telling them what to do in their house; in their Temple. They did not recognize it as God’s Temple.

But these people did not want proof of anything here. They wanted to get rid of Him, calm the crowd, and return to their practice. Religion that opposes Jesus Christ is evil. They wanted to cleanse the Temple of Him. This was their livelihood. Liars always want to discredit those who speak the truth about their deceptions; like out government.

Jesus’ sign took a different direction than they were expecting. Jesus is the Son of God; the 2nd Person of the Trinity. He had far more right to be there than they did.

All those sacrifices and all those rituals which had taken place for centuries; they all pointed to Jesus and His earthly ministry. The Temple had also been His residence as the Shekinah Glory.

John 2:19 Jesus answered them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up."

In Matt. 12:40, Jesus would give the religious leaders another sign. The sign of Jonah; 3 days and 3 nights in the belly of the great fish. 3 days and 3 nights in a place of absolute darkness; but he was restored to the living, being regurgitated onto dry land. What happened to Jonah, he was brought out of an asitgian darkness. Death had literally swallowed him. Jonah was a type of the resurrection of Jesus Christ, centuries before it happened. Jesus would be the victor over death. This sign of Jonah corresponded to the sign of the raising of the temple (body) of Jesus Christ. The future of Jesus would be the cross and then the tomb; but then, the resurrection.

The plan of God moves inexorably toward resurrection, for Jesus then and for us today. The religious Jews scoffed at the sign of Jonah, and later at the raising of Herod's Temple. They are angry and they have no curiosity about what Jesus is saying. They left to a false conclusion; they reacted out of the anger in their souls. They could reveal His delusion, so they thought.

Emotional responses from people make them mindless. It betrays their mentality. It betrays their ability to think through an issue.

Their reaction.

John 2:20 The Jews then said, "It has taken forty-six years to build this temple, and will You raise it up in three days?"

Their voices are dripping with sarcasm. It was inconceivable that Herod the Great's Temple could be built in a few days. No one but God could have done such a thing. Jesus is God; He is able to do this. This could only be an act of God. Jesus was exposing the emotion and the theological bankruptcy of the religious types in the Temple.

These prophecies, Jesus gave for a different reason. Resurrection was the ultimate proof that Jesus is Who He claimed to be. Raising the physical temple was not what the religious types understood.

John 2:21 But He was speaking about the temple of His body.

This is John's editorial comment, so that we understand what Jesus was saying. John wrote this in retrospect. The sign that Jesus had prophesied had now taken place. We can have the same life that Jesus possesses, through faith in Him.

How important is the resurrection from the dead? Christianity rises or falls on this historical event.

Easter Sunday continued. The 3 verses that Bobby quotes tells us why we are here. The Bible is the only true knowledge that we have of God. Everything else is just made-up stuff. The Bible is objective.

How do you know that the Bible is true?

It is easy to think about Christmas to the birth of Christ and how a new child comes into this world. We understand that in the natural world. Resurrection? The is beyond what is normal for us; that is supernatural. That is beyond the pale of anything that we have personally experienced.

John 2:20 The Jews then said, "It has taken forty-six years to build this temple, and will You raise it up in three days?"

John 2:21 But He was speaking about the temple of His body.

By this, there are 5 things they we learn about the resurrection.

What Are These Perspectives That We Can Learn about the Resurrection Account?

1. Resurrection was a sign that the Lord Jesus Christ is God; that He is divine. Jesus claimed to be God. Jesus directly asserted He is God: John 8:58 10:30 In Him are two natures: undiminished Deity and true humanity. If He were not this Person that He claimed to be, then He is the greatest deceiver in all human history. What arrogance to make such claims if they are false. John 1:14 And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen His glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. Jesus had a body, and He calls it a Temple; and he lived among us. God-and-man came to dwell among us. He was first the Shekinah Glory in the Temple; and now here He is in human form. John, James and Peter all witnessed the glory of Jesus Christ. They saw His glory at the transfiguration, as the Unique-One from the Father. His divinity and humanity make Him unique among all mankind. His resurrection demonstrated this glorious fact of his uniqueness.
2. His resurrection confirms that His Word is true. During His earthly ministry, Jesus gave witness to His future resurrection. This is the center of His testimony about Himself. It is quite bold to prophecy that He would be raised from the dead after 3 days. You say that and it does not happen, and you are a liar. All that He claimed would have been a lie. This would make Him a charlatan and a fakir. On more than one occasion, He clearly proclaimed His resurrection. From that time, Jesus began to tell His disciples how He must be killed and then resurrected from the dead. Peter was so aggrieved by Jesus' prophecy that he tried to talk the Lord out of it. "Truly, this is the Son of God." That is what the resurrection showed.
3. The resurrection proves that His atonement was acceptable to God. If it is not acceptable, then we are not acceptable to God. The Old Testament testifies to this. The High Priest entered the Holy of Holies with the blood of a goat that he had slaughtered, a sin offering for the people, and then, in the Holy of Holies, there was the Ark of the Covenant. There was a mercy seat at the top of the Ark. The Ark was in the shape of a tomb. The cross and the crown. This is the picture of the covering for sin. All of this was written in the Law. While the priest was in the Tabernacle was sprinkling the blood on the Mercy Seat, and the people stood outside. They could not go in. Only the High Priest could make this offering. Only one person was acceptable to come into the Holy of Holies. The people waited for their priestly intermediary to emerge (which was like Jesus rising from the dead). This was a critical moment in their rituals. When he appeared alive, there was a great sigh of relief. The blood sacrifice had been accepted, and they were forgiven in this ceremony. This is a picture of Jesus emerging from the tomb after His blood had been shed (His substitutionary death on the cross). This is the assurance to all Israel of His propitiation.

4. Jesus was unquestionably alive when He spoke to Mary, saying, "Stop clinging to Me." She felt His material body. He was not an apparition. She would go to the disciples and tell them. The message of proof was, He was alive and He would ascend to the Father. This means that His work on earth was complete. The disciples knew that His atonement was acceptable. Because He lives and has ascended to heaven, and has been seated to the right hand of the Father, and we also live.
5. Because of His resurrection we are assured that the return of Jesus is possible. The future is always a concern for people. People consult mediums, crystal balls, Tarot cards, wondering what would happen in the future. We certainly wonder where we are going nationally. The Bible promises better days for the world. There is a period of time when there will be universal peace. Freedom from want and justice for all. It will not be a man-initiated utopia. Satan will be bound and cast into the pit. Are there a lot of fears today? Ask any environmentalist. They are concerned for nuclear war or the oceans will rise over the edges of the land. All of what we believe hinges upon the 2nd Advent of Jesus. If Jesus did not rise from the dead, then His return cannot occur. If He does not rise from the dead, then all of the other prophecies become meaningless. The prophecies of the kingdom are then all lies. But His resurrection guarantees the future of Israel; and the rapture of the church—the exit resurrection of the church. At that point, we will get resurrection bodies just as He had.
6. There is also a practical result of Christ's resurrection. It is found in the great commission to the disciples after His resurrection. Matt. 28:19–20 Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age." These words have no meaning apart from the resurrection. No believer walks alone. The glory of the living Christ is with believers. Christ is in us; the confidence of eternal life. Mark 16:19–20 So then the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God. And they went out and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and confirmed the message by accompanying signs. Without Him, they would have lost out; they could never sustain the message of the gospel to the world. It would have died off with Christ's death. All but one of them were martyred; millions were martyred in His name. We are the living proof of His resurrection.

Who is this Jesus? What would Jesus do? And they have no idea what He would do. "I think that Jesus would do this" and they do with whatever. Jesus stands out as the most talked-about Person on earth. He is spoken of in profanity or in respect. He is so far outside of the experience of the natural man. They reject His history; if they cannot see it, feel it or touch it, they reject Him. There are conclusions which we must make from our own thinking. Our faith is based upon the Living Jesus Christ. The One Who went to the cross and the One Who was resurrected. This is the climatic answer of the conundrum of His Person.

Jesus died physically, just as we do; and He died spiritually, for our sins. No one else has been resurrected, and that is why some have a problem with this.

When the women came to His grave, and an angel said that "He is not here; He is risen." These women were witnesses to this. 500 more would see Him, besides the women and His disciples. His Word was proven to be true by His resurrection. Backed by heaven.

Rom. 1:4 ...and was declared to be the Son of God in power according to the Spirit of holiness by his resurrection from the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord,...

The resurrection which we celebrate bears the witness that He gave. Is the resurrection beyond the possibility when dealing with God? Of course not!

John 2:22 When therefore He was raised from the dead, His disciples remembered that He had said this, and they believed the Scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken.

His resurrection would not be understood until after His death and resurrection. They had to see this with their own eyes and then they would get it. His disciples would remember that He said all of this. Then they transmitted this to us through their teaching. The disciples did not fully comprehend this enigmatic reference. This was a sign that would produce thought among them. This was a sign that would be remembered a few years hence when the resurrection actually occurred. These words rattled around in their brains; but they did not get it until it actually occurred.

Because of His resurrection, 3 days with His body in the grave, we can approach God and have a personal relationship with Him.

1Peter 2:24-25 He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. For you were straying like sheep, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

meant that they would have great authority in the church. They would bind and loose; they would speak the gospel of Jesus Christ. They would teach and write the mystery doctrines of the church. The dispensational difference.

The church does not replace Israel. The church is not spiritual Israel. Those who say this believe that there is no rapture and that the Tribulation has already happened back in A.D. 70.

The Age of Israel began with Moses. Then we have the Age of Christ, the Age of the Hypostatic Union. Then we have the ascension of Jesus Christ and the age that Jesus is now talking about.

After the church, those who call the church spiritual Israel, we know that we have the are mixed up. There are pastors who come out of this church who are teaching this concept. God's promises to Israel will never be abrogated. God never abandons a promise as He cannot. Nothing can go unfulfilled that He has promised. So this kingdom would come to fruition after the Church Age and the rapture. The church will be in heaven while the Tribulation is going on. The church and Israel remain separate entities.

Jesus uses terminology that His disciples will understand. The church is a new phase in the progression of the plan of God. There is Israel and there is the Hypostatic Union and there is the church. Then comes the church and then the Tribulation, which is a continuation of the Age of Israel. The kingdom will be set up right there. The church will not go through the Tribulation, as some will also contend.

Covenant theology says that the Tribulation has already been here and gone.

What will the mission be for the disciples of Jesus? They will follow Him as Apostles in the new dispensation. The keys to the kingdom; tremendous responsibility. The answer is found in Matt. 16:24–25 Mark 8 Luke 9

Matt. 16:24 Then Jesus told his disciples, "If anyone would come after Me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow Me.

These are the believers; these are the Apostles. He is not telling them that they need to deny, take up and follow, in order to be saved. These 3 verbs are the essence of what is required of the disciples in the Church Age. Also what is involved in the Church Age the Christian life. This is experiential sanctification. What happens after you are saved?

He must deny himself, he must take up his cross daily and he must follow Jesus.

The Basic Outline of the Christian Life

1. The believer in denying renounces his own plan and he replaces it with God's will for his life.
2. Essentially, he gives up his right to his own way. Human viewpoint and the cosmic system are abandoned. This does not mean that a believer cannot make plans for his life. You do not sit under a bridge with your worldly goods, and wait for the plan of God. You now have a different objective in life.

3. God's plan always takes priority in the life of the believer. You can decide your vocation, what school you are going to, where you will start work. God can override your plans. Where your plans interlock with His, that is what works.

Taking up One's Cross

The believer must take up the cross daily, which is a metaphor. You do not drag a literal cross anywhere on a daily basis. What does it mean?

1. The disciples by picking up and daily carrying their cross demonstrate their submission to the plan of God. Jesus will pick up a literal cross. But the disciples will do this metaphorically daily. There is no day when we take a rest from the plan of God.
2. Picking up and carrying a cross illustrates something else. It illustrates the suffering and hardship of fulfilling the plan of God, as demonstrated by Christ's suffering.
3. The Christian life is the greatest life that anyone can have. There will always be hardships and difficulties in your life; you might as well have the resources to handle all of it. Hardship just makes you grow faster. You will see the plan of God in your life. It is easy to fall back into that old pattern.

The Disciples must Follow Christ

1. They must advance and grow in the Christian life. The disciples need a lot of repetition. They will be some of the greatest men of the Church Age; but they did not begin this way. They had some legalism in them. The spiritual life and growing in the spiritual life allows us to follow Jesus Christ.
2. The doctrine that you take in is the way that you live the spiritual life. Everything after that is true service and glorifying to God. It won't be easy to follow him. It will be rewarding and glorifying to God. The disciples will understand and all of them except John will die violent deaths. Their lives counted; their lives glorified God. A little bit of suffering compared to eternity; what is that?

We don't know what heaven is going to be like. The few things that we know, our finite minds cannot comprehend. Do not sorrow for them.

So that the disciples are not discouraged by these 3 verbs, Jesus will provide them with some encouragement.

Lesson #0600

Matt. 16: Life of Christ

4/27/2014 2Sunday

Jesus was a tough leader; He was a commander. He put His disciples through their paces. He put them through Ranger and SEAL training. He recognized that they needed to be prepared and heavily trained. Bobby watched Lone Survivor; and what they did came as second nature. They executed according to their training. So Jesus is training the raw recruits and to do it automatically. They needed to understand exactly what their job was. He gave them a broad outline, with denying themselves, picking up their cross, and they would follow Him. The latter means that they would be trained and advance in the spiritual life. You will understand your mission. You will execute the spiritual life. That is our mission. We don't quite have the cross that the Apostles had to bear.

We have our own cross to pick up; and what is that training? It comes from the Word of God. Bobby went through Ranger school and then he became a Ranger instructor. You can understand what they are going through, as you have gone through it. The disciples would become trainers. Our Lord has given them the sulfur; the molasses. ??

But now He encourages them, and through that, encourages us as well. He gives good reasons why we need to fulfill our responsibilities in the Church Age.

Two principles of encouragement:

Matt. 16:25 For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will find it.

This verse is a form of Hebrew poetry, but in the Greek. Those who enter the Christian life through faith alone in Christ alone must now give up the old way of life. Jesus says, "Lose the old way of life." Secondly, the desire to save one's life means the believer means that the believer is pursuing experiential sanctification. This means he is experiencing spiritual growth. His intent is to advance in the spiritual life. If the desire of the believer to experience it and he grows, then he will lose the old way of life in the cosmic system for the new spiritual life in Christ. To lose is to save; to give up is to gain.

The idea is, the old way of thinking of operating is gone. That is the renovation of thinking; the renovation of the mind. Rom. 12:2. The believer who desires to follow Christ to advance is saving his own life and he is losing the old life. This is characterized by the believer who can only think in terms of human viewpoint. Doctrine is not in the repertoire of the unbeliever.

Explaining Matt. 16:25

1. In losing one's life, he loses his old actions, his old thoughts, his old motivations.
2. The believer gains the greatest life of divine viewpoint.
3. He gains the Christian life of Bible doctrine. That is his salvation. And he gains service to the Lord guided by the Holy Spirit. Anything less is loss. Whatever else will be lost.

In the end, he will find it. What will he find? He will find the peace which passes all understanding. That is a life. We will have difficulties, in whatever we experience. He finds God's will for his life.

A doctor told a guy to slow down. I know what God's will is; I've got to keep trucking here. God's plan will open up for us; there is no question about that. You accumulate rewards in heaven. That is saving one's life. Scripture says, work out your own salvation. That is for believers. Grow up spiritually and find the plan of God and serve Him and glorify Him. This is addressed to a believer who is already saved from hell.

Deny civilian life, pick up your rifle and follow me, would be an equivalent parallel in the military realm.

People lose the benefits of the spiritual life because they never grow up. It is that simple. You lose it and you save it. The believer who does not gain the spiritual life will gain it.

So Jesus continues.

Matt. 16:26 For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world and forfeits his soul? Or what shall a man give in return for his soul?

This is all addressed to a believer. Psuche means soul; and here it has a different connotation. There is a play on words here; two different meanings used as a contrast. There are different connotations here which play off one another.

Psuche is the soul that transcends the earthly life. But back to v. 25, it refers only to living. This is certainly a truism for the believer who does not believe in Jesus Christ. What can the unbeliever exchange for his soul? The unbeliever loses his soul.

Some of those teaching that there is no Tribulation or that there is no rapture. Some are teaching that there is no hell. Bobby finds that amazing. "Hell was prepared for the devil and his angels." For the unbeliever, there is a hell when they depart this life.

The unbeliever who gains the whole world will never have eternal life. What have they gained? However many years of pleasure they get in this life; but there is no salvation and no spiritual life. They miss out on the greatest thing in life. It is not a yacht or plane or whatever.

However, this is directed toward believers. Jesus is here speaking to the spiritual side of our lives. The soul and the spirit. This is the center of the believers spiritual life. This is what God does for us at the moment of regeneration. The Spirit is what makes Bible doctrine understandable to us. There is no value in spiritual information for the unbeliever. You need to have a human spirit in order to be able to use it and relate to it. We get Bible doctrine as academic knowledge and we believe it, and then it is transferred and metabolized. That is where we can use it. We use it when we interact with God and with man.

Because of faith in Christ, our spirit is reborn and it is then functioning. Doctrinal information which is ready to be launched and understood. The spiritual life involves the immaterial soul and spirit.

Jesus is telling them what psuchê is all about. There are a lot of people who think that if you have too much that it will ruin you; and that money is the root of all evil. But that is wrong. Things do not corrupt you, but the desire to have these things above everything else. The Lord reveals the tragedy of the believer missing out on the spiritual life because he fears loss of temporal possessions or pleasures.

God is not impressed by how successful we are by human thinking that we are; He is impressed how successful we are spiritually. We do not have anything to give for eternal rewards. There is nothing that we can acquire in the temporal life to impress God. Fears in missing out on the good things in this short temporal life. But if you miss out on the spiritual life, then you miss everything. It is like the athlete who has all of this money and suddenly, it is gone.

The real profit is lost to a temporary material profit. Growing and serving the Lord is infinitely more important than anything that we can have temporally.

This is all about priorities. The believer loses nothing by advancing in the spiritual life. It does not matter that you have or do not have material gain; it is the priorities which are important. What can a man give to replace his spiritual life? Nothing.

The pharisees had all kinds of money. They were gouging the people when they came into the Temple for animal sacrifices.

Can you turn in material gain for spiritual reward? Can't be did. Material success in this life does not translate to success in eternity. Only divine good produced in this life, accomplished under the filling of the Holy Spirit translates to rewards in this life. Divine good is key to this life and to the next.

What use is the dog-eat-dog life to gain more material things? Jesus is straightforward here; there is no obfuscation in the words which He uses.

You may or may not enjoy human success; but it is your spiritual success which is important.

Matt. 16:26 For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world and forfeits his soul? Or what shall a man give in return for his soul?

Mark 8:38 For whoever is ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him will the Son of Man also be ashamed when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels."

Matt. 16:27 For the Son of Man is going to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay each person according to what he has done.

Deeds of divine good will receive eternal recompense. Would you like some gain in heaven? Bobby doesn't want to leave us hanging.

Divine good is all Christian service or deeds performed by a believer in this life by means of the filling of the Holy Spirit. This is grace. God gives us what we need to accomplish the spiritual life. There is intrinsic and eternal value here. Eph. 2:10 This is why rebound is necessary in the life of the believer.

Only divine good—which is gold, silver and precious stones—is acceptable to the perfect standards of God. On the other hand, human good will be burned at the very end. Whatever we produce in the flesh will be burned. That is wood, hay and straw. Putting fire to all of that, it goes up quickly and is lost. It will go up in smoke. The gold, silver and precious stones will continue despite the fire.

That is how to acquire reward in this life and in the next. There are different degrees of rewards; otherwise, this passage would not be there. It is not egalitarian in heaven; you get what you earn through the grace of God. It is not of yourselves.

Lesson #0601

Matt. 16: Life of Christ

4/30/2014 Wed

Bobby gets articles, and one was sent to him. This article is about relativism and humanism in our culture; and the conflict with Biblical absolutism. This is one of the greatest opposition to Christianity.

We're supposed to look for the hole in the argument. Christian Apologist Decries Cultural Shift, by Bill Sherman. The article is about Josh McDowell. He is a fearless apologist for Christianity and an evangelist. He would go to campuses and face off anyone for a debate. He would present the Christian world view versus all the agnosticism, and skepticism, etc. He always held his own and many have come to know Jesus Christ through him. He is a Christian warrior who faces hostile environments often.

He was a keynote speaker Nov. 2013 at Oklahoman Wesleyan University. Primary apologist, and has written over 150 books? 25 million people in 25 countries. Piper said, "Apologetics is not saying that you are sorry for the faith; but it is an intellectual presentation of Christianity to the world." McDowell we are separated into two very different cultures. The older generation believe that moral truth is something to be discovered. The younger generation believes that moral truth is created. Young people age 30 and younger; moral truth is created; it is all personal opinion. You create truth. Truth is relative. What is truth for one person is not true for someone else. This affects almost every kid in almost every church in the world. We have been taught to be tolerant. But this no longer means to be respectful of differing opinions. Now it means all opinions are equal. That is multiculturalism. No rational way to decide between them. No absolutes to work with. My opinion versus yours; no one is right and no one is wrong.

Young evangelicals asking, what right do Christians have to go into other cultures and tell them about Christ? This shift has happened almost overnight and has become worldwide because of the internet. This makes it possible to justify nearly any evil. McDowell says a person's world view will decide how they think on these issues. Some schools adjust to this sort of thinking.

Most college campuses are hostile to Christianity. College professors 5x more likely to be atheists or agnostics, and very anti-Christian. Christian views are not debated or discussed; they are mocked. God will not be mocked. The consequences for mocking God are severe. We represent divine viewpoint.

We are failing to prepare our students ahead of time for the assaults and challenges which will be made upon their faith during university years.

This article correctly identifies the problem of those who want to witness for Christ or live the Christian life. It identifies the disparity between the Christian world view and all else (which is the cosmic system). The Christian world view is divine viewpoint. It comes through the grid of Bible doctrine. It is absolute truth in distinction from relativism. These two groups do not even think in the same atmosphere. People will be shocked that you believe in absolutes. Relativism accepts only one absolute, that there are no absolutes.

There is no definitive solution offered in this article. The closest that McDowell gets is, only the most incredible church and only the most incredible church can offset popular culture. What can they do to offset pop culture today. That is where he fails to delineate. The article does not go far enough. You cannot have a Christian world view without understand Bible doctrine; without understanding the absolutes. The solution is the teaching of Bible doctrine. This is the problem with most churches. Bible doctrine is absolute truth and the Christian world view. How can young people stand for the truth when they do not know divine viewpoint? They must have truth to compare relativism to.

We are failing to prepare our children, but McDowell doesn't elaborate greatly here. What is all this to be replaced with? That is the weakness of the article. Being able to counter the humanist arguments is good, but that is not enough. That is simply an intellectual exercise. It is the responsibility of every pastor to prepare their congregation. Also the responsibility of every parent. Children have their own volition; but you can at best teach them divine viewpoint. This is why we are failing our children. They are not learning divine truth. Divine establishment thinking sees the problem but does not see the solution.

Bobby has been speaking to a young man at the CA conference. He said the ridicule he received in high school was nothing like it is in college. He knows in his own soul the difference. He will never be led down the cosmic system path of relativism.

Parallel passages in Mark 8 and Luke 9?

Matt. 16:21 From that time Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised.

Matt. 16:24 Then Jesus told his disciples, "If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me.

Matt. 16:25 For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.

Those who enter the Christian life and have experiential growth will lose the ways of the cosmic system. They will live the spiritual life. Their world view will be Bible doctrine.

Matt. 16:26 For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world and forfeits his soul? Or what shall a man give in return for his soul?

Mark 8:38 For whoever is ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him will the Son of Man also be ashamed when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels."

Matt. 16:27 For the Son of Man is going to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay each person according to what he has done.

The disciples who are listening are called upon not to be ashamed of Him. Taking up their crosses daily and following Him is to not shame Him.

Paul echos these words in Rom. 1:16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek. Even given the opportunity, they are afraid to speak. Paul is not ashamed of the gospel.

When Christ returns in glory and the believer faces the Judgment Seat of Christ; then we have to account for what we have done in this life. We will be judged on our deeds; divine good.

The crowd has to face a decision; they have been given a serious warning from Jesus Christ. He is beginning to proclaim the Church Age. Would they follow Christ or would they follow their age.

Matt. 16:28 Truly, I say to you, there are some standing here who will not taste death until they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom."

This is an event that they had all been waiting for. This is the promised kingdom, and the disciples were promised to see this before their deaths. This was going to happen in the next few years.

Jesus Christ encourages the disciples with this guarantee. The kingdom will come; and Jesus is speaking to these Jews. He is not speaking about the church at this point. The kingdom of Christ over Israel has not yet arrived and it will not be instituted until the Millennium. Was Jesus lying to them to make them feel better? What could Jesus be talking about to some of the disciples?

What Is the Promise of Jesus to the Disciples?

1. This was obviously not a promise that the kingdom would be instituted in their lifetime. Jesus has not sat upon the throne yet on earth.
2. In hindsight, we know that the kingdom of Israel has not happened yet.
3. This promise by Jesus Christ meant that some of those present would be given a look; a revelation of that coming kingdom.
4. They will get a look at the glory that belongs to juc
5. The reason is, the disciples from that moment would not have any doubts that the kingdom promised to them and to Israel would be fulfilled. This will clinch it for them.
6. That promise would be fulfilled in spite of the fact that these men would institute the church.
7. They would see that Israel has a future as a nation ruled by the King of Kings.
8. On a future day, the whole world will see the glory of the Lord. They will see the glory of the Lord when He returns.

Why Is it Important?

1. This reveals the King in all His glory. Kings have glory. Jesus has the greatest glory.
2. There will be no doubt that Jesus Christ is God; this reveals His deity.
3. It is the connector between all the dispensations.
4. This shows the continuity of Jesus Christ throughout history.

The Shekinah Glory, coming from shekan, which means to dwell.

Jesus was very much a part of the dispensation of Israel. He was in the cloud by day; the pillar of fire by night. He resided in the tent and the Temple. The hypostatic union; he was Here in the flesh. The glory of Jesus Christ is in this dispensation as well. He will return in the Tribulation. In the Millennium, Jesus is the King in all of His glory.

Lesson #0600

Matt. 16: Life of Christ

5/1/2014 Thurs

numbering good to here and forward

Concentration required tonite to put together a package.

Bobby has been labeled as an academic. His presentation is an academic style. That is how he approaches the Scripture. The Bible has an historical background; it was written in ancient languages. So this is not a bad approach. When people say things about you, these things may have some relevance to you. It is a good thing to evaluate things that people say about you. That is a manifestation of impersonal love.

Most people don't take this subject as academic. Bobby spent many months studying the Shekinah Glory.

The transfiguration is quite amazing. It is a supernatural event. It reveals God Himself. The Scripture tells us the Jesus came to reveal the Father. So this is a very important subject.

Because the transfiguration is a glimpse of the divine essence of Jesus Christ in His Hypostatic Union.

Jesus has made many proclamations of His deity. They have heard Him say that He is deity. Because this is a show of divinity, this event is a unique, supernatural event. This is also a glimpse by those who saw it, into the disciples future, near and far. When Jesus prophecies something, it is going to occur the way that He says that it will. The disciples will see their future, their near future and their distant future.

Jesus has been teaching the disciples about the Church Age. They would play an important part in this mission; and this mission would cost them greatly in personal cost. Our Lord is filling them in. This discourse was a big disappointment to the disciples, since they had looked for and wanted the promised kingdom. They wanted it now; and not later. There was not much difference between them and the Jewish leaders at this time. The disciples decided, it is time to get on with it; Jesus should wear the crown and we should move forward with the kingdom.

But Jesus tells them about His upcoming death and resurrection. Now they are focused on the fact that the Lord Jesus Christ is about to die and the kingdom is nowhere near. So Jesus is going to give them a glimpse; He is going to let them see Who He is.

Who is this Jesus Christ Who will die and be resurrected? They will see Who He is in these moments. The transfiguration was an extreme confidence builder for the overwhelmed disciples.

This event connects all of the dispensations. Jesus Christ is a connector. This is a look at the past, the present and the future. This same Jesus Christ is present and involved in the past, present and future. This moment is a glimpse of that fact.

Matt. 16:28 Truly, I say to you, there are some standing here who will not taste death until they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom."

We have not seen the event of the kingdom to this day. What did Jesus Christ mean by this promise and was it kept? His promises are immutable. The disciples will see the fulfillment of this promise 6 days after He makes it.

Mark 9 and Luke 9 are the parallel passages.

Matt. 17:1 And after six days Jesus took with him Peter and James, and John his brother, and led them up a high mountain by themselves.

Mark and Matthew say this happens 6 days later; Luke has it as 8 days later, taking in that day and the day it happens.

Paul was knocked off his mule with the Lord Jesus Christ was in front of him, and he was blinded? It is possible that he saw the same glorified Jesus Christ.

What did they see?

Matt. 17:2 And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became white as light.

His face is like the sun, and His clothes become white, like light itself. These words cannot really describe what happens.

What Does it Mean

1. Jesus' transformation is a glimpse of the 2nd coming of Christ and it was given to these 3 men before they died, as promised.
2. Also, the transfiguration was a dispensational lesson which revealed in a very graphic way a future for Israel. Jesus promised them a vision of the kingdom, a kingdom that they would be a part of. When they saw our Lord light up like the sun, they...
3. A description of this verse is an all-important link between the 1st advent and His appearance at the 2nd advent. It links His appearance as a man in His Hypostatic Union. It links the presence of Christ in Old Testament Israel. And in the Church Age. And finally, in the Millennium. The Age of Israel had the presence of Christ with Israel. He is with His people in the Hypostatic Union. In the church, He is present with the church. In the Tribulation, the glory of the Lord will return after 7 years of the Tribulation. Jesus will then be on the throne in the Millennium.
4. There is a continuity of the history of Christ's presence with man. Also this one event covers the event of Christ's presence with man.

Still Introducing this Subject

1. In describing the transfiguration of what they saw on that mountain, the authors of the gospel sought to convey the blinding brilliance of the glory that belongs to the Person of the Lord Jesus Christ as Deity.
2. For those few moments, His human body visibly radiated that which He truly was.
3. The transfiguration was a revelation of the essential glory of God in the Person of Jesus Christ.
- 4.
5. This left no doubt in their minds that God was with them in Christ.

The transfiguration reveals Jesus as the God of Old Testament Israel. This is a part. John wrote about this in a very different way. John 1:14 And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. Note the word dwelt. We saw His glory with our own eyes. This is the glory as the only begotten from the Father. He is filled with grace and truth.

Stuff from John 1:14

1. What does John reveal in this verse? The manifested glory on the Mount of Transfiguration exhibited that history was centered in the Lord Jesus Christ.
2. The Son of God Who was from eternity past, became man and was part of divine history with man.
3. The uniquely-born Jesus Christ sent by God the Father full of glory, grace and truth, was none other than eternal God, the Ancient One of Israel. The Dwelling Presence of the God of Israel. Two things are noted: His dwelling and His glory.
4. John confirms that the grace of God became flesh, which means that God came in the form of man. Philip. 2:5–8 (See also Heb. 1 and Col. 1).
5. The glory of God dwelt among mankind in the 1st Advent.
6. Jesus was the glorious presence of God Who dwelt with man as man.
7. God's glory was incarnate in the Person of the Lord Jesus Christ.

John expands this in John 1:1. The glory that they saw comes from eternity. He was there at creation and He was there at the creation of man.

John 1:1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

Heb. 1:2 but in these last days He has spoken to us by his Son, whom He appointed the heir of all things, through whom also He created the world.

Jesus Christ did the work. He was the Creator of all things.

Heb 1:3 He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of his nature, and he upholds the universe by the word of his power. After making purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high,...

This is the Shekinah glory, a word from the Hebrew. So, no doubt, that this is all about the transfiguration. This is what this writer understood from the transfiguration.

Christ created and He communicated with man in the Garden. He is the first Presence of the visible glory of God. After creation, Jesus dwelt with man in other forms. Jesus is said to walk with man in the garden, but we do not know what His form was. We may assume that Adam could see the glory of God, to a limited degree. He saw it; it was there.

Jesus was none other than the manifested God. He took other forms in other dispensations. Jesus was the glory of Israel Who appeared in various forms in Israel's history. This Shekinah Glory was manifested many times in the Old Testament.

Jesus shows them the glory, but He would shortly leave them; but He would not leave them entirely in the coming age. He would be a presence with them in a way never before manifested. This was encouragement to the disciples.

This is a revelation of the continuity of God's presence. This is the Lord Jesus Christ throughout history. His direct, localize presence in every dispensation.

Jesus is omnipresent; He is not limited to time and space. But a localized presence means that He localizes Himself.

There is also a discontinuity. In each dispensation, the presence of Christ is there, but each dispensation has unique characters as to how...the form that Jesus takes helps to define the dispensation in which he manifests Himself.

Lesson #0601

Matt. 16:28–17:2 Life of Christ

5/4/2014 1Sunday

The public speaker, if he looks into the eyes of his listeners, then he is communicating; but the ears means, that person is looking at something else.

The transfiguration of Jesus Christ tells us almost everything that we need to know about Him. There is a physical change which takes place. This metamorphous is seen by 3 disciples. Either on Mount Herman or Mount Tabor. The disciples will see a blinding light that they will never forget.

According to the gospel of John, the transfiguration presented Jesus' whole life as light. It is a glimpse at the unveiled divinity of Jesus Christ. For the disciples, this would now be an encouragement and a confidence builder for them. It signified the glorious, continuity which spanned all of human history.

Jesus was present with Adam and the woman. The Age of the Gentiles, and Christ was present with these men as well. Jesus appears to Noah and to Abraham. We know for a fact that he was here, present, visible.

Before the day of Pentecost, the Lord Jesus Christ ascends into heaven. Yet Christ, when He ascended, He said, "I will be with you until the end of the age."

When Jesus returns at the 2nd advent, He will destroy all of His enemies; then the Millennium will be the rule of Jesus Christ over all the earth from Jerusalem.

Jesus is the Eternal God. Mark 9 Luke 9:28 The three synoptics cover the transfiguration. Why is this not found in the book of John.

Matt. 16:28 Truly, I say to you, there are some standing here who will not taste death until they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom."

Matt. 17:1 And after six days Jesus took with him Peter and James, and John his brother, and led them up a high mountain by themselves.

Matt. 17:2 And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became white as light.

His appearance was a light itself; it was dazzling. The visible sunlight glory of Christ, it immediately established Jesus Christ as the presence of God amongst them. He is the Shekinah glory of Israel. He is always the same Person throughout every dispensation. He will transition even in the Church Age. It was also this transfiguration; and they got to see the returning glory of Christ at the 2nd advent would look like.

Jesus will also return bodily, as well as with His great essence.

The panorama of the glory of God revealed throughout all dispensations. Jesus Christ, the 2nd person of the Trinity, is none other than the Shekinah Glory of Israel's history.

First, let's look at the term Shekinah. This is not a Biblical word. It is based upon the Hebrew word shakan, which means to dwell, to live with. It is connected to the Hebrew noun kabôwd (equivalent to the Greek δόξα). Shekinah was not used theologically until after the completion of the Old Testament Scriptures. This is God's visible glorious dwelling with His people.

Shekinah Glory Old Testament

1. Shekinah was the theological term used to describe the dwelling presence of God with Israel.
2. Shekinah was and is the divine, visible glory of God throughout history.
3. In the Old Testament, there were many times when God appeared to man. Those are called theophanies. When He manifests to Israel, what is seen...

Shekinah Glory New Testament

1. This is the transfiguration of the visible glory of God to the disciples.
2. This is His visible manifestation to His disciples.
3. Christ is the same person and the dwelling presence as the glory of God to Israel in the past. He is the returning king. This was an important doctrine for the Church Age.
4. This concept of the Shekinah glory represents mankind in every way.
5. He is the divine manifestation and the presence of God with His people. One moment where His face shown like the sun.
6. The term Shekinah is the connection of Christ with every dispensation. He is the God of Moses, of Abraham, of Israel. He is present with them; with us. The Shekinah Glory of Israel.

Lesson #0602

Matt. 17: Life of Christ

5/4/2014 2Sunday

Bobby speaks 4x a week and he always teaches the Bible. He teaches the doctrines from the Bible. Some doctrines are more interesting than others; and often this has to do with how much this affect you personally. But some things cause you to ignore.

Listening to the doctrines of the Bible, whether you are really that interested or think that you are interested or not. The culture of the United States today, the predominant thinking of our culture is sometimes called post-Christian. People seek to create their own truth; they seek to create their own morality. They do not seek the truth. As believers in Jesus Christ, we are seekers of truth. But so many are creators of their own truth. That is a way of thinking that permeates our society and is beginning to permeate the world because of the internet. We begin to think this way, whether we know it or not. Human viewpoint is insidious. We may get the point of doctrine and maybe we don't. Doctrine is the thinking and mind of Christ. Even when a particular doctrine is not interesting to you, you still pay attention. That allows human viewpoint to creep into your thinking. "Even if you are bored, listen."

The Overarching Factor of the Shekinah Glory

1. Jesus Christ created man, as Heb. 1:2 tells us. He was the Creator and the Agent of creation. So He walked with Adam and the woman in the garden, whatever form that He took. He was the glorious presence of the Lord.
2. We also saw that Jesus Christ lived with Israel in various, glorious forms. With a client nation, God dwells. He lives with us in this country as well, and His presence is known throughout our history; and His thinking is in the souls of believers. But there is less and less doctrine being taught. Hence, God is not present with us in our thinking. When we remove Him from our thinking, the more His protection is removed. Example: our public school system.
3. The Shekinah Glory; Jesus Christ is the bodily presence of the glory of God in the 1st advent. He is the God-man, the Messiah. This is the central point of man's history. He was no less the form than how He appeared.
4. Jesus will be the glory of the Presence of God but in a different form during the Church Age.
5. Finally, He will be the glorious King who will return and set up the millennial kingdom and reign for 1000 years. This is the glimpse the 3 disciples got. In this transfiguration is the continuity of Israel in the Old Testament Israel, Israel during the Hypostatic Union, and Israel in the future kingdom. The disciples will be the connection between Israel and the church. The Shekinah Glory is the overarching principle in all dispensations. Jesus Christ is the central factor in all dispensations.

Jesus Christ the Shekinah Glory

1. Jesus Christ is the central figure of the Old and New Testaments.
2. Jesus is the uninterrupted connection from Gen. 1:1 to Rev. 22:21.
3. He is at the center of the ages of history and of the destiny of man. He is not just a New Testament character.
4. Shekinah is the manifested Person of the Trinity; the glory of God. He is the glory of God with man. That Shekinah is the Lord Jesus Christ.
5. That is the theological impact of the transfiguration. The visible presence of God did not begin with the birth of Jesus Christ. There never was a time when Jesus was not present with His people.

This is a study that Bobby did. This is the thesis which got him into a doctoral program.

Bobby will try to document the Shekinah Glory throughout human history. One of the first references to the dwelling presence of God was a promise of a special blessing to Shem.

Gen 9:27 May God enlarge Japheth, and let him dwell in the tents of Shem, and let Canaan be his servant."

The Exodus generation probably got to view the greatest appearances of Jesus Christ in all of human history. The first is the burning bush, where Moses approached and God identified Himself as I am. Moses comes face to face with God. The one in the burning bush identified Himself in Ex. 3:6:

Exodus 3:6 And he said, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God.

Jesus identifies Himself as the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. In Matt. 22:32, Jesus identifies Himself in the same way.

Matt. 22:29–32 But Jesus answered them, "You are wrong, because you know neither the Scriptures nor the power of God. For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven. And as for the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what was said to you by God: 'I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'? He is not God of the dead, but of the living."

Exodus 16:10 And as soon as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the people of Israel, they looked toward the wilderness, and behold, the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud.

The kabowd of the Lord appeared in the cloud. In the cloud was His glory; the Shekinah. This is the visible manifestation of the glory of God. God, the Shekinah, was with that first generation of Israel. The glory in that cloud was none other than the presence of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Exodus 13:21–22 And the LORD went before them by day in a pillar of cloud to lead them along the way, and by night in a pillar of fire to give them light, that they might travel by day and by night. The pillar of cloud by day and the pillar of fire by night did not depart from before the people.

The Shekinah was Israel's guide. There was a third instance with Israel.

Exodus 24:9–11 Then Moses and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel went up, and they saw the God of Israel. There was under his feet as it were a pavement of sapphire stone, like the very heaven for clearness. And he did not lay his hand on the chief men of the people of Israel; they beheld God, and ate and drank.

The leaders went up and saw the God of Israel. Under His feet, was a pavement like a bluish sapphire stone. God did not harm these men.

Exodus 24:16–17 The glory of the LORD dwelt on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days. And on the seventh day he called to Moses out of the midst of the cloud. Now the appearance of the glory of the LORD was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the sight of the people of Israel.

The voice of the Shekinah, just as He called to Moses from the burning bush. All the people could see this glory of God. This is the same radiant light as in the burning bush. The Lord Jesus Christ Who was now leading Israel.

When Moses came down from the mountain, there was a shining brightness radiating from his own face after meeting with God on the mountain. His face reflected the glory of the Shekinah on the mountain. We also have a reflected glory.

Exodus 34:29–30 When Moses came down from Mount Sinai, with the two tablets of the testimony in his hand as he came down from the mountain, Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because he had been talking with God. Aaron and all the people of Israel saw Moses, and behold, the skin of his face shone, and they were afraid to come near him.

Moses was unaware that his face was glowing. We are looking at the same glory; the same glorious presence that Moses saw on Mount Sinai, when God gave him the Law. The Law is what made Israel a nation. Y^ehowah reigning over His people. What continuity. It all comes together.

He was dwelling in a specific place. This was in the tabernacle of Israel. The tabernacle was in the desert.

Exodus 25:8 And let them make me a sanctuary, that I may dwell in their midst.

God says that He will dwell among the people. This is exactly what Peter wanted to do after the end of the transfiguration. He remembered this from the Old Testament.

Exodus 33:9–11 When Moses entered the tent, the pillar of cloud would descend and stand at the entrance of the tent, and the LORD would speak with Moses. And when all the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the entrance of the tent, all the people would rise up and worship, each at his tent door. Thus the LORD used to speak to Moses face to face, as a man speaks to his friend. When Moses turned again into the camp, his assistant Joshua the son of Nun, a young man, would not depart from the tent.

Exodus 40:34–36 Then the cloud covered the tent of meeting, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle. And Moses was not able to enter the tent of meeting because the cloud settled on it, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle. Throughout all their journeys, whenever the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the people of Israel would set out.

Exodus 25:22 There I will meet with you, and from above the mercy seat, from between the two cherubim that are on the ark of the testimony, I will speak with you about all that I will give you in commandment for the people of Israel.

The Mercy Seat is a throne and a place of satisfaction, and once a year the High Priest would enter the Holy of Holies, and he would sprinkle blood of a lamb on the top of the Mercy Seat. That spoke of the satisfaction of the atonement.

The Ark was shaped like a casket and in that, it represented death. The blood of Christ. Israel had a perfect picture of all of this. Israel understood what it took in order to be redeemed or purchased by God.

Exodus 40:37–38 But if the cloud was not taken up, then they did not set out till the day that it was taken up. For the cloud of the LORD was on the tabernacle by day, and fire was in it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel throughout all their journeys.

Lesson #0603

Matt. 17: Life of Christ

5/7/2014 Wed

64th anniversary when Bob became pastor. Rick Hughes will be here for the next week or so.

Matt. 17:1 And after six days Jesus took with him Peter and James, and John his brother, and led them up a high mountain by themselves.

Mount Tabor or Mount .

The transfiguration was the revelation of the divine glory of God on earth. Matt. 17:2 describes this moment. We could not gaze upon the full glory of God.

Matt. 17:2 And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became white as light.

Luke 9:29 tells us that Jesus was praying.

Jesus, the Shekinah Glory

1. This provides us with a view of Jesus Christ as the manifest Presence of God throughout the history of His people.
2. Jesus Christ was the divine presence with Noah, Moses, Abraham and many others. It does not tell us how God appeared to Adam; but Adam may have been able to view God more fully in his sinless state.
3. Jesus spoke to all of them and He gave them instructions.
4. The transfiguration connected the illuminated Person of Jesus Christ with the Old Testament Presence of the glory of the Lord. AKA the Shekinah Glory. Ex. 16:10 40:34

5. Shakan means to dwell. The noun is kabôwd. These words together became in post-Old Testament times a technical, theological concept for the dwelling Presence of God in Israel. The Glory dwells with Israel.
6. That Presence was manifested in various ways in Old Testament history. His presence.
7. That Divine Presence with Israel in history was none other than the Lord Jesus Christ. The same glory that showed forth in the transfiguration.
8. So, the Shekinah was the Presence of God manifested to Old Testament believers and to Israel as a whole.
9. And it was the Lord Jesus Christ Who revealed Himself on the Mount of Transfiguration as that glorious Presence of God.
10. This was a blast from Israel's past and it was a projection into Israel's history.
11. The transfiguration was a revelation of the future presence of the Lord Jesus Christ as the glorious King of Kings in the Millennial kingdom.
12. The same divine presence that had been manifested in Israel's past and at the first advent during the transfiguration would also be manifested at the 2nd advent in His glorious return to set up the promised kingdom for Israel. But the Shekinah would also have a presence in the Church Age.

This sunlight display points to a dispensational constant from Adam to the eternal state.

Jesus Christ and the Shekinah Glory and One and the Same

1. The Shekinah first appeared as a theophany to a number of Old Testament believers. They understood it. It was almost a given when the Lord spoke to them. It was normal. How normal and how often, we don't know.
2. He also appeared in several forms to Moses and to the nation as a whole.
 - a. Y^ehowah's appearances. The burning bush in Ex. 3.
 - b. Christ later identified Himself as that divine presence in the burning bush. Matt. 22:32 "I am the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob."
 - c. The cloud by day and the pillar of fire by night, which led Israel all through her 40 years in the desert. Ex. 16:10
 - d. Ex. 24:16–17 The glory of the LORD dwelt on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days. And on the seventh day he called to Moses out of the midst of the cloud. Now the appearance of the glory of the LORD was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the sight of the people of Israel. The voice of the Shekinah remains in that cloud. It was like an intense, consuming fire.
 - e. Ex. 34:29–30 When Moses came down from Mount Sinai, with the two tablets of the testimony in his hand as he came down from the mountain, Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because he had been talking with God. Aaron and all the people of Israel saw Moses, and behold, the skin of his face shone, and they were afraid to come near him.

- f. The Shekinah dwelt in the Tabernacle, the home of God in Israel; God manifested in that building. The cloud still indicated the Presence of the Shekinah. Ex. 33:9 When Moses entered the tent, the pillar of cloud would descend and stand at the entrance of the tent, and the LORD would speak with Moses. When Moses entered the tent, and the LORD would speak with Moses.
- g. Ex. 40:34–38 Then the cloud covered the tent of meeting, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle. And Moses was not able to enter the tent of meeting because the cloud settled on it, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle. Throughout all their journeys, whenever the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the people of Israel would set out. But if the cloud was not taken up, then they did not set out till the day that it was taken up. For the cloud of the LORD was on the tabernacle by day, and fire was in it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel throughout all their journeys. There were times when Moses was called into the tent to speak.
- h. Ex. 25:22 There I will meet with you, and from above the mercy seat, from between the two cherubim that are on the ark of the testimony, I will speak with you about all that I will give you in commandment for the people of Israel. The Holy of Holies, and this is where the Ark was placed. This was the holiest place on earth.

God Appearing to Moses

1. The Shekinah resided and met with Moses in the Holy of Holies where the Ark was placed. No one else could go into that room.
2. This is where the Shekinah met with Moses where he took up a close personal residence with Israel. He dwelled in the Tabernacle.
3. His localized presence resided in the Holy of Holies. This means He resided that He resided in one locale. God is omnipresent; but in order to be the Shekinah God, he localized Himself to this one place. He was invisible to Israel inside the Holy of Holies. Israel could only see the cloud.
4. Only Moses, acting for the people, could enter into the Holy of Holies and have contact with God. The Jews did not see Him. They could not see Him in full residence. They did learn about Him on the doctrine of residence.

It is clear that the Shekinah Glory dwelled over the Tabernacle, but He also restricted Himself to a specific chamber in the Holy of Holies. Israel regarded the Ark as more than just a symbol of divine Presence. God localized Himself above the Ark.

Inside the Ten Commandments, a pot of manna, and Aaron's rod that budded. On top of it was the mercy seat, a covering for the Ark. The overall shape was that of a casket. There were the Cherubim standing over it, their wings over the mercy seat.

The Ark of the Covenant

1. This seat, the mercy seat, is the picture of a throne, upon which the Shekinah Glory would sit. There was only one king of Israel until the Jews asked for another. Here he was on the throne of Israel. And Jesus offers Himself in His 1st advent, and He is rejected.
2. The mercy seat is a throne and it had a special meaning which connects it to Jesus Christ. This is a two-part ritual meaning for Israel, once a year. This is done by Moses and the High Priest.
3. So the mercy seat symbolizes salvation as connected to the Shekinah Glory. The seat upon which He sits, is the propitiatory seat.
 - a. The mercy seat was also known as the propitiatory covering.
 - b. When a certain ritual was performed, the seat became a propitiation for the people of Israel. This means that God is satisfied.
 - c. This ritual, the ritual depiction of God's justice and righteousness being satisfied
4. What is the relationship to the Shekinah Glory?
 - a. There is only one way to God, through Jesus Christ.
 - b. Propitiation means a work that satisfies God concerning the sins of man.
 - c. The satisfaction that God demands involved in this ritual involves animal blood. It requires a slaughter.
 - d. After the lamb's throat was cut and blood was collected, the High Priest carried it into the Holy of Holies and sprinkled the blood over the mercy seat as a grace covering for guilty Mosaic Law breakers; a propitiation for sinners.
 - e. The blood of a spotless lamb was the atoning sacrifice sprinkled on the mercy seat; the atonement for sin. That is what God designated as the atonement for sin.
 - f. This blood sacrifice required the lamb to die.
 - g. The blood sacrifice was the only way in which the High Priest who represented the people before God. He could only approach the Presence of the Shekinah Glory is with this blood.
 - h. Any other approach without the blood meant death for the priest.
 - i. So, the ritual meant that the only approach to God was through the blood sacrifice. This all fits together.
 - j. This was the picture to Israel of the blood of the Shekinah Glory. Jesus Christ as a propitiation. Matt. 26:28 This is My blood of the covenant which is poured out for the forgiveness of sins. And Paul wrote: God presented Jesus Christ as a sacrifice...

Closing Points

1. Jesus' blood sacrifice was the atonement. It was not about literal blood; it was about the substitutionary spiritual death.
2. That death is the only way to approach God and to receive remission of sin, and to have an eternal relationship with God. There was only one way for the High Priest to approach God.

3. Christ's atoning work on the cross was anticipated in the annual ritual of the blood sacrifice sprinkled on the mercy seat.
4. The mercy seat pictured the cross where the blood atonement for sin was made. What a picture of the second Person of the Trinity; Who would atone for their sins.

This striking type and antitype should not be missed; but Israel missed it. The glory at the Tabernacle was the glory seen by the disciples.

1John 2:2 He is the propitiation for our sins and for the sins of the whole world.

Lesson #0604

Matt. 17: Life of Christ

5/8/2014 Thurs

The incident of the transfiguration; the glory of the Lord. Matt. 17:2 from the vantage point on that mountain, whose human body was transformed that it could barely be distinguished. No question, it was the Lord Jesus Christ. At that time, they saw at least the veiled glory of Jesus Christ.

Matt. 17:2 And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became white as light.

Seeing this transformation of the Lord Jesus Christ is actually a view of the entire panorama all the way from God with Adam to the Millennium and on through the eternal state. Glory like this could only be Deity. These disciples were promised, before they die, to see the glory of God in the coming kingdom.

The 2nd Person of the Trinity is the manifested person of the Trinity. He is visible or He verbally makes His presence known to mankind.

Jesus Christ at the transfiguration was the Shekinah Glory. The Shekinah is terminology which derives from two Hebrew words. Shakan which means to dwell. The second is kabowd, which means glory. This is a post-technical theological concept. Dwelling glory or Present Glory. His Shekinah Glory is connected to the glory of God in the Old Testament.

This historical presence came in many, many forms. The Present Glory of Jesus Christ was perfectly seen at the transfiguration. This was recorded in many forms in the Bible. Many ways He appeared to the Old Testament saints.

Many times in the Old Testament, he was the Angel of the Lord. Angels are creatures of light; and Jesus is the Person of Light.

In Gen. 6, He was just a voice, giving instructions to Noah. He appeared in both ways to Abraham. By far the greatest example of the dwelling presence of God went to Moses and to early Israel. The Shekinah Glory are seen in their most obvious forms. During the Age of Israel, during the time of Moses, and thereafter; so, how and in what form did He show Himself in the Age of Israel.

It all began when the angel of the Lord called to Moses, and He called for Moses to ascend Mount Sinai. Ex. 3:2–6 God appears as the burning bush.

Then the cloud guided Israel by day and the pillar of fire by night. Jesus Christ also appeared in a cloud as a voice and as a consuming fire; intense light, upon Mount Sinai. Ex. 24.

Once the Tabernacle had been built, there appeared the cloud over the Tabernacle; and God is also said to reside in the Holy of Holies, between the Cherubim. Ex. 33:9 40:

On the top of the Ark was the mercy seat, which represents the throne upon which the Shekinah Glory sat. Moses got the word, what would happen once a year. The blood of a lamb would be brought into the Holy of Holies and it would be sprinkled over the mercy seat. The blood made a propitiation for the people. Only one man could approach God in this way.

This all took place where the Lord Jesus Christ resided above the Ark. An obvious illustration of Jesus Christ; the Shekinah Glory; the Lamb of God Who takes away the sin. The blood of Christ is His spiritual death upon the cross, where He took upon Himself the punishment and judgment for His...

Jesus is the Savior of us and the Savior of all mankind.

Once the Tabernacle was no longer in existence and Solomon built the Temple; and the glory of God dwelt in the Holy place, the inner chamber. All of the Tabernacle furniture represented Jesus Christ in one way or another.

Jesus Christ as the manifested Person of the Trinity as the dwelling presence of Israel. Always depicted as the Savior and the King of Israel.

1Kings 8:11–13 ...so that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud, for the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD. Then Solomon said, "The LORD has said that he would dwell in thick darkness. I have indeed built you an exalted house, a place for you to dwell in forever."

The priests could go into the holy place, but not into the Holy of Holies. They could not come face to face with the glory of the Lord. The glory of the Lord.

The 6th manifestation comes from the Old Testament prophets. The Old Testament prophets also spoke of the Shekinah glory.

Isaiah warned Israel that thing would change because of their apostasy. He has a vision in Isa. 40:5

Isa 40:5 And the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together, for the mouth of the LORD has spoken."

Near and far fulfillment to many of the prophecies in the Bible. Isaiah has a Messianic prophecy as well. It is unclear whether Isaiah understood the full extent of his prophecy. This prophecy spoke of the 1st and 2nd advents. We would see the Lord in the flesh. His glory would be revealed to all in His second coming.

John 12:41 confirms that Jesus is the Shekinah Glory. Isaiah saw His glory and spoke of Him.

Ezek. 1:28 Like the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud on the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness all around. Such was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. And when I saw it, I fell on my face, and I heard the voice of one speaking.

The Lightness of the glory of the Lord. This is the same sort of vision that Moses and Isaiah describe; the same as what the disciples saw.

Ezekiel provides exact specification to the future Temple to be built in the Millennium. What continuity. The glory of the Lord will reside in the millennial Temple.

Eze 43:5-7 ...the Spirit lifted me up and brought me into the inner court; and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the temple. While the man was standing beside me, I heard one speaking to me out of the temple, and he said to me, "Son of man, this is the place of my throne and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the people of Israel forever. And the house of Israel shall no more defile my holy name, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoring and by the dead bodies of their kings at their high places,...

These are all the Presence of Jesus Christ from Abraham all the way to the Millennium.

The transfiguration; these 3 men got a look at the King in all of His glory. But He must go to the cross. The blood must be sprinkled on the mercy seat. The cross must come before the cross.

So why is this a different dispensation? While he rejected, Jesus also projected the Church Age. This dispensation is transitional, from the Age of Israel to the Church Age. The Shekinah Glory is critical for understanding that change. It is a transition dispensation. We see an entirely different dispensation.

In the era of the Hypostatic Union, Jesus is bodily present, in bodily form. He was always the Shekinah Glory, even in this human body. As true humanity, He is the divine presence of God with Israel.

He, Jesus Christ, Is the Radiance of His Glory and the Exact Representation of His Glory. Heb. 1:1 It is Jesus Christ Who created mankind.

Jesus Christ as the Shekinah Glory

1. The 1st advent is the visible manifestation of the 2nd person of the trinity on earth. It does not get more visible than that.
2. Christ is presented as the Shekinah Glory with the essential nature of God and man. The transitional dispensation. The undiminished Deity if the Shekinah Glory. Jesus Christ was the dwelling presence; the glory of God dwelling with man throughout history. This Shekinah Glory to become flesh and to die for us.
3. He was presented as the divine Presence to Moses in the burning bush; to Israel in the desert and in the sacred building.
4. His glory at the transfiguration is the visible manifestation of the Shekinah of Israel.
5. At the 2nd advent, the Lord will come and destroy the enemies of Israel; he comes in glory. The continuity of Jesus Christ throughout all human history.
6. Therefore, His radiant glory shining forth is the manifestation of Deity in all dispensations. Jesus is beginning to teach His disciples about the Church Age. What better way to teach His disciples about Himself?

The Shekinah Glory is a Hebrew theological concept; always related to Israel. What about us? How does He dwell with us? How is His presence revealed to us. Without a doubt, He is here with us. He is the ever-evident dwelling presence in every dispensation including ours. Jesus Christ is always present in one form or another in every dispensation. The Shekinah Glory is the connecting factor.

Jesus Christ clarified this fact. “Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the age.” Where is he? In you. The same presence of the Shekinah Glory is found in us. Our body is a Temple the Jesus Christ resides in this Temple.

Lesson #0605

Matt. 17: Life of Christ

5/11/2014 1Sunday

Communion service 5/11/14:

Even from everlasting to everlasting, You are God. The Bible itself is eternal, because it comes from the eternal mind of God. Your throne, O God, is forever and ever.

Eternity is difficult to understand. We cannot know anything about God apart from what he tells us about Himself. 2Cor. 4:13 We look not at the things which are seen, but the things which are not seen. For the things which are not seen are eternal. This verse moves us from our temporal lives into the future.

Most people are fascinated with their own future and the idea of an afterlife is a universal thought in the mind of man. This is rational evidence for the existence of God. A higher eternal being must exist; or eternal life for finite man is inconceivable. The eternal being of God is in 3 persons; the Trinity. This is present in all ancient civilizations. The Egyptians mummified the bodies of their dead in hopes of an afterlife. Assyrians placed their dead on the side, with the fingers in a fingerbowl of food. The Indians spoke of the eternal hunting ground. Christians have something vastly more substantial, more than just thinking about a future existence. God's Word provide clarity, certainty and proof of eternity. God is eternal and we have a Savior Who is eternal. We have the revelation of the Lord Jesus Christ and His everlasting work. He is the eternal cause and we are the eternal effect.

The Bible informs us that there is an eternity before us. Men often overlook that which is eternal based upon the temporal. Because of Adam's original sin, man no longer possesses the internal integrity, which is life without death.

Rom. 5:12 Whereby, through one man sin entered the world, and death through sin; so by the death of man comes eternal life.

All men are fellow travelers on an endless journey. Where this journey leads is their choice. "Do not fear those who are able to kill the body, but fear those who can destroy both the soul and body in hell."

God created soul-life and he unites it to every human body at birth; which is what makes us human at birth. The soul lives within the mortal body; but it also lives beyond our body of corruption. Soul-life never terminates. It exists eternally.

Irregardless of man rejecting eternal existence, the Bible is a witness to this eternal life. It is appointed to men once to die, and after this, the judgement. And He who believes in the Son has eternal life, but he who does not believe does not have eternal life, but the judgment of God abides upon him. Each one of us needs to consider the wrath of God.

For some, this is dismissed as a relic of past ages or as superstition of the ignorant or as an impossible thing for a loving God to do this. Or, they claim that hell is just used to scare us into religion. If hell and judgment are true, then it matters greatly what we believe. The unpopularity of a doctrine does not cancel out its reality. Hell is not a figure of speech nor is it a metaphor. And if your hand causes you to stumble, then cut it off. It is better to enter into life crippled, than to go into hell with two hands, into hell where the worm does not die and the fire is not quenched. This is conscious, eternal suffering. You should want no one to experience that. Jesus never apologized for or obscured this teaching. Jesus spoke truth that man must hear. Jesus did not cause us to fall, but He gave us the solution. Man is unacceptable to the perfect righteousness of God. Man cannot gain by himself exoneration from this sentence of death. Man cannot free himself from the slave market of sin. He has no coin of the realm by which he can redeem himself. Jesus came to alleviate this terrible, eternal destiny of mankind. Only through the substitutionary death can this condemnation be remedied. It was His spiritual death on the cross which saves us.

In the agonizing punishment is the cause which has the eternal effect. Rev. 14:11 and the smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever and they have no rest forever and ever. This is the fate of all those who reject the Lord Jesus Christ. We must never forget the attitude of God toward the lost. He wants none to be lost. The Lord is not slow about His promise, but He is patient toward us, waiting for all to come to a state of repentance. God has made it possible for us to spend eternity with Him. Only those who accept the free gift from God have eternal life.

Titus 2:11 the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all men. Acts 16:31 Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved. How clear and how simple is the plan of salvation. Jesus Himself said, Truly truly, I say to you, he who believes has eternal life. It is not our works or our good works which provide us with an eternal future.

Doesn't man strive for security? And I give eternal life to them and they will never perish and no one will snatch them out of My hand. This happens in a moment in time when we express faith alone in Christ alone.

2Cor. 5:1-5 For we know that if the tent that is our earthly home is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. For in this tent we groan, longing to put on our heavenly dwelling, if indeed by putting it on we may not be found naked. For while we are still in this tent, we groan, being burdened--not that we would be unclothed, but that we would be further clothed, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. He who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who has given us the Spirit as a guarantee.

As our body ages, we increasingly face our mortality. Our body is just a temporary residence. The believer has a body which is permanent and eternal. For this perishable must put on immortality. God does not intend for His royal family to live in a temporary tent throughout all eternity. Our immortal soul will be completely preserved. Our resurrection body will be recognizable to all others. Immortality relates not only to the imperishable resurrection body, united with the immortal soul of the believer, but the believer is connected to the eternal afterlife, because the soul is united with the resurrection body. This does not mean that unbelievers will not be raised from the grave. It is clear that all people will be raised. The soul is immortal. This time is coming when all will be resurrected, where we are rewarded for the good done in the body. We are guaranteed a new life and a new body; a body like His. Now we are children of God; and it has not yet appeared what we will be. We know that when He appears, we will be like Him and we shall see Him as He is.

We have this assurance in Rom. 8:11 If the Spirit of Him Who raised Jesus from the dead, dwells in you, then He will also give life to our mortal bodies through His Spirit that dwells in you.

Time is artificial; window dressing for what comes next; the beginning of eternity. It is here and now by which we greet eternity. The believers in the Lord Jesus Christ must always remember that time is just a measurable portion of eternity. We begin eternity with faith in Christ. Jesus has provided us sources for the spiritual life who have provided us the optimum future. Each will receive his own reward according to his own labor. We will witness the final moment dawning. By advancing and executing the spiritual life and producing divine good, so we begin our eternity here on earth.

This was quite a Mother's Day message.

Rick Hughes will teach for the next 3 days, beginning Wednesday.

Lesson #0606

Matt. 17: Life of Christ

5/11/2014 2Sunday

God, with man, throughout history, is none other than the Lord Jesus Christ. The Shekinah Glory is the Lord Jesus Christ. The transformation of his body to a body of pure light. This is the glory of the Lord. The Shekinah Glory is the dwelling presence of God. This is none other than the Lord Jesus Christ. He demonstrated all of the divine glory of past history. Throughout His dwelling presence, the Shekinah, Who is Jesus Christ, took many forms to reveal Himself.

He appeared in many manifestations in the Age of Israel. This includes the burning bush, the cloud over Israel, the place of the Mercy Seat in the Holy of Holies. The sacrifice, or sprinkling of blood, this sacrifice was the picture of the Lord Jesus Christ. The Lord Jesus Christ would sacrifice Himself, just as the literal lamb was sacrificed. This promises a future atonement by the Lord Jesus Christ; although they did not know Him by this name.

He was present in a human body; and He was the glory of God.

Let's skip our age and look at the rapture of the church followed by the Tribulation. At the end of that time, Jesus will again return and He will return in glory. This is the time when Jesus will return in a fierce and warlike manner, and He will destroy His enemies.

Then He will begin His millennial kingdom. That is the continuity in all the dispensations. Who was with Adam, Abraham, Noah, and Shem? Jesus Christ in His preincarnate form.

The Shekinah is present in all of the dispensations; and this is true in all dispensations. But there is some differences in our age. How is He manifested to us? We see how He is manifested in every other age?

Col 1:27 To them God chose to make known how great among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the confidence of glory.

Temples and Tabernacles have been the places for the residence of the Shekinah Glory. He no longer dwells in the Temple of His human body in the Hypostatic Union. Jesus called His body a Temple. "The Temple of My body will be raised in 3 days." Now, in our age, the Scripture says that Christ, Who is the Shekinah Glory in all dispensations, indwells every believer. In you the confidence of glory.

We have the confidence of glory in us. For Israel, the Shekinah Glory was with them. What we have is a vast improvement and this is unique to our age.

John saw this Transfiguration and He makes a direct statement as to His Presence. He made the connection.

John 14:19–20 Yet a little while and the world will see me no more, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live. In that day you will know that I am in My Father, and you in Me, and I in you.

The resurrection of Christ is the promise of their resurrection as well. They had already seen the Shekinah Glory. After the departure of Jesus Christ after the ascension, the Apostles would have a spiritual life which provides an intimate relationship that we all have; greater than any in past history. We have the same spiritual life that He pioneered during the time of His life; and we have an eternal future.

Christ in us

1. On that day refers to the day of Pentecost, when the Holy Spirit descended upon them.
2. He will, the Holy Spirit, will teach them these things that they will know. They learned through operation Z, the same way that we learn. We hear it, we believe it, and it is transferred into the human spirit.
3. They will comprehend the intimate relationship between Christ and the Father. The relationship is two persons and one God. The relationship between them is rather close.
4. They will also comprehend you in me; that is their total union with Christ. They share everything that He is and everything that He has. They share everything. No other dispensation has ever been in union with Christ.
5. They will also comprehend something even more amazing. We all know that the Holy Spirit indwells us; Jesus Christ indwells us at the same time. The Holy Spirit has a purpose indwelling us and Christ does as well.
6. "I in you" is a statement of the indwelling presence of Jesus Christ in the body of all believers. This is the confidence of our glory.
7. That is an intimate relationship with Christ, even though He is no longer physically present. Christ in His body is up in heaven, seated next to God the Father. Yet He is here with us.
8. What did the Holy Spirit teach them? He has taught them that this is their confidence of glory. Because I live, you will live also. John 14:19. What we will be and what we will have is beyond our imagination.
9. So the unique dwelling of the Shekinah Glory, the Tabernacle and the Temple in the Old Testament, these were unique dwellings; and this corresponds to His unique dwelling in every person who has believed in Jesus Christ. This never came home to Bobby more until he understood that this same Shekinah Glory is now in our body and our body is a Temple. It is a sobering thought.
10. His indwelling of us today is the localized presence of the Shekinah Glory. It is just as he is in the Temple of Israel.

11. Each one of our bodies without exception, no matter how rotten we are, no matter how good we are, has the indwelling presence of Jesus Christ, which happens at the moment of faith alone in Christ alone.

The apostle Paul also had a similar vision; he saw the Shekinah Glory when knocked off his horse.

2Cor. 13:5 Examine yourselves, to see whether you are in the faith. Test yourselves. Or do you not realize this about yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you?--unless indeed you fail to meet the test! As they and you learn about Christ, we learn about ourselves and our relationship with Him. What we have is something that no other age cannot even remotely match.

The God Who created the universe, He is in us. Our relationship with Christ cannot be any closer than that.

So, why do we need two Persons of the Trinity indwelling us? This is a unique feature of the Church Age. There is this great connection. One of the reasons for the indwelling of the Holy Spirit: (1) He provides a sacred building for the indwelling of Christ. (2) He provides a suitable residence for the indwelling of Christ. He throws the money-changers out. How is this possible? 1Cor. 3:16 Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you? This is one more thing that happens to us when we express faith alone in Christ alone. One of the things that we get is the indwelling of God the Holy Spirit. There is the indwelling and the filling. The filling empowers the believers to live the Christian life. Whom you have received from God...you are not your own. Our body, which contains a sin nature, yet the body receives a temple which is sanctified; which is another ministry of God the Holy Spirit, which we receive at salvation. You were washed by the name of the Lord Jesus Christ in the Spirit of our God. The Holy Spirit dwells at the moment of faith in Christ. And He sanctifies the body in which He indwells. We are made acceptable to God. This is how the Temple gets cleansed. So the Holy Spirit takes up residence in a body that He has cleansed. He has a localized presence in our body. The Holy Spirit is a permanent resident in us. We are positionally sanctified and indwelt by Christ, because the Temple of your body has been cleaned out by the Holy Spirit.

It is what we reflect; and that is key.

Matt. 17:2 Col. 1:27 Life of Christ

5/21/2014 Wed

Bobby has thought about this and has imagined this to be like viewing the sun. We will someday see Him for Who He is. This transformation proves that Jesus is the Shekinah Glory of Israel, the dwelling presence of God; the 2nd Person of the Trinity; in every dispensation.

Matt. 17:2 And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became white as light.

From Adam to Moses was the Age of the Gentiles. Then the Age of Israel. Then the Hypostatic Union, which is a transitional age; but it is unique in history, that the God-man is here for 32 years. He left this earth at the ascension. All of this dispensations, the Shekinah Glory is present.

The Church Age does not begin at the ascension; but 40 days later on the Day of Pentecost.

Jesus will return, but we will not meet Him in the air. Then the Tribulation begins; the 7 years which are the culmination of the Age of Israel. In the Millennium, the Lord wears the crown which was promised way back in the Age of Israel. However, He is present as the Shekinah Glory even back in the Age of the Gentiles. He appears to Moses as a burning bush, and tells Moses to take Israel out of Egypt. He was the cloud by day and the pillar of fire at night. He was seen by all of Israel. He is the King promised to Israel. He was the king of Israel.

The rituals of Old Testament Israel portrayed the sacrifice of Jesus; that was the means of salvation. They believed in the One Who would pay the penalty. He appears as the Shekinah Glory in bodily form; that is what the transfiguration is all about.

At the end of the Hypostatic Union, Jesus ascended, so He was no longer in view; and the Shekinah Glory was seated at the right hand of the Father.

The Lord Jesus Christ works events in history. He works through people who have all these other ideas in this world. As our government slowly strangles your freedom, don't worry. It is all in the Lord's hands. The things which happen can really make you upset. Everyday there is something. Put it in the Lord's hands. Doctrine works; the Lord Jesus Christ works. This is the only way to live as a believer in Jesus Christ.

In the time of the Hypostatic Union, the 1st advent, He is our substitution. He will set up the promised kingdom of Israel. That is what the Lord of Glory will be like at the battle of Armageddon and as King in the Millennium.

We know all of the forms of the Shekinah Glory; and how He appeared in bodily form.

What about this dispensation of the church? If the Shekinah Glory dwells with His people in every dispensation, then how does He dwell with us? We know how Jesus has previously dwelt with His people.

Col. 1:27 To them God chose to make known how great among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.

Paul was making known the mystery doctrines of the Church Age.

John 14:19 Yet a little while and the world will see me no more, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live.

Because Jesus lives—the resurrection of Christ—we will live. That is the confidence of glory. That is the doctrine of the resurrection in one line, and what it means to us.

The baptism of the Spirit puts us in union with Christ. I in you is a statement of the indwelling Presence of Jesus Christ in all believers. That is the closest that we can get. That is our confidence of glory. Because I live; you will also live.

Our body will be like the body of Jesus Christ. It will reflect His glory; we will share all that He is and all that He has. Jesus was the divine Presence with Israel; but now He is in us. That is a tremendous difference.

Col. 1:27 To them God chose to make known how great among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.

Why Do We Need 2 Persons of the Trinity Indwelling Us?

1. It is the indwelling Holy Spirit Who prepares the way for Christ in us. The Holy Spirit prepares us for Christ in us.
2. What does He do? He provides a sacred building or Temple for the indwelling of Jesus Christ.
3. The Holy Spirit prepares our bodily temple as the Shekinah's residence. This is how He can say, "Christ in you."
4. In effect, the Holy Spirit cleans us a really foul residence, our bodies, for the indwelling of our Lord.

1Cor. 3:16 Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you?

The Holy Spirit indwells our body, the Temple.

1Cor. 6:19–20 Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God? You are not your own, for you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body.

We are set apart for the residence of the Shekinah Glory.

The Holy Spirit Prepares Our Bodies for Residence

1. The Holy Spirit takes up residence in a Temple, which is our body, that He has cleansed.
2. In other words, He has a localized presence in our body.
3. He sanctifies that body; He sets our body aside for Christ.
4. You are made acceptable to God through the Holy Spirit. Eph. 1:5 1Peter 2:5
5. We are made righteous, that is being justified. Rom. 3:22 this does not mean that we lack a sin nature. Positionally, we are cleansed.

Jesus Christ Indwelling Our Bodies

1. In the Church Age, the body is a Temple; in the same way that the Temple was in the Old Testament.
2. In Israel, God lived in a literal sacred building, called the
3. In the Church Age, He lives in the parallel analogy, our bodies.
4. The creation of the believer as a Temple for divine residence, which happens at faith alone in Christ alone, sanctification and the baptism of the Holy Spirit.
5. It is the Holy Spirit and His washing of regeneration; and the renewing.
6. The indwelling of the Holy Spirit is the principle of positional victory over the sin nature. We are positionally victorious.
7. Only the Holy Spirit's indwelling can renovate a resident worth of Christ. We are born depraved.
8. Only when the Temple is ready, can Jesus reside in the believer. It is ready the moment we express faith in Christ. Once we express faith in Christ, that is when all of this kicks in. All of this is instantaneous to faith in Christ. Now we understand what the 39 irrevocable assets are.
9. The Holy Spirit indwells so that Christ can indwell.
10. God the Holy Spirit is the One Who positionally sanctifies who sets apart the believer's body.
11. The Shekinah Glory indwells the cleaned up Temples of our bodies.
12. Only the renewing by the Holy Spirit makes the Temple of your body fit for His presence.

2Cor. 6:16 What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, "I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

Paul is putting it altogether.

We have been bought with a price. Therefore, we are to glorify God in our bodies.

How Do These Things Work Together?

1. The mandate is to glorify God in our bodies. We have no choice here.
2. The glory of God resides in us. The Shekinah Glory indwells us.
3. There is a connection between glorifying God and the glory residing in us.
4. We must reflect that glory which resides in us.
5. Col. 1:27 Christ in us, the confidence of glory. This is the confidence because of the indwelling of Christ.
6. The believers can glorify God by reflecting the Shekinah Glory that resides in Him. Moses, when he was face to face with the Shekinah Glory, he was glowing. His face reflected God's glory. It is the same concept. Jesus resides in us.
7. The believer can be transformed as 2Cor. 3:18 tells us, as a mirror image of the Shekinah Glory.

How Is the Reflection of God Realized in Our Bodies? How Do We Do It?

1. We must live the Christian life. We must utilize the power of the filling of the Holy Spirit and utilizing Bible doctrine.
2. That advances the believer to spiritual maturity.
3. In gaining spiritual maturity, we live the Christian life to its fullest.
4. That is the life that glorifies God in our bodies. It is the only way to do it. Once that maturity kicks in, we serve God in many ways in our everyday life.
5. We now reflect the real presence of the Shekinah within us. We know Bible doctrine and we are filled with the Spirit.
6. The indwelling Christ as the Shekinah is invisible. We do not see Him; but He is reflected in us.
7. We look into a mirror. Some of us spend every morning looking into a mirror. It is not about how our face looks; it is what is reflected from the inside out. We all with an unveiled face seeing in a mirror the unveiled Lord.

Closing Points

1. We belong to Jesus Christ. We are not our own. Jesus bought us; and took us out of the slave market of sin. That is redemption. We have been redeemed. We were a slave to the sin nature. We are owned by Jesus Christ.
2. You are inseparably united to Christ in salvation. You are inseparably united with Christ; we share everything that He is and all that He has. Everything.
3. And this uniting means no less than the personal presence of Jesus Christ within us.
4. He is the very presence in us that the 3 disciples saw on the Mount of Transfiguration. Therefore, it is our obligation and privilege.

Matt. 17:2 And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became white as light.

We have the unique indwelling of the Shekinah Glory Himself. He is the Shekinah as He revealed himself at the transfiguration.

Lesson #0608

Matt. 17:2 Life of Christ

5/22/2014 Thurs

Luke 9:30–31 we have covered the transfiguration from every angle; but particularly from the angle of the Shekinah Glory. What shown forth was none other than the 2nd Person of the Trinity, and connected to the Shekinah Glory. This is an umbrella terminology for Jesus Christ in every dispensation.

In every dispensation, the Shekinah Glory, the Lord Jesus Christ, His presence is known in many ways. He appeared to Adam, Noah, to Abraham and to Isaac and Jacob. We know that all of these refer to the Lord Jesus Christ.

The Shekinah is a theological word.

There is something else which happens in the transfiguration. It is a combination of the three passages. How do these 3 disciples recognize Moses and Elijah. Jesus apparently must have told them. They were also shining and they were talk with Jesus concerning His departure.

Jesus already knew that He would go to Jerusalem and accomplish what He would. But why does Moses and Elijah occur right here?

No one saw the dead bodies of Moses or Elijah. God is said to be the One Who buried Moses. Elijah was translated directly to heaven in a chariot of fire. Bobby says this is the Shekinah Glory taking Elijah to heaven without dying. Scripture does not tell us where these men have been during this time. They died hundreds of years ago; or Moses did; and Elijah was translated long before.

Luke 9:30 And behold, two men were talking with him, Moses and Elijah,

Luke 9:31 who appeared in glory and spoke of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem.

They were shining in their return to the earth from heaven. This is not the only time that they will return from heaven.

Scripture does reveal the reason for them being there; or what is going on here. These men had a great place in Israel's history. They represent the beginning and the end of Israel's dispensational history. Moses was the founder of the nation. He will also be involved as one of the two witnesses in the Tribulation. That is yet future.

Elijah is Israel's best-known prophet, along with Isaiah and Jeremiah. He is to return after his translation according to two Old Testament passages.

Malachi 4:5–6 "Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the great and awesome day of the LORD comes. And he will turn the hearts of fathers to their children and the hearts of children to their fathers, lest I come and strike the land with a decree of utter destruction."

this prophecy was written 300 or 400 years before the transfiguration. But how does the great and terrible day fit in here? That speaks of judgment that will be intense. That is when Elijah will appear again.

Joel 2:31 The sun shall be turned to darkness, and the moon to blood, before the great and awesome day of the LORD comes.

All of these passages will be connected to the Shekinah Glory. The disciples will be connected with that because they are looking for the kingdom. The sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood. These are linked; before the sun is turned to darkness and the moon turned to blood.

This is found in Rev. 6:12, 17

Rev. 6:12 When he opened the sixth seal, I looked, and behold, there was a great earthquake, and the sun became black as sackcloth, the full moon became like blood,

The same description.

The middle of the Tribulation will be known as the Great Tribulation, a time of great difficulty for mankind. The rest of the verses in this chapter describe this.

The Two Witnesses

If you understand the Shekinah Glory and Jesus Christ, you will get a perspective that you have not had before. You cannot understand Who Jesus is from the beginning of time.

1. These Old Testament prophecies of Joel and Malachi link with Rev. 6 definitely refer to the judgment of the dispensation of the Tribulation.
2. Mal. 4:5 tells us that Elijah will come to the earth at that time.
3. Elijah will be a special sign and a special warning of the judgment of Israel. No greater judgment than this, in the history of the earth.
4. Elijah is therefore, the 2nd of the two witnesses in the Tribulation. They are connected to the 144,000.
5. These were the two men that Peter, James and John saw.

What on earth is going on in the transfiguration...why are they there? This emphasis is on their discussion. It is what the disciples are saying to each other. Nothing could be more vital than what the Lord is about to teach them. The emphasis is upon their discussion.

Luke 9:31 who appeared in glory and spoke of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem.

Departure is transliterated exodus. Is there any greater meaning of a word than exodus?

The Lord's Upcoming Departure

1. The Old Testament exodus had liberated Israel from bondage and had brought them into freedom. That background was quite important here. They were talking about His departure.
2. Jesus Christ is called the suffering Servant in Isa. 53. Moses and Elijah are talking about the departure of Jesus Christ.
3. Jesus Christ would be leaving behind the bondage of the incarnation of the 1st advent. Jesus was not encumbered by a body in previous dispensations. But He emptied Himself, lowered Himself, to become the God-man. To say the least, that was a restraining time of 33 years.
4. He would be leaving the period of servitude, which he had voluntarily subject Himself to for salvation.
5. At that point, He would have the freedom that the resurrection and ascension would bring. He is no longer encumbered by the flesh. All this would take place in Jerusalem.

Before the transfiguration happened, the disciples were snoozing. Jesus woke them up and they saw these two.

They are suddenly startled awake; and there is the Lord transfigured. They had to be overwhelmed.

Matt. 17:3 And behold, there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him.

This vision began to fade.

Matt. 17:4 And Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good that we are here. If you wish, I will make three tents here, one for You and one for Moses and one for Elijah."

As the men were leaving, and moving away. Peter decides that it is really nice to be there.

Peter and the Transfiguration

1. This appearance of Moses and Elijah had the feel of the kingdom.
2. All the signs of the kingdom were in place.
3. The glory of the King was manifested in the transfiguration.
4. The Presence of Moses and Elijah represented Israel's past and her glorious future; along with the king and His glorious future as reigning over Israel.
5. The Old Testament said that they would come before the kingdom.

Peter is thinking that he is right there in the middle of the Kingdom of God. That was about right; but the timing was wrong. He did not realize about the cross. He had been promised that he would see the coming of the kingdom. Peter misunderstood the timing. He wanted the kingdom so badly; thinking that this was the kingdom; he did not want to give this up. This was the kingdom before him.

What's up with Peter's Suggestion?

1. Peter was suggesting a sudden Feast of the Tabernacles.
2. From our study of our Feast of the Tabernacles, the night after this, He went up and slept under a palm branch shelter, put up for this celebration. Shelters like this were put up as a part of the feast. That is what Peter was proposing.
3. Tabernacles was the feast that commemorated Israel spending 40 years in the desert.
4. In those years, the Jews were characterized as strangers and pilgrims without a land. That is what they were for 40 years. They would not be forever be strangers and pilgrims. They were recipients of the covenant promises to Abraham.
5. Later the Davidic Covenant was given to David. These are all the same covenant which elaborates upon the first.

2Sam. 7:12 When your days are fulfilled and you lie down with your fathers, I will raise up your offspring after you, who shall come from your body, and I will establish his kingdom.

2Sam. 7:13 He shall build a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever.

Solomon was established and his kingdom would be established forever.

2Sam. 7:14 I will be to him a father, and he shall be to me a son. When he commits iniquity, I will discipline him with the rod of men, with the stripes of the sons of men,

This was the promise of the perpetuation of the line of David.

The line of David will rule over Israel by divine decree. Who is the male heir of David? His Greater Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. Peter got it right; he did not know about the Tribulation or the Church Age.

2Sam. 7:15 but my steadfast love will not depart from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away from before you.

2Sam. 7:16 And your house and your kingdom shall be made sure forever before me. Your throne shall be established forever."

Lesson #0609

Matt. 17: Life of Christ

5/25/2014 1Sunday

There have been many military types that have passed through Berachah, including two medal of honor recipients. We will call to mind all those who has put the uniform on and sacrificed their lives for our freedom.

This year, the 100th anniversary of the beginning of WWI. Tombs of the unknown soldier still dot the countryside of France. And 20 years later, another great world war. D-Day will be celebrated on the beach of France; the 10,000 graves of Americans in the place. Dignitaries from all over the globe will attend this. The tributes will be effusive and appropriate.

Article from the American Legion Magazine by Keith Nightingale. Occasional burst of remembrance may capture a moment in time for the Normandy invasion. A panoply of civilization will gather at that beach. The beaches will have bands, and elected and appointed leaders. The events they came to commemorate will drift with the tide. The real meaning will live on in the villages of that area. Hemev, a small obscure farm town. One would need an acute desire to find this small village. The hill is dominated by a small church, encircled by a graveyard and monuments, near an open farm field. On each edge, in an open sunny place, polished granite with gold letters. A small graveled walkway leads from the church to this monument. "In remembrance of the fallen soldiers, 6June 1944" followed by the names of 7 soldiers. These soldiers were misdropped, and 7 were captured by the occupying Germans, who executed them. The 7 captured men were lined up and shot. The villagers build a monument in their memory. The entire village gathers in the courtyard and remembers these 7 teenagers. This is not a contrived event. This is as obscure as a village might be. The residents know why they assemble and why it matters. Prefect of the church has an old CD player. The mayor and others and humbly dressed. The mayor plays the US national anthem from the CD; and then a French song. The mayor recalls these events and the people stand mute. He reads the names in gold. At the end of each name, the villages say, "They died for France." Every year they repeat the names and remember what they mean. Being seen is not important to the village. They know why they have come together and why they always will.

We still give honor to their sacrifice. They died for us.

The parallel, just as the Lord Jesus Christ made the greatest sacrifice, so the soldier sacrifices for us. Those of us who are beneficiaries of both sacrifices, we should never forget the honor due our Lord Jesus Christ and due to those who gave all to us.

Luke 9:30 And behold, two men were talking with him, Moses and Elijah,

Luke 9:31 who appeared in glory and spoke of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem.

The setting is the Mount of Transfiguration. He is being manifested in all of His divine glory. He became as light. He is God the Son in the flesh Whose divine presence was not just for the 33 years, but His existence has spanned human history. He has always lived with His people in one form or another. He has shown Himself to Adam, to Noah, to Abraham and to many others.

At the end of the Church Age, every Church Age believer, living or dead, will be taken up; and then begins the Tribulation.

The Age of Israel was in the past. There is a time between the ascension of our Lord and the rapture of the church. Once the church has gone to heaven, the Age of Israel will resume. The advents of our Lord belong to the Age of Israel.

Today during the Church Age, Jesus indwells us. Every believer has the indwelling of Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit. Jesus was with His people in the Age of the Gentiles and the Age of Israel; and physically with His people during the Age of the Hypostatic Union; but He is within us during the Church Age.

Moses and Elijah passed from history centuries before. They are both shining; they are illumined with glory. They have come from the glorious presence of God. The question is, why did they come back?

There are many movies where someone comes from heaven, and they were not very nice, so they return to be better people.

These men returned from heaven; but why did they show up at such a moment?

Moses was there at the beginning of the Age of Israel; and Elijah is one of the most famous prophets. These two will once again appear. They will be here during the time of the Tribulation; they will be the two witnesses to the Lord Jesus Christ; worldwide witnesses.

Mal. 4:5–6 "Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the great and awesome day of the LORD comes. And he will turn the hearts of fathers to their children and the hearts of children to their fathers, lest I come and strike the land with a decree of utter destruction."

God, through Malachi, promises to send Elijah.

Joel 2 and Rev. 12:17 Elijah will appear before the Tribulation. The time of the greatest judgment; the greatest judgment the world will ever be. Their presence will be a sign that heralds the great advent of the Lord Jesus Christ. They will preach and evangelize the world.

What is the purpose of these men being there? All of these things are still future. At this point, Moses and Elijah are there during the 1st advent. How come? It is not about time; it is about certainty. These two men are not the emphasis of this passage.

The key is what they are saying.

Luke 9:31 who appeared in glory and spoke of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem.

Jesus would depart from servanthood. His departure was leaving this world by death, resurrection, and ascension.

Matt. 17:3 And behold, there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him.

Then this vision began to fade.

Matt. 17:4 And Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good that we are here. If you wish, I will make three tents here, one for You and one for Moses and one for Elijah."

Peter wanted to put up 3 shelters. He did not know what he was saying, for they were all so frightened.

Mark 9:6 For he did not know what to say, for they were terrified.

Israel's past the Israel's future was right before them. In Peter's befuddled mind, he came up with an idea to prolong this moment.

Lesson #0610

Matt. 17: Life of Christ

5/25/2014 2Sunday

A long tradition of men graduating from Army RANGER school. There used to be a number of pictures of Rangers. A tradition of picking some ranger or soldier and to come up and give a short testimony of Ranger school or testimony. A recent Ranger graduate, Tyler Beck, has to go up and talk before the congregation.

62 days to complete the course; and for some, a little longer. Hasn't really feared anything as much as Ranger school. Nothing to fear in death. He did fear the revealing of his own inadequacies. Afraid that his weaknesses would come through and that he would reach his limit. He feared the horror stories of going in the winter months and losing feeling in all your extremities and losing a disgusting amount of weight.

3 weeks in a cold, concrete room waiting for the next phrase. During this time, he was able to lead Bible studies, much of it from publications from Berachah. Dropped the Colonel's books off in several utility closets. He was told that they had never been exposed to Christianity like this.

When everything else was stripped away, the hand of God in their lives became black and white. The things which impacted his day would be from his own volition provided by the Lord or provided by the world. Handing over so many situations to God.

Grandfather would send doctrines and verses and common sense information from this pulpit. The Word of God is circulating among the soldiers in the armed forces. Strong fellowship; habitual prayer.

Ranger school is toughest in the winter.

Luke 9:33 And as the men were parting from him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good that we are here. Let us make three tents, one for you and one for Moses and one for Elijah"--not knowing what he said.

Why are they there at this time? The King showed Himself for exactly Who He was at this time. The prophecies of Malachi and Joel all apply here. The prophecy of the two witnesses for the first 3.5 years of the Tribulation.

Peter sees the kingdom and he wants it right then. He knows that what he sees presents Israel in his past, present and future.

Why did Peter want to set up 3 tents? This was going to be an on-the-spot observation of the 3 feasts of Israel. Now Peter remembers, this is the fulfillment; let's have a feast and celebrate. These palm branch tents was what Peter was choosing to do.

The Feast of Tabernacles has long been associated with the coming kingdom; the Millennial kingdom was prophesied in Ezekiel. The final gathering of Israel as a nation under the Lord Jesus Christ at this time. The King, the Greater Son of Israel, would rule. The Jews were particularly sensitive to the Messiah Who would deliver them. They were looking for a military-political leader to advance Israel. Israel was quite oppressed by the Romans.

The great nation clause of the Abrahamic covenant. When Peter saw the glory of Christ, this reminded him of God's promise to Israel. The kingdom had come. The King is here; the Kingdom has arrived. Peter expected that the nation would be delivered from the Romans and the kingdom would be set up. This is why the kingdom would be set up. He has the event right; but he has the wrong timing. Peter wants Jesus, Moses and Elijah to stay in order to set up the Kingdom. He wants all the other Jews to recognize Who Jesus is. He is frightened; but he is also excited. He thought the kingdom was at hand; everything is in place. It was all in front of him.

And Jesus promised that Peter would not die until he saw the Kingdom; and here he sees the glorification of Jesus Christ. "There are some standing here who will not taste death until they see the Lord in all His glory." or words to that effect.

Peter was not yet a dispensationalist. He got the kingdom and the king; but he did not know the entire historical perspective. Peter correctly identified the significance of the transfiguration. This is one of the central events of the life of Christ, showing Who He was and what He would be in the future. Peter understood the past and the present; but he did not fully get the future.

Jesus could not bring in the kingdom at this time; the people rejected Him. Peter had been informed of the crucifixion, but it had not been believed, so he was unable to put it all together. The disciples are novices; they are going to be solid mature believers before the Lord Jesus Christ when they are turned loose as Apostles.

Luke 9:33 And as the men were parting from him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good that we are here. Let us make three tents, one for you and one for Moses and one for Elijah"--not knowing what he said.

However, Jesus will tell them to not say anything about this event. This great event was something they were not to share with anyone. At this time, Jesus would not sit on the throne until the end of the Tribulation.

Two parts of the Tribulation. 3.5 years relatively tame compared to the 2nd 3.5 years, where all hell breaks loose. Antichrist and the Beast all take over on earth and spread great misery. The big holocaust is coming. The only thing which saves them is the Lord Jesus Christ returning for the battle of Armageddon. He will by Himself destroy 4 great armies advancing toward Israel. Israel would believe and accept them as their King.

Peter and the others must understand that a new dispensation was on its way. Peter had forgotten that Jesus Christ said about building His church. Peter had to get the time sequence down. He must understand that he would only be involved from the cross to the early years of the Church Age. He will not see the Kingdom. He is not yet a dispensationalist.

But Jesus was appeared as a cloud in several occasions. And as a cloud, it envelops them.

Luke 9:34 As he was saying these things, a cloud came and overshadowed them, and they were afraid as they entered the cloud.

Suddenly....

Matt. 17:5 He was still speaking when, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, "This is My beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to Him."

Listen now to the Word of God. That is exactly what God the Father is saying to these idiots. Listen to the Lord Jesus Christ. They knew that this was the presence of God; they knew that this was the voice of God.

How can you appreciate the military unless you know about them and what they have done for us? How can you appreciate Jesus Christ unless you know Who Jesus Christ is and what He has done. Without that knowledge, it is just formality.

Matt. 17:6 When the disciples heard this, they fell on their faces and were terrified.

Lesson #0611

Matt. 17: Life of Christ

5/28/2014 Wed

Peter was a guy who was wound up pretty tight; he was intense. He wanted to know everything and he wanted to say everything. We left Peter in the mood for a party. This was not some frivolous good time celebration. This was a sacred celebration that Peter was at. James and John were there.

Luke 9:33 And as the men were parting from him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good that we are here. Let us make three tents, one for you and one for Moses and one for Elijah"--not knowing what he said.

They had just observed the transfiguration; and this was quite an amazing thing. And they had seen Moses and Elijah.

They recognize Who Jesus is. They knew before, but this really nailed it down. He was none other than the Shekinah Glory of Israel, the presence of God with His people. Peter recognizes that in the transfiguration that this is God in the flesh. As he observes all of this, this is the moment when the promised kingdom and the covenants are to be fulfilled at this time—this is what Peter thinks.

2Sam. 7 the Davidic Covenant. It all had to do with the promise of Israel. A great blessing; a great nation. Celebrating the Feast of Tabernacles looks forward to this great even of the kingdom. But Peter misunderstood what Jesus had promise in Mark :1 “Certain ones standing here will not die before seeing the kingdom coming in power.” Peter was sure that the kingdom would arrive before his death; all of the signs were in place.

Also the fulfillment of prophecy concerning Moses and Elijah. The transfiguration was meant to be a kingdom vision and Peter correctly identified it as such. And now Elijah and Moses, Messianic prophecies; and here they were. And Peter was getting pretty excited.

Israel had flat rejected Jesus Christ as the Messiah; they had rejected Him as the King. They wanted the great blessing, the great nation. But the king cannot take the throne if His people reject Him. Peter should have known this.

It was a look into the past and into the future. But this was not about the present. The kingdom would not come at this time. Peter and the others must understand that a new dispensation is on the way.

Here Is What Peter Should Have Understood

1. Jesus said that he must die and be resurrected before the kingdom comes.
2. Peter and the others had not grasped the full implication of what Jesus had said about building His church. That did not get into their brains.
3. What he did not understand was that the statement of Christ about His church portended an entirely new program, before the kingdom of Israel would come into existence.
4. There would be an intervening age. He did not get what it meant to be the foundation of the church. The transfiguration is a look at what Israel would receive in the future; not the church. Jesus showed Peter and James and John what would happen. The covenants were unfulfilled at this time.
5. Peter is not on the same page with Jesus and what was coming up. Peter was not yet a dispensationalist.

They would see an appearance of God; theophanies in the Old Testament were appearances of God. Now they will get a Theophany which has so much meaning that they cannot miss it.

Matt. Mark Luke 9:34–35

Why doesn't John give us the entire transfiguration account?

Luke 9:34 As he was saying these things, a cloud came and overshadowed them, and they were afraid as they entered the cloud.

The cloud is the presence of God. This is similar to the cloud that led the children of Israel in the desert. "Shut up, Peter, and listen to what Jesus is saying." This cloud had tremendous significance. These 3 were fully aware of what this cloud was all about. This was the experience of Old Testament Israel. They had just seen Moses and Elijah. This is what Moses had experience on Mount Sinai.

All of this was blasting through these three guys' minds. This was happening to them and they had known about this stuff for years. From another cloud, God had appeared, right then. And He spoke again as He has done before in the past. And like before, these 3 were instructed by the voice of God.

Now this is God in the flesh. He was right there in the middle of it. God the Father was there in the cloud and He was confirming the Presence of the Shekinah Glory in the flesh. The voice of God the Father from the cloud, you are in the Presence of God the Son. "Don't tell Jesus what He should do. Just listen."

Deut. 18:15–16 "The LORD your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among you, from your brothers--it is to Him you shall listen--just as you desired of the LORD your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly, when you said, 'Let me not hear again the voice of the LORD my God or see this great fire any more, lest I die.'

These are the major writers of Scripture, besides Paul. The Shekinah Glory knocked Paul off his mule and blinded him. These are the ones who listened and wrote.

Moses was one of the greatest men of Israel's history and here he is paying obeisance to Jesus Christ. In this quote, in Matt. 17:5–6, God identifies Jesus Christ as that Greater Prophet.

We reflect on the Shekinah Who lives in us. This voice from heaven once again confirms the Divinity of Jesus. Jesus would continue to fulfill the purpose for which God had sent Him. "Stop trying to set up the kingdom. Listen to My Son." God the Father is well-pleased with His Son in the flesh.

This revelation came at a very important time for the disciples. They would remember this for the rest of their lives. All but John would be martyred in terrible ways.

Matt. 17:5 He was still speaking when, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him."

These disciples had heard a great deal, but they were terrified to hear the voice of God.

Only two ways that you can go; you can listen to the Word of God and metabolize it; or you can reject it. Then you can think with human viewpoint. "Look, you fools, stop drawing your own conclusions before you know what's up." They were to build doctrine in their souls and then in the souls of Church Age believers. Stop following your own misguided concepts of the Word of God.

We all have these kinds of thoughts. "What does God want from me?" Just listen and learn; get with the program of Bible doctrine.

This was a lot for them to take in. They are still on their faces in the dirt. Jesus is saying, "Don't be afraid." These disciples would need this moment to bolster their instruction. We should fear God more than our circumstances or what other people can do to us. Look to Him under all circumstances.

Matt. 17:6 When the disciples heard this, they fell on their faces and were terrified.

Now it is time for more instruction. This is why God came in a cloud and said, "It is time for more listening."

Next they are going to get a lesson about or from Elijah? This will be some eschatological truth that we may have not considered before.

Lesson #0612

Matt. 17: Life of Christ

5/29/2014 Thurs

Mark 9; 3 disciples, the transfiguration and the aftermath.

Mark 9:9 And as they were coming down the mountain, he charged them to tell no one what they had seen, until the Son of Man had risen from the dead.

He orders them not to say anything until He has risen from the dead.

Mark 9:10 So they kept the matter to themselves, questioning what this rising from the dead might mean.

So, they did not get this. They did not fully understand what Jesus was talking about. They did not fully understand why this would happen. So the following discussion will involve the resurrection, not the transfiguration.

Peter did not fully understand what was going to happen; and none of them understood the purpose of His death; therefore, they did not really understand the resurrection.

This is doctrine built upon doctrine. They did not have the underlying piece of doctrine, where Jesus is raised from the dead.

The blind leading the blind are now discussing the resurrection. Is it any wonder why Jesus said, "Don't talk about the transfiguration"? They do not understand His death and resurrection.

This is a lesson for all of us. When you don't know about a subject; it is much better to listen and learn than it is to speak in ignorance. We know a smidgeon about a topic and we can hardly wait to pontificate on it.

Bobby shows up to teach prepared. Our spiritual life is affected by what is taught from the Berachah pulpit.

How many today preach who are just ignorant of the Word of God. Bible classes being led by people who know nothing about it; and they say, "And what do you think about this passage?" They will be the first to refute what they do not like.

Prov. 19:20 Listen to advice and accept instruction, that you may gain wisdom in the future.

Listening to teaching and accepting instruction is authority-orientation. You know more than anyone else. Wisdom comes from listening and understanding. We need to beware of the self-styled expert. Those who pass themselves off as knowledgeable in all areas. It is amazing; they cannot wait to hear themselves talk.

A professional athlete. People will ask him questions; but it is a lead-in for them to give their opinion. Those who are constantly voicing their own opinion will remain ignorant.

Why Jesus Told the Disciples to Not Say Anything.

1. Because of the ignorance factor, Christ would not allow the disciples to speak about something that they did not understand.
2. Jesus would not let them do it because they would muddle the doctrine which is involved.
3. The disciples did not have all the doctrine pertaining to the resurrection. Since they did not understand the resurrection, they could not understand the transfiguration.
4. Christ has only mentioned the resurrection; but He has not elaborated on it. Here they are discussing it, coming down from the Mount of Transfiguration.

So Jesus commanded them to keep quiet. But they did bow to His authority. They knew at least to follow His commands. They were teachable.

Teachability and Humility

The disciples will demonstrate teachability and humility.

1. The authority oriented person gets that way by learning to obey simple commands. In the military there is close order drill. You are given standards of protocol. The school of the soldier is designed to remove the arrogance from the civilian of that person. They learn that they are no longer individuals. They are part of a unit which comes before their own individual needs.

2. Arrogant people are unteachable; and they never grow up. There are many children lose today in adult bodies.
3. They are not authority oriented and they do not make good soldiers; good leaders; good followers; good husbands or good wives or good employees or good human beings. That is how important authority-orientation is. When you ignore that authority, then you never orient to life.
4. Humility includes objectivity and teachability. These are two ingredients for teachability in life. Some of the most miserable people are know-it-all's. Subjectivity means what you know most about is yourself and you bounce everything off of this grid.
5. There is no substitute for humility in the spiritual life. Humility is the attitude of the believer towards self and in relation to others.

What Should Your Attitude Be?

1. Humility is the recognition of God's authority over your life. How consistent are you in doctrine? How seriously do you take the mandates of the Word of God?
2. Submission to the authority of God is consistent exposure to the Word of God, then faith in that doctrine and application.
3. The discipline to metabolized doctrine is authority-orientation.
4. Then you can objectively evaluate your own life in the light of what the Word of God teaches. You can look at yourself in reality. You have no illusions about yourself. You put God first in your life. What does that mean? How much doctrine do you have?
5. Humility means that you make the focus of your life God's plan, not your own plan. That is reversed in the life of so many believers. Most think, "My plan is God's plan" or "My plan takes precedence."

What Is Humility?

1. Humility is a way of thinking and becomes a way of life.
2. Humility is a way of thinking before it becomes a way of life.
3. Humility is thinking with divine viewpoint. This develops into the Christian way of life. You have learned that you are teachable; and that develops into the mind of Christ.
4. Humility is not thinking in terms of human inferiority; shuffling your feet, looking down, and putting on phony humility. It is not self-effacement. .
5. We are all equal as royal family of God. That is from the baptism of the Holy Spirit at the moment that we are saved. This effectively wipes out any human distinctions and inordinate competition. You may look at someone and realize that you are smarter than they are or better looking or whatever; but you need to know you are in the plan of God with other believers.

6. Humility is a comfortable way of thinking. You have to prove yourself all of the time. Humility is a relaxed way of thinking. Our self-esteem comes from understanding our place in the plan of God. We refuse to elevate ourselves over another.

James 4:10 Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will exalt you.

Humans want to exalt themselves; and they expect God to bless them after.

Humble yourself before the Lord and He will promote you. Promotion is affixed to humility. Here, James tells us that humility is connected to promotion.

James 4:10

1. "Shut up and listen to Me." It is the humble whom the Lord promotes.
2. Promotion is not by another person; this is not human promotion.
3. James 4:10 is promotion in the plan of God, which may or may not include human promotion. It all depends upon whether it fits into the plan of God.
4. Without a spiritual life, we are unprepared for promotion. You cannot be promoted in the plan of God and you are unprepared for human promotion.
5. You will operate from human viewpoint without humility. That is all you can do. Without humility, it is all about you.
6. Under those conditions, the plan of God is forgotten in favor of your own plan. It is not wrong to have a plan for your life. You cannot have the right priority without humility.
7. Christian integrity, development of the Christian life, will be replaced by an attitude of self-promotion. That is how most of the world lives.
8. You will succumb to the arrogance of the me-first attitude. That is the farthest thing from impersonal love; from virtue love; from humility; from grace orientation. None of that is present.
9. Arrogance is not recommendation for promotion in the plan of God; nor for human promotion. If Bobby were an employer, he would prefer to promote the teachable person; not the loudmouth who knows everything. Without humility, you are not a leader. Leadership requires that you think about those beneath you.

The disciples must now grow spiritually. This is the prerequisite for their promotion in the Church Age. They must learn doctrine in the plan of God in order to be promoted to being apostles. This is the most important gift given in the Church Age. Do you think that they are ready to be apostles? They can follow orders, so they are teachable. But they need some doctrine in their souls.

God will promote us when we are ready.

Some are promoted beyond their own ability. This is true in human life and in the spiritual life. The disciples are not ready; so they need to keep it all on the down low. The disciples have to grow. They will not be promoted beyond their capabilities.

They were not ready to speak about the transfiguration. They did not understand it. It is the same with us. Arrogance leaves God out the progress of your life. We stagnate. We are relegated to spiritual backwater.

The grace of God is the road to humility. When you are consistent, then it will happen. You cannot be promoted until you have humility; and that takes consistency. Some of you might be hungry.

Spiritual starvation brings arrogance and reversionism. It fosters arrogance.

Prov. 19:21 Many are the plans in the mind of a man, but it is the purpose of the LORD that will stand.

Lesson #0613

Matt. 17: Life of Christ

6/1/2014 1Sunday

No AC at Berachah.

You may think that you have been passed over for some position and you are now bitter and resentful because of it. However, these are not qualifications in the plan of God or in human promotion. These emotions are recipes for disaster. You are prepared to fail because your attitude stinks. What are God's requirements for your promotion? Spiritual growth.

This is the dilemma of Peter, James and John.

Mark 9:9 And as they were coming down the mountain, he charged them to tell no one what they had seen, until the Son of Man had risen from the dead.

Mark 9:10 So they kept the matter to themselves, questioning what this rising from the dead might mean.

Is this a metaphor? Is Jesus speaking in riddles?

They had empirical proof of Who Jesus was, but they had no idea what they had just witnessed. They did not see the bigger picture.

In Luke 9:22, Jesus said that He must die and be resurrected in order for the kingdom to come. And the disciples believed that they had seen the coming of the kingdom. They believed that the kingdom was upon them. They were entirely confused. How could they speak intelligently about something that they were unsure of?

Knowing this, is it any wonder that Jesus said, "Do not speak about what you have just seen." They were unable to communicate the most basic of all doctrines. They could not give a good account of any of the fundamental doctrines right at this moment. So how could they be ready for promotion? You cannot be anything in the plan of God in order to move forward. They needed to develop a quality of character, in which they were somewhat lacking.

James was one of the 3 that Jesus said, do not speak of this.

James 4:10 Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will exalt [= promote] you.

James wrote this after the transfiguration of what they lacked. At the point of the transfiguration, they saw themselves as above everyone else. This made them arrogant. God promotes those with humility and knowledge.

Human Promotion and the Plan of God

1. James 4:10 refers to promotion in the plan of God. This may or may not include a human promotion of your choosing.
2. Promotion or progressing or advancing in the plan of God always leads toward finding your place in the plan of God. When you are promoted in the plan of God, then God has promoted you.
3. Human promotion must fit into the plan of God, not vice versa. You don't get promoted, so you decided, "Well, God, this must be Your plan."
4. Human promotion is best served with an attitude of humility.

There are so many ways that humility is perceived which is wrong. A certain body language; a set of words. But humility is an attitude of soul. Where does it come from? The unbeliever is not equipped to gain true humility. We can renovate our thinking with Bible doctrine. With doctrine in your soul comes grace orientation. This is a synonym for humility. If you are grace oriented, you understand your place in the plan of God. Ultimately, it is in the hands of the Lord. You are simply preparing yourself for whatever God has for you. You can simply sit back and relax and let the doors open. Bobby had plans for his life, and they did not work out in the way that he expected. When you are oriented to grace, you realize what God has done. That precludes the arrogance of emotion, promotion and personal accomplishment.

You will succumb to the me-first attitude, where you decide you will get promoted no matter how many bodies you have to walk over. Only when they have learned the doctrine necessary to be promoted in the plan of God. God will not promote a person beyond his capability for service. You may want to get there tomorrow, and you may not have the capability to do it.

You may want a promotion to a leadership position; but without humility, you are not a good leader. You don't care a bit about those below you, and they know it. Leadership is moving an entire organization in the direction that they need to go in.

You look for humility and not arrogance in a leadership position. The believer in Jesus Christ has a humility which is far beyond what anyone else can develop. The disciples need a humble attitude to move ahead.

Authority can be destroy without humility; and it becomes meaningful when combined with humility. The disciples will need this humility to lead the believers into the Church Age.

When you are arrogant and ignorant, you are not ready for prime time. Do you have humility? Humility is what God promotes. He is not impressed with your inflated ego. God knows you are ready if you have the attitude that is right. God knows exactly what is going on in our head.

God's plan is always best. His plan is to glorify Him; not to glorify us. Adulation may come from a job well done, but that is not what our job is all about. Our obligation is to reflect the glory of the Shekinah, which indwells us. Whatever else comes along, that is just gravy. Contentment in all circumstances. Attitude is critical. Humility and patience is being content with such things as you have.

There is no inordinate desire in one's soul. Paul learned doctrine too. He learned to be content in whatever circumstances he was in. There was no one more arrogant than the Hebrew of Hebrews. He could hardly wait to destroy Christians. He had to learn humility. When you have Paul's attitude, you are ready. When you are promoted, it may include human promotion as a part of God's plan or it may not. So don't get impatient. Be consistent; get consistent. You cannot be content without consistency in Bible doctrine. Spiritual growth is the key to all spiritual promotion.

What does it mean to gain humility? Be filled with the Holy Spirit and to learn Bible doctrine. Some of us have been right on the edge of getting where we want to go; but either way, we are very impatient to get there. Patience, contentment. Humbling oneself is grace orientation. Solving problems brings contentment. You are not always chewing on the bit hoping to charge out of the gate before everyone else. That is contentment. You are content and you are ready for all circumstances, including human promotion. And if that is a leadership position, you are ready when you have humility.

Bobby recalls the point that was made at Fort Benning to take care of your men first and you after. You accomplish your mission and you take care of your people. You must get your unit to the same place. That is what humility in your soul looks like. Humbling oneself is grace orientation. When you reject Bible doctrine, you are never ready for life, adversity or promotion. There is no satisfaction for the believer without the stability of Bible doctrine for the believer.

When you fail, you just rebound and move on in the spiritual life. In humility, you do not judge others; you evaluate yourself. Other people are not your concern. Humility brings understanding of your own helplessness in this life. You become dependent upon Him.

A believer with grace orientation graduates to a self-imposed obedience to God's plan. You cannot afford to fill your soul with everything else but Bible doctrine. Thinking about yourself and your fears and such things will never move you forward in the spiritual life.

Humility is the center of the doctrinal life. Teachability is what brings knowledge into your soul. The more doctrine you have the more doctrinal standards that you can impose upon yourself. You must have spiritual integrity. This is in your very soul. The plan of God must take priority when you establish doctrinal standards in your life.

Lesson #0614

Matt. 17: Life of Christ

6/8/2014 1Sunday

Eucharist June 8, 2014

Mark 15

The chief priests and the scribes demanded that Jesus be put to death. But they did not have the judicial authority to execute Jesus Christ. They led Him away in chains; and they led him away for the final trial before Pontius Pilate.

Jesus had done nothing but show great compassion and to save those who were lost. He performed miracles, curing blindness, curing the sick and the lame; and fulfilled the prophecies of the Old Testament. He never spoke of anyone with mental attitude sins. He carried no weapons.

These were the crimes for which He was arrested. They had Him in chains and they had a firsthand look at His power, and thought that chains would be the best way to go. Could chains hold the Lord Jesus Christ if He chose to free himself? Of course not!

Jesus Christ was never a threat. The bitterness of the religious leaders made them the blind fools that they were. They did not realize that nothing could constrain His words. Do not underestimate the power of God's Word. It is the power of God's Word that led Him to being condemned.

What are the chains by which men used to silence Jesus Christ?

Matt. 23:37 "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to it! How often would I have gathered your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you would not!" Jesus had spent 4 years among them, and He wanted to protect them and to guide them, and they hated Him for it. They failed to see their own helplessness and hopelessness.

Vessels of wrath prepared for destruction; vessels of mercy, which He had prepared beforehand for glory. The very Man they condemned; the love and the grace of God, was in the Person of Jesus Christ Who stood before them.

God has not destined us for wrath, but for obtaining salvation through the Lord Jesus Christ.

There is also apathy and indifference. People refuse to look at eternity. They refuse to look at the inevitability of their own deaths. They live for the present and think nothing about the future. The thought of their accountability to Him means nothing.

And yet for this reason I found mercy in order that in me Jesus Christ might demonstrate His perfect patience as an example of those who might believe in Him for eternal life.

It is amazing that any of us are still standing. We deserve nothing less than that Lake of Fire. God still reaches out to us until the very end of our days, offering salvation to us through the Lord Jesus Christ.

God demonstrates His love for us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

The Lord longs to be gracious to you; he waits on high to be gracious to you.

Look at your own life and your own sinfulness and marvel at the grace of God which is extended toward us. Even those with no interest, God never gives up. No one is hopeless until we take our last breath.

In the day of Jesus Christ, there was constant prejudice towards Him. Jesus answered and said to them, "You make a mistake, not knowing the Scriptures or the power of God." If these people had searched their own Scriptures with an open mind, they would have recognized their own Messiah. Come now, let us reason together. Though your sins are as scarlet, they will be as white as snow; though red as crimson, they will be as wool.

God gives us mercy because of the payment made by Jesus Christ for us. People must recognize the deadly seriousness of our sin.

It is very strange that mankind won't listen to reason when it comes to matters of eternal. Why not put things aside and listen. There is light for those who desire the light. "I am the light of the world; he who follows Me shall never walk in darkness, but will have the light of life."

The unpardonable sin is the rejection of Jesus Christ. Salvation is on a faith basis. When anyone puts his trust in the finished work of Christ; the one who has faith in Christ is eternally saved from the wrath of God. Who earns or deserves this? None of us.

He who believes in the Son has life; but he who does not believe, the wrath of God is upon him.

It was unbelief of the Jews that chained the Lord Jesus Christ. One place He did not do miracles in because of their own unbelief. The very city of His birth, He was rejected. They said "no."

Jesus never worried about His rejection. He was deeply saddened by the negative volition of the people themselves.

Mark 9:9 And as they were coming down the mountain, he charged them to tell no one what they had seen, until the Son of Man had risen from the dead.

This was an amazing thing which they had never seen; something that no one else has seen before. And they were told to keep this quiet; but they were confused about the time frame that Jesus gave to them. What does this mean, rising from the dead?

Mark 9:10 So they kept the matter to themselves, questioning what this rising from the dead might mean.

So they descending from the Mount of Transfiguration in deep debate.

Why Did Jesus Tell Them Not to Speak of the Transfiguration?

This command had a twofold purpose.

1. He did not want these 3 disciples to speak in ignorance of what it was that they saw.
2. They needed to listen and obey Him; so that they would be promoted by God to the highest human office, apostleship. They would be the leaders of the new dispensation of the church.

In the military, the simple command that teaches a civilian to think and act like a soldier, is sometimes called school of the soldier. You are taught with this uniform to salute all superior officers as a response to all superior authorities. You stand many close inspections. To learn orderliness and organization. The school of the soldier removes the self-centered arrogance of the individual; and they learn to be something greater than themselves (something which people need to learn). They learn humility. They learn obedience to simple orders. This translates to obedience in combat.

The same is true of the believer who fights in the Angelic Conflict. We learn to withstand the combat in the Angelic Conflict. In no other way can we learn to function in the Christian way of life. The disciples were learning how to follow simple orders. They will continue to operate. They will learn to be obedient to God's will.

Listen, hear; get the training that you need, to live the life that you are mandated to live.

Lesson #0615

Matt. 17: Life of Christ

6/8/2014 2Sunday

They all needed to learn about the spiritual life. They were not to relate their experience of the transfiguration to others. That was not the issue. This was an incredible experience. It was an amazing thing that they saw. They wanted to speak of this. They could not wait to come down the mountain and tell the other disciples about it. But they would have focused on what they had seen. That is exactly what happens today when people talk about their spiritual experience.

In doing this, such believers become the issue. God's grace, His doctrine and His grace plan are bypassed. Many people claim to have the pre-canon gifts of healing and tongues. Churches all over America today have that. Sometimes in a back room and sometimes in the auditorium itself.

There are those with the near death experience. They have seen the light. They have returned to describe heaven for us. It is all about them and what they have experienced. There is no authority-orientation. They claim spiritual gifts that no longer exist. Those gifts were utilized by the Apostles to begin the early church. They used languages to evangelize many people quickly. These gifts are no longer necessary; but people claim that they are because they are used to elevate oneself so that others will desire what they want. They want others to pursue after their experience. They replace God's Word with their own experience. Their own experience is not a part of the plan of God.

All of this takes away from the focus of the plan of God; of the grace of God. People want that experience so that they can feel closer to God. So often such people become arrogant and they look down on those who lack the experience that they have had. A pyramid effect. But we are all in union with Jesus Christ. None of us are greater than anyone else.

We are all members of the same body. But those with the Christian experience—my experience is greater than yours. It is so easy to lose perspective on the Christian life.

Remember that the disciples argued about who was the greatest and where they might sit relative to God in the kingdom. Now 3 of them had seen the greatest thing that they could ever see; and this could be distorted to where they see themselves and their experience puts them ahead of everyone else.

The spiritual life is not some spectacular event. It is not a feeling; it is not an emotion. What is the basic aspect of the spiritual life?

It is denying self; it is daily picking up the cross and following Jesus Christ to spiritual maturity. What is the spiritual life. Nowhere do we have the spectacular experience. The spiritual life of day after day is the spiritual life. One experience is nothing compared to this. Your emotions are high for how long? The spiritual life is God's Word; it is not someone else's life about what they have experienced. When you live the spiritual life, then you accomplish the plan of God. There is no humility in touting one's personal experience and touting one's personal views over the Biblical viewpoint.

Jesus did not want these 3 disciples to go out and tell all about their experience. He did not want them to confuse the focus. Relating personal experiences means the emphasis is put upon their own experience. It is not a part of making things.

Doctrine and humility is what gets the disciples promoted to Apostleship. They had been prepared first with doctrine and with gaining humility so that they did not get sidetracked. They used their experiences to get to Jesus Christ.

A second reason why Jesus would not let them speak of the transfiguration. This proved that Jesus is the Messiah, the One to sit on the throne of Israel in the future. The transfiguration was proof of all of that.

The very ones over whom the Lord was to rule had rejected Jesus. The religious leaders rejected Him. They would crucify Him. Christ withheld further signs to the nation at that time. He would only give to them the sign of Jonah.

The next and final sign to the nation would be the actual resurrection of Christ. They would not get any more signs. Then, at the resurrection, the focus would be upon the Living Lord Jesus Christ. They were not to speak of the Transfiguration because this was a sign of the Messiahship; and it was not until the sign of Jonah had come to pass.

They could write about theology proper through the transfiguration.

More about the Transfiguration and the Silence Required

1. The resurrection was a promise; a promise of the Lord's return. There is one advent and then He is gone. It was a promise of eternal life for believers. Jesus Christ lived so we live. The disciples did not understand this yet.
2. The transfiguration would point to the return of Jesus Christ. It would testify to the eternal life of the King. This was a look at the glorious return of Jesus Christ at the 2nd advent. This eternal life that Jesus has would be shared by all believers.
3. The transfiguration at that point would have doctrinal content. The doctrinal content would be connected to the Lord's return in glory to set up the kingdom for Israel. It needed a context.
4. That is what the vision of the transfiguration is all about. Who Jesus Christ is and what He will accomplish in the future.

This vision that the 3 disciples saw did raise a question beyond the resurrection; a question about the future. "What does all of this mean?" they are asking one another when coming down from the mountain.

Mark 9:11 And they asked him, "Why do the scribes say that first Elijah must come?"

The last prophet is Malachi.

Mal. 4:5 Behold, I am going to send you Elijah the Prophet. He will come before the coming of the great and terrible day of the Lord. It will take us a great deal to unravel this statement.

Elijah has long since gone to heaven.

Elijah's return would come before the Messiah. This is something that the Scribes got right. Elijah would precede the great and terrible day of the Lord. This had a very destructive sound. But this would take place before the advent of the Lord. But which advent? The 1st advent was already in progress. This had confused the disciples. They had just seen this tremendous vision and they saw Elijah.

"What Is Going on Here?"

We are going to go into prophecy and into the future. A great and terrible day will happen. This is a day that we do not want to get close to.

1. Malachi's prophecy of the great and terrible day of the Lord does not describe an event in the first advent.
2. Why? Because the King was rejected and they would crucify Him and He would be resurrected.
3. The Lord had come; He entered at the 1st advent. He returned to heaven without initiating the kingdom.
4. That means God promise Israel a kingdom and God's promises are immutable. They cannot be changed. God promised to Israel. That He did not institute the Kingdom in the 1st advent means that the kingdom had been postponed.
5. Jesus Christ would leave this earth without fulfilling the promise of setting up the Jewish kingdom. This is very important for us to understand.
6. So there had to be a return to set up the kingdom as He promised. His promises are immutable. So there would have to be another promise. It is a very simple understanding. No kingdom; but the kingdom will come. So Jesus Christ must return to set up the kingdom.
7. Since Elijah must come first before a great and terrible day, there will be a time of horrendous judgment prior to the coming of the king at the 2nd advent. Guess which dispensation that is? The Lord is just introducing the disciples something that we know, but this is quite a lot for them to take in.

But the kingdom is not here yet. What ends the Church Age? The rapture. It is presented differently. We meet the Lord in the air; Jesus never touches the ground. Then the 7 years. The most incredible time that the earth has ever known. This is where Mal. 4:5 will be fulfilled.

Bobby is going to explain all of this to us, including all of these future things.

Lesson #0616

Matt. 17: Life of Christ

6/11/2014 Wed

When they descended from the mountain, the disciples were very confused about several issues. They needed instruction. At this point, in the last year of the Lord's ministry, He has been rejected. He offered the kingdom and it was rejected.

Jesus would perform a few miracles, but He did not give signs to Israel anymore.

Jesus needs to get his disciples to where they can understand what they ought to know as Apostles. They were a very confused bunch.

They were confused about Jesus having to die; and confused about the resurrection. But there is another issue. "Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?" This is a very good question. Few of us would do a great deal better than the disciples. This was a crash course. This is an excellent question. The disciples are thinking about what they are seeing; and they are thinking about why Elijah was in the midst with Jesus and Moses.

Mark 9:12 And he said to them, "Elijah does come first to restore all things. And how is it written of the Son of Man that he should suffer many things and be treated with contempt?"

Malachi spoke of Elijah returning. So, why is Elijah there and why do the scribes say he must come first?

Mal. 4:5 Behold, I am going to send you Elijah the Prophet. He will come before the coming of the great and terrible day of the Lord. It will take us a great deal to unravel this statement.

Malachi is the final prophet. Elijah the prophet will come before the great and terrible day of the Lord. If Malachi is to come before the Messiah, then isn't he a little bit late here? This is all puzzling to these guys. They had just seen Elijah on the Mount of Transfiguration.

The problem was, when and how does the Mount of Transfiguration fit into Malachi's prophecy? The advent of the Messiah was already in progress; how can this prophecy be fulfilled? What is Malachi talking about? Was this past, present or future?

Whatever God promises, it will be fulfilled, and to the letter. Sometimes it is a near and a far fulfillment.

The Prophecy of Elijah

1. This is complex. The last category of theology is eschatology. There are all kinds of prophecy in the book of Revelation. And it is not always sequential; it is all over the place. It can be quite complicated.
2. Malachi's prophecy of Elijah, which would come before the terrible day of the Lord. And this would be a terrible time period; and Joel covers it in great detail. Joel 1:15 and there is great judgment for those nations who have turned against Israel.
3. The Old Testament is all about Israel; it does not talk about the church.
4. At the same time, this day will be a time of deliverance and incredible blessing for God's people Israel. Joel describes this. Joel 2 3:16, 18–21
5. The blessing would include the fulfillment of the promised kingdom of the Messiah, prophesied many times in the Old Testament. The disciples recognized Jesus as the Messiah and they expected the kingdom.
6. The king was rejected at the 1st advent. He would be crucified. Then He would be resurrected. And He would return to heaven without bringing out the promised earthly kingdom.
7. So the promise of both destruction and blessing had a future fulfillment.
8. Neither the day of destruction or the day of blessing occurred in the 1st advent.
9. There must be another advent of the king. That is logical. This is the advent where He destroys the enemies of Israel and set up the Jewish kingdom as promised.
10. Since Elijah must come first before this great and terrible day, then there will be a future time of great judgment prior to the coming of the king for the 2nd advent. The scribes rejected Jesus as king; they did not believe Him to be the Messiah.

This 2nd advent would be brought in by Elijah. There was a certain element in the kingdom of Jesus Christ, which included the appearance of Elijah. Peter wanted to celebrate the feast of the Tabernacles. Elijah and Moses disappeared. The disciples only got to observe the 1st advent, not realizing that there would be a fulfillment of that.

Why did Elijah leave? They did not catch up to the 1st advent and all that would happen, even though Jesus told them what would happen.

The Questions

1. Elijah's appearance heralded the King.
2. If the King is among them, which the disciples knew was true, then,
3. What was this appearance of Elijah all about?
4. How did this fit with Malachi's prophecy.
5. If the prophecy was being fulfilled at the time, it would appear that Elijah appeared.

Was it possible that, because Elijah appeared, was great danger and judgment to come? The fulfillment of Malachi's promise was not yet upon them. The Church Age would be the next thing to come. The disciples were still in the 1st advent. All of these prophecies have to occur after the Church Age. Elijah has not yet returned, even though he is at the transfiguration.

Why is Jesus jumping over the Church Age in order to explain this. Well, it comes out of Malachi, so that must come out of the Old Testament. What is wrong with the disciples right now?

Jesus does fill us in on the rapture; and this is the only thing which applies to us from prophecy.

John the Baptist will be a part of the herald of the king at the 1st advent. This is why we had to study this. Prophecy has a near fulfillment and a far fulfillment.

Why did Elijah appear? They will know that the kingdom blessing would not be fulfilled in their lifetimes. These Apostles were some of the greatest disciples ever known.

Paul was not normal. Bobby has a bit of an abnormal lifestyle. This is what comes with being an a pastor-teacher. This is a life of some of the greatest blessings that we could ever imagine.

Matt. 17:11 He answered, "Elijah does come, and he will restore all things.

Matt. 17:12 But I tell you that Elijah has already come, and they did not recognize him, but did to him whatever they pleased. So also the Son of Man will certainly suffer at their hands."

Mark 9:12 And he said to them, "Elijah does come first to restore all things. And how is it written of the Son of Man that he should suffer many things and be treated with contempt?

Mark 9:13 But I tell you that Elijah has come, and they did to him whatever they pleased, as it is written of him."

Then He makes a comparison. So also the Son of Man will suffer at their hands.

There will be a future grand entrance. Erchomai. A futuristic present. This denotes an event which has not yet occurred, but is regarded as completely certain in the future.

Future active indicative of apokathistimi; and this does mean to restore; it also means to re-establish. He will re-establish all things.

What Will Elijah Do?

1. He will re-establish a dispensation that has been interrupted by the Church Age. The Jewish dispensation was interrupted.
2. This re-established dispensation will be a continuation and a completion of the Age of Israel.
3. And the re-establishment, according to Malachi 4.5, will be a time of great judgment; hard to even contemplate in its horror.
4. This continuation is also a new hour in God's clock. It is distinct from what came before. There is a new element here. Elijah will herald its arrival. He will herald the great and terrible day of the Lord.

There is more to this. The church and the Hypostatic Union.

Lesson #0617

Matt. 17: Life of Christ

6/12/2014 Thurs

Bobby, while driving, notices little enclaves in strip centers; tarot card readers; of course it is a charlatan racket; and many people make decisions in their lives based upon these things. These people know less about what will happen in the future than we do. The Bible reveals the future; it reveals what will happen. There is no prophecy that deals with the Church Age. In the Church Age, we have Bible doctrine. There are no prophetic markers throughout the Church Age.

The prophecy of the Scripture is difficult, because it is spread out throughout the Bible. We are integrating Old and New Testament studies.

People often come to hear doctrine so that they can hear about something that relates to them directly at that time. Whatever you hear that comes from the Scripture is spiritual advance. You may not realize that it is taking place. No matter what is being taught, you will grow spiritually based upon that. Some of us have been here so long that we do not even recognize what we were like so many years ago. We learn about all things working together for good, because we love God. We learn to live the Christian life to the fullest.

What we learn night after night causes us to grow. Bobby lives to feed the positive volition in Berachah. We will be studying something which may not seem to be very important to our spiritual advance. Eschatology is encouraging; it is a look into the future. God has it all figured out. When we realize this, we can take life easy and enjoy life. The big picture also helps us to understand the little picture. If God can plan the history of the world, don't you think He might be able to plan out our lives. It is amazing how God fits everything together. Our Lord will fill them in, and the disciples will understand and be able to apply all of this.

Matt. 17:11 He answered, "Elijah does come, and he will restore all things."

This is all future, even though this is a present tense. It is an absolute certainty that it will occur. This question was triggered by Elijah's appearance. The answer to this question is anything but simple.

First of all, what does Elijah come before? And what will he restore that is now not working or not functioning.

What was this about Elijah preceding and restoring something? What about the timetable which goes along with this.

Matt. 17:12 But I tell you that Elijah has already come, and they did not recognize him, but did to him whatever they pleased. So also the Son of Man will certainly suffer at their hands."

Elijah will come before that great and terrible day of the Lord. This is all centered on Jesus Christ being rejected as Messiah and by the Jews at the 1st advent.

Mark 9:12 And he said to them, "Elijah does come first to restore all things. And how is it written of the Son of Man that he should suffer many things and be treated with contempt?"

Mark 9:13 But I tell you that Elijah has come, and they did to him whatever they pleased, as it is written of him."

What about the judgment? How does that figure into the whole thing? What does Elijah's appearance mean for the future? What does it mean for the future timetable initiated by the appearance of Elijah. We must connect New Testament and Old Testament prophecy.

This Is What We Know

1. Elijah will come in the future, but before the great and terrible day of the Lord. This will be in the future.
2. When Jesus said, "Elijah is coming first" there would be an absolutely certain appearance. There is a future aspect to this.
3. The great and terrible day of the Lord is a confirmed time of a great and terrible judgment.

Αποκαθιστιμε means that Elijah coming would accomplish something; there is something that he will reestablish. All Old Testament prophecy refers to Israel; and never to the church. There is a future after the Church Age.

In some way, the reestablishment concerns Israel exclusively.

What Elijah Will Reestablish

1. Today we know that the Age of Israel has been interrupted by the Church Age. The Age of Israel was interrupted and we are in that time period.
2. Elijah will herald the reestablishment of the Age of Israel. This is after the Church Age, and after the rapture.
3. This reestablished dispensation would be a continuation of the previous age of Israel.
4. Thus the Jewish kingdom will be established in the reestablished Age of Israel.
5. According to Mal. 4:5, prior to this reestablishment will come this terrible, horrendous judgment. It will never be worse in the history of mankind.

We are building this up point by point.

The Day of the Lord

1. The day of the Lord in Malachi's prophecy is not a 24 hour period of time.
2. Day here is a metaphor for an extended period of time.
3. The day of the Lord is a future period; a change of dispensation.

4. The day of the Lord is an extended period during which God fulfills His promise to Israel.
5. The day of the Lord is a future series of days when God will bring the nations of earth to account. This actually means God's day.

The Way God Operates

1. The way that God operates will be different in the Age of Israel. God works primarily through circumstances. He guides us. Sometimes He might intervene directly. By and large, He works behind the scenes. However, in that future time, He will step into human affairs and execute direct control.
2. This is a period of God's timetable when He deals with mankind in an unprecedented way.
3. He personally moves to judge sin and establish His kingdom on earth.

The Timetable

1. The day of the Lord will last for 7 years. All told, the day of the Lord includes the Millennium, which means this is 1007 years.
2. We know the period is 7 years because of Daniel's prophecy of the 70th week. That is the final chapter of the Age of Israel. The second half of the book of Daniel is all prophecy.
3. A week in Daniel's prophecy consists of 7 days, which is 7 years. The 7 weeks is the 490 years. But Messiah was cut off at 483 years.
4. In this prophecy, the day of the Lord is an extended period of time.
5. The 7 years within which Elijah appears. The Jewish kingdom won't be established right away; so they were allowed to see the transfiguration to encourage them.
6. That 7 years is the time of the future Tribulation.
7. So this 70th week of Daniel, the last 7 years is the great and terrible day of the LORD. The Tribulation. It is a time of terrible, horrible. We will not be in the Tribulation.
8. Many events will take place during that terrible day. The book of revelation is filled with these events. Elijah will be present during tribulation.

What about life during this unprecedented time of Tribulation. All of the judgment and all of the events that will happen are covered by Bob's series.

First, God will withdraw the Holy Spirit, Who is called the restrainer. We think are bad; and he is restraining much of what is happening. The day of the Lord cannot occur before the rapture. Since the Holy Spirit is always in and with us in the Church Age; when the Spirit is removed, then we are too. 2Thess. 2:7.

2Thess. 2:3 Let no one deceive you in any way. For that day will not come, unless the rebellion comes first, and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of destruction,

The day of the Lord will not come until the departure comes first (Bobby says apostasy).

The Tribulation and the Antichrist.

1. The Tribulation will begin with the appearance of the man of lawlessness. He is sometimes called the anti-Christ.
2. Anti-Christ refers to a man who is a substitute god, who both opposes and imitates Jesus Christ. People have thought that Hitler and others were the antichrist.
3. God allows this tool of Satan to begin to subjugate all the nations on earth in preparation for His judgment. God allows him to run amuck.
4. The antichrist appearance marks the beginning of the great and terrible day of the Lord.
5. God uses this evil person to assemble the anti-God forces of the world during those 7 years; and they will be assembled for destruction.
6. God brings judgment against the nations which follow the antichrist. Only after the judgment will the blessing of the kingdom come.

What we are looking at occurs within that 7 year time period. Elijah is an integral part of that future event. Elijah will precede the 2nd advent of Jesus Christ. He will be a part of the Tribulation. He is coming with the great and terrible day of the Lord.

The scribes fail to understand all of this. We are going into the book of Revelation.

Lesson #0618

Matt. 17: Life of Christ

6/15/2014 1Sunday

We have no idea how some people look, without a picture, painting, or sculpture. There are none of any Biblical character. Not one of them represents the real image of a Biblical character.

We may wonder what many of these Biblical characters looked like, but God chose to never reveal them to us. But we have the doctrines which they taught and wrote.

The Bible actually has future events for us. There is an image of Elijah on one of the Thieme booklets, but it is based upon imagination. What we know about one of the greatest prophets of history is limited by the Bible.

Elijah means Jehovah is God. This is quite a doctrinal statement. He was instrumental in turning the tide in the nation. The prophets of Baal did all kinds of things; and Elijah called upon God to bring fire down, and God did.

Like Moses, Elijah lived in the past; and he will be a prominent part of Israel's future. In the annals of the Bible, Elijah appears thrice. In his life, at the transfiguration, and a time in the future. He will be a part of God's dispensational plan.

Mal. 4:5 Behold, I am going to send you Elijah the Prophet. He will come before the coming of the great and terrible day of the Lord.

This was written centuries after Elijah. Every prophecy of the Bible has come true, just as it was stated. Those unfulfilled are yet future. If all of the previous prophecies have come to pass, wouldn't it be logical for the future prophecies to happen? The Bible is the only place where the future is known.

Peter, James and John were questioning the whole meaning of what they observed. They were expecting to see the kingdom instituted before their eyes in their lifetimes. They knew that Elijah was a herald of the future kingdom; but they also knew that the Jews had rejected Elijah. Therefore, the kingdom would not come to pass in the first advent.

So, why did Elijah show up here, but the kingdom is not coming to pass. So the disciples are perplexed about all of this.

Matt. 17:10 And the disciples asked him, "Then why do the scribes say that first Elijah must come?"

Matt. 17:11 He answered, "Elijah does come, and he will restore all things."

Elijah is still coming; and he will restore all things.

The Jews rejected the kingdom offered them by Jesus. This prophecy of Elijah is not yet completely fulfilled.

Matt. 17:12 But I tell you that Elijah has already come, and they did not recognize him, but did to him whatever they pleased. So also the Son of Man will certainly suffer at their hands."

Jesus Christ will leave the scene and be seated at the right hand of the Father. There is also the Church Age which follows, the time period during which we live.

Elijah comes at the termination of the Church Age; after the rapture. Then Elijah comes and he will reestablish the Age of Israel. Elijah is coming and he will restore and he will reestablish what was supposed to occur during the 1st advent, but will not happen until the 2nd advent.

Elijah will come first before the Great and Terrible Day of the Lord.

Mal. 4:5 Behold, I am going to send you Elijah the Prophet. He will come before the coming of the great and terrible day of the Lord.

This is especially found in the book of Daniel. He spoke of the 70 weeks, of which 69 have already taken place. There is one more week to occur. One more 7 to occur. Daniel, back in the 6th century B.C. told us to the day that Messiah would appear. This is a new dispensation connected to Israel.

Destruction comes upon gentile nations who attempt to destroy God's people. At the end of the Church Age, there is the rapture. All believers are taken up; we all go to heaven, living or dead. We will all be gone and in heaven. When the Tribulation begins, there will be no believers left. The Tribulation begins with unbelievers only.

This is at the heart of Biblical eschatology. The Bible defines this time period very well. There will be a very intense time. Elijah appears prior to a cataclysm unlike any other in world history. It is horrendous. Judgment to an extreme degree.

Can you imagine seeing every believer disappear and you refuse to believe? The gospel is available and judgment is to come.

Malachi's Prophecy

1. Malachi's prophecy is for a future time when Elijah appears.
2. That time has not yet happened. This is yet to be fulfilled. All prophecy is fulfilled exactly the way it is stated in Scripture. The great and terrible day of the Lord is on its way. All sorts of people give all sorts of ideas; and countless times it has been incorrectly pronounced. But no one knows the day or the hour. We are talking about a dispensation that we will have nothing to do with. We will be in heaven. There are those who believe that we will go through the Tribulation or half of it.
3. Israel has not yet been restored, which is a necessary occurrence for the Tribulation. Israel is not restored as a kingdom under the Lord Jesus Christ.
4. That is what the future statement is. It is coming. They don't know it yet; but the two dispensations are all wrapped up in the Age of Israel.

We have to piece everything together so that we understand what happens when Elijah is coming. We need to understand several events that will come to pass. Bobby will go through the purpose of the dispensation of the Tribulation along with the events of these tribulational events. Bobby had a pretty good instructor in this area. Bob did his master thesis on the prophecies of Joel.

Lesson #0619

Matt. 17: Life of Christ

6/15/2014 2Sunday

Bobby was thinking about the word utopia, which has been a part of the English language for a long time. Sir Thomas Moore gave it a new significance. It took on sort of a religious meaning. What we are studying debunks all human ideas about utopia. Elijah has already appeared, but he is coming at a future time. He is coming before the great and terrible day of the LORD.

Mal. 4:5 Behold, I am going to send you Elijah the Prophet. He will come before the coming of the great and terrible day of the Lord.

In this age, there has never been a time of utopia and world peace; constantly. This history of the world is the history of conflict and war. We have been a blessing to the world; but there are 50 or so wars going on right now. World peace is meaningless. We are studying about the future of the world.

The Biblical viewpoint of what is to come. Bobby cannot just take one passage and get the whole scope of eschatology. There are so many passages of Scripture which must be correlated. Daniel, Joel, Ezekiel, Jeremiah all have prophecies about the end times. And there is the book of Revelation, after the first 4 chapters.

The Tribulation is 7 years long. Elijah will occur at the beginning of the Tribulation. It is to prepare Israel to receive her Messiah and thus enter into the kingdom that He will establish. This will be perfect environment, green energy and a time of peace—only the Lord Jesus Christ can bring such a utopia to pass.

What is happening now is a peace of cake compared to what is coming.

General Introduction

1. 7 years of judgment; 1000 years of blessing.
2. There will be judgment poured out on the unbelieving world. Also to bring in a kingdom of restored believers.
3. Many gentiles will be brought to Christ. We will all be gone. All believers, living and dead, will be removed from this earth. Those who are saved during the Tribulation will then populate the Kingdom of Heaven

Bob spent at least a year on the book of Revelation.

The first period is 3.5 years. 1260 days. What happens in this period of time? In the first half of the Tribulation, God secures the services of 2 witnesses and 144,000 believers. Now there are more than 144,000 Jehovah Witnesses now, so they take that figure as being metaphorical now.

The First Half of the Tribulation

1. The Tribulation begins with unbelievers only. But some come to Jesus Christ.
2. At the beginning of the Tribulation, many believers come to Jesus Christ, because of the two witnesses. Rev. 7
3. While all of this is happening, because there are many unbelievers, a great godless authority will arise.
4. A 7-year treaty is made with Israel by an antichrist, Dan. 9. The Biblical meaning of antichrist is not just anyone who is against Christ. In the Tribulation this is a specific person. There is no antichrist in the Church Age; although there are those against Christ in the Church Age.
5. A 10 nations confederacy will arise. Dan. 7 Rev.
6. A religious economic block call Babylon will dominate. This is a national or international entities. Rev. 17:1–7, 15, 18
7. Divine judgment; the broken seals, directed toward evil in the world. The 4 horsemen of the apocalypse. Rev. 6:1–17 This is just getting warmed up.

The Middle of the Tribulation

1. Satan is thrown out of heaven and confined to the earth.
2. The antichrist will overthrow the economic bloc of Babylon and he will become the supreme dictator of the world. Rev. 17:16–17 18:1–24
3. The two witnesses are secured by the Lord. They are martyred at this time. Then they are raised from the dead and taken to heaven. Killed, raised, and ascended. We have yet to name these two witnesses. There is a pretty good indicator as to who they are.
4. The treaty made between Israel and the antichrist is broken at the half-way point and all hell is about to break loose. This will begin the Great Tribulation.

The Great Tribulation

1. Satan's authority is consolidated.
2. The kingdom of the antichrist is established.
3. In that kingdom, Satan worship is set up. Matt. 24:15 1Thess. 2:4 Rev.
4. The kingdom of Satan gains economic control over the earth. The antichrist wants to set up a utopia. They want to rule the world. Satan doesn't want wars in this world; he wants to usurp the authority of God. He can Rev. 16 redistribute wealth all that he wants.
5. Persecution of Israel will occur at an unprecedented pace. The Olivet discourse. Matt. 24 Rev. There have been great persecutions of the Jews throughout the centuries. Bobby has seen how the Jews are persecuted. There are hundreds of acres remaining of all the people they put into these death chambers. But this is nothing compared to what will happen.
6. Jer. 30:4–7 Jacob's trouble is what he calls it.
7. Then a great war will begin and this is greater than all other world wars combined. Our world wars have no comparison. Bloody and horrific battles.
8. Divine judgment intensifies. More than what is going on. Two judgments. The trumpet judgment and the bowl judgment. Rev. 15:1, 5–8
9. The whole tangle of war culminates at the plain of Esdralen. Our Lord returns at the battle of Armageddon; Jesus Christ wipes them out. Mankind does not kill as many people as Jesus does.
10. At that battle, Christ will destroy the enemies of Israel and He will then set up His promised kingdom, the one going back to David. The promises to Israel is fulfilled. The armies are converging on Israel.

Let's go back to the first 3.5 years. Now we will discuss Elijah. This begins with the appearance of the 144,000 witnesses for Jesus Christ. Matt. 17:10 These witnesses are Jews from the 12 tribes of Israel. There are no lost tribes. Those tribes are not lost. The 144,000 will come from those tribes. God knows where they are.

The cults who believe they are a part of the 144,000 the British Israelites, the Jehovah Witnesses and the Mormons. These are literal members of the original 12 tribes from the Old Testament. Therefore, they must be true Jews.

Rev 7:1 After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth, that no wind might blow on earth or sea or against any tree. Then I saw another angel ascending from the rising of the sun, with the seal of the living God, and he called with a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to harm earth and sea, saying, "Do not harm the earth or the sea or the trees, until we have sealed the servants of our God on their foreheads." And I heard the number of the sealed, 144,000, sealed from every tribe of the sons of Israel:

How did these witnesses come to recognize Jesus Christ? Elijah and Moses are involved. With Elijah, Moses, one of the greatest men. Bobby will thoroughly convince us Wednesday night.

Lesson #0620

Matt. 17: Life of Christ

6/18/2014 Wed

We are studying the eschatology of Elijah as per Malachi and the Mount of Transfiguration. Jesus made it clear after the Transfiguration and the appearance, that both of these men now have a place in the dispensation of Israel.

Elijah was going to make an appearance before the future Great and Terrible Day of the Lord. There are 400 silent years after Malachi. This was a prophecy that he made looking forward to the coming of the Messiah and beyond.

What did it all mean? What about this Great and Terrible Day of the LORD?

Daniel 9 gives us the clue as to when and how long the Day of the Lord. Daniel's 70th week gives us a time frame. This turns out to be a time of 490 years.

Daniel's Prophecy

1. Israel at the time of Daniel's prophecy was not in the land. They were prisoners of the Chaldeans in the Babylonian captivity. This is when Daniel is writing.
2. Daniel prophesies a time when Israel would return and the nation would be reestablished in the land.
3. The clock of those 490 years of the prophecy of Daniel begins to tick when Artaxerxes Longimanus wrote a decree allowing some Jews to return to Jerusalem.
4. His decree in 445 B.C. sent Nehemiah back to rebuild the walls that Nebuchadnezzar had ruined.
5. This ends the captivity of Israel by Chaldea and then by Persia.
6. That is the point when Daniel's 490 years begins. The clock begins to tick. The focal point of this prophecy is Daniel's prophecy until the Messiah.

More about Daniel's Prophecy

1. From the time of the decree of Artaxerxes to the Messiah was 483 years.
2. That is 7 years short of Daniel's prophecy.
3. At the 483 mark, Messiah will be cut off. Prophecies will be fulfilled.
4. The 483 years takes us to the exact time to the day that Jesus was crucified. Daniel prophesies 490 years until the Messiah; but Messiah is cut off at 483 years.
5. Daniel's clock for the Age of Israel stopped. Suddenly, no more ticking when Jesus was cut off. The Age of Israel came to an end.
6. 7 years are now left to the fulfillment of Daniel's prophecy.
7. What intervened after the ascension of Jesus Christ is the Church Age. We have a long period of time between the 69th and 70th weeks.
8. The last week promised to Israel at the completion of the Church Age is a 7 year period of time known as the Tribulation. At the end of this time period, the kingdom was already in line to come in. Point 11?
9. The Tribulation was the time of the Great and Terrible Day of the Lord. It is the time that Elijah will appear. Bobby says this is point 12.

The rapture occurs and then the 70th week occurs. We had a broad outline of the Great and Terrible Day of the Lord.

Two distinct divisions in this 70th week period; and it is divided right down the middle. There will be no believers at the beginning of the Tribulation. 1000's will come to Jesus because of this ministry.

The 12 tribes of Israel. Then comes the middle of the Tribulation. 1260 days. The two witnesses are martyred along with many other horrible developments. Satan worship is set up in the Temple. The 2 witnesses are raised from the dead and then taken to heaven. Rev. 11 many will see and believe.

Divine judgment will come like never seen before. The enemies of Israel are all destroyed and then Jesus sets up His kingdom and begins the Millennium.

The first appearance of the 2 witnesses and the 144,000. How did these Jewish evangelists.

Rev. 11:3 And I will grant authority to my two witnesses, and they will prophesy for 1,260 days, clothed in sackcloth."

1260 days, the first 3.5 years. These two men do return at the very beginning; and they would prophesy for 1260 days. That is the first half of the Tribulation.

Schedule of Events

1. For 3.5 years, these 2 men will be witnesses to the Jews in Jerusalem.
2. Supernatural power in Rev. 11:6

3. The character of their ministry will involve warnings.
4. There are similar warnings to John the Baptizer. Like what he said prior to Jesus' public ministry.
5. John the Baptizer was calling for repentance because the Kingdom of Heaven was at hand. It was right in their faces. He said this before he revealed that Jesus is the king. This is before the dove ascends.
6. Luke 1:76–77 John knew he would be the herald of the designated Messiah.
7. John's teaching of repentance assumed that this would precede the Messiah. Change your mind or else. This proclamation is true in the 1st and 2nd advents. The two witnesses will bring in the kingdom.

Elijah and Moses carried out certain things in this ministry. They had the power to shut up the sky so that rain would not fall during their prophecy. That is a drought. They have power over the waters to turn them into blood. Drought and no water. They would also strike the earth with every plague.

More Points

1. In the Old Testament life of Elijah, he proclaimed a judgment in 1Kings 17:1, a drought to King Ahab.
2. Ahab was an evil and apostate king, one of the worst in...he is similar to the antichrist.
3. Elijah's prayer caused...
4. an incredible time of hardship in Israel .
5. The time of the drought is the same number of yeas as the first half of the Tribulation.
6. They will preach for half of the Tribulation.
7. He could shut up the sky so that rain would not fall.
8. Parallel events; parallel to John the Baptizer's. Moses turned the water into blood; and
9. Same judgment as Rev. 12:6

Two Witness and 144,000

1. The two witnesses of the Tribulation are moses and Elijah.
2. The 144,000 of the 12 Jewish tribes were probably evangelized by Moses and Elijah because they appeared for just this purpose of evangelism and judgment.
3. After that, the 144, 000 would fulfill their mission of worldwide evangelism.

The Jewish believers come from these witnesses. This is the background.

Elijah and Moses

1. Elijah would return before the Great and Terrible Day of the Lord.

2. For 3.5 years, Elijah would warn Israel and he would show the Lord's judgment in supernatural ways.
3. Yet after this time period, the two witnesses are killed by the beast. That is another name for the antichrist. Rev. 11:7 they will kill the two witnesses.
4. At the end of that time, we begin with Great Tribulation. The two witnesses will be resurrected. Note the parallel.

Rev. 11:11-12 But after the three and a half days a breath of life from God entered them, and they stood up on their feet, and great fear fell on those who saw them. Then they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here!" And they went up to heaven in a cloud, and their enemies watched them.

They are resurrected then there is this booming voice from heaven; and their enemies watch them.

Rev 11:13 And at that hour there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell. Seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest were terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.

Clearly, Elijah's preaching of judgment finds its fulfillment in the last 1260 days.

Lesson #0621

Matt. 17: Life of Christ

6/19/2014 Thurs

Bobby's going to give us a little false theology so that we can differentiate between the truth and lies. The attack on dispensationalism.

We have gotten an overview of the final 7 years of Tribulation. This study began with the appearance of Moses and Elijah at the Transfiguration. The disciples were confused about rising from the dead and about Elijah and what he was doing there.

There are 7 years remaining of the Age of Israel. Elijah is to appear before the Great and Terrible Day of the Lord. These are the two witnesses found in Revelation.

The Age of Israel is over. Elijah and Moses will appear at the rapture of the church. We are on the elevator up and they are on the elevator down. Rev. 11:3. They will do what John the Baptizer could not do at the 1st advent. John was the herald of the Messiah and Israel rejected Jesus Christ as the Messiah.

Both witnesses are killed at the end of the 1260 days. Then the 2nd half of the Tribulation occurs, which is sometimes called the Great Tribulation and also it is called the Time of Jacob's Trouble.

Bobby has given us the dispensational view of history. After awhile, he will give us the false view. Elijah would announce judgment and he would be the herald announcing the King at the 2nd advent.

There is a literal connection of all these prophecies concerning national Israel. These prophecies that we have been studying are not directed toward the church or the Church Age. These prophecies belong only to the Age of Israel.

There is a theology which is alive and well today which uses the coming of Elijah as representative of another period of history. So, we are going to study a non-dispensational approach. There are people who have sat under Bob's ministry; and there is a wrong theology being taught by someone who came right out of Berachah Church.

They see the fulfillment of Mal. 3:5 as when Israel was attacked and dispersed. We are still in the Church Age. The nation Israel is not ruled by God. The nation of Israel is not the nation of prophecy.

There are many things going on in the middle east right now. We hear about refugees, the problems in Jordan, and the Saudis and Kuwatis are about to go crazy because they fear the radical Muslims.

The real problem is not Muslims killing each other. We are in a religious war with us. We refuse to recognize that, but they are aware of it.

The Tribulation has already passed, according to this view; they see it as already over when Israel was destroyed. Therefore, Israel has no future in the plan of God. We are in a time of post-Tribulation history. This theology interprets the Bible as metaphorical. It represents something else and then they go crazy about that.

If the Tribulation is past (it is not), then the Great and Terrible Day of the Lord is from the past. The prophecies that we have studied and the coming of Elijah was fulfilled during the 1st advent. Elijah and Moses have appeared on the Mount of Transfiguration; and the Tribulation has occurred in A.D. 70. This is why Israel is no longer a part of the plan of God.

The Conclusion of this False Theology:

1. Israel no has a future in the plan of God.
2. Israel has been judged, once and for all at the fall of Jerusalem in A.D. 70.
3. Israel will never be re-established as a nation. They will never be ruled by the King, the Messiah, who will be seated on the throne of David.
4. Israel was only representative of another entity in the plan of God. Israel represents us the church.
5. This theology calls the church spiritual Israel.
6. The church is now the recipient of all the prophecies in the Old Testament.
7. Hence there is no rapture of the church; only a 2nd advent. If there is no Tribulation and the church is spiritual Israel. Then the rapture doesn't exist because only the church remains in human history. So the church would end when the rapture occurs. The kingdom will be for spiritual Israel, the recipient of the kingdom.
8. Christ will return and rule over spiritual Israel, not over national Israel.

9. In this false view, there will be no kingdom for national Israel. God promised Abraham, "I will make a great nation of you." But this theology believes that this promise is passed along to the church.
10. The problem with this view is, God directly gave the promise of a great nation to the father of the Jewish nation and the Jewish people. God gave David a promise of a kingdom forever. The heritage of David is, his Son would sit on the throne of Israel forever. Furthermore, the New Testament painstakingly gives the lineage of David down to Jesus Christ.

But in this false view, the kingdom falls upon the church as spiritual Israel.

What Does Covenant Theology Teach?

1. They take the church and Israel as one entity. They make the whole thing the church; Israel is just a metaphor for the church.
2. This interpretation requires that ancient Israel is just an allegory. One thing is a substitute for something else.
3. An allegory is an extended narrative, which carries a second meaning along with the basic story.
4. Generally, the characters in an allegory are incarnations of abstract ideas. This means the story of national Israel represents the church. The entire history of Israel merely represents the church. The entire Old Testament is spiritualized.
5. The Old Testament is a narrative which carries a second and primary meaning along with the surface story. All of these stories are allegories to describe the church.
6. In the allegory of the Old Testament, Israel becomes an abstract idea. It is historical but the meaning is abstract.
7. It merely represents the progress of history centered in the church as a body.
8. This allegorical concept becomes the guiding principle of interpretation of the Old Testament in relation to the New Testament. If you want to interpret the New Testament rightly, then you must interpret the Old Testament as a story about the New Testament. This gets very subjective. It is very subtle and very wrong.

Why Is it Wrong

1. This approach is highly subjective. This is like writing a paper on an allegory. This allows quite a free reign.
2. This is a literary method of interpretation. Moby Dick is filled with allegory; and we interpret this in many ways.
3. The Old Testament can be interpreted based on the personal insight of the exegete.
4. This type of interpretation is not literal. The narrative itself has a literal meaning. So when God promises something to the nation Israel, then it is a promise to nation Israel. When it comes to prophecy, they get really fouled up.
5. This opens the door to all sorts of figurative interpretations. One of the major tenants of dispensationalism is that Israel and the church are separate. Covenant theology equates these.

6. The Old Testament is all a metaphor for the church. It is not to be interpreted on its own. The Old Testament is not interpreted in the time that it is written. It is just a story.
7. The primary subject of the Old Testament is no longer Israel; but that just points to the church. Literal interpretation is set aside for an allegorical interpretation.

Hermeneutic is the method of interpreting Scripture, either literally or figuratively. No thought is even given to the timing of the Old Testament. And all that is taught there is all directed to the church and not to Israel.

Old Testament Israel exists as a nation and its purpose is to reveal God's promises to Israel and not to the church. All prophecies are disregarded. It takes prophecies of Israel and places them in the church.

We have Israel, the Age of Israel; the Hypostatic Union. Then we have the church. But we have no Tribulation. When the Church Age begins, there...

A future Tribulation is removed entirely. The 2nd advent and the rapture are the same thing, because the church is spiritual Israel. Divine history moves from the Church Age directly into the Millennium. Jews, gentiles, whatever are all thrown together into the rulership by Christ.

1. This allegorical method causes great error in Biblical interpretation. It opens the Bible to a false interpretation of history, prophecy and doctrine. Since the law was given to Israel; and therefore, if Israel is the church, the Mosaic Law belongs to us. Do you see what a problem that can be? How do you reconcile the Mosaic Law with the Church Age? If you mix the Mosaic Law with doctrines of the New Testament, you have a problem.
2. The Jewish kingdom is not just postponed by the Church Age, it is eradicated. In effect, this means that God has changed His plan and His Word to the nation. Or, God's Word was never really directed to nation Israel at all but to the church. The promises of God given to historical Israel were never meant to be fulfilled by a literal, national Israel. This is all based upon a symbolic interpretation.

The Results

1. National Israel was a symbol for something else.
2. National Israel throws out the Old Testament.
3. National Israel is never really the recipient to Abraham, to David, to nation Israel.
4. Israel's covenant was always directed toward the church in this false theology.
5. In this view, the church becomes a replacement for national Israel in God's plan. So this is really replacement theology. The church has replaced national Israel completely and totally.

To ignore or to distort the words of Jesus Christ, that is to ignore and distort the very essence of Christianity and the Christian way of life. This information cannot be known apart from the Word of God. Salvation, sin, the future, and the church—all of this comes out of the Bible.

Various denominations have diverged from the Word of God. As a result, believers have not grown spiritually. The churches they attend do not teach doctrine. They are left with a humanistic religion; and many churches pander to a humanistic religion. People today, even church-goers, reject much of the Bible.

Ebrianism and Gnosticism were two early cults. Today, it may be even more confusing, because there are so many variations which have developed over the centuries. Sometimes this divergence is called the traditions of the church. All of this is an aberration of Bible doctrine. Who is to say who is right? This is the argument of those who depart from the Word of God. Using accurate interpretation allows us to know the truth.

Today there is a major doctrinal dispute within Protestantism. The high church, the Catholic Church, the Anglican Church in England and , they are far removed from the truth.

Covenant theology versus dispensational theology. The two views. Israel and the church is a distinction between these two theologies. This is where these two interpretations diverge. What is a dispensation? Sometimes we don't know the foundation of the interpretation of the Scripture. This is critical to the understanding of Scripture.

Dispensations an Introduction

1. A dispensation defines a period of human history in terms of divine revelation.
2. According to the Bible, the history of man is a sequence of divine administration. This sequence is set by God.
3. These consecutive eras reflect the unfolding of God's plan for mankind. Today, we make all kinds of mistakes about not learning what happened before.
4. Dispensations constitute the divine viewpoint of history and they engender the correct theological interpretation of history.
5. Dispensationalism is necessary in order to interpret human history in the Bible.
6. The breakdown:
 - a. It begins with Adam.
 - b. Then we have the time of the patriarchs.
 - c. Then we have Moses.
 - d. God called a people for His Own; and this is the center of history. The key is Israel.
 - e. This came to an end with the 1st advent of Jesus Christ.
 - f. The Church Age; then the rapture and the great resurrection. No one knows when this will occur.
 - g. The Millennial kingdom; and the Son of David would be on the throne of Israel forever.

Our current study is a timetable laid out by the Lord Jesus Christ. He revealed to His disciples a ticking clock which reflects the progression of God's future plan. He passes over the Church Age to go from the Age of Israel to the Tribulation. Israel has a unique place in the plan of God and the church is different from Israel. Each one has a place in the plan of God in human history.

What we are studying is Jesus speaking of the future which will come to pass. Elijah lived in the 9th century B.C. He lived during the time of Ahab, which is the most horrible king.

Elijah appears at the 1st advent as well as in human history. He was there at the transfiguration with Jesus Christ on the Mount of Transfiguration. The Day of the Lord is a distinct period of time. This will take place after the Church Age. The Tribulation will follow, and Elijah will herald the coming of the kingdom.

Elijah is being used by the Lord to define dispensational truth to His disciples. The Tribulation is a distinct dispensation.

What Is Jesus Telling the Disciples?

1. He is telling the disciples that Elijah will appear before the end of human history. How do you understand human history apart from dispensations? Elijah will come and reestablish all things.
2. The age of Israel terminated, but 7 years short of completion. So Elijah will restore the time of Israel. That will be the final week. This is when Elijah will reestablish all things.
3. It all makes sense if you understand dispensationalism. Jesus is making a sensational dispensational statement.
4. Malachi's prophecy of the appearance of Elijah was directed exclusively to Old Testament Israel during the Age of Israel. This is Israel's prophecy; it is not for anyone else. Jesus' prophecy here parallels Malachi's prophecy. These prophecies refer to the same time and the same event. Jesus says Elijah is coming again; and Malachi says that this will happen before the Great and Terrible Day of the Lord.
5. These are complimentary prophecies. Both appearances involved national Israel.
6. Jesus' statement concerning the future return of Elijah is to the future nation of Israel; that is what is restored. That reflects the fulfillment of the promise made to Abraham. It also reflects the promise to David in the Old Testament. There would be a kingdom with a descendant upon the throne of David forever.

There is a theology today called covenant theology which misinterprets these prophecies of Jesus and Malachi. We interpret these words literally; they interpret them symbolically. Israel is seen by them as a metaphor and nothing else. Instead, Israel as a metaphor is a metaphor for the church. That is what they teach. Everything is a symbol for something happening.

Some have used covenant theology as a rationale for persecuting Jews, because they are not seen as being a part of God's plan. Then they come up with stuff like calling them

Christ killers. The Bible is the opposite. The center of history and the future of the world is based upon nation Israel. But covenant theology or replacement theology does set Israel aside. This may not seem important, but this deeply affects how Scripture is interpreted and it affects ecclesiology and eschatology. This distorts the teaching of both of these areas of Bible doctrine.

Much of what the Bible has to say about the future is completely wrong in their view. 3 varieties of covenant theology and all 3 are wrong. They are all based upon Israel as never being a part of the plan of God.

There is a method of correct interpretation, and it is bound up in dispensationalism.

Lesson #0623

Matt. 17: Life of Christ

6/22/2014 2Sunday

Bobby's primary duty is to teach us the Word of God that we might grow in grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior. Secondary responsibility to protect us by teaching us what is true and what is false. There are subtleties of theology; and sometimes, it is so close, that we might not believe that there is a difference. Two major evangelical theologies; competing theologies. Covenant Theology versus Dispensational Theology. Two ways to interpret Scripture.

Bobby will give us false theology; a theology that is divergent from the theology taught in Berachah Church. This is also called replacement theology and there are 3 basic theologies under that heading.

All of these sub-topics have to do with obfuscating Israel and the church.

The Theology of Fulfillment

1. Israel's role in the plan of God terminated with the 1st advent. Israel was replaced by the primary institution of the follow-on time period. Israel disappears nationally after the 1st advent.
2. The Jew is no longer a part of the plan of God. Jewish believers are rolled into the church (and this is true in the Church Age). However, they leave out Israel in the future.
3. The Israel in the land is not the nation Israel in the Tribulation.
4. Acts 3:19–21 Repent therefore, and turn again, that your sins may be blotted out, that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord, and that he may send the Christ appointed for you, Jesus, whom heaven must receive until the time for restoring all the things about which God spoke by the mouth of his holy prophets long ago. Peter heard what Jesus taught and here he is speaking on the same topic. Peter is speaking about Old Testament prophets. Jesus will remain in heaven until the time of restoration. Peter here is speaking to Jews.
5. Old Testament prophets never predicted the church. It was completely unknown to them. They often spoke of the Millennium. Malachi and Ezekiel and Joel and Isaiah. They all prophesied about this future time. Peter's sermon takes place after the ascension of Jesus Christ. Jesus is already in heaven. The fulfillment of the prophecies concerning Israel have not come to pass. There is still prophecy waiting to be fulfilled. Peter understands that future restoration and he knows that this is all about Israel. So, why isn't this about the church? All prophecy has to do with the restoration of Israel. The fulfillment includes the Tribulation and the Millennium. "If you do not know what I am talking about, get the tape." The compilation of teaching on suffering, Bob is in rare form.

6. Peter understood what he was talking about. He understood that prophecy applied to the Age of Israel. He knew that Elijah would be there for the first 1260 days of the Tribulation. It is called the time of Jacob's trouble; it is not called the day of the churches trouble. Prophets of Israel talked about things in the future; near and far fulfillment often with the same prophecies. Nothing had to do with the church. Everything that they spoke of had to do with Israel. The promise of God to a national kingdom, these promises still stand. Peter was assuring these people that all of God's prophecies still stand and Israel still has a future. God is truthful to His Word.

The Theology of Retribution Replacement

1. This means, the church replaces Israel. Israel has no future. The church replaces Israel because of Israel's disobedience in the Old Testament and in the 1st advent. They were bad. There is correct information here, but it is false interpreted. Israel is unworthy. Thinking about that, who could be more unworthy than King David when he had sex with Bathsheba and killed her husband?
2. God has established the throne of Israel and of David forever. But in this brand of theology, that promise is now abrogated. God's immutable Word becomes conditional. You had better behave or God will hurt you bad. God's promise is conditioned upon Israel's obedience in this theology. God's promises change if man is disobedient? Maybe we should look at the Church Age and at the disobedience of the teaching to day? That is the direction this logic would take us.
3. Jer. 31:37–38 Thus says the LORD: "If the heavens above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth below can be explored, then I will cast off all the offspring of Israel for all that they have done, declares the LORD." "Behold, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when the city shall be rebuilt for the LORD from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate. If the heavens can be measured and the foundations of the earth searched out, then I will cast off the children of Israel. God is not conditional. This condition of casting off Israel is impossible. The church would be destroyed after centuries of apostasy. But this would be incompatible with God's grace. God saved us through the work of Jesus Christ. Are we sinful and are we disobedient? But does God reject us? So does it make sense that God will cast aside Israel for her disobedience? God compares the unassailable existence of Israel with that of the certainty of the laws of nature in the heavens and the earth. These laws were set in motion at creation and they continue. Bobby saw a fish the other day with "Science saves." "If you can understand everything that I know, then I will get rid of Israel." We will never fully understand all that God knows and all that He has created. Israel will never be jettisoned. Are God's promises to us abrogated because we fail? Are His promises set aside because the churches fail? This is a guarantee of the permanence of God's covenant with Israel.

4. The term spiritual Israel, that means replacement theology. It is wrong. There is no spiritual Israel; there is Israel and there is the church; and God has a plan for each. Israel will be rescued from the great and terrible Day of the Lord. Elijah will come and pronounce judgment. The parallel is all there. Israel, church, Israel. Replacement theology means, after Christ is resurrected and ascended, there is no more Israel.
5. When Jeremiah was writing and speaking, God was about to send Judah into exile because of idolatry and neglect of the Sabbath years. Nebuchadnezzar put them into slavery and dispersed them. But they returned. Israel returned to the promised land. Jer. 30:1–3 God does not let anyone get away with what Israel did; but there is no retribution.
6. Amos 3:1–2 Hear this word that the LORD has spoken against you, O people of Israel, against the whole family that I brought up out of the land of Egypt: "You only have I known of all the families of the earth; therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities. Does God un-choose someone or some nation? There is punishment for sin; but that does not remove the covenant promises to Israel; it confirms them. God will fulfill the promises. Whom the Lord loves, He disciplines. When you are born into a family, you cannot get out of it.
7. It is Israel which will be restored.

A 3rd variety of this, and we will cover that maybe Wednesday.

There are cards available of some sort of chart. There is a dispensational overtone to this appearance by Elijah. Peter, James and John were there, but they did not get what was going to happen after all this.

They expected that the kingdom would come in. The king had arrived, so the kingdom was about to happen. Elijah's appearance gave them great hope.

Elijah's appearance was brief and he was not the herald of the kingdom. "Elijah is coming and when he comes, he will restore all things." He will come after his appearance at the transfiguration. When he comes, he will announce judgment and the restoration of Israel. He will also announce the coming of the kingdom, which did not happen in the 1st advent. That is when Elijah would appear and restore all things.

Elijah would be one of the two witnesses at the beginning of the Tribulation. Adam started it all in the Age of the Gentiles.

The Age of National Israel; and that is the history of Israel.

Jesus will let the disciples know what their purpose will be in life, which will be as Apostles for the Church Age. These poor, ignorant disciples who wrote the Scriptures; the nascent church was begun by them.

The Tribulation begins after the Church Age and it completes the Age of Israel. 483 7's already accomplished; and one 7 remains.

Elijah will live for 3.5 of these years. He is one of the two witnesses who appears at the beginning of the Tribulation.

Many people believe that the Tribulation occurred in A.D. 70; but this is nothing compared to the way it is described in Revelation. Furthermore, why would there be a book of Revelation to describe something that is past?

Replacement theology; there is no future for Israel. Theology of fulfillment;

Replacement Theology

1. Israel's role in the plan of God is terminated in the 1st advent; it is replaced.
2. National Israel no longer has a future; it is all over with.
3. Therefore, all Old Testament prophecies concerning Israel should be interpreted as having been fulfilled in the person and work of the Lord Jesus Christ.
4. So in this replacement fulfillment, Israel disappears as a meaningful nation. Israel has been completely replaced by the church. Israel disappears after the 1st advent to be replaced by the church.

Acts 3:20–21 refutes this idea.

Retribution Theology

1. The church replaces Israel because Israel's disobedience and rejection made her unworthy of God's covenant blessing.

2. In this replacement variety, Israel is now under God's permanent retribution.
3. God has removed Israel from His plan because they failed. They were apostate; they rejected.
4. God takes away the covenant which He made with national Israel. The unconditional covenant becomes conditioned on obedience; which pretty much negates God's unconditional covenant.

The Bible certainly reveals punishment for Israel. Today, the Jews are still spread out all over the earth. Israel has been punished. But there is nothing to suggest that Israel's blessings have been removed.

The 3rd variety is Hermeneutical Replacement. This deals with how Scripture is interpreted. The presupposition of Biblical interpretation of how the church, eschatology and Israel are understood. Then the Bible will be interpreted with an entirely different perspective on eschatology. This changes everything. Hermeneutics makes everything allegorical. What the Bible says is literal. The flood is literal; it is not an allegory.

There is some figurative language in the Bible. Because there is figurative language does not mean that the Bible is not literal. Replacement hermeneutics decides when things are literal or no. The Bible is interpreted by replacement hermeneutics which causes us all kinds of problems when it comes to interpretation.

What is hermeneutics? We know hermeneutics as ICE (isagogics, categories and exegesis). This is the true method for all ways of interpreting the Bible. The presuppositions behind the interpretation makes all of the difference.

Isagogics is the interpretation of the Bible in the time that it was written. Scripture must be interpreted as the author intended for his audience. But the various people wrote it for the people of their time, and this needs to be taken into consideration. But the replacement people believe that these words are not intended for Israel. There needs to be distinguishing made between Israel prophecies and the things given to the church. When you assume that the church comes as a replacement for Israel, then you are in trouble when it comes to figuring out the prophecies concerning Israel.

The Bible has many things to say about parallel topics. There are not two directions which the Bible takes concerning reconciliation. Finally, there is exegesis. That involves the grammar, the syntax and the etymology of the language. The prophecy is given to Israel; that is the context.

ICE is designed to interpret the Bible literally in the time that it was written. People say, "There are a million interpretations of the Bible;" and they do not understand what the Bible has for us. We must ascertain what the meaning is. If the meaning is subjective; then scripture has no meaning.

When hermeneutics is used properly, you get the correct meaning. But replacement theology gives you a bad interpretation.

Interpreting with Hermeneutical Interpretation

1. Interpretations are often metaphoric. There is no attempt to find a literal meaning. Every verse has a literal meaning. Even with metaphorical language, there is still a literal meaning.
2. In this allegorical method, every thing about national Israel is just a spiritual representation.
3. In hermeneutical replacement, the Bible is open to a whole range of meaning like any novel. The Bible is the greatest book because it is historically accurate.
4. In literature, metaphors are interpreted many different ways. No so in the Bible. The Bible requires us to find one literal meaning from every passage; the meaning which God intends for us to find and understand.
5. A variety of meanings can be gleaned from this allegorical method rather than the one literal meaning in context that God intended. We cannot just make up stuff about what God intended for us. They find love everywhere and they discount parts of the Bible because there is no love there.
6. Israel becomes merely a type. It is a literal nation but it represents something else in God's plan.

Is Old Testament Israel Just a Type?

1. Typology is in the Bible.
2. A type is an Old Testament illustration which is divinely appointed to foreshadow some New Testament truth. Doesn't this mean that we can just interpret Israel as a type of the church?
3. There are many types of Christ's in the Old Testament: Adam, Joseph, Moses, David, Solomon.
4. What does this mean? These types of Christ are designed to bring into sharp focus the person and work of Jesus Christ to Old Testament Israel.
5. Israel itself is not a type. Individuals can be typed. Israel not.
6. Israel should not be interpreted as something else in the plan of God. Israel is pulled out of history and replaced with the church.
7. Prophecy given to Israel is not a metaphor for something else. It is not prophecy for the church. If it is metaphorical, it stands for something in the Church Age. There is no prophecy for the church except for the rapture. But replacement theology gives us many applications. The rapture and the 2nd advent end up being the same thing. We get what Israel should have. The church is thrown into the Millennium.
- 8.
9. National Israel would stand for something else, but not a nation with a future in the plan of God.
10. In this replacement, Israel stands for the church.
11. Thus Old Testament prophecy is not directed toward those to whom it is given historically; but it is a type representing some future promise to the church.

A Principle of Literal Interpretation.

1. Types are never a part of prophecy. Prophecies are prophecies.
2. Prophecies have literal fulfillments in the future. They are not metaphors for something else.
3. Their literal meanings cannot be altered based on interpreting them as types. For example, without question, Elijah is a type. He is a type of John the Baptizer. What our Lord states is true.

Israel has a national future which is separate from the church. They will end up in the Millennium; but the church will rule with Christ and Israel will be ruled by Christ. The promises are not the same.

Lesson #0626

Matt. 17: Life of Christ

7/3/2014 Thurs

Tomorrow is our celebration of freedom; and no nation in the history of the world has enjoyed more freedom than the United States. We have enjoyed freedom as no other nation has had before. We owe a profound debt of gratitude to those who have defended our freedom at home and abroad. Bible class is the greatest celebration of freedom of all.

Most of the people in this nation are slaves. They are slaves to material things; slaves to the things which they want; slaves to government. They are slaves to their own expectations and to the expectations of other people.

We are learning Biblical truth; and that is true freedom. John 8:32 You will know the truth and the truth will make you free.

As believers, we are free from the encumbrances of this world; we are free from the slavery of the sin nature. We are advancing in the freedom of the Christian life. We certainly celebrate this nation and all that we have by way of blessing. We celebrate true freedom and the freedom of independence.

Matt. 17:12 Mark 9:12

Matt. 17:11 He answered, "Elijah does come, and he will restore all things.

Elijah already came; but no one recognized him.

Matt. 17:12 But I tell you that Elijah has already come, and they did not recognize him, but did to him whatever they pleased. So also the Son of Man will certainly suffer at their hands."

These disciples just saw Elijah and Moses and the transfiguration. What on earth is the Lord talking about? When did Elijah come? To what time frame is He referring here?

They were asking about Elijah's chronological relationship to the kingdom. Why was Elijah just here? We have been talking all about this; and now, he has already come?

Elijah will return at the beginning of the Tribulation. We know that Elijah lived in the age of Israel and he has already come. What does this have to do with a future coming? The context of these verses is the 1st advent. That is the time frame in which they lived. They had kingdom expectations.

John the Baptizer had announced the King and the King came and offered the kingdom. The disciples did not expect the cross and the resurrection and the ascension. They did not realize any of this. They had expectations of the kingdom being brought about right then and there where they resided.

Jesus is saying that Elijah has already appeared before the transfiguration. So the disciples are confused about what Jesus is saying to them. Jesus is referring to Elijah, not personally, but as a type, a type which had already appeared.

A type is an Old Testament illustration which is divinely appointed to foreshadow some New Testament truth. All kinds of people were types of Christ. Their lives represented something about Jesus Christ in the New Testament. The appearance is Elijah who foreshadows a future truth/event.

Jesus is trying to teach these disciples, who know very little. They don't know anything about the crucifixion, even though Jesus has spoken of it.

How were they to understand nation Israel? How were they to understand the Jewish kingdom where the Greater Son of David would rule forever. They need to understand where they are going and where their nation is going.

The disciples needed to get a handle on God's dispensational approach to human history.

The transfiguration had just happened a few moments before. All of this was taking place as Peter, James and John were walking down the mountain. These guys were about to undergo tremendous pressure and see things which they never expected.

The Man that they followed for years was gone now; and they are left behind. Jesus surprised them. He died on the cross; He was resurrected; and then He ascended, leaving them behind.

These 11 + Paul laid the foundation for the church.

The transfiguration; when Jesus was seen in glory with Elijah and Moses. This was a look into the future. From the very beginning of creation, Jesus was God with man.

“There are some of you standing here who will not taste death until they see the Son of Man coming in His kingdom.” Elijah and Moses were a part of this future time. They saw the heralds of the kingdom; and they saw the glory of the King Himself; but they died before this all took place.

Seeing Jesus, Moses and Elijah indicated to the disciples that the kingdom was still future.

The adverb πρωτον = already. This is an appearance after Elijah's lifetime, which gives us a pretty long time frame. Elijah lived in the 9th century B.C. and they lived in the 1st century A.D.

What was Jesus talking about when He said, "Elijah has already come." And this finally got through their thick skulls. Matt. 17:13 then the disciples understood that Jesus was speaking of John the Baptizer.

The Previous Appearance of Elijah

1. John the Baptizer came in the spirit and power of Elijah.
2. John did the work of Elijah in heralding the kingdom; in heralding the Messiah.
3. John called for the nation to repent. This means to change one's mind. This is just what Elijah did. Elijah called upon nation Israel to repent.
4. John called for the remnant of Jews to believe in Jesus. And Moses and Elijah will evangelize the 144,000. Jesus will wipe out their enemies at the battle of Armageddon.
5. They were called to have faith in the King.
6. John was killed just as Elijah would be killed in the Tribulation. This is the response of the negative world.
7. Elijah will be killed; then he will be resurrected and then he will ascend to heaven before the 2nd half of the Tribulation. Elijah was the herald of the true kingdom.
8. John the Baptist was killed in the 1st advent for bringing the same message; they both gave the same message exactly.

Those are the similarities.

Elijah and John

1. Jesus Christ says that He will be treated in the same way and that will end the 1st advent. Matt. 17:12b
2. The necessity for Elijah to prophesy since the Lord would return to heaven. The kingdom was postponed. John was a type of Elijah.
3. In the age of the Hypostatic Union, John the Baptizer is a partial fulfillment of the Elijah prophecy which we have studied. These disciples heard John; and now they understand what Elijah will do. They will put this material together.
4. The kingdom did not come in the 1st advent. The church would intervene.
5. So John and Elijah's appearance at the 1st advent would not be as heralds for the kingdom.
6. Elijah will be the herald in the Tribulation.

Jesus is letting the disciples know what will happen to Him; that He will die. Elijah himself still has a heralding issue after the 1st advent.

Even though the kingdom was postponed, the disciples were encouraged, even as they entered into the Church Age. They were going into a whole new situation here. God's promise is God's promise.

This is why Jesus compares the treatment in the 1st advent with the treatment of Elijah in the 2nd advent.

Matt. 17:12 But I tell you that Elijah has already come, and they did not recognize him, but did to him whatever they pleased. So also the Son of Man will certainly suffer at their hands."

John died as the herald of the 1st advent. Elijah will die as the herald of the 2nd advent. He will be killed by the antichrist. So Jesus makes this comparison.

What Comparison?

1. Like John, Jesus will also die in the 1st advent; but His death is a substitute for all mankind. The cross must come before the crown.
2. Jesus died and He died as persecuted by the Jewish religious sect. John was sentenced by the puppet of the Roman legions.
3. Like Elijah, Jesus will be resurrected and ascend to heaven.
4. This will happen at the 1st advent and guarantee the 2nd advent; because not all has been fulfilled at the 1st advent.
5. That was the encouragement of the disciples that Israel had a future. Even though they would not live in the kingdom; they were encouraged by what Jesus Christ told them. When we think that things would not happen in our lives; and they do not seem to come to fruition. We just knew God would send us in a certain direction; and it does not happen that way. We learn this from the Word of God. We are encouraged to know. God always has a plan. We only need to fall in line. The disciples could have been quite discouraged without there being a kingdom.
6. So a 2nd advent will come to us; and now the disciples are getting ready to say, "Okay, what's next, Lord?"

This is the way that we live our lives. This will happen, unless we decide to take over with our volition. When that happens, we are off in the tulies. When you take over, it is not very relaxing. You have to fight all the time. You have to shove yourself ahead and you have to control people and your environment. That is not relaxing. I am going to take in doctrine and I will let the Lord take care of this.

They Are All Connected

7. Both were types of Christ; both would announce judgment. John in his time and Elijah in the future. The former would not come to fruition; the latter would.

8. John was the herald of the kingdom in the 1st advent, which was rejected by the Jews and so he was killed. John the Baptizer heralding of the kingdom went unfulfilled.
9. Elijah will be the fulfillment of the heralding role of John the Baptizer in the future.
10. He would announce judgment and be the herald of the 2nd advent.

Jesus has connected the 1st and 2nd advent; but He has left a gap. He has been rejected; and what is in between. The entire panorama of Old Testament prophecy. Israel rejected Jesus in the 1st advent. He will die just as Isaiah announced.

Isa. 53:3 He was despised and rejected by men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief; and as one from whom men hide their faces he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

Because of this, the disciples should have known that there would be no kingdom. He was despised and we did not esteem Him.

Isa 53:4 Surely he has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows; yet we esteemed him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted.

Isa 53:5 But he was wounded for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his stripes we are healed.

We are healed by His scourging. We are saved through the work of Jesus Christ. This is what Jesus is communicating. At the 2nd advent, a remnant will believe in Jesus. They will understand what Elijah says at the 2nd advent.

Lesson #0627

Matt. 17: Life of Christ

7/6/2014 1Sunday

Bobby's speech for good manners.

We have been studying the glorification of Jesus Christ on earth on the Mount of Transfiguration. This incident comes to a close. Our Lord's mission has changed; He must prepare His disciples to become Apostles to the church. There is not much time remaining. There is a year left in His ministry.

After coming down from the Mount of Transfiguration, He leaves His disciples for awhile. He gives them time to absorb this information and what they saw. It was a lot to comprehend.

Lately, tests have been degraded by those in the hierarchy of education. They are called unnecessary and racist. But tests are always necessary to see how much knowledge a person has gained. This is important for the teacher and for the students as well.

The disciples needed to evaluate themselves; the urgency of knowing where they stood. Bobby has never handed out a test after class. Every time we sit in the auditorium, we are taking a test. What are we getting out of this. You need to be able to evaluate the knowledge that you have gained in your own soul. Without it, there is no Christian way of life. The only way that we can know how to live the Christian life is the knowledge that we gain from the Scripture itself. It is critical here that the disciples be able to evaluate themselves. Only then, could they be confident in the mission which is before them.

Passing a test is an advance in the spiritual life. The disciples managed to flunk the test. They were good at that. They will learn the importance of an iron-clad faith and dependence upon Jesus Christ. Also, they needed to know how to use their apostolic gifts in the Church Age.

The incident takes place in Matt. 17:14–20 Mark 9 Luke 9:37

Mark 9:14 And when they came to the disciples, they saw a great crowd around them, and scribes arguing with them.

When Jesus was away, the scribes and pharisees were causing problems for the disciples.

Mark 9:15 And immediately all the crowd, when they saw him, were greatly amazed and ran up to him and greeted Him.

Mark 9:16 And He asked them, "What are you arguing about with them?"

When the disciples could not remove the demon, the scribes and pharisees tried to ruin their confidence and authority. They used logic and sarcasm.

Mark 9:17 And someone from the crowd answered him, "Teacher, I brought my son to you, for he has a spirit that makes him mute.

This man had come looking for Jesus Christ to heal his son. Since Jesus was not there, he asked the disciples to heal his son. But they were unable to do that. They were able to do this at other times.

"I brought this problem and your disciples could not help me.

Luke 9:37 On the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, a great crowd met him.

Luke 9:38 And behold, a man from the crowd cried out, "Teacher, I beg you to look at my son, for he is my only child.

His only son, and he had not given up on his boy.

Matt. 17:14 And when they came to the crowd, a man came up to him and, kneeling before him, Matt. 17:15 said, "Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is an epileptic and he suffers terribly. For often he falls into the fire, and often into the water.

Mark 9:18 And whenever it seizes him, it throws him down, and he foams and grinds his teeth and becomes rigid. So I asked your disciples to cast it out, and they were not able."

Matt. 17:16 And I brought him to your disciples, and they could not heal him."

Mark 9:19 And he answered them, "O faithless generation, how long am I to be with you? How long am I to bear with you? Bring him to me."

The source of the epileptic fit, grand mal seizure, is demon-induced. The boy is often injured after the seizure.

Luke 9:39 And behold, a spirit seizes him, and he suddenly cries out. It convulses him so that he foams at the mouth, and shatters him, and will hardly leave him.

His head does not spin around.

Demons in specific cases cause so much distress; but this reveals their power over unbelievers. However, believers cannot be demon-possessed. Demons cannot reside where God the Holy Spirit resides.

Jesus is about to come into this demon's periphery. Taken wrongly, this passage has been used to take epilepsy as always a spiritual malady. In ancient Greek culture, it was blamed on the moon goddesses. Later, it was blamed on demon possession. It was often called a sacred disease.

Epilepsy was blamed at least until the 17th century and beyond. Sometimes exorcisms were performed to remove the demons. Some epileptics have been executed because the seizures would not stop. The person was seen as hopeless.

In history, many famous people were epileptic. Julius Caesar for one. Some cultures considered this to be a sign of power. Adolph Hitler may have been demon-possessed, based upon some things he exhibited in his later life. He foamed at the mouth when speaking in anger; but he was not an epileptic. He understood power very well. He took power over 60 million people with just a handful of people. This is what happens when a handful of radicals seizes control. It does not take much to make them very subservient to evil.

This does help to explain how Hitler gained so much power in such a short time.

Don't become a demon-finder. Do not search out demon possession in our leaders.

The point of this is the power of Jesus Christ; and the power of the demon.

Epilepsy is a neurological disorder; some are violent and some are not. Some you cannot even tell that person is having a seizure. It is revealed in Scripture that this can be a possibility of demon possession; but it is not always the case.

Demons can cause all kinds of physical ailments.

The Power of Demons over the Health of People no amount of sleep, medication or diet can help

1. Luke 13:11, 16 a woman had a disease for 18 years due to demon possession.
2. Satan uses demons to produce disease. Jesus casts them out to demonstrate His power and Messiahship. Acts 10:38
3. Abnormal behavior and psychosis. Mark 5
4. Certain kinds of deafness, muteness, paralysis can be attributed to demon possession. Matt. 12:22 Mark 5:5
5. When demon possession causes illness, removal of the demon causes healing. The only people to remove a demon are the Lord Jesus Christ and the 12 Apostles.

The Bible never uses the word exorcism, even though there is a Greek word for that. Man has no power over the demonic. We have defenses against the demonic. Eph. 5 describe our defenses. #1 on the list is the intake of Bible doctrine.

Lesson #0628

Matt. 17: Life of Christ

7/6/2014 2Sunday

Bobby has seen some bizarre behavior; but could not clearly say that he has seen anyone who is demon-possessed. People are not demon-possessed for no reason. Satan has a plan and purpose; it is called the cosmic system. Satan is alive and well with his demon army.

Our defense is found in Eph. 6

We are continuing with the seizure that the young boy had, who is demon-possessed.

Luke 9:40 And I begged your disciples to cast it out, but they could not."

The inference was that Jesus was unable; because His disciples were ineffective, and that reflects upon Him.

9 disciples arguing with the scribes; and Peter, James and John come down from the mountain; and they know that all of our Lord's claims are true.

They had no doubts as to the power and identify of the Lord Jesus Christ. The other disciples had not seen what these had seen. The other disciples needed some reassurance. Why could they not do now what they could do before?

They should have been able to cast this demon out without any reassurance. But they did have a problem. These men had a crisis of faith; that was their problem. We should be able to take what happened to them and apply that to us. Spend a little time away from Bible doctrine, focused somewhere else; and mixed up priorities will take away your focus. There can result from this a crisis of faith.

This terminology is used a lot. A crisis of faith is not believing in the doctrines presented to you; the doctrines by which you live. The doctrines which form the basis of your life. You life is going south when it should be going north.

They already had the verbal assurance of Jesus Christ. "I am sending you guys out to be my representatives; you can heal, you can show supernatural power." This is all that they needed. Jesus said it and that is enough. But they failed in their faith in the words of Jesus Christ. There was no excuse for this. They had heard over and over again the power of the word of Jesus Christ. They had observed miracle after miracle when Jesus simply spoke. "Do what I have done;" and that should have been enough.

Peter compared his vision at the Mount of Transfiguration to the words of Jesus Christ. The words of Jesus Christ are even more powerful. 2Peter 1:15–21 describing the power of the word of the Lord Jesus Christ.

The Practical Application.

1. Every believer has the divinely inspired Word of God. We all have that. 2Peter 1:21
2. Using the Word of God, which is the Bible, all believers can have the same mountain-top experience of Peter, James and John. They saw His power and divinity on the mountain top.
3. The Word of God is sufficient if understood and believed.
4. Experience is not necessary to have assurance in the power of God. People want to see great power of God, the Holy Spirit moving amongst them; they want to see someone healed; they want to see something spectacular. The power is in God's Word. You do not need the assurance of anything.
5. Heb. 11:1 Faith is the assurance of things unseen. There is an assurance of things that you cannot see. That faith is required today. It is not blind faith. That means there is no basis for what you believe; you want to believe it, and that is all there is to it. There is no evidence of that.

The Word of God is evidence of all those things that we need to know about God. The other disciples had the word of Christ, so they could have accomplished the healing, but they failed.

Luke 9:41 Jesus answered, "O faithless and twisted generation, how long am I to be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here."

"How long do I have to put up with you?" You need inflection sometimes to be able understand what is involved here. Jesus is a little bit mad right here. "You perverted generation; I am sick and tired of you." The disciples were failing here as well. The scribes have questioned the authority that belonged to the Lord Jesus Christ. The demonstration of that authority became the test of the disciples as His representatives.

The scribes associated Jesus with failure; because the disciples had failed. The scribes could not do any of this. They could not cast any demon out.

“I will give you only this sign: the sign of Jonah. When you see this sign, you will know I am the Messiah.”

Now they are claiming, if we see this sign, we will be convinced. But they had seen so many signs and they did not believe. Their perversion is a lack of faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. That is perversion. What frustration for Him to produce so many signs, and people had no faith after seeing these things.

There was nothing more that He could say or do to get to the hearts of this negative volition. Some of us are stunned that someone can live life without Jesus Christ and without the power of His Word. The power of negative volition, the power of rejection, is phenomenal. This is as powerful as Satan himself. Satan looked right into the face of God and said, “No.” Nothing and no one can convince them otherwise.

Bobby was talking about those who are converted late in life. They reject Jesus for a long time. It is never hopeless as long as someone is alive.

There are people in the auditorium who rejected our Lord for years; and, at some point, they saw the importance of Jesus Christ and the importance of the Word of God.

“How long will I be with you? How long will I have to put up with you?”

Luke 9:42 While He was coming, the demon threw him to the ground and convulsed him. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit and healed the boy, and gave him back to his father.

The demon immediately slammed the boy to the ground and caused him to go into convulsions. This differentiates between divine power and the power of the demonic. The power of demons is ineffectual before Jesus Christ. The best demons can do is to throw this boy into a convulsion. That is all he could do.

This boy had been in this condition since early childhood. An unbeliever does not have to be an adult to be demon-possessed. This young boy had been demon-possessed.

Why would a little boy be demon-possessed? This is always to show the power of the demonic. It may have been building up to this moment where the boy is before these disciples and they cannot cast the demon out. The people there knew that this boy had been possessed from an early age.

The demon threw the boy into water or into the fire to harm him.

Mark 9:20 And they brought the boy to him. And when the spirit saw him, immediately it convulsed the boy, and he fell on the ground and rolled about, foaming at the mouth.

Mark 9:21 And Jesus asked his father, "How long has this been happening to him?" And he said, "From childhood.

Mark 9:22 And it has often cast him into fire and into water, to destroy him. But if you can do anything, have compassion on us and help us."

There is still the same urgency to take in doctrine. Do not take it for granted that you can show up at any time for Bible class and you will get what you need. You need doctrine daily.

The disciples will take a test and they will flunk this test; but that will accelerate their urgency to learn. We have tests all of the time; we can pass those tests if we use the Bible doctrine in our souls. We run into adversity and we fall to pieces. If you have neglected to grow, you cannot handle all of the adversity in your life.

God tests us where we should be able to handle it and we don't. We need to know where our resources lie.

Jesus takes a short hiatus for Himself and then He reappears to the disciples, the ones who saw the transfiguration and those who did not.

Luke 9:37 On the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, a great crowd met him.

The disciples had delegated power. But they could not cast out the demon from this boy. And they were perplexed by this.

Mark 9:15 And immediately all the crowd, when they saw him, were greatly amazed and ran up to him and greeted him.

Mark 9:16 And he asked them, "What are you arguing about with them?"

Luke 9:38 And behold, a man from the crowd cried out, "Teacher, I beg you to look at my son, for he is my only child.

He addresses the Lord as some kind of a healer; and he had expectations and those expectations had not been met. All they can do is react.

If you are a teacher and you deal with a parent of a failing student, you know how hard they are to deal with.

"He is my only boy."

Matt. 17:14 And when they came to the crowd, a man came up to him and, kneeling before him,

Demon-induced epileptic seizure. This is what a grand mal seizure looks like.

Matt. 17:15 said, "Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is an epileptic and he suffers terribly. For often he falls into the fire, and often into the water.

This is not the normal medical problem; the synapses of the brain misfire and go off out of sequence.

Luke 9:39 And behold, a spirit seizes him, and he suddenly cries out. It convulses him so that he foams at the mouth, and shatters him, and will hardly leave him.

Mark 9:17 And someone from the crowd answered him, "Teacher, I brought my son to you, for he has a spirit that makes him mute.

However, the disciples were unable to help this boy.

Luke 9:40 And I begged your disciples to cast it out, but they could not."

The dispute is, these disciples are unable to do it; therefore, they do not really represent God.

Jesus seems exasperated at this point. "How much longer did I need to put up with you? The disciples saw many miracles; and it did not seem to get to their thick heads. They still said "no."

However, His time on earth was short. Jesus would not be around much longer.

Luke 9:41 Jesus answered, "O faithless and twisted generation, how long am I to be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here."

The Church Age is looming large in their near future; although they do not get that yet. Jesus is tired of these people constantly fighting Him; they should be ready and they are still dumb.

Luke 9:42 While he was coming, the demon threw him to the ground and convulsed him. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit and healed the boy, and gave him back to his father.

The demon throws the boy into a seizure. He presents the same challenge as he did to the disciples. The demon has already defeated the disciples.

Luke 9:43 And all were astonished at the majesty of God. But while they were all marveling at everything he was doing, Jesus said to his disciples,

The father wonders if Jesus is able to do anything on his behalf.

Mark 9:22 And it has often cast him into fire and into water, to destroy him. But if you can do anything, have compassion on us and help us."

Is Jesus able to help him? And is He willing to help him? But coming to Jesus indicates that the father is willing to believe. He is demonstrating positive volition. He wants to believe; he wants a miracle. There are many seeking salvation and truth; something other than humanism and whatever else they see in this world.

He will present Himself and the gospel, in one way or another. You can trace the progression from a person's desire to how that desire was fulfilled. There is one common thread.

You must get a hearing and you do. The man says in this passage:

Mark 9:22 And it has often cast him into fire and into water, to destroy him. But if you can do anything, have compassion on us and help us."

Maybe you can and maybe you cannot. Worse case scenario; maybe You cannot help me here. He knew that Jesus was known for these cures; but he is unsure. But he uses a 1st class condition. Isn't the condition of reality?

But this man does not have negative volition toward Jesus. Some people want this mountain-top experience. Then they will know it is okay to place their faith in Jesus Christ.

We will go through the understanding of what faith is and what it means to us.

Jesus knew what was going on in his mind.

Mark 9:23 And Jesus said to him, "If you can! All things are possible for one who believes."

"It's got to be proven to me." But it is simply a change of mind; it is simply a change of thought process. Later, Jesus will say, "All the faith you need is a bit of a mustard seed."

"Can You do this?" and Jesus says, "Yes, I can do this." But he does not do the miracle. He needs something from this man before He heals the son.

What Is Jesus' Purpose Here?

1. His purpose is to turn the responsibility for the healing to the father.
2. He makes the healing of the demon-possessed boy contingent upon the faith of his father. He has to believe in Jesus.
3. In other words, the healing is entirely possible; Jesus assures the man that he can do it. But He will not act apart from this man exercising faith in Him . The man's malady is the lack of salvation. He is spiritually dead. The son and the father have problems. These problems cannot be solved by man; only by God.

There Is a Cure

1. The boy can be physically cured by Jesus; we have seen it before. The demons cannot resist the power of God; and we have the power of God and His Word. We have the only sure defense against the cosmic system.
2. Likewise, the father can be spiritually healed; he must have one act of faith. That is the point here.

3. The physical healing of the boy is the picture of spiritual healing in the father; and this is the picture of how it occurs for everybody.
4. A little faith expressed by the man and his son is healed and he is healed from his sinful condition. A little faith and they can do anything. But these disciples could not even cast out a single demon.
5. The healing of the son's physical condition represents the healing of the man for salvation.
6. Faith is what Jesus Christ is waiting for. He is waiting for that. Then and only then can He perform the miracle of healing the boy. More importantly, the healing of the man who expressed the faith in the first place.

Without faith, there is no salvation; and, in this case, no healing.

What Is the Principle Here?

1. The sovereignty of God and the free will of man co-exist.
2. Both sovereignty and faith are a part of the salvation package. In Calvinism, it is all about the sovereignty of God.
3. God decreed in eternity past to send Jesus Christ to provide eternal life for mankind. This was decreed even before the world began. Once God declares it, it is done.
4. That was His sovereign decision expressed in the divine decree. But He did not decree who would be saved.
5. Man must accept God's gracious gift through non-meritorious faith in Christ alone. It can never be by any works alone.
6. Then man is healed. That is what the father of the demon-possessed boy must do. The boy is the picture of what will happen to the father.
7. God does the work but man's volition must be a part of it. It cannot be faith in nothing; it is not some weird mystical faith. What is Jesus doing? He is saying, "I can accomplish what you want me to do. I have done it in the past. I will do it for you. Now, first, believe." People have faith in all kinds of things that they have no reason to have faith. Faith placed in the Lord Jesus Christ is faith.
8. Faith is the acceptance of what God has done on our behalf. This is a perfect picture of man's inability put together with God's power. First and foremost is the work of the Lord Jesus Christ. A tiny faith in Christ is enough. Just a little spark. "I know what He did and I accept it."

The power of God performs the greatest miracle of giving eternal life. But there is no merit in the believing. Man's inability disappears with God's power.

This is why Jesus requires faith from the man. This man cannot demand that Jesus do anything. The only option given is, this man must have faith; and Jesus Christ does the rest. The miracle of healing will take place.

Basic subject tonite; and one of the most misunderstood subject. People can never seem to understand the concept of faith. What is required for saving faith?

A test of faith is being presented by the Lord Jesus Christ in the incident of the father with the demon-possessed son. This is difficult for a father where this is the man's only son. The son is in terrible condition. He has seriously epilepsy which is demon-induced.

Mark 9:17 And someone from the crowd answered him, "Teacher, I brought my son to you, for he has a spirit that makes him mute.

Mark 9:18 And whenever it seizes him, it throws him down, and he foams and grinds his teeth and becomes rigid. So I asked your disciples to cast it out, and they were not able."

Describes what the demon was. The disciples tried to cast the demon out, but without any success. The scribes and pharisees mocked the disciples just as the demon was mocking them.

The father does find and meet Jesus Christ and he approaches Him, but with some reservations. He is uncertain whether Jesus is really capable of delivering his son.

"If you can do anything—take pity on us; help us." He has positive volition; but he is questioning the power of Jesus Christ. Jesus makes it clear that the father must exercise faith himself. The Lord will transfer the responsibility for the healing of the child to the father. This is a condition which must be met before the boy is healed. Jesus Christ makes both healings contingent upon faith in Jesus Christ. Faith is involved in both issues. The faith expressed is non meritorious. Faith that is efficacious is non-meritorious. The failure of man is the lack of faith in God and His workings. A tiny faith in Christ is enough. The father can only express faith for healing and nothing else. He has no other options here. Faith is the only approach that will save his son. Once he expresses this faith, then Jesus does the rest. The disciples are in bad shape too. They do not understand this doctrine completely either. They need to grow spiritually, and that requires faith as well.

Introductory Points

1. Their current lack of faith is a huge problem; it keeps them from advancing and keeps them from performing the mission before them.
2. Lack of faith is why they could not heal this young son.
3. They have demonstrated that they do not have enough faith for the task.
4. They have also demonstrated at this point that they cannot erformed the... the Holy Spirit transfers the doctrine which they believe and this start to grow. The rig ht lobe is where the information must end up.

The faith of the disciples must grow, so that they will grow spiritually. Jesus is throwing more doctrine at them than they can assimilate, at this time. But Jesus does not have a lot of time.

He trusts that Jesus can heal his helpless and lost condition, which is spiritual death. The person believes in the efficacy of the work of salvation. Faith requires an object. The content of faith is Jesus Christ. But the catch is, the man says, "Help me with my unbelief." Any person with unbelief needs help with his faith. The faith has a lot

The operation Z for the unbeliever. He hears that he must have faith. The Holy Spirit must act as the human spirit. This is the help that the faith needs. The Holy Spirit stands in for our human spirit, an asset which we lack at salvation. The Holy Spirit makes the gospel understandable to the unbeliever. If there is no faith, then salvation cannot occur. But the Holy Spirit automatically transfers this to the soul of the unbeliever. What happens to it in the soul? The soul is where the volition of the individual resides. There must be positive volition. The gospel is there. The Holy Spirit makes it clear. Once there is positive volition faith expressed in the soul, the Holy Spirit makes that faith effective for salvation. It is not the faith that saves us. It is that faith which is necessary. The result is regeneration. The work of the Holy Spirit.

Calvinism takes the positive volition of faith and makes it inevitable. It is decreed in eternity past. Faith and positive volition really become irrelevant, for all intents and purposes. The one who expresses faith in Jesus Christ is assured of salvation, because the Holy Spirit acts upon that salvation. The gospel is understood by the unbeliever. No works are necessary to verify the healing moment of God on the soul of the unbeliever. We are no longer spiritually dead. Faith is not a work. There is no merit in faith; all of the merit is in faith. Only a tiny amount of faith is necessary. A little more faith than none at all. All that is required as a mustard seed of faith. This should help to relieve many of us about our loved ones and relatives.

Man does not verify anything with his own works. Good works do not verify salvation or living the Christian life. You cannot see faith; faith is a function of the brain.

The father realizes how his lack of faith has blocked the healing of the son; he had been swayed by the arguments of the disciples with the scribes. The scribes raised up false issues.

Mark 9:23 And Jesus said to him, "If you can! All things are possible for one who believes."

Let's say you are witnessing to someone and they say, "Is the Bible really the Word of God?" There is often confusion, which is the objective of Satan. The man finally got it and he believed in Jesus Christ.

Mark 9:24 Immediately the father of the child cried out and said, "I believe; help my unbelief!"

Why Did He Say, "Help My Unbelief."

1. This was an expression of his struggling soul.
2. This does not mean peace of soul or the assurance of salvation. This man may know that he believed in Jesus Christ. He also says, "Help me." That does not mean there is any peace of soul.

3. Doctrine must take hold of the soul in order for the person to
4. He needs to operate under the faith-rest technique. At this point, he needs a few promises; a little faith rest.
5. This man has believed in Christ by faith, but he knows that he has a long ways to go and he needs divine help. Are the disciples watching and listening? This father is their faith lesson.

Now Jesus responds.

These are illnesses brought on by demon possession. However, we do not know who is possessed and who is not. There are many who might seem that way.

Mark 9:25 And when Jesus saw that a crowd came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, "You mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him and never enter him again."

Mark 9:26 And after crying out and convulsing him terribly, it came out, and the boy was like a corpse, so that most of them said, "He is dead."

the demon resisted his departure to the full extend of his power. He himself goes on the ground.

As believers we have nothing to fear from the world of demonism. This world is real but we have no reason to fear it. God has provided defense against demons; and that is called the armor of God.

After a seizure, a sufferer has to recover. He is out and he does not come back easily. He is very disoriented upon his return. It takes awhile for the brain to reorient to the surroundings. They sometimes don't know their own name. There is often physical exhaustion from the contraction of all the muscles. The boy had convulsed so hard, that he appeared to be even dead.

In this case, when Jesus healed him, the boy recovered completely. This would be a second miracle. An instant recovery is a miracle.

Mark 9:27 But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up, and he arose.

The Meaning of the Healing of the Boy

1. Since the boy seemed to be dead, his instantaneous recovery was like a resurrection. No lag time.
2. This was a visual example for the disciples to understand the coming resurrection of Jesus Christ. 3 of the disciples had questions about the resurrection. They did not understand resurrection. They did not understand faith, the cross or resurrection. This is a graphic picture for them.
3. They were unsure as to what His resurrection meant.

4. This showed that God's power over resurrection and that it was complete.
5. The grave had no power over Jesus Christ.
6. Thus was affirmed the permanence of the new eternal life that Jesus brought to man. You can see that this boy's seizures was a teaching aide for His disciples.
7. The father takes the boy back as if from the dead. God will do the same thing for us. We are just like the boy.

There is still more that the disciples need to know. They need to find out exactly what happened here. Jesus will tell them why they could not do it.

Lesson #0631

Matt. 17: Life of Christ

7/13/2014 1Sunday

Communion Sunday July 13, 2014

God is free of all unrighteousness.

God cannot set aside His righteousness or His justice. God must maintain righteousness so that He does not destroy His perfect character. We are sinful; we are helpless; we cannot attain the righteousness which God requires of us. Sin is any violation of the standards of God; sin is contrary to the character of God. It is a failure to live up to what God requires of us. Because of His perfect righteousness, God can have no contact with sin. Sin is what eternally separates us from God. God cannot have anything to do with sinful man.

It was the first man who got us into this mess. He revolted against God's authority in the garden. He sinned and was utterly corrupted by the one sin. He died spiritually at the very moment of his insubordination. Yet, he remained alive. He previously had an intimate, personal relationship with God; and this was taken from him. Adam was defined by total depravity. By his own volition, Adam acquired a sin nature. The sin nature is the source of all deviation and rejection of divine law and divine standards. This is also called the old man and the flesh. The sin nature as the center of rebellion against God is inherent in man and it affects all that man is and all that man does.

We are all descended from Adam. Because of this genetic kinship, we all arrive in this world with Adam's inherent damage. God imputes Adam's original sin to every person who is born into this world. All mankind is born in Adam's mold. His sin nature affects the entire cell structure of our bodies. It is the source of our defective nature. We are born physically alive but spiritually dead. All sinned when Adam sinned. Without this imputation of Adam's sin, there is no salvation for us.

Man therefore has a predisposition to sin personally. While the sin nature is the cause of the desire to sin, our volition is the source of our responsibility for choosing to sin. We use this free will to sin and we use this free will to believe in Jesus Christ. We are incapable of performing any work and any sacrifice or anything which would establish our righteousness with God.

When Adam sinned, God made a promise. From the very beginning of man's fall, God offered a solution to this fall. Gen. 3:15, the proto-evangel, which prophesies about the seed of the woman. The Seed of the Woman is the first Messianic title.

Enter Jesus Christ, the only perfect human being Who has ever lived. He broke the mold of Adam and He is the only hope of the human race. If by the transgression of one, many died; much more the grace of the one man abound to the human race.

God had to have a righteous person to substitute for sinful man. We have no other way of approaching God. He was the perfect payment for penalty for mankind. In Adam all die; but in Christ shall all be made alive. Jesus was an acceptable sacrifice from the moment that He was born; and He had to maintain this perfection all of His life.

Only Jesus could remove the barrier between us and God. God the Father imputed to God the Son the sins of us all. He took upon Himself the penalty of the sins for all of us. Because Christ was judged for the sins of all mankind, redemption for sin is now available to all mankind. Christ, Who gave Himself, as a ransom for all. Man no longer has a sin problem which separates Him from God. We can be forgiven of all sins, in the past; and those that we will commit in the future. In Adam we all die.

Walking away from the slave market of sin takes one act of positive volition on our part. We walk away from the slave market of sin by our own volition; and we remain there by our own volition. Redemption is freely provided and we need only accept His gift of freedom.

At the moment that we believe in Christ, the penalty for sin is replaced by eternal life. We now have a permanent relationship with God, including a reservation in heaven forever.

A brand new book at the R. B. Thieme, Jr. library. A book about the great search of happiness; The Pursuit of Happiness. When people complain about everything, there is no happiness in life. Usually, they look for better circumstances. Circumstances provide only temporary stimulation; but the basis for happiness is Bible doctrine. Several boxes in there.

Second announcement no Bible class 23rd or 24th of July. Bobby will be in Tennessee.

We have been studying the miracle of the demon-possessed epileptic boy. Mark 9:25–27

Bobby introduces this briefly. We need to know about faith. A crowd rapid was gathering; and He had rebuked the demon. He commanded the spirit to leave and to not go back into the boy. The demon cried out and threw the boy into terrible convulsions. The boy appeared to be dead. Jesus took him by the hand and raised him up, a picture of resurrection. Those who were there connected this miracle with God, but if they were unbelievers, they did not connect this to Jesus as God.

This miracle was performed as a lesson to the disciples. He performed miracles as a credential for His Messiahship; but here, this was to teach His disciples.

The disciples needed to learn the importance of faith; they were bereft of the faith needed to live the spiritual life. They needed to learn about the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. They were not prepared for that; they did not understand it. We will study the faith-lesson to the disciples.

Lesson #0632

Matt. 17: Life of Christ

7/13/2014 2Sunday

Mark 9:28 And when he had entered the house, his disciples asked him privately, "Why could we not cast it out?"

The disciples had healed and they had cast out demons before; and their question was, why did we fail this time around?

Matt. 17:20 He said to them, "Because of your little faith. For truly, I say to you, if you have faith like a grain of mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move, and nothing will be impossible for you."

Matt. 17:21 [But this kind never comes out except by prayer and fasting.] This text appears to be in error and does not belong here. This muddles the meaning.

The Mark text is legitimate. The word fasting should not be here.

Mark 9:29 And he said to them, "This kind cannot be driven out by anything but prayer."

Prayer is valid in this case; but fasting is not legitimate. Fasting got an increasing popularity in the early church; the pharisees loved to fast and it made them feel very holy by doing so. Prayer is obviously a critical part of the spiritual life.

We should pray regularly; and the more we can pray, the more power that we have over events and life. Prayer is a grace function. We are speaking to God where He lives. So we stand before the throne of grace in heaven, speaking to the Lord. It was a valid and necessary activity for the disciples in order to remove the demon. This would be calling upon the Lord. This calls upon the power of God to answer the prayer. There was nothing that the disciples could do. The prayer demonstrated all who observed that it was not the disciples on their own doing the healing. The disciples had access to God's grace and power. This asking pointed to the source of the gift and power. It took away any power and glory which would be seen as falling upon the disciples. It points to God, not to the disciples. Prayer pointed to the source.

There is also the topic of faith in this passage, and these guys needed to learn that lesson. Faith was their key to moving mountains. This included casting out demons from the demon-possessed boy.

Jesus did not mean that we could pick up a mountain and move it from point A to point B; this is hyperbole. There is great strength here; that is the point. Nothing would be impossible for us in accomplishing God's plan.

Demons have much more power than any human being. Those men had more gifts and more power than any person who lived. Demons cannot be defeated apart from the power of God. There must be faith in that power exercised.

Today, we no longer have that gift to cast out demons. The disciples and Apostles had this. But once they passed from the scene, there was no more need for that. But today, we have all kinds of exorcists who go through all kinds of things in order to cast out demons. There is no spiritual gift in this area any more.

We, as believers, can resist and defeat the power of Satan in a defensive mode. That comes from faith in Bible doctrine. The disciples had faith in their own ability; but that is the failure of any believer.

We have defensive weapons for dealing with demons:

Eph. 6:10 Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the strength of his might.

Eph. 6:11 Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the schemes of the devil.

Eph. 6:12 For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places.

Eph. 6:13 Therefore take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand firm.

Eph. 6:14 Stand therefore, having fastened on the belt of truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness,

Eph. 6:15 and, as shoes for your feet, having put on the readiness given by the gospel of peace.

Eph. 6:16 In all circumstances take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming darts of the evil one;

Eph. 6:17 and take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God,

Eph. 6:18 praying at all times in the Spirit, with all prayer and supplication. To that end keep alert with all perseverance, making supplication for all the saints,

The book the Angelic Conflict deals with this passage in detail.

Putting on the armor is done by inculcating truth into the soul. The faith necessary for living the spiritual life.

The problem of the disciples in this passage was the littleness of their faith.

Matt. 17:20 He said to them, "Because of your little faith. For truly, I say to you, if you have faith like a grain of mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move, and nothing will be impossible for you."

Faith

1. We are not talking about blind faith.
2. There is a perception of a reality. Faith is as much a way of perceiving the world accurately as any other way of perceiving the world.
3. Faith is the 3rd way of perception, after rationalism and observation. It is not incompatible with these other methods. It is used hand in hand with those other methods of perception.
4. Faith does not preclude logic nor does it preclude hearing the truth of God's Word and accepting its premises. God's Word is logical and there is an empiricism built in to God's Word. Jesus led a real life; He was a real person. This is an historical reality.
5. Faith includes confidence in the authority and the veracity of someone who is trustworthy. Real faith is not blind; real faith has a substantive object. None of us have been to a distant planet and we may have a tremendous imagination; but we have not actually been there. But we all believe that there are distant planets; and we believe it by faith. We believe that they exist based on the authority of some astronomer who claims to have seen this by telescope. You know it is true; you are convinced it is true; and it is based upon a fact that it is true.
6. In this passage, the authority is divine. There is no greater authority. It is faith in the power of God as seen through the works and words of Jesus Christ. What does the Scripture say about God? What does it say about Jesus? This is all based upon the fact that Jesus did what He was observed to do.
7. Jesus Christ is an entirely trustworthy object of faith. You never misplace your faith in Him. You might have faith in another person; but true faith is best placed in Jesus Christ. People you have faith in might screw you over.
8. Real faith, belief in the unseen, must be based upon some factual evidence, and not upon an estimate based upon little or no information. Jesus Christ and His works and His power were proven over and over again during His incarnation. They witnessed these things; these were facts. Faith in Him is not misguided or blind faith. There is a true foundation based upon empirical evidence. Their faith in Jesus Christ was based upon tangible and observable evidence. However, this is no longer available to us. Jesus is no less factual today than He was 2000 years ago. His resurrection is true and we can have faith in that resurrection, an observable fact. That is not blind faith. Faith brings confidence when it is based in reality. That is faith based in fact, even though the object of our faith is unseen. Faith is the assurance of things unseen.

Jesus was seen after the resurrection by hundreds of people. Christ has made it complete. The second faith is that of the believer in the Christian life. That faith is perception and belief in the doctrines, grace and ability of God.

4 eyewitnesses or close to eyewitnesses wrote down what they remembered. Their writings all agree in substance and without contradiction.

The object of the faith of the believer is the mind of Christ; the words of Jesus Christ; and the teaching of the Apostles.

Doctrine goes from being academic knowledge to applicable knowledge in our life. Faith has to have an object; and our faith is in the Bible. Faith in Christ is not based upon myth, legend, made-up stories, wishful thinking, on emotion, or on psychological needs. We have the most assured faith that there is. We have confidence. We know that our faith in Jesus Christ is never misplaced. However, like the disciples, we can have a littleness of faith.

Our faith has substance. It is not the faith of Islam or of Buddhism or on the blind faith of evolution.

Lesson #0633

Matt. 17: Life of Christ

7/16/2014 Wed

The disciples were unable to cast the demon out of the boy and they did not understand why this was a problem, because this is something that they had done before. So they were in a bit of a bad way at this point. They looked like fools, and the pharisees made hay over this.

They wanted to get away from the crowd and ask Jesus what had happened.

Matt. 17:19 Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, "Why could we not cast it out?"

Matt. 17:20 He said to them, "Because of your little faith. For truly, I say to you, if you have faith like a grain of mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move, and nothing will be impossible for you."

This is not much faith at all. A big result for not much faith. The big thing happens with just a little faith. This does not mean that you will move Mount Herman to the other side of the Jordan.

Their faith would accomplish great and wonderful things.

Mark 9:29 And he said to them, "This kind cannot be driven out by anything but prayer."

They were apparently giving no credit to the source of the miracles. They needed to show Who was in charge.

Faith would be key to these men in their lifetime.

Faith

1. The faith that Jesus Christ is speaking of is a system of perception of reality. This is not something whimsical.

2. Faith-perception determines reality and is place trust in a trustworthy person.
3. Faith-perception should be based upon evidence of what is believed. Faith still requires a trustworthy authority.
4. True faith is not based upon myth, legend, on theories, imagination, in dreams, in emotion, or in some psychological need. But that is not real faith; that is blind faith.
5. The faith perception of reality is based upon His authority and his veracity. Jesus Christ and His works and His power are the basis for our faith. Miracle after miracle; things that no other person could do. The fulfillment of all that prophecy. And never a sin; never a mistake. There was visible proof of Who this was.

Faith Part II

1. The faith that the disciples placed in the Lord Jesus Christ is based upon the factual evidence which they have observed.
2. The logical conclusion that they make is, Jesus Christ is God and man; He is the Messiah and He is the Savior. His claim is based upon His Person and His work; and they have seen this with their own eyes. It is grounded in truth. It is not based on things that they have not seen. These men are eyewitnesses to this. This is as real and as factual as things which occurred 2000 years ago. This faith is not misguided. There is a factual foundation. This is based upon the true and factual works and Person of Jesus Christ; they based their faith upon what they saw. Who in the human race could cast out a demon? No person has more power than the demons. People cannot tell demons what to do; unless Jesus has delegated this sort of power to them.

Faith Alone in Christ Alone

1. A person has faith in Jesus Christ to save him.
2. The work of Jesus Christ is an historical fact. He lived; there is not real question to this. Nearly all scholars agree that He is a factual person.
3. That is a factual foundation for believing the testimony of Jesus Christ Himself.
4. His testimony that what happened on the cross, the atonement for sins, is efficacious for salvation. The fact that He lived is true; the fact that He went to the cross is true. What He did on the cross is the object of our faith.

The Second Faith

1. This is the faith for living the Christian life. That faith is perception and belief in the doctrine, grace and ability of God.
2. The object of faith for the believer is the teaching of Jesus Christ; His mind is now found in the Bible.
3. The metabolizing Bible doctrine by faith engenders confidence. A faith and confidence for living the spiritual life.
4. This is the faith necessary to live the Christian life.

There is no question that the disciples had the first saving faith; and they were working on the 2nd faith. There was a littleness to this faith. The object of their faith was misdirected. The disciples could not accomplish the life and the mission without faith in the right objects. There needs to be the correct area for these disciples. They did not understand the cross. They did not understand the resurrection; they did not get the Mount of Transfiguration.

Without faith in the correct object, their casting out of demons was doomed to failure.

What Did the Disciples Have Faith In?

1. They had faith in their own ability.
2. They tried to heal this boy based upon their gift to heal those possessed by demons.
3. The gift should not have been their object of faith; they should not have put their faith in the gift but the delegation of power from God. They were focused on the gift.
4. Their misguided faith was in their gift of power rather than in the source of the gift and power. They had faith in the gift, but not in the source of the gift. They were looking at what they had and not Who gave the gift to them.
5. Their misplaced faith was based upon that which they had accomplished in the past.
6. They had the wrong focus; the wrong object of faith; the wrong perception of reality. They were trusting in the wrong thing.
7. The reality that they overlooked is the power of Jesus Christ Who provided it all. After using this gift on a number of occasions, their focus changed from Jesus Christ to themselves. They became impressed with what they could do. They were not maintaining their focus on their own gift of power. Haven't we proven our ability? Heb. 11:1 Faith is the conviction of things not seen the disciples don't get this yet; they still don't have it. But this would be written.

More on Faith

1. What is on unseen? The power of God is unseen but it is very real. They had power delegated to them; and they thought it was really special and that they were special to have this power. Faith is a matter of focus.
2. We can only see manifestations of God's power, but not the power itself. God's omnipotence is unseen; the manifestations are seen. We cannot see electric current; but we can see the light bulb go on. Do we have confidence in the light bulb or do we put confidence in the electric current? Just so, Jesus Christ is the source of their power. The manifestation of that power is the miracle; but they are focusing on the manifestation and not on the power itself.
3. Their faith should have been centered on the power of God.
4. They were seeing the results; the healing power; but that was just a manifestation of the unseen power of God; the current of power.

Again

1. Their faith must be directed toward the unseen and not toward the visible result. Faith is the confidence in things unseen; but no less factual.

2. It was the faith in God's unseen but real power which provided them with their power.
3. Only through faith through the proven power of God could they accomplish their task of healing.
4. They needed to confidently lean upon the power given them by God rather than get caught up in the visual result of that power. They got their eyes on themselves and what they were doing. They would have as apostles all the gifts. They would have all of these spectacular gifts; but they still need to focus on the source of the power rather than upon the manifestation of their gifts. This was the power and ability on loan to them for some specific purposes. It was not about the miracle; but the reason that God gave them these abilities.

They got arrogant about what they could do. They got arrogant about being able to cast out demons. But it was supposed to be about representing Jesus Christ and fulfilling His plan. They must refocus; they must press the reset button. Prayer must be their reset button.

They got into a fight with the scribes about whether or not they could do the healing. They forgot the source; they forgot who they were healing. If Jesus can do this miracle, can He not do the great miracle of dying for their sins. Many Christians today have that same problem. The crisis of faith. They are more concerned about what God does for them.

As soon as you lose sight of Bible doctrine; as soon as you focus on the great things that you are doing for God; you are derailed.

This is the difference between human good and divine good. What is the source of power? If the source of power is not there, any good deed that you do, anyone else can do. If you look only at the good deeds that you do, then you are doing things that anyone else could do.

Human good works have altruistic value; but these works are not sanctioned by God. These works are designed to show the great outworking of God's unseen power. Christians get this all back-ass-wards. Faith is in the unseen; not in some dubious gift like tongues or faith-healers.

So faith is correctly directed toward what God has provided. Confidence in the means to appropriate His power. When you get the doctrine and you have your volition; then you have a choice to believe or not to believe. The unseen power metabolizes and it becomes ἐπίγνωσις power in the right lobe.

Do not get your eyes on what you do; it is all about what the Holy Spirit does. We are light bulbs; we are not the power.

Their Faith Was Little and Misguided

1. Had the disciples had enough faith in the real object of faith, then they could have cast out this demon. Even faith the size of a mustard seed in the source of their power, they could have accomplished the miracle right then and there.

2. The mustard seed of faith would have been enough when directed toward God, with confidence in His power and His Word and in the manifestations of His Son. Some of us have seen the mountains moved by faith.
3. The little faith was faith in the accomplishments of the disciples themselves. The little worthless faith. They proved to be very fallible.
4. Faith in man for salvation and security is always misplaced faith. The disciples were the followers of Jesus and they had all the power. So this was unexpected that suddenly their powers went bad. Their faith was misplaced, little and in the wrong place.
5. Faith is only as good as people with sin natures. We have been betrayed by people with sin natures; and they have hammered us. Everything else is fallible and dangerous. There is tremendous power in such a tiny mustard seed of faith. The first step in your first faith rest drill. All that is required to move the mountains is a little faith to execute that promise. That is just a little taste of the Christian life. You get doctrinally oriented and grace oriented. You develop some impersonal love toward people that you could not stand the previous day.

Mustard seeds grow into great plants when nurtured.

Lesson #0634

Matt. 17: Life of Christ

7/17/2014 Thurs

Every person has that spark of faith. All people have put their trust at one time or another in some thing or in someone. Most people put faith in various leaders; faith for military men in their leadership. Who or what in this world is trustworthy? Is there an object of faith who is worthy and always reliable? If the primary object of faith is directed toward another person. Even if someone is a pantheist or believes in an evolving earth and evolution. That is a misplaced faith. That is emotion of filling some psychological need. You must have the right perspective on faith.

Only God and His Word have shown to be trustworthy; and things other than God are hopeless. Bible doctrine becomes less and less important to Christians. Christians today want to feel good; they want to see spectacular displays of God's power; and there is a good feeling in it. They focus on emotional praise and worship type services rather than on the power of Bible doctrine as it is metabolized by the unseen power of the Holy Spirit. Faith is the confidence in things unseen. With such misplaced faith by Christians, they get involved in so many other things. They find doctrine to be boring. Bible doctrine requires thought and people do not want to think today; that is hard work; it is stressful. Our schools do not exactly stress academics anymore. They are fortunate if they can read.

Protestant revolution began in the 15th century and continued into the 16th century; it turned us away from a man-centered religion to a Bible-centered faith. We have seen, particularly in Europe, the secularization of Christianity. The result is the utter departure of modern Europe from any semblance of Biblical Christianity. This is even more true since George Mueller left Germany. He is in his 80's. He used to say that Germany and Europe is a Christian wasteland. That was where the protestant revolution began.

Therefore, Europe cannot stand up against secularism or against Islam. When someone says Bible doctrine is not worth the time and effort, then they have undermined the foundation of Christianity. Once doctrine is ignored by Christians for humanistic ideas or for altruism or for Christian activism, the march toward secularism is inevitable.

Today's example of faith in man rather than faith in God. Trusting in the miracles that they have done before.

This misplaced faith is the cutting edge of secularism. Once you leave the realm of Bible doctrine, you will inevitably go downhill in the Christian life. You will move toward emotionalism or toward whatever fad goes on today.

Faith in mankind, in his ability to build a utopia—this is fatally flawed philosophy. The president believes that the world is becoming more tranquil and more peaceful. Yet men put their faith in that sort of statement. That is blind faith. They put their faith in a lost and dying world of turmoil. Man cannot provide perfect environment for himself. But humanism puts its faith in mankind to provide such a utopia. Man is the savior of man. Man can save himself through science, medicine, through the elimination of carbon emissions. This is misplaced and misguided faith. The salvation of man is exclusively the domain of Jesus Christ alone. Only Jesus Christ can bring in utopia as a reality.

Only faith in Jesus Christ and in Bible doctrine is truly flawless and is always there. If we cannot provide for our own salvation, how can we expect to have enough power on our own to live the Christian life. Christianity today completely overlooks that.

Faith in the doctrines of the Word of God of the understand of God's plan focuses the believer on the truth; this is the only way to escape humanism. Only God's grace and the renovation of our thinking by Bible doctrine gives the believer the power to do what we need for our lives.

“Do you feel lonely because you are the only person putting your faith fully and totally in Jesus Christ?”

Faith is a concept which is so often misconstrued. If you know anything about history, even man's greatest achievements end up in failure. About 200 years is about how long great democracies survive. What is left of the great empires of Syria or Assyria. Faith in the power and ability of man is a disaster. Man can only hope to do what God is able to do.

Man is incapable of accomplishing the Christian life with his faith so skewed and misdirected.

The disciples focus on their own power; and this is a lack of faith. The NKJV uses the word unbelief here. They ignore or forgot the Person who bestowed this ability.

You can focus on what you see or on what you do not see. The focus of your faith determines the direction of your life. The disciples ignored or forget the Person Who bestowed their power.

You get the Word of God into your soul by means of faith. The object is Bible doctrine. It is no longer just academic knowledge. Now it is knowledge that is useable and it is based upon faith and that is the entire foundation of the Christian life. Faith perception; the method of perception of reality in your world; this faith-perception is the only way to live the Christian life. This way we can actually fulfill our purpose for life. Our faith accomplishes the impossible. This faith moves mountains. Nothing is impossible with God. It is the accomplishments of God which accomplishes the impossible. Faith must always center on God and on the Lord Jesus Christ. His power never fails even when our circumstances appear to be overwhelming. We forget; the power of God never fails. There is no other object in this world that guarantees these kinds of results. God always accomplishes His purpose; our plans and schemes may or may not accomplish what we think that we can; but there are often unintended consequences. No person is totally trustworthy. Everyone is going to let us down, sooner or later.

The self-interest of others will eventually take over your interest. There is only one reliable object of faith, and that is Jesus Christ. Only Jesus Christ does not fail. Our faith in Him is never misplaced. We can only know Christ and God the Father.

God and Faith

1. We can only know God's love for us through faith.
2. We can only know doctrine, and doctrines which define God, man, sin, etc. They must be believed metabolized.
3. Faith perception is always the key to the advance in the Christian life. There is no other way. There are many results in the Christian life; but there is only one way to do it.
4. Faith does not end in salvation by faith alone in Christ alone. It does not end there. Many people stop there; but that is not the end.
5. Faith is the method for leaning and applying doctrine. Doctrine must be taught in order to be perceived by faith. By the power of God the Holy Spirit and believing the content of Bible doctrine, faith moves mountains. Faith is the basis for utilizing the divine resources. That is when we begin to have confidence in things unseen, when we learn what God is capable of.
6. Moving mountains is not impossible for God. But this is a metaphorical saying. There is no hopelessness in the Christian life. There is no humanism or environmentalism, etc.; these things are failures.

All things become possible with faith; with divine providence. By bringing to bear; by applying Bible doctrine in all circumstances. God moves the mountains that we are never able to conquer on our own.

Whatever it is, it can be overcome. The further you go the more you can overcome anything in life. That's a fact, not a wish. That is not misplaced faith. With that faith in that reality, we then have a relaxed mental attitude. Before, you were just angry and bitter.

It is so easy to look at circumstances in life and think, this is something that I can never do.

Recognize that God has our own best interest at heart. When you began to understand Bible doctrine, you began to understand the verse Rom. 8:28. That becomes the mountain that is being moved. You get there by faith-perception.

Sunday morning will be about how faith-perception moves us toward understanding Rom. 8:28.

Matt. 17:22–23 As they were gathering in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is about to be delivered into the hands of men, and they will kill him, and he will be raised on the third day." And they were greatly distressed.

Lesson #0635

Matt. 17: Life of Christ

7/20/2014 1Sunday

There are people in our lives that we have trusted and they have failed that trust. Today will be a lesson in the object of faith. Too often we place our faith in unworthy objects.

The Christian life, with which we should be concerned, should never be centered in the personal ability or accomplishments of the believer. There are many talented people who can dazzle others with their gifts, etc. People work hard in the name of the Lord doing good works. They invoke the name of Jesus consistently, so that others realize that they are working for Jesus Christ.

Where is faith centered? Where is their faith centered? Far too often, a Christian sees himself as living the Christian life based upon the success of his activities. He has confidence based upon what he demonstrates in his Christian service. He can give outward evidence for accomplishing the Christian life. But faith, according to Heb. 11:1, is confidence in things unseen. We cannot see the power of God working through us. Faith is misplaced when it is focused on human ability and works rather than upon divine power. The Christian life is all about the unseen aspect of your life; and it is all about how you trust the unseen aspect of your life. Some people are more trustworthy than others. Every person has their faults and flaws.

People fail and people fail you. That is because you are placing your faith in something other than where it ought to be placed. You do not live the Christian life by means of accomplishments. It is the power of God which works out the life in every believer. God will work out the fruition of His plan. Faith-perception is a critical concept. This refers to the metabolizing of Bible doctrine. Once you have knowledge, the Holy Spirit transfers it to the heart or to the right lobe. You begin with academic knowledge, which does you no good. It must be metabolized, transferred by faith from the left lobe to the right lobe. That makes it applicable. What moves it from perceived to useable is by means of a faith transfer. Positive volition is faith in an object. The object is that which is infallible. It is the doctrine metabolized that causes spiritual growth. This motivates the believer to serve the Lord in His power. You serve the Lord because of what is in your soul. It is unrelated to failure or success of what you do. Sometimes you witness for Jesus Christ and they reject that witness; that can still be divine good. People can accept or reject Jesus Christ.

In Matt. 17:20, Jesus describes the disciples and their faith as being a littleness of faith.

Matt. 17:19 Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, "Why could we not cast it out?"

Matt. 17:20 He said to them, "Because of your little faith. For truly, I say to you, if you have faith like a grain of mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move, and nothing will be impossible for you."

Their focus was wrong. They were focused on their own abilities. Without faith in the true object, it was impossible. With that faith, all things are possible. Our lives as believers are exactly the same. The unseen power of God is just as available to us as it was to the disciples who had this power given to them by Jesus Christ. We have the same power of God the Holy Spirit.

With positive volition, mountains move for us. This is not necessarily supernatural healing; this gift ended with the Apostolic period (and probably before that). We may not witness supernatural events; but that is not key. Sometimes, the impossible seems to occur; and this is because the Lord moves mountains. Faith in God's power to work out all circumstances. Our faith should be focused on God the Holy Spirit and upon the doctrine we learn. We need patience to wait on God's will. When our timing is off, we will inevitably want to jump the gun on the plan of God. If you cannot wait for God's timing and will, we don't too often.

Sometimes the circumstances are bad and the people are evil; and we forget that God uses these things to cause personal growth. It is truly amazing how God works all things together for good to those who love Him. That is a promise and what God promises, He delivers on. It is one of the best promises. There is a condition of faith involved. The metabolizing of the doctrine of those who love Him. This is the doctrine of reciprocal love. This is the doctrine which works all things together for good.

Discipline becomes God's plan to those who have no faith perception. It becomes part of God's plan to kick the believer back to that mode of faith perception. If you do not refocus, you are not moving forward in the Christian life.

Love for God is the prerequisite for things working together for good. What love means is so confusing for people. They want things to work together for good, but they do not understand what it means. Love and knowledge goes hand in hand. People think of love as feel-good. Love and knowledge go hand in hand. God is unseen; Jesus Christ is unseen; so how do we develop love? You must know a person and their character in order to love them. You love good qualities not bad, so you need to be able to distinguish. You must still learn the qualities. How can you not respond with love for Him when you understand Who He is. You get to reciprocal love by knowledge and faith.

You will love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. That is faith in the Lord because you know Him and understand Him as the object of your faith. When your soul becomes inculcated with His Word, then you develop love for Him personally. You reciprocate with love for Him.

All things working together for good, is mountains being moved. This motivation is from faith-perception; and mountains start moving.

When all the evil, difficult circumstances of your life work together for good. The evil, difficult people and circumstances; once you get that into your head, you begin to be patient and wait for the plan of God to work. You understand that the knowledge of God leads to circumstances that work together for good.

Now, why do you demand circumstances that are difficult to be gone, if these are the circumstances which will cause things to work together for good. Do not demand that these circumstances go away.

The disciples are operating in their own energy; by their own human ability. Their faith is misplaced. They should have faith in divine power; but it is in themselves. They failed and their focus is on themselves. The wrong object of faith is in their thinking. They depend upon their ability rather than upon God, the God of all circumstances. They are not demonstrating personal love for God. People try to live the Christian life by focusing on the things that they are doing for God. "Did you know I witnessed to a couple people a day?"

Christian Activity

1. Using the example of witnessing, if you are witnessing for Jesus Christ, He is the subject, not your activity. People like to crow and brag about their witnessing. They make an issue of how many people they witness to.
2. What are you witnessing about? You should be witnessing about the grace of God and about faith in Christ. Get out of the way.
3. You represent Jesus Christ to the world; that is the definition of witnessing; not yourself or your accomplishments to the world.
4. It is never about what you are doing for God.
5. Faith perception is the issue for the unbeliever. We are the mouthpiece of the gospel and nothing more. It is always the message of faith and Person of Jesus Christ. That is the subtle difference; between placing faith, demonstrating faith, and speaking of yourself and what you are doing. The littleness of faith of the disciples was in their ability to utilize their special powers. Their littleness of faith was misplaced. That is the crux of your life. Where is your focus? Is it on the service that you render? Based on your power or on your own ability. Eyes on self versus eyes on the Lord.

One more shot at the basic doctrine of faith, not only from salvation but from salvation forward.

We are dealing with the disciples having a littleness of faith. They need some lessons in faith as we all do. The Christian life is God the Holy Spirit living through us; He provides the power by which we accomplish the Christian life. There is no other power; there is no other ability. Our Christian service is not human good.

Faith and the Christian Life

1. The object of faith must be Jesus Christ and the Bible doctrine which reveals Jesus Christ. That is the key. That is where so many believers fall down. They believe in Jesus Christ, but they don't know Him. What value is faith in the unknown.
2. Doctrine provides the content of our faith in Christ. Doctrine, doctrine, doctrine, that's all you do is talk doctrine. That's right. It is Bible doctrine that defines who we are, Who God is; and it is how all things work together for good. Your ability is a distant second to the power of God.
3. Only with Bible doctrine can we understand the divine power that we possess and how to use it. How many soldiers can use a weapon if they do not know how, its capabilities, its range, etc.
4. With doctrine metabolized, our focus is inherently on Jesus Christ. Doctrine inherently places our focus on Jesus Christ. This is because this is Who Christ is. This is why we make such an issue of it.
5. The ultimate goal of our faith is occupation with Christ. A mind centered on Him and His doctrine.
6. When we render service to God, without our faith properly placed in Him, the glory goes to Him and not to our works. Who gets the glory? Whose power is it? Where is our faith to be placed?
7. We as believers are credited with divine good with focus on His power and utilizing His power, which is rewardable in heaven. Our Christian life is nothing apart from faith in Him and His Word. Our deeds are done in the power of God based on the motivation from metabolized doctrine. It is better to do some human good than to be an evil person. The source of your spiritual life is not your good works but the power of God. Our focus needs to be on grace and doctrinal orientation. You cannot leave out that all-important faith-perception. It is not what we accomplish for Him; but through His power that we serve. That is grace and doctrinal orientation. Then you understand what your spiritual life is all about. That is the subtle difference concerning which so many believers are unaware. It is easy to cross the line from divine good to human good. That is why consistent learning of doctrine is so important. Paul was a genius with one of the great Jewish backgrounds; I can do all things through Him who keeps on pouring power into me.

We focus on God for accomplishment. The disciples were not doing this so their faith was ineffective. They were relying on their words to show the power of God. They did not point to the real source of the miracle. Mark 9:29 Utilize the power of prayer. The focus would have been upon God and not upon their own power and ability. What Jesus did regarding miracles changed slightly from time to time. The point was not healing the boy or the disciples showing off their power. The point was God doing these things through the disciples and, therefore, gaining a hearing. They needed to represent Christ's power. They failed in their mission. They forgot the source of their power. What is the source of the Christian life? The lesson is, in our service to God, we must never view ourselves as the source of success in the Christian life. That is the opposite of the way that the world works. It is what God accomplishes through us. If someone believes in Jesus Christ because you witnessed to them—it is great that they found eternal life through your words—but the focus ought to be on Jesus Christ. We are ambassadors for Jesus Christ. We represent Him; we do not have His power; we simply follow His instructions, which are found in the Manual of Ambassadorship (which is the Bible).

You might be able to walk through a hospital and cure all those you come into contact with. That would make you the focus and we are not supposed to be the focus. The disciples learned their lesson. Likewise, we must develop that type of faith.

We Are to Be Empowered by God the Holy Spirit

1. We must recognize and focus on the power of being filled with the Spirit. This is a command, to be filled with the Spirit.
2. In this power, we listen to and assimilate the doctrines of God. This renovates our thinking by the mind of Christ.
3. Renovation means that we become grace and doctrinally oriented. The unbelieving world has no clue of this.
4. This is the development of faith. People don't get that this is a development of faith. Faith develops just as we develop in the Christian life.
5. We do not focus on what we accomplish in His power. We accomplish things in His power. We are in fellowship; we recognize that. But suddenly, we lose our focus. We need to focus on the source of the power. That precludes arrogance. Humility is the way that we live this life. Humility is grace orientation.
6. Only then is faith directed toward its true object, Who is Jesus Christ. The only sure, always-reliable and trustworthy object. Faith develops and faith expands as Bible doctrine expands in your soul. You use faith and it grows. Developing faith means that we can utilize the Word of God. We can utilize the promises found in the Word of God. To utilize the promises of the Word of God, we have a method; we have a means; the faith rest drill. When you put faith together with rest, you have a relaxed mental attitude.

The Faith Rest Drill

1. You claim a promise which you have metabolized.
2. You use the promise in a doctrinal rationale. You make a logical conclusion based upon your rationale.

- 1) The plan of God rationale: God will guide me through His power. God has a plan and He will guide us in that plan.
 - 2) The essence of God rationale. He has the power and ability to do all things. He can do the impossible. He can move mountains.
 - 3) The logistical grace rationale. He takes care of our needs. Your clothes are ragged and you are hungry; you don't worry about it. You have faith that God comes through. Part of this is immutability.
 - 4) The last rationale of your life is the dying grace rationale. When it is just about to be all over. Some go out quickly, which makes this a moot point. You may go out lingering; or you may be checking out. That is another rationale. You know that you will be face to face with the Lord.
3. You reach doctrinal conclusions and you apply them to your circumstance. If you utilize the faith rest drill; you will have the correct focus of faith. Heb. 4:1–3
 4. By faith-perception, we develop and utilize all the problem solving devices which are inherent to spiritual advance. We must never become impressed with our own gifts and our own abilities. God's power accomplishes the things that need to be done. This does not mean that we just sit on our hands and wait for things to happen. Our objective is to become occupied with the Person of Christ. Fixing our eyes on Jesus Christ (faith perception) the Author and Perfecter of our faith.

Now, after all this practical teaching, Jesus Christ and His disciples leave this area and they return to Galilee. This was, more or less, where our Lord's headquarters were. He will reveal the fact that He will die and He will rise again. And the disciples won't get it. He set them up with the meaning of faith so that they can metabolize what they hear. Death and resurrection. That is the lesson for you and faith. Never be confused by faith in nothing versus faith in everything.

Dave Garza will speak during the 2nd service this Sunday.

Bobby is now leaving the subject of faith. He enjoyed the study himself.

We will study death and taxes next. Death is no problem for the believer. To live is Christ and to die is gain. People hate to give their money away to the government, but we are obligated to do that—even if we do not think that the money goes to anything that is worthwhile.

Jesus speaks of Himself in the 3rd person.

Matt. 17:22 As they were gathering in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is about to be delivered into the hands of men,

The disciples are deeply grieved. Grief is normal for human beings. The disciples are expressing grief. They did not understand the resurrection. There would be less reason to grieve.

Matt. 17:23 and they will kill him, and he will be raised on the third day." And they were greatly distressed.

Jesus tells them to pay attention. They are not quite getting it here. Everything was going exactly as it should be going.

Luke 9:44 "Let these words sink into your ears: The Son of Man is about to be delivered into the hands of men."

The disciples were told by God the Father to listen to God the Son; and God the Son tells them to let this sink into their brain. The doctrine was concealed from them. Jesus was not concealing it from them. Their prior suppositions kept them from grasping what was going on.

It was difficult to depart from the teaching. We already had some preconceived notions about what Christianity is.

The disciples had to turn their thinking away from an earthly kingdom to the concept of the Church Age. These new concepts must sink in. They must have their thinking renovated. They must overcome their religious influences. Doctrine overcomes all of our old influences.

Bobby grew up with doctrine, born into Berachah Church. He did not have to set aside false teaching. The Church Age is a whole new world of doctrine and circumstances that these guys need to understand.

Luke 9:45 But they did not understand this saying, and it was concealed from them, so that they might not perceive it. And they were afraid to ask him about this saying.

Judaism was confused about the Old Testament prophecies about the Messiah. There were disagreements in the higher ranks. They knew that Messiah would suffer and even die; that is what Isa. 53 and 54 tells us. They also understood that Messiah would rule in power and in glory as their king.

These prophecies seem to be contradictory to these guys. How could He suffer and die ignominiously and rule at the same time? The problem was, they were using human logic to try to understand the Scriptures. This led them to false conclusions.

Some posited two Messiahs; the first would die and the 2nd would reign in glory. That is how the Jews understood the Messiah in that age.

Jesus Christ is the one Messiah who would suffer and die and reign. This becomes a dispensational issue as well.

The resurrection brings in a whole new thought; Jesus would die and then He would be resurrected. Maybe the concept of one Messiah was starting to get through to them. The kingdom was to come later from the same resurrected Messiah at a later time. They had no clue when that would occur. They were unable to put all of this together. However, they will get it. Jesus Christ was showing these men that He was a Messiah Who would die; but He would be resurrected.

He would be resurrected in an entirely different sort of body. The disciples needed to understand that death was ahead of Him and it had a great purpose to it.

Once they understand resurrection, then they can build upon that. Line upon line. Without death and resurrection, the disciples have no message as Apostles. That is the key to salvation.

Two typical results. They were deeply grieved. This was a lack of understanding of the importance of the cross. How can you grieve when your salvation depends upon this death? How can you grieve if He will only be dead for 3 days. This should not invoke grief.

Mark 9:30–31 They went on from there and passed through Galilee. And he did not want anyone to know, for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, "The Son of Man is going to be delivered into the hands of men, and they will kill him. And when he is killed, after three days he will rise."

This was bad news and they did not want to know it; they did not want to face it. They expected the glory of the kingdom in the immediate future.

Mark 9:32 But they did not understand the saying, and were afraid to ask him.

Luke 9:45 But they did not understand this saying, and it was concealed from them, so that they might not perceive it. And they were afraid to ask him about this saying.

The Disciples Had Difficulties with the Doctrine of the Resurrection

1. The disciples refused to receive what they needed to metabolize in order to fulfill their purpose as Apostles. They did not want to hear it.
2. At this point, the disciples had tacitly rejected the doctrine of His death and resurrection.
3. They were confused as to how the glorious Messiah, Whom they had just seen transfigured, could be so thwarted and humiliated. That was confusing.
4. How could the crowd be so amazed by His miracles. How could the people be so amazed by His miracles and yet turn on Him? Some of these are religious minions; minions of Satan.

In time, the disciples would understand all of this. We see the same desire today for the destruction of Christ and Christianity.

Bobby is reading several things going on today. One author and others are branding Bible-believer Christians as war mongers. They teach that there are wars between Christians and non-Christians, including the Civil War. His view is, Christians want to bring in a Christian Millennium. That is a distortion of a theological position known as post-millennialism. Evil will be overcome and all people will be converted to Christ.

War is necessary against evil. But this author says that evil is considered to be all unbelievers. He thinks that ridding the world of Christians will stop the war-mongering.

We conquer the world through the gospel; not through military conquering. Humanism wrapped in a shell of religion. His bottom line was evangelical Christians should be stamped out in order to stop war.

We still give the gospel to the world; and we still fight in the wars of our nation; but we do not do this to bring in the Millennium. We cannot bring the Millennium in through our own efforts. The sin nature keeps the earth as sinful.

There was someone else that Bobby read; and he claimed that hell was not forever. He was chipping away at the doctrine of judgment. Mark 9:47–49 is quite clear on this. He attempts to discredit the Bible as just too harsh.

Others say that Christianity is just a relic of the past and it will fall away in the post-Christian era.

Some simply object to the literal interpretation of Scripture and others reject the accuracy of Scripture. They say that the meaning has changed from the time that the Bible was written. They are saying that the Scripture is fluid and it can be understood in a different way. The old interpretation needs some revising to make it relevant to today.

Rom. 1:26–28 some are claiming that this does not really prohibit homosexuality and that gay marriage is okay too. The interpretation of Scripture is driven by the context of the current culture. The Bible must be reinterpreted to fit in with today's culture. What a Satanic attack on the very foundation of Christianity.

Let's return to more infallible, inerrant teaching from the Word of God. Critics of literal interpretation are doomed to failure. There is no defeating the Word of God. All of the machinations of Satan and man cannot defeat the Word of God. It lives and abides forever.

Lesson #0640

Matt. 17: Life of Christ

7/31/2014 Thurs

A subject which will get people out of fellowship.

We will stay in Matthew. The death part is not as grim as it seems to most. This is a glorious revelation of our future.

The next topic is taxes, and Jesus has a lesson to teach.

They were first in Cesari Philippi and then in Galilee? Next they go to Capernaum.

The 2 drachma is the daily wage of a laborer.

Capernaum seems to be the headquarters for the Lord, as he often ends up there. This was a taxable location. We live in Harris county and we pay school and property taxes.

Matt. 17:24 When they came to Capernaum, the collectors of the two-drachma tax went up to Peter and said, "Does your teacher not pay the tax?"

Peter was asked about whether Jesus would pay this tax, he said that Jesus would pay. The collectors here are the Jewish IRS. They ask if Peter intended to pay them this two drachma tax that every Jewish male was expected to pay that tax.

Matt. 17:25 He said, "Yes." And when he came into the house, Jesus spoke to him first, saying, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do kings of the earth take toll or tax? From their sons or from others?"

Peter answers for the Lord, but he then goes to Jesus about the tax which He owes. Even some of the disciples seemed to believe that Peter was elevated to some degree and some were envious or jealous. No the other disciples address this issue; but Matthew does, because he was formerly a tax collector. It may seem inconsequential but it is not.

The writers of the gospels chose the incidents to write about, but this was also inspired by God the Holy Spirit.

The One-time Tax

1. This tax had first been imposed in the history of Israel by Moses at the direction of God. That is how far back it goes. Ex. 30:–11–13
2. The tax was actually to be a one-time assessment to all the males over the age of 20 years.
3. This assessment was used to meet the expenses of putting up the Tabernacle. All that Israel needed to know about basic doctrine was taught in the Tabernacle. Once taxes have been levied, the people in power. The tax is not eliminated and it goes up most often. This one time assessment and the pharisees are still imposing it.
4. This one-time tax from the time of Moses was an offering to the Lord.
5. It is called a ransom.
6. The word ransom was connected to atonement and propitiation.
7. The ransome represented delivery from slavery
8. The offering was a memorial to God's work. So this tax.

What Is the Memorial Aspect?

1. On the one hand, God freed Israel from the slave market of sin.
2. On the other hand, God would redeem them from the slave market of sin by the gift of the Messiah. The Tabernacle in many places depicted the Messiah. The disciples were fully aware of all of this. Peter understood all of these traditions.
3. The ransom for freedom for slavery to sin was paid for on the cross. The work of God and the physical salvation of the people are all emphasized by the Tabernacle. It also looked forward to the future of the Lord Jesus Christ.

The Tabernacle

1. The Tabernacle was the place from which Jesus ruled Israel.
2. In making the offering for the tabernacle, Israel acknowledges that God sovereignly rules over them in;
3. Theocracy is the rule by God.
4. Autocracy rule by one person.
5. The commemorated His gracious rule and pov.

This offering is voluntary; but back in Exodus, it was not. It was levied there by God Himself. 2Cor. 9:7 Each believer must do as he is motivated to do in his heart. God loves a cheerful and a well-motivated believer.

Giving

1. In New Testament giving, the believer determines his own motivation for giving and the amount that he gives
2. A believer should never give from pressure
3. A person may decide to give for grace reasons, but he should not give because he feels trapped, forced or under compulsion. Some churches garner wages straight from the accounts of the parishioners.

4. A believer should not give under any form of emotional coercion. No one should make you feel guilty because you haven't given what they see as a proper amount. Motivation in giving is all important.
5. Giving is worship; and therefore must be in the right mental attitude and in the Spirit. It is a mental attitude of gratitude toward the Lord Jesus Christ.
6. Through doctrine, a believer understands God's graciousness. Grace orientation is the attitude for giving.
7. Appreciation for what God has provided stimulates a desire to commemorate His generosity. That was true of both giving and the tax. The tax was levied because of what Israel provided by way of freedom.
8. When this attitude accompanied by the filling of the Holy Spirit, the act of giving becomes an act of worship, with intrinsic value. It is an act of divine good. It is an act of worship.
9. Worship is never something that is imposed on us; it cannot be. It is not a tax but a response. A thankfulness for a relationship with God.
10. Perception of Bible doctrine defines that relationship and defines grace orientation. There is no proper motivation without doctrine in the soul. That is the attitude for New Testament giving.
11. The only similarity between the Old Testament tax and New Testament giving, is both the tax and the giving commemorate God's grace and rulership. The first was imposed on nation Israel to raise up the Tabernacle.
- 12.
13. The tax was mandatory. New Testament giving is not. Berachah has survived for 60+ years because of God's grace. It is never by legalism. Bobby gives as well. Bobby also commemorates the grace of God.
14. New Testament giving is certainly divine good when correctly motivated by an appreciation for God's grace. It is certainly necessary for the furthering of the ministry of the local church.

Bob and someone from the Church of Scotland. He was used to the churches always dunning him for money.

Giving and money is an indicator of how well or how poorly you are doing.

The Morphing of this Giving/tax

1. Rabbinical tradition after the Esther time period. They imposed this tax as customary for all Jews. There's a tax; let's impose that one. That came from tradition and interpretation.
2. The imposition of this tax was supposedly voluntary rather than obligatory. When people levy taxes, they are often a law unto themselves.
3. These Jews looked very unkindly upon someone who refused to pay. This was a no-no not to pay.

4. However, not paying the tax could not lead to a charge of tax evasion. You did not want to be guilty of tax evasion in Rome. However, this did violate the pharisee tradition.
5. That tradition that came down over the centuries is what perpetuated the one-time tax from Moses's time. The tax being levied was not Biblically valid.
6. This tax was a legalism that the Jews now counted as law, even though it was not a Mosaic statute. They made their traditions into their own laws.
7. The Jews used this tax money to maintain the Temple and to pay the priests.

Greed and graft had corrupted the collecting of the tax. Way back at the beginning, Jesus threw the money changers out of the Temple. Part of the problem was their handling of this tax. These money changers skimmed money from the top. The tax was deposited in the Temple in 3 different huge chests. When this is a huge amount of money, there is a great temptation to commit fraud. How did the fraud work? There were ingenious ways of doing this. The collected taxes were required to be deposited in the Temple in the silver shekel of the Jews. That is all that would be accepted in the Temple. However, these offerings were not always in shekels. So the tax came in as a Greek coin or as Roman coinage. In order to be deposited, these coins had to be changed. The money changers defrauded this giving by inflating the exchange rate. They increased the worth of the drachma and they skimmed off that extra amount.

This is the tax that we are talking about. The Temple was the taxing bureaucracy.

Today, the church is tax exempt as part of the separation of church and state. But the government is drooling over this money; and they want to tax churches. This status is under attack by the taxing authority.

The IRS of the Temple taxed, but those at the top skimmed from the top.

This is what is going on behind the scenes.

Jesus paid this tax, but why?

Lesson #0641

Matt. 17:24 Life of Christ

8/3/2014 1Sunday

Speaker in second service.

This incident seems inconsequential, but it is a very important incident in the life of our Lord.

Jesus resided in Capernaum, and this is from where He paid His taxes. The collectors were not state tax collectors. These are Jews collecting a religious tax.

Matt. 17:24 When they came to Capernaum, the collectors of the two-drachma tax went up to Peter and said, "Does your teacher not pay the tax?"

They ask Peter if Jesus pays taxes to the religious groups. The Jews used shekels and the Romans used drachma. A drachma has approximately a half-ounce of silver. This is approximately the daily wage of a laborer.

Peter has been approached; and they are looking for money from this group.

This collector implied that Jesus was in violation of a tax law; so Peter immediately acquiesced to this tax. However, this was not a tax based upon the Mosaic Law, but upon Jewish Rabbinical tradition. This was for the building of the Tabernacle in the desert. At the time that Moses imposed it, it was a one-time offering. Over the centuries, the Jews expanded on this. Once taxes are imposed, they do not go away. They simply continued the tax; it was a tradition. The payment of this tax was strongly encouraged by these legalistic Jews. This was not a polite request; they were saying, "Where's the money."

Matt. 17:25 He said, "Yes." And when he came into the house, Jesus spoke to him first, saying, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do kings of the earth take toll or tax? From their sons or from others?"

By saying, "Yes," Peter obligated Jesus to paying this tax. Peter, by proxy, had now given his word that Jesus would pay a tax that He really did not owe.

No doubt, there are taxes that we don't believe that we owe. When facing the IRS, there is a lot of power at stake. So Peter runs to tell Jesus to tell Him what happened.

Jesus was already aware of what happened. Jesus spoke first. His omniscience was on display. He needed to get straight to the point of doctrine that was involved. Jesus cut straight to the chase. Jesus minimized the whole tax situation. It was really no important to Him. He spent no time arguing or bickering over money.

Matt. 17:25 He said, "Yes." And when he came into the house, Jesus spoke to him first, saying, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do kings of the earth take toll or tax? From their sons or from others?"

When earthly kings collect taxes, do they come from their own sons? Of course not. Taxes support the royal family. Peter knows this. Taxes come from the strangers; those outside of the family unit. Royal family members were tax exempt. A lot of tribute was paid by conquered states.

Matt. 17:26 And when he said, "From others," Jesus said to him, "Then the sons are free."

Where Are We Going with This?

1. The taxes demanded from Jesus Christ by the collectors went to support the Temple and the priests; these were religious taxes. There was a union between the Jewish state and Judaism. This was a religious tax. A tithe is an Old Testament tax; not giving. Taxes are imposed; giving is a grace memorial. Giving is properly motivated by our appreciation by what God has done for us.

2. The Temple for which the tax was approached is the house of the Father of Jesus. Jesus is the Son of the divine ruler of Israel. Jesus is the ruler of Israel as the Shekinah Glory. He is the ruler over the theocracy of Israel.
3. Therefore, the Temple was His residence.
4. Jesus was the real object of worship in the Temple. He is the glory of God, and the object of our worship.
5. As royalty, the 2nd Member of the Trinity, Jesus was exempt from this tax. He was not obligated to pay the tax based on legal and traditional grounds. Yet Peter committed Jesus to paying this tax.
6. Further, those associated with Jesus, were not subject to this tax. They all had privileged positions. The king would provide what they needed. This exemption required the collectors to recognize the Royal Status of Jesus Christ. They rejected this. They might be using this incident in order to get Jesus. They wanted to get Him as a non-tax paying religious renegade.

Matt. 17:27 However, not to give offense to them, go to the sea and cast a hook and take the first fish that comes up, and when you open its mouth you will find a shekel. Take that and give it to them for me and for yourself."

These tax collectors are offensive. The Roman tax collectors were particularly offensive to Jews, but these guys were not far behind.

Should He or should He not pay these taxes? Jesus did not intend to make a major point of taxes. Taxes are included under the principle of render unto Cæsar that things which are Caesar's.

The Tax Principle

1. Members of the royal family.
2. Legally, they owed nothing. A king does not collect taxes from his family.
3. When entering into the Church Age, this exemption would take on a new and important meaning.
4. The disciples, as Apostles, would not owe allegiance to the religious Jews.
5. They owed allegiance only to Jesus Christ as members of His family. We owe allegiance to Christ alone, because we are His family. However, the principle is render unto Cæsar that which is Caesar's.
6. What did they need to know? They are free from the Mosaic Law. They are no longer bound to that law. They were still under the Mosaic Law at this point; but they would be free from the Law; they would be bound by the Law of Christ.
7. The Church Age superceded or set aside the old mandates and traditions of Israel. This is a dispensational lesson. This was a look into the future. This was a teaching moment.

There is a transition time going on here. Jesus would die for our sins, He would be raised up on the 3rd day, He would remain on earth for 40 days and ascend to heaven. Then, 10 days later, the Holy Spirit would be sent to the Apostles.

Jesus is teaching them that they owe nothing to these taxing authorities. But He does not make a big deal out of this. "You're something different; you are set apart. You are a part of the royal family." But that is not the approach that He takes. Jesus could have said, "To hell with them!" but He did not.

Matt. 17:27 However, not to give offense to them, go to the sea and cast a hook and take the first fish that comes up, and when you open its mouth you will find a shekel. Take that and give it to them for me and for yourself."

"Here is how you are going to pay for the taxes." Jesus did this because He was well-aware that, if He was not seen as paying taxes, others would use Jesus as an excuse not to pay taxes. "If He does not pay taxes, then we won't."

The pharisees and sadducees brought up as many charges against Jesus as they could; and these charges were all false.

Peter is a fisherman, so he was happy to go fishing. Peter catches one fish and it is a winner. When he opens the mouth to unhook it, there is the amount needed to pay the tax. Peter has to pay taxes as well; and this will be enough to pay taxes for both of them.

The one shekel could not be skimmed. It was worth 4 drachma. The money changers were criminals; they were skimming off the top. They would jack up the price of exchange and skim the excess.

The Lord provides always. Rick was a professional fisherman. He has never pulled money from the mouth of the thousands of fish that he has caught. God has graciously provided him what he needed in order to continue on with his ministry.

Jesus makes the right decision; and this illustrates His ability to do the right thing. He could have claimed tax exemption and He would have had an iron-clad case; he could not pay taxes on two bases: he is royal family, and therefore does not owe it; and this tax was wrong and against the Mosaic Law.

Money is nothing.

Because the Jews rejected His royalty, they would reject His argument against paying the taxes. However, this way, the tax collection was over. Bob used to tell Bobby, whenever there was a problem, there were ways to handle it. "When money can solve a problem, then it is not a problem." That is what Jesus is teaching right here. Jesus knew logistical grace; He is logistical grace. We should know logistical grace.

The doctrine of logistical grace will be covered Wednesday night.

Lesson #0642

Matt. 17: Life of Christ

8/6/2014 Wed

The crash course to become the Apostles in the Church Age. It is no longer about offering the kingdom to the Jews. The Jews have rejected the kingdom and their King. It is no longer about miracles, although some are still done. Miracles are no longer offered as a credential for His Messiahship. What is the thrust of our Lord's ministry is preparing the disciples for their future responsibilities.

The disciples are royal family; and so are others who believed in Jesus Christ. But they do not fully understand this, which is problematic. We all share His Sonship and we have all been adopted into the family of God.

Jesus does some relevant teaching through this tax incident. As soon as they get there, Peter is hit up to pay a religious tax. They want to know if Jesus would pay this traditional tax. This was an important tax in Jewish life. It helped to maintain the Temple and the priests; it was strictly a religious tax. However, Jesus does not owe this tax. The Temple that this tax supports is His Father's house. He rightly belongs there as the Messiah and as the Shekinah Glory. As such, He does not pay taxes. Strictly speaking, the taxes go to maintain His house. This is not a property tax; it is a religious tax.

Jesus must communicate that He does not owe the tax; and the disciples do not owe the tax either, even though they have paid this all of their adult lives.

Matt. 17:25 He said, "Yes." And when he came into the house, Jesus spoke to him first, saying, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do kings of the earth take toll or tax? From their sons or from others?"

Peter was used to the Lord asking questions out of nowhere. Peter briefly thinks about this, and then gives his answer. Strangers are those outside of the family unit. Kings, in that era, did not pay taxes; taxes were paid to them. They do not collect taxes from their own families. Members of their own family were tax-exempt. Jesus is the only object of worship. The tax maintained His rightful, kingly residence. He, as the King, was not subject to this religious tax. What the disciples must understand, those intimately associated with the King also do not have to pay the tax. His sons have a privileged position; and here we have royal family of God. The disciples were a part of this family.

Matt. 17:26 And when he said, "From others," Jesus said to him, "Then the sons are free.

Jesus has spent time saying, None of us owe the tax. Then He will instruct them to pay the tax. The religious leaders, to whom the taxes would be paid, did not accept Jesus as Messiah. If He did not pay, they would use this against Him. This would be a perceived blemish on His perfect record or character. He must go to the cross with no blemish on His record. This incident must not be blown out of proportion. The important thing is to teach the disciples rather than pay or not pay the tax. Furthermore, others might be interested in getting out of paying this, which would cause a mess.

Taxes are an issue to us, but a non-issue to the Lord.

Matt. 17:27 However, not to give offense to them, go to the sea and cast a hook and take the first fish that comes up, and when you open its mouth you will find a shekel. Take that and give it to them for me and for yourself."

Thieme axiom, if money can solve a problem, it is not a problem. Bobby will explain this in detail.

If Money Can Solve a Problem, Then it Is Not a Problem

1. This axiom assumes that there is money available to handle the problem.
2. What is the problem for most people? People agonize over being separated from their money.
3. A believer must not forget the principle of logistical grace in applying this maxim. This is all about logistical grace.

4. If this is a problem between friends, then just settle up. Preclude hard feelings; treat them in grace. When Jesus paid this tax, His grace was on display.
5. If you owe the money, then pay the money. If you value the friendship, then pay him or her. Situation is over and done. Nothing like money to satisfy people. You need to preclude mental attitude sins. Do not become angry or bitter because you have parted with your money. This is a test of your priorities. God owns the cattle on a 1000 hills. Jesus Christ has infinite wealth. He has the wealth of the universe.
6. God has given you grace; you solve this problem with parting with your money.

We get really attached to our own money; and we would often fight over parting with it. People sue each other today for a pittance. We are a litigious society. We might use money to avoid a series of mental attitude sins. This is not because money is a problem solving device but because the grace orientation behind it solves the problem. If money brings closure to problems, then it is well-spent. If money is spent based on grace orientation, remember that God owns the cattle on 1000 hills.

Now, obviously, this is difficult if there is fraud involved. You don't like to reward someone for bad behavior. People have been in lawsuits for a variety of reasons. There can be great mental anguish involved with a lawsuit. This sort of thing is easily solved. When money can resolve the whole issue, then it is easy to deal with. Money solves a lot of problems (Bobby is not talking about a bribe).

If a Problem Can Be Solved by Money, it Is Not a Problem

1. A great illustration of grace in action is solving injustice problems with the use of money. That can be grace orientation.
2. This is the problem solving device of grace orientation. The motivation is what is key. If money can solve the problem, then it is not a problem. You use the money
3. When an offending party receives money from you that they do not deserve, that is a show of grace on your part.
4. That attitude is all-important for the Christian life. Especially if the reason for the problem is unfair in the first place. Solving a problem with money, even when this is all unjust, is grace orientation.
5. Humility in your soul is being displayed by forgetting the injustice, solving the problem and moving on. If money does that, then that is what you do. God always honors humility.

How many times have you handed money over to someone and it made you cringe to hand it to them. With the attitude of grace orientation, it solves the problem. It goes away. There is no greater display of grace orientation than using money as a grace tool. People understand that. Nothing makes an impact more than something like giving money. It is your attitude that is important.

Jesus demonstrated here, that when problems can be resolved easily and quickly, then that is what you do. Peter did not have the money here. The tax was unfair and wrong, but Jesus has Peter pay the tax anyway. He kept this little problem from becoming a much greater problem. Jesus used this as a lesson; what a training aid of grace orientation.

So that you don't get bogged down. Stewing in problems when they can be removed is not productive in the spiritual life. Money is a really easy way to solve some problems.

1. As a believer, you must reflect the grace of God. You are grace in action.
2. Money can be provided for just such situations. God can provide money to get you out of a scrape.
3. Weigh the circumstances and their repercussions and figure out the easy way to move past them; if that includes money, then use it.

One of the best illustrations of this was provided to him by his father during Bobby's military years. He was an instructor at the Ranger school. Part of his duties was walking with and grading them on these going out. Part of his duties was as the school adjutant. He took care of grunt work for the colonel. That colonel was impossible; the worst martinet in the military; and he made major issues out of the most minor details. He was quite unfair. He had his men pick up pine cones and they were in the middle of a pine forest. Bobby had to give a class on how to put together your web gear. That was insulting to everyone there. All of the officers hated this guy. No one said anything good about him. It came time for this colonel to leave; a change of command. Whenever an officer leaves a command, there is a traditional farewell; a banquet and a party and nice speeches and Bobby was to get the money from the other officers for the gift. They refused to give Bobby a dime and Bobby was holding the bag on this and no one would give him a dime. No gift would reflect badly on Bobby. In this situation, Bobby called Bob for some advice. He verified the principle. This was a major problem for Bobby. It was a faith rest drill to apply. God can supply what is ever necessary. Bob came up with the Knife solution. He collected great knives. Bench-made knives. A custom-made knife where the blade is beaten out by hand and attached to a hand-made handle. These were beautiful and utilitarian. Bob had acquired several knives with ivory handles. He would send them to Georgia to have the handles scrimshawed. Under a magnifying glass, it was incredible. He had ranger mark on one side, the guy's name on the other side. Everyone is having a good time; and there were some lukewarm speeches. Then it was time for the gift. Bobby handed him the package. This colonel's hobby was taxidermy and this was a skinning knife. The guy cried looking at this gift. Several officers came up and apologized to Bobby. All these men saw grace in action. This problem all went away. This guy did not deserve any of that; but the Lord works all of this out. Grace was showed to every officer in that room.

When Peter paid the tax that he did not owe, he no doubt got the same message.

Jesus essentially got fleeced in this tax incident. It did not matter. His time and His ministry was far more important than the money. It was all solved with this one shekel.

If you are grace oriented then you will easily part with your money to solve a problem. Jesus wanted no undue accusations against Himself. This is the stumbling block principle. Bobby will cover that principle tomorrow. It is an addendum to tonight.

Matt. 17:27 However, not to give offense to them, go to the sea and cast a hook and take the first fish that comes up, and when you open its mouth you will find a shekel. Take that and give it to them for me and for yourself."

Lesson #0643

Matt. 18: Life of Christ

8/7/2014 Thurs

When faced with injustice and foul play, etc., Jesus ignored these adversities in order to accomplish the plan of God. The critical qualification for Jesus Christ was being perfect; He had to fulfill the Law and the Prophets. He never sinned and He never made a mistake. He fulfilled every aspect of God's plan for His life. He never left any openings to be charged with any wrongdoing. He did not give His enemies ammunition.

He always spoke the truth about His Person. This angered many of the hearers and they denounced Him as a phoney Messiah; as a charlatan. But He proved many times that He was Who He claimed to be.

He also condemned the hypocrisy of the leaders on many occasions. Religious leaders showed over and over again in their legalism; and He stood for grace while keeping the Law perfectly. He made it clear to them that He fulfilled these laws.

Jesus was the Greater Son of David and He offered legitimately the kingdom to the Jews. He never made a misstep in fulfilling all of the prophecies.

Jesus Christ was very careful not to make any missteps; He was very careful about His reputation and His presentations. He never reacted to any problems or adversities that He faced. He never lied, He never sinned, He never made a misstep, and He never made a bad decision.

Pontius Pilate verified that Jesus was innocent of all the charges brought against Him.

Jesus went to the cross as an innocent and sinless man. He could die for our sins because He had a spotless record on earth. He reconciled the enmity between man and God. He paid this tax, which, as King, He did not owe. That is my house, the Temple, so I do not owe any money for its maintenance.

Jesus sent the disciple Peter to go fishing to get a fish; and the fish had a shekel in its mouth; and this payment covered both Peter and Jesus. Had Jesus not paid, this might have been encouragement to others not to pay. Jesus did not want to get into any dispute over taxes. He put it all to rest with money. The incident was now over.

Introductory Points

1. Jesus did not want resistance by other believers to pay taxes on His account. That would mean that He would be causing them to stumble.

2. It would be a bad testimony for the Lord, if members of the royal family mistook what He did. This would have also violated nationalism. We are bound to pay taxes to the nation in which we live.
3. That principle is found today in Rom. 13:1–7.
4. The royal family of God pays taxes in a national entity; even paying unfair taxes. That is exactly what the Lord just did. He kept this from becoming an issue. Do not refuse to pay your taxes because you believe them to be unfair. Do not hassle with the IRS, even though they can be criminal. Don't get to a point where your wages are garnished. Do not join a militia to revolt against the tax policy of the government. You can gather together and chat and discuss about how bad things are. But if you are going to join a militia to do something about it, that is outside of the bounds of Scripture. If you want to spend your time and money to redress grievances; but it is much easier to pay and walk away. Keep the government off your back. Money simply solves the problem. Jesus simply solved the problem with money in relation to taxes, and then moved on to more important things.

There are boundaries in the royal family; and you need to keep a testimony before the Lord. This one tax issue covers a lot of ground. We should never get bogged down in ridiculous hassles that can be solved with some money.

Regarding tipping. If you don't get good service, you still show grace orientation. You still give a good tip. "You were not a very good waiter, but this tip is grace." He represented grace orientation.

People have a difficult time parting with money. The principle is, with the right motivation, you are always the winner. It is the all things work together for good principle. You keep your eyes on the Lord and keep them off money and off people. This means you need to develop personal love for God and impersonal love for mankind.

Hand the money over and walk away. You never lose the humility and grace orientation. That is where all things work together for good. Evil can be directed toward you all the time; but God means this for good. God uses all circumstances, good and bad, for your benefit. If you think like that, you will have no problems with the circumstances of life. What is evil directed toward you, God can still mean it for good. That is a way of thinking that no one will understand.

If Jesus provided the shekel for the tax, do you not think He can provide for anything? Jesus said, "I do not owe this tax" and then He pays it. Do not give grudgingly or of necessity, because God loves the grace oriented believer. Jesus wants to teach this attitude to His disciples so that they do not cause everyone to stumble.

The disciples are the epitome of Murphy's Law. It is amazing that the Lord picked them. But they did an amazing job once they advanced spiritually.

Now the disciples are arguing about who the greatest disciple is. After the incident of the transfiguration, the kingdom was on their minds. Three had seen the King in all His glory. But, when they started to think jealousy because only 3 went to see the transfiguration.

Jesus has just given them a lesson on grace orientation; and they are exactly the opposite at this point.

Matt. 18:1 Luke 9:46

at that time, the disciples came to Jesus in the house and asked Him, this is in Capernaum and this might be Peter's house. and they ask Him, "Who is the greatest in the kingdom?" And He asks them, "What were you discussing on the way?" This is about the same time of the tax issue. The tax collectors approached Peter about the two drachma tax. So, does this mean that Peter is the head dude? Was he the point man for the Messiah? This was an independent group of men, and they did not want to take orders from anyone else.

Jesus knew exactly what they were arguing about. "Who among them is the greatest." He knew what they had been saying. He asks them this question in order to get them to think. He wanted them to hear themselves. Do you hear what you are saying? He wanted them to hear their ridiculous contentiousness. They were arguing from arrogance and not from humility. After He got their attention off of themselves, He called the 12 to them. "If anyone wants to be first, He will be last of all and servant to all." He called a child to Himself and set the child before Him. "Truly, I say to you, unless you are converted and become like children, you will not enter into the Kingdom of Heaven. Whoever humbles himself as this child, he will be the greatest in the kingdom."

Introductory Points

1. The child will serve as an example and as a metaphor. The child is used as a teaching aid.
2. In covering these verses, the disciples' question was about greatness in the kingdom; not about entry into the kingdom.
3. The disciples already know that they will enter the kingdom. They do not need to know how to enter into heaven. The disciples would be a part of the church and a part of the kingdom. It is not about entrance.
4. This passage is not directed to them for faith alone in Christ alone. That is not the context.
5. The disciples were concerned about greatness and about their exalted status inside the kingdom. They were already in the kingdom; they were concerned about their status. They want to know who is greatest. Who is the top disciple? That was their concern. That is the context of the passage.
6. Why then did Jesus say, "You will not enter the kingdom unless you are converted." This seems to contradict the context that we have here. Why does He use the aorist passive subjunctive of strepo in connection with entry into the kingdom? Why does He bring in entrance when they are already in.

The short answer is, it is all about grace. This whole thing is about grace. Entry into the kingdom is about grace; so being great in the kingdom is all about grace.

Lesson #0644

Matt. 18: Life of Christ

8/10/2014 1Sunday

Communion Sunday August 10, 2014

Jesus is present at church. What would He say? We have a record of one such message. It is the story of Jesus in the synagogue.

Luke 4:16 And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up. And as was his custom, he went to the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and he stood up to read.

Luke 4:17 And the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written,

Luke 4:18 "The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me, because He has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed,

Luke 4:19 to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor."

There are 6 proclamations of what He came to do. He comes to the poor to speak. After years of the war on poverty, poverty continues to increase. The priorities of these people is misguided. The Lord has great compassion. Jesus was poor by way of material things.

Jesus could have taken every person out of poverty.

In these 6 phrases, Jesus gives His priorities for mankind. He came to regenerate mankind. The greatest need of the poor is not material possessions; it is spiritual possessions. The gospel is the only remedy for the poor. The poor were much more aware of their needs than the rich. Their physical needs made them more aware of their overall needs.

The gospel is the revelation of God; it does not come out of the mind of man. For I delivered to you of first importance that first Christ died and was raised for our sins on the 3rd day. Jesus is the sin-bearer and deliverer Who rose again. Only He will save man from His inherent poverty.

Matt. 16:26 For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world and forfeits his soul? Or what shall a man give in return for his soul?

Jesus Christ Himself is the cure for all poverty. He has been sent to heal the broken-hearted, something only found in the KJV. Jesus cured something greater than physical illness. He healed that which no one else could heal; despair of soul. What He taught cured the broken-hearted. He recognized the emptiness of the condition of mankind.

“Let not your heart be troubled; you believe in God; believe in Me also.” The merit is all found in the Lord Jesus Christ. Faith in the gospel of Christ for the unbeliever; and faith in Bible doctrine for the believer. This cures discouragement and despondency of soul.

Jesus came to proclaim release to the captives. Jesus did a lot of proclaiming, and teaching and preaching. It is not Jesus' deeds but His words which remain with us. Jesus is addressing captives, slaves; those under the control of someone or something else. Jesus Christ understands that all men are slaves. Men are captured by sin and their sin natures. We have been in bondage to sin since Adam. We are spiritually dead. Many are unconscious of this condition. “You will know the truth and the truth will make you free. If the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed.”

Redemption is the work of God through the substitutionary work of Christ, where man is redeemed from the slave market of sin. It is the message of the gospel and faith in that message which frees the captives. It is enslavement to the sin nature which takes all the joy and contentment out of life.

Thank God that Jesus knows exactly what is needed for emancipation. What work is man capable of to attain such freedom? How can He buy Himself out of slavery when He has no purchase power as a slave? There is nothing that we have as slaves to purchase our own freedom.

Jesus came into the world to give recovery of sight to the blind. Of all the afflictions, blindness is one of the worst. A blind person cannot distinguish between night and day. They are completely ignorant of what the rest of us take for granted. In spiritual matters, many people are just as blind as the physically blind. We are unable to see the light. We need illumination. John 1:9 there was the true light that, coming into the world, enlightens every man. No one has to walk in the ignorance of dependency and death. Jesus illuminates the darkness of unbelief. In Him was life and the light was the light of men.

Jesus was among them to set free those who are oppressed. Jesus would set free those who are enslaved; but also to those who are oppressed. Satan is the greatest oppressor of all. Religion particularly oppresses mankind. Thus man is beaten and disillusioned. But God has liberated us. Christ has set us free from oppression. This is a Messianic reference; Christ is the king to set His people free. But the people rejected this offer and they prefer to live under legalism.

Freed from such oppression allows man to have a relationship with God in no other way.

The final statement is, Jesus came to proclaim the favorable year of the Lord. This is the year of Jubilee. Every 50th year brings cancellation of all debt and land is returned to all owners. This allowed for a brand-new start. That is what salvation is for us. There is a new relationship with God for those who responded to His message of grace.

The poor, the broken-hearted, the slaves, the blind and the oppressed. Jesus honored the Word of God. He read it and He pointed out the fact that He is the fulfillment of the Word of God.

In the next increment of our Lord's ministry is another lesson in grace. This is one of the greatest lessons of grace attitude and grace orientation found in the Scripture. It is a direct confrontation.

No Bible class this week; resuming Sunday.

Lesson #0645

Matt. 18: Life of Christ

8/10/2014 2Sunday

Matt. 18 Mark 9 Luke 9

There is still some arrogance in the souls of the disciples when they ask a certain question of Jesus. It is time for them to develop the correct attitude in the souls of these believers; humility. That is what Jesus will discuss.

At the time, the disciples came to Jesus in the house possibly Peter's house and they asked Him a question, "Who is the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven." And He asked them, "What were you discussing on the way over here?" They had been discussing, who is the greatest. The mental attitude sin of jealousy. Several of these disciples had been singled out for a special duty; James, John and Peter. The other 9 disciples were left at the bottom of the mountain. Those at the bottom could not cure the epileptic boy.

The Lord then asks the question, "What were you discussing?" Jesus needs them to understand their own mental attitude sin of jealousy. They were arguing from a thought pattern of arrogance. It does not come from grace orientation. They kept silent.

Mark 9:35 And he sat down and called the twelve. And he said to them, "If anyone would be first, he must be last of all and servant of all."

Mark 9:36 And he took a child and put him in the midst of them, and taking him in his arms, he said to them,

The child is a teaching aide.

Mark 9:37 "Whoever receives one such child in my name receives me, and whoever receives me, receives not me but him who sent me."

We need to keep in mind the context of this question to understand the answer Jesus gives. The disciples are not asking about entering into the Kingdom of God. They are already believers. They will be there in the kingdom. They just want to know, who is going to be top dog in the kingdom.

This is not a call for faith alone in Christ alone. The disciples were concerned about greatness. They were not concerned about getting in.

Jesus mentions conversion and entry into the Kingdom of God, even though the context is greatness. Strophô, which is an odd word to use here. It can mean to turn around, to be changed. It is quite similar to the Greek word metanoëô. This means to change one's mind, to be converted. These are very similar verbs. These are often used to refer to conversion.

The very same connotation; their question again is about, what is their status, having already entered into the kingdom?

Why Does Jesus Use this Word Which Is Related to Salvation

1. Jesus is using grace to illustrate entrance and greatness.
2. There is a parallel being established here. This is not a full-on charge.
3. Stropho refers to conversion in the way of entry into the kingdom.
4. Also in context, it refers to conversion as a change of attitude once in the Kingdom of God. Now He is talking about a renovation; going from one viewpoint to another.
5. This answers the question about who is great in the kingdom. It is all about grace.

More Points

1. Jesus is talking about faith to enter into the kingdom.
2. This is still in the context of greatness in the kingdom.
3. In this context, stropho is used as a reminder to the disciples; how they initially entered into the kingdom. Sometimes we all need to know how we got into the Kingdom of God.
4. In order to enter the kingdom, they had to be converted; they had to change their minds.
5. How did Jesus use stropho in this sense as a reminder. The reminder is about grace. Conversion for entry into the kingdom is the epitome of grace. They turned to Christ and they are in.

You did not earn your way into the kingdom; so how can you earn a top spot in the kingdom? Do you think you can earn some elevated status in the kingdom? What does grace have to do with greatness. The disciples are thinking of greatness earned by their accomplishments. It is based upon who and what they are.

They entered the kingdom by the grace of God; do they think that grace disappears in the plan of God? So often, Christianity is all about doing something for God. But this is false. What about grace? How does grace fit in with greatness in the spiritual life? How are you great in the spiritual life?

What Makes You Great in the Spiritual Life?

1. They must be grace orientated for entry into the Kingdom of God and for greatness.
2. This is a grace parallel. These verses are parallel. Grace for entry; grace for operation.
3. Grace orientation is always the attitude of spiritual greatness. Grace comes first. Only then can you produce divine good. You cannot be arrogant about the lift that you have or the works that you do. The connection between grace orientation and humility is really tight. Grace orientation means that you are inherently humble.
4. But arrogance is what is going on in the disciples' argument about who is the greatest. They are not thinking about how they entered into the Kingdom of Heaven; they are thinking, how can I be the greatest?

Matt. 18:3 and said, "Truly, I say to you, unless you turn and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

Here is the crux of the answer. Maybe Jesus lifts up the child. If you want to be first, then you are last. If you humble yourself, you are the greatest. All of the disciples are included for humility.

Matt. 18:4 Whoever humbles himself like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

Status in the kingdom is not based upon personal accomplishment, but on attitude; the attitude of humility.

You are not what you do; you are what you think. You can fake anyone out; and anyone can fake you out. In love, one person can fake out another. What they are doing is not who they are. It is what they are thinking.

Understanding who the Lord is. You have repented. You understand that Christ died for your sins; and you understand that is what saves us.

After salvation, we must renovate our thinking. That is key to the Christian life. A daily dose of God's Word is grace orientation. We become oriented to God's grace by understanding the Word of God. The more we hear, the more we metabolize, the more we are grace oriented. You do not have to act stupid and pretend to be humble. You can accomplish many things. Greatness comes from your soul. Man looks at the outward appearance; God looks at the soul.

The disciples are hanging around Peter's house saying, "Who among us is the greatest?" and Jesus is saying, "None of you; none of you have the right attitude." As members of the royal family.

Jesus denounces their jealous ambitions with a reminder of the key of humility. It is our attitude which counts. If you want to be humble, you think humility. What does the child image indicate? Why can't he just come out and say it? Why does Jesus need to set a child in front of them?

Matt. 18:3 and said, "Truly, I say to you, unless you turn and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

Matt. 18:4 Whoever humbles himself like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

Each disciple thinks he is the best and they want to know, who will be 2nd in command. So the disciples are divided. There is political infighting. Their solidarity of purpose has been sidetracked. They are no longer a team pulling in the same direction.

Our nation is being pulled apart; and much of the reason for this is arrogance and the fight for political power. The disciples are a microcosm of what takes place on a grander scale.

First among equals is a maxim of the Marxist party. This is what happens in a sports team. They spend too much time with individual. Teams lose because individuals try to show themselves as being the most important to the team.

Arrogance is based upon how much thinking you do about yourself. You think, "I am such an important person." Arrogance is the worst of the maladies that we face as believers.

Mark 9:33 And they came to Capernaum. And when he was in the house he asked them, "What were you discussing on the way?"

Jesus is telling them to listen to themselves. Jealousy was a problem among the disciples at this point, and that would be based upon arrogance. Sometimes the front rows are purchased by the big dogs (givers) of the church; and that has nothing to do with spiritually; it is all arrogance. These disciples have heard correct teaching over and over again; and they have seen the arrogance of the pharisees and their teachings.

Jesus urges them to look at their own arrogance. In its early stages, arrogance is sometimes hard to recognize. This becomes an issue of self-centeredness. There is an issue of humility that they must not forget.

While arrogant, the disciples cannot function.

Mark 9:34 But they kept silent, for on the way they had argued with one another about who was the greatest.

Jesus shut them up; and in this attitude, they can learn.

Luke 9:47 But Jesus, knowing the reasoning of their hearts, took a child and put him by his side

A child focuses on dependence. He is dependent upon his parents. He looks toward his parents to be taken care of. The disciples need to recognize the lack of arrogance in the child and they must become like the child. This is the grace analogy. They had to become like that dependent child; that was necessary in order to enter into the kingdom. Faith alone in Christ alone means they depended entirely upon the grace of God.

The disciples are already believers. They are already in the kingdom; and they now are demanding wh

Jesus Answers, "Which One of Us Is the Greatest?"

1. Jesus wants the disciples to focus upon grace to answer the greatness question. They are focused on themselves and not upon Him.
2. Clearly, a sense of human accomplishment for entrance is not the issue. All the deeds in the world do not bring us to the Kingdom of Heaven. Few aristocrats amongst the disciples (like none?)
3. Therefore, neither is human accomplishment the issue of personal greatness in the kingdom or in the spiritual life. It is not what they have accomplished.

Their focus is on themselves. That means, there is no grace in their thinking. Do not think of yourself in terms of arrogance. The Christian life is all about grace orientation.

The Disciples Need to Depend upon Jesus Christ for Everything.

1. Like a child, the disciples must be dependent upon the Lord for everything. This goes beyond salvation.
2. Their future lives are not about a hierarchy amongst one another. They are not concerned about who is the greatest; they should be concerned about the accomplishment of their mission.
3. They are a team assembled by Jesus Christ. They should function as a team. They need to accomplish the mission of evangelism and teaching.
4. None of these things can be done without an attitude of humility. Therefore, the believer must operate from a position of grace orientation.

Keep your focus on doctrine rather than focus upon yourself.

The disciples have been forcefully reminded that they entered the kingdom by the grace of God; so that policy needs to continue for their lives. Do they think that grace goes out the window now? They must be grace oriented for entering the kingdom and for greatness. Greatness is not a competition. Greatness is an attitude of soul.

Humility is an attitude; and that is from our focus on the grace of God. That is grace orientation. We are oriented on what God has done for us. All the accomplishments of this world are nothing compared to what He does.

Luke 9:48 and said to them, "Whoever receives this child in my name receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me. For he who is least among you all is the one who is great."

Mark 9:35 And he sat down and called the twelve. And he said to them, "If anyone would be first, he must be last of all and servant of all."

The original question is who's the greatest? So Jesus explains, "Anyone who wants to be first, will be last and he will be the servant of everyone." Arrogance demands to be served by all. Wanting or striving to be first in importance is the attitude of arrogant self-centeredness.

The ambitious person who is striving to gain favor in the eyes of the Lord. I am giving a lot of money, so I am gaining a lot of favor from God.

In each classes, there are bragamonies. "I am great and my accomplishments make me great." There needs to be the right focus. It is good to witness to people. You are simply a mouthpiece. The Holy Spirit convicts these people.

Jesus corrects this human viewpoint, self-centeredness. "Be a servant of all."

δουλος is Paul's terminology.

What Is Jesus Saying about Being a Servant?

We have a tendency to think that humility is the opposite of greatness. A running back cannot wait to stand up and tell you what he has done.

1. Jesus is referring to a believer who serves the needs of other people.
2. He is not referring to the physical status of slavery or being owned by another person. He is not commending the institution of slavery.
3. Jesus is referring to the attitude of humility. Doulos is a metaphor for humility.
4. That attitude is indicated by putting others above yourself. This does not mean that you are walking about with a tray serving others drinks and food. It is all about attitude.
5. A believer should not be self-centered or arrogant about himself. Do not think more highly of yourself than you ought to.
6. Being a servant to all, is an attitude of humility. An irony; the one who seems to be last is really the first. That is the definition of grace orientation. The Lord will describe this in greater detail. You might not have contact with anyone to be a servant of all.
7. The believer must take on the same humility as demonstrated by Jesus Christ in serving the needs of all mankind in salvation. He is the example of humility. Jesus chose to die for us; He chose to be our substitute. His attitude of humility took Him to the cross. Jesus is commending greatness in the kingdom by means of grace orientation and the humility that goes with it. Grace orientation results in humility. When you recognize that the grace of God has done everything for you, that gives you an inherent humility. That is the attitude for a great spiritual life. You recognize that you are dependent upon the Lord. Grace orientation is understanding that our strength is in Christ.

The disciples are beginning to realize the position of grace orientation. This will spur them to become grace oriented. They may learn how to produce divine good. This makes them great in the kingdom.

It does not matter what people think of you. What matters is what Jesus Christ thinks of us. We get all wrapped up with people who do not like us for various reasons; they don't like how we act or what we do. So what! That is not where your accolades lie. When you do serve, when you are a servant to all, it is divine good.

The disciples begin to realize the importance of grace orientation. It is all about the right attitude and the motivation for service to Him. He must have gotten a little upset when Peter said, "Who's the greatest."

Those who wish to be first in the eyes of man, will be last in the eyes of God.

Summary Points

1. There is no service to Christ or to man without the correct motivation from grace orientation. If your motivation is wrong, your service is meaningless.
2. You cannot remain grace oriented without remaining in fellowship for longer periods of time. There are people who think that rebound doesn't always work. If you continue to sin, you are out of fellowship. Every time you rebound, it works, even if this puts you back into fellowship for a second. In Berachah, you listen to the Word of God, and you metabolize Bible doctrine by this. The procedure is simple. Rebound, listen to Bible doctrine and grow spiritually. Your attitude is based upon staying in fellowship which is based on growing in the spiritual life. That is how grace orientation is acquired.
3. So the service done in fellowship and grace orientation is divine good. This is important because it reflects our motivation.
4. It defines the difference between the good works that any unbeliever can do and the divine good that the believer does when in fellowship. Humility is the difference. It is the attitude and the power of the Holy Spirit; these two go together.

The disciples must learn this lesson in order to serve the Lord in this way.

Jesus continues the lesson using a child. Luke 9:48 too.

Mark 9:36 And he took a child and put him in the midst of them, and taking him in his arms, he said to them,

Jesus picks the child up and holds him in His arms.

Mark 9:37 "Whoever receives one such child in My name receives Me, and whoever receives Me, receives not Me but him who sent Me."

Jesus is addressing the disciples as believers who are great in the kingdom; this is not for entry into the Kingdom of God.

Whoever is the believer who is grace oriented. That is the context; and this is the foundation for spiritual greatness. But what is the connection between receiving the child and receiving Christ? This child illustrates the point. He is an illustration; he represents the believer and the believer who is child-like. This is the immature, helpless believer. Unable to use spiritual resources. Dependent and immature believer. This is what the disciples must receive; and they cannot do this with an arrogant attitude. "Those people that they all look down on; you cannot do that. You must receive them as fellow believers."

δέχομαι means to receive someone into your arms, to embrace someone closely; to offer hospitality. The young believer must be embraced by the mature believer. The mature believer must be hospitable.

Luke 9:48 and said to them, "Whoever receives this child in my name receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me. For he who is least among you all is the one who is great."

What Does Jesus Mean?

1. The illustration of being great; a servant to all.
2. The mature believer serves even the immature believer. The disciples are only serving themselves and their desire to be great.
3. The immature children are to be accepted as fellow believers. This will become clear when John comes across a guy casting out demons.
4. The children must not be sidetracked; this is why they must be accepted. They cannot be sidetracked with rejection. They cannot be sidetracked by issues that would keep them from growing up. A parent is designed to help a child grow up. A parent is dedicated to teaching a child to grow up. When they move out, the job ends. Some mature believers do not want to associate with immature believers.
5. The children need care, patience and acceptance. No one at Berachah should look down on someone of a lower maturity level. You have no right to not accept any other believer; including those you may disagree with. It is tough when you run into those who have weird theologies. That is a tough one. They may not buy into rebound of the importance of Bible doctrine. It is really hard even to be nice to such people. And the tongues-speakers. You do not have a right to look down on them. It is about grace orientation.
6. They must have a chance to grow without roadblocks of rejection or neglect placed in front of them. There are many things that you can say to immature believers which are way off base. We get so wrapped up in, "I must convince the person how wrong they are." But that is not up to us. You need to be relaxed around them.
7. The mature believer must not become a stumbling block to the immature believer. If you think that you are mature; you were once immature. You were allowed to grow unencumbered by the arrogance of other believers. You did not need to compete with other believers. The immature believer is not to be subjected to the arrogant believer. Bobby heard so many times that he needed to mentor other people; to lead them. This has turned many people off to spiritual growth. If it is not in your soul, then you are not growing.

If the disciples are able to receive the immature believer then they are able to receive Christ. This is not salvation; this is receiving the message of Jesus Christ; the message of humility. If they can operate in humility toward the child, that is the correct way to do it. Receive a child in humility, that is a reflection of your grace orientation. Jesus is commending grace orientation and humility.

Luke 9:48 and said to them, "Whoever receives this child in my name receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me. For he who is least among you all is the one who is great."

There is even more to get here. We must learn to think with grace orientation.

Lesson #0648

Matt. 18: Life of Christ

8/20/2014 Wed

I did not know it was Wednesday last night. So I was a no-show.

Matt. 18:5 "Whoever receives one such child in my name receives me,

Matt. 18:6 but whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him to have a great millstone fastened around his neck and to be drowned in the depth of the sea.

Lesson #0649

Matt. 18: Life of Christ

8/21/2014 Thurs

Jim Meyers, a missionary from the Ukraine is at Berachah tonight.

We cannot know God unless He tells us about Himself. Man cannot find God in himself and he cannot find God in other people. God is nothing like us. We can only know God by what he tells us about Himself.

People are incredulous that there are things in the Bible like Noah; and to them, it is like mythology or something. Everything that is found in the Bible teaches us something about God.

God has a plan designed for every single one of us. He left no one out. That plan is perfect because God is perfect. His plan impeccably corresponds to a believer's propensities, his interests. God knew everything about our lives in eternity past. God knew that we would believe in the Lord Jesus Christ. He knew our environment; He knew all of it. And He gave us the appropriate gift.

The sovereignty of God and the free will of man co-exist. Our faith is necessary. God knew it and we must accomplish it. Because of this, God designed a plan for us. A complete and superlative package. Since God designed this plan, there can be no contradictions in His plan. However, even though His plan is flawless, the believer is imperfect and therefore, we fail in executing the plan of God. We have a spiritual life and that spiritual life is designed to fulfill the plan of God. Yet, even in our imperfection, God's plan moves ahead perfectly.

The grace of God is active in our lives to allow us to fulfill His plan. There is the doctrine that we can metabolize, which gives us the mind of Christ; divine viewpoint. That is the doctrine that we can apply to our lives. We grow and we advance in His plan. We can fulfill His will.

There is a major roadblock for all of us in realizing the accomplishment of His will. This is related to our sin nature and our lack of spiritual growth.

The Roadblock

1. The great blockage is creeping arrogance in our souls. It is that imperfection by which we cannot execute the plan of God.
2. Arrogance is the basic mental attitude sin .from which all other mental attitude sin stem.
3. Arrogance is the antithesis of the grace of God. It is self-promotion and total blindness to the grace of God.
4. Be definition, arrogance is synonymous with vanity, which is nothing but empty pride. In regard to one's person, attainments or possessions.
5. Vanity is often coupled with an excessive desire to be noticed. It is a lust for attention; a lust for approval or praise for others. This preempts glorifying God; it is glorifying yourself.
6. For the believer, arrogance opposes utilizing the grace of God. When you are in arrogance, rebound is there, but you are likely not to use it. You cannot execute the spiritual life without that power. When it comes down to it, the choice between doctrine and you, you win every time.
7. Arrogance utilizes to oppose the plan of God to grow. God's plan marches on, so all we have to do is continue to grow spiritually. Arrogance is a primary reason for the believer's failure to execute the Christian life.

We have precedent for this. Satan is the first creature guilty of arrogance when he said, "I will make myself to be like the Most High." That is absolute arrogance. The cosmic system of Satan is the arrogance of works over grace. "I make myself; I will do it." His objective is to be the absolute ruler of the universe. He is absolute arrogance. In this arrogance, Satan can never trump the plan of God. You can see Satan at work throughout the United States. Our country has been a bastion of divine viewpoint and it is eroding. That is the way that Satan operates. This is the way that his world operates. His world operates in arrogance.

All who do wickedness vaunt themselves; they promote themselves. This is exactly what Satan's world is like. This is what we are like without the grace assets of God. In arrogance, we fall right into his plan. In humility, we execute God's plan.

Christianity is not what you do; it is what you think. It must be grace oriented thinking. Otherwise it is nothing more than a presumptuous approach to God. What happens to the grace of God after salvation? It disappears in the life of an arrogant person. We as believers are all products of the grace of God. We are trophies of the grace of God; and we must operate from that understanding. We are all products of the grace of God. That operation is grace in action. Oriented to grace means grace in action. Once that mature viewpoint is gained, then humility becomes operational in your life.

God's plan for us is the attitude of humility.

So now we get to the disciples. The attitude of humility. Now we get to the disciples in Capernaum, and they have already gotten several lessons that they needed. Now, it is about their attitude. The is an arrogant bent.

They line up and stand before the Lord and say, "Pick one of us who is the greatest." And they think that they have been doing these great works before God. They want their personal accomplishments to matter. They are demonstrating their immaturity. They do not realize yet that it is not about them; it is about Christ. They do not have the spiritual ability to distinguish between being great and accomplishing greatness by means of human effort. They do not know the difference. This is always the problem presented by arrogance. The disciples need correction.

Jesus used a child to illustrate humility. We have studied this. We have seen the importance in these passages that Jesus placed on humility. The amazing thing is, after these illustrations of a child, of humility, of dependence upon the Lord; and this lesson went right over the disciples' heads.

Luke 9:49 John answered, "Master, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him, because he does not follow with us."

The disciples are trying to prevent a demon-hunter. John and the others had been stung by Jesus' recognition of their lack of humility. John thinks that this will gain the favor of Jesus because they stopped this guy. He was showing exactly the opposite of grace. They failed to receive a child as the Lord had been teaching them. An immature believer, accepting that child and embracing that child.

This guy expressed enough faith to cast out demons; but 9 of the disciples did not have enough faith to cast out a demon themselves. He has done what they should have been able to do.

John is the one to point this out. Jesus does not say to the disciples, "Good job, boys."

This guy was not acceptable to the disciples because of their arrogance. "Who's this guy?" "We know more than anyone." They are filled with arrogance. This is an occupational hazard for believers who are advancing in the plan of God. There is great irony here. Jesus has given them a great dissertation on humility; and they go the opposite direction.

What they have to understand is, they are not the exclusive representatives of Jesus. Other believers have a place in the plan of God, even if they are immature. He has a plan for them just as much as He has a plan for us. It does not matter that they are immature. So do not look at others with a superior attitude. You are not called to judge other believers ever. Encourage, sure; judge, no. You cannot read their minds. Your superior attitude will never do anyone any good.

John's statement and the actions of the disciples suggests that they are the only ones qualified to cast out demons; but they are not. John just proved Jesus' point. They deserve to be reprimanded. They cannot have this arrogance and operate as apostles.

The mode of teaching doctrine is dogmatic. Whatever it takes to get the information across. Jesus is the master teacher and He can make a point. This is a very important point for our application.

Bobby will start the application. There are many other theologies out there with which we would not agree to a greater or lesser extent. Churches should be teaching doctrine; but people are going to seminaries to learn Bible doctrine. This tells us that churches are not teaching doctrine. There are a number of divergent theologies, like covenant theology. Some of these theologies and viewpoints are based on bad suppositions. Remember, these people are souls for whom Christ died; and they may be believers who know very little Bible doctrine. They may be confused on very practical issues. They qualify as children, as they are immature believers. Therefore, they must be embraced and treated graciously; and treated as if they were mature. That is a very difficult attitude to maintain. The emotional praise and worship brand of Christianity is not favorable for the growing in grace and knowledge. Sometimes, there is a faith in mystical communication from God; and they reject the academic learning of Bible doctrine. Christianity is objective; it is not subjective. These are believers in Jesus Christ. The charismatic branch of Christianity. They may try to speak the gospel in tongues, which is entirely wrong. But many of them do present the gospels and their doctrine is poor, to say the least. They qualify as children; so they are fellow believers. Even if they are antagonistic to you, as a believer who emphasizes Bible doctrine.

It was tough for Bob to teach that a bishop is not a striker of persons, because he liked that. This passage is difficult for Bobby; he does not like their theology; but he has to embrace them.

Jim Meyers missionary to the Ukraine:

Good to be back in the land of cheap gasoline. It is over $5/gallon. They spend most of their time in the former soviet union; Ukraine is about the size of Texas. It has been overrun by many other nations. Kiev is about the size of Houston. 3 monuments to peace between Russia and Ukraine. There has been conflict in the past. They would settle the conflict and build a big monument to it. 3 in Kiev.

Traveled some 12,000 miles over 18 states speaking to 25 different groups, nearly all of which have a legacy connected to Berachah Church. A number of these churches have Bobby as their pastor. They understand the importance of Bible doctrine in their lives and they cannot find it anywhere in their community. They use current technology. There are many churches all over; they are struggling and they are small; and they have not given up their doctrine.

These other churches have to call it praise and worship; otherwise you would not know what they are. There are churches who love the Word of God all over the US. There are men who have the desire to teach the Word of God.

As missionaries, they try to conduct their lives in a way to bring honor to Berachah. 50th year of teaching the Bible. He met Bob in 1963. He got his framework from Berachah.

People in Ukraine are praying for us. They are not just praying for themselves. They pray for the body of Christ in the United States. They focus on training teachers, evangelists and pastors. A missionary is to try to work himself out of a job. He wants to train men to do the job, so that there will be a time to leave; and the idea is, the ministry will continue forward. Because men there will have gotten the tools and the foundation to move forward. In their own language and in their own culture.

Many think that they need an American sponsor to them; and Meyer tries to keep them from doing that. A half a dozen churches have started in Ukraine from his schools without Yankee dollars. They have trusted the Lord to provide their needs and they present a grace gospel.

The orthodox church is a system of works. Many of the protestant churches teach a form of lordship-salvation, either to get saved or to stay saved. People have gone out and they have taken this grace message with them.

A man named Ali, from Iran, a Persian, and he came to Ukraine to escape from his country. He was a Muslim. He heard the gospel and was saved. After salvation, he wanted to know more about Jesus Christ. He was an eager student. He started a Persian church in Kiev. He has led a few hundred Muslims to faith in Christ. If you cannot get a missionary in, then God will pull those people out. When he started his church, Meyer was asked to teach a class. Only 4 or 5 men but they wanted to learn the Word of God. Agreements were made to move some of the Iranian Bible class, and they are in several different countries evangelizing other Muslims.

It is marvelous to see them grow and begin to function. A Bible college; small group. 8:30 with Greek and Hebrew. Theology and Bible. 2 year intensive study like 4 years elsewhere. They know the Bible. They are grace oriented; they go out to start their own ministries.

Word of God Bible church. Jim Meyer pastors; but most of the responsibilities have been given to others. When he is gone, the church goes right on. They know verse-by-verse, categorical, exegetical teaching.

Also possible for Jim to go to Zambia in Africa. It is a wonderful country with much positive volition. It has not been overrun by Islam. Millions of Christians there. Not much Bible teaching there. Many pastors who have caught on to doctrine there and they are beginning to have an impact there. One man who knows his stuff, and he is being called to teach at conferences. They call for him to teach them.

Islam has not gone in there because of the influence of the Word of God. They will have an impact on this nation. This can spread to the surrounding nations as well.

He also goes to Brazil. A daughter of Tim who is a missionary in the Amazon jungle. She has 3 children and she is deep into the jungle. She is among the tribes. Bible conferences in Brazil. They will come out for the Bible conference. Nick Lipsy also continues to teach there. More and more churches are calling upon them to teach. The churches all doctrinally oriented originally back in the 30's and 40's. They have not gone apostate, but the pastors have forgotten what their job is. These conferences are teaching them to bring this back. More and more churches are calling on him to teach. They see a change when Bible doctrine is taught.

He will go back to Ukraine next Tuesday. Not an all-out war, but they are fighting Russian troops. Ukraine disarmed under pressure from the UN and the United States. They have been down-grading their military for the past 20 years.

Peter Quartershanko is their new leader. He said, "Crimea belongs to Ukraine, period." He also announced, that they would rebuild their military. Ukraine without a good military will be overrun by anyone who wants it.

The former president was a thug and a gangster. He had to resign and he ran away to Russia and he took billions of dollars with him. The interim government. An interim president; and that man is a Christian. He believes in Jesus Christ. All kinds of propaganda about this new government. Right wing crazies and religious fanatics. This guy brought the media to his Baptist church. He spoke and after the service, people came up and shook his hand and talked to him. He came to church and without bodyguards and he is talking to ordinary people. He conducted himself admirably.

Elected a new president. Many agencies monitored the vote. This new guy seems to be making decisions that are good for the nation. He is in a very difficult spot. Ukraine has an enemy on its eastern border. Russian wants to control the east Ukraine; that is where the mining is. Not all of their troops are sent in yet. Just mercenaries are sent in so far. No Russian army uniforms. Many claim to be Ukrainians. However, when they are shot, they are buried in Russian. Some Ukrainians are fighting against Ukraine. Separatists; they want to separate from Ukraine and align with Russia. Took over police stations and they set up a phony government. Ukraine government is pushing back. A full-scale invasion would be nearly impossible for them to resist.

Jim Meyer has been there for 20 years; and there has been a rise in nationalism. Ukraine means borderland, which means it is appended to some other place. It always belonged to another country. Ukraine is a nation. The Ukraine is just borderland. Now businesses are flying Ukraine flags. Most of those 20 years, no one had flags. Now many of them do. They are becoming a nation.

Set a world record singing a national anthem, a half million in Ukraine. This will not be an easy war for Russia. There are men in their 40's ready to enlist in Ukraine's army. This is huge; this is a great shift.

None of the conflict has hindered Jim Meyer. He still can go out in the street and preach Jesus. You can pass out Bibles or Bible tracts. Bible colleges. No problems. Conflict has not harmed that. Some of the graduates are in the east; and some of them have had to shut down their ministries. Some on the border have no had gas, electricity, running water, etc. They have to build a fire in their yard to cook meals. People in the street with guns, and you don't know if they are friend or foe.

People crowded into small places. 3 generations in a 500 sq ft apartment. The fighting is several hundred miles away from Kiev. Life there is relatively normal right now.

Lesson #0650

Matt. 18: Life of Christ

8/24/2014 1Sunday

The world often touts arrogance as beneficial to us. And there is a difference between self-confidence and arrogance; and if you are competent in some area, then it is reasonable to have self-confidence in that area. It is legitimate to have self-confidence; but not to be arrogant. As a man thinks within himself, so he is. If you have arrogance in your soul, then you are arrogant. Man sees the outward actions; but God looks at the heart.

Several branches of arrogance:

Egotism: an excessive preoccupation with yourself; everything revolves around you. This is not the same as ego, which is self consciousness, which is perfectly normal.

Vanity: self-admiration and a desire to be admired by others. What people think of you drives everything that you do. It is easily flattered, patronized, and easily manipulated.

Pride: the assumption of superiority over all others.

Conceit: this is a part of arrogance; an exaggerated look of one's own looks or abilities.

Sometimes easily offended; or you are condescending. Arrogance makes everyone sick except the person who has it. No believer can grow when entertaining a thought pattern of arrogance.

A person's arrogance will bring him low. Arrogance does not elevate you; it brings you low. Those who are first, are last; those who are humble, are first. That is an irony of this world. There are those in this world who appear to be first, but in reality, they are last. You realize that you are nothing. God's grace is everything. Arrogance is the epitome of failure in the spiritual life.

You do not relate to people very well when you are arrogant. The frustrated part is, you will never be treated as you want to be treated. You then become passive-aggressive, sullen, morose.

Do nothing from empty conceit. Act with humility of mind. With humility of mind regard one another as being more important than yourself. The Christian life is not about you; it is about what God has done for you. The Christian life is not about works or about your good deeds; those are the results of living the spiritual life. Humility in the Christian life is a recognition of the authority of the Lord Jesus Christ, and submitting to that authority. Humility includes authority-orientation.

Rejection of doctrine is rejection of authority. The Bible is the revelation of the mind of Christ and it is the unveiling of God's grace. We have no concept of God's grace apart from what the Bible reveals to us. Through that revelation, we see the Lord Jesus Christ and we come to love, worship, revere and understand Him; and what He gives us.

The consistent perception and metabolizing of Bible doctrine. This is the only way to develop God's thinking within us.

Rom. 12:3 For I say through the grace which has been given to me which is the revelation of Bible doctrine. Paul was the writer of the most epistles of the New Testament. He was one of the great geniuses of all time. But it is grace given to him. It is not the arrogance of Judaism that made him great. ...to everyone who is among you... those who are believers, those who are learning. ...stop thinking of self in terms of arrogance beyond what you ought to think, because God has assigned to each one of us, a standard of thinking from doctrine. This is the result of renovated thinking. This is absolute; this is authoritative.

Human viewpoint thinking is whatever society discusses and likes today. That which was sin before, is now lauded.

The believer is given a standard.

Why are so many young men going over to the Middle East and becoming terrorists and chop of heads? What is it that makes them do that? The people in the west have no structure in their life. It is all relative. They are searching for men to tell them what to do. They are looking for absolutes, but they found them in the wrong place.

The British terrorist who chopped off Foley's head is arrogant.

Submission to the authority of the Lord requires the application of Bible doctrine.

Arrogance is evidenced by the disciples coming forward and saying, "Which of us is the greatest?" They wanted this based on their personal accomplishments as His disciples. They were impressed with themselves and assumed superiority over the others. They needed correction.

Jesus used a child as a teaching tool. However, this lesson went over their heads. This is shown based upon a lesson that John speaks of.

Luke 9:49 John answered, "Master, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him, because he does not follow with us."

This person is a believer, something Jesus will confirm to them. There are plenty of demon-casters around the world today. They are no longer valid in the Church Age. However, 9 of the disciples recently could not cast out a demon because of their lack of faith.

Their problem is, this man casting out demons is not under the direct teaching of Jesus, so they have assumed that he is not doing the Lord's work. There is jealousy here, which is a manifestation of arrogance.

Luke 9:50 But Jesus said to him, "Do not stop him, for the one who is not against you is for you."

This is a direct refutation of their position. They are going in the same direction; and Jesus tells them not to hinder this man. This is a positive believer and he is on their side. You cannot have team disention and win. The quarterback cannot chew out the linemen or whatever. They keep one another from doing that which is correct.

Jesus uses a velvet glove to make a correction. He does not want to discourage them, but He needs to correct them. Someone on the same team has become a stumbling block to someone else on the same team.

There are many other theologies out there with which we do not agree. There is charismatic theology, there is covenant theology, and there is a lot of error here. This can be found throughout Christendom. If they are believers in Jesus Christ, as Jesus says about this man. "Do not prevent; do not hinder these others." They do not need your correction. You can denigrate Bible doctrine in their eyes. There are those who came out of Berachah Church who have done exactly that.

Bob was persona non grata in Dallas Theological Seminary because of people from Berachah who went there and tried to straighten everyone out. You only turn people off to the truth when you get arrogant about your understanding of the truth.

Sometimes a little patience, tolerance and sound judgment is helpful; and understanding when to keep your mouth shut. You do not want to destroy the team, even if you do not like the way that they are playing. You do not want to be antagonistic or arrogant. They might be highly critical of you; but that is okay. That is people testing. You treat people in humility. You treat others in grace.

You have every right to speak the truth; but you know in humility how to do it. You know the right time, the right opening and the right method. You need to be smart enough to present Bible doctrine at the right time to the right people. A lot of people have come to Berachah because the right person spoke to them in the right way.

You are not to be a stumbling block; you need to act in humility. Not argumentative but demonstrative of maturity. You might end up separating from some people because you get consistently out of fellowship or you are unduly influenced. But you do not do this contentiously. You must live your life before the Lord in doctrine.

Do not leave a bad taste in the mouth of those who are unconvinced by the importance of doctrine. Do not drive them away by your bad actions or by arrogance. Pastors have left this church and have been seduced away from doctrine. Some do it for money; some get unduly influenced. By experiential Christianity, that is with an emphasis on the externals. Even subjective revelation from God that overrides Biblical doctrines. That is difficult to us with doctrine. We know they are off. Charismatics do win souls for Christ, but they do not help with growth after. Plenty of churches involved in the culture of Christianity. Much more important to them than Bible doctrine.

All of the problems of churches today is a lack of doctrine.

The disciples got arrogant; they started complaining about other believers. And Jesus tells them to cool their jets.

This is tough for Bobby as well. 5 years of seminary. He had to bite his tongue on many occasions.

Lesson #0651

Matt. 18: Life of Christ

8/24/2014 2Sunday

It is our tendency to speak the truth against error; and this is not always called for. Bobby heard many aberrations and viewpoints and mistake; and it was all too difficult for Bobby not to say anything. He needed to just listen and understand where they were coming from. Only then, can you approach with tolerance and you become intelligent about what they say. Any time we use the Word of God, the Holy Spirit can use this. He can use the truth to convince the hearer of this truth. One of the things that Bobby was most proud of, is one of Bobby's professors said, "If he is the product of his church, then that church must be okay." These are opportunities that we must take advantage of. One of Bobby's professors allowed him to speak and to refute him.

And Jesus tells them, "Do not hinder this guy."

Mark 9:38 John said to him, "Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him, because he was not following us."

Mark 9:39 But Jesus said, "Do not stop him, for no one who does a mighty work in my name will be able soon afterward to speak evil of me."

When you present grace in all of its glory, it is impossible to refute. When you understand grace, and when you are grace oriented, then it is much better than any argument that you can throw out there.

Do not hinder others by your actions. There are people who can be very wrong. They can even be stumbling blocks to us. They get us out of fellowship. That is the wrong way to handle it. We still have an obligation to them.

A friendly argument is fine; and it can cross the line. A disagreement over Biblical viewpoints can be warranted. But do not speak from ignorance. Do not try to convince someone about a doctrine that you understand. But you cannot allow the disagreement turn into a shouting match filled with vituperation. You must be calm in your presentation. Remember, you are not an attack dog who goes after incorrect doctrine with bared teeth. Use some humility. Do not get involved in spiritual confrontations.

It is heartbreaking when family and friends are divided by doctrinal viewpoints. It is important not to get crossways with your family when you hope to influence them with doctrine.

Only a renovation of thinking can change these divisions and incompatibilities. You cannot go after those who are closest to you with a vengeance. You may want a brother or a sister or someone who is close to you to know the truth; but you must be circumspect, or it become counterproductive. It is not productive to be overtly argumentative with those with whom you disagree. That is not a winning combination. That is not a way to win people for Christ and influence them for doctrine.

An arrogant man stirs up strife. Is that how you want to live? Only the objective presentation of doctrine and our attitude of humility provides us the impetus for us to renovate and for others to be able to see our lives and to like what they see.

Give people something that they know they want and then show them how to get it.

False doctrine can be denounced and opposed. The point in this context, is how do you deal with other believers. There are many times that you don't engage in arguments over points of doctrine.

Do not lose your temper. Do not call others derogatory names. You negate all that Bible doctrine teaches. This serves no purpose. You are not applying impersonal love. Stand your ground on doctrine, but do not stand on them.

This is a hard one for Bobby; it is easy to be absolute and authoritarian. And it is doctrine which is authoritarian; not us. Bible doctrine carries its own authority. You cannot metabolize Bible doctrine without becoming convinced of its truth. It is hard to be quiet when you hear aberration. But Bobby's purpose is to teach correct doctrine and then to allow the Holy Spirit to do the work.

Bobby could give a wonderful 20 minute homily about how to be a good person; and don't forget to give money. When Bobby was in seminary, a lot of kids came there just to learn what the Bible had to say. This is the purpose of the church, not of seminaries. That means that churches are failing.

Bobby knows that he cannot change everyone's mind. But he can teach the Bible; and the Bible changes people. Bobby does not have to present some overwhelming argument to convince us of the truth. He just needs to teach the truth. You must know the truth first before you can speak it.

As a husband and wife, you do not want to have all of these divergent opinions. You cannot handle this with nagging.

Passing a people test revolves around the application of Bible doctrine.

Bobby will never forget the words of the president of Western Seminary, Earl Rodmocker, and he wrote an endorsement for Bobby. He knew that the situation could become competitive and contentious. "After it is over, remember that you are all on the same team." It was very sage advice to preclude the antagonisms, the rejection. The focus needs to be on doctrine in the soul. You do not return rivalry for rivalry. Resentment for resentment. Many a church splits over these things. Churches rightfully split over doctrine. But it should not be over personalities. We are not responsible for the decisions or the actions for other believers. We are not to be stumbling blocks for them. So, do not return arrogance for arrogance.

Separate from people who whom you have adversity. You have to function without rancor, backstabbing or self-promotion.

It is all about renovation of your own thinking first. Unless you can renovate that thinking, it will never get better.

If you are not advancing in a state of humility, you are not growing spiritually. It is the difference between γνῶσις and ἐπίγνωσις. When the doctrine is presented to you and the Holy Spirit teaches your human spirit, then you understand the doctrine. That is not growth yet. However, you have to believe it, and that is your spiritual growth. When you accept the doctrine as truth, the Holy Spirit takes that doctrine into the right lobe of the soul. Then you begin to think that doctrine. The last step is critical. That is where your attitude changes. Metabolizing the grace of God becomes grace orientation and doctrinal orientation. You become oriented to doctrine because you think doctrine.

Mark 9:40 For the one who is not against us is for us.

Jesus is not finished with these guys yet. They need more instruction. We need more instruction in order to become grace oriented. So Jesus has to reply to John, where bears out the need for impersonal love toward others who are less advanced.

He said, “Do not hinder him, for there is no one who can perform a miracle in My name and be able soon afterward to speak evil of Me. For he who is not against us is for us.”

Then Jesus gives an illustration.

Mark 9:41 For truly, I say to you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ will by no means lose his reward.

This is the same as giving a cup of cold water in My name. The disciples need humility; and the disciples offended this many by their actions. This man was doing what he was doing out of faith in Christ. This is done in devotion to the Lord. The maturity level is not the issue. It is about the disciples being believers.

The disciples will be charged to build up the church, and they are failing here with one person. Christ corrects their arrogant preconceptions. No one can perform a miracle in my name and soon speak evil of Me.

Lesson #0652

Matt. 18: Life of Christ

8/27/2014 Wed

Moving forward in the doctrine of humility.

The 12 disciples are lacking the attribute of humility. They have proven twice that they have an arrogant bent that needs to be reckoned with.

They came into the house and said, “Who is the greatest in this kingdom?” All of these guys were in competition with one another. Which one of us is the greatest? Pick the winners and losers here. People are losers because of the choices that they make as believers.

Greatness in the kingdom is grace orientation, which results in that great asset, humility.

Matt. 18:4 Whoever humbles himself like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

We all have equality of opportunity to grow to greatness in the Christian life. Whoever humbles himself, that is the status in the kingdom. This is never based on works. The idea of who is the greatest, must be replaced with the greatness of them all. They had different styles, different personalities, different ministries. We all have levels of greatness that we can reach, independent of the failures of others.

A second incident of incidence.

Luke 9:49 John answered, "Master, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him, because he does not follow with us."

John was speaking for the rest of them. They saw this man casting out demons as a rival. It was tough enough determining who the best disciple was among one another. Throwing in this other guy was problematic. However, this man has a place in the plan of God.

The disciples were not the exclusive representatives of the Lord. Meanwhile, these 12 have offended this man; they offended him by their prohibitive action. "You are not with us; who are you?" They became a stumbling block for this man.

The Demon Caster

1. These words were designed to give a doctrinal word of perspective to the disciples and the stumbling blocks that they were.
2. Jesus as not commending what this man was doing nor was He condemning him. He was performing the miracle as a believer in Jesus Christ and he was doing what he believed to be a good work in service to the Lord.
3. Therefore, Jesus makes it clear, whether the man was doing a good thing or not, he was not opposing Christ; he was a positive believer.
4. He was doing exactly what the disciples were authorized to do. He did not know that there would be any distinction. He represented the Lord by throwing out a demon in his vicinity. Obviously, Jesus had to know that this was going on. If this man was throwing demons out, then the Lord sanctioned this.
5. The disciples took the arrogant approach to this man, who has positive volition.

Luke 9:50 But Jesus said to him, "Do not stop him, for the one who is not against you is for you."

If one is for Christ, then he cannot be against Him at the same time. The two are mutually exclusive. This man can't be sanctioned. This man is not one of us. He was a believer who wanted to serve the Lord. He was in fact an ardent follower of Christ. Even if he was immature, that was just his position or circumstance.

The disciples were not to be stumbling blocks to a spiritual baby. They got arrogant, looked at this guy, and decided, "He is nothing like us; so we will tell him to stop."

These disciples are going to be spreading the gospel throughout the world. They will need others. And there are others in other churches who are doing God's will; and it is not up to us to disrespect them.

They shut this guy down as if he was doing something criminal.

Your obligation is to encourage other believers in the Word; never discourage them. Do not ever discourage them with criticism, even if it is warranted. There are many ways to apply this. This does not mean that you agree with false doctrine. Nor do you get angry and competitive.

The disciples need this thought process of humility. They need to know how to teach doctrine and how to encourage others.

Mark 9:41 For truly, I say to you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ will by no means lose his reward.

Jesus turns the tables on the disciples. What if this guy turns around and gives you a cup of cold water in your name? How do you feel about him giving you a cup of cold water to you in My name? Will you stop him from doing this? Jesus give a small example.

This guy is giving the cold water in their name; now how do you feel about it? Water is given despite the level of maturity of obnoxiousness. The motivation for this seemingly inconsequential deed is grace orientation.

This giving the cold water in the Lord's name is greater than the greatest act of human good. The disciples thought that they were doing good by shutting this guy down.

There are plenty of religious organizations that give plenty of money to feeding children in other lands. That is an act of human good. Human good is not rewardable and it is temporary. But giving a cup of cold water in the Lord's name is greater than this.

Any act of divine good is superior to any act of human good. That is because this glorifies God and not man's work. Giving a cup of cold water in His name is a small but still eternal act of good. And such a one will not lose his reward.

Mark 9:41 For truly, I say to you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ will by no means lose his reward.

How much clearer can the Lord make humility?

Then Jesus returns to the child analogy. He cannot let this arrogance go by. He is hammering them so that they understand the principles.

Matt. 18:6 but whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him to have a great millstone fastened around his neck and to be drowned in the depth of the sea.

The millstone is that huge stone used for grinding wheat. Better for this guy to have a heavy millstone hung around his neck and drown in the sea.

The next time you get upset over what another believer has done; or you get arrogant, then remember this millstone principle. This is death to your spiritual life. You cannot grow and cause stumbling to other believers in your arrogance.

skandalizô (σκανδαλίζω) [scahn-dohl-EEed-zoh], which means, 1) to put a stumbling block or impediment in the way, upon; which another may trip and fall, metaphorically to offend; 1a) to entice to sin; 1b) to cause a person to begin; to distrust and desert one whom he ought to trust and obey; 1b1) to cause to fall away; 1b2) to be offended; in one, i.e. to see in another what I disapprove of and what hinders me from acknowledging his authority; 1b3) to cause one to judge unfavourably or unjustly of another; 1c) since one who stumbles or whose foot gets entangled feels annoyed; 1c1) to cause one displeasure at a thing; 1c2) to make indignant; 1c3) to be displeased, indignant. Strong: To “scandalize”; from G4625; to entrap, that is, trip up (figuratively stumble [transitively] or entice to sin, apostasy or displeasure): - (make to) offend. Bullinger: This is a new word altogether. It is never used in classical Greek, it means to cause to stumble or fall, to give cause of offense. (Bull. P. 73). Strong’s #4624.

Bobby gives the fire drill procedure.

The tripped up believer can reject doctrine because once he is tripped, he has a tendency to stay on the ground until Bible doctrine picks him up. Now, if you have tripped him up, then how interested will he be in the Bible doctrine that you suggest?

The main problem in the spiritual life is arrogance. It is an occupational hazard for both. This stumble is caused by a believer; a believer with an attitude of arrogance. The younger believer is not equipped spiritually to handle the kind of rejection that a stumbling block throws in front of them.

There can be ridicule and disdain in their arrogance. And the one who has been made to stumble is knocked out of the game for awhile. This is a pointed illustration of one believer causing another believer to stumble. No one should hurt an immature believer any more than they would hurt a child. This type of stumbling block should not be given to a mature believer any more than it be given to a little child.

A mature believer is less likely to be tripped up by a stumbling block. What a perverse satisfaction putting a trip wire before a child to trip him. You do not do that to an immature believer any more than you would do that to a young child.

You do not treat other believers with contempt or arrogance.

Mark 9:42 "Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him if a great millstone were hung around his neck and he were thrown into the sea.

We have all heard, “If that is the way that believers act, then I don’t want to have anything to do with Christianity.” Bobby ended up in the same battalion with a old childhood friend. He joined Young Life in college, and started going with this girl, and she dumped him, and she did it in a lousy way. That was why he rejected doctrine. He did not want to have anything to do with Christianity after that. The way that he was dumped may not have been a good thing. He was a believer, but he was crushed by this woman; and he wanted nothing more to do with Christianity after that.

People do get turned off to doctrine by believers who trip you up. Doing lousy things after believing in Jesus Christ brings on divine discipline, but it does not remove our salvation. This was the point that Jesus was making with the disciples.

It would be easy to misunderstand this. The Lord is not commending suicide to believers who have failed.

There is a metaphor in this millstone thing, that really drives home humility.

Lesson #0653

Matt. 18: Life of Christ

8/28/2014 Thurs

Amber alert on the phone last night.

Matt. 18:6 ...but whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him to have a great millstone fastened around his neck and to be drowned in the depth of the sea.

This is a pretty serious problem. It sounds as if Jesus is saying suicide is better than causing a little one to stumble. However, in context, the drowning is just an illustration.

The Stumbling Block Illustration

1. Drowning is, to say the least, is a dramatic illustration. Better to drown yourself than be arrogant.
2. In that arrogance, you can become a stumbling block to another believer.
3. So drowning in the depths of the sea is a metaphor, explaining the spiritual consequences of being arrogant. You should recognize that humility ought to be expressed towards all. There is a failure to extend tolerance and understanding toward immature believers. We are to encourage other believers in the Word and in Bible doctrine. People appreciate being treated with humility from you. They get arrogance all of the time. Humility reflects grace orientation. Grace to the world is a foreign attitude. When it occurs, it stands out. So we are not to discourage with criticism or contempt. Now, if you are in a position of authority and you are called upon to evaluate someone, then criticism is appropriate. Rather than being a stumbling block, Jesus says, it is better to be far out at sea and to attach a millstone to your neck and sink to the bottom. It is a pretty graphic picture.
4. The testifies to the seriousness of being a stumbling block to another believer out of arrogance.

The disciples should be asking themselves, what is all this talk about who is the greatest amongst the disciples? Why are they so competitive amongst themselves and with other believers. They are being the stumbling blocks to other believers; those who hear their arrogance and inordinate competition.

It is better that they do not advance to apostleship with this arrogance. They cannot represent the Lord Jesus Christ with arrogance. They need to be able to listen to the Lord and become grace oriented. If they cannot treat others with humility, but rather in arrogance, then it is better that they do not operate as representatives of Jesus Christ. "If you cannot straighten this out, then you cannot serve Me in your arrogance."

The Disciples as Stumbling Blocks

1. Through this illustration, Jesus is saying, "Better than you had never been the chosen 12 or to be a stumbling block." This is all about Judas. He is filled with arrogance.
2. As stumbling blocks, we can never be apostles. You cannot be in the will of God with arrogance.
3. For them, not receiving the immature believer, the child, with humility and with impersonal love, is an act of spiritual suicide. It destroys the spiritual life. Arrogance is the great destroyer of our spiritual life. You cannot be filled with the Spirit and arrogant.
4. No believer has the green light to retard anyone spiritual life.

There is the possibility of the sin unto death to these disciples.

There was the man who was casting out demons in his zeal; and they shut him down. It is spiritual life or death in the temporal realm. It is never a matter of eternal life. You do not lose that.

This is all about, after salvation, what? Where do we go from here?

The disciples have to work together in their all important mission of building the church. They cannot afford to be bickering about their status.

Matt. 18:7 "Woe to the world for temptations to sin! For it is necessary that temptations come, but woe to the one by whom the temptation comes!"

Jesus Now Speaks about the World

1. Jesus now is speaking about the world.
2. The world is a term that refers to Satan's cosmic system and those who are a part of it.
3. Satan's system of propaganda and indoctrination and Satan does have doctrine. Satan cannot stand the grace of God. Satan began is arrogant; he was arrogant when he rebelled against God. That was the epitome of arrogance. Satan's system of propaganda, which is against the grace of God in every way.
4. Satan can influence humanity in many ways, like demon possession.

5. Satan promotes humanistic thinking in contrast to the divine viewpoint of Bible doctrine. Humanism is diametrically opposed the Bible doctrine. People think the science is the savior of mankind, that it will lead us to a human utopia. This is what will emanate from science. Science has done nothing about the inward condition of man. Science has given us amazing knowledge and medical breakthroughs. It has also given us climate change and evolution. That is the savior of mankind? It has given us great cures for ailments, but everyone will still die. We live in an age when science is paramount. Everything is thought to be empirical, and that confuses the concept of faith.
6. Humanistic science is the propaganda and indoctrination toady of the cosmic system. Unbelievers have nothing else to have faith in rather than other human beings, in science or in politics.
7. All unbelievers live in the fear of spiritual death. All are influenced to some degree by the cosmic system. It is inevitable; it cannot be helped.
8. However, unbelievers do have a protection against Satan's cosmic system.
9. This protection starts with volition; and how the unbeliever uses that volition as related to the only system of truth that he understands.
10. One of the easiest ways for the unbeliever to live in the cosmic system is to reject legitimate authority as found in the laws of divine establishment. The last 50 years have been a march to reject legitimate authority. We are surrounded in this country by arrogance, from the top to the bottom. This is for the wealth, the political leaders, as well as the poor and the downtrodden. Human nature is arrogance. This is that burgeoning problem in the United States. It is the rejection of Bible doctrine by the believer.

Stumbling block attitudes of inevitable.

Negative Volition among Unbelievers

1. Jesus Christ is speaking of personal acts of rejection of Himself by the unbelieving world. The individual rejection by unbelievers.
2. Negative volition to the gospel causes the unbeliever to be an intrinsic stumbling block to others. Arrogance is a stumbling block.
3. The fact is, they oppose Christ, because they always a part of the cosmic system as unbelievers. When someone rejects Jesus Christ, they can only go in the other direction.
4. Even if an unbeliever is neutral concerning Jesus Christ, which means they have rejected Him, but are neutral and tolerant of Christians and Christianity, they are still opposed when it comes to rejecting Jesus Christ on the cross. That is the unbelieving world. The world of the cosmic system.

Compare the unbelieving world who is opposed to Christ to the man that the disciples stopped from casting out demons. Even if he is doctrinally illiterate, he is on our side. Unbelievers by their mere rejection are biased. They cannot be unbiased. They speak evil of Jesus Christ, whether they say it out loud or not. They may seem very tolerant of us; very welcoming, but they are unbelievers who have rejected Jesus Christ. That is the most basic sort of negative volition. That is what the world is and what it does. This is even when the unbeliever does not speak actual words against Christ.

The Unbeliever's Resistance to Jesus Christ

1. The unbeliever is consistently in resistance. It is resistance, even if they do not resist us. The unbeliever can have a form of humility.
2. Open antagonism is not the only indicator of resistance to Christ and Christianity. We are seeing more and more antagonism against Christianity.
3. Rejection and resistance is the basic nature of the unbeliever's world. A believer accepted Christ at an accepted time. He can never be against.
4. The mere act of rejection is an offense to Christ. The greatest offense.
5. Rejection means an unbeliever, no matter how nice, adhere to the cosmic system, which is inherently evil.
6. Gospel rejection means that a person is against Jesus Christ.

Jesus can apply this illustration of the world to the arrogant disciples. They are also tainted by the disciples who acts as stumbling blocks, to fellow believers or to unbelievers.

The stumbling blocks includes several activities.

What Do These Stumbling Blocks Look Like; How Do They Act?

1. They act as ridicule and roadblocks. The atheists and agnostics do not want anyone to hear the gospel. They do not want anyone to hear this. They are threatened by the gospel. Rejection makes them insecure. Have you heard those who do not want to hear it? It scares them. There is always that little bit of doubt.
2. They discourage immature believers from advancing
3. Tacit or over t ridicule of the gospel; and they exert an evil influence on those who need to hear the gospel.
4. In its viral form, it results in opposition and persecution of believers.

Matt. 18:7 "Woe to the world for temptations to sin! For it is necessary that temptations come, but woe to the one by whom the temptation comes!"

Lesson #0653

Matt. 18: Life of Christ

8/31/2014 1Sunday

Jesus uses the word woe; so this will be a word to tremble at (at least for the unbeliever).

Jesus is speaking to the disciples here; and there is a man with zeal who is casting out demons. The disciples tell him to cease and desist. Jesus tells them that they are wrong in what they are doing. Instead of encouraging him, they discourage him from doing anything. They become a stumbling block to him. He is turned away by a stumbling block believer. Being a stumbling block is a very serious offense to other believers. This is also an offense to other believers.

Matt. 18:6 ...but whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him to have a great millstone fastened around his neck and to be drowned in the depth of the sea.

The stumbling block would be better off putting a millstone around their neck and jump into the sea. No believer can live in the will of God and be a stumbling block and have arrogance in their soul. With an arrogant attitude, they are always out of fellowship. It is spiritual suicide in the temporal life to stay out of fellowship and be a stumbling block to other believers. Your attitude should not cause other believers to stop what they are doing.

Now Jesus makes an application for them. Jesus will say something about unbelievers to the 12 disciples who are believers. Κοσμος describes Satan's domain on this earth. Jesus pronounces woe upon this world. This is judgment pronounced on this world. The ruler of this world will be cast out. Casting out is a fate worse than death. Satan's ultimate fate is being cast into hell. Hell was created for the devil and his angels. They are the major roadblocks. Satan has a system of ruling this world, known as the cosmic system. It is propaganda and indoctrination. We get nothing but propaganda from all quarters. You need some doctrine to figure it out.

The propaganda we hear is designed to keep us from salvation or from the spiritual life.

Satan opposes the forward movement of the Christian life.

Satan is a relative thinker; he does not think in terms of absolutes. His doctrines fit the relativity of this world. One of the great confusions of this world today, humanism versus Bible doctrine. For those who are a part of the cosmic system, those who are a part of the cosmic system are inevitably stumbling blocks. Such will be roadblocks to believers.

Humanism is the doctrine of demons; this is the cosmic system. This can be put forth in the most subtle way to fool many believers.

The negative volition of the world results in tacit or overt ridicule of the gospel.

Many Christians have died under the hand of persecution; but Christianity will never be defeated, no matter how great the enemy is. Islam wants to wipe Christianity off the earth. Calling us the Great Satan is the doctrine of demons. We can have a relaxed mental attitude about the opposition.

Woe to the stumbling blocks of the world. They mock Bible doctrine and hence, God, and the work of Jesus Christ. Scripture says, "Woe to them."

Matt. 18:7 "Woe to the world for temptations to sin! For it is necessary that temptations come, but woe to the one by whom the temptation comes!"

Do not be deceived; God is not mocked. For whatever a man sows, this he will also reap. Such a one sows his own destruction. We don't have to be scourged. However, this is done for our benefit. This is to bring us back on track. For the world who mocks God by unbelief, there is incredible woe and judgment.

Matt. 18:7 "Woe to the world for temptations to sin! For it is necessary that temptations come, but woe to the one by whom the temptation comes!"

When God is mocked by the unbeliever. He never accepts Christ. So he faces eternal fire; a fiery hell.

This cannot happen to the believer. A believer mocks Christ by failing to accept the doctrine of Jesus Christ.

This is a controversial subject. This is a way that the unbelieving world ridicules Christianity. The believer who thinks without doctrine has an uncertainty of thinking. There is an uncertainty in the life of the believer. The believer who mocks God is uncertain because God is not mocked. There is a woe pronounced upon the believer or unbeliever who mock Him. The judgment of divine discipline.

This is illustrative to the disciples. This indicates the seriousness of their actions. They have been stumbling blocks to this man casting out demons. The believer is judged as a stumbling block; loss of rewards in heaven and divine discipline on earth. The disciples recognize themselves here. They lack humility. They argued about who is the greatest; that is arrogance.

The Christian life is about being great; it is about advancing and it is not about who is the greatest, but it is about being great. It is an attitude of humility.

The unbeliever never escapes his spiritual death. The believer will never be cast into the eternal fires.

Humility is day after day of taking in doctrine and thinking with divine viewpoint. Humility is the by-product. Humility becomes your attitude. That is greatness in the spiritual life. There are no in-between for the believer in Jesus Christ. You advance or you retreat.

These are the apostles to the church. They have no room for arrogance. Jesus does not want to keep smacking them in the head.

Jesus says it is better to lose a body part than to be a stumbling block for others.

Matt. 18:8 And if your hand or your foot causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life crippled or lame than with two hands or two feet to be thrown into the eternal fire.

Matt. 18:9 And if your eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life with one eye than with two eyes to be thrown into the hell of fire.

Mark 9:48 'where their worm does not die and the fire is not quenched.'

Temporal rejection of Christ that turns to eternal rejection of Jesus Christ.

Lesson #0654

Matt. 18: Life of Christ

8/31/2014 2Sunday

Better to grow up crippled or blind than to spend eternity in hell.

Matt. 18:8 And if your hand or your foot causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life crippled or lame than with two hands or two feet to be thrown into the eternal fire.

Matt. 18:9 And if your eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life with one eye than with two eyes to be thrown into the hell of fire.

Mark 9:48 'where their worm does not die and the fire is not quenched.'

Jesus did not sugar-coat the meaning here. Jesus sacrifices everything on the cross; is it not a bad thing to reject what He has done on our behalf? What He has done is the greatest thing that has ever been done on our behalf. Being and becoming an inherent stumbling block by rejecting Christ. It is inevitable that cutting off a hand or foot than to be in a condition of rejection of Jesus Christ.

If you do not understand the consequences of what you have done; then you should know it here. If you refuse to believe in Jesus Christ, this is not a pretty picture.

How Effective this Passage is

1. Unbelievers are concerned about the temporal issues of life. Unbeliever wants these things to a greater degree because that is all there is.
2. The legalism of works does not make the unbeliever more secure for an eternal future. So many people count on the rituals that they do to save them. There are plenty of people in our churches today who have never heard the gospel even once. It is all about works, altruism, humanism, being good to the poor. The doctrine of demons is being taught to our churches today.
3. Losing a limb or an eye is a catastrophe for the unbeliever. It takes away from the temporal life. No one wants to go through life in that crippled condition. All the handicaps in the world are better than spending eternity in hell.
4. Better to be crippled in temporal life than to be cut off from God forever in hell.
5. Jesus is not teaching a literal self-mutilation. In medieval times, there were monks who practiced harming themselves to fulfill these verses. Monks might beat themselves in order to gain God's favor.

Jesus is not saying that we ought to harm ourselves in order to gain God's grace. This does not solve the basic stumbling block issue to the unbeliever. It does not add anything to the spiritual advance of the believer.

For the unbeliever, it is an issue of rejection of Jesus Christ. Cutting off a hand or a foot is just an illustration. This is a metaphorical example. It does have a literal meaning.

The Meaning of this Analogy

1. It would be better to lose something physical in this life than to lose one's soul to eternal judgement.
2. The price of rejection is unthinkable. Worse than losing a limb.
3. The unbeliever who maintains his allegiance to the cosmic system, to the world and refuses eternal life through Christ is destined for the worst possible outcome. Believers who have lost limbs in Afghanistan or in Iraq can have great lives, despite the loss of limb.
4. Conversely, if you are a believer in Christ, and you have lost appendages, then it is nothing, compared to eternity with God. Handicaps in life are no reason for a believer to have self-pity.

Keeping important appendages represents here the ultimate in rejection. It is better to have these things... In one way or another, unbelievers think this way.

Matt. 18:7 "Woe to the world for temptations to sin! For it is necessary that temptations come, but woe to the one by whom the temptation comes!"

Matt. 18:8 And if your hand or your foot causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life crippled or lame than with two hands or two feet to be thrown into the eternal fire.

Mark 9:48 'where their worm does not die and the fire is not quenched.' Isa. 66:24 quenched is spênumi, with a negative, it means not to be extinguished. The fire never goes out. This is a quote from Isa. 66:24

Some might say, cutting off the hand or foot is metaphorical; so the hell fire is metaphorical. Most who make this argument reject Jesus Christ as their Savior.

Justice must condemn those who reject Jesus Christ. There is a literal place where that judgment is consummated. This gives an idea of the value that God places on the work of His Son.

Is there a value on the work of Jesus Christ? This is a great value that God places on the work of His Son. If you reject it, there is the horrible result.

Even though the physical mutilation is a metaphor, the result is real. Metaphors always have real meanings. Figurative language has one meaning that is literal. This is inspired genre of literature. It is better to lose those things than lose eternity with Christ in heaven.

Literal meaning; literal meaning. The Scripture literally uses metaphorical language with one meaning that God intends. The literal reality is all too true. This literal meaning of hell is confirmed in many other places in Scripture. If there was this only one place, then you might want to write this off as a scare tactic. If what we believe that Jesus is the Savior and that you will be in heaven eternally with Him, if that is right, does it matter?

Matt. 23:33 Luke 12:5 2Peter 2:4 Rev. 19:20 21:8 are all references to hell.

Jesus uses a second quote from Isa. 66:

Mar 9:48 "where their worm does not die and the fire is not quenched." Isa. 66:24

This image derives from a real place. It is called the Valley of Hinnon which is right outside the walls of Jerusalem. This is Jerusalem's garbage dump. Unclean, worm infested corpses are burned at that location. The fires never stopped as there were always more corpses to bring there. That is how Jesus connected fire and hell and worms. The people of Jesus' time understood this. Indigent people who died in the street. This happened all the time. The garbage collectors collected dead bodies and hauled them off to the Valley of Hinnon.

What Is the Analogy

1. Just as the fires burned always in Hinnon, so they will continue to burn in hell.
2. This means that the essence of hell is of unending torment and eternal separation from God in that state. This precludes the concept of purgatory as an intermediary fire, once your sins have been purged. That is not what this says.
3. There is no end to the end of fire for those who reject Christ. There is no fire for those who believe. How vividly this describes the conscious punishment. You never lose consciousness. This is how God views the rejection of the work of Jesus Christ. This should give your great motivation to speak to others about Christ. The application is what the disciples understand. They cannot end up in hell, but they can receive severe discipline in life for being stumbling blocks to others.

Judas never got into the plan of God. He rejected getting into the plan of God. Jesus gave him guidance and he rejected it.

Bobby was watching a television show the other day and houses built on private islands; and they are magnificent. Same for the yachts and the affluence involved. Our mansions will be incredible compared to these dumps.

The disciples have already been stumbling blocks for the believer demon hunter. Jesus gives them a dose of reality here. The price of being a stumbling block is high.

Complex passage tonight. Starts with one context, but then seems to go in another direction.

Matt. 18:8 And if your hand or your foot causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life crippled or lame than with two hands or two feet to be thrown into the eternal fire.

It does make sense that your foot may cause you to stumble. Then Jesus says, cut it off; although it may seem that might make stumbling worse. Better to be crippled or lame than to have 2 hands and 2 feet and cast into eternal fire.

Matt. 18:9 And if your eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life with one eye than with two eyes to be thrown into the hell of fire.

Mar 9:48 "where their worm does not die and the fire is not quenched." Isa. 66:24

The person in hell does not die. Better to be crippled for your entire life than spend eternity in hell.

We do not want to be a stumbling block either.

Matt. 18:6 ...but whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him to have a great millstone fastened around his neck and to be drowned in the depth of the sea.

Matt. 18:7 "Woe to the world for temptations to sin! For it is necessary that temptations come, but woe to the one by whom the temptation comes!"

We shift to the world of the unbeliever; and to the cosmic system. And the eye, foot thing. We do not want to be a stumbling block to the unbeliever. We do not want to make his volition negative. We do not want to give him reason to be negative. There is a deadliness to being a stumbling block to the unbeliever or young believer. Those believers who cause other believers trouble for their spiritual life; if you are a stumbling block, you are in full retreat in your spiritual life.

A stumbling block to the little ones can be interpreted as being a stumbling block to young believers.

Jesus uses vv. 8–9 for the believer acting in the cosmic system. The disciples do not want to be this kind of stumbling block. When you are a stumbling block, you cannot grow. For the believer who does the blocking, there can be severe divine discipline. They need to know where they are headed with all of this arrogance and inordinate competition.

They have to cut this out of their thinking; they are not to be a stumbling block.

There is a particle to introduce these, and this is the 1st class condition; an assumption from the viewpoint of reality.

Cutting off the Hands/feet Metaphor

1. Don't let anything even something as important as hands or feet or an eye, block and unbeliever from accepting Christ as Savior; the cosmic system does that. You do not want to join the cosmic system in this way.
2. By application, this highlights the importance of evangelism as a form of great compassion to the world. This is the antidote to the cosmic system.
3. The figurative cutting off of a hand or foot emphasizes the necessity for the world to believe in Christ. In other words, endure whatever is necessary in life, whether being crippled or blind; but do not neglect the gospel. It is not worth it. It is not worth being a stumbling block to believers.
4. If any person is in danger of going to eternal fire, then he should cut off his hands or feet before getting to that point.
5. That is metaphorical, to do whatever it takes not to reside in hell.
6. It is not necessary to cut off your hands or feet in order to be saved.
7. The cutting off represents short-term suffering versus forever suffering.
8. Cutting out of the unbeliever's life the roadblocks to accepting Christ is critical to staying out of the fires of hell.
9. It is critical for the believer to avoid being a stumbling block to the unbeliever in order for them to avoid the fires of hell. There is severe discipline for the stumbling block attitude.

Do not stumble over your own feet. You will see nothing on the horizon when you pass from this life.

Jesus is addressing the disciples about unbelief and roadblocks. He is showing them as comparative stumbling blocks to the gospel. The Lord is comparing and saying, "Do not be arrogant; do not be jealous of each other; do not be arrogant toward other believers." Jesus is castigating this attitude; and the arrogance of other believers. It retards or negates the spiritual life. Let the little ones grow up; do not stunt their growth.

3 Points on Arrogance and Self-centeredness

1. No believer should deal with others from arrogance or from self-centeredness. Humility comes from grace orientation through Bible doctrine. Arrogance is the converse. Arrogance is living without doctrine. No believer should deal with arrogance.
2. Dealing with others from arrogance mirrors the inherent stumbling block that is the cosmic system. The world is an inherent stumbling block.
3. That attitude of arrogance and self-centeredness. You cannot advance in the spiritual life and harbor arrogance in your soul.

As a grace oriented believer, we cannot look down on anyone because of their immaturity or their obnoxiousness, etc. You must do whatever is necessary to make them into one of you. One way is a stumbling block and the other is not. This kind of arrogance is a sign of reversionism. So many believers in our churches today are stumbling blocks to other believers and unbelievers.

There are pastors who once understood that doctrine is the most important part of growth, and now they see Bible doctrine is too dry.

God is unseen; and faith is the confidence in things unseen; and you do not gain confidence in the spiritual life until you develop a relationship with the unseen. You can have all kinds of feelings. Those who denigrate Bible doctrine as a roadblock to the spiritual life are the greatest of road blocks.

Bobby is driven crazy when people denigrate the Word of God for things that are mystical and make no sense. For some, the greater fool you make of yourself in church means you are closer to God. Arrogance is just the way to become that hindrance. Those pastors who see and emotional praise and worship as the way to God is completely and totally subjective and that is completely self-centered. Jesus is saying, "You want to be a believer in reversionism; or do you want to be a believer who gets the job done?"

Matt. 18:8 And if your hand or your foot causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life crippled or lame than with two hands or two feet to be thrown into the eternal fire.

Matt. 18:9 And if your eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life with one eye than with two eyes to be thrown into the hell of fire.

Jesus returns to the child that He has used illustratively. The child still represents the believer as before. Rejecting Christ and His Word is characterized and illustrated by despising other believers. How can anyone be an arrogant stumbling block with the knowledge of what Jesus is going to say.

Matt. 18:10 "See that you do not despise one of these little ones. For I tell you that in heaven their angels always see the face of my Father who is in heaven.

What do angels have to do with stumbling blocks?

V. 11 is not found in the original Greek, so we will skip that verse. Every believer, mature and immature, are all extremely valuable to the Lord. Why are you looking at them in that way. All of them are valuable to Him, even when such believers seem less valuable to you.

Would God assign angels if they are not valuable?

Matt. 18:10 "See that you do not despise one of these little ones. For I tell you that in heaven their angels always see the face of my Father who is in heaven.

Psalm 34:7 The Angel of Jehovah camps around those who fear Him, and He sets them free.

The Angel of the Lord is often a theophany; an appearance by Jesus Christ before His incarnation. When Jesus does this, He is surrounding them with a cloak of protection. The Angel of the Lord protects believers. God will protect us. The word is, our enemy is coming across the border and we should not be afraid. We have protection.

Psalm 91:11 For He shall give His angels charge over You, to keep You in all Your ways.

Angels are continually seeing the face of the Father Who is in heaven. They are to guard us in all of our ways. We are protected by the angelic realm no matter what is the danger.

There was a 4th with Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego.

Guardian Angels

1. Angels of servants of God.
2. They are ready to take orders immediately they give instant service.
3. Therefore, they are servants of men as well, because God is interested in mankind; God values them. Therefore, the angels guard them.
4. Hence some have a guardian mission. There are guardian angels. This is where that comes from.
5. In this case, God the Father has directly entrusted the care of the little ones, the immature believers, to the angelic realm.
6. Angels continually get divine orders concerning their rescue and guardian roles; they are face to face and they continue to get orders from the Father.
7. So this is the concept of a ministering spirit to believers.
8. Through all adversity, persecutions, trials and stumbling, guardian angels continue to watch over and rescue.
9. Their presence counteracts the danger of those who are stumbling blocks to the children.

The old theological concern; how many angels can dance on the head of a pin; nobody knows. But they are here and they are a part of our lives. The Father is continually giving operation orders. In order to do this, they must be in proximity.

If angels are watching over us, why does anything bad happen to us? God's plan allows for suffering for His purposes; and there is a matter of our own stupidity and volition; and there is also divine discipline. God gives the angels operations orders; and God has a plan which He does not contradict. Without a doubt, angels who guard have rescued believers from many outside attacks. Who needs guarding more than immature believers; and literal children as well. Children can be believers and no one can get into more trouble than children.

God guards and protects those He cares about.

What do we really know about this guardianship? Do we all have a specific guardian angel with our name on his chest and following us around?

Lesson #0656

Matt. 18:10 Life of Christ

9/4/2014 Thurs

Easier passage tonite. Might end up getting into one of the most difficult passages.

Matt. 18:10 "See that you do not despise one of these little ones. For I tell you that in heaven their angels always see the face of My Father Who is in heaven.

Γαρ is explanatory. Their angels in heaven always see the face of My Father, Who is in heaven.

There was a man who was showing great zeal in casting out demons. The disciples knew that this guy did not have any direct contact with Jesus Christ, so they stopped him. They wanted to be the ones in charge. Jesus, in this context, is warning these disciples.

The disciples had no reason to treat other believers with contempt. We have no right to look down on someone that we do not believe to be as mature as us. You look down on them because they are not as good as you are or advancing like you are. Watch your attitude, is what Jesus was telling His disciples.

If anyone ends up rejecting doctrine, it needs to be their own decision. It cannot be based upon stumbling over an arrogant believer. Your attitude must be humility. We are moving on. God is not concerned about the maturity status in this regard. We don't get to chide other believers.

Bob checked on Bobby's salvation at age 4; and confirmed it. Real children can be believers in Jesus Christ. God protects children in a special way while they are advancing. God assigns some angels to look over some people.

These are angels which are face to face with God. They are very close to the throne room of heaven or in this room. There are angels in heaven who protect some of the innocent or young believers, like those spoken of in context.

If God takes that much interest in the little ones. Jesus is quite adamant about this thing.

Matt. 18:10 "See that you do not despise one of these little ones. For I tell you that in heaven their angels always see the face of My Father Who is in heaven.

There is another aspect to this verse; the believer's relationship with the angelic realm. What do angels do for us? They obviously do something by way of protection for us. They take orders directly from God for their mission.

It is unclear what this guardianship is exactly; but some sort of protective relationship does exist for us. Do we all have an individual guardian angel? Is there one with a tee-shirt with our name on it, who follows us around? The extent to which angels follow and protect believers is not clearly explained in Scripture.

There is a history in the church for the concept of all believers having a guardian angels. There was extensive research from medieval times, 5th or 6th century. Thomas Aquinas made several arguments for every person having a guardian angel at birth. God directs protection to the little ones. If there are guardian angels for the little ones, then why not for all of us?

There seems to be a belief in guardian angels among the Jews of the era of Jesus Christ.

Acts 12:15 But they said to her, You are raving. But she insisted, holding it to be so. And they said, It is his angel.

She insists that Peter has come to the house and they say, "It is his angel." Rhoda has just told a group of believers. She said, "He is out there." Those who had been praying for several hours called her crazy. They prayed, their prayer is answered, and when she confirms that their prayer was answered, they called her crazy.

When you pray, there will be an answer. Sometimes, there is a prayer to keep this from being answered.

There is a great power in prayer. Israel was saved on many occasions by one prayer. Moses prayed on many occasions that God not wipe out Israel. Mordecai and the Jews. Do not fail to pray.

What this Mean?

"It could not be Peter, it must be his angel."

1. By inference, it is Peter's angel, who guards him in prison. The angel may have facilitated his release.
2. An implication of angelic operations for individual believers.
3. Why they would say it is an angel rather than Peter, seems odd. They apparently believe that guardian angels are assigned

What this Mean?

Heb. 1:14 Are they not all ministering spirits for service, being sent out because of the ones being about to inherit salvation? Certainly protection falls under this.

1. Since the fall of man, angels are sent to all who are saved.
2. The context is the Millennial kingdom. All believers in the Millennium will have such an angel.
3. By inference, this ministering angels may be sent forth to all who are saved. That would be then and now.

Lewis Sperry Chafer, in Angelology, He Makes Several Points

1. In the Church Age, there is a void of angelic manifestations. We do not see angelic activity.
2. Why would this be true? Why don't we see angels like they did in Old Testament times? In no other age, in no other dispensation, are all believers indwelt by God the Holy Spirit. Which would you prefer? God the Holy Spirit or an angel?
3. The Holy Spirit in you is more potent than all of the angels in heaven.
4. The presence of the Holy Spirit in us does not preclude invisible angelic interventions on our behalf as directed by the Holy Spirit.

What this Mean?

Luke 16:22 And it happened, the poor one died and was carried away by the angels into the bosom of Abraham. And the rich one also died and was buried.

1. Paradise is one of the 3 compartments of Hades; and this contains believers and unbelievers. Victorious proclamations.
2. Abraham's bosom is where the departed souls of believers resided before the resurrection of Jesus Christ. Luke 23:49ff
3. These believers are moved to heaven after the ascension of Christ. Eph. 4:10
4. Angels transported at death the soul of a man into heaven. A relationship after death.
5. By inference, other believers after death may be carried into heaven.
6. Whether this is always the case is unknown. Church Age believers do not make an intermediate stop on the way to heaven.

Whether this is an individual believer's escort all the time is unknown. Why would an angel or angels escort us to heaven? When we die, it is a victory; that is a triumph. Angels to make announcements. They are messengers.

Acts 5:19 12:7 are related passages.

What this Mean?

Act 5:19 But an angel of the Lord opened the doors of the prison during the night, and leading them out, he said,...

1. Both passages have an angel leading them out of prison.
2. These angels seem to be assigned for this purpose.
3. By inference others like you and I may have the same guardian of deliverance.

Immature Believers and Angels

1. Immature believers, the little ones, receive great attention from the Lord; and He directs angelic attention toward them.
2. This direction includes guardian and rescue operations.

The disciples were immature in their incomplete knowledge of doctrine and they had an arrogant bent.

We have a position in Christ; but we also have a spiritual life. There will be angels assigned to assist. It is documented that Peter and several others had angelic help. So they would, to some extent, to an extent that we do not know, there are guardian angels involved, to help with their mission.

Now, if we get out of line and we go bad, what will an angel do? Angels will assist us in whatever mission that we have in the Christian life.

There are probably hundreds or thousands of missionaries out there who have been protected in a variety of ways. Just like the little ones have angels.

Young believers, little ones, should never be looked upon contemptuously by more mature believers. That is a sign of legalism or arrogance. We have no right to do so. So much so that angels are involved in guarding them.

We should not mess with these people because we are also messing with their angels. If God gives them angelic protection, who are we to be stumbling blocks to them.

Now we come to Mark 9:49, and this is still in the same context. This is the most difficult verse in the book of Mark to interpret. No doubt about it.

Mark 9:49 For everyone will be salted with fire, and every sacrifice will be salted with salt.

Lesson #0657 Mark 9:49–50 Matt. 18: Life of Christ 9/7/2014 1Sunday

We are in a religious war right now; and the press will not talk about that. Islam has grabbed a nation and has begun to kill. We are in the middle of the Angelic Conflict, whether we like it or not. We are in the center of this war. It is easy now to do to enjoy our freedom, fellowship, and ability to hear the teaching of the Word of God.

Jesus is teaching the disciples the difference between arrogance and humility. The verse we are studying one of the most difficult verses in the book of Mark; and there are at least 15 interpretations of this verse. God has one intended meaning for every bit of Scripture. God has provided a meaning for us. We must determine what that meaning is.

Mark 9:49 For everyone will be salted with fire, and every sacrifice will be salted with salt.

There are 3 main words besides the verb, and 2 of them are metaphors and 1 is an indefinite pronoun. For everyone will be salted with fire. Bobby began reading what others said, and it was quite confusing and there was a wide range of interpretations.

To whom does this verse apply? Who is everyone? Is the believers, unbelievers, both? This verse is found in a context where both believers and unbelievers have been discussed.

In what way would either believers or unbelievers or both be salted with fire? What does that mean?

I think it means to be preserved by testing.

Already, we have been cutting off feet and hands and plucking out eyes, and saying that this is better than spending eternity in hell. That is the context of unbelievers. However, Jesus is speaking to His disciples, and they are all believers. Part of the context is the disciples becoming humble and not trying to shut down other believers.

Jesus is bringing up one more approach to humility and arrogance.

3 Facts

1. Jesus clearly explained the importance of unbelievers accepting Him. Better to lose body parts than to end up in the never-ending fire.
2. Jesus also gives a warning to the disciples of discipline. They totally discouraged this man casting out demons; they were stumbling blocks to him. The warning for arrogance.
3. Jesus has given them instruction to embrace the child. He is holding up a child before them, and the child represents the immature believer. They must embrace the child with an attitude of humility.

With this range of subjects, this context appears to apply to both believers and unbelievers. All or everyone will be salted with fire. This does not make clear sense when both groups are included.

Salt is a metaphor here; it is connected with the second metaphor of fire. Fire in the Bible is often used metaphorically for suffering. The literal part of salt; literal salt is sprinkled on food. They put more salt on their food than we do. Salt stands for both groups being covered for what is poured out on them. Metaphorical salt is being poured out upon them, believers and unbelievers, and what is poured upon them is suffering. A fire is poured out on both groups, and this represents some type of suffering.

How are believers and unbelievers salted with fire? Believers and unbelievers are not salted in the same way. There is a big difference between both groups of people. One salting is good and the other is not. There is a range of meaning here, depending upon who is being salted. The unbeliever is salted with the never-ending judgment of eternal fire. But the disciples, this is another conundrum. What does it mean for believers to be salted with fire?

Salting with Fire the Disciples

1. The disciples are salted with suffering. They are salted with the temporal suffering of present-day trials; present difficulties.
2. In other words, discipline which comes from their current status of being competitive with one another and being stumbling blocks to immature believers.

3. These men will also go through other trials and sufferings. This is a wider look at suffering of fire. A special put out recently by R. B. Thieme, Jr. ministries, a 50 lesson study on suffering.
4. Fire will also be poured out on them simply because who they are in Christ. All but one of the disciples will be killed violently and unjustly for teaching Jesus. This world is full of those who would love to kill us. They would love to chop your head off simply because you are listening to the Word of God.
5. This salting has a very special meaning apart from the suffering here. There can be discipline for their benefit, that, once a person rebounds, becomes suffering for blessing.

These men will be salted by fire until they have completed their mission. Dying grace; a period of time still alive, and then face to face with the Lord Jesus Christ; no more pain, no more tears, no more death.

Angels will be involved for protection. There is doctrine to apply in the salting with fire; and Peter, John and Paul were all protected by angels; and removed from prison by angels.

Suffering is an opportunity in the spiritual life to move forward in the Christian life because of suffering. You may realize in the midst of suffering that doctrine is key. This doctrine is our life; it is our water and our food; it is everything that we need to withstand everything. The grace of God salts us with fire.

The grace of God gives every unbeliever the opportunity to believe.

Mark 9:49 For everyone will be salted with fire, and every sacrifice will be salted with salt.

In order to understand v. 50, we can understand v. 49

Mark 9:50 Salt is good, but if the salt becomes saltless, by what will you season? Have salt in yourselves and be at peace with one another.

Jesus is saying that salt is good. He is not speaking directly to the disciples. There is nothing good about being salted with fire for the unbeliever.

If it becomes unsalty, then what can you do to restore the saltiness? Salt is good; yet we can say for the unbeliever that is never good. For the unbelievers, suffering is for their benefit and for their preservation. Salt is good; it preserves them through the trials.

Jesus directs v. 50 to the disciples and He is concluding His lesson on humility.

Salting the Disciples with Fire

1. The fire of suffering refines their humility. It will make it golden.
2. As salt, it preserves them for their mission. That is the whole point of what the Lord has been talking about. Suffering. They need humility. That fire and that salt will refine their humility. They will grow from this. It is for their humility. Suffering speeds up our advance. As we become grace orientation, our attitude improves. This attitude is grace orientation. We cannot have this attitude apart from doctrine in the soul. Grace orientation is the precursor to humility.

If we grow, we will become humble. This is not something that we need to work at. We are inherently arrogant; we put ourselves first. But mandate from Scripture puts others first. The marriage works the best is where each spouse puts the other person first. When this does not occur, that splits up the couple. Humility is how the believer is to live his life. Salt preserves us for our mission. Salvation must understood as a metaphor based upon its domestic use. We have refrigeration; they have salt. Salt then had commercial value. Salt can lose its value over time.

Jesus says, if salt loses its saltiness, then it loses its value. If the disciples lose their saltiness then they lose their value. This is directed toward the arrogance of the disciples.

Mark 9:50 Salt is good, but if the salt becomes saltless, by what will you season? Have salt in yourselves and be at peace with one another.

Lesson #0658 Mark 9:49–50 Matt. 18: Life of Christ 9/7/2014 2Sunday

v. 49 explains v. 50:

Mark 9:49 For everyone will be salted with fire, and every sacrifice will be salted with salt.

Salting for the unbeliever is salting with the judgment of hell; so that is not good.

Mark 9:50 Salt is good, but if the salt becomes saltless, by what will you season? Have salt in yourselves and be at peace with one another.

Suffering for the believer is good; this is suffering for blessing. There is a good aspect of suffering for blessing. God warns about unsaltiness. The disciples must lose that which makes them valuable to the world. Salt was used on meat and on other items that would spoil; and the salt preserved them. Salt was distributed to people in order to preserve their food.

If the salt loses its value, then there is nothing with which to season; and nothing with which to preserve.

Preserving the Saltiness of the Disciples So That Their Saltiness Is a Preservative

1. The disciples must offer the preserving salt of the gospel to the unbelievers so that they will not be salted with the fires of hell. Salt preserves.
2. They must salt believers with Bible doctrine. This preserves their spiritual life; and provides them with the most important of spiritual commodities. This is the means to preserve the believer through the fires of suffering.

3. If the disciples become unsalty, remaining arrogant, then what will make them salty again? They are not salty at that moment. They must regain their saltiness. What will do that? Bible doctrine can regain their saltiness. That is the value that they must have for their mission. That is what makes all of us important to Jesus Christ. We are all valuable to God. When we are salty, then we have value in the Christian life.

The saltiness of trials and difficulties for the disciples will be many for these men. Bible doctrine will preserve them through all of it. All of us will go through trials, suffering difficulties. Salt is good because that is a preservative.

Peter picked up on this theme in 1Peter 1:7 ...so that the proving of your faith, much more precious than perishing gold, but having been proved through fire, may be found to praise and honor and glory at the revelation of Jesus Christ;...

The faith of the believer is spiritual growth. Faith to grow spiritually. This is far greater than gold; and it is imperishable. The proof is shown in the life of the believer. Its reality can be seen in passing the test. Testing that accelerates spiritual advance. The result is herein proclaimed: ...but having been proved through fire, may be found to praise and honor and glory at the revelation of Jesus Christ;...

Doctrine provides recovery from spiritual retreat. Being salty is spiritual advance. Liberally salted with doctrine can result in praise and honor and glory at the appearance of Jesus Christ. The reward at the Judgment Seat of Christ; the rapture. We are praising and honoring Jesus Christ in our life. This praise, honor and glory is recognized by the Lord Jesus Christ.

Jesus exhorts them to have salt within themselves and to be at peace with one another. Have the attitude of humility; have the salt of Bible doctrine in your souls. No more focus upon self-interest. No more spending time on who is the greatest among us. No more infighting about their status in the kingdom. They must rather each press ahead to be great in the Christian life; not to spend any amount of time being concerned with who is the greatest among them.

Mark 9:50 Salt is good, but if the salt becomes saltless, by what will you season? Have salt in yourselves and be at peace with one another.

Jesus concludes this with the parable of the lost sheep. Jesus has approached this from every direction. All of these things were designed to move these guys along spiritually.

The principle of church discipline and the principle of forgiveness.

What could be more confusing than the concept of church discipline?

Does God always forgive the sins of believers? Is there some sin that you can commit that God cannot forgive? Is there a limit to God's preservation of believers. Does God every withdraw His salvation. Rick Hughes hears more flak about eternal security than he hears about the gospel message itself. They are not acting like a Christian; so they must not be a Christian. The arrogance of that observation is probably a greater sin than the person they are observing.

Matt. 18:12–15 What do you think? If there be to any man a hundred sheep, and one of them strays away, will he not leave the ninety-nine on the mountains, and having gone he seeks the one having strayed? And if he happens to find it, truly I say to you that he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine not having gone astray. So it is not the will before your Father in Heaven that one of these little ones should perish. But if your brother may sin against you, go and reprove him between you and him alone. If he hears you, you have gained your brother.

Of course, this shepherd goes looking for the wandering sheep. And he rejoices over the recovered sheep more than the other 99 who are okay. It is not the will of your Father that one of these little ones perish.

These verses look backward and forward both.

There is a great amount of importance placed upon the one believer who strays. And it is important for us not to cause such a one to stumble. This is why Jesus made such an issue of humility and arrogant stumbling blocks.

Matt. 18:12 What do you think? If there be to any man a hundred sheep, and one of them strays away, will he not leave the ninety-nine on the mountains, and having gone he seeks the one having strayed?

This 100 sheep is a random sampling of a bunch of believers. Jesus will focus on one from this 100 of those who stray. The remainder are eating on the high mountain. But one wanders off; he removes himself from the herd and from Bible doctrine. That is the illustration.

Is this sheep lost and beyond recovery? The shepherd is concerned for the welfare of this sheep. Where do they go. Jesus does not lose any of them. This one wandering sheep does not deserve God's loyalty and care. There are still 99 who need attending; but the shepherd goes after that one wandering sheep.

The shepherd keeps on searching for the stray. Why would the shepherd, who represents the Lord Jesus Christ here, continue to search for such a hopelessly lost sheep? If they can get to a point of being lost and gone, why doesn't the shepherd strike the sheep from the ledger. If there is no eternal security, then, at some point, the shepherd would just give up and write off that sheep. But, this sheep is still a part of the flock; he is still a believer and he remains so, even while separated from the herd. If the shepherd gave up on the sheep, wrote him off, then the shepherd would no longer go out searching for him. God never gives up on a believer. This illustration shows that, regardless of where the believer wanders or strays, he is no longer a sheep. Once a sheep, always a sheep; once a believer, always a believer. Once owned by Jesus Christ, this sheep is never given up on; he is never sold; he is never written off.

It is always possible that this sheep will be found and brought back to the herd. He may never be found; never restored to fellowship. He does not turn into a jackass because he is missing. If that sheep is never found and never restored, he remains the shepherd's property. In this illustration, Jesus Christ is the shepherd, and the lost wandering sheep still belongs to Him forever, no matter where he is, no matter how far he has strayed.

Matt. 18:12 What do you think? If there be to any man a hundred sheep, and one of them strays away, will he not leave the ninety-nine on the mountains, and having gone he seeks the one having strayed?

But if the shepherd finds this wandering sheep, he is more valuable than all of the rest. The shepherd always wants this sheep back.

Matt. 18:13 And if he happens to find it, truly I say to you that he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine not having gone astray.

This is very similar to the prodigal son. The doctrine of eternal security is a great comfort to all believers.

The prodigal son left home, took off. He took his inheritance and he partied until he was wasted away and broke. He runs out of money and is living in the streets, and he has to return home, even to present himself as a servant. The father does not say, "You are no longer my son." The father welcomes his son home; he celebrates the son's return; and he throws a great party for him. He rejoices. The prodigal had always been a part of his father's house. Even when he was not living there. Once you are born into a family, you cannot get outside of the family. No matter what you say or do, you are genetically tied to that family forever. Now the prodigal is home. The father never gave up on him; his father never let him go.

The father is God; and the prodigal is the wayward believer in reversionism. The father does not search for the prodigal. The shepherd searches for the sheep. This is a greater illustration of the preservation of the believer.

What is the best outcome for the straying sheep? It is the grace outcome. The sheep who strays does not deserve this kind of loyalty. God grabs our hand and no one can pry us out of His hand.

The one prodigal sheep is now in the confines of the shepherd and that is a time for rejoicing. This illustrates the return from reversionism to spiritual growth. The believer will live the life designed for him by the shepherd. Both may return to their home. Even if the sheep or the prodigal never returns, they are both still a part of the family. Even if the sheep is not a part of the herd, they are still held in the hand of God. This is an iron-clad guarantee to everyone who has ever believed in Jesus Christ.

Matt. 18:14 So it is not the will before your Father in Heaven that one of these little ones should perish.

Matt. 18:15 But if your brother may sin against you, go and reprove him between you and him alone. If he hears you, you have gained your brother.

Lesson #0659

Matt. 18: Life of Christ

9/14/2014 1Sunday

Communion Sunday September 14, 2014:

We often get guarantees when we purchase a home or a washer or something. Without a guarantee, it is unsettling.

What peace can we have, with all of our own weaknesses. We should be in constant confusion, turmoil and fear, because of the requirements placed upon us.

When we are regenerated, the glorious discovery of absolute assurance, and fear departs. Confidence about what God's Word teaches us, is a wonderful moment of the understanding of eternal security.

Our salvation does not depend upon our advance in the Christian life. It is based upon what God, through Christ, has done for us. If we have expressed faith alone in Christ alone, then we are eternally secure.

Luke 19:10 for the Son of Man has come to seek and save that which was lost. Jesus has come to redeem the lost from the slave market of sin. He has satisfied the wrath of God, which should be upon all of us. His work was not left half done. Jesus lived without sin and without room for any improvement. All that He did was accomplished in perfection. Nothing can be added to perfection.

"I have glorified You on the earth; I have finished the work which You have given Me to do."
And He said, "It is finished."

He worked out a completed salvation for those who choose to receive it. The believer is owned by God until that day of redemption. That is the day that believers receive their resurrection bodies. We are owned from salvation throughout eternity. Because this work is complete, no believer can corrupt what God has given us.

The second guarantee of eternal security is the total accomplishment of Christ's forgiveness of sins. There is no reserve in Christ's work on the cross. There are no sins left unforgiven. All sins were imputed to Jesus Christ on the cross. The universal testimony of the Bible associates all of our sins with Christ on the cross. All of our sins were wiped out on the cross.

"This is My blood of the New Testament which is shed for many for the forgiveness of sins."

And He Himself bore our sins in His Own body on the cross, that we might die to sin.

So Christ also, having been offered once, shall appear again without reference to sin, to those who eagerly await Him.

This issue is always, what do you think of Christ. God can wipe out all sins, without any part of them being imputed to us. Christ died for sins, once and for all, the just for the unjust, in order that He might bring us to God. It is comforting to know that, when God forgives our sins, that, as far as the east is from the west, that is how far we are removed from our transgressions. Psalm 103:12

Our sins are said to be cast into the sea; they are said to be put behind God's back. The sin problem is settled and God will never bring it up again. It is the sin problem which makes people think that is the problem.

Sins are no longer the issue of eternal life.

We have the certainty of God's promises. The promises of men are never certain of fulfillment. There are many loopholes in human promises, as we see in the courts or in politics. But this is never the case with Jesus Christ. God's Word is His bond. He has never failed to make good on all He has promised.

What are some of these absolute promises? "The one who comes to Me, I will never cast out. For I have come down from heaven, not to do My Own will, but the will of Him Who sent Me. And this is the will of Him Who sent Me, of all who have been given to Me, I will never cast out." This is a salvation that cannot be lost once given. "For this is the will of My Father, that everyone who beholds the Son and believes in Him will have eternal life. And I myself will raise him up on the last day." This is a guarantee. Our eternal future cannot be removed by anything that we do or fail to do. "And I give eternal life to them and they will never perish and no one will ever snatch them out of My hands." There is no power in the universe which can shake us loose from His hand. We are in the grips of the hand forever.

We also are guaranteed by the indwelling of Jesus Christ, the Shekinah Glory on earth. When a person believes in Christ, then Christ resides in Him. There is no come and go proposition. Christ in you, the confidence of glory. His presence in us is our assurance of future glory in heavenly places. How is He not with us throughout our lives? “And I will ask the Father and He will be with you forever. You know Him, because He will abide in you and with you.”

“He will keep My word; and My Father will love him.” All 3 members of the Trinity indwell the believer. That is an existential status for every believer.

The 5th guarantee is our justification. Justification is just a declaration issued by God when He pronounces a person free from any guilt, and acceptable to His righteousness and justice. None of us can fulfill all of His laws and mandates on our own. Jesus can never reject His Own righteousness in us. He cannot reject us once justified.

How can His work ever fail? How can it be set aside? God made Him, who knew no sin, to be sin on our behalf, that we might become the righteousness of God in Him. We cannot improve anything by our own works.

The 6th Jesus is our advocate; our attorney, in view of our personal sins. My little children, I am writing these things to you that you do not sin; but if anyone sins, we have an Advocate with the Father. Jesus does not condone our sins; yet He pleads our case and He has never lost a case. All of our sins were judged on the cross. Rebound is the means of forgiveness for our post-salvation sins.

7th is our connection with Christ's body; we are in union with Him. For by one Spirit, we are all baptized into one body. How can a believer be clearly identified than being a part of His body. We are members of His family forever. We can renounce our membership and we never can get out of that family.

Lesson #0660

Matt. 18: Life of Christ

9/14/2014 2Sunday

Bible doctrine church has about 100 members; they have a prep school and they are right up to date and they are a part of Berachah's congregation.

Summary of what Jesus has taught so far: This is teaching about the little ones, who are believers. The disciples are not to be stumbling blocks to these little ones. They must not be stumbling blocks to the little ones.

Matt. 18:14 So it is not the will before your Father in Heaven that one of these little ones should perish.

We are still in the context of offending one of the little ones, the believer who becomes separated from fellowship, but not losing salvation. “See that you do not despise one of these little ones.” We do not offend them; we do not facilitate their straying.

Why would any believer want to lead another believer astray? Why would any believer want to look down on another believer? Why would any believer want to demonstrate such arrogance? The failure of the disciples and their problems amongst one another, brings up another topic of instruction.

Matt. 18:14 So it is not the will before your Father in Heaven that one of these little ones should perish.

New instructions to the disciples. Jesus has just commanded the disciples to stop their war among one another. But there are problems of contentiousness will arise. Jesus does not want them to dwell in these competing factions. Jesus does not want members of His team to become estranged from one another. This is to help one believer deal with another believer.

This passage topic is often spoken of as church discipline. We need to be careful about this, so that we do not search out problems under every rock.

Matt. 18:15 But if your brother may sin against you, go and reprove him between you and him alone. If he hears you, you have gained your brother.

Abuse of this Passage

1. This has been used for minor tiffs or hypersensitivity of one believer. The solution is simple; impersonal love. This is critical to removing friction between brothers.
2. This principle has been abused in the church as a system of legalism. If there is a legalistic church, they love to pounce on this verse. Who can be the most self righteous?
3. These abuses can divide the whole church into pro and con factions. This is not the purpose of church discipline. People in the past in Berachah Church have tried to impose certain discipline on Bob; and even remove him from the church and for legalistic reasons or for personality clashes. Bobby has seen this firsthand. They have no real facts or proof of their contention; facts don't matter to them in the first place. Some leave the church. Some buy into the rumors and the charges from wherever they came. If you disagree with a pastor or you cannot stand his personality, then you quietly disappear.

Berachah Church has always stood for the teaching of the Word of God. There are many churches which offer fellowship or whatever it is they are looking for. When you disagree or when there is a problem; you do not make it a wider problem. How does the real process of reconciliation of believers begin.

The instruction of this passage can be easily distorted. It gets people involved in looking over the shoulders of other believers. We are not sin-inspectors of others any more than we are fruit-inspectors of the lives of others.

There are those who will watch you to make sure you don't sin and they will use this passage to get you.

Hamartano means to do wrong, to sin against. There is the prepositional phrase against you. It is a disputed reading in the original text. Is this really in the original text? This is probably an early addition by scribes. In the NASB, it is found in brackets in the text. It is an uncertain reading. This probably clarifies the meaning of hamartano. This is not some sin that any believer commits. This is not supposed to be you following someone else around and confronting them when they sin.

Correct Application of Matt. 18:15

1. This cannot refer to a general sin of a believer. This cannot refer to just any sin committed.
2. This refers to a personal sin of one brother against another. One believer sinning directly against; or personally offending another in church. This is a one-on-one conflict. The sin must be between these two, or it is not covered by this verse.
3. This is a one-to-one; a personal affront. This is not some general sin directed toward no one in particular.
4. Whatever the actual sin is, and we are not defining it here, and it causes personal injury to one of the parties, so that there is a rift or a separation between the two.
5. The 3rd class condition means a contingency; an if...then... clause. The purpose is only applied if there is a sin between two people.
6. This is not a green light for tattle tales or meddlers among believers. We have rebound to use to deal with our own sins. Against You and only You have I sinned. You deal with your own sins.

When their sins are exposed, then there is gossiping, mental attitude sins, and public pressure is applied to bring this sinner back into line. You do not exacerbate sin in your own life in order to correct it in the life of another. This perverts the intent of Matt. 18:15

Qualifications

1. A sin against a brother should not become an issue in your entire church. The pastor is not to get up and denounce everyone in the congregation. There is a wider meaning.
2. Churches should not get involved with the sins of others and try to correct them unless they directly affect the wider church. Someone's problem becomes everyone's problem. It occasionally happens.
3. Remember that all personal sin is handled by 1John 1:9; it is not handled by the church gestapo.

When you have a beef, it is not a good idea to bring a bunch of others into it. It needs to be something which remains between you two. It becomes a divisive church problem. However, if there are mental attitude sins and verbal sins by others, then it needs to be handled. Bob could handle problems like these. There have been a few. And no one usually knows about it. One believers general sins are not for public distribution.

A Sin Between Believers Is a Private Matter Between the Two

1. Disagreements or injuries between two believers should always be kept private.
2. The comparison is simple; just as general sins are a private matter between a believer and the Lord; so sins between two believers should remain a private as well. These sins are handled by rebound.
3. Sins between two believers are not for a common broadcast.
4. Sins are not to be confessed in front of the church, any more than some general sin before the others. Sad to see someone stand up and confess their sins before the church. Some who did not know about it are offended and they get out of fellowship. Someone that is going to fix things? That church does not understand rebound. If you ever enter a church where someone is confessing their sins out loud, hit the door; you might be next. This breeds self-righteousness. Immediately, you go into the self righteous mode. "How terrible; I would never do that."

The church is often filled with victims and people do not take responsibility for their own actions.

The sins in v. 15 is certainly confessed to God and God forgives any and all sins. How do you resolve two people who used to be friends and you are constantly out of fellowship, and your family has been brought into it; and they separate from the other family's children. What can we do about that? How can we stop this ridiculousness.

Settle your differences and do it Biblically.

Matt. 18:15 But if your brother may sin against you, go and reprove him between you and him alone. If he hears you, you have gained your brother.

Lesson #0661

Matt. 18: Life of Christ

9/18/2014 Thurs

Bobby would like to skip this lesson. The subject is church discipline. This has been greatly abused.

Sometimes Bobby will read something and it will have application to the passage being taught. An article on a mega-church and something was a problem—the pastor was too much of a bully. The press loves to uncover self righteous churches. This was causing a great split in the church. This church has aired its dirty laundry to the entire world. Big money is always involved in a mega-church.

The pastor may have bullied some people; and he may have been chewing out people and they simply took offense at it. This was widely reported and many believers were disappointed and disillusioned. People have taken sides; and some have criticized the pastor and the pastor was criticized. He apparently taught accurate doctrine. This sort of public airing breeds self-righteousness and it certainly breed divisions in the church, which divides the church.

When a church is divided the impact of the church is blunted. This is no way to handle a controversy or dispute within the church. This should have been confined to the one or two people and private consultation; and to address the problem. The exception would be, criminal activity; and that must go public.

A very small circle in this church ought to have the knowledge; but today, everyone knows. If the problem arose from something the pastor said from what he said; a strong personality is not bullying. The Word of God steps on toes; but it is not a bully.

People do stumble over doctrine; it does step on their toes. People look up at the stage and say, why don't we have a band. Doctrine for some appears to be a stumbling block; and doctrine does not bully. Doctrine reprovcs, corrects and instructs in righteousness. It does not bully.

A press conference to put the pressure on the pastor and the leadership is wrong; it is a blot and an embarrassment and brings discredit on that ministry. Humility is required to solve a problem like this.

The Biblical solution to such a conflict is found in Matt.

Matt. 18:15 But if your brother may sin against you, go and reprove him between you and him alone. If he hears you, you have gained your brother.

What Is this All About?

1. This is resolving a personal conflict between two people in the church. It does not have to be a pastor.
2. This is not the whole church with one person, which is what it became, with the result that it became an inner church war. The church would split. There would be money problems and power struggles, forgetting the purpose of the church.
3. This is not an issue outside the church.

There was a church semi connected to Berachah and a man promised to pay for a building and then he reneged. The church sued him. That was wrong.

Possible Problems

1. There can be a personal injury like borrowing money and not repaying.
2. A sin of the tongue or slanderous speech (which happened at the mega-church). Or it might be bullying, badgering, unwanted attention. We do not want men harassing women. It happen both ways. Bob had a huge problem with that. That is a sealed record.
3. Another believers sticking their nose into another believer's business.
4. Interrupting the teaching of the Word of God.

What we are covering is not how we deal with a criminal matter. The principles that we learn are handled in the church. But crimes involve calling the police.

Whatever the sin might be, it has caused hard feelings, emotional reaction, a breakup in relationship between friends; mental attitude sins in the injured party, etc. Left alone, such a situation can fester and can cause greater problems.

Arrogance is so often involved in this particular problem. It may be inadvertent and not recognized. When believers depart from Bible doctrine, the trouble can only get worse. Under these conditions, the one who is sinned against will have to take the initiative in this situation. It could go either way. This should not be used to authorize intrusion into another's affairs. Whether you want to impose yourself, that is one thing. This is a personal injury between two people. We are not sin police in this church. You do not go to various people and cite their sins to them. Only when this is a personal injury does this verse apply.

Sometimes, things get out of hand because no one deals with this problem. Stubborn arrogance blocks the entire procedure. All of the arrogance of the disciples has been exposed. This won't work unless someone has some humility somewhere. Grace orientation must never be set aside because of unwarranted attention or intrusion or because someone sins against or offends someone else. A humble attitude is the means of solution to any such injury. It starts there and ends there.

Believers do not go to a secular court of law to solve their problems among believers. This is the personal basis for that problem. Going to court with another believer violates another believer. Jesus Christ is defining the principle of how believers handle non-criminal conflict between themselves. There should be peace in the church; there should not be war amongst the parishioners.

Go and show him is fault in private. This can really get dicey. "Go show someone their problem." See how this can be misunderstood. This does not mean you have to meet someone for coffee or whatever. It depends upon who the people are and what the premise is. It might be a very short conversation. It may become a longer conversation if the situation is more complex. In any case, you approach them privately.

Aorist active imperative of elegkô which means to bring to light, to expose. This involves a direct meeting, and it can be done on the phone; and sometimes, it is best to looking someone in the eye. Sometimes, people will say with a text what they would not say eye-to-eye. This does not mean a belligerent conversation or threats.

Here Are the Issues

1. The sin itself should not be the issue. The key is the disagreement.
2. The actual sin is not the real problem between the two parties.
3. The problem is the result of the sin in the offended party's mind and life. It is the result.
4. Mainly, the result is a distraction from doctrine due to this sin. That is the important part of it. Maybe someone has gossiped about you, and you spend all of your time in Bible class rebounded because you see them. The air needs to be cleared; the doctrine must be metabolized.
5. The distraction is the outcome of the offense. When you know what the source is, you don't go after someone because of the sin.
6. In this meeting, the sin is revealed, but the solution between the two people is what needs to be affected.
7. Bringing up the sin to the offending party is just a means to an end. You can get bogged down in the sin itself. The end game is reconciliation; putting the problem aside. This does not mean that you become best buddies with this person. It does not mean that you will hug one another. You made the issue clear; but be nice.

This meeting should not be undertaken to correct the offending party personally. You do not say, "Stop your sinning, you lowlife." Your problem is the offense to you. The reason to go to a brother over this, is to get you both on track. The offending believer must understand the consequences on the offended.

Dealing with a Problem Between Two Believers

1. The meeting is to inform them of how this affects you. You are not to get involved in their life.
2. Do not make an issue of the other person's sin or of their faulty character. You might want to unload. The issue is, what the result of the sin is on the offended party. Make that known. That is what you are there for.
3. If the offending party, the one sinning against his brother, has any interest in advancing in the Christian life and avoiding being a stumbling block, and sees the problem in this meeting that he has created, and acknowledges the problem in his own mind, it just has to be perceived and recognized and pointed out.
4. That person will rebound and recognize his own sin before the Lord. He will assure the injured party that the offense will not be repeated.
- 5.
6. This should be enough to satisfy the offended party. That is all you need.
7. Penance, even an apology, should never be demanded. That is not grace orientation. Our society is obsessed with apologies. Move on; apologies are unnecessary; and often insincere.

8. The issue in all of this is always the advance in the spiritual life. This must be corrected for you; then you must utilize the problem solving device of impersonal love. This only makes sense if you know how to utilize impersonal love.

More about Solving this Problem

1. Impersonal love takes humility on your part.
2. The recognition of the importance of Bible doctrine in the lives of both parties. Both peoples' spiritual advance is important.
3. Recognition by the offending believer of being a stumbling block. They may not even know that they are.
4. The recognition by the offended believer as to when the problem is solved. Do not run it into the ground. Know when your point is made and when you can leave this all behind.

How is the meeting accomplished and under what circumstances. But there is also how is this to be accomplished. "Gaining your brother" is key?

Monos is a key word.

Matt. 18:15 But if your brother may sin against you, go and reprove him between you and him alone. If he hears you, you have gained your brother.

Matt. 18:15 "If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault, between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have gained your brother.

Matt. 18:16 But if he does not listen, take one or two others along with you, that every charge may be established by the evidence of two or three witnesses.

Matt. 18:17 If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church. And if he refuses to listen even to the church, let him be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector.

This solving of a problem between two believers involves the people trying to solve it themselves. That is step #1. This should not be a donnybrook; it should involve just a talk.

You should think about what you say and how you say it. You should not accuse; nor do you need to spend time on the sin or dwell on the sin.

Matt. 18:15 "If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault, between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have gained your brother.

The injured believer must go privately; the word is monos. This means, you are going alone to the offending party. This is a very private conversation. This is not accusing or confronting the injuring party. Is it damaging your soul? You can handle problems with problem solving devices. This is a problem which must be dealt with. This is a problem which needs to be gotten rid of; getting emotional does not solve the problem. The injury must be removed as a stumbling block. After the meeting, the maximum result is, both parties are at peace with one another. This one-on-one meeting is the best way to handle any such problematic meeting.

Things like this can cause a larger rift in the conversation.

If he listens to you, then you have gained your brother.

Κερδαινω = to gain. This is gaining something which they did not have before. The estrangement is over; forgiveness is facilitated. Then both just move on. They do not necessarily have a close relationship.

Coming to Peace

1. This is not peace at any price. This is not reconciliation at any cost.
2. Unity of two people or reconciliation can never trump doctrine.
3. A believer can never make peace at the cost of compromising doctrinal principles. That does happen.
4. This private meeting should not be held to iron out doctrinal differences. That is not the purpose. You are not in a war about doctrine. A discussion about doctrine is one thing.
5. There is no reconciliation between false and true doctrine. There is no compromise. Unfortunately, we have a country which loves compromise. We end up; and our form of government is a compromise. That is the way it was designed. But that is not the way that Christianity works, so as to have unity and to have peace.
6. There does not have to be antagonism between those who are not on the same doctrinal page as we are.

Changing doctrine and divine viewpoint for the purpose of getting along, for unity, that is wrong. Mega-churches have all kinds of people who come through the door; some may come for doctrine. Often, because of the many people who come, there must be compromises made with doctrine. Pure doctrinal churches often have smaller congregations. Theologians have compromised doctrinal principles throughout history. Denominations have become apostate just for this reason. Denominations which were once strong for Bible doctrine have long since become apostate; or have become humanistic.

They have changed for the social gospel. Christianity is about faith alone in Christ alone. Doctrine is learned and then comes service. Unfortunately, many compromise to fall in line with a humanistic viewpoint of Christianity. Some evangelical churches have watered down their beliefs in order not to alienate people. There are many people today who see gay marriage as the right thing to do; as an issue of civil rights. These same people mock the Bible approach to homosexuality. This stand may alienate people; it may bring about mockery; and it may drive people from the church. Doctrine divides. Doctrine divides families. If doctrine divides families; then it can divide churches. Churches cannot afford this compromise.

Matt. 18:15 "If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault, between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have gained your brother."

Now, if no meeting of the minds occurs, then another step must be taken. Impersonal love is definitely needed. Impersonal love often requires that you separate. You can love someone from afar. Injury in the soul must be dealt with.

If the meeting is a failure and the brother does not listen, then there are additional steps. Sometimes, a problem like this can widen and bring others into the fray. This cannot be allowed to become a wider problem in the church.

Matt. 18:16 But if he does not listen, take one or two others along with you, that every charge may be established by the evidence of two or three witnesses.

Sometimes, this personal meeting does not work. There might be some arrogance involved here. Take one or two more with you. Bring others with you so that every fact may be confirmed. Sometimes, false information can end up making things much worse.

This is important for church leadership to understand. There are 3 more steps in this process. There must be every fact confirmed. If this is the situation, you do not gather up your 3 best friends and gang up on the other party. Your best friends might have already heard of all of this. When you cannot resolve a problem between the two of you; it does not help to bring in 2 or 3 others who simply agree with you. Such witnesses in a court can be impeached. Attempting a reconciliation by force of numbers. These 2 or 3 must be fair and impartial. They must be good witnesses. They must be able to approach this objectively. This is gathering parties to gather up facts. Personal injury may be involved; and there must be impersonal love.

Impersonal love must run coterminously with the injury. The two cannot be separated; they cannot be separated. Reconciliation is not longer the goal in this second step.

What Are We Trying to Do?

1. The two or three are fact gatherers; they are investigators. This is why they must be fair and impartial.
2. They are investigating the facts in order to render a judgment. Witnesses here become judges.

3. They cannot take part in the process or render an opinion or a judgment if they are not aware of the situation.
4. That is their initial activity in this conflict; in this second step. Find out all of the circumstances. This is what happens in a court of law. All the surrounding circumstances must be known.
5. Therefore, the two or three are enlisted to confirm facts; not to take sides or to enforce a solution (at this point). Where do these witnesses come from? Bobby will get to this.
6. Reconciliation must be volitional on the part of the two parties involved; if not this step occurs.

This step has a judicial connotation within the church. Jesus was drawing from the Old Testament. Deut. 19:15–16 "A single witness shall not suffice against a person for any crime or for any wrong in connection with any offense that he has committed. Only on the evidence of two witnesses or of three witnesses shall a charge be established. If a malicious witness arises to accuse a person of wrongdoing,

This has come about because of the disciples and their own problems and their own disagreements. This is a principle applied to their Jewish judicial process. So Jesus applies this to this situation. This becomes a precedent for handling cases between two warring persons. This will be the guidelines. The disciples will have to do this in the early church.

The Two or Three Impartial Witnesses or Judges

1. The two or three witnesses must thoroughly investigate the facts concerning the offense. This is what happened, and I want you to check it out.
2. This is placing the matter of a problem of a court; but it is a court inside of a church. Many people have a problem and they say, "I am going to sue." You do not sue another believer. This is the way to go.
3. These witnesses or judges must not be emotionally involved; they must not be prejudiced in any way. They must have the interests of both parties involved; and this is the interest of the whole church body involved.
4. The facts that are presented by one person especially the offended party, the one who is accusing, is not necessarily the whole picture. There is always two sides to any situation.
5. Both parties should be interviewed, as well as anyone else having any knowledge of the situation. This makes sense to Bobby, because it works in so many areas of life. This works perfectly in a military situation as well. You have a hassle between two military soldiers, this can solve it. First, it gets investigated inside the unit. The lower echelon, the better off things are for everyone.
6. All facts are weighed in the context of the overall issue; the problem, from both sides.
7. This is a much more formal proceeding for handling a dispute. The issue can become a more widely known problem, since other witnesses to the circumstances become involved, as others are interviewed. This step should be kept as private as possible. The investigators; the 2 or 3 judges must keep their mouths closed, so that there is no gossip or unwanted involvement by others. This has occurred a number of times in Berachah Church. It has been handled within this directive.

If the two people solve it, then 2 or 3 witnesses are not needed. Sometimes, the problem is inadvertent. Sometimes a private discussion can end it. Sometimes a person can point out the result in their lives. Should the injury not be resolved, then the injured party calls for 2 or 3 witness for an impartial hearing.

In our case, the formal witnesses would be taken from the members of the board of deacons. This has happened on a number of occasions.

Where the 2 or 3 Come from

1. Anyone with such a conflict with another believer in Berachah Church which cannot be resolved using the first step of v. 15, should approach a member of the board of deacons in order to deal with this problem. This puts the problem into this judicial process. That is the 2 or 3 witness process step. This is one reason the deacons stand from time to time.
2. This is where the 2 or 3 witnesses come from in Berachah Church.
3. Of course, these 2 or 3 will maintain the privacy of the 2 parties. That is a given and the members of the board of deacons know this fact. This preserves your privacy within the larger body.
4. These 2 or 3 deacons will gather the facts in order to render a decision. A lawyer is the chairman of the board.
5. Once they have gathered the facts, then the offending party is called in.
6. The facts are laid out by the official witnesses to the offending party.
7. If this is understood and action is taken, then people move on and there are no more consequences.

Matt. 18:16 But if he does not listen, take one or two others along with you, that every charge may be established by the evidence of two or three witnesses.

If this does not work out, then we go to v. 17a:

Matt. 18:17 If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church. And if he refuses to listen even to the church, let him be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector.

So, if the offending party rejects all of this, then do we go in front of the church? What does that mean? This will take some time and some exegesis. It will take some logic and common sense.

Lesson #0664

Matt. 18:15–17 Life of Christ

9/25/2014 Thurs

We are studying that which might preclude church wars.

Included in these 3 verses, the so-called church discipline passages, is a 4-step process designed to resolve conflicts between 2 parties in a church.

Matt. 18:15 "If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault, between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have gained your brother."

Might be sins of the tongue, like badgering, gossip, stick one's nose into another's business; and the acts may have caused a financial problem. When one party injures another, it is the result that is a problem. This might detract from learning and knowing the Word of God. Your brother sins against you; this is a one-to-one sin. Sometimes peripheral people think, "I have been injured too." If this sin was not directed toward you, then don't get in the middle of it. Use impersonal love. If it is not about you, then don't make it about you.

Such things spread; people talk and people get involved.

Go and show him his fault (in private). When you have gained your brother; this means you have solved the problem. Then, get over it, get over yourself and move on. Your life should never hinge over what someone has done to you. It causes mental attitude sins. It causes wider problems. Families and friends get in the middle of these things; and it expands to groups in the church.

These sins do not exclude problem solving devices in the souls of the believers. You still may only have temporary peace in the soul, based upon the resolution of the sin. But there might be residual hurt; even vindictiveness. It is not just the sin itself that has to be resolved; there is the injury in the soul. The sin must be taken care of. It might be resolved between the two people; but if you have a hangover in your soul, that needs to be handled.

Impersonal love is the problem solver in your soul. Only in that can you have peace in your soul. You do not want turmoil in your soul by thinking about this thing for time afterwards.

Matt. 18:16 But if he does not listen, take one or two others along with you, that every charge may be established by the evidence of two or three witnesses.

If the sin against you is not solved by the first step in the process, then we go to Matt. 18:16. Briefly, the two or three are simply witnesses to the facts of the conflict. They are not your 2 or 3 best friends. They gather facts from both sides. These witnesses investigate the facts of the case. They need to render a judgment. In Berachah Church, these witnesses are specific deacons. This is not 2 or 3 people ganging up on the other party.

The offending party might acknowledge the fault. At the very least, he might cease and desist the cause of the problem. No residual bitterness, anger or grudge. The problem then never needs to be addressed again.

It is a truism that, if the offending party agrees to the judges decision, then it can be affirmed that this is a believer with authority-orientation. That is an important aspect of all of this. He or she has recognized that an adjudicating authority has made a decision; and this person has agreed to this decision. Authority-orientation does not mean that you always agree with the authority. You recognize the authority, even though you may not agree with it.

This is often the case in Berachah Church. Authority-orientation is really a strong point in Berachah. That is because this is a church that places emphasis on Bible doctrine. It is doctrine in the soul that creates the authority-orientation. So it is the recognition of the authority of doctrine which allows that person to acquiesce to the judges' decision. Then the final judgment solves the problem, if both sides accept that authority.

Matt. 18:16 But if he does not listen, take one or two others along with you, that every charge may be established by the evidence of two or three witnesses.

What happens if one refuses to listen to them. "Tell it to the church." This is a mandate which has been greatly abused.

Matt. 18:17 If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church. And if he refuses to listen even to the church, let him be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector.

The peace and tranquility in a church is at stake. If he refuses to listen. The offending party does not entertain any of this. He might reject any conferences or listening to the 2 or 3 witnesses or to anyone else.

Aorist active subjunctive of παρακούω which means to pay no attention; to disobey. He refuses to acknowledge the outcome or he refuses to see that he is culpable. If the first 2 steps do not work, then we go to the third step. Go tell it to the church.

Now there is a bigger problem, which could balloon further. The church in this case is the supreme court in the matter. The 2 or 3 witnesses had the authority to render a decision; the church will have the final say so.

In this context, who constitutes the church? Keep in mind that authority, which is involved in this situation. The authority does not reside with everyone in the court. No doubt that Jesus was referring to an assembly of people. This was the time before the church existed. This occurs before the official church; so this is an assembly. The conflict would be brought before a Jewish assembly in the synagogue. Is this the entire assembly or a smaller subset of them? It is not clear from this statement which it is.

The problem is, many churches in the intervening centuries have taken this to mean that the whole church is informed about this problem. This has been taken by many to think the whole church needs to know about this.

There is a rationale here. They might warn the recalcitrant person; warning them of pending action by the church. It also happens to bring embarrassment and social disapproval. This is a last gasp of showing the believer the error of his ways. A lot of pastors have gone in this direction for just these reasons. That is what doctrine is supposed to do in a church.

Shaming and social pressure does not solve the problem of the attitude of arrogance in the soul. It may go underground, but this does not solve the problem in the soul of the person who has the problem.

Bobby's confirmed opinion is that the whole church should never be involved. There is a practical, common sense reason; and there are pertinent doctrines.

Why this Is Not Taken to the Church as a Whole

1. This tell the entire church procedure carries with it a great hazard. It does not have to be an official announcement. This can be spread by the 2 or 3 witnesses.
2. It has often caused problems amongst the larger congregation. They had no prior knowledge of involvement in this problem; and they did not need to have it. That simply causes problems for them.
3. Quite often, further conflict is initiated by by-standing believers. If Bobby announced a problem from the pulpit between 2 people, how are you going to have any affect on these people? This does not solve anything.
4. Telling the congregation is a prompt; it is a prompt for self-righteousness, rather than for grace orientation. This can be a prompt for maligning and gossiping throughout the church. This involves a larger number of people now who are sinning.
5. This telling of the whole congregation has no relevance to the process of solution and reconciliation.
6. It can also become a stumbling block to immature believers who have the area of weakness of self-righteousness.
7. This also violates the privacy of the offending party.

Dwelling on a problem does not solve the situation. What problem is solved when you lay awake at night and think about some so-and-so that you are mad at? That ties you up in knots.

When one is back in fellowship, reconciliation can be more easily reached. Spiritual advance is the way that humility and impersonal love is acquired.

So, What Does it Mean to Tell it to the Church?

1. The Greek verb is ειπον, and it is a command.
2. It means to speak, to consult with someone. In other words, it means to tell someone.
3. This is an imperative mood; no wiggle room.
4. There is an indefinite person or group; who this group is or who you tell is not told.
5. Therefore, someone does not have to mean all the members of the church. This is indefinite.
6. This is not necessarily a command to make a general announcement to everyone.
7. Consultations, telling someone, are still done in controlled environments, in order to rectify bad circumstances. A platoon leader does not have a problem, and then calls the soldier before the entire platoon. The platoon leader calls him into his office, a controlled environment, with a platoon sergeant.

8. The church as a whole is not a controlled environment. What is the extent of this consultation?

The who is εκκλησια, which means the church. This is to speak to someone designated here as the church. This is consulting with someone within the church assembly. It can be a definite someone or a group within the church.

We think of the church as a body, as a group of people. One option is the whole bunch; all of us. There is another option, and that is the authority within the church. Another option is a small group, of 4 or more.

Church is a dative of reference. This means to consult with someone to the best interest of the church. There is a discretionary actions related to this. mandate. Who is that?

Bobby, the church has authoritative representation; it is a part of church government. Berachah Church is like a republic. It is not a democracy. They are the authority in the church government.

The matter is presented so that it is to the best interest of the church as a whole. This brings the pastor and the deacons into the matter. This is where the buck stops.

Some do not understand what authority in a church means. To some churches, the authority is the church. However, in most churches, the authority resides in a few. How do you resolve a problem without authority? How do you resolve a problem if there is no authority? Where does that go? This is why common sense, logic and church government all has a bearing on this passage.

Matt. 18:17 If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church. And if he refuses to listen even to the church, let him be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector.

Lesson #0665

Matt. 18:15–17 Life of Christ

9/28/2014 1Sunday

A difficult subject. People and problems with people. We all face them with friends, enemies and family members. Bobby has had to face similar situations here. It is a fairly rare occasion, but there are problems. People problems often solved with rebound.

Crime and punishment has been debated, discussed and legislated. There are sins, crimes, problems; and there are many viewpoints as to what punishment fits the crime. It is truly a relative subject in our world today. We see in the national football league these sorts of problems. Child discipline problems; what is appropriate. Problems in the corporate world. Also in the military, when soldiers get out of line. The same is true in the church. God has given us the crystal clarity to understand crime and punishment.

Spiritual growth is the aim of Berachah Church. The result is, the more one can fulfill the plan for our lives and this spiritual aging process appears most clearly in changed attitudes, including attitudes toward fellow believers. We look to renovate our thinking. The issue that we are dealing with is best handled with spiritual growth. As the believer develops the Bible perspective or divine viewpoint, to deal with people problems and with tests in life and with personal injury. That is our front-line defense.

The problem solving devices have been developed in our church. People have criticized the ministry of Berachah Church because there is terminology used that is not Biblical. But terminology is great in communicating Biblical principles. The purpose. Church is a classroom; you must find ways to communicate to people, which touches them, so that they can use it and apply it so that it is understandable.

The golf instructor strives to communicate how to swing the club. You can have completely different approaches from two different golf pros. There is a description of the swing to communicate to your muscle memory. Two different pros will often use a very different vocabulary.

The sin natures in the bodies of believers. It is always active. It never goes away, even in mature believers. The believer cannot control the sins of others which cause personal injury. Many try various manipulations to control how others think and act.

The principles from the Bible are applicable to nearly every situation and relationship in life. You can be wronged and get angrier and disturbed and this abuse can play out in various personal disputes. Our subject is between believers in church. Great distraction; mental attitude sins. Problems have to be dealt with. You cannot simply overlook them. Problems become greater when they are ignored.

Illustration of the National Football League and they have ignored problems for a long time, and all kinds of abuses have come to light. Had the problems of individuals been dealt with at an individual level and that would have kept them from being a national crisis.

Similarly, God has given us a 4 step process to deal with interpersonal problems.

Matt. 18:15 "If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault, between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have gained your brother."

First try to settle a problem between yourself and the other person. This is the first place to start. Your mental attitude for this private meeting is critical. There is a way to approach people under these circumstances. The importance of the attitude. Grace orientation and impersonal love.

Gal. 6:1 is excellent about approaching someone.

Gal. 6:1 Brothers, if anyone is caught in any transgression, you who are spiritual should restore him in a spirit of gentleness. Keep watch on yourself, lest you too be tempted.

Being spiritual is necessary. That is the first spiritual skill. This should be done in a spirit of gentleness. Gentleness is an attitude; it is not the way that you act. It is the attitude of humility. The approach of one believer to the offending believer must always be done in humility. Grace orientation ought to be your attitude. Such a meeting is not confrontational. You don't go there with an attitude of anger. You don't go in there with the approach of straightening the other person out. Jesus is teaching humility to His disciples. If the first step fails to win or to gain reconciliation. Then there is a second step that is initiated.

Next we try the corporate solution:

Matt. 18:16 But if he does not listen, take one or two others along with you, that every charge may be established by the evidence of two or three witnesses.

Take some impartial witnesses with you. These are not your best friends. Impartial judges are enlisted to deal with the nature of your conflict. They come up with a solution. There must be a corroboration. The best witnesses are deacons. You don't look for 2 or 3 people who are on your side. An authority figure in the church is helpful. Authority is necessary in these circumstances. Who are the authorities? Bobby and various administrators called deacons.

Matt. 18:17 If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church. And if he refuses to listen even to the church, let him be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector.

So, if there is no solution found individually, higher authorities are sought to investigate the matter. This investigation must be done to insure to accurately reconcile the parties. The investigation must be fair, apart from grudges and anger. Sometimes there is a hidden agenda.

The next approach, if he will not listen to the witnesses, is go tell it to the church. "Let's have a big meeting and real this to everyone." Is that what this means?

The Greek verb for tell is to speak, to tell. The word church here is ἐκκλησία and this refers to a gathering; and it generally refers to the church. Tell or consult with the church. This is the dative case, which would be the dative of advantage. It would be to the advantage of the church. This is to the best interest or advantage of the church. This is an indefinite someone. Discretion can be exercised in the telling as to who gets this sensitive information. We are dealing with the sins and problems of other people. Nothing worse than getting outsiders involved in a problem and sticking their nose into this and stirring up the pot. The sin of one person is found out and this sin is well-known and others get upset and you have exacerbated the problem. Pretty soon you have a church in division; people in it. Families get divided. If too large a group gets involved, it can harden the attitude of the offending party because of arrogance.

Simply put, the best someone and the most obvious someone is the authority in the church; the authority which represents the whole congregation. A deacon represents us as a part of church government. They are sometimes called church elders. The indefinite group.

They are best defined as authority figures in the church, which includes Bobby. This is not done with the best interest of the individual. The authority must keep in mind what is best for the church.

What must be done to resolve to conflict in order to keep this from getting bigger. Once it gets to your level, it is no longer from that individual alone.

The Third Step

1. Get some authorities involved.
2. This is where the matter stops; where the buck stops.
3. The problem is discussed among these people and a final resolution is come to apart from or from outside the two people involved. The church is the supreme court. It does not go beyond that. If this dispute goes to a secular court of law, everyone has failed.
4. In any case, it is now out of the hands of the individuals involved.
5. In the best interest of the church, a decision is rendered by church authorities. A judgment is carefully considered and made based upon all evidence.
6. The church has been told and the matter is resolved.

Matt. 18:17 If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church. And if he refuses to listen even to the church, let him be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector.

Lesson #0666

Matt. 18:17 Life of Christ

9/28/2014 2Sunday

We have covered 3 of 4 steps in church discipline. When people have a conflict between themselves and someone else; and it expands to others; and when the process expands further, you will note that 2 out of the 3 have to do with authority; an authority higher than the people involved.

The concept of authority-orientation. Our society does not look too kindly on authority. Bobby grew up in a generation where everyone over 30 is suspect. That is rebellion; that is anti-authority. Authority is critical and necessary for any organization. Without authority, society cannot work. Without authority, a business cannot work; the military cannot work; marriage cannot work; nor can families. Authority is critical. Authority without freedom is tyranny. Freedom without authority is anarchy, which is what we see in the souls of many people today. That is true of believers in churches. That is why this process is stated to handle problems within a church; authority is necessary. No church runs without authority. Authority is not outside the local church. There is no room for cardinals, bishops or popes. The authority rests in the local church.

Things can get very political with the church and there have been problems like this. We discover through the exegesis of the passage that the church that we are referring to authorities in the church. This step-by-step procedure is being outlined specifically for the disciples. They will have the supreme authority in the early church. They will guide the early church when it comes to doctrine and practices. There will be designated pastors and authorities. Corinthians and Thessalonians both cover the pastor's authority in the local church.

All of our authority is vested in Bible doctrine. The general membership of the church has not investigated this situation. They have by Biblical mandate have not been involved in this step-by-step process. They are not able to render an informed judgment. It is not our business to render any kind of a judgment between two people in a church. That is the authority that is in this church. You can see why authority figures are so important in the church, and that includes the pastor. Authority must be involved in disciplinary situations.

There are several things involved here. The facts must be investigated and known. There must be authority with those who investigate. There is another aspect, and that is when this dispute goes wider. There must be the application of doctrine; and when it comes to a church, the buck stops with Bobby where there are doctrinal issues. Bobby is included in that authoritative body. False doctrinal issues can be confusing and divisive.

In Berachah Church, such problems are never brought before the church. The 2 or 3 consult Bobby and a decision is rendered by Bobby and the offending party is then informed and the offending party is informed.

The authority of a church is important, because that is the only way to deal with this problem. Now, if the authority solves the problem, everything is fine and everyone moves on. However, if the offender will not listen to the one person, the two or three persons, or to the leadership in the church, then the leadership must render a final decision.

Can you imagine a mega-church voting on one person's sin as it relates to another person? In a small church of 10 or 20, such a situation might come up. Word gets around rather quickly. This may be modified. The general idea is, the fewer involved, the better.

Matt. 18:17 If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church. And if he refuses to listen even to the church, let him be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector.

The offending party once again pays no attention; he disobeys; he refuses to listen. This is primarily the case when the believer is arrogant or has rejected doctrine. Or has not accepted the doctrine which has been taught. Some might think they know more than anyone else. This may be the case when arrogance rules the soul of the offender. He might be so inundated with the cosmic system so that no amount of talking can solve the problems. He refuses the church, he refuses the doctrine, he refuses the settlement.

The present active imperative of the verb to be. This refers to a status; it is a state of being two things, a gentile and a tax collector. Gentile is a way to deal with an unbeliever. This does not mean that he is a gentile or an unbeliever. Faith alone in Christ alone precludes lost salvation. However, after this 3 step process which leads nowhere, he is arrogant and anathema to the church. Arrogance is rampant in our society. On television, we see arrogance presented as a great virtue among the people. It goes right along with anti-authority. They are a trouble-maker and a bad influence. Treat him as if he is a tax collector. He is treated as an unbeliever and as a tax collector. There was no more despised person in Roman or Jewish society than a tax collector. Such a one was ostracized and despised. Matthew, the man writing this, is a tax collector. Who better to understand this than Matthew himself. He gets it. This is how the church will view such a person. The church will sever the relationship. This is excommunication. This term has been used by some denominations; but Berachah does not use it. It seems to imply a loss of salvation and that is not the situation at any point.

This final decision is very difficult for anyone in authority to take. This is for peace and tranquility in the church in general. Bobby does not want us distracted from learning Bible doctrine, and there is no greater distraction than other people. Many times there are people sitting here or there, and that is all they can think about. The very solution between these two lies in what they are missing; Bible doctrine. It must be stopped for the good of all involved.

A dative of advantage. It is to everyone's advantage to be separated. The solution in the soul of the offending party is Bible doctrine; but Bible doctrine has been rejected and the authority of the church has been rejected.

Sometimes a person must be asked to leave Berachah. They can still get MP3's and DVD's; but they can no longer sit in church. Berachah is the best place to concentrate.

Principle of Personal Separation

1. Stay away from believers with whom you cannot get along; or with whom you realize their doctrinal viewpoint is off. Too much exposure to that is confusing. Sever destructive relationships. As a teenager, this is a very difficult thing. You must be able to discern which relationships are destructive and which are good.
2. Life is too short and your time is too important to spend it in hostility towards others and in mental attitude sins. You cannot stay in fellowship with mental attitude sins. You cannot stay in fellowship with intractable thoughts about other people. This nullifies your spiritual life.
3. The problem for the individual believer is one of discernment. You must have the doctrine to recognize a destructive relationship. You must be thinking personally or the relationship that has gotten you off or has caused you the most problem. When they take you from doctrine or distract you from doctrine, they must be severed. This does not mean that you are nasty toward them or you say negative things about them. The separation is when they have a close relationship with you.
4. You must have the courage to make the break. It is tough sometimes to do this.

Matt. 18:17b And if he refuses to listen even to the church, let him be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector.

Having given these instructions, Jesus talks about what to do.

Matt. 18:18 Truly, I say to you, whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

Our of context and even in context, this is a difficult thing to explain. These words are directed toward the disciples who will be the Apostles of the church. This universal authority will carry over to churches in the Church Age and morph into local authority in the church.

The Authority of the Apostles Will Carry on into Heaven

1. When the proper procedures are followed, as the Apostles will do, then secondly, the decisions that they make and likewise the decisions made by future church authorities make are regarded as authoritative in heaven. That is some serious responsibility.
2. Binding and loosening refers to the delegated authority that belongs to the disciples. When they bind and loose on this earth, carries over. This are great authoritative decisions. These are accepted and sanctioned in heaven.
3. This means that the exercise of such decisions and discipline is sanctioned by God.

Having such authority calls for a tremendous sense of responsibility. It is critical for the life of any local church. Binding and loosening is not ex-communication to the loss of salvation. This is about discipline for reversionism and sin which causes problems in a greater body. Any believer who is separated from fellowship in the church can be restored to fellowship. Any believer can be restored to fellowship in the church any more than a believer can be restored in a simple act of rebound.

The believer must be free from the bondage of hostility toward others. Then reconciliation can be achieved. On a practical note, separation from one church does not mean that you are separated from other local churches. In some denominations you are ex-communicated from the who denomination. That is not the case here.

Church discipline is a great responsibility for those who have authority. All justice exercised is done for everyone involved.

Jesus has just outlined how to function in a group and how we grow spiritually even though there are difficulties in the church. Arrogance is never a solution to any problem in life, especially in the church.

Prayer does not work when two people are hostile toward one another. This must be executed without hostility.

Lesson #0667

Matt. 18:19–22 Life of Christ

10/1/2014 Wed

The lesson in humility is never over; but the Lord has come down very hard on believers who are arrogant. Someone that Bobby talked to has come from a church completely divided over two people who are having a squabble over money. It is a fairly large church. Jesus has come down with both feet on the disciples who have shown themselves to be egotistical. Jesus has said it is better to cut off a hand or tear out an eye, if these things might cause an immature believer to stumble.

The more the authority is involved, the greater the stumbling block can be. Just one believer can go astray, and the Lord will go after him. Everything is done that can be done to restore such a believer to fellowship.

Jesus then elaborated on a 4-step process to settle a conflict between two believers. Beginning at the lowest level and going to the highest level.

Finally, the Lord concludes with a call for unity, after speaking so much about divisiveness. He uses a particular illustration; the illustration of prayer. The Apostle Paul will reflect some of the things when he writes pray without ceasing. This is praying on a consistent basis.

Matt. 18:19 Again I say to you, if two of you agree on earth about anything they ask, it will be done for them by my Father in heaven.

These disciples could not agree upon which disciple is the greatest. Anything the two or more ask in prayer, it will be heard immediately by God the Father. We address God the Father in prayer. We speak the prayer toward God the Father. He has provided our salvation and our spiritual life. This would apply to any legitimate prayer if it is in the will of God. Prayer will be answered positively if it is in the will of God.

God always answers prayer; it might be no.

How to Pray and Make it Work

1. Effective prayer is based upon the handling of mental attitude sins toward others. There must be agreement; a lack of conflict.
2. Hence the necessity for removing hostility from among believers in the church; reconciliation or econcilliate.
3. If there is hostility between two people, mental attitude sins are present and this makes prayer ineffective.
4. That is a big reason why reconciliation must be effected between warring believers.

There Are 8 Reasons Why Prayers Are Not Answered

1. A lack of faith; a lack of trust in the Lord. Just going through the motions.
2. Self-centeredness; which means you have little or no humility.
3. Carnality and not being filled with the Holy Spirit.
4. A lack of compassion. You may have run into a time where you cannot figure out woh to prayer of. Lack of compassion.
5. Lack of domestic tranquility. When two believers are in conflict, prayer is negated; it is ineffective. Corporate prayer can be with two people. Corporate prayer can be just the husband and wife.
6. Self-righteousness, which is another form of arrogance.

7. A lack of obedience. 1John 3:22 not obeying the mandates of God's Word. The example of the context in which this is found. The good example of this is someone who has ignored all the interaction in the previous context.
8. Non-compliance with God's will. When you get outside of God's will, your prayer life suffers. You are out of the plan of God. The plan of God for every person is prayer. None of us have an excuse for no prayer.

The importance of being in fellowship with God and at peace with other believers. Especially for public prayer. This is the opposite of the hostility spoken of before in the previous context.

Matt. 18:19 Again I say to you, if two of you agree on earth about anything they ask, it will be done for them by my Father in heaven.

Matt. 18:20 For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I among them."

V. 20 states the principle of fellowship. This means no conflict; with is gathering in agreement. Gathering together is specifically for prayer. In this context, it is for prayer. The smaller group of believers in fellowship work; 2 or 3. Family prayer is the best. If you have children, you never let them go to bed without a prayer.

We support all of our missionaries by prayer. Jim Meyers asked for prayer. No one asks for money from the pulpit of Berachah. He needs prayer. There might be 1000 rifles pointed at him; but prayer is more important. There is also corporate prayer. That is to lift up the needs of others.

Prayer meeting at Berachah. This prayer is not for personal needs that you prayer out loud in front of others. Nor should one person monopolize the prayer group. The list is endless for those we can pray for. Something comes to your mind, and you pray for it. Something else pops into your mind 5 min. later and you pray for that. Personal prayer can certainly cover the needs for others.

The focus for public prayer is for others. Personal prayer can be for yourself or for others. In a public prayer, everyone should have a chance to pray.

Don't show up to pray when you are in conflict with someone else. You need to put that aside. Some people can hear others pray and they get out of fellowship. When you go in there with a conflict in your soul. It is ineffective. You might as well not show up. Believers who show up to pray must be in harmony with each other. Effective public prayer cannot occur in a hostile environment.

Jesus' presence draws attention to God the Father to the prayer. God is omnipresent.

Matt. 18:20 For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I among them."

Now we will move to vv. 21–35. There is a similar subject. The previous subject was church discipline, so that unity in the church will not be affected. Now our Lord takes it to a more personal level. This is dedicated to us individually. This is just about us alone. This is going to nail you.

Matt. 18:21 Then Peter came up and said to him, "Lord, how often will my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? As many as seven times?"

This all begins when Peter raises a question about the extent of forgiveness and reconciliation.

Let's say a reconciliation takes place; but then it happens again, and then again. How many times must the offended person extend forgiveness to the offending party. Let's say he does the same thing again; let's say he does something else. How many times do we forgive him?

This gets very personal. The instruction that we are about to hear can be fulfilled. Rather than a soul filled with turmoil or temper tantrums.

Peter asks, "How many times do I have to forgive my brother. 7 times?" Peter is talking about a fellow believer. People assumes that he will reconcile with a fellow believer, but how long? How many times?

Peter names 7 times because he considers that to be generous. That is a lot of forgiveness in his eyes. This also fits in with pharisaical customs. The pharisees allowed 2 forgivenesses, and under the right circumstances, 3 forgivenesses. This is a distortion of Amos 1. This concerns heathen nations against Israel.

So Jesus will look at Peter and shake His head and explain it to him.

Matt. 18:21 Then Peter came up and said to him, "Lord, how often will my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? As many as seven times?"

Jesus says not 7 times; but 70 x 7 times. Peter does not really understand God's grace. He does not understand forgiveness in the Christian life. 70x7 means the forgiveness never ceases. This sounds to the disciples that it is way too forgiving. They had learned that there was a limit. "Never do I stop forgiving?" This seems like an invitation to be taken advantage of. This does not imply stupidity or naivety. Forgiveness begins with an attitude.

What does forgiveness really mean? This is a word thrown around a lot. Mostly, this is a superficial concept. It is fleeting in the thoughts and actions of others. People who say, "I forgive you." The sub-text is, you are such a jerk and I am such a great person, so that I forgive you.

Future active indicative of aphiami, which means to send away, to let go.

3 Points Here

1. This means to send away, to let go.
2. Aphiami means that you dismiss an offense. You completely let it go. It is no longer in your thoughts. It is gone. You ought to be thinking, that is a tall order. Particularly true for husbands and wives.
3. That is the extent of forgiveness in the soul of the believer. Let it. Go.

Matt. 18:22 Jesus said to him, "I do not say to you seven times, but seventy times seven.

Lesson #0668 Rom. 3:24–25 Matt. 18:21–22 Life of Christ 10/2/2014 Thurs

We are still on forgiveness. Forgiveness is a unique doctrine of the Bible. There is no other religious book that teaches that God completely and totally forgives sin, and that believers must follow that same path. The sins of all mankind are forgiven, because Jesus Christ paid the penalty for everyone of them.

The book of Romans is all about justification. A friend of Bobby's had a pastor's conference and asked them if anyone knew the theme of Romans and only one of them did.

Rom. 3:24 and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus,

Rom. 3:25 whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins.

The two basic aspects or soteriology. Propitiation is satisfaction; God is satisfied by the work of Jesus Christ on the cross. Redemption is, Jesus Christ paid the penalty for our sins. All of this demonstrated the righteousness of God. God passed over previously committed sins. He puts them away. Our pre-salvation sins have been utterly and totally forgiven. When we believe in Christ, we can approach Him on the basis of His righteousness. That is the epitome of grace forgiveness. That is one of the unique aspects of Christianity. Nothing else; no other religion, deals with the grace of God in the way that the Bible does. At the very basis of it is God's forgiveness for all of us.

There is also forgiveness for other people, which is connected to forgiveness of God.

Points on Forgiveness

1. A believer's attitude of forgiveness is a fundamental principle of a grace oriented motivation that defines the Christian life. That is how basic this is. Forgiveness is an action, but there must be a thought first. There must be the attitude in the soul first.
2. It is unlimited and unequivocal. Is it actually possible in the real world? Aren't there some sins or actions which are unforgivable? Murder? Child abuse? Marital infidelity? Are we fully capable of forgiving others of such breaches. Believers in Jesus Christ should and are obligated to forgive others as a part of our spiritual life and testimony. It is who we are as believers who are advancing and living the spiritual life. Jesus Christ pioneered the spiritual life of the believer in the Church Age.

3. When something so heinous like murder that seems unforgivable, the question is, why would you want to forgive such a sin? Isn't it great to just revel in your hatred and anger? Why would you even want to do this? But there is a practical reason as well. If you cannot forgiven someone by remembering that the sins that you cannot forgiven, they will interrupt and block your relationship with God. They will negate all spiritual growth. You will have a whole host of mental attitude sins, like bitterness. There is no spiritual life without this. If you cannot forgive, you life will count for nothing.

Peter knows that forgiveness is in order; but he thinks that there is a reasonable limit on forgiveness.

Matt. 18:21 Then Peter came up and said to him, "Lord, how often will my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? As many as seven times?"

Jesus says 70x7 times, which is an unlimited amount. Apiemi

Matt. 18:22 Jesus said to him, "I do not say to you seven times, but seventy times seven.

The Way to Deal with Personal Injury

1. Apiemi means to send away, to let go of.
2. This means you dismiss and offense. You completely put it behind. That is all of them; there are no exceptions. There is no unpardonable sin. All other sins have been forgiven by God because of Christ's work.
3. This forgiveness is accomplished by filling your mind with doctrine. If the sin is throwing you off, then you refocus on doctrine. Spiritual maturity is the ointment that you put over the scars of injury. In order to follow this mandate, there must be a means of doing it. For the believer in Jesus Christ, the only means is spiritual advance.
4. That is the full extent of the soul of the believer.
5. Psychology, when dealing with these horrendous sins, their solution is to go back and revisit and talk and revisit and think about until your mind is tired of it. The Biblical solution is, you must put it out of your mind. You must get past it. You never quite get past something by thinking about it all of the time. Only doctrine can replace the hurt with forgiveness. Ultimately, there is one way and only one way to get you to forgiveness. Scripture tells you not only to forget it and let it go, but to forgive.
6. The forgiveness that God accomplishes through the work of Jesus Christ is our model.

7. Forgiveness must be a spiritual process of removing an offense not considering it again; blotting it out just as God does not recall a sin when He forgives it.

The principle of forgiveness must be in place before any sin or offense occurs. The mature believer has developed grace orientation and impersonal love. Without it, you might as well do years of therapy.

One of the worst things that Bobby can think of is child abuse. Without doctrine continually put into the head of that child, it will remain a scar. Bobby knows those who have been through this experience and doctrine can get this past this. God has something better for us; something that no one else can have. He has a plan for us, which does not include us being bogged down by terrible injuries done to our soul. This is the kind of forgiveness that Jesus commends to His disciples. His disciples will have to deal with all kinds of persecutions and all kinds of apostasies within churches.

The Principle Behind Apieimi

1. God has forgiven us everything because of Jesus Christ.
2. That forgiveness is an accomplished fact at the cross. God looked ahead at all of the sins that everyone would commit, and He imputed them to Jesus Christ on the cross.
3. God remembers our sins no more, even before we believe in Him; even before we are born. They were handled on the cross.
4. Our pre-salvation sins are no longer a barrier, as they are no longer in the thinking of God. He has removed them completely as an issue. God gives us His righteousness, and therefore, we can have a relationship with Him.
5. God forgives and forgets our sins; He does not go back and hold them against us. We will not approach the Judgment Seat of Christ and have to answer for our sins. We will have to answer for divine good or not. Sins are blotted out; they are not an issue. The issue for the unbeliever is, what do you think of Christ?
6. This is also the principle behind rebound. He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins.
7. Same word for forgive in 1John 1:9.
8. God forgives and forgets, no matter how many times or how often we sin.
9. There is no type of sin or no number of sins that He does not blot out. After naming your sins, you handle the rest with Bible doctrine. You focus on Bobby and the doctrine being taught. Everything else should go blank in your mind. When your mind drifts, that is where you lose track of the doctrine. When you rebound, you stay in fellowship longer. God forgives an unlimited number of times. There is no time when rebound fails to work. He promises it and He is immutable; and He never changes.
10. That is the force of forgiveness; unlimited and total, modeled by Jesus Christ and God.

There can be repercussions of sins that you have committed in your life. There can be a lack of spiritual growth; there can be a lack of spiritual production. Suffering may result from sin that is not immediately abated or removed in the long-term. The decisions that we make determine the life that we lead. So make decisions for doctrine.

Is God weak? Of course not. He is omnipotent. Jesus is the strongest of the strong. If you can forgive 70x7, you are the strongest of the strong. You have a spiritual life that makes you strong. You have a soul filled with doctrine; and all kinds of impersonal love. God is not blind to sin; and He does despise sin; but God is always gracious. He always forgives. You may not like the things which happen to you. Always remember God's grace and all that He does for you.

Forgiveness and the Believer

1. Forgiveness is likened to the grace of God, to which believers must orient and execute in their spiritual life. Grace must be understood and it must also be executed by you.
2. Forgiveness requires the attitude of humility, which is the product of grace orientation. You cannot follow the guidance and mandate of these two verses if you lack humility in your soul.
3. That attitude is the only way to have true tranquility and peace of soul that comes from true aphiemi.
4. Being unforgiving over offenses committed against you is to be constantly on edge, hyper-sensitive, always susceptible. This is the result of a soul which cannot block out wrongs. You may not even know where all this hostility comes from. You may be cut off on the freeway and there you are.
5. There is weakness is the attitude which lacks grace orientation. They make decisions from positions of weakness. \
6. As a result, you have a weak spiritual life. That is no way to live.
7. The believer's obligation is unlimited grace; and you use this and give this to others.
8. Grace is always the issue; not personal satisfaction. When you make it about yourself, then you do not get over the injury. You are unable to forgive. You want to throw down the gauntlet and have a duel.
- 9.

More Points

1. When the believer develops the attitude for forgiveness, he understands that others have sin natures just as you do. There is nothing that you can do about it, apart from dealing with it the way that you are. You must change your thinking. People have sin natures.
2. Being self righteous means that there is no way that you can forgive.
3. Where humility resides, self-righteousness is excluded. Self-righteousness is unforgiving. Legalism is unforgiving.

4. Where arrogance and self-righteousness are excluded, the attitude of aphiemi is in operation.
5. Aphiemi is the very essence of the mature believers thought process.
6. Mental attitude sin after forgiveness are set aside by means of humility. It is not about me. God has provided grace for me; can I do any less?

Closing Points

1. We are not required by this passage to remain intimately close to those who injure you.
2. You are not required to remain in the company of those believers who repeatedly injure and cause you pain.
3. You are not required to pound your head against a wall of implacability.
4. Nor should you reciprocate with mental attitude sins of your own.
5. You do not have to put yourself in the way of continued abuse for the sake of fellowship.
6. Aphiemi does not require embracing mental or physical cruelty.
7. Aphiemi means forgetting and moving on; and not dwelling on the past.
8. Also not putting oneself in a position to be constantly reminded or abused. Abused wives and children need to separate from the abuser.
9. Forgiveness and separation are not mutually exclusive.
10. Forgiveness develops with spiritual maturity. Separation is the exercise of common sense. Why put yourself in the way of the same problems that you faced before.
11. Separation is necessary where bad company corrupts divine viewpoint or abuse continues. Forgiveness or separation are a great combination.
12. Where there are repeated relapses of resentment, mental attitude sins or injury, separation is indicated.
13. One forgets an offense; but it is not necessary to continue to expose yourself to the same repeated offenses.
14. However, there is no justification in the Christian life for a non-gracious attitude, which is impersonal love. Nor is there justification for passive-aggressive response. That is not aphiemi.

Jesus will use a parable to explain this. They have had trouble forgiving others; so Jesus will approach this in a different way.

Lesson #0669

Matt. 18:21–26 Life of Christ

10/5/2014 1Sunday

People are the greatest tests to our lives. Our subject is forgiving people. This is an attitude; and it is invaluable in all human relationships. It is vital as well for the tranquility of our souls. How easy it is to fill our souls with bitterness, anger, revenge; yet these mental attitude sins reflect a self-centered subjectivity which cannot or will not get past personal slights, conflict, or personal injury. If these are not forgiven, these sins will constantly block your relationship with God. The filling of the Holy Spirit will become an infrequent experience. It will curtail any effective spiritual life. It is the attitude of forgiveness that is the Biblically mandated antidote to the damage to our souls by other people. Personal injury from others will happen. It will happen to a greater or lesser degree for all people.

Forgiveness does not always come easy. It reflects the fundamental principle of grace and doctrinal orientation in the believer. It is the full development of grace orientation that produces the attitude of humility regarding oneself and others. It is this humility that Jesus has been teaching His disciples. Also with this is the reconciliation with people that is required. After all of this instruction, who else but Peter needs some clarification on all of this. This seems unattainable and unrealistic to Peter.

Matt. 18:21 Then Peter came up and said to him, "Lord, how often will my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? As many as seven times?"

And Peter might be initially relieved, when Jesus answers in the negative. The pharisees said 2 or 3 times. Then Jesus says we forgive 70x7 times. There is no personal injury or injustice that is left out.

Matt. 18:22 Jesus said to him, "I do not say to you seven times, but seventy times seven."

What does this mean? Forgiving this many times is a tall order.

aphiêmi (ἀφίημι) [pronounced af-EE-ay-mee], which means, 1) to send away; 1a) to bid going away or depart; 1a1) of a husband divorcing his wife; 1b) to send forth, yield up, to expire; 1c) to let go, let alone, let be; 1c1) to disregard; 1c2) to leave, not to discuss now, (a topic); 1c2a) of teachers, writers and speakers; 1c3) to omit, neglect; 1d) to let go, give up a debt, forgive, to remit; 1e) to give up, keep no longer; 2) to permit, allow, not to hinder, to give up a thing to a person; 3) to leave, go way from one; 3a) in order to go to another place; 3b) to depart from any one; 3c) to depart from one and leave him to himself so that all mutual claims are abandoned; 3d) to desert wrongfully; 3e) to go away leaving something behind; 3f) to leave one by not taking him as a companion; 3g) to leave on dying, leave behind one; 3h) to leave so that what is left may remain, leave remaining; 3i) abandon, leave destitute. Thayer Definitions only. Strong's #863.

If it is not forgotten, then it is coming back. And how can forgiveness be complete when the hurt remains with you. The effects have to be replaced with something. Otherwise, it stays in your thinking and you mull it over and consider and reconsider it and all of its effects. When the believer in Jesus Christ consistently thinks on God's Word, then the doctrines which are placed there force out the reactions and the mental attitude sins. The more you advance spiritually, the more you can put these personal injuries aside.

It is like rebound. I rebound my hatred for Charley Brown, but I still hate him. But what you do is concentrate on the Word of God; and not on Chuck Brown. This all takes time; it is a process. You may harbor mental attitude sins toward someone who has injured you, but you take in doctrine, and this doctrine will force out your reaction. Stop focusing on the injury and more on the doctrine.

The faith rest drill is an example of forcing the mental attitude sins out and replacing it with something else. Claim a Biblical promise rather than claiming the injury. Sometimes, you may take something as offensive when it is not even meant in that way.

It is no way to live; no reason to be offended at anything, even when someone tries to do that. It should not enter your head that you need to be offended about anything. As you become grace oriented, you give other people the benefit of the doubt. Even when there is no doubt, you give them the benefit of the doubt. You focus on doctrine; you focus on the Lord Jesus Christ; you do not focus on the people.

The real conflict is taking place in your soul. It is not with the other person. Bible doctrine, a word used 10 million times from this pulpit, and will be used by 5 million times at least by Bobby. From doctrine in the soul comes graciousness; humility precludes reaction and retribution. Self-centeredness continually thinks about the insult; grace orientation sets it aside and focuses on Jesus Christ instead.

Jesus Christ is the model of forgiveness. He paid the penalty for sins so horrendous that we cannot think about them. Jesus paid the penalty for all sins. Therefore, God forgives that sin; and it is no longer remembered by God.

The religious leaders will kill Jesus unjustly. They are some of the most evil people of all time and Jesus forgave them. Forget it. Put it behind us. Can be do anything less? When you forgive, you can have a much more tranquil life. You can let it go. It is so important for all of us.

Jesus now reenforces this principle with a parable. It is an easy parable; and it is the principle upon which unlimited forgiveness.

This could be called the Parable of aphiêmi; but it is actually known as the Parable of the Unforgiving Servant. Believers in this parable are called servants. The Lord becomes very explicit. The forgiving attitude of the believer is commended; and the unforgiving attitude is condemned. It is that simple.

Jesus begins this with a simile, comparing two unlike things. Jesus compares what an earthly king might do with the Kingdom of Heaven. Jesus uses the comparison to delineate the nature of forgiveness.

Jesus is talking about Himself and He is talking to believers. There is a time limit; the time limit is up; and now the profits are involved.

Matt. 18:23 "Therefore the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his servants.

The servant incurred extreme debt, because he embezzled money from his master. The king is justified in whatever action he takes.

Matt. 18:24 When he began to settle, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents.

The master commands that this man be sold along with his wife and children and all of his goods are to be forfeited. This was a punitive sale. There would be some remuneration from this sale. They may or may not get a good master. All of their property would be sold and they would lose it all. Some of the money was recouped. This was a common act in that era for the remuneration of debt. Neh. 5:8.

This sort of debtor's prison was abolished a long time ago. Many a person was sold as an indentured servant. This may seem extremely cruel to us; and we now consider it cruel and unusual punishment. This punishment fits the crime. This punishment fits the crime. Money for money.

Matt. 18:25 And since he could not pay, his master ordered him to be sold, with his wife and children and all that he had, and payment to be made.

This is not a pleasant outcome for the servant. So the servant does the only thing that he could do. "Please, don't do this. Just give me a chance." He begs for more time. He is just asking to have his debt extended.

We will get the perfect picture of grace and forgiveness.

Matt. 18:26 So the servant fell on his knees, imploring him, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.'

Lesson #0670

Matt. 18:23–30 Life of Christ

10/5/2014 2Sunday

It makes no difference what the other person does; it does not matter if it is ongoing; you do not need your debt handled; or even part of it. You can forgive and forget the injury. There is no emotion involved. There is no strain in forgiving; you just forget it.

There are things which are hard to forgive; but you still forgive these things and forget them. How many times do you forgive someone? 7? No, 70x7, no matter if it is ongoing or not. This covers everything.

Matt. 18:23 "Therefore the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his servants.

Matt. 18:24 When he began to settle, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents.

Matt. 18:25 And since he could not pay, his master ordered him to be sold, with his wife and children and all that he had, and payment to be made.

We are in the midst of this scenario. A king is calling in his revenue for those who are working his land. The king says, "Where is my money" and the servant says, "I don't have it. The servant has stolen this money." In the ancient world, the king can now sell this man and his wife and children into slavery and sell all of his goods. We would love to do this with others. Wouldn't I love to see someone in chains? I would like to confiscate their property as well.

This debt is insurmountable; he cannot recover the debt with his own actions. He could never, buy himself, get out of the slavery he had put himself into. All that remained for him is punishment; just punishment, because he embezzled.

He was looking at a lifetime of slavery. So this man begs for time. Something we might all do.

Aorist active imperative of makrothumeo. Verb: makrothumeō (μακροθυμέω) [pronounced mak-roth-oo-MEH-o], which means, 1) to be of a long spirit, not to lose heart; 1a) to persevere patiently and bravely in enduring misfortunes and troubles; 1b) to be patient in bearing the offenses and injuries of others; 1b1) to be mild and slow in avenging; 1b2) to be longsuffering, slow to anger, slow to punish. Thayer Definition only. Strong's #3114.

Matt. 18:26 So the servant fell on his knees, imploring him, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.'

Then this man receives a great break. Much more than he could even imagine.

Splagnizomai. This means to have pity, to empathize, to put oneself in the place of another. He is moved by this appeal, even though this appeal and promise are all worthless. The guy must have been a real con man.

Verb: splagchnizomai (σπλαγχνίζομαι) [pronounced splangk-NIHD-zom-ahee], which means, 1) to be moved as to one's bowels, hence to be moved with compassion, have compassion (for the bowels were thought to be the seat of love and pity). Thayer Definition only. Strong's #4697. This is a picture of amazing grace. The master is so moved to compassion by this man's hopeless plight, that he is motivated to act with grace. That is what real compassion is; grace orientation. You can see how some is suffering and you feel for them and try to help them. Charity versus welfare. When it is welfare and it comes from the government, there are many strings attached; charity has no strings attached.

Matt. 18:27 And out of pity for him, the master of that servant released him and forgave him the debt.

How this Relates to the Graciousness of God

1. This is an amazing picture of Jesus and His love for us. This is what He will do for all of us on the cross. This the Lord is revealing before the cross.

2. We are just as undeserving as this servant who owes 10 million dollars that he cannot pay.
3. Yet, God looks upon us with compassion. We are hopelessly lost; none of us can repay our debt; one sin is a debt that we cannot repay. How good do we have to be to gain God's favor? Had bad can we be to lose it? We are miserable sinners.
4. God sent His Son to pay our debt so that we might be set free from the slave market of sin to the freedom of God's grace. We are the debtor and we owe more than we can pay.
5. The debt is cancelled, no more to be remembered. Standing before the Judgment Seat of Christ, our sins are no longer the issue.
6. Christ paid a debt for us and He forgave us our sins. He is our master; He sees us groveling with no way to get out; and He frees us.
7. Jesus sees our bankrupt state and he abolishes our debt. The price He paid is unimaginable. All of the foul sins of the whole human race.
8. But even after this extended grace to us, we as believers can be disingenuous in our attitude toward Jesus Christ and toward others. We continue to sin. We do not apply the grace God has given us to others. Yet we want justice from others even though we have been forgiven.

This Parable and Our Forgiveness

1. This parable represents the spiritual life of the believer or lack of it; the believer who has been redeemed from debt and sin. We can say as a believer in Jesus Christ that He has forgiven us our sins.
2. God provided our forgiveness to expunge our debt and we appropriate it by faith.
3. Therefore, we are obligated to extend the same forgiveness to others. As we receive, so we give. Our forgiveness is unlimited and unequivocal.
4. The Christian life is founded on God's grace and our grace orientation. This is what doctrine does for our souls.
5. And then the application of that grace in the treatment of others from grace orientation and impersonal love. These are the things which allow us as believers in Jesus Christ to let it go. Whether we get promoted or not, the peace and tranquility is worth a million times more than what we lose. When there is no spiritual advance and no grace orientation, there is no application of forgiveness; there is no mercy towards others. All that is left is self-centeredness. It is legalism when you cannot apply forgiveness. The calculating attitude of the legalistic believer. The servant in the parable is unappreciative of what his master has done for him.

This guy is forgiven of a great debt; and now he goes out and tries to collect from others.

Matt. 18:27 And out of pity for him, the master of that servant released him and forgave him the debt.

So he finds someone else who owes him $20 and goes after him. This is a total lack of graciousness. He shows incredible cruelty. The forgiven servant gets violent over $20; he grabs him by the throat and starts choking him. This is what a rejection of grace looks like. There is nothing but vindictiveness or implacability in the soul. Now he will take it out on someone else and get his $20 back. This is nothing compared to what he has been forgiven.

Matt. 18:28 But when that same servant went out, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii, and seizing him, he began to choke him, saying, 'Pay what you owe.'

there is nothing of kindness or forgiveness. He is forgiven a $10 million debt; but cannot forgive a $20 debt. This is another believer; a brother; a fellow servant. This is what one believer should demonstrate toward other believers or toward other people. Grace is our testimony. We are forgiven because of what Jesus Christ has done. The attitude of forgiveness.

Paul on forgiveness. Think for a moment of the worst thing done against you. The most injurious sin done to you. Is it forgivable? Eph. 4:32 Be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving each other, just as God in Christ has forgiven you.

This is powerful and Bobby is not finished with it yet.

Matt. 18:29 So his fellow servant fell down and pleaded with him, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you.'

Matt. 18:30 He refused and went and put him in prison until he should pay the debt.

Lesson #0671

Matt. 18: Life of Christ

10/8/2014 Wed

This parable is an illustration of the lack of forgiveness in the soul of a believer. This is a sad contrast to Matt. 18:21, where our Lord says to forgive 70x7 times. You just let it go. Just forget it and move on.

Jesus is drawing a conclusion from what came before. This is an illustration of the forgiveness that He has just taught.

Matt. 18:23 "Therefore the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his servants.

A comparison between the Kingdom of Heaven and a certain king. This king decides to settle his accounts. He often had an elaborate court, armies, harems; he had many things that he had to support. So they needed a lot of money. This was one way to get money. They would lease out great portions of land to be farmed. There would be a manager in charge of the entire operation. The king would expect great revenue from these lands.

Matt. 18:24 When he began to settle [accounts], one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents.

It is time to pay up on this lease.

Matt. 18:25 And since he could not pay, his master ordered him to be sold, with his wife and children and all that he had, and payment to be made.

The servant owed about $10 million and this is because he had embezzled from the king. One option would be to sell the man and his family into slavery, in order to gain payment. This is the right of the king. This is an act of justice, even though it may seem rather harsh. This was legitimate; and it was condemnation of this unjust servant.

Matt. 18:26 So the servant fell on his knees, imploring him, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.'

Now, it is likely that this guy would simply skip town. This man could never work himself out of slavery; he was doomed. It was over for him. But he still grovels to get a stay of penalty. He gets an unexpected reprieve; better than he could imagine or ask for.

Matt. 18:27 And out of pity for him, the master of that servant released him and forgave him the debt.

The king looks this guy over and is moved with compassion. He released him and forgave him the debt. A spoken work and he is forgiven. He did not deserve this. He got a complete reprieve. He got the whole debt lifted from him.

This Forgiveness Parallels God's Forgiveness of us

1. We are undeserving in our sins as was this servant. We are completely undeserving. We are in insurmountable debt. That debt is called sin.
2. And yet God looked on us the human race with compassion, with pity for our hopeless plight. We are so far removed from even the notice of God. And yet, He has pity upon us.
3. He sent His Son to pay our debt so that we may be set free from the slave market of sin to the freedom of grace.
4. This parable represents the spiritual life of the believer who has been redeemed from debt and sin. This is not about unbelievers; the servant is a believer.
5. Our sins are no longer remembered by God. That which God cannot associate with; and He just lets it go. There was a price to pay; the substitutionary death of His Son.
6. The Christian life is founded upon this principle of grace.
7. When we advance spiritually.
8. Spiritual growth develops grace orientation. The only way for us to be oriented to grace is the understand grace. This is a foreign concept to the human race. But this is not so with God. How God acts toward us ought to help us figure out how we should act toward others.

Matt. 18:28 But when that same servant went out, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii, and seizing him, he began to choke him, saying, 'Pay what you owe.'

Did this servant appreciate the forgiveness? Does he appreciate being redeemed from slavery? He has been redeemed from a miserable end. His life was over; and now it is all back on.

So he goes out and finds someone who owes him money. He assaults this other man over $20. How is that for reciprocation of graciousness? Given his life back, given all that he owes, it is expunged now.

The Opposite of Grace

1. What a graphic illustration of the pettiness, legalism and parsimony of the non-grace oriented believer. This is right after being forgiven.
2. This is what rejection of grace looks like in a believer. No forgiveness; no grace.
3. What is left? Vindictiveness and implacability in the soul of this man; that's it. This is what the pharisees were like with Jesus Christ.
4. This man displays his own implacability on some poor soul who owes him practically nothing. Legalists are bullies. They love to throw their power over others. They are self-centered; they are self-absorbed. "Give me what you owe me."
5. This is the exact opposite attitude of what one believer should demonstrate toward other believers.

The Believer Should Demonstrate Graciousness

1. This parable is a story of revolting ungratefulness and callousness in a believer who has not grown spiritually.
2. He has mirrored the bitterness and the hopelessness found in the soul of the unbeliever. When you have no clue about grace, you act think and look like an unbeliever. This is where so many Christians look and say, "How can he be a believer?"
3. No believer should demonstrate this kind of attitude toward another person. The cosmic system hates us. They despise us. Look at Islam; look at the persecution in our own country. The unbelieving world hates us. And yet, this is our attitude.
4. The attitude of graciousness cannot be applied without developing grace orientation. You cannot be gracious and not have grace orientation. If you go through the motions...
5. A believer gains grace orientation through doctrinal orientation. These are 2 of the most basic problem solving devices. Otherwise, what is in your soul is vengeance. That is what you look like without grace orientation.
6. Grace given to us and demonstrated by us is a core principle of Christianity. People have all sorts of ways that they think Christians should act. They should be charitable or compassionate. But the key is how you think. Before you do anything, you think, and you act based upon how you think.
7. This separates the attitude of the mature believer from that of an immature believer or a reversionist believer or an unbeliever. This is why grace orientation is so critical to living the Christian way of life.

8. Grace orientation does not develop in the soul of the believer simply because God treated him in grace in salvation. This illustration has a man treated in grace; but he does not treat others in grace. Grace orientation comes from the process of spiritual growth. You do not become grace oriented because you understand that one aspect of grace through which you have been saved.

The Lord was driving home the point with these disciples.

The forgiven servant reveals his own implacability. His fellow servant promises to pay him all. He should have seen himself. But he fails to forgive this man. No doubt the fellow servant could have come up with this sum. The servant only needs to get to the ATM machine.

Just a little reciprocation; but the non-grace oriented believer does not do this. The man who owes him $20 opens the door for this servant. The forgiven servant was disingenuous; and the servant who is not forgiven is genuine in his appeal.

Makothumeô; the same verb as found back in v. 20. It means patience. This is word for word, what he had said to his own master. You would think that he would have one flash of memory, but he is incapable of it. He is merciless and he acts with malice. He is like a gangster demanding protection money from some poor shopkeeper who cannot afford it.

Matt. 18:29 So his fellow servant fell down and pleaded with him, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you.'

He would not listen to this debtor. He has him thrown into prison. This little payment was important to him. The love of money is the root of all kinds of evil. He had to have it.

This was the legal right of this servant. He had every right to demand this. But this is the graphic display of the cruelty of a legalistic believer. He is cruel. This same servant who could not pay his own debt, would not grant a short extension of time to his won debtor. He should have simply forgiven him.

Matt. 18:30 He refused and went and put him in prison until he should pay the debt.

Points on His Legalism

1. Legalism is entirely cruel and callous to the suffering of others. Self-centered arrogance; self-absorption; no one matters but me.
2. So this is an utterly self-centered person. They are only concerned for themselves.
3. The legalist grants no quarter to those in need. This is a beautiful illustration of grace.

The master's servants observe this and they are struck by the irony of it all. There have been those in Berachah like this. Bob had trouble with some deacons early on in his ministry. They were just like this.

Matt. 18:31 When his fellow servants saw what had taken place, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their master [= king] all that had taken place.

His fellow servants know all about this, and they report him to his master.

Matt. 18:32 Then his master summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me.'

The master reproves him.

Matt. 18:33 And should not you have had mercy on your fellow servant, as I had mercy on you?'

Shouldn't you also show mercy toward others?

The Parallels Between the Master, Servant, and His Debtor

1. The relationship between the master and his servant; and the servant and the one in debt to him.
2. Imprisonment required for non-payment.
3. Both men begged for patience. Same word.
4. The difference is, the servant was given complete absolution; and he assigned prison to his debtor.
5. This is grace contrasted with legalism in a way that is easy to understand.

Vocative of the Noun Ponêros

1. It means worthless, vicious, degenerate.
2. This adjective is a character assessment of the legalistic forgiven servant.
3. This forgiven servant represents a believer who has been forgiven through the work of Christ on the cross, but he himself has failed to grow in grace.
4. This is a representation of a believer whose soul is in legalistic reversionism. He has no grace orientation. When you see someone like that, run.
5. This is a lack of appreciation for the benefits of the grace that has been given. Returning grace of self righteous legalism.
- 6.
7. This man is wicked because he fails to forgive as Christ forgave.
8. He missed the lesson of grace orientation and humility.

Free and clear, but he is delivered over to the torturer. This is about a believer. We will see the wages of legalism tomorrow.

Matt. 18:34 And in anger his master delivered him to the jailers, until he should pay all his debt.

Forgiveness is fundamental to God's plan and grace. There are people out there who are designed to fill your soul with turmoil. There is a great application of the attitude of forgiveness.

There is a king, and this king represents God, and he shows forgiveness and grace to a subject (a person who represents a believer); and he owes him $10 million; and he is cleared of this debt. This debt will never be reinstated. The master will never call him and reinstate what is owed.

Clearly, the forgiveness of this servant is completely undeserved.

Literally, he pulled this man back from destruction; just as believers are saved from the brink of eternal condemnation. It is a picture of what Christ does for us. Our sins are never again brought to the mind of the Lord.

On the other hand, the forgiven servant viciously demands what he is owed by another servant; which is $20; and no forgiveness is extended to this man. He could have offered this servant grace, but he did not.

What is demonstrated by this other servant is legalism. What is the opposite of grace orientation? It is legalism. He has an unforgiving attitude of $20; it is the exact opposite. He does not even grant him a short extension of time. He demands his money while choking the one in debt to him. He has been shown mercy, compassion and pity; but he shows none. There is no forgiveness on his part. "You owe me; you pay." Payment must be rendered even, if great suffering is the result.

It is entirely cruel. The legalist is self-centered, he is self-absorbed; he is the epitome of arrogance. He never extends consideration to the grace given him. He is not grateful to the grace given him by his master. In fact, he becomes angry and bitter because he is caught by his master. He takes out his bitterness on this other servant.

Matt. 18:29 So his fellow servant fell down and pleaded with him, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you.'

Matt. 18:30 He refused and went and put him in prison until he should pay the debt.

Matt. 18:31 When his fellow servants saw what had taken place, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their master [= king] all that had taken place.

Matt. 18:32 Then his master summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me.'

The master calls his servant in and calls him wicked and explains that he should have had compassion. "I gave you grace and you exhibited legalism." This is why he is called wicked. Πονηρος the vocative means that this is a name given him. It means vicious, degenerate. Legalism generates degeneracy.

Matt. 18:33 And should not you have had mercy on your fellow servant, as I had mercy on you?'

Explaining the Parable

1. The forgiven servant represents a believer who has been forgiven through the work of Christ on the cross.
2. His forgiveness is irrevocable; it has been accomplished once and for all.
3. But, what is the believer's obligation from this forgiveness; from this grace? The believer must now grow in grace and knowledge of Him, the epitome of grace.
4. But when in the soul of a believer there is a lack of appreciation for the benefits of grace, then this is a soul in legalistic reversionism.
5. He refuses to forgive as he has been forgiven.
6. There is only one way out for such a believer, and it still resides in the grace of God. There is still a grace out. Rebound and keep advancing toward grace orientation.
7. If rebound and advance does not happen, there will be divine discipline for the believer. That is where we are going with this. That is what Matt. 18:34 is all about.

Matt. 18:34 And in anger his master delivered him to the jailers, until he should pay all his debt.

So, isn't the master now unforgiving? Orgizo is an explosion of anger; the master is incense; he is furious and he is enraged by the action of this servant who was forgiven. Enraged, he will act in retribution for the servant's graciousness. This servant is a believer. The anger shown by the master is a justified wrath; but this is wrath toward a believer. Therefore, what happens will be judicial in nature.

Explaining the Anger of the Master Delivering Him up

1. This is not a picture of a person who is an unbeliever ending up in the eternal torture of hell.
2. This is not the picture of a person who has lost his salvation. His blowing it here is not something which costs him his salvation.
3. This man still carries the title of servant. He belongs to the master whether in prison or not; whether he is forgiven or not. His crime had been forgiven.
4. But, there is a price to pay for this unforgiving, legalistic servant, who refuses to be grace oriented. There is a price to pay for not growing in grace as a believer in Jesus Christ.
5. This is a picture of a lack of spiritual advance. This is a different circumstance. He was forgiven of his sins; but this is a believer who is way out of line; he has an unforgiving soul. This is what happens. We are called on the carpet.
6. The result in this case of lack of spiritual advance is horrific, but it is not hell. We are out of that. The torturer is not hell. Delivery is still to the torturer.

Bobby thought about what has gone on in our own country regarding torture. The very definition of torture was in the center of a great controversy. It was greatly debated. Some have concluded that this was torture, withholding food and sleep and water boarding, have determined that any discomfort is torture. So none of these things can be used on prisoners. The result is, of course, poor intelligence. Torture is a very bad word in our national vocabulary. And apparently the debate is over; there will be no more water boarding. Part of the training of soldiers is POW camps; all kinds of torture. This is exactly what can happen to aviators and others who are captured. It is even worse today.

Our thought process is, torture of any sort is bad; it is discomforting; it is inhumane. That is exactly what the case is here. Torture is meant to be unpleasant; it should not have to happen; but it does. Here, torture refers to some bad terms.

Dative plural of the Greek noun βασανιστης, which means jailers, torturers. They are the human instruments of incarceration and interrogation. There is an etymology to this word. It originally used of jailers who had various means of torture to determine what is going on with various suspects. Here, it is very ominous. It is not a namby-pamby verb. He will do it in every way that he can. We can conclude that there is suffering involved in this term.

Interpretation of the Parable

1. In the case of this parable, the delivery to the torturer was an act of justice. This torturer was a part of the justice system.
2. The master had treated this debtor with graciousness and mercy.
3. The forgiven servant turned to his servant and treated him without graciousness; cruelly and unjustly.
4. The forgiven servant; the money was still forgiven; but the forgiven servant would now receive justice for his unforgiving attitude.
5. The master jailed the servant for failing to show mercy to a fellow servant. When he had been forgiven a much greater debt. He was delivered to jail.
6. He was justly delivered to the torturer as punishment for his attitude. That was his transgression; not the debt.

This is how important grace orientation is to God. It is foundational to the Christian life. A lack of forgiveness a lack of grace orientation engenders a response of God toward the believer who lacks these things; and this is torturous.

More Interpretation

1. Because the king has sent this servant to the torturer, do not think that God has suddenly become unforgiving. He does not reinstate the debt.
2. God has provided rebound for consistent forgiveness of the believer who is full of mental attitude sins. God does not become unforgiving when he delivers over to the torturer.
3. He does not want the believer to fall into legalism and reversionism; because if no grace orientation is present, that is the only thing a believer can become. You are grace orientated or legalistic.
4. The torturer is divine discipline for the believer. This is done to motivate the believer to recovery through rebound. Even the torturer is gracious. This is done for correction. You do not discipline a child just be mean; you discipline to correct that action. God does not resent you; He disciplines you to correct your actions.

Matt. 18:34 And in anger his master delivered him to the jailers, until he should pay all his debt.

So back to Peter's question; how many times should you forgive an offense. All believers must reciprocate with the same grace. The first part of the parable; the servant is forgiven; and the second part, the servant is not gracious.

What God Expects

1. There is no other acceptable outcome apart from grace orientation. There is no other way to humility, to forgiveness, to anyone at all.
2. The alternative is the torturer; divine discipline. You do not get away with a lack of grace orientation. If you are not advancing spiritually, God will get your attention. He will deliver you to divine discipline.
3. But the punishment will be designed to motivate you; to motivate rebound and to return to spiritual advance and to gaining grace orientation.
4. The discipline to the believer is always done in love by God; Heb. 12:6 for the purpose of spiritual recovery.

We must learn the spiritual skills and develop them. This is simply a parable about spiritual maturity. It is demonstrated by forgiveness. The opposite is legalism.

The conclusion:

Matt. 18:35 So also my heavenly Father will do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother from your heart."

This reveals who the parable is all about. The requirement is forgiveness from the right lobe. Important conclusion.

Lesson #0673

Matt. 18:34–35 Life of Christ

10/12/2014 1Sunday

Communion Sunday

Jesus is both God and man in one Person. The emptying or the doctrine of Kenosis. He existed in the form [= the essence of a thing] of God. He emptied Himself taking the form of a bond-servant, being made in the likeness of man. He emptied Himself; He emptied Himself of His deity; but this does not mean that He could void any part of His essence. So, what did He empty Himself of and what form did He take.

He adds on a servant's essence to His divine essence. As man, he had the flesh and blood body of a man. He was susceptible to all the weaknesses of a man. He was the perfect, sinless man; the lamb of God Who takes away the sin of the world; while never relinquishing

His Deity. We can gather that our Lord Jesus Christ as a bond-servant appeared as a man to serve man. To do so, He emptied Himself, meaning that He voluntarily restricted the use of His divine attributes in order to accomplish the plan of the Father.

Throughout the 1st advent, He did not use His divine attributes to benefit Himself, to provide for Himself. The Father's will is for Him to be the God-man-Savior of all mankind. We are connected to the God-man in that way. He is our Servant. He himself bore our sins in His Own Body on the cross. By His wounds, we are healed. In order to mediate between man and God unless He is completely man. He had to be man in order to substitute Himself for man. In spite of the fact that Jesus Christ is undiminished divinity, He never directly claimed to be God. He did not use the phrase, "I am God" but He reveals Himself to be God in many different ways.

Matt. 13:41 The Son of Man will send forth His angels. That is the divine authority that He claims to have. He claimed the authority to forgive sins. Mark 2:3– 4 men were carrying a paralytic with them in order to get Jesus to heal him. They climbed onto the roof and lowered the person into the building before the Lord Jesus Christ. Jesus did not comment on the man's physical condition. He approached this healing in a different way. He said, "My son, your sins are forgiven." Only God could make such a statement. This was a claim to Deity. Among that crowd was the God of the Universe Incarnate.

There were scribes there present in the audience and they took great offense. They understood immediately what Jesus Christ said when He spoke these words. They knew that Jesus was assuming the divine prerogative to forgive sins. The paralytic believed in Christ and the scribes rejected Him.

Jesus perceived their antagonism. With His insight, he could have tried to persuade them by telling them that He is God. He confronted them, instead, with debator's technique. Many of these men were lawyers. "Why are you reasoning about these things in your hearts or in your inner being?" Which is the most difficult, He asks them, to heal this man or to forgive his sins? Now, if Jesus could heal this man, that would testify as to His Deity; and His ability to forgive sins.

"I and the Father are One." Then John 14, "He who has seen Me has seen the Father." There is no question that Jesus is claiming to be God in the flesh.

John 8:58 "Before Adam, I am." This is an eternal nature, something which only God possesses.

The power to judge the eternal status of individuals belongs exclusively to the Son of God.

There are many statements made by the writers of the New Testament which proclaim Him to be God. Christ is the radiance...and the exact replication of the Father's nature. He has inherent radiance, like the sun itself. All things have been created by Him and for Him. In Him, all things are held together. He is the God of creation; and the One who holds creation together. As God, He controls history to bring about His purposes for man.

The Apostle John writes, In the beginning was the Word, and the Word is with God and the Word is God...and the Word became flesh and lived among us. This is the One Whom we worship. He is perfect humanity; and undiminished Deity; all within the same Person. To Him, we owe everything.

There are some perhaps showing disrespect during the communion. Many are weak and sickly and man sleep; that is because they showed disrespect to the Lord Jesus Christ.

No Bible class this next couple days.

Matt. 18:35 So also my heavenly Father will do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother from your heart."

Forgiveness is an integral part of the Christian faith. Jesus presents this forcefully and in a way that is unforgettable. Forgiveness is a basic application of the Christian life. It is an attitude apart from which must revolve around this concept. Or your soul will be less than satisfied in your relationships.

The conclusion is this: what will happen to the believer who has no forgiveness toward another? The parable is a contrast between grace and legalism, which is exactly the opposite of the Christian life.

You have no Christian life unless you understand grace itself. God's grace is what you must reflect to the world. Forgiveness is the greatest demonstration to the world. A forgiving attitude is the result of the soul of an advancing believer.

There are several people in this cast. The master, who represents God; and two servants, who represent two believers. The master or king forgives a $10 million debt of his servant; and this was taken from him by means of fraud. The forgiven servant does not forgive a small debt owed to him by another servant. Forgive $10 million; but demand $20. There is a great price to pay for the unforgiving attitude of that servant.

Matt. 18:34 And in anger his master delivered him to the jailers, until he should pay all his debt.

This is a picture of the believer who fails to grow in grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. The torturer or jailer is God. This is justice that God bring by way of discipline. Whom God loves He disciplines and scourges every son He has. This discipline motivates us to recover from this attitude. Jesus loves us so much and this is the greatest life that we can have. This is why parents discipline children. They discipline their children for correction and for instruction in righteousness. It gets them on the right path.

Matt. 18:35 So also my heavenly Father will do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother from your heart."

We will conclude the doctrine of Forgiveness today.

Matt. 18:34 And in anger his master delivered him to the jailers, until he should pay all his debt.

V. 34 is the result of one servant failing to forgive the other servant. We as believers can be in a spiritual prison of our own making. The heart is the right lobe of the soul. Sometimes the vocabulary of the church is not Biblical, but it teaches Biblical concepts. We have a human spirit and the pastor is teaching Bible doctrine. It enters into the left lobe; and believed, and then it goes into the right lobe; and the truth goes into the human spirit.

What we hear and understand is γνῶσις. When we accept this as true, the God the Holy Spirit transfers it to the right lobe, and this is where doctrine resides and from where doctrine can be applied. As you continue to take in doctrine, you become grace oriented. You understand what the spiritual life is all about.

We have the grace orientation and then we apply it to others; it is an application to others. It is because we are grace oriented. If we fail to make the application, God disciplines us, just as the master disciplines his servant. This allows us to recover. He does not do this just to harm us; He does this so that we might recover. If you continue to be unforgiving, then you will make yourself miserable. You concentrate on all this time on how.

Now we receive His gracious provision for His post-salvation forgiveness. We enjoy spiritual advance and we can utilize the attitude of grace orientation to others.

Jesus said, "Forgive now 70x7 times."

7 Alternatives for the Unforgiving Believer

1. A hypersensitive, agitated soul.
2. A soul that cannot find peace or tranquility; or have a relaxed mental attitude under pressure. Adversity does not have to turn to stress.
3. The believer who is unforgiving is never satisfied; never.
4. Always searching for better treatment by others and blaming others for their problems or blaming God.
5. Neither do they examine their own attitudes or treatment of others; they are always concerned about how others treat them.
6. An unforgiving soul demonstrates arrogance. It is the opposite of grace orientation.
7. Every believer must forgive as God forgave us in salvation and rebound. That is our model. We can live the Christian life with grace orientation in relation to others. Acceptance of the divine pardon. Justification at regeneration. Then rebounding for forgiveness of post-salvation sins.
8. This amazing forgiveness given to us by God makes it our obligation to forgive anyone who has sinned against or has injured us.

Matt. 6:12 and forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors.

Matt. 6:15 but if you do not forgive others their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

This does not mean that the believer is not forgiven if he does not forgive. But that is not what this says. Salvation is never dependent upon our own works; or our ability to forgive. This is a prayer of believers receiving blessing from God or not. The believer with the attitude of forgiveness of sins toward others; but the believer's lack of forgiveness results in negative consequences for that believer.

The Believer and Forgiveness

1. If the believer is unforgiving, then he is sinful and consistently out of fellowship. This means you have a great many mental attitude sins.
2. God cannot forgive sins until a person rebounds. All your pre-salvation sins are forgiven.
3. If the believer maintains this sinful mental attitude and fails to rebound and plunges deeper into reversionism, then he is due for punishment, discipline, as the parable of Matt. 18 reveals.

The Positive Side of Forgiveness

1. Grace orientation means that rebound is being used.
2. The believer is consistently in fellowship when he rebounds. That is the mode for empowerment and spiritual growth. You are empowered to grow, learn in the spiritual life.
3. Thus the believer develops grace orientation along with a forgiving attitude. You don't have to strain at it. If you want to live a life with a little adversity and stress; do not grow; and if you want an easy life, then you enjoy growth in the spiritual life. Fights in marriage escalate and such marriages are in turmoil constantly.
4. The attitude of forgiveness becomes a blessing for believers and for others and for yourself. God has graciously made provision for our spiritual life. Should we not reciprocate toward those who have sinned against us? We must extend forgiveness to our friends, loved ones and to our enemies.

Only the mature believer can give forgiveness in the face of all kinds of pressures. This forgiveness is entirely possible for the advancing believer. Many believers have demonstrated the attitude of forgiveness under great injustice.

Jesus on the cross. He said, "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing." There is also St. Stephen, one of the early believers in Jerusalem. When he is being stoned to death, and he reflects the attitude of Jesus Christ, "Lord to not hold this sin against them." Stephen is a mature believer. Both people are being put to death due to unending antagonism. When you have grace orientation, forgiveness is one of the greatest Galilee and they have entered into the city of Capernaum. This is, more or less, headquarters for our Lord, for His Galilean ministry. However, He is going to bring this ministry to a close. For the most part, Jesus had been rejected. Many believed in Him; He performed many miracles and gave many discourses. He was not a failure in any way; but there just was not positive volition. Jesus is not responsible for those who reject Him. It is up to people to accept or to reject Him. Today, it is the same; some accept and some reject Him.

Ahead of Him was still more rejection. There were more discourses to come but very few miracles to occur. The great purpose of bringing salvation to mankind on the cross is where He was going. This is essentially the home stretch; this is the 4th quarter of His life.

Before He arrives in Jerusalem, He would spend a few months ministering outside of Galilee and mostly to the disciples. He would spend time in Samaria and Perea on the east side of the Jordan.

We begin this final critical time.

Luke 9:51 When the days drew near for him to be taken up, he set his face to go to Jerusalem.

Luke 9:52 And he sent messengers ahead of him, who went and entered a village of the Samaritans, to make preparations for him.

Luke 9:53 But the people did not receive him, because his face was set toward Jerusalem.

This was an obvious rejection; and the reason given is, he is about to go to Jerusalem. He gave a woman water and the whole town came out to meet Him. But this is a different village and they did not accept Him.

The Jews in Jerusalem were their enemies; and they did not want any Jews in their village. Therefore, they did not like our Lord. This would characterize that last period of time on earth by our Lord.

In the midst of all this rejection, Jesus would teach His disciples to learn to live in the face of great opposition. These lessons will be very important to the disciples. They did not really know how to deal with great opposition. They had a lot of spiritual growth to enjoy first.

Luke 9:54 And when his disciples James and John saw it, they said, "Lord, do you want us to tell fire to come down from heaven and consume them?"

They are facing all of this opposition and James and John say, "Let's call for fire from heaven to come down and destroy them." They want to rain down fire for not allowing them to stay there that night. How many times have you felt like this, when you are crossed? When you face opposition. Wouldn't it be great to bring fire down on your enemies? These two guys knew their Old Testament and they knew that Elijah called down fire on the enemies of God as well.

Recall that Elijah is fresh in the minds of the disciples—these two in particular. When on the Mount of Transfiguration had occurred, they saw Moses and Elijah. The only difference is, when Elijah did this, he called on God's okay to bring this fire down.

Elijah had the okay; so can't we get that too? They lacked tolerance toward their enemies. Jesus had just told Peter, forgive your enemies 70x7 times. There were centuries of conflict between the Jews and the Samaritans. Any slight was met with a great response.

James and John are like the unforgiving servant. But they need to hear the doctrine again and again; they need to have it repeated. Then and only then are they able to apply it. Very difficult to hear a doctrine once and then apply it correctly. So the disciples need this doctrine again, under different circumstances.

The disciples had been given the greatest grace from Jesus Christ; and they wanted to kill those who opposed them. Doctrine is a renovation of your thinking; you have got to think doctrine. You do not think doctrine with a little bit here or there; and then a long stretch between hearing it. The disciples had not gotten it yet, and they heard Bible doctrine every single day.

Luke 9:55 But He turned and rebuked them.

They completely lack grace orientation. Jesus had just defined the correct grace attitude, and they were not with it at all. What these disciples request is unacceptable.

These are the ones who have received great forgiveness from the Lord. And yet, they want to harm.

This retaliation occurs continually in the Middle East. "You have done something wrong to me; then I will harm you in a greater way."

A religion is false when there is no forgiveness in it. This is a lesson for all of us. Do not get self righteous as James and John are doing here. Applying grace orientation in the face of hostility is one of the most difficult doctrine to apply. This is not something which is easy or comes naturally. It is our inclination to give it back to them in spades.

Spiritual advance changes our thinking. Injury by others engenders retaliation and repayment with an escalating injury. That is the normal human reaction by the arrogant self-absorbed person. For the believer with doctrine, you may slip, but then you recover.

The slight was against Jesus; not against James or John. But they are the ones who are offended. They are hypersensitive. Sometimes, we have this button pushed, and we rebel. So we will study hypersensitivity.

Luke 9:55 But He turned and rebuked them.

Luke 9:54 And when his disciples James and John saw it, they said, "Lord, do you want us to tell fire to come down from heaven and consume them?"

This is one of the few times that we see the true nature of some of the disciples. We will see this with Peter in the garden of Gethsemene. Here, James and John are an advance team, and they want a Motel 6, but the village told them to go. "We don't like Jews. Get out of town." James and John are entirely offended by all this.

This should be an easy problem; just move on to another place to stay.

Hypersensitivity

1. Self-pity is the first thing which the believer is sensitive about. Poor me, I don't deserve this. It leads to the greater manifestation of hypersensitivity, which is self-centeredness.
2. Then there is the demand syndrom; the person constantly seeks his own way. People can make a casual comment, and this might cause you to blow up. You want your own way in everything. You have a grandiose view of yourself; people in this country demand respect. That is hypersensitivity.
3. For the disciples here, they have unrealistic expectations. In other words, they are not being treated in the way that they want to be treated. These guys are getting no love, which they think they deserve. That is one of the greatest problems in our lives. This occurs often in marriage—you don't get the attention or response that you believe that you deserve. Then you have the same thing with friends.
4. Hypersensitivity in any of these 3 modes often can lead to retaliation. The arrogance in the hypersensitive person condemns, maligns, becomes antagonistic and seeks to destroy. There may be the desire to destroy all kinds of things. Sometimes, crime comes from this. The Middle East is a perfect example.

The disciples were hypersensitive and they were way out of line on this. This is not the last time there would be a solution of massacre. The apostate church has been involved in things like this, and they did not understand this about Jesus Christ. You do not kill those who reject Jesus Christ. That is not your business. The Lord makes it clear that such a result is not the solution to rejection or persecution.

Jesus just shrugs this off. He easily forgives this perceived slight. The hypersensitive person only is concerned with the insult; he does not look at the big picture, which this thing has no bearing.

Aphiêmi means forgiving and forgetting. Jesus applies for these disciples the attitude of forgiveness. That will impress more than retaliation will. We have a witness before the world, and this witness does not include destruction.

One way to forgive and forget, then evaluate yourself and the actual situation in the big picture.

No one goes to hell unless they make a decision to do so. Jesus Christ died for them; He has provided everything needed by way of grace. It is really a matter of moving on; just move on to another village. The sin nature is retaliatory; the mind of Christ is not. You might not want to forgive someone that you cannot stand, it provides you with great tranquility.

Jesus came to this world not to condemn, but to save.

The mission of the disciples is to find a way to present the gospel to those they meet, whether there is animosity or not. How can you represent Jesus Christ to the world if you want to bring fire down upon them.

Persecution and hatred is coming at us even in the land of the free. Are we prepared for it? Are we prepared to handle it personally or nationally? We still have an obligation to Jesus Christ and this does not include revolution.

The mayor and the pastors and all of that. The law is not a good law. Suing the city is not the solution. Prayer meetings and application of doctrine is a much better approach. Lessons and services were subpoenaed. Bobby would turn his services over. Berachah Church is not about politics; it is about doctrine. Our church will not sue anyone and we are not focused on politics, even when the law is horrible and anti-establishment. The solution is Bible doctrine in your soul.

Luke 9:55 But He turned and rebuked them.

Luke 9:56 And they went on to another village.

This incident leads to our Lord's next set of instructions. Following Jesus Christ is not an easy road. The follower must have the right perspective. There will be persecution; there will be rejection along the way; and it will be difficult to deal with, but not impossible. We need the attitude of humility and impersonal love.

Jesus will call out those who follow Him superficially. How many today give lip service and do not back it up with consistent spiritual growth and application. They are peripheral believers; and they cannot do what the plan of God calls for on a daily basis. You can begin to learn about the plan of God by showing up the Berachah Church on Sunday. Fulfilling the plan of God occurs the moment that you wake up in the morning.

We face people testing; the greatest test of our spiritual growth. What they say, what they do, the things which they cause.

Luke 9:57 As they were going along the road, someone said to Him, "I will follow You wherever You go."

Someone speaks to Jesus and knowing where He is going. He says, "I will follow You wherever You go." But, does he understand what this means? This man is like believers today who are on fire for the Lord, who make all of these great promises and they stand up and dedicate themselves; but they have no idea what any of this actually means. How do you follow God when you do not know how or where? There must be more than enthusiasm and strong feelings. These are empty words.

In order to follow Jesus, there is a set of decisions needed after the pledge. When the new day dawns, and the distractions mount up; but they have not developed the basis to sustain their movement. They must have consistent positive volition to doctrinal intake to remind of the priority. This is not a statement or a promise to be made lightly.

The Christian life is a day to day existence; there is a lot of routine, just like any part of life. Routine is one of the great secrets of life. People often need routine in their lives. There is not one sky-rocket moment after another. There are the mundane things, day after day. Every day is a day that the Lord has made. This is a daily focus on the Lord through hearing His Word. Too many believers crave novelty and stimulation. But they become bored with the routine.

Emotional Christianity is not a routine; it is a high, then a low, then a high and then a low. But you accomplish nothing. With routine, you have a steady, straight line. You move on. You rebound and you keep moving. Routine is the environment for spiritual growth. This is the environment in which we must live. It is the environment for the training for the spiritual life. You must maintain your body and its physicality; and the same thing is true in the spiritual life. There must be routine and consistency. There is no growth if there is no consistency.

Bobby can still do the manual of arms because it was drilled into him. He can still do a parachute landing fall, so that these things can be done as a matter of rote memory, regardless of the situation. It becomes an involuntary response.

In golf, your swing needs to be the same every time. When the ball hooks or slices, you are not doing the same thing.

Bobby treats the faith rest drill; so that in the midst of a difficult situation, we automatically reach for the promises of God. Retaliation does not enter our thinking. God's promise removes the focus from ourselves and places the focus on Him. And you never have to change your thinking to adjust to other circumstances. There are no circumstances through which you cannot win. Pumping the iron of doctrine.

Lesson #0677

Luke 9: Life of Christ

10/22/2014 Wed

This is the last year of our Lord's time on earth. He spent most of this time teaching His disciples and their apostolic mission which would soon come upon them. They were the target of much of His teaching.

Disciple is often taken to be the 12; but there were many other learned from the LORD on earth. So there are other disciples who would become the nucleus of the church as the Church Age began.

The lessons are as important to us today as they were in the time they were given.

This is His final journey toward Jerusalem. It is now time for Him to depart from His Galilean ministry. He had a rendezvous with the cross.

Luke 9:51 When the days drew near for him to be taken up, he set his face to go to Jerusalem.

He determined that it was time to go to Jerusalem. He had other things to do; but He did not act out of fear. Samaria was on the way. He would use this activity for His purposes. And He would send His advance team to find Him a place to stay.

Luke 9:52 And he sent messengers ahead of him, who went and entered a village of the Samaritans, to make preparations for him.

Luke 9:53 But the people did not receive him, because his face was set toward Jerusalem.

The Samaritans rejected Jesus; and did not like that He would go to Jerusalem. They told Him not to stay there.

Luke 9:54 And when his disciples James and John saw it, they said, "Lord, do you want us to tell fire to come down from heaven and consume them?"

James and John did not like this; and they did not like Samaritans anyway. They essentially were asking for Jesus to napalm this village. They wanted to call in of an air strike.

Luke 9:55 But He turned and rebuked them.

Jesus chewed them out for their attitude. They did not understand the parable of the unforgiving servant. They had no grace orientation. They would forgive anyone; but not these Samaritans. They needed another lesson.

"You don't know what kind of Spirit you are of." They could not rely on petty revenge. They needed to know what their position was in persecution. They were not reflecting the right attitude yet.

This revealed extreme prejudice on their part. Both sides had this prejudice.

Jesus had no desire to smoke this village; He would not call for an air strike. If they reject Jesus, they would die of their own bad decision. The disciples were not there to kill those who rejected the Lord. We do not call fire down on others because they reject the Lord Jesus Christ.

Luke 9:56 And they went on to another village.

There is a price for following Jesus Christ. This means learning Bible doctrine. Jesus will cite to them the cost of becoming disciples. He will call out those who follow Him superficially. There are those who give plenty of lip-service; but they do not back it up with consistent spiritual growth and application. Believers are not prepared to do what it takes to fulfill the plan of God for their lives on a daily basis.

Luke 9:57 As they were going along the road, someone said to Him, "I will follow You wherever You go."

They are going along on the road and some suddenly blurts this out. It is just words; it is just a statement. This is the one-shot dedication.

Following the Lord Jesus Christ

1. Following Christ begins with persistence on the intake of Bible doctrine.
2. To follow Christ as a believer, you must advance spiritually, step-by-step, routine. We have to learn how to follow Him.
3. Believers must learn how to think with divine viewpoint from the only place that divine viewpoint comes from.
4. Believers must learn authority-orientation. The preeminence of divine mandates in the Christian life. Believers today want to pick and choose. Usually their choices have to do with the area of weakness in their sin natures. The mandates of the Lord are all for our benefit.
5. Believers must also learn the attitude of humility. In other words, setting aside self-centered arrogance; and setting aside hypersensitivity. It is rampant among people today.
6. Believers must learn to utilize the faith rest drill. This is the very beginning of learning how to solve problems in the Christian life. Also, to apply the necessary counters to mental attitude sins. There is hatred, anger, and implacability in the souls of James and John. They cannot afford to get mad at persecution.
7. They need to learn how to serve the Lord by apply doctrine in whatever capacity His plan calls for.

To accomplish the plan of God on a daily basis, there is spiritual routine. The believer is a follower by accomplishing His plan. The plan of God is a daily, consistent routine plan. Following Jesus is not an intermittent spiritual high, sustained with a dose of emotion.

This life does not sound very flashy; it is not ostentatious. It does not appear to the ambitious or to the headstrong or to those with a great desire for approbation. They want to be admired for their personal successes.

Life is a routine; it is not all a flash in the pan. Routine and repetition is the key to life. Also for the Christian way of life. There is perseverance and practice needed for the Christian life.

Mike Newland, who was a Houston Rocket. Bobby was very aware of his dogged perseverance and determination. What it took meet that level of play. He practiced shooting 8 hours a day in his early life. It was a grind. He had a 13 year career in the NBA. He became 3rd all time in free throw percentage. There were hours of practice involved. It did not happen overnight; it was not about raw talent. There are a number of professional golfers who have been at Berachah. They just practiced. There is routine necessary.

Growing in the Christian life can be taxing and tedious, but the results are worth it. Every move you make, every shot you take, every doctrine you inculcate. Greatness is not acting holy, it is not saying great holy words, Bible class is where we do that which makes us great.

What Do You Get out of This?

1. We get security and a relaxed mental attitude in the midst of all turmoil that is around us. That is such an advantage. What happens when the believer who lacks this misses a shot?
2. We learn to think with the very mind of Christ so that following Him is second nature. It is something that we are. We become great by routine.
3. We have opened our eyes to who we are and what we have in Christ. It is called spiritual self esteem. We have a personal sense of destiny. We gain a destiny as we learn the destiny and then we come to realize that destiny.
4. We develop a great relationship with the Lord and problem solving devices for adversity.
5. You have an unwavering confidence in your eternal future. "Isn't it amazing to think that we will no longer exist on this earth? We will exist somewhere in eternity that we cannot even understand."
6. When you gain that confidence and continue in that routine, all the phoniness of legalism and the height of emotionalism is removed.
7. The mature Christian life gained by the metabolization of Bible doctrine, is a life without pretense, without sham, without hypersensitivity, and without hypocrisy. One of the greatest objections to believers today is they are hypocrites; and it is true.

The cosmic system viciously opposes those who follow Jesus Christ. There are roadblocks and even persecutions. This man who declares he will follow Jesus has no clue as to what this entails. He makes this ostentatious statement, but has no clue as to the price. What can he expect if he fulfills this promise. When he finds out, what will happen?

Luke 9:57 As they were going along the road, someone said to Him, "I will follow You wherever You go."

Jesus reveals the trials and persecutions; the price of following Him. It is the price that this man must pay of this daily walk. It is not going to be easy. Next 5 verses and a portion of Matthew 8. Jesus tells him what His life is like. Jesus does not even have what most foxes, birds and people have. Most of us have homes; Jesus did not. "You go with Me, and you will be a wanderer; an itinerant."

Lesson #0678 Matt. 8:21–22 Luke 9:57–58 Life of Christ 10/23/2014 Thurs

Luke 9:57 As they were going along the road, someone said to Him, "I will follow You wherever You go."

Following Christ means that you grow and grow and advance in spiritual maturity. You cannot follow Jesus unless you know how He thinks and what He requires of you.

The third question is, what is the price of following Jesus? What can we expect? When he finds out, he will have quite a response.

A believer must be able to answer these 3 questions in order to follow Christ. Following Jesus is a mandate for our lives. Jesus will answer the 3rd question and this will separate the men from the boys.

Jesus provides a glimpse into the trials that one will face as a follower of Him. This man will have no doubts about what following entails. We need to know the same things; and we need to follow Him without reservation or hesitation.

Luke 9:57 As they were going along the road, someone said to Him, "I will follow You wherever You go."

So Jesus answers him. Or explains what is needed.

Luke 9:58 And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head."

Jesus does not have what even birds and foxes have. Jesus is a man without a home and he suffers some privation. We all have homes; a place to go and recuperate and rejuvenate, which is away from the dangers of the road.

Jesus does get lodging; He does not camp out every night. But He has no permanent home. There is no respite; no place for Him to retreat to call His home. And this is very important for most people.

"Follow Me and you won't have a home. You will be traveling about representing Me."

Berachah has sent out a number of missionaries, not having any idea what they would face. The logistics were uncertain at best. Being a missionary is an incredible leap of faith. That is in essence what Jesus is saying.

This is not a 2 week field trip at a mission; and then a ticket home. There is a price to pay being on the road with the Lord. There are great rewards for this service. There are no monetary rewards. A lot of Berachah's budget goes to missions. These men and women go to the mission field as workers; as harvesting a crop.

Peter and James and John have chosen to share these itinerant circumstances with Jesus. They have no home either where they are. Peter probably had a home; but this was not a place where he went very often. There was no highway patrol to look out for them. They could face persecution, satanic power or criminal attacks. They shared all of this obvious adversity. It will not always be a walk in the park to grow to Christian maturity.

In spiritual maturity, there are great solutions. Why not take the road of following the Lord? The hardships will be there; but also the incredible rewards. They are lasting benefits, like no other in temporal life.

The spiritual life and applying Bible doctrine will be rewarding beyond anything like temporal life.

These Are the Rewards of Following Jesus Christ

1. We share the wonderful privilege of a personal relationship with God.
2. You will have the confidence of His grace, faithfulness and care every step of your life. Absolute security in Jesus Christ.
3. You will have no uncertainty of whom oversees and guides your life. A lot of uncertainty about who guides this country and how they are doing it. If you follow Him, He guides you.
4. There is an unassailable personalized plan designed for us; and it cannot be equaled in any other human system.
5. Eternal security that no amount of materialism can offer or supply. Those who are not believers, there are a myriad of ways of trying to find it.
6. We have absolute truth; the wisdom of the ages are our fingertips and at our souls. The average person in the world must constantly change their opinions. Do we ever have to do this? No, because we have absolute truth. People change their minds all the time; as a believer with absolute truth, we don't ever have to change our minds. Truth is truth; this is absolute truth.

Let's compare the best that humanity has to offer. Let's compare this to the spiritual life offered by Jesus Christ, which He pioneered.

Materialism seems to offer great comfort and stimulation. It is seen as the optimum in life. It carries with it fame and fortune at times. "Be fulfilled" or "If it feels good, do it" or "Enjoy the good life" or "Stay within your comfort zone." All of these approaches are centered in self. Our society has become so self-centered because this is the focus of society. Are there tremendous downsides to materialism?

Materialism

1. Material gain is fleeting and vulnerable to the whims and caprices of human nature; or fortune and of luck and market volatility. You are depending upon this?
2. Materialism is entirely self-centered. Following Christ which is anything but self-centered. It is a wonderful life.

3. The pursuit of success and materialism can easily turn into a frantic search for happiness. Materialism is gain. Have this; have that. The more you have, the more you want.
4. Materialism is like a drug; it is like an addiction that does not let go. You can never get enough.
5. In case you suffer from envy, at the end of the day, it is not soothing or satisfying to the soul. It does not make a person happy. There is no real substance to materialism. This is well-documented in Scripture.

Humanism

This is the really stupid one. This is philosophy and ideology without God.

1. Humanism depends upon man to remove injustice, poverty, war, suffering. But it is impossible.
2. The humanist wants to provide security. Our current system is all about security and not about freedom.
3. Humanism sees themselves as conquering death and disease by means of science.
4. They are going to preserve the earth based upon an aggressive environmental program.
5. The humanist strives for a utopian society; a perfect world based upon the millennial reign of Jesus Christ based upon social engineering. They try do social engineering.
6. The social engineering of humanism ignores one great fact—the sin nature of man. No matter what the humanist tries to do, there is always a sin nature.
7. All these social engineers who are going to build this utopia; they are flawed and their ideas are flawed. Man cannot save man. The humanist rejects Jesus Christ and His salvation. All that is left is what man can do for himself; or for all of mankind.
8. Humanism and materialism are based on the arrogance of the human race replacing God. That is the alternative.

What Is the Final Result of Humanism?

1. Unfulfilled expectations; false promises, frustration, nagging doubt, soul bankruptcy, and ultimate failure. Welcome to the USA.
2. The hopeless strung and emptiness without God.
3. Then the humanist or materialist faces the terrifying unknown of death.
4. Finally separation from God forever in hell. That is beyond depressing.

How can materialism and humanism trump the mature spiritual life? How can you opt for that? Why opt for the uncertainty or the instability of the failed human systems of life? You have completely available the mind of Christ. That is a life of amazing fulfillment. We are fulfilled by means of spiritual growth. How can you make your life more fulfilled than through the plan of God. And you have the great confidence of being called home by God.

The Christian way of life is a no-brainer; but it is so often rejected for materialism and humanism. This is a lifetime pursuit; and there will be human resistance. They do not want to live next to you. You threaten them. The possibilities of being sidetracked are endless. But this is without traction to the follower who keeps his eyes on doctrine and on the Lord Jesus Christ.

Luke 9:58 And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head."

So, we have another question; another response.

Matt. 8:21 Another of the disciples said to him, "Lord, let me first go and bury my father."

This seems like a legitimate response. He needs to take care of some personal business and Jesus says, "Follow Me now." Jesus is offering this man an uninterrupted relationship with God. This is a once-in-a-lifetime experience.

Why can't he just go home and take care of this family matter? This is a normal thing; and after that, pick up and follow the Lord. What is going on here? What is happening here?

This is a critical point that Jesus is making here.

What Does this Mean?

1. This is where believers either follow or drop out. That is the issue.
2. What this burial request indicates is a divided mindset.
3. This disciple is peripheral in his loyalty. One foot in and one foot out of the mission. It is a goo thing to follow Jesus, but what about the other things of life?
4. Jesus knows his mindset.
5. Jesus knew that his pledge to follow was disingenuous. Out of sight and out of mind.
6. This man talked a good fight; but when it came right down to it, he made an excuse to leave.
7. He would be a part-time follower who would opt out under pressure. He did not have what it took. The other disciples dropped everything. We are with you. This other guy said, I've got a few things to take care of.

Matt. 8:22 And Jesus said to him, "Follow Me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead."

The Aggies, they began to get down and they began to get even more trounced. This is seen in the military. Voluntary tough training causes soldiers to drop out. It is tough, but necessary to accomplish the mission.

At Berachah, you either do it or you don't. The point is a mindset. It is a priority.

Lesson #0679

Matt. 8:19–22 Life of Christ

10/26/2014 1Sunday

Gal from Berachah who came to Bobby on the UT campus, and she was involved in a Christian campus organization and she said, "I'm on fire." She was very animated. But her animation was really not about her enthusiasm about God, but about a guy she met at that organization.

Matt. 8:19 And a scribe came up and said to Him, "Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go."

Does this man, who sounds so enthusiastic, really want to be our Lord's missionary? Missionaries suffer great hardships. George Mueller spend years in Cameroon in a very primitive area. There is a lifetime of difficult circumstances; and this is a lifelong pursuit which sometimes involves great difficulties throughout life. We all have difficulties in life; and dedication to the Lord is a daily circumstance. There is the Angelic Conflict as well as the believer moves through this life. The possibilities of being sidetracked and fearful are very great. It is not hard to move that early glow of spiritual fervor. Emotion will not carry you. It requires spiritual growth through the inculcation of Bible doctrine.

We have no idea what happened to this disciple. The fact that Jesus had to outline the difficulties of following Jesus suggests that maybe this guy was on the fence. Following Him is not always easy. There will be plenty of times when there are great difficulties.

Matt. 8:20 And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head."

Another disciple speaks to Jesus. He apparently promises to follow Jesus anywhere.

Matt. 8:21 Another of the disciples said to him, "Lord, let me first go and bury my father."

But Jesus says, "Follow Me now." This is not out of the ordinary; this is not so much out of the norm. Jesus makes a crucial point. This challenge indicates that this man needs to make a priority decision.

This request means that this disciple is torn. He is not sure which way to go. "I want to follow you, but I must bury my father." Is his father still alive?

Matt. 8:22 And Jesus said to him, "Follow Me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead."

Once this man leaves, he will be out of sight and out of mind. He wanted to be a part-time follower who would allow other priorities to crop up. Those with self-centered attitudes don't last. Not many are really ready to follow the LORD. This may seem a little harsh.

Why Does Jesus Do This?

1. This is the primary example of the wimp in the Christian life.
2. The dropout from the Christian life is not a loss of salvation; once saved always saved. There is always something else going on.
3. This man is a believer who makes excuses as to why he will opt out of consistent spiritual growth.

4. There is only one reason to be consistent in Bible class in attending Bible class. There are many excuses to miss class. You probably don't miss any meals.
5. The excuses are a voluntary break in spiritual growth. Every day without doctrine is a break in spiritual growth. This is a wasted day in spiritual advance.
6. When there is a break in spiritual growth, spiritual growth becomes secondary in one's overall life.
7. In reality, this man is requesting a break in his relationship with Jesus Christ. He is asking for some time out.
8. This man shows a hesitancy an unwillingness to continue; a close and unbroken association. He wanted to go home and do something before joining Jesus' band of brothers.
9. He is asking to put his spiritual life on hold just for a short while.
10. He is in a situation that is humanly important, but not in the scope of what Jesus Christ offers in following Him. It is minor.
11. Often, the short break, the short time to do something else, gets extended indefinitely. That is what happens when believers fall into reversionism.

Jesus is emphasizing temporal versus spiritual priorities. What comes first in this man's mind is the funeral of his father. This is a normal family commitment to illustrate which allegiance is important. Legitimate activity versus spiritual growth. It is not that you don't take care of legitimate activities. You must put spiritual growth first. That makes this illustration so effective. When this was written, this was a sacred duty.

Priorities

1. There is no excuse; you cannot make an excuse, even for legitimate circumstances, for putting off spiritual advance. Lots of reasons not to advance; only one reason to advance.
2. The spiritual life must come first. Then, everything else falls into place. Then you have the right perspective. Then you can handle all the temporal aspects of life and not make them equal priorities.
3. When the spiritual life comes first, the believer gets the right perspective on all aspects of temporal life. He is also able to set boundaries on temporal life. So many people have trouble setting such boundaries. Therefore, priority of the spiritual life so that you can live life within these boundaries.
4. And then, when the boundaries are set and the perspective is right, the believer can give priority to the spiritual life. It is also a process. In the Christian life, spiritual life comes first, spiritual advance comes first, everything else is second.
5. The believer who advances is able to set routines in life for the purpose of growing and advancing. What does it take to make your spiritual life a priority? It is routine. Every day, you establish a routine. It is the routine of every day spiritual growth that makes the Christian great. Spiritual growth has to be a part of your routine.
6. The routine of the spiritual life is necessary for greatness in the Christian life and not necessarily in the eyes of other people, but in the eyes of God. How He sees things is the priority. Jesus is not against family obligation as such. He is not forbidding such acts. But this man was making an excuse that seemed reasonable to him. You cannot put your spiritual life on hold.

He was slipping out of following the Lord, when he ought to. Such a one cannot be trusted to follow through in difficult circumstances. God cannot use such a person; he is a weak link. He cannot be depended upon.

It is not difficult to have a spiritual routine. Just take in a little doctrine here or there. Otherwise, you present the funeral excuse.

Now, such a one comes back to God when he needs something.

Lesson #0680 Matt. 8:21–22 Luke 12:51–53 Life of Christ 10/26/2014 2Sun

The point is about priorities. This guy is a prototypical nod to God-emotional revolt. He will follow Jesus when it fits into his own schedule. He has many things going on, and he cannot let go of them. He is willing to give Jesus Christ some thought; throw Him into his priorities.

Matt. 8:21 Another of the disciples said to him, "Lord, let me first go and bury my father."

What is wrong with Jesus telling him to do what he needs to do? There are mandates that we do fulfill priorities in life. Had this man returned home; and there is a hesitancy in him. If he returned home, to bury his father, and by the time all this was done—it would have required a week or more to see it through. By this time, Jesus would have been somewhere else and perhaps out of this disciple's reign.

Jesus may move out of area, and this man would have lost his chance to join in and grow up spiritually under our Lord's concentrated ministry. Both things can be done, as long as the priorities can be kept straight. He was being called by none other than the Lord Jesus Christ to fulfill a much greater mission. This man could have been very important in the founding of the church; that is what was being offered to him. He had a divided interest; and he could not set aside the temporal things of his life.

All of this narrative stands on its own, whether this father is dying, dead or not.

All of us have the responsible to witness; we present Him to the world. If that is not a priority, then we will miss many opportunities because our minds are on something else. But with spiritual growth, we begin to focus on the obligations and priorities. We only get divine viewpoint without routine as related to the spiritual life.

You cannot be great without routine. This is true for every profession. It requires practice to be on a sports team; to be a performer; and especially true in the spiritual life. A consistent intake of Bible doctrine. You begin to think with divine viewpoint.

This does not keep you from thinking about other things. But what is in your soul is always directed toward that action. You do not lose your edge or the thought processes. So you are able to perform and fulfill the mission.

This man was showing a divided interest. No one who proclaims the truth can allow anything else to take first place. Bobby faces a great many distractions in life. He works about 7 days a week to stay up, to keep the messages coming. It would be very easy to do something else; to let it slide a bit. Bobby has to continue to focus on his responsibilities. He cannot afford to get distracted. The same thing is true of every believer.

Priorities in Life

1. Human relationships and relationship with Jesus Christ are important and both are necessary.
2. It is the spiritual life that always takes precedence. Always. When that priority is lost, the rest of your life will fall apart. Bobby's lived it.
3. The spiritual life must never be subsumed under personal family matters, under friendships, under financial matters or any other temporal duty in life. Priority in the spiritual life means that you will not worry about that. You take care of things, friendships, etc., but there is still the spiritual life which needs to be priority #1. Marriage can be a real distraction.
4. Even the closest family ties cannot be set above allegiance to Jesus Christ and His Word. That is what was going on when it comes to burying the father, the mother, the brother, the best friend. Temporal aspects of your life are important. But Bible doctrine is priority #1. Make time on a daily basis. You need the daily dose; even if it is just 10 or 15 min. a day. When you don't have it, the more you recognize that you don't have it.
5. There is room for temporal and spiritual priorities, but they are not equal. Marriage must be nurtured. When you are building a relationship with the Lord, you are improving your relationship with your spouse. You are developing patience, tolerance, and impersonal love. You develop just what you need in marriage. There are so many marriage conferences out there. You are told how to do this or that in marriage and what you need. But what makes it great is the husband and wife taking in doctrine regularly together.

So our Lord's response:

Matt. 8:22 And Jesus said to him, "Follow Me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead."

There is a rationale for why He said "no." "Let the spiritually dead bury their own physically dead." Both sets of people are dead. Those who are spiritually dead bury those who have physically died.

The mission of Jesus is to die; and His disciples are to spread out and proclaim the gospel. The spiritually dead are not involved in any of this. The spiritually alive can do nothing for the physically dead. This man can do nothing for his father by attending the funeral. Only the spiritually alive can render service to those who are alive; but no one can do a thing for the dead.

The Spiritually Dead and the Physically Dead

1. The spiritually dead and the physically dead cannot accomplish the mission of Jesus Christ. That is reality. This is a reality check and a view of our priorities. There are times when we are fairly certain that some people never believed in Jesus Christ; and all you can do is speak to the living. If that is the priority...
2. Let the spiritually dead carry out the activities of temporal life. They cannot participate in the mission of Jesus Christ. Some people think that if you are a good person and doing good things, that this is nice for God. There are many good deeds that people do—some who are spiritually alive and some who are spiritually dead. Those who do this in the Spirit do that which is eternal.
3. The priorities of the spiritually dead are on temporal existence; the believer has different priorities.
4. The spiritually alive are useful to God and they must move forward. They cannot move back. This message does not mean that you must skip your parent's funeral. There is the question of priorities alone.

There is a military maxim. The priority of a commander in combat. His priority is first and foremost the mission; and second the men. The priority goes to accomplishing the combat mission; the welfare of the troops is very important. Logistics, medical care, weapons, planning are all important for the troops; but the mission comes first. If the mission does not come first, then no military leader could take any chances, because all chances involve a possible loss of life.

The mission is spreading the gospel and teaching the Word of God; and this could not wait. Jesus needed every moment to teach the disciples. He would not be around for much longer. He cannot give this man an extra week or two. Sometimes you have to make decisions like this; to put your spiritual mission first. There were others who have a spiritual mission.

Luke 12:51 Do you think that I have come to give peace on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division.

"I did not come to bring peace on earth. I did not come to bring world peace. I came to bring division."

Luke 12:52 For from now on in one house there will be five divided, three against two and two against three.

Luke 12:53 They will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law."

There are great divisions caused by the Lord. Divine viewpoint versus human viewpoint is a great divide. These viewpoints are reconcilable.

Lesson #0681

Luke 9: Life of Christ

10/29/2014 Wed

So few people know anything about Jesus Christ; even believers.

Matt. 8:21 Another of the disciples said to him, "Lord, let me first go and bury my father."

Matt. 8:22 And Jesus said to him, "Follow Me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead."

People don't realize that Jesus would make an order like this. Can you imagine telling your boss that one of your parents has died, and you need to go to the funeral and he says, "No, you cannot go." How would you feel about your boss? Would your relationship disintegrate dramatically? Of course. This is what Jesus told this man.

Jesus was telling this man to follow Him for this, the most important mission of this world.

We do not know the response of this man. Did he follow Jesus? Did he return to his family? How serious was this man in being a purveyor of the truth? He needed to make a priority decision. The death of his father was a great priority; but the ministry of Jesus Christ was a much greater priority. So Jesus told him, "No, you must go; you cannot return to your home."

This man was willing to put his spiritual advance on hold; he was willing to set aside the mission of Jesus Christ, for something which is non-essential, by comparison. There is not excuse, even for a very legitimate circumstance or reason. The spiritual life must come first; there are no human circumstances which can take priority.

This man is being offered what only a handful of people are ever offered. He is matriculating into a university that will never be again. We all make choices like these. This is a particularly stark choice.

There are many legitimate distractions in life. You must always make time for spiritual growth. This is an offer that he cannot and must not refuse.

Bobby was thinking of Bob's funeral. But he would give up a service for an opportunity like this. What is the priority?

Matt. 8:22 And Jesus said to him, "Follow Me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead."

This is a play on words. Let the spiritually dead bury the physically dead. This man could have been one of the early pastors or teachers of the Word of God in the Church Age. For what reason would he set this opportunity aside?

Human obligation and spiritual obligation. What is going through this man's mind? It should be an easy decision, but it is not. If he followed Jesus, this would have divided his family. Families are divided by Jesus Christ. There is a split of viewpoints. There are different priorities for believers and unbelievers.

Similar big divide in this nation today. We can be amazed by how some people can think and vote. How do groups like this meet when you do not think in the same way.

A believer is not ever authorized to think with human viewpoint. Such a family of believers and unbelievers will be divided up. There is a gap that cannot be bridged except for faith alone in Christ alone and then spiritual advance.

"You have a mission that is much more important here." Having different priorities does not mean that you snub your family members. Sometimes the different viewpoints are incompatible. The optimal solution is for all families to think with divine viewpoint. Spiritual priorities are not always easy to attain.

"You come with Me; and your father will get buried. You have a more important mission." Jesus is teaching priorities here; He is not teaching that this man separate from his family forever.

People go off the deep end here. This does not mean that you neglect family or family obligations. This does not require a separation. They use the spiritual life as a reason.

We have family obligations and we cannot just walk out on it, using the spiritual life as your excuse.

Differing Viewpoints in a Family

1. Divided families does not mean that you physically desert your family or that there be open antagonism. More than one divorce has occurred because of this.
2. Christ means that there will be a departure from like-mindedness between a growing believer and family and friends. When you seek the truth, you will be around those of like mind.
3. The priorities and goals within a family are divergent without a doctrinal perspective. It is great when a family grows spiritually together.
4. In spite of this, the believer's spiritual growth must come first before all else.
5. When family is in opposition, a believer must not be deterred from advance and the plan of God. That is a big problem for a lot of people.
6. There should be no rancor, anger or hatred on the part of the believer toward those who are not of a like mind. You still have family obligations, but they are not the highest priority.

There was a problem of logistics in the first example. "I will follow you anywhere" and Jesus says, "I don't have a home, even." Second example, "I will follow you, but let me bury my father first." "You don't get that option."

Luke 9:61 Yet another said, "I will follow You, Lord, but let me first say farewell to those at my home."

I need to go back home and say goodbye to my family.

Luke 9:62 Jesus said to him, "No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God."

Jesus uses an analogy, which means no.

This man uses the title Lord, which recognizes His absolute authority, which we did not have before. This is all the greater reason that he ought to follow Jesus. We all want guidance in what we ought to do in our lives. We pray for answers and he does answer. Jesus will give him a direct answer. This man is certain that Jesus is Lord.

This man wants to do something that is very innocuous; return home and tell mom and dad goodbye. This would have taken minimal time. We would have accepted this request; it seems like such a small thing. However, this reveals divided loyalties; and he did not see the big picture. There is nothing which should stand between you and the Lord.

There is not a moment to lose. Jesus Christ serves notice that nothing can supercede His work. This does not mean that a believer has a green light to neglect his family during his temporal life. The goodbye kiss is not the issue; this is a mindset here of not recognizing the profound nature of the Lord's ministry.

You must keep in mind where these things in life take you. If they remove you from your spiritual advance, then these priorities are wrong.

A civil engineer was needed in Nigeria. So they went. They saw Tripoli Bible Church. People were safe there. He was asked to be the pastor there for a short time.

The arrival in Nigeria was difficult. There is an oasis; and they arrived on a weekend, and they found a missionary who had been there for 25 years. They had just overturned an evil president. Soon after this a civil war between northern and southern Nigeria.

The refugee pastor taught dispensational doctrine to his refugee congregation.

Many students, despite of all that is going on, believe in Jesus Christ. There is a rebound song that they sing. They sing it before every Bible class. It is God's grace solution to get back into fellowship, to tell God what He already knows.

25 years of peace in Cameroon to learn how to deal with the great crisis occurring now? Maybe still at peace?

There is a Bible class on the radio twice a week there. Africa, Germany and Eastern Europe are places they keep in touch with; and he hopes to contact those in Cameroon in the future.

"I know the doctrine, but..." and this means you have rejected the power of God's Word. Jesus Christ is the Word of God. The Word of God is absolute truth; the sword of the Holy Spirit; it is a fire and a hammer. The Word of God is his protection. It overcomes Satan. It keeps on giving him inner joy. It gives peace.

Lesson #0682

Luke 9: Life of Christ

10/30/2014 Thurs

Daylight savings time this coming Sunday.

Twice now, Jesus has listened to a scribe and to a disciple say, "I will follow you." In His reply to these promises, Jesus emphasized the difficulties in following Him, not to discourage them but to make following Him something that could be understood.

These are not simply disciples, but men who would be teaching doctrines in the church after His death and resurrection. There would be plenty of difficulties. 1st disciple spoke of following Him, and Jesus warned him that he has no home. The second wanted to bury his father first, and Jesus said, "Let the dead bury the dead."

The personality of Jesus comes through here. He was emphatic, He was powerful and He was absolute. There was never a time that you did not know where you stood with Him. We learn in this study just Who Jesus is.

The other said, "I will follow You wherever You go." He said that after Jesus described the conditions of being a disciple.

Luke 9:61 Yet another said, "I will follow You, Lord, but let me first say farewell to those at my home."

Jesus has a different response. This disciple heard our Lord's answer to the other disciple, and he still asks this question. He was not going to be involved in anything lengthy. Just returning for a meal or something.

Luke 9:62 Jesus said to him, "No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God."

Jesus tells him no, and this is all about divided loyalties. This is a little more subtle.

Jesus is stressing the principle of redeeming the time for service. It is critical here. The clock is ticking and there is no time to waste. Nothing can supercede the work that He has for this man.

Application to today?

There is a parallel in the Old Testament. Elijah is one of the greatest prophets of Israel and he called Elisha to replace him. Elisha was plowing a field when he was called. Elisha was an aggie. Elisha accepted the call to be a prophet. Before, he did something quite interesting. He asked,

1Kings 19:20 And he left the oxen and ran after Elijah and said, "Let me kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you." And he said to him, "Go back again, for what have I done to you?"

The words are similar and the circumstances are similar. Perhaps this guy in the New Testament knows this passage and figured if he presents a parallel situation to Jesus, then Jesus will have to allow him this exception.

Elisha breaking with his family indicates that he is breaking with the past.

Elisha, as a prophet, was constantly busy. Without a doubt, Elisha's mind was set on the things of the Lord. He was not lacking motivation. He has the right priority; he took care of an obligation. His head was in the right place.

1Kings 19:21 And he returned from following him and took the yoke of oxen and sacrificed them and boiled their flesh with the yokes of the oxen and gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he arose and went after Elijah and assisted him.

Saying goodbye to your family has precedent; and family obligations are not to be disregarded.

So, Why Does Jesus Say No to this Man?

1. This is a different circumstance than Elijah and Elisha. This man probably knew about this passage.
2. Following Jesus Christ was more important and urgent than even Elisha following Elijah. This man did not have an understanding of the limited mission of Jesus.
3. There is an urgency that we all have. We do not know how many ticks on the clock that we have. We have a temporal life; there is no disputing that. Jesus is the Messiah, the Savior, the God-man. That was the emphasis.
4. The message of salvation and doctrine that this man is designated to teach was way beyond any human priority. And so he has no time.
5. This man was to follow the Lord immediately without any previous or ongoing commitments. He was to drop everything including a family farewell. If you are going off to do anything, you want to say goodbye to everyone.
6. This man does not have to look very far to understand the priorities. There are 12 disciples there who heeded the priority call. They went. They dropped their nets and followed Jesus. They dropped everything. They all understood the immediacy and this man is wavering.
7. Jesus is aware that this man has divided priorities.
8. Those were the facts that Jesus emphasized by refusing permission by the man to say goodbye to his parents. That is what Jesus wanted to get across.
9. We can see that Jesus demands complete and total dedication to the mission. These are our demands as well. There are those who are called to be communicators.

Luke 9:62 Jesus said to him, "No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God."

In this time, plows were very primitive and they needed the farmer to pay close attention to his work, or the plow would go all over the place. Everyone understands this. When plowing, you cannot let your mind wander. The point that Jesus is making is, don't look at what is behind you. Just one look back. There should be no deviation in the work that Jesus has for this man.

If this man does not concentrate on the work, he is not fit for the Kingdom of God. But this has nothing to do with salvation; this means that he will not fulfill his responsibility in the Kingdom of God.

Jesus is just beginning to get the Church Age rolling. His message has been, the kingdom has come; and that is what this disciple needs to learn. They must get prepared while the Lord is present. He needs a complete knowledge of the doctrines of the kingdom. Only then can he work in the kingdom, which he is already a member of. "If you don't follow Me without equivocation, then you are not worthy of the kingdom."

These disciples have a special place, a special mission. These men will be His representatives after He is gone. A squishy disciple is not one who can be any good to the Lord after He has ascended. The squishy person will fail in his mission.

Some of the 11 will be authors. This man will not be an apostle, but he will be a part of the workforce and he has got to know. There is time for preparation.

These men had to quickly make up their minds as to what they would do. A delay of any kind would be not following Jesus now.

Present-day Application

1. The demands of Jesus Christ on the believer are illustrated in this passage. Follow Him, grow up, spiritual advance, serve Him.
2. The believer must therefore place any temporal activities in the priority perspective. Everything that goes on in our life is all important. No divine perspective means that you cannot keep your priorities straight. If you keep them straight, then everything else falls into place.
3. The believer must accept unequivocally the will and plan of God for his life. We are without excuse. "I have no idea what the plan of God is for my life?" The plan of God always begins with spiritual growth. As we grow, all the other details will work out.
4. Materialism cannot trump God's will. We can all rationalize how important it is to take care of our family; but it is easy to lose sight of our priorities. Humanism is rampant. Every time you hear the news, you hear humanism. Most teaching in schools is centered on humanism.
5. Postponement of His will is failure in the Christian life. This failure will have an effect for eternity.
6. Once again, that does not mean that temporal life must be totally neglected. We are not called to be hermits or celibate priests or nuns who have no life outside the walls of a convent. Our service for God is among people. Our mission is intertwined with our temporal life. You cannot separate the two.
7. The spiritual mission and the temporal life cannot be separated. The spiritual mission in the temporal life cannot be separated from your temporal life.

8. All of this means that we need preparation. We are being prepared for everything else, which is the priority for the believer. Part of the temporal life is family and obligation.

Burying a father and saying goodbye to your family are not good reasons to not serve Jesus Christ. If your priority is not the spiritual life, then you have a superficial Christian life. There are not temporal reasons good enough to stop your spiritual advance.

Closing 3 Points

1. Do not expect material blessings in the form of wealth, glory, status. The priority always goes to the spiritual life. Our success is in a different direction. It is easy to get off track and off priority. Like 9:58
2. Do not put human ties or human relationships first and thereby delay spiritual growth. How often do you have something that sends you off in the wrong direction, like romance? You cannot put that first. Relationships are never great without the priority. Luke
3. Do not look back on what is behind or waiver once you have put your hand to the plow in serving Him. Do not long for the things which are behind.

Lesson #0683

Luke 10:1-3 Life of Christ

11/2/2014 1Sunday

Jesus had a large group of disciples; but none had been with Him as long as the 12, who had been with Him from the beginning. They would be taught by Him directly and they would share in His hardships.

Some of the disciples followed Jesus, which we know by Luke 10. They had their priorities straight. There was nothing that these disciples needed to do. They did not need to bury anyone or kiss anyone goodbye; they would just go on the mission guided by Jesus.

There will be a mission and it is a very clear set of instructions. He sends out a group and there are 70 who are sent out (some translations have 72). He sends these 70 to the cities of Israel that He will visit.

6 Characteristics

1. Their mission is very similar to what the 12 disciples have been doing in the past year. Luke 9:1-
2. They were a larger group and getting some practical work. You are the best contact for those who are around you. These are the forerunners of evangelists. Rick Hughes is an evangelist out of Berachah. Billy Graham is a mass evangelist and he can speak to huge numbers and they hear the gospel as they have never heard before. This is what the 70 are designated to do.
3. They are sent out 2 by 2. Why didn't they just go off on their own? That provides them companionship, support and efficiency. Rick spends a great deal of time alone. He spends a lot of time in classrooms in front of kids in school. He spends a tremendous time by himself. He has a companion or two now to help him drive.

4. Their mission was to proclaim the gospel and to perform miracles. There are 70 others who can go out and perform miracles. Jesus had designated the 12 to do these miracles as well.
5. They would prepare a town, two of them, and those who accepted their message, they would ready them to hear our Lord's message of doctrine. They paved the way for our Lord's appearance. We are not just saved in the way that we walk. We must also grow. Believers who just accepted Christ are babies and you must grow up. Babies must grow up. A good evangelist must present a little doctrine as well. Hundreds of people listening today in various groups who have come to a positive desire for the Word of God because they were directed that way.
6. These men would be faced with similar opposition, great, as Jesus has faced. Anyone who has the guts to witness for the Lord Jesus Christ will face all kinds of opposition. Rick faces opposition from religion and from legalistic religion. When he proclaims the gospel of grace, there are some denominations who says, "What about baptism?" There is tremendous opposition in the schools over this one issue. Baptism is a recognition that you have been cleansed and filled with God the Holy Spirit. It is not a mandated ritual for mandated service.

Luke 10 is our new passage.

What about the response in these cities? Will they take their lead from the religious leaders or will they listen to these ambassadors of Jesus Christ.

Luke 10:1 After this the Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them on ahead of Him, two by two, into every town and place where he himself was about to go.

What do they respond to? We are to reveal the gospel clearly; and then we step back. We cannot enforce them to believe in Jesus. People will make up their own minds. They need true and accurate information.

The religious leaders had spread propaganda and their own religious prejudice. We have the truth and we have the light.

We can give all kinds of welfare and we can do all sorts of things overseas, but how much more important are the souls of people when it comes to presenting eternal life to them?

These men were sent out to see who would accept the Lord Jesus Christ.

The Lord chose 70 men for a specific reason. In the Old Testament, 70 elders were appointed by Moses to assist him in administering Israel. They were to help this one man to deal with the people in Israel. There were also 70 men in the Sanhedrin at that time, and they exercised absolute religious authority in that time. In the first case, these elders did the right thing by Israel. The 70 sanhedrin took the people of Israel in the wrong direction.

Those who went the right way and those who went the wrong way. These disciples will do what the sanhedrin had failed to do—they will prepare the people for the Messiah.

This might be a parallel to the Tribulational evangelists.

They could perform the same miracles that Jesus did. Then the people could decide. Our Lord intended for this message of the 70 to be heard by the masses. This would also parallel the evangelists who would later go out into the world.

This was directed related to the Jews and what they needed to hear. They were a counter to the indoctrination of the religious leaders.

Luke 10:1 After this the Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them on ahead of Him, two by two, into every town and place where he himself was about to go.

The instructions begin in v. 2:

Luke 10:2 And he said to them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest.

They were to go out and pray for even more laborers. There were not enough with Jesus to go out. You may pick up some additional laborers. We are to encourage others; to encourage them to become advancing believers with a message of salvation.

Luke 10:3 Go your way; behold, I am sending you out as lambs in the midst of wolves.

And then Jesus said something that was quite ominous. There are plenty of voracious hard-core wolves out there waiting for us.

The harvest is a metaphor for the people, for those who would respond to the message of Jesus Christ. Harvest means that there are people out there who are waiting to hear the gospel and to respond to it.

There were not enough laborers available to reach the great harvest that was out there. They were not enough. The 12 could not reach them all; nor could the 70. They would have an incredible amount of work to do. We are laborers.

Lesson #0684

Luke 10: 1– Life of Christ

11/2/2014 2Sunday

We have been studying harvest workers. Migrant workers, moving from village to village. Jesus has designated 70 men for going out. Jesus will give them very detailed instructions.

Luke 10:1 After this the Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them on ahead of Him, two by two, into every town and place where he himself was about to go.

Luke 10:2 And he said to them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest.

Luke 10:3 Go your way; behold, I am sending you out as lambs in the midst of wolves.

They are out there and Jesus calls them wolves. When you do this harvesting thing, you are the lambs and they are defenseless before the wolves. The wolves are the religious leaders, who want to kill our Lord; and they would love to kill His followers as well.

They must trust in the Lord for their defenses. Sheep don't have defenses. They are protected only by Jesus Christ, but what else do they need? Jesus has protected the 12 for all of these years. It is not stated as to how Jesus would protect.

Faith is the confidence in things unseen. We do not see Jesus here. Our unseen faith is in the Lord Jesus Christ. We have no idea how our Lord defends us and protects us throughout our lives. We know that He is there and that He protects us. He will protect the 70.

Luke 10:3 Go your way; behold, I am sending you out as lambs in the midst of wolves.

Luke 10:4 Carry no moneybag, no knapsack, no sandals, and greet no one on the road.

Jesus gives them some exact instructions. Do not carry a wallet; do not wear shoes, do not carry provisions, and do not greet anyone on the road.

Don't they need something? Don't they need a change of socks? Don't they need a little money? But Jesus tells them not to take anything, essentially. No money, no suitcase, so that they must depend upon the Lord for all of their provisions. This is a little worrisome for a combat mission (it is a combat mission because they are going out among the wolves).

A little faith and a little relaxed mental attitude. That is what they need. Do not worry about the small stuff; just get out there and get it done.

They are not even to stop and say, "Hi." They were not to seek casual companionship along the way. There is no time to socialize. This is a proclamation of urgency.

They are not to become cared for by strangers; and they are not to be beggars. They are to depend solely upon the Lord Jesus Christ for everything, for defense and for logistics.

They have to be in contact with people. Aren't they supposed to present the gospel? They are to present to a specific group for a specific reason.

Luke 10:4 Carry no moneybag, no knapsack, no sandals, and greet no one on the road.

When you come to a house, say, "Peace to this house."

Luke 10:5 Whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace be to this house!'

Luke 10:6 And if a son of peace is there, your peace will rest upon him. But if not, it will return to you.

Luke 10:7 And remain in the same house, eating and drinking what they provide, for the laborer deserves his wages. Do not go from house to house.

Several doctrinal concepts:

What Does Peace Refer To?

1. This is a Jewish greeting; it is more than “Hey, how are you doing?”
2. Saying “peace” is a warm, hospitable greeting which would be given to any home.
3. This greeting acknowledges graciousness.
4. This is the Hebrew shalom. When you speak grace, that is a gracious response. This greeting acknowledges graciousness. The blessing of God would rest upon the host because of his graciousness.
5. If he is a man of peace, if he is a man of shalom, then your peace will stay upon him. God would see to this.

The second principle: God honors grace wherever it is found. If you are grace oriented, God honors that graciousness.

3rd principle: Logistics will be provided for us one way or another. Many a time, logistics for Rick is support. Many times, doors have been slammed in his face. It would be easy to get discouraged when that happens. People who are on his board are no longer on his board for various reasons. But God still provides the logistics. He never misses a date to go to a school and to evangelize. He will always go.

The greeting is heartfelt grace. This peace would rest upon the man who offered hospitality. The blessing would not be lost to any of the 70.

The purpose of the greeting by one of the 70 would be to make certain that the person who offered the hospitality would be someone of like-mind. They seek those for hospitality. They need a grace oriented person to stay with. They need someone with a positive attitude toward Jesus Christ.

5th principle: if the person responds positively to the greeting, he would receive the blessing of peace, the blessing of welfare, and he would provide hospitality. Therefore, there is someone who can help support the mission. What kind of support? Artillery of prayer. Bobby asks for and appreciates the prayer given on his behalf when he goes to a conference.

50 years logistical support to George Mueller.

The 6th principle: a source of blessing for the host as well. First support receives this same blessing.

This is how it works for all of us. Blessing to the giver and blessing to the receiver.

Luke 10:5 Whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace be to this house!'

Next set of instructions:

Luke 10:6 And if a son of peace is there, your peace will rest upon him. But if not, it will return to you.

Take what they give you and smile and be happy with it.

Luke 10:7 And remain in the same house, eating and drinking what they provide, for the laborer deserves his wages. Do not go from house to house.

These will become part of their family. They are to be good guests in all ways. Do not move from house to house. Be considerate; do not be demanding of the host. Receive whatever hospitality the host gives you with graciousness. That should always be the believer's attitude. Bobby does not like to stay with anyone when he is on the road. Many missionaries, however, stay in the homes to whom they speak. The hosts can be very gracious and help to take care of them. It is humility on the part of the guests. That does not include jumping from invitation to invitation. That shows lack of graciousness and it wastes time. Once you are ensconced in someone's home, you perform your mission. This is not a village social call.

There is a reason why a host would accept some of the 70:

The Laborer Is Worthy of His Wages

1. He communicates the gospel. They are communicators; they are evangelists.
2. They directly represent the Lord Jesus Christ in what He does; the message is the same.
3. These communicators are worthy to receive wages as logistical support.
4. It is also acknowledgment of the importance of the mission. They need financial support. You are assisting them and telling them how important the mission is.

Μισθος is wages; and the laborer is supported by those who believe the message. There is payment for the work done. They cannot take a money belt, but they can allow themselves to be supported by these other men and families. God makes provision for His Own. He does it through people who are agents of supply.

1Cor. 9:11 If we have sown spiritual things among you, is it too much if we reap material things from you?

A large amount of the church budget goes to missions. It is critical. The principle is, what Paul gave to the church was immeasurable in its wealth. For such service, support is authorized. Paul is not to be starved or neglected. The Apostle Paul refused a paycheck. He did some tentmaking on the side. He refused a payment from those who were very poor.

Many pastor-teachers today have another job in order to make his ends meet.

Bob started out with a very meager salary. As the church grew, they paid him more. Jesus looked at these laborers and gave them this information. They were worthy of their hire. Jesus set their wages at being room and board; and whatever else was graciously given them. Adversity went with the mission, as did logistical grace.

Luke 10:7 And remain in the same house, eating and drinking what they provide, for the laborer deserves his wages. Do not go from house to house.

Luke 10:8 Whenever you enter a town and they receive you, eat what is set before you.

What happens when their city does not accept them? The village that refuses them will end up in worse shape than Sodom.

Bobby will explain homosexuality and lesbianism when we get to that verse. There won't be pros and cons. It will be the Biblical viewpoint.

Lesson #0685

Luke 10: Life of Christ

11/5/2014 Wed

vv. 1–24 reveal a new set for those who are following in the steps of Jesus Christ. Physically, there are those who are following the Lord Jesus Christ. The twelve have been following Him for several years.

Jesus still has some things to accomplish in His ministry. Jesus is going to try to give the masses of Jews a chance to hear Him. Going through all of these villages is a huge task. We do not know any of these 70 by name.

Jesus needs to give them a mission statement; an operational order.

Luke 10:2 And He said to them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest.

"You're the laborers and there is the harvest; get out there and harvest." This is the advance party preparing the way for Him on His journey. Even these 70 are too few to cover the full assignment. So Jesus says to pray for others to go out with them or after them as laborers into His harvest.

Luke 10:3 Go your way; behold, I am sending you out as lambs in the midst of wolves.

Then Jesus speaks about the opposition. These men would be lambs going out in the midst of wolves. The enemy is strong, potent and ready for them.

These wolves have tried to discredit Him and they have tried to kill Him. The same could be true for the 70. The Lord will protect them as the 12 have been protected.

Luke 10:4 Carry no moneybag, no knapsack, no sandals, and greet no one on the road.

It seems as if these men will be deprived of every necessity that they need. There will be no idle chitchat along the way. Barebones logistics. "You must travel light and you must travel fast; and you must depend upon God the Father." They needed to understand their priorities. Their comfort or social life are not important. The mission is all-important and it will take complete priority.

Luke 10:5 Whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace be to this house!'

When they get to a village, they must have a place to stay. "Health, wealth and prosperity to you."

Luke 10:6 And if a son of peace is there, your peace will rest upon him. But if not, it will return to you.

The blessings of grace will be upon the house that receives them.

Luke 10:7 And remain in the same house, eating and drinking what they provide, for the laborer deserves his wages. Do not go from house to house.

Depend upon that house for your basic provisions. Logistical doors will be open to the 70 where they go. They are to accept this lodging graciously wherever they go. They do not take support but they will be given indigenous support.

Luke 10:8 Whenever you enter a town and they receive you, eat what is set before you.

Interesting that Jesus repeats, "Eat what is set before you." They are to accept the hospitality given. Jesus is emphasizing this; that is the reason for this repetition.

There is a legal prohibition which needs to be set aside. They still live under the Mosaic Law and there are certain aspects of the Mosaic Law. They may run afoul of these laws?

Here Is the Problem

1. Gentiles may offer them food that is forbidden under the Mosaic Law.
2. Jesus gives the 70 the okay to eat whatever is set before them. If pork is set before them, they can eat the pork.
3. Whatever is offered, even if it is unclean according to the Law, they may eat it. Jesus, as the Author of the Law, can make these changes.

4. They could eat what is put before them in the spirit of hospitality. Jesus is setting aside the dietary laws for this mission.
5. They must set aside all hesitation over dietary rules. There is also graciousness toward their hosts. Some people who travel and they are demanding. Jesus said, "Take what they give you and like it." Jesus was the most powerful man Who ever lived. His words could knock you over. He could look you in the eye and grind you into dust. "Lone Survivor" is a perfect example of mission first.
6. In this statement, Jesus Christ is foreshadowing the church. When the Mosaic Law will be completely set aside as a legal code. We do not live under the Law. We do not impose the Mosaic Law over our law. But the United States is based upon the principles of the Mosaic Law. The legal principles of the Mosaic Law are present in all great laws. Politicians do not change anything unless they follow the principles of divine establishment.
7. Paul gave the same sort of instructions for the church concerning unbelievers in 1Cor. 10:27 ff. Paul told the Jews that it was okay to eat whatever. There was the law of love for believers and law of expediency for unbelievers. The 70 were also to perform healing miracles as well.

There is also the message. The Messiah is here; He is on the earth and He is coming to your town. That is what it means for the Kingdom of God to be near you. Welcome the King. Pretty simple message. "The Savior is on His way to your town. Make time to hear Him."

The gospel message never changes. There are groups that go out first and proclaim the Kingdom of God and the King. These are evangelists/missionaries. They went to various places, to even gentiles and to Samaritans. Evangelists go wherever the door is open. When the door opens, they walk through it.

These 70 have the ability to authenticate their message with miracles.

Luke 10:9 Heal the sick in it and say to them, 'The kingdom of God has come near to you.'

If they reject the gospel message, this is what you do.

Luke 10:10 But whenever you enter a town and they do not receive you, go into its streets and say,

They do not let you into their houses. You go out in the streets of that city.

Luke 10:11 'Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet we wipe off against you. Nevertheless know this, that the kingdom of God has come near.'

"We clean off our sandals of your dirt, and yet, the Kingdom of God had come to you." This was the great answer to disrespect shown to the traveler.

This indicates that some would be accepted and some would be rejected. There was no automatic thing which would happen. Some would be heard, some would not.

Cleaning off the dust from their feet, indicates that they are glad to be leaving.

They would repeat the message one more time on their way out of town. Rejecting Jesus Christ had consequences. Jesus would use the destruction of a famous city to illustrate what was coming to them. They would speak of Sodom.

Luke 10:12 I tell you, it will be more bearable on that day for Sodom than for that town.

How sad that Jesus would go right by their city and He would not even stop. Jesus defines the alternative for those who reject Him and reject His disciples. This is what the disciples are to say to them. I tell you, it will be more bearable on that day for Sodom than for that town. The rejecting cities will be treated like the city of Sodom.

What happened at Sodom will be more tolerable than the judgment of these cities. The Jews would understand this.

Do you know what happened at Sodom? Do you know what this means?

Sodom is one of the most evil cities in the world. God dealt with that completely.

The Message Concerning Sodom

1. Rejecting Christ was worse than what even occurred in Sodom.
2. If Sodom was destroyed for its evil, and it was, how much worse will it be to reject Jesus Christ?"
3. It is clear that rejecting Jesus Christ is the greatest of evils. There is no greater evil than saying no to the Lord Jesus Christ.
4. Sodom will give perspective on just how destructive the decision is to reject Christ.

Gen. 13:13

Gen 13:13 Now the men of Sodom were wicked, great sinners against the LORD.

What made Sodom so exceedingly wicked that they would be utterly destroyed? What is it in these cities that would reject Jesus Christ. If worse will happen to these cities than happened to Sodom, this is truly unthinkable.

Now to Gen. 19. There is Lot, Abraham, the two strangers who roll into Sodom. Lot saw these guys in the square of the city and he befriended them when he saw them. He was concerned for them and offered them the hospitality of his home to them. Lot would not let them sleep out in the open because it was dangerous. This reason for danger will become obvious. He offered them a bed and breakfast and they accepted.

Gen. 19:4 But before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, both young and old, all the people to the last man, surrounded the house.

This incident included most if not all of the men of the house. Surrounding the house means, there would be no escape.

Gen. 19:5 And they called to Lot, "Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us, that we may know them."

This was a mob; not a welcoming committee. They called for them to come out to have relations with them.

Lesson #0686

Luke 10:12 Life of Christ

11/6/2014 Thurs

There are 70 disciples who will fan out to the nearby towns and present the Kingdom of God as coming near to them. The Messiah is just a few miles from you. He is the King of Kings, the Promised One, and He is near.

If the city receives this message positively, good. Some of the cities would respond negatively. These would be those influenced by the religious leaders. The advance men are to then to say, "Goodbye to that city" and they are to shake the dust off their sandals. They will leave, giving the city a warning, that it would be better for those in Sodom than those in this city. That is the alternative for those who reject Him. It will be a future judgment that will be horrific.

Luke 10:12 I tell you, it will be more bearable on that day for Sodom than for that town.

Those cities which reject Him will be worse off than Sodom.

So we are going to study Sodom. Sodom was completely destroyed. All the people and infrastructure was destroyed. There was nothing left.

We need to relate that judgment to the 70 and to those cities which reject Christ. Also, we need to see what this means to us today.

Gen 13:13 Now the men of Sodom were wicked, great sinners against the LORD.

This is why they are judged. Their sins are quantitative and qualitative.

We find that there are not even 10 men in Sodom could be found who are righteous.

Two strangers walk into the town square, and Lot sees them and approaches them. These are actually angels who have been sent to both destroy Sodom and to deliver Lot and his family. They were not there to make some announcement.

Gen. 19:5 And they called to Lot, "Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us, that we may know them."

Gen. 19:12 Then the men said to Lot, "Have you anyone else here? Sons-in-law, sons, daughters, or anyone you have in the city, bring them out of the place."

Gen. 19:13 For we are about to destroy this place, because the outcry against its people has become great before the LORD, and the LORD has sent us to destroy it."

Why did Lot stay there?

Lot saw these two guys and begged them to come home with him.

Gen. 19:3 But he pressed them strongly; so they turned aside to him and entered his house. And he made them a feast and baked unleavened bread, and they ate.

Gen. 19:4 But before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, both young and old, all the people to the last man, surrounded the house.

Gen. 19:5 And they called to Lot, "Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us, that we may know them."

This was a mob and they were bent on no good. They demanded that Lot let them out of his house. They did not intend for these men to escape their clutches.

Gen. 19:5 And they called to Lot, "Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us, that we may know them."

What Is Going on Here?

1. Yada generally means to know. Bring them out so that we can know them.
2. In this case, to know means to know from the experiential side.
3. The men of Sodom surrounding the house are calling for an intimate experience with these two men.
4. They are requesting an intimate relationship.
5. This means, in context, to have sex with; and here it refers to have homosexual sex.

These are a vile group of men. When you offer someone hospitality. You give them everything in your home and you protect them. These men were calling for a gang rape of these men. They revealed who they were as men; and they revealed the city for what it was. That is the exceedingly wicked.

At this point, Lot becomes ignoble. He will send out his daughters rather than these men. He would send out his daughters. What a great dad. These men refused the daughters.

Gen. 19:6 Lot went out to the men at the entrance, shut the door after him,

Gen. 19:7 and said, "I beg you, my brothers, do not act so wickedly.

Gen. 19:8 Behold, I have two daughters who have not known any man. Let me bring them out to you, and do to them as you please. Only do nothing to these men, for they have come under the shelter of my roof."

So, why does Jesus bring up Sodom at all?

Gen. 19:24 Then the LORD rained on Sodom and Gomorrah sulfur and fire from the LORD out of heaven.

Gen. 19:25 And he overthrew those cities, and all the valley, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and what grew on the ground.

These cities were not simply overthrown; they were destroyed; they were devastating. Only Lot and his family made it out. Nothing recognizable remained. Clearly this destruction was outside of the normal range of natural disaster. This is God's decision to destroy the city; the fire came out of heaven.

These verses are heavily contested. Some contend is that this is just a natural disaster. A lightning storm; and earthquake. This is God's disgust with Sodom itself. The sins were bound up in the homosexuality of the citizens of that city. That is what the Scripture says.

It is posited that Sodom was where the Dead Sea is now. There was total obliteration. This was the consequence of the terrible evil perpetrated by the men of Sodom.

Therefore, Luke 10:12 is a very pertinent verse to our time today.

Therefore, we need ot deal with homosexuality and lesbianism. This is the stuff of subpoenas. This is such a point of contention in our society.

Many Christians oppose the proliferation of gay activity and gay marriages. Christians today are called bigots and racists for opposing gay marriage. Opposing this is sometimes called hate speech. The state can even bring penalties for hate speech. Their purpose is to curb the clear teaching of the Word of God. The forces arrayed against the Biblical view have become extremely powerful in promoting homosexual marriage and lifestyles.

First concept; we will start at Sodom. The wages to a nation where homosexuality is pervasive. In the case of Sodom destruction came for the severe pervasiveness of homosexual behavior.

It was not just acceptable in Sodom; it was promoted in this city. Sodom was destroyed for this activity.

Secondly, there is a parallel description of divine wrath and destruction in Lev. 26:27–33 Deut. .

A Few Points on This.

1. It is perversity and punishment in those two passages for areas similar to Sodom.
2. In Leviticus and Deuteronomy passages are the 5 cycles of discipline. This will be linked to Sodom.
3. 5 categories of judgment to the people and the nation that have become extremely evil. Those passages are directed toward client nation Israel.
4. The nation addressed is Israel, a client nation to God. However, Israel had gone apostate at this point, becoming extremely perverse. Very similar discipline in the 5th stage and what happened in Sodom.
5. The final cycle of discipline is the most terrible. It is a description that you ought to look at and pray it does not happen to your nation.
6. That cycle of discipline coincides with the destruction of Sodom.
7. There is a difference between Sodom and Israel. Israel as God's people would not be completely destroyed under the 5th cycle.
8. Certainly there was much destruction and death involved in both cases.
9. In the fifth cycle to Israel, cities like Jerusalem and others were laid waste. 586 B.C. when Nebuchadnezzar marched into Jerusalem and killed many and carried away many captive.
10. The terrible description of the fifth cycle is so striking and so similar to the depiction of what happened to Sodom by the hand of God. The 5 cycles of discipline are promised, just as God brought that discipline to Sodom.
11. The discipline is horrific judgment for severe violation of divine standards.
12. In the case of client nation Israel, the discipline was for rampant idolatry; that was always Israel's problem. This is why the Jews were not to marry foreign women. They were idolaters.
13. The worship of false gods in Israel included homosexual activity. How did that happen?
14. There was homosexual prostitution as a part of the worship. It was called the phallic cult. That is the parallel with Sodom. The main religious idolatry was Baal and Molech. Baal was a fertility god. You practiced sex in the high places to impress Baal. That was the worship. Temple and prostitution was standard. There were male prostitutes involved and it was a part of the worship.
15. Sodom was not a client nation. However, the example of Sodom's destruction is the model of destruction for an evil nation. A client nation was not exempt. Believers were taken care of just as Lot was.
16. There was ultimate annihilation for those involved in severe perversion. The Lord is the Author of such judgments.

One of the refutations is, how could a loving God do this? God is not tolerant of evil and He is not tolerant of rampant evil. God is merciful and He is gracious and loving and He always gives every opportunity for correcting course.

These cities did not have fire and brimstone rained down upon them immediately after.

Communion Sunday

Titus 3:4–7 But when the goodness and loving kindness of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

Titus was a point man; he went out there and he got it done. There were about 100 cities on Crete at that time, and Titus was there as a troubleshooter. Paul refocused Titus on the grace of God.

This passage is wonderful in painting the whole canvas with salvation. None of the great artists have every produced a work of such great beauty.

Many of them were enslaved to various hatreds. Titus was a gentile? Jews and gentiles hated one another. Paul is declaring the depraved condition of all mankind outside of Jesus Christ.

There is no innate goodness of man. There is none righteous, not even one person. What was true of man then is just as true of man now. We have not evolved into more perfect creatures than we used to be. All of our technological accomplishments still cannot save us. Man is totally incapable of reaching God on his own. We live with an insurmountable separation from God. The story of man's shortfall is a sad and tragic one. For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God. With all of our needs, there is nothing by comparison to our need for righteousness before God. All people stand before God in critical need. When the gospel of Jesus Christ is revealed to a spiritually dead person.

All mankind is excluded from a salvation by works program. Paul told them that they were dead in their trespasses and sins. Thank God that we were not left to die in our sins.

Rom. 5:15 But the free gift is not like the trespass. For if many died through one man's trespass, much more have the grace of God and the free gift by the grace of that one man Jesus Christ abounded for many. Jesus chose to enter this world and He emptied Himself from the independent use of His divine attributes. The God of the Universe appeared as man, God and man in One Person. Do we deserve that. This is the epitome of impersonal love. We have no merit before God; all of the merit belongs to Jesus Christ.

Jonah in the Old Testament cried out from the belly of the great fish, salvation is from the LORD. He was in absolute darkness in that belly, and he was then vomited out into the light.

Paul makes an even more astounding assertion in Titus 3:5 He saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit. Mercy is God's grace in action. Man cannot independently commend himself to God. Independence from God is the essence of sin and death.

Man has nothing to offer God for mercy. Man does not have the power to attract God's love. God's love do not inspire God to mercy. There is nothing that man can do to impress God. Yet, God still has mercy on us. God has provided the means to dismiss the enmity between Himself and mankind.

God will not accept man's imperfect character; we must put on God's perfect character. If God disregards sin, He is only winking at sin, and sin is not important. God cannot give up His perfect righteousness. Man must be brought to the supreme level of God's standard of righteousness. A sinner cannot free himself from the slavery that he is in. Man cannot come to God except by means of an outside source. Enter Jesus Christ into history, Whose perfect righteousness is our bridge. The Perfect Lamb of God; He took away the sins of the world.

Upon the expression of faith alone in Christ alone, the Holy Spirit makes that faith effective for salvation. It is the work of the Holy Spirit in efficacious grace that regenerates us. Then that person becomes a child of God, a member of the royal family of God. Men and women are born again into the Kingdom of God through the imputation of eternal life. Regeneration is a sovereign and instantaneous work. Once born again, always born again. The believer cannot return to the spiritual grave.

Titus 3:7 so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

The sin nature is not removed, but God's righteousness is credited to us. Justification means that the justice of God is free to bless man with salvation without the compromise of His Own righteousness. There is no way such a human being can leave such a legacy to his progeny. These are gifts of God which must be accept as such.

All of the work is on the side of God; the redemptive work is on the shoulders of God. The conveyance of this inheritance is by means of faith alone in Christ alone.

Titus 3:8 The saying is trustworthy, and I want you to insist on these things, so that those who have believed in God may be careful to devote themselves to good works. These things are excellent and profitable for people.

We must be careful to put first things first and to place the emphasis where God would have it. These things are good and profitable unto men.

Lesson #0688

Gen. 19:4–5, 24–25 Homosexual Special 11/9/2014 2 Sunday

Principles of Homosexuality in the Bible is the name of this series.

Jesus sent 70 disciples to go out to many cities between Capernaum and Jerusalem, which He had never before entered. This was a trail blazing mission.

He gave these men a mission and told them how they should function. There was a problem, that there would be cities that would reject them. The disciples were not to argue; just leave and wipe the dust off of their feet. God would not walk away from these rejecting cities.

God makes one of the most horrific announcements on these cities.

Luke 10:12 I tell you, it will be more bearable on that day for Sodom than for that town.

This launches us into our subject.

Gen 13:13 Now the men of Sodom were wicked, great sinners against the LORD.

Chapter 19 explains what this means.

Gen. 19:4 But before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, both young and old, all the people to the last man, surrounded the house.

Gen. 19:5 And they called to Lot, "Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us, that we may know them."

The men are calling for the angels to be thrown out to them, so that they might have relations with them, men with men. Homosexuality at its worst. They were calling for them for a gang rape. These two guys just happened to be angels sent by God to this city of Sodom, to announce the destruction of this city and to rescue Lot.

Gen. 19:24 Then the LORD rained on Sodom and Gomorrah sulfur and fire from the LORD out of heaven.

Gen. 19:25 And he overthrew those cities, and all the valley, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and what grew on the ground.

This is utter destruction. Some think that Sodom is where the Dead Sea is today. The consequences of this evil was utter devastation. Because of the reference to Sodom, our study will be interrupted for the Biblical principles concerning homosexuality and lesbianism. There is the opening from Luke 10:12, to cover a subject that is filled with current controversy. This is the Biblical viewpoint. Right or wrong; like it or not.

The destruction of Sodom has a meaning to other national entities in general. This destruction came upon the entire city. There will be individual results later. This was a city state in the ancient near east. This destruction is a case study of severe perversity. All of the men of the city were involved in this. The practice was both promoted and indulged by the men of the city.

A rain of fire and brimstone came down upon these cities. If it was true then, it can be true for any national entity for the same reason. God has not stopped in His condemnation of cities for the same reason.

Leviticus and Deuteronomy passages have the cycles of discipline. Israel, in the case of Leviticus and Deuteronomy, there are similar reasons for the destruction. Even a client nation can be destroyed for becoming evil. A saturation of perversion. The LORD is the Author of such judgments and His judgments are always fair. The causes for which He judges are evil; there is no equivocation here. Evil which possibly can undermine all divine establishment.

What does this have to do with me?

How Should I Take All of this Destruction?

1. We as believers in Jesus Christ must never take it upon ourselves to be instruments of divine judgment. There are Christians who want to do this. We do not take over God's prerogatives.
2. We have no cause to judge anyone. We have enough problems with ourselves.
3. We may abhor the actions of some, but we are mandated to have impersonal love toward all mankind.
4. So, we despise the activity but impersonally love the people. Bobby is aware of what the Old Testament says.
5. Leave all judgments in the hands of the Lord and to His ways, not ours.

That is an overview of how we should think.

This exact devastation is described in Lev. 26:31:

Lev. 26:31 And I will lay your cities waste and will make your sanctuaries desolate, and I will not smell your pleasing aromas.

There were the gods Molech and Baal, and this involved child sacrifice.

Lev. 26:32 And I myself will devastate the land, so that your enemies who settle in it shall be appalled at it.

You enemies will be appalled; that is bad stuff. This happened on several occasions. The Assyrians first on the northern kingdom; and then Nebuchadnezzar destroyed the great cities of the southern kingdom in 586 B.C. This was evil being judged as evil was judged in Sodom. This invasion was devastating, but Israel was not utterly wiped out. Israel was God's people; therefore, God did not destroy them utterly, even though they were involved in such evil practices. The parallel between Jerusalem and Sodom was national devastation.

A little application. Any client nation where such practices, like religious apostasy and homosexuality, they fall under this curse. There is a terrible parallel in the United States of America today. We are a client nation to God in the Church Age. We are the only client nation on earth at this time. Homosexuality is gaining in influence and practice in our nation.

God's Standards Regarding Homosexuals

1. Homosexuality has become very accepted as an alternative lifestyle.
2. It is not and will never be acceptable before God, as it was not in Sodom or in apostate Israel. How has God changed in this time? He has the same viewpoint today as He had before.
3. God has not changed His attitude toward this practice simply because society has changed. God does not follow the crowd.
4. People begin to call evil good and good evil. God always knows the difference; and so do believers with discretion. We don't lock and load; we pray.
5. God's standards do not change; only our standards change. God has absolute standards; He does not care for sin.
6. Man's change and his relative attitude never bodes well for those who flaunt God's standards personally or nationally. There are those who get rather upset by this viewpoint. This interpretation does not suit their human viewpoint.

Some assume that lack of hospitality and criminality is the reason for God's judgment. Lack of hospitality was a severe breach of custom in that era; and it was not just criminality. If that was the case, what nation would still stand?

The text makes an issue; a primary issue of the severe intent of the men of Sodom which resulted in criminality.

The lack of hospitality was subject to the great desires of population of Sodom. They practiced or condoned the evil. There were no voices of dissent. If there were, the tyranny would have squelched them people.

Evil is rampant in this world. There are all kinds of evil rampant throughout the world. We see incredible evil even in the industrial nations. And nations pay the price for that. Here, this is utter devastation. There is a price to pay when a country make such practices mainstream.

So, what to Christians do about this? What is our position and our actions as believers? What are our obligations. This Christian is not to respond with equal lawlessness or with moral degeneracy. Believers who have no doctrine fall back on their own self-righteousness and it is not our job to judge but to present the gospel. You can join all the churches in Houston on a big march against evil, but it does not help anything. Nothing changes what is in the souls of people like Bible doctrine. The only real changes which can come to this nation is the Christian presenting the gospel, taking in Bible doctrine, as are the 70 who are sent out to these cities. It is a renovated mind and renovated thinking.

Lev. 26:33 And I will scatter you among the nations, and I will unsheathe the sword after you, and your land shall be a desolation, and your cities shall be a waste.

Next we go to the individual problem of homosexuality. We must deal face to face with those who are and those who practice this. Witnessing gives us the chance to change minds.

Lesson #0689

Rom. 1:26–27 Homosexual Special

11/12/2014 Wed

A revised book at R. B. Thieme, Jr.; Levitical Offerings. These were mandated by the Mosaic Law, to illustrate doctrinal principles.

We stopped at Luke 10:12 because Jesus promised a Sodom-like judgment on the cities that rejected his disciples. We stopped to see what is going on in Sodom. It was a specific sin of homosexuality and lesbianism. This study will include the effect of these things on a national entity and upon individuals.

3 Main Principles So Far

1. History of Sodom. The narrative of Gen. 19 describes the destructive of the city for its all-pervasive homosexuality. It had become all-pervasive in that city. All the men of the city converged on Lot's house.
2. Parallel description of a Sodom-like destruction in Lev. 26 and Deut. 28. These are cycles of judgment for Israel as Israel sunk into their own perversion (which was generally false religion). The fifth cycle of discipline vv. 31–33 in Lev. 26 and it is very similar to the destruction of Sodom. Temple prostitution, which could be homosexuality.
3. Any client nation where such practices like religious apostasy are pervasive falls under this curse of judgment.

A Conclusion

1. Sodom was destroyed for its homosexual pervasiveness.
2. Israel fell under the fifth cycle of discipline for idolatry on several occasions, that could include homosexual prostitution and child sacrifice.
3. Like Sodom, Jerusalem was devastated in 586 B.C.
4. Conclusion is that any nation, client nation or not, runs the risk of divine discipline for rampant homosexuality.

For What Reason?

Sin is sin, isn't it?

1. Homosexuality undermines the institutions of marriage and family.
2. Also pervasive perversion affects all within the boundaries of a nation. We see that as well, which attacks nationalism.
3. The perversion corrupts the overall perceptions of a nation. Good is called evil and evil is called good. The morality of things is reversed or there is a sliding scale.
4. What is billed as freedom and equality ends up as tyranny. That is a form of destruction in itself. Tyranny is a cycle of discipline.
5. Left alone, the proliferation of such evil is a threat to divine establishment and to Christians in general. Anyone who opposes that practice is a target.
6. His judgment is forthcoming. This is why He judges to stem the evil and to protect His people. This has been going on since the beginning of Scripture. That city had become corrupted except for Lot and his family.

Any client nation where such practices like religious apostasy are pervasive falls under this curse of judgment.

50–60% against gay marriage 5 years ago and now it is about 50/50.

Gay Marriage

1. It was not acceptable in Sodom; so it is not acceptable now. God does not change. His attitude toward this practice does not change because society changes. He has His perfect, absolute standards, and they do not change.
2. His standards do not change regardless of the norms of a client nation.
3. Judgment knocks on the door of any nation that flaunts divine institutions and embraces religious corruption.
4. God will not be mocked. It is common for homosexual movement to mock believers.
5. The 5 cycles of discipline are administered when a nation mocks God by its perversion.

What Do Christians Do about These Circumstances?

Knowing the principles of doctrine, what do we do?

1. The Christian does not respond with lawlessness or moral degeneracy. We do not get to ignore lawful codes and to enforce our own set of laws. The fifth cycle of discipline is God's prerogative. We do not get to break the law to solve this problem. Self-righteousness and hypocrisy are always pitfalls for Christians. They see problems like this and they get self-righteous. You have just as much sin as they do. We still have no right to be self-righteous or hypocritical or legalistic. You do not fight fire with fire (activism with activism). Minds are not changed for Jesus Christ by resorting to human viewpoint solutions. Christians cannot wait to hold up signs or go to court, and this is to their detriment. Activism is not God's way. Humanistic Christians become associated with the problem and the punishment.

2. The answer is found in divine viewpoint; not in political activism or sinful reaction. You don't get to go out and punish those with whom you disagree.
3. The answer is the renovated thinking of you and any other believer taking in doctrine. The historical impact of advancing believers on the nation. What maintains a client nation to God is advancing believers fulfilling the will of God. Pro-Semitism is also important. What God honors cannot be destroyed.
4. With divine viewpoint, the believer fully accepts that the solution for the nation is always in God's hands. Such a believer is not worried or stressed or taking to the streets.
5. God can change the direction of the thinking of a nation. Either through positive volition toward doctrine and renovated thinking by those who believe in Jesus Christ; or through judgment brought upon a nation. Judgment is a wakeup call. God is not angry or destroying. The cycles are gone through; each cycle becomes more severe. Israel ignored 4 cycles of discipline in many cases; and other times did not. The final cycle is destruction, as Jerusalem and as Sodom.

Believers with doctrine are preservatives for the United States. We represent Jesus Christ to the world without fear. Many pastors who should be teaching their congregation are turning to activism. Recently seen in our own city. They are rightly appalled of the anti-doctrine viewpoint of our city and the evil. Part of the problem is, they are perplexed by the speed at which this transition of thinking. They have not been teaching and their congregations are not learning. Emotional program pastors. They want to promote morality and they want to force their morality upon others. It is fine to speak the truth about this about homosexuality and sin, even in the face of great antagonism.

Many Christians do not know what to believe. They have nothing in their souls. Nothing to counteract humanism. We see the most ridiculous things. Jesus never carried a sign down the street; nor did His disciples. A message is necessary.

The believer must have the positive impact of good; but we have no control over the decisions of other people. It is much easier to go along in order to get along. The answer is to speak the truth when necessary; but so few believers know what the truth is.

We do not get to hate other people; but we do despise the evil activities that they are involved in. You also need the principles to know what the truth is. Speak the truth but forget the activists. We are not revolutionists or angels of destruction. We are messengers of the truth; not of lies.

God is much better at curbing perversions. Bobby saw that Russian bombers will start flying in the Gulf of Mexico. Submarines have always been there. We have had a problem with our economy for 6 or 7 years. There are uncertainties and types of discipline which parallel.

It is very controversial to say that the judgments occurring in our nation are from God, but it is. Whenever evil becomes unrestrained. Scripture defines evil thinking and practices. Some teach that there is no such thing as evil. That is the extreme sliding scale.

How do you think that God works for the correction of evil if not through events like those described. Discipline is used as a wakeup call. If minds are not changed, then the fifth cycle of discipline comes sooner or later. It is initiated by God. God does punish nations just for these sorts of things.

In conjunction with divine discipline, do we not make personal decisions as individuals and as a society? Of course we do! For every evil cause, there is an evil result. Perversions do not spawn good things. There is an evil cause and an evil result.

The Application to Client Nations Today.

1. Along with the law of volitional responsibility that man brings upon himself, meaning that when we make bad decisions, bad things happen, God's hand is also in it.
2. God allows our bad decisions to run their course to our own destruction. We individually destroy our lives through bad decisions. We can find these decisions in our own life.
3. But to our destructive decisions, God will add to it as necessary to complete the downfall process. That is the cycle of discipline. God allows these cycles. When it comes to the fifth cycle, wham!
4. But God can stop the process through His control of history or allow it to continue. God has plans for a client nation as well. This is why cycles of discipline are necessary; to purge a client nation. Why do soldiers kill others? So that better people live. And this is so that better nations can live.
5. Therefore, our current national course portends further problems to come, unless there is a change of thinking and the grace of God.

The New Testament also deals with this. Paul does not address the national issue.

Bobby reads Rom. 1:26–27 For this reason God gave them up to dishonorable passions. For their women exchanged natural relations for those that are contrary to nature; and the men likewise gave up natural relations with women and were consumed with passion for one another, men committing shameless acts with men and receiving in themselves the due penalty for their error. They abandoned that which was normal and acceptable before God.

Lesson #0690 Rom. 1:18, 24–27 Homosexual Special 11/13/2014 Thurs

Pervasive homosexuality in Gen. 19. Problems with the widespread acceptance of perversion. This is by no means not the only problem that nations have. Sodom was destroyed for being a culture saturated with rampant homosexual perversion, cruelty, and criminality.

Old Testament Israel was severely punished for religious idolatry, that could include child sacrifice and homosexual prostitutes. God has never changed; it is impossible for Him to change. One of the offshoots here, is you do not have to change your opinion.

People evolve and change their thinking and they see things differently; but the thinking of the believer does not change. It will not change over a year or 10 years, if you think divine viewpoint. God does not change His viewpoint or His actions over any extended period of time. God never softens His viewpoint. Human society does change and soften its viewpoint.

God never sees the error of His ways because there is no error in Him. People who try to find God through their own thinking, they may think that God does change. God understands the destruction of divine institutions and establishment.

God understands that this threatens the people of Sodom and surrounding areas; so He must act, in order to preserve His people. God rescued Lot while destroying the perversion.

God has a judgmental approach (and some don't like this). God's judgments are perfect. So His judgmental viewpoint is perfect. His judgment is clear and unmistakable.

Rom. 1:18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who by their unrighteousness suppress the truth.

Suppressing the truth in unrighteousness has terrible results.

Rom. 1:24 Therefore God gave them up in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, to the dishonoring of their bodies among themselves,

There are all kinds of things which people exchange for the truth of God. Man becomes God in many peoples' thinking. And for many, there is no higher authority than themselves.

Rom. 1:25 because they exchanged the truth about God for a lie and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever! Amen.

When the truth is suppressed, people become anti-God because they have nowhere else to go but downhill to degeneracy. You reject God and Jesus Christ, so that there is no other way to go but to serve the creatures.

That degeneracy is described in vv. 26–27.

God gave them over to their own degradation. God gave them over to what they do. There is human volition in what is involved. He allows them to go deeper and deeper into their sin so that their depravity becomes evidence. This is true of all degenerate sins.

God gave them over to degrading passions. There are natural passions and abnormal passions. Natural is what God expects and demands. Unnatural is the way of the creature.

Men also abandon the natural function of the woman and burn in desire for one another. They receive in their own persons the due penalty of their error. This is talking about what is in their souls.

Rom. 1:26–27 For this reason God gave them up to dishonorable passions. For their women exchanged natural relations for those that are contrary to nature; and the men likewise gave up natural relations with women and were consumed with passion for one another, men committing shameless acts with men and receiving in themselves the due penalty for their error.

It is impossible to get around the plain meaning of these verses, yet so many try.

Atimia = degrading, disgraceful, shameful, dishonorable. It modifies the Greek noun παθος, which means passion of a sexual nature. Paul refers to homosexuality or lesbianism as shameful and degrading activity. This is what the Bible says. Nor is this just Paul's opinion. It is not a culturally driven opinion. This is God's truth. This is God's view of homosexuality and lesbianism.

If not homosexual, then humanists supposedly promoting equality before the law. They call it social justice when the justice of God judges them. Either way, they dispute with divine standards when they make these excuses. There is great headway being made in this arena, striking down laws and making practices of homosexuality acceptable.

Men with men committing indecent acts. This is not the normal noun used ανθρωπος; but here we have a specific name αρσεν, where the emphasis is upon gender and sexuality.

Indecent is ασχημοσυνη, which is a shameless deed involving body parts. This is the clear Biblical position against homosexuality.

Some believe that this was written by men with biases and prejudices, and they use this viewpoint to justify their own actions. If they find something they agree with, they like that. They can be inconsistent so often.

These Bible opponents often see themselves as forward thinkers. What they want in this field of sexual preference, they want universal acceptance of the lifestyle of homosexuality. They want legitimacy of their lifestyle in the eyes of the world. This includes whatever benefits that hetero marriages have. They want it to be equal. That is a part of the demand.

They also demand something else. They demand absolution from any guilt; and they want no stigma attached to their activities by society.

Guilt and Homosexual Acts

1. The actual guilt is not imposed on them. They think that guilt is imposed on them by society or by any other outside source. They contend that it is.

2. If there was nothing to be ashamed of, there would be no shame. God says that it is shameful.
3. The real guilt is resident in their sin natures. It is inherent. It is not imposed.
4. Guilt is part of an emotional complex of sins.
5. That emotion comes from the inside of a person.
6. Their guilt is from inside out, not outside in.
7. Guilt is a mental attitude sin it comes from the inner source revolt against divine standards. It is a mental attitude sin that derives from the inner source of divine standards.
8. Where that is happening against divine standards, guilt is inevitable.
9. The emotional guilt is a reaction to the unnatural acts of homosexuality. It is not natural; but the homosexual wants to make it natural. Revolt against divine standards means this guilt is in their own souls.
10. Emotional guilt is a reaction to the unnatural acts of homosexual behavior.
11. It is inherently understood by homosexuals as unnatural, regardless of the justifications or of the denials. It is not the society that imposes it. The real shame is on the inside and that cannot be removed. They abandoned the natural sexual function of the opposite gender. Wrong sinful, degrading choices engender guilt. These sins will morph into self-reproach and self-loathing. That is what happens when guilt and shame are internal. This is not because of society; it is internal; it is inherent.

People inherently know things that are wrong. Inherently people know the difference between right and wrong. There are criminals who are caught and punished for certain offenses. It is inherent.

The guilt is there and it is often repressed, disassociated and often denied. But it is present. This brings a sense of inadequacy and hypersensitive. This leads with a preoccupation with changing people's perception of you. It is their solution to guilt and shame. If society will look at them differently, then they will look at themselves differently. They become hypersensitive in doing so. But this solution does not work. Denial by lying is an art form. One day they say one thing and the next day they will deny that they said it. They deny by lies.

The obvious unnatural status of homosexuality, the circumstances in which they exist, cannot be removed or rationalized in the depths of their souls. That is what it means when it says they are given over to their own depravity. That is a part of their punishment. They cannot remove it from their own souls. It is a part of the punishment in their own souls to be that. Homosexuality is a penalty in itself, because there is an inner guilt and shame that goes with it.

Putting people in jail will not change their guilt or shame. It is moving along in this city already with discrimination laws.

The Real Guilt Is Internal

1. Absolution and acceptance by society cannot cure disgrace and guilt because it is internal and it is against nature and divine design. All of this is internal and it is against nature.
2. Acceptance by society cannot make unnatural acts natural. Society might think it is okay, but it won't fix those who engage.
3. Acceptance by society only superficially and temporarily removes the shame. It will come back to them. It is internal.
4. The real guilt and shame is ingrained in their souls. It is burned into their souls. It does not matter how much they want it to be normalized. They can only remove it from their souls through salvation and the renovation of their thinking.

This ignores traditional marriage and family values and goes against divine institutions which have existed since the beginning of time. But they think that society is at fault for not accepting them. The homosexual reacts against personal guilt by becoming more flagrant or vocal in their lifestyle demands. Their solution is to become more activist. That is what is happening in our country at this very moment.

This is about the individual homosexual or lesbian. Just being that is a punishment. It is unnatural and against God, and they can never find happiness in it. It does not matter how they might smile on the outside.

Lesson #0691

Rom. 1:26–27 Life of Christ

11/16/2014 1Sunday

Some Christians are more invested in social justice than in the Word of God. To accept homosexuality as legitimate and not a sin means that you must ignore that Old and New Testaments of Scripture. There was great cruelty and criminality in Sodom, which is why it was destroyed. Hospitality was destroyed, as well as life and property rights were ignored.

Pervasive homosexuality is a big negative for any nation. Homosexuality and lesbianism both undermine the divine institutions of marriage and family. Pervasive corruption of true norms and standards. If morality keeps changing, there is no morality. Good is called evil and evil is called good.

Fighting for homosexual rights may be seen as social justice, but there will be a imposition and a loss of freedom. There is always a price for the society to pay. God has also a judgmental viewpoint concerning the thinking and actions of the individual.

The most damning passage.

Rom. 1:26–27 For this reason God gave them up [or, over] to dishonorable [= degrading] passions. For their women exchanged natural relations for those that are contrary to nature; and the men likewise gave up natural relations with women and were consumed with passion for one another, men committing shameless acts with men and receiving in themselves the due penalty for their error.

Passion is the Greek noun παθος, which together with the rest is disgraceful sexuality. The natural relationship is abandoned for unnatural relationship. Men abandon the natural function of the woman and they burn in desire to one another.

Indecent is ασκημωσυνη which means indecent, shameful, shameless. There is the Biblical prohibition of homosexuality and lesbianism and there is a price to pay. There is a national price to pay as well when this is an all-pervasive status.

Many Christians think that the way to handle this is to carry signs and hit the streets. But believers should not do any of these things. Never must any harm come to others because of their sexual preference. Nothing will change the mind of a sinner about his sin except Bible doctrine.

Many today don't care what Scripture says. It is outdated and culturally driven and not divinely inspired. They think that it is written by those were steered by their current culture.

The Bible does not legitimize homosexuality. Such people see Christianity as the problem; that we are at fault here. These homosexual groups will suppress opposition and they become more and more vocal themselves and flagrant about their lifestyle.

One defense is to change the plain meaning of Rom. 1:26–27. False interpretations of this passage. Homosexuality is a perversion only under some circumstances. It is only perverse for a heterosexual engaging in homosexual relations; and they see natural referring only to natural homosexuals.

Certain people have a predilection toward homosexuality and they must affirm that this is a normal desire from birth. They profess that it is a part of their nature. It is instinctive; and if it is natural, how can it be wrong? That is their argument. That is one justification for the gay sexuality of communities today.

This Is a False Conclusion for Several Reasons:

1. Homosexuality is inborn; it is prenatal.
2. It is involuntary for those born that way. They can't help it.
3. So how can it be sin if no volition is involved?
4. That excludes the volition that is exercised in committing the sexual act.
5. Volition is always involved in consummating any sexual act.
6. In their view, it cannot be a sin or a perversion if there is a natural predilection for that life.
7. The counter is, the Bible simple calls it a sin; just as adultery or fornication are sins. It does not matter if they are innate or not.

The Bible is consistently clear that sex outside of marriage is a sin. Therefore, marriage is necessary for them to live within Biblical standards.

They contend that Paul is describing the unnatural side of homosexuality; and that he was unaware of the natural side of homosexuality.

They claim that there are external causes which cause them guilt. There are environmental causes for homosexuality. There can be things which occur in a child's life. Arrested development is one cause sometimes because of a bad love affair or pathological fear of the opposite sex. There are the vicious and criminal causes; the exploitation and abuse by others, which leaves a mark. So there are external causes. That is the unnatural sinful side. But all of these causes are external; they are brought on by an external agent. They are unnatural and forced. This has been a very effective argument, even in the homosexual world.

From human viewpoint, they present a logical argument. It is humanistic and anti-Biblical; but the problem is, this is not what Paul is saying. Paul does not distinguish between natural and unnatural homosexual activity.

The contention that homosexuality and lesbianism are natural to some. There are to counters to that interpretation and that argument. The physiological. All human beings have an innate desire for sexual activity. We can say with certainty that sex is a normal activity of human life. A sexual drive is instinctive for the preservation of the species. We do not reproduce in any other way. One-sex regeneration is not viable. Human reproduction is natural; not natural.

In the physiological way, homosexuality is unnatural as Paul describes it. There is legitimate sex within marriage. It can also be misused according to Scripture. The Biblically named misuses, adultery, fornication, homosexuality and lesbianism. Even if these are innate, they are still sins.

This is simply an issue of right and wrong actions based upon Scripture and divine viewpoint. We can justify anything with humanistic logical arguments. We care because we believe in Jesus Christ.

Sexual activity is to be kept within the boundaries of marriage between a husband and a wife. 1 man and 1 woman. That is the Biblical definition; otherwise, it is sin. There is no way around that. Exploration of sexuality must be kept within those limits. This is not a popular idea today. This is for protection of the soul, and for preservation of the human race. Sexual experimentation is harmful to the soul. Today, it is seen as necessary and that is wrong.

Marriage of homosexuals does not change the view of God. God's attitude does not change even if society changes. For procreation and recreation, God recognizes only 1 man and 1 woman in marriage.

If these sins are prohibited by God, then these sins can be resisted, whether there is a genetic part to it or not.

Attendance in Berachah. There are probably more in the 2nd service right now. “You don’t know what you’ve walked into.”

Luke 10:12 mentions the city of Sodom. Because of the things going on in our country and city, we need to learn the Biblical view of homosexuality and lesbianism.

Two Greek words. Degrading passions. Degrading is ατιμία; which modifies παθος.

Rom. 1:26–27 For this reason God gave them up [or, over] to dishonorable [= degrading] passions. For their women exchanged natural relations for those that are contrary to nature; and the men likewise gave up natural relations with women and were consumed with passion for one another, men committing shameless acts with men and receiving in themselves the due penalty for their error.

We have looked at both sides of this argument, and that those favoring homosexuality try to separate natural from unnatural.

If someone wants to subpoena these messages, Bobby is fine with that.

Men abandoned the natural function of the woman. Men with men committing indecent acts. It means shameless deeds, shameful acts. They receive the due penalty of their error. This has been misinterpreted, yanked out of context, and the plain meaning is stripped out by pro-homosexual Christians.

All homosexuality and lesbianism violates God’s law. Gays don’t like this because it interrupts what they want to do. There is a due penalty; and some do not like to hear this. Without question, the Bible pronounces homosexuality and lesbianism as sin. These things carry with them a punishment. Now, we come to a due penalty for individuals. This is where it becomes very personal.

There are lots of sins and evil practiced in this evil. Whatever the trend is of your own sin nature. We all sin. Why should homosexuality or lesbianism be singled out above any other sin? Isn’t rebound still valid for every sin? What makes this one stand out?

Rebound is effective for every and any sin. Works for mass murder and for a little white law. Paul murdered a lot of Christians. Rebound worked for him. Rebound allows us to move forward in the Christian life.

Lev. 18:22 You shall not lie with a male as with a woman; it is an abomination.

Men will not have sex like a man and a woman. Abomination is the feminine singular of Feminine_noun: tōw’êvâh (הַעֲוֹת) [pronounced to-gay-VAWH], meaning disgusting act, an abomination, abhorrent, an abhorrent act. Since abomination sounds so King Jamsey, I will stick with the latter two renderings. Until this point in time, this word has been used rather sparingly, found only in Gen. 43:32 46:34 Ex. 8:26 (in all cases, this was a situation of what the Egyptians found to be abhorrent; this makes me wonder if this might be a loan word). We will find it used throughout the rest of this chapter, once in Lev. 20:13 and then often in Deuteronomy. It is often used of the abhorrent acts of heathen (2Chron. 28:3 33:2). Strong's #8441 BDB #1072.

Deu 23:18 You shall not bring the fee of a prostitute or the wages of a dog into the house of the LORD your God in payment for any vow, for both of these are an abomination to the LORD your God.

Here, Caleb refers to another kind of dog. There is not to be the fee of a prostitute or the wages of a dog into the Tabernacle. Israel was to worship no other God. All of the sacrifices, all of the festivals, all were designed to illustrate soteriological doctrines. Israel men were told not to marry foreign women. This was specific to keep out those who did not worship Y^ehowah.

Molech required child sacrifice and Israel was involved in that too.

A votive offering was a legitimate offering. A votive offering is a payment of religious vows to the temple. There was not to be cultic prostitution, religious prostitution in the Tabernacle. Part of the worship of Baal involved prostitution. He was a god of fertility; and a way to appease the god was to have sex. People were to have sex in the tabernacle. This was a practice of idolaters in the phallic cults.

And both of these are an abomination to the Lord.

Jerusalem was leveled in 586 B.C.; hundreds of thousands of Jews were killed; and many marched off to Babylon as slaves.

Sodom was heathen to start with. Client nation Israel also could face this kind of destruction.

Lev. 20:13 If a man lies with a male as with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination; they shall surely be put to death; their blood is upon them.

This is an argument that many use against the truth of Scripture. Here, homosexual actions are punishable by death in Israel. A man who lies with a man as with a woman, they have both committed an abomination; and they will be put to death. That is a dangerous statement to make today. They bring on their own destruction by their own acts. The result is capital punishment.

Many say that the Bible is discredited for saying such a thing. We do not necessarily advocate this law. This law is not to be judged by today's standards. The point is, homosexuality is not just any old sin. This is God's Law, and God says that this is worthy of death.

“You can’t take this seriously. This prescribes death for homosexuals.”

Homosexuality and the Client Nation

1. The Mosaic Law was designed to reveal to Old Testament client nation Israel the standards of God for His people. He wanted to make certain that they understood what was right and wrong; and that cultic practices were not to be tolerated. The Canaanites practiced homosexuality as a religious rite. This was not enforced?
2. Israel was commanded to avoid and to abstain from such practices. “I prohibit you,” is what God is saying. Those involved in such rites were killed often by God.
3. To follow the Canaanite model would have destroyed Israel as God’s covenant people. The unconditional covenant made to Abraham. It defined the Jews as God’s people. If they got away from the worship of Y^ehowah, it would destroy Israel; so God would destroy them Himself.
4. The mandate for capital punishment for that practice was meant to reveal the severity of punishment appropriate to such a sin. The United States of America is a client nation to God; and this is becoming a pervasive problem and this is God’s problem. Those cycles of discipline may be coming.
5. The levitical statement that homosexuality is punishable by death gives understanding about what God thinks of this activity when He names it as an abomination abhorrent and destructive to His people and destructive to client nations. Today, we do not kill people for this sin; nor should we. That should not be advocated by any Christian. We can draw principles from this verse. This was classified as a capital offense. Such acts are wrong in the eyes of God. It does not meet His standard of behavior in this world. It draws a recompense; due penalty from God. Wm Blackstone: “Homosexuality against the expressed law of God to be so bad as to be capital.” This man’s precedence still affect legal thought and decisions today.

This has a great affect on client nations and on individuals.

Due penalty is homosexuality in itself is the punishment.

Lesson #0693

Rom. 1:26–27 Homosexual Special

11/19/2014 Wed

Article given to Bobby. Written by Chuck Swindal, who was the president of Dallas Seminary. Swindal began his spiritual life in Berachah Church. He goes back to the quansit hut.

You should know this, that in the last days, there will be very difficult times, for people will love only themselves and their money; they will be boastful and proud...they will consider nothing sacred; they will slander others and have no self-control.

Difficult times could be translated savage times. “We’re there; right now.” We are being threatened like no time before by any enemy that worships savagery, who glorified the death of the young. When you add this to Biblical ignorance, you have a real problem. Talk about a bridge to nowhere. The savagery is threatening our favorite to teach God's Word. Broadcasters are having more and more difficulty with Christian programming. Believers need to grow up.

The loss of interest in spiritual growth in our nation. The slop of emotion that is so prevalent today.

We have looked at several passages which have defined the nature of the sin of homosexuality. The main passage is:

Rom. 1:26–27 For this reason God gave them up to dishonorable passions. For their women exchanged natural relations for those that are contrary to nature; and the men likewise gave up natural relations with women and were consumed with passion for one another, men committing shameless acts with men and receiving in themselves the due penalty for their error.

We will cover this passage. God gave them over to degrading passions; disgraceful, shameful sexuality. Women exchanged natural for unnatural. They abandoned normal and acceptable sexuality before God. The men abandoned the natural desire of the women and are consumed in passion toward one another, committing shameless sexual acts with other men.

There are several passages in the Old Testament that also describe and define this sin. No sin precludes any unbeliever from accepting Jesus Christ as Savior. Christ died for the sins of all mankind. All men and women are souls for whom Christ died, without exception. Sin is no longer the issue for salvation. The only issue to the unbeliever is, what do you think of Christ?

For the believer, there is no sin that cancels salvation. Nor is there any sin that God does not forgive when rebound is used. There are some things which seem so heinous that it seems like they should never be forgiven; but God forgives all sins.

Rebound is recovery from sin. The individual believer who is a homosexual should be accepted in this church as long as they don't do anything untoward to others. We all have sin natures with trends. We all outgrow out sins as we advance spiritually. We progressively move away from sins.

Homosexuality is still classified as a degrading sin. It can be increasingly and effectively resisted as a person grows spiritually.

Lev. 18:22 and other passaged about homosexuality. The act is an abomination. Tovebah, which means abhorrent. That is a very emphatic and strong word. Homosexuality is particularly abhorrent in the eyes of God. It is so abhorrent to God that it is punishable by death in the Mosaic Law. We are not under the Mosaic Law. We do not and should not punish homosexuals for a capital crime.

Lev. 20:13 if there is a man who lies with a man as if a woman, both of them have committed a detestable act; they shall surely be put to death. Their blood guiltiness is upon themselves. They bring on their own destruction.

This is God's view of the activity of homosexuality. This helps us to understand what God thought about that activity. It is destructive to God's people; to their souls; to their spiritual advance. It is destructive to the individual practitioners in the same way. In a theocracy, this was rebellion against God; and rebellion like this was punishable. It was a warning to Israel to stay away from this sin.

Having said all of that, let's look at the point of Rom. 1:26–27. All sin especially pervasive sin is punishable by God; and punishment comes by God when it suits His purposes. God punishes the believer because He loves us and because he wants to correct us. We understand discipline and punishment in the spiritual life.

God does not have to punish homosexuality and lesbianism, even though He might. For the individual practitioner, there is a different sort of punishment that is not directly from God.

Rom. 1:26–27 For this reason God gave them up to dishonorable passions. For their women exchanged natural relations for those that are contrary to nature; and the men likewise gave up natural relations with women and were consumed with passion for one another, men committing shameless acts with men and receiving in themselves the due penalty for their error.

Aorist active indicative of paradidime. This means to give over, to hand over, to turn over; to deliver to, to give up a person. This does not mean that a person is given up on; but it is giving up a person to their own devices; to their own decisions. God turns them over to the consequences of their own actions. That is the consequences of the perversions that pervades their lives. This is a consequence of their punishment. They received in themselves.

Why God Has Them Punish Themselves

1. Hê autou is a reflexive pronoun.
2. It is correctly translated themselves, their own persons.
3. The point of the reflexive pronoun is the action expressed by the verb received, which refers back to the homosexual.
4. So he autou recognizes the subject as the agent of the receiving. They are receiving something, but what? They are not receiving this from God because this is reflexive.
5. The simply preposition en fits the reflexive emphasis and it gives insight into the due penalty, which is not from God directly.
6. The root meaning of en is within.
7. Within themselves, within their own persons.
8. The reflexive understanding of this phrase is this: what the homosexual or lesbian receives in the way of due penalty is from within themselves. It does not come from God.

9. The punishment is innate. It derives from within themselves. That is fascinating as to what happens in the life of the homosexual.
10. This consequence is caused from the perversion in their own souls.
11. They are self-evident. The unnaturalness of it is self-evident. The punishment is innate because it is self-evident to them that it is unnatural. They do not live in the realm of the natural human being.
12. Homosexuality is the punishment. The sin is the punishment itself. They are their own punishment. Their actions are their own punishment.
13. That is the due penalty for their error.
14. The penalty is a torturous self-punishment from within. It is from the inside out; not from the outside in.
15. In other words, they are confused in their souls as a result of their degrading abhorrent shameful unnatural acts. That is confusion in their own souls. They have rejected the design of their creator, God.
16. Marriage is the designated boundary of sexuality. This is where sexuality is the greatest. There is no real satisfaction in that. The real satisfaction is the expression of a husband and wife for each other; and done right, it gets better.
17. So there is a terrible confusion and guilt in their lives. It is inherent. It is inbuilt because of their actions.
18. That confusion is the source of never-ending turmoil. It does not matter how they rationalize their actions, or demand acceptance or become ore flagrant or whatever; they continue to be confused as long as they are practioners of homosexuality. God does not have to visit His wrath upon them, because they are filled with guilt, shame and disgrace. Deep down, it is there every day.

Lev 20:13 If a man lies with a male as with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination; they shall surely be put to death; their blood is upon them .

Their crime is upon them. This is also found with bestiality and with incest.

The Penalty for the Sin of Homosexuality

1. Their penalty is inherent guilt and shame by their own choice.
2. The punishment of soul is an intuitive guilt due to the practice of perversion. It is unnatural. Therefore, it is always a constant understanding of the unnaturalness of it all.
3. The guilt and shame is the due punishment for these sins.
4. The fact that God gives them over to their own due penalty involves their choice.
5. Homosexuality is not an involuntary act as if it were natural. That is contrary to the plain meaning of Rom. 1:26–27
6. If God gives them over to their own choice in the matter of perversion, whether there is a genetic predisposition or not, the final outcome rests upon individual volition. It is still a choice and there is still a penalty associated with it.

7. The due punishment of inherent guilt stems from the decision and then the practice; succumbing to the temptation and then acting upon it.

The homosexual acquires a soul in turmoil. They reject completely the divine institutions designed by God: marriage between one man and one woman; and there is no deviation from that definition. Also what goes along with this is a family.

Their problem is, they live in an entirely unnatural state. This is inherently evident to them. It cannot be escaped. No matter how mainstream the practice becomes. It is vehemently denied that there is anything wrong with it.

A person who says what Bobby says to the press would be classified as the most intolerant Christian ever. This is what the Bible says. When you have dealt directly with someone who is homosexual or lesbian, it can be heartbreaking in many ways. When there is a family member like this, they try to accept them as normal; but none of this changes the definition.

What is your responsibility toward the homosexual? How do you handle it?

1. The more mainstream it becomes, the more this indicates national degeneracy; and due penalty to the individual.
2. As a bitter sideline, the more guilt, the more vocal and strident is the justification of the lifestyle.
3. The more vocal the response, it is an itch that cannot be scratched.
4. That strident activism is an attempt to relieve the turmoil of soul. It is inescapable and inherent.
5. They have been turned over by God to that soul turmoil. These circumstances are hard to live with.

Lesson #0694

Luke 10: Life of Christ

11/20/2014 Thurs

Bobby does not want a nod-to-God Thanksgiving service.

Natural versus unnatural in Rom. 1:26–27

Women changing the natural function for the unnatural. Men abandon the natural function of the woman for other men.

Rom. 1:26–27 For this reason God gave them up to dishonorable passions. For their women exchanged natural relations for those that are contrary to nature; and the men likewise gave up natural relations with women and were consumed with passion for one another, men committing shameless acts with men and receiving in themselves the due penalty for their error.

When a person is involved with the unnatural aspect of it all, then there is the due penalty, which is not a penalty directly from God. God gave them over; God allowed them the pursuit of the unnatural. He gives them over to the consequences of their own perversions. They receive within their own persons the due penalty.

A Few Points on this Due Penalty

1. The due punishment is something which comes to them innately. It is within them. It is a part of their homosexuality.
2. It derives from within themselves. In pursuing the unnatural, the penalty comes from their conscious, even when their conscious is seared by their perversion, because they are living a lifestyle of the unnatural.
3. It is the personal torturous perversion in their own soul. They make a choice for their own punishment.
4. God does not need to punish this sin unless there is a great national crisis.
5. Therefore, homosexuality is the punishment, in and of itself. It is an inevitable self-punishment as a result of the unnatural lifestyle.
6. The unnaturalness causes confusion and guilt and that is embedded in their souls, and they cannot get rid of it no matter how much they try, even if they justify their actions to themselves. The unnaturalness of their actions is inescapable. You cannot escape your own punishment. There will always be uncertainty and chaos in the soul of the practicing homosexual or lesbian. The degradation is the penalty; the shame is the penalty. The conscience is not dead; it is still there. There is always the modicum of doubt in the soul. It is that pursuit of that degradation that is the penalty.

Summary Points

1. The fact that God gives them over to their own due penalty involves their own choice. God does not just give them over; they choose.
2. Whether homosexuality is genetic disposition or not, the final outcome rests upon individual volition. It does not matter if they are genetically predisposed. Same principle even if there is a homosexual gene. Bobby does not believe there are genetics involved.
3. The due punishment of inherent guilt comes from the practice. There is no due punishment if you do not succumb to temptation.
4. So, if the choice is made for the lifestyle of the unnatural; then inevitable comes the soul in disturbance. You have a disturbed soul.
5. The practice alienates the homosexual from a natural life. They cannot touch it. They want a natural life. They want to be accepted; but they live in an unnatural way; opposed to the divine design. That leads to frustration and despair. That describes their lives.
6. Whether a society a culture approves of the practice of the homosexual lifestyle or homosexual marriage, the homosexual is always aware that his acts are unnatural; they are aberrant. They are outside the bounds set for human relationships. They know a man marrying a man is unnatural. It is against God's design.

7. In the end, they live a lifestyle of total contradiction; their life is a contradiction. This is why this sin is so singled out why it was the due penalty in the New Testament. This tells us what God thinks of it. God warned Israel not to become involved in this sin. You destroy your own soul.

The Law showed Israel how far they fell from God's standards. It is critical to abstain from aberrant practices.

Men don't make good women; and women do not make good men in the realm of the most basic relationship. Often one man takes on the role of the woman as a responder or a woman takes on the role as the initiator. The natural responder and initiator is missing. Yet there are many misguided homosexuals who believe that if society accepted their lifestyle; if society would just say it is okay, that their souls would be at rest. They want to be accepted; they want to be okayed.

This explains one of the reasons why they are so politically active, why they went after the American Psychiatric Association; and why they demand to have homosexual marriage recognized. This is why they have gay pride events.

Disgraceful; dishonorable. The deeper the commitment to homosexuality, the more frantic they become in self-justification. So we see today the strident activism of the gay community and the vicious, lightening reaction to anyone who says these things. Christians who say this on television are castigated by the homosexual community. This is the due punishment.

If they become accepted as normal and natural, the inner stigma will remain. It will always be unresolved. It is unresolved in their own conscience; unresolved in their own souls. Think about committing that sin over and over and knowing that it is unnatural; and never being able to relieve yourself from that inner voice. It is true because of the nature of the degradation.

Closing Points?

1. The urge the temptation to indulge in homosexual relations can be resisted. The argument is, if I am predisposed, then I cannot resist it.
2. What is prohibited by God can be resisted.
3. If it does occur, if this sin occurs, it is handled like any other sin. For the believer, it is rebound and keep moving. Rebound is not a license to continue the sin. It does not do any good to confess and re-commit and re-commit the sin.
4. As you grow spiritually, the greater your spiritual advance; and the your temptation to sin is reduced. It is not hopeless. When people give themselves over to some things; they say, "I can't help myself; it is like a drug." There is a point at which you are hooked. This is also true in the homosexuality realm. Drug addicts can make the decision to dry up. It is entirely possible.
5. As a believer continues to grow and apply doctrine, even though an urge is present, and it may never go away—we all have the urge to sin. But the urge can be subdued and defeated, like any sin can. We will never completely stop sinning. But we can outgrow sins that dog us the most. We have the propensity, but it can be defeated.

6. There is no soul-guilt or soul-confusion and turmoil when the lascivious trend of the sin nature is successfully resisted. Guilt and anguish of the soul is relieved.

The last thing bobby wants to cover...

What Is the Christian's Response Growing Homosexual Movement

1. We are all sinners. Christ died for all of our sins; including the sin of homosexual activity. The sin nature is there.
2. We must not be self righteous, hypocritical, or judgmental.
3. Leaven the punishment to the law of volitional responsibility. There is nothing that we can do that is greater than they can do to themselves. Always leave judgment to the justice of God and to the laws of volitional responsibility.
4. We never have license in the Christian life to berate, render condemnation or punishment to homosexuals and lesbians. Yet there are many Christians who want to show them the error of their ways.
5. Only a personal renovation of thinking can accomplish recovery.
6. A doctrinal perspective is necessary. Our greatest response is the principles of doctrine. Those in our soul and something else.
7. It is also important for us to preclude our own self-righteousness between the activity and the temptation. We are all tempted to sin. It is only when we choose to do so. We tend to place a stigma on the homosexual and the lesbian; but we would never place this stigma upon ourselves. How we respond to them is critical. They cannot find a solution unless it is presented in a certain way.
8. The temptation for homosexuality and lesbianism can be resisted just like heterosexual sins. Do not be confused by the genetic excuse.
9. The key is impersonal love. That is the way that we must think about any person who is abhorrent to us.

The Attitude of Impersonal Love Directed Toward the Homosexual or Lesbian

1. Impersonal love is unconditional, regardless of the status of the person, regardless of the shamefulness of their actions.
2. Impersonal love emphasizes a personal virtue and a non-judgmental attitude.. It is about your virtue and not about their degeneracy. Your job is to bring the gospel of salvation to them and show by your actions what a spiritual life can do.
3. You can love all people with impersonal love, whether or not you love them personally or even like them; or even find what they practice repugnant. Impersonal love does not go away. That is the power of impersonal love. It is the most powerful love that there is.
4. Impersonal love overlooks sins and faults in people. It does not condone or agree with, but it overlooks. It does not take personal offense. You cannot afford to take personal offense against what they do. Impersonal love does not hate or demand reform without the inner change. A sinner does not change unless it comes from the inside out. The renovation must come from the soul. Impersonal love overlooks sin and faults in people; and it does not hate or demand reform without the inner change.

5. Impersonal love holds no grudge or resentment against anyone for their unnaturalness. Self-righteousness is a sin; it is a terrible mental attitude sin.
6. Impersonal love is the Christian attitude toward homosexuals and lesbians; that is the attitude. If you do not have impersonal love, you will show your disgust and your hatred.
7. When a believer operates from impersonal love, he will be unencumbered with mental attitude sins. The hypocrisy, the anger, the hatred, the bitterness; it goes away. How easy it is to become angry and bitter. What good does that do? Does it change what is going on in Congress. You can even have impersonal love for politicians.
8. With impersonal love, you will lose control of your temper less and less when confronted with this Biblically described perversion.
9. With impersonal love, a Christian can impartially and objectively view the conflict in every strata of our society, concerning homosexuality and lesbianism, both individually and corporately.
10. With impersonal love, the observation and proliferation of corruption and perversion will not interrupt your relaxed mental attitude. If you don't have a relaxed mental attitude, that is your soul turmoil.
11. The believer with impersonal love will show tolerance toward all kinds of people, even though their opinions, convictions, sexual preferences and actions may be repulsive to us. Having does not mean agreement with their thinking or actions. You cannot defeat the homosexual/gay lobby with politics. You may disagree with who they are and what they are, we still utilize impersonal love.
12. A Christian can despise the evil without hating the person. You don't love the sin; but you have impersonal love toward the person.
13. Pity the soul turmoil and confusion that reigns for the homosexual and lesbian. Instead of being repulsed, pity them. You understand what they go through.
14. Impersonal love is mandated for all believers towards all people. That includes homosexuals and lesbians.

This completes the study of homosexuality and lesbianism.

Lesson #0695

Luke 10: Life of Christ

11/23/2014 1Sunday

We have completed homosexuality and lesbianism. We need to know this because this is such a hot topic. Bobby rattles off the passages that we have studied.

Luke 10:12 I tell you, it will be more bearable on that day for Sodom than for that town.

Jesus is about to depart from Galilee and end His Galilean ministry. This is the final year of His earthly life. He wants to stop in cities that He has never before visited. He sent 70 disciples out to proclaim Him. Some of these cities would reject the disciples and their message, which was tantamount to reject Jesus Christ Himself. "If that happens, then wipe the dust off your feet and get out of town."

Jesus tells us what will happen to these cities that reject Him. This is what is in store for those who do not believe.

There is a connection between the punishment and the evil of that city. The punishment for Sodom was terrible. Whatever city that you enter and they do not receive you; the judgment is worse than that one on Sodom. God rained down a sulfurous fire; so, how much worse can God's judgment be? The fire will be eternal.

Luke 10:12 I tell you, it will be more bearable on that day for Sodom than for that town.

A sulphur first clings to you and burns until there is nothing left. It is like napalm.

On Thanksgiving, we might call this a slow roast. It is too horrible to contemplate; but it is not a metaphor for separation. The fires are real.

Recall that James and John wanted to bring fire down on some cities in Samaria. Those who reject Jesus Christ will bring down an eternal fire on them.

After Jesus describes this judgment, He pronounces another judgment. There are cities that He has already visited and He spent so much time in these places. The language is comparable to the language which He uses to describe the judgment of Sodom.

One of Bobby's friends who witnesses, says, "Just believe in Jesus for a moment; that is all it takes, and you will not have to worry about hell."

They saw the mighty works of Jesus Christ and they rejected His works. They rejected the simple message of their own Messiah.

Matt. 11:20 Then he began to denounce the cities where most of his mighty works had been done, because they did not repent.

Matt. 11:21 "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

Matt. 11:22 But I tell you, it will be more bearable on the day of judgment for Tyre and Sidon than for you.

Matt. 11:23 And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to heaven? You will be brought down to Hades. For if the mighty works done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

Jesus has gone all over this land and has delivered judgment upon them because He has done great miracles there.

Jewish rejection foreshadows the Church Age. Gentiles would accept Jesus Christ and many Jews would reject Him. Jesus speaks of gentile cities.

Matt. 11:24 But I tell you that it will be more tolerable on the day of judgment for the land of Sodom than for you."

Matthew and Luke did not collaborate on this. They wrote this at different times in different places.

Chorazin, Bethsaida and Capernaum are places where Jesus had performed many miracles. They have even less excuse.

Matthew adds Tyre and Sidom to the mix. Devastation is promised for these 3 cities. It would be even worse for these 3 Jewish cities as compared to the 3 gentile cities.

Why did Jesus choose these cities?

Chorazin is only mentioned in these passages. It was found 2.5 miles north of Capernaum. Jesus presented Himself many times. It was a short walk from Capernaum. His miracles were often shown there and rejected.

If you walk in that area, you can still see the wreckage of the synagogue. There is no longer a city in that place. There are not even ruins remaining.

Bethsaida was probably the hometown of Andrew, Peter and Philip. Jesus spent much time around the fishermen and around the sea; and they had all presented the gospel to many in that area.

Finally, Jesus mentions Capernaum, and this was where He lived during the great Galilean ministry. The people had been given innumerable opportunities to believe in Him. They saw the most miracles and they had the most contact with Him. "You Capernaum, who has been exalted to heaven, will be brought down to Hades." They hear the message over and over again, and they just say no.

The Lord has not changed; His message has not changed. We studied the fifth cycle of discipline, and that last cycle which is destruction. We are possibly in the 3rd or 4th cycle of discipline.

“Woe to you who have rejected Me; who have seen My mighty works and yet rejected Me.”
We live in the great nation of freedom and we can so easily lose it. This is a message for today. There is more to say about this.

Lesson #0696

Luke 10: Life of Christ

11/23/2014 2Sunday

Jesus mentions 3 Jewish cities and 3 gentile cities. The gentile cities were in better shape than the Jewish cities. That is a very serious blow to the Jewish ego. The Jews hated the gentile people; they hated them. Now they are being compared unfavorably to these gentiles?

We have already looked at the 3 Jewish cities.

Tyre and Sidon were very large Greek cities; Phœnician cities along the coast of the Mediterranean Sea. They were not far from the Jewish cities.

The 3 Gentile Cities

1. These cities were well-known to the Jews. They were frequently denounced by Old Testament prophets for their Baal worship. Baal worship included some very degenerate practices.
2. These Jews knew about these heathen cities.
3. These heathen cities were renown for their degenerate idolatry and for their rejection of the Jewish religion.
4. They could not be further removed from Israel's religion. They are also the opponents of Jesus Christ. Our Lord was comparing them.
5. In the eyes of the Jews, these people were totally lost. They were hopeless. The Jews wanted them to be incinerated.
6. We already know what the problem was in Sodom; they were abominable to the Lord.
7. These 3 cities was a target of disdain and hatred by the Jews, more so than any set of cities by the Jews. They hated gentiles and gentile cities even more than Samaria.
8. These are perfect cities to use to announce the rejection of Jesus Christ by the Jews.

Matt. 11:22 But I tell you, it will be more bearable on the day of judgment for Tyre and Sidon than for you.

Matt. 11:23 And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to heaven? You will be brought down to Hades. For if the mighty works done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

Matt. 11:24 But I tell you that it will be more tolerable on the day of judgment for the land of Sodom than for you."

Had these miracles been done in these gentile cities, they would have had a different reaction than that in these Jewish cities. Tyre and Sidon would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. The privileged and entitled Jews as compared to the condemned and heathen gentiles. They would have changed their minds, had they had the same privileges as the Jews. This was a comparison that put the Jews' teeth on edge.

Luke 10:13 "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes."

Repent is a very important word in the New Testament. It has great meaning, and yet it is so misunderstood. Repentance is a change of mind; not an emotional reaction. Your sins have already been forgiven. The issue is believe on the Lord Jesus Christ. Metanoëō is a change of mind. Repent in a salvation context always refers to a change of attitude; a change of mind. Mark 12:41 Luke 15:7 Acts 17:30. This is where we find this word.

These gentile cities would have changed their minds; they would have changed their attitudes toward Jesus Christ. The Jewish cities, where Jesus had been and taught, rejected Him. The ears of the Jews burned because of this.

These gentiles would have donned sackcloth and ashes, after repenting. Sackcloth was not very pleasant. For those of you who love clothes, this would not be one to try on. A very rough fabric made from the short hairs of camels. These hairs stick into your skin. The repentant person would put on a sackcloth robe, and it was itchy to wear. The wearer was always aware that this was on. Why would they do this? This would express the attitude of grief and penance. It is similar to water baptism. It is a testimony to salvation.

The Jews often used sackcloth and ashes to show their sorrow and grief. When David lost his son, he put on sackcloth and ashes. It was grief. The Jews understood this image. The gentiles would do what the Jews would do. This was a demonstration of a changed mind.

Ashes were another demonstrative form of repentance. We do a little of this: Ash Wednesday. "Oh, come on, now, the gentiles would do that? How can you suggest that the gentiles would do that?" This is a tremendous dig on these Jews.

What about this repentance that would have taken place. The most heathen of heathen would have repented. Does Jesus mean that they would have unequivocally repent? No, He does not mean, had He shown up, they would have repented.

"Well, there are so many who have never heard of Jesus Christ." There are plenty of people who have never heard of Jesus Christ. If there is any positive volition in a people at all, it is absolutely necessary and that message will get to them.

Adinara Judson was heading one way, but he ended up in India, and thousands listened to him and accepted Jesus Christ. David Livingston wandering around Africa. He brought the message and he opened up parts of Africa to missionary work.

If Tyre and Sidon Would Not Have Really Repented, What Does He Mean?

1. Jesus is using these gentile cities as a foil. This is a comparison to the 3 Jewish cities.
2. He uses these 3 cities for a specific purpose, to shame the Jewish cities. They were being unfavorably compared to the gentiles.
3. The comparative adjective anekthos which means more indicates that this is a comparison. Comparisons do not always have to be one-to-one; nor do they have to be true.
4. It is the contrast that Jesus is emphasizing. This is not a true change of mind among the gentiles.
5. The point is, the Jews did not repent even when they saw and heard His message and they observed the miracles. They refused; they rejected Him.
6. By comparison, there was a greater consequence to the Jews for their rejection than there was to the gentiles. It sounds like there are some who are more condemned than others. He is not saying that gentiles will get more of a break. What sense does He mean it will be more tolerable? Will the Jews be punished more than gentiles, because they are God's chosen people? Judgment is judgment; and when it is God's judgment, then there is no difference.
7. The comparison by Jesus is hyperbole so that the Jews can fully understand the consequences of their rejections.
8. Nothing could be more devastating than Jews to be considered. These Jews were at the bottom of the barrel, when they should be at the top. They had sunk to the lowest place.

So What Does it Mean?

1. Their judgment will not be more tolerable than anyone.
2. More tolerable does not mean that one group suffers less punishment than another. Punishment is punishment.
3. What does it mean here? There will be a greater frustration at the Great White Throne.
4. They were so near but so far because of their own volition. This is like a football team who had odds on their side, and they are winning until the very end, when they suddenly lose when they should not have lost. Jesus is reminding them of what they had; and what was being provided to them.

There is a side question. The possibility of degrees of punishment. Does everyone get the same punishment? Or is one part of hell worse than another?

Luke 10:13 "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes."

Luke 10:14 But it will be more bearable in the judgment for Tyre and Sidon than for you.

Lesson #0697

Matt. 11:20–24 Life of Christ

11/30/2014 1Sunday

We can study God's attributes individually. We are going to look at the justice of God and His Son. There are many cities that Jesus has not gone into. He has 70 men preparing the way for Him. Some of these cities would reject the 70 or some of them; and this means that these people reject Him. The judgment on these cities would be worse than the disaster that befell the city of Sodom, way back in the Old Testament. Jesus says it will be more tolerable in that day for Sodom than for these cities that reject Jesus Christ.

Matt. 11:24 But I tell you that it will be more tolerable on the day of judgment for the land of Sodom than for you."

Sodom's utter destruction would somehow be more tolerable than the judgment on the other cities. How could it be more tolerable in Sodom?

Matt. 11:20 Then he began to denounce the cities where most of his mighty works had been done, because they did not repent.

There are cities which He has visited and He has worked most of His great miracles. He spent the most time and proclaimed the most truth; yet, even then, those cities refused to accept Him.

People often say, "If I would have seen these things, I would not have rejected Jesus Christ." But these people saw exactly who Jesus Christ was; saw exactly what He could do, and they did not express faith in Him.

Then Jesus names some specific cities. He repeats the idea of a more tolerable judgment on some cities than upon others. These are predominantly Jewish cities. Then Jesus mentions Tyre and Sidon, which are notorious heathen gentile cities.

Matt. 11:21 "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

The Jews demonstrated a change in mind by repenting in sackcloth and ashes. And this was unheard of among gentiles. This is not something that they would do.

Matt. 11:22 But I tell you, it will be more bearable on the day of judgment for Tyre and Sidon than for you.

There is a time set for this judgment.

Matt. 11:23 And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to heaven? You will be brought down to Hades. For if the mighty works done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

Capernaum was the headquarters of the Lord Jesus Christ for several years. They saw Him more than anyone else. This was a major city in the life of Jesus Christ. “You will be brought down to Hades.”

Matt. 11:24 But I tell you that it will be more tolerable on the day of judgment for the land of Sodom than for you.”

There is a judgment coming for Jews and Gentiles. This is a repeat of Luke 10:12. The gentile cities did not and would not repent. They would be judged as well. Jesus is making a comparison for effect. Secondly, He was shaming the Jews for their rejection of Him.

Would their unbelief more tolerable? Is it a racial thing? Will the Jews be punished more than gentiles? The answer is unequivocally no. The day of judgment is horrendous.

What Is Jesus Talking about Here? Why Is He Saying This?

1. Jesus is using hyperbole here. He does not just give out dry facts. He uses all sorts of metaphors and figures of speech and sarcasm, so that we know what He is doing.
2. Jesus is giving them a final warning to change their minds. “You are going to really get pasted if you don’t repent.”
3. Nothing could be more devastating than be considered less than gentiles. Jesus is trying to insult them.
4. Jesus is emphasizing the bottom of the barrel status of the rejecting Jews. They are the lowest of the low. How could they reject their own Messiah standing right in front of them?
5. This is an illustration, an insult, that ought to shake up these obstinate legalists. Moses called the people in the desert arrogant and stiff-necked. Judgement for rejection of Christ will not be more tolerable for anyone. This is hyperbole.

There is no lesser punishment for one group than another. But there will be great frustration for the Jews at the moment of judgment. They are so near; but they are so far. They knew all of this, yet they failed to believe. They enjoyed great privilege. The punishment is emphasized because they rejected Him. The emphasis is again upon a great punishment. The judgment does not mean that God deserted all Jews to whom God made an iron-clad promise to in the past. There are believing Jews and there will be more in the future. There will be no loss of birthright.

Could there be a greater or lesser degree of punishment for those who do not believe in Jesus? This is a notion held by some denominations. Even believers who are less than good people, they are said that they will endure punishment which is meted out by degrees.

The human answer is, there are degrees of punishment. This makes perfect sense to us as people. We try to make the punishment fit the crime. So we understand degrees of punishment. That is a part of our justice system. This is not God's approach.

God's Absolute Standards and Our Relative Standards

1. Our relative standards are not God's absolute standards. He is absolute and we are relative.
2. The crime of unbelief violates the absolute standards of God's justice and righteousness. This is why Jesus appeared in the first place. He takes care of God's standards for us.
3. God's absolute standards demand an absolute response to failing the standard of faith in Christ.
4. God cannot give a lighter sentence for rejecting the work of His Son.
5. His justice is compromised if He gives a lighter sentence of a capital crime. He cannot give us a break.

What about God's mercy? Won't He give us a bit of a break? The day of judgment, when they get there, there is no appeal. But what about degrees of punishment for those destined for hell? Some of them are good people in the human realm. There is not one part of hell that is cooler; or another place for those who really bad people. Judgment is judgment.

What about God's mercy, if their offenses were lesser? This is the idea of purgatory. Burn those sins out and then the reprieve comes. But this does not fit with the justice of God. God's love and mercy cannot override and removed the standards of His justice.

The key is the cross, and that is where our sins were all judged. We have a rejecting person. These are the people that Jesus was talking about. They have a relative righteousness. God purchased their righteousness through the righteousness of His Son.

If God was just going to forgive everyone, what is the point of the cross? The sacrifice of His Son would not have been necessary.

God's justice cannot be set aside. We have a day of salvation and a day of judgment.

Closing Points

1. There are no greater or lesser degrees of sin at the final judgment.
2. Sins are not why unbelievers are judged. Their human good forms the basis for their indictment. They must change their mind about Jesus Christ. His justice must judge based upon our response to the cross.

3. People are not judged for sin, because Jesus paid the penalty.
4. Sin is no longer the issue in punishment.
5. Punishment is for rejection of Christ.
6. Therefore, the greater or lesser evil of a person's sins does not matter. They have been wiped out anyway between us and God.
7. Not one personal sin will be addressed at the judgment of the Great White Throne. There is no partial acceptance; and there is no partial rejection of Christ. You either do it or you don't. Your choice carries an absolute decision in a point of time.

Lesson #0698 Matt. 11:21–24 Luke 10:15 Life of Christ 11/30/2014 2Sun.

Matt. 11:21 "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

Matt. 11:22 But I tell you, it will be more bearable on the day of judgment for Tyre and Sidon than for you.

Matt. 11:23 And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to heaven? You will be brought down to Hades. For if the mighty works done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

All unbelievers will be judged and there is just the Lake of Fire for eternity. This is nothing more or less tolerable for the Lake of Fire. It is a judgment too intolerable for our imagination. It is not about sins; it is not about how good or bad an unbeliever is; it is all about unbelief. It is all about the Jews who have rejected Jesus Christ. There will also be degrees of frustration at that judgment. There will be degrees of frustration based upon being so near and so far away. The Jews barely missed the Messiah, presented to them in the Law and rejected by them in the flesh. They saw His miracles; they heard His message; these Jews knew the prophecies and Jesus fulfilled them.

These people are like a football team who is defeated at the very last second, and they were favored to win. They were supposed to win, and yet they gave it up at the end. This is much more frustrating. Those who are religious; those who expect salvation based upon their works and deeds feel close to God. "Note what I did, God; I fed the hungry at Thanksgiving. I only say nice things to people." Or the idea, "I don't hurt anybody."

These are the people who are favored by God to win their salvation. They are oh-so-close. They are going to have a rude awakening when they appear at the Great White Throne on the day of judgment. They may see themselves as doing everything to please God.

There are lots of people like this. "There is no heaven or hell; let me live it up while I am here." is one view. However, the Jews know about heaven and hell; they know about God; they know about their relationship to God.

There is an absoluteness to God's character. His character is not flexible. It is as inflexible as you can imagine. But His love is also inflexible. His righteousness is inflexible as well.

Those who overlook the cross, but who are good people, they will experience great frustration.

Jesus slaps these Jews hard. Wake up or be judged harshly. You are so near, but your rejection of Me puts you far.

Pontius Pilate had a hand in the crucifixion as well. Too many justify antisemitism by calling the Jews Christ-killers.

It is likely at this point that Jesus is addressing the Jews and the disciples; and Jesus is foreshadowing the great gentile response of the Church Age. It is the gentiles to whom Paul was directed; they would readily accept Jesus. Often His missionary work resulted in gentiles believing in Christ. The Jews will find themselves on the outside looking in.

We are in the Church Age today; and there are Jews and gentiles in the body of Christ. There is no difference. Every tub stands on its own bottom.

Another wrong notion that the church is spiritual Israel. We have a set of promises for us; but the Jews have not been overlooked. The believing Jews will be regathered in the land. Jesus Christ will rule over His people, the Jews. We are not heirs to the promises made to Abraham.

Matt. 11:24 But I tell you that it will be more tolerable on the day of judgment for the land of Sodom than for you."

Everyone then and now understood the city of Sodom and just how evil that city was. The Jews were so well aware of the fate of heathen Sodom, and it disgusted them. And yet, Jesus Christ was saying to them, "You are that evil."

Religion is the devil's ace trump. Islam is exactly the opposite of the grace of God. This is a religion of fate. God has a plan that is unequivocal and set in concrete for anyone. Whether or not you go to heaven or hell is all predetermined. There is no love and no mercy. There is no Christ involved; there is no grace.

Eastern religions are where man turns inward and tries to find God within himself. There are plenty of Christians who think the same way.

The Jews heard the message and saw the miracles, and they rejected Jesus Christ. This was the most jolting thing that Jesus could say to them, that they would be judged even greater than the gentiles.

To whom much is given, much is expected. This means something. The Jews are God's chosen people. They should have recognized and accepted their Messiah. But, for the most part, they did not. They stuck to their religious legalism. The Mosaic Law showed them how far short they fell from the justice of God. They kept the Law for salvation; and the Law showed them that they needed salvation.

The Jews rejected Jesus Christ because of their religious legalism. That is the sum total of it. They knew the Messiah was coming; they expected the Messiah to come. They knew the Suffering Servant passage. They knew this stuff and they crucified Him and they never caught into it. They failed to recognize Who He was.

This would constitute their shame and their shock when they stand before the Great White Throne. They will have untold regret. Who wouldn't? It will do them no good. There is no repentance at the Great White Throne. They cannot say, "Oh, you really are the Savior. Okay, I believe."

Jews today scoff at the name of Jesus Christ; they laugh at Him being the Messiah. "How dare you think that Jesus is our Messiah?" They miss the point and they rejected the gospel of grace. They do the Old Testament rituals which picture Jesus Christ. There will be no heaven in their eternal future.

How incumbent it is for people to hear about the grace of God. They need to hear it and not to reject it at the Great White Throne.

The believer will not see this judgment throne; he will be evaluated on the basis of his works.

Luke 10:16 "The one who hears You hears Me, and the one who rejects You rejects me, and the one who rejects Me rejects Him who sent Me."

Those who reject the message rejects Christ; those who accept the message accept Him. Do you think that God looks at your good deeds and says, "I want him; he's my kind of guy." There is no other pathway to God except through Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ finishes His thought about the Jews who have rejected Him. If they reject the 70, then they reject the message of Jesus Christ. This is how it works today.

Luke 10:17 is all about the evangelists returning from their mission. They complete their mission and come back to the LORD. Now we will see the difference between emotion and doctrine.

Lesson #0699

Luke 10:17 Life of Christ

12/3/2014 Wed

Bobby says, this is the 70 who returned with joy; they were ecstatic; they were pumped up. They returned to Christ in this emotional state with the wrong emphasis.

Luke 10:17 The seventy-two returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us in your name!"

They did not really come back with a smart report on the cities and what their response was. They were all hyped up over what they were able to do. They were excited about the miracles that they perform. "Look at what I can do; it's wonderful!"

They did understand why the demons were subject to them. They were subject to the disciples because of His name.

There is nothing wrong with emotion; emotion is involved with love, beauty, music. But when emotion drives the train, it becomes a problem. An emotion can cause a great self-centeredness.

Luke 10:17 The seventy-two returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us in Your name!"

So what will Jesus say?

Luke 10:18 And he said to them, "I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven.

Well, there is a connection here, but what is going on here? Why the 70 had some authority. Jesus has seen Satan fall from heaven like lightning. Jesus is refocusing them on the right things. Let's refocus on Me rather than upon you.

Satan falls from heaven and He fell fast. This is a powerful reference. The Lord is referring to an incident in eternity past which begins the entire Angelic Conflict.

This is described in Isa. 14:13–14

Isa. 14:13 You said in your heart, 'I will ascend to heaven; above the stars of God I will set my throne on high; I will sit on the mount of assembly in the far reaches of the north;

Satan did have access to heaven, so what does it mean for him to say, "I will ascend to heaven."

Isa. 14:14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will make myself like the Most High.'

Satan wants to ascend; he wants to gain power; he wants to gain ascendancy. He wanted to go up, but he fell.

Before the creation of man, Satan lived in the abode of God. We know from Ezek. 28:14 that Satan was the most amazing creature in terms of beauty and power. However, he was dissatisfied. He had a thought in his head. Arrogance reared its ugly head.

The results were, Satan decided to exalt himself. Don't you think that Satan knew Who God was? Doesn't he know God's power? Satan is not stupid; he is a genius. If he wanted to replace God's rule, he had to do something. He wanted to be like the Most High. He wanted to seize greater power than he already had.

Satan wanted to be worshiped and honored by angelic creation as they worship God. He wanted the absolute authority which God had over the angels. Satan was power-mad. He went ahead and caused a revolution against divine authority. That is when the Angelic Conflict began. Satan in his arrogance had to justify this revolution, as he needed the support of the angels, if he was to rule them. A third of the angels followed Satan.

Satan thought in his own beauty and power, "Am I not the most beautiful creature in the universe, so why can't I rule over all of it?" He wanted to rule it all. This power lust that he demonstrated would disrupt the angelic creation, but it would later disrupt human life. He will disrupt until he is put into hell.

God could have thrown Satan immediately into the Lake of Fire. Briefly, Satan was judged when he revolted, so he appealed the judgment. "How could a loving God cast His Own creatures into hell?" God heard his appeal and decided to rebut it. God reveals through us His love and His justice and righteousness.

We are still in the middle of it. The doctrine of the Angelic Conflict answers all kinds of questions for us.

Summary Points on What Has Happened So Far

1. In Luke 10:18, Jesus Christ refers to the opening moment of the Angelic Conflict. "I saw Satan fall." This was Satan's power grab .
2. He also named the price that Satan paid for this revolution; he fell.
3. Satan was tossed out of heaven for his rebellion in eternity past.
4. Satan's final end of falling all the way to hell, which was created for him and his demons, was foreshadowed by this prehistoric fall from heaven. "Satan fell in eternity past; Satan is now the ruler of this world." Satan had been concentrating on the Lord Jesus Christ. "Satan will fall a lot farther than he has ever fallen before. I will send him to hell. That is the power I have."
5. Isa. 14:12 How you have fallen from heaven, O star of the morning, O son of the dawn. Satan was incredibly beautiful and powerful.
6. This is what Jesus alludes to here; that He watched Satan fall from heaven like lightning.

This means that the 2nd Person of the Trinity saw what happened in eternity past. He is the 2nd Person of the Trinity. He was there when it happened. He watched it. Jesus threw him out of heaven and watched him fall. We know this is Jesus because He is the executor of the plan of God.

So what should the 70 gather from all of this? They temporarily possessed this same authority over demons. It was delegated to them. Jesus gave this power to them. They had this power over the demonic. They were quite excited. However, they should not have allowed the gift to overshadow the Giver.

Luke 10:19 Behold, I have given you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall hurt you.

Bobby does not like scorpions. They are gross little bugs. Camping on an island, and he turned on the flashlight and saw scorpions scurrying all over. Jesus has given these disciples great power over the enemy—over these demonic powers—and Jesus assures them that they will be protected.

Emoting over the delegated power, as great as it was, is not the point. There was a much greater reason here to be ecstatic.

Gen. 3:15 I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and her offspring; he shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise his heel."

Man has just fallen and God promises salvation. Satan is the serpent; he is so described in the fall of mankind.

Put All of this Together

1. Gen. 3:15b is half of the proto-evangel. This is the first promise of salvation to man by means of the Savior.
2. It speaks of the crushing of Satan, crushing his head. That is a mortal blow. They are gone.
3. This is speaking of the ultimate defeat of Satan, who initiated the fall of man in the garden. His head would be crushed.
4. This is about Satan's strategic defeat at the cross. Tactical defeat will be at the end of the Millennium.
5. So what does this mean to the 70? They have the power to tread on the head of the serpent. Christ will overcome all the power of Satan.
6. They could not crush the head of the serpent; that was beyond what they could accomplish. Their power was limited; but His was not.
7. So this was to refocus the 70 on the greatest power and on the Victor of the Angelic Conflict; rather than upon their own power.

These disciples are playing with the demonic. Demons are to be feared; but not with the power of God. Demons are more powerful than we are; but fear them, we are not to do. Do not lose sight in an emotional high.

What Is Jesus Telling Them?

1. The 70 were to use their power; but not to revel in it. It is the mission; not the accouterments of the mission that is important.
2. They must look to Christ to serve Him as He has instructed them.
3. That does not include dwelling on the delegated power to them.

There is massive self-centeredness and grandstanding today. The spectacular power that they were given in the pre-canon era of the Church Age no longer exists in the Church Age. Those gifts are defunct in the post-canon Church Age.

Those who claim to possess these gifts so often focus on the gift itself. They make a big deal about it and how it affects everyone around them. Some of these groups denigrate Bible doctrine for their subjective experience. These people seek to impress others with their own supposed gifts; even for money and fame. Today, these people are similar in some ways to the 70. They came back with a very self-centered outlook. They are impressed with their own power and with their own gifts. "Do not get your eyes on yourself," is what Jesus is telling them.

Luke 10:20 Nevertheless, do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven."

This is the reason you should rejoice; rejoice that your names are written in heaven. Their names are found in the Book of Life. Jesus Christ has redirected their priority. He has talked about their names being recorded in heaven, as our names are. This is all related to the final judgment of Satan, his angels, and every unbeliever from history.

Lesson #0700

Luke 10: Life of Christ

12/4/2014 Thurs

We will pick up here again.

Luke 10:17 The seventy-two returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us in Your name!"

These men could cure illnesses; they could cast out demons. Their problem was, having this power displaced the real issue. Their undue excitement over their accomplishments is not to be their focus. They knew from whence their power came, but they did not fully appreciate this source or their purpose.

Jesus had to straighten them out and put them on the right course.

This can be a hazard to us, when we enjoy a little bit of success. It is often easy to attend Bible class when you are in a bind; but in prosperity, we often find better things to do.

These disciples are excited about what they have done; Jesus now brings them back down to earth. They exhibit power over demons over nature itself. They have to remember that Jesus Christ is the only one who can truly defeat Satan; and yet they are impressed with their own abilities.

Luke 10:18 And he said to them, "I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven.

Jesus uses this illustration. This statement gives perspective to the power and authority of Jesus Christ. He reaches back into eternity past with this statement, to the time that Satan fell.

Satan wanted to be something else, and usurp the power of God. Like the Most High God. Ambition and power-lust. The desire; the lust for power. The omnipotence of God cannot be appropriated, overthrown or equaled by any of His creatures. And yet, Satan wanted to do this.

Before Satan's rebellion, there was a trial and a conviction. He was tried and found guilty; and hell was created for the devil and his angels; and unbelievers will end up there as well. Satan challenged God in a specific area; in the love of God. How can a loving God do this? "How can a loving God consign me to eternal damnation?" He emphasizes the love of God over God's justice and righteousness. God allowed the appeal. For whatever reason, God chose to allow the appeal and to allow this process to move forward.

God meets us on the basis of His justice, righteousness and love. We all are born without righteousness. We lack God's righteousness, no matter how good we are. So God has to judge human beings because they have minus righteousness.

The cross proves Satan wrong; He so loved the world that He gave His uniquely-born Son.

God puts this rebuttal in motion; and He also tosses Satan out of heaven, precipitating the Angelic Conflict. Therefore, God created mankind, as human history begins. Human history resolves the Angelic Conflict and answers all of Satan's objections through man. The cross is the strategic victory of the Angelic Conflict; and the tactical victory is when Satan and the fallen angels are tossed into the Lake of Fire.

Summary

1. V. 18 is a revelation of the power, authority and eternity of the Lord Jesus Christ. This was an amazing statement of the divinity of Jesus Christ. He was there; He saw it.
2. Why did He say this? To refocus their attention from their puny delegated power and onto His almighty power. "I saw Satan fall; I threw him out of heaven."
3. The 70 should not get impressed with themselves. It was the Lord Jesus Christ which provided the power.

Luke 10:19 Behold, I have given you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall hurt you.

This is just a little bit of God's power. It was Jesus Christ alone Who would ultimately resolve the Angelic Conflict.

Luke 10:20 Nevertheless, do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven."

It is far more impressive that your names are recorded in heaven. "You guys have an eternal future with Me in heaven." This is much greater. Jesus Christ has directed them from themselves to Him.

What do we know about those records in heaven. Rev. 20:12

Rev. 20:12 And I saw the dead, great and small, standing before the throne, and books were opened. Then another book was opened, which is the book of life. And the dead were judged by what was written in the books, according to what they had done.

John is witnessing the spiritually dead unbelievers and they have been resurrected. The dead are the dead; their status in life no longer matters. Whatever their status, it does not matter.

The books are opened by those Who sits on the Great White Throne. These books are the records of salvation and condemnation.

The Book of Life

1. The book of Life includes the name of every person who has believed in Christ. Our name is recorded in heaven there.
2. The unique aspect of the book of life is, originally all members of the human race are listed in it. Because Jesus died for our sins, our names are placed in the book of Life.
3. When anyone dies without believing in Jesus Christ as Savior, his name is blotted out of the book. Rev. 3:5 1John 5:5
4. The person whose name is blotted out does not have eternal life.
5. A name remains because he exercises faith alone in Christ alone.

There is a second set of books. The slave market of sin booklet contains more information about these two books.

The Book of Works

1. There are volumes and volumes which list all the deeds and works of the unbelieving members of the human race.
2. The unbelievers who have been resurrected who are called the dead, are judged according to their deeds or works. That is why they are being judged. They are not judged according to their sins.
3. In this context, works does not connote any personal sin.
4. Sins were paid for on the cross. All humanity, believers and unbelievers, were imputed to Jesus Christ on the cross.
5. Therefore, the deeds listed in the book of works are deeds of human good; they are not related to sin. But they will be related to the sin nature.
6. Sins cannot be the basis for indictment at the last judgment. Only the good can be judged.

7. Condemnation of the unbeliever is based solely upon human good deeds. Why are those condemned?
8. These good deeds are what the unbeliever depends upon. This is what the unbeliever has done to commend himself to God.
9. When an unbeliever rejects the work of Christ; then he can stand only upon his own works. These do not measure up to the work of Jesus Christ. They refused the gift of salvation. These are the good works that you tried to get you into heaven.
10. Those works will never measure up to God's perfect righteousness.
11. Therefore, the unbeliever is minus the righteousness needed to commend him to God. That is why the works are listed. The more works, the harder it is. The more works they have done, the more clear it is that it was not enough.
12. The unbeliever can only be condemned based upon how far short his works fall from the righteousness of God. That is the basis.
13. God's perfect righteousness is necessary to have eternal fellowship with Him. There will be no person in heaven who has anything remotely of minus righteousness.
14. Relative human righteousness never makes the grade with God. So the book of works reveals that.

Now, it is clear that the 70 do not need to rejoice over their temporary power, but over their eternal destiny. The alternative to having their names recorded in heaven is in...

Rev 20:15 And if anyone's name was not found written in the book of life, he was thrown into the lake of fire.

Anyone who finds themselves at the Great White Throne is doomed. That is a reason for us to be ecstatic.

These 70 remain in the book of life because Jesus Christ died for their sins; and they exercised faith in Christ. Jesus has assured them that their names are written in the book of life; He then offers a benediction for all of this; a prayer of thanksgiving, for their success on their mission.

Luke 10:21 In that same hour He rejoiced in the Holy Spirit and said, "I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the wise and understanding and revealed them to little children; yes, Father, for such was Your gracious will.

Jesus rejoices in God the Holy Spirit. The 70 reveled in their power; but Jesus is thankful for the power that sustains Him. He acknowledges the ministry of God the Holy Spirit in His Own life. The humanity of Jesus Christ depended upon God the Holy Spirit.

"You are happy about the power I gave you? Focus on Me and the power which is with Me!" They understand that even Jesus rejoices in the power of His humanity.

"You have hidden these things from the wise and the intelligent; but you have revealed them to infants."

Dec. 7 is a day of infamy; and 9/11 is another day of infamy; and this war continues to today. We have not learned from history. We have embarked on a war which is not finished and will not be finished for a long time. There is a great importance of the sacrifice of our young men to keep our country free.

The 70 return on an emotional high. It is not because of the positive response of these cities; it is because they have this power that they did not realize that they had. They had the power to heal and to subject demons. Our Lord must refocus these disciples on themselves, rather than on the great abilities. There is the overwhelming power of Jesus Christ and He will have the great final victory over His angelic enemies. They must refocus on Him. He corrects their emotional confusion. Bobby wishes that the charismatics could look at this passage with an objective eye. The focus is upon Jesus Christ; and not upon the great gifts and powers that these disciples have.

Jesus was there at the prehistoric fall of Satan. Satan wanted to be like the Most High. Jesus is sovereign, He is eternal. He tells them, "I saw Satan fall from heaven like lightning."

Luke 10:18 And he said to them, "I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven.

Luke 10:19 Behold, I have given you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall hurt you.

Then Jesus states this specifically.

Luke 10:20 Nevertheless, do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven."

These disciples will never be judged. And John had a vision of the Great White Throne. This is something that these disciples will never have to experience. Those who rejected their message face great judgment in the future.

These few days of healing is nothing compared to the eternal issues. That they have some temporary control over demons is nothing in comparison to their eternal future.

Luke 10:21 In that same hour He rejoiced in the Holy Spirit and said, "I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the wise and understanding and revealed them to little children; yes, Father, for such was Your gracious will.

We pray to the Father, just as Jesus did. Matt. 11:25–30 is a parallel passage.

Jesus rejoices in the Holy Spirit. He thanks and praise God the Father, and that God has hidden these things from the wise and the intelligent, and He has revealed these things to the infants (His disciples). "Such was Your plan."

Jesus is thankful for the ministry of God the Holy Spirit. At the beginning, the Holy Spirit came upon Him like a dove; and this is the place to remind the 70 upon Whom they should focus. This prayer comes in the context of the empowerment of the 70 by Jesus Christ.

He delegated this power to the 70 temporarily, and the power of Jesus Christ and the power of His disciples have the same source. We have this same empowerment in the Church Age. This is called the filling of the Holy Spirit today. Jesus Christ pioneered that empowerment in this life. This same power that Jesus Christ utilized in His life is given to all of us throughout our lives; and He has given us the technique of rebound.

The Prayer of Jesus and the Trinity

1. Jesus mentions all 3 Persons of the Godhead in this one prayer. In this prayer is the doctrine of the Trinity confirmed. He separates Himself from the Holy Spirit and from God the Father.
2. He says, as God the Son, He was doing the Father's will; and He was doing it in the power of God the Holy Spirit. All 3 members are identified.
3. It is the Father's plan the Lord came to fulfill.
4. God the Son is the Executor of the plan of God. He goes to the cross. He is also the agent of the creation of the universe; and the sustainer of the universe.
5. God the Holy Spirit empowers that plan in Christ. The Father is the Planner.
6. Each member of the Trinity has a specific function in the plan of God, as delineated here.
7. Luke 10:21 Jesus praises God the Father and rejoices in God the Holy Spirit. This is a perfect delineation of that doctrine.

Why does Jesus praise and rejoice in this prayer? The obvious reason is, the Father has revealed doctrines through Him. That is one of His great purposes; doctrines that we have been studying. These wise and intelligent do not need Bible doctrine because they have rejected divine truth. Instead, Bible doctrine is revealed to the babies; to those who have believed in Him.

This does not mean that God looks at all believers as complete ignoramuses. Jesus calls them babies because they are progressing from infants to maturity. They are receptive to the teaching of Jesus Christ. They live with a simple, trusting attitude toward God. An infant is completely trusting and completely dependent upon their own parent.

We should never lose this focus that Jesus is giving them. These disciples were chosen from very humble origins. They were insignificant in many ways, in human terms. They were nothing. They were not influential; they were not educated.

The pharisees missed the grace of God. The wise and intelligent did not get it. But under the Lord's teaching, the infants became much wiser and grace oriented. So much of the arrogance that we find today in humanistic academia, the wise and the intelligent of our society, parallels with themselves and with their own colleagues. Outside of the circle, they take no other stand. They are not swayed by anyone else outside of their special group.

They fail to see the need for something outside of themselves. So they laugh at our need for the grace of God. Ignorant people cling to their Bibles and guns, is what they believe about us. Because they are wise, our life is what they say it is. They think those outside of their beliefs are ignorant; and our government today is run by the same sort of secular intelligentsia. They know best for everyone. The only freedom is whatever they approve of, which is tyranny for the rest of us. Lying is commonplace in order to promote the policies of arrogance. The ends justify the means.

We are the ones who have learned and metabolized divine viewpoint. And this is what Jesus is so ecstatic about here. He knows what is important.

Lesson #0702 Luke 10:21–22 Heb. 1:1–3 Life of Christ 12/7/2014 2 Sunday

This is a prayer of Thanksgiving. The cities and places the Lord would visit; some accepted Him and some did not. He differentiates between education and non-education.

He is differentiating between humanistic wisdom and intelligence versus those who have accepted Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior.

The religious types spent all of their time interpreting the Mosaic Law to a gnat's whisker; but they never understood the reason and grace in the Mosaic Law. It tells us how far we fall short from keeping the Law. Yet, they proclaimed that salvation comes from keeping the Law.

"You have hidden these things from the wise and intelligent," means that they refuse to see and accept the gospel of Jesus Christ. This is God's will that the truth is rejected and not understood by the wise and the intelligent. The disciples, on the other hand, followed Jesus Christ in all that He did (except at the cross).

Luke 10:21 In that same hour He rejoiced in the Holy Spirit and said, "I thank [or, praise] You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and understanding and revealed them to little children; yes, Father, for such was Your gracious will.

We have seen with the disciples that these are pig-headed and stubborn and they had such a hard time to get this information through their thick skulls. They were believers who needed a lot of instruction. They needed this to become His representatives.

Jesus leaves them with His Word. They communicated the same doctrine and the same trust as they learned from Jesus Christ. They possessed the absolute truth of the Word of God. There is no knowledge outside of the truth.

Human I.Q. and spiritual I.Q.; even the dumbest believer has the means to learn absolute truth. The one with Bible doctrine in the soul is more intelligent regardless of human I.Q. They never recognize this. They live and feed off arrogance. These infants, like the 70, Jesus Christ thanks God the Father for. His prayer is for these infants. It is no different for us at this moment. Jesus Christ is just as thankful today for those infants. Jesus is just as thankful today for us, for we are the ones who trust Him; who apply the doctrine that we learn; who have a relaxed mental attitude. We continue our place in the Church Age regardless of what occurs.

All of the other infants are the believers of the Church Age. We are the lowly infants of this era. We are the ones for whom Jesus Christ gives thanks to God the Father. All those He has received through faith alone.

He continues with the content of His prayer in v. 22.

Luke 10:22 All things have been handed over to Me by My Father, and no one knows Who the Son is except the Father, or Who the Father is except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal Him."

No one knows Who the Son is except the Father; and no one knows Who the Father is, but the Son. The Son can choose to whom to reveal God the Father.

Summarizing Luke 10:22

1. This is a sweeping statement of Christology and divine revelation.
2. So that we have the whole scope of the Person of Jesus Christ all contained in this single expression. This is a summary of what He is supposed to do. He is equal to the Father and He has a mission which is the Father's will.
3. This shows the personal and eternal relationship between God the Father and God the Son.

Luke 10:22 All things have been handed over to Me by My Father, and no one knows Who the Son is except the Father, or Who the Father is except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal Him."

Everything is handed over to the Son from the Father. This is an astounding proposition.

All Things Have Been Handed over to Jesus Christ

1. This doctrinal principle goes all the way back to the creation of the heavens and the earth. He goes all the way back to Gen. 1:1 and before.
2. This phrase indicates the sovereignty and eternal nature of God the Son. It is God the Son to Whom the Father entrusts all things.
3. All the workings of God's plan are handed over the God the Son.

This is corroborated by:

Heb 1:1. Long ago, at many times and in many ways, God spoke to our fathers by the prophets,

Heb. 1:2 but in these last days He has spoken to us by his Son, whom He appointed the Heir of all things, through Whom also He created the world.

Jesus Christ made the world; He is the radiance of God's grace.

Heb. 1:3 He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of His nature, and He upholds the universe by the word of His power. After making purification for sins, He sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high,...

Jesus is exactly the representation of His nature. He created the universe and all things have been turned over to Him. It is His Word that upholds the universe. He communicates all of this; and we are told that this occurs in the last days. These are the times in which we live, the Church Age. This time continues through into the 2nd advent. These are the days that followed the resurrection and ascension. The author of Hebrews looks back to the creation of the world and to the Agent of creation. The doctrine that God the Father communicates comes through Jesus Christ.

Jesus Christ is sovereign God and He is the One Who created the universe. By His Word alone, He maintains and directs the course of the universe. He is the Heir to all things, all handed over to Him by God the Father. He has dominion over all, including the workings of God's plan on earth.

In spite of all that has happened, the plan of God will be fulfilled in history. We are not directed like puppets. We know that we do not do exactly as He says (Jesus does exactly as God says). The plan of God will come to fruition regardless; the church will survive; we will grow in grace and knowledge. Our nation will survive if there are enough believers who are growing. It does not mean what the middle eastern countries do, the Jews will survive. Their country might be run over and destroyed; and Jerusalem has fallen before. But God will keep the Jews alive throughout history. And Jesus Christ will return and set up the millennial kingdom.

God the Father Has Jesus Christ Speak to us

1. Jesus Christ is still speaking to us in the Church Age. This teaching is Jesus Christ speaking to us.
2. He has communicated the doctrines concerning God. That is theology proper. He has also communicated Christology about himself. He has taught soteriology; divine anthropology (the doctrines of man, who we are); the spiritual life that we all have in Christ; eschatology, the future things.
3. His Word that upholds the universe is the revelation of God Himself. The words that Jesus Christ speaks keeps all of this going. Radical environmentalists will not keep this world running; Jesus Christ keeps it going. We have that.
4. We must listen, you infants, and hear to the One that God the Father gave all things to. We belong to Jesus Christ and hence we belong to the Father.
5. His doctrines have the unlimited power of God behind them. That is what the Word of God is.

There Are 4 Important Doctrines That We Learn.

1. The unlimited scope of the Deity of Jesus Christ. Also in relation to the Father's plan in human history. And in relation to the Angelic Conflict.
2. Jesus Christ is the central figure of God's plan in all life. He is the figure; He is the only one. There is no other pathway to God.
3. The fact that God the Father handed this over to Jesus Christ indicates the personal intimacy and equality between the two. They are equal.
4. The word of Jesus Christ communicates the plan of God as revealed in the doctrines that He taught. Everything that He teaches, all that He teaches to the disciples.

Luke 10:22 All things have been handed over to Me by My Father, and no one knows Who the Son is except the Father, or Who the Father is except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal Him."

They have the same omniscience. Jesus Christ knows everything about God the Father. Eternal God, Creator of the Universe, subordinates Himself to mankind, paying the penalty for our sins. The plan of God the Father is the plan of God the Son. The Son will execute that plan to perfection. In this plan, One does not know more than the Other. There is no confusion between knowledge or purpose or the ultimate success.

God reveals His plan to the infants; to those with positive volition, to those capable of metabolizing Bible doctrine.

Lesson #0703

Luke 10: Life of Christ

12/10/2014 Wed

Jesus will move from where He is to Jerusalem for His last week in Jerusalem. He enlists 70 disciples and He sends them throughout that area, and they were to proclaim the message of the gospel.

When they returned, and they were quite impressed with themselves. Their focus was misplaced, emphasizing their increased power. They were enamored of what they themselves could do. Once Jesus corrected them, He then offers a prayer—thanksgiving to God for His overall plan.

Luke 10:21 In that same hour He rejoiced in the Holy Spirit and said, "I thank [or, praise] You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and understanding and revealed them to little children; yes, Father, for such was Your gracious will.

Jesus focuses upon the Divine Source of their power. This is what the 70 should have done; rejoiced in Him.

The Father also revealed doctrine through Jesus Christ, doctrines which have eluded the wise and the understanding, but He has revealed them to the infants. Could this refer to those who know by rational thinking or by those who learn by experience (empiricism)?

The one who teaches the Word of God cannot wait to fill the void of a person's mind with Bible doctrine. These men are receptive and born again. When you are born again, you begin as a spiritual infant. These men and women will grow up to maturity. These infants will become the true wise and intelligent.

Luke 10:22 All things have been handed over to Me by My Father, and no one knows Who the Son is except the Father, or Who the Father is except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal Him."

There is a reciprocal knowledge between the Father and Son. Theology proper; the theology of God.

All Things Have Been Handed over to Me by My Father

1. Jesus reveals here that He is sovereign God. He reveals the extent of His authority. He is omnipotent.
2. He reveals that He is equal to the Father in deity. Why would God the Father hand everything over to Him, otherwise?
3. The Father's plan included Jesus Christ as the Agent of Creation in eternity past. He also sustains the universe by the Word of His power. Great Christological passages: Philip. 2 John 1 Heb. 1 Col. 1 (I think?).
4. He has dominion over everything; and that is His sovereignty.
5. He is eternal; and He is working out the plan of the Father for time and eternity; for us.
6. That means Jesus Christ can be designated as the executor of God's plan. God the Father is the designer, planner; Jesus executes this plan.
7. That handover includes the humanity of Jesus Christ as Savior. Jesus Christ is central to that plan.

Luke 10:22 All things have been handed over to Me by My Father, and no one knows Who the Son is except the Father, or Who the Father is except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal Him."

What Is the Relationship Between the Father and the Son

1. There is perfect understanding between the two. They are both omniscient; they both understand everything.
2. The plan of God the Father is completely known by God the Son. Jesus Christ knew exactly why He came to this earth. He knew exactly what was going on.
3. There is never any confusion between the two. When you are in the army and you get an operations order; but you can be confused by the order itself. There is no confusion between the father and the Son Who executes it.

4. There is no confusion of the purpose or the ultimate success of Christ's mission on earth. The Father's and Son's objective for the Incarnation are in perfect alignment.
5. God the Father and God the Son are in complete synch with One Another.
6. The Son will execute the Father's plan to perfection. He can do nothing less; He is perfection. He will be executed as if the Father Himself was carrying it out.

Everything that we learn of the words of Jesus Christ is Bible doctrine.

Luke 10:22 All things have been handed over to Me by My Father, and no one knows Who the Son is except the Father, or Who the Father is except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal Him."

John 1:18 No one has ever seen God; the only God, who is at the Father's side, he has made him known.

Being in the bosom of the Father indicates their complete intimacy and intimate knowledge of One Another.

Adjective: sophos (σοφός) [pronounced sof-OSS], which means, 1) wise; 1a) skilled, expert: of artificers; 1b) wise, skilled in letters, cultivated, learned; 1b1) of the Greek philosophers and orators; 1b2) of Jewish theologians; 1b3) of Christian teachers; 1c) forming the best plans and using the best means for their execution. Thayer Definition only. Strong's #4680.

Adjective: sunetos (συνετός) [pronounced soon-eh-t-OSS], which means, 1) intelligent, having understanding, wise, learned. Thayer Definition only. Strong's #4908.

Let me suggest that the first emphasizes rationalization and the second empiricism.

The religious leaders began to speculate on the minutiae, and they rejected the truth of Scripture; and assumed religious authority over the nonessentials.

The Holy Spirit provides everything that we need to know about Jesus Christ. Those doctrines are the very mind of Christ. We have the knowledge of God; we have the mind of Christ; but we receive them indirectly today.

Some of the real problems in Christianity today. Jesus Christ reveals the Father. Jesus Christ reveals God; He reveals Himself; He reveals Bible doctrine. Today, some people claim to have overtly and even spectacularly have experienced God—most the Holy Spirit. They have spoken in tongues, healed the sick, etc. They claim to have direct revelation. There are no longer any new divinely designated revealers of knowledge directly from God. It originally came from Jesus Christ; and then from the divinely inspired Apostles when they wrote it. The Bible taught accurately by a pastor-teacher is enough.

Believers get weird about the supernatural. Healing tongues and all of those things. They believe themselves to have a Damascus Road experience. Saul was a great Jew, a persecutor of Christians. He may have murdered many of them, and Jesus Christ knocked him off his horse. Direct contact with Jesus Christ.

As believers in Jesus Christ, we always need to focus on Jesus Christ and on the infallible Word of Scripture. He need to stay in fellowship to execute the spiritual life. We must also keep in mind that the filling of the Holy Spirit is not some supernatural experience of external power; we do not accomplish supernatural deeds. Too many Christian leaders and pastors today are so willing to claim that they have direct revelation from God. They will graphically describe the experience of Jesus Christ in the flesh.

One Bobby read, the guy saw the nail prints in Jesus' hand; and then he had the nail prints himself. What happens in Christianity because it is rampant in Christianity today.

What's up with Such Guys?

1. Such people gain spiritual authority of Christians because of their Damascus Road meeting with Jesus. They give you some dubious proof and you are dying to hear such proof. If you could just see someone healed or see an angel or speak in tongues; and this person claims such an experience.
2. In this experience, they elevate themselves with the claim that God has chosen them as an Apostolic-type intermediary to the Christian world. "I've got it coming to me directly."
3. With this claim, they can say anything and be believed. Because they claim to have had direct contact with the LORD. But none of that is true. The Bible is absolute.

Here Is the Test of Truth

1. If so-called direct revelation today lines up with Scripture, then...
2. Modern-day prophets are not providing any new information. Hence they are unnecessary. If it is already in the Bible, why is direct revelation necessary?
3. If their pronouncements of revelation disagree with Scripture, then it is false doctrine; and they speak with a forked tongue; they speak lies. Those who make pronouncements contrary to Scripture is where cults come from.
4. They are charlatans out to take advantage of gullible Christians who are impressed with supernatural experiences.

Five Final Points

1. Luke 10:22 is one of the great theological statements of the relationship between the Father and the Son.
2. Also is stated the delegated mission by the Father to the Son.
3. The Father has authorized God the Son to reveal His Word, according to those who will receive the message.

4. What God the Son imparts, the disciples will need to carry on, which comes to us through the Bible and we carry on in the same way. It is the same message.
5. This is the same revelation of Bible doctrine that pastors communicate today when they teach the divinely inspired Word of God accurately to those who want to hear. Put yourself in place of the 70. We are hearing what the Lord Jesus Christ said to them. Bobby uses the laws of hermeneutics that he learned in Berachah and from Dr. Ramaker (?). We do not need someone telling us about their Damascus Road experience. You should not be required to filter weird stuff through the sieve of Scripture.

Lesson #0704

Luke 10: Life of Christ

12/11/2014 Thurs

Jesus' prayer begins in v. 22. This is a great statement in Scripture of the interaction between God the Father and God the Son.

Luke 10:22 All things have been handed over to me by my Father, and no one knows who the Son is except the Father, or who the Father is except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him."

If God has given the all things to Jesus Christ, then He must have all things. This is a part of God's plan. This is the assurance that Jesus Christ is the executer of God's plan.

Jesus also pioneered the spiritual life during His life; and He provides our eternal future. There is one plan and all 3 members of the Godhead are a part of it. God the Father is still in heaven; God the Holy Spirit is in us and active in this world as the restrainer of Satan and his angels. Jesus Christ is the executer. He is the sovereign omnipotent of the universe as well.

Philippians 2 is one of the 4 great Christological chapters of Scripture.

Philip. 2:6 ...who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped,...

Jesus Christ was with God and Jesus Christ is God. He is co-equal with God the Father. So what does this mean? Jesus did not look upon His divine essence as something to hold on to, as if He could lose it. He cannot give up His divine attributes. This confirms the equality of God the Father and God the Son; but this also tells us something that Jesus did.

Philip. 2:7 ...but emptied Himself, taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men.

God the Son took on the qualities of a bond-servant. The God of the Universe empties Himself of what? He cannot give up His Deity. He gave up the independent use of His divine attributes. This subjects Him to the plan of God the Father. He became man, while still being God, in One Person. He would fulfill the plan of God for man's salvation. The Messiah is defined as our servant. He is the sacrifice; the substitutionary sacrifice. He took on the form of a bond-servant.

Philip. 2:8 And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.

He humbled Himself, becoming obedient to the plan of God, to the point of death; a death on the cross, a most painful death, as well as taking upon Himself the suffering for all of our sins.

So few Christians understand this. This kenosis passage.

Luke 10:22 ...and no one knows who the Son is except the Father,...

People saw Jesus and they heard Him; He was present in the flesh during those years in which He was on earth; and His thinking is now recorded in Scripture.

What Does this Mean?

1. In His absolute Deity, no one but the Father fully knows Jesus Christ.
2. Only God can have intimate full knowledge of the Person of God—His absolute. But there is no way that we, as finite beings, can understand the infinite.
3. God in His absolute essence is unknowable by finite man. Cannot know Him. He is just out there. If we look up into the sky, we see only the tiniest bit of the universe. And how does everything on earth and in nature continue on. We only know the smallest part of a small part. We can understand it, but we cannot understand it.
4. We can understand what God reveals of Himself; we can comprehend that. The revelation of God to us is understandable. Beyond that...
5. Jesus Christ in the flesh is the One Who reveals God to man, as the God-man. Heb. 1:2.
6. John 1:18 No man has seen the Father except Christ, Who reveals Him. God is spirit and God is infinite.
7. No one has insight into God the Father other than Jesus Christ.
8. God the Son has intimate knowledge of the Father than no one else can possibly have.
9. It is up to the Lord Jesus Christ to impart that knowledge that man must know about God. Jesus will be the Revealer at the end of the Tribulation.

The Father knows the Son and the Son knows the Father. Jesus Christ reveals Himself and hence, He reveals God. He reveals God and He understands God.

6 Things from Luke

1. Jesus Christ is the Sovereign, omnipotent Creator of the universe and the heir to all things.
2. He is the heir to all things because the Father has delegated it to Him.

3. As God, He is completely equal to the Father in every sense of the word.
4. If He were not equal, God the Father would not have handed everything over to him.
5. If Christ were not God, then He could not know the Father.
6. Being equal to the Father allows Him to be the Heir of all things; and able to reveal God to us.

Luke 10:22 All things have been handed over to me by my Father, and no one knows who the Son is except the Father, or who the Father is except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him."

Now Jesus issues an invitation.

Matt. 11:28 Come to Me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

Matt. 11:29 Take My yoke upon you, and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.

Matt. 11:30 For My yoke is easy, and My burden is light."

What it Mean?

1. To labor is to work until complete exhaustion.
2. This is figurative language for the brutal grind and emptiness of life without Christ and without hope.

Heavy-laden Types

1. Every unbeliever is being crushed. Some unbelievers seem to be happy; to have life by the tail.
2. These unbelievers are under the weight of sin and condemnation. It does not change one thing.
3. There is fear, whether it is tacit or real. There is fear that goes along with every believer.

Atheists are aggressive to remove Christianity; they are afraid to hear it. They have no proof that it isn't. It goes along with every unbeliever to a greater or lesser extent. Christ says I am calling to you, who are heavy laden, crushed under the weight. Jesus offers a solution, as He always does. He never leaves anyone without a solution in life.

Matt. 11:28 Come to Me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

He offers Himself as the One who offers the rest and the soothing. And this is done by faith alone in Christ alone. If you labor and are heavy laden, crushed by fear and sin.

What Is Jesus Offering?

1. V. 28 is a call for salvation to all. That is why He came. That is why He emptied Himself.
2. Christ offers the rest and relaxation that comes only in Him.
3. Answering this call, this invitation with the answer comes confidence, security in an eternal future.
4. But without Christ, unbelievers can never have this rest from fear of the future.
5. The unbeliever is especially restless, uncertain, loaded down with the burden of anxiety without the security of salvation through the Lord Jesus Christ. That is a weight that every unbeliever carries. He asks himself, "Why am I here? What does it mean? What's it all about?" The believer in Jesus Christ never needs to fear the unknown, because it has been revealed to us.
6. Jesus Christ offers us rest in His arms for all eternity.

Matt. 11:29 Take my yoke upon you, and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.

You Will Find Rest for Your Souls

1. This is a rest in the soul after salvation.
2. The beginning of this rest for the new believer is the recognition of what he has in Christ. Anyone can believe in Christ.
3. There must be the reality and scope of the assurance of eternal life. Do you know what the 39 attributes are when you are first saved? No; but you get them at the very moment that you express faith in Christ. One of them is eternal security; but that does not mean anything to you until you are saved.
4. All believers possess the assurance of salvation at the moment of faith in Christ.
5. That means the assurance of redemption; you are redeemed from the slave market of sin. You become an heir to eternal life that can never be lost. You have it. You possess it. It is still there.
6. But, the reality of the assurance must be confirmed. It must become a certainty in the consciousness of a believer. This is necessary so that you can enjoy rest in your soul. Maybe reality has not fully set in.
7. Assurance is like any other doctrine, that a believer must absorb into his thinking; you have it and then you can apply it.
8. The confidence of assurance requires the metabolizing of the basic doctrine of eternal security. When you assimilate and metabolize that security, that is when the rest and relaxation in your soul is realized. That is when the relaxed mental attitude begins to formulate.
9. That doctrine of eternal security is a basic rationale for rest for the believer applying faith rest and living the faith rest life.
10. How relaxing it is to have established in your soul assurance. Assurance that your life takes on an eternal future at the very moment that you have believed in Jesus Christ. You have an iron-clad, unassailable, immutable promise from God of eternal life in heaven. When you realize that, that is rest.

Matt. 11:30 For My yoke is easy, and My burden is light."

if there is a lack of confidence in the life of a believer, their life becomes a tragedy. A disconnect with Bible doctrine. This is so basic. If you cannot metabolize eternal security, you will have a problem with the spiritual life and the doctrine to live your life. This is a blockage that keeps you from rest in the soul. It ruins the opportunity to live the spiritual life provided for all believers.

Lesson #0705 Matt. 11:28–29 Rom. 4:3–4 Life of Christ 12/14/2014 1Sun

Jesus approach the gospel from different perspectives. Sometimes he was very short and blunt; sometimes he provided more information. He might be harsh in the face of rejection. The alternative in believing in Him is the Lake of Fire. Often He is very kindly.

We are continuing the sermon from Luke 11.

Matt. 11:28 "Come to Me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

There is tranquility of soul of those who come to Him; and there is awful drudgery to those who do not. "I will give you rest."

There is a rest of salvation; and then there is a rest after salvation. How does faith alone in Christ alone lead to a rest of soul? People rest when they know their future is secure. Uncertainty brings unrest. First, one must gain a confidence in that future.

You may have been told that you have a secure future because you have inherited a great fortune. But, when you hear the reading of the will, you cannot fully understand the meaning of this fortune for the rest of your life. It appears to be a form of security. All those who believe in Jesus receive tremendous confidence in the future. You do not become confident and assured based upon what you do. The rest derives from what is in your soul. That is where it comes from.

The doctrine of eternal security is a rationale for rest; for the faith rest life. It is soothing and relaxing. Many Christians question the validity of their own salvation if they do not act a certain way. This can be quite unsettling. This causes a lack of confidence for many believers; a lack of assurance, which breeds a basic instability in the Christian life. There is a disconnect in the Christian life. Such uncertainty ruins the believer's ability to enjoy the spiritual life designed for all believers. Jesus Christ offers rest; He does not offer turmoil or hopelessness.

Matt. 11:29 Take my yoke upon you, and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.

Some believers cannot rest in what Christ offers. A life of doubt is not God's will for believers. God did not design our lives to be filled with soul turmoil. What is the place of works in the Christian's life? They may understand salvation; but they do not grasp their Christian life.

The problem for so many: righteousness. Whose righteousness does God accept? The problem is, they are not sure. Which people are saved and justified? Is it really me? Someone asking that is a lack of confidence in their own faith. Is faith enough? This is a huge problem in Christianity today. What is it that really saves me? Doubting believers accept that justification happens to others; but it is harder to believe that it happens to themselves. Is my faith enough? Am I covered? Is there something else which I should do to be certain? People agonize over things like this. Usually such people are terrified that they have not done enough for Jesus Christ. They may be hiding some major mental attitude sin. Or some other persistent sin. Does faith alone in Christ alone remove all of that? Positionally, it does.

When believers begin to grow in grace and knowledge, then they become hypocritical and legalistic because of their uncertainty. They must seek sin in others to feel better about themselves and their own sins. It is a mask that they wear; the mask of hypocrisy.

"I am less of a sinner than that person. I don't sin those kinds of sins. I am better than they are and God is accepting of me." There is turmoil of soul where that thinking occurs.

We have nothing to do with faith and judgment. We have a gracious God. All it requires is a little faith alone in Christ alone; and there will never be hell. Yet people agonize. This is often called a crisis of faith; and this is the opposite of the rest of faith alone in Christ alone.

A grace oriented believer is a relaxed, rested believer; one who does not suffer a crisis of faith.

Rom. 4:3 The Scripture [33] says, "Abraham believed God. And God accepted Abraham's faith. That made Abraham right with God." [34]

Rom. 4:4 When a person works, his pay is not given to him as a gift. He earns the pay he gets.

There is a warning. We understand that we have an eternal position. There is a warning. The problems and burdens of life do not simply go away when salvation is appropriated. We all have burdens and problems in life.

Rom. 4:5 But a person cannot do any work that will make him right with God. So that person must trust in God. Then God accepts that person's faith (trust), and that makes him right with God. God is the One who makes even evil people right.

The burden that is lifted is lifted by faith in Jesus Christ; and later by rebound. The burden of life for the believer is life itself.

Matt. 11:29 Take my yoke upon you, and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.

We have eternal security because we have been justified by Jesus Christ. When we know that we are eternally secure, there is rest in that.

Outside of Berachah's walls is a protest; social activism. Protest marches. Many people believe that these things are the solutions to life. Injustice will never stop in the human race. Whatever changes are made are temporary at best. There will always be injustice because we all have sin natures.

The solution is not corporate. The solution is always the inside-out. That is the only solution.

Matt. 11:29 Take my yoke upon you, and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.

We are empowered by God the Holy Spirit, just as Jesus was in His life. He submitted to the plan of God. We have the same resources. We have the record of the Living Word. We have the means to rest and relax; we have the faith rest life. This is our life. This is a life where we need to have rest. We learn Who He is and how His life relates to ours and how we use that in our own lives.

We have the filling of the Holy Spirit and we have the mind of Christ. We can live the same life from being yoked to Him, learning from Him. Christ explains the essence of His attitude. "I am gentle and lowly in heart" and how has that been misunderstood!

This is what we must become as yoked to Him. This is a way of thinking; this is the thinking which we must adapt. We live the same life on this earth. "I am gentle." This is a man with humility. He is grace oriented. He is the epitome of grace; the package of grace. He is gentle with humility. These are the fruits of the Spirit. We have that same attitude of spiritual life as we advance. A perfect example of being yoked with Him.

Jesus demonstrated this quality of gentleness; His willingness to submit to the plan. He served the Father in His humanity in all humility even to the point of the cross. The final two days of His life; the trials, the beatings; and then taking on the sins of all mankind. This took great humility and we are yoked together with that humility.

He is also said to be lowly of heart (that is the right lobe). That is what the believer must be, humble in attitude and humble in thinking. No arrogance. Arrogance is the downfall of any believer. The human being's arrogance is the inability to think only of himself. Eastern religions tell us to medicate on ourselves. There is no objective outside source; there is just you putting your trust in you. Humility; lack of self-centeredness. The Christian life is grace orientation. It depends and it begins on understanding the doctrine of eternal security. How can you have humility if you are always thinking about what you must do to maintain your salvation? Have I sinned less? Am I a nicer person? That is not humility. That is self-centeredness.

Genuine Humility

1. Genuine humility in your soul is a system of thinking and a way of life. The way of life follows grace orientation. That is how Christ's life was. We learn from Him.
2. As a system of thinking, humility is freedom from arrogance and from human viewpoint. That is true rest. Freedom from arrogance.
3. As a way of life, humility is orientation to grace. It is orientation to authority. It is orientation to the plan of God and to the authority of Bible doctrine; and orientation to objective reality. It is Bible doctrine.
4. What it is like to be humble? The opposite from being a teenager. You are able to learn from Jesus Christ; you are able to metabolize His doctrines. The greatest thing any teacher can do is the learn Bible doctrine.
5. Your thinking adapts to God's grace procedures and you grow spiritually and arrogance is forced out of your soul. That vacuum formed by arrogance being forced out then sucks in truth. The opposite of building up scar tissue.
6. With humility you realize and internalize. Only the ability and power of God can meet your needs. This is the spiritual life. There are things that God has provided for us that solves our problems. Yoke to the Lord Jesus Christ and learn His doctrine.
7. That is being yoked together with Jesus Christ; thinking with the mind of Christ by learning His Word. Thus, you will find rest for your souls.

Matt. 11:29 Take my yoke upon you, and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.

Now to the next verse.

Matt. 11:30 For My yoke is easy, and My burden is light."

It is easy to be yoked to Jesus Christ because His burden is light. His yoke is easy in the sense of being profitable or useful.

Adjective: chrêstos (χρηστός) [pronounced kh-rays-TOSS], which means, 1) fit, fit for use, useful; 1a) virtuous, good; 2) manageable; 2a) mild, pleasant (as opp. to harsh, hard sharp, bitter); 2b) of things: more pleasant, of people, kind, benevolent. Thayer Definition only. Strong's #5543.

The Rest of Our Lord

1. Appropriating the rest of salvation .
2. For the believer to live the same life as Jesus did. He will bring rest to your souls.
3. Therefore, the believer pulls together with Christ in fulfilling the plan of God.
4. In Him our burdens are light, regardless of how difficult they seem from our own viewpoint. His are light and we are yoked together with Him.

Matt. 11:30 For My yoke is easy, and My burden is light."

Luke 10:23 Then turning to the disciples he said privately, "Blessed are the eyes that see what you see!

Luke 10:24 For I tell you that many prophets and kings desired to see what you see, and did not see it, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it."

Many kings wish to see what you see.

We Are Just as Privileged

1. We have all of His words and all of His teachings; and we have it all in one place. We have in front of us every doctrine that the Lord taught. We have it just as they did.
2. We can understand Jesus Christ like no one in the Old Testament.
3. We have the perspective of Jesus' life and what He said and did. The men there at this time did not fully understand all that was going on. We have it all in one place.
4. We can live under the same power that Jesus Christ did.
5. We live in a period of greater knowledge and privilege than any other period of time. We have more privilege than anyone else in the history of the world.

Immediately following this prayer and revelation, we have a parable; this is the parable of the Good Samaritan. This is the most famous of the parables. More hospitals have been built from this parable. That is a surface interpretation of this parable.

Lesson #0707

Luke 10: Life of Christ

12/17/2014 Wed

Parable of the Good Samaritan in Luke 10:25–.

Metaphorical language still requires a literal interpretation. Whenever there is a parable, there is a literal interpretation; and this is what God intends for us to know. Moby Dick is filled with Biblical imagery. Many people have interpreted this book in ways Herman Melville never meant. The actual meaning is whatever Melville was trying to get across.

The metaphor is a contrast between the hardness of the religious leaders toward outcasts and our Lord's warmth toward them. The religious types reject those who are not a part of their religious legalism. We are all in need of salvation. So that is the literal interpretation of a figurative language.

Luke 10:25 introduces this.

Many of these lawyers interpreted the law and gave it some distortion.

Luke 10:25 And behold, a lawyer stood up to put him to the test, saying, "Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"

In order for some to see grace, they must understand who they are; they must recognize their own sinfulness. The wise and religious have great troubles with grace.

3 Important Concepts

1. The lawyer was testing Jesus Christ; he was not a disciple of the Lord. But he was seeking answers.
2. The lawyer uses the aorist active participle of poieô, which means to do, to make.
 - a. The lawyer was asking what works must be done in order for him to be saved. He is asking for a work.
 - b. In this context, he is asking for the heroic requirement for him to enter the Kingdom of God. What great deed must I accomplish?
 - c. He means, how good must I be in order to inherit eternal life? Keeping the law was all about being righteous.
 - d. This man is looking for a definitive personal way to accomplish something; to accomplish the 3rd and final aspect of his question.
3. What must he do to inherit eternal life?
 - a. He does not understand the concept of God's grace. He is asking about what he must do.
 - b. He places the emphasis upon what he potentially does as a means of possessing eternal life; as a means of entering into the Kingdom of God. He is asking the King, how do I get into your kingdom?
 - c. But, he asks the question because he genuinely wants to know what he must do. This is a question that so many in the human race must ask.
 - d. This lawyer presupposes Jesus' answer to his question. He presupposes some form of works to gain eternal life, which comes from his background in law. It is all about what he must do. Yet, he asks the right Person the right question.

There does not appear to be the same sort of antagonism that other religious types have towards the Lord. He is not of that ilk. So he calls the Lord, teacher, which is a sign of respect in his legal profession. He put Jesus on a par with himself as a giver of knowledge; he sees Jesus as an equal. He is a legal expert; and he is a person to whom people come to for advice on the law.

Jesus also is a Person to Whom people come to for knowledge on the law.

This is a test. He wants to see if Jesus is able to give him a good answer or not. Is he any good? Will he get me out of the mess that I am in? Would Jesus give him the same sort of advice that he might give others in his own areas of expertise. He is a legal mind and a legalistic mind. He was seeking or expecting a legalistic answer. This is how he would answer this question. He expected to get an answer by which to evaluate Jesus.

This was a question often asked. Nicodemus asked Jesus this question. This was a traditional question of those concerned with religious things. Entering the kingdom or receiving eternal life, these are synonymous concepts.

This man had a preconceived notion of the answer. He had an idea here; and he expected to hear a confirmation from Jesus, if Jesus was on his level of expertise. The unbeliever would not be an unbeliever if he understood grace. This man needs to know what he needs to do. There is no difference between this lawyer and anyone else. The lawyer is testing Jesus, but he is also curious as to what Jesus would say. So, perhaps there is some skepticism; but he does not know what Jesus will say.

One of Satan's primary objectives is to obscure the grace of God. That is why religion is the devil's ace trump. It obscures grace; it obscures the gospel.

You must be ready to give the gospel to whomever asks you. You are not witnessing to anyone until you can present the grace of God to them. Obviously, you must know it yourself. But the grace of God speaks for itself when it is communicated. It is the greatest message to mankind.

Luke 10:25 And behold, a lawyer stood up to put him to the test, saying, "Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"

Jesus presents Himself as the answer to the question. Our Lord does this in a very roundabout way.

Luke 10:26 He said to him, "What is written in the Law? How do you read it?"

So Jesus throws it right back on the lawyer. "How do you read the Law?" That is right up this man's alley.

People love to talk, and when they ask you a question, often they want to tell you what they think. So you give them the chance to do so. That is what Jesus is doing here. "How do you see this? How do you think that you can obtain eternal life?"

Luke 10:26 He said to him, "What is written in the Law? How do you read it?"

The lawyer recites the law. Deut. 6:4–5.

Deut. 6:4–5 "Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one. You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might.

The Lawyer Quotes Back the Shama to Jesus

1. This is call the shama, which means to listen.
2. The shama is considered the central statement of Jewish belief.
3. It is the most important prayer in Judaism. It still is.
4. You can see why the lawyer cites this to Jesus; this is the learned response.
5. The lawyer expects Jesus to smile and confirm his great answer.

He believed that Jesus would recognize his brilliant approach to the law.

The Jews cited these very words every day in their synagogue. “The Lord is our God; the Lord is One.” This stood in contrast to the heathen gods of the people around the Jews. Furthermore, we must hear Him.

Interestingly enough, the lawyer leaves out the first statement.

Luke 10:27 And he answered, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself."

It is the neighbor part which will be the point of discussion between Jesus and this man. That is where the legal questions will begin to get sticky. Jesus will use this to frame grace for this man.

Reciting the 2nd part of the shama was the obvious answer for this lawyer to give.

The Basic Assumption of this Lawyer Was like Many Other Jews.

1. Keeping the law was the means of entering the Kingdom of God. Especially the shama; that is the legalistic thinking of Judaism.
2. Why was it untrue. Keeping the Law perfectly was impossible for any human being; yet this is what they hung their hat on.
3. Since this was impossible, this could not be the means of entering into God's kingdom.
4. The Law could not bring absolute righteousness for the Jews. In fact, the opposite was true. Regarding salvation, the Law was not the means. It helped the Jews to understand grace.
5. As a salvation document, which it is, the Law merely pointed out how short man falls of God's righteousness. It indicated that they needed grace. On a good day, they might be able to keep a little of it. The law pointed to grace; and they only saw legalism.
6. This is God's Law; He gave this Law to the Jews. The Law reflected God's righteousness. Man could not duplicate God's righteousness.
7. But, Law keeping was the essential pillar of the legalism of the Jews.

There is an interesting thing about the shama. Some think that whoever says the shama before they die, that is the key to the kingdom. That would suffice. As if they could fake God out by reciting this. That is what the Jew does to gain the kingdom.

There are parallels in certain denominations today. Baptismal salvation. A certain denomination requires a deathbed confession and priestly absolution.

This is the epitome of legalism. Reciting one's love for God and for one's neighbor's brings eternal life. But not the love and grace from God. What they are doing for God by reciting.

He is trying to test the Lord, and the lord is taking him right down the path Jesus wants him to go. Jesus seems to be speaking in agreement with the lawyer.

Luke 10:28 And he said to him, "You have answered correctly; do this, and you will live."

Lesson #0708

Luke 10: Life of Christ

12/18/2014 Thurs

Introducing the Good Samaritan parable; thought he could just blow through it, but it is a very involved parable. There is much more to it. Tremendous lessons which are not usually brought out. The introduction is almost as fascinating as the parable itself.

This is an expert in Jewish law and he adhered to the legalistic system of Judaism. The Mosaic Law defined the life of Israel, which included a spiritual code.

Jesus said that God has hidden things from the wise and the intelligent; and that describes this man. He took exception to this. He was too smart to have things hidden from him.

The lawyer, therefore, throws out a test question. What this man is really asking is, "What work must I do in order to enter into the Kingdom of God?" For the Jew, eternal life is synonymous with entering into the kingdom. He asked the central Jewish question. What must I do in order to gain eternal life? This lawyer thought that he knew the answer. He wanted to see if Jesus came up with the answer that he came up with.

Teacher is a term of respect; so he was not trying to trap Jesus.

He assumed that, if you kept the law, that would be enough to gain God's favor.

Luke 10:25 And behold, a lawyer stood up to put him to the test, saying, "Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"

So Jesus throws this back on him—being a lawyer, this man was ready with an answer to this. He recited the shama, and it was constantly said by the Jews. This was the perfect reply by this lawyer.

Luke 10:26 He said to him, "What is written in the Law? How do you read it?"

Deut. 6:4–5 "Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one. You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might.

God, the Shama and the Jews

1. Shama means listen.
2. Therefore, Israel is to listen to the words of the Lord.
3. The Lord is our God; the Lord is one.
4. The Lord is our God defines the Jews' relationship with their God.
5. He is the One True God, Whose word is unbreakable.

Luke 10:27 And he answered, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself."

This is the second part of the shama; and this ought to be a goal; but the lawyer lists this as the way to enter the kingdom of God.

Luke 10:28 And he said to him, "You have answered correctly; do this, and you will live."

This man's presupposition is wrong, but Jesus appears to completely agree with him. "Do this and you will live." It is true that loving God and neighbors is a way of life under the Law, but it is not the means of eternal life. However, this does not mean that reciting the shama is his means of entering into the kingdom. This was the way for the Jews to function as individuals and as a nature.

Why does Jesus agree to this lawyer's legalistic viewpoint? He could have said, "You cannot keep to this; so you must go to God through Me." He opened the door by his question. Sometimes you cannot go to a certain topic unless the other lawyer opens the door.

Jesus takes an indirect method. Jesus wants to present the gospel based upon the presuppositions that the lawyer is making. The Lord has said some things in the past which would have fit this circumstance exactly.

John 5:24 Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears My word and believes Him who sent Me has eternal life. He does not come into judgment, but has passed from death to life.

Jesus is using some of the language of the shama. Jesus adds, My word. This is not anything that man can do. Jesus equates the shama of Israel to hearing the words of Jesus. Here we have all of the legal terms. There is no doing, it is believing His Word that brings eternal life.

V. 24 is a unique way of presenting the gospel.

Why Would Jesus Use this Unusual Approach?

John 5:24 Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears My word and believes Him who sent Me has eternal life. He does not come into judgment, but has passed from death to life.

1. This emphasizes the unity of the Word of the Father and the Son. Same words as found back in Deuteronomy.
2. The message of salvation the gospel is the same, whether it comes from either Member of the Trinity.
3. The Father sent His Son to provide salvation.
4. The words of the Father are the words and actions of the Son.
5. Jesus Christ backs His claim of Savior, which He has claimed many times. What He says to the Jews about Himself, they do not believe. So then He says, "Then believe the Father Who sent Me."

6. So God the Father is His witness. Now let's think about the shama. This is a play on words with the shama of Israel. The Lord is One. The Father and the Son are One. They are One in Word, in the gospel.

There is more to this word of the Father.

Jesus seems to go along with what the lawyer has said. Cling to the shama and you will live. But Jesus will now use the shama to make His point and still separate grace from legalism.

Jesus is simply reading His audience. He is going to put the lawyer on his own legal turf. He will keep the lawyer in a place of comfort. If this lawyer gets defensive, He will not be able to reach him.

When you are witnessing for the Lord Jesus Christ, do not make people uncomfortable. It is a very simple rule. When dealing with lesbians, do not tell them all about what the Bible says about homosexuality. You do not attack them personally. The idea is not to necessarily confront someone or attack them.

Impersonal love as a way of thinking and a way of life. The lawyer is speaking the shama for salvation. However, it is what comes after salvation.

The lawyer continues this discussion. He wants to justify himself. The shama is the ticket to the kingdom, in his own view.

Luke 10:29 But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

This man wants to confirm and justify his answer as the shama being the way to the kingdom. But, he has some doubts way back in his mind. Previously, he asked Jesus what to do to be saved; but he already thinks keeping the shama is the key. And especially about loving one's neighbor. This becomes the point of contention.

The way of eternal life now is the shama; but this becomes dependent upon the definition of a word. What does neighbor mean? This is classic legal procedure. Muddling the definition is not the answer. He knows that he has violated this injunction. He hates some of his neighbors. Perhaps he sued some of them? Perhaps he called them into court?

Now he is playing with words and he is doing this to give himself a loophole. Jesus is going to trap him by his own answer. He will do this with the parable. This lawyer will fall short. There is a disconnect between the clear requirement of the shama and what he has done in life. He thought he had the answer; but now he has a doubt.

Jesus will put a doubt in his mind, and then He will answer the doubt.

Luke 10:29 But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

A Christmas message? Most pastors will be teaching Luke 2. Bobby is going to skip over a few chapters and skip over to Luke 10:25.

Luke 10:25 And behold, a lawyer stood up to put him to the test, saying, "Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"

Lawyers ask questions; that is what they do. This lawyer represents legalism in the face of the greatest demonstration of love and grace of God that we would ever know. This lawyer is looking at eternal life.

Luke 10:26 He said to him, "What is written in the Law? How do you read it?"

Luke 10:27 And he answered, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself."

Then the lawyer asks another question, which causes Jesus to launch of a parable.

This appears, on the surface, to be a message of help and graciousness. Beneath the surface is a comparison of legalism versus grace. This could not be a better Christmas message.

The lawyer is originally asking, what work must I do to be saved? And Jesus throws it back on him, so he says, "Love the LORD God with all your heart and all your soul; and all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself."

Jesus Christ did not answer this question directly, as He had on so many occasions. Jesus Christ stood in front of this man, and He could have said, "I am the way, the truth and the life; no man comes to the Father except through Me."

The lawyer shoots back an answer that all legalistic Jews would be very proud of. He spoke the words of the shema. This is the central statement of Jewish belief; and it still is. In every synagogue around the world, we have "Shema, O Israel, the Lord is God; He is the One God." The lawyer skipped over this and lists v. 5; which is what the religious Jew believes must be done for eternal life.

This is the spirit of Christmas; loving the LORD your God with all your soul and to remember His grace; and to love your neighbor as yourself. The lawyer quoted this as the central part of the Law, and this would be the assurance of salvation.

Luke 10:28 And he said to him, "You have answered correctly; do this, and you will live."

Why did Jesus say, "Keep this law and live;" Jesus was speaking of what the Law required of nation Israel and their attitude toward their neighbors, which was to exercise impersonal love. There may have been a touch of sarcasm. He knew how wrong the presupposition of the lawyer was. He would use this reference to explain to this lawyer eternal life. The answer is standing right in front of him.

The lawyer is satisfied that he knows what the legal responsibilities are.

It is one thing to spout the Law and theology surrounding the Law. But now there is this twinge of doubt in his mind; and he senses a disconnect in what he has said. He knows that he does not perfectly keep that portion of the shama. He is not as self-assured right now. He needs some confirmation and an escape clause.

Like any good lawyer, he searches for a loophole to get out of this trap.

Luke 10:29 But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

His way of eternal life is dependent upon what neighbor really means. There is a weakness in this lawyer's life. He has taken the narrow definition of neighbor. He must redefine the scope of neighbor.

Christians and Jews are being kind to so many in their periphery, and think that this is the key to their eternal life. The problem is this: the Jews did not regard some people as neighbors. No Jew loved the Samaritans and no Jew loved gentiles. The Samaritans are half-Jewish. They could not take the requirements of the shama as far as the Samaritans.

The loophole in this law is, strangers, Samaritans and gentiles were not neighbors. To follow the shama, he redefines neighbor. People do this today with regards to sin. One Christian group says that sin is a known violation of the will of God. Who has not violated the will of God at least one time? It is not a sin if you don't know it is a sin. This allows for some sinless perfection, by narrowing the definition of sin.

A secular humanist might say, there is no such thing as evil. Bad people are misguided or they have some problems. They can justify the evil of man while have a clear conscience of themselves.

The lawyer is moving this discussion towards a debate about who this man's neighbor is.

Lesson #0710

Luke 10: Life of Christ

12/21/2014 2Sunday

"Do not move; do not talk. Do you hear me?"

Jesus was born a Jew, born into this world, the King of Kings. At the time that He was born, the Law was all-important. There is nothing wrong with the shama; it is the legalism that this man inserted into it. This man is the epitome of a legalist. He has already decided on how he is to be saved. As far as his own salvation, there is that doubt; "What comes after death?" This lawyer has that twinge. He desires to justify himself. Like any good lawyer, he wants to split hairs. These people are unclear who are around the Jews; and they cannot have eternal life, like the Jews can (as the Jewish legalists think). This Jewish lawyer has taken the position of a scribe. How would Jesus define a neighbor? Where is the line drawn on this neighbor situation? The lawyer does not want to treat his actual neighbors in love. This is some legal trickery, which means he does not understand the means of entering into the kingdom. He brings in the ultimate Christmas question: is it Christ or is it the Law? Who has the necessary righteousness to enter into the kingdom?

It is not just the uniqueness of Jesus' birth; it is the uniqueness of true humanity without a sin nature. The only One to keep the Law in human history is Jesus Christ. He is the only One qualified to be the substitute for all mankind. Even lawyers can be saved.

Luke 10:29 But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

It is time for the Lord Jesus Christ to begin the illustration. The parable of the good Samaritan. This would mean that the legalistic Jews violate the Law of Moses because they do not love their neighbors.

Jesus replies to "Who is my neighbor?" He does not say, "Everyone is your neighbor" or "Those in need, they are your neighbors."

Luke 10:30 Jesus replied, "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him and departed, leaving him half dead.

This is a familiar and believable scenario. This is a road going through a gorge. It descends down to 1200 ft. below sea level. This road was not conducive to safe travel. Bandits and thieves often robbed people traveling alone. This was called, in ancient time, the blood road. This was not some fairy tale. This did happen. Many knew friends and relatives who suffered this.

Luke 10:31 Now by chance a priest was going down that road, and when he saw him he passed by on the other side.

A priest, a religious Jew, and he walks by on the other side. The epitome of legalism.

Luke 10:32 So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side.

A Levite does the same thing. The poor guy is lying along side of the road; and they both leave this man laying in the road, naked, bleeding, and half-dead. These two were well-versed in the Mosaic Law. They could have told you the shama. They also knew Micah 6:8 And what does the LORD require of You? Do justice, to love grace, and to walk humbly with your God. The priest and Levite could have expressed the quality of mercy required by Micah. They did not. They walked right past him. They circled around him; they gave him a wide berth. They wanted nothing to do with this man. He needed help and they did not offer it.

This priest was consecrated to God. He was dedicated to Temple service, where the rituals depicted the Lord Jesus Christ. These men fulfilled the ritual. They were dedicated to the Law. People piously go to church on Sundays or on the holidays.

The nod-to-God crowd. You dedicate an hour and you bribe God with some money to get you by until Easter. There is no application of doctrine; there is no grace orientation. It is "Do not expect me to think about Bible doctrine. I have too many obligations and priorities."

There is an identification about having eternal life; and the lawyer could see himself in this parable. The priest takes the same stance as he does. "Who is my neighbor?" Obviously not this man laying half-dead along side of the road. The loophole is, this guy really is not my neighbor. This man is in need. That is the definition of the Law. This parable opens up an entirely different perspective.

Mercy is to be shown to all according to Micah 6:8; so the priest did not help and violates the words of Micah. The lawyer is the same kind of person as this priest. The lawyer cannot find a loophole. It does not matter if the injured man is from the wrong place. The people were to offer grace to those in need of help.

The Levite is of the same tribe as the pharisee. Everyone believed that those who were pharisees were in. They interpreted the minutia of the law. We are overlooking, not enforcing, making new laws which contradict old laws. We are no longer ruled by law in our nation.

A priest and a Levite should have been able to recognized that they owed this man mercy. This lawyer sees himself in the priest and the Levite. This lawyer is supposed to see God's grace; and how it compares to his legalism. This is what people ought to see for Christmas. The real villains are the priests and Levites. There is moral degeneracy. In the pharisees and the sadducees and the scribes, they are all involved with moral degeneracy.

This man is human flotsam tossed along side the of road, left to die. Jesus does not answer the question, "Who is this man's neighbor?"

Luke 10:33 But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was, and when he saw him, he had compassion.

The Samaritan has compassion upon this man. God has compassion upon us. Who is Jesus Christ if not compassionate. Not sloppy emotion. Compassion is someone who helps another in need. Compassion is not just seeing a problem and feeling bad about it.

Luke 10:34 He went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he set him on his own animal and brought him to an inn and took care of him.

He comes right up to him, he pours oil and wine on his wounds. He takes him back on his own mule. A lost and dying and hopelessly lost man.

Your response or reaction is based on how and what you think

The place to start in people problems and testing is your own mental attitude.

Where is your focus when people intrude on your life? Do you want to change them, eliminate them, make them feel bad as you feel?

You cannot internally change people. Don't start a relationship thinking you can.

YOU CAN ONLY CHANGE YOURSELF

Therefore, you must change your approach to people problems. It is the choices that you make that make the difference.

As you determine, so you act. As you think, so you are.

Prov 23:7

The choices we make determine the life we lead. There must be something in your soul to offset your focus on what people do or say that you don't like.

This is the subject of a three part New Year's Eve message.

People Testing and How to Handle it from Renovated Doctrine.

1. From others comes antagonism and testing toward you
2. On the other hand, you have need for attention or approbation from others, so you generate your own tests in association with people

There is antagonism and then there is you.

People is the greatest test. Circumstances easily become the focus of life. People testing can only be passed by focusing away from the problem and focusing on doctrine.

People do not have to make you unhappy. Bible doctrine must become the primary focus of the believer. That is what stabilizes.

Bible Doctrine Application

1. Bible doctrine must receive first priority to override the intrusions of people testing. Bible doctrine must be first priority to override all intrusions of people testing.
2. The volition of the soul must learn to opt for application of doctrine rather than reaction to people. Reaction is easy. Everybody can react with no learning at all. Emotions just take over. It is a learned skill not to react in people testing.

You must think doctrine first.

People problems are never going to go away.

Just when you think it will go away, out pops another one.

Thinking doctrine is the solution for remaining free and control of your life. Reflecting love and friendship rather than antagonism and hatred.

No mental attitude sins or sins of the tongue.

Metabolizing Bible doctrine, by doing so, you automatically develop something every believer must have.

The fruits of the Spirit.

Nobody knows how, it seems.

Gal 5:22,23a

You must become: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self control, not being controlled by other people

That is quiet a list.

Those characteristics must guide your interaction in the face of difficulties with people.

You must look at that list and say, "is that me?" Is that the way I think? These characteristics must become the inherent qualities that make the difference between a doctrinal response or reaction to people testing.

Relationships and personal involvement are very important in any normal life, but the Christian's relationship with Jesus Christ enables the problem solving devices to develop and overcome difficulties with people.

You are designed by God to have personal control of your life through thinking based on the Word of God in your soul. You are designed to be content, to have a personal sense of destiny connected with Jesus Christ.

When you believe in Jesus Christ, your destiny is linked to Him, not other people. Your self worth becomes inseparably united with Him. Your self worth is not dependent upon what someone else thinks of you or does to you.

When you learn this, you acquire you sense of the Lord. It has to be real to you.

You then know where you are going in this life and it is always in relation to Jesus Christ and that will not be superseded by any human destiny or people problems or relationships or any human failures.

When you realize this, you will attain spiritual self esteem. You cannot survive without self esteem, this is constantly thrown out at you. Spiritual self esteem means you are able to make decisions and solve problems from a divine perspective.

The need for approbation will no longer drive the course of your life. That is such a relief, that is pure self centeredness. The need for approbation, the need for attention. Inordinate need for attention. Attention when it is inordinate is pure self centeredness. What a relief it is when you do not have to live a self centered life.

When you mature spiritually, gain a sense of destiny in Christ, it results in contentment and stability in your soul.

How do you get all of that? You get it simply by metabolizing Bible doctrine.

Consistency, consistency, consistency - they just develop in your soul.

When you are able to gain a sense of destiny and spiritual self esteem - you share the happiness of God. That is perfect happiness. In that state of mind you do not need to depend on people or things for your enjoyment in life.

Oftentimes, you depend on other people and good circumstances.

Not the case with spiritual self esteem and personal destiny in Christ. This is capacity for happiness. Helps to endure suffering. Maintains momentum of your spiritual life in face of severe people testing. This is the great benefit of people testing. People testing is for your benefit. You gain spiritual autonomy when you pass people testing.

Have you ever been manipulated? It is miserable. The ones you trust most are the ones manipulating you. Some are subtle, some are not.

Spiritual autonomy.

You now have autonomy from all of those people problems because of your spiritual life.

1. This is the picture of thinking and responding to doctrine in your soul. You can maintain relationships, good bad or indifferent.

2. Thinking doctrine supersedes relations to people.

If you place your enjoyment in life in people, shame on you. Think doctrine first.

3. This is your method for dealing with loved ones, friends, acquaintances, even people you do not know - even enemies.

4. As a maturing believer, with these characteristics, you will make good decisions based on objectivity from doctrine.

Not demands of people or circumstances.

That is the greatest friction in your life.

Can you do that or not?

This is not overnight. It doesn't just happen because you now have the definition.

It is an attitude dependent entirely on spiritual growth.

It has nothing to do with personal feelings, personal love or emotion. It is impersonal love.

You are what you think, not what you feel. Emotions are a trap.

1. Impersonal love is predicated on application of doctrine, and not how you feel about a circumstance or person. Disconnected from personal love.

2. Impersonal love does not depend on actions of any other person. It works independently of what people say or do.

3. Impersonal love does not require any merit in the object of your love. Personal love requires something attractive to you.

4. Impersonal love is not driven by the poor treatment of others, or that lack of approbation and attention from others. That is how it links with people testing.

5. Conversely, personal love requires attraction toward the object of love, which of course makes it dependent on the thinking and actions of that person toward who personal love is directed. Personal love depends on actions and thoughts of the other person. It is other person dependent.

6. Personal love can magnify weaknesses. Create vulnerabilities. Obliterate objectivity, so it actually manufactures problems. It doubles them.

Impersonal love holds no grudge, does not take or demand.

It takes consistent intake of doctrine in your soul to gain and maintain the application of impersonal love to people tests. IN no other way can a believer fulfill mandate to love thy neighbor.

It is not that hard - just gain spiritual maturity and when you are able to do that, you will maintain stable relationships.

Impersonal love allows human love and personal friendships to not only succeed but flourish.

In order to solve people problems and tests, you have to get into shape. You have to have spiritual conditioning, develop muscle of impersonal love.

Eastern religions, psychological therapy, etc. are full of pitfalls and short comings - they are rooted in human fallibility.

Divine conditioning has no short comings - it is rooted in the Word of God.

Metabolizing Bible doctrine is the conditioning program.

All sorts of physical conditioning programs - some work, some do - but they don't because you are not consistent.

Getting in shape is great, but more important is spiritual conditioning.
This shapes us up into mature believers. That requires consistent exercise.

Your soul develops reflex action of impersonal love.

You must have the thinking of Jesus Christ in your soul.

Second Session
People Testing II of III

Notes

David saw all of the people tests.
He had to pass all of these tests to accomplish the Plan of God.

David had monumental problems with people - some out of his control, some he caused.
David caused a lot of trouble for Johnathan.
He had trouble with his father, brother, Goliath, Saul.

Family members
Antagonists
Close associations and friends
Loved ones

These tests had to be passed by David using divine resources.

David had impact on salvation of mankind
He had to use resources such as impersonal love
Spiritual autonomy

He was one of the great men of Bible doctrine, thinking Bible doctrine.

He had a lot of failures. He sets a great example for us on how to pass people testing.

God had a far reaching plan for David.

He would be the man in whose line the Lord Jesus Christ would appear.

The tests he endured helped prepare him for what was coming.

David learned to rely on the Lord from his youth.

He herded sheep from youth. He was trained at using the principals of Bible doctrine.

People tests for David had to be passed, just as they have to be passed in your life.

Each test was a lesson that built David's confidence in the Lord and doctrine.

It sustained him on the winding and tortuous road of his life.

David had some incredible people problems. He is a shining example of how to pass the people tests we all face in one form or another. IN David's life is examples of every people test you will face in your life.

Enemies

Family

Friends

Loved Ones

David began his maturing process as a non-entity. He was the eighth son in a prominent family. The other 7 brothers were being educated and were being promoted. Jesse was very wealthy - his wealth was wrapped up in sheep.

Someone had to take care of the sheep, to keep the family solvent and to move the other seven brothers along in their careers.

This put him on the bottom rung of the family ladder. He lived more with the sheep than in his father's home in Bethlehem.

He had severe family testing. Essentially David was abandoned by his family. God had a plan though, he had to go through neglect of and later abandonment by his family.

David grew spiritually all alone out there with the sheep. He learned this lesson early in life. He learned he could depend on only one Person. The early integrity and stability he developed was by the way he protected his father's sheep.

Without fanfare, human encouragement, David went on a hunt. First, he hunted a lion, then he hunted a bear. They had stolen some sheep - some of his father's sheep.

He took them down with little weaponry.

He could have shrugged off the whole attack. "what are a few sheep?" Or "why should I risk my life if my family doesn't care about me?" These sheep were David's responsibility. What a believer does in private and how he thinks when no one else is looking is how he will think and act in the public eye, sooner or later.

People tests are won first in the soul before they ever happen.

God prepared his man in secret for David's public victory.
We are being prepared for what is to come in our public life.
Public or private, David lived Bible doctrine from the depths of his soul.

So a man is as he thinks.

The life you live depends on the decisions you make.

David's early thinking is found in Psalm 91:1 and 2

Attitude in crisis

He who dwells in the Shelter of the Most High
Abides in the shadow of the Almighty.

(God looks out for him based on the doctrine in his soul, what he thinks.)

I will say to the Lord, You are my refuge and my fortress, my God whom I trust.

That is all he needed!
That is the focus you need for people testing.

Psalm 91 reflects the soul of a believer in crisis circumstances that doesn't rely on people as his refuge. He did not run to anyone's advice or depend on anyone.

It was David and the Lord, period.

David did not trust his family or anyone else to provide strength, refuge or rescue.

Even the best of families fail. Families can influence in bad ways, can instill human viewpoint. You can depend on them in some respect, but if you depend on family exclusively, you will be deflated.

David learned that his only fortress in his soul was the Word. How many times did he express divine viewpoint under pressure.

Psalm 91:1 and 2

What can people testing do when your trust is in the Lord?

The Holy Spirit lives in you.
You know him by growing in doctrine.

That is the beginning of passing people testing.
David got there. His early life bears witness of that strength.

I Sam 16:1-5

It was here that God instructed one of the early great prophets of Israel. He instructed him to go to Bethlehem and anoint the next King of Israel. He was to be succeeded by a son of Jesse. So Samuel had a line up of 7 sons. Eliab was the oldest and he really appealed to Samuel. He was in the Royal Guards, he was handsome, tall and was preparing to go to war.

One thought crossed Samuel's mind, "how could God reject a man with such qualifications!"

The Lord said, "do not look at his appearance or at the height of his stature because I have rejected him"

God sees not as man sees. That is the problem of religion. Religion comes at God through man.

You are what you think, not what you look like.

You may be attractive or unattractive, you may stutter, you may not have one human accomplishment.

That does not matter to God - He has a Plan.

All Eliab will do in his lifetime will become part of David's family testing.

He will do nothing. He was unprepared spiritually. God knew this.

Eliab had no divine viewpoint.

God knew who was spiritually prepared.

None of those 7 sons of Jesse were.

In derision, Jesse said the youngest was out there keeping the sheep.

David could have gotten a huge inferiority complex here. Daddy had just rejected him in front of all of Israel and his brothers.

David was a man after God's own heart.

David was not tainted by human viewpoint rampant in his family.

He was separated, not to be abused but neglected, but to not be tainted.

The way to pass people testing is what you think. Not who or what you are.

David had the advantage of growing up isolated. He was better off away from infighting in his family. David was alone and isolated and getting spiritual training.

God sometimes isolates a believer for concentrated learning and spiritual growth.

When you are isolated and there are not a lot of people around to distract you, do not waste time, grow spiritually - you can accelerate your spiritual growth when there are no distractions.

Family will provide testing.

Whose family is perfect. Absolutely perfect and treating you the way you want to be treated.

The best a parent can do for their children is to lead a child to doctrine.
Parents aren't perfect, but there is the number one priority.

Parents can just as easily provide testing as well as doctrine.

Instead of looking back, look at doctrine. If you understand that metabolizing doctrine solves the tests of life, you understand that it works.

Always look forward to blessings God intends when you have tests.
Problems with people always turn to your advantage when you have tests.

You can say, I don't like it, I can live with it but I don't like it. If you stay with doctrine, you will look back and realize the advantage passing the test.

When you pass the test, you will solidify how God works for you.

You will not see bad circumstances as liabilities in your life.
It is to your advantage.

Lesson #03

Luke 10: Life of Christ

12/31/2014 Wed

New Year's Eve Service

Military Communion:

This is our celebration; a celebration of the Lord Jesus Christ. We are to remember that we owe everything to His grace. We are lucky that God deals with us on the basis of grace; and not on merit or on what we deserve. We do not have enough righteousness to commend God; we cannot earn anything from God.

We have nothing of value to give to God. He gives us everything for nothing. God is not obligated to do anything on our behalf. God does not give us grace with the idea of getting something from us. There is an ultimate generosity to God's grace. God's grace is centered in the Person and the work of the Lord Jesus Christ. It is God's grace which had His Son empty Himself of the attributes of Deity. God's grace which provided the perfect sacrificial grace of God. His gracious. He Himself bore our sins on the cross that we might live to Him.

We owe a debt to Jesus Christ that we cannot repay. It cost the Lord Jesus Christ everything. He died for even the most foul person who has ever lived. This is His choice. His love for us. God's grace does not arise out of...

Jesus is the epitome of grace. We can see it in no other way. This is what gives grace its value. The receiver of grace understands that what has been given has the greatest value to the giver. God the Father sent His Son to die for us. What God supplies in grace by way of His Son has the greatest value. His justice and His righteousness are not compromised by justifying us. His grace is never conditioned upon our righteousness or our good deeds, etc.

The New Year's service was Bob's favorite; the best time to look forward and to look backward.

Bobby started a new subject in 1Sam. 17, people testing. You can overcome people testing only with divine viewpoint. The finale of people testing tonite. The early life of the future king of Israel, the greatest king of Israel. He began his career in obscurity. He was a teenaged shepherd, a forgotten son of a well-respected family of that era. When Samuel came to anoint one of Jesse's sons king, they forgot to bring in David. He was not seen as king material.

We do not know how David learned God's Word. He depended solely upon God. He had no one else. When called in from the fields, he was anointed king. The tests for David were just beginning.

The army of Israel was at war; they were at war with the Philistines, Greeks, and with one giant soldier named Goliath. 40 days of him bellowing a challenge to the people of Israel. David brought some rations and he wondered out loud why no one accepted the challenge of Goliath. A fight one-on-one, winner-take-all.

"Who is this uncircumcised Philistine that he should defy the armies of the Living God?" David asks. This reflects the attitude of a man who is thinking of the Lord Jesus Christ. His attitude came from the doctrine resident in his soul. Passing this one test did not solve all of his problems. He had to face another people-test in the person of his brother Eliab. He has to face his own brother. He hears what David says and he brands David a deserter of his few sheep. Lies are very typical in people-testing. You will be lied about and lied to. David does not get into a fight with Eliab. Goliath is the true issue and God could display His power through young David. This could only come from the humble soul of David.

Family attacks always seem to get to people. David had humility and that is necessary for people-testing. He would be anointed king and he knew it, but he never said anything about that. David said a lot about Goliath, but not in bravado. The advancing discerning believer knows what is appropriate to say. He knows that there is no reason to speak with mental attitude sins. Not all people-tests in the spiritual life are won in the same way. They are always won with the same attitude. If David had lost his temper and got in an argument with his brother, he would have lost perspective. He would not have been able to pass the big test. He would have spent his time justifying himself. That is not the right attitude for victory in battle or for people testing.

David keeps his focus on Goliath and gives no more thought to Eliab. Sometimes silence and walking away is the best way to deal with people-testing. Do not be confused by this. David walked away from the wrong fight and walked right into the right fight.

The Goliath test would affect all Israel. A divine viewpoint victory today over pettiness in people will result in a greater victory. People tests are progressive in difficulty.

Each time you pass a people test, you are being prepared for the next test. And this is not just about you, but this furthers the plan of God. People testing is a classroom; a learning process; and it provides the opportunity for accelerated spiritual growth. People testing is to your benefit.

Saul is a boss who wants to take the credit for defeating Goliath. "David is wearing my armor so I can take the responsibility for this. I will get my share of the credit." This test is obvious and David is astute with divine viewpoint. Divine viewpoint picks up on the nefarious motives of people. You can read people if you have divine viewpoint.

David passes the boss test. He does not worry about it. He does not think about it. He keeps his eyes on the plan of God. You must make doctrinal application to this conflict. You take yourself out of the equation. You can objectively evaluate the whole picture. Perhaps your boss is insecure about their job or maybe they just do not like you. If you let this overcome you, then you are letting your boss take control of your life. He will then provide a recurring everyday misery. Every person has soul-kinks and these are more obvious when someone has authority over you. This is why you must not react to domineering or unfair authority. You have failed testing. You must remain objective with divine viewpoint. You do not necessarily need to roll over and play dead before your boss. You cannot become vindictive; you cannot exercise verbal or mental sins. You do not get into a victim mentality. There are winners and losers in the Christian life, but not victims.

David does not entertain the problems with Eliab or with Saul. Victory of the soul precedes victory on the battlefield.

1Sam. 17:45 Then David said to the Philistine, "You come to me with a sword and with a spear and with a javelin, but I come to you in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied.

This day the Lord will deliver you into my hands.

1Sam. 17:46 This day the LORD will deliver you into my hand, and I will strike you down and cut off your head. And I will give the dead bodies of the host of the Philistines this day to the birds of the air and to the wild beasts of the earth, that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel,

1Sam. 17:47 and that all this assembly may know that the LORD saves not with sword and spear. For the battle is the LORD's, and He will give you into our hand."

David will take no credit for what is about to happen.

The verses that reflect David's thinking. Psalm 91:1-2

You learn Bible doctrine, and the result is the application like David's application here. Goliath's mouth must have just dropped open. No one has ever spoken to him in this way; and David tells him, "I will behead you." And this is based upon him representing Jesus Christ, the God of the armies. There is no defeat for the God of Israel.

David's mental attitude was based upon God's promises; he has already won this battle. David was headed for glory by glorifying God. Saul would live a life of insecurity and misery and eventually kill himself.

There is another area of people testing, which is the test of friendship. Friends who test you.

Friendship and What it Should Be like

1. If your friendship seems complicated, then you should evaluate the person and yourself.
2. Friends
3. Friendships should be free of double-dealing and hypocrisy. People who use you are not friends. They may use you to get from here to there. If you use others, you are not a friend.
4. Neither party can be hypersensitive. That leads to constant hurt feelings, which is draining and burdensome.
5. Friendships should not be burdened with obligations. If you are manipulated by a friend, they are not friends.
6. Two friends must give and take freely with no strings attached. That is grace orientation and impersonal love.
7. Friendships cannot be driven by unstable emotions.

David and Jonathan had an amazing friendship. After the Goliath victory, Saul began to resent David. He became extremely jealous. The mental attitude sin of jealousy never operates alone. It comes with vindictiveness and hatred. He had no appreciation of David, even though David's had saved him on several occasions. The plan of God overall. Jonathan will prove it. Jonathan will have doctrine in his soul.

1Sam. 18:1 As soon as he had finished speaking to Saul, the soul of Jonathan was knit to the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul.

This friendship must include impersonal love.

1Sam. 18:3–4 Then Jonathan made a covenant with David, because he loved him as his own soul. And Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was on him and gave it to David, and his armor, and even his sword and his bow and his belt.

Jonathan recognized David's authority, even though Jonathan was the king's son. He gave David all of his outward possessions of the crown prince.

David has his emotional human viewpoint moments as well.

1Sam. 20:1 Then David fled from Naioth in Ramah and came and said before Jonathan, "What have I done? What is my guilt? And what is my sin before your father, that he seeks my life?"

You can hear David's pity party in his voice. He becomes a real test for his best friend Jonathan. Saul wants Jonathan to help him kill David; and David's death for Jonathan would be in his best interest. Royal families killed off their rivals. Jonathan maintains divine perspective throughout.

He ignores his father's evil wishes and he orients to God's will.

Jonathan passes this test when David does not. Jonathan will reorient David to divine viewpoint. This is Jonathan's great moment in human history. David was being tested by Saul and he was failing; Jonathan was being tested by Saul and passing. Jonathan would bring divine viewpoint to David so that he could eventually pass the test.

Jonathan Keeping His Eyes on the Plan of God.

1. God provides friend to help you.
2. God provides a friends to help you where you are lacking.
3. You can have blessing by association with another mature believer.
4. That is a true friendship with impersonal love. That involves putting the other person first. That is where the glory lies. David did not glorify himself.
5. The true friend has the ability through Bible doctrine to communicate warmth, stability, courage all in the face of people testing.
6. Encouragement comes through a friend who is taking in doctrine and has an abundance of impersonal love in order to deal with you.

1Sam. 20:2 And he said to him, "Far from it! You shall not die. Behold, my father does nothing either great or small without disclosing it to me. And why should my father hide this from me? It is not so."

1Sam. 20:3 But David vowed again, saying, "Your father knows well that I have found favor in your eyes, and he thinks, 'Do not let Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved.' But truly, as the LORD lives and as your soul lives, there is but a step between me and death."

This will be a year of testing for us individually and for our nation. We will be tested by our loved ones, our family, by the boss and by enemies. We as a nation have only begun to see the extent of terrorism that is coming our way. We have only begun to see the legislation and the edicts that limit freedom in the name of security and socialism. That all falls under the category of people testing.

We are armed with the solution. No test will decimate you as long as you are consistently advancing spiritually. We live in a world of sin natures.

If God is for us, then who can be against us? The battle is the Lord's.

Psalm 60:11–12 Oh, grant us help against the foe, for vain is the salvation of man! With God we shall do valiantly; it is he who will tread down our foes.

No class

Lesson #0711

Luke 10: Life of Christ

1/4/2015 1Sunday

In order to live the Christian life, you must grow; you must progress. Jesus Christ is faced with a lawyer, always a difficult thing. The lawyer asks the question, "Teacher, what should I do to inherit eternal life?" The lawyer expected a legal answer; he was ready to debate the legal aspects of this topic.

Being a legalist, he presupposes that there is something that he must do to inherit eternal life. Jesus spoke differently than the religious people of that era; and this lawyer did not have the animosity toward Jesus Christ as did the religious hierarchy. He shows honest interest in what Jesus had to say on this topic. The Lord takes the indirect approach with him. Jesus goes back to something that this man knows, and then work from there.

Sometimes the direct approach, "Do you believe in the Lord Jesus Christ?" is not the proper approach. Jesus knows that this man is a lawyer, so He will approach it from that way. The lawyer wanted a question that could be debated. He was possibly interested in testing the intellectual metal of Jesus Christ.

Jesus quoted him the 2nd part of the shama, "Love God and love your neighbor." The way that this was used by the religious types distorted it. So the lawyer asks, "Who is my neighbor?" This lawyer has some doubts and he knows that he falls short of keeping the shama. He does not love all his neighbors and he knows it. He is looking for a legal out. If he narrowly defines neighbor, then he is keeping this part of the shama.

Jesus asks some questions; He finds out who this lawyer is.

Remember, most people are prepared by God over a period of time; and this includes their past experiences and their past discussions, and things which they have thought about.

If this lawyer does not love all of his neighbors, he cannot be saved by the shama.

Luke 10:29 But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

Luke 10:30 Jesus replied, "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him and departed, leaving him half dead.

This will show the fallacy in the thinking of this lawyer.

The parable was a normal occurrence. Everyone in that area understand what has occurred here and can relate to it.

Luke 10:31 Now by chance a priest was going down that road, and when he saw him he passed by on the other side.

The priest goes way around this guy.

Luke 10:32 So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side.

A Levite does the same thing. These are two religious men, and they are not keeping the clear reading of the shama, and they knew what it said, and they were ignoring this man. They also knew Micah 6:8. To this beaten and robbed man lying in the road, there is a quality of mercy which ought to be shown this man; but they did not.

The priest and Levite were men consecrated to God; they were ministers of religious worship and they spent all of their days in the Law and the Law. They saw themselves as too important and too busy to do God's word. They bypass the man because they are too important. These are men without humility. Poster boys for religious hypocrisy. They left their god in the Temple.

They would not classify this man as a neighbor. They relied upon loopholes to escape the plain reading of the Law. They defined their neighbor very narrowly. They made excuses in their own minds; they were parsing the definition of neighbor. This is an unclean bleeding man; and how can he be a neighbor? They don't even know him.

Jesus does not approach this lawyer by saying, "You hypocritical so-and-so."

Will this lawyer accept what Jesus is saying? You can only give a person the message. You cannot force them to hear it. There is a contrast between grace and legalism.

It ought to be clear that the priest and Levite are not showing love toward this man.

Luke 10:33 But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was, and when he saw him, he had compassion.

The Samaritan comes along, and he is moved by this man's circumstance. He feels compassion, and this is true compassion; not the hypocritical compassion of liberals.

Luke 10:34 He went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he set him on his own animal and brought him to an inn and took care of him.

This man acts upon his compassion, one-on-one.

Luke 10:35 And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, 'Take care of him, and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I come back.'

He gives some money to an innkeeper to look out for this man; and says if any more is required, he will make the debt good on his return. This is the fulfillment of Micah 6:8. This Samaritan shames the legalists of Israel. This Samaritan shows actual compassion, where the Levite and priest did not. Samaria and Judæa were neighbors; and they are cousins. The Samaritans practiced a different form of religion. The Jews hated the Samaritans and vice versa. This is the hypocrisy of religion. It sponsors hatred.

There is no grace in religion. The obvious surface message is to be kind to all, even those that you do not like. Being near to someone does not define neighbor. The priest and the Levite were very near to this injured man, by race and religion. They had no excuse. The Samaritan were very remote by comparison. The ones who claimed to dispense the rules for eternal life ignore this man; and the one they believed to be too far from God treats the beaten and robbed man with compassion.

Unbelievers can do just as many good deeds as believers and often do. The difference is between grace and legalism; the difference is between salvation by grace or by good deeds. This is the point that Jesus is bringing out here. The shama is not enough. We can get the surface message here, but that is not salvation.

Luke 10:36 Which of these three, do you think, proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers?"

Lesson #0712

Luke 10: Life of Christ

1/4/2015 2Sunday

The Lord Jesus Christ is teaching a parable and the lawyer might want to argue with the Lord about the Law. There is an argument here over grace and legalism. The lawyer is ticked off because the Jews with whom he identifies do not keep the Law. They all hated the Samaritan, but he exhibits the shama more than the priest or the Levite.

Obviously, this is all that they could agree to.

The lawyer asks the loophole question, "Who is my neighbor?"

The president who said, "What the definition of is is."

Everyone has an interpretation of what this means.

Neighbor here is a much broader term than the lawyer, priest or Levites assign to it.

What Does Neighbor Really Mean?

This is important to the lawyer and to us.

1. Neighbor is as wide as the circle of one's influence.
2. A neighbor is anyone with whom a person has contact. Legalism must narrow the definition. It is like the definition of sin; which is any violation of the will of God.
3. A neighbor would be someone in need or someone who requires help. This includes people that you do not know.
4. So exactly what is a neighbor and what is neighborliness? It is an attitude; not a location. Those next door to you are not the only neighbors that you have. It can be a close relationship.
5. A neighbor is not limited to the likeable or to the compatible or to the influential or to the wealthy or to the poor; or to the girl next door. It is not confined to a class or to a nation.
6. The parable of the Good Samaritan demonstrates that a neighbor is anyone that a person meets. That is a broad definition. Toward whom grace and impersonal love is extended. Your enemy is your neighbor. This is a personal relationship. This is someone who needs help.
7. The neighbor could be anyone or everyone. There is no loophole that is found for this lawyer or for the legalistic priest or Levite.

It has often been noted that the parable here reflects 3 different attitudes which are either moral or immoral.

3 Attitudes

1. The thief's, "what is yours is mine." Socialism is a great demonstration of thievery. Socialism is thievery. They redistribute wealth; but not their own. They take it from others. The socialist takes from those who are productive and gives to those who are not productive. That is the fundamental philosophy of the welfare state. What is yours is others; and the socialist will get it and distribute it. The only difference between thieves and socialists is the claim of compassion. He feels compassion for those who are in need. This is done by a governing body in the name of the greatest good for the greatest number. This is how the Samaritan parable has been used by socialists. The Samaritan provided his own money; he did not take from others to give to the thief. If the government takes from you, it is not theft, in the eyes of the socialist; this meets the definition of compassion. Big brother; you cannot fail; you cannot fall through the net, we will take care of you. The socialist compassion does not solve the problem of the poor or the downtrodden. It never has. There is never the result of achieving the intended result. In fact, their politics increases the problem. The United States has been developing as a welfare state over the past 50 years; and yet poverty has increased over that same period of time. Many people no longer have any work ethic. They have become enslaved to the government dole. Why work when you can get redistributed wealth? Why work when you don't have to do anything for it. We have an entire underclass which meets this definition. We ought to be concerned for the poor and downtrodden and those who are unjustly treated. How do you handle that? The socialist does not solve the problem, even though they say that it is. The results never come to fruition. They have compassion without results. They cannot legislate against the inherent sin nature. They think that if you give enough money, that will eliminate the problem. The socialism adds to the natural order of some being poor. Some will be poor; some will be downtrodden. There is always poor; there is always injustice. What should we do about these things? The way that the government handles it does not work. All the programs of the socialist do not work. The New Deal, etc. do not work. There may appear to be temporary results; but in the end, these programs are failures. The thieves of government are not interested in administering socialist programs. They are unsuccessful in administering socialism programs. That is not the point for them. For them, it is all about compassion. Form without function; an attitude without results. If the socialist carried out the administration carried out their programs, they might have to admit that their programs are failures. The welfare state does not work. They cannot admit this; or they lose the compassionate label. That is their Samaritan attitude. They do not know what else to do; they are without God and without doctrine. They have no divine establishment principles to guide them. They do not distinguish between government welfare and charity. They will take from you to give to others, but not from themselves. To take from the have's and give to the have not's makes them feel compassionate. Whether they get the intended results or not. They do not know what compassion means. They are merely into surface compassion. The results are much less important than their philosophy. Should we not feel compassion for this man? Yes, we should. The Samaritan felt compassion. How does this compassion work? How should it be expressed? When the results of the socialist will implode, and it does not bother their compassion. They still feel good about themselves. They did what they could. If you look at our society, all the things that are meant to help so often fail. The solution is in the souls of individuals. The solution is Bible doctrine in the soul of individuals. We will never get to the utopia of socialism. The nature of man can be healed by salvation and by Bible doctrine. That is the solution; and individual charity. Anything but government welfare is a solution. "But, wait a minute, I know someone who has been helped in this way." But there is the problem in the souls of others that the help is not theirs and they know it. The morality of the socialist is relative. When something fails, they change their morality. Socialism produces more poverty and more subservience.

2. The attitude of the priest and the Levite: what is mine is mine, and I am going to keep it. These are people who have everything that they want. Unfortunately, capitalism can be greedy. But we have uplifted many people in this country. The argument is, there is no opportunity for some people, and that might be true in some cases. But the greatest good for the greatest number is capitalism and free enterprise. There is more opportunity in our country today than in the history of the world. Slavery was a terrible institution. It caused many problems, still today. Social justice will never lead us to perfection; justice will never be perfect. Some people are going to fail. It does not help them to enslave them to welfare.
3. The third attitude is, "What is mine is yours; and I will share it." That is individual charity. He is not sharing somebody else's wealth; he is sharing his own. The government legislates against things we don't like, and this is all on the surface. The only thing that changes these problems is what is in your soul. You should be not be a racist; you should be an e-racist.

Single-payer medical works in countries which depend upon our military and do not really supply their own.

The Samaritan gets this beaten man back on his feet; and he exhibits true compassion that the individual Christian should display.

Our problems are solved individually. What am I? A Samaritan, a religious legalist or a thief? The lawyer must determine for himself, which one he is. Would he exclude this beaten man on the road? Or would he accept the broad definition of neighbor as anyone with whom he comes into contact with. From this parable, the lawyer must get the picture between legalism and grace. There is a below the surface meaning.

The Samaritan is like Jesus Christ. What is Jesus trying to do? He is pointing the way to eternal life; and this parable points to Jesus Christ.

Luke 10:37 He said, "The one who showed him mercy." And Jesus said to him, "You go, and do likewise."

Lesson #0713

Luke 10: Life of Christ

1/7/2015 Wed

Luke 10:30 Jesus replied, "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him and departed, leaving him half dead.

Luke 10:31 Now by chance a priest was going down that road, and when he saw him he passed by on the other side.

Luke 10:32 So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side.

Luke 10:33 But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was, and when he saw him, he had compassion.

Luke 10:34 He went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he set him on his own animal and brought him to an inn and took care of him.

Luke 10:35 And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, 'Take care and of him, and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I come back.'

Jesus, in a roundabout way, will show this lawyer that keeping the law is not the right way; and that this man has not kept the shama. Every other religion is about works; and Islam is about works. Grace, not legalism, is God's way to eternal life.

The Samaritan

1. The Samaritan is like Jesus Christ. He represents the Lord.
2. The parable points to Himself as the way to eternal life as the grace of God incarnate.

How Does this Metaphor Work?

1. The priest
2. The Samaritan is a type of Jesus Christ.
3. Jesus heals us of our illnesses.
4. He will provide salvation on the cross, as the compassion of the Samaritan.
5. He will pay the price for their sins. This is just like the Samaritan paid the innkeeper to take care of this hurt man.
6. The Samaritan represents God's grace.
7. What the lawyer provides is nothing; what the religious types provide is nothing. What Jesus provides is everything.

Luke 10:36 Which of these three, do you think, proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers?"

The good neighbor was the one who was hated and ignored by the religious types. Only the Samaritan showed grace to him. The Samaritan showed mercy and grace.

The priest and the Levite were proponents of the narrow view of the shama. This narrow view excluded all of those outside the Jewish household, like Samaritans. Their neighbor was not all-inclusive. This is why Jesus presented the Samaritan as the only one keeping the law. Their narrow view of mercy and love was not enough to save them. This illustrates God's grace over-against their legalism. This would be a dilemma for the law-keeper.

If the lawyer keeps to the narrow view of neighbor, then he is like the Levite and the priest, both of whom ignored the harmed man. They ignored the truth for their own self-righteousness. The Samaritan reflected the shama; the priest and Levite did not. Therefore, the broad definition of the word neighbor had to be understood, which convicted the lawyer.

Luke 10:36 Which of these three, do you think, proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers?"

This man is brought around to realize that his religion is false and that salvation is standing right in front of him.

Luke 10:37 He said, "The one who showed him mercy." And Jesus said to him, "You go, and do likewise."

Jesus says, "You must go and do the same" if you want to show the same mercy as you did before. The lawyer has not and cannot do that perfectly. He cannot overcome his own weakness. He hates Samaritans. He has failed at every point.

People think that, if I am good to my neighbor, then I will be saved; if I am good to other people, then God will smile on me. But it is all works; it is the same thing.

The indirect approach to witnessing. Our Lord after finishing this parable, He does not browbeat him or coerce this man or even give him a come forward. He does not embarrass the man by calling him a legalist or a hypocrite, which Jesus did to other religious types. He simply provided food for thought, and left it with lawyer to mull over. Jesus wanted this man to examine himself. This man already knows legalism; and Jesus shows him the difference between grace and legalism. He was shown the hypocrisy and the futility of keeping the Law for salvation. Also the hypocrisy of thinking that salvation only belongs to the Jew. The idea is, he would recognize a disconnect, but not immediately.

This lawyer thought that he had the Lord with citing Scripture; but what Jesus said blew away all of his legalistic thinking.

Grace, offered by Jesus Christ, was the only way of salvation. But this man would have to think about it. Give out the truth; present the truth; that is all you have to do. The gospel does the convincing. Jesus has given him the answer to hopeless and futile.

The disciples were to gain a lesson for their future ministries. Luke 10 there was a progression in the understanding of the doctrine of grace and focusing upon Christ as the source of grace. The disciples returned and were full of themselves; and Jesus reminded them of where their power came from. Their touted miracles were transitory. They must keep their eyes on spiritual goals.

In this parable, these things are being reenforced. The grace of God versus the legalism of religion. The disciples were half-confused, most of the time.

Jesus also reminds all of us in the parable that service to Him is not reciting the shama or some kind of ritual. Service for the Lord is impersonal love as demonstrated by the Samaritan. This is done by speaking the truth of grace and living the truth of grace.

Words are cheap, but actions show grace like nothing else.

What else do we gather from this parable? Kindness is not enough; mere kindness and mercy is not salvation for man.

Final Points

1. Jesus Christ showed compassion.
2. The Samaritan showed compassion. Jesus died spiritually on the cross as our substitute.
3. Jesus Christ paid our penalty by taking upon Himself our sins and He healed the suffering of our souls. The Samaritan paid for this man. Acts 4:12

We do not want anyone to go to hell, not without hearing the truth. We might consider this parable and what the Lord Jesus Christ does here. Always think grace; always present the gospel of grace and Jesus Christ as the epitome of God's grace and why. If that does not get to them, nothing will.

Missionary Report tonite from Pat Cate; How to reach a Muslim with the gospel.

Background on the Muslims. His wife was the daughter of the pastor of Berachah before Bob. He has been to Iran; later to Egypt; and today they work with Muslims in North Carolina. He does a friendship, hospitality, Muslims of different backgrounds, and a mentoring. He teaches Muslim evangelism at a seminary this week?

God is not surprised by ISIS, al Quada. God says that the wheat and the tares would grow together. In the past 36 years since Komeni came to power, most Muslims have come to Christ than the previous 13 centuries put together. Iran is a massive country. Maybe 300 believers back then. Now a million. The Iranian church is small. Dallas has between 5 or 6 of this fellowship. 25 in California. Around the world, they are coming to faith in Jesus Christ. A large number began in Indonesia. About a half million in Bangladesh.

They lived in Cairo for 5 years and one of the ministers had seen over 300 Muslims come to faith in Christ. But later, after they left, he would see at least 1 a week.

Book "A Wind in the House of Islam." 250,000 miles covered. 82 groups of Muslims who came to Jesus. About 100 churches of Muslim believers. The wheat is growing vigorously and God uses this terrorism for His Own glory. There is a chapter in Houston ex-Muslims. The media is exposing the evils of Islam.

"We love the people, we love the language, and why did we get kicked out?" He grew up with Bobby. They never knew or saw any Muslims. Today, a quarter of a million in Houston. In 2030 that there will be a half million in Houston. The media brought Muslims to our consciousness; and now they are everywhere in the news. This has brought Muslims to the mind of Christians, and we should pray for them. We need to pray for the salvation of the Muslims who are terrorists and those who are not.

Number of missionaries to Muslims has grown a great deal. Still, many are needed. One church for every 561 people in North America. 2.7 billion in the world have no church to go to. 1.6 billion Muslims without churches.

Televisions are all over the Saudi America. Even in Iran. The Iranian police try to block the internet and television, but the gospel is being brought to people who would never hear it in a church.

Zacharias made the gospel so clear that there is a $5 million bounty on his head. Most Muslims do not realize that there are 109 verses in the Koran that teach terrorism. 2 brothers that he knew left Islam.

The famous Acts 17 teaching near the parthenon. "God has made from one man every nation of mankind. God has determined where people live." Why God has allowed 250,000 Muslims to come to Houston is to hear the gospel of Jesus Christ.

"You will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you." The Holy Spirit gives us the power to witness.

How does a sphere have ends? The Samaritans were half-Jew, very similar and very different at the same time; and they did not like one another. Muslims live nearby. They live in our midst and for whom God the Son died. We have the benefit of being able to witness in English. They have needs we can help with; to teach them English, to help them get driver's licenses. We don't have to leave home; leave our job; we don't have to raise money as a missionary. God has brought them here.

However, we do need to be friendly. If we initiate the friendship, they will respond. It is easier to speak to a Muslim about spiritual things than to other Americans. Muslims love to talk about spiritual things. Americans who even attend church might not talk about it.

We often begin by asking questions. Normal questions and then move into spiritual matters. They have a salvation by works; and then you share the gospel with them. He has met only one guy who was mad at him.

They do not believe that Jesus is the Son of God, they do not believe the Bible is trustworthy. But they do believe that Jesus is sinless, that He ascended to heaven, so, there are a mixture of things that they do and don't believe about Jesus.

They do not have a loving God, a personal God, no assurance of forgiveness, a deep concept of grace, or assurance of salvation. God is remote and up there and we are slaves of God. God is transcendent, not imminent. He is up there. Strong concept of God being merciful, but not the same as grace or being loving.

There is no assurance of salvation. Islam is the religion of mathematics. There is a 1000x more credit to pray at Mohammed's grave than at a Mosque. 28x more credit to pray in a mosque than at home. No assurance of salvation; no assurance of eternal life. You do not know until you die if you have done enough good works. Holy war deaths give you a straight shot.

Grace is one of the 99 names of God? Mercy and grace are different. You offend someone and apologize to them, and they forgive you, and that is mercy.

30 minute conversation might involve 10 minutes asking questions. Jesus asked 271 questions (not including repeats). That is a lot of questions for maybe a month or so of days. The longest that God speaks is in Job, and do you know what He does? God asks questions. He asks 70 questions, but without answering Job's questions. Questions are a very vital part.

The Muslims do not think much about sin. They do not realize that they have a need for a Savior. Solid Islamic Hillcroft and somewhere else. A committed Muslim will only eat Halal meat. Has to be butchered in a certain way. Can you mix Halal with non-halal? No matter how many good works you add, the sin is not removed. The sin is like non-halal. We cannot go to heaven without ridding ourselves of our sin.

A drop of poison in a drink.

God used Zoroastrians to free the Jews to build the Temple and then to build a wall. God is using Boco Haram and these other groups in His Own unique way to wake up Muslim and to wake up Christians.

The rate of growth of Christians is Iran and then Afghanistan. 6 of the top 10 growth rates is in Muslim countries.

Lesson #0714

Luke 10: Life of Christ

1/8/2015 Thurs

The very famous Mary and Martha.

Luke 10:38 Now as they went on their way, Jesus entered a village. And a woman named Martha welcomed him into her house.

Luke 10:39 And she had a sister called Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet and listened to his teaching.

These women showed up to our Lord's tomb after the crucifixion. They were also at His crucifixion. Women were involved throughout His ministry.

They lived in Bethany on the outskirts. For the rest of His life, this home would be a haven to Him. They followed Him; but He could teach without being interrupted. Listening and concentrating. It is a matter of priorities at this point. Mary could not get enough. She was totally concentrating on His person and on His message. She is preparing herself in the same way that all believers prepare themselves, to follow the plan of God for her life. God's plan for us develops as we advance spiritually. We are filled with the Spirit and we advance; that is Mary. That concentration and inculcation includes service for the Lord Jesus Christ. That is a protocol that is made evident. We have the obligation to learn doctrine, to advance in His plan, and to function in His plan.

Martha is her sister, and she is cooking up a storm for the Lord Jesus Christ and His guests, and she is doing a good service. She has a personal characteristic of the good Samaritan. She is selflessly giving service to those around her; she wanted to serve the Lord. Martha is cooking; Mary is sitting and listening.

Introductory Points

1. Service for Him is not just about good deeds, kindness, etc., even though such actions are not insignificant.
2. Jesus will emphasize a foremost priority to listen and to metabolize His mind.
3. That is what Mary represents in this narrative; the priority of the spiritual life. To learn and to grow.
4. Spiritual growth is the prerequisite to the most effective Christian service. With doctrine, you are better attuned to His plan for you. This is what is missing in Christianity. It is all about service today, but without knowledge or spiritual growth. The example of serving by witnessing. Pat Cate on how to reach Muslims for Jesus Christ. "Should we be killing them or witnessing to them?" Bobby was asked last night. The gospel must be presented. So many today cannot present the gospel of Jesus Christ today. They do not understand the substitutionary death of Jesus Christ. When you know these things, you take the things you know and present what is best for that person.
5. Having heard all of this, we should not denigrate any sort of Christian service.
6. In this case Jesus will put Martha's service and Mary's learning into proper perspective.
7. Martha must come to understand that her priorities and perspectives were not those of Jesus Christ. We must come to understand what the priorities and perspectives are.

Martha approaches Jesus and she comes to Him with an attitude. She is upset that Mary exited the kitchen and sat down to hear the Lord teach.

Luke 10:40 But Martha was distracted with much serving. And she went up to him and said, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to serve alone? Tell her then to help me."

Martha is upset; and she tells the Lord to send Mary back to help her out. Martha had become extremely agitated. She was no longer thinking. She was reacting to the situation.

She was as hot as her pots and pans in there. She got so mad and blurted out her frustration while Jesus is teaching.

Explosive anger like this gets people in trouble; they do not think before they speak. Angry people just let it rip; consequences be damned. Angry attacks never help anything. The angry person has bypassed the steps of discussion and persuasion. People with a penchant for anger are in constant conflict. You cannot be angry all the time and be in fellowship.

No spiritual solution and no objective thought occurs when we are upset. Would you break into the message of the Lord and interrupt Him? She assumes that the Lord knew how important this meal preparation was. She is in self-centered arrogance. She assumes that Mary should share her viewpoint about how important her service was.

Martha

1. Martha reveals her spiritual immaturity.
2. Mary has abandoned her kitchen duties as kitchen helper. Martha has decided what Mary ought to be doing. I am going to tell you what you need to do for the Lord.
3. Martha sees Mary as sitting around and loafing at the feet of Jesus when she should have been working for the Lord. "Get up and do something," a very prevalent viewpoint in Christianity today.
4. Martha reveals her hurt feelings. There are no victims in the Christian life. Hypersensitivity.
5. So the result is, Martha even scolds the Lord Jesus Christ for not taking care of this situation right now. "Don't You care?" she asks. "Don't You care that I am serving You?" "Does it not concern you that...?" Or, "How does this situation not get your attention? Don't you have to eat?"
6. Martha sees physical nourishment as taking priority over taking in spiritual nourishment.
7. She has different priorities from Jesus Christ and from Mary.
8. Spiritual food comes first. Bobby concentrates better not being filled with food. Now she gets bossy with the Lord.

Just as food must be taken in on many occasions, so doctrine must be taken in.

Martha wants Jesus to speak to Mary with all of His authority. This is so that Mary will bow to Martha's wishes. This is so typical. When people get hurt and angry, they want the person who wronged them to be put in their place. "I want you to see how I have been hurt." The passive-aggressive; the hypersensitive; the manipulator.

Some people do not see their own faults, but they see the faults of others very well. They want revenge; they want justice.

Application on this

1. Leave retaliation and justice in the hands of the Lord. You don't know what is going on in the life of someone else.
2. Jesus Christ is always just. He is fair to both parties. He is not self-centered; He does not play favorites. God has a plan for both parties in a dispute.
3. What does God have in mind for both parties? For unbelievers, God's will is for them to be saved. That may be by our witness rather than taking them down and putting them in their place. And for other believers, God has a plan for them just as much as He has a plan for us.
4. His justice is designed of further His plan for everyone.
5. His will is reflected in His justice. He has will for everyone; and His justice is directed toward everyone. Hurting brings us back to reality. His justice is discipline and it is for our blessing.

She uses the aorist active subjunctive of sunankilambanomai. This means to help, come to my aid. The subjunctive and the imperative together. A demand and a contingency together. She is giving Jesus some options. He can tell Mary, "Go help Martha" or He can choose to say nothing. Martha wants Jesus to do her bidding.

What Martha Is Doing

1. Martha gives Jesus a choice.
2. Now she is directing Him with an imperative.
3. She is attempting to manipulate the Lord.

Aren't You going to tell her what to do?

Martha's Expectation of the Lord.

1. Martha sees that it is more important for Mary to listen and serve rather than to listen.
2. She presumes to present this viewpoint as a demand. Her sensitive manipulative viewpoint is a demand to the God of the universe.
3. Martha is being self-centered, with a dash of arrogance and jealousy.
4. This is not a good combination by which to approach the Lord Jesus Christ.
5. Martha is in effect out of fellowship and all of this service is so important, it is worthless as divine good.

Luke 10:41 But the Lord answered her, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things,

Jesus does not buckle to her demands, but He remains gentle towards her. "Chilax, have a little wine and take a seat." Jesus could have blasted her for what she is doing. Lots of irritated men would have come loose are her emotional breakdown. He mildly reproves her, slowing her emotions, soothing her. Jesus knows how to handle people. This is a time for tenderness. Furthermore, what she is doing by way of service is necessary, as long as she gets back into fellowship.

Martha is freaking out over her household duties. She wants a beautiful presentation and a tasty meal. How many times have you been slaving in the kitchen while everyone is watching the game? Simmering like the gravy. Martha has wrong priorities. When Jesus is teaching, it is time to learn.

Closing Points

1. Martha's priorities are wrong. She needs to calm down and listen.
2. She must focus on doctrine as the most important issue in the life of any believer. Mary has got this part right.
3. Mary is correct in her desire to listen to the Lord teach.

After Jesus has calmed her down, He says this:

Luke 10:42 but one thing is necessary. Mary has chosen the good portion, which will not be taken away from her."

Chew on that until Sunday morning.

Lesson #0715

Luke 10:38–40 Life of Christ

1/11/2015 1Sunday

7 streaming video classes right now. There are groups in Portland, Missouri, San Antonio.

Luke 10; we are in the Mary and Martha section. The place of women in religion has been debated, hotly so. So often women are relegated to a minor role and even to inferiority. Islam falls into a category of repression. Islam means submission. Women in that religion are in complete subjugation to men and in heaven will be there for the sexual pleasure of men. There have been many secular backlashes to this; today, we have feminism, which has developed into an anti-Biblical power struggle between men and women. Solution is not found in women taking on male roles or vice versa. There is neither male nor female in Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek; slave nor free. For we are all one, united in one body in Christ Jesus.

These divisions will always exist in human history; and gender plays a part in human life. There is a summary of this in Angelic Conflict. "Nothing is charged for; it is yours if you want it." Both genders have equal opportunity to grow spiritually and each gender has spiritual gifts and all believers have some form of ministry or service. During our Lord's time on earth, Jesus showed nothing but respect for womanhood.

Luke 10:38 Now as they went on their way, Jesus entered a village. And a woman named Martha welcomed him into her house.

Luke 10:39 And she had a sister called Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet and listened to his teaching.

Mary and Martha were two important women in the life of Jesus Christ. Their faith and spiritual growth were shining examples to many; and even to the disciples. Mary anointed our Lord's feet in oil, which is a sign of completely devotion, which the disciples did not fully grasp.

Mary and Martha were the sisters of Lazarus, who Jesus raised from the dead. Not a resurrection but a recessitation.

Now, Jesus is in their home. His final week before the crucifixion is spent here. There is no hassle from the religious types. He is teaching, in the living room of Martha and Mary. Right in the middle of His lecture, Jesus is interrupted by Martha.

Luke 10:40 But Martha was distracted with much serving. And she went up to him and said, "Lord, do You not care that my sister has left me to serve alone? Tell her then to help me."

Distraction is the worst thing for a believer in the Christian life. She has a lot going on in her life that changes her focus. Right in the middle of His teaching, Martha asks Jesus to get Mary up and helping her. She is upset over Mary's absence in the kitchen. She has an attitude. Mary was paying rapt attention to Jesus' teaching. Martha is overwhelmed with the kitchen. Service to Jesus is not just about good deeds, logistics or even kindness. The doctrines that Jesus is teaching are necessary for our spiritual life. It is necessary for us to learn and to grow. That is the prerequisite for the most effective Christian service. That is a part of our life and a part of our responsibility before the Lord.

In effect, Martha scolds Jesus for not dealing with this situation already. Martha sees physical nourishment as taking priority over spiritual nourishment. That was not Mary's priority or the priority of the Lord Jesus Christ.

What Christianity Today Should Get from this

1. Pastors must teach; and listeners must hear and grow.
2. That is the good part that must be chosen. This trumps going out and doing things for God. People think that attendees at Berachah don't do anything.
3. Unfortunately today, Christianity has become enamored with works. Pass out tracts, get out and witness, do a pot luck for everyone; do some service. This is all fine and even good in many cases. But this is secondary to doctrine and spiritual growth.
4. Doctrine is actually denigrated and works elevated as the epitome of the Christian life.
5. According to what our Lord will say, listening and metabolizing doctrine provides the correct motivation for service and it requires correct motivation and fellowship. What Martha does has no standing with the Lord.
6. Doctrine must come first; that is the lesson here.

3 Principles

1. Being occupied with Christ is better than being occupied for Christ. That is service without spiritual growth.
2. To devote oneself to the study of the Word of God and to learn from it is more important than being busy for the Lord.
3. One does not exclude the other. It is all a matter of priorities.

Mary was diverted from her kitchen duty. She walked away from her work in the kitchen to sit at the feet of Jesus. That is her choice. How much more important to be fed by the Lord than to feed Him?

A caveat for the zealous. This is not about you skipping work to attend Bible class. Many years ago Bobby worked in high school and college at a cement plant; and it was a brutal job. One guy there who was a Christian who went to Berachah. He would take breaks to read the Bible. This did not go over well with those who were working. He did not know enough to finish his work and then to read his Bible. People get that because Mary left her work in the kitchen to listen to Jesus. In life, we have hundreds of options to keep us from learning and growing in the Word of God. We learn when we have the time to do so. This is why Bobby has Bible class at night. Bobby would much rather have Bible class in the morning. We have choices and there are times to do it. For Mary this was the time, because Jesus is in her home.

Doctrine must come first, and then everything else falls into place. Never neglect the priority of teaching and learning.

What is the final truth that Jesus emphasizes? What is the connection to the parable of the Good Samaritan. Service is important and also the exercise of our spiritual gift is important; but this must be preceded by learning Bible doctrine.

The parable of the Good Samaritan promotes mercy as a part of Christian service.

Martha was very zealous in her ministry of feeding. Mary was oriented to spiritual advance. She was learning grace orientation. Grace orientation is the basis for the Samaritan's service. He rendered service, but doctrine was in his soul to begin with.

Luke 10:40 But Martha was distracted with much serving. And she went up to him and said, "Lord, do You not care that my sister has left me to serve alone? Tell her then to help me."

Luke 10:41 But the Lord answered her, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things,

Luke 10:42 but one thing is necessary. Mary has chosen the good portion, which will not be taken away from her."

Martha was distracted by all of the things in her own home, when Jesus was there teaching the Word. The top priority for all believers are the words of Jesus Christ and of the Bible. This prepares us for whatever God has for us in this life.

Jesus was following up in some areas already evangelized by the 70 disciples sent out. Jesus Christ prayed at every major crisis point and highlight of His life. Prayer was a critical part of the ministry of Jesus Christ.

Prayers by Jesus Christ

1. He prayed when baptized by John.
2. He prayed when He picked His disciples, calling for God's will to be done.
3. He prayed at the transfiguration. That is what He was doing when transfigured.
4. He prayed for Simon Peter, a prayer of intercession.
5. One of the most famous was in the garden of Gethsemene, before He was taken into custody. "Not My will, but Your will be done." A prayer of petition for Himself.
6. He often prayed alone, as in Luke 5:16 and 9:18.

Luke 11:1 Now Jesus was praying in a certain place, and when He finished, one of His disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray, as John taught his disciples."

Luke 11:2 And he said to them, "When you pray, say: "Father, hallowed be Your name. Your kingdom come.

Luke 11:3 Give us each day our daily bread,

Luke 11:4 and forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone who is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation."

What Jesus Is Doing with this Prayer

1. Jesus is using prayer to teach the disciples. We do not use that in prayer meetings or in our private prayers.
2. This is a pattern in the use of all prayer; a pattern for us to follow. It is not a rote prayer.
3. The prayer itself was not a model for continuous repetition, which is how it is used today, as a ritual prayer.

In Houston ISD, this prayer was recited over the intercom. Jesus did not give us this prayer to be rote repeated over and over again, which is how it is used today.

How many times have you seen an older movie where someone is in trouble and they pray this prayer?

This is an outline of prayer. There is a battle going on in our schools today. Bobby is fine that this prayer ceased to be repeated in schools. It had become a ritual without reality.

Bobby just said it; and it meant nothing to him or to anyone else. A classic nod-to-God, but meaningless in how it was used. Anytime someone wants to evoke the name of God, here comes this prayer. The assumption is that these words, in and of themselves, are important, even when they are repeated only by rote. Ritual without reality.

Prayer is a personal one-way conversation. We will get an answer, but not by voice. Prayer is a private conversation with God. It is not rote repetition. Jesus knew what He was praying and what it meant.

Luke 11:1 Now Jesus was praying in a certain place, and when He finished, one of His disciples said to Him, "Lord, teach us to pray, as John taught his disciples."

This is an abbreviated form of the prayer offered up in Matthew. The words themselves are not the actual focus.

How Should We Understand this Prayer?

1. Prayer need not be spoken in exactly the same way time after time. Don't you have anything to say to Him?
2. This prayer is the outline in which all prayer should be offered.
3. In this prayer, the Lord is presenting a structure for prayer. If a structure of prayer; each part of this prayer has a meaning.

The Model Prayer as Presented Here.

1. First, we direct prayer toward God the Father. There is a family relationship that exists as a model prayer. We as believers are also to pray as family members. In John 1:12, we are sons of God, those who believe in His Name. We pray as in a family, as if speaking to our father. We have an intimate status with the father. We do this based upon our unique status. It is a salutation. We have direct access to God the Father because of Jesus Christ.
2. Then we follow this with praise and reverence. We recognize that God is holy, separated, the God of perfect justice and righteousness. He wants the Father's name to be recognized in this way. There are many ways to recognize God the Father and His character and that aspect of this prayer. It becomes known and revered by men. You can watch a movie and hear friends talk, and often they try to punctuate something with the name of Jesus Christ or they will damn someone using God's name. These things bother Bobby a great deal because hallowed be Your name. We should keep His name as set apart and holy. In human history, there has never been a time when the name of God has been revered. So often in every generation, God is used as a curse. There will come a time in the future where His name will be revered throughout the earth.
3. Then Jesus calls for the coming of the Father's kingdom. Jesus will be the King of that kingdom. Jesus is calling for His kingdom to be extended from heaven to earth. Jesus is praying in the time of the Hypostatic Union. This extends the time of the Jewish Age. At the end of the Tribulation, the resurrected Christ will return and begin

His kingdom. He will return at the time of great trouble and relieve the earth of all this trouble.

- a. We believe in pre-millennialism.
- b. The others believe in post-millennialism. The church is not taken up. We go through the Tribulation.
- c. The prophecy of the king will come to pass; and every knee will bow at that time. That is the reverence of His name. Operation footstool.

Psalm 110:1 A Psalm of David. The LORD says to my Lord: "Sit at My right hand, until I make Your enemies Your footstool."

Heb. 10:12–14 But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, he sat down at the right hand of God, waiting from that time until his enemies should be made a footstool for his feet. For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified.

He is seated and waiting for that time onward. That will be the time of the Father's choosing for that time to begin. The unknown date when the Father's time will come. That is when His enemies will be made a footstool for His feet. In victory, He will place His foot on the neck of His enemies. This is a picture of conquest. There is a time designated in the divine decrees.

A prayer to be found in Revelation which simply says, "Come, Lord Jesus."

Luke 11:2 And he said to them, "When you pray, say: "Father, hallowed be Your name. Your kingdom come.

Lesson #0717?

Luke 11:2–4 Life of Christ

1/14/2015 Wed

Similar script to Saving Private Ryan, but it takes place at the end of the war. Brad Pitt did an excellent job in this movie. It might be the Angelie Jolie movie. Some Scripture was quoted and accurately so.

The Lord's Prayer is quoted in this film. He is praying over a dying soldier. This becomes merely rote. They think that it will commend them to God. This is not the case. This prayer is no substitute for a relationship with God through Jesus Christ. This prayer is not a liturgy. This prayer taught and answered a question. This is a prayer to teach how one should pray. This is a teaching example of prayer.

Luke 11:2 And he said to them, "When you pray, say: "Father, hallowed be Your name. Your kingdom come.

Jesus does not mean that we speak these exact words.

Luke 11:3 Give us each day our daily bread,

Luke 11:4 and forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone who is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation."

This is an abbreviation of the prayer from Matt. 6 and this provides us with a structure.

What this Pattern Is All about

1. Father is a family relationship. We are sons of God, which refers to men and women. This salutation reflects our family relationship with God. He hears us as a good father would a son or a daughter.
2. He also includes a word of praise to the Father, recognizing His character.
3. Jesus looks toward the future and toward a future event. The Jews have entirely rejected their King, the LORD. We are not the kingdom as the church.
4. Abraham is promised a great nation. Israel has this promise. Jesus Christ is addressing Jews who expect the promised kingdom. The kingdom would not happen until the 2nd advent. The Old Testament has promised the coming of the kingdom many times. When this kingdom does come, all of His enemies will be put under His heel.

Psalm 110:1 A Psalm of David. The LORD says to my Lord: "Sit at My right hand, until I make Your enemies Your footstool."

We know that the King spoken of here is Jesus Christ.

Jesus Christ on the cross is the sacrifice for our sins. He called out, "It is finished." It is over; it is complete. He has offered one sacrifice for sins for all time.

Heb. 10:12 But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, He sat down at the right hand of God,

Heb. 10:13 waiting from that time until His enemies should be made a footstool for His feet.

Heb. 10:14 For by a single offering He has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified.

His feet on the neck of His enemies is a conquest; what a ruler would do over his enemies.

Zech. 14:9 prophesies the Millennium.

Operation Footstool

1. The reign of Jesus Christ was prophesied by Isaiah in Isa. 9:6–7 For to us a child is born, to us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder, and his name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and of peace there will be no end, on the throne of David and over his kingdom, to establish it and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time forth and forevermore. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

2. Mark 13:7 There will be wars and rumors of wars until I come. We are at war today against Islam. Islam was born of war and force and remains this today. 109 sirahs about Jihad and war in the Koran. We have no right to be frightened of any religion like Islam. Islam does not mock us; they mock God and God will destroy them. Yet that is not yet the end.
3. The rule for 1000 years of the Millennium, when wars will cease. Isa. 65:25 The wolf and the lamb shall graze together; the lion shall eat straw like the ox, and dust shall be the serpent's food. They shall not hurt or destroy in all my holy mountain," says the LORD. Man cannot bring about a utopian peace. Yet we strive to do this.
4. During this time of peace, Satan the great enemy of God, along with his fallen angels. He will be incarcerated in the abyss for 1000 years of our Lord's reign.
5. The environment of the Millennium will duplicate that of the prehistoric universe before the fall of Satan; as well as being that of man's first habitat.
6. There are a number of descriptions.
 - a. Universal peace on the earth. Micah 4:
 - b. All warfare will cease.
 - c. All nations will enjoy economic prosperity. No hunger. There will be some amount of poverty on this earth. A war on poverty has caused more poverty.
 - d. Religion and false doctrine will be eradicated.
 - e. There will be complete worship of the Lord.
 - f. Nature will no longer be cursed, as in the fall.
 - g. No disease; no starvation. The bacteria which cause all of these mala
 - h. There will be injustice.
7. Things will be difficult, in spite of these pristine conditions. Sin will still exist. Believers who survive the Tribulation and go into the Millennium and they will not be resurrected. They go into the Millennium with their sin natures. They will sin and they will procreate as well. The basic problem of man is his sin nature. Some children will reject Jesus Christ as their Savior. That is the problem of the sin nature. Because such are alive during these 1000 years, the footstool is not yet complete.
8. At the end of 1000 years, Satan will be released from his incarceration.
 - a. When he is released, he will reignite the rebellion of the garden.
 - b. In Rev. 20, this is the Gogand Magog revolution.
 - c. Satan, code-named Gog;will lure myriads of unbelievers
 - d. This will be a futile revolution will be instantly repressed. Rev. 20:9
9. This is the end of human history.
 - a. All unbelievers will be resurrected. This is the 2nd resurrection. The first was that of all believers.
 - b. Unbelievers will not be made Christ's footstool. That is the culmination of operation footstool.
 - c. Once and for all conquered, crushed, these enemies will lie prostrate at the Lord's feet and in victory, the Lord will stand and forever remove His enemies.
 - d. The original sentence of Satan will be carried out. Matt. 25:41

10. At the end of human history, our Lord opens the Great White Throne; the throne of judgment. All enemies are removed from the earth; and all unbelievers, Satan and his fallen angels will be cast into the Lake of Fire.

If we don't call them terrorists, maybe they won't be terrorists one day? We do not have a clue as to what we are facing.

Luke 11:2 And he said to them, "When you pray, say: "Father, hallowed be Your name. Your kingdom come.

Jesus reassures us here that the kingdom will come, despite all the rejection; despite the fact that a new age will come into existence; in spite of the Tribulation; the kingdom promised to Abraham and his descendants will still come in.

Even so, come Lord Jesus. This is a legitimate prayer for us.

Lesson #0718

Luke 11:2 Life of Christ

1/15/2015 Thurs

This prayer is an answer to a question; and gives an outline for prayer. You say, Father; then you set apart His Name; come Your kingdom; provide for us; forgive our sins; and lead us not into temptation. A 6 point outline; a format for us to pray. What we need to find out is, what each line means to us as we pray. This prayer is not a liturgy. It is not to be used in a repetitious manner.

Luke 11:2 And he said to them, "When you pray, say: "Father, hallowed be Your name. Your kingdom come.

So Far, We Have Studied the Salutation.

1. This is a sign of respect; we speak His name when opening the prayer.
2. Citing His Name indicates family relationship between God the Father and God the Son. This is just as that family relationship is present for a believer when he or she addresses God in prayer.
3. We are all members of His family. We have the right and privilege to address Him as such. Christianity is a personal relationship with God through Jesus Christ. He ushers us into this relationship through His death.
4. Jesus gives a word of praise to the Father. Praise His name is one way of indicating esteem in the prayer. That recognizes God for Who He is and what He has done for us.

Then we call for God's kingdom to come.

The Kingdom

1. The kingdom in the Person of Jesus Christ is already on earth.

2. Jesus Christ knows that He has been rejected by His people the Jews. There will be no king in the 1st advent.
3. Jesus will rule over Israel and the rest of the world as well.
4. This request is for His future return at the 2nd advent.
5. The Jews expected a conquering Messiah. They expected someone like King David. They did not expect Jesus Christ in the way that He arrived. He is awaiting the time of return, as determined by the Father. The Lord has a great desire for this moment. And this will happen.
6. When Jesus sits on the throne, there will be an entirely different environment for man. The perfect environment. There will be unmitigated blessing for the entire world.
7. In operation footstool, He will remove all of His enemies.

When He makes this statement, we understand what He means in this model of a prayer. But we still live here and we are still to fulfill the plan of God.

Bobby saw dying grace in his father's and mother's deaths. It was a wonderful thing to experience as well leave this life. It only takes a moment in time to believe in Christ.

The 4th point in the outline is v. 3:

Luke 11:3 Give us each day our daily bread,

We pray for our personal needs. This is the personal petition in prayer. Personal petitions address those circumstances. Praying for a million dollars is ridiculous. Praying for a daily needs makes sense. We should pray for those things which we need. There are problems in life which are specific needs. Certainly we can pray for a relief of problems. We may get ourselves into a big mess and we pray to God to get us out of it.

1. This is an example of logistical needs.
2. Jesus is limiting us here to our needs for one day. The Jews understood manna and how this is similar to manna.
3. We are to trust in God on a daily basis; every single day.

Daily Prayer

1. The Lord takes care of us one day at a time.
2. That is the way that we must live; trusting God daily. We pray that way and we live that way.
3. This phrase also reminds us of the habitual daily need for prayer. Requesting for our logistical needs every day.
4. Prayer must be continually just as God supplies continually.
5. This is the pattern for petition. For us today, the Apostle Paul made a statement in 1Thess. 5:17 Pray without ceasing. You pray continuously but not constantly.

6. Jesus is saying, "Keep on giving us daily bread for the new day and then each day thereafter."

Luke 11:3 Give us each day our daily bread,

The fifth line is a bit more complex.

Luke 11:4 and forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone who is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation."

Jesus does not need to ask the Father for forgiveness. This reveals the attitude and circumstance in which we pray. The attitude in which we pray is always in humility. We must depend upon God's grace. The forgiveness of grace is the epitome of grace. We all have sin natures and we sin on a daily basis.

Prayer of rebound is a naming of our sin. That is the attitude and the circumstance of prayer. Aphiem. To remit, cancel, to forgive debt.

We cannot expunge our debt to God on our own. It is impossible. That is what so much of the Christian world thinks. There are those that think there is something that we can do to take away our debt.

We are trapped in the slavery of sin because we have a sin nature; and we are all unrighteous. All these pre-salvation sins are forgiven at the cross, along with the post salvation sins as well. This gives us an open door to God. God has provided a means by which we can be forgiven. The cross is the basis for rebound. Saying this means that Jesus is speaking directly to the disciples and to us. This is a critical aspect of prayer. Rebound is a critical aspect of any prayer.

The Forgiveness Part of this Prayer

1. Forgiving everyone indebted to us is a grace analogy. Think about the most harm any person has done to us.
2. This is not a condition for God's forgiveness.
3. Forgiving others represents the graciousness of God that us as believers can model. This helps us to recognize just what grace really is.
4. Thus we can comprehend forgiveness of others that we do not deserve. We are grace oriented in how we deal with other people. Nothing worse in this life than holding a grudge, day after day, week after week. It is wonderful to walk away and to forget it. It was not easy for God to send His Son to die for our sins. We are nothing; we are dirt. In our pathetic way; maybe we can slightly understand God's grace.
5. The analogy is, the disciples under the principle of grace must freely forgive as God has forgiven them.

No one needed this prayer more than the disciples; but then, so do we. We need to reciprocate that grace toward others.

Forgiveness

1. This represents our indebtedness to God.
2. Debt requires a payment for this debt. There is not enough money to pay our debt; Christ paid it for us.
3. We do not owe God penance or works for the forgiveness of sins.
4. All we need is the rebound prayer for the forgiveness of post-salvation sins. When we make the prayer to rebound; we need to remember that.
5. Rebound is not a repayment. It is a gracious forgiveness without strings or without payment.
6. Likewise, that is the way that believers must forgive sins against them by others. This is a prayer that is related to grace orientation. It takes a lot of humility to forgive as Christ forgave us.
7. Believer's forgiveness of others is grace oriented. We understand God and His forgiveness of us.
8. Believers are obligated to forgive others as a demonstration of grace orientation. This is not a suggestion; it is an obligation. If God forgave us the most, then we can forgive others the lesser amount.
9. When the Lord says "Forgive us our sins" he is commending rebound; which ought to be a part of every prayer.
10. Rebound is just naming our sins; and that is asking for forgiveness. "Forgive us our sins," and they are forgiven.

Luke 11:4 and forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone who is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation."

the final line of this prayer is, "Lead us not into temptation." It appears that we are asking God not to lead us into temptation. But God never does that. And this is not well translated. It will take time to sort this out. Who leads us into temptation and what does it mean and what does it mean in our prayer.

Lesson #0719

Luke 11:2 Life of Christ

1/18/2015 1Sunday

Communion Sunday January 18, 2015:

We are following the instructions of the Lord Jesus Christ near the end of His life. We must understand the information behind the communion.

Jesus is not only a good teacher, a good man or just a role model. He said, "I can forgive your sins" and He said, "I can cleanse you, I can give you eternal life;" and He said, "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life; no man can come to the Father but through Me." If these things are not true, then He would not be a good man; He would have deceived the world for centuries. Is He Who He claimed to be? Could anyone live a sinless life? Could anyone but God perform all of those miracles before so many witnesses? What is the Biblical assurance that He is Who He claims to be? Col. 1:15 He is the image of the invisible God; and the firstborn of all creation. Deity and humanity in One Person. He is the exact or mirror image of the invisible God. Only God Himself can be a mirror image of God. As that image, He is co-equal and co-eternal with the Father. We are carried back before the moment of divine creation; and we are looking at that which already was at the beginning of time. For by him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities--all things were created through him and for him. Isaac and Jacob were not first in sequence. They were the designated rightful heirs to the estates of their fathers. Firstborn can refer to rank rather than to order of birth. This is the designation for the sovereign head of a family. As the firstborn of all creation, Jesus Christ is the head of the family.

Jesus is responsible for creating the original universe. Creation was finger work: Psalm 8:3 When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place,... But salvation work is the work of His arms (as per Isa. 53).

If Jesus can wave His finger and create the universe, he can do the greater work of salvation. Jesus holds back eternity so that the grace of God can appropriate salvation through His Son. Peter tells us that the current universe will be renewed.

Jesus is the heir to the throne of David and He will be seated on the throne of David for the regathered nation of Israel. He will become the recipient of all things. Jesus has an unparallel place in the church as our Redeemer. The Creator and Sustainer of the universe.

Col 1:13 He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. Every person is born a captive into the slave market of sin. We have Adam's original sin imputed to us; we have the sin nature; and we have committed personal sins. Jesus has no strikes against Him.

Jesus was born a sinless man, free of the sin nature. 1Peter 1:18–19 ...knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot.

Jesus paid in full for every sin that we will ever commit. We are transferred to His family by faith alone in Christ alone.

This is not a prayer for recitation but an outline for a prayer.

Luke 11:2 And He said to them, "When you pray, say: "Father, hallowed be Your name. Your kingdom come.

Prayers are addressed to the Father; His name is set apart; we ask for our daily provision; each one of the 6 parts has something to tell us about how we pray.

Luke 11:3 Give us each day our daily bread,

Luke 11:4 and forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone who is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation."

Lesson #0720

Luke 11:2– Life of Christ

1/18/2015 2Sunday

The Lord's Prayer Guide

1. A salutation; to whom the letter is addressed; to Whom the prayer is addressed. When we address Him as Father, this also reveals our familial relationship.
2. We praise Him, speak of Him being set apart from all else. Or we thank Him for anything.
3. Then we make a request for His kingdom to come. It is God's kingdom and our Lord's kingdom. Jesus looks forward to that time. We are in the Church Age and we are different from Israel. We have not taken over Israel's promises. Rev. 22:20 John makes a similar request. That is an example of following our Lord's words. Our last moments when we are face to face with the Lord.
4. Our own personal petitions; our own personal needs. We need to form in our own words to tell God what we need.
5. Forgive us our sins. This request for forgiveness reminds us that rebound is integral to prayer. We must be in fellowship. Without being in fellowship, He will not hear our requests. We may not get everything that we ask for. It might be dumb what we ask for. God's plan comes first and God may answer us no. God freely forgives us when we name our sins. We fill in the sin; that is a formal to simply ask for the forgiveness of sins. We have to express to God what our sins are. We forgive everyone who is indebted to us. There might be people out there that you will never forgive. Forgiveness of others is a grace analogy of God's grace. If you can forgive someone who is totally repulsive, then this represents God's grace. But forgiving others is not a condition for God's forgiveness. Do not put the cart before the horse. You need to have grace orientation and impersonal love in order to forgive all of those who have harmed you.
6. The final one is Lead us not into temptation. Eispharoh with the negative mê; which means not to carry, not to bring into. This is a figurative sense. Bringing in an idea; bring us to something which is connected to evil. Underlying all of this is the understanding that it is not God Who perpetrates evil and brings it upon us. That is not the request in this line. Clearly, in Scripture, God may permit certain bad things to happen, even to good people. That is much different than God directly bringing evil upon us. God does not tempt us to evil. James 1:13 Let no one say when he is tempted, "I am being tempted by God," for God cannot be tempted with evil, and he himself tempts no one. Whatever God allows to be brought to us is not a temptation from Him; God does not tempt us to evil. He can have nothing to do with evil. If He does not bring evil to us or tempts us, what does it mean?

What Does Jesus Mean?

1. A temptation from an outside source.
2. Jesus is requesting that God not allow certain outer temptations of evil to come upon Him.
3. This would be the meaning of this same line of prayer for us. "God please curb the enticement to sin and give me the strength to say no."
4. This is a legitimate request of God to help us avoid sin and evil.
5. This substitution...
6. This is something that God does for us when we depend upon Him. Jesus cannot literally tempt us to sin. To ask Him not to entice us is unacceptable; He does not do it; God is the source of our strength; He is not our temptation. Other outward things do tempt us.

Luke 11:2 And He said to them, "When you pray, say: "Father, hallowed be Your name. Your kingdom come.

Luke 11:3 Give us each day our daily bread,

Luke 11:4 and forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone who is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation."

peirosmos, which means, in this context, testing. "Do not allow testing to come into us (or to happen to us)." This test comes from an outside source and not from God. Our request is that God preclude the evil brought on by someone or some other circumstance.

Take this and combine it with people testing; this is the worst testing that we can have. Prayer in people testing is critical. Too often we think, what can I do to fix this situation? Your first thought should be, what can the Lord do in all of this situation? We are tempted to sin by inward lust and outward stimuli. People are testing in school to learn something or to show what you have learned. It is legitimate to make a request to pass the tests that life throws our way. There are tests every day. We in turn are requesting that God protect us, that He might remove the testing; or, that He might protect us from the evil results. Pray that God help us through testing; this is a legitimate part of prayer.

Our Lord had many trials and tribulations. Undoubtedly, the Lord asked the Father for relief. He had a vibrant prayer life. During the transfiguration, He was in prayer. Right before His arrest,...

We will be shocked what Jesus asked to be released from. Matt. 26:38–39 Then He said to them, "My soul is very sorrowful, even to death; remain here, and watch with Me." And going a little farther He fell on his face and prayed, saying, "My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from Me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as You will." Jesus allows for the will of the Father to be done.

Whenever a request is made, it will be answered according to God's will; even in the most hopeless situation, you make a request. Do not try to superimpose your will over God's by prayer. "If it is possible..." The cross is a necessity for man; for this was a necessity for God's plan. If we are to fulfill God's plan, then make a request and allow for God's will in the request.

It was not God that perpetrated evil, but God's grace that perpetrated a solution to that evil. This was a legitimate prayer and a prayer so that we might understand its legitimacy.

Lesson #0721

Luke 11:4–6 Life of Christ

1/21/2015 Wed

Luke 11:4 and forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone who is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation."

πειρασμος = testing. God does not test us with evil. God can have nothing to do with evil; and He does not test us in that way. We ask the Father to defend us from evil from outside sources, to which our sin nature causes us to succumb from time to time. We are making a legitimate request on behalf of ourselves. There are times when we look at what is coming in our life, and it is clear that something is coming. There are many things that this line teaches us about our own request for prayer. Such prayers are legitimate; asking God to protect us or remove such testing/temptation.

Does this seem to be leading me outside of the plan of God. The great prayer of a soldier is protection on the battlefield.

Bobby's first jump in airborne and he ent up a prayer, as did many others.

Matt. 26:39 is one of the most revealing of our Lord's requests.

Matt. 26:38–39 Then He said to them, "My soul is very sorrowful, even to death; remain here, and watch with Me." And going a little farther He fell on his face and prayed, saying, "My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from Me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as You will."

Prayer on your knees is not a requirement. You can be in any attitude at any time and in any place. There are many places where we make requests of the Lord. Our Lord fell on His face and prayed. This is a strong beseeching of God. This is not some off-handed prayer. This is a deep request in prayer for relief. He qualifies His request. Jesus speaks metaphorically; to let the cup pass from Him.

You pray, if it is possible, recognizing that the will of God is always involved. You do not have to say that, but you know that is true. This is not an unreasonable request. As long as the Lord was willing to follow God's will all the way to the cross.

This is our model; our outline for requests.

Three Final Points

1. It is legitimate to pray for relief from pain and suffering.
2. We can make the same type of request as did the Lord Jesus Christ on our own behalf. Everything that you pray for is a request. Remember who you are speaking to. You have every right as a family member to make these requests.
3. As long as we are willing to accept the will of the Father, we make our requests known to Him.

Luke 11:4 and forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone who is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation."

We are always assured that He will hear us. Whatever the answer is, it is to us, our business. We can make the same prayer to deal with the various tests that we face. The best may not be removed or side-stepped, but that is always for a good reason.

In the spiritual life, we have a spiritual destiny; and there may some twists and turns and flat straight ones, but we still have a destiny every step of the way. Removal or not. We can pray, to either have it removed or to be given the strength to endure it.

Rom. 5:3–5 More than that, we rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.

Perseverance

1. Perseverance is a good thing. People who commit suicide is a lack of endurance. Even believers who commit suicide do not lose their salvation. Testing is part of spiritual growth. If you reject your testing, then you are rejecting your destiny. We will find out how far we could have gone, had we simply endured our suffering. There is never justification for a believer committing suicide, because we have a destiny in Christ. A Greek professor at Bobby's seminary committed suicide when he had to put his wife into long-term care. This is what happens when a believer neglects doctrine. They get out of fellowship and cannot deal with the pressure. He failed to endure.
2. Perseverance means that we are relying on the spiritual life in adversity.
3. Perseverance means that we see it through using divine resources at our disposal.
4. Perseverance is produced when we exercise faith rest in the face of adversity and testing. Even an immature believer can exercise faith rest in the face of adversity; and such a believer grows and moves forward. They begin to realize a destiny; they gain humility. Arrogance cannot handle people testing. Too self-centered.

5. Adversity and testing should be face with the problem solving devices and with prayer. That is always the will of God. Testing and suffering are commended because they can bring blessing.
6. From suffering can come accelerated spiritual growth and training in the use of divine resources. We have the resources immediately; they are there and available. And you must be trained in them. When the Lord does not remove the testing, it is for our benefit.
7. It is training to handle all things in life by depending upon the Lord. Psalm 56:3 At what time I am afraid, I will trust in the Lord. This is a promise which conjures up the essence of God rationale.

Testing has an eternal aspect to it as well. If you pass the test, you will get a reward for passing the test.

Testing and God's Will

1. It may not be God's will to remove the testing.
2. The adversity may not come from God, but the test might still fit into His plan for us. We must be able to think this way. This may be to our best interest. To pray not receive testing that actually fulfills God's will and purpose will never be answered positively. That would be a prayer outside of God's will. This is complaining that God has not removed a test from you.
3. God is never to blame; He does everything in our best interest. That is the way that we think.
4. We cannot expect God to remove testing that is outside of His will no matter how difficult the test. If you have a physical condition that is painful and debilitating and difficult, ask for relief, but there is a purpose.
5. We cannot pray a prayer that asks for God not to allow testing to come into our lives when He uses that testing for our benefit. We can pray about a test we are in or to prevent one from coming; but not to remove a test to our benefit.
6. We can pray to remove a test if possible.

A Summary: Here Is How We Pray

1. Address the prayer to God, as He is our Father.
2. Give praise to Him as holy, set-apart and worthy of worship.
3. Seek His interests first. Remember His kingdom and His will be done. All testing is for our benefit.
4. Then pray for your own interests; logistical grace, guidance; relief from adversity. Interceding for others who need prayer.
5. Don't forget the forgiveness of sins for rebound.

Our Lord has given us a format; and next He gives the disciples a parable. Prayer can never cease as long as we are alive. Pray consistently on a daily basis in the way that our Lord described.

Jesus teaches the disciples perseverance with two parables.

The first is requesting bread from a friend; and the second one is requesting food from one's father.

Introduction

1. These two parables are different from other parables; important in interpreting and understanding these doctrines. There is a context for them and an interpretation for them. The problem is making that connection.
2. In Luke 11:5–13 is made by a contrast of persons, rather than by similarities.
3. In the parable of the good Samaritan, Christ was like the Samaritan, similar to Him. We don't know the parables yet.
4. The giver of bread is analogous to God.
5. God in these parables is not like the giver of bread; He is unlike the giver of bread. Two different ways of interpreting the parable.
6. God is unlike the giver of bread.

Jesus begins with a story. "You need bread in the middle of the night? Why?"

Luke 11:5 And He said to them, "Which of you who has a friend will go to him at midnight and say to him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves,

And Jesus explains why someone would borrow bread in the middle of the night.

Outline of Parable

1. 3 friends in the parable.
2. One friend as a second friend who shows up at his doorstep; tired, hungry, and expected hospitality.
3. So the 1st friend goes to the 3rd friend for a loan of bread to feed the 2nd friend, the guest.
4. It is also clear that there is a pressing need for 3 loaves of bread.
5. There was a reason for the urgency. It was a cultural reason. The 2nd friend was hungry and the household ate all of their food; so the 1st friend needed to provide for his visiting friend. He knew the responsibility and he was embarrassed to be unable to feed his visiting friend. He was certain that the 3rd friend could supply this need.

That is the story. There is a tremendous analogy to prayer here.

Luke 11:6 for a friend of mine has arrived on a journey, and I have nothing to set before him';

Jesus continues teaching prayer. Jesus begins a parable to teach principles of prayer. The disciples requested, teach us how to pray. At first blush, this appears to have nothing to do with prayer; but it is teaching persistence in prayer. It is teaching perseverance in prayer. It is teaching what God is not like. There is a contrast here.

Luke 11:5–6 And He said to them, "Which of you who has a friend will go to him at midnight and say to him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves, for a friend of mine has arrived on a journey, and I have nothing to set before him';

There was nothing at the host's home to provide for the guest. It is a custom to provide for such a visitor. That is a custom of the day. It is an immediate and pressing issue.

The man had to wake up his friend; he was asleep. The man could not get the 3 loaves of bread.

Luke 11:7 and he will answer from within, 'Do not bother me; the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed. I cannot get up and give you anything'?

The friend at home will not even come out. The sleeping man is annoyed by his friend knocking at the door. This man is irritated to say the least. He did not just go away. It seems cold-hearted; but he is not going to get up and help him out.

Now, he must have the loaves.

Luke 11:8 I tell you, though he will not get up and give him anything because he is his friend, yet because of his impudence he will rise and give him whatever he needs.

He will be persistent; and the man inside will finally get up and get him what he wants. The sleeping man said, "Go away," but he would not. He found out that he could not simply ignore this friend. He was not going to give up. He got up and got him the bread that he was asking for.

Points on this Passage

1. The man behind the door did not get up and give the bread because of friendship.
2. It was not enough to get him out of bed, or he would have answered the first knock.
3. He did not care about friendship at this hour of the night. He just wanted to sleep and keep his house asleep.
4. His real motive was to be rid of the friend banging on his door.
5. He gives in to the persistence of his friend.

The key is the Greek word translated persistence. Αναδία; and it is only found here. More difficult to determine a meaning of a word if it is found only in one place. There has been some debate about the meaning of this word. This word means more than persistence in knocking at the door. The Greek lexicon adds, troublesome, impudent. There is an attitude here. He felt no remorse about waking this other man. He did not heed the sleeping man's request that he go away. This persistence achieved what the host desired—getting the bread.

Principles of this Passage

1. Αναδία is related to the motive for prayer.
2. What the host asks for, he must get by demand. He will not get it out of friendship. It is a demand. He is imposing on his friend. It is a persistence, but with an imposition.
3. The result, the knocking is so irksome, that the sleeping man finally got up and gave the friend what he asked for.
4. That is the meaning of persistence in this parable; along with a shameless requirement of an answer.
5. The parable is a contrast between how the 3rd friend answers a petition and how God answers a petition to believers.

This Passage and Intercessory Prayer

1. In the parable, one person persistently makes the request on behalf of another person, based upon what the 3rd person will supply. Always 3 people involved in intercessory prayer.
2. This is the basic intercessory prayer in this parable.
3. The man making a request in an intermediary. He is between the two friends.
4. We might say that he is a go-between for the man in his house who is in need.
5. In that role, as a go-between, he is petitioning the one who requires something.
6. In general, the parable defines the need and the validity of intercessory prayer. It is a request for another person. The bread represents the need.
7. What is Jesus teaching. One believer should petition for the needs of others. We petition for ourselves; but we petition for others as well.
8. One believer or more than one believer are go-between's for another believer or a group of believers.

As priests, they stood in for others. They came between God and Israel. They are intermediaries. Every believer is a priest and this is a function of each of our priesthoods.

This Parable Is a Contrast

1. This parable is the difference between the persistent knocking of one man and the approach of intercessory prayer to God.
2. Clearly, in the parable, the giver of bread, the man behind the door, to whom the request is made, refers to God. So the 3rd friend is God in the parable.
3. The 1st friend is a believer in prayer. The 2nd is the one in need who is being prayed for. The 3rd friend to the one to whom the prayer is made. All 3 are friends, meaning that they all have a relationship with one another.

4. Intimate relationship in prayer to God. Can we say that there are times when God does not like to be bothered? If this was a similar parallel, then we could conclude that God wants to sleep sometimes. Maybe there are times that God refuses to hear needs; not open for business today. Does pray without ceasing mean, you must keep praying for the same need until God gives it to you? Does God respond to nagging? Finally, He will pay attention like any loving parent would.

The Reluctant Answerer

1. This parable is a contrast between God and the man behind the door. The man behind the door reluctantly answers this petition.
2. God is unlike the giver of the bread.
3. God never acts reluctantly, like a person might under these conditions.
4. God does not need to be shamed or badgered into responding to prayers.
5. You do not have to keep petitioning God.
6. God hears you the first request you make. Does it hurt if you ask 2 or 3 times? No, but once is enough.
7. God may not respond immediately because His timing is in play, knowing all of the facts. Our tendency is to ask again when we don't get a response to a prayer. If we pray once, God hears us.
8. God is always able to say yes or no without persistent prompting. God does not have a faulty memory.
9. God always answers when the time is right. When the answer best fulfills His will and His plan for us. We don't always know the right timing for prayer. We can only know that God answers at the time of His Own choosing and His timing is always right.

We cannot look off into the future and know how granting our request will help us in the future or harm us. Unlike the reluctant sleeper, God will answer, but within the limits of His plan.

Luke 11:9 And I tell you, ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you.

Luke 11:10 For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it will be opened.

God is not slow nor is He asking us to badger Him. God does not require us to repeat our request enough times in order to get an answer. Persistence does not mean that we pray over and over again. Nor do we pray for God to change His mind.

God is omniscient; why do I need to pray? He knows even before we ask. Why would He not just do it when the time is right? The simple answer is, He mandates that we pray, and so we do it.

Why do we pray if God knows our request in eternity past? God knew from eternity past who would be saved. Positive volition is still required. The sovereignty of God and the free will of man coexist. A strong Calvinist thinks the faith is just a formality; and that is not the way Scripture presents it. God knows the answer to our prayer request before we ask it. God has not predetermined an answer without you actually praying. We are mandated to prayer. This glorifies Him. It is reassuring to believers to ask and to receive. There is something very comforting in this. This bears the mark of intimacy with God. There is nothing like an expression of this intimacy. God is involved in our affairs; He is involved in everything that we do. When we receive answers, He is with us and He provides for us in every way. God answers prayer because we first ask and then He provides it for us.

This parable is a beautiful contrast. Heb. 4:16 Therefore, let us draw near to the confidence of grace and find grace to help in time of need. When we pray, we come near to God. We approach with some formality, but we can communicate anything to Him.

Lesson #0723

Luke 11:11–13 Life of Christ

1/25/2015 1Sunday

The beginning of that spiritual life is when we exercise faith alone in Christ alone. With maturity, the believer begins to stay in fellowship for longer and longer periods of time. We serve the Lord in whatever area He has designated for us. Individual believers will operate with a particular spiritual gift that we are given at the moment of faith alone in Christ alone. And there are common services which we all render. Witnessing, prayer, are common activities that all believers engage in.

So the disciples said to Jesus, teach us how to pray. There is a format prayer which we studied in great depth. That prayer is an outline of the content of our own prayers. From this prayer, we learn how we are to pray and which areas where we are to pray.

Then Jesus provides more principles of prayer by means of two very similar parables.

There is a traveling man who arrives midnight at a friend's house and he is hungry. The host is obligated to fulfill this need, to feed his guest. But he has nothing with which to feed his friend. So the host goes to a neighbor in order to request bread.

Each one of these men present a principle from the concept of intercessory prayer.

The visitor (guest, traveler) is the one who is prayed about; he is the one in need. The host is making the intercessory request. Parables represent some spiritual truth. The 3rd man, the man behind the door, represents the man who can answer the need of both men. The man behind the door does not want to answer the door. He is asleep. He does not want to wake up the household. But the host is knocking persistently; he is shameless in his knocking and he does not care whether his friend/neighbor is upset or not. The neighbor realizes that his only recourse is to give the host what he wants. So, if the man behind the door represents God, then does this mean that God ignores some requests?

This parable is a contrast; and it is about how God answers prayer from believers. God cannot be shamed or badgered into answering petitions or intercessions; nor does a believer need to desperately pray continually in order to get God's response. The attitude of prayer has no bearing on God's answer.

Some Principles on this Parable.

1. God hears and responds to a request first time.
2. God may not respond immediately. Repeated knocking adds no urgency to God's answers. Timing is a part of it; and He acts at just the right time.
3. God hears and responds to all prayers.
4. A response by God is guaranteed, because of His reputation of faithfulness. He always has us in mind when He answers.
5. Either way, yes or no, God grants a request, it is still a response. It is always to the believer's best interest. Some people repeat their prayers over and over again, in order to get what they want. Prayer becomes a mere formality. God hears us the first time. Liturgy is not a reflection of the intimacy of God. He answers us as a loving Father.
6. God will always answer requests. One prayer means one answer.

Should we persist in praying for some things? No. Persistence in prayer for a pact. We are all in constant need. We are needy people before God. Our needs must be addressed daily. Persistence in prayer to our gracious Heavenly Father, and we might pray every day, and that is a valid and necessary prayer. We know this because of the format; give to us our daily bread. The Lord hears our prayers the first time that we make them. There is not a specific number of prayers that we need to give out in order to get a positive answer. There is no disconnect here.

Example. Before every Bible class, Bobby requests that God bring to mind the information that Bobby is teaching; and this is more than one. Every class is a new class; and Bobby needs the strength and power each time. That is persistence. The format means that Bobby is to ask in prayer on a daily basis for his needs or for intercession. The needs change from day to day.

God is not reluctant; He is always faithful. So there is a contrast here, between God's guaranteed response without any unwillingness. He hears and answers. Just ask, seek knock and you will get an answer. It may be an unexpected answer to your request. Or it may be no. God still guides us. Bobby's life turns out to be fairly repetitive. The timing of the answer is in God's hands. But an answer will be forthcoming. We do not have to shame ourselves with repeated demands to God. Prayer is not begging.

Now we come to the 2nd parable. This is how God answers prayer.

God is not random; He does not provide arbitrary answers. The principle here that should not be missed by the believer; and this will take some time.

Luke 11:11–13 What father among you, if his son asks for a fish, will instead of a fish give him a serpent; or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion? If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!"

Lesson #0724

Luke 11: Life of Christ

1/25/2015 2Sunday

The subject is prayer. Many Christians think of prayer as the spiritual life. Prayer is not the Christian life; it is a result of the spiritual life. Prayer is effective in the Christian life is based upon your growth in the Christian life. You can pray at any point of growth; but your first obligation is to grow up; and the more you advance in the spiritual life, the greater the power of your prayer. .

Example of the woman who prayed for a husband every day, with no husband on the horizon.

God still answers requests.

Principles of Prayer

1. Believers ask for things that seem good and right when they ask. Instead, that request might turn into a scorpion and God knows this.
2. In the long run, something which cannot be anticipated at the time of the prayer. The request might actually be detrimental to you; and detrimental to the plan of God for you.
3. The fish that we request might turn out to be a snake. Might be the problem with the woman requesting a husband.
4. We cannot foresee the final outcome of our requests, but God can in His omniscience. God will answer based on His plan, His will and according to His timing.
5. God sees the big picture; and He sees the future; which we cannot see. That should be a great assurance to us. You might pray for a million bucks and God says no because it would distract you from the plan of God. It is really simple when you think about it. When you pray for something that you do need, and it does not happen right away or at all.
6. God sees if the request made today is compatible with His future plan for us. Prayer is no idle business where God supplies our immediate needs without regard to the final outcome. God is not LasVegas. He is not a slot machine, and we keep pulling on it until we get a payoff. Some believers get so disappointed when God does not come through with what we want. What happens with such a believer? They may blame God for not fixing the situation or correcting the situation. Some people think of prayer as simply an avenue of getting what we want. We need prayer and a faith rest rationale. When we pray, God gives us exactly what we need to fulfill His plan and purpose, which is always the best for us.

What God does is the best for us and for His plan.

Luke 11:9–12 And I tell you, ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it will be opened. What father among you, if his son asks for a fish, will instead of a fish give him a serpent; or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion?

We are all evil in the sense that we have a sin nature. Our sin nature is fully and actively engaged in that. Notice there are all of these family references. When you pray, you are speaking to your Father; an authority figure. We are a part of His family in union with Christ. How much more will the Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!.

Luke 11:13 If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!"

This is a very complex phrase. Even with a sin nature, we can give our children good things; a good education, good training, good gifts. We do based upon what we can do. God uses a form of a fortiori logic. Jesus reverse this. He goes from the lesser to the greater, based upon God's perfect character and unlimited ability. If man can bless his children, given all of our limitations; surely God can do some much more for His Own children. He can do everything and anything.

God gives us the ultimate and perfect gift. This is a basic of the Christian life. The question is, what exactly is Jesus speaking of, offering the Holy Spirit to those who ask for Him. There are many twists and turns in this phrase? Is this a reference to an historical fact in olden times? Or did Jesus Christ want the disciples, to whom He is speaking, to immediately request the Holy Spirit right now. Or is Jesus looking forward to the gift of the Holy Spirit on the day of Pentecost? Was that the moment when this promise of the Holy Spirit will be fulfilled? Or must we ask for the Holy Spirit today in prayer? What is this reference to the Holy Spirit and when did it happen? Does this verse have application to us as believers in the Church Age.

Let's look at the context first. This is spoken to the Jewish disciples who expect the kingdom to occur at anytime, because they are under the authority of the King right here. Jesus is amongst them; and they had every right to expect the kingdom to come. And Jesus the Messiah has offered the kingdom to Israel. There were many who accepted Him; but there were many who had not.

The new dispensation had not been fully explained yet; and the disciples did not understand the Church Age. So the promise of the Holy Spirit, which God first made in the Old Testament, was still valid for Israel. Jesus is speaking to Jewish disciples who are a part of believing Israel. God made this promise to Israel as a nation. What God promises, He does. So God cannot and He does not transfer His promises away from Israel.

This promise is found in Ezek. 36 and Joel 2

Joel 2:28 "And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh; your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, and your young men shall see visions.

Joel 2:29 Even on the male and female servants in those days I will pour out my Spirit.

Joel 2:30 "And I will show wonders in the heavens and on the earth, blood and fire and columns of smoke.

Joel 2:31 The sun shall be turned to darkness, and the moon to blood, before the great and awesome day of the LORD comes.

Joel 2:32 And it shall come to pass that everyone who calls on the name of the LORD shall be saved. For in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be those who escape, as the LORD has said, and among the survivors shall be those whom the LORD calls.

Joel's Promise of the Holy Spirit

1. The Holy Spirit, according to Joel, was a gift that God would give to all of His people at a future time.
2. In Old Testament times, the Holy Spirit was given only to a few prominent figures for specific reasons. He was not given to every believer in Israel. The Holy Spirit was given to leaders, judges, kings, prophets, artisans.
3. Notice what Joel says. He knows that not everyone has the Holy Spirit at this time. The outpouring of the Holy Spirit is to all believers and it referred to the kingdom that God would establish. Joel describes a universal kingdom in the future.
4. When that pouring out of the Holy Spirit comes, it would fall on men, women, servants, children, everyone. This will be in the future.
5. There will be specific signs which accompany this. Visions, prophecies, dreams. These are supernatural activities based upon the Holy Spirit being poured out upon God's people.
6. At that time, Joel prophesies that this will occur in those days. Jesus knew this prophecy because He gave this prophecy to Joel. In context, Jesus is referring to the future time when Jesus would fulfill the promise of the Holy Spirit being given out to believing Israel. But many Jews rejected Jesus so this prophecy could not be fulfilled. The time for fulfillment could not yet occur. As promised, the Holy Spirit would undoubtedly come, but only after the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. So the Holy Spirit would come only when the kingdom of Israel was instituted at a later time.

The Bottom Line

1. Since the promise is made to believing Israel, because the Holy Spirit does not come on to unbelievers, this cannot be fulfilled until the kingdom has come and the King returns.
2. The time of the pouring out of the Holy Spirit upon Israel would be at the 2nd coming of Jesus Christ. Why?
3. That is the beginning of the kingdom, which we call the Millennium. It is a different dispensation. It is the fulfillment of the kingdom promises.

4. That is the dispensational framework for the complete fulfillment of Joel's prophecies.
5. Remember that was what Jesus had prayed for in His model prayer; "Your kingdom come, which is on earth as it is in heaven."

So, Jesus tells them to ask for the Holy Spirit, but in the context of Israel's promise is yet future. We also know that the Holy Spirit will be bestowed on the same disciples on the day of Pentecost. There would be a pouring out of the Holy Spirit. Joel 2 comes to the nation. Jesus came in the Age of the Hypostatic Union. That was a short dispensation. This age is a transition age between the Jewish Age and the Church Age. The disciples are getting it at both ends. There is a fulfillment of this pouring out of the Spirit for the disciples. The Holy Spirit would be bestowed upon the disciples on the day of Pentecost, which will begin the Church Age. This would happen within a year. In part, this is the fulfillment. There will be a dual fulfillment of this. It will be based upon the dispensational ages involved. Shortly at the beginning of the Church Age; and when the Millennium begins.

The disciples got the message, but they also understood the Joel passage as well. This is a round-about way of explaining the new age to come.

There is great power in prayer. What does it mean to ask for the Holy Spirit right now today?

Luke 11:13 If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!"

Lesson #0725 Luke 11:13 Joel 2:28–29 Life of Christ 1/28/2015 Wed

Jesus has been teaching us how to pray. He gave 2 parables on intercessory prayer. This is a very important aspect of our spiritual life. Jesus will give the greatest gift imaginable to those who ask for it.

Luke 11:13 If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!"

if they ask, they will be given. There are dispensational overtones. There is a short-term meaning here and a long-term meaning. One which involves Israel as a nation; and a reference to the Church Age as well. This promise made by Jesus Christ will be fulfilled. A promise of God will always come to fruition. The question here is, when? Should the disciples ask in the next few minutes, once Jesus stops talking?

What exactly is Jesus teaching here? When is he telling these disciples to ask for the Spirit. At this point, when Jesus says, ask for the Holy Spirit, it revives their hope of the kingdom being initiated. When the kingdom came, so would the Holy Spirit. Was the kingdom really near now?

The disciples thought and connected the prophecy of Joel to Jesus' teaching and the kingdom.

All Old Testament prophecy is about Israel.

Joel 2:28 "And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh; your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, and your young men shall see visions.

Joel is repeating a prophecy which God has given him.

Joel 2:29 Even on the male and female servants in those days I will pour out my Spirit.

God would pour out His Spirit even upon servants. Prophecies, dreams, visions; and everyone would be involved. The time frame is a future time. Jesus is speaking to the Jewish disciples. So they represented those who would receive the kingdom. They looked forward to the promised Jewish kingdom.

The disciples thought they understood the prophecy; but Jesus knew that He would be rejected by the nation Israel. He would be crucified and resurrected and then ascend into heaven. He knew all of this was in the horizon. Joel's prophecy would be fulfilled.

Joel's Prophecy

1. The Holy Spirit was bestowed upon these same disciples 10 days after the ascension of Jesus.
2. That bestowal of the Holy Spirit marked the beginning of the Church Age. These men became Apostles.
3. That was also the moment that Israel as a client nation was temporarily set aside.
4. They would no longer be a client nation to God until that future time in those days that Joel was talking about. Now, Joel had no clue about the Church Age. All prophecies, like Joel's, was about Israel.

There will be a dual fulfillment of Joel's prophecy; the day of Pentecost and the actual fulfillment. There will still be a pouring out of the Spirit on the Day of Pentecost.

Luke 11:13 is certainly speaking of Joel's prophecy; and now Jesus says, "Ask for it." But He was also talking about Pentecost. Striking similarities.

They were gathered together in the upper room 10 days after the ascension. They are the common denominator. This is a parallel event.

So it dawns on them, "We need to ask for the Holy Spirit." They realize this on the day of Pentecost? There is certainly application. A near fulfillment, beginning the Church Age; and a complete far fulfillment for the promised kingdom of Israel at the 2nd advent.

What Was Jesus Doing?

1. He is assuring them that the prophecy of Joel is still valid. There will be no kingdom but a new dispensation.
2. Jesus was preparing the disciples for the event of Pentecost. They did not know it yet, but what Jesus was talking about is not far away from them.
3. Jesus is preparing the disciples for the sign of the coming of the Holy Spirit. This would be speaking in tongues for them.
4. Jesus is foreshadowing the great blessing that the Holy Spirit would bring to these disciples in the Church Age.
5. That is exactly what happened on the day of Pentecost. They must have been stunned by all of this. They would be cornerstones in this new dispensation.

Dual Fulfillment

1. Even though there is an application from Joel's prophecy, don't think that they did not remember. This is an application; not a fulfillment.
2. Even though an application, the pouring out of the Holy Spirit is not abrogated to Israel.
3. It is still a valid promise to Israel and still a future event that has not yet occurred.
4. There is a near fulfillment of the promise of the Holy Spirit on the Day of Pentecost. So Jesus says, "Ask for the Holy Spirit."
5. There will be a far and final fulfillment to Joel's promise at the 2nd advent.

Peter will actually quote this prophecy of Joel. He quotes Joel; and he seemingly links Joel's prophecy with the day of Pentecost.

Some say that Peter quoted Joel to herald the kingdom age which would not fall on the church. But he was linking the Joel prophecy to the church. So some think the church has replaced Israel in the plan of God. They think that the church received the promise of the Holy Spirit on the day of Pentecost. Joel's prophecy was totally fulfilled. A dispensational hodgepodge.

It Cannot Be True

1. God promised the kingdom to the nation Israel; and it is an immutable promise; it cannot change. God does not take a promise from one person and give it to another. Only Israel is in view in Old Testament prophecies.
2. The church does receive the Holy Spirit to empower believers in this dispensation.
3. So will Israel receive the Holy Spirit at the initiation of the kingdom.
4. Joel's prophecy was made exclusively to Israel.
5. The church is never a part of Israel's promised kingdom. Sometimes the church is called a kingdom of believers. A kingdom has a king; and Jesus will institute an earthly kingdom.

6. This is a dispensational distinctive; the difference between Israel and the church. This is what happens with people who are not strong dispensationalists.

Why Did Peter Speak to the Prophecy of Joel

1. The result of the disciples of the coming of the Holy Spirit was speaking in tongues. That was the sign. The Holy Spirit descended upon them as tongue of fire. That was the pouring out of the Holy Spirit.
2. Peter gives a sermon; the Pentecostal sermon. He gives this sermon as an explanation of the sign of tongues to the Jews who are there. What is their frame of reference? Joel. They knew the prophecies of Joel.
3. The message was the gospel; it was about the Holy Spirit. It was given to gentiles and Jews in their own language.
4. So Peter used Joel's prophecy to illustrate what was happening at that time.
5. In effect, Peter was saying, "This is the same Holy Spirit that Joel was speaking of and that Jesus was speaking of back in Luke 11. Same Holy Spirit; but a different time to a different set of people.
6. The Holy Spirit had come upon the disciples and the sign of it was speaking in tongues.
7. Tongues is the sign of a new dispensation in the plan of God. It is introduced by this event of the Holy Spirit. A new age; a new dispensation; the church. Tongues was a sign of the new dispensation. The Holy Spirit had not come upon everyone at that time. Only upon the disciples. They continued to do this for awhile; including to those who did not know yet. It dies out when the Holy Spirit is given about.
8. The Holy Spirit was not accompanied at Pentecost by the return of Christ to set up the kingdom.

Application of Joel's Prophecy to the Day of Pentecost

1. It is correct to say that Joel's prophecy was partially fulfilled at Pentecost. That was a partial fulfillment.
2. The blessing of the Holy Spirit had been given at Pentecost when the disciples prayed for Him. They were told to pray for the Holy Spirit.
3. There was a correlation between the prophecy of Joel and the coming of the Holy Spirit.
4. The specific signs mentioned in Joel 2:28–29 would not happen until the Tribulation.
5. There will be a future and final fulfillment of Joel's prophecy at a future time. We know sort of what it is going to be. It is 7 years after the rapture. Date-setting is wrong. If we don't know when the rapture takes place, then we don't know when the 2nd advent will take place.

There is a critical distinction between Pentecost and the fulfillment of Joel's prophecy.

One other question? What about the church today? What about in the Church Age today? If the disciples asked for the Holy Spirit on the day of Pentecost, do we now ask individually ask for the Holy Spirit? The New Testament makes it clear that we receive the Holy Spirit at the moment of salvation; the universal baptism of the Holy Spirit. We do not have to ask for Him; we just believe in Jesus Christ.

One of the irrevocable assets is God the Holy Spirit. We also had the filling of the Holy Spirit to empower of spiritual life. That is revocable when we sin. Today believers do not make a prayer for the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit indwells all believers again. All believers are filled with the Holy Spirit. Rebound is not asking for the Holy Spirit in the way that Jesus directs the disciples to ask for the Holy Spirit in v. 13.

Luke 11:13 does not apply to us today.

Luke 11:13 If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!"

Matthew 12:22–30 is parallel to the next passage in Luke 11. This is about Christ casting out demons. This is where they accused Jesus of casting out demons in the power of Beelzebub. There is a strong probability that this occurred more than once. This was an old mantra of the pharisees, to accuse Jesus of doing something in the power of Satan. This is a replay of the same old even of the pharisees blasting the Lord as the servant of Satan. 2

Lesson #0726

Luke 11: Life of Christ

1/29/2015 Thurs

If someone does not respond to His message, then they are against Him. This can be someone who is clearly against God; or someone who is indifferent. Even believers who have no interest in Bible doctrine; they are against Christ—in essence.

Luke 11:23 Whoever is not with Me is against Me, and whoever does not gather with Me scatters.

You are for Him or against Him. All those who saw Jesus and what He did had to make a decision: what He exercising the power of God or acting on the orders of Satan. The Jews then could not be neutral in this battle.

If they do not understand the gospel and have no interest, they are against Him.

Then Jesus goes to the unclean spirit. It leaves a person and they are in a desert-like area; so they finally give up and give up and return to where they came from.

Luke 11:24 "When the unclean spirit has gone out of a person, it passes through waterless places seeking rest, and finding none it says, 'I will return to my house from which I came.'

They come to a swept and clean house. There is a demon possessed man and the demon left him; and now returned and everything is fixed up. The man represents Israel; and there has been a change which has taken place. Before, the nation had become unclean. It had become a nation of legalism and not grace.

Luke 11:25 And when it comes, it finds the house swept and put in order.

Before the ministry that Christ began, John the Baptizer called the apostate nation to repent; to change their thinking, to accept the coming Messiah and to accept His kingdom. Many responded to His message, even before Christ began His ministry. John had a ministry out in the water-less places?

There is a change in thinking and they desired a change and forgiveness. This is the change in Israel that this parable represented. Those who accepted John's message could be called clean. The nation was swept and put in order to a point. Many in Israel, at the same time, had not accepted John's message concerning the Messiah.

The nation was not complete; the nation is still vulnerable. The nation still has some negative volition. There is no body to possess in the desolate place and that is because John was there with people who have positive volition.

So he returns to Israel, who is still vulnerable. The return is not easy because the Messiah is now among the people of Israel. He is teaching and preaching. The man in the parable representing Israel had some who responded positively to the message of Jesus Christ.

The spirit confronts this swept up house and he enlisted the help of 7 other demons nastier than himself; and this assault is overwhelming. These spirits go in there and live there; and the last state of Israel is worse than the first.

Luke 11:26 Then it goes and brings seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they enter and dwell there. And the last state of that person is worse than the first."

the house was cleansed and now it is not.

Summary Points

1. Many religious leaders were in the process of rejecting Jesus Christ. This parable was brought about when Jesus cast out demons and they accused Him of using the power of Satan.
2. John's message no longer had the affect of changing minds. Israel's thinking was returning to its old patterns. People were returning to that old pattern.
3. There was a spiritual degeneration and retrogression, even though Jesus Christ was present. Israel was cleansed because they were believing the message and here they reject Him.
4. A nation that initially believed, at least in part, reverted. They rejected the message. They were interested in what John had to say; some began to follow the Lord but others did not.
5. When the nation had totally rejected Jesus, its condition would be worse than before. Jesus is telling these pharisees that they are in real trouble. It will get much worse than you can imagine.

The diaspora is still going strong, even though there are 6 million Jews in the land right now. The Jews are in the midst of becoming worse than the first. The result was a new dispensation.

Israel has rejected Jesus Christ; they are against Him. Now something very interesting has happened. The Lord has told the pharisees exactly where they stand.

Jesus has just condemned the nation for rejecting Him. Now something happens.

Luke 11:27 As He said these things, a woman in the crowd raised her voice and said to Him, "Blessed is the womb that bore you, and the breasts at which you nursed!"

This is her emphasis. She is not listening. She is substituting her own message for the Lord's message. This is a woman who was probably very important and used to getting her way.

Luke 11:28 But He said, "Blessed rather are those who hear the word of God and keep it!"

Jesus says, instead, it is the Word of God that is important.

She feels that it is her prerogative to interrupt the Lord and give her viewpoint. Women tend to allow their emotions to run amuck from time to time.

She raises her voice like apostate Israel. She is not an unclean, demon-possessed woman; but she represents what Jesus just blasted. She represents the apostate thinking of Israel. She is distracted from the message and offer of the kingdom.

She reject the Messiah and she rejects the message of Jesus, and she emphasizes motherhood instead; her womb and her breasts. That is the direction of her distorted viewpoint. This is Maryolatry. Mary is being emphasized. Can you imagine Jesus teaching the Word of God and this woman blurts out, "You're mother is better."

The Womb, Mary and the Curse

1. The focus of scripture is never on the womb of Mary but upon the product of her womb.
2. It was through the womb of Mary that the Savior would arrive on this earth in true humanity. It is the wrong focus.
3. Mother Mary was not the issue.
4. Only the Issue of her womb was the issue.
5. God had cursed the womb of the woman at the fall. That was the curse placed upon her; that was her penalty for succumbing to Satan's seductive words.
6. What was born out from the woman's womb was cursed; that is, all mankind, separated from God, just as the first man and woman were separated in spiritual death.

7. Gen. 3:16a To the woman he said, "I will surely multiply your pain in childbearing; in pain you shall bring forth children. The woman's body would painfully bear biological life as a result of Eve's fall.
8. The issue of the woman's womb, that which came from her womb, was a divine curse. This indicates what was born out from her womb would be born with a sin nature.
9. That is except for one fetus; one child; which was the result of the virgin pregnancy of Mary. Here, the curse was not in effect.
10. Mary's womb was not to be glorified; only the Savior Who came from the womb is glorified. The focus is the Lord Jesus Christ; not the womb of Mary. What is the focus? Mary's womb or the Lord Jesus Christ? The purpose of paying the penalty for man's sin. Jesus is exactly what was promised in Gen. 3:15.

1Ti 2:15 Yet she will be saved through childbearing--if they continue in faith and love and holiness, with self-control.

No woman is saved because they are mothers. This is the opposite of the curse. This is Mary bearing the Savior. The context tells us this.

What the woman says highlights the wrong feature.

The woman also mentioned the breasts of the mother. Providing nourishment for a newborn infant.

Blessed is the nominative feminine singular from the adjective μακαριος, which means happy; but here, it is the recipient of divine favor. Mary is the recipient of divine favor.

Luke 11:27 As He said these things, a woman in the crowd raised her voice and said to Him, "Blessed is the womb that bore you, and the breasts at which you nursed!"

Mary had received the news that she would carry the Messiah from Gabriel. Gabriel called Mary, favoured one, which coincides with the meaning of μακαριος.

The divine favor was all about the child that Mary carried. This woman missed the point entirely. She glorifies Mary instead of the Lord Jesus Christ. Jesus is right in front of her, but she is yelling about Mary. This is not much different than what goes on in churches today. There are statues of Mary; stain-glass windows of her; and people pray to her for salvation. Maryolatry.

Bobby has a lot more to say about this. More about the womb and the breasts next time around.

Because of the subject matter, we may have to rebound throughout the service. Every word and all of the teachings of the Lord Jesus Christ are not to be missed. Not one second of His teaching should have been missed. It was of great importance. He was God the Son on earth. He created the universe. He made Israel a great nation, which was the promise of God. He gave them a great king, David. As the King of Kings, the Greater Son of David, here He is in the flesh, offering them the kingdom.

Can you imagine anyone so arrogant that he or she might interrupt Him while teaching? That they might give their opinion about this or that? In v. 27, we have that interruption.

Luke 11:27 As He said these things, a woman in the crowd raised her voice and said to Him, "Blessed is the womb that bore you, and the breasts at which you nursed!"

Most pastors would not want to deal with this verse on a Sunday morning. They do not want to talk about lady parts or about arrogant women, for fear of offending anyone. What is found here is meant for all of us. Here was a woman who was not paying attention to the message of Jesus Christ. Her mind was on something that she was going to say. What she brought up was a great distraction to everyone who was there. Her rudeness is brazen. She is the perfect illustration of the pharisees and the nation that Jesus would rebuke. She shouted an homage to His mother.

She was marginalizing the message of the Lord Jesus Christ; and emphasized womanhood instead. She begins with the word blessed. She is praising that which God had cursed, the womb of the woman. God had cursed the woman's reproductive system. The children she would bear would be in Adam's image.

Mary's womb was not unique. Mary's cursed womb was the vehicle for the birth of the perfect humanity of the Lord Jesus Christ. The process which takes place is a normal human birth. Jesus was born without a sin nature; and He was born just like every other human child; and she gave birth just like every other woman.

Jesus is the promised Savior of Gen. 3:15.

Women would be delivered through the bearing of children. You will not be saved because you are a woman and you have given birth. This is speaking of bearing one child. Cursing is turned to blessing for all mankind. The womb of Mary is not to be the focus. Divine favor is not about the cursed womb or Mary's breasts. Obviously, it is not Mary who should receive any credit for giving birth to the Lord. Mary was not virtuous above all women throughout the world. Why was Mary chosen? She was in the line of David. She was favored in the sense that she would bear the Son of Man. This was prophesied that Jesus would come in the line of David. He is the Greater Son of David.

Luke 11:27 As He said these things, a woman in the crowd raised her voice and said to Him, "Blessed is the womb that bore you, and the breasts at which you nursed!"

Jesus was very kind to her in her interruption. She made an issue of elevating women. Jesus could have been quite insulting at this time, but He was not. The emphasis should always be upon the Lord Jesus Christ, Who was uniquely-born. She bestowed no grace on the human race because she bore the Christ-child.

Mary was ecstatic when she was told that she would bear a uniquely-born Son. So, she was happy and joyous. Mary's emphasis was on Christ, not on the pregnancy. She was never the favor of the world; she was never in the spotlight; she is never glorified; nor is her womb glorified. It is her lineage that is important.

This woman interrupting the Lord places divine blessing with womanhood. Many couples who find themselves in this situation find themselves to be very blessed; that a bundle of joy is on the way. That initial happiness is accompanied with morning sickness; and later for breast feeding and diaper changing. And there are all those years of raising the children; never an easy task. Parents cannot base their happiness on pregnancy or upon children. No parent can build happiness upon the uncertainty of children and their sin natures. Most parents probably know their child's areas of weakness and areas of strength. The true happiness is seeing their advance in the spiritual life.

How silly it is for parents to be competitive about their children. Stage parents, living vicariously through their own children. Happiness and divine favor in our life is not children, but it is Bible doctrine. When we have that, everything else falls into place, including children.

The only person favored with a perfect Child is Mary. Mary had problems of her own. Remember when Mary and the Lord's brothers interrupted Him for a personal reason when He was giving a sermon? Mary, at one time, was no different than this woman. She sent in a runner to whisper into Jesus' ears. She made an issue of herself.

So, in that moment, Jesus put Mary and her brothers into perspective. "Everyone here who hears My words and believes them is my brother or my mother."

Jesus also told His mother, "I must be upon the business of My Father."

Jesus did not stop here and say 10 nice things about His mother, even though He clearly loved her. And on the cross, Jesus told John to take care of her. Instead of giving credit to His mother or giving the very first mother's day message; He makes an issue of what is really important of what is the true issue.

Luke 11:28 But he said, "On the contrary, blessed are those who hear the word of God and keep it!"

The divine favor towards mankind is the Person of Jesus Christ and His message. Mary was not God's gift to mankind; Jesus was. Mary was not a giver of grace. That idea that Mary is special, an intermediary, or as someone standing in the gap, or someone worthy of worship—that is completely wrong. Mary had nothing to do with the Person and work of the Lord Jesus Christ. This woman interrupted Jesus is very much like denominations which place special emphasis on the Lord Jesus Christ. Countless paintings of her. The plastic figurines on a vehicle dashboard. Many pray to her asking for grace from her, asking for grace, asking for salvation; all of that is wrong. And none of this matches the outline of prayer.

“Blessed are those who hear the Word of God.” Divine favor falls upon us, mothers, fathers and everything else in between; we are blessed because we hear the Word of God. Because we metabolize the Word of God.

Lesson #0728

Luke 11:27–28 Life of Christ

2/1/2015 2Sunday

Current and past chairmen of the board of deacons reminded Bobby that the rafters are burning from Bob’s covering of this. He covered this in the 1976 Woman series.

Luke 11:27 As He said these things, a woman in the crowd raised her voice and said to Him, “Blessed is the womb that bore you, and the breasts at which you nursed!”

Jesus always thought before He spoke and what was in His mind is the Word of God. So it is always important to listen to His Word. If only Christians today could hear and understand these words.

Luke 11:28 But he said, “On the contrary, blessed are those who hear the word of God and keep it!”

ακουω = to hear, to listen; to hear and listen and submit to authority. You must concentrate on that Word; in this case, on the Word of God. This is not a doctrine from the Bible. People knew just enough about the Bible at one time to say, “Where is the divine dynasphere in the Bible?”

When the pastor teachers, the Holy Spirit teaches the human spirit. There is hearing and there is listening. This becomes information in your soul. Hearing listening and accepting; that is what the Lord is talking about. Divine favor is on those who hear the Word of God. This woman was off somewhere else trying to think of what she would say. That means, she is not learning, she is not hearing. The process of spiritual growth did not occur in her.

It is the Word of God, not Mary, which is important. Jesus is emphasizing the Word of God over this woman’s arrogance.

One more phrase: hear it and observe it. The second verb is φυλασσω, which does not mean only to observe; but it also means, to guard, to protect. Jesus also says, guard it. The Word of God cannot be left open to intrusions, distractions or neglect; or to any kind of human viewpoint. The Word of God is clear. It is lucid; it is divine viewpoint when you think it. When you think it, that is divine viewpoint. Human viewpoint is so subtle. Satan is the great imitator. He can closely imitate God’s Word; and yet, it is totally wrong.

Rarely does a professor in college give a thought which is not human viewpoint. So we are absorbing something in the classroom. If you are a student in college, you are there every day. Doctrine should have the most effect; and it must be implanted in your soul on a recurring basis. Whatever is not divine viewpoint is human viewpoint. That does not leave many gray areas. It is easy to lose sight of the spiritual life. It is very easy to start becoming what the unbelieving world. As you think, so you are. You are what you think.

You might go to work with the intention of doing some specific tasks; and yet, you might show up and not get any of that done at all. Neglect might turn out to be the same as rejection. It is easy to become diverted; to become negative and then to become reversionistic.

Bobby teaches 4x a week. He teaches to his capacity. Bob taught 10x a week; Bobby does not have the ability to do that. We can still take in doctrine on a daily basis. If you listen to the same message twice, you often get information which you did not get the first time around. We have no excuse not to take in the Word of God on a daily basis. If you don't take it in, human viewpoint will creep into your thinking.

Jesus says, "In the source of living, it is easy to become diverted; and spiritual growth requires consistency. Human happiness is fleeting. Only spiritual advance can solve problems. Common sense will tell you that you have all kinds of problems in life. People with human viewpoint have problems which are never solved. We have the capability of solving and leaving it behind. We solve the problem and move on.

"Listen and observe: divine favor to those who keep on hearing and guarding the Word of God."

The woman talks about the womb, which is her curse, not her blessing. But Jesus goes to the place of blessing rather than to the place of cursing. She is incorrectly identifying where divine blessing is directed; and He directs everyone to the source of God's grace. Jesus reveals the source of true divine favor.

Happiness if having a wonderful relationship; having this or that thing; having financial stability etc.—these are wrong. Happiness is right here, and circumstances are immaterial. This happiness from doctrine is divine favor; not the motherhood of Mary.

Divine Favor and Happiness

1. The secret to divine favor of happiness comes from transferring Bible doctrine from the pages of the Bible to our thinking.
2. Doctrine resident in the soul is the realization of makairios. That is the means of happiness; nothing else is. Max doctrine in the soul means maturity. We are able to distinguish divine viewpoint and subtleties of human viewpoint.
3. Maturity means sharing the happiness of God; not sharing the happiness of Mary, which is fleeting. Having the same attitude toward life as Jesus.

4. The believer who inhales doctrine (which Bobby likes, as we must take in a breath regularly in order to continue life). And if we stop breathing in doctrine, we die spiritually.
5. The mind of Christ inhaled also includes another result which is extremely important, which is occupation with Christ. She is not occupied with Christ. She is thinking about womanhood; not upon Bible doctrine. That is the phylax, the guard of the soul. This woman is not happy because there is no happiness in the womb. She concentrates on the womb that was cursed at the fall.

The enthusiasm and emotion of this woman is not substitute for Bible doctrine. We can always appreciate motherhood; and our own mothers. But the real appreciation in life is the teaching of Bible doctrine. It does not matter if we have a good, bad, or gone mother. The real appreciation in life is for the teaching of Bible doctrine and from the teaching of Bible doctrine.

The Word of God Demands Respect

1. This woman cannot learn while interrupting our Lord. She was talking when she should have been listening.
2. No one can learn Bible doctrine while talking or emoting. You cannot talk and concentrate on the Word of God at the same time. Some time Bobby might stare intently at someone in the auditorium; it is because he sees someone talking. These talkers disturb people who are interested.
3. Talking while the Word is being taught is rude; but it is even worse. It is a display of arrogance and a total lack of respect for the Word of God. If you do not have respect for the Word of God as a believer, then you have no respect at all. People who do not have doctrine in their souls concentrate on the superfluous, like legalism or like feminism or like political activism. This is why some concentrate on sin and how terrible it is. This is why some make an issue of sin rather than upon doctrine. They concentrate on morality instead of doctrine. Believers seem to concentrate on something that is not the major issue in the Christian life. The issue is always the uniquely born Son of God. The issue is always learning and guarding the Word of God. You are what you think. Doctrine in the soul is the issue; it is far greater than human morality; and it provides the unerring motivation for it. Doctrine is the motivation for morality. It changes with the society's morals. The advance of spiritual maturity increasingly solves these problems of sin in the life. This is an outside or surface demonstration of what is in your soul. It is fleeting.

Luke 11:28 But he said, "On the contrary, blessed are those who hear the word of God and keep it!"

Jesus now turns the tables. This woman is concentrating on the womb and womanhood; and Jesus turns it around. Now He will speak of another woman; and this will be a woman that we ought to emulate. This will be the Queen of the South; the Queen of Sheba. This is a woman who listens and learns.

Jesus is in His typical mode of blasting the pharisees. They have called Him the operative of the devil, as He had been casting out demons. At this point, the crowd is dead silent and they are listening to Him intently. Luke 11:14–26. He is preaching a real stem-winder.

Some in the crowd are nodding their heads in agreement; mental applauding. Some were becoming more interested in Him and His message. However, the pharisees were incensed; they were angry. He irritated them. You cannot change anyone's mind; you can only present the truth.

When a pastor speaks, people may say, "He does not know what he is talking about;" and others might say, "I am getting a lot out of this."

At that moment, a really rude woman stood up and yelled and interrupted the Lord and broke the concentration of everyone there. It is different in Berachah. Church ought to be an environment where we can listen and absorb the Word of God.

This woman has decided that she has some ideas much more important than what the Lord was saying.

Luke 11:27 As He said these things, a woman in the crowd raised her voice and said to him, "Blessed is the womb that bore you, and the breasts at which you nursed!"

This statement is completely off-topic. It is an anacoluthon; incoherent. She was praising the Lord's mother when the focus should have been on the Lord Jesus Christ.

Luke 11:28 But he said, "On the contrary, blessed are those who hear the word of God and keep it!"

We are to hear and learn and then guard what is in your soul. The pharisees, those the Lord was just chewing out. They knew the Old Testament, but they did not follow it.

He cites an Old Testament of a woman who followed the exhortation. He will give an example of another woman; and this woman would pronounce judgment on those listening to Jesus Christ, but who reject Him.

Now we jump ahead a few verses?

Luke 11:31 The queen of the South will rise up at the judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and behold, something greater than Solomon is here.

The One greater than Solomon is the Lord Jesus Christ. Jesus is addressing this generation. No other generation will have the chance of seeing Jesus and they will still turn against Him. Even though He is in their presence, they still reject Him. The judgment will be made against a Gentile queen of past history. This judgment will have a particular sting to these men.

These men are full of themselves; they are filled with legalism; they are filled with hatred and anger. Jesus stings them where it hurts the worst. The judgment; condemned by a gentile. Yet, this was rather poetic, right after He had to listen to this impertinent woman.

This woman represents Israel, failing to respond to the words of Jesus. But, the woman who condemns her and her generation is the Queen of Sheba, who traveled many miles to hear the wisdom of Solomon.

She began as a heathen queen; and she indicts the Jews who reject Jesus Christ.

She is also known as the Queen of Sheba; Sheba being her country, which was in southwest Arabia; maybe modern-day Yemen, 1200 miles from Jerusalem. Yemen could use a good queen today. Yemen is a mess today; but it was not then.

The travel would have been like going from Houston to Phoenix.

She was a very wealthy woman; a woman of great honor. She had international connections and great trade connections. She was top-notch; a great queen in that era.

1Kings 10:1 Now when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of the LORD, she came to test him with hard questions.

She had some questions that she wanted to ask him.

1Kings 10:2 She came to Jerusalem with a very great retinue, with camels bearing spices and very much gold and precious stones. And when she came to Solomon, she told him all that was on her mind.

She came with all sorts of trade goods; and all of this was for Solomon. In return she hoped to have all of her questions answered. She had a great desire for truth.

1Kings 10:3–9 And Solomon answered all her questions; there was nothing hidden from the king that he could not explain to her. And when the queen of Sheba had seen all the wisdom of Solomon, the house that he had built, the food of his table, the seating of his officials, and the attendance of his servants, their clothing, his cupbearers, and his burnt offerings that he offered at the house of the LORD, there was no more breath in her. And she said to the king, "The report was true that I heard in my own land of your words and of your wisdom, but I did not believe the reports until I came and my own eyes had seen it. And behold, the half was not told me. Your wisdom and prosperity surpass the report that I heard. Happy are your men! Happy are your servants, who continually stand before you and hear your wisdom! Blessed be the LORD your God, who has delighted in you and set you on the throne of Israel! Because the LORD loved Israel forever, he has made you king, that you may execute justice and righteousness."

1Kings 10:10 Then she gave the king 120 talents of gold, and a very great quantity of spices and precious stones. Never again came such an abundance of spices as these that the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

She was greatly impressed by Solomon and his court. But she was really impress by the depth of his wisdom. She took particular interest in the Temple.

She was impressed with the ceremonies and rituals. She understood the source of Solomon's great wisdom. After seeing all of this, there was no more spirit in her. This is a strong response on her part. She gave in. It was so obvious when she saw it all. She immediately assumed that all that she observed was the outworking of the God of Israel.

In 7b, she freely admitted that Solomon exceeded the report of the wisdom. Kahkma. This word means doctrine. This is the absolute wisdom from God. You exceed in wisdom. Solomon wrote, How blessed is the man who finds wisdom and gains understanding.

Whatever Solomon did, he imparted the truth of Bible doctrine. Anyone around him had the benefit of his wisdom. Prov. 3:13 Divine favor on the one who finds wisdom.

You will be blessed with wealth; with health, etc. A lot of that going around.

We are in a client nation; and we have been greatly prosperous. As we are wavering as a client nation, as we are departing from the wisdom, we become less prosperous. It is part of the cycles of discipline.

Solomon is an example of one God has greatly blessed. Solomon's court was opulent. It was actually a witness to the God of Israel. He explained it and she loved it, because it was truth and she wanted truth.

Wisdom for Solomon. He explained it to her. A believer whose priority is the Word of God will find divine favor. Wisdom is the believer who persists in spiritual advance. Wisdom for Solomon was the Word of God.

The pursuit of happiness in the library. Sometimes, it takes some really hard knocks to recognize what the source is for true blessing. At this moment, he is squared away and the Queen of Sheba saw it.

Blessed are those who hear the Word of God and observe it.

She says, "How blessed are those who stand before you continually and hear your wisdom." Divine wisdom as spoken by Solomon. She understood that the blessing of wisdom is greater than 4.5 tons of gold. What is most important? Materialism or wisdom? Jesus is the source of absolute wisdom. This is what she saw and heard from Solomon and was so impressed.

In this era, there were all sorts of gods. This woman when she saw what Solomon had, she recognized that his God was the true God. Blessed be the Lord your God Who delighted in you to place you on the throne of Israel.

The pharisees are a long way from kohkma.

"Therefore, He made you king, to do justice and righteousness." There was no justice and righteousness in the land with the pharisees.

The Queen of Sheba Would Condemn this Generation of Negative Volition

1. "She will rise up with you and she will be a witness to your judgment." Solomon was their great king. But they did not get the wisdom from him. Nothing like that. She gets it; they do not.
2. So she would be the one to indict an entire generation of Jews. Anyone who rejects the Lord Jesus Christ will be indicted and condemned. The Lord adds a wrinkle. "You will be condemned by this gentile woman."
3. She would indict them for their failure to recognize what she recognized in the court of Solomon. They failed to recognize the Lord Jesus Christ; the God of Israel. She journeyed an incredible distance from her land. She was a person who was searching. She wanted the God of Solomon.

"One Greater than Solomon Is Here."

1. Her acceptance of the wisdom of Solomon is the same wisdom that the Jews of the time of Jesus rejected.
2. They are without excuse. They will be judged at that later time by the queen of the south, without excuse. They saw the one who was being depicted by these sacrifices face to face.
3. The point that Jesus Christ was making in this illustration, is that someone greater than Solomon stood before them teaching them.
4. This Lord Jesus Christ is the very source of wisdom; the very source of salvation. He was amongst the Jews, God's chosen people.
5. They refused Him. This other woman was enamored of Jesus' mother's womb; and yet Jesus stood right before her.

Another illustration comes to our Lord's mind. There is a large group, the men of Nineveh, which was in Assyria. There was a generation of men in Nineveh who responded to Jonah's teaching. "And behold, someone greater than Jonah is here."

Jonah did not want to go to Nineveh; he hated the Assyrians. The men of Nineveh believed what Jonah had to say. Positive volition in Nineveh.

Luke 11:29 When the crowds were increasing, He began to say, "This generation is an evil generation. It seeks for a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah.

These men of Nineveh will condemn the generation of those who rejected Jesus.

Luke 11:30 For as Jonah became a sign to the people of Nineveh, so will the Son of Man be to this generation.

These people were all surprised.

The Lord never leaves a people condemned. He will bring them the answer.

Lesson #0730

Luke 11: Life of Christ

2/5/2015 Thurs

Luke 11 is instruction to the disciples on how to pray; and correction for the recalcitrants there—the scribes and the pharisees who reject the grace of God. Most of this chapter is devoted to the condemnation of these religious leaders.

They accused Jesus of being an operative of Satan. They claimed that He was casting out demons in the power of Satan. This is a Saul Alinsky tactic; accusing Jesus of something they are guilty of, in order to deflect the guilt.

We see it today in the halls of Congress.

These religious leaders are the minions of Satan; so they accuse Jesus of being who and what they are. By doing this, they vindicate themselves. They simply blame someone else for it.

Out of nowhere, a rude woman interjects herself. She interrupts to praise His mother in Luke 11:27. The Lord takes a one-verse side trip in v. 28. His mother is not the issue and she should not be idolized or canonized. The issue is hearing and observing or guarding the Word of God. Divine favor on those who hear the Word of God and observe it. There are lots of things called the Christian life. In a mega church, you can every sort of diversion which is found in any other part of society. But the key is Bible doctrine. Everything else falls into place. He is saying, “Just hear the Word and observe it.” Circumstances drive so many people’s lives. When that is true, you are in a reaction mode all of the time.

When His Word directs your life, that is when your life glorifies the Lord. This fulfills His destiny for you. The life of the believer is about serving the Lord and not yourself. The Christian life is hearing the Word of God and observing it. There is no greater life in this world.

Don't you wish that you have the perfect verbiage of the Lord to shut anyone down with a few words?

Jesus cites two examples. He speaks of the Queen of Sheba; and then He uses the example of the Ninevites. Both would be witnesses against the pharisees. These gentiles believed and they shamed the unbelieving Jews with their faith. They would be witnesses against these same Jews. This really burned the pharisees. They did not want to be shown up by women or by gentiles.

Luke 11:31 The queen of the South will rise up at the judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and behold, something greater than Solomon is here.

Luke 11:32 The men of Nineveh will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold, something greater than Jonah is here.

These gentiles were Assyrians who were very good at conquering whatever they went after. Jonah hated the Ninevites, and so did the pharisees. Jonah went the opposite direction when Jonah was told to go to Nineveh. God prepared a fish to take Jonah into his mouth and it spit him out on the shore.

Jonah is a type of Jesus Christ; and he is 3 days and 3 nights in the fish. In this way, he is a metaphor.

If you try to box God in by the world that He created, then you do not understand God. You don't think God could prepare a fish? It would not have to be a species that we have today. People do not understand God. Jesus gives them a call.

We will get a little background on the light of the world first.

John 8:12 Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life."

Jesus the Light

1. Jesus illuminates. He is exclusively the light. There is a contrast between light and dark.
2. Jesus is a light in a world that is otherwise dark.
3. A world devoid of Jesus Christ is a world without any divine illumination and without hope.
4. This world is exclusively governed by a ruler who is without light; Satan. He is absolute darkness.
5. Darkness is a world filled with all manner of human viewpoint that opposes divine viewpoint. Relative human wisdom is just as much darkness as any sort of evil that we can think of.

Light Versus Darkness

1. Just as light and dark are polar opposites, so divine truth and human perspectives and human points of view are polar opposites. You have the mind of Christ. You are illuminated by the mind of Christ.

2. If not illuminated by the mind of Christ, then it is darkness. We live in a relative world. Everything is relative. We live on a sliding scale of morality. The truth today is a lie tomorrow; and vice versa. God's Word is not that.
- 3.
4. Either divine light illuminates or darkness prevails. This is true for believers as well. When human viewpoint prevails, the light is not in you.
5. It is so easy to extinguish the light of God's Word when human viewpoint creeps integrity your soul.
6. Neglecting or rejecting the light of God's Word can only bring an influx of human viewpoint. Only dimness and then darkness exists.
7. For a believer in Jesus Christ, a soul without doctrine is a soul in darkness. The plan of God allows things to get better until the day you die, and then it gets really great. Jesus is bringing out the knives and he will cut a chunk out of the pharisees.
8. Self-centeredness is darkness. Christ-centeredness is light. Darkness includes relative human wisdom. There is the exception of human wisdom that coincides with divine establishment.

There is no substitute for us as believers in Jesus Christ. When doctrine is ignored, only the darkness of human viewpoint can drive a person's life. That is the wandering soul; the unstable soul.

Neglecting or rejecting truth results with the same thing. We are surrounded by human viewpoint. It is everywhere. We rub elbows with the world on a daily basis. 24 hours a day we might spend 6 or 7 asleep. One thing we do when awake, is we take in doctrine 1 hour a day; and compare that to the amount of time that we hear human viewpoint.

Jesus Christ will play off that image of light to present Himself as they only light. He now turns to metaphorical language. Metaphorical language does not mean a metaphorical interpretation. We take a literal interpretation from it.

The metaphor of the lit lamp.

Luke 11:33 "No one after lighting a lamp puts it in a cellar or under a basket, but on a stand, so that those who enter may see the light.

A lamp gives off light and it illuminates everything around. Jesus is the lamp which is lit; He was lit when His ministry began. He was offering Israel the kingdom. His Person and His Word must be seen and heard; the light was there for everyone to see. The eyes or the soul of the person must react properly to the light to see clearly. Hearing His message of light lays a certain responsibility on the hearer.

Luke 11:34 Your eye is the lamp of your body. When your eye is healthy, your whole body is full of light, but when it is bad, your body is full of darkness.

When your eye is clear, your whole body is filled with light. When your eye is bad, your body is filled with darkness. Jesus uses that same image of John 8:12 here.

The lamp refers to the light of a person. The eye collects light from the surrounding environment. It gathers in light and it regulates the intensity of the light and it focuses the light in order to form an image, so we can see images as the light penetrates our eyes. We connect with what is in front of us. A good eye sees clearly and sends accurate signals to the brain.

A friend of Bobby's had cataract surgery and he said, "It is unbelievable. Colors are even more vivid." The light and the eye are intimately connected with what is seen by the brain.

The Spiritual Analogy

1. The eye in the spiritual realm is the function of the volition of the soul. One aspect of the soul is volition.
2. When volition is positive, the eye is clear. The clear eye absorbs the light and that light is the Word of God. When the metaphorical eye sends the charge of the truth to the brain, you are thinking with the mind of Christ.
3. The soul is illuminated filled with the light of Jesus Christ, His message, doctrine.
4. But when the volition is negative, we have the bad eye and in the bad eye, the light is not absorbed; and darkness is the result. If it is distorted image, then you will have a darkened soul. That is exactly what the Jews of the generation had going on. They reject the Lord Jesus Christ, so they cannot and will not see Him. We are sending the visual images of the Word of God to our minds.

Luke 11:35 Therefore be careful lest the light in you be darkness.

What out that the light in you is not darkness. That which the bad eye is viewing sends signals of light to the brain.

The plan of God is grace all the way. The bad eye pulls in legalism and rejects grace. These people have the darkness of unbelief. The reason that Israel remains in darkness is not the fault of the light. The lamp is shining as bright as it could. It is not concealed; it is not under a basket. It is there. They are hiding the light from themselves. It is the fault of the nation of those who refuse to see the light.

If the Jews had been positive and received the Messiah, then they would have had light and they would have had the kingdom.

Luke 11:36 If then your whole body is full of light, having no part dark, it will be wholly bright, as when a lamp with its rays gives you light."

Jesus makes the analogy clear. The light always shines and you are illuminated. The Word of God always shines. You see, you hear, you observe.

Examples of nations around the world who have rejected Christ. There is no light there at all. We are in a religious war. Those members of the army of ISIS believe with all their soul in the religion that they adhere to. They believe that it is Islam and it is a religious war for them. If we don't see it that way, we will never understand what is going on there.

We have darkness in our own country. We have embraced secularism and humanism, and we see the results in this country.

Next we have the most detailed condemnation of the pharisees. This will take some time to develop. This is looking into the heart of darkness.

Lesson #0731

Luke 11:37–38 Life of Christ

2/8/2015 1Sunday

Eucharist 2/8/2015

Foundational to this memorial is what a gracious God has done for our salvation and what caused Him to provide for our salvation. We need to understand the inherent quality of God's love. That love is the absolute virtue and benevolence of His attitude toward us. God is eternal, so His love is everlasting. His love never breaks down and it is always directed toward us. Before man existed, God was aware of us. We are in His mind; He knew us. He knew when we would be born; when we would die; and everything in between.

God knew that, even before the first man was created, that man would defy Him. It was a part of the Angelic Conflict. That rebellion by the first man affects all of us. In Adam, all die; that is spiritual death, which affects all of us. Yet, this does not negatively impact His love. God's loving benevolence still is a plan for us. The formation of His plan in eternity past and the execution of this plan now and forever.

Another amazing aspect is, God's love has never been disappointed or frustrated by us. Our past failures do not affect His love for us. His love does not increase or decrease; it never changes or alters. How unstable our life would be if we had to win God's love each and every day; and how lost we would be. But we can depend upon His unfailing, unwavering love.

His love toward us is not affected by absurdities or by silliness. His love is not swayed by emotion or sentiment. We can be betrayed by emotion; God cannot be betrayed by His emotions. God is not up one minute and down the next. There are no mood swings in God. His love does not make exceptions for favorites; He has no human favorites. There is no partiality with God.

When the kindness of God appeared, He saved us, not on the basis of deeds that we have done, but by the washing of regeneration and the renewing of the Holy Spirit.

It was solely God's attribute of love that was the motive of purchasing our salvation. His love motivated the greatest sacrifice in human history. This is the opportunity for the expression of His love. From the very beginning at our physical birth, God has demonstrated divine personal love. This is a love that we do not deserve. God was fully aware of the sin nature that we possess and would pass down. This did not stop Him from imputing soul life to biological life. At the same time, He imputed Adam's original sin to our body of sin, so that we are born spiritually dead and separated from God. This does not appear to be a blessing of love, but it is. In God's plan, condemnation must precede salvation.

We have nothing to make us worthy of God's love. We cannot perform enough good deeds to inspire His love. But failing to have merit in His eyes is not enough to remove His love from us. This is a love unknown in the human race; this is a totally unconditional love for us. We are loved because of Who and What He is; and not because of anything which we are or what we can do. His impersonal love is so decisive in its effect. It cannot be altered, rescinded, and it never fails. His loving actions toward us was decided long ago. Rom. 5:8 God demonstrates His Own love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Imagine the God of the Universe, the Creator of all things, beginning as a baby to die for our sins.

God's impersonal love did not act alone on our behalf. Love cannot act alone. God loves man, but He does not love sin. God cannot have fellowship with sinful man. He cannot entertain sin or ignore it or wink at it. God's righteousness and justice have to be satisfied first with regards to sin. Otherwise, His entire being would be compromised. Divine justice and righteousness must be a part of this, in order to provide us the solution for our separation from God. All of our sins were condemned; then judgment would be executed; and then Someone was judged in our place. Christ took our place, dying for our sins. The Savior shares the perfect righteousness with the Righteous Judge, God the Father.

God wills the penalty of sin upon His Son; and He had to judge His Own Son. This is the only way to satisfy His righteousness and justice. What other reason could there be for God the Father to place all of our sins upon His Son?

At the moment of faith, God imputes His righteousness to us. We do not deserve it, but He gives it to us. When we believe in Jesus Christ, we receive His righteousness and we have begun a personal relationship with Him. This imputation is called justification; and once given, it cannot be taken away. This is the awe-inspiring panorama of all that God has done for us.

The Lord has been pretty hard on the pharisees, but He is just getting started. Jesus will speak in particular to a representative pharisee.

A Pharisee asks Jesus to dine.

Luke 11:37 While Jesus was speaking, a Pharisee asked him to dine with him, so he went in and reclined at table.

The pharisee is surprised that there is not a ceremonial washing by the Lord. It may seem more difficult to understand why Jesus goes to this pharisee's home in the first place; someone who is negative toward Him.

Luke 11:38 The Pharisee was astonished to see that he did not first wash before dinner.

Conversely, Jesus has condemned the pharisees in public and He has exposed their legalism over and over again. When they accused Him of casting out demons in the power of Satan, Jesus took them apart.

When the pharisees go after Him, He points out their legalism. The pharisees ought to have realized that they have never bested the Lord in any argument. Should that not have been a sign to them?

Lesson #0732

Luke 11:37–41 Life of Christ

2/8/2015 2Sunday

This is a message for those who have been raised in a legalistic church. Good works are emphasized over grace and doctrine. Good works to show what a great person we are. Hearing or observing the Word of God. The Word of God provided for us is purely grace. The provision of His Word is grace; and all our resources to grow spiritually is purely the grace of God.

So many churches are involved in the hypocritical aspects of good works.

Luke 11:37–38 While Jesus was speaking, a Pharisee asked him to dine with him, so he went in and reclined at table. The Pharisee was astonished to see that he did not first wash before dinner.

The Lord accepted the invite and went straight to the table and He reclined there. The pharisee focuses on what Jesus did not do. This is classic phariseeism. They were legal eagles when it comes to what the Jews did and did not do. The Lord omitted the washing of His hands. This surprises the pharisee.

Is Jesus just twisting the tail of the bull here?

Aorist active indicative of the verb θαυμαζω means to be amazed, to wonder at. This is stronger than mere surprise. He is stunned. He does not look at this with some confusion or, "That's interesting; He did not wash His hands." Jewish tradition required a cleansing tradition which began in the Mosaic Law. There was hand washing in the Old Testament for hygienic and symbolic purposes. The real meaning was that Israel what a holy people separated to God. It reminded them of divine holiness. The original intent was theological; what mattered was the true significance of this.

Was Jesus not to follow the Mosaic Law? Ceremonial washing in our Lord's time became a legalistic ritual. Many churches observe the Eucharist as a ritual, but it has no meaning. It is the ritual itself that has meaning. This was solely a legalistic ritual. It had become the actual means of righteousness rather than the symbol of that. It was considered the means of righteousness. That is the epitome of legalism. Washing of the hands made them righteous, which is not what it should be seen as.

For ritual to be meaningful, it must be connected to reality and not to legalism. We find this today for churches that believe in baptismal regeneration. This pharisee was revealing what was important to them—this ritual. The pharisees saw themselves as above all other Jews. This is why Jesus did not involve Himself in any of these ceremonial washings. It was ritual without reality.

If this was a part of the Law, why did Jesus skip it? It had become legalism.

I don't find any example of washing as required in the Mosaic Law for washing before the meal.

Luke 11:39 And the Lord said to him, "Now you Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the dish, but inside you are full of greed and wickedness.

Jesus explains to His host that he is filled with greed and wickedness. He calls them evil; and this is not about their dishes being dirty.

Luke 11:40 You fools! Did not he who made the outside make the inside also?

God made the outside and the inside. If it was God's intent that the outside of a person should reflect the inside. The mentality of the soul. Jesus reveals that the inside of the pharisee was empty. If his thinking is empty; then the externals will be phony. Hypocrisy is doing one thing and thinking another. Inside this man was not good; he was greedy and wicked.

Ponêria Noun feminine_noun: ponêria (πονηρία) [pronounced pohn-ay-REE-ah], which means, depravity, iniquity, wickedness; malice; evil purposes and desires. Thayer Definition only. Strong's #4189.

This pharisee makes such an issue of hand washing. You might be appalled by this, but you probably would not say anything about it.

What Jesus says is a dig against their religion. These pharisees were religious leaders and politicians as well. They used Judaism in being able to exert power over others. We see this same thing in Islam, a union of mosque and state.

It is the attitude which is essential. These pharisees gave in order to gain approbation.

If someone did not go along with their ritual, they condemned them. They could find all kinds of loopholes for themselves. This man was trying to condemn Jesus for not washing His hands. His charity was only for show. The external show of grace, but still enforcing the pharisaical law to keep others under their control.

Luke 11:41 But give as alms those things that are within, and behold, everything is clean for you.

Jesus commends to them an attitude of charity, rather than simply for show.

Feminine_noun: eleêmosunê (ἐλεημοσύνη) [pronounced el-eh-ay-mos-OO-nay], which means, 1) mercy, pity; 1a) especially as exhibited in giving alms, charity; 2) the benefaction itself, a donation to the poor, alms. Thayer Definition only. Strong's #1654.

“You are what you think” from Prov. 27.

Jesus has pointed out that the religion of the pharisees has become religion without reality. He cannot condone it or take part in it.

Beginning at v. 42, Jesus begins to pronounce woes upon the pharisees. You do not want the Lord pronouncing woes upon you. Jesus speaks these words to the religious pharisees. They receive His most scathing remarks. Religion is the devil's ace trump.

Lesson #0733

Luke 11:38–43 Life of Christ

2/11/2015 Wed

In previous confrontations, many pharisees attacked Jesus.

We might see this meeting and lunch with the pharisee as an olive branch. It will become clear that this pharisee is very representative of all the other negative pharisees.

Luke 11:37–38 While Jesus was speaking, a Pharisee asked him to dine with him, so he went in and reclined at table. The Pharisee was astonished to see that he did not first wash before dinner.

He was stunned by this. This showed no regard for their rituals. This ritual had become corrupted and it no longer had the meaning from the Old Testament. This was solely an external activity; a legalistic activity. This had become the actual means of holiness.

In the Old Testament, all of these rituals had meaning. The only way a person can be set aside is to have imputed righteousness. Hand washing does not give you righteousness. This is the epitome of legalism.

In the pharisee view, Jews were not washed clean by the washing of regeneration; they were washed clean by this minor rituals, like washing one's hands. But it is the cleansing of the interior.

Jesus could not indulge this man by engaging in an heretical ritual; being hospitable does not mean that you go along with evil legalism.

Luke 11:39 And the Lord said to him, "Now you Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the dish, but inside you are full of greed and wickedness.

Jesus explains the problem. Jesus speaks of the pharisees in the plural; and this is an example of pharisaical thinking. "Inside of you, you are filled with robbery and wickedness." That is what is really inside of them.

Luke 11:40 You fools! Did not he who made the outside make the inside also?

Why are you neglecting the inside? Jesus Christ is the Agent of creation. As a man thinks within himself, so he is.

What Is Important Is on the Interior

1. God created the outside to reflect what was inside; the thought pattern. What is inside of you is what you really are.
2. That thought pattern must be renovated. You must change your way of thinking. They have to do more than just wash their hands. They must begin with the washing of regeneration.
3. External righteousness without internal change is the definition of hypocrisy. Jesus calls the pharisees hypocritical on many occasions for just that reason. We should always beware of those who go out of their way to impress us with their good deeds and the surface appearance. You must know someone for awhile to really know them. Jesus knew what this pharisee is like.

Luke 11:41 But give as alms those things that are within, and behold, everything is clean for you.

If you clean that which is within, then everything is clean to you.

The righteous activities of the pharisees were a ruse, a cover for their real attitude and sin. What they actually thought was, those are unclean people. The pharisees were very charitable, but it did not come from the right place.

Now Jesus really thrashes the pharisees, and these are the most scathing words ever spoken to anyone by the Lord.

Luke 11:42 "But woe to you Pharisees! For you tithe mint and rue and every herb, and neglect justice and the love of God. These you ought to have done, without neglecting the others.

They are tithing mint and rue, and every kind of garden herb. Yet they neglect justice and the love of God. Tithing is not wrong; but it is if there is nothing more. The pharisees were tithing the smallest things; and they were very public about it. But they failed to show love and justice tempered with grace.

The Insignificant Observances of the Pharisees

1. In God justice and love is our salvation. What on earth does it matter if you tithe herbs. The justice and righteousness of God must condemn man.
2. The pharisees are trying to please God through their external righteousness. The love of God must provide salvation for man. The One Who provides it is the Lord.
3. So love is the prime mover together with justice and righteousness for all of God's actions toward mankind. God's righteousness condemns us and His justice must act on His righteousness. When we believe in Jesus Christ, we have His righteousness and we are acceptable to Him.
4. Everything that God does for us in salvation is dependent upon those 3 attributes.

What does the tithing have to do with condemnation and salvation? Nothing! Wherever you find legalism you find hypocrisy.

The Savior of this pharisee sits before him, and yet this pharisee is worried about hand washing.

The Pharisees Overlook the Righteous Standards That They Needed to Meet.

1. The pharisee could not meet the righteous standards of God yet was concerned about the cleanliness of the Lord.
2. Their pathetic attempts are human righteousness as versus the absolute righteousness that they could receive by imputation from God.
3. They overlooked the condemnation of the justice of God on their phoney, inadequate human righteousness. They could not meet the standards of God, done in unrighteousness.
4. They left out God's love which provided the solution to unrighteousness. There are so many churches where people take part in some ritual and it is meaningless. It has no meaning to them.

Jesus is perfect; He is clean; and yet this pharisee is accusing Him of being unclean. To the pharisee, Jesus needs to wash His hands in order to be clean. He has no idea Who Jesus really is.

They only had this ritual attempt to offer herbs to approach God. This would be the basis of their condemnation. They needed to have their insides cleansed; and then their rituals would have meant something.

Luke 11:43 Woe to you Pharisees! For you love the best seat in the synagogues and greetings in the marketplaces.

The 2nd woe. Jesus spoke about the love of God; now He speaks of what the pharisees love. You like the respect and prominence of your position.

The Real Motivation of the Pharisees

1. Jesus is addressing the real motivation for legalism. Approbation lust and arrogance. You love the seat in the synagogue. You love the recognition. You are big men on a little campus.
2. They loved their prominence and their place of respect in the culture of the Jews. They were worried about what others thought of them; but not worried about what God thought.
3. The pharisees thought that they deserved to be in the limelight. They were the keepers of the Law; the keepers of the Jewish traditions. Were they not the moral paragons of society?
4. So they thought that they should take their place at the head of society and that they should be respected for their hypocrisy.

They would give a public prayer at any moment. They would read the Scripture and look holy and nod; but they did not follow a single word of it. They were there for the adulation of the crowd.

They enjoyed the deference and respect that they got in the marketplace.

The Jewish society was a union of synagogue and state. They were pushing for liberation from Rome. They loved the power and the fawning sycophants. They wanted to be honored by all others.

They love to be watched. Turn into CSPAN sometime and watch them do nothing but posture. They were wealthy men. They got really wealthy on the sacrifices of the people who came to the Temple.

They had a lust for attention; they had lust for the approval from others. If you lust for the accolades that people can put on you, there is no way that you can glorify God.

The first thing that Satan did to man was to lie to them.

Their hypocrisy of the pharisees was complete. They indulged a complex of sins.

Matt. 23 is similar here; but apparently not the same incident.

Nobody challenged the pharisees before; and this angered them. They were motivated by anger and revenge. The facade came off.

When it comes to hypocrisy, religion puts Congress to shame.

A hypocrite does not want to be caught; he does not want to lose this praise and recognition; this is catastrophic to them. This is like watching the fall of a politician or of a news anchor.

Who did they revere the most in their religious fervor? Moses. The Jews in the era of Moses often despised him. Moses did not care. Moses was great. Num. 12:3 the man Moses was very humble more than any man on the face of the earth. No one could have more reason to be arrogant than Moses. Raised to rule over Egypt and a man who spoke to God on many occasions. Moses did not have a self-centered bone in his body.

Moses gained respect and honor in humility. Many were jealous of him; some even wanted to kill him. But Moses was a great leader. He was the most revered man in Jewish history. The most arrogant of Jews revered the most humble of Jews.

Self-centered people do not accept authority; they only accept themselves as authoritative. That is arrogance.

Lesson #0734

Luke 11:42– Life of Christ

2/12/2015 Thurs

Our Lord is pronouncing a series of woes. The scribes were closely involved with interpreting the law, so they are called lawyers as well. There are no more damning words by the Lord than these woes here and vv. 46–52. These woes were given to religious fanatics who concentrated on the minutiae.

Today, these pharisees represent the opposition of the religious world. These religions are about legalism. Bible doctrine has become somewhat of a dirty word today in a lot of circles, as it is seen as an academic approach as over against an emotional approach in the Christian life.

The critical attitude of humility is necessary for serving and glorifying God. You cannot serve the Lord in arrogance; and you cannot have a relationship with Him when you are arrogant. It is hard to hard a relationship with people when you are arrogant.

Luke 11:42 "But woe to you Pharisees! For you tithe mint and rue and every herb, and neglect justice and the love of God. These you ought to have done, without neglecting the others.

The pharisees had pure hypocrisy and arrogance:

Luke 11:43 Woe to you Pharisees! For you love the best seat in the synagogues and greetings in the marketplaces.

They loved the chief seats in the synagogue and the special greetings that they would hear in the marketplace. They demanded respect and approbation.

Today, people are anything but respectful; and yet they demand respect from others. What they had was simple approbation lust. They loved to see their name in lights; they loved their prominent status; they loved their place of respect in Jewish society.

The sadducees saw themselves as being aristocratic; but the pharisees also had a high status. All the righteous affectations that any legalist could summon.

As an actor, you spend a lot of time in front of a mirror to communicate you're thinking and feeling. They had that lust for attention and a lust for approval and attention from others. They always presented themselves as devout as very holy men. Every synagogue meeting. They conspicuously prayed in the streets.

They were wealthy, some getting that wealth illegally. This arrogance results in great competition. The arrogant always need to one up you and they need to talk about themselves. Who was the most righteous? Who could give the most to the poor? Always a competition. Who could pray the loudest and longest.

Outside, they were pious; inside, they were evil. Among status-seekers and religious legalists, this describes them. Arrogant people are anti-authority. Beginning in the 1960's there was a great arrogant generation. Great arrogance today as a result.

True humility is impossible to attain. Self-righteousness and humility cannot coexist in the same person. They might put on a humble front; but there is no humility within them.

What happened yesterday in the time of the 1st advent will happen today; and it will happen tomorrow. There is arrogance then and there is arrogance now.

These people outside of the church are entirely distracted by the circumstances of their own lives. Bobby talked to one person who had a lot going on; and what he needed, he refused. This is everywhere in our churches.

You are what you think. What a man is, is in his soul. The decisions we make determine the life that we lead. Circumstances never have to defeat you with doctrine.

Words Related to Arrogance

1. Egotism—excessive preoccupation with self; from the moment you get up in the morning you think about yourself until you go to bed. This must be distinguished from ego, which is self consciousness. God did not create a soul with sin in it.
2. Vanity is self-admiration; and you could that with an excessive desire to be admired by others. One leads to the other. Vanity is weakness, because vanity is so easily stimulated and manipulated.
3. Pride is a lofty and arrogant assumption of superiority. It may be true; you might be superior in many ways; you might be superior in business. If your life thrives on this status, then you have wanton pride, which is arrogance.
4. Conceit is an exaggerated estimate of one's own abilities and attainment. This is especially dangerous if there is ability or achievement. You get involved in competition. The human approbation that comes from their...it is about your attitude in excellence. It is about how you think about yourselves in arrogance. Some with great abilities feed their arrogance.

We looked at Moses last night. The greatest hero of the Old Testament insofar as the Jews are concerned. God chose him to do the most difficult thing that God has required of any man or people before. He did exactly what God had him do.

The pharisees had Moses on a pedestal; but they did not realize that he was great because he was the most humble person in history. He was a great builder; a military man; a genius, a general. He was a great rancher. He married into a rich family.

Hypersensitive Types

1. Arrogance manifests itself as hypersensitivity
2. Hypersensitive people react to lack of deference; they are passive aggressive. They are easily insulted; they wear a chip on their shoulder.
3. When they get into these moody moments, they will hold themselves aloof; they will be offended; they can be slighted by things that are not slights.
4. Hypersensitivity fosters a victim mentality.
5. Not only is such a person miserable themselves, but they make everyone around them miserable; and often, it is on purpose. If I am miserable, you will be miserable. It is insidious and it all comes from hypersensitivity.
6. Ironically, their need for attention morphs into the exact opposite. They are shunned, avoided and disliked. If people have to walk on eggshells around you, they will avoid you.

You become humble by understanding God's grace. True humility is living the spiritual life. But pastors do not teach the doctrine by which people can grow into true humility. Pastors provide all kinds of counseling and other things; but they do not provide sound doctrine.

Go to any church in America and within an hour of being there, you will be asked them for money. In Berachah, no one is asked for money and there is no charge for anything.

Churches without teaching doctrine lead people away from the spiritual life. Sad when a church become a breeding ground for all manner of arrogance. What is most significant in the plan of God is revealed in Luke 11:28 Listen and learn and guard the Word of God. Christianity is empty without spiritual growth. No wonder Christ pronounced this woe on the religious types of that day.

Luke 11:43 Woe to you Pharisees! For you love the best seat in the synagogues and greetings in the marketplaces.

Now He comes in with a 3rd woe. Jesus is sitting at lunch with this pharisee, and He pelts him with woes.

Luke 11:44 Woe to you! For you are like unmarked graves, and people walk over them without knowing it."

This is a truly interesting thing for the Lord to say. Jesus chokes them on their own legalism. The pharisees love themselves and their rituals and their own piety.

“You are like concealed tombs!” A grave was a source of defilement. Touching one made a person unclean. Num. 19:16. If unmarked graves were walked on, there was elaborate ritual necessary to clean things up. They would be thrown out of the synagogue for such uncleanness. This made a person an outcast.

Why was this a part of the Mosaic Law? This was to keep from defiling the worship of Y^ehowah; and they worshipped Him by ritual. All these washings were about holiness and righteousness. They were how you approach God in worship. Your worship is worth nothing if you are out of fellowship.

Ritual with reality; and the worshiped without reality. Defiled by this grave. This was a very important point of righteousness before the Lord. The Lord has a double-edged sword here.

A concealed tomb has great meaning. The pharisees are legalists and they use these graves in their legalism; and it represents doctrine that they do not get.

Lesson #0735

Luke 11: Life of Christ

2/15/2015 1Sunday

So many believers consider the Lord Jesus Christ as being meek and mild and He turns the other cheek, and we must do so as well. There are a number of passages in Scripture which dispel this notion. He threw out the money changers from the Temple. This passage is another example of Jesus not being meek and mild, as we understand that to be.

Jesus had to rebut the things which were wrong about Him. They denounced His miracles as being done in the power of Satan. He had to correct such misrepresentations of His Person and work.

Luke 11:44 Woe to you! For you are like unmarked graves, and people walk over them without knowing it."

Jesus has pronounced two sets of woes upon the pharisees; and this is the third woe. He calls them tombs. The people who walk over these tombs are unaware of it.

The background for this is found back in Num. 19:16 Whoever in the open field touches someone who was killed with a sword or who died naturally, or touches a human bone or a grave, shall be unclean seven days.

One could be defiled even by walking upon an unmarked grave. There are elaborate ways to cure this uncleanness in Numbers. These are instructions which define the nature of true righteousness as over against uncleanness. This is how far man fell short from God's righteousness. Uncleanness is another way of talking about sin and corruption.

The uncleanness represented sin and the rituals represent the proper approach to God, despite the uncleanness. The pharisees turned this all into elaborate rituals. They were just rituals, a show of external righteousness. The ritual hid hypocrisy and evil in the souls of the pharisees.

In the Old Testament, these rituals represented the removal of sin. Cleanness or purification represents the absolute righteousness of God. When we used the rebound technique, we have done this very thing, but in reality.

The pharisees were all about external cleanness, which was without meaning.

There was defilement, even by coming in close proximity with death; with graves. This is an unintentional contact. This is inadvertent sin or an unknown sin. 1John 1:9 cleanses us from all sins, those we are aware of and those that we are not.

Jesus is characterizing the pharisees as unmarked graves, and they were polluting the people, even though the people did not recognize this. The most unrighteous of people were the pharisees; and they were a pitfall to the people around them. They defiled Israel with their legalism. The worst people in churches are the pious, self righteous legalists who want to run your life and make you as self righteous as they are.

Let's look at the parallel passage, which is Matt. 23:27 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs, which outwardly appear beautiful, but within are full of dead people's bones and all uncleanness.

Matt. 23:28 So you also outwardly appear righteous to others, but within you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

These 3 woes have really destroyed their self-righteousness.

Luke 11:44 Woe to you! For you are like unmarked graves, and people walk over them without knowing it."

But, note what happens:

Luke 11:45 One of the lawyers answered Him, "Teacher, in saying these things You insult us also."

These lawyers were experts in the Mosaic Law and of all of the material which has been added. All of the commentary, they have studied.

So Jesus responds to him.

Luke 11:46 And He said, "Woe to you lawyers also! For you load people with burdens hard to bear, and you yourselves do not touch the burdens with one of your fingers.

The lawyers here asked for it. They place burdens on others; they pile on the burdens, but they will not lift them off. PhD program piled higher and deeper.

There seem to be two ways to see this: they either never lift a finger to remove some of the burdens they have placed on someone else; or they never subject themselves to the same laws.

Bible doctrine is not for you to think about someone else. "I wish they were here to hear this and comply to this teaching." But we are the ones who need to listen and apply. When you think, I am okay, but they are not; that is the essence of what these lawyers did.

A lawyer immediately thinks of a tactic, to get from point A to point B, using whatever argument or tactic is appropriate.

The Lawyer Uses the Victim Approach

1. This is what we call the victim mentality. He uses the approach of victim mentality; I am insulted.
2. He makes himself the injured party. I will sue you because I have been injured or degraded by you. He sees Jesus as the villain.
3. He uses his victim status to gain an advantage.
4. Actually, being offended is just a way to defeat and destroy opposition. You put them in a bad light. The lawyer is the actual problem. He is trying to turn the tables on the Lord.
5. This is what this lawyer had in mind for Jesus Christ. Everyone listening understand that Jesus is being mean, to run down the religious leaders in front of everyone else.
6. This was a tactic to damage the Lord's reputation in the eyes of those around Him.
7. He is trying to gain a victory by manipulating those around him. This is a tactic which many use today.

Who exactly are these lawyers? This is something that we need to understand, so that we are not down on all lawyers. The chairman of the board is a very good lawyer and he is anything but legalistic. Not all lawyers are like these guys.

Many of these are pharisees by another name.

The Lord turns to the lawyers. The pharisees and lawyers had codified 365 new prohibitions and another 200+ regulations. As if there was not enough in the Mosaic Law already. They were overly concerned about the ridiculous minutia. We can understand hundreds of regulations covering every area of our life. Some don't make sense, some cannot be kept, some are contradictory, and some are destructive.

Regulations for the Sabbath, what could be done or not done on that day. There is a list posted on your wall what you can and cannot do with several hundred regulations. It takes all day to read them. They kept piling on more rules without removing any previous rules. Very confusing for those who wanted to try to keep these rules. This was the burden that our Lord is speaking of; and this is just one area.

We have hundreds of regulations passed by government agencies; which have the force of law, but they were never reviewed by voters. It takes lawyers to interpret all of the tax code. This is what many lawyers spend all of their time figuring it out. Small businesses are being regulated out of business. They are crushing the smaller companies. And this shuts down the job market.

Bobby is constantly amazed with Congress; and they put the healthcare law on us, but they do not put the same requirements on themselves.

Our congressmen are hypocrites.

Hypocrites in High Places

1. They so often evade the rules that they place on everyone else. This happens in every walk of life. It can be government, in large and small businesses, etc.
2. They make no effort to relieve the load that they impose, even when it is impossible to comply. What kept them in business? Making new regulations and then interpreting them. Sometimes the interpretation could actually contradict the original law.
3. In and under these circumstances, there was nothing of grace and compassion in these people, although they tried to project this on the outside. Beautiful on the outside and dead men's bones on the outside. Compassion today is filled with strings; and true compassion has no strings. I will give you something, but I want something in return.
4. What is behind all of this? Plenty of greed, plenty of graft, self-indulgence and self-righteousness.

Do not spend your time being a victim and seeing how others do this. Apply it to your own actions. You handle these situations with doctrine.

There will be another woe pronounced on these very deserving lawyers. So he uses the tomb analogy again.

Lesson #0736

Luke 11:44–52 Life of Christ

2/22/2015 1Sunday

Ruth Satorius passed away.

One of the most common occurrences in the life of our Lord is the interaction between the pharisees and Him. Jesus pronounces a series of woes upon the pharisees. This is the culmination of so much that has taken place.

Interjection: ouai (οὐαί) [pronounced oo-AH-ee], which means, 1) alas, woe. Thayer Definition only. Strong's #3759.

The grace of God separates religion from Christianity. We cannot please God on our own. We must depend upon God for all in our life. The only thing that fills that void is human works; the way of all legalistic ritual religion. There is nothing of God in it. Only when you know God can you love Him. You cannot love people that you do not know. How many people have been fooled into thinking that sex is love.

The pharisees have no love and no justice in standing before God.

Luke 11:44 Woe to you! For you are like unmarked graves, and people walk over them without knowing it."

Walking over a tomb makes you unclean. The touch or proximity makes one unclean. Jesus spoke of these men as unmarked graves.

Legalism is a substitute for a true relationship with God. Corrupt leadership corrupts those they lead.

An irate lawyer stands up and objects.

Luke 11:45 One of the lawyers answered Him, "Teacher, in saying these things You insult us also."

The lawyers are in bed with the pharisees; they hold to the same legalism. The lawyer makes himself out to be the injured party. He says, "I am the plaintiff here; I am the injured party." He believes that he is discrediting and defeating the Lord Jesus Christ. He is a mouthpiece and he knows how to debate. He is an arrogant scholar.

Luke 11:46 And He said, "Woe to you lawyers also! For you load people with burdens hard to bear, and you yourselves do not touch the burdens with one of your fingers."

So Jesus pronounces a new woe on them. “You keep laying weights on the people and you never remove a single one.”

These men have codified innumerable additional commandments and conditions to it. They have filled them with regulations. These split hairs on endless debates. They put so many regulations on people so that the religious leaders and the common people could not fulfill all of them.

The regulations were huge burdens upon the people; yet they overlooked their own culpability to carry out all of these regulations.

Because these lawyers had so much power, they made no effort to reduce the load that they imposed upon the people. Such is the operation of all intrusive government that imposes overbearing regulations on its people.

Greed, graft and self-indulgence was what filled up the soul of this lawyer. He walked into the trap set by the Lord Jesus Christ.

Luke 11:47 Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets whom your fathers killed.

Luke 11:48 So you are witnesses and you consent to the deeds of your fathers, for they killed them, and you build their tombs.

Luke 11:49 Therefore also the Wisdom of God said, 'I will send them prophets and apostles, some of whom they will kill and persecute,'

Luke 11:50 so that the blood of all the prophets, shed from the foundation of the world, may be charged against this generation,

Luke 11:51 from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who perished between the altar and the sanctuary. Yes, I tell you, it will be required of this generation.

Jesus has charged him with the murders of all the prophets. These people built elaborate tombs to all of the prophets of Israel.

The religious leaders built all of these tombs for the prophets their forefathers killed; and they had the same attitude.

The Hypocrisy of These Lawyers

1. They were tacitly including themselves in the murders committed by their forefathers. Given the chance, they would be right in their with grandpas.
2. Why were they implicated? Their attitudes were exactly the same as their forefathers. This is true of every unbeliever.
3. They killed the true prophets because they disagreed with them.

4. They would kill them because of the hatred engendered by their message. If you can't make application to some of this today...
5. These men were following the thinking and the actions of their forefathers.
6. They were actually testifying against themselves by hypocritically building these monument
7. By their attitude, they approve of what their murderous fathers have done.
8. Building the monuments was the ultimate hypocrisy.
9. They will carry out the very same murder that their forefathers did. They would kill the Man the prophets prophesied about.
10. They were building monuments that would soon.
11. The very act of building indicates their complicity of crime.
12. In reality, they were just as much murderers as their forefathers.
13. They reveal their hypocrisy. Inwardly, they rejected the prophets, while outwardly praising the prophets.

The regulations that they added that were burdensome to the people were often contradictory to that which had been...

Luke 11:52 Woe to you lawyers! For you have taken away the key of knowledge. You did not enter yourselves, and you hindered those who were entering."

Lesson #0737

Luke 11:47– 12:1 Life of Christ

2/22/2015 2Sunday

These were lawyers of the code of Israel, the Mosaic Law. They were certainly hypocrites in how they lived the Mosaic Law.

They would kill the Lord Jesus Christ; and if they would kill Him; who would they not kill? They could not really dispute history. They honored those their fathers killed, but they were just like their fathers. They did not follow the teachings of the prophets. Why did they continue to reject the message of the prophets while building monuments to them.

The Old Testament prophets called for a change of mind from the people; and this generation is equally negative toward doctrine.

There are the prophecies of the Messiah which Jesus Christ perfectly fulfilled. Every prophecy that had to do with the Messiah was perfectly fulfilled by Jesus. All they had to do was to look at the prophecies and Jesus and they could see how they match up.

No one has ever kept the Law in its entirety. Any known violation of the Law of God is sin; and the same for unknown violations. The only exception to this is the Lord Jesus Christ.

Luke 11:47 Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets whom your fathers killed.

Luke 11:48 So you are witnesses and you consent to the deeds of your fathers, for they killed them, and you build their tombs.

Luke 11:49 Therefore also the Wisdom of God said, 'I will send them prophets and apostles, some of whom they will kill and persecute,'

Luke 11:50 so that the blood of all the prophets, shed from the foundation of the world, may be charged against this generation,

The Lord reveals the scope of their murderous deeds. Abel is the first innocent victim of murder, who is carried out by their forefather Cain. Zechariah was a priest (not the writer of the book of Zechariah). 2Chron. 24:20–21. All of this murderous activity, Jesus lays at their feet.

Luke 11:51 from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who perished between the altar and the sanctuary. Yes, I tell you, it will be required of this generation.

They seemed like they were dedicated to knowledge, but they have taken away the key of knowledge, and they kept others from entering into knowledge. The key is Jesus Christ and they kept others from Him.

This final woe was really severe.

Jesus said that those who keep on hearing and obeying the Word of God are those who receive the divine favor. They added to it; and hence they obscured the Word of God by adding to it. They had taken away the key of knowledge. They had hidden the truth from those who needed it. They all needed the truth. They bullied others into keep regulations that had nothing to do with the Law.

We are governed by the constitution of the United States; and yet we are governed by hundreds and thousands of regulations from unelected bureaucrats, thus obscuring and demeaning the constitution.

They were guilty of hiding the very truth that they were charged to teach and to reveal. Religion still hides the truth today.

“What is truth?” As if there is no such thing as truth. We both have our opinions of truth. That obscures the fact that there is truth. The person who says this will never allow for there to be truth.

Their forefathers did it with the prophets and the Law; and they are doing the same thing that day. Who brought the New Testament to us? The divinely inspired Apostles. They are parallel to the prophets of the Old Testament. The New Testament is obscured. There is nothing new under the sun.

If you don't know history, you will make the same mistakes of history.

There is truth to be found in science, history and mathematics. The theorems of mathematics are probably closer to truth than anything else. Human wisdom can be perverted. Science is a great example of what God created.

They rejected and demanded rejection by Israel. Rejecting Jesus Christ is the reason for judgment.

Luke 11:52 Woe to you lawyers! For you have taken away the key of knowledge. You did not enter yourselves, and you hindered those who were entering."

Jesus leaves this place. The Scribes and pharisees began to be hostile toward Him.

Luke 11:53 As he went away from there, the scribes and the Pharisees began to press Him hard and to provoke Him to speak about many things,

"You are going against conventional wisdom, Jesus." This is done today against those who do not hold to the party line. When someone speaks the truth today, they get blasted.

Luke 11:54 lying in wait for Him, to catch Him in something He might say.

Jesus called the forefathers murderers and implicated these lawyers in it. Therefore, they continued to plot against Jesus to catch Him in some mistake.

Jesus has already begun to pronounce the woes. The disciples will have to carry on without Him; and they will face this opposition as well, as representatives of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Jesus will exhort His followers to faithfulness in Luke 12.

There was somewhat of a newscast after this. He took apart the lawyers and many who were oppressed by the religious types could not wait to hear more.

If the pharisees were honest, they would have to say, "I think I just got nailed. Maybe I ought to listen." That would be positive volition.

When people hear the gospel, and respond positively. That is what is happening here. Response to Jesus was building to a crescendo.

The trampling here is a descriptive way to indicate that people wanted to hear the Lord Jesus Christ.

There were those who had varying amounts of hostility toward Jesus and would challenge him at any possible moment. Jesus had all of these types present, and He knew they were present and He spoke to their various viewpoints.

There was positive volition in this crowd; but there would be an overall rejection of Jesus Christ coming near. But Jesus has to prepare the 12 for what they would face. The opposition would continue.

The Luke 11 lunch; there is a parallel in Matthew. "You are like whitewashed tombs." These are the ones who opposed Him; these are the tyrants. These are the ones who would put Him to death.

Jesus uses leaven to illustrate human viewpoint and false doctrine. It spreads like crazy. The more it is inculcated into the souls of people, the more it expands and permeates into the souls of the people.

The malady of hypocrisy were permeating and corrupting the entire nation. The pharisees spreading their hypocrisy and regulations throughout the nation; their traditions. That was the nation of Israel. This is what the Lord Jesus Christ faced.

Luke 12:1 In the meantime, when so many thousands of the people had gathered together that they were trampling one another, He began to say to his disciples first, "Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.

Lesson #0738

Luke 11: Life of Christ

2/25/2015 Wed

Jesus continues with instructions; and these are about hypocrisy. In this chapter, other topics like greed will be covered. Greed seems to be a predominant motivation for so much that occurs today.

Luke sets the scenario in which our Lord is setting up his teaching. Blatant hypocritical pharisees.

Luke 12:1 In the meantime, when so many thousands of the people had gathered together that they were trampling one another, He began to say to his disciples first, "Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.

Thousands of people in an assembly is a novelty. People traveled from all over, by to hear Him. Some jostled for a better position; a better place from which to hear Him.

These people faced the legalism of the pharisees on a daily basis. These same lawyers and pharisees and dogging the Lord; and these people are getting a lot of flack from the pharisees as well. They must be warned of the insidious nature of the religious types.

There is no greater example than hypocrisy than the stuff that goes on in Washington D.C. Bobby thinks that Texas is the greatest place to be in the United States.

Hypocrisy is connected to lies; wherever it is present, it is like a communicable disease. For those who have accepted Christ, they must beware of pharisees, which is hypocrisy.

The pharisees were known for their great hypocrisy. They demanded of the common people. The sadducees were the upper class and there were not many of them. The pharisees demanded that the common people hold to the standards of the Mosaic Law; but mostly the regulations which they imposed on top of the Mosaic Law. They demanded this from the common people. Their regulations were impossible to keep. No one could keep up with them. This is like the United States government; where they have regulations which are contradictory and overbearing.

Leaven and Hypocrisy

1. Jesus spoke of the hypocrisy of the pharisees as a terrible danger. He has finished blasting the pharisees; now He will speak to His disciples about them and their hypocrisy. He compares it to leaven.
2. It is a very apt description for the insidious nature of hypocrisy.
3. The evil of hypocrisy spreads and expands among the people. A little hypocrisy permeates throughout all the people.
4. That malady was permeating and corrupting the nation. Leaven spreads through bread affecting its consistency. Hypocrisy spreads throughout groups of people affecting the very fabric of their lives.
5. Hypocrisy was having a terrible effect upon the people.

There would be a time that everyone would see this hypocrisy. The very nature of hypocrisy is hidden. The choices would also be very clear for all to make. A choice between legalism and light.

Their hypocrisy would be revealed.

Luke 12:2 Nothing is covered up that will not be revealed, or hidden that will not be known.

Luke 12:3 Therefore whatever you have said in the dark shall be heard in the light, and what you have whispered in private rooms shall be proclaimed on the housetops.

Things might be said in front of what you think is a dead mic; and now it is spread throughout because the mic is live.

Nothing is hidden from God. We tend to think that we can hide things. Nothing is hidden from the Lord Jesus Christ. The pharisees thought that they were fooling everyone. But they were not fooling God or the Lord Jesus Christ.

People who are hypocrites are often delusional. Some lie to a point where they don't know if they are lying or telling the truth. Some people actually think that they can outsmart God. One acquaintance of Bobby's was involved in a religion that was all about fooling God. People who are that way have no conception about Who God is. He indwells us bodily. "You don't think He knows what you are thinking?"

Ultimately, all of our hypocrisy will be exposed. This is prophetic. Their hypocrisy was revealed at His trial. This brought to light the extent of their evil. Some will be blinded to see it. Some people in our country will be blinded by the lies of the government. They are leavened.

We recognize much of the hypocrisy of the government. Others do not necessarily. Those who are in power demand things from citizens that they would not do themselves. Laws are passed that legislators exempt themselves from. Our new healthcare system is for all of us; but not for the legislators. They have a separate plan. It was all done, as hypocrisy always is done, in the guise of being best for us. "We know what's best for you and we will do it, whether you know it or not. You aren't smart enough to make these decisions for yourself, but we will make them for you and you will thank us one day for it."

You cannot believe a lie and be smart. To believe a lie is stupidity. It is anti-freedom. And the government votes itself more freedom. Self-serving government that ignores or suppresses the people.

The pharisees are the self-proclaimed elite; and they did not withhold punishment. They could excommunicate you from the Temple and from society. "You cannot work in this society; you cannot do anything worthwhile in this society anymore." But they found ways to exempt themselves from these same regulations. They were ingenious at promoting their great worthiness and superiority.

The real thinking and nature of the pharisees would be made known. What Jesus said about these men, many did not believe; but they would see it for themselves.

The religious leaders were merely actors who acted religious.

Today, actors are revered. Many want to emulate them. Why is their opinion worthwhile, when all they do is pretend to be other people. They don't live the way that they preach. The pharisees are actors.

Does Jesus stand up and say, "Down with the oppressors; power to the people"? Jesus speaks to the application of Bible doctrine to their souls. If you are talking Bible doctrine and you don't live it, you are a hypocrite. You are nothing but living a lie.

Bible doctrine is to be lived and applied. As believers, our life is Bible doctrine. It is walking the walk as well as talking the talk. If you are not living the spiritual life, you are not maturing.

Why do you think unbelievers see so many Christians are hypocrites? Because they are. These are very important instructions that Jesus is giving to His disciples.

You will know the truth and the truth will make you free. Free from the sin nature; progressively free. Hypocrisy is progressively removed as you grow spiritually. The Christian who thinks one way and lives another is a hypocrite.

Luke 12:4 "I tell you, my friends, do not fear those who kill the body, and after that have nothing more that they can do.

Jesus is warning His disciples, whom He calls friends. His wisdom is just breathtaking. Once you are dead, there is nothing more that anyone can do to hurt you. Death ushers us into eternity. Death is to be anticipated by the believer at just the right moment. That is a part of your dying grace blessing. There is such security in what Jesus is saying here. This is a faith rest rationale, although it may not appear to be that.

Terrorism is such an effective weapon; the killer can attack at any time anywhere, and any number of weapons. It is that unknown quality; the revulsion that sets people into peroxims of fear.

Not only that, but there is rampant crime in our streets. People abstain from activities and avoid certain places; it is a prudent thing.

Society is intimidated by this element that is among us. Fear of death is the greatest fear of all mankind. These hypocrites will tolerate no resistance to their authority. Jesus challenges their authority. The pharisees do not like grace; it removes their power.

We are in a religious war. Bobby has heard all sorts of excuses for not calling this a religious war. "Islamic radicals" are the purest form of Islam. They interpret the Qoran literally and the adhere to its teachings the most closely. They fight the fight of Mohammed. His people spread all over that part of the world.

The pope demanded the crusades because the Muslims had taken over holy places. It was not a war to conquer all of Islam; but it was to take these places back. These radicals believe that is their purpose.

People fear death and there is a lot of fear in the Middle East and in Israel. We are removing our support of Israel and that means that our client nation status is at risk.

Hypocrites will kill to cover up their secrets. Fear of them must not be the lifestyle of their targets; that is what Jesus is saying. They will kill Jesus and they will kill many others; but they will be wiped out in A.D. 70.

2Tim 1:7 for God gave us a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control.

Fear and the Believer

1. Delia means a spirit of cowardice.
2. Letting fear rule the life is cowardice.
3. Fear is present in all of us. There is no absence of fear in any of us.
4. This fear should not control us.
5. Fear, for a coward, debilitates function. It is like someone choking in sports.

6. Courage is the ability to overcome fear; and to think and act under pressure. Athletics is a pressure-cooker for that. Whatever you might fear in that contest, you will not do that.
7. Cowardice is the dominance of subjective thinking and irrational emotional.
8. Distinguishing between fear that is normal and fear that is debilitating. Fear is when you stop evaluating, you stop thinking, you are under the control of fear.
9. In cowardice, you lose objectivity under pressure; then you cannot act reasonably. That is what is sometimes called paralyzed with fear.

We are learning a doctrinal rationale. A faith rest rationale.

Lesson #0739

Luke 11: Life of Christ

2/26/2015 Thurs

People have a natural fear of death.

Luke 12:4 "I tell you, my friends, do not fear those who kill the body, and after that have nothing more that they can do.

Once you are dead, what else can they do to you? They take you to God. This appears to come out of nowhere. Jesus has been dealing with hypocrisy, and now this is a brand new subject. They are under the scrutiny of the hypocritical pharisees.

The disciples were in danger because they were followers of the disciples. When the Lord addresses fear and death, He speaks to them in a very straightforward manner. There are all types of ways to die. This is applicable to any way that a person can die.

Fear and Cowardice

1. Letting fear rule your life is cowardice. It changes the way you think and operate.
2. Fear is present in all of us. We all fear something. Even the bravest of us have a fear. Person that Bobby knows has claustrophobia. It is a real fear and we have some form of fear; but it does not need to control us.
3. In a coward, fear debilitates thinking and action. It alters the way that you think and what you do.
4. Courage is the ability to overcome fear and to act and think objectively when fear is present.
5. Cowardice is the dominance of subjective thinking and irrational emotion.
6. Cowardice is when a person stops thinking and reasoning under pressure.
7. He loses objectivity under pressure and cannot function under the mandates of Bible doctrine.

So how can these disciples, who know so little doctrine, how can they escape cowardice in the face of persecution, hatred, and the face of death. The pharisees could have the power over life and death.

Fear and the New Believer under Pressure

1. They have to utilize a simple mechanic when under pressure; to apply the faith rest drill. This is the mechanic of living that life. It is a wonderful understanding and the result of living the Christian life.
2. When fear strikes, a believer claims a promise dealing with fear. You claim a pertinent promise regarding fear.
3. We relate that promise to the object of our fear; to the circumstances. It is a simple mechanic to handle fear. The more you do it, the more it becomes second nature. When faith rest becomes second nature, fear is handled under every condition.
4. Then you draw a doctrinal rationale concerning the fear. It puts fear in perspective; the big picture of the plan of God versus the little circumstance of fear.
5. What is a promise that we can draw a rationale from? If God is for me, who can be against me? There is no need to fear anyone with God on your side.
6. That rationale calms your fear. The fear remains present and you can think and be objective.
7. You will be thinking both doctrinally and objectively. If you tinker Bible doctrine, you can see the fear from the standpoint of divine viewpoint.
8. This is the mode of handling pressure, for drawing strength under fearful circumstances.
9. That is what it means to draw a doctrinal conclusion from a promise and from a doctrinal rationale that is appropriate. You draw a conclusion about the circumstance.

You utilize the mind of Christ under pressure; so you know how to handle the pressure. No one had more pressure than the Lord. The cross was the most pressure packed circumstance of his life; but He handled it in the power of the Holy Spirit and the doctrine in His soul. It was His mind and He used it. His application of a faith rest rationale and the pressure. He had a sacrifice that must be finished. He carried out His mission to the letter. We have a mission and fear gets in the way. We need to think with the same relaxed mental attitude. This way we won't respond in a cowardly frame of mind. Cowardice is not being able to function when the fear is present.

Aorist middle subjunctive of phobeō with the negative mê. This means that we must not become a coward. Someone or something may engender fear in the soul. The middle voice is reflexive; one brings this fear upon himself, if he succumbs to the fearful circumstances. The subjunctive is the subjunctive of prohibition. He can choose to fear or not. Succumbing to fear is a choice. It is not the circumstances which cause cowardice.

If you read the Red Badge of Courage, it is about a man who ran away from combat. The problem is he chose to run. That is the reflexive subjunctive. That is why the faith rest rationale.

Fear is protection from danger. It is recognizing that you are in a serious circumstance. The first time you jump out of an airplane, there is fear. There is some fear every time that you jump. There is a fear of failure; some people won't do certain things because they are afraid that they will fail.

Dealing with Fear

1. Succumbing to that fear and failure to cope with it is a choice. You have evaluated it; you weigh the options and then you decide if it is a necessary risk or not. Neuroses can impair this process; neuroses can also be overcome.
2. If fear of a person or circumstances is evaluated objectively, by doctrine in your soul, a choice must be made about how to proceed, balancing fear with doctrine.
3. The choice to succumb to fear should always be negative. Particularly when that is something that must be accomplished. Now, sometimes you avoid something out of fear that is a common sense decision.
4. Fear should not be the primary motive for something that must be accomplished. Our Lord knew that He must go to the cross. He had a choice.
5. You may decide not to proceed in some situations; but only after objective evaluation.
6. In the spiritual life, that evaluation would be the application of the faith rest drill, that cannot be overwhelmed by fear.
7. The drill puts fear in its proper perspective, in order to make a decision apart from fearful emotion, and hence not to display cowardice.

The faith rest drill prohibits fear from controlling your soul. Fear will not rule the life of the believer who applies the faith rest drill. Once you go down that road of fear, fear can rule your life. Fear and terror and cowardice is the exact opposite of faith rest. Paul rejects a lifestyle of fear and cowardice. The Christian life is not a life of cowardice.

There are plenty of examples of this. Islamic terrorists spreading across the globe. It is here and we hear about it every day. Cowardice would allow that fear to possess your soul and alter the way that you operate. If fear is a lifestyle, then you stop living the Christian life. The believer can only prohibit a controlling fear by using the procedure of the faith rest drill. Sometimes, this can become an involuntary response to fear. The more you drill, the more you can do it. It is how a maturing believer processes the pressures of life.

There is always some fear involved in a soldier who is in harm's way. A soldier beset with fear means a soldier cannot think clearly. In a combat zone, fear is common.

Isa. 41:10 fear not, for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your God; I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with My righteous right hand.

Isa 40:31 but they who wait for the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles; they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not faint.

We have a promise now, and a conclusion as well. The promise urges the soldier to cultivate an habitual trust. We are in a particular locale, and God has a particular purpose for you.

When you think about an eagle, you think of power and bravery and strength. Walking and not becoming weary; that is a vivid picture for a soldier. He's there; He's always there; and He will uphold you with the right hand of His righteousness. When you do it over and over again, it becomes second nature to you.

All of us have a mission in the plan of God. When you are overcome by fear, that mission will not be accomplished. Do not fear those who can do anything to you. No believer needs to fear death at any time and under any circumstances. You cannot be taken out of this life until God's plan calls for it. You won't stay one second longer and you won't go one second too soon.

After death comes eternal life; and that can be seen as an eternal life rationale. The conclusion is, there is nothing that any human killer can do to us. The believer's future is secure. It promotes a lifestyle without fear. The power of one who kills does not reach beyond the grave.

So often today, the enemies of believers desecrate the Bible. They might drag them through the street. All of this is meaningless. Nothing can be done to the believer once he has left his earthly body. There is nothing to be feared by the believer regarding death.

Lesson #0740

Luke 11: Life of Christ

3/1/2015 1Sunday

Luke 12:4 "I tell you, my friends, do not fear those who kill the body, and after that have nothing more that they can do.

Jesus is speaking to the disciples; and they were His friends in every sense of the word. Jesus is speaking to us as well here. "Do not be afraid of those who can kill you," is easier said than done. For most people, nothing is more frightening.

There is security and comfort in this statement of the Lord's. After death, there is nothing more they can do. There might even be a sense of dry humor here. What happens after this death which is out of the hands of those who kill? The killing power of those with the authority over the believer and the believer's death is over the body and not the soul. This is the physical death that the Lord is talking about; but fear is a choice. A person has a choice whether to entertain fear in the soul. When fear takes over, a person is unable to think logically.

We all have some sort of fear; and how we deal with it is key. Jesus took the most common fear. The believer has options and sources. When fear strikes, claim a promise from God's Word. Then apply this promise from the Word of God to whatever the circumstance is. That is the right choice. Any other choice is outside the plan of God.

Man can physical kill a believer; but the soul continues on. The believer continues from life through death into eternity. It is a quick phase that we pass through. The believer passes through this phrase into eternity. No one has power after we are killed.

This is called the faith rest drill. This is a military term that fits well with how to overcome fear. One of the hardest things to do in fear is to think objectively. This term goes back to the military.

3 Steps of the Faith Rest Drill

1. Claim a reassuring promise from the Bible. Isa. 41:10 Fear not for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. If you don't have a promise to claim, then grab the faith rest book and find the promises.
2. Next step is to apply a doctrinal rationale. This is an underlying reason to think and act with courage. There are very general ones. The person has no power over you after the moment of death, because you are then in your eternal destiny. "I give eternal life to them and they will never perish and no one will snatch them out of My hand." Nothing on earth can destroy your eternal life and your relationship with God.
3. Drawing a doctrinal conclusion. Up to this moment, you have just been thinking. Death is never the winner for the believer in Jesus Christ; death cannot defeat us. We are the winners. Death ushers us into eternity in heaven. Surely I will uphold you with the right hand of My righteousness. God's help is always there; we just have to recognize it and claim it. These promises and rationales keep fear from inhabiting our souls. The whole key to living the Christian life and dealing with the problems in life.

A believer can enter into a lifestyle of cowardice; and that is the alternative life. A coward dies many times, but a brave man dies but once. We have virtue love from doctrine and a sound mind, which is a soul filled with doctrine. The application is, our future is secure and assured. When that future is completely secure. There is security in life is very temporary. The security of spiritual life is complete and absolute. That promotes life without the intrusion of cowardice. Holding on to doctrine and doctrinal rationales overrides any threat of death in life.

Only John will escape a gruesome death, like beheading. Indeed, all who desire to live godly, will be persecuted, in one way or another. We won't all have to face death; but there will be persecution. It might just be bullying or mocking.

The importance of what Jesus says here: "Do not be intimidated." You get a human promise and it sounds pretty good. Someone says they will love and cherish you for the rest of your life, and it does not always work out. Problems in life fade, in comparison to the promises of God. Man's opposition is nothing compare to the power and promises of God. As you metabolize doctrine, you are in the plan of God and you begin to operate in the plan of God.

Nero beheaded the Apostle Paul; yet Paul pressed on, despite the threats he faced. For the believer, life is a series of events within the plan of God. God knows everything about you. He is omniscient. He knows everything. You couple the plan of God and the essence of God into a rationale, you know that God has working out everything in life for you. We can walk in it and stay in it for the rest of our lives. What we want to do cannot compare to the plan of God and living inside His plan for us. Most people in this world cannot handle much pressure. This is something that sets them over the edge. But it is unnecessary. Maybe you don't have the perfect circumstances in life. But God keeps us from going over the edge with His Word.

Death will catch us all. Philip. 1:21 To live is Christ and to die is profit.

People are scared to death that they will be in a subway and there will be an explosion; they will run a marathon and a bomb will go off; they will be walking along and catch a bullet in the head.

Keep on looking up; you do not have to worry about the circumstances. Your circumstances do not control you; you are in the plan of God; and God has it all worked out.

Luke 12:4 "I tell you, my friends, do not fear those who kill the body, and after that have nothing more that they can do.

Lesson #0741

Luke 12:4–5 Life of Christ

3/1/2015 2Sunday

The body they may kill; His truth abideth still. The 3 steps of the faith rest drill are what the believer can utilize under any circumstances. What we have experienced in this

No Fear

1. At no time in our existence is God's presence more real than when we face death. Kendall in Oregon was give a few weeks to live; and now it is 5 years later and he is still alive.
2. When we appreciate God's complete control over our ultimate destiny, we are confident that He has saved the best for last.
3. The mature believer who rests in his life will savor dying as the final chapter of his life. It is easy to understand God's living grace; we hear about it constantly in Berachah Church. But there is also His dying grace.
4. God takes us home at the right time of His choosing.
5. He takes us home in a way that is most effective for furthering His plan. When we leave this life, it is still a part of His plan. This is always about God's plan. Bobby wondered why his father suffered Alzheimer's; why did God shut down his soul. Bobby understands; and in part, it was for him. God's plan was still ongoing for Bobby and for his father.
6. The believer can face death confident that the personal sense of destiny—we have always had a destiny in Christ.
7. Under these conditions, the believer can face eternity with unwavering confidence and sublime anticipation of meeting the Lord face to face. We have no idea what awaits us in eternity. When we cross over the river, everyone will be waiting for you. And so shall we ever be with the Lord.
8. The believer can look back on life with no regrets.

Let's look at another faith rest rationale. Self esteem is very important to some people. It is very much part of people's perception of being effective in life. Spiritual self esteem is in contrast to the artificial idea of human self esteem. Since human self esteem is respect for one's own person and regard for self, it is unpredictable and it is variable. It is easily deflatable.

Spiritual Self Esteem

1. Spiritual self esteem in contrast is objective, self-evaluation. In human self esteem, you are not focusing on the right things.
2. Spiritual self esteem is based upon the divine perspective of oneself. What does God think of you? How does God look at us?
3. From this vantage point of doctrine, the believer sees himself as he appears to God; what an advantage!
4. That is favorable, as every believer is in union with Christ and we share everything that He is and everything that He has. We can, from this vantage point, apply a variety of rationales.
5. The believer is convinced that God has a plan for his life; a spiritual destiny. The plan of God rationale. When you are convinced of that, that goes a long way in your life. You can have spiritual self esteem and it continues to increase.
6. With spiritual self esteem, you are secure in the fact that death has no power over you. Fear of death can be removed because your esteem is in Jesus Christ.
7. That is called doctrinal orientation. Without doctrine, you can have no spiritual self esteem. You must fall back on your faulty human self esteem.
8. Spiritual self esteem is bound up in God's viewpoint; and not in human self esteem. This includes other people's approbation of us. We get our self-esteem often from others and what they think about us. It can ruin our lives when people have negative thoughts about us and love to stab us in the back and tell us what jerks we are. That deflates you badly and it makes you question yourself and it makes you afraid of what someone else thinks and what they do. "What does God think of me? What can God do regarding me?" And so, we do not worry about what man does to us. If God's plan has us set for that promotion, we will get it. If not, God has something else for us. That is the thinking of spiritual self esteem.
9. When the believer is secure in God's grace and in His plan, his self-confidence no longer is derived from subjective perceptions and thoughts about himself, other people, or other circumstances. A person with spiritual self esteem is not threatened by his environment or by other people or by circumstances.
10. Spiritual self esteem maintains supreme confidence that the Lord accompanies every believer through life and through the valley of the shadow of death. Based upon this, we fear no evil; we fear no death; we fear no circumstances.

There will be fear in our mind. That simply recognizes a difficult set of circumstances. Do I want to do this or not? How do I want to deal with this person. Fear helps us evaluate the situation. Spiritual self esteem for the believer means that the believer is not controlled by fear. The believer gains capacity for his purpose in life. We have purpose in life; God has designed a purpose for us. We follow that beacon of grace; that grace plan. This is not hard; this is not rocket science. Metabolized doctrine is what engenders spiritual self esteem and directs our destiny. We are confident. Death is not an end; it is the beginning of an eternal future. It is something to look forward to when God decides to take us home. That is the attitude of spiritual self esteem. That is the attitude of the mature believer. Death holds no fear; but conversely, immature and carnal believers cannot apply faith rest; and they have no spiritual self esteem. Fear easily turns to cowardice. They have substituted human viewpoint for the promises of God. And they will die the sin unto death; they will die as miserably as they lived.

Human viewpoint is the problem; but death holds no fear for those with divine viewpoint. Human viewpoint rules the thinking of the believer who is not advancing. This believer does not advance; he is retreating. Temporal fear and dread in his life. Without spiritual self esteem, human self esteem alone is incapable of facing any fear; especially the fear of death.

Fear of dying actually questions the wisdom of God. You are questioning God's decision regarding God's timing and method of your end. Why are you here? What is God's purpose? You must conclude your life successfully by living the plan of God and living the spiritual life, so that you hear, "Well done, my good and faithful servant."

After this rationale, Jesus gives an evangelistic message to the unbeliever.

For some people, there is good reason to fear death. The alternative for the unbeliever is nearly unthinkable. Jesus tells us who we ought to fear.

Luke 12:5 But I will warn you whom to fear: fear him who, after he has killed, has authority to cast into hell. Yes, I tell you, fear Him!

Jesus is speaking of Himself. If you are going to fear anyone, then fear Me!

Lesson #0742

Luke 12: Life of Christ

3/4/2015 Wed

Luke 12:4 "I tell you, my friends, do not fear those who kill the body, and after that have nothing more that they can do.

We apply doctrine when fears intrude on our lives; we all have fears and some of us have fears. These fears as well as circumstantial fears need to be handled with promises and the application of doctrinal rationales.

People don't like to think that one day it will all be over; and that we will no longer be on this earth. Death is inevitable; it does not matter how much money you have or how healthy you are. The fear of that constantly intrudes on people's minds.

"Speak to the living and bury the dead," is the memorial service motto at Berachah Church. A doctrinal rationale is what we use; and underlying doctrinal reason to act with your thoughts during a time of fear. Courage is optional; based upon your use of the faith rest drill. Cowardice does not have to be displayed; fear does not have to control your soul and affects your life. You cannot think doctrine and allow fear to control your life. Fear is a mental attitude sin; and you lose your ability to reason and to think objectively.

Here, a faith rest rationale is developed based upon the fact that we have nothing to fear from someone who can kill our bodies. Do not fear, for I am with you; for I will strengthen you, I will uphold you with the right hand. You do not have to fear life or death; or even a killer. After physical death, your destiny is set. We die physically, but we pass through death to eternal life in the blink of an eye. Our soul lives; it is eternal.

The eternal life rationale would be step 2. There is the plan of God rationale. God is always there; He never forsakes. The essence of God rationale; when the situation looks hopeless, God is omniscient and omnipotent. We have to know God's essence in order to apply this doctrinal rationale.

What is to fear when God controls everything.

The plan of God rationale; God has a plan for my life; and we are not removed until His plan is over.

However death comes upon us, it only happens to us once. Physical death is the beginning of eternal life. Beyond the grave, no human has any plan to influence God's plan.

Then Jesus brings another side into the picture:

Luke 12:5 But I will warn you whom to fear: fear Him who, after He has killed, has authority to cast into hell. Yes, I tell you, fear Him!

This is the fear of the unbeliever, and this fear is very justified.

Initial Points on Fear of the Unbeliever

1. This verse is a reversal of what Jesus has just taught the believer about fear and overcoming it. No fear; have fear.
2. Whereas the believer who uses the faith rest drill fears no man and no circumstance, and God is his strength, the unbeliever does fear and should fear death.
3. The unbeliever fears the very one that the believer clings to. Fear is a part of the unbeliever's part of life. The unbeliever has no defense. Maybe some positive thinking.
4. The unbeliever has no eternal life rationale. He has no plan of God rationale. He is not in the plan of God as an unbeliever. Doubt after doubt; who am I, where am I going. I am afraid of this or that person. This is the life of the unbeliever and the believer with no doctrine in the soul.

God alone controls the fate of all men; believers and unbelievers alike. He is fully aware of the end of each person's life. God has the power to pronounce eternal death upon those who have not believed in Him. He who believes in Jesus Christ will be saved; and he who does not obey shall not see life, but the wrath of God abides upon him. Luke 12:5 describes that end. The reality of hell is stated here clearly.

This is not a metaphor. Hell is a place. It is the Lake of Fire. That should put the fear of God into those who contemplate Jesus Christ and life and death. This is overwhelming even for the believer.

The person believes or does not believe. Can you imagine rejecting Jesus Christ with hell hanging over your head. How can God say no to me because I am such a great person. But God will, because we have the choice.

Luke 12:5 But I will warn you whom to fear: fear Him who, after He has killed, has authority to cast into hell. Yes, I tell you, fear Him!

Now we will go into spiritual self esteem; and the worth of the believer. Human self esteem is fallible; and spiritual self esteem is infallible. But Jesus uses a rationale connected with this. Confidence abounds in the care of God and this is what the Lord wants to cement into their souls.

Luke 12:6 Are not five sparrows sold for two pennies? And not one of them is forgotten before God.

God knows the worthless, tiny sparrow.

Luke 12:7 Why, even the hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not; you are of more value than many sparrows.

God actually knows exactly the number of hairs on our heads; how many we have lost and how many remain.

If He knows all the sparrows, then He knows us as well. From these verses is, His eye is on the sparrow and I know He watches me.

Bob tells Bobby a story. Iwo Jima was an awful, bloody mess. When they hit the beach, everything in the world came down on them. Many were killed and wounded. A medic, and he was as low as he could be, buried in the sand. He heard a bird singing in the middle of all this hell. He lifts his head to see a bush in front of him, and there is a sparrow singing away in front of him. He thought of this verse. If that sparrow can survive, then I know I can too. And he got up and did his job.

The logic is quite simple. Sparrows are the most common of birds. They are all over and they are not very pretty; not very interesting. A cardinal or blue jay is interesting; but not sparrows. Since God has a plan for each believer, then every believer is of infinite value to Him. The illustration is perfect.

The average adult has around 100,000 hairs on our heads. If God cares for each insignificant sparrow and He counts everyone of our head, so that not one hair falls and escapes His notice, and not one sparrow falls who escapes His notice; this means that God knows what we are doing and He cares about this.

This is a very strong rationale. If the lesser is important, then the greater is even more important. Every person is a part of God's plan. Each one of us are known to God; and each one is an intricate cog in His plan. Every believer has a part in the overall plan of God. We may think that we are insignificant, but God doesn't. We are to function in the plan of God.

Then our Lord makes a conclusion. These disciples should publically acknowledge Him and not fear persecution.

Jesus takes this further. God is going to give us a great honor.

Luke 12:8 "And I tell you, everyone who acknowledges me before men, the Son of Man also will acknowledge before the angels of God, Aorist active subjunctive of homologeō. It means to name, to cite, to declare openly.

The disciples were surrounded by men who wanted to harm them; some of whom would kill them.

Publically Proclaiming Jesus Christ

1. What is Jesus doing here? He is exhorting His disciples to listen to Him; to participate with Him in pronouncing Him as the Messiah. If you believe in Jesus Christ, then say it. Everything in Scripture, no matter who it is addressed to, is also addressed to us. Whatever the context is.
2. The disciples must witness to His Messiahship and that He is the Savior. This is what they must confess before men.
3. He is urging them, the disciples, to publically speak of Him. Not to whisper His name or think of Him, but to proclaim Him. It is one thing to profess Christ in private; it is another to say that He is their Lord in public.

The stories of Christians in the Middle ages is horrific. Burned at the stake, beheaded, impaled. But Jesus said, "Do not fear; speak publically." The disciples know that a profession of their faith could result in total ostracism; and worse. They could be tossed out of the synagogue and forfeit sending their children to rabbinical schools. They could face banishment, poverty and death. They knew this. This is what they were facing.

How many of us would profess the Lord if we faced that? There is nothing more important to us than homologueô.

He cares for sparrows and hairs; so He cares for us when persecuted. This is a difficult doctrine for us. It is not just academic or a way of thinking. This is where the men are separated from the boys. This is where courage is on the line. This is where you can see and know what is in your soul.

Luke 12:8 "And I tell you, everyone who acknowledges me before men, the Son of Man also will acknowledge before the angels of God,

Bobby is going to give us these promises.

Deut. 31:6 Be strong and be courageous; do not be afraid or tremble at them, for the Lord your God will go with us; He will not fail us or forsake us.

Rom. 8:31b If God be for us, who can be against us? The Apostle Paul dealt with more vicious enemies than anyone else in human history. He was a man of doctrine. Don't be shy about professing faith in Christ despite persecution.

The Son of Man will confess him before the angels of God. This will be done for the believer who confesses the Lord in public. This is something that happens in heaven when we pass into death. This is an honor; a medal of honor.

Lesson #0743

Luke 12: Life of Christ

3/5/2015 Thurs

Bobby gave us promises so that we can face death with courage. We begin with these promises and the faith rest drill and draw a doctrinal rationale from them. There is the eternal life rationale. After physical death, no one can touch the believer. Death is simply a door that opens into eternity.

"I give them eternal life and no one will snatch them out of My hand."

Bonhoffer; Pastor, Prophet, Spy. Born in the 19th century and he grew up in the era of Nazi Germany. He is described as a thundering preacher; emphatic and clear when he spoke. No misunderstanding what he said; and he spoke the clear gospel. And he faced one of the greatest evils in the world. Hitler sent many Jews and Christians to concentration camps.

He spoke in the place which is rubble today. He called for religioness Christianity. Those were the things that he said during the time of Nazi Germany. He also explained why Christians are to stand up for Jews. He had tremendous courage.

In 1944, he was part of a plot to assassinate Hitler. Valkirie, a good movie with Tom Cruise about this. He was sent to a concentration camp. He was lined up against a wall and executed, 28 days before the end of WWII.

He revealed the rationale that saw him through all of this with great courage. No one has yet believed in God and the Kingdom of God; no one has yet heard about the realm of the resurrected and has not been homesick for that hour. Death is hell and night and cold if it is not transformed by our faith. It is just so marvelous that we can transform death. That is the eternal life rationale.

They said that few had seen anyone with the attitude that he had.

Plan of God rationale was also covered last night; and it can be combined with the eternal life rationale. God has a plan for our life and no one can remove the believer from this life unless it is God's time.

Based upon these promises, the believer should conclude that we should not fear death. We can choose to die well or to die badly.

Luke 12:8 "And I tell you, everyone who acknowledges me before men, the Son of Man also will acknowledge before the angels of God,

Do not be shy about professing faith in Christ. Most of us will not have to face the same things as Bonhoffer or what the disciples faced. We do not have to fear anything in presenting the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Further, there is a great advantage to confessing Jesus before men; and the Son of Man will acknowledge him before the angels of God.

Homologeô is the word used here twice.

Being Confessed Before Angels

1. Christ will publically declare the believer at a future time.
2. They will be announced in the heavenly court in front of the elect angels. Our name will be spoken in front of the angels.
3. This is a huge honor.
4. In the human realm, to be announced at court makes that person a very important celebrity. If we are announced to the queen, that means that we have done something very noteworthy. In the ancient world, that often brought with it great reward and notoriety.

We need to understand the Angelic Conflict to understand this.

Abbreviated Angelic Conflict

1. Human history is the resolution of the ancient prehistoric Angelic Conflict. Get that book. This conflict existed before the creation of the universe; before the creation of man; before plants, animals, everything. We are here to resolve that.

2. The angels observe mankind very closely; all of them. Undoubtedly angels are present in Berachah Church observing. They are sitting in the stands of the stadium that we call planet earth.
3. Elect angels observe and rejoice over the conversion of just one person to Jesus Christ. Luke 14:7–10
4. They long to look at the gospel being spread by ambassadors for Jesus Christ. They want to see this. 1Peter 1:12
5. This testimony by human ambassadors for Christ destroys Satan's prehistoric appeal. Satan made an appeal and he was obviously defeated by God. Satan is still active in this world today. What we surmise from the Scriptures that Satan appealed his sentence. How can you be a loving God and do that? You would be violating your attribute of love. God allowed this appeal.
6. Every human being who is saved will demonstrate something to the watching angels. They will observe God's love, justice and righteousness. Satan isolated love; but no attribute of God can act independently of His essence. All of His essence is internally and externally compatible. Every person accepting Christ will express God's love on the cross. Because of God's perfect righteousness, He had to judge our sins on the cross. God is love and He also condemns.
7. This is proof that Satan's contention is wrong. This is why the elect angels rejoice and why we are involved.
8. Each believer is a part of the resolution of the Angelic Conflict in human history. Proclaiming Jesus Christ is a part of all of this. When we publically declare the Lord Jesus Christ, He proclaims us publically as well. We glorify God.

Profession of us

1. For the believer who professes Jesus Christ openly, who is a fearless ambassador for Him on this earth, Jesus Christ gives him public recognition. This is where R. B. Thieme, Jr. got the concept of the winner believer. He gets the gold medal.
2. Christ will personally commend this believer to elect angels at sometime after the ascension. Our Lord gave this verse while He was still on earth.
3. This acknowledgment will certain occur at the Judgment Seat of Christ.
4. Christ will announce their names and victories before all of the angles. We declare Him publically and He declares us publically. This is all part of eternal rewards. This is great recognition. The recognition goes on eternally.

The demons shudder when even one person accepts Jesus Christ as Savior. We are a part of that. We are regenerated. When we publically declare the Lord Jesus Christ, there is another big shudder. They will go after us, just as this world does. When we speak of the Lord, there will be opposition.

Fallen angels are organized to resist the ambassador for Christ. By publically declaring the Lord Jesus Christ, we receive recognition from Jesus Christ.

Luke 12:8 "And I tell you, everyone who acknowledges me before men, the Son of Man also will acknowledge before the angels of God,...

But there are consequences for the opposite of this.

Arneomai is in absolute distinction from confession of the Lord Jesus Christ. That is denial of the Lord.

Luke 12:9 but the one who denies Me before men will be denied before the angels of God.

Who Is Jesus Christ Speaking Of?

1. In context, these are unbelievers. This is the contrast. He will disclaim those who speak against Him.
2. They are the ones who refuse to acknowledge Him as Messiah and Savior. The pharisees, for example.
3. Clearly, the pharisees have refused him; and they fit the description of v. 9. They publically declare that He is not the Messiah; some even said He is of the devil.
4. How does Bobby know that this is not some loser believer? This is because they are denying the Lord Jesus Christ. This is a reference to the pharisees who are right there right then. Water baptism is a public declaration of your faith in Christ. It is a picture of our faith. This declares openly your faith.

Then Jesus says this.

Luke 12:10 And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but the one who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.

Blasphemes is the aor participle βλασπημεω, which is transliterated into our language.

Reviling the Holy Spirit

1. Anyone who reviles or defames the Holy Spirit is a blasphemer.
2. According to v. 10, that cannot be forgiven. God cannot forgive this blasphemy.
3. So, in the context Jesus cannot acknowledge the person who is forgiven.
4. On the other hand, Christ always acknowledges the believer before God, because he is family.
5. The believer is in the family of God and he is in union with Christ.
6. By this very fact, Christ does declare the believer to the Father.
7. Therefore, a believer cannot commit a sin or speak a word against Jesus Christ that is unforgivable. Impossible.
8. He is already forgiven in total on the cross.
9. That is a relationship that cannot be rescinded and that God cannot disclaim. It says that Christ can disclaim before the angels.

10. But, Christ will judge the one who does not accept Him; the unbeliever. That judgment means the person is not forgiven.

V. 10 also says that blasphemy against the Holy Spirit is unforgivable. Every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men...

Luke 12:10 And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but the one who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.

So, Do We Have a Contradiction and What Does this All Mean?

1. Personal sins are forgiven at the cross; including blasphemy.
2. Faith in Christ is the issue for salvation. It is a matter of believing the gospel.
3. Without question, it is rejection of Jesus Christ that is unpardonable.
4. Jesus Christ was judged for our sins, including blasphemy.
5. Blasphemy against the Holy Spirit is rejecting the Lord Jesus Christ.

We will cover this connection on Sunday.

Lesson #0744

Luke 12:8–10 Life of Christ

3/8/2015 1Sunday

Eucharist March 8, 2015

Jesus' remarks prior to the cross made this a ritual for the Church Age. We love the person that we think about. We must eat and drink, not with emotionalism void of thought; but with the reciprocal love inherent in the right lobe of our soul. Our worship is utter gratitude for God's unfailing love revealed in the Person and work of Jesus Christ.

He who believes in Him is not judged.

God has not set us aside for wrath or for judgment. Propitiation is the satisfaction of God with the offering of His Son. It is almost unfathomable, that before we were created, God loved us. He loved us, even though He understood our fallen nature in eternity past.

Adam and the woman were instantly condemned at their sin by God. They were spiritually dead and no longer able to have a relationship with Him. Adam was the federal head of the human race. His decision to sin was a decision made on behalf of all of us. Just as one man sin and death entered the world, because in Adam, we all sinned. God's love is not frustrated in us or thwarted. He is not up one minute and down the next.

God the Father is found by His Word. In eternity past, God made a personal relationship with Himself possible. He extended His benevolence toward His creatures. God's love was the prime cause for reaching out to us. No other love is as stable and constant.

God cannot overlook His Own perfection to love us. Something had to happen in order to reconcile us to Him. God's love, righteousness and justice and the 3 attributes where we meet God. They all work together at the cross.

At the right time in human history, the justice of God judged all of those sins condemned by the righteousness of God. The sins imputed to Jesus Christ are our sins; they are not His; but Jesus accepted their imputation in His Own body. This could only be prompted by the most magnificent love and grace imaginable.

In taking on the judgment for us, the Lord Jesus Christ provided redemption and reconciliation on our behalf. That is how powerful His love is.

What kind of love is that, that a perfect God can utilize it to give us our undeserved salvation. This is an unconditional love. We have relative righteousness at best. Without possessing His perfect righteousness, there is nothing that we can do to impress God.

Impersonal love does not require friendliness between the object of love and the possessor of love; it does not depend upon the qualities of the object. God's impersonal love is the greatest love that has ever existed. While we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. The righteousness and justice both work in coordination with His love. This love provided His substitutionary atonement. God can impute His Own righteousness to us.

We will continue to possess a sin nature and this will continue until we leave this body of ours. God's personal love is still free to bless us, based upon His Son's death on the cross. God's personal and impersonal love makes something very clear—we know that He is our benefactor and that we can go to Him in prayer with confidence and boldness. At any moment, we could enter into His presence for all eternity. We can be more at home with Him than with any other human being. That is worth remembering. We are focused not on ourselves, but upon the unfailing love of our God and our Savior.

What are our options in the face of the unfailing love of God. We either accept His work or we don't; and Jesus allows for our positive or negative decisions.

Luke 12:8 "And I tell you, everyone who acknowledges me before men, the Son of Man also will acknowledge before the angels of God,..."

There is the open obligation to, after exercising faith in Christ, to openly declare Him to others. Baptism is not a necessary requirement for salvation; it is the public testimony of the fact of our regeneration. Christ honors that person in citing his name before the angels. The opposite is also true for those who deny the LORD. Being denied before the angels of God is a declaration by the Lord.

In this context, we have those who refuse to acknowledge Jesus Christ; and epitomizing this are the pharisees who are among the crowd. They publically declare against the Lord Jesus Christ. The believer declares for the Lord Jesus Christ; and unbeliever publically deny Him before everyone else. They are the opposition.

Luke 12:9 but the one who denies Me before men will be denied before the angels of God.

This is a contrast, between those who have been forgiven of sins and those who have not apprehended the Lord by faith.

Luke 12:10 And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but the one who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.

We can speak against the Lord Jesus Christ; but we cannot blaspheme against the Holy Spirit.

Lesson #0745

Luke 12:10 Life of Christ

3/8/2015 2Sunday

Speaking against the Son of Man will be forgiven. There have been many cultures that have executed people for speaking against Jesus Christ.

Luke 12:10 And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but the one who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.

Jesus Christ says that blasphemies against the Holy Spirit is unpardonable. The sin of rejecting the Lord Jesus Christ is the unforgivable sin. So what is the difference between blaspheming Jesus Christ, forgiven; and blaspheming the Holy Spirit, unforgiven.

Βλασφημεω means disrespect, to revile, to defame, to defame one's character. This is a public defamation. So, what kind of blasphemy is so heinous that it cannot be forgiven? Is this calling the Holy Spirit a bad name unforgivable? This is no different than taking the Lord's name in vain, but that is not an unpardonable sin. So, what is this blaspheming.

Blaspheming the Holy Spirit

1. Blaspheming the Holy Spirit is another way of describing rejection of Jesus Christ. So how do we arrive at this conclusion?
2. It is the convicting or common grace ministry of the Holy Spirit that convinces anyone of the salvation work of Christ. It convinces anyone of the salvation work of our Lord.
3. Operation Z for the unbeliever. It begins with the gospel of Jesus Christ. The unbeliever does not have a human spirit when he hears the gospel. God the Holy Spirit acts as the human spirit and allows this person to understand the gospel. This information is transferred to the soul so that a real decision can be made. The Holy Spirit makes this clear and He regenerates. If the person goes negative, that is the blasphemy of the Holy Spirit.
4. Refusing to heed the ministry of God the Holy Spirit amounts to the rejection of Christ. This is unforgivable. For us, there is no sin that is too great for us.

5. In the context of Luke 12:10, the Holy Spirit is at work convicting those who are observing the evidence of Jesus Christ—His person, His miracles, His message. The Holy Spirit is working here as well. It is forgivable to reject the words of Jesus Christ; but when the Holy Spirit convicts the soul, rejecting Him is rejection of the gospel, the unforgivable sin.
6. When they reject this ministry of the Holy Spirit, it is defined as the blasphemy; this is what true blasphemy is.
7. They have rejected the true message that Jesus Christ is the Messiah and Savior.
8. So, they accept something else other than what the Holy Spirit has revealed as the truth. The Holy Spirit can only reveal the truth. His common grace is absolute truth. Rejecting the truth is rejecting the message of the Messiah.
9. The gospel is the truth of salvation. This is the message of Jesus Christ. These are the words of Jesus Christ. Rejecting the truth for a lie is tantamount to blasphemy. This is the blasphemy that the Lord speaks of.
10. Those blaspheming the Holy Spirit are the unforgiven.
11. The efficacious ministry of the Holy Spirit when rejected is the unforgiven sin; and it will not be forgiven at the last judgment. The basis of our judgment at the Judgment Seat of Christ is what did we think of Jesus Christ. Negative volition; blasphemy against the Holy Spirit; that's all there is. Only the unbeliever can face that judgment.
12. Blasphemy is a public declaration of rejection of the Holy Spirit with regard to Christ. In their soul, they say no. Most unbelievers will publically announce their rejection.

Matt. 12:32 Jesus linked the rejection of Him to blaspheming against the Holy Spirit.

The gospel cannot be heard or presented without the ministry of the Holy Spirit being involved. Some of us think that we must present the gospel so tightly that someone cannot have a way out. But that is not true. Witnessing is the accurate presentation + the Holy Spirit.

Luke 12:10 And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but the one who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.

Luke 12:11 And when they bring you before the synagogues and the rulers and the authorities, do not be anxious about how you should defend yourself or what you should say,

The pharisees would persecute the Christians for many decades after. The people there know that this is a problem. The pharisees will kill Christ, the Savior; will they not kill His disciples as well?

The Holy Spirit will teach you in that very hour what you ought to say. This is the teaching ministry of God the Holy Spirit. This is the other operation Z. The Holy Spirit will help those who are believers. Christ was exhorting them to accept His words and their overpowering decisions.

These people are listening to the words of Jesus Christ; and the Holy Spirit is working overtime to help the disciples.

When the gate is wide open to present the gospel, and you can't figure out what to say, relax. Let God the Holy Spirit bring these things to mind when you need them.

Even though these disciples have the instructions of no fear; they were very apprehensive of what the pharisees might do at any moment.

A rationale to speak publically about the Lord. There is another reason for this rationale; the help of the Holy Spirit. If they publically confessed Jesus Christ, they would be removed from the synagogue. This would happen. These disciples would be cut off from the mainstream of Jewish society; and this would be a social disaster to them.

This is a promise that they would be able to speak the truth when needed. And these disciples are all looking at Him, wondering, what does this really mean?

In Acts 2, the Holy Spirit descended upon them and they got it. They got exactly what they needed. What greater rationale is needed more than this? This is the ministry of God the Holy Spirit. He would teach doctrine to the believer and aid them as to how to present it.

We can reject doctrine; we can ignore it. But if we believe it, it is metabolized; it becomes ἐπίγνωσις doctrine. The Holy Spirit gives us the information; and He convicts the listener. This is not the Holy Spirit taking over our vocal cords. This can only work as long as we have Bible doctrine in our souls. The Holy Spirit could take what we have in our souls and pull this together in order for us to speak.

We are only scratching the surface of the power and ministry of the Holy Spirit.

Luke 12:11 And when they bring you before the synagogues and the rulers and the authorities, do not be anxious about how you should defend yourself or what you should say,

Lesson #0746

Luke 12:10– Life of Christ

3/11/2015 Wed

Tulsa DVD group is now streaming video.

No Bible class next week.

Luke 12:10 And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but the one who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.

After Christ spoke of blasphemy against the Holy Spirit, which was unforgivable, which turns out to be tantamount to the rejection of the common grace ministry of the Holy Spirit. This is the convicting ministry that they are rejecting. In order for them to understand the gospel of Jesus Christ, it is the Holy Spirit which makes that possible. This is what the Holy Spirit does by revealing and then converting the unbeliever. Blasphemy is rejecting the Lord Jesus Christ. The Holy Spirit provides the understanding that we need. Blasphemy is not excluded from the salvation work of Jesus Christ; the only sin that is unforgivable is this blasphemy.

Then there is another matter related to God the Holy Spirit. Now we will deal with the disciples themselves. Luke 12:11–12.

A defense of the gospel is apologetics. There is a convincing going on in your speech; but the Holy Spirit is always involved when this happens.

The full force of the hatred of the pharisees would be directed toward the disciples. Jesus has instructed His disciples not to fear, and He gave them several doctrinal rationales to draw from.

Luke 12:11 And when they bring you before the synagogues and the rulers and the authorities, do not be anxious about how you should defend yourself or what you should say,

Luke 12:12 for the Holy Spirit will teach you in that very hour what you ought to say."

The disciples have seen the hostility and the attacks of the pharisees and this has made them somewhat apprehensive. This is why Jesus told them not to fear. The disciples needed to be reassured.

Acts 1:4 And while staying with them he ordered them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father, which, he said, "you heard from me;..."

The disciples heard from Jesus to wait at the promise of the Holy Spirit.

Acts 1:5 for John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now."

The promise of the Holy Spirit. He would be their helper from that moment on. This was a great rationale for not fearing the persecution.

The Aid of the Holy Spirit

1. In a public declaration of the gospel and of Bible doctrine, would be aided by God the Holy Spirit Himself. Bobby is never in this pulpit where God the Holy Spirit is not helping him. The Holy Spirit brings to his mind things that he might not think of.
2. The Holy Spirit would teach them doctrine as they heard it. The Holy Spirit would teach them doctrine and help them in their presentations; particularly when they were under pressure. The disciples were constantly pursued and constantly under pressure.
3. What to say to those who were skeptical or opposed to them and to their message. So that their words would be effective and their fears set aside.

4. The Holy Spirit would stand for them in every difficult situation. That has to be reassuring. The Holy Spirit stands up for us every time. We must be in fellowship, of course.
5. The Holy Spirit would bring to mind that which would best present and defend the message they were to speak. In every circumstance, every person is different.
6. You have to understand that message hinged on what the Holy Spirit had taught them. It depended upon what the Holy Spirit had implanted in their minds. The Holy Spirit cannot bring to mind information which is not there. People who are believers have real problems with this because they lack knowledge. The Holy Spirit does not drop doctrine into your soul that was not there before.
7. They need not be concerned about any verbal shortcomings in their profession of Jesus Christ. Some people are afraid to speak because they do not know what to say. Positive volition in the unbeliever is not guaranteed. The Holy Spirit can present great doctrine through you and it can be rejected. We know this because Jesus Christ taught the truth and He was rejected. People reject the gospel for all sorts of reasons.
8. The enemy will not best the Holy Spirit with counter arguments. When the Holy Spirit is teaching the Word of God and aiding in the presentation, even if they make opposing statements for various reasons. You can see often their reasons why they are rejecting the Lord. We never know how the Holy Spirit uses this information. He may use your presentation of the gospel later on.
9. Do not think of this help of the Holy Spirit as some mystical process. The Holy Spirit does not take control of your mind and vocal cords. That is what happens with the tongues crowd.
10. The Holy Spirit is charged to train you to think doctrine, and then age you in recalling and presenting it. Bobby was talking to someone who is in school. There are those who are certainly in great opposition. This person is in a Bible study in a prominent school; and the leader finally said, 'You obviously know more than I do.' You are to use the doctrine which you know.
11. The voice is yours; the thinking is yours; but what comes to mind is prompted by the Holy Spirit. Bobby cannot tell you how this works.
12. This is the promise of Luke 12:12 for the disciples and for us. We have the same promise as did the disciples. We can be reassured in the face of opposition. We have it easy in the United States. But there are places where you can be put to death for speaking the name of Jesus Christ.

As we hear this doctrine from Bobby, the same thing happens. The Holy Spirit makes the information clear to us; the Holy Spirit teaches our human spirit. Instead of being regenerated by gospel information, γνώσις becomes ἐπίγνωσις in our souls. When people are under pressure, sometimes they cannot think. It locks up their minds.

The teaching ministry of the Holy Spirit is indispensable, particularly in a hostile environment. We have the greatest teacher that we have ever known.

John 14:26 But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you.

This is a revelation of divine inspiration. How did the Apostles come up with the infallible Word of God? They are fallible human beings. This describes what happened. We won't write Scripture; but the principle is the same.

Παρακλητος He is our guide, our teacher, our counselor, our mentor. John 14:16 15:26 16:7. This is the ground floor of His mentor ship. If you are not in fellowship, then the Holy Spirit cannot do anything for you. You are not learning anything; you are not progressing. The only way to do it is your mentor teaching you. There is no time when the Holy Spirit lets us down; He is never off the job. He is never off-duty.

Now we are off to the next increment. In Luke 12 and 13, Jesus is teaching about some very practical things. He will be teaching about covetousness or greed.

Then, out of nowhere, some says this:

Luke 12:13 Someone in the crowd said to Him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me."

His brother is probably standing there right next to him. Jesus is teaching all of this information and this guy cannot stop thinking about his rightful inheritance (rightful in his own mind).

This imperative is best understood as this man saying, "I want you to tell my brother." In other words, make him give it up. He wants the Lord to make a judgement concerning a money quarrel. He wants Jesus to make his brother give up what he wants. He wants Jesus to intervene in a family squabble.

Jesus will use this man to illustrate. There is a lawsuit between believers over an inheritance. Talk about giving the gospel a bad name. He is a great example of what happens all of the time.

He believed Jesus to have the authority here. Some people came to Jesus for a miracle; but this man came to Jesus over greed. He was not demanding justice; he was demanding money. There is nothing said about why he should get the money. He just made a demand. He wanted Jesus to rule in his favor. He disregarded any claim to family inheritance. There is nothing new under the sun. How many battles have been fought between family members of an inheritance.

People have given money to Berachah Church after their death. If there is a squabble over this, a lawsuit, Berachah Church just sends the money back to the family. They will never take money that is being fought over.

When you have problems, it is what is in your soul that is key to dealing with those problems.

The subject we are covering is endemic to every culture and to all men. It is endemic to our nature.

The subject is greed. The teaching is often started off with someone yelling a question from the peanut gallery.

Luke 12:13 Someone in the crowd said to Him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me."

There is an imperative mood. He is specifying something that he wants Jesus to make happen. If Jesus can do these great miracles and if He is so great, then why can't He solve this problem. "He can get my brother to share the family fortune." Jesus has the authority that no one else has. This is much more than just a request by this person. He is demanding in the imperative mood to solve a family squabble in his favor. He wants something. Whether this is legitimate or not is not stated. We have no idea about that aspect of it. "Tell my brother to fork it over."

This is a bitter man; he resents his brother; he wants what his brother has. He is motivated by something other than fairness. This is an age-old problem; a modern problem as much as an ancient problem. This is a greedy family fighting over inheritance. It happened then and it happens today. There are many lawsuits that deal with the litigation of wills. Family ties do not matter in many cases. Some of the worst family wars are over who gets what. Even something simple like a couch in the living room. It is a nasty business which divides families over money and possessions. Logistical grace is nowhere to be found. This is not something that a growing believer will be involved in. We should know that there is nothing more important in this life than to grow in grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior. There is no greater life than the spiritual life. Those who opt for money over the spiritual life are never fulfilled. Always an itch that never seems to get scratched. It is all about priorities.

Luke 12:13 Someone in the crowd said to Him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me."

However, this serves the Lord's purpose. Before the Lord gets to this subject, He asks why is He the arbitrator here.

Luke 12:14 But He said to him, "Man, who made Me a judge or arbitrator over you?"

Arbitrator comes from μεριστής. Civil or family lawsuits usually comes down to an arbitrator. This is the object of the verb appointed. He was not a legally designated arbitrator in Palestine and He had not plans to be an informal arbitrator.

One thing that Bobby had to learn in seminary is how to be an arbitrator between people in the church. Bobby is not an arbitrator. The doctrine in your soul should solve this problem. It is grace orientation.

There are bequests from estates to Berachah Church. If there is any challenge, it goes back to the family. Berachah Church will never get in a family dispute over money. God supplies all that they need. They are not going to go to court.

God's plan for the 1st advent was not to arbitrate between the personal disagreements between greedy men. A spiritually mature believer would not do this. It is better to be cheated than to make a public issue of a quarrel. This indicates that you are using human viewpoint. It is a lack of grace orientation; and it may go as far as avarice.

If money can solve a problem, it is not a problem. And giving up money can often solve a problem. At a future time, Christ will be a duly appointed judge.

John 3:17 For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him.

Jesus did not come into the world to do any judging; He will do that at the Great White Throne. He was not sent into the world to make judgments over situations like this.

The arrogance here is so clear to see. As if being an arbitrator for this guy as if there would be any reason to do this. Could there be a greater waste of His time than this?

Solomon was a good arbitrator. That is what a king does from time to time. He arbitrates between subjects. But that is not what our Lord was there to do.

Jesus came to do this:

1Tim. 2:5–6 For there is one God, and there is one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, who gave himself as a ransom for all, which is the testimony given at the proper time.

Ransom and the Lord Jesus Christ.

1. Ransom is a very important theological term; this is the payment given for a captive or a slave. We are slaves to our own nature. We are slaves to the sin nature; we are slaves to sin.
2. Christ ransomed us; He will give His life for us. He is our redeemer.
3. He paid the penalty for our sins for the purpose of reconciling us with God. That is mediation. We are born condemned; we are born spiritually dead.
4. Christ will arbitrate on the cross between two parties.
5. He will remove a disagreement to reach a common goal for both parties. We have no way to reach the goal of a relationship with God without the Lord Jesus Christ.

6. The parties involved are God and the human race. This is why He is our Savior and how He provides our salvation.
7. You can see why Jesus refused to mediate such a paltry problem of two brothers. Jesus would be the greatest Mediator of all human history.

Luke 12:14 But He said to him, "Man, who made Me a judge or arbitrator over you?"

This gives us a graphic introduction, so that Jesus can make a point about human greed. He teaches His disciples about greed.

Luke 12:15 And He said to them, "Take care, and be on your guard against all covetousness, for one's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions."

Jesus uses a small example of greed to make a universal statement of material possessions in the life of the believer. We have never had a more affluent society in all human history than we have in the United States. But materialism is not the key.

Materialism is not a subject that we want to hear about.

But there is nothing wrong with material possessions. It is okay to have lots of money.

Money and God

1. Money is a tool that can be used for many good things. It can also be abused. Jesus is talking about how to use it.
2. God often provides money, part of logistical grace for some people. He provides money to certain believers for the purpose of using it in His service. Believers with money can also provide service for the Lord, supporting churches or missions or evangelists.
3. It is so easy however, for people, even believers, to slip into the mode of materialism over everything else, especially in our society where there is so much to be had.

The key is priorities. Too many exclude the plan of God for their own plan.

Greed

1. Greed is a part of the sin nature.
2. All men are subject to this mental attitude sin of lust; it is a lust.
3. Greed is the result of arrogance and self-centeredness. This is all about you and what you want.
4. If the inordinate desire for money becomes an issue, then greed becomes an issue.
5. All it take for us to be greedy is an overwhelming desire to obtain possessions which you are lacking. You want what others have.
6. Greed is especially pronounced when a person wants what is not his. Business can be greedy; government can be greedy; individuals can be greedy. One of the myths today is that only the rich can be greedy. You do not have to be a Wall Street tycoon to be greedy.

Today, the poor are just as greedy if not more so than the rich. Today the socialist would have us believe that only the rich are greedy. That idea serves their purpose. Heavy taxes and redistributed through government giveaways; the net affect of such programs is to impoverish the entire society, financially and morally. Corruption is rampant in that idea.

Greed and Socialism

1. The socialist attacks the great wealth and prosperity that we get from capitalism. Wealth provides freedom.
2. But the socialist foists on people the propaganda that greed is the product of a capitalist system.
3. In other words, it is the economic system that makes people greedy. People are greedy because they succumb to the temptations of the sin nature.
4. That idea is the expression of the compassion of socialism or Marxism, sold as being compassion today.
5. The compassion is selective, and actually destructive. It is destructive because it enslaves the poor to government welfare. It removes the incentive to produce economic growth. It removes incentives to produce economic growth, individually or otherwise.
6. Greed belongs to all classes of persons and economic systems. It is a product of the total depravity of man, which is from the sin nature. It cannot be blamed on external circumstances. To blame poverty on purely economic conditions and greed removes from people the responsibility for their place in life.
7. Capitalism is the great engine of prosperity. Colleges teach that capitalism is an evil system to enslave the world.
8. Greed is always present; it always will be, especially among the socialist elite. If you look what socialism accomplishes, it is poverty. Greed is present in whatever culture there is.

Luke 12:15 And He said to them, "Take care, and be on your guard against all covetousness, for one's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions."

In this verse, Jesus speaks to the greed of people. Such people ruled by their greed will do whatever necessary to get what they want. The Scripture says the love of money is the root of all kinds of evil. Having money and earning money is not evil or wrong. It is the inordinate desire for money that consumes a person.

In our own society, the government is greedy; the people are greedy, the corporations are greedy. This refers to all individuals who make up all these organizations.

Everyone has experienced greed to some degree or another. It is not wrong to want a material good. But if there is this overwhelming desire to get something that is lacking; or to get something that someone else has.

Luke 12:13 Someone in the crowd said to Him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me."

This man is demanding action on the part of the Lord Jesus Christ. "Tell my brother to give me this money; to give me my share." Jesus will not be brought into the fray as a judge or arbitrator.

Luke 12:14 But He said to him, "Man, who made Me a judge or arbitrator over you?"

This man recognizes the authority that Jesus possesses. He is not choosing someone else off the street. Jesus has power and authority.

This man called Jesus teacher, rather than Lord. He was not a disciple of the Lord. In his arrogance, he assumes that Jesus will take time out of His schedule to preside over a small claims case.

He has quite a bit of nerve here to ask Jesus to placate his greedy motives. Christ's purpose was judgement, but His Own judgment. God did not send the Son into the world to judge the world (in the first advent), but that the world might be saved through Him.

Jesus, "I am not a judge in Palestine who will take up your case."

Luke 12:15 And He said to them, "Take care, and be on your guard against all covetousness, for one's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions."

Jesus uses this interruption to give His disciples a doctrinal lesson on this subject. "Be on your guard against every type of greed." We live in one of the most materialistic societies than anywhere else in the world. No other society has ever been able to wander over to the Galeria and see the sort of things that are there; and be able to purchase them.

It is okay to have material possession and even lots of money. Money is a tool. It is a tool that can be used in many ways; it can be used for many good things. God often provides money by way of logistical grace and to use in His service. If you have an abundance of material goods, thank the grace of God for it. We have no doubt stumbled many times along the way. What God gives us is to glorify Him.

It is easy, rich or poor, to slip into the mode of greedy desire.

The love of money is the root of all kinds of evil. This applies to rich and poor. Money is too often the motivator in life. Christians so blinded by materialism, that they fall into monetary reversionism. Greed is the product of the old sin nature. All men and women are subject to this temptation; the mental attitude sin of lust. Neither gender has a less propensity for greed.

Some people believe that the institution of many government regulations will somehow eliminate greed. Those who administer government are consumers. It is always a great temptation to spend other people's money. They got it, they get it from you and they want to spend it. The inefficiency of government indicates that government is not a great problem-solver. How does government control the sin nature of man? How is that going to happen? Increased government regulation does not solve the problem of greed; it often exacerbates it. Lots of money is flooding the government and people will find a way to get it. A lot of money floats around government.

When government gives away your money, that is a whole different reason. Redistribution of wealth does not solve anyone's problem.

The United States has had a war on poverty for decades now, using welfare entitlements, and poverty is an increasing circumstance in this nation. There is more poverty and more materialism greed and a burgeoning...

Poverty

1. The world will have poverty until the world returns. Matt. 26:11 It is hard to see poverty; it is appalling. The human suffering and the difficulty. The sin nature is the problem.
2. Some poverty is the natural order of things. Men can never alter that situation; especially not government. Charity can keep it lower.
3. Poverty is here to stay for many reasons. Sometimes from personal bad choices; sometimes from bad circumstances; sometimes bad choices of parents. Sometimes, no fault of the person who is impoverished.
4. Beneath all of this is the nature of man himself.
5. It is silly to think that the government can solve the problems of poverty through robbing the rich and giving to the poor.
6. The recipients of free money often become indolent, entitled, arrogant, and demanding. They are like little birds with their mouths open in the nest.

This Government Attempt at Income Equality Has a More Insidious Side

1. When the government redistributes money, they have the means to control people with tyranny. You cannot take money without there being some tyranny.
2. Control is gained with the convincing of people that money is security.
3. If the government redistributes money, they think that they have security because of it. They think that money is endless and that this is security.
4. Those who receive these entitlements become dependent; not secure.
5. It is that dependency that is exploited by corrupt socialist governments. People dance to their tune to retain the gravy train.

6. They lose the incentive to better themselves. They stagnate and become wards of the state. This is why poverty has increased. Government is not secure. Graft and corruption is rampant in a welfare government. We hear all of the time of money being wasted. Government welfare programs level people, impoverish them, and takes away their motivation. Under entitlements, motivation to work and to produce is lost. Why work? I cannot enjoy the fruits of work. "Why work when I get something for nothing?"

Government intrusion, greed and power-hunger destroys a nation and the souls of its people. When so many people buy into the idea of Big Brother taking care of them, it destroys the nation. There is still enough freedom and motivation to continue our great freedom.

An article about Great Britain and what the people have become. Greed and the desire for security. The only secure thing in life is the plan of God. Not some human scheme of security backed by the greed of the government.

Luke 12:15 And He said to them, "Take care, and be on your guard against all covetousness, for one's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions."

Lesson #0749 Eccles. 5:10–1 Jer. 6:13–14 Life of Christ 3/15/2015 2Sun

Christian charity 1.06 costs for every dollar going to a needy person.

Secular charity 1.18

Government 7.40

There are more manifestations of greed than has ever existed before in our country. The greed of corporations, the greed of unions, the greed of government. Ridiculous number of lawsuits today to steal money from others. The way of scoring some wealth without having to work for it.

The pipe dream of winning a lottery, which is a total waste of time. Or gambling your way to wealth. Greed in churches today, where money instead of grace is paramount; all in the name of God. A huge building program; a bus ministry; a school; etc. Don't get ahead of yourself. Too many churches have ambitions beyond what God wants them to do.

Jer 6:13 "For from the least to the greatest of them, everyone is greedy for unjust gain; and from prophet to priest, everyone deals falsely."

Jer 6:14 They have healed the wound of my people lightly, saying, 'Peace, peace,' when there is no peace.

This is the function of greed. Beware of greed; it is destructive. The unions make a lot of money. There was a time when the unions had some legitimacy. But they have become very corrupt; they have become corrupted by money. It is in every strata. You can find it in every corporation in the world. It is destructive.

The Christian life does not consist of accumulating possessions or in taking possessions away from others. There have been people connected with Berachah Church and some in affiliated churches and Fx's; and they have borrowed money from others and have used their connections to convince others to supply them with some very needed funds. But they did not use that money for the stated purpose. They used the money to enhance their lifestyle. That is greed and fraud in Berachah Church. Be charitable and be careful.

When you realize that this is going on, then stop giving them money. If it is fraud, call the police. We want to be charitable; but not tricked by swindlers.

Some groups that try to equate socialism or Marxism to Christianity.

Christianity and Socialism

1. Why is Christianity not socialism? Because charity is not forced on believers. Government involvement is force. Charity is giving. There is an attitude for giving; and it is not forced upon you.
2. There are times when giving is called tithing and it is used to force people to give, and that is wrong. That smacks of socialism; and it is Christian fraud.
3. True charity comes from the soul of a believer motivated by doctrine to help others in need. There is some gray area here where we talk about those in need.
4. Charity is to get people on their feet. It is not to support them indefinitely. That is many government welfare programs. When they are perfectly capable of doing something for themselves.
5. A charitable Christian motive does not pursue personal aggrandizement, approbation lust or involved in mental attitude sin. The poor believer does not envy the wealth of the rich believer. Nor should the rich believer become impressed by his own possessions. In giving, God loves the well-motivated believer. That is a motivational choice. Do it with the proper motivation. Giving in support of a church, mission or evangelist should never be done grudgingly.

God will take care of us. Logistical grace.

Just the time that you make something your security, it comes crashing down on your head. Some of the wealthiest people are the most insecure. Once they have it, they are afraid of losing it. They become miserly, which is a form of greed.

Bobby is going to give us an example of monetary reversionism. This is about the wealthiest man in his era. He chased after and accumulated massive prosperity. The Queen of Sheba marveled at his wealth.

Eccles. 5:10 He who loves money will not be satisfied with money, nor he who loves wealth with his income; this also is vanity.

Materialism replaced the spiritual life. With doctrine, you are satisfied. When your spiritual life is growing, you have great satisfaction. If there is no greed, you gain the capacity for wealth and things. You can enjoy them and keep them in perspective.

There are clear limits. All kinds of evil; all kinds of mental attitude sin; all kinds of overt sins. Got to have money; it's not mine; I want it. That is an obvious form of greed. What is in the soul is a hidden form of greed. Materialism takes a believer nowhere in the spiritual life.

Eccles. 5:11 When goods increase, they increase who eat them, and what advantage has their owner but to see them with his eyes?

When you consume something, the goods increase? The only advantage is to look at these things. Accumulated goods do no good. There is a certain exhilaration regarding objects of value. As you consume them, they increase. That is personal enjoyment of collecting the trappings of wealth. Solomon asks, what is the purpose of accumulating all of this? What does it add to life?

To the mind of the materialist, the purpose of material goods is to enhance your life. Whether automobiles, a house, consumer goods. It is to bring some satisfaction to the one with wealth.

His point is, once these possessions accumulate, they just accumulate. How long can you accumulate these things. How long before you need other items to accumulate? You increase your possessions, but without the corresponding increase of enjoyment. If you do not have capacity for the increase, you will never be happy with what you have or what you can add to them.

Solomon had incredible buildings, paintings, statuary. He had gold military stuff. He had a 1000 woman harem. He was a collector, but he got bored with gazing at this collection. So he needed a new thing to collect. That is the trap of the inordinate desire to accumulate wealth and material goods. No satisfaction.

Bob was a collector. He loved to collect things. Bob decided that Bobby ought to collect stamps. He did not have any choice in it. He learned geography from this. Bob collected firearms, bench made arms, coins; but he did not collect them throughout his life. He enjoyed his collections. He was not dissatisfied with his collections. He did not have to move on to something else. That is the difference between capacity for something and no capacity.

Eccles. 5:12 Sweet is the sleep of a laborer, whether he eats little or much, but the full stomach of the rich will not let him sleep.

Solomon could not sleep many nights; and he would walk the streets and people are sleeping well who worked all day. After a hard day's work, even with little material things, they have a very satisfying sleep.

Bobby, when a teenager, had a job in a cement plant, and it was a dirty, lousy hot miserable job for $2.hour. Bobby slept very well after this. He never slept better in his life. The full stomach does not allow the rich man to sleep.

People with money often fear losing that money. They are sleepless for it. They could be invaded or assassinated. What is the security here? It is only in God; it is not in your riches.

Eccles. 5:13 There is a grievous evil that I have seen under the sun: riches were kept by their owner to his hurt,

Eccles. 5:14 and those riches were lost in a bad venture. And he is father of a son, but he has nothing in his hand.

Luke 12: Life of Christ

3/22/2015 1Sunday

Bobby went to relax and he was in a city where his grandfather was a pastor for 50 years, and Bobby visited his old house and old church. He had many memories there. 25 years since Bobby has seen it. This was the house where his parents met.

The church always seemed huge, but it was not as large as he remembers. His parents were married there. 103 years of pastoring in his family. They were both motivated by teaching the Word of God.

Chapter 12 begins with Jesus evaluating the doctrines and practices of the pharisees. He warns the disciples in a very particular way. He warns of the leaven of the pharisees, which was hypocrisy. Hypocrisy is contagious. It leavens those who are around it or near it. Religion is hypocrisy. Anything without grace and Bible doctrine lends itself to hypocrisy. The pharisees were merely religious actors. They denied their own Messiah, their King, sent by God the Father. Such leaders were not to be heeded or feared. God protects believers from the influence and persecution of those anti-doctrine and anti-Christ.

Then he speaks of the believer and his life. The believer should speak the truth and he will be aided by God the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit will help us during times of pressure and difficulty. There is much pressure in our country; sarcasm of the Bible and rejection of the doctrines which are found therein. Those who cling to the Bible are often ridiculed.

We should never be afraid to speak the truth. The Holy Spirit will bring to mind those things which are necessary when we need them.

The disciples are not to be caught up in greed; it is a leaven; it can be contagious.

Luke 12:13 Someone in the crowd said to Him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me."

Jesus did not come to judge, particularly on piddling monetary affairs. The Lord will use this incident to address the disciples.

Luke 12:14 But He said to him, "Man, who made me a judge or arbitrator over you?"

Jesus warns about greed, and there are several forms of greed.

Luke 12:15 And He said to them, "Take care, and be on your guard against all covetousness, for one's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions."

Life does not consist of an abundance of possessions.

You do not have to give all of your money away to the poor to be a great believer. The problem is the love of money. When someone strives for money, where that is their driving force, that brings upon them all kinds of evil. This is applicable to believers as well. Some believers fall into monetary reversionism. We are not exempt from this problem of greed. There are believers who have a lot of money.

Some try to teach that poverty is more righteous than being rich. Greed is a mental attitude and it can be in poor or in rich people. God often provides fortunes for people. All of this is part of the mandate that believers have. It is so easy for believers, rich or poor, to slip into a mode of greed, excluding the plan of God and focusing on their own plan.

Wealth is short-lived, just like love. It only lasts a few years. A wealthy lifestyle has no eternal value; nor does poverty. None of that carried eternal value. True security is in the Word of God; no security in wealth or in poverty. Spiritual growth checks that greedy attitude that can affect anyone. There can be some security in possessions, but one of the wealthiest men who ever lived, Solomon, had no security.

We began to look at Solomon, a man who was extremely wealthy. He found in that abundance that he was not satisfied.

Eccles. 5:10 He who loves money will not be satisfied with money, nor he who loves wealth with his income; this also is vanity.

This too is empty. Materialism has replaced the spiritual life in this person. Material goods and money are above and beyond anything in life. It does not satisfy. There is an insecurity which goes along with it. The study of Solomon is fascinating. He began as one of the great believers in the Old Testament.

Solomon had a heritage of doctrine, just as Bobby has. The Pursuit of Happiness is a book all about Solomon and his many forms of greed.

Solomon had a gnawing emptiness. The love of money is a malady of the soul; and it is destructive in life, especially to the believer in Jesus Christ. Money becomes everything and the spiritual life is relegated to a lower place. The wealthy can be as unhappy as anyone else.

A character who was arrested and he had a lot of money. So, what he wants to do is commit suicide. His life was miserable; and that is not unusual. Solution in life is not the accumulation of money.

Eccles. 5:11 When goods increase, they increase who eat them, and what advantage has their owner but to see them with his eyes?

When material things increase; and you want more stuff on top of that. Accumulation of goods is not wrong unless it consumes a person and sparks greed in his soul. What is the advantage to all of these goods?

The mind of the materialist, these goods have enhancements to the normal house. But what good is it, if you are not satisfied with it? When possessions just accumulate; they just accumulate.

You get a new car and you enjoy it; but after awhile, it is just another car. These things have a limited amount of enjoyment. As soon as they are acquired, more is desired. Nothing accumulated really satisfies. The attitude is what counts. What you have or don't have ought to be satisfying. That is satisfaction and contentment in life. Solomon is discontent. It does not matter if he has everything or not.

Eccles. 5:12 Sweet is the sleep of a laborer, whether he eats little or much, but the full stomach of the rich will not let him sleep.

Solomon has a mind filled with discontent. He did not have inner contentment. He kept looking for new sources of contentment. He cannot sleep and others sleep rather well. He gets up and wanders around the city and everyone is sleeping soundly after a hard day's work.

The mental attitude is key. And when they cannot get more, then they have fear. Or, they worry about holding onto what they have. Material wealth is a constant battle to maintain. The pressure is enormous. Solomon had it and he could lose it at any time.

He had restless nights.

Eccles. 5:13 There is a grievous evil that I have seen under the sun: riches were kept by their owner to his hurt,

Solomon is writing about his own attitude. Under the sun is a reference to things that happen all the time, all over.

Some people accumulate riches to his own harm. He describes this hurt; at least one aspect of it. When those riches are lost to a bad investment.

Eccles. 5:14 and those riches were lost in a bad venture. And he is father of a son, but he has nothing in his hand.

He has a son, he had wealth, but he lost it. Now he cannot support his son. As he came naked from his mother's womb, so he will leave this earth. He will take nothing from the fruit of his labor that he can carry in his hand. All wealth is fleeting. Material benefits can be lost at any moment. All that has been accumulated can be lost overnight. A big economic depression can ruin you. Some may have followed advice about a real killing. A financial group across the street and people lost millions of dollars. The company guaranteed great returns. I don't want just a normal investment; I want to make a killing. And it will never be recovered.

There is nothing left to support his family.

Inheritance to socialists is an evil word. That is why there are those who own a lot of property, and the owners die and leave that property to their children, and they must pay an enormous tax; and the government takes the property.

A person has a great ranch; and it is gone because the government decides that inheritance is a bad thing.

When a person dies, temporal wealth is inconsequential to that person. He is born with nothing and he will die with nothing. You can't take it with you. This is where it comes from. That fact can be very disconcerting for those who have wealth. Where does it all go? What happens if they lose it? Sleepless nights; discontent.

"Naked I came from my mother's womb; and naked I will return there. The Lord has given and the Lord has taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord."

Lesson #0751

Luke 12: Life of Christ

3/22/2015 2Sunday

We are studying greed; and we are in vv. 13–15 in Luke 12.

Greed can be nebulous. There is a difference between hoarding money and personal savings. If you have a portfolio or a 401k, this is not greed. It has nothing to do with how much money you have or how much you are saving. It is a mental attitude. Solomon possibly was the most greedy and dissatisfied man in the world. He was a king; but uneasy is the head upon which sits the crown.

Eccles. 5:15 As he came from his mother's womb he shall go again, naked as he came, and shall take nothing for his toil that he may carry away in his hand.

Job had a lot of money; the Lord has given and the Lord has taken away. He had the attitude of a man who understood wealth. He depended upon logistical grace. He knew what God gave him is what God gave him. His focus remains on the Lord. The only possession which counts in this life is what is in our souls. Wealth comes and goes; and for some, this is a disaster. Leave it to the apostle Paul to present the correct mental attitude of the mature believer.

Philip. 4:12 I know how to get along with very little; and I know how to live with great wealth. In any and all circumstances, I have learned Paul had doctrinal orientation; he learned this from Bible doctrine; I have learned the secret of being filled and going hungry; of having an abundance and suffering need.

Philip. 4:13 I can do all things by Him who keeps on strengthening me.

Strength and security comes from Bible doctrine in the soul; not from wealth. Solomon, after a lifetime of reversionism, he had to relearn that the key is Bible doctrine, which renovates a person's thinking. You must learn to depend upon the Lord. Now you have to learn how to think and how to live.

Solomon sought happiness by indulging his greed.

The apostles have seen the wealthy and the pharisees, and this confuses them. So Jesus teaches a parable. The Parable of the Rich Fool

Luke 12:16 And he told them a parable, saying, "The land of a rich man produced plentifully, Possessions are a part of the material world. Material things are the tools of life. Accumulating possessions is not evil in itself; and the items themselves are not evil.

Money is not evil. That is like saying, the gun pulled the trigger. It is the love of money; it is our attitude toward money; it is not the money itself. The responsibility is on the person, not on the object. This is so simple and so misunderstood in our society today.

In this parable, this man has productive land; and that is not a bad thing. Life can be enhanced. People think that with some money, their lives can be enhanced. Welfare is not security; welfare programs is not security. The only security is what is in your soul. The only security in this life is faith in Christ.

Those who are given something for nothing are not happy people. They do not have any spiritual self esteem. When production is good, there are times when life is enhanced. It is how that man perceives possessions is what is key.

Possessions can enhance a man's life and his freedom as well. We have great wealth and freedom in this country; there is a connection. Greed is here as well; but wealth and freedom go hand in hand.

Living bare subsistence means you do nothing but work to survive. This is true everywhere. There is very little actual prosperity in this world. And the greatest prosperity in this world is in the United States. We live in the greatest state and the greatest city in the United States.

In the 3rd world, it is all about survival. They are not producing goods; they are just scratching out a living. When a person lives beyond subsistence and they build wealth and capital, they produce things which enhance their own lives, the lives of others and society as a whole. They gain independence and they support charity as well.

The United States has an abundance of material things; and we have a great freedom and prosperity. We are the greatest altruistic nation on earth. Marxists try to say that we are the cradle of greed and imperialism today; but we are the most magnanimous nation on earth. Wherever this is a disaster, our money goes there. Where there is war, we often rebuild those countries. We have built up Iraq and Kuwait. We are a magnanimous country; we have the wealth to do so and the desire to do so. We are not just trying to survive in our own country.

So, when a man acquires some possessions, he has achieved a critical advantage in this life. He has come to a crossroads; he can progress to take advantage of his prosperity, within moral and legal boundaries; or he can succumb to the selfish desire to acquire more and more money, just as Solomon did. Greed can take over his motivation. He covets what he has not yet acquired.

Materialism can drive his or her life. But to think of life only in terms of material things is foolish and it can be fatal. Life is not held together by material possessions; even by an abundance of material possessions.

This lesson can apply to any culture at any time. We will see in this parable, the United States of America, even today.

Luke 12:16 And he told them a parable, saying, "The land of a rich man produced plentifully,

So he begins to reason to himself. However, in thinking, you need to come up with the right conclusion. He is smart and stupid.

"What should I do?" This is a reasonable question at this situation.

Luke 12:17 and he thought to himself, 'What shall I do, for I have nowhere to store my crops?'

Luke 12:18 And he said, 'I will do this: I will tear down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods.'

He will build some larger barns.

Luke 12:19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.'

He will think. I have many things; I can relax, eat, drink and be merry. This man's cup runs over with prosperity; and he came across this prosperity through hard work. He has all the marks of a good businessman. He expands his capacity by building new barns. He set up a means to handle his excess. He is smart. He tries to maintain his wealth; and this is a portfolio that will supply him for years to come. So far, there is no problem.

He is pleased with his good fortune and his plan to retain and exploit his fortune. He has decided to retire. "I have worked long enough." He has decided that enough is enough. He now earmarks this abundance only for himself. He is not looking to further the prosperity around him, or to put his wealth to good use; this is just for self-indulgence. That is his motivation in life. This is what God warns us about. He has factored God out of his affluent world.

He forgot his social responsibilities. Other men plowed and reaped and built barns for him. He gave no thought to these other men at all. His employees are given no thought. This is also a problem with greed. Those who make money sometimes do it over the bodies of those who work for them. There is no grace in this. If you have the mental attitude, you have destroyed your own witness for Jesus Christ.

He neglects his own workers; he does not think about charity. He is not appreciative of what he has gained; he does not think of those who are without. He has no integrity to use his wealth properly.

Bobby never met his grand uncle or grand grand uncle. His family came from Fort Wayne, Indiana. One brother was quite an entrepreneur. He built a factor for women's hosiery and it became huge in Fort Wayne. This is how the family ended up in Beverly Hills. He used a lot of this money to keep his business open so that his people did not starve. He lost a lot of money; but he kept the doors open.

The reason that there are unions today is, there are no employers who do this. You take care of your people. This is a part of your witness; it is part of grace.

The sole purpose of his life is a life of merriment.

Luke 12:19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.'

Greed is the subject, and it is something that everyone thinks they know everything about. We all have some greed in us, and it sometimes just takes the right circumstances to take it out.

We are studying the parable of the rich fool. How can you be rich and a fool?

Luke 12:16 And he told them a parable, saying, "The land of a rich man produced plentifully,

If he has good land, then this man can be very prosperous. The man is rich because of a very productive land. Good land is a gift from God, which the Lord will make an issue of after awhile.

He begins to reason with himself. Reasoning is the opposite of emoting. Reasoning is better than emoting. Thinking may not always be correct. But that is not the case with this man.

Luke 12:17 and he thought to himself, 'What shall I do, for I have nowhere to store my crops?'

He has so much food, he does not know what to do with it all.

Luke 12:18 And he said, 'I will do this: I will tear down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods.'

I will get a larger barn. This is a great business model. It is a great way to operate; and the owner prospers. And his workers should be sharing in this prosperity. But all is not well on the farm.

Luke 12:19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.'

He can live off the great amount of excess that he has built up. He will take life easy and eat, drink and be merry. He has decided to retire and pursue bodily appetites and pleasures. His plan is simple; to further a life of self-indulgence.

He is not looking to further the prosperity of those around him. He has conveniently forgotten that he did not reach prosperity all buy himself. He conveniently forgot his employees.

He made no plans for others. He did not factor anyone else into this prosperity.

But the big problem is, he has left God and the spiritual life out of his calculation. He will indulge in eating, drinking and being merry. Present passive imperative euphraneô. This means to enjoy, to enjoy oneself. He has allotted for himself great times of delight. So what does the Lord Jesus Christ say?

Luke 12:19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.'

Jesus is telling this parable. God now says this in such a way that it will happen. "You fool!" He is the epitome of a fool. The soul is required to leave his body; and all this that he has prepared, whose is it now?

Luke 12:20 But God said to him, 'Fool! This night your soul is required of you, and the things you have prepared, whose will they be?'

This is the man who stores up treasure for himself and is not rich toward God. When his number is called, what is left?

This is a very harsh epithet. People don't like the word fool. Aphron is the word, and it is a vocative. We might put an exclamation point after it. Our Lord is looking at this man and calling him by a very unflattering name. It can mean ignorant, unreasonable, lack of mental sanity, lack of common sense. This is what God is calling him. These labels represent the true designation for this man. He is the product of greed. His thinking cannot be straight. It cannot be correct. It is not just about hoarding money or hoarding anything else. This thinking means he is wrong. This man is a fool, and in many ways.

The Doctrine of the Rich Fool

It is not wealth that makes him a fool; but his attitude toward wealth.

1. He is a fool who forgot God in his calculations. He was an entire materialist. David portrayed a fool as a man who says, "There is no God." He has left God out of the equation.
 - a. This is a practical atheist.
 - b. There may be a God and this person may even think that there is a God; but God simply does not matter in his life. He has another god; material things. Ala Frank Sinatra, "I did it my way." This is how many think related to how they have acquired their prosperity.
 - c. He is blind to how he has prospered. The first step in grace orientation is faith in Christ.
 - d. He says, not just that there is no God, but there is no God for me and my circumstances.
 - e. I will deny God for my own purposes.
 - f. That is tantamount to saying, there is no God. When someone leaves God out of their life,
 - g. This is how this man thinks in relation to his money. God does not enter into his calculation. God has no part in his plans. When projecting this attitude, a man might have plenty of possessions and accomplishments. Those things often go together. It is an empty, pointless accomplishment. He has a life with no purpose except to grab whatever he can.
2. What does God have to do with anything?

- a. The ignorance demonstrated by this man is ignorance of the providence of God, because God gave him his prosperity. You cannot leave God out of the equation when God is involved in providing him his prosperity.
 - b. This man was blind to the true source of prosperity. He would not see it because of his own self-indulgence.
 - c. He was ungrateful to God, from Whom all blessings flow. How can you be grateful to someone you do not even acknowledge?
 - d. Psalm 65:9 You visit the earth and water it; You greatly enrich it; the river of God is full of water; You provide their grain, for so You have prepared it. God provided this land and God provided this water; that is why this man is prosperous. You cannot grow crops without water. These are all agrarian references. Psalm 65:10–13 You water its furrows abundantly, settling its ridges, softening it with showers, and blessing its growth. You crown the year with your bounty; your wagon tracks overflow with abundance. The pastures of the wilderness overflow, the hills gird themselves with joy, the meadows clothe themselves with flocks, the valleys deck themselves with grain, they shout and sing together for joy.
 - e. Underlying this rich fool's successes is the hand of God. The first problem is, he has forgotten God. The grace of God underlies all prosperity. When you forget the grace of God, you will forget God and you are a fool in doing so.
 - f. The Psalms also depict this foolish rich man, whose prosperity is a false security. Psalm 49:6–9, 11 those who trust in their wealth and boast of the abundance of their riches? Truly no man can ransom another, or give to God the price of his life, for the ransom of their life is costly and can never suffice, that he should live on forever and never see the pit. Their graves are their homes forever, their dwelling places to all generations, though they called lands by their own names. These types of people ignore the source of the provision that God has given them.
 - g. This is exactly what Christ refutes. This all goes back to the two brothers arguing over their inheritance. Greed destroys what the materialist thinks as being secure. So many stories of families who destroy one another with their greed; they destroy any fortune that is passed down. Psalm 49:12–13 Man in his pomp will not remain; he is like the beasts that perish. This is the path of those who have foolish confidence; yet after them people approve of their boasts. Selah We are creatures created by God and we will all die. Even those with great wealth will die under tombstones. If anyone thinks different, the glory of the world passes away. You cannot take it with you. Their entire thinking process is based upon that security. Those who follow are foolish; foolishness is handed down through those who are eaten up with greed. They approve of their forebearer's greed. They partake in this greed.
3. This prosperous farmer is a rich fool #2?
- a. We could call him a poor rich man.
 - b. His wealth was apparent to all; but his attitude was severely lacking.
 - c. He was poor without a spiritual life, though rich with material goods.

- d. This man was directing all of his attention and his energy toward material accumulation. Meanwhile, he was storing nothing of eternal value.
 - e. That is ignorant and crazy, when seen with the light of eternity. What is important? How does that stack up with eternity? Just comparing time and eternity should make that apparent.
 - f. This man should have applied 1Chron. 29:12 Both riches and honor come from You, and You rule over all. In Your hand are power and might, and in Your hand it is to make great and to give strength to all. There is nothing honorable about this rich man. This is all from God. God allows wealth, but always for His purposes. When arrogance and wealth come together, greed follows. Humility with wealth means the attitude is correct; and God's purposes can operate.
 - g. Too often people become enamored with their own accomplishments to the exclusion of God's grace. He hoarded his wealth and spent it only on himself. Those who are in that category, whose arrogance is attached to the wealth and accomplishment, it is a different kind of wealth. It is the volition of the wealthy to be this way. They choose to become the poor rich fool. Whether his possessions are much or meager, the person needs to focus on God. Materialism can so easily creep in. You must have gratitude for God's grace. This man should have gratitude for his great fortune. Priority always goes to the spiritual life and to that attitude of humility.
4. A self-centered fool:
- a. In this story, Christ reveals the egotism of this rich fool.
 - b. In Luke 12:17–19, the man says I 6 times. There is an arrogance to that; a narcissism to that. 5 times he says my. And 4 times he says I will.
 - c. These verses are loaded with reflexive pronouns. They are not interested in you. Beware when someone who talks about themselves all the time. They are self-centered.
 - d. This man has an exaggerated estimate of their own abilities and attainments. My crops, my grain, my...
 - e. The ultimate arrogance comes when he calls his soul his own. My soul. We all have a soul; but God will call for it. Ultimately, it belongs to God. Ezek. 18:4 Behold, God says, all souls are Mine! There is no recognition or praise to God for what He has done.
5. The ambitious fool.

Luke 12:21 So is the one who lays up treasure for himself and is not rich toward God."

Lesson #0753

Luke 12: Life of Christ

3/26/2015 Thurs

When we apply it; we often grow more.

Christ calls the rich man a fool; in v. 20, he is a fool.

Luke 12:20 But God said to him, 'Fool! This night your soul is required of you, and the things you have prepared, whose will they be?'

A fool is not prepared for the future. What good will his wealth do him, if God calls for his soul. If a thinking person listens to this, they might say, "I am going to accumulate all of these things; and if I leave it all behind, what good is it?"

v. 21 tells us what is going on.

Luke 12:21 So is the one who lays up treasure for himself and is not rich toward God."

What does the Lord mean by labeling this man a fool? They think that the rich are lucky, fortunate, secure, hard-working, intelligent, etc. But, if they have a mental attitude of greed, that is their problem. The grace of God is involved in this man's prosperity; and it is involved in all prosperity. We are blessed in many ways, if we have affluence or if we have enough.

This man is self-centered and he is arrogant. He refuses to recognize any divine involvement in what he has. He will take his wealth and use it for nothing more than self-indulgence.

We can extract from this some characteristics of rich fools.

Material from previous night reviewed; so additional notes are placed there. But Bobby has put together new notes on this:

Anyone who ignores God will be unstable and discontent. You cannot replace God in your soul with any accumulation. It does not happen. The parable of the rich fool is apt because the rich are what so many others desire. The more people try to accumulate, the more they become obsessed. They forget God as their primary source of blessing.

The Second Characteristic Is, He Is a Poor-rich Fool

This is closely connected to forgetting God.

1. This man was rich in material goods, but poor without any spiritual life. When God is rejected, the gospel is rejected. Sometimes the wealthy are the most poverty stricken of soul.
2. This man was directing all his attention and all his energy toward material accumulation. This is what he was after. He was storing nothing of eternal value. That is why Jesus said, "He is not rich toward God."
3. That is total ignorance in the light of eternity. This man has foresight when it comes to making money. He knows about investment and looking ahead; but he is stupid about what the real wealth in life is, because he has ignored it completely.
4. This poverty of spiritual life is loss of rewards for the believer who produces no divine good without a spiritual life. It is divine good that has eternal value; it is rewarded in heaven. That you can take with you. Wealth here versus wealth in eternity. Wealth for maybe 60 years verses poverty in eternity. Where do you want poverty and where do you want wealth?

5. Priority must always go to the spiritual life. Most of us should know this. The spiritual life brings true wealth. It does not matter how much bling you have.
6. Only in that way, the spiritual life, can material things be kept in proper perspective. It is not about giving away all of your things and living in poverty; it is having the right perspective of it.

This Rich Man Is a Self-centered Fool

1. A man or a woman who forgets God focuses on self. There are some who are altruistic who focus on others. But most of the time, it is self-centeredness.
2. The person without a spiritual life lacks humility; in the economic world, that means greed and self-centeredness. A fool is a person without a spiritual life.
3. The self-centeredness of greed is one evil byproduct of arrogance in the wealthy. Poor people can be self-centered and fools.
4. This man is completely focused on himself. He kept using "I, my, I will." It was all about himself. There are an awful lot of people who live just like that.
5. He has an exaggerated estimation of his own abilities and his attainments. They are very impressed with themselves. They think more of themselves than they think of anyone else in life. You will always be 2nd place or further back.
6. In all of this self-consideration, God, Whose grace is so involved in all of this prosperity, is left out. There is no recognition or praise for him in the self-centered fool.

He is an ambitious fool

A very important characteristic of a fool; the rich man's folly. Bear in mind, there is nothing wrong with having ambition in life. Can we have ambition as believers to advance in certain endeavors of life? Of course. Ambition must be kept within the bounds of priorities for the believer. Does your ambition override your spiritual life. You are not a fool to have ambition. What kind of ambition is legitimate in the Christian life. Rom. 15:20 2Cor. 5:9. Each of these 3 cases, Paul's priority was to aspire to one thing; to proclaim God's Word. He was ambitious to please God first. The Apostle Paul was a Hebrew of the Hebrews. No doubt, Paul had religious ambition.

The Ambitious Christian

1. Jesus will later say in this chapter. "Seek first His kingdom and all these things will be added to you."
2. This is the attitude that is the heart of Christian ambition.
3. Put God's plan first; accomplish His plan first, then everything else falls into place and human ambition is put in its proper place. It is not wiped out; it is put into perspective.

4. In this mode, a believer with human ambitions can put that desire in the hands of the Lord. It does not mean that you don't work toward those goals; that is what the priority of the spiritual life brings to your life.
5. Work hard and let Him guide and open doors.
6. Excessive human ambition can consume a person and cause stress and discontent in the soul. Quite often with inordinate ambition, you will do anything to get there, including climbing over the dead bodies of those over you. This is dishonorable and excessive and terrible ambition.
7. Ambition when tempered with priority given to the spiritual life, then human ambition is kept in check. Ambition in the good sense is drive in life. We are not to sit back and draw a welfare check and do nothing in life. That is no ambition.
8. The believer has contentment in the plan of God whether his human objectives are met or not. Fear of failure is not in your vocabulary at all. If you are in the plan of God, you are not a failure, even if your ambitions are not fulfilled.
9. God's objectives will be met and that is Paul's ambition and our ambition. Ambition takes on a different meaning for the believer than for the unbeliever. Having a great house or having a great house are okay; but the spiritual life comes first.

1Thess. 4:11 ...and to aspire to live quietly, and to mind your own affairs, and to work with your hands, as we instructed you,... Ambition includes human achievement; work with your hands.

Living a quiet life seems to define a lack of ambition. It does not mean to just sit around and do nothing. But that is not what a quiet life means. With a quiet life means attend to your own business and work with your hands. Go after it; but be content in your state. Do not be consumed. Do not be the forget God achiever.

The Quiet Life

1. Ambition in 1Thess. 4:11 is philotimeomai.
2. Φιλοτιμεομαι is to be ambitious for honor. By implication, it is to use one's utmost efforts; to strive for honor. It is a mental attitude. How many people are ambitious for honor?
3. This is an entirely different perspective for ambition in the Christian life.
4. It is unconnected to self-centered arrogance and the drive of materialism.
5. The believer does not work with a materialistic attitude. This is dishonorable in the Christian life. There is no honor for the believer without living the spiritual life.
6. This verse is a conjunction to accomplish working with your hands.

Quiet Is Idios

1. This is a life that is self-contained. Your soul.
2. It is a life of inner peace and happiness in the soul. Don't want to be a madman.
3. This life of inner peace and happiness is in contrast with a life of disquiet of soul. Striving for material gain to the exclusion of the spiritual life.

4. Disquiet is the soul disturbed by ambitious materialism. The excessive desire to gain your own goals apart from God's plan.
5. The believer's first priority should be the spiritual life; a quiet life; a life of contentment and peace of mind.
6. Also to work and to accomplish something in life. This does not mean that you need to be a construction worker or a carpenter. This is not literally laboring with your hands.
7. Working with your hands is an idiom for legitimate employment. You see this passage makes it clear that you have no right to be unemployed. You keep trying. Employment is a mandate.
8. A believer must have temporal employment; a means of sustaining life that is honorable. True of all people. He must never use the excuse that a good Christian concentrates solely on the spiritual life. Sometimes we do not want a job because it does not meet the expectations of ourselves. That is the inordinate ambition; and ambitious fool. Since when does your temporal job define what you are a believer in Jesus Christ. That is where the quiet life comes in.
9. Part of service to the Lord is what we do in our place of employment; not how great our employment is. Paul knows how to abound and how to be abased. That should be the greatest ambition in life.
10. So we must have and do our jobs as unto the Lord. We must work to be the best at whatever we undertake. That is a part of our witness for Jesus Christ as honorable believers.

There are some with PhD's who are flipping hamburgers and they are not happy. You never know where the Lord will take you. You can never go wrong with the ambition to grow spiritually and to live that quiet life.

Lesson #0754 Luke 12:20–21 1Thess. 4:11 Life of Christ 3/29/2015 1Sun.

Jesus spoke on wealth and poverty. His emphasis was never upon the material, like the socialists or the capitalists. He did not take sides; condemning the rich or arguing for a redistribution of wealth.

Some disciples early on were to divest themselves of wealth, so that they could appreciate that He would take care of them. He did commend personal charity, as is found in both testaments. The world will always contain some poverty. He said, "The poor, you will have with you always." He did not institute a war on poverty; or miraculously provide wealth for all people (which He could have done). He did not approach Herod the Great for a relief fund. He did not try to get the pharisees or the sadducees to work on a poverty fund for those in Jerusalem. His emphasis was always spiritual. Salvation of the soul comes first. There was nothing about income inequality or social injustice. He will return and provide perfect environment. Whenever poverty was addressed, it was related to the sin nature of man, and man's state in this life. The cure was the Lord Jesus Christ and what He brought to mankind. He was the Savior of the world.

The rich man's problem was not wealth; it was greed; it was the mental attitude sin of greed. It is not money that causes greed; it was the love of money, which is the root of all kinds of evil.

This was instruction for their spiritual life. There was no tirade about their wealth or lack of it.

Luke 12:20 But God said to him, 'Fool! This night your soul is required of you, and the things you have prepared, whose will they be?'

Luke 12:21 So is the one who lays up treasure for himself and is not rich toward God."

This man was to use his treasure only for self-satisfaction. This man was a fool, and we have established his foolishness in 3 categories.

The Areas Where this Man Was a Fool

1. He is a fool who forgot God. He had another God: money, materialism, pleasure. He was a practical atheist. He did not believe that he needed God in his life.
2. He was a poor rich man. He was poor without any spiritual life. He directed all of his energy toward personal accumulation of wealth.
3. He was a self-centered fool. He focuses on himself and his own plan.
4. He is an ambitious fool.

Priorities are key. Priorities must deal with what is important. He has this plan for himself; and how he would achieve his goals in life and his financial status that he desires—all of these things take a back seat to your spiritual life. You do not toss your personal ambition or drive out the window; but you must be balanced. You put the Lord first in the outcome.

1Thess 4:11 ...and to aspire to live quietly, and to mind your own affairs, and to work with your hands, as we instructed you,...

Are we to putter about the house and read books and watch tv? No, there is a mandate to work here. Philotimeomai means to be ambitious, to be ambitious of honor and integrity; to use one's utmost efforts to strive for honor. This is an entirely different perspective from ambition in the human realm. The believer does not work only for a materialistic purpose. However, laziness is not the spiritual life. Eat, drink and be merry is not the mandate of God. The believer works. Honor is motivation toward Bible doctrine, promoting you spiritual life first. Don't avoid human accomplishment in today's world.

It is not about abstaining from a party; it is not about abstaining from having a good time. We are to remain in the bounds of morality and in fellowship.

ἰδιος means a spiritual life that is self-contained; a life of inner peace and happiness in the soul. Working with your hands simply means to work. Sometimes people don't have jobs out of arrogance. There is nothing wrong with being employed in the house. A housewife or house husband is legitimate.

It is all about priorities. We work to be the best at whatever we are undertaking. This is our part as believers living the spiritual life. This is a very practical subject.

The Professional Christian on the Job

1. You concentrate and you merge yourself into your job profile.
2. Learn your job from top to bottom and learn the next person's job as well. Know what you are doing. Become the go-to person in the realm of expertise and competence.
3. Carry out the policies of the company or the employer; that is authority-orientation.
4. Do not deviate or distort those policies for your own benefit.
5. You look around and you realize that there are people who are more talented, smarter, better trained, etc.; but your work motivation should be second-to-none. You have no excuse when it comes to motivation. Do not become jealous at those who are better than you.
6. Do not balk at carrying out the policies of the employer unless they are immoral or criminal. If you cannot agree with your employer, find other employment.
7. You do not do the minimum work just to get by. People hate their jobs and do the bare minimum. You do your job as unto the Lord; not to yourself.
8. Be honorable, honest and forthright in all your dealings with co-workers. This does not mean that you must tell everyone everything about yourself.
9. Do not harass or makes those around you miserable. In the spiritual life, you should not be miserable.
10. You must not be the complainer; the trouble-maker; the pain in the rear, wherever you are. You must not be the office gossip. Do not spread rumor and do not listen to them. Focus on your mental attitude on the job. No one has a greater mental attitude than a believer advancing to spiritual maturity. Some people have jobs which require them to perform well every single day. Like anyone in a sport environment.

If you are going to maintain the mandate of working with your hands and living quietly, you need the correct mental attitude. Concentrate and do your job as unto the Lord. Your mental attitude is a witness to others for Jesus Christ. The primary places where you reside in this world; the main one is where you work. You had better have a testimony based upon your mental attitude.

1Thess 4:11 ...and to aspire to live quietly, and to mind your own affairs, and to work with your hands, as we instructed you,...

Lesson #0755

Luke 12: Life of Christ

3/29/2015 2Sunday

What if you are self-employed? What do you do then? You are honorable in all your dealings; and you must do what is right by others and you handle yourself honorably in whatever you do. You are growing spiritually. You continue to develop impersonal love; you develop doctrinal and grace orientation. This rich man does not want to work any more; he is looking to eat, drink and to be merry.

1Thess 4:11 ...and to aspire to live quietly, and to mind your own affairs, and to work with your hands, as we instructed you,...

Mental attitude sins always contribute to doing a bad job. It is very easy to get out of fellowship on the job. It is dishonorable to be a slacker; it is dishonorable to sit at home and take home a welfare check. It is the height of dishonor to not work. You must be objective toward others. This is true everywhere in life. This is particularly true in the workplace. You are stuck with them.

You will recognize authority and have respect for it. Excessive ambition can often mean being anti-authority. Someone else might be conflicting with your ambition. Be able to recognize those who are potential problems because of their ambition or mental attitude sins; you might not be able to avoid them personally, but you can avoid their way of thinking. You must be a team player. With your spiritually mature attitude. This is why the spiritual life is a defense mechanism for you. You are a leader, even if the people do not follow you.

Bobby admired Ronald Reagan as a president; but he also admired his wisdom. Things get done when no one takes credit. Arrogance is not present for that. People are team players. What the MPAA tournament, and notice which teams have the big stars and which do not. Be a leader; but work as a team player with your attitude.

When it comes to credit and all of those things that people strive for, approbation and recognition. You let the Lord hand out the credits to you. If you are ignored or shown disrespect, do not worry about it. Put your spiritual life ahead of your ambition and desire for approbation. You will be credited by God, even if those you work with do not recognize you. There will be antagonism toward you.

Do not be resentful when you are overlooked; or you receive no accolades or recognition. This is where spiritual maturity needs to kick in.

Doctrine Guides You on the Job

1. Appreciation for the Lord, His plan and His justice. God is fair; He is infinitely fair. The world is not fair. People are not fair; only God is just. God motivates you; function under the principle of grace orientation. God is fair, even when people are not. Operate under grace orientation even when others do not.
2. Your doctrinally driven conscience is the motivating factor in employment; not ambition. There is nothing wrong with ambition, as long as it falls within the parameters of your spiritual life. Doctrine teaching is to be your motivation.
3. Integrity is critical to your job. When there is greed in the souls of those with whom you work, there is no integrity.
4. Doctrine promotes honesty and truthfulness with superiors and subordinates.

5. You must be able to employ moral courage to make good decisions under pressure. You must have the moral courage to say no. The justice of God is alive and well.

Every believer should first and foremost be ambitious to live the Christian life and to glorify God, but not to glorify self by egotistical attainment.

We have covered the rich man who is the ambitious fool.

1Thess 4:11 ...and to aspire to live quietly, and to mind your own affairs, and to work with your hands, as we instructed you,...

Next we look at the doomed fool.

Luke 12:20 But God said to him, 'Fool! This night your soul is required of you, and the things you have prepared, whose will they be?'

The believer in Jesus Christ can take some things with you. You cannot take material things. Only the riches of the spiritual life last until eternity. When God calls you home, you had better have stored doctrine in your soul and you should have executed the spiritual life. That has eternal value. You take all that with you.

You can shovel money into your coffin, but it is not going with you.

Now; who will have what you prepared? If the rich man cannot take his hard-earned wealth with him, where can it go? Where does the wealth go? It is gone. If those who receive it may continue the business; they may continue the business; if not, it may be gone in a few years. This man's wealth that he has accumulated, be used in a good way. But that is not the point. This one guy who accumulated all this wealth, at death, he has nothing. A dead man owns nothing.

When he neglects family and spiritual life, failure to impart a work or even a moral ethic; many times the children will be shiftless and lacking in moral ethics. They need to find Bible doctrine on their own and to grow spiritually.

All this hard work is wasted sometimes on the man's beneficiaries after he is gone. Even if they are responsible, what good does this do for the man who has died. And if the government takes it, they will just give it to someone who does not work. This is another aspect of the futility of making money as being primary.

This rich fool's obvious mistake is to not store up permanent wealth. No spiritual life; no glorification of God, no service to the Lord throughout his life, means no rewards in heaven. The time spent in gaining prosperity and wealth on this earth is no comparison to the accumulation of wealth in heaven. Why make temporary earthly wealth the priority?

Focusing on poverty is still a material focus. That is the divine viewpoint perspective. We have got to have our priorities straight. It is hard; very hard, to keep these priorities straight.

It is easy to have our priorities not straight, because we see the wealth and we want to be there too. But this is all based upon materialism. If the government will just give me more money, I'll be fine. I'll be happy. That is all material.

The Spiritual Life and Materialism

1. In spite of our affluent society and materialism, the spiritual life must come first. It is all about priorities. If you are rich or poor; it is all about priorities.
2. With the spiritual life comes the capacity to enjoy your situation; for money, material things, their uses, and the capacity to live through poverty and continue to realize what you do not have in this life, you are storing up in heaven. Poverty in this country is nothing like poverty in the 3rd world. But riches in this world is nothing compared to poverty in eternity.
3. The Bible condemns the priority of wealth over spiritual things. The health and wealth theology; that if you are faithful, God blesses you materially. God does not guarantee you money because you are in His plan. Sometimes His plan calls for you not to have money because He wants you to reach those in different circumstances.
4. It is the priority of God's will that is important. You find God's will in your Bible; and you learn it, so that God's will is found in your soul. You learn to acquire a renovated mind.
5. Wealth can be used to His glory rather than for your personal glory.

Luke 12:20 But God said to him, 'Fool! This night your soul is required of you, and the things you have prepared, whose will they be?'

Luke 12:21 So is the one who lays up treasure for himself and is not rich toward God."

Do not worry about your life.

Luke 12:22 And he said to his disciples, "Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious about your life, what you will eat, nor about your body, what you will put on.

Jesus will contrast what the disciples have with what the wealthy person has. Do not worry about even the basics—your food, clothing and shelter.

For this reason goes back to what Jesus has just been teaching.

Big picture—the disciples will be on their own in about a year. So they need to begin being prepared for this.

Fear can be endemic in all of these areas. The believer should not be anxious about logistics and about the necessities of life. Anxiety about material things; especially daily needs to worry about. Some might seek their spiritual needs diligently and exclusively. As if materialism was the solution to anxiety. They may spend their lives going after personal security, based upon what they have. This means, they must gather around them to be secure; enough to feel that they are taken care of. But that state will never happen. That is a state of mind. Storing up all of that stuff for a rainy day. You are storing up stuff for a rainy day. It is there for security; but you can't find it. People feel secure with a house full of junk.

There is no security apart from logistical grace. It is what the Lord supplies day after day, year after year. It is always there. You need a mindset to accept this logistical grace. That is what he is driving at.

We will cover logistical grace inside out this coming week. We have one security in life. It is all spiritual. Logistical grace that supports us is our security.

Luke 12:22 And he said to his disciples, "Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious about your life, what you will eat, nor about your body, what you will put on."

Lesson #0756

Luke 12:22 Life of Christ

4/1/2015 Wed

Armondo Garcia from Costa Rica and Nicaragua will be here to speak to us.

Bobby says there is something that he won't watch.

We have completed the parable of the rich fool. Jesus will not leave that subject entirely behind. He will build upon those lessons.

Luke 12:22 And he said to his disciples, "Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious about your life, what you will eat, nor about your body, what you will put on."

Previously, Jesus was talking about fear of persecution and fear of death.

They must not fear for lacking logistics. Food, clothing or any other bodily needs in life. Jesus says, "Do not worry about your life." Don't worry about your life, about what you will eat or your body for what you put on, is what Jesus says.

The prepositional phrase for this reason takes us from one topic to another. He covered fear, then He covered greed; and now He will talk about logistics. He just told us about the rich fool's greed. Anxiety about material things can lead to greed. If we are anxious about our basic needs in life, and to other needs as well, many people focus on what they need in life. When some of those needs are attained and fulfilled. What cures anxiety of such a problem is, getting what you need; and that can be translated into greed or hoarding. "Do not worry, do not fear, do not give in to greed, do not worry about your needs. Do not be anxious about your future. The Lord is revealing a new attitude of survival. Look to the Lord always for security. True then and true now. When you have a lot of wealth, you may fear loss of that wealth.

The Lord is distinguishing between the necessary logistics of life. Jesus is contrasting this with real security in life. The disciples were not to be consumed with every day material goods. They were to trust in the Lord for everyday provisions.

This is a basic and necessary doctrine for all believers. This is a critical doctrine.

The Doctrine of Logistical Grace

1. 2Cor. 9:8 And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that having all sufficiency in all things at all times, you may abound in every good work. This is the definition of logistical grace. We are talking about what God provides for us specifically. The purpose is that we will always have sufficiency. It provides us with everything that we need. It is support for good times and bad times. Good works are what we do in the plan of God. This is the function of our spiritual gift. We are equipped through logistical grace for every aspect of our spiritual lives. The content of this verse is, giving. God provides the logistics for the ministry of giving. That deals directly with money. You can never get away from grace when it comes to giving. This has nothing to do with us and everything to do with God's grace. Whether we are poor or not, we can fulfill this ministry of giving. Do not give what you do not have. If you cannot cover your basic obligations, or barely cover them, God understands.
2. We will always have enough for every good work and those good works are done through divine enabling. That is the showcase of what God does in the life of every believer. All of Christian service, God provides the service in the Christian life.
3. Logistical grace is divine planning; God has a plan and He plans for us. We have a plan and God supports our plan.
4. God provides life support; we are on life support; we are on God's life support. It is all provided for every Church Age believer. We are still alive because God provides for us. If we wonder why we survive this or that, an auto accident or a combat zone, all of this is God's support. If you wonder why you have a serious disease, that is the reason.
5. Logistical grace is based on the person love of God directed toward every believer. Sometimes it is hard to understand the love of God. Parents provide for the basic needs of their children (a normal good parent).
6. Since God is perfect justice, His support for every believer is perfectly fair. God cannot be unfair or partial to any believer. Do not get your eyes on other people because they appear to have more logistical grace than you do. Don't get your eyes on other people.
7. Every believer does not get an equal amount of stuff; that is not what fairness means. Logistical grace is not based upon how much work that you do. God knows exactly what we are worth. We do not get more because we work harder for it.
8. Each of us gets exactly what we need for our own life and our mission. What God has for us to do. This is why we do not have to be jealous of what other people have. God is infinitely fair. We each are serving the Lord where we are. We are not striving to climb over someone else or any other purpose that we might have. We are growing and executing the plan of God. Logistical grace provides everything we need to get to the finish line.

9. Logistical grace excludes all human ability, talent, giving, service, morality, or any other method which might be construed as earning God's grace. We cannot earn God's grace. Which one of you earned salvation?
10. What is the criteria for logistical grace? If it is not my work, morality, human ability?
 - a. From the moment of salvation through faith alone in Christ alone, perfect divine righteousness resides in every believer. At the moment of salvation, God imputes His righteousness to us.
 - b. With that righteousness, the believer is qualified to receive life support and blessing. The grace pipeline. God's blessing flow down the grace pipeline to us who have His righteousness. Even if we are a miserable carnal failure, we still get logistical grace.
 - c. Logistical grace does not exclude carnal or reversionistic believers because we continue to receive the grace of God.
 - d. What the righteousness of God accepts, the love of God blesses. That is the basis for logistical grace.
 - e. God continues to supply logistical grace until the very moment a believer is taken home. We have logistical grace from the moment we believer until our last breath.
 - f. Divine discipline may also be forthcoming to the carnal believer. Logistical grace operates even in discipline; to wit, Old Testament Israel. They were under discipline for 40 years in the desert; yet God kept them alive in that desert. Scriptures talks about Israel as 2 million souls.
 - g. Logistical grace is based solely upon the character of God the Father, Whose love is directed toward His children.
11. Why should any believer worry? When God promises to supply those things which we need? What is to worry about? I want a 52" tv; my 40" is too small. The obvious answer is, we have no reason to worry. Logistical grace is security; it is the greatest security that life has to offer. When you fear things, that is insecurity. God says, do not fear; do not be anxious about these things. The only true security in this life is the grace of God and His logistical grace supplies for us.
12. God does not promise that He will give every believer wealth. God has not given me over and above everything that I need. The health and wealth gospel. If you are pleasing to God, then He will provide you with health and wealth. Some pastors make millions preaching that.
13. In logistical grace, some get more and some get less. Some live in reduced circumstances; this does not mean that logistical grace has been turned off. Are you still alive? Then logistical grace is functioning.
14. We always receive enough to live and to carry out God's plan. We always get enough.
15. There are times when logistical grace is minimal, but that is for a very good reason. "Tell me one."

16. It may be minimal so that you can concentrate on the spiritual growth side of the believer. You may have just enough to grow spiritually.
17. Or reduced logistical grace is a means to direct a person in the plan of God, especially when they are out of line. Wherewithal might be withheld in order to guide people back into God's plan. One year in R. B. Thieme, Jr. ministries where we were in financial trouble. There were problems in the organization. There are parameters within which we must operate. What you may or may not have is an indicator of what our parameters are.
18. We should never forget God's logistical grace, which is behind all of the material goods which we have received. God has put us in the position to earn what we have.
19. Do not get impressed with your own ability to provide for yourself.
20. God provides logistical grace to different believers in varying degrees.
21. Logistical grace is always forthcoming in God's plan.
22. Until it is God's time for the believer to enter eternity, he will be protected and he will have logistical grace to sustain him.

Influx of young people to Berachah Church. Some apartments next door and they were taken over by Berachah types. There was concentrated spiritual growth and very little else; a small amount of logistical grace. This gave the accelerated growth. They found their niche in the plan of God. God supplied what they needed to continue in God's plan.

Many are in the auditorium right now. Some work in T&P or at Berachah Church. Some became missionaries. Some have experienced God's logistical grace in a number of ways. Some had wealth and success in life for God's purpose. Still others lost sight of logistical grace. They fell by the wayside of human viewpoint and greed and anxiety.

Back to point 18: ↗

Luke 12:22 And he said to his disciples, "Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious about your life, what you will eat, nor about your body, what you will put on.

Armondo Garcia lived in the barracks. The happiest moments of our lives is being fed the Word of God. There was a natural appetite to take it in as an ambassador and as a missionary. He never thought of becoming a missionary.

A missionary takes helps and assistance and support. The help of God and His Word; all of these are from God and His Word.

Warned that he would get some electrical shocks if he started teaching. The missionary is to bring the gospel, and then pastors take up and the baton is passed on and passed on. The purpose is to convey John 3:16. His function is the teach the Word of God. If you remain in My Word, you will find the truth and be free. The purpose is to train pastors. Thousands of hours on his website, the objective is to study and teach. The most exciting part is to go to a park, and to write some verse that comes to mind, and just sit and watch the people go by.

He goes to Nicaragua, Costa Rica, and . He finds out where every pastor lives and he knocks on their doors, and tells him, "I will give you." He leaves them with access to 1000's of hours of information. And you find our years later, they are teaching this information. He has not been able to travel as of late because his wife has been ill.

Been teaching Greek and then will teach some Hebrew. You need the original language. You are not a preacher. You are here to learn the Word of God in the original languages and we can do this together. He has been teaching them via video teaching.

They were suspicious of first about the grace thing. Telestai in the perfect tense.

Once you get out, you have to have the Word of God and you have to teach it. You tell them how fantastic it is; and how powerful it is. He is teaching various languages, and then he teaches a different book each night.

600 or so hours in Ephesians. This is because he has taken so much doctrine out of Berachah. This tremendous classroom that the Colonel has started.

So he travels and teaches pastors. The more exposed we are to the Word of God, the greater our lives.

L. S. Chafer in theology. He needed to expand, so he teaches the doctrines of Col. Thieme, 5000 pages 511 doctrines; but they need to be translated. Presents them to pastors on Tuesday mornings. They need 12 years more to complete this. These pastors are passing them along to their congregations. We have no idea of the impact. We are here to pass the baton.

He has a small congregation. If someone does not show up, it is because they are not hungry, call 911 (1John1:9). Who is God, Angelic Conflict, who are we and what are we doing here why did we cry when we arrived here; study of sin, Christology, Soteriology, history and the dispensations. As these doctrines are translated, they are conveyed.

He told the person who brought him that there was no spirituality in Berachah; they were all just taking notes.

How fantastic to be ambassadors and priests and children and heirs. We are part of the ministry of the missionary; and we walk every place the missionary walks.

Luke 12:22 And he said to his disciples, "Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious about your life, what you will eat, nor about your body, what you will put on.

Jesus, "Do not worry about your life." That phrase struck Bobby. Incredible impact with this statement. Don't worry about what you will eat or your body; what you will put on.

Jesus opens a wonderful principle of Bible doctrine. This is designed to preclude fear and anxiety. It is to open the wonderful world of logistical grace. This is the ticket not to worry. This is the best reason to forgo anxiety in your life.

In the time that this was written, this what quite a statement. Today, we have a lot less going on. They do not need fear filling up the mind. In this agrarian economy, it was often hand-to-mouth subsistence.

Security in life is not found in acquiring the staples of life. It is the focus in life. It is the love or desire of money which is the root of all evil.

In the Galleria, everything and anything is available. Don't worry if Nordstrom's is not in your vicinity. You may find your clothes in the worst thrift store in town; so what. Wherever it is found, it is the grace of God.

God has a plan for our life as He did for the disciples in the time of Jesus. 21 points on the doctrine of logistical grace. That is what this verse introduces. Jesus will elaborate on this wonderful doctrine in v. 23. Worry gets in the way of accomplishing the plan of God. You cannot worry about life and accomplish the plan of God. Your focus is wrong as well. You focus too much on yourself. Your eyes need to be on the Lord.

We must store this doctrine in our souls and apply it every day of our lives. Life is more than food. That is a big deal here. And the body is more than clothing. So much of the world focuses on the material rather than on the spiritual. Life is so much more than material things.

Our life changes often. We can be certain of change. And Bobby does not like change. It is these changes which cause us anxiety and fear. In every change of our lives, the logistical grace of God is right in front of us. Logistical grace is for that specific purpose.

This world is filled with subsistence poverty. It is so prevalent in the world today. The poverty is unbelievable. Our poverty is nothing compared to poverty in 3rd world countries. That kind of subsistence poverty is everywhere. There is a fight to exist. Where is the logistical grace to God promised to believers living like that? If you are alive, logistical grace is in operation. We may not understand how it is in operation.

Why So Much Poverty in Some Countries

1. Whole cultures that reject Christ are subject to the results of their decisions. These cultures are degenerate cultures.

2. To mock God by rejecting Him is to reap the consequences. This is why there is so much poverty in the world.
3. They bear the consequences of their sin natures; their bad decisions; their false religions. Wherever there is positive volition, God will go there. Whoever wants to hear the gospel, God will provide it. God is not obligated to provide the gospel to negative volition.
4. Evaluate every 3rd world country is; see what their religion is. How do they look at divine establishment. Is their corruption in their government. You see all of the connection here. It is a truism that destitute nations fall under the effects of their negative volition follies. This kind of poverty is tragic.
5. A non-Christian nation may experience terrible poverty; famine; tyrannical leaders. Zimbabwe and how that country is barely surviving; but Mugabe is doing quite well.
6. They experience the terror of religion such as Islam. Every Islamic country is a poverty stricken hell hole filled with war and terror.
7. The natural outcome of overall rejection of Christ is poverty in the world. Nor is it the fault of colonialism. Whatever damage colonialism brought, it was no worse than what was there already. How can God provide for a believer in the midst of war and terror, like Nigeria. God may be preparing that believer for his future in the plan of God.

Many in Berachah Church were like this. Chinnerie Onwakiko and this was a Biafran army vet. He was gunshot and he survived and recovered. He was able to come here, earn a PhD, took in Bible doctrine, and he became a pastor of a church in Mississippi. A pastor from terrible conditions in Sueto. He found some tapes and he found his way to Berachah Church. He went back to South Africa and he had a tremendous ministry to poor people in South Africa. Even in 3rd world countries, believers will be provided for. That was the environment that many people lived in. They understood it. They will be provided for, enough to carry out their mission. This also requires positive volition toward God's plan.

Divine discipline is included in logistical grace to get us back in line. It will teach us a few lessons so that we might continue in the plan of God. Our country has been an incredible blessing to the world. We will never know how it has been a conduit for blessing for believers in other states.

Luke 12:22 And he said to his disciples, "Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious about your life, what you will eat, nor about your body, what you will put on."

Preparation for V. 23

1. Life is made up of so much more than physical needs.
2. The externals are not of what life consists.
3. Spiritual needs are just as critical to the believer and they must also be filled.
4. The spiritual life is so much more important for us than pursuing bodily needs or material goods or any other material goal that we might have in life.
5. Pursuing these physical needs is the reason

6. The supply of physical needs is the means to fulfil spiritual needs. You cannot take it with you. What you have in this life, you have in this life.

Luke 12:23 For life is more than food, and the body more than clothing.

More Points on V. 23

1. The believer has a soul and a spirit. The spirit is for our relationship with God. We use it to understand Bible doctrine.
2. Those immaterial needs will be supplied by logistical grace of a different type.
3. Bible doctrine from the mind of Christ feeds those with positive volition.
4. The mind of Christ is set forth for spiritual nourishment.
5. God will graciously provide those who teach doctrine. If you have positive volition, you have a pastor with Bible doctrine.
