

Wisdom in the Old Testament

by R. B. Thieme, III

Up to Lesson #478 until the beginning of Ecclesiastes.

Bobby started the book of Ecclesiastes in November 2022; and I will begin a new set of notes at that point. This is 1715 pages of notes; some are good and some are so-so.

Lesson #0001

Introduction to Wisdom in the OT

10/23/2019 Wed.

The study of the gospels took almost exactly 9 years.

Wisdom in the Old Testament is the next study. There are 5 wisdom books and that is where will go. Mostly to Psalms and Proverbs. This is the thinking of God.

Introduction to Wisdom Literature

1. Incredible amount of knowledge into small packages.
2. That package includes living as God's people on this earth in the cosmic system. It is a very practical subject for our use. A lot of application.
3. It is not just knowledge that wisdom literature presents.
4. This is an experience in that knowledge. What do we do with what we know?
5. Wisdom in the Old Testament is not doctrinal formulations. We find much by way of doctrinal formulations in the epistles. Doctrine is present and it underlies that wisdom.
6. The statements of wisdom are not categorical. Wisdom is more general.
7. This is wisdom designed for practical application in our lives.
8. This is very important to those who want to live this life of faith.
9. All of life is permeated by the wisdom writers with the very presence and reality of God. If this is divine thinking, then what is here is the very divine Presence and thinking of God Himself.
10. The authors tell us how countless numbers of people in the past have learned how God's world works and how it should work. A lot of misconceptions out there on how the world works. There is really only one way that it works.
11. This wisdom is true for believers; but it is also true for unbelievers as well. Unbelievers cannot metabolize Bible doctrine via GAP; but they can use divine establishment thinking, and wisdom literature is filled with divine establishment.
12. Biblical wisdom helps us learn how to live out lives in a world of confusion, misrepresentation, lack of order, falsehood; this is learning to be wise in the midst of the cosmic system. This is an education process, but different from any other. There are no limitations on the wisdom and knowledge of God. There is stability and confidence for us.

So we will now study a very practical subject that can be found nowhere else and the depths of unfathomable. This is useful for our lives.

Rom. 11:33–36 Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his judgments and how inscrutable his ways! "For who has known the mind of the Lord, or who has been his counselor?" "Or who has given a gift to him that he might be repaid?" For from him and through him and to him are all things. To him be glory forever. Amen.

Do we advise God of what to do? Do we lend Him money or anything of substance?

We can learn to have perfect confidence in the God who knows all things.

Paul quotes from Isaiah 40, which is a wisdom text. This is also instruction in wisdom. God's wisdom is seen in His creative work. This talks about God's creation. Creation is the best witness of God's wisdom. Genius architects are wise in that realm; and some are considered brilliant. Or painters or sculptures. God created all things; is he wise in His creation? Does he know all? The Lord's creation is used often in wisdom literature to illustrate.

God's wisdom is under attack from humanistic science. God's creation and science are completely compatible. Science is the study of God's creation. This earth is in the pattern of God, and that is absolute wisdom. The study of science is the study of absolute wisdom. When divine creation is left out, science degenerates into human theory with wild speculations.

Isa. 40:12 Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand and marked off the heavens with a span, enclosed the dust of the earth in a measure and weighed the mountains in scales and the hills in a balance?

By studying the Lord's creation, we learn more about God and His wisdom. God knows those things which man does not know and can never discover. Unfathomable, unimaginable. The wisdom of God is an eternal aspect of His Deity.

Wisdom is God's thinking. The mind of Christ is all and always wisdom. Were God foolish, then God would not be God. Were God a student, there would be no ultimate knowledge.

Isa 40:13–14 Who has measured the Spirit of the LORD, or what man shows him his counsel? Whom did he consult, and who made him understand? Who taught him the path of justice, and taught him knowledge, and showed him the way of understanding?

The answers to these questions is, no one. God has given us understanding. To ask these questions is to answer them. True art and beauty in this literature.

Human Wisdom and Divine Wisdom

1. Human wisdom can never supercede divine wisdom.

2. Real human wisdom reflects divine wisdom. That which we call true wisdom reflects divine wisdom. And there is human wisdom which does not reflect God's wisdom.
3. God is the source of all wisdom, real wisdom in the human realm. Nothing would be more foolish than a foolish God. Greek gods were often portrayed in this way. What stands out in Greek and Roman mythology was the base nature of the gods and the arbitrary actions which they did. They just stirred up mischief in the human race. Would God be relative, subjective, lacking in wisdom? We should know that God has no such limits, as do these Greek and Roman gods. God has known us in eternity past.

If Bobby did not trust in God's wisdom, how could he have confidence in His plan? Maybe God is not all-in on me. God's wisdom is the knowledge that we need to live.

Our Ability to Learn Wisdom

1. We are human beings in relation to God are merely expanding the horizons of our human ignorance with His absolute divine wisdom.
2. Nevertheless, we are created by God to be wise; and He has given us the tools to be wise. Filling of the Holy Spirit, ability to metabolize and the ability to apply. We just need the information.
3. Knowing our limits is a basic key to learning true wisdom. "A man's gotta know his limitations."
4. This precludes knowledge in the human realm. We are stuck in our ignorance if we see ourselves as wise.

This will not be a 9 year study in this field. It is worthy of a lifetime study.

There is poetry that we will study in the Bible. It has a fantastic ability to communicate to us very practical divine wisdom in a very compact package. It is timeless and valuable for our lives.

This subject of wisdom is one that man has attempted to find in many different ways and in many different places. Philosophy to gain the wisdom of man from the past. Or ideology or religion. People have used all of these approaches to find wisdom.

Why Does Wisdom Elude People?

1. There is no consensus as to what wisdom really is. If all student of a philosophy class were asked, what is wisdom?, what would they say?
2. If people cannot agree on the content of wisdom, the source of wisdom, etc., then they can only pursue relative wisdom. We will constantly compare relative and absolute wisdom.
3. Why is relative wisdom so dangerous? Satan's logic to the woman in the garden when she fell reveals the relative mode of the cosmic system. What Satan said to the woman passed for truth and wisdom, but it was a lie.

4. Cosmic wisdom or relative wisdom is what I think or say it is. Wisdom is what I think it is; or wisdom is what I want it to be; or wisdom is what matches my life.
5. Or, relative wisdom is what I find in myself; I am the source of wisdom; or what passes for wisdom. That is relative wisdom. Subjective.
6. That wisdom is relative and all subjective and it is all based upon environment and arrogance.
7. None of that relative attitude relates to absolute God, none of it.

So Bobby distinguishes between relative wisdom and God's wisdom. Our objective is to find the absolute truth; to find God's wisdom. What is true and absolute?

Some of what Bobby has said is, there is no such thing as absolute wisdom. Not in the human realm. Human wisdom always comes back to man himself.

Relative Wisdom

1. In relative wisdom, the application of that wisdom depends upon personal circumstances. Situational wisdom. When people get into a certain situation, they apply what appears to be the best solution.
2. That means that human wisdom changes with the circumstances or the culture. Or with some popular theory. But God's wisdom does not change.
3. In Satan's world, we find a wide range of wisdom viewpoints, or what is called wisdom.
4. It is this relative wisdom that is the source of false religion and of humanism and of ideology and of secular philosophy and human viewpoint psychology.
5. Concerning human viewpoint psychology, a psychologist that Bobby knows at one of the groups, and he counsels people with true, divine wisdom. Bobby does not counsel. We have got it from Bible class.
6. In the relative sense, those subjects become the enemy of God.

Human wisdom changes; it seems wise today, and foolish tomorrow. Where is the wisdom in this relative thinking? Fleeting at best.

The idea of divine establishment, which is God's wisdom. We need God's wisdom today.

The book of Ecclesiastes is the experience of one man's experiences. It is an amazing book. The pursuit of happiness, written by Kohelet, the Preacher, one who assembles things together and gives them wisdom. He can give us great wisdom because he has screwed up so much.

Lesson #0002                      Introduction to Wisdom in the OT    10/24/2019    Thursday

Echoing sound to Bobby.

Our new topic is wisdom. What is it and who has it? Disagreements about what it is.

A General Definition of Wisdom

1. Wisdom is a way of thinking, but it is also the content of that thinking.
2. Therefore, wisdom must be a collection of specific premises and understandings with which to think.
3. Once that knowledge is settled upon, it must be put to a practical use to the experiences in life.
4. Thereby, people can make positive decisions and experience advantages in life; a universal understand of what wisdom is.

People just do not agree on the content of wisdom. It has been endlessly debated in literature, nations, culture; and it has been sought through many avenues; or philosophy or religion all purport to contain wisdom. No consensus in the human realm as to what wisdom it.

Without such agreement, wisdom is relative, what I think it to be or what I want it to be or I find in myself what passes for wisdom. Those are all humanistic, relative statements. And there is arrogance in the person who makes the statement. This is tantamount to saying that there is no absolute wisdom; other than what I say it is. So, no objective wisdom, which has caused untold conflicts. However, there is such wisdom that exists; there is the thinking of God, which can be found only in the Bible or the Word of God. In its most concentrated form, found in the wisdom books of the Old Testament. Wisdom can be found throughout the Bible, but it is found in concentrated form in Job, Psalms, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes and the Song of Solomon. Bobby will concentrate on the Psalms and Proverbs.

Long books have been written about two lines in Proverbs. Jesus often referred to and quoted Psalms and Proverbs because these are concise statements of wisdom. Bobby will pick the most relevant to the time and circumstances in which we live. These should have a direct bearing on the time in which we live.

Wisdom is certainly Bible doctrine. These are truly synonymous. Wisdom goes further; it is very practical for everyday thinking and functioning. It is not just the knowledge of Bible doctrine that wisdom literature presents to us. It is an experience in that... This is the general understanding of the mind of God which can be translate into human experience.

Ecclesiastes contains the negative experiences of Solomon's life. His wisdom counters the negative experiences which he had.

Divine Wisdom and Divine Establishment

1. This wisdom is not just designed for believers, although we are the primary target; but some of it is designed for the entire human race. God's wisdom applies to mankind.

2. Divine establishment is based up divine wisdom. We can find divine establishment throughout this literature.
3. So divine establishment represents divine wisdom for believers and unbelievers alike. Something for everyone here.
4. Divine establishment wisdom is so important because divine establishment wisdom is principles ordained by God for the survival and stability the prosperity, the protection and the perpetuation of the human race.
5. These divine laws define the legitimate authority, morality, ethics, rule of law that sets the proper balance between authority and freedom. Rom. 13:1–7

The laws of divine establishment insure protection of blessing of Christians and non-Christians alike. All of these law of divine establishment are foundational to a client nation to God. A client nation operates under divine establishment laws; but when these are abandoned, the client nation declines.

Epitomized by 4 Divine Institutions

1. Volition, freedom of choice; and we should all have it.
2. Marriage; defined as marriage between one man and one woman. This is the stability in society.
3. The nuclear family. The man and woman both bring their unique perspectives to their family. It is not a village or every sort of false wisdom that you can fill kid's heads with. In the Christian home, it is Bible doctrine.
4. Nationalism.

These are designed for the survival and prosperity of the human race. Today, these bastions of divine establishment are being ignored, suppressed, rejected; some think that they are too confining. Divine establishment is perceived as an anachronism. What was evil is now thought to be good, embodied by, if it feels good, do it.

Don't trust your instinct and impulse in making decisions; trust divine wisdom.

Wisdom and the Client Nation

1. If wisdom is subjective and relative, then there is a problem. There can be no consensus on standards of government, law, morality or integrity, or societal vales in general.
2. Thus a unified society becomes fragmented, divided, negatively diverse.
3. Those are the circumstances in which people and nations fail. Diversity can destroy a nation.
4. The nation becomes ripe for the emergence of tyranny in several ways or several types.
5. This destroys a nation from within for lacking divine establishment.

The United States finds itself in this area right now, being divided and conquered as a nation, with tyranny on the rise.

The subject of sexual orientation. Homosexuality and lesbianism; these are touted as legitimate, alternative lifestyles. They are being sold as equality and a matter of civil rights. Marriages from the same gender are being sold as legitimate.

In many circles, the new definition of marriage is accepted as wisdom; but if you do not accept it, you can be called a bigot, a homophobe and even a racist. Name-calling. These labels are designed to change this range of thinking.

Evil is presented as good and the Bible is defined as hate speech; because the Bible opposes this societally accepted lifestyle as perversion. There are pastors who even want to exclude certain passages from the Bible.

Rom. 1:26–27 For this reason God gave them up to dishonorable passions. For their women exchanged natural relations for those that are contrary to nature; and the men likewise gave up natural relations with women and were consumed with passion for one another, men committing shameless acts with men and receiving in themselves the due penalty for their error.

This life is seen as unnatural by the Bible. We do not follow the Mosaic Law at this point. We do not approve of what they do; but we do not hate them ever. The only way to change a person's mind is to take in Bible doctrine and to understand the truth. It is a sin and it is a part of the sin nature. We are not here to castigate any particular sin, as we have our own to take care of.

Rom 1:28 And since they did not see fit to acknowledge God, God gave them up to a debased mind to do what ought not to be done.

The LGBT community hates this.

The Sin of Homosexuality

1. It is not just that homosexuality is just another sin that should be denounced and punished.
2. According to Rom. 1:28, the homosexuality is a punishment in and of itself. It is degrading, pervert and unnatural. That is what the Scriptures say.
3. This makes the practice of homosexuality self-induced misery in the soul. No matter how hard they try, God never accepts it; and they can never accept it truly themselves. Deep in their souls, it is a punishment for that sin.
4. God simply turns them over to their own degenerate misery. He does not need to punish them, nor do we.
5. So in rejecting God and the Scripture, some have given themselves over to a depraved mind. It is not about sexuality; it is all about a depraved mind, which indulges the sin nature.

6. They develop strong delusions about this subject. They try to convince themselves that it is acceptable behavior, and they try to do it in public opinion and through the courts.
7. It is justified as progressive, human wisdom. We are finally out of the dark ages. But we have actually hurled ourselves into anti-divine establishment.
8. It is a sin; and it is also described as degeneracy. That means that degeneracy has societal-wide effects. The two views are in opposition to one another. As one is taught and as it permeates the society, it becomes destructive. The term Sodomite comes from Gen. 19, which led to the 5th cycle of discipline.

There is capitalism, which is related to freedom. It built this country; it is the basis for our freedom. The capitalist miracle occurred in the United States; this explosion of wealth is uniquely the result of the exercise of free will.

Wisdom today is presented as a negative thing. They worry about the rich getting richer. So the new idea is, the government must be totally in control of the wealth, in order to maintain monetary equality. Capitalism in the new wisdom must be replaced with socialism, a term we are hearing more and more. Human wisdom teaches that socialism is a worthy goal, even though it never works anywhere that it is tried. It spread equal misery and hopelessness and it stifles freedom in society.

Humans like to be rewarded, and our freedom allows for that.

Communist movements destroy human freedom. Poverty is the final end of forsaking divine establishment wisdom. Socialism ultimately turns to destroy freedom and society.

In the devil's world has a certain amount of poverty. Poverty of spirit and poverty of material things increases with socialism. Capitalism promotes freedom of action and innovation. It is an incentive to succeed because there is the profit motive or incentive. No such incentive in socialism.

Can capitalism be abused? Of course. Capitalism can breed greed, which is what socialists say is wrong. Greed is a sin and it can be expressed in any economic system. If you don't think that government is greedy, just look at what they do with your tax money.

This is Satan's world; Satan is the ultimate tyrant. This is why he hates divine establishment....especially freedom.

Another example of false human wisdom: the substitution of the objective rule of law with subjective social justice.

Social Justice

1. Social justice is sold as a way to settle social grievances. It develops a great inequality and causes more grievances.

2. Social justice, by definition, always favors one group over another. The intent is the equal the playing field.
3. This favoritism fosters resentment between the two groups.
4. The objective of equality morphs into inequality.
5. The animosity builds. It does not bring peace between the groups nor does it bring equality.
6. It bring unrest, self-centered demands and sometimes violence in the streets.
7. Social justice is not justice. Law should be the same for all people.

The rule of law can be bent and perverted, but then it is no longer the rule of law. Imposing social justice destroys a nation from within. We see on the benches today, judges ruling today based upon social justice standards. Hence we are divided.

There are several more examples for the next time.

Lesson #0003

Wisdom in the OT

10/27/2019 1Sunday

Time change next Sunday.

The Bible is directed, primarily to the believer in Jesus Christ. In the Old Testament, His name is Y<sup>e</sup>howah, but the doctrine is the same.

Any passage in the Scripture about the atonement is directed towards the salvation of the unbeliever. The other exception is Old Testament wisdom, wisdom literature. This wisdom is concentrated in those books.

Divine establishment is designed for unbelievers. If a person does not believe in God, these principles reflect those things necessary in the world for the survival, perpetuation, protection of the human race. These principles are the bedrock to the client nation to God. Such precepts are embodied in the 4 divine institutions. All of them are found throughout Scripture. Legitimate authority, ethics, the rule of law, morality are all defined by those institutions and the divine establishment doctrines.

Our country is in rebellion against these institutions.

The 4 Divine Institutions

1. Individuals; volition; we can make good or bad decisions. These institutions are under attack from so many quarters, socialism, communism, the education system, modern thinking. Losing freedom is submitting to forced compliance.
2. Marriage is the next one, one biological man + one biological female. Another problem in our society. God assigned authority to the husband, but not just authority for authority's sake; the husband is mandated to love his wife; not to subject her husband to slavery. Eph. 5:23–24 When the divine institution of marriage is rejected by enough of society, instability results. If you are a feminist.

What influences your life when the Bible and society culture are in conflict? The group LGBT their principles of life are being forced on society in the name of equality and civil rights. The Biblical view is clearly found about lesbianism and homosexuality; and this is presented as hate speech, even by some pastors. One pastor wants these things removed from the Bible. Who decided that is wrong and where is it taught? If society or culture decides or does God decide.

3. Family is the 3rd divine institution. A man and a woman with so many children. Mother and father guide their children to be able to function in society on their own. When that happens, the parents have done their jobs. You can never look back on your time as a parent. If you gave your children what is needed, then do not worry about their subsequent bad decisions. The parents can set up household policy; and you can teach them, right and wrong, morality, and what can go on in the home. The concept of the nuclear family is breaking down. One politician wrote, It takes a village, and that is untrue; it takes a mother and a father.
4. The 4th divine institution is nationalism. The government is responsible to maintain freedom in a nation. This is one thing that the government should be directed towards. But, irregardless, government is to be respected. Rom. 13:1–7 within the national borders, the standard of law and order, all of these are under attack today. Internationalism is touted today. The UN and the united European union. Unrestricted border policies. Without a control of the border, you lose your national sovereignty. It is out of control today in Europe and in the United States. This dilutes the nation and de-stabilizes the nation. Unelected bureaucrats rule once sovereign nations. This is what the UN is like and the AEU government. National sovereignty is the cultural glue that holds a society together. Otherwise, everything is a clash of cultures. Internationalism touts multi-culturalism. These different cultures are presented by some as being equivalent in benefit and quality. Some religions want to impose their laws to the ...an English publication the Guardian, Angel Merkel said the multi-culturalism has utterly failed. It does not work to have different cultures living side-by-side. She previously championed multi-culturalism. She now recognizes her previous delusion (whether her statement is political or not). Diversity divides; it does not unify. Internationalism will never live up to its expectations. This is all that humanism offers us. This is a pipe dream; it is a utopia. The strength of any society is their unity.

The unity of culture; not race; not illegal immigration. Immigrants have come to our country for several centuries and have become a part of our society. As we continue to bring one race back from what people think is a downtrodden situation, which was true at one time. But this foments resentment in both races. We cannot afford this kind of social judgment. Racism is incorrect. We are founded on the rule of law, which protects all citizens equally. When this is ignored and fiat is the guide, then there will be problems. We are more racially divided than we have ever been since the Civil War

These principles go back to the tower of Babel; and God destroyed that. Diverse cultural paths do not mesh; or are diametrically opposed. There is no bi-partisanship with opposing political parties. They do not practice the unity that they call for. Revolution is a very bad outcome for a nation. All of this has become the litmus test for political correctness.

Opposes the absolute wisdom of Bible doctrine. To violate political correctness becomes the most heinous of crimes. This may be the vehicle for the persecution of Christians.

The LGBT group is directly attacking Christianity and the Bible. Their solution is to get rid of it or to suppress it. Rom. 1 is so politically incorrect, so it must be stopped. A candidate for president proposes to remove the tax-exempt status of churches who teach Rom. 1. This would be a complete loss of religious freedom to promote degeneracy. Not just a sin but degeneracy. There will always be a certain amount of depravity in a nation. To publically promote it as the greatest good as the litmus test of morality and good? Where there is no religious liberty, there is no freedom. Making it a crime to oppose LGBT is destructive to our society.

This favors one culture over another.

The truth of Christ violates the diversity of culture; and these other religions are taught as all being pathways to God, but they are not. Man will never live together peacefully in diversity...Angela Merkel said it.

This is a new secular religion. This religion can be extremely repressive. This is the opposite of divine establishment; and it exemplifies cosmic system thinking. What is the difference between divine establishment thinking and cosmic system thinking. You just got an example of it. Much of what is happening today that is politically correct is anti-divine establishment. So, we must know the wisdom of divine establishment.

Lesson #0004

Wisdom in the OT

Wisdom in the cosmic system changes. We are in trouble as a nation. We are no longer a united nation. What unites a nation is a culture established by divine establishment. We do not have that today. We are going in the absolute opposite direction. So, what should we do, activism? If that is your bent, that does not change the human viewpoint wisdom of the opposition. Dueling protests just gather and yell at each other. Quite often, those sorts of things break the law. Is that really the best approach. As believers, we do not live apart from the rule of law; we must adhere to divine establishment. That may be hard in the coming days. It may be difficult that tyranny reigns and they try to remove our freedom of choice.

We have a voice, even if it is not in the street. We have a voice in the ballot box and through legislation, which is the rule of law. No believer has the right to violate the law because he or she disagrees with the law. We do not discredit the name of Jesus Christ before the world. God has a way of working these things out. We cannot do it in our own power. We adhere to divine wisdom.

What about the American revolution? Did that not violate nationalism? This was a separation from England, which was an outside power. No attempt was made to destroy England or the government of England. We were establishing a new nation.

The war against slavery was not a revolution either. This was a war of independence. The war against slavery was a by-product of that war; but it was a good thing that slavery ended, but it was truly an economic war, as most wars are. Defense against tyranny does not violate divine establishment principles. Thus we will fall into the same trap as the anti-establishment opposition.

What do we do if they want to confiscate our guns? There is a movement today to do that, based upon things a few crazies have done. There is a constitutional right to hold and bear arms? Interesting question, isn't it? You were expecting an answer right at this moment. This is why we need to have divine wisdom in our souls. It may border on tyranny; it may be tyranny.

The answer to all of this is very, very personal. Wisdom from the Word of God which we cannot personally ignore, regardless of whatever way the nation goes, whether tyranny or freedom. We cannot get our eyes on people or put our trust in people, friends, economists, politicians. Solomon said, there is nothing new under the sun. Everything that has happened in the past will happen in the future.

Jer 17:5 Thus says the LORD: "Cursed is the man who trusts in mankind and makes flesh his strength, whose heart turns away from the LORD. If your trust is in mankind, automatically, you are turning away from the Lord. The two are opposite sides of the same coin.

Is this an Important Study?

1. Divine wisdom excludes humanism.
2. It is a curse.
3. If that is where man puts his trust, then he has not divine viewpoint, and no hope. There is nothing new under the sun. The cycles continue. The cycles of rise and decline.
4. The blessings from divine establishment and Bible doctrine become the cursing of humanism when a nation declines.
5. When God is rejected and His doctrine is ignored and divine establishment is suppressed, then what is left? Humanism or religious legalism. There is a lot of that in churches today. A loss of morality and integrity today. It never counters immorality with morality.
6. If we as believers make flesh our strength, then we are not depending upon the Lord. God's wisdom applied never fails; that makes it incumbent upon us to follow the wisdom of the Lord. But we must apply it individually. The power of one person applying Bible doctrine is amazing. That will be an upcoming study.

What happens when a client nation rejects divine establishment and divine wisdom. Let's look at Israel as an example; they have gone the way of apostasy. Israel of the Old Testament was in similar circumstances, in apostasy, a good bit of the time. It is always connected to their relationship with the Lord. They have turned away from God and they ended up in apostasy. Great degeneracy and national decline. The prophets of Israel came and warned the people in no uncertain terms. Jeremiah is the master of warning. As a prophet, Jeremiah speaks to us as well.

Jer. 4:22 "For my people are foolish; they know me not; they are stupid children; they have no understanding. They are 'wise'—in doing evil! But how to do good they know not."

Religious and moral degeneracy are all tied together.

Jer 6:10 To whom shall I speak and give warning, that they may hear? Behold, their ears are uncircumcised, they cannot listen; behold, the word of the LORD is to them an object of scorn; they take no pleasure in it.

They cannot hear and God's wisdom is an object of scorn; it is politically incorrect. They have no delight in it. They never give the wisdom of the Lord a thought. It is gone. What is left. Their own devices. Adversity. That is what happens. We wonder if the United States is setting up for the same kind of disaster.

Jer. 6:11 Therefore I am full of the wrath of the LORD; I am weary of holding it in. "Pour it out upon the children in the street, and upon the gatherings of young men, also; both husband and wife shall be taken, the elderly and the very aged.

This is the problem which we face. The discipline will be poured out on the children in the street. Young and old are taken in these circumstances. The old find themselves helpless.

Jer. 6:12 Their houses shall be turned over to others, their fields and wives together, for I will stretch out my hand against the inhabitants of the land," declares the LORD.

Their houses are turned over to others; the confiscation of their land and possessions. God will stretch out His hand against the people. What a description this is of the fifth cycle of discipline.

This happened in 586 B.C. and Nebuchadnezzar leveled the place. God is gracious and He sent them back, which is the story of Esther, Daniel, and Ezra and Nehemiah. They began to think with doctrine and divine establishment. We as a nation are not immune to the perils of Jeremiah's time. We need to see how this negative volition has harmed our country. If we do not know this, then we need this study more than Bobby realizes.

The undermining of the laws of a nation; of its morality, freedom, etc.

As a sideline, Bobby is not going to espouse political candidates. He will not tell us to vote for. We should vote. A very simple formula. Some vote of a candidate based on one issue. Some like the attractiveness of a candidate, or they have a little charisma or they speak well. As a believer in Jesus Christ, we vote for the one who adheres the most to divine establishment. This is not necessarily a Christian candidate. Divine establishment is what is paramount. That is what our nation is founded on. Great if a candidate is a Christian, but that is not the criterion. We have 4 divine institutions to look at. That is Bobby's political speech. Nothing to do with race or with gender. If you have divine establishment in your soul, then you have Bobby's vote.

The result of national breakdown is chaos of soul. A perverted attitude; nation locked in a downward spiral.

Jer. 8:9 The wise men shall be put to shame; they shall be dismayed and taken; behold, they have rejected the word of the LORD, so what wisdom is in them?

Reject the wisdom of the Lord means you have relative wisdom. Relative, cosmic system wisdom is no wisdom. Absolute wisdom is found in Scripture. Those who reject the Word of God have no wisdom. They are hardened that they do not even know shame. Sin no longer exists in their minds. If it feels good, do it; which Bobby heard many times in college. If I want to do it, I will do it.

Why are politicians so short-sighted. How do they not see where we are going? They do not care. It is all about where they are, where they are going, and what they have. They do not care about what happens in the future.

Jer. 6:15 Were they ashamed when they committed abomination? No, they were not at all ashamed; they did not know how to blush. Therefore they shall fall among those who fall; at the time that I punish them, they shall be overthrown," says the LORD.

Hosea is a prophet to the northern kingdom, 135 years before Jeremiah. He will bring thundering words to the northern kingdom.

Bobby almost taught Hosea this time. One of the greatest books on the love of God. It is taught or written exactly the opposite of that. Hosea was told by God to marry a prostitute. Where does it go from there?

Lesson #0005

Hosea Wisdom in the OT

10/30/2019 Wed.

What happens to people and nations who refuse divine wisdom? Who disregard divine establishment principles; believers who are ignorant of or reject Bible doctrine. There is only human or subjective wisdom to depend upon. That is a cosmic system deception. It is a wisdom which is not wisdom; and it takes many forms: humanism is the overall; socialism, LGBTQ, climate change, etc. The theological view is, man is corrupted. Our human wisdom is truly not wisdom.

Jer 17:5 Thus says the LORD: "Cursed is the man who trusts in man and makes flesh his strength, whose heart turns away from the LORD.

Mankind is made the center of our world; or humanism; and such a heart turns away from the Lord. It is one or the other; hearts turn away from the Lord. Only humanism remains. Putting trust in mankind. Divine establishment principles are a curse; especially true for a client nation. Jeremiah speaks for the Lord and prophesies a coming judgment.

Jer 6:11 Therefore I am full of the wrath of the LORD; I am weary of holding it in. "Pour it out upon the children in the street, and upon the gatherings of young men, also; both husband and wife shall be taken, the elderly and the very aged.

Jer 6:12 Their houses shall be turned over to others, their fields and wives together, for I will stretch out my hand against the inhabitants of the land," declares the LORD.

God will stretch out His Own hand against the inhabitants of the land. The northern kingdom has already gone out; and this is the southern kingdom. What a description for cursing for a departure from the Lord. A description of the 5 cycles of discipline.

Jeremiah is speaking to Judah and he pronounces their fate. There is nowhere else for them to go but down. The results were graphically described 135 years by the prophet Hosea. This is also our story and the story of any client nation. There have been a number of client nations in the Church Age and they have all gone to the same end.

They will end up where Hosea says they will end up.

Hosea 4:1 Hear the word of the LORD, O children of Israel, for the LORD has a controversy with the inhabitants of the land. There is no faithfulness or steadfast love, and no knowledge of God in the land;...

This could be the United States today.

Hos 4:2 there is swearing, lying, murder, stealing, and committing adultery; they break all bounds, and bloodshed follows bloodshed.

Hos 4:3 Therefore the land mourns, and all who dwell in it languish, and also the beasts of the field and the birds of the heavens, and even the fish of the sea are taken away.

Hos 4:4 Yet let no one contend, and let none accuse, for with you is my contention, O priest.

Hos 4:5 You shall stumble by day; the prophet also shall stumble with you by night; and I will destroy your mother.

Hosea 4:6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge; because you have rejected knowledge, I reject you from being a priest to me. And since you have forgotten the law of your God, I also will forget your children.

Wisdom and the lack of application.

England was a client nation; and look at them today. They are a disaster at this point. They are falling apart on the inside out.

Because they have reject knowledge, God will reject them as a priest nation. They have forgotten the law of God; so God would forget their children (their future generations).

No one who reads this prophecy can be blind to the repercussions to a failed client nation. It is all right here. This is a warning from Hosea. It is a fascinating and personal story.

Bobby has thought of tackling the book of Hosea. It is a most beautiful picture of the love of God. We will cover a portion of it.

Hosea's story begins with a command from God to marry a prostitute and to have children with her.

Hosea 1:2 When the LORD first spoke through Hosea, the LORD said to Hosea, "Go, take to yourself a wife of whoredom and have children of whoredom, for the land commits great whoredom by forsaking the LORD."

This is a controversial command. God did not command Hosea to sin. He commanded him to marry; and marrying is not a sin. God had a greater purpose for the marriage of this great prophet. Hosea will be the picture of God's faithfulness.

Hosea obeys God and marries Gomer. One of the worst names in the Bible. But Hosea loved her.

Hosea 1:3 So he went and took Gomer, the daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son.

He apparently had a history together and he did love her. He married her knowing her past. Her previous sins or infidelities were not an issue.

God Tells Hosea to Marry Gomer

1. Hosea was a great man of nobility and character. Along the lines of Jeremiah and Ezekiel.
2. So God chose him to marry Gomer, who had no character.
3. Gomer represents Israel.
4. Hosea represents God to a very unfaithful people; as a prophet and also as a type of God the Father.
5. God's purpose for this terrible marriage was a message to Israel.
6. The message is, God loves Israel, despite of their unfaithfulness.
7. God would do everything for them, despite of their whoring after false gods. Idolatry, in other words. They violated everyone of the divine institutions.

Hosea 1:4 And the LORD said to him, "Call his name Jezreel, for in just a little while I will punish the house of Jehu for the blood of Jezreel, and I will put an end to the kingdom of the house of Israel.

The first son is named Jezreel, which means Y<sup>e</sup>howah sows [seeds].

Jezeel is a place, a location, a man's vineyard, a very fine vineyard. Naboth owned this great vineyard. King Ahab and Queen Jezebel decided to steal this vineyard. They died.

There was prosperity for a short time of prosperity after them and then Israel's decline became unmistakable.

The Valley of Jezreel

1. The valley of Jezreel would be the victory of the victory of Assyria over the northern kingdom.
2. So this first son was a warning to Judah. The people knew about the valley of Jezreel and they understood about working against God's purposes or going their own way or rejecting divine wisdom.
3. God sows discipline to an evil nation, that is Jezreel. Military and national disaster would be what they would face.

Loruhama

1. The second child is named Loruhama, which means, she has not obtained compassion.
2. This expressions Gomer's lack of capacity to love Hosea. .Israel did not love God.
3. Even though Hosea was her lawful husband, she did not have the ability to love or to appreciate him. He married her; that in itself was a sacrifice.
4. Loruhama was Israel's inability to love God and refusal to love God.
5. Probably the daughter of adultery and she represents the unfaithfulness of Israel.
6. Israel would not receive compassion from God.

God would laugh at her calamity (from Proverbs).

Then there is a third child, a real terror.

Lohami

1. Lohami is the 3rd child.
2. This name is, not my people, an ominous name. This would against suggest a child of adultery.
3. Hosea knew that he was not the father and named him that. Gomer is totally unfaithful in her marriage to Hosea.
4. Thus Lohami represents the ultimate unfaithfulness of the northern kingdom.

The people were so evil, so negative to the Word of God, that they would not be known as God's children.

Lev. 26 describes the judgment that they faced.

There are many parallels to our nation today.

After the birth of the 3rd son, Gomer decided to leave Hosea. She was restless. She hated the confines of marriage. None were designed to satisfy her. They cared nothing for her and they did nothing for her.

Hosea 2:7 She shall pursue her lovers but not overtake them, and she shall seek them but shall not find them. Then she shall say, 'I will go and return to my first husband, for it was better for me then than now.'

She is very frustrated in her circumstances. She decides to return to her husband; emptiness of a frantic search for happiness. Total unfaithfulness in marriage. Gomer did not return as she indicated that she would. She was sold into slavery. One of her lovers slaved her out. She was sold for cheap, as she bore the scars of her dissipation.

This is a very accurate picture of Israel.

Hosea bought her freedom and he restored her to her home.

Hosea 3:1 And the LORD said to me, "Go again, love a woman who is loved by another man and is an adulteress, even as the LORD loves the children of Israel, though they turn to other gods and love cakes of raisins."

Hosea 3:2 So I bought her for fifteen shekels of silver and a homer and a lethech of barley.

Hosea 3:3 And I said to her, "You must dwell as mine for many days. You shall not play the whore, or belong to another man; so will I also be to you."

it can only be concluded that such an act of grace caused a love response from Gomer in Hosea 5.

The Restoration of Hosea and Gomer

1. It was this return and response that inspired Hosea to speak to his nation as a prophet.
2. Israel was just like Gomer in her unfaithfulness.
3. If Gomer could be restored, so could the spiritual prostitutes of Israel, who whored after false gods. Anti- divine establishment.
4. Thus Hosea's marriage and children would be a graphic lesson of national importance to an apostate Israel. But Israel did not return to God.

Hosea 4:1 Hear the word of the LORD, O children of Israel, for the LORD has a controversy with the inhabitants of the land. There is no faithfulness or steadfast love, and no knowledge of God in the land;...

Israel is definition to God and in failure. If they return to their husband, God, and leave the false gods behind, they will be rescued and restored. They will no longer be cursed of God. Listen is the Qal imperative of shama. This emphasizes the importance of perception and the necessity of a positive response to God's wisdom, His Word, His love, and His grace. No substitute for hearing and metabolizing divine establishment principles. Otherwise God has a case against the nation which commit reversionism.

Hosea 4:2 there is swearing, lying, murder, stealing, and committing adultery; they break all bounds, and bloodshed follows bloodshed.

This is what happens with a degenerate nation and a degenerate people.

How could a few curse words be a problem here? Epithets may be vulgar.

The Swearing Then and Now

1. Swearing is also using God's name lightly, without reverence. A current example, oh my God, such a common phrase today. This would be a cry for help, such as the Lord's call to God from the cross. Or David's man calls for help. Bobby once toured a house for sale and it was decorated; and he walked through a well-decorated bedroom. OMG on the wall. What is the point of putting that on the wall? That is how lightly people take the name of God.
2. Swearing also connotes using the Lord's name for unworthy objectives, like, I swear to God, and then they lie profusely. The truth of God is not in them.
3. Thus they use the Lord's name to hide or sanction evil intent. This is called blasphemy.
4. That evil intent backed by swearing an oath before God, this is also called perjury. And they swear to tell the truth and then they lie.
5. Thus swearing indicates no integrity, no honesty in people or in the nation in which it is just commonplace. We are full of swearing.
6. The people then have become con artists, flatterers, blasphemers. This is exactly what Hosea's life was.
7. According to Hosea 4:2, they are full of deceptions.

Swearing is so commonplace in a nation; and it is placed in a verse with murder and other heinous sins.

Next comes murder. Something clearly prohibited in the Bible and in our society. Not hard to understand God's wrath. There are a few other things to study.

Lesson #0006

Hosea Wisdom in the OT

10/31/2019 Thursday

The prophet Hosea, in his book, tells a tale of great woe in his personal life, and it is not a pretty sight. It is a lift designed as a message from God to an evil, degenerate kingdom of Israel. The message was, God loved them despite of their great unfaithfulness. We understand this from Hebrews, and they should have known this from their own Old Testament passages. If they did not return to God, there were would be horrible consequences, in Hosea 4:1-6.

God told Hosea to marry a prostitute and he apparently knew and loved Gomer; and she represents unfaithful Israel. Hosea represents God. They have children, and their children are a warning to nation Israel. Especially the name of the 3rd child. His name is Lo'ami, which means, not my people. This is to nation Israel. He is a child of adultery. Gomer was not faithful before marriage or during marriage. She continued His disloyalty and wanton ways even as Hosea's wife. They truly were whores when it came to false gods. They dabbled in the phallic cults, they sacrificed children, and they were not God's people.

Gomer decided that she was tired of the confines of marriage and she leaves to pursue other lovers. Completely dissipated, she is sold into slavery. Gomer was restored to her station as wife of Hosea; and she will be severely disciplined. Just as Israel would be disciplined.

Nebuchadnezzar took down the southern kingdom and took those back to...and they were kept there for 70 years. They were then brought back, the story of Cyrus, Zerubbabel, Ezra and Nehemiah.

Antisemitism has never helped a nation and Germany has still not recovered from that. Israel would be restored once again.

It was this final act of restoration of Gomer to cause Hosea to challenge his nation to return to God. He saw what it was like to love a woman who was unfaithful. We know from Hosea that she responded with love, finally. Hosea represents God, Who is always there and Who always loves Israel.

There is a warning of the consequences if Israel does not return to God.

Hosea 4:1 Hear the word of the LORD, O children of Israel, for the LORD has a controversy with the inhabitants of the land. There is no faithfulness or steadfast love, and no knowledge of God in the land;...

V. 1 states the problem; the reason of God's case against Israel. The high crimes are unfaithfulness, lack of love and lack of knowledge of God in the land.

God then reveals the specific charges against Israel:

Hosea 4:2 ...there is swearing, lying, murder, stealing, and committing adultery; they break all bounds, and bloodshed follows bloodshed.

These are the things which is happening in the northern kingdom of Israel. This is what happens to a degenerate nation. This was indicative of all that would take place. These charges can be laid on the United States just as they were laid on the northern kingdom.

We are on the brink of what might happen, when our country is on the brink of this sort of thing.

The swearing is not just taking the Lord's name in vain; it includes using God's name lightly, as if there is no meaning. No reverence or respect. We hear all of this all the time. Such as, Oh my God! This includes using the Lord's name for unworthy objectives; and then they proceed to lie after swearing in God's name. Swearing indicates no integrity and no honesty in people of a nation. They are full of deceptions as the second count against Israel is stated.

The third indictment is murder. A reversionistic nation sees a rise in murder. Examples of crime ridden cities; and this is true all over. There are the illegal aliens who have murdered and they are released onto our streets.

Jer. 4:31 is an example.

One need look only to Chicago, a truly wonderful city with much to do. It is the murder capitol of the country. The mayor is far more concerned with this being a sanctuary city.

Next indictment is stealing; authority dis-orientation. A proliferation of theft shows that people have no respect for the rights and property of others. That indicates a loss of freedom. If you have no right to property; if someone can take it at will. If theft is proliferating in a nation, you have anarchy or the beginning of anarchy. Right to property is fundamental to freedom. But it is so commonplace that much of it is ignored.

The final sign is adultery. This is a complete lack of respect for the divine institutions of marriage and family. This causes a breakdown in society. This causes the loss of a nuclear family. The artificial definition of marriage, between men or between women; this is also a part of this kind of destructiveness to the society.

There is a disregard of divine institution, morality and freedom code of the Mosaic Law results in unrestrained violence, bloodshed and anarchy. That is the horrifying part of this section of Hosea. There develops a chain of hatred and vengeance. No nation can survive such rampant lawlessness. This is not a legalistic sermon. This is the biblical results of these sins. It is a national problem, not just a personal problem.

Hosea 4:2 ...there is swearing, lying, murder, stealing, and committing adultery; they break all bounds, and bloodshed follows bloodshed.

Hosea 4:3 Therefore the land mourns, and all who dwell in it languish, and also the beasts of the field and the birds of the heavens, and even the fish of the sea are taken away.

A Hebrew preposition and an adverb which state a conclusion based upon v. 2.

The economy of a nation is destroyed. This is the first conclusion.

The Land Mourns.

1. This is economic depression.

2. This is the byproduct of socialism, and the sins which are named. Riots in the streets; power politics, and how dirty it is.
3. Socialism destroys individual motivation and initiative and equal opportunity for advancement. There is no advancement.
4. The loss of national morality invariably causes a loss of prosperity. V. 3 is what results from v. 2. Right now, we have a booming economy; divine establishment in some areas is not dead; and some leadership is showing some divine establishment. But this can change in a single election.
5. Dishonesty in business reflects the desire to profit anyway that they can. This is called greed. Greed is not limited to the wealthy. The poor can also be greedy. It is a sin and it is a part of the human condition and it permeates the human race.
6. The nation is stagnate, split and rebellious. There is little opportunity from top to bottom. The economy is strong when the middle class is strong; under socialism, the middle class is weak and disappears. No initiative and no advance. Russia, China, etc. are countries of peasants. There is no change of moving up. People want to move up in life; but this cannot be done when the land mourns.
7. This is the same depression forecasted for a spiritually degenerate Israel. Lev. 26:15–26 describes what happens when the land mourns. This is what God will do the nation goes down. There is no drive; no vitality.
8. A degenerate people become a non-productive people. They are interested in self-indulgence, pleasure, self-interest. A lack of integrity, a lack of honesty, in every aspect of our society. This is the new slavery. It happens as socialism takes hold and it will get worse if it happens. We should pray that socialism not take hold; although it has made terrific inroads. 2008 is just a warning of what might come. There will be stagnation of the economy. Yet, politicians are touting socialism as the great savior of nation USA. They claim others do not care for the poor. Socialism makes us all poor.

This catastrophe overflows to the animals. Famine, drought and depression will affect the animals, particularly livestock in an agrarian nation. The fishing industry can be destroyed. Man's spiritual and divine establishment failure results in economic depression. It is not Wall Street, bad investments, it is caused by following anti-establishment principles. The land mourns, all of it, in every respect.

Hosea 4:3 Therefore the land mourns, and all who dwell in it languish, and also the beasts of the field and the birds of the heavens, and even the fish of the sea are taken away.

Hosea gives advice.

Hosea 4:4 Yet let no one contend, and let none accuse, for with you is my contention, O priest.

When things go bad in a national entity, finding fault and pointing the finger at everyone else. Mistrust of government is a part of it all. Ideology and corrupt politics. When it comes to mud-slinging and finger-pointing, and finding fault, it is an entire society that is on its heels. Thus, people begin to point fingers. Opposition parties point fingers and they accuse one another of being at fault. How? How to you stop this?

We tout diversity, which is divisive; and we are more divided by race than we have been in decades. American exceptionalism has made our country great; and that has no relation to race or gender.

Great parallels between our political climate and Israel.

If you can recall a few years ago, the past political campaign, both parties blamed each other for all that has gone wrong. It is happening right now. The whole idea is to discredit one's opponent. Hosea says, "Let no one find fault.

Corruption never takes responsibility for itself; it only accuses the other side. Corruption rejects or ignores Bible doctrine. V. 2 is the corruption in a nation. Who has that corner on righteousness. Stick to the issues of divine establishment in governance. Forget mud-slinging. It is hard to distinguish truth from falsehood. Who is right? Who has the corner on truth? What is true about the impeachment; and we have no idea. It is all about hate and blame. Is the nation degenerate? It is in high places. It takes divine wisdom and Bible doctrine to function in this life.

Incivility blackmail, lies, etc. have become the tools of politics. Divine establishment itself becomes the problem. Attacking law enforcement is the destruction of divine establishment fabric of the nation. The solution to 2 or 3 corrupt police officers is not an attack on the whole system. These things are all present in the United States.

Hosea 4:4 Yet let no one contend, and let none accuse, for with you is my contention, O priest.

Lesson #0007

Hosea Wisdom in the OT

11/3/2019 1Sunday

The importance of the acquisition of divine wisdom of the believer; but understanding and following the laws of divine establishment is also important for the unbeliever. Many principles of divine establishment in the Mosaic Law.

Since wisdom is so critical and necessary for negotiating the cosmic system. It is a bad idea to reject divine establishment. That has dire consequences for a client nation to God. It is destructive to the individual and to the nation. The very dark outcome is described in Hosea 4:1–6. This is what happens to nations without wisdom.

Hosea 4:1 Hear the word of the LORD, O children of Israel, for the LORD has a controversy with the inhabitants of the land. There is no faithfulness or steadfast love, and no knowledge of God in the land;...

The results of these 3 characteristics are given in v. 2. Bobby broke those down into those some very specific. These describe what is happening in our country today. This corresponds to our nation today.

Hosea 4:2 ...there is swearing, lying, murder, stealing, and committing adultery; they break all bounds, and bloodshed follows bloodshed.

The demise of the lawless kingdom is given in vv. 2–3 and in Lev. 26.

Hosea 4:3 Therefore the land mourns, and all who dwell in it languish, and also the beasts of the field and the birds of the heavens, and even the fish of the sea are taken away.

There are individuals and the nation and even the animals suffer as a result of rejecting the laws of divine establishment.

Socialism destroys individual motivation and initiative. When things go bad in a national entity, then we have fault finding and finger pointing. The mud flies. It is swung all over the place.

Hosea 4:4 Yet let no one contend [or, find fault], and let none accuse [or, find fault], for with you is my contention, O priest.

Ignoring divine establishment is one culprit; but the rejection of believers is especially difficult for a nation. This is the downfall of a nation. This represents the downfall of any client nation. As goes the believer, so goes the client nation. If the nation goes down, then we can point our fingers around at ourselves.

The political parties seem quite happy to point fingers and blame everyone else. There is nothing else but the policies of evil. You have divine truth and wisdom and divine establishment; or you have the opposite.

Then the laws of divine establishment are replaced by humanism, socialism, by multiculturalism, by LGBTQ,

One of the greatest attacks against Christianity today, which attacks Scripture directly. They want to legislate against Scripture and one candidate wants to take money from churches.

And there is the radical feminism climate change etc. You may think these things will help us progress as a nation; and these are the downfall of a nation. These are anti-divine establishment. If you have discernment, then you can hear these things and...

There is confusion and degeneration in the US and it is described in Rom. 1:18–26 2:1–3 We have both legalism and antinomianism. It is the antinomian.

Leadership sets the tone for a nation.

Most important is the believer who should have wisdom in the soul. The believer needs impersonal love for the time in which we live. We must be able to stand for divine truth.

Activism will get a reaction, usually a negative one. But standing on the principles of divine establishment, that is blessing from the Lord. That has impact. You can scream at demonstrators all you want, and that will get you nowhere. Many politicians have reject divine establishment wisdom for relative subjective wisdom, and for power. Most politicians simply want power.

The alternative to divine wisdom is God's corrective measures. There is a point of no return; and then God takes things into His Own hands. The first 4 cycles of discipline, all found in Lev. 26. The unbeliever must reconsider and return to these law.

Become the restored Gomer. Gomer represents the northern kingdom of Israel. She is the unfaithful wife. Whom the Lord loves, He disciplines.

The Hebrew people still have a place in God's plan, even though they are no longer a client nation. Many Christians blame the problems of the world on the Jews. There are only 20 million Jews in the world. Compare this to the Russians, Chinese.

For most of the world, the Jews are a problem because they are God's people. God has not yet fulfilled His promises to Israel. Satan knows that, if he can wipe out the Jews, then God cannot keep His promise. These are the last throes of Satan; the times of his desperation. Divine establishment stands in his way; and divine establishment in our souls stands in his way.

The central problem for the northern kingdom is spiritual, as we see in v. 4:

Hosea 4:4 Yet let no one contend [or, find fault], and let none accuse [or, find fault], for with you is my contention, O priest.

The priests convey God's Word in the rituals and the festivals and through the teaching of the doctrine in the Old Testament Scripture. The priests were responsible to teach this doctrine. The priest performed the representative analogies portrayed by the Scriptures. The Pentateuch was in existence, and that is the law under which the northern kingdom lived. The doctrines were being rejected and God's prophets as well.

The purpose of leadership was to lead. The direction the leaders go, the followers are to follow. Spiritual leaders must do that same thing. What about the spiritual leaders today? Many in the United States are leading in humanism or by political palaver. When spiritual leaders do this, Christians follow. They no longer have Bible doctrine in their souls.

There is a pastor, a woman, who calls Rom. 1:26 hate speech. She is a lesbian and she believes that is culturally unacceptable; and therefore, it is anti-progression in society.

The people were going after false gods, like Gomer going after other men; and she ends up being sold into slavery. At which point, Hosea through love and grace buys her out. He restores her to her home.

For the United States, it is open ended at this point. We could go either way.

Hosea 4:5 You shall stumble by day; the prophet also shall stumble with you by night; and I will destroy your mother.

This begins what we do not want to see in this country. This is the beginning of the end for us.

V. 5 is a result from v. 4. They stumble; they fall over, face first, into the emud. The existence...

The prophet will stumble as well. There are spiritual leaders and they go astray. They go astray just as the people do. Stumbling in false teaching. The spiritual teaching is what is key. They will come under the influence of evil and false religion. They will tell people what they believe they want to hear. Divine establishment and Bible doctrine is compromised to fit cultural and...

Ideology rather than theology. Spiritual leadership in this realm will lead away from spiritual wisdom.

The northern kingdom of Israel is pictured as a mother and an unfaithful wife. Now we stand at a crossroads.

Hosea 4:5 You shall stumble by day; the prophet also shall stumble with you by night; and I will destroy your mother.

Lesson #0008

Hosea Wisdom in the OT

11/3/2019 2Sunday

There is true wisdom, which we may or may not have.

We are on the second half of this verse where God says, "I will destroy your mother." This is threatened to Gomer, Hosea's unfaithful wife. The children had names that were warning to the nation.

The 3rd child is lo'ami, which means not My people. This is a picture of a doomed motherland under the fifth cycle of discipline. All of Hosea's life reflected the parallels to God and the northern kingdom.

The Progression of Degeneracy

1. V. 5 is a prophetic outline, laying out the progression of degeneracy; and it can happen in any nation. 135 years later, Jeremiah would speak to the nation about the very same issues.
2. It progresses, this degeneracy, from spiritual leaders to people in general; who forsake divine establishment. Then to the nation as a general whole. Bobby was speaking to a friend and various churches where humanism and do-goodism are taught. Christianity is a relationship to God through Christ. We as believers are mandated to give the gospel to other people. There is nothing wrong with divine good; this is mandated. It is the result of Christianity.

3. The culmination of this degeneracy is the fall of the northern kingdom; a cruel people a scourge from Assyria. National disintegration at its worst. Every nation should fear. We will take a long look at the fear of the Lord.
4. This verse reveals another destructive factor, the apostasy among the communicators of God's Word; the priests. Theology and Bible doctrine that no longer reflect truth. Do they teach doctrine in most cases? No. They teach a little doctrine. It is diluted. It is humanism. That is what we hear from the pulpits today; LGBTQ or internationalism. Those which teach Bible doctrine are few and small congregations.
5. The spiritual leaders in this case will persecute those who continue to teach Bible doctrine. Isn't that what religion did to Jesus? They persecuted the truth, the God, the Word.
6. It was religion which took the Lord to the cross.

Those who teach humanism hate true Christianity. It is diametrically opposed to their humanism. Humanism changes with the wind. What was evil is now good; and what was good, is now evil. If it does not agree with those teaching humanism, it will be rejected by those people. The truth will be persecuted.

Jeremiah taught exactly the same thing 135 years later; and the southern kingdom was also being threatened by Assyria. They were rescued for a short time. But Nebuchadnezzar came into town and leveled the place. Zerubbabel took them back 50,000 into the land. That is what happens with the grace of God.

Bobby will teach a small passage in Eccles. 9.

Jeremiah's ministry could not be destroyed, despite the rejection.

God's Light at the Very End

1. Only God can terminate a ministry of doctrinal truth. God protects those who teach Bible doctrine. The ministry itself is terminated only by God. True of Jeremiah and Hosea.
2. God always keeps at least one candle burning until the very end. Some light all the way to the end. They proclaimed the truth in the worst opposition that you can imagine.
3. There is at least one candle burning so that those who are positive to the truth can grow and be blessed, even in disaster. There is never an end of the world to us; never a reason for us to be depressed, upset or discouraged. We have more freedom and opportunity in this nation than anywhere else on earth. As believers, we are to continue to grow in knowledge. Our Constitution was based on the concepts of divine establishment. There were wonderful believers in this nation and God blessed them and honored them. That is what counts. We are the ones to be associated with. Mature believers are the hope of a nation. We are the backbone of a client nation.

4. Those who reject the candle, that candle remains burning, so that people can say yes to Bible doctrine and to light. When things go from bad to worse; when disaster overtakes a nation. We can be a part of the problem or we can see the fallacy of where it has gone and why. Therefore, accept the Lord Jesus Christ and begin to take in doctrine. Sometimes, disaster is required to bring a nation back to divine establishment and to Bible doctrine. We are the backbone of the United States. We are the candle in the darkness.

When the end finally comes, the nation no longer survives.

Hosea 4:5 You shall stumble by day; the prophet also shall stumble with you by night; and I will destroy your mother.

Now we look at what happens in the very end. The people of Israel are destroyed for lack of knowledge. This is a lack of divine wisdom; a lack of Bible doctrine.

Hosea 4:6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge; because you have rejected knowledge, I reject you from being a priest to me. And since you have forgotten the law of your God, I also will forget your children.

Israel is a priest nation. We are a royal priesthood in this dispensation.

The people have forgotten the law of God; and God warns that He will forget their children. This a postscript from a once great client nation to God. Gomer represented unfaithful, liars and thieves. The problem is lack of knowledge. If they had knowledge, all of the other problems would have gone away.

Lo'ami, not My people. He was the worst of all the children; an unfaithful bastard to the core. Unfaithfulness begins and ends with a lack of knowledge. It means perseverance when it comes to the pursuit of Bible doctrine. It is very practical.

Hosea 4:6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge; because you have rejected knowledge, I reject you from being a priest to me. And since you have forgotten the law of your God, I also will forget your children.

The lack of knowledge and our need for it. Hosea 14:9 is the bottom line.

Hosea 14:9 Whoever is wise, let him understand these things; whoever is discerning, let him know them; for the ways of the LORD are right, and the upright walk in them, but transgressors stumble in them.

The problem for transgressors is, they will stumble in the ways of the Lord. Stick with spiritual growth. Knowledge of Bible doctrine is the center of the Christian life. We are mandated to have wisdom. It must be the dominant thought process. When it hits the fan, we will end up thinking with something different from divine wisdom. Whatever the vacuum of our soul sucks in, that will be the thinking that we will depend upon.

There are many indicators of problems to come. Degenerate power politics, immoral degeneracy, rampant crime, all of these are harbingers of Hosea 4:6. All related to a lack of knowledge. Too many believers today put their hope in politics. Even Christian politicians do this.

A believer in politics and we who elect them; we should have no illusions. The politician should be able to function applying the laws of divine establishment. We cannot place our only hope in legislative accomplishments. Divine providence. We vote; there is divine establishment wisdom; and if there is a believer in office, that is great. But we do not vote for someone because they are a believer.

There are many pastors who are electioneering here. There is an election coming up in Houston. He is not going to vote for a particular candidate. Vote for the person who focuses on the divine establishment. There is a lot of mudslinging. Divine establishment wisdom is the key. Don't be a one-issue voter. It does not work that way. You get all the rest of it. Divine establishment is your criterion. Only the believer remaining in the pivot and you truly influence the course of this nation.

If you will notice, the conflict is between divine establishment and anti divine establishment. We should be able to pick up on that. Bobby hopes there is enough wisdom by the time we get to the national elections. Bobby does not know the plan of God for nation USA. A politician who speaks with divine establishment has an impact. But we have an impact as well, and Bobby votes for us.

Daniel, Esther and others are great examples from the past. God can use anyone. Be wise and discerning between who is divine establishment and who is not. The choice is so clear; and you must have wisdom. Is there any wonder that we need to study divine wisdom. This is not just for us but for the life of the nation. This study will make application for us. Hear, O Berachah Church.

Hosea Wisdom in the OT

11/6/2019 Wednesday

Rick Hughes had to escape Alabama; so he is there at Berachah.

Still in the introductory phase of this study. The source that we have is an absolute standard of wisdom; and this absolute source is the Bible. This comes from an omniscient God.

Absolute Wisdom

1. Another name for absolute wisdom is divine viewpoint.
2. That can be found in only one place, and that is the Word of God.

3. From the Bible, we can extract the divine viewpoint of Bible doctrine. There is a lot of what passes for wisdom today; but very little of it can pass for absolute wisdom. Bobby has already covered several categories of wisdom.
4. Wisdom in a believer begins with metabolized knowledge from the Scripture.
5. That wisdom can be practically applied to our spiritual lives and to life in general. As we continue this, we can understand more and more...
6. We must also realize that the wisdom statements are on a par with the very words of Jesus Christ.
7. Christ often quoted and used this wisdom in His everyday life. He lived by this wisdom.
8. Therefore, this wisdom reflects the very thinking of Christ and it is the mind of Christ as well.
9. The teachings of Jesus Christ during the incarnation were not new. Jesus taught the Old Testament; He taught the thinking of God, divine viewpoint; His words. There atonement, the cross, the resurrection; all of that is there in the Old Testament.
10. Christ taught and He lived this wisdom that we will study. This is the very thinking of Christ and it is, therefore, exactly the way that He lived. The Lord was the wisest Person Who ever lived.
11. The practical importance of this wisdom is, it contains the thoughts about life and about God in God's world. This world is ruled by Satan, but this is still God's creation and we still live by His wisdom in this world.

Wisdom literature is presented in the Bible in a particular literary genre. This is a style or a type of literature. Old Testament wisdom is presented in Hebrew poetry. Apparently, the only poetry that Bobby got and like was that of Robert Frost.

Poetry is the perfect genre for divine wisdom. The knowledge of wisdom and the practical use of it. It has everything that we need to live. How do we use this wisdom in our life.

Why poetry and not something else which is clear that we can understand. Why can't the Bible just say it, this is wisdom, remember it.

So Why Poetry?

1. If the writers only wanted to convey academic knowledge of wisdom, then they could have used prose or narrative, like the rest of the Bible. Paul taught straight doctrine. This is different. Why did they not use prose?
2. They sought to present the attitude of wisdom.
3. Practical experience which is gotten from doctrinal knowledge.
4. Poetry is a way of using verse that heightens the doctrinal meaning to be conveyed. It lifts it all to a different level.
5. Hebrew poetry is a word picture.

6. Poetry brings the experiential aspect in balance with the doctrinal knowledge itself. There are two ways of learning. You can learn in a classroom; and the other way is to learn by experience. This has both.
7. You cannot separate life experience in poetry from the doctrinal content. This is what makes it so fantastic.
8. That is poetry's strength in teaching the principles and precepts of practical wisdom. And we need practical wisdom for use today in our lives. We will come to love it. It brings out doctrine in a way that we have not heard before. Doctrine in action.

The Aphorism

1. Aphorism or maxim.
2. What is it? This is a short, concise statement of a truth or a doctrine. That in itself makes it fantastic. Aphorism is a figure of speech, a metaphor.
3. The aphorism presents wisdom in a compressed form.
4. It puts a wide range of knowledge into a very small package.
5. Two lines of a proverb are packed with a doctrine as it is being used in life.
6. There are many that we are familiar with:
  - a. He who hesitates is lost.
  - b. A stitch in time saves nine.
7. All societies have such proverbs. No lion going after a deer would abandon the hunt to go after a caterpillar. From the people of Zaire. It is the same concept in Biblical literature.

This is divinely inspired, so they have value to all societies in all eras. Good for us today. Divine wisdom; absolute wisdom.

Application of Divine Wisdom

1. The authors create general statements in their texts.
2. This is to create an idea which is universally true. We can depend upon this in these proverbs or psalms. When we study a verse or a couplet of poetry, we get absolute wisdom.
3. That universal truth can be applied to our everyday existence. That is what makes this study so important. The style of this poetry makes it anything but abstract.
4. These truths arrange our lives in an orderly, unconfused manner. Others are confused and they are lost in relativism.
5. When applied, it provides good decisions and good outcomes. It has to. It is from God Himself. When we have God's wisdom in our soul that we make good decisions.
6. Poetry is the perfect choice to reveal divine wisdom.

This information is designed to be artistic and memorable. If we see great art, it can be very memorable. There are great painters and statues; and you can really appreciate those things because they are the best of the best. This is an art form to be memorable. Something else, these verses are transferable. They reveal the intended purpose; and there is great applicability to many areas of life. The importance of what we are about to study and why this makes perfect sense to study after the life of Christ. This is His thinking His absolute wisdom and His life.

Wisdom literature provides one aphorism followed by another.

Eccles 1:4 A generation goes, and a generation comes, but the earth remains forever.

Ecc 1:5 The sun rises, and the sun goes down, and hastens to the place where it rises.

Ecc 1:6 The wind blows to the south and goes around to the north; around and around goes the wind, and on its circuits the wind returns.

Ecc 1:7 All streams run to the sea, but the sea is not full; to the place where the streams flow, there they flow again.

Explaining Ecclesiastes 1:4

1. This is a great perspective on man's mortality and great insignificance.
2. The practical wisdom contained here is, God's creation will continue; it is eternal.
3. We, mankind, are a portion of that creation. We are eternal.
4. Individual generations pass from the scene on this earth. Hemingway saw himself as a part of the lost generation of WWI. "What's the point? There is just a generation which will live and then die off." Every person's life on this earth is transitory. Solomon was chasing all sorts of things in this life which were meaningless.
5. Yet, the earth remains. So, life goes on without us. When we are young, we think that life goes on forever. As we get older, we realize just how mortal we are. We will depart from this scene.
6. We can put into perspective the impermanence of our own existence on earth. God's plan is eternal; it moves on. After we leave, we will spend eternity with God. Eccles. 1:4 seems like a statement of futility, but it is not. It gives the proper perspective on one's life.
7. We learn about God. We can compare our life with the eternal nature of God; it reveals His eternal attribute in relation to us and get a perspective of our own life. His creation shows God, reveals God. God is eternal and God lasts forever. Mankind also lasts forever, even though we die. All unbelievers will be resurrected and they will be raised up before the great white throne. This is about mortality and perspective.

How many movies have been made about nuclear war ending the world? It is not going to happen. Climate change is all about grabbing power. Green manifestoes are the means to grab power. Life without wisdom.

We have wisdom; so we have no reason to be concerned about this.

The earth remains forever; but this does not mean that the earth itself is eternal. The earth is a lasting creation by God and indestructible. It is not the creative force.

The Correct Application of Ecclesiastes 1:4

1. This lines are a view of our own insignificance. The lost generation was indeed the lost generation.
2. We view our own insignificance for the purpose of avoiding our own arrogance.
3. Understanding that, makes the advent of Christ even more meaningful. He died for the salvation of insignificant mankind so that we might have an eternal life with Him.

This does not mean that we should just trash the earth. Destroying the earth is not what we want to do.

What Proverbs Are

1. Proverbs are presented briefly and memorably.
2. They are based upon life experiences.
3. The life experience brings reflection and application upon wisdom. That is what we are shooting for. We need to apply it. The great lines are applied in great wisdom.

Bobby had to study Herman Melville in college and that was a lot to wade through. Filled with Biblical imagery. This is wisdom along with experience.

There is more than just the aphorism in Proverbs. There is extended instruction like Proverbs 1–9. The first 9 chapters are a connected whole. We need to read them and understand them as a connected discourse. The chapters follow; they build on each other. The instruction is found in the flow of the text and its setting. We need to read them as continuous wisdom discourse.

More to introduce before we get there.

The very form of poetry itself helps us how easy we can understand the poetry. It is not about rhyme and rhythm. Green poetry was rhythm.

All Hebrew poetry is parallelism. If we look to any page of Psalm or Proverbs, we see the parallelism. Somewhere in psalms or proverbs we have a first line and a second line which goes with it.

Prov. 1:2 To know wisdom and instruction, to understand words of insight,...

Prov. 1:3 to receive instruction in wise dealing, in righteousness, justice, and equity;...

Parallelism Teaching

1. Parallelism means that one statement is followed by a restatement of what was said in the first line. It is done with art and style and with imagery. This is great literature. There is also divine wisdom meaning.

2. This is an artistic way of using slightly different words.
3. Using the different words gives us the impression that either phrase by itself. One reinforces the other.
4. One line plays off against the other. And they are both connected.
5. We might call these lines thought rhyme.
6. Both lines guide us to the emphasis of the wisdom being presented.
7. At the same time, it enhances the meaning of that emphasis.
8. This form also makes the poetry easier to interpret for Bobby. For any exegete.
9. You have two lines to understand one thought; two lines connected to understand one thought; and that thought contains the principle of divine wisdom.

Stormed out.

Lesson #0010

Hosea Wisdom in the OT

11/10/2019 1Sunday

Eucharist November 10, 2019

The Lord's very name celebrates His celebrity status. Some people say, what is in a name; or, I care very little about what you call me.

His name declares His Person and His work.

The 4 seas, the White Sea freezes over. The Red Sea takes on a reflection. The Yellow Sea comes from particles of sand and the surface of the water looks yellow. The Black Sea is named, but there are only theories about it. No definitive explanation. Some called it that as it bears the shroud of death.

Matt. 1:21–23 She will bear a son, and you shall call His name Jesus, for He will save His people from their sins." All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had spoken by the prophet: "Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall call his name Immanuel" (which means, God with us).

This fulfills Isa. 7:14 Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a Son, and shall call His name Immanuel.

His Name stands in a glaring contrast to the angels. The angels are only harbingers of the great one. Jesus has a much more exalted name than they do. He will save His people from their sins.

Absolute

Philip. 2:8–11 And being found in human form, He humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Therefore God has highly exalted Him and bestowed on Him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

The lofty status of Lord over all the earth; and every knee will bow.

Psalm 8:1 O LORD, our Lord, how majestic is Your name in all the earth! You have set Your glory above the heavens.

Psalm 9:10a And those who know Your Name put their trust in You... in spite of the fact that He is undiminished Deity and uncorrupted humanity, He is obedient in death.

Found in appearance to be a man

Philip. 2:8 And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.

Jesus was subject to weakness, to pain; He experience human and mental growth; He suffered under oppression in that era.

Although Jesus was omnipresent, He took long journeys on foot, spreading His message of Messiahship.

During these wanderings, His healings represented...

He was persecuted, but He always persevered. He never allowed His Deity to relieve His suffering, hunger, etc. He never gave up His Deity. He remained constantly a member of the Godhead. He never functioned in contradiction to the plan of God the Father. He never acted independently of God the Father, despite being co-equal to the Father.

No other human being can match these qualities.

In His humanity, He was impeccable. He was born without a sin nature; and He never committed an act of personal sin. Many people in our society are celebrities. They might be heroic, colorful or even notable as sinners. They might hold some record which identifies them as unique. The permanent unbreakable record of sinlessness is a singular accomplishment which stands forever.

Had Jesus yielded to sin at any time, He could not be our Savior. A single sin would have made Him spiritually dead. He was and remained sinless, a unique status of His celebrityship. Without this fact, God the Father could not have imputed the sins of the world upon Him. A spiritually dead person cannot atone for another spiritually dead person. Had He not been qualified, then we would be lost and without hope and without salvation. Except for His sacrifice, there would remain a constant barrier between ourselves and God. We would still retain our sins. At best, we can have relative righteousness. We need His imputed righteousness, or we could not be saved.

The Lord took our place as sinners. This is the greatest act of righteousness and justice in history. He is the King of Kings and Lord of Lords; He is our High Priest and our Mercy Seat. The Mercy Seat is representative of what the Lord would do for us.

Each year, the High Priest would sprinkle the blood of the sacrificial lamb. This is a sin offering; and this is a blood sacrifice for sinners. God's righteousness and justice requires the sacrifice of the Lord. Only through the blood sacrifice can we approach the Lord. The Mercy Seat represented to Israel, the work of Jesus Christ (Rom. 3:25). God's wrath was turned aside. Christ, the Savior of Israel. Heb. 9:15 Therefore he is the mediator of a new covenant, so that those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance, since a death has occurred that redeems them from the transgressions committed under the first covenant. Jesus negotiated a new covenant on our behalf.

At the cross, Old Testament saints receive the redemption of that cross. In Old Testament times, faith in the Coming Messiah was salvation. These were not the actual means of atoning for our sins. Impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to atone for our sins.

People do not need to live in the post-cross era in order to be saved from our sins. They needed only to express faith alone in Christ alone (as He was revealed in the Old Testament).

The Lord is the Firstfruits of the resurrection. No one has ever been resurrected before Christ. Because of Him, we will also be resurrected to eternal life.

Today, because believers are in union with Christ, we are positionally higher than angels. Jesus made all of this possible. All of these salvation facts add up to one sum. There is no greater person who has lived, from the beginning of history unto now.

12x a year, we have the Communion service and remember all that He has done for us; a name above all names. This is also a fitting day today that we celebrate this, as tomorrow is Veterans Day. Sacrifice is certainly one of the aspects of that. Of the noblest of those who provide human sacrifice.

One of the greatest speeches about human freedom and sacrifice, by Abraham Lincoln, in 272 words. He was right up there with Winston Churchill as a wonderful wordsmith.

“Fourscore and seven years ago, our fathers brought forth on this continent a new nation...now we are engaged in a great civil war...we are met on a great battlefield of that war. We have come to commemorate...that battlefield...that a nation might live. In a largest sense, we cannot...hallow this ground...the world will little note or remember what we say here, but will long remember what was done here...from these honored dead,...for which they gave the full measure...that a government by the people, for the people,...shall not perish from this earth.”

Hosea Wisdom in the OT

11/10/2019 2Sunday

If we have read through the psalms, proverbs or any wisdom literature, we find some verses which are quite clear, and we understand them very well. But others are quite obscure. They often contain various words, figures of speech, unique to the times of ancient Israel. Harder to understand what God wants us to know. We must take into account the time in which these words are written. The unique part of wisdom literature, the psalms and Proverbs, are that these are poetry.

The key to some of these are parallelism. It has nothing to do with rhyme or rhythm. It is truly an art form, and provides a powerful message.

Parallelism employs two lines; each line being of equal importance. They are parallel. Each line compliments the other and balances against the other in a similar grammatical construction. This is an art form. This is a great way for the author to give a meaning. The two lines compliment each other, and they do so in several ways. We will have to understand parallelism and poetry.

One type is called synonymous parallelism. Both lines repeat the same thought.

Psalm 19:1 The heavens declare the glory of God, and the sky above proclaims his handiwork.

Psalm 19:2 Day to day pours out speech, and night to night reveals knowledge.

Creation itself is the best witness to divine wisdom. David writes this as a psalm of worship. Who has not looked up into the sky, at some point, maybe outside of Houston, and seen the stars, the moon, and other heavenly bodies; and you have seen it and wondered and been impressed about the immensity of it all. It impressed David as he wrote this. This is David's conclusion based upon looking up into the sky, probably as a young shepherd.

Many people have looked into the sky and have seen this as a marvelous revelation of God. When we look into the heavens and see this, we learn the great immensity, intelligence and power of God Himself.

Antithetical parallelism, parallel by contrast; two lines which are opposite but completely connected.

Psalm 1:6 for the LORD knows the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish.

The way of the righteous is in contrast the way of the wicked. God also knows His Own. They are made righteous in every generation. God knows the state of our spiritual lives in any given time. The Lord also knows the ways of the wicked; God knows those who have rejected Him. Nothing is hidden from God. Nothing you do, think or say. So, God knows these ways. There is judgment involved; the judgment of all unbelievers.

The way refer to one's own entire modus of life. The life of the wicked is the life of the cosmic system; a wicked life that will not endure. A life in the cosmic system has no meaning. The contrast simply reveals which side we are on in the sight of God.

Believers are not to be influenced by the thinking of the cosmic system. The righteous are those who are justified. They live the spiritual life of Bible doctrine; and this is the subject of all of this. The application of all of that wisdom. For the believer, human good will perish. Wood, hay and stubble. This is simply all of that.

3rd form: climatic parallelism. It has nothing to do with climate change. This builds upon the same word found in both lines.

Psalm 39:1 I said, "I will guard my ways, that I may not sin with my tongue; I will guard my mouth with a muzzle, so long as the wicked are in my presence."

Psalm 39:2 I was mute and silent; I held my peace to no avail, and my distress grew worse.

Wrong passage.

Psalm 29:1 Ascribe to the LORD, O heavenly beings, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.

Psalm 29:2 Ascribe to the LORD the glory due his name; worship the LORD in the splendor of holiness.

This is a dramatic call for worship. A dramatic line of praise by the angels. They see Him, they know Him. How can we not respond to His glory. These lines reflect the mode of Israel. This lines were read in their assemblies, in their synagogues and from the Temple. We may remember this glory of the Lord from our own Communion services.

The wisdom of recognizing the glory. The Lord is worthy of that.

Synthetic parallelism. Bobby will use these words repeatedly when we examine these passages. This builds upon a thought, by adding details or dimensions. It completes a thought.

Psalm 2:6 "As for me, I have set my King on Zion, my holy hill."

The context is opposition to the king by foreign rebellious people. They are antisemitic. They are driven by the cosmic system of Satan to destroy Israel. This comes from Psalm 2:2–3 The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD and against his Anointed, saying, "Let us burst their bonds apart and cast away their cords from us."

God will subjugate those who reject His king. Operation footstool. Several classes have been spent on that. All will be subject to the Lord.

A link between Old Testament Israel and future Israel. This is great encouragement for Israel, knowing the God has a plan for them and that God would not allow nation Israel to be destroyed.

Synthetic parallelism can make a parallelism or draw an analogy.

Bobby loves this:

Prov. 15:17 Better is a dinner of herbs where love is than a fattened ox and hatred with it.

A contrast between poverty and prosperity; and a person from an agrarian economy understands this perfectly. The vegetable metaphor has an historical context. The beginning of the 20th century; and there was a blockade against Germany, which caused great starvation within Germany and they ate mostly cabbage. Ireland famine and the potato blight; a one-crop economy, which was a problem. A problem of deprivation. 20–25% of Ireland moved to the United States as a result of this.

Normally people would choose prosperity for trade by a fattened ox. The real import of this proverb is attitude. A poverty of spirit versus a poverty of strengths.

The Wisdom Is This:

1. Adversity with the right attitude, particularly with virtue love,...
2. That is better than prosperity with a bad attitude; hate.
3. In adversity, bitter people blame others; they fail to look at themselves; they cannot see themselves as having fault in all of this. Then they hate each other.
4. That is the formula for self-induced misery. That is true poverty of soul.
5. The point is this: no matter the circumstances, poverty or plenty, our attitude must reflect a mature spiritual life. Poverty of soul can occur regardless of circumstances.
6. Philip. 4:12–13 I know how to be brought low, and I know how to abound. In any and every circumstance, I have learned the secret of facing plenty and hunger, abundance and need. I can do all things through him who strengthens me. Wisdom from the Old Testament are often expanded upon in the New. What is the secret of living in poverty or prosperity? All this from a vegetable, meat comparison. The plan of God is important here. If you understand the emphasis or the metaphor or the figure of speech Emblematic parallelism is the next type. This uses the figure of speech, the simile. The sentence contains the word as, like.

Prov. 25:28 A man without self-control is like a city broken into and left without walls.

A city will be conquered without walls; and a man without self-control will be conquered as well.

Maybe we can see the value of all this concentrated wisdom and the importance of parallelism and extracting it from the poetry. We need to make the wisdom clear, memorable, and applicable.

Lesson #0012      Proverbs 1:2–5    Wisdom in the OT 1/13/2019    Wednesday

We will begin this study in the book of Proverbs; we will begin with v. 7 and then go back to v. 2.

Prov. 1:7 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge; fools despise wisdom and instruction.

This is an antithetical parallelism. There is a parallel between those who fear God and fools who despise wisdom.

We Know 4 Things:

1. Fear and fools are antithetical; they are opposed to one another; and they are compared to one another.
2. Fear is here related to knowledge, wisdom and instruction.
3. A bad attitude of foolishness is contrasted to a good attitude of fear.
4. In this case, because of the contrast, it appears to be just that, a good attitude.

If fear is connected to knowledge of God and wisdom and instruction; it cannot mean fear in the sense of being frightened.

Fear of the Lord

1. Yirah means honor, reverence, adoration.
2. So fear means to have an attitude and to act in a certain way in response to reverence or awe of the Lord.
3. That attitude and action begins with wisdom and instruction.
4. Fools lack wisdom and instruction; they reside in ignorance; because of a lack of awe and reverence of the Lord.

So, fear and understanding that is fundamental to our understanding of this chapter. By the time that we are done with this, we will understand the fundamentals of the Christian life, like no other passage in Scripture.

Beginning at the Right Place

1. Beginning refers to the starting line.
2. One cannot gain knowledge or wisdom if he or she begins at the wrong point. You have to show up at the starting line for a race. You cannot gain knowledge or wisdom, if you begin at the wrong point.
3. The beginning is recognition of God's character through instruction.
4. Then you respond to instruction by fear of the Lord. This fear is a reverence, which initiates the motivation for learning divine wisdom. If you are not motivated to learn wisdom, then you are not going to learn it. Fear of the Lord; awe of the Lord. Now we are ready.
5. Thus is developed a spiritual life based upon reverence for God. You cannot respect God or know God, grow in wisdom of God, unless you have this attitude towards Him. Everything else is superficial. This is an attitude that you start with. A hunger, a desire, a fire in your belly. You have to want it. Many have come into Berachah all on fire for the Lord; and then they fade out. They lose the desire. This has to be maintained as well. The more you know, the more you have; the more you know, the more you reverence. This is called growing to spiritual maturity.
6. The believer is motivated to gain knowledge of and wisdom from Him, God. Have you ever been in a classroom, and you could care less about what is being said? That is not how you gain knowledge of God. Pre-Med or pre-law often motivates you, because you will use all of this stuff in the future.
7. The essence of true knowledge and wisdom is fearing God.
8. All knowledge, all instruction, all wisdom, and all of life, is related to this concept of fear of the Lord.
9. Apart from fear/reverence/awe, a person remains ignorant of spiritual things. Most have fought traffic and the cold to get to Berachah because they have the correct attitude. This should not be just another classroom.

We are only scratching the surface of this. This is why Bobby is covering the one phrase first of all.

Bobby, with this one phrase, turned the key to the spiritual life. This is the beginning; this is the beginning of everything. When you become a believer in Jesus Christ, you are probably interested in everything. If you spent 9 years in a study of the Lord, then you want to know Him. The more you know, the more you have a personal relationship and the more you revere Him.

Having whetted our appetite, let's back up and go begin with Prov. 1:2:

Prov. 1:1 The proverbs of Solomon, son of David, king of Israel:

Prov. 1:2 To know wisdom and instruction, to understand words of insight,...

Prov. 1:3 ...to receive instruction in wise dealing, in righteousness, justice, and equity;...

Prov. 1:4 ...to give prudence to the simple, knowledge and discretion to the youth—...

Prov. 1:5 Let the wise hear and increase in learning, and the one who understands obtain guidance,...

Overview of These Verses

1. X
2. These are synonymous parallelism.
3. These verses are very closely connect with each other.
4. Instruction, learning, understanding, wisdom, knowledge, prudence, behavior.
5. There is great repetition in these lines. All are repetitive; and these are all about wisdom and behavior.
6. Thus we see the foundations and the application of Bible doctrine, by being instructed in wisdom and learning.

Bobby took a fantastic course in seminary called wisdom literature. Ron Allen, very well known; and he brought this wisdom literature alive. He had us read Wisdom in Israel written by Gerhard von Rad. He was one of those German theologians who was also very liberal; and he was open to discussion of accuracy of the wisdom literature.

He writes a great thing at the beginning of the book, v. 53: these verse become almost intertwined to the point of synonymity. Their meaning are so close as to be hard to distinguish. Taken as a whole, they may take as wisdom and how to live wisely.

He does not take them apart in order to see the nuances; but Bobby will do this. If we are to understand the mechanics of spiritual growth and how this growth is advantageous to our lives. This is about our life and living our life and living our life as believer using what we have learned. We will see the Christian way of life in all of its ways and means.

The first word is the Qal infinitive of yadah. yâda' (יָדָה) [pronounced yaw-DAHḠ]

Wisdom in the Christian Life

1. We gain wisdom of a subject.
2. The knowledge is of God's Word. Yadah is the big picture word.
3. This is not just academic attainment. Simple academic achievement would be incomplete knowledge.
4. This includes the academic and the experiential acquisition of this knowledge.
5. What we may learn of a subject in the classroom.
6. Often the academic and the experiential compliment each other; and they go together. They have to apply what we know. It is learning it and applying it. We cannot do any of the things we are mandated to do without this.
7. Both contribute to gathering up the raw material of γνῶσις and ἐπίγνωσις doctrine. Then we apply that metabolized doctrine to the circumstances of our life.

This is the complete and overall picture of knowing.

My purpose for all of you in writing these couplets, Solomon says, is yâda' (יָדָע) [pronounced yaw-DAHG]. Then Solomon will begin to break down yâda'.

To know results in wisdom. If you write these things down, you will learn the spiritual life as never before. It will go from fear of the Lord to wise behavior.

The Big Picture of Knowledge

1. Gaining knowledge results in gaining wisdom; so to know wisdom. It derives from academic, metabolizing the doctrine, and then applying the doctrine. Now you understand the entire background.
2. Wisdom is the fruit of knowing yâda' through assimilating the knowledge. It becomes wisdom.
3. Wisdom become an integral part of the thought processes of a believer. That is what this is about. Therefore, this becomes an integral part of the thought processes of a believer.
4. A good simple definition of spiritual maturity is right here. Just how much doctrine do you think and know? What is your motivation?
5. Chokma has the connotation of wisdom as a skill; it is more than something in your head. It is something that you learn, you think, and you put it into practice. We think of it as something we know; but it is also a skill. It is a skill in life.
6. The bottom line: the person who comes to know wisdom has the spiritual skill for a applying doctrine and living the Christian life. If you learn a trade, that trade is learned by listening and then experiencing it. You become an apprentice in that trade. It becomes a skill. That is what makes you desirable. You use this skill over and over again. You learn the skill and you do it. We are like tradesmen. Or we could call ourselves lawyers, doctors, etc. We utilize that spiritual gift as a part of our spiritual life.

Skillful wisdom is Solomon's ability to administer justice. He was able to administer justice as a judge. He could listen and take the wise advice of a counselor.

The next thing is to know wisdom and to know instruction.

Mûwçâr (מוֹצָר) [Pronounced Moo-sawr]

1. We are looking at different words that seem to be synonymous, but these words all have distinct connotations.
2. Such is mûwçâr, which actually means discipline.
3. This is discipline in the school of knowledge of wisdom.
4. This is a disciplined training which is concentrated, tough; and it includes practical exercises, the circumstances of life. You know wisdom, you gain wisdom and instruction. This includes practical exercises; this is where we live everyday.

5. The mind must be trained and instructed by excellent instructors. To gain knowledge to be used as wisdom; and as a spiritual skill. It is one puzzle with individual pieces.

A good illustration is the instruction of military leadership. It begins in a classroom; and it begins with classroom instruction on leadership. There are practical lessons in the classroom. What do you do with regards to discipline; how to you handle yourself as a leader. These things are discussed endlessly in the classroom. The entire Ranger could be instruction in leadership. It is leadership under pressure and adverse circumstances. We learn these and we have to put them into practice. Until we are on the ground leading a platoon, we do not get the full picture in the classroom. As an actual commander, we put the principles to work based upon what we have learned. We learn skills in leadership. This become a skill; a finely honed skill.

All of the classroom instruction does not fully prepare you to lead 30 men after that. All that you do is something that is in your thinking. You know in part what to do; and you wing it sometimes. You learn in the classroom; and you learn leadership. You receive disciplined instruction in the classroom of the church.

You develop from this a lifetime spiritual skill. You never quite understand doctrine until you have to live it and use it. This is your life and this is why Solomon wrote Proverbs. Difficult, challenging experience.

Solomon received some of his instructions from sometime a lack of wisdom; or a disregard of wisdom. He learned sometimes by trial and error; sometimes by learning the hard way.

Bobby really enjoyed the fascinating subject of WWI. The tactics of that war were mired in the previous century; and they were being taught in the schools everywhere. The tactics were way outdated and they were murderous when assaulting into the teeth of machine gun fire, like walking into it as a line. After many hard lessons with massive casualties. 60,000 casualties on one day beginning in WWI because they used old tactics. In Vietnam, we lost about 50,000 men over 10 years.

Hard lessons, correction, reproof.

Complete This:

1. Solomon's proverbs of wisdom often originated from his many painful experiences and experiments; in materialism and sensualism. He tried it all. He spent a lot of his life on a frantic search for happiness.
2. Those life lessons, instruction through hard experience, were then compared and contrasted with divine wisdom.
3. This became spiritual wisdom. Sometimes, that is the way we must learn.
4. Solomon then imparted this to us for our knowledge and wisdom. This is for you.
5. If we listen; we can learn the easy way. If you apply what you learn to experience, you can learn the easy way. Other wise, you can go through the school of hard knocks. Some of us went through that school. We learned it the hard way. The student must know wisdom through spiritual instruction. To comprehend the individual statements of wisdom.

This is the big picture. Then Solomon says, you will have to discern all the sayings of wisdom.

Lesson #0013                      Proverbs 1:2–5   Wisdom in the OT   11/14/2019   Thursday

Requests are being made for certain chapters of Psalms and Proverbs. No telling how long we will be in this.

These first 4 verses give the reason why Solomon writes Proverbs. The wisdom is as valid today as it was back in the days of Solomon. Solomon reveals the operational obligations of the believers in this world.

Nobody entirely exhausts the study of the Bible. Bobby has not found any passage in the Bible which lays out the spiritual life so well as vv. 2–7. In every aspect of life, this wisdom is perfect, applicable; and this is how we should be thinking. The preamble of wisdom, which is the subject of Proverbs.

Prov. 1:2 To know wisdom and instruction, to understand words of insight,...

Prov. 1:3 ...to receive instruction in wise behavior, in righteousness, justice, and equity;...

Prov. 1:4 ...to give prudence to the naive, knowledge and discretion to the youth—...

Synonymous parallelism again.

Prov. 1:5 A wise man will hear and increase in learning, and the one who understands obtain guidance,...

Learning, understanding, prudence, discretion, behavior. Each one of these words is nuanced. From these verses we see the foundation of the application of Bible doctrine to us.

Prov. 1:2 To know wisdom and instruction, to understand words of insight,...

This is the big picture of knowledge. This is both academic and experiential knowledge. We learn all sorts of things by listening and by going through circumstances in life. We apply what we know. As we learn, we use what we hear. We learn life lessons. If we use doctrine, we gain in our life experiences. We progress in that life. Spiritual maturity is the progress that we make. It is learn, using and applying. Both approaches contribute to the gaining of knowledge.

Wisdom is the subject of Proverbs. Knowledge results in wisdom. We want wisdom to become a part of our thinking and a part of the thinking of divine viewpoint wisdom.

Just how much doctrine do we think and how much we apply in life; and to that extent is the extent of our maturity. When we learn, when we hear, when we experience, we become skilled in using this in our life. That is skill and wisdom in the spiritual life. Is that not what we are looking for. The ability to use these skills in our lives. Proverbs is an amazing book about the application of knowledge to our lives.

We are to know wisdom and we are to learn instruction. Discipline in the school of knowledge and wisdom. Discipline in learning is so critical. We do not learn well without the discipline to learn. How many courses did you stumble your way through it. The rest of the time you goofed off, studying the night before the final. You master the course; that is disciplined learning. Bobby is amazed how many things he has pulled up from his learning in college and in the seminary.

Training like the military. It is concentrated and tough. Discipline and instruction holds a believer together through difficult and challenging experiences. If you are in Bible class night after night, that is disciplined. It take discipline to do this over and over again. The payoff is, we are held together through difficult, challenging circumstances.

Bobby has just given us what Bob has sat and worked on for hours and hours; and here it is in half of a verse. Discern the sayings of understanding. Or, comprehend the individual statements and principles of wisdom.

Understanding

1. Understanding here is the Hebrew noun yabeem, which means understanding; one who is discerning.
2. To discern means to distinguish between two things. This means choices.
3. Discernment means to compare concepts; to evaluate circumstances; and, in so doing, coming to wise conclusions. That is what this is all about.
4. Thus the discerning believer evaluates circumstances and comes to wise conclusions and can differentiate between truth and falsehoods. There are so many falsehoods out there, it is hard to believe that there is any truth.
5. Wisdom includes the skill to discern truth from falsehood. God's wisdom and His truth is so obscured by the falsehoods of relative wisdom. Bobby has covered some of these subjects before: socialism, feminism, multiculturalism, social justice, LGBTQ. These are things that we think about constantly. They are anti-divine establishment. They are relative human wisdom; no wisdom and classified as foolishness. These are called the doctrines of demons, which we know as the cosmic system.

The Use of Proverbs in the Soul

1. The sayings of understanding are the expression of great divine truths of wisdom.

2. They are simple expressions of wisdom. Many people live by simple mottos; and those mottos guide them in the greater circumstances of their life. Through Christ, I conquer, is a motto that Bob lived by. It embodied doctrine and its application. It had a military ring to it; and he lived that motto throughout his life. The mind of Christ was his strength. He used the spiritual life; and it provided him with the discernment to identify truth from falsehood. This is what he did from the pulpit.
3. Bobby remembers, less of a motto than his; from David Crocket. Be sure you are right and then go ahead. Proverbs are always divine wisdom.
4. When Proverbs are inculcated, then they are applicable as a system of discernment in every circumstance of life. There is a proverb for everything.
5. Gaining knowledge and applying wisdom is a learned skill, resulting in yabeem; discernment. You learn it here and you learn it through the experiences of your life.
6. When the skill is applied, spiritual wisdom rejects falsehood. Half the battle is identifying a falsehood. In this relative world, what is truth? Truth is divine wisdom. It is absolute wisdom. Make good decisions in life. This is the practical side of living your spiritual life.

Proverbs is a series of mottos, one after another and by another. Aphorisms.

Prov. 1:3 ...to receive instruction in wise behavior, in righteousness, justice, and equity;...

The believers receives instructions. The Qal infinitive construct of laqaq.

Laqaq

1. This means to acquire something worth having.
2. Something worth having is acquiring instruction. Disciplined instruction. Knowledge, yadav. For the purpose of wise behavior. What is worth something is acquired for the purpose of wise behavior.
3. What is wise behavior? This is good sense; divine wisdom.
4. Coqma. Divine wisdom applied to circumstances.
5. Good sense is the basis for wise behavior. All that comes in vv. 2 is wise behavior.
6. Common sense is good; but wise behavior is even more than that. It is spiritual Ranger training. Hard-earned knowledge from instruction and practice. Hard circumstances are often the best way to learn. If you do not learn wise behavior, even though the hard knocks that you live through, you can be classified as a fool.

What is the wise behavior? Righteousness and justice and equity. Spiritual knowledge manifests itself in these 3 ways. You know what you are supposed to do; so what does that look like when you do it.

Tsedek

1. First manifestation of righteousness.
2. Conformity to a standard and adjusting to it.

3. Any use of wisdom will always fall within the parameters of righteousness.
4. The standard is gained through doctrinal knowledge. In many cases, your parents instill standards in you. Sometimes we learn standards through hard knocks. Maybe you are too dumb to learn anything. You are unable to learn.
5. Standards develop from the doctrinal knowledge gained. Parental training from doctrine is so critical.
6. Wisdom—doctrinal knowledge is God's standards; that is what we are to live by.
7. By staying within the parameters of those standards, the believer will make wise decisions. These wise decisions remain inside wise behavior. Good decisions lead to wise behavior.
8. This thinking, decisions and actions perpetuate the standard of good decisions in life. You perpetuate wise behavior through the spiritual life.
9. Righteousness here refers to the standards and parameters of the Christian life. What defines out life? Bible doctrine, divine wisdom, absolute standards; or divine establishment in the life of believers and unbelievers.

See how all of this is beginning to fit together? When standards are not maintained and the spiritual life falls away in carnality and in reversionism, in the times of Jeremiah and Hosea; or when divine establishment is forgotten, rejected, and mocked. Then discipline, correction and disaster.

We know that God is faithful and He restored Israel. God made a covenant with Israel; and He has not rejected them. No parameters of divine wisdom. Bad things happen in order to recover wise behavior.

The second manifestation of wise behavior, and this is justice.

Mishpat

1. This means judgment, in the sense of signifying a decision, in the sense of establishing a legal case. The act of deciding a legal case.
2. This noun is applied to litigation in 2Sam. 15:2
3. Mishpat can be a precedent established by a legal case. What is customary; what are you supposed to do over and over again? What is your SOP.

Wisdom

1. Wisdom sets a standard for behavior in the spiritual life.
2. Thinking and acting with wisdom become customary to the mature believer.
3. It becomes second nature to you, like the practice of a golf swing. That requires physical muscle memory.

This is why you practice a swing over and over again. You develop muscle memory. You no longer have to think about the mechanics of the swing. In the game, you just do it. You know how to swing. You have trained yourself to do it. It is your customary swing. If you play golf, there is a certain back swing, where your left and right arms are in a swing. A professional golfer has tremendous muscle memory. It is the same.

Practicing in the Spiritual Life

1. You get much practice in the spiritual life.
2. The more you are trained, the easier that it becomes to make decisions and to action on those decisions. It is second nature to you. When you face circumstances, you already have the wisdom to apply. You see the truth and you make the decision.
3. Once you are in the middle of a situation, it is too late to return to the instruction phase. The instruction is over; it is time to perform. You need the spiritual skills in place by that time.
4. With embedded customary standards of thinking and actions, spiritual muscle memory, it is easy to perform in the spiritual life. That is called spiritual maturity. Bobby has covered the concept of spiritual maturity in 2 or 3 verses. Spiritual muscle memory. What you do not practice, you cannot do. You won't improve as a golfer once a week. You improve through practice and then you play the game. You learn and experience and apply. The more you learn it, the more adept you become at it.

We should now understand the spiritual life; the spiritual life is right thinking and wise behavior from instruction and developing divine standards, which means you have the spiritual skill to live the spiritual life. Living this life is a skill. Skill requires memory and action. When you have the skill, you produce at the highest level.

The 3rd manifestation of wise behavior is called equity, which is mashar.

Mashar

1. Evenness or level.
2. In this context, it is used in a moral sense. Upright or straight.
3. This is a person who is fair-minded, who is equitable; who is not prejudice, angry, emotional, with self-control, those are prerequisites.
4. Equity is an aspect of behavior inherent to wisdom. Behavior that is inherent to wisdom. Avoiding behavior which is not wise. The more you mature, the more you indulge in unwise behavior.

This is maintaining the spiritual life. That is also a spiritual skill. These 3 characteristics are of a mature believer in action. The people during the time of Hosea and Jeremiah.

Lesson #0014

Proverbs Wisdom in the OT

11/17/2019 1Sunday

The wisdom of the book of Proverbs is truly for our lives today. It is discernment that comes directly from the veracity of God. That means that it is a part of the omniscience and veracity of God. Should these be learned and applied, we will have the operational and functional means to live in Satan's world. There is wisdom in this book for every circumstance of life. Whatever, it is covered in the book of Proverbs. Common sense, good judgment, and good decision making capabilities. This oversees a life that is truly fulfilling and fully blessed. It is a life that we are obligated to live.

Who better than Solomon to present this wisdom to us.

This would bring up a question...why didn't David write Proverbs rather than Solomon, since much of Proverbs comes from David originally.

David taught Solomon this information; and Solomon knew by hard knocks the problems of not following wisdom.

Prov. 1:2 To know wisdom and instruction, to understand words of insight [or, to discern the words of understanding],...

V. 2 sums up what we are going to learn in the book of Proverbs. We have seen that instruction is discipline and training. Also the experience of wisdom, which means that we are experiencing circumstances in which this wisdom must be applied.

Discerning is distinguishing truth from falsehood.

Prov. 1:3 ...to receive instruction in wise behavior [or, good sense], in righteousness, justice, and equity;...

3 specific aspects of wise behavior. Righteousness is conforming to divine standards of correct behavior; conforming to divine standards. In order to do this, you must know these divine standards. Then justice, which means good judgment in making good decisions. We have all made good and bad decisions. People will challenge us with, what is a good decision? A good decision lines up with divine wisdom and Bible doctrine. If you do not know it, then you cannot make good decisions. Any other decision will have repercussions which are unknown, unseen or unexpected. You must develop this attitude of justice.

Equity is practical; it means being fair minded; not prejudice, judgmental or arbitrary or prone to emotionalism. The latter is happening in many churches right now. This is the way that we should think and should live.

Solomon introduces the benefits of what he will impart to us in this book.

Prov. 1:4 ...to give prudence to the simple [or, to the naive], knowledge and discretion to the youth—...

V. 4 is another reason for us to attain to wisdom. This is for the maintenance of the client nation. This verse is developed from the point of view of a teaching; the objective of the teacher. A parent, an instructor in school, or even a pastor.

One line helps us to understand the other.

Prudence Is 'Or<sup>e</sup>mâh (הִקְרָע) [Pronounced Gor-maw]

1. This means craftiness, good discernment; to see evil and to run from it.
2. The student here is called naive or spiritually brainless.
3. He or she requires disciplined instruction.
4. That includes knowing/learning common sense. There are so many ditzzy people who have no common sense at all. How many times have we misread people and gotten burned; gf's, bf's, marriage. Good judgments concerning those people; concerning the circumstances in which we find ourselves. Common sense or good judgment.
5. The naive or the brainless is gullible (a perfect descriptor).
6. Gullible means easily enticed, easily fooled; able only to think in terms of human viewpoint; not clearly seeing the issues before them. Believers can see the issues and distinguish between truth and falsehood. We will look forward to a new election and we will have to make discerning decisions about the future of this nation.
7. Naive is the opposite of discernment; the opposite of prudence and fleeing from the cosmic system deceptions. So many deceptions in this world, simply because of our tremendous ability to communicate. Most of the things on the internet are absolutely false. Especially in the area of the spiritual life. So many religious activities and messages on the internet today and 98% of them are false. It is very difficult to find truth.

Brainless or naive is not a reference to human IQ; it is low spiritual IQ.

Low Spiritual IQ

1. This reflects a person who thinks only in human viewpoint. Such a person is naive, gullible. You cannot make the decisions which are necessary. You will continually fall away. The book of Proverbs will cover everything that we will face in life. Bobby is stunned sometimes. God knew this in eternity past.
2. If you can only think in one-dimension, then you think from self-centered, subjective considerations. If you are subjective, then you cannot call up from the soul...
3. Brainless is a believer who is a sucker for whatever is the latest trend or pleasure; or you suck up religious fad. Whatever religion brings that is false; or whatever else is a stupid decision. The naive stand for nothing so they fall for anything.

Less we get self-righteous, who has not found themselves making decisions with bad outcomes? We just don't care; our own objectives, desires, come first. We make decisions which limit our future options. That includes in the spiritual life. Bad decisions limit future options. The plan of God for our life is more than just taking in doctrine. That is the raw material or the resource that we need. Living the spiritual life is making good decisions which relate to good decisions which glorify God. So that we cease to be naive.

Then there is that subject of youth. Some of us are young and some of us are not. Bobby is speaking in the sense of age. The young particularly need to know that bad decisions limit their future options. Without the teaching from doctrinal parents, they will be entrapped with no discernment; by peer pressure, by self-gratification or by foolish behavior. Many young people wind up in jail for making stupid decisions. The only hope for such people is to gain wisdom. The recidivistic rate or lack of it is about 90%, which amazes wardens all over; because they do not get this same kind of success rate. We get doctrine when we are young, so that when we are old, we do not depart from it. Such young people will be entrapped and make many bad decisions; but this applies to anyone. We begin as blank slates and someone needs to write on the tablet of our souls; of our thinking. We have no doctrine and we know nothing else. We are always in need of sound teaching, of discernment.

Da'at and Zimmah

1. According to v. 4, we are to be taught 2 things: knowledge, da'at.
2. The second thing to be taught is discretion.
3. Da'at means knowledge, but especially knowledge of God.
4. Zimmah is the ability to devise plans or to perceive the best course of action from divine wisdom. One follows the other.
5. Teach the youth Bible doctrine so that they gain wisdom and make wise decisions. Otherwise, they will make bad decisions, and they will be unhappy with their lot in life. They do not have da'at or mazimma.
6. They need to wisdom to choose a way of life that is commensurate with God's plan. They are going to have more of a chance that way.

Bobby looks out over the audience and he knows people with children and he knows the situation of their children today. Many were brought up with Bible doctrine; and that many of them stuck with it. They have the wisdom needed to grow in the spiritual life.

So many others are not in a good place; they have moved on to other areas. Some are heartbroken because their life is not one of good decisions. Learning includes both instruction and experience. That is also a road to wisdom; the hard knocks of bad decisions. By gaining divine viewpoint, those difficulties, those bad decisions. Therefore, knowledge of God includes the results of bad decisions. Wisdom must be instilled from the beginning; give them doctrine in the way that they must go.

Lesson #0015

Proverbs Wisdom in the OT

11/17/2019 2Sunday

All the wisdom of the ages in to be found in Proverbs. Many times, Jesus quoted from Proverbs and Psalms. This attests to their importance.

We find in the New Testament, John, Paul, James and Peter all expanded on much of the wisdom found in the wisdom literature. We cannot afford to overlook it. It is most condensed doctrine found anywhere in Scripture.

This is the means to the mature spiritual life. If we look at these passages, we will see that the overwhelming subject is all about learning how to live in the devil's world. That is what this tells us. It is an overwhelming... The status of the client nation; where individual believers are moving forward spiritually.

Prov. 1:2 To know wisdom and instruction, to understand words of insight [or, to discern the words of understanding],...

Prov. 1:3 ...to receive instruction in wise behavior [or, good sense], in righteousness, justice, and equity;...

Prov. 1:4 ...to give prudence to the simple [or, to the naive], knowledge and discretion to the youth—...

V. 5 gives advice to those who cannot be called naive. Solomon gives us the other side of the picture. There is always room for more wisdom from Bible doctrine.

Man can refer to both genders and all races.

Prov. 1:5 Let the wise hear and increase in learning [or, a wise man will hear and increase in learning], and the one who understands obtain guidance [or, will acquire Bible doctrine],...

Increasing Our Knowledge of Bible Doctrine

There is a lot of writing to be done in Bible class. These are memorable things. This is a wonderful overview of the spiritual life. What is the foundation of the spiritual life, and the overview, etc.

1. The wise man will hear and increase in learning; this is the basis for maximum application and service to the Lord. That is the spiritual life.
2. Increase is the Hiphil imperfect of to add, to add to. He will add to his learning.
3. This is wisdom added to wisdom; wisdom being placed into an environment of wisdom. This is a consistent gaining of knowledge. We cannot afford not to. This is a definition of being wise or not. Do we increase in learning?
4. This does not mean that hearing wisdom confirms what is already known. New things are being learned. The idea that you can learn everything that there is to learn: "I've heard it all before." That brings a person to a point of thinking they know it all. Doctrine used to be hot, but now it is lukewarm. Many people have come into this auditorium on fire for the Lord; but they have left with a different attitude. "I got it the first time; no need to keep repeating it. I am bored now." The question is, is your wisdom inculcated into your soul? This wisdom must become second nature to you. Is it in the memory center of the soul to be pulled up at any moment. When we are trained in something, implanted in our brains, that is what is pulled up when circumstances require it. Bobby was inculcated with training in Ranger school, and to this day, he has not forgotten them. Implanted into the brain so that it is second nature. Do you have to think, what was that promise, what was that doctrine? Then you revert to what is in your brain, which is human viewpoint.

There is that war between divine viewpoint and human viewpoint, which war takes place in your soul. Does divine viewpoint force out human viewpoint? Like in golf, you develop muscle memory until you have a swing that is second nature. You hit it the same way every time. When you deviate from that, you do not play well. It is the same with Bible doctrine. You practice it over and over again. When you practice, you mature; and you use it in every circumstance of life. If it is not 2nd nature to you, you will have an attitude of indifference.

What Is the Emphasis Here?

1. The key is being consistent.
2. Every new hearing still increases wisdom. It is not useless; it always has a purpose. Bobby has heard so many times, "How did you know I was going through that?" Bobby does not know, but the Lord does. Sometimes, this information presents itself just at the time that you need it.
3. Hearing the same wisdom more than once or any number of times adds to the depths of understanding. You may have a surface or academic understanding hearing it once; but hearing it many times is what inculcates it into your soul.
4. This adding to cements the wisdom in the memory. When Bobby was a teenager, he was looking for his first job. He and a friend did not find jobs sacking groceries, and Bobby asked his father, and his father said, "You want a job?" Then Bob told him to report to Portland Cement the next morning. Bobby learned and grew up in that job. 3 summers of that job, one of the guys said, "Don't ever come back here," and Bobby said that he would not. We have experiences in life; and we can see how that experience helped to shape us. It is multiple experiences.
5. Wisdom is built upon wisdom. That is the key to maturity. How much wisdom can you apply and under what circumstances can you apply it? Do you fall apart under the worst circumstances of life?
6. The repetition of any wisdom adds to a great comprehension and use.

Why Is That True?

1. There are layers of truth in Biblical teaching. There is depth there; and things to be added to what you first hear. You do not get it in one hearing. Why would you not want to hear wisdom? Do you want to be an idiot the rest of your life? This is your life? This is the key to spiritual maturity.
2. There comes a much deeper understanding through repetition. Also, a greater application to circumstances. Bob used the term breakthrough. This was a misunderstood term. We have had breakthroughs of doctrine from doctrine that we have heard before. "Why didn't I hear it like that before?" That is because you hear it many times, and you have experiences, and you have more doctrine. All of this fits together regarding your spiritual growth. Repetition is critical to adding to the understanding and learning. It requires disciplined learning. There is also submission required to the person who is teaching. That submission is never misplaced. You submit to the teaching that Bobby presents. It is not the instructor. He does carry authority; but we are to submit to what Bobby teaches. It is the doctrine or the wisdom that is taught. Never doubt the need for consistently hearing Bible doctrine. The believer can continually add to wisdom. The drive to spiritual maturity is open-ended until the moment that you pass into heaven. You never reach spiritual maturity to where it is done and over with. It is another day for us to apply wisdom and for us to increase in wisdom. That is how we glorify God and serve Him to the maximum.

If a believer increases in learning, becoming a man or woman in understanding by continuing to hear wisdom...and we are then taken to v. 5b.

Prov. 1:5 Let the wise hear and increase in learning [or, a wise man will hear and increase in learning], and the one who understands obtain guidance [or, will acquire Bible doctrine],...

Wise Counsel

1. Guidance, direction or wise counsel. In a good sense, it is a counselor, but not a person.
2. The acquisition of instruction brings with it divine guidance. Repeated instruction.
3. What kind of guidance? Guidance for the believer in the operational plan of God. It is all about our place in the plan of God. What am I supposed to do? Where am I supposed to go? It all fits together perfect.
4. Guidance moves our spiritual life in the right direction. That carries over to life in general. The spiritual life and our life in general; these all overlap. They have to. But we do not live in a vacuum. They are part and parcel of each other. One is the guiding principle of the other. Without that, we have no discernment. No good sense; we are brainless without it.
5. So we gain direction in the spiritual life, clearing up circumstantial confusion from the guidance of divine wisdom. Our world is filled with confusion. Everyday, we wake up and there is some kind of confusion there to greet us. We need the wisdom to clear the fog. If you want to determine if you have wisdom, watch the news and see if you can distinguish between truth and lies? Politicians are by nature, liars; but what about the policies that they espouse? Do you want to know who to vote for? Who has the best establishment viewpoint. You must have wisdom and you must add to that wisdom. Wisdom is built upon wisdom; and that requires the consistent acquisition of wisdom.

The urgent need for this wisdom is found in v. 6:

Prov. 1:6 to understand a proverb and a saying, the words of the wise and their riddles.

Do you understand this? It is a continuation of v. 5.

Bobby likes watching people file in, night after night. Also those in the FX groups. Bobby is encouraged by this.

The believer who has acquired some wisdom has to gain more wisdom. This is a process that is open ended; it never ceases. It continues throughout your life. We can never master every aspect of God's wisdom from the Scriptures. As we grow, things become clearer as we learn more and more doctrine. Consistency, we can master enough wisdom and we are provided with enough wisdom; and God makes this wisdom available to us. We always have that which we need when we need it. We can master enough wisdom. Wisdom gained becomes wisdom used by all of us. We simply have to metabolize it and apply it. If we hear and apply it, we will understand God's plan for our lives.

In our study in vv. 2–4, we have already learned the basics of how to acquire wisdom and just how important that it is. We have learned the result for life in general for gaining all of this wisdom. We have learned all of this in just 3 verses.

V. 5 gives us a brief summary.

Prov. 1:5 A wise man will hear and increase in learning, and a man of understanding will increased his acquisition of Bible doctrine,...

V. 5 puts together everything which has gone before.

The Wise Counsel of God's Plan.

1. Wise counsel in v. 5b is the direction and guidance found in wisdom. Bible doctrine is our counselor. We often think that we should be speaking to a counselor; but Bible doctrine is our wise counselor. If you have it, you have wise counsel. You are your own counselor.
2. We gain direction in the spiritual life through wisdom; one foot in front of the other. The direction that your feet point are the directions of good decisions.
3. Wisdom clears up circumstantial confusing by guiding and directing us. God's plan is something that we have to learn or recognize. This is what runs the plan. This is what guides and directs us in the plan.

Prov. 1:6 ...to understand a proverb and a saying, the words of the wise and their riddles.

There is a repetition of the Hebrew word beyn. It means to discern. The second major purpose of this book is to give mental and spiritual acumen to... The sayings of understanding are proverbs; we are to discern them. We perceive the Biblical wisdom of a proverb.

We Need to Understand the Very Words Written by the Wise Teachers

1. For this understanding, the student needs to understand the actual language of the proverb and the figure as well. That is what v. 5 says.
2. There is a technical word for this: etymology.

3. Etymology is understanding the vocabulary, the figures of speech, the metaphors and the riddles of the language; all of the language of the proverbs themselves.
4. The explanations of the concentrated wisdom from the context of the text. The explanations of this concentrated wisdom is the importance of the etymology.
5. The student must understand the very words written by wise teachers.

The proverbs are covered by verbal plenary inspiration. That is the importance of v. 6 for believers. We must know these things. We must learn the Hebrew words and their meanings. These words are divinely inspired. The proverbs must be seen as riddles that must be studied; puzzles which must be solved. Each proverb has one intended meaning. Because it is poetry and sometimes it is perplexing, the individual words are important.

Why this Approach?

1. We get great insight into Solomon's meaning. It is the Hebrew word for riddle.
2. Kidah means an enigmatic or perplexing statement.
3. A question: why would the teacher, the writer of a proverb, want to be enigmatic? Why would he want to be obscure or indirect? This seems to make a proverb more difficult to interpret.
4. The indirect character of a proverb is not the problem or the issue. That is why v. 6 was written. This is the purpose for the writing of all the proverbs.
5. This is the genre of poetry and the genre that God chose to reveal all of this great wisdom.
6. Why did He choose it? Poetry is an art of using words to express ideas of wisdom.
7. This poetry and its riddles paint word pictures; they weave a tapestry of meaning. It is a beautiful art form.
8. These word pictures lend themselves to the student's memory; so you have a picture in your head of what it means.
9. Understanding them can be had from the figures and the words. To understand these proverbs, you must understand these riddles.

More about the Proverbial Approach

1. This is the way that God chose to present this wisdom in concentrated form; indirectly, but memorable and applicable. You will remember this information more easily because of its format.
2. A figurative meaning is based upon figurative language; but there is a literal meaning; the meaning that God means for us. God uses these riddles, not to confuse us. This is a very practical study.
3. The language is actually a strong point for the teaching of wisdom; not a weakness.
4. It is not obscure when the figures and the words are understood. It is experiential and practical. It is a practical approach to wisdom and what it is.

Bobby spends so much time at his desk unraveling the riddles. Maybe we can now begin to see these proverbs as being incredibly portions of Scripture. It is the basis for good decisions and actions in our life.

Prov. 1:6 ...to understand a proverb and a saying, the words of the wise and their riddles.

The theological foundation of wisdom. This might be considered the motto for proverbs.

Prov. 1:7 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge; fools despise wisdom and instruction.

The Fear of the Lord Is the Beginning of Wisdom

1. This is the foremost of all knowledge and wisdom.
2. We must fear the Lord and that is the beginning of wisdom.
3. You can see that to call the fear of the Lord is in itself wisdom.
4. It is the foundation for gaining the knowledge of wisdom.
5. That makes it the most critical concept of learning wisdom.

In this antithetical parallel, these who fear the LORD are the opposite those who despise wisdom. There are even believers who ignore and reject Bible doctrine. But, they do not fear the Lord.

What about the Fool

1. The fool is primarily a person who lacks good sense, believer or unbeliever.
2. The fool is uninstructed; unskilled in spiritual things; offensively ignorant. Some of these people cannot grasp any of this. They are never wrong and you can never correct them. Talking to them is pointless.
3. The fool is offensively ignorant.
4. This is one who is lacking in the fear of the Lord. Such a one is a fool. Atheists and agnostics are fools; and so are Christians who ignore Bible doctrine.
5. What has come before in vv. 1–6 is the formula for understanding and enlightening. All of these words present a formula for us to gain wisdom and enlightenment.
6. It all hinges on the fear of the Lord. So many fools have no fear of the Lord. Don't be offended by that; this is what it says right here. They despise wisdom, knowledge and instruction. They like entertainment, beauty, interesting topics; but they have no interest in Bible doctrine. Doing something over and over again; that is what it takes to be great. People who do not concentrate in an area and practice it lack skills and developed talent.

We have to understand v. 7 as a contrast.

Worse than naive, is what they are called back in v. 4. That is exactly what Jeremiah 4:22 says: "My people are foolish because they have no understanding." Hosea 4:6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge.

Prov. 1:29 Because they hated knowledge and did not choose the fear of the LORD,
Prov. 1:30 would have none of my counsel and despised all my reproof,
Prov. 1:31 therefore they shall eat the fruit of their way, and have their fill of their own devices.

Summary of Prov. 1:29–30

1. This describes life without wisdom; life inundated with the cosmic system.
2. The fruit is metaphorical. The figures of Proverbs. The terrible consequences of spiritual foolishness.
3. Punishment, destruction for despising wisdom; for lack of discernment of learning doctrine.
4. Jeremiah and Hosea gave instructive teaching and it was ignored.
5. Justice and standards and righteousness. The foolish have none of these standards.
6. They are satiated, overwhelmed, with sinfulness and foolishness.
7. Prov. 1:32 For the simple are killed by their turning away, and the complacency of fools destroys them;...

Their life is in shambles; it does not work. They keep smashing their heads into walls. They are gullible; easily enticed followers of evil. In their following of evil, they move beyond evil to becoming fools for destruction. They cannot understand the issues before them. They are confused and muddled in their thinking.

Israel was charged to fear the Lord.

Complacent Ones

1. In synonymous parallel with the naive and the fools, it is complacency towards Bible doctrine. This ruins the lives of people, as per v. 32.
2. Complacency is shavah. In general, this means quietness, ease.
3. In this context, where it is linked with fools, the spiritually brainless and the wayward, it means a careless security. What does that mean?
4. Security in human viewpoint. The security of fools, which is no security.
5. The complacent are fools; they are wayward. They are careless and cavalier about wisdom. It is just unimportant to them.

What kind of life do you want? Do you want to live in fog? It is amazing how muddled thinking is. A whole generation who think that socialism is their answer.

First problem is, they have no beginning of knowledge because they do not revere the Lord; and they do not want to know Him. Wisdom gives you depth. It gives you the impetus to operate in our spiritual life.

Prov. 1:7 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge; fools despise wisdom and instruction.

We will finish Prov. 1 tonite.

This entire verse might be understood to be the theme of the book of Proverbs. This phrase the fear of the Lord is found 15 times in Proverbs. This is found elsewhere in the Bible as well.

Prov. 1:7 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge; fools despise wisdom and instruction.

Job 28:28 passage: The fear of the Lord, that is wisdom.

Prov. 1:7 Fools do not fear the Lord so they cannot obtain wisdom because they despise instruction.

This is a one-verse explanation for what Proverbs is all about. Apart from this, the believer becomes the fool without knowledge.

Bobby's caution: to be simply out of fellowship, to be in carnality, is not a loss of the fear of the Lord. This is because we have the option of rebound. The fool is the one who rejects rebound and refuses the grace of God. As you grow, you might use this less and less.

We must Understand the Word Fear

1. Fear of the Lord is the essential element to the beginning of knowledge and wisdom. That is why it is elemental to wisdom. We cannot have wisdom without fear. It makes it incumbent for us to understand fear.
2. Yireh has various shades of meaning. It can describe dread or being terrified (Jonah 1:10).
3. It can mean standing in awe, 1Kings 3:28
4. It can mean having respect and reverence. Lev. 19:3
5. Fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, found in Prov. 9:10. It is discipline that leads to wisdom. 15:33 hatred of evil in Prov. 8:18
6. It can lead to a prolonged life.
7. The etymology adds to its understanding. All of these nuances add to the understanding of yireh. Context is important. This fear of the Lord has an historical background. Fear of God goes back historically to dread of a righteous and fearful deity.

These national deities were seen as having foibles. Fear of the Hebrews throughout the Old Testament. They feared the righteous God; this fear was advanced among the Jews. Fear to reverence to the law of God.

God ruled the nation directly. God is absolute sovereignty. The fear, as found in Prov. 1:7, is not some trembling dread that paralyzes a person, hiding in a corner; nor is it just a polite respect. This fear ultimately expresses reverential obedience to the Lord's will and plan. That includes the desire to have knowledge. That was God's objective for Israel and it is still with us today. When we understand who God is. We are believers who study the Bible are the ones who actually know who God is. Other people simply put human attributes with God; they think of God in human terms. We understand His attributes. We understand God to the extent that He has revealed Himself to us. When you know what God is like, an inkling of Who He is and what He has done, this commands respect and reverence. That is the meaning of fear in this context. That is the beginning of knowing Him. The motivation for knowing Him, the impetus for knowing Him; it means more to us than it would mean to anyone else in the world.

We can see the correct attitude, that fear is a versatile and far-reaching word in the Old Testament. We begin to understand how God thinks and what good decisions are. This is what we come to know and how we do it.

What is the relationship between fear, respect and knowledge.

Prov. 1:7 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge; fools despise wisdom and instruction.

Summary of V. 7

1. Or, fear is the very first principle.
2. Fear is the foundation, the first principle of knowledge. It is the beginning.
3. A person cannot gain knowledge if he or she begins at the wrong point. If you do not begin here, you cannot get to the knowledge found in Proverbs. We might say that fear is a living spring of water, and knowledge is what issues from that stream.
4. Therefore, fear of the Lord is the foundation of knowledge. That means the believer who gives reverence to God and His Word will reflect growth and obedience to the plan of God. Because you have the right motive and because you revere God, you get to know Him. If anyone should be able to know the Lord, this is the beginning of knowledge. It continues from there. You have the motive and you begin to understand Who He is. This is the beginning; but it continues. It is the whole spiritual life that is contained in these 7 verses.
5. That is the first principle of the greatest wisdom that can be known; God's wisdom. It is the first principle of growing and abiding in God's plan. This is the summary of how to get there; this is the expansion of the meaning to grow in knowledge of our Lord and Savior.

If this fear is not present, then the believer is confused, lacking divine wisdom. He only has human viewpoint and relative wisdom. Whatever great human knowledge might be gained in science, mathematics, history of philosophy; there is still ignorance, even in a highly educated person. The most brilliant of people are still lacking wisdom. Without the motive for real wisdom. The best they can do is human wisdom.

The believer who fears the Lord knows the God of the universe and he knows the origins of the universe. All science searches for the origins of the universe. We know the God of the universe and we know His creative power. We see it and we experience it. Incredible scientific advance. All of these are discoveries of what God put into motion. The universe did not create itself; its Creator is God. The godless astronomer has no understanding of anything beyond what he can see. His theories are speculative and often contradictory. Some of us may have kept up with the various theories as their continue to be developed. And all of the theories and calculations. But these ideas change constantly. All of those theories are based upon a false premise. They do not fear or reverence the God of the universe. So they cannot have the beginning of knowledge.

The mathematician only knows laws, and these laws come from God. Academic knowledge is fine, but it is incomplete without fear of the Lord.

Bobby is in awe when he sees how the universe works; or just the human body itself. We can attribute it all to the Creator Himself.

Human viewpoint possesses some fragments of the superstructure of knowledge, but not the foundation or the absolute characteristics of truth.

The Limitations of Human Wisdom

1. Human wisdom possesses only fragments of wisdom; but not the foundation.
2. There is not certainty in the knowledge. There is certainty when it can be proven, but there are so many things that cannot be proven. So it is uncertain in many areas.
3. The foundation of spiritual knowledge to attain wisdom is the highest attainment of all. This goes beyond all academic pursuits.
4. No academic pursuit of human knowledge can come close to divine wisdom. Only as human knowledge reflects divine wisdom can it be called complete. You have to admire those who have attained much in human knowledge; who have great skill in scientific realms; and many of us are alive because of what has taken place in many medical discoveries. But even these pursuits cannot equal divine wisdom. It is something which God put into motion. The human body has always been there; we just discover more about it.
5. Spiritual knowledge is the wisdom of doctrine being applied. That brings certainly to life. The most brilliant people who do not fear the Lord. We see this constantly; we see this as certainty.
6. With this wisdom, we glorify God, our fundamental objective in life. What goes along with this, is obedience to His plan. The added bonus is, it preserves the client nation. We preserve our own nation.

Where there is no fear of the Lord, those who achieve the highest of human rewards, but remain willingly ignorant, remain fools who disdain wisdom. We do not need to be a fool. Especially in the eyes of God. Those who disdain it are fools. If you do not reverence God and show Him all respect and honor, then you are the lowest of the low. We know Him. Unbelievers don't know Him.

Application of the fear of the Lord today. There are many similarities between the United States and the northern kingdom. There are parallel times. We are a priest or a client nation, but as Israel was in those days. Missionaries have gone to many parts of the earth. From the pulpits of our country, great messages have come from the pulpits of our nation. Many develop the foundation of knowledge to build and maintain the client nation. The blessings from that have been great and many. Only those in the cosmic system are haters of this nation.

Believers in this country have grown. What is coming from the pulpits of this nation; some of it is absolute disrespect for the Lord. When there is disrespect for the Lord; found in many pulpits today. Our blessings are slipping away in the horrendous human knowledge and values of today, which is in opposition to the Word of God. Instead of reverence, there is the mocking of God; and God will not be mocked. That is wisdom. God will not be mocked ever.

Many believers have no love or reverence for the Lord because they do not know Him. They have no understanding. Biyn understanding and discernment. This does not exist today. The nation in general has become spiritually foolish and anti divine establishment. That happened in the times of Hosea and Jeremiah and it is coming to pass today.

Fools die for lack of understanding.

Is this the center to all problems and their solutions? There is no hope apart from this nation unless believers grow and advance.

Bobby is going to paraphrase these 4 verses:

Gaining knowledge and wisdom in the skills of living the spiritual life. The disciplined training or instruction in that which is worth having. Being able to discern the divine truths of wisdom. That is our objective; that is what is worth having. This is the believer advancing to maturity.

Acquiring something worth having in wise behavior; which is righteousness, justice and equity. The good judgment to make wise decisions. Equity is fair-minded, straight, not prejudice, judgmental or arbitrary or angry or prone to emotionalism. No self control comes in many forms. No control is a lack of equity.

[Giving good sense to the spiritually brainless \[= naive\].](#)

A wise man will hear and he will continue to increase in learning. We are wise if we continue to grow in grace and knowledge. And a man of discernment will acquire wise counsel. This is the counsel of one's own soul developed from learning Bible doctrine. No greater description found in the Bible of the entire spiritual life.

Divine establishment wisdom for believers and unbelievers alike.

Next we will move on to the advantages of wisdom.

Lesson #0018

Proverbs Wisdom in the OT

11/24/2019 1Sunday

When Thanksgiving rolls around, we should be thankful for what we have just studied in the last 2 weeks. No greater description than what is found in Prov. 1:2–7 as a description of the spiritual life. It is not just interesting aphorisms; things we might so use on occasion. This is a description of our spiritual life and its results. We must learn, understand and apply.

Let's move on to the advantages of this wisdom.

Wisdom and Relationships

1. Prov. 3 has wisdom as applied to relationships in life, both with God and with people with whom we associate.
2. All good relationship require good navigation to enjoy them properly. Wisdom in your soul for impersonal love is essential.
3. You get a peaceful and lasting relationship. Peaceful with those with whom you have conflict and for lasting relationships.

Personification refers to inanimate objects or abstract ideas that are endowed with human qualities. It can make some things very human. When you personalize it, it becomes much more real. The ideas of wisdom are presented as a person. People have many ideas about wisdom; but we will study a person who has wisdom.

Wisdom will be personified as a teacher, teaching a student; a father teaching his son what is important in life. This is what a father should teach to a son. This is true of chapters 1–8, as this is all about a teaching father to his son. It pounds home wisdom's merits to a son. A child must learn wisdom in order to make good decisions in life and to expand out future options. We do not want limited future options. We want to open the way for that child.

This is not just wisdom for a son and a father; but profound wisdom for all people who must attain wisdom regardless of one's age. There are many people who still need to grow up. For children, it is doubly important as they begin their lives without any standards. We are born without standards and we continue without standards.

Righteousness, justice and equity; these come from Prov. 1; then this is applied to the person in Prov. 3.

The rewards of virtue beginning with childhood. There is long life; this is a means of long life; and a peaceful life, even in conflict because of peace of soul. A reward of virtue is honor. Most people think of prosperity as wealth and materials goods, but that is not the heart of prosperity. Further, there is the impact of wisdom on relationships. Important for parents who care about their children. All of these virtues in Prov. 3 are based upon the fear or reverence of the Lord. The focus is more on the inner life, rather than on the outer life. How important is that today, whereas so much of life is superficial, self-centered, and materialistic.

The depth of wisdom is truly a gift from the Lord and reflects in our attitude towards Him. Yet this internal thought process, which leads to right actions, is sadly lacking to those who have an outward testimony of it. The truth that they profess has no real place in their lives. They speak of it, but they do not live it. The spiritual life is given lip service. They speak, but they do not do. They make all of the right statements. They have a holy vocabulary; and they speak in certain tones in a certain way that makes you think that they are very spiritual people.

In actual living, wisdom is removed far from them; they do not practice what they preach. This is often important when it comes to a parent and his children. A deficient life. Bobby has examined in his life, how many friends has he retained over a long period of time? These are the greatest relationships. If you are in and out of relations constantly, there may be a problem in your soul. Some of this can reflect bad decisions when it comes to making friends. How do you judge who is worth being around and who isn't?

That is a great indicator of wisdom. Thus a practical necessity of instilling wisdom in our children. So they can make good decisions on their own lives.

A child as a blank slate; and his empty soul must be filled with something. It is our obligation to fill it with something. It must be taught and it must be lived by the parents as an example. The acquisition of wisdom is good sense in life. Living the spiritual life is key for good decisions and capacity for life. Helps to choose wise associations. Wisdom helps you to make choices that are good. What is the criteria for choices.

The proverb here is written by Solomon and he is the student/child here. He was taught a great deal of doctrine by his father, David. He taught Solomon when Solomon was young. He is passing on this phileo wisdom to all parents.

Prov. 3:1 My son, do not forget my teaching, but let your heart keep my commandments,...

Antithetical Parallelism of Prov. 3:1.

1. There are two decisions to be made here.
2. General educational discipline. Do not forget and listen.
3. This is what a student must do to learn. There were many courses that you never thought about again; others there might be application for your future. You keep it and you use it for your future. Do not forget and keep....
4. The son is urged negatively here.
5. The student must hear and then retain. That is the sequence of learning.

6. Application is a by-product of this process. More wisdom that will fill your soul and the more that you can apply under all circumstances. Bobby uses the example of a golfer; you keep doing it over and over again the same way and it becomes a part of your muscle memory. Same thing for spiritual wisdom. There is a promise and an application and a rationale; and that is your first line of defense. This is the faith-rest technique. It requires first having that wisdom and doctrine in your soul.

Solomon commends a lifelong pursuit of wisdom. Solomon certainly had problems in his life and he tried everything else, which did not take him everywhere that he wanted to go. This was to be a lifelong pursuit. It is open-ended; it continues. The depths of wisdom are unfathomable.

Bobby began by reading the Proverbs. Great depth of wisdom there and we could study this book until the end of our lives. We could make decisions to choose wisdom.

shâkach (שָׁחַךְ) [pronounced shaw-KAHKH], which means, to forget; to forget and leave; to forsake, to abandon.

Bobby taught the teenage class for 10 years. He was teaching wisdom. He taught the Song of Solomon; calling it Sex, Drugs and Rock and Roll.

Some of us provide wisdom for our children; and then they break your heart because they leave it behind. We can do nothing about that. All Bobby can do is teach wisdom and given us the tools and the options and the opportunity. But there is volition on the other side which will accept or not. Bad decisions limit future options. Narrowing the future life significantly.

There may be application for all of us, even as grown up. It is never too late.

Prov. 3:1 My son, do not forget my teaching, but let your heart keep my commandments,...

Lesson #0019

Proverbs Wisdom in the OT

11/24/2019 2Sunday

“Most of you know that I do not have children.” What qualifies you to teach parents, as you have not been one? It is what is written in the Word of God. It is wisdom. Bobby is giving what the Scripture says; he is not giving his own techniques for parenthood. Nevertheless, truth is truth.

We all need what is here. This is wisdom personified as a teacher. Wisdom is teaching us. It is good for all of us at any age.

Prov. 3:1 My son, do not forget my teaching, but let your heart keep my commandments,...

Wisdom is speaking; and this is learning and teaching. Every teacher hopes that his students will learn this. How can it be more important than what a parent tells a child. Children sometimes do not listen, and they do not always heed or retain all the teaching that they receive. It is tough sledding when you realize what you are up against. But wisdom supercedes all of it.

Learning Wisdom as a Child

1. Speaking wisdom is the knowledge that must be gained. It must be presented. It can be done in many ways. Bobby's mother read to him. And there was Bob and he was different. Bobby sat in the congregation.
2. More importantly is living it; reenforcement for children. That which we must remember and keep. We learn by what we experience and observe. That experience comes from the circumstances in which we find ourselves. What does the child do in the face of evil and the controversial decisions that they make? They need a little practice to start with. Do they know the difference between bad decisions and wise behavior? Do they have any wisdom in their souls? They are bombarded every day with the cosmic system. Bottom line is, as a parent, are you a role model of wisdom? Do they see the advantages of wisdom in their own home? Do they hear or do they experience it as well.
3. Two methods of teaching, word of mouth and living it. They can hear and see the results.

Bob was the most gracious, loving parent that anyone could want. But Bobby saw the Bible doctrine that he lived and applied. He did not understand it at first. He saw a gracious and grace oriented person, to this day. He went to seminary and they bad-mouthed Bobby; he was able to correct them on that subject. Bobby was taught constantly by his mother, and Bob reenforced this by the way that he lived. It is not what I say; it is what I do that matters.

Teaching is the feminine plural of a Hebrew word tôwrah (תּוֹרָה or תּוֹרָה) [pronounced TOH-rah], which often refers to the Law of Moses. Usually, when this noun appears in a text without any qualifiers, it is divine Law.

Torah

1. Torah here is qualified by the injunction, do not forget.
2. So, it does not refer to Old Testament Law. Not specifically.
3. It specifically refers to the home teaching, the wisdom of doctrine. Instruction to be implanted in the soul of the child, never to be forgotten.
- 4.
5. God wrote the Ten Commandments on tablets of stone. Just so, it must be written indelible in stone in the soul of the child; this is inculcation by teaching and by example. This indicates that we need some wisdom. We can teach academically; but it does not work in the home with children unless that information is in the soul of the parents. They must grow in wisdom as well.

This verse urges spiritual instruction; it does not support home schooling. This is spiritual instruction where the parents have the authority. Or also at prep school. Church instruction is not a substitute for parental teaching of a child. Do not turn over that responsibility to church. Their little souls want to be independent and they watch you constantly. Prep school is a supplement to parental teaching in the home. It should be a supplement and a reinforcement. Great teaching in prep school; but greater effect when heard at home as well.

Teaching in the Home

1. Home schooling, it is difficult to inculcate wisdom into them and they constantly hear cosmic system thinking. Bobby grew up in Houston and he went to a great ISD school. It was not propaganda. But that is what we have today. It is infinite absolute a political platform for anti-divine establishment. Some parents do not want their children exposed to that. Parents often teach at home. But there is the socialization process that they miss; and they do not face the propaganda. The parent has to decide. You might even want to go to private school. Our obligation for spiritual instruction in the home. Home teaching in the home includes manners. So few real manners today; simple things. A world of feminism that demands that they treat a woman equally. This goes against much of the training that we have had, which is respect for women. That is what manners often are. Bobby had to seat his mother every time that they went out. To this day, Bobby does it. It shows respect. This can be taught as respect for womanhood. You do that for your sister as well. Impersonal love.
2. Respect for others in the home. Some of the greatest brawls in history occur in the home. If you have to fight, do not do it in front of the children; do it in private.
3. Respect for the property of others. If that is in someone else's car and I want it, should I not take it? Or putting graffiti on property.
4. Reinforcing good decisions based upon common sense and spiritual sense.
5. Biblical wisdom principles, taught and applied by the parents. How critical is parental knowledge and attitude and living doctrine? Parents lives constitute instruction for children. It is not, do as I say, not as I do. Which one will they listen to? They won't do it if you don't. Without parental demonstration of wisdom, it is likely that the child won't do what you ask of them.

If the children do not see the advantages of wisdom and they only see the cosmic system; and its enticements, then you have lost them to the cosmic system. Teaching is one way of protecting them from it. That is the positive side. It is a protection.

Bobby knows many times that he was faced with some very interesting situations. Bobby, when he was close to 17, allowed him to let him drive to Mexico to surf. They trusted Bobby. You can get into some serious trouble when in a car with guys of the same age. Bobby learned good standards. He had a good time; but he did not get into serious trouble. He cannot vouch for the other guys. "Go ahead, I trust you," his dad said. At some point, you have to cut the child loose. You can only give them the tools to make good decisions.

Bobby gives this stories because some people think that he has never lived life at all. He has lived a full life; and he has made his share of decisions, good and bad. Wisdom works and doctrine works and you must give that to children. We all want this for children. This is one of the reasons that Bobby wanted to teach Proverbs. This is the operation of the spiritual life; and how we apply it and to whom we apply it. Children learn very well by our setting an example of doctrinal and practical wisdom for them.

When some driver would do something really stupid, Bob would hop out of the car and correct them. That is not very good training. That may have led him to impersonal love, being in traffic. You apply every doctrine known to man and in Scripture. Sometimes the bad examples get you into the most trouble. Not something Bob should have done; that was his nature. It was offset by so many other things. Children are more likely to follow your lead when they get on with their own life; and they know that it works to their advantage. They may sow some wild oats, but they have been given the foundation for wisdom in their growing souls. They will retain it for the future.

Here's the Principle

1. You set the pattern for remembering or forgetting the doctrine in their souls.
2. If they are in rebellion, they will still be cognizant of the message that they hear and see from you as a parent. They hear it and they see it.
3. It will be implanted in the recesses of their souls. How many of you had to say to pledge of allegiance in school? You could stand up and say it now. Also, HISD had the Lord's prayer as well at that time. You may not say it everyday, but you know it.
4. When confronting various circumstances and by using positive volition, the child will return to it at a later time. Some of us have seen this in action and you thank God that you spent the time to give your children some doctrine. You still did your job. And they came back.
5. It may require some very hard knocks to activate positive volition. That is the result of bad decisions in life.
6. It is never too late to use wisdom and to move past those bad decisions. There are still results of them; problems that come from them; and you can even handle the repercussions of the bad decisions. The results of your spiritual life are beyond belief.

When you have taught and demonstrated, the children will have the information to draw upon later. They will know how to make good decisions and to draw upon to counter the bad decisions that they have made. Their rebellion will cause some pain in your life and in theirs. Anti-authority does have repercussions.

Submitting to Authority

1. Submitting to authority is a natural part of life; and our sin natures are rebellious. We must learn it.
2. Authority is not a loss of freedom. Authority maintains freedom.

3. You cannot have freedom without authority. The two of them must coexist.
4. Otherwise, society degenerates to every man doing what is right in his own eyes. Deut. 12:8 no authority means everything becomes relative. We see that right now in this country. Society is degenerating. We like to think we are getting better but we are not.
5. The rule of law is lost as is something very individual. You are not going to make decisions which matter or last.
6. Submitting to Biblical authorities is not a loss of freedom; it enhances freedom. People think that followed Biblical law means we will have no fun in life. The mandates and rules mean that we will have limitations in life. We are kept in the parameters of divine standards. Righteousness, justice and equity. That is the most fulfilling life. When you go outside of this, your life goes to pieces.
7. Arrogance challenges any legitimate system of authority. The attitude that we see today is a challenge to authority. Authority of the parents over the children; of the husband over the wife; divine establishment authority like government and law authority. Or authority in the military, in the classroom, management over labor, teacher in the classroom. Illegitimate authority. The attainment of power without the lawful right to attain that power. The false doctrine of religion. Today, the children of this country face all of this and more.

It is even more incumbent upon us to teach in the home Bible doctrine. Correct authority; not tyranny. God gives us the opportunity to make correct application; they will have the tools to do it, just as we do.

Lesson #0020                      Proverbs 3:1 22:6    Wisdom in the OT    12/1/2019    1Sunday

What are you thankful for? We understand that thanksgiving is totally about the grace of God. The grace oriented believer has more to be thankful for than anyone else on this earth; and we are thankful for it every day.

Prov. 3 is a wonderful lesson in wisdom. Prov. 2–9 are addressed by a father to a son (or any parent to any child). This is specifically David's training of Solomon. Solomon wrote 3000 proverbs himself and 1000 songs. 1Kings 4:30. His wisdom was renown. What is amazing for us; we can listen to this teaching of wisdom that took place 3000 years ago, from 2 of the wisest men who have ever lived.

Prov. 3:1 My son, do not forget My teaching, but let your heart keep My commandments,...

David is formally teaching Solomon; but this may or many not be a formal setting. To children, teaching is a necessity; but a formal setting is not always the most important aspect. A father and son can participate in a number of events together and the father can then can begin the teaching.

“Don’t blow this off, Solomon. You need to hear and remember this.” This is an authoritative warning from David. Heed the wisdom that I have. Forget and keep are both Qal imperfects. This is not simply hearing and regurgitating wisdom; it is retaining it and metabolizing it, and applying it. David hopes to inculcate wisdom into the soul of Solomon. He is not just verbally placing this into Solomon’s soul. David has lived wisdom; he began as a shepherd and he showed his wisdom early on. We do not know exactly how or when. Was there a teacher provided for him? This seems logical. Somewhere in here, David learned wisdom. He utilized this wisdom throughout his entire life.

David asks, facing Goliath, “Who is this loudmouth threatening the troops of Israel, the troops of the ever-living God.” God’s plan is not for us to cower in front of one of God’s enemies. Solomon has heard and he has observed his father’s thinking and his actions. He listens and he learns. It is not just what you say, but how you apply and how you live. And it is how your life unfolds in how you grow and apply.

There needs to be more than hearing on the part of Solomon; but he needs to accept this information as his own path and for his own benefit. He must orient to the authority of wisdom, which is personified in his father. It is not just about the wisdom that he hears but the wisdom that he applies. Solomon must hear and then apply. This is the rub. The children do not always want to heed and retain the wisdom being taught them. There is humanism which is in conflict with it; or peer pressure.

Quite often, the child rebels against the teaching and training of their parents. At some point, we have all rebelled. We must not give up as parents, in word and deed.

The most important part of our teaching, particular after the children have reached double-digits, that we are to lead them by our own example. Leading by example is far more effective. If they see this wisdom works in your life, they may learn to apply it to their own lives. When children confront various circumstances—particularly adversity—we have all been in situations where we have rebelled. We know the doctrine in our souls is what is important. If we are teens or in prep school, many children hear and pay attention even when you do not think that they are. What does this wisdom mean to you? How do you apply it? They especially notice what happens in adversity.

Some of us were young and our parents were religious about giving us doctrine; and we rejected that at some point. It is amazing how the Lord works. He directs our paths...not only in the way of righteousness and the way to get to righteousness. He can kick our butts better than anyone else than we can imagine. When we have taught and demonstrated wisdom, in the end, they can make good decisions in life and overcome the bad decisions.

Prov. 22:6 Train up a child in the way he should go; even when he is old he will not depart from it.

Training up a Child

1. Train means to dedicate.
2. A child's volition.
3. How is this done? Words of guidance and discipline and encouragement. Children need encouragement as much as they need discipline. Encourage their little souls.
4. Show your own dedication to Bible doctrine. If you are not dedicated to doctrine, they will not be dedicated to doctrine. Some drop their children off for prep school and go off. Is this a great example of learning doctrine? If Bible doctrine is not important to mom and dad, why would it be important to me? Teach Bible doctrine, but do not ram it down their throats. Too much and you can exacerbate reaction and rebellion. Use some common sense. That is simply the proper way to apply the wisdom that you have.

Bobby knows people who require their children to sit down and listen to doctrine together. It might be 15 min. or 30 min. or the teen tapes. Bob calls out Bobby even at that time. Parents have done that; and that does contribute to good discipline, especially when they are young. This is something that they must do all of their lives. This is the most important thing that they have gotten in life. Some kids have grown up and attested to the effectiveness of the teaching.

Song of Songs, Bobby taught as Sex, drugs and rock'n'roll. Bible doctrine was never forced on Bobby. Stability and love of his parents was obvious and life made sense to Bobby in those circumstances, because wisdom was imparted. He heard it and he saw it as well. Much better that the parents teach it. No matter how busy you are in life, it is your obligation as a parent to teach your children.

The caveat and the full picture of Prov. 22:6. He wants us to fully understand what it means. This will give us greater understanding. And we can be relaxed about our children.

Prov. 3:1 My son, do not forget My teaching, but let your heart keep My commandments,...

Lesson #0021

Proverbs Wisdom in the OT

12/1/2019 2Sunday

Some may have been thinking, what does this mean to mean? I am not a parent? Remember, all Scripture is profitable, in some way. This information is still applicable to us. Even if your children are long-since grown, you have grandchildren and great grandchildren. It is never too late for children, grown or not.

The Proverbs passage. Train up a child, is a title for one of the Thieme books. You can train or dedicate yourself to teaching. Many have said, my kids have rebelled, and here is this passage. They are not interested now; they have rejected it for now. Many believers have been disappointed when their children do not return to Bible doctrine; or they are angry at God.

Bobby is going to define v. 6 in greater detail.

Prov. 22:6 Train up a child in the way he should go; even when he is old he will not depart from it.

The Promise of Prov. 22:6

1. This verse is not a divine guarantee or an iron-clad promise. These are general promises. Young or old, this does not mean that they will always return.
2. Even though they are well-trained in wisdom, early in life, it is not a done deal. That does not excuse you from training; nor does it excuse you either.
3. Volition is key. Positive or negative volition is always involved. People make good and bad decisions.
4. Volition is always a part of the equation of returning to wisdom, after departing from it. Our obligation as a parent is to teach and to live by example. We impart the wisdom and doctrine that is necessary.
5. What Prov. 22:6 assures to parents is, lessons learned in childhood will last a lifetime. What you teach will last. At a young age, children are open to teaching. Bobby's mother would read to him stories from the Bible. He loved these stories. There were many ways to teach. We as a parent must be sometimes very creative. When you do it, it will be there; even when we are a little older.
6. Lessons driven home by parents at that crucial stage in their lives will not go away. It is there, but remember volition.
7. Doctrine has been implanted and will remain in their consciousness; suppressed perhaps, but it will be there.
8. They will understand the concepts of wisdom, even if they fail to use those lessons; or at least for a time. It can be heart-breaking for a parent to see a child reject these things.
9. Imparting doctrine is the best the parent can do. This is your #1 job. Parenting is difficult. Your main job is to train. You teach them all that they need to live. You need to give them what they need for life.

Bob told Bobby that he became a believer at age 4, because he could repeat the gospel and he believed it. The believer at age 30 needs the same thing as the child of age 4, if they are baby believers.

If a parent accomplishes the teaching of doctrine, no matter when the child expresses negative volition, you have done your job and it is up to them. There is a very strong possibility and the doctrine in their souls and a few hard knocks, that they might return to the accurate understanding of truth. The parent has every part to play in that.

The parent's teaching a child when they are young gives the child the best chance of spiritual growth in the future. The child will choose the way that they will go. The parent cannot control the volition of the child. We have influence and it had better be good and it had better be wisdom.

The child who rejects the gospel. If you have imparted Bible doctrine to them and divine establishment to them, they can live a better life. You can only do your job to the best of your ability. That is what the wisdom of Solomon demands. Give them the teaching for a future successful life and wisdom. Children are really just blank slates and they are waiting to be taught. That empty soul must be filled. Without that teaching or knowledge, a vacuum opens up and sucks in all the cosmic system garbage which is all around them. Whatever impresses them is what they will inculcate. You can teach them many things about how to live life; but if you do not include doctrine in that, in one form or another, you have not given them all that is necessary. This is a constant battle for their souls.

Prov. 3:1 My son, do not forget My teaching, but let your heart keep My commandments,...

The word heart in the second part of this verse; and the Greek equivalent is καρδια. This is not the physical blood pumper, but the spiritual center of your life.

The Heart

1. This refers to the inner person, the soul, the seat of mentality and decision making.
2. The heart is where wisdom is metabolized. This is the right lobe of the soul.
3. Leb and the metabolizing process involve the background of keeping the commandments. Prov. 3:1
4. Fill the soul with wisdom so that it can be applied to a life of wisdom.

Bobby hauls out the operation Z overlay.

Keep is the Qal imperfect of natsar. This demands the retention of wisdom in your soul.

Psalms 119:11 Your Word is treasured in my heart that I might not sin against You.

Treasured the Word in My Heart

1. Treasured Hebrew word.
2. It means to hide or to store away or to preserve in one's heart.
3. To store away or to preserve is parallel to keep Prov. 3:1b; parallel verbs.
4. That is what happens to metabolized wisdom in the right lobe of the soul.
5. Hence the teaching is kept in the soul, certainly for recall; and also for application. It is easy to recall if you have it in your soul; and applying it is key.
6. Keeping in the heart is the same process as operation Z in the New Testament. You are storing it aside for future use.
7. Keeping is the result of metabolizing doctrine for wisdom.

You retain the doctrine in your soul so it is there so you can pull it up.

Psalm 119:11 I have stored up Your Word in my heart, that I might not sin against You.

More on Psalm 119:11

1. Accumulating a store of divine principles is a defense against sin. This is not legalism. What doctrine does is provide principles of the spiritual life and staying in fellowship and continuing to grow. Rebound puts you back in fellowship to grow. As you grow, you spend less time out of fellowship. Hence you are living the spiritual life. This is a process.
2. If doctrine is in your soul, you can get out of it.
3. This is also a defense against the cosmic system falsehoods. This includes divine establishment as over against humanism. These principles are your sure defense. This is so that you might discern falsehood in it. This includes the doctrine of demons that we find in 1Tim. 4:1. There is doctrine in the cosmic system. This includes humanism, socialism, equality.
4. This is a defense against bad decisions, which lead to wrong actions. The wrong actions might be fun, but it brings on self-induced misery. You have a good time for awhile, but then you have the misery in your soul. It destroys your happiness in life. You have peace in life.

We continue the thought of v. 1, especially if you have been on the hot seat.

Prov. 3:2 ...for length of days and years of life and peace they [the commandments of God being kept in the soul] will add to you.

This is a reward, at least one of them. This is also a reward for the child, who has been trained up in his soul. If you want a long life of peace, then make some good decisions. Now, maybe you know someone who is spiritually mature and they died at an early age.

Honor your father and mother, that your days in the land may be long.

You gain common sense and you make good decisions in your life. This is honoring father and mother. Length of days and years means living the spiritual life with doctrine. Each day is another day that the Lord has made, that the Lord has given us. It is filled with marvelous and great blessings. One of the great blessings in life is a life of peace.

Do you have peace and quiet in your home? Or do you have riot and confusion? Do you long to leave your home and enjoy peace. It is high time that you learn how to do this. The key is the blessing of Prov. 3:2.

You first must understand the Hebrew word peace, which is shalom. It is health and long life and personal peace. This is the center of your life and one of the great blessings of life.

Lesson #0022

Proverbs Wisdom in the OT 12/4/2019 Wednesday

Prov. 3:1 My son, do not forget my teaching, but let your heart keep my commandments,...

David is speaking to Solomon.

Prov. 3:2 ...for length of days and years of life and peace they will add to you.

This is a promise of a long life. Most people prefer to live a long and happy life. Many look towards medicine to prolong their life; or a healthy lifestyle, or doing things in moderation.

Prov. 3:2 tells us that it is the spiritual life which adds days and years to our lives. A believer's life is extended, to live the spiritual life in wisdom, day after day.

Our life span follows the plan of God. We have volition; and we may or may not live the plan of God for our lives. We may or may not live according to God's plan. Living the spiritual life can extend our lives. Our life can be extended to live a life of spiritual wisdom and doctrine. Each extended day is another day to serve the Lord and a day to do just that. Each day is another day to move ahead. Marvelous and wonderful blessings from the grace of God.

Gaining wisdom is the key to a long life span; an extended life span. One of the great blessings in life is the word peace, shalom is what we would hear in Israel. It has several encouraging meanings in the Old Testament

Shalom

1. This originally meant wholeness, completeness of conditions.
2. It was also used for bodily health in Gen. 29:6
3. Used for political agreement in Judges 4:17
4. Used of friendly relations between people. It is an actual relationship that is friendly.
5. Jer. 33:6 It can be used for national something.

Shalom 2

1. This can be used for inner happiness in any life.
2. This means a life of contentment, free from inner conflict; and from the stress of outward circumstances. Absolute wisdom from God is that which solves our personal problems.
3. Only God's absolute wisdom is a permanent solution, unlike human relative wisdom. Bobby spent a number of classes defining this.
4. Problems are resolved in our own soul through Bible doctrine. This includes faith rest; which is another way of understanding shalom. That is rather desirable.
5. The result is peace in the soul and a stress-free life.

This is not a life free from adversity. That is never the case in this world. We will always have adversity in this life. You cannot live a life without adversity; but it does not have to become stress. Psalm 4:8 In peace I will both lie down and sleep; for you alone, O LORD, make me dwell in safety. This is how we make this work. God makes David dwell in safety and in peace. David knows doctrine; he has wisdom; he knows that God has a plan for his life; he knows that his life is in the hands of the Lord. David always faced adversity. He had his own sins; his family making trouble for him; nations all around made trouble for him. Yet, he can lie down and sleep calmly and in safety. David lies down and sleeps peacefully. But so many people cannot sleep when they lay down, because they are filled with the concerns of life. David might be surrounded by conflict and enemies; and yet, he could find peace in his life. He always called upon the Lord and His wisdom for that peace.

What a great word for peace. Shalom is our life. People always strive for such a life. No one is free of conflict. But one can be free of the mental attitude sins related to such conflict. There is only one way to achieve the peace of a relaxed mental attitude to the maximum. There are times that we can do that; there are times that we can have adversity and still enjoy life.

There are also those times when a brand new adversity comes to us, and we become concerned about it. Prosperity can get us off-track just as much as adversity can. Under prosperity, we might reject Bible doctrine because we don't feel that we need any help when we are sitting pretty.

There is always conflict and something is going to bother you. Something will bother you more than anything else, and that is the test that you will get.

Prov. 3:2 ...for length of days and years of life and peace they will add to you.

An enjoyable life; an abundant life. That is a great life. The spiritual life is the greatest life. We are promised a life of peace of soul; you have an attitude of peace. The rest of the world does not have this. People are not in conflict inwardly, despite what is happening all around them.

You may have the question, what is a long life? Bobby saw his grandfather live to 103 and it was not a good age. In the past, a great life span might be 40.

Does everyone get to define the long life in their own mentality. The plan of God is going to run its course for every believer according to God's good timing.

The Extension of the Believer's Life

1. God's plan here could be seen as extended.
2. When is it extended? Under the circumstances of spiritual growth and an advance to maturity. The key to a long and happy life.

3. The more mature, the more useful that a person is in God's plan. The more you know, the more you can apply, the more useful that you are to God. As you have a relaxed mental attitude, your gift can operate to the maximum.
4. The result is a long life span.
5. The same is true of a shortened life. The believer refuses the grace of God; he rejects Bible doctrine. He can die the sin unto death. Or a person can commit suicide. Did God know that you would do something like this in eternity past? Yes, but God does not tamper with your volition. God still gives you an extended life of service. God simply knows. He still provides every resource for us to have a long and happy life. Bobby has observed that many pastors and evangelists fall into this category of an extended life, when they teach Bible doctrine accurately and they teach the gospel. Bobby's father and grandfather; Billy Graham. Professors in seminary that Bobby had. They had extended lives. There are men, even if bad health, live much longer than expected. Extended life is promised to those who serve God.

Logically, those who operate as mature believers, God will extend their lives as well. We do not have a specific spiritual gift that extends our life. All of this falls under Prov. 3:2. Whatever the span of our life on this earth.

We also have the chance to enjoy a long life with a relaxed mental attitude. You can start out going in the wrong direction; but when you return, it does not matter.

Faith rest under these circumstances is in full operation and on display.

You may have objectives for yourself; but your first objective is growing up spiritually and exploiting the spiritual life.

There is an oft-asked question, what about the wicked and evil who have long lives. God did not promise them long lives.

The Wicked with a Long Life

1. What about the person who talks about his long life, but they live long. It is the same principle, but in reverse.
2. They might be kept around so cause you to move on to spiritual maturity.
3. That person may serve as an impetus to us to serve the Lord with great eagerness and strength. We see them and can determine our own objectives in life. The more that you know of doctrine, the more they can look at you and see what you have.
4. There is nothing like evil men or women in the land; and that includes the United States of America. This can spur others to live for the Lord.
5. This is a test of the faith rest drill. This can be our ticket to shalom.
6. It is also for us the demonstration of the effectiveness of the spiritual life in adversity. We get to see the other side and we want no part of it. There is faith rest; there is shalom.

7. Therefore, evil ones can be a motive for accelerated, spiritual growth. That is shalom.

The politicians are insane up there; they have gone out of their minds; and they are against the rule of law.

If You Start to Have Problems with Wicked People

1. Evil persons or those without wisdom will live in turmoil of soul all the days of their lives. They may look like they are having great fun on the outside. But they are never satisfied. Their lives are filled with turmoil
2. In their souls, there is constant agitation, anger, hatred, dissatisfaction, friction, using human defense mechanisms, and they are still unable to cope with life. We all know people in that situation. They are just like that. That is why we can have such an impact in this world.
- 3.
4. Those people, the evil ones, have to blame others for their own inadequacies and failures. That is how they solve their problems. Blame others. Blame institutional problem. Blame everyone else for what you have done wrong. Put it on them. That is what happens in the souls of such people. God uses such people for His Own purposes.

Have you ever noticed that human activists are never satisfied. Activism never brings a peace of soul. It is constant agitation. Everything must be protested; everything must be fought. But they cannot solve the ills of mankind with humanism. They think that they are going to solve a problem, and stuff it back in the box; but out pops another problem. Never will they have a life of peace. Activism is turmoil. Christian activism is evil for that very reason. There is no peace of soul. Some of the most rabid people in the greatest turmoil are the anti-abortionists. Bobby is talking about their attitude. Their attitude is anything but peaceful. Such people are absolutely out of their minds with fear and anger and agitation. That is not shalom. They are so frustrated; but we have the personal solution.

The result, a relaxed mental attitude goes with it. Bible doctrine and divine establishment are the only permanent solutions for us in a world of constant turmoil. If you have a problem with something happening in this world, speak against it; but you might not solve the problem in the world. You cannot solve the problems of the devil's world by your activism. If you want to see solutions for problems, often the key is prayer. We pray for so many and we see results. Prayer is the most powerful weapon; activism is not.

Prov. 3:3 Let not steadfast love and faithfulness forsake you; bind them around your neck; write them on the tablet of your heart.

This urges the development of wisdom and peace. “Do not let kindness and truth leave you.” Shalom is kindness and truth.

Prov. 3:3 Do not let steadfast love and faithfulness forsake you; bind them around your neck; write them on the tablet of your heart.

Writing on the tablet of your right lobe. These are two of the most beautiful poetic metaphors. There is a synonymous parallel. Let your heart keep My commandments. This is what David taught his son Solomon.

Note the parallel we have with:

Prov. 3:1 My son, do not forget my teaching, but let your heart keep my commandments,...

When you have developed this wisdom, you can review what is in your right lobe. You can use this information for making decisions. This truly is a beautiful metaphor. The teaching becomes a part of your nature, guiding your thought process, which influences your every thought and action. What you think is what you are. When you think wisdom, you are wisdom and you live wisdom. It is indelibly written on the right lobe of your soul.

The Ten Commandments are the preface for all the commandments and knowledge.

A Synonymous Parallelism

1. This is a synonymous parallel; bind them around your neck and write them on the tablet of your heart. They define one another.
2. To bind is the Qal imperative qashar.
3. It is a command to bind, to fix together.
4. This binding around the neck does not indicate putting on some ornamentation, like a beautiful necklace that is worn at specific times. You might wear a necklace as an ornamentation to compliment your look.

Qashar

1. Leagued together around your neck is a seal or a signet ring around you neck.
2. That signet ring or seal are kept near to the person's body. Qashar is binding together permanently.
3. This is very important to the person.
4. This is not something to be removed or put aside. This was his identification. This was his business card; it was always in use. It was leagued to him. It was attached to him. It was his seal or his mark for that period of time. He used this seal to conduct all transactions in one's life. We would carry a driver's license in a wallet or a purse. Some even carry a wallet attached a wallet on a chain. Probably everyone in this room has their driver's license with them. It is the same concept as the signet ring in the ancient world. A permanent attachment always ready to be used.

That Which Is Found Around Your Neck

1. What is bound around the neck stands for something else.
2. Never separated from a person; too important for living.
3. This binding for kindness and truth must be a permanent part of your life. You must never be without these things.
4. It is the sign of the mature spiritual life of wisdom and discernment, which should never leave you. Only we can write this on the tablet of our heart. For us, it is always useful; you never take it off.
5. This identifies the retention and application of that wisdom to life.
6. It must be bound to us permanently ready to be used at any moment under any circumstance.

What is kindness and truth that must not leave you?

What Are the Attributes Kindness and Truth

1. These are the things that you must never be without.
2. These form the characteristics of the wisdom that is bound around your neck and written on your heart.
3. This is a wisdom that must never be lost and never betrayed. If you do, you are out of the filling of the Holy Spirit, you can no longer apply; and too much of it means reversionism for you.

Learning and retaining this wisdom for a lifetime is what David was teaching Solomon to keep for a lifetime. These two words you must never forget and keep in the right lobe of your soul. It is the signet ring of Solomon and of David. It is their identification and ours.

So what are these two characteristics to which we are bound?

Kindness Is a Very Common Hebrew Word Chesed

1. Chesed is mostly translated by the English word love; it is covered extensively as the unfailing love of God. This is His persistent, enduring love. Psalm 100:5
2. Chesed is the primary term for God's commitment to His people. It reminds us that this is the primary term for God's commitment to us. It is undying; it is unassailable. It becomes a doctrine, a rationale of the faith rest drill. This is the way that we live our life. It also refers to reciprocal love and loyalty to Him and to each other. This is a very relational sort of word. It is very important to never let it go.
3. This also applies to Israel's attachment to the Law.
4. Prov. 3:3 what is bound around the neck and written in the heart is chesed; the word is the attribute of loyalty. Loyalty was critical when David taught this to Solomon. Loyalty up and loyalty down. Do not lose it; do not ever forget it, Solomon.
5. Loyalty is persistent fidelity to obligations which arise from a relationship, whether personal, corporate or national.

6. The first relationship is between us and God; being loyal to Him and His Word. This is love in the basic sense of chesed. This is the basic sense of chesed. That is not forgetting and keeping His commandments.
7. It also refers to other people in your life. This principle might be described as keeping one's word when it has been given. Not welching on an obligation; your word is your bond. The mark of your signet ring. It is your signature on a contract. It is the epitome of love of others. People in this congregation have taken others for a ride for their money; that is the opposite of chesed. There are churches today which fleece their congregations. That is a lack of loyalty; that is a lack of love for the congregation.
8. If you love God, then you are loyal to Him; as you must be to anyone that you love. If you are not loyal to that person, you do not love them. Would you go behind their back? Would you bilk them for their money?
9. You keep the Lord's wisdom in your soul, bound and written; always ready to use it to apply to any situation. That is being loyal to it. When you metabolize doctrine, you will write it on the tablet of your soul.
10. In doing this you maintain and enduring loyalty and devotion to God. It is also a characteristic of love. How do you have devotion to God? This is constant; this is your signet ring; this is the way that you live, think and act.
11. The enduring devotion is the staying power of your spiritual life. That is what drives it; what keeps it going. Keeps it from wandering off.
12. No one and nothing can remove that chesed from around your neck or from the tablet of your heart. Removing it is forgetting it.
13. This is what makes human relationships work on a personal level; to people, to spouses, to organizations to your nation. This the mark of your spiritual life.
14. This is a binding quality, based in this context of the parental teaching of divine wisdom to the child. If not to the child; to the grownup child; or to the naive, the napios who cannot take in anything but milk.
15. This is how life is under persistent divine control really works. The result, the teaching of wisdom; it must be retained. It must be applied. Loyalty which demonstrates love; real love. If you have a relationship that you think is a good one; if it lacks loyalty, there is nothing in it. In marriage, there must be loyalty. If your friends are not loyal to you, they are not friends. That is wisdom. Sometimes we choose friends or spouses based upon what they can do for us.

Thus the great quality of chesed is developed by binding it around your neck and writing it upon your heart.

The next One Is Truth

1. This is the Hebrew noun emet. ʿěmeth (אמת) [pronounced EH-meth]. Better translated here faithfulness. A great companion word to chesed.
2. Necessary for every relationship in life.
3. This is a key word for God complete reliability in word and deed. God is faithful in all that He does with us and for us.

4. The people's pledge for...
5. Hosea's pledge was all about Gomer. He was very loyal to God's demands of him, which included those that involved Gomer. He had undying faithfulness to an unfaithful wife. Gomer represented unfaithful Israel; Hosea represented God.
6. His relationships with God and man were based upon retaining wisdom. Hosea had peace and contentment despite of the adversity.

Your vows are the beginning of a lifetime of loyalty to one another. You make sure that the relationship endures. To do so, you need loyalty and faithfulness to him.

In the context of v. 3, emeth is that which can be depended upon. These are not to be lost, forgotten or broken; as spiritual muscle memory. You bind it as it goes in. This is where you take notes and remember it. You know that you cannot think without a vocabulary. You think with words. Vocabulary is critical. Theological vocabulary from R. B. Thieme, Jr. was sheer genius. The categorical storage and the doctrines which are broken down. The parameters of the norms of your life. Then you develop momentum in the spiritual life. It ends up being wisdom in your stream of consciousness, ready to remember and to apply.

David is telling Solomon, "I want you to be great, son. I want you to bind this information to your heart. This is the signet ring that you will have and hold onto." That would be the harbinger of great things to come for Solomon and his life.

Bobby's parents trusted him where he was allowed to drive across Mexico. You train your children and, at some point, you have to trust them.

Prov. 3:3 Do not let steadfast love and faithfulness forsake you; bind them around your neck; write them on the tablet of your heart.

Lesson #0024

Proverbs Wisdom in the OT

12/8/2019 1Sunday

There are a group of young people and teachers providing Bible doctrine to young minds. Prep school has given the foundation of Bible doctrine to those who press on. Prov. 3:1, 3 go right along with prep school. These verses urge Solomon to listen and retain the wisdom being taught to him. This is a one-on-one teaching session of David. As believing parents, there is nothing more important than teaching a child divine viewpoint. The same principle applies to any believer. No believer, no matter the age or anything but spiritual children, until they continue to grow in grace and knowledge. We all begin as children, no matter how old we are in the spiritual life.

4 times in Prov. 3:1, 3, David makes this exact point.

Prov. 3:1 My son, do not forget my teaching, but let your heart keep my commandments,...

Prov. 3:3 Do not let steadfast love and faithfulness forsake you; bind them around your neck; write them on the tablet of your heart.

V. 3 repeats these same thoughts, but in a different way. The wisdom is to be kept close and taught. The signet ring was like a driver's license to us today. Keep this close, my son, just like the royal signet ring that you carry.

Then write them on the tablet of your heart. Leb and kardia both refer to the thinking part of the soul, where such information is held. Solomon is to keep this information here so that he can hear it and retain it.

There are two characteristics that Solomon should retain. Kindness and truth. These are qualities that Solomon needs to learn. Chesed is the Hebrew word for kindness; in relation to God, it refers to God's unfailing love. The context is being bound around the neck. Here it refers to an attribute to the son who listens, retains and applies. Here, it refers to loyalty. It is the quality that is developed; persistent fidelity. Loyalty has to be directed towards a relationship. It includes also our relations to those people with whom we do have a relation with. The results are wisdom in the soul.

When Solomon retains this loyalty to the word, he maintains this devotion to God; and this devotion to God is the stability of his life. It is the stability from his spiritual life. Especially as he becomes the king of Israel. He needs this quality desperately. Chesed indicates a binding quality based upon the parental teaching of divine wisdom between a father and a son. This can also be between a father and a son, a mother and a daughter, etc. Parents have the obligation to teach their children in general. This is under persistent divine control; and how life really works. They have no idea how life works at all as children. They need to understand how life from devotion to God and how it works and how to utilize it. It is a way of life; their way of life.

There is also truth, emeth. It is translated truth, but better translated faithfulness. It is a perfect companion to chesed. It is one who is stable. God is the epitome of faithfulness to us. We must be faithful to Him and to His Word. This is a relationship term. Not forgetting all the days of your life so that you can respond to life. It is to be characterized by loyalty and faithfulness to that which is being taught.

Solomon admires his father David because David has exhibited these qualities all of his life. How Solomon was born was not the best situation; but that was David's old sin nature. Solomon has to be prepared for his future life as ruler of Israel. Those qualities in David that appeared to the nation when David fought Goliath. This was illustrated when David, at a very young age, stood up to Goliath, saying, "Who is the uncircumcised Philistine?"

David had practice taking care of sheep. David dealt with a lion and a bear. David could not allow this to happen; he could not be live and let live about such circumstances. When David talked about these things, Solomon listened.

So many of the psalms reflect the qualities and attitudes of David.

Parents need to teach and to live this teaching. Solomon pursued the things which were not wise and he wrote a catalogue of the things that he tried. David confessed his sins in Psalm 51. From it came Solomon. Solomon also failed; but from his failure came victory, when the spiritual life is being used. When loyalty and faithfulness are promoted.

Just look at the Apostles Paul, who was a great murderer at one time. Moses failed. They all failed at one point or another. There is Adam and the woman. Jesus came to save us; that is cursing turned to blessing. Failure? Who hasn't? Do not ever give up. We are all examples of failure and getting back up and moving ahead. Never forget David and Solomon. The wisdom that he learned as a child; it never failed him in the end. God honors it. Ecclesiastes is Solomon cataloguing every failure of his life. He was greatly used by the Lord in spite of all of that. He was the child raised to go in the way that he should go.

This doctrine is designed for us, as parents, to never give up on teaching; and, at some point, we let these monsters loose. Solomon will make good decisions as well as bad. He will have loyalty and faithfulness to the Lord and to his people, Israel. Grace, impersonal love, etc. are some of the results.

We are to keep the commandments as stated, for a long life of loyalty and faithfulness. It is a wonderful life, the best that you can have, in spite of adversity.

In v. 4, Solomon addresses the result; the very practical side.

Prov. 3:4 So you will find favor and good success in the sight of God and man.

This is a great outcome. If you have the characteristics of vv. 1 & 3, then you enjoy the words of v. 4. Wisdom will be recognized by those who recognize it. Do you want respect? "I don't get any respect." Often you don't deserve any. They have done nothing to gain respect from others. Favor and good repute will follow.

chên (חַן) [pronounced khayn] is the Hebrew word, which means, grace, favor, blessing. Strong's #2580 BDB #336.

Favor Is the Noun Chen

1. This word means grace; grace from God.
2. God then favors us.
3. The same is true among other people; we will have a favorable reputation.
4. You will know God and you will love Him.
5. People will grace you with respect. God may put obstacles in your way, so that others can see your character.
6. Gaining respect is the result of having the qualities of trust, loyalty, good sense and wise behavior.
7. This respect is what a great leader possesses. There will be opposition and hate; but it will not be from everyone. Believers in Jesus Christ has been despised by the opposition. Jesus Christ is our example. He was respected like every human being who has ever existed. His example should be studied, known and emulated. We gain His qualities from studying His mind.

Many people may not know where all of this comes from. Not always. This is not an iron-clad promise that we will have respect from everyone.

Prov. 3:4 So you will find favor and good success in the sight of God and man.

Lesson #0025

Proverbs Wisdom in the OT

12/8/2019 2Sunday

V. 4 is the result of vv. 1&3; it is a very relational result. It has to do with our relations in life. Relationships with people. It is critical that this verse becomes a reality in our lives.

Prov. 3:4 So you will find favor and good success in the sight of God and man.

These are the two relationships that we need to establish. The Hebrew word for favor is chên, which means grace. This is the mature believer, would will be favored with great grace. Not everyone will bestow grace upon you. We as believers in Jesus Christ, when you realize the results of Proverbs 3:1, 3 when you continue to write and bind the Word of God on your heart, this will be a result that we will enjoy. This is truly a testimonial. This is a testimony that you have before the world.

Sekel (שֶׁקֶל) [Pronounced Seh-ke] Sêkel (שֶׁקֶל) [Pronounced Say-ke]

1. Sekel means understanding, intelligence, prudence, insight; cunning. Strong's #7922 BDB #968.
2. Sekel reflects a number of good qualities as a grace gift.
3. Discretion, insight, spiritual intelligence. Wisdom bring a spiritual IQ to your life. People recognize this intelligence in your soul, whether or not you have high IQ on a human level.
4. This is having good sense, common sense; and wisdom. All of these are developed and connected when found in the mature spiritual life. This is from where we get good repute.
5. There is competence and effectiveness. There is not a lot of clear thinking that there is.
6. We have prudence and good sense as a result. Advancing to maturity is the basis for a good relationship with man and God. When we begin the spiritual walk, we do not have an intimate relationship with God. This favor comes from time. If you want favor, you can have it. That particular aspect in your life is from whence you develop these qualities. If people do not respect good sense and behavior, then they have no idea about these things themselves. Therefore, a relationship with these people should be avoided. Our great example of all this is, of course, is the Lord Jesus Christ.

We know early on, and we learned about Him and the birth, the great moment in human history. But we also know that Jesus learned doctrine, wisdom and prudence in His childhood. He was just like us in His humanity. He learned like no other person has learned before. Luke 2:52 and Jesus kept increasing in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and man.

Pleasing God and People

1. We do not live in order to please mankind. There is nothing wrong with pleasing other people, but how do you do it? Do you compromise your principles? Do you follow them in the wrong direction so that they like you? Many kids walk into this and they have no idea what they are doing. We need only please God as our spiritual life progresses.
2. The latter has an effect on the former. Pleasing God brings respect and favor to us, not only from God, but from men. The key to a great marriage is respect between a man and a woman; loyalty, faithfulness; all of this falls within the parameters of respect. Favor with God and humanity.
3. Jesus grew with favor and good repute. He was the King and the Messiah. This is what the star and the angels were all about. But He was also rejected. For those who followed Him, they respected Him, His message and His credentials.
4. But he also acquired enemies who hated Him. Not everyone will respect that growth or that person. If you think with the wisdom that he thought with, you will have enemies. Does that scare you? You will also have favor and respect from God and you will have favor and respect from those people who matter. Your relationships matter. Some of who are a part of your spiritual life as well. Everyone in Berachah should have respect for everyone else in Berachah. Anyone who sees that you are moving toward spiritual maturity, you have Bobby's respect and love. Otherwise, why would he give us something that we do not really value? We have grown in favor with the Lord, and that is worth having.
5. We will not grow in favor and good repute with those who oppose Jesus Christ ever. They are a part of the cosmic system. They may claim that they want live and let live and religious liberty; but it is being challenged from every corner of the United States. We have enemies; the cosmic system and the followers of it. They will never hold us in high esteem or respect.
6. For most believers, wisdom and stature go hand in hand. They have a profound effect on others. There is more than just a physical attraction. The spiritual attraction of your life is much more important than beauty.
7. The mature believer becomes a leader among other believers. Do you want to be a leader? Are you upset because no one else notices you? A leader has the respect of others. Grace and grace blessing; that wisdom gives you good sense and behavior. The #1 quality of leadership in the military is what you do yourself. And it is how you represent the characteristics of leadership. Otherwise you will be rejected as a leader. We are designed to be leaders. If we advance spiritually, then we will be a leader. A member of this congregation was a Lt. Governor for a long time. They have an impact. What gives them the attraction and the leadership?

Do they have enemies, yes they do. The mature believer becomes a leader who has positive volition.

8. The mind of Christ, His thinking, His wisdom, His prudence can become ours. This depends upon writing on the tablet of our heart and binding it around our neck and written on the tablet of our heart. It is always written for us; it is always there; it is always applied. What do you do with this wisdom literature? What do you do with it? The criticism of Berachah Church is that everyone just sits there and does nothing. For those who are growing spiritually, there will be wisdom and the application of wisdom. That is when it becomes practical. Favor with God and with man.
9. This is when favor with God and man reaches its peak of effectiveness. Whatever circumstance that we find ourselves in. Wherever we work and play; wherever our relationships lie.

Prov. 3:4 So you will find favor and good success in the sight of God and man.

The next two verses, one of the great synonymous parallel relationship with God. This is the cent piece of any relationship, human or divine.

Prov. 3:5 Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding.

Bobby had to memorize this verse. Trust in the Lord with all of your lèb, and do not lean upon your own understanding. It is not about what you think.

Prov. 3:6 In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make straight your paths.

God will make our paths straight. God sets the standards for our life. This is not some legalistic idea. This is not, "Do not do the big 5 sins."

Prov. 3:5 Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding.

One of the most misunderstood terms in Christianity. Trusting is a total commitment to the Lord. It is faith rest in all circumstances. Trusting is relational. It is not based upon faith in the unknown. Without any knowledge in the reason for your faith. Trust is best to be placed in someone who is trustworthy. This is the first order of the day, for the person who believes in the Lord. Jesus is the unfailing and perfect object of faith.

People say, "I need to get out there and find myself." You do not need to do that; you need to find the Lord. We come to a realization of why we are. The wisdom of Scripture allows us to know who we are. There is not human resolve or what one surmises about the Lord without evidence. Or some humanistic view of God. So many people start with humanity and try to use that to find God. That is going the wrong way. You find God first; not man.

Another problem, a momentary faith-commitment, like coming forward in church or at a Christian camp; and people come forward with great emotion to dedicate or realign themselves with God. This is a moment which needs to be extended, and emotion does not really extend a person's spiritual life. Those who come forward; do you know how long that lasts? Not very long because it is emotion. You need to know something about what you have committed to.

You signed up to the spiritual life when you believed in Jesus Christ. What did you commit to? Good idea to find out just what you have committed to. That is the end of the day.

Lesson #0026                      Proverbs    Wisdom in the OT    12/11/2019    Wednesday

Prov. 3:5 Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding.

The heart is the right lobe of the soul. We are not to lean upon our own understanding, which is human viewpoint. We must lean on divine viewpoint, which is the wisdom that comes from Proverbs.

Prov. 3:6 In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make straight your paths.

In all ways refers to every aspect of our life. To acknowledge the Lord means that you must understand Him.

Proverbs 3:5–6

1. Trust and the ways of acknowledgment are at the heart of our relationship with the Lord.
2. That trust and acknowledgment is a moment by moment path to a relaxed mental attitude through using faith rest.
3. Trusting in the Lord is synonymous with faith rest.
4. Prov. 3:5–6 is the basic statement of the faith rest life; and the stable path of the spiritual life.
5. These verses urge faith rest under any and all circumstances. When you can utilize that, your paths are straight because they are online with the spiritual life. If you are not quite read into the faith rest life, there is the book, published back in 1961. He believed this to be the basic foundation for the spiritual life. Your spiritual life goes nowhere without the faith rest life.
6. The key word is trust.
7. Trust is a commitment to the Lord. What is such a commitment and how is it accomplished. The commitment looks solely to God and to His promises and to His Word. Not to human dependency. Those that we are the closest to are the ones upon whom we depend the most. Even the best of us will disappoint. The Lord never fails.

His promises never fail. His unfailing promises are always available to us. Trusting in the Lord is not what you can theorize. This is what happened in theology beginning in the 18th century when theologians began to interpret Scriptures in a more human way; superimposing upon God humanistic ideas. This has happened to many seminaries. They have reduced God's essence to the fallible qualities of human beings. Understanding and acknowledging God and then trusting man. Many people today think that humanity and politics will deliver us. From what and how? They are just as fallible as anyone, even if they are smarter than everyone else. If they lack divine wisdom, then they are not smart. Otherwise, you cannot make the proper application in life. That is not the God of the Bible who is trustworthy. Too many have humanized God; they try to turn His love into human love. Human love fails. We all have certain failures. God's love is unfailing. We cannot understand grace from viewing the human race. God's method of dealing with humanity is all grace; otherwise, we would be consumed immediately.

Trusting on our own understanding is to think human viewpoint and to evaluate God through human viewpoint. If it becomes a theory of God; if it becomes human thinking. We cannot determine how God works by determining what we think should be done.

God works all things together for good to those who love God.

The spiritual life and trust do not advance through ignorant, uninformed commitment. We begin our Christian life as naive believers; and with very little understanding. We begin in the same way. The saving faith is a one-time, one moment event.

Commitment and the Christian Life

1. Commitment to the Lord is a process of spiritual growth. You think you commit to something, but that may last a month or a few years.
2. A commitment is a spiritual advance through the doctrines of Scripture.
3. An first moment of commitment by faith in Christ must be backed by spiritual growth. Commitment is not commitment without spiritual growth. If you do not grow in what you have committed to, that commitment fades. You have to commit to something and you must follow through.
4. You cannot remain ignorant of divine character and divine resources and have trust in the Lord or commit to His ways. Being ignorant precludes you from committing to anything.

Batak

1. Batak carries the idea of confidence in the object of trust. Confidence in the Lord.
2. You must have knowledge and confidence in the steadfast reliability to the One to Whom you are committing your life. How about marriage. You had better have confidence in the one that you are marrying.
3. You cannot put trust in flaky people. It does not work.
4. Trust; confidence is built upon honesty and dependability. It is good to have a realistic view of people.
5. In the case of the Lord, trust is building knowledge of His perfect character and dependability. That does not come because you simply trust in the Lord. The Lord is utterly dependable. Once you understand that His promises are completely dependable, then you can begin to trust more and more and more. And you can use the faith rest life more and more.

6. Trust builds confidence in His care and keeping. Throw your cares upon Him for He cares for you. If you know that; if you acknowledge that, you have faith rest. It is true; it is dependable.
7. When you learn and experience that care, then trust and confidence is further implanted and it grows in the stream of the consciousness of the right lobe of your soul. And that becomes wisdom.
8. With all of this, the right lobe of the soul, a long term commitment can be maintained; and not lost in the demands of life.

Bobby puts a diagram on the board. There is leb, the right lobe of the soul. That is an immaterial part of a person. What happens first? ἐπίγνωσις doctrine. From there, you build a frame of reference. You begin to think and you begin to remember promises from God. Then you build upon those promises and you begin to grow in those doctrines. You cannot really understand Scripture and doctrine until you develop a vocabulary. Bob was a genius developing the vocabulary that he did. Berachah is going to release a dictionary and we will learn doctrine simply from that dictionary. You have a vocabulary and you have it in your memory. This happens as a flow; it sets your norms and standards for you; how you live and it sets the parameters of your life.

Then, as this happens, you gain momentum in the spiritual life. Then it all becomes wisdom. When it becomes wisdom, this is the final stop of metabolized doctrine. The third one is faith rest; it is simple; but it is the beginning.

Use the rest of your faith rest resources; and it goes into sharing the happiness of God, which is the ultimate in a relaxed mental attitude. We can share in His happiness.

How can you commit to some course of action without knowing your resources?

The military is a good illustration. If you get an operations order, then you need to put things together. And if you have doubts, you are going to fail at it. So confidence comes that this is a doable mission. You have to determine that they have given you a feasible mission and all of the necessary resources. Then you begin to integrate all of it together. And you must commit to the success of the operation and loyalty to the soldiers who will take part in it. It is exactly the same in the spiritual life.

Comparing Moving Forward in the Christian Life with this Military Illustration

1. We first gather facts and information; and understanding of the operational plan of God.
2. Then we depend and trust on the Lord for our resources and our logistics; and our support.
3. We are assured that His plan is perfect. All we need to do is execute it.
4. We commit to that plan based upon our confidence that He is our support and guide. When God is our support and guide, then we can have confidence. How easy it is to get off track; to fall into a humanistic pattern. Then you are out of the plan of God.

5. That confidence comes from the Word of God. That is where the knowledge of God comes from. It is hard to relate to a Being that is far beyond what we can imagine. You must be able to commit to the Lord and to His plan.
6. We acquire the spiritual life, a life of faith and commitment to the Lord and to His plan through knowledge and understanding; you know Him and you trust Him. You lean on Him; His character, His Word.

The spiritual life does not require you to verbalize to others.

Feeding on the Word of God

1. Faith is not just a one-time result you need the food of faith. You must get doctrine. Many people have become lukewarm; cold. That means that none of this works. Any commitment here is false.
2. The trust becomes stronger as you grow spiritually. Remember faith-perception? That is how you develop confidence in Him.
3. Spiritual growth bring real commitment.

You cannot truly trust a person unless you know them. Even people who claim to be completely trustworthy, you have to know them. People can fool you for only so long if you are paying attention. When you trust in the Lord, this is not a blind trust. You will actually experience it. There is prayer; divine guidance. There is the working of God in your life. In the end, you will experience it. You will observe the Lord work in your life. Adversity makes you stronger; and you learn to trust even more.

Wisdom and the Spiritual Life

1. Remember the spiritual life is a continual progression; it is never static. You never sit on your hands in the spiritual life.
2. What does a progression require? It requires a consistent intake of Bible doctrine.
3. It requires application of the wisdom that results from that growth.
4. That is gaining and maintaining of complete trust.
5. The result is continuous commitment.

If you cannot apply divine viewpoint to every life condition, what trust have you developed? Any verbal commitment means nothing in the long run. Because you are untrustworthy if you lack a spiritual life. Your objective is to be trustworthy.

The naive might verbally commit to the spiritual life, having no idea what they are talking about. Bobby has been to good camps; and some stand up and give their testimonies and make commitments in front of everyone else. But that means nothing. The naive do not understand what they are verbally committing to. The naive believer has no understanding of what their obligations are. When you take on a pledge to do something, you have to follow up. Regarding the spiritual life, making some sort of verbal commitment is not really important. So many are clueless about living the Christian life. They cannot fulfill their responsibilities when they are ignorant. They speak a superficial, emotional language which sounds good, but nothing more than that. How can anyone comply when they are not grace or doctrinally oriented. How can you have a spiritual life or commitment if you cannot operate in that new realm. Instead they commit based upon their own ability and their own drive.

Lesson #0027

Proverbs Wisdom in the OT

12/12/2019 Thursday

Bobby receives an email. A second party email. Originally from Air Force base in Afghanistan. The taliban set off a car bomb at a hospital being built. They are listening to Bobby and these explosions went off. People running and yelling. Karen is calm. They get into the conference area for a few hours.

She is always witnessing to others and going over different points of God's Word. She has discussed God's plan and God's timing. He gave an example of getting a flat tire and avoiding a wreck up ahead. This whole thing kept him out of a place where he would have gone, and a bomb went right where he would have been.

A very simple phrase, trust in the LORD.

Prov. 3:5 Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding.

We must trust in the Lord, and that includes a commitment to God. When we exercise faith in Jesus Christ, that is the beginning of a commitment. The whole of the spiritual life is encompassed by...

The faith and commitment is found in the right lobe of your heart. Provision of divine viewpoint necessary to live the spiritual life, so that you do not lean on your own devices. You lean on divine viewpoint as it courses through the stream of consciousness.

ἐπίγνωσις doctrine is streaming through the right lobe. Wisdom streams through your soul, so that it becomes wisdom in your soul. The faith rest drill leads to the faith rest life. We need to know the results of wisdom in our life, to see what kind of life that we live. It is all about the commitment that we make to the spiritual life.

Our Advancement in Wisdom

1. We have to have understanding. We must think with wisdom. The epitome of wisdom is the mind, the thinking of Christ. We have studied the Lord and how He was led by wisdom, and thought wisdom and applied it.
2. Then and only then is the long-term commitment to God fulfilled, when you are able to
3. We will have a solid, permanent relationship with the Lord because the criteria for that relationship is understood. It is retained and executed in our lives. Our objective in the Christian life is to have a great relationship with the Lord; and in that relationship with the Lord, our life blossoms. You are committed all the way down the line; do you always fulfill it? No.

4. Then we realize that we can have the same relationship. When you metabolize wisdom, you can have the same relationship that Jesus had with God the Father during His time on this earth. We can have that same relationship. Jesus was completely committed to this relationship. Jesus came into this world and He came into the world under the shadow of the cross; it came under the will of the Father. We can have the same commitment to the Father because we are what we think.
5. Jesus becomes the model for the spiritual life, if we develop His thinking in our souls and understand the wisdom inherent to Him. Once that doctrine is believed and transferred into the right lobe, it begins to flow. The more you push through this corridor, the more you can apply. This is the wisdom that Jesus applied which He developed in His humanity. He had to grow up just like we did. He gained wisdom the same way that we do. It is the same process.
6. This is what we must commit to. People do this type of thing as some sort of public commitment; but the true commitment is believing in Jesus Christ and then growing in grace and knowledge of Him. Our life is entitled faith rest. It comes from faith and it is a relaxed mental attitude as we continue to grow in the spiritual life. Adversity is not a problem. The circumstances of your life do not develop your happiness.

Human viewpoint and divine viewpoint are antithetical. We do not live in the viewpoint of this world. We have an entirely different viewpoint. We cannot as believers lean on human viewpoint. Human viewpoint is weakness; it is a part of the cosmic system. Isn't there wisdom in humanism? Only insofar as it reflects divine wisdom.

Prov. 3:6 In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make straight your paths.

We must acknowledge Him in all of our ways. What does this mean?

Our Commitment to the Lord

1. This is the clear statement of our commitment.
2. Trusting in the Lord is the beginning of our commitment.
3. We trust Him by coming to know Him and His thinking. That is what acknowledging Him is. I recognize and I understand and I will comply.
4. We will gain trust in Him through acknowledging Him, which gets us through any and all circumstances. Commitment is meaningless if you do not acknowledge Him in all of your ways.
5. That is how we acknowledge Him in all of our ways.

When Bobby did something wrong, Bob told him what he had done wrong. After explaining it, Bob would say, "Acknowledge." Then Bobby would get his punishment, after admitting what he had done.

The more you know of a person, their qualities and their trustworthiness, then the greater relationship of trust with them. You will never have a greater relationship. If you do not trust the other person in romance, you do not have a great romance.

More Points

1. If you listen to what people say and not watch what they do, you will be hoodwinked. When it says, Trust in the Lord, that is never misplaced.
2. The more you know of the Lord and His wisdom and His love and His resources provided for you, the more you will hold Him in esteem, in awe and in reverence. That is how you do it.
3. The result is, trusting and acknowledging Him. This is based on the wisdom in the right lobe of your soul.
4. That is the basis for the fear of the Lord.

Human viewpoint falls outside the parameters of wise behavior. That is what righteousness is. If you are determined to fulfill the plan of God, you are determined to fulfill your commitment. It is not just saying, "I am going to commit," there is a process. You commit yourself to a course of action; to a vocation in school. You train for that. Going to school is the commitment that you have made. Commitment means a process of life. It does not just start up through some public emotional speech about how you will commit to the Lord.

We strive, sometimes, to commit to the Lord on human resources. We can grieve and quench the Holy Spirit. It is easy to become discouraged and despondent in life, and because of these feelings, we reject doctrine for something else. We turn to some entertainment or emotional connection. That is what Christianity has become. That is not fulfilling your commitment. That is utterly superficial without any real commitment.

Bobby knew many of those people in the teen class, some of whom were very motivated to hear doctrine, but who later grew lukewarm or cold. A description of reversionism. They have long since departed from their commitment.

"Do you still go to that church?" "Yes, I am the pastor there." They cannot help but be unstable. They live on emotion and they have a frantic search for happiness. They depend upon circumstances for happiness. Everything else falls into place.

The use of wisdom, which brings us into favor with God and man. This always falls within the parameters of the standard of righteousness. Trust in a person is dependent on the character of the object of that trust. It depends upon the character. If a person is untrustworthy, then the relationship between the two suffers. The only sure trustworthy person in this world and out of this world is God Himself. Even when people prove untrustworthy, you can trust in the Lord. That is what your life consists of. That is why faith rest is so important in your life.

You acknowledge Him in all your ways; and you can trust Him because He is trustworthy.

Set a Points

1. Doctrine is a set of standards; we study God's standards, because they are revealed to us in His Word, in which we come to learn and understand Him. Our purpose is to know and acknowledge Him in all of our ways.
2. This is the opposite of human relative standards. God's standards are not human standards. If it feels good, do it.
3. You cannot have a relationship with God without knowing and living His standards. You must know what His ways are. His ways become your ways. When you acknowledge Him, you acknowledge His ways.
4. You cannot commit your ways to Him unless you live that commitment.
5. There is a result in your life. If you do not acknowledge Him in all of His ways, then you are not trustworthy. People like this, you may have to deal with them, but don't trust them (or trust and verify).

There is a vast difference between the trust and faith in the soul; and the dependence upon human viewpoint. Human viewpoint undermines trust and faith in the Lord. Thus no intimate relationship. A trusting relationship is a result of the spiritual life.

Acknowledging the Lord in All Your Ways

1. To lean on your own understanding is not the spiritual life. That is not acknowledging Him; that is not trusting in the Lord. None of that is possible.
2. That is not acknowledging Him in all of your ways if you rely on divine viewpoint. Bobby is approaching this from the view of a motivation for your spiritual life. One of the greatest moments in life is when you have someone that you trust completely. When you know someone like that, marry them or make them your best friend. One of the great times in your life is when you find someone you can utterly trust. Even people like this have their moments.
3. The Lord is utterly trustworthy. He never fails us.
4. When you lean on your own understanding, that is not the means of a relationship with God or committing your ways to Him.
5. But when leaning on your own resources, you cannot be molded by God's will and His guidance. You work off of your own guidance. You are not committed to what the Lord has for you.
6. You cannot live by His standards or word when you lean upon human wisdom and your own standards.

God's ways are not our ways; and His ways are not always understandable.

Isa. 55:8-9 For My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways, declares the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways and My thoughts than your thoughts.

Can We Really Acknowledge Him and Understand Him?

1. His ways are so far beyond us. Our finite minds consider beginnings and ends.
2. In order for us to trust Him implicitly, we must know the incomprehensible. We must know one Whose ways are higher than our ways.
3. For Him to have a relationship with us, God provided us with enough knowledge to know Him.
4. We may not immediately understand His purposes or plans for us, or how He is working in our lives.
5. Based upon what we do know of Him, we are assured that He is working in our lives and that He does have a purpose for us. As long as we are living, He has a purpose for us—by acknowledging Him. We will never understand God completely until we are face to face with Him in heaven.
6. We simply trust in our limited knowledge from His Word to us. That is why the Bible is so critical.
7. It is enough for our purposes of acknowledging Him on this earth. The more that we know in our hearts, the more that we trust. Trust is built upon knowledge of a person. We know them more and become confident in them.

Maybe this God is Someone I can trust in? Now that I begin to see how He works.

Now you know what it means to trust in the Lord. We just had the full scope of it. This is the scope of our life; this encompasses salvation, doctrine, gaining knowledge and living the spiritual life.

Lesson #0028                      Proverbs 3:5 Wisdom in the OT      12/15/2019 1Sunday

Gla sings a new song, Mary did you know? New to Berachah, I believe.

3rd time in v. 5:

Prov. 3:5 Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding.

Our trust should be in the Lord rather than in our own understanding. David seeks to impart to his son, into his right lobe, so that Solomon will know this and write this down himself. What he writes, we study 3000 years later.

This verse becomes the most practical aspect of Christianity. This pushes us to the faith rest life; and gives us the mechanics of the faith rest life. To trust God, we have to know implicitly that He is trustworthy. We can only become trustworthy by knowing His character and His attributes.

Isa. 55:8–9 For My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways, declares the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways and My thoughts than your thoughts.

God is speaking through Isaiah. God thinks and works in mysterious ways. We do not always understand how God thinks and works. He is far beyond our finite thinking. How do we know God well enough to place complete trust in Him?

In order for to trust in God implicitly, God provided us with enough knowledge to know Him. We may not know God's purposes or His plan for us or how God is working in our lives. "I am a believer and God is supposed to be doing something for me; how do I know what this is?" As you learn about God, and know more about His character, then you understand this further; and you can trust and know that He is working in your life.

I don't know why I am in this trouble? Often this is a bad decision; and often this is happenstance. We do not need to have a complete understanding of God.

It is enough for our purposes in acknowledging Him. The more we know Him the more we trust Him.

Courtship between a man and a woman is exactly that; to gain the confidence in their trustworthiness. It is not that they look good; that is the least trustworthy thing that we know about the other person. Then we realize that we can live with this person for the rest of our lives. A relationship is built upon trust. This is why David says, his relationship with God is the only sure thing that he has. We can develop through knowing God, which means growing in grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior.

Our coins say, in God we trust. This should remind us that, in God, we must trust. This is not a blind trust; not a trust that operates outside of all reality. We learn His Word and we come to know Him. The results play out in our lives.

We know the Lord, so we have the solid understanding which allows us to build trust upon Him. He knows all things and He is infinitely just.

Our Trust in God

1. We have enough knowledge of God's ways and His means and His thinking from His Word to trust Him implicitly. If you have a hard time trusting God, He is the One Person we can trust implicitly. We can have a great relationship with other people.
2. Trust is at the heart of any great relationship; especially with God.
3. We can have a personal trusting bond with the Lord that cannot be shaken. We hear, my word is my bond; and this may or may not be true. God never does that; His Word is His bond.
4. Thus, we can lean on Him; and we can express faith in Him in all of our ways and circumstances. There is never a time when we cannot trust in Him. Cursed is the man who puts his trust in man. We can be assured that God's thinking is the opposite of human viewpoint. We can trust in the Lord; we can lean on Him, first and foremost. Does this mean that you must trust every human being? We depend upon people all of the time. But people are fallible; and everyone has a sin nature.

Ultimately, even though we put trust in people, we must trust the Lord, as He is the Faithful One. Great is Your faithfulness.

As human beings, we always have questions and uncertainties. How can we be sure in our trust in God? How do we do this on a daily basis? We do this through the faith rest drill that we can use at any time, at any place, and under any circumstance. This must be developed in your soul. This is the spiritual muscle memory. This is the basis for certainty. The ultimate in God's care and keeping.

First, the faith rest drill in adversity. In order to lean on Him, what is the first thing that we must do? We must have some knowledge of Him and some knowledge of His promises that He has made to us.

The first step in the faith rest drill is claiming some of His promises. This will help us; when Jesus promises us, then He will do it. It is not how He will do it; but that He will do it.

1Peter 5:7 ...casting all your anxieties on him, because he cares for you.

Death is the first great fear; public speaking is the second greatest fear. Bobby trusts that what he says is important. Bobby knows it works because he is standing in front of everyone.

We know that God cares for us, so that we may trust Him.

Rom. 8:31 What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us?

We have protection and security. We understand these promises in the faith rest drill.

Also, what do these verses mean for us when it comes to other people?

We develop trust in God because we have learned about Him. Claiming a promise means, we take our eyes off of ourselves and we trust in Him. Trusting the Lord means...

The Doctrinal Rationale and Confidence in God

1. When you are confident in God's Person, then you can be assured of His workings in your life. You develop a doctrinal rationale; and you begin to grow spiritually.
2. A rationale is an underlying reason for the promises that we claim.
3. We understand every Biblical promise; and there are hundreds of them. Every biblical promise is supported by a doctrine or a series of doctrines.
4. When you claim a promise, then you understand how it fits into the doctrines that you know.
5. The doctrine can be extracted from the promise of God. God is fully capable able of fulfilling His promises.
6. The promise that we use in step 1 is the encapsulation of many related truths; a wider range of doctrines. In any doctrine, you can pull out a range of promises which are applicable. You need to have these doctrines in your soul. God is all-powerful; so if He is for us;

7. These promises trigger the memory center of the soul. You have this information stored there and you must pull it up. Something that you claim can be used. You can grab onto a doctrine and use it. Trust in the Lord is one of the most practical promises.
8. By a logical process using a doctrinal rationale, you move towards a Biblical conclusion. Your trust now runs even deeper because you recall, God is for me even though this person is against me. As God's plan runs its course, things will work out for your benefit, even if that may not seem to be happening. What opposition or adversity can stand before that? Whatever the opposition is, it is never bigger than God. In adversity, our emotions grab us by the throat; but with Bible doctrine, we can apply those promises to our circumstances and we can bypass our emotions. That is how we reach a conclusion.

There is more about this, next session.

Lesson #0029

Proverbs Wisdom in the OT

12/15/2019 2Sunday

Prov. 3:5 Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding.

There is no doubt that you have heard people say, I trust God; and then, under pressure, fall right back into trusting your own devices; trusting in your own human resources. No inner wise counsel from God's Word, then human resources become futile in the end. Sometimes they work and sometimes not; but the sure thing is trust in the Lord with all of your heart. The mechanic. You must have the wise counsel; otherwise you have no faith rest; you have no ability to trust. There are two aspects to trust: the object and the subject. These are both solved by the faith rest drill. God is completely trustworthy. The people do not know enough to trust God; their faith is inadequate. Commitment means trust. You cannot commit to anything unless you know what the commitment is to. When you commit to the Lord, you know Him and you trust Him. You have inculcated doctrine in your soul; and promises triggered in your soul. Trust is brought alive, giving it depth. They find rest and courage and comfort. That attitude indicates that you have something that most of the human race lacks. The doctrine that you have in your soul, you have more confidence in it.

God's Plan in Our Life

1. You have confidence in His plan.
2. You have the certainty that your life is not based upon luck or fate. God's providence is what is key. There is no luck in it. Fate is a very deterministic way of seeing life. That is how Muslims see life. To them, it is only that God wills.
3. You experience confidence in the course of your trust in Him; and how is that stated in Scripture? He works all things together for good for those who love God.
4. Those workings become evidence in your life; they fulfill God's promises to you. Have you ever claimed a promise and watched it fulfilled before your eyes?

Sometimes, it does not happen in the next 5 minutes or it may not be fulfilled in the way that you expect it to. Sooner or later, it happens; and it is always to your benefit. Bobby is always amazed about the path he is on; but looking back, it all worked out better than he expected it to. We can go down the street and be taught the idea of positive thinking.

5. Blind faith is simply wanting to believe in something, and so you do. If the result of the promise is not forthcoming, then the plan of God has something else for us. That is another point of confidence.
6. The Lord always fulfills His promises based upon His will for us; not on our own will for our own lives. That is a great certainty and trust. When you really want something, you are concerned about getting it. When you realize what you want may not be in the plan of God, you have a relaxed mental attitude even if you don't get what you think you should. And it works together for good. See how the relaxed mental attitude works? That is the wisdom of the ages, as is all of Scripture.
7. In claiming a promise, we are exercising a true commitment to the Lord; not just a one-time commitment—like coming forward in a great state of emotion.
8. Claiming a promise and having a doctrinal rationale—that is a commitment to the Lord. We commit to knowing Him and trusting Him; that is what commitment is. There are no outside conditions or roadblocks which foul up His plan. Only we can screw that up. We come to a trusting conclusion. We can exhibit wise behavior and good sense. That is when we are leaning on Him, not on the ways and means of the cosmic system. We are not leaning on the ways of the cosmic system.

What we have been studying is our destiny, which is trust in the Lord. The plan of God is our destiny. Always remember to apply wisdom; this requires that we acknowledge His ways. We depend on His person and His character. No nod to God will suffice. Our churches are filled with very superficial doctrines, and therefore, very superficial Christians, which results in a superficial language and a superficial life.

“I go to church.” “Then, what do you learn? What are you getting out of it? What is going in on your soul?”

Or the high church, where the religious experience is all about following ritual. You can go and hear good music and good language; but no doctrine. None of this has anything to do with trusting in the Lord. There is no knowledge involved.

Bobby can tell that we are interested in what he is teaching. This is not Bobby's wonderful viewpoint of this; this is what the Word of God says. It comes from a disciplined instruction in wisdom. If you don't have it, it brings confidence.

Vv. 5–6 summarize a wisdom inherent in and metabolizing Bible doctrine. There is no substitute if you place your trust in Him. The final block is wisdom; and when you have wisdom, it flows into problem solving devices. There are many things past the faith rest drill. There is doctrinal orientation; a personal sense of destiny; but it is not the destiny that we choose ourselves, but the destiny that God chooses for us. We develop personal love for God and then impersonal love for all mankind. Sharing the happiness of God; nothing can touch you. The more we grow, the less touchable we are.

When we trust Him, He will make our paths straight.

Prov. 3:6 In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make straight your paths.

There is a book, Divine Guidance. All of the books are free. No price on them. No books are sold. The doctrine is free; the doctrine should be free. There is no price on Bible doctrine. It is priceless. You may have some idea on how He works and how He guides you. God's plan starts with guiding us as you are able to use the faith rest drill. The Lord makes our paths straight; and He removes obstacles in our lives.

I grope around in the dark. We never should do that. God removes the obstacles as it pleases Him and as it is in conformity to God's plan for us.

Bottom Line

1. Those who follow the wisdom of Proverbs have an easier, less problematic life. It is the faith rest life. There is a mechanic to it and a result to it.
2. It is a great life; the best life; a life of trust, of faith, of commitment to the one and only plan for the believer. We have a destiny. No matter who you are, as a believer in Jesus Christ, you have a destiny.
3. This is not a life free of adversity. It is a life of divine solutions in adversity. Also a relaxed mental attitude pressing forward to adversity. Not a life free of adversity. But a life of being able to press forward through adversity.
4. With wisdom and trust, we will be able to understand that human solutions are never permanent solutions. They are untrustworthy and often unwise. We will realize with wisdom and trust that we have in the Lord. Human solutions are untrustworthy, because we as human beings are untrustworthy and unwise.
5. Stability and contentment in life derive from a life of wisdom. Trusting God's never failing promises and doctrine. Therefore, divine solutions are the real solutions of life, based upon the trust and keeping of our Lord; on His faithfulness, on His Person. Our motivation for real commitment.

Doesn't this provide for us a sense of urgency? Is there an attractiveness in this life, a life that depends upon more than our own resources. A life that is less confusing in Satan's world. Absolutely it is. Moving through the problem solving devices.

Now to v. 7, which is the motto of Proverbs and summarizes vv. 5–6.

Prov. 3:7 Be not wise in your own eyes; fear the LORD, and turn away from evil.

How do you turn away from evil? There is a lot of evil out there and my sin nature is attracted to it. Wisdom comes from God. We have all had human mentors before, people whom we have listened to and have followed.

Bobby's parents guided him. Others point you towards materialism. You do not become wise on your own; or wise based upon people with human viewpoint. You become wise from metabolizing the Lord's wisdom from Scriptures. No believer should become so impressed with themselves that they forget where they come from.

Wise in your own eyes; which is a metaphor for arrogance. We have just studied. Arrogance emphasizes self; reverence and loyalty to God is the proper response to God. Wise in your own eyes is the opposite of fear of the Lord. It is awe and reverence for Him. It is self first; and God second; if you are wise in your own eyes.

Fear of the Lord leaves not room for arrogance. This arrogance includes a host of other mental attitude sins which destroys the Christian life. If you are wise in your own eyes, you have superceded Scripture.

Bobby has heard many sports figures; and some announcers have said, "He has an arrogance about him that makes him great." But this means, really, that they have the discipline to succeed at their sport. Arrogance is anathema; it is the opposite of the fear of the Lord. It is the opposite of the spiritual life. Arrogance is exactly what you do not need in the spiritual life. Humanism versus the spiritual life. Arrogance is bad because it precludes trust.

Lesson #0030

Proverbs Wisdom in the OT 12/18/2019 Wednesday

Prov. 3:7 Be not wise in your own eyes; fear the LORD, and turn away from evil.

V. 7a is the opposite of the previous few verses. It is the opposite of trust in the Lord. You cannot do both at the same time. Wisdom comes from the Lord; it never comes from us. When we have wisdom to apply, it comes from God. We trust in the Lord's doctrine, in divine viewpoint, so it is His wisdom and His viewpoint that matters to us.

Doctrine reflects Who God is; doctrine has not been made into a god. Trusting in God requires knowledge of Him. God is the object of our trust; but we have to know Him in order to be able to trust Him. Arrogance cancels out reverence and trust.

Wise in your own eyes is the opposite of trusting in the Lord. Wise in your own eyes is human viewpoint. Fear in the Lord is the key to the spiritual life. Arrogance make reverence of the Lord impossible. Fear of the Lord and the resulting wisdom leaves no room for arrogance. Other mental attitude sins will pop up; anger, hatred, vindictiveness, self-justification, etc. This is why arrogance is anathema to the spiritual life. All of these sins of arrogance are self-centered manifestations of evil, the product of an indulged sin nature. It is the road to the sin nature. We must turn away.

Humility in the Spiritual Life

1. Humility, not arrogance, is the standard of our righteousness, our justice and our equity. We studied those 3 words from Prov. 1:3.
2. Humility is living within the parameters of wisdom. These go hand in hand.

3. When you acknowledge Him and revere Him, fear of the Lord, then you come to recognize your own insignificance. When you begin to understand God and Who he is and you develop awe for Him, you begin to recognize your own insignificance.
4. You recognize the importance of His guidance, His grace, . We are little bugs in this world in comparison to God. Yet He has elevated us in the world. God has made us in His image. When we understand Who He is, that is so humbling. We learn not to think of ourselves more highly than we ought to think.
5. God is so much greater, so powerful, He is the One to trust. When you recognize His characteristics, His essence, His attributes, He is the only one to trust.
6. We are nothing without Him. We acknowledge Him in all of our ways. This is our spiritual life.

This is the faith rest life which we have been studying. When we hold God in reverence and awe, we will turn away from evil. Evil is not that which is really bad. Evil is human viewpoint; it is the viewpoint of the cosmic system. It is what Satan presents as good. Anything that is apart from divine viewpoint, we must turn away from. It is turning away from the cosmic system and towards the Lord. This forges the link between divine viewpoint and the control of the sin nature. The sin nature has areas of strength and areas of weakness. But legalism, when it departs from grace, is evil. This is why we can say that religion is evil. Trusting in the Lord means that God does everything for us. We move thru this life on His resources. Our attitude towards the Lord and divine viewpoint offsets the sin nature.

We understand how evil takes us in the wrong direction. We cannot help but turn away from evil. Reversionism gets precluded. The spiritual life gets enhanced. Divine viewpoint insures leaning on the way of the Lord; on the mature spiritual life. These are our weapons to save us from the cosmic system. It is so easy to turn inward towards ourselves. We have only this line of defense as our protection from evil. Fear of the Lord becomes love of self and it becomes some form of humanism. It is the perfect example of doing that which is wise in your own eyes or wise in the view of the human race.

Prov. 3:7 Be not wise in your own eyes; fear the LORD, and turn away from evil.

The instructions in v. 7 make up it in v. 8

Prov. 3:8 It will be healing to your flesh and refreshment to your bones.

Introduction to V. 8

1. Spiritually self-sustaining
2. Well-being is
3. Mental attitude sins and the resultant pursuit of evil does something to us. It brings stress upon the body and the mind; especially as believers. This verse says it. To fear the Lord will be healing to our body.

4. Of the believer, that may include the pursuit of evil, may include divine discipline, self-induced misery, which is stress, that the book of Proverbs speaks of in great detail.
5. Lacking fear of the Lord is an unhealthy circumstance for the physical body and the intangible soul. Both will be affected.
6. But the healing from developing the fear of the Lord and turning away from evil is first and foremost a spiritual cure.
7. Compliance with the instructions of v. 7 is actually therapeutic to mind and body. This has to do with following the instructions of v. 7; and do not be wise in your own eyes. Do not be arrogant; arrogance brings stress.

Prov. 3:8 It will be healing to your flesh and refreshment to your bones.

Spiritual growth has a therapeutic effect. It is related to a lack of wisdom.

A Good Mental Attitude and Physical Health

1. Healing means deliverance from disease....
2. ...but this is a principle of psychosomatic.
3. This is an aggravated physical illness or condition caused by a mental factor, like internal conflict or stress. What we do and what we think also has an effect on our bodies. This faith rest life pushes us towards a better life. If we develop wisdom and the commensurate good mental attitude, it has an effect on your body and on your mind.
4. Mental attitude sins and the pursuit of evil overflows to various parts of the body and the mind, bringing unhealthy results. This can cause maladies like skin disease, headaches. There is no question that there is a link between your mental attitude and conflict in the soul. A relaxed mental attitude can be beneficial to the body; and a mental benefit.
5. The pursuit of evil has a devastating effect on the soul; not just the body.

The word refreshment refers to a drink. This is like a drink of cool water in the desert. It revives and sustains the soul in the body.

The Right Thinking Affects the Health of the Body

1. Refreshment is what happens to a soul in need of doctrine and then receives it. We have been refreshed.
2. Whenever we come into contact with divine wisdom, it is a pleasant and refreshing experience. Mind, thinking, relaxed mental attitude. It has an effect on your physical well-being.
3. Refreshment connotes an interlude of enjoyment, in spite of tough circumstances. This is another way to describe a relaxed mental attitude when under adversity.
4. The characteristics of a refreshed soul are a relaxed mental attitude, being adept at the faith rest drill, and a capacity for love and for life. Also, grace under pressure and orientation to divine viewpoint. That is the secret to a great life. It is the secret to a wonderful mental attitude in life.

5. This attitude of soul, this thinking wisdom, affects the health of the body. Refreshment to the bones in internal and external.

Prov. 3:8 It will be healing to your flesh and refreshment to your bones.

We are going to skip over a few verses and jump to v. 19;

Prov. 3:19 The LORD by wisdom founded the earth; by understanding He established the heavens;...

Wisdom and the Creation of the World

1. Through wisdom, God could accomplish the various phases of wisdom.
2. Wisdom was a tool used by God to do what only He could do; to create on the grandest scale the universe and our world.
3. In other words, wisdom is the guiding principle of God in the creation and the maintenance of the physical world. Whatever we have studied of science, whatever we know of any science, wisdom was there first.
4. Wisdom is behind all that God did in creation.
5. Wisdom is revealed in all of its glory and power in the demonstrations and the results of creation.

All of the wisdom that we learn in Scripture, any of it that directs our spiritual life, inherent to the plan of God for our lives, that confers such blessings upon the believer, is the same wisdom used in the creation of the universe. That shows the scope of what we have in divine wisdom. Can there be any doubt in the value of what we are studying? Of divine viewpoint and the futility of human viewpoint and the false doctrines of the cosmic system.

Prov. 3:19 The LORD by wisdom founded the earth; by understanding He established the heavens;...

Synonymous parallelisms.

The bēyth preposition connects divine wisdom to the energy related to creation. Wisdom is something that God uses as a means of creation; it is an attribute. We learned the essence box. Wisdom is another one.

“By Understanding”

1. By understanding is the second phrase; and this is a synonymous parallel with the first prepositional phrase. It parallels, by means of wisdom.
2. This second phrase is the bēyth preposition and tebunnah. This is by means of intelligence, aptitude, skill. There is a little bit different connotation. There is an energy. The parallel is the skill of God.

3. God puts into practice the infinite in practice and the skill of His wisdom as an attribute by which He created. He is the absolute, master architect. He is the mechanic and the builder; it is all related to His intelligence and His skill.
4. Wisdom, therefore, is a primaeval attribute of the Creator. It has existed eternally in God; just like all of His other attributes. Wisdom means that everything that God does is perfect. It is absolute intelligence; it is absolute design.
5. This eternal attribute is the activity of God, His omniscience, knowing all, His thought processes, applied to all that He does. Couple that with His infinite creative power; and he has therefore the ability to do it. By wisdom, He founded the earth.
6. This creation is something which God has always had in His thinking. This constitutes the skill that He had in creation; and which He executed to perfection, based upon His eternal wisdom.
7. God was always wisdom in everything that He thought and everything that He accomplished. We have a little wisdom and we can accomplish a few things here and there. God designs things which are perfect. This is about creation. This is how it was done in the mind of God.
8. Creation is a picture of what divine wisdom can do. Look around us, at the entire universe; in the way that our human bodies are designed. Creation was marred by the fall. But what God designed was perfect.
9. We now have an inkling of the scope of divine viewpoint wisdom for our lives because its origin is in God. So wisdom has unlimited ability for negotiating the cosmic system. The creative force of His wisdom. The universe, the heavens and the earth are a product of God's wisdom. We have access to this same thing.

Lesson #0031

Proverbs Wisdom in the OT

12/19/2019 Thursday

The most powerful insights into wisdom given in these two verses.

Prov. 3:19 The LORD by wisdom founded the earth; by understanding He established the heavens;...

Prov. 3:20 ...by His knowledge the deeps broke open, and the clouds drop down the dew.

Wisdom was essentially to God's creation God knew exactly what He was doing to every detail. Every detail was in the mind of God. He did this over 6 days. Bobby refers to this as the creation account. If that wisdom was that integral to creation; how could we not want to apprehend this for ourselves. There is nothing too small or too big to defeat the infinite intelligence and wisdom of His being.

We want to apply this to our souls and to our circumstances.

7 Major Points on Creation and Wisdom

1. Wisdom and understanding is something which clearly existed prior to creation. God's preexistence is found everywhere throughout Scripture. Therefore, His wisdom has always existed. His wisdom was with Him before doing anything else in creation. His wisdom has now been given to us. Prov. 8:1 Does not wisdom call? Does not understanding raise her voice? Prov. 8:22–23 "The LORD possessed me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of old. Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth.

- 1) Here is wisdom in eternity past and wisdom present at earth's creation. This is stunning to Bobby. We have access to that which created us.
  - 2) This is the first of possessions of God for creation.
  - 3) The universe manifests in its formation the very attribute of God that is His wisdom. Wisdom is a separate attribute of God. He knew all that He was creating. He had the power to create. What He had then also was His wisdom.
  - 4) Therefore, wisdom was not created by God. It always was. His wisdom is eternal as God is eternal. He did not create it. It was always perfect, completed and finished. In Him, there is nothing lacking. Who has wisdom like that? Which one of us can claim wisdom like that?
  - 5) It is the only perfect reference man has of understanding and acknowledging God's infinite process. We can relate this to what has been taught over and over; divine viewpoint. Those eternal qualities make God's wisdom and eternal attribute of His nature. He used this to create all things. Anything that has to do with life or science; the movement of the planets, the forces in physics; all of this is from His wisdom. But the great wisdom is found in the Bible.
2. Wisdom looks at the practical rather than the theoretical side of knowledge.
- 1) This practical side is the application of God's infinite knowledge.
  - 2) God's will and His application is perfect.
  - 3) His wisdom is used in ways that glorify Him the most. Psalm 33:10–11
Prov. 8
3. Since God is all-wise, we can conclude this about His actions:
- 1) God knew everything about us in eternity past. God knows what we are going to do. His wisdom directs our path in the plan of God, if we choose to take it. We can assume that His knowledge about us will be used wisely and to our advantage. This is another good reason for us to know it, learn it.
  - 2) His wisdom guarantees that His great knowledge will not be used to simply demonstrate His raw power. His wisdom and His power are not used capriciously. He always applies His wisdom to His power.
  - 3) The power that He possesses is disciplined and restrains His power. Wisdom directs His power to good ends. God cannot choose to be unjust or unrighteous? His wisdom directs His power to benevolent ends, which is what brings us into the picture.
  - 4) If wisdom was in some way detrimental to us or confusing or capricious, it could not be classified as wisdom. His wisdom is always directed towards our benefit.

- 5) Wisdom must always have an advantageous and enhancing result to us. That is either in adversity or prosperity to us. Bobby's example: God allows experiences into our lives, allowing experiences to happen to us. Good things and bad; things we like and do not like. We view them from our own viewpoint; but God allows these things into our lives to best direct, guide or discipline us as spiritual beings; and will also glorify Himself. These experiences come from His wisdom. This is why adversity is not adversity in the eyes of God. Even adversity is opportunity. Wisdom makes... If you apply wisdom in adversity, it brings more wisdom into your life. The wisdom must be learned and applied to realize the benefit of it. It is out there; what do you do with it? There is a great demonstration of God's power linked to His wisdom. What a difference there is between Satan's flawed thinking, which becomes human viewpoint, or the doctrine of demons. So different between that and God's divine viewpoint. That difference stands out in the Angelic Conflict. But there is something else as well.

4. A new point:

- 1) In God's infinite wisdom, God created the universe to resolve the Angelic Conflict. That is another step in understanding the Angelic Conflict. He also created the universe by His wisdom.
- 2) In God's wisdom, man is the perfect creation for His purposes. God created man and he used wisdom to do it. Wisdom is a part of resolving the Angelic Conflict. Wisdom is intimately involved in solving this conflict. This happens when we believe in Christ and live the spiritual life. The same wisdom that created, we must resolve it.
- 3) God's work of salvation for mankind disproves Satan's contention, that God is not loving because He has sentenced Satan and his fallen angels to the Lake of Fire. How can a loving God assign our beings to hell? Satan knew exactly Who God is; and Satan understood God's wisdom; and yet, he chose against the plan of God and against God Himself. Wisdom is a part of sentencing Satan to the Lake of Fire. This is related to sentencing unbelievers to the Lake of Fire as well.
- 4) What we think is wisdom is not necessarily what God knows is wisdom. We can only differentiate by knowing divine wisdom.
- 5) Believers are endowed with volition to use that wisdom (or not) for application to the spiritual life. That is our part in the resolution of the Angelic Conflict.

5. We find that a principle issue in the Bible is that God imposed wisdom upon creation.

- 1) Coming from God, wisdom is desirable for us to possess. Most desirable.
- 2) It informs us that all of creation is good; that is what God saw in creation.
- 3) Therefore, wisdom is good, indispensable for us; and this same wisdom in relation to us is beautifully described in Psalm 8 (which we will soon examine). In this view of wisdom is a major...
- 4) God is never identified with or confused in His creation. God is the creator. He is never to be confused with what He creates. Pantheism believes that the universe is God; or creation is God. But the universe only reflects the wisdom of God. When we study the universe, we can see His fingerprints; and we can see the extent of His creation. All that God touches is spectacular. His wisdom also touches humanity.

6. Main point

- 1) God has put something into us; we are made in His image. Gen. 1:27 We can link His wisdom and our creation.
- 2) Hence wisdom is what God has given to us. We are made in the likeness of God. We are not in the physical form of God. He is spirit; He is everywhere. So what does image mean? This is reference to our souls, which is the immaterial part of us. Part of the image is wisdom. But it needs to be activated. It is part of who we are. We are fearfully and wonderfully made. God knew what He was doing when He put our bodies together. We were seminally in Adam and God knew from the beginning how our very complex body works.
- 3) Wisdom also points to Jesus Christ. Jesus is the Divine Agent of creation. In these last days has spoken to us God in His Son, Whom He appointed Heir of all things; through Whom also He made the world. When Jesus came to this earth, and Bobby kept hammering us with the mind of Christ. It is absolute wisdom. The words of God and the words of Jesus.
- 4) Ultimately, wisdom speaks of Christ, because He is the fountainhead of our wisdom, of divine viewpoint, of the mind of Christ. What did Paul write in 1Cor. 3? We have the mind of Christ. We have the ultimate wisdom; so God's wisdom can be our wisdom. God has made us fearfully and wonderfully. We demonstrate His wisdom in how we have been created. God also gave to Us His wisdom in His thought processes. That has been imparted to us in the Scriptures. We have His wisdom from the Word of God itself.

7. Col. 2:3 Christ, in Whom are hidden all the wisdom of the universe. In addition to the standard offices of the Lord, prophet, priest and king; we need to add the office of Sage, the ultimate wise person. In all of these areas, Jesus is far greater than anyone in any of these offices at any time. Humanity may share in His wisdom through His Word. We can apply divine thinking to the circumstances of our own lives. Bobby has taken us from creation and the universe; and the creation of the earth and mankind; and to use as a creation; to wisdom within us. We are connected all the way back to creation; and it is ours. That makes this rather important. Christ was with the Father using wisdom in His creative acts. Jesus brings to us His wisdom; He is the living word.

8. Wisdom does not come from the cosmos or the earth; nor does it depend upon the cosmos, the earth or the universe. The heavens tell of the glory of God. Creation demonstrates God's glory.

- 1) The cosmos reflects the Lord's wisdom.
- 2) Creation manifests God's glory. God in His wisdom has placed into the created order, something of His glory. Something of His wonder; something of His thinking; something of Himself, which includes the attribute of wisdom.

3) Wisdom is part of the creation of the heavens and they display His glory. Scripture tells us that the radiance of the Father's glory is the same glory possessed by the Lord Jesus Christ. An exact representation of His nature. Jesus upholds all things by the Word of His power. Jehovah is the Shekinah Glory. He is the glory of God Who is dwelling among man. We can trace in history why the glory of God

9. We have a 3-level understanding of wisdom:

- 1) Satan has corrupted this wisdom in cosmos diabolic us.
- 2) Wisdom is a further attribute here singled out for display in creation.
  - (1) The attribute of wisdom becomes a characteristic of the world that He has made.
  - (2) This is because there is wisdom in all that He does and all that He creates; it is a foundation and an understanding. Wisdom founded the earth.
  - (3) This wisdom turns towards all mankind.
  - (4) It beckons us; it encourages us. This is our thinking or it should be.
  - (5) God's wisdom is always for our benefit.

Psalm 8 after the Christmas message.

Lesson #00032

Christmas Families

12/22/2019 1Sunday

Christmas should be about the birth of Christ; but what is emphasized

Many a good sermon about His momentous birth. Sermons about wise men and shepherds; and we sing many songs about this. There is also a visual mode, nativity scenes in front yards and there are often

Rick Hughes recommended Simon Birch to Bobby, just for the manger scene, which is hilarious and also has a very good message.

People get excited about family visits and Christmas lights and whatever. Bob spilled the beans about Santa Claus and 10 families then left the church. All of this portrays the sacred and the profane; and these are all universal signs of the Christmas season. But few are thinking about the genetics of Jesus Christ.

Bobby is considering the virgin conception, and the virgin pregnancy. This can never be overlooked; this is critically important and indispensable to the biography of the Lord. Jesus was not conceived like the rest of us.

Important because the Bible tells us that it occurred. On a theological level, without the truth of this doctrine, there would be no purpose for Christ on this earth without the virgin pregnancy. Some claim that this is just a religious theory and some see this as non-essential. Some accept the truth, but don't see it as being vital. They hold the truth, but the truth does not hold them.

A renown theologian of the last century, Chas. Reynolds Brown, a important to modern, liberal theology. His final lecture. Did Jesus of Nazareth have 2 parents like the rest of us? Or did He just have 1? What does it matter? We do not base our manner upon such a theological point, but upon His teaching and actions. His virgin birth has no relation to saving men from their sins. People ask him, what do you say about the virgin birth? "I saw what Paul says," which is nothing. No reference to it in any of Paul's writings. Paul had a lot to say about other topics, but not the virgin birth. For Brown, Mark, John, Paul and Jesus did not talk about it, so it is not important.

However Luke and Matthew both speak of the virgin birth. Were Paul, Mark, John and Jesus really silent on this matter? No, they were not. John wrote, John 3:16 uniquely born Son. Mark wrote in Mark 6:3 Is this not the carpenter, the son of Mary, brother of...? Joseph is left out of this list.

Jesus was not silent on His birth. He taught His preexistence. He knew Himself to be God. He came down out of heaven. He had a heavenly origin. He was entirely unique. Jesus' mother was pregnant for 9 months and delivered in the normal way. Mary became pregnant through a supernatural influence upon her. There was no sexual intercourse. The evidence and emphasis is on Mary conceiving and giving birth, without mention of a father; but the Holy Spirit only.

Philip. 2:7–8 Jesus takes the form of a man.

A denial of the most important fact that Jesus was virgin born.

What about Paul? Did He Not Write about the Virgin Birth?

1. Paul was a student of the Old Testament; a great rabbi. A complete student; he knew it all. So he knew about this virgin birth. He had to know this was a biological miracle.
2. Paul references OT passages, which signify his familiarity with the doctrine. The seed of the woman. Only the seed of the woman is mentioned in Gen. 3.
3. Paul read about the singular sign that a virgin would conceive without fertilization. There is the prophecy that a virgin will bear a Son; and she will call His name Immanuel. That is a child Who is special. Paul was familiar with this prophecy.
4. Paul knew that this Son would be given as he had studied. Paul was aware of the 2nd advent and the 1st advent was over. He knew the virgin-born child and that He would return as...both prophecies fulfilled in this child.
5. Paul had a long relationship with Luke. Luke often traveled with him on his missionary journeys. Spiritual life. Paul was silent, but he was silent about many things. He was silent about the Lord's miracles or the Sermon on the Mount. He did not mention the parables, the Olivet discourse. Does Bobby have to mentioned the virgin birth in every...he did not repeat this doctrine, but he believed it. It is vital to the salvation of mankind. There is a universality of sin, and Paul....through one man, sin entered the world, and death through sin. Paul made Jesus the singular exception. 2Cor. 5:21 there was the imputation of sin.

6. There is a conflict in Paul's theology. An irreconcilable different between the nature of mankind and Jesus. Jesus is not included in the same category with all mandkind. This is fundamental to the Lord's work.

We must understand this, and we will go back to Gen. 3:15.

Lesson #0033

Proverbs Wisdom in the OT

12/22/2019 2Sunday

Gen. 3:15 I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and her offspring; he shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise his heel."

This is the first Christmas verse. This answers what we need to know. This is about eternal enmity between two seeds. Within this declaration of enmity is found the embryonic promise of a Savior and salvation for all mankind.

The Seed of the Woman. This reveals the prophecy and the necessity of the birth of Jesus Christ. This presupposes the need for a Savior. Otherwise, we live forever in spiritual death. The woman's seed is God's gracious plan of redemption; her seed, the virgin-born child.

When the fulness of time came, God's Son was born of a woman. Paul clearly believed in this passages, which is related directly to the virgin birth.

This passage is related to the woman's seed and Satan's seed only. Adam is left out of the genealogy of Jesus Christ.

Adam Left out

1. There is the type of Adam's original sin.
2. Adam's sin was a sin of cognizance. He knew exactly what he was doing.
3. When he takes the fruit from the woman, he knows exactly what he is doing.
4. Through Adam alone spiritual death comes to all of us. In Adam, all die.
5. This does not mean that the woman lacks a sin nature.
6. As understood from Gen. 3:15, it is Adam, not the seed of the sin nature that transmits the sin nature. It is not Adam who was deceived, but the woman. The emphasis is upon the word deceived. Απαταω, the same verb in Gen. 3:15 (in the LXX). This helps us to understand what the Greek and Hebrew words mean. The woman's transgression is being described; not the man. 1Tim. 2:13 connects this verse to Gen. 3:15 by this common verb. The woman was misled. She said, in Gen. 3:13, "The serpent deceived me, and I ate." This is the condition of the woman at the fall. She ignored the Lord's word and she chose to disobey. While blindly deceived, the woman did sin; ignorance is not an excuse then or now. Sin is based upon the act of volition.
7. Adam calls her, later, the mother of all life. She received the seed which perpetuated the human race. Being deceived, the woman did not understand the consequences of her sin. When Adam accepted the forbidden fruit from the woman, he was completely aware of his act of disobedience. When he saw her with the fruit in her hand, he understood what happened.

8. Adam chose the woman inside the garden as opposed to Jesus Christ outside of the garden.

While the man and woman are guilty of sin, upon Adam fell the greater culpability for the fall. The post-fall confrontation was between Adam and God. The woman was not a part of the confrontation. The woman acquired a sin nature just as Adam did.

We can now understand the Adam's seed will not be involved in the birth of the Savior. It is from her seed comes the birth of the Savior.

When Jesus entered the garden to speak to Adam; He is the manifestation of God. He said to Adam, and to Adam alone, "Where are you, Adam?" He addressed only Adam because Adam was designated the leader. He had a great responsibility. He was the federal head of the human race. He is the genetic father of us all. We are all descendants of one man and one woman. He is our forebearer.

The entire human race is seminally present with Adam. We sinned when Adam sinned. We are his progeny. He is the head of the human race. When he chose to sin, he secured the condemnation of the entire human race. He caused our fall. If you were there, you would have sinned too. When Adam chose to sin, his sin nature is passed along to every sin (apart from the woman's egg). Pregnancy is what results. By his seed, he renders his progeny spiritually dead.

In human procreation, it is the seed of the man who passes along the sin nature to all his progeny. Since the woman was deceived and Adam was not, she would be the vehicle for the promised seed. She is sinful; but deceived. Her egg along with a male seed produces a fallen person.

Only one Man born apart from Adam's original sin; the Lord Jesus Christ. The Savior had to be true humanity; but without a sin nature. He had to have our genetics. He experienced all that we experienced; but He was uniquely born without a sin nature. As a true member of the human race, Jesus possessed a body, but there is no sin nature. Jesus sinlessness is related directly to the virgin pregnancy and this is necessary to our salvation. There is no salvation apart from the Lord being born in this miraculous way. The Holy Spirit's part in this pregnancy is 23 perfect male chromosomes needed to fertilize the egg. There was no transmission of sin from marriage to Jesus Christ. The contaminated male seed was left out.

This manner of procreation is the basis for our redemption on the cross. It provided the world with a perfect human being, the only one qualified to be the Savior. Jesus could not be our sacrifice. This is the promise of Gen. 3:15b: He shall crush your head; and you will bruise His heel. It is not hard to kill a snake; just one strong blow to the head. So this passage is all about the head of the serpent. The final bruising is Christ against the head of the serpent. In Revelation, Christ will crush the head of the serpent. Until then, Gen. 3:15b is a prophecy.

A man's heel is vulnerable to the strike of a serpent. Satan hoped that the death of Jesus Christ would have...

Christ would bear our sins in His Own body on the cross. Hence the virgin pregnancy is vital to our salvation. This is the opening Christian passage in the Bible.

Theologians have debated, does that mean that the virgin birth is so important that we must believe that doctrine in order to be saved? No, not at all. Christ and Christ alone is the object of our faith. Many elevate Mary because she is the mother of Jesus. She did not remain a virgin. We do not pray to Mary. Jesus has 3 brothers and 2 sisters.

Very weird things about the birth of the Lord. He experience everything that we experience, except that He was not conceived of a man. The virgin birth is a reminder to us of the uniqueness of the Lord Jesus Christ. Jesus, at the very least, was a unique man with an unparalleled mission. He would be identified as such through this virgin birth. So it is important. We recognize Him as the Savior and Messiah. Another evidence of the power and sovereignty of God.

"Is there anything too hard for God?" (Gen. 18:14). Was there anything special about Mary? Do not elevate her because of the virgin birth. This reminds us that salvation is not a human accomplishment but a gift from God; and an undeserved one as well.

The assault on the virgin birth of our Lord is an assault on Christianity itself. Virgin-born, virgin-conceived. His substitutionary work depends upon what is revealed. This is the Christmas story; from virgin pregnancy to the cross. When Jesus was born, the shadow of the cross is over Him. Jesus was born to die; and we are born to be born again.

No Bible class

Lesson #0034                      Prov. 3:19–20 Ps.8:1–6    Wisdom in the OT    12/26/2019    Thurs,

We will only be in Prov. 3 for a short time.

Prov. 3:19    The LORD by wisdom founded the earth; by understanding He established the heavens;...

Prov. 3:20    ...by His knowledge the deeps broke open, and the clouds drop down the dew.

Psalm 8 will be an interlude. We will skip around in wisdom. Man, on the one hand, is insignificant; and, on the other hand, the crown of God's creation.

The psalms were all hymns; they were all sung. Some view them as great worship pieces.

Wisdom is not mentioned in this verse. But God created by wisdom.

Psalm 8 inscription To the choirmaster: according to The Gittith. A Psalm of David.

Written by David.

Psalm 8:1 O LORD, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth! You have set your glory above the heavens.

This is the howling of the person who is above and beyond all creation. This one verse gives us a wonderful view as to how we should view creation. God created by wisdom; He was the build, the designer, the engineer, the master architect beyond all creation.

Bobby was given a book of pictures of our universe from the Hubble telescope. If you look at these pictures, these are pictures of what God has done. There are things which we see that we have not seen before. This screams the glory and the majesty of God Himself.

This is the first of a number of psalms which praise God, seeing Him through the phenomena of the natural world that He has created. The absolute intelligence and absolute skill that He possesses. The skill in God's creation is beyond our imagination. The immensity of it and the order of it. The psalm relates us and our existence to His world and to His grace, wisdom and unlimited power. This power that created the universe is available to us. Jesus Christ Himself dwells within us. This is the God who created. It is amazing that we are the crown of God's creation.

It is really impossible for us to fully understand, based only upon what we can see or discover from the universes.

Science and Creation

1. Science is a discipline that seeks but can only discover a limited understand of God's creation. Some people think that science will ultimately cure every disease and will understand the entire universe. We put such great stock in science.
2. There are so many things which are undiscovered and many of these things will never fully understand. This is not a denigration of science; but there are tremendous advances. What science has discovered is far less than there is out there to discover. God has made things which are far beyond our ability to understand. Science can, at best, theorize on some of these things.
3. The things which are known can recognize the marvelous brilliance of God. His creation glorifies Him. All that we can observe is there to testify to the glory of God. The Scriptures tell us, that is just finger work for God. We can understand a few things from His creation. We begin to understand how amazing God is. Man continues to tarnish that glory through their many humanistic theories. "I can see how it is possible to look down on the earth and be an atheist; but how can he look up and deny God?" Abraham Lincoln. This is all part of what God created. God is in us; He is omnipresent. We can look into the skies and have a little bit of an inkling as to Who He is.

Evolution can leave God out of the process altogether. It explains creation to them and puts them in the camp of evolution. This would mean that God put things into motion and then allowed billions of years for everything to develop. That is an attempt to denigrate the creation by God. The atheistic random selection theory of evolution which gives glory to the creative power of the universe, which creates itself in some random way, by some random force. Given enough time and some undefined energy, life emerges from primordial chaos. Yet such order and precision does not come into being without a designer. Order does not come out of chaos.

God's Name

1. God's name represents the quality of all the revelation which God has given of Himself.
2. That revelation is the visual display of what we see in the universe. This includes the plant on which we live. The human body is an amazing creation. How majestic is Your Name!
3. Paul makes this same point in Rom. 1:20 For since the creation of the world. His invisible attributes, His eternal power and His divine nature has been clearly seen. What we see of the natural world is God's creation. Being understood by what has been made. There are all sort of ways the cosmic system keeps us from understand this. Natural world revelation. That is what evolution has done. Because they have not clearly seen, they are without excuse.
4. The revelation of His power and nature is part of God's majesty. David speaks of how majestic the Lord's name is.
5. Creation is what makes His wisdom, His grace and His glory so obvious. Bobby's master thesis was on the Shekinah Glory. The Shekinah Glory became flesh and lived among us. Then the Shekinah Glory lives in us. This is the glory of God, the majesty of God, Who created the universe.
6. Behind all of this universe is God's wisdom. This same wisdom is available to us. There may be some little wisdom to some, but not much apart from revelation. God's essence is always complete, always finished. His wisdom defines what it creates. His wisdom is demonstrated by everything around us. This includes so-called scientific discovery. Isaac Newton discovered the 3 laws of motion; but God put them into existence. God in His infinite wisdom designed it all.

Bobby holds to the theory of a young earth. We do not know how long the earth has been in existence. It is extremely hard to know the age of the earth, like dating the earth from the strata. They are must making up the time frame of the earth. The strata may not demonstrate that. Carbon dating cannot go far back enough.

Psalm 8:1 O LORD, our Lord, how majestic is Your name in all the earth! You have set Your glory above the heavens.

Then we have the next verse:

Psalm 8:2 Out of the mouth of babies and infants, You have established strength...

God Reveals Himself by the Weakest in Humanity

1. God uses weak things even the most trifling human beings to testify to His glory.
2. This is a paradox that God has revealed, He has revealed His power by that which is the weakest.
3. The humbleness of the human race puts the majesty of God in view. When David wrote this, and wrote about the majesty of His name; and then says the baby testifies to the glory of God.
4. This negates humanism. Humanism elevates man without God.
5. The glory of God is not a God of man's own making. Man always comes far short of God's glory. If we do not start with the Lord's revelation, we cannot...
6. The God that they invent is more human than divine. This is what mythology is. This is what eastern religions do. They have many gods. Man develops into the divine.
7. What this verse shows is the inherent wisdom of God as attached to humility to mankind. The most humble of human beings and the majesty of God in comparison.
8. Humility is strength; arrogance is weakness. Humility recognizes the majesty and glory of God. Then you begin to have the fear of the Lord.
9. The child represents humility; the humanist represents extreme and evil arrogance.
10. Humility is the necessary quality to recognize the greatness of God. You cannot recognize God's greatness apart from humility.

Psalm 8:2 Out of the mouth of babies and infants, You have established strength because of Your foes, to still the enemy and the avenger.

Now view the next two verses.

Psalm 8:3 When I look at Your heavens, the work of Your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place,...

David looks at the sky. He has spent many night's in the field and looking up into the sky and considering things. What we can see, even in a darkened area, many stars, and the represent only a spec in the number of stars which are out there. God is in heaven and look at what He has done. If God can do that; can He not do great things for me?

This is what David thinks of:

Psalm 8:4 ...what is man that You are mindful of him, and the son of man that You care for him?

When you look at Who God is and what He has done; and how can some human person make a bit of difference to Him? David feels some smallness in the eyes of God; and yet, God takes notice of us. Why would God give David any thought? Even though David is a king, why would God even give David a second thought? God created man, so there must be something to it.

Through his observation of heaven, David sees God and notes his own smallness compared to the vast created universe.

Why Would God Do Such a Thing?

1. David and all mankind are a part of God's creation.
2. God invested mankind with a dignity that is second only to His Own.
3. God made man ruler over the world that God created by wisdom. Gen. 1:26, 28
4. Thus man, who is a part of creation, a part of the creation of the earth, must exercise that wisdom. That is what God requires of us. Use the wisdom by which you were created.
5. We are the only creatures capable of doing that in a rational and willful way.
6. It is clear that God has a special interest centered in the human race. A very humbling understanding that this majesty, that this power and wisdom in the Person of God Himself, takes an interest in us.

Then David makes this observation:

Psalm 8:5 Yet you have made Him a little lower than the heavenly beings and crowned Him with glory and honor.

The heavenly beings are God. We are second only to God in this universe. David's feeling of insignificance in the universes is quickly removed by this thought.

Psalm 8:6 You have given Him dominion over the works of your hands; You have put all things under His feet,...

Lesson #0035

Proverbs Wisdom in the OT

12/29/2019 1Sunday

Social on Tuesday night. No Bible class Wednesday; Bible class on Thursday.

Prov. 3:19 The LORD by wisdom founded the earth; by understanding He established the heavens;...

Here, and not in Genesis, God's wisdom is inherent in His creation.

David, as the writer of this psalm, praises God. Great doctrinal content. The creation display reveals His wisdom.

Psalm 8:1 O LORD, our Lord, how majestic is Your name in all the earth! You have set Your glory above the heavens.

David has gazed up into the night sky and he is awed by what he sees. The Lord's wisdom as demonstrated in creation is one reason for our awe.

The stars are a mere exhibition. Revelation of God comes only from God. We can only know God through what He tells us. What David knows, we know so much more. God brought all of this from nothing.

Gen. 1:2 describes the earth as formless and void; empty space out there.

Psalm 8:2 Out of the mouth of babies and infants, You have established strength because of Your foes, to still the enemy and the avenger.

Psalm 8:3 When I consider Your heavens, the work of Your fingers, the moon and the stars, which You have set in place,...

All of this vastness and amazing things, is just God's finger-work. There was no pattern; no research. This was all known; already a part of His mind.

Psalm 8:4 ...what is man that You are mindful of him, and the son of man that You care for him?

Given what God has done, who or what is man? David feels an overwhelming sense of mankind's unimportance.

David wonders, why does God take note of humanity at all? How insignificant we are? Why would God give David even a second thought. God created the heavens, the earth and mankind. God created all of us; that is His purpose. David sees clearly the unlimited power and wisdom behind it all. God designed and built this universe as the work of His fingers.

David notes the grace of God that He cares for David. It dawns on David that all mankind is a part of God's creation. God then made man ruler over the world, the world that He, God, created.

It is clear that God has a special interest in the human race.

Psalm 8:5 Yet you have made (h) Him a little lower than the heavenly beings and crowned (h) Him with glory and honor.

Nevertheless, God created man. We are so insignificant. Yet look where God has placed us. Does this not reenforce man's place in the world? There is man, God, the fallen angels, and the elect angels.

Anthropology is a very interesting subject. The human view of anthropology is all over the place. How we came to be, the nature of man, etc., and the answers to these questions depend upon who we are speaking to. We are studying true anthropology. We are second only to God.

God Created Man

1. Man is not divine or supernatural; nor will we ever be angelic. Mankind, in some religions, becomes divine. As we grow and do good and develop our consciousness, we are becoming divine. We will never be a god; we will never be angelic.
2. We are not resurrected as angels; nor will we sit on a cloud and play a harp. We will end up being above angels.
3. We will retain our true humanity when resurrected. We will not be floating invisible spirits. 1Cor. 15:52–53
4. We will be higher than angles. Right now, we lack the power of angels; but we will.
5. We will actually judge the angels. This places us on a higher plane above angels.
6. Man has been placed that high on the scale of created beings, which negates something that we need to understand—particularly in this age of environmentalism and PETA—man is not just another animal; we are not just another phylum.

How Are We in God's Image?

1. It says, insignificant man, we are so insignificant; and we are created just a little lower than God.
2. Here is how we are: we are made in the very image of God, according to Gen. 1:27. God has never been seen. This should help us to understand what this means to be a little lower than God Himself.
3. We have a certain similarity to God Himself.
4. In that similarity, we cannot say that we can even approach God in power and majesty and wisdom.
5. No other creature is said to possess the image of God status.
6. This sets us apart in all the world and in the universe from all other creatures. People think, we're not alone in this universe; there is something out there. People like to think about that. Bobby thinks the scifi movies are really well made. But people begin to believe what they see. We are alone in our status as just below God. Bobby believes us to be the crown of God's creation. The glory and the majesty of God Himself is revealed in our creation. The image of God is quite a concept; and a reference to the very first human being. Adam was a reflection of the Almighty in ways that we are not. God patterned Adam and the woman in innocence after Himself.

Our Image of God after the Fall

1. Even after the fall, we are still in the image of God. This image of God is not lost after the fall. James 3:9 1Cor. Gen. 9:6
2. Man has a spiritual nature with mentality, self consciousness, conscience, volition; we have this as does not other creature on earth.
3. That sharply distinguishes us from all created life. Only humanity has these things. In front of a mirror, these animals do not recognize themselves. Instinctive volition.

A professor challenged his class to define the soul. "How do you know that those are the only attributes of the soul? How do you know that animals do not have these attributes? My cat has moral reasoning power." Bobby said true for dogs; but not for cats. He was a man of doctrine; but he did love his cat.

In God's image, man is set over and above nature.

Psalm 8:6 You have given Him dominion over the works of your hands; You have put all things under His feet,...

We are the proof that God loves mankind and that His love is complete; and that His love is not marred. We are that demonstration. There is more to understand about us.

Lesson #0036

Proverbs Wisdom in the OT

12/29/2019 2Sunday

Wisdom is an attribute of God. The creation of much of the universe was just finger-work for God. Often comments about God just make God out to be sort of human. God is so far above us, we can barely understand Him. We know God by what He has revealed to us and what He created.

We are special, in the sense that God created us for a purpose. The universe is for revealing His glory and majesty.

God created animals for a purpose, but not in the same way that we have been. The image of God was first seen in the Person of Adam and the woman. Adam's original sin was that which caused a sin to enter the world; and we all have received a sin nature. We are seminally in God; we are still in the image of God. The image of God was not lost at the fall. As descendants of a fallen Adam, we have acquired a sin nature. Our image in Adam has been distorted. We are still in the image of God, but the sin nature mars that image. We are in need of a renewal of that image.

This is why Jesus came to this earth; a renewal. The first Adam, he was created without a sin nature; and the last Adam, also. Jesus Christ is our only means of renewal. The believer in Jesus Christ is being conformed to the image of Christ (Col. 3:10). This conformity is a knowledge of and a relationship with God. We have a relationship with God both positionally and experientially. We must grow spiritually to conform to that image. We will not be entirely conformed until we have a resurrection body.

1John 3:2-7 tells us that we will be like the Lord in the future. We will be glorified; but we will not be deified. We are the only creatures said to be glorified in resurrection. That is an entire doctrine of anthropology. A total relationship with Him. We are in the image of God; and even more so in resurrection body.

Still man, still humanity; never believed in Christ, Who renews our image. Animals are not said to be resurrected. There is no eternal state revealed for animals. There are certain hints in Scripture that there may be animals in heaven (the Lord riding on a horse). "If my animals are not there, it won't be as good." The status of animals is secondary to us. The animals are provided for us on this earth for our pleasure. Their place in eternity is inconsequential. We must never second-guess that perfection of heaven. Whatever is there will be incredible beyond our imagination. Will we be depressed if our animals are not there? No. The glory of God will be revealed in heaven, even after we are resurrected. We will understand it fully then. Heaven is something different.

Psalm 8:5 Yet you have made (h) Him a little lower than the heavenly beings and crowned (h) Him with glory and honor.

Man's high position is equivalent to God placing a crown on man's head; and David understood this royal image. David was at the top of Israel and no one was greater than him in Israel. He understood this elevated position.

We are royal family of God. We have been crowned in His image; and also in union with Him as the King of Kings. We are royal family in two ways. David understood his own elevated status. As we continue to conform to His image. This elevated position of mankind should not become a point of arrogance. Success in life, the fact that someone is less successful than you; or your looks in comparison to others; all sorts of motivations in this world for all of us.

When you recognize what we have and who we are. Our position points to the unparalleled grace of God. It is God Who places us slightly below Himself. This is a motive for grace orientation. Not a motive for arrogance. We, as believers, should be the humblest of all.

All of this around us, we have dominion over it. We have been crowned; we are made in His image. Our image has been positionally renewed. God Himself has made us for this purpose. We are the ones renewed and being conformed to His image. Look who I am, I have eternal life; God smiles on me and God blesses me. But, correctly understand that God blesses us based upon His character. We can apply the resources that God has given us. We can choose to use these gifts, conforming to His image. This should give us a new perspective as to who we are.

David lists separate items in the next 3 verses as being under our dominion. This gives us an idea as to how high we are. God has delegated great authority to us.

Psalm 8:6 You have given Him dominion over the works of your hands; You have put all things under His feet,...

We have dominion over the Lord's creation. All things have been placed under our feet.

Psalm 8:7 ...all sheep and oxen, and also the beasts of the field,...

Sheep and oxen and the beasts of the field; under our dominion.

Psalm 8:8 ...the birds of the heavens, and the fish of the sea, whatever passes along the paths of the seas.

Our authoritative status on this earth. God has placed a crown on mankind's head. We have a territory, earth; subjects, listed. We rule over God's handiwork, all creatures great and small have been placed under our feet.

Reference to Gen. 1:26 Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness. And let them have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over the livestock and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth."

These are under our feet. They are our footstools, as all things are the footstool under God's feet. Here, God has delegated some of this authority. This is our rulership. Just as there will be leadership positions to those who enter into the Millennium. Man will never be divine; but we are still a little lower than God.

We studied operation footstool under the Life of Christ, where His enemies will be made into His footstool. They will bow to Him in the 2nd advent. Heb. 10:13 our Lord's footstool extends far beyond the earth. He will have universal dominion. This has not yet happened. Sin and death have yet to be subdued. But they will be subdued for the return of Christ. Death will be destroyed by the resurrection. We think of the rapture of the church and the resurrection of those believers at the Millennium. Unbelievers will be resurrected as well; to the last judgment. We are all eternal. We will simply end up in different places.

The enemies of Christ include all believers. All of it will be defeated; all of it will be under His feet, as His footstool.

This is different than the footstool, the visible world, which is under us. David is praising God for making man in His image. Mankind had no power over such creatures of the sea; but they will be under our power, as we have power over domestic animals. There is the earthly and the spiritual world. Jesus conquers that which man cannot conquer. Sin, death, the cosmic system and our sin natures.

We have authority in this world. One of the great debates these days is on the environment. If it worries us that we will be wiped out due to climate, this is the future.

Isa. 11:6 The wolf shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the young goat, and the calf and the lion and the fattened calf together; and a little child shall lead them.

Does this sound like the earth is doomed?

Isa. 11:7 The cow and the bear shall graze; their young shall lie down together; and the lion shall eat straw like the ox.

At this point, bears will graze just like cattle. The young of cows and bears will live together.

Isa. 11:8 The nursing child shall play over the hole of the cobra, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the adder's den.

The young child will play by the hole of a cobra; and the weaned child will put his hand on the adder's den.

Isa. 11:9 They shall not hurt or destroy in all my holy mountain; for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD as the waters cover the sea.

We can make a mess of things; but we cannot destroy the earth. The Lord has authority over our environment. We can conserve and do things that are good for the environment; or just do the opposite. During human history, God has delegated all earthly creation under our feet. What an amazing status that we have as human beings.

We obviously do not deserve any of this. The delegated authority by God. The most wonderful treatise on the equality of human beings, this does not differentiate between race or gender. We are all souls for whom Christ died and we are all believers in Jesus Christ and we must conform to that image. We have been given unbelievable authority. What an amazing indicator of our status as human beings.

This is why rabid environmentalism has it all wrong. We are not equal to the animals and we can raise them for food. This is authorized. Bobby is not for cruelty to animals; but they are created for us. They are second to us.

If you are an animals' rights activist, you have to think about what this really means.

Lesson #001

Proverbs Wisdom in the OT

12/31/2019 Tuesday

New Year's Eve Military Communion.

The only way to make the Eucharist meaningful is by thought. Commemorated in a memorial is leadership and victory and valor.

Who is Jesus and what did He do? He is the greatest celebrity of all history. His followers were all dedicated to Him and would die for Him; but He died for them. His substitutionary death made Him the victor in the Angelic Conflict. The union of two natures, divine and human, in One Person. This is the very essence of Who He is.

Even as a newborn baby, He was undiminished Deity and True humanity. Those natures are inseparably united without loss or mixture of identities or of attributes. No attribute of one nature can be transferred to the other.

He is also unique in another way. He was born of a virgin pregnancy. In Adam, all humanity is spiritually dead. Jesus is unblemished, without a sin nature; and without committing a single personal sin. He cannot be a sinner and save man from His sins. He was the perfect Lamb of God. Another picture of Jesus emerges. He was slaughtered in our place. When God judged Him on the cross, He was being judged for our sins. He did not die for His Own sins, as He did not commit anyone. The wrath and justice of God was poured out on His Son. We understand the Lord's sinlessness from the Biblical doctrine of the impeccability of Jesus. Non posse peccari. Jesus cannot solicit to sin, sponsor sin. He cannot be tempted by sin nor can He tempt anyone else. In His humanity, He is also posse non peccari. He made consistent decisions throughout His lifetime not to sin. He used His spiritual life to stay focused on His mission. He had no inherent sin nature; all tests came from the outside. For instance, from Satan. Satan offered great temptation to Jesus; temptation that we could never withstand. We could not imagine or resist the temptations which He faced.

As sinless, Jesus was the satisfactory go-between for both parties, able to represent the interest of both parties. As a Mediator, Jesus must be equal to man and equal to God. Jesus could not come in the likeness of sinful man nor could He engage in personal sin. Because of His person, as the perfect Mediator, He is able to mediate between man and God; He is able to reconcile God to man.

This reconciliation we are able to appropriate for ourselves. Faith alone in Christ alone.

What did Jesus do for us? Everything. He was born into this world to die for us. When He bore our sins in His body, He was separate from His Father for 6 hours. All the sins of the entire human race were poured upon Him. Spiritual rebirth; this was our victory. God the Father had to desert His Son, while the sins of the world were poured out upon Him. This is why God can have no association with us as a sinner. God the Son accepted that horrible contact with sin so that we do not have to spend eternity in hell. Because the Lord died spiritually and took the penalty of sin which penalty is no longer for us. The punishment went to Christ and all of the grace came to us. One simple act of nonmeritorious faith in Christ and we are assured of eternal life.

Once we have believed in Him, we receive 39 irrevocable assets and we share everything that He has and is. We have access to the unique spiritual life and the problem solving devices which develop as we grow to spiritual maturity. All of this is based upon the moments of the Lord's death for our sins.

We concentrate on what He did during communion. Think about a person that you love and what can you recall about them. You can think about their features, talk or walk, their personal features. We have a storehouse of thought and memory connected with such a person.

Similar for the Lord; except that we have never seen Him. We know about His unfailing love for us; His magnificent grace, His provision for our eternal future. There are so many doctrines to choose from which allow us to think about Him.

It is doctrine applied in our own souls which make this ritual meaningful. This is a test. Can we think about the Lord throughout the entire communion service. As a believer, we must also be in fellowship. Since we are sinners and we do sin from time to time. We must rebound, if necessary.

Talking in the office. Military communion is now just short of 50 years now. They represent our peace. Everywhere that we look, we see turmoil. The uniform represents one of the few forms of stability. This coming election could change our nation forever. Our nation is become ever more secular and humanistic.

Positive volition towards Bible doctrine in the churches in the United States is on the wain and has been for some time. Client nation USA is in trouble this New Year's Eve. Are we powerless? Do we just sit by and watch, as our freedoms are slowly caused to erode.

Bobby has chosen Eccles. 9:

Eccles. 9:13 I have also seen this example of wisdom under the sun, and it seemed great to me.

Bobby was think about the phrase, under the son, reminding him of a Hemmingway book, The Sun Also Rises.

Eccles. 9:14 There was a little city with few men in it, and a great king came against it and besieged it, building great siegeworks against it.

The small size of the city as described here is in contrast to...this appeared to be a dire situation. Surrender everything that you have or prepare to be annihilated in a horrible way. But they have a great resource at their disposal. There is only one man with the wisdom to deal with this situation. But the wisdom of a single man is the critical element in this story.

Eccles. 9:15 But there was found in it a poor, wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city. Yet no one remembered that poor man.

He delivered this city by his wisdom; and yet, no one remembered this poor man.

Nothing is said how this man delivered the city, apart from wisdom. Did he have a great military man who outsmarted and held off this great king? Was he a great negotiator? Was he just a man whom God honored and because of whom God delivered the city.

What does it mean that he is poor? That is also a critical element of this story. Miskin, which means poor, used here and Eccles. 4:13. Not a lot of information. Was he in poverty. It is very hard to draw a hard conclusion.

Eccles. 4:13 Better was a poor and wise youth than an old and foolish king who no longer knew how to take advice.

The lad is obviously humble. He may have little money. This may just mean that he has not reached his full potential as an adult or as a spiritual man. He might be upwardly mobile.

The man facing the attack lacks wealth, rank or influence; but he has spiritual maturity. This is why he is said to have wisdom. Solomon's father was David. David was a man just like this young man in this city. He was a shepherd early on. He had no money; but he was able to gain wisdom. God heard and honored him. He showed his meddle as a young man. He beat a lion and a bear; and he also beat Goliath, a great enemy of Israel.

Eccles. 9:15 But there was found in it a poor, wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city. Yet no one remembered that poor man.

He was not necessarily a man who fought with strength.

What Do We Know?

1. It is wisdom itself that is the subject of this deliverance.
2. The man himself is not the issue; the wisdom is what is key. It is the power of Bible doctrine in the soul of one person who makes the difference. He has resources in his soul that no one else has.
3. Maximum impact was made by one poor man in a city face with inhalation.
4. He was unique for his wisdom in this city; he was the one person who had it.
5. His wisdom's positive effect was the only means of deliverance for this city.
6. He was to be found in the city; and he may have been unknown to most people. He had to be searched out. Maybe?
7. His wisdom has greater value than anything else in life; that is our application. Divine viewpoint is our only solution to personal and national disaster.

History is filled with historical disasters, civilization after civilization which falls. As goes the believer, so goes the parts of the nation. So goes the cities, the counties and the states.

From this narrative, we make application to our own lives.

This is a principle of deliverance for a nation or a city, or a county. We have associations with all of these entities. The wisdom of divine viewpoint in a single individual can impact great events in human history. How practical can it get for today? This wisdom is a necessity for us today.

Bobby has watched the city of Houston for decades. He was out of the city for 20 years, but Bobby still kept in touch with it. Bob was the pastor of this church for 53 years. He has seen wisdom of the government of this city lose its wisdom and become more liberal and more socialistic. He has seen churches as well move away from spiritual growth to a Christian community.

The state of Texas is still a bastion of free enterprise and freedom. There is at least one congregation growing in grace and knowledge. There is that truth; there is always hope. Remember the principle. No one else but this one poor man saved the city from a hostile king. One single person has a greater effect than even a hostile king.

There is the principle of a pivot of mature believers. The pivot is an accumulation of mature believers who live in the same city or state. They guarantee the status of the place into the next generation. There is an impact of believers, individuals.

How many believers does it take to preserve a nation? What is enough? What is the size of the pivot that will do that job? Eccles. 9:15 tells us that a single man delivers this city; a man of no stature.

The One Wise Believer Delivers this City

1. The wisdom of one comes to the rescue of all.
2. It comes to the rescue of those who do not want or appreciate the power of wisdom; who are filled with ridiculous human schemes. But even they are delivered simply by being in approximation to him.
3. This is blessing by association.
4. The people still go back to their old ways, paying no attention to the means or the process of their deliverance. The power of the cosmic system is broken by one man; one person.

Who today could be this one person? A military genius? Does this require a great believer in government? Does this require a man with a charismatic person. Or is it delivered by just a nobody, in human terms.

The city we are viewing was not saved by a general or a king or a group of warriors; but by this one poor man, who blesses by association. A one-person pivot in a city filled with human viewpoint and human solutions. God honors this man.

This blessing by association is the pivot principle which applies to one man here.

Blessing by Association

1. Blessing by association is defined as the overflow of blessing imparted to the mature believer by God.
2. Every mature believer has people, family and friends, organizations, cities, states associated with that person.
3. This man had an association with a city and this man is why the city was delivered.
4. This is one reason why the wicked prosper. It can be a result of association.
5. God honors the pivot of mature believers. Even when a nation is rife with evil; but as God honored this one man and his city.
6. The true approach is spiritual.

7. Spiritual influence is the wisdom of Bible doctrine in a person, applied and then honored by God. God honors those who honor Him. We honor God by knowing Him and worshipping Him.

So, if you get upset and say, what do I do? This is the answer.

God can work any circumstance to our benefit. How did our president get elected. It happens for a reason. God uses circumstances to work for our favor and benefit. God is still on His throne. He does not forget those who know Him.

Such a mature believer provides blessing for self righteous evil-thinking people. That is grace in action. Often others do not recognize such impact. In fact, people often oppose such believers, the very ones who deliver them. The mature believer. Activism instead of spiritual growth. Human machinations to replace the spiritual life. We see this all the time; that was the case of this poor wise man. What is this poor wise man regarding this town? That is the question of application. What is the importance of a seemingly insignificant person. This is historical, local and national impact. This is the unknown factor. To pray without ceasing; to overtly stand and show courage in the face of false humanism. To speak and act correctly when everyone else is paralyzed with stupidity. God honors the mature spiritual life no matter who it is.

Bob's story of the very successful corporation and the meeting of all the heads, and they are congratulating themselves, but there is a mature believer who is their janitor, and they are blessed for that reason.

God can bless any group, any city, any organization, any mature congregation. Our client nation is clearly in decline. Who will be the few or the many? The more mature believers, the greater the blessing. God will hold off the results of folly, even if for one man. But each generation must stand on its own.

In Closing, a 6 Point Application

1. Estimate people by their wisdom, not by their outward show. Plenty of show ponies out there; flashy exteriors; but few have the real virtue of Bible doctrine. Do not be fooled by what our leaders tell us. Evaluated the leaders in the light of divine establishment. No one is perfect in these areas? Who is closest to the truth, to divine establishment.
2. The wise person learns from this short history from Ecclesiastes. Wisdom is better than strength. He showed himself to be stronger than an army besieging his city. What gets your attention. A great body with muscle and strength; or maybe less attractive. But given the choice, Solomon is clear about which way to go. Do you prefer an arrogant specimen who is attractive?
3. It should encourage us to remember that great results can come from feeble means. The world does not even recognize it; but even if they did know, they would only despise.

4. Learn also to prepare for disappointment. This does not mean to be pessimistic or gloomy. People do disappoint. They fail; they let us down. They may be self-centered, looking out just for their own best interests. Don't disappoint yourself because you are seeking approbation from them. Instead, act for their best interest in the realm of wisdom.
5. Many obtain what they do not deserve; but that is how the pivot works. A few people of wisdom bring blessing to those who do not deserve it. That is a city or nation of grace. This can be applied to our spiritual life.
6. You never have grounds to be disheartened by failure. If you miss out on the accolades and the rewards of this world and you are poor; the time is at hand, that there will be a substantial and unfading reward which comes from God.

Every year, there is a prediction for the new year. Bobby's is simple. This will be a great year. There should be no pessimism, no doubt, no anger. We are in the Lord's hands and we are a congregation growing in wisdom. This will continue. We can be the remnant of believers who make the difference.

Lesson #0037

Psalm Wisdom in the OT

1/2/2020 Thursday

God and His Creation

1. Psalm 8 does not praise nature but the God Who formed the natural world.
2. Nature is always subordinate to and dependent upon God. God maintains the universe; He is the agent of creation; and he maintains that which we see around us.
3. In some quarters, nature is God; the force of all creation, a tenet of atheistic evolution. That nature created itself. It is some force that they cannot identify. Somehow from nothing, life came; and somehow, we were created over billions of years by these same forces.
4. The desire and builder is God, the Creator; Who is infinitely above His creation. We have a relationship with God only because what Jesus has done for us on the cross. We are not deified.
5. Without God, there is no nature; there is none.
6. This psalm is addressed entirely to God and not to the many aspects of His creation.
7. Therefore, the admiration of nature by believers is nothing more than an acknowledgment of the glory of God. Just on television, we have a greater view of nature more than anyone else has every seen before.
8. The contemplation of the heavens in vv. 1,3 lead to the conclusion of the glory of God. David is contemplating this...
9. There is a sense of man's insignificance. What is ironic and striking in Psalm 8, what is man that you have considered him?
10. In God's grace, He has made mankind to rule over all creation. That is man's design. We rule.

11. That gives us, humanity, dominion second only to God Himself. That is what amazes Bobby. We are second in dominion only to God Himself?
12. Humans have been invested with the greatness of God; but also responsibility and the endowment of wisdom from God which is part of that. How many does it take to preserve our nation, our state, our city, our county? So many people have come to Bobby at the social and have said, "I want to be that one." The great thing about it is, we all have the responsibility, which comes from wisdom in our souls.

Psalm 8:6 You have given Him dominion over the works of your hands; You have put all things under His feet,

Bobby is interpreting this as referring to being under man's feet.

Psalm 8:7 ...all sheep and oxen, and also the beasts of the field,...

These are the important animals to the economy of the world. Sheep and oxen were used for clothing, food, work, economics.

Psalm 8:8 ...the birds of the heavens, and the fish of the sea, whatever passes along the paths of the seas.

We rule over God's handiwork. If you are going to rule, you must have something to rule over. God has given us subjects, the animals named in this passage. This is a design of God in the creation account in Gen. 1. Yet our rule and our human nature leaves much to be desired. We were seminally in Adam. We all died; we all receive a sin nature. We can have no relationship with God. And yet, the first man Adam was given rulership, which is passed along to us.

We Rule over the Animals

1. We are above the other animals in God's creation, which is made clear in this passage. And in the creation account.
2. The human species is not all equal with all the other species of animals on this earth. Some people just place us into the same category, with the same rights and all of us equal.
3. Further, the creatures of the earth, over which we are designated to rule, are for our use and for our benefit. That is also included in vv. 7–8; for food, clothing, companionship.
4. How we rule this earth is also an indicator of our sin nature and the total depravity of all mankind.
5. Having dominion means that we should rule wisely and judiciously in the use of our power.

God cannot allow that and He will not. God's Word never fails; He never goes back on His promises. If you are freaked out about global warming or environmental destruction; relax; will there be destruction? We misuse our rule; but we will not be destroyed. There are people who are out of the minds with fear about this situation.

Having dominion means taking care of that over which we have dominion. We rule but we also have an obligation as ruler of this earth. We cannot abuse them. We are allowed to use them for our benefit, pleasure and company. It is revolting to see pets mistreated. The animals are dependent upon the kindness of our rule. That is how God is to us, gracious and caring to us. He has designated a dominion to us. We should similarly rule over animals and over other people.

The Rule of Law

1. Our dominion includes the rule of law. Never forget how important that is to the human race. Rom. 12. It is necessary.
2. Law is designed by God to curb the excesses of the sin nature of the human race. This is to gain some control over the sin nature.
3. The rule of law was designed for the perpetuation and survival of the human race. Everyone doing what is right in his own eyes; where everyone is his own ruler. WWI began from an anarchist killing the one who would take the throne of Austria-Hungary.
4. It is a means for man to rule wisely. Be protected; and have maximum freedom. The Mosaic Law has many aspects and one of them is the freedom code, that which is designed for the freedom of the human race. That is exactly what the Ten Commandments are all about. The Mosaic Law is often posted in courthouses as it is often posted as the forerunner for our own law; but people want to remove it because it is in the Bible.
5. The principles of the rule of law are found in the Mosaic Law. Designated and designed by God as opposed to the rule by fiat, by dictators, by the tyrant.
6. To the extent that just divine establishment laws of man rule, the sin nature and the tyranny of mankind is kept under control.
7. Even law can be distorted when mankind abuses it, misuses it or abandons it. This becomes the cruel and unjust dominion over other human beings. We are made in the image of God, but it was marred by the fall and the sin nature.

We come to the part where David closes out this psalm. He repeats v. 1

Psalm 8:9 O LORD, our Lord, how majestic is Your name in all the earth!

Majestic is a term that we use, along with wonderful and fantastic; for something which is really fantastic. When you use majestic with God and His creation, this is overwhelming praise for God.

Now let's resume Prov. 3:20:

Prov. 3:19 The LORD by wisdom founded the earth; by understanding He established the heavens;...

Prov. 3:20 ...by His knowledge the deeps broke open, and the clouds drop down the dew.

These kinds of passages need to be dissected. This is a continuation of the creation metaphor.

The prepositional phrase, by means of His knowledge. God has the skill and the ability to,,, God's tool to use is His wisdom and knowledge. He accomplishes wonderful portions of creation.

What Does it Mean?

1. The depths is subterranean structure; the structure under the crust of the earth.
2. It is broken up or opened up so that waters may flow. This is all a part of creation.
3. What is this a description of? A description of rivers, streams, bursting out of the earth.
4. This is not a reference to oceans. It refers to the eternal storage of water in the earth.
5. From these stores comes that which waters the earth.
6. These waters can be used to irrigate the land.
7. Without this water, there is no food and no economy. We have come to a point in this country where very few people farm. At one time, farming was the economy. You might eat what you make, and then boil. There is an ongoing fight for the Colorado River between Arizona and California. So without this water, there is no food or economy.
8. So the Hebrews understood this as an economic reference for their benefit.
9. God's wisdom is always for their benefit. Ways that we can only marvel about.

We are told that the skies drip with dew; and this is another benefit. Water comes from under the earth; and in the second half, from the heavens.

Prov. 3:20 ...by His knowledge the deeps broke open, and the clouds drop down the dew.

We might think of this as a reference to an ocean open to others we have to be watered with the contents of wisdom, with the contents of God's Word. Otherwise, we shrivel and die.

Water in the world is there for mankind's benefit. This reveals divine wisdom. This is also a part of the wisdom of creation.

The Wisdom of God in His Creation

1. Vv. 19–20 and Psalm 8 speak to the power and wisdom of God in creation.

2. If God is capable of such power and creation through wisdom, and He is, then, think what else He can do with wisdom. If He can do the greater, He can do the lesser. Can we not depend upon Him, the Creator of the Universe, to have the power needed for us?
3. Think of what His wisdom can do which flows through the lives...

God says, "Don't forget about creation and all that I can do." He can provide everything in His power and His wisdom. For the fact that we do not have to fear.

Prov. 3:21 My son, do not lose sight of these— keep sound wisdom and discretion,...

David is speaking to Solomon these words. Continue to rely upon the wisdom and ability of God in everything. Keep sound wisdom and discretion. Keep it; hold only it. Don't let it go.

Prov. 3:22 ...and they will be life for your soul and adornment for your neck.

This is not physical life; but life provided to our souls; to our human spirits. Wisdom is the center. The beauty and benefit of wisdom is displayed around your neck, if you follow v. 21. The faith rest life and the relaxed mental attitude.

Lesson #0038

Proverbs Wisdom in the OT

1/5/2020 1Sunday

Without Bible doctrine and wisdom, our lives can seem pointless and aimless. The plan of God centers around the wisdom which is provided by God; a plan which operates on faith rest and a relaxed mental attitude, which comes from the faith rest drill. There is a plan which provides direction. God's plan comes to those who wait. All good things come to those who wait. In waiting, you are seeking the will of God and you are growing spiritually at the same time. With wisdom as our guide and patient from a relaxed mental attitude, we will begin to understand. The plan of God comes in increments. The plan of God has an overall viewpoint and an overall objective. We advance in God's plan. As the spiritual life gains momentum, so the plan of God in our lives also gains momentum.

Thieme Bible doctrine dictionary is now being compiled at R. B. Thieme, Jr. ministries. This will contain all of the terminology that we have been exposed to it. The words are painstakingly researched over a period of 5 years or more. Each word and doctrine accurately reflects the content of the 53 year ministry of R. B. Thieme, Jr.. This is a monumental task. It is not yet finished, but it is getting there. The plan of God and the wisdom to discover it.

This dictionary will be a companion document when we listen to Bob's teaching. Sometimes we hear some terms and we might wonder, what does that mean? What you need will be right in front of your eyes. This dictionary will also stand alone as a tremendous resource of all doctrines. You can read the words themselves and learn so much by that. This book will be helpful to those who have never heard R. B. Thieme, Jr.

Bobby brings this up with respect to finding the plan of God for our own lives. Bobby received a quote from an editor of another dictionary, which you may recognize. From James Murray 1879–1915 who began the compilation of the greatest works of lexicography and was the chief editor of the Oxford Dictionary. 12 volumes. He only lived 35 years. What he did was monumental. Every word in the English language is defined; accepted as the highest standard and most complete dictionary in the world.

The Meaning of Everything by James Murray. I think it was God's will; in times of faith, I am sure of it; I look back and see that every step of my life has been imposed upon me, not a thing of choice. Meaning that he recognizes that God had a plan for him. The whole training of my life was fitting me to do this dictionary...I am only an instrument and there is no credit due to me, but I am simply doing the plan of God.

This man was an inspiration. There is very much a repetitive life, a life is a grind. Bobby it is the greatest thing in the world. They are compiling Bible doctrine. When it is a grind, there is greatness in it. Murray's work affects us centuries later.

Solomon had the pick of women; he had tremendous ability and talent; he built the talent. Probably no one who has ever had what Solomon had. Solomon's wisdom was known throughout the world. David urges Solomon not to forget the plan of God. There were duties which could be very repetitive; all that Solomon did affect Israel. He had to do some things over and over again. These were all part of his duties of a king. He may have chased certain things in life to relieve the boredom.

Everything that Solomon had was provided to him, not for his pleasure, not for his fun, but to accomplish the will of God. This same God provides Solomon and us with this same wisdom. Every believer can have a little of this wisdom and security, because of this wisdom.

Prov. 3:21 My son, do not lose sight of these— keep sound wisdom and discretion,...

David is addressing Solomon, his son. Let them not vanish from your sight. This is wisdom and knowledge. Do not ever let wisdom go; it is necessary for a lifetime. We are to follow the promises of God. Depending and relying on the Lord is our life.

Prov. 3:22 ...and they will be life for your soul and adornment for your neck.

We will show the wisdom of God by using it in our everyday life.

Grace Around Your Neck

1. The next word is adornment, chên (חֵן) [pronounced khayn]
2. We have seen this word before and it means grace or connotes grace.
3. Wisdom will grace your neck.
4. Adornment represents grace orientation which is displayed; you have grace orientation, so you display it around your neck.

5. This display of the beauty of wisdom is an attitude and an action to behold. You never take it off.
6. This is visible for all to see in your actions in life; your discretion, sound judgment. These things appear to be in short supply today. You must have it first.
7. We must never lose sight of the power and purpose of wisdom in our life, ever. We can concentrate on many things in life; we can have a plan for many things in life. Always your plan is superceded by the plan of God.
8. By preserving wisdom in your life, you learn that God protects you in all circumstances. Prosperity can be just as distracting. You learn that the Lord will guide and protect you.
9. The world will take note of these results in your life. It decorates you; we have metals for it.

If the Almighty Omnipotent God is for us, and He supplies us with His wisdom; who can be against us? Who can touch us? How can He not preserve and protect.

Claiming this Promise of God's Wisdom

1. This provides us a promise to claim, step one of the faith rest drill. God is the Creator and He created by wisdom.
2. The creation-rationale. God can do anything. He is infinitely capable.
3. The conclusion: wisdom is God's unlimited power of life for everything.
4. Conclusion: use God's wisdom in your life, constantly, because it is the power of God for a life of sound judgment and discernment. It is our life; it is how you live and how you think.
5. It is the visible display of God's power in this world. We are that display. When we make good decisions and others make bad decisions about the same thing, they notice. If they have any desire to live a life that is relaxed, with a relaxed mental attitude, that gets good results, they look at us and ask, where does that come from? Otherwise, if we are on the other side of the faith rest drill and wisdom, we are doomed to a frantic search for happiness, to confusion, guilt, sins of a wide variety; we will find ourselves inadequate and ignorant in all things. We are prone to hypersensitivity.

Millions undergo humanistic counseling because they fit what Bobby just said. Sooner or later, you must face reality; and the results of your foolish actions. It is painful. It is self-induced misery that can be escaped only by means of wisdom. This is why God has given wisdom to us. Gaining and having wisdom is very simple. It requires the hearing discipline of it. We are in the school of wisdom.

Bobby is thankful for our positive volition. Good to be the one person.

The next two verses tout the advantages of wisdom in our souls.

This is how wisdom will adorn us inside and out.

Prov. 3:23 Then you will walk on your way securely, and your foot will not stumble.

Prov. 3:24 If you lie down, you will not be afraid; when you lie down, your sleep will be sweet.

Security for your sleep; you can walk the walk of discernment, good judgment and wise behavior. In all of this, we will be preserved.

Prov. 3:23 Then you will walk on your way securely, and your foot will not stumble.

Plan of God rationale; God is our protection. We get into things that David has to say. David lived quite an adventurous life. Here, we are to know that he was protected and we are protected. God did not remove the pressure from me, we might say. We may live securely; our outlook and attitude may be right.

We have opportunities in life. What about the car wreck or harm to us or a near-death experience? Things do happen; but we are still alive. God brings things into our life for a reason. He provides protection. We can walk in security. A metaphor for a lifetime of protection in life. The greatest security in life by the faith rest drill. Cast your cares upon Him because He cares for you. We have this, every day of our lives, if we use it. If we have security, which is very basic in life, then we have confidence in life.

Every believer has a security detail. The president is always surrounded by a security detail; and he is never in public without them. So God has the same things for us. We are second only to God in creation. He has put a crown on our heads, so-to-speak. We have our own infallible secret service around us at any time. This translates to courage in adversity; courage under fire. This is a part of the adornment of wisdom around our necks.

Our necks reveal volition. The direction that we move our neck indicates our volition; and all of this is related to our neck.

Psalms 91 is a great example.

Psalms 91:2 I will say to the LORD, "My refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust."

Psalms 91:3 For He will deliver you from the snare of the fowler and from the deadly pestilence.

Various traps are outlawed. Some of these traps can be very harmful. Bobby let a fox go from a trap while he was hunting.

When we think about the traps that we can fall into, the traps animals face is very little.

Psalms 91:4 He will cover you with His pinions, and under his wings you will find refuge; His faithfulness is a shield and buckler.

God is faithful; His Word is good. We may depend upon Him. David can say, "His faithfulness is a shield and a bulwark."

Psalm 91:5 You will not fear the terror of the night, nor the arrow that flies by day,...

The night closes in and some people find this to be a time of fear. In combat, it is one thing to see what is happening in daylight what is going on; at night, it can be something entirely different.

When the fear grips us and closes in on us, we have to depend upon God's faithfulness.

Psalm 91:6 ...nor the pestilence that stalks in darkness, nor the destruction that wastes at noonday.

We may have quoted Psalm 23 many times in the past.

Psalm 23:4 Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.

The Lord is always there; our fortress, our refuge. God faithfully sustains and cares for us by His power. We can also throw wisdom in here.

We are in union with Jesus Christ; He can protect us. We are a part of the royal family of God. God has our back like no one else. All security in life is in the Lord; hence in all of life and death. That is the basis for dying grace.

Shootings lately and many have been in churches. It has happened. Berachah is pretty obvious as a church. Bobby is not worried. Houston Chronicle called Bobby to find out about our security procedures. The Lord is my rock and bastion.

There are security measures and a security detail and cameras; common sense security; but first and foremost, our refuge is with the Lord.

The guy really wanted to talk about gun control; that was more of his interest. Bobby did not take the interview; it was pointless.

Where is our security in life? David fears nothing; and we are protected unless God has a purpose in our own harm.

Security always resides in the One Who faithfully provides it. Wisdom is the thinking of the wisdom of the Lord. When we have wisdom, we think like God thinks. We have access to God's very thinking. Our actions are a result of the spiritual life as well as our attitude. A mighty fortress is our God.

It does not matter how much money is in our security or the 401k. The government could take it all tomorrow and they might.

Prov. 3:23 Then you will walk on your way securely, and your foot will not stumble.

We are not to be fearful or stumble through life. There is a staggering, like a falling down drunk. Someone who is confused in his or her state who makes very bad decisions. Without faith rest, we will fall flat on our face, or wherever we hit. With wisdom, we will walk with security, with sound judgment.

To strike the foot is like stubbing your toe or smashing your toe until it breaks. Your toenail lasts for awhile; and the toenail turns blue. Bobby's remedy. Take a needle and heat it to red hot, then he sticks it through the toe. Stick it in a few places. Doesn't hurt to do this.

When you smash your toe, it hurts, and that is what stumble means here.

Too many elderly fall and break something and they cannot repair themselves. No stumbling is a relaxed mental attitude of security.

A relaxed mental attitude does not necessarily relieve the pain. You walk through life not always thinking about yourself or the adversity that you are facing or how it will go or how it is going to turn out. It will turn out in the way that God wants it to. Not coupled with wrong decisions or a bad mental attitude.

You cannot sleep. We have all done this and watched the clock. More stress because you cannot sleep. With the security of wisdom, when you lie down, your sleep will be sweet.

Prov. 3:24 If you lie down, you will not be afraid; when you lie down, your sleep will be sweet.

The spiritual life is a relaxed life of security. We have a refuge or fortress. Trust means that we believe that and apply it.

Wisdom is the bottom line in sleeping. When you have wisdom, you have the security in your soul and you trust in the Lord.

We need to clear our minds with a good night's sleep, so that we can sleep like a baby. The teenager who does not wake up until noon. They do not have those kinds of problems. You just do not have it.

We have access to the wisdom that Solomon provides here. When we don't have wisdom, then we have no temporal security with which to face our fears. Anxiety and dread are our companions.

Bobby and his dog BJ. He was only 15 lbs and he took over the bed. The dog would be sleeping, fast asleep. But sound asleep again.

Dogs have a tremendous ability to sleep. Not a care in the world. That is how we should sleep. When wisdom adorns your neck and graces your soul.

This was not covered from Psalm 91.

Psalm 91:7 A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not come near you.

Psalm 91:8 You will only look with your eyes and see the recompense of the wicked.

Psalm 91:9 Because you have made the LORD your dwelling place— the Most High, who is my refuge—

Psalm 91:10 no evil shall be allowed to befall you, no plague come near your tent.

Psalm 91:11 For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways.

Psalm 91:12 On their hands they will bear you up, lest you strike your foot against a stone.

Lesson #0040

Proverbs Wisdom in the OT

1/8/2020 Wednesday

Sleepless nights are miserable; we have all had them and we have all experienced them. Maybe because you are ill; and sleep escapes you. But most of the time, we do not sleep because of self-induced misery because of a problem in our lives. We cannot shut it off; and as we lie there in bed, we know that in the morning, we will feel terrible, tired; you will not be able to think with clarity. You won't be up to par. This usually happens on the night before a day that you have something really important to do. Or there is something looming in your life. Something you dread about to happen. Problems with a person, problems at work.

In general, we have a problem in the areas of people, fear. You get up in the middle of the night and you pace and you get frustrated. Bobby can see that most of us have had this. So, we will need to listen to what wisdom tells us.

Bobby finds something in his library that he knows is extremely boring. He finds this to be a good way to redirect his mind. But it does not always work.

Solomon says that this is all unnecessary; we don't have to get up in the middle of the night. It is just a tough night. Solomon says this is not necessary, in Prov. 23:4

Prov. 3:24 If you lie down, you will not be afraid; when you lie down, your sleep will be sweet.

Those things that happened during the day might become even more disconcerting. But Solomon says, "Your sleep will be sweet." Clearly, it is understood that the underlying cause of sleepless nights is fear, anxiety about what is happening in your life.

What is the solution? Do not entertain fear. You may think that you are losing sleep because of fear; but worry of life comes from anxiety of circumstances. Fear is nothing more than a mental attitude sin under those circumstances.

No fear seems like the best approach. Whatever the solution, it must deal with fear. This can generate fear. Solomon would not address this situation. Sleeplessness comes from fear. Solomon's solution is to somehow preclude fear. How do you do that, as it is easier said than done.

"My son, let them not vanish from your sight." What should not vanish, so that fear and anxiety do not intrude on your sleep. If you have wisdom, it gives you peace; but no wisdom, and whatever can fill the void.

Losing Sleep and an Relaxed Mental Attitude

1. V. 24 is the picture of the wisdom of the faith rest life, which is what we have been studying throughout Prov. 1-3. It is described as sweet sleep. Faith rest is the key to a relaxed mental attitude. It is the problem solving solution. The term relaxed mental attitude is now known far and wide. About the earliest book at Berachah was written in 1961, The Faith Rest Life. Founder and CEO of Stewart Title and he is 100 years old and his mind is as sharp as a tack. Bobby went to school with his son. While they were talking, he said, "Do you know what an relaxed mental attitude is? I learned that from his father." It was sharp and true. It is everywhere. It is even in those who can barely remember. With that implanted in his soul, wisdom, comes the relaxed mental attitude. It was a very enlightening moment.
2. Nothing refreshes more than a great night's sleep with a relaxed mental attitude. This is what Solomon and David have been talking about.
3. The faith rest drill is what you use at night, where fear arises, when anxiety grabs you by the throat. Solomon is not offering the solution of a boring book.
4. Go to the Scripture and find a promise. Claim it; own it. Anything in the Scripture is a promise to you.
5. That promise put divine perspective to that moment and to that problem. Divine perspective is what counteracts the anxiety. Claiming a promise is to challenge and overcome your fear and anxiety.
6. Then you have the restful sleep of the application of that promise; of believing promises of God's faithfulness and His security.

How do you find the promise? There is a concordance in the back of most Bibles and you can look up a subject, and there will be a number of passages which cover it. There is enough there to give you an idea of where you can go. There are hundreds of promises that you can claim. In the Faith Rest book, there are a bunch of promises at the end that you can claim.

Some people cannot sleep in the darkness; they need some light. Some fear break-ins or various things. By and large, David operated without fear in his soul. Claim the promise and go to sleep. You will be able to go and you will be able to sleep.

To be your best, you train and train until your muscle memory is built up. You can perform in all circumstances because you have this muscle memory.

Discernment, the wise behavior is analogous to sleep restful. Discern a promise that you know works. Know a promise and claim it.

That carries the sense of security, which is the opposite of fear. Promises contain a protection from harm. It always engenders a relaxed mental attitude. A relaxed mental attitude is how you operate. This is how your demeanor is; your mental attitude. Psalm 4:8 I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep; for You LORD only, make me dwell in safety. David had an army around him most of the time; but he needed to be able to sleep soundly with the enemies at the gates. This is what David taught his sons. This is what sustained David throughout his life. David was a man after God's Own heart. David in all of his failures was still a man after God's Own heart. David had inculcated wisdom. David lives in security because of what he acknowledged to be true. The life of David was an amazing life. That is a great supplement to Bobby's teaching.

David told Solomon that you can sleep; you can faith rest this life.

Prov. 3:24 If you lie down, you will not be afraid; when you lie down, your sleep will be sweet.

The summary of what we have learned:

Prov. 3:25 Do not be afraid of sudden terror or of the ruin of the wicked, when it comes,

Prov. 3:26 for the LORD will be your confidence and will keep your foot from being caught.

God's work of creation by means of His wisdom; and our problems are insignificant by comparison.

David comes in, "Don't fear, son; don't do it." David knows that fear can blind side you; it can come out of nowhere.

Our world is filled with terrorism today. David is not speaking hear of the lengthy course of bad decisions or an ongoing problem. A natural calamity. One that takes a person by surprise. Some may not be prepared for it. For some, great moments of fear and uncertainty result.

To preclude that sudden fear, there must be to offset this difficult situations. We need to be in condition red constantly. You are not thinking about terror and danger all of the time; how are you prepared for the sudden onslaught of danger and fear? The same way. What do you have in your soul? What is there? This is how you are prepared for everything. Keep thinking; stop reacting. You think doctrine, you think wisdom. You respond to circumstances that surround you.

David was a man of war and he was constantly at war, experiencing the changing circumstances of war, and there were enemies on all sides, including those from the inside.

It began early on when David was a shepherd. He is with his flock and a bear might come up and snatch a sheep. He did not let it go. He went after the bear. This fear. It might be a natural reaction. A good fear might kick in adrenalin; it prepares us to fight and act under pressure. To deal with danger when it is there. Cowardice is when fear takes over. It would be easy to give in to fear. He also faced off a lion. He later faces the loud-mouthed giant, Goliath. The king would not go. David, a boy, walks into camp. "Who is this Philistine who challenges the armies of the Living God." He had confidence in God.

He had adventures with his army; he had conflicts with Saul. The authorities were chasing him all over the countryside looking to kill him. And David could not kill Saul.

Later, Absalom raped his half-sister and then went after David to kill him. Yet, we have Psalm 4:8 I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep; for You LORD only, makest me dwell in safety.

Satan knew that the promise of God came through the line of David. God's protection and the resultant security was the source of David's faith rest in calamity. Nothing is too horrendous to overturn the plan of God. God promised David a greater son. David knew that promise would be fulfilled.

David's only sure and lasting defense was to trust God and His promises. Sometimes, that is all that David had.

Don't forget Job. Overnight, his life was overturned. He lost his wealth, his health, his family, in one night. But he never gave up trusting the Lord. So much of this book is Job's confidence in the Lord. He failed once, towards the end; but, by and large his testimony stands to this day.

What is the council of David and Solomon?

Prov. 3:26 for the LORD will be your confidence and will keep your foot from being caught.

The wisdom in your right lobe must contain the perspective of God. Perspective of divine viewpoint and confidence under every situation.

A promise that we can use under these sorts of circumstances. God gave this promise through Isaiah.

Isa. 41:10 fear you not, for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you; yea, I will help you; yea, I will uphold you with the right hand of My righteousness.

The rationale is, "I am your God; I will strengthen you; I will help you; surely, I will hold you up with My righteous right hand." We are royal priests; we are God's children. We have been justified from the moment of faith in Christ. What a great promise this is!

If God created this universe, who can overcome us? Your fear, self-pity, your anger about your circumstances; these can slow you down. These can interfere with you life. But you build up your strength. When you get good at this, mental attitude sins do not control you; people do not control you. People with mental attitude sins try to control you, but doctrine overrules them. God, not man, is the Author of our deliverance.

You may think that you have been dealt a bad deal; things aren't going very well right now. But it is you who fails to claim God's promises. There is only one way to claim those promises to trust in the Lord.

Your foot can easily be caught. Stumbling. The black toe from last time. Setting a trap for an animal. If they are still alive, you can see the fear in their eyes. When you release them, you can see the fear melt away. One of the great traps of the cosmic system. Trust in the Lord Who has the unlimited ability to deliver us from any evil circumstances. God provides the resources not to just survive, but to thrive. That is the benefit of your troubles and of these situations.

Adversity, difficulties are opportunities to do what Solomon tells us to do when dealing with fear. Every time we use it, we learn it better. It is the spiritual discernment which places confidence in the Lord. God releases us from the cosmic system traps and provides us with the wisdom to avoid them.

Lesson #0041

Proverbs Wisdom in the OT

1/9/2020 Thursday

Of course, wisdom is Bible doctrine. Wisdom is the application of Bible doctrine in a very practical sense. No wisdom without Bible doctrine. You can apply wisdom in all situations; it is so practical for your life. This is so that we can see how this is used in the lives of David and Solomon.

We have the complete canon of Scripture; something that Old Testament saints never had. But the wisdom that they had was just as important today as then. Vv. 27–35 is the next increment of wisdom. Each verse is independent of the others, although not completely so. But each one has its own separate bit of wisdom for us that we need to look at carefully. This section is unlike most of the other discourses.

The author has placed them in an odd place.

Vv. 27–30 Benevolence and neighborliness.

Vv. 31–35 This verse warn against emulating or associating with the wicked. This is because of the possible damaging affects to our lives. Why should we not associate with certain people?

All of these aphorisms have a negative form. They all begin with do not. These prohibitions are against malicious and selfish actions. Yet, as we see all of these negative proverbs, in their negativity, there is a positive side to them when the prohibitions are heeded. That is always the case with the wisdom of Proverbs. It all comes out on the positive side. They are not designed as legalistic curbs to fun in your life. It is easier to look at a proverb that is positive. We always have some propensity to wonder, just why can't we do that? The positive aphorisms give us good advice. Sometimes, a positive aphorism, is easier to ignore. Forbidding a child to do something, that is for their own good; that is for their betterment in the future. It is amazing how often Proverbs uses the word understanding. One of the reasons that these are here is so that we do not make bad decisions. It can be even more emphatic when put in these negative terms. Why do we have a tendency to pay less attention to the negative proverbs? It always seems less desirable or more of a curb on our fun. Or if we hear, don't do that, we feel that is a restraint and we want to do it. Rejection of good restrictions is nothing more than having a rebellious heart. This is the definition of a teenager who despise authority, parental or otherwise. We have a natural aversion against being told not to do something.

Bobby has discovered even when the Bible prohibits certain activities. We have the rebellion and temptations to deal with all of the time, having an inherent sin nature. Divine prohibitions are for our benefit to offset the old sin nature. God is not legalistic. He has laws; and to ignore them exemplifies our problems in life. Such rebellion is just what the Apostle Paul addressed in Rom. 7:19–20 For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I keep on doing. Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. The temptations of the sin nature; and they are at their worst. When you see these negative prohibitions in proverbs, don't get your back up. Only evil results. That is what Paul is telling us. That is our proclivity as human beings.

We have just as much succumbed to the temptations of the sin nature,... It is always our temptation to sin versus God's will. It is hard for people to deal with these negative proverbs, because it goes right to the heart of their rebellious nature. It continues right up until the moment.

We have assets in our life to preclude a rebellion that is in us. Then we have proverbs like this which tell us what the prohibitions are and why. We have to listen to this. That too is a line of defense for our life.

The Point to the Negative Proverb

1. To apply wisdom to the tendencies of the sin nature. Just that is half of the battle. We have to identify those tendencies.
2. Wisdom is found in not doing something; not thinking something.
3. There is always a beneficial result for us in following the negative prohibition.
4. It is also beneficial for others with whom we are associated. We are not the only person involved. It affects others; including the most intimate of relationships. We are all in this together. It is all about close relationships. They receive flak from your sin. It is not just about them. Everyone around you is affected.

Let's see what these negative aphorisms are.

Prov. 3:27 Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, when it is in your power to do it.

This is a very vague proverb; very general. As Bobby got into it, he has understood this to mean doing good and acts of kindness to those in need.

Explaining V. 27

1. Good refers to generosity.
2. The true motive for generosity comes from grace orientation.

3. We usually think as generosity as extended to the poor and to the needy; that is how it is often presented to us in society today.
4. That is a valid principle or activity; but that is not what is in view here.
5. The phrase to those to whom it is due, cannot refer only to the poor.
6. That would indicate that it is the poor who are the lawful owners of the charitable money; and they are not entitled to it. It is not an entitlement.
7. It would not be charity, it would be repaying a debt that you owe.
8. Charity is not owed to anyone.
9. It is a free gift of aid and help. Socialism negates charity. We are forced to aid and help with regards to socialism.
10. Those to whom it is due is better understood in a general sense, a family member, a friend, those with whom you have an association or you know personally. You are aware of an individual's need. They may be in need or in trouble.

What Are We Giving and Who Are We Giving it To?

1. This is a personal generosity directed to specific individuals. This is not giving money to a charity.
2. This is very personal. This is graciousness in time of need for someone to whom you have some obligation through association. Those are those ones to whom it is due. You know of them and their circumstances.
3. The verse says, to whom it is due, in the sense of, you have a responsibility to aid those closest to you. Those that you know. If not them, who else? We could say that this is a family matter, so to speak.
4. In their adversity, they have a non-binding claim on any goods that can be spared to meet their needs or to help meet their needs.
5. This does not have to be material goods.
6. Thus, the emphasis is upon family, friends or associates, to whom there are personal or social ties. Those that you have an informal obligation toward. You know them and you know of their problems. Not an obligation that is a mandate, but it is a grace orientation approach. This is your life; the way that you think.
7. Those to whom you have an informal obligation is not just anyone who asks for money simply because you have some; or those who have a great scheme to make great money, if you just supply them with the capital to do it.
8. This verse refers to those who are in need, with whom you have a close connections and who should be helped if possible if you have the ability to do so. This is not a loan. Generosity is not about loaning money. When you give from grace orientation; you should expect nothing in return. Nor do you need your gift to be observed by the recipient. God's grace is given to all of us; and none of us are deserving. It is our business to reflect this.

A general rule, when you give someone money, do not expect it back. Do not give it to them if you cannot afford to do it. It is about generosity in grace. Do not expect it back. Do not give it if you do not have it. You are not the pot of gold or the soft touch for the people who are looking for handouts. You do not cause them to become reliant upon you or addicted to your help or demanding of your help; and you do not do it to gain control of your lives. Some people offer money and other things to pastors, but they do it so that they can control you. That is grace disoriented. Do not do this to enable a person to go in the wrong direction. This is a hazard in families. Sometimes this enables a person to do what they should not do. Enables them to make more bad decisions.

Don't withhold from those who are in need, especially if you have the means. Remember, when it is in your power or means to do it, in supplying relief to someone in need. You must not enable inertia, sloth or cause dependancy. That is a harmful result. Nor should your own needs, debts or personal obligations. This is not a thing to tell you to starve yourself or to go broke. You do not deny your family. Your family is your obligation.

You have an obligation as a parent to feed your children. You need employment to help them and feed them. But you have no obligation to help those making bad decisions. A friend of Bobby's had a very soft heart. Related to a woman by friendship; she claimed to be in a difficult physical situation and gave a huge money to her. She was a Christian person giving to another. It impoverished her and her own children. You are obligated to take care of your family first. Nothing worse than a Christian con. They should be drawn and quartered and hung and jailed.

Bobby tells any Christian con to stay away from Berachah. You never deprive your own family that which is necessary to survive.

The principle of welfare or entitlement is not what is in view here. You are not a welfare agency for families. Caution and wisdom is necessary in dealing with requests for money. The most opportune time for charity when it is not solicited; when you see a need.

When someone approaches you saying, "I am in need," you should have a healthy skepticism. It is an opportune time when it is not asked for. Any solicitation should be met with caution. Especially when repeated or a continuous one. So many Christian cons out there. Soliciting or begging for money with a long, sad story. But for their own financial advantage. An indicator that they refuse to find work and to work of a job of any kind. That can be a real problem in a family. Like paying adult children to live without working.

Prov. 3:27 Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, when it is in your power to do it.

Lesson #0042

Proverbs Wisdom in the OT

1/12/2020 1Sunday

Faith Rest Life is available in Spanish.

First in a series of independent aphorisms begins with v. 27. These are a series of negative proverbs between vv. 27–35.

Prov. 3:27 Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, when it is in your power to do it.

This verse exhorts acts of kindness towards those who are in need. Some withhold good, for various reasons, greed, meanness, parsimony.

The term good refers to the principle of generosity. We think of this in terms of extending help to the poor and needy, which is a valid principle. It is a part of our Christian witness. The phrase to those to whom it is due cannot refer only to the poor and downtrodden. We are obligated to give aid; they are entitled to it? It is not callous when the concept of grace is the issue. We must help those in need without a doubt. It must be done with the proper motivation; not grudgingly or of necessity. This is a part of the giving motivation. The true motive in a believer comes from grace orientation. This always reflects the grace of God in what we do and give in that arena. If it is not aid and generosity to the poor in general; then to whom is this directed?

To Whom Is this Generosity Directed To?

1. It is to those who are due; a neighbor, a friend, a family member.
2. So, it is those with whom you have a personal association and to whom you will show generosity in time of need.
3. Their need may be monetary; but also sometimes they are just troubled or in adversity, apart from money.
4. This is a personal generosity directed towards specific individuals whom you know; more than just an acquaintance.
5. You have, according to Prov. 3:27, you have a responsibility to aid those who are closest to you. You extend graciousness to those around you; an obligation to friends and family.
6. In their adversity, they have a non-binding claim on any goods or time that you can spare to help to meet their needs. That is a summary.

This does not refer to a large impersonal charity like the United Way or to the Clinton Foundation. The emphasis is upon family, friends and associates. Do not withhold generosity with them.

When it is in your power or means to do it. There are obvious limitations to your ability; but there is to your grace attitude and your motivation. In supplying relief to someone in need, especially family or friends.

What Are the Limitations on this Verse?

1. In supplying relief to someone in need, you must not enable inertia or sloth or dependancy in them. Nor are you a welfare agency for family, friends or associates. How will I know? One indicator is, they do not work a job when able. You are not to enable a lifestyle of indolence. The response to grace should be appreciation; not more solicitation or reliance upon you.
2. You must differentiate between need and inordinate demand; and cons and manipulators. Caution is always necessary when dealing with requests for money. In generosity and grace, the most opportune time is to offer, when they are to requesting help. That does not mean that you ignore cries for help. Any begging for money should be met with caution. If there is any doubt about their motives or their condition; then ask questions. Those questions are not prying or intruding. To ask questions is prudent on your part. Generosity is not being fleeced. Many times, Christian Ponzi schemes and Christian activity to gain your money are done, in Berachah and elsewhere. Prov. 3:27 speaks of those with whom you are familiar; and their need, you are aware of. There are so many Christian cons out there with a good game. They play on your emotions. This is what cons do; they make you feel very sorry for them. They may in fact have a long, sad story. But they may use this for another situation. Sometimes they use the name of Jesus for their own financial benefit.

3. What about those on the street, the homeless? That is a very huge issue today. This verse does not fit that category, as street people are unknown to us. Bobby did see a homeless person on the street that he knew, one time. Most of the time, we don't know about them. You may be moved to help them. Often, they are very pathetic. But, in providing for them, you may be enabling them to continue a lifestyle of drugs and alcohol. That is not charity. They may be cons and they make a very good living at it. We do know that some are mentally ill; and they need more than money. They have lost their jobs and unable to support themselves. At this time, we are witnessing the rampant rise of homeless. 60,000 homeless in LA at any given day. Those people are being enabled. There are no laws in SF about vagrancy and health problems. Drug dealers are not arrested and users are not taken from the streets. No prohibitions against defecating and urination on the street. Their policies exacerbate the problem. Cities have thrown billions of dollars at this problem and it just gets worse. This is a difficult problem and people are endlessly debating about it. Why has this exploded and you see people begging on the street corner? What has happened to our society that promotes this? Why? No grace orientation. Bible doctrine is being left behind. Humanism has taken its place.
4. Guilt is not the proper response to other situations and problems of others. You should not feel guilty when you have prosperity and they do not. Compassion yes; grace yes; guilt no. God may or may not give us gracious prosperity and He may not. But we use this to demonstrate grace to others.

Be very careful; do not fall for some seductive line. You can always know, you will always know if they come back and ask for more. Then you should be really cautious. This is more designed for a one-time help, to help them recover. There is a committee like that in Berachah Church. Bobby will help people on a one-time basis to help some recover. It is no different for us on a personal basis. Your own needs and debts and personal obligations should never be disregarded to help others. It is only if you are able. You should never denude yourself of all savings or income to help others. If anyone does not provide for his own, for those of his household, he had denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.

What is Prov. 3:27 about? This is ignored by many today. The rights of the homeless today supercedes the rights of those who have to step around them. At some point, you need to be able to say no. but a one-time gift is a demonstration of grace that may make a difference. That will become clear in observing the results of that gift. No change in their situation or behavior means no need to do it.

Solutions are individual. Solutions societal and nation? Kindness must always proceed from grace.

Prov. 3:27 Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, when it is in your power to do it.

Another principle of grace giving, but from a negative viewpoint once again.

Prov. 3:28 Do not say to your neighbor, "Go, and come again, tomorrow I will give it"—when you have it with you.

You see someone in need and you have the wherewithal to help them; but your answer is, "Come back tomorrow." You do not want to perpetrate this. Do not stall, for whatever reason, when you are in need. The previous verse enjoined the general principle of benevolence when you have the means. Don't put off to tomorrow what you might do today. Now, there are reasons to put off things to tomorrow. But generally speaking, you take care of this giving when it is asked for.

Lesson #0043

Proverbs Wisdom in the OT

1/12/2020 2Sunday

Prov. 3:27 Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, when it is in your power to do it.

Do not withhold good from those in our periphery; those in our own family, those we know.

Prov. 3:28 Do not say to your neighbor, "Go, and come again, tomorrow I will give it"—when you have it with you.

This is an amplification of what we have just covered. Neighbor is simply a reference to those you are closest to. The wisdom in v. 28, do not put off grace and benevolence when it can be handled when it is most needed. That is more important that they understand the message of grace. They may not earn it or deserve it; but this sometimes brings them to a recovery. Just as God gives to us grace, so He provides for us in this life. Our action should always reflect God's grace. Timing can be extremely important. Once again, it is in view here in v. 28.

The word here is rêa' (רֵעַ) [pronounced RAY-ahg'], which means, associate, neighbor, colleague; companion, friend; beloved; fellow, acquaintance; fellow citizen. You cannot enable people to continue with bad decisions; you cannot do something from guilt. Guilt is not the issue; grace is always the message. What you do for someone else is always about grace. You do not give grudgingly or of necessity. Grace is always the principle. When it is someone close to you, you are privy to their life; and you may know about their problems, financial or otherwise.

Bobby's principle is, he does not loan money. He gives is. Loaning money is not the grace principle. God did not loan us salvation. He gave us salvation. Eternal life is ours forever. Bobby makes it a habit not to loan money. Don't give money if you do not have it. Worse than an infidel, if you do not provide for your family. This includes.

You want to ease the problem of need and show grace. Procrastinating sends a message of reluctance, of giving grudgingly, or no grace. These things do not go unnoticed.

What Are the Reasons for Procrastination?

1. To control or manipulate the person who is asking you for help. Some love this. This is a way to lord it over them. Make them suffer or repent until they do.
2. You may do this out of pure dislike for the person. Make them suffer. Grace should be the motivation; and impersonal love needs to be part of it.
3. "I am going to teach them a lesson," such as, "I will help you if you correct your evil ways." That attitude can cause bitterness, anger and a host of other mental attitude sins. I am withholding until you fix yourself.
4. Another reason for withholding is the love of money. Instead of fulfilling this proverb, as one in need, you know a person's life when they are close to you. You know what condition they are in. People have difficulty separating themselves from their own money, as if they want that last bit of interest to accrue. That is the love of money; not grace orientation. The love of money leads to all kinds of evil. Money is not evil; it is simply a tool.
5. It is downright cruel to withhold from a person in need...especially when, in v. 28, it has been promised and it is available. A family member and a close associate who is in need, they will know. When you have the money and you don't give it; or you have time and you do not share it; it shames them. They are shamed when help is delayed. It makes the entire family look at them. And then, they may have to ask for it again. Wanting someone to beg is completely out of line; that is an ego trip for you. This temporary withholding can become a ploy of continual denigration of others. I have it and you don't. "I will make you envy me, and I will withhold it until you do."

Miserly attitude; sometimes to those you know the best; and they can see your attitude. There is a message of grudging necessity. They can become bitter, angry and despise you.

1Tim. 6:10 The love of money is the root of all sorts of evil; and some by longing for it, have wandered away from the faith and have pierced themselves with many griefs. Desiring money; acquiring money is supplanting the spiritual life.

There is also this attitude of helping those who are in need. When you have a lot of money, you have the opportunity to do so.

Prov. 3:28 Do not say to your neighbor, "Go, and come again, tomorrow I will give it"—when you have it with you.

Next verse:

Prov. 3:29 Do not plan evil against your neighbor, who dwells trustingly beside you.

Trust

1. Trust is a central issue in these relationships.
2. To not devise harm is a prohibition against violating trust. Or an abuse of confidence. Once trust is lost, it is hard to get back. Personal love can easily fade; unless you have the spiritual resources to deal with violated trust, you will deal with that person for a very long time.
3. This is to plot maliciously against one who is unsuspecting. An example is gossip; you gossip or whisper about them, regardless of whether these things are true or false.
4. You see from this, kindness, trust, obligation is the very basis for social life. Prov. 3:29 is all about this, kindness, beneficence, generosity. Our lives represent grace orientation. If you don't, your spiritual life is lapsing. This is an attitude, a quality, that you develop as you grow spiritually. This is a manifestation of grace orientation in your life.

Fabricating Harm

1. Devise is chârash (חָרַשׁ) [pronounced chaw-RAHASH], which means, to cut in, to engrave, to inscribe; to fabricate [out of wood or metal]; to fabricate, devise or plot [evil]; to plough (cutting furrows). The meaning of the phrase to devise harm is somewhere before fabricating evil and ploughing evil.
2. The farmer prepares a field for planting.
3. So is the analogy of plowing misery or distress against a neighbor. Plow it up, dig it up, and plant the seeds.
4. The ground is prepared by gossip, maligning and any other sins of the tongue.

This Verb Can Be Used in Other Ways

1. To fabricate evil against someone; many reasons to do this; to get ahead, to denigrate them.
2. This has the connotation of one who has confided but them is betrayed.
3. The connotation of being lied about in order to gain an advantage or to promote yourself. This person is horrible; therefore, I am great.
4. To violate the privacy and confidence of a neighbor, friend, family member or associate for one's own self-interest, or revenge or perverse excitement or to elevate yourself in the eyes of others, denigrating a rival in the eyes of others. Up until this time, that person has lived in peace or with trust with you.

People often are at peace; with trust in one another. One a shock when the plowing of evil comes and the betrayal violates the trust of that person. Fabricating untruth against someone is, at any time, reprehensible. But to do this when they are unsuspecting, they are blind sided. All privacy is set aside. That is not wisdom; and not the criterion for generosity or help. The one who devises evil profits in some way. Even if it is notoriety. Those who tear down those with social standing, some importance, and they tear that person down in order to make themselves seem greater or better. Touting inside knowledge; and someone else gains self-importance. That is the M.O. of a gossip. Sometimes this is unintended, but to slightly elevate the one doing the gossiping. But this becomes a wildfire. By the time the gossip makes the rounds, it gets worse and worse and worse. True or false, it is a bad idea to gossip. Is it necessary; is it true? What are the results to be if this gets shared. You may forfeit someone who is important to you. The closer you are to a person, the more you guard.

Prov. 3:29 Do not plan evil against your neighbor, who dwells trustingly beside you.

Prov. 6:16–19 There are six things that the LORD hates, seven that are an abomination to him: haughty eyes, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood, a heart that devises wicked plans, feet that make haste to run to evil, a false witness who breathes out lies, and one who sows discord among brothers.

A lying tongue directed to a neighbor. A heart that devises wicked plans. Same word as Prov. 3:29. A heart that fabricates evil or wicked plans. Feet that run rapidly to evil. You are running to it.

A false witness who utters lie; the perjurer. The purpose of evil, wicked plans to harm them. Spreading strife among brothers with slander, maligning, judging, Psalms 12:2 Everyone utters lies to his neighbor; with flattering lips and a double heart they speak.

They devise injury and speak badly behind their back. From self-righteous arrogance. Tearing another down while building yourself up. The double heart. In arrogance, the carnal believer ignores his own sins. How good it feels to overlook your own faults and failings.

Rom. 2:1 is the end result for such. Therefore, you have no excuse, everyone of you who passes judgement; in that you judge another, you condemn yourself.

Lesson #0044                      Proverbs    Wisdom in the OT    1/15/2020    Wednesday

A few more nights on Prov. 3. The 4th prohibition toward friends and family, as we have been studying. .

Prov. 3:30 Do not contend [strive, quarrel] with a man for no reason, when he has done you no harm.

This can be oral disagreements; it can even refer to physical struggles; it can even refer to a lawsuit without cause. You don't look for a fight where there is no conflict. Someone that you do not like is someone that you might be in conflict with. This is a prohibition against that. You do not exhibit enmity against others, even if you think you have a good reason. This enjoins us to exercise self-control. Especially if you have a pugnacious personality.

Bob was a confrontational person. He often said, "A bishop is not a striker of persons." He learned to control it. It was his natural desire to be that way. His self-control came through spiritual growth and Bible doctrine; grace orientation and a development of impersonal love. There will be times when we want to quarrel.

Bob did confront people, but he did it in the congregation. Some things were edited out of the tapes; but they have never edited out Bob calling people out. He did it for a very good reason. He was protecting the privacy and concentration of those interested in the Word of God. Bob did not curb this behavior when it comes to protecting his congregation. Bobby does not have his father's personality and never has.

His restraint falls under Prov. 3:30

Points on V. 30

1. Without good cause is further explained in the last phrase of v. 30. He has done you no harm so you have no cause to be contentious.
2. If no harm was done, the conflict would be an unprovoked one.
3. Thus, it would fall under the category of this prohibition not to contend; not to quarrel, not to strive for no reason.
4. Any conflict that is unprovoked would be taking place for no good reason.
5. If there is conflict, which is sometimes unavoidable, then...
6. We should minimize it; be willing to compromise, unless your personal integrity is involved or there is some compromise of Bible doctrine. You should be able to defuse such a conflict. This is something that you must deal with particularly if you are married.
7. Any unprovoked attack without cause usually escalates.
8. Often, this escalates and people forget what caused it.
9. There is a time to contend with a just cause.
10. Then the manner of contention comes into play when there is just cause; it is always in the realm of self control, particularly when you are contending with someone. You must seek to settle the conflict or solve the problem without further conflict.
11. This is also a prohibition against bullying a weaker person.
12. We are not to seek a quarrel unless someone has first given real offense. That is something that you must be able to discern.

This goes out to those who want to quarrel for no good reason; who want to have a fight at the drop of a hate.

Impersonal love, humility and grace orientation help in this area.

Wisdom is designed of many areas; particularly when dealing with people. You see, when you are able to exercise good common sense. Violence, crime, criminal charges, murder; these are things which take good judgment.

The hypersensitive person easily take offense at the slightest confrontation; controlling or manipulating a person with the threat of conflict. The contentious person knows that. They can easily use the conflict to control or manipulate the weaker person. It is easy to be drawn into this devising evil without retaliation. If there is no harm or if the slight to petty or unintended, don't get in a fight over it. It takes on a life of its own. This can cause much greater damage to both parties. So much to do with conflict in general in our lives.

We may get angry, we may be filled with mental attitude sins. We may be looking for someone to unload on. This is very self-centered. You are bringing someone else into your quarrel. Sometimes a problem with marriage, friendship or other close associations.

Spiritual Maturity and Petty Disputes

1. Baseless arguments and petty disputes are the height of self-centeredness. You are only concerned about getting your way.
2. These arguments and disputes spring from a lack of generosity, a lack of impersonal love; you may be out of fellowship; or you might just lack the spiritual maturity to deal with this.
3. This prohibition is important to us, because we often find hypersensitive people who know no compromise. Easy to get into a conflict with those kinds of people. We have a nation filled with hypersensitivity. Say the wrong word and you will get blasted by someone; using even the wrong personal pronoun. People get into major fights over this. It is ridiculous.
4. These arguments and petty disputes refuse to grant a neighbor the benefit of any doubt. Some willing to use any means for their advantage over you.
5. With a person like this, every misgiving or misunderstanding becomes a reason for criticism or name-calling or gossip or lies. That is the heart of a lot of contention. This quarreling against a neighbor can be just as unsettling or just as devastating.
6. Part of neighborliness, friendship, personal association; is the willingness to be wrong; and that is tough sometimes. This can threaten a person's self-esteem. We must be able to admit when we are wrong. We must be able to bite our tongues. Do not retaliate with name-calling; or escalate the situation. Even when you are right.
7. Few issues in life are worth breaking relationships in order to justify self or self-righteousness. That takes some spiritual maturity. This is designed to keep us out of fights. This reduces our conflict; and maintains a good mental attitude.

We are to stay clear of those who have nothing better to do than to stir up strife.

1Tim. 5:13 Besides that, they learn to be idlers, going about from house to house, and not only idlers, but also gossips and busybodies, saying what they should not.

They go from house to house; and they are gossips and busybodies; talking about things that they should not. This is the definition of someone who is quarrelsome. The faults and failures of others, perceived or real. Like minding other people's business. These prohibitions do not join them.

To put it simply, just do not engage them. Once you engage in that control and manipulation quarrel, do not react to it. That is what the control freak wants you to do. They get the conflict that they seek, and they have you going. Then you add fuel to the fire when you do react to them. In those cases. All of us have faced people just like this. Sin natures want to control and manipulate others. It is a power thing; a power game; and it is everywhere. We have all had to deal with it. You do not argue with people like that. You do not get in strife or an argument with them. Then you cannot win the argument, no matter how logical that argument is.

When you get involved, then you are being controlled; exactly what they want of you. You do not win arguments by presenting your point of view from that kind of person. The contentiousness is not about equity or justice or fairness. They are not reasonable. Do not engage it. Some thrive on the conflict itself. They don't care if anything is resolved. They love to see you react. It justifies in their own minds their own contentious personality. And some will fight to the death to be right. It won't stop. So walk away before you become embroiled in something like that.

If you walk away from something like that, you are not a coward. It takes a great deal of self-control to walk away from such a conflict. And who cares what such a person thinks about you. You are not responsible for whatever others think of you. You are not responsible for that. You are responsible for what the Lord thinks of you. This is a great application. This is so important; very practical. So walk away. And then you will be in control of your own life. It takes more courage and humility to avoid confrontation than to engage in it.

Part of the contentiousness of this verb may include lawsuits. There are good reasons for some lawsuits, as they reflect the rule of law and they settle disagreements. Impartially mediated. That is why the courts of law are so important. There are prohibitions of lawsuits for two reasons. Prohibiting according to 1 Corinthians. You do not take a fellow believer to court. It is better to be cheated than to take them to court. Some lawyers left the church when he taught 1 Cor. 6. This does not mean that a Christian cannot be in the court system. There are guidelines for a court settlement. There are things not to do. A second prohibition, which is meant to preclude frivolous lawsuits, to take people to court on the flimsiest accusations. Often lawsuits involve ego or greed. Some lawsuits are simply designed for revenge rather than an equitable settlement. Our society has become extremely litigious. Lawyers must make a living. This is a part of divine establishment. Rom. 12 makes it clear about rule of law; and this fits in with law and order. Our courts are filled with frivolous lawsuits; filing suit for a big score. All of this reflects a prohibition in the area of bringing suit.

Petty lawsuits rarely get much money for the claimant. It is often a lose-lose situation for one filing the suit.

This contentiousness is one step away from violence. That is the ultimate in quarreling. Any police officer can tell you that their most hated duty is dealing with a domestic problem; and sometimes, the combatants turn on the police officers. Some even are injured.

Prov. 3:30 Do not contend [strive, quarrel] with a man for no reason, when he has done you no harm.

The next prohibition begins a new section. It deals with the apparent prosperity of evil men.

Prov. 3:31 Do not envy a man of violence and do not choose any of his ways,

Lesson #0045                      Proverbs   Wisdom in the OT                      1/16/2020   Thursday

Our subject is violence, which is all around us.

Prov. 3:31 Do not envy a man of violence and do not choose any of his ways,

This does not include the military or law enforcement. Violence is sometimes necessary for them. This verse does not apply to that group; but it does apply to violence of other types. We are not to envy such a person, or to jealous of them, or to follow in their ways.

This suggests that violence is contagious. That is the fundamental premise of so many action movies today. Vigil ante justice and revenge and slaughter of all types. An action movie might be entertaining, but the premise can be quite problematic. A little applied force, a little gunplay; and things happen.

“I will get justice or I will get my way.” This is true when people want to assassinate a person in authority (like the president). There are plenty of people in this country would be happy to assassinate this president. Our prisons are filled with people who have been seduced by unlawful violence. Homes often breed violence. When basic principles of authority and self-discipline are not taught early in a child’s life, they might reject all forms of authority in their life.

The military might instill some authority-orientation to someone who lacks this. When you go into the military, you may not know what you want to do; but when you come out, you will know what you don’t want to do.

Bobby has seen those in the military who would not accept authority of any type.

Authority-orientation Being Trained Early in Life

1. The child comes into contact with authority in the home. They must be taught the right things and authority-orientation in life. Everything is about authority-orientation in life. That includes a personal humility and a respect for supervision. That is about authority-orientation; that is about giving them their due when they are children. Ancient Israel...

2. If there is no authority-orientation early in life, juveniles will become insolent and defiant. They will be without self-control or discernment. As a Christian parent you may have taught all of this, and still, they have not responded to your training. They run full bore head-first into walls. You have taught them better. Your children have their own volition. They make their own decisions. As a parent, you give them principles to live by, and you eventually have to set them loose. As a believer parent, you have the best chance to teach them correctly. They have the understanding and ability to return there. But, sometimes, they become insolent, defiant; and they are without self-control and discernment.
3. Then they begin a life of disadvantage. They may have all of advantages in the world, but their defiance colors everything. This limits their options in life. They make bad decision.
4. The parents. Permissive parents need to realize that discipline and authority-orientation are beneficial to your children. They are not damaging.
5. So is love and understanding necessary and beneficial. Some parents err in being unbalanced, between discipline and love.
6. All of this takes wisdom on the part of parents to reach the correct balance. It takes wisdom and discernment and understanding and principle; and good old fashioned guts on your part. You do things for children that are good for them; but it is difficult to impose discipline on your child. "This is going to hurt me than it hurts you." Bobby did not believe that then, but he does now. It is tough to give them the principles that they need and impose them. Devoid of boundaries, children will reject authority figures, norms and standards; and they will replace all of that with peer pressure; and they will just do what their friends are doing. We have all done that.

Bobby did many things that he will not tell us about; and did things that he knew were wrong; but he never went too far, because the knowledge of right and wrong were put there. Bobby believes that he is fulfilling the purpose for being brought into this life.

There are kids today who even get involved in paramilitary activity. Kids are using military equipment and acting as if they are in the military. There are adult paramilitary groups as well, and they are not authority oriented either.

Without the training, violence and criminal activity become rampant in society. Mindless rebellion overwhelms the entire generation. This defines the generation that Bobby grew up with.

This progression can lead to the loss of freedom; attempts at coups. We are seeing this in the halls of Congress. They disregard the Constitution for their own personal power and personal desires. So unrest is fomented; and possibly revolution. These are the things which occur in 3rd world countries.

Fomenting unrest. We are beginning to see revolution in the streets. Revolution comes in many forms. The final form looks to destroy divine institutions. Revolution constitutes evil, as Prov. 3:31 makes clear. Men of violence moves toward revolution.

Who suffers? The people that they govern suffer. The use of indiscriminate violence becomes very, very normal. We see admiration given to those who are strong and violent. Today, this violence in the streets is admired by many.

Do Not Envy the Violent

1. It may be assumed by the wording of Prov. 3:31 that this is something in the fortunes and destiny of violent persons and groups that one might be tempted to envy or emulate.
2. Ruthlessness and extortion seem to bring wealth and success.
3. But one who acquires prosperity in this way is never to be envied.
4. Envy and jealousy of a person of violence can lead to envying their attitudes and their methods.
5. When that happens, violence becomes an accepted part of the culture. It is accepted and even expected.
6. Violence in society is contagious and it brings chaos and the extremes of anti-establishment. We have seen such an upsurge of violence in this country; because there is a revolution in values. Much of the thinking and activity begins early in the home. There are so many broken homes in this country. The parents have no wisdom or discernment; so they have nothing to pass on. It is contagious and it progresses in that way.

Some of the violence that we see is copycat violence, such as school and church shootings. Some is prompted by a callousness to blood, mayhem; and things which are glorified in our media. Some are just mindless violence. Think about being a child seeing tons of violence. You become enured to it. You become callous towards it. Police officers become the enemies. The criminal court system is dispensing social justice rather than proper justice.

Violence; groups getting their way by intimidation. What is being lost in all of this? Civility and freedom. What is this violence that is prohibited?

Châmâç (חַמָּאץ) [pronounced khaw-MAWS], a name used by Islamic terrorists today. They are the epitome of violent men. They are filled with hate, revenge; and they desire power over anyone who disagrees with them. And they are being emulated all over the world. Many similar organizations are being formed all over the world and using the very same tactics. Ironically, they impose false religion on the population.

We hear about Iran today because of the wiping out of General Soleiman. He has been a center figure for years. Pat Cate began his mission in Iran. He told Bobby about what a wonderful group of people the Iranians are. There is no freedom; and they are incredibly violent. They are the subjects of violence; and they are tyrannized by it.

Châmâç

1. In general, the term, chamas, refers to high-handed, unlawful procedure of any sort.

2. The violence was generally practiced for the purposes of monetary or political gain.
3. This could refer to violent oppressors who gain political power.
4. That oppression could come from individuals or from groups or from governments.
5. Hence freedom is limited and destroyed by this type of violence.
6. They are an outrage to justice and peace.

This is a problem for all humanity. Violence is being used for things which are never justified. When a person is given over to the emotional or physical attacks on others; and they are considered heroes, then we personally and as a community, have it rock bottom.

These oppressors have become evil in their acts. Ill-begotten criminal gains becomes just gains. How people get the prosperity no longer matters. It is dog-eat-dog. Live for today and not only for yourself. That is anti-establishment and anti-justice.

When you do not have the security of eternal life, then you want to grab anything you can by any means. Wealth, pleasure and leisure is idolized and desired above all else.

Envy of Oppressors

1. Of all people undeserving of envy, these oppressors top the list.
2. To be jealous of their methods and ill-begotten power is to play the fool and to suffer the consequences personally and nationally. We see this individually and corporally. Corporations are considered greedy, who will take money in any possible way. When materialism is at the head of those groups, then this is sometimes true. Capitalism in our history has made us the most affluent society from top to bottom. When these types of people are emulated, and power is coveted and materialism is coveted, they do not care about anyone else but themselves.
3. None of their personal habits or modes of conduct are worth the complete break down of society. It is a progression. We do not live for ourselves. As believers in Jesus Christ, we have a life that is wider than ourselves.
4. No person is as perverted or is society as such a grave condition as a society that promotes evil. Worst thing to lionize and promote evil; and sets evil ones on pedestals of praise. Bobby thinks the Godfather was a great movie; but it puts those guys on a pedestal.
5. In a society where abuse of power and all manner of greed and cruelty prevails, Proverbs 3:31 is the definitive guiding and corrective wisdom. Very practical. For our own lives and the life of our nation.
6. Attitudes must change from admiration to condemnation. When it doesn't, our society is in decline.

Bobby has really enjoyed Mexico. But what is going on today is an example of the destructiveness of violence as a way of life for our nation. Legitimate government there has lost control of its territory. Legitimate authority has been replaced by the drug cartels. Half of that nation is owned by the cartels. Their methods of gaining and maintaining power is murder, violence, bribery and torture. As a result, Mexico has become one of the most dangerous and violent countries in the world. The common people suffer because of that. This sort of violent activity, where legitimate government is powerless. This is seen in Afghanistan, other central American countries, etc. Iran. Nothing is more tyrannical than religion. It is based upon power and violence in many cases.

Prov. 3:31 Do not envy a man of violence and do not choose any of his ways,...

The principles of v. 31 are continued in v. 32:

Prov. 3:32 ...for the devious person is an abomination to the LORD, but the upright are in his confidence.

The devious are an abomination to the Lord. The upright are intimate with the Lord.

What is upright? Bobby will tell us what this means. We need to understand devious, abomination and intimate.

Lesson #0046

Proverbs Wisdom in the OT

1/19/2020 1 Sunday

Communion January 19, 2020

Jesus asks an odd question.

Luke 8:45 Who is the one who touched Me?

Peter suggests that Jesus is in a crowd and there was hustling and bustling occurred, so Peter attributes it to that.

Luke 8:46 But Jesus said, "Someone touched Me, for I perceive that power has gone out from Me."

Many people followed Jesus.

Matt. 4:25 And great crowds followed Him from Galilee and the Decapolis, and from Jerusalem and Judea, and from beyond the Jordan.

Matt. 8:1 When He came down from the mountain, great crowds followed Him.

Always there would be pharisees and sadducees who wanted to discredit Him. But the crowds never seemed to wain.

Matt. 26:55 "Have you come out with swords and clubs to arrest Me? Every day, I taught in the Temple and you did not seize Me."

Today, we think in terms of the masses; huge processions moving from their country to the United States.

Even with these great crowds, Jesus paid very close attention to the individual.

In the narrative of Luke 8, a shy little woman who was uncured for 8 years, and she barely touched his cloak. At the moment, Jesus knew it, even with the press of the huge crowd around Him. We know this because He asked the question, Who did that?

Jesus did feel His divine power being utilized to heal her. He focused on her person. His power responded immediately to her faith. This was not some blanket, autonomous miracle; but this seemingly unimportant woman has an essential part to play right at this time. Jesus wants her to identify herself and for her healing to be known to all those present. She falls on her face before Him and she gives individual testimony to the Lord. Jesus never overlooked even a single person.

What an example this is for any pastor-teacher. The size of the crowds is not important. What is important is the affect on this single person.

There were huge gatherings for Billy Graham; but if even one person was saved, even that would have been a success.

Acts 2:41 speaks of 3000 who believed when Peter gave his sermon.

We sit in a group of people. Every individual in Berachah had to believe for himself. This does not mean that the human race is saved en masse. There is no universal salvation, even though Jesus died for the sins of all mankind. Not every person is going to heaven. We have the individual responsibility to respond to the gospel ourselves. Sitting in a church does not make you a Christian any more than standing in a field of cows makes you a cow.

A guy who stands up and he did not want to stand up and speak in that church. No one in that crowd paid any attention to his poor recitation. One person heard this, and he heard what was said, Charles Hadden Spurgeon. He taught to 10 million people; often speaking 10x a week. Every person, great and small, counts to God.

A Sunday school teacher, after teaching a lesson to the whole class. He took a child aside and gave him the gospel. That was Dwight L. Moody. Our nation needs believers like Spurgeon and Moody. The individual hearer is the issue. God has an individual plan for each of us.

Jesus takes time out in the middle of the night to an individual pharisee, to Nicodemus. In John 3.

The gospel of John 4, and he is speaking to a Samaritan woman, an outcast to the Jews, and He pointed to Himself as the water to quench her thirst.

We do see Him Who was made a little lower than the angels. That He might taste death for every man.

John 12:32–33 And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself." He said this to show by what kind of death he was going to die.

Titus 2:11 For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people,...

Rom. 5:18 Therefore, as one trespass led to condemnation for all men, so one act of righteousness leads to justification and life for all men.

Every believer can attain to the righteousness of God through Jesus Christ. Every thing has a corporate, universal effect. God was in Christ, reconciling the world to Himself, not counting their transgressions against them.

Jesus is the satisfaction for all of our sins, and not for ours only, but for the entire world. Jesus lowered the barrier of sin for each one of us.

2Peter 3:9 The Lord is not slow to fulfill his promise as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should reach repentance.

Each person must change his/her mind. This provision of salvation was made for all and it was done at the cross. It is only effective if accepted by the individual. It is only, whosoever will.

Matt. 12 the pharisees and their atrocious words.

Matt. 12:24 But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, "It is only by Beelzebul, the prince of demons, that this Man casts out demons."

There will be no excuse for any individual. Jesus sees all of us clearly. We are all responsible for making an individual choice for salvation.

He who has the Son has life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have life. This individual choice is necessary. The opportunity is provided for all. The church is made up of individual believers; and we have individual responsibilities before the Lord and we are endowed by God with an individual plan. We are to stand before God for the accomplishment of a plan. We will be rewarded or not. Our individual responsibility is to serve the Lord whether others do or not. We are not excused because others fail nor are we rewarded because others have succeeded.

Every individual may be recompensed for the deeds done in the body. Divine good brings the individual reward, not a unit citation. Human good is burned; no one gets a pass on this. We each must go it alone in the plan of God. The challenge is to remember that the doctrine that we hear is for all of us. The effects are for us as a distinct person. We stand on our own two feet with spiritual autonomy. Would that we take responsibility for our own lives. Grow up, get off the bench, get in the game. We are individual members in the body of Christ. If anyone suffers as a believer, in that name, let him glorify God.

This is the time to see if we are occupied with the Lord Jesus Christ.

The 5th prohibition will be presented in the next service, v. 32.

Lesson #0047

Proverbs Wisdom in the OT

1/19/2020 2Sunday

Only 35 verses in Prov. 3, so we are near the end of it.

Prov. 3:32 for the devious person is an abomination to the LORD, but the upright are in his confidence.

The devious are the persons or societies and their groups who are violent, arrogant, etc. This is a continuation of v. 31. V. 32 provides the motivation. Do not withhold good, do not devise harm; do not content; do not envy a man of violence.

V. 32 gives us in one word a person who first those previous prohibitions. Devious is also found back in v. 21: lûwz (לֹוֹז) [pronounced looze], which means, perverted, perverse; wicked, perverseness, wickedness; deviousness. A timid description; a weak idea of uprightness. It is upright versus abomination. This is the strongest word in the Hebrew for divine abhorrence. Abomination is the word tôw'êvâh (תּוֹעֵבָה) [pronounced to-ğay-VAWH], and it is quite strong, presenting the enormity of the evil described. It means, disgusting act, an abomination, abhorrent, an abhorrent act.

What Evil Are We Talking about Here?

1. Abomination is found in the ritual sense. Israel's sacrifices, which had great meaning; and they looked into the future. They represented rebound and the Lord dying for our sins. But this refers to Israel's sacrifices which were repugnant to God. It includes actions within those sacrifices. It could include the offering of children, the phallic cult, witchcraft, intermarriage with idolaters. All of this was strictly forbidden.
2. Abomination in an ethical sense; refers specifically to God's people. Perpetrated various types of evil and great wickedness among themselves.
3. The term describes Israel before the administration of discipline to them.
4. Basically, an abomination is incompatible with the nature of God. Whatever does not meet God's standard is abhorrent to God. Yet, God loved us so much, that he sent His Son.

5. Being an abomination brings a decisive result from God's justice and His righteousness. God can tolerate nothing less than perfect righteousness. He cannot suffer it in His people or in his client nation. When they go against His plan; the rebel against their obligations.

This verse fits the modus operandi of a person involved in abominable acts. Or a believer in reversionism. This is a person who

There are those who can sit with God and fellowship with Him as intimates. Intimate with the Almighty. Can you imagine friendship? Meeting the Biblical standards that God has set for us. That is the spiritual life that God has provided for us.

צֹד (סד) [Pronounced Sohd]

1. Intimate is the Hebrew noun sod. צֹד (סד) [pronounced sohd], which means, a sitting together, an assembly [of friends, judges, of the wicked, of the Godhead]; a deliberation, a council.
2. It can mean counsel and council.
3. It is council that is in view here. A familiar conversation; or a relationship between an intimate circle of friends. The ones that you can relax with.
4. Hence, sod connotes a very close fellowship. A personal love relationship.

How are we not an abomination to God? Being intimate with Christ begins with being intimate with Him. We do not meet His perfect standards. He does care for us; He loves us personally; and at salvation, we have the potential of a relationship with Him. We are righteous in the sense that we have righteousness before God, being in Christ.

Therefore, God finds us worthy of His attention. As imperfect as we are, we possess that which God is attracted to. His Own righteousness. This is not relative righteousness. Because of that righteousness, God is able to extend personal love towards us and the promise of an intimate relationship with us.

We have to know God; and only then can we reciprocate that love. We must recognize His total appeal through gaining grace and doctrinal orientation. When you have doctrine resident in your soul, you begin to appreciate Him. The mind of Christ is in us. It provides for His acknowledgment of His overwhelming love for us.

We have to know someone and then develop love for them. If you marry someone and you do not know them, it is a crapshoot when it comes to love. That is all about character and it is all about the way that the two of you interact. By the end of your life, that should be the greatest moment between a spouse and a friend. The more situations that you go through with them and you see who they are. You know them. It is no different with the Lord. We need to understand Who God is. God the Father's attractiveness is unlimited, because He is unlimited. That is the grace and doctrinal orientation. This is how we come to know God; it is about our spiritual growth. If you sat in this auditorium. What did you know about God when you first entered into Berachah; and compare it to what you know about God today. The more we progress and grow, the more our respect and trust and intimacy strengthens. When our soul is inculcated with doctrine, so that we share the viewpoints of God, then you have learned to love God to the maximum. That is the gate; the gateway to the greatest relationship to intimacy with the Lord.

Personal love for God motivates the believer to conform to the character of God. You desire to please them, a person that you love. As your love for God increases, you gain confidence even through your problems. Reciprocal love for you is the foundation for intimacy with God.

Consider the person you are closest to; the go-to person. That is the kind of intimacy that you have with the Lord. It is so much greater. God is always the go to Person. You do this in your understanding of Who He is. It does not come through a meaningless, holy vocabulary. It is not about a superficial knowledge of God; nor is it about emotion and feeling close to God. You are intimate with God when you have knowledge of His ways and of His Son. Without such knowledge during communion, your mind wanders and there is no intimacy with God. We learn about Him, we have knowledge of Him and we learn to think like He does. Emotion is not the gate to intimacy with Him. Experiencing the thinking process of the Lord Jesus Christ in your own soul. The circumstances of your life are then guided by His thinking and His plan. It is this wisdom that the Lord used throughout when He thought and taught. We can have this same thinking in our own lives.

Emotionalism does not cut it. Did anything bother Christ? No, He went right through it. It was painful for Him to be on the cross.

Being Upright and Thinking Alike with God

1. Being upright is applying the wisdom that we have learned to all of life. This is applying the wisdom that you have learned to all aspects of life.
2. Wisdom is the thought process of intimacy with God. You have never spoken to Go
3. God is an intimate friend with those who are of a like mind with Him. We had better know what He thinks, what He commands, what He expects in our life. Then we are upright and a friend of God.

Now you understand better than 99% of the people in the world what it means to be intimate with God. It is all about what you know. Developing friendship is one of the great parts of life. You get to know them and you develop a true intimate friendship. God is the Intimate Friend.

Prov. 3:32 for the devious person is an abomination to the LORD, but the upright are in his confidence.

Lesson #0048

Proverbs Wisdom in the OT 1/22/2020 Wednesday

Prov. 3:33 The LORD's curse is on the house of the wicked, but he blesses the dwelling of the righteous.

The prosperity of the evil is not to be envied. God allows some prosperity for a time to some of those who practice the evil of the cosmic system. God does not promote their prosperity, but He may use them to further His plan.

Free Will and the Wicked Prospering

1. Clearly, the wicked do prosper, which God may allow; but God pronounces a curse upon them. There is a curse by God.
2. Part of the answer to this conundrum of evil prospering is free will; we are endowed with free will. We have the ability to accept or reject Jesus Christ. Free will in the human race is necessary.
3. Free will as provided by God precludes having the good without the possibility of evil. You must have both in order to have good. If there is free will, then there must be good and evil.
4. God uses the house of the wicket for His purposes.

God Uses Suffering

1. Don't ever focus on the prosperity of the evil.
2. God uses the prosperity of the wicked to praise Him and for His redemptive purposes. Those 10 plagues demonstrated God's power and He delivered Israel as He had promised.
3. Psalm 76:10a The wrath of man will praise You. God never sanctions evil; but it works out for His praise. The prosperity in the house of the wicked can be used to praise God.
4. The house of the wicked cannot sustain prosperity forever. God's blessing is eternal. There are other reasons for people to prosper.
5. God uses the wicked for His purposes.
6. When we see the cursing, which we may not recognize as cursing, the wicked find out that this wealth does not provide them happiness. This is evident in Hollywood. They let their misery hang out for all to see. They have pretty strange ideas as well. They think cosmic system; they do not think divine viewpoint. They are all about human viewpoint.
7. Ill-gotten gains do not make a person happy. This never leaves a person alone without consequences. That is the curse. Evil has its own consequences.

Focusing on the Prosperity of Those Who Are Evil

1. Do not focus on the prosperity of the evil.
2. Focus on their eternal future.
3. Focus on the uncertainty and their fear of loss.
4. They are always afraid of losing it, because easy come, easy go.
5. The ultimate price of their evil is always a life. The outcome of their evil is never a happy one. There is a curse on them. It never turns out well.
6. Sooner or later, evil has its own kickback on the one who commits it.

7. What appears to be the prosperity of the cosmic system is simply an avenue of divine judgment.
- a. Evil prosperity includes a corrective and spiritual, educational element. This goes right along with consistent dependence upon the Lord.
  - b. God's grace is particularly evident here.
  - c. God uses evil to awaken us to our own spiritual poverty. That is, when we are out of fellowship or in reversionism. It slaps us around a little. We find ourselves in the same poverty of soul as the unbeliever who puts his trust in materialism. Our attitude is not different.
  - d. It is infinitely better to receive the spiritual blessings of God, even in poverty; even in want; than the fleeting material prosperity, than the cosmic system.
  - e. The contrast provides an opportunity for self-evaluation and for spiritual growth. All good reasons for how the wicked prosper.

There is a third reason that God allows the evil to prosper. This strengthens a consistent dependence upon the Lord. We find our security only in Him; rather than on the fleeting nature of human prosperity. There is no strength in material things. Easy come, easy go; always afraid. Our security is in the Lord. When you understand the faith rest drill and live the faith rest life; that is far superior to materialism and prosperity.

There is far-reaching meaning in Prov. 3:33. It is a curse to the house of the wicked. Does blessing mean prosperity? Obviously not. Blessing in the spiritual life is so much more important than a curse on the house of the wicked.

The curse of the Lord is a consequence. There is no inherent evil in prosperity itself. Money and prosperity are not evil in and of themselves. The difference is the source of blessing; the grace of God versus the cosmic system. It is not evil; filthy lucre is not always filthy. Cosmic system prosperity does have an evil end.

When prosperity is wrongly achieved by theft or cheating or materialism becomes one's God. That is why money is the root of all evil. That is the sole desire. That is what drives their train. That is a curse and not a blessing.

When materialism becomes one's God, then it is a curse. So the curse of the Lord on a wicked person or group is a major factor in the prosperity of the house of the wicket.

Mira is a curse and it is a difficult word to understand in detail. Used once in Deuteronomy, twice in Proverbs and twice in Malachi. Its meaning is best found in Prov. 28:27 Whoever gives to the poor will not want, but he who hides his eyes will get many a curse.

He who gives to the poor will never want. A lack of grace and generosity. The result will be a failure in grace orientation. That failure is a poverty of soul. If you do not have anything to give, then this does not apply. There are many doctrines which come into play. You do not impoverish your family to give to the poor. Remember, this is a general principle. Many of these proverbs are general principles. Lack of generosity and lack of charity does not always lead to monetary poverty. It is certainly a poverty of soul. Bottom line is, poverty of soul carries with it, its own curse. This is a lack of generosity; this is exemplified by giving to the poor.

What is emphasized here is the attitude of graciousness. Graciousness is the antidote to cursing and a lack of charity. God is not going to bless you if you have no capacity for it. That is destructive and God is not going to contribute to your destruction. Are you giving to the poor in order to receive blessing from God in a similar way.

The curse of the Lord is on the house of the wicked, might be infliction of difficulties by God or self-induced misery.

Psalm 37:22 for those blessed by the LORD shall inherit the land, but those cursed by him shall be cut off.

Prov. 3:33 The LORD's curse is on the house of the wicked, but he blesses the dwelling of the righteous.

There is a loss experienced by the wicked. The cycles of discipline might be placed upon the nation Israel. There might be difficult circumstances laid upon you for correction.

What does it matter if you are poor or rich. You may live in poverty for a few years; so what. You might have trouble making ends meet. The spiritual blessing of the spiritual life. You are not a part of the house of the wicked; so you do not receive what they do.

Mira is a hovering evil; the source of constant misfortune. This poverty, the palace of evil, is now contrasted to a small dwelling of the righteous. What is evil prosperity to the righteous. What should it be to you. It is the antithesis; and it is nothing in the scope of God's plan. Evil prosperity has no place in the scope of God's plan.

Which is better? Poverty and a spiritual life or wealth and wickedness? Blessing in the first one and cursing in the second. Who are the righteous? The spiritually mature believer. God blesses His Word in the souls of believers. The more mature that you are, the greater your capacity. Your motivation comes from divine viewpoint. If you have that prosperity, you have a purpose.

What comes after that? It depends upon your attitude and your spiritual growth. Why does this spiritual advanced person who has great prosperity and I do not. Do not worry about it. Most of us have food on the table, roof over your head, etc. Do you want to see poverty? It is not here. God has a plan for each one of us. We have to live in God's plan; not ours. There is no respect in living without a job and leaching off of someone else. The prosperous evil ones of the cosmic system can never have that true blessing. It is the ultimate blessing; and it comes from God. Most of the world thinks that wealth is the greatest blessing. Having many houses in great places all over the world. But true blessing is in your attitude and in your soul. You might be hundreds of times better off without houses all over; if you have the blessing of the spiritual life. Cursing versus blessing.

Prov. 3:33 The LORD's curse is on the house of the wicked, but he blesses the dwelling of the righteous.

Great verse coming up: God scoffs at the scoffers.

Prov. 3:34 Toward the scorners he is scornful, but to the humble he gives favor.

Bobby has talked about parallelism. Antithetical parallelism. V. 33 is obviously a antithetical parallelism. Same deal with v. 34.

Between the verses, you have the wicked and you have the cursed; and you have the just and you have the afflicted. In both cases, the wicked are cursed; and the grace oriented are graced out.

V. 34 does some interpreting of v. 33 and elaborates upon it. Curse the scoffers and grace to the afflicted. There is great application to us in v. 34. We are either advancing spiritually or retrogressing. Scoffers who scoff.

Scoffers are a particular kind of person that God curses directly.

The word for scoffer is lits.

Scoff Meaning

1. This means to deride, to mock, to reject.
2. That is what God does in cursing those who scoff at Him; those who curse and rejects them. God turns their own scoffing on themselves.
3. It is God Who scoffs and rejects those who mock Him and His Word.
4. We know, because the Scripture tells us, that God will not be mocked. Instead, he mocks or rejects the scoffers as wicked and they are cursed. God is not going to be mocked. He mocks and rejects them.
5. This is the consequence of the one who scoffs; the one who is contemptuous. The one who laughs at or derides God; who reviles God to His face. Or reviles God to others. That is everywhere. A perfect example is the atheist who scoffs at God's very existence and laughs at those who believe in God.

Lesson #0049

Proverbs Wisdom in the OT

1/23/2020 Thursday

Vv. 33–34 both deal with cursing of the wicked from the Lord.

Prov. 3:33 The LORD's curse is on the house of the wicked, but He blesses the dwelling of the righteous.

Prov. 3:34 Toward the scorners He is scornful, but to the humble He gives favor.

V. 34 amplifies v. 35. Vociferously mock God; and some people make rejecting God a life's work. Scoffers is the divinely inspired word, used to describe the evil of this human reject.

The word used here is lûwts (לוץ) [pronounced loots], which means, scoffers, scorers; boasters.

Psalm 74:18 Remember this, O LORD, how the enemy scoffs, and a foolish people reviles your name.

Those who reject God, the same, God rejects. A person whose disdain is well-known and widely circulated. If God scoffs at the scoffer, their life at the end is a life of horror, characterized by anger, bitterness, hatred. This is always the result. It brings bitterness to the forefront because they have nothing else to anchor themselves to. Those are the qualities of a person who reject God; and it is turned back on their own heads.

An atheist scoffs at God. His rejection and reviling can take many forms. Or the agnostic who says, even if there is a God, we cannot know anything about Him. But the mockers mock not just God but those who believe in Him. They mock those who adhere to the Word of God. Those who deny God; they have to do something else. A mocker has to have something to substitute for God; and that is often humanism. Mankind is put into the forefront; they are the substitute God.

Rom. 1 is a passage that we truly need to understand. This is one of the best descriptions of a person in Prov. 3:33a.

Rom. 1:24–25 Therefore God gave them up in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, to the dishonoring of their bodies among themselves, because they exchanged the truth about God for a lie and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever! Amen.

God gives them over to the lusts of their hearts and to impurity. They would dishonor their own bodies among them.

God Gives Scoffers over to Their Own Desires

1. Their scoffing brings a cursing, which reveals a soul malady but brings on a physical malady as well.
2. This is also found in vv. 26 and 28; it is repeated 3x in this passage.
3. God gives them over to what? To themselves; to what they want; to what they choose to be. They are given over to the impurity of their own lusts.
4. They are turned over to their own evil; to their own dishonor. We make our own cursing and God allows it.
5. This is because of our free will.
6. This describes the wrath and cursing of God against evil mockers. They make their own misery.

7. This does not require God to directly curse anyone. Israel was constantly under the cursing of God for their rebellion against Him. Northern and southern kingdoms of Israel both put under the 5th cycle of discipline.
8. These scoffers are their own worst enemies; they are their own curse. Their own curse are the consequences of their rejection.
9. God allows; He permits the rejection; and He permits the consequences of evil on their own heads.

What is the mocking? Paul describes it and talks about them in Rom. 1:18–19 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who by their unrighteousness suppress the truth. For what can be known about God is plain to them, because God has shown it to them. It is revealed in heaven against them. They suppress the truth.

When Truth Is Rejected

1. Even when the truth is right in front of them; the opposite of what atheism is; the knowledge of what God has by His Word. Or by what is made. Even then, with the truth right in front of them, they laugh at it. How can you believe that stuff? It is not logical; not rational. How can the organization of all that we see not be designed?
2. They suppress the truth. It is suppressed in their own souls; and they make it a lifetime work to suppress it everywhere else. What is happening today where religious freedom is being removed.
3. How they do it is found in Rom. 1:19–23. They mock His existence; that is an intellectual exercise today.
4. Therefore, they reject the wisdom of God when they mock Him. This fundamental wisdom of God can be seen in His creation. If you reject it, then you are a mocker of God.
5. It culminates in the mocking of God and accepting a substitute for God. Something must take His place.

Rom. 1:24–25 Therefore God gave them up in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, to the dishonoring of their bodies among themselves, because they exchanged the truth about God for a lie and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever! Amen.

They Worship and Serve the Creature Rather than the Creator

1. This describes what Israel constantly got involved in; idolatry. They were often into it and it took some terrible forms: child sacrifice or temple prostitution.
2. Idolatry is the fastest way to attach yourself to the cosmic system.
3. Idolatry is the ultimate in mocking and scoffing God because you are replacing God.
4. There are many forms of idolatry. We think of some graven image or the Baal images; and many other idols for that era; but that is not the only form. Another is the elevation of God's creation.

5. They elevate the creature, especially mankind, over everything else. That is humanism or environmentalism or atheistic evolution.

God's Cursing Is Spelled out Specifically

1. There have been various images used in Israel's history and many religions have the same thing going on. The altars to the ancestors or the fat Buddha dolls.
2. God gives them over to the results of their evil.
3. In the end, they mock themselves; their mockery of God is a mockery of themselves. They try to elevate themselves above God; and it is a mockery of God.
4. This giving them over is one way that God scoffs at the scoffers. Instead of getting upset over someone who mocks us. We want to confront them and get angry with them. How about standing back and say, "Live with your own misery." The anger and hatred is no way to live. You want to be that way, have at it. "Do you think it makes any difference in my life what you think of me? It does not."
5. They drag themselves into degradation. Into a morass of immorality and sins and evils of all types.
6. They dishonor their own bodies as well as their own souls. The whole person is dishonored.
7. God curses them indirectly through the dishonor that they bring upon themselves.
8. Those who degrade God with bodily degradations they will bring their own bodily degradation upon themselves.
9. That is the result of the degradation of their souls. When you scoff at God, your thinking is degraded. You have no standards except what you make up.

We should remember that, when we get upset with people, those who speak badly of God; or of anything else. God scoffs at the scoffers. Just sit back and watch.

Theology of God's Existence

1. Our physical existence, yours and mine, has no real meaning apart from a transcendent reality that gives it meaning. If we are our own reality, then there truly is no real meaning, except a self-centered reality.
2. We see our true worth as human beings, our faults and our place in the world. We see God's love and grace by knowing God and in no other way. Knowing God is the greatest reality of life.
3. We have to have a point of comparison. We need a standard by which to measure ourselves. Otherwise, we are our own standard. Without this higher standard, we have no higher anchor.
4. What do we do? We turn inward and become relative. Everything is relative.
5. When humanity loses a sense of a transcendent God in the way that He is described in Rom. 1, which is what the scoffers do, he cannot avoid elevating himself. He becomes transcendent. How ridiculous for us to be on a level with God. In some eastern religions we become divine. In Hinduism and Buddhism, we become gods; and we are a long ways from that.

6. Mankind reduces himself to the level of cosmic system; to the level of being oneself.
7. In the end, there is very little integrity, much immorality, increased criminality, and ultimately a viewpoint of futility and worthlessness. We are seeing that in our society today. A sense of futility with the future. A sense of doom. A sense of foreboding.
8. Thus the scoffer becomes an individual with no real purpose or destiny greater than what this temporal life have to offer. Many a philosophy has ended with the conclusion that everything is empty.
9. That is the eternal end of the scoffer. When all of this is true and when all of this takes place, God gave them over to degrading passions.

In this context, those degrading passions are homosexuality and lesbianism. This perversion of sexuality in marriage is scoffing of God.

Rom 1:26 For this reason God gave them up to dishonorable passions. For their women exchanged natural relations for those that are contrary to nature;

Rom 1:27 and the men likewise gave up natural relations with women and were consumed with passion for one another, men committing shameless acts with men and receiving in themselves the due penalty for their error.

Rom 1:28 And since they did not see fit to acknowledge God, God gave them up to a debased mind to do what ought not to be done.

God gives them over to their own folly; to their own depraved minds. He gives them over to what they have become as a result of their rejection and derision of God.

The obvious evidence of their self-cursing.

Rom 1:29–31 They were filled with all manner of unrighteousness, evil, covetousness, malice. They are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, maliciousness. They are gossips, slanderers, haters of God, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of evil, disobedient to parents, foolish, faithless, heartless, ruthless.

They are unloving; they are unmerciful. Those are the qualities of the scoffers.

Prov. 3 tells us, do not envy the wicked who are prosperous. Many of the do-nots of Prov. 3 are found right here. Those who scoff at our God; who say there is no God, have been turned over to their own devices.

The Exchange of the Truth of God For...

1. They have a depraved mind. They exchanged the truth of God, the doctrine of God, the wisdom of God, for a lie. Anything that is anti-God; anything which is false about the Scripture.
2. They have scoffed at God by lowering Him to the level of a creature; a debased creature; an animal.

3. They have lowered themselves to the level of living a lie. The truth is evident in everywhere that you look. Anything else is living a lie. Human viewpoint is living a lie. The unbeliever is flat living a lie. He has nothing else.
4. Thus, whatever the object is of their idolatry, that becomes the focus of their lives. This is the ultimate in the scoffing of God.
5. So what happens? God turns His back on them. God does not have to do anything to them; but the curse is separation from God.

The Exchange

1. In a creature-centered world, in a humanistic world, the restraints of God are dismissed by the scoffer.
2. Instead, they take up perverted sexual practices.
3. They disregard the divinely ordained purpose and pleasure of sex.
4. It is exchanged for that which is a mockery of what God has created. The other aspect of sex is procreation.
5. Homosexuality and lesbianism is a distortion of reality in the sexual sphere and God turns them over to that; God lets them have what they want. There is a recompense in their own bodies.

We don't really need to preach this to them. Take it easy; relax; God has all of this under control. We don't have to correct all of these people. It is not our purpose. God has turned them over to their own devices, their own depravity. They have nothing but misery, anger and hatred remaining to them. They are miserable people because nothing is ever right; nothing is as it should be. It will never be because it is never the way that they want it to be.

Rom 1:32 Though they know God's righteous decree that those who practice such things deserve to die, they not only do them but give approval to those who practice them.

Lesson #0050

Proverbs Wisdom in the OT

1/26/2020 1Sunday

Most churches have a marquee outside with the pastor's title for a sermon. If there was one there, and today, it would read, The Bible is Politically Incorrect. This is what we will find out this morning.

God is mocked in this society and we move further and further away from Him. Atheism, skepticism, humanism and agnosticism are increasing and challenge the Word of God. Do not forget the Gal. 6:7 tells us that God will not be mocked. God blesses those who are dedicated to the plan of God. He blesses those who are faithful to Him. Those who are evil and appear to prosper among us; but they are cursed by God according to Prov. 3:33a and 34.

Prov. 3:33 The LORD's curse is on the house of the wicked, but He blesses the dwelling of the righteous.

Prov. 3:34 Toward the scoffers He is scornful, but to the humble He gives favor.

God scoffs at the scoffers and He gives grace to the grace oriented. The scoffers are scoffed at by God; and the faithful are blessed by God. God rejects those who reject and revile Him. We do not tend to think of God as a scoffer.

What does scoff mean? lûwts (לוץ) [pronounced loots], and it means, scoffers, scorners; boasters. Some articulate how much they hate God and why they hate Him. Those contemptuous of God. Some spend their lives in opposition to God. Theirs is a life of anger, hatred, bitterness, and many other attitudes which bring on self-induced misery into their lives. Nothing is ever right; nothing is ever complete in their view. They are never satisfied; they are never complete in life. Their goal in life will be thwarted because they are mocking God and God will not be mocked. God turns their scoffing back on their own heads.

We are going to take a side-bar in Romans 1. This is a passage many people curse. Some have said this passage should be taken out of the Bible. This reveals their degraded and perverse thinking. The method of cursing and scoffing by God begins in v. 24 (that is where we will begin).

Rom. 1:24–25 Therefore God gave them up in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, to the dishonoring of their bodies among themselves, because they exchanged the truth about God for a lie and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever! Amen.

When you depart from God, there is little meaning to be found in life. They find meaning nowhere but in themselves. They cannot go to God; they have rejected Him. Arrogance tells them that they cannot find meaning except in themselves. Their life is only about themselves. A soulish malady and a physical degeneration as well.

God gave them over... (found here and v. 26 & 28).

This can be a comforting passage for the believer. We can derive comfort from it. God's cursing is to turn them over to the consequences of their own evil and their own dishonor. The effects are obvious.

A second step in mocking God, found in v. 25: They exchange the truth of God for a lie; and they worship and serve the creature rather than the Creator. Idolatry is the lie; God is exchanged for other forms of worship.

The Scoffers Mock God and Receive the Proper Recompense

1. The scoffers elevate the creature; especially mankind, above God. Humanism, materialism, god is what I can accumulate; or environmentalism. The earth is placed above God. Or, in pantheistic evolution, the world created itself. All of these are forms of idolatry. They exchange God for a lie.
2. In the end, they mock themselves in their own futility.

3. The Old Testament is replete with images, graven images, like Buddha in Thailand. They also worship their own materialistic attitudes. They can experience their own bodily degradation. People who reject God and mock Him are deathly afraid of old age. I want a face lift. The bodies naturally degrade; and they fear it like you cannot believe.
4. It also includes the degradation of their souls.
5. They now have a depraved mind; they have exchanged the truth of God for a lie. The Bible defines God and what our lives should be in relation to God. It defines nationalism; divine institutions. It defines standards by which all human beings live. If they live in stability or in freedom.
6. The scoffers have scoffed God by lowering Him to the level of themselves. They think highly of themselves; but taking God to that level is a degradation. They drag Him down to our level.
7. In exchange of truth for falsehood; they live a lie; their lives are a lie. That brings confusion to the human race.
8. Thus whatever the object of their idolatry, that becomes the focus of their life. They worship at that shrine. Bobby has named a few of them.
9. That is the ultimate in scoffing God. And so God turns it back on them. That is how He scoffs at them. He gives it over to their sin nature. To their own lusts and lies. In a creature-centered world, in a humanistic world, the restraints of God are disregarded or forgotten by the people. They take up perverted and immoral practices. They reject the true pleasure of sexuality. They exchange this divinely designed sexuality for that which is a mockery of it. Homosexuality and lesbianism. This is a distortion of reality; and of God's plan. This distorts the truth of Scripture. It would be easy to ignore this passage. Easy for some to say, this does not exist. God gave them over... the consequences of their lust and perversions. ...to degrading passions....

Rom 1:26 For this reason God gave them up to dishonorable passions. For their women exchanged natural relations for those that are contrary to nature;... This is not normal; this is a distortion of sexuality.

Rom 1:27 ...and the men likewise gave up natural relations with women and were consumed with passion for one another, men committing shameless acts with men and receiving in themselves the due penalty for their error.

Receiving in their own persons the due penalty of their error;... they carry their own curse. Man carries his own dishonor; and He is mocking God. You will be called homophobic for believing this passage. Homophobic is an expression of hate by divine design. It claims that you hate such people. We don't hate anyone; but they hate us.

We do not hate anyone who is a sinner. We do not condemn them; they condemn themselves. They scoff at God's design. Let the curse of their indecent acts fall upon them. We should pity them; it is not a pleasant way to live. They name their own poison in the name of equality and social justice.

Scoffers and Their Sin Natures

1. The scoffers are the fools who will display dishonor as stated in Prov. 3:35b.
2. They support and even promote the perversion as a normal lifestyle. It is not. Do people have a propensity from the sin nature to do that? Absolutely. We all have an original sin. We have all sorts of propensities; and all sorts of weaknesses. Sin can be resisted. We, as believers, can resist sin. Any sin can be resisted. I am created this way, that is my excuse, that is my rationalization.
3. There is always cursing involved with the promotion of the sin nature. We see the homosexual lifestyle promoted; and if you do not agree, you are homophobic. But God will turn them over to their own devices.
4. That cursing carries over to the people involved and to the nation that mocks God. The client nation that mocks and scoffs God; they lose that client nation status. Israel is a perfect example of this. They have all kinds of perversions including sexual perversions in the Old Testament; and Israel paid the price for this as a client nation. The Assyrians came in to destroy the people of Israel. God will not be mocked in any way. God scoffs at them. You do not want God to scoff at you. That is not healthy.

As believers, we do not support the lifestyles of perversion; nor do we condemn or hate those people. We are not commanded to hate anyone. We are commanded to hate what they do; and not the persons. We were without Christ, without hope and without eternal life. We should treat others with that same regard. We are grace oriented; and we demonstrate that towards anyone, despite what they do. We do not support what they do; we do not support their evil.

These people need salvation. Those positive to it have the means of resisting. Human programming or re-programming is simply human viewpoint. The light of Bible doctrine reveals this as corrupt.

Lesson #0051

Proverbs Wisdom in the OT

1/26/2020 2Sunday

Some people pick and choose which sermon to come and listen to. Missing the first service means the second will be a shock to you. Bobby will try to outdo himself in political incorrectness.

Prov. 3:34 Toward the scorers He is scornful, but to the humble He gives favor.

This does not mean that God mocks and then kills those who mock Him; but He does turn them over to their own devices; their own perversions come back on them. Homosexuality and lesbianism is what comes back on their heads; the ones who practice it.

God's design for marriage is perverted by homosexuality. They fall in the category of scoffers and mockers. They are not the only type of scoffers. They do it publically and vociferously and loudly. That is what we covered in the first service.

We do not support their perverted lifestyles; and many churches today are splitting on this very issue. Some will be politically correct. We never condemn those who are sinners; God does that. We do that when Adam fell; and God provides the means to relieve that condemnation. That is always the answer to any perversion in this life. People have the ability to make choices in the light of Bible doctrine. Our attack or condemnation of those we do not like or disagree with, that makes no difference. Bible doctrine is what changes the heart.

We are to treat homosexuals and those that we disagree with, with the grace of God. You never compromise the Bible doctrine in your own soul. As a believer in Jesus Christ, you do not hate them who follow those practices. You hate what they do; not the people who do it.

There is also a corporate aspect to all of this. When a nation become perverse and scoffs at God; and scoffs at divine establishment. Turmoil and rebellion become rampant. We should be guided by the rule of law; but it is denigrated for political correctness. Freedom is often forfeited. People are deluded by the words of the mockers. God's Word is not broken and mocked without terrible repercussions to the mockers.

The results are predictable and undeniable. We are to turn them over to their own perversions as they desire. There is no one to blame but their own foolishness and mockery. They seem to want to mock a God that they do not believe in.

The restraint and morality of the past is replaced by relativism and confusion.

The Scoffers and Their Rejection of God

1. The scoffers must justify their own rejection and their pathways in life. Inherent to us is the understanding of what is natural and what is not natural. Rom. 1 describes homosexuality is a perversion. It is not natural. It is not a part of the divine institution of marriage; or of sexuality.
2. They must delude themselves. This is why you see such incredible aggressiveness in promoting themselves today; promoting anti-establishment positions. The Bible is not tolerated especially publically. They want it removed from every place. They want the Bible removed from the public eye. Sooner or later, they will come after the church; don't think that they won't.
3. What is evil is good in the eyes of the scoffer. Those things which we accepted as right in our society are rejected. We live in the greatest country for freedom. Many of our problems have been corrected or are being corrected.
4. Some hate the fact that we are the most prosperous nation on earth and that we are a capitalist society. Some think if only they could just destroy this nation. They believe that we are the problem. However, as a client nation, we are the solution. These are mockers of freedom and of nationalism. This affects this nation and those in it.
5. What is good in the eyes of God is evil to the scoffer. Bible doctrine and divine establishment are evil concepts to the scoffer.

6. The result is, they turn themselves over to the scoffing or cursing of God.
7. For these mockers dishonor, degradation, sin, rejection of God, are elevated to the level of respectability. Even a virtue to be anti-God and anti-Christian; to promote those things which the Bible condemns. If God in His grace can spare us, as He did with the city in Eccles. 9, for just one person; there are far more than that in Berachah.

Also included in the category of scoffers are those who mock the Word of God. They are cursers. The mock God with idolatry and false religion; they were discipline and destroyed for that false religion. Those who mock God turn themselves over; God will not allow Himself to be mocked. God allows the inevitable results to run its course. The rejection of doctrine means perpetual reject of divine establishment.

It is not our job to change the culture or to change the world. That is not our job. It is our job to grow in grace; that is what matters.

Divine wisdom is the source of blessing and happiness to us. Those without wisdom pay the price. They have a lack of clarity. They are confused. There is no happiness or life under those conditions. They are hoodwinked by what they hear. They compromise their integrity in order to get along. That is the beginning or the end of reversionism.

When God turns deriding rejecting people to their own devices, they are like fish flopping around on a boat out of water. This is the blessing of God for eternal life. You take the fish and throw it back; that represents rebound.

It does not matter how successful or wealthy a person becomes. Such a person is deceived. They are poverty stricken of soul. Self-induced misery is their lot in life. Do not emulate such people who are compromised. Their lot in life is not pleasant. There is divine discipline for the believer, as well as self-induced misery.

Prov. 11:18 The wicked earns deceptive wages, but one who sows righteousness gets a sure reward.

Deceptive Wages

1. God scoffs at those and gives them deceptive wages.
2. The prosperity of the wicked does not last and it does not satisfy. It is a caricature of an unhappy life. Some have momentary happiness from time to time; and when they are not happy, they remember those moments of happiness. This is called a frantic search for happiness. They are unhappy where they are and cannot wait to get to a place where they are happy.
3. Prosperity of the wicked is not satisfying and it is deceptive in its reward. Some think, if I could just have enough money to enjoy life, are wrong. Money does not make the difference. Jeffrey Epstein had all the money in the world. It is a whole other thing to have wealth and capacity for happiness.

4. Nor can the prosperity of the wicked save them from the misfortunes and the discipline that comes to the scoffer.
5. There is no capacity for life or for prosperity. Capacity for life is bound to the believer for spiritual advance.
6. Scoffing of the scoffer becomes their way of life. It does not change; it gets worse.

A great relationship begins in your soul. It is not finding it.

On the Other Hand

1. Sowing righteousness is like sowing good seed into the ground. This consequently grows a good crop. That crop is the reward.
2. That reward is truly dependable. True or sure; Prov. 11:18. Capacity for life. Sowing the good seed is growing spiritually.
3. He who sows righteousness will reap true prosperity. There are some in the Christian world call it health and wealth. You can be blessed by the Lord and be in poverty. The circumstances that we find ourselves in is fulfilling that plan. We can be happy on the golf course or happy in the plant where you work. You can be happy wherever you are.
4. His reward is real and it is permanent. It represents more than just monetary reward. It is more than just materialism. It can be something that you really want.
5. The blessing is all the benefits of living the spiritual life and applying wisdom. That is why we are studying Proverbs and Psalms; that is the true reward.
6. The seed of the spiritual life sown in this life will also receive its full recompense in the great harvest at the Bema Seat of Christ. These rewards are just as certain and true as anything that happens to you in life.

Do not be deceived; God is not mocked. (Gal. 6:7) For whatever a man sows, so shall he also reap. The righteousness in your spiritual life is a reward in itself.

The end of the wicket will be as vv. 31–32 read. They will eat of the fruit in their own way and be satiated by their own devices. For the waywardness of the naive will kill them; and the complacency of fools will destroy them. You cannot blame your own decisions on a bad environment.

Rom 1:26 For this reason God gave them up to dishonorable passions. For their women exchanged natural relations for those that are contrary to nature;...

Rom 1:27 ...and the men likewise gave up natural relations with women and were consumed with passion for one another, men committing shameless acts with men and receiving in themselves the due penalty for their error.

Rom 1:28 And since they did not see fit to acknowledge God, God gave them up to a debased mind to do what ought not to be done.

Rom 1:29–31 They were filled with all manner of unrighteousness, evil, covetousness, malice. They are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, maliciousness. They are gossips, slanderers, haters of God, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of evil, disobedient to parents, foolish, faithless, heartless, ruthless.

God gives them over to their own folly; to their own depraved minds. He gives them over to what they have become as a result of their rejection and derision of God.

Lesson #0052                      Proverbs    Wisdom in the OT    1/29/2020    Wednesday

Those who scoff at divine establishment; who scoff at our Constitution, must realize that God can turn all of that back on their heads.

Living within the parameters of wisdom is always a decision that each believer must make. Each believer must decide to live within those parameters. We are without excuse. We know that continued good decisions continue with blessings from God. Our volition has everything to do with blessing from God. There are dire consequences for arrogance. Arrogance is the opposite of wisdom; you cannot have arrogance and have wisdom. The consequences of arrogance and self-centeredness are found in Proverbs. If you are a scoffer of God, it will be turned back on your own head.

Rejection of Wisdom

1. Rejection of wisdom is much more than just a personal defect.
2. Rejection of wisdom cannot be excused by environment, poverty or wealth, or by difficult circumstances. That is a rejection that you cannot afford.
3. Rejection reflects a mental attitude regarded by God as something for which the believer is positively culpable. We are responsible for our own decisions and actions. There are no excuses for not living the spiritual life. When we all get to the Judgment Seat of Christ; there will be no excuses.
4. Where wisdom is offered to the believer, there is no longer any free decision. The decision that is demanded by God, the decision...
5. The believer must accept the wisdom or become a scoffer. When you have no divine wisdom as a believer, you can only become a scoffer, a rejecter of God. You cannot live the spiritual life without the ammunition to do so. Wisdom and Bible doctrine are hand in hand. You either have it or you don't. The decision is very simple; have it.
6. Thus, the one who refuses to accept it exposes himself or herself to misery. Self-induced misery. It is induced by that person's volitional folly.
7. That is the road to being scoffed by God. This is what God will do. Prov. 3:34
8. Being scoffed by God is the worst of all circumstances.

4 Parts How We Manufacture Our Own Misery

1. Wrong thinking. As a man thinks within himself, so he is. So few people understand that, but it is so simple. You are what you think, not what you do. Hypocrisy is rampant. Prov. 3:27a
  - a. Our thoughts are our own. No one makes you think those things. You can be influenced.
  - b. The fact that we can be influenced by others does not lessen our culpability. Did they make you think it? Of course not. If you have wisdom in your soul, they you cannot be made to think evil.
  - c. Our society is guilty at large of wrong thinking. This is not an excuse for our own wrong thinking.
  - d. We have the divine blueprint, which is Bible doctrine. That defines our thoughts and our attitudes in life. That is the only thing. It is critical to think Bible doctrine. That defines who you are. You cannot think wisely unless you can apply doctrine to your life. It is a trap when you do not think with Bible doctrine. If you are influenced by the cosmic system, then you are responsible for that thinking. Prov. 3:26 God's wisdom keeps us from being trapped in that system. Prov. 17:20 A man of crooked heart does not discover good, and one with a dishonest tongue falls into calamity. A crooked mind is a mind without Bible doctrine. It is a mind which cannot apply Bible doctrine. All of the scoffers are perverted in their plans and perverted in their speech. A person who lies, that is a perverted language; there is no truth in him. They speak out of both sides of their mouth. They are never trustworthy. Can anyone trust what you say? Will you say anything to make yourself look good? You lie to yourself and you will lie to anyone who will listen to you.

The Crooked Mind

1. The crooked mind of Prov. 17:20, one can always expect a no good person. A zoen to stay out of.
2. The idea of trouble refers to misery or to adversity in life that becomes inevitable. You have a mind filled with wisdom or you have a crooked mind.
3. Miserable people, crooked minds, face a life without purpose or without true prosperity. Some of the most miserable people in the world are very prosperous people. You are what you think. You cannot be happy if you are not happy in your soul. No material thing in your life can supercede what you think. That is what a frantic search for happiness. No happiness in your soul means that you are not a happy person; regardless of what you own. With non-crooked thinking, you can have the world and still be happy. You have it and you have it for a purpose. Poor or rich, it does not matter. What is in your soul? How do you think.
4. Thus the application.

Wrong Motivation

1. Related closely to wrong thinking.

2. Because motivation is a direct link between thought and action. Your thinking reflects your notions.
3. Our thoughts become our motives, which then drive our words and actions.

Whatever

1. A person's plan or plans previously considered in one's own mind can become a source of arrogance.
2. That is exactly what happens in the minds of the scoffers; they forget the grace of God that brought them there. What brings you is Bible doctrine; we get to this point by grace.
3. Thus the application of those plans to action are motivated by arrogance. This is an example of the scoffer and his self-induced misery.
4. Arrogance is scoffing at the attitude of humility demanded by God. Humility is the mental attitude demanded by the spiritual life.
5. It is humility that God blesses, which we will get to...
6. Arrogance and arrogant thinking and motives are the curse of the scoffer.

Envy, jealousy, hatred, anger are motives for evil. There is the capacity for love couple with humility. The choices for good or negative humility rests upon us. It is all that there is. It is very simple. Prov. 16:2 All the ways of a man are pure in his own eyes, but the LORD weighs the spirit [or, motives]. This is relative thinking; humanism. God weighs the motives.

The Lord Weighs the Motives

1. God does not weigh the outcome, but why the person does what he does. If you don't ever question yourself, you are going to have a crooked mind. Where am I? What do I think? Am I thinking with divine viewpoint or human viewpoint? Ask yourself these questions. This is what God evaluates.
2. The motive leads to the action or to the activity. That is where it comes from.
3. The activity or the action is just the outward manifestation of the thinking and motivation of a person. God weighs the motivation. You are what you think. What you think provides the motive for what you do. How could you have evil motives and not be aware of it. You need divine establishment standards from which to derive divine standards. Then you can only fall back on societal values. In the past, these values were good. Now they aren't. The hearing of these things is very seductive. People evaluate themselves through the evil scoffing character of others. The best of humanity is imperfect.
4. They are ignorant of the spiritual life and of divine wisdom. This is why they do not know that their motives are evil; they do not recognize them.
5. Their conscience is in a state of dormancy. A conscience works based on the norms and standards of the soul. If you have no standards, you cannot have a conscience based on those motives without thinking. You have an empty conscience which sucks in the thinking of society.

Worse, when you are aware of your lack of wisdom, they might cultivate it. The natural consequences of such motivation for the believer is always divine discipline.

The 3rd Way to Be Miserable Is Wrong Actions

1. Wrong actions are the culmination of wrong thinking and wrong motivation. That is when it becomes visible. You can hide it from a lot of people; but you cannot hide it from yourself. If you have Biblical standards, you can recognize it.
2. Wrong actions can be deliberate or impulsive. How do you break those down.
3. A deliberate action is a clear choice between right and wrong. You may know that an action is wrong and you say, "I don't care; I am going to do it anyway." We have all done it.
4. An impulsive action is spontaneous and impetuous.
5. When that happens, you circumvent motive and decisions, It still reflects your thinking and your motives just as well as the deliberate action does. You are what you think. Even impulsive action, you have nothing that deters it.
6. Impulsive actions generally fall back to prior thinking and motives. Thinking and motives which are related to various lusts, self-centeredness or approbation or self-gratification. Whether you carefully plot out your wrong action, or impulsively...

The 4th Way to Be Miserable Is the Make Wrong Decisions

1. Wrong decisions are inexorably linked to thinking, motives and actions.
2. A wrong decision is a part of the actions of a scoffer.
3. From thought and motivation comes an action that includes a decision; the decision comes in there as well.
4. Evil motives cause wrong actions; and hence, wrong decisions. We have all made wrong decisions in our lives. We are what we think. Arrogance, self-centeredness, mental attitude sins.

The book of Proverbs looks at good and bad decisions; good and bad motives. Wrong decisions reflect indifference. Good decisions reflect wisdom; wise thinking and motives. Bad decisions, bad motives bad actions.

Prov. 8:33 Hear instruction and be wise, and do not neglect it.

Heed it and be wise; do not neglect it. Hear it, think it, be motivated by it, and live it. To think with wisdom and right motives. The best experiences in life. That is the believer who finds favor and blessing with God.

Prov. 8:35 For whoever finds me finds life and obtains favor from the LORD,...

This person obtains grace from the Lord. You obtain wisdom and you are wise.

Prov. 3:34 Toward the scorners he is scornful, but to the humble he gives favor.

The other side tomorrow night.

Lesson #0053

Proverbs Wisdom in the OT

1/30/2020 Thursday

Bobby made a mistake last night. 610 will be closed at the Southwest Freeway.

1.5 verses to go before we leave this chapter.

There is a contrast for the believer, the one who is a scoffer and the one who lives by wisdom. His thoughts, motives, decisions are all guided by wisdom.

“Yet He gives grace to the afflicted,” which James quotes.

Prov. 3:34 Toward the scorners he is scornful, but to the humble he gives favor.

The contrast is, God scoffs at the scoffers, but He gives grace to the grace oriented.

The Object of the Verb...

1. It means grace, favor.
2. All divine blessing is given through the grace of God. When God's grace is involved, we do not earn it.
3. In this case, it is favor from God. That is distinct from the grace orientation of the believer displayed towards others and towards God.

The Thing about Grace Is...

1. No one, even the believer, deserves any favor from God.
2. God gives on the basis of His perfect character of love and grace. That is where blessing comes from.
3. He rejects the scoffers of v. 34a based upon His justice and righteousness.
4. It is through grace that God receives the glory from the bestowal of blessings. So many think that it is all about them. But God receives the glory.
5. Blessing from God is not about us or what we think or what we do, even though God takes into account our thinking, motives, our actions and our decisions.
6. The blessing glorifies God; where do our thoughts motives, decisions come from when they are blessed? They come from the grace of God; they come from the wisdom of God. We are blessed for utilizing God's wisdom.
7. The blessings demonstrate the value of the spiritual life. It is about what God gives us. The value of the spiritual life if manifested to the world. Our thoughts; we are what we think. Where does our thinking come from? From advancing to spiritual maturity. Our motives comes from what we think; and our actions are based upon our thinking and motives.

Anav means poor, afflicted; humble, weak.

Ānāv (אָנָוּ) [Pronounced Gaw-nawv]

1. Humble represents best the meaning here. It is an attitude of humility. That is how it is written and testified to in the New Testament.
2. Humility takes the self-centeredness out of the believer's life. The believer's life is the life of humility, which Bible doctrine brings about. It removes self-centeredness and arrogance from the believer's life. His motives and decisions and actions follow.
3. The humble believer is the grace oriented believer. Grace orientation is the center of the Christian life or of the spiritual life. That is where blessings come from which glorify God.
4. Humility is the attitude of the believer that reflects grace orientation. The only way to be grace oriented is to understand the thinking of God; and the wisdom that you apply is the wisdom of grace orientation.
5. The humble attitude of the grace oriented; the fear of the Lord. These are parallel concepts; or opposite sides of the same coin.
6. God gives grace to those who fear; those who respect or revere Him. That is what is found in the mature believer. What do you think about God?
7. Blessings are provided to those who use His wisdom. It is His wisdom provided for us by His grace. Otherwise, there is no blessing. All of us have a grace to live by. This special grace spoken of here. We may be called a supergrace believer, who lives the supergrace life. This is the description of the believer who follows Bible doctrine to the high ground of spiritual maturity.

Supergrace

Old concept Bob used to describe the advance to spiritual maturity.

1. Supergrace is the greater grace of James 4:6. We all have logistics; and we all have the grace that is available for us to live by.
2. Supergrace is the believer who wins tactical victories in the Angelic Conflict. Who takes the high ground in the Angelic Conflict. Tactical victory is living the mature spiritual life and foiling the plots and plans of the cosmic system.
3. The objective of the Christian life is to move to supergrace. Why?
4. This is the place of maximum utilization of grace orientation, whether in adversity or in prosperity.
5. This is the area of reaping the blessing that God sows. That is why it is to the glory of God. We reap what God sows in the supergrace life.
6. Supergrace is characterized by the temporal blessing of contentment in any and every situation. For example, sharing the happiness of God. Do not forget faith rest. Philip. 4:11–12 1Tim. 6:8–9
7. The spiritual blessings of supergrace have the capacity for life. Spiritual maturity.
8. The supergrace life is the road to glory for the believer, who has maximum doctrine in the soul. This fits with tactical victories in the Angelic Conflict.
9. The humility of supergrace in the believer causes him or her to demonstrate the correct motives, actions and decisions from the wisdom gained in the advance to spiritual maturity. We advance to spiritual maturity via the grace of God. We have the filling of the Holy Spirit and the understanding of Bible doctrine.

God Gives Supergrace to the Humble

1. This giving grace or supergrace represents God's actions toward the believer. The result of grace orientation is an attitude of humility.
2. This giving of grace is God acting to the believer and the believer's response towards God. The believer's response is grace orientation.
3. God gives grace to those who do not deserve it.
4. The believer who is growing to supergrace responds to grace orientation. Understanding and utilizing the grace that God gives. God gives us His wisdom; as we inculcate it, the more we become grace oriented. Instead of walking around with our chest stuck out. The believer in spiritual maturity, it is what God has done in us. We have only humility that God would deem to give us any blessing.
5. That causes humility. This is the thinking, motivation and actions of our supergrace spiritual life. He gives grace to humility which is in us. This is as we advance to maturity. James 4:10 Humble yourselves before the the Lord and He will exalt you. No one bring arrogance to the spiritual life. 1Peter 5:4 God is opposed to the arrogant but He gives grace to the Humble.

Prov. 3:34 Toward the scorers he is scornful, but to the humble he gives favor.

To the final verse. Wise vs. fools; honor vs. dishonor.

Prov. 3:35 The wise will inherit honor, but fools get disgrace.

We inherit something from God. The fools, in contrast, are the reversionists. They are anything but wise.

Who Are the Wise?

1. They are the righteous; the humble; the supergrace believers.
2. The righteous exhibit wisdom in their understanding, in their motivation, in their behavior, and in their decisions. They are the wise ones. Everything that they do and think; it all comes from applied wisdom.
3. Today, these are the believers who utilize and apply Bible doctrine. By doing so, inherit honor. The application of Bible doctrine is wisdom. In so doing, that believer inherits honor.
4. That is what comes from living the supergrace spiritual life. God always honors doctrine in the soul of believers. He honors those who are in association with those who are honorable believers; supergrace believers.

Now we are looking at the pivot of believers in a nation. These affect all of those who are around them. To inherit is the Hebrew verb nâchal (לָחַל) [pronounced naw-KHAHL]; this means to take possession of what is rightfully the legacy of the wise. Honor is the respect or high recognition given by God to the believer. That is the one who inherits honor. Honor is something that people do not seek these days. The word dishonorable is almost gone from our vocabulary. The things going on in high places are very dishonorable, even though we are to call them the honorable Congressman. The honor that we seek is the honor that we receive from the Lord. We gain this and to be called honorable.

This is the Hebrew noun kâbôwd (כָּבוֹד) [pronounced kaw<sup>b</sup>-VODE]; it means honor, glory. Companion words for the supergrace believer. Those who receive reward for divine good production in the supergrace life. We receive glory and honor based upon our advance in the supergrace life. But this honor is dependent entirely upon the grace of God. It is bestowed upon those who are grace oriented.

The greatest grace that we have is the ability to apply wisdom to our own lives. There is the eternal glory of rewards that are given at the Bema Seat of Christ. Are you a fool or are you wise? What an embarrassment it would be to be a fool. We can have glory for eternity. Crowns are very much related to glory. That is what we are looking at in eternity. That is the final inheritance. The divine good production of the supergrace life. There is also the antithesis, the believers who display the dishonor. The fool has no wisdom; no honor or wisdom. The fool has no wisdom. He thinks with human viewpoint. His motives are based upon self-centeredness. His actions reveal dishonor. The fool's life, no matter its course, even when prosperous, is a life that goes nowhere. Ignominy; the rewards dispensed from the Judgment Seat of Christ. In eternity, what are a few years of dishonor in this life, when that will be reflected in eternity.

Solomon is telling us, wise or fool, honor is dishonor.

The Portion of the Fool

1. Dishonor is the portion of the fool.
2. They are the ones who are not wise enough even to see their own dishonor. They are utterly blinded by the cosmic system. They are so power mad that honor is gaining power no matter how they do it. They revel in their dishonor.
3. The dishonorable do not understand their obligation to the Lord. That is the believer who is dishonorable. They take this frivolously; they have no grace orientation and no wisdom. They are the fools.
4. Therefore, they move through life without a hint of glory. They do not glorify God on this earth, but they do look for promotion and glory in human matters. That is fleeting, at best, in this life. We saw Patton; and he said, "All glory is fleeting." One day you have it; and the next day, you are done.
5. Any human glory that they receive comes to a screeching halt at their departure from this life. There is no glory in the grave. They may have a flame burning or a statue made; but they are in the dirt.
6. Without glory or wisdom, priorities are wrong. We have to live our life in the life of eternity. The dishonor that we have here is human good. The best of human good are dishonorable. Only divine good production is honorable. Do not get arrogant about it. It is not eternal honor.

7. Those who place time ahead of eternity will pay the price for their negligence at the Bema Seat of Christ.

What a motivation to inherit honor and glory in this life as well as in eternity. Their pagentry will be their contempt. Shame and ignominy at the Bema Seat of Christ. What did you do with this great spiritual life. Did you squander it? Did you utilize the time and wisdom available to you? As goes our honor on earth, so our glorious destiny will be recognized in heaven.

David taught Solomon all of these things in Prov. 3, and Solomon lived in honor of God and His wisdom is recorded. Solomon taught Rehoboam but it did not take.

Lesson #0054

Proverbs Wisdom in the OT

2/2/2020 1Sunday

Bobby took comparative religions in college; and the professor came to that course with the belief that all religions were a pathway to God; or perhaps he was an atheist. He never understood and never taught the grace of God. Religion depends upon man's work to reach God; grace is God's work to reach man. We can go through life with grudges, anger, and we might think that God is exactly like this; but God provides a simple way to be cleansed. This is the grace of God to live the Christian life.

We will complete Prov. 3 this morning.

Prov. 3:35 The wise will inherit honor, but fools get disgrace.

Every month or two, we move to a different chapter. This final verse sums up the series of antithetical parallels of vv. 32–34. The cursing and the blessing of God; and why these things occurs. God curses the fool; and He blesses the wise.

It is obvious that honor is important to God. Today it is a relative thing; or it is set aside. And for many, it is relative. Whatever I do is honorable. Fools display dishonor; the act dishonorably. They think, they are motivated and they act dishonorably. The wise corresponds here to 3 nouns, which defines wise for us. The wise are the upright, the righteous, and the humble (vv. 32–34). These 3 types make decisions and act with wisdom; they all belong to the wise group.

In v. 35, we have the antithesis of the wise, the fools. 3 nouns: the perverse (Rom. 1), the wicked (a general term for those who sin) and the scoffers who God scoffs. You scoff at the words of God; or the believer rejects Bible doctrine for other pursuits. The antithetical parallelism is present in these 3 verses. The wise vs. the fools in v. 35.

Of all these things, David taught his son Solomon. He taught Solomon the difference between these groups. Solomon lived in honor of God and His wisdom.

There was a very rocky road of wisdom for Solomon; and so he wrote some books, like Ecclesiastes.

Rehoboam was a character, who did not heed the wise advice of his father. He was a fool who inherited dishonor. 1Kings 12 is about him. Rehoboam represents what happens to a person and to a nation which dishonors their Lord.

During his reign, the unified kingdom of Israel was split between Rehoboam and Jeroboam, into a northern and a southern kingdom. 1Kings 11–12. What happened to Rehoboam that this all happened, having had the wise Solomon as his father and the great king David as his grandfather. What happened to him? This is an illustration of the fool versus the wise.

The people of Israel came to Rehoboam, and they had a strong request. Solomon did a lot of building, particularly the Temple, and there were many taxes levied in order to pay for these things. Rehoboam responded to his people with a threat. Higher taxes under Rehoboam and threatened us today.

1Kings 12:10 And the young men who had grown up with him said to him, "Thus shall you speak to this people who said to you, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but you lighten it for us,' thus shall you say to them, 'My little finger is thicker than my father's thighs.

To which Rehoboam responded with:

1Kings 12:14 he spoke to them according to the counsel of the young men, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke. My father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions."

1Kings 12:15 So the king did not listen to the people, for it was a turn of affairs brought about by the LORD that he might fulfill his word, which the LORD spoke by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

David was from Judah; and Ephraim was the dominant tribe up north, and they had provided Israel with Joshua.

David moved the capitol.

Foolish man and foolish people.

Another man arose up in the north, Jeroboam.

South was 2 tribes and north had 2 tribes. Idolatry became commonplace of both tribes.

Those in the northern kingdom did not want to travel all the way to Jerusalem to worship God; and Rehoboam used this as a ploy, to favor himself over the southern kingdom.

Jeroboam set up his own altars in the north; a calf system of sacrifices. He suggested that they worship Y<sup>e</sup>howah through the calf. The calf was the door to worshiping God. The northern kingdom became the worst of idol worshipers. They were wide open to this worship because they were influenced by being married to idolaters from surrounding countries. This affected the people of Israel quite negatively.

All of this was done by Jeroboam for his own purposes.

What is a short time of power in this world for eternal impact.

a power-politic battle going on today. There is no honor and there is no wisdom today; which is why people seek power as they do.

The laws of evidence are not in view. There is nothing new under the sun, as Solomon wrote some 30-odd times in the book of Ecclesiastes.

We are divided and fragmented today for many reasons. We are divided by gender, by race, by politics, by hate; we are rejecting divine establishment. Christians are rejecting the wisdom of Bible doctrine.

This kind of approach brings with it the certainty of God's judgment. So judgment is announced against Jeroboam.

This warning is found in 1Kings 14.

In 721 B.C., the Assyrians fulfilled with prophecy, and the northern kingdom was never reconstituted after this.

Rehoboam, the king of the south, also played the fool of dishonor. There was little difference between the two kingdoms.

There is gross immorality, with male cult prostitutes, who were actually in the Temple. Egypt then invaded. 1Kings 14 the Temple is ransacked of its gold; and civil war persisted between the northern and southern kingdoms. Had there been any wisdom, they did not band together; they tried to use this disaster in order to gain political advantage over the other kingdom. Fools display dishonor.

Our client nation is in the balance at this point. We are in the midst of idolatry and socialism today. Extreme actions of immorality found in Rom. 1. That is perversion.

There is the political threat of higher taxes, Christian persecution, which is getting worse by the day. They are all very real and happening at this moment. All of these things destroyed Israel at that time.

Any client nation that is so disposed will be destroyed. On the flip side, the wise will inherit honor.

Prov. 3:35 The wise will inherit honor, but fools get disgrace.

Wisdom is the hope of any nation. One person of wisdom saves a city. How many does it take to save a nation? Are there believers growing spiritually who can save this nation? There was not one in Israel.

How pertinent is this to our own nation? Very.

Where are we going now?

Psalm 7 is the pleading of an innocent man; and an objective judge is listening to the case. The outcome will be obvious. The journey is what we learn from this. This is a cry by David for justice, a cry that we hear in our own nation.

Justice is a rare thing in our world. People are used constantly as the pawns of justice and it never happens.

God is the true Judge here, and His judgment is true. The integrity of God is explored in a book by the same name. Probably the most complex of the books in the library.

David's cry is to God, the ultimate Judge. David's knows God's Word; and he knows that he prays to a just God. Is that presumptuous to pray to a just God. This is the prayer that we can come boldly to God with.

Remember that God is a just God; and God knows all of the facts. God will judge according to all of these facts. His judgments are just. His justice is tempered by His love for believers. David knows that God has a plan for his life.

God can do nothing less than to be righteous and just. David's enemy has plotted incessantly to take his life. This is a situation of life or death. The powers that be have labeled David as a traitor. David knows that only God can vindicate him.

This psalm is a declaration of trust in the one and true judge. This psalm feels like a trumpet of righteous judgment, in the face of injustice.

Psalm 7 Wisdom in the OT

2/2/2020 2Sunday

True justice, not social justice. We are talking about the justice of God. The One who delivers justly and curses justly. A God Who can make no mistakes in judgment.

God's justice affects us. 3 which relate directly to us. The love of God, which is directed towards us in the provision of the Savior. There is also righteousness and justice. Righteousness is God's perfect standard. When we are believers in Jesus Christ, we are justified. We receive the justice of God; and we are acceptable to the Lord's justice. What His justice condemns, His righteousness will not abide.

We must content with the justice of God when we are not out of line. The justice of God is always there. There is a great comfort. There is someone in this world, who can justify us no matter.

David relies upon the just and justifier. Most of us have faced injustice in our lives many times. This is a desperate moment in David's life. It has special information for us. This is personal and national crisis. What seems great and justice to us personally and to our nation as a whole. History is rife with the justice of God. If you know anything about the history of Israel. Rehoboam and Jeroboam were two of the worst kings Israel ever had. They turned a client nation into evil. It does not take long. It just take bad leadership, political power grabs, wickedness, perversity.

Bobby has been a witness to the many personal attacks in the past on his father as pastor of Berachah. Some people did not like him personally; some even hated him for a number of reasons. Amazingly, some of them for his teaching of the truth of Bible doctrine. Some did not like his opinionated personality. All that you need to know. It is even available by podcast today.

There is jealousy; others knew that members of their congregation listened to him on the sly. He was not liked.

David had a similar strong personality, and this rubbed many people the wrong way. Many times Bob was unjustly accused. One of them was, this was full of vodka (the water). Some did not like his teaching, but they did not know what he taught. Many disliked him and never knew anything that Bob said. Every professor in Oregon knew him and asked Bobby if they were related. There was a mission sermon in our missionary week. Bobby liked going to chapel. He began to speak and it was clear that he was speaking about his father. Bobby kept a straight face. When Bobby got to class, and he worked for Brashear grading papers. That man came to respect Bobby's father. "Stand up and tell the class why he was wrong," the teacher said, right after this chapel thing. One guy raised his hand, and said, "I know him from my church in Ohio, and he has never heard a thing that Thieme taught." Sometimes, they know too much about him. This should make us evaluate ourselves. If someone says something critical about you, pay attention, it might be true. Or some simply say what they see in you. If there is truth there, then use it. Apply it to your own life.

Psalm 7 has a message for you; a psalm of injustice. For any time of injustice. Complaints, injustice, rivalries. Or any opposition coming from mental attitude sins. The inevitable conflicts of life. Life's unfairness, persecutions.

Psalm 7:0 A Shiggaion of David, which he sang to the LORD concerning the words of Cush, a Benjaminite,

According to the title, this psalm was occasioned by the accusations of Cush, a Benjamite. Thus David sings a Shigaaion. The title tells us something about the circumstances of the writing of this psalm. There is some obscurity here. There is no direct mention anywhere of the exact situation of this psalm anywhere else. So we must make some suppositions.

What is a Shiggaion and who is Cush? His identify is unknown and he appears nowhere else. Usually, this is a word for Ethiopia; but he is not Ethiopian, he is from a tribe of Benjamin. King Saul was the leader of the tribe of Benjamin during this time. There was a jealousy which developed in Saul and in his soul. David is a much greater warrior than Saul. Saul tried to kill him once by throwing a spear at him.

Some think that Cush is a code name for Saul. Some may think that David used Cush as a codename for Saul.

1Sam. 24:6 David could have killed Saul, but he did not.

Someone else is possibly involve, Cush. There would have been a wider antagonism against David, centered in the tribe of Benjamin. 1Sam. 16 or something like that, is friction between David and that tribe.

What about Cush

1. It is most likely that Cush is a man from Saul's tribe.
2. He took a very active part in Saul's antagonism towards David; a surrogate, possibly.
3. What is clear, Cush spoke words that are bitter and unscrupulous. He was conspicuous among David's detractors. Saul listened to his son, and his son loved David.
4. Cush spoke words of injustice to Saul; he made up things about David. Saul wanted to hear and believe these things.
5. In the psalm, we heard Cush's words, and those words kindled indignation in David's soul. David had some reaction to what was going on. The prayer was a response. David was human and he had a temper. He made some mistakes, some very big ones. David was a man after God's Own heart. When it came right down to it, David relied upon the Lord.
6. David wanted retribution; that is clear. But he wanted this in the form of justice from God. David uses avenge, but he uses this word as justice.
7. David wanted vindication and not revenge. That is what we should be looking for. That is exactly what we should want for ourselves. We want to be vindicated. Even if we are not immediately vindicated, God's justice still works and no one gets away with anything under God's justice. The worst of people do not get away with anything. Those who are evil do not get away with anything. God turns it back on their own head. They are the product of their own decisions and their own evil. Sometimes God takes direct action, and that is what David is calling for.
8. That led David to write this psalm in order to refute the charges against him. David had been anointed the next king by God and by Samuel. David's reputation was important. Reputation was important and his rep was important to him. He asked God for God's unerring justice. At this particular point, David spared Saul's life. He depends upon God, and not upon himself, to escape danger. He depends upon the justice of God. He could have killed Saul right here.

1Sam. 24:9 –15 And David said to Saul, "Why do you listen to the words of men who say, 'Behold, David seeks your harm'? Behold, this day your eyes have seen how the LORD gave you today into my hand in the cave. And some told me to kill you, but I spared you.

I said, 'I will not put out my hand against my lord, for he is the LORD's anointed.' See, my father, see the corner of your robe in my hand. For by the fact that I cut off the corner of your robe and did not kill you, you may know and see that there is no wrong or treason in my hands. I have not sinned against you, though you hunt my life to take it. May the LORD judge between me and you, may the LORD avenge me against you, but my hand shall not be against you. As the proverb of the ancients says, 'Out of the wicked comes wickedness.' But my hand shall not be against you. After whom has the king of Israel come out? After whom do you pursue? After a dead dog! After a flea! May the LORD therefore be judge and give sentence between me and you, and see to it and plead my cause and deliver me from your hand." David could have avenged himself right there and removed Saul as a problem, but he did not. Maybe it was Cush who spoke false words into Saul's ear. Rom. 12:19

Saul knew that David was in line for the throne and that he was a better man; and Saul wanted to remove David by any means necessary. People urged Saul to kill David. Had Saul killed David, there would be no Messiah in the line of David. God had promised the Savior through the line of David. David had to be preserved.

Saul wanted to kill David; but the plan of God rationale. God has a plan for me. It is not to die in this cave and die. David did take some matters into his own hand and he could have killed Saul. But had he done that, he would have had problems with the tribe of Saul after that.

Because of this, there was no reason for Saul to chase David; he knew that David would not harm him. David further states that he would not take Saul's life, even though Saul was being unjust. It is a great temptation to remove people who you do not agree with. Atheism today wants to be rid of Christianity today from every public venue. There is still nothing new under the sun. This whole thing could go south in USA in a hurry; and this is happening in many places throughout the world.

Bobby wants us to realize where our strength lies. We have the greatest power that is known. Governments cannot stand against the justice of God. Christianity, the Word of God, will march on. We are either a part of that or we are not. We must learn to rely upon the justice of God, just as David did. David stated that he would not take Saul's life, with the total understanding of his own innocence and his own understanding.

1Sam. 24:16–21 As soon as David had finished speaking these words to Saul, Saul said, "Is this your voice, my son David?" And Saul lifted up his voice and wept. He said to David, "You are more righteous than I, for you have repaid me good, whereas I have repaid you evil. And you have declared this day how you have dealt well with me, in that you did not kill me when the LORD put me into your hands. For if a man finds his enemy, will he let him go away safe? So may the LORD reward you with good for what you have done to me this day. And now, behold, I know that you shall surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in your hand. Swear to me therefore by the LORD that you will not cut off my offspring after me, and that you will not destroy my name out of my father's house."

We must look to a circumstance like this to understand the lament that we are studying. The title is obscure and discussed.

Psalm 7:0 A Shiggaion of David, which he sang to the LORD concerning the words of Cush, a Benjaminite,

Lesson #0056

Psalm 7 Wisdom in the OT

2/5/2020 Wednesday

Night after the excellent state of the union speech. We are hopelessly divided. Bobby would have been encouraged and discouraged from last night. Encouraged by what we heard; discouraged by what we saw. But we are not to be discouraged at all. We have the solution in our own souls.

David writes an introduction to his lament. This consists of two parts. An expression of confidence in God and a prayer for deliverance from his enemies. It is the enemy who is pursuing David.

Psalm 7:0 A Shiggaion of David, which he sang to the LORD concerning the words of Cush, a Benjaminite,

David is lamenting about Cush, the one mentioned here. This is a rather obscure person and he is only named here in this one chapter. This person is best understood to come from the tribe of Benjamin, which is also the tribe of King Saul. Saul came to hate David, despite David being so loyal. Saul suffered from jealousy; and he would listen to anyone saying anything negative about David.

Anyone who is negative towards someone else, there are people who wanted to hear it. It agreed with Saul's hatred of David. Saul was a king, and he could kill David; but he needed to have a rationalization. This is something that we see every day, whether justified or not.

Cush was very likely a voice to speak against Saul. Maybe Bobby meant Cush spoke against David.

David speaks of his own innocence and he calls to the Lord to stand with him.

Shiggaion is quite obscure. It could be simply an ode of poetry. It has a very irregular rhythm to it. This probably means a wandering error. This is a psalm of wandering, error, sin and redemption. It is a description of the subject of Psalm 7.

Psalm 7:1 O LORD my God, in You do I take refuge; save me from all my pursuers and deliver me,...

Psalm 7:2 ...lest like a lion they tear my soul apart, rending it in pieces, with none to deliver.

David says that the only One to deliver him would be God in this situation. We have been in so many difficult situations. David is not only in danger, but this is a real life situation.

There is only One Who can truly deliver. We will go when our time is up. David knows that God's plan for him has not yet been fulfilled, so God must deliver him.

God is the One in Whom David trusts. Nevertheless, he believes himself to be in particularly difficult situation. All of the songs were used in the Temple. They were all poetic songs; Hebrew parallelism. They were used for worship. But this is more than just theoretical worship. But this psalm recognizes God as our help in need. David wrote many of these psalms and they were a part of his worship.

This psalm may be used in worship, but when David wrote it, it was a real-time situation where David faced a deadly enemy.

David is seeking refuge and he is looking for a shelter.

David Knows....

1. If God does not intervene, then he will be torn to pieces.
2. He also knows that God does not forsake those who make Him their refuge. That is not a fortress that can be torn down. No siege can tear down what protection God has provided.
3. David throws himself on the mercy of God. There is no place else for him to go; which is always the case. Our first line of defense and our last line of defense is the Lord.
4. How do we do this? David is hiding out in the Lord. That is the true use of faith rest. That is how we take refuge. We take refuge in the one we know. We have confidence in Him and in what God promises.

There is a plural in v. 1 and a singular in v. 2. This shift could indicate several things. This could be that one enemy is prominent in a group of them. The could be a reference to the cave of Enghedi. Or, this could indicate that the singular represents many, as a singular enemy (like one entire tribe).

Shimei later hated David. There is some uncertainty in the cast of characters that we have here. No matter who the enemy is, how vindictive and ferocious that he is, David still puts his faith in the Lord. David thus begins his brief appeal, his affirmation in the Lord.

Psalm 7:1 O LORD my God, in You do I take refuge; save me from all my pursuers and deliver me,...

David's Relationship with God

1. David's only place to go is God.
2. David says, O Lord, my God. That is a relational phrase. This is the God that David knows. He knows God will deliver him.
3. He can say, "If the Lord be for me, who can be against me?"

4. This is why David addresses his supplications only to the Lord. This does not mean that David lacks relationships in life; just that this one with God is the most. When it hits the fan, do you trust the Lord? In the next crisis, did you call all of your friends, did you whine, did you complain? David sent up a plea to God. Our personal relationship and our confidence in Him is the foundation of the faith rest life and the faith rest drill. How can we claim and believe a promise of His Word if we have no confidence in Him? David had confidence because he knew the Lord.

God is the rock of our refuge.

David is not calling upon another person. He is not calling on a bodyguard, his army, his friends or family; David is alone at this time. This is the state of all of us when in crisis. At the end of the day, we must resolve our own crisis. Who makes the decision when all is said and done? Where is your confidence, apart from whatever advice you have looked for.

We resolve all adversity and all crises in our own soul. It is the basis for our relationship with the Lord. That is what David is saying right here. "Someone is looking to kill me right here."

David is on death row here and he is appealing to the Supreme Court of Heaven. He is asking for the advent of a Deliverer Who will provide a reprieve.

David's History with God

1. This prayer is based upon a history of David's relationship with the Lord. There is history here. Bobby enjoyed dinner with a friend that he has known for 50 years. We have a history. There is a relationship and a history with that person. "In the end, we were like-minded, and the relationship is based upon the fact that we were like-minded. We had things in common based upon the things in our souls."
2. That means that this is not the first time that David has gone to the Lord for help; and this won't be the last time.
3. Since David has done this so many times before, he is confident that the Lord can do.
4. That is what is interesting about long-term relationships, where you can look back on all the interaction and you can also see the end-game; so that you appreciate God. That builds confidence.
5. David is adept at calling on the Lord from a position of strength, even in a condition of weakness or difficulty. David has become adept at calling on the Lord in faith rest. This he does even if his position is weak.
6. David has practice in this; and he knows that it works. He has developed spiritual muscle memory. We use it again and again; and we develop confidence. We know that when we put our trust in God, we can always hit it down the fairway.

David has used faith rest in many different circumstances.

Psalm 3:6 I will not be afraid of many thousands of people who have set themselves against me all around. David is surrounded by enemies and people who hate him. In this case, people who want to kill David. That is quite a statement. Of course there is some fear, but not a paralyzing fear.

Psalm 3:7 Arise, O LORD! Save me, O my God! For you strike all my enemies on the cheek; you break the teeth of the wicked.

Psalm 18:48 ...Who delivered me from my enemies; yes, You exalted me above those who rose against me; you rescued me from the man of violence.

This is a statement of fact in David's mind.

The lion-man is very well known to David. He knows what lions are like.

Psalm 7:2 ...lest like a lion they tear my soul apart, rending it in pieces, with none to deliver.

1Sam. 17:34–35 But David said to Saul, "Your servant used to keep sheep for his father. And when there came a lion, or a bear, and took a lamb from the flock, I went after him and struck him and delivered it out of his mouth. And if he arose against me, I caught him by his beard and struck him and killed him.

David was not a fearful man. If you go on safari, you carry a heavy rifle. And there is a backup. David had much less by way of human weaponry; but he was saved by God.

1Sam. 17:37 And David said, "The LORD who delivered me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear will deliver me from the hand of this Philistine." And Saul said to David, "Go, and the LORD be with you!"

David knows that it is God Who delivered him. He depended upon God in both circumstances. So, when David went out against Goliath, he used the very same faith rest drill.

David Applies Bible Doctrine to this Circumstance

This was not a brag ceremony.

1. David knew from experience from whence his deliverance came. In the next crisis, he was ready for it.
2. When he called on the Lord against Goliath for deliverance, it was no different than the deliverance from the lion and bear. God could handle all of them.
3. Now it was no different with Cush or with Saul.
4. David was confident because he knew and had seen what the Lord could do. He looks back on events and he sees the outcome. It is truly what David is doing here. He looks back on his life, the times when God delivered him; and so, he depends upon it.
5. David was well practiced in the faith rest drill. He knew its effectiveness.

6. David has spiritual strength in the midst of physical weakness. There is no way that David could go hand-in-hand against a lion, a bear or Goliath. But David had God and David had confidence in God. If God has delivered us in the past, how can we not trust Him to do that in some future adversity. We trust because we can be filled with the Spirit or we can use the faith rest drill. This requires practice. This is not that sudden cry, "O God, help me!"

Without that confidence, claiming promises is ineffective. David uses the parallel lion metaphor. David beat down a real lion before; so he can stand against this new problem, with God. A relaxed mental attitude in the face of death.

Isn't this what we want in life? To be able to apply what we have learned of God. We are in His hands; and the great thing is,

A man was getting old and he was afraid of it. "To live is Christ and to die is profit." Whether we live or die, we have confidence in God. If it is our time to go, then no one can stop that.

Why should we ever have any doubt? This is a picture of an exercise in faith rest. Tell me how your circumstances are worse than this.

Psalm 27:3 Though an army encamp against me, my heart shall not fear; though war arise against me, yet I will be confident.

David's confidence is in God, even in war. Even when there is an army encamped against him.

David's Application of Psalm 27:3

1. David knows that God has a plan for him. He knows how to relax under pressure. When David was anointed by Samuel, David knew that this plan had a future.
2. If God's plan is in operation, then what can anyone else do to thwart it. Not even any army lined up to do David harm could stop him.
3. As this nation becomes more violent, more irrational, easily duped by false rhetoric and as tyranny and persecution are on the rise, we have confidence, no matter what.
4. Whatever happens in the future, apply Psalm 27:3.
5. Confidence comes in the care and keeping of the plan of God.

This is not a new thought for David. But there is an urgency here for him. David is doing what is necessary. He implores God to do something now.

Bobby thinks he knows everything about faith rest; and then comes across a passage like this.

Psalm 7:2 ...lest like a lion they tear my soul apart, rending it in pieces, with none to deliver.

David opens his prayer, expressing confidence in the Lord.

Psalm 7:1 O LORD my God, in You do I take refuge; save me from all my pursuers and deliver me,...

David repeats this vocative in this psalm.

Psalm 7:2 ...lest like a lion they tear my soul apart, rending it in pieces, with none to deliver.

David outfought a lion; and he made it clear that God allowed him to defeat a lion. There is no one else to save that lamb apart from me, David realizes.

David implores God to do something and to do it now. David is not the one to decide when is the right time. David asks for it, but he has no control for when it happens and how it happens. What he says is very critical. He does not when and how God will step in, so David must have faith and patience. We must defer to God's timing and methods.

We never know exactly what God's purpose is when we are in adversity. God is involved in every aspect of our lives. If we are out of fellowship and needing divine discipline, then God may be right there dealing with us.

David has no control over this situation. David is following the pattern that he developed in his days of shepherding. In all of the wars that David fought, he called upon the Lord.

David had many talents; he was a poet laureate and a musician and he could write music.

Psalm 94:22 But the LORD has become my stronghold, and my God the rock of my refuge.

Bobby has been in a few synagogues. There is a cantor who is a half-chanter, half singing. It is incredible to hear this psalm done by a cantor.

Psalm 94:23 He will bring back on them their iniquity and wipe them out for their wickedness; the LORD our God will wipe them out.

These are words that would give us faith rest rationale. Were we upset, scared, etc. If you understand divine establishment, you understood who the good guys were and the bad guys; and you saw God bring wickedness down upon their heads. That is what happened this past week in Washington.

They would be destroyed in their own evil; here in the psalm and in our recent impeachment history in America's recent history.

People will get what they deserve. Evil gets what it deserves, one way or the other. You cannot look inside the soul of the evil person; but there is turmoil, unhappiness, confusion; this is their own evil coming back upon them. Evil will not come back upon you. The scoffers are scoffed by God. God is never mocked. There is always a price to pay for those who choose the evil path.

We do not have to get out there and repay those who are evil. We do not have to get revenge. That is a never-ending cycle of misery. Just look at the Middle East. It is an endless cycle of revenge and retribution. We have such a desire to go after those who are evil; but we can do nothing like what God can do. Let Him do it. Even when the evil think they are getting away with something. When they sow evil, they get evil returns. No one gets away with anything. Especially when they defy the Living God. David took the defiance of the Living God very seriously.

David had no fear of Goliath. "I killed a lion, I killed a bear; and I will kill this uncircumcised Philistine...Since he has taunted the armies of the Living God."

David failed on several occasions. But he did lean on his own ability to rescue himself. It was his inclination to fight his way through it. David was still a man after God's Own heart. Failure does not mean that it is over for you. He recovered through rebound.

Psalms 51:1–4 is the Old Testament statement of rebound by David. David knew and utilized the faith rest drill. This was the spiritual life of the Old Testament. He had the indument of the Holy Spirit, but the average believer did not.

David is asked to be plucked or snatched out of danger. David is in need of God's quick attention. David is asking for a prisoner snatch. He is not a king at this time; he is just a believer in dire straits.

How would God bring about this rescue against such overwhelming odds? Odds mean nothing to God.

God Dealing with the Evil

1. God will give David's enemy over to the consequences of his own evil and violent actions.
2. This is the beauty of waiting on the Lord's deliverance in times of trouble. The consequences in their evil is on them. That is so obvious when you wait on the Lord's deliverance and you see it work. You may not even understand how the Lord works, but you know that He will.
3. God deals with evil so much better than anyone else can. Christian activists lose sight of what they should just let God take care of it. You can be involved in trying to change society and miss your spiritual life entirely.
4. The spiritual life and all solutions lay in God's perfect justice.
5. God's perfect justice always turns evil back on itself. We do not have to bring about the defeat of evil. We stand against it and we repudiate it. But we do not have to defeat it. We defeat the cosmic system in our own way. This is plenty of evil out there; but it is not up to us to march against it. The cosmic system is alive and well. The true wisdom is the Rock.

6. However, you will not see the deliverance unless you are looking through the lens of a relaxed mental attitude. You had better use faith rest. You had better be able to use the faith rest drill. David is so well-aware of these facts from his own experiences. Continued use of the faith rest drill makes the believer more and more able to apply faith rest. The more you use it the easier and more effective that it becomes. He uses it even in his failures.

This prayer is one for all of us; and we always need to rely on the Lord. David wrote this in...

Psalm 56:3 When I am afraid, I put my trust in you.

This is the plan of God rationale. We just stay in fellowship and apply this.

Don't say, I am never afraid. This is David, who is quite brave; and he admits to fear. We are always afraid and concerned and uneasy or uptight. This does not mean that you will never have problems; this is just how you handle them. This is us just using the faith rest drill. David names the solution which is for all of us to use.

Who else is reliable and never fails? Only God.

Psalm 56:4 In God, whose word I praise, in God I trust; I shall not be afraid. What can flesh do to me?

We see the reason in v. 3 for the reason of David's concern. There are false accusations being made about him.

Psalm 7:3 O LORD my God, if I have done this, if there is wrong in my hands,...

A relational address. Whatever David did or did not do; he is being accused of this by Saul (or by whomever). David proves that he could be trusted at the cave of Engedi.

"My hand will not be against you," meaning Saul.

A lie told enough could be the undoing of David. The country knows that David will be the next king, but he is being accused of treachery and disloyalty.

Again, there is application to us. When someone does not like us or they hate us; and they make untrue and unjust charges against us. Such lies are designed to injure, to ruin reputations or to defeat a rival. Some of the most difficult situations involve such sins against you. And there is nothing that you can say or do to fix this. You can retaliate with your own rumors and lies, but that is returning evil for evil.

David Appeals to God for Vindication

1. This is why David appeals to God alone for vindication and for protection against false allegations. We have seen vindication and protection against false allegations in our own Senate or House. Don't you realize the Lord was involved in that?
2. God is the One Who truly vindicates.
3. God is the One Who can discredit the discreditors.
4. David so states to Saul in 1Sam. 24:15 and Saul has spread all kinds of lies. Cush is the enemy here. But God can discredit the discreditors.
5. Those who have slandered and spread lies will have this turned back on their own heads.
6. David cut off a piece of Saul's robe and then he pointed this out to Saul. He says, "May the Lord deal with the fallout between us and may He vindicate me by delivering me from your hand."

More Vindication

1. David never mentions the specific charges against him. He knows that God will vindicate him.
2. The real issue of vindication is not clearing his own name. People spend millions of dollars and thousands of dollars in court getting their reputation back or smearing someone else.
3. The issue is relying on the Lord to obey His promises.
4. If God delivers David, then he has been vindicated.
5. In effect, David also says, "If you kill me, it is in God's plan." David knows that God will remove him when it is the right time for him to go. But not one second before.
6. If David survives, God still has a plan for David's life. God will judge between David and anyone else.
7. Hence, by living through this situation, David is vindicated and this is all that he needs. What a beautiful statement.
8. The vindication is the continuance of God's plan for David's life; and the same thing is true of us. It is not about David crushing his enemy. He could have killed Saul. He lets God sort it all out.
9. Vindication is used by God, to reveal true justice where there is no justice. Saul was not a just king.
10. Vindication is used to reveal the integrity of an individual.
11. Integrity is restored; that is God's work.
12. There is a good side of this as well. God uses vindication to cause stability... It is a part of God's grace plan. The vindication means...

You are not promoted unless God promotes you. That is your vindication.

David's Vindication by God

1. David was vindicated many times by God simply by surviving the circumstances.

2. David was not always innocent like he is here in Psalm 7. David was vindicated even when he was not innocent.
3. There was not excuse for killing Uriah; but God still had a plan for David regardless. Failure does not end God's plan for you.
4. God defeated David's enemies, not necessarily because David was so just, but so that God's plan could continue for him.
5. David is in the line of the Messiah. So we need a line from David to Jesus.
6. That was David's understanding; his vindication as he applied the plan of God rationale.

David sinned; he made many mistakes. But God reiterated. God never removed David from being king as He did to Saul. This reminds all Israel that David is God's man. David is God's choice to be king.

God trusted in the Lord for vindication; and he was vindicated for the rest of his life.

Psalm 7:3 O LORD my God, if I have done this, if there is wrong in my hands,...

Lesson #0058

Psalm 7 Wisdom in the OT

2/9/2020 1Sunday

Eucharist February 9, 2020

Psalm 16:8 I have set the LORD always before me; because He is at my right hand, I shall not be shaken.

According to the Apostle Peter, Acts 2:25–28 For David says concerning him, "I saw the Lord always before me, for he is at my right hand that I may not be shaken; therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced; my flesh also will dwell in hope. For you will not abandon my soul to Hades, or let your Holy One see corruption. You have made known to me the paths of life; you will make me full of gladness with your presence."

So David could say with confidence, O Lord My God, save me... Psalm 7:1–2 O LORD my God, in you do I take refuge; save me from all my pursuers and deliver me, lest like a lion they tear my soul apart, rending it in pieces, with none to deliver.

David always kept his eyes on a vision of God the Father; and he was continually conscious of his nearness throughout his life. This reality enabled Jesus to face the cross, with its sufferings and woes, and say, "I shall not be shaken."

Instead of focusing on the messianic passage, we will look at the historical context. David is a man standing on a mountain looking through a prophetic telescope. David stands out as one of the most prominent personalities. He has played an important part in the plan of God and his name is great in history, poetry, and prophecy. David is definitely linked in the past, and vitally related to the future of Jesus Christ.

The Holy Spirit emphasizes 3 things relative to David. He is related to the Messiah in his humanity. Jesus is the Son and Seed of David. Matt. 1:1 illustrates this: The book of the genealogy of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

The introduction to the book of Romans; Rom. 1:3 ...concerning his Son, who was descended from David according to the flesh ...

Rev. 22:16 "I, Jesus, have sent my angel to testify to you about these things for the churches. I am the root and the descendant of David, the bright morning star."

This is a fine ending to the book.

There is the royal covenant which God made with David.

Luke 1:30–33 describes an angel appearing to Mary. And the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. And behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus. He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. And the Lord God will give to him the throne of his father David, and he will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end."

There is also David as a prophet. By the mouth of David concerning Judas. 1000 years before Jesus Christ, David had a clear perspective of the Messiah. These prophetic facts were always on the thinking of David.

Psalm 69

The gospels cover the birth of the Lord Jesus Christ; and then they go silent. The next time that Jesus appears in the gospel is at the age of 12 years, speaking in the Temple. Then He appears again at age 30, appearing before John the Baptizer.

What about those silent 18 years? There is a vast amount of speculation, all of which is fictitious. We all wonder what Jesus was like as a boy of 16 or 18 or 21.

David foresaw Jesus in those years as a despised and hated brother. Similar to Isa. 53. Psalm 69: :7 For it is for your sake that I have borne reproach, that dishonor has covered my face.

Psalm 69:8 I have become a stranger to my brothers, an alien to my mother's sons.

Psalm 69:9 For zeal for your house has consumed me, and the reproaches of those who reproach you have fallen on me.

Is this not the carpenter's Son? Are His brothers and mother not with us?

John 7:5 tells us that they did not believe in Him until the resurrection. They saw those 18 years, His brilliance, His sinlessness, His integrity. They poked fun at Him instead. His claims and the humbling of Himself only caused them to mock Him. So David was compelled to prophesy 69:10–11 When I wept and humbled my soul with fasting, it became my reproach. When I made sackcloth my clothing, I became a byword to them.

The Lord's homelife was problematic. He was thought by many in his family to be the odd one in His family. People in Nazareth acted with hostility or indifference towards Him.

Psalm 69:12 I am the talk of those who sit in the gate, and the drunkards make songs about me.

But Jesus spent time in fellowship with His Father.

Psalm 69:13 But as for me, my prayer is to you, O LORD. At an acceptable time, O God, in the abundance of your steadfast love answer me in your saving faithfulness.

Psalm 69:14 Deliver me from sinking in the mire; let me be delivered from my enemies and from the deep waters.

Psalm 69:21 They gave me poison for food, and for my thirst they gave me sour wine to drink.

Psalm 69:22 Let their own table before them become a snare; and when they are at peace, let it become a trap.

Psalm 69:23 Let their eyes be darkened, so that they cannot see, and make their loins tremble continually.

Psalm 69:24 Pour out your indignation upon them, and let your burning anger overtake them.

1000 years before it happened, David's words provided insight into the mind of Christ.

Judas betrayed Jesus with a kiss, to reveal Him in the dim light of that early morning.

Luke_22:47 While he was still speaking, there came a crowd, and the man called Judas, one of the twelve, was leading them. He drew near to Jesus to kiss him,

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I dread?

Psalm 27:1 Of David. The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The LORD is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

Psalm 27:2 When evildoers assail me to eat up my flesh, my adversaries and foes, it is they who stumble and fall.

Psalm 22 tells of a horrendous death endured by the Lord. The psalm of sighs. The inner suffering.

Psalm 22:1 My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? Why are you so far from saving me, from the words of my groaning?

Psalm 22:2 O my God, I cry by day, but you do not answer, and by night, but I find no rest.

This is the bearing of our sins.

Psalm 22:7 All who see me mock me; they make mouths at me; they wag their heads;

Psalm 22:8 "He trusts in the LORD; let him deliver him; let him rescue him, for he delights in him!"

The same sarcasm expressed by those beneath the cross. This is even though Jesus loved those at the foot of the cross.

Psalm 22:14 I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint; my heart is like wax; it is melted within my breast;

Jesus endured the great physical and spiritual anguish for us.

Psalm 22:15 my strength is dried up like a potsherd, and my tongue sticks to my jaws; you lay me in the dust of death.

Psalm 22:16 For dogs encompass me; a company of evildoers encircles me; they have pierced my hands and feet—

The Jews looked to stone Jesus to death.

Did David fully understand what he was saying? Probably not. What clearer evidence is there that David had the divine telescope. He prophesied events hundreds of years before they came to pass. The people who lived 1000 years later when the Messiah actually walked in their midst. By the recording of this psalm, they have not been left in the darkness; neither have we.

Psalm 22:17 I can count all my bones— they stare and gloat over me;

Psalm 22:18 they divide my garments among them, and for my clothing they cast lots.

David saw a risen Savior. This is recorded for us. Resurrection from the grave belongs to the Old Testament just as much as to the New Testament. He was not be defeated by the grave.

Psalm 16:9 Therefore my heart is glad, and my whole being rejoices; my flesh also dwells secure.

Psalm 16:10 For you will not abandon my soul to Sheol, or let your holy one see corruption.

David envisioned Him being risen from the dead and rising up from the tomb, and ascend into heaven and stand at the Lord's right hand.

Psalm 110:1 A Psalm of David. The LORD says to my Lord: "Sit at my right hand, until I make your enemies your footstool."

Psalm 110:2 The LORD sends forth from Zion your mighty scepter. Rule in the midst of your enemies!

This will be the hour of the Lord's triumph and our triumph as well.

Psalm 110:5 The Lord is at your right hand; he will shatter kings on the day of his wrath.

Psalm 110:6 He will execute judgment among the nations, filling them with corpses; he will shatter chiefs over the wide earth.

This is the climactic landmark of Armageddon. Then we will see wrongs righted and absolute justice brought to pass. David states this facts in unmistakable facts. The coming of the King will usher in His kingdom.

May God grant that we continue to see this same vision of David. It is just as pertinent today. This is the time for us to see if we have enough doctrine and appreciation to partake of the bread and the cp. The stipulation or not.

16th of February will be the business meeting. We get a picture of the state of the union of Berachah Church. We get to find out what is going on at Berachah Church. Might be a vote that needs to be taken. A quorum is necessary. Bob did not like it. There was a day when there were not enough people there. Bob said, "We will have a quorum." It was legitimate.

David's prophetic view of the Lord Jesus Christ. His birth, death, resurrection, ascension and sitting at the right hand of God. That is also the subject of Psalm 7. David is being pursued by an enemy as he often was. This is Cush the Benjamite, who we do not know who he is.

This is a wonderful view of how David calls upon the Lord.

Cush is the antagonist and this scene is often connected with Saul's pursuit of David. Cush may have been whispering into Saul's ear. Saul heard so many times that David's deeds are greater than his own.

David is pleading not guilty to all of these accusations; and he is willing to plead his case before God. He is not looking for some vindication or justification from people. But he looks to get this from God. David is appealing to the Lord alone. That is who he is looking to for vindication and protection against such false allegations. God is the One to truly vindicate and truly protect. God cannot discredit the discreditors.

David says that God will vindicate him. 1Sam. 24 Those who slander and tell lies, they will be turned back on their own head. People try to manipulate you with the words. But evil turns back on the heads of the evil.

1Sam. 24:12–13 May the LORD judge between me and you, may the LORD avenge me against you, but my hand shall not be against you. As the proverb of the ancients says, 'Out of the wicked comes wickedness.' But my hand shall not be against you.

The Lord will judge between David and Saul. He is not looking to clear his name or to squelch the gossip. He is depending upon the Lord here. David is vindicated if he survives.

If you wait on that, you may wait a very long time. We are only concerned with what the Lord thinks and does.

1Sam. 24:14–15 After whom has the king of Israel come out? After whom do you pursue? After a dead dog! After a flea! May the LORD therefore be judge and give sentence between me and you, and see to it and plead my cause and deliver me from your hand."

The vindication here. If we are looking for revenge or human vindication, don't worry about it. David uses the faith rest drill. He knows that vindication comes from the Lord; and some may see it and maybe some will not. What people think is not the issue. The Lord knows all of the facts. David was vindicated over and over by the Lord, simply by keeping David alive. He was possibly the greatest warrior of all time. He faced more danger and more war than anyone that we know. When he did not go to war, that is the time that he messed up.

David's life was spared over and over. He was not always innocent of the circumstances. God had plans for David, in spite of his circumstances. David lived his entire life as a faith rest situation.

David is not free of all wrongdoing. But he is innocent of this particular situation which has him under persecution. His oath of innocence takes a very peculiar form. It is not a direct denial, but it is a series of statements introduced by if.

Psalm 7:3 O LORD my God, if I have done this, if there is wrong in my hands,

Psalm 7:4 if I have repaid my friend with evil or plundered my enemy without cause,

David's Protestation

1. David protests his innocence by a series of conditional clauses.
2. The clauses assume the reality that he did it; which is not true. This is a contrary to fact condition.
3. The if clauses are not true. David has done none of the things which he posits here. David was in the service of Saul. David got the attention of Saul and the entire army when David killed Goliath. When Saul got agitated, David would sing songs to him as well.
4. In fact, his enemy has no cause at all.
5. David has done the opposite of what he is being charged with. He is getting on the stand and protesting his innocence. The reality is, but I did not. David is speaking about the Lord. He is declaring his innocence to the Lord.
6. David is being hypothetical here. David has not done so. If David had done these things, then there would be consequences. God would be justified in completing the destruction David's enemies desire.

David is the epitome of innocence. There is injustice involved in all of this. David protests. Jesus was accused of operating under Satan's power. No one received more false accusations than the Lord.

Psalm 7:5 ...let the enemy pursue my soul and overtake it, and let him trample my life to the ground and lay my glory in the dust. Selah.

David is saying that, if he was guilty of these things, then he should be captured and trampled. "Let him trample my life to the ground," David says. "Let the enemy crush me. And smash me into the dust!"

The Cape Buffalo can be one of the most dangerous of all animals. He will charge his enemy and use his horns and hooves to crush and smash his enemy into the dust of the ground. What an ignominious defeat David speaks of here. Only a man who is sure of his innocence in the sight of God. This is so public. "Everyone will see me being crushed." David represents the cause of the righteous, first by justification. When we become believers, we have the imputation of God's justice. The righteous believers in Christ will always be unjustly persecuted by the cosmic system. We are now in the crosshairs of the cosmic system. Even if you disavow God, you may not be in the crosshairs any more, but you are one of the cosmic system.

When the church is not apostate; individual believers who are growing to spiritual maturity. Some are trampled in that persecution. And there is evil occurring in our country due to cosmic system thinking. They call us filled with hate and the Bible is hate speech because it is against homosexuality. There is only one pathway to God. You are excluding all of those other religions. You are not diverse and you must be eradicated for the progress of the human race.

We, as believers, are the most diverse of the human race. We understand and we accept the fact that all humanity are sinners. None of us should place ourselves above anyone else in the human race. The gospel is open to all races, all genders and all creeds. We accept everyone, as Christ died for all. We all need to be saved. We are in the same boat. As believers, we are all one in Christ.

It does not say, only this group, only that group. Every other group rejects somebody. We do not reject anyone. We do not hate anyone. Some are detrimental to the integrity of society in general. Their actions can have an evil impact on our nation as a whole. We oppose the cosmic system for this reason.

Just as David has an enemy like Cush, who accuses David of being unjust when it is David who is unjust. We have vindication from the cosmic system. We are alive and in the plan of God.

Psalm 7:5b ...and lay my glory in the dust. Selah.

Honor is something which David possesses. How terrible if his reputation is destroyed? Regaining David's reputation is not his vindication before the Lord. That is the continuance of God's plan in his life. He may fail. What do you have when you are unjustly accused or you have sinned. You rebound. Psalm 51:4 is the Old Testament rebound passage. David sinned against a lot of people. David did all sorts of stuff; but he sinned against God. He did not stand up in front of everyone. He is vindicated by the Lord and he lets the chips fall where they would. No matter how... How did David die? In bed. He will be justified in the eyes of God and that is all that matters.

We prefer to have a decent reputation. We don't like being gossiped about. And if you are in the public eye, then certainly you have heard a lot of bad stuff about yourself.

There is injustice all over the place. All that matters is the objective of David's enemies (to them), because they are power mad. They want to see the end of his regime. But they don't get that David is put there by God.

Saul could not remove David; and Saul had an army. No one interferes with...

Adversity is an opportunity for us; it spurs spiritual maturity. David says, "If I have done these things, then I should be taken out.

Vv. 3-5 is a great solemnity of David's appeal. The idea of that is the final word of this passage. Selah, as if David sealed the deal.

Selah means that David exalted the Lord. David is saying, "Exalt the Lord" but David puts this in God's hands. "Your will be done." That is David's view and his bid for vindication. This is fantastic for us. This hits us right where we live. None of us will have David's greatness. Our objective is to grow spiritually. God, at the end of the day, has us in His hands. That is a great rationale of the faith rest drill. "If I did it, kill me."

Lesson #0060

Psalm 7 Wisdom in the OT

2/12/2020 Wednesday

We are in a time of Israel's history when Saul was the king and he had become extremely jealous of David, who was anointed the next king of Israel. The future of Israel was in the balance. David was of particular importance, as he was the forerunner of our Savior. It is important that we see David's attitude in all of this.

Through these if clauses, David is protesting the false charges made against him.

Psalm 7:4 if I have repaid my friend with evil or plundered my enemy without cause,

Psalm 7:5 let the enemy pursue my soul and overtake it, and let him trample my life to the ground and lay my glory in the dust. Selah.

We see hatred, rage and anger today. The judgment is through the justice of God. We get the impression from prayer that God's justice is always at work. The wheels of justice are turning, but perhaps too slow for David.

Psalm 7:6 Arise, O LORD, in Your anger; lift Yourself up against the fury of my enemies; awake for me; You have appointed a judgment.

Judgment is always a part of God's plan. David is here calling for just that. He is begging for justice. This is his hope and rock of confidence; it is his faith rest rationale. He calls the integrity of God into play. God is righteous and just in all of His ways; and David knows this. His prayer is a cry for justice.

A paraphrase of this verse: O Lord, you are a just God, and I know that you will apply Your justice to my enemy.

Sometimes, we see the justice of God; His justice might intervene at a time when it may seem needed to us. However, most of the time, His justice seems slow. Psalm 145:8 (2 other passages). God's purposes may include showing His grace and unfailing love before discipline and destruction.

However, we might become impatient; possibly even panicked. David is somewhat impatient, because he can feel the heat of his enemy breathing down his neck. In his own good time, God's justice will always act on those who are unjust. We have to bear in mind that God's justice is always in operation. Sometimes, He might even move people out of the way who are standing in the way of His plan. If we relax, we may see God's justice at work this year. If you recognize it, it might be pleasant to watch.

Even when God gives evil people over to the sinful desires of their heart; the law of volitional responsibility. They reap what they sow. That is one of the most poetic ways that God's justice is served. No one gets away with anything where the justice of God is concerned; and His justice is always concerned.

David understands this and he knows the facts. From the very beginning, God's justice made an appearance, at the fall of man. His justice was prior to this regarding the fallen angels. Satan's big appeal was no doubt regarding God's character. Satan camped on love and he disputed His righteousness and justice.

God's love is in operation in many ways, including salvation. The love that we may reciprocate to God. All of that is in operation; but His justice is still in operation. It began when Adam sinned. And in Adam, all die.

God's Justice

1. Justice provides discipline to the believer, and this justice is for our benefit. God's justice is not harsh or mean at all.
2. His justice is ultimately destruction provides destruction to the perverse and for the degenerate. Cycles of discipline for Israel. This is against His Own people.
3. The 5th cycle was the one of destruction. Deut. 28:45 Bobby is concerned about that for our own country; but we seem to have a reprieve right now.
4. Satan was judged from God's justice and righteousness in pre-history and will be finally judged at the end of the Millennium and cast into the Lake of Fire.
5. And also believers, we will stand before the Judgment Seat of Christ. We will be evaluated as to our deeds; the Bema Seat of Christ. That was a seat of judgment set up high.
6. Where His righteousness rejects sin and disobedience, His justice must come into play. Justice is all around us because sin and rebellion is all around us.

Psalm 7:6 tells us so much about how the justice of God works.

God's Justice

1. Justice is a divine attribute that relates directly to us. God has 11 attributes. God meets us at righteousness and justice and love. Our salvation comes through His love. His standards of righteousness makes decisions about how He blesses us. Those are our direct points of contact with us.
2. The justice of God is the guardian of divine essence in dealing with mankind and all humanity.
3. Since man is fallen and sinful and God cannot compromise with sin in any way, His justice must be exercised. He has no choice in this matter. Our very essence determines what we do, so often. Sometimes, we do things out of character; but God is consistent. He must operate within the confines of His justice.
4. His justice is absolute and incorruptible fairness toward us. Deut. 10:17 and Rom. 2:11. Our court system is all about human justice. But often there is a result of injustice to others. Sometimes, we might blame God for something which is our responsibility. It is impossible for God to be unfair in his system of justice. There is no wrong verdict from God ever.

5. We always get what we deserve from God's justice. Lest you think we have a God who is up there and is stern and cannot wait to punish, His grace and His love mediate on our behalf. Justice acts for the benefit of society. This acts to exonerate those who are innocent and to protect the innocent. God's justice acts for our benefit.
6. Justice is the function of the integrity of God, which means the outworking of His perfect righteousness. Justice is the outworking of God's perfect righteousness. These two things cannot be separated.
7. Divine justice administers a system of divine laws that are compatible with divine righteousness and sovereignty. That is what justice administers.
8. As the judge of mankind, God's justice renders constant and consistent decisions with regards to all members of mankind.
9. This is what David is praying for; and he is confident in it.
10. God perfectly administers the blessings and the penalties which are demanded by His perfect righteousness. 2Chron 19:7 Job 37:23 Psalm 19:9 50:6 God has proven to be consistently fair in all of his judgments. God penalties are not vindictive but... Where righteousness is present, so is God's justice. We are all given God's righteousness at the moment of salvation. On the other side, there is sin where God's justice will judge.

Where unrighteousness is, sin and disobedience exists; but the grace of God is there as well. Logistical grace is a part of the grace of God.

Psalm 7:6 Arise, O LORD, in Your anger; lift Yourself up against the fury of my enemies; awake for me; You have appointed a judgment.

David Speaks of God's Anger as Justice

1. God is not angry in the sense of a rationale and emotional type of retribution.
2. His anger is not an arbitrary action that suddenly reacts to some injustice. We react in anger suddenly at times.
3. God does not administer justice on a whim.
4. Justice in God should not ever be considered as a personal spitefulness. Justice in God is not an uncontrolled fury or a seething rage towards something. We may think that it is, based upon what we might observe. There is no out-of-control action from God. Judges can make bad rulings out of anger; or based on something that we do not like.
5. His anger cannot be considered a sin. Anger leads to great reaction. That is not God's justice. His anger cannot be considered a sin because God cannot sin.
- 6.
7. God can only condemn sin and He cannot condemn Himself. His righteousness precludes sin in Himself.

8. God's very nature is one of perfect righteousness, which automatically and consistently rejects sin completely. If God accept a single sin, His righteousness would be violated.
9. Dispensing justice depends upon the standards of His righteousness.
10. His justice and righteousness would be tainted if He found one sin to be acceptable. This is how His essence works together. We have an essence; and that character is who we are. We can violate our own character; God cannot violate His character.
11. God does not react to sin; He simply condemns it. We might react to someone's sin, but God does not. All sin is an abomination to God; it does not meet His standards.
12. God administers an appropriate condemnation for sin; His justice demands it.
13. His wrath is not something which He chooses to feel or to engage in. Don't we feel angry; don't we have a choice to feel that way? God does not feel it. He does not choose to feel that kind of anger or to engage in it.
14. God's anger is always engaged. Participating in the affairs of the Angelic Conflict. We turn such things on and off; God does not.
15. God does not choose to become angry.
16. God does not use volition to punish sin. He does not decide to react or to respond to sin.
17. Rejection of sin is predetermined by the righteousness of God. He has to.
18. God has one consistent and constant response to sin and injustice. It is called anger and it means perfect justice. This never changes and it never ceases. The justice of God is always in operation.
19. However, where the righteousness of God is present, whether in God Himself or in us, the justice of God accepts. That is the importance of the justice of God in the believer. God accepts His righteousness which is within us.

It is very difficult to teach an attribute of God, because it is hard for us to grasp. It is quite difficult for us to understand God's perfect character. He is truly beyond us. Theology proper is very difficult to teach. Human laws may reflect God's standards. The Mosaic Law tells us just how short we fall of keeping God's perfect Law. We know that we can never meet God's perfect standards.

We need assistance in understanding God and His essence. To comprehend all of this, to comprehend eternity, is beyond our finite minds. God has revealed Himself to us.

God's Anger Explains His Justice and His Righteousness.

1. God's anger is a marginal description of His justice, but in human terms of the absolute necessary response to sin.
2. Through the expression of an attitude of anger, meaning rejection by God of injustice and sin.
3. We can somewhat comprehend the extreme attitude of God against sin and unrighteousness, through the idea of anger. We can relate it to anger in ourselves, but we must be very careful. God uses this term so that we might understand the absoluteness of His anger. His righteousness and justice in the description of divine anger. This is the harshness of God's justice to God's enemies.

4. Hatred, anger and wrath are human characteristics which we understand. We may have shown up for church.
- 5.
6. In understanding God's wrath towards mankind, we cannot superimpose sinful characteristics on God. He is not emotional and angry in the human sense.
7. It is hard to describe God justice and righteousness; and how this relates to His anger.
8. Some call his anger a righteous indignation, which is something that humans possess without being sinful. We might have seen something on television which has made us angry, as it is against divine establishment. To have that indignation requires having integrity. We may have a just anger. In us, anger is generated. Our sense of justice is generated by something that we see or hear. His anger is always there, directed towards sinfulness, degeneracy, or anything that His righteousness rejects.
9. God's anger is always connected to His perfect justice. God uses anger to express the concept of His perfect justice. We cannot take anger in the sense of our sinful nature and put this upon God. But we can understand our anger towards something which is wrong.
10. God's anger lends perspective to us as to the nature of sin regarding the justice of God. We must understand how God works. God's justice comes into play; but God's justice is always there.

We cannot say, "Wake up God and be angry." God has a time frame. Maybe I got that wrong. God's anger is around and we do not want that blow torch directed towards us.

Psalm 7:6 Arise, O LORD, in Your anger; lift Yourself up against the fury of my enemies; awake for me; You have appointed a judgment.

Lesson #0061

Psalm 7 Wisdom in the OT

2/13/2020 Thursday

It is hard to tell, sometimes, the difference between justice and injustice.

Psalm 7:6 Arise, O LORD, in Your anger; lift Yourself up against the fury of my enemies [or, rage of my adversaries]; awake for me; You have appointed a judgment.

David is praying; he is praying for help, for rescue. He is calling for God's anger to be aroused. We often superimpose our idea of anger over what God thinks and does. David uses this term. "You have appointed a judgment." This is a cry for justice from God. Justice is depicted as wrath or as anger.

Anger in God: He is not angry in the sense of an emotional type of revenge. There is no uncontrolled fury or a seething rage. We may experience that; but God does not. This is the anger that we think of. God does not have a hair-trigger anger; there is no arbitrary actions that reacts to some heinous sin; but ignores the little sins.

We might think of God as seething anger; He is dispensing justice just as He dispenses blessing. God's anger is always a measured response with a view to His justice and righteousness. God's anger is never sinful. God never makes mistakes when exercising His anger.

When David calls for the anger of God against the enemy, He is calling for perfect judgment; He is calling for God to vindicate David's innocence. It is really the application of justice for an innocent man. In this particular case, David is innocent.

We can see the devastating qualities of justice and righteousness applied to evil. The evil of Sodom angered God tremendously; and God rained down fire and brimstone. But God did not do this right away. God gave a measured response to evil.

People think of Sodom when they think of the wrath or anger of God.

Abraham's nephew is in Sodom with his whole family.

Gen 18:26 And the LORD said, "If I find at Sodom fifty righteous in the city, I will spare the whole place for their sake."

Gen 18:27 Abraham answered and said, "Behold, I have undertaken to speak to the Lord, I who am but dust and ashes.

Gen 18:28 Suppose five of the fifty righteous are lacking. Will you destroy the whole city for lack of five?" And he said, "I will not destroy it if I find forty-five there."

Abraham talked God down to 10 righteous people; and he assumed that 10 was enough.

We have no idea as to the population of Sodom at this point. Pure evil of Sodom on display in Gen. 19:

Gen 19:1 The two angels came to Sodom in the evening, and Lot was sitting in the gate of Sodom. When Lot saw them, he rose to meet them and bowed himself with his face to the earth

Gen 19:2 and said, "My lords, please turn aside to your servant's house and spend the night and wash your feet. Then you may rise up early and go on your way." They said, "No; we will spend the night in the town square."

Gen 19:3 But he pressed them strongly; so they turned aside to him and entered his house. And he made them a feast and baked unleavened bread, and they ate.

The men of the city surrounded Lot's house and they demanded that these 2 new men be brought out to them. The law of hospitality was in effect here. Lot offers his virgin daughters; but the men did not want the daughters; they wanted the two men.

Lot went out to reason with them. The angels pulled Lot back into the house. The angels told him, "Get out of town, right now."

Lot gets his daughters and wife to leave with him; but not the men for his daughters. Eccles. 9:16 all it takes is one righteous; but there was not a single person who could be found in this city.

Sodom was a conspicuous city available to reveal God's anger (or justice). God's justice in this case also protects others from the spread of the perversity of this city.

Lot and his family were delivered. They took off for Zoar; but the people did not like them; so they went off into the hills. Only Lot and his two daughters. Lot ended up in a very bad situation. Lot was saved for Abraham's sake.

Gen 19:24 Then the LORD rained on Sodom and Gomorrah sulfur and fire from the LORD out of heaven.

Gen 19:25 And he overthrew those cities, and all the valley, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and what grew on the ground.

God had a scorched earth policy here. He destroyed even their crops.

We must always take into account that the justice of God is the deciding factor in a situation like this. The punishment is warranted if God so wills it to be. It is not that the justice of God is so harsh; but it is just the evil of man.

God's utter destruction of the inhabitants of all the earth. Everyone destroyed excepted Noah and his family.

The daughters of men and the sons of God. God protected the human race from the contamination of the human race by the angels. The Messiah could not come as true humanity. There are horrific judgments, for our benefit. The human race was preserved; Messiah was possible.

God's justice brought about horrific judgment. The return of Jesus Christ is going to be even a greater judgment. God's justice is in full operation. Along with justice goes the love of God. Circumstances in this nation may not be very good. Some of us may live to see things occur that we cannot even imagine for this country.

What God does is in keeping with His righteousness, justice and love. This will be the outworking of God's justice.

David wants the wrath of God to come to his aid to rescue him. David was protection from the justice of God; David uses 3 verbs related to anger. To arise, to lift up and to arouse. To arise sounds as if God is sleeping (meaning that he is not paying any attention to what David says

Anthropomorphism.

1. This is metaphorical language that assigns physical characteristics to God; characteristics which He does not possess.

2. This reveals God's character and policies to finite man. God does not close His eyes to take a little rest.
3. The action of arising indicates God's seeming inactivity. David wants to see a little anger.
4. David seeks to arouse God from slumber. This is the 3rd verb.
5. By way of application, the idea of God sleeping reveals that God may delay His actions.
6. God's timing is not always our timing. Many times, it is not at all.
7. God's righteousness is always aware and always condemns sin and injustice. But His justice goes into action when the time is exactly right. When we think is the right time for God, it may not be God's timing.
8. Only God knows when that time is. We can ask for it; but then, we must be willing to wait for it to happen. This is true of any request that we make of God.

David's Request of God to Swing into Action

1. David is requesting that God's justice swing into action after inactivity. The allegations against him are more frequent and preposterous. David is sick of it. He knows these accusations are false.
2. David wants God to initiate His justice for David's benefit. He is not being presumptuous nor is David being self-centered.
3. David understands the operation of the justice of God will act against injustice. That is a forgone conclusion. That is what justice does.
4. So David is confident that God knows that God knows about the injustice is against David. Of course God knows that this is an injustice; God is omniscient.
5. That is why David knows that God's justice is already in motion. He wants the results now, but he knows that it is in motion. Judgment is appointed.
6. God's justice has never stopped or ceased in its operation. It is going on right now; it is going on in Washington D.C.; it is going on in China. We are assured that God's justice is in operation.

Can evil endure? Of course it can. Evil in the world is a thing we can expect. If something will destroy a client nation, God will stop that thing. God will protect.

What about China? There is a terrible virus emanating from China. It is a pandemic of monstrous proportions. China is very secretive. There are millions of Christians in China and they are being persecuted. What is going on over there? Do they need God's protection? The justice of God is in operation. If you are relaxed and you understand God's justice, then you might be able to pick out a few things here and there.

From David's perspective, his prayer is not out of line. God does not honor self-righteousness. If David is being self righteous, then this prayer is out of line. But if not, this prayer represents David's faith rest rationale. If this is a legitimate call. Can you pray for the justice of God when you are involved in that injustice? Beware that the justice of God may deal with you, just as much as the person you are praying about. God gives reprieves to the very worst of people; but sooner or later, His justice will function.

David is free to appeal for divine vindication. This is time when the justice of God could be applied to David as well as to his enemy.

David rebounds. God's justice always takes that confession into account. Rebound is part of the solution to injustice in our own lives. David did rebound from his sins. At any time, David is justified with calling upon God to come to his aid. We all need this; even when it is directed towards us, even when we are out of God's plan; and God's justice is directed against us.

The unfailing love of God is a part of this equation. His justice is always for our benefit; and His judgment is always applied in love. Whom the Lord loves, He disciplines.

A good parent does not discipline a child in anger. Only when you are calm, cool and collected. This way, the child knows that they will face an appropriate justice. Bob said, "Never slap a child." That is way out of line. Spanking under the right conditions.

Anger here is God's measured response to the wrongdoing.

David's Request for God's Justice

1. David knows that, if God has plans for David's survival, then God's justice will act in his favor, if he is to survive. That is a rationale that we all must use.
2. That is what David is asking for here. A general administration of God's justice. David is taking into account his innocence.
3. That would vindicate David before his enemies.
4. David will let God's justice decide. We allow God to decide. What He decides is always right, always just.
5. If David is in the wrong, God's justice will deal with him for that. He is aware of that as well.
6. That is why David uses the conditional clauses. This reveals what David could have been judged for. That is why he put it into that form. Maybe rebound is in order. Heb. 12:6 whom the Lord loves, He disciplines.

David is not praying for a special favor here, simply so he can live. That is a mistake that many believers make when they are not using faith rest. They cry out for help, with no concern with their own culpability. They are not worried about their own sinfulness or culpability. Such a believer in those conditions is praying in fear, but not in relation to God's plan. They do not evaluate their own choices that brought them to this place. This is why prayer must begin with rebound and with a self-examination.

What Some Believers Fail to See

1. God's justice may do exactly the opposite of what a person desires.

2. We may reap the results of our own injustice.
3. The justice of God may act against us; it is all evil to the Lord; it is all sin. Those under the worst discipline are those who are legalist, self righteous believers.
4. God's justice will be meted out as a corrective to bring about rebound and recovery.
5. Also to bring a change of direction into thinking, motives, actions and decisions.

Psalm 7:6 Arise, O LORD, in Your anger; lift Yourself up against the fury of my enemies; awake for me; You have appointed a judgment.

Lesson #0062

Psalm 7 Wisdom in the OT

2/16/2020 1Sunday

Bobby is having trouble leaving this verse. It seems like a simple verse, but it is filled with theology proper.

Psalm 7:6 Arise, O LORD, in Your anger; lift Yourself up against the fury of my enemies; awake for me; You have appointed a judgment.

3 verbs indicate that David is requesting something. He is requesting anger from God. Judgment is the application of God's justice. That judgment has already been set.

God is not angry in the human sense. His wrath is not irrational or out of control. This is not arbitrary or emotional. God responds to sin and to injustice, but He does this by condemning it wherever it is found. Appropriate punishment. God's justice is always engaged and participating in the affairs of mankind; and always related to the Angelic Conflict. God does not choose to become angry. He is simply angry all of the time, but not in the way that we understand anger. This characteristic is always present in God. David is asking God's justice to manifest itself in this specific case. David is praying for justice against his enemies soon. And we often pray for deliverance from our enemies.

David's enemies are enraged against him; and it seems to be continual. So David is now asking for God's anger. David is fully cognizant that God's justice will work, as it always does. When David elicits God's anger...

When David says, "Arise, God,..." it seems to imply that God is asleep or not paying attention. The action of arising is asking for God's inactivity to change to activity.

The second verb is to lift up; and this is David asking God to get out of bed. God's justice has not been applied yet, because David's enemies are closing in on him.

Bobby thinks this to be like revery. It blares over every loudspeaker on post. David knows that God judges; and he is asking for God to do that right now.

The 3rd verb is, to arouse. "God, bring Your justice to bear." We think of anger usually as generated from some injustice or wrongdoing against us. It is presented in that way for our understanding. But God's justice does not need to be aroused or awakened. It is always in operation. God is waiting for the right time to manifest His justice to David's situation.

God's justice is to be applied when it fulfills His purposes. God's timing is perfect; and His application of justice will be the most effective. This demonstrates how important this justice is.

The justice of God rationale is applicable and important for us to apply; and that is what David is talking about here.

David is applying an anthropopathism. This is figurative language which assigns human emotions and attitudes to God which He does not actually possess. His character and policies are revealed by this application. It is quite clear that God is not aroused to anger to something. This would indicate that He has a change of heart towards sin. That can never be the case. God does not get up from a nap and suddenly see an injustice which He did not see before. That may appear to be the case. God's justice never ceases; it never stops; it never has to be aroused. God is omniscient. He knows everything.

God knows everything; and He has always known everything; and every fact is in His mind before He created anything. His knowledge is complete and final; and His attitudes are complete and final. His justice is simply a matter of timing. His justice is always there; it is simply a question of, when will it be applied? This anthropopathism is a way for us to understand God's character and actions.

God's Judgment and David's Situation

1. We know that God has already appointed judgment. V. 6b
2. What does that mean? God knows what He is going to do in this case. He knows all of the facts of every case. Imagine a courtroom scene, witnesses, cross-examinations, the jury is trying to figure out what is true and not true. God has all of the facts in every case.
3. God's judgments are known to Him; not to David. David knows that these judgments will happen. So he can use the faith rest drill.
4. Judgments are always a part of God's plan and purpose to do justice in all of the world. The cosmic system is always in operation. God's justice can be very harsh, example, Sodom and Gomorrah. Or the flood, where God saved only one family. God's justice is perfect, even though it may not seem that way to us.
5. God's omniscience knew that this incident in David's life would take place.
6. When it did occur, God had already decreed or appointed His justice for this situation and for David's benefit. Decree means that God knew it and that it would take place.
7. This does not mean that God pre-determined this injustice against David. That cannot happen. God does not countenance or approve of sin or of injustice. God may use these things to bring His Own will to pass.
8. God cannot sanction or be the author of sin. God also knew what Saul would do in this situation.
9. He understood their sin natures. God decided how He would deal with it. And He decreed it to be so. God did not pre-determine what we would do; and He already knew what He would do. In every situation, the justice of God is at work.

10. God Himself had mandated the exercise of appropriate judgment.
11. David is just asking for what God already knows will happen. David is asking for God's justice to be manifested in this case.

David is not asking for a particular result. "Kill them," is not what David is asking for. He wants God's justice to be applied, and he will be willing to accept whatever God determines.

God is the Author of all true judgment in the earth. There are judgments, courts and verdicts rendered all of the time. Federal, state and local laws. Justice is served, sometimes and sometimes not. All justice or judgment is going to be exercised.

The Application of the Justice of God

1. The first judgment of God between people; Gen. 4, between Cain and Abel.
2. All precepts of establishment and individual laws have their source in God. The concept of the rule of law is of God; and we have a template. That does not mean that every legislative body hit it.
3. Laws manifest God's decree of justice.
4. His justice will always fall between His sovereign will and His standards of righteousness. The Mosaic Law is an example of this. The Mosaic Law is written for many to understand God's precepts and standards. Does the Mosaic Law the law for the US? When regulations do not reflect the basic precepts of God's law, then they do not reflect the justice of God.

There is the judgment of the unbeliever for all eternity; and the judgment of the believer for all eternity. God will act with justice in every circumstance just as He has commanded His people. David will be the one designated to enforce the law of God. He understands God's justice. David does not know what; he does not know when. This is a perfect illustration of the faith rest rationale. Every day, we face adversity, problems, wrongdoing by others towards us, etc. The justice of God allows us to have a relaxed mental attitude in the face of injustice. No one gets away with anything in this life. We may not see every person pay for their misdeeds. Sometimes, this may be the restlessness or the misery that they live with it. We do not have to worry about this; we can simply trust God's justice. The justice of God must always take precedence. David's life is at stake.

Psalm 7:6 is our template. God will always act in accordance with how He has acted. David is fully confident of that fact so that He can use the faith rest rationale. We can use this when any injustice is present.

Psalm 7:6 Arise, O LORD, in Your anger; lift Yourself up against the fury of my enemies; awake for me; You have appointed a judgment.

Lesson #0063

Psalm 7 Wisdom in the OT

2/19/2020 Wednesday

Jim Meyers from the Ukraine is at the end of the service.

Vv. 7–8

Bobby sees Cush as being an advisor to Saul. This is a psalm of justice and a psalm asking for deliverance.

Psalm 7:7 Let the assembly of the peoples be gathered about You; over it return on high.

Psalm 7:8 The LORD judges the peoples; judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness and according to the integrity that is in me.

Here is David putting God's justice in context. This is in relation to those who are guilty. They are on a larger scale than just one man. He has expanded his call for justice for the people as well.

There is some obscurity in this verse. Take into account the context concerning justice and judgment against an enemy. David has expanded his scope of justice to a larger group. He speaks of the assembly of the peoples. Why does he shift to a universal group?

Who Is this Assembly of Peoples?

1. David provides for us a juxtaposition of justice.
2. David invokes a comparison of God's justice towards a large group of people as compared to being applied upon one person.
3. There is no real difference. The justice of God is good for a group or for a nation or for individuals. The results are the same. God's justice covers all in a large umbrella. He expects personal vindication by the Judge. He will acquit them or not. God may judge and He may condemn an entire client nation; or He may discipline them. God also protects and vindicates believers for the benefit of the nation. David wants to be vindicated in this circumstance.

This assembly of the peoples conjures the image of a king presiding over his nation. He decides various decisions and punishments. The king dispensing justice to his subjects. That is what we are to view here. The king is surrounded by those awaiting a ruling from the judge. Tension is palpable when this is taking place. This is a lot of nervousness when a jury retires to render a verdict.

When the king finally decides, his decision is final.

God's Judicial Government

1. This is a picture of God ruling over His people.
2. God is the Supreme Court Justice, the ultimate bastion of justice. His justice is always fair and perfect.
3. This is an understanding that God judges all the people.
4. God has every right to do so as ruler over all the people.

David wants judgment from on high to be revealed to all of the people. Remember that David has a good reputation. He cannot have this false injustice hanging over his head as a future king. He has been accused of being unjust; as one who has defiled the king; who has plans to usurp the king's throne. Since he is accused of that, David would like to be vindicated.

If David is so perceived, then his integrity would be questioned; his fitness to rule would be questioned. A corrupt leader corrupts the country and the people. There are hundreds of nations on this earth who are corrupt because their leaders are corrupt.

Corruption is present in every nation. When leadership has a good reputation and integrity, then that is of great benefit to a nation. Maybe there is a light there of integrity, justice and leadership. David wants to be vindicated because he is a leader. He will be the one ruling. Now he is speaking of God as the Supreme Court Justice. David implores God to vindicate him; and he has great faith that this will happen.

David is fully aware of the plan of God; and he wants to fulfill the plan of God for the nation; and he knows that in the future, he will be king. God has assigned this to David. David is saying to God, "You must vindicate me." David knows enough about God; and he has been tested in many areas, and he has been found to be tested by God. Many see him as a great warrior and as a great man. Here is a road block; a stumbling block. His reputation is being besmirched.

God's Righteous Decisions

1. God renders decisions which further His plan in this world for believers and client nations.
2. God has this judicial oversight over all of the peoples. David will be one of God's instruments ruling over a client nation.
3. David knows that he can count on the justice of God for vindication. David is not being presumptuous here; he is not being self-aggrandizing. He understands that God has put him in this position with a royal future.
4. This is a picture of God's justice at work, in relation to David and in relation to the client nation Israel.
5. The client nation that becomes evil and apostate will be judged and found innocent or guilty. David is very aware of the cycles of discipline and he knows the horrific ends of being judged as a nation.

This is one of the great faith rest rationales presented for us in Psalm 7. This is pertinent in our personal lives and national lives. Jim Meyers faces a great deal of this in the Ukraine.

This is a picture of trusting the plan of God. Having a relaxed mental attitude in crisis. The application of the justice of God applied to the people and to the nations.

There are two application thoughts for us. A rationale of the faith rest drill. In a faith rest drill, we claim a promise, and this works for his benefit. God's justice will vindicate David because God has a plan for his life. As long as David is alive, the justice of God is applied to him. David uses this faith rest rationale. God has a concern for the welfare of the individual. God's justice and His plan have a concern for our welfare. We should not see God's justice as a penalty hanging over our heads, but this is always for our benefit. What God is doing is always for the benefit of the individual and for the nation as well. Unfortunately, client nations have failed. Client nations have been punished and even destroyed.

Of course, God is faithful; God is just. God has a plan. It is as valid for the nation as it is for the individual. All of those in a similar position as David; they are not just abstract individuals. They represent a whole real category of people. One individual in a group can make a difference as to how the justice of God judges a nation. The difference between deliverance and destruction. One man can deliver a city. We are not just one person; we are a church. There are people all over the United States who make up the pivot of believers. We have an impact and God takes this into account in His justice. Maybe the nation is so evil that justice must handle it in a different way. What David asks for, for himself, in the way of justice, is what he desires for all others in similar circumstances; and those in the nation that he will rule.

This is for all believers of all nations. David called for God to wake up; to utilize His justice and to vindicate him. This meant that God did not appear to decide when to deliver him. David was ready for that deliverance.

The Application of God's Justice to Us and to the United States.

1. We as believers, all of us, are encouraged, that what David requests here, we can all request in our own crisis. This is a psalm now that we can pull out when we are in crisis and use it for our strength.
2. We have God's justice in our favor.
3. We can ask for the justice of God to act on behalf of our nation; and for vindication of the righteous, of the believers. We are obviously under attack from many corners in the United States. There is a movement that is anti-Christian in the US. Socialism, atheism both seek to stop Christianity. The justice of God is so valid here for all of us. As situations get worse, this is even more valid. If things get better, then we know that we have had an impact.
4. God's justice extends to us all.

The second line is probably the most difficult line in the entire psalm.

Psalm 7:7 Let the assembly of the peoples be gathered about You; over it return on high.

Return on High...

1. This would indicate that God had already come here to earth, since He is returning.
2. He comes to earth to gather witnesses, to gather facts. God's justice rules on facts; God knows the facts.
3. This is a picture of an investigation of guilt or innocence.
4. This is a picture of a courtroom. God returns to sit Himself on the throne of judgment.
5. In this way is emphasized His great authority in the realm of justice.
6. The absolute righteous Judge will judge accordingly always. That should be a great comfort and encouragement to us. What is our position in all of this. We are believers advancing in God's plan. We will know if we are in God's plan or in fellowship. We have a relaxed mental attitude in adversity. We can expect God's rendering in justice.
7. God will always render correct, timely and fair judgments. We get all impatient, wondering, when will God's justice come into play. We do not need to be impatient. God applies His justice when it is most effective. Wait for it and expect it and relax.

David is innocent, he knows that; and he is calling for vindication.

When this happens, David looks forward to his vindication. Once he is out of this fix, his life will move on. He knows that uneasy lies the crown on the head of the king. He knows that he will face some incredible difficulties. David will face a number of problems.

Bob did a great study on David. One of the great study of a great man, a man with flaws. A man after God's Own heart. We all have our flaws; we all make mistakes in life. Through it all, the justice of God works for our benefit. What a wonderful understanding that is.

So David looks forward to his vindication. David had called for God to wake from His slumber and to do something with regards to David's current plight. "Resume Your activity of judging." David is under great pressure here.

He seems to be suggesting that God has abandoned him for the moment. God is on high and He will always render correct justice at the right time.

He is not begging for God to return to him; he knows that God is on His throne; and he knows that court does not shut down; and that God renders fair justice.

God Dispensing Justice for David

1. God will dispense justice. God is on high.
2. David just wants to know when. "God, lift Yourself up, vindicate me." Sometimes God may help us by disciplining us. God's justice does not sleep.

3. David impresses upon us that he does trust in the justice of God. Psalm 56:3.
4. This is another indicator of the critical and time sensitive nature of the situation. God knows exactly the right time and we don't.
5. God knows the circumstances and His timing is always perfect.
6. God acts when it is most effective; that is His timing. When His purposes will be fulfilled in the way that He wants them fulfilled.
7. God's judgments are always right and always for our benefit.
8. David asks for just that. Vindication means, "I know You are fair God; and I ask for justice for my benefit; but also for the benefit of Your plan. I am worthy of Your justice."
9. Believers can be confident that God's judgments from His absolute justice will be forthcoming; and it does not matter when.

The right time, the right judgment; and it is always fair.

Psalm 7:7 Let the assembly of the peoples be gathered about You; over it return on high.

Psalm 7:8 The LORD judges the peoples; judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness and according to the integrity that is in me.

Jim Meyer from the Ukraine. He learned so much that was a foundation for a 50 year ministry. Coming to Berachah is like coming home.

God has heard the prayers from Berachah. Sometimes missionaries can get out where you live in a different culture and you think that nobody cares. They know that we are here and pray for them. This makes their work possible. It is possible to take sound doctrinal truth to many places. They have been missionaries for many years in the former Soviet Union. They fell apart overnight and 16 independent nations. There were openings all over in places where there was no Bible teaching for 70 years.

Ukraine is a country the size of Texas and Kiev is about the size of Houston. They were able to go all over to many nations. Many places were strongholds for Christianity and today, they are closed. People do not want to hear about Jesus Christ. In Ukraine; there is great freedom. They can go out on the street and preach Jesus. They can hand out literature and hand out Bibles and start churches. No fears of being attacked and you can still get a hearing. You can talk to people about the plan of God. We just love doing ministry in Ukraine.

A small Bible college called the Word of God. Greek, Hebrew, systematic theology, all of the books of the Bible. They try to encourage people to do ministry. The indigenous church ministry is the best way for this to end. To get people there focused on getting people prepared to become pastor-teachers.

Now there are Ukrainian missionaries who have gone to Turkey. The guy is an evangelist and he has a small church that meets in his home. Another family is in Siberia. A great student of the Word of God. He puts out a lot of Bible studies on the internet in Russian. He is getting a good response; and he is facing a lot of opposition. People hate grace. He is strong in his great gospel.

A missionary in Jerusalem. There is opportunity every day to give the gospel message to tourists and others who are able to engage in that city.

The Lord has opened up opportunities in other nations. Zambia today, northern Rhodesia. This is the only nation in the world which calls itself a Christian nation in its constitution. They do not have much teaching. There is great response to the teaching of the Word of God. He will teach 6 to 8 hours a day. They don't get tired of it. He taught for 3 hours and a guy said, "Is that all you know?"

There are tremendous opportunities; a great response to the Word of God. Pastors now being nationally recognized as Bible teachers.

He has also gone to Brazil. Tim Lipsig, who has gone to be with the Lord. His son and daughter are still there. They are in the Amazon jungles. Tim's son Nicky and his wife. He goes there and puts on Bible conferences. The churches are hungry for sound Bible teaching.

Two times he has gone to Armenia. Not many evangelical churches there. The people say, "You have to come back; you have to return to teach us." He is able to travel to these places; the church that was planted in Kiev is completely a local church now. A complete functioning church without any support from the west. There is so much opportunity out there for Bible teachers. You have been taking in doctrine and now you have time and opportunity.

Long term and short term teaching. Their plan and desire to take the Word of God to these places and to continue training people for the work of the ministry.

Lesson #0064

Psalm 7 Wisdom in the OT

2/20/2020 Thursday

No one is excluded from the justice of God. God's justice acts for us; it acts for the church; and it acts for the country as well. All are under the justice of God; and so is the rest of the world as well. The cosmic system is subject to the justice of God as well.

Psalm 7:7 Let the assembly of the peoples be gathered about You; over it return on high.

Psalm 7:8 The LORD judges the peoples; judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness and according to the integrity that is in me.

Summary

1. David shifts in v. 7 to 8, going from a call for individual justice to an overall justice.
2. God is a Supreme Court Judge.
3. God judges the assembly of the peoples. God is the over all the world.
4. David's point is, the believer can have great confidence in the justice of God as a rationale in the faith rest drill. It is one of our aces in the hole for the spiritual life.

We have covered many rationales; but none more important than the justice of God rationale. The central part of Psalm 7.

To v. 8b, David moves from corporate to individual vindication.

Psalm 7:8 The LORD judges the peoples; judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness and according to the integrity that is in me.

Whatever comes by way of difficulties for a believer, God vindicates us. How He vindicates us is not always clear. We can be vindicated in front of our co-workers. Our honesty and integrity can be vindicated. We are not sure how God is vindicating us. We are certain that He does. He vindicates us in a way which is to our benefit. He wants for us to see the working, the process, the function of the justice of God in our lives. We must continue to trust in the job and that He will continue to vindicate us.

David's request and rationale is based upon that fact.

Here's How a Syllogism of God's Justice Works

1. If God is a just God, sitting in the Supreme Court of Heaven, sitting on high, a Person of absolute justice...
2. ...and if He judges all peoples and all nations and if He judges them rightly...
3. ...then He is totally able to render to us perfect judgments from His perfect justice.

It is God Who will judge all peoples and individuals on high. These verses have an application for us. We always get justice from God. There is no way out from this. Religion often has its foot on the throat of grace and Biblical Christianity. Ultimately, injustice does not triumph, although it often seems to triumph. We know God's justice triumphs ultimately; but we do not always see this. We wonder if justice is truly present in this world.

In history, we may ask ourselves, where is the justice of God in historical events or current events? Bobby took a course in the Middle Ages and there was great injustice in that time period. It was called the feudal system. A triumphant of rule in the middle ages. The tyranny of the monarch, the nobles (the landowners) and the church. These power systems kept people down. If you were a serf, then you remained a serf. There was no way out of that. Such great injustice to them. There was no freedom. Only those 3 groups had any true freedom.

The medieval catholic church was very corrupt and they were very political. They held great power in the nation, through false doctrines. There were indulgences. A priest would go through the countryside and they would sell a certificate of eternal life for indulgences. They collected an incredible amount of money.

Martin Luther, who was a 16th century priest, and he was disgusted by it. He knew just how wrong this was. Scripture was the only guide to Christianity. He therefore posted his 95 theses on the vatican (?) Door. Martin Luther was the instrument of God's justice.

At this time, Islam was born of conquest. It conquered the middle east. Subjugation and enslavement by Islam is well-documented in history. It is a religion of domination and control.

In the 20th century, tyranny all over, communism and fascism. Socialism in the 21st century. Socialism erodes freedom and there is great injustice in it.

The cosmic system of Satan is the ultimate in injustice. That is the overall umbrella of injustice. Never will leave this world as long as Satan rules it. Slavery is unjust, child abuse is unjust, this is as natural as breathing in this life. We all are unjust at times. As long as there is the sin nature, injustice will exist. External evil will therefore exist.

Many people think that evil does not exist; just circumstances. How do they live with an idea like that. They think that if they just get rid of the external problems that they see, that will eliminate the problems (whatever they want to call them).

Those adherents to the cosmic system promote injustice. Those who believe in the Lord are persecuted. We may run into injustice which distracts us from the spiritual life.

Law which has its foundation in the doctrines of God. The freedom code, divine establishment, codified law. We don't live under the Mosaic Law, but a lot of laws come from it. That is designed to hold the sin nature in check. Without the rule of objective law, greater injustice rules among mankind. The rule of law coincides with divine justice principles. The further that we get away from our Constitution, the further we get from objective law.

The relative law sounds good when you hear about it. Freedom is forfeited when the rule of law is set aside.

Injustice victimizes people. Self-aggrandizing and power politics corrupt. Drug abuse, immorality etc. inflict terrible injustice upon society as a whole. You agree with the prevailing politics, or you are oppressed. Those who do not tow the politically correct line will be ostracized, yelled at or beat up. Arrogance, power lust, pitting group against group and nation against nation. War and revolution are means of suffering. WwII is an exception of justice prevailing over great injustice. Internationalism promotes tyranny over objective law; it does not solve the problem of injustice.

If all of that sounds grim, you must remember that God's plan is always in operation.

God's justice can always be depended upon

1. God knows what He is doing.
2. While we may receive great injustice from people, systems like socialism, from organizations, we will never receive injustice from God. No matter how much injustice we find in our lives, the justice of God is still in operation.
3. Furthermore, God has the power to overcome every injustice factor of life. Everyone. Bobby sees that in his life; and others of us have seen it.
4. This is the foundation of the justice of God rationale of the faith rest drill. Injustice is getting worse in the United States. We must understand.
5. Always consider, injustice is turned into advancement in the plan of God. That is something that we might not always consider. The Old Testament is filled with this. Joseph comes first to mind. He was treated unjustly on many occasions. His brothers sold him into slavery into Egypt. His master's wife tried to seduce him, and he refused, and she cried rape. In the Lord's timing, God's justice overcame it all. Joseph became the one to deliver his brothers. The grace of God acting through Joseph.
6. Man meant it for evil; but God meant it for good. Men mean it for evil and injustice; and God means it for justice. When we encounter injustice, and we will, remember God's justice.

Remember how the Lord was subjected to injustice continually. The trials which put the Lord up for capital punishment; they were the most unjust trials on record.

To claim the promise of God's just solution requires patience and faith; not anger, bitterness. Those indicate the abandonment of the faith rest drill and the faith rest life.

Periodic opposition from people is inevitable. The majority of people in this world live exclusively in the cosmic system.

The Cosmic System and God's Justice

1. The cosmic system is evil. Even if it appears in a facade of good. It is Satan's system. Most people live there.
2. In Satan's system, nothing is fair. The world hates us. The cosmic system will do anything to distract or to persecute us.
3. God's justice is entirely fair. God provides for us the divine system for our benefit.
4. God sustains with Bible doctrine, with divine establishment, with logistical grace, with problem solving devices. Those are all part of how the justice of God delivers us as an advancing believer.
5. People often give us nothing but vacillation, slander, disappointment, misunderstanding, antagonism. The justice of God rationale and all of the divine rationales are designed to give us a relaxed mental attitude. We may realize that we have a load of mental attitude sins after facing some injustice; and we should then rebound and then apply the justice of God rationale. When you continue to be upset, when you cannot sleep, when your life is turned upside down; you are not utilizing the faith rest drill and particularly the justice of God. People are not fair. People want to climb over you to get ahead. People may not like you and they do things which are not nice. Our solution is depend upon the justice of God.

Such injustice is corrected for believers who keep on advancing in the spiritual life. We learn the justice of God rationale when we face unfairness and injustice. It is a necessity for us to face unfairness and injustice. Who wants to face that? We do. This allows us to utilize the justice of God rationale.

Otherwise

1. Reacting to injustice is a terrible mistake and a failure to rely on the justice of God. Our lives will be miserable and we will stay out of fellowship.
2. Injustice challenges us to solve problems with the application of doctrine, with faith rest, with problem solving devices. This encourages us to use the justice of God rationale. When the rubber meets the road, when the injustice hits you right in the eyes, then it is more than academic.
3. We either use divine problem solving devices, or we will enlist human viewpoint in its many forms. There are many substitutes out there. Our courts are filled with people suing other people in order to get justice.
4. How we as believers handle injustice determines the success or failure of our spiritual lives. That is how critical this is. How we handle injustice is fundamental to the spiritual life. Whether we live with a relaxed mental attitude or under the tyranny of mental attitude sins; that is key to our spiritual life.

Some of the strangest times in court are times when civil suits are brought for traffic accidents. No one sees the accident the same way. Justice? It is hard to tell. What is your solution when you are in a fender bender; and the insurance company does not back you up. You do not get a fair shake in this world from the cosmic system. Isn't it fantastic to watch it work. Vindication is of God; not from us. Vindication comes from the Lord.

What does David do in this situation? He gives us one of the great psalms on the justice of God rationale. Injustice as related to the Christian life; check out Christian Integrity. Bobby gives us just an overview here.

There is no injustice in God's rulings or dealings. Those rulings can be harsh where evil is present. Psalm 94:23a He has brought back their wickedness upon them, and the Lord destroys them in their evil. This destruction is a just end. When we see the destruction that God perpetrates on evil in the Old Testament, the result can be horrendous. God's justice vindicates those of us who are advancing spiritually.

Hezekiah facing the Assyrian army at his wall, and he trusts God, and God wipes out 186,000 Assyrian soldiers. The justice of God can work this way. God's justice does sometimes call for the destruction of the incorrigible. Do not commit a crime and claim to be the administer of God's justice. People are often involved in the administration of that justice.

That is not God's justice. All of those things perpetrate injustice. So many times what people do to bring about justice often causes more injustice. That is the cycle of this world. God's justice is what we must depend upon.

Lesson #0065

Psalm 7:8 Wisdom in the OT

2/23/2020 1 Sunday

This psalm is a study of justice in the midst of injustice. The deliverance comes from the absolute justice of God. Injustice comes from numerous sources. Overall, it comes from the cosmic system. The world reeks with injustice, and history is filled with injustice. Power politics is always unjust or military conquest of the strong over the weak; animal and child abuse; emotionalism cause abuse from mental attitude sins. What a sad commentary.

David is under the accusation of treachery and traitorous activity. He is under attack by Cush and by Saul. He is not guilty of the charges with which he is charged. Therefore, David asks for God to judge him. Only God judges people rightly.

Psalm 7:8 The LORD judges the peoples; judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness and according to the integrity that is in me.

God's justice is always fair. Man's justice is not; and some laws are unfair as well. David is asking for a decision from God to vindicate him from this injustice that he act from righteous and integrity. David is asking for God to make a decision; and David's future rests upon God and God's justice.

David will be the king of Israel and he needs a clean and vindicated record in order to rule. He wants to begin his reign with righteous and integrity.

David is not claiming absolute righteousness or sinlessness. He is referring to this particular situation at this time. He wants God to evaluate him in the light of what is going on here.

God has all of the facts. The court of law does not have all of the facts; and many times, the facts it has are in conflict. When you are the target of injustice, the full appraisal of facts is not known.

What We Need to Remember

1. God's knowledge penetrates any obscurities or complexities in life. Innocence or guilt can be very complex; and there are gray areas. There are mitigating circumstances. God cuts through all of that. God is never puzzled and He is never bamboozled by us.
2. Our God knows all of the facts of every case of every individual. There is the omniscience of God. God knows the facts of all groups, of all peoples, of all genders, of all nations. So God's judgments are correct.
3. However, God's decisions cannot violate His Own integrity. God has a set of standards of righteousness, and He cannot violate them. He cannot show favoritism. We think God should act favorably towards us because of what we are doing or not doing. God's justice extends to each one of us. We do have a part in the way the God judges us, concerning what we think and what we do. God knows all of the facts.

4. God allows for volition and He makes corrections to that volition and He takes into consideration circumstances. He knows where your decisions are wrong, or you have gone astray. He works circumstances.
5. Sometimes people respond to His justice and sometimes they react. They do not like it. They reject or ignore His justice.
6. Responding to God's justice in action using faith rest and that always brings vindication to us. That is what David is doing. God requires a relaxed mental attitude when it comes to facing injustice. Easy to blow it here. As a believer, we are given the resources to have a relaxed mental attitude towards our circumstances and situation in life.

David knows the justice of God and the actions of his enemies. He knows that he can wait on God's justice. God will handle it. He can enjoy a relaxed mental attitude. We can be assured that, in every case, God can render judgment in every respect. Vindication for the righteous and condemnation for the wicked. We are all justified by His righteousness. His justice is predisposed to His righteousness.

There is not condemnation by God, as with an unbeliever; those...David faced judgment from time to time when he was out of line. That got him back on track. God will judge David according to God's justice and righteousness. David knows that there will be a favorable outcome.

David also asks that the righteous and omniscient judge would render decisions against all of the evil in the world. Not just his own. This is what God actually does. In doing this, God makes the righteous secure and He upsets the unrighteous.

God does this for individual and for client nations. He acts in complete justice. His justice may prescribe national discipline or even destruction. The northern kingdom of Israel and the southern kingdom of Judah. When you look at former client nations who have gone bad, and you look at them today, and they are in disarray.

The prayers that we might make for God to set things right on the earth. We may want to see the justice of God operate in our nation.

David Calls for God to Act

1. For God's justice to act in a way that we believe is just is not always just. Our justice is fallible.
2. What we want does not always seem to happen. We know what justice is in this case; that is what God should do. God may not do exactly what we want Him to do.

3. We must understand that God's justice is constantly at work against...David wanted to see some judgment against his enemies. God's justice would act at exactly the right time. Things happens from the justice of God only in God's timing.
4. What God does may not always be what we expect or we think. We do not know everything. We do not know how others think.
5. Our sense of justice is not God's sense of justice. He has an entirely different set of criteria. He must take everyone into account. God looks at other people just as much as he looks at us. God sees it all. Our sense of justice is not always His sense of justice.
6. It is a mistake that imperfect humanity makes regarding an infinitely fair God. Often we overlook our own culpability. So easy to see someone else's injustice, but not our own. People blame all kinds of things—laws, governments, people. Often, this is because of what they do. God judges us according to us and what we observe. This includes our interactions with others.
7. Even though God's wheels of justice seem to turn very slowly, but it turns on evil, and God's justice will crush evil. Sometimes, it is quick. Evil will be removed when God returns. God crushes the evil that will destroy Christianity.

This interaction of God's justice and evil is a never-ending battle of time. All evil is a part of the cosmic system and it will continue as long as Satan rules this world. God vs. Satan and his fallen angels. The justice of God operates in that theater as well. We know that we are in the middle of it; but as long as Satan rules, there will be injustice. There will be victories in this world that...

In the millennial rule, God's justice will remove evil. Those who come through the Tribulation, the believers; they will have sin natures. The rule of Christ on the throne will dispense absolute justice. No injustice in the Millennium. The ultimate Judge is on high; and He is the Supreme Court of Heaven. Righteous believers will be vindicated in and through their spiritual life. They will be rewards at the Judgment Seat of Christ.

The Wicked Prospering in the Cosmic System

1. The wicked do prosper in Satan's cosmic system. Why is that person getting all of that blessing?
2. God's justice works on them in ways that we are often unaware of. God never overlooks even a little bit of evil.
3. Do not be discouraged when you see the wicked seeming to escape justice.
4. The wicked's lives are filled with insecurity and fear always. They have no contentment; they have no confidence. They rely on themselves the their evil.
5. They lack confidence because they have rejected the grace and love of God. They rely on their own machinations and the cosmic system.
6. They will feel the righteous judgment of God in the future and sometimes on earth. We might see justice meted out even in this world. Maybe the worse criminal gets off on the worst technicality. The justice of God never stops.

7. God turns the wicked over to the consequences of their own evil. Evil beget evil and instability. Evil begets a mind that is unstable and... God never relents and never stops; and those people never enjoy peace.

The promise for us is faith rest and God's justice. This is the source of our relaxed mental attitude. We have a vindication on earth from the justice of God. We possess His perfect righteousness; and we have vindication through that. Ultimately, God's justice will be done. That does not keep David from asking for justice in the here and now. It is valid for us to do the same thing. No matter how God decides.

Psalm 7:8 The LORD judges the peoples; judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness and according to the integrity that is in me.

David will make that request in v. 9.

Lesson #0066

Psalm 7:9 Wisdom in the OT

2/23/2020 2Sunday

Annual business meeting previous Sunday. Bobby make a statement and threatened to bring the church staff down, but a general rebellion. They said that they would quit. They made a mistake. Memorial service next Sunday.

Psalm 7:9 Oh, let the evil of the wicked come to an end, and may you establish the righteous—you who test the minds and hearts, O righteous God! (Or, For a righteous God tests the minds and the hearts)

He looks at a broader scope of all wickedness and evil. God knows all evil. God would not sanction it. But God knows evil through His omniscience. Here, we understand that God is doing something about it. Just as David has prayed for justice for himself; he prays for all of the righteous. This has an impact right down to this moment. God's justice and righteousness and love are aspects of His essence which act directly with us. God deals with us in love and in righteousness and justice.

At the beginning, God made the angels; and Satan sinned against the Lord. He fell and God condemned him. He was condemned to the Lake of Fire; and Satan appealed this ruling, and he said, "Wait a minute, You are not a loving God to relegate us to the Lake of Fire." And God grants the appeal and human history resolves this conflict. We are created in love and we fell too.

God's righteousness and justice and to condemn us as well. God's love is demonstrated to us as well. He sent His Son to die for us. That is the kind of Love that He has God denied and disproved Satan's appeal. God provides us with everything in His love and grace.

The 3 attributes which meet us where we live. That is what David is calling for us here. It is valid and necessary at this time. Israel has their problems with evil and sin as well, just like any client nation.

David is asking for a judgment against those who persecute him. Equally, David prays for all of the innocent and righteous people who may be vindicated in their righteousness. He prays for justice. David does not think that God will bring all evil to an end. He will never experience in his own lifetime that he will see the removal of all evil. He knows that every person has a sin nature. David has faced off men with sin natures. He understands the evil intent of humanity. There will be a future time when God brings absolute righteousness and justice to this world. God does this. Not David; not a group of believers.

Some Christians believe that Christ will return for the church when we, as believers, prepare the earth for that time. We don't really know God's criteria for such a return.

Do We Bring on the Rapture and the Return of Jesus Christ?

1. We cannot say that we know what that time of return is.
2. Our feeble justice on earth, our works, our evangelism, do not trigger the return of Christ or the rapture of the church.
3. It is always God's justice which does the heavy lifting for the righteous, both now and in the future.
4. No one knows when the Lord will return; but it is not our effort that brings on His return for the...
5. His return will pertain to the cosmic system at work for His justice. We do not know that time.
6. When will the Lord return? No date and no time. When the rampant circumstances of evil and unrighteousness is involved.
7. How does Bobby know this? Remember that there will be a certain alignment of evil nations which will be present at the rapture. They will be converging on Israel, but not until the Tribulation.

The rapture will begin the time of the Tribulation. That will be the time of the most evil time in human history. A terrible time. That is when the abomination of desolation is set up in the Temple. Those circumstances must begin to form. There are only 7 years in the Tribulation. So there must be some formation; and people are always speculating, is this what is happening right now? Do not speculate on the circumstances. What seems to be the right circumstance for the return of the Lord, why are you guessing at that? Are you waiting for this so that you can be pulled out of the fire?

Some say, there are enough believers on earth; or, there is enough justice on the earth for the rapture to occur. The rapture is imminent. It could happen at any moment. We do not need to guess at this timetable. It will happen in this world. There will be an end to evil. There will be an end to the perpetration of evil today. We look at our world today and decide, "I wish we could get rid of this person or that person; or this Congress..."

God's justice is at work now and forever in the future. We don't have to worry about this now or in the future. It will happen.

We need to prepare for that great event; and we do that through spiritual advance. That fulfills God's plan for our lives. Horrendous verdict at Armageddon. Our future will be fair, just and loving. If death is a part of the plan of God for us, that is the best and right thing for us. People fear death more than anything else in this world. We do not have to fear it. God will take us home at just the right time. We can depend upon this and we can have a relaxed mental attitude because of it.

So David's request in v. 8 is for God's final and universal justice. It will be apropos and necessary for this world.

Cush represents an individual who is perpetrating evil. Saul is an evil one. Saul represents the nation as its king and the nation is unjust; Cush represents an individual to be displayed. Render judgment for the righteous, is what David calls for. He leaves it up to God for when and how.

The justice of God is always in operation. God allows us only so much room to be unjust and then He will deal with that. Part of the rationale is, you do not have to know when or how. Patience is a part of the relaxed mental attitude.

So what do I do now? Leave it in the hands of the Lord. His justice is justice and His justice is perfect. David is simply asking God to render judgment for the righteous against the wicked. He leaves it up to God for when and where. It will happen. Do not be impatient. God's justice may be a process. We want to see a lightning bolt; we want to see the wicked crushed. Many times, His justice brings discipline and an evaluation of blessing. Patience is the order of the day. God's justice will operate against the evil and the unrighteous. We can pray for God to come in and bring His justice against the wicked; but then, we stand back and we be patient. The justice of God is in operation.

When you watch television, do not get uptight; do not get upset. God's justice works in the world as well. In one part of the world, the Muslim world. Never a more miserable group of people than the people of Israel. They are always at war and they are at war with themselves and with the world. The justice of God does not leave false religion alone.

You think we should be tolerant of all religions? God is not. But this does not mean that we go out and kill a Muslim for God.

David, an innocent, righteous person, is confident. He is leaving his case and the greater wickedness in the world.

We might feel that we have been treated unjustly and we hire a lawyer and we let that lawyer go to work. In the meantime, we cannot do anything about it. We have an advocate so we sit back and let him work. We deal with God and needed justice in the exact same way. We sit back and let God work. We allow God to establish the righteous. Justice is a process. God reveals it to the world. Sometimes the world recognizes it and sometimes not. Client nations get formed by believers who recognize the justice of God and its function on this earth.

Missions are all about. Jim Meyer's mission is to show to the world Jesus Christ; and to train others to do that same. To start churches and to teach the Word. These are the missions of missionaries. God establishes His righteousness throughout the world. God delivers them, righteous and blesses the nation through them. That is the evaluation of His justice. That is the evaluation of the justice of God to the client nation.

God's justice also works even outside of the client nation. Even when Scriptures are under fire and Christians persecuted. Client nations are judged; but we are judged as well, as the righteous. There will be blessing for us and deliverance for us.

God judges each of us as individuals. God knows when we are in fellowship and when we have wandered from His plan. The client nation may be disciplined. Will you be disciplined with it or will God uphold you with your spiritual life? Or will you be like David that is the message of Psalm 7.

Psalm 7:9 Oh, let the evil of the wicked come to an end, and may you establish the righteous—you who test the minds and hearts, O righteous God!

Lesson #0067                      Psalm 7 Wisdom in the OT                      2/26/2020 Wednesday

Bobby determines how well he is doing by observing people.

This is a great verse; a central verse, a poignant call for the justice of God.

Psalm 7:9 Oh, let the evil of the wicked come to an end, and may you establish the righteous—you who test the minds and hearts, O righteous God!

These are antithetical parallel lines. The righteous are established through divine justice. David understands wickedness and evil, all coming from the sin nature of man. God counters this evil with His grace and love extended towards us, extended to individuals, groups and nations.

God's justice even destroys the wicked. He does this for the benefit of those who are a part of the plan of God. Who knows how the justice of God will act in our favor. Whether it works against us or for us. God's justice is always at work; and His justice is our ally against the cosmic system. So David prays here for the end of this evil and wickedness, personally and corporately.

David is asking for the justice of God to act; to go to work. It is always in operation; and David is acting for a specific act of judgment. He is asking for judgment on a wider scope than just for himself. He prays for all of the innocent, righteous people, that they be established in their righteousness. "Bring it to an end."

God will do this for David on a number of occasions in the future. As he writes, establish the righteous.

Establish the Righteous

1. David can ask for the justice of God to work for himself, for his nation, and in many ways. This is demonstrated to the world.
2. This is the demonstration of God's righteous anger against the cosmic system. Hence the justice of God works in that arena.
3. God would thereby establish the righteous, presenting the justified, spiritually advancing believer, presenting the plan of God for the world to see. God reveals what the spiritual life can do.
4. The justice of God is also the basis of a client nation to God. This is that wider scope.
5. When a righteous pivot of mature believers exists in a nation, God's justice blesses them.
6. Thus God's justice declares them righteous and blesses the nation by association. He judges us righteous as a mature believer and thereby blesses the nation through us. If we are righteous, advancing believer; God establishes us and the nation. That is the whole principle of a client nation of believers.
7. All of that is the evaluation of God's justice. God's justice is an evaluator. It is a courtroom where God evaluates constantly. It is fair, correct, and always to our benefit.

God has accomplished this many times in the Church Age and in the Age of Israel. There has been a great impact of believers who have had a great impact.

Moses, David, Esther, Isaiah (he was the conscience of a nation). Isaiah warned them. Martin Luther was a perfect example of this. He saw the corruption of the vile Catholic church; and he stood up against them, knowing that the justice of God would be with him.

The protestant revolution, with Martin Luther, John Calvin, Zwingly. George Washington showed a great spiritual understanding. Charles Spurgeon, Dwight L. Moody, R. B. Thieme, Jr.; and this includes us and our invisible impact in client nation USA. The justice of God revolves around us, the righteous.

All of those people named have had their day; many of them are gone. They had impact on their society; but their focus was on the justice and grace of God. They were not focused on changing their society. They were great witnesses to the cosmic system. We impact the world for Christ.

That impact does not include mental attitude sins or hatred of the unrighteous; or for the immoral or for unbelievers. It does not include setting aside the rule of law. The solutions of man are not the solutions of God. We cannot know what those solutions are which God has for us. We must understand as David does that the justice of God is in operation.

David is not adding in military prowess; he is not adding in political acumen. David was a spiritual giant. But he did not call upon any of that. He does not add in to God's justice with his own preferences or abilities.

More Doctrine

1. The individual believer adhering to the rule of law and to the spiritual life. Social justice perverts justice, favoring one group over another. Socialism favors one group over another. We who understand the rule of law; and the spiritual life. We demonstrate God's justice.
2. We do not ever demonstrate justice through revenge, vigilanteism, spewing hatred to those we think are unrighteous.
3. Any involvement with mental attitude sins precludes the justice of God being demonstrated through us. The job must be demonstrated in this world. If we project hatred, then justice will never be promoted by us.
4. This denies our witness to the world of unbelievers. We know and understand justice more than any lawyer understands justice. We do not live under the Mosaic Law today. If we understand the justice of God, then we know as much about justice as anyone in the world.
5. If you cannot demonstrate justice in your life, the justice of God will work around you or in spite of you. It will provide divine discipline to correct us.
6. That is the righteous impact of the believer that the justice and grace of God blesses. It absolutely concerns Bobby today that so many believers are showing such hatred and vitriol at the cosmic system and towards the immorality of the cosmic system. Some churches are devoted to fighting against immorality. They focus on a political figure. David's trust is in the justice of God.

The justice of God is in operation. Illustration given to Bobby, someone facing injustice and it was resolved right in front of his eyes. It works that way, sooner or later. When you face the injustice of man, in the military, in a court of law, anywhere; the justice of God is at work.

An Application

1. Be very careful where your priorities are.
2. The cosmic system and its adherents, the unrighteous, are inherently evil and we certainly stand against them as believers in Jesus Christ.
3. Ultimately, the justice of God is at work and we must step aside, bowing to that priority. Life is so much more relaxing and we can be more encouraged by bowing to the justice of God, in adversity or in prosperity. In prosperity, we might face even more adversity and injustice.
4. You do not want the justice of God adjusting to you. Coming back on your head. Because you enlisted the human viewpoint methods to deal with problems. Or you depend upon the cosmic system for justice.
5. Human approaches to injustice often perpetrates more injustice. Social justice can become more injustice. Socialism can cause more injustice than anything else. Socialism is of the cosmic system; and it is a perpetrator of evil. Some people think socialism sounds great. "My student loans will go away."
6. Applying the spiritual life is the only way for us to combat injustice; and stand for divine establishment and truth. Our spiritual life is key to all of this.

7. Let the wisdom of God's Word be our guide in resistance to evil. What on earth can I do? "If you just get out there and vote." Or "If you just get out there and carry a sign to make a difference." Let the information from Bible doctrine to guide us in our spiritual life. We will have the opportunity to do more, if we learn doctrine first.

There is good in Satan, in the sense that it looks good; human good. He is a creature of great seduction and he does it in many ways. He disguises evil as good. Satan does this in so many ways. Do not follow the human good or the evil of the cosmic system. Divine establishment, Bible doctrine, and understanding the justice of God is what we should lean on.

David continues in v. 9d:

Psalm 7:9 Oh, let the evil of the wicked come to an end, and may you establish the righteous—you who test the minds and hearts, O righteous God!

David Depends upon God's Justice

1. This is a statement of David's confidence in the justice of God. The righteous God will do that.
2. God is aware of all motives and thoughts. No one hides anything from God. You might think that no one knows what injustice is being perpetrated against you. No human may no, but nothing is hidden from God, ever. This is why we can be so encouraged and relaxed by applying the justice of God rationale.
3. God's justice knows and judges rightly. He has it well in hand. Who will solve this injustice? So many times in the military, and Bobby was in there for 10.5 years, you run into injustice. Sometimes it is very difficult to know what to do. How do you handle a boss who is overbearing, incompetent and he does not like you; and he wants to give you an efficiency report to ruin your career.
4. This is the basis for his and our confidence. That is the attitude of David. The righteous God tries. This is bachan.

Bobby is going to give an example. He was an instructor in the Ranger school at Fort Benning. The Colonel there was a first class tyrant of a jerk. No one had anything good to say about him. So he points to Bobby and says, "You will be my adjutant." He had a great desire to become a general officer. It came time for him to leave. There was a farewell dinner and Bobby was to collect money for a present for the outgoing commander. He got no money. "We don't care if he gets a present or not." And the commander has not written Bobby's efficiency report. Bobby prayed and called his father. Bob had the perfect solution.

I have a custom-made knife in Atlanta and he is one of the greatest. Bob would call him to inscribe the guy's name on one side and Ranger on the other. This was a hunting knife. Bobby presented this knife. There were 30 officers there. All of them were shamed. Many came to apologize to him. This was truly the justice of God in every way. Nothing Bobby could have done about that. The justice of God was at work.

Bachan

1. This means to examine, to test.
2. Hence, this means to take on the connotation of a courtroom scene and God is the examiner.
3. In this courtroom, witnesses are being called and evidence is being examined. A picture of the justice of God.
4. What is it being tested for. It is being tested for truth or falsehood. God does not have to test it; He knows it. But the justice of God does this for us. God does test; and we learn from this.
5. David is presenting God's administering justice as if God were in the courtroom. In the courtroom, God is trying a legal case as a court justice. The witnesses on trial are the witnesses, and God is able to discern their hearts and minds. God knows the motives of their thinking. Everyone who has ever lived or who will ever live. Those cases are all brought before the justice of God, all included. That is the complete and perfect examination of the justice of God.

Closing Points: God tests our thoughts

1. It is God's Word, hence God Who examines the thoughts and intents of the heart and the mind. The inner person; what they think. He can examine that.
2. As we gain wisdom, we gain greater insight to cosmic system thinking. We are able to recognize the pitfalls and the justice of God as it works. We can stay from the justice of God adjusting to us.
3. We can ascertain God's justice in response to the cosmic system. We have no excuse for being naive with the cosmic system. None. The more we advance spiritually, the more you understand divine viewpoint and the cosmic system as well; so that you can combat the cosmic system and avoid its pitfalls.
4. We are what we think. Therefore, our thoughts and intents are exactly who we are. You can only know your own thoughts. God knows all of it.
5. Thus God is able to judge who we are, wicked or not, from our personal thoughts and attitudes, of which He is always aware.
6. We can become more aware as we grow spiritually. More importantly, we can see the results as we know the workings of God and His justice. Bobby can look back on many instances where he can see how the justice of God worked and worked in his favor. At the time, he did not realize this was the justice of God. Bob was simply an instrument of the justice of God.
7. God judges from his divine viewpoint which we have access to as the Word of God, Bible doctrine, divine wisdom. This is why this study.
8. God is omniscient; He is a God of absolute justice and righteousness. He knows all, he knows who we are; He knows our sins and righteousness; He knows our advancement and retreating. He judges, evaluates and tests accordingly; and for our benefit.
9. God can and will repay each one according to what he or she deserves. That is the justice of God. A court of law does not always dispense justice properly. That is never the case with God. God can and will repay according to what He observes.

If we never get satisfied from injustice; God is still dealing with the justice of life all around you.

10. God's judgments are never wrong.
11. He knows wicked intent and thinking, even though it may be hidden from our view. Maybe by an exterior of righteousness and good deeds. God cuts through all of that. God evaluates and judges accordingly; the they are repaid accordingly. They can fool people, but never God.

Lesson #0068

Psalm 7 Wisdom in the OT

2/27/2020 Thursday

Psalm 7:9 Oh, let the evil of the wicked come to an end, and may you establish the righteous—you who test the minds and hearts, O righteous God!

The righteous God examines the hearts and minds. This can be hidden from others; but not from God. God knows us, the evil in us, all that we have accomplished as divine good. David prays, but he does not mean that he expects all evil or wickedness will come to an end, not right then or in the near future.

He is asking for the wickedness of the enemy arrayed against him to come to an end. His prayer also has a wider scope, which includes us, from the corridors of time, which comes down to us and includes us. This is a universal call for deliverance. This is never out of place for any of us at any time or at any place.

The center of the cosmic system and of the Angelic Conflict. When a believer of any era, including ours, is unjustly oppressed, we can pray for that evil to come to an end. We are given that right to pray. We may pray that God establish us as the righteous. He may or He may not; He may delay it. Sometimes it remains for our benefit. God establishes the righteous ones and His justice works for all of us.

Asking for God's justice is not presumptuous to ask for this. This is a legitimate prayer. If you can recognize evil, then you can call for it to end in a realm here or there. Even good can be evil, if it is a part of the cosmic system. It may be an individual or at a national scale. There are many things which we may pray for regarding our own nation. Bobby trusts us because we understand divine establishment; and we can distinguish between divine good, human good and wickedness.

David sets up a bit of wisdom here. Only by the divine Supreme Court of Heaven can all of this evil be uncovered and brought to an end. It will not always be in the way that we want. Always; no one can hide from God and His justice. God's court is always in session.

David sums up these issues, which is completely the prerogative of the Lord. David has nothing to fear concerning the justice of God; he has everything to gain from it. If we are growing spiritually, we have nothing to fear from it.

Since we have nothing to fear from God, we can always expect a square deal. Only those who are out of line have a reason to fear God. Staying in line requires discipline from time to time. The more self-discipline that we have, the more opportunity we have to grow spiritually. The justice of God is a rationale which we can depend upon.

David will speak of God's justice as a shield.

Psalm 7:10 My shield is with God, who saves the upright in heart.

David Depends upon God

1. David's safety depends upon God. He is a genius in literature and poetry. He says that his shield is with God. How many of us as self-sufficient people see ourselves as needing no one else. David says that is baloney.
2. Deliverance rests upon God and David knows it. Because he knows it, he claims this as his own. It is his and he claims it. He gets it.
3. Whatever else David may depend upon for help is secondary. Ultimately, our line of defense is with God. Our last line of defense and our first line of defense is with God.
4. That is David's basis for withstanding every difficulty that he faces..."My shield is with God."
5. Faith in the Lord and the use of the faith rest drill. David knows that he is covered by the Lord. He uses this rationale to handle adversity. It is the shield of God's justice which will deliver David. Deliverance and protection.

Military imagery is found in v. 10;

Psalm 7:10 My shield is with God, who saves the upright in heart.

A small number of people in the US do not understand the military; and some military images are lost on us.

In that era, the men took up arms. When they took up arms, it was the able bodied men of Israel. This was sung in the synagogue or in the Tabernacle; and when they were sung, everyone understood the imagery.

The shield here is a defensive weapon and it was carried by any soldier to relate to his own defense. This is something that was part of what the soldier carried. Everyone was familiar with a soldier's equipment.

God Protects David

1. The enemy has been throwing the spears and arrows of their words at David. All of this is analogous. Cush and probably Saul have been accusing David of all sorts of evil. These are arrows and spears thrown at David.
2. God is not only the judge of their falsehoods, which David is confident of and praying for.
3. God is David's defender as well. It is a passive aspect and an active one.

4. David stands behind the greatest protection that any man can have; the defense of the Lord. There are people all over the world at this moment who are scared to death of a virus. Do we worry about this virus? Who is the Lord. The mask shields the one breathing out, not breathing in. God is that mask over our mouth. A great illustration of God protecting us.
5. We might include here the analogy, one we have heard many times, the defense line in the soul. This is our shield.

The acronym is FLOT. Rick Hughes broadcast is called the FLOT line. It is a perfect illustration of the defenses which we have. This is a coined term from military jargon. Divine defense in the soul.

The FLOT Line

1. Forward line of troops.
2. Used metaphorically for the first line of defense against any problem that we face.
3. This line is formed in the believer's soul. All of this defines our shield.
4. As doctrine is believed and understood, it circulates through the right lobe of the soul. It circulates through the stream of consciousness through the right lobe of the soul.
5. This is the result of Operation Z. This is the whole picture of our spiritual life by means of our little chart. We learn how to distinguish in our conscience. Wisdom is the product. We are doing this and it is flowing through our stream of consciousness. As such, we are gaining wisdom. We begin to build problem solving devices.
6. Doctrine metabolized, inculcated and flowing in the stream of consciousness results in the formation of problem solving devices in the right lobe of the soul.
7. Then 10 problem solving devices for the spiritual life are deployed in a forward defense line, our shield.
8. They effectively protect the soul. It is our conscience, our volition; it is who we are. It protects the soul against the outside pressures of adversity. Suffering for blessing means that we will advance more rapidly. Adversity and prosperity can equally put pressure on the spiritual life.
9. This shield is the primary defense of every maturing believer; especially against the false doctrines of the cosmic system. It is a defense against the cosmic system doctrine. Divine viewpoint is not divine viewpoint is we mix it with something else.
10. This shield is impenetrable when maintained and deployed. You cannot be assaulted.

We have this shield which we have to pick up as we begin to built. The faith rest drill is a major part of this shield. We become doctrinally and grace oriented. This is critical in how we think. Grace and doctrine are at the center of this.

These problem solving devices are the FLOT line. That is what we have when we pick up the shield. All of these attacks bang against the shield and it holds steady. It does not work unless we have His doctrine. It does not work without divine viewpoint. Our shield is with God. That is how it is defined.

Every one of those defense line resources in that book (which book?). This all happens by growing spiritually.

The diagram that Bobby is showing is a genius diagram, a picture of our spiritual life. It is the application of the spiritual life to adversity. My shield is with God.

Faith rest is a very basic aspect of the shield. It is what David is deploying right here. It is not just about him; but this is the man who will be king. He has already been anointed leader of Israel. He will need his FOT in any aspect of his reign.

David's reliance on the Lord alone is his sure defense. Israel had a tendency to wander off; to drop the shield. David was well-known in Israel for his coolness under pressure. Those are the people that you trust the most. Some people are easy to follow, even into battle. They are cool and controlled under any circumstance.

David was always thinking under pressure. David was a man after God's own heart. David's heart was with the Lord. This adversity and the resulting psalm is the visual on the faith rest life. Vv. 9–10 are the center of this psalm. Maybe v. 11 as well.

What else does David need more than the FLOT line. This is how we live in this life; this is how we handle life and how we are victorious in the Christian life. David claims his innocence in all Israel. He places himself in the ranks of the upright. The shield of justice is justified. As a good soldier, he is innocent. Israel is in a position to watch it; to watch it work.

The people worshiped the God that David worshiped; they did not worship David.

The administration of the shield of justice. When that FLOT is present in the soul, formed from the doctrine that we have metabolized.

Eccles. 7:12 For the protection of wisdom is like the protection of money, and the advantage of knowledge is that wisdom preserves the life of him who has it.

Wisdom is protection; that is what Solomon writes. Do you depend upon your faith or upon your wallet. The advantage of knowledge is, wisdom preserves the lives of those who possess it. Wisdom is the shield of the FLOT. David's wisdom is centered in his knowledge of doctrine.

Bobby likes the analogy, between wisdom and money.

Money as a Problem Solving Device

1. There is a certain type of safety and security in money. If you only have a dollar in your bank account, you might be in trouble.

2. If money solves a problem, then you don't have a problem.
3. Money is an unstable security because it can be lost. There are certain problems that money cannot solve. Solomon had plenty of money, but he was in reversionism.
4. Money cannot solve a spiritual problem in any way. The world thinks that money is the final solution. If you just have money, then you have security. Money buys things that nothing else can. Money does not buy the ultimate protection, which is the Lord.
5. Wisdom is a sure shield; a sure defense and protection, it never fails. Money fails.
6. Wisdom as a shield is far beyond what money can supply for protection. People might say, "Having money is better than having none." But tomorrow, it might be gone. If you have money, that is not total security. People with money are afraid that they are going to lose it. Like the plunge of the stock market.
7. This comparison is especially effective because many understand wealth to be a source of security. Most think that money is security.
8. It is nothing compared to divine wisdom in the soul. The one who possesses wisdom and the shield of the Lord applies and deploys faith rest.

God is the One Who upholds the soul of the growing believer. God's justice honors that wisdom in the believer's soul. He gives us the shield, the resources which we need. The wisdom in place preserves and keeps the believer alive and well. This is David's absolute confidence of deliverance.

David will now shift his tone from v. 10 to v. 11. He will express great confidence from this point forward in this psalm.

Psalm 7:11 God is a righteous judge, and a God who feels indignation every day.

Lesson #0069

Psalm 7 Wisdom in the OT

3/1/2020 1Sunday

Eucharist March 1, 2020

Eisenhower Silver dollar; not circulated today; and it contains real silver, which coins today are not.

Some Herodians and others had a question which would be a trap for the Lord. Any such question was designed to incriminate Him.

Mark 12:13 And they sent to Him some of the Pharisees and some of the Herodians, to trap Him in His talk.

Not usually two groups who hung together or were allied. However, here they were. They were willing to work together to discredit the Lord.

Mark 12:14 And they came and said to Him, "Teacher, we know that You are true and do not care about anyone's opinion. For You are not swayed by appearances, but truly teach the way of God. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not? Should we pay them, or should we not?"

They first set the Lord up with flattery, trying to get Him off balance, so that He is blind sided by this question.

Mark 12:15 But, knowing their hypocrisy, He said to them, "Why put Me to the test? Bring Me a denarius and let Me look at it."

Jesus knows He is being setup and He points this out. He is going to answer their question based upon the coin that they hand Him.

Mark 12:16 And they brought one. And He said to them, "Whose likeness and inscription is this?" They said to Him, "Caesar's."

Rulers often had their image emblazoned on coins. This made the coins valuable.

Mark 12:17 Jesus said to them, "Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." And they marveled at Him.

Bobby considers the silver dollar. The Eisenhower dollar is 75% copper and a copper center; and some nickel. There is some inherent value in the silver, making that coin valuable. The basic material found on earth is contained in that metal.

Metal is assayed, and then heated into a die; and stamped to show its origin. Whenever we hold a coin, it is the work of another.

This reminds us that man is a work of God. Man does not just happen as a result of thousands of years of evolution.

The ultimate origin of that silver is God, in Gen. 1:1.

There is the image of Dwight David Eisenhower. On the image of life is God's Own image. This is the essence of our soul, the immaterial part of our being.

Someday, we will stand before God. Jesus Christ is the coin of the realm, of great inherent value. Jesus is offered once, to bear the sins of many. There is no judgment; only salvation. Once a newly minted silver dollar is circulated. Money will buy almost everything. Money can also be a cursing. A person can put a shiny coin next to his eye and blind himself. Its material worth blinds them to anything and anyone around them.

They seek money to the exclusion of all else. Money will not buy the most precious commodity of all, our life.

The Lord Jesus Christ paid the price for our redemption, to remove us from the slave market of sin. To abolish the barrier between us and God. No minted coin or gold or silver can purchase us from death from God.

If the coin were brittle, then it would crack under pressure and be of little value. Too many are stubborn; they go to pieces under pressure.

John 7:17 If anyone's will is to do God's will, he will know whether the teaching is from God or whether I am speaking on my own authority.

The believer's inculcation of Bible doctrine and the glorification of God. On the coin is stamped, one dollar, which is what the coin professes to be. It does not say one thing but mean another.

We must see clearly our own value before God. As it is written, there is none righteous, not even one....they have all turned aside....there is not even one.

God can have nothing to do with us, because we are tarnished.

Rom. 4:5 And to the one who does not work but believes in him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness,

While you were yet sinners, Christ died for you. The possessor of the coin can buy goods from anywhere in the country.

The silver dollar represents the true worth or value; we were created last.

The Lord Jesus Christ did not die on the cross for spotted owls, snail darters, or any other beast, large or small. He conferred value on the individual soul which He created. That is the intrinsic importance of every human being.

Liberty is proclaimed on both sides of the dollar coin. Liberty in the spiritual realm is the most important. You will know the truth and the truth will make you free.

We are freed by a payment in the coin of the realm, the payment of His blood. By this payment, we are made truly free, the son.

In God we trust and e pluribus unim. are two other sayings on the coin. "Out of many, one." This is a reference to the various states. For the believer. Christ died for all of us, unlimited atonement. Having concluded that One died for all. All believers are dead to sin; we are all in union with Christ. All of us possess the same spiritual life as Jesus Christ.

Communion is a test to see if we have enough doctrine stamped into our souls. We must remember these things as we meditate on the Lord Jesus Christ. It must be meaningful so that we understand exactly what we are doing.

Lesson #0070

Psalm 7 Wisdom in the OT

3/1/2020 2Sunday

As David goes to v. 11, he expresses a great deal more confidence. He has been pleading and petitioning God to go after his enemies.

David is no longer pleading; he confidently predicts an outcome, based upon his solid trust in the Lord.

Psalm 7:11 God is a Righteous Judge, and a God who feels indignation every day.

This is God's essential justice and He is our judge.

God has indignation or anger every day. This is a statement of confidence by David. "I know that I am in trouble, I know that I am facing injustice, but God is a Righteous Judge." The justice of God rationale. This is the exact statement that Bobby is making every day. God is the Righteous Judge Who dispenses justice, every day. His justice never stops; the Supreme Court of Heaven is always in session. God never takes a recess.

Sometimes the justice or the discipline for disobedience or sinfulness may also be in view. God's justice and His application always properly fits the sin. Every day that we live, the justice of God is in operation. Our confidence is never misplaced in God. Even His judgments are always done in conjunction with love and justice.

God judged Sodom, based upon His righteous standards; and the violation of those standards. The love and grace was in the reprieve that God gave to that city. God agreed with Abraham, if there were 10 righteous men in Sodom, that would be enough to keep back the punishment of Sodom...but that man could not be found.

God's justice is perfect; and there was love also directed towards those who were victims of the people of Sodom. We know God should judge other people and be lenient towards us.

2Peter 3:9 The Lord is not slow to fulfill his promise as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should reach repentance.

God is patient towards us, but at some point, that comes to an end. God does not wish for any to perish. God wants all to come to a place of repentance. God dispenses justice in His Own time. We often think that it is slow and not applied when we think it ought to be. The faith rest drill and the justice of God rationale demands patience on our part. That is what faith rest is all about. Allow God to handle things at the proper time. “Vindicate me, O Lord,” David sings. But here, David is saying, “You are the righteous Judge.”

When you have some spiritual maturity, then you know to wait on God, because He is the Righteous Judge. God’s essence is our vindication; we know that we can trust Him.

“But this has messed up my life!” No it hasn’t. God vindicates us through His plan. What happens to us now and in the future vindicates us. God’s patience is an expression of love so that His judgments may be postponed or removed. Every day, His justice is applied.

God applied His justice to Sodom. God allows the law of volitional responsibility to run its course. Rom. 1:24–25 Therefore God gave them up in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, to the dishonoring of their bodies among themselves, because they exchanged the truth about God for a lie and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever! Amen.

In case you wonder, why has this never been dealt with. Rebound and keep moving; moving forward. Don’t stop at rebound; keep moving forward in the spiritual life. God’s justice never ceases. This verse and what follows is about the constant activity of God’s justice.

V. 11 is the high point of this chapter, the central point, as it is the center of this chapter.

The Application of God’s Justice

1. This verse marks the beginning of God justice and righteousness. Also for the fate of the wicked who oppose him. David has gotten upset; he knows God’s justice works and he is just trying to push the jet a little. “You’re a righteous Judge; take over.”
2. This is a prediction of the unjust and evildoers by God’s justice. This is where it begins. When you apply mental attitude sins to the circumstances, it can only get worse for you. There is no way to live.
3. It also marks a transition for a particular prayer by David to a general praise of God’s actions. The metaphor in v. 12 is what we can comprehend. A metaphor for the destruction that God can bring upon anyone.

Psalm 7:11 God is a Righteous Judge, and a God who feels indignation every day.

David moves forward in v. 12

Psalm 7:12 If a man does not repent, God will whet his sword; he has bent and readied his bow;

if the person does not change his mind about wickedness, sin, reversionism; then God will sharpen His sword and there are deadly weapons produced.

A general statement of God’s justice:

Psalm 7:13 he has prepared for him his deadly weapons, making his arrows fiery shafts.

Do you want some retaliation; do you want to get your own pound of flesh?

David begins with a military metaphor.

Psalm 7:12 If a man does not repent, God will whet his sword; he has bent and readied his bow;

A sharpened sword is the most effective sword. It cuts through flesh, bone, armor, etc.

People get up close and begin hacking away at each other with sword. Today, our infantry fights at a distance. Only occasionally does the infantry go hand to hand. Last bayonet charge might go back 70 years to Korea.

Nothing like the mass casualties by sword. Kingdom of Heaven is very graphic and shows a very bloody reality. Using the terrible sword as a graphic picture. The picture of God slashing away at those problems.

When Bobby was in elementary school; and they learned Dixie and the other was The Battle of the Republic; and the first few words have come to Bobby. This describes the justice of God in war. The Civil War was one of the greatest wars in America's history.

God brings discipline and even destruction. Israel survived; and they continue to survive. The diaspora is still on. God judges evil when it is found, especially in a client nation. The client nation represents God in this world. We as a client nation are to represent God, but increasingly, we are not. God may be sharpening His sword right now. Those in reversionism will fall under the slashing sword. The mature believers may be a part of the collateral damage. Casualties in war. All of these fall under the sharpening of the sword.

There are all sorts of ways that God examines our life. This is why we keep short accounts using rebound. There is no substitute for being inside the plan of God. God will give us all the opportunity to get back into His plan. There is the sharpened sword and the possibility of destruction.

Psalm 7:12b ...he has bent and readied his bow;

This is an analogy like the sharpened sword. This is a prior preparation for combat. When the bow is not in use, the tension of the string must be released. There is a notch in a bow; and there is a loop. You bend the bow, and the string can be removed; or the string can be attached. This is preserved for a time when it is needed. The string is often made of animal gut, and it will stretch and go slack over time. The power of this string and bow will be lessened if left attached. The bow must be reattached for combat. In order for the bow to be ready for combat, the bow is prepared and the string is reattached to the bent bow. They remain in good shape. They retain this strength; not over-stretched. Both are ready to be fired for maximum velocity.

Today we make sure a weapon is clear and zeroed. A lot of maintenance for the weaponry today. It takes even more maintenance today. Double bows must still be maintained today for effective use.

David knew about swords, slings and bows. He used all of these. What a perfect analogy to the justice of God, ready to go.

Remember that the justice of God is always fair. It is infinitely fair. We always think of punishment as being unfair. How many times when Bobby gives someone an article 15, which means taking money out of their pay, and they say, "That's not fair, sir." There is no excuse before the justice of God. God knows exactly what is right or wrong. God knows exactly what we need. We may be recalcitrant; and we may need our rear ends kicked to be on track. It is always to our benefit to be back on track.

We know that God loves us. This is an example of how much God loves us. Just like the parent who knows how to apply just the right amount of discipline to get the message across to his son or daughter.

Psalm 7:12 If a man does not repent, God will whet his sword; he has bent and readied his bow;

Lesson #0071

Psalm 7 Wisdom in the OT

3/4/2020 Wednesday

Psalm 7:12 If a man does not repent, God will whet his sword; he has bent and readied his bow;...

If a man changes his mind, then God's discipline is not necessary.

Psalm 7:13 ....He has prepared for him His deadly weapons, making His arrows fiery shafts.

David uses weapons of war to describe the application of God's justice to the circumstances. Putting an edge on a sword requires skill. It slashes and cuts through helmets and breastplates and flesh and bones.

God is always patient; He is waiting for a change of mind. God waits for a change; but, God still makes preparation just in case the person does not change. If there is no repentance. God will deal with the client nation which no longer serves its purpose. The northern kingdom went out and it was never reconstituted. The southern kingdom went out for 70 years. 50,000 Hebrews returned with Zerubbabel. They build the wall, to protect against their enemies.

Psalm 7:12 If a man does not repent, God will whet his sword; he has bent and readied his bow;

The second metaphor in v. 12 is making the bow ready. It is bent, necessary to prepare the bow for combat. The string is stretched and the wood is under tension; so this would only be done for battle. The rest of the time, the string is at rest and the bow is not bent.

When an arrow flies, it is devastating at impact. It must be made ready for war to be maximum effectiveness.

If you have done any archery at all, you fire these little round tips. Those tips used for hunting and for war and much different. They are used today, and they arrow heads are known as broad heads. The general shape has been maintained for a long time. It penetrates for maximum impact and maximum knockdown power. This is what the Lord is preparing to use. It can have the same stopping power as a high caliber rifle.

Big game is hunted all over the world using a bow. The hunter has to do more stalking and the hunter needs to get closer for a good shot.

When the broad head hits the target, it is devastating.

When Bobby first met Rick Hughes, at an arm-wrestling contest; they are the same kind of people and are the same kind of people. He was a very serious archer at one time and he was a very good shot with a bow; an avocation of his, as well as fishing. Bobby said that he had done some archery and was a fairly good shot. Rick took him out for a hunt of feral hogs in Georgia. They went to Tifton, GE. Up before dawn and drove and then walked in a few hours. A tree blind allowing for a key field for shooting. Rick gets into his own.

There was a pile of corn below Bobby to bait the hog. They have a very distinctive odor. The odor remains and it was quite strong. Bobby is checking every thing and waited, for a long time, and saw nothing. Noon, Rick said let's get out of here.

Surrounding Rick's car was a herd of 30 hogs. Went under the legs of 5 hogs and hit nothing but dirt. He managed to miss all of them.

So the broad head arrow fired by the Lord would be devastating.

Psalm 7:12 If a man does not repent, God will whet his sword; he has bent and readied his bow;...

David wants some vindication. God showed in Sodom what He might do.

God's judgment fell upon David's son, Absalom; and even on David for a time.

When divine establishment principles are rejected by unbelievers. This suggests that justice is coming. When there is anti-establishment principles, God fires His arrows; or to believers who do not rebound.

Psalm 7:13 ...He has prepared for him His deadly weapons, making His arrows fiery shafts.

David is calling for a sword and some arrows. These weapons can be used defensively and offensively. God may use these for our protection.

Deadly weapons and fiery shafts, cocked and ready to go.

These arrows can do great damage, and this could devastate a large area with a rain of fiery arrows which can start of fire and cause great destruction.

In the ancient world, warriors would use these arrows to try to burn people out from their cover and protection.

If the sword and arrows of judgment are prepared and used, David can depend upon this. This is David's faith rest rationale.

The shield is another way to describe the faith rest drill. God is ready to use this weaponry for us.

God's Weaponry

1. These two verses describe weapons that are set, primed and ready for use.
2. The firing by God does not take place until caused to be triggered by the unrepentant and their increasing evil. God is also quite ready to bless those who respond to the plan of God. But He is cocked and ready to destroy the evil which destroy the client nation.
3. Even these denunciations of the wicked are not absolute. God is ready, but He is patient.
4. The sword and the arrows being fired are dependent upon the enemy's persistence in evil. God can prepare His weapons and He can break them down.
5. God fires only if the offenders do not change their minds about their wickedness and evil.
6. There is always grace before judgment. This is why God is described as being ready with His weapons to use. They will only be used on those who are fully deserving of it. God is not responding in arbitrary anger. God gives every chance to change the mind. But if it is lock-in negative volition, locked-in arrogance, then God will use His weaponry.

God's threats here are strong. The justice of God is the most powerful prohibitive weapon. This is emphasized throughout. This chapter is about the justice of God.

This is not about a personal grudge that David has. All of these people accuse David of things which he has not done. He could be bitter; he could hold a grudge, but that is not what is happening here.

It is not about David. He has a relaxed mental attitude. He also understands the gravity of the situation. The justice of God is the only thing that can vindicate him.

There is no question here of them deserving the sword and the arrows. It is a complete change of subject.

This metaphor that David uses here describes the process. This does not describe a particular set of acts; but this is man's general course of conduct when it comes to wickedness. This is not about a particular sin that bothers David or bothers God.

Psalm 7:13 ...He has prepared for him His deadly weapons, making His arrows fiery shafts.

Psalm 7:14 Behold, the wicked man conceives evil and is pregnant with mischief and gives birth to lies.

The Metaphors Found in Psalm 7:14

1. All 3 verbs are used as a metaphorical description of delivering wickedness.
2. The stages of the human reproduction process are used to describe the process of developing wickedness.
3. Instead of a child being born, wickedness, mischief and falsehood are being born.
4. This seems to reverse the process of giving birth. These are out of order.

Travailing Before Conceiving.

1. The falsehood which is described here are the lies about David. David wants God to deal with these.
2. That is the cause of David's current situation of travailing with wickedness.
3. Therefore, in the analogy, the order becomes understandable.
4. In the second half of the verse, the conception of mischief does precede the bringing forth of falsehood, which is the correct sequencing.
5. This causes the travail of wickedness.
6. What we can say about this analogy, this sequence of reproduction might represent the cause. Now we are getting into different types.

Metonym

1. This is the figure of speech used here.
2. A metonym indicates a noun that changes.
3. One noun is used instead of another. The nouns have a certain relation.
4. In this context, conception and childbirth, called bringing forth, stand in a certain relation with travailing. It stand for the overall cause of wickedness. The cause is put in for the effect. The reproductive process is put in for the process that it represents.

This Metonym

1. Travails with wickedness represents the effect.
2. The conception of the mischief and the bringing forth of falsehood. This is not the way that we normally think of conceiving children.
3. Conception and delivery This is the process and what happens in between is the travail.

4. Wickedness is what God is set to punish.
5. The origin of the travail of wickedness is metaphorically described as conception, pregnancy and delivery; all falling under the category of travail.
6. This is why travail is placed first. It is the focus of the entire analogy.

Psalm 7:14 Behold, the wicked man conceives evil and is pregnant with mischief and gives birth to lies.

From Berachah streaming lesson.

This is a new lesson, Bobby facing an empty auditorium. He does not like it.

He has been in his house for the past week about the pandemic; and he posted a letter. We may need to find this website now. What will God do during a crisis, what do we learn. We are not to worry about what is the cause and who is to blame. We must focus on God during this crisis. The Lord is my Rock and my fortress and my Deliverer, my Shield...

No matter what kind of crisis, this verse applies; we must apply it to our life. Plagues are not new. Bobby names a few. All civilizations have faced diseases. Israel was no exception. God used this plague to discipline people. If you act with hostility against Me, God promises, I will increase this on you 10x. The solution is the same. Faith rest for the believer in Jesus Christ. For it is He Who delivers you from the snare of the trapper and from the deadly pestilence.

This is a test. We are not to criticize or to spread rumors. Protection of its citizens is one of the best purposes of government. Just remember Whose justice is active in all the world. We do not know what God's plan is for this client nation. Clearly He has a purpose; that is the faith rest attitude. We have the total solution in a crisis. We look to the Lord with confidence for help. We have most problem solvers than David have. Use faith rest. This is an opportunity to shine, to present the attitude of the mature believer. This should be your finest hour.

Why is Bobby no live streaming. Please stop harassing the staff and demanding it. The final decision is his alone. There are very good reasons not to stream live to individuals. Some are complaining that every other church is live streaming. Bobby is not concerned about what others do. The doctrine will continue to flow. You must be positive to it no matter how it is presented. These current classes spoken to an empty auditorium are being recorded for normal distribution. While we are following the government mandate not to assemble, they will be posted on the website. The posting will be discontinued once we can assemble again. We will always adhere to assembling ourselves together. Bobby is not for individuals sitting at home.

Psalm 7 is a call for God's justice to act against David's enemy. David describes what God's justice will do in vv.

Psalm 7:12 If a man does not repent, God will whet his sword; he has bent and readied his bow;...

If there is no change of mind, God will continue to slash with His sword, using whatever.

God's Justice and the Client Nation

1. One reason for the pandemic that we are experiencing, this could be a warning from God's justice to this client nation. Warning discipline. There may be more.
2. That is a nation which has turned away from God, His Word, divine establishment laws and their morality.
3. This same type of discipline is what God did to Israel in the 5 cycles of discipline. Two passages. Lev.26.
4. God will not let evil proliferate to the point of client nation destruction. He will provide warning discipline, like a parent punishing a recalcitrant child. Sometimes, God will remove the client nation status.
5. It is up to the people of the client nation to respond or to reject. That is true of the believers who must continue to grow and demonstrate faith rest.

If the people are incorrigible in their evil, David describes what will happen. There will be a bent bow, a bow with maximum power. Brings forth falsehood.

Psalm 7:13 he has prepared for him his deadly weapons, making his arrows fiery shafts.

Psalm 7:14 Behold, the wicked man conceives evil and is pregnant with mischief and gives birth to lies.

Bearing Wickedness

1. All 3 verbs are used as a metaphorical description.
2. What does it represent?
3. It represents the human reproduction process; to describe the development of wickedness.
4. Instead of a child being born, wickedness, mischief and falsehood are born. The reproduction of life is a metaphor.

More Points on V. 14

1. This represents a cause; the conception of the mischief. The bringing forth of falsehood.
2. In the analogy, conception and delivery of a child are the organic causes of the travail of wickedness.
3. What is born thru that travail? Wickedness and that is what God is ready to deal with.
4. The origin of the travail described as conception, pregnancy and delivery; the whole process of reproduction in the woman.
5. This all falls under the category of travail. This is the focus of the analogy. All of this process is travail.

This is a metaphor from conception to childbirth; much pain and much discomfort is caused, a metaphor for the travailing of wickedness. It is a bit involved. Not confusing to mothers. Bobby is going to get even more complex.

The Reality of Pain Caused by Wickedness Is Quite Clear

1. This is a layered metaphor that surrounds the travail. It has several implications to wickedness connected to the woman's pregnancy carrying to term and the birth.
2. A woman labors painfully in childbirth and throughout the process as God said she would. This is a part of the curse announced to Adam and the woman.
3. The woman lovingly brings forth the life of the child.
4. So too does the unrepentant sinner writhe in its grasp.
5. He or she loves it as well, becomes attached to it as born in his or her soul. There is pain involved and love for it as well.
6. This chabal is described as conceiving mischief; that is the writhing.
7. The seed of mischief has been planted in their wicked mind. It must be conceived first before it can be born.
8. So it is lovingly brought forth as falsehood. Another word used in that verse.
9. They are attached to falsehood. It is their way of life and they love it. On a national scale, this is the cause for discipline. The love and attachment to wickedness in a client nation.

Israel became attached to the wickedness of other nations and their religions. The client nation Israel was destroyed and reconstituted.

As a client nation, can we be described as loving wickedness. There is no doubt that the corona virus is a part of all this. God has a purpose; watch and see.

Israel often forgot God after a crisis. David presents a picture of his wicked enemies. They hatched their false accusations against him. Cush probably gave these false accusations to Saul. They are only too wicked and evil. Conceiving it, bearing with it, and travailing with it. His enemies love it and wallow in it. They love their mischief and bring forth falsehood, but they are writhing in the wickedness which will eventually destroy them. Ultimately to their destruction. David is relying upon the justice of God. We may be experiencing this same discipline.

Another metaphor in vv. 15–17

Introduction to Vv. 15–17

1. Evil and its consequences in this passage.
2. It makes clear the course that the evil runs from start to finish; the travailing of wickedness.
3. While they bring their malignant schemes to maturity, they will unconsciously conceive and bring home ruin to themselves. The wicked bring forth their own demise in the evil that they do and think. Evil and wickedness will be destroyed in a client nation; and ultimately.

4. This is evil coming home to roost and it always does. No one gets away with anything from the justice of God. God does not miss a thing. God allows evil because this is the devil's world, the Angelic Conflict; but He will triumph and He will protect us. Do not panic and do not fear. Relax and bask in the Word of God and what He promises.
5. This is the final effect wrought of the justice of God. Described in v. 15

Travailing in wickedness is the wrong thing to do. There is something more than materialism or immorality as a way of life. Ignoring divine establishment. Marriage and family; not homosexuality and same-sex marriage. Nationalism as opposed to internationalism. We have to control our borders to survive this virus. There is a wonderful reason to control our borders. Race has nothing to do with it. It is to protect ourselves, to protect the citizens of this country. To control it.

Psalm 7:15 He makes a pit, digging it out, and falls into the hole that he has made.

These people fall into their own schemes which they apply to others. There is no maybe about it; he has done it and he will fall into it. This is what the wicked person loves to do. The pit is what the wicked one has in mind. Like what Saul has for David. They want to catch David and kill him. These men become their own quarry.

Whatever God provides, it is sure and it is just.

Lesson #0071

Psalm 7 Wisdom in the OT

3/26/2020 Thursday

Many are unable to work. "This too shall pass." Bobby has tried to make clear that God is always in adversity. It presents to the believer and opportunity to hear, to direct your focus away from the adversity and the difficulty; and what is being done in the client nation. The purpose is the justice of God in adversity. Bobby cannot say exactly as to what God is doing right now. But, he can present this information doctrinally, and then allow us to make the application.

Psalm 7:14 Behold, the wicked man conceives evil and is pregnant with mischief and gives birth to lies.

This is David presenting a stark picture of his enemies as they travail with wickedness. They conceive mischief; conspiring evil in their thought process. Hence they writhe in the grip of wickedness. This is Thursday morning, apparently.

Psalm 7:15 He makes a pit, digging it out, and falls into the hole that he has made.

Beginning with v. 15. we have wickedness and its consequences. The wicked person falls into the pit that he has been digging for others. He is digging his own grave. What he plans for others, he experiences himself.

This metaphor can be taken in several different ways. Digging pits in the ancient world has several purposes. Digging a water well, but that is beneficial for all.

This metaphor is a pit of evil, and people fall in and are trapped in killed. This is a hunter; and this is apropos, because adversity hunts us. People are hunters of their quarry. The hunter digs a hole and they bait it. They did not really have many weapons to hunt with. They would wait for the animal to come to the bait, fall into the pit, and then deal with it.

David's enemies wanted to dig a pit in order to entrap him. There is so much irony. The opposite will happen from what the trapper wants to have happen.

Animal lovers might like this, as it is the animal hunter will suffer.

The Pit Metaphor

1. The metaphor indicates an entrapment in a hole of the false accusers own making.
2. This is such a great picture of the justice of God in relation to wickedness. To the evil design of the digging of a pit. Man meant it for evil, but God means it for good.
3. The evil directed towards evil results in the destruction of David's enemies.
4. That pit, that trap is snapped shut by the justice of God. He is involved here all the way.
5. The wicked, the pit diggers, are turned over to their own wickedness and they suffer the consequences.
6. In this picture of entrapment, this metaphor, the wicked who falls into the pit that was dug, experiences the harm which is done for others. This is evil meant for someone and it is turned on the one setting the trap.
7. Prov. 26:27 he who digs a pit will fall into it. He who rolls a stone, it will roll right back on them. This would be a Wile E. Coyote moment. The pit for David is being dug and the digger falls into his own pit.

The treachery of one man named Nabal and the results. There was this thing with Abigail's husband Nabal.

Nabal as Found in Proverbs 17

1. In Prov. 17:7 it means senseless, a fool. Whether this is actually his name or not, we get to decide.
2. The senseless fool is obstinate, stubborn in his falsehoods. Once he attaches himself to them, he does not relinquish himself from them.
3. A person who is Nabal is incapable of candid words.
4. He always falls back to senseless lies. He does not know anything else. Lying is his way of life; this is his character. He is deceptive.
5. He cannot function without lies and subterfuge.

Such was the man Nabal in 1Samual Nabal was a multi-millionaire. He was a tightwad; and he would not give up his due for anyone. He dug a pit for David because of his greed.

He showed no graciousness to David and his men, who protected Nabal and all of his flocks. Nabal made a huge amount of money from this sale. Nabal acted as if he did not know these workers. He was lied to by Nabal. He dug a pit for his own greed. David was irate and wanted to take things into his own hands. David was a warrior and would collect that debt in one way or another. He was quite angry. He strapped on his sword. He was going to relieve Nabal of his money and perhaps his life.

Nabal was blinded by the mental attitude sins in his soul, so he was not willing to allow God's justice to function. Anger and bitterness leads us into mistakes. David is about to fall into that pit. David was failing to rely on the justice of God. By Psalm 7, David had learned the lesson.

Nabal's wife came out to meet David, to dissuade him from what he wanted to do. Women often have a way of bringing men back to earth. Great women have an ability to do this. Abigail was a master at this. She lived with one of the worst of men and she understood the flaws and foibles of man. She knew that. She was a woman of doctrine. She was a woman with doctrine.

She met David on that road and talked him out of it. She applied wisdom and transferred that wisdom back to David. She was beautiful and she had great wisdom, a woman of true humility and true character. David took Abigail's advice. If you have a woman that you admire and trust, you will listen to her when you get into such a state. She is your helper; and that is a great way a wife helps a husband. This woman helps keep the peace.

David unstraps his sword and sits back to allow the justice of God to work. God justice is vindicated. God strikes Nabal dead. The justice of God prevails as it always does. Abigail's advice is exactly right. When you hear the truth of Bible doctrine, respond to it.

David hears the Nabal is dead. He kicks back and he finds out that Nabal is dead. "Blessed be the Lord who..." God used Abigail to keep David from evil. The Lord has also brought Nabal's evil back on his own head.

This is an example of Psalm 7. This fall happens in the process of excavating evil, and that would happen again and again.

The Digger and the Ditch

1. There is catastrophe for the digger, between the inception and the completion of the pit. Something of evil is happening and God turns it around.
2. This pit being excavated can refer to more than just an evil individual. Psalm 9:15 the nations have fallen down into the pit which they have made. This is an entire nation.
3. Nations especially client nations, can dig a pit for themselves. They do this when they abandon God and persecute believers. Then the cycles of discipline kick in.
4. The justice of God is brought down on their heads, affecting the entire nation.

We studied Haman, the #2 man, behind the king. He was a powerful man and he hated Mordecai. He also wanted to wipe out all of the Jews in that empire. It became the place of Mordecai's own execution. This was exposed by Esther to the king. "If I die, I die." Then she stood back and let the justice of God work.

Mordecai was impaled by the order of the king. Do not underestimate God.

In this time, pray that this nation heeds the pit of the corona virus. In the end, it is meant for good. God has something for us. We can be assured that it is happening as time moves forward.

Digging and Mental Attitude Sins

1. The digging is accompanied by mental attitude sins towards the victim.
2. Mental attitude sins lead to wrong decisions and to wrong actions, based on anger, based on vindictiveness, based upon revenge. When you are upset and you want to take vengeance on someone, your attitude is wrong. Those decisions will turn out badly. Take a breath and back off. You do not need to vindicate yourself.
3. Mental attitude sins turn back on themselves. Their anger and hatred consumes them. It grows worse. It grows to the point of abject hatred.
4. Their pit is the deleterious effects on themselves. It is a fatal flaw, especially when it is cultivated, to attack to destroy to beat down someone. It is a fatal flaw that beats down the person. It ruins such people. It ranges from a frantic search for happiness all the way to suicide.

Recently, we viewed this pit digging taking place in our nation. A national adversity. We saw this in the very halls of Congress. There are those so consumed with anger and vindictiveness to the President, that they laid a trap, dug a pit, for the President to fall into. The impeachment pit dug to bury the president was initiated and excavated out of pure hatred that consumed the diggers. Mental attitude sins are always the wrong motive for such actions. It cannot be right if that is the cause and motive.

Even if they are right, their intend and motivations made it wrong. The president did not fall into the trap laid for him; the pit caved in on them. They should have considered the nation before themselves. They wanted to circumvent the process of law. There was subterfuge, sneakiness, manufactured evidence, all sorts of lies. Circumvented due process of law. They were consumed by emotionalism and frantic digging to destroy this one person.

In the digging was exposure to the injustice. They fell into their own trap.

The client nation is in the balance, so you have better evaluate with great objectivity as to how you think and where the justice of God fits in. You need to focus on the justice of God; not on the ills of people in high places.

And do not forget the corona virus, a protection. There is a message here. How do we see it? Do we moan and groan? There are people facing all kinds of adversity. If you look around, many people do not handle it very well. Look to any crisis as an opportunity. This can be our finest hour. It is an opportunity. We have a just God. His justice is in control. This is why we should not become bitter, angry, etc. Including those in Congress or in the administration. You may oppose them, but not with mental attitude sins; not in anger, not in revenge or hatred. That is digging your own pit of destruction.

You have to stay with the justice of God and see where it leads. There are great things happening right now. Many great things come out of difficulties. As believers, we are on the right side of history, as long as we wait on the justice of God.

Psalm 7:15 He makes a pit, digging it out, and falls into the hole that he has made.

Bobby reads v. 16; a perfect follow-on to v. 15. His sword and flaming arrows are ready to fly against His enemies. God is to direct the consequences.

Lesson #0072

Psalm 7 Wisdom in the OT

3/29/2020 Sunday

God has an ironic and appropriate end for those who are your enemies.

Psalm 7:15 He makes a pit, digging it out, and falls into the hole that he has made.

Bobby has seen this occur on many times when people have plotted against his father.

Nabal was struck dead; and apparently this same thing happened to someone who opposed Bob.

The wicked who do this are turned over to their own wickedness. In this picture of self-entrapment, they have dug for themselves experience the harm that they have done.

He who digs a pit will fall into it. And he who rolls a stone, it will come back on him. This is a lot like Wile E. Coyote. People who try to bring misery against others and this brings onto them their own demise. Their hatred and anger consumes them, and that is their pit. It does not have to be a physical action which works against them.

We may never see that person fall into the pit. We simply know that there is God's promise. You may not even realize that they are miserable. The pit is there and the pit is often of their own making. They fall into the hole of hatred that they design for someone else. There is a lesson here. Evil intent and bad decisions fall on the heads of those who plot against growing or mature believers.

Those who plan to cause trouble for the advancing, maturing believer; it will not produce that intent, but it will boomerang on them.

Psalm 7:15 He makes a pit, digging it out, and falls into the hole that he has made.

Psalm 7:16 His mischief returns upon his own head, and on his own skull his violence descends.

The Mischief One Sows Is the Mischief He Reaps

1. This is retribution from God.
2. This coincides with the law of volitional responsibility.
3. The law of volitional responsibility means that our choices carry consequences.
4. Bad choices conceiving mischief as it is called and bringing forth falsehoods carry bad consequences, as v. 16 announces.
5. The mischief he sows is the mischief which he also reaps.
6. Violence begets violence. Col. 3:25 he who does wrong will receive the consequences of his wrong, without partiality.

Poetic Justice Promised by God

1. In Bobby's opinion, this is the most poetic form of justice, as it is so apropos for the crime.
2. Wickedness perpetrated brings evil back on the person doing wickedness.
3. The evil that one does returns as evil upon self. That is an iron-clad promise. There is always an equal and opposite reaction.
4. Justice is served always, because a sentence is pronounced that exactly fits the crime. God's justice is without partiality.
5. God turns them over to the results of their own sins. Their own anti-establishment thinking; their own crimes.

Mitigating factors. The punishment should not be as harsh as it should be. God always takes the mitigating factors into consideration. The victim might try to avenge himself and try to harm the other person. David was about to do this against Nabal. You might dig a pit for yourself, if you are trying to take your own vengeance.

God's justice is equally dispensed to either person; this is why revenge and retaliation is never legitimate. You do not have to dig a counter-pit. We know who has dug a pit; and God knows who relies and does not rely on God's justice when it comes to bear on either or both persons. God knows those who takes matters into their own hands and digs their own pit in revenge.

In retaliation against Nabal, David would have fallen into his own pit. Abigail stopped David and kept him from committing the vengeance that he wanted. Nabal then fell into his own pit; his mischief turned on his own head. Justice was served; perfect justice.

The law of volitional responsibility.

We need to understand what this is.

The Law of Volitional Responsibility

1. The choices which we make, we are responsible for them. We are always responsible for them. We make those decisions based upon what is in our souls.
2. Then we must live with those consequences, whether good or bad.
3. This law does not apply when circumstances are imposed on us from outside sources. The decisions and actions of others which affect you for difficulty or for prosperity.
4. You may make a bad decision and you return evil for evil. Now you are falling under that law. Or you can make good decisions as well.
5. Bad choices on your part is what you are responsible. People have a tough time accepting responsibility for their own decisions. God knows you are responsible for your own decisions; and you need what is in your soul in order to make these good decisions.
6. Bad choices on your part bring bad decisions for which you are responsible. Rick Hughes brings this to his audience. Bad choices limit future options. Sin, staying out of fellowship, staying out of the plan of God. That is our #1 responsibility. Violating the divine establishment and divine institutions and divine standards of morality. All of these bad decisions can bring problems on us.

Good decisions will bring good consequences. There is a caveat. Even when those consequences do not seem good in the short run in human terms. I am still suffering; but I made a good decision. There are times when a person makes a courageous step to stay in the plan of God and it is unpopular; and those who oppose that choice make life miserable or difficult. When you say, "This is not happening. These other people are not falling into a pit that I can see. But they are.

These situations can cause you to grow spiritually. When you face difficulties; and you need to make the good decisions not to fall into a pit of your own making. You get accelerated spiritual growth as a result.

The decisions that we make determine the life that we lead; not the decisions that others make. Our decisions in response to others or in reaction determine whether we fall into the pit or what; we determine our own suffering so often.

Bad Decisions and Their Consequences

1. Bad choices are the violation of God's laws, His standards; divine establishment. Bad choices include sin; this is why God provides us with rebound.
2. When the results descend upon our own head, His justice is served, regardless of whether you think your decisions are justified.
3. It is served without even God's imposition of divine discipline or divine punishment; it comes back on you. "There's justice," but He promised.
4. The punishment therefore can be self-imposed and it can be just as appropriate as God's justice.

5. The best decisions never reject inculcation of Bible doctrine. This provides the discernment to help us. This is the impulse for us to make good decisions.
6. Digging one's own pit of sin is the most common and the first cause for human suffering in general, for believers and unbelievers.

The believer who sins and rejects God's plan; rejects God's Word; this is the worst. For the unbeliever, bad decisions are what violate the laws of divine establishment. Those are the operational laws for the entire human race. Divine establishment provides freedom; the Ten Commandments are an example of divine establishment. The Ten Commandments are a guideline for good decisions in the function of one's life.

This is the standard by which we can examine ourselves and see how far we have fallen from the standards of God. We cannot meet the standards of God; and we cannot meet our own standards; or we have no standards at all.

Those laws fall within the framework of the divine institutions. The national entity falls under these divine laws. With the accompanying bad results, economic problems, all of these things connect to Lev. 26, which can include plagues and sickness. Divine discipline for the client nation to wake the client nation up to its responsibility. Unbelievers need to realize the importance of divine establishment. We have a breakdown everywhere in our society. Bad decisions for believers and unbelievers against God's laws. No good comes from violating God's standards. The disintegration of the client nation.

The Law of Volitional Responsibility

1. This is digging one's own pit when bad decisions are made.
2. It deals with the natural consequences of sin, evil lack of discernment, lack of standards, and bad judgment. That is when the pit has been dug, for a nation as well as for an individual.
3. These consequences always return evil for evil. That is God's promise for bad and good decisions.
4. Human volition is the source of personal sins and evil and its perpetuation. Today we have a tendency to think that environment causes all of this. Individual human volition is the source of human sin and evil. It is an individual choice on a national scale.
5. Since we make decisions to follow the decisions of the sin nature; the evil that we do and the consequences always comes down on our own heads. The decisions that we make determine the life that we lead. Many ways to fall into a pit, like from the results of the bad decisions that you make. Every human being is accountable for his or her own decisions and actions in life. Actions follow decisions.

Bad Decisions and Digging Your Own Pit

1. You must understand not to blame others for your own misery or suffering. As a believer in Jesus Christ, you cannot do that.

2. You must understand that you do not blame others for your lack of accomplishment or failure in important areas of life, like a vocation, like a family, like interpersonal relationships. People want to blame everyone else, including God.
3. You must examine yourself and you cannot do that if you do not take responsibility. You must examine your choices for or against Bible doctrine. Where do I stand in my spiritual growth? If you are failing to grow spiritually, it will catch up to you.
4. Then, if misery comes from an outside source, not of your own making, then make a good decision and fall back on the justice of God. Do not dig your own pit.

Spiritual Growth and Repercussions

1. As a believer, not pursuing Bible doctrine, is obvious. Many around you can see the pit and those running around.
2. When there is not spiritual growth, that decision comes back on your own head, in the form of no blessing from God.
3. You can be very prosperous materially and still be under discipline. If you are not growing spiritually, then prosperity is unfulfilling. Materialism can be a distraction to spiritual growth. That in itself is falling into a pit.
4. The repercussions can be a life that is unsatisfying; even in the midst of human success. Try to buy love; it does not work. You can buy a person, but not their love.
5. You will never reach the potential or place that God has designed for us. This will place you on a frantic search for happiness. You will try to attain what you think will make you happy in the short term. Maybe you go further in your profession. Growing spiritually is your #1 priority. The decisions that you make determine the life that you live.
6. Look no further than yourself for bad consequences because all bad decisions, sins, perpetration of evil on your part have inherent. That bad outcomes are always linked to bad thinking, bad motivations, bad decisions.

Keep writing; put down your orange juice.

Blaming Others

1. Don't blame others for your own failures.
2. Blaming others for your problems or your bad decisions is a short way for your unhappiness and no recovery. You cannot recover when you blame others.
3. Evil and sin blinds you. You cannot see anything.
4. You are unable to see the personal culpability of your own bad decisions. You are blinded because you have no divine standards and you blame your circumstances for what is happening.
5. If you cannot take that responsibility, if you must blame others, if you cannot own up to your own mistakes and bad decisions, if you act as if they did not happen, you will never evaluate yourself correctly. You cannot see yourself. If you cannot see yourself, then you cannot change. More bad decisions with all of the self-imposed results. This becomes a vicious cycle. The Bible calls this a dog returning to his own vomit. Making bad decision after bad decision; and not doctrine, n rebound. You go right back to the pit. It has returned on your own head. Self-imposed misery, self-indulged misery.

The blame is on you, based upon the divine law of volitional responsibility. This is all related to your evil motives, decisions, or sinful. Evil or sinful choices; sinful associations. We make some very bad decisions here. Whatever we are doing, if we go along with it, it is our own choice.

Two consequences of your bad life, mischief or violence, are mentioned in v. 16. The stone rolls back onto your head. He digs a pit will fall into it; he who rolls a stone, it will be rolled on him. It is rolling a big stone uphill and it comes right back on you. The deep underlying cause of crushing yourself is arrogance. It is unchecked arrogance. Self imposed.

What Is the Answer

1. No one has an original thought. What about scientists? They simply discover what God has put into motion. There is nothing new under the sun.
2. All the power of thought all the ideas of mankind are found in Bible doctrine. When you study Bible doctrine, you are learning the only things which are real and unique in the world.
3. Therefore, the more doctrine that you master, the more good decisions that you can master and draw. The more doctrine that you have, the less that you make bad decisions. You can recover quickly through rebound. You will always face adversity, and you had problem solving devices for that.
4. You cannot blame others for the bad decisions that you make yourself. People are told that there is no evil in the world, just circumstances.
5. You need to get back to good decisions and the empowerment of God the Holy Spirit. You can apply and consider.
6. The law of volitional responsibility; the plan of God is for you to learn Bible doctrine and to understand God's standards. You must learn and know the problem solving devices; which David' calls his shield. You only need to bring your positive volition. Wisdom, discernment and good decisions are the result. You must apply these for yourselves. Thoughts, motives and actions.

Psalm 7:16 His mischief returns upon his own head, and on his own skull his violence descends.

Now we have come to the final verse of Psalm 7. All of the wonderful things; and now there is a personal result. Next time, we will look at David's relaxed mental attitude. The doctrine of the justice of God and making good decisions. David has dodged the pit.

Psalm 7:17 I will give to the LORD the thanks due to his righteousness, and I will sing praise to the name of the LORD, the Most High.

Still in Psalm 7 and this is our last class until we move to another psalm.

This is the final verse, which reflects the relaxed mental attitude of David, who began this psalm with less than a relaxed mental attitude.

Psalm 7:17 I will give to the LORD the thanks due to his righteousness, and I will sing praise to the name of the LORD, the Most High.

David began this prayer in the unfriendly confines of trouble and distress, which limited his vision of the Lord's grace and justice. David made the mistake of giving consideration to the false accusations being made against him. He despaired of not having a deliverance. The prayer begins with David being quite concerned and upset; but he comes across the correct solution.

Introductory Points to V. 17

1. David sings because God righteousness and justice is greater than the enemy.
2. David realizes that praise is called for. This is the perfect response for his recognition of what God is doing.
3. David's prayer is ending on a high note.
4. David gives thanks to God first for his own access to prayer. David uses the term Most High, because God overarches everything else in life.
5. David is confident about what will occur based upon the justice of God.
6. His future is yet to happen. David is now assured in his soul that it will occur. This is a perfect understanding of faith rest. This is the faith and confidence in God that His promises are iron-clad and God delivers. David is assured in his soul that what God promises will come to pass.
7. David cannot help but praise the Lord. The name of God reflects God's character. That name will be manifested in David's deliverance. This is a very public situation. These things said about David are happening in public. David is now in full assurance that God will manifest His righteousness. How could David not praise God? David avoids the pit designed for Holy Spirit enemies.

Now David is even stronger in his faith, based upon this experience of adversity. He is calling upon and waiting on the Lord's justice. It is to our advantage to depend upon

Summary of the Entire Chapter

1. This psalm is essentially about how the Lord vindicates the righteous. He vindicates the righteous when they are attacked and falsely accused by malicious, maligning slandering enemies. This is a lesson for all of us.
2. One sentence summary: David and any believer in the plan of God continuing to advance may pray with confidence for the Lord to vindicate them by His justice, turning the malicious schemes of the wicked back on their own heads.
3. David begins his prayer in a state of high anxiety precipitated by charges made against him. He was slandered by others publically.
4. The accusations create a dangerous if not deadly situation for David. This is a power game designed to take David out. It is happening right now in the United States. There are those who hate our leadership and they will say and do anything to be rid of them.
5. As David begins his prayer, things have gotten out of proportion in his mind. This is an occupational hazard in his life. These things are blown out of proportion. Our focus changes and focuses on the problems.
6. As the chapter continues, David's accusers appear to gain ground. We recognize that the only solution is to turn to the Lord. This is a process which follows in this chapter. This is the process that we all go through. Anxiety and being upset; and then we see the solution.
7. It is clear what David desired in his prayer. He wanted an immediate acquittal for all the charges brought against him.
8. David desired vindication in the here and now; not some far off eschatological future. We all want the adversity to go away, but if it doesn't, we just hang in there and depend upon the justice of God.
9. We are not told whether David is delivered now, later or at all from his enemies. He relied upon the justice of God, and he relaxed mental attitude comes through.
10. We all experience false accusations. This psalm provides an appropriate perspective.

Public accusations of sins or crimes which we may have committed are easier to bear, if we are guilty. It is easier to bear than the false accusations which we are innocent of. It was very hard for David not to take matters into his own hands.

The Greater Problem in this Injustice Is...

1. The false accusation brings in the experience of injustice.
2. There seems to be no escape from its consequences. If we are unjustly accused, because it is hard to prove a negative.
3. It is the nature of false accusers to be relentless. They want to destroy someone for their own selfish reasons.
4. They have self-serving exterior motives. These false accusations can do real damage to a person's life and reputation.

Bobby can only say, "Shame on you gossips." It has happened even in Berachah Church, but it is not a staple at Berachah Church. This sort of thing really turns others off. Gossip is speculating or telling lies about someone else behind their back. So that situation of unjust gossip may engender some anxiety, knowing that there is that kind of slander going on, behind their backs. It can be a problem if it is a matter of your ego or arrogance. You think that other people's opinions of you are more important than God's.

Anxiety over the ruin of reputation or family; and it is understandable in human terms. The nature of false accusations is to deceive others about you. Remember, God is never deceived. He knows all of the facts. He knows when we are victims of injustice or not. We can depend upon His perfect righteousness and His perfect justice. False accusations never undermine a person's relationship with God. These can be problems for a relationship with other people. You are innocent and vindicated in the eyes of God; and that is what counts. He knows when we are being slandered and gossiped about.

David Relies upon the Justice of God

1. David recognizes now where his strength lies. He is no longer troubled by the false accusations. He has his eyes on the Lord.
2. David realizes that the justice of God is at work on his behalf. No matter how deep the injustice.
3. David appreciates and trusts the righteousness of God and the justice of God, which can always vindicate his innocence and delivers him.
4. Important for David and for us. He sees the wickedness of injustice. David was tested by people more than anyone else. Her had a very long list of accusers
5. He learned to depend upon the integrity of God for his deliverance. There is always blessing and spiritual growth for anyone facing injustice.
6. This psalm indicates that it is the judgments of God which matter much more. This is perspective. Injustice is everywhere.
7. It is better for us to remain in fellowship and integrity before God, the righteous Judge. David's accusers are standing at an edge of a pit which they dug for David.

We do not have to take matters into our own hands. When David relied upon the justice of God, that was enough. This did not change the adversity. He lived through it, he survived it, in the plan of God. David was a man after God's own heart.

The false accusations still occur. We wait for the righteous judge to vindicate us. This God will do. It may not be immediately; and He is a Righteous Judge Who will eventually vindicate.

In conclusion, this psalm does not tell us where David crushed these people. What happened? How did God act? David's faith is so expressed, that we would accept God's ruling no matter what the circumstances. We learn the life of faith rest.

Psalm 7:17 I will give to the LORD the thanks due to his righteousness, and I will sing praise to the name of the LORD, the Most High.

Next increment is Psalm 12, which is a perfect follow on to Psalm 7.

Psalm 12:inscription To the choirmaster: according to The Sheminith. A Psalm of David.

Psalm 12:1 Save, O LORD, for the godly one is gone; for the faithful have vanished from among the children of man.

1Kings 19:10 He said, "I have been very jealous for the LORD, the God of hosts. For the people of Israel have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword, and I, even I only, am left, and they seek my life, to take it away."

Attacks against the spiritual aspect of the nation. The nation has gone down. David faced the same sort of situations in his life as Elijah.

1Kings 19:18 Yet I will leave seven thousand in Israel, all the knees that have not bowed to Baal, and every mouth that has not kissed him." the nation was worshiping Baal; but the Lord said that 7000 were remaining. This was a promise that God was making, long after David. Elijah and David were both surrounded by faithless, but not all.

This chapter has overtones of a lament of a client nation.

The Abrahamic covenant defines a nation; and Abraham was told that he would be the father of this people. It would take several hundred years before this nation would come into existence.

Joseph was taken into slavery; and the Jews went to Egypt; and made slaves; and they were taken out of Egypt. They became the nation that Abraham was promised.

The David covenant is found in 2Samuel 7, and it provides for a ruling dynasty for this nation. That dynasty culminates with David's Greater Son.

1. There is a contrast in Psalm 12 between evil and flattering speech; a contrast which is with the pure and true utterances of God. Also, God's response of deliverance to the faithful. A nation in decline under David; and the same for us. David is concerned that Israel was filled with liars and deceivers. God will respond with deliverance to the faithful.
2. In a wider scope, this chapter is designed to be a permanent vehicle for encouragement. This should encourage us. This encourages the pivot who receive a promise of protection and deliverance.

We can divide this psalm into two sections. The speech of wicket persons, 2–4, 8; and there is God's answer, in vv. 5–7. There are a number of difficult expressions in this chapter. The message comes through loud and clear that we need.

Psalm 12 is the new study.

Psalm 12:inscription To the choirmaster: according to The Sheminith. A Psalm of David.

David played on a lyre, which is how some interpret this verse. This is a psalm of David and he hands it over to a choir director.

Then David gets into the beginning of what he wants to say.

Sheminith is a musical term, but of an uncertain meaning. Literally, this means, upon the octave. Probably related to male voices.

Scholars have pointed out that there is no evidence that Israel's music was based upon an octave scale. They suggest that this refers, therefore, to an 8 stringed instrument. Possibly a communal event; many people singing. This was sung in the Temple at a later time.

David was the composer of the music and the writer of the lyrics. It was turned over to director for the music to be played and sung.

David was a genius in many areas.

This is a song of grief; but coupled with hope. Calling on the Lord always means that there is hope. A nation needs to recover from reversionism. We will apply this to our own country. David was enduring great deceit and dishonesty; more than he had ever encountered before. Slander and false flattery is what he was exposed to. These same people ignored the needy.

Those People with Whom David Is Dealing.

1. There is no charity in the souls of the liar. Lies and deceptions are always centered around a self-centered attitude. He is trying to make himself look better than what he actually is. Cover over sins in a faulty manner.
2. Their deception is always for their own benefit.
3. We need to understand this in our time. The socialist of today and socialism as an ideology is not filled with charity or hope for the people. It is full of power politics.
4. David was in the middle of such people and all of their deceptions and lies. They were hypocrites hungry for power.

David was dealing with a large number of deceitful people. Most of us cannot imagine the heavy pressure laid upon David by those who despised him and haters his power. David knew that the helper against the treacherous is God. David is not panicked. The Holy Spirit inspired David to write this. This is what we must do in any crisis. Request help from the Lord. Then we stand back and relax. Show a relaxed mental attitude for everyone to see. Standing back to see how the Lord works. So many people seem to be living in panic and fear.

We see this kind of pressure on our president. He is constantly being criticized by the media and his opponents. This is a lonely position. In the end, he is the one on the blame line; just like David in his own crisis. David's prayer lie about. Self-serving people try to capitalize on this sort of thing; they try to use the crisis for their own benefit. People are not concentrating on the solution; they are simply using it to blame others. The people who do this try to take a crisis and use to their own advantage. Those seeking power use crises in this way.

Many people want their problems solved by the government. Many look to the president. And if they do not like him. He seems to be doing a good job and doing all that can be done. Congress is the opposite. This could be the president's finest hour. He can shine and other politicians seem incapable. God's purpose is the right purpose.

Our president offers up good leadership; and how the people respond. No crisis overtakes us that the Lord does not know; He is always prepared for it. God never says, "I never saw that coming." It is the Lord Who is our focus and He is our deliverer. It is not the mask. The mask does not deliver the client nation. David calls it later in v. 7: You, O Lord, will keep them. You will preserve Him from the perverse generation forever. No matter the crisis, this verse applies.

There is suffering being brought to the nation and to many people. Do we have the doctrine to apply? Faith rest is not for times of prosperity. You have got to apply the promises that you know; and this whole thing can be turned to blessing.

Do not defy the mandates of the local authorities because you don't like it or because you are arrogant. The kids on spring break have decided that the virus does not matter. They converged in Marti Gras. Now New Orleans is a great hot spot.

We obey the government policies and those who govern us. Doctrine being disseminated is critical. Bobby believes in assembly. But we are in the midst of an interesting time. The call for no assembly by the church is correct. Pastors who are assembling is misguided. This is to stem the tide against the COVID19 virus. We need to follow the government directives for the good of all people. What does it say if the virus spreads through a church? Is that really how we want to present ourselves to the world? Uncaring about anyone but ourselves. This turns a good thing (assembling) into a bad. This is short term. This is not, you will never assemble again. Right now, Bobby has no problem with it; hence an empty auditorium. Bobby misses us and wants us in church.

There may be some who want to gain advantage in the crisis and make gains for whatever reason. Remember what we have studied. The justice of God is always active in this world. We do not know what God's plan for the client nation might be in all of this; or how the nation might respond. We do know that whatever is part of God's plan is for our benefit. And this includes the Corona virus. God means these events for our benefit. Those who die, we pray that they are believers, and even they represent the purpose of God. Whether discipline, believers, whether the nation is being disciplined. People suffer and die because of God's discipline; people make bad decisions. God does this to redirect; to send a message. This is a wake up call.

Finding Blame for this Virus.

1. We as believers must not succumb to the temptation to lean on mankind to solve our problems. Many people are doing this right now. They think that only the government and the medical community can solve this.
2. We need not dwell on conspiracy theories or causes. Maybe some crazy things are happening; but what is the point of dwelling upon the cause or some theory. People get very worked up about the president. So many not paying attention to what he is doing. And the silly people thinking that he is a dictator. Bobby sees a man doing his best to promote divine establishment. Some would vote for socialism rather than Trump. You look at the policies; not the way he talks.
3. We do not need to assign blame to others ever. This often means we are in a state of reaction. We are no different from an unbeliever.
4. In a crisis, we must look to the Lord for help and confidence. We need to keep our eyes on Him. Bob really liked "Turn your eyes upon Jesus." "Don't kill anybody."
5. We have even more spiritual problem solvers than David had. Far more problem solving devices in the Church Age. We have rebound and the filling of the Holy Spirit. David has faith rest and he is using it right here. Look at what David is using and applying.

Bobby suggests Freedom Through Military Victory, which gives the names of the problem solving devices. Know Bible doctrine and you will be able to apply them.

On a personal note, after completing Psalm 7 and launching into 12, the current pandemic is placing the same type of circumstances on us. We are living this in our country. The justice of God is in view here. The liars and foreflushers are in view here. Can you rely on the justice of God and on His care and keeping? This is the one application that we must make in all of this. For some, this may be a final examination. This is just a bump in the road. There will be others. Learn how to use the problem solving devices in every crisis.

David uses this adversity to praise and call upon the Lord. David is presented as waiting on the justice of God to act on all of his enemies. God knows what is fair. We can depend upon God's justice for what is coming.

David deals with the corruption of a larger group than just one enemy.

Introduction to the Psalm

1. In chapter 7, David faces personal antagonists; Cush; and his king Saul as well.
2. In chapter 12, it is a group or even larger. It may be a national problem, which is how Bobby will take it.

3. The defection that David despises is a national defection from honesty and integrity.
4. These defectors are a defection; liars, speakers of falsehood. David sees them as double-dealing back stabbers. They smile to his face and commit evil beyond his back. How common this is today. Who are the liars and who tells us the truth?
5. How this problem will be solved are in the hands of God. We see this in all forms of government, businesses, military, etc. David is suffering from the overall hypocrisy of this time. David cannot discern who is faithful. They all appear to be hypocrites. They are out in force. Contrast what they say with what they do.

David and the People Surrounding Him

1. If honest people cannot be identified by David, then wicked people can be seen and heard all around him. They are the squeaky wheels. Where are the faithful?
2. David seems to represent the character of the people as a whole here. Is everyone a liar? Is it all about deception? That is what David sees.
3. There is certainly an element of healthy mistrust of people. Does this make you a pessimist? That is probably a wise thing. That means you have some discernment. People can fool you. Their motives may not be clear on the surface. That is not the point. A healthy understanding of people is discernment. Not everyone is great. They are not.
4. What stands out in David during this period is the complete trust that he has in the Lord, where people are not worthy of trust. God always is. This is our rock; our fortress. We will get into another psalm in the midst of psalm 12.
5. David is an optimist in his pessimism. Apparently there are a small number of people who are faithful and true to the Lord. There are those who follow the doctrine and the truth of Bible doctrine. There are certainly those in the country who do that.
6. These people long for deliverance from the corruption of the times, as did their leader, David; whose 12th psalm represents that desire. We would like to see the corruption of this country removed. This psalm is a timeless application.

The world is filled today with liars and cheats. That is just true.

Psalm 12:1 Save, O LORD, for the godly one is gone; for the faithful have vanished from among the children of man.

Lesson #0075

Psalm 12 Wisdom in the OT

4/5/2020 Sunday

Bobby is going to provide a news flash. This is our entertainment and information each day. The world is filled with liars, cheats, with false flatterers, in every area of life. The older we get, the more we realize that this is true; this is called discernment. Should we not be optimistic about our future? Should we not be optimistic about our future, as we are in God's plan. There are people in this world who are very trustworthy. We can be optimistic about some.

But the sin nature of humanity is alive and well in each one of us, tempting us to produce any number of sins, including sins of the tongue. "People are no damn good" as Bob used to say. That is the depravity of man. There are many great exceptions to this; and many of them are in Berachah Church. There is always a reason for believers to project optimism in life. We have been cooped up in our homes, many of us; and some have been for the better part of 2 weeks. You watch the news religiously. If you switch channels back and forth to the various programs, you will notice a marked difference in the information. Often the information appears to be diametrically opposed; and this is because news commentators have sin natures. They lie, they have agendas, they have power objectives. There are those who tell the truth. The one who tells the truth without false ideology. How do you separate that in your mind? You must apply divine establishment principles to the commentary that you hear. It is a good exercise in discerning the news. What slant do they put on the news? How does it line up with the truth of God's Word.

Another example of lying is in the civil courtrooms in America. Many examples of people lying in order to gain what they want.

In the halls of our government, we see the same fabricating characteristics. There are many who are touting socialism, which is truly lying to the public about its merits.

Socialism Lies

1. Socialism is about control; it is anti-freedom. It is all-invasive into the lives of citizens. They want to control atll that we do.
2. There is a facade of equal prosperity. The leadership does not want a level playing field; it is a lie.
3. Socialism promotes class warfare to gain power.
4. Socialism rejects the rule of objective law selling false things and social justice, which favors one group over another, ostensibly to catch them up. So another side is maltreated. It is not equality.
5. Socialism limits and sometimes eliminates upward mobility while stifling individual initiative.
6. In the name of egalitarianism, its goal is to eliminate wealth, any wealth, trying to level the economic playing field, which never works. This impoverishes the entire society, except for those in power.
7. Instead of improving people's lives, it ends up destroying the economy and the confidence of the people and their livelihood. It is just a flawed system. A failure everywhere it has been tried, like western European socialism. Their economies are in shambles. Central and South America; and in parts of Asia. The people suffer great hardship. Many of the youth in this country are buying the lie that this is the only fair system of government. Only where you see principles of capitalism seep in.

China has a death grip on the people, but they recognize that there has to be some capitalism. We are an example of the great assets of capitalism. Do not trust any such system of socialism or those who espouse it, like social justice. Who want to apply it to racism, sexism, healthcare, poverty. The first two are changed by a mental attitude change, not by a new economic system. Healthcare is not fixed by socialism. The claim that there is a crisis for respirators. They have to make a choice. The cases which are worse than others; the older people do not get it; that is socialism. Healthcare for all is a lie; it is not an improvement. Who can trust, if not people around us? Can we trust those who govern us?

The center of materialism, on our coins, "In God we trust." If you trust in money or people; you are trusting the wrong things.

This psalm affirms that fact. Only God's Word can be completely trusted. You can trust it absolutely.

The cosmic system is being persecuted by David.

Psalm 12:2 Everyone utters lies to his neighbor; with flattering lips and a double heart they speak.

Psalm 12:3 May the LORD cut off all flattering lips, the tongue that makes great boasts, ultimately the cosmic system is a lie.

Vicious Lies from Evil People

1. No overt activity by the evil people is presented here . It is not about what they are doing.
2. David is lamenting evil speech that is double talk, lies, flattery, insincere compliments, to advance one's own interest.
3. Talk, speech is just as deadly as evil actions in fomenting and perpetrating evil. Not greater formenting of evil can come than what we are getting from the news media. There is some truth there. It can be a great tool of lies and deception. Flattery and self indulgence and arrogance.
4. This talk, which David is protesting, has precipitated a crisis; a crisis in his life. This is the reason for this psalm. He is crying for help because these lies are devastating.

This is true of David at this time. He is suffering from the things happening around him.

Do you want to take Corona virus home to your parents or grandparents to watch them die? Bobby believes that we will see this end. What is the plan of God in all of this. We all love freedom and the lives that we have/had. We do not want our freedoms removed; but God's plan takes precedence. At the end of the day, what matters, the plan of God for the client nation; and the plan of God for our individual life; that is what matters.

David is suffering from the falsity and the hypocrisy around him. David writes as an encouragement to others undergoing similar attacks. This lying hypocrisy is very active at this time. There is misery for those they are supposed to serve; and for those in leadership positions, like David was. He is a leader, a great one. But leaders are always the object of lies. When a lie is told enough, over and over, it is believed, if there are no counter principles. This is the reason for Bible class. Lies are easy to expose, unless we are predisposed to believe them. Then we often accept these lies without further evidence. The division of our nation exude this tremendously. They accept any lie which agrees with them. We need to be able to discern this; it is happening right now.

David has doctrinal principles in his soul; and he wants us to understand them as well. He will stop at nothing. Some people are so committed to their own lives, lies become truth to them. That is what they want to believe. That is the downside of relative thinking.

Who are these false ones? The liars, the flatterers? What period or event does this portray? Unlike the previous psalm, there is nothing in this psalm which we can take and associate it with a particular event. Some think this is from Saul's court; or from David's court when he became king. Some think this is the Ziphites; some think Ahiphiel in Absalom's rebellion.

The General Environment

1. It is not just one or two prominent individuals
2. It is society in general.
3. The city is tainted with this.
4. This is national defection from truth and doctrinal and establishment principles. This is so valuable to us. A defection by the whole nation.
5. Falsehood and hypocrisy are rampant which can be hard to distinguish from the truth.

David is fallible; but he stood for the Word of God. His opposition stood against David, who is God's chosen man. Why does he fell alone?

Psalm 12:1 Save, O LORD, for the godly one is gone; for the faithful have vanished from among the children of man.

The represents a majority of the people. This is discouraging when we observe our society which is perverted and anti-establishment and anti-Bible doctrine even among Christians. Doctrine is our life; if we do not know it, we do not understand our own life. It takes time; it takes commitment. God is mocked today and His Word is being denigrated as just another religious hoax.

People are not around, like-minded believers who are encouraging. There are no faithful left. Maybe no one is attending the services in Jerusalem?

More Points Important

1. That loneliness that David speaks of is an occupational hazard for those who take in doctrine but whovolunarilly isolate themselves.

2. It is an occupational hazard for those who are geographically isolated from others. Soldiers in the field; or believers isolated from other doctrinal believers.
3. If geographically isolated, one must still receive Bible doctrine in that isolation. It can be done through electronic media. Many people in Berachah started just that way. Many came to Houston just to be there and to have face to face teaching. They understood the importance of assembly.
4. Isolation, even if it is forced or a geographic circumstance, is not the best way to learn doctrine. It is just not. Some began listening to doctrine in the military in total isolation. It was tough to make the time for it. It is not the best way. Bob started the tape ministry a half a century ago for those who were not there.
5. Assembling together under academic discipline is the best way to learn when it is available. It is so easy when in isolation to be distracted. Bobby has been there. 10.5 years in the military.
6. When assembly of believers for learning and association is available, there is no excuse to not assembling in a church. Some may be looking up right now and you might be reacting. "I have got a reason not to be there."
7. It is an encouragement when assembled with like-minded believers. We live in a society that is discouraging. It is with us every day. We need the academic discipline to take in the Word of God.
8. It is the best way to learn; and learning is what we need to be in a disciplined and academic environment. Long ago, we learned you cannot get up and wander about in the middle of church. This is a classroom. We should be singing, clapping and dancing? We should be learning the mind of Christ because it is our way of thinking. It is our counter to falsehoods and lies. Some think we need a little emotion; a little oomph in our lives. An assembly is one of those things that you can have with like-minded believers because it is an encouragement.
9. Assembly under academic discipline is always more likely to preclude interruption and disruption. There is a coke beckoning you; snacks in the refrigerator.
10. The wrong lesson to be learned in this corona virus is that all you need is online teaching. That is wrong.
11. Besides the academic in discipline, it can also cause greater misunderstanding of what is heard. Bobby talks to those who are so confused; and they have no one to discuss it with. The isolation can cause problems. Bobby has seen this far too often. Believers listening to doctrine in isolation.
12. Other believers can help bring clarity to teaching when assembled. Not during the class, but in a discussion later. If you are confused, you will get an answer. Bobby has been in isolation, with groups, with tape groups; when in college, when in the military, when in Portland Oregon; listened on his own in Hawaii. He has done it every way. He can testify that group learning is the best.
13. This is the opinion of the Scripture. Heb. 10:25 not forsaking our own assembly together, as is the habit of some. Some people listen back and forth from work; and you can only concentrate so much. It is better than nothing. Good for a supplement and you can hear a little bit. But encouraging one another as the day drawing near. This is when there is a general degeneracy in society. Seeing others grow and advance is encouragement.

1400 hits on the first message. Only 46% finished before the lesson was over. They were distracted. Depending how long you turned it off, it is a distraction that can be longer than a few moments.

Make Time to Gather and Grow Spiritually

1. Do not voluntarily isolate yourself, even if it is inconvenient for you. It is a privilege and a mandate to assemble yourselves together.
2. Assembly is the outward manifestation of the priority of your spiritual growth. You make time for it.
3. Even though there is electronic means in isolation to take in doctrine, taking the time to assemble is of critical importance.
4. Heb. 10:25 makes this point.

Listening in an Assembly

1. Don't get lazy. Don't think that listening to doctrine is all that there is.
2. No doubt that listening to doctrine is primary and critical to spiritual growth. We are mandated and there is no other way than to study His Word.
3. Assembly is also a place of worship together; a place of encouragement. A place of communion.
4. Assembling together is an opportunity to serve God as well. That too is important.

Assembly Is a Commitment

1. To assemble is a commitment of time and effort. That means it is important to you.
2. That commitment become routine and consistent. Otherwise, you lose the commitment. There are times when you just cannot. It becomes routine. Routine in life is so important. Isn't all of life a routine? Like work, the military, like eating, like school. Bobby has to study and teach. He studies for us and this is a routine that he cannot break.
3. This is a reminder, an overt show of dedication, as primary importance in your life. We are dedicated to it. Our dedication shows and it shows in our own thinking and in our own mind.
4. This is the best way to set aside time for consistent growth. It is too easy in any other way. Too easy in any other way. The best way is to assemble.
5. It is the discipline necessary in fulfilling the priority of your life. It must be a disciplined priority.

Bobby appreciates those who are faithful to doctrine and live elsewhere and are consistent. But for those in Houston, there is Heb. 10:25, unless you are physically unable to attend. Then you depend upon electronic means. That is why it is important to be produced. It is not a replacement for church assembly.

David was distracted by all the falsehoods and the slander. We need the doctrine and we need the encouragement; and we need the best way to learn. There is no substitute for it.

Psalm 12:2 Everyone utters lies to his neighbor; with flattering lips and a double heart they speak.

Psalm 12:3 May the LORD cut off all flattering lips, the tongue that makes great boasts,

Next time, Bobby is going to give a policy statement of Berachah Church on assembly.

Lesson #0076

Psalm 12 Wisdom in the OT

4/7/2020 Tuesday

Still streaming. Bobby thinks we may need to use rebound several times. There will be some policy things for Berachah Church. Listen to Bobby's expounding on church policy. The last time, this appeared to be a sensitive area. Many believers at Berachah what love to see live streaming video at any time. "What is wrong with that? Isn't that a benefit of the age that we live? I can fit doctrine into my schedule." And that is what you are doing. Wrong priority.

Priorities and Commitment of Bible Doctrine

1. Assembly in a church at a certain place at a certain time and a certain location is a commitment of time and effort. Bible doctrine is a commitment that we make. It is more than just listening to doctrine. Commitment is also assembling.
2. This is a commitment to the priority in your life.
3. You do not fit your priority into the slot that is just convenient.
4. Your priority takes precedent over everything else in your life. If it doesn't, that you put off until you have nothing else to do, then it is not a priority.
5. You cannot afford to set aside your time of Bible doctrine. For many, they peruse electronic media.
6. To do something well, it requires a routine and consistency. Schools are closed right now, so what are students doing now? They are using electronic media to hear their classes. What is the best way to do it? Assemble in the classroom and to take it in. At home, it is much more difficult. Assembling is better than home schooling. When you home school, is it disciplined and routine as if they are in a classroom?
7. When you choose the time and place of hearing Bible doctrine, it is so easy to put it off, to let it slide, to get it tomorrow. There is no choice if you cannot assemble?
8. To assemble at a specified place and time, there is the reminder and the overt show of dedication to that which is of primary importance to your life. Dedication means you are dedicated to what is most important. This is an overt way show your dedication to your priority.
9. Assembly is the best way to set aside time for consistent growth.

10. Assembly in this environment provides the discipline necessary in fulfilling the priority of your life. Bobby is speaking to those who are there and able to assemble. You get it the best way that you can; and some it is via DVD.
11. The argument is, you come on Sunday but you cannot come on the weekdays. But it messes you up because you cannot get the lessons in sequence. Assembly is important even if you can only come on Sunday. The mandate is to assemble yourself as a church body. It is not just Bobby's opinion. Heb. 10:25 ...not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near. The encouragement is for others to assemble. All the more as you see the day drawing near, the time is short. Do not waste it. Grow in the way that God designed for you to assemble. Why would God demand assembly in our day and time? Why do we need to go to a certain building? First, it is a mandate. In a setting like Berachah Church or a streaming church or a telephone hookup group, distractions are kept to a minimum. There should be good discipline wherever you are. If you are just listening at home, there are many, many more distractions. No coffee machines, no telephones, no smart phones, no doorbells.

More Points on Assembly

1. Assembly is where optimization of Bible doctrine can occur.
2. Bob began one of the first tape histories. He chewed out the congregation who stayed home and listened to tapes. This was designed for those who could not be in class. He resisted it for sometime. Finally, he saw the benefits. Academic discipline is the best way to learn.
3. There is also the need to worship together in the ritual of communion; also a mandate.
4. In assembly you are with like-minded believers who, as Heb. 10:25 makes clear, can supply encouragement. Bobby had a lady who called from a city in Houston. She is alone and she listens to doctrine alone; and she longs for assembly.
5. In assembly, there is less chance to misunderstand doctrine. You are listening to the same principles and the same doctrine, so comparing your thoughts to other can be helpful. Sometimes we need correction.
6. There are corrective mechanisms when there is a group dynamic.
7. A church is a place of opportunity to serve in the local church, in prep school. Also some satellite churches have prep schools. We need another generation of doctrinal believers. You can learn Bible doctrine by electronic means, but only when you have no other choice.

This mandate of Hebrews is not null and void because there are now electronic means to hear doctrine, wherever and whenever you decide to listen. All of these mandates are still in effect. They are never antiquated. Sometimes technology is part of the cosmic system to distract you. If you can assemble but you don't, favoring electronic means, that could be the cosmic system.

Some felt that this was a personal attack. Bobby was not attacking anyone or judging anyone else for the decisions that you make in attendance in Berachah Church. For the most part, I don't know who you are. Some became angry, etc. Bobby does what the Bible demands of him. He preaches the word as is demanded in 1Timothy. And he teaches the Bible's commands whether you like it or not. As Bobby teaches, he lets the Bible speak to us. He does have authority in Berachah Church. Hearing this, you may decide to go to another church where they stream 24/7.

Bobby is speaking to the local congregation at Berachah Church who have voluntarily rejected assembly together as a convenience, who have no scheduling conflicts. They prefer to listen at home and they depend completely upon electronic means. And they want Bobby to live stream. Or, there are live streaming groups or FX groups, and the same principle holds.

Policy statement, to his local and extended assembly groups. There are many questions. There are many questions about why Bobby does not livestream to anyone's phone, etc. The obvious advantage is, you always have unlimited flexibility regarding your own schedule. "I am getting doctrine, so what is the difference." The principle still stands, do not forsake the assembling of yourselves together.

Bobby's rationale for this policy. If Bobby could be assured that the live stream would only reach those out of town, then he would do it, in a heartbeat. It is done for groups who assemble. Video churches. There seem to be about 10 streaming groups. But live stream cannot be limited to just specific places. It goes everywhere. Some locals in the city of Houston who do not attend get bootleg video and near streaming of Bobby's videos. This goes against the Biblical mandate. You want what you want when you want it. The term being current is just a few lessons behind.

The ones that Bobby is speaking to are the ones in the city; and he will not live stream to those. Group assembly is okay. Bobby is glad to stream to groups, because he can control that. If you are distributing and it has got to stop. If you don't stop, Bobby may close down the tapers at Berachah. He will live stream to other cities.

Why, that is not fair. I can't get out of the house; if you have a health problem, if you are night blind; Bible doctrine is still available to you. You may be a few days behind and you have a legitimate excuse.

Assembly is your priority and we should be consistent in it. It is critical. There is service in assembly; things are explained in an assembly; you are less like to misconstrue.

Many in Houston want to hear real-time what is being taught. So, why aren't you here? If you want that, it is right here. You can get the MP3's and DVD's. You can call, write or order online. The sequence does not always matter. Soon these will be available on thumb drives. Soon we will get it as if live.

There are assemblies of believers in outside locations. They are authorized for live telephone or live streaming. Many of them make the effort to be at Berachah on Sundays or at the communion. "I feel like part of the congregation to hear it live." But if you live in the city, then come to Berachah.

Bobby has spoken to many during his conferences. Bobby tries to speak where there are groups. Bobby tries to go wherever there is a large assembly of believers for conferences. Bobby makes an effort to talk to people, which is very important. When he assembles with those people, and he sees their positive volition, and they are hungry for doctrine, that is an encouragement. Positive volition in assemblies in other places that my might not see elsewhere. The people want the face to face teaching; they long for it. They are a part of the church; and they are assembling and listening and hearing it live. They are part of the church.

Policy for Berachah Church

1. Bobby's policy is to assemble yourselves, with limited excuses.
2. Hebrews demands assembly in a local church.
3. If you are out of town, not attending a group, and you want doctrine, then listen to MP3's or DVD's. Bobby has done it in every way possible. Bobby never sat in on a streaming video group. The attendance is the best way to get it; and streaming video in a group is second.
4. You may assembly your growth with DVD's even if you are local. Bob used to have 9 classes a week and the seats were full. Bobby does not demand that we come. He is only there 3x a week. Do not forsake assembling yourselves together if that is possible. There will be questions; some will reaction and some will respond. Examine yourselves. Do not react. Make a decision before the Lord.

Bobby will see you in assembly if we show up. This is practical divine wisdom; and this is very practical. This is wisdom. Accept it or reject it. He is not trying to be mean or to gather a crowd.

Lesson #0077

Psalm 12 Wisdom in the OT

4/9/2020 Sunday

Bobby took a detour about church assembly and streaming video. Before all of that, we were beginning the study of Psalm 12, David really feels alone; he feels isolated. He is surrounded by faithless people; and he needs help, unailing help from God.

Psalm 12:1 Save, O LORD, for the godly one is gone; for the faithful have vanished from among the children of man.

Psalm 12:2 Everyone utters lies to his neighbor; with flattering lips and a double heart they speak.

We are talking about outright lies; but these lies often contain some element of truth, which makes the lie more difficult to spot.

Application to Politics

1. Lies directed to that aspect of a nation.
2. Those with nefarious political agendas. Some are even revolutionaries. The thought of even doing such a thing requires lies. They must make it seem as if the revolution is good for the people. Our revolution was not an attempt to overthrow England; we just wanted independence. This was a war for independence. It was built upon truth. And the Constitution was one of the truest documents that has ever been written.
3. The liar on a national scale can present notions which sound very good. Their effects are evil.
4. These lying leaders of nations seek to gain control and power over the masses. They are liars. They are lying leaders. Their objective is to gain power over the people by offering them things. They can take these things away from the people at any time.
5. They package up their lies to hide the terrible realities. Prov. 17 was Bobby teaching about lying leaders, a long time ago.

Prov. 17:4 An evildoer listens to wicked lips, and a liar gives ear to a mischievous tongue.

Lies Lie

1. The evil person delights in evil words. They delight in the lies.
2. The liar delights in the lies of others. Liars are attracted to other liars. Their own thinking is reinforced. I listen to their wicked lips because mine is the same.
3. Lies fool other people; they are still lies. David is lamenting that all of the people appear to be departing from faithfulness.
4. The liar finds destructive speech to be appealing.
5. The liar lies because it is to their advantage. They always catch up; personally or at a national scale.
6. One liar agrees with another liar. So they are making their own truth.
7. He believes his own lie because he wants to. The lie becomes the truth for the evildoer. Liars believe their own lies; they have to.
8. The liar becomes a pawn of evil as well as a perpetrator of evil. They tell lies and they listen to lies.
9. Those with no discernment of divine truth, no discernment of divine establishment, are pawns of evil liars. They fall prey to the liar. They fall victim to the lies of anti-authority. Divine establishment is not a part of their thinking.
10. The distortions and the falsehoods of the liar, of which they hear appeals to their arrogance. It appeals to their strong delusions about themselves and others; and to their lust patterns.
11. The distortions and falsehoods on a national scale represent a declining immoral and degenerate society which responds to the lies and distortions. Those lies tickle the ears. Lies stimulates them. It goes along with what they want to hear. That is what paying attention to a destructive tongue means. In practice, the big lie from one person is harmonious and accepted by another liar. The one who would believe the lie would so and say the same thing himself. That is living a lie. So many live a lie because they have an affinity for the lie.

The fools and the ignorant ones are susceptible to lies that reenforce their own human viewpoint presuppositions and prejudices. That is a summation of the past 15 minutes.

It is hard to impress someone if you don't lie to them. But after a bit, and you lose trust. Honesty at the beginning is building trust.

Promiscuous Liars

1. To the liar the lie becomes truth. He tells the lie all the time and must up the lie with the lie that they
2. Living the lie.
3. He can justify his or another person's lies because lies are his normal modus operandi. Lies always get discovered. You are only one step away from the NY Times. Bobby has found out things in the strangest ways, from unsuspecting sources, sources that he happened to stumble upon. Men talk about women and their conquests. They cannot wait to share this information. This is what happens when you live a lie. It gets discovered. Most importantly, God konwows the lie and Isla
4. For those type of people, lying becomes a way of life. You should evaluate yourself. "I don't want to hurt someone, so I don't tell them the truth."
5. Their compliments are insincere.

If you can identify a lie from high places, how does this translate to others who believe it? David sees the flattering lips as having much value to the deluded and the immoral and the degenerate who have no standards. That is what David is facing and lamenting.

Flattering Lips

1. Flating lips is speech that is smooth and persuasive, but not a real compliment. We think of flattery as a compliment, but it is not. Flattery is meant to gain advantage over the person being flattered.
2. The flatterer is insincere; their compliments are insincere; and they do it in order to further their own interests.
3. The flatterer is perceptive. A good flatterer perceives a person's weaknesses, their lack of self-esteem. He knows to say the right things that people want to hear.
4. His smooth talk is believable for those so predisposed. Flattering lips are believable because the one being flattered is predisposed to it. It tickles their ears; it builds up their self-esteem. When someone does that, the person might be able to control them. That comes from a double heart.

Double Heart

1. This reads a heart and a heart.
2. Speech with two different intentions. Better understood as a double-dealing motive. One is an outward one and another is below the surface.
3. What is said sounds flattering; and it might even be truthful.
4. What is intended is totally different.
5. What was spoken was deceptive, intended to mislead and to gain an advantage. What is the purpose? What are they trying to gain. For men, this is a player. "You are the most beautiful thing I have seen." The other person wants to believe this. It is deceptive. It is intended to gain an advantage. This could be written today of so many who have departed from divine establishment and from Bible doctrine. When that happens, truth can only be replaced by that which is false. What is spoken is spoken persuasively. It is a lie, a subterfuge, a means of gaining power and influence for themselves.

That is what their double heart is all about. Let me tell you what you want to hear and I will get what we want.

The Lying of Socialism

1. Such is the lure of socialism.
2. It is the false means of equality for mankind. It may be good if that is equal opportunity. But socialism makes people regardless of anything else.
3. This destroys freedom and initiative in the population. Socialism requires that the lie be imposed upon people. Why should I work hard if I will pay all of these taxes and someone else will reap all the benefits.
4. It sounds good, but it is a lie.
5. The liar and those being lied to accept it wholeheartedly. I like the idea of getting good stuff and not have to work so hard to get it. These people are persuasive. There was a candidate who was very persuasive in his socialism; and that is why he got to far. The people liked what they heard; and it was a lie.

When considering flattery, it can be well-intentioned, even if exaggerated or untrue. What flattery creates is arrogance. It can be a cover for real maliciousness. Currying favor with the one hand, and slandering them behind their back.

Many lies are being told today about the president of the United States. Are there truths? Possibly. Many half truths; or complete lies. The opposition wants to remove him. He represents a threat to power politics. He represents the true freedom and opportunity. Unfortunately, some people coming to the country come to get free stuff and stuff they cannot get anywhere else. He represents capitalism and the free economy and a literal understanding of the Constitution.

The liars tout a progressivism and they have to lie about the one who opposes them; and they have done so constantly. They do this to control a duped people. They try to keep people under their thumb. It tickles the ears. They hear that they will be given everything that they want. We will take away your debt; we will give you this and that.

David is not surrounded by socialists, but he is surrounded by those with wicked tongues.

Lies and Flattering Lips

1. There is a counter to the lies and flattering lips.
2. For unbelievers who are influenced by the laws of divine establishment, they reject such lies, like socialism, like anti-authority. They reject globalism, the destruction of the family.
3. Believers who are consistent in their perception and metabolism of doctrine also reject the lies. Whatever rejects Bible doctrine is the cosmic system. The lies are of the cosmic system even if they sound good. Bobby like the internet and technology; but it is tailor-made for lies and propaganda. The commercial, "The internet never lies." If you are a believer with doctrine, you can discern lies. You have the mind of Christ to sort it all out.
4. The function of the problem solving devices provided to believers. Insulate them against strong delusion propaganda and lying flattering tongues.
5. This category of believers is called the remnant according to the election of grace. The invisible heroes of the Church Age.
6. With doctrine in their souls, they are not fooled by the laws of the cosmic system. Instigated by the greatest deceiver of them all. Satan has been deceiving ever since. What he produces is evil. Human good even is misused and degenerates. Divine good is the opposition to the cosmic system. Only the believer can produce divine good.
7. The hard-core deluded and the general public follow a person who can lie; whose lies are paliable and believable. The incorruptible follow a principle. You must be principled to ascertain a lie.

Psalm 12:3 May the LORD cut off all flattering lips, the tongue that makes great boasts,

Speaking Great Things

1. This is a tongue that talks big.
2. That is a description of an arrogant, deceitful, backstabbing enemy. That is the great things of liars.
3. This is a facade of hypocrisy. Maligning and gossiping about others. The enemies of David were boasting of their own greatness. They speak slick words which belie their true intent. This occurs in high places today.

David pleads with God to cut off their lying lips. He wants the lies uncovered. You have the ability to counter the lies.

One of the strangest Easters ever. The nod-to-God people are very relieved that they can stay home in their pajamas. This will be a very memorable Easter; the absent Easter.

Berachah Church has a custom, a mandate, to spend time in silent prayer. The rebound technique.

1Cor. 15:22 For as in Adam, all die. Just so, we are all made alive in Christ.

There will be another resurrection after the Lord's.

1Cor. 15:23 But each in his own order: Christ the firstfruits, then at his coming those who belong to Christ.

1Co 15:24 Then comes the end, when he delivers the kingdom to God the Father after destroying every rule and every authority and power.

This was written during a time when there was a problem in Corinth. Many there had a pagan background. Now, if Christ is proclaimed, that He has been raised from the dead, how do some of you says, 'There is no resurrection of the dead'?

If Christ has not been raised, then your faith is in vain; your faith is worthless (for an eternal future). "You are still in your sins."

In Adam all die. Paul mentions a baptism for the dead, which the Corinthians picked up from a mystery religion and admired by Homer. Elucians. There was also a washing purification of the sea. Without this washing, no one could experience the bliss of the afterlife. This was a false doctrine of baptism. He uses this to convince them of resurrection.

What will those who have been baptized in place of the dead?

There is a similarity to Christian baptism and to this cultic ritual. Baptism always requires rising up out of the water. No one has drowned in baptism. That does not indicate eternal life. The pagan ritual has no meaning if there is no resurrection. How can they deny the resurrection then how can they be interested in a baptism from the dead (a pagan ritual). Baptism would be a ritual without reality. None of it would mean anything.

Baptism of the dead was a custom without sanction.

1Cor. 15:23 But each in his own order: Christ the firstfruits, then at his coming those who belong to Christ.

Any battalion has a commander. He was the leader of a platoon, the recon platoon. Once a month, there was a parade; a pass in review. Each would march and pass in review. They would salute the commander as each group went by him.

Jesus is resurrected first; and He will later stand to review His troops. We will pass in review before Him.

Resurrection from the Dead

1. In the analogy, Paul says the commander is the first to be resurrected. He calls this the firstfruits. And no one else is resurrected. The Lord must be risen and then He must return for us.
2. At the appointed time, the next unit will be resurrected. All believers in the Church Age will be resurrected, including everyone who has died.
3. Every believer will be in his or her position. In his own order or rank. 40 days after the resurrection.
4. Christ, the firstfruits, is the leader Who stands in the forefront, on the reviewing stand.
5. His resurrection occurred on the 3rd day after the cross and His burial. 1Cor. 15:4 Jesus is the first to be resurrected, and we follow, as the church.

What about Lazarus or those who came up out of their graves. This is a resuscitation; and they were alive again; but they died.

There has been no return of Christ. It could happen in a few hours or a few moments; or 1000 years from now. Not one solitary Christian until this moment ascended into heaven in a resurrection body. We are promised that. No one has preceded Him in immortality.

There is, however as false doctrine which many celebrate of one person's resurrection before the rest of us. The so-called assumption of Mary. This states that the perpetuation of Mary is resurrected and in heaven. Has Mary been resurrected? Is she now in heaven?

This doctrine came from the Byzantine thinking, about 800 years after Christ. Pope Benedict proposed it as a probably doctrine. But in 1950, Pope Pius made this a doctrine necessary for salvation. Mary was assumed in body...in other word, she precedes us in resurrection. There is no basis for supportin this doctrine. What evidence exists. The evidence is lacking. Gnostics and heretics in the early days of the church hint at such a doctrine very early.

This legend became very popular. It took two forms. Jesus appeared to...

It declared that mary was free of original sin back in 1950, stemming from the idea that Mary is the mother of God (and she is not). So her special state required some...

Like Jesus, Mary is presented as sinless, preserved from corruption. In other words a resurrection body before any of us. Mary is queen of heaven in resurrection. She is seen as a mediator, which is a position held only by Jesus.

There is a unity of Mary and Jesus, which is taught as being unique. It is claimed that she shares the Lord's authority in eternity past?

On that assumption, Rev. 12:1 is applied, saying that she is the prototype of the church in life, death and resurrection. She has already experienced the glorious resurrection, according to Catholic doctrine. She is sometimes called the new Eve. Parallel to Jesus as the second Adam. She is placed on a par with the resurrected Christ and she is included as a part of the firstfruits of resurrection. She died as a member of the Church Age; but she would not be in her order.

This doctrine is a prolific field of discussion among Roman Catholic theologians. Bobby is not attacking Catholic believers. Each person has their own volition and how they view Jesus Christ. That decision, apart from Biblical revelation, is just a guess; faith without evidence.

Millions today have venerated Mary without the barest of Scripture for doing so. Her bones are still in the grave. She has not been resurrected. She will be resurrection when we are en masse.

While not attacking people, there is nothing wrong to refute this false claim. It denigrates the resurrection of the Lord. Mary is not elevated to deity; nor will we be.

In the ways mentioned, Mary becomes more important than Christ. Many pray to Mary; many seek her intercession. You must understand Mary and her life in the time of Christ. She offered silent service. Not one act of mercy or miracle was done in her name. At the wedding feast of Cana, Jesus rebukes His mother. "Woman, what does that have to do with us?" Jesus made an issue of something that she said was wrong. Jesus let Mary know that she was out of place. She did not have any special spiritual merit. She was honored as the mother of the Lord Jesus Christ; but in life, she is just another believer. She did not precede any other Church Age believer in resurrection.

We examine the gospels to see what info there is. Jesus is resurrected; no question about it. So will Christians be resurrected. So will Mary be resurrected with the rest of us. But if Mary's body had been taken into heaven, you would think that would be clearly stated in Scripture. If that would be a doctrine necessary for salvation, then why is this not revealed clearly?

Paul has enjoyed a resurrection experience.

2Cor. 12:2-4 Paul was in heaven, but he returned to earth and physically died. He has not received a resurrection body. Each unit is in its own order.

David is both dead and buried and his tomb is with us till this day. David's bones are still in the grave. And so are the bones of Mary, as are all who left this world who now reside in heaven. No one has a resurrection body, including Mary. Jesus is the exception. That is why we celebrate...

Mary could not have gone into heaven in an immortal body. That time has not yet come. It has not yet occurred. Our hope and confidence is based upon the resurrection of our Savior. If this is not true, our faith is in vain. This is our resurrection.

1Thess. 4:16 For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a cry of command, with the voice of an archangel, and with the sound of the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first.

1Thess. 4:17 Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will always be with the Lord.

That is our pass in review; saluting Him in our way to heaven as resurrected human beings. Mary and Paul will be there; and we will be there as well.

Death and taxes are certain; but neither are true. We still have to pay taxes. What do you mean they are not certain? Some boast of never paying taxes. And the Scripture declares that we will not all sleep (die). Some will not all die physically before the resurrection. They are the ones who will receive the resurrection body.

Mary has already died. For her, there is one thing that is certain.

1Cor. 15:51 Behold! I tell you a mystery. We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, 1Cor. 15:52 in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we shall be changed.

This is what happens when we are resurrected. At the last trumpet; the shout, the return of Christ. The trumpet will sound and the dead in Christ will be raised imperishable. We will be changed. We will not have the old body.

1Cor. 15:53 For this perishable body must put on the imperishable, and this mortal body must put on immortality.

After this, there will be no more death. Jesus died as our substitute; He is still the God-man making intercession for us in heaven. He is eternal, and this is a part of His essence. We will be just like Him. He is right now the only resurrected One. He is the firstfruits; the first harvest. This is what Mary, Paul and the rest of us will be like.

1John 3:2 Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is.

When Jesus appears, we will be like Him. We will be resurrected to a body like His. That is what the promise is. Because Christ is resurrected; we will have a resurrected body just like His. We will see Him just as He is. This is the confidence that we have right now in our life. This is Mary's hope and our hope. Our resurrection is imminent. The time is short, as is our lives. In the meantime, we know, to live is Christ, to die is profit. This is beyond our imagination. Because Christ is resurrected, we will be resurrected. That is our celebration on Easter morning.

1Cor. 15:54 When the perishable puts on the imperishable, and the mortal puts on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written: "Death is swallowed up in victory."

Lesson #0078

Psalm 12 Wisdom in the OT

4/14/2020 Tuesday

what it means to cut off flattering lips.

Our subject today is human power versus divine power. David is lamenting the fact that he feels very alone. He is surrounded by treacherous, untrustworthy people. David calls for help; for the godly man ceases to be; the faithful disappear.

Psalm 12:1 Save, O LORD, for the godly one is gone; for the faithful have vanished from among the children of man.

Psalm 12:2 Everyone utters lies to his neighbor; with flattering lips and a double heart they speak.

And David continues. You can see how power has gone to the heads of various places in government. David describes the character of these untrustworthy people is. They speak lies to one another; they are liars.

This is a typical problem for those who are faithless, treacherous and power hungry.

Points on the Liars

1. These are liars, inveterate liars, and they lie to each other.
2. They speak and they live a lie. All of their life is a lie. When you get into that pattern, your entire life becomes a lie. This is why these people are ungodly people who are faithless.
3. They are also smooth persuasive flattering people who lie. They speak out of both sides of their mouths.
4. What does a double heart mean? They speak with two different intentions; the public one and the one behind the veil.
5. What is said sounds good, it sounds flattering; and it sounds truthful or it contains some truth; yet it is untrustworthy and can even be treacherous.
6. This is intended to mislead. These lies are intended to gain an advantage on whatever the goal is for the liar.

David then makes this request.

Psalm 12:3 May the LORD cut off all flattering lips, the tongue that makes great boasts,

David asks God to be delivered from all arrogant liars. There is a synonymous parallel to flattering lips. Big talk; braggadocios talk. David is confident that the Lord will solve this problem.

Meaning of the Synecdoche Here

1. Synecdoche which means, a part for the whole.
2. The flattering tongue is the part for the body that stands for a lying person.
3. That is, a flattering person who is arrogant, dishonest, hypocritical and treacherous. Is that ever a description of some involved in our crisis today.
4. David wants the destruction of the flattering lips, which implies the destruction of those deceitful people.

What Is David Actually Asking God to Do Here?

1. The exact meaning of to cut off, it is not always easy to understand.
2. Removal of a person in this time was a punishment; in the Mosaic Law.
3. It can be a physical death carried out by the community.
4. It can mean destruction by divine intervention.

Clearly, David is not looking to just remove the people from his communicate?

How Can We Understand this Cutting Off?

1. This is an appeal for God's justice in the land. Divine intervention of divine justice.
2. This means the removal of the wicked lies by removing the liars and slanderers.
3. These particular liars in David's periphery are not people who are flattering one another harmlessly. This is not, "Hey you look good today, David."
4. These are flatterers with a vengeance.
5. They have a method to their madness.

Bobby sees that his wife is writing furiously.

More Points

1. Liars in high places are always destructive to the group that they govern. David wants them removed.
2. They themselves are a threat to society. They affect the thinking and actions of the nation as a whole.
3. Hence the nation becomes permeated with lies and deception. They are following their lying leadership. You see the rise of crime, of theft, of ponzi schemes.
4. Those faithful to the Lord are disappearing. David asks for the destruction of these liars and flatterers. They are naturally opposed to David. They have power on their minds.

More Points

you may want to review these notes in what is happening today.

1. Nabar is the verb which means to be strong, to be mighty.
2. The strong and mighty, the nabar of v. 4, refers to doing great things, as v. 3b calls it.
3. They have complete control over what they say; they choose to believe these lies. Being strong, being mighty; gaining power.
4. Like a controlled media for the purpose of spreading propaganda instead of news. Their lives control us; fake news.
5. These are the great things of evil perpetrated by liars. The nabar of evil. If it is not God's Word, it is of the cosmic system. Ultimately the cosmic system must lie. Satan is the great deceiver and those who serve him are also deceptive and lying.
6. They are smug; they chant smug slogans; they are confident and they are sure that their lies will be effective. Who can resist their magnificent lying logic. They are the elite of society. Who could resist their lying arrogance? A bodyguard of lies. They will do great things because they are so great in their own minds. Their lies permeate all of society.

Who could possibly rule over them? Who is lord over us? What arrogance. They will submit to no authority but their own. The most anti-authority of people. They will slander their opposition. Their tongue lashing. All of this is alive and well in our country today.

Bobby does not endorse any candidates. But he uses them as examples. Today, the target is President Trump. "Who is this Trump who think that he can undo all that we have done over these years. Who is he to expose our deceptions to the nations? How dare he do that? Who can rule over us? Then they name call; what a buffoon he is; he is not a lawyer; he is not one of us. So let's denigrate and belittle him at every opportunity. They swear to themselves, these power mongers. They swear, in the end, we will get this guy and destroy him and all that he stands for. This includes the Christianity. On Easter he gave a strong message on Easter. We are the detestable ones. They do not mind if they undo or undermine everything. That is their great things; their objectives. No different from their deceivers and liars in the time of David. This is why he called for the Lord to help.

Why would these people do these sorts of things even to the president? He is a threat to them and to their power and to their freedom. He threatens their lies and deceit. They have made dupes of the citizens of this nation. Socialism itself is a lie. Many people did not like Bob's personality; he was way too dogmatic; he should be nicer.

This is so true in the halls of government.

What Is this Power Politics?

1. This is going on around us. This is a method to gain and maintain power in the nation. It is built on the bedrock of lies. It is for the reason of political power; for the purpose of control; not service. They want control over us.

2. This is what socialism does; it seeks power over you. People buy the lie.
3. It is humanistic and a human viewpoint solution to the problems of mankind. The solution of power politics is humanistic; and hence, a cosmic system solution. We embrace divine solutions and we oppose the cosmic system.
4. Power politics represents collective human viewpoint.
5. Power politics is anti divine institution. We have turned against our divine institution in our society. We have oppose marriage and family. We have embraced their lying doctrines.
6. Power politics uses human good to promote itself. It sounds great.
7. In socialism, we are brought down financially. We produce evil. Faithful, slandering liars always produces evil.
8. Yet it is very seductive in its verbal expressions. Lies so often are. Whether personal or corporate. Lies to people or lies to a group.

Power Politics

1. Power politics is constantly on the attack because the cosmic system is always on the attack to gain ascendancy over large groups of believers. The more a person advances...
2. The lies in a client nation, the seductions; a reflection of the greater Angelic Conflict.
3. Power politics attacks any opposition They spew vindictives; they try to ruin or kill their target.
4. There is no truth in their charges; only falsehoods. The impeachment attempt of the president was full of lies. It was strung out for years, to hide other lies. To remove in power politics the duly elected power of the nation.
5. They have no regard to human freedom; no regard for divine providence.

This is what David is surrounded by and what we are surrounded by.

The Solution of Man's Problems

1. Mankind cannot solve his own personal problems. Perhaps temporarily. Cannot be done satisfactorily and permanently.
2. The sin nature of man and a fallen world gets in the way. Even though we as believers has sin natures and live in a fallen world; we still have real solutions. We have the problem solving devices which we gain as believers in Jesus Christ. We have solutions which work; and they are resident in your soul.
3. Power politics cannot solve your problems.
4. The power politics solve nothing.
5. They try to solve collective problems in the society or nation. They see all of these personal problems and they strive mightily to do something about it. But their solutions fail miserably. They throw money at poverty and it does not work. Their problems are endless. The biggest problem being arrogance. They live a lie.

This is where arrogance and power politics manifest themselves. "I have all the solutions so I need to be in power." But they cannot even solve their own personal problems. So they cannot solve collective problems through humanistic means.

The Thinking of Power Politicians

1. To accomplish this collective solution requires a drive for collective power. Not every politician is a power politician. There are those who have a background of divine establishment; those who are not liars; those who have doctrine.
2. They have a need, the power politicians for control in government. Power at any cost; at any price, including the prostitution of their integrity.
3. Their weapon of choice is lies and subterfuge; propaganda, sleight of hand.
4. In doing so, the best interests of the people are set aside and buried.
5. Once the power politician is in control, they engage in social action, social justice, socialism, population control through progressive legislation. Regulations and rules designed for their own power.
6. The final result of power politics is power for power's sake. "I want to be at the top of the heap" is their intent.
7. That is always the goal of the arrogant self-centered soul.

Bobby has more to say. This is a very important point. Important for us to make application in the time that we live. There are problems in politics; not all but some of them.

Lesson #0079

Psalm 12 Wisdom in the OT

4/16/2020 Thursday

We continue in Psalm 12, but we will take a detour into another psalm, one of the more famous psalms.

We applied Psalm 12:4

Psalm 12:4 those who say, "With our tongue we will prevail, our lips are with us; who is master over us?"

This is an excellent description of the backstabbing lowlife anti-establishment. David called them double-talkers. An email from Tom Molinar, and he has a ministry in south Africa to a very famous tribe, the Zulu tribe. One of the greatest warrior tribes in all of Africa.

Berachah Church and the Zulus have an interesting connection. The song that we sing in Berachah Church. Bob and Bobby were watching a movie called Zulu, and a English army was hold up in a mission station. The Zulu's had just wiped out another army. The Zulu's were saying something to the army and they sang back the Men of Harlick; and Bob then wrote Christian soldier.

Back to Molinar's letter. The Zulu word for arrogance. It means to eat oneself up. There is also another word for arrogance; and it means to be puffed up, like a bull frog or a puffer fish. 1200x more powerful than cyanide. There is no antidote. Nothing more poisonous than arrogance. David is surrounded by such men.

We are also surrounded by our own arrogant types; power politicians who employ power politics.

A Review

1. Power politics is a method to gain and maintain power in a nation. Power in order to control. They are anything but servants of the people. They are servants of themselves.
2. Power politics is humanistic and hence it is a satanic solution to the problems of mankind. Satan's solutions are no solutions. God's solutions are the problem solving devices.
3. Our politics is anti-divine establishment. This is always the opposite of God's truth.
4. Power politics is Satan's counter to divine establishment and to Bible doctrine in the souls of believers.
5. Power politics is most deceptive because it uses human good to promote people or to promote themselves. At the end of the day, after the veneer of human good has been removed; it reveals evil. The power politics takes up a cause like poverty, which is certainly a hardship for anyone in that position. But it is basically a false government solution. A government scheme. It does not work. It sounds good and it sounds noble but it actually enslaves people to their entitlements. This is how they are controlled. It destroys their initiative. He offers them free stuff, they vote them in. What government has the power to give you, it also has the power to take away.
6. Power politics is very seductive in its verbal approach. Satan is like a roaring lion moving about seeking whom he might desire.
7. Power politics is constantly on the attack in the attempt to gain power over large groups of people.

Their first approach is to control people with seductive speech. Make that which is good to appear to be mired in the past.

The Power Politician Is the Facilitator of the Cosmic System

1. The power politician is the facilitator of the cosmic system. He depends upon lies to achieve his goals. Based upon cosmic system falsehoods that must prevail.
2. In power politics, the ends justify the means. The imposition of political correctness; that is a lie. We cannot as a society offend anyone.
3. Power politics emphasizes evil actions and attitudes. Forced change through rules, regulations, sometimes violence, tyranny, revolution. The ultimate power politics is the revolutionary. Stalin and Hitler were the ultimate in this realm. This is the extreme of power politics.
4. They emphasize change; whatever is going on today is inadequate. I will throw a program out there to change everything. Power politics destroys authority and the activities of freedom. Freedom and opportunity are not the highest goal of the power politician. He sells security. They have it for you. Follow my instructions and you will be secure.

5. Power politics must attack personal freedom for corporate security, replacing personal freedom with the collective good; replacing privacy, property and free enterprise. They are attacked and removed because they are personal. The collective good comes straight out of Karl Marx.

The flattering tongues of power politics will attempt to lie and decide. Bobby gave the example of President Trump. The power politician wants us to hate Trump as much as they do. "Nothing will stop them; they will prevail. We are smarter and more powerful and more well-funded." But they reckon without the plan of God. The most important aspect of the client nation. The deception and the lies, there is no limit to the destruction which can follow.

In the endeavor of power politics, they just cannot conceive of failure. They cannot imagine not ruling over their inferiors. Everyone is inferior to them. The justice and righteousness of God. God will not be mocked by power politics.

David's plea in Psalm 12, just as it was in Psalm 7. In the eyes of the power politicians, they are the just and the powerful. They think that they are above the plan of God, but they cannot win against the plan of God. Power politics has been stymied everywhere that it is tried, a new client nation springs up. David knows all of this and we should as well.

Greater is he who is in you than he who is in the world. God will respond to maturing believers, the heart and soul of the nation.

God's Promises and Provisions

1. In the case of God's purposes or His people are threatened, he supplies warning and punishment. When the power politics and power politician; then intensified warning and intensified punishment is in line for them. God will not be mocked. Things happen in this world for things like this.
2. If there is no correction, the maximum punishment can be applied. This might be the misery of a nation, like Great Britain. A client nation before; and miserable today.
3. Jesus Christ will deliver the believer through it all. That is our confidence. We will be delivered.
4. Psalm 91 is the promise of His great security.

David needed God's help and God's security desperately.

The Speech of the Wicked

1. The wicked disobey God with their mouths and their speech.
2. They pervert and twist the truth with their speech.

3. Their goal is to gain power; they use flattery, deception, clever ideological and political schemes.
4. They are far from divine establishment. They use any crisis for their own benefit. We will see how they try to exploit the Corona virus and what happens with that.
5. The rule of law is their enemy; it blocks their desire for power.
6. They bend and twist the law for their advantage. It happens in courtrooms all of the time today.
7. The source of their lies is in their souls; in the mentality of their thinking.
8. Their lives revolve around the great deceiver, Satan.
9. The wicked are completely taken in by falsehood, preferring the lie to the truth. The truth hurts them, so they lie or live a lie.
10. They exalt the degraded; they exalt evil; they exalt the perverse. They are attracted to all things anti-establishment; they are their own authority. Who can be Lord over us? No one can tell me what to do. I do what I want.
11. They are full of relativistic ideals that they cling to and they force these on everyone else. Humanist, relative ideas, which they force on others.
12. Their goal is power. They will go to any ends to achieve this power. They desire a Machiavellian or an unscrupulous victory, like Absalom against David. The power politician wants power.
13. It is power at any price. This includes the downfall of the very people over whom they want to rule. That is the hypocrisy and the power politician.

Their conduct convicts them of a practical atheism. When you turn away from God, you turn away from His Word and from His standards.

Psalm 12:5 "Because the poor are plundered, because the needy groan, I will now arise," says the LORD; "I will place him in the safety for which he longs."

Simply put, God rides to the rescue. The groaning of the needy. "I will place him in the safety for which he longs." It is okay to desire the safety net of God; not the safety net of government. David is no longer expressing his own feelings about those who oppose him. He is expressing confidence in those who answer him.

This appears to be a promise made by God to David. What a contrast this is between the speech of the wicked and the surety of the power of God. Don't worry about power politics. When you ask help from God, He rises up.

The rising up of the Lord, paraphrased is, the word of the Lord promises to deliver those who seek safety from such tyranny. How about putting that on your refrigerator? The future tense implies that the promise will come. The true safety net for the needy and the poor. God's answer is not the welfare state or socialism.

1. This verse contains a promise; a promise of deliverance to those who desire and need it. We sometimes beg God for deliverance and safety and sometimes, we have this by making a simple decision.
2. The words of the wicket indicate that power was in their grasp through the mastery of speech; through the excellence of their iron-clad deceptions. Who can figure out this twisted labyrinth of lies that we tell the people.
3. Their ultimate crime is arrogance. That is the bottom of all verbal sins. Smug self-centeredness. It is always a confidence that crumbles under pressure. The politicians are in meltdown mode. It is not working. They try harder with even bigger lies. People could still buy into this. They could still choose socialism. Our bedrock is the divine institutions and divine establishment.

God will finally arise; He will go into action. He responds with justice because of all that is going on.

God's Intervention

1. God moves from seeming inactivity; this is a manner of speaking. God will act, even though he may not seem that way. God moves from inactivity to deliverance.
2. He works for the safety for which we desire. We desire God to remove the nation from the great corruption it is facing.
3. This is the beginning of that action of divine intervention. This is what David wanted. He wanted God in on it. God's justice is justice. This is the beginning of divine intervention.
4. What stirs God to action is the violence that these manipulators of these deceptive words have done to the afflicted. These weavers of deceptive words.
5. God will arise for the people who desire His intervention. Many understand the problems today; and their solution is often Christian activism. We can stand against untruth and we should. God is working.
6. In fact, the people desire something; and this means that they pant for deliverance. They are like dogs who are worn out from exertion. Bobby saw a cartoon, a dog saying, "I don't want to go for a walk the 20th time." Pets depend upon the kindness of their master. People can understand cruelty from others; animals cannot.
7. God resolves the problem for the afflicted, as does the master who takes care of his dog. We can think of it as a bowl of water and a good dish of food. We get much more. David was a shepherd; and he has taken care of his dogs many times. The dogs take care of the sheep better than the shepherd ever could. David puts his security in the hands of the Lord.

Psalm 12:6 The words of the LORD are pure words, like silver refined in a furnace on the ground, purified seven times.

We will complete v. 6 and then launch into the greatest passage on Christian security. Psalm 91.

Finally caught up with this lesson.

No singing.

Psalm 12:6 The words of the LORD are pure words, like silver refined in a furnace on the ground, purified seven times.

This will lead us into Psalm 91. There were slanderers and flatterers. David is faced with a lot of hypocritical, backstabbing people. In this verse, the words of these people are contrasted with the words of God. The promises made by God to us are never false. That is why they are pure words. Man's words can be lies, half truths, ignorance, or even truthful. God's words are always truthful. We have a security which comes from these words, whether it be personal or corporate.

This particular doctrine became necessary because of the widespread and prevailing corruption in the kingdom. There were not many faithful; they were ceasing to exist. The truth of God Himself has never failed.

The Purity of God's Word

1. Those who are not corrupted, and most were and had been corrupted, take heart; there is deliverance in God's promises.
2. There is God's Word, truth, over against the lies, deceptions, false honesty, hypocrisy, treachery, perverse speech, scheming of the wicked; over all of that God wins and God delivers.
3. God's promises might be likened to silver refined in a smelters; purified 7x over. Most precious metal are not refined that much. This is hyperbole for a reason.
4. Silver is being refined repeatedly, completely, to the purest form, to the purest silver. Just as pure silver refined 7x, so is the purity of God's Word.
5. There is an absolute encouragement that comes from His pure and unadulterated promises. When you have the truth of God's wisdom in your soul; you will have the resources to deal with this adversity.
6. This is the security of divine wisdom directly from God; pure words.

Let's have a look at Psalm 91. This reveals just how secure that we are in the pureness of God's Word.

Introduction to Psalm 91

1. Psalm 91 is one of the great psalms on security. One of the greatest doctrinal treatises in the entire Bible.
2. God has promised protection in all matters of adversity. How we can get this virus. People are coming down with this virus every day. How much protection and security is this? Some are thinking that in isolation, they will not get it. The protection which we now seek is found in this psalm. We are promised in all matters of adversity.

3. Psalm 91 brings security application to us. It is done by means of some of the most beautiful metaphors in the Bible. Bobby loves literature and good writing. This psalm is rich in metaphor.
4. This psalm contains wisdom, real wisdom, concerning trust in the Lord, and the security that results from that trust. We can always see wrapped in that the faith rest drill.

Is this your attitude?

Psalm 91:1 He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will abide in the shadow of the Almighty.

Psalm 91:2 I will say to the LORD, "My refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust."

God Is Our Shelter over us

1. God is love; and we sometimes question whether God is there or not. How long will this go on? Where are you, God? And you may act as if God suddenly deserted you. God does not desert you or take away all of our coverage. God has not removed this protection. He is out of fellowship, let's go. This is a celebration of God's love and watchful care. The perfect peace of those who make God their refuge. This is what David always needs. There is always some adversity on the horizon or he is neck deep in it.
2. The fact that they are under God's shadow portrays God as over our heads as a Protector.
3. This verse is very personal. This specifically applies to us.
4. The author of Psalm 91, who is not named, is impressing upon us the importance of an intimate relationship with the Lord. You cannot say God is our refuge, our fortress, our God, without a relationship with the Almighty. We understand these things. When you know and understand someone, you have an intimate relationship with them. Knowledge, soul knowledge, the mentality of the soul knowing that person, respecting that person, knowing how that person thinks. We share our thoughts and requests with God in prayer. That is an intimate relationship. If you don't have that, you don't have an intimate relationship.
5. In this relationship with a very personal God, God is not something impersonal; God is a person. He is presented as a person throughout the Bible. So many think God as being impersonal or ethereal; but He is very personal. We have a very personal God whose safekeeping is promised to each one of us. We cannot apply this to our lives unless we understand God. That is the objective. That is where we need to be, under the umbrella of God's protection.

Bobby will go through every verse in this chapter. Keep these things in mind:

Points on this Psalm

1. God's care and security does not mean that we are exempt from these sorts of problems.
2. Protection does not mean exemption. God protects us in many ways. David needs protection. We must figure out, how does God protect us when we are in the middle of it?
3. Logically, why would these problems be mentioned if we are entirely exempt from them? We are not exempt; and we need the security that comes to us in the middle of them.
4. This security does not mean that we will be physically delivered out of every problem. God does not remove every problem from our periphery. God secures us.
5. God will deliver us, however, although, in ways that we may not ask for or comprehend. That is where we must trust in the Lord. We may want God to remove the problem; that is security.
6. God may allow the adversity so that we might continually grow spiritually. Security is inherit in this promise, but we must learn to trust it. We have leaders in this life who lead us in various places. We have leaders in business, in professions. Do you trust them? Many people do not. What brings trust for a leader to you? You must know them; you must understand what they do. You can trust that they will make good decisions for you in every case. You have to develop trust in God; in Bobby, in other leaders. "You are under my care; and you can be secure that he will present the Word of God with as much accuracy as he can muster." Trust is the final objective.
7. What Psalm 91 brings out, when these situations occur; Corona virus is on many minds today. We recognize God's security through it and in it. That does so much for us. That is what faith rest is.
8. God's plan is security for the mature believer. We come to know God's plan as a maturing believer. In that plan and by the application of His Word, and by the execution of faith rest, we acquire a relaxed mental attitude in life. That is what God's plan supplies for us when we are in it. As God has a plan for us, that supplies us with protection. Operations order is the first thing given by a leader to his troops. What are our resources, who will do what, and where do we go. In the Rangers there was a combat team, a security team, a recon team. The Bible is our operations order. When we carry out the plan of God, God is our security and we must trust in Him.
9. God's plan and how He works things out in it like working all things together for good in every circumstance for those who love God. This is how His plan works; and that is the basis for real security. When you understand God's plan. Even the Corona virus crisis. We should not ignore the human ideas for security. God uses the human ideas for security as well. Who protects us? God does. We should never perpetrate a lifestyle of cowardice. We are secure in our salvation by faith alone in Christ alone. Our first security is faith-security. We have a secure place in heaven. Security in life in our life on earth. That is the "no fear" bumper sticker.

Some people find out that they have great insecurities in everything. That is a lifestyle of fear and cowardice. We want to preclude a lifestyle of cowardice.

We need to live in absolute confidence that nothing can assault us. The mature believer is encouraging himself or herself by understanding God's position in the attacks of the wicket; the same types of wicked found in Psalm 12. This is so that David can encourage himself. The maturing believer knows. Paul knew the psalms well; he knew the OT Scriptures. He summed it up in Rom. 8:31 If God be for us, who can be against us? This is a summation of Psalm 91.

Psalm 12:7 You, O LORD, will keep them; you will guard us from this generation forever.

Psalm 91:1 He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will abide in the shadow of the Almighty.

Two parallel phrase in v. 1. Bobby paraphrase this. Whoever trusts in the Most High finds security and protection. We continue to build trust. A relaxed mental attitude in adversity. This puts it all together. That is protection from the likes of the antagonists described in Psalm 12. This is a great application for David.

The name Most High stresses God's essence. Especially His omnipotence, his power his ability to protect. He is above everything and all things.

This shelter of the Most High makes Bobby think of an impregnable bunker, under the attack of a intense artillery barrage. One of the worst things on the battlefield. The ground shakes all around you. The noise is deafening. Your ears are deafened and you find a bunker to run into. They make you hunker down even more into this bunker. The more that we retreat into the divine fortress, the safer that we are.

Many who live in the midwest, in tornado alley, they dive into their bunker, into their cellar. The tornado may take away their house, but their cellar is still there.

Refuge is God's provision for adversity. Something for when things are not going well topside. The fortress is a castle providing physical protection throughout the believer's life. David got it. Once the shelling of adversity starts, we dive into the fortress, Who is God.

In eternity past, God has made provision for every problem and difficulty. There is no problem too great for the omnipotence of God.

The Fortress of God

1. The more time that we spend in His fortress, the more confidence that we have. Metabolizing doctrine, utilizing the problem solving devices. We see God work and we develop more confidence in Him. Bobby teaches this so that we can live our lives without fear or apprehension.
2. We must remain in God's care for the next round of adversity.

3. We are safe in His plan. We will become cognizant of that security by applying His Word.
4. That is what constitutes confidence in Him; that is what causes us to trust in the Lord. You know that God takes care of you and you are confident in that, come what may.
5. That confidence indicates that we are advancing in the use of the faith rest drill and the spiritual life in general.
6. In life, this is the only time that God can provide us with protection in adversity. How can this ruin our life?

Now we begin the descriptive...the time where we can understand what the Lord provides. We can face the terrors of life so that we can remember when we are in the middle of it.

Psalm 91:2 I will say to the LORD, "My refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust."

Psalm 91:3 For he will deliver you from the snare of the fowler and from the deadly pestilence.

The snare of the trapper and from deadly pestilence. The snare of the trapper is an ambush, a surprise attack. It is easy to be taken off guard, especially when taken away from your refuge. This is where it starts again and you get caught up in it.

We live life, to the fullest. All of these things are provided for us by the protection of God. God will deliver us from the sudden storms and adversity of life. We should know that it was very unexpected. A few weeks ago, Bobby did not expect to come back from his honeymoon and be guaranteed again.

Pestilence is disease; but this represents a special danger than can overtake anyone without warning. The victims often did not understand its cause. A special terror; a fear of the unknown. Everyone understood this. We know the bubonic plague in the Middle Ages. We knew that it came from the fleas of small mammals. Rats had a field day. This spread rapidly. It is very ironic. Bobby did a short study of the bubonic plague coming from China in the 1300's through trade. It reached Britain and Scandinavia. It ravaged Europe taking a proportionally high percentage of life than ever before. Also called the Black Death, a greatly feared killer. Even in such circumstances, God protects and God cares. If you get panicky during the pandemic as millions are.

God may keep us from contracting a disease. Many survived. God protected many. God may keep us from that disease. If we do contract the disease, God may keep us from dying from it. Many more will survive the Corona disease than die from it. We have the security of dying grace and this will be used to encourage others. The maturing believer who does not fear death. Others need to see what a relaxed mental attitude looks like even when dying. Look at that person; they are not afraid. That is the faith rest drill.

We are at v. 4.

Psalm 91:4 He will cover you with his pinions, and under his wings you will find refuge; his faithfulness is a shield and buckler.

How many times have we sung, A Mighty Fortress is our God, a bulwark never failing.

Lesson #0081

Psalm 12 Wisdom in the OT

4/21/2020 Tuesday

We will remember this chapter for many reasons. It is full of doctrine. It is full of comforting doctrine which is encouraging and security. An added bonus, it is easy to remember. It contains some very memorable lines.

If you like literature or Shakespear, you may be well aware of some important quotes what better quotes or lines to remember than those which come from the Lord Himself. Statements of God's security that is beautiful. The illustrations are truly rich, so that we have a clear view about what God does for us.

The maturing believer based upon doctrines in this chapter. This is the perfect adjunct to our study of Psalm 12. This will help us delineate our case.

Psalm 91:4 He will cover you with his pinions, and under his wings you will find refuge; his faithfulness is a shield and buckler. [or a refuge and a bulwark]

Psalm 91 stayed with Martin Luther and he composed a song related to all of this.

This world with devils filled. All very much related to this information.

First two words of v. 4, pinions and wings allude to birds guarding their young. An expressive figure of speech; bird who are very protective in their nests. Very graphic bird metaphor of safety and comfort. You can see this on a cold night when the adult birds will cuddle with their fledglings. Bobby has a mother bird with her fledglings under the mother. They are secure and this gives added meaning to the covering of the wings itself. Under its wings you may seek refuge. This mother bird is faithful to her chicks. The mother bird will die for them if necessary.

A mockingbird is the state bird; but they are admirable birds, you know the bravery involved there. Many time, Bobby has seen a threat being handled by a mother bird. She will dive on the intruder, a dog or a human. Bobby's old dog was attacked. This is a protective stance for the chicks in her nest.

Jesus is like that; He died for us. Bobby has seen mockingbirds die in that attempt. Bobby saw a red-tailed hawk eating the mockingbird; defending her chicks to the death.

We are the two chicks under the wings of the bird; under the wings of God. The bird is vulnerable; but God is unassailable.

This passage refers to angels as well. Guardian angels are in the picture of protection as well. The picture here is of God's care. He is always protective and always faithful to His own.

Psalm 91:5 You will not fear the terror of the night, nor the arrow that flies by day,

Terror at night is the unknown. Or of the arrow which flies by day.

The Terrors of Night

1. God's protection extends to any time of day or night, no matter the danger. This probably refers to the metaphor of war. Arrow has that connotation.
2. Time is not an issue in God's security. God does not go off duty. He does not punch a clock and go home. God is on duty at all times.
3. This terror by night may allude to night attacks in warfare, like night attacks in Judges 7. This is a favorite artifice of warfare and one that was most fears for the chaos and uncertainty that took place in battle. Well-known in the Pacific theater in WWII. The Japanese was masters of sneaking into the foxholes of American soldiers and cut their throat. They were so good at that. Or this may be a fear that develops and spreads in darkness. This is when our fears are the greatest. Sleeplessness for fear of events of the coming day. They are afraid of what is coming tomorrow.
4. God is in control and fear is not authorized for our lives.
5. The arrow that flies by day could generally refer to a terrible, powerful enemy at the gates. This could be a material enemy like the destruction of Sennacherib in 2King 19; 2Chron. 32. More modern, the artillery round, which falls from the sky and makes the toughest soldier cower.

There is a long list of the fears. Who could foresee a pandemic or an earthquake? And the accompanying title wave or a volcanic eruption. Bobby has recently been in Yellowstone Park, to see all the heat being generated; the pools of boiling water. This is one volcanic cauldron, which comes to the surface here or there. It has been in the news lately. An eruption there could destroy a massive amount of our country. Krakatowa sent smoke up all over the earth. It was as large as a nuclear bomb; and the tidal wave killed several hundred thousands. Bobby arrived in Portland in 1972. He went up to see the devastation there. The fear of the unknown. What could happen. But we do not have to worry about these things. There is the unseen terror of the cosmic system. The Angelic Conflict; Satan's ideologies are terribly effective.

The Bible tells us about demon possession. The Apostles faced demon possession. What about people who do this or that? Demon possession is not possible for believers in Jesus Christ where God the Holy Spirit indwells. This is not something to fear; we do not have to worry.

Do you fear the cosmic system ideology of the hour? Satan is filled with the latest ideology. Socialism is the cosmic system ideology of the hour. Or maybe you are worried about the hoax of the pandemic. Maybe these orders and there are other things going on. Do you fear a loss of freedom? That may not be wrong. We don't know. Maybe the pandemic will be used for politicians to gain power.

What do any of these circumstances matter when Psalm 91 is in effect. What does any condition matter? Most Christians in this world, before the United States was in the world, were persecuted. Some were persecuted by the Catholic church. All over the world, Christians are still being persecuted.

The loss of freedom under this pandemic. Most countries know nothing of freedom. There are mass murders in some areas. Chinese communism is the tyranny today. Naziism was a tyranny in another day. But the Lord protects His people. They survive and even thrive in all sorts of conditions.

Christianity was spread all over the world because of the Roman empire. Bobby has visited a number of concentration camps, death camps. He has been those in Bavaria, in Poland, Czechoslovakia, and directed towards the Jews mostly. Gypsies, Christians and homosexuals also targeted.

Today, there are still Jews in the world, but Nazi Germany faced an apocalypse. The promise to God's people still stands; and Jews still have a future in God's plan.

God's promises are never unfulfilled. God made promises to Abraham and He will keep them. The Jews continue to be persecuted on this earth. God protects His people even against the worst evil of all. When we observe such activity as that type of persecution I this world, where does your thinking go? We have an iron-clad protection for the arrow that flies. The terror by night or by day; sometimes you can see it coming; other times no.

We are secure from the arrow that flies by day or the terror which attacks at night.

Psalm 91:6 nor the pestilence that stalks in darkness, nor the destruction that wastes at noonday.

There is a scourge of disease; the destruction that lays waste in noon.

Pestilence

1. Pestilence is a connection and a follow on from v. 3 and 5.
2. This is quite likely a synonym for plague, as we saw in v. 3; and there have been many in world history. A third of Europe has been wiped out. A terrible killer. Greater than any war at that time. Leprosy was a great scourge of the ancient world.
3. This can refer to any major calamity that strikes mankind.
4. Here, along with the context of v. 3, it indicates disease or illness. People feared illness from that era. A great fear today is cancer; and so many consider this just a death sentence. Many people die of this disease and many others. Disease is a part of this world and a part of life.

The darkness is night; and the light is the day.

Fear of the Unknown

1. When we think of pestilence, we consider this a sneak attack. We go to the doctor and we realize that we have a disease.
2. It creeps up on a person and strikes without warning; like the COVID virus.
3. It can be equated as it is here to running its deadly course in the darkness of the night. Here it comes but we don't see it coming. One day you are healthy and the next day, you are not.
4. It may also march openly in the middle of the day, at high noon. We know where Corona virus comes from, it comes from China, like the bubonic plague. This disease has affected nations all over the world. Like an arrow coming directly at us. Up until this time, we in the United States were not able to clearly comprehend the scope of the destruction.

We consider epidemics happening in the third world, but we don't think it will come to us. It happens to others. We are the most scientifically advanced nations in the world. We follow science, one candidate said. How could science so fail us? Why don't we have a vaccine for it or a cure for it? What is going on? We felt secure and now, no longer. It has spread and it is taxing all of our resources today. We have politicians who like that this has happened, because they can use this to get their ideas implemented.

Science and medicine are not the iron-clad solutions that man thinks that they are. False confidence that man can solve the problems of the world. Everything has a connection. The greatest messages the greatest lessons, if we can apply it. Corona virus is out there, constantly stalking. Our only defense is, do not associate. Go to your corners and stay there. Apparently the disease must run its course. People heard on the radio today, and the heat may kill off this virus. The deaths and pain and misery are unfortunate, but people die all over the world for many different reasons. Human solutions are not true solutions. They are not iron-clad solutions. They are looking for cues.

Maybe this was a planned pandemic; or maybe it really came from animals. Maybe it came from a lab where a mistake was made and then it spread. In our current times it has a more harmful and immediate affect. We normally can travel so freely and easily. The crossing of open borders, so easy to come across, a guaranteed spread of this kind of thing.

As more people move in, they bring the disease with them. Another wake up call? Another look at our security? What do you put your security in?

Turkmenistan will not let any of this reported and will not allow people even to wear masks. Where is your security. Many pin their hopes on science and on medicine to save us. There is certainly confidence in science; and we keep looking for the miracle cure? Where is it? Where is your security? We begin to realize just how helpless that we have become.

This disease is everywhere. Bobby went to a grocery store, and people with masks walked away from Bobby. Their security is in their masks and in their gloves. Where does their security lie? In their case, in a mask and gloves. We live with the uncertainty and fear and even panic, day and night. We wear the mask and gloves. Day or night, anyone, rich or poor, male or female, any race; we can live in...

No one can give us a definitive answer. No one knows. And people know that. So where is their security.

You thought that you might hear this information and be uplifted. We have Psalm 91; that is our security. Nothing can touch us that God does not know about. Wear your masks; wear your gloves. Recognize that real security always resides in the Lord. We cannot conquer this problem with science and medicine. This is the great hope of those who do not have love. Some think that we will be immortal due to science. That I truth. Science and medicine cannot give you any true security. What is the true solution? Does education concerning this disease give you a calm and reasoned response. It may help; it may help some. This may give a temporary security. Man needs something greater than science and medicine. The spiritual life and the iron-clad promises of Psalm 91. That is the immediate and lasting solution. There may be a cure; there may be a vaccine; but what happens between now and then? Where is your security. It is only in God.

Lesson #0082

Psalm 12 Wisdom in the OT

4/23/2020 Thursday

Harris county has said we need to wear masks until the 30th or a $1000 fine.

Psalm 91 is the immediate and lasting solution to all fear and apprehension.

Psalm 91:5 You will not fear the terror of the night, nor the arrow that flies by day,

Psalm 91:6 nor the pestilence that stalks in darkness, nor the destruction that wastes at noonday.

You will not be afraid of natural disasters. The pestilence which stalks us in darkness. Day or night, it is out there, waiting for us. We will not be afraid. That is a mandate. This lack of fear is the epitome recognizes the security provided for us by the LORD.

Bulwark means wall of protection. Our God is a bulwark, standing between us and our fears. Mankind has temporary relative solutions and the only utterly reliable solution for all problems at all times. We may not be able to change the problems or the problems which we face; but we can change our attitudes regarding these fears. We need to trust in a faithful God.

God's Protection During the Covid19 Crisis

1. With God as our fortress, and this is David's message in adversity in human situations are impossible to overcome.

2. If calamity and disease does strike any of us, how we respond is a testimony. Bobby knows one congregant with COVID19. We are secure whether we get it or not. We may or may not contract the disease.
3. Even if death strikes any one of us from this pandemic, it is to our benefit.
4. Just remember, as long as God has a purpose for our lives, we will survive the most awful adversities and problems in life.
5. For the living, living through them and recovering from it, there is guidance and there is course correction. "Get your priorities straight." Let's stop and not be so distracted. Reorganize your priorities. The first priority is your spiritual life and your spiritual growth. You should have a relaxed patient view of what is happening. We are in God's fortress. There is no pain, no illness too great for the plan of God and our position under His wings.

How Should We Consider Our Place in this Pandemic Today?

1. We may view this pandemic as discipline on a large scale and/or guidance from the LORD for each one of us. Lev. 26:25
2. We may see this as a wake up path; to reconsider our path as a nation. Where are we in the case of divine establishment. How far have we departed from it.
3. Something as simple as assembling together to regain our momentum as a client nation to God and our maximum spiritual growth. During this time, we cannot assemble ourselves together. Bobby has no idea when we will get the green light to gather. We have come to a halt as a client nation; and we have a large part to play. We have the best environment within which to grow agt Berachah Church. Bobby prays for us to listen to an entire class. Do not make excuses to yourself. All Bobby can do is teach it. When we reassemble and there is no more streaming video and you decide to pick up the phone and complain. Don't. It is not their fault; it is Bobby's policy. You evaluate yourself. Bobby has given us the reasons why we should be assembled. Get the principles so that you can make the right evaluation for your circumstances. It is us to us.
4. If you walk in My statutes and keep My mandates...this brings us into a position to live the best life possible. God's mandates are designed for our benefit. Lev. 26 there is a list of great things that God can do for us. Listen to doctrine. Remember that adversity always presents an opportunity.
5. If we do not walk in His statutes or commandments, so begins the cycles of discipline for a nation. That is the whole point of this chapter. The quarantine and the helpless. We get to evaluate us in the light of God's Word and in the light of divine establishment. How is this being handled nationally? In both parties. How are they looking out for the nation. The socialists are not putting the nation first. They are using this crisis for their own benefit.

Bobby believes our president is doing a magnificent job in terms of divine establishment. Local governments may overreach their own power. Some go off the deep end. Seeing this in Harris County in Houston right now.

Bobby is glad to live in Texas and not in the northeast. We can apply Psalm 91 like never before.

We have the most security of anyone in this nation and anyone in this world. It is there. We just have to trust it. We have to own it. It has to be ours.

Psalm 91:7 A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not come near you.

V. 7 is another promise of security. This is catastrophe. Hyperbole, to highlight the security that we have in God. God's protection is always in operation.

Bobby has studied WWI, fascinated. Going out into no man's land was lethal. Thousands would rise up after an artillery barrage and assault an entrenched enemy. And a great many would never return. Some would have their bodies laying there in no man's land. No one would go and get them.

Such was the case of the battle of the Somme, a terrain feature, a river in France, fought on both sides of the river. This fits perfectly with v. 7. 60,000 Brits died immediately. 1 million died in that battle total. Bobby has stood on the battlefield and has traveled to NW Europe and has visited many of these battlefields. It extends for miles.

Bobby shows a photo. No trees no greenery during the battle. Some shell craters are still there; plenty of barbed wire and bodies. The frontline trenches are still there. But much of this has become a very pastoral scene. Another reminder of the battlefield are the many cemeteries; and there are hundreds of cemeteries all over parts of France. Large graveyards and small.

Being in this battle means, you would have seen 10,000 men cut down right in front of you. Some did survive this battle.

Bobby thinks of the bubonic plague and how it began to spread through Europe. It came through the Middle East, originating in China. A ship arrives almost everyone on the ship was dead. It came from the Black Sea. Then the plague began. And so it spread. Terror by night, destruction by day.

The Exaggerated Language of V. 7

1. Even in this exaggerated language of faith and security of v. 7, exaggerated language for effect.
2. This is the greatest of adversity; 10,000 die all around you. That is security that no one else has.
3. Even in the worst of conditions, it will not approach you. How great is that security. You do not know if you will contract COVID19, but God is protecting.

4. Your relaxed mental attitude is much more effective than science and medicine under those conditions. Put your trust in the Lord; it is there. Science and medicine are inadequate. Sometimes, they do not deliver on promises of cures.
5. The promises from God are worthy of faith and trust. We have a relaxed mental attitude because we know that it cannot approach us.

the believer exposed to all such things, and the plague will have no effect. We depend upon God and we use the protection that He provides, which may be a mask or medicine. Do not think that every protection that you have is miraculous. Common sense is always required of a believer. We are protected for His purposes always inside the plan of God.

More on V. 7

1. Faith in a believer does not necessarily anticipate that harm will never come to him or her. We will all die; so protection from the Lord does not mean harm will never come to you.
2. Remember v. 7 is hyperbole.
3. Exaggerated statements mean, it is possible for God to fend and secure His Own in cases of inescapable danger and death. Imagine the thinking of those about to go on offense going through no man's land. God can protect us and He may.
4. God will frequently do that, more than we know. We do not know what kind of circumstances there are that we are unaware of. So we need faith in things unseen. We may be almost been in a traffic accident.
5. God's plan may call for something else. We may not come out unscathed. We all get injured and we all die. That does not mean that God's protection has been removed from us. We can always be secure in the Lord. We have it; that is our attitude; so that nothing can approach us.
6. This promise of security inside the plan of God is good for every situation. It is why we need not fear since the Lord of hosts is with us. We have security regardless of the outcome of the circumstances. Do not say God protects me unless I get the virus. Wrong understanding. The protection is there. There are occasions when God does not work miraculous deliverance in horrendous danger. He protects us accordingly. We are in His hands no matter what happens. His will and place is always there. Do not take stock of your fears when applying His promises. We are secure and protected. The Lord can get me out of this. That is a secure attitude; that is protection that God provides. Mentally and spiritually; not always physically. Paul was in some of the worst conditions. Put in prison, whipped, beaten, thrown overboard in a storm. Paul is protected until God calls him home. This is not what always happens...

Protection According to V. 7

1. This is not what must always happen but what God can make happen.

2. That is the hyperbole speaking. God can make this happen at anytime for our benefit. That is for our security and our attitude. His plan may take us in a different direction.
3. It is not that God always rescues us. We might be at war and get wounded. We have the security of knowing that we are in God's plan. We can act and function accordingly. That gives us courage under fire.
4. God is our defender and only security in life
5. God can deliver us frm any horrendous danger.
6. There is no limit to his protection; no circumstances that can overwhelm Him. That is why the psalmist writes do not fear.

Psalm 91:7 A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not come near you.

David is asking for God to deliver him from his enemies.

Psalm 91:8 You will only look with your eyes and see the recompense of the wicked.

We will see divine protection. Does this mean that every person who is judged is wicked. If they die in a certain way... We cannot draw the conclusion that when men and women die violently, that we get to see it. Nor can we say God will always protect the believer in danger. If it is true that believers are always delivered from danger, then it would follow that, if you die, you are evil or in reversionism. Trust in the Lord is never misplaced.

Serving your country is not evil. The believer can be rescued from any situation when His plan calls for it.

Psalm 91:8 You will only look with your eyes and see the recompense of the wicked.

Lesson #0083

Psalm 12 Wisdom in the OT

4/26/2020 Sunday

This study is so appropriate to the time that we find ourselves. An auditorium with one person.

The Word of God feeds our soul and prepares us for life, gives us a relaxed mental attitude in adversity, the topic of today.

God has promised delivery for those who are in trouble, which translates into security. Psalm 91 is all about security. Protection from pestilence, plague, destructions, and many other things. These are but a few examples of God's providence.

Psalm 91:7 A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not come near you.

A Summary of Psalm 91:7

1. It is not was must happen, but what God can make happen by way of security.
2. God does not always rescue us in the way that we expect Him to do it. Get us out of this problem; get all adversity out of our path. He can do so and He often does.
3. God is our defender and our only real security in life. No matter the adversity that we face. Whatever the adversity, He is our protector and defender.
4. God can deliver us from any horrendous danger. That is the theme of this psalm. But it must further His purposes. Going through these problems may be His plan for the moment. If we suffer mentally or psychologically, then faith rest is not primary in your life. Faith rest is designed to handle all of these problems. You may have the Corona virus; and you don't know if it is the end of your life. Faith rest is critical. God did not deliver us from the plague itself, but you may be delivered from death. Circumstances that are difficult in life do not mean that God does not deliver.
5. There is no limit to God's protection. No circumstance to our life that God has not foreseen and found a solution for. Man's will from the beginning has wanted to destroy the church. The destruction of Israel has been Satan's plan from the beginning. Destruction. There is nothing to overcome His will. We may need to claim this promise every day.

V. 8 takes us in a different direction from v. 7.

Psalm 91:8 You will only look with your eyes and see the recompense of the wicked.

We are in the circumstance of delivery. The wicked are those who oppose the will of God.

What Does this Mean That You Will Look Only with Your Eyes to See the Wicked?

1. You will be an observer of divine justice at work. This means that you are not participating in it. The justice of God is being meted out on the wicked. How many times have you said, "I wish this would happen to my antagonist" ? And you ask, why isn't God doing something about this person? You need to relax and sit back and enjoy it.
2. When a believer is delivered, he will, at the same time, as an adjunct to his delivery or as a part of his delivery, often witness how the wicket, the opposition are paid back in full for their activity. Those who have opposed the church and have opposed Bible doctrine are gone. All those who oppose the Word of God will die out. Pure teaching is always there and always will be. God's promises can never be negated. We use the faith rest drill and its mechanics.
3. What does this promise mean to me? What rationale can I use? It is the plan of God or the love of God rationale that we can use? Then we come to a conclusion. If God is for us, who can be against us? We do this over and over again. Some can say these words but have no idea how to do it. You have no promise in your mind; you have no principles in your thinking. Faith without an object is nothing. Your faith needs to have a solid object. Faith alone in Christ alone to begin. Then maturing, growing up as a believer in Jesus Christ, learning God's Word is the basis for your attitude towards everything in life. You may forget the solution; you may resist it; but you have rebound to get you back in line.

4. This deliverance and witnessing the wicked and what happens to them becomes an encouragement to the believer. This reveals God's care for you. The more faith rest that you utilize, the more that you can apply God's thinking to each situation.
5. As this verse says, we will see the wicked fall under the justice of God. We will observe God presiding over the recompense to power politicians. Have you noticed the hypocrisy of some politicians who are liars, and it comes right back on them.
6. A faithful God good for His Word reckons with the believer and the unbeliever, the reversionist and the evil one, in one way or another.
7. Those who are in the plan of God are delivered. The reason that we are delivered is so that we can continue in His plan. We continue to grow in grace and knowledge. Sometimes, God directs discipline to get our attention. Sometimes, He choose destruction to take out our enemies. Or He may use the sin unto death to take out the believer who has rejected Him.

There was a judge being confirmed by the Supreme Court who was accused of the same thing? We were told, we must believe the woman. And now this accusation is placed on their candidate. And we get to see it. Often, we should be wondering, "How will God work this one out?" David watched his son Absalom rebel against him. But this strengthened David's resolve to depend upon the Lord no matter what.

We may get to see many times the wicked receiving the recompense for their evil. God does not take a break. Behind it all is the justice of God. What happens in the world does not escape God. When you want recompense for the evil all around you, relax, God is taking care of it. In the course of a lifetime, we will see much of this. God still has our best interests in mind.

The Bottom Line in All of this

1. The believer often sees the justice and righteous of the Lord and the punishment to the wicked.
2. But, do not expect or take that as God exacting our revenge. God does not exact revenge for us. There is always a purpose in what God does. Always a purpose; always a benefit for mankind. God knows when there is a true problem to deal with. God does these things for our benefit.
3. Trust that what God is doing is always just. Do not trust in your own self-righteousness. Trust that God is doing what is right.
4. In the final analysis, we all as believers in Jesus Christ will observe the final judgment of all unbelievers at the Great White Throne at the end of time. And Satan and his demons will be cast into the Lake of Fire forever. This should give us the understanding of the value that God places on our salvation. To not believe in this, to not accept the free gift of our salvation, is that a value? How easy it is to accept the free gift of eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. The recompense is too terrible to comprehend.

5. The ultimate is seeing the recompense of the wicked.
6. We may not get to see this during our lifetime. We may not see how this comes on the youth of this nation in their drive towards socialism.
7. We are in God's omnipotent hands and we may see those things opposing us defeated. The justice of God is never thwarted.

Psalm 91:8 You will only look with your eyes and see the recompense of the wicked.

To the next verse.

If the wicked fall under the justice of God and we get to see it, then we can be assured that the Lord is our refuge.

Psalm 91:9 Because you have made the LORD your dwelling place— the Most High, who is my refuge—

there is a shift in pronouns in the middle of the verse. My reference

Why Does the Author Do This?

1. In v. 9a, the author is expressing his confidence in the Lord. So, it is my refuge, because he knows that the Lord has his back.
2. In v. 9b, in response to this basic statement, the reader, you and I, those to whom this psalm is addressed. We may reply from our own place.
3. The author of psalm 91 now invites the reader to express solidarity with his assessment of the Lord. Acknowledge it with me. He is our refuge and "This is your dwelling place."
4. He is saying, "Say it, admit that the Most High is your dwelling place, as He is my dwelling place."
5. The psalmist is inviting his audience to apply faith rest as he is doing

God is our dwelling place, whether we admit to it or not. Make the Lord and His promises our dwelling place. All who find refuge in Him will rest with the confidence that, whatever happens in life is with His knowledge. Harm, disaster, plague or deliverance from anything. He and He alone is the only security that we may lean on.

This is an application of the dread Corona virus. We can trust and rest in God's oversight no matter what the future holds. Bobby trusts that is what has happened to us and that it will continue to happen for us.

Psalm 91:9 Because you have made the LORD your dwelling place— the Most High, who is my refuge—

This is divine protection from a plague. Many of us are concerned how this violates the Constitution. It has that appearance at the moment. Do we need such an encompassing lockdown?

Psalm 91:10 no evil shall be allowed to befall you, no plague come near your tent.

We must understand these things apart from political theories and machinations.

It is time for everyone to reevaluate priorities; for unbelievers in where we might be lacking. Our security has been yanked out from under us, or that is the way that it feels.

1. Our attitude towards social distancing can take on a new perspective, when we understand that our tent might be secure.
2. We will recognize God's hand in it for us. This is so the plague will not come near our tent. We don't see it because we are too busy complaining. We are getting tired of our own tent.
3. We must think of God's protection and His promises to you first. What is God doing for us? Maybe I am susceptible to the virus? Maybe it could be fatal? We apply this to ourselves.
4. Use faith rest. Bobby cannot stress this enough. Before worrying about a possible infringement on the Constitution of the United States. Bobby does not want to see our freedom limited.

But more importantly, Bobby wants to understand what God has for us believers in this circumstance and in the nation, even without the stay at home order. That is the priority, what is going on. What does not have in all of this. Nothing catches God by surprise, even natural disasters.

God's Plan for us

1. Whatever happens, happens by God's consent.
2. Nothing happens outside of God's will.
3. We should know that God permits evil as a part of the natural consequences of the devil's world. Satan is the ruler of this world and there is evil in it because of him and because of the sin nature of mankind. Natural things happen in this fallen world. God does not sanction evil; nor does he approve of it. What God does and what God creates is perfect and righteous; corrupted by us.
4. A pandemic as we are experiencing is part of the repercussions of a fallen world. It has been since the beginning of time, since the beginning of the fall of Adam, viruses and bacteria which are deadly.
5. A pandemic is a part of the natural world; our world; the world that Adam created when he sinned against the Lord.
6. The pandemic can be used by God for purposes of correction, discipline, instruction, realigning of priorities, and spiritual growth.

7. God turns evil to good in His plan for us. All things work together for good to those who love God. God may use the cosmic system to teach us about His will for us. God uses those machinations of the cosmic system to teach us about His will for us. What is the opposite of the cosmic system will for us.
8. Nothing can touch us that God does not know and has already planned for. His plan is not stymied by adversity or evil.
9. There is a reason for all of this, for our benefit. What is the reason? What is God's purpose in what is happening? The doctrinal application takes precedent over any temporary or even permanent loss of freedom. "Now you are talking too much." Even if there is a permanent loss of freedom; even that can be within the will of God. Christianity began under the persecution of them by Rome.
10. Understand the quarantine to be a part of divine protection of God working through the plans of mankind so that the disease will not befall us or our loved ones in our tent under these circumstances. This is just one way that God might protect us. He uses the edicts of man for His Own plan.
11. God can deliver us in other way, which are not included or not there product of human planning, including miraculous ways, if it is His will to do so.

So stop worrying about this home isolation; relax of your circumstance in your own tent. You can take in doctrine. You have all kinds of excuses. You are too busy; too much to do. What is your excuse now from listening to doctrine now? What is your priority now? Do it; take advantage of it. How about some concentrated social contact with your family.

Many of us are concerned about government overreach. Making church assembly non-essential, despite the 1st amendment. Some predict social distancing will have disastrous affects on human freedom. Unless you are a strong proponent of government conspiracies. Yet, it sill could simply...

The demand for power exceeds the need for power, R. B. Thieme, Jr. there are certain governors in certain states who are no doubt guilty of power politics. They have taken social distancing way beyond its use. Starting tomorrow, we must wear masks and gloves when we are outside. Is that an overreach? What should we be doing? A more focused strategy is to focus strategy to protect those who are known to be vulnerable.

We are killing ourselves but; the power politicians may be testing the waters of control. Some of these causes may become less distinct. There are those who right now advocate resisting the government orders.

Think about this Resistance

1. Government conspiracies, true or not true, are not your primary concern.
2. God can use this quarantine order, even overreach, to keep the plague away from your tent. Seems to be working in the short ter. The intent appears to be to return to normalcy as soon as possible.

3. Not everything the government says to do is wrong or a conspiracy to gain power. There are those who understand the Constitution; who are against socialism and population control.
4. God uses even the government for our protection and benefit; even when those who serve in it do not believe as we do. This is what secular government was designed by God to do. Government is for our benefit,...

We can lose our faith rest attitude over this quarantine. Are you frantically tweeting warnings about government suppression? Why not remember the real message here? Maybe discipline from God. Right now is time for patience and trust in divine province. This is our opportunity. It is a time for us to trust. Will I lose my freedom? Is the pandemic after me?

Psalm 91:10 no evil shall be allowed to befall you, no plague come near your tent.

Lesson #0084

Psalm 91 Wisdom in the OT

4/28/2020 Tuesday

People are beginning to go back to work. Berachah is not reopening at least not before May 18th. There will be details to be worked out before our return. Bobby feels the sooner the better, but those decisions are presently being made.

There is always that caveat. It requires trust in the Lord. Our security is in Him. God uses every circumstance for our benefit. That is what Rom. 8:28 says. We are called to a pre-determined plan. We have security and we are applying that .

Psalm 91:10 no evil shall be allowed to befall you, no plague come near your tent.

We are in the devil's world; and we are reassured that God is protecting us. God is protecting us in His plan. No evil can deter it.

Many lived in tents at this time. Abraham did; David did on occasion. This is about residing in a residence; nothing catches God by surprise; not even natural disasters

God's Will and Things Happening on Earth.

1. Whatever happens on earth is with God's knowledge; sometimes with his consent.
2. Nothing happens outside of God's will. God's direct will and God's permissive will. God works all of those things together for our benefit for those who love Him.
3. We know that God permits evil; He permits it as a part of the natural consequences of the devil's world. This harkens back to the very beginning of the Angelic Conflict. God permitted Satan's appeal. What God permits in order to be victorious in the Angelic Conflict.
4. God never sanctions evil nor does He ever approve of sin. That is not God. That is God's absolute righteousness.

5. A pandemic such as we are experiencing is part of the repercussions of a fallen world. In Adam, we all die. When Adam sinned, we sinned. There was no sin or evil in the garden of Eden. When man fell, then that affected the entire world. We now live in a fallen world and man now has a sin nature. We are experiencing one of those repercussions right now.
6. A pandemic disease, a plague as it is called here, is a part of the natural world. It is what God permits in the natural world. This is Satan's domain and he rules it accordingly. There is evil in the world because Satan controls the world.
7. Even though this plague seems to be a catastrophe of monumental proportions. In some areas it is very destructive. The adversity of people; those who are ill and those who have died.
8. However, that can be used by God for His Own purposes. What might these be? Correction for individuals and the nation. This can mean discipline for the individual believer. God will correct our path. This might help us to realign our priorities. We sometimes get so preoccupied with our life. This can help spiritual growth. We can realign our priorities with accelerated spiritual growth.
9. God may use the cosmic system, the enemy of God, to teach us about His will for us. We live in the cosmic system; it is all around us. This is the enemy of the believer; particularly of the believer who is growing and advancing spiritually. We have an opportunity to be taught in a concentrated way.
10. Nothing can touch us that God does not know or that He has not already planned for. He supplies us with grace resources; grace orientation from His Word. The problem solving devices to deal with it. We are able to use these problem solving devices to our lives. Nothing can touch the plan of God; nothing can touch our spiritual growth.

These 10 points are a doctrinal application for us about our time today.

Unlikely as it seems the Corona virus is for our benefit. The social distancing appears to be working. God's promise is to keep the plague out of your tent. This is one way to keep our tent intact. Bobby cannot wait to see our smiling faces. There are details to be worked out and we will reassemble at the right time.

There are churches which are defying this order not to assemble. They should be very careful because this too will pass. Communication by electronic means is a blessing. There are things which churches can do. People find it to be absurd that people are being cited for sitting in their cars. There are ways for people to get doctrine. There are some who go to church for social life; and this may help many to understand what church is all about. Is it to find a date? Is it to get married? We are to redirect ourselves. There is a way to do it, even if a church is unable to stream live teaching. If we were being persecuted, then Bobby would have a different attitude.

This is a temporary situation. In the meantime, relax.

Functioning in Today's Conditions

1. God is using this moment for our protection. View this time as an opportunity.
2. Accept this as divine security in the midst of a plague.
3. Continue to take in doctrine in the way that the Lord has provided at this moment. Bobby got some frantic calls. We took a week off. We skipped a week and some people got frantic. This is the 14th lesson in this way. We are to continue to take in doctrine in the way that the Lord has provided.
4. Then gain strength in your faith rest attitude. This is an opportunity to kick back and watch what the Lord is doing. This is a wonderful way to watch what is happening and watch how the Lord maneuver's and works. It can be fascinating. If there is no heeding or guidance, then we can relax and make application.
5. Utilize your doctrinal discernment. Use it as you analyze through the divine viewpoint in your soul. Being occupation with Christ is an attitude.

Consider that all of God's activities in protecting us cannot be all classified as miracles. Deliverance often comes from God through everyday circumstances. People want miracles and they overlook the mundane and the practical. This pandemic order is one of those cases, government overreach or not. Let God sort out the details. God protects the client nation and believers. God sorts it all out. It is very obvious to Bobby that God is sending a message to the nation in all of this. If this message is not heard or heeded, then it can be very destructive. That is God's prerogative.

What is happening could result in a loss of freedom. We have to accept this. Bobby prays that the socialists all around us do not impose their tyranny on this country or on us individually; but if that is the discipline our nation is to receive, then that is not our problem. We continue in the plan of God, no matter what the circumstances.

This is nothing compared to the persecution faced by others. We can talk about physical protection all day long. Is God going to have us live forever. Sooner or later, something physical will catch up to us and we will die. We are in a fallen world and every believer is subject to death at the end.

No matter the circumstances; surrounded by plague, blight, disaster. Faith rest is for all circumstances. We take into consideration all God's means and delivery.

In this context, David's intention uses a plague for Israel to expect protection. God protected Israel in many ways throughout her history. It is about what the individual believer has in his or her soul. The illustration of the plague reminds us as well.

What happened in the time of Moses when God put 10 plagues upon Egypt. When God exempted Israel from those plagues that devastated Egypt. That final plague, they were instructed by God to paint blood on the door sill and to stay at home. That was their stay-at-home order.

Psalm 91:10 ...no evil shall be allowed to befall you, no plague come near your tent.

Something new with v. 11.

Psalm 91:11 For He will command His angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways.

Angels in V. 11

1. A supernatural thing with angels.
2. God has commissioned angels here.
3. Angels do protect us from physical harm and they guard believers in their activities and difficulties.
4. We do not see angels in this dispensation. The advantage of the unseen world. We do not see what is happening in the invisible angelic realm.
5. This includes danger from the demonic world, of which we have no cognizance or ability to defend ourselves. We can be affected by the demonic world. In the last few weeks, you will be inundated with false concepts.
6. Guard you in all your ways; the key is divine guidance. How do they do that; how do they direct us? It is impossible to say how they do it. There is protection. There are ways which are unseen but real. Keeping us on that path. Under those conditions, angelic protection is particularly effective.

There is a ton of evil being taught out there. We are not going to be indwelt by a demon; but we can be influenced by the doctrine of demons.

Something to look at in this verse. We have the plural of angels in v. 11. This precludes this from being a singular guardian angel. This is just as effective as a single angel following us all around.

Psalm 91:11 For He will command His angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways.

This is further delineated in vv. 12–13. The role of angels is extensive in the Angelic Conflict.

The hiker who is watching the scenery and suddenly stubs his toe and is in pain for many miles.

Psalm 91:12 On their hands they will bear you up, lest you strike your foot against a stone.

Then there is the positive side of this.

Psalm 91:13 You will tread on the lion and the adder; the young lion and the serpent you will trample underfoot.

Instead of experiencing disaster like stepping on a lion or a cobra, the angels might lift believers out of danger and protect them. This is beautiful poetic language. Bobby has always had an interest in snakes. In Ranger school, there was some experience with that.

Bobby went on a snake hunt. We all see snakes from time to time. Water snakes, cottonmouth. We can all understand. This is a graphic image. The believer can tread on the fiercest, most dangerous animals, but without suffering harm.

People despise a poisonous snake, so what better to illustrate this. Most of you will never be to Africa where lions are. A startled lion can be very dangerous. A mother and cub; or a lion and its kill. The lion can be roaring, angry; and that can place us in great danger. To step on a venomous snake is not always advantageous. You might step on a venomous snake and get bitten. An employee at Berachah Church got struck by a copperhead and it was very unpleasant. This can happen even when you are unaware of the snake's presence. Satan is our adversary. Satan prowls around like a roaring lion seeking to devour us.

Even better, we will trample on them. Do not kick a sleeping lion or become a snake handler. "I am under divine protection." That is not the correct application of this passage. Common sense and discernment is the pinnacle of having Bible doctrine in the soul. Good decisions in life may preclude the protection of angels. We have both protections. These verses are a very powerful statement of angelic protection. These are analogies which are afforded by the protection of angels. Acts 28:1-6 and Luke gives another example.

Psalm 91:13 You will tread on the lion and the adder; the young lion and the serpent you will trample underfoot.

Lesson #0085

Psalm 91 Wisdom in the OT

4/30/2020 Thursday

Objective is to complete Psalm 91 today, and return to Psalm 12.

This is the final 3 verses.

These verses are read aloud.

Psalm 91:14 "Because he holds fast to Me in love, I will deliver him; I will protect him, because he knows My name.

Psalm 91:15 When he calls to Me, I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble; I will rescue him and honor him.

Psalm 91:16 With long life I will satisfy him and show him My salvation."

this is a summary statement of our security in God.

God's Promises

1. God is speaking from this point forward; 3 verses straight from Him.
2. It is obvious that the Speaker is promises security and deliverance that only God can offer.

3. Only God could say these things to us. No person is capable of making these statements. These are not like the promises of a politician. These are iron-clad promises.
4. For a certainty, we know that these promises will be kept.
5. How God fulfills these promises, that is up to Him. This is an occupational hazard for believers. God does not do exactly what we tell Him to do. The more you mature as a believer, the more you recognize that these promises will be fulfilled, in whatever way God decides. You may not even see them fulfilled that you recognize; but you know that they will be fulfilled. It is possible that this will take place after we die.
6. God can only keep His promises and in them is true security. We have security in our salvation, in our life, physical and spiritual; eternal security; dying grace; we have everything that we need, every resource to be secure in this life. If that is not a benefit, what is?

It is a wonderful thing to watch the fear and panic all around you. Bobby is always fascinated to go. He has been ordered by the leaders of Harris County to wear a mask, and he has not. That is his responsibility. Bobby does not have Corona virus. Bobby notices with fascination that as he comes down an aisle that they will avoid him or go back. Fear in their eyes; and insecure actions. Their security is tenuous. They are depending upon man. In every aspect of life are the promises of man insufficient.

Knowing the Name of the Lord

1. At the end of v. 14, the believer knows the name of the Lord. This is why God will deliver him. What does this mean? That is knowing Him intimately; knowing His name and His character and His essence. Certainly the name of God, Elohim or Y<sup>e</sup>howah and knowing His name means we know Him.
2. This is the person who calls upon the Lord on the day of trouble. Many scream to God, "Oh, God help!"
3. Those who know the name of the Lord love the Lord, because he or she loves them. You must know who a person is in order to love them. The progression of Psalm 91, David comes to a particular conclusion.
4. David knows God's Word; he metabolizes God's Word. He metabolized the doctrine and he applied it.

What an address of divine security are these 3 voices.

Each promises is listed in an ascending order. Deliverance and protection; the answer to prayer; deliverance that brings honor to the one delivered. When God delivers you in His way, that honors the believer. You might be able to observe and recognize that.

V. 14 gives two reasons why God is moved to deliver. He loves us. The word is chashaq.

Chashaq

1. This word means love; and it means to be attached. Interesting word.
2. To be attached is a beautiful analogy as to how we love God as mature believers and how God is attached to us in love. A person holding on to another, that is the picture of human affection.
3. God covers the els with the Bobby brings out the bird picture again. We are under the protection and security of the mother bird, which represents God. We are also attached to the mother, to God Himself. The mother bird demonstrates the love and devotion; the security is in the mother bird.

"If I am happy, then I feel secure. A frantic search to find it." The fact that God is attached to us in love; and that is where we run and hide.

The motive of a parent is to protect a child is love. As a believer we are sons of God. God is attached to us because He has promised these things to us. We cling to God for that reason. How can we have reciprocal.

God delivers because he knows My name. One person is well acquainted with the other. We cling to God and to His promises. His Word is our point of contact. Without His Word, we do not know His name. God responds with the security that He will know on high.

Psalm 91:14 "Because he holds fast to Me in love, I will deliver him; I will protect him, because he knows My name.

Psalm 91:15 When he calls to me, I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble; I will rescue him and honor him.

V. 15 contains an obvious reason to depend upon God. This is a direct request to the believer, and He answers us and rescues us from these troubles. David wrote many psalms of lament. David understood the Lord and trusted in His deliverance.

Prayer Is a Form of Dependence upon God.

1. God honors us because we recognize and honor Him in prayer. He is our ultimate deliverer and security. There are things which provide security. The absolute fool-proof security; the ultimate deliverance belongs to God and God alone.
2. Honor can certainly refer as a cause to prosper. He will honor us.
3. Prayer is a form of dependence. We are called dependents as children. No different for dependents upon God.
4. We cling to God by prayer. You recognize that God is attached to us as our heavenly Father.
5. God also promotes believers who weather the storm through prayer, applying divine promises and faith rest. "I am depending upon you Lord for security and deliverance."

6. God also promotes believers who weather the storm by prayer; and by promises and faith rest.
7. Such a believer is ready to advance in the plan of God. They are standing in the door, so to speak, ready to walk through it. Walking through it is another advance. God then is his companion that the believer clings to.
8. When a believer honors God in his lie, God honors him with greater responsibility and blessing. Joshua 3:7 1peter :5–6
9. Adversity may hurt; but it will be great later on when you recognize God's security and what comes with it.
10. The deliverance of God is tangible; and god will honor those who honor Him. We know the principle that a pivot of mature believers means that God honos a client nation.

Divine establishment is being ignored in our nation; and even actively opposed. Where is freedom going? Why do people want to change to Constitution to be a living document. Why indeed? That is not our problem. We can vote and make our thoughts known. But when it continues, your security should be in God. "Nobody is listening to me." Make your requests known. Honor God and He will honor you.

Psalm 91:15 When he calls to me, I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble; I will rescue him and honor him.

Now we are to the final verse.

Psalm 91:16 With long life I will satisfy him and show him my salvation."

The person here is the advancing believer. To live is Christ; to die is profit.

Consider the final phrase.

Long Life

1. Long life in Scripture stresses a blessing with which God loves to reward His children; something which God likes to do. Deut. 30:2 the end of commandment 4.
2. Now long life may simply mean a long life in years; reach old age whatever that might be. By most, an extended life is considered a blessing by most. For those who honor Him, He may give us a long life in years.
3. Happiness and productivity for the Lord. Some people have a long life that is unhappy or maturity. Bobby had a profession in seminary who committed suicide. His life was disappointing.
4. Believer who clings to these promises for the reasons that Bobby has mentioned, loving the Lord, knowing His name, calling upon Him; his or her life will run its course and they will be very satisfied. Whatever age, this principle holds true. This comes from the God Who gives many other grace gifts.

The summary verse.

Salvation

1. Salvation speaks of every form of deliverance. This word is a term which refers to every possible form of deliverance.
2. What kinds of deliverance? Perhaps from terrible circumstances. Physical deliverance from terrible circumstances. Plague, terrors.
3. It certainly includes the salvation provided by Christ on the cross.
4. It also includes blessing in times of trouble.
5. The Lord will let the believer see this in his or her lifetime. You might get to observe this, you open your eyes. What a great way to live; secure.
6. You will see the defeat of the wicked.

Does that mean I will see my candidate elected? What happened when the president elected Kavanaugh was selected and a party ripped him to shreds because some woman claimed to be sexually violated by him. The cry was to believe her because she is a woman. Certainly, we should abhor sexual assault. Politics are a dirty game. How does the Lord show us the defeat of the wicked? In this case, another candidate has been accused of the same sort of crime, and those same people who cried so loud against Kavanaugh, they have not said anything. The Lord sees hypocrisy and exposes them. Either political party can do this.

“Let Him see my salvation” this is an interpretive paraphrase to explain this.

God will give those who know Him and His Word who love Him and who call on Him, so many proofs of His care and security that He bestows on Him his deliverance and security that they will be super-impressed how wonderfully that God can deliver in all needs of body and soul,

Bobby thinks that example from politics as an example of how God works. He exposes these things.

Psalm 91:16 With long life I will satisfy him and show him my salvation."

Lesson #0086

Psalm 12 Wisdom in the OT

5/3/2020 Sunday

On the closeups, Bobby was not wearing his glasses last time. His problem is distance, not close up. Only Norma was here. His notes were a bit blurry.

Wants to return to a previous lesson on streaming video Heb. 10:25 about assembling ourselves together. Some realize that they really miss going to church. Face to face is important. He got a few dissenting letters. You must evaluate what Bobby has said, pertinent or not to you.

A letter from a guy who is a regular attendee of Berachah Church. No food or drinks or other distractions. He took the challenge. He did not realize the benefit of being in church at a specified time. The habit of attending is spiritual growth momentum. This guy understood what Bobby taught.

Bobby has to teach what is in the Bible. When we do reassemble, there will be no more streaming video; there will be DVD's and CD's. No more from the website. Anyone who decides to distribute this video on another site, Bobby will shut down the tape room.

We have been studying Psalm 91. A side trip from Psalm 12. Psalm 91 was all about security in the Lord and trusting in the Lord.

Turn back to Psalm 12:6:

Psalm 12:6 The words of the LORD are pure words, like silver refined in a furnace on the ground, purified seven times.

Psalm 91 Fitting in Here

1. Psalm 91 fits in right here.
2. The security provided by the Lord and His pure promises from that security is so clear from Psalm 91.
3. Then Psalm 12:7 picks up on that promise in a general way. Psalm 91 was very specific, specific illustrations.
4. The promises made by God are never false; they are pure words, as per Psalm 12:6a. These are our promises to have and hold. They are a certainty when nothing else in this world is certain.

Refined like silver refined 7x.

Purity of God's Word

1. God's promises may be likened to silver being purified in a smelter. They go through the fire 7x.
2. Purified 7x means purified repeatedly, completely, or the purse from. No impurity.
3. That is analogous to the pure security found in God's Word. No mixture of untruth in God's Word.
4. So there is an inherent encouragement that comes from the Lord's pure unadulterated promises.
5. This is everything that Scripture contains.
6. The promises made by God are never false; always true. They can be depended upon when nothing else is. How do politicians make things more secure.

Bobby saw people walking through a store, and not showing a bit of skin; that is their security. They fear for their safety. They have no real security. People avoided Bobby like the plague. Bobby's security is not in a mask. People are dying every where. Small percentage have died, and all were over 80 with a compromised immune system. A lot of decisions being thrown around which may or may not stand on the facts. Our freedom seems to be going away. Where is our security?

Psalm 12:7 You, O LORD, will keep them; you will guard us from this generation forever.

It does not say that the gloves of security will keep them.

We Can Depend upon God's Pure Words

1. God keeps His promises; His words are pure words.
2. David's expectation is that God will deliver him from this particular evil generation. He has faced much evil in this generation. When David got in trouble, he went to the Philistines for protection.
3. David's expectation was that he and other faithful believers in the nation will be preserved or protected against this perverse opposition.
4. Faithfulness is the bedrock of our security in the Lord. Faithfulness must always have an object. God is a very general object. What makes God faithful? God has righteousness and justice. He has His pure word; His promises. Psalm 91 describes a perverse generation.
5. Psalm 12:7 He will keep them the needy and the afflicted of the nation.
6. David faces many hopeless situations. A great number against him. It paid off. David trusts in a faithful God.
7. David is confident of his protection and preservation. Death comes to us all; death is not the issue. This is about protection in life.

Remember the evil generation is described as the faithless liars, the flatterers.

There Is a Satisfactory Conclusion in V. 7

1. Maturing growing believers are assured that they will receive special protection from God. Do you see what you are in the midst of? People are afraid all over. What happens if you get the Corona virus. 98% will recover or not even know that they got sick. We do not need to worry. We live in a fallen world; a world filled with viruses and microbes and disease and plagues and full of dangers, wars, crime, hate. God protects from all of this.
- 2.
3. Even if the wicked turn the nation and the world upside down; even if evil is rampant. God guards His Own. His Own will survive to move His plan forward.
4. We need not fear the machinations of humanity, including loss of freedom (on the minds of many today). At what price and for how long and what happens afterwards? Security is being tested.
5. And God may use angels to accomplish our deliverance. Psalm 91:11.

Norma has a very interesting past. She has been protected time and time again. All of us have.

Psalm 12:7 You, O LORD, will keep them; you will guard us from this generation forever.

Preserve from this Generation

1. A generation refers to those born around the same time.
2. God will preserve each generation; the faithful in each generation. This is a promise that God will keep forever; for every generation. Every generation of the faithful is protected.
3. In other words, we can be assured of protection and security, our generation. Regardless of the time in which we live. This was written in Israel in David's generation. True for all generations.

This is a critical promise of security in the time that we live. Social distancing is a human method of protection. This system is not foolproof; not effective for fools. But God is effective. Do we have a problem with social distancing. Is it overblown? Is it overreach? Maybe, maybe not. Might God not use social distancing as a part of His protection.

A statement last week from a prominent governor. God had nothing to do with the protection from Corona virus. It was all done by science and the doctors and all of the humans who came up with these schemes.

Bobby knows that God has everything to do with protection. He's dead wrong and many people called him on it, as he should have.

What about this possible loss of freedom? They shut a church down for a parking lot communion. Bobby has no idea about that church and its doctrine. They do have a right to assemble because of the first amendment. They were isolated in their cars. It was shut down and some were fined and the pastor was arrested, church members cited. Clearly power has gone to the heads of some leaders. The demand for power always exceeds the need for power. Might this abuse of power continue after the virus. Politicians take advantage of crises. You will preserve us from this generation. Power politics is always a threat to freedom.

Bobby likes to speak of our current environment and the loss of freedom, but he is not worried about it. Pure words of the Lord. God keeps His watchful eyes on us and He will keep His protective hand over them. Someone had to protect David from Absalom; but he was protected even in his failures. David got back on track and named his sins.

The line of David continues forever. This is the promise of God; and how is it fulfilled? The person of Jesus Christ. The only complete and lasting security.

Before David finishes this wonderful Psalm. From whom does David need protection? The wicked strut about on every side. It is right out there in the open.

The last verse of chapter 12. It does not end on a high note. It is arranged like this for a very good reason.

Psalm 12:8 On every side the wicked prowl, as vileness is exalted among the children of man.

The Placement of V. 8

1. Evil people and circumstances are everywhere. Don't forget why you are going to use those circumstances.
2. That is only to be expected when a society as a whole accepts lies and exalts perversions. Our society seems to be drifting in that direction.
3. These people are the self-centered wicked ones who strut their arrogance. Some think that arrogance is a good characteristic. That is not commensurate with the pure Word of God.
4. These people in v. 8 make no pretense of humility, morality or of spiritual virtue. They are contemptible and they are vile.
5. They are characterized by unprincipled, often repugnant excesses. Party, party, party, the highest goal of life. Live a life of excess. These are worthless interactions.
6. Their brazenness creates the impression that their wickedness is admired and exalted. We see that in crime today. We see that in television series which exalt gangs, crime families, criminality. They are to be admired, despite being violent criminals. Look at how smart and rich they are?
7. These people act as if by common consent that everyone thinks that wickedness is set on high. This is true enough if believers also believe the lie.
8. In any age, in any generation, one only needs to look at what society holds up as important. What do they find to be exciting, fascinating; what do they want to imitate? Rock stars have the life; sex, drugs and rock n roll. There are many evils that people want to imitate.
9. If it is vile and worthless, immoral, immorality is in the soul. We see immorality in almost everything today. It goes to everything. The violations of divine institutions. There are great immorality in these various areas. Move from pleasure to pleasure. Does it happen? It happens to the best of people. When the whole society is inundated with that, you have a society that is immoral, worthless, anti God, anti divine establishment, anti Bible doctrine. And so a generation may find itself wiped out.
10. Point 12? God promises the protection necessary in order to carry our His plan. The confidence and assurance of preservation in His hands.

This is not a booze sermon; an anti-sex sermon. It is all about how people think. The perverse generation and what it does to the nation and why we so desperately need to cling to the promises of God. It will come to an end. Like a flash mob.

These two chapters will be summarized next time. Great practical application.

This is the final time in Psalm 12. Bobby is going to stay in the psalms for awhile. This information is so applicable to our lives today.

We have already covered every verse in this chapter. This psalm has explored the evils of a wicked tongue and protections and security that is provided by the Lord. This summary will include our time in Psalm 91.

A Summary of Psalm 12

1. Human life would be impossible without speech. You need a vocabulary in order to express your thoughts. Your thinking is deeper when you have more words. If you have a short vocabulary, you cannot think.
2. Christianity would be impossible without words.
3. It is by forms of speech that God speaks to us. Cult leader who claims to have gone beyond the Bible. They claim that this comes to them through words.
4. Speech is fundamental to the creative activity of God. Genesis 1 is an example of this. He communicates with His creation. We cannot understand God without language; without words.
5. Without speech, we cannot consider the claims of Jesus Christ as Savior. God communicates His plan of salvation; and we grow from... We cannot even rebound without words.
6. God's speech is pure and it is perfect. Man should emulate this speech. Man should respond to what God says. That is not the case; enter chapter 12.

Chapter 12 of the Psalms

1. Generally true that the finest qualities of ...are also the most vulnerable to debasement and .
2. The more pure and good a thing may be, the more impure or rotten that thing may become.
3. Greatest example of this? Love is the greatest quality of the human race, but it is so often abused or ignored as the prophet Hosea made in dealing with Gomer. This is just as Israel's love for God was perverted and lost.
4. Speech, which is central to relationships between human beings, and between persons and God; and this is often corrupted. How is love expressed? Many think that love is expressed in such a way as to ignore words. The distortion is sex without love. This perverts the bodily function of love.
5. That is the reason for the corruption of speech; misusing or taking in vain the name of the Lord. This is cursing God mis. So many use Jesus Christ as an epithet.
6. David has painted a picture of speech that has been abused and misused. He has lamented that intrinsic worth has been exchanged for vanity; flatter replaces truth; and arrogance for humility.
7. The gift implicit in the ability to think and to form words to express those thoughts has been twicest and distorted. To evil purposes by arrogant individuals.

8. David is not just trying to reveal the existence of evil speech. David suffers from slander and lies and he must seek divine help to deal with it. It is not about retaliation or personal defense. The real issue is the cry for help from God.
9. We find that the deliverance from the power of the evil tongues is to hear the pure speech of God through His Word.
10. David reaches the trust and confidence for which he has prayed.
11. The danger experienced in human speech is to be overcome by the power inherent to divine revelation.
12. For those who experience the vagaries of evil speech against them, and we all do, who are the targets of slander and lies and of false witness. The solution is never found in retaliatory speech, but confidence in the Word of God. Sometimes, there is nothing that we can do about evil, lies and slander.

Bobby, when he looked at chapter 13, he felt like he needed to keep going. This is a contemporary applicable psalm. Application is what we need. This is often titled how long o Lord?. How long is used 4x in the first 2 verses.

Introducing Psalm 13

1. The phrase how long emphasizes the depths of David's despair.
2. David is not down on himself. That is not the reason for his despair in this psalm.
3. This was not a lament of divine judgment. He is innocent; and yet, he is in despair. He was not rebounding and keeping on the move.
4. Instead, this was a test, a suffering by David; informed by...

There is fear. How long can this quarantine go on? It seems so open ended. There are those in power who seem to want to make it open-ended. The demand for power always exceeds the need for power. Is it necessary to stop the world for a virus?

Are there some conspiracies for various reasons? There are many groups who want to use this crisis for their own benefit. We all have things to do that are being neglected.

Bobby read today in an article. The mayor of Kansas city says that anyone who violates his policy and said, "He will be known to the mayor. That is a terrible abuse of power.

Are we angry? Are we frustrated? How about some basic social. For Bobby, this is a missed opportunity to teach. He does not want to cancel Dallas.

the second reason for studying this is, how long has a spiritual quality.

Psalm 13 Is a Cry for Help

1. This chapter is a prayer to the Lord and this chapter is a preamble to that. How long does this go on, Lord?
2. This is an individual lament; a cry for help. A desperate inquiry.

3. But, that desperate inquiry concludes with a note of hope
4. This psalm is a pattern or template for us during adversity. Put it over our lives and follow it.
5. Maybe this is going to be a new normal?

The New Normal

1. In whatever circumstance that we find ourselves, locked in our house or locked in prison. Because you are in isolation does not stop the plan of God. Your life has not stopped. You are still moving ahead.
2. Isolation does not stop...Paul wrote some of the great epistles when he was locked in prison. Paul was still isolated from those who wanted to hear him.
3. There is a time for everything under the sun; everything. Things are not normal. Sometimes, we take out family for granted. One husband and wife for the first time in years sat down and discussed a lesson that they had just heard. There is a time for everything under the sun.
4. Everything that happens to us has a normal connotation. God has a plan for us in every circumstance.
5. This is our truth and our normality and our absolute truth. That is our truth and normality. God has a normality for us in every circumstance.
6. A circumstance may not seem normal to us.
7. Your life in the plan of God is always our normal.
8. It is always about Bible doctrine; it is always about a normalized attitude in adversity. It is serving the Lord in whatever situation that we are in. That should be happening in every day; that is why it is normal.
9. All of the other circumstances of daily life; all of those circumstances do not matter. We might say, "That's not normal; and this is."
10. Circumstances do not define for us normalcy.
11. Whatever the circumstance, it is situation normal in the plan of God.
12. When your abnormal circumstances occur in life, in the plan of God, you are ready, because your spiritual life is your normal.

The liars and the slanderers especially mentioned in v. 2. There is an enemy; but it is not clear who is any enemy and why. Obviously evil in one form or another; a person or a set of circumstances. Maybe David is dealing with death or with the threat of death? It appears to David that God is not doing anything about it. This sense of death is made even more acute because God seems distant. Exactly the opposite should be true for any other person Paul said, "To die is profit."

we are in the hands of God for eternity. We cannot get out of His plan.

The people in chapter 12 might be those hounding him in ch. 13. Clearly, at the beginning of the chapter, David's emotions have overcome him. He is just emoting. He points out the agony in his soul. He is wrestling with a tremendous anguish. There is a hint here of bitterness or anger towards God. David does not like the time passing. He wants this done before he dies. He is not applying the simplest of the faith rest drill. David knows that God has a plan for him.

Critical chapter for all of us. A 3 section chapter.

Lesson #0088

Psalm 13 Wisdom in the OT

5/7/2020 Thursday

We have studied Psalm 12 and 91. David is the protagonist in all of these psalms. David is writing all about himself. This is a biographical look at his life.

This is a very brief psalm; only 6 verses. We are in adversity now, although some of it is overblown. Adversity could be the threat of the illness or the overreach of the government trying to protect us. God is the only One that we can trust fully.

There is so much by way of controversy concerning the Corona virus. One in Britain has been shown over and over to be an absolute exaggerator. The real question is, where do you place your trust?

3 sections:

The psalmist's lament in vv. 1–2 This is the greatest despair found in the Bible. David is a warrior; he is a tough man.

Vv. 3–4 is a calmer application. This is a prayer. David is recalling, being calmer.

Vv. 5–6 is a soul filled with confidence; a complete change of attitude.

We find a remarkable transition from fear, worry, anxiety to confidence and trust in the Lord; 6 very powerful verses. The believer in adversity.

Psalm 13 inscription To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

David opens up his prayer with, how long, O Lord? Perhaps this is your prayer at this time. Then he asks another question. Will You forget me forever? This is a question which should never be asked. How long will You hide Your face from me? Why are you ignoring me? Why are you turning Your back on me?

Psalm 13:1 How long, O LORD? Will you forget me forever? How long will you hide your face from me?

Next set of questions: How long must I take counsel in my soul? How long will my enemy be exalted over me? The enemy is winning and David needs help.

Psalm 13:2 How long must I take counsel in my soul and have sorrow in my heart all the day? How long shall my enemy be exalted over me?

Psalm 13:1 How long, O LORD? Will you forget me forever? How long will you hide your face from me?

There are two phrases saying the same thing. David is a desperate soul calling for deliverance? How long before You will fix this?

David's emotions are running at a very high level. This kind of attitude can happen to any of us at any time. Even to the toughest, most stoic, most mature....it can happen. It has happened to one of the great men in history.

Introductory Points on V. 1

1. You can comprehend the severity of David's current existence. He is at the end of his rope.
2. We know something about this chapter that we must take into account as the context. This is an intense lament. This is a terrible moment in David's life.
3. Hiding the face is what we call an anthropomorphism. This refers to God, related to the body of a man. This signifies a turning away and a withholding of divine favor.
4. His face gives expression to His plan. We are secure in the hands of God. God's hand never lets us go. We are secure in Him.
5. We have a face hidden in this psalm. This means, that He has an attitude towards David; an attitude of God which God does not possess. David is trying to put on God something that God is not.
6. David is using God's face turning from him to complain. He is complaining that God is not giving him enough attention. But God has not withheld Himself from David.
7. However, God is withholding His actions from David at this moment and it is for a reason.
8. God will answer David's request. It will happen in His Own good time. David is demanding something that is not his business. David is in adversity; serious adversity, and he wants some action from God. This is an exaggerated complaint; bitterness, anger. David wants God to do something to make up for God's seeming lack to do nothing.

An anthropomorphism is language of accommodation, assigning physical characteristics to God, so that we can, in our finite minds, understand an infinite God. Here, this is a bodily term. This does not inform us of a physical appearance. This is a figure of speech that communicates aspects of God's perfect nature that we have no real frame of reference for. The hands, arms, eyes, ears and face of God. These things represent the policy of God.

God has completely forgotten David, in David's thinking. This is wrong.

The Word *Forgotten

1. Then we have the word forgotten. This is not a loss of mental recollection. God knows what is going on with David's life. In this case, David is using this against God.
2. David does not think that God has heard him.

3. The term forever is a standard exaggeration. This just means that he is tired of this situation.
4. You do not ask the question, how long and then punctuate it with forever.
5. David appears to be in a state of hopeless despondency.
6. David seems to be confused, a man who would be a great king. He is speaking in contradictory terms.
7. This is a word of desperation. Will this ever change, he seems to be asking. "God, are you ever going to do anything?" He is trying to wake up God to meet his own expectation. Frustration is stamped all over these questions. These are the wrong questions. "Why aren't You helping me?" We have all acted like this; especially as children. "You must not love me because you are not paying attention to me."

This is a big problem if you are trying to manipulate God in this. David is impatient here with God. He is getting a little tired of this. This is dangerously serious.

Our Self-centered Nature Regarding God

1. When a person has been crushed by suffering for a long time and there is no sign of relief, we expect God to help us to do something. There does not appear to be the relief which we want.
2. The thought forces itself on us that God has forgotten us.
3. In our self-centered nature, we do not acknowledge that God cares for us. We act like David when God does not solve things for us.
4. Yet faith lays hold of these promises.

God Is Taking Too Long

1. If David thinks that this is taking too long, then he is blaming God.
2. There is an element of blame. People say this all of the time. God is not doing what I want Him to do. God has not come through for me. Bobby has had friends and there was a guy in love with a gal and she jilted him. He blamed God. God, why did you let this happen to me? This friend had trouble from that point on believing in God. What a childish attitude. God did not do what he wanted Him to do. So God is to blame. There is always a divine purpose. We may not like it and we may not like the adversity; but it is what we have to deal with.

No Optimism in David

1. There is no trust or optimism in these opening questions that David poses.
2. There is no patience for the Lord to work. Sometimes, we are at the end of our patience; and things are so difficult.
3. For David, there is no more waiting for God's timing. Maybe God is not going to do what I want when I want Him to. God's timing is perfect.
4. David thinks that he has waiting too long. The question is never to be asked. In form or another,

David is saying that God is not doing anything for him. It is okay if you cannot see God doing for you, as long as you have confidence in Him.

The Correct Attitude

1. If you trust God, then you will not have David's attitude.
2. Job 13:15 Though He slay me, I will trust Him.
3. This is unequivocal trust and faith. Death at your door...who do you trust.
4. Though it is God's plan to take me home, you trust Him to your final breath.
5. If God's plan is for your death, as a believer, that is great. This cannot be a source of fear or lament.
6. If it is not your time to depart, then you continue to wait for God's deliverance, no matter how long it takes, if at all. We want deliverance no matter what, so often. There is a way of escape and we may not know. The circumstance may not be with us. You have just used a problem solving device and you share the happiness of God; you have spiritual self esteem from Bible doctrine.
7. When you can do that, that is true trust, confidence and security in your soul. You are able to wait on God.

David Is Begging for God to Do Something.

1. At this moment, David does not appreciate all that God will do. He has lost all perspective. But this is only temporary.
2. We can understand something positive from this first verse, that behind this phrase, the face of God, is the tacit admission by David that we do experience God's gracious presence in our lives.
3. God is always there, even if it does not so appear. "How long, God, before You take these people down?"
4. It becomes no more than a matter of timing.
5. We must understand that God's involvement will happen. We do not know when.
6. There are also times when God's discipline appears to last forever. Even with Israel, they felt it was going on forever. That simply meant that God was displeased with them.

David's Transition

1. David cannot provide an answer to his question. He can only express despair and hopelessness.
2. He will come to the final conclusion that God is not to blame for this; but God is to worship.
3. He will figure out that God will stand by him and help him forever.
4. How long? This is a human viewpoint question. This is not a question for us to ask. It is a human viewpoint question.
5. God will do this in His Own timing and in His Own way.

Psalm 42:5 Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you in turmoil within me? Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my salvation

Final Points

1. We should never end in a mode of despair. Too many blame God because God is not doing what David wants Him to do.
2. For us, it is always a question of self-analysis. Using Bible doctrine as our examining tool.
3. In Psalm 42:5, he is finding himself wanting.
4. His answer is hope in God; confidence in God.
5. That is the expression of confidence and trust. The attitude by which we live in this world. David will conclude this in the end. It will take him 6 verses to get there.

Psalm 13:1 How long, O LORD? Will you forget me forever? How long will you hide your face from me?

Lesson #0089

Psalm 13 Wisdom in the OT

5/10/2020 2Sunday

Bobby was going to have every mother stand up and be recognized.

There are people that we see overreaching the power that they have; and people doing everything to avoid this disease. Even those taking precautions, trying to preclude this virus, have no security. There is no foolproof way to keep you from getting it. A facemask is not total security; and you know this in your own soul. You have a relaxed mental attitude because you trust in the Lord. You know that God provides security for you.

David is under tremendous pressure and there are those trying to kill him.

Psalm 13:1 How long, O LORD? Will you forget me forever? How long will you hide your face from me?

There is despair and fear in his soul. This is David's opening gambit in a prayer. "How long is this going to go on?" he asks God. God appears to be hiding His face from David. It seems to David that God is withholding His protection; and the enemy is winning.

David is saying, "You do not really love me because You are not treating me in the way I expect You to." Or the ultimate, "There is no God." That is a fool and David is acting like a child who is not getting his way. We might excuse David for not getting his way and complaining. His attitude is off. He reveals no trust or optimism. "Are You looking away in my time of need?"

Soon, in despair, David will come around in a full circle. God is not to blame; He is the One to worship, no matter what. God does not ignore us; He does not desert us. He has each one of us in mind and He always has. How long is a human viewpoint question. God will do this in His Own time and in His Own way. Don't every equate difficult circumstance with a lack of love in God. God is love; and love can be expressed in many different ways.

It is tough love that prepares some children; and God sometimes prepares us with tough love. He knows what is coming and He knows how we need to be trained. Otherwise, we will be outside the plan of God.

Psalm 42:5 Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you in turmoil within me? Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my salvation

Why am I worried; what is the source of my worry? What is the conclusion; what is the reason for his despair?

God does not turn away and He does not ignore, ever. David's lament is wrong. V. 5 reveals confidence and trust. We have to self-examine. We do that when we rebound. We must also self-examine in circumstances. Why am I in despair in all of this? How long, again, He says, will my enemy be exalted over me?

Psalm 13:1 How long, O LORD? Will you forget me forever? How long will you hide your face from me?

David examines his own soul and then he talks to God about his enemies winning.

Psalm 13:2 How long must I take counsel in my soul and have sorrow in my heart all the day? How long shall my enemy be exalted over me?

David Is Blaming God

1. Taking counsel in his own soul refers to his days of anguish and trouble which he could not solve. He is in trouble. He is reliving those days of anguish and trouble in his own soul.
2. These days were wasted; because he took his own counsel. The days were filled with his own personal plans. We have all of our plans to be saved from the Corona virus; but what is left out? God's counsel and guidance.
3. David in devising his human solutions is the one who advised and ignored God. David is blaming God for his own problems and the lack of solutions.
4. David has taken his own advice and counsel, but nothing has worked. This engenders a bad attitude.
5. David has had a new plan every day; a new way to defeat the enemy; but he has not yet been delivered.
6. After this self-induced failure, he says, God David is totally out of line here. In fact, David lives with sorrow in his heart all the day.

Do not waste these days of isolation; take counsel with Him.

David's wrong approach

1. David has discovered self-pity; and there is no way out.
2. The personal human problem solving counsel has been a repetitive
3. When the various plans are attempted, they are failures.
4. God did not grant their success. The problem is, God's solution is not what David tries to determine.
5. David's attitude must be inside the plan of God always; then you can relax.

David's enemies have been successful against David every day. Hence there is grief in his soul all the day and all the night. A miserable, sleepless existence, to say the least.

David has a test with a person. We have this all of the time; someone trying to do us harm. If this is Saul, then David feeling crushed, it is understandable. This is the futility that David has gone through.

Plans David Has Made and Have Failed

1. This was a terrible injustice being done against him.
2. David's enemy was dominating him; he was trapped.
3. David faced the homicidal jealousy of the most powerful man in Israel.
4. There is not relief; no deliverance. David's solutions were not God's solutions.
5. David did not know where to hide; he did not know where to escape to.
6. David became an outlaw, hiding out in the cave of Addullem; in 1Sam.21:1; an outcast in his own country.
7. He sought refuge among the Moabites. How many people have said, "if so and so is elected, I am leaving the United States." 1Sam.22:3
8. He hid out in the wilderness of Ziph.
9. David became a captain in service to the king of the Philistines no less. 1Sam.27-29. He offers his mercenary service to a king who would destroy Israel. David rationalizes and justifies himself in v. 1. This is to save his life.
10. 1Sa 27:1-2 Then David said in his heart, "Now I shall perish one day by the hand of Saul. There is nothing better for me than that I should escape to the land of the Philistines. Then Saul will despair of seeking me any longer within the borders of Israel, and I shall escape out of his hand." So David arose and went over, he and the six hundred men who were with him, to Achish the son of Maach, king of Gath. David is depending upon the king of the Philistines.
11. In the end, there was nothing that David could do to escape the wrath of his enemy. Saul did not forget. David could not go home. He knew he could not go to battle against his own people.
12. David was trapped in the counsel of his own solutions. Only prayer remains. He needs to trust in the Lord.

The lament is done with; and we go to the petition part of the psalm. We will see David recovering. He will look at himself and realize that he is not going to solve his problems until he goes with the divine solution.

Psalm 13:3 Consider and answer me, O LORD my God; light up my eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death,

Now, David recognizes a personal relationship, using the words, my God. Okay, God, you tell me how to fix this; otherwise I am going to die here.

There are people dying all of the time; and there are several hundred who have died in Harris County; but people die. There are about 5 million people in Harris county. Death attributed to Corona virus is ¼ of 1%. Should we shut down the entire country over this? Are we so fearful of death that we won't live?

The authorities have violated the Constitution; and we cannot assemble or we will die if we do. David begins to recognize that fear and despair in his life; and he knows the solution is with God.

David Recognizes That God Is Here

1. One critical, instructive note here; the petitio includes a motive here. He thinks maybe there is a reason why God will deliver him.
2. There are reasons why the prayer should be answered. That is important to us. We may not name our reasons, but they are still valid.
3. 2 reasons: to enlighten his eyes; so David will know God's will. Second reason is to preclude his death. God has a plan for David, so David's life must be preserved. He falls within the parameters of God's will. David is now on the right track.

God's Motives and Actions

1. God does not need an emotion reason for His actions. He is waiting for David's volition; David's choices. If David makes the wrong choice and he is out of God's plan; then there is discipline to get David back into His plan.
2. God is not sad or alarmed over David's plight. God has a greater purpose in all of this. He always has a greater purpose.
3. God's motives for action are simply part of God's overall plan. God is impervious to our manipulations. God knows we have free will. Hell was created for those who do not believe in His Son.
4. David will live or die based upon God's will and plan for him. So why not depend on God's plan? That is the rationale.
5. God's actions are always for His glory; not for ours. But also, God's actions are for our best interests, always. Even in discipline. This is just like our own children.
6. This is where the love of God meets us, even if it is our time to depart this life; then His plan for us is over. David is requesting life, which is a legitimate prayer. One expectation is confidence and no fear for the plan of God.

Some have called and wondered about reassembling. All sorts of rumors and problems. Some churches have reassembled. Bobby believes in assembly. Making plans about social distancing in the auditorium. Berachah will be open as soon as possible. Going to listen to the governor and what he says at that point. Bobby does not want to show fear and put his security in a mask. He will follow the things as required by law.

We can never short-change the application of the doctrine. That is why Bobby has been giving these classes on practical divine wisdom.

We don't think of David, a man after God's own heart, operating from human viewpoint. That is not his overall image from the Old Testament. He is a great Biblical hero and relied on the Lord throughout untold adversity. We do not think of him running and hiding from untold death. David was a man with no fear; yet he is afraid in Psalm 13. Lion, bear, Goliath. David had a sin nature and it could get the best of him. Don't tell me that you have not had a weak situation to deal with.

Bobby has never said "Do not wear a mask." It has become somewhat optional in the state of Texas. No one is enforcing it. There was a mandate to wear a mask with a $1000 fine. Bobby ran a stop sign and should have. He did not see the stop sign. Not once did he say, "Where is your mask?" He never mentioned that. He did mention the stop sign. Bobby did not wear a mask because he did not want to express fear. It is fine for people to wear them. If they believe it to be a mandate. Bobby is not to express fear; and he is not telling us not to wear a mask. You can wear a mask without fear.

David's sin nature could get the best of him as it overwhelms us. In this psalm, he is operating on human viewpoint all the way. We are going to solve our own problems; we do not need help from the Lord? "I've got this one, God"; Bobby: no you don't.

It appeared that if Saul kept coming after him, David would die. David was facing the violence of Saul over and over again. "I am going to perish by the hand of Saul. There is nothing better for me than to escape into the land of the Philistines. Saul will get tired of searching for me and I will escape from his hands." David is not expressing any trust in the Lord. David did not know where to hide to escape Saul and he tried many schemes here. He tried a cave, Moab and Philistia. David became traitorous to his own nation. This is the nation over which he would be king.

This traitorous behavior is occurring in our nation today by one political party. Anti-authority; liars. They are not concerned with the rule of law. Even if our leaders are wrong and do not abide by the law of the land, we are obligated to.

Psalm 13:1 How long, O LORD? Will you forget me forever? How long will you hide your face from me?

David was relying on human viewpoint. He should not have to take counsel from God. This is the record of a hopeless, human situation where David is at the end of his rope. Human security has failed in this country.

Doctors are standing up in front of television cameras and promoting fear; and a media which is doing the same thing.

Psalm 13:2 How long must I take counsel in my soul and have sorrow in my heart all the day?
How long shall my enemy be exalted over me?

David will change his tune in v. 3,

Psalm 13:3 Consider and answer me, O LORD my God; light up my eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death,

David asks God to enlighten him. This is necessary for all believers in difficult situations. David will offer motive for God to act. Reasons why the prayer should be answered. He is doing not just a request. God's motive is always His plan. It is not emotional. Sometimes God's plan calls for some adversity. Sometimes there is no deliverance in the way that we want it.

David and His Petition to God

1. David is consider a motive to suggest to God.
2. Is it my time to go? If not, then preserve me.
3. God has already considered David's situation and God will act in spite of the sparing emotions of David.
4. He finally requests; let me know God.
5. God communicates His will in His answer to prayer. We will get an answer to our prayer; and sometimes that answer....
6. God provides protection and security that we can understand and be confident in. God provides security; it is there. Thus it is a part of His plan.

God's Motives

1. God's motive is always to bring us to security in His Word. This is so that we can apply doctrine and we do have security and protection and apply it.
2. God's motive is to bring us to think divine viewpoint. It is always God's motive to guide and direct us in those paths.
3. Our motives in life may be less than stellar. God's motives are never wrong. That is our hope and confidence and our trust. God's motives are always pure and always right.
4. David calls for God to execute His plan for him. That is a vast improvement.
5. However, he must wait with patience and confidence for the answer to his prayers. Sometimes, person is dying; and they get upset because God allows them to pass. Our prayer to God must be in accordance with the plan of God.

David wants to live for several reasons.

David is concerned for the time period where God hides His face from David. Hiding His face is a metaphor for looking away. When he does this, he admits that God has not forsaken him. David requests that God look at his situation.

David's Request to God.

1. Consider or look is the imperative of the Hebrew verb nabat. David prays in the imperative.
2. Nabat means to gaze intently. This is an intense gaze. You look into someone's eyes trying to understand them and what they are saying.
3. This is the imperative of strong request.
4. This is a prayer which begs the Lord for consideration. That is how intense the imperative is.
5. David is calling for God to look at his personal dilemma.
6. This verb to consider or to look is an anthropomorphism. Already covered.
7. God does not need to consider closely the problem. God knows it all; He knew all of this in eternity past. David is aiming an intense request.
8. God has always know about David's problem; but David is mandated to pray without ceasing. That is our communication with God. We know that God is with us; we know that he is not turning His face away from us. Prayer is a part of our permanent relationship with God.
9. There is an urgency of request here; it is not a command. Therefore, David has gone straight to the One Who can answer and deliver.

David addresses the Lord Y<sup>e</sup>howah; the sacred Tetragrammaton. David has communed with his God.

David addressed God in a very personal way. God is with Israel in a very personal way. There is a great son; and David knows these promises. David knows that he has been ordained as king and that his lineage would be...

We have a direct line to God; we do not go through a priest. David is calling upon the name of the Lord.

David says to God, "Where are You in my hour of need?" This sounds very presumptuous; but David is at his wit's end. His soul must tourn to confidence.

This whole lament of David is pointless unless he gets an answer from God. Asking God does not mean that God does what we want Him to do.

David's Request

1. This is figurative language with a literal meaning.

2. Enlighten is the Hebrew verb or. It is an imperative again. It means to give light.
3. It is best translated light up my eyes.
4. In some passages, lighten my eyes or enlighten me, the idea of giving light through instruction is considered. Illuminate me as that is
5. David is asking for doctrine.
6. This is not David calling to be rescued from death. He wants a life preserver. He needs to use the doctrine in his soul.
7. We must take into consideration David's mental and emotional condition. He has been running, hiding and in fear.
8. He needs revival more than he....
9. I have run out of gas; restore my confidence. Being tired makes one a coward.

Cowardice is being unable to face a problem. Letting your fear get the best of you. Fear is alerting us to danger. Bobby has never been more exhausted than he was in those 8 weeks of Ranger training. Get that little gold and black tab. Amazing the meaning of that. It is all about the challenge. This is to teach a leader to function under maximum stress and maximum tiredness.

Psalm 13:3 Consider and answer me, O LORD my God; light up my eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death,...

rescue me; revive me, enlighten my eyes. When he is refreshed and vitalized, his eyes are lightened. That is what David requires.

Lesson #0091

Psalm 13 Wisdom in the OT

5/14/2020 Thursday

David asks the loaded question 4x in the first two verses, how long, O Lord? This appears to David that his enemies would never be removed. He believed himself to be in a hopeless situation where he is at the end of his rope. Human security fails and human viewpoint prevails. David himself was failing.

David begins to look towards the Lord in v. 3. Sounds like a self-pity prayer, trying to manipulate the lord.

Psalm 13:3 Consider and answer me, O LORD my God; light up my eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death,...

3 Things to Consider

1. David is asking in a different tone to the Lord. What must I do under these circumstances. David recalls his previous relationship with the Lord and how dependent he has been on the Lord.
2. Enlighten my eyes; this means to give light, to cause to shine, to light up; best translated, light up my eyes. What does this mean in this context. We must take into account David's current situation? What he needs here is a revitalizing of strength and vitality. He cannot do this under human power. David can beat this if God gives him an answer to prayer. David has lost confidence, as is clear in vv. 1–2. He must get back to his previous relationship with God. He needs a revived vitality. When physical strength is leaving, the eyes are darkening. This is why David asks God to light up my eyes. Bobby has watched a person die, and he sees a visual dulling when the soul leaves the body. As his dad's soul departed, his eyes literally changed; his eyes turned lifeless. His eyes were filled with light for 90 years. He had strength and vitality and authority. He was gone even though his heart continued to pump for a few moments. David is calling for vitality in his eyes to be restored.

3. Then David says, or I will sleep the sleep of death.
  - a. David represents himself as a dying man who light of life is going out.
  - b. If God does not answer him, David is literally going to pass on out of this life.
  - c. In his prayer, the declining David gives God a motive for rescuing him. This is a motive, but not given to manipulate God. It is an application of doctrine.
  - d. The motive is, if God still has a plan for him, and He does, then God will deliver David from his enemies. It is all about God's plan and motive. David is clear that God has a plan not yet fulfilled.

What about the triumph of David's enemy? This man would triumph over David and over God, as this will represent a defeat over Israel.

Psalm 13:4 lest my enemy say, "I have prevailed over him," lest my foes rejoice because I am shaken.

The second motive presented by David in his prayer.

David's Enemy/enemies

1. In the second line of v. 4, David uses the plural; but it was then plural
2. This mix of singular and plural was done purposely.
3. On the one hand, David faces the singular enemy, death. The plural represents David's foes in general. Saul has henchmen. They are included in the plural adversaries. No doubt, there are others.
4. David is saying that death would be able to claim a victory. David is asking God, "Are you willing to let this enemy defeat me?"

What Are the Stakes?

1. If death wins, this would be a great victory.
2. A victory over David and over God.
3. God's promise to David and to Israel is for a king forever in the line of David. This could not be fulfilled.
4. God promised a Savior through the line of David. The Messiah was from the house of David.

5. Satan would love to cut off the line of David.
6. God would then not be able to fulfill His covenant with David. God's promises are assured.

The prophet Nathan gave David the prophet. 2Samuel 7:

2Sam. 7:8 Now, therefore, thus you shall say to my servant David, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep, that you should be prince over my people Israel.

This is the promise made to David. God told Abraham that He would make his name great. He would be the first Jew. He was great in the eyes of God. The Davidic covenant is linked to the Abrahamic covenant. Great names connected.

There are great men of the earth; they are written about. We know the great ones; and we hear their names and their deeds.

The people of God are the Israelites and God would plant them. This is a metaphor for God putting down roots in this land, that they may live in their own place and not be disturbed once again.

2Sam. 7:9 And I have been with you wherever you went and have cut off all your enemies from before you. And I will make for you a great name, like the name of the great ones of the earth.

David would constantly be at war with the enemies all around. David took care of these enemies and defeated them so that they would be reconstituted as a people.

2Sam. 7:10 And I will appoint a place for my people Israel and will plant them, so that they may dwell in their own place and be disturbed no more. And violent men shall afflict them no more, as formerly,

There is a law and that law governed Israel.

2Sam. 7:11 from the time that I appointed judges over my people Israel. And I will give you rest from all your enemies. Moreover, the LORD declares to you that the LORD will make you a house.

These houses are royal dynasties.

2Sam. 7:12 When your days are fulfilled and you lie down with your fathers, I will raise up your offspring after you, who shall come from your body, and I will establish his kingdom.

The descendants being raised up after David, that is his dynasty. Who was David's immediate successor? His son, Solomon, one of the greatest ruler of Israel. The kingdom was wealthy and the kingdom was at peace. This is the establishment of Solomon's kingdom.

This also refers to the establishment of a greater covenant for David's Greater Son.

2Sam. 7:13 He shall build a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever.

The house that would be built is Solomon's Temple.

2Sam. 7:14 I will be to him a father, and he shall be to me a son. When he commits iniquity, I will discipline him with the rod of men, with the stripes of the sons of men,

The ruler of a client nation. We are in the Church Age and this dynasty has been interrupted; but it will resume. God's promise to Israel will stand forever. David's dynasty would remain forever over Israel.

There would be plenty of sins in David's dynasty. Some would be removed and some would be honored. The northern kingdom was destroyed; but the southern kingdom remained.

The roots of the people were in that land.

2Sam. 7:15 but my steadfast love will not depart from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away from before you.

God's unfailing love would never depart from David or from his line.

Saul was removed. The people demanded Saul to rule over them and God allowed for that, but Saul was a disaster.

2Sam. 7:16 And your house and your kingdom shall be made sure forever before me. Your throne shall be established forever."

this promise was made to David; it was not made to the church. We cannot take his promises to ourselves. This is the promise for the Greater Son of David ruling forever. None of us have ever had such a definitive promise before. How could David not trust this?

This covenant would be forever.

The Davidic Covenant

1. The Davidic covenant defines the dynasty that lasts forever. There is an interruption. The descendants of David are not on the throne of Israel right now. This will be true all the way to the millennial kingdom. This covenant lasts forever.

2. If David was to die at this point, death and hades would be the winner.
3. The Davidic covenant This was the time of King Saul. Solomon would not be alive at this point and there would have been no Davidic Covenant.
4. David makes an urgent appeal for God's covenant fulfillment.
5. David calls for the protection that God has promised in His covenant.
6. This prayer reflects David understanding the plan of God. This is David's spiritual maturity coming to the forefront. "Is this not the God Who has made promises to me all of my life?" David has a point. This is a legitimate prayer.

There is an accurate motive for rescue. If David's enemies kill him, they will rule. If David is not rescued, David would be shaken to the core of his being. It would mean that God has not fulfilled His promises. If God never deserts you, then He is working on you. He is there. He will always be there.

2Sam. 7:17 In accordance with all these words, and in accordance with all this vision, Nathan spoke to David.

Psalm 13:4 lest my enemy say, "I have prevailed over him," lest my foes rejoice because I am shaken.

Psalm 55:22 Cast your burden on the LORD, and he will sustain you; he will never permit the righteous to be moved.

Lesson #0092

Psalm 13 Wisdom in the OT

5/17/2020 Sunday

Good news is ushers and deacons will meet and begin to discuss how to assemble. We will look into negotiating the social distancing. We are thinking about it and planning for it.

We are beginning in v. 3. David knows that there is nowhere else for him to go. He has fled to different countries; Saul will not leave him alone. David is at his wits end. He is at the end of his ability. His eyes are enlightened by the Lord.

Psalm 13:3 Consider and answer me, O LORD my God; light up my eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death,...

That promise is contained in the Davidic Covenant and the Abrahamic Covenant. Bobby covered the Davidic Covenant in greater depth in the previous class. A great name, a great reputation, unfailing love, a continued dynasty. David is assured of God's promises to be fulfilled. There is a second motive for divine rescue, found in v. 4.

If David dies, then death and David's enemies, who are God's enemies, will be able to say, "I have prevailed over God's man." David asks God to consider and answer him here. Defeat by David's enemies cannot happen. Then the cosmic system would triumph.

A lot of writing to be done today.

David Can Stand on God's Promises

1. Death's victory would not be over just David but over God as well.
2. God's promises to David and to Israel was for David to be a king forever; the line of David could not be fulfilled. Bobby is assuming that King Saul is chasing David. This would not be compatible with the timing of the Davidic Covenant. There is no line to go through Absalom.
3. Satan would like nothing better than to cut off David's line by his premature death. The covenant from God must happen.
4. There is a great son promised the Messiah.
5. Worse for us, we would all be doomed as there would be no Christ. The Savior is to come through the line of David.
6. The promised Messiah would not be born. God protected David throughout his life and this is one of those times.
7. This is why David was under attack constantly.

It is clear that David is God's man, from the very beginning.

This prayer indicates that he has an understanding of what is going on. It is important for the believer to recover quickly. We might even gauge our spiritual maturity by where we are right now in this situation. God must answer David's prayer.

I believe that we are assured that David will be king at this point; but no Davidic covenant.

Our Prayers to God

1. When we are in trouble, our requests are heard, even though it may not seem like it. At the beginning, David was discouraged and did not seem to trust in God. God still hears our prayers.
2. The prayers that we make to God are simple based upon the circumstances of what we want to be delivered from.
3. They must be delivered with the will and plan of God in mind. We want relief and protection.
4. God's will always trumps everything, including our desires.
5. When you ask to be delivered from deadly circumstances, God's response is yes or no.
6. If you die and not rescued, then God is calling you home. O God preserve me, because I am having a great time here.
7. If you are rescued, if you are protected, then God is not finished with you. God has something planned for you. You ask for relief from adversity and you wait for His answer.
8. You can have a relaxed mental attitude because you know that we are in the Lord's hands. That is the application of our doctrine; that is our faith rest.

God's grace is connected to His plan

1. If God rescues us in any difficulty. Do not consider this to be merely a favor to us. Do not ignore God's grace. It is all about God's plan and His grace towards us.
2. God's rescue is always connected to His plan.
3. In fact, God's grace towards us is connected to His plan for us. What God does furthers His plan in our lives. We have all of the resources to do that.
4. That grace, His plan includes the course of our life and death and the resources that God provides for life and death. We have a wonderful provision for life and death. Dying Grace can be picked up. We have great resources. Berachah Church and R. B. Thieme, Jr. ministries which to reflect the grace of God.
5. God delivers for a purpose. He does not deliver us because He likes us or wants to watch us for awhile longer; we are delivered for a purpose. That is the greatest security in life, even if we do not know about our future in His plan.
6. Whether we live or die, we are in the Lord's hands. When you recognize that and make that application. No woman was to go in to see the king unless summoned; yet Esther had to go to the king, no matter what, and reveal to him what is going on. There was the possibility that she might not be accepted. "If I perish, I perish." Great confidence in the plan of God.

Change of Thinking in this Psalm

1. Up to this point, David's words have been worried and anxious. "How long, O Lord?"
2. There has been an interlude of tension between David's past experience of trust and his future hope of deliverance.
3. A trust in God's loving kindness.
4. David's present reality of adversity; his troubles, his facing death, had undermined that trust, that trust from the past. That is what his lament revealed.
5. In vv. 3-4, David began to refocus on the Lord. Now, he provides a note of reassurance in vv. 5-6.
6. There will be calm confidence returning to David's soul. The tension is gone. The future hope has returned. He will praise the Lord for that deliverance. But why has David's attitude had reversed? Deliverance has not occurred yet but trust has returned. How and why? David recognizes the futility of human security and he recognizes the valued divine viewpoint. With this goes the security of a relaxed mental attitude. He had this before and he needs it again. The change of attitude means that David will rejoice in it.

These final 2 verses will be a newly found confidence in God.

Psalm 13:4 lest my enemy say, "I have prevailed over him," lest my foes rejoice because I am shaken.

Psalm 13:5 But I have trusted in your steadfast love; my heart shall rejoice in your salvation.

The Unfailing Love of God

1. Loving kindness is chesed. It is frequently used in the Old Testament.
2. The best translation of chesed is not loving kindness or goodness; but grace.
3. It is unfailing love; that is the best translation.
4. This word is critical in David's situation, when he questions the Lord's seeming neglect. This is what turns David around. He goes from pastt trust to confidence.
5. Chesed is a hErew noun usd to note the ever reliable eternal love of God. We often think of it; and too often, we are disappointed in it.
6. An attitude of faith and trust in the face of hopeless adversity.

1John 4:8 God is love; He is unfailing love. We should know something about this unfailing love.

The Unfailing Love of God

1. Love is a basic attribute of God, along with others like justice and righteousness. Along with righteousness, justice, veracity.
2. Love is what God is; but it is also what He does.
3. His attribute of divine love engenders the actions of divine love. Who He it is what He does. What He thinks is Who He is.
4. You cannot take love isolated from everything else.
5. God is absolute justice and perfect righteousness. Along with justice and righteousness, God's unfailing love is the prime motive for all of God's actions towards us. These 3 things are where we meet God. We are the progeny of Adam who failed.
6. God's love never fails despite us. In God's will is unfailing love.
7. That is the key to David's trust in this circumstance.

Unfailing love is a part of condemnation. God demonstrates His love towards us, in that while we were sinners, Christ died for us. God's righteousness, justice and love meet us and provide for us salvation.

This is a far cry from where David was in the first 2 verses. "You do not love me because you are not rescuing me."

Psalm 100:5 For the LORD is good; his steadfast love endures forever, and his faithfulness to all generations.

God's faithfulness extends to all generations. It never fails. David put his trust in God's unfailing love. God has a divine solution for every situation that man faces. That is the source of the deliverance in which David rejoices. Does not matter if it has happened yet or not.

What Is this Unfailing Love That David Now Trusts?

1. God establishes a permanent relationship with the believer. When we are related to Him. We are never thrown away for failing. We have an eternal relationship with God, even if we are not fully living the Christian life. This is based upon unfailing love and grace. This can never be changed or removed. David was a beneficiary of God's unfailing love and grace. The first son died that David had with Bathsheba. He did not reach the age of accountability. Solomon was the promise of David's dynasty.
2. God's grace is the expression of God's unfailing love. Personal love can never be diminished. We have a means to restore our fellowship with God and move forward in our lives. Rebound and keep moving in the spiritual life. David is picking himself up out of the dirt and praising God for it. He is trusting in a faithful God.
3. This demonstration of God unfailing personal love can never wain or diminish. That affects David's love, rejoicing and happiness, because of God's unfailing love. That is the underlying cause of our relaxed mental attitude. That is how we should always review the plan of God. We need the proper viewpoint of who God is. God's love never ceases; and His discipline is a part of God's love. God's justice and righteousness is revealed by the cross. Adversity, hopelessness, and then one word brings him back to life. David recalls unfailing love.

Psalm 100:5 For the LORD is good; his steadfast love endures forever, and his faithfulness to all generations.

Lesson #0093

Psalm 13 Wisdom in the OT

5/19/2020 Tuesday

Meeting to discuss the things which will take place; making arrangements for the proper seating and precautions. Everyone is on board. It will be coming and Bobby will let us know when.

We will conclude this chapter. The final 2 verse with a completely different tone than the beginning of the chapter. David has experience that despair and a loss of faith in the Lord's care and keeping.

In vv. 3-4; 6 short verses and it reveals a change of attitude.

David says, "My soul will rejoice."

this begins with a very strong adversative...

David has expressed deep concern and fear. Death was at his door and he knew it. He did not give up.

David's Change of Attitude

1. David now declares what he does and what he will do.

2. As for me, grace; I have and will trust in the Lord.
3. What David will finally do is trust in the unfailing love of God. We think of how faithful God is to us. He care, keeping, rescue, protection.
4. This trust is the expression of David's new found confidence. Before he expressed despair.
5. He now had confidence in God. He is not trying human viewpoint solutions. He is expressing confidence in God's love.
6. This is the key to David's change of attitude.
7. God in that unfailing love and faithfulness designed the divine solutions for every situation in life that any believer will face. Unfailing love has already provided a solution for us. We only need trust God.
8. David rejoices in the deliverance that he knows is coming.

David is not building his own security, which is human viewpoint. He has not forgotten God's promises when he was anointed king. He let his troubles and circumstances crash in on him.

The Right Thinking During Deliverance.

1. Deliverance always begins in the soul; not in the situation.
2. The confidence that David demonstrates is based primarily on a change of attitude. The deliverance has not yet been affected. David trusts it.
3. This is not a change in his physical well-being. Attitude comes first; not circumstances or deliverance from circumstances.
4. David has not been delivered yet. Believers too often base their confidence on God's actual deliverance. The sequence is wrong. Right attitude before deliverance. Believers sometimes surmise that God has not provided for their deliverance.

Psalm 13:5 But I have trusted in your steadfast love; my heart shall rejoice in your salvation.

When and how long will it take.

Remain Secure Whether You Are Delivered or Not

1. Security and confidence do not depend on satisfactory physical circumstances or improvement in those circumstances.
2. In other words, having escaped trouble, you feel secure and delivered. That is the normal way that human beings react...only when it is over to they feel relieved or secure.
3. What if you don't escape? What if those troubles are long lasting, like bad health or bad relationships or dissatisfaction in your professional life. .
4. You should not be insecure because you apply the mature spiritual life and you understand God's plan and circumstance. David gets it. He has a megalomaniac king who wants to kill him. He cannot even escape to a foreign country. What our lives are not or are, that does not change God's unfailing love.

5. Security and confidence hinges on your attitude in the circumstances...even if your circumstances continue. Why live a miserable life because there are some bad circumstances.
6. Security is in your attitude towards your situation. The key is a difference in attitude. One means insecurity and the other means security and protection and a relaxed mental attitude in life. You cannot afford to fluctuate between despair and rejoicing. The plan of God is liveable, but you can execute it. Circumstances are just circumstantial.

Having escaped trouble, you feel normal and secure. That is the normal way that humans react.

Security and Divine Deliverance

1. Security is the faith that you express. Confidence in things unseen. You may not see the results of God's unfailing love or all of them. The spiritual life has provided the attitude for life.
2. Then trust God for your security in all conditions.
3. David has security because he is trusting the unfailing love of God. Battles are fought by those who would rather be somewhere else. Scared people who would rather be somewhere else. But battles are won by those who choose victory or death. That attitude that goes with it is the security of facing death.
4. You trust that God will deliver you in the circumstances.
5. In that case, the troublesome situations are not the major issues.
6. Your spiritual life and your relaxed mental attitude are the issues. Deliverance and certain security in itself.
7. The essence of that life is your relationship with God. Doctrines are the mind of Christ. That which is in the Bible teaching us about God, about Christ.
8. No matter what other people do, you have the unfailing love of God.

Because of God's unfailing love and David's response to it, what will be the result? David will rejoice in God's salvation. Salvation signifies more than just a deliverance from his situation.

Salvation Here

1. Faith alone in Christ alone which leads into this great spiritual life.
2. Salvation encompasses David's physical well being and protection from the cosmic system. Physical well-being, protection.
3. It includes victory over the enemy. This includes Satan and all of the schemes and ideologies and those who serve the cosmic system.
4. It encompasses the mature spiritual life. Including faith rest, a personal sense of destiny.

5. It encompasses a relaxed mental attitude. Self-pity is one of the worst things to have.
6. It encompasses a confidence of well-being even when you are under pressure.

That is the complete picture of salvation for the believer.

Psalm 13:5 But I have trusted in your steadfast love; my heart shall rejoice in your salvation.

Psalm 13:6 I will sing to the LORD, because he has dealt bountifully with me.

David's circumstances and his attitude causes him to sing to the Lord. This song of rejoicing will come to him once he has been delivered. David is ready to sing; the knowledge of the faithfulness of God. The love that the Lord has for David.

We have the first line of the song that David sings.

The Song That David Sings

1. God has dealt bountifully with David.
2. This verse has tremendous meaning in relation to what God does for us.
3. It is the aspect of God's pure grace for the benefit of the believer.
4. Gamal is closely connected with chesed; they go together.
5. David will sing to the Lord. It is a hymn to the grace of God, God dealing bountifully with David and with unfailing love.
6. This is the same subject of rejoicing of you and I. Prosperity can be a great distraction to the spiritual life.
7. No matter what happens, God's grace and love are always in operation for us. It is God's grace and unfailing love which deserves the praise. We are not deserving of His grace.
8. Benefits are unlimited.

Bobby Paraphrases 6 Verses

1. In times of dangerous opposition when God seems to have abandoned the scene, you must press your appeal to Him. And great confidence in His unfailing love.
2. This psalm captures a double problem for a believer. Wicked enemies set on the destruction of a believer. God's seeming abandonment.
3. The psalm captures David's intensity and urgency, which is exactly our attitude. This is as he appeals to the Lord based upon God's faithful and unfailing love.
4. We see David strongly appealing ...the attitude of confidence goes with this.
5. We know, as with David, nothing can separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus.
6. That expression of lament need not be considered whining or disrespected to the grace and love of God.

7. When we approach the throne of grace, as a mature believer, we have confidence. So many people in desperation hag
8. Prayer may include such a lament as David expresses and the prayer is moved by difficult circumstances. They cannot be removed sometimes.
9. The solution may be expressed in the admission of God's grace and love. Now we are reflecting the attitude of the mature believer. We are reflecting doctrinal orientation. That is the expression, the admission of the divine solution.
10. This lament to the Lord that David's expresses is in itself an acknowledgment that the source of security and deliverance always resides whatever those circumstances are, COVID19. It is the unfailing love of God and He deals bountifully with us. David applies that and that is what we should apply.

Psalm 13:6 I will sing to the LORD, because he has dealt bountifully with me.

Now where should be go next? Psalm 14 is next.

Our nation is under attack.

Lesson #0094

Psalm 14 Wisdom in the OT

5/21/2020 Thursday

Psalms 13 and 14 are very pertinent to today.

Introduction to Psalm 14

1. The cosmic system is Satan's world; it is synonymous with conflict.
2. It is the world of the enemy of all things of God. We also know that the human race is intimately involved in that conflict. This includes the human race and that is what this chapter is all about.
3. The cosmic system is the system of evil that opposes us individually as believers in Jesus Christ but also the cosmic system is the nemesis of the client nation to God.
4. This deep and universal corruption of mankind, which is what we are dealing with in the cosmic system, is traced to the source of humanity's failure to seek or to know God.

The client nation under attack is Israel; and the message applies to every client nation in history, including the United States of America. The abominable deeds of the unrighteous are no different from the past.

there is nothing new under the sun; it's all been seen before. All of this has been repeated over and over again throughout the ages. The Angelic Conflict and the inherent sin nature of man. This corrupt. We have great confidence in the Lord. David ended up praising the Lord in the previous. Do not be fooled by the propaganda of the ungodly.

There Are No Human Solutions

1. The condition of mankind is not getting better with the passage of time. The corruption of the human race of the world in which we
2. The sin nature is still inherent to us all, even the best of us have it. This is very clear by this psalm.
3. We are not more righteous or better people today because....
4. We are not evolving into better creatures. We are not broom
5. No humanist politics, no feminism, no radicalism, no war on poverty has managed to solve any real societal problems. The sinfulness of mankind. No matter what the movement, they cannot remake the world.

The humanist cannot even admit to evil. They simply redefine the nature of man. They simply leave out evil. They redefine it and leave it out. Evil cannot be redefined out of existence. They cannot pretend that there is no evil. They cannot continue to define evil as being bad environment or people who were victimized. That is the hoax of the cosmic system today. The cosmic system is designed to obscure evil.

Power politics in high places is alive and well. We are seeing it very clearly in the campaigns to come. The desire for power always exceeds the need for power. Freedom is always in conflict with power politics.

Our Constitutional rights are being attacked. You must be dictated to on what you can and cannot do during this crisis. Petty, local and state dictators are emerging in this time of quarantine. Certain leaders are dunk snf peort.

No leader or legislator should ever set asdie law and freedom. Evil is being exhibited among us in many ways. By mental attitude sins. By inordinate cof these evils are just as prevalent as they hafe evolution.

Evil Is Amongst us

1. Economic prosperity may improve some living conditions; socialism touts economic prosperity for all; captialilsm allows for every person to try to succeed we have great prosperity. With socialism, there is even greater povery
2. Economic prosperity cannot fundamentally change the soul of mankind.
3. We are a fallen race.
4. Technology has not improved the situation. We are still fallen creatures.
5. Technology has opened up new avenues for corruption We sill reveal greed, lying, cheating and stealing; it is all there; it has not changed.
6. Evil cannot improve evil. It is inherent to the system and inherent to the human race.
7. Those who are without God, the humanists, have nothing else to rely on. They have to turn to evil, because they

8. Denying God leads to all kinds of evil thoughts and evil acts. The good that we see in this world comes directly from the standards of God.

Solution to Man's Depravity

1. The only real and true solution to the depravity of man. Only divine viewpoint works consistently.
2. The sin nature is never lost in our lifetime; even for believers in their lifetimes. We will have one until we receive our resurrection bodies.
3. But that sin nature can be brought under greater and greater.
4. By the integrity of soul gained from spiritual
5. The spiritual growth is the only true reforming in this world. That is the renovation of soul in order to cure the human race.
6. The counter to the cosmic system; the counter to evil in this world. This requires regeneration, the filling of the Holy Spirit, metabolizing
7. Thinking with the mind of Christ is the counter to the cosmic system.
8. We can increasingly escape the corruption of the sin nature and effect a change in our thinking, our actions and our lives. We become the salt of the earth; we are in opposition to the cosmic system; we oppose evil. We still have a sin. We fan f

The new believers need rebound more and more as we begin to grow.

Bible doctrine is the only perfect and complete standard of thinking. This will eclipse humanism and ...

We can exhibit His eternal resources to a lost and dying world.

The Alternatives in this World

1. Those are the only two alternatives in this world.
2. You are either for God or you are against Him.
3. There is no fence sitting here; there is no in-between.
4. Denouncing God is rejecting God. Ignoring God is the same problem.
5. You are a humanist or you are God-centered; either-or.
6. Ignorance of, neglect of Bible doctrine
7. This represents our own surroundings. Believers are targets of all the evil men and deeds of this chapter. We have a great big bulls eye on our backs. Because we are the targets of their destructive plans; and this psalm must refer to the unbelieving opposition. Reversionists who act like the unbelievers can also be part of the opposition.

Wisdom Regarding Good and Evil

1. These psalms give us wisdom regarding evil; particular evil that is disguised as good.

2. What is evil in this world is defined with clarity as evil by this psalm.
3. Humanism plays down evil or just denies it.
4. This psalm reveals not only evil's continued existence, but it
5. Chapter 14 reveals that it all comes down to godlessness. Or practical atheism, which includes those who ignore, reject or neglect Him. There is no God; what an opening line.

The Fool Has Said in His Heart That There Is No God

1. The agnostic says that we cannot know God, even if He exists.
2. There is more to the scope of godlessness than just the scope of deniers.
3. If you are familiar with Rom.3:10–12, it is a quote from Psalm 14. Paul expands the definition of the godless.
4. Rom. 3 is where Paul reveals that all mankind possess wickedness. We are all under the curse of sin. Hence we are against God. Sin is always antithetical to God. We cannot be justified for God through our own righteousness. That is what the humanist looks for, his own righteousness. Rom. 3:10–12 ...as it is written: "None is righteous, no, not one; no one understands; no one seeks for God. All have turned aside; together they have become worthless; no one does good, not even one."
5. These verses present the universal depravity of mankind and the need of Jesus Christ for salvation.
6. According to Rom.3 and Psalm 14 we cannot seek and find God on our own.
7. God seeks us through the advent of the Savior.
8. Because God seeks us, we can respond with positive volition towards Him. God has sought us and our response is positive volition. Thus we find God and reside in Christ. We cannot love God unless we know Him. But Paul says there is no one who seeks or knows God.
9. That is the only way to escape the grim view of mankind.

Introduction Continued

1. The fool in Psalm 14 is synonymous with all of the wicked who revel in their folly.
2. The aggressively flout independence from God, either knowingly or tacitly. The latter means they ignore or neglect.
3. They reject divine establishment law, divine institutions, and there we have humanism opposing divine institutions in so many ways in this country. The Biblical view of family in marriage; opposing nationalism; evil when it opposes God's principles of divine establishment. They reject divine establishment law and they reject salvation by faith alone in Christ alone. They neglect, ignore or denounce.
4. No one who does any of that can ever project real wisdom. They cannot. Very smart in book learning or in science. People in great talent. You cannot project real wisdom without the absolute wisdom of God. You cannot effect change of viewpoint without it either. There are only two choices in life.

5. If you have no real wisdom, you can only have arrogance, relative thinking and self centeredness.
6. That is the fool the deniers of God.
7. These fools are so stuck on themselves, so self-centered, that they think their way of life and their system of relative righteousness is the only way for the human race to exist or to survive. They think that they have come up with the solution. This is the legalist or the humanist.
8. What does this mean in practical application. They arrogantly attempt to impose their thinking and their relative righteousness on the rest of the world. This is tyrannical, anti-freedom.
9. What a reflection of the arrogance of the cosmic system in the Angelic Conflict. It is a picture, a snapshot, of the cosmic system.
10. That is exactly what Satan intends to do with his world; and this is his world. He looks to impose his evil will on willing accomplices. Human good breaks down into evil because it is of the cosmic system. He opposes God in every way and in every respect. The opposition to God in every way is what we will find in Psalm 14.

The opposition in David's Israel.

Psalm 14 inscription To the choirmaster. Of David.

Psalm 14:1 The fool says in his heart, "There is no God." They are corrupt, they do abominable deeds, there is none who does good.

Lesson #0095

Psalm 14 Wisdom in the OT

5/24/2020 2Sunday

No decisions have been made yet.

The truth is Bible doctrine. That is the end-all truth.

The fool lift himself up against God; that is madness. These fools are trying to play God in their relativism. If you reject God, all that remains is humanism. They lift up man to a higher level. The arrogant humanists always see themselves as having power in order to lift everyone else up. God looks down on this with disdain.

That nation received all of the laws from God. Babel was the first attempt at internationalism. God destroyed the tower of Babel. They are destructive to the human race. No authority is greater to them than the human government of government; not guided by the principles of divine establishment. Guided only by humanism and human power and power politics. How can such great truths to be revealed in such short amount of time.

Outline of the Chapter

1. The psalmist describes the Lord's view of the godless human race in the first 3 verses. They are totally corrupt and extremely dangerous.
2. V. 1 is a summary statement. These are practical atheists. Even if they do not outright deny God; sinful immoral depraved and ultimately evil. They ignore God's doctrines, His mandates, the morality of His Laws and divine establishment. So they effectively deny Him. Some of them say, "Of course there is a God;" but they are not interested.
3. Vv. 2-3. What God thinks of man.
4. God looks for any who have wisdom in this world.
5. In v. 3, the Lord concludes the entire human race to be evil.
6. Vv. 4-6 reveals the destruction of the corrupt human race.
7. Those who persecute His people are willfully ignorant.
8. Terrifying dread will be what these people face at the end. Ultimately. Fear on their deathbeds. The preached it and lived it.
9. V. 6 says that these evil ones will be put to shame; ultimately, nothing but shame.
10. V. 7 describes the psalmist longing for the great day of delivered when the people of God will rejoice over their restoration from evil, from the evil of this world. That is the return of Jesus Christ. Also an application to the client nation of Israel.

the original situation in David's life cannot be determined. It was certainly written to express the concerns of God's people in Israel.

It will be important to us studying this in a client nation which is on the brink of falling apart.

Psalm 14 inscription To the choirmaster. Of David.

Psalm 14:1 The fool says in his heart, "There is no God." They are corrupt, they do abominable deeds, there is none who does good.

Bobby had a roommate in his freshman year, but many things that he said were very anti-God. He and the roommie would argue. Later he declared himself to be an atheist. Many things which he said were a learning moment for Bobby, leaning how they think.

A humanist pursuit is futility, when they reject God. They promote socialism, the humanist solution. They are corrupt; they have committed abdominal deeds. This describes and sums up the godless. They think this will improve living conditions for everyone and bring everyone up to a standard.

We may look at our leaders, our media, our coworkers, our neighbors. This description applies. In Adam we are all dead. Do not become hysterical over the evil that you see but that you do not do. The only redeeming feature for humanity is the grace of God. That has nothing to do with us.

If God is not sought after, the only thing that remains is evil. That person seps himself apart. We are positionally sanctified; we are separate from the human race. We are declared righteous; but we are not righteous any one of us, experientially.

God sees the depravity of humanity and He is not confused by fools or the human race. We are all tainted by the sin nature.

The Fool in V. 1

1. A specific meaning for the person in v. 1
2. That person called a fool is ignorant of, neglecting of, or rejecting of divine wisdom. There is not divine wisdom in residence.
3. The Hebrew noun for fool is nadal.
4. Fool is much more than someone who is silly, thoughtless, goofy, mindless or lacks common sense.
5. Nabal is synonymous with wicked.
6. The is not article with nabal. It is to be taken in a generic sense.
7. All those classified they have said there is no God
8. That is practical atheism in distinction to theoretical atheism.
9. In practical atheism, the person is not necessarily in a direct denial of God's existence. Theoretical atheist theorizes that there is no God, no Creator. Theoretical; what they believe.
10. In the generic sense, no God ranges from atheism to agnosticism. They have disinterest in the things of God. They may even believe in God, but they don't really have any interest in the things of God.
11. The fool is actively independent from God. Many people give lip service to God, but they know noting of Him or want to know nothing of Him. The fool is the one glorified amongst humanity. Some are revered in society.

A person who does nothing in this context is one who denies God in any way that Bobby has previously described. Humanity thinks, speaks or acts wickedly. Acting apart from God's moral principles, apart from divine establishment and divine institutions. The humanist has no real wisdom unless it reflects the Scripture.

Own system of paganism based upon Norse gods; a government of lies and oppression and antisemitism. Bobby will offer up a quote, a quote of pure evil. Same subject and the same conclusion. "If you tell a lie big enough, and keep repeating it, people will eventually come to believe it. The lie can be maintained only for such time as the state can shield the people from the political, economic , and military consequences of the lie. It becomes vitally important of the state to use all of its powers to depress dissent...the truth is the greatest enemy of the state." Joseph Geobles. A brilliant man. So many people have now copies, including in this country. In his mind, the state was God.

Chines Communism, Russia, and North Korea are not different. And the same is true when the state combines with religion, as in Islamic states. There is only the state and those who run the state. There is no God.

Sound Familiar

1. Godless leadership is lying leadership.
2. In that case, truth must be suppressed, especially God's Word.
3. Lying leadership, godless leadership is the modus operandi of power politics, which must suppress the truth. They may believe in God, but they believe in themselves more. They do not hold to divine principles or to divine institutions. They suppress the truth in their own souls.
4. This is a godless government of fools, so that they mock, stigmatize and repress truth; and they repress those who believe the truth and speak the truth.
5. Geobeles understood how to control the truth; the world paid a price for it.
6. The godless leadership investigates people, intimidates people, unlawfully prosecutes people, all in the name of a lie, the gain and maintain power. The attacks on General Flynn are an example of this.
7. Godless leadership does not care if they ruin innocent lives in achieving their nefarious goals. They will ruin individuals or groups. They have to crush people who do not agree with them. Godless leadership. If you look very closely or listen closely, you can hear all of this. Socialism is the big lie.
8. The athiest government touts the big lie; socialism. Why is that a big lie? It maintains that people will be better off if they live under a socialistic society. The very opposite is true. The humanist has no more to offer. Socialism makes security more important than freedom. What are people most concerned with today? Our presidentr sees it. "Open the churches and let them assemble."
9. Yet where God's Word is believed, lies are seen for what they are and they are rejected.

Religion and False Gods

1. Religion apart from the divine revelation is just as evil as the humanist.
2. Religion is wrong because it has the wrong view of God.
3. You see, that kind of religion rejects the very essence of God as revealed in the Scripture. It is a religion which conjures a God which is not real.
4. This would be a god of man's own making. You cannot shortchange God.
5. The other huge problem is, understanding the full extent of God's grace. If you do not understand that, you do not understand God. Religion always shortchanges the grace of God.
6. Thus religion is actually anti-God. Even though it claims to represent God. Such was the Roman Catholic church of the middle ages. We can only gain the favor of God through faith in Christ. We are justified by faith. We are made righteous. We are given God's righteousness. We become worthy based upon what God has done. The works that we do come from the production of divine good. This is continuing to overcome the sin nature. Remaining in fellowship for a long period of time.

Psalm 14:1 The fool says in his heart, "There is no God." They are corrupt, they do abominable deeds, there is none who does good.

Lesson #0096

Psalm 14 Wisdom in the OT

5/26/2020 Tuesday

There will be rules in the auditorium; social distancing. You may not get to sit in your assigned seats; some rows will be blocked off. Social distancing will be observed.

We continue in this psalm. It deals with the individual in this corrupt world; and the client nation and what the client nation faces in a corrupt world. The heart of darkness about the fallen heart of man. Not only is this an individual problem, but this carries over to the corporate problem. As the human race is inundated in the cosmic system.

We considered the practical atheist. He denies God, ignores God; they have their own life to live.

There will be 3 statements made and a shift from the singular to the plural. Fools are seen as a class of people, a group. They are corrupt, they have committed abominable deeds; there is no one who does good.

Psalm 14:1 The fool says in his heart, "There is no God." They are corrupt, they do abominable deeds, there is none who does good.

Shachat

1. They are corrupt. Shachat
2. Shachat means to act corruptly, to ruin, to destroy.
3. It would be very difficult to find a stronger word to use as a description of the fool.
4. Shachat describes the ruinous, destructive acts of the wicked who have abandoned any semblance of interest in the Lord. That is the underpinning of the downfall of a client nation.
5. The examples of this downfall are many; but two obvious ones come to mind: it is used of the complete corruption of the human race prior to the flood. The nephalim; the verb is also used to describe Sodom and Gomorrah.
6. In the context of v. 1 it represents moral and spiritual ruin. It does not get any worse than this.
7. Shachat would warrant the type of severe judgment found before the flood and at Sodom.

The corrupt ones committed abominable deeds.

Abominable

1. Taab God is describing who and what this fool is.
2. It refers to abhorrent deeds.
3. It reinforces the acts of corruption. They commit abominable deeds or abhorant deeds.
4. These people who commit these deeds, have complete disregard for God's commandments; and for His divine establishment. Much less God's revelation in His Word.
5. They are lawbreakers and they pursued false gods. Many forms of false goods today, like wealth, or whatever deal g lir. For the believer, it means distraction. Some believe in God and Christ, but they don't act like it.
6. Lev. 18 describes some of these abhorrent deeds. One of those deeds, controversial today, is homosexuality. It is called taab; an abomination. Lev. 18:22 you will not lie with a male as one liees... we can look at a client nation which finds such behavior desirable. Oh my, the Bible is homophobic. This is a description of the abhorant deeds done in Israel. This is God's viewpoint. We do not judge it, oher than... The fact that we promote it indicates decline in our nation.
7. Idolatry is also called an abomination. The graven images of their god; that refers to the polytheistic neighbors of Israel. They were polytheistic. You are to burn them with fire; do not touch the gold and silver. Do not take their gold or you will be snared by it.

None of this is a pretty picture of the human race. It all falls under the corruption of a lot of fools. Bobby is merely teaching what the Scripture teaches.

There Is No One Who Does Good

1. This reveals a complete absence of any relationship with God. David is writing about people of Israel. David is lamenting this fact.
2. No one who disregards or rejects or denies God can produce any good.
3. Human good versus divine good.
4. This is a key phrase; the overarching, descriptive principle; ;pretty much describes who fools are.

Isa. 32:6–7 For the fool speaks folly, and his heart is busy with iniquity, to practice ungodliness, to utter error concerning the LORD, to leave the craving of the hungry unsatisfied, and to deprive the thirsty of drink. As for the scoundrel—his devices are evil; he plans wicked schemes to ruin the poor with lying words, even when the plea of the needy is right.

Bobby would include here those who teach error. We don't know the one who is in us and with us. Those who are off on a tangent and teach nothing but good works, they are ignoring or rejecting or denouncing God. The corrupt person will deal treacherously with people. There are all of these social programs; and we should have compassion for the poor. But you see the government program. He uses plots of evil against others; he plots and he legislates. He wants to destroy the wicked with slander. If you are paying attention, you observe these things. Where are any righteous people? Where are any who are not corrupt? The psalmist records God looking down from heaven and observing what is taking place on earth.

Is There Any Person Who Is Good?

1. This verse records the divine perspective on the human race. This introduces God's perspective.
2. The Lord is looking around for anyone who might be seeking to please God. Just anyone.
3. The question is, is there a possibility of any good in a world of unbelievers who ignore or reject God. The answer is, no.
4. The measure is God's standards. A category of fools. The category of fools emerges in all of its corruption.
5. Even human good from the corrupt is not good and cannot please God.

The phrase, the Lord looking down. It means God has bent over and is looking down to get a good look of what is below. This is an act which is descriptive. Staring at it; evaluating it. Like a vulture searching from high in the sky, looking intently with eyes which are excellent.

God is viewing the children of men and they pass in review in God's critical eyes. God examines them for who and what they are. This is an anthropomorphism. An omniscient God does not need to stoop down for a closer look. God is fully aware of the evil which already exists. The problem is, we the human race are not fully aware of God's viewpoint about all of this. We are looking at the full extent. We have to separate our view from God's. We cannot compare God's absolute good with our relative righteousness. There is no good down here. No one has it; no one does it. People do commit acts which fall within the standards of God. We are all born being short of His perfect righteousness.

God Looking down for Anyone Who Is Righteous

1. Only the believer can meet God's standards.
2. God's righteousness can only be achieved via faith alone in Christ alone. Abraham believed and it was accounted to him as righteousness.
3. We have now been justified so that we have a perfect righteousness that is acceptable to God. That is the only righteousness acceptable to God. Only His righteousness and perfect standards. God is searching thoroughly for those who are seeking Him. No one can seek God in their current state. They can only seek God through Jesus Christ. What the sin nature produces is not what God wants. This is unacceptable to Him.

No one is able to meet God's standards. What God thinks of the human race is not good.

Psalmist and what he sees

1. The psalmist examines this. God sees it and knows that no one does good.
2. That evil is everywhere and it is in everyone.
3. God cannot find an absence of this evil anywhere.
4. No matter what the humanist say about evil. People often claim evil does not exist, and they blame the problems of the world on racism or economics or inequality; and they will correct it by fixing that evil. They are not seeking God; they are seeking human solutions.
5. The world and its human solutions are evil. We are not inherently good. We are not born with inherent goodness.
6. We live in the cosmic system of Satan, the ruler of this world; we live in this world. Everything that goes on in this world is a part of his system. There is nothing good in Satan. He is evil.
7. God can see no exceptions on earth. Only exception is where His righteousness exists in us or in believers. The Lord comes down and takes a look. In Sodom, no good men could be found.
8. The bending over and looking down is meant to communicate just how thorough God's search is. There is nothing but abhorrent deeds.

God has searched diligently for any who seek Him. This divine inspection aims to find that which counts in this world.

we need to look further at this.

Psalm 14:1 The fool says in his heart, "There is no God." They are corrupt, they do abominable deeds, there is none who does good.

Lesson #0097

Psalm 14 Wisdom in the OT

5/28/2020 Thursday

There seems to be unlimited fear in the population of the United States. This will pass, even if we do not recover back to the way things used to be. We are still in the hands of the Lord.

V. 1 was grim; and so is v. 2. God bent down to see what is happening on earth with the sons of men. God created us; He knows all that is going on in the human race; he knows exactly who we are. His bending down to observe us is anthropomorphic. This helps us to understand His actions towards us. He is gazing intently at the human race from His place in heaven.

Psalm 14:2 The LORD looks down from heaven on the children of man, to see if there are any who understand, who seek after God.

Evil and sin is everywhere, in every one of us. Despite our protestations the world and our actions are all evil. Man is inherently evil. Adam is the father of each of us and we have inherited a sin nature from our father. In Adam, all die. We are born spiritually dead. When we believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, righteousness is imputed to us.

We live in the cosmic system of Satan, who is the epitome of evil through and through. There is no good in Satan; not one ounce of God. He disguises his evil at times. We live in Satan's system which is in opposition to God, and that is evil.

The Double Negative Influence upon us

1. We have in internal and external influence to evil. The sin nature is internal and the external is the cosmic system in which we live.
2. This exhibits the condition of the human race.
3. This is why man is called wholly depraved.
4. Any good that we do, if it is good, true good, it reflects the standards of God's law, divine establishment, divine institutions, and for believers, Bible doctrine.

Yahweh, which is the Hebrew for YHWH. That is a better transliteration than Jehovah.

What Is the Importance in this Context?

1. This is the proper name, par excellence of God. The most excellent name.
2. This Yahweh was so sacred to the Jews that they would not even pronounce it. When they came across this words, they would say, Adonai (Bobby says, Elohim).
3. This term is derived from the Hebrew word to be. God's name is He is.
4. That means that God is absolute eternal existence.
5. When Moses wanted to know God's name, God said, I am that I am.
6. The name Yahweh sets forth God is the self-existent eternal one. In this case, Israel. Israel may be called the covenant people. Because God made a covenant with Abraham and with David. First is about a race and second is about a kingdom.
7. Yahweh may be called the God of Israel.
8. He is also God Who meets man where man lives in this world. This is not God Almighty in heaven so far above us so we can never reach Him; this is God Who meets us where we live.
9. He is existent and knowable. He is real.
10. This is the same Y<sup>e</sup>howah Who appeared and made a covenant with Abraham. A covenant is a treaty signed by both parties. God does not change; He keeps His promises. And Satan decided the best way to break the covenant is the destroy the Jewish people. To break this treaty would made Satan victorious.
11. Y<sup>e</sup>howah also refers to Jesus Christ as the God of Israel. He is the manifested Person of the Trinity. He is the Lord of Israel; the ruler of Israel. These promises will be fulfilled, no matter what Satan says or does.

The Holy Spirit when face with positive volition makes the gospel of Jesus Christ understandable. He takes that spark of faith and makes it effective for salvation.

The fact that God loves us, that He sent His uniquely-born Son, so that we may believe on Him and not perish.

Sakal and the Revelation of God Himself

1. The Hebrew word for understand is sakal in v. 2b.
2. Sakal describes a person who has wisdom or prudentkkkk
3. This describes someone with understanding who is able to make good choices. His truth, His doctrines, what He has revealed of Himself.
4. They will live by those principles which are set forth.
5. Conforming to the knowledge of the revelation of God.
6. So we conform to God's standards of righteousness and justice as also confirmed in the Scripture.
7. We can never perfectly conform. We still have a sin nature. We increasingly conform as spiritual growth continues. We become conformed to the justice and righteousness of God.
8. Sakal is the opposite of the fool in v. 1
9. The bottom line is, looking for wisdom among fools is pointless.

How Do We Connect, No One Seeks after God

1. This means to seek after to search out.
2. This means that there is a God. This means that no one seeks after God.
3. It would mean that a person expresses interest in knowing Him.
4. If believing God exists, then expressing an interest in knowing Him.
5. This God can be found; but they do not find Him.
6. There is that problem with the human race. We are depraved and we have no impetus to change or to seek or to find.

Psalm 14:2 The LORD looks down from heaven on the children of man, to see if there are any who understand, who seek after God.

Psalm 14:3 They have all turned aside; together they have become corrupt; there is none who does good, not even one.

God looks for goodness in man, but it is not there.

The Shortcomings of Man.

1. Aren't there people in this world who do good things?
2. Yes. In the relative sense of hug. Always a relative sense
3. No one does good all of the time.
4. We all fall short of God's standard
5. Inherently, we have a sin nature; we do some good things, but we fall short of God's standards.
6. Even something that appears to be good, it can be done with evil motives in intent. "Let me do something good for you," but they are doing good for themselves.
7. Relative good can morph to evil

8. The good that men do always ends up short of solving the problems of mankind.
9. Unintended consequences to much of the good that man does. Here is where much of the corruption comes in .
10. What is perceived as good leads to less than satisfactory outcomes.
11. No one can meet God's standards.
12. We are all marred and scarred by sin and we can do nothing about this on our own. No human being is omniscient; we can try to be prophetic, we can make predictions, but no one is omniscient like God is. No one can look forward into town and understand the final results of solutions that we offer or the things that we think are good that we do. The Constitution of the United States is a great document; it depends upon divine revelation, a document of freedom of a nation. Look where we have taken it. Look how we have abused it.
13. The results of God's investigations is utter failure. He cannot find what He is looking for. He failed to find it in the human race.

What about the protests over an evil act, where things are destroyed.

Lesson #0098

Psalm 14 Wisdom in the OT

5/31/2020 2Sunday

3 months of an empty auditorium. A definitive announcement. The church will reopen on Wednesday evening the 10th of June on a limited scope. We can also meet the government requirements of reassembly. Certain stipulations and guidelines for meeting.

Those who are most vulnerable to the virus should remain at home for now. It is what we have to do at this point. Opening the church at increments. Those with compromised immune systems should remain at home. The infirm or the ill must not attend. Any symptoms or fever, do not attend.

A second stipulation. Because Bobby is asking a significant number to remain at home, there will be real time streaming video. No change to the posting of videos. It will remain on the website for those who should not assemble. Bobby gave two lessons of meeting. This will be allowances for those he has asked not to attend.

Third stipulation is this. 10 days to work this out. The seating in the auditorium will comply with social distancing. Every other row is roped off. 2 seats between every attendee with the exception of family and friends who have come together. Seating in the auditorium is the preferred location. Overflow rooms only secondarily.

Ushers will be stationed at every entrance to the auditorium. The seating will begin from the center of a row to an aisle.

No nursery or prep school.

Because Harris County has lifted the mandatory wearing of masks. They will be optional. Hand sanitizer available. No personal items to be left in the auditorium. The problem now is, someone maybe sitting in your seat.

Any changes will be updated. This is a fluid situation and we need to be flexible. We may even have to cancel for one reason or another. Bobby looks forward to a time of no restrictions.

When you look at the things in various cities, subdued in Houston; police surround the Galleria; God has protected Berachah.

The first 2 verses is God's view of mankind. The human race is corrupt and we commit horrid deeds. Burning and looting.

Psalm 14:1 The fool says in his heart, "There is no God." They are corrupt, they do abominable deeds, there is none who does good.

Bobby saw the tape and we allow this man to have his day in court; we do not decide guilty or not guilty in the streets of our cities.

Psalm 14:2 The LORD looks down from heaven on the children of man, to see if there are any who understand, who seek after God.

God finds no one.

V. 3 may discuss the sort of thing which is happening today.

Theology calls this total depravity. Dominated by the sin nature.

Psalm 14:3 They have all turned aside; together they have become corrupt; there is none who does good, not even one.

The human race is completely corrupt. Shackat is the first time we had corrupt.

Corrupt in this Verse

1. Allach and this is a good translation for it.
2. In the Niphal stem, this describes milk that has turned sour. Milk that is corrupted. It is spoiled and can only be thrown out. Good only for food poisoning.
3. Thus we see the negative picture of the fool in v. 1, who is corrupt and says that there is no God. He has become totally corrupt. This is the stamp of non-approval from God.
4. Altogether the human race has become totally corrupt. All have been infected with the same virus. The same sin nature.
5. Total and universal corruption of the human race could not be more clearly expressed than in this verse there are no exceptions here. Maybe just one of us who makes the grace? No, not even one. We can look at that incident at the tower of Babel.

The Example of Babel

1. The activities at Babel are entirely wicked with no redeeming features in the eyes of God.
2. They fall short of God's standards; they cannot reach Him.
3. They do not seek God on His terms; they seek God on their own terms.
4. They were trying to reach heaven by their own means and their own works.
5. Anything less than divine standards and God's grace cannot and will not be acceptable to God.
6. God scattered man at Babel and destroyed their tower, as He always will.
7. The tower is trying to reach God on their own merit.
8. The city of Sodom was not different; but there was sexual degeneration. It spread and affected the entire city.

The problem that David revealed was not one of mental deficiency. They do not know Who God is. A lack of human ability because of man's relative standards. No understanding in the human race.

So far, the subject has been the foolish human race and they perpetrate abominable deeds. The next 3 verses speak not of the corrupt but those who live in rebellion to the Lord. They do not understand the truth.

We live in the midst of a world where people do not understand God.

Psalm 14:4 Have they no knowledge, all the evildoers who eat up my people as they eat bread and do not call upon the LORD?

The workers of wickedness do not understand God; they do not seek Him.

God's Astonishment

1. This language of astonishment is anthropomorphic. A characteristic which He does not have. This helps us to understand how He thinks or acts.
2. God does not express astonishment. He is not surprised by anything.
3. Even though God is never astonished at things, as if the human race could take God by surprise, we can understand astonishment. We may be surprised at the streets of America going crazy. The hatred that is being displayed, the anarchy, the uncaring ignorance of the law. God is saying, "I am astonished too."
4. The anthropomorphic quality helps us to understand how God sees us and our deeds.
5. This is a figure of speech that communicates aspects of God's perfect nature as He considers corrupt mankind. God looks at all of it, and we are who we are.

6. God is presented here as finding it hard to believe the depths of depravity of these people. That might be something that we are astonished by.

Anarchy never solves anything. Satan can turn things into something very evil. We might be shocked by the wickedness of the cosmic system. How can anyone do such things? How can a person be upset over the death of a black man, so he destroys the business of another black man. Our prisons are filled with people just like that. Congress is filled with such people. From the great to the seemingly insignificant. Each one of us in a cog in the wheel of mankind.

God knew about sin before it happened. Why did He not stop it? He cannot promote it. God knew that. Everyone gets to choose his own path.

Adam's sin nature is passed down to all of us. God allowed this sin; He took into account everything which is done in two.

God was present when Satan fell. He was present for the Angelic Conflict. God created the Lake of Fire for the devil and his angels forever. God knew what Satan's appeal would be. Very difficult to assign anyone to hell forever. To live in flames and never die. That was for Satan.

God has to condemn Adam and all of his progeny. Spiritual death.

Resolving the Angelic Conflict

1. Mankind would be a means to resolve the Angelic Conflict. God will be the victor in the Angelic Conflict. Condemnation for fallen angels and us as well. But while we were yet sinner, Christ died for us. The emptying of God the Son.
2. In doing so, God could provide salvation rather than condemnation for mankind.
3. What is that love? Jesus gave Himself for us and took our place.
4. The Lord became our substitute. He took the penalty for all of our sins on Himself. God took those sins in His humanity.
5. That is why God expresses His unfailing love in providing His Son, Jesus Christ, for that purpose. That corrupt nasty
6. God judges His Son on the cross, so God's righteousness can be accepted. God's justice can only do one thing. Jesus is the righteousness and justice of God the Father on the cross.
7. That was the demonstration of the love of God to Satan and to his angels. There is...

Thus God had complete knowledge of the fall of mankind. In order to save mankind, and to show Himself to be our sin nature continues with us and we

All the human race has been corrupted. When God sees his righteousness in us

God's question is rhetorical so that we can understand Who God is and what He has done for the human race.

Lesson #0099

Psalm 14 Wisdom in the OT

6/2/2020 Tuesday

10th of June is when Berachah will open once again. Social distancing mandates in effect. Those most vulnerable to COVID19 should remain at home. Age alone is not the criteria. Those with chronic diseases. Bobby lists some of those physical problems.

Inability of the human race to do anything that is good, to meet God's standards of righteousness. There is a question posed in v. 4, as if God is astonished at what He observes.

Bobby reads this as astonished. This makes it appear as if there is consternation in God's voice. We, as human beings, in the ways that we think, in the demonstrations of our attitudes, in the circumstances in which we reside. We see a lot of dismay with what is happening in this country. The anthropomorphic astonishment of God helps us to understand God's viewpoint of the human race. We are astonished by the looting and rioting and the harming of those who had nothing to do with the death of George Floyd.

Psalm 14:4 Have they no knowledge, all the evildoers [Do the lawless not know] who eat up my people as they eat bread and do not call upon the LORD?

What God Is Really Asking...

1. We take note of God's astonishment. Are people so spiritually blind that they do not comprehend what they are doing? We may ask that of those on the street.
2. The Lord is asking, don't they know how corrupt they are? Are those really understanding of what they are doing?
3. God's answer is, they do not. We must understand that fact and why. We must understand that fact and why.
4. Mankind work wickedness. What is corruption; what are abhorrent deeds? The lack of spiritual understanding; those who do not seek or acknowledge God. If the rioters and looters sought God, that they do that, would that stop them? For most of them, they do not care that it is wicked.
5. God has identified their evil natures, yet they seem unaware, ignorant; or just plain uncaring. That describes what is happening in the streets of the United States. Have you ever asked yourself, why do people do such evil things that promote evil ends? Why is this happening. Many understand that this as a reaction to an injustice. But is it justice that our cities are being burnt down; that rioters and looters are destroying businesses. Causing billions of dollars of damage. The killing of a policeman? Why are they doing this?

Examples of evil in the past and why that evil was done, and how it correlates to now. How could the communists of the 20th century kill millions of people as if that were something that needed to be done. They thought this would be the only way to impose their ideology. Banishment to the gulags; they enslaved entire nations. There are organizations with the same goals and the same tactics. Antifa would like to bring down this entire nation. How could Adolf Hitler operate gas chambers to kill millions of Jews. This is the misguided sense of German racial superiority and land expansion. Living space for the superior German people and eradication of those who stood in their way. Hitler killed Jews and Christians. Hitler killed many of those who lived on German soil. Japan was no different from 1937 forward. They were a brutal people. They were very brutal to American POW's; all in the name of expanding the superior Japanese empire. They were doing good in their own eyes.

Another question. How could socialists impose such lies and use such force in the streets. They believe that they are promoting a more equitable system of government. They see the United States as unjust and inequitable. Imposing anything requires tyranny.

Another question. How can certain politicians and well-funded private individuals contribute to anti-American hatred? How can riots and looting be sanctioned by these leaders? They believe that they are doing good for the country by remaking and redoing it. The same way the Muslim terrorists believe that they can kill many and remake wherever they are.

The Answer to the Question of V. 4

1. The people are so callous and self-centered that they do it anyway.
2. They may know it is wrong, but justify it for their own purposes.
3. They may not understand the evil that they perpetrate, but it is still evil. They do not see it as evil, but it is still evil.
4. They may think that whatever evil they do now will ultimately bring good results for the country and for the human race. Do the evil now and it will come out to be good. That is pure arrogance. They believe that they can make these decisions for everyone.
5. All of those answers are corrupt and evil in every sense of the word. There are many kinds of evil that men do that are evil. Bobby heard a commentator on FoxNews last night. She was speaking of the peaceful protests and the looting and the rioting. One statement struck Bobby, that human beings are inherently good. Psalm 13 and 14 disagree with that. This is all of us. It is grim, but it is true. That is divine viewpoint. "Don't they know that all of this is evil," God asks. How can anyone justify such activity? This is God asking the same question.

Why Do People Do Such Things?

1. They do not see their actions or intentions as evil. Or they do not believe in evil. Many don't. Evil is within all of us. The end of the story is God's righteousness in us. The spiritual growth that brings the controls on evil. It all comes from God's mandates and laws and standards. Where these things are rejected, we find evil.

2. Those who perpetrate evil just set it aside in their minds. They don't think about it or they justify it in their minds as altruistic reasons. Socialists think, destroy a society to make it a good society.
3. Sometimes they embrace evil for their own self-interests. That is the looters. Getting something for nothing. Who cares if it is burglary? Done under the cover as an injustice.
4. What some do as evil, they see as necessary for the common good; socialism has that viewpoint.
5. Those who see it as the common good, socialism contributes to the advancement of human equality; but evil in truth does not do that.
6. Like the death of millions to promote racial purity. Hitler saw that as a necessity for good.
7. Like Muslims promoting the faith by killing infidels. States are dedicated to that like Iran.
8. They operate on humanistic or religious relative principles. That is how they perpetuate such evil. That is how they do it.
9. They disregard, justify or blind themselves to their own wickedness. They have drunk the kool aide of self righteous humanists. They look the other way at evil.
10. Ultimately, they have placed themselves above God and His moral establishment laws. Like the basic law, you will not steal. They justify it.

Pertinent Passage

Psalm 36:1–2 To the choirmaster. Of David, the servant of the LORD. Transgression speaks to the wicked deep in his heart; there is no fear of God before his eyes. For he flatters himself in his own eyes that his iniquity cannot be found out and hated.

1. They do evil because they have no fear of God.
2. Their own iniquity; they are flattered by their own evil. God describes this wicked person who justifies his own evil.

What We Learn from this Passage

1. Divine insight into evil. Transgression is an attractive option.
2. This is the philosophy and lifestyle of those as they plot their wicked schemes.
3. Evil is not restrained when there is an absence of fear. No fear of God.
4. They are at war if justice is not exactly what they want. No fear of God.
5. They have no dread of the justice of God. They believe in social justice but not the rule of law.
6. They think that social justice is law, but it is without fear of God. God's justice is in charge.

7. Their justification for evil is based upon the belief that there is nothing to fear from a greater power, God. They do not fear government or the police or the leaders who are wishy washy in their response. There is no greater power that they fear.
8. They proceed in their wickedness and they commit evil continuously.
9. They hide in their iniquity and soothe their consciences through self-flattery. Rationalization. They rationalize it and justify it.
10. They answer only to themselves or to someone with greater power.
11. What they understand and strive for is human power over others. When they get it, they do not use it judiciously. If antifa achieved their goals, it would be the same as Nazi Germany. They might as well be jackbooted brown shirts. They strive for a position of power by any means.

What they are doing is no good. God's justice sees everyone, whether with a mask or in a mob. For some, it is attractive what they are doing out there. They reckon without the fear of the Lord.

Bobby was glad to hear the brother of George Floyd. He said, "You are not honoring my brother's memory." Bobby works out with someone who is Floyd's best friend and they were in sports together. He got this guy into weight lifting and into sports. George got off a little bit now and again, but he would not want this stuff all to happen. Justice must be done, but by the rule of law. We do not honor the Lord by breaking the rule of law. He is right.

They proceed in their wickedness.

What the Evil do

1. They are totally evil.
2. They are emissaries of the cosmic system.
3. They do not perceive any of this as evil. It is what they want it to be.
4. Even if some of their actions are good, in a relative sense, they think in terms of evil and they bring evil consequences. If you are the fool who rejects God, then you think in terms of evil...even if some of the consequences are evil.

They plan out their evil on their bed; it is premeditated. It is a thought process.

Psa 36:3 The words of his mouth are trouble and deceit; he has ceased to act wisely and do good.

Psa 36:4 He plots trouble while on his bed; he sets himself in a way that is not good; he does not reject evil.

Psalm 36:4

1. All of it is embraced as evil.
2. What is good becomes evil when they do not despise evil.

3. What is evil becomes good on the path of evil. The rejection of divine institutions; rejection or marriage, one man one woman; the rejection of a nuclear family; the rejection of nationalism for internationalism; the rejection of individual freedom for collectivism. That is tyranny.
4. What people do that appears to be good has an underlying evil, those who despise good. It is because of self-centered arrogant motives.
5. Such people as these who do not despise evil are bent on grabbing power and justifying it as the greatest good for the greatest number. Those who don't work out need to be removed, exterminated.
6. In the eyes of those who do not despise evil, the ends justify the means. Even if the means are entirely evil.
7. They see their evil as producing good. Or at least, good for them.
8. They perceive their actions as acceptable, to meet their humanistic goals. The goals of socialism and communism or of religious dominance.
9. That is the essence of humanism. No God and no fear of God; rejecting God. Meeting goals that, are in the end, futile in their results. Evil is always evil in its results. Evil leads to tyranny.

They are fools, in spite of how they think of themselves. They can be hypocritical or totally evil like Hitler and Stalin. They destroyed the wealthy and the middle class. That is all good in their eyes. Communist China, Communis Russia, all of this is evil, perpetrated in the name of good. They all promote tyranny and a loss of freedom. They are willing to burn down a city, a nation and a people to promote their agenda. They is nothing good in the actions of a fool.

Their greatest hatred is preserved for God's people. Humanism opposes God. There is no God. See how pertinent this chapter is? We see abhorrent deeds occurring here. Those trying to uphold the law, to protect those who might become victims. A spiritual life available to believers. They can do good. That good is called divine good. That is the difference. Humanism versus Christianity. They hate us because we believe in God; because we believe in Jesus Christ. They care about eating up or devouring the people of God.

Psalm 14:4 [Have they no knowledge, all the evildoers \[Do the lawless not know\] who eat up my people as they eat bread and do not call upon the LORD?](#)

Lesson #0100

Psalm 14 Wisdom in the OT

6/4/2020 Thursday

It is no accident the teaching of this psalm in the United States. Most will never hear or get the message of this psalm. The corruption of this world; of the abhorrent deeds; we have seen the perfect example of this. The injustice and murder of one man; but it is not the corruption and evil that is being alleged. We see the corruption of the population at large. Everything which has been taught here has been so pertinent. This is a preparation or us to understand what is happening in the United States at this moment. You can argue with what Bobby is saying, but you must look at the Scriptures. If it comes from the Scriptures, it is not an opinion.

God has revealed in v. 4a that people are spiritually blind and astonishingly do not appear to know what they are doing. We are seeing that as the outcome of advancing humanism for years in this country. They are blind and vulnerable to humanism. The question, they do not know how corrupt and evil that they really are. They have shown the true nature of corruption. It is no longer about the unjust death of one Black man. We should be patient about the rule of law and the court of law. If these men are guilty, they should receive it.

What we see now in the streets is no longer about George Floyd. His memory is being defamed; justice is being destroyed in the streets of the United States. The spiritually bankrupt will not see themselves in this way. That does not change that they are corrupt and evil. They are callous and self-centered regardless of what they know. They justify it for their own purposes. Something as simple as, I want a pair of tennis shoes and I don't want to pay for them. Some radical groups call it good. This is exacerbated by news media and magazines.

A Pulitzer prize winner for the NY Times, who says, looting and destroying businesses is not violence. This is necessary to bring down an unjust America. This is an attempt to make evil acceptable. Acceptable because racism is an evil, called the worst evil in the world, as if criminality will solve racism. It spreads fear and intimidation. Often there is an opposite and evil reaction.

Many people would like to correct these problems and this is not the way to do it. Some think that whatever evil they commit now, and many know that this is wrong, and they think that this will bring about good results for the human race. There is an underlying evil with what you see and hear with the writer of the NY Times. These motives are self-centered and have a humanist agenda. They are trying to sell Marxism and socialism. That is the solution? That is a Satanic system, which never works.

These are the fools who say in their heart that there is no God. Their solutions are anti-God. It will result in more evil. It will never bring the result intended by the humanist. From faith alone in Christ alone; and from the intake and metabolizing of Bible doctrine. The spiritual lives and spiritual aspect of life; has become passe, or persecuted, humiliated and mocked.

The humanist is willing to burn down a city and a nation. There is nothing good in what a fool does. The fool rejects God, the atheist and the agnostic; or those who are disinterested or who are negative towards Bible doctrine. Those are fools, because they are in essence anti-God. Anti-spiritual growth. They are full of arrogance and full of ignorance and this is on full display at this time in our nation. They try to solve an injustice by a police man against a black man to profile every cop as evil. They want you to think that police hate black people and want to see the police disbanded and even killed.

The white person, anyone who is white, has become the root of all evil to these humanists who use racism and divide races in order to get what they want. God says, no one does good, not even one. We are all corrupt, all of us. What is the solution? We hear candidates saying, "We've got to change what is going on." Their solutions are to overcompensate, legislate in favor of the Black race, so the rule of law must favor one group over another. That is injustice; you cannot correct injustice with injustice.

The rule of law must be maintained, which is equal justice for everyone. What needs to change is how the court system views everyone. The scales of justice must be balanced. The other solution is the solution. Demonstrate the line of Christ and the love of Christ. We as believers have a place. If we are not a healing agent in this country, then there is no healing in this country. Then watch God do the work. Things look very grim right now; how will God solve this problem to bring His client nation out of it. If there are not enough believers in the pivot. This may be a wake up call, to slap us in the face to reorganize our priorities. Bobby is not here to offer a political solution; he is here to provide the solution, the only solution.

Psalm 14:4 Have they no knowledge, all the evildoers [Do the lawless not know] who eat up my people as they eat bread and do not call upon the LORD?

These people who are perpetrating all of this are evil and corrupt in every sense of the word. They get bolder and more arrogant every day. God expresses astonishment that man does nothing good.

God is not astonished. This communicates to us emphatically. Are they so unaware that they have made good evil and evil good? Our society has flip-flopped evil so many times. That is the epitome of relative humanism. The greatest evil is the evil that they do to God's people. That is the context of this psalm. The greatest corruption is done against God's people.

We have imputed righteousness. Credited to us by faith alone in Christ alone. Our righteousness become experientially as we grow spiritually. There is no righteousness in criminality or in injustice of any kind. This is the only true righteousness found in this world and the spiritual advance to spiritual maturity. They are the salt of the earth and they become the great counter to the cosmic system. To those who have imputed righteousness.

They must understand divine good, divine righteousness, and the spiritual life.

The fools are guilty of devouring the people of God.

Psalm 14:4b

1. This represents eating up the believers in Jesus Christ.
2. The attack of the cosmic system and its representatives of believers who are maturing is the image of eating my people.

3. The image of the wicked ones devouring God's people like they would eat a normal meal. This is what they do every day. They are dedicated to feeding their bodies and devouring believers.
4. They hate, persecute and even kill God's people without conscience.
5. They feed themselves on power over other people. That is their motive. They crush those who stand in their way, another meaning of devouring. They crush believers if they stand in the way of gaining power. That is what is happening in America.
6. They accomplish this through lies, violence, propaganda. We have a first amendment right. But there is no allowance to blackmail, burning, looting. No allowance for that.
7. A common malady in the cosmic system and it is always directed towards believers. Directed towards us as believers.

Psalm 14:4 Have they no knowledge, all the evildoers [Do the lawless not know] who eat up my people as they eat bread and do not call upon the LORD?

My people is a central term; even in the worst of times when evil is rampant, there is a remnant of mature believers. God's justice should be a part of our mental attitude. God takes care of us. God delivers us.

We see an example of this wicked feeding today. This is not to say that we should forget God's presence and His deliverance. We should be aware of the face of evil. Petty politicians who order ridiculous policies that feed their power lust; or fail to order anything and let riots get out of hand.

Before the riots, we saw orders that have no affect on COVID19. Mayor of Los Angeles, gives the most ridiculous orders. We can play sports on the beach but not touch the sand with sunbathing. This is an example. This insanity is everywhere. Freedom lost by the people is the power gained by the power hungry.

What we see is no longer about George Floyd. Evil destruction of this country. His brother spoke and said, "Stop it." Bobby admires this. He stood in front of the people and told the truth. It is all expediency. What are they doing.

In Minneapolis, the first 2 nights, the police were pulled back to let the protesters do whatever they wanted. This allowed them to get completely out of control. This is no protest; this is a coup d'etat in the streets. Destruction of property and killing of more. People are afraid to say something objective; and race is being used as a big club to smash the opposition. They do not want anyone to speak truth.

The wicked are not given to prayer. Many times we have heard our thoughts and prayers are with you. What good is that if prayer is not a part of their routine. And who are they praying to? Probably something that they just say without being back by anything. Ritual without reality.

They do not call upon the Lord; they devour God's people.

Practical Atheism

1. Practical atheism does not include prayer.
2. Neither does the cosmic system in general offer prayers to God. To whom do they pray? They pray to themselves and to mankind. They do not pray for God's solution or anything that might solve it. Those are just words.
3. The humanist mocks prayer is the solution of the weak. We have to do something in the streets; that will do some good. Intimidation, fear, destruction is no different than what happened in Nazi Germany, which destroyed the entire nation.

Bobby heard a prayer once about a year ago that, in effect, started, "Too many gods." This person was a power politician who wanted to be inclusive to all human beliefs instead of exclusive. That is saying that there is no God. A prayer offered at the investiture of by someone in the Harris county government. She instituted anti-freedom measures which were rescinded by a higher authority. Ultimately, such prayer is a political prayer; trying to pretend that she has a spiritual side. You have no spiritual life. That was a cosmic prayer; and humanistic prayer. They do not expect it to be heard by God because, for them, there is no God; they have no fear of God.

Workers of Wickedness

1. They express no remorse at their evil activities.
2. There is no recognition of the presence or workings or judgments of God.
3. They either ignore God or just reject the existence of anyone higher than themselves.
4. To them, there is no higher being, no Creator, and certainly no God, especially has He is revealed in the Bible.
5. There is no Savior except what man can provide for himself during a lifetime. There is no God; there is no salvation from God. There is no salvation; there is no spiritual life. Whether you deny God or ignore and neglect Him.
6. There is no security in that; just fear and instability. This is the bottom line.
7. That is all the humanist has to offer. No solution. They have no solution other than to trust in the goodness of the human race which has rejected God; or to trust in their own opinions and political approaches. They may solve a short term problem now and againt. The sin nature will soon corrupt.

The Constitution is one of the greatest documents ever written; they want the rule of law thrown out and change the United States into a socialist nation and manipulate law. We are a client nation going under. We know the solution.

Bobby finds it ironic that in the great elevation of humanity that they often place animal life on an even par with human life.

Bobby is against cruelty to animals; he hates to see pets mistreated. We need perspective. God designed certain animals for food and to serve mankind. The Mosaic Law makes that clear. The idea that animals are on a par with humans. That is insane. Man is made in the image of God; animals are not. We rule over all creatures on this earth. Take that, PETA. Their radical conclusions are wrong. This sets us apart from all other life on this planet. Animal cruelty is just another sign of human degeneracy. The rejecters of God have no mercy.

These fools pay a price as stated in the next verse; and they are filled with underlying anxiety and uncertainty in their lives. They are in great dread. Their corruption. They are workers of iniquity. They are power politicians. God is with the righteous generation. Fear for the fool and the relaxed mental attitude for the believer in Jesus Christ.

This is a very uplifting verse. Now we see where this corruption leads and the corruption. This will be our study on Sunday morning.

Psalm 14:4 Have they no knowledge, all the evildoers [Do the lawless not know] who eat up my people as they eat bread and do not call upon the LORD?

Lesson #0101

Psalm 14 Wisdom in the OT

6/7/2020 Sunday

The last time that Bobby will speak to an auditorium of one. The church will reopen for Bible class this Wednesday. Bobby demands that we not argue with the ushers.

Psalm 14:1 To the choirmaster. Of David. The fool says in his heart, "There is no God." They are corrupt, they do abominable deeds, there is none who does good.

Psalm 14:2 The LORD looks down from heaven on the children of man, to see if there are any who understand, who seek after God.

Psalm 14:3 They have all turned aside; together they have become corrupt; there is none who does good, not even one.

Psalm 14:4 Have they no knowledge, all the evildoers [Do the lawless not know] who devour my people as they eat bread and do not call upon the LORD?

The people are in great dread because God is with the generation of the righteous. Humanists believe that men are the highest form of life on the planet. Yet they live in fear. They deny God and they are on edge, uncertain and they are never satisfied.

Psalm 14:5 There they are in great terror, for God is with the generation of the righteous.

They Are in Great Dread

1. We are all born with an innate sense of God's existence.

2. We must suppress this. This is the basis for the doubt, confusion and dread and relativity and uncertainty in the life of the humanism.
3. They have no absolute principles to stand on. There is nothing absolute in the life of the humanist. Their lives demand relativism. Those standards change constantly. The humanist is unstable; he drifts with the times. They can only use pressure and force to get their way.
4. The suppression of all things of God ultimately is the humanist's undoing. This produces dread of the future. There are frantic ways tried to change the direction of the future; and they can only change it on the outside. The humanist cannot change man on the inside. They also want to mold our thinking as believers in Jesus Christ.
5. They reject God in mind and spirit, there exist logical ideas of God which speak to His existence and workings in this world, and those things are very hard to ignore. The more unyielding the humanist, the more fear in their souls. They must suppress everything else, and they cannot.

To suppress these logical ideas, the fool can only say, "There is no God."

What are the logical arguments for the existence of God?

What caused us; what caused everything around us? What caused this world to come into being. What caused this seemingly infinite universe to come into being? How did it all begin? Is this a world produced by happenstance? How did it all begin?

Is matter eternal? Did it create itself? Random selection is the explanation of choice for many atheistic evolutionists. They start with a big bang, which they cannot explain, and somehow, it caused it all; but they cannot explain that.

The beginnings of this universe is all very speculative.

An attempt is made to force random selection on all of us. It takes blind faith to believe in this theory; but they need something to exclude God.

Everything that changes requires a cause. The complexity of human life. Is the first cause just from matter: How could it be? There is nothing there to cause it. Excluding God is the fool's only solution. They will not deal honestly with the question. What they do not want to deal with, and often don't, is the earth and the universe. These things are too orderly and too intricate to not have a designer. The beginnings scream for a creator.

There is a moral conscience of humanity; where do these laws come from? Why is theft and murder wrong? Where do these moral standards come from? Where do these standards originate? How can a depraved, relative being like man have some idea of right and wrong without a cause?

They will justify violence, theft and murder in order to get their better ideas across. There have been too many wrongs and injustices perpetrated. These are the works of the fools who say there is no God.

The religious history. Every religion, all of them, man's religious desires suggest an existence of a higher Being to worship. Mankind has done that since the beginning worship. This has always been true.

Where does this innate desire come from? We are born with it.

The final example. Mankind has the idea of a perfectly infinite Higher Being. There must be something higher than the corrupt mankind that we see all around us. The deniers themselves must deny something which they have considered. Such a perfect and higher being exists. God has made the knowledge of His existence.

The best evidence is the advent of the Lord Jesus Christ. These are all set aside and rejected for the idea of humanism. What an uncertainty.

There is the inability of mankind of fix social problems and to force change in society; but this does not change anything. What happens to the believer in Jehovah is...

God has made the knowledge of His existence inherent in us.

An intentional vagueness in v. 5.

Psalm 14:5 There they are in great terror, for God is with the generation of the righteous.

Time has passed since v. 4. This is a period of time during which evil has settled in. As time passes, there is a nagging felling,,,,,this is where that terror takes a hold. Many great unintended results. What the humanist pushes by way of anti-God approach, Christianity flourishes. That is a grim picture for the humanist.

The humanist has had great programs. The Great Society; yet we still have the poor. They cover up their failures with more of the same. It is not changing; it will never change.

The cosmic system has got the church by the throat. What you see is fear of the unknown.

The Rejecters of God

1. During the period of time before v. 5, those who seemed incapable of fearing God are considering Him; those who have seemed incapable of seeing Him in the past. They have now begun to be afraid from that irritating unsureness. Many failures of humanism which they have experienced. They recognize that nothing has changed. They have made no difference in this world; none. They made sure that people understood that smoking was a bad thing. That changed the habits of a few people.
2. What they fear most, as then end. They fear most judgment by God. The reasons for the causes and the evil that they have done to get their cause. Most of them know that destroying property is wrong. The justice of God begins to impress itself on them. They suppressed. What if there is a God? What if He does exist? Where does that leave me after all of this time? After all of the principles and laws which I have violated?

3. Whatever the human power and accomplishments of the rejecters of God, whatever power they have garnered, which they think is helping the human race, or their seemingly reasonable reasons to reject God, they find it all unsound.
4. In the end, there is an emptiness which gnaws at their souls. In the end, they have dread. What does it all mean? They see no change in all that they have done?
5. Is oblivion to be their end? Is leaving progeny in this world the closest I can get to eternal? All of these are unanswerable questions for those who reject God. They can give no solution for any of these questions.
6. A terrible dread of uncertainty and loss; loss of life and anything that they hold dear. It is gone.
7. Their fears may take on a vague form in their thinking; but the idea of a universal judgment is preferable. I am the one they depended upon for solutions. They have a sudden horror when they realize that they must have been very foolish. What an awakening that is when it comes. That is the basis for deathbed conversions. When you have relatives who are passing, it is important to give them the gospel. There is a deep down terror of what is to come.

Bobby for a practical visited older people and speak to them in their last moments before death. There were those who believed in Jesus Christ and they had a relaxed mental attitude. A woman who was bent over with arthritis; and was happy. There are those who were uncertain, but they wanted to listen. That is who Bobby targeted. The ones who refused to talk about it. "I don't want to hear it." It causes them to stress.

Grace makes sense to some at the end of their lives. This terror has been manifested by many atheists at the end of their lives. Bobby will give some examples of those well-known in history. To show you the terror, the abject horror that is revealed in v. 5.

1507 C. Borgia had a fight for power; world-famous "The Prince" by Machiaveli. While I live, and I provided for everthing but death; and I am unprepared for death.

Thomas Hobbs founder of modern political philosophy died in 1679. If I had the whole world at my disposal, I would give it for one more day. I am about to take a leap into the dark."

Thomas Paine died in 1809, wrote Common Sense. He said his own mind was his own religion. In the end, "Stay with me, for God's sake; I cannot bear to be left alone. I would give world's if the Age of Reason had never bene published. Oh Lord, help me. Send even a child to stay with me. If even Satan had an agent."

Sir Thomas Scott. "All my life, I denied God and hell. Now I know that there are both and I am doomed to perdition to suffer."

Voltaire, a famous French deist who died in 1778. He came to prominence during the French revolution. He viewed the Bible with great skepticism. The Bible is filled with murder, theft and lies. Christianity is absurd; Christ was a degenerate. Those who can make you believe absurdities can make you commit atrocities.

His death quote: I am abandoned by God and man. I will give you half of what I am worth if you just give me 6 more months. I shall die and go to hell.

His nurse watches him and tells us, For all the money in Europe I would never want to see another unbeliever die. She listened to him cry all night long.

Robt Ingersoll died in 1899 nicknamed the great agnostic. This may be a God, but we don't know. God is the great unknown. "O God, if there be a God, save my soul from hell, if there be a soul or a hell."

David Hume died 1776 philosophy of empiricism and skepticism of religion. "I am in flames." Those with him said his death was a horrible scene.

Napoleon Bonaparte. He was brilliant; great power. Rose to power in the French Revolution and brought Europe to its knees. "I die before my time, and my body will be given back to the earth...what an abyss between my misery and the eternal kingdom of Christ."

Sir Francis Newport. Many gathered around his deathbed. You need not tell me there is no God, for I know there is one and I am in His presence. He was the president of the atheist club. "I know I am lost forever. Oh that fire,...O that I could lie on that fire for 1000 years to purchase my life to return to God." He understood where he would spend eternity.

Charles IX he was a monster, urged by his mother, who gave the order for the massacre of the Huguenots, an influence who were a blessing to France. These were protestant. 15,000 killed in Paris and 100,000 killed in France. He died horrible of tuberculosis. He said, "Asleep or awake, I see the mangled forms of the Huguenots; what blood, I know not where I am. I am lost forever."

Joseph Stalin, one of the monsters of the 20th century. In a Newsweek interview, his daughter tells of her father's death. 'My father died a difficult and terrible death. God grants only an easy death to the righteous. It was a terrible glance or angry, a gesture filled with menace. Then he died.'

the last one is Antone Leve; 1997 the cosmic system provocateur, the author of the Satanic Bible. One of the original satanists. "Oh my, oh my, what have I done?"

This is their dread. Many atheists have never given such statements or we don't know. Even the most staunch deniers filled with dread in the end.

v. 5 describes their end.

Psalm 14:5 There they are in great terror, for God is with the generation of the righteous.

Denying God is fraught with doubt.

Lesson #0102                      Psalm 14 Wisdom in the OT                      6/10/2020 Wednesday

Bobby is glad they are back. Death notices.

Very difficult last few weeks; and the months as well. Some of you have lost jobs and have been in some kind of financial difficulty. We have that which is necessary to withstand such difficulty. Bobby looks at our client nation and it is showing signs of cracking, corruption, degeneration and deterioration. The rule of law is not being followed and enforced. To say that there is systematic problems in our police forces is just wrong.

A letter about a son in homicide. The police were told to allow the loudest to scream as long as they wanted; then to load them up into paddy wagons. A few hundred the first night and 300 the next, then the same thing was repeated.

A few months ago, the Houston police broke up a mob in the Galleria. The police on feet then gathered up the more stubborn and took them in.

Letter to Bobby: Their son, a cop, has been spit upon, thrown rocks at, he is expected to take the vicious crap that the thugs dish out. Over 7000 gathered at City Hall. The city was generally peaceful until later that night. The thugs and lowlife do not crawl out of their holes until late at night. Our law enforcement are quite remarkable. Fewer and fewer want to sign up in law enforcement positions. Anarchy may be knocking on our very door.

We are in Psalm 14. As grim as it is out there, we as believers in Jesus Christ have an advantage. We always do. God asks a question in v. 4 which is answered in v. 5. It does not bode well for the deniers of the Lord. Much of what we are seeing are deniers of the Lord in anti-divine establishment and anti-Christianity.

Psalm 14:4 [Have they no knowledge, all the evildoers \[Do the lawless not know\] who eat up my people as they eat bread and do not call upon the LORD?](#)

Psalm 14:5 [There they are in great terror \[or, *dread*\], for God is with the generation of the righteous.](#)

The wicked see themselves as righteous; but the very ones they devour are the righteous ones that God protects. There are many of those in the streets today in Houston being described in the first 3 verses. They pay a dear price for their wickedness, lack of knowledge or lack of interest in God. Yet, they live in dread. They live in dread of what they do not know; but they begin to understand that maybe it is true. We are actually born with that. We are born in the image of God. There is something higher and they may now question as they look around them, as they are educated and begin to move into the world as adults. As children, they may ask themselves, how did this all come about. As they learn more and more, their negative volition causes them to say, "It just happened."

Understanding that there is a Higher Being, how did this all happen? Most understand that this is seeking God. They know it is there; it is all around them. They pass churches every day. They suppress these thoughts of God; they live in a relative world, without a set of moveable standards. We understand the rule of law and we adhere to it; but they do not have these standards; they do not have these immovable standards in their souls. Thus they justify burning down buildings and killing innocent people. They are full of irresolution and full of doubt and full of confusion. They are a mob.

Psalm 14:5a There they are in great dead...

Now they have begun to feel nagging and they live in complete uncertainty. It suppresses those things which are innate in humanity; and suppression of everything related to Jesus Christ. This is such a strong force in them, that they want to suppress us. They will go all the way to murder. There is an emptiness which gnaws at their souls.

Is darkness going to be my end? Is there nothing more? A sudden horror comes upon them when they must face this reality. They may be wrong and foolish as this comes upon them. What an awakening when it comes.

The great reason for all of this fear is in the next phrase:

Psalm 14:5b ...for God is with the generation of the righteous.

The righteous will never be forsaken. Paul had a rough time but he was never forsaken; he was never forgotten. God is with the righteous generation. We are the righteous generation; the believer in Jesus Christ growing to spiritual maturity. The Lord is with us.

The wicked deny God in their thinking and their activities. The one thing which is inescapable even to them, and even hatred of anything from God. The one thing that they cannot get around is, God does exist. No matter how much they don't want it to be true, it is true. Imagine a lifetime of spending a lifetime fighting against the truth. We spend our entire life rejecting and fighting and devouring the people of God. That is their objective. Is it any wonder that they will be in dread?

God is a perfectly righteous judge; all of it; what goes around comes around for them. There is an innate sense. The older they get, the worse that it gets. Many of those rioting in the streets are very young; but as they get older, and they look at their ideologies, and then the dread, God's justice will come upon them. Some will fear this in the end. The ones who doubt the most are the ones who are the most vociferous. The loudest voices are the ones who have the most doubts and the most dread.

Remember that God is with the righteous generation; this is a promise to us. If we think that this generation is getting away with anything, this dread is there and it follows them everywhere that they go.

This is why Bobby read the statements of famous atheists and what they had to say. At the very end of their lives, they had no answers; their ends were horrible. The righteous are unmoved by the power politics.

To paint a broad brush of everyone is utterly ridiculous. There is something behind that; it is a grab for power. Socialists, anarchists. The irony of antifa. If you know anything about the rise of Adolf Hitler, beginning in 1921; to 1933 when he was elected; he did exactly what antifa is doing. They have the mode, they have the methods; the fascism that they oppose is exactly what they are. They are being elevated as the saviors of America. But we should be unmoved by this. We should have nothing to fear, even when we find ourselves in the middle of anger and suppression. This is a message of confidence in us. The confidence and power.

You may think, who is going to stop them? When the Lord intervenes. What they are doing is a loser all the way. There is always justice from the same God that they all reject. They will see that the God they deny and the people that they have devoured; God will defend His people. God's justice is always in operation and no one gets away with anything. It may seem at times that we are even unprotected. You may feel that you will be assaulted. Do you feel unsafe to drive around? Are you unprotected. The wicked will discover that God does not allow destruction to His people.

One of Hitler's approaches to taking power. A destruction of Jewish businesses, and many of them jailed; and the police just stood by and did nothing. That was 1935; 10 years later there was devastation all around him, and he held onto a few square blocks, but he ate cyanide and shot himself.

In the book of Esther, God's people were in great danger. The man who wanted to destroy the Jews. Haman's power in the end did him no good. He was faced with a death sentence the very night he was preparing to kill the Jews. Terror was his only companion in the end.

The Fear of the Atheist

1. They live in a state of increasing fear because of their choices for the cosmic system. We all make choices. Today, everyone wants to blame the environment for the problems; they cannot blame themselves. It is all about the choices of the sin nature.
2. In the end, there is the abject fear of God. It is fair. Think about the atheists of their final gasp before they go to hell.
3. Even if they do not recognize a final judgment as such, and the fear is not identifiable as...fear is their companion at the end. They want to hold onto their lives because they fear the end.

4. The concept of judgment is on their minds. What a way to live. Compare it to who you are. You may be watching television and thinking that all of these people are winning; anti-divine establishment anti-authority; and yet, they seem to be winning. But, the companion that they live with until the end is fear. Do you want power and fame, but with fear? Or do you want a life that you understand?
5. The believers have peace of mind.
6. The maturing believer has a relaxed mental attitude. As a consequence of the assurance of God's presence in their lives, he is with a righteous generation.

Bobby has no idea what is going to happen. There is a lot of screaming for change. Defund the police. It is ridiculous. Some, maybe not. There are the forces of the cosmic system at work. Won't it be interesting to see where we are as a client nation. Will Congress pass legislation that is insane? This should be interesting to us; this should be fascinating to us. It may be in certain ways, but we are the righteous generation. This is not a grim message; it is a message of confidence.

Compared to many other cities is, Houston was quite calm. What would be do if Berachah was destroyed? There were a lot of people who would love to burn down churches. This is one of the most exposed churches in the entire city.

If Bible doctrine is being taught at this church, everything will be just fine. This may have been a test for believers at Berachah Church. Did we make Bible doctrine our priority every day? We get an hour of doctrine everyday; and then we are bombarded with everything else for a day. Bible doctrine to learn about, believe and apply.

Heb. 10:25 being with people of like mind. What we take into our souls here, we are getting the test of a lifetime.

The Wicked and Their Future

1. The wicked come to know dread for their unknown future. The wicked are the deniers of God; the humanists. Their future is unknown. They have no idea what they are launching in this country.
2. No one gets away with anything. Criminals are well-acquainted with the justice system. They scream, "There is no real justice." Yes there is. Is the law misapplied; yes it is. All police are not discredited because of one bad cop. That is the worse profiling that Bobby has ever heard of. They are not all oppressive.
3. The deniers have ignored or denied that innate sense of justice many times. But it intrudes on their consciousness at times; and never more than at the end. When is God going to take care of this? Don't worry about this. Let God handle it.
4. So as they come to an end of their follies in life, the fool fears the unknown. He does not fear the known. The possibility presents itself; I might be wrong.
5. Ultimately the oppressors of Christians and Christ disappear in the trash heap of history. Name those who have wanted to destroy the church? Where are they and where are we?

6. Fools do get their comeuppance. After wielding their short-term legalistic, arrogant ascendancy. Next stop after 15 minutes of fame is hell.
7. But the righteous, the believers in Jesus Christ, always enjoy His protective presence. When we feel insecure, right or wrong, the Lord's presence is there. Nothing can take us from this world until God says it is time. Nothing can keep us here until God says it is over. What do we fear in death? What is there to fear? To live is Christ and to die is profit.
8. The righteous, the people of Christ, stand forever, unshaken in this world, in full confidence of God's presence with them.
9. The fullest meaning of this dread by the deniers of God will come at the end of the Church Age. God's people will be persecuted more severely than ever before.

If you are right, what does it matter what you believe or what I believe; but if I am right, it matters a lot. This is so true for those with dread in their souls.

Only the coming of the Lord in judgment will bring it all to an end. God's justice will not be hidden from anyone in the world. That is God's justice, the ultimate justice of God. In the meantime, believers will be preserved. You can only imagine at that point the abject terror of resurrected unbelievers who face the Great White Throne at the very end. They face the Lake of Fire forever. The instability is always the affliction held by the hedonist. Many vehemently deny the Lord. They will persecute or kill anyone who projects confidence of the Lord; this intrudes upon their objection to God. Your existence causes them great distress.

Psalm 14:5 There they are in great terror [or, dread], for God is with the generation of the righteous.

Lesson #0103

Psalm 14:6 Wisdom in the OT

6/11/2020 Thursday

Communion on Sunday; probably more crowded.

Almost finished with this psalm and about to move to a psalm of national deliverance.

Psalm 14:5 There they are in great terror [or, dread], for God is with the generation of the righteous.

V. 5 is the terrible result of fools, the deniers of God. Dread is a strong word for anxiety. We have been anxious about people, about our future, about tests, about many things. That is something that we will overcome. Anxiety is a part of the sin nature and of our lives. We have rebound and doctrine to apply.

When we see this word dread, this is anxiety which is off the charts. Those who have anxiety are the fools. Nothing terrifies the doubter and rejecter of God. Dread comes upon these people, the underlying uncertainty and irresolution which is in their lives. By definition, they are confused. In order to get over that, they have to suppress and they have to deny. There is a denial of themselves and of their instincts and of their own innate sense of a Higher Being. It is all done for secular humanism. There is nothing higher than man. Once you accept that, you go into a mode of uncertainty. You are living in a world where your own thoughts are constantly changing. This brings on dread. The humanist has no absolute principles upon which to stand. Just values which change constantly and which are questioned. Sometimes, this is subliminal. Nothing more powerful than the gospel of God's grace. The humanist must excel on his own. They must accomplish something in order to be accepted, in order to have human self-esteem. The gospel of grace is the gospel of Jesus Christ. The gospel of salvation by faith alone and not by words is very powerful to them.

When we recognize our own inability; and the fact that our self-esteem is linked to what we are able to do, and often, we aren't really doing anything at all. What if I am not right? What if they are correct? I tell them I am strong, rational and empirical; I believe in science. But the question remains, what if there is a God; what is there is the absolute.

Living by secular humanist standards, having no morality; there is a price of pay for this. Morality and decency is still occurring in their own thinking.

The Secular Humanist and His Dread Versus the Believer

1. The price to pay for this is an underlying dread. There is a dread in the soul of every secular humanist.
2. Even the most staunch denier has a fear of the unknown. We know everything that we need to know to live in this life with a relaxed mental attitude. We know what happens after death. The greatest fear of the human race is death; and we know what happens after death. The secular humanist knows nothing about what is coming.
3. They must convince themselves that they are right. They must overcome their dread, and vigilantly oppose any counter argument for God. This is why you see the anger and outright persecution of Christians. The circumstances are not the criteria for your happiness. Miserable one moment; happy the next.
4. Secular humanism, which is a life without God, rationalism, empiricism, refusing to believe in anything that you cannot see, hear, touch or taste. In this fallen world is a terrible and futile proposition. No one spends more time in frustration in this world than the secular humanism. Look at the streets in America. That is pure frustration. No matter how many statues they pull over, how many politically correct speeches they demand, they are not going to get what they want; they never do. And the secular humanist is never satisfied; it is never good enough. There is nothing in this world that is perfect and they have not come to terms with that.
5. The longer a person is immersed in such activity, the results become more and more obvious, if they are willing to look. What is that obvious observation? Failure to give the promised result. For 50 years, we have made every effort to aide the Black population in this country, the great society, the war on poverty, all of the civil rights' movements; and we have elected officials to carry them out. And that has take us to the riots in the city. Maybe one party in this country is doing all of this to cover up all of their failures.

6. The suppressions of fools are the basis of doubt, irresolution and confusion in their everyday life.

Psalm 14:5 There they are in great terror [or, dread], for God is with the generation of the righteous.

Then we come to v. 6:

Psalm 14:6 You would shame the plans of the poor, but the LORD is his refuge.

We are not in dread because the Lord is our refuge.

Introductory Points on V. 6

1. The reference you is to the deniers of God.
2. They are being addressed as the persecutors.
3. The rest of this line refers to the ones being persecuted. It makes sense once you sort out who is who and what is what.
4. The verb put to shame is a military term for utterly humiliating and destroying an enemy.
5. The afflicted are those upon which the fools have been afflicting humiliation, persecution, destruction for some time.
6. The meaning of this verse: the fool will attempt for a time to heap abuse and humiliation upon the people of God. That is, believers. In this particular case, this is Israel.
7. They attempt to humiliated and persecute those whose purpose is to fulfill the counsel or the plan of God.
8. At the very least, this is a distraction; but, more often, put to shame the counsel of the afflicted is a full-blown attack of the cosmic system on believers. This is a full blast from a double-ought blast in the face with a shotgun.
9. This attack attempts to destroy the trust of the believers in the Lord. This is to remove us from the ranks of those carrying out the plan of God. It is frustrating and scary for the fools.
10. Mistrust is the object of contempt for the wicked. That is the greatest weapon of the secular humanist; that is what they do every day. They ridicule you and threaten you so that they do not feel so threatened themselves.
11. They are unable to destroy the believer's trust in the Lord, because He is their refuge. That is the key.
12. Psalm 53:5 will add something to this. Those who want to shame you will themselves be shamed. That is an amazing statement. All of those Harvard and Yale grads who have so much going for them, and they call you those who cling to their Bibles...they will be shamed. That is a great promise.

13. All of this is recompense from the Lord.

The refuge in God is our advantage. They have nothing to fall back on but themselves. Our refuge is the Lord. Nothing can separate us from this.

We just watch, wait and enjoy. In the end, it is the fools who are humiliated.

How can anyone believe that stuff? How indeed? How can anyone deserve anything. In human terms, they may in some regard. You are the humble because of God's grace. You have nothing to offer, but God has given you everything.

When you put it in terms like that, you begin to understand who you are and what you have. The only fear is those who dread the unknown. We are the winners in the end; and we are protected by the Lord. But these people still attack. They have nothing else. This reflects Satan in the Angelic Conflict. He is lost. He is a loser. What else can he do? This will continue until he is thrown into the Lake of Fire. Unfortunately, those who follow him, will go there as well.

Refuge

1. Refuge speaks of shelter.
2. God gives believers shelter just as under the shadow of a tree.
3. How many times has David, as a shepherd, sought shelter from the elements? When things get bad, he looks for shelter. He looks for shelter for his sheep as well.
4. David uses this experience to illustrate how God protects from the cosmic system. This is our strength; this is our protection in a hostile world. The cosmic system is hostile to us and it always will be.
5. God gives shelter to His people amidst the storm of the persecutors. Do not worry about what is coming in this country. This seems crazy. Will the violence ever end? What about the economy? What about my house? That is the unknown. That is the problem to us. We have refuge. Otherwise, we would be in dread.
6. Psalm 9:9 puts it very succinctly for us: the Lord also will be a stronghold for the oppressed, a stronghold in times of trouble. He is a fort; he is a bunker. This is a military idea; a stronghold that cannot be penetrated.

How Can All of this Happen?

1. By the way that believers are protected in adversity. We do not always know when a miracle has happened. What happens to us in adversity that is corrected overnight, that you cannot believe was taken care of when it was so difficult. It's a miracle; and maybe it is. A source of great frustration to the plans of the persecutors who would like to step in the achieve their objectives.
2. To show the strength of the Lord by means of a relaxed mental attitude. We can only do that when we apply a relaxed mental attitude. We can apply a refuge or a stronghold.

3. By the way the plans of the wicked and corrupt are exploited in unexplained ways. Bobby wishes he could give an example of this, but that would reveal too much of the inner workings of the ministry in Berachah. To watch God thwart the fools is an amazing moment.
4. The failure of the oppressors to produce the desire effect of their humanism. They cannot seem to humiliate you; to get rid of you.
5. Unsolvable adversity, pain and judgment in the oppressors' lives. God turns the tables on the oppressors.
6. By the futility of the oppressors lives in comparison to what they do to those that they persecute.
7. If continuously suppressing the foolishness of humanism; they continue to cling to humanism; they suppress Christianity; but they cling to their own foolishness, their humanism awaits the last judgment. What an end that is.

If they never renounce and they go to their end in that same denial, if they are fools to the end, then what do they have to look forward to? What an awakening they will have when they are resurrected before God. Terror; dread. They suddenly realize that there is a God and there is a hell and they are right in front of it.

The judgment of God will come upon the wicked persecutors as surely as God gives refuge to us. Perseverance is something that we have, even under the oppression of the cosmic system.

They will find that the righteous were benefitted by the Presence of the Lord; and they were not afraid, even of death. This is one of the greatest testimonies the world the lack of fear regarding death. All they have is, at most, success in this life; and when it is over, it's over. The persecuted are strengthened, not humiliated. That is the power of the spiritual life withstanding the cosmic system. That is what we have.

And so these stalwarts of doctrine and their perseverance of the client nation and our stalwart attitude towards Bible doctrine; by resisting the fools, Bobby is looking at an auditorium which has that ability.

Final Judgment for the Secular Humanist

1. When faced with warning judgment, including the dread in their souls, they will not see the truth. How can they be so hardened; how can they do the things that they do? There is the reason.
2. What they do instead, when they won't see the truth, is turn in great rage and anger to humiliate to the believers instead. They want to persecute those who have a different attitude instead.
3. Yet the tables are always turned by the Lord. Who gets it in the end?
4. Those who continue to shame and to destroy believers will themselves be shamed and judged. After that judgment comes the end, which is the Lake of Fire for those.

5. The justice of God is never cheated. Some people may escape justice in this life; they may be acquitted when they are guilty, but God's justice is never wrong and it is never cheated. No one gets away with anything.

Psalm 14:6 You would shame the plans of the poor, but the LORD is his refuge.

Lesson #0104

Psalm 14 Wisdom in the OT

6/14/2020 Sunday

communion service 6/14/2020

Reconciliation between man and God. Peace between two parties. This explains the removal of the impossible barrier between you and God. 6 objects removed.

We were alienated from God the moment that we are born. Adam was the representative head of the human race. We stand or fall by the decision of Adam. In Adam all die. We have become alienated from the life of God. There is nothing that you can do about it.

That sin of Adam was imputed to the entire human race. The many were made sinners. There were longlasting repercussions to Adam's original sin. He acquired a sin nature. He became a sinner in every sense of the word. Nothing good or acceptable about him to God. Adam now has a propensity to sin.

In Adam, we inherit his sin nature. We are all Adam's descendants, no matter what race we are. We were seminally present in Adam. The sin nature is genetically transmitted to us like so many other traits that we receive. There is nothing that we can do about it.

Residence in the garden. Only one tree was forbidden to Adam and the woman. The penalty was death. In that day that you eat from the tree, you will surely die. Adam died that day spiritually. He used his volition to disobey God. God's righteousness cannot have fellowship with sin, not even one. The wages of sin is death. The penalty of spiritual death is passed to all of us

Our human birth carries restrictions. Adam was created trichotomus. The result was Adam and the woman became dichotomus. Use to be trichotomus. Destruction or loss of the human spirit. As a result, every person born in Adam had no human spirit. Nothing that we can do about that.

When we are born, we are completely unacceptable to God. We have a relative righteousness only at birth. Some are relatively good and some are relatively bad. Good and evil in every person. Compare our moral rating system with God's. The moral person still commits personal sins.

Man can never measure up to God's perfect character. "There is none who does good; not even one." All of our righteousnesses are as filthy rags. We are depraved and there is nothing that we can do about it.

Our relative righteousness and position in Adam are both problems. Nothing that we can do about any of this.

Still an opportunity to have a relationship with God. Only through Jesus Christ. The advent of Jesus Christ did something about this barrier. On the cross Jesus Christ made expiation for our sins. He took upon Himself the punishment which was rightfully ours.

1Peter 2:24 and He Himself bore our sins on His body on the cross.

Jesus removed the problem of our physical birth. He provided an opportunity for a rebirth or a second birth. Jesus tells Nicodemus that he must be reborn.

We must change from dichotomous to trichotomous. That third part is generated by faith alone in Christ alone. For the believer, this is the only means to lean and grow in the spiritual truth of Bible doctrine. The only means of fellowship.

As Jesus hung on the cross, He was judged for our sins. Our sins, not His. Our debt is paid for. God's righteousness was satisfied by Jesus Christ. The judgment of sin in Christ by the justice of God. He did something about our unrighteousness and our inability to meet His standards.

With this imputation, we are made righteous. If Abraham was justified by works; but it cannot be done by good works.

What does the Scripture say? Abraham has righteousness credited to him.

This crediting of righteousness is known as justification. This is the perfect righteousness of God, even though. We are presented as meeting God's standards through Jesus Christ.

Reconciliation through Jesus Christ. Because of Adam's original sin, God's way. God in grace contemplated man in his misery and lostness. God acted to meet the demands of His Own justice. Jesus secured our forgiveness of it.

Our position in Adam is replaced with a position in Jesus Christ. The believer is identified with Christ and resurrection to a new life. What is true of Jesus. Our position in Christ means that we without a barrier. God accepted Christ.

This reconciliation must be ratified in every single case. We must believe in Jesus Christ. We appropriate the Lord's work at the moment of faith in Christ.

Firmly implanted in our soul makes the ritual meaningful. The only reason that we can commune with God at all is through doctrine in our soul.

Heb. 10:25 about assembling yourselves together. Those 2 lessons were given for a purpose. One of the results of this quarantine that you miss the church. It is also the assembly is a great encouragement to be among believers of like mind. We become insecure by seeing what is happening on television. We see injustice all around us. We see no justice but God's. Justice belongs to God. We have the solution which begins in our own soul.

The problems of life are unsolvable by humanistic means, like racism. All man's problems is found in the Lord Jesus Christ. There is neither slave, nor free, male or female. We are one in Christ. You can see what is going on all around you. Relax. Depend upon the justice of God. Watch what is happening in this world. This may be discipline; this may be a cleansing; and this may bring us closer. Wait, watch and listen and have a relaxed mental attitude.

Psalm 14 up to v. 6. This is a very grim picture of the human race. We are corrupt, wicked, denying God, rejecting God; no one does any good as the...

Only God can defeat the cosmic system. And God can restore us. The promise of a great people and a King forever.

A prayer in v. 7.

Psalm 14:7 Oh, that salvation for Israel would come out of Zion! When the LORD restores the fortunes of his people, let Jacob rejoice, let Israel be glad.

After such a grim acknowledgment; David writes this prayer longing for deliverance and restoration by the Lord. Don't we all look to this? This should be our desire as well. The source of this deliverance is the Lord, Who comes out of Zion. What is Zion. Where is God coming from?

Zion

1. Zion is a figure of speech here indicating a place, a locale where the Lord lives among His people. Sometimes called Mount Zion.
2. It would be the place from where deliverance would come. That is what David longs for. ...regardless of when it is.
3. In ancient history, Zion was the name for various aspects of the city of Jerusalem; and Judah, the southern kingdom; and even sometimes representative of the entire nation of Israel. Sometimes for the people of God, which is Israel. They are the chosen people
4. Zion comes to mean the client nation in general and the Jews in particular; Israel in particular; and it identifies them with the place where the Lord dwells with them. We know that God dwells in a client nation. In this dispensation, the United States is a client nation. God's Presence is in us. We are Zion. That is the application here. 1Kings8 The Ark of God was transferred from Jerusalem to the Temple. God lived with Israel in the Holy of Holies in the Temple.

5. From that time on, the Temple Mount was called Mount Zion, because that is where God resided with Israel in a localized place. Today, this place has shifted to Jerusalem's western hill... I think.
6. In general, Zion is that place of refuge and salvation for Israel secured by the Presence of the Lord. Israel worshiped at the place where God dwelt. This was the center of the client nation. Zion is sometimes used as a symbol of the Jewish people.
7. The concept of the Shekinah Glory. A place where God dwells with His people. The place of His dwelling with Israel. These are closely connected.

It is the concept of doctrine in the soul. Zion in us; that is for today. For them, Zion on the Temple mount. It must be a confidence residence in their thinking. When deliverance comes, the people will see the Presence of the Lord. Christ does not dwell in a Temple; He lives in a Temple not made by hands, within us. He lives and protects His people.

This is deliverance from corruption on the inside. Israel has become corrupt; and David prays for their deliverance. They need to recognize that they have a mission in this world; and if they don't, disciplines is on its way.

Dwelling in the Lord

1. The Shekinah Glory dwells in Zion.
2. This dwelling Presence is the refuge for His people. Jesus is their refuge. The Presence is not in us apart from faith alone in Christ alone.
3. When Israel as a fledgling nation when they left Egypt. They became a client nation of people; a people to God. They had been a captured people. They were slaves to the Egyptians, delivered in the Exodus. It is God's visible presence which protects them. God revealed His Presence in many places. He was with them. Those things that would destroy this people, God protected. That first generation failed and the second took the land under Joshua. Still a client nation. The Shekinah Glory also dwelt in Solomon's Temple in Jerusalem. Wherever the Shekinah Glory dwells, that is the place of protection and deliverance in Zion. Throughout Israel's Old Testament history. The people had the presence and connection to the Lord. God's Presence was the sign and protection. There was a stipulation. The people had to look to Zion. They had to follow the laws of Zion; to live the spiritual life in Israel.

This same terminology is found in Rev. 14:1 where it is used to describe God's protection of the 144,000 witnesses. They are Jews, Israelites; they are not JW's. That is a very evil cult. God sealed in Zion the 144,000. God promised that they would be delivered in a time during a very horrible time in Israel's history. That promise was guaranteed. They are witnesses to the entire world. All believers will be removed at the rapture. We will all go at the rapture. No believers left. Where do the believers come from? Israel, as a nation, will be reconstituted in Zion, the place of God's deliverance. Not the nation today; and 2 other witnesses, Moses and Elijah. The second half of the Tribulation is the second half. God promised this nation of Israel deliverance in perpetuity. There were rough spots along the way. Many times of discipline for the Jews. They failed to look to Zion; they failed to look to the Presence of God. They removed themselves from client nation status.

Now, in the Church Age, Israel is set aside as a client nation to God. The promise to be restored is still in effect. David is praying for that restoration in v. 7. He is praying for the restoration of a nation that is corrupt and wicked. 3.5 years into the Tribulation; when it is the Great Tribulation. In risk of total destruction and they will be delivered at the 2nd advent of Jesus Christ.

Then Jesus will sit on the throne. David looks to Zion and he is praying for deliverance and he sees all are corrupt. There are horrid deeds. There must be a remnant of believers and there always is in a client nation.

Our client nation is in desperate need of Zion. Not a pretend change; not destruction in the streets. We need rescue from Zion, His Presence in us. The pivot of mature believers maintain the client nation status. Psalm 14, as grim as it is at the beginning, God never fails. The justice of God never sleeps; and is never cheated. There is injustice on all sides. Is there racism? Of course there is. The solution is always in your soul. Mankind from humanism has tried to fix problems on his own for no avail. We have legislated against racism and poverty for 50 years and nothing is different.

Psalm 14:7 Oh, that salvation for Israel would come out of Zion! When the LORD restores the fortunes of his people, let Jacob rejoice, let Israel be glad.

Lesson #0105                      Psalm 14 Wisdom in the OT                      6/17/2020 Wednesday

The change of humanism is more evil or just as evil. Change for the believer in Jesus Christ is always good; that is advancement in the spiritual life. The change should begin in the soul of the individual. It does not matter your race, where you come from, or if you are male or female, we are all one. All of those in Berachah are brothers and sisters and we all have a place in the plan of God. That is why we are here.

Berachah announcements. Why don't we get the messages immediately. Bobby directs it to be the next morning.

Psalm 14:7 Oh, that salvation for Israel would come out of Zion! When the LORD restores the fortunes of his people, let Jacob rejoice, let Israel be glad.

David closes this chapter about the fool with a prayer for deliverance. This is a prayer for the nation. He is speaking of Israel and of the individuals. God was in the midst of Israel. David says that this salvation will come out from Zion, a very critical term. It is a place of deliverance. It is a real place and a representative analogy. It indicated Jerusalem, Judah, the entire country, and the people. This also represents where Jesus lives among His people. It was called Mount Zion. It represents the client nation Israel. This is a nation where God's Presence is one of the more important aspects of that nation. A nation that depends upon Bible doctrine; or, at the very least, divine establishment.

This is related to the doctrine of the Shekinah Glory, which is the manifested presence of God. This doctrine carries over, from Israel at the beginning, in the desert, in the Tabernacle and in the Temple. All the presence of God with Israel. This carried over.

Who was the Shekinah Glory when Israel was no longer a client nation. Jesus Christ is the Shekinah Glory, demonstrated at the transfiguration. The same God; this carries over into our age as well. We have the Shekinah Glory in us. This is not only involved with the presence of God. That same presence continues throughout history. It will appear in the 2nd advent. Always connected to Israel. Zion also is connected to deliverance. This is what David is calling for. That is what David wants; deliverance from the fools who say that there is no God.

David longed for the Presence of God to manifest itself from Zion; to deliver Israel from the ungodly and the wicked. What a window this is to our own prayers today to our own client nation. We could pray this psalm every day for our own nation. We have Zion in us. So we have a part in the deliverance of the client nation. This is no different than the position that we are in today.

David could see this and he prayed for deliverance. It is the Davidic covenant, the promise of the nation. David wanted Israel restored; he wanted God to deliver the client nation.

This prayer can look forward to the Tribulation. This prayer fits at the center of those 7 years. The latter half will be known as the Great Tribulation. The 4 kings will converge over that one small client nation to God. All world powers bent on the destruction of Israel. God's people; to annihilate them. Promises made centuries ago.

But deliverance comes from Zion. We can be delivered as well, our own client nation, just as David prayed. Those Jews who live in the independent nation of Israel are called Zionists today. This is no accident that they are called Zion. Many Jews have set aside this promise; but their desire to be in the land is still there. Whether they reject that concept or not, it is still there. The nation Israel in the land is not currently a client nation. The God of Israel is Jesus Christ. In the future, Israel will be that client nation.

David's prayer will take place at the future time.

Modern thought on the term Zion/Zionism: Jews in Jerusalem was destroyed by the roman empire. A.D. 135 all Jews expelled by the Romans. This diaspora continues to this very day. The scattering of the Jews all over the earth. Zionism is their desire to return to their homeland, despite the resistance to Israel today. This is an idea never discarded by Jews. But there are those who have lost all contact with the Davidic Covenant. The Jews are still God's people, the people of God's promise, even as deniers. Anti-semitism is always wrong, even if they reject their true God.

Jews will cling to life; the God they know; but the God that they deny. They reject their heritage. They have the same dread at death.

This history of the diaspora is fascinating especially regarding this psalm. Let's skip ahead.

The 19th century is the rise of modern Jewish nationalism; all the rise of vigilant antisemitism. A group formed called the lovers of Zion, with Zion as a place of deliverance. They raised money to send settlers back to the land. The process back then was very slow; many Jews, as they did during the Babylonian captivity just settled into the lands where they found themselves. They considered themselves Germans, very much so; and they added much to the German culture; and they would not imagine leaving Germany. There were some who began to think in that day.

The pogroms in the 19th century. There was great persecution and killing of Jews. They were flat uprooted. There was a lure of agriculture. Rothschild was a wealthy Jewish man who sponsored agricultural settlements in the land.

The Jews has religious motives to escape the antisemitism that was on the rise. This is the greatest impetus for Israel to return to the land. Antisemitism is the very thing which drives them back to Israel.

During WWI, Zionism took off and morphed into a mass movement with great political power. In 1917, the Balfour declaration in England, which promoted a favorable position of establishing a Jewish national home in Zion. The British empire which is hated in our modern history today. It was in a position of power to secure this. This declaration might have been the last great gasp of a great nation, England. Especially during a time when antisemitism was on the rise.

Russia killed 100,000 Jews after WWI and millions ended up in the gas chambers later not expecting that Germany could do this.

The surrounding Arab nations have hated the Jews. The only nation which has not attacked Israel is Jordan. As soon as the state of Israel was established, immediately there was a war for the survival of the nation. They were able to defeat their Arab opponents with the help of many other nations.

Even though Israel is not a client nation; the Abrahamic covenant has been, I will hate those who hate you. Satan would love to destroy that race and that people, so that the covenants by God could not be fulfilled. They are fighting for their survival even up to today.

They were truly brilliant in their tactics. Attacked from all sides. Bobby can only see the hand of God in preserving the Jews. Many people think that this is a nation in the land and that it will be the Tribulation. It could be; and we see what is happening in the world today; and we think that things are lining up. Do we hope for the rapture? That could be true and it is encouraging to know that one generation will be raptured. These psalms are our hope. Our spiritual growth is our confidence, no matter what happens. We do not have to speculation about where we are going, even in this country? What does it matter, truly?

Things do not improve under anarchy; things improve under the rule of law. True justice occurs under the rule of law. This is what we must have in a client nation. Bobby's point is, our confidence should not be in a movement, a government, in a political group. Our confidence is in Jesus Christ; it is in spiritual growth as members of the body of Christ.

God ultimately delivers His people. This is the prayer of a man in a client nation; and this is a prayer that God honors.

This was a brief history. Even this terminology is from the covenants to Israel.

Israel will never be a client nation today; in the future, Israel will resume that status. Christian evangelicals, Bible believing. Many believers are related to the preservation of Israel. All of these reveal the hand of God, just as we have the hand of God today.

Today, Zionism is a derogatory term; and it is a very antisemitic term. Many confrontations and all-out wars about Zionism. Palestine is the Land of Promise. One day, at the end of the Tribulation, this will be the place where the Lord will bring salvation from the enemies of Israel. After that battle, Israel being surrounded by all of those enemies, cannot survive unless God intervenes.

The promise to Israel. Israel will then experience a greater peace. When David prays for deliverance that comes out of Zion. David did not really understand the distant future; but he knew that God promised something; and he knew that God would deliver. The prayer still stands.

This represents God's blessing on Israel. This is all about national disaster. This extends to the believer and to client nations in the Church Age in times of trials and disaster...if they are fulfilling their charge as a client nation. This is why Psalm 14 is such a promise. Client nation do not succeed under humanism. All of these groups are humanism. This is the deification of man and the rejection of God.

The next psalm will be all about national deliverance.

Captive people is as important as the term Zion; but we will study that. David's prayer is universal; and this term has great relevance to us. A captive people are enslaved by the cosmic system. We are not to be enslaved by the cosmic system. Unless we do not resist the humanism which is all around us.

Psalm 14:7 Oh, that salvation for Israel would come out of Zion! When the LORD restores the fortunes of his people, let Jacob rejoice, let Israel be glad.

Church at mom's home this week. Nearly at the end of Psalm 14. David is facing many things that we are facing; Israel is facing similar things that we are facing.

Slavery is a major issue in today's climate of renaming and removing statues, changing the names of schools, military bases. The logic is, if we could be rid of all connections to slavery, it would heal this nation; it would salve the wounds and bring peace to this time. It would somehow appease those who were slaves. And Jim Crow laws, which enforced segregation, passed by Democrats. It seems as though that issue has died. Even though we fought a bloody civil war; and that period of slavery is being blamed for all racial problems today. The solution is purge from memory everything related to that era. If we hide ourselves and our children from that shame, we will change things forever and people will no longer be traumatized.

Are we really divided by such issues? The true adage is, if we do not learn from history, we repeat it. This is all about a huge power grab, changing our history. There is a new kind of slavery from secular humanists today. Many feel that the sting of slavery is a remarkable excuse for any failures today. That is a rejection of the opportunities offered by freedom. Slavery is being perpetuated for the power grabbers. This convinces many that they are victims of police racism, which are supported by a few true incidents. One race of people is at fault for all of the ills of another race.

This argument does not consider the depravity of man. Not one race or another; one circumstance or another. The inequality of results in freedom. That is true freedom. The responsibility for each of us, and we have our own actions and decisions.

This argument is also a ploy to keep an entire group of people dependent upon the government. You cannot help people permanently by doing for them what they could and should do for themselves. That is a new form of slavery.

This ideology has a captured people even to this day. Some have turned to violence. Many think that what is happening today will heal the wounds and bring a new day of justice. Socialism, social justice and statue removal will not bring peace and equality.

David gives us the answer in Psalm 14:7b The Lord restores His captive people. Slavery was a terrible institution; a captured people with no choice. The situation is different today. That thought is removed by faith in Christ and spiritual growth. Thus comes the result of Gal. 3:28 There can be neither Jew nor Greek, there can be neither slave nor free, there can be no male and female; for you + are all one in Christ Jesus.

Bobby urges us to do what David is talking about. Psalm 14 is all about the depravity of man. The solution is David's prayer. The Lord delivers His captive people. This comes only through salvation in Jesus Christ; not through utopian dreams.

It was a national disaster in Psalm 14:1 The fool says in his heart, "There is no God." They are corrupt, they do abominable deeds, there is none who does good.

Slavery is not brand new; it has been with us for since the dawn of time. Today, we have the same problem that we have always have. The answer is never in humanism.

Psalm 14:7b Captive People

1. The Israelites were slaves in Egypt; and God freed them. They began free, and then they were enslaved by Egypt. Israel continued to make themselves captive people, through their own corruption and corrupted thinking. This is always what is going on. This is always where slavery comes from. This can be slavery to false ideas and against divine establishment and against Bible doctrine.
2. In general, this refers to confinement and incarceration.
3. It is used metaphorically for deliverance from misery and restoration to prosperity. Job 22:10 He was a captive person. Satan went after Job and everything was gone. The Lord restores His captive people.
4. To restore the captive people is characteristic language of the OT prophets. They constantly warned Israel against abandoning Israel and what would happen when they did. If they did not follow God, it happened.
5. When Israel was restored to the land,...Nebuchadnezzar leveled Israel and made the people of Israel slaves for 70 years. But Israel will again enjoy the blessings of God. Zeph. 2:7
6. Psalm 14 belongs to David's period of time. The principle is found in Psalm 14. This applies to us as well.
7. Restoring His captive people is God revisiting His captive people and freeing them.
8. Slavery to the cosmic system is worst kind of slavery.
9. It is possible that the prophets in the post-exilic times may have taken this phraseology from this prayer. When we are enslaved to the cosmic system, the answer is for the believer, rebound and get back to movement. The prophets used this psalm to encourage their people in this time.

Concerning the restoration of Israel from Babylon. 70 years abject slaves to the Chaldean empire. We look and ask, how could the Lord deliver this nation?

Delivering a Nation

1. There was a return of Zerubbabel, a great man in Israel's history.
2. He returned with 50,000 Jews.
3. This return was decreed by Cyrus the king of Persia. God's hand was in this. Cyrus was probably a believer.
4. Zerubbabel returned to Jerusalem and he rebuilt the Temple.
5. The place of Zion, which we studied extensively. It represents God's presence with the client nation once again. The Temple represented god's presence with the people. How does the Lord deliver? Our world is spinning out of control.

6. Ezra led a second expedition around 458 B.C. He was a great priest in Israel's history.
7. Nehemiah returned in 444 B.C. He rebuilt the walls of Jerusalem, which were leveled by Nebuchadnezzar. This was for the protection of Israel. Freedom Through military victory.
8. Israel was becoming a client nation.
9. This was God keeping His promise.
10. In v. 7, David anticipates an era where God restores His people. Is this not our prayer for today?

do we not want deliverance from the horrid leftists today. Jacob will rejoice; Israel will be glad. today, the Jews are one of the most prosperous people on earth. They have a knack for prosperity. They have a destiny in God's plan. Their kingdom will be restored. They are persecuted because they can make a lot of money. Jews today have rejected their history and their God. But, one day, they will again be a client nation. We make the...we can be in slavery to the cosmic system.

Isa. 59:20 And a Redeemer will come to Zion, and to those who turn from transgression in Jacob, says Yahweh.

Paul quotes this verse in Romans. The people will appear and become humiliated. The nation will...

God does much the same thing with client nations in the Church Age. Both Jews and gentiles.

God and Client Nations Today

1. Client nations are preserved when they fulfill their client nation purposes. To be a bastion of the Word of God and a bastion of freedom. That is what we have
2. It is not about race, but slavery to the cosmic system.
3. Preservation will continue until such time as the nation itself implodes, by siding with or becoming fools. Succumbing to cosmic system thinking and actions, as we are doing today.
4. When a client nation implodes, divine discipline will come into play. Client nations fail because they do not fulfill their client nation function.
5. Even in such times of destruction and discipline, we do not fear as believers in Jesus Christ. We do not have a lifestyle of fear, no matter the circumstances.
6. We still have the great confidence of deliverance through it all. It does not matter what race or gender you are. We are all one in Christ.
7. This is the source of our relaxed mental attitude in times of crisis in our nation. In spite of socialism, racism, political turmoil, lying leadership; in spite of all that...

8. God's faithful presence is with us; and His promised deliverance is the source of our trust.
9. In that future time in the Tribulation, psalm 14:7 remains true.

Freedom and opportunity come to the client nation. Not slavery to cosmic schemes.

Paul called himself a slave of Christ. He spent a lot of time in prison. He had a difficult but wonderful life. He understood Christ's mind. Whatever our circumstances are, we often enslave ourselves. Whether we are abased or abound; when we have Bible doctrine, we are free.

O that Y<sup>e</sup>howah may grant His people deliverance, in their captive and forsaken state, that a tie of rejoicing might be restored to them. This is a prayer that we can make.

The impact of psalm 14 Paul uses this in Romans 3:10–18.

We think it is the fault of others for our lives not being good. We have seen the enemy and he is us.

We cannot afford victimization, self-righteousness, and .

Rom 3:10 as it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one;

Rom 3:11 There is none who understands, There is none who seeks after God;

Rom 3:12 They have all turned aside, they have together become unprofitable; There is none who does good, no, not so much as one:

Rom 3:13 Their throat is an open tomb; With their tongues they have used deceit: The poison of asps is under their lips:

Rom 3:14 Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:

Rom 3:15 Their feet are swift to shed blood;

Rom 3:16 Destruction and misery are in their ways;

Rom 3:17 And the way of peace they have not known:

Rom 3:18 There is no fear of God before their eyes.

Rom 3:19 Now we know that whatever things the law says, it speaks to those who are under the law; that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may be brought under the judgment of God:

Rom 3:20 because by the works of the law will no flesh be justified in his sight; for through the law [comes] the knowledge of sin.

Closing Points

1. No humanist group has a corner on virtue and integrity. If you just follow them, everything will be okay. Not true.
2. The opposite is true. They do not apply Bible doctrine; they have no divine wisdom. Divine wisdom has the corner of wisdom.
3. The exception is the unbeliever who applies wisdom from divine establishment. The unbeliever can have divine institutions. Marriage, family, work, nation, freedom.

4. The unbeliever cannot metabolize divine wisdom. The unbeliever is most susceptible to cosmic system deceit. There are unbelievers who have thought in terms of divine establishment but many are abandoning this today. We are seeing the cosmic system in full operation.
5. The works of the corrupt fool, no matter how good it is, is of the cosmic system. What is being called good today is cosmic system good. What was evil has become good; and good has been called evil. Marriage, globalism,
6. The fool has no love or righteousness to have that. He must seek the wisdom of God. There are plenty of fools rampant today. Do we see love and righteousness from them? We see hate and anger, which is never a solution.
7. To ultimate wisdom is found in scripture; the thinking of Jesus Christ.
8. From the humanist perspective, Bible doctrine is foolishness. The gospel of Jesus Christ is foolish and it is mocked and persecuted. In reality is to the power of God for salvation and deliverance.
9. That is always the solution for any client nation deliverance. The people of God who are redeemed and are advancing spiritually, and they have a remnant among society, among the corrupt, the humanists, the socialists, etc. That is our hope and confidence.

Lesson #0107

Psalm 14 Wisdom in the OT

6/21/2020 Sunday

Bobby intends to continue meeting, even if masks are required. He rebounded already. Sometimes he looks out at the congregation and must rebound from that.

With the certainty that comes from the Word of God, the wisdom which we have been studying. Today will be our final day with Psalm 14. It is clear that the human race is evil; not inherently good. We are told that people are basically good, but circumstances and systems get in our way. But that is not the way it is. We are born without hope. We are spiritually dead. We are totally depraved. Bobby knows that we do not look upon one another as depraved. We are totally depraved before God until His righteousness is imputed to us.

Many unbelievers completely deny God and divine establishment and divine institutions. They are the fools described in vv. 1–6. We choose to commit abhorrent deeds. There is a true axiom in this respect; if people ignore God; they ignore the distinctions between good and evil; or they reverse these. Nationalism versus globalism; traditional marriage v. same-sex marriage; freedom v. social tyranny, family v. it takes a village. Rule of law v. a social demonstration. They mock Bible doctrine and they become loathsome to God. We see this anti-God attitude everywhere.

All that we study in Psalm 14 will be judged. God will judge the unrighteous; we can depend upon that. And God promises our deliverance.

The insanity of Satan appears to be winning for a time. The unjust death of George has turned into anarchy; and antifa and BLM use this for their own power. Their agenda is to bring down the current government, to destroy capitalism and bring down the rule of law, through mayhem and fear. They want to remake the country in their own vision. The tyranny of mob mentality.

Believers in Jesus Christ are following blindly and they cannot distinguish between good and evil; evil objectives.

Bobby has done a lot of study of 20th century history. What we observe today is exactly what happened in the rise of fascism in Nazi Germany. Trumped up charges and intimidate and destruction of businesses by street thugs.

The night of Broken Glass, 10Nov. 1938 where businesses owned by Jews were destroyed; and the authorities just stood by and let it happen.

Seattle has a zone where police cannot enter; business owners are fearful; their businesses are being ransacked. Anarchy rules. Criminality rules. The population was intimidated.

The holocaust occurs a very short time after WWI. Political purges were nothing more than executions. The SA were thugs, called the brown shirts; and they carried out destruction of businesses; and movements of intimidation.

Ernst Rhome was a leader of the brownshirts. Hitler arrested them, the ones who put him in power. Antifa ironically stands for anti-fascism, they are fascists on the left. They use the same methods used in Germany 1933 to 1938 (or so).

Antifa has no interest in stopping racism. They are interested in power. They want to determine who does what. Self-centered ideological purposes. Their violent activity for the people would not destroy property or businesses or battle police on the street.

How many times have we been told, you cannot profile; but that is exactly what they are doing. Defund the police. Many are supporting them, even guilt-ridden Christians; Christian activism.

We realize what terrible consequences for the nation. When police are afraid or not allowed to go into certain areas. In minority communities, they suffer. These groups are protecting their rights? Baloney! unlimited tyranny if the police are defunded. Police represent authority they are a roadblock to the power grab. They need a police force on their side.

It is grim by what is happening in the United States. It is right in front of our faces. Destruction of property to destroy capitalism. We are seeing socialism in its nascent form.

They will be the victims or their own violence. Many ways that God judges these individuals. No one gets away with anything. Even those who hide behind ski masks. As

Martin Luther wrote, God's justice still abides. They will not devour His people. We may not see how or when, but this is a guarantee. This promise has always been in effect.

History is filled with nations that have defied God. What we see in the streets today is brilliant. That is our confidence, even in these terrible times.

A great factor which enables believers to endure this world, despite all that you see. There is an anticipation for the day when all of the wicked are judged. We view all of the degeneracy of the human race on display in our streets. We can do nothing about it except prayer.

Why isn't prayer one of the problem solving devices. This is a request made to God, apart from the doctrine in your soul. We must have problem solving devices in our soul. Prayers begins rebound and the filling of the Spirit.

God's Perfect Justice

1. Is there not a comfort that there will be a total deliverance in the future. God knows all about what is happening. He is still in control.
2. This is the primary purpose of knowing accurate prophecy. We understand God's righteousness by what we can observe today.
3. To know enough about the future judgment of God is to be confident in His future deliverance from evil; and even deliverance now.
4. In God's judgment, the evil that we see will never envelop the world again. All of the evil that we see around us is doomed. They will die and be judged. God will not allow His people to be devoured, not then or now. There will always be Jews and Christians in this world, and race has nothing to do with this.
5. The ultimate justice of God only happens with the return of Jesus Christ.
6. In the meantime, we are content in our circumstances. We know that God also supplies temporal deliverance in our circumstances, for believers and client nations in adversity. We should be praying for our client nation.

Bobby listened to Rev. Manning on YouTube. What a wonderful message he had. Believers in Jesus Christ understand God's message; and it is not about race. There is injustice everywhere. This does not mean that the rule of law should be thrown out. Once we lose the rule of law, we will be ruled by tyranny. Our country has stood against this for so long. This is why we have so much freedom in this country. This is why we are perplexed when people see so much evil in the United States.

God's justice still abides; and humanism does not solve any problem.

Summary Statement from Psalm 14

1. The righteous, which includes all of us, may have to live in a godless and corrupt world, to a greater and lesser extent, that seeks to humiliate and to destroy. There is coming a glorious day of reckoning. It could happen; it could happen a year from now. We may find ourselves disciplined strongly.

2. It is the fact of God's judgment in the future, when God will destroy the wicked, this is courage for us to persevere. We cannot allow all of this in the middle of everything. We should be able to apply the wisdom of divine establishment; and the wisdom of God.
3. We know about God's justice to days like today and tomorrow.
4. This gives us confidence to live the spiritual life
5. Keeping your eyes on Jesus Christ, ...Who sat down on the right hand of God. We endure because of that. One day we are assured of deliverance and protection. The plan of God marches on, whatever that is for us.

When this talks about the gentiles, this is everyone else besides the Jews. Zion is the place of our refuge and deliverance. Christ in you, the confidence of glory. We do not get caught up in the cosmic system which denies God and no one does good. We learn to trust in God's deliverance.

Human viewpoint is unstable. Don't get caught up in it.

Bobby has taught. Solution comes from God's Word and from our spiritual growth. That is where our comfort lies. We have never seen things like this before since the Civil War. Millions are out of work; businesses are at a loss; largest stimulation package and the national debt is skyrocketing. Power politicians are excessive in their demands to control the populace. Unproved solutions are continually pushed upon us. All of that is pushed away from us, except. Replaced by mass rallies where there is no social distancing. And there is a fight for the soul of America. COVID19 is making a comeback, in part by the mass rallies.

If you care about freedom and this nation and...it is not a socialism solution; it is in divine establishment and divine institutions. Most importantly, it is in the doctrine resident in our souls. Practical wisdom must be applied.

Lesson #0108

Psalm 33 Wisdom in the OT

6/24/2020 Wednesday

Bobby suggesting lessons which Bob. Deliverance in a national crisis and several volumes of this; volume 2 has 42 lessons.

Not every case of the shooting of a Black man is unjustified; but there was a killing of George Floyd, who is being raised to a cause celebrity; and he is a symbol of police suppression of Black men.

He is less than a stellar figure to be regarded as a national hero. He has been in and out of prison for drugs and burglary. There is a tragic irony. He is not a hero to be revered; but his name has been hijacked to be used by groups seeking power.

As the narrative goes, Blacks are being targeting by the police; so the charge goes. So they must be removed, defunded, or somehow changed. Black men as less likely to be killed than white men per capita. Racism by the police is a myth; racism is not the major problem in our nation. The biggest problem in our nation is not seeking God. The human race is corrupt at all levels. The great the small, black, brown, male, female. Only faith in Christ and spiritual advance is the solution.

Bobby saw this sort of thing in the 60's in college. We are going downhill when we make gay marriage the norm; and the rise of the LGBTQ movement. God cannot allow this to overrule His client nation. It is not about racism; people are not seeking God; there is not enough positive volition; there is not enough spiritual growth. Those facts are overlooked or suppressed by the very people who demand social justice.

They think that it is okay to do the things which they are doing. First amendment rights are not being respected by those who do not have the BLM view of things. To them, it is gospel that America is an oppressive nation; it needs to be remade; it needs to be turned upside down. There can be very little rational thought. Mobocracy and violence in the street go against justice. This is vengeance and anger.

Humanists who brand the Bible as hate speech. LGBTQ would love to ban Rom. 1 and Gen. 19. This is the cosmic system of Satan.

The rule of law demands that the men accused of killing George Floyd have their day in court. That has to happen. The rule of law is being supplanted by conviction in the court of public opinion, but subsequent rioting, mayhem, violence. The is being hijacked by far-left organizations, like antifa and black lives matter. The very order of our society is being challenged by what is happening in the streets.

The events which demand the dismantling of the US; what do they want? They are in favor of some idea of change and social justice; but the operative word today is change. People believe that change is progress.

Is Change Progress?

1. Change is progress is the basic tenet of power politics. We've gotta have change; change, change, change, that will solve the problem.
2. Grace glorifies God. Pivot politics glorifies God; the pivot of mature believers holds a nation together. Change glorifies man.
3. Change upends establishment. It destroys freedom in the name of some vague improvement; or the collective good.
4. Freedom is essential in the function of the client nation in the Angelic Conflict. Power politics through the false gospel of change destroys man's freedom. No greater illustration of this since 25May. Change is anti-freedom, anti-law, anti-divine establishment. Change is not progress.
5. Change surrenders freedom, surrendering the divine establishment for the good of the people.

6. We need to give power to the people. Bobby heard this so many times; power to the people. It is change. It is get rid of capitalism; let's institute Marxism and socialism. Those who heard this all of their lives now have the reigns of power. And their kids have bought into Marxism hook line and sinker. The key word is change.
7. Power politics exchanges establishment evil with freedom for non-establishment evil with tyranny. There is always evil in the nation. The power politics
8. Scientific change is not the same as political change. We have seen great changes in science and technology over the past 100 years, more than at any other time in human history. One must distinguish between change and material change.
9. There is the misunderstanding that material change is progress.
10. Material change, medical advancement, electronics, are beneficial; they have no improved man or solved the problems of the sin nature. All of this has changed nothing about the makeup of the nature of humanity.
11. Scientific change is beneficial and it improves the quality of our lives; but political change is artificial; and it is used as a disguise to seize power and to gratify inordinate ambition.

When people in the streets cry for change, they are simply after power. They present change of US history, tear down monuments, and liberal legislation. The latter guarantees that the balance of justice will never be fair, but tipped in one direction or another.

The Rule of Law

1. Even though the rule of law can be perverted in the court system and on the streets.
2. The rule of law is still necessary and it is ordained by God. It is not perfect and it never will be under human auspices.
3. The rule of law is instituted by God for the protection, good order, and justice in a nation. Anarchy is not good for the justice system. The strongest, with the most power, prevails when it is anarchy. We see the strong ones taking from the weak. It is the rule of the fittest. Survival of the fittest.
4. The rule of law protects the weak. The rule of law is a part of nationalism. Nations are ordained by God to be ruled by divine establishment. Good law are divine laws. We are not governed by the Mosaic Law; and much good law comes from the Mosaic Law.
5. The rule of law is a hallmark of a client nation to God. When you see a nation lose the rule of law, you see the downfall of a client nation. There is no rule of law right now.

There is tremendous fear; tremendous uncertainty about our nation. There may not be fear, but there is uncertainty. This is true of those who believe in the rule of law. Believers who understand personal and impersonal love; and that we are one in Christ, this is a concerning time. We see chaos, we see suppression of religion and we see persecution on the horizon. Believers in Jesus Christ who are growing spiritually, as Bobby trusts we are, must never allow fear to rule their lives.

2Tim. 1:7 we are not to have a lifestyle of fear; we are to have a sound mind and objective thinking from Bible doctrine in our souls.

That is our solution. Not worry; not hand-wringing.

The psalm we will study is critical to the time in which we live.

This psalm will put an emphasis upon Who God is. This is a psalm on national deliverance.

Psalm 33 Introduction

1. Psalm 33 is the counter to the persecution of Psalm 14 that we just studied. It is the continuation of Psalm 14:7, which is the salvation and restoration of God's people.
2. Psalm 33 is classified as a hymn of praise to the Almighty, His grace to His people.
3. This psalm was used in Israel's congregational worship. Certainly in times of great difficulty.
4. Contained in its verses are the most central themes of Israel's worship as a client nation.
5. The principle theme of Psalm 33 is to praise the Lord as creator in the world of nature and humanity; and His mastery over human history; and especially, in times of historical crisis. This may be of great interest to us.
6. Those who use Psalm 33 are urged to praise the Lord of Creation, Who controls history. This is particular important to us.

Who does control history? The anarchists, the leftists, the far right, those with the biggest guns? God controls human history; no one else.

God has us in mind in the middle of these events. He can deliver us individually and as a nation as a whole. God can do this in any number of ways. God can use chaos and crisis; and God uses the cycles of discipline. This discipline is designed to open people's eyes. Discipline from the Lord is to our benefit.

We are not to put our trust in politicians, armies, resources, national defenses or even the rule of law. The history of the Roman Empire is the history of tyranny in many ways; and the Roman Empire was against Christianity and it killed many Christians; but it was conquered by Christianity. Trusting in the omnipotent Sovereign never fails. God never fails. We will hear many solutions in the future; and there is lawlessness going on all around us; but there is only one certain solution, and that resides in our soul. We trust in the omnipotent Sovereign in our souls.

We will see something, especially if you are attuned to divine viewpoint; you may see the Lord working, but it may not be what you want Him to do. We may not see results for the next month, or the next year, or in the next decade. This does not lessen our trust or reliance on the God of the universe. God does this for His Own purposes.

We May Wonder How Will God Do It?

We might see this and understand that He is working.

1. God controls history through His divine essence. He is infinitely greater than any person or group of people.
2. God controls history as judge of the Supreme Court of Heaven. God's justice never sleeps; it is always in operation. The injustice of this world will face the justice of God. In spite of all the injustice around us. His judgments.
3. God controls history through the pivot of mature believers in the client nation. We are involved in this as well.
  - a. It happens when the pivot evangelizes its own population at home. We can throw in prayer as well. We should be daily in prayer. Every time you look at the news and wring your hands, you think, now there is a great prayer request right there.
  - b. When Bible doctrine is communicated to believers in the nation.
  - c. The client nation is responsible for the custodianship of Bible doctrine. That takes place from the pulpit and what is in our souls. As long as you have doctrine in your souls and make application, Jesus Christ controls history through us.
  - d. A client nation provides a haven for the Jews. This is very critical. God controls history by preserving the Jewish people. Hitler's final solution was to destroy the Jew.
  - e. The client nation is responsible to send out missionaries to evangelize other nations. We have an international effect.
4. God controls history through the utilization of the wrath of man to praise Him. How does He do that? Think of it this way; consider what is happening right now. The hatred, the anger, the screaming, the perpetuation of anger in the streets. What does this show us? The clear difference between the solutions of humanism and the solutions of man. That is critical for the pivot in the client nation.
5. God preserves the planet, including the use of natural events; and God uses these to control human history. God not only created the universe; but He holds the universe together by the Word of His power.
6. God controls history through the 2nd advent which terminates in the greatest final war in history. He will do this directly through His military action.
7. By control of history, Jesus Christ provides freedom through the function of human volition and the other divine institutions. We are included in God's purposes, just as the client nation is. The fulfillment of His plan for each one of us; and for the client nation to fulfill the duties of a client nation.
8. Our deliverance is on God.

Antifa and BLM cannot bring the statue of Christ down; Christ is in us. Their acts highlight God's function.

Psalms 33 will continue the psalms which we have already studied. We do not need to fear the hatred, anarchy, the persecution the intimidation.

Psalm 33:1 Shout for joy in the LORD, O you righteous! Praise befits the upright.

Lesson #0109

Psalm 33:1 Wisdom in the OT

6/25/2020 Thursday

Bobby observed last night that divine discipline is related to the COVID19 pandemic. We should understand Gen. 19. All pervasive institutionalizing of LGBTQ into society. God cannot overlook this problem in this client nation any more than He overlooked it in Sodom. Individuals involved there fall under the curse of Rom. 1. The divine institution of marriage is perverted to a man and a man, and a woman and a woman; destruction is meted out by God. This is not anger, homophobia, fear; it is simply what the Scriptures say.

We are not to harass anyone who falls under the LGBTQ; you let God handle them. They are turned over to their own perversions and they live in their own misery. These are souls for whom Christ died, and we treat them in that way.

A church is being denied the ability to continue meeting people meeting there as it does not match the buildings around. The land use ordinance caused the city to take this approach; and they wanted a pedestrian-friendly street. A court upheld this. This is in the city of Salina.

The church is appealing this decision. They are not allowed to meet. One of the must unequal treatment, according to the lead attorney. They only want tax gathering entities downtown; but there are several business and places where they do not collect taxes which are allowed. Bobby wonders what they would do with a mosque.

We are only going to study some of the verses.

Outline of the Chapter

1. Vv. 1–3 call to praise the Lord.
2. Cause in vv. 4–19
3. Conclusion in vv. 20–22

Summary statement of 4 items in v. 4; God is great and His grace. God's greatness is revealed in creation and the control of history. His grace is revealed as He makes this greatness, righteousness, justice and power available to His people.

Introduction

1. God's omnipotence over shadows anything or power on on earth which can do us harm.
2. We can call on Him because we can trust Him for deliverance.
3. The great advantage is, we know that His Word is true. God's sovereign words never fail. Whatever we read and study in the Word of God is faithful and true and it never fails.

4. God's greatness and His grace are righteous and perfectly just. Whatever is happening in our country, God's judgments and what is happening in the nation, these judgments are perfectly just. God controls history for His purposes and for our benefit.
5. We know that He loyal love to those who trust Him is eternal. God loves us as believers in Jesus Christ, and that never fails either. Everything is beneficial for us, whether it looks terrible or not.
6. Nothing can touch us that God has not accounted for; and has provided temporal solutions for. We need the wisdom to know them and to apply them. This is a test. Riots in the street is not the apocalypse; covid19 cannot phase us. The loss of our status as a client nation can be dealt with.

Clashes of Evil

1. Trouble in a client nation is a warning. Take it that way.
2. Trouble is for administering justice for those involved in the evil pursuits of humanism. The minions of the cosmic system. Do you think people are getting away with something on the streets? Great shops in NYC are boarded up from looting, but God's justice is in operation; and that we can depend upon.
3. What we see is an eye-opener for believers. This is an eye-opener as to the justice of God working against evil. There are evils conflicting with one another all over the place. They are not pulling in the same direction. Evil people who want different things and they will clash. These radical organizations will eat their young.
4. This is also an eye-opener of the capability of destruction perpetrated by the human race; we have a tremendous capability for destruction; this is what the cosmic system is really good at.
5. Trouble in a nation reveals like nothing else the preservation of believers and the importance of divine establishment in the human race. If you cannot see the anarchy in the streets and do not understand the importance of divine establishment, then you are not correctly applying the doctrine that you have.

What do you have to fear from such puny opposition. God administers justice to the corrupt and to the wicked. These people are their own worst enemy. They oppose God and no one can oppose God's will and comes out the winner. What is happening in the streets today are a bunch of losers; they are anti- divine establishment and anti-divine institution and anti-Christ.

We will begin our study with v. 8:

We first need an introduction to understand the certainty and clarity of God's Word found in vv. 4–7. There is a small movement in the state of Texas to ban the Bible; that LGBTQ caucus in the state of Texas. They do not like some of the passages in Scripture. Those things reveal their pastime to be evil. They do not like the Old Testament revelation of Gen. 19. No legislation can every remove the Bible. This is tried by religion and government; and people who try to do this are on the trash heap of history. Whenever you think the cosmic system and humanism is winning, remember, this is not new. Those who oppose the Bible, oppose Jesus and oppose the church, they are losers.

No matter what they think, God is on His throne and He will not be mocked. Their humanism will not save them. A righteous God Who will protect His people. He truth will never die.

They think they have a new advantage way to destroy the Word of God. They root out Bible believers through electronic means. No great electronic methods will root out and separate believers from the Word of God. The government has tried and they will continue to try. God always preserves His Word for man. The teaching of the Bible is fundamental to a client nation. The Bible remains, now and forever. It has existed and will continue to persevere and to rid the world of all the Scriptures and of Christianity.

Vv. 4–7.

Psalm 33:4a For the word of the LORD is upright,...

God's Word is the only absolute in this world; everything else is relative. This is why the Bible elicits such fear in relative humanists. The potent divine weapon of the Bible scares the hell out of them. Doctrine and divine establishment in the Bible is in direct opposition to their philosophy. Anger and anxiety over what they believe over against what the Scripture teaches. The Scripture have survived for centuries. Yet, that is their objective in many cases. They do not like it when the Scripture contradicts what they believe. The motive for the latest attack of the cosmic system.

Psalm 33:4b ...and all his work is done in faithfulness.

Creation is out there; also view the working of God for each one of us. The Word of God focuses on human history. All of God's work is done in faithfulness. This is for every place and time in history.

Psalm 33:4 For the word of the LORD is upright, and all his work is done in faithfulness.

Now v. 5:

Psalm 33:5a He loves righteousness and justice;...

God's righteousness and justice make up God's integrity. Most complex book in the Thieme library is the Integrity of God.

God loves righteousness and justice. Trust this principle; and you will trust this if you look at the integrity of God. Sometimes, what we see on tv gives us great anxiety. This is our test that we must pass in our spiritual maturing process. This might be our greatest test. This is the greatest test since the Civil War. Everything else has been on the outside of the borders of the United States. People are scared to death; they do not know what to make of it. We see the Mosaic Law as the law dictated by God. We are not governed by the Law, but the principles of that law do apply. It is a just and fair law. Many laws being made are not that way.

The justice of God is absolute justice.

Psalm 33:5b ...the earth is full of the steadfast love of the LORD.

The earth is filled with the loving kindness of the Lord. Does this mean that God loves everything that is going on, on this earth. This is God's unfailing love; this is His grace. This is the motive for the deliverance of His people. Do not every forget chesed. It is demonstrated to us in so many ways.

Psalm 33:5 He loves righteousness and justice; the earth is full of the steadfast love of the LORD.

A faith rest rationale follows in v. 6. The Word of God made the heavens. We have the very word which created the heavens. God created the universe and all that it contains. The fact is, all of creation comes about by the mere word of the Almighty Living God. Therefore, trust that all things are under God's control. Even the hatred in the streets. If God creation the universe, then He is certainly in control.

Psalm 33:6 By the word of the LORD the heavens were made, and by the breath of his mouth all their host.

Then we have the 3rd day of creation.

Psalm 33:7 He gathers the waters of the sea as a heap; he puts the deeps in storehouses.

The greatest power and force on this earth is water. God controls it with a word. He separated the ocean with a word. That is tremendous control. If He can do this, what can He not do?

What God Controls

1. If God controls the greatest power on this earth, the power of the seas...
2. Using a fortiori logic, God can control the lesser things. If He can do the greater, then He can do the lesser.
3. God can control the history and destiny of us. Bobby knows that God has traced out his destiny. We are in the plan of God because God has put us there. We have been responsive to His guidance. The history of the United States is the history of God making us into a client nation.
4. God uses the elements of creation as weapons, as He did in the exodus; the plagues of Exodus. He used them to free His people; for their benefit. Has God used natural disasters to accomplish His will, of course. He often uses the elements of His creation for weapons, for correction, discipline, guidance. Bobby has been in an earthquake. It looks like the ocean.

5. God also allows for the free choices of the human race. They are truly free. God directs us; but He has choices. The choices we make control the life that we lead. We can reject God's control; and history will still come out exactly as He wants it to come out. Nations can defy Him, but His will still comes to pass.
6. In spite of man's volition, God's will and plan will be accomplished. Despite what is happening in our nation, God's plan will come to pass.

Lesson #0110

Psalm 33 Wisdom in the OT

6/28/2020 Sunday

God's omnipotence can overshadow anything on this earth. The Lord's Word is always true. His judgments are righteous and perfectly fair and He deals with client nations such as ours. His loyal love to us is eternal. He will never forsake His people ever. Nothing can touch us that the Lord has not accounted for. It is all here; it is all at our fingertips. Riots in the streets cannot harm us; even the pandemic and the economy are not things for us to worry about. We trust the Lord's plan, we trust His control of history. His infinite power is referenced in Psalm 33.

Psalm 33:6 By the word of the LORD the heavens were made, and by the breath of his mouth all their host.

It is by God's Word that put everything into being. One word accomplishes this.

Psalm 33:7 He gathers the waters of the sea as a heap; he puts the deeps in storehouses.

The Application of God's Omnipotence

1. The waters of the sea are an example of God's unlimited power.
2. If God controls the greatest power on earth, which is the waters of the seas. The power of the water is to be respected and feared. It is majestic and beautiful and can kill you in a heartbeat.
3. If God can control the power of the sea, God can certainly to the lesser things.
4. God can control the history and destiny of us. God controls the future of nations in the world, even when those nations make choices outside of His will. God's plan will still come to fruition. That is God's power. We cannot override His omnipotence by our own bad decisions.
5. God uses client nations like Israel (in the OT) and the United States for His purposes, by means of His power and control. We can negate our responsibility and He can still bring His plan to fruition.
6. This is why a pivot of believers is so critical. We are a client nation because we are the custodians of Bible doctrine. We sent out missionaries; we provide a haven for the Jews.

We should be in awe of God, which is found in vv. 8–9.

Psalm 33:8 Let all the earth fear the LORD; let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him!

The visible aspect of God's power.

God speaks and it is done.

Psalm 33:9 For he spoke, and it came to be; he commanded, and it stood firm.

God's creation is the best reason for us to stand in awe of the Lord. In this case, it is to see what He has done, the visible manifestation of what He has done.

What do we study all of the time in this auditorium? What does Bobby study to communicate to us? This is because the power of His Word. What it means. The same Word that God has given to us, this word created the universe. It strikes awe into our soul; fear or respect. He spoke and it was done. That is a power to fear and respect. How do you think of riots and masks? Jesus Christ controls history. His plan marches on. God created it; He controls it. Today, God is mocked and His Word is mocked as antiquated. It is called a lie, a crutch, politically incorrect and hate speech. Relative truth calls the Bible anachronistic. The Bible is our Word from God. But to them, the humanist believes that it should be censored.

There types mock God; but sooner or later, justice will be meted out to them.

Divine Truth and Relative Plans

1. For the believer in Jesus Christ or the unbeliever who believes in God and is authority oriented, they have respect for God and His awesomeness. His awesome power is much greater than anything we can see in this world.
2. The verb yare takes on a different meaning; in the context of rejection.
3. Yare make take on a fear of the unknown. If we reject God, there is a great blank spot in your thinking. People don't want the great unknown. They want answers.
4. Deep down the humanist has rejected God and he already knows that his solutions are no good. These solutions are temporary at best. Those people on the streets are going to be terribly frustrated. They may be winning in this country, but their stated objective to get power for themselves, will frustrate them. They will never be satisfied ever. Do they ever say, "Finally, we got what we want." Those in the cosmic system are never satisfied. The believer is the only one to a satisfied by
5. These people having rejected God have nothing else to give but relative solutions; solutions that do not work the way that they want them to. That is disturbing to them; very disturbing.
6. The result of their frustration is to lash out and to push the humanist agenda even harder to the point of tyranny. Frustration. Pushed to the point of tyranny. They think pulling down some monuments will change things. How frustrating and ridiculous. That changes nothing but to remove a few pieces of beautiful art. These statues represent the history of our country, whether good or bad. When we don't learn our history, we will repeat what is good or bad in the world. Hiding them, and we learn nothing. Maybe there is some good done by those people. They have no idea what integrity and honor are.

7. This is the sign of real fear and terror. Their solutions are a sign of terror; and when they do not work, they push them harder. What else do they have? What else can humanism offer?
8. What is the solution for them? To force humanism on the population; including the persecution of Bible believing Christians. We are a direct threat to their humanism. Now we get to view the deliverance which is found...when you watch television and want to pick up a brick and chunk it at the tv, realize, don't be frustrated by it, but that is a great place to pray. Act accordingly and relax. If you can't stand it, just do not watch it.
9. The proof of all this is Psalm 14:5 the proof of the terror of the humanist. Dread becomes the standard of living for the corrupt and the wicked.
10. The person who rejects the 3 categories of divine truth. Divine establishment or the rule of law; the principles that we find there; the gospel of Jesus Christ; and the doctrines of the Word of God. When those categories of truth are rejected, inevitably, the person uses their volition to become corrupt and degenerate. That is what we are observing. The client nation becomes corrupt and....the nation moves further away when it rejects these 3 categories of truth.

Bobby will define a humanist at length. We should know what they believe and how they operate. It is so far beyond what these people put their hope and confidence in. They can only hope that their schemes work, but they will not. This is an imperfect world; and it will never be perfect.

Only the Word of God is the solution. Only that brings change. Change from the humanist is not change; it is more problems; it compounds problems. Change by pulling down a few statues; that is frustration and stupidity.

There is hatred in the streets. They call us hateful. That fear which they have that breeds the hatred, it must be suppressed in the souls of the corrupt. Those must be persecuted and intimidated. They are trying to crush those things which they disagree with. They cannot respond with awe and respect for God; they reject all praise and respect for God. Sooner or later, their rejection will turn to dread.

The underlying threat is a dread of the Almighty. Even if they reject God, God is no less real; and His justice will be felt by those who reject Him. They won't even know where it is coming from. There is justice in this world; and this is a part of the anger of those who are frustrated.

Every knee will bow. Philip. 2:10; those in heaven, on earth and under the earth. All things are subject to the omnipotence of God; to the sovereignty of God. Justice will not be denied God.

The Power and Deity of the Creator

1. Concerning God's power over the heavens and the waters is discernable to everyone who is on earth. Who has not looked up into the sky at night, somewhere where you can see stars, who has not said, "How did they get there," and draw conclusions.
2. By viewing God's creation, man can recognize something of the power and deity of the Creator. This is one way where people develop a desire to know God. Their accountability kicks in. God is obligated then to present the gospel.
3. Ultimately, no one escapes the justice of God; whether they deny or reject His existence. The Supreme Court of Heaven is always in session. God is always rendering judgments. Another way that He controls history. What will happen to our client nation? Bobby does not know; and we can depend upon God's justice being at work.
4. Even when they deny God, there will be moments of pure dread because of uncertainty of the unknown future. Bobby read the abject terror and fear at their death of atheists. They were in absolute fear of the unknown. Some of the logic involved in perceiving the existence of God. A great power than mankind possesses.

People who view this universe as creating itself; lifeless matter would come together in some speculative way and create everything that we see. This lifeless matter becomes parallel to God. This is the choice of many atheistic people. How did it come to pass? That they cannot answer or explain. If you cannot be definitive about how it came about, fake it and call it scientific. That is an irony.

Faith in Evolution

1. The question of creation, that is unknown.
2. The attempt to promote random selection as the life designing of creation; it all just happened in some way, to form some kind of life from some inanimate objects. There is nothing there to cling to. Unprovable; just conjecture.
3. They have only blind faith in faulty theories. All of this is hypothetical.
4. Random selection contains no concrete proof to offer concerning the beginnings; the very moment when life began. That is where evolution really breaks down.
5. That is a house of card to build a worldview around. That is all that is left if you reject the omnipotence and sovereignty of God. Logically, every new thing or change must have a cause; something that works on it to have a result. Forcing a change...the complexity of human life can only be created by a greater intelligence. We can only relate to that which is visible in creation. That factor is what disturbs the evolutionary atheist. They cannot see it. Lifeless matter creates life through some random forces. Nothing like this has ever happened or reproduced; but excluding God, that is the fool's only solution to the beginnings of the world.

The Closing Points of this Study

1. The earth and universe are too intricate not to have a Designer. Can you imagine the tower just happened, given enough years, with no designer, no architect.
2. Scientific laws and laws of divine establishment simply reflect the orderly infinite intelligence of God. Scientific laws are God's laws.
3. So random selection is unhelpful. It leaves out God.
4. God is the only real and rational Creator to Whom fear and awe is due.
5. What fear and awe is there of in animate forces. If you consider inanimate forces as the creator, then you can elevate mankind to a status that he does not have.

God's omnipotence is the bedrock of our destiny.

Psalm 33:8 Let all the earth fear the LORD; let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of Him!

Psalm 33:9 For He spoke, and it came to be; He commanded, and it stood firm.

God merely spoke there words and all things came to pass. Men are to give respect to their Creator. The more man understands this world and God's laws should develop greater respect for God.

David gives a call for the only reasonable response to the Authority of the Universe. Jesus Christ is the agent of creation. It is fear, respect and awe of the Almighty, which leads us to humility and grace orientation.

Reverence for the Creator God

1. Man should be led to recognition and reverence of God. No one is almighty other than God
2. This is never more clearly demonstrated than in the creative acts of God's Word.
3. God spoke and the universe came into existence.
4. God breathed out and His very breath created all of it, included God's greatest creation, mankind.
5. God breathed into man the breath of life. God took dirt and made our bodies and breathed into an inanimate body our life. Everything was ready to go; and then God breathed into Adam the breath of life. Man became a living being.
6. That is the truth of this psalm concerning God's Word. God's Word that created the universe, all life and mankind.
7. The same word that God spoke is what we read in the Bible.

Today is a movement in the Texas legislature by the LGBTQ lobby to ban the Bible. That has been tried many times in history. The punishment for the institutionalizing and pervasiveness of Sodom. These proponents think that they can defeat God's Word. How powerful do they think that they are?

It is the fool who denies God. They oppose God in their humanism. God will bring punishment onto nations which reject Him. Believers need to understand God's power and authority. This is why we study God's Word today and every day, so that we can be secure in the Lord's plan.

Evil people and institutions are being used to corrupt our nation.

David is trying to bring the reader to a realization of God's power.

Now the psalmist deals with the application of God's power, and he looks at the nations. Take heart when we read v. 10. Remember this when we are watching television, always remember this verse.

Psalm 33:10 The LORD brings the counsel of the nations to nothing; he frustrates the plans of the peoples.

God's Judgment Can Be Depended upon

1. This verse does not bode well for nations and people who bow and give reverence to humanism.
2. This verse represents God's sovereign plan in history. This is God's omnipotence which can execute judgment.
3. The clear fact is, the Lord is in control as far as the nations are concerned. His plan is always dependable.
4. Because God is the Creator of the universe and because His objectives and actions in the Angelic Conflict never fail.

5. Even in the worst of times, we can have this confidence.
6. The verse tells us that personal and national plans which oppose the Lord will ultimately be nullified and frustrated.

Col. 1:17 Heb. 1: God created the world and universe and holds it all together. Does this mean that evil plans will never happen in a nation? We see this all of the time. History is filled with such things and it is happening in this nation.

God Will Deal with a Client Nation, with Blessing and Judgment

1. God frustrates and nullifies evil plans which oppose Him including all plans of humanism. Why isn't God dealing with all of the radical leftists? Have no fear; God is near; He knows what is going on. His justice will preside over evil. It may not be in the timing we want or that way that we want, or even in our lifetimes.
2. Hence God controls the final outcome of any opposition. In fact, God uses opposition to accomplish His plans and His glory. Opposition is nothing to God. He turns to His glory. He corrects the situation. Through the workings of His power. Through the great spiritual life and the only solution of eternal life.
3. It is Jesus Christ Who controls history and the destiny of mankind.
4. His justice plays a great part in that control, as does all His essence. The character of God controls one aspect.
5. We also have our part to play. Our part to play as the pivot of mature believers. We are a haven for the Jews when they are persecuted. If you think the humanist lies and their lawlessness and that they will take the reigns of power in this country, if you are worried about their evil, humanist ideology; and you worry about the loss of constitutional rights and the stifling of free speech, and the stifling of God and the Lord.

Parar means to nullify; to thwart. Counsel of the humanist will be thwarted. This is the plan, counsel. This is a key word to understand what God annuls in these cases.

God Annuls Them

1. Evil people and nations look to conquer the world and nearby nations. Great empires in the ancient world. Many of those are hostile to nation Israel.
2. The Lord annuls or bring to nothing the plans of any nation or empire. Think about Soviet Russia, Germany or Red China.
3. When those nations conflict with God's plan and with His client nation and with His people.
4. This is not to say that evil plans are made and executed in this world; they are.
5. In fact this world embodies the cosmic system of Satan. Those humanists embody Satan's thinking.
6. There is a recompense for evil nations and peoples, a recompense for them at sometime in the process of their evil. You can trace the fall of evil empires. God has raised up some nations and has taken down nations which do not continue as client nations.

7. God controls history; and He deals with nations with His power, justice and sovereignty.
8. Using His attributes of Deity, God has countless ways to do this. God is infinitely resourceful.
9. The Lord cannot be defeated by humanism. Their proponents will always try. They deluded by Satan. They are blinded by the truth. They realize in the end how empty it is and they will always fail.
10. Under God's nullifying evil is the protection of the righteous. God delivers His saints. How frustrating it is when the best laid plans for humanists fail. Removal of freedom so their power prevails. Their plans always go awry.

To frustrate, to hinder, to bring to nothing. This parallels the previous line. God brings to nothing the plans of the evil. Nothing more frustrating to the humanist than to have his plans turn to nothing. He only wants nominal power. God brings to naught that plans and schemes of mankind.

plans is the machisaba, often translation purpose, plans, intentions, intent.

What are your intentions? It use to be what a parent would ask a daughter. Bobby had dinner with his prospective daughter-in-law, who speaks Spanish.

To Bring to Nothing the Intentions of the Peoples

1. How critical this phrase is, in understanding humanism will always be disappointed and frustrated in this world.
2. Humanism comes to nothing because it is based upon man's ability and leaves out the sovereignty of God.
3. We know that mankind has an inherent flawed nature of arrogance and depravity. Can humanism come to anything when the nature of man is so arrogant, depraved and flawed?
4. That does not bode well for human solutions. It is not hard for God to control the plans of the human race; they often screw it up themselves. This is a very tough pill to swallow for those who depend upon the goodness of man.

Bobby heard a conservative speaking on television, and sounded great; and then spoke of depending upon the goodness of man. God will frustrate all of humanism.

Let's Understand the Evils of Humanism.

1. Understanding this means that you can understand who God's enemies are.
2. The plans of these evil people, if carried out, would destroy freedom and the human race.. Why have we not been destroyed? God's plan is not for our destruction.

3. Because the plans of humanism exemplified by ideologies, has to be imposed on people by intimidate and force and threat. Many Americans are afraid to speak out against the anarchy on the streets. This must be imposed; it must be imposed. Great manifestation of this on our streets.
4. If such humanism prevails, they would eliminate all categories of truth which disagree with them. The laws of divine establishment, the gospel of Jesus Christ, and divine institutions.
5. The plans are anarchists, Marxists socialists, including Antifa and BLM; would result in massive slavery to a corrupt government system. They want police to carry out their orders and their demands. They are the worst racists. It is their means to power. We have tried to cure the ills of poverty and racism for 50 or more years. Those were legitimate tries. Antifa and Black Lives Matter simply want power, by any means necessary. They will not correct any racism. That will be brought to nothing.
6. Humanism has enslaved every nation in which it has been instituted. That is the difference between a client nation and everyone else. A client nation has enough believers to fulfill many of God's purposes. Slavery will be the result of Black Lives Matter. They want to enslave us to their own government; their own Marxism.
7. All Marxists-socialist nations must force their ideology on the public; regulations or whatever. Study the history of the rise of those nations. It all comes by force. Revolution; opposing armies. Street rabble; thugs. This is what is being attempted right now.
8. Loss of freedom is always the result of the plans of secular humanism and all of their plans to better mankind.

how does secular humanism get us into so much trouble? It will be brought to nothing; it will be nullified. We need to know their tenets.

Lesson #0112

Psalm 33 Wisdom in the OT

7/8/2020 Wednesday

Bobby debating himself about meeting in church. Bobby is glad to see everyone, even if he cannot tell who they are.

Bible class next week will not held next week; first conference of the year. Gatlin, TN.

Our country is in turmoil. There is hatred of police. A call to defund the police. Those who call for defunding the police will fill the power vacuum that they leave, and that will result in a police state. There is intimidation, riots, looting, and an appeasement of street thugs. "Let them go; we deserve it."

Secular humanists are those vying for power. Bobby will give a definition shortly. They are anti-Christian and anti-God. They are also divine establishment and anti divine institutions. Volition simply refers to freedom. Marriage; family and nation. The 4 divine institutions. All of these are challenged everywhere. Great assault on the nuclear family. Men asking each other how many children and wives they have. How on earth can you have a family under those conditions? The children are the ones who pay the price.

Nationalism is the 4th divine institution; and most want us to go global. Secular humanism is opposed to divine establishment and divine institution. These might be known as Marxists or socialists. They want to replace our democracy with Marxism/socialism. These cannot coexist with divine establishment. They are dedicated to the destruction of God's design for mankind.

We understand that the Lord controls history and Psalm 33:10 is a testimony to that.

Psalm 33:10a The LORD brings the counsel of the nations to nothing;...

We need to maintain confidence in God and what He is doing. God brings the counsel of nations to nothing; and he frustrates the evil plans of the people. God thwarts the plans of these nations. Evil men who rule over evil nations look to harm God's plan.

As believers, we are the major target of secular humanism. We are the enemy. Secular humanism is a tool of the cosmic system; and a very effective one. We can see the results right now.

Psalm 33:10b ...he frustrates the plans of the peoples.

Secular humanism is insidious and it is pervasive. It is a tool of Satan himself. But they can never stand against the power of God. They stand against God and rely upon man's abilities alone.

This verse represents God's sovereign plan in human history. The Lord is in control; His plan will always come to fruition. If God can create the universe, then He can control and guide the destiny of mankind. It may appear today if the wrong side is winning. See the streets of America.

Evil people intend to destroy freedom and Christianity; and they cannot be appeased.

We see appeasement attempted all over the United States. Appeasement has been done many times. The most famous one is the appeasement of Adolf Hitler by W. Chamberlain, who came back with the treaty that Hitler had agreed to.

Let the CHOP people have their way and hold onto this little enclave of socialism and anti-police. Christians stand against the perversions of anti-establishment; or they should. But many do not, due to fear, fear of intimidation, violence; or they have no doctrine.

Black Lives Matter people cursed everyone who came out of a church. That is anti-Christian. Christians are afraid to speak against them. That is a powerful deterrent. It takes something that we should have; it takes moral courage armed with Bible doctrine in order to resist it. There is no middle ground. There is no negotiation. That is not going to happen. If such humanism prevails, it would eliminate all categories of truth which contradicts secular humanism thinking. The plans of anarchists, Marxists, socialists, thugs and criminals (Black Lives Matter and Antifa). Their plans would result in a strong government to enslave its citizens. We are well on the way to such a life. Where God and Jesus are excluded from the public forum, that is Satan's approach.

We saw much of this by regulation and court decisions for many years; but now this philosophy is being forced upon us.

Bobby thinks that it is important to recognize secular humanism, which is an important cog in Satan's cosmic system. If you get this, you will understand who the opposition is and their tactics and how they think. It is completely foreign to us as believers.

Secular Humanism

1. Secular humanism is a religion in that it deifies man and dethrones God. The elevate man to the highest position.
2. Secular refers to the temporal material rather than to the spiritual. It opposes the spiritual life of the believer.
3. Humanism is a belief in the centrality of man. It is man-centered. Nothing is higher. If you recognize the Biblical definition of man, as totally depraved, you can see that this is a misplaced belief.
4. The secular is centered solely on human interests and values. We know to be a fact that Bible doctrine is the center of our values and interests as believers. This is not true of the secular humanist.
5. Secular humanism proposes that man is inherently good. Without this viewpoint, it undermines all that they believe. Bobby will speak of Biblical anthropology, which is God's view of man. This is why we need a savior. Secular humanism sees mankind as the savior of man.
6. Man is not in need of salvation or redemption by God under secular humanism. The fool says that there is no God.
7. Man's future and salvation for the humanist is solely in their hands. They are solely in the hands of man; God is left out completely.
8. Man, not God, controls the destiny of the human race. That is a very grim future.
9. Secular humanism is religious. It directs itself towards religious beliefs. Religious beliefs which are in direct opposition to God. So it is religious because it is an alternative salvation for mankind. Man saving man; it is about salvation. You cannot escape the need of salvation, even for the secular humanism. Everyone knows that man needs something. Secular humanism says, "We are the solution; we can solve our problems." How can the depraved solve the problems of the depraved.
10. A heightened sense of a relative spiritual life. A cooperative effort to promote social well-being, like social justice, which favors one group over another. Cooperative is a buzzword of Marxist socialism.

11. Without the Bible, there can be no revelation of God to man. This is so that we can understand the spiritual life. We can understand everything in our relation to God. Leave God out and there is no revelation from God.
12. Man's ideologies are the real revelation in secular humanism. Not one of them has ever succeeded or ever solved the problems of mankind. None have made us a better race, nation or people.
13. As a result, the Bible is unacceptable as the divinely inspired Word of God. In fact, those who cling to the Bible, who believe that it is divinely inspired, they are mocked as ignorant and as needing a crutch in life. They turn to something which is unprovable.
14. The alternative is to have faith in mankind and in his flawed nature. Is your faith in man, in science. A friend of Bobby's revealed in prayer meeting that he asked 3 young people about death and what they thought. One believed that he would not die because of science. They do not want to face the unknown. They have nothing to anchor their souls with. They cannot think beyond the next day. Their lives count for nothing. You know that humanism has infiltrated the church when leaders, pastors discard the Bible as an absolute standard for Christianity. They abandon the Bible for syncretism. They water down Christianity. This is what liberal denominations have done throughout America. Liberation theology is man liberating man from oppression in this world. The pastor of President Obama was a liberation theologian.
15. Thus the committed secular humanist seeks to destroy all religion as anti-human progress. Clear the decks of religion to get humans saving humans. Forget God for there is no God.
16. Instead the humanist believes in the supremacy of human reason. If you have every studied philosophers, they all place human reason at the top of their list. They use human thinking and philosophy at the top of their value system.
17. That believes that man can start with man, and on the basis of the utilization of his mental faculties alone, reason, can reason out the answers to all of the questions and problems that confront mankind. Ultimately, this is man saving man by human reason. We will figure it out. We can reason things out. How reasonable are the streets today?
18. From the Biblical perspective, man's ability to solve man's problems is an abject failure. Historically we can see this; and confirmed by the Bible. Man's solutions are entirely ineffective. Has humanism solved any problems? Possibly; but another problem pops up in its place. Or many.
19. A humanist solution always leads to new human problems. Human solutions are centered only in man's interests. Just one group over another. Lately this is called social justice or reverse racism. God's plan is in the best interest of all mankind; and only God can save us. This is the problem with secular humanism.

This is all the humanism can offer to us. They want to eradicate our history because they do not want us to know who we are. We will just repeat the history of tyranny and slavery. They will control our minds using reverse-racism. They are infatuated with race. How can people who are consumed with race solve racism? This is a ploy; a means to an end; a means to gain power.

We are all one in Christ. There is no race here in the church. This is the only way to solve this problem.

The Basic Tenets of Secular Humanism

1. They believe in evolution; a replacement for creation. Science is the guide for discovering man, his environment and everything else, apart from God. There is nothing wrong with science which takes into account God's existence and consistency. Biblical anthropology is entirely disregarded when science becomes a replacement for God. Man is inherently good, according to secular humanism. If man is inherently good, man can become good; and we will do that for the human race. Science and evolution assume a religious character and assumed to be at the highest level. The gospel and Bible doctrine are rejected.
2. The right to full sexual freedom and the expression of individual sexual preferences as they are desired. In other words, complete rejection of any Biblical standards or morality. Marriage, gender distinctions. This is pushed hard by secular humanism. Back in the 60's it was called free love. The elevation of LGBTQ and now it is institutionalized and made a part of the culture.
3. The right to determine the relative values and goals that affect human lives. This includes, self-determined morality; do whatever you want to do. If it feels good, do it. Anything outside of themselves is secondary or rejected. God is never a consideration in values and goals.
4. The right to suicide; the right to abortion, the right to human euthanasia. If there is no God, then these do not fall under Biblical reality. Humans are just another form of animal; so these things are acceptable.
5. Situational and cultural ethics. This is a very important tenet.
  - a. The secular humanist does not live under any absolute standards.
  - b. That means divine establishment and divine institutions are completely rejected.
  - c. There are no rights and wrongs as revealed in Scripture. The more that this is instituted, the more perverted things get.
  - d. Everything becomes relative. Everything is self-centered.
  - e. Under those conditions everyone has maximum individual autonomy. The right to do their own thing, no matter what it may be, no matter what the impact is upon others. We see this all the time in this country. Autonomy is seen as being the most important; which is the downfall of the rule of law.
  - f. Ironically, humanistic government always ends up in tyranny, to control the population to accomplish their own ends. Intimidation, fear, violence used to control. Tyrannical.
  - g. Divine law and authority have no bearing. Scripture is non-existent to the humanist. Anything goes. Then society goes to pieces. It fragments and goes to pieces. Our fragmented society is based upon race.

6. They do not believe in national sovereignty; they promote a world government. No borders. Unlimited immigration. A socialist economy. No private property. Property is not guaranteed.
7. The secular humanist always believes in the inevitability of human progress. Humans will automatically progress. This is perpetuated as a part of evolution. A higher and higher form of life continues. They require forced progress; their plans and intentions, which are a redress in the streets. Hence the importance of public education; it is a means of spreading the gospel of secular humanism. We now have two generations raised this way. They oppose charter schools, home schooling, Christians schools, because they cannot control any of those things. Some want to force progress with forced environmentalism and forced justice. The end result will be a better life, but more control.

Plans of the secular humanist socialism, Marxism, redistribution of wealth, no private property, open borders, internationalism or globalism, banning all or parts of the Bible, suppression of free speech. All designed to further their own ideology.

This is just the thinking and plans of arrogance; and God thwarts their plans. They have always been with us; and God will deal with them.

Psalm 33:10 The LORD brings the counsel of the nations to nothing; he frustrates the plans of the peoples.

Lesson #0113

Psalm 33 Wisdom in the OT

7/9/2020 Thursday

Some have said they would rather not hear about politics; they are here for Bible doctrine. Bobby is interested in what is happening in our country today as it relates to Bible doctrine. We should know the cosmic system; the enemy that we face. One of the most potent weapons of the cosmic system.

No Bible class Wed./Thurs.

Impact of Psalm 33:10 as it relates to the time that we live and to the client nation. There is an attack of the cosmic system upon the United States. COVID19 plays a small part. This has revealed an instability and a fear of some people. A lack of interest and ignorance is occurring right now during this pandemic. God will deal with these people, turning them over to their own fears. One of the great difficulties in life is fear. We are made for a lifestyle without fear.

there are a plethora of organizations wanting to destroy our culture; the cancel culture. They have taken over the public education system; reduced free speech, intimidation, threats, selling the tenets of Marxism and Socialism. There are some in certain cities who are allowing these thing.

God has provided a promise in this time of severe testing.

Psalm 33:10 The LORD brings the counsel of the nations to nothing [or, nullifies the counsel of the nations], he frustrates the plans of the peoples.

The Promise of Psalm 33:10

1. We see what God is doing directly; nullifying, frustrating the plans of those who attack the client nation.
2. The Lord promotes His plan for the nations and for the people.
3. How God does it is not always comfortable, even for believers. What we are seeing today is not comfortable; there are threats; and these things will happen against churches as well.
4. What is happening today is a wake-up call; a discipline; due to the rise of secular humanism in this country. This cannot go unpunished. This is a part of God's nullifying the plans of nations and the peoples who oppose Him.
5. We as believers are being reminded of the importance of our spiritual growth and our impact on the nation. What can I do? The place is coming apart. We have studied Psalm 14 where He protects His people. Put these together and we have the solution to what is going on.
6. We are also being reminded of the failure of believers in this client nation to grow spiritually. Churches today are not teaching Bible doctrine. They maybe be teaching the milk of the Word; but too often focused on programs and community. We are being reminded of the failures.
7. We are being reminded of the syncretism and the compromise that our churches have made with human ideologies and ideas. They depart from true principles from the Word. That is happening in liberal churches everywhere.

We are not being called to enter into conflict with Black Lives Matter, to join a Christian coalition of activists; a call for moral courage in the face of mockery and intimidation. There is a lesson inherent in all of this. We have become complacent in this nation concerning our freedoms. We think the United States will always be here and the rule of the law and the guarantees of the Constitution will always be here. We are in moral decay. Believers in Jesus Christ have gotten lazy in their approach to the intake of Bible doctrine. All of this does not bode well for the client nation or for its people. We can see the deterioration right in front of us on television every single day. We are assured in the end that God will not be mocked.

Socialism is a failure everywhere that it has been tried and people look to it for deliverance; those who look to it for salvation will always be frustrated. But when it doesn't work, they push it harder. "If we can just force this on people, it will work." All we will see is tyranny.

The example of this verse used last night is secular humanism. Secular humanism is a religion; it seeks to deify man and remove God. An alternative salvation for mankind. In the end, secular humanism involves and promotes the philosophy of man and the idea that man can solve the problems of mankind. No consideration of a higher viewpoint or a divine standard. No consideration of faith alone in Christ alone.

The 4 divine institutions have been stomped in the past 10 years. God can never be excluded from the human equation. The plans of the humanist will be nullified and brought to nothing by God. God will protect and He will deliver His people and His Word to mankind. Isa. 40:8 the Word of the Lord stands forever.

Points on Secular Humanism

1. The underlying basis for humanism is the exertion of raw power for an evil, secular system. They want raw power. How can they stand against an omnipotent God?
2. That involves the arrogance of power lust. Imposing humanism on the world for self-centered purposes. They do not have the interest of mankind at heart. It is a self-centered ideology.
3. All socialism is based upon humanistic arrogance.
4. They want to impose their thinking on lesser human beings. Secular humanism is not striving for equality; they are striving for power over others.
5. This is a message of racist and slavery; the most racist people are those who accuse everyone else of racism.
6. You cannot divorce humanistic principles from arrogant actions. Marxist organizations. They think they know what is best for us and for our nation. This is tyranny for the people. We are ignorant of Marxist nations in the past. We are ignorant of Chinese communism and Marxist Russia. If you understand the principles of socialism and Marxism are being taught all over our universals.

Those who want to teach divine thinking will be canceled. The cancel culture. Ending the 2nd amendment is also a part of their scheme.

Bobby has done a lot of research of secular humanism. As he moves through these points, he will also cover the Christian principles which oppose secular humanism.

Secular Humanism in Our Society

1. The dominance of secular humanism always leads to degeneracy and destruction because they leave out God.
2. Evil becomes good and good becomes evil.
3. Examples: Homosexuality becomes an acceptable lifestyle promoted by government and legislation. It has been institutionalized in a client nation. Our study of Sodom tells us that we will face the wrath of God.
4. The idea that the Bible must be banned as hate speech. Secular humanism opposes the Bible.
5. Street violence and criminality is justified as necessary for change. It corrects existing or previous injustice. That is not the rule of law.
6. Reverse hatred is the counter to hatred.
7. Racism is combated with reverse racism. Those who speak of it are obsessed by it and they use it constantly.

8. The inequality of social justice replaces the rule of law. It favors one group over another. They replace one injustice by another.
9. Freedom in a nation is labeled as oppression in various groups.
10. Those who keep order in our communities; the police officer, they are being branded as evil and must be defunded or abolished altogether. They want a police force to prop up a police state. They serve not the people but the tyrants of a nation. All of this is a reflection of the secular humanist idea of the inherent goodness of man. How can you push a perverse system on people and expect it to work?
11. This degeneration is a living example of the false thinking of humanism. A system promoted by fools in the cosmic system who say there is no God. All rejection of authority is arrogance. Anti-authority people are arrogant people. People who riot in the streets are arrogant people; they reject law. They are a law unto themselves. This includes secular humanism which rejects divine authority. Black Live Matters and other such groups are dedicated to anarchy in the streets as a means of grabbing power. The rule of law is being persecuted. Freedom cannot exist without authority. This requires a strong police force.

The rule of law is a Biblical principle. The secular humanist wants to eliminate it. It seeks law and regulation which favors and promotes their own ideology over against freedom.

Secular Humanism to Destroy Freedom

1. Freedom without authority is anarchy. That is the method of antifa and other self-declared Marxists.
2. Authority without freedom is tyranny. This is the outcome of Marxism. Marxism must be imposed.
3. That is the ultimate goal of the radical leftists. Anarchy and the vacuum of power they will fill themselves. This is how Marxism works.
4. Anarchy intimidation violence in order to impose Marxism, socialism falls under the guise of correcting the guise of the evils of society. That is the subterfuge of the evils of Marxism.
5. In order to do this, they must convince people that the current society is evil. They do this today by calling everyone a racist. We must pull down the system in order to remake it and eliminate all racism. This ends up being narachy, which does not solve anything.
6. Teaching the lie that the United States is a nation founded upon oppression, rather than a nation founded on freedom.

Why should Christians oppose socialism and Marxism? Why is secular humanism anti-Christian? Why are some churches embracing these things? They will use churches as pawns. They have departed from the Scripture and have embraced a humanistic course of action. These people are unwittingly or willingly supporting Marxist organizations. This is completely mixed up to support Marxism in order to remove racism.

So many people are uneducated about Marxism. You cannot be a Marxist or a secular humanist and a Bible believing Christian at the same time. When you depart from Scripture, something must fill the vacuum. These are antithetical in their foundational principles. What Bobby will now present comes from an article written by Joshua Lawson who presents...

Lawson is a managing editor of the Federalist and he holds a degree from Hillsdale college. He calls what is happening today is neo-Marxism. Marxism is generally viewed as a struggle between the wealthy and the workers. Neo-Marxism redefines the fight to incorporate race, ethnicity, and a whole set of identity badges. Divide and conquer; that is their approach. We are divided on identity politics. The grand unifying principle of Marxism is everything can be reduced to oppressors versus the oppressed. If you are a member of the oppressor group; the white race; then expect to see all sorts of punishments until the neo-Marxists are satisfied; but they are never satisfied. Humanism is open-ended. It never produces any real lasting solutions. Black Lives Matter will never solve any racial problems. It would not solve any problems in Black societies. They want to divide the races. They want division.

Black Lives Matter will never solve any problems; nor will antifa. Christianity is freedom from tyranny, even though tyranny and oppression exist.

The United States is a client nation to God; it is not an oppressor nation. Marxism violently opposes the client nation. The continue to see the United States as an evil capitalist oppressor. Black Lives Matter and antifa are completely antithetical to the Scriptures.

The power of the secular humanist and the secular state. That is the condition. That is what we as believers face. What are the solutions?

Psalm 33:10 The LORD brings the counsel of the nations to nothing; he frustrates the plans of the peoples.

Lesson #0114

Psalm 33 Wisdom in the OT

7/12/2020 Sunday

Communion July 12, 2020

We owe everything to the grace of our Lord. Jesus was a perfect man, without spot on His character. Jesus challenged men to point out any sin that they could find in Him. "If I speak truth, why do you not believe Me?"

How much more will the blood of Christ, ho through the Eternal Spirit, offer Himself as a lamb without spot...

Heb. 7:26–27 For it was indeed fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, innocent, unstained, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. He has no need, like those high priests, to offer sacrifices daily, first for his own sins and then for those of the people, since he did this once for all when he offered up himself.

The priests offered up sacrifices for their own sins. But Jesus offered up Himself one time for all mankind.

1Peter 1:18–19 ...knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot.

Deuteronomy 17:1 "You shall not sacrifice to the LORD your God an ox or a sheep in which is a blemish, any defect whatever, for that is an abomination to the LORD your God.

A symbol of atonement.

Leviticus 3:1–2 "If his offering is a sacrifice of peace offering, if he offers an animal from the herd, male or female, he shall offer it without blemish before the LORD. And he shall lay his hand on the head of his offering and kill it at the entrance of the tent of meeting, and Aaron's sons the priests shall throw the blood against the sides of the altar.

The lamb had to die as a purchase price for the sinner who brought the lamb. This represented the doctrine of redemption to Israel. It represented Christ's future death for sins. This represents the awful price that Jesus paid on the cross for our sins. This is what Jesus accomplished on the cross.

Why was such a terrible sacrifice necessary. At birth, all mankind is born into sin, trapped in a slave market. God cannot have fellowship with anything less than His Own perfect righteousness.

That relative righteousness is fine for us; but it is not good enough for God. No human being is sinless. Compare our standards against God's. All of us commit personal sins; we can never compare favorably with God's absolute righteousness. Man can never measure up to the character of God. No one is as good as God is good.

Isa. 64:6 We have all become like one who is unclean, and all our righteous deeds are like a polluted garment.

If we are ever to be freed from our bondage, someone who is free and has the purchase price must liberate us. Enter the Lamb of God who has the price to pay for man's freedom. Only a man free of sin, a spotless free man purchases the man in the slave market. Jesus is the only true Righteous Man Who can pay the price for all humanity. The price of our redemption is a work of God, through the death of a man without sin. Thus man is purchased from the slave market of sin to gain a perfect righteousness before God. We can get this only through faith alone in Christ alone. The believer meets God's perfect standard and gain a relationship with God. It is a gift of God, not of works, so that no man may boast.

Jesus carried our sins in His Own body, as per 1Peter 2;24.

People are offended by many things today; but God is offended by our sins, however many or few that there are.

Only after God's wrath toward us is propitiated or satisfied.

Today's radicals look at historical figures and, if there is even the slightest relationship to slavery or racism, they condemn that man heartily. Such a man deserves, in their eyes, to be removed from history.

God was satisfied by the perfect lamb Who gave Himself for us. He Who knew no sin was made sin for us.

Jesus stood between man and God. Jesus is the mediator between a righteous God and sinful man. He brings to a common goal and unity. How do you bring these two hostile parties together?

In order to mediate between man and God, Christ has to be identified with both parties. As undiminished deity, he must be equal to God. Jesus Christ always was, is and always will be Deity. Jesus was born without sin, just as Adam was born without sin. Jesus could not appear in the likeness of sinful man; He could not be a mediator is born in sin. He would be the same as all of us. He had to be a mediator without spot and without blemish.

Jesus had to demonstrate that He could maintain that perfection. For 33 years, Jesus maintained His perfection. He passed every test; including those thrown in front of Him by the greatest tempter of them all, Satan.

Because of Jesus' unique role as the perfect mediator, He is able to reconcile man to God. On the cross, the Mediator reconciled us with God. Christ mediates the enmity between God and us. He mediates the peaceful environment.

How can we be reconciled if we continue to sin after we have expressed faith alone in Christ alone. Reconciled man receives the righteousness of God. This makes the believer judicially spotless. The believer is given the righteousness of God. We possess the righteousness of God through faith in Christ. We are pronounced free of any guilt and acceptable to the righteousness and justice of God. A justified person is declared by God to have met all of the requirements of God's justice. Thus justification means, the justice of God is free to consummate and maintain a relationship with man without compromising His character or divine attributes.

Abraham believed and it was credited to him as righteousness.

Eph. 5:27 ...so that he might present the church to himself in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish.

Jude 24–25 Now to him who is able to keep you from stumbling and to present you blameless before the presence of his glory with great joy, to the only God, our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion, and authority, before all time and now and forever. Amen.

Col. 1:22 ...he has now reconciled in his body of flesh by his death, in order to present you holy and blameless and above reproach before him,...

Psalm 33:10 The LORD brings the counsel of the nations to nothing; he frustrates the plans of the peoples.

Bobby has been on this passage for several days now. It contains an amazing practical application for today's circumstances. He has given us definitions for secular humanism and for the Marxism rampant in our country.

Article by Joshua Lawson where this is well illustrated. Lawson is a believer and a scholar and he currently teaches and he understands the problems that we have today. He also presents the solution as well.

Whereas traditional garden-variety Marxism views life as a struggle; neo-marxism redefines this fight to incorporate biological sex, race, ethnicity and a who gambit of various identify badges. The principle remains the same: to divide and conquer. Race and class warfare to accomplish their mission. Everything can be reduced to oppressors versus the oppressed. The oppressed in this case are the people of color; the oppressors are defined by white privilege. The Black Lives Matter supposedly represent the oppressed. The United States is not an oppressor nation. The United States is a client nation to God. Neomarxism violent opposes a client nation to God. They will always label the United States as an evil, capitalistic oppressor. They use this to divide and conquer; and it is working in unusual places. Too many Christians are falling in line with these neomarxist principles. They are bent on bringing in a Millennium reign, but without Christ; and a human utopia. The only solution is to become a believer in Jesus Christ; not to become an activist. Christian activism in support of Black Lives Matter only furthers the power of secular humanism and the founding of a secular state. This Neomarxist movement; the call to hate America.

We must not forget Psalm 33:10; God thwarts the evil nations and the organizations which support them. These groups will be brought down in the way and time that God has determined. God does not work on our timing or on our desires. He does what is best for out client nation.

A Good Question Is, *How Is the Neomarxist Antithetical to the Bible

1. Neomarxist approach is a collective guilt. The entire white race is guilty of oppressing people or color, whether these sins occurred today, last week, or 200 years ago. All are required to bear this guilt.
2. Every institution is rife with racism. It is everywhere. It is in our government; and it must be purged, cleansed. This is why they say, "We must destroy in order to rebuild." They impute guilt to others.
3. We are to submit to the thinking of neomarxism.
4. This collective guilt for perceived racism for all generations is the opposite of Christian doctrine as it is revealed in the Bible. For all generations, 200 years ago to today, this is the opposite of Christian doctrine.
  - a. The Bible states that we are accountable to God alone for our sins and our inequities; not to man. We covered that in communion.
  - b. Those sins result from the fall of Adam; our sin nature and our depravity of sin. Today all sin, according to Black Lives Matter comes from racism. No, all sin comes from the old sin nature. We are accountable to God, and not to any organization.
  - c. It is up to each of us individually to reconcile his or her relationship with God. This is accomplished through faith in Christ. We do not have to beg forgiveness from any other human being or organization. We are forgiven by God and by God alone.
  - d. Mankind is not the source of forgiveness of sins. The secular humanist would inject himself or herself into that equation.
  - e. Nor does forgiveness that is demanded by mankind excuse the sins of the forgivers. You apology to Black Lives Matter does not excuse their sins? No. But, in their eyes, you are the sinner; they are not. Any organization of Marxist ilk is guilty of all kinds of racism and hatred; but they reverse that.
  - f. Man cannot reconcile with man through a massive guilt complex; a genuflect to man, if you will. Especially if those accused are not guilty of those sins. This is a power grab through manipulative guilt.
  - g. The concept of collective guilt is explicitly rejected in Ezek. 18:20 The soul who sins shall die. The son shall not suffer for the iniquity of the father, nor the father suffer for the iniquity of the son. The righteousness of the righteous shall be upon himself, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon himself. Is that quite clear? We are all, each one of us, accountable for our own sins and actions. Only Jesus Christ can provide the ultimate forgiveness of sins for each one. We were all slaves to sin. This is why the Scripture can say, "We are all one in Christ." We do not receive collective forgiveness by reparations or by asking forgiveness from another race or asking for forgiveness as a nation.

- h. Those who believe in Jesus Christ are saved personally; not as part of a collective. Marxist organizations see us as being collectively guilty. "Give us power and let us oppress and let's see how you like it."
  - i. Change in the individual is affected as the unbeliever grows individually. You will not see change by a collective guilt or a collective call for forgiveness. This is just a power grab.
  - j. Our salvation handles racism. Historical Marxism is antithetical to Christianity because it peddles a materialistic viewpoint.
5. Instead of spreading peace and forgiveness, the neomarxism have exacerbated hatred and anger. It is reverse racism. It is not being cured; it is being reversed. Living under the rule of law is the only way to have equal opportunity or something which approximates that. Their contention is the systemic racism precludes any sort of real advancement for people of color. They want to favor one group over another. That is all it can propose; it is all that they can offer. The suppress the success that many races have attained in this nation. The opportunity for all. Is there poverty? Of course; but there is in every race.

What Is the Materialistic Approach?

1. If everyone is wealthy enough, so that economic status is meaningless, then the earth could be transformed into a fantasy utopia.
2. Neomarxism adds race to this formula. Remove racism and we can have a utopia is what they believe.
3. The inequality and poverty remains in the human race. The inequality and poverty always becomes worse under Marxism. There is a ruling class and the peasants. Jesus said, "The poor you will have with you always." There is a certain amount of poverty in the world. The best solution on a human level is capitalism. That system fits best into the desires to reduce poverty.
4. Yet, our solution, Jesus taught not to concern ourselves with questions of wealth. Do not be concerned who has it and how we can get more for ourselves. That should not be the driving force of your life.
5. Matt. 6 do not store up for yourselves treasures for yourself. People are finding that materialism is fleeting. Store up for yourselves treasures in heaven. Do not be worried in your life about what you will eat and drink; or what you will put on...do not worry and say, 'What will we eat, what will we wear?' The gentiles eagerly seek all of these things. Seek first His kingdom and His righteousness and all of these things will be added to you.
6. This is not to say that we should not better our condition on this side of heaven; we do not become hermits and give up all of our labor
7. This world is never meant to be anything approaching paradise or utopia. This will happen during the Millennium of Christ after the 2nd advent.
8. Touting this utopian goal is cosmic system, Marxist influence and it brings disaster to a greater number of people. Millions killed at the hands of Marxist leaders; and the poverty of those leaders.

This is what the United States has provided; opportunity and in many cases, equal opportunity. There is no place where this exists in more abundance than in the United States.

This secular humanism approach has caused many people to want to seize the things that our neighbors have. The Old Testament tells us not to covet what our neighbors have; and Philippians encourages us to be content, regardless. There is no contentment in this country. There is anarchy, hatred and anger and it is being fomented for the purpose of a power grab. We need to understand racism and poverty and the Bible provides the only solution that works. We have to stand up for it. We should not have a lifestyle of fear; but we are here assembled. This is assembly for the truth of the Word of God. It needs to be spoken. We need to metabolize it; and we must apply it.

Psalm 33:10 The LORD brings the counsel of the nations to nothing; he frustrates the plans of the peoples.

Bobby is making an application to these people who are anti-God and anti-Christ. We are to watch these people and see that God will bring them to nothing. The country is kow-towing to many of these people. Remember that the Lord brings it to nothing. How critical is this for the upcoming elections in the United States. Never before have the evil plans of the peoples been more of a threat to our country.

The problem within the client nation are the secular humanists; the atheists, etc.

Several forms of secular humanism Marxism, socialism, which are two sides of the same coin. Bobby has given severy points that define their ideology. It is antithetical and opposed to Biblical Christianity. . Joshua Lawson from the Federalist; he calls the secular humanists as marxists; and calls antifa and Black Lives Matter as Marxists.

Review of Previous Points

1. Guilt is a part of what is a basis for their movement. We use rebound and we grow in the Christian life. White people are to feel guilty about what was done in slavery. When this occurred has no bearing on the need for guilt.
2. Every institution in the country is rife with racism and they call it systemic racism. Racism is entwined in everything. All of the institutions must be torn down and rebuilt. Only way to deal with this is mind policing by the Marxism. That is never enough for the humanist neo-Marxists. They are never satisfied with whatever they gain in their strategies and manipulations. It never comes out in the way that they want it to. In every case, their programs will be frustrated. All of their plans, ideology and machinations never produce the goals which they want. They cannot put all of the arms and legs into the jack in the box.
3. This collective guilt for perceived racism for all of these years is the opposite of Christian doctrine. Guilt for perceived racism is not a part of Christian. We are responsible to God. There is no collective guilt. Ezek. 18:20. This is the answer to systematic racism; or reparations. Ezek. 18:20–21 The soul who sins shall die. The son shall not suffer for the iniquity of the father, nor the father suffer for the iniquity of the son. The righteousness of the righteous shall be upon himself, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon himself. "But if a wicked person turns away from all his sins that he has committed and keeps all my statutes and does what is just and right, he shall surely live; he shall not die. Any slavery now is self-imposed. Slavery to the government; slavery to welfare; slavery to what has been promised. Anyone in socialism is an enslaving government. Black Lives Matter stands for slavery and they will oppose it on the streets of America; and in government. They will bring back slavery. We are accountable for our own sins only.
4. Historical Marxism is antithetical to Christianity because it peddles materialism.
  - a. Materialism teaches that the highest values or objectives lie in material well being and in material progress. This leaves out the spiritual aspect of life entirely. Biblical Christianity is not a part of any of this.
5. The conclusion is, if everyone could just be wealthy enough so that economic status is meaningless, so that there is no great disparity, then the earth could be transformed into a utopian fantasy. There would be no more inequities or injustices so that the well-being of humanity is entirely dependent upon socialist materialistic economics. It is all very materialistic. Capitalism is the enemy because it breeds inequality. Freedom breeds inequality. Socialism breeds poverty, much more of it; and capitalism breeds prosperity.

Matt. 26:11a the Poor You Will Have with You Always.

1. We will never overcome poverty completely. It is a part of the fallen world.
2. There are many commands from Jesus to help the poor. Charity.
3. He never says that poverty or inequity will be ultimately abolished by charity. Neo-marxism will not solve it either.
4. Jesus taught not to be concerned with questions of wealth. Matt. 6:19

5. This world is never meant to be anything approaching paradise through economics. Economics will not make an equal world or a perfect world. Only when Jesus rules, there will be a perfect world order. Goals of Marxism is just cosmic system thinking; and it will bring more poverty. And greed will exist, no matter what government exists. This is universal.

Continuation of Neo-marxism

5. They proclaim peace and reconciliation; but that is not what they are really teaching. They cite lack of opportunity for people of color. They promote an attitude of taking things and desiring things that others have. People succumb to that mentality. This is greed; this is covetousness. They teach that social justice and revolution. Putting one group over another in social justice is, in itself, unjust. Revolution results in a much worse situation. Injustice does not solve injustice problems. Social justice favors one group over another; it is a racist institution favor one race over another. The Old Testament implores in Exodus 20:17 not to covet anything that your neighbor has. Philip. 4:11–13 encourages to be content with whatever it is that we have. Encouragement, peace is an inner attitude that comes from Bible doctrine in the soul. Neo-marxism is a constant struggle for power.
6. This neo-marxism is filled with lies and false assumptions. Even if all material inequalities could be removed, evil and malevolence would continue to exist in the world. Our sinful nature still exists.
7. Instead of keeping the anger flowing, the Bible offers us a guide to combat the fallen nature of the world. There is only one way to do it. What is the Biblical solution to the sin nature which the neo-marxisms cannot understand? The solution is Jesus Christ and God's Word. A true picture of man's injustice to man and inequality as a part of the depravity of the human race. The human race is a fallen people; everyone with a sin nature. Believing Jesus Christ and learning His teaching and learning His mind is the only way to change humanistic viewpoint. Faith in Christ, Bible doctrine, the use of problem solving devices, are all individual solutions. These are not forced societal solutions, which reduce opportunity.
8. Ultimately, Marxism has no answer for questions like these. What is our purpose? What is the meaning of life? What are we doing here on earth? Neo-marxism is a struggle for power always. Forced change or violence is their only solution. But they always return to frustration. The human race cannot be saved by Marxism or any other humanistic idea or philosophy. These false approaches always oppose Biblical theology.
9. Neo-marxism seeks to divide; Christianity seeks to unify.

Marxism must Divide People

1. Group identify is everything in marxism.
2. Majority groups have historically oppressed minority groups. They use this to divide people.
3. Their solution is, a revolution is needed to create the type of society where no majority groups hold all of the power. Except for them. That idea will never come to be. They will not give up their power. They will force their ideas upon us. They will use injustice to enforce justice.

4. They are anti-democracy. The fundamental notion is the struggle to hold power over others. They must have this. How can they impose their ideas on others? Their ideas can only be imposed.
5. They say they want equality but they truly want superiority. Christianity and divine establishment freedoms stand in their way. That is why they are so anti-Christ. D

Principle

1. Freedom and equality cannot coexist. Marxism is all about group identify; and bringing about equality.
2. Free choices, good or bad, foster inequality. If you have freedom of choice, you may make a bad decision which sets you apart from those making good choices. Poverty has its reasons.
3. The intentions of secular humanism and their conspiracies are directed against human freedom in order to gain a nominal equality, a false hope. This equality can be reinforced by propaganda.
4. It is a contrived equality by mutual poverty. When capitalism disappears, wealth disappears. Only government workers have any wealth.
5. Freedom cannot guarantee equality in the human race. People want an equality of results, and freedom cannot guarantee or manufacture such results. Unlike what Marxism says, those choices are yours. They are dictated by your environment or by systematic racism. Marxism leaves out the success that many have enjoyed. Hard to argue against Black, Hispanic and Asian success in the United States. Freedom breeds inequality.
6. Man uses his freedom to advance or to fail. To be humble or to be arrogant. For faith in Jesus Christ or rejection of Him. To grow or not. Free choices that we have as human beings. The United States has provided more freedom and choices than any other country. We have our failures and faults; but we have more virtues than any other nation on earth. Neomarxism is dedicated to removing our client nation status.
7. Freedom is provided in our country. Our Constitution is a document of freedom, when it is followed. Equality for all will not happen with freedom.
8. The function of freedom guarantees inequality of every type. Economic and otherwise. You must give up freedom to get equality. We are like frogs in a pot slowly coming to a boil.
9. Jesus saying that the poor is always here, that is a statement of inequality which continues throughout time. We are one in Christ.
10. Human equality, economic or otherwise, is the propaganda of the arrogant humanist and the battle cry of the corrupt and degenerate Marxist seekers.
11. Forced equality is the policy of evil; of tyrants. You cannot keep what you have earned; it must be spread across a society. Those who are wealthy and provide many jobs must be taxed and removed from their status. Wealth disappears and upward mobility disappears. You end up with a country of peasants.

12. The spells the downfall of a client nation.

Freedom and Authority

1. Under the laws of divine establishment freedom and authority are two sides of the same coin.
2. You cannot have freedom without legitimate authority. This freedom results from the rule of law; and not by freedom.
3. You cannot have legitimate authority without freedom. In other words, limited power of government. The socialist marxist makes government your god and it controls everything. They do not mind imprisoning you or executing you or suppressing you.
4. Freedom without authority is called anarchy. The people are running amok; and they want full exercise of their sin natures. They want no authority over them; no police. That is what Black Lives Matter pushes; they want the power. People support this and believe it is all propaganda.
5. Authority without freedom is tyranny. They use freedom to gain power; then they impose their authority. Hence it becomes a tyranny; a dictatorship. Everywhere where socialism takes root, it is tyranny.
6. The secular humanist idea of humanity is a collective group to determine its destiny. We must fall in line for a group destiny. Let our individual freedom go by the wayside. We have to accept whatever the Neomarxist call equality.

Humanity is counted as individual persons. Marxism is collective. That means that the individual is subsumed under the group, which is the state. In Christianity, people are individuals.

Christianity Is Individual

1. Each person determines his own destiny in relationship to Christ and God.
2. Jesus has already done the work of rearing all cultural barriers to... There are no ethnic and cultural barriers for God.
3. Grace is available to all those who put their faith in Jesus Christ. Regardless of race, culture, ethnicity or gender. We are all the objects of grace, regardless.
4. That is freedom; even when freedom of environment is unavailable. Even under tyranny, we have freedom.
5. John 8:32 you will know the truth and the truth will make you free. Truth and Bible doctrine make you free. Even under socialism you have freedom if a believer.
6. The only group that should matter to Christians is the multi-ethnic world of believers; the body of Christ. This is the only international body. Nationalism is the 4th divine institution.
7. Everyone else in this world should be viewed impartially by Christians. All are souls for whom Christ died. That precludes racism. We are one in Christ and we want everyone else to be one in Christ. There is no longer Jew or gentile, slave or free, male or female; you are all one in Christ. If you are one in Christ, you are Abraham's descendants, heirs according to promise.

Black Lives Matter is all about power, not about equality. Karl Marx who wrote Das Capital is the Bible for communists.

Marx's Writings

1. The abolition of religion is the first requisite for the happiness of the people. It makes people unhappy.
2. He slandered religion by comparing it to opium. It numbs them to everything else.
3. Worse, like Satan himself, "My object in life is to de-throne God." There are Christians who support this. This is Black Lives Matter. Wake up.
4. Marx gives us the very definition of secular humanism. They are a prime example of secular humanism. No Christian should have anything to do with Marx. There are many of these groups on the far left which are based upon Marxism. We should not belong to any of these organizations which expound Marxism. Do not get caught up in the propaganda that they can solve the problems of inequality and racism.

9. In every nation which has adopted Marxism as its ideological model, Christians have become the oppressed. Christians susceptible to Marxist group think need to be reminded that they do not need Marxism to love their neighbors as themselves; to be charitable etc. You can choose the Bible and the cross; or the hammer and sickle. That is the emblem of the marxist. Any Christian who supports the humanist agenda has abdicated the Christian life. They want the ruin of a client nation. That is the crossroads of where we find ourselves. Neomarxism is at the gate and they are pounding on it. To spout neomarxist talking points is to depart from the teaching of Scripture.

Joshua Lawson has provided for us a correct and apt analogy. Divine viewpoint versus secular humanism in general. Bobby has presented in 3 or 4 classes the enemy; who Satan has tapped to ruin the client nation. This should help for us to understand the issues in this election, divine establishment versus the Marxist.

If you are on the side of Christianity, this issue is freedom, not racism. What do you think of Jesus Christ and divine establishment?

Psalm 33:10 The LORD brings the counsel of the nations to nothing; he frustrates the plans of the peoples.

We will be leaving Psalm 33:10 behind this time. We need to relax. We need to see all of this for what it is. It is sad to see what is going on; but this is the opportunity for us to pass the test. It is a test for all of us. We are equipped to pass the test.

Psalm 33:10 The LORD brings the counsel of the nations to nothing; he frustrates the plans of the peoples.

God insures the fulfillment of God divine plan; whatever His plan is for us and for our country, we can rest assured that it will be fulfilled. This gradually focuses away from the enemy and back to His people (which is you and I).

The is a reality being done by God.

Psalm 33:11 The counsel of the LORD stands forever, the plans of his heart to all generations.

These plans are for us and they are very personal. The come directly from the heart of the Lord. This should be encouraging to each one of us. The plans of the corrupt and the wicked.

The Power of the Plan of God

1. All the machinations of mankind, the plans of human power, ideologies, human viewpoint, secular humanism in all of its forms, none of these things can stand against the counsel and plans of our Great God. This is why we should relax.
2. God's purposes cannot be shaken or interrupted by the motives or purposes of the cosmic system. Not even Satan can shake or interrupt the plan of God. This includes the Marxists today; and antifa. Bobby lived there for 5 years; and it is a beautiful city. Those who are in authority do not understand divine establishment. ANTIFA and Black Lives Matter cannot shake the plan of God.
3. The outcome of their humanistic causes are corrupt. Those organizations must move away from the rule of law and to get their way through violence and intimidation and through hatred. These causes are doomed to distortion and failure. Wherever this type of organization has taken hold is a disaster for those who live under it. Our children are not being taught the results of socialism.
4. Only God's plan will come to fruition; the secular humanist plans will never be reached. They want to bring in a human utopia; a land of peace, a world of prosperity. It will never happen. The poor you will have with you always, the Lord said. Jesus never said, "The poor will disappear." Jesus understood that the poor will always be with us. The plans of the secular humanist will never come to fruition. They cannot bring to pass that which only God can do. These organizations of secular humanism only reflect the plans and thinking of secular humanism. Their actions and results are only temporary. Tyranny has ruled in this world before; we separated from it. Now we are falling under a domestic tyranny. The left does not like the Constitution of the United States. They don't like the first amendment. They cancel culture; they want to cancel anything that they do not like. This is not something which is brand new.

5. The plan of God is not temporary. It is to endless generations. It is eternal. His plan goes through, a straight line through many generations.
6. God's plan is all powerful and not subject to human restraint. That is the amazing thing about His plan. It works out even though the limitations of humanity. The whole strata of humanity; and we have restraints and God works through those restraints.
7. Secular humanism will never have plans work out; and they will always be frustrated. They can never overcome the restraints of the old sin nature. Just when their plans appear to be succeeding, they are foiled by their own corruption. The very fact that they want to defund the police. They are not interested in the welfare of the people. The authority of the police stands in their way. Ending our police force that stands for the rule of law; this does not mean that they won't have their own police force. They know that they cannot have rampant anarchy. This slogan serves their purpose; but if they are in power, they need the enforcement. Marxism eats its own. They eat their own. Those who bring the organization to power are a threat to the new order. The rule of law goes out the window. With a defund the police attitude and remake the Constitution, this is an anarchy that will create a vacuum; and that is what they want. They will never reach the goals that they have. The plan of God can always be trusted completely. His plan never changes; and God is always faithful to His plan. God uses people and He uses client nations; and he uses those with Bible doctrine.

This world filled with old sin natures needs some control; some brakes. God's plan provides all of that. We have the means to overcome the sin nature. As we take on Bible doctrine, we are the closest thing to righteous people in this world. We are the solution because we come closest to God's thinking and plan.

This we can depend upon: Psalm 33:10 The LORD brings the counsel of the nations to nothing; he frustrates the plans of the peoples.

The Groups Opposing God

1. God's plans and purposes are accomplished in spite of the opposition of people and ideological groups who are against Him.
2. Those groups can do nothing but bring misery to the human race. They bring misery to everyone. It is destroying our economy. It destroys the lives of people. It is changing the face of the United States as a client nation; it is changing us into a nation of miserable people.
3. But the counsel of the Lord is forever and it is ultimately defeat and crush them. It does not mean what you think it does.
4. Their intentions always go awry. Smart people think of these things. Their system is flawed inherently. They are anti God and anti establishment. They mock God and they mock churches. They are not heard to mock Islam but they do mock Christianity. Those evil people mock God and their evil will be turned back on them.

What is the counsel of the Lord. To make His plan stand against the cosmic system, what does God do? The first word is counsel; it means, counsel, plan, advice. Bobby likes advice because we can reject it. God's Word is not ever wrong; but we can choose to reject it. That is not a good idea....but we have free will. When the Lord offers advice, we may not take it. When the Lord gives advice, it should be taken. When the Lord counsels us, He gives us the wisdom that we need. To ignore His wisdom is to fall into the hand of humanism.

The second word plan is machesaba, which means purposes, plans, intentions.

הבִּשְׁבֵּת מַחֲשָׁבָה machăshâbâh macha'shebeth makh-ash-aw-baw', makh-ash-eh'-beth

Machăshâbâh

1. Machasaba is the intentions of God's plan. Here's My goal and intent.
2. Any advice comes from the Word.
3. His thinking comes from divine revelation. How God thinks comes to us through the Scripture. Any departure from the Biblical revelation of God's thinking will always fall into humanism. We see churches today which support Marxism. They do not have the intent or advice of God in their souls.
4. The Bible defines God's intent for us and the nation. That is contained in what we are studying.

The word heart is a key word here. It is God's plan. The plans of God's heart stopped Bobby short.

The Plans of God's Heart

1. Leb is the word for heart. This refers to the inner person. This is especially true when it relates to people.
2. In referring to God, leb encompasses that plan which comes from Him to us. God is providing His thinking. His heart is what He wants to communicate to us. What we have here is straight from the heart of God.
3. In referring to believers, this refers to the immaterial part of the person. The human spirit is what we lost at the fall. This metabolizes and applies doctrine in the human spirit. It is transferred to the soul. That metabolizing comes only to the trichotomus believer.
4. Therefore, the advice and intents of the Lord comes directly from His heart; His thinking. That is what we can think of as the inner person of God.
5. God reveals Himself; He reveals His intentions. No one has given you. We as believers understand it and comply with it. Based upon the understanding that we have of His plan from the Bible. See how this all fits together? We are provided direction and understanding from vv. 10 and 11.

6. Practical wisdom; it is revealed by Him for our understanding. We cannot forget what God does. God works. He works out His plan for us. God works His plan to defeat the cosmic system; He works out His plans for us; He works circumstances, He works our lives; He works adversity; He works for us and He advises us. Ultimately, He defeats the enemy, even ANTIFA and Black Lives Matter. That should be a comfort to us in times like these. This is for our comfort and encouragement. We are assembled to receive the advice of the Lord and His intentions for this world.

Psalm 33:11 [The counsel \[or, advice\] of the LORD stands forever, the plans of his heart to all generations.](#)

What Bobby would like to do, since we are speaking of practical wisdom, he is going to take a detour to another passage which emphasizes the importance of wisdom in our souls; the importance of following the advice and intentions of the Lord. This is so that we can understand the world of humanism and how we can combat it. We will study God's thinking and we will study Proverbs 8, the defining and commendation of God's wisdom to us.

What Can We Say about this Chapter?

1. Wisdom is taking on the characteristics of a person.
2. Wisdom is personified.
3. Wisdom is God's advice and His intents.
4. It should be displayed and metabolized by us.

Bobby wants to hand to us v. 1:

Prov 8:1 Does not wisdom call? Does not understanding raise her voice?

Wisdom calls to us like the seductive voice of a woman. The advice and intent of our God.

Lesson #0117

Proverbs 8 Wisdom in the OT

7/23/2020 Thursday

Some blowback from the stuff that Bobby has been teaching. Black Lives Matter comments; he has used these organizations to teach what the Bible teaches. Bobby taught the solution to racism and to all problems. Marxism stands in opposition to divine establishment.

The teaching over the internet has a wider audience. Solution to racism is spiritual. Bobby is not going to back down on what he is teaching.

Bobby knows who he will vote for, but he is not campaigning for any candidate, from president on down.

Where truth is taught, there will be opposition.

Psalms 33 we are studying the advice and intent of the heart. These are anthropomorphisms mixed with anthropopathism. The intents of His heart is divine wisdom.

Instruction for believers in a client nation. All of these things are true of divine wisdom.

We are going to stop at v. 11 and go to Prov. 8. Wisdom is being personified. Wisdom is presented as a woman. She calls to us, as a person wanting to get the attention of us.

Prov. 8:1 Does wisdom not call? And understanding give forth her voice?

The Call of Wisdom

1. In this call, it is as if God Himself is making the appeal. Think of this as a siren from Greek literature.
2. The call is the very voice of God that comes from His Word. This is why Bobby began to teach wisdom literature. We know who we are and what wisdom truly is. Such foolishness alive and well.
3. His Word, full of, His wisdom, is the voice which cries out to us. That voice brings recognition of what we need, what our actions are, what comes from the heart of God is His intent and advice. This includes all of us, male female, slave or free. Race is a big issue when there is no divine establishment. What is going on in our country is divide and conquer; under the guise of somehow bringing us together.
4. Wisdom that calls is the Hebrew noun chomah. This wisdom literature is filled with this word.
5. This word means doctrine; absolute wisdom from God.
6. It can also encompass divine establishment wisdom. We must include the wisdom that we find as practical wisdom.
7. Establishment wisdom is valid for all mankind. That is why it is valid for the client nation. It is designed for the nation and the peoples.
8. Divine establishment is manifested in the rule of law and in the divine institutions. The rule of law is being challenged like never before. 55 days of challenge to law and order in Portland. Those who are to be protecting are aiding and abetting. We are not ruled by the Mosaic Law; but the principle is the rule of law for nations. That is a part of the divine institutions. It is important; God has ordained rulers. How blessed is the person who finds wisdom and the person who gains understanding. How can we be blessed with divine establishment values.

We have operated under divine establishment in the United States for a few hundred years.

Wisdom of Solomon in Ruling over Israel

1. Solomon addressed this to the nation over which he ruled.

2. They were governed by Solomon, but Solomon was wise; and the rule of law was in effect. God was upset with Israel asking for a king, because there would be a problem with corruption and corruption of the Mosaic Law.
3. This wisdom is an objective of the life of all mankind. To have and to use wisdom in this divine form always includes divine establishment for all mankind and doctrine for the believer in Jesus Christ.

Humanism is the antithesis of true understanding of life. Relative wisdom to perverse thinking of Marxism and socialism. Satan is the perverse one. Secular humanism is opposed to divine wisdom. Luke 11:38 Blessed are those who hear the Word of God and hear it and obey it. Jesus often quoted from the Old Testament, which is a certain indicator that the Old Testament is inspired. The Word of God is the Old Testament. It is published by the authors of the Old Testament. What does the Word of God do? It calls to us. When we put all of this together, Jesus calls to us.

What Is the Word That We Hear and Heed?

1. The Word of God is everything which proceeds from the mouth of God; or from the heart of God. God's heart represents God's plan for us. Something that we can understand. From this comes His plan.
2. God's Word is found in the Bible. In the Old Testament, it was found in different ways, from prophets. Moses wrote what happened in primordial time. Today, we do not have that method. Matt. 4:4
3. The Word of God is our divine wisdom. The Lord's thinking is wisdom, from which comes the understanding that we need to live the spiritual life. Without it, we have no understanding. That is why wisdom calls to us. We understand it; we gain understanding.
4. To know the principles of divine establishment must be reflected in the client nation; which is also wisdom. As believers, we are the pivot of the client nation; as goes the pivot, so goes the client nation. In the history of our own nation, many of the writers at the Constitutional convention were believers. They argued; but the document that they came up with is divine wisdom. What proceeds from the mouth of God is the very thinking of God.

What we gain by divine wisdom is reflected in what we say and do. It is always dangerous to blurt out words without thinking. Especially when we hear something only in part. You need to hear the whole presentation; the big picture. When we don't have all the info, then we react in humanist terms.

Application of Bible Doctrine

1. God's thinking applied
2. Hearing and heeding God's call is growing through the academic study of Bible doctrine as it is metabolized in our souls.

3. You cannot do that unless you have the wise thoughts from the heart of God. That is why Bobby is teaching Prov. 8. You need these wise thoughts. This thinking is express with words.
4. We express in thought application and our ad5ions
5. We have a sin nature and we can react. When wisdom is inculcated in our souls, we develop spiritual growth. This is the basis for all spiritual activity. As it calls to you, you must heed it.

How can we face the world without divine wisdom? How can we live in the world and serve the Lord without divine wisdom. It is not possible. We cannot face the fools of this world, the activities of secular humanism without heeding the call of divine wisdom. This is why Bobby taught about Marxism and their teaching. They are fools, but we cannot move forward and answer them without divine wisdom. The application of doctrine is for our spiritual life. It springs the resources of God's heart right to us. What does divine establishment do? It is the application for the world at large.

Divine wisdom is necessary for us to survive in this world. These principles were common in this country at one time. They believed in the Constitution; they believe in marriage, a mother and father.

Our nation is disassembling today; divine wisdom is disappearing in our national life. It is only alive and active in certain churches.

Establishment Wisdom in a Client Nation

1. Establishment wisdom must be applied by a pivot of maturing believers. We should be doing this every time we watch today. We have a relaxed mental attitude and we apply Bible doctrine for ourselves. Divine establishment can be applied by believers or unbelievers with discernment.
2. From this comes divine blessing. Every client nation is ruled by law. Rome had laws and it was ruled by laws. It was held together by the rules of law; and when the rules broke down, Rome broke down.
3. In a client nation you have maximum freedom; and this is attacked from within and without.
4. When doctrine is suppressed, Christianity can be at its best. It became the religion of Rome. The gospel of Jesus Christ overcomes anything.
5. Divine establishment, the rule of law, and the unbeliever heeding its call, is part of the function of a client nation.
6. Part of the impact of the church is divine establishment and Christianity in the nation. We as believers adhere to divine establishment.
7. When legalism and syncredcism with humanism creeps in, especially into the church, the impact on the church, and society is lost. Leaders are siding with the lawless and they are not even siding with their own citizens. Wisdom of divine establishment coupled with a belief in divine providence is reflected by the Constitution of the United States, greater than almost any document that was written.

There is certainly injustice in the rule of law. Laws are not perfect because of the people who administer and enforce these laws. Where you find anarchy and lack of law, you have abject poverty, tyranny, no control over much of the country, all sorts of violence without any constraints. The nation of Cameroon had a very strong movement in the gospel and in Bible doctrine. It is in the middle of a civil war and there are no restraints. In the church founded by Mueller, they people are in hiding. There is the rule of the strongest. No freedom now. That is happening all over the world.

The Constitution

1. The constitution is under severe attack today.
2. Our court system and Constitution must be eradicated by the far left; they want to tear down these institutions. They must be removed. For what? This will not solve any problem; it will devolve into injustice and racism.
3. The objective is to undermine establishment wisdom and Bible doctrine. For what a undermines divine establishment wisdom. This is flawed wisdom.
4. Suppressed freedoms to those who stand against them. If you believe and stand against them; they claim the Bible is hate speech.
5. In this way, the far left, the anti divine establishment people subjugate an entire society for what? They impose their own brand of tyranny and bad government. Revolution is the history of bringing in bad government. They remove bad government; but replace it with worse government. God's wisdom. Divine establishment stands in stark contrast to Marxism. These are not talking points. The believer with the power of divine wisdom has the tools to defeat this cosmic system attack. That is why we must heed the call of wisdom now.

The inroads of humanism and the strength it is gathering; and the unrest that we see in the streets of our country; and the weakness of leaders today. They are so dumb, they support lawlessness when they are elected to uphold the law. They still close down churches, but encourage revolution in the streets.

Lesson #0118

Proverbs 8 Wisdom in the OT

7/27/2020 Sunday

People show their colors insofar as Bible doctrine is concerned. Some are distracted by what Bobby has said about ANTIFA and Black Lives Matter; scorching letters about masks in Berachah Church. These letters just reveal wrong priorities. There is no race; no gender; the solution is in our souls.

A detour from Psalm 33. Going into Prov. 8. A cortical chapter for understanding wisdom.

Prov. 8:1 Does wisdom not call? And understanding give forth her voice?

We need wisdom and we need understanding. Wisdom is personified in Prov. 8. This leads us back to God. This leads us back to the mind of Christ; these are words synonymous with wisdom. We study the concentrated practical use of Bible doctrine. This call is as if God Himself is making the appeal. His voice is found in His Word. The Bible is all wisdom and it all calls out to us. Divine establishment wisdom for unbelievers is found as well.

Divine wisdom is the highest attribute that the believer can attain. When we assimilate wisdom into our soul, it is fundamental to the Christian life. There is a sense of urgency in the tone of this verse. There is a great need for wisdom today. Missions and pro-semitism are all declining. Wisdom is the only means of overcoming the cosmic system and all that surrounds it. That is our weapon; and to have a relaxed mental attitude under the pressure. Divine wisdom provides answers to the most difficult questions of life. We understand evil. It is the only means to face evil.

The ubiquitous nature of wisdom. It calls to us if we avail ourselves. It cries out in many places. It imposes itself on our consciousness. Wisdom calls out; but where wisdom is heard, opposition is attracted. Secular humanism; and there will be violence, hatred and injustice.

Wisdom is not a shy and retiring flower.

Prov. 8:2 At the head of high places by the way, || She has stood between the paths,

Prov. 8:3 At the side of the gates, at the mouth of the city, || The entrance of the openings, she cries aloud,

Prov. 8:4 “To you, O men, I call, || And my voice [is] to the sons of men.

What does man do with wisdom.

Wisdom Cannot Be Suppressed

1. Wisdom cannot be suppressed. There are attempts being made to stop wisdom. It goes through the airways. It goes through the internet; and it is to be heard.
2. Wisdom calls from the many places, the high places, the seats of commerce. The opposition also calls.
3. Her voice was heard on Mount Sinai. The rule of Law was given by God; foundational to nationalism. Jesus quoted the Old Testament many times.
4. Wisdom is proclaimed in the paths; the intersections of the world. Again, a reference to a client nation. What is the duty of any client nation. To proclaim wisdom at the crossroads of the world.
5. It is heard by the gates. These are the forums of the cities where all enter.
6. In other words, it calls where many people gather; whether they settle legal disputes by the rule of law; wisdom calls there.

7. It calls where people plan for economic well being; the economics of freedom. Socialism is the siren call of evil; it is the call to enslavement.
8. Wisdom calls where the proper...used to be the halls of government had plenty of wisdom. Wisdom is being rejected.
9. Anywhere wisdom can be spoken, it must be spoken; it must be believed and accepted. The client nation is at stake.
10. This is the duty of the client nation; to make wisdom heard, both foreign and domestic. Wisdom is being heard in some churches. The fact is, when wisdom goes out over the internet, it reaches many more people. Wisdom must go out; and it is needed everywhere. It is reaching foreign countries. 4000 hits for every class. Bobby simply presents it, as are others.
11. Only in this way will human viewpoint be nullified. It will be brought to nothing only through God's Word. According to Psalm 33, brought to nothing.

If wisdom is proclaimed but ignored; and it will result in discipline.

Prov. 8:2 At the head of high places by the way, || She has stood between the paths,

Prov. 8:3 At the side of the gates, at the mouth of the city, || The entrance of the openings, she cries aloud,...

This is where wisdom is heard. Wherever people gather, for the purpose of hearing wisdom; if the truth is taught, it always calls. If it is not being taught as the pure Word of God. If not taught as a whole, it will be synthesized with humanism. It will be diluted and neutralized. Many churches have departed from the Scriptures. Some churches support causes of humanism. Wisdom must not be hidden. When divine wisdom is removed from public places, from public places, then the client nation has failed. Divine establishment is rejected by the nation; and Bible doctrine by the churches. What do people do with divine wisdom; do they listen or do they not?

The more that secular humanism rears its head; the more it gets ugly. Bobby prays daily that beauty be recognized by America. We are seeing the inroads of secular humanism. This is why wisdom is portrayed as a woman's voice. Irresistible to the positive believer. Beauty or the beast.

Divine Wisdom and the Cosmic System

1. Listening to the voice of God's advice promotes divine wisdom in this ugly, sinful humanistic world.
2. Divine wisdom is the only counter to Satan's falsehoods; and they are everywhere. To his temptations; to his deceptions. The more muddled people's thinking the more he likes it. Utopian fantasies. Satan does not see himself as evil. He has an objective, to be like the Most High. That entails ruling a world that he cannot ever produce; a utopian world which he cannot produce.
3. His wisdom is never equal to God's.

4. His counterfeit wisdom is always relative. It is exercised while ignoring God's wise advice.
5. There is nothing absolute in Satan's systems. His standards constantly shift. They shift or they are the production of culture and societal norms. He promotes the shifting. He can only react to the evil that people do. He tries to produce good; he has to adjust, to keep shifting. Without divine wisdom, shifting sands.
6. He must adjust his plans to meet the flaws of the human race. These are flaws that Satan has as well. For all of his power and ability, that is his inadequacy. He cannot produce what he wants to produce. Any more than any manmade wisdom can produce any true good.
7. Satan is the corrupt leading the corrupt; he is evil perpetrating evil. He is evil because he rejects God and God's wisdom. He is the deceiver calling out with lies. Whatever Satan presents, when it is opposed to divine wisdom, it is a lie.
8. Satan and his cosmic system and humanism can only initiate resistance to divine wisdom. Like the call to resist when the president took office. It is all Satan can do. Revolution is resistance to divine wisdom.
9. Satan cannot stand against the absolute eternal truth of divine wisdom. Where wisdom takes its stand, he cannot stand.
10. This is why wisdom is our weapon. It is a weapon against Satan and secular humanism. From generation to generation. Eternal; and wisdom never stops calling.
11. Wisdom is our never-failing defense in the midst of secular humanist attacks. Otherwise we are deceived and hoodwinked. So we attach ourselves to humanistic answers. They seem to be good with good objectives. They break down because they are corrupted with cosmic system thinking.

Wisdom opens up at street level. It originates from above. It operates down here where we live. Will it be heard, will it be believed, and will it be used? We need wisdom; we need the rule of law.

Who administers law? Corrupt people. The law when followed is divinely ordained for mankind's continued existence, order and ability to live in peace. Anarchy does not do this nor does socialism. The rule of law works even when there are some injustices. Israel broke the law, they violated the law, they forgot divine wisdom. God brings to nothing the people who oppose Him. How tragic is this fall.

Adversity is always an opportunity for us to serve the Lord to a greater extent than before. We need to recognize our opportunity. We can proclaim wisdom at the crossroads. Even if it is only the way that you live your life. The maturing and mature spiritual life. It is a life of discernment, without confusion, with absolute truth. Some people cannot stand the truth of divine wisdom. It conflicts with their own ideas. It conflicts with what they want to believe, or with their political views; or we are not doing enough to turn the tide. They miss the sure defense and the absolute truth of divine wisdom in the souls of those who use it.

This is the basic aspect of God's plan from generation to generation. People and nations reject divine wisdom for secular humanism. Or counterfeit doctrine; or utopian schemes like socialism. God's plan will not be denied. His purposes will be fulfilled in history and in time. Dviw cannot be denied or defeated. The cosmic system cannot win.

There will be very difficult times for the future. We can have confidence even in a time of national degeneration; wisdom is still on our side. The plans and intents of His heart from generation to generation.

Prov. 8:4 "To you, O men, I call, || And my voice [is] to the sons of men.

We will visit the wisdom solutions in future verses.

Lesson #0119                      Proverbs 8 Wisdom in the OT    7/30/2020 Wednesday

Bobby was thinking about what he has been teaching and protection for believers in times in adversity. There has certainly been protection for our church and congregation. We look at churches being torched; people being bent on destruction. The city of Houston has been very lightly touched by any of these problems. Thereto is the protection of the Lord. Continued prayer for those things is certainly in order.

Bobby received a bulletin from someone. Kansas City Conference next week. Different venue there.

Wisdom cries out everywhere, all over the place, in public places; to be heard; and it will be heard. One of the most important things for citizens of this nation.

We will cover all the verses of this chapter, but not in the same depth as we normally do.

Prov. 8:5 Understand, you simple ones [O, naive ones], prudence, || And you fools, understand the heart,...

There are really dumb people in the streets of America today. They think that they are doing something good for the country in this destruction. They are naive; they have no divine wisdom.

Prov. 8:6 Listen, for I [wisdom] speak noble things, || And the opening of my lips [is] uprightness.

Those things directly from God are noble thing.

Personification of wisdom is the opening of the lips.

Bobby has made it very clear of the types of secular humanism; despite people being concerned about their pet organizations.

They must hear it. They must understand it. Without divine wisdom, we are only left with humanism. This invitation of wisdom is to gain prudence. Understand; use discernment against humanistic schemes.

Do those rioting, looting, and attacking police officers, do they have divine viewpoint wisdom? Are they operating on truth? Is what they are doing the solution to racism? Apart from divine wisdom, there is no solution to racism. It will stay with us just like poverty will stay with us. People hate in this world, and sometimes it is only about skin color. Overturning the rule of law is not going to solve any racial problems. The only solution to these problems is hearing and believing divine wisdom.

Bobby began this study before any of these problems; but it seems to be rather timely.

Gal. 3:28 is the unifying factor. We are all one in Christ; and it does not matter what our status is. We have no excuse for racism in our soul. That is not a part of our Christianity; never has been. We should be the most tolerant, even if we do not agree with them.

Human problems are solved by spiritual means. This is the real solution.

Is individual freedom, a divine institution,...

Freedom and Equality

1. Supposition that humanism and freedom can be balanced.
2. Freedom always ends up with inequality.
3. Why is this true? Inequality is based upon personal free decisions. We decide our status in life. I am handicapped for this or that reason.
4. We are personally responsible for who we are in life; based upon our choices. More opportunity and choices in the United States. People still make bad decisions. And they still want to blame others for their state in life.
5. If we are truly free, then we are free to make decisions which set us apart from each other. It is not because of race and gender; it is about decisions.
6. There are other factors involved. Environment, circumstances, other people.
7. Ultimately, free decisions to overcome obstacles or environment or the effects of racism or gender discrimination. You do not have to succumb to those problems. Good decisions lead to opportunity. Too many women in this country get pregnant in their teens. They have just limited their options. The homes in this nation are so split; so divided. Children do not have parents; they have gangs. Our choices do determine things. We can deal with environment. How many people have overcome these various circumstances? They make good decisions. First good decision is to believe on the Lord Jesus Christ. Then adversity is just an opportunity. Isn't that what we are looking for? These are opportunities to grow spiritually.
8. The choices we make determine the life that we lead; and the way that we deal with adversity.

Some will succeed in this life, and some will fail; some are successful and some are less so. There will be economic and certain statuses. No one factor, including adversity, racism or failure determines the outcome of one's life...especially not in this country. Wisdom and problem solving devices allow us to make good choices. Whether you live in a double wide or a mansion. Not things, not your bank account; it is what you have in your soul. What is in the souls of the people in this nation.

Equality

1. To consider equality, to achieve some form of equality, this demands submission, even enslavement to an economic system such as socialism.
2. There are those in power who will make collective decisions for us.
3. Collective decisions is a basic tenet of socialism. This is a collective ideal.
4. Individual choices to determine the course of our lives are severely limited. The government takes care of us and makes our choices for us.

Why Socialism Does Not Work

1. Equality is not achievable.
2. This small group making decisions for everyone. They are as flawed as the ones for whom they are making decisions. They remove opportunity for personal improvement and personal advancement.
3. With a mandated economic system—not capitalism—like Marxism, which is an economic system. So it is called Marxist socialism. It mandates social equality. How do they do this? Exorbitant taxation without representation, no rule of law, social justice,...
4. Under those conditions, the loss of freedom is inevitable. Like frogs thrown into a pan of cold water slowing heating up to boil us.
5. That attempt at equality must be forced and enforced by a tyrannical government. It must become tyrannical; it must mandate.
6. There is never equality in tyranny or in anarchy.

Application of Marxism

1. Humanistic Marxist socialism. Marxism says that religion is the opiate of the people. So Marxism wants to get rid of religion. Many of these organizations are self-proclaimed Marxists. Bobby points these out as the antithesis of divine establishment. They are the enemy of the believer. They are the epitome of the cosmic system. We should recognize the ideologies of the cosmic system today. These are illustrations; perfect illustrations.
2. Neither equality or even a modicum of freedom is attainable under Marxist socialism. A forced equality is preferable to succeeding or failing. Everyone will have equal wealth; equal things in life; everyone will have cars that are the same. In east Germany, they all had a car, made of particle board, and it smoked like crazy and if you hit it, it shattered. Equality under those conditions is poverty.

There is no opportunity. When the wall came down, there was a picture of a particle board traub in a dumpster, "Traub's last trip."

3. Socialism never produces equality; nor social justice, nor equal wealth. It produces exorbitant taxation and intimidation in order to work. It is a pipedream of utopian fantasy.

Some will succeed in this life, and some will fail; some are successful and some are less so. There will be economic and certain statuses. No one factor, including adversity, racism or failure determines the outcome of one's life...especially not in this country. Wisdom and problem solving devices allow us to make good choices. Whether you live in a double wide or a mansion. Not things, not your bank account; it is what you have in your soul. What is in the souls of the people in this nation.

Examples of Socialism

1. The only equality in socialism is an equality of poverty. Economic, social and spiritual. They are anti-Christ and anti-God. Except for the ruling class.
2. There is no middle class; no social mobility. It can only be in the hierarchy of the ruling class; the party members; those who are in power; those who tow the party line, the ideologues.
3. Socialism replaces freedom with the collective will of the people. That is their watchword. Not democracy; there are no votes in this.
4. The will of the people as determined by a few people in the ruling class. Called the poletbureau in Russia; the committee in China, a petty ruler in Venezuela.
5. People become dependent upon the government to achieve their collective will. It is what they want for you as a society. This violates the first divine institution. Christianity is persecuted under Marxism.
6. In other words, the unjust humanist enforces social justice instead of the rule of law. Marxism is not the rule of law, but the rule of a small group.
7. Social justice is, be definition, injustice. It favors one group over another. In Marxism, it favors the Marxists. There will be little or not individual freedom to decide the course of your life under the guise of what is best for everyone. ANTIFA and Black Lives Matter are Marxists. People see the surface of these organizations only; or their lies.

ANTIFA and Black Lives Matter only guarantee a loss of opportunity and a loss of advancement. Our advancement is under the decision of the leaders only. We had a socialist candidate and he did well.

Another question, is combating racism through power politics; is it more important than preaching the gospel of Jesus Christ? More important than believers being one in Christ. But Christian activists today are examples of imposing a collective will upon freedom. Salvation is the only lasting solution. We are one in Christ. These organizations are opposed to us as Christians. A power grab through anarchy and violence does not solve any problems.

False Solutions

1. Racism is not solved by reverse racism; or by destroying property, businesses, lives, fighting the police in the streets or by erasing the past.
2. You cannot solve racism by intimidating an entire population into submission.
3. Or a futile attempt to provide equal results for all. Bobby saw the attempt at equal results. It impoverishes.
4. What is going on to cure racism will divide the races more and more.
5. When combating racism is used as a reason to grab power, and we see that as power politics, the problem is exacerbated, not solved.
6. That is the futility of humanistic ideology.
7. Freedom provides equality of opportunity; socialism attempts equality of results that can never happen. Nor can it end any evil in this world. Humanism does not take into account our sin natures, so it cannot solve evil.

Rule of law and equal opportunity provides freedom. The best that can be provided is the rule of law under divine establishment. Equality of results cannot be done. We understand the only thing which truly deals with the problems in life, is spiritual advancement. It is solved in the soul. It is an individual thing.

The first divine institution demands freedom, the use of volition by every person. Our first allegiance is to the Lord Jesus Christ. This does not mean that we can defy the government. Bobby will never comply with, "You cannot teach doctrine any more." No one can take away what is in your soul. Bible doctrine is your life. Your spiritual life is what you live by and live for. You cannot abdicate that in the face of persecution.

Lesson #0120

Proverbs 8 Wisdom in the OT

7/31/2020 Thursday

Prov. 8:5 Understand, you simple ones [O, naive ones], prudence, || And you fools, understand the heart,

Fools or naive ones are those who abide by human viewpoint. If you are an unbeliever, unaware of divine establishment, then you are a fool. The fool has said in his heart, there is no God. Believers who are fools reject the spiritual life. This generally refers to the atheists and agnostics.

Bobby is teaching contemporary events as related to Scriptures.

Prov. 8:6 Listen, for I speak noble things, || And the opening of my lips [is] uprightness.

Bobby has gotten criticism for what he has been teaching. Bobby is addressing current events and current organizations and ideologies that exclude God, that propose societal changes through revolution and violence; which are anti-Christian to the core.

Bobby has stepped on a few toes and on a few emotions.

Bobby is going to give an example of why his is teaching.

Two men who are polar opposites who live in London in the mid-1800's: Karl Marx and Charles Haddon Spurgeon. They live in the same city at the same time; one lived north and one lived south. At that time, revolution was in the air, in the mid-19th century. There were special conditions at that time. Child-labor laws were in their infancy. Revolution was in the air. Marx taught salvation by revolution and it gained resonance. Pure humanism. 1848 communism abolishes eternal truth; it abolishes all religions. Spurgeon's teaching was the exact opposite.

There can be no societal regeneration without spiritual regeneration. Marx was one of the most evil men who has ever lived; and still affecting us to this day. It would be wrong to say that addressing matters of society falls outside of the purview of the pastor. Spurgeon stuck his nose into the events of society. Christianity is not an accessory to a man's life; but it should define it. A man's politics are the outward manifestations of spiritual information in the soul.

Socialism is our enemy; it is far more than an economic question; it is a spiritual question. It is atheism masquerading as an ideology of fools who say there is no God.

He was speaking before thousands of people at age 23. A great man of the Word; and Bobby did a paper on him. In 1855 he warned of communists who wanted nothing more than a complete change of society. In the post 1871 period of his ministry when he spoke more and more about socialism. He taught Isa. 66 and he used the events of the day to punctuate his teaching. Many had confused the gospel of Jesus Christ with the cheap secular knock off of Marx and his ilk. By the grand old truth of the gospel, sinners are saved; and people are made to know that there is a God. These are two antiquated for the present race of humanists.

Socialists want to change society. Do not be naive, warn the Scriptures. Bobby's objective is so that we will not be naive. His teaching should influence how we think politically; but he is giving information so that we can make our own choices.

Vv. 5 and 6 are the opening content of the call of wisdom. Wisdom will be heard, anywhere and everywhere that people are. Spurgeon exposed false teaching of Marx. They probably never met, but they knew of each other.

Wisdom takes a stance.

Prov. 8:1 Does wisdom not call? And understanding give forth her voice?

Prov. 8:2 At the head of high places by the way, || She has stood between the paths,

Prov. 8:3 At the side of the gates, at the mouth of the city, || The entrance of the openings, she cries aloud,

Prov. 8:4 "To you, O men, I call, || And my voice [is] to the sons of men.

Wisdom Demands to Be Heard

1. Wisdom demands because she is correct.
2. Divine wisdom is never wrong, never misguided, never confused.
3. It is not contradictory and it is not hypocritical (like humanism).
4. Bible doctrine does not have a humanistic agenda, which is fallible, with an agenda, and it is untrustworthy. Relative.
5. Wisdom does not require tyranny to enforce like humanist ideology. Wisdom emphasizes volition and choice. Marxism requires tyranny.
6. Best of all, divine wisdom is the thinking and the laws of God. That is what makes it perfect. It reflects the noble attributes of righteousness, justice and love. These are at the heart of the Angelic Conflict. Free decisions allow people to decide for or against the gospel.

Truth and Wisdom and What it Reveals

1. The truth of wisdom reveals evil; and evil reveals the truth of wisdom. Wisdom reveals evil and counters it in the souls of believers. As go believers, so goes society.
2. Doctrine never encourages humanism; it opposes it. Those Christians who side with Marxism show a lack of wisdom. Christian activism is a lack of wisdom.
3. Humanism is anti-God activity; to wit the cities of America being torched.
4. Recognizing evil is why divine wisdom is so important. This is practical for believers to live in this world.
5. So much of this evil comes from the cosmic system in very subtle ways because it derives from the great deceiver himself, Satan. Things that you hear can be very subtle. Black Lives Matters is Marxist; but they are deceptive.
6. On the surface, humanism sounds very inviting.
7. Underneath, it perpetrates the objectives of Satan's cosmic system. We need to understand the enemy.
8. To overthrow what God has ordained for the survival, the order and the freedom of the human race.

The first divine institution highlights the inequality that results from the exercise of free will. People make decisions and these decisions make us unequal. No amount of Christian activism which excludes Bible doctrine and divine establishment can change the fundamental nature of the human heart.

What Bible doctrine says is excellent and it is always right. Absolute wisdom is something that the secular humanist is woefully lacking. No absolute wisdom in humanism. The result of that is obvious, in boardrooms and in Congress. Their ideas for solving injustice with more injustice. Wanted government mandated equality, which demands that government see people differently.

Destroys freedom and equal opportunity. The rule of law is supplanted by social justice, political correctness, high taxation, socialism. The astounding one to Bobby is, the police are to be abolished or defunded. Their wisdom is a utopian model of the goodness of man. Police provide enforcement for the rule of law. The police uphold law, not anarchy. Defunding police is anti-establishment. Bobby has yet to hear a good alternative to the police. The Marxist love this because it creates a vacuum of power. They will move in with their own enforcement. Animosity between races and genders is antithetical to Christianity. The Christian doctrine that we are all one in Christ. We are all sinners; we are depraved. The human race cannot perfect or save the human race. Jesus Christ saved man;

Marxism is an atheist religion. Satan must replace Christ and Bible doctrine. He must replace divine establishment with his own schemes and his own people.

Prov. 8:7 For my mouth utters truth, || And wickedness [is] an abomination to my lips.

Divine Wisdom Versus Relative Humanism

1. Divine wisdom is always reliable. No person on earth is always reliable. Someway we all disappoint; we all fall short; we lie, we cheat. That is the human race. Divine truth is always reliable.
2. Truth is immutable and always dependable in promoting divine establishment and divine institutions for a nation; and doctrine faith rest believers.
3. The speaking of wisdom reflects a detesting of wickedness. If Bobby speaks doctrine to us, it must detest wickedness. Bobby therefore defines wickedness of this generation and his detesting of it. Would that more today would speak truth and not propaganda. Politicians are actually supporting the violence on the streets. Revolution is antithetical to the rule of law.

Some churches are teaching socialism. Bobby is not giving us the green light for Christian activism. Let's end racism, let's end poverty; but this is not what is going to happen.

We observe this evil in so many areas today.

Naming the Areas

1. Economists who promote socialism over capitalism. One allows you the freedom to succeed or fail.
2. Schools that teach hate for the United States; depicting the United States is an oppressive nation. The claim that we are affluent because we are oppressive. Thoroughly a Marxist principle.
3. A government which ignores criminality. Theft, violence in the name of the imposition of change. It is all justified in order to change society. Spurgeon: Nothing changes in this world unless it is a spiritual change;
4. Courts that look the other way when it comes to lawlessness. Instead mandating social justice, but without the laws to back their decisions. Humanism versus divine establishment. Bobby knows that people are fallible; and that they are some things which

5. Those who detest police as the epitome of racism, is evil.
6. Politicians who seek to promote untruths in order to gain power; power politics.
7. Confused and timid people, even believers, who fear aggression and persecution more than valuing freedom and divine establishment, who will not speak up or stand in solidarity with Biblical truth, because they do not want to be harassed or mocked.
8. Do not forget the many untruths, lies and propaganda perpetuated by the news media and social media. The internet doesn't lie. Christians with little or no doctrine believe the propaganda. They do not have enough wisdom in their souls to identify evil. They find reasons to support things which are evil. This is why Bobby speaks to the current events of our nation. The lord nullifies the plans of the peoples. He frustrates politicians and revolutionaries.

Stay on the right side. God frustrates professors, teachers who promote leftist causes; and lying news media; and all are frustrated by divine wisdom and how God works circumstances in this world for our benefit. This downfall of self-imposed destruction is because of a lack of truth. But in a vacuum without truth, the evil of humanism pours in. We are on that road to the destruction of freedom.

V. 8 continues by describing the beauty of divine wisdom in distinction from humanism.

Lesson #0121

Proverbs 8 Wisdom in the OT

8/2/2020 Sunday

Difficult wearing masks and remaining in fellowship. We can assemble in church. Many churches are only assembling with only 10 people or so. We have a full auditorium because we are wearing masks.

Prov. 8 fits perfectly with Psalm 33.

The beauty of divine wisdom. Bobby has spent a lot of time describing humanism. Marxism is pure humanism. Human solutions for the human race. Marxism is an atheistic system.

Prov. 8:8 All the sayings of my mouth [are] in righteousness, || Nothing in them is contrary and perverse.

There is nothing wrong with wisdom; all of it is true.

Divine Wisdom and Secular Humanism

1. There is no hidden agenda or deception in God's wisdom.
2. Truth and wisdom always reflect God's wisdom. There is no injustice in God. There is a lot of injustice in this world. Humanism of this world is filled with injustice.

3. In contrast, humanism offers nothing but lies, perversion and deceptions and ideologies which cannot
4. Instead, humanism highlights the injustices of the cosmic system that it perpetuates. What are we seeing today? A war against injustice. They justify their war because it is against injustice. That is humanism.
5. Secular humanism proposes pathetic and ineffective attempts to counter injustice in this world. How do they do it? Injustice countering injustice. Social justice is inherently unjust because it favors one group over another. Trying to correct what is perceived to be injustice. You cannot correct injustice with injustice.
6. The results are always more tyranny and injustice. We have revolution in the streets. They are Marxist socialists. Wisdom's words are right and they reflect integrity. The truth of divine wisdom and the practical use of wisdom. God honors the wisdom in our souls as the pivot of mature believers. We as believers must fulfill our charge. God honors the doctrine in our souls; and He does not leave the circumstances of a nation alone. When a client nation becomes corrupt, there is divine discipline. We operate in the same way. Regardless of the circumstances around us. God's plan still marches on for us and we know what the objective is. Being on the side of divine wisdom is being on the winning side. You can choose the losing side and go out there and fight the enemy. Civil war is not a pretty thing. We are already on the winning side.

Prov. 8:8 All the sayings of my mouth [are] in righteousness, || Nothing in them is contrary and perverse.

Divine wisdom is straightforward.

For the believer with doctrine, everything is clear to us. The anger in the streets and the calm of Bible doctrine.

Prov. 8:9 All of them [are] plain to the intelligent, || And upright to those finding knowledge.

We take the doctrine that we learn and we use it. We apply it. This is the plan of God for us. No application means that it is strictly academic. But Bible doctrine is for application. Bobby is making application for us. Bobby is rubbing some people the wrong way because he is not being politically correct. The only opposition to the cosmic system is divine wisdom. How comforting is the lack of confusion in the relative world in which we live.

Application of Wisdom

1. Understanding in the soul from wisdom exposes lies. Lying is the political capital of the world today. But we can understand the truth. We can recognize lies. If we understand the background of what they are saying. When divine establishment is excluded, guarantee that you are hearing lies. You can hear the truth; and it is such a contrast.
2. Every thought and action become trustworthy and ethical when it reflects the understanding of divine wisdom. We all have sin natures. We are not always ethical; we are not always trustworthy. We know what the doctrines say; and we know the difference. Maybe we will apply it and maybe not.

3. Wisdom's teachings are out in plain view. Those who reject divine wisdom still understand what it means. People understand that marriage is between one man and one woman; but they reject it if it does not fit their humanism.
4. Understanding comes to those who have discernment. You understand the issue and you make the right choice. Also, understanding comes to those who gain discrimination. That is very tricky word. Bobby is not talking about discrimination between people or races or classes. This is being able to discriminate between good and evil.
5. Understand wisdom is clarity in a confused world. Wisdom is what we find in the Scriptures.
6. With wisdom, a person does not get bogged down in the fog of relative thinking. Relative thinking is a fog. It changes so much. There is a true fog of war. In relative thinking, it is the same way. People think in ways that rapidly change. It changes with the culture and the culture today changes like lightning. They claim everything is relative so they can change when they need to.

Now the practicality of divine wisdom.

Prov. 8:10 Receive my instruction, and not silver, || And knowledge rather than choice gold.

“Take my instruction, not silver; choose knowledge more than choice gold.” This is the great value of wisdom. Divine wisdom and divine truth is the most valuable commodity than we can receive in this life.

The fallacy of equal outcomes from work.

The analogy. In a classroom where many kids see socialism as the solution. Whether or not you make an A or an F, whatever, you will get a C; come or not. Some will think it is the best thing ever; and others resent it. That is socialism.

The Value of Wisdom

1. Wisdom is more desirable than anything else in life. Jewels, cars, boats, houses, property, your job.
2. Wisdom's value is based upon its incomparable application to everything. That application is where you face confusion and evil in that cosmic system world.
3. Wealth without wisdom will be used foolishly. People who gain wealth without wisdom will lose it.
4. Today we see money, economic well-being and the lust for it. This results in a society of materialism. When God is rejected, like the fools of Psalm 14:1, there is only one other way to go: humanism. When God is rejected, there is only the here and now. That is the problem with a materialistic society.

5. Confused people will do anything to have and keep those material things which they have gained. That is greed.

A socialist government is greedy for your money. Example, increase in taxes in socialist nations. Nations in Europe today are almost all broke. They have taxed their citizens a massive amount; and they give them entitlements that they cannot afford to give. In the United States, businesses are being blackmailed and squeezed to support evil anti-divine establishment organizations. Marxism is what they are. They are a Marxist revolution in the streets of America. Check out their stated objectives online. The nationalization of all corporations and property; socialist nations do that. Years ago Mexico nationalized its oil industry. It has not done well. Venezuela is one of the most oil-rich countries in the world and they cannot do anything with it now. That is not wisdom at all.

American founders fought a real war for freedom. Antifa want to impose their own brand of tyranny on the United States.

Prov. 8:11 For wisdom [is] better than rubies, || Indeed, all delights are not comparable with it.

Prov. 8:12 I, wisdom, have dwelt with prudence, || And I find out a knowledge of purposes.

Prov. 8:13 The fear of YHWH [is] to hate evil; Pride, and arrogance, and an evil way, || And a contrary [perverted] mouth, I have hated.

The fear of the Lord is to hate evil.

We are not to hate the socialists. Wisdom always stands against evil. We don't hate a person, a class or a race. We hate evil wherever it is found.

Prov. 8:14 Counsel and substance [are] mine, || I [am] understanding, I have might.

We have a potential change in power. But a real and lasting power is in the wisdom of the Lord. Respect for Bible doctrine; respect for divine institutions.

So many believers think we need more humanism and more activism. We need to gather into a society of Christians. We need to reach out to the rest of the world. We live in the cosmic system; but we do not hide from it. We stand against it.

The cosmic system always opposes the truth. It is opposed to those who have wisdom.

Prov. 8:13 The fear of YHWH [is] to hate evil; Pride, and arrogance, and an evil way, || And a contrary [perverted] mouth, I have hated.

The word hater is used by the cosmic system to label us. Those who refuse to recognize LGBT as a normal human condition. Those who work hard and succeed, are called privilege. Guilty for working hard. This is not limited to any one race.

Those who believe in nationalism and love their country are called xenophobic. Those who want a strong military are called war mongers. Those who believe in the 2nd amendment. Those who are proud of the flag are called racists and oppression.

If you support a particular candidate, you are a racist, a hater. Bobby has received several letters saying that Trump is evil. If you support the police...if you kneel only to the Lord rather than to Black Lives Matter, they call you racists.

One man stood up; he showed courage. "I only kneel to Jesus Christ."

Christians are called all of these things. As believers, we are threats to the humanists. We are simply believers who apply Bible doctrine and divine establishment principles. That is truth and the practical use of wisdom.

Christians and Jews are God's people. God made promises to David and to Abraham. In the Church Age, believers are God's people. These are the two categories that humanism opposes the most.

Those labels do not describe the hate found in this verse.

Communion Sunday.

This do in remembrance of Me.

We only know about Jesus through the gospels. There were miracles which He performed. The miracles were not designed to awe the crowd, to relieve suffering, but they were designed to engender faith in the Messiah. Everywhere that He traveled, He displayed miraculous powers over illness, nature, birth defects, and even death. He referred to this power as signs. A miracle was a sign. Jesus said, "Unless you see signs and wonders, you will not believe."

There had been many false claims of Messiahship. Jesus had to do what was necessary to convince the people.

The religious leaders rejected Him out of hand, even in the face of obvious identification. Nevertheless, Jesus performed these signs for all, so that it was clear that Messiah had arrived.

John recorded 7 signs proving the Lord's divinity.

The miracle at the wedding of Cana; turning the water into wine. Jewish weddings often lasted several days, depending upon the status of the families involved. Wine was a very important part of the overall hospitality.

Mary, the mother of Jesus, was present at this wedding. John 2:6 Jesus turned about 100 gallons of water to wine. This was not some phony trick. This miracle changed quality; and this was of the finest quality. This was the best wine tasted by any other people. Not a very old vintage. This demonstrated that what Jesus had made was better than what the soil could produce. He did it instantaneously. This manifested His Deity and His complete power over nature. The disciples recognized Him for Who He was and placed their faith in Him.

Jesus withdrew from Judæa when John was imprisoned, and turned away from the religious types. He returned to the common people. He displayed the greatest signs of His messiahship. His healing of the nobleman's son. He was ill to the point of death and Jesus was in Cana but the son was in Capernaum. The nobleman asked for a miracle. John 4:50–53. The very time that Jesus said "Your son lives" and the man believed and his whole household. This was more than a magician or a wizard. Jesus possessed divine power. He was not physically present to heal the boy, but He was still able to do it.

The pool of Bethesda in John 5, and an entirely different reaction. A paralytic there for 38 years. This was a long observed fact and everyone knew all about it. Jesus asked, "Do you want to get well?" Jesus was to get him to focus on the real issue. Without any further ado, "Arise, take up your pallet and walk." He was immediately healed even without exercising faith in Jesus. Nevertheless, he was healed. He did not deserve or earn this healing. The efficacious grace of God in conversion. Also notice, even though there were other ill people at this pool, the paralytic was the only one healed there at the pool. Healing was a sign of divinity and messiahship. This healing took place on the Sabbath day. Instead of being happy for this paralytic, the Jewish religious leaders reprimanded this man for carrying his bed on the Sabbath. Jesus had told him to do so. This was monumental disbelief. Their traditions, ideas and legalism kept them from believing in the clear sign of messiahship. Even in the face of miracles. These men knew the OT and they still said no. They even charged the Messiah with Sabbath-breaking and blasphemy. He broke the Sabbath and Jesus called Himself the Son of God, affirming His equality with God. He is equal in works, in knowledge, in resurrection power, and several others; but, as the Son of Man, He was subordinate to God the Father. His sovereignty of humility.

Feeding of the 5000. Created a great quantity of food out from the 5 loaves and 2 fishes. The cost to feed all of these people would have been a very big deal. This is the full display of the Hypostatic Union of the Lord. He further demonstrates His messianic claims.

Jesus is called a prophet like unto Moses, a further confirmation of His messiahship.

People wanted to install Him as king; and they wanted to forgo the cross. They sought food for their stomachs rather than eternal life.

The fifth sign, walking on the water. The Lord demonstrates complete control of the universe. He separated the land from the waters. The disciples were stunned and frightened seeing Him on the water. Peter wanted to join in, when He knew the Lord. Once Peter was out, he began to focus on the water rather than on the Lord.

The sixth sign, the pharisees spiritual blindness is contrasted with the dynamic faith of a blind man. The blind man knew this was the Messiah. He understood the meaning of the Lord's sign. He said, "Lord, I believe." The pharisees ridiculed the man's faith and arrogantly attacked him. This sign brought faith and disbelief.

The final sign was raising Lazarus from the dead. "Lazarus, come forth" is all it took to bring him back from the dead. The Lord's power over death. Death could not hold the humanity of Jesus or defeat Him.

Any of these signs should have convinced anyone that He was the Son of God. Those were only a fraction and full scope of what Jesus could do.

The most important signs and wonders; His first advent and His resurrection from the grave. Redemption and eternal life. We are here to remember the Lord and to worship Him. The short time it takes to partake of the bread and the cup.

We have been studying practical divine wisdom. We are seeing it in so many forms and so many uses. Divine wisdom always stands against the evil of the cosmic system. Stands against the humanist and the other ideologies; and even the believer who has a lack of wisdom.

All those who oppose the plan of God, either tacitly or explicitly. There is a plan for nations. Legalistic believers who reject Bible doctrine and fail to grow spiritually. The fools who claim that there is no God. They embrace humanist evil. At best, they produce human good, and that ends up in evil. The gospel of humanism; the lies of the cosmic system. What is the attitude of the cosmic system.

Prov. 8:13 The fear of YHWH [is] to hate evil; Pride, and arrogance, and an evil way, || And a contrary [perverted] mouth, I have hated.

Those who love the Lord store doctrine in their souls.

There is the word hatred thrown around today. But what about the idea of hate in v. 13? Does the application of wisdom mean that we hate? Today, we are charged as Christians as haters and the Bible is called hate speech. Some of those in the streets today are filled with hate. They hate the rule of law and divine establishment. They hate the establishment. They are devotees of the cosmic system; they want power and Marxism.

God, Us and Hatred

1. We do not hate people with hostile attitudes or actions. Those in whom we see evil; do we hate those in the streets that we know are wrong? That is incompatible with God's flawless policies.
2. Hate in the Bible is not an emotional reaction or a human prejudice against some race or gender.
3. But, when we understand divine wisdom we do hate.
4. Hate in this verse reflects God's wise policy towards the cosmic system, towards the evil which is mentioned here; toward the opposition to divine establishment.
5. Therefore, this is not hate in the sense of sinful thoughts or actions. That is a mental attitude sins. That is a reaction to someone that you dislike. They have an evil ideology.
6. God's hatred is an anthropathism. His policies towards evil.
7. Like the Lord's hatred, our wise thinking must reflect God's attitude and His policy towards evil. It is not sinful hate.
8. We must heartily disagree with the humanist agenda; we hate the evil involved in our thinking and in our actions; but we do not hate the people who are humanists.

Hatred and the Believer

1. Hate represents our thinking when it is against the cosmic system. What we see in the streets today is a demonstration of cosmic system thinking. We oppose them because of their thinking. We don't go after them with a baseball bat. We oppose them in thinking and we proclaim the gospel and we are to grow spiritually. We bless the nation by association. The evil of socialism and Marxism.
2. We do not hate anyone or any individual. We do not hate individuals with whom we have no affinity or agreement. That is where impersonal love comes in. This is a major important problem solving device. The secular humanist who opposes Christianity and divine institutions, this is a person we oppose. We oppose the thinking, but we do not hate the person.
3. Hate as stated in v. 13 represents standing firm in divine wisdom.
4. Our opposition is based upon divine wisdom and it is called reverence for the Lord; that is the application of Bible doctrine. That contrasts with the evil hatred of wisdom by the humanist. Our opposition is based upon...
5. The policy of hatred by God is set against the pride and the arrogance of those with perverted mouths speaking humanist lies. If we have doctrine in the soul, we recognize these lies. We understand the rule of law; we understand divine institutions; and we oppose it in our soul. We oppose it by growing spiritually and giving the gospel.

6. Jesus opposes evil in this world. This is revealed in our 10 year study of His life. Yet, He died for each and every sinner; even those who reject Him. Even those who hate us. We love the Lord and we apply divine wisdom.

This wisdom is expressed in v. 14:

Prov. 8:14 [Counsel and substance \[are\] mine, || I \[am\] understanding, I have might.](#)

Wisdom is power. A good education is often the opposite of wisdom. Counsel, judgment; together, these things spell power. No humanist can stand against the power and sound wisdom of God. God's policy is anti-evil and it will prevail. It always has. That is our ultimate refuge. We have the power of God. We are here; that is our opposition. We can oppose verbally and by action. Never more have we needed this wisdom in our souls and the power of God in our lives.

The next segment in our chapter develops this in two parts. Historic times in 15–21; then primordial times in vv. 22–

Lesson #0123                      Proverbs 8 Wisdom in the OT    8/12/2020 Wednesday

Bobby is going to read a letter he received from a woman in Seattle, WA. Portland and Seattle are both hot spots for unrest, rioting and looting. She is in the middle of some very difficult times in her area. She is a high school teacher and she tenaciously listens to the video on Berachah's website. As a woman of color, she realizes that her thinking is in opposition to the cosmic system. They depict minorities as victims, and it is all about power. She finds this insulting and demeaning. Her father taught them from lessons from Berachah Church. They were empowered to battle against attacks. Her sisters are nurses; and she is a math teacher. We are not victims, we are not defined by the color of our skin. Victims only when we give in to cosmic system thinking.

She hears about the local police being neutered. As a Christian, the only thing which sustains her is the wisdom of truth. She wishes to have the same sort of congregation. She appreciates Bobby's team so that they can grow.

She gets it that, regardless of race, we are not slave or free, male or female, but one in Christ.

Moving into a new segment of Prov. 8. Historic times and second is primordial times. Law, rulers, wisdom and power.

Prov. 8:15 By me kings reign, and princes decree righteousness,

Prov. 8:16 By me chiefs rule, and nobles, || All judges of earth.

Judging Rightly

1. This includes the rule of law, based up divine establishment.
2. Even principes and nobles, republic and democracy are all governed by divine laws if they are to judge rightly. If they are to provide just laws by which we live in a free nation.
3. Rom. 13 tells us that even government that does not judge rightly carries authority, and that authority is ordained by God. This world; nations cannot exist in anarchy. Even bad government is preferable to anarchy.
4. Government is part of divine institution #4, nationalism.
5. Government was designed by God to uphold the just rule of law. That is God's design for government. The includes upholding freedom in a nation. The loss of the rule of law promotes anarchy and revolution.
6. That is, just laws secure the blessings of liberty, promote the general welfare, provide for the common defense and control crime and corruption. Those are just laws for all of the people. Social justice is not the rule of law. It does ot secure justice for all people. The argument is things were unfair before. Our court system has done the best job possible in dispensing justice. We are in a fallen world and we have sin natures.

The law is not prejudice. Prov. 8:15–16 people in power must use power to govern justly. The rule of law must have content and that content must come from divine establishment. Believers in government also use principles of Bible doctrine and divine establishment, although they do not impose Christianity on others. Laws do not legislate Christianity.

No law can command Christianity. The imposition of laws the legislate religion is an imposition of tyranny, that constitutes church and state. Examples of which are many in world history; in other words, a state religion.

Our nation was found on an escape from persecution by state religion. The church of England and the Catholic did a lot of persecution. The church of England forced the Puritans out of England; state religion attacked them.

Fear of union of church and state has been incorrectly interpreted to exclude Christianity from all public life if possible. The Christian life is an individual life that can have impact in the public arena. The mature believer in government is a blessing for the client nation; and applying it in governance.

Are we losing freedom to worship at this point? We are seeing the beginnings of it. Churches cannot assemble, but others assemble. Casinos in LasVegas can assembled, but churches cannot. A casino allowed a church to convene there; the state did not like it. Bobby does not see the forbidding the church worship; but things are moving rapidly. He must address this information.

As believers, we need to recognize the difference between divine establishment, humanism and the Christian life. We live in a great time in human history. We have the time to utilize the Bible doctrine in our souls. There is nothing else to fall back on. The one single thing that we have which provides us with a relaxed mental attitude and the ability to live through adversity; our objective is to utilize the doctrine that we have.

Divine Establishment in the Client Nation

1. It is clear from the influence of divine establishment and Bible doctrine from that derives good and just government, with the power of God's Word behind it. We see that fact brought to clear focus with what we see taking place today. Divine establishment is thrown out. Bible doctrine is not in the forefront of the churches of America. Do we have good government? Do we have the rule of law? No. The power of the priest nation is fading. We have great power in the face of what is happening around us.
2. From that influence derives blessing to the client nation and to its people. We are being told that we are an oppressive nation. It is not true. This nation has adhered to divine establishment and divine institutions and Bible doctrine in the churches. That is not oppression; that is good government. We have sin natures; but nowhere has there been a more just nation.
3. The client nation is built up this formula: believers growing to spiritual maturity and the rule of law based upon divine establishment. The basis of divine establishment is what we have seen in Israel. Moses was the leader of Israel, but Israel was a client nation and a theocracy. One of the first things that God did; he gave them a set of laws; divine establishment for the nation. There were many other things involved. But the Law was at the forefront. Divine wisdom reflects divine establishment. Wisdom from the Scriptures reflects divine establishment.
4. Anarchy is the end of a client nation. Through divine discipline all the way to the fifth cycle of discipline. Where are we. Bobby has mentioned the 2nd and the 4th. But what about all of the businesses which are put out of business because of rioting and looting. All kinds of pressures, anarchy, confusion; a government in turmoil. Local governments are doing nothing about the rule of law. "Well, these people are owed reparations and they are taking them. The stores are insured, so they are losing nothing." That is garbage. It is theft. The end of a client nation comes when the rule of law is over. The rioting and looting may stop when certain conditions fall into place? Nonsense. You cannot appease criminals. We are allowing anarchy to rule.
5. Marxism is a destruction of a nation. There is a strong push for it.

We will review divine establishment in terms of the first divine institution.

Volition

1. The first divine institution of God demands an endowment of freedom for people. That is the first divine institution. There is freedom of choice, meaning that choices can be good and bad.
2. Their use under the first divine institution under individual volition as protected by rulers and authorities. Rom. 13:3-7

3. Rulers and government exist as ordained by God. This provides us freedom; and enforces the first divine institution. Dispensing of justice to and for all the people. Just government. Bobby is not giving a political speech. He is defining what these verses tell us about rules, good government, ...
4. Part of freedom for all is to curb the outside imposition of criminal activity. Activity like crime, riots, destruction of property, loss of free speech, the cancel culture (if you are not with us, we are cancelling you), anarchy, tyranny will not evolve into good government for the people. They are antithetical to this. If you cannot see that they stand for anarchy, you are missing what is happening today.
5. Revolution or a coup d'état, as prescribed by neo-Marxism to cleans a nation from a perceived oppressor is never compatible with divine establishment. It is not compatible with a nation of sin natures.
6. Neo-marxism, socialism and humanism are all anti-the first divine institution. Humanism must be imposed on people. Socialism and Marxism must be imposed. They are imposed by force and intimidation. These also violate the 4th divine institution, as these are international programs.
7. The solution is being a client nation to God, which is gaining wisdom in the form of divine establishment and Bible doctrine.

Biblical example. David exemplified obedience and deference to the king of Israel, ordained by God; and David respected that. Saul was not a good king. David was eluding Saul and he was able to kill Saul, but he passed this up. David with Bible doctrine and divine establishment in his soul understood that Saul was responsible to God, not to him and not to the people.

The voice of the people is not the voice of God. In His own time, God would remove Saul and promote David. Saul spent all of his time pursuing David and trying to kill him. These are criminal acts. David was able to kill Saul; but he did not because he applied Bible doctrine and thought.

If it is anti-law and criminality, then it is never a solution; and never sanctioned by God.

Bobby has been talking about revolution and it is anti-divine establishment. It always is.

Revolution Is Anti Divine Establishment

1. Revolution is the destruction of existing government so it can be replaced. We are told today and revolt and do the....
2. The attempt to overthrow one's own government, through plots and intrigue or by force of arm, including paramilitary activity, constitutes evil and is always contrary to divine establishment. Paul never wrote for Christians to rise up against Cæsar.
3. Fomenting revolution leads to senseless mob violence and the grabbing of power, like ANTIFA and Black Lives Matter today.

Bobby studied the revolution of Napoleon and leading up to it. They guatined everyone connected in any way to royalty, even if they had never done anything. They called it the terror; and the leaders of that movement also had their heads chopped off. There was no rule of law; no logic.

The old system was not good; and it was replaced by something worse.

4. Whatever is gain by revolution can be gained without it. Christianity spread in the Roman empire and it became thoroughly a part of Rome after the 1st century.
5. The end never justifies the means. Antifa and Black Lives Matter think that their means will be justified by their ends.
6. Violence against one's own government and people is anti-freedom. The fight for freedom enslaved in revolution. So many revolutionary claims that they will fix the government, but they never do. Their new leaders are criminals. Freedom is never a part of what they develop. Antifa and Black Lives Matter is the same.
7. In Scripture, God punished Dathan and Abarim.
8. Problems requiring divine establishment solutions can never be solved by violating divine establishment principles.
9. Christ Himself embodies the rule of law and divine establishment. The use of wisdom and power, He will wweild to gover the eearth.

What about the American revolutionary war? Our revolution was not a revolution in the classic sense. We did not look to destroy the governing authority in our nation; it was a war for independence; for freedom from tyranny. What happens in the streets today is said to be against an unfair system. We are facing the classic revolution. We did not seek to abolish parliament or to replace their government with street rabble and anarchists; that is the modus operandi. Government will be just if it is derived from divine wisdom and divine establishment. Government is sanctioned by God was designed to order and law. Even Rome was legitimate. No Biblical writer suggested that we somehow change the rule in Rome, legitimately or illegitimately. It is not our purpose to overthrow an existing government. Christians today support the overthrow of our government, because they do not understand Bible doctrine.

Summation

1. Government is just when it derives from wisdom.
2. Secular humanism does not provide good or just government ever. It is not based upon divine establishment or the rule of law. It is based upon the individual whims of those in power. That is not the rule of law ever.
3. Secular humanism is based upon power politics and ultimately tyranny. We are seeing the beginnings of tyranny on the streets of America.
4. Secular humanism is characterized by cosmic system failure in areas of rule.
5. Ultimately, the cosmic system promotes tyranny. Humanism promotes tyranny. Why? Satan is the great tyrant and it is his cosmic system. Marxism is from the pit of hell. Marx hated all religion; Christianity especially.

6.

A humanistic government reflects Satan's failure to rule in his own domain. Satan is unable to rule his own world. He is evil to the core.

Lesson #0124

Proverbs 8 Wisdom in the OT

8/13/2020 Thursday

Government is ordained by God and a part of divine wisdom. In that point, it is divine provision. The principles of law are principles which are found in the Word of God. The people in government are often unbelievably stupid. No other place on earth where more justice is dispensed than the courts of this country.

Prov. 8:15 By me kings reign, and princes decree righteousness,

Proverbs was written while kings ruled. This reflects the governments of the time. Solomon was a king.

Prov. 8:16 By me chiefs rule, and nobles, || All judges of earth.

Those who rule are there by divine design.

Prov. 8:17 I love those loving me, || And those seeking me earnestly find me.

Divine establishment wisdom is for believers and unbelievers. But we are departing from that right now in the United States of America. There is also Bible doctrine for believers.

Divine Establishment as a Part of Government

1. The ruler is a part of the laws of divine establishment. A smart ruler recognizes that the laws are as good as the wisdom behind them.
2. Every good law enacted derives from the inspiration of wisdom, and therefore from God. This is why we have been a great nation.
3. Wisdom supplies the knowledge, the morality and the humility, and the legal basis for a successful reign of a ruler or government. There were good and bad rulers in Israel, and this could be traced back to this factor. David and Solomon were both great kings. There are also those of who anti-divine establishment and they turned against God at every turn. Much of the government in this world have no basis in divine wisdom. When this is the case, you have dictatorships and Marxism. All of it is tyrannical.
4. All good in earthly rulers proceeds from divine establishment and Bible doctrine wisdom. Not every power in government is a believer. But divine establishment is still applicable for them. The rule of law is for every believer.
5. Whatever is correct and just in law, wisdom was the impetus. This is true of the Constitution of the United States of America. This was inspired by divine wisdom; and the founders concluded that this was divinely inspired. For the support of this declaration with a firm reliance on divine Providence. They acknowledged that they upheld a Biblical basis for our government. That Providence is a part of law for human beings. The written law and divine Providence was actively involved.

6. The dependence upon divine wisdom in law deters the evil actions of rulers in government. There are always those in government who are evil; always those who operate on power politics, more interested in themselves than good governing. The laws of this country are based upon divine Providence have kept evil in the United States to a minimum. Will that continue?
7. While divine wisdom originates the good in government, the rule of law keeps evil under control. As we lose the rule of law, we see evil proliferating. As we move further away from divine wisdom, we see the good in government deteriorating.
8. This control can be overruled or eliminated by the people and by the rulers, if they are dedicated to humanism and the cosmic system, which is the opposite of divine wisdom. We should be aware of that as well. We elevate power as the ultimate goal. The constant struggle for power and dominance. Marxism is as far away as it could be.
9. ANTIFA and Black Lives Matter see Judeo-Christian principles as wrong and restrictive. They think they maintain white privilege, even though those laws are good for all. Far more people of every color who want police.

The people in Austin do not want what is happening happen; they cut $20 million from the police budget. We should continue to pray that the city of Houston stays calm. 4th largest city in the country and we have had relative quiet.

Rulers Subject to Divine Establishment

1. The destiny of ruling and government depends upon divine wisdom. We should be able to understand which parties stand for law and order and which ones do not. Bobby trusts that we can see the wisdom in this. The election of one good candidate will not change everything immediately. But it won't hurt; it may stem the tide. The rule of law is so important. If we don't, this client nation will deteriorate and the fifth cycle of discipline will come upon us. We as believers have nothing to worry about. God knows who honors us. God loves and honors those who love wisdom.
2. Even rulers are subject to the laws of divine establishment. The rule of law applies to them. We are seeing a lot of them who think that they are. That is a deterioration of government. Good government is based upon divine wisdom.
3. When rulers governors are not establishment oriented, then evil proliferates. Never can it ultimately triumph over God's plan. Satan and his cosmic system will ultimately fail. They fail daily. His plans are all flawed. Bobby has heard that socialism can work in the United States, we are a nation that makes things works. Socialism is a flawed system, no matter where it is tried. It is the antithesis of divine wisdom and divine establishment. Humanism from the word go. It leaves out God; and that is not divine wisdom. Humanism in all of its forms is a loser.
4. Divine wisdom applied by believers and establishment unbelievers change the circumstances when evil seems to be in control. That is what we need. We need believers who are divine establishment in government. They will adhere to the rule of law. Example: the American war for independence that promoted divine establishment principles. It changed the world and change the status of Americans. A divine establishment republic was great. The rule of law is for everyone and should be dispensed equally. The rule of law even overrules those who are racists.

Taking to the streets and tearing down all institutions of government is total destruction. The revolution that we see in the streets today is entirely oppressive. They are anti-divine establishment. Their thinking is based upon secular humanism. It is based upon evil rule. Their objective is to destroy American institutions. We love this country and the great freedom that we have and the marvelous opportunity; and we want this extended to everyone, regardless of race or creed. We want to be able to take in Bible doctrine in freedom. All people in such a nation can take in this freedom. People in high places are promoting lawlessness; their appeasement of this revolution is, once they have turned it lose, they cannot stop it when they get their political way. The more you defund the police, the more it is difficult to stop this lawlessness.

Why is law represented by balance scales? That is the rule of law for everyone. Divine establishment promotes that. There have always been evil people, evil presidents, evil congressmen. We have maintained the rule of law and a pivot of mature believers. Vv. 15–16 are so important for this reason. Humanistic wisdom cannot every supercede or replace the wisdom that created the universe. International governance is inherently humanistic because it is anti-nationalism. God ordained nations; with a homogenous population. Each of those nations should be governed. Non-homogeneous populations sometimes persecute some who do not fit.

In many nations, it is all about the rule of the strong person. It is unfortunate that so many nations do not have this. Internationalism is inherently corrupt.

Satan and all of his forms of humanistic ideology; and it will always be defeated. What was the cold war all about? It was a face off between the western world and the communist world. Who won? That same ideology has raised its ugly head again in this country. Satan never gives up. Humanism is all that he has to defeat divine establishment. He cannot defeat it. Look at what his ideologies produce. His ideologies produce all the problems that we see in this country right now. Those who promote it have no idea by the tiger that they have by the tail. Or they do and are totally corrupt. Divine wisdom exposes that evil which is among us. It opens the eyes of believers and unbelievers among us. What we see is the failure of secular humanism. It disregards divine wisdom; and it is a counterfeit of justice and the rule of law. Ultimately this evil will attack and persecute Christianity. When you stand for Bible doctrine, for divine establishment, for the divine institutions, for the rule of law, then you are the winner, no matter what happens to you. We are also under the protection of our God. When we love wisdom, God loves us. There is no reason for depression in your soul.

Bobby can barely stand to watch the news sometimes. He recognizes the evil in it. We should be glad that we do. The attainment of divine wisdom will always point this out. It is not so that we can be depressed and upset, but so we can keep our resolve against such evil. Is Bobby telling you to get out there and go to war against them in the streets, he is not. We do not know how things will shake out here. We know what we have; we know where our loyalties lie. It does not lie with appeasement or folding under pressure. We have a relaxed mental attitude throughout; sit back and enjoy the ride.

What is this world? We are passing through on the way to eternity. We have an obligation and a job here and we fulfill it as we grow to maturity. Bobby is very proud to be the pastor of Berachah Church. We must not be fooled by evil's propaganda and humanist agendas. Wisdom provides something that we also must recognize. It provides something to those of us being governed.

Wisdom of God

1. Wisdom has a special regard for those who promote and live under divine establishment. We are one of the favored few. Wisdom has great blessing for those of us who live under divine establishment.
2. Wisdom loves those who love her. This wisdom is of God.
3. The love of wisdom and divine providence is particularly necessary for the blessing of good government for the people. The blessing of God through wisdom is the status of the client nation. The United States has been the recipient of that good, but not when it departs from wisdom. We must reclaim our love for wisdom. We have it and we can retain it. That is the message of Prov. 8:17 I love those loving me, || And those seeking me earnestly find me. We diligently seek it; we want it.

More on Divine Wisdom

1. Divine wisdom promotes love. This includes impersonal love as well.
2. Love of course is an attribute and companion of wisdom. If you have wisdom you have personal love for God and impersonal love for mankind.
3. Rulers with wisdom have love; they love wisdom.
4. What practically does this mean? They care and love those whom they govern; they serve those whom they govern. We call those in government the servants of the people; but that is not always true.
5. When they have love from wisdom, they do not use people as stepping stones to their own power. We see that today. People without wisdom do not care one damn about you.
6. Wisdom has sympathy for the plight of people; and benefit and charity to them. That promotes good government. This is not welfare.
7. Wise rulers make laws for the best advantage of all.
8. Those laws promote freedom, economic growth, security, and law and order. That is what government should be doing. And, for those who need it, there should be help; but not the way that welfare works today.
9. We are not a welfare state, which reflects humanism.

10. What is wrong with that? It ruins initiative and the motivation of people to take charge of their own lives. They wait for government to help them. We have the responsibility for our own lives. That is what our government should provide for us.
11. Socialism promotes dependency, economic stagnation, and frustration among the people. They are frustrated because there is no opportunity and no movement; just day after day of no freedom. Socialism is never in the best interest of anyone except for those who want the power.
12. Government helps people by promoting laws that provide the most independence; not more government control. Much of welfare today is designed for government control of people. When government controls the purse strings, they control you. Higher taxes designed to control us. Laws are designed to control every aspect of our lives.

Volition means we make good and bad decisions; for and against Jesus Christ. But we should be free to do that. When you look at people in power, look at how they approach freedom. They will try to destroy every divine institution. The rule of law is also denigrated.

Lesson #0125

Proverbs 8 Wisdom in the OT

8/16/2020 Sunday

God ordained government.

Prov. 8:15 By me kings reign, and princes decree righteousness [or, rulers decree justice],

We have some say in the authorities over us; and we need to be very cognizant of those that we are electing. Bobby is not standing up there to be political. In thinking about politics, we should be considering the Bible doctrine wisdom that is in our soul. When you make a selection of candidates. You ignore their personalities; look at their policies. Look at whether or not they adhere to divine establishment. See what their policies have engendered; and what the opposing candidates' policies. Ignore, what might be, based upon corrupt media. We must apply Bible doctrine and establishment principles when determining who will have authority over us.

Rulers should decree justice; good government always has the rule of law. These are the ones who pass laws. If they are just laws, then they promote freedom and other of the divine institutions.

Prov. 8:16 By me chiefs [or, kings] rule, and nobles [or, princes], || All judges of earth.

These are lesser rulers; and those with power should function and apply laws. Social justice does not apply to some; it favors some. Injustice in the past simply means that justice was not decreed rightly. Injustice directed towards some does not make up for injustices in the past.

Divine Justice for All

1. The divine directive for the use of wisdom for those who hold authority; they are to exercise wisdom.
2. The wisdom of divine establishment; when exercised and applied through just laws by rulers,
3. We do not impose Bible doctrine on others; but we impose the laws of divine establishment.
4. Divine establishment and the rule of law must be promoted and upheld. At times, these things must be enforced. So many pressures on those who wear the police uniform. They mostly do a tremendous job upholding laws. The courts must handle the lawbreaking. When we justify lawbreaking as a nation as a necessary thing to correct past injustice, then we have decided that injustice will correct injustice. That is not wisdom.
5. All good and earthly government proceeds from divine establishment wisdom. God ordained government. We are told that good government comes about through good rulers. When government departs from divine establishment, you no longer have good government; you have corrupt government.
6. Whatever is correct in law, wisdom is the impetus. We see the results today of rejection of the rule of law. It is being replaced today by street rabble and the swamp.

The original writers of the Constitution understood divine establishment; and developed a government to reflect that. This reveals that they had a Judeo-Christian view of God and government. Thus what they wrote founded a client nation because they used this wisdom. With a firm reliance upon divine Providence; we mutually pledge our lives, our fortunes,... They trusted the Lord that He would bless the nation, and He has. Comparing us to other nations, it is clear that we are a client nation founded upon Divine Providence. They particularly supported the 1st and 4th divine institutions. Those are principles that God has ordained, going back to the first client nation; and the rule of law. This is wisdom displayed in government by rulers, by authorities, by whomever rules. When we depart from that, we have corruption.

Good Government Based upon the Laws of Divine Establishment

1. Good government is a deterrent to the actions of the sin natures of mankind. Keeps in line the rulers and the people.
2. The rule of law controls the tendency to try to exercise completely control.
3. Wisdom offsets the tyranny of power politics. It offsets the cosmic system influence in government: humanism, ideologies of humanism, socialism, Marxism.
4. Divine establishment keeps evil under control. Where the rule of law departs, evil and tyranny fill the vacuum. This can be overruled and even eliminated by the people and the rulers. They are the fools who deny God and divine providence. The fool denies that there is a God.

Wisdom provides something else to the governed. Even at a time when divine wisdom is not popular; wisdom loves those who love her. Prov. 8:17 I love those who love me. And those who diligently seek me will find me. Rulers who love wisdom have love and compassion and charity in their souls; and they display love for others as well. They serve, not manipulate. Power politics means that they serve themselves; and that means tyranny. Rulers who love wisdom and seek it, continue to govern from truth in the soul.

Divine Wisdom and Creation

1. It is divine wisdom along with divine love that created and sustains the universe. If you understand the Angelic Conflict, that is the very heart of life. God sentenced Satan to the Lake of Fire; but Satan appealed his sentence. The purpose of demonstrating His love to those.
2. The universe displays wisdom and God wants wisdom demonstrated by His creation.
3. That universe is built for those who love and seek wisdom.
4. Those who love wisdom love the Lord; and God loves them. They fulfill God's purposes. In the Angelic Conflict, it demonstrates that He is a loving God. I love those who love me, says wisdom.

The Love of God and the Client Nation

1. The nation that seeks and finds wisdom, God bestows great blessing. That is the client nation. God loves wisdom.
2. The love of wisdom engenders the love of God by a large portion of that nation. When it is a large population who love wisdom, that is a client nation.
3. When a client nation loses its wisdom, they reject divine establishment and the rule of law; when they abandon divine laws, there is discipline and cursing, which includes the ascendancy of bad rulers and ascendancy of bad rulers.
4. The nation falls under the early cycles of discipline as a warning; warning when they begin to reject divine establishment, for humanism and socialism. Ideologies which define the cosmic system. Those are warnings; we have been warned.
5. If the warning goes unheeded, the discipline intensifies, as the nation progresses through the cycles of discipline. These cycles today include the progression or q nation.

We are taught that those who seek wisdom will find it. It will be found in the pages of Scripture. Anyone who is positive to it. It is clear that those who seek wisdom early in life will find more of it during the course of their lives. They will become inculcated by more and more wisdom. They understand how wisdom compares to humanism and how wisdom is applied to life. Our learning are much more fluid. The minds of youth are much more influenced. When wisdom is inculcated early in life, it molds and guides the thinking of the young.

There are times when, later in life, you depart from wisdom, based upon your own volition. The wisdom is still present, but it has been suppressed. But they can learn more quickly when they are ready to return. The information is there for them to come back to. If there is no wisdom inculcated, the youth of a nation will fall for anything, like socialism, humanism and satanic laws. This describes the youth of the last 4 generation of Americans. Cosmic system lies and deceptions; the youth of today have bought into this. We see a generation of radicals and anarchists; and it is clear that they have rejected the wisdom of divine establishment. With age and bad decisions, it becomes more difficult to go to wisdom. Some people realize, with doctrine, that there is a better way to understand life, beyond the cosmic system thinking which we are offered. Divine wisdom must be taught and sought. It is never too late, even later in life. Once positive volition to wisdom, the person will begin to live according to wisdom.

This love of wisdom includes blessings and a client nation status. Wisdom loves those who love her. Wisdom and honor and with me; enduring wealth and righteousness are with me.

Prov. 8:17 I love those loving me, || And those seeking me earnestly find me.

Prov. 8:18 [Wealth and honor \[are\] with me, || Lasting substance and righteousness.](#)

Prov. 8:19 [My fruit \[is\] better than gold, even fine gold, || And my increase than choice silver.](#)

Wisdom provides for the distribution of the greatest gifts of prosperity in life. The possessor of wisdom has those things. Commensurate with the accumulation of wealth. Is the wealth material? If you gain wisdom, will you be wealthy? Yes and no. Is this promise of health and wealth going to be yours? Yes and no. Not everyone with wisdom will have a 6-figure income. We are a nation which has been founded upon wisdom. Look at the blessings which have come to this nation. We are a wealthy nation. You may complain about that you don't make enough money, or that your taxes are too high.

Have you ever traveled in a foreign country? Have you seen what they have? Our wealth is way above those people in other countries. Many of us own houses, you have nice cars, you have cell phones. You have the blessings of material wealth, whether you know it or not. This does apply to material wealth, even though we might not all be billionaires.

All with wisdom have an enduring wealth. Wealth comes and goes; wealth is fleeting. There is a comparison between spiritual and material wealth. Spiritual wealth is better than 24 carat gold or minded silver. What about those evil people who have a lot of money? Satan does promote those who enact his policies. Some exercise cosmic system to the detriment of this nation.

But for the believer with wisdom, when God's plan calls for the overabundance of wealth, this is not given for the comfort of the believer who acquires it; but more importantly, the blessing of wealth is given for the purpose of supporting the furtherance of the gospel and Bible doctrine in this world. Many believers with wealth supported the Apostle Paul in his journeys. He was a tent maker; but he was supported so that he did not have to do this. Those with wealth had to do that.

It is okay to enjoy the blessings which God has given you. God always has a plan for the wealthy and the poor. The spiritual wealth of wisdom is declared to be greater than any physical wealth.

The owner is blessed in the most important aspects of life. There is blessing beyond just gold and silver.

Material Riches and the Inner Person

1. Material riches do nothing spiritually for the person who possesses them.
2. That kind of wealth is merely external; the trappings of life, the details of life. Bobby is not knocking those things. Details of life are nice to have. Goes along with those who love wisdom.
3. Material riches are outside of our inner person.
4. The cosmic system proclaims physical wealth and comfort; and the material that it brings. It is something to be attained by any means, including hook or crook.
5. Our goal in life is acquiring or accumulating something greater than the purest gold and silver. Divine wisdom is the greatest wealth.
6. Material wealth is fleeting; it can be. Spiritual wealth of wisdom is lasting, enduring; a permanent resident in the soul. You cannot lose it. You can even choose against it, but once it is inculcated, it is there.
7. Every believer can have that wealth. "I wish I had as much money as that person has." How much more important is Bible doctrine in your soul. Better than material wealth, by far. We know the impact of that spiritual wealth. The decisions that we make determine the life that we lead.

We are at the crossroads in this nation, and wisdom is what is lacking; and what is there to save us.

Lesson #0126

Proverbs 8 Wisdom in the OT 8/19/2020 Wednesday

Recent Spanish translations of R. B. Thieme, Jr. books. Downloads available at the website; ebooks.

What does wisdom offer to the believer, besides the things we have already studied? We can make good decisions based upon wisdom. There is also something else that wisdom does for us. It provides the distribution the greatest gifts of life for the wise person.

Prov. 8:18 [Enduring] Wealth and honor [are] with me, || Lasting substance and righteousness.

Prov. 8:19 My fruit [is] better than gold, even pure gold, || And my increase than the choicest silver.

The possessor of wisdom also has the riches and honor and enduring wealth. This verse is a comparison, between spiritual wealth and experiential righteousness and material wealth. It is the spiritual versus the material. It does not denigrate the material.

Jesus was charitable and He commended charity to believers; but He did not commend socialism.

What Is this Experientially Righteousness?

1. This is the spiritual capacity developed by the believer in his or her post salvation life. We are given righteousness when we believe in Jesus Christ. That is a righteousness which is imputed to us; a positional righteousness. We are justified by grace through faith. This is a capacity developed by the believer in post-salvation life.
2. Experiential righteousness refers to the lifestyle of the believer living in obedience to God's mandates and growing in knowledge and grace. This sort of growth develops during our lives.
3. Experiential righteousness is potential because a believer must make repeated decisions to learn and to apply God's Word under the filling of genuine humility. This describes what we receive when we grow spiritually. This righteousness endures and it continues well beyond pure silver and gold. The cosmic system proclaims physical wealth and the comfort and the things that can be had based upon that sort of wealth. Here nothing wrong with this, but that is not the highest good available to us.

Sometimes you make a lot and sometimes you don't. You buy something big and now you are in debt. It is fleeting. The spiritual wealth of Bible doctrine is lasting and far more valuable. Even unbelievers can have divine establishment wisdom. The ultimate wisdom of Bible doctrine. Spiritual wealth is substantial, lasting and it is eternal. The other is of this life only. You can't take it with you. But it does go with us. We can take spiritual wealth with us into heaven.

Matt. 6:19–21 "Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal, but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

This is certainly true today, where people may come after your wealth.

The spiritual life is the greatest treasure. If you have a spiritual life, it is lasting and eternal. The physical, the material; and you will be steeped in materialism. It will be a struggle to keep it and to earn it. Having no spiritual life but gaining much wealth; and they are surprised to find that they are still unhappy. They have no relaxed mental attitude. They are not safe and secure. That wealth is not really wealth. What you have in the soul is the only true wealth.

We all have to make a living; and it is nice to have money and to not be in debt. But the spiritual life provides for us something that no one else can have. The problem solving devices can only be had through spiritual growth or experiential righteousness.

With wisdom, spiritual growth; material wealth can be helpful in the spiritual life. This is an application of divine wisdom that is unequal; unparalleled. It has a value far beyond the material world.

It is great if you can make money; but do not make it the driving force in your life. Enjoy it; but don't make it the end-all be-all. The spiritual life is what applies that wisdom.

Divine Blessing

1. Divine blessing is always connected to the learning and application of wisdom and to experiential righteousness. They are all connected.
2. Spiritual wealth is the true wealth; that is vital; it is satisfying and it is enduring. It is eternal. That which identifies itself with the soul will be as imperishable as its own immortality. It is immortal because you take it with you.

The next verse tell us that honor and wealth come with experiential righteousness.

Proverbs 8:20 Our soul waits for the LORD; he is our help and our shield.

Wisdom is the purveyor of righteousness and justice in this world. It is fleeting. With wisdom, we know what it is. If you have wisdom, righteousness and justice will be the pattern of your life. Integrity of God; integrity of soul.

We have such a great controversy today about righteousness and justice. Everyone makes their mistake about righteousness. They think, it matters what you have or don't have; but what is in your soul is what matters. True righteousness and justice is what is inside.

In this way, you will possess the integrity of God. It is the mind of Christ in you. They are all connected with wisdom. That is what makes this series so important. This is how you live, how you think, and how you see the rest of the world.

If a nation has this wisdom (not the entire population of course), they do not have the relative cosmic system thinking which passes for wisdom in this world. It is relative and false. There are absolute definitions to things like love and integrity. We will possess the integrity of God. The nation and its people will walk in the ways of justice and the rule of law. We have seen this in the past. Injustice happens; and it always will be...

The client nation will prosper with wisdom in the souls of enough people. Divine blessing to a nation is always connected; and this is among believers and unbelievers. Always related to ethical behavior, the rule of law, and especially the pivot. This is what provides good government and a prosperous nation. That is where our prosperity comes from. It is not the wealth of the treasuries.

Experiential Righteousness in the Client Nation

1. Throughout wisdom literature, Psalms and Proverbs, etc., we are instructed to walk in the ways of experiential righteousness. It is demanded
2. From Prov. 8:20, wisdom walks in this way. The way of experiential righteousness.
3. Therefore, walking in wisdom, knowing and applying wisdom, is to walk in righteousness and I
4. That is the make or break factor in the client nation. We are about to find out if we are broken. An endowment of money to those who love wisdom. They are endowed with wealth.

we have gone into great national debt; and taxes must be increased so that everyone can share the poverty. These are not wise policies. This provides policies to....

The promises of socialism that they cannot deliver. Socialists do not have wisdom; and they will never have a blessed client nation. The more they rise to the top, the less. Much more important to have a great treasury of spiritual wisdom than money in the national treasury.

Moving ahead, wisdom focuses on its place in primordial times. The autobiography of wisdom. It tells us all that This is all about to be a history class and the wisdom of God, historically.

Proverbs 8:21 For our heart is glad in him, because we trust in his holy name.

Here is the historical portion.

Proverbs 8:22 Let your steadfast love, O LORD, be upon us, even as we hope in you.

Wisdom's Relation to Eternity

1. Wisdom preceded creation.
2. The beginning of God's way is wisdom.
3. Our consciousness begins and ends; and God is way above that.
4. Wisdom is God's part of God's way in creation.
5. It was established from everlasting. Therefore, wisdom is eternal. It is from everlasting. Also involved in creation.
6. The use of wisdom by God was always present in whatever He did. Now we are talking about the works of God. Certainly God has things going on before creation.
7. Wisdom is the thinking of God; it is eternal, as God is eternal.
8. Wisdom is cited as being before creating and during creation.

We need to examine one verb in this context. A look at wisdom that we have not seen before. Now we will see what it means in the past.

The autobiography of wisdom is Prov. 8:21–30

Proverbs 8:21 For our heart is glad in him, because we trust in his holy name.

Proverbs 8:22 Let your steadfast love, O LORD, be upon us, even as we hope in you.

The Lord possessed me at the beginning of His way.

Proverbs 8:23 Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth.

The Word Often Translated Aquire (Qanah)

1. It is a word that can mean to acquire.
2. There is a problem. But to understand this to mean, to acquire, the implication is that wisdom comes into being at some point in time.
3. But since wisdom is a part of God's essence, then it is eternal, as God is.
4. Wisdom did not come into being nor was it acquired by God. God does not learn; He does not have to figure things out.
5. A better translation is, to possess.

Remember the Context

1. Wisdom being possessed by God places wisdom prior to creation.
2. Before God created the universe, He possessed wisdom.
3. Wisdom existed before God began creation, as it says; before His works of old.
4. Wisdom places itself on a timeline here.
5. The point of the metaphor in these verses, being possessed by God, is this. Wisdom comes from God's eternal being. It also has a place in God's creation.
6. Unlike the rest of creation, it already existed prior to creation.
7. In context, wisdom is cited; it cites itself, as an essential part of the creation process. It is closely connected with creation.
8. Wisdom was manifested by God in that process of creation, from beginning to end. That is the beginning aspect of wisdom; that is where these verses put it.
9. Wisdom was evident in God's creation; especially the creation of mankind.
10. Wisdom is integral to divine creation.

Wisdom is not inherent to mankind. We are not born with wisdom. It must be revealed to us. That process...we have the revelation of that creation in Genesis. It continues on that timeline throughout human history. Human history hinges on the decisions of mankind to use or to ignore divine wisdom, how it is revealed. The use of wisdom and the lack of use of wisdom. It has existed in the past in the United States. Will it be used in the future? We are seeing the rule of law systematically being set aside.

Wisdom

1. Wisdom is on an infinite timeline of preexistence. Wisdom is an attribute of God; and the mind of Christ is wisdom.
2. But wisdom also lives within the borders of creation and in human history. This verse narrows wisdom. It is in the borders of God's creation. God uses wisdom; God has it. God has given it to us for our use.
3. Wisdom in history illustrates wisdom's place in God's intent in creation and plans of mankind. Wisdom is involved in all of that. This same wisdom preexisted; that created; part of man's history is given and revealed to us for our personal use. This is great power that God has given us; the power of the universe; the power of God's mind and how He thinks.
4. Therefore, wisdom is said to be possessed by God.
5. It is possessed as the means to show, to demonstrate an eternal attribute of God that was integral in creation that brought the universe into being.
6. Wisdom is of infinite importance to that which God created.
7. Wisdom is eternal; and it is also here and now for our own use.
8. We know wisdom is infinitely powerful, because it is a divine attribute.
9. It is powerful because God used it in creation. Wisdom was God's means of creation. Wisdom was given to us as part of His creation. The background of wisdom; the history of wisdom; this gives us a different perspective; and the practical use of it.

That is the practical side of wisdom; the idea of omniscient knowledge being contained in wisdom.

No arithmetic cannot compute the age of the universe; although there are a number of theories; and the years pile up in the billions. Yet dating the earth; the earth and the preexistence of wisdom; then wisdom was there at the beginning. Yet dating the earth depends upon something. Dating the earth depends upon assumptions about geological formations. It depends upon the age of the earth's strata. There are layers of strata, one stacked upon another. Science postulates that these layers took a certain amount of time for each layer. How old is each layer? How long did it take to form? The theories of science reach untold billions of years, but it is not reliable. It depends upon the strata age being correct. That is just assumed to fit the theory. The assumption is all of the strata takes billions of years to form.

The theory does not take into account God's creation. God's creation was instantaneous. God divided the times of creation over 6 days. Theories do not take any of this into account. Those theories are based upon evolutionary theory.

When did God create wisdom and breathe life into the first individual; and that is soul life. Evolutionary theory is a long ways from that.

Evolutionary theory is from a big bang and because of that explosion, things came together, some sort of very primitive life was formed. How this happened, no one knows.

That is the basis for evolutionary theory. Filled with assumptions which all go back to that point. They never take into account the creation of God. What they see in the universe and on the earth, the incredible complexity. They must fit billions of years into the world's history in order to have evolution occur.

The days of creation are literal 24 hour periods of time.

Why is Bobby talking about all of this. He wants us to understand wisdom. When God created the power of wisdom, what he was using was an agent of creation.

Science posits theory after theory. The earth is billions of years old and the earth was created randomly. Only God's knows about all of this; and only He knows the age of the earth.

Human history began at the end of the 6 day creation. Life began the moment that God breathed life into him. This may just be 4000 or 5000 years ago.

God can form strata immediately; and the flood may have formed this strata immediately. God does not need billions of years.

Wisdom Versus Evolution

1. Wisdom was expressed in those 6 short days of creation. God had wisdom and He expressed it like never before.
2. God's wisdom is not expressed in millions of years of evolution; or random election.
3. That theory sets aside divine wisdom and chooses random chance instead. "I was there," says wisdom.
4. The design of the universe demands a master builder; and the universe reveals this.
5. This makes logical sense rather than mere happenstance.

Wisdom in God's Creation

1. Wisdom was possessed by God before He created.
2. However long this was before creation, we don't know.
3. Wisdom was certainly demonstrated during the 6 day span of creation.
4. All creation has a beginning in God's economy. The universe is not eternal. There are those who posit this.
5. Even before there was anything, nothing created, there was God and His wisdom.
6. God used His wisdom as the agent to create. God judged Satan based upon the wisdom that He had, which is infinite and absolute.
7. He set up creation according to His wisdom.
8. In creation, God revealed its magnificence by divine revelation. What we know of God's creation is revelation.
9. Wisdom is revealed in order to provide a window on God's plans; and on His intents for His human creation for the Angelic Conflict. We must use wisdom for the Angelic Conflict. We were created to resolve the Angelic Conflict. We have this wisdom needed revealed to us to solve the angelic conflict. Wisdom is to be used. Growing spiritually is what is needed for our day-to-day life. Practical application is the application of wisdom to our place in the world. It was put into operation.

What we see is what God created; and His wisdom always was.

When God prepared the heavens, wisdom was active in the preparation of the heavens and the earth. God's Wisdom goes along with His thinking and planning. Wisdom is used in God's conception of something.

Architects come up with a conception and then use their wisdom in order to put it into action.

Exercise before God created; wisdom was integral to the stages. Bobby finds this amazing. God was there and all of His attributes were there.

The attribute of wisdom has not been covered very much in detail. We know that God knows all; but He also thinks and conceives; and these things are always in His mind. This passage reveals more about God's wisdom than anywhere else.

When we look around; when we gaze up at the stars; we begin to understand the wisdom of God. Practical. When Bobby got into this verse, he said, "This puts the lid onto wisdom; or takes it off. It is amazing to him."

Wisdom became the thinking behind the universe; wisdom was the scheme for building; and it represents the Person who used it.

Proverbs 8:23 Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth.

Wisdom precedes creation; it was brought forth. Wisdom was there when there was nothing. When there was no springs, there was wisdom. It was there before creation occurred.

Proverbs 8:24 When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water.

Before the mountains or the hills, wisdom was there.

Proverbs 8:25 Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth,

Wisdom was there.

Proverbs 8:26 before he had made the earth with its fields, or the first of the dust of the world.

God was there; wisdom was there, when establishing the heavens.

Proverbs 8:27 When he established the heavens, I was there; when he drew a circle on the face of the deep,

Proverbs 8:28 when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep,

Proverbs 8:29 when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth,

Wisdom was beside God as a master workman.

Proverbs 8:30 then I was beside him, like a master workman, and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always,

Proverbs 8:31 rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the children of man.

God's Wisdom

1. Wisdom was there before all.
2. When God brings forth, establishes, makes the earth, wisdom is present and evidence. It is evident in all that we see.
3. When God created, wisdom was a master workman. What was conceived was built; and wisdom did it.
4. God looked at what He had done in wisdom, it was good. Wisdom tells us that God was pleased.
5. He was delighted with His Own creation and the wisdom used to build it.
6. Wisdom was always involved in the plans and the intents of God's heart.
7. In that sense, it was there in the beginning with God.
8. Wisdom always was; but is highlighted in and by creation.

Final Points

1. That reveals an eternal connection between wisdom that delighted in the sons of men.
2. Wisdom reveals an eternal connection between the affection and love of God towards mankind.
3. Wisdom was God's daily delight.
4. When it comes to God's highest creation, the human race, that same delight, love, is expressed in the gift of His wisdom to us.
5. God imparted to mankind His wisdom. Everything described here, God gave to us. It cannot be to the extent that God used it. God's wisdom has no boundaries; but we have some use of it.
6. The very agent of creation, wisdom, is available to us as is the mind of Christ, the epitome of wisdom; the wisdom that we need. What we need, God has given us. But it must be heard; it must be learned. It is not inherent in mankind.

7. God imparts wisdom in the form of Bible doctrine. Full circle in the use of wisdom today.

This part will be concluded on Sunday.

Lesson #0128                      Proverbs 8:24 Wisdom in the OT                      8/23/2020 Sunday

Bobby is addressing the mask and the social distancing. Many are thinking, this is really an imposition; this must violate the Constitution. The bright side of all this is, we live in the state of Texas. We are a little inconvenienced. This has been a sore point for many Berachans. We are allowed as free Texans to assemble and worship. Right now, the mask is a minor inconvenience.

This is a wonderful time to be studying wisdom. It is an antidote to all of the problems around us. Wisdom was front and center when God created the universe, the earth, everything on it, above it and under it. Wisdom was with God before creation.

Proverbs 8:24 When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water.

Proverbs 8:25 Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth,

Proverbs 8:26 before He had made the earth with its fields, or the first of the dust of the world.

Wisdom was ready and willing before creation. Wisdom is applied through faith rest. The promises of God are faith rest. In these verses, wisdom was brought forth. It was called out in this context with a specific purpose; which is creation of the world and the universe. Wisdom is an attribute of God, long before He created anything. This is as much an attribute of God as justice and righteousness.

Wisdom is present and operative during the act of creation.

Proverbs 8:27 When He established the heavens, I was there; when He drew a circle on the face of the deep,

This is wisdom speaking.

Proverbs 8:28 when He made firm the skies above, when He established the fountains of the deep,

Proverbs 8:29 when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress His command, when He marked out the foundations of the earth,

Proverbs 8:30 then I was beside Him, like a master workman, and I was daily His delight, rejoicing before Him always,

As personified, wisdom is beside God, like a master workman.

God has given us the wisdom that we need to apply in the world in which we live. Remember the actual agent of creation is Jesus Christ. He was with God and He is God.

John 1:1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

The JW's hate this verse.

John 1:2 He was in the beginning with God.

John 1:3 All things were made through Him, and without Him was not any thing made that was made.

Jesus is the agent of creation.

Christ, Wisdom and the Creation

1. Christ Himself is the member of the Godhead Who created the universe. He condescended to come to this earth; and He never gave up one ounce of His deity. Jesus dying for our sins is our Creator; us and the stars in the sky. This is all done by wisdom.
2. Wisdom was the instrument, the means that Christ used in creating; wisdom was the master builder. This was not haphazard; this was not random; this is what God's wisdom designed.
3. Just as wisdom is personified.

Christ the Lord is our eternal and wise Savior.

Jesus Used Wisdom for the Creation

1. Jesus gave to us the wisdom of the ages; He gave us the wisdom that He used to create the universe. The scientific laws are all about what He created.
2. He created us and everything around us with wisdom.
3. He provided wisdom in divinely inspired Scripture, the most concentrated portion of which is found in the 5 wisdom books.
4. Jesus is our living wisdom, providing for us through His life and ministry. The Old Testament also provides insight.
5. We have the mind of Christ in writing. Every time we open the Bible, we look at it. It is the revelation of God's wisdom to us. If we understand the scope of wisdom, we might better appreciate all the God has given to us by way of spiritual wisdom. We often call it Bible doctrine. Bible doctrine is the theology that we understand about God, the spiritual life, about angels and the Angelic Conflict; wisdom is what we garner from the Hebrews 1:1– Long ago, at many times and in many ways, God spoke to our fathers by the prophets, Bible doctrine.

Hebrews 1:2 but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world.

God spoke to us wisdom through His Son.

God in Creation

1. Wisdom is the master workman.
2. We think of God's power in creation. But there was a design for his creation; and this is based upon His wisdom.
3. Christ used wisdom in all that He did; everything. This is why this series is a great follow on to the life of Christ.
4. The wisdom that we need is provided for us. We can model or follow His wisdom to the extent that we can follow it.
5. God continues to reveal His wisdom in the revelation that He has left with us. The Bible doctrine. of God;

Jesus represented the Father during His time on earth; as well as His humanity.

Hebrews 1:3 He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of His nature, and He upholds the universe by the word of his power. After making purification for sins, He sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high,...

Jesus is the exact representation of the nature of God. Jesus speaks one word and all things hold together.

If you are worried about the environment or the green new deal; God will actually do this for real.

God upholds all things with the Word of power.

Hebrews 1:4 ...having become as much superior to angels as the name He has inherited is more excellent than theirs.

Wisdom makes some claims about itself as we move on to vv. 32–36:

Proverbs 8:32 "And now, O sons, listen to me: blessed are those who keep my ways.

We are blessed through God's wisdom.

Proverbs 8:33 Hear instruction and be wise, and do not neglect it.

We need instruction in order to be wise. We are not to neglect it. We must listen, learn and apply.

Wisdom must be assimilated and used. Neglecting it means the blessings of wisdom do not come your way. Do not neglect wisdom for humanistic pursuits.

By defining humanism, Bobby was defining the enemy.

Proverbs 8:34 Blessed is the one who listens to me, watching daily at my gates, waiting beside my doors.

More claims of wisdom. Blessings. This is not someone who casually listens. Someone who watches daily at my gates. It is necessary to listen to doctrine daily. We are to wait for it and look for it. We are to line up to receive wisdom.

A highly set of tennis shoes available at the Galleria, lining up since 4am to buy them. Is this your same attitude towards doctrine. There is such anticipation and urgency in this verse. It is important to the human race; to us.

The Pursuit of Wisdom

1. When a person hears and obeys wisdom, they are blessed.
2. Human happiness consists of loyalty to divine wisdom. There is a happiness which goes far beyond all other things. Good decisions; the decisions that we make provide happiness and options of us.
3. Blessing is there; it is available. It must be actively pursued.
4. One continuously keeps watch for that wisdom.
5. Wisdom progresses from hearing it to actively pursuing it.
6. That describes positive volition and personal application. Thinking and actions in life.
7. The blessings of wisdom are not just thought; but application and deeds in life. The idea is for humanity to pay diligent attention to wisdom. The alternative is not blessing but cursing. We have never seen more clarity today between wisdom and humanism.

All commerce was conducted at the gates of the city; that is where the news was, that is where things were transacted; and where doctrine was taught.

We are being cursed by our turn towards humanism. Plague, violence, socialism, loss of the rule of law. The blessing we receive are freedom and safety and prosperity. These mark our life in the United States throughout much of its history.

We were all created for contemplation and decision making. We have that above all creation. We have the unique ability to think and reason as no other creature does. This brings out the best in human faculties. The inherent ability to think is in tune with divine wisdom.

We should be acting as if wisdom were a person that we love. Wisdom is the greatest subject of human consideration.

Wisdom Is the Greatest Pursuit

1. Wisdom teaches us about our existence and why we are here. What is our purpose and goal.
2. We are created to resolve the Angelic Conflict using wisdom as a part of the plan and intention of God. We fulfill the plan of God using wisdom.
3. Wisdom reveals the infinite, which is otherwise unknown and unfathomable; and this is why people get confused. They do not understand the concept of eternal existence.
4. Wisdom points to a blessed and happy destiny. It points to your destiny. It defines your destiny as a believer. It gives us hope and confidence.
5. The study of wisdom is not only correct, but it is urgent and necessary. It is good for the nation as well, as whole. We must constantly obey the concepts of wisdom. Blessed are those who keep my ways.

There are more advantages; even in the spiritual realm.

Proverbs 8:35 For whoever finds me finds life and obtains favor from the LORD,

This takes it one step further. This is a critical point that we are covering. The advantages of wisdom in the spiritual realm. This is our realm.

Proverbs 8:36 but he who fails to find me injures himself; all who hate me love death."

Lesson #none                      Proverbs 8 Wisdom in the OT      8/26/2020 Wednesday

Cancelled over Hurricane Laura.

Lesson #0129                      Proverbs 8 Wisdom in the OT      8/27/2020 Thursday

When the spiritual life is good, all of life is good.

Proverbs 8:34 Blessed is the one who listens to me, watching daily at my gates, waiting beside my doors.

Proverbs 8:35 For whoever finds me finds life and obtains favor from the LORD,

Wisdom are the Bible doctrines; the precepts and divine institutions for man's benefit. Learning and using wisdom is divinely approved of.

Proverbs 8:33 Hear instruction and be wise, and do not neglect it.

There is a warning against rejecting wisdom. Positive side is v. 33; negative side is do not neglect wisdom.

Proverbs 8:36 but he who fails to find me injures himself; all who hate me love death."

Wisdom and Sin

1. Sin is against God.
2. Sin is any violation or lack of conformity to the will and standards of God. Where do we find that information? It is found in wisdom.
3. Sin is characterized by the understanding that the sinner either falls short of divine law and righteousness; or it is a person who just does not care.
4. Sin is perpetrated and perpetuated by denying, by rejecting God and His will; and by rejecting Bible doctrine and divine establishment. All of those categories can be found within wisdom. Wisdom reveals the standards of God.
5. Sin is rejecting or ignoring God's wisdom. Wisdom covers the spectrum of God's standards. Violating of the thinking or standards of God.
6. The one who sins against wisdom sins against me (wisdom).
7. Rejecting divine wisdom rejects divine standards.
8. Sinning against wisdom is self-injury. The one who sins against me (wisdom) sins against himself.

If wisdom is rejected, then it must be filled with something else. In general, that is humanism; and humanism is self-destructive. It is choosing something else rather than God and His wisdom. It is putting something else in place of what is God's. Those who depend upon humanism face misery and loss.

As we saw in v. 33b, we must not neglect wisdom. Connecting the mandate to v. 36, we can say that to neglect wisdom is self-injury; self-ruination. Physical as well. Characteristics of God's wisdom are written on the body and soul of a person. Even though without instruction, there is no content. To manufacture humanism, one must turn away from God's wisdom and God's laws. Whether it is animals, the atom, man or angels. Each was created with a purpose.

Dog shows and standards. God set the standards Himself for man and man's actions. There may be conflict in our standards, but we are surrounded by wisdom. Especially in the form of divine establishment and divine institutions. It is in His Word. It is written all around us. God's wisdom must be learned and understood. It may be around us, but it is a matter of volition to understand it and to believe it. There is a price to pay for ignoring wisdom; and a lot of believers and unbelievers in this world who do just that. To reject it initiates a penalty because it is sin and sin leads to degeneracy. Evasion of that penalty to the fool, it is impossible. You cannot escape from that. You cannot escape and evade God. It is incumbent upon the fool to hear and to assimilate wisdom. This helps to overcome personal injury and misery. That is the price to pay. There is always personal injury and misery when we reject God's divine wisdom. Rejecting it leads to bad decisions, to self-injury, to bad decisions. It is incumbent that we assimilate that wisdom.

None of this happens with wisdom. Things surround us, but we cannot handle them without wisdom.

Self-induced Misery for Those Who Reject Wisdom

1. We wrong our souls by not learning and applying wisdom. Therefore, we hurt our lives.
2. When we hurt ourselves when we disobey wisdom, when we depart from God's standards.
3. The voice of God's prohibition, His voice would say, "Don't do yourself any harm." It is a self-inflicted wound if you reject wisdom. This is why anti-authority thinking is wrong. Rebellion against authority of the boss or the military or in any area.
4. The rule of God's law and His wisdom is the opposite of self-harm and misery. Life is not that hard for the believer in Jesus Christ. When you are assimilating Bible doctrine and applying wisdom, life is great.
5. All of God's wisdom and laws embody His love, His love speaking in the imperative to mankind. If we follow the imperative, if we follow the wisdom, it is to our benefit.
6. So, the voice of all God's mandates to wisdom brings happiness, peace, contentment, now and forever. Otherwise, the penalty is high. That is what comes with wisdom metabolized.

Our life when wisdom is inculcated and prescribed. We can handle circumstances internal and external.

Proverbs 8:36 but he who fails to find me injures himself; all who hate me love death."

Summary of V. 36

1. God's wisdom should be studiously learned and obeyed.
2. If there is no learning and obeying, the rejecter hurts himself and his own soul.
3. Rejection is folly; the greatest most brilliant humanist, whatever his talents or attainments are, is still the greatest fool, for lacking the great wisdom of the Word of God. Those who thwart and deny God's will and plan, who neglect and mock His laws and wisdom; end up contradict their own plans and their own lives.

Proverbs 8:36 but he who fails to find me injures himself; all who hate me love death."

We see the humanist in the streets today. They drink the poison of humanism and they love it to death. They have lung cancer and they cannot stop smoking humanism. It is like the smoker who has cancer but he cannot quit. He is self-injuring. It is between life and favor as over against harm and danger.

We are going to return to Psalm 33:11.

Psalm 33:11 The counsel of the LORD stands forever, the plans of his heart to all generations.

What are God's intentions? We must take His advice. His plan is revealed in His Word. Clearly, this plan of the Lord from His wisdom can be trusted. It is carried out in His faithfulness. It is carried out in immutability. His Word is forever; it is faithful in its results; and it is immutable. The content never changes; the content is not relative. God's Word is good for every time, for every culture, for every individual. It stands forever and it is passed on from generation to generation.

The question is, what will each generation do with it?

The disaster can be internal or external (like a military attack). The retreat from wisdom and the resultant destruction is a progressive process and it goes through several generations. But each generation stands on its own. It is a process. It is a progressive process that runs through every generation. This is the concept of the 4th generation curse, exemplified by the history of Israel.

The Four Generation Curse

1. This is maximum divine discipline administered. A generation which receives maximum divine discipline.
2. When several successive generations increasingly reject divine truth and wisdom
3. When sinful trends are habitually repeated and become ingrained characteristics of a generation.
4. The modus operandi of a nation degenerates. Exodus 20:4–5
Deuteronomy 5:8–10

Bobby is working on the Bible doctrine dictionary. He was reading the F's; and he was editing the fourth generation curse. It fit perfectly with what is right here.

God included the 4-generation curse into the Ten Commandments. That is pretty fundamental. This does not mean that guilt follows one generation to the next. No generation is culpable for the sins of the parents or the succeeding generation. Ezek. 18:20 the sins of the fathers are not visited upon the sons or vice versa.

Parents influence their children to follow the same pattern. Those children are at great risk. Under the 4 generation, God reserves discipline for them. 4 generations of rejecting Bible doctrine is finally met with God's discipline. Rejection of authority progressively gets worse.

Prov. 30:11 There are those who curse their fathers and do not bless their mothers.

The 4 Generations

1. The first generation curses the father and does not bless the mother. In doing so, they embrace anti-establishment when the parents are pro-establishment. There is not honoring of parents in that. They reject family and other divine institutions.

2. They reject and they are filled with hypocrisy. He is self righteous. Prov. 30:12 There are those who are clean in their own eyes but are not washed of their filth. They pretend to be righteous, but they maintain their rebellion. That form is hidden under a mask of hypocrisy. Their rejection of authority becomes the norm. those who deviate from it are mocked.
3. The 3rd generation is in v. 13. They are filled with self-importance; they know it all. Prov. 30:13 There are those—how lofty are their eyes, how high their eyelids lift! They ignore history and uphold the falsehoods of their generation.
4. They are filled with power lust and they are a law unto themselves. Prov. 30:14 There are those whose teeth are swords, whose fangs are knives, to devour the poor from off the earth, the needy from among mankind. Their evil become ingrained in the culture.

They become so out of control, God will not leave the guilty unpunished. Bobby wants to develop this so that we understand the things on the streets today.

The 4th generation are in the streets today.

Lesson #0130

Psalm 33 Wisdom in the OT

8/30/2020 Sunday

Psalms and Proverbs are directly pertinent to Israel. God ruled Israel through the rule of law. These are principles which are good for all time. The rule of law is the same in every dispensation. This is a standard set by God for every client nation to follow throughout history.

There are principles which were violated by Israel throughout her history. Client nations today are gentile client nations. The principles which we are studying are principles for us today...both personally and nationally.

Our study has revealed to us the true concept of wisdom; this is the knowledge which runs the world, by which God created the world.

In this chapter, when we metabolize wisdom, we gain the wisdom of God in our own soul. This is why we are here.

Prov. 8 is a detour from Psalm 33.

He frustrates the plans of the people.

Psalm 33:11 The counsel of the LORD stands forever, the plans of his heart to all generations.

The plans of His heart refers back to the actual thinking of God. God's wisdom is Who God really is; and that is what He gives to us, from generation to generation. Everyone has the opportunity for wisdom. God frustrates the plans of nations who reject Him.

Psalm 33:10 The LORD brings the counsel of the nations to nothing; he frustrates the plans of the peoples.

God gives us His counsel and His Word. We need to decide what to do with it. It is called advice because we can choose what to do about it. Doctrine reveals His plans and a client nation represents him. A pivot of mature believers is what determines the direction of a client nation. The United States has been a client nation for 200 years. Will we retain that status? People in a client nation must make the choice each day to retain the blessings of God to our nation in our client nation status. The choices that we make determines which way that our nation goes.

Should wisdom not be heeded, then God has no choice but to discipline us. He will nullify the counsels of the nations. He will administer divine discipline to a generation who rejects Him.

We began to look at the Old Testament concept of the 4 generation curse on Thursday.

4 Generation Curse

1. Maximum divine discipline administered when several successive generations have increasingly rejected divine truth and wisdom.
2. The problem appears to be progressive wrong thinking.
3. These become ingrained characteristics of that nation.
4. The modus operandi of a declining nation in the 4th generation. Exodus 20:4–5 Num. 14:3–14 and two others.
5. This remains a principle for every client nation.

Authority which gets progressively worse.

Prov. 30:11–14

Proverbs 30:11 There are those who curse their fathers and do not bless their mothers.

A rejection of fundamental authority in the 1st generation.

Proverbs 30:12 There are those who are clean in their own eyes but are not washed of their filth.

Very self righteous about their own anti authority-orientation standards. They mock those who abide by the rule of law.

Proverbs 30:13 There are those—how lofty are their eyes, how high their eyelids lift!

The third generation. They are filled with self-importance and their know-it-all attitudes. They are so convinced that they are right and that previous generations are wrong.

Just like people today who embrace socialism. So arrogant to realize that this is a flawed ideology.

In the 3rd generation, we have believers who reject doctrine and churches that teach humanism.

Proverbs 30:14 There are those whose teeth are swords, whose fangs are knives, to devour the poor from off the earth, the needy from among mankind.

These people are so filled with power lust and hatred, that they will take any measure, including lies and violence, to take over power. Revolutionaries. This generation is the end of the line. Negative volition in this generation is so rampant that it actually threatens God's plan for that nation.

He, God, will not leave them alone.

The 4th and 5th cycles of discipline are felt in the nation under the 4 generation curse. Each rebellious generation of the 4. Discipline to the families, the groups or to the nation of the 4th generation. These are designed to diminish....the next generation needs to be renewed. The bright light is that God blesses and protects those who are faithful to Him in bleak times.

The curse might be broken at any time in any generation, by believers advancing spiritually. Deut. 6:9 Psalm 100:5

Biblical example of a recovery. The Jews of the Exodus. The first generation who left Egypt spent 40 years in the desert, complaining about God's grace; never adjusted to the justice of God.

Moses went up the mountain to get the Law and the people built a golden calf to worship. The next generation responded to the teaching of Moses and they broke this curse, and they went into the land. They took the land. They had recovered from the first generation.

The Assyrian empire response to Jonah's message. Jonah was a Jew who hated the Assyrians; but the Assyrians responded positively to Jonah when he got there.

The next generation is key to avoiding catastrophic cursing. The parents must follow the Biblical command to teach their children. Deut. 6:6-13

Then believing parents exercise a positive influence and become a source of blessing to the next generation. The most important job of a parent is to teach and guide the next generation of believers. We have had positive generations for a long time, prior to the last 4. We are seeing the result of the cursed generations. We are seeing the 4th generation.

Bobby Traces the 4 Generation of Rebellion

1. 1946–1964 the baby boomer generation who rebelled against divine authority; they rejected the values and integrity and authority of the previous generation. They cursed those values. They even toyed with socialism and Marxism. Bobby's years in undergraduate work was nothing but propaganda. Protests right there on campus. Protest of student who barricaded themselves in the tower. Tear gas thrown into the building and they roused them. Bobby protested by joining the ROTC. This happened on every campus in the US. Kent State, Cal Berkeley. That is the 1st generation. Ostensibly protesting the war in Vietnam. Some supported the communist regime in North Vietnam. Some carried signs to support of Ho Chi Minh. Many remember Jane sitting in a communist tank.
2. 1965–1980 generation X; and they carried rejection of spiritual values a step further. They embraced humanism and materialism. They believed themselves to be utterly in the right and righteous. They mocked previous generations.
3. 1981–1996 the Millennials. The epitome of self-indulgence and . Bobby is talking about a cross section. They rejected and showed it. They embraced rebellion in their souls. They were totally distracted by prosperity. They turned to humanism as a replacement for Christianity. Churches miserably failing at this point. Demanding and spoiled brats.
4. Generation Z 1997–2020 they fully embrace the tenants of socialism. The more radical of them embrace Marxism. Black Lives Matter and Antifa embrace Marxism. They are filled with powerlust, lies and violence. They take it to the streets. They are vocal and violent minority; and they are intimidating Americans, suppressing rights. The cancel culture will not allow you to speak anything that contradicts them. They hate the freedoms of American. They cry death to America, kill the cops, defund the police. Does anyone think that defunding the police will make our lives better? Does anyone really imagine that. Their point is the leave a power vacuum which is wide open to fill, with socialism and Marxism. They want power. They are not looking to end racism. It is not possible. We are all one in Jesus Christ; and that is the only thing which ends racism. Their hope to bring down the Judea Christian values of previous generations. They will set aside the Constitution.

Enough of this 4th generation have brought us to this point. Bobby has seen this progress to what we have now. Through this progressions, we have Sennacherib the erosion; and a headlong rush into humanism.

There have been successful attempts to defund the police; special privileges to one group and not to others; rioting and looting justified by others. We will see how well this is working. We will find out where America is in just a few months. They are deluded into thinking that socialism and Marxism is a better way.

Bobby thinks that we have only 2 ways to go. Down further or the rise of positive volition. The reestablishment of divine institutions. The maintenance and expansion of mature believers; and that is our hope; that is our choice.

According to Proverbs 8, wisdom and taking the advice of the Lord is the most important single factor in rescuing a client nation from the 4th generation curse. Wisdom in all forms must influence in all forms the people of a client nation. As goes the pivot, so goes the client nation.

On the up side, the solution is wisdom. When v. 12 is applied, it is applied by the people and nation them

Psalm 33:12 Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD, the people whom he has chosen as his heritage!

This is positive volition; this is a reference to the pivot. The peoples whom God has chosen. This is Israel and this refers to believers today. Those who hear and adhere to the advice of God. What we do with this information determines the direction of our country.

What does a client nation look like? What does a client nation do? What does a pivot influence. When these things happen and are still operational, we are still a client nation. Remember, no matter what, it can be survived. Israel survived it. They went through some tough times. Both northern and southern kingdoms were...

God always has a client nation on this earth. Do not be pessimistic. There are certain aspects of a client nation which must be maintained. The key is the drive to spiritual maturity.

What defines a client nation to God? Next time.

Lesson #0131

Psalm 33 Wisdom in the OT

9/2/2020 Wednesday

The 4th generation curse is broken anytime a generation steps out away from the rampant immorality, rampant humanism, and a rejection of Bible doctrine. When these things are embraced, the 4 generation curse applies. This can affect believers in maturity, although they are protected when a nation is in deep trouble.

Wisdom is the single most important factor in the recovery of a client nation. Wisdom is the key; and that is why wisdom, as is found in Psalms and Proverbs is so important. We might be in the 4th generation curse right now. The march of progressive degeneration.

On the upside, when Psalm 33:12 is applied, the nation is blessed.

Psalm 33:12 Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD, the people whom he has chosen as his heritage!

The kicker is, how many people are required in order to protect a client nation? Bobby trusts that there are those who are a part of the pivot who do make a difference.

There are people that God has chosen for His Own inheritance, which is wisdom which goes from generation to generation. On other occasions, this has not been true of Israel. For instance, when the northern kingdom was destroyed and it never recovered. The southern nation was spared when Assyrian was on the move against Israel (and other nations). But the pivot failed in 586 B.C.

Babylon conquered the southern kingdom. But there were believers who did return to Israel, like Nehemiah. There were many small nations who did not like seeing Israel return to its land.

A Nation Blessed by the Lord Has Duties to the Lord

1. Evangelizing the people of the nation. In any given generation, a number of citizens in a nation respond. A generation who hear and respond to the gospel.
2. Those who respond by faith alone in Christ alone continue to grow to spiritual maturity and form a growing pivot of growing believers. This is how a pivot is formed.
3. That is the core group to whom divine blessing is bestowed. And the nation is blessed by association with that group. The entire nation does not have to be evangelized, even though the gospel is available to them. Christianity is certainly the foundation of the United States of America. That status is under attack today; and the churches are not providing the doctrine by which believers might grow.
4. From the pivot, what else is required? Missionaries go forth into the world. They evangelize and teach Bible doctrine. This is historically true in client nations. Berachah supports 12 different missionaries. Rick Hughes is one of them, and he has a mission to the young people. Missionaries in Thailand, the Philippines, one to China, to the Ukraine. That is the duty and the obligation of a client nation. This is certainly historically true, when looking back at the British Empire. People today hate the British Empire and they call Britain exploitive for economic purposes. It may be true in some cases, but the British Empire extended all over the world. It was said that the sun never set on the Union Jack, so that there was always daylight on a British flag. We know how much they did in missions.
5. Doctrinal teaching is prolific in the nation. There were times when client nation status was quite sparse.
6. This is one that is controversial among some people: the nation provides a haven for the Jews against antisemitism. There are many Christians who understand that, who are very supportive of nation Israel.
7. A client nation preserves the Scriptures. It is not enough just to read the Scriptures. Don't think that you can grow by just reading the Scriptures. This is not your means of spiritual growth. God provides the spiritual gift of pastor-teacher. The final obligation is the preservation and teaching of the Word of God.

Why Is That Important for a Client Nation?

1. The Jews are still God's people. They have been scattered over the earth as the diaspora. This is why it is important for client nations to provide a haven for them. Only since 1947 has Israel become a nation again.
2. We have not replaced Israel in the plan of God; and Israel has a future in the plan of God as a client nation.
3. That status is guaranteed by the immutable promise of God for a kingdom; and that has not yet been fulfilled.
4. That kingdom will be ruled by David's Greater Son, Jesus Christ, in the Millennium. Jesus was the King and the Messiah, but He was crucified by Israel.
5. The Jews were given an antisemitism clause in the Abrahamic covenant, protection, in Gen. 12:3 I will bless those who bless you; and the one who curses you, I will curse; and in you, all the families of the earth will be blessed. This is another reason for blessing as a client nation.
6. That blessing is provided to the gentile client nation in the Church Age. The United States provides a safe haven for the Jews who are scattered all over the earth. No believer should ever be opposed to the Jewish people; they are still God's people. God still protects them. All of this is prophesied in His promise. This antisemitism clause is still in effect.
7. Satan would love to destroy the Jews. The holocaust was one of his pushes. He is behind all antisemitism. This is so that God's promise to Abraham cannot be kept. One of Satan's appeals is, God is not a loving God. Satan will continue to persecute God's people until he is thrown into the Lake of Fire.

Bobby has heard Christians say, "No one knows who the Jews are today? Those who are in Israel are not Jews." There is no people on earth who have kept better records about who their forefathers are, are Jews. No matter how obnoxious you might find a particular Jew to be, don't every be antisemitic.

We have done great studies in Berachah. People love to take excerpts from the life of Christ and camp on that. Jesus never asked for revolution; He died at the hands of religious leaders.

The Client Nation and the 4th Generation Curse

1. This positive volition and defining actions provides for a continued representative nation in this world. His Word will be presented. There will be missionaries sent out to evangelize the world. There will be Bible teaching from dedicated men.
2. It also provides for a people, throughout history, from generation to generation, who serve the Lord in that nation. Even unbelievers who adhere to divine establishment are a part of the client nation.
3. The divine blessing that comes to each generation is perpetuated and will be perpetuated until that nation thoroughly rejects divine establishment and Bible doctrine.
4. God is gracious to a client nation; and He warns each generation. But if there is no response in the 4th generation, God brings on the discipline.

5. God can and does bless a nation because he blesses and honors the pivot. So it remains to be seen.
6. The blessing of a client nation should be apparent to us. The prosperity and freedom enjoyed by a number of generations. There are corrections made to a client nation to God at any given time.

God will honor us as individual believers who are growing to maturity. Yet we need a pivot to keep the client nation status. The size of that pivot, only the Lord knows. We need to be a part of that pivot.

Recessions and depressions have been put upon our nation; and even a small pivot can stem the tide with their response. The blessing can carry over to future generations because of that blessing by association. Even to the generations who follow and are less than enthusiastic about the pivot nation.

A Client Nation on the Way down

1. As long as a pivot continues to exist, the Lord will preserve that nation.
2. But a series of generations progression fails, then the Lord takes severe disciplinary action. God cannot leave a client nation alone. God will give a client nation every chance to recover.
3. A client nation's divine protection will be removed under that protection. We have lots of external enemies; and a lot of internal enemies, Black Lives Matter (3 leaders/founders are avowed marxists), Antifa, Marxists. To defund the police means a reduced presence. Criminals will not depart when there are no police. They want a power vacuum. They can step into the vacuum. Every country that goes marxist socialist, happens in the same way.
4. As a nation continues the downward spiral, the divine discipline increases.
5. At this point, the only hope for recovery is a renewed and expanding pivot of mature believers. An undefined number of people in a nation.

What is the impact of a generation of believers who reject their place in the world. The dire results are cumulative. The final generation always takes some form of humanism. God is secondary or He is nothing in such a nation which is going down. Many churches have a theology of humanism and social activism; and they are no longer relevant to the maintenance of a client nation. They will lead to the destruction of the client nation. They react to the evil around them and the only thing they try to sell is morality. But morality is not key to some of these churches; but that is what these churches are pushing. They are not teaching doctrine.

We will now observe the reality of God's providential working among nations; especially to client nations whose God is the Lord. That does not include nations whose God is materialism. Or accept deceptive....

When the rule of law is abandoned, a client nation begins to go down. The client nation Rome, the mob ruled Rome in the 3 century. Many were freed slaves; many were down trodden, they God bread and circus. They fed them. Welfare. And they provided entertainment for them; the coliseum. Extravagant shows which kept the mob in check. Great contributing factor to the destruction of Rome.

We have a mob mentality and that mob is controlling everything that goes on.

Preservation of a Client Nation; Destruction of a Client Nation

1. The client nation status is always connected the divine wisdom; both to divine establishment and Bible doctrine.
2. A client nation is blessed when it hears and obeys divine wisdom.
3. That is especially true based upon the building of the pivot.
4. That is especially true when there is continue adherence to divine establishment and divine institutions. You can tell that a client nation is going down when divine institutions begin to go down. Internationalism is the order of the day; families go down.
5. These are critical characteristics of a client nation.

How does divine establishment bless a nation? How is wisdom and divine establishment beneficial to a client nation.

Rule of Law and Client Nation Status

1. The rule of law, which is divine establishment, provides for maximum freedom in a nation. That is the 1st divine institution. Without the rule of law, freedom is forfeited.
2. Divine wisdom and the rule of law provide for internal peace and prosperity.
3. Divine establishment provides internal peace; personal responsibility for what a person does. Blame is on white privilege or racism; do not blame it on oneself. Black Lives Matter are concerned about 14 Blacks shot by police officers this year. We have rioting in the streets over 2 or 3 of this incidents and the places are being torn to pieces.
4. Divine establishment means respect for the freedom and privacy of others. Do we have that today? Officials get their houses painted with Black Lives Matter or defund the police. The streets are not safe.
5. Divine establishment provides security and stability to this society through the function of legal institutions and law enforcement; but not social justice and socialism; that is not the rule of law.
6. External security is maintained through a strong military. When a client nation begins to decline, the military goes down and the police are not respected.

Today, people in the United States are no longer safe in the United States. Entire cities are under siege and no one is safe. Freedom of speech is being crushed by the cancel culture and their violence. Police are being told to back off; to stand down.

Bobby is going to give us something that he just saw:

Stages of Degeneration

1. We overlook evil.
2. We permit evil
3. We legalize evil
4. We promote evil.
5. We persecute those who still call it evil.

We are permitting lawlessness. Get rid of some people and justice will be served. That was the justification for the bloody French revolution. Get rid of the aristocracy, and life will be better. Chopping heads; and they did a lot of that.

Adopting socialism increases government power, government overreach. Freedom is forsaken for collectivism. Socialism protects some citizens over others. It snoops, intervenes in all areas of life. Middle class disappears for a shared poverty. The privilege are politicians and bureaucrats.

Conclusion

1. The greatest blessing to a client nation comes through a pivot of mature believers.
2. Client nation function is rejection.
3. God honors believers who honor Him, who God is the Lord Jesus Christ.
4. That places the impetus and motivation on our spiritual growth, for blessing by association to the nation.

We often blame the degeneration of a nation on political leaders and organizations. The greatest problem is the plunge into humanism by churches who fail to teach the Word. It is that simple. Humanistic politics are the result of the churches failure to promise spiritual growth by teaching the word. They engage in social activism.

Instead, believers must vocally stand for the principles of divine establishment and Bible doctrine in a nation; but continue rejection negates blessing to a nation and its deliverance. God continues to bless the mature believer who does not forsake Him.

Lesson #0132

Psalm 33 Wisdom in the OT

9/3/2020 Thursday

Psalm 33:12a Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD,...

This describes the client nation. A client nation is a nation which has a special place in the plan of God; evangelism and Bible doctrine, missionaries which go out from the nation. Also, a haven for the Jews, who are still God's people, even though they have been set aside during the time of the Gentiles.

Psalm 33:12b ...the people whom he has chosen as his heritage!

God chooses a client nation; and believers have a say about that.

The first client nation is Israel, that God chose.

The First Client Nation

1. Israel inherited the client nation promises of God; these promises were given to Abraham and to David; and they went to the client nation Israel.
2. Those promises were in the form of a covenant, or a contract, between God and someone else. Nation Israel inherited the promises given to Abraham.
3. Abraham would be a great nation and that nation would have a land for their own; and that nation would have a great king. 2Sam. 7:8–16 Psalm 89:20–37.
4. These covenants designated and defined the first client nation. It promised its continuation and blessing forever, which is also a part of the inheritance. This does not mean that Israel will not receive discipline. They have been disciplined in the past and they will be in the future. Israel has not been regathered since A.D. 70. It is true that Israel would experience the cycles of discipline; they would receive destruction and captivity. It is no less certain to happen in this dispensation, in the form of persecution.
5. The antisemitism clause is why the Jewish people must be protected by gentile nations.

That covenant promise will come to fulfillment. God will always preserve His people; and He uses gentile nations today in the devil's world. Satan would love to destroy the Jewish people if he could. As such, it cannot be abrogated; it must be fulfilled.

Exodus 19:6 You will be to me a kingdom of priests, a holy nation. These are the words that you, Moses, will speak to the sons of Israel.

Israel as a Priest Nation

1. Every Jew was a priest; and every believer in this dispensation is a priest. This is under the concept of a client nation.
2. There was also a specific levitical priesthood, and they were called priests. They were mandated to teach doctrine and do the holy rituals.
3. There was also this warning to Israel: if they failed in their priestly function, then the nation itself, as a kingdom of priests. Hosea had to marry a prostitute; who was not faithful to Hosea. Loami was the first child, who was not from Hosea.
4. Hosea 4:6 My people are destroyed for a lack of knowledge. They rejected divine wisdom and establishment; and this leads to severe discipline. Because you have rejected knowledge, I will reject you from being My priests. Since you have forgotten your law [the Mosaic Law], I also will forget your children.

Israel as a nation was unique in ancient times, for the reasons already addressed. They were to evangelize, they were to send out missionaries; they were to disseminate Bible doctrine. It was also a theocracy. The Muslim world calls itself a theocracy, but that is false. Israel was ruled directly by God. How did God do it? God used Moses at first; but then He did it through His law. He set up a spiritual code for the nation. A code for the nation and a morality law. God governed this people through His law. Divine establishment principles took precedent in Israel.

Israel's government was on the Lord. The government rested on the shoulders of the Lord, then and in the future. That is one of the prophecies.

Israel's law provided something that is provided for every client nation. It provided for freedom, privacy and property. All of those characteristics for them as they lived under that law. This defined divine establishment and divine institutions. That is how we have gathered these concepts. The free function of commerce. Its statutes provided for the equality of women as persons; and it defined the roles of men and women in God's plan, beginning as early as Gen. 3;15. The Jews were to advance as a nation. That law contained their Bible doctrine; and that law defined their limits.

The rituals described by the law were visual principles of doctrine. God governed a nation by establishment; and by the spiritual code as defined by the Levitical priesthood.

In the ancient world, Israel occupied a very envied position; they were greatly blessed by God. They were the wealthiest nation on earth under Solomon. They failed to advance spiritually. They failed to represent the Lord to other nations. Israel played a dear price under the cursing of discipline.

Israel as a client nation, historically, consisted of 4 different nations. 2 of them overlapped, which is an interesting phenomenon.

The 4 Client Nations of Israel

1. A united Israel from the Exodus to the death of Solomon. About 1000 years.
2. The divided kingdom; and here is where the overlap took place. Samaria from the death of Solomon until it fell to the Assyrian empire in 7...
3. There was also Judah, the southern kingdom, from the death of Solomon until it fell in 586 B.C.
4. The 4th was the kingdom of Judæa from 516 B.C. until A.D. 70, when it fell to the Roman empire.
5. After A.D. 70, client nation status was given over to other nations.
6. Israel will once again become a client nation. People love to think that we are getting very close to the rapture. We cannot date when the rapture is coming. Things are horrible today, so the rapture must be right around the corner. Israel will be a client nation at the return of Jesus Christ at the end of the Tribulation.

This is the spectrum of client nations in human history. This psalm refers to the totality of Israel as the first client nation. But gentile nations have since shouldered the responsibility of client nation status. Gentile client nations.

Bob Was Asked Many Times, What Were the Gentile Client Nations

1. The Roman Empire, from this empire when the Apostles taught Bible doctrine and spread the gospel. The people responded positively; especially gentiles all over the Roman world. The Roman government was very hostile to the Christian movement. They had great shows of killing Christians. The gospel and Bible doctrine spread like never before. It became the religion of the empire. Rome became a haven for Jews who were scattered. The New Testament canon was completed. That is a client nation.
2. Other nations followed. Another empire, called the kingdom of the Franks; also known as the Meridingian kingdom. This was a post Roman barbarian kingdom. The barbarians eventually wiped out Rome. The Merovingian Kingdom, mentioned on many occasions in the ancient records. Clovis consolidated their power and then converted to Christianity. The expansion of this kind continued until the 8th century a.d. Charlemagne.
3. France, Switzerland, Bohemia (Czec), and one other.
4. More modern times, Great Britain. Its empire went all around the world.
5. Now, there is no question; the United States is the latest client nation. At least to this point.

Could there be two client nations at one time in the world, where one might replace the other; and this is very possibly. When the Apostles went to China, India and other distant lands, and they have a tremendous ministry. In compliance to the Lord's mandates, they went into all the world, and they did just that.

There was certainly and overlap with Britain and the United States. England rejected Christianity for socialism and humanism. Their apostasy has increased as has their discipline.

Client nations occur wherever there is point of view.

The Puritans came here to escape persecution. They were persecuted in England and in Holland; so they came over to the United States. They were Calvinists, but much of their theology was straight. The spread of the gospel and Bible doctrine was the key.

Client nations receive discipline.

Bobby has been teaching that God's wisdom, that we growing to maturity, have a special place of honor. God protects and rescues those who honor Him. This does not mean that things around us won't get bad. Just remember who is in charge and where our strength lies.

God and the Client Nation

1. Psalm 33 confirms that the Lord is sovereign, the Lord of all history, and the blesser or all client nations who are positive and serve Him.

2. He is also the curser of client nations of those who fail in His service. Client nations rise and fall based upon their response to Bible doctrine.
3. God has a plan for the world and for human history. We are in the midst of the Angelic Conflict. His plan will definitely be carried out. Most often through a client nation. God operates through client nations.
4. By cancelling out the plans and purposes of the humanists who fight against Him and oppose Him; working through that nation and divine providence.
5. If that nation rejects and fails, God looks elsewhere for a representative through which to work. If the US is not a client nation, then where is one? Don't look at me, I don't pick the next client nation? There does not even appear to be one in the world. God knows where there is positive volition. God can still use that positive volition. We know it from the first client nation and Rome; where there is persecution; Christianity spreads. Think about China. They have been under communist rule since 1949, and Christians have been stifled and oppressed since that time. God may look to a new nation or revive the one that He has.
6. God's plan may include client nation Israel; they received the inheritance through Abraham; and all of the plans to destroy Israel and to destroy Messiah, from generation to generation; and they failed. Their plans are contrary God's plans. God's plan is successful.
7. In the Church Age, that plan carries on with gentile client nations.

Now we come to vv. 13–14.

Psalm 33:13 The LORD looks down from heaven; He sees all the children of man;

Psalm 33:14 from where He sits enthroned he looks out on all the inhabitants of the earth,

People think that god sees groups; but he sees individuals as well.

God's Observation

1. God notes who serves Him and who fails him.
2. This is true of nations; especially client nations.
3. God knows where the client nation is; and He provides for those who teach Bible doctrine and for those who evangelize.
4. God has always observed the human race, since He created Adam and the woman.
5. God knows who individually and as a nation can be singled out for blessing, for serving and glorifying Him.

We have the image of God looking down from heaven and He sees us all. God knows our thinking and He knows our motives. God knows all of this. He knows about everything about the inhabitants of all the earth.

God is presented as the righteous ruler; He is the great judge in that sense. He judges according to the standards of His integrity.

Let's note the parallels in these verses. Each verse has 3 parallel ideas. The Lord has an exalted position.

He observes from heaven (v. 13), from His dwelling place (v. 14); He sees and He looks out. He observes the objects of His investigation. All the sons of men, which is all human beings. V. 14 is all the inhabitants of the earth. The most telling contrast of these verses, it is between the place where he observes, heaven, and what He observes, which is earth. He sees all about each one of us. What does He do with what He sees.

Lesson #0133

Psalm 33 Wisdom in the OT

9/6/2020 Sunday

Psalm 33:13 The LORD looks down from heaven; He sees all the children of man;

God knows the hearts and thinking of all mankind. He knows the thinking and motives of all the people in the street. He knows if they adhere to the divine institutions. He knows those who would take away freedom for an ideological tyranny. He knows the lies and deceptions; the humanistic schemes who would oppose Him.

He knows those who apply wisdom. He knows our thinking, our motives and our actions. He knows the ideology and motives of nations. He knows client nations and their thinking; and he knows when a nation is moving in the right or wrong direction.

Psalm 33:14 from where He sits enthroned he looks out on all the inhabitants of the earth,...

there is a special meaning here; but we need to examine this.

Dwelling Place

1. Yashab is the word for dwelling place.
2. More precisely, this is the place of sitting, place of dwelling.
3. The language applied to the Lord, as sitting, is figurative. God does not sit, but He does reside.
4. Sitting relates to His kingship as being seated upon a throne. This is dealing with the sovereignty of God.
5. This pictures the Lord as sovereign ruler over all, especially over His people. Believers in the client nation; and the client nation itself.
6. He, in this exalted position, and from this position, observes all people and all that happens on this earth, for any individual at any one time; the billions of people who live on this earth now, and every person who has ever lived.

God knows the nations and the leaders of these nations, and He knows it all and at one time.

There Are 3 Verbs Which Help Us to Understand the Lord's Purpose.

1. The Lord looks intently, He sees, and He watches.

2. The Lord is never a casual or indifferent observer.
3. God observes for supervision or for evaluation.
4. This supports the understanding of evaluation.
5. God evaluates every single one of us. For believers, we are evaluated at the great Judgment Seat of Christ. We will have to face this music at some point. Whether or not we produced and lived by divine wisdom. God looks now to see what that evaluation is.

Psalm 33:15 ...He who fashions the hearts of them all and observes all their deeds.

God watches our progress, each one of us.

Anyone who evaluates must distinguish between the good and the bad; they examine all a person's works. God gives the breath of life to each one of us. He fashions the heart; He evaluates the thinking and activities of each one of us. We are examined in terms of divine wisdom.

We have all been evaluated in human terms in one way or another. We are evaluated in school, in the armed forces, at our jobs. These evaluations determine our future, in many cases. Bobby was concerned about an evaluation as a Ranger, as we could be thrown out, after all of that work.

God gives us everything to do it; He gives us everything to succeed. God gives us everything that we need to succeed. That is the divine observation of us from heaven. This is a sobering thought. God observes everything that we do. When we realize this, and that He hears everything that we say. These evaluations have consequences.

In the human realm, discerning and evaluation always has a purpose. God always has a purpose; He sees their adherence to Bible doctrine or to its rejection. We are all evaluated, believers and unbelievers. Unbelievers are evaluated based upon divine establishment.

Client nation status is affected by this. This is what brings unbelievers into the picture. How God handles client nations is affected by believers and unbelievers both. God evaluates divine establishment, divine institutions, and Bible doctrine as well.

Not every individual in a client nation is going to do that. God sees whether or not a nation fulfills its client nation duties: Evangelism, missionary activity to foreign lands, the teaching of Bible doctrine, and a haven for the Jews. What is happening with the Jews is important because they have a future. We protect them and their future.

God is never unjust in His evaluations; His justice and righteousness are perfect; He always correctly evaluates us. He also sees when a client nation has declined, to the point where it can no longer be placed in the rank of a client nation. This determines if a nation is failing or not; whether we can recover, and what is needed to maintain or to guide us. God is very intently watching us.

We are key to the blessing of client nation USA. This will be obvious.

How do we maintain client nation status, even with all of these problems. All of the client nation's responsibilities must be evaluated. Do we fulfill the plan of God for a client nation. It may be that the client nation is going downhill. Individual believers and those who adhere to divine establishment; and this is entirely possible.

Whether the election turns out our way or in another way. God always evaluates us. We are fulfilling our future by our positive volition to Bible doctrine right now. Nothing gets by God unnoticed. God has perfect integrity and He is all-knowing.

Principle of God's Evaluation of the People of a Client Nation

1. Since the Lord is the Creator of mankind. God is the Creator and Jesus Christ is the Agent of Creation. God therefore evaluates the thinking, actions and intentions of all.
2. He is all-thinking, all-knowing and all-powerful.
3. Since God created us with a design and a plan and a purpose—this is for every one of us. His knowledge evaluates whether or not that purpose is fulfilled. Do we utilize the wisdom that we have? He evaluates whether we fulfill the duties and obligations as believers, as the pivot of a client nation. This has eternal repercussions.
4. Since the Lord loves righteousness and justice, His integrity, that is the standard of His evaluation. That begins with our positional righteousness when we believe in Jesus Christ. That simply means that we have imputed righteousness and we are eternally saved. Experientially righteousness; what are we doing with the spiritual life; are we gaining in experiential righteousness.
5. God's evaluation is to determine if people or a client nation meet His standards. If you have inculcated any wisdom, if you have applied this wisdom; all of this is evaluated. He evaluates that.
6. The Lord is the righteous judge; who thorough
7. He has knowledge of the heart or the inner man or the soul, so His evaluation can reach the thinking and the attitude and the motivation of people. It is not just what you do. You are what you think. God knows every thought and every action and the motives behind it.
8. God understands completely who and what we are; and what we do and why we do it. He finds in our thinking what we are and He judges based upon His Own perfect righteousness.
9. In this judgment is the basis for what God does in relation to people and to client nations. He acts on His evaluation. He does not just say, "I know what they are doing and I don't like it." There is blessing or cursing to be heaped upon a people and a nation.

10. From His evaluation, God disciplines sin natures.
11. God does intercede and he controls the progress of a nation and the progression of history; and He promotes His plan.
12. God controls so attentively and so perfectly with so much righteousness, that believers and client nations are safeguarded for His Own purposes and glory. God is righteous towards us; He is just towards us. We need to fit that evaluation.

We do not always know what blessing and discipline means. We recognize that everyone plays a part. Are some of us are unlucky and some are not? Because some of us are bad people and some are good.

We are blessed or disciplined based upon what God knows about us; our thinking and our motives.

God constantly watches us and He evaluations our actions, motives, and thoughts.

God in Our Lives

1. God is transcendent; and He is above all and He observes all. He knows all.
2. Yet God is very interested and involved in His creation. Don't ever think that God ignores us or does not love us. We just need to apply wisdom and faith rest. Even if you do not like the direction in which we are going.
3. That means that God is imminent in our lives. God is intimately involved in the affairs of all mankind. That is a personal relationship that we have with God. God is paying attention to us individually as a believer. Even more so than anyone else.
4. God die not create us and then leave us to our own devices in this world. How could all of this evil be happening? Theistic evolution is what this is called. God does not leave anything on its own.
5. God knows that we would destroy ourselves due to our sin nature. Therefore, He must intercede for our benefit; otherwise, we would destroy ourselves. The rule of law has gone awry in the United States. We could easily depart from that. If God were no in control, we would destroy ourselves.
6. God knows that we wold destroy ourselves because of our sin natures.
7. His laws and actions preclude that destruction. There is a lesson here. Mankind cannot save or deliver himself or herself. Humanist says that man by man's efforts can build a utopia. That we can end poverty and injustice. If you know the Scriptures, then you know poverty will be with us always; and you know that there will always be injustice.

God's Plan and Our Free Will

1. God's purposes are always working.
2. We have a true free will. If not, then God is the Author of sin.
3. The sovereignty of God and the free will of man coexist. We are truly free and the sovereignty of God is always in effect.

4. We choose our own future. God's intent is that we have wisdom; we make the decision not to have it.
5. Even though man makes bad decisions, God's purposes still come to fruition in mankind. We have free will, but God still work His will on this earth. A client nation is important and the pivot is import.
6. God's plan will come to fruition in spite of us or in tandem with us.

How Does God's Will Come to Fruition

1. There are circumstances which God works through. God is imminent; He is involved with us and with nations.
2. We are not always aware as to how God influences our thinking. God can use the Holy Spirit to bring our thinking around in any given moment. God works through individuals and through the client nation. This is how He wins the Angelic Conflict. Sovereignty of God and free will of man must coexist. We are allowed to make free choices in life and God takes this into account.
3. He works His purposes.

We can take this or leave it. God is watching, He knows what we think, and He knows the motives of everyone. Some in Black Lives Matter have good intentions; but their training and founded is purely Marxist. They want a power vacuum. Karl Marx says that it is all about struggle. In the pivot, we stand against them.

We come to a very important section in our study of a client nation to God. Vv. 16–17 human effort does not deliver the client nation that is going down. Military is important and we sometimes put faith in it. But it is not the final determining factor for the nation or people. Great armies can be defeated. Not true of this country so far; but it could change.

Psalm 33:16 The king is not saved by his great army; a warrior is not delivered by his great strength.

Psalm 33:17 The war horse is a false hope for salvation, and by its great might it cannot rescue.

Lesson #0134

Psalm 33 Wisdom in the OT

9/9/2020 Wednesday

Over many years, people have asked, why the pictures of military people on our walls in Berachah Church. This may seem odd. Isn't church about Christ and Bible doctrine. These things are emphasized every single day. Don't be concerned about the military pictures on the wall. Berachah Church has always been a church that supports the military services of the United States. The entrance on the south end is a row of historical prints of soldiers. In the library, pictures of soldiers praying. Used to be ranger row in the tunnel; pics of those who went through Ranger school. Several hundred people have joined the armed forces.

Bobby and Bob were both in the military. The pictures celebrate the many years of Berachah Church. We even have a military communion on New Year's Eve. Daily, many people in Berachah spend time in prayer for those in harm's way on the battlefields in the world.

Bobby brings this up because of v. 16. He has not always placed this concept in the context of this study.

Psalm 33:16 The king is not saved by his great army; a warrior is not delivered by his great strength.

Freedom is maintained by a strong military; freedom from foreign aggression; an entire book dedicated to that principle. That is especially pertinent to a client nation. At the end of the day, this verse confirms that our front line defense of freedom is always the doctrine resident in our souls.

The overall principle here is, human effort does not deliver a client nation, particularly when it is deteriorating. We see our nation deteriorating, even though we have a very strong military. The truth of where our true security lies. Not even a strong military can deliver us when we reach a point of deterioration as a failing client nation.

The client nation is also not saved by a mighty army. A warrior/soldier is not delivered strictly on his own great strength. Consider David and Goliath.

Rick Hughes FLOT line. When a client nation goes down, one of the things which occurs in that nation is military disaster. Evil nations can have strong militaries; they have throughout history. But they use their army for conquest and to enforce tyranny; and not strictly for freedom.

The German army was head and shoulders over our army at the beginning of WWII, and the Russian army was about equally powerful.

Our objective was freedom through military victory.

A King Is Not Saved by a Mighty Army

1. Human strength cannot replace wisdom; dependence on human strength is humanism. It cannot beat divine wisdom.
2. A great army cannot supercede our trust in the Lord for perfection and deliverance.
3. God can use such an army for His purposes, especially used in the United States. We are a free people and we have maintained that because of our military.
4. We must never deviate from our faith in God's care and perfection.
5. God is our protection; He is our Savior. Not soldiers, not weaponry.

The FLOT line is explained in the book Freedom through Military Victory. We place our faith for deliverance in that FLOT line. God may use such items to fulfill His plan, including discipline. But dependence upon human resources does not deliver from apostasy.

What is the solution if it is not a strong army but trust in God and wisdom. Even a strong police force cannot deliver us, from the degeneracy

What Is the Solution?

1. In historical disaster, God can still deliver from the power of the cosmic system. God can do this in the worst of conditions. We may have problems with China and Russia, and their armies are growing daily. We have a great army, but we are not capable of fighting a two-front war.
2. Freedom comes to the client nation.
3. The prominence of internal arrogance and power lust in a nation causes degeneracy; and the arrogance in high places. Do not mistake those who are confident and know what they are doing with arrogance. You cannot be smart unless you adhere to divine establishment. The most brilliant person on earth who rejects divine truth is stupid. They lack true wisdom. Even those few exceptions cannot lead us to victory.
4. The degeneracy of a nation requires an individual spiritual solution. Israel is the perfect example of a client nation. Never leave out the importance of Bible doctrine to the believer. The rule of law is critical and we are losing that. The only solution is individual and spiritual. That is our only recovery.
5. Humanistic panaceas to the problems of individual...humanistic panaceas are all around us. Marxism is a so-called workers' utopia. Capitalists at the top would be buried and the workers would take over. The Marxists have left the working man and have used
6. The ideologies of humanism which tout man's efforts, which use revolution and violence to solve man's problems, these are....you lose your individuality under Marxism and that must be enforced by government.
7. Any solution which requires tyranny to impose or to maintain violates the first institution.
8. A grand and powerful army does not offset degeneracy and loss in the political realm. The cancel culture; cancel any free speech that you do not agree with. If you have the wrong point of view, you will not be allowed to speak;... That is the cancel

The solution is theo-centric thinking.

There is a power-grab and there are Marxists behind this movement who want power. These people do not understand the root of this injury.

Is there justice under the rule of law? Of course there is!

We are seeing a lot of intimidation today. Rosa Brooks, of Georgetown university: "Americans should prepare for war if there is anything less than a huge Biden win." Wrong results means, more violence. Is that the rule of law expressed by a law profession? Leftists do not accept election results if it is not to their liking. She is scaring the population with the threat of civil war; and that is mainstream.

When the mainstream is infected with humanistic thinking; and people are trapped by system of arrogance. There is corruption and hopelessness. The United States has become a spiritually destitute.

No nation can reverse this trend. It must be the power of God. A degenerate client nation must be caused to redirect to fix the problems that we have. Corrupted ideologies and power lust. Deliverance then is through the size of the pivot of maturing believers.

The Pivot and the Client Nation

1. When the pivot is reduced, a cleansing of evil is inevitable. We just keep in mid fro their.
2. A cleansing of that evil. Reminds Bobby of a colonoscopy.
3. Whatever pivot remains can always expect protection from the Lord. This is our guarantee.
4. Individual believers may suffer, but a pivot will survive to carry on God's purposes. We are all a part of that.
5. God always provides a representative of Himself here on this earth. We are a part of this or we are not.
6. When humanism sets aside the laws of divine establishment, then freedom and deliverance from directly from the Lord.
7. Jesus controls history; He works to control some circumstances, some for our benefit. Works to our advantage when we apply wisdom. If we relax under these conditions; and we understand the truth and we apply it.

We are sitting around the auditorium with masks and some do not even attend. We can hear doctrine when we are stuck at home. What good can come of this. Many more people are being reached now than ever before. People are hearing it who never wold have heard it before. It is time when people need to hear it.

Bobby cannot stand up and give us the good that covid19 will bring, but we know that it will, as discipline, serve a purpose. What will happen? God can work circumstances like these for our benefit and the benefit of the client nation. Also a pivot that glorifies God's plan and Him.

God works circumstances together for our good and the good that represents Him. The military may be used, but it cannot deliver us from evil. Bobby marvels at how advanced our military is. But China and Russia are developing a great army with great strength. We need a great military; but we need a pivot even more.

A warrior is not delivered by his great strength. Great physical strength may appear to be a factor in deliverance of individuals. Strong warriors are considered victors; and shows have strong people overcoming evil villains.

Psalm 33:16b ...a warrior is not delivered by his great strength.

But 16b tell us that this is not the case.

What about the Strength of the Human Warrior?

1. Those who depend upon their strength for deliverance are deluded.
2. They are filled with superiority of their dominant physical prowess to overcome evil.
3. The strong person depends upon physical strength and muscle to be delivered.
4. Arrogance of soul nullifies great strength; it breeds a humanistic dependence upon strength in life.
5. That is a derivation of a strong body and a weak mind. Not necessarily a stupid person, but an arrogant one. No humility in arrogance. Humility for the believer is grace orientation.
6. This characteristic of a strong body and an arrogant soul is characteristic of bullies, criminals, and, too often, arrogant athletes. This strength will fade. That which the strong person depends on is gone. What is left? That depends upon what is in the soul.

What is in the soul? That is the solution to everything. You are what you think. That impact is Bible doctrine in your soul. We are in a context that makes this abundantly clear. We think a great military is powerful; but dependence upon God is far more powerful. That is the underpinning of wisdom.

Psalm 33:16 The king is not saved by his great army; a warrior is not delivered by his great strength.

Lesson #0135

Psalm 33 Wisdom in the OT

9/10/2020 Thursday

Roman army had an overwhelming force in 216 B.C. and they went up against Hannibal and his army, which was a much smaller force. This was the second Punic war. After 2 terrible wars, they won the 2nd Punic war.

Napoleon was also quite arrogant. His army in Spain was outmaneuvered and completely frustrated. It took a tremendous toll on Napoleon's army, which would greatly affect him in later campaigns. Napoleon invaded Russia, which was a bad idea anyway; this brought his abdication. France remained in ruins and was broke.

He returned and was totally defeated at Waterloo, which ended his career.

The British army was known for great victories but also spectacular losses as well.

Bergoine who fought the American colonists in 1777, and he was defeated, which turned the tide of the War for Independence.

A number of examples. Many, many problems for the British; they lost Singapore and Hong Kong. French armies had many bad generals with obsolete tactics in WWII. The French were over-confident. Germany only took 40 days to take France (WWI or II?).

Nations pay a dear price for arrogance. Military defeat. None of these armies or generals understood the wisdom of Psalm 33:16:

Psalm 33:16 The king is not saved by his great army; a warrior is not delivered by his great strength.

When we think of this verse, we consider David. This is an anonymous psalm, but it certainly could have been David.

David when he killed Goliath said it was not by his own strength, but by the Lord. David made it clear that God gets the credit for his victory. The power that delivered Goliath, the battle is the Lord's.

V. 17 provides a metaphor of military strength, of false hope:

Psalm 33:17 The war horse is a false hope for salvation, and by its great might it cannot rescue.

Literal reference to a horse; but this refers to the engines of war, the equipment of war, the military might. The massive cavalry attack could be most decisive. Cavalry was in great use all the way to WWI. The horse was depended upon for decisiveness in battle. The horse had great mobility. A cavalry could change the direction of a battle.

Cavalry was important for reconnaissance. But v. 17 is very clear. Bobby thinks of the Scythians, who dominated Asia to a portion of Russia. The Egyptian chariot corps chased Israel to the Red Sea, but God took them out.

Jeb Stuart's cavalry was always a critical factor in Lee's campaigns in northern Virginia.

Today, the horse has been replaced by armor, tanks, still a decisive part of offensive warfare. Bobby's point is, none of this combat power, at any point in time, can deliver a nation or deliver a king. It is not their own power or military power that delivers them. Nothing can be done apart from the Lord's direction.

Bobby reads up on various battles, and sometimes, the slightest little thing can change the tide of the battle.

Victory Belongs to the Lord.

1. Military victory does not come to a client nation in decline; that is an aspect of divine discipline.

2. The military cannot deliver a nation under divine discipline. Victory or defeat is the Lord's prerogative. God can us war for His Own purposes.
3. Under any circumstances, as He did in 2Kings 19:35 there is a hopeless situation for Judah; the Assyrians have moved down the coast of the Mediterranean; and under Sennacherib, they had besieged Jerusalem. 176,000 were ready to destroy the city.
4. The Lord killed 185,000 soldiers at the gates of Jerusalem.
5. Also, we can say the horse can represent fleeing to safety.
6. The Lord dlivers from a crisis; not a fast getaway.

Prov. 21:31 The horse is made ready for the day of battle, but the victory belongs to the LORD.

Conclusion

1. If there is arrogance and degeneracy in a nation, the best army with the best equipment becomes useless.
2. The war horse, representing a powerful war machine, is a false hope for deliverance in times of crisis conflict.
3. An army cannot deliver such a nation from its own folly and
4. The Lord delivers believer soldiers in the midst of such carnage. Sheqer means deception, falsehood, strong delusion. Like 2Thess. 2:11 for this reason, God will send upon them a deluding influence so that they will believe that which is false.

When the truth is rejected for humanistic solutions, God allows such delusions to run their course.

Rejection of Truth

1. 3 categories of truth that can be rejected: the gospel, divine establishment, and Bible doctrine. Anarchy and freedom is lost.
2. Anyone who rejects truth an any of these 3 categories will be enslaved by cosmic system propaganda and enslaved by humanistic propaganda.
3. They will become vulnerable to all types of Satanic influences. Massive and varied in the United States of these influences. Eastern religions and revolutionary ideals even our government is tearing down divine institutions.
4. Strong delusion is always preceded by negative volition and arrogance and scar tissue of the soul. It makes it more and more difficult to apply the truth and to accept it.
5. Arrogance offers no true perspective of life because it is self-delusional. That is the deluding influence. We are our own deluding influence as we have garbage in our own souls. God sends the deluding influence. Doesn't God want us to accept truth?

What Does this Mean?

1. The deluding influences is God justice and work.
2. Delusion is the natural result of accepting the lies of the cosmic system. There are so many and they are so subtle. The fools choose to believe the lie rather than the truth.
3. Therefore, God gives them over to the delusions inherent in their rejection.
4. God allows the course of their rejection of the truth to play out to come to its usual conclusions. A delusion is divine discipline. It leads to all sorts of problems and adversity to those who are so strongly deluded. If you do not have divine wisdom, then you are stupid. No matter how many degrees you have. The streets of American are filled with strong delusions from from the professors of our universities; from men who are deluded.
5. They only have the options of Satan's delusion, that Satan has a better program than God.
6. The delusions include the whole realm of Satanic doctrine, which replaces truth in the soul: socialism, the welfare state, the redistribution of wealth, social justice, fake science, national disarmament, defund the police. There is no divine wisdom in any of this.
7. The cosmic system promotes all of these causes for personal and national life. That is the lie. The Satanic propaganda that so many people embrace. God turns them over to the results of their delusions. 2Thess. 2:12 in order that they might all be judged or condemned who did not believe the truth, but took pleasure in wickedness. They happily wallow in the cosmic system of Satan. They are condemned in this life by their own humanistic delusions.

It Should Be Obvious from These Two Verses...

1. The solution to national crisis or disaster is spiritual.
2. Even the greatest human power on earth, which is illustrated by a great army, is no match for the spiritual life and the plan of God. History is littered with the bones of great armies. They come and they go, but the plan of God moves on.
3. To depend upon human power is delusional. For the perpetuation of the United States and a free nation, we cannot depend on our army, its leadership, its equipment, etc.
4. It is the Lord Jesus Christ and His control of history that includes great armies that delivers a client nation for His purposes. This does not mean that great armies are not important. The battle is the Lord's, always.
5. In delivering a client nation in decline, the Lord Jesus Christ takes cognizance only of the pivot of mature believers. Our only hope is our perception of doctrine and dependence on the Lord for victory.
6. Whatever we find in this world is strength that you depend upon, the Lord has a greater strength. The national election of 2020 confuses the issue if we depend upon one candidate or the other. One professor said, if Biden does not win by a landslide, there will be civil war. The rule of law has been stifled. Revolutionaries are tasting success and they like it. A good number of the country is deluded. We should have no delusions about them or about what the true solution is.

We have great police forces, yet our cities are on fire.

If we think that 2020 is the key, we will be very disappointed. By all means, vote for the divine establishment candidate, but do not place your hope on any political candidate; but pin it on the Lord and watch His deliverance for our benefit.

Bobby probably won't watch the election returns. But he will look with great interest on the results and he will take an interest in what the winners and losers say. Notice the difference between those who are depending upon this election. No matter which way it goes, the battle is the Lord's; the victory is His.

Lesson #0136

Psalm 33 Wisdom in the OT

9/13/2020 Sunday

Communion Sunday:

As we look as what is to come in our nation's future, there is uncertainty.

7 perspectives or looks of Jesus:

As a servant.

Isa. 53:11 Out of the anguish of his soul he shall see and be satisfied; by his knowledge shall the righteous one, my servant, make many to be accounted righteous, and he shall bear their iniquities.

Mark 10:45 For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."

This was the Lord's mission and His attitude.

Jesus was never confused or surprised; He never looked at someone with a blank stare.

A look of anger. Not a bad disposition or a bad day or that his emotions are out of control
Mark 3:5 And he looked around at them with anger, grieved at their hardness of heart, and said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He stretched it out, and his hand was restored.

This was a look of righteous anger.

The pharisees were there to catch the Lord healing on the Sabbath. These pharisees had no compassion for the man with the withered hand. They had withered souls. Healing on the Sabbath was a heinous violation of their uncompromising legalism. How ironic, as the God of Israel was doing the healing.

They were concerned with the Law; they were concerned with His message of grace. They stood in the presence of the Lord. The look that the Lord gave was the foreshadowing of the judgment that they would receive.

This is how the Lord looked upon the unbelieving world. When anyone fails to believe, the wrath of God falls upon them. This is how we must look on the world, with a compassion for the lost and a realization of the wrath of God upon them. That is a motivation for us as believers to witness.

Do not forget the look of divine discipline when you are out of line. Heb. 12:6 For the Lord disciplines the one he loves, and chastises every son whom he receives."

A look of love. Mark 10:21 And Jesus, looking at him, loved him, and said to him, "You lack one thing: go, sell all that you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me."

Jesus was testing this man regarding his positive volition and money. Jesus reveals his failure; he blocks his way to eternal life through his own greed. The young man walked away without expressing faith in Christ.

Jesus looked upon this man with love. Jesus looks this way upon all mankind; from the viewpoint of divine love. Jesus would soon die for this man who had rejected Him.

Greater love has no man than one who lays down his life for his friends. But Jesus would lay His life down for even His enemies. Unfortunately, the rich young ruler rejected Him.

The look of love for His family. There is a new family relationship:

Matt. 12:46–48 While he was still speaking to the people, behold, his mother and his brothers stood outside, asking to speak to him. But he replied to the man who told him, "Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?"

The eyes of the Lord has personal love for His Own family. We have a blood family and a family secured by the blood of Christ. The families do not always get along. We look upon our family with the eyes of virtue love. We have virtue love for all. Use it in the current turmoil.

This leads to another look; delight in the eyes of the Lord. Mark 5:32 But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling and fell down before him and told him the whole truth.

Jesus looks upon the Lord with elation. He is pleased with those who place their trust in Him, no matter the circumstances. What a contrast with the look towards those who have rejected the pharisees. No doubt the future will bring some difficult or terrible circumstances to us. Waiting and trusting Him in all things brings a delightful gaze; the gaze of blessing in the midst of suffering.

The look of reproach to family members. Mark 8:33 But turning and seeing his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said, "Get behind me, Satan! For you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but on the things of man."

Right before this, Peter understood Who Jesus was; "You are the Christ."

Jesus tells Peter how He would go to the cross and Peter rejected this. He wanted Jesus to bypass the cross. This was a look of reproach. Anything but the cross is the policy of Satan. The cross is the only basis for redemption. Nothing short of His death would avail for the salvation of man.

The cross that Peter did not want Jesus to go to. To this glorious fact, the devil seeks to blind the minds of those without enough doctrine to understand what is happening. Peter became a tool for the other side. Easy for us to lose focus in difficult times.

The doctrine is there; it is right in front of us. We fail to metabolize it; we fail to grasp the wisdom. We fail to utilize our greatest resource.

Mark 10:23 And Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How difficult it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!"

Salvation is for rich and for poor and for everyone in between. The rich man sees less of a need in his life for salvation. He feels so self-reliant; or he is filled with materialism. Are we any different. How easy to get our eyes on our own needs, our own pleasures. Our own bank accounts. Money is not the problem but the love of money or anything else which stands between us and the Lord.

Beyond the look of warning, there is that look of judgment. Mark 11:11 And he entered Jerusalem and went into the temple. And when he had looked around at everything, as it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.

Jesus saw materialism and commerce overtaking Temple use. Jesus saw a future day when the Temple would be occupied by His enemies. It was the Abomination of Desolation which would be erected in His Temple. Then Christ would return in judgment. He is the greatest soldier in human history. His sword is the ultimate end for all who oppose Him.

When He returns, He will look upon His people with complete delight. No more rebuke or judgment. When the eye of our faith meet the eye of the Lord's love, we will receive all that is necessary.

Do we have enough ἐπίγνωσις doctrine for the communion service.

Freedom through military victory is important to a nation; but if a nation declines, the most powerful military on earth cannot deliver it. There is something which will stem the tide, but it is nothing human. In a time of national crisis; the circumstances of national crisis. The national pivot. The machinery of the military does not provide us ultimately with deliverance.

Psalm 33:18 Behold, the eye of the LORD is on those who fear Him, on those who hope in His steadfast love [= grace],...

Behold is a particle which points to something that is very important. Confidence in the Lord, in the worst of circumstances for the believer with the worst mental attitude. This is the life that God provides and that He expects of us. The psalmist is directing our confidence in the correct direction.

The Lord's care in times of severe difficulty is important. It is most evident in the midst of the later cycles of discipline when everything seems to be lost. The eye of the Lord is always upon us.

This reminded Bobby of the eyes of Texas being upon us. The background of the author and the piece is said to be a racist piece; but that is untrue. There is a parallel here. What does the eyes of Texas mean? A certain group of people look upon them expecting great things from them.

The eyes of the Lord are upon us; and He expects great victory from us.

Chesed and the Eyes of the Lord

1. Those who fear the Lord; that is indicative of those who respect and revere Him. We place our confidence in His chesed. When the Lord looks at us with an eye of benevolence, that is a motivator for us.
2. That is His motive for our deliverance and for His unfailing love and His confidence in it.
3. This drives His care for His people.

4. That defines the pivot's attitude under pressure. Reverence and confidence in the Lord above all adversity. We know that we can depend upon the Lord. What greater comfort is there than to know His eyes are upon us.
5. We have a relaxed mental attitude as a result. When the football team is out there and they hear that song, they know the people are with them.
6. The pivot; and what the Lord promises to the pivot is the basis of our confidence.

What Are the Eyes of the Lord?

1. We cannot say that God has actual eyes. This is an anthropomorphism. This reveals to us something about God. Only in the Lord's incarnation, does God have eyes.
2. But we can understand that the Lord sees and He looks and He observes the activities of mankind on earth.
3. Especially according to this verse, the Lord observes the pivot and their dilemmas. He responds with unfailing love to those who have confidence in Him. God's unfailing love does not fail. It is always forthcoming.
4. It emphasizes the policy of God directed towards His persecuted people. That is becoming a problem in this country. Those maturing believers who put their trust in the unfailing love of the Lord, He directs His policy of love towards His people.
5. The Lord sees their faith and he responds to their needs in unfailing love.
6. His eyes on us infers His protection and His care. And confidence in his unfailing love is never misplaced. The second stage is claiming a doctrinal rationale. This vers commends chesed, the unfailing love of God rationale. The pivot of believers can use the rationale under pressure. God is viewing the varsity. His eyes focusing on us guarantees security; and guarantees confidence, especially in a crisis. This is a very important rationale to understand.

This is a full understanding of v. 18. A full class on the unfailing love of God.

Lesson #0137                      Psalm 33 Wisdom in the OT                      9/16/2020 Wednesday

There is a great deal of comfort in this verse.

Psalm 33:18 Behold, the eye of the LORD is on those who fear Him, on those who hope in His steadfast love [= grace],...

This verse assures us that God is watching. This is an anthropomorphism of course. The eye of the Lord observes two things, which should be characteristic of believers. Believers who fear and respect God. God observes all mankind, which we saw back in vv. 13–14. But this has special meaning for him or her. This is a guarantee of His concern and care for us.

The believer growing to spiritual maturity receives intense focus from the eye of the LORD. These believers are a part of the pivot.

The Lord's Eye

1. The Lord's eye elicits hope under all circumstances.
2. This is hope in the sense of being assured. This describes the pivot's attitude under pressure. This is confidence.
3. When you have that confidence, you have great comfort and you exhibit a relaxed mental attitude in life. It means that you understand that the eye of the Lord is upon you. The more you learn, the more doctrine that you apply. You have a relaxed mental attitude under all circumstances.
4. With the eye of the Lord upon you, God knows all of our circumstances and all of your troubles. God knows our adversity and our prosperity. All that He does is to our benefit. If God leaves you under lousy circumstances, it is a part of His plan. You can be comforted under pressure. God can deliver you under any and all circumstances.

The second part of this verse is having hope or confidence in the LORD's loving kindness. That is the word chesed (חֶסֶד). Love can sometimes become brittle and fail. It can be undercut by circumstances and by other things as well. God's love is unfailing loyalty. God is helping those believers who are maturing. The faith rest drill comes into play at this point as the means of retaining confidence in the Lord; as the means of comfort in that confidence; as the means of a relaxed mental attitude.

The second stage in the faith rest drill is claiming of doctrinal rationale. This verse presents an example of the 2nd stage of the faith rest drill. It commends chesed. This is a look of personal love towards us. The pivot of mature believers has the ability to utilize this rationale under pressure. A verse that we are familiar with. I am convinced that neither...will be able to separate us from the love of God. These verses guarantee absolute security. We hear this on Sunday morning.

God's love is unconditional; and it is personal to every believer. It is not that God loves all believers; but it is more than that. God loves us all individually. We who are mature believers. God's love is not tarnished, nor is it removed from us. God's love is never withdrawn for any reason, including towards believers who are less than reciprocal love; but His love remains nonetheless.

This love of God is also the believer's promise of something else. It is the promise of an eternal relationship. God's love is eternal. Nothing can separate any believer from that relationship. A loving God holds us with His hands forever.

Someone is always trying to say that we can do something to lose our salvation. In seminary, if you do not bear fruit, you are probably not saved; if you don't act like a believer, then you probably are not saved; or if you are carnal most of the time, you probably are not saved.

This love of God is also a promise of an eternal relationship found in John 10:28 I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand.

God has us in His hand. This is an eternal promise by which we can put our trust in His grace.

There are so many believers who do not believe that they have eternal security. They sweat it. You cannot move forward if you don't trust God to keep you. We have an eternal promise that never fails.

The Mechanics of this Eternal Rational

1. We must recognize, have confidence that God's love is an inherent quality of absolute benevolence. It is never given halfway; there is nothing lacking from the love of God.
2. God's unfailing love is the motive for His plan for us. God wants us to do something; He sets this plan for us.
3. God always possesses that love towards us. Never does He not have love towards us. It does not matter how far we depart from Bible doctrine.
4. Now, if we need it, we are disciplines, because He disciplines every son that He receives. God has tremendous ways of getting our attention. Bobby can name a few of these ways in his own life.
5. God's love never increases; or decreases. We cannot understand that. Love wains and love gains momentum. Love is a straight line; but emotion is not. It is always maximum unflinching love. The circumstances may change and He may show His love in many ways, but it is the same love.
6. God is gracious, generous and merciful; we need that every day.
7. God's love is totally dependable; unlike any human love. This is what makes God's love such a problem-solver.
8. God's love is not sentimental and it is not emotional. Hollywood portrays love as sex because it is highly emotional. God does not have warm and fuzzy feelings about us. God's love for us is amazing.
9. God's love is not subject to any wave of human feelings. We love people and we still have certain feelings towards them, agitation, ardor, fervor. Those attitudes are not God's love. God's love is pure benevolence towards us.
10. God's love is never complicated by ignorance, silliness or absurdity. People think that love at first sight is a wonderful thing that could happen. That is ignorance. You cannot love someone without knowledge of them. Being ignorant about someone is not loving them. You might end up loving that person. Do not accept a proposal of marriage after 3 hours of conversation. You need to know how they think. That means thinking doctrine, having wisdom, having discernment. With that, you have grounds to love that person. Jesus died for us, which is the greatest love of all.
11. His love is always reliable and always dependable. People say they love us, but maybe they are not reliable.
12. His love never changes; it never wavers; it never has ups and downs.
13. And His love is always directed towards us individually; it is very personal, for each one of us. We have a personal relationship with God.

What is an eternal relationship with God? God's relationship with us is airtight. The more we understand God, the better we understand our relationship with Him. We apply His relationship to our lives.

In great relationships, people respect one another, their thinking, their opinions. People who love each other follow each other. That is the great effect of who the Lord loves in His soul.

You need to know God's love and use it. The love of God rationale.

Use the Love of God Rationale

1. Strongest aspect and motivation for confidence in God's deliverance.
2. When we reciprocate God's love, nothing can intrude on the confidence that we have. Nothing comes between us and God.
3. You can always trust God. The greatest relationship is trust. Husbands and wives do not always trust one another. You can always trust God. He will never disappoint us and He will never desert us. If you think God does not really love you, then you do not understand His love. If you really love and trust someone, you love and trust them under any circumstance with anyone.
4. God's love allows bad things to happen to us, from time to time. Remember, God's benevolence is a great part of His love. Adversity is for our benefit. We grow more rapidly under adversity than we do under.
5. God wants us to grow; sometimes application of wisdom and adversity is the best and fastest way. If we are gaining reciprocal love for God, when adversity comes around, our spiritual growth is accelerated. The more we use it, the more confident that we are in the Lord.
6. That is how God's attribute of love is totally involved even when the circumstances hurt.

God's love does not fail. We can relax. We can let God open doors. He can handle even national issues as well. What about freedom, what about SS, what about the economy, what about the 1st and 2nd amendments? It is important to know that the love of God rationale solves national problems, as we are a part of the solution. God love us no less, not matter what happens to the nation.

Personal Love for God

1. Everything that God does is motivated by His love; along with His justice and righteousness. This attributes deals with us specifically.
2. God's justice and righteousness may be directed towards discipline; discipline of His client nation for failure.
3. God's love still meets us in that discipline and through the discipline. These always work in sandmen; they are never separated.
4. God's plan is always to our benefit, even in prosperity.

When you discover that God loved you in eternity past, even before the first man existed; even before the creation of the universe. Unparallel, unequaled.

We have heard that love is the answer. It is true; but it is not faulty, unstable human love. Armed with this rationale, you will apply this rationale to all of your circumstances.

God's Love and Our Daily Life

1. God's love for us motivates us in many ways. Love motivates us in life.
2. God's love inspires us to repel anything which seeks to distort His plan in our lives.
3. It keeps us focused on His Word. The ups and downs of the cosmic system. Hardly even a contrast.
4. God's love is a magnificent defense against all the intrusions of ....
5. No fear, un anxiety, no breaching the walls of our spiritual defense line by using the love of God rationale. The love of a parent is the security of a child. When facing the abuse of the cosmic system, other believers or unbelievers,

We will face a great many unpleasant things in the future. We need this rationale.

Application of the Love of God Rationale

1. God's eyes are upon us and upon the nation; we comprise a portion of the pivot.
2. The pivot of mature believers have a maximum capacity to love God and they use this rationale.
3. Occupation with Christ is the ultimate outcome of personal love towards Him. In time of catastrophe, God's love is unending.
4. Since the eyes of the Lord are on the pivot, the Lord cares and delivers the pivot in adversity and in a nation in crisis.

This is our nation. Do not fear the socialist, the Marxists, the rioters. The eyes of the Lord are upon us. They are the eyes of unending love.

Psalm 33:18 [Behold, the eye of the LORD is on those who fear Him, on those who hope in His steadfast love \[= grace\],...](#)

Lesson #0138

Psalm 33 Wisdom in the OT

9/17/2020 Thursday

We studied the love of God rationale. These final verses give us the result of the love of God rationale. V. 19 applies this rationale to the greatest problems in life: death and famine.

Psalm 33:19 ....that He may deliver their soul from death and keep them alive in famine.

Psalm 33:20 Our soul waits for the LORD; he is our help and our shield.

Psalm 33:21 For our heart is glad in Him, because we trust in His Holy Name.

Psalm 33:22 Let Your steadfast love, O LORD, be upon us, even as we hope in You.

When we are able to claim these verses, we can have calm in the Lord and we can await our deliverance.

Psalm 33:19a ...that He may deliver their soul from death...

Natsal is in the Hiphil stem, and it means to cause to deliver, to cause to rescue. In the Piel stem, it means to preserve. There is a connotation of preserving from destruction. We can translate this, to rescue.

God Rescuing Us in Times of Tumult

1. This is a reference to historical disaster. This does not preclude what is coming in the future. If we don't learn from history, we are doomed to repeat it. We can always go to times and situations like this and say, "People should have known better." He rescues us; He rescues our souls from death.
2. God may rescue believers who are not mature; and He may rescue many people in many ways. A deliverance is promised; from war, from national upheaval, from disaster. God can rescue us from these things. This promise has everything to do with a client nation. Sometimes, this is done to cleanse a client nation.
3. Persecution can bring deadly disaster to Christians in general. Humanism is rampant in our client nation. This is the epitome of the cosmic system. The cosmic system opposes the cosmic system to the nth degree. These humanistic systems want to completely take control, like Marxism and socialism. As individuals, we have this promise of our shield and our defender. Paul was persecuted in so many ways and in so many circumstances. Paul did have his head severed, but it was time for him to go home.
4. God does rescue our souls from death; from the face of death. The Old Testament is filled with deliverance for client nation Israel.
5. God loves us with an infinite love. So He never fails to fulfill our needs. This is in times of disaster; or when we are facing death. It seems likely that we could face death by violence today. The love of God rationale still applies.
6. The God's plan for us has run its course, then our death is the Lord's call. When it is His call, it is the right time.
7. The call at the end of our lives is a welcome home to heaven. This is a rescue; and it is from physical adversity on earth; it is from this life. When it is time for Bobby to quit teaching, he will be called home. It is hard to imagine what entering heaven will be like; that will be the call home. God does deliver members of the pivot. There will always be those who remain behind to carry out God's plan.

Psalm 33:19b ...and keep them alive in famine.

Chayah, which, in general, means to live. This describes being kept alive during a time of famine. This is a great problem. We have an unbelievable system of supplying good. How many of you think that a supermarket might not be filled with food? There can be many kinds of natural disasters. The US has had a booming economy, but covid19 has changed this dramatically.

The prevalence of rioting the looting, many have had their property and business destroyed. This combination could be a source of add. Staying alive in famine is a real disaster. Can you imagine the devastation of the loss of a power grid in this part of the country. We are told to stalk up. We are told 3 days worth of food. But you go in, and you cannot find anything.

What happens if 3 days stretches into weeks or months without a re-supply. That could happen with the loss of a power grid. A nation that is invaded or suffers from a civil war.

The last months of the war were devastating to Germany. Starvation all around due to the blockade against them.

In time of invasive disaster, food will be hoarded just like toilet paper. When food runs out; then you have roving gangs who will kill for that food. A Guide to Life After the Crash a book by a friend of Bobby's. He suggests to gather with a group to defend one another. It is a matter of survival. But this is speculative; and this writer is a survivalist.

We have to consider national violence and national disaster. This can be very grim. But, nevertheless, v. 19 still stands.

The Promise of V. 19 in Disaster

1. In the worst of national disasters, v. 19 is a promise to bring people through difficult and even impossible times. In the worst of economic conditions this is a promise to bring us through these times.
2. This is not a promise to make the believer impervious to adversity. We might end up be scathed. We will have pain and suffering.
3. Most will suffer in famine, along with the rest of the populace.
4. Deliverance is forthcoming through the adversity. God provided for Joseph's brothers.
5. When others may perish in economic disaster, certain mature believers will continue to survive, to fulfill God's purpose for Him and the rescue believers. God calls upon us, even in times of disaster, to perpetuate His plan. We will understand the grace of God as it happens.

Similar concept in Psalm 20:6–8

Psalm 20:6 Now I know that the LORD saves his anointed; he will answer him from his holy heaven with the saving might of his right hand.

God rescued David under many circumstances.

Psalm 20:7 Some trust in chariots and some in horses, but we trust in the name of the LORD our God.

there are things which usually are found in the Lord. We can boast in confidence in the Lord.

Psalm 20:8 They collapse and fall, but we rise and stand upright.

We rose up and stood upright. Survival of the spiritually mature. We can see the reciprocal love right here. He knows that the Lord rescues and love him. The Lord is his shield. Love for our Lord is what David has expressed. We can see the result. He rescues and helps us in famine.

We are to wait on the Lord for our deliverance; He is our shield.

Psalm 33:20 Our soul waits for the LORD; he is our help and our shield.

Having Confidence in the Lord

1. This verse is our description of what we have confidence in.
2. We therefore have a patient expectation of what the Lord will do for us.
3. We have learned to apply the faith rest drill. This faith involves the stability to claim promises under pressure.
4. In this case, that promise is the knowledge that the Lord is our help and our shield. That is the promise and the confidence. What else do we need. The military cannot do it; more ammo won't do it; the politicians won't do it. There is nothing wrong with self defense or having a weapon; or with a strong military. But at the end of the day, we fall back on v. 20.
5. We are assured that the Lord is our protector and defender. No nation and no army can protect us ultimately. The Lord is our protector.

Deuteronomy 33:26 "There is none like God, O Jeshurun, who rides through the heavens to your help, through the skies in his majesty.

Deuteronomy 33:27 The eternal God is your dwelling place, and underneath are the everlasting arms. And he thrust out the enemy before you and said, 'Destroy.'

The picture is of a warrior who cannot be defeated. He is our unfailing help in our time of great need.

Bob did a wonderful study on Jeshuram many years ago.

Jeshuram

1. Jeshuram is a pet name for Israel; it means upright.
2. It also distinguishes a small group of ultra-supergrace believers. Isa. 44:2-4
3. Old Testament Israel bore a unique fraternity of Jeshuram believers.

4. They were composed of men like Moses, Caleb, Joshua as in Nuim. 14: Deuteronomy 34:9
5. The spiritual lives reflect the integrity of God. This is why this term is so important.
6. They are physical and spiritual leaders. They glorify the Lord to the maximum through their leadership; they represent the leadership of God. They represent God's love to those people. Moses put up with the griping people of the desert and he put up with them.
7. These men persevered in the plan of God and had tremendous impact on the Exodus generation. There are some fantastic names in this fraternity. Isaiah, Daniel, Haggai, Zerubbabel, Hosea. All part of the Jeshuren fraternity.

Israel was so far out of line so many times. But the Jeshurem believers pulled them through on many occasions. Jershuram is a synonym for the pivot of a client nation.

Beautiful statement of refuge and rescue of mature believers. The eternal God is a resting place and underneath are the everlasting arms. Bob used to pray this quite often. God is our help and our shield in very difficult circumstances. The shield protects us from death and from famine.

Blessed is you, Israel...so your enemies will cringe before you. Destroy the enemy of your God. The believer perseveres and wins, because of Jershurem. Without a Jeshuram, Israel is met with disaster.

Closing Points

1. We need to be a Jeshuram group with confidence; there is no room for doubt in our soul. We may doubt the direction of the country or the election results; but we are still in good shape.
2. Those with a patient expectation for the Lord's action on our behalf is the Jershuram that we need.
3. With the ability to faith rest under the attack of the cosmic system., that is the job of the Jershuram.
4. Satan's greatest ploys and schemes cannot stand against the power of God and the love that He has for us.

Moses said it all at the Red Sea, "Do not fear; stand still and watch the deliverance of the Lord, which He will accomplish for us today, for the Egyptians which you have seen today, you will never see them again forever. The Lord will fight for you while you keep your mouth shut." They were facing death.

It does not matter who gets elected, even if the Marxists are elected.

Psalm 33:21 For our heart is glad in Him, because we trust in His Holy Name.

When you watch the election returns, have the poster, the God of Jeshuram.

vv. 19–21

Psalm 33:19 ....that He may deliver their soul from death and keep them alive in famine.

That is as bad as it gets.

Psalm 33:20 Our soul waits for the LORD; he is our help and our shield.

This is as good as it gets.

Psalm 33:21 For our heart is glad in Him, because we trust in His Holy Name.

This is the key; in Whom do you trust? Who is it that you trust?

These 3 verses are confidence builders in the Lord; they are an assurance of protection and rescue and our shield. In the context, which is the case. There is God's kindness, graciousness, power. God uses these things for our benefit. And these things are used for the benefit of the client nation.

The people of Jeshuran. This is a fraternity of mature believers in a client nation.

Deuteronomy 33:26 "There is none like God, O Jeshurun, who rides through the heavens to your help, through the skies in his majesty.

Deuteronomy 33:27 The eternal God is your dwelling place, and underneath are the everlasting arms. And he thrust out the enemy before you and said, 'Destroy.'

Psalm is David writing, in the fraternity of Jeshurun, Now I know that the Lord saves His anointed. David was a young man who had lived through a lot. He knew what the God of Jeshurun could do.

Love of God rationale is at the center of our confidence. They eye of God. They eye of God is on us. He rescues the soul from death. God preserves our lives if He has a purpose for us. When that plan is over, He calls us home. Until that call, you have a plan to fulfill. God also delivers believers from the ultimate judgment.

Psalm 33:18 Behold, the eye of the LORD is on those who fear Him, on those who hope in His steadfast love [= grace],...

Psalm 33:19 ....that He may deliver their soul from death and keep them alive in famine.

Famine is severe economic recession. This is a part of the 2nd cycle of discipline. The result of this assurance is, we are confident and we are patient. That is tough to be patient when things are breaking loose all around us. Our lives are taking directions which we never expected to take. God is our shield in adversity, even when the nation is falling apart. Even if our nation goes down.

3rd through the 5th cycles of discipline. This is discipline upon His people Israel. God receives with discipline and He scourges every son that He receives.

Psalm 33 is the solution.

Psalm 33:20 Our soul waits for the LORD; he is our help and our shield.

This is our promised deliverance.

Psalm 33:21 For our heart is glad in Him, because we trust in His Holy Name.

We trust in God's Holy Name. You may think that you trust your best friend. But there may be areas where you may not trust them. You may have a trust problem with those leading the nation. We are not always trustworthy. There is One Person Who is always trustworthy.

Faith-confidence; a total trust in His Name and His protection. Our rejoicing is the result of His protection. We thus trust in the Lord and in His integrity.

There are mature believers in any client nation; but the number and percentages are unknown. If there are none, then that is not a client nation. Faith and confidence should never be misplaced. There is always a little bit of doubt from time to time.

These immutable promises to us. God's love never fails; His grace towards us never ceases. The promises of Psalm 33 never cease; never fail. No matter the difficulties, we can trust Him.

The doctrinal conclusion. So we can take control of our lives in adverse circumstances.

V. 22 is a prayer, a liturgy of Israel; thankfulness for the promises that we have studied.

We are not Israel and we do not inherit Israel's promises exactly. But there are promises made to Israel and those will be fulfilled. God is our protection and our shield and we can trust in Him implicitly.

Psalm 33:22 Let Your steadfast love, O LORD, be upon us, even as we hope in You.

Here is the love of God rationale. This final verse, which is a postscript, shifts to Jeshurun addressing God directly. To pray such a prayer requires faith from the pivot. God is protection; total protection.

Your loving kindness, Your steadfast love, Your grace.

This phrase is used twice, here and in Psalm 90:17. This is a prayer request asking for the Lord's faithful attention. Prayer is speaking to the Lord making requests of Him. We need confidence in the Lord. He may not answer in ways that we want Him to, but He will answer in our best interest.

We wait patiently for the answer. There is trust that we need to have behind this promise. The request is very valid. So we, as the pivot, pray with confidence, that the Lord may show to us, His steadfast love to protect and deliver us. We are not praying to God to love us. We trust that. We are praying for a result which is forthcoming. That is true even when the nation is under discipline. His love is backed by all of His attributes.

The love of God rationale is we trust what God will do for the pivot. It is His call what He does with the nation; but what He will do with the pivot is a part of His promises.

Confidence in God

1. This reaffirms faith-confidence in the Lord, according as we have had confidence in You.
2. Faith is the sole condition of God's promises. Do we travel in a jet going 500 mph and go outside to push it to make it go faster?
3. The possession of faith constitutes a complete claim on His Person as the Divine Protector. That is His promise that we claim.
4. We know that protection is ours; therefore, we can claim it. We know Him and His love for us. We know God based upon His character and what we learn in the Bible. The more we know about God, the more that we can trust Him. This is why you don't get married after 3 weeks. When we have knowledge of God, we are confident in His love for us. Protection is ours because we know God and His protection for us.
5. Thus the faith rest drill, the love of God rationale demonstrates our hope and our confidence in Him. When we use this love of God rationale simply demonstrates our confidence in Him.
6. Bottom line here is, this appeal to God's love in this verse is based upon certainty. Prayer should be based upon certainty. We are speaking to God; pray with certainty. Be assured that God will answer your prayer. This appeal to God's love is based upon certainty, because God sustains believers through it all. He is our defender and our shield.
7. We see here the operation of God's unfailing love. Know God and His love and how He operates gives us confidence in Him. What about the reversionist who gets out of line? Does God love him? Of course! We as believers have the obligation to grow spiritually so that we know Him and trust Him. That is a nugget of wisdom that we should never forget.

Psalm 33:22 Let Your steadfast love, O LORD, be upon us, even as we hope in You.

The unfailing love of God is directed toward us. Deliverance and preservation of a client nation, even when that nation is degenerating. There have been times in our history where we have been redirected by those wars; particularly like the Civil War. Our course in history has clearly been changed on many occasions.

Does this mean no pain and no adversity? Of course not. God protects our life; and He protects us from famine; He protects us from the ideas of socialism. God can deliver the pivot of believers through the crisis. He can do this in a state and in a city; and He can even deliver the nation which does not deserve it. The Old Testament is filled with things like this. There have been many occasions. The blessing on the mature believers receive impacts the entire nation. The situation with the nation is always related to the historical impact of the pivot. This has deliverance for us personally and deliverance for us nationally.

Our election should be very fascinating in its novelty and how it is handled. But the pivot is alive and pleading; and the Lord rides through the skies providing our deliverance.

The Protection of the Pivot

1. Grace deliverance is made only possible through the existence of a pivot. This existence is necessary.
2. The pivot is key to our deliverance. That is the blessing which comes to us.
3. If there is no pivot or if it is significantly reduced, the client nation will fall.
4. Jeshurun, the pivot will be protected despite the disaster. God has a representative on this earth. That is us.
5. Therefore, it is a very legitimate prayer to bombard the throne of grace requesting deliverance during this time of historic distress. We can always pray.

Conclusion and application. There are many reasons to have confidence.

4 Reasons from this Psalm Why We Can Trust God

1. Creation, which is the seat of divine wisdom.
2. The eternal plan of God in action no matter the circumstances, in blessing or cursing.
3. The evaluation of all mankind; the eyes of the Lord are upon us; He is the righteous ruler in heaven. He always sees us and He always acts accordingly and for our benefit.
4. The unfailing love of God the delivers and defends those who are mature believers.

This chapter builds to a crescendo as to why we can depend upon God. Abraham was a Jeshurun.

God and the Pivot

1. They are a client nation who retains a pivot of mature believers who trust Him.
2. God gave His Word to Israel; and He built His plan all around them.
3. God evaluates them based upon His perfect standards and their spiritual advance.

4. God delivers them by His unfailing love and power; and He also disciplines them.

We must become a part of the pivot. The New Testament echos this chapter in many places and in many ways. We are also talking about you and I.

The Principles of this Psalm Are Found Elsewhere

1. First, praise for the Creator. Rev. 4–5 Col. 1 and John 1. This carries over to those passages.
2. If we are faithless, God remains faithful because He cannot deny Himself. That is the love of God rationale. Because He is faithful, He will strengthen and protect His people. His name is Faithful and True; that is His name.
3. The Lord is also the righteous Judge, as Psalm 33:5 2Tim. 4:8 all of these are parallel to Psalm 33.
4. All of this demonstrates God's great love for us. We will defend and sustain us in this life. His love is always a delivering and protecting love. Rev. 1:5

We should be filled with confidence and with rejoicing, the One Who gives us so much. We are the pivot of this nation. Nothing to trust in apart from God.

Lesson #0140                      Psalm 90 Wisdom in the OT                      9/23/2020 Wednesday

Rick Hughes next week, beginning Wednesday.

New chapter in the psalms tonite. Psalm 90, a psalm of hope, a psalm of discipline, a psalm for a client nation.

Bobby was thinking about this. Before he starts a psalm, he opens it and he just reads it. Only 17 verses. It should take us through the election.

Psalm 90 is the most ancient of the psalms. There is a quotation from such a long ago; and this is a psalm for a fledgling psalm. In form and content, it is a poetic prayer; and intercessory prayer given my Moses sometime during the desert wandering of the Jews. They began to complain about everything. They began to complain about everything. It is so old.

This psalm fits well with two sets of poems written found in the Law. Moses was one of the greatest leaders that Israel ever had.

Authors often have stock phrases that they use, and they sometimes use these phrases often. There is a connection between what he wrote in the Law to Psalm 90. Similarities between Genesis and vv. 7–9.

There is a particular application to the time during which it was written.

This psalm has great application for us.

Psalm 90 inscription A Prayer of Moses, the man of God.

Moses was a very tough guy, like David. This is a simple title.

Some Introductory Material

1. If Moses' life is summarized, he was certainly a man of God. You cannot study the history of Moses without realizing what a man of God he was.
2. Moses was chosen by God for a very specific task. All of his abilities would be tested in this task. He was to lead the people of Israel. "I will give you this land and make you a great people," was God's promise to Israel.
3. The promised land did not happen for the first generation of those who left Israel. This is something that Psalm 90 addresses. It has application to other generations of Jews.
4. Moses never waived in his trust and fidelity to duty. Moses got angry a few times; this whining people. They were constantly on Moses' case.
5. Moses retained the confidence that he has in God.
6. T
7. The restoration of the...the people need a shield and a protector.

One commentator called this one of the deepest of feeling and emotion; loftiest in theological concept, and wonderful imagery. We can see all of this in the first 6 verses.

Some Aspects of this Psalm

1. The beauty of the writing is a fact.
2. This psalm is a report of human life as troubled, transitory and sinful, vv. 7–11.
3. It is then more suited for a dirge to the dead world in which we live.
4. In its presentation of God as eternal, God as the eternal and righteous Judge of this world, He is the hope and refuge of mankind, in spite of our many troubles.
5. This is especially directed to those who acknowledge and cling to the Lord. Vv. 12–17.
6. This is true, even under the most severe trials of adversities and faith.
7. The believer, like Moses, does not lose confidence in the Lord because of a fallen world around him, as underneath are the everlasting arms.
8. That is the great lesson of this psalm.

From everlasting to everlasting, He is God.

Outline of Psalm

1. Vv. 1–2 is the security of this earth. Moses words refer to generations of believers. This psalm never speaks of mature believers. But there were many generations of Jews who were....
2. Vv. 3–6 Moses laments the shortness of life; using the beautiful imagery that Moses wrote in Gen.3. God created us from the dust of the ground and to dust we return.
3. Moses writes of man's terrible condition and a complaint about God's judgment of Israel. Vv. 7–12

On many occasions, Moses interceded for man.

The Content of Psalm 90

1. The theological depth of this psalm is wonderful.
2. Moses speaks to use mostly from the field of hamartiology. We explore both.
3. It is this sin that is the cause of God's wrath towards man. Our condition, the condition of the 1st generation of Israel, the condition of the US general.
4. We will have to look at the wrath of God.
5. God's wrath is always against unbridled sinfulness and a rejection of the truth and grace of God.
6. This is the sources of man's heartache.

More Introductory Material

1. Moses does not leave us in the dark or in a dark place. This hope far outweighs the hopelessness that we would feel from vv. 7–12.
2. Because of the discipline of the 1st generation of Jews which affected the 2nd generation of Jews. The grace of God brought them over the Jordan and they took the land under Joshua.
3. Where one generation failed, another succeeded. This makes....
4. There is a dark tone to this psalm, but with some encouragement. It is never too late for the restoration or recovery of a client nation. This psalm defines who we are wand who me mu....

There is a relenting of God's wrath to a lousy people.

This psalm is filled with great imagery. This begins in vv. 1–2.

Psalm 90:1 Lord, you have been our dwelling place in all generations.

The imagery for God in this verse is great. God creator of things which appear to be impossible. We have seen on numerous occasions, the author appealing to the greatness of God as the Creator. Psalm 90 says exactly the same thing.

Whatever

1. The dark theme in the body of this psalm does not dim the light of confidence
2. This confidence is in the Almighty Lord of creation. There can be no better image of who we trust and why.
3. Adonai is found in this Hebrew. Adonai is equivalent to Kurios in the Greek.
4. When Adonai is used for Deity in the Old Testament, it means master
5. This is the title for eternal and righteous God. This is a fantastic name.
6. We give babies names for a variety of reasons. All sorts of reasons why people get names. The names have significance for the people. Many names for God in the Old Testament. Here Adonai is God the Ruler, Almighty God.
7. God is and has proven Himself to be the Almighty Person. He
8. This is the God Who rules Israel in a theocracy. Israel was ruled by God and by God alone, through His law are given by Moses. God is their place of dwelling and rest, moment by moment. But in practice, Israel did not follow God's lead.

This is theology proper to the greatest extent. Who is God? What is God?

This is theology proper to the greatest extent. Who is God? What is God? Moses saw God on Mount Sinai and in the Tabernacle. He came face to face with God like no one else.

The people are constantly questioning God and Moses' authority. The book of Exodus is a beautiful, or a narrative of a complaining, griping, ignoring, idol-worshiping people. This was a hard people to lead. He continued as a man of God.

We view God through this one word, Adonai.

Psalm 90:2 Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever you had formed the earth and the world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God.

These first two verses are a contrast between Almighty God and the weak and rejecting generation of Israelites. We can place ourselves with Israel in every step.

Lesson #0141                      Psalm 90:1– Wisdom in the OT                      9/24/2020 Thursday

Moses prays here to God for Israel.

Psalm 90:1 Lord, you have been our dwelling place in all generations.

Psalm 90:2 Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever you had formed the earth and the world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God.

Eternal God is our refuge and underneath are the everlasting arms.

This is the Exodus generation; and Moses is the leader of this generation. They are wandering in the desert for 40 years; and they will die in the desert.

Moses is writing this psalm as a prayer for that generation. They have been wandering in the desert for those 40 years; and they have been treated by God for many miraculous rescues. They have lived under the powerful and doctrinally oriented leadership of Moses. These Jews have viewed the very presence of God; first on Mount Sinai. They had received the law of God directly from God on Mount Sinai. They were a true theocracy. The rule of law began with the theocracy of God.

There was the Shekinah Glory which lived in the Tabernacle at the very beginning. Yet, despite all of this, they never caught on. They complained incessantly about Moses; and they blamed God for their perceived predicaments in the desert. That was the first generation of the client nation of Israel. This is what Moses would deal with for 40 years. Moses prays and reminds them of their God. His work on their behalf and His attributes. He also prays about the consequences of their faithlessness. The ridiculousness of these people, despite all that they saw and their reaction.

The Almighty God and His many promises to Israel; and the weakness and the ephemeral nature of their responses. We should pay attention to their failings and their generation. They do not meet God's standards; nor do they appear to appreciate what God has done for them. They must be persuaded to cling to their gracious and sovereign God. The Exodus generation sinned against God repeatedly. They often provoked God's wrath and judgment. God is still Israel's hope and refuge despite all of their failures. Despite what they did, they still receive logistical grace. God is faithful from everlasting to everlasting. We can bank on this.

Let's Get a Little Application on this

1. Whatever failures that we have as a people and as a nation, God is still our refuge and our hope.
2. The plan of God is still in operation for all believers, whatever our failures; and for the nation which maintains a pivot.
3. Believers may sin and fail in the most terrible ways. The Old Testament is filled with the failures of Israel. When they depend upon their faithful God, there is great blessing.
4. God never cancels His plans for them, as illustrated by the Exodus generation. He should have killed them all at the golden calf incident. Pharaoh sent them out. They got to the Red Sea with the chariots of Pharaoh right on their tail. That on its face should have convinced them that God would look after them. Moses went to a certain mountain. Moses went up the mountain to commune with God. The people got impatient and they build an idol, which they worshipped. Many of them died right here. Sooner or later, this generation participated. Failure; a massive failure on their part; yet God never cancelled His plan for them.

5. Discipline will be forthcoming to correct these people. God gave them many chances and God showed them grace and incredible faithfulness. Despite their failures, God did not disown them, for the sake of Abraham and the nation itself.
6. Carnality and reversionism does not remove the believer from the plan of God. But, it does produce problems for the believer. They re operating outside of the plan of God. Believers not sticking with God's guidance.
7. When circumstances are at their worse, the discipline becomes a window; to client nation status.

They had children; they had a 2nd generation. The discipline was a wake up call for the people. What we see today is a wake up call for our own nation. This should capture the attention of those who do not realize where we are.

We see the steady departure from the plan of God. We see this in the churches of America. We see this throughout our government. Black Lives Matter is founded and run by avowed Marxists. The bottom line for these groups is power. It is organized and by groups who want to use them

Many churches are backing these people, some of whom have no idea what these people stand for. There are social justice churches. Charity is great; but that is not the definition of Christianity. Christianity is a personal relationship with God through Jesus Christ. The result may be those other things, but the basic fundamental aspect...

We are at a crossroads. Will believers wake up. Will they return to depending upon the Lord. Will they listen to Bible doctrine and grow spiritually. The political left, the socialists and Marxists are the most humanistic of all people. We are seeing the face of Marxism.

We realize that we cannot put our trust in politicians or in the rule of law. We can only trust a sovereign God. We have a relaxed mental attitude for that reason. And Moses is in the middle of exactly what we are in the middle of. Our solution is the rebound technique and move forward spiritually.

Socialism takes away freedom for the public good, in their opinion. We put our trust in God and His protection. The 1st generation never took it; but the children moved ahead with God's plan. They understood the attributes of God and what they had in God.

Moses never let up on them; and Joshua then took over. The next generation.

The plan of God always marches on. Our country needs a cleansing and purification. Believers are seeing the failures of our predecessors. The question is, will they heed the call as the 2nd generation of Israel did. It only takes one generation to move the plan of God forward; and there will always be someone who does it.

Almighty Adonai is the place of deliverance. Who is the God of Israel and what has He done for you? This prayer was written centuries before the psalms were composed. A 400 year difference. The difference in that time period was Egypt. Through the oppression of Egypt. The sons of Israel endured horrible times, but God stayed with them. It only takes one generation to move the plan of God forward.

This is why we can call on the Lord for restoration of the United States. No matter how bad it gets, the plan of God never changes.

Psalm 90:3 You return man to dust and say, "Return, O children of man!"

There are parallel phrases here. Israel was sentenced to 40 years in the desert; they are going to die in the desert.

God Will Return Man to Dust

1. We understand that God is the Creator and that Jesus Christ is the Agent of creation.
2. The Lord God created man from the dust of the ground.
3. But you see, what God gives, is human life. He will return His creation to the dust from which...God's power over mankind is absolute.
4. We understand how transitory a generation is. God has so deemed their punishment for their resistance to Him. These Israelites are great failures.
5. Their future is to return to dust as a failed generation; a great image for them wandering in a desert filled with dust.

Moses is telling them, life is fleeting, and what they will do will be little or nothing.

All Is Not Lost

1. God's sovereign. This emphasizes God ability to formulate a perfect plan for His creatures.
2. Don't forget that we have come from dust and God can return us there.
3. God can raise us up and protect us.
4. Likewise, God can discipline and even remove those who do not fulfill His plan. The first generation died the sin unto death. They did not complete the plan of God for their generation. That is the whole image of dust.
5. The plan always remains and progresses; but someone else will have to carry it out. God's plan always progresses, no matter what. Even if our nation is destroyed. We might not be a client nation, God will continue His plan. Christianity often grows exponentially under persecution. Maybe we need another generation raised up out of the dust and ashes of this one. We are part of a pivot, small that we might be.
6. God will raise up believers where he finds positive volition. What is happening in America is designed for one thing; it is designed as a wake up call, in order to promote positive volition, so that the nation will be preserved down the line. Rome became a client nation because the Christians were persecuted.
7. The objective of the 2nd generation of Israel. How did they get where to got to? They listened to Moses and they saw how God disciplined their parents. They learned from the disobedience of their parents.

God has a plan for every believer and for his client nations. Believers come and go in the plan of God. Some are victors and some are miserable failures. The plan of God always moves forward, even though we, as believers, may fall backwards. In spite of a failing client nation, God's plan still moves ahead.

God observes all; He knows all. He is never a casual or indifferent observer. His intention is for the best for all of us in each situation.

The people on the street are so confused; they are struggling and they don't know what for. For the ridiculous idea that the police are bad and the current president is evil? We are to use the resources that God has given us, and they are many. The wisdom that we need; and we need to apply those resources to life. Underneath it all, we are the hope.

We will have to go through the whole litany and dirge of this 1st generation.

Lesson #0142

Psalm 90:3 Wisdom in the OT

9/27/2020 Sunday

We are not hidden from the eye of God; nothing is hidden from Him. He sees it all. God looks from heaven and He sees all the sons of man. Behold, the eyes of the Lord are on those who reverence Him.

He also sees the immorality and anti-establishment. He sees those who continuously stand in front of His plan. These can be believers and unbelievers. Believers who do not recover from reversionism.

This is to whom Moses directs his prayer. This is the oldest of the psalms. A generation who were so blessed by God, beyond anything that we might imagine. Our country has been blessed in many ways, not the least of which is economic.

Israel had visual blessing; miraculous deliverance; they saw it all. But they failed to reciprocate the love of God. A land that was all of their own. All of this was provided for them, a beautiful land overflowing with milk and honey.

Moses reveals a fact of life and a fact of death.

Psalm 90:3 You return man to dust and say, "Return, O children of man!"

This is a transitory time. The time was short for them to fulfill their destiny. Their future was to return to dust rather than to return to the land of Canaan. All men die and return to dust, but that should never be the outlook. When we read v. 3, that is a grim statement, but not for us. We should be filled with confidence when it comes to the plan of God. The futility of life without God. A nation who ignores or rejects their destiny with God. This could be us.

For the believer, this is a reminder of the ultimate reminder of the sin unto death. There is such a thing as the sin unto death. This does not make the believer destined for hell.

But this is certainly no way to go out. All is not lost; it is never lost with God, even in failure. A believer is still in God's eternal plan.

Dust is not our end; it is our beginning. Discipline is our end when in a corrective context. There is a plan for us, whether we are rebellious or reversionistic. God's plan is not over. Recovery and restoration to His plan is always there.

There are many kinds of blessings other than wealth. We are treated with grace and love, even when we are way out of line. The sin unto death here is symbolized with dust.

No one was more grace oriented than Moses. The study of Moses is the study of a man of great patience and great doctrine. He is one of the greatest leaders who ever lived. The people suffered some great discipline. They were given much and much was expected of them; we are given much, and much is expected of us.

In the 40th year of the desert wandering, and Moses failed greatly at Kedesh. In the last year of the wandering, his emotions went out of control and he let mental attitude sins get out of control. Many rebels died and many of them were still left. He was filled to the brim with barium??

Instead of speaking to the rock, as God told him to do, Moses struck the rock with his stick.

We have been provided the opportunity to send out missionaries; to act as a refuge for Jews, to preserve His Word. We are beginning to see our nation turn away from that. But it is our responsibility to continue to fulfill our obligations.

God told Moses, "Just speak to the rock, and water will come out." Num. 20 is one of the great failures in Scripture. By violating the integrity of God before all of the people he failed in his leadership and he failed in front of the second generation of Jews.

This seems like a harsh punishment for such a great man. One sin, and he will die in the desert. One sin, one moment of weakness. Spiritual leadership is held to a very high standard and discipline had to be administered. This great leader of a client nation. He was given a direct command from God and he ignored it. That entire generation died in the desert and Moses too. But God allowed him to see the land.

What better illustration than to say, God will turn you back to dust.

He was unable to fulfill the promise of presiding over a great land.

The mandate of the doorposts; a perfect picture of what Christ would do for us on the cross. These people who painted the blood on the doorposts; and these were believers; and they died the sin unto death in the desert. That whole generation went down.

Joshua led the remaining Jews into the land, and God gave them the land. The promise was still in effect and it would be fulfilled by the next generation.

Regarding Dust

1. Dust is a metaphor for death.
2. Death is often described as dust to dust.
3. God created Adam from the dust from the ground. God breathed into Adam the breath of lives and Adam became a living soul.
4. That is always the destiny of fallen man, and that includes all of us. Physical death and deterioration of the body. That is the legacy of Adam to us. It is not our final legacy.
5. When Moses prayed this prayer, the mortality of the people of Israel was presented with a brand new forc...
6. To dust you will return, Moses prays. Every person is going to return to the basic elements to which he was created.
7. What Moses wrote and spoke sounded as if it was a continuation of the results of sin. That is what happened with Adam. This was a pronouncement from heaven and Moses recalls this pronouncement.
8. Moses was effectively reflecting. The first negative command that mankind ever heard. There was only one mandate given to Adam and the woman; do not eat from the fruit of that tree. They had everything, and they just could not do it. This was a prohibition for their own good; and we cannot wait to do it.
9. This was directed from the justice of God in a metaphorical phrase, you will return to dust.
10. Dust is their future; the sin unto death for that whole generation. This is true of all mankind.

The mandates from God through Moses were clear and unequivocal. He showed them time after time what direction that they should go in. The people were unwilling to fulfill God's promises to the nation.

Their life counted for nothing in the plan of God. This verse reeks of futility for all of us. Philosophers and humanists had tried to define for us our purpose for centuries. As believers, we should know what our purpose is. But these believers have only dust to look forward to. But this is not our mindset. These people were rewarded by nothing. They were so derelict in their duties, and they had no accomplishment of their objectives.

Generations come and go; and this generation is going. God is eternal just as His plan is eternal. It is the only thing that is an encouragement for us. It is not just all dust in the end. We will escape the dust. We are destined, not just to return to dust, but to rise again, in resurrection bodies. Our bodies will have nothing to do with dust any more. They will be eternal.

We do not want to count for nothing, and Moses is telling people that is what this will be.

Death is something we usually think about until we plan a funeral. Israel as a nation had to confront this grim promise of dust. We are to redeem the time; we are to fulfill the plan of God while we have the time to do so. Do not just return to dust without accomplishing anything in the plan of God.

Our destiny is a new body, a body not made out of dust, a body that will not deteriorate. We will be resurrected with an immortal body no longer made of dust.

Psalm 90:3 You return man to dust and say, "Return, O children of man!"

Maybe Bobby should lighten up. We all will return to dust at some point; our generation, the next generation, and the one after that.

Death is not really a bad thing for the believer in Jesus Christ, unless it is the result of divine discipline, the sin unto death. That is terrible failure in the Christian life. That is misery for our time on earth. That is grim. Death is to be anticipated at just the right time, at a time of God's choosing, when His plan is completed for us. Nothing left for us to do but to go home.

The Exodus generation did nothing and God simply removed them. The plan of God is in front of us and we are alive. We have believed in Jesus Christ. So now, the issue is living the spiritual life. That is the issue; and that is where the plan of God comes in. Our mission is the fulfill the plan of God until we take out last breath.

Do not worry about turning to dust. Bobby looks at a gravesite and he knows them and he knows that they are believers; but that, at this point, their body is dust. Unbelievers will be resurrected, but not to eternal life.

To cheer us up, the doctrine of Christian Death.

Christian Death

1. A description of the physical death of believers is found in 1Cor. 15:51– 2Cor. 5:
2. We are believers in Jesus Christ and we have the principle of dying grace, passing from this life into heaven. Job 5:17–21 Psalm 23:4 See also the book Dying Grace.
3. The divine provision that allows mature believers to experience great blessing and happiness while dying. There is a novel concept. Gasping for breath, hoping for a miracle, begging for just one more day of life; but death for us is a blessing. When we take that final breath in life, we will see the Lord face to face. The most incredible sight that we can see. We will see heaven; we will have no more tears and no more death. You get to join those who departed before you.
4. Death is the final and highest form of blessing for time, distributed to those who have executed the spiritual life. Psalm 116:15 this is quite a motivator for life. Quite a motivation for fulfilling the plan of God for our life.
5. Bible doctrine is the soul comforts and encourages in the living phase of our life; and it becomes the source of comfort and encouragement in the dying phase.

Lesson #0143                      Psalm 90 Wisdom in the OT                      10/7/2020 Wednesday

The power of God is revealed in all that is created. It extends to the affairs of mankind; He is instrumental in history. His power also extends to death.

Psalm 90:2 Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever you had formed the earth and the world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God.

The omnipotence of God is revealed in His creation.

Psalm 90:3 You return man to dust and say, "Return, O children of man!"

God also destroys; mortal man dies and is destined for the grave. A generation goes and a generation comes.

This psalm is directed to another generation of Jews. All who have read this psalm utilize it for worship in the Temple. Anyone of any generation must understand the transitory nature of human life. We will return to dust, from whence we came.

We are disobedience, recalcitrant people. And despite all that God did for the Exodus generation, they remained a recalcitrant people. They complained constantly. They were now in the process of dying. They died the sin unto death. Everything was given to them; but their future was to return to dust as abject failures. What a grim and uncompromising view. They did not fulfill the plan of God; and this is the price for failure.

The fate of the grave is their destiny; this fate is inescapable for all mankind. This is something that most do not want to talk about or think about. We don't know when we will face that last breath; but it is inevitable. A fatalistic attitude should never be the outlook for Jesus Christ.

The outlook that we have is never final. For a believer, even a believer who has failed in the plan of God, that believer is still in the eternal plan of God. He or she is eternally saved, regardless of the spiritual life that they have lived. They will reside in heaven as will all believers. Regardless of failure in the spiritual life, there is always the option of turning things around.

There is always death on the horizon. We don't think about death all of the time as human beings. Think about it. As believers, we have a better approach. Death is to be anticipated, but not thought of all the time. At the right time, according to God's choosing. When God's plan is completed for the believer, there is nothing to do but to go home when it is time. We have a plan, we complete that plan, and we go to heaven. No fatalism to that. Leave fatalism to the Muslims. They can murder the infidel. And that is just God's will.

We, on the other hand, have volition. Our choices are important. We have a decision that we can make day after day. There is nothing grim about it, as death is for so many people. It is just our physical bodies which die.

What does death mean to the believer in Jesus Christ?

Bobby began the doctrine of Christian death last time

Dying Grace

1. 1Cor. 15:51–ff 2Cor. 5:1–8 talks about death from the Christian point of view.
2. Believers can pass from this life to heaven as per dying grace. Psalm 23:4 the booklet Dying Grace gives us the correct perspective.
3. Dying grace is the divine provision which allows maturing believers to experience great blessing and happiness while dying (which is not something that we hear every day).
4. This is the highest and the final form of blessing in time distributed to those who have executed the spiritual life. We are about to pass into eternity; we are about to come face to face with the Lord. We will get to see believers who preceded us in death. This is a great doctrine and nothing can touch us. Psalm 116:15
5. Bible doctrine in the soul comforts and encourages us in the living phase of life and this is the source of comfort and encouragement in the dying phase of life. Death is a part of life; it is the end of life; and it is really the begging of life.

4 Causes of Christian Death

1. Our work is completed. We ran the race and have completed it.
2. We can glorify God in the final moments of our life. This is a glorification of God and a witness for Him. An illustration of dying well. When they see a believer with no fear of death, who welcomes the time to talk about His Lord and Savior and sees death as a beginning. People are fascinated by that. Many of Bobby's friends have presented the gospel while they are laying on their deathbeds. Their expressions and verbiage and their body language are present that message. An employee in Berachah Church has had very difficult medical problems; and he is an inspiration to others when he goes to the hospital. He has probably touched more people in that phase of his life. He has had tremendous impact.

3. There is maximum discipline for failure; another cause for death. The sin unto death. There is no drying grace in that one. You have rejected the plan of God for your life. 1John 5:16
4. Suicide; the superimposition of our volition over God's. This is supreme self-centered arrogance. Suicide is not a means of a loss of salvation. You do not lose your salvation from committing suicide. You leave this life with nothing except a bad witness for Christ.

Bob had a Greek professor; a brilliant man. He wrote a book on beginning Greek; used at Harvard, and he taught Greek very well. He taught Greek at the seminary where he had been teaching for many years. But, one day, they found that he would not be teaching because he killed himself. What did this say to his students? That made them question their faith just a little bit. We should realize that we are human beings. Some people get so low. Whatever reason they have, it is the wrong reason, but they do it. This happens to some believers. Do not get your eyes off the Lord because someone does that.

There Are Great Narratives in the Bible about How Great Believers Faced Death

1. Job, who had a right to be depressed and curse God and die.
2. Lazarus.
3. Abraham in Heb. 11:13–16
4. Jacob in Heb. 11:17–21

What Does Death Mean to Us as a Believer

1. We have no appointment concerning judgment. Even if we live terribly.
2. We will be at home with the Lord. It is sometimes called being face to face with God and with Jesus Christ.
3. Rev. 21:4 no more pain, no more sorrow, no more death. The things which we dread in this life.
4. We receive at death an eternal inheritance. It never fades away and it can never be lost. 1Peter 1:4–5
5. We receive a fabulous new home. In My Father's house there are many mansions...
6. We have eternal life, regardless of failure or success in the temporal life. John 10:28 1John 5:11–12
7. We return to dust and we also have a resurrection body coming our way. John 11:25 Philip. 3:21 our resurrection body will not suffer at all because I live here. There is pain and disease in this life; but we do not get any of that in our resurrection bodies.

A Description of Death

1. Described as sleep. Sleep of the body. Who is afraid to go to sleep? It feels good to go to sleep when we are tired. Death sleep does not include the soul. We are made up of body, soul and spirit. The soul does not sleep. It is always awake. Some think that we go to sleep at death; but this is ...

2. Sleep is used to describe the believer in death. 1Thess. 4:13–18 1Cor. 15:51–53
3. Used to describe the administration of the fifth cycle of discipline. Jer. 51:56–57 Nahum 3:18–19
4. Sleep is associated with reversionism and the sin unto death. Psalm 13:1–4
5. Death sleep is associated with defeat in battle; defeat in war. 2Kings 19:35 Psalm 76:6
6. Death is being presence with the Lord. We will see Jesus Christ in Person. Our prime is our lifetime from salvation to death. When people die young, that means that God's plan for them is complete.
7. We are at home with the Lord

Death Is a Reminder in Life

1. It is a reminder to be prepared for death. Not to think about it all of the time. What will it be like? We prepare for death by faith in Christ. That is the first step.
2. It is a reminder of the shortness of our time on earth. The necessity for making the most of it. We do not have time to waste time. We should take advantage of the time that God gives us. We are in full-time Christian service. We can enjoy all of life, even during adversity.
3. Death reminds us of the futility of materialism. You cannot take it with you. You cannot take money, your car, your house, your dog. These material things do not go with us. We came with nothing
4. We will be evaluated at the end. John 3:18, 36

Man has a short time on this earth. God's perspective is much different. God's thinking is entirely different. God's plan moves ahead, with or without us. One generation fulfills its purpose and the next may not.

Participation in His plan is what the Lord requires from us. We are put in the position. A part of what God has designated for our life. He puts us in position to fulfill that plan. Sometimes God nudged Bobby and sometimes He used an iron boot. We have to be ready for it. This is why we have a personal plan written for us by God. Every believer has a plan designed for his life.

From God's perspective, the passage of time is not a ticking time bomb for God. Time is no hindrance in the plan of God. There are no deadlines for Him to meet. He has promise to fulfill; but no deadline to anything. Neither does the believer's sinfulness or failure deter God's plan. He will ultimately triumph in God's plan, with or without us.

God's plan does not fall within the parameters of time or humans.

Psalm 90 provides the divine perspective of passing time and history. This is an incredible passage. It is related to God's eternal plan. Our perspective of God's plan is related to time. But God is not confined by time. Our life is governed by time. We cannot help it. That is just the way life is. We orient to dates and times.

on the other hand, God's viewpoint is always eternal; it is outside of time. It is without any parameters. We studied history. Some schools do that and do it on a timeline.

We talk about different eras and different time; and we study history sequentially. This is expressed in v. 4. How God views time. How does He see it? How does God view time? This is v. 4.

Psalm 90:4 For a thousand years in Your sight are but as yesterday when it is past, or as a watch in the night.

Lesson #0144

Psalm 90 Wisdom in the OT

10/8/2020 Thursday

One of the things that Bobby remembers so well from seminary is some specialize in this or that book, or in this or that area of theology. Quite often, their theology is skewed, as they emphasize one theological approach over another. Many of them are very intent on publishing treatises.

What we study tonite could be called hype and beer stuff? Somewhat esoteric and not fully understandable by the finite mind. We must realize that God can be understood to some degree in this world.

How does God view time? We live by time; we live by schedules; time to go to bed, the time to get up, the appointments that we have and the years which go on and so on. How does God view time and how does He view it in relation to us.

Psalm 90:4 For a thousand years in Your sight are but as yesterday when it is past, or as a watch in the night.

A thousand years to us seems to be a very long period of time. We might reach 100 years; and a thousands years seems hard to even imagine. The rapture will occur, but we do not know when. To God, that does not matter. A millennium is a long time. The changes in the circumstances in life are monumental. We realize that the changes which have taken place are amazing. More changes in the past 100 years than all the time prior to this.

Time passes but it is not a determining factor in the scope of God's viewpoint or in relation to His plan. God's essence is beyond time.

What does it mean that time is like a watch in the night? In that era, that is about 4 hours which was designated for a man to stand guard. That is something very important in the military and someone has to do it; and this is so that others can sleep. 4 hours and then someone else takes that guard's place. This is a time for those sleeping to sleep peacefully. Someone had things taken care of. This watch in the night has an illustrative idea.

Nor are those asleep aware of the passage of time. Time appears to pass very quickly or without notice as well. If you are sleeping really heavily and you realize that 8 or 9 hours have passed, and you do not have a sense for the time which has passed.

This is how God looks at 1000 years. This is just an illustrative number.

Time and God

1. God knows that time passes, but it is as if, He is unaware of it.
2. God is fully aware of every moment, every second that passes.
3. Time moves along for him as if it was a short watch in the night. That is the illustration.
4. Time is not distinct as it progresses, even though God's plan is based upon time. That is God's perspective towards us. It does progress day after day, year after year, decade after decade. But for God, it is indistinct. In eternity, for God, time does not matter.
5. God invented time as a part of creation.
6. God is aware of its existence and its passing, even though God is eternal and not changed by time.
7. Time has relation to God only in how it relates to us.
- 8.
9. But time does not affect God's eternal plan in any way. This is where things get vague. We have a measure of time which is important to us. But God's plan will run through its fruition and it continues throughout eternity. Right now, we are temporal, and that is how God relates to us.
10. It only affects His plan for us, as we are bound by time in this life.

Time and God #2

1. Any number of years as 1 day to God.
2. For God, the passage of time is hardly even noticeable. He notices it only because of us.
3. He does notice and He follows and He directs His plan for each one of us every single day.
4. God Who is eternal still relates to us in time. What better way to illustrate to mortal man what the eternity of God is actually like. The passage of time to us is nothing to God.
5. We gain an appreciation for an eternal God and an eternal existence.
6. We will be in the place of God in relation to time at some point.

God is immutable. He never waivers and He is never uncertain. The circumstances of our lives continually change. These things as related to us changes. The direction of human history takes many different paths.

There is the study of change. Ecclesiastes there is nothing new under the sun; but there is change within the framework of time. Our directions in life, our affections, our ebb and flow, always inevitable. Change is constant.

God's Plan in a Changing World

1. God remains a constant in our changing world. That is our ticket to stability. God is the only thing that never changes.
2. The plan of God is unchangeable and unfailing. His plan for us is locked in. We are the only variable.
3. It does not matter how much time passes or how much deviation and metamorphosis occurs or reform or revolution.
4. The elapse of time does not hinder the faithfulness of God in any way. Nor does it change the straight line of His purposes throughout time. His line of thought and life are the only things we can depend up.
5. Our plans and actions change. His plans and His actions do not. In spite of our variations and our instabilities. Where we make changes, God continues His plan for us. No matter how our life changes, our life in the plan of God is a straight line. We have only so much variance.

Let's consider the resurrection for a moment. It will happen in the future, it has an eternal implication, but it is very much in time. This seems very distant to us. It is very out there. Just look at the election; it must be really close.

Ease off; back off a little bit.

Bobby had an interesting discussion with a friend of his who is a financial advisor and he has clients who are very worried about a blue wave in the next election. They see their money disappearing. This man tells his clients. "Look at Europe. It is socialist to the core. If you want to see what the US will look like; the corporations still run, although not as efficiently. What we are looking at is not catastrophic. Bobby thinks this to be a good perspective if the worst happens.

God is still in charge, no matter what happens in this election. The plan of God moves on, no matter what sort of change occurs in our election or by the passing of time. "Get me out of here; I am sick of all this." Resurrection is our ticket to eternity; but when it comes is not our concern. We are moving in the direction that God desires. When it comes and when eternity begins, it is up to God on His time line. Time passes now, but it is not a factor any more. Will God ever return and when will we rise from the dust?

Looking back over history, since the 1st advent of Jesus Christ, it seems to us that He is slow and overdue. How much time will He take. We often want the rapture today or yesterday, especially as national circumstances deteriorate.

It is not slow for God; it is His speed. People get discouraged; those in Judaism used to think that the Messiah was coming. But now, time has passed and there is no savior for them, they have basically marginalized it. It is simply an allegory to encourage us. But that is not true.

Jesus Christ, the resurrected One, is Eternal God. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today and forever. We change; He does not. Jesus is not impatient like we are; He is not wringing His hands, worried that He needs to act quickly because things are going bad.

How many times has Bobby heard, “Even so, come now, Lord Jesus.” Even though 2000 years have passed since our Lord has ascended, we are still confident that He will return. God’s eternal promise to us that He will return; the passage of time is irrelevant. It is iron-clad; the time does not make any difference.

Hebrews From everlasting to everlasting, You are God.

This psalm is a prayer. The Jews of his generation were marching up and down, going nowhere, and waiting for something. The objective was for them to pass from the scene, to return to dust. God was just waiting for them to die off.

Pronouncement of divine judgement.

Numbers 14:28–29

Num 14:28 Say to them, 'As I live, declares the LORD, what you have said in my hearing I will do to you:

This is a statement that we do not want to hear.

Num 14:29 your dead bodies shall fall in this wilderness, and of all your number, listed in the census from twenty years old and upward, who have grumbled against me,

“You are going to rot...” The numbered men are the military men. Those 20 years and older would die. They kept grumbling against God. They blasphemed God. Even though God promised a marvelous plan for this people, they were unreliable and rebellious. They wanted to go back to slavery in Egypt rather than to move forward in the plan of God.

Heb. 3:7ff their rebellion would not impede or frustrate the plan of God. That plan was to march into the Promised land. In 40 years, they did not fulfill the plan of God. For them, it was life and death. A generation comes and a generation goes. The first generation failed to trust them; and they failed to believe.

Even if they wandered for 1000 years, this would not affect the plan of God. They were still part of God’s eternal plan. They missed the temporal part of the plan of God; but still, they are believers who would be resurrected and move into the millennial kingdom as national Israel. God has an individual plan for us in time.

Time did not matter to God. What mattered was that they fulfilled God's plan; or someone arose in the next generation to do that.

God is consistent every day, in 1000 year span and into eternity. Israel changed every day; and wasted away in the wilderness.

God's Constant Plan

1. Just since March, in my life and yours, there have major changes. You are wearing masks, but the plan of God has not changed. Our lives change constantly.
2. God's plan continues to move forward in our lives, no matter what. We have plans and changes; but God has a single plan and there are no changes. The plan of God is stability.
3. The plan for the first generation ended, because those people chose to grumble against the Lord. The rest of their lives was a waste of time (but not to God).

God's plan for eternity begins here and now and what we do has an effect on eternity. Not the fact that we will have an eternal future. There are rewards; there is a Judgment Seat of Christ. What is the result of that evaluation? There are rewards and there will be some red faces too. How will that effect us eternally?

Consider our lives in time and God's plan that runs throughout eternity. Which plan takes priority? The circumstances of your life, as blessed or difficult as they may be, are simply encase in time.

How much time do we waste in life, like the Exodus generation. We cannot afford to waste time in God's plan. We cannot afford to lost perspective. We must redeem the time that we have on this earth. We have only so many days on this earth.

Eph. 5:16 Make the most of your time as the days are evil.

We make the most of our time in the plan of God. That does not change.

We face the evils of humanism or of divine viewpoint. Time and eternity exist together. Our life and God's plan. One stops and one continues. God's plan does not stop when we die, but God's plan for us stops when we die.

In that finiteness, we have God's infinite plan. This should give us some perspective in this life. We have an eternal plan, which is running right now.

Psalm 90:4 For a thousand years in Your sight are but as yesterday when it is past, or as a watch in the night.

Lesson #0145

Psalm 90 Wisdom in the OT

10/11/2020 Sunday

Eucharist October 11, 2020:

our blessing and gratitude is expressed with the bread and the cup.

We must have Bible doctrine in our souls in order to get the most out of communion.

Titus 3:3–7 are verses which deal with the salvation of God.

Titus 3:3 For we ourselves were once foolish, disobedient, led astray, slaves to various passions and pleasures, passing our days in malice and envy, hated by others and hating one another.

There was a time that Titus, a gentile, hated the Jews; and Paul, a Jew, hated gentiles (and Christians).

This is the depraved condition of all mankind; and it is a true picture of mankind.

Humanism thinks that man is the savior of this earth; and that he will build a utopia of salvation. The verdict of the Word of God is, man is in a hopeless and a lost condition. Human nature has not changed at all since the fall of man. Corruption prevails among men.

Jews and gentiles are all under sin. There is none righteous. All have sinned and come short of the glory of God. Nothing can be salvaged from man's human birth; we are born separated from God.

Jesus said to Nicodemus, "You must be born again." Man must be the possessor of the righteousness of God.

1Cor. 15: In Adam, all die. All men are born dead, caged in their transgressions.

We are born physically alive but spiritually dead. Humanism is misguided and wrong.

Titus 3:4 But when the goodness and loving kindness of God our Savior appeared,...

1Cor. 15:22b ...in Christ, all will be made alive. Man is redeemed from the slave market of sin by the death of the Lord Jesus Christ. The price required by God is Jesus' substitutionary death.

For those who believe in Christ, God is free to transfer His righteousness to them. The means of man's righteousness. The means of relationship with God.

Rom. 3:24–25 ...and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus,...

Rom 3:25 ...whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins.

Previously, God passed over the sins of man, knowing what His Son would do.

Titus 3:5 ...He saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit,...

Just as the universe is boundless, so is the grace of God. The immeasurable grace of God. There is no alternative plan of salvation by works. We can never be good enough before God. God provides His way of salvation.

Man deserves nothing less than to be destroyed by the righteousness of God.

Titus 3:6 ...whom He poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior,...

The Scriptures tell us the salvation need of man; known as common grace. When a person expresses faith alone in Christ alone; God takes that mustard seed grain of faith. The washing and renewing represent two phases of the regeneration. We pass from spiritual death to a new life. We are changed to a spiritual person, from dead to regenerate. New life is imparted where it never existed in any person since Jesus Christ.

2Cor. 5:7 If any man is in Christ, he is a new creation.

By the washing and renewing of the Holy Spirit, we are provided with everything that we need, potentially. The believer is a recipient of the Spirit of renewal. We can hear, consider and metabolize the plan of God.

Changing from spiritual death to spiritual life.

Titus 3:5 ...He saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit,...

This position of Christ is the incomparable... Jesus Christ the Faithful Witness, the Firstborn of the Dead, to Him Who loves us...and He has made us to be a kingdom, priests.

Rev 1:5-6 ...and from Jesus Christ the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of kings on earth. To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood and made us a kingdom, priests to his God and Father, to him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Titus 3:7 ...so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

God does not force any of this upon us. The price is the agony of substitutionary death. We lost all through the first Adam, and the last Adam made it possible for everyone to be delivered from the death sentence. The issue of sin is removed. The barrier which has been, of the first Adam's making, was now removed by the Last Adam.

An ancient church father wrote, were the highest heavens my pulpit, Jesus Christ alone would be my text. There is no gospel apart from the incomparable Son of God.

Bobby will be in San Antonio, a streaming video church, an adjunct of Berachah Church.

Psalm 90:4 For a thousand years in Your sight are but as yesterday when it is past, or as a watch in the night.

God's perspective of time. A period of time, difficult for us to consider, is nothing to God.

God and Time

1. God invented time and He did it as a measure of His creation for you. Are you on time or not?
2. God is not bound by time.
3. God is in time but not of time.
4. Any number of years is the same to God as a day passing.
5. For Him, time passing is hardly noticeable in the scope of His eternal existence and His eternal decree.
6. Yet, He notices and He follows and He directs His plan for each one of us, every day and every moment. Within the parameters of time, God follows and directs us every day in time.

Time is how we live. We are subject to time, from the moment that we are born to our last breath. Our plans are made in relation to time. We do things according time. Our lives are broken down into time increments.

Eccles. 3:11 God has made everything appropriate in its time.

God's eternal plan; individual and temporal plan. It begins at the moment that our clock begins to click. God's purpose for each believer runs the course of each believer the course of his lifetime; but we also have an eternal future, which is a part of our eternal life package as believers. Temporal life on earth and guaranteed life in heaven.

Our Eternal Life Here Beginning on Earth

1. Our eternal life in heaven begins with our temporal life on earth. This eternal clock is already ticking.
2. This eternal plan is based upon the fulfillment of God's plan in time. Then living the spiritual life inside of His will for us.
3. Every believer have eternal security and is there always a part of God's eternal plan in heaven. We are joint heirs with Christ. That is regardless of success or failure in the temporal plan of God.
4. Yet our temporal spiritual life has eternal repercussions.
5. Our evaluation in heave is based upon our divine good production in our temporal spiritual lives.

We have not time to waste in God's plan. This affects our eternal arrangement in heaven. But what does redeeming the time mean?

How Does this Happen?

1. Redeeming the time does not mean that we spend every moment is given to thinking about God's plan or surrendering to legalism or denying yourself fun, entertainment, etc. Bobby's grandfather used to say, "Don't be so heavenly minded that you are no earthly good."
2. Every moment of your life, God's plan is operating in your life.
3. No matter what you are doing, you are serving the Lord when you live the spiritual life. You do not even have to think about it. So many agonize over it.
4. When you live in fellowship with God the Holy Spirit, the prerequisite for the spiritual life, and are metabolized Bible doctrine, you fulfill His plan in every situation. It is really not that hard. That is redeeming the time.
5. Whether you spend time in prayer or witnessing or simply living the spiritual life overtly, you present what the thinking of the mind of Christ is in your life. You are a living demonstration of wisdom. It is all about a relaxed mental attitude under pressure. That demonstration of wisdom and discernment. That is redeeming the time. That is why doctrine resident in your soul is so important. You don't have to be thinking about God's plan all of the time in order to execute it. You do not have to wonder every second, what is God's plan right now? You just follow the protocol of Bible doctrine and then you live your life, redeeming the time. The more mature you are as a believer, the more likely you are to live God's plan moment by moment, redeeming the time.

We have many temporal duties and activities in life; and these things must be in synch with God's plan. This is why we are studying divine wisdom. That will keep you in line with God's plan in all circumstances.

When we get out of fellowship or fall into reversionism; we then spend time in discipline. This is because we are outside of the plan of God. We are not using time for God's purposes. This is so that we can be brought back to the spiritual life. When we are out of fellowship, we need to correct course and get back to the spiritual life.

The believer out of fellowship does not ever hinder the plan of God. The plan of God surmounts millions of failures and believers out of fellowship.

Those recalcitrant believers who died the sin unto death in the desert, will be in resurrection bodies in the future, a testimony to God's grace and His plan.

Considering Time

1. Time is yesterday. It is past, insofar as God is concerned.
2. All time for God is past for God. 1000 years is just a moment.
3. For every believer in Jesus Christ, eternity is future; and it will be realized. The divine perspective, insofar as we are concerned.

Let's get an application. Time is like a night watch; it is momentary and temporary. Past failures of believers are momentary; but they are blotted out by the grace of God. God delivers us from our sins. "I, even I, am the One Who wipes out your transgressions..." Every moment is a chance to advance. The believer's failure and sins must be disciplined in time. God will bring discipline upon us when we sin. God fills our wasted time with discipline. We either live the spiritual life or we get divine discipline. We count for God or we count for ourselves. We redeem the time, and it will always be there. Redeem the time or waste it.

R. B. Thieme, Jr. is adding the media, the USB flash drive. Called a thumb drive. Bobby knows lady with concealed carry licenses, and lack room in their purses; this does not take up much room.

We only have 3–4 lessons a week; so we certainly need to supplement that teaching.

Beginning on Wednesday, masks will be optional in the auditorium, once you are seated. Wear them when moving about; but when seated, they can be removed.

God had always delivered the Jews prior to the Exodus generation. Psalm 90:1–4 describe these deliverances.

This has been a complaining, recalcitrant generation. Moses' prayer is about the discipline of this generation; and it is a prayer for the recovery of the following generation. The first generation wanders in the desert-wilderness for 40 years, and they are dying the sin unto death, dying in this desolate place where they are wandering. This is clearly God's prerogative, as v. 3 states.

Divine discipline on this generation is described in vv. 5–9. This is a message to all failing generations.

Psalm 90:5 You sweep them away as with a flood; they are like a dream, like grass that is renewed in the morning:

What Does this Mean?

1. V. 5 is the epithet of the time waster. Discipline and death are involved here.
2. It is an observation by Moses of this first generation and it is concerned with the brevity of life.
3. The emphasis of the importance of completing the plan of God for our lives in the short amount of time given.
4. It presents the alternative when not followed.
5. The results of disobedience are found in this verse. This is for any client nation generation which does not fulfill its duties as a generation in a client nation.
6. This sums up the work of God, work that we would rather not see. Serious discipline; sin unto death discipline. Destruction discipline. It does not happen with a ball of fire, but it takes place over time, continued complaining and rejection of the plan of God. This is true of all client nations. It begins with a nation that adheres to the laws of divine establishment and believes in the wisdom of God.
7. The slow erosion of a client nation. The United States and Bobby has seen an erosion over the past 40 or 50 years.
8. God has a hand in this severe discipline. Israel brought it upon themselves; but God must act to discipline them. They spend their wasted time following the first generation.
9. This is true of any client nation which blows its responsibility as a client nation. The failed client nations no longer are with us.

England was a client nation; and they have degenerated to a point where Christianity does not hardly exist in that nation. It is up to us to continue our momentum as a client nation.

For 40 years, this generation would not stop complaining. They never learned in all of that time, to trust God, even after seeing what He had done over numerous situations. Moses continued to lead this people through all of this. Moses continued to defend his people, even though they would not straighten up.

This generation blamed natural circumstances of their lives on God. They slept and did not recognize all that God had done for them. They did not recognize the covenant that Abraham had been given. Gen. 12:1–3. This was being fulfilled by this 1st generation of nation Israel.

Even though the land was occupied by a very formidable people, God would still deliver them.

What happened, when they came to that river? Joshua and Caleb came back and said, "Let's go and take the land" but the others there disagreed. That first generation wasted their time in spiritual slumber. Divine discipline was the heavy price that they paid for that. This was a result of the intransigence and disobedience. They followed way back 40 years ago. The 10 plagues put on Egypt. They followed the directions of God. But they were notorious for rejecting the Word of God as taught by Moses. Moses was a go-between God and the people. He brought the Mosaic Law to the people.

How can any generation, which has so much, fail with so much. Just view this first generation. They do not recognize that it is their own failings which took them to this point. There is plenty of this around them. Just as then, believers today try to find simple explanations and to justify our sinful actions. It is simple. We just place blame, thus removing all personal responsibility. It is the fault of circumstances, the fault of government, the fault of anyone we choose. God looks at us individually. We are culpable. Gen X keep making excuses for their bad choices and their failures. What happens for us when we cannot take responsibility for our own failures. We seek social justice as a substitute for our own...

We have fun churches, rock and roll churches, rolling in the aisle churches, but we have very few doctrinal churches. Divine institution and Bible doctrine are shoved aside. People become degenerate or legalistic, depending upon the trend of their sin nature.

Instead embracing legalism, activism and humanism; the opposite of what wisdom brings. Thus, the humility and wisdom that characterizes the submitting to the rule of law. A nation which fails to submit to laws for an orderly peaceful society....not being done in many of our cities. How many cities have abdicated the rule of law for riots and bad behavior.

We make bad decisions and we want to look elsewhere for the reasons. We fail to keep growing or to keep advancing. The solution lies in us. There are problems in every client nation; there has always been degeneracy. But when believers form a pivot of maturity, then the client nation flourishes.

Bobby would consider the plague to be an eye-opener for this generation. If you want to do something for your country, do what you are doing right now. Divine wisdom needs to be applied by believers. We need to live within the parameters of a free society and as a free nation. That is what this prayer is all about. The result is disruption over a short period of time. The results of degeneracy and rejection; picking up with wisdom and the plan of God. This is plain realistic viewpoint from the divine perspective.

Bobby is accused of politicking or electioneering. He is giving principles so that we can make good decisions; and Bobby will vote. He votes as a citizen of this country; but his faith is elsewhere. Bobby's purpose is to always teach the wisdom of God so that we might apply it, even in the voting booth.

The cause of divine discipline to that first generation of the exodus and to any generation.

We do not have time to waste; do not be a time waster. How much time is missed when time is wasted. Who ignores or rejects divine law and the spiritual life. Caught up in materialism or in seeking pleasure. The self righteous arrogance which is so prevalent among those who are anything but righteous. We can compare this 1st generation with what we have today.

This generation is a giant drop in the stream of time, and in an instant, they are gone, with nothing left, apart from being a poor example to us, of what not to do. These Jews have been sleep walking, wasting time for 40 years; they will sleep; and they will die.

When this generation wakes up. They will look back and see whole lives wasted. Why did they live like that. They were children in prep school when God's great blessing was manifested. Some saw it and some were born in the desert and were taught about these things.

This is why Moses had to teach the book of Deuteronomy. This was to the next generation who did not necessarily live the first few decades in the desert. Moses summarizes it for them. Moses teaches them what negative volition can do. They have deserted their posts. Evil passed into their souls and this is what killed them. Rejection, ignorance. That is a life which will be filled with regret. This is a life that might have been. If they only acknowledged their failings before the Lord. They are the first generation who had a chance to live.

Those of us in the 4th generation curse, as Bobby has described them. We are in that 4th generation. This 4th generation looks very similar. The second generation learned the lesson and they became the fulfillment of Psalm 90:5. 40 years of wasted time. These people hit life with a thud, with a crash. Rejecting and being disciplined. Maybe a corporate sin unto death. The slow demise of a nation. This all depends upon individuals; think of it as individual rejection of divine establishment. Rejection of the rule of law. It all begins with individuals. This is not the life designed for believers in Jesus Christ. Moses looks on the discipline of this generation. He tells them what is coming; and this sin unto death will come to them. They could have had it all, but they rejected. They can be in the plan of God, or they can stay outside of the plan of God. Trust in what God can do for you or do whatever. What category do you fall under? The plan of God is always in operation.

Do not look for someone else to blame; do not look to your representative or your president to blame; do not blame the stock market. Do not blame your spouse. Everything would be fine if we used faith rest and the problem solving devices. We need to keep short accounts and to use rebound.

This analogy continues.

Psalm 90:5 You sweep them away as with a flood; they are like a dream, like grass that is renewed in the morning:

Moses speaks of God's omnipotence and His eternity. Israel has failed in the desert. There is enough failure which has brought divine discipline upon them.

It is beginning to be described in vv. 5–6. God has a hand in this severe discipline, even as the Jews in desert-wilderness. God has this hand in discipline, and that is true for any client nation that is failing. What we see here is based upon what Moses sees. Bobby finds these last few weeks to be one of the most fascinating times in history. We are at a crossroads; and this is one of the most important elections in the United States. The parties are going in opposite directions. Where we end up will be God applying discipline or with great blessing. We can sit back as believers and view this from a different perspective. Different from those who are tearing their hair out or are ready to leave the country if the wrong person is elected. We are not of that ilk. We have Psalm 90 to apply, as well as other doctrines. God's hand is in it; and if we are placed under discipline, then we deserve it. We cast our votes and let the Lord handle the rest of it.

There is also hope, as we will see as we continue in this psalm.

Psalm 90:5 You sweep them away as with a flood; they are like a dream, like grass that is renewed in the morning:...

Going to sleep is often another way of speaking of death.

Psalm 90:6 ...in the morning it flourishes and is renewed; in the evening it fades and withers.

A Summary of Psalm 90:5–6

1. It seems that severe discipline includes the idea of death for continued disobedience and blaming God for adversity. Bobby got a letter from a prospective seminary student, who knows that he has the gift. He focuses on losing a loved one and he blamed God for 10 years for this. Israel constantly blamed Moses for their problems or God.
2. The verbs of vv. 5–6 carry the unmistakable message. Swept away, they fall asleep, they fade and they wither.
3. Their discipline came when they refused to correct their bad choices. They continued to reject the grace of God. Why is the grace of God given more to a client nation than any other nation? God has a purpose for that nation and has a mission for them to accomplish. The grace of God is abundantly displayed and put upon client nations.
4. The plan of God was ignored by these people. The plan was simple. Be My client nation and go to the land which I promised to you. This continued for 40 years in the desert-wilderness. They were constantly in ignorance and ignoring the plan of God.
5. They never learned to trust God. We have a great opportunity in the next few weeks to trust the Lord completely. If our eyes are on circumstances, candidates and ideologies, etc. Our eyes should be on God. This might be our opportunity to return to a client nation. Christians in this country have departed from Bible doctrine. Programs, activism, humanism; we need a correction; maybe we just need a spanking.

6. They forgot the covenant that God made with Abraham. They called Abraham their father, the father of the Jews, the father of this client nation. They saw Abraham is their progenitor. Jews still speak of him as their father. They had a promise and it came through Abraham. God gave them a land and there were people in that land. They looked at the occupants and they thought that they were too big and too tough. "How can we do this? We have no training as soldiers." They did not trust the promises of God to Abraham.
7. They were so self-centered that they blamed their difficult circumstances on God. Not sure if you have done that. This is to understand that you cannot trust God; and this seems to imply that you cannot trust God. This is the wrong attitude in any tragedy. God is in everything that happens. God is in the good, the bad and everything in between. We must understand that God is not to be faulted for what happens. How do you benefit from circumstances? You utilize what you have learned and you get what you can from life. God knows what He is doing. God has a reason for what He does. Do not blame God for your difficult circumstances.
8. These Jews could not use faith rest. They fell apart under pressure, every time. This people left Egypt, not knowing where they were going. God supplied them a compass. A cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night. They were hungry, they were thirsty, they had a lot of complaints. Moses put a snake on a pole and told them to look at it.
9. They went to sleep instead of comprehending all that God had done for them. Even to the point where they left this life. This is the plight of any client nation that follows this path.

Psalm 90:5a You sweep them away as with a flood; they are like a dream,...

Psalm 90:5b ...like grass that is renewed in the morning:...

All they had to do was wait on the Lord. They were showered by God's blessing everyday. God's grace is depicted as a night's rain, after which the grass pops up.

This generation left Egypt like fresh vegetation which has been well-watered. What a picture of grace to a people. They left Egypt with a pile of gold; they had Egyptian gold. The whole thing was cause and effect. They had the opportunity to bring a carpet of green beauty to a brown desert; to bring an oasis to a parched land. But, they withered under pressure.

Psalm 90:6 ...in the morning it flourishes and is renewed; in the evening it fades and withers.

They began well-watered and ended up parched.

A New Beginning

1. They began in the desert with a new beginning.
2. God set them on a new course in life. They expressed faith when painting blood on their door frames. They had faith in Y<sup>e</sup>howah.
3. They had a fundamental knowledge of grace from the gospel and from Moses' teaching and from... They had been the builders as slaves of many of the great buildings in Egypt.
4. They moved out into the desert, well-water by the Word of God. They were moving out because God had delivered them. They had the promise.
5. In the evening, they rejected the life-giving waters of promise and doctrine and growing in the spiritual life. They could not maintain it due to negative volition.
6. They eschewed wisdom and unable to apply faith rest. Exodus and Numbers is a litany of complaining and griping. They were ready to go back to Egypt.
7. The water they had been given became bitter in their souls. Deut. 32:24

The years of bitter rejection and complaining; even though they had grace every day. Every day they woke up and their food was on the ground. They got tired of it; and they complained about it. God supplied them with quail as well. They had the same meal for awhile; the grace of God was right there in front of them. They faded, they withered, they were cut down. They wasted time and they chose a waste land rather than the garden, which is a very interesting parallel.

They were all destroyed except for Joshua and Caleb. This generation had maximum doctrine. Moses must have been a tremendous teacher of Bible doctrine. Moses understood Old Testament doctrine like no one else. He taught it and spoke it like no one else. He was able to pass the torch to Joshua.

The generation of promise could take up the mission from the first generation that failed. Faith rest and the results were discipline. The previous generation always managed to reject God's grace. Now, we don't face Pharaoh's chariots; but we all face adversity, we all face the election, we all face futures that we thought would never happen. People fear the future and their money and savings.

Gen X was always noisy and complaining. Relax and see what happens. Whether you think it is good or bad, see what the Lord has in store. It is really hard; the lack of comprehension of the first generation. They saw so much to come from grace of God. We can view their failure by seeing our own prospered, grace-showered nation today. What happened in that desert is happening in the US.

Gen X Does Not Recover

1. The problem is with Israel's sins.
2. They failed to face their own responsibilities before the Lord and to recover from their bad decisions. They kept getting into a difficult situation and they could never get out of it.

3. They lacked any response to God's grace as they moved through the desert. Reacting to the grace of God. The grace of God was manifested in ways that no other nation has seen before, yet they rejected it.
4. This is the true reason for divine discipline against any client nation. Steeped in divine establishment and they reject Bible doctrine. They failed to apply any wisdom to their circumstances. People think they have wisdom, they are wise in the ways of the world, we do not have wisdom to apply. We just don't. To the extent that we apply human viewpoint to our life and...

Now comes the testimony to the fact of this discipline, in vv. 7–10. The final cause of discipline is their own sins. The optative cause of discipline is the wrath of God, which is caused by their disobedience.

These doomed nomads are about to be consumed.

Psalm 90:7 For we are brought to an end by Your anger; by Your wrath we are dismayed.

Psalm 90:7 Commentary

1. We know that anger in the form of a single vengeful attitude of hatred is never a characteristic of God. Don't put that on God, that He is vengeful or hates.
2. Rather, anger in God represents well-deserved divine discipline as it is meted out to the first generation of Israel. The wrath of God is a terrible thing.
3. This people got very degenerate in the desert; they worshiped some false gods; some Egyptian god. When a person or nation follows the path of reversionism and they blame God for their troubles. They complain about their conditions rather than thanking Him for His grace and provision. Wrath will be the result. His wrath and anger will be the result. To whom much is given, much is expected. True of every client nation. When a client nation failed divine expectations, then the wrath of God is ready to be applied.
4. God's displeasure is ready to be applied as divine discipline.

Moses, who wrote this psalm, also wrote the Pentateuch. Moses understood disobedience to God; one act of disobedience was understood by Moses. Having every possibility for themselves, enjoying God's favor to the maximum, but receiving God's discipline. Adam and the woman had everything, but one tree, and they went for the tree.

They had it all, but they had to have the one fruit. They disobeyed that one limitation.

Bobby had a theology professor in seminary. He made the statement, if it were you or me who could take the place of Adam or the woman in the garden, we would have done exactly as Adam did. Isn't that kind of deterministic? God created us to fall. God made man with volition. Bobby did not identify with it that much.

Bobby's answer. Bobby ate of the fruit and he fell hard. A little levity.

They were tossed from the garden; just as the first generation would be left to die in the desert. What fools to not trust God. To disobey Him at every step in those 40 years. They continued that dismal path of destruction.

They are said to be dismayed, which is the Hebrew verb bahol

Bahol Is Translated Dismayed.

1. This means to be troubled, agitated, miserable.
2. The first generation of Jews experienced terrible discomfort. Plagues, hunger, thirst, death.
3. They were physically miserable even though God took care of them. They always got logistical grace. God's grace never failed them.
4. They experienced something else, a further result of failure. Bad decisions and divine discipline.
5. They felt the dismay or the misery or the inner misery of a self-induced soul misery.
6. Actually, the overt pain of divine discipline may have been a secondary experience. Their own self-induced misery in the soul may have been even more painful. When you reject wisdom then there is a vacuum in your soul and it rushes garbage.
7. Physical distress becomes nothing compared to agony of soul.
8. They were eaten up inside, such that they were hopeless and lost, which is true of anyone. That kind of pain can end up as suicide. Soul misery. Such misery is the most lasting form of misery. Physical pain can go away. Soul misery does not. Only one way around that; to gain wisdom. Breathe the garbage out of one's soul.
9. Self-induced misery and soul-distress is the most terrible adjunct to divine discipline. You see, you bring our own misery on ourselves by our own bad choices. Apart from wisdom, apart from divine discipline. We defy God and His doctrine; and this puts us outside the plan of God. We are out of fellowship. That leads to self-induced misery every time. As Israel entered into the desert, Moses could recognize their soul misery; the inability to recover; and Moses could see this from his own perspective.

Psalm 90:7 For we are brought to an end by Your anger; by Your wrath we are dismayed.

Lesson #0148

Psalm 90 Wisdom in the OT

10/22/2020 Thursday

Moses when he was wandering in the desert with the Israelites, observed firsthand the sins and failures of Israel. They blame God for adverse circumstances; they are complaining about Moses. Their lack of trust and their idolatry. He understood why God brought this discipline upon Gen X. He understood why the discipline for this 1st generation of national Israel. They died off before entering into the land.

Psalm 90:7 For we are brought to an end by Your anger; by Your wrath we are dismayed.

These people have failed miserably. God freed them from Egypt for a specific reason, and they did not fulfill God's destiny for them. They failed miserably. There is tremendous application to the client nation and to believers as a whole.

While marginalizing God, blaming Him for their troubles, demand God to bow to their will. They do not thank Him for His grace. When a nation does not do that; when they begin to ignore Bible doctrine and the blessings of God, the expectation would be the fifth cycle of discipline. To whom much is given, much is expected. When a client nation does not fulfill that, divine discipline is in the offering.

This severe discipline will occur against this client nation. Dismayed indicates inner misery; self-induced misery. Also, God is applying discipline to them. The discipline might be just a secondary effect on them.

Physical distress becomes an adjunct to the self-induced misery in the soul. It is what is in their souls which brings on the self-induced misery. Two type of this terrible self-induced misery. First, there are the mental attitude sins, all producing some sort of self-induced misery. Mental attitude sins always produce misery in the soul. Whether this is envy or jealousy or implacability or hatred; all of which Israel demonstrated when in the desert. Or their fear and anxiety, emotions also exhibited in the desert-wilderness. This interrupted the spiritual life and interrupting any chance for a relaxed mental attitude. Mental attitude sins always bring distress upon individuals. This is entirely self-induced. They unable to apply grace orientation or impersonal love. They constantly are failing people testing, system testing, etc. They are ill-equipped to face life.

Therefore, they love to blame their self-induced misery on someone else. Israel blamed Moses and God. Others blame the devil. They do not take the responsibility for their own problems. When mental attitude sins are involved, it is impossible not to blame others. So husbands blame wives, wives blame husbands, children blame parents.

Taking Responsibility for One's Part in One's Life

1. One of the signs of maturity in the human race is when an individual is willing to take responsibility for his or her own actions. We see very little of that in this country. Politicians take no responsibility for anything. Their job is pointing fingers at others. It is the blame game. No one wants to take responsibility; and if it is success, they claim responsibility. Very inventive here.
2. They will never blame their own bad decisions on themselves; but they will certainly blame others. That is where individuals come in. We have riots in the streets because people cannot take responsibility for their own actions; they want to blame, and they are unwilling to be objective.
3. Immature people must find a patsy for their own mistakes, problems and failures. It ruins their system of life if they do not find someone to blame.
4. The blame briefly covers their misery, but it never solves any of their problems.

The second type of self-induced misery is the believer trying to find happiness apart from the plan of God.

Fleeting Circumstances and Fleeting Happiness

1. All of our lives are a string of activities. Sometimes they go on for days.
2. Some of these events are painful and they are called suffering; and some will be pleasant, and they will be called happiness.
3. Both labels are really a misnomer for the believer. Either suffering or pleasure.
4. Why? Happiness and suffering do not depend upon our circumstances. If they do depend on our circumstances, we will have a lot of misery in this life. There is much more adversity in life than pleasure. Because you have to deal with other people. There are your personal relationships and your job and so many things bring adversity into your life. A small amount of pleasure in there. Pleasure is fine, but it is a circumstance; and adversity takes up more time than pleasure does.
5. But happiness does not depend upon circumstance. You do not depend upon what you are doing; your vacation, work, retirement, football game, whatever. It does not depend upon being recognized or being given approbation.
6. Rather, true happiness and believer's happiness, which only a believer can have, depends only upon one thing. Metabolism of Bible doctrine in the soul and growing spiritually. Circumstances run every person's life. That is not true of the believer. The spiritual life runs your life and that means Bible doctrine and wisdom in the soul. That is the great differentiation between the believer and unbeliever.
7. When you are growing spiritually, the bondage of circumstances for happiness is broken. In other words, it is removed. You are released from circumstantial slavery.
8. Happiness and contentment can be permanently contained in the soul not in circumstances that seem pleasant or stimulating. If your happiness depends upon fleeting circumstances, then your happiness is fleeting.

Circumstances Change Constantly

1. Circumstances change constantly, which can affect your happiness.
2. They are changed into misery without a counter in the soul. Circumstances almost always turn to some unpleasantry, sooner or later, unless you have a counter for that in the soul.
3. That is, without the application of faith rest, which overrides the circumstances, that is when the spiritual life overrides circumstances. Otherwise, circumstances control you.
4. Having nothing in the soul as a counter to adversity is that ticket to self-induced misery.
5. There is no peace for the believer who consistently rejects the means of a relaxed mental attitude. That comes from applying wisdom to circumstances.

The most unhappy people in the world today are probably older people who are bitter as they watch their mental and physical deterioration and they remember what they used to be like. Some are believers who have rejected Bible doctrine in the older age. My hair is grayer; my body is chunkier. That is when you find out what is in your soul. That is all you. It is so easy to lose contentment in your old age. Hard to escape family members going through this. They despise and revile anyone in your periphery. Some want you to be as miserable as they are, so that they are not as miserable. That gives them a lift, for about 2 minutes. They are vindictive, implacable, angry people. Self-induced misery and divine discipline, the latter if they are believers.

This can happen at any age where mental attitude sins are involved and self-induced misery is present. Very miserable people on the streets today and they are very young and they have no idea what they are doing, they are agitated, they are disturbed, and they only thing they know to do is to lash down. They love burning down someone else's property. They could not be more wrong.

If this sounds depressing, there is nothing more beautiful than an older person who is relaxed and easygoing, maintaining a soul which avoids a propensity for unhappiness. There are people in Berachah who are like that.

Bobby had the privilege of watching his parents deteriorate; they deteriorated mentally and physically. Their cognitive abilities just failed. Bobby wondered about that. There are many reasons for this that Bobby knows now. Bobby saw souls separated from their cognitive ability, but they were pleasant souls, despite the reduction of mental and physical abilities. The soul is still there, still functioning. Bobby understands, this stuff works. The Christian life brings on a relaxed mental attitude. This is why he says, it is the older, wise believer who has the great advantage in life. The older person has more time to grow; and they can also affect younger believers.

We became a metropolitan society. The older members of a family had more opportunities for input. They were recognized for their wisdom and experience. In the Christian life, the older, wiser Christian believers are invaluable. We have a ministry in this life to younger believers. This has an effect. The younger believer can look at the older believer and decide, that is where I am going and I want that. They are the greatest example of what years of applied Bible doctrine can do. There are those in Berachah who have spent their lives growing and enjoying lives. Bobby admires them and would depend upon them because of what is in their souls.

So many distractions in the soul of the young person. There are many miserable people in this age group.

Great advantage for unbelievers if they take advantage. They can build a happy old age; they can build a spiritual 401k. They have seen so many believers who live empty lives. Those who look forward to retirement and they finally retire and they are aimless and unhappy. The circumstances have changed, but their souls have not.

Happiness is not retirement; it is not indulging in activities that seem like they might be happy. No permanent happiness in work or in play. Happiness is gaining wisdom in the soul and youth have more time to get it. Older people do not have much time to make up for lost time. Young people do have that time. Developing a spiritual life early. Young people look at circumstances and thing, that is what I want to do. Those who are older can see that you don't need that. We only have so many minutes, days, weeks and years. That is why the time spent in Bible class is not wasted. Plenty of time wasting out there.

The first generation of Jews rejected the grace of God; exhibited constantly negative volition and mental attitude sins. They got worse. They complained more and more. The more logistical grace that they saw, the less that they appreciated it. That happened until they passed miserably from the scene. They simply died their own miserable self-induced death.

That first generation tried to compensate for their misery in many ways. Some wanted to return to Egypt and to slavery. Or to name new gods; or to worship Egyptian gods. None of this relieved the misery in their souls.

This is a generation profoundly blessed by God.

The United States is a nation profoundly blessed by God. Never a greater nation with greater prosperity than anywhere else. Some are left out. Some don't have beautiful homes, but in comparison to the rest of the world, even the poor here are advantaged and all have opportunity if they take it. The grace of God has been shed on this country, generation after generation. Divine establishment in this country; the rule of law is the order of the day; Bible doctrine is taught in churches.

When Bobby was in college, they loved to dwell on Puritan. They always dealt with the Salem witch trials and how they wiped out the native Americans. They did everything that they could to denigrate great evangelism and teaching, which took place during that time. Some were covenant theologians; they taught doctrine. The puritans were the backbone of client nation USA. But you will never hear negative about secular education.

The first generation of Israel was very similar to the last 4 generations of Americans.

Joshua led the second generation; and only he and Caleb were willing to enter into the land. The very thing that the first generation of Israel complained about bitterly; but they refused to do what God told them to do. They died in the ways that they feared the most.

Self-induced Misery in the Soul Due to Rejection of God's Word

1. The believers who rejects God's Word and plan will find themselves unsettle and filled with fear.
2. When fear takes over the soul, it cause a lifestyle of fear. That is the first generation of Israel. That pretty much describes them.
3. They are afraid of the Pharaoh and the chariots of Egypt; they were afraid the desert; afraid of the God who destroyed many of them, afraid of hunger and thirst. They lived a lifestyle of fear. This is not the life of a believer. This is a life of self-induced misery. Live in fear means you will live in misery. The only way to overcome this is by what you put into your soul.

4. When fear takes over the soul, that is self-induced misery to the maximum. Bobby sees this in the youth and in the aged.

It will be fascinating after the election. Will we be miserable? We will find out what is in our soul. This will be great exercise.

Psalm 90:7 For we are brought to an end by Your anger; by Your wrath we are dismayed.

Lesson #0149

Psalm 90:7 Wisdom in the OT

10/25/2020 Sunday

When Bobby first looked at Psalm 90, he could see that there was tremendous application to us today. We are looking at something that God has provided for Israel, which is not pleasant and not pretty.

Psalm 90:7 [For we \[the Exodus generation\] are brought to an end by Your anger; by Your wrath we are dismayed \[= made miserable\].](#)

The benefit is to their children. The words, consumed, dismayed, wrath, anger are generally words that we might consider unpleasant. Constant rebellion against God and His chosen leaders. God's justice is at work here.

Moses writes this is the middle of Psalm 90, which is a prayer. Moses understood in the end that this generation would die. God made this promise to Abraham, if only this generation would believe it, trust it and do it.

The people of Israel were in fear; they feared the people of the land more than they trusted God. When this fear took a hold of them, this became their consistent way of thinking. They lived a lifestyle of fear. The Epistle to Timothy says, you cannot have a lifestyle of fear and live the Christian life.

They were never to faith rest; they would always complain. They feared, even though God continued to be afraid. That is self-induced misery to the maximum; and divine discipline to go along with it. There is certainly application to the people of the United States today. We are on the same path as the 1st generation of Israel. We marginalized God in our nation. We fear socialism and Marxism; and some even fear capitalism. We fear the loss of economic stabilization. We fear this is many generations. We have enjoyed great material prosperity.

They ridicule one of the greatest thing in the United States, God, in a nation of turmoil. Their humanist ideologies can never replace divine truth and wisdom. Materialism does not provide happiness or peace. Those who have much are afraid of losing it. Those who have little, are jealous and demand that they be given that which others have.

The humanist misery; forced change and even violence; and the Jews of the 1st generation attempted the same thing. Humanists think that, if they could just change the world to their image and remove God from the public forum, that their fears will disappear; and the world will be the utopian place that they envision.

The soul of the humanist will never be satisfied with any changes that they make. This never changes the sin nature. They never change that which they seek. They force it; intimidate others. Intimidation is living by fear, using fear. Today young humanists want to improve the world by social action and social justice. If they could just legislate climate change, this would alleviate their fear of the destruction of the planet. A couple who moved to Portland, OR to escape climate change.

If they could just eliminate gender distinctions, then they can eliminate gender discrimination. There are so many fears that they want to overcome; and none of them are working. They want to destroy whatever is in their way.

They 1st generation wanted to execute their own plan, to return to slavery. They have so many fears that they must attack. Bobby is getting older and there are humanists who are his contemporaries. The humanist becomes intolerant, cynical, bitter, the worst of haters, because of the failure of materialism to satisfy. The failure of mankind to save mankind; they cannot do it; they will never do it. Can't we improve our conditions? To some extent; but not fully, because we are the enemy. Those who want to impose socialism think that is the solution, but that is just a front for total control. Self-induced misery in them or in others.

You may think that Bobby is talking politics and stumping for a certain candidate. That is not his purpose in all of this. His purpose in teaching all of this, is for us to examine our own individual soul. Do we live a lifestyle of fear? Are you afraid of what is happening today? This is not about electioneering; this is not about a candidate who will save America. There is a lot of fear expressed today. Freedom may change dramatically. Do you fear it? How do you think? You must understand the frustration of humanism; they will never be happy; they will never be content; they will always be struggling. That is a key word to Marxism; they are always struggling. If you want to watch politics, that is fine; and all that is going on, notice one thing, they are not at peace in their souls. They are struggling with something. They have nothing positive to say. Bobby has heard epithets being thrown right and left. The candidates are catering to souls that are unhappy, miserable, fearful, unsteady. That is what is going on. Do you vote for someone out of fear? Or do you vote on the basis of divine establishment.

There is a continued push today for radical change in our nation. There is a push for socialism. All of the socialist action in the past 50 years, it has not improved fear, hatred, inequality; and it is worst now than it ever was. Every humanist approach will fail. Humanism is not to be the foundation of our thinking. Our individual spiritual life is fundamental, for our own peace and for the client nation in which we live. The laws will change; radical change is being proposed. That is the status of our client nation. We have lost our way through humanism. There is no peace in the streets and there is no peace in the souls of people. Similar for Israel. No peace in their souls.

What about Miserable People?

1. Miserable people want to make others miserable. Their only happiness is to induce misery in others. They like to blame everyone else for their own misery.
2. Souls filled with misery dedicate themselves for exporting their own misery with their humanist solutions.
3. Souls filled with malcontent are always restless and angry. There is a professional political group who are filled with malcontent. Nothing makes them happy except attacking others.
4. Those who want radical change, the socialists, radicals, humanists, turn out to be the worst hate mongers. They charge everyone else with who they are. That is exporting misery.
5. That is what socialism and Marxism is; a shared misery and poverty, under the guise of humanistic programs. We will make life better by making things free. Nothing is free. You pay for it now or you pay for it later.
6. There is peace for anyone who mirrors the 2nd generation of Israel.

Why couldn't God lay off the discipline and let them go into the land? God knew that they feared everything and that they rejected His plan. He could not overlook their sins and disobedience. God disciplined the 1st generation and put them under the sin unto death.

The 2nd generation could see this and it turned them around. This is why we as a client nation always have hope. Don't fear because you always feel hopeless. We are not powerless. There is peace in any believer in the 2nd generation.

Under their new leaders, Joshua and Caleb, are the only ones remaining of the 1st generation, and they wiped out the very people that their parents feared the most. The parents had to receive divine discipline so that the kids could see, they do not want to go that way.

We are not finished with the 1st generation yet.

Psalm 90:8 You have set our iniquities before you, our secret sins in the light of Your presence.

Psalm 90:9 For all our days pass away under your wrath; we bring our years to an end like a sigh.

Moses cannot just let these iniquities slide. He has brought their sins into plain sight, so that they can understand why they are being judged. God can look into your soul and see who you are. What they thought was hidden, God revealed. God's fury. His client nation failed to meet its purpose. There are not extenuating circumstances. When you come before the Supreme Court of Heaven, there are no extenuating circumstances. You must take responsibility for how you think; for what is inside of you.

Violating divine will and purpose; and bad decisions. Do you want to look back at your life and see where your life went bad? It is your bad decisions. You have nothing to offset the fears. When you have faith rest; when you trust in the Lord, then you know what the solution is. God's grace had suffered this nation for a very long time. God gave warning after warning to them. It was all placed before God and before the people. Their secret sins in the light of their presence.

God, Mental Attitude Sins, and Israel

1. God is picture here as a Judge, fury from the Supreme Court of Heaven. That is real justice. He is evaluating sins which are perpetrated in secret; mental attitude sins; the basis for all sins against God.
2. Even their innermost thoughts are not hidden to this judge; Omniscient, Almighty Judge.
3. There are the sins that Israel is guilty of in their rejection, arrogance, envy, vindictiveness, implacability towards God and His Word,
4. Those mental attitude sins then are translated to overt sins; sins of the tongue. That was the next phase of their failure. They complained bitterly and constantly about God's purpose for them. They want to go right back to slavery.

Num 14:2 And all the people of Israel grumbled against Moses and Aaron. The whole congregation said to them, "Would that we had died in the land of Egypt! Or would that we had died in this wilderness!"

They has little meetings against Moses and his leadership. This is a perfect example of self pity from mental attitude sins. Soul misery expressed. Be careful what you wish for, because dying in the desert-wilderness was their judgment.

Num 14:3 Why is the LORD bringing us into this land, to fall by the sword? Our wives and our little ones will become a prey. Would it not be better for us to go back to Egypt?"

Another question, why is the Lord bringing us into this land? That was God's promise to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. This generation did not trust God to deliver the land to them. They do not appreciate how God has delivered them time and time and again.

They worry about their wives and children. They are speaking of the 2nd generation. They use their children as an excuse. When a politician wants to manipulate someone, they use the vulnerability of children.

They don't want to die in the desert-wilderness; they want to return to Egypt. To save the children, they say.

Num 14:4 And they said to one another, "Let us choose a leader and go back to Egypt."

The revolutionaries; "Let us choose a new leader." An election will solve our problems. Forget God; forget His promise. That is textbook on how to get out of the plan of God. Reject God's leader and choose another.

When Moses heard this, he got angry. Moses got so mad, he smacked a rock; which God told him not to do. He was leadership. He had to obey God. He had to set the example for this people. He rebelled. As leadership, he could not rebel against God.

Their motives are exposed for all the people to review their sins.

Look around you; try not to get caught up in politics. This precludes fears and mental attitude sins. This means that you will have a life like the 2nd generation. We don't know where our country is going. If divine discipline comes upon this country, then so be it.

We are not finished with this psalm. By the time it is over. You will have doctrine in your soul or you will have the same old fears.

Lesson #0150

Psalm 90:8–11 Wisdom in the OT

10/28/2020 Wed.

Bobby begins with v. 8. Our secret sins are in the light of God's presence. You cannot hide anything from God. He is the omniscient judge of the Supreme Court of Heaven. God knows everything, He sees everything, and He is present for every action. Clearly the innermost secret thoughts of the people are not hidden to the Judge. God knows all of these and He reveals them to us. The trek from Egypt to Israel is not a long trek; it certainly would not take 40 years. But God told them, "You will never enter the land."

These mental attitude sins that they have been guilty of, their arrogance, bitterness, anger, fear and hatred, all of these are known to God. Their motives are exposed for all to view in open court. God pronounces the death penalty upon them. This is not swept under the rug; Israel lived these sins day after day. There is nothing surprising to these Jews. They are guilty as charged, sentenced to death in the desert. They received the death penalty and wandered in the desert. Repeat offenders is a bit of a misnomer; they were constant offenders, reject His grace. These Jews could not trust the Lord for one minute.

It is not hard to understand; we have been protected in so many ways, and how we have been guided from one point to another, and yet, under adversity, we fail to trust Him. We find more and more that we can trust Him under any circumstances. That the direction our nation will go inside under a week.

If your candidate is elected, that does not mean that everything will be great. More riots and more resistance may continue. There will continue to be problems no matter who is elected. We are certainly getting discipline. We may wake up and no longer have a republic. This is an unknown. Where do you place your trust? Do not be like the Exodus generation.

For them, God could do nothing besides applying His justice to that generation. Who will be protected from divine discipline? Who now gets the divine protection? The next generation, those who responded to God's grace. They trusted Him. They can now fulfill the purpose for which they are brought out of Egypt.

The eye of the Lord is on those who revere Him. We revere Him because we are growing spiritually and we know Him; and we have nothing to fear. Israel lives a life of self-induced misery. We can easily make ourselves afraid and confused right now. We are in the desert and wandering. We must trust the Lord no matter what takes place.

Our nation should be open to what it taking place. Bobby is hoping for an increased interest in spiritual things and he prays for that, as well as an increased interest in Bible doctrine. Discipline is designed to protect the nation from too much degeneracy. That should be our prayer for this country. Ignorance in so many ways; and degenerate in so many ways.

Because of reject of God's Word as believers.

For What Should Be Pray?

1. You might pray for people to return to greater morality and establishment. Incredible degeneracy in the United States today. So much degeneracy in the nation. Bobby is not going on a tirade. That will not do any good at all. Let people be the object of our prayer and let God work on them.
2. Pray that believers return to Bible doctrine and spiritual growth, to maintain the pivot; and that includes churches in America. Our churches have become so liberal theologically. They take the Bible as suggestions. More likely to teach the Bible in a critical manner. Do we think this is really applicable today? Many churches look at the Bible in this way. And the high churches which depend upon ritual, which has no meaning at all.
3. May God renew us and equip us as a client nation.
4. May be receive the hardship of the client nation with trust confidence in God's purposes. If we are under severe discipline, it is still a part of God's purposes. We in the meantime, in a client nation being disciplined, must still have this trust and confidence in God.

Psalm 90:8 You have set our iniquities before you, our secret sins in the light of Your presence.

Psalm 90:9 For all our days pass away under your wrath; we bring our years to an end like a sigh.

Intro to V. 9

1. Introduces guilt and sentencing.
2. The time period for this sentencing is all of our days. This is life in prison without parole. 40 years in the desert.

3. In the desert, they will decline. Not a strong enough word. The steady disappearance of that generation as they wander. The steadily die until the last of them are gone.
4. For their years of sin and failure, their ...by the fury of God, the severe discipline and justice of God.
5. So this is the connection between sin and God's fury. Israel's continued sin and disobedience is tied to God's fury right here.
6. This is the fate of client nations that refuse to submit to the will of God; who refuse to submit to His purposes. Missions, missionaries, dissemination of Bible doctrine, haven for the Jews, evangelization. Every client nation is a representative nation to Jesus Christ in this world. If we do not fulfill these functions, then look out.

Filled with self-induced misery and suffering, the price of their disobedience. This is why they sigh. There is nothing which they leave behind them. No legacy; no true spiritual heritage. Their finest hour was leaving Egypt, but failed after that.

Bobby traveled in Europe several times. He went to Venice, one of his favorite cities, and he went to the palace of Dooj. People were judged in his palace. The dooj judged and sentenced some. When they left the palace; they crossed a bridge. Once they had been condemned, they had to go through this covered bridge, with covered windows. An interesting story about this, as the prisoner went through this bridge, they would see Venice through the windows and they would sigh, to never see Venice again. Known as the bridge of sighs.

So it is the 1st generation.

The fury of God is not an emotional tirade; it is not being out of control. This is not a harsh God with no pity.

God's Fury

1. Our Lord is a merciful loving and gracious God.
2. At the same time, He retains and applies justice and righteousness to His people. You can never take away one attribute in favor of another. God's justice and righteousness operate along side His love.
3. His fury represents His severe judgment and discipline for the secret mental attitude sins. Sins of the tongue. Underneath is was fear, anger, etc. working out to become overt sins.
4. Fury is a righteous indignation; a wrath that is justified. Bobby like the word fury and reminds him of a movie called Fury. One of the better war pictures that he has seen. All about a tank crew in WWII. On another level it represents what fury means here. The SS troops were the same who murdered 6 million Jews. This one tank represented fury, judgment day. Fury was righteous; they deserved it.
- 5.

6. God's fury was against a people who had been given everything, yet appreciate nothing. This describes us exactly. We are the most prosperous nation in the world; a great nation than any other nation in history. We do not want to change it. We want to become a nation like some other poverty nation. We have been given everything, but we do not appreciate what the grace of God has done for us.

The Jews blamed God for all of their troubles. We are no different. Many people bring God to the problems of their life. Someone dies and they say, "How could God let this happen?" Just like the Exodus generation, who said, "How could God lead us out to the desert?" We do not look to God to blame. We should be waiting patiently for the Lord's deliverance. They have been warned about this repeatedly. "Stand still and watch the deliverance of the Lord." That is all you have to do.

For the last 50 years, we have seen our nation go in the wrong direction from a client nation. We might need the discipline; we might need to be cleansed. We might need to see where we are going and where we have been. Maybe we need to see dependence on the Lord. We may have seen nothing yet in terms of discipline. God's eyes are on us.

Psalm 90:9 For all our days pass away under your wrath; we bring our years to an end like a sigh.

Now we have Moses move back to a philosophical view in the light of eternity. God gives them a grim reminder. Our lives may also take on a sizeable disappointment.

The question becomes, what does life amount to for sinful mankind?

Psalm 90:10 The years of our life are seventy, or even by reason of strength eighty; yet their span is but toil and trouble; they are soon gone, and we fly away.

V. 10 is a grim verse. What a thing to say to these people who have seen their friends begin to die in the desert. In the passage of time in history, it is brief. The brevity here is all about our insignificance. The best we can do is pride in our humanism.

What if people look up to us and build a statue of us; or what if we are thrown into a pauper's grave. We only have a few years to do what we need to do, and then it is over. This is the only thing that we can be proud of, apart from God.

The believer who does divine good, he has a real impact. A believer utilizing divine resources, like the power of the Holy Spirit. These count for eternity. Solomon wrote about the accomplishments of human pride. Vanity of vanities; says the preacher; vanity of vanity; all is empty...what advantage does man have in all of his work under the sun?

A resound portrayal of the shortness of life. A generation goes and a generation comes; but the earth is forever. A promise for God remains forever. What makes the difference? Is it the accomplishments that we have during our lifetime? Or what we do within the plan of God in our lifetime.

Man's Futility of Life

1. This describes futility in all of our striving in the plan of God. Someone else will do our job after we die.
2. What we take pride in quickly passes and slips through our hands in a brief moment.
3. Then we are gone, as are our deed.
4. It is the shortness of life all that makes it seem so hopeless.
5. What we do for the Lord is lasting. That is an accomplishment. It is something that we have by the grace of God.

Taking the land has eternal repercussions. What were they thinking in the desert? They blamed the Lord for all of the circumstances, so that they just died in the desert. That is their legacy. That kind of thinking may be called pessimistic. This can become fatalism and even nihilism. It is a grim verse.

Psalm 90:10 The years of our life are seventy, or even by reason of strength eighty; yet their span is but toil and trouble; they are soon gone, and we fly away.

Psalm 90:11 Who considers the power of your anger, and your wrath according to the fear of you?

This explains why it is terrible to fall under the fury of God. We must understand the power of God's justice. All of these things are connected. Accomplishes in the plan of God, everything; outside of the plan of God, nothing.

Lesson #0151

Psalm 90 Wisdom in the OT

10/29/2020 Thursday

This is directed to unbelievers who reject God and to believers who lack trust in God. Otherwise, called reversionists.

God's grace and His love never rejected the people in the desert. He always took care of them. He never deserted them, even though they did not fulfill His plan. Since they reject His plan so totally; they complained constantly, they grumbled against Moses; ultimately they must all die the sin unto death in the desert after 40 long years. They died over a period of 40 years, not all at once. They died for a variety of methods. They were all gone by the end of 40 years. That generation was gone.

The judgment of God towards these people; we may be in for some of the same judgment that the first generation underwent, when they left Egypt to the end of those 40 years.

Psalm 90:8 You have set our iniquities before You, our secret sins in the light of Your presence.

God sits as judge passing judgment over this entire generation. There are no secrets which are not revealed. They were fearful; they were angry; they had just about every mental attitude sins that you could think of.

The secret sins, the mental attitude sins, the arrogance, are the root of all other sins and they were not hidden from God.

When God disciplines His people, He knows all of the facts. His justice is always justified. There is never injustice in the justice of God.

The people pass away over a period of 40 years:

Psalm 90:9 For all our days pass away under Your wrath; we bring our years to an end like a sigh.

That last breath is a sigh of regret.

Psalm 90:10 The years of our life are seventy, or even by reason of strength eighty; yet their span is but toil and trouble; they are soon gone, and we fly away.

The pride of accomplishment in life—and there are those who accomplish much and some who do little—but for the humanist, it is just hard labor and sorrow. It truly amounts to nothing and then it is gone. That is the picture of human accomplishment here. We have covered human good and divine good.

Psalm 90:11 Who considers the power of Your anger, and your wrath according to the fear of You?

It is a terrible thing to fall under the fury or wrath of God, which is the pure justice of God.

Why this Is True

1. God's power is limitless; it comes from all directions; it takes on surprising forms in our life. It cannot be resisted by anyone; not a nation that is the most powerful nation on earth or the most successful individual. No one can resist God's wrath.
2. His fury is immeasurable and it makes no exceptions for the powerful, accomplished or the downtrodden. God's justice covers them all.
3. His wrath when directed towards people, will always accomplish the purpose to which it is directed. All of what the first generation accomplished in 40 years.
4. The enemies who oppose God in this world. There are many enemies in this country who oppose God and His plan. Those who mock God; God will not be mocked. If you don't recognize evil when you see it, the wrath of God will take care of them. Possibly not in the way that you want. We know people from the news, those who hold high office, on a superficial level. We can see their power and their approbation. We do not know what is in their souls; and we do not know what goes on behind closed doors. We do not see their self-induced misery when they oppose God. When you are worried about socialism or anti-God organizations (and there are plenty of them), God's justice is still there. This is directed towards those who hate and persecute you. We have doctrine in order to deal with adversity. You know all of these things. Bobby is preparing us so that we will have some idea for what will occur a few days hence. God can work circumstances which appear to be hopeless. You see circumstances and they seem to be winning; don't worry. God can work His rather against them.

5. God also projects His wrath to those who go against His Word;
6. His wrath is directed towards reversionistic believers. But discipline is directed towards us for recovery.
7. No one escapes the fury of God when it is directed towards them.

We never know when teaching the Bible will be declared hate speech. LGBTQ are a powerful group and they get a lot of policy through. Believers in o

Rom 1:18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who by their unrighteousness suppress the truth.

The flood judgment. Only Noah and his family remained righteous and clean. The flood cleansed the world of all unrighteousness.

There have been an awful lot of hurricanes; and all sorts of people have gone through it. When discipline and adversity hit, the good and the bad feel it. Those with Bible doctrine and have wisdom, they can handle it. Those without God cannot. Those humanists feel the sting of God's wrath.

The pollution of the human race at that time.

There are many other threats, including ongoing and future threats in the angelic conflict. There may be one going on right now.

God's fury was demonstrated in the flood; and it will be demonstrated at a future time, and it will be hard to imagine. Rev. 14:19–20 So the angel swung his sickle across the earth and gathered the grape harvest of the earth and threw it into the great winepress of the wrath of God. And the winepress was trodden outside the city, and blood flowed from the winepress, as high as a horse's bridle, for 1,600 stadia. This means utter destruction. Blood flowered as high as the horse's bridle; that is a great slaughter. Do not get in the way of God's judgment.

The armies surrounding Jerusalem. There is a lot of blood. Is that in fact what will happen. Bobby has never seen rivers of blood; but it is a very effective metaphor for the fury and wrath of God. The power displayed here is immense; and beyond imagination. We will be returning with God and we will see this. Do not ever underestimate the fury and wrath of God. The absolute justice when God may release His wrath, at any point in human history.

His people are perfected in that way; or they destroy themselves. God's wrath can be put onto His people who reject Bible doctrine and His grace. To make light of God's justice, means that earthly life is reduced to the level that we often find it. That brings on the fury of God. To whom much is given, much is expected. The protection already found is what the believer must camp on.

God's Fury on Believers

1. The failure to appreciate God is the ultimate cause of God's fury being dispensed. That is a failure to appreciate God to follow His divine establishment laws.
2. It is justice that shapes the lives of people and nations in this world. God controls history and His justice is an integral part of that. We could destroy the human race; we have the means to do that now. Nuclear weapons and so many other kinds of weapons. God's justice is still in operation. God's justice is actually a means of preservation; our preservation. The preservation of believers as well as unbelievers.
3. Justice removes peoples and nations who oppose God. This includes nations who oppose client nations or it might be client nations which have deteriorated.
4. God's fury is centered in the fact that man does not have the proper fear or respect for God. Fear here mostly means reverence. Have respect for divine establishment and God's plan.
5. When people do not have respect for God, that will engender the wrath of God upon them. Israel, this first generation, were delivered in so many ways, and they resisted God every step of the way.
6. This can mean utter destruction, as in the flood; or the annihilation of an entire city or geographical area. Sometimes it is obvious; sometimes not so obvious.
7. A steady diet of divine discipline as was administered to Israel in the desert. That appears to be the direction that we are going in God has given us time; there is still time.

Maybe they will look at socialism and realize that this is not the right direction. Some begin to search and they find what they need. Not everyone will accept Jesus Christ and move on the spiritual growth. Every client nation has great opposition. A client nation is also headquarters to Satan, because this is where it all takes place.

The results are the same, where a steady diet or utter destruction. It is the sin unto death in the end. This wrath is unknown to those who reject God. They reject His justice and His absolute righteousness in this world. Many do not even believe in Him. They attribute their problems to bad luck, to other people, or to environment; and they become activists in order to fix it. Humans cannot solve the problems of humanity. The wrath of God is designed to change minds.

If they understood the magnitude of God's justice, they would be cowering. We know this; we see it in the Scriptures.

God's Justice Applied in the World

1. The knowledge, wisdom that we display towards Him determines the degree that we will receive God's justice. There may be believers in the middle of God's justice and its application. This is a part of the justice of God and we are here and we cannot help but be here. If we learn what God's justice means, then we can also live through it.

2. We can learn the easy way by knowledge and wisdom; rather than experiencing His justice turned towards us. It can be worse if we do not learn His justice. When we begin to understand God's justice, we begin to understand the world around us and we begin to understand pressure and wrath.
3. Of course, God's justice toward believers is designed for correction and instruction in the spiritual life. His justice is to our benefit, even when it is divine discipline.
4. With the knowledge, we stand in awe of our God. When we see God's justice in action towards those who oppose Him and we understand what is happening, we can only be in awe of the workings of our God. It is most obviously directed towards those who harm the pivot. Socialism will be punishment towards those who reject God's grace. Believers in the plan of God are never threatened by the fury of God. We are not threatened as a part of the pivot. God's wrath is directed to those who...

This is why Moses said, "Stand still and watch the deliverance of the Lord." Moses had an inkling of what the fury of God could do. That is what the fury of God can do.

God's Wrath Is Inevitable

1. Do not ever doubt God's love and justice towards you.
2. It is inevitable that the wrath of God will be put upon those who oppose Him.
3. Their destruction is a matter of time...whether this generation or the next or the 4th generation.

For believers, God's justice is corrective and not destructive. We gain reverence for God as we come to know Him intimately through His Word and the application of wisdom in our lives. This is how we give God His due. We may experience hardship in national discipline and we may experience discipline when we get out of line; but it is discipline in love. This is like the discipline of a parent over a child. So that we do not become a person who is anti-authority or even criminal.

His wrath burns in fury for those who are against Him.

V. 12 is a brand new section; the good stuff.

Lesson #0152

Psalm 90 Wisdom in the OT

11/1/2020 Sunday

A new section in this prayer of Moses. Wisdom and the divine plan.

Psalm 90:12 So teach us to number our days that we may get a heart of wisdom.

Even if it seems hopeless, we can never forget about the grace of God. We need to know by means of perception. What does it mean to number our days? Do we go to a calendar each an every day? Do you spend each day speculating on the length of your life and figure out how much you need to save? What exactly does this mean? This is a critical phrase for us to understand.

Number out Days

1. This means to measure them out; learn how to organize your time.
2. We only have so much time in this life. None of us know where the end of this time is.
3. Each and every day has a purpose in God's plan. Every day. There is no lag time in the plan of God. There is no day off. Some people take years off in their life. We know that every day has a purpose, just as Tuesday has a purpose. We know about the fury of God; what does God expect of us in these upcoming days.
4. Life is organized around that purpose. Each and every day.
5. The purpose of the believer, the believer in Jesus Christ, is to serve the Lord in all things. That is our purpose, using a heart of wisdom as our guide. It is very easy to say you are going to serve the Lord in everything, but it is unhelpful if you know nothing about His plan. Every day passes by, when they should be in the plan of God.
6. People who rarely think beyond the next few moments, do not number their days. They stumble through life. They have a laissez faire attitude.
7. People who do not think about their purpose have a chaotic existence. If we do not organize ourselves around a goal, then our life is chaotic prosperity can be as bad as adversity.
8. The life that is muddled can only react to circumstances; inability to apply anything to life. We have to begin by being organized with regards to life in general. We need some concept of priorities in life. A question that most people ask themselves is, what is life all about? Why am I here? What is the most important thing to me? What do I want from life or out of life? These can be very personal answers. If life is just relaxation and fun, then you have no purpose. Fun is a small portion of life. The rest of life will be focused around that priority. That is a disorganized chaotic unfulfilled life.

Organizing one's time is based on two principles.

Priorities and Goals

1. Identifying priorities, which requires some objective thought.
2. what are your end goals in life?
3. priorities and goals go together.
4. You set priorities to achieve a goal, but that is not obvious to all people.
5. there are many peripheral aspects to life which are peripheral, but can be very important
6. Prioritizing helps you to determine your main goal in life.

That identification of priorities should be easy for the believer. What is it today and what is it tomorrow? Our priority is fixed. It is the priority. This also allows the believer to organize all of it.

Why do we exist? The overall goal is accomplishing God's purpose for our lives. We have only so much time to achieve these goals. One key is getting a heart of wisdom; a heart filled with wisdom.

Wisdom is key to organizing and figuring out divine goals and purposes. So do not waste it. This verse is a call to recognize the vast difference between the wisdom of infinite God, available to us, and human viewpoint, the humanism of finite man. Basically we are finite and we always begin with human viewpoint. Only with divine viewpoint can we move past human viewpoint.

Human Viewpoint, Divine Viewpoint, and Priorities

1. We fill our souls with the wisdom of infinite God in order to discern the difference between divine and human viewpoint. That is what makes this passage so critical for this time. What is our priority? Easy to be distracted.
2. Humanism is subtle and can appear to be wisdom. If you watch the political advertisements; and there are signs everywhere; and some of it sounds really wise, as it refers to divine establishment. But the humanistic aspect is very subtle. Many people think that socialism is a wise move for this country. How do you know that it isn't?
3. Divine wisdom identifies the flaws and defects of humanism.
4. The believer avoids the pitfalls of humanism; of the clever lies and deceits of Satan's cosmic system. Satan is the author of humanism. Man solving man's problems. We cannot do that. Socialism is man trying to solve all of man's problems, and it cannot solve these problems. Who solves injustice and economic problems? Only divine viewpoint in your soul solve those problems. We have sin natures. These problems are never completely solved. We may be elated on Tuesday; don't think that all of your problems are solved. Congress and the Senate are still in operation. Interesting things going on; some are flat pure evil. What can you do about it? Develop divine viewpoint.

The rest of v. 12 tells us what we might do. We may have 70 or 80 years. What does it say? We must present to God or apply a heart of wisdom from Him. That which is gained from the metabolizing of His Word; that is the solution. We must redeem the short time that we have by knowing divine wisdom.

The process of operation Z. We allow wisdom into our souls and we believe it. What is the end game of wisdom inculcated into our souls. On Tuesday, we apply wisdom. It does not just stop with learning. A heart filled with wisdom. Tuesday is just one more day in the plan of God; it is not the end of the world.

We proclaim Him (Christ) and teaching every person with all wisdom. And we speak wisdom. Learning Bible doctrine in order to gain that wisdom. So that we might present every person complete in Christ; a mature believer accomplishing God's plan. Discerning falsehood from truth.

Tuesday Is a Day of Discernment

1. Looking back on v. 10, we understand something: we understand that the wise person is asked to appreciate the shortness of life. People like to think of life as a long time. When you are young, you look ahead and it seems forever. As you get older, that perspective changes. The wise person needs to appreciate the shortness of life.
2. Getting from that verse and relating it to v. 11, the fury of God's justice may occur towards those who are ignoring. We have a test coming up very shortly. Can you use it.
3. The justice of God is in operation. We may be seeing a renewing of the pivot or we may be seeing divine discipline. Either way, the justice of God is in operation.
4. Continuously with God's perception and plan; and one's own accountability in God's plan. We have an accountability in the plan of God.
5. The Christian organizes life to always include the learning of wisdom. We must organize our lives around getting wisdom for that day. Psalm 90:12 is just one verse of wisdom.
6. God's righteous fury. It is just and it is deserved. You must set the priority for your life or life will go in directions you do not want.
7. A right lobe filled with wisdom is what is required to avoid wasted time, every single day. L
8. Then you preclude the judgment or divine discipline that a waste of time brings. God does not want you to waste your time; and He will direct you to not wasting your time. Wisdom begins and ends with God and His Word. Wisdom seeks to fill all of those days. The fear or reverence of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge; and then we continue, to be taught how to have a right lobe filled with wisdom. Fools despise wisdom and instruction. You are a fool if you don't want to know it or apply it. Will you be a fool on Wednesday? What do you think and what kind of wisdom can you apply? Despising, ignoring wisdom wastes your time. The time waster cannot present or handle the circumstances which are coming.

What is the wisdom that I need? Do I have any wisdom?

There is not time to waste.

Psalm 90:12 So teach us to number our days that we may get a heart of wisdom.

Psalm 90:12 Cause us to learn to organize \(prioritize\) our days so that we might gain a right lobe filled with wisdom. (Bobby's corrected translation)

More Points

1. We are looking to fill our right lobes with wisdom. Electing the right person is not our priority.
2. That means that we organize our time, day after day, so that gaining wisdom becomes the first priority. It must be the first priority. Without priorities, you will find yourself all over the place, frustrating yourself. Your goal is to serve the Lord. If you do not do that, you have a problem. Bobby just covered the doctrine of self-induced misery a few days ago.
3. Organizing simply means setting priorities; allotting time to the priorities.
4. The priority is the consistent intake of doctrine, set over all other priorities. Time must be allotted to the first priority. We cannot listen to doctrine all day long. No idea if listening to 6 or 8 tapes a day. There are other things that must be done in life. Life consists of many tasks and priorities. No believer can take a chance at missing the priority. Time must be set aside every single day, for study, concentration, etc. Other activities and important and can take priority. Work, family time, relaxation; but gaining wisdom is always the priority. That cannot be neglected.

There is a persistent question: why must we be so single-minded? Why must we be so dedicated. They view church attendance is a Sunday event, thinking that to be enough time for the spiritual life. They do not set aside time to come at all, and they have no spiritual life in the right lobes. It is easy to lose sight about what your purpose and goals are in life. Time is wasted when you have other pursuits. Don't get lazy; don't make excuses; don't even use important circumstances as an excuse. Make room for the priority.

Believers may stay home to hear doctrine; or they may begin to listen to Bible doctrine, and they get interrupted at home while listening; or they quickly overrule listening to doctrine. There are so many distractions and excuses in life that you can impose on your #1 priority in life. After fulfilling your first priority, then you have time for everything else. When you see to your #1 priority, then you have the ability to evaluate situations, activities and priorities which occur after. One priority that you cannot miss.

We are bombarded every day with human viewpoint and numerous distractions. And in comparison to that, what is an hour a day for the unequivocal 1st priority of the day. What is an hour a day or even a shorter time?

What a difference an hour a day of doctrine makes. Your assignment is to insure that you have divine perspective and use it on Tuesday. Keep yourself from getting out of fellowship; maintain your discernment. Think about the justice of God. Think about the election results and what they mean. Adversity is an opportunity. The election results will be an opportunity to apply Bible doctrine.

Moses put up with 40 years of complaining Israelites in the desert. This prepared the next generation to move forward when their time came.

Psalm 90:12 Cause us to learn to organize \(prioritize\) our days so that we might gain a right lobe filled with wisdom. (Bobby's corrected translation)

Lesson #0153

Psalm 90 Wisdom in the OT 11/4/2020 Wednesday

Election last night. We now have the worst possible scenario for election. Democrats have been saying that they will not accept another Trump presidency. Counting of ballots could take days or weeks and not without disputes, litigation and/or violence. How did you handle this last night? This was a test of our lives. Did we apply doctrine to the circumstances. It is not over. Like so many tests, this one is going to linger. There are all sorts of opinions, scenarios as to what could happen. Bobby has an opinion and a scenario to go with it.

Bobby with the bully pulpit is going to voice his opinion. Whatever the set of circumstances, it is going to require a relaxed mental attitude, if any of what Bobby says is true. That is a part of the test, that we are all facing. God knows what is going to happen; and this is all for the furtherance of His plan. His justice, His love and His grace will be involved in any situation.

Bobby's scenario is this, which will require application of doctrine just to hear it. It appears that the President had a great chance at winning the battleground states; and the counting just stopped; and it was just to close to call; with millions of mail-in ballots are still out there, with recounts in a number of different states. This delay will be disputed and it may end up being heard in the Supreme Court. There will be arguments against the legitimacy of the mail-in ballots. It is those ballots which will effect the final election.

It may be that the count be counted and accepted by both sides; but that seems very unlikely. If the Supreme Court does get involved, a few weeks ago, there is a brand new appointed justice in the court, who falls into the conservative camp and will break the 4-4 ties. Democrats will say that she is illegitimately appointed. That will be the argument of the Democrats, that it is all illegitimate. Democrats may not accept the court decision, if it is in favor of the President. Anything could happen. Posturing, violence and anarchy will continue. Our nation might become ungovernable. Our very system of government might be at risk. No matter what, half of the nation is going to be upset. We are not to fear, to panic, decide to move to Costa Rica, Australia, etc. or wherever you think it might be better. This is the optimum time for us to apply wisdom. That is what it is for. That is why v. 12 is so critical at this moment. This gives us our marching orders in all of this crisis.

Psalm 90:12 Cause us to learn to organize \(prioritize\) our days so that we might gain a right lobe filled with wisdom. (Bobby's corrected translation)

This is the order of the day for us today, tomorrow and the next day, especially at this very uncertain time.

Here Is What We Need to do

1. Be organized to gain a hear of wisdom in order to apply it. That is what it means to number our days. This does not mean to check our calender, but to get organized in our lives.
2. We set priorities. Our first priority as believers in Jesus Christ is to fill our right lobes with wisdom.
3. So, we must organize our time to do so, so that gaining wisdom takes first priority in our life. What is going on should remind us of what our first priority is. This is the only priority which keeps us together. There are people scared to death, confused, and they think the world is coming to an end. All kinds of things going on. But that is not our thinking.
4. Organizing means allotting time for the priority. How can you have a priority unless you spend time doing it?
5. The consistent intake of Bible doctrine must be set over all priorities. Life has many priorities. We set priorities based upon what day it is; we come home, we spend time with our family. But there must be organization around the first priority.
6. Time must be allotted for the first priority. That is a heart full of wisdom.

We have never had a better opportunity to see this than right now. We are going to be bombarded with every distraction, every lie and every deception imaginable. It is coming. In combating that in your own soul, what is an hour a day for the first priority of life? It is amazing what a difference it makes in our outlook and application in life. It will give us divine perspective in this time of national adversity. There is no wisdom in the soul unless Bible doctrine is taught and heard. Heb. 10:25 Do not forsake the assembly of yourselves together.

There are people who have no idea which way to turn; because they do not have a heart filled with Bible doctrine. Bobby sat with his wife watching the returns; there were times when it was not very encouraging. But Bobby is here tonite; and to look at our faces tonite taking in doctrine, it is encouraging. What happened last night does not affect you a bit. We have some wisdom in our soul; and we can be encouraged by that.

Be encouraged as you see the day drawing near. We are in a place of academic discipline where the priority of life is the only focus. This is where we come to learn. This is when we can learn Bible doctrine in an hour of heavy concentration.

Bobby is fully aware that we can learn doctrine sitting at home or on the road. It is made available to us online, during this covid pandemic. It is available a few hours after Bobby speaks it. It was the right time and the right decision to do that. Bobby gets requests that this has got to continue. And it may. Things change. The times change, circumstances change, and it may be more important to keep up this streaming video at this time. But this does not change the mandate of Hebrews 10:25; it is the best way to do things.

Bobby has had to listen and the only way he could do so, for a distance away. Bobby always looked for other believers for some kind of assembly. At the end of the day, it was very nice to gather with like-minded believers.

When stationed in Hawaii, there was a small tape class. Bobby knew one gal there since she was 4 years old. Became dive buddies.

There was the Alamo City Bible church, and they would listen live, 20 or 30 to hear the church live from this pulpit. Today, they receive streaming video.

In Portland, Oregon, there was another telephone Fx group who have become a streaming video. When Bobby could assemble with others, he made that the priority. A few times, he could do nothing but listen to tapes on his own. Every effort should be made to be in church and hearing doctrine.

Last night should have been a wake up call. Why do we need to be here? Best place to grown and concentrate; and it is encouraging. Bobby is encouraged. It is important to assemble in order to be with like-minded believers. Association with believers who have divine viewpoint, rather than being inundated with the thinking of the cosmic system. We get cosmic system thinking all of the time; we are bombarded with that. That is the problem when we are alone. Hard when we are on our own to fulfill that first priority. This is academic discipline. We must concentrate for an hour. That hour is worth everything to us and Bobby.

Assembling for Worship

1. Notice the emphasis in Heb. 10:25 it is about the passage of time; as the day draws near.
2. There is an urgency to this assembly. We are here tonight and we know it is urgent.
3. Time passes very quickly and time runs out.
4. The return of the Lord Jesus Christ is imminent, meaning that it could happen at any time. It will happen in God's perfect timing.
5. Time must be allotted and prioritized, for transport, assembly, listening, and learning in Bible class. If there is no other way, then you listen or watch the streaming video or get a dvd. You can supplement that with the thumb drives or R. B. Thieme, Jr. ministries. That is a gold mind.
6. Metabolizing in an academic environment without distraction is encouraging and the optimum way to grow.
7. This is all part of our #1 priority as defined by Hebrews 10:25. Of course growth is our main priority. All else is secondary to that pursuit.

People are looking for an escape clause. I don't need a spiritual life; I just need to wait for the rapture. Yes, the time is short, all the more reason for us to be here and wait for the rapture and sit on our hands.

What surprises Bobby is, what Bob was teaching in the 70's and 80's, is it is completely up to date.

There are other things which are important and they must be accomplished. It is just not possible. If we do not maintain a spiritual life. How many of you forgot your spiritual life last night? Or you forgot what was important. All of a sudden, it becomes politics. If we can only get this guy in; oh no, he might not make it!

Please do not be so single minded as to neglect other priorities. We must spend time on other priorities. We can never superimpose work, pleasure, romance, friends, etc. over the first priority. We must build out lives around the first priority of Bible doctrine. Anything less than Bible doctrine as the first priority is wasting time.

With all that happens around us, it is so easy to slip back into human viewpoint, especially under pressure or adversity. Cosmic system thinking replaces Bible doctrine in the soul; did that happen to you for a moment? Recovery, focus, remembering what the focus is. There are many things to happen in the future. People testing, system testing. Last night was for our benefit. This election may or may not come our to our liking. We don't know where this country is going; so what? We are still in God's hands. We have assembled tonite and Bobby wants us to be encouraged.

Why Do I Place So Much Emphasis on the Priority of Wisdom?

1. Life is full of confusion. All of the turmoil, the ignorance around us can make life puzzling, confusing and unpredictable.
2. You must be ready for anything, with clear sight in your soul. We must be able to cut through the fog of humanism.
3. Cosmic system thinking is subtle and it is deceptive and it is also very alluring. There is a good reason why it is alluring.
4. Thinking with divine wisdom often means a departure from the thinking and motivation from other people in your periphery.
5. That is difficult, especially when those who are not like minded are your friends and associates. Because of the way that you think as a believer growing in grace and knowledge, you may find yourself shunned and mocked by them. They do not understand you. "Why do you listen to that doctrine? It is way off base. It does not fit with current thinking, political or social. You are an anachronism; you are out of step; you might even be evil."
6. That is people testing. Falling apar in the face of election blues.

Bobby has heard many times from those at conferences who are separated; and they don't now anyone else who has Bible doctrine in their souls. Such people are faithfully moving forward, because there is no assembly in their life.

If you are a student of the Word of God, you will look at life from the perspective of divine wisdom. You cannot successfully organize your life around the priority until you have a scale of values based upon wisdom. Your scale of values comes from Bible doctrine. The wisdom in your soul comes from the application of Bible doctrine.

You face people all of the time who do not think like you do. This is your only time to be encouraged. That is why there have been assemblies from the beginning of the Church Age. No believer in Jesus Christ can afford to go through life being confuse. Only the wisdom from be is foolproof in gaining clarity. People testing is one of the worst tests to pass. Every day that you live, you will have disagreements, antagonisms, etc. with those around you. How many times have you said, "That person is driving me crazy." Of your association with them, and their viciousness and anger and gossip...

You can watch person-to-person conflict on reality tv. If you are anything like the rest of the human race, you have had conflict with people all of your life. Now we have a conflict in this country, and we are divided right down the middle. The ideology of one side is absolute humanism; and the other side is opposed completely.

People say, "Let's just compromise." "How do you compromise with evil?" Tonite is a time to be encouraged. We cannot live without it. We cannot grow without it. We have no spiritual life without it. We are uncovered and vulnerable to humanism and the cosmic system if we don't. Be encouraged, because we have it all. We do not realize just how much we have in the face of so little.

Lesson #0154

Psalm 90 Wisdom in the OT

11/5/2020 Thursday

Bobby gave a scenario last night and it seems to be pretty close. Let's face a few facts. Our country is so divided that it appears that we are unable to unite for a common cause. The political parties are so far apart, left and right, that they are irreconcilable. One party is the party of radical change. There is no compromise with evil. Evil amongst us. People says, "Let's all come together after the election and solve our problems." You cannot reconcile with evil. You cannot march in lockstep with evil. To do so is evil. We are irreconcilable in that respect.

Bobby listened to the President tonite; he arrives quite early. He catalogued very well all of the things which had happened in the election cycle which were very irregular. 1 or 2 things would not have been a big deal. After hearing all of those, there is no question that there are serious irregularities in this election. It is getting more serious by the minute. Many of the younger generation have bought into the idea of socialism. We can easily see sin natures laid bare; the hatred, the fear and every other mental attitude sins that is possible. That is, in part, what is interesting about all this.

We see Marxists and socialists revolting, not lawful protests. Rioters yesterday carrying signs, "America is dead." That is their objective. That includes hatred of our system of government, hatred of capitalism, hatred of the rule of law, hatred of Republicans. They claim to demand social justice, but they really want power, primarily to change America forever, to a Marxist-socialist country. To be a Marxist means to be an atheist. Marxism and atheism go hand in hand. Marx saw religion as the greatest obstruction to communism. There is a communist utopia only without Christianity. Many well-meaning people are supporting this. This includes Black Lives Matter, founded by avowed and trained communist people. They are Marxist to the core. It is not about injustice and black lives, it is about power.

What might happen seems pretty grim. How is your life going? How are you feeling tonite. Maybe your mother or father called to complain about the election. Or why have you neglected them lately. Maybe your spouse snapped at you across the breakfast table. Unhappy, complaining; maybe they mirrored your own attitude. For some peace and quiet, you hop in the car and the radio is blaring all of the charges and counter-charges. You try to find a music station; but then there is a traffic accident and you keep getting madder and madder, wondering why people act this way. Watching the past 48 hours of the election should convince you that people are not nice. You arrive at work an hour late, after the accident has cleared; and you are chewed out by your boss. He might have been promoted over you, and has shown himself to be incompetent.

We get to witness firsthand the unraveling of this nation. You cannot escape the national problems. There seems to be no answer to any of this.

The first priority of every believer in Jesus Christ. V. 12 is critical and central to us and to the times in which we live.

Psalm 90:12 Cause us to learn to organize \(prioritize\) our days so that we might gain a right lobe filled with wisdom. (Bobby's corrected translation)

We use Operation Z to learn and to organize our days, in order to gain a heart filled with wisdom. We organize our days around the first priority. To do that, we have to organize ourselves so that we can spend time every day in that organizing process.

Is not handling such things with a relaxed mental attitude worth an hour a day? Bobby does not care how mature and discerning that you are, you must put the first priority first. You can never learn enough. To cease hearing doctrine is to stop growing. You are open to agitation, to human viewpoint, to having a clouded judgment. That is the problem for not taking part and having human viewpoint pushed at you all day. And if you mix human viewpoint and divine viewpoint, you get a distortion. You must gain a heart filled with wisdom. It is hard enough to take in doctrine when you are consistent. You need to pass the hard tests in life with wisdom, patience, etc. This is the spiritual life that you have at your fingertips. That is organizing your days; organizing your mind. No one, believer or unbeliever, can afford to be disorganized in life.

Emotionalism and Instability

1. Confusion in the mind is one of the greatest problems in life. You might name your personal problems. To us, these are the greatest problems. To us, they seem great. The greatest problem is confusion in life.
2. A disorganized mind is a confused mind. It is so easy to be disorganized. Do you make you bed in the morning; what does your house look like? It is simple to see a disorganized mind by a disorganized life.
3. A confused person is an emotional person; hyper-emotional person. That is a problem. There is nothing wrong with emotion. Emotion in its place is an enjoyable aspect of life. But an emotional person cannot see things objectively.

4. Emotional people look for stimulation; for temporary pleasures in life; and the objective of that person is to be entertained; and to be fulfilled by whatever human pursuit inspires them at the time. They just jump around like a pinball.
5. This lack of organizing ability and emotional instability causes a vacuum in the soul of the individual. That can overtake a society; and that is what we are seeing today. So many people in this country. They have no wisdom; a heart filled with human viewpoint.
6. Vulnerable to lies and deceit. Especially for the believer who cannot set the priority. Does not make time or a set time. When all of this happens, when people become vulnerable to ideological lies and deceit, they find attraction in socialism. Accepting such lies turns many people into indolent wards of a socialistic state. In many wards, we are already a socialistic state. The confusion of a younger generation who are willing to accept government intervention in every aspect of their lives; which means, less and less freedom. Socialism is lots of government interference in your life.
7. Bobby says Marxism and socialism. Socialism is a stepping stone to communism. They are, in many respects, synonymous. One leads to the other inevitably.

Many of us, before Russia, was the USSR, a communist name. We see this in our own country. It is born out by minds of confusion. When so many become enamored of a socialist state, the vigor of a capitalist state is lost. The more socialism, the less Christianity there is. Christianity is diametrically opposed to socialism.

Set the priority of your life and do not deviate from it. Without it, the believer's mind is filled with disconcertment and diversions. The believer should organize his mind around truth, doctrine and wisdom. Otherwise, you will become as upset as those thinking humanism is their socialism.

So much Christianity is superficial today. The believer can only organize his mind around truth, doctrine and wisdom in the soul. Thus the necessity of post-salvation epistemological rehabilitation.

Rom 12:2 Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renovation of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect.

As we move towards socialism that is the epitome of human viewpoint.

Only the believer can be transformed. The renovation of one's mind is what is parallel to having a heart filled with wisdom. Then we know and can execute the spiritual life. What is good, acceptable and perfect. We prove what the will of God is by metabolizing doctrine and applying it. This is the believer with an organized mind filled with wisdom. That is our life, in a nutshell. Parallel concepts.

Today, there are a large number of politicians who are confused about socialism. Many leaders elected today are very confused. There are many who are very socialistic. There are a large number of voters who are also confused. Half the nation is confused. The other half may also be confused, but they have enough divine establishment to be reasonably discernable.

Practical Advice

1. When a politician's only objective is to get reelected or to impose a socialistic ideal, then he or she will never stand upon principle, but will do anything to gain or maintain power. Exactly what is happening right now.
2. Politicians are experts of knowing what to say to people, whether they believe it or not. It is just what they say. If you trace the promises of a politician, it means nothing. The current president says that he would do things and he does them. What he says is what he stands for. A fresh voice who said, "I will do this" and he does it. Unfortunately, people hear the gruff and obnoxious personality of the president; look at what he does. Look where he stands on principle. Are they honest about what they are going to do. Do they follow what they say that are going to do. Bobby admires a socialist who admits to it.

So many people are that way but won't say it. The man in the other party is may become president, he is a figurehead. Their platform without him, many will not buy into it because it is purely socialist. The whole thing is a lie.

We find ourselves in the worst trouble of many generations. We are confounded without divine establishment and wisdom. What do we need? We need a pivot of mature believers like never before.

We have a tragic number of believers who have ignored doctrine; and do not know divine viewpoint. They follow tongues and healings; they try to solve problems without the problem solving devices. Even in Berachah Church, Bobby wonders, "What exactly are you hearing? Some of your applications are puzzling to me." Yet he is teaching the Word of God; and we must be consistent with learning. If you hear enough, it will come through. Put aside our preconceptions of Christianity. Stop listening to only the things that you want to hear, while ignoring other more critical doctrines. Stop taking offense at what you don't like, or using politics to illustrate. Be objective in your inculcation. Remember, this is the Bible being taught. Bobby is not infallible; but the Bible is. It is truth and wisdom. He will teach enough truth and wisdom for us to gain and apply. We will find, if you are consistent, even though it seems like, "I have heard all of that before." Or you think you have heard the same stuff over and over again. You will find that, when you hear it consistently, that human viewpoint garbage will be removed. Divine wisdom and discernment will improve. It is a matter of consistency.

Organize Our Minds Around Bible Doctrine

1. We must organize our lives around the priority of gaining of wisdom.

2. We must prioritize our life. It is simple things like making time; having the discipline to getting into your car and to stay awake. Have a red bull and get there consistently. Concentrate. Prioritize your life around the priority of Bible doctrine. Expose yourself.
3. It must become our thinking and motive for what we do in life. We have a viewpoint that the rest of the world lacks. The more your thinking is renovated, the more your thinking moves away from human viewpoint.
4. But in no other way can we face life as believers unless we prioritize and unless we are consistent.

Bobby has no idea where our nation will end up. God controls history and the circumstances of history. That we can be certain of. We should enjoy what we are watching, not because this might be the disintegration of the nation that we love. But we can see what the Lord does. Will we suffer divine discipline or what will happen. We will see and understand. We need to be prepared for anything, and wisdom is the way to do that. Our resources and our advantage will handle of adversity in life. Occupation with Christ and work on impersonal love even for politicians. That is a part of the relaxed mental attitude. You can hate them until hell freezes over, but that is not having a relaxed mental attitude. Learn all of the problem solving devices.

Psalm 90:12 Cause us to learn to organize \(prioritize\) our days so that we might gain a right lobe filled with wisdom. (Bobby's corrected translation)

Closing out V. 12

1. With your priorities straight, you will be redeeming the time. You will continue to live in this finite world of confusion and human viewpoint; but you will live in the light of eternity. Only we can live that life.
2. We will gain confidence, whatever the circumstances, that will become a present reality for us. It will be our reality.
3. Our success and happiness in our future is based upon the confidence that we possess in the present time. We are preparing for our future now. It is all right now.
4. This is a confidence that we have gained from an organized mind, and a renovated mind, keeping our first priority first.
5. That confidence comes from what Moses prayed in v. 12

Lesson #0155

Psalm 90 Wisdom in the OT

11/8/2020 Sunday

Communion November 8, 2020

This helps us to understand who is in charge; and what we have to look forward to, and it is not doom and gloom

4 passages contain the most concentrated doctrines concerning Jesus Christ in the entire Bible.

Colossians 1:15–

Col 1:15 He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation.

Col 1:16 For by him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things were created through him and for him.

Col 1:17 And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together.

Col 1:18 And he is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in everything he might be preeminent.

Psalms 45:2

Isa. 52:13

Song of Songs 13:10, 16

The Lord Jesus Christ takes precedence over all heroes of the Bible

“Before Abraham was, I am.” Jesus promises the eternal water to the woman at the well. Is Jesus not more than any leader at any time in any place. Jesus is greater than any one, the greater Son of David. The Lord Jesus Christ must take precedence before every person and everything. His name is above all names; His claims before all claims. Jesus is the ruler over all. The King of Kings and Lord of Lords.

Col 1:13 He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son,

We are brought into the light of salvation when we reside in Christ.

Col 1:14 in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

Christ’s work of redemption on the cross is directed towards our sin. Slaves cannot emancipate themselves; only Jesus Christ can emancipate us and no one else. Then forgiveness can be received. That person steps outside of the slave market of sin. Any kind of salvation that humanity may profess, political or ideologically, apart from the redemptive work of the Lord Jesus Christ is spurious.

Jesus is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature. That relationship is conspicuous, unique among all mankind and unique to all of this. God is Spirit; He is unseen and has always been unseen by human eyes, which is why so many people reject Him. He has revealed Himself through nature:

Rom. 1:19–20 For what can be known about God is plain to them, because God has shown it to them. For his invisible attributes, namely, his eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly perceived, ever since the creation of the world, in the things that have been made. So they are without excuse.

There are no laws and no science apart from God. The natural laws are held up through His power; all of these things are accessible. It will not be destroyed by mankind. God has given us written revelation so that we can understand Him.

Psalm 19:7

John 1:18

Deity and humanity in One Person.

Col 1:15 He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation.

The firstborn of all creation retains all of the power...

The brothers of the firstborn son, were to take their orders from the elder son. He provides for us...

His firstborn status does not imply that the 2nd person of the Trinity was Himself created. He was in the beginning; John shift our thoughts back to the beginning. Jesus Christ did not come into being at any point in time, supreme in rank; the One Who died for us, the firstborn from the dead, His humanity being the foremost in rank over all human beings. He is the Creator of the Universe. All things were created by Him and for Him. He is omnipotent and... When I consider the works of your fingers move and all things came into creation. He has things under control now. Things were created by Him and for Him. We may not be able to see how this can be. Rev. 4:11 for Your pleasure, all things have been created. God does take pleasure in our sins or our discipline.

In salvation, the Lord's arm is at work; creation was just finger-work. Creation of the universe was diminutive compared to salvation. Then certainly Jesus can provide a new creation, a kingdom of born-again believers. That is our confidence.

Paul goes further to strengthen this case for preeminence. The Lord creates and he is the cohesive power of the universe. All of the workings; and in this realm He is supreme. He is before all things. The reason that things do not go wrong in the universe because He cannot go wrong. The Lord Jesus Christ holds all the galaxies; He keeps the earth on its axis; and He preserves life on this planet, no matter what man thinks he can do, so that He might bring many sons to glory. The universe continues on its course so that God's plan for man. This is the devil's world; the cosmic system; but Jesus is still preeminent. He now rules over the church. One body and One Head. Just as the head controls the body, the Lord controls the church. Col. 1:18. Paul points out that Jesus is the Firstborn from the dead. He is the captain of His redeemed people; and the conqueror of death. John 14:19. The humanity became the sovereign ruler of the church, emphasizing the kingship of Jesus Christ. He became the recipient of all things.

In His resurrection, Jesus is the sample of what all believers will be like. Death will be conquered. Jesus Christ has first place in everything. In the plan of God, it is the purpose of God to have preeminence. We are here to take an examination to have enough doctrine to be occupied with the Person of Jesus Christ. In order to partake of this ritual. This requires you to name your sins to God the Father. Rebound.

The uncertainty is monumental. Many who are not satisfied with what happened; and others who are elated. Bobby spent 2 nights on v. 12. We must function from a heart filled with wisdom.

Psalm 90:13 Return, O LORD! How long? Have pity on your servants!

The context is not about the rapture of the church. This is not a sermon about the rapture. We do not know when it will take place. We know adverse circumstances that will precede it, but don't look to that for. This is a petition from Moses from that judgment; an appeal to God's unfailing love. That appeal is always heard and acted upon by God. How does it happen? We know when we see it. Moses knows about this, despite the application of the sin unto death to that 1st generation of Moses' time. When they were recalcitrant and complaining, God is said to turn His back from them. Exodus 32:12. The Lord would not be with them because of their lack of trust in Him. That is when the judgment is applied to them. Num. 32:15 God turned away from that generation. Moses asks for God to turn back. God turned away from His people. Moses asks for God to turn back. Nothing is more disastrous than for God to be turned away from His Own. We are certainly experiencing some discipline today. However, God never turns away from us. God made an irrevocable promise and He will keep it.

Moses asks, "How long will it be?" How long will this go before this failing people. The Exodus generation is the failing of a client nation. His people are suffering; but they are still His people; and He still have unfailing love toward them. Some of you may have thought God's help was here in this election. Moses prays for this; He understands Who God is and He never moves away from Who He is. God will turn back to them; but when? The key is, something is required of them.

How Long

1. How long demonstrates confidence and He does not beg for it.

2. It indicates that God unfailing love and grace will be perpetuated, emphatically.
3. Succeeding generations must return to Him. They must trust Him and His promises. Today, tomorrow; we have more promises that the Exodus generation has ever heard of.
4. This verse represents a pending deliverance in the midst of divine discipline. How long and when? It does not matter. It is pending.

For the individual, it always begins with rebound; that is also the means for a national return to God. This affects a nation; when a number of believers move in that direction, following the objective, gaining a heart filled with wisdom.

David, a great Old Testament hero; David has a history of all sorts of shenanigans and other evils; but he rebounds. He would be the recipient of God's deliverance. "Against You and only You have I sinned." David knows that He sinned. God is blameless in whatever judgment. He must do this because of His justice and righteousness. We must not forget His unfailing love. We turn towards Him through rebound. David states the principle. When the king is blessed, the nation is blessed. We must turn towards freedom and not socialism.

Rebound and let the Lord take it from there. We need a national renewal in high places; but it starts with individual believers. It begins with a pivot.

Psalm 106:6–8 Both we and our fathers have sinned; we have committed iniquity; we have done wickedness. Our fathers, when they were in Egypt, did not consider your wondrous works; they did not remember the abundance of your steadfast love, but rebelled by the sea, at the Red Sea. Yet he saved them for his name's sake, that he might make known his mighty power.

God gave them 40 years to turn it around. Never forget Who is in charge. Never forget Who will discipline this nation and gives us constant opportunity to return. It would have been easy for that nation to turn back to the Lord. That generation remained recalcitrant and untrusting; so Moses prayed on behalf of the nation. This is a prayer for individual confidence. It is unconquerable.

Psalm 90:13 Return, O LORD! How long? Have pity on your servants!

Lesson #0156

Psalm 90 Wisdom in the OT 11/11/2020 Wednesday

Veteran's Day tradition. Hundreds of men and women have gone out and served the country honorably. The tradition is to read a Medal of Honor citation. All of our wars, only 3507 awards and 70% were done during the Civil War. About 2000 outside of the Civil War.

Santiago Jesus Aribia served in Vietnam; and in 2002, there was a review called for by Congress. His was one of 24 which was upgraded. During search and clear missions on 21May 1969. He was called to render first aid. He came under intense hostile fire. He chose a retaliatory course of action. With heavy fire on him personally, and he moved in full view of the hostile. He destroyed one fortification. He proceeded to the 3rd bunker, where he had exhausted his hand grenades. At the edge of the bunker, he silenced those in the bunker at point blank range. He died in 2016, buried in Fort SamHouston.

Michael Edwin Thorton born in Greenville. US Navy. A daring operation against the forces in South Vietnam. Senior advisor had been hit by fire and thought to be dead. He removed him to the water's edge and carried him seaward for about 2 hours. He saved the life of his superior officer. Richard Nixon presented the medal to him. The man rescued had rescued 2 others the month before and also received the medal of honor.

Bobby wonders if anyone really understand if people truly know and appreciate what is done on our behalf. That is the essence of veterans today. That is why he reads these citations.

God has turned away from this generation of Israelites. They have fallen under the fury of the Lord. They have fallen under the sin unto death. Moses prays for mercy from judgment, a prayer for God's grace and unfailing love. He has listened to them complain about God's grace and Moses' leadership. God preserved them, despite them being the most undeserving generation of Jews, perhaps who have ever lived. They saw so many things.

Psalm 90:13 Return, O LORD! How long? Have pity on your servants!

God's fury will abate. Israel are God's people and Moses prays on their behalf. It is not a question of if to Moses but when. Succeeding generations must return to Him. This prayer is something that we should take close notice of. It is not if we will be delivered, but when? We are in a situation where we are asking, when can we expect God to intervene? We are looking at discipline for our sins and disobedience. "How long will it be; when will it happen?" For the believer, this means, starting with rebound. On a national level, how long will it be, when will it be? Rebound is an individual matter. Individually we must return to the spiritual life, which happens by rebound. When a number of believers move in the correct direction, that is the pivot.

So many think that we have a political enemy and that we have a political solution. The solution is back in v. 12, a heart full of wisdom; and that is what God honors. Carrying a sign demanding a recount, that is a futile thing. We look at our nation and wonder, how can we survive this generation? It begins with turning back to the Lord.

Psalm 90:12 Cause us to learn to organize \(prioritize\) our days so that we might gain a right lobe filled with wisdom. (Bobby's corrected translation)

When we have a heart filled with wisdom, the Lord honors that doctrine. Believers need to look at what is going on and recognize where their solution is; where their deliverance lies. Things aren't going to go the way we all suppose. The tenor of the country. Half of this country is anti-establishment, is socialistic. We just saw that in the vote. You draw the conclusion. The more that we see of this, the more that we recognize what this solution is. We either have a spiritual defense or we don't. Bobby believes that God is showing us something. How long will believers fail to rebound and fail to trust the Lord? How long will believers reject Bible doctrine? Without wisdom, believers flounder. Some support Black Lives Matter because they have no doctrine. They reject Bible doctrine and they fail to use the promises of God in faith rest. They are not interested in Bible doctrine; they are interested in everything else. Many seminaries today are teaching so much false doctrine. Some tell us that the Bible is culturally antiquated. Humanism is being taught in all but a few seminaries? Self righteously pontificating about the sins of others while ignoring their own.

Each person must deal with his own life before the Lord. How we deal with that life by rebounding and growing spiritually or not has a personal impact.

In the past week, fear of the future is rampant. This is simply not trusting the Lord and having no wisdom.

Psalm 106:6–8 Both we and our fathers have sinned; we have committed iniquity; we have done wickedness. Our fathers, when they were in Egypt, did not consider your wondrous works; they did not remember the abundance of your steadfast love, but rebelled by the sea, at the Red Sea. Yet he saved them for his name's sake, that he might make known his mighty power.

The generation that put the Lord on the cross is the same generation who started up the church. There were notable exceptions. The Hezekiah case. He turned back to the Lord and God preserved Israel. Bobby should teach this section sometime. It is a great story of hope of great desperation and how it happened.

Which way we will go will be dictated by the results of this election. Will humanism and chaos prevail? Will the rule of law give way to expedience and relativity? Will socialism and Marxism by our future? We might find out all about the falsehoods and tyranny of Marxism. Our universities are promoting this. Believers are still God's people and God allows us time to grow the pivot. God will always protect those who execute His plan.

Psalm 90:13 Return, O LORD! How long? Have pity on your servants!

Nacham

1. Nacham is the word for sorry.
2. It is the word to mean change your mind, turn back.
3. God does not change His mind about His plan, His doctrine or His wisdom.
4. Those things are never altered or rescinded. God is immutable in all that He promises and all that He does.

5. Changing His mind refers to the turning back from His turning away. He turned away from the first generation and those in the second want Him to turn back to them.
6. God turns towards them.
7. God changing His mind or relenting from His anger is contingent upon rebound; and then God relents or forgives our sins. "Relinquish this fury on us.
8. God cannot ignore our rebound; and He forgives, every time, as 1John 1:9 promises.
9. Moses relies upon that promise of forgiveness; of God turning back to Israel.

We know that divine forgiveness is always based upon Christ's work on the cross. The forgiveness has already been accomplished for pre-salvation sins and post-salvation sins as well. They are forgiven when a believer rebounds. The basis of their being forgiven is the cross.

God's servants are believers who turn toward Him in rebound. Who return to fellowship with the Lord in time and who grow spiritually and therefore are able to serve Him. We are servants. We are not His servants if we are not fulfilling His plan. The person who has returned to fellowship and is growing spiritually. That is how discipline is removed. There can still be repercussions for past behavior. Those bad decisions have repercussions which might continue. Before, we might be panicked, out of control, always thinking about how to escape from this or that problem. Then watch the Lord work in your life. Relax about it; apply wisdom from your soul; and then you watch the Lord work, and He does it in magnificent ways.

Psalm 90:14 Satisfy us in the morning with your steadfast love, that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

Moses continues with this thought in v. 14.

The Benefits of Relationship with God

1. This refers to the benefits. The disobedient nation is associated with mourning.
2. Moses prays for a new day dawning. A new beginning, as it were. Let's move past the reversionism.
3. Israel always lives under the shadow of God's will. He is a God of compassion and of discipline. Discipline is a part of love.
4. This love is the basis for an enduring love and gladness. That is the message in those who are obedience.
5. In restoration in the morning, the act of singing for joy and gladness is being contrasted to the trouble and sorrow of v. 10. Joy and gladness in the morning when they wake up.
6. This restoration can only be done by the Lord for His people. This requires recovery and turning back to the Lord. That is where we as a nation need to be; that is what we look for as a people. As believers go, so go. Client nations are filled with sinful degenerate people as well. People did not always follow the Lord in Israel. That is how a client nation recovers or not.

Those client nations which have fallen were influenced by humanism; Christianity was apostasy. England today was a great client nation in 1800 and 1900. Some of the greatest teachers and preachers ever came out of England. Where are we in all of this? What the other verses have for us is the recovery. It does depend upon all of these degenerate people. Having the problem people does not mean that we are not a client nation.

Lesson #0157

Psalm 90 Wisdom in the OT

11/12/2020 Thursday

Each day watching the news is particularly fascinating. The new group says that they are going to do, and it sounds quite disturbing. The other side is contesting everything. The American people have a right to know if their election was rigged.

Psalm 90 is a roadmap to an Relaxed Mental Attitude. We do not know where all of this will go. We know that God is still in His heaven and that the truth is Bible doctrine and that it never fails.

Moses will pray to God to not destroy the Exodus generation.

Psalm 90:13 Return, O LORD! How long? Have pity on your servants!

Psalm 90:14 Satisfy us in the morning with your steadfast love, that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

This generation would not ever see the land; they failed because of their attitude. If Israel had returned to the Lord, He would relent of His discipline, and Moses knows this. Psalm 51:4 the idea of rebound and then moving on. The client nation who has returned to be God's servant. Some churches are so far removed from doctrine and the truth. They might define the spiritual life as doing good deeds. It is a supernatural life. God takes pity on the client nation which has returned to be His servant.

A prayer of God changing His mind. They wake every morning to a great breakfast. Manna, for lunch, breakfast and dinner. Only enough for one day. God wanted to remind them of His logistical grace. Everyday, He was there to provide for them.

Sâbâ

1. This indicates that this people must be filled with something to the point of satisfaction.
2. What must they be filled with? With the assurance of the unfailing love of the Lord. God wants us to be satiated.
3. They must trust God's grace and unfailing love for the resulting happiness of that inner assurance. The people were never happy or satisfied in their lives. They woke up every morning with a complaint on their minds. This was not going to be alright. They would go out the morning to get their manna; yet they wanted to return to slavery. Nothing satisfied them; nothing assured them.

4. They rejected God on a daily basis.
5. If one is certain of God's love, and depends upon His grace.
6. This is reason enough for being satisfied; for being content. This is despite the worst of surrounding adversity.

The negev is rocky, it is dry and without water. All they had to do was cross that desert and take the land. lo...

1. Rebound is in view for being satisfied
2. Satisfied in the morning begin with returning to the Lord. That is the royal family life, and dddd this is the furthers things from their minds.
3. We have to be filled with doctrine and the Spirit to use this.
4. Those characteristics do not fill the believer when they are out f
5. The further removed is a believer from unfailing love and grace, the worse becomes the uncertainty. They were failing to trust. They do not have any wisdom to apply.

Israel's experience could have been entirely different their lives continue to be wasted and unhappy.

God in His love will not deny them. There may be some discipline. His anger against them is divine discipline. He did not stop giving them uncontested. Trust in the Lord's deliverance. If we are to have discipline, then trust that too. His justice abides, just as love does.

1. Everyday that dawns, every morning, begins a day that must
2. Fellowship with the Lord is a reminder of His love and grace.
3. The believer is ready for....many people get up and listen to doctrine first thing. You may have made terrible mistakes; put it behind you.
4. The believer is ready to use the wisdom that emanates from doctrine... Unless you rebound, you have knocked yourself off God's list for that day.
5. The person who sees that will see God's grace in action. His mercy towards
6. Stop complaining, get into fellowship, and grow.
7. Every day that we apply doctrine
8. Everyday we will become more grace oriented.
9. We will trust in His unfailing love and grace to get us through the day and through life. It is ever too late to get with the program.

we are seeing a decline in our own nation; and we see the decline, the degeneracy and the creeping socialism. We don't fall apart. What the society at large does or does not do is unimportant compared to what the believers do. Sometimes the nation, based on the pivot, exudes wivw.

1. Without confidence comes a life of uncertainty. The unbeliever always lives a life of uncertainty. They have nothing to fall back on besides their own humanism. That is still fleeing. They have not confidence; but some believers have no trust in the unfailing love of God.
2. Fear, trepidation and self-centeredness.
3. This generation is wandering in the desert of human viewpoint. They are unsure and without confidence. They are discontent
4. Those without the grace of God will find no peace or pappiness in theirs sould
5. Happiness comes from the faith rest life and grace and doctrinal orientation.

A guy would come in for prayer meeting and he would say, "Best day of my life," and he meant it.

1. Joy and gladness should characterize the life of the believer. Because of what is in us.
2. As believers, we rejoice; we should for joy as it were over our condition of faith rest.
3. We have a contentment
4. This attitude speaks volumes in disaster.
5. Difficulties is helpful to the believer.

you can look at some new channels with a conservative approach; but they do not have a solution.

Gladness

1. The Qal imperfect of sâmach.
2. It means a great joy but it refers to where that joy comes from.
3. This is an inner happiness.
4. It comes from a soul filled with contentment and peace. If you are not content or have peace in your soul, it shows outwardly when you don't.
5. A soul filled with contentment is based upon assurance of God's love and grace. It will go back
6. This will be true of us all of our days.

we get afraid when the other side is in charge.

You learn how to deal with all circumstances and to be happy with them.

Psalm 90:14 Satisfy us in the morning with your steadfast love, that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

Psalm 90:15 Make us glad for as many days as you have afflicted us, and for as many years as we have seen evil.

Make your happiness equal to your affliction. Let's not deal with self afflicted. They have facilitated years of evil. Always it is a following of the...bad choice.

1. God's unfailing love.
2. We are to turn to the Lord and trust Him and cling to His promises of God. To move forward in the plan of God.
3. Then to apply the assurance of the love and grace in their
4. Every morning they had the chance to turn back their anger and fear. One more day to gain some wisdom.
5. They applied love and grace as the counter balance.
6. Moses prayed for this group.
7. Their discipline was fixed. God pronounced that discipline. Their final days could have turned it around.

1. This is a general way of describing havf
2. Peace, contentment, and their affliction was of their own making.
3. They expected deliverance in all of this.
4. To make this glad...we have the call. That is what they need.
5. They had to trust to counter the evil in their own souls and behavior.
6. Gaining doctrinal orientation rather than continuing is thie according to the days, these are the days that Moses and the people suffered due to carnality.

Moses got pretty mad and he smacked the rock. He disobeyed the Lord directly.

You gladness comes from within, even going to a job that you do not like. You depend on the Lord for everything that happens that day.

1. There are always repercussions to bad decisions in life.
2. After Israel's rejection of God's grace, the results jus do not dl
3. Many would die natural deaths; a matter of attrition.
4. Years of rebellion; that has lasting effects.
5. Yet, God sill gave them those yea

1. The relief of rebound and recovery is in the soul
2. It is the inner happiness that derives from the unfailing love and grace of God. You can develop happiness. "Sure wish I hadn't done that."
3. Your happiness is centered in a relaxed mental attitude through any affliction that may continue. "I wish I hadn't done that and it will never go away." We develop a relaxed mental attitude through the afflection.
4. Recovery is the open road of restoration and inner happiness.
5. Growing and grace in wisdom is the Christian life.

Num. 20 for Moses. It finally gets to him and he would never enter into the land. He prays for those Jews to have the same attitude. They were still in the desert. The outward pressures of adversity were equalized and surpassed. It can 40 years of discipline does not mean a continuous pressure. Discipline can come in waves and even be removed for a time.

The point of rebound was removed following the pattern of....the cursing of is replaced by blessing.

In the next verse, Moses will call for the grace of God's unfailing love. The call for evidence.

Lesson #0158

Psalm 90 Wisdom in the OT

11/15/2020 Sunday

Bobby went for a haircut and the lady cutting his hair is very conservative; and they often have the same mind on things. She said, "He will be our president." Then she said, "I know, you are depending upon the Lord and I am depending upon the recount."

Bobby reviews:

Psalm 90:9 For all our days pass away under your wrath; we bring our years to an end like a sigh.

V. 12 is about any failed generation. The key is to gain a heart filled with wisdom. Recovery is obvious. It would be a departure from reversionism. This does not mean in a client nation that everyone becomes Christian. It simply means that there is a large enough pivot and believers.

Psalm 90:12 So teach us to number our days that we may get a heart of wisdom.

When believers do not grow spiritually; and when unbelievers do not believe in Jesus, then a nation will go down.

Psalm 90:14 Satisfy us in the morning with Your steadfast love, that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

It is never too late for any client nation. God will turn back to His people. His fury is abated.

Nations require a spiritual awakening.

Psalm 90:15 Make us glad for as many days as You have afflicted us, and for as many years as we have seen evil.

Moses calls for evidence of God's unfailing love. Contain here is the results of rebound, doctrine and grace orientation can be manifested to believers. That evidence in life is the potent and effective antidote.

We may not be delivered from the circumstances, but we can be delivered from our worry and from our anxiety.

Psalm 90:16 Let Your work be shown to Your servants, and Your glorious power to their children.

Moses is thinking ahead. He knows this generation. He knows their failures. He has petitioned on more than one occasion to save this people.

Look where we are today? Where is the grace of God today? Look at the position that we have gotten ourselves into. This balances circumstances against our spiritual knowledge. We experience the grace of God from within. It is evidence. That is how the work of God is seen by us. This generation has had the discipline; and they still have it. They have also experienced the love and faithfulness of God in the desert in many, many ways.

Moses understands very well what it means to recover. There is the necessity of divine discipline; which is an expression of His love. The grace of God will be evident in every aspect of their lives. Then the plan of God can be executed consistently. We can view His plan unfold for us.

If you look back at where you came from, as an unbeliever or a new believer; that is evidence of God working in your life. Bobby has seen it and he can testify to it. Your own life is the evidence of God working in your life. This is how much doctrine is in your soul. We need to continue to grow.

Moses prays for people to see the full spectrum of God's work in action.

Quite often, people just see what they want to see or hear what they want to hear; because other things do not coincide with what they believe. We see this in politics all of the time. This is a person who only has preconceived notions to hold onto. We see manipulators, particularly in politics.

Never did Bobby think that he would be there. God changes our own desires and our own plans. We should recognize when doors open and doors close. There is a lot of manipulation and confusion in Christianity today.

Divine Viewpoint in the Life of the Believer

1. Our eyes must be open. This is divine viewpoint. We must be able to understand it.
2. Nothing must contradict that viewpoint in our lives; nothing must override it.
3. Any contradiction is the old way of thinking; it is human viewpoint versus divine viewpoint. When we go by human viewpoint, we will make bad decisions.
4. Only with a heart-filled with doctrine, can we be consistently calm and objective. Do you recognize that no matter what, God is working in all of this? God is working to preserve this client nation. God is always working for our benefit and the benefit of the client nation. We may reject it like the first generation; but then comes discipline, which is beneficial to us. The second generation paid attention.

5. Only then, when we have a heart-full of doctrine, can we apply divine wisdom to all of our circumstances.

The eyes of the first generation were not open to the works and guidance of God. They are only open to what they want. Humanity sees very little of what is happening.

We see it or we should because that work is present in His work and His Word. God directs our lives in ways that become so evident, as our eyes are opened in spiritual maturity. We never get to the point where we have arrived and there is no more growing. It is like aging; it marches on and we are going to get there. If growth stops, then we go backwards.

The spiritually mature soul has the wisdom to see God's plan and His work. It becomes so evident when divine viewpoint is present. Grace is the key to understanding God working in all of our lives. We learn to expect God to work. It is called grace in action.

This would be a good time to review the concept of grace, so that we will be certain that God is working.

The Doctrine of Grace

1. Grace is the work of God extending to all humanity. To believers or unbelievers, it is all about what God is free to do for us, based upon the work of His Son. We have no relationship with God apart from His Son. The life of Christ is an historical fact; and all of it is evidence of the work of God. Jesus is the historical figure of God and man; the greatest physical evidence of God's grace. Grace in salvation and in the working of God from the beginning.
2. Grace depends upon Who and What God is; and never upon who and what mankind is. Israel rejected knowledge of God through His Word. The actions of God in logistics and protection. Every day, they got up and they complained; that is not trusting in the grace of God.
3. Grace excludes all human merit and all human good from the plan of God. Grace is one of the hardest concepts to understand.
4. When human merit is relied upon, in order to please God, they do good works and they say, "That is my Christianity. I do good things." These people want merit. Legalism is rampant in Christianity today.
5. The filling of the Holy Spirit is the empowerment of God in our lives. Then when we do good deeds, that is divine good. Believers receive blessing from God in this way and only in this way. The work of the believer comes after. Do not depend upon your works to please God.
6. We do not earn God's grace, because His grace is freely given. God empowers us to please Him. That is how Christianity differs from the rest of it. Every other religion and even atheism is all about doing good works for some sort of commendation.

7. The greatest grace that God can do for a believer is to make him like God's Son, which is thinking with the mind of Christ.
8. That is the evidence of God's gracious work in our lives. We understand how God facilitates that. Pressure requires the evidence of divine wisdom in the soul.
9. God is constantly waiting to pour our His grace on the believer. Isa. 30:18
10. Every believer has tasted grace at the point of salvation. 1Peter 2:3
11. Through growing in and trusting that grace, in whatever overt form it comes, then that work becomes evident in our life.
12. Disorientation to grace assures that the believer will not see what God is doing in his life. This is the greatest hazard to the believer's growth. That disorientation defines the Jews. You can sing Amazing Grace, but not have a clue. Israel did not trust God's grace for 40 years and they saw it every day.

Legalism is man without divine participation. Human effort + good works. This is human good. It is a very nice thing; but it is not the Christian life. Legalism is shown by those who call upon God only when they are in trouble.

When one generation fails, then comes the next. Maybe the failed generation will see the evidence of failed grace in the next generation.

Psalm 90:16 Let Your work be shown to Your servants, and Your glorious power to their children.

Lesson #0159                      Psalm 90 Wisdom in the OT    11/18/2020 Wednesday

No classes next week.

We will complete this chapter tonite and start another one next night. The generation would never enter into the land.

These last two verses are about rebound, spiritual growth, and the unfailing love of God.

Psalm 90:16 Let Your work be shown to Your servants, and Your glorious power to their children.

Let Your work be seen; let it be manifested. Moses refers specifically to the next generation and to the many generations which follow. How would that work and appear to them? Very simply by rebounding and spiritual growth.

Moses is asking for some internal proof in their lives. That balances the outside pressures of circumstances over-against the inner happiness. What is in our soul is, ideally speaking, a heart-filled with wisdom. God answers prayer; He opens doors in our lives; He shuts them. The work, appearance. Internally and externally, in their souls and in their lives. Growing spiritually and the result of that in the working out of the plan of God.

Children can be understood as the next generation of national Israel. To your servants and to the children of your servants. The 2nd generation would enter into the land under Joshua, something which the first generation failed to do.

Joshua and Caleb were the only two who came back and said, "We can take the land." The other 8 (8?) said, "We have no training; we cannot defeat these people."

Joshua trusted God and he took on the mantle of Moses. That is the evidence of God's plan for his life.

Joshua probably stepped into that land and gave a stem-winder of a speech. "You will see the grace of God; we are going into the land that God gave us. Will you trust God or be like your parents?"

Joshua is quite the leader. God honored Moses for all of those years. God would show Joshua what He originally promised Abraham. Moses fades from history. This prayer was to motivate and encourage the new generation.

Some of those in the 2nd generation probably saw much of what happened.

Moses had more personal direct contact with God, apart from Adam, than any other person in history. Moses spent all of that time in the Tent of Meeting; and on Mount Sinai. Moses was pretty close. This was a great man; a man who was very talented. A great man in human history. He hands the next generation to Joshua to lead. So it is with us in the spiritual life. We too all of us will see the gracious work of God in our lives. If you look back from where you came, that is the internal appearance of God in your life. Most of us know where we came from, and where we are living now and what we are doing now. We have experienced God unfailing love to us. This is why we are studying divine wisdom so that we can experience the work of the Lord in our lives and in the nation. That is God's thinking and the way that He operates.

Principle

1. People do not understand God's grace; His doctrine; they do not realize that they have seen the work of God. They are wallowing in depression and hopelessness. Walling in depressions.
2. When a young believer has been taught and conditioned to be aware of God's grace, you have to teach grace. You have to understand grace. That is not a normal thought pattern for the human race. We know we have to work hard for everything. But fundamentally, we need to understand God's grace. God loves us even in discipline.
3. We must have confidence that He is working for us and for our benefit. Aren't we growing spiritually? Aren't we becoming grace and doctrinally oriented? Don't we have some wisdom to apply by now? Sometimes, as our lives move along, we don't always see how God is working in our lives; but if we see the whole spectrum, then we see how the grace of God works. We should be able to laugh at where we were and where we are now. You should be able to understand how this all works. We see Him working and working through us.

4. We must have confidence that His plan goes on continually and uninterrupted, every day and every hour and every minute. God's plan is on the move; God's unfailing love never quits. Only then can we live the relaxed confident content life that such an awareness of the working of God brings. That is the ticket.
5. That is what trusting the Lord is all about. If we can do this, we can trust God for any set of circumstances.

In any generation, the hope of a client nation is teaching the youth. At the end of the day, God's majesty will be seen and come to trust it. A healthy mistrust is always a good thing. There are people that we trust. People that we trust the most can let us down from time to time. That is what happens when you deal with people with sin natures. Sometimes we get self-centered. At those times especially, you must have someone to trust who is always trustworthy. If you think you can trust a politician, forget it. In Whom Do You Trust? It snowballs; the more we see God's majesty and glory, the more we appreciate it and the more that we trust it. It is manifested in overt ways.

Bobby is not talking about speaking in tongues, or healing services, or emotional services. This is the knowledge and the understanding of God in the midst of adversity. These are always seen in the life of the believer. What direction does your life take? You made decisions. If you are growing in doctrine, then those directions are the plan of God in your life. Do not be dissatisfied with your life if it is the plan of God. If you are young, there will be many changes in your life. Understand who you are in Christ and what God has for us. And, at the very end, we go into eternity.

Moses trained his men how to be soldiers; but the narrative of taking the land, it screams the grace of God.

Psalm 90:16 Let Your work be shown to Your servants, and Your glorious power to their children.

Psalm 90:17 Let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us, and establish the work of our hands upon us; yes, establish the work of our hands!

Moses is now talking about what they are going to do.

Divine Wisdom and God's Unfailing Love

1. The work of our hands is the response to the grace and unfailing love of God. It is what we do in response.
2. The believer responds to His grace with wisdom, which is how we should think; and then with actions, which is divine good.
3. The believer learns doctrine and becomes grace oriented. That is the beginning of the works of our hands. The wisdom in our lives, that is our response. If we produce divine good, the favor of the Lord is upon us. It is also the proof in us and through us.

Principles

1. The success of the 2nd generation into the land does not depend upon their military prowess.
2. It was dependent upon God's love. When they crossed into the land, they no doubt felt fear and trepidation.
3. In that generation, there had to be that trust.
4. Success comes only from God. That is grace orientation. This is true in many circumstances. We may want to pat ourselves on the back for fulfilling God's plan.
5. We must know this individually. Then we trust the Lord and His working, in our client nation as well. This is a national issue. The ideologies of those people are diametrically opposed to what we believe and stand for. Impersonal love to those who we oppose. We trust in the Lord for what is going to happen. That is the fun of it. "I want to know what is coming; I want to know if I have to lock myself in my house again."

There are so many things to worry about. Bobby often has lunch and he kicks around things like that. There is no other solution. At the end of the day, there is no other person to trust. We really do not know what is going to happen.

Many you don't like the current president and his bombast, and what he says. But the key is, what did he do? That is what you consider.

God Controls Human History

1. We must focus on that which is beyond the understanding of those without divine wisdom. That takes in a lot of people, including a lot of Christians.
2. We must remain confident that God is still working in this nation. We are still a client nation. We are still the only nation acting as a client nation. There is a lot of degeneracy and stupidity in this country.
3. However, this does not mean that we retreat from life; that we sit on our lives; we don't even need to retreat from political activity.
4. Remember this well....when it does not go our way, remember Isa. 55:8 My thoughts are not your thoughts nor are your ways My ways, declared the Lord.
5. We must remember who controls history and the destiny of nations. How can God let these things happen?
6. Daniel 2:21 it is He, God, Who changes the times and the epochs. He removes kings and...of kings; an knowledge to men of understanding.
  - a. Daniel went some of the most adverse circumstances
7. Human rumors and government change. Human rulers and government change at God's direction and design. This is a wake-up call to believers to take in doctrine.
8. We must always remember that when we live under a government whose values and ideologies that we oppose, God had given us direction, always. Rom. 13.

9. What is the direction; it is called wisdom to follow the tenets and principles of His Word. Remember Matt. 5:43–55. If you have notes, take them out. This confirms the works of our hands. This generation must take the land and they must rely on God's grace and they must understand His Word. That is when the unfailing love of God becomes evident. For us, the practice of this trust will become necessary in the days that come, regardless of who controls the presidency, the Senate or Congress.

This is a prayer for us as well. Bobby wanted to get to this final verses in the time in which we live. We are frail, limited and sinful. The grace of God can transform what is weak to His glory.

Psalm 90:17 Let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us, and establish the work of our hands upon us; yes, establish the work of our hands!

Thus ends Psalm 90. This is a prayer. It reveals just how much we need the grace of God to be effective. This can only be accomplished through knowledge of Bible doctrine; and manifested by wisdom being applied.

This has been a truly amazing psalm. It began with the greatness of God; then it went to that pathetic first generation of Israel; and then it went into a prayer for believers and the next generation.

Proverbs 11 a new fantastic chapter. 31 verses and they are relatively independent verses. Each one has something to tell us about wisdom. Concentrated divine wisdom. Pertinent for the time in which we live.

Lesson #0160                      Proverbs 11 Wisdom in the OT    11/19/2020 Thursday

An introduction as to why we need this. We have trouble in our culture distinguishing between right and wrong, good and bad. Humanism is another way of saying human viewpoint. Humanism is pure arrogance. It is humanity attempting to solve human circumstances and existence apart from God. Those sorts of solutions are arrogance and doomed to failure.

The first humanists were the nephalim; they lived as humanists without God. The next big problem for the human race occurred at Babel. They did this to demonstrate their own power and arrogance. They attempted this to reach into the sky and show their independence from God. God showed His absolute power in very swift judgment.

God stopped them by confusing their languages. Throughout the world, we find communication to be very important. It seems like it has been overcome, but it has not. At the point of Babel, it was one language. God scattered the people and their language. That shows the divine displeasure over internationalism. God ordained nations and rejected internationalism. Nations were formed based upon linguistic differences. Eventually there came to be cultural differences. Nationalism and freedom go together.

Internationalism subsumes nations under one government. God puts down those who support internationalism.

Israel was freed from Egypt and they were established with a land to be an independent nation. They would be the first client nation. One simple requirement; they were to obey God and trust their promises. We were firmly established as a client nation. If they rebelled in arrogance, they would also be scattered throughout the earth, like the Babel population. This problem of the disastrous course in the Jews rejecting God.

How does God hold the line? He uses the fifth cycle of discipline. Conflicts and wars disperse the apostasy of some. What is understood here is, in God's eyes, wars and conflicts are better than unified apostasy and humanism.

Divine wisdom is replaced by humanistic thinking, opinions and ideologies. That is happening right now. The lightning communications is happening right now, with an attempt to change us from nationalism to internationalism. People are constantly trying to hide away the cross, or anything which references Christianity. They want to cancel Christian doctrines and long-held morals of a law-abiding society. Many see the Bible as anachronistic at best. They replace the Biblical creation narrative with evolution; unprovided theories of speculation or climate. You will hear every humanistic theory and speculation in the schools, but never what is taught in Scripture. They substitute an impersonal universe for a personal God.

What does Bobby mean? We have a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. No one has a personal relationship with mother earth or with the universe. In creation, it created itself. The impersonal universe replaces God. They exchange the glory of the incorruptible God for the image of a corruptible man. That is their solution; their God. They mock the moral and spiritual standards of the Scriptures. This is what humanism does. It is the antithesis of wisdom. This is so that we know what we are hearing. The problem is thinking; it is ideology as well. The battle is fought in your soul and in the souls of individuals. It is truly humanism versus divine wisdom. Mankind is setting up sliding standards of right and wrong today. There are no absolute standards. In fact, in this country, we have made what is good evil and what is evil good. We have proposed legislation contrary to the standards of good order in a society, like defunding the police or the green new deal or radical environmentalism to save the planet. The evils of socialism and the over taxation which goes with it. When the money runs out, which it always does, things becomes terrible for that nation. This makes people hopeless. In Russia, their favorite thing to do is to drink. Socialism is destructive. Socialism and over taxation destroy a society.

We are tolerating criminal activities like never before. Our streets are running amuck. Bobby lived in Portland for 5 years and it was a beautiful city; but he recently went back, and no one goes downtown anymore. It is a war zone. We are going to solve the social problems. The old America is dead and we are going on a new course. If we redefine evil in relative terms, obfuscate. If we ignore sin or overlook it, we will feel better about ourselves. It is delusional; it is futile. That is all humanism has. That is all they can propose.

In seminaries, the sin nature is no longer talked about; there are humanistic ideas about how to change man's environment. The Bible is not seen as an absolute standard of Christianity.

Zondervan just put out a Bible where you can slide passages out if you do not like them. Who does that? Relative humanists when it does not fit their preconceived ideas.

Sinful man solves the problem of sin by redefining sin. These chapters of Scripture refute human viewpoint. We need to be armed with this wisdom. We are inundated with all of the things which we have spoken of. Humanists want to improve the world through social action, believing that social action will somehow improve the world. They think there will be economic understanding and peace. Peace, peace, yet there is no peace.

What is happening today? Censorship; and we have seen that recently like never before. That is the propaganda of sinful mankind. National interest must be subsumed to world concerns. We are about to see a deluge of internationalism. Someone in Congress proposed that we give the rest of the world the COVID vaccine to the rest of the world before we take it. We invent these things and the world enjoys it. That is the idea. That cannot and it will not happen. That is a fabrication of the devil himself. Anything that is not a divine institution is of the cosmic system.

Satan's Attack on Client Nation

1. Satan in all of his genius and power cannot solve the problems of the sin nature of mankind. Not even Satan can do this. Not with all of the resources which he has. He can influence nations, and people and governments. He cannot solve his own rebellious nature against God. He cannot save himself; how can he save the rest of us?
- 2.
3. Satan can only use mankind to further his own evil agenda. Humanism is one of his great tools; one of his great weapons. He opposes God; who is God's representative on this earth? We are and client nations are. When humanism attacks the client nation, it is of the cosmic system.
4. Satan's agenda is to oppose God and His plan in every possible way. The includes whatever he can do inside of a client nation. Satan wants to destroy the client nation. He has ruined every client nation in history. God continues to foil Satan with His Word.
5. Satna uses man because mankind is at the center of the Angelic Conflict.

Governments and people have tried to end poverty for years. We need to tax the rich out of existence. That is a completely socialistic Marxist practice. They try to equally spread out prosperity, regardless of work ethic. There is no wealth. What this really does is destroy the middle class. Bureaucracy...

There is always wealth in societies. People have sin natures; people are greedy and there is injustice and this world; no humanism will solve this.

Socialism

1. Socialism is a humanist answer to poverty.
2. Socialism becomes a shared poverty. What about Europe? Europe is broke. If we don't prop them up, they will top over. They have broken the banks of every nation in Europe except in Germany. Every other nation is broke.
3. This is poverty redefined as something beneficial and equality of poverty, if you will. Kids think the greatest thing in this world is to get their debt removed. These kids will have to pay at some point. They don't know it yet. But nothing is free.
4. In the end, socialism morphs into a power base for government injustice and tyranny.
5. Socialism can only bring more poverty in order to make everyone economically equal. The idea is, if no one has any advantages over others, economic or otherwise, their thinking is, the sin nature will be placated. There will be no more greed or jealousy. But this will not fix greed, class hatred and jealousy. There is always a class structure in the human race. Those who administer the equality

Bobby had to laugh. He is so adamant about social distancing with small group gatherings at the most. Who gets the benefits? The ones at the top. In socialism, it is always those who run the show. Government and bureaucracy. This insures plenty of misery for all. All of these socialist countries are this way.

Marxism is Marxism; it has not changed; and socialism is just one step away from it. Miserable horrible socialist empires; police states. No equality and no prosperity.

Socialism

1. Socialism cannot and does not remove the sin nature from man. Bobby is using socialism as an illustration because that is what is being promoted by humanism.
2. What always remains is man's corrupt nature; his lust for power. His arrogance. It can't ever leave the human race.
3. Socialism is a system opposed to divine establishment in every way.
4. Socialism is a part of the cosmic system; it is part of humanism. Socialistic are generally atheists.
5. As in any Satanic system, tyranny is involved. Satan is a tyrant. He rules with an iron hand. So does the systems that he promotes.
6. Those in power must force their system upon man.
7. Their justification is, revolution must occur before society can be remade into a socialist image. You must destroy a society in order to remake it. This is the story of Marxism wherever it has been enacted. It is not natural for man to give up freedom for tyranny. That is what Marxism and socialism offer.

The United States will not become a better society because of a flawed relativistic political ideology. It breeds indolence and produces widespread hopelessness and fear that exchanges the freedom of capitalism for tyranny.

There is more introduction to go.

Lesson #0161

Proverbs 11 Wisdom in the OT

11/22/2020 Sunday

Bobby started on another chapter, but then he stopped on this one, because of its supreme relevance to the time during which we live.

When people begin to reject divine establishment and when believers begin to pursue many other pursuits, and they can no longer discern good from evil; and cannot apply doctrine or divine establishment, then the epitome of cosmic thinking enters into societal culture. The ultimate arrogance is to think that there is a way to solve problems apart from God, society goes awry. Our worldview is changed to a secular model.

When this happens, God must move to judge to such a people if there is no such recovery occurring. Thinking Bible doctrine is the recovery that we need.

Bobby began the introduction of this chapter by discussing societal principles and secular doctrines which contradict divine establishment thinking. The United States is moving away from Christian doctrines and long-held standards of a law-abiding society. They regard the Bible as an anarchistic, if not an all out enemy of a humanistic society. Deteriorating and degenerating in our moral and spiritual practices.

The humanistic doctrine popular today, if we reduce evil to relative terms, or to disavow its existence, so that it is no longer applicable to a modern society, then society will be better and more inclusive, which means to include evil.

Several examples of what humanists are imposing in order to solve current problems apart from God. Improving this world and nation through social action and activism. This social action, by humanistic and atheistic ideologies, such as Marxist-socialism, including intimidation and violence to get their ways. The sin nature of mankind, and we all have it, the Marxists and the Christians, and no ideology controls it, apart from Jesus Christ and apart from God the Holy Spirit and metabolized Bible doctrine. Marxism can only bring tyranny and all-pervasive poverty.

The realm of legislation to solve human problems. If we can just legislate against climate change. They say that mother earth is dying; and many people are in a state of all out panic, if we do not act to combat climate change. No proof that humanity is causing climate change or even that it is really occurring.

A report given by Lamar Smith, as the chairman of a committee. The NOAA is the nation's leading collector of climate data. They analyze vast amounts of data, but they often fail to consider all available data regarding their publications about climate change. They made adjustments to records, supposedly based upon new data and new methodology. This study did not include atmospheric satellite data, which shows no warming for two decades. This is used to past costly legislation to solve climate change. NOAA refuses to include satellite data in their publications. They include information which supports climate change hysteria. It continues to rely upon biased study, which depends upon slanted data. Carbon taxation to keep the seas from rising, and prohibiting fossil fuels, which is speculative and, quite likely, wrong. It is a seemingly a problem that the natural world thinks it can solve.

This is just another form of power grabbing. An attempt to control the population. What a great platform for socialism to take root. Once again, God is left out. God created the universe and He created this planet. He holds this universe and this earth together. The planet will not self-destruct, nor will man cause the planet to destruct.

Long-term climate change is cyclical in nature, and there are warming and cooling periods and man has nothing to do with it. It is a fact. All proposed solutions are speculative and unsubstantiated, but will cause billions to fix. Hysterical humanists demand such an approach to save the planet. Carbon taxes will not necessarily solve anything, but they will be excessive. These are controls on society. It makes people who have no other solutions less fearful and it makes them feel better for trying to do something. It is all about manipulation and control. Other nations will not change their economy to fix the climate; at best, they will give it lip service.

Another humanistic thinking: eliminate gender distinctions will end gender discrimination. Gender distinction is a fact and each gender has a role to play in God's plan. So, this is obviously under severe attack. The Bible pronounces man and woman as equal, as we are created in the image of God. Believers are said to be one in Christ, whether male or female. Male/female roles still exist in God's plan and always will. Removing such a distinction is a humanist idea. It confuses love, sex and marriage. The current idea of same sex marriage is the epitome of humanistic thinking. Those who indulge in that, who subscribe to that, we don't hate. It is not something that we are out to get rid of or march against it; we can only counter this by the wisdom of our own souls.

Biblical marriage is always between one man and one woman. But this is considered hatred by the humanistic. All lives matter to Christians. There is no room for Biblical marriage in a humanist society and they want to stamp it out. According to radical feminists and the LGBTQ community want to rid society of a normal marriage; and to, at the same time, force same-sex marriage on the rest of society. There are those who go into a church and ask to be married, and the pastor says no, and they sue the church. We cannot acquiesce to that. There is activism and even legislation heading in that way. Humanism says that this is a human right and it is acceptable to many in this society. It makes them feel better and makes them feel as if they are more tolerant.

Where degeneracy is promoted, society deteriorates.

Same-sex marriage is a sin; but God metes out the punishment; we do not. Homosexual relations are not natural, even though they claim to be born that way. Rom 1:26–27 For this reason God gave them up to dishonorable passions. For their women exchanged natural relations for those that are contrary to nature; and the men likewise gave up natural relations with women and were consumed with passion for one another, men committing shameless acts with men and receiving in themselves the due penalty for their error.

We are trying to solve drug abuse, but more people keep using and more continue to abuse it. But we feel better about do something about it, even though we do not do so. States are legalizing all sorts of drugs. They can go and get free needles. Switzerland did this decades ago, and stopped it, because it got so bad there.

Favoring one group over another in order to achieve equality. The sin nature of mankind resents that sort of inequality, no matter where it comes from. Racism becomes worse. The demand for defunding the police. Humanism cannot deal with the innate sin nature of man. The problem is not some institution. The population gives up protection for a solution to racism. Black Lives Matter is founded by self-avowed, trained Marxists, who use racism in order to gain power to institute Marxist goals and government. Now they have exactly what they have going on everywhere else. Rioting in the streets and anarchy. We will see where this Marxism-socialism goes.

Humanism as a Solution

1. Relative humanism focuses people upon themselves and their own desires above everything else.
2. So humanism does not breed altruism or human solutions nor does it breed freedom.
3. It breeds arrogance, pride, self-appreciation, self-indulgence, and solutions without God.
4. The inculcation of humanism puts too high an estimate on humanity. "I am the solution to the problem; everyone else is the problem. It is my solution."
5. A society cannot flourish; freedom cannot be maintained without citizens putting something or Someone over their own personal interests. We know Who that is. Divine establishment and the plan of God. Humanism opposes this because it opposes God. Their only plan is what they can devise. We know how frustrating this is. It is like trying to pull yourself up with a rope.
6. This is accomplished by individuals, not through state dictates. A flourishing society is accomplished by individuals and particularly by believers in Jesus Christ.
7. The wisdom of Bible doctrine promotes individual freedom, free choice, and solutions to problems...through individual spiritual lives. Individual freedom is not promoted by humanist solutions. Marxism must be imposed on the populace; it is not accepted by any population. Those on the top enforce their ideology through their military or through a police state.
8. Bible doctrine teaches individual solutions and Bible doctrine; and not corporate arrogance. Prov. 11:2 There is no wisdom in arrogance. Humanity does not have wisdom when arrogant. Relativism and humanism do not promote humility.

Societal problems today are becoming worse. How critical becomes Bible doctrine and wisdom in our lives and in the life of our nation? It has never been more critical. What we are doing has never been more critical. We honor God through spiritual growth. We honor

God through spiritual growth. Not humanism, not the solutions which come from humanism. Divine justice even to the scattering of a nation. The people were scattered throughout the known world. Building that tower excluded God from their lives. That was internationalism. Nationalism became a divine institution right there.

Prov. 11 is the wisdom that counter humanism, which is why it is so important in the time that we live.

We have completed a grim introduction. If your hope is in a new administration or in the old one, this will not solve our problems. As we go, so goes the nation.

Do not put all of your eggs in one basket. Put one maybe in that basket and the rest in the basket of God's plan and divine establishment.

Lesson #0162                      Proverbs 11:1 Wisdom in the OT 11/29/2020 Sunday

Back in class.

Humanism in all of its relevant arrogance is the greatest problem today in American society. Abandoning God is always the ultimate evil, and that is exactly what humanism does. We can include in humanism a secular society which removes God from the human forum. Relativism which rejects objective absolute standards from the Bible. The hyper-taxation; suppression of Christianity and divine institutions which contradict current political correctness; the syncretism going on in seminaries, promotion of false religions and; objective law is replaced with racial and social justice; nationalism is replaced with internationalism; evolutionary theories leaving God out of it; radical feminism attempting to remove all male-female distinctions. Radical environmentalism; anti-authority anarchy identified by schemes to defund the police; minimizing or legalizing crime, such as drug abuse and even murder. These are just a few of the problems of humanism. Relative humanism focuses people upon themselves and their own desires above all else. It does not breed altruism or real solutions, it breeds pride and self-indulgence. Too high of an emphasis upon oneself, meaning God and Christ. A society cannot flourish unless the citizens put something above their own self-interest. Renovation and not through the dictates of a secular state. Societal problems are getting worse, and the more humanistic that we become, the worse things get.

After giving us something to be truly depressed about, Bible doctrine becomes critical in this nation. We could face even a scattering of our nation like Old Testament Israel. This is why Proverbs 11 is so important. This provides a contrast between the absolute good and the wicked. Between absolute good and the humanists, who have no integrity.

The first standard in Proverbs 11 is honesty. This is at the very heart of our reelection crisis. Do we have an honest society; an honest body politic, an honest election.

We might recognize the concept of honesty in v. 1, but it is presented in ancient economic terms in economic terms.

Proverbs 11:1 A false balance is an abomination to the LORD, but a just weight is his delight.

We are not talking about being off-balance or being overweight. This idea of a just balance is found in many places in the Bible.

A false scale; a just weight

1. Proverbs.
2. Hosea :7 A merchant, in who hands are false balances, he loves to oppress.

Proverbs 11:1 is a comparison between corruption versus honesty in business dealings. The dishonest guy has his finger on the scale to increase the cost of his goods. The scales are rigged in favor of the dishonest businessman and the buyers are swindled. These are not the practices of an honest person. When these permeate a society, they destroy. Dishonesty continues throughout. Leviticus. 19:35–36 "You shall do no wrong in judgment, in measures of length or weight or quantity. You shall have just balances, just weights, a just ephah, and a just hin: I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt.

Just Weights and Honest Business Dealings

1. The just weight of Leviticus. 19:36 represents honest dealings. The inference here includes a legitimate and honest profit made in business.
2. An honest scale produces an honest profit.
3. Believers and unbelievers have a right to legitimate profits in providing goods and services.
4. Socialism abhors profit as an evil thing to be distributed. The greater the profit, the more it must be taxed and redistributed.
5. To make a profit is fine; but never to defraud people in order to make a profit.
6. All of these verses including Prov. 20 are about the principle of honest character in business.

An honest business reflects an honest society.

Proverbs 11:1 The Lord abhors dishonest scales, but a just weight is his delight.

1. Dishonest scales affects the nation as a whole.
2. Honest business standards keep a nation on a good economic path.
3. Cheating commerces is a national blight and the nation itself becomes corrupt. "I will get wealthy regardless of the means. Corruption of the soul.
4. Thus get-rich schemes are a manifestation of national greed and corruption.
5. What is interesting, that becomes a tacit acceptable practice in the business world, to make a buck no matter what, no matter who gets hurt or cheated.
6. This manifests the sin natures in people and affects the entire nation.
7. Such greed is counteracted by an individual acceptance of Jesus Christ through faith alone and then spiritual growth. The sin nature is always brought under controls with spiritual growth. Inner and overt sins. Also, a return to standards of divine establishment among unbelievers makes a difference.
8. Relative standards make cheating acceptable. It is okay. People will admire me if I gain wealth. The wealthy are admired and they seem to be envious...it is a truism; when honesty is lacking in a materialistic society, then gaining wealth becomes the highest achievement. How that wealth is accumulated is unimportant to immoral types.

No ideology solves greed or anything else produced by the sin nature. Humanistic approaches open up the sin nature to greater corruption. The gospel is the solution along with spiritual growth. As we grow spiritually, the sin nature becomes under greater control in our life. Concerning honesty, so that maybe when someone comes and promises ridiculous profits, you might realize that it is a Ponzi scheme. You may have dishonesty all around you, but the application of this verse is very important to you.

Exemplified in Proverbs 21:6 The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a fleeting vapor and a snare of death.

It is the road to a quick buck which is ill-gotten gain. Focusing on the details of life to the exclusion of ethics and integrity. This same dishonesty appears in the government of a corrupt government. Excessive taxation in order to set up socialistic programs. It is stealing from those who work for a legitimate profit. Socialistic theft by the government is justified by economic justice, an economic...idealistic causes which are humanistic. This is used to buy votes to stay in power. We see serious dishonesty today in government circles and in political parties. It looks as if there is dishonesty in the voting system itself. It is apparently... When you cannot trust the vote, you cannot have a just society. Every third world country in this world has illegal, corrupt, manipulated elections. Socialism is anything but honest. Socialism has become very popular in one party. It is a dishonest system eventually. It is outright theft for power purposes. Today we see much corruption and dishonesty in business as well. The way it is crowded with those who are unethical, charlatans, and this includes religious organizations also. How many of them have dunned people for money. Send us requests and we will pray for you, along with some money.

How many people use this money for person gain. So many so Christianity as nothing more than a scheme to get money. The religious organization that begs for money is an organization should be avoided. Berachah Church has never asked for money, not once. God has seen fit to provide for Berachah's ministry. There are not enough of these today. This can lend itself to dishonesty.

What when we find dishonesty in business and in religion. In business it means cheap goods that do not live up to their promises; shoddy public service. Lies and easy money. This all goes together in a corrupt environment.

We have all heard that honesty is the best policy.

God's View of Honesty Is the Best Policy

1. Prov. 11:1 is the Biblical equivalent of honesty is the best policy.
2. This verse is even stronger. It connects this moral rule of human dealings with the divine plan and will.
3. Honesty in business is a part of divine establishment.
4. Dishonest business practices are anti-divine establishment and they are anti-authority and lawless. It flaunts the rule of law. The huge numbers of prosecutions and lawsuits trying to correct these practices. It would be comical to see two dishonest institutions battling for dishonest money in court. But lawyers will make the most here. Lawyers are a part of the rule of law. Their cases often reflect the state of society and a nation. It is everywhere.

Proverbs 11:1 is strong. There is a price to pay in discipline and even in destruction from God.

The Fundamental Nature of Business

1. Business and economy are the very heart of interactive human affairs on a personal and a national scale.
2. There is little more personal than acquiring, investing and utilizing money; except for the spiritual life, which is more person. We all do the former and we all think about it. Even if you don't work, you are thinking about acquiring something to survive.
3. In business that spending and acquisition involves many people; that is what makes it interactive.
4. Taking together all of those interactions, determine the tenor of personal and national life. They are the interactions of a nation; of a business. If they are dishonest, what is national life like?
5. Where dishonesty prevails, you find a dog-eat-dog mentality. I will get what I want no matter how much it hurts you.
6. It affects interpersonal relationships of individuals and of the national economy.
7. A nation can become divided and antagonistic toward one another. It is the conflict between capitalism and socialism.
8. The war between evil socialism and capitalism riddled with dishonesty. Socialism is fundamentally dishonest. Capitalism provides a greater situation for all people.

When people dispute capitalism for dishonesty, socialism is inherently dishonest, across the board.

This is what make Proverbs 11:1 so important.

Proverbs 11:1 The Lord abhors dishonest scales, but a just weight is his delight.

Lesson #0163 Proverbs 11:1 Hosea12:7 Wisdom in the OT 12/2/2020 Wed.

Proverbs 11:1 The Lord abhors dishonest scales, but a just weight is his delight.

There is an example here of good business practices; honesty. In the time in which we live, honesty has become much less important. The author probably noticed a pervasive dishonesty that spread; and it becomes a way of life in a nation. Anything but honesty is an abomination to the Lord.

This is a comparison. Antithetical distich, two lines of poetry which are opposed to each other. The comparison is between corruption (differing weights and false scales) versus honest business practices. False balances are the tools of a dishonest business person. Such a one loves to extort.

Hosea 12:7 A merchant, in whose hands are false balances, he loves to oppress.

There were several codices in the Mosaic Law; and business was a subject of the Mosaic Law. Leviticus. 19:35–36 "You shall do no wrong in judgment, in measures of length or weight or quantity. You shall have just balances, just weights, a just ephah, and a just hin: I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt.

Honesty is the policy of the Mosaic Law. The Bible provides the practical guidance of individual and corporate dealings. Honest scales, honest people, honest policies. This seems to be getting worse in our own country.

Honesty and God's Righteousness

1. Clearly, God is interested in commerce and all of these interpersonal dealings.
2. All of these dealings is a reflection of God's character.
3. The integrity of God should be reflected in all human affairs, including the business and economic policies of Christians. A client nation has a certain criterion. Honesty is not always a characteristic of a nation. As believers, we understand this should be a characteristic of a believer in his everyday life.
4. Believers affect the client nation by their behavior; and this is true of unbelievers who adhere to divine establishment concepts.
5. Divinely established business practices on a personal level. That is what Leviticus. 19 says. This is true, even if the Mosaic Law is not our law.

6. There is a need for honesty for every aspect of life. This carries over to a society at large.
7. It is significant that in Prov. 11:1, the wisdom of the Bible is found to be the supreme arbiter of human affairs. The Scripture is truth, wisdom and honesty. When Scripture is not an arbiter of human affairs, the most dishonesty that we find. Socialism is a system of dishonesty. It touts one thing and produces another. Socialists can always look at their system and see how dishonest it is. Because of their humanism, because they have no other place to turn. Yet, that is the direction that the country is going today.

It was an evil day in our nation when leaders began to reject the Bible and its standards. Humanism must reject it. They have begun to remove the Bible from the public forum; and they have governed as if God has never spoken to man through His Word.

Prov. 11:1 is not just for us; it is for all humanity. To ignore God's Word and His ethical standards are the result. That is true in individual relationships and in government relationship with the citizens in what they are supposed to serve. They do not know what divine establishment really means. The more secular the government, the more secular the society. This results in a dishonest government. They will steal money for their own use. Taking other people's money through exorbitant taxation followed by redistribution to others, for social justice and humanistic utopia. Humanists really believe that such a flawed system will bring about a utopia. It is preposterous. It is understandable to us; but to the humanist, it is all that they have to cling to. Socialism survives by outright confiscation of wealth by nationalizing businesses and controlling the means of production. This is entirely inefficient and it is a disaster for the economy of any nation. Socialism merely mirrors the corruption of a people and the leaders of a nation.

The corrupt lead to a universal corruption. It is essentially dishonest. It reflects those who they themselves are corrupt. And people do not even recognize what is happening to them.

Example. Our government is trending towards socialism; and we have borrowed huge amounts from the social security funds. It is a savings account; it is not an entitlement. The government has taken a lot of that, while arrogantly lying to the public. They never pay it back; and that is why the system is going broke. How do they fill the coffers? More taxation. They will tell us that it will be a benefit to us. And we will go into unsustainable debt. The government runs out of money; and the entire society is impoverished. It is dishonest in every aspect. It is rampant in this nation, when a lying tongue is a prolific government or business tactic. One lie leads to many. It is contagious; where honesty and ethics are not promoted.

The direction we go in is ruinous for everyone. Here is the wisdom that we need to understand. Why are we on such a ruinous course? That is why dishonesty is so detestable in the eyes of God.

Dishonest Business Practices

1. Dishonest business practices are the result of a corrupt people.
2. It is the corruption of a dishonest people and government.
3. It is a demonstration of the evil of the love of money above all. Dishonest business practices is just a manifestation.
4. The dishonest business is get what you can by hook or crook. Get the details of life. We are only here for a short time; get what we can. I will be dishonest and take your money so that I can use. That is a dishonest society. When people function in that way and think that way, you have a dishonest society. That is ruinous.
5. Any national future will be dismissed for personal gain and gratification. Or in the realm of a corrupt government, for retaining power.

One thing which has struck Bobby how politicians only think about the here and now and about lining their own pockets. There is no thought about the next generations which follow. One of the repercussions of dishonesty of allowing people to run amuck, destroy business, and to loot and riot. They will protect the people unless rioting and looting further our cause.

That is the overarching business presence of a greedy society.

God's Justice

1. Justice is God's delight and honesty. They go together. Social justice is not honest because it promises things it cannot deliver; it promises things to one group over another.
2. Justice in human dealings, especially in business and economy, is the backbone of an orderly peaceful society.
3. The injustice of business and government dishonesty breaks down the very fabric of interpersonal dealings in a society. How do you deal with a dishonest society when you catch them at it? How do you trust a liar? You don't.
4. God abhors it, as it reflects the cosmic system. The great deceiver is the liar over the cosmic system.

A time may come when dishonesty is exposed; and then it should be brought into the court of justice for legal proceedings. Fleeting vapor and the pursuit of death. The justice of God is still in action. God abhors dishonesty. His justice is always against that. No one gets away with anything under the justice of God. God is delighted with the honest.

Where business is corrupt, national life is corrupted as well.

It is really a sad day. Bobby observes this. People come to expect others to cheat them as a part of life. They rationalize it as, that is just the way it is. This expectation occurs every day with the scams that we get on the telephone. Credit card theft is rampant. It is irritating, but we expect it now as a part of our normal existence. The fast buck; I will take you and I don't care if it hurts you.

In our society we become a litigious society, for just and unjust lawsuits. Affairs that used to be...

Billions of dollars are spent in civil courts, where one person is being cheated by the other or trying to gain an unfair advantage. That is money that could be used to expand business. Lawyers are busy because of rampant dishonesty. The disputes are more costly than the dispute itself and the disputed funds. This is not to say that a fraud should go unpunished. Too often fraud ends up in civil court to be adjudicated. This is rampant dishonesty in a nation. Not enough time and resources to handle it all. It takes an army of lawyers to review contracts to make certain that the contract is legitimate. Don't sign anything if you do not know what you are signing.

Do not forget the Ponzi schemes. One person in this church was a mastermind of a Ponzi scheme. Bobby has met him and has spoken to him. How about cheating on taxes and not paying taxes? It is Biblical to pay taxes. It has become a national past time to not pay taxes. The demise of a client nation is reflected in dishonest practices. The Mosaic Law prohibited such practices. As a client nation we represent Jesus Christ to the world; and we are ambassadors to Christ on a worldwide scale.

This includes missions. Bobby can speak in Berachah Church and it can be heard all over the world within 12 hours. That is amazing. Never been done before. Without covid, it might not have happened in this church. Bobby believes that is God working. We are worldwide ambassadors. National corruption is a hindrance to trust outside of our borders. We as a nation have become much less trustworthy. A client nation has economic interactions all over the world. We are the largest economy in the world. Christian businessmen are ambassadors to other countries through their business dealings. When nations mistrust nations in business and economics, war is imminent. This is held true throughout the course of history. This was really the problem between the US and Japan; they wanted some oil and we would not let them have it.

Jesus explained the blowback for dishonesty in Luke 6: for by your standard of measure, it will be measure to you in return. Corruption or honesty; which is it? What happens when you are corrupt or honest?

Measures, scales, weights. The honesty or dishonesty will be measured back to you.

Honesty Is its Own Reward

1. That verse is the divine discipline for dishonesty like Prov. 11:1. Jesus was reiterating what the Lord said about business practices.
2. Dishonesty in business comes back on the perpetrator's head. Might not be in the way that you see. God knows how people think and how they operate.
3. Conversely, honesty is its own reward. It also is the ticket to successful business. A fair price, trust, and return business from customers who are satisfied. Dishonest businesses are noted and avoided. The goal in business is honesty with people that you interact with.

Bobby is talking about the US today.

Work Ethic

1. An honest work ethic is a part of divine establishment. An honest day's work for an honest day's pay.
2. The client nation, whether cognizant of it or not, lives under divine establishment laws of God; and honesty is a part of divine establishment in business and economics.
3. So falsehood and dishonesty in proportion to its extent in the nation poisons and paralyzes personal dealings.
4. The whole economy of a nation is effected by dishonesty in business.
5. Even if dishonesty is conceal or ignored, its effects cannot be diminished. Those effects are what we are now seeing in our client nation.

Proverbs 11:1 The Lord abhors dishonest scales, but a just weight is his delight.

Lesson #0164                      Proverbs 11:2 Wisdom in the OT                      12/3/2020 Thursday

No class on the 24th.

As we move forward in these 31 verses, each verse is not necessarily related directly to the verses around it. The over-arching theme is integrity v. evil.

Honesty v. dishonesty in v. 1. V. 2 is pride/dishonor v. humble/wisdom.

Proverbs 11:2 When pride comes, then comes disgrace, but with the humble is wisdom.

What do people have to be proud of? Wealth cannot buy back a lost friend or a lost loved one or a good night's sleep. What about pride in owning property. Many are proud of that. A very little piece of dirt will serve that person very soon. Pride in birth, maybe being highly born, or with a long history, even human royalty. What has been inherited by any family, is a sin nature and corruption. Better to be a member of the royal family of God. That is the royalty that matter.

Pride in one's education. If you have the intelligence equal to someone like Einstein; and you have understood one grain of sand on a beach. The only knowledge which is worthwhile is knowledge of God and of Jesus Christ.

Dishonor and punishment should come early on someone filled with pride. And respond to that which is honorable as opposed to that which is dishonorable.

Zadon Is the Hebrew Word for Pride.

1. Pride in this sense is the basic mental attitude sins that spawns so many others.

2. Pride is the quality of exaggerated self-esteem. Sometimes we call it conceit or subjective thinking about oneself. We most often hear the word arrogance.
3. Another nuance; it might be a lofty self-respect or a high esteem of oneself, whether real or imagined.
4. There is a dishonor in a certain type of pride.
5. That dishonor is shame and disgrace.
6. And this disgrace does not come from an outside source. This is not someone shaming us.
7. It is the self-induced shame of inordinate pride or arrogance.
8. The principle of self-induced misery.

Pride and Wisdom

1. The dishonor is pride and wisdom are excluded.
2. Wisdom cannot dwell in the presence of arrogance. Plenty of self-esteem, but no wisdom.
3. The proud person sees himself as being very self-sufficient and he has a high estimation of his own knowledge and ability that he or she feels no further need of light or improvement. How can you improve on me? How can you improve on someone as good as I am? This is true of arrogant Christians as well. The fundamental problem in legalism.
4. Humility is the mandated characteristic of a believer. In humility is wisdom.
5. The shame of pride, the self-satisfaction and self-centeredness of an arrogant character.

It was pride that one of the great stories of Israel found in Daniel about the great king of Babylon, who descended upon Jerusalem in 586 B.C. He took Daniel and several others as hostages. This was about 506 B.C. He did return, and he killed or took the people in slavery to the Chaldean empire. The story is the great pride of Nebuchadnezzar. He built himself an incredible palace. The Ishtar gates are in a museum in Berlin (stolen by the Germans), and they are indeed beautiful.

Nebuchadnezzar had a dream and Daniel interpreted it for him. Nebuchadnezzar ate grass and lived like an animal, until he acknowledged the God of Israel.

King Saul was another man of Israel. He got himself in trouble when he tried to wipe out David.

The pride that sent the man and the woman right out of the garden. Arrogance. It was pride. Pride that hurled Haman out of the court of the king and got him impaled. Pride removed lucifer from heaven. Such pride may start well, but it never ends well, unless, of course, there is a recovery.

Pride and Dishonor

1. Pride and dishonor constitute a pair.
2. Pride takes with it dishonor.
3. They had been made twins in the cosmic system by none other than the ruler of this world. Satan began his career with pride and dishonor.
4. Satan is the epitome of pride and arrogance. Fundamentally, Satan is arrogance. He is the most dishonorable creature to ever exist.
5. Pride is the original sin of Satan and the motivation for his fall. Isa. 14. I will be like the most high God. This has continued throughout human history.
6. In him was the greatest dishonor of all.
7. By way of application, humanism takes on the same mantle. Humanism is the epitome of the cosmic system. Humanism denies God; removes God; and makes man the most important creature.

It is ironic that humanism tries to make man and critters equal. That is what happens with evolution.

Lucifer, who is later Satan, is the greatest creature to come from the hand of God. He had status and position; and was in the throne room of God. You need humility to handle prosperity. There is nothing that he did not have. Satan assumed in his pride that he was a great as God.

Satan's Pride and Arrogance

1. All pride and arrogance assumes upon oneself certain divine prerogatives. Satan did. "I will be like the Most High God."
2. When you judge someone else, you exhibit arrogance and you assert your superiority. This was the mental attitude of Satan at his fall, assuming that he was as superlative as God was. God is the judge of all of us.
3. Such arrogance of judging in you is actually directed towards God, as much as towards the person being judged.
4. Why? Because only God has the prerogative of judgment; not us. You are assuming the prerogative of God by judging.
5. You do not get to judge the sinful actions of others. So look out for yourself not to judge others. Humility means that you objectively evaluate yourself. That evaluation comes from wisdom.

An example of judging is suggesting what Trump (or Obama) are thinking; or act as if you know their motivations.

Humility comes with wisdom. The understanding of pride and arrogance as described is not always seen as shameful or as a disgrace, but it is often seen as a manifestation of self-confidence or self-assurance. Sometimes, if you watch much sports, this particular pride is called swagger. An overbearing manner spiffed with (trash talk. This was used to intimidate an opponent. Mohamed Ali used this all of the time (although he certainly was filled with pride).

What happens when the performance does not match the person's pride. Sooner or later the proud attitude will return speaking words of arrogance. To regain a high place in the minds of observers. The attitude of pride, as swagger, usually receives a fickle response from the observer; it does not last. Swagger may not work to regain self-esteem. May not get the approbation as long as you want. Self-esteem is a fleeting quality. You are only as good as your last performance; your last outing. As your last military unit, or whatever it is you undertake. Ironically, it enhances it. The only way people can survive in life. It is their system of living life. No substitute for spiritual self esteem. This is gain through spiritual growth. That is where humility comes in.

Bobby has made a comparison between the pride that you see in swagger and the humility that you may not see.

Spiritual Self Esteem

1. It is cognitive self-confidence. Not from human pride.
2. Believer keeps priorities in conformity with Bible doctrine.
3. Therefore divine wisdom replaces human approbation. A fundamental need of pride is human approbation. It bolsters pride. Spiritual self esteem does not need that.
4. Spiritual self esteem is characterized by humility. According to Prov. 11:2, it is honor and wisdom.
5. The base for the Christian way of life is humility. There is no other base for it. We are mandated to have humility. Pride is baseless. That is not spiritual self esteem.
6. Spiritual self esteem is not based upon you; it is based upon who God is.
7. We lose self-esteem when we fail; but we do not lose spiritual self esteem when we fail.
8. Spiritual self esteem does not depend upon pride or human approbation and it does not depend upon other people.
9. It is dependent upon Jesus Christ and our relationship with Him. That is where we get our self-esteem.
10. It is generated from our understanding; the cognition of our position in Christ. We have resources that no one else has. It is bound up in who Jesus Christ is.
11. Spiritual self esteem is authenticated by the knowledge of Christ and the extent of our relationship with Him.
12. This authenticated personal destiny in Christ, when you begin to understand the plan of God for your life, if you weather all circumstances of adversity. These circumstances destroy self-esteem but not spiritual self esteem.
13. When you have a personal recognition of the relationship and destiny that you share in Christ. Are you deserving of anything that you have by way of your destiny or your spiritual life? That is how self-esteem is different from spiritual self esteem. Then you begin to realize the enormity of your destiny and God's grace to you.
14. Awe and gratitude in life animates your spiritual self esteem.

15. Your focus is on Jesus Christ, and not on yourself. Human self esteem can be difficult to hold together; spiritual self esteem does not depend upon what others think of you.
16. Spiritual self esteem excludes self-centered pride as the primary attitude in life. Spiritual self esteem has the means of dealing with life. Psychological counselor make a living trying to make people have self-esteem. That is based upon who they are.
17. Humility and spiritual self esteem go together. They are two sides of the same coin. That is why we are mandated to have humility. They all fit together.
18. Human self esteem requires pride and human achievement; and that is the problem with pride.
19. Spiritual self esteem breeds humility as you recognize your subordination to the Lord and the grace that you have in Him. This verse confirms that pride is shame in the eyes of the Lord.

Athletes have abilities that we do not have. What happens when they get older and fatter? The self-esteem is not quite what it used to be. You move along in the spiritual life and you know who you are in Christ.

Prov. 16:18 Pride goes before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall.

You can keep up your pride for awhile, but it will lead to a downfall. Pride goes before a fall, is what Bobby's mother would say to him. Pride is dishonor; humility is wisdom.

Proverbs 11:2 When pride comes, then comes disgrace, but with the humble is wisdom.

Lesson #0165                      Proverbs 11 Wisdom in the OT                      12/6/2020 Sunday

Secular humanism; and the retail outlets hope for the season to boost their sales.

Attempt to remove Christ from Christmas.

Proverbs 11:2 [When pride comes, then comes disgrace \[or, *dishonor*\], but with the humble \[or, *grace oriented*\] is wisdom.](#)

V. 2 is basic to the Christian life. It compares pride of life (dishonor), versus humility, which is wisdom.

Do nothing from selfishness or empty conceit; regard one another as more important than yourselves.

Engenders objectivity and grace orientation. Focuses on something else than self. Focusing on the Person of Jesus Christ. Pride is the basic mental attitude sins which spawns so many other sins. We are unable to progress in the spiritual life. There is dishonor in that attitude of the...

Destructive pride brings down many people, including winners, to dishonor.

We admire winners and often winners are arrogant. We see the pride by the icon. We focus on ourselves via the icon, and we hope to become successful through arrogance. But if someone's hopes are dashed, because an icon crashes and burns.

An iconoclastic arrogance is one whose idol fails. The iconoclast is deluded by idealism or some romantic fantasy about one's ideal model. Idolizing so often occurs with celebrities. It can happen with leadership at any level. Even a pastor. It happened to Bob on more than one occasion. The iconoclast. The idol is put on a pedestal. The idolatry is from the person who puts him there. Every idol has a sin nature; and this is not always revealed. In a confused and angry state of mind, the iconoclast transfers his own mental attitude sins towards the idol. He attacks his previously adored idol. Tearing down of the idol built up in one's own mind. Sometimes an obsession is developed; and eradication of any person or system which does not live up to what the idolizer thinks he should. A vicarious pride in what another person does. It is as destructive to the admirer as to the... A team is only paid as good as their last season. Certain people excel and other fail. Failure is unacceptable to arrogance. They transfer pride to the one who is not failing. Anger, disdain, and judges and maligns. Arrogance becomes rampant in the iconoclast with devastating results. That is simply pride. This is one way for pride to become dishonor. Arrogance separates a person from objective reality...from self and from others.

Many of us can relate to the male who is the player, the womanizer, and thinks every woman is in love with him. "Every woman loves me and cannot help but want to be with me." He is persistent even to the point of being excessive. If she does not meet expectations, then she is ridiculed.

There is the prideful woman as well, who assumes that every male who looks at her is in love with her. She is impressed with her own beauty and desirability. She receives constant attention. She might be successful. She has become totally arrogant and divorced from reality. If rejected, she develops hatred and anger towards the one who rejects her.

Divine discipline is sometimes the only way to bring the believer back to earth.

We have so often have put our trust in whoever is elected, and that is fine, if that person follows divine institution and divine establishment. But when you put your trust in that person, look out for iconoclastic arrogance. You cannot put your trust first and foremost in that person alone. That precludes arrogance of all kinds.

Proverbs :19 it is better to be humble in spirit (which is a thought process, which comes from inside of you) with the lowly (with others who are grace oriented) with the humble is wisdom.

Prov. 16:19 It is better to be of a lowly spirit with the poor than to divide the spoil with the proud.

Humility and Looking at Yourself.

1. Human arrogance is offset by the ability to think and to relate yourself objectively to the spiritual life. When you relate yourself to the spiritual life and can apply wisdom, then you can be objective. Arrogance is entirely subjective.
2. The soul with wisdom is designed by God to offset the problem that every person can have; inordinate pride.
3. You will gain an ability to look at yourself, without a thought to how successful that you are or to your elevated status in this world. You can look at yourself with humility.

Leviticus 26:19–20 ...and I will break the pride of your power, and I will make your heavens like iron and your earth like bronze. And your strength shall be spent in vain [uselessly], for your land shall not yield its increase, and the trees of the land shall not yield their fruit.

People want power and that is what political leaders are all about. This passage describes just how God will bring down their power. This is an economic disaster in an agrarian economy, which is what Israel was.

Whatever you do, will not work. You cannot overcome the disaster brought on by divine discipline. You cannot overcome these things with your own success. The agrarian economy of Israel will be destroyed by this discipline; to take down the pride of Israel.

2Chron. 32:26 But Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD did not come upon them in the days of Hezekiah.

Hezekiah was arrogance and so were the inhabitants of Israel. They lost the pride of power; they lost their idolatry, which was iconic. They were about to be overcome and conquered; military conquest. Which meant rape, plunder, pillage and burn; and those who survived became slaves. The leadership and the people humbled themselves.

Another generation of Jews was destroyed over national arrogance. This is a warning. Isa. 9:12 The Syrians on the east and the Philistines on the west devour Israel with open mouth. For all this his anger has not turned away, and his hand is stretched out still.

National arrogance is severely punished. The grace and unfailing love of God still abides. National discipline affects all of us. How will this election end? We might not be recognizable as the old United States. What do you think about? How to do approach that in your own mind? Do you see the Constitution being subverted. Do you understand what all of this can mean on a personal level? But that is not your first priority. Our first priority is to remember the grace and unfailing love of God. Bobby prays that these things do not happen, but they might. We should stand up for the rule of law, for our rights, for divine establishment; but what if they fail? Where do your fears take you?

We as believers can only follow 1Peter 5:6–7 Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God so that at the proper time he may exalt you, casting all your anxieties on him, because he cares for you. There is no government or power which is greater than the power of God.

Sometimes a nation must be humbled in order to become humble. Maybe that is where we are going? There is a lot of arrogance in this country.

National pride is related to the fall of a people, like Moab in vv. 6–7. Rejecting the laws of divine establishment; those who reject humanistic ideas. Many churches have gone humanistic today. It's about love, without any basis, without any background, without any doctrine. They support groups who support Marxism and they claim, Jesus was a socialist. The term lawlessness refers to anti-establishment movements on a massive scale. A rejection of laws of divine establishment.

Matt. 24:12 And because lawlessness will be increased, the love of many will grow cold. Lawlessness is being used as a tool today. Where are the churches who say the answer is love? They grow cold. Humanism is the corporate self-centeredness. This verse refers to the terrible times during the Tribulation. Hatred of Christ. The pride of power; the arrogance of tyranny is rampant. Cold love is the result. This in any dispensation is no capacity to love. A harsh and unforgiving attitude.

Hatred of a people and a nation and a rise of humanistic ideology; and a destruction of freedom.

Then a grim thought followed by the solution. Mark 13:12–13 And brother will deliver brother over to death, and the father his child, and children will rise against parents and have them put to death. And you will be hated by all for my name's sake. But the one who endures to the end will be saved. This is love gone cold. This has happened all over. This happens in Marxists countries all over.

No matter what happens or how we recover, do not lose sight. Do not pity yourself and do not feel triumphant because your politics have won. This cold love is where we are going. We have to see it and recognize it and know it. We need the spiritual life to offset and overcome.

Proverbs 11:2 When pride comes, then comes disgrace [or, dishonor], but with the humble [or, grace oriented] is wisdom.

Lesson #0166

Proverbs 11 Wisdom in the OT

12/9/2020 Wed

With the streaming video, orders for teaching are coming in from all over the world. Sometimes there are personal letters. People are more inclined to send letters this time of the year. Unseen to us, many others are listening; many thanks for the streaming videos.

Some introductory defining points on Prov. 11:2:

Pride and Arrogance

1. Pride and arrogance is a universal subject.
2. It naturally belongs to all people individually.
3. This is an amalgam of every sin nature which has ever lived, to a greater or to a lesser extent.
4. It is the basic mental attitude sins. It occurs in the highest and lowest strata of society. Very arrogant people have wandered off the street and have decided to camp on the grounds, and they are very arrogant. This is the basic mental attitude sins of the human race.
5. There is a group arrogance; and even a national arrogance.
6. Prov. 11:2 defines the malady and the solution.

Proverbs 11:2 When pride comes, then comes disgrace [or, dishonor], but with the humble [or, grace oriented] is wisdom.

There is a lot of arrogance in our own nation and from many different quarters. Some groups lend themselves to more arrogance. National pride and arrogance means humanist thinking. Believers rejecting Bible doctrine and then going in for humanistic ideas.

The arrogance which reject the authority of Bible doctrine and divine establishment.

Matt. 24:12 And because lawlessness will be increased, the love of many will grow cold.

Lawlessness increases in a society and people's love grows cold. We might expect, and the nation is destroyed, or the nation is in trouble. It is a striking statement.

Cold Love

1. Cold love is a disregard about the needs of people. We should also understand the doctrine of impersonal love. That is not the way to live the Christian life. You must be able to have impersonal love, on a personal, political and state level.
2. Personal self-centered priorities. People love themselves above all else, which can include family. That is pure arrogance.
3. This includes rampant dishonesty and unfaithfulness to promote self at the expense of spouses, friends, business dealings. That includes corporate people as a group.
4. This is fertile ground for the rise of humanistic ideology and the rise of tyrannical government. Self-centered arrogant rulers. That affects the body politic and the nation.
5. This is when politicians serve themselves rather than their constituents. That is a national tragedy and it is very destructive. Mark 13:12 And brother will deliver brother over to death, and the father his child, and children will rise against parents and have them put to death.

Our schools are propaganda mills; and they are bombarded with Marxist and socialist views. We have seen the results in the streets. They are full of hate toward America, embracing Marxism to the core. They hate and are willing even to liquidate their enemies. Absolute treachery. This attitude is increasingly the case. Embraces socialism and some of the extremes of Marxism in the hall of government.

Marxism is the basis for communist and socialist countries and they inform on and betray neighbors who express anti-socialist thinking. This is documented in the rise of communism in China. This is true of children and parents.

Luke 21:16–17 You will be delivered up even by parents and brothers and relatives and friends, and some of you they will put to death. You will be hated by all for my name's sake.

This has happened in many countries which embraces Marxism. Reeducation for those who reject Marxist thinking; it includes starvation and torture, etc. Many executions for those who manifest anti-socialist behavior that is incorrigible.

Love Grown Cold

1. The informing on parents is a graphic description of love grown cold.
2. The result is disdain, contempt and finally hatred towards any opposition, large or small. We are seeing a lot of hatred in this country. Political correctness is an example of this. "Think the way I do or be ostracized or harmed."
3. This is especially directed towards believers. This is generally directed toward Jesus Christ and all things doctrinal.
4. The antagonism towards Jesus Christ builds. A gentleman in the church has give Bobby a book about Romania during the communist occupation. There were terrible things which happened to pastors and priests in terms of reeducation is almost too difficult to read. Only 40 years ago. The same people are alive and well in this country and they want the same result.
5. The cold grow colder under these circumstances; and the very bastion of divine love, Christ and Christianity are persecuted unmercifully. We are called haters; homophobes and racists. No you're not. The haters are the ones who charge you with it.
6. Anti-establishment types eaten up with the arrogance of Marxism will kill to establish humanistic evil. Isn't that what Satan does to anyone who gets in his way? Satan has been trying to rid the world of Christianity. He wants to kill anyone connected to Bible doctrine, Israel or anything else which is a part of the plan of God. Only in the Millennium will that change. In the end, there will be another revolution. That is the world that we live in.
7. These people will destroy a nation to imposed Marxism and socialism; and those laws are very self-centered. They are designed for the few over the many.
8. Marxists, socialists will turn on Christians as the #1 enemies. They are offering a millennial ideal, a utopia; it is a form of justice for everyone. People with sin natures cannot lead anyone into a humanist utopia. The very people they hate are the ones who they are. It must be imposed in order to survive. Such ideology and hatred is arrogance to the maximum effort.

We do not need to be afraid of it; but it is happening. We are in a client nation. We have the opportunity to represent Christ in ways never before seen. How we meet the enemy is dependent upon how much is in our souls. "I may not have the courage." Bobby prays that none of us will go throughout that. Courage comes from the understanding of Bible doctrine. Whatever situation that you find yourself in, that is your source, Bible doctrine.

Have you noticed the bent of the socialists who have power? They don't care about the will or freedom of the people; they believe that they know best. Some believe that humanist ways will save the planet and the human race and bring justice and equality.

Conclusion

1. Rejecting any phase of divine establishment, rule of law, authority-orientation, laws like those found in the Constitution. Not those designed to bring a utopia to the world or internationalism to our country. Objective rule of law. Along with that goes freedom. A restriction of freedom are bad laws. These become a springboard to inordinate pride in self, humanist ideology and inordinate trust in fallen humanity. Do not trust the sin nature. Paul said, "I don't trust myself in some situations."
2. From the arrogance of anti-establishment, tyranny is born. Bureaucrats tyrannize. We have all dealt with bureaucrats, or you get lousy service or none at all. They are not serving anyone or promoting freedom.
3. Government that promotes anti-establishment, socialist ideology, must become tyrannical to impose their objectives. They must impose their rule for the so-called collective good. Individual freedom is given up for the common good.
4. They pay no mind to the horrors of historical Marxism, which has been imposed on nations. They use revolution. It does not bring constructive change. We hear cries for revolution in this country. "Change is coming; we must have change." In a humanist context, that is very problematic. Change divine establishment; change the rule of law.
5. Communism has been a miserable failure everywhere it has been tried, because there is no wisdom in it. It is anti-Biblical; it is anti-divine establishment. It is anti-freedom. The Marxists, especially in this country, make excuses and make a course of annihilation. Heading of their humanistic utopia. Kill people for a utopia. Send them to reeducation camps where they never escape.

Many you should read and understand who they are. They are in the streets and in organizations. The founders of Black Lives Matter are communists; this is their background. Antifa is pure revolutionary Marxism. Christians are the most obvious target. The greatest hate of the arrogant socialist is Christianity. They seem to have no problem with Islam. Communism cannot allow for any religion, and their #1 enemy is Christianity; but they will go after other religions as well. They claim Christianity is a hateful group. Until recently, a vast number of Americans believed in marriage between one man and one woman. That has all changed.

When certain doctrines of Christianity are banned; we know that tyranny has arrived.

This is to open eyes in the nation. Nations will go down when they abandon their God. But the Lord is still with His people; believers in Christ no matter what the circumstances. Incredible testimonies. Courage that comes from spiritual maturity, utilizing the resources of Bible doctrine in the soul.

What are you prepared for? Do you think the little problems of your life are overwhelming? This is not to freak you out and find a communist under every rock. We need to be prepared for whatever happens. We pray for the things that happened in the last election will be rectified, but it won't. What are you prepared for; why are you here? So you can utilize the doctrine in your soul and be strengthened in the worst of circumstances.

How does such pride become so prevalent in a population? One individual at a time; and then a hardbound rush. That is where the war is being fought, in individual souls.

Arrogance Exploding

1. Since arrogance is an expanded opinion of self and a mental attitude, it is hypersensitive to opposition. Just watch a college campus when a conservative speaker comes. They riot, they picket, they scream, they demand the talk to be stopped.
2. When pride is challenged or injured, it contracts the soul, like a coiling snake. Like a rattlesnake pulling back.
3. Then the snake strikes and explodes arrogance on the outside. A buildup of arrogance on the inside which then explodes.
4. When arrogance is resident in enough people, the explosion seeks to impose evil on the nation.

Hangups are hypersensitive areas of life. The symptom of pride in the socialist may be guilt or a perceived injustice. The widening gap between the rich and the poor. Hypersensitive to these unjust conditions and they believe that they have the only solution, which is to destroy capitalism. Let's be truthful, which socialists are incapable of. People are not equal in the world. We're not. The only equality which can be assured as equal opportunity under the law to go as far as your effort and hard work will take you. There will always be poor and downtrodden; always there will be inequality. Partially inherent and partially bad decisions.

Social justice is imposed, it is not justice; it is anti-establishment. Socialism does not allow for the objective application of law. Socialism has 100% failure rate.

Seven Points

1. A person who lives on personal pride and arrogance is one who is never at ease. No relaxed mental attitude can be had like the one living on pride and arrogance.
2. The socialist is always struggling against some enemy; they are never at ease.

3. They are frustrated with the results of their humanistic schemes, which can never succeed.
4. There is always someone or something which interferes with their manipulations; and then they begin to eat their young. In their own ranks, they go after their own.
5. There is always fear in these people that someone is better or has more power.
6. That failure will show weakness and inability in some area. The solution is to destroy anything or anyone who destroys their self-esteem.
7. The arrogant person cannot abide by such an exposure of weakness; and the ineptitude carries over on a corporate level.

Degenerate people running a degenerate government. There is an antidote.

Lesson #0167                      Proverbs 11 Wisdom in the OT    12/10/2020 Thursday

Proverbs 11:2 When pride comes, then comes disgrace [or, dishonor], but with the humble [or, grace oriented] is wisdom.

Humility and Wisdom

1. With the humble is wisdom. Humility and wisdom are inseparable.
2. In contradiction to current thinking, true humility is a strength and not a weakness. Often arrogance is seen as a strength.
3. Humility is not related to having a low rank in life or to being humiliated.
4. Humility must never be defined in terms of legalism, self-effacement or asceticism, which are all forms of grace-disorientation.
5. Humility is both a system of thinking and a way of life. Directly related to the Christian way of life. It is a characteristic of that life.
6. As a system of thinking, humility is freedom from the arrogance or pride studied back in v. 2. Humility is freedom from self-centeredness. Lack of humility is simply a focus on self; humility is focus on the Lord. That is grace and doctrinal orientation.
7. As a way of life, humility is submission to legitimate authority. Anarchy is the furthest thing from humility. There is anarchy in our streets and little has been done about it. The authorities in Oregon do not seem to understand what is going on. No submission to legitimate authority. Many believers refuse to submit to the authority of Bible doctrine. They ignore some things because those things are inconvenient. It does not matter if it is inconvenient to your life. Bible doctrine is truth. We are mandated to live by it; it is our authority.
8. Everyone, believer and unbeliever, must set aside pride and arrogance and learn obedience. Obedience is a critical word. You need to learn obedience in the home, or you cannot adjust to life in general. We need to be able to live respectfully along side other people. We need to learn obedience and authority-orientation. In that authority-orientation is wisdom. With the humble, it is wisdom.

9. The believer must submit to the authority of the Word of God for the simple reason, for spiritual growth and maturity; to realize humility in the Christian life. You must have some authority orientation towards the one who is teaching. Bobby does a tremendous amount of work to bring doctrine to the church. Without this authority-orientation, there is no reason to come to Berachah Church.
10. The humble person, rather than being protective of an inflated self-image, is always receptive to objective truth and is therefore teachable. When we enter into the auditorium, we need to be teachable. So many people do not like the teaching from the pulpit; and many did not like Bob's personality. Being teachable means that you are willing to accept the authority of what is being taught.

The history of the church is fascinating. It is quite often the history of apostasy. The monks and the monasteries living as ascetics, living the humble life. They gave up everything; they gave away everything. They were humble, in their own minds.

Bobby read about a person who wrote a nasty letter to someone who had Christmas lights up. The underlying factor was animus towards Christianity.

Teachability

1. Teachability is capacity to listen. Some people did not listen; they would be looking around, talking; anything but listen. Bob would jerk them up to get their attention. Sometimes, this is a secret, that sometimes no one was doing anything wrong. To learn and to respond to authority. People often feel threatened by authority; or they think that they more important than any authority, which is total arrogance. Sometimes they feel inferior because they are not in charge. I ought to be in charge, because I am better than the person in charge. The opposite of humility. When you do not like the authority; when it rubs you the wrong way.
2. The arrogant person is so self-centered that their opinions come before truth and obvious facts. We have seen a lot of that; and those people are not teachable. They have no humility at all. Politicians whose opinions are more important that truth and facts, are arrogant.
3. For the unbeliever, the basis for humility is learning truth. The unbeliever cannot learn Bible doctrine because they do not have the filling of the Holy Spirit. What truth do they have to learn. Truth related to the laws of divine establishment. Today there is a great departure from that. There is no humility.
4. For the believer, an even greater virtue of humility is needed for learning spiritual truth, which is revealed in the Bible. Psalm 25:8-9

Humility is the basic ingredient for all Christian life.

Humility

1. The Biblical mandate of James 4:10 Humble yourselves in the presence of the Lord. That is a charge for all believers to be oriented to grace. This is possible through accepting the authority of the Bible. In the days of James and the days of the 1st advent, they literally humbled themselves before the Lord Himself; we humble ourselves before His thinking.

2. Grace orientation and humility go together; they cannot be separated. You must learn grace. It does not come naturally. Bobby learned grace in his home. What we achieve in life is based upon our own work and our own effort. This is what we are used to. Grace is not about what our skills are or how hard we work, but it is what God has done in us. Arrogance thinks, its about me; I can do this and that, and you can't. That is all arrogance.
3. Understanding God's grace policy and how little you deserve what He provides, beginning with salvation, continuing with the resources which He gives us. God gives us the power. That is His grace policy towards us. That motivates our humility. That is why grace orientation and humility cannot be separated. Grace orientation motivates us to humility. Grace orientation is all about God and His Word.
4. It is humility and grace orientation that manifest spiritual maturity. You are not mature if you lack humility; you cannot be mature without grace orientation. The whole spectrum of humility.

Spiritual Maturity

1. Spiritual maturity is remaining in fellowship; not just for 5 minutes or just for Bible class; but staying there for longer and longer periods of time. The more you are in fellowship, the more control that you have of the sin nature.
2. It means a consistent metabolizing of Bible doctrine; not just once a week. You must be consistent in doing so. You need an hour a day to offset the other 18 hours of human viewpoint that you hear. This never ceases. You never end learning Bible doctrine. It is not an end game; it is a continuous thing. When you do not advance spiritually, then you regress.
3. Spiritual maturity is maximum application of doctrine as wisdom to experience. That is what spiritual maturity should look like in your life.
4. The perpetuation of faith rest and spiritual self esteem, who you are in Christ, and what He has promised to do for you and to give you; plus, personal love for God and impersonal love towards man. One test is how well you concentrate on Jesus during that 30 or 45 minutes. Occupation with Christ means that you have His thinking in your soul and that you appreciate Him and you give Him His due for all that He has done for you. He is never out of your mind.
5. Spiritual maturity is a degreed matter.
6. Spiritual maturity include maximum production of divine good for eternal rewards. That comes with all of the other things that Bobby has mentioned.

Proverbs 11:2 When pride comes, then comes disgrace [or, dishonor], but with the humble [or, grace oriented] is wisdom.

This is not a command to demean oneself. The believer with humility submits to the authority of God through obedience to His Word. The believer with humility submits to the authority of God by being obedient to His Word. That believer evaluates every aspect of life in the light of divine wisdom. That is the Christian way of life. Relying on relative human wisdom is thinking more highly of yourself than you ought to think. That is anathema to humility and it is anti-divine wisdom.

Rom. 12:1–3 I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect. For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think with sober [sound] judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned.

A command to humility and the context is grace orientation. To think as so to have sound judgment. This is wisdom that requires humility. Arrogance leads to wrong thinking and to bad decisions and to the misapplication of knowledge.

People go to psychiatrists to understand themselves and they think that is wisdom, but true wisdom is Bible doctrine. The whole context of this is the spiritual life. God has assigned to each one of us a standard of thinking according to doctrine. That standard is wisdom.

Arrogance and the Christian Way of Life

1. Clearly arrogance is the major cause of fragmentation and problems among people. We may admire arrogance and think that an athlete is so good and they strut their stuff; but that is not the arrogance that we are talking about. We are talking about self-centered arrogance.
2. A standard of thinking according to doctrine establishes humility. This takes the place of arrogance. Putting yourself before God and before divine wisdom; and that is thinking of yourself more highly than you ought to think
3. A standard of thinking from doctrine includes motivation, actions, related to humility. That is the standard in action to you. The actions are all related to humility.
4. True humility is a learned skill. We are not born with it. This is the mode for the application of divine wisdom. We are mandated to be humble.

So with sound judgment and spiritual maturity, the believer has the humility to recognize and acknowledge something to self: failure, spiritual failure. Sometimes people cannot admit to failure at all in anything. You must be able to recognize failure.

You recover the Holy Spirit by naming your sins and you move forward in the plan of God. The plan of God is more important than you are. This puts failures behind you. No penance and no guilt complex which stymies the Christian life. A guilt complex is arrogance. You are thinking about yourself more than what God has done for you. Then you continue in obedience to the plan of God. That is wisdom and humility.

With doctrinal objectivity, the believer expresses humility in the sense of thoughtfulness towards others. The humble avoids the arrogance of others. The consistent mental attitude of humility. That is the basis for promotion in the spiritual life. And also, for heavenly reward, that glorifies Jesus Christ throughout eternity. Luke 14:11 James 4:6, 10 1Peter 5:5–6

An Application of Humility in Distinction from Pride

1. With humility, you can step outside of yourself. It is hard to put yourself into the shoes of others. Hard to put yourselves in the shoes of the Lord. You step outside of yourself, you can see yourself.
2. Your pride and your ego do not take first place in all of your thinking. When someone tweaks your ego, you think, I'll get back on them. That is not humility. Don't worry about the stuff that others do. Your ego is not the issue. It is never about you, in the spiritual life.
3. It is never about you; it is always about the grace of God. With grace and Bible doctrine, your mind is relegated to faith rest and a personal sense of destiny. You are inside of the plan of God and it does not matter if you succeed or fail. Your personal sense of destiny is being locked into the plan of God.
4. In that renovation to humility, rather than pride, is honor and true wisdom. That does not mean honor before people. Honor before the Lord. Those who honor before the Lord, He honors in return. Not everyone is honorable, but you are. This is how it works individually. If ego trumps everything, then you are blinded to wisdom. You may even react to constructive criticism. You may not be able to admit that you have a fault or that you have been wrong.

Pride negates wisdom. When you put yourself first, nothing can get in the way of you. And you will defend yourself until the end. Capacity for love and capacity for life disappear. How important is humility? With humility is wisdom; that is who you are. You cannot operate without humility; and you cannot operate without wisdom.

V. 3 moves in the same direction, but with a little different terminology.

Lesson #0168

Proverbs 11 Wisdom in the OT

12/13/2020 Sunday

Communion Sunday

Concentrate on the Person of the Lord Jesus Christ:

The birth was determined by God.

Berachah Church does not have a nativity scene; nor do we present a play, ending with everyone looking down at the Baby Jesus.

All of this goes back to eternity past.

John 1:1–3 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made.

The Lord was one of a kind. Like any baby in the cradle, He was weak and helpless; yet the real and visible Member of the Godhead. His humble birth did not diminish His Deity. He took on humanity because Deity could not be the Savior. Sovereignty cannot obey death; divine justice cannot take on sin; God can only condemn sin. Jesus became the essential fact upon which our salvation depends. His sinlessness was evidenced through that birth. The Lord was willing to take upon Himself the penalty for sin. All of the offerings could not begin to take away the sin of man. The reality came in the Person of Jesus Christ.

Isaiah understood and prophesied this virgin birth. Isa. 7:14 Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.

Adam's original sin carried dire repercussions for the human race. He was the federal head of the entire human race. The entire human race was seminally in Adam; we were all present in Adam as we are all derived from Adam. So we share Adam's corrupted nature.

Rom. 5:12 Therefore, just as sin came into the world through one man, and death through sin, and so death spread to all men because all sinned—

A declaration of the gospel, way back in the beginning. Gen. 3:15 I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and her offspring; He shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise His heel."

The Seed of the Woman anticipates the Lord Jesus Christ; and this is His first title. The sin nature is passed down through procreation through Adam; so Jesus must be born of a woman. Adam's seed perpetuated the sin nature. 1Cor. 22 In Adam, all die.

There was a difference in their sin; and a difference in the passing down of sin to us. For Adam was first formed, then Eve; and Adam was not deceived; but the woman, being deceived, was involved in the transgression. Both man and the woman were equally guilty and needed salvation. The woman was enticed, deluded, seduced. Adam was not deceived at all. Adam understood what He was doing. He took the fruit from the hand of the woman. He became the culpable one in the human race.

Why does the Scripture make an issue of their ways of sin? It made a difference in the means of salvation. The man was aware of what he was doing; the sin nature would be passed down through him. It is through the man's physical seed that pregnancy results. His progeny is born spiritually dead. The woman would suffer in pain. The woman will be preserved or delivered through the bearing of children. (1Tim.2:15). This makes no sense apart from the spiritual sense of this verse.

The only way that a child could come into this world is by a virgin conception. Salvation would come through this process, pathogenesis; not for the woman alone, but for the entire human race.

The Lord possessed a body, but He did not possess a sin nature. It was God Who announced the ultimate victory over Satan. "You will bruise Him on the heel," God said. Satan struck first; he brought man into sin and he believed that he frustrated the plan of God. But this prophecy was given to demonstrate that Satan did not win and he could never win.

The sinless humanity of Jesus Christ took upon Himself sins of the world. 1Peter2:24 He Himself bore our sins in His Own body on the cross, so that we might die to sin...

God revealed the exact lineage through whom Jesus would be born. David was promised a greater Son from his house. The Lord has sworn to David, a truth that He will not turn back,...I will sit on Your throne.

Matthew's gospel shows that Jesus had the legal right to the throne of David.

David had Nathan and Solomon as sons from Bathsheba. Luke's genealogy follows Nathan's line to Mary; Matthew follows Solomon's line to Joseph. Solomon's genetic progeny was cut off by the curse of Coniah. That line had to be recognized and documented. The Coniah curse is given. "I would pull you off and give you into the hands of those who would take your life."

Coniah was carried off captive; and the prophecy was that no one would follow Coniah. Jer. 22:30 Write this man down as childless...no man of his descendants will prosper." This does not mean that Coniah would not have children, but his line would be barred to the throne of David. The Coniah curse meant that the virgin pregnancy must occur through the line of Nathan. Joseph was a descendant of Coniah. He was the last person of that line who could have inherited the throne of David. God would not fail, as a promise to David. Grace turned Coniah's curse into blessing.

Joseph and the line of Coniah has no part in the pregnancy of Mary. Psalm 89:32-36 then I will punish their transgression with the rod and their iniquity with stripes, but I will not remove from him my steadfast love or be false to my faithfulness. I will not violate my covenant or alter the word that went forth from my lips. Once for all I have sworn by my holiness; I will not lie to David. His offspring shall endure forever, his throne as long as the sun before me.

The fullness of time was the right time for the Lord's birth. Great legalism and idolatry; man's works in contrast to God's work. When every religious system proved to be false, God brought Jesus into the world. This heralded a new relationship between man and God in the human race.

God chose Mary to be the human mother of the Lord; and Joseph would be the legal father. Before they came together, she was found to be with child by the Holy Spirit. The child was formed miraculously in the womb by God the Holy Spirit. The only virgin pregnancy known to the human race.

Joseph faced a dilemma with his upcoming marriage to Mary. There appeared to be adultery here. He considered, "Perhaps there is adultery here." They had made a marriage covenant, so he could divorce her. He could have made this divorce very public. Or he could go through a private ceremony before two witnesses.

God intervened. And her husband Joseph, being a just man and unwilling to put her to shame, resolved to divorce her quietly. But as he considered these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, do not fear to take Mary as your wife, for that which is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. She will bear a Son, and you shall call his name Jesus, for He will save His people from their sins." All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had spoken by the prophet: (Matt. 1:19–22)

Supernatural appearance of an angel in a dream. It was God's plan for Joseph to marry Mary; and not to set her aside. We know what Joseph did; we do not know what he thought. The salvation that Jesus came to offer Israel was spiritual and physical. Free forgiveness of sins, something which only God can do. He would redeem and reconcile Israel to God. He would take the throne and rule over Israel.

The angel announces that Jesus is the Deliverer. Zech. 9:9–10 Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout aloud, O daughter of Jerusalem! Behold, your king is coming to you; righteous and having salvation is he, humble and mounted on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey. I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim and the war horse from Jerusalem; and the battle bow shall be cut off, and he shall speak peace to the nations; his rule shall be from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth.

Matt. 1:22 the angel tells Joseph that this is the fulfillment of God's promise through the prophet Isaiah.

God would give the people a sign, the sign of the virgin birth. The fact that this takes place historically continues to be a sign to Israel; and a sign to all of humanity. The promise and the sign of Isa. 7:14 is repeated to Joseph.

Matt. 1:23 "Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall call his name Immanuel" (which means, God with us).

Matt. 1:24–25 When Joseph woke from sleep, he did as the angel of the Lord commanded him: he took his wife, but knew her not until she had given birth to a son. And he called his name Jesus.

Mary did marry Joseph; and she had more children, by Joseph. Mary also sinned personally. She played an important part. She is not the Mother of God. She is not to be set apart to be some kind of divine essence to be worshiped or prayed to.

Mary was reduced in prominence and Jesus received all of the glory. The Eternal Logos of John 1, Jesus became something that He was not before. We saw His glory as the Glory of God. Jesus had a glory as the 2nd Member of the Trinity. Jesus is the expressed image of God's Person, Hebrews 1:3. In the form of man, Jesus revealed the glory of God to all mankind. He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of his nature, and he upholds the universe by the word of his power. After making purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high,...

Light shall shine out of darkness....the face of Jesus Christ.

Today, we have a better view of God's glory than the people saw in that era. We have the complete written Word of God. God's glory could not take the Lord to the cross. Jesus became glory in the flesh; the unique Person of the human race. As the God-man, the highest.

Though we are totally undeserving and totally undeserving. God the Son thought about us when He bore in Himself the agony of the penalty for our sins. For God so loved the world that He gave His Only begotten Son.

Adam's gift to us was sin and death; the Lord's gift to us is salvation. This is the matchless gift of Christ and salvation. That is what the virgin birth means.

Lesson #0169

Proverbs 11 Wisdom in the OT 12/16/2020 Wednesday

I need to check this number and the previous one.

Proverbs 11:2 When pride comes, then comes disgrace, but with the humble is wisdom.

Leads into v. 3.

Proverbs 11:3 The integrity of the upright guides them, but the crookedness of the treacherous destroys them.

Integrity, upright, guides important words; followed by crookedness and treachery.

What

1. Divine wisdom is the basic ingredient for integrity.
2. Be guided by integrity or be ruined without it.
3. The contrast in this verse is between the upright, those who are humble with wisdom and humility; and those who live by the principles of integrity. The second part of the contrast is the crooked. Recent treachery and it will destroy them. It is their own problem and their own character will destroy them. That should be comforting. We fall under God's protection.
4. Those who use treachery are harmed or destroyed by it, rather than by elevated by it. Many in life follow a crooked course in treachery. Instead of following integrity.

Crookedness Versus Integrity

1. How do they cover their crookedness; they try to make their crookedness appear straight.
2. It is a course that subverts, redefines or even mimics integrity.
3. It is a relative course that guides their lives.
4. In actuality, their integrity is a sham; it is hypocrisy and it returns evil on their heads.
5. Today, in our society, that appearance of integrity takes the form of making good evil; and making evil seem to be good. "What was integrity is no longer integrity; and it is called progressive."

There are those whose lives are being guided by Antifa and Black Lives Matter. They see their goals as being worthy and they emulate their tactics. Behind them, they are Marxists. Their leaders are all Marxists. This ideology has enslaved people everywhere it has raised its ugly head.

Cultural changes here. Good is called evil; and evil is called good. LGBTQ, which destroys the idea of RM/RW; or that the nuclear family can be replaced. Or replaced by a children "raised by a village." The legalization of harmful and destructive drugs; and we will get plenty of money by taxing it. The defunding of police and the rampant crime that will follow it. We let people out of jail because of poverty. It fits their ideology, and it is all a bag of lies. These are the indicators of a crooked departure from national integrity. Defined by divine establishment and by the Word of God. A false life; and humanistic garbage in the soul. The problem of a lack of integrity; living a lie and being a liar. Being subversive, being disingenuous.

What Is the Divine Guidance for the Believer Who Wants to Live with Integrity

1. It is what the will of God is for our lives, which is divine establishment and Bible doctrine. As far as divine guidance goes, there is a book for that.
2. The positive volition of the free will of man is....God has a plan and will for this world. That requires the positive volition of the free will of man. All of this is dependent upon volition.

3. Positive volition toward doctrine and the inculcation of wisdom is always involved. It has to be. How can you be guided by God unless you have the wisdom that defines that guidance; which is the plan of God.
4. Divine guidance is based upon the wisdom which we have absorbed in our souls. This means we are living a life of integrity. This leads us in the plan of God.
5. We understand and we are guided by the will of God like His wisdom in our souls; and there is the rub for all of this. We make good decisions based upon wisdom in our souls. We cannot understand the will of God without wisdom and the application of it.
6. Therefore, we make decisions based upon divine wisdom to follow the way of integrity. This is inherent to God's will and wisdom.
7. We may not follow and obey based upon our bad decisions and by the leading of worldly wisdom from the cosmic system. Plenty of things called wisdom out there which is not wisdom at all. Anything else is not wisdom.

How do believers reach the point of decision to live and follow the will of God.

How Do We Do It?

1. We must have some idea of what the will of God is. The very first step is to know it. His will and guidance are the standard of integrity. God will guide us in our lives if His doctrine is the point of reference in our lives. It is wisdom that we can apply.
2. A definition of divine guidance: it is the communication of divine will through divine revelation.
3. Therefore, it is obvious that divine guidance must be based upon the Bible itself. Anything outside of the Bible is not divine guidance; it is not the will of God. It does not produce integrity. It is the thinking of Christ. It becomes applied wisdom in our lives.
4. His Word and the application of His wisdom is the only way we can objectively know what God requires of us. If we do not know what God requires of us, how can we have integrity? Without integrity, we are crooked.
5. One thing is clear, divine integrity is never relative, it is never what I want it to be, and it is never subjective, because God is not relative or subjective.
6. Therefore subjective experiences and/or mystical experiences are not a guide to the spiritual life. How many times has someone said they have had a dream or they think God is telling them something or they feel what God's will is. Getting revelation apart from the Word of God. New revelation never coincides with the Word of God.

Subjectivity is never the criterion for divine guidance. These are very exclusive; they only belong to the individual. It is personal and subjective; and it cannot be applied to all believers. These experiences of some sort of new wisdom are not objectively verifiable. They are objectively unverifiable. Just saying that it is divine guidance does not make it so. "I am being guided by God and you need to follow me." That is the ultimate in subjectivity. The spiritual life becomes a subjective experience. This is superimposed over objectively growing in grace and knowledge. "I would rather guide myself by something I feel or have seen or have experienced," rather than subject oneself to the authority of a pastor-teacher in order to gain divine wisdom. That is when integrity becomes relative. It then lacks absolute standards. God is absolute, His integrity is absolute. These standards only come from the Bible.

There is plenty of subjective experience in the Christian life. Tongues is an example of that. No one can understand it, no one can interpret it; yet now tongues becomes my spiritual life. Healing services; prophecies of the church. There are no prophecies concerning the church in the Bible. Eastern meditation, dreams or drug-induced experiences; or direct communication from the Holy Spirit (something that they think is happening to them). And most of these doctrines live outside Biblical parameters. This is how every cult begins. It never will be; it cannot be. Such subjectivity always degenerates into, what is it that I want to do? Or they decide, what is my spiritual truth?

Such people do what is right in their own eyes. How do you know God's standards without objective teaching? That is the avenue to liberal theology today, which is nothing more than mainline progressivism. They are falling right in line with the Marxists, progressives and the humanists.

Subjective Thinking and the Christian Life

1. Believers cannot base truth upon personal experience. You cannot base doctrinal application on person experience; either yours or someone else's.
2. Neither can you base your doctrinal application of wisdom on what you see other Christians doing or failing to do.
3. You cannot understand your situation or solve your problems using another person's subjective thinking.
4. Humanism is opposed to divine guidance. It is opposed to divine wisdom. It is opposed to Bible doctrine. It is opposed to integrity. It is the crookedness of treachery.
5. You must inculcate objective divine wisdom to have integrity. There is no other way. This is not just about morals (and morals are important). Morals are also based upon absolute standards as well. You can find morality in the Mosaic Law. Whatever departs from that is immorality. That falls short of the Christian life. Even morality falls short of the Christian life.
6. Objective thinking is necessary in order to know the will of God. That is where we run into all sorts of different answers. God's will is my will they say.

Bible Doctrine Is the Source of the Will of God

1. Bible doctrine always contains the will of God for us. It is the standard for integrity.
2. Bible doctrine always defines the way of integrity and wisdom. Bible doctrine defines the way of integrity and wisdom that guides us in the spiritual life. There is no other way to be guided in the spiritual life.

3. The wisdom that we attain is the standard of integrity. With wisdom, you can discern the subtle differences. That is our integrity.
4. The will of God must be specifically determined for each of us; not by ourselves. You cannot figure out the will of God without having wisdom. You must accept and follow that integrity. We must live with integrity.

That is what this verse says. That is the first line.

All believers, every one of us are on the same team. We have the same spiritual life. We have the same Holy Spirit and the same pathway. Our playbook must be the same. All parts of the body must move in tandem. Legs must all be going in the same way. No room for the Christian maverick.

God has a strategy; we cannot depart from it. It demonstrates humility and wisdom; otherwise we do not function. We cannot win.

How Do We Distinguish His Will for Us So That We Can Comply?

1. We must be aware of His directives.
2. Those commands are only found in the Bible.
3. The guidance of, what is the will of God for me.
4. To depart from that objectivity is to enter the realm of the relative. That is the enemy of the integrity.
5. Integrity is always linked to God's will, as understood through the mandates of the Bible and the application of wisdom.
6. God allows for us to make decisions from our free will. He allows that.

We are enveloped in this integrity.

The Overruling Will of God.

1. There is also the overruling will of God, taking up the slack for making decisions outside the will of God.
2. This is connected with God's plan for human history. So now we are talking about the greater plan and how we fit into it.
3. Despite failures, God's plan for human history will be accomplished. Psalm 76:10
4. The overruling will of God frustrates Satanic will. Satan has many weapons, like humanism. God is never defeated and He protects His Own.
5. This is a corporate view of God's will. The integrity of a pivot inside of a client nation is very important. We cannot afford to go relative or to be hoodwinked by the humanism all around us. We are the salt of the nation, then there is no preservation of the client nation.
6. The overruling will of God allows for the maximum fulfillment of the client nation.

Proverbs 11:3 The integrity of the upright guides them, but the crookedness of the treacherous destroys them.

Lesson #0170                      Proverbs 11 Wisdom in the OT    12/19/2020 Thursday

The illustrations from these proverbs are limitless.

Proverbs 11:3 The integrity of the upright guides them, but the crookedness of the treacherous destroys them.

An antithetical parallel between the two lines in this verse. Each word parallels another. What is integrity; and who is them? Them is the believer in Jesus Christ who has humility. Such a person with humility lives, guided by the principle of integrity and wisdom; and not the way of treachery. Integrity is a very important word in this verse; and important for our life.

The Word Integrity

1. Tûmmâh (תַּמָּה) [pronounced toom-MAW], which means integrity; innocence. Strong's #8538 BDB #1070.
2. Divine establishment norms in the unbeliever with integrity; for the believer, this is Bible doctrine in the soul of the believer.
3. Freedom from wrongdoing.
4. Integrity begins with a good set of standards which are applied. Standards are somewhat rare in our country today.
5. A mindful of integrity is mind filled with wisdom. That is uprightness. These are the norms and standards for living. The opposite of the corrupt person. How do you know the corrupt person if you lack standards?

Integrity and Crookedness

1. Integrity and crookedness are not relative concepts. It is muffled in their thinking because they make both terms relative.
2. You do not get to decide what is integrity and what is not. Not our decision to make.
3. There is no societal choice for the definition of integrity. It is not based upon circumstances. Integrity guides us in circumstances.
4. The standard by which the person of integrity and society lives must be a set standard. The standard does not change with the circumstances.
5. Crookedness is deviation from that which is correct and right. The critical point here is the set standard. For the unbeliever, good standards come from the rule of law and from divine establishment. Our standards come from the absolute standards of Bible doctrine and the application of divine wisdom.
6. A wife with relative who is subjective; deciding what is right and wrong based what we think it is at any given time. That is not a standard. No standards reflects a crooked or immoral character. Standards carry with them a certain authority.

Those without such standards, they do not have the set of standards. They do not have the authority orientation. They govern your life.

7. The standard is set by divine establishment, by divine institutions (which are under attack all of the time), Internationalism is the order of the day. Law sets standards; but the standards of law are not often kept. That is when injustice comes in. That is when people want to change the rule of law to something that is much less right.

Proverbs 11:3 The integrity of the upright guides them, but the crookedness of the treacherous destroys them.

They do not adhere to any standard other than their own. They are secretive or sneaky. Such a person will overthrow, subvert, pervert divine establishment, divine institutions, Bible doctrine. There is a reject of divine establishment, the rule of law and the standards of divine wisdom. Then these standards become relative.

Bible doctrine is the only true absolute in this world. Divine institutions are absolute as well. Divine wisdom in any of those areas.

Today, standards are not based on divine establishment, on the rule of law, not on divine institutions; they are based upon political affiliations. Today, I back this bill; tomorrow I don't. The standards are not set. People can be bought off or persuaded to the evil side, if they are corrupt to begin with. They do not adhere to any set of standards. Not of morality, or of establishment. They are applied to one set of standards to people; but not to another. Rampant in this society.

The Crooked, Treacherous Person Finds Destruction

1. This carries the connotation of personal ruin. Might be family, marriage, financial. It can refer to divine punishment or judgment.
2. The wicked, being evil, are ultimately thwarted or destroyed; by their own self-indulgent arrogance; and by the justice of God.
3. This reject of divine establishment leads to the destruction of a nation and the society; we are seeing that right now.
4. It is a downward spiral. From morality, from freedom, from family, from marriage. This is the backbone of any client nation.

The opposite of this is ruin and destruction. A good example of this is Sodom. Also a reference to believers who overthrow or reject doctrine in their lives. If you do not advance in doctrine, then you will retreat. People who retreat, believers, become very confused about relative humanism, which they think is parallel to their Christian beliefs. If they have standards and set them aside, it is open season on them. Ultimately, they are souls that are blacked out. Undiscerning, vulnerable to humanism in all of its forms. Churches are lining up with humanist viewpoints; and they are basing this on racism; and they have a guilt complex because there were slaves in this country at one time. Now they want to give reparations to those who were never slaves paid for by people who never owned slaves.

There is a term going around, white privilege. If you are not white, then you are obviously oppressed. These are fundamental to Antifa and Black Lives Matter. The oppressed races have received billions of dollars; and their lives are now worse than they were before. We are all one in Jesus Christ. We are believers in Jesus Christ; we are one in Christ; one body, all of us. The world does not understand that. No standards in that area.

Believers without doctrine are confused by that. The greatest thing that you can do to fight racism is to give someone the gospel of Jesus Christ. Divine establishment speaks of freedom; and there is no distinction between races. And the government is not brought in to every life to solve every problems. The point is, set standards, where do they come from? Without these standards, we go to humanism or to Marxism.

Proverbs 11:3 The integrity of the upright guides them, but the crookedness of the treacherous destroys them.

This does not mean a loss of salvation. But destructive reversionism ruins the believer's life.

Destroy is the Hebrew verb shâdad (שָׂדַד) [pronounced shaw-DAHD], which means to be strong, to be powerful; to oppress, to destroy, to lay waste, to deal violently with, to ruin, to despoil, to devastate. Strong's #7703 BDB #994.

Believers who are confused and many unbelievers; then we have a nation which is headed to divine judgment. Nothing is more destruction to a people or a nation is relative humanism that exists apart from divine establishment. Nothing is more destructive to the spiritual life than to be ignorant of Bible doctrine. Hence to have no standards in the spiritual life. Any deviation from this brings confusion.

The value of integrity is affirmed; negatively and positively.

The upright are guided by God, by the wisdom. We have good standards and we violate those standards all of the time. The more mature you are; the more you stay in fellowship, the more inviolable those standards become. Those standards are your life; they are your integrity. When you are spiritually mature, you would rather die than violate you standards.

Some people would rather die than surrender. They never gave up; they fought to the bitter end. Their feats were incredible. We should be heroes for our entire life.

We have seen lately in this whole movement to defund the police and to do things which have never been done before, there are unusual things happening. They are arresting people, take their mug shot, put them in jail, and then they let them out...no bail. At least with bail, they lose a lot of money. The wicked, treacherous, live on their own wit; that is what they want to do. They are devastated by the crookedness and they are judged by God.

Proverbs 11:4 Riches do not profit in the day of wrath, but righteousness delivers from death.

Another antithetical parallel. Is it dependence upon wealth, our good life on earth? Or is it righteousness before God that delivers us from death and from the day of wrath.

More Points

1. This day of wrath is a very important term. It is pertinent to today. It may be any crushing catastrophe. It can be humanism, which excludes God from everything; and it elevates man.
2. It may be a day of retribution for the individual sinner for overall departure from all divine standards. Those who have no standards of any kind.
3. Yet, the Old Testament prophets, the day of wrath has a national significance, which is also very significant to us.
4. Zeph. 1:15 A day of wrath is that day, a day of distress and anguish, a day of ruin and devastation, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick darkness,... Grim day.
5. There is an ominous imminence of a coming judgment. It is bad and it is coming quick.
6. Zeph's prophecy refers to God's judgment against Israel. Israel had a tendency of chasing after the things their foreign neighbors did. They acted like their pagan neighbor. They worshipped false gods and idolatry. It was time to return to the Lord or to face the consequences. We need some integrity here or face the consequences.
7. God would send forth His judgment; like lightning bolts from a dark mass of clouds. Bobby has spent many times on a porch over a golf course looking at an incredible lightning storm. It would strike suddenly and devastate whatever it hits. A day of wrath.
8. However, judgment would be precluded with a return to the Lord by Israel. They could avoid the judgment, if they would just return to the Lord and His standards.
9. There was hope and protection for the remnant who clung to the Lord. All of this prophecy from the Bible comes true.
10. This indicates an inevitable destruction of evil; or a nation in the same shape. A nation which has excluded God and has embrace humanism in any of its forms. The people of Judah responded to Zephaniah. This took place during the time of Josiah; and he was a good king and the people paid attention. But this judgment did come, eventually.
11. This same phrase, the day of wrath, in the context of Prov.11:4 indicated the crowing catastrophe of death and destruction of a person or a nation. That is, crooked and treacherous.

Bob was looking at this reference to Zephaniah and there are 3 chapters; and this is a little book for our time. But what he says to Israel; he might as well be teaching us.

The measure of a true nation is righteousness and not wealth.

Proverbs 11:4 Riches do not profit in the day of wrath, but righteousness delivers from death.

Listed as #171, but probably #0001 Xmas message.

As a believer in the Lord Jesus Christ, we have a critical message to the world; there is no other like this. And at no time is this message more visible than now. We have the message of the Christian at Christmas time. This might be the only time unbelievers think about Jesus Christ. He is our good news; He is our eternal lifelines.

What exactly does Christmas mean?

2Cor. 5:18 All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation;

2Cor. 5:19 that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to Himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation.

Bobby is going to primarily focus on, ...in Christ God was reconciling the world to Himself...

For most, Christmas means the beginning of the life of a good man. But for the unbeliever, this was not the beginning of the God-man's earthly life. He was a very unique Man; the uniquely-born Son.

Even more than just a normal man or woman. Human life interests so many people today. Humanists believe that man is the greatest fact; life after death does not exist. So many have devoted so many of their lives to studying great literature and philosophy, which holds the great thoughts of mankind. They study anthropology, to understand the customs and interactions between various groups of men. They want to understand their own lives; and to them, there is nothing greater than their own lives.

This is like the person who tries to lift himself up by lifting up his own shoelaces. Man is finite and lost. No one can be lifted up beyond their own faults and sins. Man cannot get past his lost nature, and man is not growing into something better or greater. Man cannot understand himself without understanding the permanence of his fallen nature.

We are separated from God, despite of the good that we sometimes do. In short, man needs salvation from himself. He can never elevate himself to a form of deity. He cannot reach a status of perfection on his own. That should be obvious, but it is not to the humanist, who has nothing to cling to besides itself.

God initiated the Christmas event.

God was in Christ, from birth. God, infinite and almighty, lay in the manger, in the light of that good news, the birth of Jesus Christ. The pronouncement of that birth in Luke 2:7

Luke 2:7 And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in swaddling cloths and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

Jesus is the uniquely-born one; the only one born of a virgin. Undiminished Deity and complete humanity in One Person. ...to reconcile the world to Himself...

All the devices or machinations of man could not effect this reconciliation. Man can never live up to God's perfect standards of righteousness and justice. God must reject man's feeble efforts because His perfect integrity cannot be violated. That can never be the way that God initiates a relationship with man.

The 2nd Person of the Trinity Who is without sin, but equal to God in every way.

Acts 4:12 And there is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved."

Thank God that He did not remain hidden behind stars, but to speak to us in the form of His Son.

Heb. 1:1-4 Long ago, at many times and in many ways, God spoke to our fathers by the prophets, but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world. He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of his nature, and he upholds the universe by the word of his power. After making purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, having become as much superior to angels as the name he has inherited is more excellent than theirs.

That child spoken of in Hebrews 1 is Jesus Christ, the child in the manger of Bethlehem. He sought to make Himself known to His less-than-deserving creatures. We see the only manifested revelation of God, in that humble manger. That is why the magia traveled so far.

John 14:10 Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own authority, but the Father who dwells in me does his works.

John 14:11 Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me, or else believe on account of the works themselves.

God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself.

This was not a complete revelation of God.

That moment in the manger was only the beginning.

The child was wrapped in swaddling clothes, also known as death cloths. These foreshadowed His future.

From the moment we are born, we move towards death; but the Lord was born for that purpose. His words were the very words of God, so that we might see Him; that we might understand God. It is impossible to separate the event of Bethlehem, the birth of the Lord; from the death of Jesus Christ on Cavalry. These events are separate by 30 years, but these events are eternally linked. The incarnated Son of God was born to make atonement for spiritually dead mankind. He was born to atone for our sins. He was born the central figure of history. The Lord died as the world's only Savior. Many people call those they admire, saviors; or they call soldiers saviors.

But no one else was born of a virgin, died for our sins, and was raised 3 days later. He reconciled man to God through His substitutionary death.

Matt. 1:20–21 But as he considered these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, do not fear to take Mary as your wife, for that which is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. She will bear a son, and you shall call His name Jesus, for He will save His people from their sins."

The angel named Jesus.

The angels appeared to the shepherds and say, "Do not be afraid."

Luke 2:8–11 And in the same region there were shepherds out in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And an angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were filled with great fear. And the angel said to them, "Fear not, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord.

His death is announced along with His birth. The link between the Lord's birth and our salvation on the cross.

Luke 2:12 And this will be a sign for you: you will find a baby wrapped in swaddling cloths and lying in a manger."

John 3:17 For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him.

We are born judged.

Through death He might render him powerless.

Only 5 chapters in the New Testament devoted to the birth of Jesus. But 35 of 39 books of the Old Testament deal with the revelation of the birth of Jesus Christ. Jesus is the fulfillment of these Old Testament prophecies.

Gen. 12:3 Jesus would be the descendant of Abraham. Messiah would be the descendant of Isaac (Gen. 17:19); fulfilled by Jesus. Descendant of Jacob in Num 24:17. He would be from the tribe of Judah. He would be the heir to the throne of David. Isa. 9:7; Luke 1:32–33. He would be born in Bethlehem, Micah 5:2; fulfilled. Born of a virgin in Isa.7:14. His birth would trigger a slaughter of children, Jer. 31:15. Messiah would come out from Egypt, Hosea 11:1. He left Palestine when Herod was chasing Him and returned from Egypt.

These passages are all fulfilled written 500–1500 years before His birth. God revealed these things to mankind, so that all Jews would be able to recognize the Lord, so that they might understand Who Jesus is and what He would do. Through all of this, they rejected Him. They wanted the crown before the cross; they wanted the king before the Savior. They wanted a physical liberator from Rome, rather than a spiritual liberator from their sins.

One final aspect to the birth advent. The Bible speaks of two advents.

Luke 1:30–33 And the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. And behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus. He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. And the Lord God will give to him the throne of his father David, and he will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end."

Mary knew this before Jesus was even born. His birth is linked to the throne of Israel, which is the 2nd advent. His humiliation in the 1st advent to the throne in the 2nd advent.

Jesus was mocked as the King of the Jews at His crucifixion, but this was offered to mock Him. The second coming of Christ is to rule. He will be crowned and not mocked. Then his millennial reign will occur.

Paul speaks of the rapture or the exit-resurrection of the church.

1Thess. 4:15–17 For this we declare to you by a word from the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will not precede those who have fallen asleep. For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a cry of command, with the voice of an archangel, and with the sound of the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will always be with the Lord.

Jesus was born, He died for our sins, and He will return to take His hand over His kingdom. Happy holidays means nothing. Gifts, family, parties, pleasure; but for most, there is no Christ in Christmas. Even among Christians who put up nativity scenes or have pageants with a theater of this birth, there is confusion. This birth message is so far beyond the lip service given to it by the Lord. This is the message which has to do with God Himself and His incomparable gift to all mankind. God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself. This is the message to the world; and it is our message to the world. This is the greatest message that has ever been told.

When you are grace oriented and doctrinally oriented, that too allows our crown to shine. That message to others is all about our Savior and Lord.

Proverbs 11:4 Riches do not profit in the day of wrath, but righteousness delivers from death.

We are going to concentrate on the word righteousness today.

What is most useful when any disaster strikes. Is it wealth or is it righteousness? This verse does not tell us that riches or wealth are bad. It can bring an attitude of superiority or pride; and some people rely on wealth to save them. Especially to keep them from worry and anxiety; even to somehow cheat death (although, they have no idea how). You cannot buy your way out of divine judgment. You cannot cheat death by having wealth. Wealth cannot be retained by the dead person. You cannot buy your way into heaven.

Righteousness does not preclude the inevitability of death or having wealth; but it does preclude judgment.

Righteousness Versus the Materialists

1. Since the atheist rejects God, he can only be a materialist.
2. Materialism may be defined as material possessions, such as wealth or physical comfort.
3. It may be defined as a philosophy that nothing exists except for matter. It must be empiricist or rational.
4. The humanist fits this materialist category. This is the underlying philosophy of the humanist.
5. Anything of a spiritual nature, like God or divine establishment, does not exist in their minds. These things have no bearing on their lives. What matters in life? It is wealth; having possessions; having more than someone else.
6. This includes the relative person, who makes his own rules and lives by them in life. There here and now person.
7. Their philosophy in life is to take of the material things, the prosperity. The things that you can get during a lifetime, because there is nothing after death.

So what counts for this kind of person? What can be had by prosperity in this kind of life. Wealth or approbation. Righteousness is not paramount in this person's life. Especially the righteousness found in this verse. Wealth does not deliver. Delivery from destruction. What is the necessary righteousness or destruction that are mentioned?

Righteousness in this Life

1. Righteousness can refer to a temporal life well lived. A life of good deeds or integrity.
2. That certainly has a connection with divine mandates and divine establishment in living life. Even deliverance from judgment in disaster. That is in distinction from evil deeds, national degeneracy. It cannot save a person from the finality of death.
3. In order for righteousness to deliver individually, it must be a saving righteousness from death and from final destruction.
4. Plus it must be a righteousness that is pleasing to God. Morality and good deeds can be performed by unbelievers. They are condemned.
5. Righteousness here are two things:
  - a. It is imputed righteousness
  - b. And it is experiential righteousness.
6. This is a vindicating righteousness that is so much more than just human good deeds or morality. But what we have here by way of righteousness is far beyond that.

Imputed righteousness is imputed by God. God is the definition of righteousness and perfection; He is without sin. This verse makes it clear that we can have that righteousness. This is to the believer at the moment of faith in Christ. This is given to us, according to Gen. 15:6 Rom.3:22 4:3-5 When we express faith in Christ, God is free to credit into our account His perfect righteousness. We have a bank account of zero, and suddenly, we have all the wealth in the world in a split second; righteousness is imputed to our account.

But how can He do that to those who are unrighteous and are sinners? We do not deserve it. This is because all sins were imputed to Jesus Christ on the cross. We will still sin in this life. God gives us the status of perfect righteousness in His sight. We are perfect righteousness and because of it, we will not be judged in eternity. This is called a judicial imputation. Divine righteousness is imputed to us, even though we have no natural affinity between ourselves and perfect righteousness. We are all depraved in that sense.

Relativism has made degeneracy normal; but that is not the depravity that we are talking about here. That is living in degeneracy. But all men are sinners. Sin is removed. That does not change. We still have sin in our lives; but Christ has paid that penalty. We have life in our living, but imputed righteousness in our lives.

The Imputed Righteousness of God

1. Believers have been freely given the divine righteousness that delivers us from death. This is the righteousness.
2. That righteousness is the guarantee that God's righteousness in us and His justice that condemns now accepts us as believers.
3. That righteousness delivers from eternal death to eternal life. That is why we are acceptable to God. We possess His righteousness; He gave it to us. That is the power of the cross.
4. The believer will die physically, but he will not face eternal punishment in the Lake of Fire because he or she possesses God's Own righteousness. That is the grace of God; that is the atonement of Jesus Christ.
5. The justice of God must condemn all unrighteousness; every person is born spiritually dead.

If we have God's righteousness, then we cannot lose it.

God pronounces us at the moment of faith in Christ justified. This is even though we continue to sin in this life.

Divine justice is then free to sustain the believer in life and to impute the blessings of spiritual assets and spiritual maturity. We are given resources with which to use during our lives.

Experiential Righteousness Which We Have for this Life

1. The blessings that we are given, which provides for an experiential righteousness in the believer's life. We now have God's righteousness imputed to us.
2. This experiential righteousness, which is living the spiritual life in fellowship with God the Holy Spirit, and that is what delivers believers from adversity and from temporal judgment.
3. How does it do that? By means of the resources available to us in the mature spiritual life. This is a righteousness that advances; it becomes a greater righteousness in life.
4. Experiential righteousness is the integrity and spiritual capacity that is developed by the believer in his or her post salvation life. This is a progression and advance of righteousness in our lives. It is much more than just relative. It is our spiritual service before the Lord.
5. Experiential righteousness is a synonymous term with Godliness. This is a term that we often see in the New Testament.
6. Godliness is used in the New Testament to refer to the lifestyle of the believer living in obedience to God's mandates. 1Tim. 6:11 2Peter 1:6-7
7. Experiential righteousness is potential; it is not assured after salvation. Imputed righteousness is assured. The believer must make repeated decisions continuous decisions to learn and apply God's Word. We must make decisions to advance in spiritual righteousness. We must advance and remain in fellowship longer and longer times. Experiential righteousness encompasses the entire spiritual life. We become more and more and more mature. As we gain more and more experiential righteousness.

8. These two righteousnesses cover the righteousness of v. 4. See how detailed that term is?

Experiential righteousness is godliness.

The eternal is connected to the temporal when it comes to this righteousness. As mature believers, fulfilling the mandate to experiential righteousness, godliness. We produce not human good but divine good.

When we stand before the Throne of God, what we have done on earth lasts for eternity. We cannot take wealth with us, but we can take experiential righteousness with us. The upright, the righteous, are guided by this righteousness.

Proverbs 11:4 Riches do not profit in the day of wrath, but righteousness delivers from death.

Now we have the background of righteousness; but we have two more verses to cover on this topic.

V. 5 are two thoughts which are antithetical. All of these verses are so practical and applicable for us today.

Proverbs 11:5 The righteousness of the blameless keeps his way straight/smooth, but the wicked falls by his own wickedness.

Proverbs 11:6 The righteousness of the upright delivers them, but the treacherous are taken captive by their lust.

Righteousness of the Blameless.

1. Tamiym, translated blameless
2. It means complete, entire, equipped.
3. The believer who is advancing in experiential righteousness is entirely equipped and he is ready to roll, suited up.
4. He is complete for living the life for experiential righteousness.
5. Blameless does not mean sinless. No one is blameless in that sense.
6. Rather, this is a reference to the mature believer who is continuing to grow spiritually. The righteousness of the blameless.
7. The result of this righteousness is the way of the believer will be smoothed. The wheels are greased.

Smoothed is the Piel imperfect of yashar. And it means smooth, to make straight, to make right. It is used idiomatically for making prosperous, to being successful in life. Being prosperous in life.

V. 5a The righteousness of the spiritually equipped believer shall make his way successful.

He enjoys a successful spiritual life; a relaxed mental attitude throughout life. That is the theme of deliverance in adversity. The second phrase, the wicked will fall by their own wickedness.

Proverbs 11:5 The righteousness of the blameless keeps his way straight/smooth, but the wicked falls by his own wickedness.

This may be understood like the wayfarer. He walks on a smooth level road in life; the mature believer living in experiential righteousness. The second person, labeled the wicked, he wanders off the main road; he is the drifter. He falls on his or her face (or whatever) innumerable times. He trips over his own wickedness. The wicked will fall by their own reversionism.

Principle

1. The believer who has experiential righteousness, with both doctrine in the soul and an outer life of experiential righteousness.
2. The doctrine in the soul produces an outward manifestation of a mature believer.
3. The believer provides for himself success and prosperity in this life.
4. But that does not necessarily mean material wealth and the details of life. Wealth and riches do not solve the problems of life.
5. Wealth is not the road to salvation or to a relaxed mental attitude.
6. The success referred to in v. 5 is whatever God's plan is for any believer. Spiritual resources does not depend upon material resources. The wealthy person without hope and life, will ultimately find out that their wealth is not as satisfying as they thought it would be. It is unfulfilling. It does not live up to what it is billed to be. Wealthy people commit suicide just like poor people do.
7. This is the method for the production of divine good and experientially righteousness. You take this production into heaven.

Every person, wealthy or impoverished, has a place in God's plan when they have believed in the Son of God.

The Believer Who Remains out of Fellowship

1. Believers out of fellowship will fall prey to their own bad decisions, their soil turmoil, their mental attitude sins, and their failure to produce any divine good. That is a drifter; a loser in the spiritual life.
2. That believer will live a life in misery, outside of the plan of God. It will count for nothing.
3. Mental attitude sins produce a plethora of other sins and other overt sins. You think before you leap.

4. Believers who consistently sin and remain out of fellowship with no recovery from rebound, carry out their own punishment of self-induced misery.
5. The one who is in reversionism also receives self-induced misery, also receives divine discipline, which is designed into the advanced spiritual life.

In Closing

1. That divine discipline will fall on you; but there are more repercussions for following the way of reversionists.
2. The reversionist manufactures his own misery.
3. He may bring misery to those around them. They bring misery to all those around them.
4. The spiritual failure of the reversionist can influence bad influence upon others. Especially children.
5. Of course, that does not negate the volition of the person being led astray. The influence of another is not the ultimate excuse.
6. The actions of a reversionist believer will not help the decision-making process of others. He can influence others for the worse. Especially when you are in a leadership position; wherever you have influence.
7. The negative influence might become a source for the reversionist in the future; and future adversity.

One more impact. The reversionist brings misery to the client nation. If enough of those believers exist, they can bring down a client nation. All of those categories are the wicked and they will fall.

Proverbs 11:5 The righteousness of the blameless keeps his way straight, but the wicked falls by his own wickedness.

This next verse goes in a little different direction.

Proverbs 11:6 The righteousness of the upright delivers them, but the treacherous are taken captive by their lust.

Lesson #0172

Proverbs 11:6 Wisdom in the OT

12/30/2020 Wed

Regular scheduled service tomorrow.

Proverbs 11:6 The righteousness of the upright delivers them, but the treacherous are taken captive by their lust.

Vv. 4–6 are about experientially righteousness. V. 6a is a motive for spiritual growth and avoiding the repercussions of reversionism. We can all call it treachery. That is a great word when you understand what it means. Righteousness is the highest virtue of the Christian way of life. This is the righteousness of the upright, which is a different animal. Upright is yashar, which we read back in v. 5. Here it is translated upright.

What Does Yashar Mean in this Context?

1. This refers to the believers who is growing, advancing and producing divine good.
2. The upright believer has knowledge of doctrine. Grace orientation. R. B. Thieme, Jr. was known for teaching grace; he understood grace and he taught it like that. No believer can advance to maturity is an understanding of grace. Christianity hinges on God's grace; all other religions are all about works. God's grace is the key to salvation and to the spiritual life. He supplies everything to us.
3. Uprightness is never completed for the believer without grace orientation.
4. When grace orientation is acquired in the spiritual life and it will be if you begin to understand doctrine, which screams God's grace throughout Scripture. When you begin to understand Scripture, you cannot help but understand God's grace. Then what happens is true humility.
5. This humility precludes the #1 mental attitude sins, the basis for all sin, which is arrogance and pride. We have seen that pride also and we covered it in Psalm 90:10. Arrogance is the attitude of the reversionism; arrogance is the attitude of many unbelievers.
6. This humility and grace orientation up the upright, that is derived from spiritual growth, is what delivers in v. 6. They are connected. The righteousness, the grace orientation; the humility of the upright, derived from spiritual growth, is what delivers.

It can mean to rescue from circumstances; but that is not the entire picture. Evil circumstances can continue in our lives. At one time or another, we will have them; they may become ongoing. Delivery is best understood as an attitude. That is how we are rescued every time.

That is what delivers us is our attitude in life. What happens without the experiential righteousness. Now it is synonymous with being upright.

Proverbs 11:6b ...but the treacherous are taken captive by their lust.

We are in the midst of great treachery in our country today. Bagad. bâgad (בָּגַד) [pronounced baw-GAHD], which means to behave deceitfully, to act covertly, to act fraudulently, to act in bad faith, to behave faithlessly; to oppress, to afflict; to deal or to act treacherously. Its noun cognate is cover, covering; so we have something being hidden from sight. Strong's #898 BDB #93.

Not Sure; Maybe this Is Combining Two Doctrines

1. There is the overt; something that people can see or observe. People try to get ahead by backstabbing and betrayal.

2. A treacherous person might use retaliatory practices. People take an eye for an eye; which is all about using the state to assess punishment. That is never the prerogative of the individual.
3. The treachery may be covert; conspiratorial and subversive.
4. You cannot mix the doctrines of the Bible.
5. This can also be the motive of entire groups, or governments, including religion. Marxist revolution.
6. It is acts of treachery which best approach the idea of the true evil inherent to the term wickedness in v. 6b.

The verse continues. The treacherous are caught by their own treachery.

Proverbs 11:6b ...but the treacherous are taken captive by their lust.

Many a nation has been destroyed by treachery. Russia was a monarchy ruled by a czar. Lenin and his henchmen. The czar was removed and replaced by a communist government. It was a trap. It became the soviet union. People forget about that because they focus on Nazi Germany. Both are terrible evil.

The final word is havvâh (הַוָּה) [pronounced hahv-VAW], which means desire; ruin, fall, calamity, destruction; injury, mischief; chasm, deep pit, hell, gulf. Strong's #1942 BDB #217.

The Treacherous Are Caught or Netted in Their Own Greed

1. Greed is the Hebrew word halvah.
2. It means, desire, chasm, destruction.
3. This is not a hunger for the details of life.
4. The treacherous will be snared by their own desire. They are snared by themselves, by their own desires.
5. What they desire to do in treachery and this leads to their own destruction.
6. Their sins catch up with them.
7. The treacherous are caught up in their own evil desires.

How can they rig an election? Treachery lead to the demise of treachery. This is the key to a relaxed mental attitude in the times that we live. It comes back on them.

Watch what happens to the democratic party. They will fragment like you can't believe. They will get caught up in their treachery.

The next 3 verses further speak about the wicked.

Proverbs 11:7 When the wicked dies, his hope will perish, and the expectation of wealth perishes too.

We think of the wicked as weak in character (and they are).

Explaining the Wicked in this Verse.

1. Wicked men or women are not being compared to strong men or women.
2. In context, both are hopeless and without expectations. They will both perish.
3. This is not a comparison between believers and unbelievers.
4. This verse is all about unbelievers who are the wicked and the strong; both. Not a comparison.
5. The two lines of this proverb are not antithetical.
6. Therefore, whatever translation comes about, the first and second lines will be equivalent.
7. They are synonymous concerning the subject of the wicked, of the unbeliever.
8. Strong men in the second line would certainly equate to the wicked of line one. The second line would be repetitive.
9. The unbelieving wicked and unbeliever strong men will perish at death. Their expectations and hopes perish at death. These lines deal with the consequences of the wicked of the unbeliever's life. These are temporal consequences based upon a lifetime of strong or weak person.

How and what does it mean? Parallelism helps to understand both lines

Perishing at the End of Life

1. Perishing is the end of physical life for the unbeliever.
2. This refers to more than just the death of an unbeliever.
3. It connotes a life completed by death.
4. Physical death in the mind of the unbeliever ends all temporal expectations. They have a different way of thinking than we do. When you have no expectations of life after death, you have no thought patterns as we are used to.
5. Their hopes are based upon humanism; only mankind itself is truth; and there is no afterlife. Unbelievers life motivated by skepticism; Christ and the spiritual life. They hate it. This is the outcome of atheism and the agnostic; nothing can be known after death. It all disappears in a...

Do not envy the strong, the powerful; the wicked. They only consider their physical life for a few years. This is why they grab for everything they possibly can from this life. They bend to the needs of expediency. They just want whatever they can get before it's over. That is not everyone. That is the wicked and the strong; and they still perish.

This is a grim outlook for the unbeliever. What is it? A statue, a stone statue, a building with your name on it? Looking back on a futile life and eternal death? That is the legacy of humanism. It is nevertheless true.

What Is There?

1. Any hope of a long content life or success based upon wickedness. One thing that strikes Bobby, of the ones we are speaking of, when they have what they think this life has to offer, wealth, fame or power; and they are not satisfied. It is not what it is trumped up to be. It does not make them happy.
2. In so many cases, there will be great anxiety and even regret when they perish at the end. Of a life of futility. Hence when they die, all expectations are gone. What is our life like? We all have plans for ourselves; some of us are successful in this or that way. Some of us are not successful at all.
3. What are our own expectations in distinction from this verse? We have eternal life; we have an eternal existence. Nothingness versus the greatest end of all.
4. All reasons for hope and security end with the death of the unbeliever. It is gone because the unbeliever is gone.
5. Where God is excluded, there can never be an true confidence; or any defined objective for anything but self-aggrandizement, self-interest.
6. The unbeliever grabs at pleasure, success, since they understand no future beyond the grave.
7. For that unbeliever, it is all relative. What is the bottom line for them. How much money is needed to make them happy? We, on the other hand, have a plan; we have God's plan. We are fulfilled when we do execute His plan. And then we have eternity. Don't envy the treacherous.
8. Living with such hopelessness is what passes for strength in the unbeliever. This is all that they have. It is not strength. Underneath it all, there is weakness, the weakness of fear, of anxiety. For whatever the counselor or psychiatrists will tell them.

No reason to have integrity. That does not get me there. When we draw our last breath; what are we doing to see; I cannot wait to see it. We have great expectations of the future, temporal and eternal.

The second line will confirm what is true. That is who they are. Those wicked who are successful. There is no hope even in temporal life. That is why so many people are on drugs, to numb the pain. But they remain the same old person.

At the end of temporal time, they can look back at nothing important. Even suicide becomes attractive. The kids have no hope. They see the turmoil all around them; they see parents who do not know anything, who are confused. No conception of the consequences of that action. But it is only the begging of misery for the unbeliever. They can not see anything of importance or achievement in their own lives.

Without Christ, without eternal life; without any hope.

Psalm 20:5 May we shout for joy over your salvation, and in the name of our God set up our banners! May the LORD fulfill all your petitions!

Our anthem was born when Francis Scott Key saw...

Unfortunately, our Star Spangled Banner has not been favored lately.

Bobby always considers the raising of the flag in Washington DC by 5 men, and that statue and that picture has inspired millions. One of the most difficult battles of WWII.

The flag is not to be kept furled and hidden away; it is to be lifted up. It speaks up and represents the ideals of a nation.

Song 6:4 He: You are beautiful as Tirzah, my love, lovely as Jerusalem, awesome as an army with banners.

The anthem of Psalm 20:5 was prayed by David and also by the people of Israel. The context of this psalm lends itself to the dramatic situation of...

David failed to meet his army in battle in the Spring. He decided to stay home and turn his army over to the 2nd in command. He remained at home instead. He was to go out to war with his army. The outcome of this battle weighed heavily on his mind. He knew that this struggle would be disastrous without divine intervention. They had war horses and chariots; and David only had infantry. David knew that the Lord would never desert him. He knew that the odds would never...test his faith.

David did something very necessary to his faith; he came to the sanctuary to pray. He brought a meal offering and a burnt offering to the Lord. This was a ritual that represented an atonement for sins. The animal was sacrificed; was placed on the altar and it was burned. The fire was stoked and the animal was burned. That smoke represented a soothing aroma to the Lord. Exodus 29:18, 29, 34 this was a picture of a propitiation for sins. As that smoke rose heavenward, he petitioned the Lord for his upcoming battle.

People began to gather in the courtyard. This was somewhat of an impromptu prayer meeting, and what they prayed is preserved in Psalm 20:1–4:

Psalm 20:1 To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David. May the LORD answer you in the day of trouble! May the name of the God of Jacob protect you!

Psalm 20:2 May he send you help from the sanctuary and give you support from Zion!

Psalm 20:3 May he remember all your offerings and regard with favor your burnt sacrifices! Selah.

This is an act of devout worship; he was the maturest of mature believers.

Psalm 20:4 May he grant you your heart's desire and fulfill all your plans!

The people ask for God to fulfill David's request.

This was an anticipatory psalm, based upon their expectation of the Lord. Do we have that confidence in the Lord?

Their cry is, in God, we trust. This is the motto that we have on our own coin. It is a cry that we make.

Joshua overwhelmed them; and Moses had a new altar made, and it reads, The Lord is my banner.

We need to raise our banner for a fight.

Eph. 6:12 For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places.

We are not to take up arms against flesh and blood. We will secede, we will take up arms; but Bobby is asking us to meet these demands. We need to be able to do this to resist in the evil day, to stand firm. Those are our matching orders. This is the call for us to be a patriot.

Our only recourse is to grow spiritually, out of the habits away from the cosmic system. That we might think and therefore act in a manner that bring glory and honor to our Lord. We have the prototype spiritual life. "The thief only comes to steal, kill and to destroy. I have come that they might have life and have it abundantly."

God has a higher purpose for His redeemed. Do not allow any thieves to enter in to...

We have an abundant life, but we need training every day in order to life up the banner. Bob calls on us in this church, as we enter into 2021, lift high the banner of the Christian life. Nothing else can deliver us. Not a great economy, not a politician, not a great army. That is the only thing that can truly deliver us.

There is also the banner of love that we can lift up as well. It is a very difficult thing in this world today, to express love towards people. It seems to be more and more difficult. If you are ideologically opposed, you hate other people. People are not loveable. The humanists who oppose Jesus Christ. That is a banner of the spiritual life.

1John 1:8b God is love.

1John 4:9 In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him.

1John 4:12 No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us.

This is our banner; this is our marching order. Bobby had to turn around and tell someone he loved them. That is what they wanted us to do. Some people pontificate on that. How many really care about the souls of mankind. And what is that care?

There are many cries of injustice and problems in this country. Love does not take into account a wrong suffered. We must not take offense at opposition of persecution. Every person is a soul for whom Christ died. Jesus died for them, so we cannot hate them. How we live matters. This is one of the great witnesses. How we are grace oriented. How we demonstrate love for those that we do not like.

Our lives will reflect humility. It is necessary to apply impersonal love to our enemies.

A third banner for this year; loyalty. Those are those ones who are faithful in Christ Jesus. Loyalty is a vital element in every walk of life. When one is disloyal, he may be seen as committing...those who hate America and would do anything to undermine this country. No loyalty. When one is disloyal, they are traitorous. Berachah has the reputation of remaining faithful to the truths of the Scriptures. Loyalty must dominate every consideration of life. Whether in the realm of the family or business or of the church or of any other walk of life. Being true to the truth is what God demands from His people. We are going to need it.

Bobby has been our pastor approaching 17 years. His desire to be loyal to us as his congregation. He has invested innumerable hours. He knows that loyalty from us requires this loyalty from him. He has the privilege of speaking to his congregation. To train and maintain us as soldiers for Jesus Christ. It has been a happy and rewarding experience to do so. He knows his failures and shortcomings. God's grace has overruled human frailty. As we face the new year, we must lift this banner to the highest hill. Bobby will continue loyalty to us. There needs to be a complete dedication from us to metabolize Bible doctrine. There needs to be a stream of Bible doctrine entering into our souls. Live it.

A fourth banner in the coming year, and it is service. It is with the deepest appreciation that Bobby speaks of those who serve the Lord to their highest capacity. Who use their gifts to further the capacity; to continually live and speak as a life and light in darkness.

For this reason, there is always room to push this banner a little higher. We can always do better. There are times that we do not overtax ourselves in service to the Lord. We are certainly aware for at least one reason...

Eph. 2:10 For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them.

Our service to the Lord is producing divine good. God prepared these works beforehand. This was all prepared for us already. The Bible is given to us for this very purpose.

All Scripture is inspired by God, that the man of God might be mature, thoroughly furnished for all good works.

God is not unjust so as to forget our work...to forget our name.

Bobby is charging us with these 4 banners in 2021. From the cosmic system and from the inside for ourselves.

Most New Year's resolutions are soon forgotten. "I am going to the gym at the beginning of this year and lose all this weight..." and by February, the gyms are much less populated. The fight goes on. It does not stop, even if we do. So follow the banners of Jesus Christ in service. Otherwise we will be shamed in the face of the enemy. It is coming as it has never come before.

Bobby predicted that it would be a great year last year. It has been very difficult for many people. Adversity is an opportunity. Some of us have had the greatest year of our life, facing adversity with Bible doctrine. But what is his prediction for this year?

There is every reason to believe that the fortunes and freedoms of our nation will decrease in this year and beyond. We have seen a great revival of nationalism, divine establishment, of national prosperity, and it has been done under President Trump, who has been so violently hated. And his opponents appear to be winning. It looks grim; but is it? We have our marching orders. Follow the banner; follow the colors. Take the high ground. We are always winners, regardless of circumstances; if we can raise those banners. Watch what the Lord does in 2021.

Lesson #0173

Proverbs 11 Wisdom in the OT

1/3/2021 Sunday

Proverbs 11:7 When the wicked dies, his hope will perish, and the expectation of wealth perishes too.

The wicked or the strong men, they will die. Death is no respecter of persons. All of their expectations perish with them. All that they have accumulated and planned on have come to a screeching halt.

Utterly over, not in reality, but in their viewpoint. Even those unbelievers who face life and death with fortitude of courage and who have exhibited strength in all of the hardships and difficulties that they have faced in life. They are still hopeless and lost when it comes to the end of life. What a grim picture for the unbeliever. Maybe a life well-lived for the strong, but it is over. All those who are not in Christ are condemned.

This is an important message for us today. This is extremely important for our encouragement for our difficult times as we begin 2021. Today a tremendous amount of wickedness surrounds and permeates our nation; and it affects individuals in the nation. A nation is headed for dissolution and destruction and many of us see this on the horizon. And this humanism, with all of its machinations, appears to be winning.

Divine wisdom and Bible doctrine are under attack from every side. Chaos reigns in the streets of our major cities. Riots have begun again in Portland. You have to realize that this divided nation is in a cold civil war. Churches which do not teach the Word do a disservice to believers. They have no idea about the circumstances and problems.

How does this verse encourage believers? We must apply this passage to these circumstances to understand our position at this moment. Humanism, in all of its forms, cannot win. The humanism of unbelievers cannot win, no more than the cosmic system can defeat the Lord. Satan cannot defeat our Lord; the humanism around us is part and parcel of the cosmic system. It cannot win, as strong as it seems, bolstered by strong personalities, it will end in failure for the wicked and the strong. Our fight is never hopeless. Do not think that we cannot recover; that the people of the nation are too far gone. You have forgotten. The focus has been moved to something that is cosmic system. God can do anything. Nothing is impossible for Him. Where is your focus? Is it on the politics and the violence that we see? You don't think the Lord cannot preserve us through this? You only focus on the problems around us. Get your focus straight in 2021. You must rely on the Lord and in your spiritual life. Despite the adversity which may be in our ways. We do not live a lifestyle of fear; we have nothing to fear but fear itself.

It is a privilege to watch what the Lord is going to do, with fascination and faith. His will and His plan are both perfect. We are confident that the wickedness of evil people always end in futility and failure. That is on an individual level and national one as well.

The Future of the Humanist

1. Those children on the street, without Christ, without Bible doctrine, to renovate their thinking, fit exactly the description in Prov. 11:7 they are strong in their positions that they hold.
2. They will live a life that never meets their own expectations ever. What they think that they want is so near and it will never provide for their expectations. D
3. Their cry for change and revolution will never create the society for which they struggle. Their entire existence is struggle, a Marxist word. This is all they will ever do; they cannot reach their goal. Do not fear them; p...
4. Their lives will be one of frustration and disappointment. They are anti-authority, anti-establishment, steeped in humanism.
5. In the end, they will perish without optimism or lasting human accomplishment.
6. "Wait, if these people are in office, America will never come back."
7. Humanism is an endless cycle of failure. It may look good for a generation or two. It began to look good for Marxism in 1917. After a few generations, there is misery and horror of Marxism there for all to see. It will always fail. Without God, without Christ and without hope.

8. There are those who hate America and they hate Christianity and they hate Christians, based on atheistic grounds. They may take it to the point of murdering Christians. If you are worried about that, that is a lifestyle of fear.
9. They will die, experiencing the worthlessness of the cosmic system. The believer will be triumphant, regardless of taking a few hits or not.

Stand still and see what the Lord to do. As an individual, you grow spiritually; and we do not have a lifestyle of frustration and fear.

Unbelieving humanists are pawns of the cosmic system. They can do damage in the life of a nation. They will perish with nothing; winning nothing and gaining nothing. Whose end is without assurance, without trust, and without salvation. That is where they are. Their religion is their own power. Most of them have no idea what they are doing. They do not know who they are or what their country is. They are told they are righteous and that we are evil, but it is exactly the opposite.

Bobby is more than aware that there is a certain amount of angst concerning the election. There is anger, fear and even hatred of those who may take power. But when you get wrapped up in such mental attitude sins that you make harsh and vicious statements as to reveal your hatred and loathing, then you fall right into their traps. Your focus is then distorted. You can speak the truth, and pray for this nation.

What was the banner from New Year's Eve? Love. What is your objective? What do they need? They need Christ, they need doctrine. They need the truth. Isn't this what they need. There is only one way to change it, and that is not putting your arms around them and saying, "I am with you." Love may be showing a relaxed mental attitude under pressure; under their pressure.

They think they can change this nation and build it in the image of Marxism. They are taking over the streets and no one is stopping them. The rule of law is going out the window; but it will amount to nothing for them. Seeing only the failure of their own humanist plans. The devil is a tyrant and those who serve him must be tyrannical. That is the insight and wisdom that we must apply in this hour. Our nation may deserve and need what is coming.

This verse serves as a warning to the unbeliever. After physical death, you do not get another chance. The person without eternal life is already doomed. The doom and gloom of the unbeliever at the end of life. Many an atheist has died in abject fear and horror in their final moments. They lived for a life of change, revolution and atheism and they died in horror. There is nothing after that, they think. They know it might not be pleasant. Death holds the greatest terror. For us, death holds the greatest advantage.

We live for Christ and our death is profit. Do you have expectations? Of course you do; for this life and beyond it. It is a great life, even in adversity. We have a purpose beyond self-interest. What is your expectation in life. The plan of God may not coincide with your expectation in life. The plan of God fulfilled is our expectation. This carries over into eternity. The only great decision of the unbeliever is to believe in Jesus Christ.

Proverbs 11:7 When the wicked dies, his hope will perish, and the expectation of wealth perishes too.

Now the author shifts focus. We saw the other side in v. 7; now we look at our own selves. This is a promise, but you have to understand it.

Proverbs 11:8 The righteous is delivered from trouble, and the wicked walks into it instead.

Summative Points on V. 8

1. This is a divine promise of deliverance, comfort and optimism. Circumstances of evil surrounds us in this world. We are delivered every day in our spiritual life. We have a relaxed mental attitude because of our spiritual life. We can face any evil.
2. The believer can expect to be delivered from trouble. Trouble is the pressures and adversities which occur during one's lifetime.
3. Deliverance out of trouble is in contrast to the previous v. 7, where there is loss and hopelessness.
4. From v. 7 to v. 8, there is a reversal of positions. The hopelessness of unbelievers and the deliverance of the believer. We are given all that is needed for our lives.
5. The unbeliever will suffer equally in eternity. What is the word today. "Equality." There will be equality in hell? Socialism cannot bring equality, except in poverty and misery. Unbelievers will all suffer alike. And you are afraid of them?
6. You may suffer on this earth from a lifetime of evil effects from the cosmic system; we are in the middle of it right now. It may be hard times on unbelievers. Let's face it; where are we going? There may be some difficulty.
7. The righteous may be afflicted by the cosmic system. Circumstances, not by our attitude. Unlike the author of Job who reveals Job's afflictions, which come from Satan and his cosmic system. Job's friends gave him bad advice and ran him down. But this is not what the author of v. 8 is doing. This is a general statement of deliverance from any trouble.
8. A believer will only suffer temporarily in time, but not for eternity. No equality for us. But no suffering in eternity.
9. That is a guaranteed deliverance. That always includes a relaxed mental attitude, even when trouble remains.
10. We have the solutions for life and for eternity; the opposite of what the cosmic system offers.

God's justice does not rest; it does not disappear, even though the cosmic system people seem to be winning.

Antithetical second phrase in v. 8. It falls on the wicked.

The revolutionaries, those who are on the ground floor, those who do the fighting, those who turn the country into Marxism, they are the first ones purged. They are unruly and anti-authority. Their own evil destroys them. Millions killed by Stalin; and Mao. The ones who put them into power are the first ones to go. They are the most trouble.

V. 8b: ...But the Treacherous Are Taken Captive by Their Lust.

1. This second phrase of v. 8 is the principle of evil falling back on the head of the evil; of the wicked.
2. Evil begets evil in their lives. What is evil produces evil for themselves. True of the reversionist believer as well.
3. So Prov. 11:3 says it all: those who are evil are destroyed by it.
4. Evil ideology engenders the destruction of its adherents.
5. Evil does not touch us, believers.

Our Lives and the Cosmic System

1. As we get older, eternity gets closer and closer. But we have escaped the ravages of the cosmic system.
2. The believer might also be rescued from trouble in time. Maybe we will not be rescued in circumstances.
3. God has a purpose either way.
4. Deliverance may come in the destruction of evil; or the destruction of evil persons. That might be a part of the end game; physical deliverance.
5. The continuation of wickedness against the believer might have another purpose; to accelerate our spiritual growth. Divine service is the criterion for reward in eternity. We have great expectations in life.
6. Fulfilling God's plan for the believer through the suffering. Paul spent time in prison and even in shipwreck; and he was delivered from it all. And when it was time to go, he was beheaded by Nero.
7. The unbeliever has no means of deliverance; only suffering. No relaxed mental attitude. No confidence after death and into eternity.
8. For the believer, deliverance from adversity always depends upon the plan of God. That is why deliverance is inevitable, no matter how God does it. It is for God's purposes.
9. Suffering may be a part of God's plan so that the believer can demonstrate the power of the spiritual life. Paul demonstrated this in every adversity that he went through. Paul was a witness where no one else could reach.
10. So that God might oversee over all the adversities of life. Paul saw both types of deliverance in his lifetime. He was delivered from many difficult circumstances in life; and he enjoyed many great victories.

The case of the righteous suffering. Why do evil prosper and why do the righteous sometimes suffer? That is not being considered here. Nor is it being considered in the rest of the book. These are the givens of this world. Satan takes care of his own in the cosmic system. God also takes care of His own in this life.

Remember it as we launch into an entirely new world in 2021.

Proverbs 11:8 The righteous is delivered from trouble, and the wicked walks into it instead.

Lesson #0174                      Proverbs 11 Wisdom in the OT    1/6/2021 Wednesday

The word is, the United States has come to the end; and the socialists are in charge. Things are in such bad shape that the capitol must be stormed. It is not a great thing. People are talking revolution and embracing tactics like Antifa and Black Lives Matter. There are Christians all over the country who are depressed. The true issue in this country is spiritual. We know that God is still on His throne, and God has a plan for this world and for the United States.

When we allow the circumstances around us to remove us from the divine viewpoint in our souls, then we are in the wrong. Bobby has spent a year teaching from psalms and proverbs divine wisdom. It is time to use. It is time to make application that all is not lost.

Bobby thinks this to be the 3rd great time to live in; the War for Independence, and today. Each one of those periods of time was where the nation has the opportunity to determine what is important in life. It is also the opportunity to stand fast and watch the deliverance of the Lord. In many ways, we are powerless. We have the opportunity to change the world by what we have and what we apply. By prayer as well. What a wonderful time that it is to recognize, that the power of God can overcome any human obstacle. It is a great time to observe it.

We always seem to come to a passage which is apropos and that is exactly what is before us tonite.

Proverbs 11:9a With his mouth the godless man would destroy his neighbor,...

What a perfect message. The godless are bent on destruction and they use their mouths to do it.

Proverbs 11:9b ...but by knowledge the righteous are delivered.

The knowledge here is Bible doctrine; the knowledge contained in the Scriptures.

Application of Proverbs 11:9

1. The believer, called the righteous here (the experientially righteous); that righteous escapes the ruin which the wicked design. What a perfect line for today. "Ohmigosh, the Senate has been lost!"

2. The verbal attack that denigrates and slanders the neighbor. We have had verbal attacks for 4 years which have been monumental. It is the blame game from Washington to the state houses. They do not know what the solution is. They can only blame for the problems.
3. It is not unusual to hear arguments against God and Christ. God is ridiculed today and removed from more and more quarters.
4. It is the verbal attack which is used at this time against Christianity. One which struck Bobby as preposterous that a person protested twinkling Christmas lights; because it offended him, who was not a Christian. As if decorative light on a house are indicative of Christian thought. This is nothing more than a vocal attack by a godless atheist. This is a ploy to remove the celebration of Christ at Christmas. To capitulate to this... Tell them what Christmas is really about. "Let me offend you more with the truth." Some think that Christianity is the worst institution in human history. They think that there is more hate and bias in Christianity than in anything else. The secular attempt to destroy Christianity. Atheism cannot abide Christianity. There is no living side-by-side this. The atheist is always attacking the Christian. It is truly just a verbal attack to remove something from the public view. This verbal attack may portend a physical attack in the future.

Marxism socialism goes after Christianity.

Marxism-socialism

1. They preach peace, justice and equality while destroying these things. The very definition of hypocrisy. They are wolves in sheep's clothing. They cannot really say what they want. They must lie in order to be heard and to be accepted.
2. Their consciousness of the lies that they speak is the proof of their hypocrisy. They have to say that which is untrue. Bobby fills us in not to give a political speech.
3. Their verbal attacks are lies and they are meant to gain power and destroy the opposition.
4. Therefore, their mouths are a lethal weapon. The propaganda that we hear today is lethal. It is not designed to make America better.
5. These verbal attacks become lethal for them. These people are the greatest dupes for Satan. They blaspheme God, divine establishment, and they persecute Christians.
6. God will not be mocked or slandered by the godless.

Bobby gives these points so that we can recognize the enemy; and that we can... No greater lie than Marxism-socialism.

In their lies and darkness, they may bring down their city, state or nation.

The Verbal Attack of the Socialist and Others

1. From this verbal attack is deliverance for the righteous. It takes the Marxists where they want to go.
2. Deliverance is the knowledge of doctrine which makes wisdom available in these times.
3. The truth makes the believer free from falling for such lies and promotion of such secularism. John 8:32 You will know the truth and the truth will make you free. Where Bobby went to school, that is found. But wherever it is found, if you have knowledge of Bible doctrine, you are free, in your soul. Nothing that this world can throw at you can rock you.
4. Applied doctrine is always a relief of the pressure in the midst of confusion and adversity. The application of doctrine is all important in the times that we live. We have a chance to apply doctrine as never before. The anti-war movement was a warm up to what is happening now.
5. Regardless of whether or not there are persecutions, a relaxed mental attitude is what remains. No matter about any adversity. That is invaluable. Things that we disagree with and even despise; yet we have a relaxed mental attitude.
6. The truth that Bobby has just given to us is the truth of this passage which has been applied for years. Christianity has survived the most virile, vicious attacks of history; as well as the anti-semitic attacks. Christ will not disappear from this earth. God's promises to Abraham continue and throughout all of human history. And if God has preserved the Jew, so he can preserve us.

When you looked at the returns last night and thought, it does not look good for our candidate. We know that God is still on His throne; so what is He going to do next.

One of the things that is interesting to watch is what the Democrat party and what will happen to it. Where do the Republicans stand in all of this? God will use these things in ways that we cannot imagine. Deliverance is in knowledge.

We may see serious legislation which takes away personal freedom and puts more power in the hands of the government. Taxes might go up. Bob thought of it as, all my money goes to the military.

Some of you have been sitting in these seats for years. You have the opportunity for the banner of the Christian life. That is what we are doing. Don't worry about what is happening in the halls of Congress.

Doctrine in the Soul

1. No abuse will ever be effective against your souls. It can bring damage to us in our lives; you are delivered when you have knowledge in your souls.
2. We cannot be reeducated by humanistic ideology. A great Marxist weapon is a reeducation. That can never happen in the souls of believers.

3. Doctrine and Christianity can be removed from the public forum, but it cannot be removed from our souls. It is the very fabric of our existence. Who can take away your relaxed mental attitude? Who can ever effect that in your soul.
4. Not even death can separate us from the truth that is our confidence. Death is a welcome moment. The truth is realized in a blink of an eye.
5. Christianity will ultimately be victorious.
6. Persecution as evil and as hateful as it may be, cannot dispense with God and His Word in this world. We tried in every way shape and form, from torture of individuals to reeducation to tyranny to control entire populations. Millions of Christians in China. Today. The Roman empire is a great example. Christianity was hated and persecuted. Hundreds of thousands were massacred. Within 50 years, Rome became a client nation. Millions believed in Christ. One man, Paul had a massive influence. The spread of the gospel. It is the most powerful force on this earth.
7. The Word of God lives and abides forever. When it resides in you, you can overcome the cosmic system. 1John 2:14. John had plenty to do with the spread of Christianity. I write to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God abides in you, and you have overcome the evil one. Young and old alike. This is what defeats the cosmic system.

Why does the opposition continue to try, if persecution has never worked before? Satan is very persistent; he has no other recourse. The Lake of Fire was created for the devil and his angels, along with the atheists who reject God.

The viewpoint of the atheist is that the doctrines of the Bible is just another book of religion. They think it is a religious psychological crutch that they must be able to figure out what will remove it.

They will use pressure, adversity, tyranny, propaganda. They can spread their propaganda worldwide. They have the greatest system of communication in the world.

Bobby resisted for a long time when it came to streaming. The propaganda going out over the internet? What has the most power? Propaganda or Bible doctrine. There are 100 or 150 in Berachah tonite; but there are many who see this online. God sees this and He laughs at them. They cannot touch us. The righteous are delivered through and by knowledge.

Christianity Cannot Be Destroyed

1. Christianity can never be rooted out as another human crutch or a ploy.
2. It can never be replaced by a godless ideology. The godless can verbally attack as much as they like. They can destroy neighbors; but they cannot destroy you. They can persecute and even kill; but they cannot destroy Christ, Christianity or the doctrine which is in our souls.

3. Christianity is here to stay because it is of God. It is the purveyor of absolute divine truth. That is why it is preserved.
4. God's truth cannot be defeated any more than Satan can defeat God.
5. Satan and his cosmic system will have temporary victories. Maybe they had some in the streets, last night and in November.
6. Will succumb to outside pressure and humanistic actions. We saw pure humanism in the capitol today.
7. Bible doctrine and those believers who cling to it cannot be defeated, even by death or persecution unto death. The plan of God is different for each one of us. God's power is often demonstrated in how we die.

The Bible and its doctrines cannot be ended. Whatever charge of bias or racism or homophobic. Saying the homosexuality is degenerate may shut us down; but Christianity can never be shut down.

Bobby always appreciated the refrain of the Battle Hymn of the Republic. This was a song from the northern side. It always marches on to victory; always. It cannot be eradicate. It is God's Word which is absolute truth. He is the protector of His people and His Word. The Bible was withheld from the common people for centuries. But the Bible was distributed during the reformation. It was received and there was a great revival after the Dark Ages.

Finally, Martin Luther, who believed in Scripture; he change an entire continent for Christ. It was the Word of God that was the power behind it. Do not fear elections, persecutions, etc.

For the wrath of man will praise God. Even a disastrous election praises God.

Hostility towards God will only result in a demonstration of God's power in deliverance and victory. All of the opposition in the world will not overcome His power. The righteous will be delivered. Do not forget that.

This is the verse for tonite and the rest of the year.

Proverbs 11:9 With his mouth the godless man would destroy his neighbor, but by knowledge the righteous are delivered.

Lesson #0175

Proverbs 11 Wisdom in the OT

1/7/2021 Thursday

Bobby often speaks of the cosmic system. He will explain what it is. It is extremely formidable; it is our opposition. It is opposed to the plan of God. Satan is the headd of the cosmic system. It is system by which he controls the dominion over that which he rules. He is only one creature. He is not omniscient, omnipresent; and he is unable to work all things according to his will. The Scriptures tell us that he wants to be like the Almighty. He would like to have a millennium of his own; a utopia, if you will. Satan is only one creature; he has help in all of this. He has billions of demons who have their duties in the cosmic system. He has human minions as well; unbelievers who are opposed to Christ. They oppose Jesus Christ because they refuse to believe in Him; but there are those who actively oppose Jesus and believers. On our own, we cannot defeat the cosmic system. We cannot do it. Look at how our nation has gone in the last 50 years. Breaking into the Capitol building is not going to solve anything.

What defeats the cosmic system? When the weight of the cosmic system is brought to bear. The righteous will be delivered; and that is done only through the power of God. Used by those who are experientially righteous.

God and the Cosmic System

1. Never underestimate the cosmic system and its architect Satan. So many think that Christian activism can defeat it. The sign "Jesus Saves" while they are breaking into the Capitol.
2. The power of God is infinitely greater; and the righteous who are believers in Jesus Christ, who are experientially righteous, and the righteous live under that umbrella of divine power.
3. People say, where is this power? I can't see it. God's power may work behind the scenes. God is a spirit and we cannot see Him. We can see the workings of God, which is all around us. We want to see some action; we want to see some results. Don't hold your breath. God uses the evil of man to glorify Himself. God's power is working and He never leaves us alone.
4. His power holds sway over the cosmic system. We can see the cosmic system working every day. It is only too. Anti-God, anti-Christ stuff is everywhere. God's power is greater.
5. God's power works all things together for our best interest. God is omniscient and omnipotent; but He uses us as believers. The power of God can use even evil to work things together for good. It happens every day. We have to have confidence in that. If you lose sight of that,
6. No election, no increased persecution, no hatred of Christ or Christianity or anything else in the cosmic system can affect the power of God's working. He does not sleep; He does not rest. His power never ceases. His power is always on, full blast. The very concept of working things together. Every person and every circumstance on this earth comes together in his working for His working, for His plan, for His glory and for our benefit.
7. God uses the evil that men do to triumph over them. That is not all; to protect us as well. Many Christians have died under persecution and under bad circumstances. We do wear out. Bad things do happen to us. The good things have happened because of believers who have died in persecutions. Consider the Apostle Paul, those who learned doctrine under him realized that, they needed to get moving. He had many students. Many have died in persecution so that others have taken up the cudgel. We are all going to die one way or the other. To live is Christ; to die is profit. What can the cosmic system do?

All the power in Satan's arsenal. The spiritual life; metabolized doctrine in our souls; what can it do for us; but the cosmic system cannot touch us. The power of God delivers us. The righteous is delivered from trouble; but the wicked takes his place.

God Is Triumphant in Life

1. Since God's wisdom is triumphant and survives and thrives against all human attempts to destroy it, we must have confidence in it. It cannot be defeated. The history of the world proves that. Nothing has ever defeated God in this world. There have been human setbacks. Bible doctrine and the gospel have been suppressed. Bobby is teaching Bible doctrine right now. The Middle Ages could not get Bibles in their own language. But the Bible has continued. The spiritual life has bene preserved.
2. This is the same powerful wisdom that can deliver. God's Word has been preserved throughout history. God produces a relaxed mental attitude in the face of great persecution.
3. No matter the hateful opposition, victory is always ours; when we apply Bible doctrine.
4. We may have absolute confidence in the unfailing love and omnipotent power of our Lord. If you have had a problem since November, why? What is wrong with you? Where are you?
5. The attacks of the mouths of the godless may win a few victories; their verbal attacks will be effective. The content of the word is always in favor of God and His truth.
6. Realize that wisdom will be severely tested.
7. The victory of the denigrations and persecutions of the doctrines of the Bible and the people; but the vitriol, but the culture wthi that is ungeabl humanism is a direct attack on the spiritual life. They have an uncanny way of confusing believers whodo not apply wisdom; and who send them down a road that is unfocused on g.
8. The power of God is our hope. The unbeliever wants to ridicule the doctrine which is in our souls. They cling to their Bibles and their guns. What iwd...

The believer receives divine wisdom. Their tactics may work in the souls of the weak and the immature. The very desire to destroy wisdom by the godless profane atheist or by It opposes spiritual growth and it opposes evangelization. Those who implement Satan's objectives; but their lives are filled with frustration. They will always be frustrated by the power of God.

How comforting it is to know that the divine truth cannot bes topped or crushed. We are the demise of all humanism. The power of God in the spiritual life works through us. Divine wisdom reduces their atheism to a mockery.

1. Their verbal attacks fall back on themselves. They will be cause in theor ow
2. Their lives are revealed in their own words. Whatever is against the Word of God is a lie. They are subtle and convincing. But you must be able to know what

3. The truth of God's Word is irrefutable and triumphant. It never fails, but we had better have some in our souls. The ultimate defeat of the cosmic system. If you have some discernment, it is enjoyable to watch. The people you get worked up over are the most miserable people on earth. Nothing goes right for them, no matter what goes right for them. That is the very definition of chsita
4. The power of God is manifested in their ultimate defeat.
5. Do not be concern
6. It is the ultimate frustration of human objectives that facilitates to the deliverance of from the cosmic system. The believer will be delivered from the

Their machinations and legislation does not do what they want it to do. Watch certain people on television and they will always tal about these. Their objectives are unreachable.

The Lord's power will ultimately defeat the enemy.

The unbelievers humanist who excludes God from his layers of perfect. What we see today by the directions of socialism and Marxism, it is a loser. Always has been.

God Working in the Cosmic System.

1. Bible doctrine provides deliverance through and from the problems of human life. we have the solution; the wisdom of Bible doctrine. We have that in every case.
- 2.
3. There is no trouble, no suffering, no pressure or disaster which is too great for the plan of God, which is revealed in God's Word. That includes the attacks of the godless. We primarily see verbal and vicious attacks. Everywhere that you turn.
4. Being in the plan of God requires something of the part of the believer. It requires the Metabolization of Bible doctrine in the soul.
5. It requires good decisions to remain filled with the Holy Spirit and to advance toward
6. We are filled with the Holy Spirit. That is our power to apply bed from our souls to our lives.
7. This is howe rto defeat the cosmic system.
8. The application to the circumstances of life for comfort and encouragement. It is the time for it. We also need the discernment.
9. God sill works in the life of the reversionist.

So many people give lip service to the plan of God. As they face adversity, they often do not have a clue as to what it means. It is just a rote saying to get them through. The unbeliever is just trying to gut out adversity; calling upon strength tat they do...

Well, the plan of God is out there for me. But they have no idea what it is. We know God's plan when we are fiici when you are obedient to it and when you execute it. You develop a Shadrach, Meshach, and....

Proverbs 11:9 With his mouth the godless man would destroy his neighbor, but by knowledge the righteous are delivered.

V. 10 is the next one that we will cover.

The godless ones will be defeated; and the end of the humanist is necessary.

Lesson #0176

Proverbs 11 Wisdom in the OT

1/10/2021 Sunday

The Eucharist January 10, 2021

The ceremony must be accompanied with thought and thinking. Shed blood in most in alignment with the atonement. It was God's purpose to forgive sin. The death of Jesus Christ was a necessity. Heb. 9:22

Heb 9:22 Indeed, under the law almost everything is purified with blood, and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness of sins.

Heb 9:26 for then he would have had to suffer repeatedly since the foundation of the world. But as it is, he has appeared once for all at the end of the ages to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

Heb 9:27 And just as it is appointed for man to die once, and after that comes judgment,...

Heb 9:28 ...so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him.

Jesus died only once, not like the repeated offerings of the levitical offerings for sin. He was the once and for all substitutionary sacrifice for sins. Without regeneration and without being born again, eternal judgment will follow the death of the unbeliever.

The Lord's return will complete our eternal salvation. For those who are regenerate, there is no eternal judgment. Sin is no longer an issue when Christ returns, but will find residence in heaven for all eternity.

Unlike the animals who died, there is no efficacy in the literal blood of Jesus. There is not pot of literal blood carried into heaven to God the Father. This is a metaphor, a figure of speech, standing for His substitutionary spiritual death. The lamb of God, Jesus Christ, is the real efficacious atonement for sin. It takes on new meaning. The animal blood represents the spiritual death, the immeasurable price of our salvation.

In the minds of those who are called liberal theologians and pastors who depart from the literal meaning of Scripture, if it were not for the doctrine, they would think that Christianity would be more acceptable to the world. Shed blood is repulsive to their ascetic taste. There are those who do not know or appreciate....

Fools mock sin; they mock the barrier which is between man and God. Without sin, death for our sins would be unnecessary. And without shed blood, Christianity becomes just a religion of good works and good behavior. The power is not in the blood, per se, but it is in Christ and Christ alone. If the message of shed blood is lost, the message is lost. The teaching of the blood is everything. This is what we celebrate in our communion. It is represented in the communion.

Leviticus 17:11 For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it for you on the altar to make atonement for your souls, for it is the blood that makes atonement by the life.

In the Old Testament, God set up bloody rituals as a way of worship. It was the shedding of blood of bulls, goats and turtle doves, on the altar, represented the future substitutionary death of Jesus Christ. The basis for the work of Jesus Christ is all over the Old Testament. The literal blood of the animals looks forward to the reality of the death of Jesus Christ.

1Cor. 15:22 In Adam, all die.

That spiritual death was the real problem. Since we are born in Adam, we are born like Adam. We are separate from God just like Adam. That is why the substitutionary death of Christ is so necessary.

Exactly how did the shed blood of the God-man, Jesus Christ, demolish that barrier. Blood-sacrifice was a necessary thing to fully satisfy the demands of God's justice towards us. Directed towards God, the Offended Party.

The illustration of God's satisfaction is found in the Old Testament. These were designed to shock the unbeliever and the deadly circumstances. It points to the price of encountering God's wrath. How can God be satisfied with the bloody sight of bloody animals; or the horrible sight of His Son on the cross. The sacrifice did satisfy His wrath.

Isa. 53:11 Out of the anguish of his soul he shall see and be satisfied; by his knowledge shall the righteous one, my servant, make many to be accounted righteous, and he shall bear their iniquities.

Isaiah 9 centuries before the death of Christ tells us what is necessary. There had to be a way for God to pass over the sins of man. While God's love may have longed to save the sinner, the immutable love is not enough by itself.

The barrier of sin has to be removed. No one but perfect man and God could make the efficacious sacrifice. He would suffer in the sight of God, slaughtered as a lamb of God. This demanded that the atonement be unlimited in its sufficiency. That is how wide and efficacious is the sacrifice. God the Father imputed the sins of all mankind, past, present and future, to Jesus. He Who knew no sin was made sin for us.

The condemnation was directed against Jesus Christ and Christ alone. The barrier of sin was then taken away. God provided for our forgiveness at the same time. When we partake of the Lord's Supper, this truth must enter our thinking.

Mat 26:26 Now as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and after blessing it broke it and gave it to the disciples, and said, "Take, eat; this is my body."

Mat 26:27 And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he gave it to them, saying, "Drink of it, all of you,

God cannot ignore sin, He cannot consent to it. Is it found in the substitutionary death of Jesus for us. Gen. 3:21 presents shed blood as the means of our salvation.

Gen 3:21 And the LORD God made for Adam and for his wife garments of skins and clothed them.

Our sins could only be forgiven and covered over only by the death of Jesus Christ.

The bloodless work of man cannot cover the nakedness of his guilt.

Without the shedding of blood, there is no covering.

Shed blood also secures redemption. Exodus 12:13 The blood shall be a sign for you, on the houses where you are. And when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and no plague will befall you to destroy you, when I strike the land of Egypt.

It was the shed blood spread on the door posts which protected the household. God would pass over that house where the blood is. His death is the means of our death. Faith alone in Christ alone.

David Todd Stewart died from complications of COVID. Departed from his family. Carol and family. Bobby has known them for many years. They grew up in Berachah Church. A photo of the Berachah Church in the 1950's from 1959 the entire congregation is seated there. Carol was a small child at that time.

David was a deacon for 33 years. He was the chairman of the missionary committee. His passing serves as a reminder. Sometimes, there are those of us who do not like wearing masks or the social distancing that we are now involved in. COVID is not a hoax. The regulations are in place and remain in place and must be followed while we are here. This is the policy of the church and it is for a good reason.

Fence around Berachah now. We cannot leave it in the parking lot.

Email from someone outside of Houston. A commentary. Darkness in America, Bruce Abramson, published in the Epoch Times.

January 6, 2021 was symptomatic of much worse going on. Condemnation was immediate and unanimous. That was the easy part. Commonalities among mobs; we are willing to an attempt to appease the mob. All mobs identify with the left and some with the right; and they are antisemitic. Many are vocally anti-American. Organizations whose demonstrations turn into mobs. If you see your mobs as your mobs; you are a threat to society. Mob violence is not the rule of law. Condemnation ought to be automatic; but far too many Americans differentiate among mobs. They acted as if this was new. Obama set the tone when he expressed more sympathy from Obama than condemnation; and there were mobs all over. They have targeted police, vandalized...they have come into the capitol, burned Bibles, torn down statues, attacked churches. Progressive leaders vilified Donald Trump, because he condemned violent mobs that they like.

Claim that there is new ground being broke. If they are sympathetic, they offer appeasement. That is a nation on the edge of suicide. Democrats...immediate steps by tech against President Trump. The Ayatollah Humani has more access to American public than President Trump. We are spiraling downward. Emergency rule by executive fiat. Last month over 40 states asked the Supreme Court. The 9 justices charged with a peaceful conflict resolution said, "Take your fight elsewhere." Welcome to 2021. American may have been a dark day; but Biden's dark winter may be upon us.

It is necessary for us to fortify ourselves with Bible doctrine. Excellent article.

Proverbs 11:10 When it goes well with the righteous, the city rejoices, and when the wicked perish there are shouts of gladness.

The connection here with v. 9 is that the godless ones will be defeated; and when they are, it will be a great day of rejoicing. Today, humanistic schemes are rampant, which spawn from all sorts of ideologies. This verse is a double doom for the wicked.

If the wicked lose, and the righteous win, it is a joyous moment for the whole population. Or if the wicked have a win, they will be defeated in the long run and they will perish. The tyranny of the humanist will be shown to be defeated.

We have a tendency to look at high illegitimate power, and we say, "What can we do?"

The cosmic system is powerless against God's plan.

Humanism Versus Christian Thinking

1. City, in this context, is a reference to a city-state. There was one national entity; and the rest were city-states. Today, this could be a national entity. It could even be a city or a state. Bobby thinks of a nation as a whole. We think of our nation as united, but there is no way that we are. There are still enclaves which can be blessed, because of a group of believers. Because we are a client-city or a client-state.

2. The wicked in a city are the atheists, the humanists or the godless.
3. These humanists attempts to solve man's problems through human ideology, through all pervasive government and the manipulation of the population. Political candidates promise many things, but they rarely follow up.
4. They rely on a message of improved environment or an economic system or social justice, which is favoring one group over another. Secular education; and a number of humaist utopian schemes. Follow us and we will bring on a great society.
5. Inclusiveness not surprisingly never includes Bible-believing Christians. Christians, the humanists says, are relics of the past; they are contemptable, and they are often dehumanized, so that they can be persecuted. Racism and antisemitism is dehumanizing people in order to harm them. Satan sponsors these concept, to harm the weak and the unfit. To promote secular, Marxists education. A congress-person said we need to reeducate the population who voted for Trump. Concentration camps, gulag. It is brainwashing and the loss of freedom.

They love the word diversity; the peaceful coexistence sign. These cultures and religions are diametrically opposed to one another. They cannot and they will not coexist. Lions and lambs do not coexist.

How do you unite with someone that you cannot agree with in the most fundamental concepts. You have to give up the doctrines in which you believe. We learn Bible doctrine because it is our life. We compromise doctrine and we compromise our lives. Do not compromise on truth.

Bobby's prayer was for believers involved in activism and have been in do-gooder churches; to suddenly realize that their strength lies in their thinking, in the doctrine that they use. Maybe they will realize and recover to the pivot. If they look and recognize what is going on the recognize that they are powerless. You cannot compromise with the cosmic system; they are mutually exclusive.

For the godless, the humanist antagonists to Bible doctrine; the group they truly want to eliminate are the believers in Jesus Christ.

Psalms and Proverbs are filled with practical applications. It is a good choice for these times. We know the ones who can stand against them. The humanists believe that if they could just rid themselves of Christians, they could bring in a marvelous utopia. Only Jesus can bring in a Millennium. That will be a perfect environment. We may have it right here in this country. You can collect all the ammunition that you want, but the power is inside of you.

There are some great examples in history. Israel enjoyed a golden age when they left Babylon and returned. 516 B.C. to 300 or so. Also when Bible doctrine began to spread in the Roman empire.

Client nations today, there is a golden period. The United States has brought this to the world. No one has sent missionaries as we have. Berachah Church has sent many missionaries all over. As long as there is a dime in the coffers. We have fought foreign wars with great results. Client nations are the golden ages.

Application of this Verse to Real Life

1. The righteous are believers in the city or the state; and they are those with Bible doctrine.
2. What is experiential righteousness? Spiritual growth. With wisdom in their souls.
3. There are enough righteous with doctrine in their souls for general blessing to the city, to the state or to a national entity. Compare the state of Texas to other states; where are they going? They are coming to Texas. There is more freedom here. The general blessing of believers with Bible doctrine is why Houston is a great place.
4. But that is where the attacks of the cosmic system are directed and concentrated for 200 years, we have operated on divine establishment.

The attacks on this nation have been amazingly terrible.

Client Nations and Their Affects

1. Blessing by association. All the people are benefitted by the righteous group of people.
2. They will rejoice. They will be happy. We rejoice at the blessings of the rule of law. Humanists are never satisfied; it is never good enough. They can never reach it. It is the most frustrating way that there is to live.
3. They will rejoice because of blessing to a client nation because mature client nations. Bobby thinks that a small area can be important. We have influence over small groups of people.
4. Against these mature righteous pivot of believers, humanism is ineffective in their godless verbal attacks. Lots of verbal attacks.
5. People will rejoice when the righteous, when the believers are proliferating on the city. They will rejoice, even if they are not aware of the source of their blessings. Our nation has been blessed, believers and unbelievers.
6. God honors the believers who are mature and who honor Him.
7. His honoring of the pivot extends to blessing by association to the larger group. What a great concept! There are many ways that blessing by association can be defined. It can be understood to be a personal level, a family level, a business level. Look again at the difference of the blessing today compared to other places. Where humanism is rampant, so are problems.

When there are not enough spiritually mature believers to bring joy to a city. There is a lot of suffering right now. Even those who think they are winning are rejoicing. With the demise of the wicked, when they are gone or perish, the pivot of mature believers is revived, the city or nation will recover its blessing. There will be joyful shouting. The prosperity of a client nation also revives.

What Happens to an Entire Population of Believers and Unbelievers?

1. What happens when a client nation is in full operation; or client city, etc.
2. Or when the administration or leadership of a state or city is oriented to divine establishment. Any group of government at whatever level which is establishment oriented.
3. Blessing includes economic prosperity and plenty of opportunity. The rule of law. Low crime. Respect for divine establishment. There is evangelism and Christian missions to foreign lands, the primary function of a client nation.

Not all people will feel the blessing in the city. Bad decisions can nullify personal blessing. There are those who do not partake of this blessing. We could be one of those miserable people. In reversionism, we will be of the most miserable.

Even in a nation or a city or a state, with the righteous, there is still some injustice. That is the human factor. The rule is to keep injustice at a minimum and there will always be envy. You can always find reasons to be envious. There is no such thing as true equality. Only true equal opportunity can be offered. Actions like defunding the police? That will solve the problem? Mob violence? None of it. That is the solution of the humanist. That is the solution of Marxism-socialism.

When the Marxists gain power, they make the rules.

True Justice

1. There is always some corruption in any system of law because of the sin nature of man. How it is executed and enforced and interpreted is always subject to humanity.
2. The rule of objective law is the best way to administer fair and impartial justice. That would be disputed by the Marxist. Humanism ignores the sin nature of man. They do not take into account their own sin natures.
3. When that rule becomes rule by ideology or a particular self-interest group; or the influence of the powerful. In other word, the powerful make the rules. Those in power make the rules. The objective law is corrupted.
4. Corruption and misery is rampant.
5. That is the tyranny of law by fiat; by edicts from those in power.
6. By subjective mandates apart from legislative actions; subverting the Constitution and law.

We saw this in several states when the Democrat party changed the election; and they did this before it happened. Individuals did. That violated existing law. It was done in the name of eradicating voter discrimination. It was done simply to influence the outcome. No doubt that the rule of law was circumvented. No matter who got the most votes, the nation is corrupted.

Client Nations under the Heels of Subjective Humanism

1. When the client nation falls under the heels of the subjective humanist, then there is no peace or prosperity and the rule of law is subverted. The third one is in focus right now.
2. It is replaced by the rule of the strongest, which bring tyranny and hardship always.
3. This is a harsh ordeal for the greatest number of people for the city, the nation or the state.
4. When these evil ones pass from the scene, good riddance. When a nation is freed from Marxist government, there was great rejoicing. Bobby had a chance to see this right after it happened. They were ecstatic.

Proverbs 11:10 When it goes well with the righteous, the city rejoices, and when the wicked perish there are shouts of gladness.

Lesson #0178                      Proverbs 11 Wisdom in the OT                      1/14/2021 Thursday

Solomon: There is no new thing under the sun. The sin nature has a drive and desire for power. Hence we have divine wisdom in psalms and proverbs.

Proverbs 11:11 By the blessing of the upright a city is exalted, but by the mouth of the wicked it is overthrown.

This can be any city; and notice that this city is exalted...not the believers in the city are exalted. By the mouth of the wicked it is torn down. Bobby could go on and on about this; about the propagand machines, the liars, the conspirators. It just lends itself to that sort of an illustration.

This is a straightforward delineation of a client nation and all of its parts. Different prospects in life. There are different parts to a national entity. It is all based on the blessings of the upright.

The upright in the city versus the mouth of the wicked.

Proverbs 11:11a By the blessing of the upright a city is exalted,...

Points on V. 11a

1. The blessing of a city comes from the impact of the upright. Believers with wisdom; they are the same as the righteous.
2. This wisdom of the upright when applied by a number of believers, is a blessing by which an entire city is raised up. That blessing overflows to the city or to the nation (whatever entity).

3. Thus the exalting derives from the blessing by association of the city with the upright; with believers. Those who are around them are also blessing by association. Whether this be economic or freedom. Everybody in the city does not need to be above board or upright in order for that city to be honored. There will never be a group of people all of whom will be righteous. God honors those believers who are the righteous. Experiential righteousness. Those who are maturing, advancing spiritually.
4. That is our hope today, that there are enough of the upright. It comes into our thinking. There are areas of the country where there is violence and unrest; their economies are terrible.
5. This source of blessing may be attributed to other things by the public at large. They do not understand the true source of our blessing. But they are happy with the blessing. They do not understand blessing by association.
6. The public conscious acknowledges the usefulness of righteousness and morality and the rule of law.
7. Enough understand this to be a blessing; the public servants do. The public conscious recognizes this, but they may not know the true purpose of it. It may not be recognized by everyone, but it does not have to be recognized. Even a nation which seems to be declining can profit from this blessing.

Portland, Oregon. A beautiful city. He spent 5 years there. The center of that city is in shambles. Buildings are abandoned. Constant and vicious attacks on police and businesses and now it is spreading. Bobby knows that there are believers in that city and the doctrine is being taught there. Why are they not being exalted? This verse answers that question. There is a streaming video group in Portland listening right now. How many churches are teaching doctrine? How many institutions are really preparing them? Teach the Word and Pray without ceasing. What about in the city of Houston; what about Alabama; what about Georgia?

If we are down in the mouth and upset, realize that God can still exalt parts of a nation; cities and states. Places where there are believers who are growing spiritually. Enough of them. To this point we have not seen movements to defund the police or riots in the streets of Houston. Even though this was Trevor Martin's hometown; there were riots all over, but not here. The economy is still good. This verse is telling us, that because of the upright, a city is blessed. When God blesses a city, it is blessed, no matter what is going on around it.

Think about what that means to us. It is incumbent upon us to continue to grow spiritually. There is a blessing by association in the vicinity in which we reside. Bobby believes that to be true in Houston, despite the problems in the rest of the nation.

Righteousness exalts a city (state or nation). All of that is great and good in our country and in all countries. Divine establishment and Biblical truth is the basis. This is found in legal documents like the Constitution of the United States. It has taken root and it has grown. But when they are disregarded, tyranny and barbarism returns.

In the history of the world, whenever war was around, the civilian population suffered greatly. The soldiers took food, women, whatever they wanted. That is what barbarism is. The rule of law precludes us

Who Upholds the Nation?

1. Who is the true patriot? The upholder of the nation. There is a lot of violence in the name of patriotism. Some call themselves patriots who have a certain political bent.
2. They are not the ones of brilliant genius; of have rhetoric excellence, military prowess, etc.
3. It is the righteous ones.
4. The righteous who adhere to Biblical principles. We are prevented from the rot.
5. These are the pillars of a nation, keeping it from crumbling into dust. We see divine establishment rejected. Divine institutions are polluted.
6. The greater group is blessed by divine establishment and believers with wisdom.
7. The righteous must step forward. Believers cannot become complacent. The cycles of discipline will be applied.
8. The righteousness of wisdom in the believer is the backbone of any client nation. This really defines what we are seeing all around us.
9. Nothing can take the place of blessing by association. Even when the nation seems filled with darkness. Remember the commentary from last night. Even when a nation is filled with darkness. It is a dark age when Marxism and socialism begins to rear its ugly head.

What can we do about the rule of law which has held us together for 200 years? We must step forward and hold to the principles of truth; and we must never stop growing. That is the great thing about this passage. A perfect passage for our day today.

Proverbs 11:11b ...but by the mouth of the wicked it is overthrown.

The profane attacks against those who live to righteousness. Today, there are many verba attacks against Christians. Bibles are being burned. They are being attacked because they are churches. Christianity is the enemy of humanism. Hatred of the Bible for hate speech. They want to expunge Rom. 1 from the Bible.

Critics have tried to divine which parts of the Bible are truly inspired and which are not? Completely contrived. If you teach Rom. 1:26, that is hate speech. Then we will see the rule of law. It is the mouth of the wicked verses the words of the righteous.

Harass; a city can be overthrown. China's military is getting strong and stronger by the day. The current administration appears to be quite friendly with them.

The Wicked Mouth

1. Either way, the nation is left vulnerable by the mouth or the attacks of the wicked; attacks on us.

2. Verbal attacks and then physical attacks against divine establishment believers and Bible doctrine.
3. That, according to this verse, is the sure destruction of a nation. The wicked mouth. It does not say that violence tears down a nation. It begins with a wicked mouth.
4. This does not have to be the complete destruction of a nation. It can be a slow deterioration. Does not have to be a complete destruction. The wicked mouths are getting louder and louder. The results are becoming obvious.
5. But even deterioration in parts of the nation does not mean the removal of blessing from other cities and states.
6. When the righteous, the mature believer, is denigrated or persecuted, when things become so terrible in the nation, when things become so grim in the nation, when we don't know what the next day will bring. When businesses are shut down. It may be a ripe time for recovery. Discipline can do its work as it is designed by God. There is nowhere else to turn when things get that bad.
7. Divine discipline and the removal of blessing will escalate. This can result in complete destruction. We see the destruction of our economy; of freedom; a nation which is unrecognizable, from what it was at one time.
8. But some growing believers will always be preserved, falling under divine protection, no matter what the circumstances. God never leaves no one to carry out His plan. God uses prepared people for what He needs to see done. Times like this, it is time to be prepared. Time to be ready for whatever comes along. No matter whatever we see. Christians all over the world have lived without freedom. We are at the center of the Angelic Conflict. No one wants to see this nation go down. Bobby believes in freedom. He was willing to lay his life down for his country. We may see some very serious times ahead. As believers in Jesus Christ, we have a mission. So we live it; it is ours. Humanism, which is the opposition to doctrine and the application of divine wisdom, when it escalates, what you see if persecution of the truth, of Bible doctrine, of divine establishment, and the degeneration and destruction of a nation. This is true, no matter what a person's political persuasion that you might have. That is our current situation. The lies of the wicked have a disastrous effect on this country.

The President has been blamed for the rhetoric. What starts the violence? Rhetoric; and it can eall be named. There is nothing that happens in this world that is not covered by the Scriptures.

We have been the greatest nation in the world, helping more nations all over the world. Our rule of law has kept violence and crime to a minimum. Where the rule of law is not enforced, then these things happen.

Christians who go to church for superficial things; a social life. Or those who have the same political views that they do. Or they like the programs. It does not give them the intestinal fortitude to solve their own problems. There is nothing like a good crisis to bring Christians back to the essentials. Christians need the Bible doctrine in their own souls; and then the blessing by association to those around them. There has never been a better time for this to happen. If things were rosy, the nation would be going down anyway. This crisis brings our nation back to divine establishment thinking; and Christian growth.

Nevertheless, darkness can descend on a client nation, when believers fail to be the blessing that exalts the city or the nation. Understand something else; attacking God's people, the wicked mouths, the haters, the humanists, that is an attack on God and we are protected by the power of God. When they attack Bible doctrine and divine establishment, they are attacking God Himself. God is not going to be mocked. The difficult is exactly what God does with those who attack Him. The five cycles of discipline.

Humanism endangers and weakens and ruins us with demoralizing and slanderous and malicious words; and actions of hate and fury. Where does it come from? Humanism. Ideologies of atheism, socialism, Marxism. The discerning believers, those who are blessing by association, are being harassed and discredited by the mouth and the actions of the wicked. Some have already capitulated. In that way, the city is torn down and a group of people fall. The wicked mouth is a concept of sins of the tongue. It is a wide-ranging subject. Have you ever been the object of gossip or lies? The mouth is a terrible thing; but when you see media and politicians being the greatest liars of all, then the mouth of the wicked destroy the state, the city and the nation.

But the blessing comes from the mature believer.

Lesson #0179

Proverbs 11 Wisdom in the OT

1/17/2021 Sunday

We found that the mouth of the wicked can tear down a city or a group of people. It is continued in v. 12.

Proverbs 11:12 Whoever belittles his neighbor lacks sense, but a man of understanding remains silent.

Introduction to Proverbs 11:12

1. This is an explanation of the mouth of the wicked from v. 11.
2. The next 4 verses follow this theme of speech, speaking both evil and good. Good sense vs. an evil mouth.
3. V. 12 advises that discernment and wisdom are important. At times it is correct to hold one's tongue; to not speak.
4. That shows good sense. One of the hardest things in the world is to not speak. Some of us just have to say something. Especially if we are criticized. We often want to give our opinion. You must choose the time and place to speak. This is a call for impersonal love. It is your attitude. Too many times we speak out of reaction. We speak to those who do not like us and they say things that we don't like. Do not verbally attack; do not speak to incite a mob. Mob incitement is inflammatory speech. Most often people do this when they just are not wise. We are not authorized to despise others, verbally or otherwise. We need to resist the verbal sins that go along with a bad mental attitude. In this case, spiritual maturity is manifest by a sage use of silence. You don't always have to speak. Let things mellow for awhile. Choose your words carefully. There are times that we say things that we cannot take back. Words that people do not expect from people who care about them. Words have great impact. Sometimes silence is the way to handle those situations and relations with people. Watch your words. Do not spread hate, reverse persecution.

Two words here; despise and lack sense. Chaser one who is lacking in something. Followed by lêb. This does not refer to the organ, the heart; it refers to the inner man. Parallel to καρδιά.

Chaser + Lêb

1. The translation of these two words is in want of understanding, needing understanding.
2. This is a failure to metabolize Bible doctrine. Remember the inner person.
3. This person has no wisdom to apply from Bible doctrine. None. How can you be discerning in situations when you need to be silent. Foot in mouth.
4. The wise person is the one of understanding of divine wisdom. He is lacking nothing. We all have things that we lack and wish that we have; but the person with wisdom lacks nothing.
5. That person uses their wisdom, including doctrine and grace orientation and impersonal love. That person can hold their tongue from verbal sins and from slanderous attacks. Our inclination is to retaliate and to slander them right back. A verbal battle that goes nowhere and solves nothing. Hurt feelings that might last a lifetime. It gets bad when you start talking about that person.

the man who has no understanding of wisdom, he despises.

Despising

1. The Qal active participle of buz.
2. This means to despise, to scorn; and this is someone who is known to you.
3. The neighbor is anyone with whom that person associates.
4. Scorn, which is buz, indicates the reason for verbal sins. This reflects a mental attitude sin of insolence. No respect for anyone else but yourself.
5. When it comes to gossip, that is exactly what that is. We only have respect for ourselves and what we say. That is a problem with a wagging tongue.
6. This is the person who despises others; those that they do not approve of. They see them as inferior. Or they don't meet that person's self-centered standards. That puts you in jeopardy of not staying silent when you should.
7. That attitude soon translates to verbal sins; sins of the tongue. Bad attitude towards others. "I don't like what they do; I don't like their attitude."
8. A believer might be said to despise a neighbor and violate their privacy. We have no right to disrupt anyone else's life. We have an obligation to others around us.

Not to be self-centered and to gossip. We all have areas that someone else could talk about. You have no right to be a hypocrite and talk about others. Let me judge you because it makes me feel better.

9. The scorned neighbor becomes the subject of maligning and gossip and judging.
10. One miserable person full of scorn and lacking all wisdom and filled with self-induced misery, projects the misery and scorn on a neighbor.

Antithetical to the first clause?

Thinking Before Speaking

1. The person who does understand wisdom, which can preclude sin. Here, sins of the tongue.
2. The believer with wisdom who is respectful towards others. That is where your personal love comes in.
3. You do not malign and gossip.
4. You listen, weigh and then speak with deference with wisdom. A believer who listens, weighs and then speaks; consider your words, consider if those words are spoken to you; if they are not wise, keep silent.
5. The true gentleman or lady is cautious polite and knows when not to speak.
6. The person of wisdom using impersonal love and grace orientation keeps his mouth shut. When in doubt, do not speak. Those who seem to have a quick response is most often a comeback, a slashing set of words. This is often unthinking. Consider what you are about to say.

V. 11 is about the person...

Hiphil imperfect of charash. It means to be silent, to be speechless. Do not use your tongue for nefarious purposes. Do not break out into indignation or to castigation. You have no right to character assassination or vituperation.

The master of a person's own temper. How do you do in traffic; in irritating situations? Do you immediately start to speak? You need to control your speech and mental attitude which goes along with it. How do you control your anger and thus your tongue. If the tongue rules, then you have a problem.

Speak with wisdom; not in reaction. Be courteous to those below you. Bobby learned this as a second lieutenant in the military. You need to deal with people wisely. Best to act when you are not angry. If you can't, do not speak.

We have a country filled with anger right now. Instead of criticizing, gossiping, maligning, judging others. The wise person does not enter into these verbal attacks. Avoid conflicts. Illustration of our country today; taking offense is a national pastime.

Zealots who resort to character assassination in order to shame or gain ascendancy over others. To insure they are not violated or offended again. We should know better as believers. It does not matter what your race or gender is. People want to talk; and they want to discredit others by calling them a racist. The retaliation of verbal attacks do not solve anything. We, as believers, have grace orientation. All people are equal; all people are souls for whom Christ died. We are the best friend of anyone that we present the gospel to, even if we do not like them. Do not attack personally; keep it on a level of integrity.

The wise person does not react to evil policies and stays away from verb retaliation.

Controlling the Tongue

1. A silent tongue precludes evil, bad attacks. Wisdom recognizes a verbal assault.
2. Recognize the rights of others, even when you do not like it. That is how a free society should operate. Differing opinions without persecution.
3. To respectfully disagree is wonderful. Do not gossip, malign, to spew hatred, that is not wisdom. It is the opposite. It will come back on your head. It always does. Sins of the tongue are some of the worst.
4. Such tactics always come back to haunt the big loudmouth. The verbal attacks; mocking. When they come from you, you are mocking God. That is not your mission in life to straighten everyone else out.
5. It is divisive among the larger group to the point of the national entity. You can divide an entire organization with your tongue. That is all it takes. Just a little gossip here or there.

Proverbs 11:12 The one who scorns his neighbor is void of wisdom; the one who understands wisdom, minds his own tongue. Bobby's Interpretive translation.

The believer who knows doctrine lives his or her own life before the Lord does not violate the privacy of any other believer by imposing his verbal lack of wisdom on others. He concentrates on obedience and application of the plan of God. You are not responsible to correct them before the Lord.

How many times did Bobby hear in seminary to come along side someone else and correct them.

Principle

1. Every believer has the right to privacy in order to grow spiritually.
2. When someone gets into your business and tries to criticize you. The criticism of other believer's is not the means of spiritual growth. It may be an accelerator of spiritual growth for those who are the recipients of such attacks. They might handle the attack with doctrine.
3. You really have no defense against gossip.

4. Realize that defending oneself is not classified as retaliation. The Lord is our first line of defense. Bob taught doctrine for 53 years and subject to all kinds of criticism. For 53 years, the Lord has blessed this ministry. Look out for your tongue. Your criticism might come right back on your head. Bobby's even seen the sin unto death regarding this verbal sins.
5. Retaliation is returning verbal sins for verbal sins. A sure-fire way to accumulate divine discipline for yourself.
6. Every believer has the right to live his or her life before the Lord. Accountable only to the Lord.

Proverbs 11:12 Whoever belittles his neighbor lacks sense, but a man of understanding remains silent.

Lesson #0180                      Proverbs 11 Wisdom in the OT   1/20/2021 Wednesday

Sgt. Lewis passed away. In many ways, the face of positive volition in Berachah Church. Goes back to the Quonset Hut. Bobby ate breakfast with him for 10 years.

Proverbs 11:11 By the blessing of the upright a city is exalted, but by the mouth of the wicked it is overthrown.

Proverbs 11:12 Whoever belittles his neighbor lacks sense, but a man of understanding remains silent.

About wicked speech and about no-speech. The theme of verbal activity is continued.

Some have itching ears; and others, you cannot tell anything to; they will tell everyone.

Proverbs 11:13 Whoever goes about slandering reveals secrets, but he who is trustworthy in spirit keeps a thing covered.

Gossiper, or a tattletale. There is a strong propensity in all of us to get secrets and to share them as well. If we know someone, we want to know more about them. We want to know where the skeletons are buried. We want to know what makes them tick. There are a number of reasons for that. That person's vanity and self-importance.

When they break their secret, they gratify themselves in two ways: (1) they appear to be in the know and (2) it makes them feel important and elevated (they can tell you something that you do not know). (3) The talebearer wants to sound trustworthy. Some foolish people do confide in them. Be very selective as to who you tell what you do not want repeated. Be circumspect. Such things have come back to haunt Bobby. A trustworthy person does not reveal secrets of confidence. Revealing secrets of yourself is your choice; but when you reveal the secrets of someone else, then you have gone even further down the road of a gossip, a revealer and a talebearer. When you do that with your children, your spouse, a co-worker, etc., then it really rebounds onto your head. Just beware of who you tell things to. Sometimes, we all want to tell someone about someone else (or about our own concerns). Maybe we should follow the wisdom of v. 12, to keep your mouth shut.

However, criminal activity is not necessarily a thing to keep secret. Talebearers may have a character flaw. They are often very malicious people. They are often more odious than the person they are talking about. We often think about gossips who are female but it can be males and females.

The talebearer may not always be malicious, but he might be dangerous. Sometimes they create animosities. Avoid them like a pandemic.

What Constitutes a Talebearer

1. He is often guilty of mental attitude sins, such as jealousy. Some malicious tales out of pure jealousy.
2. They are motivated to discredit others, so that they themselves are seen in a favorable light.
3. They are constantly bullying or interfering with the lives of others, for two reasons. It might be out of legalism; disapproving what they do. Or out of a phony reason, like, I am trying to help you.
4. They often get their own way for power or approbation lust.
5. They may simply be blackmailers.
6. Therefore, a talebearer is a person who tells lies, for the purpose of personal gain or injury to another person.
7. We call this slander; secrets which they reveal. Damage. The revenge motive.

The wisdom of v. 12 precludes such action. A man of wisdom keeps silent. You let the Lord handle the repercussions. Some try to manipulate the world using gossip. They are handled by God in a way better than we could.

Depend on the Lord for whatever happens in whatever comes. Bobby is reading some articles. Executive orders which Bobby does not agree with; they are not in the best interests of our country. But, you know what? So what. That's the outlook. What an exercise in trusting the Lord; or many we need a makeup call or maybe we are in for more discipline. No return verbal assaults or defenses are necessary. Let the Lord handle policies and politicians. Just be careful about who you confide in.

Being a Talebearer

1. It is a simple statement of two types of character. The gossip versus the trustworthy person. We have all talked about someone else that we don't care for. The army was full of that. Talk about a commander could make a unit that could not function.
2. The gossip goes from one person to another, revealing confidences. Uncovering a secret and then violating the privacy of others. That is a principle that we must remember. When we gossip, we are violating the privacy of other people. A vicious circle of retaliation and gossip.

3. The gossip speaks disparagingly way in a sly, malevolent way.

What about the trustworthy?

Aman

1. This means to be stabilized.
2. This is the person who has a stable and trustworthy mind. Someone who can be trusted and depended upon to keep a confidence. There are those who internalize things and they never speak of anything that bothers them. Most of us just want to tell someone about something that bothers us. They must be dependable enough to share a confidence with them.
3. He or she is faithful to keep a private matter private; being faithful regarding what has been learned in a private conversation. This is the kind of trust placed with come.
4. The trustworthy person on the larger stage does not reveal state secrets to forint sometimes done for money; sometimes done for ideology. The Russians stole nuclear weapon technology from us. People were willing to do that. That is not trustworthy.
5. You do not leak information to the press in order to discredit the enemy. That happens daily in this country.
6. Do not betray secrets which endanger the secrets and lives of others. Trustworthy people do not do this.
7. Do not betray tactical information about soldiers.
8. Self-interest and ideology; those are the two motives. A complete lack of integrity; lack of loyalty; lack of dependability.
9. The trustworthy person would rejeat any such information, even knowing that this was a

There have been those in the past who violate their security clearance by revealing classified information; which can harm covert operatives. This has happened many times and many have died because someone has a political ax to grind.

Why do they do things like this? Napoleon won one battle because of the orders which fell on the ground that he picked up. But that is not this kind of problem.

Proverbs 11:13 Whoever goes about slandering reveals secrets, but he who is trustworthy in spirit keeps a thing covered.

Another kind of wisdom; wisdom for a nation. Important for us tonite.

Proverbs 11:14 Where there is no guidance, a people falls, but in an abundance of counselors there is safety.

Wise guidance is necessary. No guidance and the people fall. Important of divine wisdom in government. The unification of church and state is not a good thing. This has been a part of Europe. We have been founded on the idea that the church will no afff....

Those with doctrine are to provide wisdom in high places. There are very few with that. We have lost many people with great wisdom. Good and trustworthy counsel keeps the people from ruin.

Points

1. Guidance is the Hebrew noun, thuhbh, tachbûlâh/tachbûlâh (הלכות/הלכות) [pronounced takh-boo-law'/takh-boo-law']
2. It literally means steering a course; you have a bearing.
3. So it comes to mean in our context, giving direction, wise counsel, advice.
4. Someone must be at the helm of the ship of state, directing it; advising with wise strategies and counsel. We are at a crossroads; we know that. The nation falls.
5. This refers to national leadership, with the wisdom of divine establishment and Bible doctrine. We are trying to remove all Christianity from the public forum and that is prior to a fall.
6. Public affairs of a city a state or a nation; who hav profound thinkg, love of God
7. No wise counsel means widely divided ideologies; and we are headed towards socialism.

More Points

1. There must be wisdom and presented to those who are not arrogant.
2. They must not be more concerned with their own interests than those of the people that they govern. Too concerned with their own pocketbook and their own ideology. Self-interest.
3. Arrogant leadership providing humanistic guidance. Bobby heard a prayer at the inauguration that went on for a long, long time; and the most humanistic recitation that Bobby has heard.
4. Self-centered ambition; a ruination. Our nation has seen both type of leadership; the self-aggrandizing and wise counsel. We have seen the conflict of these. And that is a bad sign. Wise counsel is put down at every juncture. That is the ruination of a people.
5. Therefore, leaders must be flexible.
6. Will not take wise counseling, they are pig-headed and arrogant.
7. Such inflexibility is pure arrogance and the deterioration of a people and a government is inevitable.

Good guidance requires humility; one who can set aside his own interests. A servant of the people rather than a puffed up bureaucrat. The greater the democracy; the less tentacles.

Proverbs 11:14 Where there is no guidance, a people falls, but in an abundance of counselors there is safety.

Lesson #0181

Proverbs 11 Wisdom in the OT

1/21/2021 Thursday

What limits could there be to our freedoms. Could teaching or believing in the Bible be determined to be hate speech. Host of new policies on immigration. No more rejection of travel visas from terrorist nations. We are rejoined to the Paris Climate Accord to save the planet. And many other new policies outlined in the first day in office.

Proverbs 11:14 Where there is no guidance, a people falls, but in an abundance of counselors there is safety.

If so, we are told that the people will fall; they will crumble. What kind of guidance? Divine wisdom and divine establishment, and divine institutions.

How important is wisdom for good government. Wise direction, wise guidance of direction.

Wise Guidance

1. Wise guidance is essential to the stability of a nation. Our nation at this moment is rather unstable. No change in unrest and riots.
2. Certainly in our context, that counsel is from divine establishment and Biblical wisdom. Good counsel comes from wisdom; wisdom that comes from absolute truth. Relativism should not replace divine wisdom.
3. The principles of divine establishment were those upon which our nation was founded. The Constitution itself is under attack. For some, they call it a living document, meaning that it should not be how it was written.
4. Wise guidance is lacking with this new administration.
5. We have arrogant humanistic guidance coupled with a freedom-limiting ideology, which is socialism. Advisors with self-centered ambition for power. They are most concerned with what they want.
6. None of those things provide good guidance for the people. The fall of people is in the offing, it that is true.

Wise Advisors

1. Wise leadership must set divine establishment standards which cannot be violated, especially in their own thinking. You must have set standards to have wisdom in advising and in discerning good policy.
2. The leader must surround himself with wise counselors. What do they look like? They think and advise within the parameters of divine establishment and Biblical wisdom.
3. The leader must listen to wise advice and not to arrogantly ignore it. Or accept only one voice. That is the second half of that verse.

4. He must remain flexible and open to new ideas of the advisors who think with wisdom. In wise counsel, there may be wise ideas. New ways of doing things; better ways of doing things. No one is smarter than everyone else. This is why we need good advisors. Who is our president choosing as our advisors.
5. It requires something on the part of the leader; humility. A good leader has humility plus flexibility. Humility of authority-orientation. When a leader refuses to accept wise counsel, the alternative is bad policy; bad direction. Must be coupled with wisdom. That is the most important characteristic of a wise advisor. No shortage of advisors. Many are driven by the ideology to fundamentally change America to a socialism model and to do so by any means. Mobs seem to be okay, if they agree with the ones in power. Socialism is anti-establishment, anti-freedom. Veering from the ways of wisdom, if they ever had any. Good policies come from good discernment.

This fits in beautifully with what we are studying. The Lord is on His throne. It will be interesting to see what the Lord will do. Even if there is not guidance.

Subjective advice and be...some like to be in government to make money. That is why it is better to had advisors who are not in need of monetary gain; and those who have a proven character of humility. Not ideologues or academics. Woodrow Wilson was nothing more than a history professors. Those who have accomplished something in life understand things from a reality point of view. Socialism is a pie in the sky view. The theory is good and humane in their eyes; and it never works. But advisors are saying, that is what we should do.

Proverbs 11:14 Where there is no guidance, a people falls, but in an abundance of counselors there is safety.

Wise Counsel and Advice

1. This verse tells us that wise counsel and guidance is very necessary for an efficient and well-governed state.
2. That guidance requires something of the advisors. People of maturity and divine establishment and doctrinal orientation. That is what it takes to be wise advisors at any level. Even if you or they don't like their personality. That is not the criterion.
3. Good advisors must not demonstrate approbation lust, power lust, monetary lust. They are there to provide guidance and they should have set standards of wisdom.
4. The advisor must be able to control emotions and temper and to think objectively. Bobby noticed that the new president tends to snap at the press, to get sarcastic with them. That is emotional; maybe it is a cover. Leaders and advisors should be able to control their tempers.

Disregarding or rejecting wise advice, the nation and people are at supreme risk. Bobby would think the risk level to be quite high right now. To what extent is to be seen. When the leader fails; those who follow him will also fail; including the people themselves. The rule of law gives way to mob rule; and freedom is forfeited. The people will fall into degeneracy. What a verse this is! Bad guidance is just the same as no guidance.

This is a leader, a failed leader, who has obvious characteristics. Like blind arrogance; self-indulgence, reckless, a power-mad tyrant who wields power for power's sake, as Marxists have done throughout their history. A failed leader receives no advice or accepts none; or surrounds himself with bad advisors with nefarious goals. When they are before the Senate, listen to what they want to do. Socialism cannot reveal itself completely. It must come in the back door. If they are there to promote government, that is their bent. If government is to control everything, they have a socialist bent. There will be no good guidance. Nothing of value to offer to a nation or its people.

He is an elderly man who may not be with all of his faculties; and he may surround himself with fools. If that is the case, he will himself become a fool. Listening to bad advice and taking it. We are well on our way to that objective. That is not what the people voted for. The far left did not elect him; but we may see advice that comes from that direction. That is no-direction that is worth anything. Only by the grace of God will he receive good advice from those he surrounds himself with. With that advice, the people will fall.

Here to Bobby is the bright spot in all of this. We are the bright spot in all of this. As Christians begin to view the other side of this, when they begin to see where it really goes, Bobby prays that they return to what really matters. No humanistic activism, not carrying signs, but to look to the wisdom of Bible doctrine. Perhaps it will only occur in isolated locals. The Lord honors that just as He honors a client nation that is squared away.

There is Berachah Church and there are other places where Bible doctrine is taught. People are getting something; and the Lord honors that as well. Houston and the state of Texas are both pockets of positive volition.

I won't vote for anyone unless they agree up and down the line with me. But you will never get that. You must be discerning about who can think objectively. And who has moral courage. Whether you like President Trump, that man has moral courage. It was refreshing to see it. That is a leader. Bobby knows this by his opposition; by his enemies. You can tell how good a person is by his enemies. People have written letters to Bobby about Trump's personality and they don't like him talking about it.

This passage is about good advisors and good leadership; and this takes divine establishment, trustworthiness, etc. Is there a bright spot? To Bobby, this is very exciting. We cannot depend upon a person who has moral courage and good decisions. But many people did before; and they are scared to death because they cannot depend upon that any more. Our strength is there; and not in a politician.

When there isn't that, the people fall. That does not mean that we fall; this is about the people and about the government.

God's Influence on a Nation

1. Wait and see what the hand of the Lord does. We are not dead; we are not a fallen nation. Watch and wait what the Lord does.
2. Prepare yourself with your own wisdom from Bible doctrine. The more object that you will be. That is the name of the game as a believer in Jesus Christ. That is what spiritual maturity is all about.
3. God can provide the solutions that can turn the tide of our national downward spiral. In our business; in our associations. In our children. God provides the solutions; he provides the answers.
4. God can deliver us at any time in ways that we cannot anticipate or influence. We all think that we must get out there and save the world for God. We have to grow spiritually and allow God to use us. God still influences in ways that we have no idea.

Bobby has spoken to Rick Hughes and Gary Watson, and Gary says there is more opportunity in the prisons right now. Hungry for doctrine in schools because they do not hear that in their schools. When they hear doctrine, it is like a refreshing drink of water when in a desert. We have water to share.

We have had some great leadership in the past; and not-so-good. We are moving from excellent to terrible.

Considering the Personality.

1. Greatness is not found in sweet or abrasive personalities.
2. Abrasiveness is not necessarily a negative.
3. Too often we elect people with good personalities, slick speech, charisma, but all too often they lack the wisdom to provide good government. Their sole objective is just to expand their own power and the power of government. That is not excellence in government.
4. Good and excellent government provides freedom and equality of opportunity. Open doors to economic advancement. The concept of nationalism; the nation comes first. They make laws not designed to promote one group over another.
5. Rather, greatness and excellence is found in wise policy; and this comes from wise counsel; and wisdom inculcated in good leadership. True wisdom comes from the Word of God. Divine establishment and divine institutions as promoted by good leadership.

We cannot be defeated; we cannot lose victory. We cannot be unsuccessful with wisdom in our souls.

Proverbs 11:14 Where there is no guidance, a people falls, but in an abundance of counselors there is safety.

Our government has become more and more secular. Policies begun last week portend the future direction of our country.

Proverbs 11:14a Where there is no guidance, a people falls,....

The New Direction of the Country

1. Their advice and counsel is from the viewpoint of humanism; pure humanism.
2. Even an abundance of counselors that counsel humanism offer no guidance in effect. Or guidance which leads to a fall.
3. So humanism may be considered guidance by some, but it leads to the fall of a people and a nation. Humanism excludes God from all public life.
4. There is no divine viewpoint. There is no rule of objective law. No rule of divine institutions, including nationalism. Without it, it degenerates to evil people and policies.
5. There can be no divine wisdom or divine viewpoint, where humanism is the guiding faith. Humanism is a faith. It is blind faith based upon the goodness and potential of humanity. Not based on the control of the sin nature.
6. When an abundance of counselors utilize divine establishment wisdom, then there is victory or success for the nation and its people. There needs to be good guidance to a ruler.

You may not have like President Trump's speech, personality, etc. It is the policies, not the personality. Compare the direction versus the socialism that now looms over us.

$10 million on gender programs in Pakistan. Part of the COVID bill. Reduce the military or support anarchy on the street. Or increase the national debt to unsustainable proportions. Or to impose energy policies. To do away with or end fossil fuels.

The point of v. 14a, no guidance means that the people fall. Bobby is giving the truth of the circumstances. The energy policies are destructive. Wind and solar power can never meet the world's needs for power; nowhere close. It provides 3% of the world's power with 20 years of development and billions in subsidy. Solar and wind is close to meeting its capacity. The future is now. We are going to launch into this regardless of the consequences. The batteries and materials for these things will become an economic nightmare far beyond oil. They will become the greatest disposable problem in history. There are certain metals necessary for these metals and batteries, causing massive mining projects to be done all over the world. This is based upon hysteria, that our planet is going to die. Compare those policies with the economic and previous successes of the previous administration. The previous president did not mishandle COVID.

V. 14 should have been applied in the last election by the voters; especially a client nation. Whose policies are constructive, who is wise; and who is not. Anti-establishment, socialist policies for the nation. A nation falls for the lack of understanding. It may be that the nation and the new leadership is so corrupt. Evil has become good; and good evil. Enter rule by fiat; enter rule by bureaucracy. All of that affects us only superficially. We have divine guidance. We have practical divine wisdom. This is our chance to shine; our chance to show wisdom and discernment.

Proverbs 11:14b ...but in an abundance of counselors there is safety.

Many times people are appointed in areas of government and they know nothing about it. Even wise advisors can differ over policies. Different perspectives provided. There is always room for disagreement in giving wise advice. Wisdom comes in many forms. People have many viewpoints; and that's why many counselors. Anti-establishment, anti Bible doctrine, anti-Christian. Wisdom is nonexistent from such advisors.

Certain types should know better. When you mix humanism with some wisdom, you get humanism. Anti-establishment, tyrannical humanism. Humanism must be forced on people because we are not the way that humanism portrays us. What is lacking in guidance that has no wisdom? What is missing is moral courage in many advisors and many leaders.

What Is Moral Courage and Why Is it Needed?

1. Moral courage is standing for what is right rather than what is in one's own best interests or politically correct. Some just try to fit in with the crowd.
2. It is the fortitude to make good decisions which are unpopular. What is unpopular today?
3. Moral courage is to make decisions which may seem to be at a cost to that person's personal interest. It may cost them personally to make a morally courageous decision.
4. Moral courage is necessary to make the hard but wise and necessary decisions, even in the face of terrible opposition, or ridicule. Say some things today which are right, and you receive all of those things. We live in a era of cancel culture.
5. Moral courage demands standards; divine standards. Standards of wisdom and integrity. Where does wisdom come from? The Psalms and Proverbs. The more this is inculcated in your soul. Decisions for your business that people think is wrong; decisions for your family; decisions for your government. If you base your decision making on Bible doctrine, on divine establishment, the wisdom of the rule of law, then your decisions are better than anyone else's. That is moral courage; and it is necessary. Even when mistakes are made.
6. This is why leaders must listen to sound advice. If you don't know what good advice is, how can you choose good advisors? Leaders must listen to sound advice backed by moral courage. Counselors are not putting themselves on the line.
7. The greater the viewpoints, the better decisions which can be made by the leader. That takes moral courage. We have not seen anyone with more moral courage than our last president. But then, you are looking at bombast and personality. Look at where the policies took us. When you evaluate people, consider who opposes them. Then it may be a little clearer as to their wisdom.

8. Without moral courage, the leader and the nation bows to no guidance. In practical terms, loss of freedom and degeneration. There is the bottom line. Does society degenerate and is freedom lost?
9. When moral courage is lacking in leadership, it precipitates bad decisions with terrible repercussions for the people. Christianity in the history of the world has been persecuted; but it has been coddled in the United States. Great rise in Christianity under persecution. We are the ground floor and that will require moral courage on our part. This is the devil's world and he hates divine wisdom because it opposes him. Consider your enemies.

Proverbs 11:14 Where there is no guidance, a people falls, but in an abundance of counselors there is safety.

Sometimes, the advice of one person is not enough. Bobby as an editor, he could not do a complete good job. A person needs advisors; people to help him. Now he has great advisors. People who know what they are doing. It is no different here; no different at all. When all the options are presented, that is when the best results occur.

Advisors with divine viewpoint are required.

All of us have been in a position to make a decision; and who do we ask for their opinion. I will just blunder my way into this. The people who know you best can get you the best advice when it comes to marriage; or a close friend. Listen. That is wise advice.

This is exactly what Daniel did for Nebuchadnezzar. He took the advice, even though he did not believe in the God of Israel. His empire prospered and so did the Jews in captivity. Daniel is a great book and a great story. The wise advice of Bible doctrine.

This is why the divine wisdom of the Psalms and Proverbs is so important. It is never too late. Pick yourself up, get wisdom, and get moving. The plan of God moves forward for you. Rebound and keep moving; and God will direct you to where you should be and where you can do the most good.

It takes moral courage to present the gospel. It is a simple test of moral courage. When someone talks about going to the mission field, Bobby asks, can you witness to your neighbor across the street?

People require a government, the rule of objective law. Not the disorder and confusion of anarchy and mob rule. People need good government. For the most part, we are followers and we need good leadership. We need good leaders with good policies. People who can present great options. Governments are not arbitrary institutions. They spring from the necessities and instincts of society. People need leadership and stability and freedom (the fundamentals of good, wise government). This is what Israel got from Solomon and David. When Israel got poor kings, Israel paid the price, a terrible price.

The history of Israel is a history of success and failure. Not everyone is going to follow in the spiritual life. No nation will be all Christian. A nation needs good divine policy. The believer and unbeliever will fall, personally. This comes from a lack of discernment, a lack of Bible doctrine, a lack of good sense; from making bad decisions. If you are still alive, God's plan is still there.

Government had divine sanction. Only a few with wisdom and insight have the qualities of leadership to fill that need for good government, so that millions will follow and prosper under wise policies. People will follow wise policies. An abundance of wise counselors will guide a good leader. When you make policy to eradicate poverty, you have made decisions and policies that will not work. We as believers are mandated for personal charity. Are there times when the government should help people. But let's be wise about it. Wars on poverty does not work. Billions of dollars has been poured out. Wisdom and divine establishment are necessary.

The government by mandating certain policies destroy the freedom. But government is sanctioned by Scripture.

Romans 13 was written in a time of terrible government. Does it say government should only be followed when it is good? We must differentiate between our personal Christian life and obedience to government policies.

We have personal solutions, no matter what happens in the future. We have every resource. Do not fall.

This is a wonderful passage. Bobby on Wednesday will deal with the subject of democracy on that night.

Lesson #0183                      Proverbs 11 Wisdom in the OT   1/27/2021 Wednesday

Proverbs 11:14 Where there is no guidance, a people falls, but in an abundance of counselors there is safety \(guidance, victory\).

The leader at this time was probably Solomon. Or one of the other kings. Like all kings, they had advisors in areas where they needed advice. The problem was, for the success there must be wisdom. They would also have wise advisers. If the king was a fool or evil, then there was no guidance. An abundance of advisors can have a positive impact, even on a bad king. But if the advisors are terrible, then the reign is. If the king is a fool and if his advisors are fools, then there will be failure.

A good leader and good counselors has a good outcome; particularly in a client nation. It does not have to be a Christian nation and Christians in high places; they need to be establishment people.

Divine establishment in government is just as important as being a believer with Bible doctrine, because government is for all people; good guidance for believers or unbelievers.

Like all statements of wisdom in the wisdom literature; there is the current application. In this moment of our history. Wise guidance even for us today. Bobby said that he would speak about democracy. It has something to do with bad or good advisors. But a democracy does not always install men of wisdom. They may install lousy rulers as well. Fools who lead represent the fools who vote for them.

Universal voting, means they can show up with no wisdom, no knowledge, no real stake in the society. They have nothing to lose but everything to gain. Socialism promises everything, but they deliver none of it.

Some vote on self-interest rather than on wise policy. They look out for their own self-interest. Who promises them the most.

Concern for the welfare of others, beginning, of course, with spiritual welfare. This is never the thinking of self-serving humanism. A democracy can encourage these types. Marxism or a humanistic tyranny. That golden age of democracy ended in disaster. It got bad after the great leader Pericles died. Bobby recalls some of his classical college courses, he studied Greek classics.

Every Spring, the Spartans went to war, in 428 they went to war against Athens. They went on their Spring rampage; and the Isle of Lesbos revolted against Athens. Lesbian is from that name; Sappho wrote a lot of this stuff.

Lesbos and Spartans teamed up; but the Athenians beat the Spartans to Lesbos and they beat them. A democracy voted that every man be put to death and put all women and children into slavery. Cleon the Tanner previously tanned animal hides; and he was the voice who persuaded them here. The Athenian democracy had reached the point where the uneducated and common man could achieve supreme power; and they put self-interest first. They did not concern themselves with the best future for the nation. Democracy is supposed to represent the people, but the people only represented themselves.

Property owners had a stake in the nation. And those who bought and sold things were only concerned what was best for them personally. The people as a whole suffered under this great democracy. Today, we think of democracy as the only way of government.

Today, this would be seen as making policy for personal gain or benefit. Very popular for pork legislation; they bring home the bacon. Best policy for reelection and that gets votes.

The state was run for personal interest and monetary gain. Does this sound familiar? Many unqualified voters; many ignorant voters. No concept of divine establishment. A very secular electorate or the person who promises them the most stuff or the greatest utopia.

God designed authority to operate under a divine establishment type government. Not necessarily a Christian government; and not a secular government either. People of integrity making decisions based upon divine wisdom. That means that the right person has been elected.

There is always that question, are we a republic or are we a democracy. The republic is ruled by the people through responsible representatives. Bobby just explained why a democracy does not always elect responsible representatives. They do not understand freedom and they do not want a government which promotes freedom.

We had a limited number of voters. Unscrupulous politicians who manipulate the population to be elected. They will vote based upon the lies of socialism or they vote for $10 and a ride to the polls. No wisdom to make wise policies. It is replaced by those who merely seek power or wealth for themselves or for evil ideological reasons.

Government is a divine institution. It is a part of nationalism. It is not international. Nationalism is designed by God to rule of the best interest of the people.

Good government wisdom requires wisdom and intelligence. They cannot be blind to all other views. Or blind to divine establishment.

Government is not designed to rule by emotion or by despotism. It is designed to be run by wise counsel. People are not to be governed by mob violence. We are beginning to see it in the halls of government. Wise legislation and the rule of objective law.

Practical knowledge is important; rather than a professional politician who has never done anything but politics.

Documents like the Constitution reflect divine establishment. Divine institutions; freedom is being removed, family and marriage are under attack;

This verse fits our history to a tee right now. In electoral ignorance, we are sending to the halls of Congress ideologues, one-issue zealots, immature children, fools.

The Great Leader

1. The great leader and advisor is firm in wisdom. Wisdom comes from divine wisdom. Divine establishment, divine institution, etc.
2. Not self-centered, not arrogant.
3. The great leader has a single eye on the public good, including the enforcement of objective law. Look at where the riots are. That is a weak leader.
4. The public good is not socialism or leftism or empty promises. Empty promises are the hallmark of socialism. The economics of socialism is a lie.
5. The good leader and wise advisor promotes and honest and vigorous wisdom. It takes moral courage to promote that. There will be conflict and opposition to wisdom; this is the devil's world.

6. The good leader must make definitive divine establishment decisions, backed by moral courage. The Republican party lacks moral courage. They may have good principles but they lack the courage to stand for them.
7. The good leader promotes the good policy that preserves freedom and prospers the nation.
8. In this multitude of counselors with wisdom, the safety of a nation resides.

How good are the leaders, the counselors? We fall back not on the leaders; but on God. Revolution is always wrong. Revolution to overthrow a bad government is a bad revolution. You need to concentrate on the spiritual life. You do not need to worry about overthrowing the government. You need to stand still and watch the deliverance of the Lord. It is never hopeless with God, no matter how mad it gets.

Bobby has noticed that people in Berachah love a good conspiracy. Some incredible conspiracists in Berachah. Some may be true. There is evil out there and this could include conspiratorial schemes. Let's say you discover a real conspiracy; what are you going to do. We are believers in Jesus Christ. There are plenty of conspiracies and conspiracy theories. Bobby hears all of these conspiracies. "What are you going to do about it?" Much activism out there and it does nothing.

We have lost so much of this wisdom in our country today. No free and reasonable discussion in our universities. Journalism is biased to the left. There are few statesmen who are well-versed in nationalism. Our churches teach humanism and not Bible doctrine and wisdom.

Bible doctrine and wisdom are muzzled or ridiculed in the public forum.

There is always something for people to worry about. This is why Bobby keeps beating his gums together about wisdom. Whether we are in a degenerate democracy; or in a republic with great integrity; or something in between.

The solution does not lie in politics or in the military. We are the first line of defense; and the grace of God is the only defense. Come up with many reasons why this country will not last for a week or a month.

Many have lost their jobs over executive orders. But what we need is wisdom in our souls.

Fundamental wisdom in v. 14. No guidance means no wisdom, and vice versa. The nation has success in an abundance of counselors with wisdom.

Proverbs 11:14 Where there is no guidance, a people falls, but in an abundance of counselors there is safety \(guidance, victory\).

Bobby has a lot to say about this next verse. The point of this proverb is to focus on the consequences on a certain type of financial action. This proverb aids in making a wise choice. What is a stranger and what is a guarantor?

Proverbs 11:15 Whoever puts up security for a stranger will surely suffer harm, but he who hates striking hands in pledge is secure.

Guarantor Is the Hebrew Word Arab.

1. This is a financial term that implies a pledge or to take on a pledge or to give a pledge. Pledge is the basic idea.
2. It is a pledge of money based on the hope of honesty or good intentions in a business deal. The stipulation for making this pledge is right here. If you have money, you may want to consider this and pay attention.
3. A guarantor is a person who pledges to act as financial security for another person.
4. Guarantor is a surety or a security for payment of a loan. If the party defaults or cannot pay, the one to whom the pledge is made is the stranger. That is the limitation of this verse. This has tremendous range and application to all of us. What do you do with your money?

Lesson #0184

Proverbs 11 Wisdom in the OT

1/28/2021 Thursday

Bobby was told that he sounded a lot like his father last night.

Proverbs 11:15 Whoever puts up security for a stranger will surely suffer harm, but he who hates striking hands in pledge is secure.

The key words, guarantor and stranger.

Guarantor is arab. This implies a pledge, it implies giving a pledge to someone. This is a person who pledges to act as financial security for another person. The person for whom the transaction is guaranteed is the stranger.

Who Is the Stranger

1. The stranger may be an unknown person with no background records established.
2. The stranger may be someone that the guarantor has a little or superficial acquaintance with. Maybe someone said, "He's a good guy."
3. Maybe from another country.
4. In the time that this was written, this could be someone from another tribe, another clan, or another family.
5. These strangers are not safe investments. When someone invests with them, it is often done to gain a quick and possibly large profit.
6. To do this assures the guarantor to have a loss or to be defrauded.
7. For this reason, you don't consider being a guarantor to a stranger. They are very likely to be untrustworthy.

8. Almost anyone can be untrustworthy; but this is very likely that such a person could be very untrustworthy, because you do not know them. Lending to a stranger could be downright foolhardy and a recipe for loss.

More Points

1. To secure debt, a pledge of surety for a stranger is a surety of suffering. This is not always true, but this is a principle of wisdom.
2. That suffering would be financial injury or loss.
3. That means to go into personal debt, by assuming the debt of one who cannot or refuses to service the debt. You are taking on their debt. You should expect them to be trustworthy. It becomes your debt.
4. One who defrauds the guarantor. Too prevalent today with the myriad of scams there are out there. The phone calls to scam are numerous. Don't give any personal information out over the phone. That is a good thought to remember.
5. That is the suffering that comes from guaranteeing the financial risk of a stranger. You should not guarantee the financial risk of a stranger.
6. Today, this is, do not cosign someone else's note. Especially someone who has no track record or someone that you do not know very well. They can do untold damage to you or to your family or to other investors. Opens up to fraud. This can happen with someone that you know well. The wisdom is, don't do it.

If you feel sorry for someone with a long sad story to tell, which is the reason that many people do lend money, and you want to help to get them back on their feet. If you are so tempted, you are responsible for your own life and your own decisions, including your financial decisions and your financial state. If you have any doubt, do not give without investigating. If you are considering being a lender, then investigate. If they have a track record, you can investigate it.

In any case, do not give what you cannot stand to lose. You have that right, as a prospective guarantor. There are greater issues than someone's dealings. If they are unable to obtain financial investment without your help, then you should not be lending. That is a simple reason to say no.

There is always that Ponzi scheme. Beware of the investor who offers you a rate of return that no one else has; they promise big gains, they promise big investments, yours and not theirs. A man who was part of this congregation in another state was running a big Ponzi scheme. He gave lots of money to the church and to Rick Hughes. The attorneys for the investors who were defrauded said, "We want our money back," and they did return it.

Over 10 years, it was about $100 million. Don't think that someone won't cheat you, if they are doctrinal believers. They will and they have. Several of these, Bobby knew very well. The wisdom here is the second line.

Proverbs 11:15b ...but he who hates striking hands in pledge is secure.

Hating Such a Process

1. Hate means refusing advances to become a guarantor.
2. This does not mean to never be a guarantor.
3. Think of the stranger as an enemy of good business sense. Not every stranger is a grifter.
4. Wisdom is demanded here. Your money is safe if you say no.

Apply wisdom and discernment. The wise person avoids those who offer very risky and speculative investments. Do not throw your money at someone that you do not know. Even if it sounds like a great deal. Those who are discerning will do what Bobby has already said, investigate. Ask many questions of the borrower and check references and ask for accounts. Even to do background checks. Bobby does background checks on every employee, every prep school teacher, etc. An investigation may not provide any answers. It will preclude a rash decision on your part.

Possibly that time you spend investigating will scare off such a borrower. He who hates being a guarantor is secure. Err on the side of caution. If you don't do it, you will not get burned. If you do, there is the chance of suffering. Your money is secure if you hate being a guarantor. If you bite, then you are becoming a guarantor of suffering. Even if you do know them. Still, be cautious.

In a nation of commerce and business; the United States today, there needs to be some commercial strictness; guidelines and financial security. Too many people for whatever reason, ignore.

Charity

1. This is not a call to be uncharitable to those in need.
2. This is not to saw, take no calculated risks in business.
3. Charity does not come by being a guarantor. That is why a sad story is not a reason. Charity is grace in time of need for someone in need. Bobby gives money, but he does not loan it.
4. V. 15 is a call for prudence and discernment in how you invest; and especially with whom you invest. Financial institutions with a good track record are probably the safest. Failure should not be because you have not done your due diligence.
5. Never invest more than you can afford to lose. Especially a loss that would deprive your family or take from someone else's money.

More Points

1. This is a verse to call for rejecting that which is financially unwise.
2. What the prospective guarantor must hate is thoughtlessness. Also to hate a lack of investigation of the person you are guaranteeing.
3. Reject an emotional or greedy decision making without the application of wisdom and honesty.

One should be careful of investments; and shady investments. Being a guarantor for an unknown person results in suffering for you and others. It is not just about you. There can be enough cursing to go around.

This verse counsels all good people who invest. It is not to get involved in shady practices. In every area of life, there are trials. What is demanded here is that Christians take divine wisdom with them and take that wisdom into your financial dealings. Seek the Lord's will. Follow the integrity which you have learned.

When you are wise, you can smell a bad deal. You can look at a person and know when to reject them. Capitalism is not anti-Christian. Jesus is not a socialist. Jesus did not enter this world espousing an economic system.

Our watchword in all of this is, do not fear; be discerning with wisdom, operate from a position of integrity. This is at the forefront of any business deal.

Bobby has given the principles of this verse; but we may not know how to apply it.

Bobby has 5 illustrations, the practical illustrations. They require wisdom and integrity from the lender and guarantor.

There is a person who has $20k and is looking to get another $10k. He does not look to take more than what he can cover. If he is not misrepresenting himself, that is good. The borrower may truly have $20k, but he thinks himself safe if he claims to have $40k. He defrauds the investor. Caveat emptor. Request financial statements. If those requests are not forthcoming, reject being a guarantor.

Second illustration. The person may have $10 but wants $10k. But he needs to reveal all of the circumstances to the guarantor. It must be thoroughly known to the lender. This reduces the chance of fraud; and he can make the decision to loan, based upon the facts. Now you see why all of this background information is needed for a mortgage company. It is just good business for the guarantor. It is a model for anyone lending money. Don't be a guarantor to a stranger.

The person who only has $10 and if he has integrity, that may be a better deal than the one with $20k with no integrity. Let the whole truth be known, even if this means a rejection of the loan.

The same principle that would be applied to bind a borrower. Obtain from a guarantor as if it were your own money.

Third illustration. Let's say the person is involved in extensive business. Large capital but they take heavy losses. They realize that their losses are not covered by existing assets. Some might pretend as if nothing is happening and they keep the credit flowing. This has been done many times.

Measure by the standard of integrity, this is unmitigated ...

It is to keep or borrow money under false pretenses. If you are reduced to little or nothing, but you keep up a show in order to appear successful. If your credit is gone, you must reveal that; not hide it. Bobby speaks from experience. It was done to him. Someone here was hit up for the money to cover those losses. It happens all of the time.

Fourth. A man loses in the current year, but he hopes to make up for it in a better year. He borrows to get even. But he finds he is still falling behind. He borrows on his past circumstance, but without revealing what is currently happening. This act is inherently dishonest. The guarantors are losing capital without knowing it. The borrower is losing someone else's money. He can be classified as a stranger. There is a loathsome selfishness in the deceit of the borrower. If he pushes forward, the profit brings him out. When the business goes bad, he has nothing to lose; and a guarantor takes the loss.

An honorable person is conducting business in a legitimate way. He is indebted to his investors; all of this continues in an honest and forthright way. It continues every year with a return on the investment. Then a friend comes to this person and requests a substantial loan guaranteed by his own company. Speculations are always promising, by the way. In mistaken understanding of friendship and trust, the honest businessman becomes the guarantor for a shifty person. He may not even know what the risky scheme is. When they have the means, he pays them. If it failed, it would fail and it would leave the guarantors holding the bag. He will end up causing suffering to himself and to his investors. Unjust, unwise,...

These illustrations are things which may have happened. You may still be in trouble or in a financial risk...there are many other illustrations.

Proverbs 11:15 Whoever puts up security for a stranger will surely suffer harm, but he who hates striking hands in pledge is secure.

Lesson #0185

Proverbs 11 Wisdom in the OT

1/31/2021 Sunday

Proverbs 11:15 Whoever puts up security for a stranger will surely suffer harm, but he who hates striking hands in pledge is secure.

This proverb warns against being a lender, or a guarantor. I think there might be more to this than that.

A guarantor pledges money; he acts as security for another person. He is pledging money to a stranger. This passage says, don't do it. If there is no character or investment history established. Or an unknown borrower who will just hit you up for money. Or a stranger from another country. Bobby has gotten the phone call to send money to a bank to get a person out of trouble in a foreign country.

Here, stranger is from another clan or family or whatever.

If you don't become a guarantor, your finances will be secure...at least in this respect. You will not go into debt or into bankruptcy over a pledge you have made. Suffering that comes from guaranteeing a financial risk with a stranger.

5 practical illustrations were given on Thursday night. These are circumstances which may occur everyday in life. There were do's and don't's in these illustrations. No absolute security in being a guarantor. You must be cognitive of the risks that these things can be for you.

There are many practical questions that can be gotten from this verse. One of the first things that comes to mind is, can business really be conducted if these principles are insisted upon? Business today is much more complex than it was back in the ancient times of this verse. Many business people today do not stand by such practices; or even believe in them.

Business, in all of its complications, will stand more strongly, if rooted in integrity. It is especially good to know when not to do it. Poor judgment is taking on...

Fraud can ruin many relationships. The extent to which it exists speaks to the dishonesty of the society as a whole. Capitalism has a bad reputation over dishonesty in business.

How Can These Principles Be Applied to Investment in a Friend or in a Relative?

1. Certainly help that person as a guarantor if you are convinced that he or she is trustworthy and that you are able to do it.
2. Help this person out of your own means if it is available and you can afford to lose it. Do it from what you have.
3. Do not mortgage or borrow money from another guarantor to help out this 3rd party. Don't grab someone else's money.
4. You do not want to set up a chain of guarantors. This money is not yours and you have no right to risk it this way.
5. Do not put your immediately family and financial. Your cousin needs money and how does this impact your wife and children? Or the good friend that you have known for 40 years. You have to consider this based upon your own finances. You have a right to pledge your own money, if you think it is a good investment and you can cover the loss.

But you have no right to pledge someone else's money, unless you inform that third party of the risks and they acquiesce to the loan. Open and complete honesty. No fudging on the fine details. They become a guarantor with you and not because of you. The moment you guarantee what you do not have. It is okay to invest in some groups which do the investment for you. Not Ponzi schemes. People love to play the stock market. People have different things they like, such as metals. Bobby is a long way from saying or thinking that a person of integrity or an institution of good conscience will always know and make good decisions. No doubt in evolving circumstances, an honest conscientious person will come across some situation where it is difficult to determine the direction that wisdom leads. This is not always easy, because there are decisions to be made.

You may involved yourself and others in a financial disaster, even though it was not done in malice or in nefarious circumstances.

Principle goes back to 1Cor. 6 where a Christian sues another Christian. It has happened in this auditorium. You do not sue other Christians, even if they lose your money.

The application of wisdom covers a lot of ground. You have to make those applications based upon circumstances in which you find yourself.

Application of this to People with Wisdom

1. Human beings who depend upon wisdom for guidance are fallible. We are all fallible. We do have moments of stupidity; even greed.
2. In this line of life, as in every other, there are trials of faith and wisdom. Maybe especially in this once because money is involved.
3. What is demanded then, that Christian businessmen and women take their spiritual life or integrity to the marketplace. Your spiritual maturity will guide how you interact with other people.
4. Apply integrity, honesty or wisdom that you have gained, and very important, do not cease to grow in wisdom.
5. In every case, seek God's will and guidance. Prayer; use discernment, which comes from wisdom. Wisdom from Bible doctrine is the great discerner in life.
6. Let honesty and truthfulness be your criterion. 1Cor. 14:30 but all things must be done properly and in an orderly manner.
7. Orderly manner is a coordinated effort between integrity, wisdom and good decisions. How important this is, in a world of honesty and dishonesty.

Proverbs 11:15 Whoever puts up security for a stranger will surely suffer harm, but he who hates striking hands in pledge is secure.

Now we are going to move into an area of honorable women and ruthless men.

Proverbs 11:16 A gracious woman gets honor, and violent men get riches.

This is the only verse in Proverbs where men and women are contrasted.

Bobby looked at this passage and wondered what a feminist might say. A feminist might argue from this verse that a female-run society would be much more honorable. Are we interested in gaining wealth and power in any way that a male can?

Men are greedy and women are honorable? Is that what this verse says? What many people leave out is, the Bible teaches in many places, that the sin nature is present in all human beings. Women are not excluded. Not even the virgin Mary. All have equal opportunity to sin. The feminist conclusion is, society would be in better shape to depend upon... Both men and women can be ruthless and greedy. Character and integrity matter, in both genders.

Men and Women and Proverbs 11;16

1. This verse is a general commentary of certain traits of men and women who are compared.
2. Particularly the woman who is honorable and how she obtains it. This is a very good passage for women. This is not a misogynist passage.
3. The woman is gracious here.
4. The comparison is between a gracious woman. This is one woman, for an example. Ruthless men happens to be plural.
5. That is not that case that this is all men. This is still not the entire gender of males. But this is a common trait of men with very active sin natures.
6. There is a struggle here between upright graciousness and immoral force. The writer simply uses men and women to illustrate this. Do not take this as a stereotype of either one.
7. This comparison is easily comprehended based upon the stereotypical makeup of men or women.
8. In the comparison, the difference between the two has an impact upon those in their periphery. That is a very important part of this passage. This is an insight as to what makes a great woman. This is in opposition to the man who wants an increase of wealth, no matter what.

There is a counter in Proverbs 19:1 Better is the poor who walks in his integrity than he who is perverse in his lips and is a fool.

The Woman of Proverbs 11:16

1. The singular woman here in this case is beautiful in character. A beautiful soul.
2. She is a woman of gracious bearing, beautiful in deportment, spirit and actions.
3. Hence, in that mode, she obtains honor in her house, among her relatives, among her friends, among all those who know her and all those who interact with her; and by reputation as well. This is a quality which stands out in a woman who possesses it. This may illicit jealousy in those who are not this way. If you had known a grace oriented woman, you have met the finest creation of God. Spiritual greatness. This is a woman of great spiritual maturity. Every woman should want to be this woman. This extends far beyond what we find in women today and the contemporary view of women today. This is a believer in Jesus Christ, and it has nothing to do with what she has accomplished. It is all about her inner beauty.
4. She is the most beautiful of human beings inside and out. What is in her reflects outwardly. This makes her a gracious person. This is a quality that we might more expect, but often do not find.

5. Honor from everyone is due to her. The gracious woman is an honorable woman. The book of Proverbs has much to say about women of character and women who lack character. Prov. 31 is a great rendition of what a great woman is like. There are passages that Bobby would be afraid to teach. Maybe Bobby will teach that passage, and he will gain some moral courage.

Proverbs 11:16 A gracious woman gets honor, and violent men get riches.

Lesson #0186                      Proverbs 11 Wisdom in the OT    2/3/2021 Wednesday

Proverbs has so much to say about everything; but a lot to say about women with and without character. And reproofs from disciplines are a way of life to keep you from the evil woman, from the smooth tongue of the adulteress; do not let her capture her with her eyelids. For on account of a harlot, one is reduced to a loaf of bread; and an adulteress hunts for the...life...can a man walk on coals and not be burned.

Crafty harlot, and several other passages are named. Prov. 31 is a fantastic passage on great women. Prov. 11:16 is one of those great passages about women and men.

Proverbs 11:16 A gracious woman gets honor, and violent men get riches.

The Woman of Proverbs 11:16

1. A woman with great character is described chen, which means, grace, favor, charming.
2. In this context, this is a woman of grace; a soul filled with doctrine.
3. That is the meaning of the main verb in the first line. Tamak
4. Tamak means to grasp, to retain, to hold fast.
5. This is a woman who has metabolized Bible doctrine and who retains it; holds it in the memory center of her soul.
6. She applies it in the form of grace orientation. She is a woman of honor. She is a woman of honor. Kabod.

She Is Kabod

1. The grace oriented woman has kabod. She has splendor, wonder, wealth.
2. The wealth is an abundance of splendid character typified by graciousness.
3. In contrast, we have the mind, the ruthless man, who has drive for material wealth. Ruthless men attain riches in this same verse.
4. She has a glory about her that is palpable. She has the greatest wealth, which is grace orientation which gives her an inner beauty of soul.
5. The man on the other hand has a ruthless nature that stops at nothing to gain the details of life. Of course, there are certain women with these same characteristics; they are shrill and strident.

6. Nothing more glamorous and glorious than a grace oriented woman; even more than the man.
7. To be grace oriented, one must be doctrinally oriented. The Christian life is grace oriented. You cannot live the Christian life without being grace oriented. The woman who lives this life is a beautiful creature. The woman who is grace oriented is more beautiful than you can imagine. This is the most attractive of all female qualities.

Many men would prefer the attractive women; the sexy woman. That is so fleeting. It does not last for a lifetime. Nor does outer beauty last. Her real person comes through. It is a Biblical description of a woman's sin nature. Contentious, malicious sometimes spiteful. A constant dripping on a day of steady rain and a contentious woman are alike. It is better to live in a desert land than with a contentious and vexing woman.

The grace oriented woman has a much greater capacity for kindness and love. She outshines by far the aggressive feminist woman. This is what a woman was designed to be. Even working in the marketplace, she retains her femininity. She is esteemed for it.

A dear friend of Bobby's became a high executive in Shell Oil and she never lost her grace orientation; and they identified her as such.

To maintain that attitude of grace orientation when you are competing with ruthless men, it is a rough game. Sometimes it embitters women; but never the grace oriented women. Feminism has tried to level the playing field in business and in competition with men; and they have done this with mixed results. The creation of the masculine woman. Women don't make good men. Women often have an advantage competing as women. They have the advantage, but often they just don't know it.

Under feminist ideology, there are men who are becoming women in their souls. They have become subservient responders rather than initiators. Women do not respect men who are that way, no matter what they say. The woman that is that way, fulfills the curse of Gen. 3:16 (your desire will be for your husband). This has been misinterpreted as a sexual reference. The second line defines the meaning of the first line. It says, he will rule over you and your desire will be to rule over him. That is the curse of the woman. Always desiring to rule; but the divine design is the opposite. In these days, men are being removed from their traditional, Biblical roles. It affects their lives, the lives of their wives and children. This causes societal confusion. Many women have come to think that fathers are unnecessary to raise children. This is a direct attack on the divine institution of family. The child needs the perspective of both genders. The children are off-balance. Too much of one and none of the other. A daughter needs a father and a mother to teach her the ways of men. They need both.

Marriage is designed for wives to respect their husbands; and men are to love their wives as Christ loved the church. That is a role of a man and woman in marriage. This means that you may have to do things they may not want to do. The husband must be aware of the needs of his wife. You know, most of your husbands, that you cannot have a good relationship and are willing to have that sacrificial love. Christ died for the church. That is a tall order. The man has a very important role to play.

How can a woman respect a man who does not love her as God designed. The wives are responders; and they respond with respect. The grace oriented woman is the most beautiful responder. Every man should want a grace oriented woman because it works.

Carrying authority never means abuse, brutality or thoughtlessness. With the proper balance of roles, then you have a great society. Today we have a society where families are in shambles. Children are being reared in a way that is terrible. They are taught by other children, by gangs and by a slanted education system.

This is the wisdom in this verse, the wisdom necessary for a woman to be a great woman. This woman must first have her spiritual life together. Grace orientation does not come without the spiritual life.

The woman's grace orientation and her occupation with Christ and the inner beauty that comes from this gives her an impact on those around her. That is the gracious woman of honor. That is the wisdom of the ages. This began when God created the woman.

A woman like that can accomplish so much in any environment that she is in.

Proverbs 11:16 A gracious woman gets honor, and violent men get riches.

There Is One Word in Common Between V. 16a and 16b

1. A repeat of the word tamak, to grasp, to seize, to hold.
2. These two lines are still a comparison.
3. A person can seize and hold wealth by any means; often without scruples. Speaking of a man here, but it can be either gender. Get what you can get in any way that you can get it.
4. That grasping, that holding, is by the erits man.
5. Erits means awe-inspiring, terror-causing, ruthless.
6. These are the men to avoid. Avoid them because they are devoid of character. They lack any compassion, understanding or capacity for love. He is seeking wealth, so he has no compassion or capacity for love.

Apparently, that aggressive nature of man, seeking the details of life, lends itself to the poor quality in the man. He can be an aggressive womanizer; or the woman who has become masculine in her approach to life. The aggressiveness is misused. It is misused in a frantic search of the details of life.

A Man of Honor

1. If you combine the aggressiveness of a mean with Bible doctrine, then you have a man of honor. Next verse will tell us that such a creature exists.

2. This man of honor is one who is bold and energized.
3. Within the emboldened and energized parameters of an iron-clad integrity, which is divine establishment and Bible doctrine. Hence a man of wisdom.
4. Such a man has the capacity to love in a proactive way. He knows what love is; he knows what respect is.
5. Honorable describes the person who is kind and has the capacity to love.

Hard to respect a man who is not honorable.

Proverbs 11:16 A gracious woman gets honor, and violent men get riches.

We now leave the honorable woman behind and move on to the next verse.

Proverbs 11:17 A man who is kind benefits himself, but a cruel man hurts himself.

Another comparison here; and this time, between men. Obviously, mercy is better than cruelty. A man can be merciful; but he can be incredibly cruel as well. Now we see that a man can have honor. He can do himself good and have honor.

Contrasting the Types of Men

1. This is a contrast between dispositions and attitude.
2. Being merciful and kind is always beneficial. Some men who are seen this way are perceived as less than men.
3. Cruelty is trouble; it reflects a littyany of mental attitude sins. Anger, hatred, self-centered arrogance.
4. The merciful and kind man is helpful to others. It is a quality that many men are missing. A man can be merciful, but still competitive; and out to be the best in his field.
5. There is benefit for both parties in every act of mercy and kindness. For those who receive it and for those who extend it.
6. Both receive the good things that come from a mature capacity for grace and mercy.

That is the one who has these good things. This may be the only time they see grace orientation in a man. There are not that many of them. The giver receives more benefit than the one who receives it. Rendering an attitude. There is a benefit that can be found nowhere else. Impersonal love is reflected by the mercy and kindness of grace orientation.

The benefit; the one who shows mercy and kindness is always the beneficiary of his graciousness.

On the Other Hand, the Cruel Man Invariably Hurts Others

1. He approaches others with envy, jealousy, pettiness, anger, implacability, inordinate competitiveness.

2. This qualities cause him to take cruel action towards others.
3. This cruelty is demonstrated in his treatment of animals. Anyone who expresses cruelty to animals will inevitably treat other people in the same way. That is the underlying trait of cruel husbands. Watch how a man treats his pet; that is how he will treat you.

Recognizing Cruelty

1. If you inflict intentionally suffering to animals, that person has a capacity to be very cruel to others.
2. The self-centered attitude of cruelty blinds, cripples and deters any advance in the spiritual life; by very definition. You cannot be grace oriented without being doctrinally orientated.
3. That attitude precludes the application of wisdom; but it promotes something else. It shows anger and frustration. What kind of gestures that you make when driving. That can be an indicator. Have a look.
4. An ungenerous disposition is a curse to hits possessor and to those around him. Lack of generosity and grace orientation is a curse.
5. This verse also tells us that the one who injures others injures himself as well.
6. He that is cruel troubles his own soul; and cruelty perverts the soul. That is what this verse is talking about.

Proverbs 11:17 A man who is kind benefits himself, but a cruel man hurts himself.

Lesson #0187

Proverbs 11 Wisdom in the OT

2/4/2021 Thursday

Prayer for opening of Senate; but no date on it. Bobby looked it up. Prayer attributed to Billy Graham, but prayed by a pastor of a central Bible church in Kansas. Someone asked him to pray. Rules of the Senate, you write down the prayer and then you simply read it. This is a prayer which should be read in all of the state congresses. This prayer was read by Paul Harvey over national radio after.

“We have come before You in the Senate....we know You have said, ‘Woe to those who called evil good, and good evil. We have ridiculed the guidance of Your Word. We have rewarded laziness and called it welfare; we have abused power and called it politics, we have embezzled public funds and called it necessary legislation; we have polluted the air with pornography and swearing and have called it free speech. Search our hearts and set us free.”

Three Senators stood up and said, “He can’t talk about us in that way.”

This prayer was made in 1996 in the Senate of the state of Kansas.

We completed our study on the honorable grace oriented woman. Half of our study on v. 16. Such men are driven to find wealth at any price. In v. 16, men are a pretty sorry lot.

But v. 17 shows that there is recovery for men.

Proverbs 11:17 A man who is kind benefits himself, but a cruel man hurts himself.

Any man can be cruel; and self-centered arrogance can make a man awful. Let's examine these two types of men, cruel vs. merciful.

A kind man is grace oriented man; a merciful man; parallel to the woman in v. 16a. He has a soul filled with Bible doctrine; he is a mature believer. He applies the mind of Christ and he is doctrinally oriented.

Matt. 5:7 "Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy.

The Grace Oriented Believer

1. Those who show the characteristics of grace orientation will manifest this quality of mercy. That is what this says. There is a connection.
2. Merciful in Matt. 5:7. Eliêmôn
3. This is a believer characterized by compassion.
4. He lives in grace towards others. In this case, the grace oriented believer is one who lives based upon grace displayed towards others.
5. Mental attitude sins are not present or minimal in the grace oriented person.
6. This is a believer who expresses care and concern for others in need from the developed quality of grace orientation. Bobby does not like to call this charity because this is something that an unbeliever can do. This results in true motivation to help those in need. Grace orientation is one of the most important qualities that a believer can have. Doctrine is necessary. Doctrine is the foundation for all in life; for all the problem solving devices. This is knowing the attitude of every believer is grace.

Grace orientation as a doctrine. This is our life. We must be grace oriented to live the Christian life; to think the Christian life.

Grace Orientation

What we are studying is all about the grace oriented believer.

1. This is the mental attitude of the believer who recognizes that everything that he or she is depends solely upon the power and plan of God. The believer is saved by grace and they live by grace. The mental attitude recognizes everything depends solely upon the plan of God.
2. Grace is God's unmerited favor to you. From this comes grace orientation. We are oriented to grace because we understand what He has done for us.
3. This grace orientation is the attitude of total reliance upon God; and adjustment to His grace policies; and utilization of His limitless grace provisions. When we begin to understand this, we do what we can; we function within our own abilities; but all that is above that, lies upon the Lord.

4. All the execution of God's plan is God's power. Filling of the Spirit, rebound, the Word of God. All of these things are grace. Every other problem solving device is God's grace. 2Tim. 2:1 Heb. 13:9
5. Without grace orientation, believers could not survive in the cosmic system. We could not live the spiritual life. Heb. 13:9
6. Scripture tells believers to stand firm in grace oriented. 1Peter 5:12?
7. There can be no grace orientation without humility. James 4:10 God gives grace to the humble and makes war on the arrogant.
8. There cannot be growth in grace without following the tandem command to grow in grace and knowledge of our Lord. You must have knowledge to be grace oriented.
9. Once the believer submits to God's plan and adapts to grace procedures, the believer then realizes that God alone does the work to meet needs and to solve problems. What a breakthrough that is. We strive to solve our problems in life. We push and shove to get ahead. We seek approbation. We strive for all kinds of successes. 2Peter 1:2-4
10. We are no longer preoccupied with human works and achievements. We can still do those things, but we are not preoccupied with them. God's policy.
11. This is the quality of mercy and kindness; grace orientation. Prov. 11:17
12. By winning the battle over legalism, pride and arrogance, often unknowingly, it represents the grace attitude of Jesus Christ to the world. Who do you represent in this world. Who do you witness for? Who do you serve? Representing God's grace to the world comes through your function in the world. It is the grace of God which is the power unto salvation. It is the grace of God when we share the gospel; and this is what we live in the plan of God. That is grace orientation. That is who you are and how you live.

The greatest achievement that you can have in life is to become grace oriented and rely upon the plan of God. We can plan for ourselves and we can have goals for ourselves. But the first thought, where is God taking us? We should always be open to the plan of God.

The wrong motivation, you hit a brick wall that you cannot get past. The relaxed mental attitude is the basis of our conduct; meaning a believer conducts with sensitivity towards others. 1Peter 5:5

The greatest heroes of the Bible reach maturity not by their own genius and strength. They reach maturity by fully submitting to the hand of God. Psalm 23 is a recognition of God's grace; and that is the low point of his life.

Paul was humbled many times by intense suffering. When I am weak, then I am strong. Then he can orient to the sufficiency of God's grace. 1Cor. 12:7-10 David and Paul were men of great talent and drive; they were aggressive; but their lives were all about grace. Moses was also a man of great genius; should have been pharaoh of Egypt; but he ended up in the desert with a bunch of sheep. He had to put up with the worst bunch of complaining people on earth.

When a Believer Operates in a Grace Oriented Way, What Are You Like?

1. You forgive wrongs suffered just as Christ forgave. Arrogance has trouble with grace orientation.
2. He shows impersonal love towards all mankind. You can only show impersonal love if you are grace oriented. You know that Jesus died for you and you are totally undeserving. You can forgive others and apply impersonal love toward them.
3. The result of all that is a relaxed mental attitude. The grace oriented person lives a life of peace and tranquilly and contentment.
4. However, lest you think that this is not exciting enough, this is not a life of boredom.
5. A relaxed mental attitude just precludes a life where this is constant friction, fighting; it does not mean that you must be dull or live in dullness.
6. Without a relaxed mental attitude, evolves a life which is characterized by constant conflict and cruelty.
7. With a relaxed mental attitude, one is able to concentrate on what really matters in life. If you are always running around like a chicken with its head cut off, you cannot focus upon what is truly important in life. If you are out of fellowship, you are not going to do that.
8. The lack of a relaxed mental attitude is an exhausting way to live. It drains your energy. But the grace oriented believer has a relaxed mental attitude. The lack of it is an exhausting way to live.
9. Why is it exhausting? Because a lack of grace orientation is a person who is never satisfied. Something is always wrong; there is always something to complain about. There is always something to complain about and what bothers me. If you are truly in God's hands, what can you complain about? That requires faith rest, the use of other problem solving devices. It all comes out of grace orientation.

Bobby was forging ahead in this verse, but he was not really teaching grace orientation, which is fundamental.

Mercy Shown to an Undeserving World

1. From the viewpoint of grace orientation, the mature believer has no illusions about the world to whom he shows mercy. That is what this verse is all about.
2. He or she understands the world to whom mercy is shown that it is undeserving. Who amongst us deserves anything from God? We don't; but we have everything. Who deserves your favor; the ones who cross you; those who stab you in the back; do they deserve your favor? No!
3. It does not matter how the world operates. That is not our problem. Our charge is how does God operate and how does He want us to operate?
4. What really matters is how you think and operate under grace orientation. You see the world around you in an entirely different light. Impersonal love; sharing the happiness of God; spiritual self esteem; then it all begins to make sense. If you are grace oriented, then you do live it. You don't have to strive after it.

5. That is grace in action and it is characteristic of the mature believer and the byproduct of grace in action. A relaxed mental attitude in an ungracious, undeserving and conflicting world. Congress is a microcosm of that. You know where to go to test your grace orientation.
6. Conforming to this world is loss of grace orientation. It is choosing a life of conflict and frustration. The world does not think with grace orientation. There is a dichotomy there; a great gulf fixed. The world does not understand or live by grace. Matt. 5:7. A believer with his attitude or being merciful will receive mercy. That which a man sows, he will also reap. If he sows mercy, he will reap mercy. The grace oriented believer demonstrates God's mercy. We are the ambassador. Then you have the option. You live it; you show it; you speak it.
7. God's grace blessing rebounds on the grace oriented person. On the context of this sermon on the mount.

This quality of grace orientation brings great reward in the Kingdom of Heaven and in our temporal life. The cruel man is where the sin nature is active in full force. He takes actions against others. Some of this action is revenge, backstabbing, gossip. The world is a tyrannical, self-serving place. Even the best unbelievers can have this quality. Some are good. Some are charitable. It is still about them; still about their own success; still about their own approbation.

This attitude overflows to everything in life. The cruel man has inordinate mental stress with all of the attending problems. Mental stress takes over. You don't have to give in to stress. Mental problems also like neuroses, like depression, anxiety, hypochondria. Psycho-somatic problems etc. which come from these negative thoughts. Physical results as well. The cruel person can also have all kinds of things. He does great damage to himself and to others. Self-induced misery. He carries that misery to wherever he goes; to whomever he has contact with. This is the alternative to the grace oriented life; the cruel man. This does not mean that you are mean to animals or that you pull the hair of little girls. Cruelty is the cosmic system; it is a cruel world because it is an unfair world; it is the devil's world. His world is cruel. We are the only person who is not cruel, if you are grace oriented.

Proverbs 11:17 A man who is kind benefits himself, but a cruel man hurts himself.

Vv. 18–20 compares good and evil with both genders.

Lesson #0188

Proverbs 11 Wisdom in the OT

2/7/2021 Sunday

People often deny evil. It is not mankind; or it is how mankind lives. Or, our environment is imperfect; but it is not evil. Vv. 18–20 continues this sort of thinking.

Bobby reads these verses.

Proverbs 11:18 The wicked earns deceptive wages, but one who sows righteousness gets a sure reward.

Proverbs 11:19 Whoever is steadfast in righteousness will live, but he who pursues evil will die.

Proverbs 11:20 Those of crooked heart are an abomination to the LORD, but those of blameless ways are His delight.

Good and evil are discussed in this verses.

Proverbs 11:18 The wicked earns deceptive wages, but one who sows righteousness gets a sure reward.

The wicked can refer to believers in reversionism or to unbelievers with no concept of divine establishment. There may be no difference between believers and unbelievers in their actions. Believers can demonstrate the same amount of evil as unbelievers. The only difference is hypocrisy.

What about the deceptive wages which are earned? This is from a working life; it is pay for what is in view here. High wages, but they are deceptive wages. This is connected to evil.

Deceptive Wages

1. Deceptive is chequer, which means deceptive.
2. It means that the wages earned, which is the prosperity of the wicked; these wages do not last. These wages are empty; meaningless. Isn't this what we strive for?
3. No matter how great the profit, it does not satisfy by itself. We may dispute this. If I could just hit that lottery.
4. It does not bring earthly rewards that are touted. Gaining material wealth and the details of life can be empty. The coffers are filled by the soul is empty.
5. That is the deceptive nature of material things. For many, gaining wages is the highest achievement in life.

People who gain wealth and fame often wonder, why does this not make my happy or content or satisfied with life? So many strive for that end, freedom from financial difficulties. They might be admired or hated for their success. What goes wrong with that? People even commit suicide who have it all; and they take drugs in order to be happy.

Deceptive Wages #2

1. Wealth can be deceptive. We believe in capitalism; we believe in freedom. There is nothing wrong with making money.
2. People think that gaining wages makes them feel fulfilled. Bobby's great, great uncle trained to be a pharmacist. He did alright, but he was not satisfied with just being a pharmacist. He decided to start a knitting mill in Fort Wayne, bringing over people from Germany. He employed 2500 people. He gained a great deal of wealth for the Thieme family. It was quite lucrative. That grand uncle was an atheist and he spend much time trying to make up for the money that he made. But it was not fulfilling in the way that it should have been. Many of us are the product of the spiritual side of the family. It depends upon your soul.

3. Lives have been dedicated to the results of prosperity. That is the wrong priority. Nothing wrong with going after it.
4. Without the hope and confidence of eternal life, without a spiritual life, that brings meaning and purpose, beyond the material, in the end there is only emptiness. Wealth as the end-all is the deception of human viewpoint. The idea of life without God or Christ. What a statement this is!
5. The material priorities of a person's life deludes the individual themselves. It is a delusion.
6. It makes the very life a fiction of wickedness. It is apart from God. Anything that is apart from God is wickedness. Whatever is apart from God is evil.
7. That person walks in vanity and arrogance; filled with hopes that never meet expectation. The old Lifestyles of the Rich and Famous. This is the illusion of deceptiveness. Illusionary hopes that do not meet expectations. That is the richest life, anywhere.
8. The illusion is deceptive, not only to self, but to others as well. The shows, the looking at people who are seeming successful and wealthy. If you think that is the end all in life.
9. It makes the person with deceptive wages a humanist deceiver and a liar to others. They can talk a great game; look at what I have; look at who I am. What is in the soul is who they are.
10. It fabricates an dishonesty in life, that all you need are these material things. A great satanic deception that, all you need are all of the accutraments of life. They get old and they realize that all that they have strived for is meaningless.
11. This deception is like the deceiver himself. If you just eat of this fruit, you will see what God sees. But they saw nothing; pain and misery.
12. Just deceptive wages is all that remains for the person. They never happy; they are never satisfied with life.

Human good can be deceptive as well.

Bobby is not including charity towards others. We are to be kind and merciful to others. Even though this can be human good (it can be divine good as well). Human charity...true charity comes from grace orientation; it should be the production of divine good and a spiritual life.

People are charitable for many different reasons. As a tax break, as a respected thing among peers. But if not the production of the spiritual life, it has limited meaning. No amount of human good, outside of the empowerment of the Holy Spirit, is rewardable in eternity.

We have a plan to fulfill as believers. We also have eternity to look forward to. That is a very long, long time. What do you take with you. You take divine good with you. That is over with, as soon as you are gone. The deceptive wages are gone as well. All you will have is the spiritual life and what you have done with it. Anything other than divine good is called dead works. Human good is dead works. The fruit of the spiritual; and spiritual growth is gained. That is the means and attitude for divine good. That is definitely divine good. It is the opposite of deceptive wages; the wages that come from the spiritual life.

Divine Good Defined

Since this is our reward and obligation.

1. Divine good, with its specific reference to mankind, describes the thinking, the deeds, the works, the service of a believer who utilizes divine resources to execute the plan of God. Grace orientation and doctrinal orientation. Then charity and other things become the production of divine good. Witnessing and prayer is all divine good.
2. In the broadest sense, divine good is everything that originate from God. What comes from God is good. What we use in life, given to us by God, is divine good. We are totally capable of producing it. Think of the nice things that we do in life. We can produce divine good or human good.
