Personal Injustice

Introduction: I have no problem placing the psalms which we have covered thus far in the book of Samuel. However, Psalm 7 is more difficult, as David references Cush the Benjamite. Edersheim suggest that this is a name for Doeg, possibly earned after he slaughtered the priests of Nob. This could be another enemy of David's, not unlike Doeg. That this is a psalm about pursuit, deliverance and injustice, we may reasonably place this psalm during the time period of David's exile. In a precursory glance, I might even place this at the beginning of David's exiled psalms.

Let me offer a different and more accurate point of view. Since the only Cush of Scripture comes from Gen. 10, a time which would predate the Benjamites considerably, let me offer another point of view. This is more likely a veiled reference to Saul, who is a Benjamite. Cush was from the line of Ham (his first son), and Cush fathered Nimrod. Not only would this be the unsaved line of Noah, but the degenerate line of Noah. David may be slyly referring to Saul without naming him here. That this would be a psalm written early on in David's escape would further give credence to this theory. That this enemy is pursuing him (v. 5a) and that he overtakes him (v. 5b) would reasonably place this psalm almost at the end of 1Sam. 23.

Psalm 7 Inscription

Slavishly literal:

A Shiggaion [possibly, a going astray].
To David, which he sings to Y<sup>e</sup>howah upon words of Cush, a Benjamite.

Psalm
7 inscription

Moderately literal:

A Shiggaion [possibly, a going astray].
For David, which he sings to Y<sup>e</sup>howah concerning the words of Cush the Benjamite.

<sup>1</sup> Recall

A wild, passionate psalm. A psalm written by David, sung to Jehovah, about what Cush the Benjamite [Saul] has said.

Here is how others have translated this verse:

Early translations:

The Dead Sea Scrolls	.
The Latin Vulgate	.
The Peshitta	[no title]
The Septuagint	A Psalm of David, which he sang to the lord because of the words of Chui the Benjamite [lit., son of Jemin ].

Thought-for-thought translations; paraphrases:

CEV	[Written by David. He sang this to the LORD because of Cush from the tribe of Benjamin.] The Lord Always Does Right
NAB	.
NJB	Lament Of David Which he sang to Yahweh about Cush the Benjamite.
NLT	A psalm of David, which he sang to the LORD concerning Cush of the tribe of Benjamin.
REB	.
TEV	A Prayer for Justice [HEBREW TITLE: A son which David sung to the LORD because of Cush, the Benjamite ]

Mostly literal renderings (with some occasional paraphrasing):

God's Word™	A Shiggaion by David; he sang it to the LORD about the [slanderous ] words of Cush, a descendant of Benjamin.
JPS (Tanakh)	Shiggaion of David, which he sang to the LORD, concerning Cush, a Benjamite.
NIV	.

Literal, almost word-for-word, renderings:

The Amplified Bible	An Ode of David, [probably] in a wild, irregular, enthusiastic strain, which he sang to the Lord, concerning the words of Cush, a Benjamite.
Albert Barnes (revised)	.
Complete Jewish Bible	.
Updated Emphasized Bible	An Ode [Or: "hymn." "A loud hymn, an enthusiastic song" —Dr. Benjamin Davies' Student's Hebrew Lexicon (Asher, 1872)] of David: which he sang until Yahweh, on account of the words of Cush the Benjamite.
Keil and Delitzsch (revised)	.
KJV (Scofield)	.
NASB	A Shiggaion of David, which he sang to the Lord concerning Cush, a Benjamite.
NKJV	.
NRSV	.
Owen's Translation	.
Young's Literal Translation	.
Young's Updated LT	"The Erring One," by David, that he sung to Jehovah concerning the words of Cush a Benjamite.

What is the gist of this verse? David sings a song about Cush the Benjamite (probably a reference to King Saul), whom he also calls the one who goes astray.

shiggâyôwn (שִׁיגְיֹוֹן) [pronounced shig-gaw-YOHN ]	to go astray, to reel ; and it is a reference to a wild, passionate song; transliterated Shiggaion	Possibly a noun	Strong's #7692 BDB #993

BDB calls this a doubtful word. It is found in Psalm 7 inscription and Habak. 3:1 (title).

Translation: A Shiggaion [possibly, a going astray]. This is a psalm about Saul's persecution of David (which will be justified in the third portion of this inscription). Saul began as a good and decent king, and he has gone astray; therefore, this is a psalm about his going astray and how David will pray for God to take him out (providing that he does not back off his persecution of David).

YHWH (יהוה) [pronunciation is possibly yhoh-WAH ]	transliterated variously as Jehovah, Yahweh, Y<sup>e</sup>howah	proper noun	Strong's #3068 BDB #217

Translation: For David, which he sings to Y<sup>e</sup>howah... Recall, that the lâmed preposition here means that, although David is the human author of these psalms, they are also for him; that is, he gets instruction and guidance from them as well. You see, there was limited revelation during the time of David; and we don't know if he had access to any portion of the Law at the time of his evading Saul. However, David did have access to God the Holy Spirit, Who guided him faithfully and who inspired the writing of psalms. His writing of these psalms instructed him just as they instruct us today. A pastor teacher examines Scripture and he is also benefitted by this examination in much the same way.

Translation: ...concerning the words of Cush the Benjamite. Now, there is no one contemporary to David named Cush. Although Cush usually refers to the land of Ethiopia, it can also refer to the first son of Ham, the father of Nimrod. This is a reference to the fallen line, so to speak; the line which gets off the track; the line which actively stands in opposition to God. There is no man named Cush who figures into the life of David. No one by that name is ever mentioned in Samuel or in the Chronicles during David's era. My feeling is that this is a reference to Saul, before David felt comfortable writing a psalm which reference Saul the king of Israel. However, this theory would necessitate for there to be no references to Saul in the psalms of David; or for these to be later references.

Therefore, we need to examine....

References to Saul in the Psalms of David

Psalm	Scripture	Commentary
Psalm 18:inscription	To the Overseer. By a servant of Jehovah, by David, who has spoken to Jehovah the words of this song in the day Jehovah delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul, and he says:...	This appears to be a psalm written after the fact; after David had been delivered from Saul and all of his enemies. It is likely that this was written after Saul was killed in battle; a theory further supported by the fact that this psalm is almost identical to 2Sam. 22.
Psalm 52:inscription	To the Overseer. An instruction, by David, in the coming in of Doeg the Edomite, and he declares to Saul, and says to him, "David came in unto the house of Abimelech."	Nothing derogatory here is said about Saul; David's problem is with Doeg, the Edomite.

References to Saul in the Psalms of David

Psalm	Scripture	Commentary
Psalm 54:inscription	To the Overseer with stringed instruments. An instruction, by David, in the coming in of the Ziphim, and they say to Saul, "Is not David hiding himself with us?"	Again, David does not speak negatively of Saul; he indicates that his problem is with the Ziphim.
Psalm 57:inscription	To the Overseer. "Destroy not." A secret treasure of David, in his fleeing from the face of Saul into a cave.	David refers to the incident when he spared Saul's life. However, there is no negative connotation of Saul in the title of this psalm.
Psalm 59:inscription	To the Overseer. "Destroy not," by David. —A secret treasure, in Saul's sending, and they watch the house to put him to death.	This is one of David's earliest psalms, and this also has the most negative reference to Saul. However, Saul's clear actions are named in the title; nothing else about Saul of a derogatory nature is said. Deliverance in this psalm is from the men whom Saul sent.

Now, let me restate the assertion: I believe that David, in this psalm, refers to Saul, and there is a very negative connotation from the very beginning. In v. 2, Cush is said to tear David's soul like a lion. Cush is called his enemy in v. 5. David calls for an end to come to the evil one in v. 9 (after asking for revenge upon his enemies in the previous few verses). From vv. 12–17, David refers to this enemy (in the masculine singular throughout), his evil ways, and how God will judge him. Therefore, David does not want to specifically name Saul in the title. Such a psalm could be seen as subversive, even though David is clearly asking for God to deliver him from this evil man (rather than asking God for the strength to destroy his enemy).

As an addendum, I need to add the following: as I study the Word of God, I occasionally come up with this theory or that; then I pursue the theory further, as I did here. In this case, I listed every place where David named Saul in the preface to a psalm. If I came up with one instance of a psalm where David called for God's vengeance to be taken on Saul directly, either in the inscription or in the body of the psalm, and if this instance occurred prior to Psalm 7, then most assuredly, this theory of mine, that Cush the Benjamite is Saul, would be unsupportable and at best, just a theory. When I begin these theories, I often have no idea how it will turn out. There are theories that I have had in the past which did not yield evidence in their favor. If I mention such a theory, then I also mention the Scripture which does not support it as well. You see, it is not my intention to get you to follow some specific set of doctrines because I want you to like me, revere me or to send me money. I do not need any of those things. My only intention is to best and most accurately explain God's Word and then let you do with it what you want.

Translation: O Y<sup>e</sup>howah my Elohim,... David calls out to God the Almighty, God the Creator, God the personal God. I was listening to the radio the other day, and one announcer spoke of the 300,000+ refugees who left Cambodia for Thailand when Pol Pot was massacring a million people. He pointed out that what was interesting was that the relief camps on the Cambodia-Thailand borders were run by Christians. Even though these were Buddhist refugees escaping to a 99% Buddhist country, no Buddhists were involved in helping out these refugees. Their philosophy was, these people are suffering because of what they did in a past life, and there is no reason to get involved. This does not mean that Thailand is not a religious country. There are temples all over, and people worshiping at these temples all the time. Several Buddhists who I talked to go to these temples 6 and 7 times every week. The announcer said there were no Muslims or Hindus there either. Of these major religions, only Christianity saw these people as created by God, as creations of value and worth, as people to be loved and helped. Therefore, only Christians were there to help. Christianity believes in a personal God, in a God who works through His Own; in a God Who does not forsake His people. It is to this God that David appeals.

châçâh (חָצַח) [pronounced khaw-SAW ]	to take refuge, and hence to trust [in]	1 st person singular, Qal perfect	Strong's #2620 BDB #340

Translation: ...I take refuge in You;... Recall that David is out in the desert wilderness being pursued by King Saul and an army of 3000. David soon learns that his only safety and security is in Jesus Christ. David is going to learn time after time while Saul pursues him that he—David—can trust in and depend upon God.

Literally, they mean from all... However, together, various literal translations give the following renderings: about all, of all . These are taken from over a half-dozen literal translations for 1Sam. 23:23.
râdaph (רָדַף) [pronounced raw-DAHf ]	pursuing, persecuting; pursuer, persecutor	masculine plural, Qal active participle; with the 1 st person singular suffix	Strong's #7291 BDB #922

Translation: ...deliver me from all who pursue me... Saul was relentless. Even though he would occasionally be persuaded not to pursue David, a few days or so later and his irrational hatred would flare up again. Saul pursued David and his 600 men with a crack army of 3000 hand-picked men (1Sam. 13:2 14:52).

nephesh (נֶפֶשׁ) [pronounced NEH-fesh]	soul, life, living being, desire	feminine singular noun with the 1 st person singular suffix	Strong's #5315 BDB #659

Translation: So that he does not tear [into pieces] like a lion my soul;... David says that he takes his refuge in God, and asks for deliverance, so that he (a veiled reference to Saul) does not tear his soul into pieces. Notice, the greatest fear is for David's soul here—his mentality, his emotions, his human life. Saul can tear David apart just as a lion would.

Also recall that David does not name Saul directly in this psalm; this psalm might be seen as evidence of treason. One could also make a case that David is attempting to incite others against Saul. However, that is not the case if Saul is never named.

Translation: Y<sup>e</sup>howah my Elohim, if I have done this;... We begin this verse like the first verse; David calls out to Jehovah God. In this verse and the next, he will set up a protasis—he will set up a few if's. Saul has accused David of several crimes, including sedition. David begins with a general statement here. He will follow this general statement with a list of three things. The idea is, if he has done any of these dishonorable things, then God should allow Saul to pursue and overtake him. However, the idea is, David has not done any of these things.

ʿâvel (עוֹל) [pronounced GAW-vel]	unrighteousness, injustice, unjust	masculine singular substantive	Strong's #5766 BDB #732
b <sup>e</sup> (בְּ) [pronounced b <sup>eh</sup> ]	in, into, at, by, near, on, with, before, in the presence of, upon, against, by means of, among, within	a preposition of proximity with the 2 nd person masculine singular suffix	Strong's# none BDB #88
kaph (כַּף) [pronounced kaf]	palm, hollow or flat of the hand, sole of the foot; bowl, spoon	masculine plural noun with the 1 st person singular suffix	Strong's #3709 BDB #496

These nouns are tied together because of the fact that they are concave.

Translation: ...if there [is] iniquity in my hands;... David continues with the very long protasis. If he has committed any wrongdoing—if there is found any iniquity in his hands. This is the first of three specific things that David mentions. Here, it is a specific crime or act of iniquity which David has personally done. An overt sin; and one which is punishable by his government.

ʾim (אִם) [pronounced eem]	if, yough; lo, behold; oh that, if only; when, since, yough when (or, if followed by a perfect tense which refers to a past event)	primarily an hypothetical particle	Strong's #518 BDB #49

shâlam (שָׁלַם) [pronounced shaw-LAHM]	to be whole (sound or safe); to be completed, to be finished; to have peace (or friendship) [with anyone], to be in a covenant of peace, to have a peace treaty with, to be at peace with	Qal active participle with the 1 st person singular suffix	Strong's #7999 BDB #1023
ra' (רָע) [pronounced rahg']	evil, bad, wicked; evil in appearance, deformed; disagreeable, displeasing; unhappy, unfortunate; sad	masculine singular noun	Strong's #7451 BDB #948

Translation: ...if I have rewarded the one [with whom] I am at peace with evil,... These two lines must be taken together, hence the wâw consecutive. It is what pulls them together. David is saying if he treats his friends like enemies and his enemies like friends...

Psalm 7:4b

Translation: ...and I plunder an enemy without cause [or, and then set free an oppressor without cause],... As you have noticed, there are several ways that this verb can be understood and several different interpretations. The key could be the wâw consecutive, which is rare in poetry and it ties these two phrases together into a poetical whole. David has those that he is at peace with, and he rewards them with evil; then there are his enemies, and he just sets them free without a reason, without a cause, rashly. What David does makes little or no sense. The other interpretation is, David attacks and plunders his enemies without provocation. Now, realize that all of this is predicated upon an if. We have not come to the then part of this conditional.

The key to understanding what David is saying here and why this is a good thing is, the enemy spoken of is Saul. Saul is David's enemy, but David has not plundered him; David has not stolen from him.

To sum up, this is what we have in the protasis...

A Summation of Psalm 7:3–4

1. The protasis of David's conditional is addressed to God. V. 3 begins with O Jehovah my God.
2. The protasis is based upon three if statements and one statement which begins with a wâw consecutive.
3. David is going to list some things that he could have done, and which would deserve retribution; however, he has not done any of these things.
4. The first if statement is If I have done this... What David is referring to will follow.
5. The first of the three things which David suggests that he has not done is, If I have one something wrong (or, if I have committed iniquity).
6. The second thing that David mentions is, If I have repaid a friend with evil; and this is the third if.
7. The third specific that David names is [...and \[if\] I have plundered an enemy without cause \[or provocation\]](#). This is a statement which may surprise us. However, just because the Philistines (or others) were enemies, this does not give David or anyone else the right to just attack them without provocation. However, that is not the sense of this final statement.
8. The enemy here would specifically be Saul.
9. David has done nothing to deserve the treatment which he has received. He has done nothing to deserve death from Saul.

A Summation of Psalm 7:3–4

Bear in mind, all of this is a protasis, for what follows.

Return to Chapter Outline

Before we move on, I want to indicate one misgiving I have with my own interpretation (and Keil and Delitzsch may be able to shed some light here). Generally in an if...then... statement, the wâw consecutive (or the wâw conjunction) begins the then portion of a conditional. However, this wâw consecutive seems to continue the protasis. So, structurally, I would have expected the wâw consecutive here to begin the then portion of this conditional; however, the thoughts expressed are more in keeping with the if portion of this conditional.

On the other hand, it is possible that I am trying to intensely to make this follow the western way of reasoning. Our logic and language owes a great deal to the Greeks, and their way of thinking. Also, I am a mathematician, so I like the clean breaks given in an if...then... statement. There is something which is clearly a protasis and something which is clearly an apodosis. This appeals to me on many different levels. But this may not be the way that David is reasoning here.

What we seem to have is three if statements followed by two then statements, with an interesting statement in between. Now, although this does not appeal to my way of thinking or reasoning, this might properly identify the structure of vv. 3–5 (which means, attempting to set this up as a simple apodosis/protasis statement would be misleading). Structure aside, still the meaning should clearly come out in the words. The intermediary statement, v. 4b-5a, sums up what David is accused of doing and what is actually occurring. David is accused of rebelling against Saul and Saul is in all actuality pursuing David.

nephesh (נֶפֶשׁ) [pronounced NEH-fesh]	soul, life, living being, desire	feminine singular noun with the 1 st person singular suffix	Strong's #5315 BDB #659

Translation: An enemy pursues my soul... The enemy that we are speaking of here is Saul. Saul is pursuing David as if David is some wild animal. The idea of soul here is David's very life. This is what Saul is after. As spoken of earlier, this is not a result of what David has possibly done wrong—this is occurring. It is a fact of his life. So, properly, this is not the then portion of the if...then... statement. This is part of an intermediary statement. The thought is, and so I have plundered Saul (David's adversary) without a cause and he is pursuing me, then... What will follow is two results which God should allow, if David has behaved without honor.

nâsag (נָשַׁג) [pronounced naw-SAHG]	to reach, to overtake	3 rd person masculine singular, Hiphil imperfect	Strong's #5381 BDB #673

Translation: ...and he overtakes [it];... Not only has Saul chased after David, which is the actual case, but he catches up to David here. The idea is, if David has done wrong, and it is true that Saul is chasing him, then God should allow Saul to catch up to him.

This portion of this psalm helps us to properly place it in time. Through this portion of v. 5 and the inscription, we know that this psalm was probably written after David's narrow escape from Saul at the end of 1Sam. 23. Given the more complex nature of the structure of vv. 3–5, however, I would not stake my life on this placement. However, I would dogmatically place this during the time that Saul was pursuing David (1Sam. 20–29).

chayyîym (חַיִּים) [pronounced khay-YEEM]	life, lives, living, being alive, having life, immortality, a long life, sustenance, sustaining life; refreshment; being vigorous; prosperity, welfare, happiness, living prosperously	masculine plural substantive with the 1 st person singular suffix	Strong's #2416 BDB #313

Translation: ...he treads my life to the earth Saul chased after David for much of this time period. Saul would sit in the palace and stew about things, then gather his army and take off after David. David's life was in danger almost at all times (from a human perspective).

What David is saying is, if he [David] has behaved dishonorably, then let Saul actually catch up to him in his pursuit and stomp David's life into the ground. David is willing to take the heat for doing wrong—primarily because he has not done wrong. David first offers up his life.

Translation: ...and he lays my honor in [lit., to] the dust. The disruption of David's life is only part of what Saul has done to him. David had great integrity and honor. Saul could have trusted David with his life (which we will see). Therefore, it is crushing for Saul to impugn David's honor and integrity. It can be very insulting and denigrating for a person of honor and integrity to have this impugned. David asks that, if he has behaved dishonorably toward Saul, then for his own honor and integrity to be ground into the dust.

Psalm 7:5e

Hebrew/Pronunciation	Common English Meanings	Notes/Morphology	BDB and Strong's Numbers
çelâh (חֲלֹה) [pronounced seh-LAW]	to lift up, to elevate, to exalt [with one's voice], to gather, to cast up [into a heap]; it is transliterated Selah	interjection	Strong's #5542 BDB #699

The verbal cognate is ḥâlâh (חֲלֹה) [pronounced saw-LAW], which means to lift up and toss aside. In the Piel stem, it means to weigh, which involves lifting up the object and placing it upon the balance. Gesenius gives the meaning of çelâh as rest, silence, pause, as çelâh does not necessarily have to match the meaning of its cognates. My thinking, which is a combination of BDB and Gesenius, is that the voices build up to a crescendo here, and, very likely, they are then followed by a vocal (but not necessarily, musical) silence. This would reconcile the points made by Gesenius and still make this compatible with its cognates.<sup>2</sup> Another very reasonable possibility is that the instruments are lifted up for a musical interlude. The NLT translation of Interlude is very good.

Translation: Selah! You may lose some of this in the translation, but David is very upset; Saul has made David's life miserable; he has sullied David's reputation. So, David reaches a crescendo here, and breaks for a musical interlude and to compose himself. There will be a big change of focus in the next portion of this psalm.

It will become clear in the following verse why David did not place Saul's name in the inscription. He could be accused of sedition had he done that.

Stand, Y<sup>e</sup>howah in Your anger;
be lifted up in an angry outbursts of my oppressors,
and rouse yourself unto me,
a judgment You have mandated.

Psalm
7:6

O Y<sup>e</sup>howah, rise up in Your anger; be lifted up by [or, against] the angry outbursts of my oppressors and be stirred up regarding me—
You have mandated justice!

Rise up in anger, O Jehovah; be lifted up and offended by the furious outbursts of my oppressors and be stirred up because of me—
You have mandated and promised justice!

Here is how others have translated this verse:

Early translations:

The Dead Sea Scrolls	.
The Latin Vulgate	.
The Peshitta	Arise, O LORD, in Your anger; lift up Yourself over the neck of my enemies; and make me alert in the judgment that You have commanded.

Young's Updated LT	Rise, O Jehovah, in Your anger, Be lifted up at the wrath of my adversaries, And awake You for me: Judgment You have commanded:...

What is the gist of this verse? David demands that God rise up and apply His perfect justice to this situation.

In the previous few verses, David had a rather complex conditional statement, where he asked for God to trample him down if he had done wrong (that is an oversimplification). However, here, David asks for God to apply his perfect justice and righteousness to the situation. God's perfect justice demands that Saul be punished for his words and actions.

Psalm 7:6a

Hebrew/Pronunciation	Common English Meanings	Notes/Morphology	BDB and Strong's Numbers
קוּמ (קוּמ) [pronounced koom ]	to stand, to rise up, to establish, to establish a vow, to cause a vow to stand, to confirm or to fulfill a vow	2 nd person masculine singular, Qal imperative; voluntative hê	Strong's #6965 BDB #877
יְהוָה (יהוה) [pronunciation is possibly yhoh-WAH ]	transliterated variously as Jehovah, Yahweh, Y<sup>e</sup>howah	proper noun	Strong's #3068 BDB #217
בֵּ (בְּ) [pronounced b<sup>eh</sup> ]	in, into, at, by, near, on, with, before, in the presence of, upon, against, by means of, among, within	a preposition of proximity	Strong's# none BDB #88
אַף (אֵף) [pronounced ahf ]	nose, nostril, but is also translated face, brow, anger	masculine singular noun with the 2 nd person masculine singular suffix	Strong's #639 BDB #60

Translation: O Y<sup>e</sup>howah, rise up in Your anger;... David now calls upon God to spring into action. He has been dealt with unfairly by Saul and Saul's army. So God is called to rise up in His anger. David uses the imperative mood. He is not kidding around here. What Saul has said and done is too much for David. Saul has kicked David out of his home, separated him from his wife, and has pursued him with an army of thousands. Saul's intention is to kill David, and David has done nothing to Saul.

Application: If you are a normal growing believer, you will have enemies. They will come out of nowhere and they will plot your destruction. This is a part of life. Now, I don't mean that people are irritated with you because you act like a total butthead; that is also a normal part of life, with no spiritual dynamics. But, assuming that you have not brought upon yourself the natural irritation of others, there will still be those who are out to get you. Many times, God will cause their machinations to come to naught, and many times, He will give them some free reign (less than you think, however). It is okay to do what David is doing here. He is praying for God to apply His justice to the situation.

Application: If you ask for God to apply His justice to your life and those around you, then make sure you are in the right. Don't ask for God to apply His perfect justice if you are in the wrong. Let's say you are having trouble at work; if you are doing a half-assed job and you pray for God to bring in His justice, you might just find yourself out of a job! Now, God may apply His justice and you are in the right, and you are still out of a job. Just give it time and trust His judgment. God knows what He is doing.

Application: You will note that, although David became king and Saul died in battle, this did not occur overnight. So, plan on letting God apply His perfect timing. David, while being pursued by Saul, is growing spiritually by leaps and bounds. The sneaky, underhanded, dishonest David of 1Sam. 21 is a far cry from the David we see in the subsequent chapters. What David is dealing with is accelerated spiritual growth, which comes from intense pressure. I hate stupid analogies, but allow me the diamond being pressed from a lump of coal; it is the intense pressure which causes that metamorphous. David is undergoing the same pressure. God is going to use David and his character will live on long past his lifetime. It is 3000 years later, and we still examine David's life. Who will study your life 3000 years from now?

Psalm 7:6b

Hebrew/Pronunciation	Common English Meanings	Notes/Morphology	BDB and Strong's Numbers
nâsâ' (נָשָׂא) [pronounced naw-SAW]	to lift up oneself, to be lifted up, to be elevated, (high); to be carried, to be carried away	3 rd person masculine singular, Niphal imperative	Strong's #5375 (and #4984) BDB #669
b <sup>e</sup> (בְּ) [pronounced b <sup>eh</sup> ]	in, into, at, by, near, on, with, before, in the presence of, upon, against, by means of, among, within	a preposition of proximity	Strong's# none BDB #88
tsârar (צָרַר) [pronounced tsaw-AHR]	oppressors, enemies, persecutors	masculine plural, Qal active participle with a 1 st person singular suffix	Strong's #6887 BDB #865

Translation: ...be lifted up by [or, against] the angry outbursts of my oppressors... Angry outbursts is in the construct form, so it belongs with oppressors. Furthermore, this is a plural noun, and God, when rising up against an enemy, only requires one angry outburst. However, Saul has pursued David again and again. He gets this furious anger built up, and then he goes after David. The plural is applied to Saul and his army. Saul has gotten a significant portion of Israel to turn against David. David is asking God to be lifted up either because of the angry outbursts of his enemies or against the angry outburst of his enemies.

Notice how this portion of v. 6 parallels the previous portion. God is to raise up in anger, and be lifted up when he observes the angry outbursts of David's oppressors (Saul and his army).

Application: It is acceptable to pray against your enemies; or to ask God to come down hard on them. You cannot do that yourself—you cannot take your personal revenge against your enemies—but God can. Now, you must allow God the time and room to work. You don't get to gossip about your enemies, nor do you even get to hate your enemies. They are simply acting in accordance with their old sin natures. How horrible it would be if God chose to give us our due for every sin we committed. But, rest assured, that God will take care of it. Sometimes you will get to see close up what God has done to your enemies; and sometimes, you won't know. But, rest assured, God will take care of the situation.

ʿel (לָא) [pronounced e/]	unto, in, into, toward, to, regarding, against	directional preposition (respect or deference may be implied); with the 1 st person singular suffix	Strong's #413 BDB #39

Translation: ...and be stirred up regarding me—... God is told by David to become active, to become stirred up or awakened regarding David and his situation. In David's situation, there was no clear light at the end of the tunnel. There was no time period when David knew that Saul was going to be taken care of. At this point in time, David could only ask God to deal with the situation. Here, he is asking to see some results. He is asking God to actually make a move against Saul. He is asking God not to ignore this situation anymore, but to be stirred up by it; to be upset by it.

Application: If you are the victim of injustice—and you will be—then pray to God to deal with the injustice. It is not up to you to go out and correct it. Notice that David nowhere decides, “I've had enough of this crap; Saul, I am coming for your head.” David asks for God to deal with his problem. He has suffered an injustice and God is the God of justice. Therefore, David has a right to ask that God be stirred up. Again, this is a legitimate approach on our part against our enemies. However, exacting personal revenge is not a legitimate approach.

Psalm 7:6d

Hebrew/Pronunciation	Common English Meanings	Notes/Morphology	BDB and Strong's Numbers
mîsh <sup>e</sup> pâṭ (וּדְשָׁפֵט) [pronounced mîsh<sup>e</sup>-PAWT ]	judgement, justice, a verdict rendered by a judge, a judicial decision, a judicial sentence, a verdict, the judgement of the court; the act of deciding a case, the place where a judgement is rendered	masculine singular noun	Strong's #4941 BDB #1048
tsâvâh (חִצְוָה) [pronounced tsaw-VAW ]	to commission, to mandate, to lay charge upon, to give charge to, charge, command, order	2 nd person masculine singular, Piel perfect	Strong's #6680 BDB #845

Translation: ...You have mandated justice! Here, David gives the rationale for his demands. God has mandated justice; therefore, David can call upon God to administer judgment against his enemies.

Application: As a believer—even as an unbeliever—you can expect to be the victim of injustice. Pray to God the straighten out the injustices brought against you. This may be a good time to examine the Doctrine of Personal Injustice.

And a company of peoples surround You and upon her to the height, You [should] return.

Psalm
7:7

The assembly of peoples surround You return to the Most High [or, on high] because of them [or, it].

The assembly of the peoples surround You; return to the Most High because of them.

You will note that I have many translations below, and have included several very literal renderings. This is a difficult verse to understand in its context, even though the existing Hebrew is relatively simple.

Here is how others have translated this verse:

Early translations:

The Dead Sea Scrolls	.
The Latin Vulgate	.
The Peshitta	Let the congregation of the peoples circle You about; and for their sakes therefore turn You on high.
The Septuagint	And the congregation of the nations will surround You; and for this cause do You return on high.

Thought-for-thought translations; paraphrases:

CEV	Make the nations come to you, as you sit on your throne above them all.
NAB	.
NJB	.
NLT	Gather the nations before you, Sit on your throne high above them.
REB	Let the peoples assemble around you; take your seat on high above them.
TEV	.

Mostly literal renderings (with some occasional paraphrasing):

God's Word™	Let an assembly of people gather around you. Take your seat high above them.
JPS (Tanakh)	Let the assembly of peoples gather about You, with You enthroned above, on high. [The meaning of the Hebrew is uncertain].
The Message	.
NIV	.

Literal, almost word-for-word, renderings:

The Amplified Bible	Let the assembly of the peoples be gathered about You, and return on high over it.
Albert Barnes (revised)	.
Complete Jewish Bible	.
Updated Emphasized Bible	<When the assembly of peoples gather around You> Then <above it—on high> do You return!
Keil and Delitzsch (revised)	.
KJV (Scofield)	.
MKJV	And the congregation of the peoples shall surround You; and over it You will return on high.
NASB	And let the assembly of the peoples encompass You; And over them return You on high.
NKJV	So the congregation of the peoples shall surround You; For their sakes, therefore, return on high.
NRSV	.

What is the gist of this verse? God will take a place about all those who come and gather around Him.

Psalm 7:7a
Hebrew/Pronunciation	Common English Meanings	Notes/Morphology	BDB and Strong's Numbers
w <sup>e</sup> (or v <sup>e</sup> ) (ו) [pronounced weh]	and	simple wâw conjunction	No Strong's # BDB #251
ʿêdâh (הַעֲדָה) [pronounced gâ-DAWH]	company, congregation, assembly, meeting; a company of people assembled together by appointment, a group of people acting together	feminine singular construct	Strong's #5712 BDB #417
çâbab (בָּבַב) [pronounced saw <sup>b</sup> -VAH <sup>b</sup> V]	to go about [in a place]; to surround	3 rd person feminine singular, Poel imperfect with a second person masculine singular suffix	Strong's #5437 BDB #685

Translation: The assembly of peoples surround You... The translation of this first half is fairly simple. On the other hand, the interpretation is relatively difficult. It appears as though we are suddenly in the midst of the Tribulation, and Jerusalem is surrounded by her enemies on all sides (as the term used here is generally for Gentiles). What David is doing here is drawing an analogy: David is surrounded by his enemies, for all intents and purposes. All of those who oppose him are motivated by evil, including some of the people that he has delivered. He has asked God to judge these people. This is a legitimate request because at one point in time, the nations of the world will surround Jerusalem, the holy city, and God will destroy these nations from on high.

However, the problem here is, how much does David know about the second advent? We have seen bits and pieces of previous psalms where David has alluded to the Messiah to Come, although it is not clear how much of this is God the Holy Spirit, and how much of it is David. We may need to go back and piece together what David has told us so far about the first and second advents. However, what was unknown to the Old Testament writers was the fact that there were two advents. The two advents of our Lord were generally treated as one, and that is what he was here. The judgment of the Gentile nations will occur at the end of the Tribulation during our Lord's second advent. His return to God the Father will be the first advent.

ʿal (עַל) [pronounced gahl ]	upon, beyond, on, against, above, over; on the ground of, because of, according to, on account of, on behalf of, concerning, besides, in addition to, together with, beyond, above, over, by on to, towards, to, against, in the matter of, concerning, as regards to	preposition of proximity with the 3 rd person feminine singular suffix	Strong's #5921 BDB #752
lâmed (ל) [pronounced lâ ]	to, for, towards, in regards to	preposition	No Strong's # BDB #510
mârôwm (מְרוֹם) [pronounced maw-ROHM ]	height, that which is high; the Most High; a lofty fortified place; high-mindedness, pride; collectively for leaders, princes	masculine singular noun with the definite article	Strong's #4791 BDB #928
shûwv (שׁוּב) [pronounced shoo<sup>b</sup>v ]	to return, to turn, to turn back, to reminisce, to restore something, to bring back something, to revive, to recover something, to make restitution	2 nd person masculine singular, Qal imperative with the voluntative hê	Strong's #7725 BDB #996

Translation: ...return to the Most High [or, on high] because of them [or, it]. You will note that my translation is different from most of the others, although this is a legitimate rendering of mârôwm. The 3rd person feminine singular suffix is a reference to the assembly of the peoples. Jesus Christ will return to the Father in order to judge this world. Recall what Jesus said to the Apostles in the upper room discourse: “But now I am going to Him Who sent Me, and not one of you is asking me, ‘Where are You going?’ But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your heart. but I tell you the truth, it is to your advantage that I go away; for if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you; but if I go, I will send Him to you. And He, when He comes, will convict the world concerning sin, and righteousness, and judgment; concerning sin, because they do not believe in Me; and concerning righteousness, because I go to the Father, and you no longer see Me; and concerning judgment, because the ruler of this world has been judged.” (John 16:5–11). Jesus Christ must die on behalf of all mankind and then return to the Father while He makes His enemies His footstool (Psalm 110:1). All judgment will be in the hands of our Lord (John 5:22, 27).

My thinking is that David had just the most rudimentary understanding of the first and second advent (and, like all Old Testament saints, did not necessarily distinguish them). What he did know is, God would eventually judge all of the gentile nations; and the God would return to God in order to judge the peoples. That is simply what we have here. It is an analogy; Jesus Christ will judge all of the unrighteous gentiles who surround Him (Jerusalem); and therefore, David can expect Jesus Christ to judge those unrighteous men who surround David. David is simply explaining why he can use the imperative with the Lord and expect God to judge his enemies—it is because God will judge all of the unrighteous.

I don't know if this bothers you that all of the Old Testament saints did not have a perfect understanding of the first and second advents; however, we have in Scripture what is known as progressive revelation. Not everything was revealed to man in the first few chapters of Genesis (although the book of Genesis is filled with the most important points of doctrine found throughout the entire Bible, as we would expect). What we had in the Old Testament is believers who were able to grasp that there was a first and second advent, but they were unable to distinguish or separate them, and they did not know all of the details of each advent.

Psalm 7:8a

Hebrew/Pronunciation	Common English Meanings	Notes/Morphology	BDB and Strong's Numbers
YHWH (יהוה) [pronunciation is possibly yhoh-WAH ]	transliterated variously as Jehovah, Yahweh, Y<sup>e</sup>howah	proper noun	Strong's #3068 BDB #217
dîyn (דִּיַן) [pronounced deen ]	to judge, to correctly evaluate, to evaluate, to condemn, to vindicate; to defend [the right of anyone]; to rule, to regulate; to contend with	3 rd person masculine singular, Qal imperfect	Strong's #1777 BDB #192

Although this is pretty consistently rendered as judge, I would prefer to go with correctly evaluate in the light of passages such as 1Sam. 2:10 Palm 54:1 Jer. 30:13. Judgement tends to carry with it a negative connotation, and this word seems to carry with it an honest evaluation, a correct determination of the situation at hand. Depending upon the outcome of the judgment, some translators render this vindicate, which puts the translator in the shoes of a commentator. That is to say, both judge and vindicate are correct renderings, but then a translator has to choose when to use one over the other. Correctly evaluate does not require that choice. Zodhiates gives this verb a much wider application, and says that it could mean to rule, to regulate, to sway, to judge, to defend, to punish, to litigate, to content with, to plead. In general, according to Zodhiates, dîyn means to govern, to rule over (whether judicially, legislatively or executively). Interestingly enough, this verb and its masculine noun cognate are not found in the book of Judges (although Zodhiates tells us that this word is identical in meaning to the verb and noun found in the book of Judges).

ʿam (אָם) [pronounced gahm ]	peoples, nations; tribes [of Israel]; relatives of anyone	masculine plural collective noun	Strong's #5971 BDB #766

This word can stand for Israel and for Gentiles in the very same context (Deut. 28:9–10). In general, when ʿam is in the singular, it tends to stand for Israel (Isa. 62:12 63:18 Dan. 8:24 12:7) or for a particular non-Israeli people (Ex. 21:8 Deut. 28:32 Ezek. 3:5). In the plural, 99% of the time it stands for Gentile nations (Deut. 4:19, 27 6:14 13:7) or for all nations of the earth (Deut. 7:6 32:8). Once and awhile it stands for Israel (Gen. 28:3 48:4 Judges 5:14 Hos. 10:14). In fact, the last two usages could refer to believers and unbelievers of Israel. It is pretty much equivalent to a race of men.

Translation: Y<sup>e</sup>howah, You judge the nations;... One thing which God does is He judge all people; all nations. David is fully aware of this. Jesus Christ will do this at the end of the Tribulation. This is a correct assumption which David makes. This also works into this psalm—David wants God to judge his enemies and evaluate him as well.

ʿal (עַל) [pronounced ʿahl]	upon, beyond, on, against, above, over, by, beside	preposition of proximity with the 1 st person singular suffix	Strong's #5921 BDB #752

Translation: ...judge me, O Y<sup>e</sup>howah, according to my righteousness and integrity [which are] upon me. David here asks for God to judge him as well. David has behaved with integrity and righteousness toward Saul and all of the others who have turned against him. He asks for God to evaluate him.

It is interesting the final preposition that David uses; he does not use the bêyth preposition, to say the righteousness and integrity which is in him. He uses ʿal, which refers to something which has been placed upon him or over him or beside him. David is not saying, "I am the most righteous man here on earth, with my own righteousness and integrity." His righteousness and integrity have been laid upon him or over him. David has some understanding that our righteousness is not our own but that which God has granted us or put upon us.

Now David also functioned during the Age of Israel, before the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, before we were placed into Jesus Christ. We are righteous before God because our righteousness is in Christ and we are in Christ. However, at that time, true righteousness was potential rather than actual; therefore, David speaks of it as being upon him.

Psalm 7:10a

Hebrew/Pronunciation	Common English Meanings	Notes/Morphology	BDB and Strong's Numbers
ʿal (לַעַל) [pronounced gahl ]	upon, beyond, on, against, above, over; on the ground of, because of, according to, on account of, on behalf of, concerning, besides, in addition to, together with, beyond, above, over, by on to, towards, to, against, in the matter of, concerning, as regards to	preposition of proximity with the 3 rd person feminine singular suffix	Strong's #5921 BDB #752
ʾēlōhîym (אֱלֹהִים) [pronounced el-o-HEEM ]	gods or God; transliterated Elohim	masculine plural noun with a 1 st person singular suffix	Strong's #430 BDB #43

Translation: My shield [or, protection] [is] on account of Elohim... It is a very odd preposition to be used here. It generally means upon or above. Few translators make an attempt to render this accurately. Young does, of course. Perhaps the picture is of God carrying our shield rather than being our shield? Given the problems of the other ancients translations at this point, it is reasonable to assume that there has been some corruption of the text. Or, just as probable, the translators of the LXX weren't sure what to do with this and the previous verse and they rearranged it like this.

Psalm 7:10b

Hebrew/Pronunciation	Common English Meanings	Notes/Morphology	BDB and Strong's Numbers
yâshaʿ (יַשֵּׁאֵ) [pronounced yaw-SHAHQ ]	deliverer, savior, saving; less literally, redeemer, rescuer, lifesaver, liberator	Hiphil participle	Strong's #3467 BDB #446
yâshâr (יַשְׁאֵר) [pronounced yaw-SHAWR ]	right, correct, accurate, lacking in contradictions, upright, straight, uniform, having internal integrity, even	masculine plural adjective construct	Strong's #3477 BDB #449
lêb (לֵב) [pronounced lay<sup>b</sup> ]	heart, inner man, mind, will, thinking	masculine plural noun	Strong's #3820 BDB #524

Translation: ...[Who] saves the right of heart. This is alliterative here. The verb and the construct sound very similar. Recall that our hearts of integrity are based upon our being in Christ. This is a reference to sanctification, and recall there are 3 types of sanctification. The first is being sanctified in Christ; the second is being sanctified in time; and the third is being sanctified in eternity.

Elohim judging righteously, and Elohim being indignant every day.

Psalm
7:11

Elohim judges righteously and every day, Elohim denounces [those with whom he is indignant].

God is the Righteous Judge and every day, God denounces those who are an affront to His perfect character.

Here is how others have translated this verse:

Early translations:

The Dead Sea Scrolls	.
The Latin Vulgate	.
The Peshitta	God is a righteous judge; yea He is not angry every day.
The Septuagint	God is a righteous judge, strong and patient, not inflicting vengeance every day.

Psalm 7:11a

Hebrew/Pronunciation	Common English Meanings	Notes/Morphology	BDB and Strong's Numbers
ʿĕlôhîym (אֱלֹהִים) [pronounced el-o-HEEM ]	gods or God; transliterated Elohim	masculine plural noun with a 1 st person singular suffix	Strong's #430 BDB #43
shâphaṭ (שָׁפַט) [pronounced shaw-FAHT ]	to judge, to condemn, to punish; to defend [especially the poor and oppressed], to defend [one's cause] and deliver him from his enemies; to rule, to govern	Qal active participle	Strong's #8199 BDB #1047
tsaddîyq (צַדִּיק) [pronounced tsahd-DEEK ]	just, righteous, justified; absolute or perfect righteousness [if applied to God]	adjective, often used as a substantive	Strong's #6662 BDB #843

This appears to function more like an adverb here, as it modifies the verb—however, a Qal active participle often acts like a noun.

Translation: Elohim judges righteously... David is giving reasons why he can call upon God to judge his enemies and to deliver him. First of all, God is a righteous judge. This is one of God's many functions. So David can call upon a righteous judge. Furthermore, this God can test the hearts and inclinations of all men (see v. 9).

Psalm 7:11b

Hebrew/Pronunciation	Common English Meanings	Notes/Morphology	BDB and Strong's Numbers
w <sup>e</sup> (or v <sup>e</sup> ) (ו) [pronounced weh ]	and, even, then; namely	simple wâw conjunction	No Strong's # BDB #251
ʿĕlôhîym (אֱלֹהִים) [pronounced el-o-HEEM ]	gods or God; transliterated Elohim	masculine plural noun with a 1 st person singular suffix	Strong's #430 BDB #43
zâ'am (צָאָם) [pronounced zaw-GAHM ]	to be indignant, to denounce [or disparage out of indignation], denounced [as an affront to God's perfect character]	Qal active participle	Strong's #2194 BDB #276
BDB gives the renderings to be angry with anyone [with the added dimension of punishment]; to curse . The definitions given are mine, based upon the usage of this verb elsewhere and its cognate.
b <sup>e</sup> (ב) [pronounced b<sup>eh</sup> ]	in, into, at, by, near, on, with, before, in the presence of, upon, against, by means of, among, within	a preposition of proximity	Strong's# none BDB #88
kôl (כֹּל) [pronounced kohl ]	every, each, all of, all; any of	masculine singular construct not followed by a definite article	Strong's #3605 BDB #481

Psalm 7:11b

Hebrew/Pronunciation	Common English Meanings	Notes/Morphology	BDB and Strong's Numbers
yôwm (יּוֹם) [pronounced yohm]	day; today (with a definite article)	masculine singular noun	Strong's #3117 BDB #398

Translation: ...and every day, Elohim denounces [those with whom he is indignant]. There are those with whom God is indignant and He denounces them or disparages them or He is indignant with them. Those are men who are an affront to His perfect character. Because of this, David can expect God to judge his enemies.

If not He turns back
His sword He sharpens
His bow he stepped on and so He sets her up.

Psalm
7:12

Unless He turns back,
He will sharpen His sword and He will bend His bow and He directs it [or, He sets it up].

If He does not turn back, He [God] will sharpen His sword and He will bend His bow and direct it.

Here is how others have translated this verse:

Early translations:

The Dead Sea Scrolls	.
The Latin Vulgate	.
The Peshitta	If He does not turn from His anger, He will whet His sword and bend His bow and make it ready.
The Septuagint	If you [all] do not repent, He will burnish His sword. He has bent His bow and has made it ready.

Psalm 7:12a
Hebrew/Pronunciation	Common English Meanings	Notes/Morphology	BDB and Strong's Numbers
אִם (אָ) [pronounced eem]	if, though; lo, behold; oh that, if only; when, since, though when (or, if followed by a perfect tense which refers to a past event)	primarily an hypothetical particle	Strong's #518 BDB #49
לֹא (אֵל or אֶל) [pronounced low]	not, no	negates the word or action that follows; the absolute negation	Strong's #3808 BDB #518
Together, אִם לֹא (אֵל אָ) [pronounced eem low] act as an emphatic affirmative and they mean if not, surely, unless .
שׁוּבָה (בּוּשׁ) [pronounced shoo <sup>b</sup> v]	to return, to turn, to turn back, to reminisce, to restore something, to bring back something, to revive, to recover something, to make restitution	3 rd person masculine singular, Qal imperfect	Strong's #7725 BDB #996

Translation: Unless He turns back,... What we have here is a metaphorical look at what God will do. The 3rd person masculine singular here could refer back to the wicked or it could refer to God. God has been mentioned most recently, and those how are evil are spoken of in the masculine plural (v. 9); therefore, it is mostly likely that this refers to God. Furthermore, in the next verse, these evil ones will be spoken of in the masculine plural, further indicating that this portion of v. 12 refers to God.

Psalm 7:12b
Hebrew/Pronunciation	Common English Meanings	Notes/Morphology	BDB and Strong's Numbers
חֶרֶב (חֶרֶב) [pronounced khe-RE <sup>BV</sup> ]	sword, knife, dagger; any sharp tool	feminine singular noun with the 3 rd person masculine singular suffix	Strong's #2719 BDB #352
אֶתַּשׁ (אֶתַּשׁ) [pronounced law-TASH]	to hammer, to sharpen, to whet	3 rd person masculine singular, Qal imperfect	Strong's #3913 BDB #538

Translation: ...He will sharpen His sword... If God does not turn back, if He does not change His mind, then He will sharpen His sword. Metaphorically, God is getting ready to attack the evil ones. This indicates that there is a bit of a pause before God takes revenge, as He is preparing Himself.

Psalm 7:12c
Hebrew/Pronunciation	Common English Meanings	Notes/Morphology	BDB and Strong's Numbers
qeshes (קֶשֶׁת) [pronounced KEH-sheth]	bow; bowman, archer; strength, power; rainbow	masculine singular noun with the 3 rd person masculine singular suffix	Strong's #7198 BDB #905
dârak <sup>e</sup> (דָּרַךְ) [pronounced daw-RAHK <sup>e</sup> ]	to march, to trample, to walk over, to walk; to bend [a bow—by stepping on it]; to enter [a place by walking]	3 rd person masculine singular, Qal imperfect	Strong's #1869 BDB #201

Translation: ...and He will bend His bow... God steps into his bow in order to string it.

Psalm 7:12d
Hebrew/Pronunciation	Common English Meanings	Notes/Morphology	BDB and Strong's Numbers
wa or va (ו) [pronounced wah]	and so, and then, then, and	wâw consecutive	No Strong's # BDB #253
kûwn (כּוּן) [pronounced koon]	to set up, to erect; to confirm, to establish, to maintain; to found [a city, the earth, etc]; to direct [e.g., arrows], metaphorically to turn one's mind [to anything]	3 rd person masculine singular, Pilel (Polel) imperfect; with the 3 rd person feminine singular suffix	Strong's #3559 BDB #465

The Polel is not acknowledged in Mansoor's book nor in Zodhiates; it comes from Owen's book. However, it is essentially the same as the Piel (intensive) stem with a different conjugation. It appears to be called the Pilel in Gesenius and BDB.

Translation: ...and He directs it [or, He sets it up]. The 3rd person feminine singular suffix here refers back to the bow, and God sets up His bow after stepping into it to bend and string it.

And to Him He stands up his manufactured goods of death
His arrows for their burning He makes.

Psalm
7:13

And He sets up for Himself His weapons of death
He makes His arrows for their burning [wounds] [or, to pursue them].

He sets up His weapons of death and He makes arrows to pursue them.

Here is how others have translated this verse:

Early translations:

The Dead Sea Scrolls	.
The Latin Vulgate	.
The Peshitta	He has also prepared for Himself the instruments of wrath; He pointed His arrows against the persecutor.
The Septuagint	And on it He has fitted the instruments of death; He has completed His arrows for the raging ones [or perhaps the persecuting ones ].

kûwn (כּוּן) [pronounced koon]	to erect (to stand up perpendicular), to set up, to establish, to prepare, to strengthen, to be stabilized	3 rd person masculine singular, Hiphil perfect	Strong's #3559 BDB #465
k <sup>e</sup> lîy (כֶּלִּי) [pronounced k <sup>e</sup> lee]	manufactured good, areifact, areicle, utensil, vessel, weapon, armor, furniture, receptacle; baggage, valuables	masculine plural construct	Strong's #3627 BDB #479
mâves (מוֹת) [pronounced MAW-veth]	death, death [as opposed to life], death by violence, a state of death, a place of death	masculine singular noun	Strong's #4194 BDB #560

Translation: And He sets up for Himself His weapons of death... Again, we are looking at this from a metaphorical standpoint. God sets up His weapons of death. For Him, as in the previous verse, must be interpreted that God sets these up for Himself, for His personal use.

This word is the poetical equivalent of 'âsâh (which means to do, to make, to construct). Strong's# 6213 BDB# 793)

Translation: ...He makes His arrows for their burning [wounds] [or, to pursue them]. Continuing the metaphore, God also makes arrows for the purpose of pursuing His enemies.

Behold, he writhes in pain iniquity, and he conceived misery, and he gave birth [to] a lie.

Here is how others have translated this verse:

Early translations:

The Dead Sea Scrolls	.
The Latin Vulgate	.
The Peshitta	Because the wicked has become corrupt and has conceived mischief and brought forth falsehood,...
The Septuagint	Behold, He has travailed with unrighteousness, He has conceived trouble, and He has brought forth iniquity.

Hebrew/Pronunciation	Common English Meanings	Notes/Morphology	BDB and Strong's Numbers
hinnêh (הִנֵּה) [pronounced hin-NAY]	lo, behold, or more freely, observe, look here, look, listen, pay attention, get this, check this out	interjection, demonstrative particle	Strong's #2009 (and #518, 2006) BDB #243
châ <sup>b</sup> val (חָבַל) [pronounced kha <sup>b</sup> -VAHL]	to conceive; to writhe in pain and sorrow; to bring forth	3 rd person masculine singular, Piel imperfect	Strong's #2254 BDB #286
ʿâven (אָוֵן) [pronounced AW-ven]	iniquity, misfortune which results from iniquity	masculine singular noun	Strong's #205 BDB #19

Translation: Listen, he writhes in pain [with] iniquity,... It is difficult to distinguish between these first two verbs; they both seem to mean to conceive, to be in labor with, to give birth to. Also, here, we appear to be speaking of a particular person, rather than evil men in general. Recall that this is David speaking and his primary enemy is Saul, so we may reasonably assume that David is now thinking of Saul.

What Saul is doing was conceived in iniquity; that is, all of his actions are based upon that which is wrong.

Translation: ...he has conceived [this in] misery... Saul is like a pregnant woman in great misery. Everything is difficult; everything is a major task. Saul exhausts himself in his pursuit of David; and there is no reason for it. Saul does not need to pursue David for any reason. Saul has brought all this labor upon himself for no reason.

Translation: ...and he gives birth [to] a lie. What comes out of all of this is a lie. Everything which Saul says about David is a lie.

He digs a pit

A pit he digs
and so he digs him [or, he searches for him] and so he falls in a pit of he has made.

Psalm
7:16

and he digs into it [or, he searches for him] and then he falls into [or, lies in] [the pit] he
